Spring 2010

Dear Friends,

As I write this we are at the tail-end of a special 30 day session. Normally in even-numbered years we come to Olympia in January and leave after 60 days with an agreed-upon budget. However, as many of you know, we are in the middle of unprecedented economic difficulties. Many of us have family and friends who have been laid off or had their hours cut, or are struggling to get by on a fixed income. Without the type of federal stimulus money we received last year, it has been challenging to find an agreed-upon state budget that staves off the deepest of cuts to our state-funded programs while minimally impacting families and businesses. But we will soon be wrapping up a budget that addresses our state's $2.8 billion shortfall.

This year it seemed I was visited by more constituents than ever from our district who traveled to Olympia to voice their concerns and hopes about policy bills and budget items. I truly appreciate the effort everyone made to take time out of their lives to come to the Capitol to weigh in on matters that affect all of us. I encourage you to make the trip to Olympia during our legislative session next year, if you haven't done so. It can give you a sense of how policies are made and how individuals can make a difference through their advocacy and testimony.

I hope you use this Government Guide to contact me and other elected officials regarding any issue being decided at the state level. As always, please let me know if you would like additional copies for yourself or an organization. I hope you have an enjoyable Spring.

Take care and feel free to let me know what's on your mind,

How To Become A Page For The Washington State Senate

The Washington State Legislature has one of the most comprehensive page programs in the United States. Hundreds of students throughout Washington State have an opportunity each year to take part in the legislative process. To serve as a page, a student must meet several requirements including:

- grade point average of C+ or better;
- be at least 14 years of age and have not reached 17th birthday;
- parent/guardian permission;
- principal/teacher permission;
- Social Security Number (must be obtained before paging appointment)

A page's work schedule generally goes from Sunday through Friday. The workday begins at 7:45 a.m. and usually ends at 5 p.m., although pages may work longer if the Senate is still in session. Page home facilities and transportation to and from the Capitol are available.

The uniform is a white blouse or shirt and black slacks or dress pants.

The Senate furnishes the pages with a jacket.

Senator Fairley and Keegan Monson pause in the middle of a busy day on the Senate floor during the recent 2010 Legislative Session. As a Senate Page, Keegan experienced the legislative process first-hand and met other students from all over the state. Keegan, age 15, is a student at Shorecrest High School in Shoreline. She is involved in numerous activities and sports at school and in the community.

The Washington State Legislature

Washington has two legislative bodies representing 49 legislative districts. The House of Representatives has 98 members serving two-year terms. The Senate has 49 members serving four-year terms. There are two representatives and one senator from each legislative district, comprised of approximately 120,000 people.

The Legislature convenes in regular session each year on the second Monday in January. The sessions are constitutionally limited to 105 days in odd-numbered years and 60 days in even-numbered years. Extraordinary or special sessions may be called by the governor, or the Legislature may call itself into session by a two-thirds vote of both houses.

Legislative Information on the Internet

In the interest of improved public access to legislative information, the Washington State Legislature has created the LEGInfo public access service on the Internet at www.leg.wa.gov. For information about a specific bill, visit <http://apps.leg.wa.gov/billinfo>.

How Your Voice Can Be Heard

Washington has one of the most open legislatures in the country. Every bill being considered by the House or Senate must be discussed in open hearings before the appropriate committees. The general public is welcome and encouraged to attend committee hearings and to testify on issues important to them.

While words like “hearing” and “testify” may sound forbidding, they simply represent your opportunity to come to Olympia and tell lawmakers how you feel before action is taken on an issue. For more information on how to testify effectively, write or call the Legislative Information Center at 360-786-7573.

You can leave messages supporting or opposing bills or issues for your state representatives, senator and the governor by calling the toll-free Legislative Hotline at 1-800-562-6000. The hotline is available Monday through Friday from 8 am to noon and 1 pm to 4:30 pm during the interim. During the legislative session they are available Monday through Friday from 8 am until 8 pm and Saturday from 9 am to 1 pm. When you call, be prepared to leave your name, address and telephone number so we can contact you after receiving your message.

It’s helpful if you are specific about the issue or bill you are calling about, and who should receive your message. If you don’t get through the first time, please try again.
