

Proposed Study Questions

Performance Measurement for Homelessness Programs

Suzanna Pratt | Rebecca Connolly

July 2018

Performance measurement

and

Reporting requirements

for homelessness programs

JLARC to evaluate:

Compliance with statutory requirements

- Performance measurement.
- Reporting.
- Quality award application (WSQA).

Performance based contracting at the Office of Homeless Youth

- Adequacy and effectiveness.

2017-19 Operating Budget, § 103

Shared responsibility for homelessness system performance measurement and reporting

Department of Commerce

Statewide strategic planning
System performance measures
State & federal reporting requirements

Office of Homeless Youth

Grants for programs that serve youth and young adults

Local Governments

Local strategic planning
Data collection & reporting
WSQA application (if applicable)

Service providers

Grant compliance
Performance data
WSQA application (if applicable)

STUDY QUESTIONS

To what extent have Commerce and others complied with statutory requirements for:

- Performance measurement
- Reporting
- Quality award applications

Has the Office of Homeless Youth:

- Improved how it measures performance since the 2017 JLARC study?
- Incorporated performance measurement in its grant management and contracting practices?

Next Steps

Preliminary Report

January 2019

Final Report

May 2019

Contact Us

Suzanna Pratt

suzanna.pratt@leg.wa.gov
360-786-5106

Rebecca Connolly

rebecca.connolly@leg.wa.gov
360-786-5175

Eric Thomas

eric.thomas@leg.wa.gov
360-786-5182

Research Analysts

Project Coordinator

