PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Braun, M.: "Thank you Mr. President. It is an honor to join you here today to do what I can to serve this state and to make sure everyone back home in our community is represented by the Senate. As many of you know, I am here this week while the other Senator Braun serves his country in the United States Navy Reserves. While I consider myself a political newbie, I've actually had a lot of practice. As John likes to say I have been filling in for him at home for three decades while he spends his time on active duty and frankly more than enough time up here in Olympia, so I guess I am filling in for him here in the Senate just to add the decades of old Braun family tradition. While we are discussing traditions don't worry I have been warned about the Senate's tradition that strongly suggests that I provide you with a gift during my first floor speech. So on your desk you will find a first aid kit, which I am providing not only as a Registered Nurse but to help you guys heal any bumps and bruises that you might have obtained during this long, challenging session(s). Enjoy, and you get a lollipop for being good."
