Subject: PERS 1 RETIREMENT

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

As of this year, for the first time, my retirement amount does not pay for my health insurance. (increased $95) My SS has not increased for 2 years, but in the meantime, the last 2 years, everything has went up concerning my home. The last 2+ years my investment are still 30% in the red.

This legislation does not separate the rich from the poor who need that 3% just to TRY and keep our heads above water.

If there is still a need to cut off our 3%, I hope you at least consider replacing it with a cola.

Please respond to my concerns. Thank you. Henry "Bud" Deccio, retired, 2004, age 72, nephew of former Senator Alex Deccio Yakima.
