MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, and without objection, all measures listed on the Introduction and First Reading report were referred to the committees as designated with the exceptions of Engrossed House Bill No. 2959 which was referred to the Committee on Trade & Economic Development and Senate Bill No. 6662 which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, and without objection, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Hasegawa moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 8724

By Senators Hasegawa, Hobbs, Nelson, Brown, Pearson, Dansel, Becker, Conway, Rolfes, and Dammeier

WHEREAS, On February 19, 1942, President Franklin D. Roosevelt issued Executive Order 9066 which authorized the military to forcibly remove and incarcerate more than 120,000 persons of Japanese ancestry from the West Coast, including 12,000 Japanese-American residents of Washington State; and

WHEREAS, The first Civilian Evacuation Order gave Japanese-Americans from Bainbridge Island less than one week to leave behind homes, personal belongings, farms, businesses, friends, and family and to report to hastily constructed detention centers like Camp Harmony on the grounds of the Western Washington Fair in Puyallup; and

WHEREAS, This drastic course of action allegedly aimed to prevent acts of espionage and sabotage by Japanese-Americans who were deemed untrustworthy and disloyal to the United States; and

WHEREAS, On March 23, 1943, the War Department organized a segregated unit of Japanese-Americans, many of whom reported for military duty from concentration camps surrounded by barbed wire in which they and their families were detained; and

WHEREAS, More than 12,000 volunteers responded to questions of their loyalty and patriotism by amassing a battle record unparalleled in United States military history; and

WHEREAS, Equally loyal and patriotic Japanese-Americans fought to protect our constitutional rights and liberties through dissent, like University of Washington student Gordon Hirabayashi who was arrested, convicted, and imprisoned for defying the military curfew on select civilians and refusing to evacuate when ordered; and

WHEREAS, In 1982, the Congressional Commission on Wartime Relocation and Internment of Civilians found "no military or security reason for the internment" of persons of Japanese ancestry, but determined it "was caused by racial prejudice, war hysteria, and a failure of political leadership"; and

WHEREAS, As a result of this travesty of justice, Japanese-Americans suffered immense economic loss of property and assets, immeasurable physical and psychological harm, and were deprived of their constitutional liberties without due process of law; and

WHEREAS, In 1976, President Gerald Ford rescinded Executive Order 9066 calling upon the American people to "resolve that this kind of action shall never again be repeated"; and

WHEREAS, The Washington State Legislature enacted token compensatory redress to forty state workers who lost their jobs due to their incarceration; and

WHEREAS, Congressman Mike Lowry of Washington State introduced H.R. 5977 to provide reparations and an apology to former Japanese-American internees, thus initiating a ten-year legislative quest that ended when President Ronald Reagan signed

THIRTY NINTH DAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2016

the Civil Liberties Act of 1988; and

WHEREAS, General Douglas MacArthur's chief of intelligence claimed, "The Nisei saved a million lives and shortened the war by two years";

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate pause to acknowledge the seventy-fourth anniversary of the signing of Executive Order 9066, to recognize and honor the heroism, sacrifice, patience, and loyalty of the Japanese-American World War II veterans, internees, and civil rights activists, and to remember the lessons and blessings of liberty and justice for all; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Nisei Veterans Committee, the Military Intelligence Service — Northwest Association, the Japanese American Citizens League, the Japanese Cultural & Community Center of Washington State, the Consul General of Japan in Seattle, and the Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience.

Senators Hasegawa and Rolfes spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8724.

The motion by Senator Hasegawa carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HASEGAWA

Senator Hasegawa: "Madame President, thank you. First I would like to express my appreciation to the Majority Floor Leader, Senator Fain, for scheduling this resolution. This is becoming an annual event in the legislature and I've brought this tradition, hopefully in perpetuity, over to this chamber from my previous experience across the rotunda. But I think it's really important for us to remember our history so that it's never repeated again as President Ford said. I know that my words here today are only heard by those who are in this chamber at this moment, because TVW does not broadcast the pro forma sessions. However, I think that this institution really draws its strength from the principles that we were founded on which is life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness and on the liberty piece, there wasn't injustice done to Americans of Japanese descent during World War II which the resolution properly states, but it was not so much, looking back at it now, a time of tragedy or remorse. It was a time of growth for our country and for my community because from that adversity we drew strength. And I've felt like I've developed a privileged life as a result of the struggles that my parents and family went through during World War II. And I feel compelled to continue the struggles that they ingrained within me, to fight for liberty and justice for all. To, number one, maintain the memory of the struggles that they went through and to be constantly vigilant. Number two, in the future to make sure that it does not ever happen again. So, in our current state of constant fear of the unknown and constant fear of possible wars and terrorism, I think that we have to reach back into our core values, life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, to make sure we are not just looking at it through our own eyes at our own lives, but looking at it to build a better country. Right now we are living in fear, and we have actually federal laws on the books, that allow the President to incarcerate people without due process, American citizens without due process, and that clause exists in legislation recently passed by Congress, in the National Defense Authorization Act. Which is why I have legislation to prohibit local law enforcement, state law enforcement, from enforcing that portion of the NDA within our state. Some people would say that these are radical concepts, that we have to protect ourselves. Well yes we need to protect ourselves, but not at all costs. We can't sacrifice our principles, what we as a people stand for just for our own private safety. That's not what we're all about. Many people have given their lives, their own personal safety, to protect that liberty. It's incumbent upon us to be vigilant into the future to make sure it never happens again. So I appreciate your considering this resolution and for its adoption."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ROLFES

Senator Rolfes: "Thank you Madame President. I also stand in support of this resolution as a proud member of the Bainbridge Island community, which is referenced in the memorial resolution. I would like to say a few words. The internment, the incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II started on Bainbridge Island from a small ferry dock. And a lot of people, a lot of amateur historians, believed that the first people rounded up by the military and taken to an unknown destiny, because we were a small isolated community, and it was a small pilot project for the military. I don't know that that's true, but for the ensuing years, the sixty plus years that have followed, or is it seventy at this point? The community has borne the scars of that event and the community has come together and tried to heal itself. We've established a memorial which is now part of the National Parks system called Nidoto Nai Yoni, 'Let it not happen again.' And it's a very beautiful memorial, very moving, and very historical, and it commemorates every Bainbridge Islander who was forcibly removed from their homes that day. And I want to say to Senator Hasegawa, and the folks in the gallery as well, that we are as a community, as a Bainbridge Island community, we are working to instill every child, every person, who grows up on Bainbridge Island with a shared memory of this event. And the shared value that this will never happen again. Just last winter, we had a community meeting at the memorial to celebrate diversity in our community and draw strength that was needed at that time against the national tide of anger towards Syrian refugees. And that was a community building experience, and it was a reminder to our youth that we can't let this happen again, that we have to stand up to fear and we need to be leaders and be brave even in times of threat and emergency. And I actually believe strongly that the memorial that we have and the support, the shared support for standing strong, enabled our Governor who is from Bainbridge Island, to be one of the only clear voices this winter on the need to be empathetic and the need to be fair and to not discriminate against refugees based on where they come from. And so I say to Senator Hasegawa and the folks in the gallery, that while not every American shares the family history of the incarceration, it is our goal on Bainbridge Island to make sure that future, all future generations know about it and share the vision and the values of liberty and freedom for all."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Senator Roach: "The Chair would like to entertain a motion to have the remarks today, on Senate Resolution No. 8724 spread upon the journal."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hasegawa and without objection, the remarks regarding the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8724 were spread upon the journal.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hasegawa: "I know that it's not proper to speak to folks in the gallery, and I was asked to bring a list for recognition, which I declined because I know that the President does not like to recognize people in the gallery on days of pro forma. There are members of the Japanese American Citizens League, Fife City Councilmember Bryan Yambe, and representatives of the Wing Luke Museum in the gallery. May I also expand on my point of personal privilege, that my daughter is among those up there, Toshiko Grace Hasegawa. Hey Toshi!"

MOTION

Senator Fain moved adoption of the following resolution:

By Senators Fain, Hobbs, Takko, King, Frockt, Hill, and Litzow

WHEREAS, This year marks the Auburn Area Chamber of Commerce's 90th year of service; established in 1925, this private not-for-profit works to serve Auburn area businesses and the community as a whole, working in partnership with over 475 local businesses, coordinated by the efforts of its Board of Directors and many dedicated employees and volunteers; and

WHEREAS, The Auburn Area Chamber of Commerce's motto states, "advancing business, promoting the economy, and connecting communities;" and since its commencement, the Chamber has led a variety of programs that help realize the organization's mission; and

WHEREAS, Each month the Chamber puts out a copy of its newsletter Connections, which serves as a source of information for businesses and community members on the happenings of the Chamber, advice on adapting to the changing business market, and announcements for upcoming Chamber events; and

WHEREAS, The Auburn Area Chamber of Commerce maintains a presence here in Olympia as a member of the South Sound Chambers of Commerce Legislative Coalition, which is composed of chambers from the South King County and North Pierce County region and collectively advocates to the Legislature on behalf of 3,262 businesses that employ 185,977 workers and generate over one hundred billion dollars in revenue;

WHEREAS, The Chamber's South Sound Leadership Institute takes business owners from the Auburn area and provides a rigorous eight-month training program in which participants are assigned group projects, speaking assignments, and participate in tours of local institutions; this year's participants have visited Auburn MultiCare Clinic, Sound Transit, Pediatric Interim Care in Kent, and our state's capitol here in Olympia; additionally, the South Sound Leadership Institute helps the Chamber support the Auburn community through a service-based project each year. In 2012, for example, program participants organized a backpack drive for the homeless with bags filled with essential items and information on local resources; and

WHEREAS, The Chamber takes a proactive approach to achieving their mission by developing the youth of the Auburn area, hosting a High School Career Conference each March focusing on giving students the skills needed to succeed as they enter the workforce, featuring mock interviews, keynote speeches on leadership, basic financial advice, and seminars on proper business decorum; and

WHEREAS, The Auburn Area Chamber of Commerce's 90-year commitment to the region's economic and community success is deserving of the highest praise this legislative body can offer;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize and honor the Auburn Area Chamber of Commerce for their contributions to the region's economic and community success, on the occasion of the Chamber's 90th year.

Senator Fain spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8701.

The motion by Senator Fain carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

At 12:26 p.m., on motion of Senator Fain, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 o'clock a.m., Friday, February 19, 2016.
