The Constitution of the United States of America

Preamble

We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

ARTICLE I

§ 1 LEGISLATIVE POWERS. All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a congress of the United States, which shall consist of a senate and house of representatives.

§ 2 HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, HOW CONSTITUTED, POWER OF IMPEACHMENT. The house of representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states, and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature.

No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included within this union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other person.* The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each state shall have at least one representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the state of New Hampshire shall be entitled to choose three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

When vacancies happen in the representation from any state, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

The house of representatives shall choose their speaker and other officers; and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

Note: Modified by Amendment XIV, Section 2.*

§ 3 THE SENATE, HOW CONSTITUTED, IMPEACHMENT TRIALS. The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one-third may be chosen every second year; and if vacancies happen by resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any state, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.*

No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained to the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state for which he shall be chosen.

The vice president of the United States shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote, unless they be equally divided.

The senate shall choose their other officers, and also a president pro tempore, in the absence of the vice president, or when he shall exercise the office of president of the United States.

The senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the president of the United States is tried the chief justice shall preside: and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States: but the party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

Note: Provisions changed by Amendment XVII.*

§ 4 ELECTION OF SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES. The times, places and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives, shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof; but the congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing senators.

The congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.*

*Note: Provision changed by Amendment XX, Section 2.

§ 5 QUORUM, JOURNALS, MEETINGS, ADJOURNMENTS. Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner, and under such penalties as each house may provide.

Each house may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member.

Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may in their judgment require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

Neither house, during the session of congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

§ 6 COMPENSATION, PRIVILEGES, DISABILITIES. The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall in all cases, except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States, shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

§ 7 PROCEDURE IN PASSING BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house of representatives; but the senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills.

Every bill which shall have passed the house of representatives and the senate, shall, before it become a law, be presented to the president of the United States; if he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his objections to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the president within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the congress by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

Every order, resolution, or vote to which the concurrence of the senate and house of representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment) shall be presented to the president of the United States; and before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two-thirds of the senate and house of representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

§ 8 POWERS OF CONGRESS. The congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises, to pay the debts and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States; but all duties, imposts and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;

To borrow money on the credit of the United States;

To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several states, and with the Indian tribes;

To establish an uniform rule of naturalization, and uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States;

To coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures;

To provide for the punishment of counterfeiting the securities and current coin of the United States;

To establish post offices and post roads;

To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries;

To constitute tribunals inferior to the supreme court;

To define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offences against the law of nations;

To declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water;

To raise and support armies, but no appropriation of money to that use shall be for a longer term than two years;

To provide and maintain a navy;

To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces;

To provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the union, suppress insurrections and repel invasions;

To provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining, the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States, reserving to the states respectively, the appointment of the officers, and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by congress;

To exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square)

as may, by cession of particular states, and the acceptance of congress, become the seat of the government of the United States, and to exercise like authority over all places purchased by the consent of the legislature of the state in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dock yards, and other needful buildings; and

To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this Constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

§ 9 LIMITATIONS UPON POWERS OF CONGRESS. The migration or importation of such persons as any of the states now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the congress prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

No bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed.

No capitation, or other direct, tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration hereinbefore directed to be taken.

No tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any state.

No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one state over those of another nor shall vessels bound to, or from, one state, be obliged to enter, clear, or pay duties in another.

No money shall be drawn from the treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time.

No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no person holding any office of profit or trust under them, shall, without the consent of the congress, accept of any present, emolument, office, or title, of any kind whatever, from any king, prince, or foreign state.

§ 10 RESTRICTIONS UPON POWERS OF STATES. No state shall enter into any treaty, alliance, or confederation; grant letters of marque and reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make any thing but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, or grant any title of nobility.

No state shall, without the consent of the congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws: and the net produce of all duties and imposts, laid by any state on imports or exports, shall be for the use of the treasury of the United States; and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and control of the congress.

No state shall, without the consent of congress, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops, or ships of war in time of peace, enter into any agreement or compact with another state, or with a foreign power, or engage in war, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II

§ 1 EXECUTIVE POWER, ELECTION, QUALIFICATIONS OF THE PRESIDENT. The executive power shall be vested in a president of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years, and, together with the vice president, chosen for the same term, be elected, as follows

Each state shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors, equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the state may be entitled in the congress: but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the house of representatives shall immediately choose by ballot one of them for president; and if no person have a majority, then from the five highest on the list the said house shall in like manner choose the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of the president, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the vice president. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the senate shall choose from them by ballot the vice president.*

The congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes; which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

No person except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States, at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the office of president; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice president, and the congress may by law provide for the case of removal, death, resignation or inability, both of the president and vice president, declaring what officer shall then act as president, and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a president shall be elected.

The president shall, at stated times, receive for his services, a compensation, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States, or any of them.

Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

Note: Provisions superseded by Amendment XII.*

§ 2 POWERS OF THE PRESIDENT. The president shall be commander in chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several states, when called into the actual service of the United States; he may require the opinion, in writing, of the principal officer in each of the executive departments, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, and he shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences against the United States, except in cases of impeachment.

He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the supreme court, and all other officers of the United States, whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law: but the congress may by law vest the appointment of such inferior officers, as they think proper in the president alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

The president shall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session.

§ 3 POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT. He shall from time to time give to the congress information of the state of the union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient; he may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses, or either of them, and in case of disagreement between them, with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper; he shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers; he shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed, and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

§ 4 IMPEACHMENT. The president, vice president and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of, treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

ARTICLE III

§ 1 JUDICIAL POWER, TENURE OF OFFICE. The judicial power of the United States, shall be vested in one supreme court, and in such inferior courts as the congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior courts, shall hold their offices during good behavior, and shall, at stated times, receive for their services, a compensation, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

§ 2 JURISDICTION. The judicial power shall extend to all cases, in law and equity, arising under this Constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority; to all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls; to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; to controversies to which the United States shall be a party; to controversies between two or more states; between a state and citizens of another state; between citizens of different states, between citizens of the same state claiming lands under grants of different states, and between a state, or the citizens thereof, and foreign states, citizens or subjects.*

In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a state shall be party, the supreme court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions, and under such regulations as the congress shall make.

The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury; and such trial shall be held in the state where the said crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any state, the trial shall be at such place or places as the congress may by law have directed.

Note: Clause changed by Amendment XI.*

§ 3 TREASON, PROOF AND PUNISHMENT. Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

The congress shall have power to declare the punishment of treason, but no attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture except during the life of the person attainted.

ARTICLE IV

§ 1 FAITH AND CREDIT AMONG STATES. Full faith and credit shall be given in each state to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other state. And the congress may by general laws prescribe the manner in which such acts, records and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.

§ 2 PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES, FUGITIVES. The citizens of each state shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states.

A person charged in any state with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice, and be found in another state, shall on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the state having jurisdiction of the crime.

No person held to service or labor in one state, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due.

§ 3 ADMISSION OF NEW STATES. New states may be admitted by the congress into this union; but no new state shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other state; nor any state be formed by the junction of two or more states, or parts of states, without the consent of the legislatures of the states concerned as well as of the congress.

The congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claims of the United States, or of any particular state.

§ 4 GUARANTEE OF REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT. The United States shall guarantee to every state in this union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and on application of the legislature, or of the executive (when the legislature cannot be convened) against domestic violence.

ARTICLE V

AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION. The congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this Constitution, or, on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this Constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the congress; provided that no amendment which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no state, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate.

ARTICLE VI

DEBTS, SUPREMACY, OATH. All debts contracted and engagements entered into, before the adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the confederation.

This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, any thing in the Constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding.

The senators and representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII

RATIFICATION AND ESTABLISHMENT. The ratification of the conventions of nine states, shall be sufficient for the establishment of this Constitution between the states so ratifying the same.

Done in convention by the unanimous consent of the states present the seventeenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven and of the independence of the United States of America the twelfth.* In witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names,

Amendments to the Constitution of the United States 1791–1971

AMENDMENT I

FREEDOM OF RELIGION, OF SPEECH, AND OF THE PRESS. Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

AMENDMENT II

RIGHT TO KEEP AND BEAR ARMS. A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed.

AMENDMENT III

QUARTERING OF SOLDIERS. No soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

AMENDMENT IV

SECURITY FROM UNWARRANTABLE SEARCH AND SEIZURE. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

AMENDMENT V

RIGHTS OF ACCUSED IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS. No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb, nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

AMENDMENT VI

RIGHT TO SPEEDY TRIAL, WITNESSES, ETC. In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

AMENDMENT VII

TRIAL BY JURY IN CIVIL CASES. In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury, shall be otherwise reexamined in any court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

AMENDMENT VIII

BAILS, FINES, PUNISHMENTS. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

AMENDMENT IX

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE. The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

AMENDMENT X

POWERS RESERVED TO STATES OR PEOPLE. The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people.*

Note:* The first ten amendments were all proposed by congress on September 25, 1789, and were ratified and adoption certified on December 15, 1791.

AMENDMENT XI

RESTRICTION OF JUDICIAL POWERS. The judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by citizens of another state, or by citizens or subjects of any foreign state.*

Note:* Proposed by congress on March 4, 1794, and declared ratified on January 8, 1798.

AMENDMENT XII

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT. The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for president and vice president, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as president, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as vice president, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as president, and of all persons voted for as vice president, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate; the president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted; the person having the greatest number of votes for president, shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as president, the house of representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. And if the house of representatives shall not choose a president whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the vice president shall act as president, as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the president. The person having the greatest number of votes as vice president, shall be the vice president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the senate shall choose the vice president; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of president shall be eligible to that of vice president of the United States.*

*Note: Proposed by congress on December 9, 1803; declared ratified on September 25, 1804; supplemented by Amendment XX.

AMENDMENT XIII

§ 1 ABOLITION OF SLAVERY. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

§ 2 POWER TO ENFORCE THIS ARTICLE. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.*

*Note: Proposed by congress on January 31, 1865; declared ratified on December 18, 1865.

AMENDMENT XIV

§ 1 CITIZENSHIP RIGHTS NOT TO BE ABRIDGED BY STATES. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

§ 2 APPORTIONMENT OF REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for president and vice president of the United States, representatives in congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such state, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridges, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such state.

§ 3 PERSONS DISQUALIFIED FROM HOLDING OFFICE. No person shall be a senator or representative in congress, or elector of president and vice president, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any state, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any state legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

§ 4 WHAT PUBLIC DEBTS ARE VALID. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any state shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

§ 5 POWER TO ENFORCE THIS ARTICLE. The congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.*

*Note: Proposed by congress on June 13, 1866; declared ratified on July 28, 1868.

AMENDMENT XV

§ 1 NEGRO SUFFRAGE. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

§ 2 POWER TO ENFORCE THIS ARTICLE. The congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.*

*Note: Proposed by congress on February 26, 1869; declared ratified on March 30, 1870.

AMENDMENT XVI

AUTHORIZING INCOME TAXES. The congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several states, and without regard to any census or enumeration.*

*Note: Proposed by congress on July 12, 1909; declared ratified on February 25, 1913.

AMENDMENT XVII

POPULAR ELECTION OF SENATORS. The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote. The electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislatures.

When vacancies happen in the representation of any state in the senate, the executive authority of such state shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: Provided, That the legislature of any state may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the Constitution.*

*Note: Proposed by congress on May 13, 1912; declared ratified on May 31, 1913.

AMENDMENT XVIII

§ 1 NATIONAL LIQUOR PROHIBITION. After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

§ 2 POWER TO ENFORCE THIS ARTICLE. The congress and the several states shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

§ 3 RATIFICATION WITHIN SEVEN YEARS. This article shall be inoperative until it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of the several states, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the congress.*

*Note: Proposed by congress on December 18, 1917; declared ratified on January 29, 1919. Repealed by Amendment XXI.

AMENDMENT XIX

WOMAN SUFFRAGE. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.*

*Note: Proposed by congress on June 4, 1919; declared ratified on August 26, 1920.

AMENDMENT XX

§ 1 TERMS OF OFFICE. The terms of the president and vice president shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of senators and representatives at noon on the 3rd day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

§ 2 TIME OF CONVENING CONGRESS. The congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3rd day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

§ 3 DEATH OF PRESIDENT ELECT. If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the president, the president elect shall have died, the vice president elect shall become president. If a president shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the president elect shall have failed to qualify, then the vice president elect shall act as president until a president shall have qualified; and the congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a president elect nor a vice president elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as president, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a president or vice president shall have qualified.

§ 4 ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT. The congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the house of representatives may choose a president whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the senate may choose a vice president whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

§ 5 Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the 15th day of October following the ratification of this article.

§ 6 This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission.*

*Note: Proposed by congress on March 2, 1932; declared ratified on February 6, 1933.

AMENDMENT XXI

§ 1 NATIONAL LIQUOR PROHIBITION REPEALED. The eighteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States is hereby repealed.

§ 2 TRANSPORTATION OF LIQUOR INTO "DRY" STATES. The transportation or importation into any states, territory, or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violation of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited.

§ 3 This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by conventions in the several states, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the congress.*

*Note: Proposed by congress on February 20, 1933; declared ratified on December 5, 1933.

AMENDMENT XXII

§ 1 TERMS OF OFFICE OF PRESIDENT. No person shall be elected to the office of the president more than twice, and no person who held the office of president, or acted as president, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected president, shall be elected to the office of president more than once. But this article shall not apply to any person holding the office of president when this article was proposed by the congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of president, or acting as president, during the term within which this article becomes operative from holding the office of president or acting as president during the remainder of such term.

§ 2 WHEN OPERATIVE. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission to the states by the congress.*

*Note: The certificate of adoption of the 22nd Amendment, dated March 1, 1951, was published in the Federal Register of March 3, 1951.

AMENDMENT XXIII

§ 1 GRANTING REPRESENTATION IN THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE TO THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. The District constituting the seat of Government of the United States shall appoint in such manner as the Congress may direct:

A number of electors of President and Vice President equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives in Congress to which the District would be entitled if it were a State, but in no event more than the least populous State; they shall be in addition to those appointed by the States, but they shall be considered, for the purposes of the election of President and Vice President, to be electors appointed by a State; and they shall meet in the District and perform such duties as provided by the twelfth article of amendment.

*Note: The certificate of adoption of the 23rd Amendment, dated April 3, 1961, is published in Vol. 26 Federal Register, page 2808.

AMENDMENT XXIV

§ 1 FAILURE TO PAY TAX SHALL NOT DENY RIGHT TO VOTE FOR FEDERAL OFFICES. The right of citizens of the United States to vote in any primary or other election for President or Vice President, for electors for President or Vice President, or for Senator or Representative in Congress, shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State by reason of failure to pay any poll tax or other tax.

§ 2 LEGISLATION. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.*

*Note: The certificate of adoption of the 24th Amendment dated February 4, 1964, is published in Vol. 29 Federal Register, page 1715.

AMENDMENT XXV

§ 1 SUCCESSION TO THE PRESIDENCY. In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice President shall become President.

§ 2 SUCCESSION TO THE VICE PRESIDENCY. Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice President, the President shall nominate a Vice President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

§ 3 PRESIDENT'S DECLARATION OF INABILITY TO DISCHARGE POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICE. Whenever the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary, such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Vice President as Acting President.

§ 4 DETERMINATION THAT PRESIDENT IS UNABLE TO DISCHARGE THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICE. Whenever the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive departments or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting President.

Thereafter, when the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that no inability exists, he shall resume the powers and duties of his office unless the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive department or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit within four days to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office.

Thereupon Congress shall decide the issue, assembling within forty-eight hours for that purpose if not in session. If the Congress, within twenty-one days after receipt of the latter written declaration, or, if Congress is not in session, within twenty-one days after Congress is required to assemble, determines by two-thirds vote of both Houses that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall continue to discharge the same as Acting President; otherwise, the President shall resume the powers and duties of his office.*

*Note: The certificate of adoption of the 25th Amendment dated February 23, 1967 is published in Vol. 32 Federal Register, page 3287.

AMENDMENT XXVI

§ 1 EXTENDING THE RIGHT TO VOTE TO CITIZENS EIGHTEEN YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER.

The right of citizens of the United States, who are eighteen years of age or older, to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of age.

*Note: The certificate of adoption of the 26th Amendment dated July 5, 1971 is published in Vol. 36, No. 130, Federal Register, page 12726.

ORGANIC ACT

Reviser's note: The original organic act to establish the territorial government of Washington is set forth herein. Note however that the organic act was completely revised in the 1873 United States Revised Statutes which was enacted by Congress in 1874. The 1873 United States Revised Statutes contained a construction section (Title 74, section 5596) which has been construed by the United States Supreme Court (Dwight v. Merrit, 140 U.S. 213, 11 S.Ct. 768, 35 L.Ed. 45) as abrogating or repealing all prior statutes on the same subject as those revised. As the twenty-one sections of the original organic act were rewritten and combined with the organic acts of other territories the disposition of the original sections into the 1873 United States Revised Statutes cannot be traced with absolute accuracy. A schedule of the disposition of the original organic act sections based on the audit contained in the United States Revised Statutes of 1878, is published herein following section 21 of the organic act.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH THE TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT OF WASHINGTON.

(Approved March 2, 1853.) [10 U.S. Statutes at Large, c 90 p 172.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That from and after the passage of this act, all that portion of Oregon Territory lying and being south of the forty-ninth degree of north latitude, and north of the middle of the main channel of the Columbia River, from its mouth to where the forty-sixth degree of north latitude crosses said river, near Fort Wallawalla, thence with said forty-sixth degree of latitude to the summit of the Rocky Mountains, be organized into and constitute a temporary government by the name of the Territory of Washington: Provided, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to affect the authority of the government of the United States to make any regulation respecting the Indians of said Territory, their lands, property, or other rights, by treaty, law, or otherwise, which it would have been competent to the government to make if this act had never been passed: Provided further, That the title to the land, not exceeding six hundred and forty acres, now occupied as missionary stations among the Indian tribes in said Territory, or that may have been so occupied as missionary stations prior to the passage of the act establishing the Territorial government of Oregon, together with the improvements thereon, be, and is hereby, confirmed and established to the several religious societies to which said missionary stations respectively belong.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the executive power and authority in and over said Territory of Washington shall be vested in a governor, who shall hold his office for four years, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed by the President of the United States. The governor shall reside in said Territory, shall be the commander-in-chief of the militia thereof, shall perform the duties and receive the emoluments of Superintendent of Indian Affairs; he may grant pardons and remit fines and forfeitures for offenses against the laws of said Territory, and respites for offenses against the laws of the United States until the decision of the President can be made known thereon; he shall commission all officers who shall be appointed to office under the laws of the said Territory, where, by law, such commissions shall be required, and shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That there shall be a Secretary of said Territory, who shall reside therein, and hold his office for four years, unless sooner removed by the President of the United States; he shall record and preserve all the laws and proceedings of the Legislative Assembly hereinafter constituted, and all the acts and proceedings of the Governor in his Executive department; he shall transmit one copy of the laws and journals of the Legislative Assembly within thirty days after the end of each session, and one copy of the executive proceedings and official correspondence semi-annually, on the first days of January and July in each year, to the President of the United States, and two copies of the laws to the President of the Senate and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, for the use of Congress. And in case of the death, removal, resignation, or absence of the Governor from the Territory, the Secretary shall be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to execute and perform all the powers and duties of the Governor during such vacancy or absence, or until another Governor shall be duly appointed and qualified to fill such vacancy.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Legislative power and authority of said Territory shall be vested in a Legislative Assembly, which shall consist of a Council and House of Representatives. The Council shall consist of nine members, having the qualifications of voters, as hereinafter prescribed, whose term of service shall continue three years. Immediately after they shall be assembled, in consequence of their first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the members of Council of the first class, shall be vacated at the expiration of the first year, of the second class at the expiration of the second year, and of the third class at the expiration of the third year, so that one third may be chosen every year; and if vacancies happen, by resignation or otherwise, the same shall be filled at the next ensuing election. The House of Representatives shall, at its first session, consist of eighteen members, possessing the same qualifications as prescribed for members of the Council, and whose term of service shall continue one year. The number of representatives may be increased by the Legislative Assembly, from time to time, in proportion to the increase of qualified voters: Provided, That the whole number shall never exceed thirty. An apportionment shall be made, as nearly equal as practicable, among the several counties or districts, for the election of the Council and Representatives, giving to each section of the Territory representation in the ratio of its qualified voters, as nearly as may be. And the members of the Council and of the House of Representatives shall reside in, and be inhabitants of, the district or county or counties, for which they may be elected, respectively. Previous to the first election, the Governor shall cause a census or enumeration of the inhabitants and qualified voters of the several counties and districts of the Territory to be taken, by such persons, and in such mode, as the Governor shall designate and appoint; and the persons so appointed shall receive a reasonable compensation therefor. And the first election shall be held at such time and places, and be conducted in such manner, both as to the persons who shall superintend such election and the returns thereof, as the Governor shall appoint and direct; and he shall at the same time declare the number of members of the Council and House of Representatives to which each of the counties or districts shall be entitled under this act; and the Governor shall, by his proclamation, give at least sixty days' previous notice of such apportionment, and of the time, places, and manner of holding such election. The persons having the highest number of legal votes in each of said council districts for members of the Council shall be declared by the Governor to be duly elected to the Council, and the persons having the highest number of legal votes for the House of Representatives shall be declared by the Governor to be duly elected members of said House: Provided, That in case two or more persons voted for shall have an equal number of votes, and in case a vacancy shall otherwise occur in either branch of the Legislative Assembly, the Governor shall order a new election; and the persons thus elected to the Legislative Assembly shall meet at such place, and on such day, within ninety days after such elections, as the Governor shall appoint. But thereafter the time, place, and manner of holding and conducting all elections by the people, and the apportioning the representation in the several counties or districts to the Council and House of Representatives, according to the number of qualified voters, shall be prescribed by law, as well as the day of the commencement of the regular session of the Legislative Assembly: Provided, That no session in any one year shall exceed the term of sixty days, except the first session, which shall not exceed one hundred days.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That every white male inhabitant above the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of said Territory at the time of the passage of this act, and shall possess the qualifications hereinafter prescribed, shall be entitled to vote at the first election, and shall be eligible to any office within the said Territory; but the qualifications of voters and of holding office at all subsequent elections shall be such as shall be prescribed by the Legislative Assembly: Provided, That the right of suffrage and of holding office shall be exercised only by citizens of the United States above the age of twenty-one years, and those above that age who shall have declared on oath their intention to become such, and shall have taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States and the provisions of this act: And provided further, That no officer, soldier, seaman, mariner, or other person in the army or navy of the United States, or attached to troops in the service of the United States, shall be allowed to vote in said Territory, by reason of being on service therein, unless said Territory is, and has been for the period of six months, his permanent domicil: Provided further, That no person belonging to the army or navy of the United States shall ever be elected to or hold any civil office or appointment in said Territory.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the Legislative power of the Territory shall extend to all rightful subjects of legislation not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States. But no law shall be passed interfering with the primary disposal of the soil; no tax shall be imposed upon the property of the United States; nor shall the lands or other property of nonresidents be taxed higher than the lands or other property of residents. All the laws passed by the Legislative Assembly shall be submitted to the Congress of the United States, and, if disapproved, shall be null and of no effect: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to give power to incorporate a bank or any institution with banking powers, or to borrow money in the name of the Territory, or to pledge the faith of the people of the same for any loan whatever, directly or indirectly. No charter granting any privileges of making, issuing, or putting into circulation any notes or bills in the likeness of bank-notes, or any bonds, scrip, drafts, bills of exchange, or obligations, or granting any other banking powers or privileges, shall be passed by the Legislative Assembly; nor shall the establishment of any branch or agency of any such corporation, derived from other authority, be allowed in said Territory; nor shall said Legislative Assembly authorize the issue of any obligation, scrip, or evidence of debt, by said Territory, in any mode or manner whatever, except certificates for service to said Territory. And all such laws, or any law or laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall be utterly null and void. And all taxes shall be equal and uniform; and no distinctions shall be made in the assessments between different kinds of property, but the assessments shall be according to the value thereof. To avoid improper influences, which may result from intermixing in one and the same act such things as have no proper relation to each other, every law shall embrace but one object, and that shall be expressed in the title.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That all township, district, and county officers not herein otherwise provided for, shall be appointed or elected in such manner as shall be provided by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Washington.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That no member of the Legislative Assembly shall hold or be appointed to any office which shall have been created, or the salary or emoluments of which shall have been increased while he was a member, during the term for which he was elected and for one year after the expiration of such term; but this restriction shall not be applicable to members of the first Legislative Assembly; and no person holding a commission or appointment under the United States shall be a member of the Legislative Assembly, or shall hold any office under the government of said Territory.

Organic Act

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the judicial power of said Territory shall be vested in a supreme court, district courts, probate courts, and in justices of the peace. The supreme court shall consist of a chief justice and two associate justices, any two of whom shall constitute a quorum, and who shall hold a term at the seat of government of said Territory annually, and they shall hold their offices during the period of four years, and until their successors shall be appointed and qualified. The said Territory shall be divided into three judicial districts, and a district court shall be held in each of said districts by one of the justices of the supreme court, at such times and places as may be prescribed by law; and the said judges shall, after their appointments, respectively reside in the districts which shall be assigned them. The jurisdiction of the several courts herein provided for, both appellate and original, and that of the probate courts and of justices of the peace, shall be as limited by law: Provided, That justices of the peace shall not have jurisdiction of any case in which the title to land shall in any wise come in question, or where the debt or damages claimed shall exceed one hundred dollars; and the said supreme and district courts, respectively shall possess chancery as well as common-law jurisdiction. Each district court, or the judge thereof, shall appoint its clerk, who shall also be the register in chancery, and shall keep his office at the place where the court may be held. Writs of error, bills of exception, and appeals, shall be allowed in all cases from the final decisions of said district court to the supreme court under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; but in no case removed to the supreme court shall trial by jury be allowed in said court. The supreme court, or the justices thereof, shall appoint its own clerk, and every clerk shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court for which he shall have been appointed. Writs of error, and appeals from the final decisions of said supreme court, shall be allowed, and may be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States, in the same manner and under the same regulations as from the circuit court of the United States, where the value of the property, or the amount in controversy, to be ascertained by the oath or affirmation of either party, or other competent witness, shall exceed two thousand dollars, and in all cases where the constitution of the United States, or acts of Congress, or a treaty of the United States, is brought in question; and each of the said district courts shall have and exercise the same jurisdiction in all cases arising under the constitution of the United States and the laws of said Territory, as is vested in the circuit and district courts of the United States; writs of error and appeal in all such cases shall be made to the supreme court of said Territory the same as in other cases. Writs of error, and appeals from the final decisions of said supreme court, shall be allowed and may be taken to the supreme court of the United States in the same manner as from the circuit courts of the United States, where the value of the property, or the amount in controversy, shall exceed two thousand dollars, and each of said district courts shall have and exercise the same jurisdiction, in all cases arising under the constitution and laws of the United States, as is vested in the circuit and district courts of the United States; and also of all cases arising under the laws of said Territory, and otherwise. The said clerk shall receive in all such cases the same fees which the clerks of the district courts of the Territory of Oregon receive for similar services.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That there shall be appointed an attorney for said Territory, who shall continue in office for four years and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed by the President, and who shall receive the same fees and salary as is provided by law for the attorney of the United States for the Territory of Oregon. There shall also be a marshal for the Territory appointed, who shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed by the President, and who shall execute all processes issuing from the said courts when exercising their jurisdiction as circuit and district courts of the United States; he shall perform the duties, be subject to the same regulation and penalties, and be entitled to the same fees, as are provided by law for the marshal of the Territory of Oregon, and shall, in addition, be paid the sum of two hundred dollars annually as a compensation for extra services.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the governor, secretary, chief justice, and associate justices, attorney, and marshal, shall be nominated, and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appointed by the President of the United States. The governor and secretary to be appointed as aforesaid shall, before they act as such, respectively take an oath or affirmation before the district judge, or some justice of the peace in the limits of said Territory duly authorized to administer oaths and affirmations by the laws in force therein, or before the chief justice or some associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, to support the constitution of the United States, and faithfully to discharge the duties of their respective offices, which said oaths, when so taken, shall be certified by the person before whom the same shall have been taken; and such certificates shall be received and recorded by the said Secretary among the executive proceedings; and the Chief Justice and Associate Justices, and all other civil officers in said Territory, before they act as such, shall take a like oath or affirmation before the said Governor or Secretary, or some judge or justice of the peace of the Territory who may be duly commissioned and qualified, which said oath or affirmation shall be certified and transmitted, by the person taking the same, to the Secretary, to be by him recorded as aforesaid; and afterwards, the like oath or affirmation shall be taken, certified and recorded in such manner and form as may be prescribed by law. The Governor shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars as Governor, and fifteen hundred dollars as Superintendent of Indian affairs. The Chief Justice, and Associate Justices, shall each receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars. The Secretary shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars. The said salaries shall be paid quarterly, from the dates of the respective appointments, at the Treasury of the United States; but no such payment shall be made until said officers shall have entered upon the duties of their respective appointments. The members of the legislative assembly shall be entitled to receive three dollars each per day during their attendance at the session thereof, and three dollars each for every twenty miles' travel in going to and returning from said sessions, estimated according to the nearest usually traveled route. And a chief clerk, one assistant clerk, a sergeant-at-arms, and door-keeper, may be chosen for each house; and the chief clerk shall receive five dollars per day, and the said other officers three dollars per day, during the session of the legislative assembly; but no other officers shall be paid by the United States: Provided, That there shall be but one session of the legislative assembly annually, unless, on an extraordinary occasion, the Governor shall deem it expedient and proper to call the legislature together. There shall be appropriated, annually, the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, to be expended by the Governor, to defray the contingent expenses of the Territory, including the salary of a clerk of the executive department; and there shall also be appropriated, annually, a sufficient sum to be expended by the Secretary of the Territory, and upon an estimate to be made by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, to defray the expenses of the legislative assembly, the printing of the laws, and other incidental expenses; and the Governor and Secretary of the Territory shall, in the disbursement of all moneys intrusted to them, be governed solely by the instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and shall, semi-annually, account to the said Secretary for the manner in which the aforesaid sums of money shall have been expended; and no expenditure, to be paid out of money appropriated by Congress, shall be made by said legislative assembly for objects not specially authorized by the acts of Congress making the appropriations, nor beyond the sums thus appropriated for such objects.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the laws now in force in said Territory of Washington, by virtue of the legislation of Congress in reference to the Territory of Oregon, which have been enacted and passed subsequent to the first day of September, eighteen hundred and forty-eight, applicable to the said Territory of Washington, together with the legislative enactments of the Territory of Oregon, enacted and passed prior to the passage of, and not inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, and applicable to the said Territory of Washington, be, and they are hereby, continued in force in said Territory of Washington until they shall be repealed or amended by future legislation.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That the legislative assembly of the Territory of Washington shall hold its first session at such time and place in said Territory as the Governor thereof shall appoint and direct; and at said first session, or as soon thereafter as they shall deem expedient, the legislative assembly shall proceed to locate and establish the seat of government for said Territory, at such place as they may deem eligible; which place, however, shall thereafter be subject to be changed by said legislative assembly. And the sum of five thousand dollars, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, is hereby appropriated and granted to said Territory of Washington, to be there applied by the Governor to the erection of suitable buildings at the seat of government.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That a delegate to the House of Representatives of the United States, to serve for the term of two years, who shall be a citizen of the United States, may be elected by the voters qualified to elect members of the legislative assembly, who shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges as have been heretofore exercised and enjoyed by the delegates from the several other Territories of the United States to the House of Representatives, but the delegate first elected shall hold his seat only during the term of the Congress to which he shall be elected. The first election shall be held at such time, and places, and be conducted in such manner, as the Governor shall appoint and direct; of which, and the time, place, and manner of holding such elections, he shall give at least sixty days' notice by proclamation; and at all subsequent elections the time, places, and manner of holding the elections shall be prescribed by law. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be declared by the Governor to be duly elected, and a certificate thereof shall be given accordingly. The delegate from said Territory shall be entitled to receive the same per diem compensation and mileage at present allowed the delegate from the Territory of Oregon.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That all suits, complaints, process, and proceedings, civil and criminal, at law and in chancery, and all indictments and informations, which shall be pending and undetermined in the courts established within and for said Territory of Oregon, by act of Congress, entitled "An act to establish the territorial government of Oregon," approved August fourteen, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, wherein the venue in said cases, suits at law, or in chancery, or criminal proceedings, shall be included within the limits hereinbefore declared and established for the said Territory of Washington; then, and in that case, said actions so pending in the Supreme or Circuit Courts of the Territory of Oregon shall be, by the clerks of said courts, duly certified to the proper courts of said Territory of Washington; and thereupon said causes shall, in all things concerning the same, be proceeded on, and judgments, verdicts, decrees, and sentences rendered thereon, in the same manner as if the said Territory had not been divided. All bonds, recognizances, and obligations of every kind whatsoever, valid, under the existing laws, within the limits of said Territory of Oregon, shall be held valid under this act, and all crimes and misdemeanors against the laws now in force within the said limits of the Territory of Washington may be prosecuted, tried, and punished in the courts established by this act, and all penalties, forfeitures, actions, and causes of action, may be recovered and enforced, under this act, before the Supreme and Circuit Courts established by this act as aforesaid: Provided, That no right of action whatever shall accrue against any person for any act done in pursuance of any law heretofore passed by the legislative assembly of the Territory of Oregon, and which may be declared contrary to the Constitution or laws of the United States.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That all justices of the peace, constables, sheriffs, and other judicial and ministerial officers, who shall be in office within the limits of said Territory of Washington when this act shall take effect, shall be and they are hereby authorized and required to continue to exercise and perform the duties of their respective offices, as officers of said Territory, until they or others shall be duly elected or appointed, and qualified, to fill their places in the manner herein directed, or until their offices shall be abolished.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That the sum of five thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended, by and under the direction of the Governor of Washington, in the purchase of a library, to be kept at the seat of government for the use of the Governor, legislative assembly, Judges of the Supreme Court, secretary, marshal, and Attorney of said Territory, and such other persons, and under such regulations, as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That until otherwise provided for by law, the Governor of said Territory may define the judicial districts of said Territory, and assign the judges who may be appointed for said Territory to the several districts, and also appoint the times and places for holding courts in the several counties or subdivisions in each of said judicial districts by proclamation, to be issued by him; but the legislative assembly, at their first or any subsequent session, may organize, alter, or modify such judicial districts, and assign the judges, and alter the times and places of holding the courts, as to them shall seem expedient and proper.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That all officers to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for the Territory of Washington, who, by virtue of the provisions of any law of Congress now existing, or which may be enacted during the present session of Congress, are required to give security for moneys that may be intrusted with them for disbursement, shall give such security at such time and place, and in such manner, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That when the lands in said Territory shall be surveyed under the direction of the Government of the United States preparatory to bringing the same into market or otherwise disposing thereof, sections numbered sixteen and thirty-six in each township in said Territory shall be, and the same are hereby, reserved for the purpose of being applied to common schools in said Territory. And in all cases where said sections sixteen and thirty-six, or either or any of them, shall be occupied by actual settlers prior to survey thereof, the County Commissioners of the counties in which said sections so occupied as aforesaid are situated, be, and they are hereby, authorized to locate other lands to an equal amount in sections, or fractional sections, as the case may be, within their respective counties, in lieu of said sections so occupied as aforesaid.

SEC. 21. And be it further enacted, That the Territory of Oregon and the Territory of Washington shall have concurrent jurisdiction over all offenses committed on the Columbia River, where said river forms a common boundary between said Territories.

ENABLING ACT

AN ACT to provide for the division of Dakota into two States and to enable the people of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington to form constitutions and State governments and to be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States, and to make donations of public lands to such States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the inhabitants of all that part of the area of the United States now constituting the Territories of Dakota, Montana, and Washington, as at present described, may become the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington, respectively, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. The area comprising the Territory of Dakota shall, for the purposes of this act, be divided on the line of the seventh standard parallel produced due west to the western boundary of said Territory; and the delegates elected as hereinafter provided to the constitutional convention in districts north of said parallel shall assemble in convention, at the time prescribed in this act, at the city of Bismarck; and the delegates elected in districts south of said parallel shall, at the same time, assemble in convention at the city of Sioux Falls.

SEC. 3. That all persons who are qualified by the laws of said Territories to vote for representatives to the legislative assemblies thereof, are hereby authorized to vote for and choose delegates to form conventions in said proposed States; and the qualifications for delegates to such conventions shall be such as by the laws of said Territories respectively persons are required to possess to be eligible to the legislative assemblies thereof; and the aforesaid delegates to form said conventions shall be apportioned within the limits of the proposed States, in such districts as may be established as herein provided, in proportion to the population in each of said counties and districts, as near as may be, to be ascertained at the time of making said apportionments by the persons hereinafter authorized to make the same, from the best information obtainable, in each of which districts three delegates shall be elected, but no elector shall vote for more than two persons for delegates to such conventions; that said apportionments shall be made by the governor, the chief-justice, and the secretary of said Territories; and the governors of said Territories shall, by proclamation, order an election of the delegates aforesaid in each of said proposed States, to be held on the Tuesday after the second Monday in May, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, which proclamation shall be issued on the fifteenth day of April, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine; and such election shall be conducted, the returns made, and the result ascertained, and the certificates to persons elected to such convention issued in the same manner as is prescribed by the laws of the said Territories regulating elections therein for Delegates to Congress; and the number of votes cast for delegates in each precinct shall also be returned. The number of delegates to said conventions respectively shall be seventy-five; and all persons resident in said proposed States, who are qualified voters of said Territories as herein provided, shall be entitled to vote upon the election of delegates, and under such rules and regulations as said conventions may prescribe, not in conflict with this act, upon the ratification or rejection of the constitutions.

SEC. 4. That the delegates to the conventions elected as provided for in this act shall meet at the seat of government of each of said Territories, except the delegates elected in South Dakota, who shall meet at the city of Sioux Falls, on the fourth day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and, after organization, shall declare, on behalf of the people of said proposed States, that they adopt the Constitution of the United States; whereupon the said conventions shall be, and are hereby, authorized to form constitutions and States governments for said proposed states, respectively. The constitutions shall be republican in form, and make no distinction in civil or political rights on account of race or color, except as to Indians not taxed, and not be repugnant to the Constitution of the United States and the principles of the Declaration of Independence. And said conventions shall provide, by ordinances irrevocable without the consent of the United States and the people of said States:

First. That perfect toleration of religious sentiment shall be secured and that no inhabitant of said States shall ever be molested in person or property on account of his or her mode of religious worship.

Second. That the people inhabiting said proposed States do agree and declare that they forever disclaim all right and title to the unappropriated public lands lying within the boundaries thereof, and to all lands lying within said limits owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribes; and that until the title thereto shall have been extinguished by the United States, the same shall be and remain subject to the disposition of the United States, and said Indian lands shall remain under the absolute jurisdiction and control of the Congress of the United States; that the lands belonging to citizens of the United States residing without the said States shall never be taxed at a higher rate than the lands belonging to residents thereof; that no taxes shall be imposed by the States on lands or property therein belonging to or which may hereafter be purchased by the United States or reserved for its use. But nothing herein, or in the ordinances herein provided for, shall preclude the said States from taxing as other lands are taxed any lands owned or held by any Indian who has severed his tribal relations, and has obtained from the United States or from any person a title thereto by patent or other grant, save and except such lands as have been or may be granted to any Indian or Indians under any act of Congress containing a provision exempting the lands thus granted from taxation; but said ordinances shall provide that all such lands shall be exempt from taxation by said States so long and to such extent as such act of Congress may prescribe.

Third. That the debts and liabilities of said Territories shall be assumed and paid by said States, respectively.

Fourth. That provision shall be made for the establishment and maintenance of systems of public schools, which shall be open to all the children of said States, and free from sectarian control.

SEC. 5. That the convention which shall assemble at Bismarck shall form a constitution and State government for a State to be known as North Dakota, and the convention which shall assemble at Sioux Falls shall form a constitution and State government for a State to be known as South Dakota: Provided, That at the election for delegates to the constitutional convention in South Dakota, as hereinbefore provided, each elector may have written or printed on his ballot the words "For the Sioux Falls constitution," or the words "Against the Sioux Falls constitution," and the votes on this question shall be returned and canvassed in the same manner as for the election provided for in section three of this act; and if a majority of all votes cast on this question shall be "for the Sioux Falls constitution" it shall be the duty of the convention which may assemble at Sioux Falls, as herein provided, to resubmit to the people of South Dakota, for ratification or rejection at the election hereinafter provided for in this act, the constitution framed at Sioux Falls and adopted November third, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and also the articles and propositions separately submitted at the election, including the question of locating the temporary seat of government, with such changes only as relate to the name and boundary of the proposed State, to the re-apportionment of the judicial and legislative districts, and such amendments as may be necessary in order to comply with the provisions of this act; and if a majority of the votes cast on the ratification or rejection of the constitution shall be for the constitution irrespective of the articles separately submitted, the State of South Dakota shall be admitted as a State in the Union under said constitution as hereinafter provided; but the archives, records, and books of the Territory of Dakota shall remain at Bismarck, the capital of North Dakota, until an agreement in reference thereto is reached by said States. But if at the election for delegates to the constitutional convention in South Dakota a majority of all the votes cast at that election shall be "against the Sioux Falls constitution", then and in that event it shall be the duty of the convention which will assemble at the city of Sioux Falls on the fourth day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, to proceed to form a constitution and State government as provided in this act the same as if that question had not been submitted to a vote of the people of South Dakota.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the constitutional convention of North Dakota and South Dakota to appoint a joint commission, to be composed of not less than three members of each convention, whose duty it shall be to assemble at Bismarck, the present seat of government of said Territory, and agree upon an equitable division of all property belonging to the Territory of Dakota, the disposition of all public records, and also adjust and agree upon the amount of the debts and liabilities of the Territory, which shall be assumed and paid by each of the proposed States of North Dakota and South Dakota; and the agreement reached respecting the Territorial debts and liabilities shall be incorporated in the respective constitutions, and each of said States shall obligate itself to pay its proportion of such debts and liabilities the same as if they had been created by such States respectively.

SEC. 7. If the constitutions formed for both North Dakota and South Dakota shall be rejected by the people at the elections for the ratification or rejection of their respective constitutions as provided for in this act, the Territorial government of Dakota shall continue in existence the same as if this act had not been passed. But if the constitution formed for either North Dakota or South Dakota shall be rejected by the people, that part of the Territory so rejecting its proposed constitution shall continue under the Territorial government of the present Territory of Dakota, but shall, after the State adopting its constitution is admitted into the Union, be called by the name of the Territory of North Dakota or South Dakota, as the case may be: Provided, That if either of the proposed States provided for in this act shall reject the constitution which may be submitted for ratification or rejection at the election provided therefor, the governor of the Territory in which such proposed constitution was rejected shall issue his proclamation reconvening the delegates elected to the convention which formed such rejected constitution, fixing the time and place at which said delegates shall assemble; and when so assembled they shall proceed to form another constitution or to amend the rejected constitution, and shall submit such new constitution or amended constitution to the people of the proposed State for ratification or rejection, at such time as said convention may determine; and all the provisions of this act, so far as applicable, shall apply to such convention so reassembled and to the constitution which may be formed, its ratification or rejection, and to the admission of the proposed State.

SEC. 8. That the constitutional convention which may assemble in South Dakota shall provide by ordinance for resubmitting the Sioux Falls constitution of eighteen hundred and eighty-five, after having amended the same as provided in section five of this act, to the people of South Dakota for ratification or rejection at an election to be held therein on the first Tuesday in October, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine; but if said constitutional convention is authorized and required to form a new constitution for South Dakota it shall provide for submitting the same in like manner to the people of South Dakota for ratification or rejection at an election to be held in said proposed State on the said first Tuesday in October. And the constitutional conventions which may assemble in North Dakota, Montana, and Washington shall provide in like manner for submitting the constitutions formed by them to the people of said proposed States, respectively, for ratification or rejection at elections to be held in said proposed States on the said first Tuesday in October. At the elections provided for in this section the qualified voters of said proposed States shall vote directly for or against the proposed constitutions, and for or against any articles or propositions separately submitted. The returns of said elections shall be made to the secretary of each of said Territories, who with the governor and chief-justice thereof, or any two of them, shall canvass the same; and if a majority of the legal votes cast shall be for the constitution the governor shall certify the result to the President of the United States, together with a statement of the votes cast thereon and upon separate articles or propositions, and a copy of said constitution, articles, propositions, and ordinances. And if the constitutions and governments of said proposed States are republican in form, and if all the provisions of this act have been complied with in the formation thereof, it shall be the duty of the President of the United States to issue his proclamation announcing the result of the election in each, and thereupon the proposed States which have adopted constitutions and formed State governments as herein provided shall be deemed admitted by Congress into the Union under and by virtue of this act on an equal footing with the original States from and after the date of said proclamation.

SEC. 9. That until the next general census, or until otherwise provided by law, said States shall be entitled to one Representative in the House of Representatives of the United States, except South Dakota, which shall be entitled to two; and the Representatives to the fifty-first Congress, together with the governors and other officers provided for in said constitutions, may be elected on the same day of the election for the ratification or rejection of the constitutions; and until said State officers are elected and qualified under the provisions of each constitution and the States, respectively, are admitted into the Union, the Territorial officers shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices in each of said Territories.

SEC. 10. That upon the admission of each of said States into the Union sections numbered sixteen and thirty-six in every township of said proposed States, and where such sections, or any parts thereof, have been sold or otherwise disposed of by or under the authority of any act of Congress, other lands equivalent thereto, in legal subdivisions of not less than one-quarter section, and as contiguous as may be to the section in lieu of which the same is taken, are hereby granted to said States for the support of common schools, such indemnity lands to be selected within said States in such manner as the legislature may provide, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections embraced in permanent reservations for national purposes shall not, at any time, be subject to the grants nor to the indemnity provisions of this act, nor shall any lands embraced in Indian, military, or other reservations of any character be subject to the grants or to the indemnity provisions of this act until the reservation shall have been extinguished and such lands be restored to, and become a part of, the public domain.

SEC. 11. That all lands herein granted for educational purposes shall be disposed of only at public sale, and at a price not less than ten dollars per acre, the proceeds to constitute a permanent school fund, the interest of which only shall be expended in the support of said schools. But said lands may, under such regulations as the legislatures shall prescribe, be leased for periods of not more than five years, in quantities not exceeding one section to any one person or company; and such land shall not be subject to pre-emption, homestead entry, or any other entry under the land laws of the United States, whether surveyed or unsurveyed, but shall be reserved for school purposes only.

Reviser's note: Section 11 has at various times been amended by Congress as follows:

(1) August 11, 1921:

AN ACT To amend an Act approved February 22, 1889, entitled "An Act to provide for the division of Dakota into two States and to enable the people of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington to form constitutions and State governments, and to be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States, and to make donations of public lands to such States."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 11 of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the division of Dakota into two States and to enable the people of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington to form constitutions and State governments, and to be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States, and to make donations of public lands to such States," approved February 22, 1889, be, and the same hereby is, amended by adding the following: Provided, however, That the State may, upon such terms as it may prescribe, grant such easements or rights in such lands as may be acquired in, to, or over the lands of private properties through proceedings in eminent domain: And provided further, That any of such granted lands found, after title thereto has vested in the State, to be mineral in character, may be leased for a period not longer than twenty years upon such terms and conditions as the legislature may prescribe. [42 U.S. Statutes at Large, c 61 p 158. Approved, August 11, 1921.]

(2) May 7, 1932:

AN ACT To amend section 11 of the Act approved February 22, 1889 (25 Stat. 676), relating to the admission into the Union of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 11 of the Act approved February 22, 1889 (25 Stat. 676), be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

"That all lands granted by this Act shall be disposed of only at public sale after advertising—tillable lands capable of producing agricultural crops for not less than $10 per acre and lands principally valuable for grazing purposes for not less than $5 per acre. Any of the said lands may be exchanged for other lands, public or private, of equal value and as near as may be of equal area, but if any of the said lands are exchanged with the United States such exchange shall be limited to surveyed, nonmineral, unreserved public lands of the United States within the State.

"The said lands may be leased under such regulations as the legislature may prescribe; but leases for grazing and agricultural purposes shall not be for a term longer than five years; mineral leases, including leases for exploration for oil and gas and the extraction thereof, for a term not longer than twenty years; and leases for development of hydroelectric power for a term not longer than fifty years.

Enabling Act

"The State may also, upon such terms as it may prescribe, grant such easements or rights in any of the lands granted by this Act, as may be acquired in privately owned lands through proceedings in eminent domain: Provided, however, That none of such lands, nor any estate or interest therein, shall ever be disposed of except in pursuance of general laws providing for such disposition, nor unless the full market value of the estate or interest disposed of, to be ascertained in such manner as may be provided by law, has been paid or safely secured to the State.

"With the exception of the lands granted for public buildings, the proceeds from the sale and other permanent disposition of any of the said lands and from every part thereof, shall constitute permanent funds for the support and maintenance of the public schools and the various State institutions for which the lands have been granted. Rentals on leased lands, interest on deferred payments on lands sold, interest on funds arising from these lands, and all other actual income, shall be available for the maintenance and support of such schools and institutions. Any State may, however, in its discretion, add a portion of the annual income to the permanent funds.

"The lands hereby granted shall not be subject to preemption, homestead entry, or any other entry under the land laws of the United States whether surveyed or unsurveyed, but shall be reserved for the purposes for which they have been granted."

SEC. 2. Anything in the said Act approved February 22, 1889, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act is hereby repealed. [47 U.S. Statutes at Large c 172 p 150. Approved, May 7, 1932.]

(3) June 25, 1938:

AN ACT To increase the period for which leases may be made for grazing and agricultural purposes of public lands donated to the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington by the Act of February 22, 1889, as amended.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That so much of the second paragraph of section 11 of the Act relating to the admission into the Union of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington, approved February 22, 1889, as amended, as reads "but leases for grazing and agricultural purposes shall not be for a term longer than five years", is amended to read as follows: "but leases for grazing and agricultural purposes shall not be for a term longer than ten years". [52 U. S. Statutes at Large c 700 p 1198. Approved, June 25, 1938.]

(4) April 13, 1948:

AN ACT To authorize the States of Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Washington to lease their State lands for production of minerals, including leases for exploration for oil, gas, and other hydrocarbons and the extraction thereof, for such terms of years and on such conditions as may be from time to time provided by the legislatures of the respective States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled: That the second paragraph of section 11 of the Act relating to the admission into the Union of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington, approved February 22, 1889, as amended, is amended to read as follows: "Except as otherwise provided herein, the said lands may be leased under such regulations as the legislature may prescribe. Leases for the production of minerals, including leases for exploration for oil, gas, and other hydrocarbons and the extraction thereof, shall be for such term of years and on such conditions as may be from time to time provided by the legislatures of the respective States; leases for grazing and agricultural purposes shall be for a term not longer than ten years; and leases for development of hydroelectric power shall be for a term not longer than fifty years." [62 U.S. Statutes at Large c 183 p 170. Approved April 13, 1948.]

(5) June 28, 1952:

AN ACT To authorize each of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, and Washington to pool moneys derived from lands granted to it for public schools and various State institutions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the fourth paragraph of section 11 of the Act relating to the admission into the Union of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington, approved February 22, 1889, as amended (47 Stat. 151), is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, each of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, and Washington may pool the moneys received by it from oil and gas and other mineral leasing of said lands. The moneys so pooled shall be apportioned among the public schools and the various State institutions in such manner that the public schools and each of such institutions shall receive an amount which bears the same ratio to the total amount apportioned as the number of acres (including any that may have been disposed of) granted for such public schools or for such institutions bears to the total number of acres (including any that may have been disposed of) granted by this Act. Not less than 50 per centum of each such amount shall be covered into the appropriate permanent fund." [66 U.S. Statutes at Large c 480 p 283. Approved June 28, 1952.]

(6) May 31, 1962:

AN ACT To amend the Act admitting the State of Washington into the Union in order to authorize the use of funds from the disposition of certain lands for the construction of State charitable, educational, penal, or reformatory institutions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the division of Dakota into two States and to enable the people of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington to form constitutions and State governments and to be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States and to make donations of public lands to such States", approved February 22, 1889 (25 Stat. 676, as amended), is amended by inserting before the period at the end of the first sentence in the fourth paragraph of section 11 a comma and the following: "except that proceeds from the sale and other permanent disposition of the two hundred thousand acres granted to the State of Washington for State charitable, educational, penal, and reformatory institutions may be used by such State for the construction of any such institution". [Public Law 87-473. 76 U.S. Statutes at Large p 91. Approved May 31, 1962.]

(7) June 30, 1967:

AN ACT To authorize the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington to use the income from certain lands for the construction of facilities for State charitable, educational, penal, and reformatory institutions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the second sentence of the fourth paragraph of section 11 of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the division of Dakota into two States and to enable the people of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington to form constitutions and State governments and to be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States, and to make donations of public lands to such States", approved February 22, 1889 (25 Stat. 676), as amended, is amended to read as follows: "Rentals on leased land, proceeds from the sale of timber and other crops, interest on deferred payments on land sold, interest on funds arising from these lands, and all other actual income, shall be available for the acquisition and construction of facilities, including the retirement of bonds authorized by law for such purposes, and for the maintenance and support of such schools and institutions." [Public Law 90-41. 81 U.S. Statutes at Large p 106. Approved June 30, 1967.]

(8) October 16, 1970:

AN ACT To amend section 11 of the Act approved February 22, 1889 (25 Stat. 676) as amended by the Act of May 7, 1932 (47 Stat. 150), and as amended by the Act of April 13, 1948 (62 Stat. 170) relating to the admission to the Union of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the second sentence of the first paragraph of section 11 of the Act approved February 22, 1889 (25 Stat. 676), as amended by the Act of May 7, 1932 (47 Stat. 150), is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Any of the said lands may be exchanged for other lands, public or private, of equal value and as near as may be of equal area, but if any of the said lands are exchanged with the United States such exchange shall be limited to Federal lands that are surveyed, nonmineral, unreserved public lands within the State, or are reserved public lands within the State that are subject to exchange under the laws governing the administration of such Federal reserved public lands."

and that a new paragraph be added immediately following the above, as follows:

"All exchanges heretofore made under section 11 of the Act approved February 22, 1889 (25 Stat. 676), as amended by the Act approved May 7, 1932 (47 Stat. 150), for reserved public lands of the United States that were subject to exchange under law pursuant to which they were being administered and the requirements thereof have been met, are hereby approved to the same extent as though the lands exchanged were unreserved public lands."

and that the present paragraph 2 of section 11 be amended to read as follows:

"The said lands may be leased under such regulations as the legislature may prescribe." [Public Law 91-463. 84 U.S. Statutes at Large p 987. Approved October 16, 1970.]

SEC. 12. That upon the admission of each of said States into the Union, in accordance with the provisions of this act, fifty sections of the unappropriated public lands within said States, to be selected and located in legal subdivisions as provided in section ten of this act, shall be, and are hereby, granted to said States for the purpose of erecting public buildings at the capital of said States for legislative, executive, and judicial purposes.

Reviser's note: Section 12 has been amended by Congress as follows:

AN ACT To amend section 12 of the Act approved February 22, 1889 (25 Stat. 676) relating to the admission into the Union of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington, by providing for the use of public lands granted to the States therein for the purpose of construction, reconstruction, repair, renovation, furnishings, equipment, or other permanent improvement of public buildings at the capital of said States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 12 of the Act relating to the admission into the Union of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington, approved February 22, 1889, is amended to read as follows:

"That upon the admission of each of said States into the Union, in accordance with the provisions of this act, fifty sections of unappropriated public lands within such States, to be selected and located in legal subdivisions as provided in section 10 of this Act, shall be, and are hereby, granted to said States for public buildings at the capital of said States for legislative, executive, and judicial purposes, including construction, reconstruction, repair, renovation, furnishings, equipment, and any other permanent improvement of such buildings and the acquisition of necessary land for such buildings, and the payment of principal and interest on bonds issued for any of the above purposes."

SEC. 2. This Act shall take effect as of February 22, 1889. [Public Law 85-6. 71 U.S. Statutes at large p 5. Approved February 26, 1957.]

SEC. 13. That five per centum of the proceeds of the sales of public lands lying within said States which shall be sold by the United States subsequent to the admission of said States into the Union, after deducting all the expenses incident to the same, shall be paid to the said States, to be used as a permanent fund, the interest of which only shall be expended for the support of common schools within said States, respectively.

SEC. 14. That the lands granted to the Territories of Dakota and Montana by the act of February eighteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-one, entitled "An act to grant lands to Dakota, Montana, Arizona, Idaho, and Wyoming for university purposes," are hereby vested in the States of South Dakota, North Dakota, and Montana, respectively, if such States are admitted into the Union, as provided in this act, to the extent of the full quantity of seventy-two sections to each of said States, and any portion of said lands that may not have been selected by either of said Territories of Dakota or Montana may be selected by the respective States aforesaid; but said act of February eighteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-one, shall be so amended as to provide that none of said lands shall be sold for less than ten dollars per acre, and the proceeds shall constitute a permanent fund to be safely invested and held by said States severally, and the income thereof be used exclusively for university purposes. And such quantity of the lands authorized by the fourth section of the act of July seventeenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, to be reserved for university purposes in the Territory of Washington, as, together with the lands confirmed to the vendees of the Territory by the act of March fourteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, will make the full quantity of seventy-two entire sections, are hereby granted in like manner to the State of Washington for the purposes of a university in said State. None of the lands granted in this section shall be sold at less than ten dollars per acre; but said lands may be leased in the same manner as provided in section eleven of this act. The schools, colleges, and universities provided for in this act shall forever remain under the exclusive control of the said States, respectively, and no part of the proceeds arising from the sale or disposal of any lands herein granted for educational purposes shall be used for the support of any sectarian or denominational school, college, or university. The section of land granted by the act of June sixteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty, to the Territory of Dakota, for an asylum for the insane shall, upon the admission of said State of South Dakota into the Union, become the property of said State.

SEC. 15. That so much of the lands belonging to the United States as have been acquired and set apart for the purpose mentioned in "An act appropriating money for the erection of a penitentiary in the Territory of Dakota," approved March second, eighteen hundred and eighty-one, together with the buildings thereon, be, and the same is hereby, granted, together with any unexpended balances of the moneys appropriated therefor by said act, to said State of South Dakota, for the purposes therein designated; and the States of North Dakota and Washington shall, respectively, have like grants for the same purpose, and subject to like terms and conditions as provided in said act of March second, eighteen hundred and eighty-one, for the Territory of Dakota. The penitentiary at Deer Lodge City, Montana, and all lands connected therewith and set apart and reserved therefor, are hereby granted to the State of Montana.

SEC. 16. That ninety thousand acres of land, to be selected and located as provided in section 10 of this act, are hereby granted to each of said States, except to the State of South Dakota, to which one hundred and twenty thousand acres are granted, for the use and support of agricultural colleges in said States, as provided in the acts of Congress making donations of lands for such purpose.

SEC. 17. That in lieu of the grant of land for purposes of internal improvement made to new States by the eighth section of the act of September fourth, eighteen hundred and forty-one, which act is hereby repealed as to the States provided for by this act, and in lieu of any claim or demand by the said States, or either of them, under the act of September twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and fifty, and section twenty-four hundred and seventy-nine of the Revised Statutes, making a grant of swamp and overflowed lands to certain States, which grant it is hereby declared is not extended to the States provided for in this act, and in lieu of any grant of saline lands to said States, the following grants of land are hereby made, to wit:

To the State of South Dakota: For the school of mines, forty thousand acres; for the reform school, forty thousand acres; for the deaf and dumb asylum, forty thousand acres; for the agricultural college, forty thousand acres; for the university, forty thousand acres; for State normal schools, eighty thousand acres; for public buildings at the capital of said State, fifty thousand acres, and for such other educational and charitable purposes as the legislature of said State may determine, one hundred and seventy thousand acres; in all five hundred thousand acres.

To the State of North Dakota a like quantity of land as in this section granted to the State of South Dakota, and to be for like purposes, and in like proportion as far as practicable.

To the State of Montana: For the establishment and maintenance of a school of mines, one hundred thousand acres; for State normal schools, one hundred thousand acres; for agricultural colleges, in addition to the grant hereinbefore made for that purpose, fifty thousand acres; for the establishment of a State reform school, fifty thousand acres; for the establishment of a deaf and dumb asylum, fifty thousand acres; for public buildings at the capital of the State, in addition to the grant hereinbefore made for that purpose, one hundred and fifty thousand acres.

To the State of Washington: For the establishment and maintenance of a scientific school, one hundred thousand acres; for State normal schools, one hundred thousand acres; for public buildings at the State capital, in addition to the grant hereinbefore made for that purpose, one hundred thousand acres; for State charitable, educational, penal, and reformatory institutions, two hundred thousand acres.

That the States provided for in this act shall not be entitled to any further or other grants of land for any purpose than as expressly provided in this act. And the lands granted by this section shall be held, appropriated, and disposed of exclusively for the purposes herein mentioned, in such manner as the legislatures of the respective States may severally provide.

SEC. 18. That all mineral lands shall be exempted from the grants made by this act. But if sections sixteen and thirty-six, or any subdivisions or portion of any smallest subdivision thereof in any township shall be found by the Department of the Interior to be mineral lands, said States are hereby authorized and empowered to select, in legal subdivisions, an equal quantity of other unappropriated lands in said States, in lieu thereof, for the use and the benefit of the common schools of said States.

SEC. 19. That all lands granted in quantity or as indemnity by this act shall be selected, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, from the surveyed, unreserved, and unappropriated public lands of the United States within the limits of the respective States entitled thereto. And there shall be deducted from the number of acres of land donated by this act for specific objects to said States the number of acres in each heretofore donated by Congress to said Territories for similar objects.

SEC. 20. That the sum of twenty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to each of said Territories for defraying the expenses of the said conventions, except to Dakota, for which the sum of forty thousand dollars is so appropriated, twenty thousand dollars each for South Dakota and North Dakota, and for the payment of the members thereof, under the same rules and regulations and at the same rates as are now provided by law for the payment of the Territorial legislatures. Any money hereby appropriated not necessary for such purpose shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States.

SEC. 21. That each of said States, when admitted as aforesaid, shall constitute one judicial district, the names thereof to be the same as the names of the States, respectively; and the circuit and district courts therefor shall be held at the capital of such State for the time being, and each of said districts shall, for judicial purposes, until otherwise provided, be attached to the eighth judicial circuit, except Washington and Montana, which shall be attached to the ninth judicial circuit. There shall be appointed for each of said districts one district judge, one United States attorney, and one United States marshal. The judge of each of said districts shall receive a yearly salary of three thousand five hundred dollars, payable in four equal installments, on the first days of January, April, July, and October of each year, and shall reside in the district. There shall be appointed clerks of said courts in each district, who shall keep their offices at the capital of said State. The regular terms of said courts shall be held in each district, at the place aforesaid, on the first Monday in April and the first Monday in November of each year, and only one grand jury and one petit jury shall be summoned in both said circuit and district courts. The circuit and district courts for each of said districts, and the judges thereof, respectively, shall possess the same powers and jurisdiction, and perform the same duties required to be performed by the other circuit and district courts and judges of the United States, and shall be governed by the same laws and regulations. The Marshal, district attorney, and clerks of the circuit and district courts of each of said districts, and all other officers and persons performing duties in the administration of justice therein, shall severally possess the powers and perform the duties lawfully possessed and required to be performed by similar officers in other districts of the United States; and shall, for the services they may perform, receive the fees and compensation allowed by law to other similar officers and persons performing similar duties in the State of Nebraska.

SEC. 22. That all cases of appeal or writ of error heretofore prosecuted and now pending in the Supreme Court of the United States upon any record from the supreme court of either of the Territories mentioned in this act, or that may hereafter lawfully be prosecuted upon any record from either of said courts may be heard and determined by said Supreme Court of the United States. And the mandate of execution or of further proceedings shall be directed by the Supreme Court of the United States to the circuit or district court hereby established within the State succeeding the Territory from which such record is or may be pending, or to the supreme court of such State, as the nature of the case may require: Provided, That the mandate of execution or of further proceedings shall, in cases arising in the Territory of Dakota, be directed by the Supreme Court of the United States to the circuit or district court of the district of South Dakota, or to the supreme court of the State of South Dakota, or to the circuit or district court of the district of North Dakota, or to the supreme court of the State of North Dakota, or to the supreme court of the Territory of North Dakota, as the nature of the case may require. And each of the circuit, district, and State courts, herein named, shall, respectively, be the successor of the supreme court of the Territory, as to all such cases arising within the limits embraced within the jurisdiction of such courts respectively with full power to proceed with the same, and award mesne or final process therein; and that from all judgments and decrees of the supreme court of either of the Territories mentioned in this act, in any case arising within the limits of any of the proposed States prior to admission, the parties to such judgment shall have the same right to prosecute appeals and writs of error to the Supreme Court of the United States as they shall have had by law prior to the admission of said State into the Union.

SEC. 23. That in respect to all cases, proceedings, and matters now pending in the supreme or district courts of either of the Territories mentioned in this act at the time of the admission into the Union of either of the States mentioned in this act, and arising within the limits of any such State, whereof the circuit or district courts by this act established might have had jurisdiction under the laws of the United States had such courts existed at the time of the commencement of such cases, the said circuit and district courts, respectively, shall be the successors of said supreme and district courts of said Territory; and in respect to all other cases, proceedings and matters pending in the supreme or district courts of any of the Territories mentioned in this act at the time of the admission of such Territory into the Union, arising within the limits of said proposed State, the courts established by such State shall, respectively, be the successors of said supreme and district Territorial courts; and all the files, records, indictments, and proceedings relating to any such cases, shall be transferred to such circuit, district, and State courts, respectively, and the same shall be proceeded with therein in due course of law; but no writ, action, indictment, cause or proceeding now pending, or that prior to the admission of any of the States mentioned in this act, shall be pending in any Territorial court in any of the Territories mentioned in this act, shall abate by the admission of any such State into the Union, but the same shall be transferred and proceeded with in the proper United States circuit, district or State court, as the case may be: Provided, however, That in all civil actions, causes, and proceedings, in which the United States is not a party, transfers shall not be made to the circuit and district courts of the United States, except upon written request of one of the parties to such action or proceeding filed in the proper court; and in the absence of such request such cases shall be proceeded with in the proper State courts.

SEC. 24. That the constitutional conventions may, by ordinance, provide for the election of officers for full State governments, including members of the legislatures and Representatives in the fifty-first Congress; but said State governments shall remain in abeyance until the States shall be admitted into the Union, respectively, as provided in this act. In case the constitution of any of said proposed States shall be ratified by the people, but not otherwise, the legislature thereof may assemble, organize, and elect two senators of the United States; and the governor and secretary of state of such proposed State shall certify the election of the Senators and Representatives in the manner required by law; and when such State is admitted into the Union, the Senators and Representatives shall be entitled to be admitted to seats in Congress, and to all the rights and privileges of Senators and Representatives of other States in the Congress of the United States; and the officers of the State governments formed in pursuance of said constitutions, as provided by the constitutional conventions, shall proceed to exercise all the functions of such State officers; and all laws in force made by said Territories, at the time of their admission into the Union, shall be in force in said States, except as modified or changed by this act or by the constitutions of the States, respectively.

SEC. 25. That all acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act, whether passed by the legislatures of said Territories or by Congress, are hereby repealed.

CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

This Constitution was framed by a convention of seventy-five delegates, chosen by the people of the Territory of Washington at an election held May 14, 1889, under section 3 of the Enabling Act. The convention met at Olympia on the fourth day of July, 1889, and adjourned on the twenty-second day of August, 1889. The Constitution was ratified by the people at an election held on October 1, 1889, and on November 11, 1889, in accordance with section 8 of the Enabling Act, the president of the United States proclaimed the admission of the State of Washington into the Union.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- (A) Constitution of the State of Washington

PREAMBLE

We, the people of the State of Washington, grateful to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for our liberties, do ordain this constitution.

ARTICLE I DECLARATION OF RIGHTS

§ 1 POLITICAL POWER. All political power is inherent in the people, and governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, and are established to protect and maintain individual rights.

§ 2 SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND. The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land.

§ 3 PERSONAL RIGHTS. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law.

§ 4 RIGHT OF PETITION AND ASSEMBLAGE. The right of petition and of the people peaceably to assemble for the common good shall never be abridged.

§ 5 FREEDOM OF SPEECH. Every person may freely speak, write and publish on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right.

§ 6 OATHS—MODE OF ADMINISTERING. The mode of administering an oath, or affirmation, shall be such as may be most consistent with and binding upon the conscience of the person to whom such oath, or affirmation, may be administered.

§ 7 INVASION OF PRIVATE AFFAIRS OR HOME PROHIBITED. No person shall be disturbed in his private affairs, or his home invaded, without authority of law.

§ 8 IRREVOCABLE PRIVILEGE, FRANCHISE OR IMMUNITY PROHIBITED. No law granting irrevocably any privilege, franchise or immunity, shall be passed by the legislature.

§ 9 RIGHTS OF ACCUSED PERSONS. No person shall be compelled in any criminal case to give evidence against himself, or be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense.

§ 10 ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE. Justice in all cases shall be administered openly, and without unnecessary delay.

§ 11 RELIGIOUS FREEDOM. Absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief and worship, shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or disturbed in person or property on account of religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious worship, exercise or instruction, or the support of any religious establishment: Provided, however, That this article shall not be so construed as to forbid the employment by the state of a chaplain for such of the state custodial, correctional and mental institutions as in the discretion of the legislature may seem justified. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness or juror, in consequence of his opinion on matters of religion, nor be questioned in any court of justice touching his religious belief to affect the weight of his testimony. [AMENDMENT 34, 1957 Senate Joint Resolution No. 14, p 1299. Approved November 4, 1958.]

worship, shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or disturbed in person or property on account of religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious worship, exercise or instruction, or the support of any religious establishment. Provided, however, That this article shall not be so construed as to forbid the employment by the state of a chaplain for the state penitentiary, and for such of the state reformatories as in the discretion of the legislature may seem justified. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness or juror, in consequence of his opinion on matters of religion, nor be questioned in any court of justice touching his religious belief to affect the weight of his testimony. [AMENDMENT 4, 1903 p 283 § 1. Approved November, 1904.]

Original text—Art. 1 § 11 RELIGIOUS FREEDOM—Absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief, and worship, shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or disturbed in person, or property, on account of religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property shall be appropriated for, or applied to any religious worship, exercise or instruction, or the support of any religious establishment. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office, or employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness, or juror, in consequence of his opinion on matters of religion, nor be questioned in any court of justice touching his religious belief to affect the weight of his testimony.

§ 12 SPECIAL PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES PROHIBITED. No law shall be passed granting to any citizen, class of citizens, or corporation other than municipal, privileges or immunities which upon the same terms shall not equally belong to all citizens, or corporations.

§ 13 HABEAS CORPUS. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless in case of rebellion or invasion the public safety requires it.

§ 14 EXCESSIVE BAIL, FINES AND PUNISHMENTS. Excessive bail shall not be required, excessive fines imposed, nor cruel punishment inflicted.

§ 15 CONVICTIONS, EFFECT OF. No conviction shall work corruption of blood, nor forfeiture of estate.

§ 16 EMINENT DOMAIN. Private property shall not be taken for private use, except for private ways of necessity, and for drains, flumes, or ditches on or across the lands of others for agricultural, domestic, or sanitary purposes. No private property shall be taken or damaged for public or private use without just compensation having been first made, or paid into court for the owner, and no right-of-way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation other than municipal until full compensation therefor be first made in money, or ascertained and paid into court for the owner, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation, which compensation shall be ascertained by a jury, unless a jury be waived, as in other civil cases in courts of record, in the manner prescribed by law. Whenever an attempt is made to take private property for a use alleged to be public, the question whether the contemplated use be really public shall be a judicial question, and determined as such, without regard to any legislative assertion that the use is public: Provided, That the taking of private property by the state for land reclamation and settlement purposes is hereby declared to be for public use. [AMENDMENT 9, 1919 p 385 § 1. Approved November, 1920.]

Original text—Art. 1 § 16 EMINENT DOMAIN—Private property shall not be taken for private use, except for private ways of necessity, and for drains, flumes or ditches on or across the lands of others for agricultural, domestic or sanitary purposes. No private property shall be taken or damaged for public or private use without just compensation having first been made, or paid into court for the owner, and no right of way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation other than municipal, until full compensation therefor be first made in money, or ascertained and paid into the court for the owner, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation, which compensation shall be ascertained by a jury, unless a jury be waived as in other civil cases in courts of record, in the manner prescribed by law. Whenever an attempt is made to take private property for a use alleged to be public, the question whether the contemplated use be really public shall be a judicial question, and determined as such without regard to any legislative assertion that the use is public.

§ 17 IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT. There shall be no imprisonment for debt, except in cases of absconding debtors.

§ 18 MILITARY POWER, LIMITATION OF. The military shall be in strict subordination to the civil power.

§ 19 FREEDOM OF ELECTIONS. All Elections shall be free and equal, and no power, civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage.

§ 20 BAIL, WHEN AUTHORIZED. All persons charged with crime shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offenses when the proof is evident, or the presumption great.

§ 21 TRIAL BY JURY. The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate, but the legislature may provide for a jury of any number less than twelve in courts not of record, and for a verdict by nine or more jurors in civil cases in any court of record, and for waiving of the jury in civil cases where the consent of the parties interested is given thereto.

§ 22 RIGHTS OF THE ACCUSED. In criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right to appear and defend in person, or by counsel, to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, to have a copy thereof, to testify in his own behalf, to meet the witnesses against him face to face, to have compulsory process to compel the attendance of witnesses in his own behalf, to have a speedy public trial by an impartial jury of the county in which the offense is charged to have been committed and the right to appeal in all cases: Provided, The route traversed by any railway coach, train or public conveyance, and the water traversed by any boat shall be criminal districts; and the jurisdiction of all public offenses committed on any such railway car, coach, train, boat or other public conveyance, or at any station or depot upon such route, shall be in any county through which the said car, coach, train, boat or other public conveyance may pass during the trip or voyage, or in which the trip or voyage may begin or terminate. In no instance shall any accused person before final judgment be compelled to advance money or fees to secure the rights herein guaranteed. [AMENDMENT 10, 1921 p 79 § 1. Approved November, 1922.]

Original text—Art. 1 § 22 RIGHTS OF ACCUSED PERSONS—In criminal prosecution, the accused shall have the right to appear and defend in person, and by counsel, to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, to have a copy thereof, to testify in his own behalf, to meet the witnesses against him face to face, to have compulsory process to compel the attendance of witnesses in his own behalf, to have a speedy public trial by an impartial jury of the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed, and the right to appeal in all cases, and, in no instance, shall any accused person before final judgment be compelled to advance money or fees to secure the rights herein guaranteed.

§ 23 BILL OF ATTAINDER, EX POST FACTO LAW, ETC. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligations of contracts shall ever be passed.

§ 24 RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS. The right of the individual citizen to bear arms in defense of himself, or the state, shall not be impaired, but nothing in this section shall be construed as authorizing individuals or corporations to organize, maintain or employ an armed body of men.

§ 25 PROSECUTION BY INFORMATION. Offenses heretofore required to be prosecuted by indictment may be prosecuted by information, or by indictment, as shall be prescribed by law.

§ 26 GRAND JURY. No grand jury shall be drawn or summoned in any county, except the superior judge thereof shall so order.

§ 27 TREASON, DEFINED, ETC. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against the state, or adhering to its enemies, or in giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or confession in open court.

§ 28 HEREDITARY PRIVILEGES ABOLISHED. No hereditary emoluments, privileges, or powers, shall be granted or conferred in this state.

§ 29 CONSTITUTION MANDATORY. The provisions of this Constitution are mandatory, unless by express words they are declared to be otherwise.

§ 30 RIGHTS RESERVED. The enumeration in this Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny others retained by the people.

§ 31 STANDING ARMY. No standing army shall be kept up by this state in time of peace, and no soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in any house without the consent of its owner, nor in time of war except in the manner prescribed by law.

§ 32 FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES. A frequent recurrence to fundamental principles is essential to the security of individual right and the perpetuity of free government.

§ 33 RECALL OF ELECTIVE OFFICERS. Every elective public officer of the state of Washington except [except] judges of courts of record is subject to recall and discharge by the legal voters of the state, or of the political subdivision of the state, from which he was elected whenever a petition demanding his recall, reciting that such officer has committed some act or acts of malfeasance or misfeasance while in office, or who has violated his oath of office, stating the matters complained of, signed by the percentages of the qualified electors thereof, hereinafter provided, the percentage required to be computed from the total number of votes cast for all candidates for his said office to which he was elected at the preceding election, is filed with the officer with whom a petition for nomination, or certificate for nomination, to such office must be filed under the laws of this state, and the same officer shall call a special election as provided by the general election laws of this state, and the result determined as therein provided. [AMENDMENT 8, 1911 p 504 § 1. Approved November, 1912.]

§ 34 SAME. The legislature shall pass the necessary laws to carry out the provisions of section thirty-three (33) of this article, and to facilitate its operation and effect without delay: Provided, That the authority hereby conferred upon the legislature shall not be construed to grant to the legislature any exclusive power of lawmaking nor in any way limit the initiative and referendum powers reserved by the people. The percentages required shall be, state officers, other than judges, senators and representatives, city officers of cities of the first class, school district boards in cities of the first class; county officers of counties of the first, second and third classes, twenty-five per cent. Officers of all other political subdivisions, cities, towns, townships, precincts and school districts not herein mentioned, and state senators and representatives, thirty-five per cent. [AMENDMENT 8, 1911 p 504 § 1. Approved November, 1912.]

ARTICLE II LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

§ 1 LEGISLATIVE POWERS, WHERE VESTED. The legislative authority of the state of Washington shall be vested in the legislature, consisting of a senate and house of representatives, which shall be called the legislature of the state of Washington, but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose bills, laws, and to enact or reject the same at the polls, independent of the legislature, and also reserve power, at their own option, to approve or reject at the polls any act, item, section, or part of any bill, act, or law passed by the legislature.

(a) Initiative: The first power reserved by the people is the initiative. Every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. In the case of initiatives to the legislature and initiatives to the people, the number of valid signatures of legal voters required shall be equal to eight percent of the votes cast for the office of governor at the last gubernatorial election preceding the initial filing of the text of the initiative measure with the secretary of state.

Initiative petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon, or not less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature. If filed at least four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon, he shall submit the same to the vote of the people at the said election. If such petitions are filed not less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature, he shall certify the results within forty days of the filing. If certification is not complete by the date that the legislature convenes, he shall provisionally certify the measure pending final certification of the measure. Such initiative measures, whether certified or provisionally certified, shall take precedence over all other measures in the legislature except appropriation bills and shall be either enacted or rejected without change or amendment by the legislature before the end of such regular session. If any such initiative measures shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to the referendum petition, or it may be enacted and referred by the legislature to the people for approval or rejection at the next regular election. If it is rejected or if no action is taken upon it by the legislature before the end of such regular session, the secretary of state shall submit it to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different one dealing with the same subject, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by the secretary of state to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. When conflicting measures are submitted to the people the ballots shall be so printed that a voter can express separately by making one cross (X) for each, two preferences, first, as between either measure and neither, and secondly, as between one and the other. If the majority of those voting on the first issue is for neither, both fail, but in that case the votes on the second issue shall nevertheless be carefully counted and made public. If a majority voting on the first issue is for either, then the measure receiving a majority of the votes on the second issue shall be law.

(b) Referendum. The second power reserved by the people is the referendum, and it may be ordered on any act, bill, law, or any part thereof passed by the legislature, except such laws as may be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, support of the state government and its existing public institutions, either by petition signed by the required percentage of the legal voters, or by the legislature as other bills are enacted: Provided, That the legislature may not order a referendum on any initiative measure enacted by the legislature under the foregoing subsection (a). The number of valid signatures of registered voters required on a petition for referendum of an act of the legislature or any part thereof, shall be equal to or exceeding four percent of the votes cast for the office of governor at the last gubernatorial election preceding the filing of the text of the referendum measure with the secretary of state.

(c) No act, law, or bill subject to referendum shall take effect until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted. No act, law, or bill approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon shall be amended or repealed by the legislature within a period of two years following such enactment: Provided, That any such act, law, or bill may be amended within two years after such enactment at any regular or special session of the legislature by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house with full compliance with section 12, Article III, of the Washington Constitution, and no amendatory law adopted in accordance with this provision shall be subject to referendum. But such enactment may be amended or repealed at any general regular or special election by direct vote of the people thereon.

(d) The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections, or parts of any act, law, or bill shall not delay the remainder of the measure from becoming operative. Referendum petitions against measures passed by the legislature shall be filed with the secretary of state not later than ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislature which passed the measure on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the governor shall not extend to measures initiated by or referred to the people. All elections on measures referred to the people of the state shall be had at the next succeeding regular general election following the filing of the measure with the secretary of state, except when the legislature shall order a special election. Any measure initiated by the people or referred to the people as herein provided shall take effect and become the law if it is approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon: Provided, That the vote cast upon such question or measure shall equal one-third of the total votes cast at such election and not otherwise. Such measure shall be in operation on and after the thirtieth day after the election at which it is approved. The style of all bills proposed by initiative petition shall be: "Be it enacted by the people of the State of Washington." This section shall not be construed to deprive any member of the legislature of the right to introduce any measure. All such petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state, who shall be guided by the general laws in submitting the same to the people until additional legislation shall especially provide therefor. This section is self-executing, but legislation may be enacted especially to facilitate its operation.

(e) The legislature shall provide methods of publicity of all laws or parts of laws, and amendments to the Constitution referred to the people with arguments for and against the laws and amendments so referred. The secretary of state shall send one copy of the publication to each individual place of residence in the state and shall make such additional distribution as he shall determine necessary to reasonably assure that each voter will have an opportunity to study the measures prior to election. [AMENDMENT 72, 1981 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 133. Approved November 3, 1981.]

Amendment 7 (1911)—Art. 2 § 1 LEGISLATIVE POWERS, WHERE VESTED—The legislative authority of the state of Washington shall be vested in the legislature, consisting of a senate and house of representatives, which shall be called the legislature of the state of Washington, but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose bills, laws, and to enact or reject the same at the polls, independent of the legislature, and also reserve power, at their own option, to approve or reject at the polls any act, item, section or part of any bill, act or law passed by the legislature.

(a) Initiative: The first power reserved by the people is the initiative. Ten per centum, but in no case more than fifty thousand, of the legal voters shall be required to propose any measure by such petition, and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. [Note: Signature requirements were superseded by Art. 2 Sec. 1(a), AMENDMENT 30.] Initiative petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon, or not less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature. If filed at least four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon, he shall submit the same to the vote of the people at the said election. If such petitions are filed not less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature, he shall transmit the same to the legislature as soon as it convenes and organizes. Such initiative measure shall take precedence over all other measures in the legislature except appropriation bills and shall be either enacted or rejected without change or amendment by the legislature before the end of such regular session. If any such initiative measures shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to the referendum petition, or it may be enacted and referred by the legislature to the people for approval or rejection at the next regular election. If it is rejected or if no action is taken upon it by the legislature before the end of such regular session, the secretary of state shall submit it to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different one dealing with the same subject, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by the secretary of state to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. When conflicting measures are submitted to the people the ballots shall be so printed that a voter can express separately by making one cross (X) for each, two preferences, first, as between either measure and neither, and secondly, as between one and the other. If the majority of those voting on the first issue is for neither, both fail, but in that case the votes on the second issue shall nevertheless be carefully counted and made public. If a majority voting on the first issue is for either, then the measure receiving a majority of the votes on the second issue shall be law.

(b) Referendum. The second power reserved by the people is the referendum, and it may be ordered on any act, bill, law, or any part thereof passed by the legislature, except such laws as may be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, support of the state government and its existing public institutions, either by petition signed by the required percentage of the legal voters, or by the legislature as other bills are enacted. Six per centum, but in no case more than thirty thousand, of the legal voters shall be required to sign and make a valid referendum petition. [Note: Signature requirements were superseded by Art. 2 Sec. 1(a), AMENDMENT 30.]

(c) No act, law, or bill subject to referendum shall take effect until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted. No act, law, or bill approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon shall be amended or repealed by the legislature within a period of two years following such enactment. But such enactment may be amended or repealed at any general regular or special election by direct vote of the people thereon. [Note: Subsection (c) was expressly superseded by Art. 2 Sec. 41, AMENDMENT 26.]

(d) The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections or parts of any act, law or bill shall not delay the remainder of the measure from becoming operative. Referendum petitions against measures passed by the legislature shall be filed with the secretary of state not later than ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislature which passed the measure on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the governor shall not extend to measures initiated by or referred to the people. All elections on measures referred to the people of the state shall be had at the biennial regular elections, except when the legislature shall order a special election. Any measure initiated by the people or referred to the people as herein provided shall take effect and become the law if it is approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon: Provided, That the vote cast upon such question or measure shall equal one-third of the total votes cast at such election and not otherwise. Such measure shall be in operation on and after the thirtieth day after the election at which it is approved. The style of all bills proposed by initiative petition shall be: "Be it enacted by the people of the State of Washington." This section shall not be construed to deprive any member of the legislature of the right to introduce any measure. The whole number of electors who voted for governor at the regular gubernatorial election last preceding the filing of any petition for the initiative or for the referendum shall be the basis on which the number of legal voters necessary to sign such petition shall be counted. [Note: Cf. Art. 2 Sec. 1(a), AMENDMENT 30.] All such petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state, who shall be guided by the general laws in submitting the same to the people until additional legislation shall especially provide therefor. This section is self-executing, but legislation may be enacted especially to facilitate its operation.

The legislature shall provide methods of publicity of all laws or parts of laws, and amendments to the Constitution referred to the people with arguments for and against the laws and amendments so referred, so that each voter of the state shall receive the publication at least fifty days before the election at which they are to be voted upon. [Note: This paragraph was expressly superseded by subsection (e) of this section, which was added by AMENDMENT 36.]

(e) The legislature shall provide methods of publicity of all laws or parts of laws, and amendments to the Constitution referred to the people with arguments for and against the laws and amendments so referred. The secretary of state shall send one copy of the publication to each individual place of residence in the state and shall make such additional distribution as he shall determine necessary to reasonably assure that each voter will have an opportunity to study the measures prior to election. These provisions supersede the provisions set forth in the last paragraph of section 1 of this article as amended by the seventh amendment to the Constitution of this state. [AMENDMENT 7, 1911 House Bill No. 153 p 136. Approved November, 1912; Subsection (e) added by AMENDMENT 36, 1961 Senate Joint Resolution No. 9, p 2751. Approved November, 1962.]

Original text—Art. 2 § 1 LEGISLATIVE POWERS, WHERE VESTED—The legislative powers shall be vested in a senate and house of representatives, which shall be called the legislature of the State of Washington.

§ 1(a) INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM, SIGNATURES REQUIRED. [Stricken by AMENDMENT 72, 1981 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 133. Approved November 3, 1981.]

Amendment 30 (1956)—Art. 2 § 1 (a) INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM, SIGNATURES REQUIRED—Hereafter, the number of valid signatures of legal voters required upon a petition for an initiative measure shall be equal to eight per centum of the number of voters registered and voting for the office of governor at the last preceding regular gubernatorial election. Hereafter, the number of valid signatures of legal voters required upon a petition for a referendum of an act of the legislature or any part thereof, shall be equal to four per centum of the number of voters registered and voting for the office of governor at the last preceding regular gubernatorial election. These provisions supersede the requirements specified in section 1 of this article as amended by the seventh amendment to the Constitution of this state. [AMENDMENT 30, 1955 Senate Joint Resolution No. 4, p 1860. Approved November 6, 1956.]

§ 2 HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND SENATE. The house of representatives shall be composed of not less than sixty-three nor more than ninety-nine members. The number of senators shall not be more than one-half nor less than one-third of the number of members of the house of representatives. The first legislature shall be composed of seventy members of the house of representatives, and thirty-five senators.

§ 3 THE CENSUS. The legislature shall provide by law for an enumeration of the inhabitants of the state in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five and every ten years thereafter; and at the first session after such enumeration, and also after each enumeration made by the authority of the United States, the legislature shall apportion and district anew the members of the senate and house of representatives, according to the number of inhabitants, excluding Indians not taxed, soldiers, sailors and officers of the United States army and navy in active service.

§ 4 ELECTION OF REPRESENTATIVES AND TERM OF OFFICE. Members of the house of representatives shall be elected in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine at the time and in the manner provided by this Constitution, and shall hold their offices for the term of one year and until their successors shall be elected.

§ 5 ELECTIONS, WHEN TO BE HELD. The next election of the members of the house of representatives after the adoption of this Constitution shall be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, eighteen hundred and ninety, and thereafter, members of the house of representatives shall be elected biennially and their term of office shall be two years; and each election shall be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, unless otherwise changed by law.

§ 6 ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE OF SENATORS. After the first election the senators shall be elected by single districts of convenient and contiguous territory, at the same time and in the same manner as members of the house of representatives are required to be elected; and no representative district shall be divided in the formation of a senatorial district. They shall be elected for the term of four years, one-half of their number retiring every two years. The senatorial districts shall be numbered consecutively, and the senators chosen at the first election had by virtue of this Constitution, in odd numbered districts, shall go out of office at the end of the first year; and the senators, elected in the even numbered districts, shall go out of office at the end of the third year.

§ 7 QUALIFICATIONS OF LEGISLATORS. No person shall be eligible to the legislature who shall not be a citizen of the United States and a qualified voter in the district for which he is chosen.

§ 8 JUDGES OF THEIR OWN ELECTION AND QUALIFICATION—QUORUM. Each house shall be the judge of the election, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and may compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

Governmental continuity during emergency periods: Art. 2 § 42.

§ 9 RULES OF PROCEDURE. Each house may determine the rules of its own proceedings, punish for contempt and disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members elected, expel a member, but no member shall be expelled a second time for the same offense.

§ 10 ELECTION OF OFFICERS. Each house shall elect its own officers; and when the lieutenant governor shall not attend as president, or shall act as governor, the senate shall choose a temporary president. When presiding, the lieutenant governor shall have the deciding vote in case of an equal division of the senate.

§ 11 JOURNAL, PUBLICITY OF MEETINGS—ADJOURNMENTS. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings and publish the same, except such parts as require secrecy. The doors of each house shall be kept open, except when the public welfare shall require secrecy. Neither house shall adjourn for more than three days, nor to any place other than that in which they may be sitting, without the consent of the other.

§ 12 SESSIONS, WHEN—DURATION. (1) Regular Sessions. A regular session of the legislature shall be convened each year. Regular sessions shall convene on such day and at such time as the legislature shall determine by statute. During each odd-numbered year, the regular session shall not be more than one hundred five consecutive days. During each even-numbered year, the regular session shall not be more than sixty consecutive days.

(2) Special Legislative Sessions. Special legislative sessions may be convened for a period of not more than thirty consecutive days by proclamation of the governor pursuant to Article III, section 7 of this Constitution. Special legislative sessions may also be convened for a period of not more than thirty consecutive days by resolution of the legislature upon the affirmative vote in each house of two-thirds of the members elected or appointed thereto, which vote may be taken and resolution executed either while the legislature is in session or during any interim between sessions in accordance with such procedures as the legislature may provide by law or resolution. The resolution convening the legislature shall specify a purpose or purposes for the convening of a special session, and any special session convened by the resolution shall consider only measures germane to the purpose or purposes expressed in the resolution, unless by resolution adopted during the session upon the affirmative vote in each house of two-thirds of the members elected or appointed thereto, an additional purpose or purposes are expressed. The specification of purpose by the governor pursuant to Article III, section 7 of this Constitution shall be considered by the legislature but shall not be mandatory.

(3) Committees of the Legislature. Standing and special committees of the legislature shall meet and conduct official business pursuant to such rules as the legislature may adopt. [AMENDMENT 68, 1979 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 110. Approved November 6, 1979.]

Extraordinary sessions to reconsider vetos: Art. 3 § 12.

Sessions to convene on the second Monday in January: RCW 44.04.010.

Original text—Art. 2 § 12 SESSIONS, WHEN—DURATION—The first legislature shall meet on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in November, A. D., 1889. The second legislature shall meet on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in January, A. D., 1891, and sessions of the legislature shall be held biennially thereafter, unless specially convened by the governor, but the times of meeting of subsequent sessions may be changed by the legislature. After the first legislature the sessions shall not be more than sixty days.

§ 13 LIMITATION ON MEMBERS HOLDING OFFICE IN THE STATE. No member of the legislature, during the term for which he is elected, shall be appointed or elected to any civil office in the state, which shall have been created during the term for which he was elected. Any member of the legislature who is appointed or elected to any civil office in the state, the emoluments of which have been increased during his legislative term of office, shall be compensated for the initial term of the civil office at the level designated prior to the increase in emoluments. [AMENDMENT 69, 1979 Senate Joint Resolution No. 112. Approved November 6, 1979.]

Original text—Art 2 § 13 LIMITATION ON MEMBERS HOLDING OFFICE IN THE STATE—No member of the legislature, during the term for which he is elected, shall be appointed or elected to any civil office in the state, which shall have been created, or the emoluments of which shall have been increased, during the term for which he was elected.

§ 14 SAME, FEDERAL OR OTHER OFFICE. No person, being a member of congress, or holding any civil or military office under the United States or any other power, shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature; and if any person after his election as a member of the legislature, shall be elected to congress or be appointed to any other office, civil or military, under the government of the United States, or any other power, his acceptance thereof shall vacate his seat, provided, that officers in the militia of the state who receive no annual salary, local officers and postmasters, whose compensation does not exceed three hundred dollars per annum, shall not be ineligible.

§ 15 VACANCIES IN LEGISLATURE AND IN PARTISAN COUNTY ELECTIVE OFFICE. Such vacancies as may occur in either house of the legislature or in any partisan county elective office shall be filled by appointment by the board of county commissioners of the county in which the vacancy occurs: Provided, That the person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same legislative district, county or county commissioner district and the same political party as the legislator or partisan county elective officer whose office has been vacated, and shall be one of three persons who shall be nominated by the county central committee of that party, and in case a majority of said county commissioners do not agree upon the appointment within sixty days after the vacancy occurs, the governor shall within thirty days thereafter, and from the list of nominees provided for herein, appoint a person who shall be from the same legislative district, county or county commissioner district and of the same political party as the legislator or partisan county elective officer whose office has been vacated, and the person so appointed shall hold office until his successor is elected at the next general election, and shall have qualified: Provided, That in case of a vacancy occurring in the office of joint senator, or joint representative, the vacancy shall be filled from a list of three nominees selected by the state central committee, by appointment by the joint action of the boards of county commissioners of the counties composing the joint senatorial or joint representative district, the person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same legislative district and of the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated, and in case a majority of said county commissioners do not agree upon the appointment within sixty days after the vacancy occurs, the governor shall within thirty days thereafter, and from the list of nominees provided for herein, appoint a person who shall be from the same legislative district and of the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated. [AMENDMENT 52, part, 1967 Senate Joint Resolution No. 24, part. Approved November 5, 1968.]

Vacancies in county, etc., offices, how filled: Art. 11 § 6.*

Amendment 32 (1956)—ART. 2 § 15 VACANCIES IN LEGISLATURE AND IN PARTISAN COUNTY ELECTIVE OFFICE—Such vacancies as may occur in either house of the legislature or in any partisan county elective office shall be filled by appointment by the board of county commissioners of the county in which the vacancy occurs: Provided, That the person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same legislative district and the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated, and shall be one of three persons who shall be nominated by the county central committee of that party, and the person so appointed shall hold office until his successor is elected at the next general election, and shall have qualified: Provided, That in case of a vacancy occurring in the office of joint senator, or joint representative, the vacancy shall be filled from a list of three nominees selected by the state central committee, by appointment by the joint action of the boards of county commissioners of the counties composing the joint senatorial or joint representative district, the person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same legislative district and of the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated, and in case a majority of said county commissioners do not agree upon the appointment within sixty days after the vacancy occurs, the governor shall within thirty days thereafter, and from the list of nominees provided for herein, appoint a person who shall be from the same legislative district and of the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated. [AMENDMENT 32, 1955 Senate Joint Resolution No. 14, p 1862. Approved November 6, 1956.]

Amendment 13 (1930)—ART. 2 § 15 VACANCIES IN LEGISLATURE—Such vacancies as may occur in either house of the legislature shall be filled by appointment by the board of county commissioners of the county in which the vacancy occurs, and the person so appointed shall hold office until his successor is elected at the next general election, and shall have qualified: Provided, That in case of a vacancy occurring in the office of joint senator, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the joint action of the boards of county commissioners of the counties composing the joint senatorial district. [AMENDMENT 13, 1929 p 690. Approved November, 1930.]

Original text—Art. 2 § 15 WRITS OF ELECTION TO FILL VACANCIES—The governor shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies as may occur in either house of the legislature.

§ 16 PRIVILEGES FROM ARREST. Members of the legislature shall be privileged from arrest in all cases except treason, felony and breach of the peace; they shall not be subject to any civil process during the session of the legislature, nor for fifteen days next before the commencement of each session.

§ 17 FREEDOM OF DEBATE. No member of the legislature shall be liable in any civil action or criminal prosecution whatever, for words spoken in debate.

§ 18 STYLE OF LAWS. The style of the laws of the state shall be: "Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington." And no laws shall be enacted except by bill.

§ 19 BILL TO CONTAIN ONE SUBJECT. No bill shall embrace more than one subject, and that shall be expressed in the title.

§ 20 ORIGIN AND AMENDMENT OF BILLS. Any bill may originate in either house of the legislature, and a bill passed by one house may be amended in the other.

§ 21 YEAS AND NAYS. The yeas and nays of the members of either house shall be entered on the journal, on the demand of one-sixth of the members present.

§ 22 PASSAGE OF BILLS. No bill shall become a law unless on its final passage the vote be taken by yeas and nays, the names of the members voting for and against the same be entered on the journal of each house, and a majority of the members elected to each house be recorded thereon as voting in its favor.

Governmental continuity during emergency periods: Art. 2 § 42.

§ 23 COMPENSATION OF MEMBERS. Each member of the legislature shall receive for his services five dollars for each day's attendance during the session, and ten cents for every mile he shall travel in going to and returning from the place of meeting of the legislature, on the most usual route.

*Compensation of state officers: Art. 28 § 1, Art. 30.
Salaries of elective state officers: RCW 43.03.010.*

§ 24 LOTTERIES AND DIVORCE. The legislature shall never grant any divorce. Lotteries shall be prohibited except as specifically authorized upon the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the members of each house of the legislature or, notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, by referendum or initiative approved by a sixty percent affirmative vote of the electors voting thereon. [AMENDMENT 56, 1971 Senate Joint Resolution No. 5, p 1828. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Original text—Art. 2 § 24 LOTTERIES AND DIVORCE—The legislature shall never authorize any lottery or grant any divorce.

§ 25 EXTRA COMPENSATION PROHIBITED.

The legislature shall never grant any extra compensation to any public officer, agent, employee, servant, or contractor, after the services shall have been rendered, or the contract entered into, nor shall the compensation of any public officer be increased or diminished during his term of office. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent increases in pensions after such pensions shall have been granted. [AMENDMENT 35, 1957 Senate Joint Resolution No. 18, p 1301. Approved November 4, 1958.]

Compensation of state officers: Art. 28.

Increase during term of certain officers, authorized: Art. 30 § 1.

Increase or diminution of compensation during term of office prohibited.

county, city, town or municipal officers: Art. 11 § 8.

judicial officers: Art. 4 § 13.

state officers: Art. 3 § 25.

Original text—Art. 2 § 25 EXTRA COMPENSATION, PROHIBITED—The legislature shall never grant any extra compensation to any public officer, agent, servant, or contractor, after the services shall have been rendered, or the contract entered into, nor shall the compensation of any public officer be increased or diminished during his term of office.

§ 26 SUITS AGAINST THE STATE. The legislature shall direct by law, in what manner, and in what courts, suits may be brought against the state.

§ 27 ELECTIONS—VIVA VOCE VOTE. In all elections by the legislature the members shall vote viva voce, and their votes shall be entered on the journal.

§ 28 SPECIAL LEGISLATION. The legislature is prohibited from enacting any private or special laws in the following cases:

1. For changing the names of persons, or constituting one person the heir at law of another.

2. For laying out, opening or altering highways, except in cases of state roads extending into more than one county, and military roads to aid in the construction of which lands shall have been or may be granted by congress.

3. For authorizing persons to keep ferries wholly within this state.

4. For authorizing the sale or mortgage of real or personal property of minors, or others under disability.

5. For assessment or collection of taxes, or for extending the time for collection thereof.

6. For granting corporate powers or privileges.

7. For authorizing the apportionment of any part of the school fund.

8. For incorporating any town or village or to amend the charter thereof.

9. From giving effect to invalid deeds, wills or other instruments.

10. Releasing or extinguishing in whole or in part, the indebtedness, liability or other obligation, of any person, or corporation to this state, or to any municipal corporation therein.

11. Declaring any person of age or authorizing any minor to sell, lease, or encumber his or her property.

12. Legalizing, except as against the state, the unauthorized or invalid act of any officer.

13. Regulating the rates of interest on money.

14. Remitting fines, penalties or forfeitures.

15. Providing for the management of common schools.

16. Authorizing the adoption of children.

17. For limitation of civil or criminal actions.

18. Changing county lines, locating or changing county seats, provided, this shall not be construed to apply to the creation of new counties.

Corporations for municipal purposes shall not be created by special laws: Art. 11 § 10.

§ 29 CONVICT LABOR. After the first day of January eighteen hundred and ninety the labor of convicts of this state shall not be let out by contract to any person, copartnership, company or corporation, and the legislature shall by law provide for the working of convicts for the benefit of the state.

§ 30 BRIBERY OR CORRUPT SOLICITATION.

The offense of corrupt solicitation of members of the legislature, or of public officers of the state or any municipal division thereof, and any occupation or practice of solicitation of such members or officers to influence their official action, shall be defined by law, and shall be punished by fine and imprisonment. Any person may be compelled to testify in any lawful investigation or judicial proceeding against any person who may be charged with having committed the offense of bribery or corrupt solicitation, or practice of solicitation, and shall not be permitted to withhold his testimony on the ground that it may criminate himself or subject him to public infamy, but such testimony shall not afterwards be used against him in any judicial proceeding—except for perjury in giving such testimony—and any person convicted of either of the offenses aforesaid, shall as part of the punishment therefor, be disqualified from ever holding any position of honor, trust or profit in this state. A member who has a private interest in any bill or measure proposed or pending before the legislature, shall disclose the fact to the house of which he is a member, and shall not vote thereon.

§ 31 LAWS, WHEN TO TAKE EFFECT. [This section stricken by AMENDMENT 7, 1911 House Bill No. 153, p 136. Approved November, 1912.]

Original text—Art. 2 § 31 LAWS, WHEN TO TAKE EFFECT—No law, except appropriation bills, shall take effect until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted, unless in case of an emergency (which emergency must be expressed in the preamble or in the body of the act) the legislature shall otherwise direct by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, said vote to be taken by yeas and nays and entered on the journals.

Effective dates of laws: Art. 2 §§ 1 and 41.

§ 32 LAWS, HOW SIGNED. No bill shall become a law until the same shall have been signed by the presiding officer of each of the two houses in open session, and under such rules as the legislature shall prescribe.

§ 33 ALIEN OWNERSHIP. [Repealed by AMENDMENT 42, 1965 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 20, p 2816. Approved November 8, 1966.]

Amendment 29 (1954)—Art. 2 § 33 ALIEN OWNERSHIP—The ownership of lands by aliens, other than those who in good faith have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, is prohibited in this state, except where acquired by inheritance, under mortgage or in good faith in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts, and all conveyances of lands hereafter made to any alien directly, or in trust for such alien, shall be void: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to lands containing valuable deposits of minerals, metals, iron, coal, or fire clay, and the necessary land for mills and machinery to be used in the development thereof and the manufacture of the products therefrom: And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to the citizens of such of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada as do not expressly or by implication prohibit ownership of provincial lands by citizens of this state. [AMENDMENT 29, 1953 House Joint Resolution No. 16, p 853. Approved November 2, 1954.]

Amendment 24 (1950)—Art. 2 § 33 ALIEN OWNERSHIP—The ownership of lands by aliens, other than those who in good faith have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, is prohibited in this state, except where acquired by inheritance, under mortgage or in good faith in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts, and all conveyances of lands hereafter made to any alien directly, or in trust for such alien, shall be void: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to lands containing valuable deposits of minerals, metals, iron, coal, or fire clay, and the necessary land for mills and machinery to be used in the development thereof and the manufacture of the products therefrom: And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to the citizens of such of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada as do not expressly or by implication prohibit ownership of provincial lands by citizens of this state. Every corporation, the majority of the capital stock of which is owned by aliens, shall be considered an alien for the purposes of this prohibition. [AMENDMENT 24, 1949 Senate Joint Resolution No. 9, p 999. Approved November, 1950.]

Original text—Art. 2 § 33 OWNERSHIP OF LANDS BY ALIENS, PROHIBITED—EXCEPTIONS—The ownership of lands by aliens, other than those who in good faith have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, is prohibited in this state, except where acquired by inheritance, under mortgage or in good faith in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts, and all conveyances of lands hereafter made to any alien directly or in trust for such alien shall be void: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to lands containing valuable deposits of minerals, metals, iron, coal, or fire-clay, and the necessary land for mills and machinery to be used in the development thereof and the manufacture of the products therefrom. Every corporation, the majority of the capital stock of which is owned by aliens, shall be considered on alien for the purposes of this prohibition.

§ 34 BUREAU OF STATISTICS, AGRICULTURE AND IMMIGRATION. There shall be established in the office of the secretary of state, a bureau of statistics, agriculture and immigration, under such regulations as the legislature may provide.

§ 35 PROTECTION OF EMPLOYEES. The legislature shall pass necessary laws for the protection of persons working in mines, factories and other employments dangerous to life or deleterious to health; and fix pains and penalties for the enforcement of the same.

§ 36 WHEN BILLS MUST BE INTRODUCED. No bill shall be considered in either house unless the time of its introduction shall have been at least ten days before the final adjournment of the legislature, unless the legislature shall otherwise direct by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, said vote to be taken by yeas and nays and entered upon the journal, or unless the same be at a special session.

§ 37 REVISION OR AMENDMENT. No act shall ever be revised or amended by mere reference to its title, but the act revised or the section amended shall be set forth at full length.

§ 38 LIMITATION ON AMENDMENTS. No amendment to any bill shall be allowed which shall change the scope and object of the bill.

§ 39 FREE TRANSPORTATION TO PUBLIC OFFICER PROHIBITED. It shall not be lawful for any person holding public office in this state to accept or use a pass or to purchase transportation from any railroad or other corporation, other than as the same may be purchased by the general public, and the legislature shall pass laws to enforce this provision.

§ 40 HIGHWAY FUNDS. All fees collected by the State of Washington as license fees for motor vehicles and all excise taxes collected by the State of Washington on the sale, distribution or use of motor vehicle-fuel and all other state revenue intended to be used for highway purposes, shall be paid into the state treasury and placed in a special fund to be used exclusively for highway purposes. Such highway purposes shall be construed to include the following:

(a) The necessary operating, engineering and legal expenses connected with the administration of public highways, county roads and city streets;

(b) The construction, reconstruction, maintenance, repair, and betterment of public highways, county roads, bridges and city streets; including the cost and expense of (1) acquisition of rights-of-way, (2) installing, maintaining and operating traffic signs and signal lights, (3) policing by the state of public highways, (4) operation of movable span bridges, (5) operation of ferries which are a part of any public highway, county road, or city street;

(c) The payment or refunding of any obligation of the State of Washington, or any political subdivision thereof, for which any of the revenues described in section 1 may have been legally pledged prior to the effective date of this act;

(d) Refunds authorized by law for taxes paid on motor vehicle fuels;

(e) The cost of collection of any revenues described in this section:

Provided, That this section shall not be construed to include revenue from general or special taxes or excises not levied primarily for highway purposes, or apply to vehicle operator's license fees or any excise tax imposed on motor vehicles or the use thereof in lieu of a property tax thereon, or fees for certificates of ownership of motor vehicles. [AMENDMENT 18, 1943 House Joint Resolution No. 4, p 938. Approved November, 1944.]

§ 41 LAWS, EFFECTIVE DATE, INITIATIVE, REFERENDUM—AMENDMENT OR REPEAL. No act, law, or bill subject to referendum shall take effect until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted. No act, law or bill approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon shall be amended or repealed by the legislature within a period of two years following such enactment: Provided, That any such act, law or bill may be amended within two years after such enactment at any regular or special session of the legislature by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house with full compliance with section 12, Article III, of the Washington Constitution, and no amendatory law adopted in accordance with this provision shall be subject to referendum. But such enactment may be amended or repealed at any general regular or special election by direct vote of the people thereon. These provisions supersede the provisions of subsection (c) of section 1 of this article as amended by the seventh amendment to the Constitution of this state. [AMENDMENT 26, 1951 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 7, p 959. Approved November 4, 1952.]

Reviser's note: (1) In third sentence, comma between "general" and "regular" omitted in conformity with enrolled resolution.

(2) Subsection (c) of section 1 of this article was amended by Amendment 72, approved November 3, 1981.

§ 42 GOVERNMENTAL CONTINUITY DURING EMERGENCY PERIODS. The legislature, in order to insure continuity of state and local governmental operations in periods of emergency resulting from enemy attack, shall have the power and the duty, immediately upon and after adoption of this amendment, to enact legislation providing for prompt and temporary succession to the powers and duties of public offices of whatever nature and whether filled by election or appointment, the incumbents and legal successors of which may become unavailable for carrying on the powers and duties of such offices; the legislature shall likewise enact such other measures as may be necessary and proper for insuring the continuity of governmental operations during such emergencies. Legislation enacted under the powers conferred by this amendment shall in all respects conform to the remainder of the Constitution: Provided, That if, in the judgment of the legislature at the time of disaster, conformance to the provisions of the Constitution would be impracticable or would admit of undue delay, such legislation may depart during the period of emergency caused by enemy attack only, from the following sections of the Constitution:

Article 14, Sections 1 and 2, Seat of Government;

Article 2, Sections 8, 15 (Amendments 13 and 32), and 22, Membership, Quorum of Legislature and Passage of Bills;

Article 3, Section 10 (Amendment 6), Succession to Governorship: Provided, That the legislature shall not depart from Section 10, Article III, as amended by Amendment 6, of the state Constitution relating to the Governor's office so long as any successor therein named is available and capable of assuming the powers and duties of such office as therein prescribed;

Article 3, Section 13, Vacancies in State Offices;

Article 11, Section 6, Vacancies in County Offices;

Article 11, Section 2, Seat of County Government;

Article 3, Section 24, State Records. [AMENDMENT 39, 1961 House Joint Resolution No. 9, p 2758. Approved November, 1962.]

Continuity of government act: Chapter 42.14 RCW.

ARTICLE III THE EXECUTIVE

§ 1 EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. The executive department shall consist of a governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, and a commissioner of public lands, who shall be severally chosen by the qualified electors of the state at the same time and place of voting as for the members of the legislature.

§ 2 GOVERNOR, TERM OF OFFICE. The supreme executive power of this state shall be vested in a governor, who shall hold his office for a term of four years, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

§ 3 OTHER EXECUTIVE OFFICERS, TERMS OF OFFICE. The lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, and commissioner of public lands, shall hold their offices for four years respectively, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

§ 4 RETURNS OF ELECTIONS, CANVASS, ETC. The returns of every election for the officers named in the first section of this article shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government by the returning officers, directed to the secretary of state, who shall deliver the same to the speaker of the house of representatives at the first meeting of the house thereafter, who shall open, publish and declare the result thereof in the presence of a majority of the members of both houses. The person having the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected, and a certificate thereof shall be given to such person, signed by the presiding officers of both houses; but if any two or more shall be highest and equal in votes for the same office, one of them shall be chosen by the joint vote of both houses. Contested elections for such officers shall be decided by the legislature in such manner as shall be determined by law. The terms of all officers named in section one of this article shall commence on the second Monday in January after their election until otherwise provided by law.

§ 5 GENERAL DUTIES OF GOVERNOR. The governor may require information in writing from the officers of the state upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, and shall see that the laws are faithfully executed.

§ 6 MESSAGES. He shall communicate at every session by message to the legislature the condition of the affairs of the state, and recommend such measures as he shall deem expedient for their action.

§ 7 EXTRA LEGISLATIVE SESSIONS. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the legislature by proclamation, in which shall be stated the purposes for which the legislature is convened.

Extraordinary sessions to reconsider vetoes: Art. 3 § 12.

§ 8 COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF. He shall be commander-in-chief of the military in the state except when they shall be called into the service of the United States.

§ 9 PARDONING POWER. The pardoning power shall be vested in the governor under such regulations and restrictions as may be prescribed by law.

§ 10 VACANCY IN OFFICE OF GOVERNOR. In case of the removal, resignation, death or disability of the governor, the duties of the office shall devolve upon the lieutenant governor; and in case of a vacancy in both the offices of governor and lieutenant governor, the duties of the governor shall devolve upon the secretary of state. In addition to the line of succession to the office and duties of governor as hereinabove indicated, if the necessity shall arise, in order to fill the vacancy in the office of governor, the following state officers shall succeed to the duties of governor and in the order named, viz: Treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction and commissioner of public lands. In case of the death, disability, failure or refusal of the person regularly elected to the office of governor to qualify at the time provided by law, the duties of the office shall devolve upon the person regularly elected to and qualified for the office of lieutenant governor, who shall act as governor until the disability be removed, or a governor be elected; and in case of the death, disability, failure or refusal of both the governor and the lieutenant governor elect to qualify, the duties of the governor shall devolve upon the secretary of state; and in addition to the line of succession to the office and duties of governor as hereinabove indicated, if there shall be the failure or refusal of any officer named above to qualify, and if the necessity shall arise by reason thereof, then in that event in order to fill the vacancy in the office of governor, the following state officers shall succeed to the duties of governor in the order named, viz: Treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction and commissioner of public lands. Any person succeeding to the office of governor as in this section provided, shall perform the duties of such office only until the disability be removed, or a governor be elected and qualified; and if a vacancy occur more than thirty days before the next general election occurring within two years after the commencement of the term, a person shall be elected at such election to fill the office of governor for the remainder of the unexpired term. [AMENDMENT 6, 1909 p 642 § 1. Approved November, 1910.]

Governmental continuity during emergency periods: Art. 2 § 42.

Original text—Art. 3 § 10 VACANCY IN—In case of the removal, resignation, death, or disability of the governor, the duties of the office shall devolve upon the lieutenant governor, and in case of a vacancy in both the offices of governor and lieutenant governor, the duties of governor shall devolve upon the secretary of state, who shall act as governor until the disability be removed or a governor elected.

§ 11 REMISSION OF FINES AND FORFEITURES. The governor shall have power to remit fines and forfeitures, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, and shall report to the legislature at its next meeting each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon granted, and the reasons for granting the same, and also the names of all persons in whose favor remission of fines and forfeitures shall have been made, and the several amounts remitted and the reasons for the remission.

§ 12 VETO POWERS. Every act which shall have passed the legislature shall be, before it becomes a law, presented to the governor. If he approves, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, which house shall enter the objections at large upon the journal and proceed to reconsider. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of the members present shall agree to pass the bill it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of the members present, it shall become a law; but in all such cases the vote of both houses shall be determined by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for or against the bill shall be entered upon the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the governor within five days, Sundays excepted, after it shall be presented to him, it shall become a law without his signature, unless the general adjournment shall prevent its return, in which case it shall become a law unless the governor, within twenty days next after the adjournment, Sundays excepted, shall file such bill with his objections thereto, in the office of secretary of state, who shall lay the same before the legislature at its next session in like manner as if it had been returned by the governor: Provided, That within forty-five days next after the adjournment, Sundays excepted, the legislature may, upon petition by a two-thirds majority or more of the membership of each house, reconvene in extraordinary session, not to exceed five days duration, solely to reconsider any bills vetoed. If any bill presented to the governor contain several sections or appropriation items, he may object to one or more sections or appropriation items while approving other portions of the bill: Provided, That he may not object to less than an entire section, except that if the section contain one or more appropriation items he may object to any such appropriation item or items. In case of objection he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the section or sections, appropriation item or items to which he objects and the reasons therefor; and the section or sections, appropriation item or items so objected to shall not take effect unless passed over the governor's objection, as hereinbefore provided. The provisions of Article II, section 12 insofar as they are inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. [AMENDMENT 62, 1974 Senate Joint Resolution No. 140. Approved November 5, 1974.]

Veto power withheld from initiated and referred measures: Art. 2 § 1.

ARTICLE IV THE JUDICIARY

§ 1 JUDICIAL POWER, WHERE VESTED. The judicial power of the state shall be vested in a supreme court, superior courts, justices of the peace, and such inferior courts as the legislature may provide.

Court of appeals: Art. 4 § 29.

§ 2 SUPREME COURT. The supreme court shall consist of five judges, a majority of whom shall be necessary to form a quorum, and pronounce a decision. The said court shall always be open for the transaction of business except on nonjudicial days. In the determination of causes all decisions of the court shall be given in writing and the grounds of the decision shall be stated. The legislature may increase the number of judges of the supreme court from time to time and may provide for separate departments of said court.

§ 2(a) TEMPORARY PERFORMANCE OF JUDICIAL DUTIES. When necessary for the prompt and orderly administration of justice a majority of the Supreme Court is empowered to authorize judges or retired judges of courts of record of this state, to perform, temporarily, judicial duties in the Supreme Court, and to authorize any superior court judge to perform judicial duties in any superior court of this state. [AMENDMENT 38, 1961 House Joint Resolution No. 6, p 2757. Approved November, 1962.]

§ 3 ELECTION AND TERMS OF SUPREME JUDGES. The judges of the supreme court shall be elected by the qualified electors of the state at large at the general state election at the times and places at which state officers are elected, unless some other time be provided by the legislature. The first election of judges of the supreme court shall be at the election which shall be held upon the adoption of this Constitution and the judges elected thereat shall be classified by lot, so that two shall hold their office for the term of three years, two for the term of five years, and one for the term of seven years. The lot shall be drawn by the judges who shall for that purpose assemble at the seat of government, and they shall cause the result thereof to be certified to the secretary of state, and filed in his office. The judge having the shortest term to serve not holding his office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy, shall be the chief justice, and shall preside at all sessions of the supreme court, and in case there shall be two judges having in like manner the same short term, the other judges of the supreme court shall determine which of them shall be chief justice. In case of the absence of the chief justice, the judge having in like manner the shortest or next shortest term to serve shall preside. After the first election the terms of judges elected shall be six years from and after the second Monday in January next succeeding their election. If a vacancy occur in the office of a judge of the supreme court the governor shall appoint a person to hold the office until the election and qualification of a judge to fill the vacancy, which election shall take place at the next succeeding general election, and the judge so elected shall hold the office for the remainder of the unexpired term. The term of office of the judges of the supreme court, first elected, shall commence as soon as the state shall have been admitted into the Union, and continue for the term herein provided, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The sessions of the supreme court shall be held at the seat of government until otherwise provided by law.

§ 3(a) RETIREMENT OF SUPREME COURT AND SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES. A judge of the supreme court or the superior court shall retire from judicial office at the end of the calendar year in which he attains the age of seventy-five years. The legislature may, from time to time, fix a lesser age for mandatory retirement, not earlier than the end of the calendar year in which any such judge attains the age of seventy years, as the legislature deems proper. This provision shall not affect the term to which any such judge shall have been elected or appointed prior to, or at the time of, approval and ratification of this provision. Notwithstanding the limitations of this section, the legislature may by general law authorize or require the retirement of judges for physical or mental disability, or any cause rendering judges incapable of performing their judicial duties. [AMENDMENT 25, 1951 House Joint Resolution No. 6, p 960. Approved November 4, 1952.]

§ 4 JURISDICTION. The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction in habeas corpus, and quo warranto and mandamus as to all state officers, and appellate jurisdiction in all actions and proceedings, excepting that its appellate jurisdiction shall not extend to civil actions at law for the recovery of money or personal property when the original amount in controversy, or the value of the property does not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars ($200) unless the action involves the legality of a tax, impost, assessment, toll, municipal fine, or the validity of a statute. The supreme court shall also have power to issue writs of mandamus, review, prohibition, habeas corpus, certiorari and all other writs necessary and proper to the complete exercise of its appellate and revisory jurisdiction. Each of the judges shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state upon petition by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself, or before the supreme court, or before any superior court of the state or any judge thereof.

§ 5 SUPERIOR COURT—ELECTION OF JUDGES, TERMS OF, ETC. There shall be in each of the organized counties of this state a superior court for which at least one judge shall be elected by the qualified electors of the county at the general state election: Provided, That until otherwise directed by the legislature one judge only shall be elected for the counties of Spokane and Stevens; one judge for the county of Whitman; one judge for the counties of Lincoln, Okanogan, Douglas and Adams; one judge for the counties of Walla Walla and Franklin; one judge for the counties of Columbia, Garfield and Asotin; one judge for the counties of Kittitas, Yakima and Klickitat; one judge for the counties of Clarke, Skamania, Pacific, Cowlitz and Wahkiakum; one judge for the counties of Thurston, Chehalis, Mason and Lewis; one judge for the county of Pierce; one judge for the county of King; one judge for the counties of Jefferson, Island, Kitsap, San Juan and Clallam; and one judge for the counties of Whatcom, Skagit and Snohomish. In any county where there shall be more than one superior judge, there may be as many sessions of the superior court at the same time as there are judges thereof, and whenever the governor shall direct a superior judge to hold court in any county other than that for which he has been elected, there may be as many sessions of the superior court in said county at the same time as there are judges therein or assigned to duty therein by the governor, and the business of the court shall be so distributed and assigned by law or in the absence of legislation therefor, by such rules and orders of court as shall best promote and secure the convenient and expeditious transaction thereof. The judgments, decrees, orders and proceedings of any session of the superior court held by any one or more of the judges of such court shall be equally effectual as if all the judges of said court presided at such session. The first superior judges elected under this Constitution shall hold their offices for the period of three years, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified, and thereafter the term of office of all superior judges in this state shall be for four years from the second Monday in January next succeeding their election and until their successors are elected and qualified. The first election of judges of the superior court shall be at the election held for the adoption of this Constitution. If a vacancy occurs in the office of judge of the superior court, the governor shall appoint a person to hold the office until the election and qualification of a judge to fill the vacancy, which election shall be at the next succeeding general election, and the judge so elected shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Supreme court may authorize superior court judge to perform judicial duties in any superior court: Art. 4 § 2(a).

§ 6 JURISDICTION OF SUPERIOR COURTS. The superior court shall have original jurisdiction in all cases in equity and in all cases at law which involve the title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, and in all other cases in which the demand or the value of the property in controversy amounts to three thousand dollars or as otherwise determined by law, or a lesser sum in excess of the jurisdiction granted to justices of the peace and other inferior courts, and in all criminal cases amounting to felony, and in all cases of misdemeanor not otherwise provided for by law; of actions of forcible entry and detainer; of proceedings in insolvency; of actions to prevent or abate a nuisance; of all matters of probate, of divorce, and for annulment of marriage; and for such special cases and proceedings as are not otherwise provided for. The superior court shall also have original jurisdiction in all cases and of all proceedings in which jurisdiction shall not have been by law vested exclusively in some other court; and said court shall have the power of naturalization and to issue papers therefor. They shall have such appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in justices' and other inferior courts in their respective counties as may be prescribed by law. They shall always be open, except on nonjudicial days, and their process shall extend to all parts of the state. Said courts and their judges shall have power to issue writs of mandamus, quo warranto, review, certiorari, prohibition, and writs of habeas corpus, on petition by or on behalf of any person in actual custody in their respective counties.

Injunctions and writs of prohibition and of habeas corpus may be issued and served on legal holidays and non-judicial days. [AMENDMENT 65, part, 1977 Senate Joint Resolution No. 113. Approved November 8, 1977.]

Amendment 65 also amended Art. 4 § 10.

Amendment 28, part (1952)—Art. 4 § 6 JURISDICTION OF SUPERIOR COURTS—*The superior court shall have original jurisdiction in all cases in equity and in all cases at law which involve the title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, and in all other cases in which the demand or the value of the property in controversy amounts to one thousand dollars, or a lesser sum in excess of the jurisdiction granted to justices of the peace and other inferior courts, and in all criminal cases amounting to felony, and in all cases of misdemeanor not otherwise provided for by law, of actions of forcible entry and detainer, of proceedings in insolvency, of actions to prevent or abate a nuisance, of all matters of probate, of divorce, and for annulment of marriage, and for such special cases and proceedings as are not otherwise provided for. The superior court shall also have original jurisdiction in all cases and of all proceedings in which jurisdiction shall not have been by law vested exclusively in some other court; and said court shall have the power of naturalization and to issue papers therefor. They shall have such appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in justices' and other inferior courts in their respective counties as may be prescribed by law. They shall always be open, except on nonjudicial days, and their process shall extend to all parts of the state. § 7 EXCHANGE OF JUDGES—JUDGE PRO TEMPORE. The judge of any superior court may hold a superior court in any county at the request of the judge of the superior court thereof, and upon the request of the governor it shall be his duty to do so. A case in the superior court may be tried by a judge, pro tempore, who must be a member of the bar, agreed upon in writing by the parties litigant, or their attorneys of record, approved by the court and sworn to try the case.

§ 8 ABSENCE OF JUDICIAL OFFICER. Any judicial officer who shall absent himself from the state for more than sixty consecutive days shall be deemed to have forfeited his office: Provided, That in cases of extreme necessity the governor may extend the leave of absence such time as the necessity therefor shall exist.

§ 9 REMOVAL OF JUDGES, ATTORNEY GENERAL, ETC. Any judge of any court of record, the attorney general, or any prosecuting attorney may be removed from office by joint resolution of the legislature, in which three-fourths of the members elected to each house shall concur, for incompetency, corruption, malfeasance, or delinquency in office, or other sufficient cause stated in such resolution. But no removal shall be made unless the officer complained of shall have been served with a copy of the charges against him as the ground of removal, and shall have an opportunity of being heard in his defense. Such resolution shall be entered at length on the journal of both houses and on the question of removal the ayes and nays shall also be entered on the journal.

Removal, censure, suspension, or retirement of judges or justices: Art. 4 § 31.

§ 10 JUSTICES OF THE PEACE. The legislature shall determine the number of justices of the peace to be elected and shall prescribe by law the powers, duties and jurisdiction of justices of the peace: Provided, That such jurisdiction granted by the legislature shall not trench upon the jurisdiction of superior or other courts of record, except that justices of the peace may be made police justices of incorporated cities and towns. Justices of the peace shall have original jurisdiction in cases where the demand or value of the property in controversy is less than three hundred dollars or such greater sum, not to exceed three thousand dollars or as otherwise determined by law, as shall be prescribed by the legislature. In incorporated cities or towns having more than five thousand inhabitants, the justices of the peace shall receive such salary as may be provided by law, and shall receive no fees for their own use. [AMENDMENT 65, part, 1977 Senate Joint Resolution No. 113. Approved November 8, 1977.]

Amendment 65 also amended Art. 4 § 6.

Amendment 28, part (1952)—Art. 4 § 10 JUSTICES OF THE PEACE—*The legislature shall determine the number of justices of the peace to be elected and shall prescribe by law the powers, duties and jurisdiction of justices of the peace: Provided, That such jurisdiction granted by the legislature shall not trench upon the jurisdiction of superior or other courts of record, except that justices of the peace may be made police justices of incorporated cities and towns. Justices of the peace shall have original jurisdiction in cases where the demand or value of the property in controversy is less than three hundred dollars or such greater sum, not to exceed one thousand dollars, as shall be prescribed by the legislature. In incorporated cities or towns having more than five thousand inhabitants, the justices of the peace shall receive such salary as may be provided by law, and shall receive no fees for their own use. § 15 INELIGIBILITY OF JUDGES. The judges of the supreme court and the judges of the superior court shall be ineligible to any other office or public employment than a judicial office, or employment, during the term for which they shall have been elected.

§ 16 CHARGING JURIES. Judges shall not charge juries with respect to matters of fact, nor comment thereon, but shall declare the law.

§ 17 ELIGIBILITY OF JUDGES. No person shall be eligible to the office of judge of the supreme court, or judge of a superior court, unless he shall have been admitted to practice in the courts of record of this state, or of the Territory of Washington.

§ 18 SUPREME COURT REPORTER. The judges of the supreme court shall appoint a reporter for the decisions of that court, who shall be removable at their pleasure. He shall receive such annual salary as shall be prescribed by law.

§ 19 JUDGES MAY NOT PRACTICE LAW. No judge of a court of record shall practice law in any court of this state during his continuance in office.

§ 20 DECISIONS, WHEN TO BE MADE. Every cause submitted to a judge of a superior court for his decision shall be decided by him within ninety days from the submission thereof; Provided, That if within said period of ninety days a rehearing shall have been ordered, then the period within which he is to decide shall commence at the time the cause is submitted upon such a hearing.

§ 21 PUBLICATION OF OPINIONS. The legislature shall provide for the speedy publication of opinions of the supreme court, and all opinions shall be free for publication by any person.

§ 22 CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT. The judges of the supreme court shall appoint a clerk of that court who shall be removable at their pleasure, but the legislature may provide for the election of the clerk of the supreme court, and prescribe the term of his office. The clerk of the supreme court shall receive such compensation by salary only as shall be provided by law.

§ 23 COURT COMMISSIONERS. There may be appointed in each county, by the judge of the superior court having jurisdiction therein, one or more court commissioners, not exceeding three in number, who shall have authority to perform like duties as a judge of the superior court at chambers, subject to revision by such judge, to take depositions and to perform such other business connected with the administration of justice as may be prescribed by law.

§ 24 RULES FOR SUPERIOR COURTS. The judges of the superior courts, shall from time to time, establish uniform rules for the government of the superior courts.

§ 25 REPORTS OF SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES. Superior judges, shall on or before the first day of November in each year, report in writing to the judges of the supreme court such defects and omissions in the laws as their experience may suggest, and the judges of the supreme court shall on or before the first day of January in each year report in writing to the governor such defects and omissions in the laws as they may believe to exist.

§ 26 CLERK OF THE SUPERIOR COURT. The county clerk shall be by virtue of his office, clerk of the superior court.

§ 27 STYLE OF PROCESS. The style of all process shall be, "The State of Washington," and all prosecutions shall be conducted in its name and by its authority.

§ 28 OATH OF JUDGES. Every judge of the supreme court, and every judge of a superior court shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe an oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Washington, and will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of judge to the best of his ability, which oath shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

§ 29 ELECTION OF SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES. Notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution to the contrary, if, after the last day as provided by law for the withdrawal of declarations of candidacy has expired, only one candidate has filed for any single position of superior court judge in any county containing a population of one hundred thousand or more, no primary or election shall be held as to such position, and a certificate of election shall be issued to such candidate. If, after any contested primary for superior court judge in any county, only one candidate is entitled to have his name printed on the general election ballot for any single position, no election shall be held as to such position, and a certificate of election shall be issued to such candidate: Provided, That in the event that there is filed with the county auditor within ten days after the date of the primary, a petition indicating that a write in campaign will be conducted for such single position and signed by one hundred registered voters qualified to vote with respect of the office, then such single position shall be subject to the general election. Provisions for the contingency of the death or disqualification of a sole candidate between the last date for withdrawal and the time when the election would be held but for the provisions of this section, and such other provisions as may be deemed necessary to implement the provisions of this section, may be enacted by the legislature. [AMENDMENT 41, 1965 ex.s. Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 6, p 2815. Approved November 8, 1966.]

§ 30 COURT OF APPEALS. (1) Authorization. In addition to the courts authorized in section 1 of this article, judicial power is vested in a court of appeals, which shall be established by statute.

(2) Jurisdiction. The jurisdiction of the court of appeals shall be as provided by statute or by rules authorized by statute.

(3) Review of Superior Court. Superior court actions may be reviewed by the court of appeals or by the supreme court as provided by statute or by rule authorized by statute.

(4) Judges. The number, manner of election, compensation, terms of office, removal and retirement of judges of the court of appeals shall be as provided by statute.

(5) Administration and Procedure. The administration and procedures of the court of appeals shall be as provided by rules issued by the supreme court.

(6) Conflicts. The provisions of this section shall supersede any conflicting provisions in prior sections of this article. [AMENDMENT 50, 1967 Senate Joint Resolution No. 6. Approved November 5, 1968.]

Note: This section which was adopted as Sec. 29 is herein renumbered Sec. 30 to avoid confusion with Sec. 29, supra.

§ 31 JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION—REMOVAL, CENSURE, SUSPENSION, OR RETIREMENT OF JUDGES OR JUSTICES. There shall be a judicial qualifications commission consisting of a judge selected by and from the court of appeals judges, a judge selected by and from the superior court judges, a judge selected by and from the district court judges, two persons admitted to the practice of law in this state selected by the state bar association, and two persons who are not attorneys appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate.

The supreme court may censure, suspend, or remove a judge or justice for violating a rule of judicial conduct and may retire a judge or justice for disability which is permanent or is likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties. The office of a judge or justice retired or removed by the supreme court becomes vacant, and that person is ineligible for judicial office until eligibility is reinstated by the supreme court. The salary of a removed judge or justice shall cease.

The supreme court shall specify the effect upon salary when disciplinary action other than removal is taken. The supreme court may not discipline or retire a judge or justice until the judicial qualifications commission recommends after notice and hearing that action be taken and the supreme court conducts a hearing, after notice, to review commission proceedings and findings against a judge or justice.

The legislature shall provide for commissioners' terms of office and compensation. The commission shall establish rules of procedure for commission proceedings including due process and confidentiality of proceedings. [AMENDMENT 71, 1980 Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 37. Approved November 4, 1980.]

Removal by legislature: Art. 4 § 9.

ARTICLE V
IMPEACHMENT

§ 1 IMPEACHMENT—POWER OF AND PROCEDURE. The house of representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment. The concurrence of a majority of all the members shall be necessary to an impeachment. All impeachments shall be tried by the senate, and, when sitting for that purpose, the senators shall be upon oath or affirmation to do justice according to law and evidence. When the governor or lieutenant governor is on trial, the chief justice of the supreme court shall preside. No person shall be convicted without a concurrence of two-thirds of the senators elected.

§ 2 OFFICERS LIABLE TO. The governor and other state and judicial officers, except judges and justices of courts not of record, shall be liable to impeachment for high crimes or misdemeanors, or malfeasance in office, but judgment in such cases shall extend only to removal from office and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust or profit, in the state. The party, whether convicted or acquitted, shall, nevertheless, be liable to prosecution, trial, judgment and punishment according to law.

§ 3 REMOVAL FROM OFFICE. All officers not liable to impeachment shall be subject to removal for misconduct or malfeasance in office, in such manner as may be provided by law.

ARTICLE VI ELECTIONS AND ELECTIVE RIGHTS

§ 1 QUALIFICATIONS OF ELECTORS. All persons of the age of eighteen years or over who are citizens of the United States and who have lived in the state, county, and precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which they offer to vote, except those disqualified by Article VI, section 3 of this Constitution, shall be entitled to vote at all elections. [AMENDMENT 63, 1974 Senate Joint Resolution No. 143. Approved November 5, 1974.]

Amendment 5 (1910)—Art. 6 § 1 QUALIFICATIONS OF ELECTORS—All persons of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: They shall be citizens of the United States, they shall have lived in the state one year, and in the county ninety days, and in the city, town, ward or precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which they offer to vote, they shall be able to read and speak the English language: Provided, That Indians not taxed shall never be allowed the elective franchise: And further provided, That this amendment shall not affect the rights of franchise of any person who is now a qualified elector of this state. The legislative authority shall enact laws defining the manner of ascertaining the qualifications of voters as to their ability to read and speak the English language, and providing for punishment of persons voting or registering in violation of the provision of this section. There shall be no denial of the elective franchise at any election on account of sex. [AMENDMENT 5, 1909 p 26 § 1. Approved November, 1910.]

Amendment 2 (1896)—Art. 6 § 1 QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS—All male persons of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: They shall be citizens of the United States, they shall have lived in the state one year, and in the county ninety days, and in the city, town, ward or precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which they offer to vote; they shall be able to read and speak the English language: Provided, That Indians not taxed shall never be allowed the elective franchise: And further provided, That this amendment shall not effect [affect] the right of franchise of any person who is now a qualified elector of this state. The legislature shall enact laws defining the manner of ascertaining the qualifications of voters as to their ability to read and speak the English language, and providing for punishment of persons voting or registering in violation of the provisions of this section. [AMENDMENT 2, 1895 p 60 § 1. Approved November, 1896.]

Original text—Art. 6 § 1 QUALIFICATIONS OF ELECTORS—All male persons of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: They shall be citizens of the United States; They shall have lived in the state one year, and in the county ninety days, and in the city, town, ward or precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which they offer to vote; Provided, that Indians not taxed shall never be allowed the elective franchise; Provided, further; that all male persons who at the time of the adoption of this Constitution are qualified electors of the Territory, shall be electors.

§ 1A VOTER QUALIFICATIONS FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS. In consideration of those citizens of the United States who become residents of the state of Washington during the year of a presidential election with the intention of making this state their permanent residence, this section is for the purpose of authorizing such persons who can meet all qualifications for voting as set forth in section 1 of this article, except for residence, to vote for presidential electors or for the office of President and Vice-President of the United States, as the case may be, but no other: Provided, That such persons have resided in the state at least sixty days immediately preceding the presidential election concerned.

The legislature shall establish the time, manner and place for such persons to cast such presidential ballots. [AMENDMENT 46, 1965 ex.s. Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 4, p 2820. Approved November 8, 1966.]

§ 2 SCHOOL ELECTIONS—FRANCHISE, HOW EXTENDED. [This section stricken by AMENDMENT 5, see Art. 6 § 1.]

Original text—Art. 6 § 2 SCHOOL ELECTIONS—FRANCHISE, HOW EXTENDED—The legislature may provide that there shall be no denial of the elective franchise at any school election on account of sex.

§ 3 WHO DISQUALIFIED. All idiots, insane persons, and persons convicted of infamous crime unless restored to their civil rights are excluded from the elective franchise.

§ 4 RESIDENCE, CONTINGENCIES AFFECTING. For the purpose of voting and eligibility to office no person shall be deemed to have gained a residence by reason of his presence or lost it by reason of his absence, while in the civil or military service of the state or of the United States, nor while a student at any institution of learning, nor while kept at public expense at any poor-house or other asylum, nor while confined in public prison, nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this state or of the United States, or of the high seas.

§ 5 VOTER—WHEN PRIVILEGED FROM ARREST. Voters shall in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of the peace be privileged from arrest during their attendance at elections and in going to, and returning therefrom. No elector shall be required to do military duty on the day of any election except in time of war or public danger.

§ 6 BALLOT. All elections shall be by ballot. The legislature shall provide for such method of voting as will secure to every elector absolute secrecy in preparing and depositing his ballot.

§ 7 REGISTRATION. The legislature shall enact a registration law, and shall require a compliance with such law before any elector shall be allowed to vote; Provided, that this provision is not compulsory upon the legislature except as to cities and towns having a population of over five hundred inhabitants. In all other cases the legislature may or may not require registration as a pre-requisite to the right to vote, and the same system of registration need not be adopted for both classes.

§ 8 ELECTIONS, TIME OF HOLDING. The first election of county and district officers not otherwise provided for in this Constitution shall be on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November 1890, and thereafter all elections for such officers shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November. The first election of all state officers not otherwise provided for in this Constitution, after the election held for the adoption of this Constitution, shall be on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, 1892, and the elections for such state officers shall be held in every fourth year thereafter on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November.

Cf. Art. 27 § 14.

ARTICLE VII REVENUE AND TAXATION

§ 1 TAXATION. The power of taxation shall never be suspended, surrendered or contracted away. All taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of property within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax and shall be levied and collected for public purposes only. The word "property" as used herein shall mean and include everything, whether tangible or intangible, subject to ownership. All real estate shall constitute one class: Provided, That the legislature may tax mines and mineral resources and lands devoted to reforestation by either a yield tax or an ad valorem tax at such rate as it may fix, or by both. Such property as the legislature may by general laws provide shall be exempt from taxation. Property of the United States and of the state, counties, school districts and other municipal corporations, and credits secured by property actually taxed in this state, not exceeding in value the value of such property, shall be exempt from taxation. The legislature shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to exempt personal property to the amount of three hundred ($300.00) dollars for each head of a family liable to assessment and taxation under the provisions of the laws of this state of which the individual is the actual bona fide owner. [AMENDMENT 14, 1929 p 499 § 1. Approved November, 1930.]

Reviser's note: Amendment 14 amended Art. 7 by striking all of §§ 1, 2, 3 and 4. Subsequently, Amendment 17 added a new § 2, and Amendment 19 added a new § 3.

Original text—Art. 7 § 1 ANNUAL STATE TAX—All property in the state, not exempt under the laws of the United States, or under this Constitution, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as provided by law. The legislature shall provide by law for an annual tax sufficient, with other sources of revenue to defray the estimated ordinary expenses of the state for each fiscal year. And for the purpose of paying the state debt, if there be any, the legislature shall provide for levying a tax annually, sufficient to pay the annual interest and principal of such debt within twenty years from the final passage of the law creating the debt.

Amendment 3 (1900)—Art. 7 § 2, was amended by adding the following proviso: "And provided further, That the legislature shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to exempt personal property to the amount of three hundred dollars ($300) for each head of a family liable to assessment and taxation under the provisions of the laws of this state of which the individual is the actual and bona fide owner." [AMENDMENT 3, 1899 p 121 § 1. Approved November, 1900.]

Original text—Art. 7 § 2 TAXATION—UNIFORMITY AND EQUALITY—EXEMPTION—The legislature shall provide by law a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation on all property in the state, according to its value in money, and shall prescribe such regulations by general law as shall secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his, her, or its property; Provided, that a deduction of debts from credits may be authorized: Provided, further, that the property of the United States and of the state, counties, school districts and other municipal corporations, and such other property as the legislature may by general laws provide, shall be exempt from taxation.

Original text—Art. 7 § 3 ASSESSMENT OF CORPORATE PROPERTY—The legislature shall provide by general law for the assessing and levying of taxes on all corporation property as near as may be by the same methods as are provided for the assessing and levying of taxes on individual property.

Original text—Art. 7 § 4 NO SURRENDER OF POWER OR SUSPENSION OF TAX ON CORPORATE PROPERTY—The power to tax corporations and corporate property shall not be surrendered or suspended by any contract or grant to which the state shall be a party.

§ 2 LIMITATION ON LEVIES. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed one per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election: Provided, That notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, any proposition pursuant to this subsection to levy additional tax for the support of the common schools may provide such support for a two year period;

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, Section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort. [AMENDMENT 64, 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 137. Approved November 2, 1976.]

Prior amendments of Art. 7 § 2, see Amendments 17, 55, and 59.

Amendment 59 (1972) and Amendment 55 (1972)—Art. 7 § 2 LIMITATION ON LEVIES—Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed one per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, Section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort. [(i) AMENDMENT 59, 1971 House Joint Resolution No. 47, p 1834. Approved November, 1972. (ii) AMENDMENT 55, 1971 Senate Joint Resolution No. 1, p 1827. Approved November, 1972.]

Reviser's note: Article 7 § 2 was twice amended in different respects at the November 1972 general election by the ratification of both S.J.R. No. 1. (AMENDMENT 55) and H.J.R. No. 47. (AMENDMENT 59.) 1971 HJR No. 47 contained the following paragraph:

"Be It Further Resolved, That the foregoing amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state in such a manner that they may vote for or against it separately from the proposed amendment to Article VII, section 2, (Amendment 17) of the Constitution of the State of Washington contained in Senate Joint Resolution No. 1: Provided, That if both proposed amendments are approved and ratified, both shall become part of the Constitution" [1971 House Joint Resolution No. 47, part, p 1834]

The section as printed above reflects the content of both amendments.

Amendment 17 (1944)—Art. 7 § 2 FORTY MILL LIMIT—Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed forty mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, which assessed valuation shall be fifty per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, and Provided further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, Section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort. [AMENDMENT 17, 1943 House Joint Resolution No. 1, p 936. Approved November, 1944.]

Reviser's note: Original section 2, as amended by Amendment 3, was stricken by Amendment 14: The original section and Amendment 3, are set out following Art. 7, § 1, above.

§ 3 TAXATION OF FEDERAL AGENCIES AND PROPERTY. The United States and its agencies and instrumentalities, and their property, may be taxed under any of the tax laws of this state, whenever and in such manner as such taxation may be authorized or permitted under the laws of the United States, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Constitution of this state. [AMENDMENT 19, 1945 House Joint Resolution No. 9, p 932. Approved November, 1946.]

Reviser's note: Original section 3 was stricken by Amendment 14. The original section is set out following Art. 7 § 1, above.

§ 4 NO SURRENDER OF POWER OR SUSPENSION OF TAX ON CORPORATE PROPERTY.

Reviser's note: Original section 4 was stricken by Amendment 14. It is set out following Art. 7 § 1, above.

§ 5 TAXES, HOW LEVIED. No tax shall be levied except in pursuance of law; and every law imposing a tax shall state distinctly the object of the same to which only it shall be applied.

§ 6 TAXES, HOW PAID. All taxes levied and collected for state purposes shall be paid in money only into the state treasury.

§ 7 ANNUAL STATEMENT. An accurate statement of the receipts and expenditures of the public moneys shall be published annually in such manner as the legislature may provide.

§ 8 TAX TO COVER DEFICIENCIES. Whenever the expenses of any fiscal year shall exceed the income, the legislature may provide for levying a tax for the ensuing fiscal year, sufficient, with other sources of income, to pay the deficiency, as well as the estimated expenses of the ensuing fiscal year.

§ 9 SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS OR TAXATION FOR LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS. The legislature may vest the corporate authorities of cities, towns and villages with power to make local improvements by special assessment, or by special taxation of property benefited. For all corporate purposes, all municipal corporations may be vested with authority to assess and collect taxes and such taxes shall be uniform in respect to persons and property within the jurisdiction of the body levying the same.

§ 10 RETIRED PERSONS PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 7, section 1 (Amendment 14) and Article 7, section 2 (Amendment 17), the following tax exemption shall be allowed as to real property:

The legislature shall have the power, by appropriate legislation, to grant to retired property owners relief from the property tax on the real property occupied as a residence by those owners. The legislature may place such restrictions and conditions upon the granting of such relief as it shall deem proper. Such restrictions and conditions may include, but are not limited to, the limiting of the relief to those property owners below a specific level of income and those fulfilling certain minimum residential requirements. [AMENDMENT 47, 1965 ex.s. House Joint Resolution No. 7, p 2821. Approved November 8, 1966.]

§ 11 TAXATION BASED ON ACTUAL USE. Nothing in this Article VII as amended shall prevent the legislature from providing, subject to such conditions as it may enact, that the true and fair value in money (a) of farms, agricultural lands, standing timber and timberlands, and (b) of other open space lands which are used for recreation or for enjoyment of their scenic or natural beauty shall be based on the use to which such property is currently applied, and such values shall be used in computing the assessed valuation of such property in the same manner as the assessed valuation is computed for all property. [AMENDMENT 53, 1967 House Joint Resolution No. 1. Approved November 5, 1968.]

ARTICLE VIII
STATE, COUNTY AND MUNICIPAL INDEBTEDNESS

§ 1 STATE DEBT. (a) The state may contract debt, the principal of which shall be paid and discharged within thirty years from the time of contracting thereof, in the manner set forth herein.

(b) The aggregate debt contracted by the state shall not exceed that amount for which payments of principal and interest in any fiscal year would require the state to expend more than nine percent of the arithmetic mean of its general state revenues for the three immediately preceding fiscal years as certified by the treasurer. The term "fiscal year" means that period of time commencing July 1 of any year and ending on June 30 of the following year.

(c) The term "general state revenues" when used in this section, shall include all state money received in the treasury from each and every source whatsoever except: (1) Fees and revenues derived from the ownership or operation of any undertaking, facility, or project; (2) Moneys received as gifts, grants, donations, aid, or assistance or otherwise from the United States or any department, bureau, or corporation thereof, or any person, firm, or corporation, public or private, when the terms and conditions of such gift, grant, donation, aid, or assistance require the application and disbursement of such moneys otherwise than for the general purposes of the state of Washington; (3) Moneys to be paid into and received from retirement system funds, and performance bonds and deposits; (4) Moneys to be paid into and received from trust funds including but not limited to moneys received from taxes levied for specific purposes and the several permanent and irreducible funds of the state and the moneys derived therefrom but excluding bond redemption funds; (5) Proceeds received from the sale of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness.

(d) In computing the amount required for payment of principal and interest on outstanding debt under this section, debt shall be construed to mean borrowed money represented by bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness which are secured by the full faith and credit of the state or are required to be repaid, directly or indirectly, from general state revenues and which are incurred by the state, any department, authority, public corporation, or quasi public corporation of the state, any state university or college, or any other public agency created by the state but not by counties, cities, towns, school districts, or other municipal corporations, but shall not include obligations for the payment of current expenses of state government, nor shall it include debt hereafter incurred pursuant to section 3 of this article, obligations guaranteed as provided for in subsection (f) of this section, principal of bond anticipation notes or obligations issued to fund or refund the indebtedness of the Washington state building authority.

(e) The state may, without limitation, fund or refund, at or prior to maturity, the whole or any part of any existing debt or of any debt hereafter contracted pursuant to section 1, section 2, or section 3 of this article, including any premium payable with respect thereto and interest thereon, or fund or refund, at or prior to maturity, the whole or any part of any indebtedness incurred or authorized prior to the effective date of this amendment by any entity of the type described in subsection (g) of this section, including any premium payable with respect thereto and any interest thereon. Such funding or refunding shall not be deemed to be contracting debt by the state.

(f) Notwithstanding the limitation contained in subsection (b) of this section, the state may pledge its full faith, credit, and taxing power to guarantee the payment of any obligation payable from revenues received from any of the following sources: (1) Fees collected by the state as license fees for motor vehicles; (2) Excise taxes collected by the state on the sale, distribution or use of motor vehicle fuel; and (3) Interest on the permanent common school fund: Provided, That the legislature shall, at all times, provide sufficient revenues from such sources to pay the principal and interest due on all obligations for which said source of revenue is pledged.

(g) No money shall be paid from funds in custody of the treasurer with respect to any debt contracted after the effective date of this amendment by the Washington state building authority, the capitol committee, or any similar entity existing or operating for similar purposes pursuant to which such entity undertakes to finance or provide a facility for use or occupancy by the state or any agency, department, or instrumentality thereof.

(h) The legislature shall prescribe all matters relating to the contracting, funding or refunding of debt pursuant to this section, including: The purposes for which debt may be contracted; by a favorable vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the amount of debt which may be contracted for any class of such purposes; the kinds of notes, bonds, or other evidences of debt which may be issued by the state; and the manner by which the treasurer shall determine and advise the legislature, any appropriate agency, officer, or instrumentality of the state as to the available debt capacity within the limitation set forth in this section. The legislature may delegate to any state officer, agency, or instrumentality any of its powers relating to the contracting, funding or refunding of debt pursuant to this section except its power to determine the amount and purposes for which debt may be contracted.

(i) The full faith, credit, and taxing power of the state of Washington are pledged to the payment of the debt created on behalf of the state pursuant to this section and the legislature shall provide by appropriation for the payment of the interest upon and installments of principal of all such debt as the same falls due, but in any event, any court of record may compel such payment.

(j) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection (b) of this section, the state may issue certificates of indebtedness in such sum or sums as may be necessary to meet temporary deficiencies of the treasury, to preserve the best interests of the state in the conduct of the various state institutions, departments, bureaus, and agencies during each fiscal year; such certificates may be issued only to provide for appropriations already made by the legislature and such certificates must be retired and the debt discharged other than by refunding within twelve months after the date of incurrence.

(k) Bonds, notes, or other obligations issued and sold by the state of Washington pursuant to and in conformity with this article shall not be invalid for any irregularity or defect in the proceedings of the issuance or sale thereof and shall be incontestable in the hands of a bona fide purchaser or holder thereof. [AMENDMENT 60, part, 1971 House Joint Resolution No. 52, part, p 1836. Approved November, 1972.]

Original text—Art. 8 § 1 LIMITATION OF STATE DEBT—The state may to meet casual deficits or failure in revenues, or for expenses not provided for, contract debts, but such debts, direct and contingent, singly or in the aggregate, shall not at any time exceed four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000), and the moneys arising from the loans creating such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which they were obtained or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

§ 2 POWERS EXTENDED IN CERTAIN CASES.

In addition to the above limited power to contract debts the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or to defend the state in war, but the money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised and to no other purpose whatever.

§ 3 SPECIAL INDEBTEDNESS, HOW AUTHORIZED. Except the debt specified in sections one and two of this article, no debts shall hereafter be contracted by, or on behalf of this state, unless such debt shall be authorized by law for some single work or object to be distinctly specified therein. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, or a special election called for that purpose, have been submitted to the people and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election. [AMENDMENT 60, part, 1971 House Joint Resolution No. 52, part, p 1836. Approved November, 1972.]

Amendment 48 (1966)—Art. 8 § 3 SPECIAL INDEBTEDNESS, HOW AUTHORIZED—Except the debt specified in sections one and two of this article, no debts shall hereafter be contracted by, or on behalf of this state, unless such debt shall be authorized by law for some single work or object to be distinctly specified therein, which law shall provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within twenty years from the time of the contracting thereof. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, have been submitted to the people and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election, and all moneys raised by authority of such law shall be applied only to the specific object therein stated, or to the payment of the debt thereby created, and notice that such law will be submitted to the people shall be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state: Provided, That failure of any newspaper to publish this notice shall not be interpreted as affecting the outcome of the election. [AMENDMENT 48, 1965 ex.s. House Joint Resolution No. 39, p 2822. Approved November 8, 1966.]

debt within twenty years from the time of the contracting thereof. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, have been submitted to the people and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election, and all moneys raised by authority of such law shall be applied only to the specific object therein stated, or to the payment of the debt thereby created, and such law shall be published in at least one newspaper in each county, if one be published therein, throughout the state, for three months next preceding the election at which it is submitted to the people.

§ 4 MONEYS DISBURSED ONLY BY APPROPRIATIONS. No moneys shall ever be paid out of the treasury of this state, or any of its funds, or any of the funds under its management, except in pursuance of an appropriation by law; nor unless such payment be made within one calendar month after the end of the next ensuing fiscal biennium, and every such law making a new appropriation, or continuing or reviving an appropriation, shall distinctly specify the sum appropriated, and the object to which it is to be applied, and it shall not be sufficient for such law to refer to any other law to fix such sum. [AMENDMENT 11, 1921 p 80 § 1. Approved November, 1922.]

Original text—Art. 8 § 4 MONEYS DISBURSED ONLY BY APPROPRIATIONS—No moneys shall ever be paid out of the treasury of this state, or any of its funds, or any of the funds under its management, except in pursuance of an appropriation by law, nor unless such payment be made within two years from the first day of May next after the passage of such appropriation act, and every such law making a new appropriation, or continuing or reviving an appropriation, shall distinctly specify the sum appropriated, and the object to which it is to be applied, and it shall not be sufficient for such law to refer to any other law to fix such sum.

§ 5 CREDIT NOT TO BE LOANED. The credit of the state shall not, in any manner be given or loaned to, or in aid of, any individual, association, company or corporation.

§ 6 LIMITATIONS UPON MUNICIPAL INDEBTEDNESS. No county, city, town, school district, or other municipal corporation shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding one and one-half per centum of the taxable property in such county, city, town, school district, or other municipal corporation, without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness, except that in incorporated cities the assessment shall be taken from the last assessment for city purposes: Provided, That no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly county, city, town, school district, or other municipal purposes: Provided further, That (a) any city or town, with such assent, may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding five per centum additional for supplying such city or town with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the municipality and (b) any school district with such assent, may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount but not exceeding five per centum additional for capital outlays. [AMENDMENT 27, 1951 House Joint Resolution No. 8, p 961. Approved November 4, 1952.]

Provisions of Art. 7 § 2 (Limitation on Levies) also subject to limitations contained in Art. 8 § 6: Art. 7 § 2 (b).

Original text—Art. 8 § 6 LIMITATIONS UPON MUNICIPAL INDEBTEDNESS—No county, city, town, school district or other municipal corporation, shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding one and one-half percentum of the taxable property in such county, city, town, school district or other municipal corporation, without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state, and county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness; except that in incorporated cities the assessment shall be taken from the last assessment for city purposes; Provided, That no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section, shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly county, city, town, school district, or other municipal purposes. Provided further; that any city or town, with such assent may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount but not exceeding five per centum additional for supplying such city or town with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the municipality.

§ 7 CREDIT NOT TO BE LOANED. No county, city, town or other municipal corporation shall hereafter give any money, or property, or loan its money, or credit to or in aid of any individual, association, company or corporation, except for the necessary support of the poor and infirm, or become directly or indirectly the owner of any stock in or bonds of any association, company or corporation.

§ 8 PORT EXPENDITURES—INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT—PROMOTION. The use of public funds by port districts in such manner as may be prescribed by the legislature for industrial development or trade promotion and promotional hosting shall be deemed a public use for a public purpose, and shall not be deemed a gift within the provisions of section 7 of this Article. [AMENDMENT 45, 1965 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 25; p 2819. Approved November 8, 1966.]

§ 9 STATE BUILDING AUTHORITY. The legislature is empowered notwithstanding any other provision in this Constitution, to provide for a state building authority in corporate and politic form which may contract with agencies or departments of the state government to construct upon land owned by the state or its agencies, or to be acquired by the state building authority, buildings and appurtenant improvements which such state agencies or departments are hereby empowered to lease at reasonable rental rates from the Washington state building authority for terms up to seventy-five years with provisions for eventual vesting of title in the state or its agencies. This section shall not be construed as authority to provide buildings through lease or otherwise to nongovernmental entities. The legislature may authorize the state building authority to borrow funds solely upon its own credit and to issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness therefor to be repaid from its revenues and to secure the same by pledging its income or mortgaging its leaseholds. The provisions of sections 1 and 3 of this article shall not apply to indebtedness incurred pursuant to this section. [AMENDMENT 51, 1967 Senate Joint Resolution No. 17. Approved November 5, 1968.]

Note: This section which was adopted as Sec. 8, is herein renumbered Sec. 9, to avoid confusion with Sec. 8, supra.

§ 10 RESIDENTIAL ENERGY CONSERVATION. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 7 of this Article, until January 1, 1990 any county, city, town, quasi municipal corporation, municipal corporation, or political subdivision of the state which is engaged in the sale or distribution of energy may, as authorized by the legislature, use public moneys or credit derived from operating revenues from the sale of energy to assist the owners of residential structures in financing the acquisition and installation of materials and equipment for the conservation or more efficient use of energy in such structures. Except as provided in section 7 of this Article, an appropriate charge back shall be made for such extension of public moneys or credit and the same shall be a lien against the residential structure benefited. Except as to contracts entered into prior thereto, this amendment to the state Constitution shall be null and void as of January 1, 1990 and shall have no further force or effect after that date. [AMENDMENT 70, 1979 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 120. Approved November 6, 1979.]

ARTICLE IX EDUCATION

§ 1 PREAMBLE. It is the paramount duty of the state to make ample provision for the education of all children residing within its borders, without distinction or preference on account of race, color, caste, or sex.

§ 2 PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM. The legislature shall provide for a general and uniform system of public schools. The public school system shall include common schools, and such high schools, normal schools, and technical schools as may hereafter be established. But the entire revenue derived from the common school fund and the state tax for common schools shall be exclusively applied to the support of the common schools.

§ 3 FUNDS FOR SUPPORT. The principal of the common school fund as the same existed on June 30, 1965, shall remain permanent and irreducible. The said fund shall consist of the principal amount thereof existing on June 30, 1965, and such additions thereto as may be derived after June 30, 1965, from the following named sources, to wit: Appropriations and donations by the state to this fund; donations and bequests by individuals to the state or public for common schools; the proceeds of lands and other property which revert to the state by escheat and forfeiture; the proceeds of all property granted to the state when the purpose of the grant is not specified, or is uncertain; funds accumulated in the treasury of the state for the disbursement of which provision has not been made by law; the proceeds of the sale of stone, minerals, or property other than timber and other crops from school and state lands, other than those granted for specific purposes; all moneys received from persons appropriating stone, minerals or property other than timber and other crops from school and state lands other than those granted for specific purposes, and all moneys other than rental recovered from persons trespassing on said lands; five per centum of the proceeds of the sale of public lands lying within the state, which shall be sold by the United States subsequent to the admission of the state into the Union as approved by section 13 of the act of congress enabling the admission of the state into the Union; the principal of all funds arising from the sale of lands and other property which have been, and hereafter may be granted to the state for the support of common schools. The legislature may make further provisions for enlarging said fund.

There is hereby established the common school construction fund to be used exclusively for the purpose of financing the construction of facilities for the common schools. The sources of said fund shall be: (1) Those proceeds derived from the sale or appropriation of timber and other crops from school and state lands subsequent to June 30, 1965, other than those granted for specific purposes; (2) the interest accruing on said permanent common school fund from and after July 1, 1967, together with all rentals and other revenues derived therefrom and from lands and other property devoted to the permanent common school fund from and after July 1, 1967; and (3) such other sources as the legislature may direct. That portion of the common school construction fund derived from interest on the permanent common school fund may be used to retire such bonds as may be authorized by law for the purpose of financing the construction of facilities for the common schools.

The interest accruing on the permanent common school fund together with all rentals and other revenues accruing thereto pursuant to subsection (2) of this section during the period after the effective date of this amendment and prior to July 1, 1967, shall be exclusively applied to the current use of the common schools.

To the extent that the moneys in the common school construction fund are in excess of the amount necessary to allow fulfillment of the purpose of said fund, the excess shall be available for deposit to the credit of the permanent common school fund or available for the current use of the common schools, as the legislature may direct. [AMENDMENT 43, 1965 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 22, part 1, p 2817. Approved November 8, 1966.]

Original text—Art. 9 § 3 FUNDS FOR SUPPORT—The principal of the common school fund shall remain permanent and irreducible. The said fund shall be derived from the following named sources, to wit: Appropriations and donations by the state to this fund; donations and bequests by individuals to the state or public for common schools; the proceeds of lands and other property which revert to the state by escheat and forfeiture; the proceeds of all property granted to the state when the purpose of the grant is not specified, or is uncertain; funds accumulated in the treasury of the state for the disbursement of which provision has not been made by law; the proceeds of the sale of timber, stone, minerals, or other property from school and state lands, other than those granted for specific purposes; all moneys received from persons appropriating timber, stone, minerals or other property from school and state lands other than those granted for specific purposes, and all moneys other than rental recovered from persons trespassing on said lands; five per centum of the proceeds of the sale of public lands lying within the state, which shall be sold by the United States subsequent to the admission of the state into the Union as approved by section 13 of the act of congress enabling the admission of the state into the Union; the principal of all funds arising from the sale of lands and other property which have been, and hereafter may be granted to the state for the support of common schools. The legislature may make further provisions for enlarging said fund. The interest accruing on said fund together with all rentals and other revenues derived therefrom and from lands and other property devoted to the common school fund shall be exclusively applied to the current use of the common schools.

§ 4 SECTARIAN CONTROL OR INFLUENCE PROHIBITED. All schools maintained or supported wholly or in part by the public funds shall be forever free from sectarian control or influence.

§ 5 LOSS OF PERMANENT FUND TO BECOME STATE DEBT. All losses to the permanent common school or any other state educational fund, which shall be occasioned by defalcation, mismanagement or fraud of the agents or officers controlling or managing the same, shall be audited by the proper authorities of the state. The amount so audited shall be a permanent funded debt against the state in favor of the particular fund sustaining such loss, upon which not less than six per cent annual interest shall be paid. The amount of liability so created shall not be counted as a part of the indebtedness authorized and limited elsewhere in this Constitution.

Investment of permanent school fund: Art. 16 § 5.

ARTICLE X MILITIA

§ 1 WHO LIABLE TO MILITARY DUTY. All able-bodied male citizens of this state between the ages of eighteen (18) and forty-five (45) years except such as are exempt by laws of the United States or by the laws of this state, shall be liable to military duty.

§ 2 ORGANIZATION—DISCIPLINE—OFFICERS—POWER TO CALL OUT. The legislature shall provide by law for organizing and disciplining the militia in such manner as it may deem expedient, not incompatible with the Constitution and laws of the United States. Officers of the militia shall be elected or appointed in such manner as the legislature shall from time to time direct and shall be commissioned by the governor. The governor shall have power to call forth the militia to execute the laws of the state to suppress insurrections and repel invasions.

§ 3 SOLDIERS' HOME. The legislature shall provide by law for the maintenance of a soldiers' home for honorably discharged Union soldiers, sailors, marines and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty and who are bona fide citizens of the state.

§ 4 PUBLIC ARMS. The legislature shall provide by law, for the protection and safe keeping of the public arms.

§ 5 PRIVILEGE FROM ARREST. The militia shall, in all cases, except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at musters and elections of officers, and in going to and returning from the same.

§ 6 EXEMPTION FROM MILITARY DUTY. No person or persons, having conscientious scruples against bearing arms, shall be compelled to do militia duty in time of peace: Provided, such person or persons shall pay an equivalent for such exemption.

ARTICLE XI

COUNTY, CITY AND TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION

§ 1 EXISTING COUNTIES RECOGNIZED. The several counties of the Territory of Washington existing at the time of the adoption of this Constitution are hereby recognized as legal subdivisions of this state.

§ 2 COUNTY SEATS—LOCATION AND REMOVAL. No county seat shall be removed unless three-fifths of the qualified electors of the county, voting on the proposition at a general election shall vote in favor of such removal, and three-fifths of all votes cast on the proposition shall be required to relocate a county seat. A proposition of removal shall not be submitted in the same county more than once in four years.

Governmental continuity during emergency periods: Art. 2 § 42.

§ 3 NEW COUNTIES. No new counties shall be established which shall reduce any county to a population less than four thousand (4,000), nor shall a new county be formed containing a less population than two thousand (2,000). There shall be no territory stricken from any county unless a majority of the voters living in such territory shall petition therefor and then only under such other conditions as may be prescribed by a general law applicable to the whole state. Every county which shall be enlarged or created from territory taken from any other county or counties shall be liable for a just proportion of the existing debts and liabilities of the county or counties from which such territory shall be taken: Provided, That in such accounting neither county shall be charged with any debt or liability then existing incurred in the purchase of any county property, or in the purchase or construction of any county buildings then in use, or under construction, which shall fall within and be retained by the county: Provided further, That this shall not be construed to affect the rights of creditors.

§ 4 COUNTY GOVERNMENT AND TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION. The legislature shall establish a system of county government, which shall be uniform throughout the state except as hereinafter provided, and by general laws shall provide for township organization, under which any county may organize whenever a majority of the qualified electors of such county voting at a general election shall so determine; and whenever a county shall adopt township organization, the assessment and collection of the revenue shall be made, and the business of such county and the local affairs of the several townships therein, shall be managed and transacted in the manner prescribed by such general law.

Any county may frame a "Home Rule" charter for its own government subject to the Constitution and laws of this state, and for such purpose the legislative authority of such county may cause an election to be had, at which election there shall be chosen by the qualified voters of said county not less than fifteen (15) nor more than twenty-five (25) freeholders thereof, as determined by the legislative authority, who shall have been residents of said county for a period of at least five (5) years preceding their election and who are themselves qualified electors, whose duty it shall be to convene within thirty (30) days after their election and prepare and propose a charter for such county. Such proposed charter shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said county, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon ratify the same, it shall become the charter of said county and shall become the organic law thereof, and supersede any existing charter, including amendments thereto, or any existing form of county government, and all special laws inconsistent with such charter. Said proposed charter shall be published in two (2) legal newspapers published in said county, at least once a week for four (4) consecutive weeks prior to the day of submitting the same to the electors for their approval as above provided. All elections in this section authorized shall only be had upon notice, which notice shall specify the object of calling such election and shall be given for at least ten (10) days before the day of election in all election districts of said county. Said elections may be general or special elections and except as herein provided, shall be governed by the law regulating and controlling general or special elections in said county. Such charter may be amended by proposals therefor submitted by the legislative authority of said county to the electors thereof at any general election after notice of such submission published as above specified, and ratified by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto, any alternate article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others.

Any home rule charter proposed as herein provided, may provide for such county officers as may be deemed necessary to carry out and perform all county functions as provided by charter or by general law, and for their compensation, but shall not affect the election of the prosecuting attorney, the county superintendent of schools, the judges of the superior court, and the justices of the peace, or the jurisdiction of the courts.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provision for the calling of an election by the legislative authority of such county for the election of freeholders to frame a county charter, registered voters equal in number to ten (10) per centum of the voters of any such county voting at the last preceding general election, may at any time propose by petition the calling of an election of freeholders. The petition shall be filed with the county auditor of the county at least three (3) months before any general election and the proposal that a board of freeholders be elected for the purpose of framing a county charter shall be submitted to the vote of the people at said general election, and at the same election a board of freeholders of not less than fifteen (15) or more than twenty-five (25), as fixed in the petition calling for the election, shall be chosen to draft the new charter. The procedure for the nomination of qualified electors as candidates for said board of freeholders shall be prescribed by the legislative authority of the county, and the procedure for the framing of the charter and the submission of the charter as framed shall be the same as in the case of a board of freeholders chosen at an election initiated by the legislative authority of the county.

In calling for any election of freeholders as provided in this section, the legislative authority of the county shall apportion the number of freeholders to be elected in accordance with either the legislative districts or the county commissioner districts, if any, within said county, the number of said freeholders to be elected from each of said districts to be in proportion to the population of said districts as nearly as may be.

Should the charter proposed receive the affirmative vote of the majority of the electors voting thereon, the legislative authority of the county shall immediately call such special election as may be provided for therein, if any, and the county government shall be established in accordance with the terms of said charter not more than six (6) months after the election at which the charter was adopted.

The terms of all elective officers, except the prosecuting attorney, the county superintendent of schools, the judges of the superior court, and the justices of the peace, who are in office at the time of the adoption of a Home Rule Charter shall terminate as provided in the charter. All appointive officers in office at the time the charter goes into effect, whose positions are not abolished thereby, shall continue until their successors shall have qualified.

After the adoption of such charter, such county shall continue to have all the rights, powers, privileges and benefits then possessed or thereafter conferred by general law. All the powers, authority and duties granted to and imposed on county officers by general law, except the prosecuting attorney, the county superintendent of schools, the judges of the superior court and the justices of the peace, shall be vested in the legislative authority of the county unless expressly vested in specific officers by the charter. The legislative authority may by resolution delegate any of its executive or administrative powers, authority or duties not expressly vested in specific officers by the charter, to any county officer or officers or county employee or employees.

The provisions of sections 5, 6, 7, and the first sentence of section 8 of this Article as amended shall not apply to counties in which the government has been established by charter adopted under the provisions hereof. The authority conferred on the board of county commissioners by Section 15 of Article II as amended, shall be exercised by the legislative authority of the county. [AMENDMENT 21, 1947 Senate Joint Resolution No. 5, p 1372. Approved November 2, 1948.]

Original text--Art. 11 § 4 COUNTY GOVERNMENT AND TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION--The legislature shall establish a system of county government which shall be uniform throughout the state, and by general laws shall provide for township organization, under which any county may organize whenever a majority of the qualified electors of such county voting at a general election shall so determine, and whenever a county shall adopt township organization the assessment and collection of the revenue shall be made and the business of such county, and the local affairs of the several townships therein shall be managed and transacted in the manner prescribed by such general laws.

§ 5 COUNTY GOVERNMENT. The legislature, by general and uniform laws, shall provide for the election in the several counties of boards of county commissioners, sheriffs, county clerks, treasurers, prosecuting attorneys and other county, township or precinct and district officers, as public convenience may require, and shall prescribe their duties, and fix their terms of office: Provided, That the legislature may, by general laws, classify the counties by population and provide for the election in certain classes of counties certain officers who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of two or more officers. It shall regulate the compensation of all such officers, in proportion to their duties, and for that purpose may classify the counties by population: Provided, That it may delegate to the legislative authority of the counties the right to prescribe the salaries of its own members and the salaries of other county officers. And it shall provide for the strict accountability of such officers for all fees which may be collected by them and for all public moneys which may be paid to them, or officially come into their possession. [AMENDMENT 57, part, 1971 Senate Joint Resolution No. 38, part, p 1829. Approved November, 1972.]

Amendment 12 (1924)--Art. 11 § 5 COUNTY GOVERNMENT--The legislature, by general and uniform laws, shall provide for the election in the several counties of boards of county commissioners, sheriffs, county clerks, treasurers, prosecuting attorneys and other county, township or precinct and district officers, as public convenience may require, and shall prescribe their duties, and fix their terms of office: Provided, That the legislature may, by general laws, classify the counties by population and provide for the election in certain classes of counties certain officers who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of two or more officers. It shall regulate the compensation of all such officers, in proportion to their duties, and for that purpose may classify the counties by population. And it shall provide for the strict accountability of such officers for all fees which may be collected by them and for all public moneys which may be paid to them, or officially come into their possession. [AMENDMENT 12, 1923 p 255 § 1. Approved November, 1924.]

Original text—Art. 11 § 5 ELECTION AND COMPENSATION OF COUNTY OFFICERS—The legislature by general and uniform laws shall provide for the election in the several counties of boards of county commissioners, sheriffs, county clerks, treasurers, prosecuting attorneys, and other county, township or precinct and district officers as public convenience may require, and shall prescribe their duties, and fix their terms of office. It shall regulate the compensation of all such officers, in proportion to their duties, and for that purpose may classify the counties by population. And it shall provide for the strict accountability of such officers for all fees which may be collected by them, and for all public moneys which may be paid to them, or officially come into their possession.

§ 6 VACANCIES IN TOWNSHIP, PRECINCT OR ROAD DISTRICT OFFICE. The board of county commissioners in each county shall fill all vacancies occurring in any township, precinct or road district office of such county by appointment, and officers thus appointed shall hold office till the next general election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. [AMENDMENT 52, part, 1967 Senate Joint Resolution No. 24, part. Approved November 5, 1968.]

Governmental continuity during emergency periods: Art. 2 § 42.

Vacancies in legislature and in partisan county elective office: Art. 2 § 15.

Original text—Art. 11 § 6 VACANCIES IN COUNTY, ETC., OFFICES, HOW FILLED—The board of county commissioners in each county shall fill all vacancies occurring in any county, township, precinct or road district office of such county by appointment, and officers thus appointed shall hold office till the next general election, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

§ 7 TENURE OF OFFICE LIMITED TO TWO TERMS. [Repealed by AMENDMENT 22, 1947 House Joint Resolution No. 4, p 1385. Approved November 2, 1948.]

Original text—Art. 11 § 7 TENURE OF OFFICE LIMITED TO TWO TERMS—No county officer shall be eligible to hold his office more than two terms in succession.

§ 8 SALARIES AND LIMITATIONS AFFECTING. The salary of any county, city, town, or municipal officers shall not be increased except as provided in section 1 of Article XXX or diminished after his election, or during his term of office; nor shall the term of any such officer be extended beyond the period for which he is elected or appointed. [AMENDMENT 57, part, 1971 Senate Joint Resolution No. 38, part, p 1829. Approved November, 1972.]

Original text—Art. 11 § 8 SALARIES AND LIMITATIONS AFFECTING—The legislature shall fix the compensation by salaries of all county officers, and of constables in cities having a population of five thousand and upwards, except that public administrators, surveyors and coroners may or may not be salaried officers. The salary of any county, city, town, or municipal officers shall not be increased or diminished after his election, or during his term of office, nor shall the term of any such officer be extended beyond the period for which he is elected or appointed.

§ 9 STATE TAXES NOT TO BE RELEASED OR COMMUTED. No county, nor the inhabitants thereof, nor the property therein, shall be released or discharged from its or their proportionate share of taxes to be levied for state purposes, nor shall commutation for such taxes be authorized in any form whatever.

§ 10 INCORPORATION OF MUNICIPALITIES.

Corporations for municipal purposes shall not be created by special laws; but the legislature, by general laws, shall provide for the incorporation, organization and classification in proportion to population, of cities and towns, which laws may be altered, amended or repealed. Cities and towns heretofore organized, or incorporated may become organized under such general laws whenever a majority of the electors voting at a general election, shall so determine, and shall organize in conformity therewith; and cities or towns heretofore or hereafter organized, and all charters thereof framed or adopted by authority of this Constitution shall be subject to and controlled by general laws. Any city containing a population of ten thousand inhabitants, or more, shall be permitted to frame a charter for its own government, consistent with and subject to the Constitution and laws of this state, and for such purpose the legislative authority of such city may cause an election to be had at which election there shall be chosen by the qualified electors of said city, fifteen freeholders thereof, who shall have been residents of said city for a period of at least two years preceding their election and qualified electors, whose duty it shall be to convene within ten days after their election, and prepare and propose a charter for such city. Such proposed charter shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon ratify the same, it shall become the charter of said city, and shall become the organic law thereof, and supersede any existing charter including amendments thereto, and all special laws inconsistent with such charter. Said proposed charter shall be published in the daily newspaper of largest general circulation published in the area to be incorporated as a first class city under the charter or, if no daily newspaper is published therein, then in the newspaper having the largest general circulation within such area at least once each week for four weeks next preceding the day of submitting the same to the electors for their approval, as above provided. All elections in this section authorized shall only be had upon notice, which notice shall specify the object of calling such election, and shall be given as required by law. Said elections may be general or special elections, and except as herein provided shall be governed by the law regulating and controlling general or special elections in said city. Such charter may be amended by proposals therefor submitted by the legislative authority of such city to the electors thereof at any general election after notice of said submission published as above specified, and ratified by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon. In submitting any such charter, or amendment thereto, any alternate article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others. [AMENDMENT 40, 1963 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 1, p 1526. Approved November 3, 1964.]

Original text—Art. 11 § 10 INCORPORATION OF MUNICIPALITIES—Corporations for municipal purposes shall not be created by special laws, but the legislature, by general laws, shall provide for the incorporation, organization and classification in proportion to population, of cities and towns, which laws may be altered, amended or repealed. Cities and towns heretofore organized, or incorporated may become organized under such general laws whenever a majority of the electors voting at a general election, shall so determine, and shall organize in conformity therewith; and cities or towns heretofore or hereafter organized, and all charters thereof framed or adopted by authority of this Constitution shall be subject to, and controlled by general laws. Any city containing a population of twenty thousand inhabitants, or more, shall be permitted to frame a charter for its own government, consistent with and subject to the Constitution and laws of this state, and for such purpose the legislative authority of such city may cause an election to be had at which election there shall be chosen by the qualified electors of said city, fifteen freeholders thereof, who shall have been residents of said city for a period of at least two years preceding their election and qualified electors, whose duty it shall be to convene within ten days after their election, and prepare and propose a charter for such city. Such proposed charter shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon ratify the same, it shall become the charter of said city, and shall become the organic law thereof, and supersede any existing charter including amendments thereto, and all special laws inconsistent with such charter. Said proposed charter shall be published in two daily newspapers published in said city, for at least thirty days prior to the day of submitting the same to the electors for their approval, as above provided. All elections in this section authorized shall only be had upon notice, which notice shall specify the object of calling such election, and shall be given for at least ten days before the day of election, in all election districts of said city. Said elections may be general or special elections, and except as herein provided shall be governed by the law regulating and controlling general or special elections in said city. Such charter may be amended by proposals therefore submitted by the legislative authority of such city to the electors thereof at any general election after notice of said submission published as above specified, and ratified by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon. In submitting any such charter, or amendment thereto, any alternate article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others.

Authority to incur and limit of indebtedness: Art. 8 § 6.

§ 11 POLICE AND SANITARY REGULATIONS. Any county, city, town or township may make and enforce within its limits all such local police, sanitary and other regulations as are not in conflict with general laws.

§ 12 ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION OF TAXES IN MUNICIPALITIES. The legislature shall have no power to impose taxes upon counties, cities, towns or other municipal corporations, or upon the inhabitants or property thereof, for county, city, town, or other municipal purposes, but may, by general laws, vest in the corporate authorities thereof, the power to assess and collect taxes for such purposes.

§ 13 PRIVATE PROPERTY, WHEN MAY BE TAKEN FOR PUBLIC DEBT. Private property shall not be taken or sold for the payment of the corporate debt of any public or municipal corporation, except in the mode provided by law for the levy and collection of taxes.

§ 14 PRIVATE USE OF PUBLIC FUNDS PROHIBITED. The making of profit out of county, city, town, or other public money, or using the same for any purpose not authorized by law, by any officer having the possession or control thereof, shall be a felony, and shall be prosecuted and punished as prescribed by law.

§ 15 DEPOSIT OF PUBLIC FUNDS. All moneys, assessments and taxes belonging to or collected for the use of any county, city, town or other public or municipal corporation, coming into the hands of any officer thereof, shall immediately be deposited with the treasurer, or other legal depository to the credit of such city, town, or other corporation respectively, for the benefit of the funds to which they belong.

§ 16 COMBINED CITY-COUNTY. Any county may frame a "Home Rule" charter subject to the Constitution and laws of this state to provide for the formation and government of combined city and county municipal corporations, each of which shall be known as "city-county". Registered voters equal in number to ten (10) percent of the voters of any such county voting at the last preceding general election may at any time propose by a petition the calling of an election of freeholders. The provisions of section 4 of this Article with respect to a petition calling for an election of freeholders to frame a county home rule charter, the election of freeholders, and the framing and adoption of a county home rule charter pursuant to such petition shall apply to a petition proposed under this section for the election of freeholders to frame a city-county charter, the election of freeholders, and to the framing and adoption of such city-county charter pursuant to such petition. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of section 4 applicable to a county home rule charter shall apply to a city-county charter. If there are not sufficient legal newspapers published in the county to meet the requirements for publication of a proposed charter under section 4 of this Article, publication in a legal newspaper circulated in the county may be substituted for publication in a legal newspaper published in the county. No such "city-county" shall be formed except by a majority vote of the qualified electors voting thereon in the county. The charter shall designate the respective officers of such city-county who shall perform the duties imposed by law upon county officers. Every such city-county shall have and enjoy all rights, powers and privileges asserted in its charter, and in addition thereto, such rights, powers and privileges as may be granted to it, or to any city or county or class or classes of cities and counties. In the event of a conflict in the constitutional provisions applying to cities and those applying to counties or of a conflict in the general laws applying to cities and those applying to counties, a city-county shall be authorized to exercise any powers that are granted to either the cities or the counties.

No legislative enactment which is a prohibition or restriction shall apply to the rights, powers and privileges of a city-county unless such prohibition or restriction shall apply equally to every other city, county, and city-county.

The provisions of sections 2, 3, 5, 6, and 8 and of the first paragraph of section 4 of this article shall not apply to any such city-county.

Municipal corporations may be retained or otherwise provided for within the city-county. The formation, powers and duties of such municipal corporations shall be prescribed by the charter.

No city-county shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding three per centum of the taxable property in such city-county without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed ten per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for city-county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness: Provided, That no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly city-county or other municipal purposes: Provided further, That any city-county, with such assent may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding five per centum additional for supplying such city-county with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the city-county.

No municipal corporation which is retained or otherwise provided for within the city-county shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding one and one-half per centum of the taxable property in such municipal corporation without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed five per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for city-county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness: Provided, That no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly municipal purposes: Provided further, That any such municipal corporation, with such assent, may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding five per centum additional for supplying such municipal corporation with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the municipal corporation. All taxes which are levied and collected within a municipal corporation for a specific purpose shall be expended within that municipal corporation.

The authority conferred on the city-county government shall not be restricted by the second sentence of Article 7, section 1, or by Article 8, section 6 of this Constitution. [AMENDMENT 58, 1971 House Joint Resolution No. 21, p 1831. Approved November, 1972.]

Amendment 23 (1948)—Art. 11 § 16 COMBINED CITY AND COUNTY—The legislature shall, by general law, provide for the formation of combined city and county municipal corporations, and for the manner of determining the territorial limits thereof, each of which shall be known as a "city and county," and, when organized, shall contain a population of at least three hundred thousand (300,000) inhabitants. No such city and county shall be formed except by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the area proposed to be included therein and also by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the remainder of that county from which such area is to be taken. Any such city and county shall be permitted to frame a charter for its own government, and amend the same, in the manner provided for cities by section 10 of this article: Provided, however, That the first charter of such city and county shall be framed and adopted in a manner to be specified in the general law authorizing the formation of such corporations: Provided further, That every such charter shall designate the respective officers of such city and county who shall perform the duties imposed by law upon county officers. Every such city and county shall have and enjoy all rights, powers and privileges asserted in its charter, not inconsistent with general laws, and in addition thereto, such rights, powers and privileges as may be granted to it, or possessed and enjoyed by cities and counties of like population separately organized.

No county or county government existing outside the territorial limits of such county and city shall exercise any police, taxation or other powers within the territorial limits of such county and city, but all such powers shall be exercised by the city and county and the officers thereof, subject to such constitutional provisions and general laws as apply to either cities or counties: Provided, That the provisions of sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this article shall not apply to any such city and county: Provided further, That the salary of any elective or appointive officer of a city and county shall not be changed after his election or appointment or during his term of office, nor shall the term of any such officer be extended beyond the period for which he is elected or appointed. In case an existing county is divided in the formation of a city and county, such city and county shall be liable for a just proportion of the existing debts or liabilities of the former county, and shall account for and pay the county remaining a just proportion of the value of any real estate or other property owned by the former county and taken over by the county and city, the method of determining such just proportion to be prescribed by general law, but such division shall not affect the rights of creditors. The officers of a city and county, their compensation, qualifications, term of office and manner of election or appointment shall be as provided for in its charter, subject to general laws and applicable constitutional provisions. [AMENDMENT 23, 1947 House Joint Resolution No. 13, p 1386. Approved November 2, 1948.]

ARTICLE XII

CORPORATIONS OTHER THAN MUNICIPAL

§ 1 CORPORATIONS, HOW FORMED. Corporations may be formed under general laws, but shall not be created by special acts. All laws relating to corporations may be altered, amended or repealed by the legislature at any time, and all corporations doing business in this state may, as to such business, be regulated, limited or restrained by law.

§ 2 EXISTING CHARTERS. All existing charters, franchises, special or exclusive privileges, under which an actual and bona fide organization shall not have taken place, and business been commenced in good faith, at the time of the adoption of this Constitution shall thereafter have no validity.

§ 3 EXISTING CHARTERS NOT TO BE EXTENDED NOR FORFEITURE REMITTED. The legislature shall not extend any franchise or charter, nor remit the forfeiture of any franchise or charter of any corporation now existing, or which shall hereafter exist under the laws of this state.

§ 4 LIABILITY OF STOCKHOLDERS. Each stockholder in all incorporated companies, except corporations organized for banking or insurance purposes, shall be liable for the debts of the corporation to the amount of his unpaid stock and no more; and one or more stockholders may be joined as parties defendant in suits to recover upon this liability.

§ 5 TERM "CORPORATION," DEFINED—RIGHT TO SUE AND BE SUED. The term corporations, as used in this article, shall be construed to include all associations and joint stock companies having any powers or privileges of corporations not possessed by individuals or partnerships, and all corporations shall have the right to sue and shall be subject to be sued, in all courts, in like cases as natural persons.

§ 6 LIMITATIONS UPON ISSUANCE OF STOCK. Corporations shall not issue stock, except to bona fide subscribers therefor, or their assignees; nor shall any corporation issue any bond, or other obligation, for the payment of money, except for money or property received or labor done. The stock of corporations shall not be increased, except in pursuance of a general law, nor shall any law authorize the increase of stock, without the consent of the person or persons holding the larger amount in value of the stock, nor without due notice of the proposed increase having been previously given in such manner as may be prescribed by law. All fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void.

§ 7 FOREIGN CORPORATIONS. No corporation organized outside the limits of this state shall be allowed to transact business within the state on more favorable conditions than are prescribed by law to similar corporations organized under the laws of this state.

§ 8 ALIENATION OF FRANCHISE NOT TO RELEASE LIABILITIES. No corporation shall lease or alienate any franchise, so as to relieve the franchise, or property held thereunder, from the liabilities of the lessor, or grantor, lessee, or grantee, contracted or incurred in the operation, use, or enjoyment of such franchise or any of its privileges.

§ 9 STATE NOT TO LOAN ITS CREDIT OR SUBSCRIBE FOR STOCK. The state shall not in any manner loan its credit, nor shall it subscribe to, or be interested in the stock of any company, association or corporation.

§ 10 EMINENT DOMAIN AFFECTING. The exercise of the right of eminent domain shall never be so abridged or construed as to prevent the legislature from taking the property and franchises of incorporated companies, and subjecting them to public use the same as the property of individuals.

§ 11 STOCKHOLDER LIABILITY. No corporation, association, or individual shall issue or put in circulation as money anything but the lawful money of the United States. Each stockholder of any banking or insurance corporation or joint stock association shall be individually and personally liable equally and ratably, and not one for another, for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such corporation or association accruing while they remain such stockholders, to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares.

The legislature may provide that stockholders of banking corporations organized under the laws of this state which shall provide and furnish, either through membership in the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or through membership in any other instrumentality of the government of the United States, insurance or security for the payment of the debts and obligations of such banking corporation equivalent to that required by the laws of the United States to be furnished and provided by national banking associations, shall be relieved from liability for the debts and obligations of such banking corporation to the same extent that stockholders of national banking associations are relieved from liability for the debts and obligations of such national banking associations under the laws of the United States. [AMENDMENT 16, 1939 Senate Joint Resolution No. 8, p 1024. Approved November, 1940.]

Original text—Art. 12 § 11 PROHIBITION AGAINST ISSUANCE OF MONEY AND LIABILITY OF STOCKHOLDERS IN BANKS—No corporation, association, or individual shall issue or put in circulation as money anything but the lawful money of the United States. Each stockholder of any banking or insurance corporation or joint stock association, shall be individually and personally liable equally and ratably and not one for another, for all contracts, debts and engagements of such corporation or association accruing while they remain such stockholders to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares.

§ 12 RECEIVING DEPOSITS BY BANK AFTER INSOLVENCY. Any president, director, manager, cashier, or other officer of any banking institution, who shall receive or assent to the reception of deposits, after he shall have knowledge of the fact that such banking institution is insolvent or in failing circumstances, shall be individually responsible for such deposits so received.

§ 13 COMMON CARRIERS, REGULATION OF. All railroad, canal and other transportation companies are declared to be common carriers and subject to legislative control. Any association or corporation organized for the purpose, under the laws of this state, shall have the right to connect at the state line with railroads of other states. Every railroad company shall have the right with its road, whether the same be now constructed or may hereafter be constructed, to intersect, cross or connect with any other railroad, and when such railroads are of the same or similar gauge they shall at all crossings and at all points, where a railroad shall begin or terminate at or near any other railroad, form proper connections so that the cars of any such railroad companies may be speedily transferred from one railroad to another. All railroad companies shall receive and transport each the other's passengers, tonnage and cars without delay or discrimination.

§ 14 PROHIBITION AGAINST COMBINATIONS BY CARRIERS. [Repealed by AMENDMENT 67, 1977 House Joint Resolution No. 57. Approved November 8, 1977.]

Original text—Art. 12 § 14 PROHIBITION AGAINST COMBINATIONS BY CARRIERS—No railroad company, or other common carrier, shall combine or make any contract with the owners of any vessel that leaves port or makes port in this state, or with any common carrier, by which combination or contract the earnings of one doing the carrying are to be shared by the other not doing the carrying.

§ 15 PROHIBITION AGAINST DISCRIMINATING CHARGES. No discrimination in charges or facilities for transportation shall be made by any railroad or other transportation company between places or persons, or in the facilities for the transportation of the same classes of freight or passengers within this state, or coming from or going to any other state. Persons and property transported over any railroad, or by any other transportation company, or individual, shall be delivered at any station, landing or port, at charges not exceeding the charges for the transportation of persons and property of the same class, in the same direction, to any more distant station, port or landing. Excursion and commutation tickets may be issued at special rates.

§ 16 PROHIBITION AGAINST CONSOLIDATING OF COMPETING LINES. No railroad corporation shall consolidate its stock, property or franchises with any other railroad corporation owning a competing line.

§ 17 ROLLING STOCK, PERSONALTY FOR PURPOSE OF TAXATION. The rolling stock and other movable property belonging to any railroad company or corporation in this state, shall be considered personal property, and shall be liable to taxation and to execution and sale in the same manner as the personal property of individuals and such property shall not be exempted from execution and sale.

§ 18 RATES FOR TRANSPORTATION. The legislature may pass laws establishing reasonable rates of charges for the transportation of passengers and freight, and to correct abuses and prevent discrimination and extortion in the rates of freight and passenger tariffs on the different railroads and other common carriers in the state, and shall enforce such laws by adequate penalties. A railroad and transportation commission may be established and its powers and duties fully defined by law. [AMENDMENT 66, 1977 House Joint Resolution No. 55. Approved November 8, 1977.]

Original text—Art. 12 § 18 MAXIMUM RATES FOR TRANSPORTATION—The legislature shall pass laws establishing reasonable maximum rates of charges for the transportation of passengers and freight, and to correct abuses and prevent discrimination and extortion in the rates of freight and passenger tariffs on the different railroads and other common carriers in the state, and shall enforce such laws by adequate penalties. A railroad and transportation commission may be established and its powers and duties fully defined by law.

§ 19 TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE COMPANIES. Any association or corporation, or the lessees or managers thereof, organized for the purpose, or any individual, shall have the right to construct and maintain lines of telegraph and telephone within this state, and said companies shall receive and transmit each other's messages without delay or discrimination and all of such companies are hereby declared to be common carriers and subject to legislative control. Railroad corporations organized or doing business in this state shall allow telegraph and telephone corporations and companies to construct and maintain telegraph lines on and along the rights of way of such railroads and railroad companies, and no railroad corporation organized or doing business in this state shall allow any telegraph corporation or company any facilities, privileges or rates for transportation of men or material or for repairing their lines not allowed to all telegraph companies. The right of eminent domain is hereby extended to all telegraph and telephone companies. The legislature shall, by general law of uniform operation, provide reasonable regulations to give effect to this section.

Eminent domain: Art. 1 § 16.

§ 20 PROHIBITION AGAINST FREE TRANSPORTATION FOR PUBLIC OFFICERS. No railroad or other transportation company shall grant free passes, or sell tickets or passes at a discount, other than as sold to the public generally, to any member of the legislature, or to any person holding any public office within this state. The legislature shall pass laws to carry this provision into effect.

§ 21 EXPRESS COMPANIES. Railroad companies now or hereafter organized or doing business in this state, shall allow all express companies organized or doing business in this state, transportation over all lines of railroad owned or operated by such railroad companies upon equal terms with any other express company, and no railroad corporation organized or doing business in this state shall allow any express corporation or company any facilities, privileges or rates for transportation of men or materials or property carried by them or for doing the business of such express companies not allowed to all express companies.

§ 22 MONOPOLIES AND TRUSTS. Monopolies and trusts shall never be allowed in this state, and no incorporated company, copartnership, or association of persons in this state shall directly or indirectly combine or make any contract with any other incorporated company, foreign or domestic, through their stockholders, or the trustees or assignees of such stockholders, or with any copartnership or association of persons, or in any manner whatever for the purpose of fixing the price or limiting the production or regulating the transportation of any product or commodity. The legislature shall pass laws for the enforcement of this section by adequate penalties, and in case of incorporated companies, if necessary for that purpose, may declare a forfeiture of their franchises.

ARTICLE XIII STATE INSTITUTIONS

§ 1 EDUCATIONAL, REFORMATORY AND PENAL INSTITUTIONS. Educational, reformatory and penal institutions; those for the benefit of blind, deaf, dumb, or otherwise defective youth; for the insane or idiotic; and such other institutions as the public good may require, shall be fostered and supported by the state, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law.

The regents, trustees, or commissioners of all such institutions existing at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, and of such as shall thereafter be established by law, shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate; and upon all nominations made by the governor, the question shall be taken by ayes and noes, and entered upon the journal.

ARTICLE XIV SEAT OF GOVERNMENT

§ 1 STATE CAPITAL, LOCATION OF. The legislature shall have no power to change, or to locate the seat of government of this state; but the question of the permanent location of the seat of government of the state shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the Territory, at the election to be held for the adoption of this Constitution. A majority of all the votes cast at said election, upon said question, shall be necessary to determine the permanent location of the seat of government for the state; and no place shall ever be the seat of government which shall not receive a majority of the votes cast on that matter. In case there shall be no choice of location at said first election the legislature shall, at its first regular session after the adoption of this Constitution, provide for submitting to the qualified electors of the state, at the next succeeding general election thereafter, the question of choice of location between the three places for which the highest number of votes shall have been cast at the said first election. Said legislature shall provide further that in case there shall be no choice of location at said second election, the question of choice between the two places for which the highest number of votes shall have been cast, shall be submitted in like manner to the qualified electors of the state at the next ensuing general election: Provided, That until the seat of government shall have been permanently located as herein provided, the temporary location thereof shall remain at the city of Olympia.

§ 2 CHANGE OF STATE CAPITAL. When the seat of government shall have been located as herein provided, the location thereof shall not thereafter be changed except by a vote of two-thirds of all the qualified electors of the state voting on that question, at a general election, at which the question of location of the seat of government shall have been submitted by the legislature.

Governmental continuity during emergency periods: Art. 2 § 42.

§ 3 RESTRICTIONS ON APPROPRIATIONS FOR CAPITOL BUILDINGS. The legislature shall make no appropriations or expenditures for capitol buildings or grounds, except to keep the Territorial capitol buildings and grounds in repair, and for making all necessary additions thereto, until the seat of government shall have been permanently located, and the public buildings are erected at the permanent capital in pursuance of law.

ARTICLE XV HARBORS AND TIDE WATERS

§ 1 HARBOR LINE COMMISSION AND RESTRAINT ON DISPOSITION. The legislature shall provide for the appointment of a commission whose duty it shall be to locate and establish harbor lines in the navigable waters of all harbors, estuaries, bays and inlets of this state, wherever such navigable waters lie within or in front of the corporate limits of any city, or within one mile thereof on either side. Any harbor line so located or established may thereafter be changed, relocated or reestablished by the commission pursuant to such provision as may be made therefor by the legislature. The state shall never give, sell or lease to any private person, corporation, or association any rights whatever in the waters beyond such harbor lines, nor shall any of the area lying between any harbor line and the line of ordinary high water, and within not less than fifty feet nor more than two thousand feet of such harbor line (as the commission shall determine) be sold or granted by the state, nor its rights to control the same relinquished, but such area shall be forever reserved for landings, wharves, streets, and other conveniences of navigation and commerce. [AMENDMENT 15, 1931 p 417 § 1. Approved November, 1932.]

Tide lands: Art. 17.

Original text—Art. 15 § 1 HARBOR LINE COMMISSION AND RESTRAINT ON DISPOSITION OF CERTAIN TIDE LANDS—The legislature shall provide for the appointment of a commission whose duty it shall be to locate and establish harbor lines in the navigable waters of all harbors, estuaries, bays and inlets of this state, wherever such navigable waters lie within or in front of the corporate limits of any city or within one mile thereof on either side. The state shall never give, sell or lease to any private person, corporation or association any rights whatever in the waters beyond such harbor lines, nor shall any of the area lying between any harbor line and the line of ordinary high tide, and within not less than fifty feet nor more than six hundred feet of such harbor line (as the commission shall determine) be sold or granted by the state, nor its right to control the same relinquished, but such area shall be forever reserved for landings, wharves, streets and other conveniences of navigation and commerce.

§ 2 LEASING AND MAINTENANCE OF WHARVES, DOCKS, ETC. The legislature shall provide general laws for the leasing of the right to build and maintain wharves, docks and other structures, upon the areas mentioned in section one of this article, but no lease shall be made for any term longer than thirty years, or the legislature may provide by general laws for the building and maintaining upon such area wharves, docks, and other structures.

§ 3 EXTENSION OF STREETS OVER TIDE LANDS. Municipal corporations shall have the right to extend their streets over intervening tide lands to and across the area reserved as herein provided.

ARTICLE XVI SCHOOL AND GRANTED LANDS

§ 1 DISPOSITION OF. All the public lands granted to the state are held in trust for all the people and none of such lands, nor any estate or interest therein, shall ever be disposed of unless the full market value of the estate or interest disposed of, to be ascertained in such manner as may be provided by law, be paid or safely secured to the state; nor shall any lands which the state holds by grant from the United States (in any case in which the manner of disposal and minimum price are so prescribed) be disposed of except in the manner and for at least the price prescribed in the grant thereof, without the consent of the United States.

§ 2 MANNER AND TERMS OF SALE. None of the lands granted to the state for educational purposes shall be sold otherwise than at public auction to the highest bidder, the value thereof, less the improvements shall, before any sale, be appraised by a board of appraisers to be provided by law, the terms of payment also to be prescribed by law, and no sale shall be valid unless the sum bid be equal to the appraised value of said land. In estimating the value of such lands for disposal, the value of the improvements thereon shall be excluded: Provided, That the sale of all school and university land heretofore made by the commissioners of any county or the university commissioners when the purchase price has been paid in good faith, may be confirmed by the legislature.

§ 3 LIMITATIONS ON SALES. No more than one-fourth of the land granted to the state for educational purposes shall be sold prior to January 1, 1895, and not more than one-half prior to January 1, 1905: provided, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the state from selling the timber or stone off of any of the state lands in such manner and on such terms as may be prescribed by law: and provided, further, that no sale of timber lands shall be valid unless the full value of such lands is paid or secured to the state.

§ 4 HOW MUCH MAY BE OFFERED IN CERTAIN CASES—PLATTING OF. No more than one hundred and sixty (160) acres of any granted lands of the state shall be offered for sale in one parcel, and all lands within the limits of any incorporated city or within two miles of the boundary of any incorporated city where the valuation of such land shall be found by appraisal to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per acre shall, before the same be sold, be platted into lots and blocks of not more than five acres in a block, and not more than one block shall be offered for sale in one parcel.

§ 5 INVESTMENT OF PERMANENT COMMON SCHOOL FUND. The permanent common school fund of this state may be invested as authorized by law. [AMENDMENT 44, 1965 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 22, part 2, p 2817. Approved November 8, 1966.]

Amendment 1 (1894)—Art. 16 § 5 INVESTMENT OF SCHOOL FUND—None of the permanent school fund of this state shall ever be loaned to private persons or corporations, but it may be invested in national, state, county, municipal or school district bonds. [AMENDMENT 1, 1893 p 9 § 1. Approved November, 1894.]

ARTICLE XXIII AMENDMENTS

§ 1 HOW MADE. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in either branch of the legislature; and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals, with the ayes and noes thereon, and be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval, at the next general election; and if the people approve and ratify such amendment or amendments, by a majority of the electors voting thereon, the same shall become part of this Constitution, and proclamation thereof shall be made by the governor: Provided, That if more than one amendment be submitted, they shall be submitted in such a manner that the people may vote for or against such amendments separately. The legislature shall also cause notice of the amendments that are to be submitted to the people to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state: Provided, That failure of any newspaper to publish this notice shall not be interpreted as affecting the outcome of the election. [AMENDMENT 37, 1961 Senate Joint Resolution No. 25, p 2753. Approved November, 1962.]

Original text—Art. 23 § 1 HOW MADE—Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in either branch of the legislature, and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals, with the ayes and noes thereon, and be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval, at the next general election; and if the people approve and ratify such amendment or amendments, by a majority of the electors voting thereon, the same shall become part of this Constitution, and proclamation thereof shall be made by the governor: Provided, that if more than one amendment be submitted, they shall be submitted in such a manner that the people may vote for or against such amendments separately. The legislature shall also cause the amendments that are to be submitted to the people to be published for at least three months next preceding the election, in some weekly newspaper, in every county where a newspaper is published throughout the state.

§ 2 CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTIONS. Whenever two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the legislature shall deem it necessary to call a convention to revise or amend this Constitution, they shall recommend to the electors to vote at the next general election, for or against a convention, and if a majority of all the electors voting at said election shall have voted for a convention, the legislature shall at the next session, provide by law for calling the same; and such convention shall consist of a number of members, not less than that of the most numerous branch of the legislature.

§ 3 SUBMISSION TO THE PEOPLE. Any Constitution adopted by such convention shall have no validity until it has been submitted to and adopted by the people.

ARTICLE XXIV BOUNDARIES

§ 1 STATE BOUNDARIES. The boundaries of the state of Washington shall be as follows: Beginning at a point in the Pacific ocean one marine league due west of and opposite the middle of the mouth of the north ship channel of the Columbia river thence running easterly to and up the middle channel of said river and where it is divided by islands up the middle of the widest channel thereof to where the forty-sixth parallel of north latitude crosses said river near the mouth of the Walla Walla river; thence east on said forty-sixth parallel of latitude to the middle of the main channel of Shoshone or Snake river, thence follow down the middle of the main channel of Snake river to a point opposite the mouth of the Kooskooskia or Clear Water river, thence due north to the forty-ninth parallel of north latitude, thence west along said forty-ninth parallel of north latitude to the middle of the channel which separates Vancouver's island from the continent, that is to say to a point in longitude 123 degrees, 19 minutes and 15 seconds west, thence following the boundary line between the United States and British possessions through the channel which separates Vancouver's island from the continent to the termination of the boundary line between the United States and British possessions at a point in the Pacific ocean equidistant between Bonilla point on Vancouver's island and Tatoosh island light house, thence running in a southerly course and parallel with the coast line, keeping one marine league off shore to place of beginning; until such boundaries are modified by appropriate interstate compacts duly approved by the Congress of the United States. [AMENDMENT 33, 1957 Senate Joint Resolution No. 10, p 1292. Approved November 4, 1958.]

Original text—Art. 24 § 1 STATE BOUNDARIES—The boundaries of the State of Washington shall be as follows: Beginning at a point in the Pacific ocean one marine league due west of and opposite the middle of the mouth of the north ship channel of the Columbia river thence running easterly to and up the middle channel of said river and where it is divided by islands up the middle of the widest channel thereof to where the forty-sixth parallel of north latitude crosses said river near the mouth of the Walla Walla river, thence east on said forty-sixth parallel of latitude to the middle of the main channel of the Shoshone or Snake river, thence follow down the middle of the main channel of Snake river to a point opposite the mouth of the Kooskooskia or Clear Water river, thence due north to the forty-ninth parallel of north latitude, thence west along said forty-ninth parallel of north latitude to the middle of the channel which separates Vancouver's island from the continent, that is to say to a point in longitude 123 degrees, 19 minutes and 15 seconds west, thence following the boundary line between the United States and British possessions through the channel which separates Vancouver's island from the continent to the termination of the boundary line between the United States and British possessions at a point in the Pacific ocean equidistant between Bonilla point on Vancouver's island and Tatoosh island light house, thence running in a southerly course and parallel with the coast line, keeping one marine league off shore to place of beginning.

ARTICLE XXV JURISDICTION

§ 1 AUTHORITY OF THE UNITED STATES. The consent of the State of Washington is hereby given to the exercise, by the congress of the United States, of exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever over such tracts or parcels of land as are now held or reserved by the government of the United States for the purpose of erecting or maintaining thereon forts, magazines, arsenals, dockyards, lighthouses and other needful buildings, in accordance with the provisions of the seventeenth paragraph of the eighth section of the first article of the Constitution of the United States, so long as the same shall be so held and reserved by the United States. Provided: That a sufficient description by metes and bounds, and an accurate plat or map of each such tract or parcel of land be filed in the proper office of record in the county in which the same is situated, together with copies of the orders, deeds, patents or other evidences in writing of the title of the United States: and provided, That all civil process issued from the courts of this state and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of this state against any person charged with crime in cases arising outside of such reservations, may be served and executed thereon in the same mode and manner, and by the same officers, as if the consent herein given had not been made.

ARTICLE XXVI

COMPACT WITH THE UNITED STATES

The following ordinance shall be irrevocable without the consent of the United States and the people of this state:

First. That perfect toleration of religious sentiment shall be secured and that no inhabitant of this state shall ever be molested in person or property on account of his or her mode of religious worship.

Second. That the people inhabiting this state do agree and declare that they forever disclaim all right and title to the unappropriated public lands lying within the boundaries of this state, and to all lands lying within said limits owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribes; and that until the title thereto shall have been extinguished by the United States, the same shall be and remain subject to the disposition of the United States, and said Indian lands shall remain under the absolute jurisdiction and control of the congress of the United States and that the lands belonging to citizens of the United States residing without the limits of this state shall never be taxed at a higher rate than the lands belonging to residents thereof; and that no taxes shall be imposed by the state on lands or property therein, belonging to or which may be hereafter purchased by the United States or reserved for use: Provided, That nothing in this ordinance shall preclude the state from taxing as other lands are taxed any lands owned or held by any Indian who has severed his tribal relations, and has obtained from the United States or from any person a title thereto by patent or other grant, save and except such lands as have been or may be granted to any Indian or Indians under any act of congress containing a provision exempting the lands thus granted from taxation, which exemption shall continue so long and to such an extent as such act of congress may prescribe.

Third. The debts and liabilities of the Territory of Washington and payment of the same are hereby assumed by this state.

Fourth. Provision shall be made for the establishment and maintenance of systems of public schools free from sectarian control which shall be open to all the children of said state.

ARTICLE XXVII SCHEDULE

In order that no inconvenience may arise by reason of a change from a Territorial to a State government, it is hereby declared and ordained as follows:

§ 1 EXISTING RIGHTS, ACTIONS AND CONTRACTS SAVED. No existing rights, actions, suits, proceedings, contracts or claims shall be affected by a change in the form of government, but all shall continue as if no such change had taken place; and all process which may have been issued under the authority of the Territory of Washington previous to its admission into the Union shall be as valid as if issued in the name of the state.

§ 2 LAWS IN FORCE CONTINUED. All laws now in force in the Territory of Washington, which are not repugnant to this Constitution, shall remain in force until they expire by their own limitation, or are altered or repealed by the legislature: Provided, That this section shall not be so construed as to validate any act of the legislature of Washington Territory granting shore or tide lands to any person, company or any municipal or private corporation.

§ 3 DEBTS, FINES, ETC., TO INURE TO THE STATE. All debts, fines, penalties and forfeitures, which have accrued, or may hereafter accrue, to the Territory of Washington, shall inure to the State of Washington.

§ 4 RECOGNIZANCES. All recognizances heretofore taken, or which may be taken before the change from a territorial to a state government shall remain valid, and shall pass to, and may be prosecuted in the name of the state; and all bonds executed to the Territory of Washington or to any county or municipal corporation, or to any officer or court in his or its official capacity, shall pass to the state authorities and their successors in office, for the uses therein expressed, and may be sued for and recovered accordingly, and all the estate, real, personal and mixed, and all judgments decrees, bonds, specialties, choses in action, and claims or debts, of whatever description, belonging to the Territory of Washington, shall inure to and vest in the State of Washington, and may be sued for and recovered in the same manner, and to the same extent, by the State of Washington, as the same could have been by the Territory of Washington.

§ 5 CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS AND PENAL ACTIONS. All criminal prosecutions and penal actions which may have arisen, or which may arise, before the change from a territorial to a state government, and which shall then be pending, shall be prosecuted to judgment, and execution in the name of the state. All offenses committed against the laws of the Territory of Washington, before the change from a territorial to a state government, and which shall not be prosecuted before such change, may be prosecuted in the name and by the authority of the State of Washington, with like effect as though such change had not taken place; and all penalties incurred shall remain the same as if this Constitution had not been adopted. All actions at law and suits in equity which may be pending in any of the courts of the Territory of Washington, at the time of the change from a territorial to a state government, shall be continued, and transferred to the court of the state having jurisdiction of the subject matter thereof.

§ 6 RETENTION OF TERRITORIAL OFFICERS. All officers now holding their office under the authority of the United States, or of the Territory of Washington, shall continue to hold and exercise their respective offices until they shall be superseded by the authority of the state.

§ 7 CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICERS, WHEN ELECTED. All officers provided for in this Constitution including a county clerk for each county when no other time is fixed for their election, shall be elected at the election to be held for the adoption of this Constitution on the first Tuesday of October, 1889.

§ 8 CHANGE OF COURTS—TRANSFER OF CAUSES. Whenever the judge of the superior court of any county, elected or appointed under the provisions of this Constitution shall have qualified the several causes then pending in the district court of the territory except such causes as would have been within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States district court had such court existed at the time of the commencement of such causes, within such county, and the records, papers and proceedings of said district court, and the seal and other property pertaining thereto, shall pass into the jurisdiction and possession of the superior court for such county. And where the same judge is elected for two or more counties, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court having custody of such papers and records to transmit to the clerk of such county, or counties, other than that in which such records are kept the original papers in all cases pending in such district court and belonging to the jurisdiction of such county or counties together with transcript of so much of the records of said district court as relate to the same; and until the district courts of the Territory shall be superseded in manner aforesaid, the said district courts and the judges thereof, shall continue with the same jurisdiction and powers, to be exercised in the same judicial districts respectively, as heretofore constituted under the laws of the Territory. Whenever a quorum of the judges of the supreme court of the state shall have been elected and qualified, the causes then pending in the supreme court of the Territory, except such causes as would have been within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, circuit court had such court existed at the time of the commencement of such causes, and the papers, records and proceedings of said court and the seal and other property pertaining thereto, shall pass into the jurisdiction and possession of the supreme court of the state, and until so superseded, the supreme court of the Territory and the judges thereof, shall continue with like powers and jurisdiction as if this Constitution had not been adopted.

§ 9 SEALS OF COURTS AND MUNICIPALITIES. Until otherwise provided by law, the seal now in use in the supreme court of the Territory shall be the seal of the supreme court of the state. The seals of the superior courts of the several counties of the state shall be, until otherwise provided by law, the vignette of General George Washington with the words: "Seal of the Superior Court of ----- county" surrounding the vignette. The seal of municipalities, and of all county officers of the Territory, shall be the seals of such municipalities, and county officers respectively under the state, until otherwise provided by law.

§ 10 PROBATE COURT, TRANSFER OF. When the state is admitted into the Union, and the superior courts in the respective counties organized, the books, records, papers and proceedings of the probate court in each county, and all causes and matters of administration pending therein, shall, upon the expiration of the term of office of the probate judges, on the second Monday in January, 1891, pass into the jurisdiction and possession of the superior court of the same county created by this Constitution, and the said court shall proceed to final judgment or decree, order or other determination in the several matters and causes, as the territorial probate court might have done, if this Constitution had not been adopted. And until the expiration of the term of office of the probate judges, such probate judges shall perform the duties now imposed upon them by the laws of the Territory. The superior courts shall have appellate and revisory jurisdiction over the decisions of the probate courts, as now provided by law, until such latter courts expire by limitation.

§ 11 DUTIES OF FIRST LEGISLATURE. The legislature, at its first session, shall provide for the election of all officers whose election is not provided for elsewhere in this Constitution, and fix the time for the commencement and duration of their term.

§ 12 ELECTION CONTESTS FOR SUPERIOR JUDGES, HOW DECIDED. In case of a contest of election between candidates, at the first general election under this Constitution, for judges of the superior courts, the evidence shall be taken in the manner prescribed by the Territorial laws, and the testimony so taken shall be certified to the secretary of state; and said officer, together with the governor and treasurer of state, shall review the evidence and determine who is entitled to the certificate of election.

§ 13 REPRESENTATION IN CONGRESS. One representative in the congress of the United States shall be elected from the state at large, at the first election provided for in this Constitution; and, thereafter, at such times and places, and in such manner, as may be prescribed by law. When a new apportionment shall be made by congress, the legislature shall divide the state into congressional districts, in accordance with such apportionment. The vote cast for representative in congress, at the first election, shall be canvassed, and the result determined in the manner provided for by the laws of the Territory for the canvass of the vote for delegate in congress.

§ 14 DURATION OF TERM OF CERTAIN OFFICERS. All district, county and precinct officers, who may be in office at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, and the county clerk of each county elected at the first election, shall hold their respective offices until the second Monday of January, A. D., 1891, and until such time as their successors may be elected and qualified, in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution; and the official bonds of all such officers shall continue in full force and effect as though this Constitution had not been adopted. And such officers shall continue to receive the compensation now provided, until the same be changed by law.

§ 15 ELECTION ON ADOPTION OF CONSTITUTION, HOW TO BE CONDUCTED. The election held at the time of the adoption of this Constitution shall be held and conducted in all respects according to the laws of the Territory, and the votes cast at said election for all officers (where no other provisions are made in this Constitution), and for the adoption of this Constitution and the several separate articles and the location of the state capital, shall be canvassed and returned in the several counties in the manner provided by Territorial law, and shall be returned to the secretary of the Territory in the manner provided by the Enabling Act.

§ 16 WHEN CONSTITUTION TO TAKE EFFECT. The provisions of this Constitution shall be in force from the day on which the president of the United States shall issue his proclamation declaring the State of Washington admitted into the Union, and the terms of all officers elected at the first election under the provisions of this Constitution shall commence on the Monday next succeeding the issue of said proclamation, unless otherwise provided herein.

§ 17 SEPARATE ARTICLES. The following separate articles shall be submitted to the people for adoption or rejection at the election for the adoption of this Constitution:

SEPARATE ARTICLE, NO. 1

"All persons male and female of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the other qualifications, provided by this Constitution, shall be entitled to vote at all elections."

SEPARATE ARTICLE, NO. 2

"It shall not be lawful for any individual, company or corporation, within the limits of this state, to manufacture, or cause to be manufactured, or to sell, or offer for sale, or in any manner dispose of any alcoholic, malt or spirituous liquors, except for medicinal, sacramental or scientific purposes."

If a majority of the ballots cast at said election on said separate articles be in favor of the adoption of either of said separate articles, then such separate article so receiving a majority shall become a part of this Constitution and shall govern and control any provision of the Constitution in conflict therewith.

§ 18 BALLOT. The form of ballot to be used in voting for or against this Constitution, or for or against the separate articles, or for the permanent location of the seat of government, shall be:

1. For the Constitution -----
Against the Constitution -----
2. For Woman Suffrage Article -----
Against Woman Suffrage Article -----
3. For Prohibition Article -----
Against Prohibition Article -----
4. For the Permanent Location of the Seat of Government (Name of place voted for) -----

The result of the election was against both woman suffrage and prohibition.

§ 19 APPROPRIATION. The legislature is hereby authorized to appropriate from the state treasury sufficient money to pay any of the expenses of this convention not provided for by the Enabling Act of Congress.

ARTICLE XXVIII
COMPENSATION OF STATE OFFICERS

§ 1 COMPENSATION OF STATE OFFICERS. All elected state officials shall each severally receive such compensation as the legislature may direct. The compensation of any state officer shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office, except that the legislature, at its thirty-first regular session, may increase or diminish the compensation of all state officers whose terms exist on the Thursday after the second Monday in January, 1949.

The provisions of sections 14, 16, 17, 19, 20, 21, and 22 of Article III and section 23 of Article II in so far as they are inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed. [AMENDMENT 20, 1947 Senate Joint Resolution No. 4, p 1371. Approved November 2, 1948.]

*Authorizing compensation increase during term: Art. 30 § 1.
Compensation of state officers: RCW 43.03.010.*

ARTICLE XXIX
INVESTMENTS OF PUBLIC PENSION AND RETIREMENT FUNDS

§ 1 MAY BE INVESTED AS AUTHORIZED BY LAW. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 5, and 7 of Article VIII and section 9 of Article XII or any other section or article of the Constitution of the state of Washington, the moneys of any public pension or retirement fund may be invested as authorized by law. [AMENDMENT 49, 1967 Senate Joint Resolution No. 5. Approved November 5, 1968.]

ARTICLE XXX COMPENSATION OF PUBLIC OFFICERS

§ 1 AUTHORIZING COMPENSATION INCREASE DURING TERM. The compensation of all elective and appointive state, county, and municipal officers who do not fix their own compensation, including judges of courts of record and the justice courts may be increased during their terms of office to the end that such officers and judges shall each severally receive compensation for their services in accordance with the law in effect at the time the services are being rendered.

The provisions of section 25 of Article II (Amendment 35), section 25 of Article III (Amendment 31), section 13 of Article IV, section 8 of Article XI, and section 1 of Article XXVIII (Amendment 20) insofar as they are inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. [AMENDMENT 54, 1967 House Joint Resolution No. 13. Approved November 5, 1968.]

Reviser's note: (1) Amendment 49 (1967 SJR No. 5) and Amendment 54 (1967 HJR No. 13) each added a new Article XXIX to the Constitution. Amendment 49 is carried herein as Article XXIX while Amendment 54 has been herein redesignated as Article XXX.

ARTICLE XXXI SEX EQUALITY—RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

§ 1 EQUALITY NOT DENIED BECAUSE OF SEX. Equality of rights and responsibility under the law shall not be denied or abridged on account of sex.

§ 2 ENFORCEMENT POWER OF LEGISLATURE. The legislature shall have the power to enforce by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article. [AMENDMENT 61, 1972 House Joint Resolution No. 61, p 526. Approved November, 1972.]

The name of this Article and the captions have been supplied by the reviser.

ARTICLE XXXII SPECIAL REVENUE FINANCING

§ 1 SPECIAL REVENUE FINANCING. The legislature may enact laws authorizing the state, counties, cities, towns, port districts, or public corporations established thereby to issue nonrecourse revenue bonds or other nonrecourse revenue obligations and to apply the proceeds thereof in the manner and for the purposes heretofore or hereafter authorized by law, subject to the following limitations:

(a) Nonrecourse revenue bonds and other nonrecourse revenue obligations issued pursuant to this section shall be payable only from money or other property received as a result of projects financed by the nonrecourse revenue bonds or other nonrecourse revenue obligations and from money and other property received from private sources.

(b) Nonrecourse revenue bonds and other nonrecourse revenue obligations issued pursuant to this section shall not be payable from or secured by any tax funds or governmental revenue or by all or part of the faith and credit of the state or any unit of local government.

(c) Nonrecourse revenue bonds or other nonrecourse revenue obligations issued pursuant to this section may be issued only if the issuer certifies that it reasonably believes that the interest paid on the bonds or obligations will be exempt from income taxation by the federal government.

(d) Nonrecourse revenue bonds or other nonrecourse revenue obligations may only be used to finance industrial development projects as defined in legislation.

(e) The state, counties, cities, towns, port districts, or public corporations established thereby, shall never exercise their respective attributes of sovereignty, including but not limited to, the power to tax, the power of eminent domain, and the police power on behalf of any industrial development project authorized pursuant to this section.

After the initial adoption of a law by the legislature authorizing the issuance of nonrecourse revenue bonds or other nonrecourse revenue obligations, no amendment to such act which expands the definition of industrial development project shall be valid unless the amendment is enacted by a favorable vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house of the legislature and is subject to referendum petition.

Sections 5 and 7 of Article VIII and section 9 of Article XII shall not be construed as a limitation upon the authority granted by this section. The proceeds of revenue bonds and other revenue obligations issued pursuant to this section for the purpose of financing privately owned property or loans to private persons or corporations shall be subject to audit by the state but shall not otherwise be deemed to be public money or public property for purposes of this Constitution. This section is supplemental to and shall not be construed as a repeal of or limitation on any other authority lawfully exercisable under the Constitution and laws of this state, including, among others, any existing authority to issue revenue bonds. [AMENDMENT 73, 1981 Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 7. Approved November 3, 1981.]

Art. 16 § 5 INVESTMENT OF SCHOOL FUND. None of the permanent school fund of this state shall ever be loaned to private persons or corporations, but it may be invested in national, state, county, municipal or school district bonds. [1893 p 9 § 1. Adopted November, 1894.]

Art. 16 § 5 was later amended by Amendment 44.

AMENDMENT 2

Art. 6 § 1 QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS. All male persons of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: They shall be citizens of the United States; they shall have lived in the state one year, and in the county ninety days, and in the city, town, ward or precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which they offer to vote; they shall be able to read and speak the English language: Provided, That Indians not taxed shall never be allowed the elective franchise: And further provided, That this amendment shall not effect [affect] the right of franchise of any person who is now a qualified elector of this state. The legislature shall enact laws defining the manner of ascertaining the qualifications of voters as to their ability to read and speak the English language, and providing for punishment of persons voting or registering in violation of the provisions of this section. [1895 p 60 § 1. Approved November, 1896.]

Art. 6 § 1 was later amended by Amendment 5.

Art. 7 § 2 was amended by adding the following proviso: "And provided further, That the legislature shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to exempt personal property to the amount of three hundred dollars ($300) for each head of a family liable to assessment and taxation under the provisions of the laws of this state of which the individual is the actual and bona fide owner." [1899 p 121 § 1. Approved November, 1900.]

Original Art. 7 § 2 and Amendment 3 were stricken by Amendment 14.

AMENDMENT 4

Art. 1 § 11 RELIGIOUS FREEDOM. Absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief and worship, shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or disturbed in person or property on account of religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious worship, exercise or instruction, or the support of any religious establishment. Provided, however, That this article shall not be so construed as to forbid the employment by the state of a chaplain for the state penitentiary, and for such of the state reformatories as in the discretion of the legislature may seem justified. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness or juror, in consequence of his opinion on matters of religion, nor be questioned in any court of justice touching his religious belief to affect the weight of his testimony. [1903 p 283 § 1. Approved November, 1904.]

Art. 1 § 11 was later amended by Amendment 34.

AMENDMENT 5

Article 6 was amended by striking from said article all of sections one (1) and two (2) and inserting in lieu thereof the following, to be known as section one (1):

Art. 6 § 1 QUALIFICATIONS OF ELECTORS.

All person of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: They shall be citizens of the United States; they shall have lived in the state one year, and in the county ninety days, and in the city, town, ward or precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which they offer to vote; they shall be able to read and speak the English language: Provided, That Indians not taxed shall never be allowed the elective franchise: And further provided, That this amendment shall not affect the rights of franchise of any person who is now a qualified elector of this state. The legislative authority shall enact laws defining the manner of ascertaining the qualifications of voters as to their ability to read and speak the English language, and providing for punishment of persons voting or registering in violation of the provision of this section. There shall be no denial of the elective franchise at any election on account of sex. [1909 p 26 § 1. Approved November, 1910.]

Prior amendment of Art. 6, see Amendment 2.

AMENDMENT 6

Art. 3 § 10 VACANCY IN OFFICE OF GOVERNOR. In case of the removal, resignation, death or disability of the governor, the duties of the office shall devolve upon the lieutenant governor; and in case of a vacancy in both the offices of governor and lieutenant governor, the duties of the governor shall devolve upon the secretary of state. In addition to the line of succession to the office and duties of governor as hereinabove indicated, if the necessity shall arise, in order to fill the vacancy in the office of governor, the following state officers shall succeed to the duties of governor and in the order named, viz.: Treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction and commissioner of public lands. In case of the death, disability, failure or refusal of the person regularly elected to the office of governor to qualify at the time provided by law, the duties of the office shall devolve upon the person regularly elected to and qualified for the office of lieutenant governor, who shall act as governor until the disability be removed, or a governor be elected; and in case of the death, disability, failure or refusal of both the governor and the lieutenant governor elect to qualify, the duties of the governor shall devolve upon the secretary of state; and in addition to the line of succession to the office and duties of governor as hereinabove indicated, if there shall be the failure or refusal of any officer named above to qualify, and if the necessity shall arise by reason thereof, then in that event in order to fill the vacancy in the office of governor, the following state officers shall succeed to the duties of governor in the order named, viz.: Treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction and commissioner of public lands. Any person succeeding to the office of governor as in this section provided, shall perform the duties of such office only until the disability be removed, or a governor be elected and qualified; and if a vacancy occur more than thirty days before the next general election occurring within two years after the commencement of the term, a person shall be elected at such election to fill the office of governor for the remainder of the unexpired term. [1909 p 642 § 1. Approved November, 1910.]

Article 2 was amended by striking all of sections 1 and 31, and inserting in lieu thereof as section 1 the following, so that the same shall read as follows:

Art. 2 § 1 LEGISLATIVE POWERS, WHERE VESTED. The legislative authority of the state of Washington shall be vested in the legislature, consisting of a senate and house of representatives, which shall be called the legislature of the state of Washington, but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose bills, laws, and to enact or reject the same at the polls, independent of the legislature, and also reserve power, at their own option, to approve or reject at the polls any act, item, section or part of any bill, act or law passed by the legislature.

(a) Initiative: The first power reserved by the people is the initiative. Ten per centum, but in no case more than fifty thousand, of the legal voters shall be required to propose any measure by such petition, and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. Initiative petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon, or not less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature. If filed at least four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon, he shall submit the same to the vote of the people at the said election. If such petitions are filed not less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature, he shall transmit the same to the legislature as soon as it convenes and organizes. Such initiative measure shall take precedence over all other measures in the legislature except appropriation bills and shall be either enacted or rejected without change or amendment by the legislature before the end of such regular session. If any such initiative measure shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to the referendum petition, or it may be enacted and referred by the legislature to the people for approval or rejection at the next regular election. If it is rejected or if no action is taken upon it by the legislature before the end of such regular session, the secretary of state shall submit it to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different one dealing with the same subject, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by the secretary of state to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. When conflicting measures are submitted to the people the ballots shall be so printed that a voter can express separately by making one cross (X) for each, two preferences, first, as between either measure and neither, and secondly, as between one and the other. If the majority of those voting on the first issue is for neither, both fail, but in that case the votes on the second issue shall nevertheless be carefully counted and made public. If a majority voting on the first issue is for either, then the measure receiving a majority of the votes on the second issue shall be law.

Constitution of the State of Washington

Portion of subdivision (a) is superseded by the 30th amendment.

(b) Referendum. The second power reserved by the people is the referendum, and it may be ordered on any act, bill, law, or any part thereof passed by the legislature, except such laws as may be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, support of the state government and its existing public institutions, either by petition signed by the required percentage of the legal voters, or by the legislature as other bills are enacted. Six per centum, but in no case more than thirty thousand, of the legal voters shall be required to sign and make a valid referendum petition.

Portion of subdivision (b) is superseded by the 30th amendment.

(c) No act, law, or bill subject to referendum shall take effect until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted. No act, law, or bill approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon shall be amended or repealed by the legislature within a period of two years following such enactment. But such enactment may be amended or repealed at any general regular or special election by direct vote of the people thereon.

Subdivision (c) is superseded by the 26th amendment.

(d) The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections or parts of any act, law or bill shall not delay the remainder of the measure from becoming operative. Referendum petitions against measures passed by the legislature shall be filed with the secretary of state not later than ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislature which passed the measure on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the governor shall not extend to measures initiated by or referred to the people. All elections on measures referred to the people of the state shall be had at the biennial regular elections, except when the legislature shall order a special election. Any measure initiated by the people or referred to the people as herein provided shall take effect and become the law if it is approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon: Provided, That the vote cast upon such question or measure shall equal one-third of the total votes cast at such election and not otherwise. Such measure shall be in operation on and after the thirtieth day after the election at which it is approved. The style of all bills proposed by initiative petition shall be: "Be it enacted by the people of the State of Washington." This section shall not be construed to deprive any member of the legislature of the right to introduce any measure. The whole number of electors who voted for governor at the regular gubernatorial election last preceding the filing of any petition for the initiative or for the referendum shall be the basis on which the number of legal voters necessary to sign such petition shall be counted. All such petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state, who shall be guided by the general laws in submitting the same to the people until additional legislation shall especially provide therefor. This section is self-executing, but legislation may be enacted especially to facilitate its operation.

The legislature shall provide methods of publicity of all laws or parts of laws, and amendments to the constitution referred to the people with arguments for and against the laws and amendments so referred, so that each voter of the state shall receive the publication at least fifty days before the election at which they are to be voted upon. [1911 p 136 § 1. Approved November, 1912.]

Last paragraph is superseded by the 36th amendment.

Art. 2 § 1 was later amended by Amendment 72.

AMENDMENT 8

Article 1 was amended by adding the two following sections:

Art. 1 § 33 RECALL OF ELECTIVE OFFICERS. Every elective public officer in the state of Washington except [except] judges of courts of record is subject to recall and discharge by the legal voters of the state, or of the political subdivision of the state, from which he was elected whenever a petition demanding his recall, reciting that such officer has committed some act or acts of malfeasance or misfeasance while in office, or who has violated his oath of office, stating the matters complained of, signed by the percentages of the qualified electors thereof, hereinafter provided, the percentage required to be computed from the total number of votes cast for all candidates for his said office to which he was elected at the preceding election, is filed with the officer with whom a petition for nomination, or certificate for nomination, to such office must be filed under the laws of this state, and the same officer shall call a special election as provided by the general election laws of this state, and the result determined as therein provided.

Art. 1 § 34 SAME. The legislature shall pass the necessary laws to carry out the provisions of section thirty-three (33) of this article, and to facilitate its operation and effect without delay: Provided, That the authority hereby conferred upon the legislature shall not be construed to grant to the legislature any exclusive power of law-making nor in any way limit the initiative and referendum powers reserved by the people. The percentages required shall be, state officers, other than judges, senators and representatives, city officers of cities of the first class, school district boards in cities of the first class; county officers of counties of the first, second and third classes, twenty-five per cent. Officers of all other political subdivisions, cities, towns, townships, precincts and school districts not herein mentioned, and state senators and representatives, thirty-five per cent. [1911 p 504 § 1. Approved November, 1912.]

AMENDMENT 9

Art. 1 § 16 EMINENT DOMAIN. Private property shall not be taken for private use, except for private ways of necessity, and for drains, flumes, or ditches on or across the lands of others for agricultural, domestic, or sanitary purposes. No private property shall be taken or damaged for public or private use without just compensation having been first made, or paid into court for the owner, and no right-of-way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation other than municipal until full compensation therefor be first made in money, or ascertained and paid into court for the owner, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation, which compensation shall be ascertained by a jury, unless a jury be waived, as in other civil cases in courts of record, in the manner prescribed by law. Whenever an attempt is made to take private property for a use alleged to be public, the question whether the contemplated use be really public shall be a judicial question, and determined as such, without regard to any legislative assertion that the use is public: Provided, that the taking of private property by the state for land reclamation and settlement purposes is hereby declared to be for public use. [1919 p 385 § 1. Approved November, 1920.]

AMENDMENT 10

Art. 1 § 22 RIGHTS OF THE ACCUSED. In criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right to appear and defend in person, or by counsel, to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, to have a copy thereof, to testify in his own behalf, to meet the witnesses against him face to face, to have compulsory process to compel the attendance of witnesses in his own behalf, to have a speedy public trial by an impartial jury of the county in which the offense is charged to have been committed and the right to appeal in all cases: Provided, The route traversed by any railway coach, train or public conveyance, and the water traversed by any boat shall be criminal districts; and the jurisdiction of all public offenses committed on any such railway car, coach, train, boat or other public conveyance, or at any station or depot upon such route, shall be in any county through which the said car, coach, train, boat or other public conveyance may pass during the trip or voyage, or in which the trip or voyage may begin or terminate. In no instance shall any accused person before final judgment be compelled to advance money or fees to secure the rights herein guaranteed. [1921 p 79 § 1. Approved November, 1922.]

AMENDMENT 11

Art. 8 § 4 MONEYS DISBURSED ONLY BY APPROPRIATIONS. No moneys shall ever be paid out of the treasury of this state, or any of its funds, or any of the funds under its management, except in pursuance of an appropriation by law; nor unless such payment be made within one calendar month after the end of the next ensuing fiscal biennium, and every such law making a new appropriation, or continuing or reviving an appropriation, shall distinctly specify the sum appropriated, and the object to which it is to be applied, and it shall not be sufficient for such law to refer to any other law to fix such sum. [1921 p 80 § 1. Approved November, 1922.]

AMENDMENT 12

Art. 11 § 5 COUNTY GOVERNMENT. The legislature, by general and uniform laws, shall provide for the election in the several counties of boards of county commissioners, sheriffs, county clerks, treasurers, prosecuting attorneys and other county, township or precinct and district officers, as public convenience may require, and shall prescribe their duties, and fix their terms of office: Provided, That the legislature may, by general laws, classify the counties by population and provide for the election in certain classes of counties certain officers who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of two or more officers. It shall regulate the compensation of all such officers, in proportion to their duties, and for that purpose may classify the counties by population. And it shall provide for the strict accountability of such officers for all fees which may be collected by them and for all public moneys which may be paid to them, or officially come into their possession. [1923 p 255 § 1. Approved November, 1924.]

Art. 11 § 5 was later amended by Amendment 57.

Art. 2 § 15 VACANCIES IN LEGISLATURE. Such vacancies as may occur in either house of the legislature shall be filled by appointment by the board of county commissioners of the county in which the vacancy occurs, and the person so appointed shall hold office until his successor is elected at the next general election, and shall have qualified: Provided, That in case of a vacancy occurring in the office of joint senator, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the joint action of the boards of county commissioners of the counties composing the joint senatorial district. [1929 p 690. Approved November, 1930.]

Art. 2 § 15 was later amended by Amendments 32 and 52.

Article 7 is amended by striking out all of sections 1, 2, 3 and 4, and inserting in lieu thereof the following, to be known as section 1:

Art. 7 § 1 TAXATION. The power of taxation shall never be suspended, surrendered or contracted away. All taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of property within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax and shall be levied and collected for public purposes only. The word "property" as used herein shall mean and include everything, whether tangible or intangible, subject to ownership. All real estate shall constitute one class: Provided, That the legislature may tax mines and mineral resources and lands devoted to reforestation by either a yield tax or an ad valorem tax at such rate as it may fix, or by both. Such property as the legislature may by general laws provide shall be exempt from taxation. Property of the United States and of the state, counties, school districts and other municipal corporations, and credits secured by property actually taxed in this state, not exceeding in value the value of such property, shall be exempt from taxation. The legislature shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to exempt personal property to the amount of three hundred ($300.00) dollars for each head of a family liable to assessment and taxation under the provisions of the laws of this state of which the individual is the actual bona fide owner. [1929 p 499 §1. Approved November, 1930.]

Constitution of the State of Washington

Amendment 17 added a new §2.

Amendment 19 added a new §3.

AMENDMENT 15

Art. 15 § 1 HARBOR LINE COMMISSION AND RESTRAINT ON DISPOSITION. The legislature shall provide for the appointment of a commission whose duty it shall be to locate and establish harbor lines in the navigable waters of all harbors, estuaries, bays and inlets of this state, wherever such navigable waters lie within or in front of the corporate limits of any city, or within one mile thereof on either side. Any harbor line so located or established may thereafter be changed, relocated or reestablished by the commission pursuant to such provision as may be made therefor by the legislature. The state shall never give, sell or lease to any private person, corporation, or association any rights whatever in the waters beyond such harbor lines, nor shall any of the area lying between any harbor line and the line of ordinary high water, and within not less than fifty feet nor more than two thousand feet of such harbor line (as the commission shall determine) be sold or granted by the state, nor its rights to control the same relinquished, but such area shall be forever reserved for landings, wharves, streets, and other conveniences of navigation and commerce. [1931 p 417 § 1. Approved November, 1932.]

Art. 12 § 11 STOCKHOLDER LIABILITY. No corporation, association, or individual shall issue or put in circulation as money anything but the lawful money of the United States. Each stockholder of any banking or insurance corporation or joint stock association shall be individually and personally liable equally and ratably, and not one for another, for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such corporation or association accruing while they remain such stockholders, to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares.

The legislature may provide that stockholders of banking corporations organized under the laws of this state which shall provide and furnish, either through membership in the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or through membership in any other instrumentality of the government of the United States, insurance or security for the payment of the debts and obligations of such banking corporation equivalent to that required by the laws of the United States to be furnished and provided by national banking associations, shall be relieved from liability for the debts and obligations of such banking corporation to the same extent that stockholders of national banking associations are relieved from liability for the debts and obligations of such national banking associations under the laws of the United States. [1939 Senate Joint Resolution No. 8, p 1024. Approved November, 1940.]

AMENDMENT 17

Art. 7 § 2 FORTY MILL LIMIT. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed forty mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, which assessed valuation shall be fifty per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, and Provided further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, Section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort. [1943 House Joint Resolution No. 1, p 936. Approved November, 1944.]

Art. 7 § 2 was later amended by Amendments 55, 59, and 64.

AMENDMENT 18

Art. 2 § 40 HIGHWAY FUNDS. All fees collected by the State of Washington as license fees for motor vehicles and all excise taxes collected by the State of Washington on the sale, distribution or use of motor vehicle fuel and all other state revenue intended to be used for highway purposes, shall be paid into the state treasury and placed in a special fund to be used exclusively for highway purposes. Such highway purposes shall be construed to include the following:

(a) The necessary operating, engineering and legal expenses connected with the administration of public highways, county roads and city streets;

(b) The construction, reconstruction, maintenance, repair, and betterment of public highways, county roads, bridges and city streets; including the cost and expense of (1) acquisition of rights-of-way, (2) installing, maintaining and operating traffic signs and signal lights, (3) policing by the state of public highways, (4) operation of movable span bridges, (5) operation of ferries which are a part of any public highway, county road, or city street;

(c) The payment or refunding of any obligation of the State of Washington, or any political subdivision thereof, for which any of the revenues described in section 1 may have been legally pledged prior to the effective date of this act;

(d) Refunds authorized by law for taxes paid on motor vehicle fuels;

(e) The cost of collection of any revenues described in this section:

Provided, That this section shall not be construed to include revenue from general or special taxes or excises not levied primarily for highway purposes, or apply to vehicle operator's license fees or any excise tax imposed on motor vehicles or the use thereof in lieu of a property tax thereon, or fees for certificates of ownership of motor vehicles. [1943 House Joint Resolution No. 4, p 938. Approved November, 1944.]

AMENDMENT 19

Art. 7 § 3 TAXATION OF FEDERAL AGENCIES AND PROPERTY. The United States and its agencies and instrumentalities, and their property, may be taxed under any of the tax laws of this state, whenever and in such manner as such taxation may be authorized or permitted under the laws of the United States, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Constitution of this state. [1945 House Joint Resolution No. 9, p 932. Approved November, 1946.]

AMENDMENT 20

Art. 28 § 1 COMPENSATION OF STATE OFFICERS. All elected state officials shall each severally receive such compensation as the legislature may direct. The compensation of any state officer shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office, except that the legislature, at its thirty-first regular session, may increase or diminish the compensation of all state officers whose terms exist on the Thursday after the second Monday in January, 1949.

The provisions of sections 14, 16, 17, 19, 20, 21, and 22 of Article III and section 23 of Article II in so far as they are inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed. [1947 Senate Joint Resolution No. 4, p 1371. Approved November 2, 1948.]

Authorizing compensation increase during term: See Amendment 54.

Art. 11 § 4 COUNTY GOVERNMENT AND TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION. The legislature shall establish a system of county government, which shall be uniform throughout the state except as hereinafter provided, and by general laws shall provide for township organization, under which any county may organize whenever a majority of the qualified electors of such county voting at a general election shall so determine; and whenever a county shall adopt township organization, the assessment and collection of the revenue shall be made, and the business of such county and the local affairs of the several townships therein, shall be managed and transacted in the manner prescribed by such general law.

Any county may frame a "Home Rule" charter for its own government subject to the Constitution and laws of this state, and for such purpose the legislative authority of such county may cause an election to be had, at which election there shall be chosen by the qualified voters of said county not less than fifteen (15) nor more than twenty-five (25) freeholders thereof, as determined by the legislative authority, who shall have been residents of said county for a period of at least five (5) years preceding their election and who are themselves qualified electors, whose duty it shall be to convene within thirty (30) days after their election and prepare and propose a charter for such county. Such proposed charter shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said county, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon ratify the same, it shall become the charter of said county and shall become the organic law thereof, and supersede any existing charter, including amendments thereto, or any existing form of county government, and all special laws inconsistent with such charter. Said proposed charter shall be published in two (2) legal newspapers published in said county, at least once a week for four (4) consecutive weeks prior to the day of submitting the same to the electors for their approval as above provided. All elections in this section authorized shall only be had upon notice, which notice shall specify the object of calling such election and shall be given for at least ten

(10) days before the day of election in all election districts of said county. Said elections may be general or special elections and except as herein provided, shall be governed by the law regulating and controlling general or special elections in said county. Such charter may be amended by proposals therefor submitted by the legislative authority of said county to the electors thereof at any general election after notice of such submission published as above specified, and ratified by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto, any alternate article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others.

Any home rule charter proposed as herein provided, may provide for such county officers as may be deemed necessary to carry out and perform all county functions as provided by charter or by general law, and for their compensation, but shall not affect the election of the prosecuting attorney, the county superintendent of schools, the judges of the superior court, and the justices of the peace, or the jurisdiction of the courts.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provision for the calling of an election by the legislative authority of such county for the election of freeholders to frame a county charter, registered voters equal in number to ten (10) per centum of the voters of any such county voting at the last preceding general election, may at any time propose by petition the calling of an election of freeholders. The petition shall be filed with the county auditor of the county at least three (3) months before any general election and the proposal that a board of freeholders be elected for the purpose of framing a county charter shall be submitted to the vote of the people at said general election, and at the same election a board of freeholders of not less than fifteen (15) or more than twenty-five (25), as fixed in the petition calling for the election, shall be chosen to draft the new charter. The procedure for the nomination of qualified electors as candidates for said board of freeholders shall be prescribed by the legislative authority of the county, and the procedure for the framing of the charter and the submission of the charter as framed shall be the same as in the case of a board of freeholders chosen at an election initiated by the legislative authority of the county.

In calling for any election of freeholders as provided in this section, the legislative authority of the county shall apportion the number of freeholders to be elected in accordance with either the legislative districts or the county commissioner districts, if any, within said county, the number of said freeholders to be elected from each of said districts to be in proportion to the population of said districts as nearly as may be.

Should the charter proposed receive the affirmative vote of the majority of the electors voting thereon, the legislative authority of the county shall immediately call such special election as may be provided for therein, if any, and the county government shall be established in accordance with the terms of said charter not more than six (6) months after the election at which the charter was adopted.

The terms of all elective officers, except the prosecuting attorney, the county superintendent of schools, the judges of the superior court, and the justices of the peace, who are in office at the time of the adoption of a Home Rule Charter shall terminate as provided in the charter. All appointive officers in office at the time the charter goes into effect, whose positions are not abolished thereby, shall continue until their successors shall have qualified.

After the adoption of such charter, such county shall continue to have all the rights, powers, privileges and benefits then possessed or thereafter conferred by general law. All the powers, authority and duties granted to and imposed on county officers by general law, except the prosecuting attorney, the county superintendent of schools, the judges of the superior court and the justices of the peace, shall be vested in the legislative authority of the county unless expressly vested in specific officers by the charter. The legislative authority may by resolution delegate any of its executive or administrative powers, authority or duties not expressly vested in specific officers by the charter, to any county officer or officers or county employee or employees.

The provisions of sections 5, 6, 7, and the first sentence of section 8 of this Article as amended shall not apply to counties in which the government has been established by charter adopted under the provisions hereof. The authority conferred on the board of county commissioners by Section 15 of Article II as amended, shall be exercised by the legislative authority of the county. [1947 Senate Joint Resolution No. 5, p 1372. Approved November 2, 1948.]

AMENDMENT 22

Section 7, Article XI, Constitution of the State of Washington is hereby repealed. [1947 House Joint Resolution No. 4, p 1385. Approved November 2, 1948.]

AMENDMENT 23

Art. 11 § 16 COMBINED CITY AND COUNTY. The legislature shall, by general law, provide for the formation of combined city and county municipal corporations, and for the manner of determining the territorial limits thereof, each of which shall be known as a "city and county," and, when organized, shall contain a population of at least three hundred thousand (300,000) inhabitants. No such city and county shall be formed except by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the area proposed to be included therein and also by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the remainder of that county from which such area is to be taken. Any such city and county shall be permitted to frame a charter for its own government, and amend the same, in the manner provided for cities by section 10 of this article: Provided, however, That the first charter of such city and county shall be framed and adopted in a manner to be specified in the general law authorizing the formation of such corporations: Provided further, That every such charter shall designate the respective officers of such city and county who shall perform the duties imposed by law upon county officers. Every such city and county shall have and enjoy all rights, powers and privileges asserted in its charter, not inconsistent with general laws, and in addition thereto, such rights, powers and privileges as may be granted to it, or possessed and enjoyed by cities and counties of like population separately organized.

No county or county government existing outside the territorial limits of such county and city shall exercise any police, taxation or other powers within the territorial limits of such county and city, but all such powers shall be exercised by the city and county and the officers thereof, subject to such constitutional provisions and general laws as apply to either cities or counties: Provided, That the provisions of sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this article shall not apply to any such city and county: Provided further, That the salary of any elective or appointive officer of a city and county shall not be changed after his election or appointment or during his term of office; nor shall the term of any such officer be extended beyond the period for which he is elected or appointed. In case an existing county is divided in the formation of a city and county, such city and county shall be liable for a just proportion of the existing debts or liabilities of the former county, and shall account for and pay the county remaining a just proportion of the value of any real estate or other property owned by the former county and taken over by the county and city, the method of determining such just proportion to be prescribed by general law, but such division shall not affect the rights of creditors. The officers of a city and county, their compensation, qualifications, term of office and manner of election or appointment shall be as provided for in its charter, subject to general laws and applicable constitutional provisions. [1947 House Joint Resolution No. 13, p 1386. Approved November 2, 1948.]

Art. 11 § 16 was later amended by Amendment 58.

AMENDMENT 24

[Repealed by AMENDMENT 42, 1965 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 20, p 2816. Approved November 8, 1966.]

Text of Amendment 24—Art. 2 § 33 ALIEN OWNERSHIP—
The ownership of lands by aliens, other than those who in good faith have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, is prohibited in this state, except where acquired by inheritance, under mortgage or in good faith in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts, and all conveyances of lands hereafter made to any alien directly, or in trust for such alien, shall be void: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to lands containing valuable deposits of minerals, metals, iron, coal, or fire clay, and the necessary land for mills and machinery to be used in the development thereof and the manufacture of the products therefrom: And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to the citizens of such of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada as do not expressly or by implication prohibit ownership of provincial lands by citizens of this state. Every corporation, the majority of the capital stock of which is owned by aliens, shall be considered an alien for the purposes of this prohibition. [1949 Senate Joint Resolution No. 9, p 999. Approved November 7, 1950.]

Art. 2 § 33 was also amended by Amendment 29.

Article 4 was amended by adding the following section:

Art. 4 § 3(a) RETIREMENT OF SUPREME COURT AND SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES. A judge of the supreme court or the superior court shall retire from judicial office at the end of the calendar year in which he attains the age of seventy-five years. The legislature may, from time to time, fix a lesser age for mandatory retirement, not earlier than the end of the calendar year in which any such judge attains the age of seventy years, as the legislature deems proper. This provision shall not affect the term to which any such judge shall have been elected or appointed prior to, or at the time of, approval and ratification of this provision. Notwithstanding the limitations of this section, the legislature may by general law authorize or require the retirement of judges for physical or mental disability, or any cause rendering judges incapable of performing their judicial duties. [1951 House Joint Resolution No. 6, p 960. Approved November 4, 1952.]

AMENDMENT 26

Article 2 was amended by adding the following section:

Art. 2 § 41 LAWS, EFFECTIVE DATE. INITIATIVE, REFERENDUM—AMENDMENT OR REPEAL. No act, law, or bill subject to referendum shall take effect until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted. No act, law or bill approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon shall be amended or repealed by the legislature within a period of two years following such enactment: Provided, That any such act, law or bill may be amended within two years after such enactment at any regular or special session of the legislature by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house with full compliance with section 12, Article III, of the Washington Constitution, and no amendatory law adopted in accordance with this provision shall be subject to referendum. But such enactment may be amended or repealed at any general regular or special election by direct vote of the people thereon. These provisions supersede the provisions of subsection (c) of section 1 of this article as amended by the seventh amendment to the Constitution of this state. [1951 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 7, p 959. Approved November 4, 1952.]

Reviser's note: In third sentence, comma between "general" and "regular" omitted in conformity with enrolled resolution.

AMENDMENT 27

Art. 8 § 6 LIMITATIONS UPON MUNICIPAL INDEBTEDNESS. No county, city, town, school district, or other municipal corporation shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding one and one-half per centum of the taxable property in such county, city, town, school district, or other municipal corporation, without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness, except that in incorporated cities the assessment shall be taken from the last assessment for city purposes: Provided, That no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly county, city, town, school district, or other municipal purposes: Provided further, That (a) any city or town, with such assent, may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding five per centum additional for supplying such city or town with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the municipality and (b) any school district with such assent, may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount but not exceeding five per centum additional for capital outlays. [1951 House Joint Resolution No. 8, p 961. Approved November 4, 1952.]

AMENDMENT 28

Art. 4 § 6 JURISDICTION OF SUPERIOR COURTS. The superior court shall have original jurisdiction in all cases in equity and in all cases at law which involve the title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, and in all other cases in which the demand or the value of the property in controversy amounts to one thousand dollars, or a lesser sum in excess of the jurisdiction granted to justices of the peace and other inferior courts, and in all criminal cases amounting to felony, and in all cases of misdemeanor not otherwise provided for by law; of actions of forcible entry and detainer; of proceedings in insolvency; of actions to prevent or abate a nuisance; of all matters of probate, of divorce, and for annulment of marriage; and for such special cases and proceedings as are not otherwise provided for. The superior court shall also have original jurisdiction in all cases and of all proceedings in which jurisdiction shall not have been by law vested exclusively in some other court; and said court shall have the power of naturalization and to issue papers therefor. They shall have such appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in justices' and other inferior courts in their respective counties as may be prescribed by law. They shall always be open, except on nonjudicial days, and their process shall extend to all parts of the state. Said courts and their judges shall have power to issue writs of mandamus, quo warranto, review, certiorari, prohibition, and writs of habeas corpus, on petition by or on behalf of any person in actual custody in their respective counties. Injunctions and writs of prohibition and of habeas corpus may be issued and served on legal holidays and nonjudicial days.

Art. 4 § 10 JUSTICES OF THE PEACE. The legislature shall determine the number of justices of the peace to be elected and shall prescribe by law the powers, duties and jurisdiction of justices of the peace: Provided, That such jurisdiction granted by the legislature shall not trench upon the jurisdiction of superior or other courts of record, except that justices of the peace may be made police justices of incorporated cities and towns. Justices of the peace shall have original jurisdiction in cases where the demand or value of the property in controversy is less than three hundred dollars or such greater sum, not to exceed one thousand dollars, as shall be prescribed by the legislature. In incorporated cities or towns having more than five thousand inhabitants, the justices of the peace shall receive such salary as may be provided by law, and shall receive no fees for their own use. [1951 Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 13, p 962. Approved November 4, 1952.]

[Repealed by AMENDMENT 42, 1965 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 20, p 2816. Approved November 8, 1966.]

Text of Amendment 29—Art. 2 § 33 ALIEN OWNERSHIP—The ownership of lands by aliens, other than those who in good faith have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, is prohibited in this state, except where acquired by inheritance, under mortgage or in good faith in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts; and all conveyances of lands hereafter made to any alien directly, or in trust for such alien, shall be void: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to lands containing valuable deposits of minerals, metals, iron, coal, or fire clay, and the necessary land for mills and machinery to be used in the development thereof and the manufacture of the products therefrom: And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to the citizens of such of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada as do not expressly or by implication prohibit ownership of provincial lands by citizens of this state. [1953 House Joint Resolution No. 16, p 853. Approved November 2, 1954.]

Prior amendment of Art. 2 § 33, see Amendment 24.

[Stricken by AMENDMENT 72, 1981 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 133. Approved November 3, 1981.]

Text of Amendment 30—Art. 2 § 1(a) INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM, SIGNATURES REQUIRED—Hereafter, the number of valid signatures of legal voters required upon a petition for an initiative measure shall be equal to eight per centum of the number of voters registered and voting for the office of governor at the last preceding regular gubernatorial election. Hereafter, the number of valid signatures of legal voters required upon a petition for a referendum of an act of the legislature or any part thereof, shall be equal to four per centum of the number of voters registered and voting for the office of governor at the last preceding regular gubernatorial election. These provisions supersede the requirements specified in section 1 of this article as amended by the seventh amendment to the Constitution of this state. [1955 Senate Joint Resolution No. 4, p 1860. Approved November 6, 1956.]

AMENDMENT 31

Art. 3 § 25 QUALIFICATIONS, COMPENSATION, OFFICES WHICH MAY BE ABOLISHED. No person, except a citizen of the United States and a qualified elector of this state, shall be eligible to hold any state office. The compensation for state officers shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which they shall have been elected. The legislature may in its discretion abolish the offices of the lieutenant governor, auditor and commissioner of public lands.

[1955 Senate Joint Resolution No. 6, p 1861. Approved November 6, 1956.]

Authorizing compensation increase during term: See Amendment 54.

AMENDMENT 32

Art. 2 § 15 VACANCIES IN LEGISLATURE AND IN PARTISAN COUNTY ELECTIVE OFFICE. Such vacancies as may occur in either house of the legislature or in any partisan county elective office shall be filled by appointment by the board of county commissioners of the county in which the vacancy occurs: Provided, That the person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same legislative district and the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated, and shall be one of three persons who shall be nominated by the county central committee of that party, and the person so appointed shall hold office until his successor is elected at the next general election, and shall have qualified: Provided, That in case of a vacancy occurring in the office of joint senator, or joint representative, the vacancy shall be filled from a list of three nominees selected by the state central committee, by appointment by the joint action of the boards of county commissioners of the counties composing the joint senatorial or joint representative district, the person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same legislative district and of the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated, and in case a majority of said county commissioners do not agree upon the appointment within sixty days after the vacancy occurs, the governor shall within thirty days thereafter, and from the list of nominees provided for herein, appoint a person who shall be from the same legislative district and of the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated. [1955 Senate Joint Resolution No. 14, p 1862. Approved November 6, 1956.]

Prior amendment of Art. 2 § 15, see Amendment 13.

Later amendment of Art. 2 § 15, see Amendment 52.

AMENDMENT 33

Art. 24 § 1 STATE BOUNDARIES. The boundaries of the state of Washington shall be as follows: Beginning at a point in the Pacific ocean one marine league due west of and opposite the middle of the mouth of the north ship channel of the Columbia river thence running easterly to and up the middle channel of said river and where it is divided by islands up the middle of the widest channel thereof to where the forty-sixth parallel of north latitude crosses said river near the mouth of the Walla Walla river; thence east on said forty-sixth parallel of latitude to the middle of the main channel of the Shoshone or Snake river, thence follow down the middle of the main channel of Snake river to a point opposite the mouth of the Kooskooskia or Clear Water river, thence due north to the forty-ninth parallel of north latitude, thence west along said forty-ninth parallel of north latitude to the middle of the channel which separates Vancouver's island from the continent, that is to say to a point in longitude 123 degrees, 19 minutes and 15 seconds west, thence following the boundary line between the United States and British possessions through the channel which separates Vancouver's island from the continent to the termination of the boundary line between the United States and British possessions at a point in the Pacific ocean equidistant between Bonilla point on Vancouver's island and Tatoosh island light house, thence running in a southerly course and parallel with the coast line, keeping one marine league off shore to place of beginning; until such boundaries are modified by appropriate interstate compacts duly approved by the Congress of the United States. [1957 Senate Joint Resolution No. 10, p 1292. Approved November 4, 1958.]

Art. 1 § 11 RELIGIOUS FREEDOM. Absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief and worship, shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or disturbed in person or property on account of religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious worship, exercise or instruction, or the support of any religious establishment: Provided, however, That this article shall not be so construed as to forbid the employment by the state of a chaplain for such of the state custodial, correctional and mental institutions as in the discretion of the legislature may seem justified. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness or juror, in consequence of his opinion on matters of religion, nor be questioned in any court of justice touching his religious belief to affect the weight of his testimony. [1957 Senate Joint Resolution No. 14, p 1299. Approved November 4, 1958.]

Prior amendment of Art. 1 § 11, see Amendment 4.

AMENDMENT 35

Art. 2 § 25 EXTRA COMPENSATION PROHIBITED. The legislature shall never grant any extra compensation to any public officer, agent, employee, servant, or contractor, after the services shall have been rendered, or the contract entered into, nor shall the compensation of any public officer be increased or diminished during his term of office. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent increases in pensions after such pensions shall have been granted. [1957 Senate Joint Resolution No. 18, p 1301. Approved November 4, 1958.]

Increase during term in compensation of certain officers authorized: See Amendment 54.

AMENDMENT 36

Article 2, section 1 (LEGISLATIVE POWERS, WHERE VESTED) as amended by AMENDMENT 7 was amended by adding the following subsection:

Article 2, section 1, subsection (e). The legislature shall provide methods of publicity of all laws or parts of laws, and amendments to the Constitution referred to the people with arguments for and against the laws and amendments so referred. The secretary of state shall send one copy of the publication to each individual place of residence in the state and shall make such additional distribution as he shall determine necessary to reasonably assure that each voter will have an opportunity to study the measures prior to election. These provisions supersede the provisions set forth in the last paragraph of section 1 of this article as amended by the seventh amendment to the Constitution of this state. [1961 Senate Joint Resolution No. 9, p 2751. Approved November, 1962.]

AMENDMENT 37

Art. 23 § 1 HOW MADE. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in either branch of the legislature; and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals, with the ayes and noes thereon, and be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval, at the next general election; and if the people approve and ratify such amendment or amendments, by a majority of the electors voting thereon, the same shall become part of this Constitution, and proclamation thereof shall be made by the governor: Provided, That if more than one amendment be submitted, they shall be submitted in such a manner that the people may vote for or against such amendments separately. The legislature shall also cause notice of the amendments that are to be submitted to the people to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state: Provided, That failure of any newspaper to publish this notice shall not be interpreted as affecting the outcome of the election. [1961 Senate Joint Resolution No. 25, p 2753. Approved November, 1962.]

AMENDMENT 38

Article 4 was amended by adding the following section:

Art. 4 § 2(a) TEMPORARY PERFORMANCE OF JUDICIAL DUTIES. When necessary for the prompt and orderly administration of justice a majority of the Supreme Court is empowered to authorize judges or retired judges of courts of record of this state, to perform, temporarily, judicial duties in the Supreme Court, and to authorize any superior court judge to perform judicial duties in any superior court of this state. [1961 House Joint Resolution No. 6, p 2757. Approved November, 1962.]

AMENDMENT 39

Art. 2 § 42 GOVERNMENTAL CONTINUITY DURING EMERGENCY PERIODS. The legislature, in order to insure continuity of state and local governmental operations in periods of emergency resulting from enemy attack, shall have the power and the duty, immediately upon and after adoption of this amendment, to enact legislation providing for prompt and temporary succession to the powers and duties of public offices of whatever nature and whether filled by election or appointment, the incumbents and legal successors of which may become unavailable for carrying on the powers and duties of such offices; the legislature shall likewise enact such other measures as may be necessary and proper for insuring the continuity of governmental operations during such emergencies. Legislation enacted under the powers conferred by this amendment shall in all respects conform to the remainder of the Constitution: Provided, That if, in the judgment of the legislature at the time of disaster, conformance to the provisions of the Constitution would be impracticable or would admit of undue delay, such legislation may depart during the period of emergency caused by enemy attack only, from the following sections of the Constitution:

Article 14, Sections 1 and 2, Seat of Government;

Article 2, Sections 8, 15 (Amendments 13 and 32), and 22, Membership, Quorum of Legislature and Passage of Bills;

Article 3, Section 10 (Amendment 6), Succession to Governorship: Provided, That the legislature shall not depart from Section 10, Article III, as amended by Amendment 6, of the state Constitution relating to the Governor's office so long as any successor therein named is available and capable of assuming the powers and duties of such office as therein prescribed;

Article 3, Section 13, Vacancies in State Offices;

Article 11, Section 6, Vacancies in County Offices;

Article 11, Section 2, Seat of County Government;

Article 3, Section 24, State Records. [1961 House Joint Resolution No. 9, p 2758. Approved November, 1962.]

AMENDMENT 40

Art. 11 § 10 INCORPORATION OF MUNICIPALITIES. Corporations for municipal purposes shall not be created by special laws; but the legislature, by general laws, shall provide for the incorporation, organization and classification in proportion to population, of cities and towns, which laws may be altered, amended or repealed. Cities and towns heretofore organized, or incorporated may become organized under such general laws whenever a majority of the electors voting at a general election, shall so determine, and shall organize in conformity therewith; and cities or towns heretofore or hereafter organized, and all charters thereof framed or adopted by authority of this Constitution shall be subject to, and controlled by general laws. Any city containing a population of ten thousand inhabitants, or more, shall be permitted to frame a charter for its own government, consistent with and subject to the Constitution and laws of this state, and for such purpose the legislative authority of such city may cause an election to be had at which election there shall be chosen by the qualified electors of said city, fifteen freeholders thereof, who shall have been residents of said city for a period of at least two years preceding their election and qualified electors, whose duty it shall be to convene within ten days after their election, and prepare and propose a charter for such city. Such proposed charter shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon ratify the same, it shall become the charter of said city, and shall become the organic law thereof, and supersede any existing charter including amendments thereto, and all special laws inconsistent with such charter. Said proposed charter shall be published in the daily newspaper of largest general circulation published in the area to be incorporated as a first class city under the charter or, if no daily newspaper is published therein, then in the newspaper having the largest general circulation within such area at least once each week for four weeks next preceding the day of submitting the same to the electors for their approval, as above provided. All elections in this section authorized shall only be had upon notice, which notice shall specify the object of calling such election, and shall be given as required by law. Said elections may be general or special elections, and except as herein provided shall be governed by the law regulating and controlling general or special elections in said city. Such charter may be amended by proposals therefor submitted by the legislative authority of such city to the electors thereof at any general election after notice of said submission published as above specified, and ratified by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon. In submitting any such charter, or amendment thereto, any alternate article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others. [1963 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 1, p 1526. Approved November 3, 1964.]

AMENDMENT 41

Art. 4 § 29 ELECTION OF SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES. Notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution to the contrary, if, after the last day as provided by law for the withdrawal of declarations of candidacy has expired, only one candidate has filed for any single position of superior court judge in any county containing a population of one hundred thousand or more, no primary or election shall be held as to such position, and a certificate of election shall be issued to such candidate. If, after any contested primary for superior court judge in any county, only one candidate is entitled to have his name printed on the general election ballot for any single position, no election shall be held as to such position, and a certificate of election shall be issued to such candidate: Provided, That in the event that there is filed with the county auditor within ten days after the date of the primary, a petition indicating that a write in campaign will be conducted for such single position and signed by one hundred registered voters qualified to vote with respect of the office, then such single position shall be subject to the general election. Provisions for the contingency of the death or disqualification of a sole candidate between the last date for withdrawal and the time when the election would be held but for the provisions of this section, and such other provisions as may be deemed necessary to implement the provisions of this section, may be enacted by the legislature. [1965 ex.s. Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 6, p 2815. Approved November 8, 1966.]

AMENDMENT 42

Section 33, Article II and Amendments 24 and 29 amendatory thereof, of the Constitution of the State of Washington are each hereby repealed. [1965 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 20, p 2816. Approved November 8, 1966.]

AMENDMENT 43

Art. 9 § 3 FUNDS FOR SUPPORT. The principal of the common school fund as the same existed on June 30, 1965, shall remain permanent and irreducible. The said fund shall consist of the principal amount thereof existing on June 30, 1965, and such additions thereto as may be derived after June 30, 1965, from the following named sources, to wit: Appropriations and donations by the state to this fund; donations and bequests by individuals to the state or public for common schools; the proceeds of lands and other property which revert to the state by escheat and forfeiture; the proceeds of all property granted to the state when the purpose of the grant is not specified, or is uncertain; funds accumulated in the treasury of the state for the disbursement of which provision has not been made by law; the proceeds of the sale of stone, minerals, or property other than timber and other crops from school and state lands, other than those granted for specific purposes; all moneys received from persons appropriating stone, minerals or property other than timber and other crops from school and state lands other than those granted for specific purposes, and all moneys other than rental recovered from persons trespassing on said lands; five per centum of the proceeds of the sale of public lands lying within the state, which shall be sold by the United States subsequent to the admission of the state into the Union as approved by section 13 of the act of congress enabling the admission of the state into the Union; the principal of all funds arising from the sale of lands and other property which have been, and hereafter may be granted to the state for the support of common schools. The legislature may make further provisions for enlarging said fund.

There is hereby established the common school construction fund to be used exclusively for the purpose of financing the construction of facilities for the common schools. The sources of said fund shall be: (1) Those proceeds derived from the sale or appropriation of timber and other crops from school and state lands subsequent to June 30, 1965, other than those granted for specific purposes; (2) the interest accruing on said permanent common school fund from and after July 1, 1967, together with all rentals and other revenues derived therefrom and from lands and other property devoted to the permanent common school fund from and after July 1, 1967; and (3) such other sources as the legislature may direct. That portion of the common school construction fund derived from interest on the permanent common school fund may be used to retire such bonds as may be authorized by law for the purpose of financing the construction of facilities for the common schools.

The interest accruing on the permanent common school fund together with all rentals and other revenues accruing thereto pursuant to subsection (2) of this section during the period after the effective date of this amendment and prior to July 1, 1967, shall be exclusively applied to the current use of the common schools.

To the extent that the moneys in the common school construction fund are in excess of the amount necessary to allow fulfillment of the purpose of said fund, the excess shall be available for deposit to the credit of the permanent common school fund or available for the current use of the common schools, as the legislature may direct. [1965 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 22, part 1, p 2817. Approved November 8, 1966.]

AMENDMENT 44

Art. 16 § 5 INVESTMENT OF PERMANENT COMMON SCHOOL FUND. The permanent common school fund of this state may be invested as authorized by law. [1965 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 22, part 2, p 2817. Approved November 8, 1966.]

Prior amendment of Art. 16 § 5, see Amendment 1.

AMENDMENT 45

Art. 8 § 8 PORT EXPENDITURES—INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT—PROMOTION. The use of public funds by port districts in such manner as may be prescribed by the legislature for industrial development or trade promotion and promotional hosting shall be deemed a public use for a public purpose, and shall not be deemed a gift within the provisions of section 7 of this Article. [1965 ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 25, p 2819. Approved November 8, 1966.]

AMENDMENT 46

Art. 6 § 1A VOTER QUALIFICATIONS FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS. In consideration of those citizens of the United States who become residents of the state of Washington during the year of a presidential election with the intention of making this state their permanent residence, this section is for the purpose of authorizing such persons who can meet all qualifications for voting as set forth in section 1 of this article, except for residence, to vote for presidential electors or for the office of President and Vice-President of the United States, as the case may be, but no other: Provided, That such persons have resided in the state at least sixty days immediately preceding the presidential election concerned.

The legislature shall establish the time, manner and place for such persons to cast such presidential ballots. [1965 ex.s. Substitute Joint House Resolution No. 4, p 2820. Approved November 8, 1966.]

AMENDMENT 47

Art. 7 § 10 RETIRED PERSONS PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 7, section 1 (Amendment 14) and Article 7, section 2 (Amendment 17), the following tax exemption shall be allowed as to real property:

The legislature shall have the power, by appropriate legislation, to grant to retired property owners relief from the property tax on the real property occupied as a residence by those owners. The legislature may place such restrictions and conditions upon the granting of such relief as it shall deem proper. Such restrictions and conditions may include, but are not limited to, the limiting of the relief to those property owners below a specific level of income and those fulfilling certain minimum residential requirements. [1965 ex.s. House Joint Resolution No. 7, p 2821. Approved November 8, 1966.]

AMENDMENT 48

Art. 8 § 3 SPECIAL INDEBTEDNESS, HOW AUTHORIZED. Except the debt specified in sections one and two of this article, no debts shall hereafter be contracted by, or on behalf of this state, unless such debt shall be authorized by law for some single work or object to be distinctly specified therein, which law shall provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within twenty years from the time of the contracting thereof. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, have been submitted to the people and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election, and all moneys raised by authority of such law shall be applied only to the specific object therein stated, or to the payment of the debt thereby created, and notice that such law will be submitted to the people shall be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state: Provided, That failure of any newspaper to publish this notice shall not be interpreted as affecting the outcome of the election. [1965 ex.s. House Joint Resolution No. 39, p 2822. Approved November 8, 1966.]

Art. 8 § 3 was later amended by Amendment 60.

AMENDMENT 49

The Constitution was amended by adding the following new article and section 1 thereof:

ARTICLE XXIX

INVESTMENTS OF PUBLIC PENSION AND RETIREMENT FUNDS

Art. 29 § 1 MAY BE INVESTED AS AUTHORIZED BY LAW. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 5, and 7 of Article VIII and section 9 of Article XII or any other section or article of the Constitution of the state of Washington, the moneys of any public pension or retirement fund may be invested as authorized by law. [1967 Senate Joint Resolution No. 5. Approved November 5, 1968.]

AMENDMENT 50

Article 4 was amended by adding the following section:

Art. 4 § 30 COURT OF APPEALS. (1) Authorization. In addition to the courts authorized in section 1 of this article, judicial power is vested in a court of appeals, which shall be established by statute.

(2) Jurisdiction. The jurisdiction of the court of appeals shall be as provided by statute or by rules authorized by statute.

(3) Review of Superior Court. Superior court actions may be reviewed by the court of appeals or by the supreme court as provided by statute or by rule authorized by statute.

(4) Judges. The number, manner of election, compensation, terms of office, removal and retirement of judges of the court of appeals shall be as provided by statute.

(5) Administration and Procedure. The administration and procedures of the court of appeals shall be as provided by rules issued by the supreme court.

(6) Conflicts. The provisions of this section shall supersede any conflicting provisions in prior sections of this article. [1967 Senate Joint Resolution No. 6. Approved November 5, 1968.]

Note: This section which was adopted as Art. 4 § 29 is herein renumbered Art. 4 § 30 to avoid confusion with Amendment 41.

AMENDMENT 51

Article 8 was amended by adding the following section:

Art. 8 § 9 STATE BUILDING AUTHORITY. The legislature is empowered notwithstanding any other provision in this Constitution, to provide for a state building authority in corporate and politic form which may contract with agencies or departments of the state government to construct upon land owned by the state or its agencies, or to be acquired by the state building authority, buildings and appurtenant improvements which such state agencies or departments are hereby empowered to lease at reasonable rental rates from the Washington state building authority for terms up to seventy-five years with provisions for eventual vesting of title in the state or its agencies. This section shall not be construed as authority to provide buildings through lease or otherwise to nongovernmental entities. The legislature may authorize the state building authority to borrow funds solely upon its own credit and to issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness therefor to be repaid from its revenues and to secure the same by pledging its income or mortgaging its leaseholds. The provisions of sections 1 and 3 of this article shall not apply to indebtedness incurred pursuant to this section. [1967 Senate Joint Resolution No. 17. Approved November 5, 1968.]

Note: This section which was adopted as Art. 8 § 8 is herein renumbered as Art. 8 § 9 to avoid confusion with Amendment 45.

AMENDMENT 52

Art. 2 § 15 VACANCIES IN LEGISLATURE AND IN PARTISAN COUNTY ELECTIVE OFFICE. Such vacancies as may occur in either house of the legislature or in any partisan county elective office shall be filled by appointment by the board of county commissioners of the county in which the vacancy occurs: Provided, That the person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same legislative district, county or county commissioner district and the same political party as the legislator or partisan county elective officer whose office has been vacated, and shall be one of three persons who shall be nominated by the county central committee of that party, and in case a majority of said county commissioners do not agree upon the appointment within sixty days after the vacancy occurs, the governor shall within thirty days thereafter, and from the list of nominees provided for herein, appoint a person who shall be from the same legislative district, county or county commissioner district and of the same political party as the legislator or partisan county elective officer whose office has been vacated, and the person so appointed shall hold office until his successor is elected at the next general election, and shall have qualified: Provided, That in case of a vacancy occurring in the office of joint senator, or joint representative, the vacancy shall be filled from a list of three nominees selected by the state central committee, by appointment by the joint action of the boards of county commissioners of the counties composing the joint senatorial or joint representative district, the person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same legislative district and of the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated, and in case a majority of said county commissioners do not agree upon the appointment within sixty days after the vacancy occurs, the governor shall within thirty days thereafter, and from the list of nominees provided for herein, appoint a person who shall be from the same legislative district and of the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated.

Art. 11 § 6 VACANCIES IN TOWNSHIP, PRECINCT OR ROAD DISTRICT OFFICE. The board of county commissioners in each county shall fill all vacancies occurring in any township, precinct or road district office of such county by appointment, and officers thus appointed shall hold office till the next general election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. [1967 Senate Joint Resolution No. 24. Approved November 5, 1968.]

Prior amendments of Art. 2 § 15, see Amendments 13 and 32.

Article 7 was amended by adding the following section:

Art. 7 § 11 TAXATION BASED ON ACTUAL USE. Nothing in this Article VII as amended shall prevent the legislature from providing, subject to such conditions as it may enact, that the true and fair value in money (a) of farms, agricultural lands, standing timber and timberlands, and (b) of other open space lands which are used for recreation or for enjoyment of their scenic or natural beauty shall be based on the use to which such property is currently applied, and such values shall be used in computing the assessed valuation of such property in the same manner as the assessed valuation is computed for all property. [1967 House Joint Resolution No. 1. Approved November 5, 1968.]

AMENDMENT 54

The Constitution was amended by adding the following new article and section 1 thereof:

ARTICLE XXX*

COMPENSATION OF PUBLIC OFFICERS

Art. 30 § 1 AUTHORIZING COMPENSATION INCREASE DURING TERM. The compensation of all elective and appointive state, county, and municipal officers who do not fix their own compensation, including judges of courts of record and the justice courts may be increased during their terms of office to the end that such officers and judges shall each severally receive compensation for their services in accordance with the law in effect at the time the services are being rendered.

The provisions of section 25 of Article II (Amendment 35), section 25 of Article III (Amendment 31), section 13 of Article IV, section 8 of Article XI, and section 1 of Article XXVIII (Amendment 20) insofar as they are inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. [1967 House Joint Resolution No. 13. Approved November 5, 1968.]

Reviser's note: *(1) Amendment 49 (1967 SJR No. 5) and Amendment 54 (1967 HJR No. 13) each added a new Article XXIX to the Constitution. Amendment 49 is carried herein as Article XXIX while Amendment 54 has been herein redesignated as Article XXX.

 (2) The name of this Article has been supplied by the reviser.

AMENDMENT 55

Art. 7 § 2 LIMITATION ON LEVIES. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed one percentum of the true and fair value of such property in money: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, And Provided Further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort. [1971 Senate Joint Resolution No. 1. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Note: Art. 7 § 2 was also amended at the November 7, 1972 general election by Amendment 59. (HJR 47.)

Prior amendment of Art. 7 § 2, see Amendment 17.

Art. 7 § 2 was later amended by Amendment 64.

AMENDMENT 56

Art. 2 § 24 LOTTERIES AND DIVORCE. The legislature shall never grant any divorce. Lotteries shall be prohibited except as specifically authorized upon the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the members of each house of the legislature or, notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, by referendum or initiative approved by a sixty percent affirmative vote of the electors voting thereon. [1971 Senate Joint Resolution No. 5. Approved November 7, 1972.]

AMENDMENT 57

Art. 11 § 5 COUNTY GOVERNMENT. The legislature, by general and uniform laws, shall provide for the election in the several counties of boards of county commissioners, sheriffs, county clerks, treasurers, prosecuting attorneys and other county, township or precinct and district officers, as public convenience may require, and shall prescribe their duties, and fix their terms of office: Provided, That the legislature may, by general laws, classify the counties by population and provide for the election in certain classes of counties certain officers who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of two or more officers. It shall regulate the compensation of all such officers, in proportion to their duties, and for that purpose may classify the counties by population:

Provided, That it may delegate to the legislative authority of the counties the right to prescribe the salaries of its own members and the salaries of other county officers. And it shall provide for the strict accountability of such officers for all fees which may be collected by them and for all public moneys which may be paid to them, or officially come into their possession.

Art. 11 § 8 SALARIES AND LIMITATIONS AFFECTING. The salary of any county, city, town, or municipal officers shall not be increased except as provided in section 1 of Article XXX or diminished after his election, or during his term of office; nor shall the term of any such officer be extended beyond the period for which he is elected or appointed. [1971 Senate Joint Resolution No. 38. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Prior amendment of Art. 11 § 5, see Amendment 12.

AMENDMENT 58

Art. 11 § 16 COMBINED CITY-COUNTY. Any county may frame a "Home Rule" charter subject to the Constitution and laws of this state to provide for the formation and government of combined city and county municipal corporations, each of which shall be known as "city-county". Registered voters equal in number to ten (10) percent of the voters of any such county voting at the last preceding general election may at any time propose by a petition the calling of an election of freeholders. The provisions of section 4 of this Article with respect to a petition calling for an election of freeholders to frame a county home rule charter, the election of freeholders, and the framing and adoption of a county home rule charter pursuant to such petition shall apply to a petition proposed under this section for the election of freeholders to frame a city-county charter, the election of freeholders, and to the framing and adoption of such city-county charter pursuant to such petition. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of section 4 applicable to a county home rule charter shall apply to a city-county charter. If there are not sufficient legal newspapers published in the county to meet the requirements for publication of a proposed charter under section 4 of this Article, publication in a legal newspaper circulated in the county may be substituted for publication in a legal newspaper published in the county. No such "city-county" shall be formed except by a majority vote of the qualified electors voting thereon in the county. The charter shall designate the respective officers of such city-county who shall perform the duties imposed by law upon county officers. Every such city-county shall have and enjoy all rights, powers and privileges asserted in its charter, and in addition thereto, such rights, powers and privileges as may be granted to it, or to any city or county or class or classes of cities and counties. In the event of a conflict in the constitutional provisions applying to cities and those applying to counties or of a conflict in the general laws applying to cities and those applying to counties, a city-county shall be authorized to exercise any powers that are granted to either the cities or the counties.

No legislative enactment which is a prohibition or restriction shall apply to the rights, powers and privileges of a city-county unless such prohibition or restriction shall apply equally to every other city, county, and city-county.

The provisions of sections 2, 3, 5, 6, and 8 and of the first paragraph of section 4 of this Article shall not apply to any such city-county.

Municipal corporations may be retained or otherwise provided for within the city-county. The formation, powers and duties of such municipal corporations shall be prescribed by the charter.

No city-county shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding three per centum of the taxable property in such city-county without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed ten per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for city-county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness: Provided, That no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly city-county or other municipal purposes: Provided further, That any city-county, with such assent may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding five per centum additional for supplying such city-county with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the city-county.

No municipal corporation which is retained or otherwise provided for within the city-county shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding one and one-half per centum of the taxable property in such municipal corporation without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed five per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for city-county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness: Provided, That no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly municipal purposes: Provided further, That any such municipal corporation, with such assent, may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding five per centum additional for supplying such municipal corporation with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the municipal corporation. All taxes which are levied and collected within a municipal corporation for a specific purpose shall be expended within that municipal corporation.

The authority conferred on the city-county government shall not be restricted by the second sentence of Article 7, section 1, or by Article 8, section 6 of this Constitution. [1971 House Joint Resolution No. 21. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Prior amendment of Art. 11 § 16, see Amendment 23.

AMENDMENT 59

Art. 7 § 2 LIMITATION ON LEVIES. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed forty mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, which assessed valuation shall be fifty per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort. [1971 House Joint Resolution No. 47. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Note: Art. 7 § 2 was also amended at the November 7, 1972 general election by Amendment 55 (SJR 1). 1971 HJR No. 47 contained the following paragraph:

"Be It Further Resolved, That the foregoing amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state in such a manner that they may vote for or against it separately from the proposed amendment to Article VII, section 2, (Amendment 17) of the Constitution of the State of Washington contained in Senate Joint Resolution No. 1: Provided, That if both proposed amendments are approved and ratified, both shall become part of the Constitution."

Prior amendment of Art. 7 § 2, see Amendment 17.

AMENDMENT 60

Art. 8 § 1 STATE DEBT. (a) The state may contract debt, the principal of which shall be paid and discharged within thirty years from the time of contracting thereof, in the manner set forth herein.

(b) The aggregate debt contracted by the state shall not exceed that amount for which payments of principal and interest in any fiscal year would require the state to expend more than nine percent of the arithmetic mean of its general state revenues for the three immediately preceding fiscal years as certified by the treasurer. The term "fiscal year" means that period of time commencing July 1 of any year and ending on June 30 of the following year.

(c) The term "general state revenues" when used in this section, shall include all state money received in the treasury from each and every source whatsoever except: (1) Fees and revenues derived from the ownership or operation of any undertaking, facility, or project; (2) Moneys received as gifts, grants, donations, aid, or assistance or otherwise from the United States or any department, bureau, or corporation thereof, or any person, firm, or corporation, public or private, when the terms and conditions of such gift, grant, donation, aid, or assistance require the application and disbursement of such moneys otherwise than for the general purposes of the state of Washington; (3) Moneys to be paid into and received from retirement system funds, and performance bonds and deposits; (4) Moneys to be paid into and received from trust funds including but not limited to moneys received from taxes levied for specific purposes and the several permanent and irreducible funds of the state and the moneys derived therefrom but excluding bond redemption funds; (5) Proceeds received from the sale of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness.

(d) In computing the amount required for payment of principal and interest on outstanding debt under this section, debt shall be construed to mean borrowed money represented by bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness which are secured by the full faith and credit of the state or are required to be repaid, directly or indirectly, from general state revenues and which are incurred by the state, any department, authority, public corporation, or quasi public corporation of the state, any state university or college, or any other public agency created by the state but not by counties, cities, towns, school districts, or other municipal corporations, but shall not include obligations for the payment of current expenses of state government, nor shall it include debt hereafter incurred pursuant to section 3 of this Article, obligations guaranteed as provided for in subsection (f) of this section, principal of bond anticipation notes or obligations issued to fund or refund the indebtedness of the Washington state building authority.

(e) The state may, without limitation, fund or refund, at or prior to maturity, the whole or any part of any existing debt or of any debt hereafter contracted pursuant to section 1, section 2, or section 3 of this Article, including any premium payable with respect thereto and interest thereon, or fund or refund, at or prior to maturity, the whole or any part of any indebtedness incurred or authorized prior to the effective date of this amendment by any entity of the type described in subsection (g) of this section, including any premium payable with respect thereto and any interest thereon. Such funding or refunding shall not be deemed to be contracting debt by the state.

(f) Notwithstanding the limitation contained in subsection (b) of this section, the state may pledge its full faith, credit, and taxing power to guarantee the payment of any obligation payable from revenues received from any of the following sources: (1) Fees collected by the state as license fees for motor vehicles; (2) Excise taxes collected by the state on the sale, distribution or use of motor vehicle fuel; and (3) Interest on the permanent common school fund: Provided, That the legislature shall, at all times, provide sufficient revenues from such sources to pay the principal and interest due on all obligations for which said source of revenue is pledged.

(g) No money shall be paid from funds in custody of the treasurer with respect to any debt contracted after the effective date of this amendment by the Washington state building authority, the capitol committee, or any similar entity existing or operating for similar purposes pursuant to which such entity undertakes to finance or provide a facility for use or occupancy by the state or any agency, department, or instrumentality thereof.

(h) The legislature shall prescribe all matters relating to the contracting, funding or refunding of debt pursuant to this section, including: The purposes for which debt may be contracted; by a favorable vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the amount of debt which may be contracted for any class of such purposes; the kinds of notes, bonds, or other evidences of debt which may be issued by the state; and the manner by which the treasurer shall determine and advise the legislature, any appropriate agency, officer, or instrumentality of the state as to the available debt capacity within the limitation set forth in this section. The legislature may delegate to any state officer, agency, or instrumentality any of its powers relating to the contracting, funding or refunding of debt pursuant to this section except its power to determine the amount and purposes for which debt may be contracted.

(i) The full faith, credit, and taxing power of the state of Washington are pledged to the payment of the debt created on behalf of the state pursuant to this section and the legislature shall provide by appropriation for the payment of the interest upon and installments of principal of all such debt as the same falls due, but in any event, any court of record may compel such payment.

(j) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection (b) of this section, the state may issue certificates of indebtedness in such sum or sums as may be necessary to meet temporary deficiencies of the treasury, to preserve the best interests of the state in the conduct of the various state institutions, departments, bureaus, and agencies during each fiscal year; such certificates may be issued only to provide for appropriations already made by the legislature and such certificates must be retired and the debt discharged other than by refunding within twelve months after the date of incurrence.

(k) Bonds, notes, or other obligations issued and sold by the state of Washington pursuant to and in conformity with this Article shall not be invalid for any irregularity or defect in the proceedings of the issuance or sale thereof and shall be incontestable in the hands of a bona fide purchaser or holder thereof.

Art. 8 § 3 SPECIAL INDEBTEDNESS, HOW AUTHORIZED. Except the debt specified in sections one and two of this Article, no debts shall hereafter be contracted by, or on behalf of this state, unless such debt shall be authorized by law for some single work or object to be distinctly specified therein. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, or a special election called for that purpose, have been submitted to the people and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election. [1971 House Joint Resolution No. 52. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Prior amendment of Art. 8 § 3, see Amendment 48.

AMENDMENT 61

The Constitution was amended by adding the following new article and sections 1 and 2 thereof:

ARTICLE XXXI

SEX EQUALITY—RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Art. 31 § 1 EQUALITY NOT DENIED BECAUSE OF SEX. Equality of rights and responsibility under the law shall not be denied or abridged on account of sex.

Art. 31 § 2 ENFORCEMENT POWER OF LEGISLATURE. The legislature shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this Article. [1972 House Joint Resolution No. 61. Approved November 7, 1972.]

The name of this Article has been supplied by the reviser.

AMENDMENT 62

Art. 3 § 12 VETO POWER. Every act which shall have passed the legislature shall be, before it becomes a law, presented to the governor. If he approves, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, which house shall enter the objections at large upon the journal and proceed to reconsider. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of the members present shall agree to pass the bill it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of the members present, it shall become a law; but in all such cases the vote of both houses shall be determined by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for or against the bill shall be entered upon the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the governor within five days, Sundays excepted, after it shall be presented to him, it shall become a law without his signature, unless the general adjournment shall prevent its return, in which case it shall become a law unless the governor, within twenty days next after the adjournment, Sundays excepted, shall file such bill with his objections thereto, in the office of secretary of state, who shall lay the same before the legislature at its next session in like manner as if it had been returned by the governor: Provided, That within forty-five days next after the adjournment, Sundays excepted, the legislature may, upon petition by a two-thirds majority or more of the membership of each house, reconvene in extraordinary session, not to exceed five days duration, solely to reconsider any bills vetoed. If any bill presented to the governor contain several sections or appropriation items, he may object to one or more sections or appropriation items while approving other portions of the bill: Provided, That he may not object to less than an entire section, except that if the section contain one or more appropriation items he may object to any such appropriation item or items. In case of objection he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the section or sections, appropriation item or items to which he objects and the reasons therefor; and the section or sections, appropriation item or items so objected to shall not take effect unless passed over the governor's objection, as hereinbefore provided. The provisions of Article II, section 12 insofar as they are inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. [1974 Senate Joint Resolution No. 140. Approved November 5, 1974.]

AMENDMENT 63

Art. 6 § 1 QUALIFICATIONS OF ELECTORS. All persons of the age of eighteen years or over who are citizens of the United States and who have lived in the state, county, and precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which they offer to vote, except those disqualified by Article VI, section 3 of this Constitution, shall be entitled to vote at all elections. [1974 Senate Joint Resolution No. 143. Approved November 5, 1974.]

Prior amendments of Art. 6 § 1, see Amendments 2 and 5.

Art. 7 § 2 LIMITATION ON LEVIES. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed one per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election: Provided, That notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, any proposition pursuant to this subsection to levy additional tax for the support of the common schools may provide such support for a two year period;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, Section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. Senate Joint Resolution No. 137. Approved November 2, 1976.]

Prior amendments of Art. 7 § 2, see Amendments 17, 55, and 59.

Art. 4 § 6 JURISDICTION OF SUPERIOR COURTS. The superior court shall have original jurisdiction in all cases in equity and in all cases at law which involve the title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, and in all other cases in which the demand or the value of the property in controversy amounts to three thousand dollars or as otherwise determined by law, or a lesser sum in excess of the jurisdiction granted to justices of the peace and other inferior courts, and in all criminal cases amounting to felony, and in all cases of misdemeanor not otherwise provided for by law; of actions of forcible entry and detainer; of proceedings in insolvency; of actions to prevent or abate a nuisance; of all matters of probate, of divorce, and for annulment of marriage; and for such special cases and proceedings as are not otherwise provided for. The superior court shall also have original jurisdiction in all cases and of all proceedings in which jurisdiction shall not have been by law vested exclusively in some other court; and said court shall have the power of naturalization and to issue papers therefor. They shall have such appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in justices' and other inferior courts in their respective counties as may be prescribed by law. They shall always be open, except on nonjudicial days, and their process shall extend to all parts of the state. Said courts and their judges shall have power to issue writs of mandamus, quo warranto, review, certiorari, prohibition, and writs of habeas corpus, on petition by or on behalf of any person in actual custody in their respective counties. Injunctions and writs of prohibition and of habeas corpus may be issued and served on legal holidays and nonjudicial days. [1977 Senate Joint Resolution No. 113. Approved November 8, 1977.]

Art. 4 § 10 JUSTICES OF THE PEACE. The legislature shall determine the number of justices of the peace to be elected and shall prescribe by law the powers, duties and jurisdiction of justices of the peace: Provided, That such jurisdiction granted by the legislature shall not trench upon the jurisdiction of superior or other courts of record, except that justices of the peace may be made police justices of incorporated cities and towns.

Justices of the peace shall have original jurisdiction in cases where the demand or value of the property in controversy is less than three hundred dollars or such greater sum, not to exceed three thousand dollars or as otherwise determined by law, as shall be prescribed by the legislature. In incorporated cities or towns having more than five thousand inhabitants, the justices of the peace shall receive such salary as may be provided by law, and shall receive no fees for their own use. [1977 Senate Joint Resolution No. 113. Approved November 8, 1977.]

Prior amendment of Art. 6 § 6 and § 10, see Amendment 28.

AMENDMENT 66

Art. 12 § 18 RATES FOR TRANSPORTATION. The legislature may pass laws establishing reasonable rates of charges for the transportation of passengers and freight, and to correct abuses and prevent discrimination and extortion in the rates of freight and passenger tariffs on the different railroads and other common carriers in the state, and shall enforce such laws by adequate penalties. A railroad and transportation commission may be established and its powers and duties fully defined by law. [1977 House Joint Resolution No. 55. Approved November 8, 1977.]

AMENDMENT 67

Art. 12 § 14 PROHIBITION AGAINST COMBINATIONS BY CARRIERS. [Repealed by AMENDMENT 67, 1977 House Joint Resolution No. 57. Approved November 8, 1977.]

AMENDMENT 68

Art. 2 § 12 SESSIONS, WHEN—DURATION. (1) Regular Sessions. A regular session of the legislature shall be convened each year. Regular sessions shall convene on such day and at such time as the legislature shall determine by statute. During each odd-numbered year, the regular session shall not be more than one hundred five consecutive days. During each even-numbered year, the regular session shall not be more than sixty consecutive days.

(2) Special Legislative Sessions. Special legislative sessions may be convened for a period of not more than thirty consecutive days by proclamation of the governor pursuant to Article III, section 7 of this Constitution. Special legislative sessions may also be convened for a period of not more than thirty consecutive days by resolution of the legislature upon the affirmative vote in each house of two-thirds of the members elected or appointed thereto, which vote may be taken and resolution executed either while the legislature is in session or during any interim between sessions in accordance with such procedures as the legislature may provide by law or resolution. The resolution convening the legislature shall specify a purpose or purposes for the convening of a special session, and any special session convened by the resolution shall consider only measures germane to the purpose or purposes expressed in the resolution, unless by resolution adopted during the session upon the affirmative vote in each house of two-thirds of the members elected or appointed thereto, an additional purpose or purposes are expressed. The specification of purpose by the governor pursuant to Article III, section 7 of this Constitution shall be considered by the legislature but shall not be mandatory.

(3) Committees of the Legislature. Standing and special committees of the legislature shall meet and conduct official business pursuant to such rules as the legislature may adopt. [1979 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 110. Approved November 6, 1979.]

AMENDMENT 69

Art. 2 § 13 LIMITATION ON MEMBERS HOLDING OFFICE IN THE STATE. No member of the legislature, during the term for which he is elected, shall be appointed or elected to any civil office in the state, which shall have been created during the term for which he was elected. Any member of the legislature who is appointed or elected to any civil office in the state, the emoluments of which have been increased during his legislative term of office, shall be compensated for the initial term of the civil office at the level designated prior to the increase in emoluments. [1979 Senate Joint Resolution No. 112. Approved November 6, 1979.]

AMENDMENT 70

Article 8 was amended by adding the following section:

Art. 8 § 10 RESIDENTIAL ENERGY CONSERVATION. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 7 of this Article, until January 1, 1990 any county, city, town, quasi municipal corporation, municipal corporation, or political subdivision of the state which is engaged in the sale or distribution of energy may, as authorized by the legislature, use public moneys or credit derived from operating revenues from the sale of energy to assist the owners of residential structures in financing the acquisition and installation of materials and equipment for the conservation or more efficient use of energy in such structures. Except as provided in section 7 of this Article, an appropriate charge back shall be made for such extension of public moneys or credit and the same shall be a lien against the residential structure benefited. Except as to contracts entered into prior thereto, this amendment to the state Constitution shall be null and void as of January 1, 1990 and shall have no further force or effect after that date. [1979 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 120. Approved November 6, 1979.]

AMENDMENT 71

Article 4 was amended by adding the following section:

Art. 4 § 31 JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION—REMOVAL, CENSURE, SUSPENSION, OR RETIREMENT OF JUDGES OR JUSTICES. There shall be a judicial qualifications commission consisting of a judge selected by and from the court of appeals judges, a judge selected by and from the superior court judges, a judge selected by and from the district court judges, two persons admitted to the practice of law in this state selected by the state bar association, and two persons who are not attorneys appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate.

The supreme court may censure, suspend, or remove a judge or justice for violating a rule of judicial conduct and may retire a judge or justice for disability which is permanent or is likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties. The office of a judge or justice retired or removed by the supreme court becomes vacant, and that person is ineligible for judicial office until eligibility is reinstated by the supreme court. The salary of a removed judge or justice shall cease.

The supreme court shall specify the effect upon salary when disciplinary action other than removal is taken. The supreme court may not discipline or retire a judge or justice until the judicial qualifications commission recommends after notice and hearing that action be taken and the supreme court conducts a hearing, after notice, to review commission proceedings and findings against a judge or justice.

The legislature shall provide for commissioners' terms of office and compensation. The commission shall establish rules of procedure for commission proceedings including due process and confidentiality of proceedings. [1980 Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 37. Approved November 4, 1980.]

Art. 2 § 1 LEGISLATIVE POWERS, WHERE VESTED. The legislative authority of the state of Washington shall be vested in the legislature, consisting of a senate and house of representatives, which shall be called the legislature of the state of Washington, but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose bills, laws, and to enact or reject the same at the polls, independent of the legislature, and also reserve power, at their own option, to approve or reject at the polls any act, item, section, or part of any bill, act, or law passed by the legislature.

(a) Initiative: The first power reserved by the people is the initiative. Every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. In the case of initiatives to the legislature and initiatives to the people, the number of valid signatures of legal voters required shall be equal to eight percent of the votes cast for the office of governor at the last gubernatorial election preceding the initial filing of the text of the initiative measure with the secretary of state.

Initiative petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon, or not less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature. If filed at least four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon, he shall submit the same to the vote of the people at the said election. If such petitions are filed not less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature, he shall certify the results within forty days of the filing. If certification is not complete by the date that the legislature convenes, he shall provisionally certify the measure pending final certification of the measure. Such initiative measures, whether certified or provisionally certified, shall take precedence over all other measures in the legislature except appropriation bills and shall be either enacted or rejected without change or amendment by the legislature before the end of such regular session. If any such initiative measures shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to the referendum petition, or it may be enacted and referred by the legislature to the people for approval or rejection at the next regular election. If it is rejected or if no action is taken upon it by the legislature before the end of such regular session, the secretary of state shall submit it to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different one dealing with the same subject, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by the secretary of state to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. When conflicting measures are submitted to the people the ballots shall be so printed that a voter can express separately by making one cross (X) for each, two preferences, first, as between either measure and neither, and secondly, as between one and the other. If the majority of those voting on the first issue is for neither, both fail, but in that case the votes on the second issue shall nevertheless be carefully counted and made public. If a majority voting on the first issue is for either, then the measure receiving a majority of the votes on the second issue shall be law.

(b) Referendum. The second power reserved by the people is the referendum, and it may be ordered on any act, bill, law, or any part thereof passed by the legislature, except such laws as may be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, support of the state government and its existing public institutions, either by petition signed by the required percentage of the legal voters, or by the legislature as other bills are enacted: Provided, That the legislature may not order a referendum on any initiative measure enacted by the legislature under the foregoing subsection (a). The number of valid signatures of registered voters required on a petition for referendum of an act of the legislature or any part thereof, shall be equal to or exceeding four percent of the votes cast for the office of governor at the last gubernatorial election preceding the filing of the text of the referendum measure with the secretary of state.

(c) No act, law, or bill subject to referendum shall take effect until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted. No act, law, or bill approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon shall be amended or repealed by the legislature within a period of two years following such enactment: Provided, That any such act, law, or bill may be amended within two years after such enactment at any regular or special session of the legislature by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house with full compliance with section 12, Article III, of the Washington Constitution, and no amendatory law adopted in accordance with this provision shall be subject to referendum. But such enactment may be amended or repealed at any general regular or special election by direct vote of the people thereon.

(d) The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections, or parts of any act, law, or bill shall not delay the remainder of the measure from becoming operative. Referendum petitions against measures passed by the legislature shall be filed with the secretary of state not later than ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislature which passed the measure on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the governor shall not extend to measures initiated by or referred to the people. All elections on measures referred to the people of the state shall be had at the next succeeding regular general election following the filing of the measure with the secretary of state, except when the legislature shall order a special election. Any measure initiated by the people or referred to the people as herein provided shall take effect and become the law if it is approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon: Provided, That the vote cast upon such question or measure shall equal one-third of the total votes cast at such election and not otherwise. Such measure shall be in operation on and after the thirtieth day after the election at which it is approved. The style of all bills proposed by initiative petition shall be: "Be it enacted by the people of the State of Washington." This section shall not be construed to deprive any member of the legislature of the right to introduce any measure. All such petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state, who shall be guided by the general laws in submitting the same to the people until additional legislation shall especially provide therefor. This section is self-executing, but legislation may be enacted especially to facilitate its operation.

(e) The legislature shall provide methods of publicity of all laws or parts of laws, and amendments to the Constitution referred to the people with arguments for and against the laws and amendments so referred. The secretary of state shall send one copy of the publication to each individual place of residence in the state and shall make such additional distribution as he shall determine necessary to reasonably assure that each voter will have an opportunity to study the measures prior to election. [1981 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 133. Approved November 3, 1981.]

Prior amendment of Art. 2 § 1, see Amendment 7.

Addition of subsection (e) to Art. 2 § 1, see Amendment 36.

Art. 2 § 1(a). INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM, SIGNATURES REQUIRED. [Stricken by 1981 Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 133. Approved November 3, 1981.]

Adoption of Art. 2 § 1(a), see Amendment 30.

AMENDMENT 73

The Constitution was amended by adding the following new article and section 1 thereof:

ARTICLE XXXII
SPECIAL REVENUE FINANCING

Art. 32 § 1 SPECIAL REVENUE FINANCING. The legislature may enact laws authorizing the state, counties, cities, towns, port districts, or public corporations established thereby to issue nonrecourse revenue bonds or other nonrecourse revenue obligations and to apply the proceeds thereof in the manner and for the purposes heretofore or hereafter authorized by law, subject to the following limitations:

(a) Nonrecourse revenue bonds and other nonrecourse revenue obligations issued pursuant to this section shall be payable only from money or other property received as a result of projects financed by the nonrecourse revenue bonds or other nonrecourse revenue obligations and from money and other property received from private sources.

(b) Nonrecourse revenue bonds and other nonrecourse revenue obligations issued pursuant to this section shall not be payable from or secured by any tax funds or governmental revenue or by all or part of the faith and credit of the state or any unit of local government.

(c) Nonrecourse revenue bonds or other nonrecourse revenue obligations issued pursuant to this section may be issued only if the issuer certifies that it reasonably believes that the interest paid on the bonds or obligations will be exempt from income taxation by the federal government.

(d) Nonrecourse revenue bonds or other nonrecourse revenue obligations may only be used to finance industrial development projects as defined in legislation.

(e) The state, counties, cities, towns, port districts, or public corporations established thereby, shall never exercise their respective attributes of sovereignty, including but not limited to, the power to tax, the power of eminent domain, and the police power on behalf of any industrial development project authorized pursuant to this section.

After the initial adoption of a law by the legislature authorizing the issuance of nonrecourse revenue bonds or other nonrecourse revenue obligations, no amendment to such act which expands the definition of industrial development project shall be valid unless the amendment is enacted by a favorable vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house of the legislature and is subject to referendum petition.

Sections 5 and 7 of Article VIII and section 9 of Article XII shall not be construed as a limitation upon the authority granted by this section. The proceeds of revenue bonds and other revenue obligations issued pursuant to this section for the purpose of financing privately owned property or loans to private persons or corporations shall be subject to audit by the state but shall not otherwise be deemed to be public money or public property for purposes of this Constitution. This section is supplemental to and shall not be construed as a repeal of or limitation on any other authority lawfully exercisable under the Constitution and laws of this state, including, among others, any existing authority to issue revenue bonds. [1981 Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 7. Approved November 3, 1981.]

FILINGS—TIME EXTENDED

In event the last day for filing any document or for doing any other thing or matter in the office of any clerk of any court shall fall upon a day when such clerk's office shall be closed according to rule 2, then and in that event the time for such filing or other thing or matter shall be extended until the end of the next business day upon which such office shall be open for business.

RULE 4

LAW LIBRARIAN

The time and manner of observing holidays by the Law Library on days herein designated and on days immediately before and/or after such days shall be subject to the direction of the State Law Librarian.

RULE 5

AUDITS

The judicial branch of the government of the State of Washington is a separate and co-equal division of said state government. The funds for operation of the judicial branch and many funds which pass through the courts are public funds of the state and/or of various subdivisions, agencies, or municipalities of the state. Every court in this state must, upon demand, submit all financial records of such court to the State Auditor or his agents for inspection and audit, as to all funds received, disbursed, or in possession of said court.

RULE 6

SESSIONS OF COURTS

(a) Sessions of the Supreme Court shall be held in accordance with SAR 4.

(b) Sessions of the Court of Appeals shall be held in accordance with CAR 4.

(c) Sessions of the Superior Court shall be held in accordance with CR 77(f).

RULE 7

LOCAL RULES—FILING REQUIRED

(a) Generally. Rules of court authorized by law to be adopted or amended by courts other than the Supreme Court must be filed with the state Administrator for the Courts in the quantities specified. Such rules and amendments become effective only after they are filed as required.

(b) Form. All local rules shall be consistent with rules adopted by the Supreme Court, and shall conform in numbering system and in format to these rules to facilitate their use.

(c) Distribution. The Administrator for the Courts shall distribute all local rules, and amendments thereto, to the state law library, the libraries of the three divisions of the Court of Appeals, all county law libraries, Washington law school libraries, and to such other places as are deemed appropriate by the Administrator for the Courts.

(d) Effect Upon Existing Local Rules. Local rules in effect as of January 1, 1981, may be amended only as provided in section (a). Local rules in effect as of January 1, 1981, whose validity did not formerly depend upon filing with the Administrator for the Courts are not invalidated by this rule, but they must be filed no later than June 1, 1981, to retain their validity beyond that date.

RULE 8

QUALIFYING EXAMINATION FOR LAY CANDIDATES FOR JUDICIAL OFFICERS

(a) Definitions. As used in this rule:

(1) "Judicial officer" shall mean anyone:

(i) who is not admitted to practice law in the state of Washington including but not limited to district court judges, municipal court judges, justices of the peace, police court judges, judges of any court inferior to the superior court which may be hereafter established, court commissioners and administrators; and

(ii) who hear and dispose of cases.

(2) "Hear and dispose of cases" shall mean but is not limited to signing warrants; issuing summonses; setting bail; presiding at preliminary appearances, arraignments, hearings, trials or other proceedings or determining conditions of release.

(b) Mandatory Qualifying Examination. Every lay candidate for a judicial officer position shall, before appointment or election, pass the qualifying examination prepared in accordance with this rule.

(c) Judicial Officer Examination Committee. The qualifying examination for lay candidates for judicial officers shall be prepared and administered by a committee, under the supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, composed of the Administrator for the Courts, the Executive Secretary of the Judicial Council, the President of the Superior Court Judges' Association, and the President of the Washington Magistrates' Association. The Administrator for the Courts shall be the chairman of the committee.

(d) Committee Responsibilities. The committee shall:

(1) Study Syllabus. Promulgate syllabi for study by candidates to prepare them for the responsibilities of a judicial officer and the qualifying examination for each jurisdiction. The syllabi shall include, but are not limited to, constitutional and statutory provisions and Supreme Court rules relating to the conduct of courts, state statutes, basic rules of evidence, and rights of a criminal defendant.

(2) Examination. Prepare qualifying examinations to test on proficiency included in the respective study syllabi. The examinations shall require written responses to written questions, and may also include oral portions.

(3) Administration. Announce the time and place for the examination and provide for monitoring and security during the examination.

(4) Grading. Arrange for the grading of the examination papers and determine a level of adequate competence that the candidate shall demonstrate to pass the examination.

(5) Certification. Certify to the auditor of the county in which the applicant resides the names of those applicants qualified by examination for performing the duties of judicial officer.

(e) Unsuccessful Candidates. A candidate who fails to pass the qualifying examination may, on petition to the committee, be given additional examinations once every 6 months at times and places set by the committee.

RULE 9

SUPREME COURT RULEMAKING PROCEDURE

(a) Statement of Purpose. In promulgating rules of court it is the purpose of the Washington State Supreme Court to ensure that:

(1) An orderly and uniform procedure is followed;

(2) All interested groups are given notice and an opportunity to express views regarding proposed rules;

(3) Adequate notice of adopted rules changes and of the effective dates is given;

(4) All proposed rules are necessary statewide;

(5) Rules changes are minimized to prevent disruption of court practice;

(6) The purpose of rules of court is to provide necessary governance of court procedure and practice; and

(7) All rules of court are clear and definite in application.

(b) Definitions. As used in this rule, the following terms have these meanings:

(1) "Suggested rule change" means a recommendation for a rule change or a new rule to the Chief Justice.

(2) "Proposed rule" means a recommendation for a rule change made by the Judicial Council or by the Bar Association to the Washington State Supreme Court.

(c) Initiation of Rules Changes. All suggestions for rules changes shall be sent to the Chief Justice who shall transmit them to the Judicial Council and to the Bar Association except suggestions for a change in the Code of Professional Responsibility, the Admission to Practice Rules or the Disciplinary Rules shall be transmitted only to the Bar.

Any group or association whose members are involved in the court system may file a request with the Chief Justice to receive copies of suggested rule changes. The request may specify that the group or association wishes to receive copies of all suggested rule changes or of only certain kinds of suggested rule changes. The request shall state the person to whom the suggested rule change should be sent. Once filed, the request shall be a continuing one until withdrawn by the group or association.

(d) Receipt of Proposed Rules by Supreme Court. Once a suggested rule has been approved by the Judicial Council or by the Bar Association, it shall be transmitted as a proposed rule to the Chief Justice.

The text of all proposed rules shall be typed on 8½ by 11-inch line-numbered paper with consecutive page numbering. If the proposed rule affects an existing rule, deleted portions shall be shown and stricken through; new portions shall be underlined once.

Every proposed rule shall be accompanied by a cover sheet explaining:

(1) Background—what person or group initiated the rules change study and the reason for the request;

(2) Purpose—the purpose of and the necessity for the proposed rule including whether it creates or resolves any conflicts with statutes, case law, or other court rules;

(3) Judicial Council or Bar Association Action—a summary of the viewpoints expressed during the development of and debate over the proposed rule;

(4) Supporting Material—a table of contents listing the material sent to the Supreme Court in support of the proposal including letters, memoranda, minutes of meetings, or research studies;

(5) Spokesperson—a designation of the person who is knowledgeable about the proposed rule and who could provide additional information to the Supreme Court;

(6) Hearing—whether a hearing is recommended.

All proposed rules must be received by the Supreme Court on or before October 31 to be effective for the succeeding September 1.

(e) Action by Supreme Court. If a proposed rule is amended or rejected by the Supreme Court, the Judicial Council and the Bar Association will be notified in writing. If a proposed rule is approved, the Supreme Court will order the proposed rule published for comment.

The Supreme Court may invite persons familiar with the rule to provide additional information.

(f) Publication for Comment. All proposed rules approved by the Supreme Court for publication will be published for comment in a Washington Reports advance sheet during the month of January.

All comments shall be directed to the Chief Justice and shall be received no later than the last day of April. If a comment contains a draft of a rule, it must be in the format outlined in 9(d).

All comments received will be kept on file in the office of the clerk of the court for public inspection and copying.

(g) Final Adoption, Publication, and Effective Date. After the comment period, the Supreme Court will adopt, amend, or reject a proposed rule or take such other action as the court deems appropriate.

Prior to action by the Supreme Court, the court may, in its discretion, hold a hearing on a proposed rule at a time and in a manner defined by the court.

All adopted rules shall be published the first of July in a special edition of the Washington Reports advance sheet.

All adopted rules shall become effective the first day of September unless an emergency as determined by the Supreme Court necessitates a different effective date.

(h) Periodic Review. The Supreme Court, in consultation with the Judicial Council and the Bar Association, will establish procedures for the periodic review of the rules of court.

(i) Miscellaneous Provisions. This rule is effective on March 19, 1982, and applies to all proposed rules changes not adopted by the Supreme Court by that date.

The Supreme Court, in its discretion, may adopt, amend, or rescind a rule without following the procedures set forth in this rule.

RULE 10

ETHICS ADVISORY COMMITTEE REGARDING ADVISORY OPINIONS ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

(a) The Chief Justice shall appoint an Ethics Advisory Committee consisting of seven members each to serve a 2-year term. One member shall be appointed from the Court of Appeals, two members from the superior courts, two members from the courts of limited jurisdiction, one member from the Washington State Bar Association, and the Administrator for the Courts. The Chief Justice shall designate one of the members as chairman. The committee (1) is designated as the body to give advice with respect to the application of the provisions of the Code of Judicial Conduct to officials of the Judicial Branch as defined in article 4 of the Washington Constitution and (2) shall from time to time submit to the Supreme Court recommendations for necessary or advisable changes in the Code of Judicial Conduct.

(b) Any judge may in writing request the opinion of the committee. Compliance with an opinion issued by the committee shall be considered as evidence of good faith by the Judicial Qualifications Commission and the Supreme Court.

(c) Every opinion issued pursuant to this rule shall be circulated by the Administrator for the Courts. A request for an opinion is confidential and not public information unless the Supreme Court otherwise directs. The Administrator for the Courts shall publish regularly opinions issued pursuant to this rule.

CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT (CJC)

PREAMBLE

1. COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT. Anyone, whether or not a lawyer, who is an officer of a judicial system performing judicial functions, including an officer such as a referee in bankruptcy, special master, court commissioner, or magistrate, is a judge for the purpose of this code. All judges should comply with this code except as provided below.

(A) Part-Time Judge. A part-time judge is a judge who serves on a continuing or periodic basis, but is permitted by law to devote time to some other profession or occupation and whose compensation for that reason is less than that of a full-time judge. A part-time judge:

(1) is not required to comply with Canon 5(C)(2), (D), (E), (F), and (G), and Canon 6(C);

(2) should not act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he has served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.

(B) Judge Pro Tempore. A judge pro tempore is a person who is appointed to act temporarily as a judge.

(1) While acting as such, a judge pro tempore is not required to comply with Canon 5(C)(2), (C)(3), (D), (E), (F), and (G), and Canon 6(C).

(2) A person who has been a judge pro tempore should not act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he has served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.

(C) Retired Judge. If a retired appellate court judge engages in the practice of law, he shall be ineligible to serve as a judge pro tempore of an appellate court.

2. EFFECTIVE DATE OF COMPLIANCE. A person to whom this code becomes applicable should arrange his affairs as soon as reasonably possible to comply with it. If, however, the demands on his time and the possibility of conflicts of interest are not substantial, a person who holds judicial office on the date this code becomes effective may:

(A) continue to act as an officer, director, or nonlegal adviser of a family business;

(B) continue to act as an executor, administrator, trustee, or other fiduciary for the estate or person of one who is not a member of his family.

CANON 1—A JUDGE SHOULD UPHOLD THE INTEGRITY AND INDEPENDENCE OF THE JUDICIARY

An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should himself observe high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. The provisions of this code should be construed and applied to further that objective.

CANON 2—A JUDGE SHOULD AVOID IMPROPRIETY AND THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY IN ALL HIS ACTIVITIES

(A) A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

(B) A judge should not allow his family, social, or other relationships to influence his judicial conduct or judgment. He should not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others; nor should he convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him. He should not testify voluntarily as a character witness.

Comment

Public confidence in the judiciary is eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct by judges. A judge must avoid all impropriety and appearance of impropriety. He must expect to be the subject of constant public scrutiny. He must therefore accept restrictions on his conduct that might be viewed as burdensome by the ordinary citizen and should do so freely and willingly.

The testimony of a judge as a character witness injects the prestige of his office into the proceeding in which he testifies and may be misunderstood to be an official testimonial. This canon, however, does not afford him a privilege against testifying in response to an official summons.

CANON 3—A JUDGE SHOULD PERFORM THE DUTIES OF HIS OFFICE IMPARTIALLY AND DILIGENTLY

The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all his other activities. His judicial duties include all the duties of his office prescribed by law. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply:

(A) Adjudicative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. He should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

(2) A judge should maintain order and decorum in proceedings before him.

(3) A judge should be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom he deals in his official capacity, and should require similar conduct of lawyers, and of his staff, court officials, and others subject to his direction and control.

Comment

The duty to hear all proceedings fairly and with patience is not inconsistent with the duty to dispose promptly of the business of the court. Courts can be efficient and businesslike while being patient and deliberate.

(4) A judge should accord to every person who is legally interested in a proceeding, or his lawyer, full right to be heard according to law, and, except as authorized by law, neither initiate nor consider ex parte or other communications concerning a pending or impending proceeding. A judge, however, may obtain the advice of a disinterested expert on the law applicable to a proceeding before him, by amicus curiae only, if he affords the parties reasonable opportunity to respond.

Comment

The proscription against communications concerning a proceeding includes communications from lawyers, law teachers, and other persons who are not participants in the proceeding, except to the limited extent permitted. It does not preclude a judge from consulting with other judges, or with court personnel whose function is to aid the judge in carrying out his adjudicative responsibilities.

An appropriate and often desirable procedure for a court to obtain the advice of a disinterested expert on legal issues is to invite him to file a brief amicus curiae.

(5) A judge should dispose promptly of the business of the court.

Comment

Prompt disposition of the court's business requires a judge to devote adequate time to his duties, to be punctual in attending court and expeditious in determining matters under submission, and to insist that court officials, litigants and their lawyers cooperate with him to that end.

(6) A judge should abstain from public comment about a pending or impending proceeding in any court, and should require similar abstention on the part of court personnel subject to his direction and control. This canon does not prohibit judges from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the court.

Comment

"Court personnel" does not include the lawyers in a proceeding before a judge. The conduct of lawyers is governed by DR 7-107 of the Code of Professional Responsibility.

(7) A judge may permit broadcasting, televising, recording, and taking photographs in the courtroom during sessions of the court, including recesses between sessions, under the following conditions:

(a) Permission shall have first been expressly granted by the judge and under such conditions as the judge may prescribe;

(b) The media personnel will not distract participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings; and

(c) No witness, juror, or party who expresses any prior objection to the judge shall be photographed nor shall the testimony of such a witness, juror, or party be broadcast or telecast. Notwithstanding such objection, the judge may allow the broadcasting, televising, recording, or photographing of other portions of the proceedings.

ILLUSTRATIVE BROADCAST GUIDELINES

1. Officers of Court. The judge has the authority to direct whether broadcast equipment may be taken within the courtroom. The broadcast newsperson should advise the bailiff prior to the start of a court session that he or she desires to electronically record and/or broadcast live from within the courtroom. The bailiff may have prior instructions from the judge as to where the broadcast reporter and/or camera operator may position themselves. In the absence of any directions from the judge or bailiff, the position should be behind the front row of spectator seats by the least used aisleway or other unobtrusive but viable location.

2. Pooling. Unless the judge directs otherwise, no more than one television camera should be taking pictures in the courtroom (as presently constructed) at any one time. Where coverage is by both radio and television, the microphones used by television should also serve for radio and radio should be permitted to feed from the television sound system. Multiple radio feeds, if any, should be provided by a junction box. It should be the responsibility of each broadcast news representative present at the opening of each session of court to achieve an understanding with all other broadcast representatives as to who will function at any given time, or, in the alternative, how they will pool their photographic coverage. This understanding should be reached outside the courtroom and without imposing on the judge or court personnel.

Broadcast coverage outside the courtroom should be handled with care and discretion, but need not be pooled.

3. Broadcast Equipment. All running wires used should be securely taped to the floor. All broadcast equipment should be handled as inconspicuously and quietly as reasonably possible. Sufficient film and/or tape capacities should be provided to obviate film and/or tape changes except during court recess. No camera should give any indication of whether it is or is not operating such as a red light on some studio cameras. No additional lights should be used without the specific approval of the presiding judge and then only as he may specifically approve as may be needed in the case of appellate hearings.

4. Decorum. Broadcast representatives' dress should not set them apart unduly from other trial spectators. Camera operators should not move tripod-mounted cameras except during court recesses. All broadcast equipment should be in place and ready to function no less than 15 minutes before the beginning of each session of court.

ILLUSTRATIVE PRINT MEDIA GUIDELINES

1. The judge has authority to direct whether photographs may be taken within the courtroom. The photographer should advise the bailiff, prior to the start of a court session, that he desires to take photographs. The bailiff may have prior instructions from the judge as to where the photographer may position himself. In the absence of any directions from the judge or bailiff, the photographer should remain behind the front row of spectator seats.

2. Unless the judge directs otherwise, no more than one still picture photographer is to be taking pictures in the courtroom at any one time. It is the responsibility of each photographer present at the opening of each session of court to achieve an understanding with all other photographers present as to which will function at any given time, or, in the alternative, how they will pool their photographic coverage. This understanding must be reached outside the courtroom and without imposing on the judge or court personnel.

3. The photographer's dress and equipment should not set him apart unduly from other trial spectators. Cameras which operate without flash and with a minimum of noise should be utilized.

4. The photographer's movements in and out of the courtroom and while taking pictures should be unobtrusive. He should not, for example, assume body positions inappropriate for spectators.

(B) Administrative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should diligently discharge his administrative responsibilities, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and facilitate the performance of the administrative responsibilities of other judges and court officials.

(2) A judge should require his staff and court officials subject to his direction and control to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to him.

(3) A judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware.

Comment

Disciplinary measures may include reporting a lawyer's misconduct to an appropriate disciplinary body.

(4) A judge should not make unnecessary appointments. He should exercise his power of appointment only on the basis of merit, avoiding nepotism and favoritism. He should not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.

Comment

Appointees of the judge include officials such as referees, commissioners, special masters, receivers, guardians and personnel such as clerks, secretaries, and bailiffs. Consent by the parties to an appointment or an award of compensation does not relieve the judge of the obligation prescribed by this canon.

(C) Disqualification.

(1) A judge should disqualify himself in a proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to instances where:

(a) he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(b) he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

Comment

A lawyer in a governmental agency does not necessarily have an association with other lawyers employed by that agency within the meaning of this canon; a judge formerly employed by a governmental agency, however, should disqualify himself in a proceeding if his impartiality might reasonably be questioned because of such association.

(c) he knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(d) he or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(i) is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;

(ii) is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

Comment

The fact that a lawyer in a proceeding is affiliated with a law firm with which a lawyer—relative of the judge is affiliated does not of itself disqualify the judge. Under appropriate circumstances, the fact that "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned" under Canon 3(C)(1), or that the lawyer—relative is known by the judge to have an interest in the law firm that could be "substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding" under Canon 3(C)(1)(d)(iii) may require his disqualification.

(iii) is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(iv) is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(2) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

Comment

According to the civil law system, the third degree of relationship test would, for example, disqualify the judge if his or his spouse's father, grandfather, uncle, brother, or niece's husband were a party or lawyer in the proceeding, but would not disqualify him if a cousin were a party or lawyer in the proceeding.

(b) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(c) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, advisor, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) an office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) the proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) ownership of government securities is a "financial interest" in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

(D) Remittal of Disqualification.

A judge disqualified by the terms of Canon 3(C)(1)(c) or Canon 3(C)(1)(d) may, instead of withdrawing from the proceeding, disclose on the record the basis of his disqualification. If, based on such disclosure, the parties and lawyers, independently of the judge's participation, all agree in writing that the judge's relationship is immaterial or that his financial interest is insubstantial, the judge is no longer disqualified, and may participate in the proceeding. The agreement, signed by all parties and lawyers, shall be incorporated in the record of the proceeding.

Comment

This procedure is designed to minimize the chance that a party or lawyer will feel coerced into an agreement. When a party is not immediately available, the judge without violating this canon may proceed on the written assurance of the lawyer that his party's consent will be subsequently filed.

CANON 4—A JUDGE MAY ENGAGE IN ACTIVITIES TO IMPROVE THE LAW, THE LEGAL SYSTEM, AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

A judge, subject to the proper performance of his judicial duties, may engage in the following quasi-judicial activities, if in doing so he does not cast doubt on his capacity to decide impartially any issue that may come before him:

(A) He may speak, write, lecture, teach, and participate in other activities concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

(B) He may appear at a public hearing before an executive or legislative body or official on matters concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, and he may otherwise consult with an executive or legislative body or official, but only on matters concerning the administration of justice.

(C) He may serve as a member, officer, or director of an organization or governmental agency devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. He may assist such an organization in raising funds and may participate in their management and investment, but should not personally participate in public fund raising activities. He may make recommendations to public and private fund granting agencies on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

Comment

As a judicial officer and person specially learned in the law, a judge is in a unique position to contribute to the improvement of the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, including revision of substantive and procedural law and improvement of criminal and juvenile justice. To the extent that his time permits, he is encouraged to do so, either independently or through a bar association, judicial conference, or other organization dedicated to the improvement of the law.

Extrajudicial activities are governed by Canon 5.

CANON 5—A JUDGE SHOULD REGULATE HIS EXTRAJUDICIAL ACTIVITIES TO MINIMIZE THE RISK OF CONFLICT WITH HIS JUDICIAL DUTIES

(A) Avocational Activities. A judge may write, lecture, teach, and speak on nonlegal subjects, and engage in the arts, sports, and other social and recreational activities, if such avocational activities do not detract from the dignity of his office or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties.

Comment

Complete separation of a judge from extrajudicial activities is neither possible nor wise; he should not become isolated from the society in which he lives.

(B) Civic and Charitable Activities. A judge may participate in civic and charitable activities that do not reflect adversely upon his impartiality or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties. A judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or nonlegal advisor of an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization not conducted for the economic or political advantage of its members, subject to the following limitations:

(1) A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or will be regularly engaged in adversary proceedings in any court.

Comment

The changing nature of some organizations and of their relationship to the law makes it necessary for a judge regularly to reexamine the activities of each organization with which he is affiliated to determine if it is proper for him to continue his relationship with it. For example, in many jurisdictions charitable hospitals are now more frequently in court than in the past. Similarly, the boards of some legal aid organizations now make policy decisions that may have political significance or imply commitment to causes that may come before the courts for adjudication.

(2) A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director, or trustee of such an organization. He should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization's fund raising events, but he may attend such events.

(3) A judge should not give investment advice to such an organization, but he may serve on its board of directors or trustees even though it has the responsibility for approving investment decisions.

Comment

A judge's participation in an organization devoted to quasi-judicial activities is governed by Canon 4.

(C) Financial Activities.

(1) A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on his impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties, exploit his judicial position, or involve him in frequent transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which he serves.

(2) Subject to the requirements of Canon 5(C)(1), a judge may hold and manage investments, including real estate, and engage in other remunerative activity, but should not serve as an officer, director, manager, advisor, or employee of any business.

Comment

The Preamble, section 2, of this code qualifies this canon with regard to a judge engaged in a family business at the time this code becomes effective.

(3) A judge should manage his investments and other financial interests to minimize the number of cases in which he is disqualified. As soon as he can do so without serious financial detriment, he should divest himself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent disqualification.

(4) Neither a judge nor a member of his family residing in his household should accept a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from anyone except as follows:

(a) a judge may accept a gift incident to a public testimonial to him; books supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for official use; or an invitation to the judge and his spouse to attend a bar-related function or activity devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice;

(b) a judge or a member of his family residing in his household may accept ordinary social hospitality; a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from a relative; a wedding or engagement gift; a loan from a lending institution in its regular course of business on the same terms generally available to persons who are not judges; or a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same terms applied to other applicants;

(c) a judge or a member of his family residing in his household may accept any other gift, bequest, favor, or loan only if the donor is not a party or other person whose interests have come or are likely to come before him, and, if its value exceeds $100, the judge reports it in the same manner as he reports compensation in Canon 6(C).

Comment

This canon does not apply to contributions to a judge's campaign for judicial office, a matter governed by Canon 7.

(5) For the purposes of this canon "member of his family residing in his household" means any relative of a judge by blood or marriage, or a person treated by a judge as a member of his family, who resides in his household.

(6) A judge is not required by this code to disclose his income, debts, or investments, except as provided in this canon and Canons 3 and 6.

Comment

Canon 3 requires a judge to disqualify himself in any proceeding in which he has a financial interest, however small; Canon 5 requires a judge to refrain from engaging in business and from financial activities that might interfere with the impartial performance of his judicial duties; Canon 6 requires him to report all compensation he receives for activities outside his judicial office. A judge has the rights of an ordinary citizen, including the right to privacy of his financial affairs, except to the extent that limitations thereon are required to safeguard the proper performance of his duties. Owning and receiving income from investments do not as such affect the performance of a judge's duties.

(7) Information acquired by a judge in his judicial capacity should not be used or disclosed by him in financial dealings or for any other purpose not related to his judicial duties.

(D) Fiduciary Activities. A judge should not serve as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary, except for the estate, trust, or person of a member of his family, and then only if such service will not interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties. "Member of his family" includes a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, or other relative or person with whom the judge maintains a close familial relationship. As a family fiduciary a judge is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) He should not serve if it is likely that as a fiduciary he will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him, or if the estate, trust, or ward becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the court on which he serves or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

Comment

The Preamble, section 2, of this code qualifies this canon with regard to a judge who is an executor, administrator, trustee, or other fiduciary at the time this code becomes effective.

(2) While acting as a fiduciary a judge is subject to the same restrictions on financial activities that apply to him in his personal capacity.

Comment

A judge's obligation under this canon and his obligation as a fiduciary may come into conflict. For example, a judge should resign as trustee if it would result in detriment to the trust to divest it of holdings whose retention would place the judge in violation of Canon 5(C)(3).

(E) Arbitration. A judge should not act as an arbitrator or mediator.

(F) Practice of Law. A judge should not practice law.

(G) Extrajudicial Appointments. A judge should not accept appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy on matters other than the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. A judge, however, may represent his country, state, or locality on ceremonial occasions or in connection with historical, educational, and cultural activities.

Comment

Valuable services have been rendered in the past to the states and the nation by judges appointed by the executive to undertake important extrajudicial assignments. The appropriateness of conferring these assignments on judges must be reassessed, however, in light of the demands on judicial manpower created by today's crowded dockets and the need to protect the courts from involvement in extrajudicial matters that may prove to be controversial. Judges should not be expected or permitted to accept governmental appointments that could interfere with the effectiveness and independence of the judiciary.

CANON 6—A JUDGE SHOULD REGULARLY FILE REPORTS OF COMPENSATION RECEIVED FOR QUASI-JUDICIAL AND EXTRAJUDICIAL ACTIVITIES

A judge may receive compensation and reimbursement of expenses for the quasi-judicial and extrajudicial activities permitted by this code, if the source of such payments does not give the appearance of influencing the judge in his judicial duties or otherwise give the appearance of impropriety, subject to the following restrictions:

(A) Compensation. Compensation should not exceed a reasonable amount nor should it exceed what a person who is not a judge would receive for the same activity.

(B) Expense Reimbursement. Expense reimbursement should be limited to the actual cost of travel, food, and lodging reasonably incurred by the judge and, where appropriate to the occasion, by his spouse. Any payment in excess of such an amount is compensation.

(C) Public Reports. A judge should make such financial disclosures as required by law.

CANON 7—A JUDGE SHOULD REFRAIN FROM POLITICAL ACTIVITY INAPPROPRIATE TO HIS JUDICIAL OFFICE

(A) Political Conduct in General.

(1) A judge or a candidate for election to judicial office should not:

(a) act as a leader or hold any office in a political organization;

(b) make speeches for a political organization or candidate or publicly endorse a nonjudicial candidate for public office;

(c) solicit funds for or pay an assessment or make a contribution to a political organization or nonjudicial candidate, attend political gatherings, or purchase tickets for political party dinners, or other functions, except as authorized in Canon 7(A)(2);

(2) A judge holding an office filled by public election between competing candidates or candidates for such office, may attend political gatherings and speak to such gatherings on his own behalf or that of another judicial candidate. The judge or candidate shall not identify himself as a member of a political party, and he shall not contribute to a political party or organization.

(3) A judge shall resign his office when he becomes a candidate either in a party primary or in a general election for a nonjudicial office, except that he may continue to hold his judicial office while being a candidate for election to or serving as a delegate in a state constitutional convention, if he is otherwise permitted by law to do so.

(4) A judge should not engage in any other political activity except on behalf of measures to improve the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice.

(B) Campaign Conduct.

(1) A candidate, including an incumbent judge, for a judicial office that is filled either by public election between competing candidates or on the basis of a merit system election:

(a) should maintain the dignity appropriate to judicial office, and should encourage members of his family to adhere to the same standards of political conduct that apply to him;

(b) should prohibit public officials or employees subject to his direction or control from doing for him what he is prohibited from doing under this canon; and except to the extent authorized under Canon 7(B)(2) or (B)(3), he should not allow any other person to do for him what he is prohibited from doing under this canon;

(c) should not make pledges or promises of conduct in office other than the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of the office; announce his views on disputed legal or political issues; or misrepresent his identity, qualifications, present position, or other fact.

(d) should not permit false, misleading, or deceptive campaign advertising to be published or broadcast in behalf of his candidacy.

(2) A candidate, including an incumbent judge, for a judicial office that is filled by public election between competing candidates should not himself solicit or accept campaign funds, but he may establish committees of responsible persons to secure and manage the expenditure of funds for his campaign and to obtain public statements of support for his candidacy. Such committees are not prohibited from soliciting campaign contributions and public support from lawyers or others. A candidate's committees may solicit funds for his campaign no earlier than 120 days from the date when filing for that office is first permitted and no later than 30 days after the last election in which he participates during the election year. A candidate should not use or permit the use of campaign contributions for the private benefit of himself or members of his family.

Comment

Unless the candidate is required by law to file a list of his campaign contributors, their names should not be revealed to the candidate.

(3) An incumbent judge who is a candidate for retention in or reelection to office without a competing candidate, and whose candidacy has drawn active opposition, may campaign in response thereto and may obtain publicly stated support and campaign funds in the manner provided in Canon 7(B)(2).

DISCIPLINE RULES FOR JUDGES (DRJ)

RULE 1

SCOPE OF RULES; PARTIES

(a) Supreme Court Consideration. A decision of the Judicial Qualifications Commission that recommends the discipline or retirement of a judge or justice (hereafter "judge") or that recommends that a judge should or should not be reinstated to eligibility to hold judicial office will be considered by the Supreme Court in the manner provided by these rules.

(b) Judicial Qualifications Commission. The proceedings of the Judicial Qualifications Commission (hereafter "commission") are governed by rules adopted by the commission.

(c) Parties. The only parties to a proceeding under these rules are the commission and the judge who is the subject of the commission recommendation of discipline or retirement.

(d) Discipline. As used in these rules, "discipline" includes admonishment, reprimand, censure, suspension, and removal from office, but does not include admonishment or reprimand agreed to by the judge as provided in rule 12.

Comment

Section (a). The Supreme Court may only consider a Judicial Qualifications Commission recommendation of discipline or retirement. Const. art. 4, § 31 (amend. 71). The word "judge" will be used throughout the rules rather than the terms "judge or justice" found in the constitution.

Section (b). The commission determines its own rules for proceedings before it. Const. art. 4, § 31 (amend. 71).

Section (c). Only the commission and the judge will be parties to Supreme Court proceedings.

Section (d). Rule 12 authorizes the commission to informally admonish or reprimand a judge without referring the matter to the Supreme Court. The word "discipline" used throughout these rules does not include this informal admonishment or reprimand.

RULE 2

INITIATING SUPREME COURT CONSIDERATION

(a) Generally. Decisions of the commission recommending to the Supreme Court that a judge should be disciplined or retired shall be in writing. The commission shall serve on the judge a copy of its decision recommending that the Supreme Court discipline or retire the judge. Unless a matter is disposed of under rule 12, the commission shall file a copy of its decision with the Supreme Court when the commission's decision is final under the rules of the commission. The commission shall serve notice on the judge of the date the decision has been filed with the Supreme Court.

(b) Time for Filing. The written decision of the commission shall specify the time period in which the judge may file a notice of contest under rule 3. The period may not be shorter than 7 days nor longer than 28 days after the date of service on the judge of notice that the decision has been filed with the Supreme Court.

Comment

Section (a). The commission's recommendation to the Supreme Court must be in writing. The rule does not prohibit the commission from giving the judge a proposed recommendation to determine if discipline can be imposed by agreement under rule 12. The rule also accommodates a process for reconsideration by the commission before filing a recommendation with the Supreme Court.

Section (b). This section delegates to the commission the responsibility of determining how much time should be allowed for the filing of a notice of contest. The commission is in the best position to know whether the particular case requires prompt action or may be handled in a manner closely approximating the normal time limits for an appeal to the Supreme Court.

RULE 3

CONTESTING RECOMMENDATION

(a) Generally. A judge who seeks to contest a recommendation of discipline or retirement must file a notice of contest with the Supreme Court and the commission. The notice must be filed within the time period specified in the decision of the commission as provided in rule 2(b).

(b) Form of Notice. The notice of contest must (1) be titled a notice of contest, (2) describe the portions of the recommendation of the commission that the judge wishes to contest, and (3) name the judge seeking to contest the recommendation. The notice must be signed by the judge or by counsel. The name, address, and telephone number of the lawyer for any party represented by counsel should be placed on the notice. The residence address and telephone number of the judge seeking to contest the recommendation should also be included on the notice.

Comment

Section (a). The judge who wishes to contest a commission recommendation must file a notice of contest. The time period for filing a notice of contest is determined by the commission. See rule 2(b).

RULE 4

RECORD ON REVIEW

(a) Transcription of Proceedings. Except as provided in section (b), upon receipt of a timely filed notice of contest, the commission shall at its own expense transcribe those portions of the record of the proceedings involving those charges upon which the recommendation of the commission is based. The transcription of the record and copies of relevant material filed with the commission shall be forwarded by the commission to the judge within the time authorized by the Supreme Court. Any objections relating to the accuracy and content of the record must be made within 14 days after service of the record on the judge. Objections shall be decided in accordance with the rules of the commission. The commission shall forward the record to the Supreme Court after objections are determined by the commission or, in the absence of objection, after the time for objection has expired.

(b) Agreed Record in Contested Proceedings. The commission and the judge may agree to a record in contested proceedings different from that required by section (a). The agreed record shall contain sufficient material to permit the Supreme Court to consider the decision of the commission.

(c) Uncontested Proceedings. If the judge has not timely filed a notice of contest, the record shall consist of the decision of the commission and any other portions of the proceeding which the Supreme Court deems relevant for its consideration.

Comment

Section (a). The rule provides that the commission will prepare the record in a contested proceeding. The commission will only need to transcribe those portions of the proceedings which are relevant to its recommendation. Thus, if the judge was originally charged with five different violations of the Code of Judicial Conduct and the commission recommends discipline based on only one of those, it would only need to transcribe the portions of the proceedings relevant to the charge actually found. The commission will first serve the record on the judge to allow for its determination of any objections to the record before the matter is referred to the Supreme Court. If a party is not satisfied with the commission's determination of the objection, the Supreme Court will decide the matter.

Section (b). There may be circumstances when the commission and the judge disagree only over a limited part of the commission recommendation. In such circumstances, an agreed record is authorized. Cf. RAP 9.4.

Section (c). If a judge does not contest the commission recommendations, the record will only consist of the commission decision, supplemented by those portions of the record the Supreme Court deems relevant.

BRIEFS

(a) Contested Proceedings. If a notice of contest is timely filed, the Supreme Court will establish a schedule for filing briefs.

(b) Uncontested Proceedings. If a notice of contest is not timely filed, briefs will not be required unless requested by the Supreme Court.

(c) Content of Brief. A brief should contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:

(2) Tables. A table of contents, with page references, and a table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes, and other authorities cited, with references to the pages of the brief where cited.

(3) Statement of the Case. A fair statement of the facts and procedure relevant to the recommended discipline or retirement, without argument. Reference to the record must be included for each factual statement.

(4) Statement of the Issues. A statement of the issues presented by the commission's recommendation.

(5) Argument. The argument in support of the relief sought by the party filing the brief, together with citations to legal authority and references to relevant parts of the record. The argument may be preceded by a summary.

(6) Conclusion. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(7) Appendix. An appendix to the brief if deemed appropriate by the party submitting the brief.

(d) Typing and Filing Brief. Rule of Appellate Procedure 10.4(a) is applicable to briefs filed under these rules.

(e) Preparation of Brief. Rules of Appellate Procedure 10.4(b), (c), (e), (f), and (g) are applicable to briefs filed under these rules.

(f) Service of Brief. A party shall serve a copy of the party's brief on all other parties at or before the time the brief is filed with the Supreme Court.

(g) Reproduction of Brief. Rule of Appellate Procedure 10.5(a) is applicable to a brief filed under these rules.

(b) Submission of Improper Brief. Rule of Appellate Procedure 10.7 is applicable to a brief filed under these rules.

(i) Amicus Curiae Brief. Rule of Appellate Procedure 10.6 is applicable to an amicus curiae brief filed under these rules.

Comment

Section (a). If a proceeding is contested, the court will set the schedule for filing briefs. This will allow the court flexibility to accelerate those cases which should be speedily resolved, while permitting more time for cases which do not require quick resolution.

Section (b). In an uncontested case, the court will usually decide the case based on the decision of the commission, which should include the factual basis for the commission's recommendation. The court may order a brief from the commission if it concludes additional information is necessary.

Section (c). This section is adapted from RAP 10.3.

Section (i). As a general rule persons other than parties will not be aware of a discipline or retirement proceeding, but the court or a party may occasionally find the need for an amicus curiae brief. This section incorporates the relevant appellate rule.

HEARING

(a) Contested Proceedings. If a notice of contest is timely filed, the Supreme Court will set the date for the hearing with oral argument. Oral argument will be governed by Title 11 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure.

(b) Uncontested Proceedings. If a notice of contest has not been filed, oral argument will not be held unless requested by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court will nevertheless notify the parties of the date set for the hearing without oral argument.

Comment

Section (a). Normally the court will hear oral argument only in contested proceedings. The court will set the date for oral argument at the same time it sets the briefing schedule. RAP Title 11 governs oral argument.

Section (b). The court is required to hold a hearing in order to impose discipline or to retire a judge. Const. art. 4, § 31 (amend. 71). If a proceeding is uncontested, the court will set a date for considering the commission recommendation, but it will not ordinarily schedule time for oral argument.

RULE 7

ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE OR FINDINGS—REMAND

If the Supreme Court on its own motion or on the motion of the commission or the judge determines that further commission proceedings, additional evidence, or additional findings will aid the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court may remand the case to the commission or accept supplementary materials without remand.

Comment

The Supreme Court may conclude, either on its own or at the instance of a party, that additional commission proceedings are desirable. The Supreme Court may decide that the commission should reconsider the recommendation or obtain additional evidence. This rule permits a remand for these purposes. The rule also authorizes the Supreme Court to receive additional evidence. The generally accepted standard of review for Supreme Court proceedings in the area of judicial misconduct or disability is an "independent evaluation of the evidence." Hence, the Supreme Court functions with a broader standard of review than is usual for an appellate court reviewing a trial court decision. This rule allows maximum flexibility for supplementing the record. Cf. ABA Standards 7.4–7.6 which are consistent with this approach.

RULE 8
MOTION

(a) Relief Available. A party may seek relief, other than a decision of the case on the merits, by a motion. Rules of Appellate Procedure 17.3(a) and 17.4 are applicable to the motion filed under these rules.

(b) No Oral Argument. Motions will ordinarily be decided without oral argument.

(c) Motions Decided by Department or Full Court. A motion will be decided by a department of the Supreme Court or by the full Supreme Court.

RULE 9

DECISION AND RECONSIDERATION

(a) Decision by Full Court. Hearings on the merits under these rules will ordinarily be heard by nine justices. A reference to Supreme Court Justice or justices in these rules includes regular and pro tempore justices. A reference to the Supreme Court includes the Supreme Court as regularly constituted, and the Supreme Court with one or more justices pro tempore.

(b) Postponement of Decision. The Supreme Court may postpone Supreme Court proceedings involving a judge if there are other proceedings pending before the commission involving that same judge.

(c) Decision Imposing Discipline or Retirement. Discipline may be imposed or retirement ordered only upon the affirmative vote of at least five Supreme Court Justices. The decision of the court shall be in the form of a written opinion. The Supreme Court may impose the sanction recommended by the commission, or any other sanction that the Supreme Court deems proper.

(d) Finality of Decision. The decision of the Supreme Court becomes final 14 days after the decision is filed, unless a motion for reconsideration of the decision is earlier filed. If a timely motion for reconsideration is filed, the decision of the Supreme Court becomes final when the motion for reconsideration is denied. If the motion for reconsideration is granted, the reconsidered decision is final when filed. The Supreme Court decision is effective when final, unless otherwise provided by the Supreme Court in its decision.

(e) Motion for Reconsideration. A party seeking reconsideration of a decision must file a motion for reconsideration within 14 days after the decision of the Supreme Court has been filed. Rules of Appellate Procedure 12.4(c) through (h) are applicable to proceedings under these rules.

Comment

Section (a). The Supreme Court will ordinarily decide a judicial discipline case with a full panel of nine justices, drawing from justices pro tempore if necessary, to create a full panel. The rule does provide, however, that a decision by less than nine justices will be effective if the decision is supported by at least five justices.

Section (b). The ABA Standards recommend that the court dispose of all matters regarding the discipline of a particular judge at one time. ABA Standards Relating to Judicial Discipline and Retirement, Std. 7.6.

Section (c). The Supreme Court must approve the discipline of a judge with at least five votes. The court may impose the discipline it determines is proper.

Section (d). A party has 14 days in which to file a motion for reconsideration. If no motion is filed, the decision is final at the end of the 14-day period. If a motion is filed, the decision is final when the motion is denied or when the reconsidered decision is filed. This parallels RAP 12.4 which permits only one motion for reconsideration. This paragraph supersedes RCW 2.04.170 to the extent the statute is in conflict with this rule.

RULE 10

EFFECT OF DISCIPLINE

(a) Removal or Retirement. The office of a judge removed or retired by the Supreme Court becomes vacant when the Supreme Court decision is final. A judge may not perform any judicial duties thereafter. A judge who is removed or retired by the Supreme Court is no longer eligible for judicial office unless the eligibility of the person removed or retired is reinstated by the Supreme Court.

(b) Suspension. The office of a judge suspended by the Supreme Court does not become vacant, but the judge may not perform any judicial duties during the period of suspension, except to the extent the decision of the Supreme Court provides otherwise.

(c) Effect of Discipline on Salary. A decision imposing discipline other than removal or retirement will state the effect of the discipline upon the salary of the judge. Subject to the limitation in rule 9(c), the Supreme Court may diminish the salary of the judge based only on the prospective future decrease in the judge's workload brought about by the discipline imposed by the Supreme Court.

Comment

Section (a). The constitution provides that a judicial office becomes vacant if a judge is removed or retired. Const. art. 4, § 31 (amend. 71).

Section (b). If a judge is suspended from office, the implication is that the office is not vacant. This section makes this clear. The rule does not allow a judge to perform judicial duties while suspended, except as may be otherwise authorized by the Supreme Court.

Section (c). The constitution requires the Supreme Court to specify the effect on the judge's salary of discipline other than removal or retirement. The Supreme Court will not use its power to affect salary as a means of imposing a fine on the judge, which is not specifically authorized by the constitution. Statutes control the collateral effect on retirement benefits of a Supreme Court decision affecting payment of a judge's salary.

RULE 11

REINSTATEMENT OF ELIGIBILITY TO HOLD
JUDICIAL OFFICE

(a) Petition Filed With Commission. A former judge who has been removed from office or retired by the Supreme Court may apply to the commission for reinstatement of eligibility to hold judicial office.

(b) Commission Recommendation. The commission shall determine whether the applicant has made an affirmative showing that reinstatement will not be detrimental to the integrity and standing of the judiciary and the administration of justice, or be contrary to the public interest. The commission recommendation on the application shall be in writing.

(c) Supreme Court Procedure. A decision recommending that a former judge should or should not be reinstated to eligibility to hold judicial office shall be processed under these rules in the same manner as a decision of the commission recommending the discipline or retirement of a judge.

Comment

Section (a). The constitution gives to the Supreme Court the authority to reinstate the eligibility of a removed or retired judge to hold judicial office. The constitution does not establish standards for reinstatement. This section provides that the commission will initially consider an application for reinstatement.

Section (b). This section is modeled after rule 8.6(a) of the Discipline Rules for Attorneys. The Supreme Court has considered the question of attorney reinstatement several times. The standard set forth in the rule along with the developed case law will provide the commission and the Supreme Court with a basis for determining whether to reinstate a former judge's eligibility.

Section (c). Once a commission recommendation is filed with the Supreme Court, the procedure will be the same as in cases involving the discipline or retirement of a judge.

RULE 12

INFORMAL ADMONISHMENT OR REPRIMAND
BY COMMISSION

(a) Generally. The commission may informally admonish or reprimand a judge, but only with the agreement of that judge. The agreement shall provide whether the agreement of the judge to the admonishment or reprimand may be considered as an admission of misconduct by the judge. In any event, the conduct causing the admonishment or reprimand may be considered in the event of a future complaint against the same judge. The agreed admonishment or reprimand may include an agreement by the judge to desist from certain prescribed conduct.

(b) Effect of Informal Admonishment or Reprimand. An agreement to informally admonish or reprimand a judge terminates the complaint or complaints which gave rise to the admonishment or reprimand, without the necessity of referring the matter to the Supreme Court.

Comment

Const. art. 4, § 31 (amend. 71) gives the Supreme Court the authority to impose discipline on judges. Arguably, the commission may not engage in informal dispositions without authority from the Supreme Court. This rule delegates a small, but important, part of the Supreme Court's discipline power to the commission. The commission is only empowered to informally admonish or reprimand a judge. If more serious discipline is called for, the Supreme Court must impose the discipline. The rule requires the consent of the judge. The judge will, thereby, be waiving any right to have discipline imposed only by the Supreme Court. Cf. ABA Standard 6.6.

RULE 13

SUBSTITUTE PANEL

(a) Generally. If a justice of the Supreme Court is the subject of a recommendation for discipline or retirement, a substitute panel of nine judges shall be selected as provided in this rule to serve as justices pro tempore to consider the commission recommendation.

(b) Selection of Justices Pro Tempore. The presiding chief judge of the Court of Appeals shall be one member of the substitute panel and shall be the chief justice pro tempore unless the judge disqualifies himself or herself or is otherwise disqualified by section (c). The clerk of the Supreme Court shall select the balance of the justices pro tempore by lot from all remaining active Court of Appeals judges. If there are fewer than nine judges of the Court of Appeals who are not disqualified, the panel shall be completed by the clerk by selecting by lot from the active superior court judges until a full panel of nine justices pro tempore has been selected.

(c) Disqualification. A judge may disqualify himself or herself without cause. No judge who has served as a master or a member of the commission in the particular proceeding or who is otherwise disqualified may serve on the substitute panel. No judge against whom a formal charge is pending before the commission shall serve on the panel.

(d) Chief Justice Pro Tempore. If the presiding chief judge of the Court of Appeals is not a member of the substitute panel, the substitute panel shall select one of its members to serve as chief justice pro tempore.

RULE 14

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

(a) Service and Filing With the Court. Rule of Appellate Procedure 18.5 governs service, proof of service, and filing of papers under these rules.

(b) Computation of Time. Rule of Appellate Procedure 18.6 applies to the computation of time under these rules.

(c) Waiver of Rules and Sanctions for Violation of Rules. Rules of Appellate Procedure 18.8(a) and (d) and 18.9(a) are applicable to proceedings under these rules.

(d) Applicability of RAP. Upon order of the Supreme Court, the Rules of Appellate Procedure may be made applicable to any part of the proceeding involving the discipline or retirement of a judge not governed by these rules.

CODE OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY (CPR)

PREAMBLE

The continued existence of a free and democratic society depends upon recognition of the concept that justice is based upon the rule of law grounded in respect for the dignity of the individual and his capacity through reason for enlightened self-government. Law so grounded makes justice possible, for only through such law does the dignity of the individual attain respect and protection. Without it, individual rights become subject to unrestrained power, respect for law is destroyed, and rational self-government is impossible.

Lawyers, as guardians of the law, play a vital role in the preservation of society. The fulfillment of this role requires an understanding by lawyers of their relationship with and function in our legal system. A consequent obligation of lawyers is to maintain the highest standards of ethical conduct.

In fulfilling his professional responsibilities, a lawyer necessarily assumes various roles that require the performance of many difficult tasks. Not every situation which he may encounter can be foreseen, but fundamental ethical principles are always present to guide him. Within the framework of these principles, a lawyer must with courage and foresight be able and ready to shape the body of the law to the ever-changing relationships of society.

The Code of Professional Responsibility points the way to the aspiring and provides standards by which to judge the transgressor. Each lawyer must find within his own conscience the touchstone against which to test the extent to which his actions should rise above minimum standards. But in the last analysis it is the desire for the respect and confidence of the members of his profession and the society which he serves that should provide to a lawyer the incentive for the highest possible degree of ethical conduct. The possible loss of that respect and confidence is the ultimate sanction. So long as its practitioners are guided by these principles, the law will continue to be a noble profession. This is its greatness and its strength, which permit of no compromise.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

In furtherance of the principles stated in the Preamble this Code of Professional Responsibility has been promulgated consisting of three separate but interrelated parts: Canons, Ethical Considerations, and Disciplinary Rules. The code is designed to be adopted by appropriate agencies both as an inspirational guide to the members of the profession and as a basis for disciplinary action when the conduct of a lawyer falls below the required minimum standards stated in the Disciplinary Rules.

Obviously the Canons, Ethical Considerations, and Disciplinary Rules cannot apply to nonlawyers; however, they do define the type of ethical conduct that the public has a right to expect not only of lawyers but also of their nonprofessional employees and associates in all matters pertaining to professional employment. A lawyer should ultimately be responsible for the conduct of his employees and associates in the course of the professional representation of the client.

The Canons are statements of axiomatic norms, expressing in general terms the standards of professional conduct expected of lawyers in their relationships with the public, with the legal system, and with the legal profession. They embody the general concepts from which the Ethical Considerations and the Disciplinary Rules are derived.

The Ethical Considerations are aspirational in character and represent the objectives toward which every member of the profession should strive. They constitute a body of principles upon which the lawyer can rely for guidance in many specific situations.

The Disciplinary Rules, unlike the Ethical Considerations, are mandatory in character. The Disciplinary Rules state the minimum level of conduct below which no lawyer can fall without being subject to disciplinary action. Within the framework of fair trial, the Disciplinary Rules should be uniformly applied to all lawyers, regardless of the nature of their professional activities. The code makes no attempt to prescribe either disciplinary procedures or penalties for violation of a Disciplinary Rule, nor does it undertake to define standards for civil liability of lawyers for professional conduct. The severity of judgment against one found guilty of violating a Disciplinary Rule should be determined by the character of the offense and the attendant circumstances. An enforcing agency, in applying the Disciplinary Rules, may find interpretive guidance in the basic principles embodied in the Canons and in the objectives reflected in the Ethical Considerations.

CANON 1—A LAWYER SHOULD ASSIST IN MAINTAINING THE INTEGRITY AND COMPETENCE OF THE LEGAL PROFESSION

DR 1-101 MAINTAINING INTEGRITY AND COMPETENCE OF THE LEGAL PROFESSION

(A) A lawyer is subject to discipline if he has made a materially false statement in, or if he has deliberately failed to disclose a material fact requested in connection with, his application for admission to the bar.

(B) A lawyer shall not further the application for admission to the bar of another person known by him to be unqualified in respect to character, education, or other relevant attribute.

DR 1-102 MISCONDUCT

(A) A lawyer shall not:

- (1) Violate a disciplinary rule.
- (2) Circumvent a disciplinary rule through actions of another.
- (3) Engage in illegal conduct involving moral turpitude.
- (4) Engage in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation.
- (5) Engage in conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice.
- (6) Engage in any other conduct that adversely reflects on his fitness to practice law.

DR 1-103 DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO AUTHORITIES

(A) A lawyer possessing unprivileged knowledge or evidence of a violation of CPR DR 1-102 concerning another lawyer or a judge shall reveal fully such knowledge or evidence upon proper request of a tribunal or other authority empowered to investigate or act upon the conduct of lawyers or judges.

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 1-1 A basic tenet of the professional responsibility of lawyers is that every person in our society should have ready access to the independent professional services of a lawyer of integrity and competence. Maintaining the integrity and improving the competence of the bar to meet the highest standards is the ethical responsibility of every lawyer.

EC 1-2 The public should be protected from those who are not qualified to be lawyers by reason of a deficiency in education or moral standards or of other relevant factors but who nevertheless seek to practice law. To assure the maintenance of high moral and educational standards of the legal profession, lawyers should affirmatively assist courts and other appropriate bodies in promulgating, enforcing, and improving requirements for admission to the bar. In like manner, the bar has a positive obligation to aid in the continued improvement of all phases of pre-admission and post-admission legal education.

EC 1-3 Before recommending an applicant for admission, a lawyer should satisfy himself that the applicant is of good moral character. Although a lawyer should not become a self-appointed investigator or judge of applicants for admission, he should report to proper officials all unfavorable information he possesses relating to the character or other qualifications of an applicant.

EC 1-4 The integrity of the profession can be maintained only if conduct of lawyers in violation of the disciplinary rules is brought to the attention of the proper officials. A lawyer should reveal voluntarily to those officials all unprivileged knowledge of conduct of lawyers which he believes clearly to be in violation of the disciplinary rules. A lawyer should upon request serve on and assist committees and boards having responsibility for the administration of the disciplinary rules.

EC 1-5 A lawyer should maintain high standards of professional conduct and should encourage fellow lawyers to do likewise. He should be temperate and dignified, and he should refrain from all illegal and morally reprehensible conduct. Because of his position in society, even minor violations of law by a lawyer may tend to lessen public confidence in the legal profession. Obedience to law exemplifies respect for law. To lawyers especially, respect for the law should be more than a platitude.

EC 1-6 An applicant for admission to the bar or a lawyer may be unqualified, temporarily or permanently, for other than moral and educational reasons, such as mental or emotional instability. Lawyers should be diligent in taking steps to see that during a period of disqualification such person is not granted a license or, if licensed, is not permitted to practice. In like manner, when the disqualification has terminated, members of the bar should assist such person in being licensed, or, if licensed, in being restored to his full right to practice.

CANON 2—A LAWYER SHOULD ASSIST THE LEGAL PROFESSION IN FULFILLING ITS DUTY TO MAKE LEGAL COUNSEL AVAILABLE

DR 2-101 PUBLICITY

(A) A lawyer shall not, on behalf of himself, his partner, associate or any other lawyer affiliated with him or his firm, use or participate in the use of any form of public communication containing a false, fraudulent, misleading, deceptive, self-laudatory or unfair statement or claim.

(B) In order to facilitate the process of informed selection of a lawyer by potential consumers of legal services, a lawyer may publish or broadcast, subject to CPR DR 2-103, the following information in print media distributed in the geographic area or areas in which the lawyer resides or maintains offices or in which a significant part of the lawyer's clientele resides, provided that the information disclosed by the lawyer in such publication or broadcast complies with CPR DR 2-101(A), and is presented in a dignified manner:

- (1) Name, including name of law firm and names of professional associates; addresses and telephone numbers;
- (2) One or more fields of law in which the lawyer or law firm practices or a statement that practice is limited to one or more fields of law;
- (3) To the extent authorized under CPR DR 2-105, a statement that the lawyer specializes in a particular field of law practice. Absent such authorization, a lawyer may not hold himself or herself out as a specialist or as specializing in any field of law;
- (4) Date and place of birth;
- (5) Date and place of admission to the bar of state and federal courts;
- (6) Schools attended, with dates of graduation, degrees and other scholastic distinctions;
- (7) Public or quasi-public offices;
- (8) Military service;
- (9) Legal authorships;
- (10) Legal teaching position;
- (11) Memberships, offices, and committee assignments, in bar associations;
- (12) Membership and offices in legal fraternities and legal societies;
- (13) Technical and professional licenses;

(14) Memberships in scientific, technical and professional associations and societies;

(15) Foreign language ability;

(16) Names and addresses of bank references;

(17) With their written consent, names of clients regularly represented;

(18) Prepaid or group legal services programs in which the lawyer participates;

(19) Whether credit cards or other credit arrangements are accepted;

(20) Office and telephone answering service hours;

(21) Fee for an initial consultation;

(22) Availability upon request of a written schedule of fees and/or an estimate of the fee to be charged for specific services;

(23) Contingent fee rates subject to CPR DR 2-106(C), provided that the statement discloses whether percentages are computed before or after deduction of costs;

(24) Range of fees for services, provided that the statement discloses that the specific fee within the range which will be charged will vary depending upon the particular matter to be handled for each client and the client is entitled, without obligation, to an estimate of the fee within the range likely to be charged, in print size equivalent to the largest print used in setting forth the fee information;

(25) Hourly rate, provided that the statement discloses that the total fee charged will depend upon the number of hours which must be devoted to the particular matter to be handled for each client and the client is entitled, without obligation, to an estimate of the fee likely to be charged, in print size at least equivalent to the largest print used in setting forth the fee information;

(26) Fixed fees for specific legal services, the description of which would not be misunderstood or be deceptive, provided that the statement discloses that the quoted fee will be available only to clients whose matters fall into the services described and that the client is entitled without obligation to a specific estimate of the fee likely to be charged in print size at least equivalent to the largest print used in setting forth the fee information.

(C) Any person desiring to expand the information authorized for disclosure in CPR DR 2-101(B), or to provide for its dissemination through other forums may apply to the Code of Professional Responsibility Committee of the Washington State Bar Association. Any such application shall be directed to the chairman of the committee at the office of the Washington State Bar Association. Any such application shall be heard expeditiously by the committee. The applicant shall have the right to be heard in person and the committee may hear such other persons as it deems appropriate on the issue of whether the proposal is necessary in light of the existing provisions of the code, accords with standards of accuracy, reliability and truthfulness, and would facilitate the process of informed selection of lawyers by potential consumers of legal services. The committee shall establish such rules as it deems appropriate to assure orderly, fair and expeditious procedures for hearing and recommending relief. Any recommended relief shall be recommended to the Supreme Court as an amendment to CPR DR 2-101(B), and shall be universally applicable to all lawyers.

(D) If a lawyer advertises a fee for a service, the lawyer must render that service for no more than the fee advertised.

(E) Unless otherwise specified in the advertisement if a lawyer publishes any fee information authorized under CPR DR 2-101(B) in a publication that is published more frequently than one time per month, the lawyer shall be bound by any representation made therein for a period of not less than 30 days after such publication. If a lawyer publishes any fee information authorized under CPR DR 2-101(B) in a publication that is published once a month or less frequently, he shall be bound by any representation made therein until the publication of the succeeding issue. If a lawyer publishes any fee information authorized under CPR DR 2-101(B) in a publication which has no fixed date for publication of a succeeding issue, the lawyer shall be bound by any representation made therein for a reasonable period of time after publication but in no event less than 1 year.

(F) This rule does not prohibit limited and dignified identification of a lawyer as a lawyer as well as by name:

(1) In political advertisements when his professional status is germane to the political campaign or to a political issue;

(2) In public notices when the name and profession of a lawyer are required or authorized by law or are reasonably pertinent for a purpose other than the attraction of potential clients;

(3) In routine reports and announcements of a bona fide business, civic, professional, or political organization in which he serves as a director or officer;

(4) In and on legal documents prepared by him;

(5) In and on legal textbooks, treatises, and other legal publications, and in dignified advertisements thereof.

(G) A lawyer shall not compensate or give any thing of value to representatives of the press, radio, television, or other communication medium in anticipation of or in return for professional publicity in a news item. A paid advertisement must be identified as such unless it is apparent from the context that it is a paid advertisement. If the advertisement is communicated to the public by use of radio or television, a recording of the actual transmission shall be retained in the lawyer's or law firm's records for a period of 3 years.

DR 2-102 PROFESSIONAL NOTICES, LETTERHEADS, AND OFFICES

(A) A lawyer or law firm shall not use or participate in the use of professional cards, professional announcement cards, office signs, letterheads, or similar professional notices or devices, except that the following may be used if they are in dignified form:

(1) A professional card of a lawyer identifying him by name and as a lawyer, and giving his addresses, telephone numbers, the name of his law firm, and any information permitted under CPR DR 2-105. A professional card of a law firm may also give the names of members and associates. Such cards may be used for identification.

(2) A brief professional announcement card stating new or changed associations or addresses, change of firm name, or similar matters pertaining to the professional offices of a lawyer or law firm, which may be mailed to lawyers, clients, former clients, personal friends, and relatives. It shall not state biographical data except to the extent reasonably necessary to identify the lawyer or to explain the change in his association, but it may state the immediate past position of the lawyer. It may give the names and dates of predecessor firms in a continuing line of succession. It shall not state the nature of the practice except as permitted under CPR DR 2-105.

(3) A sign on or near the door of the office and in the building directory identifying the law office. The sign shall not state the nature of the practice, except as permitted under CPR DR 2-105.

(4) A letterhead of a lawyer identifying him by name and as a lawyer, and giving his addresses, telephone numbers, the name of his law firm, associates and any information permitted under CPR DR 2-105. A letterhead of a law firm may also give the names of members and associates, and names and dates relating to deceased and retired members. A lawyer may be designated "Of Counsel" on a letterhead if he has a continuing relationship with a lawyer or law firm, other than as a partner or associate. A lawyer or law firm may be designated as "General Counsel" or by similar professional reference on stationery of a client if he or the firm devotes a substantial amount of professional time in the representation of that client. The letterhead of a law firm may give the names and dates of predecessor firms in a continuing line of succession.

(B) A lawyer in private practice shall not practice under a trade name, a name that is misleading as to the identity of the lawyer or lawyers practicing under such name, or a firm name containing names other than those of one or more of the lawyers in the firm, except that the name of a professional corporation or professional association may contain "P.C." or "P.A." or similar symbols indicating the nature of the organization, and if otherwise lawful a firm may use as, or continue to include in, its name the name or names of one or more deceased or retired members of the firm or of a predecessor firm in a continuing line of succession. A lawyer who assumes a judicial, legislative, or public executive or administrative post or office shall not permit his name to remain in the name of a law firm or to be used in professional notices of the firm during any significant period in which he is not actively and regularly practicing law as a member of the firm, and during such period other members of the firm shall not use his name in the firm name or in professional notices of the firm.

(C) A lawyer shall not hold himself out as having a partnership with one or more other lawyers unless they are in fact partners.

(D) A partnership shall not be formed or continued between or among lawyers licensed in different jurisdictions unless all enumerations of the members and associates of the firm on its letterhead and in other permissible listings make clear the jurisdictional limitations on those members and associates of the firm not licensed to practice in all listed jurisdictions; however, the same firm name may be used in each jurisdiction.

(E) A lawyer who is engaged both in the practice of law and another profession or business shall not so indicate on his letterhead, office sign, or professional card, nor shall he identify himself as a lawyer in any publication in connection with his other profession or business.

(F) Nothing contained herein shall prohibit a lawyer from using or permitting the use of, in connection with his name, an earned degree or title derived therefrom indicating his training in the law.

DR 2-103 RECOMMENDATION OF PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT

(A) A lawyer shall not, except as authorized in CPR DR 2-101(B), recommend employment as a private practitioner, of himself, his partner, or associate to a layperson who has not sought his advice regarding employment of a lawyer.

(B) Except as permitted under CPR DR 2-103(C), a lawyer shall not compensate or give anything of value to a person or organization to recommend or secure his employment by a client, or as a reward for having made a recommendation resulting in his employment by a client.

(C) A lawyer shall not request a person or organization to recommend or promote the use of his services or those of his partner or associate, or any other lawyer affiliated with him or his firm, as a private practitioner, except as authorized in CPR DR 2-101, and except that

(1) He may request referrals from a lawyer referral service operated, sponsored, or approved by a bar association and may pay its fees incident thereto.

(2) He may cooperate with the legal service activities of any of the offices or organizations enumerated in CPR DR 2-103(D)(1) through (4) and may perform legal services for those to whom he was recommended by it to do such work if:

(a) The person to whom the recommendation is made is a member or beneficiary of such office or organization; and

(b) The lawyer remains free to exercise his independent professional judgment on behalf of his client.

(D) A lawyer or his partner or associate or any other lawyer affiliated with him or his firm may be recommended, employed or paid by, or may cooperate with, one of the following offices or organizations that promote the use of his services or those of his partner or associate or any other lawyer affiliated with him or his firm if there is no interference with the exercise of independent professional judgment on behalf of his client:

(1) A legal aid office or public defender office:

(a) Operated or sponsored by a duly accredited law school.

(b) Operated or sponsored by a bona fide nonprofit community organization.

(c) Operated or sponsored by a governmental agency.

(d) Operated, sponsored, or approved by a bar association.

(2) A military legal assistance office.

(3) A lawyer referral service operated, sponsored, or approved by a bar association.

(4) Any bona fide organization that recommends, furnishes or pays for legal services to its members or beneficiaries provided the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) Such organization, including any affiliate, is so organized and operated that no profit is derived by it from the rendition of legal services by lawyers, and that, if the organization is organized for profit, the legal services are not rendered by lawyers employed, directed, supervised or selected by it except in connection with matters where such organization bears ultimate liability of its member or beneficiary.

(b) Neither the lawyer, nor his partner, nor associate, nor any other lawyer affiliated with him or his firm, nor any nonlawyer, shall have initiated or promoted such organization for the primary purpose of providing financial or other benefit to such lawyer, partner, associate or affiliated lawyer.

(c) Such organization is not operated for the purpose of procuring legal work or financial benefit for any lawyer as a private practitioner outside of the legal services program of the organization.

(d) The member or beneficiary to whom the legal services are furnished, and not such organization, is recognized as the client of the lawyer in the matter.

(e) Any member or beneficiary who is entitled to have legal services furnished or paid for by the organization may, if such member or beneficiary so desires, select counsel other than that furnished, selected or approved by the organization for the particular matter involved; and the legal service plan of such organization provides appropriate relief for any member or beneficiary who asserts a claim that representation by counsel furnished, selected or approved would be unethical, improper or inadequate under the circumstances of the matter involved and the plan provides an appropriate procedure for seeking such relief.

(f) The lawyer does not know or have cause to know that such organization is in violation of applicable laws, rules of court and other legal requirements that govern its legal service operations.

(g) Such organization has filed with the appropriate disciplinary authority at least annually a report with respect to its legal service plan, if any, showing its terms, its schedule of benefits, its subscription charges, agreements with counsel, and financial results of its legal service activities or, if it has failed to do so, the lawyer does not know or have cause to know of such failure.

(E) A lawyer shall not accept employment when he knows or it is obvious that the person who seeks his services does so as a result of conduct prohibited under this disciplinary rule.

DR 2-104 SUGGESTION OF NEED OF LEGAL SERVICES

(A) A lawyer who has given in-person unsolicited advice to a layperson that he should obtain counsel or take legal action shall not accept employment resulting from that advice, except that:

(1) A lawyer may accept employment by a close friend, relative, former client (if the advice is germane to the former employment), or one whom the lawyer reasonably believes to be a client.

(2) A lawyer may accept employment that results from his participation in activities designed to educate laypersons to recognize legal problems, to make intelligent selection of counsel, or to utilize available legal services if such activities are conducted or sponsored by a qualified legal assistance organization.

(3) A lawyer who is recommended, furnished, or paid by a qualified legal assistance organization enumerated in CPR DR 2-103(D)(1) through (4) may represent a member or beneficiary thereof, to the extent and under the conditions prescribed therein.

(4) Without affecting his right to accept employment, a lawyer may speak publicly or write for publication on legal topics so long as he does not emphasize his own professional experience or reputation and does not undertake to give individual advice.

(5) If success in asserting rights or defenses of his client in litigation in the nature of a class action is dependent upon the joinder of others, a lawyer may accept, but shall not seek, employment from those contacted for the purpose of obtaining their joinder.

DR 2-105 SPECIALIZATION

(A) A lawyer shall not hold himself out publicly as a specialist except as follows:

(1) A lawyer admitted to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office may use the designation Patent Attorney, Patent Lawyer, Trademark Attorney, or Trademark Lawyer, or Registered Patent Attorney or any combination of those terms, on his letterhead and office sign, and a lawyer actively engaged in the admiralty practice may use the designation Admiralty or Admiralty Lawyer on his letterhead and office sign.

(2) A lawyer who is certified as a specialist in a particular field of law or law practice pursuant to legal specialization rules and regulations promulgated by the Supreme Court may hold himself out as such, but only in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by that authority.

DR 2-106 FEES FOR LEGAL SERVICES

(A) A lawyer shall not enter into an agreement for, charge, or collect an illegal or clearly excessive fee.

(B) A fee is clearly excessive when, after a review of the facts, a lawyer of ordinary prudence would be left with a definite and firm conviction that the fee is in excess of a reasonable fee. Factors to be considered as guides in determining the reasonableness of a fee include the following:

(1) The time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly.

(2) The likelihood, if apparent to the client, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer.

(3) The fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services.

(4) The amount involved and the results obtained.

(5) The time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances.

(6) The nature and length of the professional relationship with the client.

(7) The experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services.

(8) Whether the fee is fixed or contingent.

(C) A lawyer shall not enter into an arrangement for, charge, or collect a contingent fee for representing a defendant in a criminal case.

DR 2-107 DIVISION OF FEES AMONG LAWYERS

(A) A lawyer shall not divide a fee for legal services with another lawyer who is not a partner in or associate of his law firm or law office, unless:

(1) The client consents to employment of the other lawyer after a full disclosure that a division of fees will be made.

(2) The division is made in proportion to the services performed and responsibility assumed by each.

(3) The total fee of the lawyers does not clearly exceed reasonable compensation for all legal services they rendered the client.

(B) This disciplinary rule does not prohibit payment to a former partner or associate pursuant to a separation or retirement agreement.

DR 2-108 AGREEMENTS RESTRICTING THE PRACTICE OF A LAWYER

(A) A lawyer shall not be a party to or participate in a partnership or employment agreement with another lawyer that restricts the right of a lawyer to practice law after the termination of a relationship created by the agreement, except as a condition to payment of retirement benefits.

(B) In connection with the settlement of a controversy or suit, a lawyer shall not enter into an agreement that restricts his right to practice law except in or connected with disciplinary proceedings against the lawyer.

DR 2-109 ACCEPTANCE OF EMPLOYMENT

(A) A lawyer shall not accept employment on behalf of a person if he knows or it is obvious that such person wishes to:

(1) Bring a legal action, conduct a defense, or assert a position in litigation, or otherwise have steps taken for him, merely for the purpose of harassing or maliciously injuring any person.

(2) Present a claim or defense in litigation that is not warranted under existing law, unless it can be supported by good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of existing law.

DR 2-110 WITHDRAWAL FROM EMPLOYMENT

(A) In General.

(1) If permission for withdrawal from employment is required by the rules of a tribunal, a lawyer shall not withdraw from employment in a proceeding before that tribunal without its permission.

(2) In any event, a lawyer shall not withdraw from employment until he has taken reasonable steps to avoid foreseeable prejudice to the rights of his client, including giving due notice to his client, allowing time for employment of other counsel, delivering to the client all papers and property to which the client is entitled, and complying with applicable laws and rules.

(3) A lawyer who withdraws from employment shall refund promptly any part of a fee paid in advance that has not been earned.

(B) Mandatory Withdrawal. A lawyer representing a client before a tribunal, with its permission if required by its rules, shall withdraw from employment, and a lawyer representing a client in other matters shall withdraw from employment, if:

(1) He knows or it is obvious that his client is bringing the legal action, conducting the defense, or asserting a position in the litigation, or is otherwise having steps taken for him, merely for the purpose of harassing or maliciously injuring any person.

(2) He knows or it is obvious that his continued employment will result in violation of a disciplinary rule.

(3) His mental or physical condition renders it unreasonably difficult for him to carry out the employment effectively.

(4) He is discharged by his client.

(C) Permissive Withdrawal. If section (B) is not applicable, a lawyer may not request permission to withdraw in matters pending before a tribunal, and may not withdraw in other matters, unless such request or such withdrawal is because:

(1) His client:

(a) Insists upon presenting a claim or defense that is not warranted under existing law and cannot be supported by good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of existing law.

(b) Personally seeks to pursue an illegal course of conduct.

(c) Insists that the lawyer pursue a course of conduct that is illegal or that is prohibited under the disciplinary rules.

(d) By other conduct renders it unreasonably difficult for the lawyer to carry out his employment effectively.

(e) Insists, in a matter not pending before a tribunal, that the lawyer engage in conduct that is contrary to the judgment and advice of the lawyer but not prohibited under the disciplinary rules.

(f) Deliberately disregards an agreement or obligation to the lawyer as to expenses or fees.

(2) His continued employment is likely to result in a violation of a disciplinary rule.

(3) His inability to work with cocounsel indicates that the best interests of the client likely will be served by withdrawal.

(4) His mental or physical condition renders it difficult for him to carry out the employment effectively.

(5) His client knowingly and freely assents to termination of his employment.

(6) He believes in good faith, in a proceeding pending before a tribunal, that the tribunal will find the existence of other good cause for withdrawal.

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 2-1 The need of members of the public for legal services is met only if they recognize their legal problems, appreciate the importance of seeking assistance, and are able to obtain the services of acceptable legal counsel. Hence, important functions of the legal profession are to educate laymen to recognize their problems, to facilitate the process of intelligent selection of lawyers, and to assist in making legal services fully available.

Recognition of Legal Problems

EC 2-2 The legal profession should assist laypersons to recognize legal problems because such problems may not be self-revealing and often are not timely noticed. Therefore, lawyers should encourage and participate in educational and public relations programs concerning our legal system with particular reference to legal problems that frequently arise. Preparation of advertisements and professional articles for lay publications and participation in seminars, lectures, and civic programs should be motivated by a desire to educate the public to an awareness of legal needs and to provide information relevant to the selection of the most appropriate counsel rather than to obtain publicity for particular lawyers. The problems of advertising on radio and television require special consideration, due to the style, cost, and transitory nature of such media. If the interests of laypersons in receiving relevant lawyer advertising are not adequately served by print media, and if adequate safeguards to protect the public can reasonably be formulated, radio and television advertising may serve a public interest.

EC 2-3 Whether a lawyer acts properly in volunteering in-person advice to a layperson to seek legal services depends upon the circumstances. The giving of advice that one should take legal action could well be in fulfillment of the duty of the legal profession to assist laypersons in recognizing legal problems. The advice is proper only if motivated by a desire to protect one who does not recognize that he may have legal problems or who is ignorant of his legal rights or obligations. It is improper if motivated by a desire to obtain personal benefit, secure personal publicity, or cause legal action to be taken merely to harass or injure another. A lawyer should not initiate an in-person contact with a nonclient, personally or through a representative, for the purpose of being retained to represent him for compensation.

EC 2-4 Since motivation is subjective and often difficult to judge, the motives of a lawyer who volunteers in-person advice likely to produce legal controversy may well be suspect if he receives professional employment or other benefits as a result. A lawyer who volunteers in-person advice that one should obtain the services of a lawyer generally should not himself accept employment, compensation, or other benefit in connection with that matter. However, it is not improper for a lawyer to volunteer such advice and render resulting legal services to close friends, relatives, former clients (in regard to matters germane to former employment), and regular clients.

EC 2-5 A lawyer who writes or speaks for the purpose of educating members of the public to recognize their legal problems should carefully refrain from giving or appearing to give a general solution applicable to all apparently similar individual problems, since slight changes in fact situations may require a material variance in the applicable advice; otherwise, the public may be misled and misadvised. Talks and writings by lawyers for laypersons should caution them not to attempt to solve individual problems upon the basis of the information contained therein.

Selection of a Lawyer

EC 2-6 Formerly a potential client usually knew the reputations of local lawyers for competency and integrity and therefore could select a practitioner in whom he had confidence. This traditional selection process worked well because it was initiated by the client and the choice was an informed one.

EC 2-7 Changed conditions, however, have seriously restricted the effectiveness of the traditional selection process. Often the reputations of lawyers are not sufficiently known to enable laypersons to make intelligent choices. The law has become increasingly complex and specialized. Few lawyers are willing and competent to deal with every kind of legal matter, and many laypersons have difficulty in determining the competence of lawyers to render different types of legal services. The selection of legal counsel is particularly difficult for transients, persons moving into new areas, persons of limited education or means, and others who have little or no contact with lawyers. Lack of information about the availability of lawyers, the qualifications of particular lawyers, and the expense of legal representation leads laypersons to avoid seeking legal advice.

EC 2-8 Selection of a lawyer by a layperson should be made on an informed basis. Advice and recommendation of third parties—relatives, friends, acquaintances, business associates, or other lawyers—and disclosure of relevant information about the lawyer and his practice may be helpful. A layperson is best served if the recommendation is disinterested and informed. In order that the recommendation be disinterested, a lawyer should not seek to influence another to recommend his employment. A lawyer should not compensate another person for recommending him, for influencing a prospective client to employ him, or to encourage future recommendations. Advertisements and public communications, whether in law lists, telephone directories, newspapers, other forms or on radio or television, should be formulated to convey only information that is necessary to make an appropriate selection. Such information includes: (1) office information, such as name, including name of law firm and names of professional associates; addresses; telephone numbers; credit card acceptability; fluency in foreign languages; and office hours; (2) relevant biographical information; (3) one or more fields of law in which the lawyer or law firm practices; a statement that practice is limited to one or more fields of law; and/or a statement that the lawyer or law firm specializes in a particular field of law practice, but only to the extent authorized by applicable rules and regulations adopted by the Supreme Court; and (4) permitted fee information. Self-laudation should be avoided.

Selection of a Lawyer: Lawyer Advertising

EC 2-9 The lack of sophistication on the part of many members of the public concerning legal services, the importance of the interests affected by the choice of a lawyer and prior experience with unrestricted lawyer advertising, require that special care be taken by lawyers to avoid misleading the public and to assure that the information set forth in any advertising is relevant to the selection of a lawyer. The lawyer must be mindful that the benefits of lawyer advertising depend upon its reliability and accuracy. Examples of information in law advertising that would be deceptive include misstatements of fact, suggestions that the ingenuity or prior record of a lawyer rather than the justice of the claim are the principal factors likely to determine the result, inclusion of information irrelevant to selecting a lawyer, and representations concerning the quality of service, which cannot be measured or verified. Since lawyer advertising is calculated and not spontaneous, reasonable regulation of lawyer advertising designed to foster compliance with appropriate standards serves the public interest without impeding the flow of useful, meaningful, and relevant information to the public.

EC 2-10 A lawyer should insure that the information contained in any advertising which the lawyer publishes, or causes to be published, is relevant, is disseminated in an objective and understandable fashion, and would facilitate the prospective client's ability to compare the qualifications of the lawyers available to represent him. A lawyer should strive to communicate such information without undue emphasis upon style and advertising stratagems which serve to hinder rather than to facilitate intelligent selection of counsel. Because technological change is a recurrent feature of communications forms, and because perceptions of what is relevant in lawyer selection may change, lawyer advertising regulations should not be cast in rigid, unchangeable terms. Machinery is therefore available for prompt consideration of proposals to change the rules governing lawyer advertising. The determination of any request for such change should depend upon whether the proposal is necessary in light of existing code provisions, whether the proposal accords with standards of accuracy, reliability and truthfulness, and whether the proposal would facilitate informed selection of lawyers by potential consumers of legal services. Any change which is approved should be promulgated in the form of an amendment to the code so that all lawyers practicing in the jurisdiction may avail themselves of its provisions.

EC 2-11 The name under which a lawyer conducts his practice may be a factor in the selection process. The use of a trade name or an assumed name could mislead laypersons concerning the identity, responsibility, and status of those practicing thereunder. Accordingly, a lawyer in private practice should practice only under a designation containing his own name, the name of a lawyer employing him, the name of one or more of the lawyers practicing in a partnership, or, if permitted by law, the name of a professional legal corporation, which should be clearly designated as such. For many years some law firms have used a firm name retaining one or more names of deceased or retired partners and such practice is not improper if the firm is a bona fide successor of a firm in which the deceased or retired person was a member, if the use of the name is authorized by law or by contract, and if the public is not misled thereby. However, the name of a partner who withdraws from a firm but continues to practice law should be omitted from the firm name in order to avoid misleading the public.

EC 2-12 A lawyer occupying a judicial, legislative, or public executive or administrative position who has the right to practice law concurrently may allow his name to remain in the name of the firm if he actively continues to practice law as a member thereof. Otherwise, his name should be removed from the firm name, and he should not be identified as a past or present member of the firm; and he should not hold himself out as being a practicing lawyer.

EC 2-13 In order to avoid the possibility of misleading persons with whom he deals, a lawyer should be scrupulous in the representation of his professional status. He should not hold himself out as being a partner or associate of a law firm if he is not one in fact, and thus should not hold himself out as a partner or associate if he only shares offices with another lawyer.

EC 2-14 In some instances a lawyer confines his practice to a particular field of law. In the absence of state controls to insure the existence of special competence, a lawyer should not be permitted to hold himself out as a specialist or as having official recognition as a specialist, other than in the fields of admiralty, trademark, and patent law where a holding out as a specialist historically has been permitted and in specialties in which the lawyer has been certified as a specialist pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the Supreme Court. A lawyer may, however, indicate in permitted advertising, if it is factual, a limitation of his practice or one or more particular areas or fields of law in which he practices. A lawyer must always be careful not to confuse laypersons as to his status. If a lawyer discloses areas of law in which he practices or to which he limits his practice, but is not certified as a specialist, he should avoid any implication that he is in fact certified.

EC 2-15 The legal profession has developed lawyer referral systems designed to aid individuals who are able to pay fees but need assistance in locating lawyers competent to handle their particular problems. Use of a lawyer referral system enables a layman to avoid an uninformed selection of a lawyer because such a system makes possible the employment of competent lawyers who have indicated an interest in the subject matter involved. Lawyers should support the principle of lawyer referral systems and should encourage the evolution of other ethical plans which aid in the selection of qualified counsel.

EC 2-16 The legal profession cannot remain a viable force in fulfilling its role in our society unless its members receive adequate compensation for services rendered, and reasonable fees should be charged in appropriate cases to clients able to pay them. Nevertheless, persons unable to pay all or a portion of a reasonable fee should be able to obtain necessary legal services, and lawyers should support and participate in ethical activities designed to achieve that objective.

Financial Ability To Employ Counsel: Persons Able To Pay Reasonable Fees

EC 2-17 The determination of a proper fee requires consideration of the interests of both client and lawyer. A lawyer should not charge more than a reasonable fee, for excessive cost of legal service would deter laymen from utilizing the legal system in protection of their rights. Furthermore, an excessive charge abuses the professional relationship between lawyer and client. On the other hand, adequate compensation is necessary in order to enable the lawyer to serve his client effectively and to preserve the integrity and independence of the profession.

EC 2-18 The determination of the reasonableness of a fee requires consideration of all relevant circumstances, including those stated in the disciplinary rules. The fees of a lawyer will vary according to many factors, including the time required, his experience, ability, and reputation, the nature of the employment, the responsibility involved, and the results obtained. Suggested fee schedules and economic reports of state and local bar associations provide some guidance on the subject of reasonable fees. It is a commendable and long-standing tradition of the bar that special consideration is given in the fixing of any fee for services rendered a brother lawyer or a member of his immediate family.

EC 2-19 As soon as feasible after a lawyer has been employed, it is desirable that he reach a clear agreement with his client as to the basis of the fee charges to be made. Such a course will not only prevent later misunderstanding but will also work for good relations between the lawyer and the client. It is usually beneficial to reduce to writing the understanding of the parties regarding the fee, particularly when it is contingent. A lawyer should be mindful that many persons who desire to employ him may have had little or no experience with fee charges of lawyers, and for this reason he should explain fully to such persons the reasons for the particular fee arrangement he proposes.

EC 2-20 Contingent fee arrangements in civil cases have long been commonly accepted in the United States in proceedings to enforce claims. The historical bases of their acceptance are that (1) they often, and in a variety of circumstances, provide the only practical means by which one having a claim against another can economically afford, finance, and obtain the services of a competent lawyer to prosecute his claim, and (2) a successful prosecution of the claim produces a res out of which the fee can be paid. Although a lawyer generally should decline to accept employment on a contingent fee basis by one who is able to pay a reasonable fixed fee, it is not necessarily improper for a lawyer, where justified by the particular circumstances of a case, to enter into a contingent fee contract in a civil case with any client who, after being fully informed of all relevant factors, desires that arrangement. Because of the human relationships involved and the unique character of the proceedings, contingent fee arrangements in domestic relation cases are rarely justified. In administrative agency proceedings contingent fee contracts should be governed by the same consideration as in other civil cases. Public policy properly condemns contingent fee arrangements in criminal cases, largely on the ground that legal services in criminal cases do not produce a res with which to pay the fee.

EC 2-21 A lawyer should not accept compensation or anything of value incident to his employment or services from one other than his client without the knowledge and consent of his client after full disclosure.

EC 2-22 Without the consent of his client, a lawyer should not associate in a particular matter another lawyer outside his firm. A fee may properly be divided between lawyers properly associated if the division is in proportion to the services performed and the responsibility assumed by each lawyer and if the total fee is reasonable.

EC 2-23 A lawyer should be zealous in his efforts to avoid controversies over fees with clients and should attempt to resolve amicably any differences on the subject. He should not sue a client for a fee unless necessary to prevent fraud or gross imposition by the client.

Financial Ability To Employ Counsel: Persons Unable To Pay Reasonable Fees

EC 2-24 A layman whose financial ability is not sufficient to permit payment of any fee cannot obtain legal services, other than in cases where a contingent fee is appropriate, unless the services are provided for him. Even a person of moderate means may be unable to pay a reasonable fee which is large because of the complexity, novelty, or difficulty of the problem or similar factors.

EC 2-25 Historically, the need for legal services of those unable to pay reasonable fees has been met in part by lawyers who donated their services or accepted court appointments on behalf of such individuals. The basic responsibility for providing legal services for those unable to pay ultimately rests upon the individual lawyer, and personal involvement in the problems of the disadvantaged can be one of the most rewarding experiences in the life of a lawyer. Every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, should find time to participate in serving the disadvantaged. The rendition of free legal services to those unable to pay reasonable fees continues to be an obligation of each lawyer, but the efforts of individual lawyers are often not enough to meet the need. Thus it has been necessary for the profession to institute additional programs to provide legal services. Accordingly, legal aid offices, lawyer referral services, and other related programs have been developed, and others will be developed, by the profession. Every lawyer should support all proper efforts to meet this need for legal services.

Acceptance and Retention of Employment

EC 2-26 A lawyer is under no obligation to act as adviser or advocate for every person who may wish to become his client; but in furtherance of the objective of the bar to make legal services fully available, a lawyer should not lightly decline proffered employment. The fulfillment of this objective requires acceptance by a lawyer of his share of tendered employment which may be unattractive both to him and the bar generally.

EC 2-27 History is replete with instances of distinguished and sacrificial services by lawyers who have represented unpopular clients and causes. Regardless of his personal feelings, a lawyer should not decline representation because a client or a cause is unpopular or community reaction is adverse.

EC 2-28 The personal preference of a lawyer to avoid adversary alignment against judges, other lawyers, public officials, or influential members of the community does not justify his rejection of tendered employment.

EC 2-29 When a lawyer is appointed by a court or requested by a bar association to undertake representation of a person unable to obtain counsel, whether for financial or other reasons, he should not seek to be excused from undertaking the representation except for compelling reasons. Compelling reasons do not include such factors as the repugnance of the subject matter of the proceeding, the identity or position of a person involved in the case, the belief of the lawyer that the defendant in a criminal proceeding is guilty, or the belief of the lawyer regarding the merits of the civil case.

EC 2-30 Employment should not be accepted by a lawyer when he is unable to render competent service or when he knows or it is obvious that the person seeking to employ him desires to institute or maintain an action merely for the purpose of harassing or maliciously injuring another. Likewise, a lawyer should decline employment if the intensity of his personal feeling, as distinguished from a community attitude, may impair his effective representation of a prospective client. If a lawyer knows a client has previously obtained counsel, he should not accept employment in the matter unless the other counsel approves or withdraws, or the client terminates the prior employment.

EC 2-31 Full availability of legal counsel requires both that persons be able to obtain counsel and that lawyers who undertake representation complete the work involved. Trial counsel for a convicted defendant should continue to represent his client by advising whether to take an appeal and, if the appeal is prosecuted, by representing him through the appeal unless new counsel is substituted or withdrawal is permitted by the appropriate court.

EC 2-32 A decision by a lawyer to withdraw should be made only on the basis of compelling circumstances, and in a matter pending before a tribunal he must comply with the rules of the tribunal regarding withdrawal. A lawyer should not withdraw without considering carefully and endeavoring to minimize the possible adverse effect on the rights of his client and the possibility of prejudice to his client as a result of his withdrawal. Even when he justifiably withdraws, a lawyer should protect the welfare of his client by giving due notice of his withdrawal, suggesting employment of other counsel, delivering to the client all papers and property to which the client is entitled, cooperating with counsel subsequently employed, and otherwise endeavoring to minimize the possibility of harm. Further, he should refund to the client any compensation not earned during the employment.

CANON 3—A LAWYER SHOULD ASSIST IN PREVENTING THE UNAUTHORIZED PRACTICE OF LAW

DR 3-101 AIDING UNAUTHORIZED PRACTICE OF LAW

(A) A lawyer shall not aid a nonlawyer in the unauthorized practice of law.

(B) A lawyer shall not practice law in a jurisdiction where to do so would be in violation of regulations of the profession in that jurisdiction.

DR 3-102 DIVIDING LEGAL FEES WITH A NONLAWYER

(A) A lawyer or law firm shall not share legal fees with a nonlawyer, except that:

(1) An agreement by a lawyer with his firm, partner, or associate may provide for the payment of money, over a reasonable period of time after his death, to his estate or to one or more specified persons.

(2) A lawyer who undertakes to complete unfinished legal business of a deceased lawyer may pay to the estate of the deceased lawyer that proportion of the total compensation which fairly represents the services rendered by the deceased lawyer.

(3) A lawyer or law firm may include nonlawyer employees in a retirement plan, even though the plan is based in whole or in part on a profit-sharing arrangement.

DR 3-103 FORMING A PARTNERSHIP WITH A NONLAWYER

(A) A lawyer shall not form a partnership with a nonlawyer if any of the activities of the partnership consist of the practice of law.

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 3-1 The prohibition against the practice of law by a layman is grounded in the need of the public for integrity and competence of those who undertake to render legal services. Because of the fiduciary and personal character of the lawyer-client relationship and the inherently complex nature of our legal system, the public can better be assured of the requisite responsibility and competence if the practice of law is confined to those who are subject to the requirements and regulations imposed upon members of the legal profession.

EC 3-2 The sensitive variations in the considerations that bear on legal determinations often make it difficult even for a lawyer to exercise appropriate professional judgment, and it is therefore essential that the personal nature of the relationship of client and lawyer be preserved. Competent professional judgment is the product of a trained familiarity with law and legal processes, a disciplined, analytical approach to legal problems, and a firm ethical commitment.

EC 3-3 A nonlawyer who undertakes to handle legal matters is not governed as to integrity or legal competence by the same rules that govern the conduct of a lawyer. A lawyer is not only subject to that regulation but also is committed to high standards of ethical conduct. The public interest is best served in legal matters by a regulated profession committed to such standards. The disciplinary rules protect the public in that they prohibit a lawyer from seeking employment by improper overtures, from acting in cases of divided loyalties, and from submitting to the control of others in the exercise of his judgment. Moreover, a person who entrusts legal matters to a lawyer is protected by the attorney-client privilege and by the duty of the lawyer to hold inviolate the confidences and secrets of his client.

EC 3-4 A layman who seeks legal services often is not in a position to judge whether he will receive proper professional attention. The entrustment of a legal matter may well involve the confidences, the reputation, the property, the freedom, or even the life of the client. Proper protection of members of the public demands that no person be permitted to act in the confidential and demanding capacity of a lawyer unless he is subject to the regulations of the legal profession.

EC 3-5 It is neither necessary nor desirable to attempt the formulation of a single, specific definition of what constitutes the practice of law. Functionally, the practice of law relates to the rendition of services for others that call for the professional judgment of a lawyer. The essence of the professional judgment of the lawyer is his educated ability to relate the general body and philosophy of law to a specific legal problem of a client; and thus, the public interest will be better served if only lawyers are permitted to act in matters involving professional judgment. Where this professional judgment is not involved, nonlawyers, such as court clerks, police officers, abstracters, and many governmental employees, may engage in occupations that require a special knowledge of law in certain areas. But the services of a lawyer are essential in the public interest whenever the exercise of professional legal judgment is required.

EC 3-6 A lawyer often delegates tasks to clerks, secretaries, and other laypersons. Such delegation is proper if the lawyer maintains a direct relationship with his client, supervises the delegated work, and has complete professional responsibility for the work product. This delegation enables a lawyer to render legal service more economically and efficiently.

EC 3-7 The prohibition against a nonlawyer practicing law does not prevent a layman from representing himself, for then he is ordinarily exposing only himself to possible injury. The purpose of the legal profession is to make educated legal representation available to the public; but anyone who does not wish to avail himself of such representation is not required to do so. Even so, the legal profession should help members of the public to recognize legal problems and to understand why it may be unwise for them to act for themselves in matters having legal consequences.

EC 3-8 Since a lawyer should not aid or encourage a layman to practice law, he should not practice law in association with a layman or otherwise share legal fees with a layman. This does not mean, however, that the pecuniary value of the interest of a deceased lawyer in his firm or practice may not be paid to his estate or specified persons such as his widow or heirs. In like manner, profit-sharing retirement plans of a lawyer or law firm which include nonlawyer office employees are not improper. These limited exceptions to the rule against sharing legal fees with laymen are permissible since they do not aid or encourage laymen to practice law.

EC 3-9 Regulation of the practice of law is accomplished principally by the respective states. Authority to engage in the practice of law conferred in any jurisdiction is not per se a grant of the right to practice elsewhere, and it is improper for a lawyer to engage in practice where he is not permitted by law or by court order to do so. However, the demands of business and the mobility of our society pose distinct problems in the regulation of the practice of law by the states. In furtherance of the public interest, the legal profession should discourage regulation that unreasonably imposes territorial limitations upon the right of a lawyer to handle the legal affairs of his client or upon the opportunity of a client to obtain the services of a lawyer of his choice in all matters including the presentation of a contested matter in a tribunal before which the lawyer is not permanently admitted to practice.

CANON 4—A LAWYER SHOULD PRESERVE THE CONFIDENCES AND SECRETS OF A CLIENT

DR 4-101 PRESERVATION OF CONFIDENCES AND SECRETS OF A CLIENT

(A) "Confidence" refers to information protected by the attorney-client privilege under applicable law, and "secret" refers to other information gained in the professional relationship that the client has requested be held inviolate or the disclosure of which would be embarrassing or would be likely to be detrimental to the client.

(B) Except when permitted under sections (C) and (D), a lawyer shall not knowingly during or after termination of the professional relationship to his client:

(1) Reveal a confidence or secret of his client.

(2) Use a confidence or secret of his client to the disadvantage of the client.

(3) Use a confidence or secret of his client for the advantage of himself or of a third person, unless the client consents after full disclosure.

(C) A lawyer may reveal:

(1) Confidences or secrets with the consent of the client or clients affected, but only after a full disclosure to them.

(2) Confidences or secrets when permitted under disciplinary rules or required by law or court order.

(3) The intention of his client to commit a crime and the information necessary to prevent the crime.

(4) Confidences or secrets necessary to establish or collect his fee or to defend himself or his employees or associates against an accusation of wrongful conduct.

(D) A lawyer shall exercise reasonable care to prevent his employees, associates, and others whose services are utilized by him from disclosing or using confidences or secrets of a client, except that a lawyer may reveal the information allowed by section (C) through an employee.

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 4-1 Both the fiduciary relationship existing between lawyer and client and the proper functioning of the legal system require the preservation by the lawyer of confidences and secrets of one who has employed or sought to employ him. A client must feel free to discuss whatever he wishes with his lawyer and a lawyer must be equally free to obtain information beyond that volunteered by his client. A lawyer should be fully informed of all the facts of the matter he is handling in order for his client to obtain the full advantage of our legal system. It is for the lawyer in the exercise of his independent professional judgment to separate the relevant and important from the irrelevant and unimportant. The observance of the ethical obligation of a lawyer to hold inviolate the confidences and secrets of his client not only facilitates the full development of facts essential to proper representation of the client but also encourages laymen to seek early legal assistance.

EC 4-2 The obligation to protect confidences and secrets obviously does not preclude a lawyer from revealing information when his client consents after full disclosure, when necessary to perform his professional employment, when permitted by a disciplinary rule, or when required by law. Unless the client otherwise directs, a lawyer may disclose the affairs of his client to partners or associates of his firm. It is a matter of common knowledge that the normal operation of a law office exposes confidential professional information to nonlawyer employees of the office, particularly secretaries and those having access to the files; and this obligates a lawyer to exercise care in selecting and training his employees so that the sanctity of all confidences and secrets of his clients may be preserved. If the obligation extends to two or more clients as to the same information, a lawyer should obtain the permission of all before revealing the information. A lawyer must always be sensitive to the rights and wishes of his client and act scrupulously in the making of decisions which may involve the disclosure of information obtained in his professional relationship. Thus, in the absence of consent of his client after full disclosure, a lawyer should not associate another lawyer in the handling of a matter; nor should he, in the absence of consent, seek counsel from another lawyer if there is a reasonable possibility that the identity of the client or his confidences or secrets would be revealed to such lawyer. Both social amenities and professional duty should cause a lawyer to shun indiscreet conversations concerning his clients.

EC 4-3 Unless the client otherwise directs, it is not improper for a lawyer to give limited information from his files to an outside agency necessary for statistical, bookkeeping, accounting, data processing, banking, printing, or other legitimate purposes, provided he exercises due care in the selection of the agency and warns the agency that the information must be kept confidential.

EC 4-4 The attorney-client privilege is more limited than the ethical obligation of a lawyer to guard the confidences and secrets of his client. This ethical precept, unlike the evidentiary privilege, exists without regard to the nature or source of information or the fact that others share the knowledge. A lawyer should endeavor to act in a manner which preserves the evidentiary privilege; for example, he should avoid professional discussions in the presence of persons to whom the privilege does not extend. A lawyer owes an obligation to advise the client of the attorney-client privilege and timely to assert the privilege unless it is waived by the client.

EC 4-5 A lawyer should not use information acquired in the course of the representation of a client to the disadvantage of the client and a lawyer should not use, except with the consent of his client after full disclosure, such information for his own purposes. Likewise, a lawyer should be diligent in his efforts to prevent the misuse of such information by his employees and associates. Care should be exercised by a lawyer to prevent the disclosure of the confidences and secrets of one client to another, and no employment should be accepted that might require such disclosure.

EC 4-6 The obligation of a lawyer to preserve the confidences and secrets of his client continues after the termination of his employment. Thus an attorney, as successor to another practice, must preserve inviolate the secrets and confidences reflected in the files in the same respect as required by his predecessor. A lawyer should take all reasonable steps, providing safeguards from disclosing the confidences and secrets reflected in the files of his client, following the termination of his practice of the law whether termination is due from disability or retirement.

CANON 5—A LAWYER SHOULD EXERCISE INDEPENDENT PROFESSIONAL JUDGMENT ON BEHALF OF A CLIENT

DR 5-101 REFUSING EMPLOYMENT WHEN THE INTERESTS OF THE LAWYER MAY IMPAIR HIS INDEPENDENT PROFESSIONAL JUDGMENT

(A) Except with the consent of his client after full disclosure, a lawyer shall not accept employment if the exercise of his professional judgment on behalf of his client will be or reasonably may be affected by his own financial, business, property, or personal interests.

(B) A lawyer shall not accept employment in contemplated or pending litigation if he knows or it is obvious that he or a lawyer in his firm ought to be called as a witness, except that he may undertake the employment and he or a lawyer in his firm may testify:

(1) If the testimony will relate solely to an uncontested matter.

(2) If the testimony will relate solely to a matter of formality and there is no reason to believe that substantial evidence will be offered in opposition to the testimony.

(3) If the testimony will relate solely to the nature and value of legal services rendered in the case by the lawyer or his firm to the client.

(4) As to any matter, if refusal would work a substantial hardship on the client because of the distinctive value of the lawyer or his firm as counsel in the particular case.

DR 5-102 WITHDRAWAL AS COUNSEL WHEN THE LAWYER BECOMES A WITNESS

(A) If, after undertaking employment in contemplated or pending litigation, a lawyer learns or it is obvious that he or a lawyer in his firm ought to be called as a witness on behalf of his client, he shall withdraw from the conduct of the trial and his firm, if any, shall not continue representation in the trial, except that he may continue the representation and he or a lawyer in his firm may testify in the circumstances enumerated in CPR DR 5-101(B)(1) through (4).

(B) If, after undertaking employment in contemplated or pending litigation, a lawyer learns or it is obvious that he or a lawyer in his firm may be called as a witness other than on behalf of his client, he may continue the representation until it is apparent that his testimony is or may be prejudicial to his client.

DR 5-103 AVOIDING ACQUISITION OF INTEREST IN LITIGATION

(A) A lawyer shall not acquire a proprietary interest in the cause of action or subject matter of litigation he is conducting for a client, except that he may:

(1) Acquire a lien granted by law to secure his fee or expenses.

(2) Contract with a client for a reasonable contingent fee in a civil case.

(B) While representing a client in connection with contemplated or pending litigation, a lawyer shall not advance or guarantee financial assistance to his client, except that a lawyer may advance or guarantee the expenses of litigation, including court costs, expenses of investigation, expenses of medical examination, and costs of obtaining and presenting evidence, provided the client remains ultimately liable for such expenses.

DR 5-104 LIMITING BUSINESS RELATIONS WITH A CLIENT

(A) A lawyer shall not enter into a business transaction with a client if they have differing interests therein and if the client expects the lawyer to exercise his professional judgment therein for the protection of the client, unless the client has consented after full disclosure.

(B) Prior to conclusion of all aspects of the matter giving rise to his employment, a lawyer shall not enter into any arrangement or understanding with a client or a prospective client by which he acquires an interest in publication rights with respect to the subject matter of his employment or proposed employment.

DR 5-105 REFUSING TO ACCEPT OR CONTINUE EMPLOYMENT IF THE INTERESTS OF ANOTHER CLIENT MAY IMPAIR THE INDEPENDENT PROFESSIONAL JUDGMENT OF THE LAWYER

(A) A lawyer shall decline proffered employment if the exercise of his independent professional judgment in behalf of a client will be or is likely to be adversely affected by the acceptance of the proffered employment, except to the extent permitted under section (C).

(B) A lawyer shall not continue multiple employment if the exercise of his independent professional judgment in behalf of a client will be or is likely to be adversely affected by his representation of another client, except to the extent permitted under section (C).

(C) In the situations covered by sections (A) and (B), a lawyer may represent multiple clients if it is obvious that he can adequately represent the interest of each and if each consents to the representation after full disclosure of the possible effect of such representation on the exercise of his independent professional judgment on behalf of each.

(D) If a lawyer is required to decline employment or to withdraw from employment under CPR DR 5-105, no partner or associate of his or his firm may accept or continue such employment.

DR 5-106 SETTLING SIMILAR CLAIMS OF CLIENTS

(A) A lawyer who represents two or more clients shall not make or participate in the making of an aggregate settlement of the claims of or against his clients, unless each client has consented to the settlement after being advised of the existence and nature of all the claims involved in the proposed settlement, of the total amount of the settlement, and of the participation of each person in the settlement.

DR 5-107 AVOIDING INFLUENCE BY OTHERS THAN THE CLIENT

(A) Except with the consent of his client after full disclosure, a lawyer shall not:

(1) Accept compensation for his legal services from one other than his client.

(2) Accept from one other than his client anything of value related to his representation of or his employment by his client.

(B) A lawyer shall not permit a person who recommends, employs, or pays him to render legal services for another to direct or regulate his professional judgment in rendering such legal services.

(C) A lawyer shall not practice with or in the form of a professional corporation or association authorized to practice law for a profit, if:

(1) A nonlawyer owns any interest therein, except that a fiduciary representative of the estate of a lawyer may hold the stock or interest of the lawyer for a reasonable time during administration;

(2) A nonlawyer is a corporate director or officer thereof; or

(3) A nonlawyer has the right to direct or control the professional judgment of a lawyer.

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 5-1 The professional judgment of a lawyer should be exercised, within the bounds of the law, solely for the benefit of his client and free of compromising influences and loyalties. Neither his personal interests, the interests of other clients, nor the desires of third persons should be permitted to dilute his loyalty to his client.

Interests of a Lawyer That May Affect His Judgment

EC 5-2 A lawyer should not accept proffered employment if his personal interests or desires will, or there is a reasonable probability that they will, affect adversely the advice to be given or services to be rendered the prospective client. After accepting employment, a lawyer carefully should refrain from acquiring a property right or assuming a position that would tend to make his judgment less protective of the interests of his client.

EC 5-3 The self-interest of a lawyer resulting from his ownership of property in which his client also has an interest or which may affect property of his client may interfere with the exercise of free judgment on behalf of his client. If such interference would occur with respect to a prospective client, a lawyer should decline employment proffered by him. After accepting employment, a lawyer should not acquire property rights that would adversely affect his professional judgment in the representation of his client. Even if the property interests of a lawyer do not presently interfere with the exercise of his independent judgment, but the likelihood of interference can reasonably be foreseen by him, a lawyer should explain the situation to his client and should decline employment or withdraw unless the client consents to the continuance of the relationship after full disclosure. A lawyer should not seek to persuade his client to permit him to invest in an undertaking of his client nor make improper use of his professional relationship to influence his client to invest in an enterprise in which the lawyer is interested.

EC 5-4 If, in the course of his representation of a client, a lawyer is permitted to receive from his client a beneficial ownership in publication rights relating to the subject matter of the employment, he may be tempted to subordinate the interests of his client to his own anticipated pecuniary gain. For example, a lawyer in a criminal case who obtains from his client television, radio, motion picture, newspaper, magazine, book, or other publication rights with respect to the case may be influenced, consciously or unconsciously, to a course of conduct that will enhance the value of his publication rights to the prejudice of his client. To prevent these potentially differing interests, such arrangements should be scrupulously avoided prior to the termination of all aspects of the matter giving rise to the employment, even though his employment has previously ended.

EC 5-5 A lawyer should not suggest to his client that a gift be made to himself or for his benefit. If a lawyer accepts a gift from his client, he is peculiarly susceptible to the charge that he unduly influenced or overreached the client. If a client voluntarily offers to make a gift to his lawyer, the lawyer may accept the gift, but before doing so, he should urge that his client secure disinterested advice from an independent, competent person who is cognizant of all the circumstances. Other than in exceptional circumstances, a lawyer should insist that an instrument in which his client desires to name him beneficially be prepared by another lawyer selected by the client.

EC 5-6 A lawyer should not consciously influence a client to name him as executor, trustee, or lawyer in an instrument. In those cases where a client wishes to name his lawyer as such, care should be taken by the lawyer to avoid even the appearance of impropriety.

EC 5-7 The possibility of an adverse effect upon the exercise of free judgment by a lawyer on behalf of his client during litigation generally makes it undesirable for the lawyer to acquire a proprietary interest in the cause of his client or otherwise to become financially interested in the outcome of the litigation. However, it is not improper for a lawyer to protect his right to collect a fee for his services by the assertion of legally permissible liens, even though by doing so he may acquire an interest in the outcome of litigation. Although a contingent fee arrangement gives a lawyer a financial interest in the outcome of litigation, a reasonable contingent fee is permissible in civil cases because it may be the only means by which a layman can obtain the services of a lawyer of his choice. But a lawyer, because he is in a better position to evaluate a cause of action, should enter into a contingent fee arrangement only in those instances where the arrangement will be beneficial to the client.

EC 5-8 A financial interest in the outcome of litigation also results if monetary advances are made by a lawyer to his client. Although this assistance is generally not encouraged, there are instances when it is not improper to advance or guarantee the expenses of litigation, including court costs, expenses of investigation, expenses of medical examination, and the cost of obtaining and presenting evidence, provided that the client remains ultimately liable for such expenses.

EC 5-9 Occasionally a lawyer is called upon to decide in a particular case whether he will be a witness or an advocate. If a lawyer is both counsel and witness, he becomes more easily impeachable for interest and thus may be a less effective witness. Conversely, the opposing counsel may be handicapped in challenging the credibility of the lawyer when the lawyer also appears as an advocate in the case. An advocate who becomes a witness is in the unseemly and ineffective position of arguing his own credibility. The roles of an advocate and of a witness are inconsistent; the function of an advocate is to advance or argue the cause of another, while that of a witness is to state facts objectively.

EC 5-10 Problems incident to the lawyer-witness relationship arise at different stages; they relate either to whether a lawyer should accept employment or should withdraw from employment. Regardless of when the problem arises, his decision is to be governed by the same basic considerations. It is not objectionable for a lawyer who is a potential witness to be an advocate if it is unlikely that he will be called as a witness because his testimony would be merely cumulative or if his testimony will relate only to an uncontested issue. In the exceptional situation where it will be manifestly unfair to the client for the lawyer to refuse employment or to withdraw when he will likely be a witness on a contested issue, he may serve as advocate even though he may be a witness. In making such decision, he should determine the personal or financial sacrifice of the client that may result from his refusal of employment or withdrawal therefrom, the materiality of his testimony, and the effectiveness of his representation in view of his personal involvement. In weighing these factors, it should be clear that refusal or withdrawal will impose an unreasonable hardship upon the client before the lawyer accepts or continues the employment. Where the question arises, doubts should be resolved in favor of the lawyer testifying and against his becoming or continuing as an advocate.

EC 5-11 A lawyer should not permit his personal interests to influence his advice relative to a suggestion by his client that additional counsel be employed. In like manner, his personal interests should not deter him from suggesting that additional counsel be employed; on the contrary, he should be alert to the desirability of recommending additional counsel when, in his judgment, the proper representation of his client requires it. However, a lawyer should advise his client not to employ additional counsel suggested by the client if the lawyer believes that such employment would be a disservice to the client, and he should disclose the reasons for his belief.

EC 5-12 Inability of cocounsel to agree on a matter vital to the representation of their client requires that their disagreement be submitted by them jointly to their client for his resolution, and the decision of the client shall control the action to be taken.

EC 5-13 A lawyer should not maintain membership in or be influenced by any organization of employees that undertakes to prescribe, direct, or suggest when or how he should fulfill his professional obligations to a person or organization that employs him as a lawyer. Although it is not necessarily improper for a lawyer employed by a corporation or similar entity to be a member of an organization of employees, he should be vigilant to safeguard his fidelity as a lawyer to his employer, free from outside influences.

Interests of Multiple Clients

EC 5-14 Maintaining the independence of professional judgment required of a lawyer precludes his acceptance or continuation of employment that will adversely affect his judgment on behalf of or dilute his loyalty to a client. This problem arises whenever a lawyer is asked to represent two or more clients who may have differing interests, whether such interests be conflicting, inconsistent, diverse, or otherwise discordant.

EC 5-15 If a lawyer is requested to undertake or to continue representation of multiple clients having potentially differing interests, he must weigh carefully the possibility that his judgment may be impaired or his loyalty divided if he accepts or continues the employment. He should resolve all doubts against the propriety of the representation. A lawyer should never represent in litigation multiple clients with differing interests; and there are few situations in which he would be justified in representing in litigation multiple clients with potentially differing interests. If a lawyer accepted such employment and the interests did become actually differing, he would have to withdraw from employment with likelihood of resulting hardship on the clients; and for this reason it is preferable that he refuse the employment initially. On the other hand, there are many instances in which a lawyer may properly serve multiple clients having potentially differing interests in matters not involving litigation. If the interests vary only slightly, it is generally likely that the lawyer will not be subjected to an adverse influence and that he can retain his independent judgment on behalf of each client; and if the interests become differing, withdrawal is less likely to have a disruptive effect upon the causes of his clients.

EC 5-16 In those instances in which a lawyer is justified in representing two or more clients having differing interests, it is nevertheless essential that each client be given the opportunity to evaluate his need for representation free of any potential conflict and to obtain other counsel if he so desires. Thus before a lawyer may represent multiple clients, he should explain fully to each client the implications of the common representation and should accept or continue employment only if the clients consent. If there are present other circumstances that might cause any of the multiple clients to question the undivided loyalty of the lawyer, he should also advise all of the clients of those circumstances.

EC 5-17 Typically recurring situations involving potentially differing interests are those in which a lawyer is asked to represent codefendants in a criminal case, coplaintiffs in a personal injury case, an insured and his insurer, and beneficiaries of the estate of a decedent. Whether a lawyer can fairly and adequately protect the interests of multiple clients in these and similar situations depends upon an analysis of each case. In certain circumstances, there may exist little chance of the judgment of the lawyer being adversely affected by the slight possibility that the interests will become actually differing; in other circumstances, the chance of adverse effect upon his judgment is not unlikely.

EC 5-18 A lawyer employed or retained by a corporation or similar entity owes his allegiance to the entity and not to a stockholder, director, officer, employee, representative, or other person connected with the entity. In advising the entity, a lawyer should keep paramount its interests and his professional judgment should not be influenced by the personal desires of any person or organization. Occasionally a lawyer for an entity is requested by a stockholder, director, officer, employee, representative, or other person connected with the entity to represent him in an individual capacity; in such case the lawyer may serve the individual only if the lawyer is convinced that differing interests are not present.

EC 5-19 A lawyer may represent several clients whose interests are not actually or potentially differing. Nevertheless, he should explain any circumstances that might cause a client to question his undivided loyalty. Regardless of the belief of a lawyer that he may properly represent multiple clients, he must defer to a client who holds the contrary belief and withdraw from representation of that client.

EC 5-20 A lawyer is often asked to serve as an impartial arbitrator or mediator in matters which involve present or former clients. He may serve in either capacity if he first discloses such present or former relationships. After a lawyer has undertaken to act as an impartial arbitrator or mediator, he should not thereafter represent in the dispute any of the parties involved.

Desires of Third Persons

EC 5-21 The obligation of a lawyer to exercise professional judgment solely on behalf of his client requires that he disregard the desires of others that might impair his free judgment. The desires of a third person will seldom adversely affect a lawyer unless that person is in a position to exert strong economic, political, or social pressures upon the lawyer. These influences are often subtle, and a lawyer must be alert to their existence. A lawyer subjected to outside pressures should make full disclosure of them to his client; and if he or his client believes that the effectiveness of his representation has been or will be impaired thereby, the lawyer should take proper steps to withdraw from representation of his client.

EC 5-22 Economic, political, or social pressures by third persons are less likely to impinge upon the independent judgment of a lawyer in a matter in which he is compensated directly by his client and his professional work is exclusively with his client. On the other hand, if a lawyer is compensated from a source other than his client, he may feel a sense of responsibility to someone other than his client.

EC 5-23 A person or organization that pays or furnishes lawyers to represent others possesses a potential power to exert strong pressures against the independent judgment of those lawyers. Some employers may be interested in furthering their own economic, political, or social goals without regard to the professional responsibility of the lawyer to his individual client. Others may be far more concerned with establishment or extension of legal principles than in the immediate protection of the rights of the lawyer's individual client. On some occasions, decisions on priority of work may be made by the employer rather than the lawyer with the result that prosecution of work already undertaken for clients is postponed to their detriment. Similarly, an employer may seek, consciously or unconsciously, to further its own economic interests through the actions of the lawyers employed by it. Since a lawyer must always be free to exercise his professional judgment without regard to the interests or motives of a third person, the lawyer who is employed by one to represent another must constantly guard against erosion of his professional freedom.

EC 5-24 To assist a lawyer in preserving his professional independence, a number of courses are available to him. For example, a lawyer should not practice with or in the form of a professional legal corporation, even though the corporate form is permitted by law, if any director, officer, or stockholder of it is a nonlawyer. Although a lawyer may be employed by a business corporation with nonlawyers serving as directors or officers, and they necessarily have the right to make decisions of business policy, a lawyer must decline to accept direction of his professional judgment from any layman. Various types of legal aid offices are administered by boards of directors composed of lawyers and laymen. A lawyer should not accept employment from such an organization unless the board sets only broad policies and there is no interference in the relationship of the lawyer and the individual client he serves. Where a lawyer is employed by an organization, a written agreement that defines the relationship between him and the organization and provides for his independence is desirable since it may serve to prevent misunderstanding as to their respective roles. Although other innovations in the means of supplying legal counsel may develop, the responsibility of the lawyer to maintain his professional independence remains constant, and the legal profession must insure that changing circumstances do not result in loss of the professional independence of the lawyer.

CANON 6—A LAWYER SHOULD REPRESENT A CLIENT COMPETENTLY

DR 6-101 FAILING TO ACT COMPETENTLY

(A) A lawyer shall not:

(1) Handle a legal matter which he knows or should know that he is not competent to handle, without associating with him a lawyer who is competent to handle it.

(2) Handle a legal matter without preparation adequate in the circumstances.

(3) Neglect a legal matter entrusted to him.

DR 6-102 LIMITING LIABILITY TO CLIENT

(A) A lawyer shall not attempt to exonerate himself from or limit his liability to his client for his personal malpractice.

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 6-1 Because of his vital role in the legal process, a lawyer should act with competence and proper care in representing clients. He should strive to become and remain proficient in his practice and should accept employment only in matters which he is or intends to become competent to handle.

EC 6-2 A lawyer is aided in attaining and maintaining his competence by keeping abreast of current legal literature and developments, participating in continuing legal education programs, concentrating in particular areas of the law, and by utilizing other available means. He has the additional ethical obligation to assist in improving the legal profession, and he may do so by participating in bar activities intended to advance the quality and standards of members of the profession. Of particular importance is the careful training of his younger associates and the giving of sound guidance to all lawyers who consult him. In short, a lawyer should strive at all levels to aid the legal profession in advancing the highest possible standards of integrity and competence and to meet those standards himself.

EC 6-3 While the licensing of a lawyer is evidence that he has met the standards then prevailing for admission to the bar, a lawyer generally should not accept employment in any area of the law in which he is not qualified. However, he may accept such employment if in good faith he expects to become qualified through study and investigation, as long as such preparation would not result in unreasonable delay or expense to his client. Proper preparation and representation may require the association by the lawyer of professionals in other disciplines. A lawyer offered employment in a matter in which he is not and does not expect to become so qualified should either decline the employment or, with the consent of his client, accept the employment and associate a lawyer who is competent in the matter.

EC 6-4 Having undertaken representation, a lawyer should use proper care to safeguard the interests of his client. If a lawyer has accepted employment in a matter beyond his competence but in which he expected to become competent, he should diligently undertake the work and study necessary to qualify himself. In addition to being qualified to handle a particular matter, his obligation to his client requires him to prepare adequately for and give appropriate attention to his legal work.

EC 6-5 A lawyer should have pride in his professional endeavors. His obligation to act competently calls for higher motivation than that arising from fear of civil liability or disciplinary penalty.

EC 6-6 A lawyer should not seek, by contract or other means, to limit his individual liability to his client for his malpractice. A lawyer who handles the affairs of his client properly has no need to attempt to limit his liability for his professional activities and one who does not handle the affairs of his client properly should not be permitted to do so. A lawyer who is a stockholder in or is associated with a professional legal corporation may, however, limit his liability for malpractice of his associates in the corporation, but only to the extent permitted by law.

CANON 7—A LAWYER SHOULD REPRESENT A CLIENT ZEALOUSLY WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE LAW

DR 7-101 REPRESENTING A CLIENT ZEALOUSLY

(A) A lawyer shall not intentionally:

(1) Fail to seek the lawful objectives of his client through reasonably available means permitted by law and the disciplinary rules, except as provided by section (B). A lawyer does not violate this disciplinary rule, however, by acceding to reasonable requests of opposing counsel which do not prejudice the rights of his client, by being punctual in fulfilling all professional commitments, by avoiding offensive tactics, or by treating with courtesy and consideration all persons involved in the legal process.

(2) Fail to carry out a contract of employment entered into with a client for professional services, but he may withdraw as permitted under CPR DR 2-110, CPR DR 5-102, and CPR DR 5-105.

(3) Prejudice or damage his client during the course of the professional relationship, except as required under CPR DR 7-102(B).

(B) In his representation of a client, a lawyer may:

(1) Where permissible, exercise his professional judgment to waive or fail to assert a right or position of his client.

(2) Refuse to aid or participate in conduct that he believes to be unlawful, even though there is some support for an argument that the conduct is legal.

DR 7-102 REPRESENTING A CLIENT WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE LAW

(A) In his representation of a client, a lawyer shall not:

(1) File a suit, assert a position, conduct a defense, delay a trial, or take other action on behalf of his client when he knows or when it is obvious that such action would serve merely to harass or maliciously injure another.

(2) Knowingly advance a claim or defense that is unwarranted under existing law, except that he may advance such claim or defense if it can be supported by good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of existing law.

(3) Conceal or knowingly fail to disclose that which he is required by law to reveal.

(4) Knowingly use perjured testimony or false evidence.

(5) Knowingly make a false statement of law or fact.

(6) Participate in the creation or preservation of evidence when he knows or it is obvious that the evidence is false.

(7) Counsel or assist his client in conduct that the lawyer knows to be illegal or fraudulent.

(8) Knowingly engage in other illegal conduct or conduct contrary to a disciplinary rule.

(B) A lawyer who receives information clearly establishing that:

(1) His client has, in the course of the representation, perpetrated a fraud upon a person or tribunal, shall promptly call upon his client to rectify the same, and if his client refuses or is unable to do so, he shall reveal the fraud to the affected tribunal and may reveal the fraud to the affected person.

(2) A person other than his client has perpetrated a fraud upon a tribunal shall promptly reveal the fraud to the tribunal.

DR 7-103 PERFORMING THE DUTY OF PUBLIC PROSECUTOR OR OTHER GOVERNMENT LAWYER

(A) A public prosecutor or other government lawyer shall not institute or cause to be instituted criminal charges when he knows or it is obvious that the charges are not supported by probable cause.

(B) A public prosecutor or other government lawyer in criminal litigation shall make timely disclosure to counsel for the defendant, or to the defendant if he has no counsel, of the existence of evidence, known to the prosecutor or other government lawyer, that tends to negate the guilt of the accused, mitigate the degree of the offense, or reduce the punishment.

DR 7-104 COMMUNICATING WITH ONE OF ADVERSE INTEREST

(A) During the course of his representation of a client a lawyer shall not:

(1) Communicate or cause another to communicate on the subject of the representation with a party he knows to be represented by a lawyer in that matter unless he has the prior consent of the lawyer representing such other party or is authorized by law to do so.

(2) Give advice to a person who is not represented by a lawyer, other than the advice to secure counsel, if the interests of such person are or have a reasonable possibility of being in conflict with the interests of his client.

DR 7-105 THREATENING CRIMINAL PROSECUTION

(A) A lawyer shall not present, participate in presenting, or threaten to present criminal charges solely to obtain an advantage in a civil matter.

DR 7-106 TRIAL CONDUCT

(A) A lawyer shall not disregard or advise his client to disregard a standing rule of a tribunal or a ruling of a tribunal made in the course of a proceeding, but he may take appropriate steps in good faith to test the validity of such rule or ruling.

(B) In presenting a matter to a tribunal, a lawyer shall disclose:

(1) Legal authority in the controlling jurisdiction known to him to be directly adverse to the position of his client and which is not disclosed by opposing counsel.

(2) Unless privileged or irrelevant, the identities of the clients he represents and of the persons who employed him.

(C) In appearing in his professional capacity before a tribunal, a lawyer shall not:

(1) State or allude to any matter that he has no reasonable basis to believe is relevant to the case or that will not be supported by admissible evidence.

(2) Ask any question that he has no reasonable basis to believe is relevant to the case and that is intended to degrade a witness or other person.

(3) Assert his personal knowledge of the facts in issue, except when testifying as a witness.

(4) Assert his personal opinion as to the justness of a cause, as to the credibility of a witness, as to the culpability of a civil litigant, or as to the guilt or innocence of an accused; but he may argue, on his analysis of the evidence, for any position or conclusion with respect to the matters stated herein.

(5) Fail to comply with known local customs of courtesy or practice of the bar or a particular tribunal without giving to opposing counsel timely notice of his intent not to comply.

(6) Engage in undignified or discourteous conduct which is degrading to a tribunal.

(7) Intentionally or habitually violate any established rule of procedure or of evidence.

DR 7-107 TRIAL PUBLICITY

(A) A lawyer participating in or associated with the investigation of a criminal matter shall not make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that does more than state without elaboration:

(1) Information contained in a public record.

(2) That the investigation is in progress.

(3) The general scope of the investigation including a description of the offense and, if permitted by law, the identity of the victim.

(4) A request for assistance in apprehending a suspect or assistance in other matters and the information necessary thereto.

(5) A warning to the public of any dangers.

(B) A lawyer or law firm associated with the prosecution or defense of a criminal matter shall not, from the time of the filing of a complaint, information, or indictment, the issuance of an arrest warrant, or arrest until the commencement of the trial or disposition without trial, make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that relates to:

(1) The character, reputation, or prior criminal record (including arrests, indictments, or other charges of crime) of the accused.

(2) The possibility of a plea of guilty to the offense charged or to a lesser offense.

(3) The existence or contents of any confession, admission, or statement given by the accused or his refusal or failure to make a statement.

(4) The performance or results of any examinations or tests or the refusal or failure of the accused to submit to examinations or tests.

(5) The identity, testimony, or credibility of a prospective witness.

(6) Any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused, the evidence, or the merits of the case.

(C) Section (B) does not preclude a lawyer during such period from announcing:

(1) The name, age, residence, occupation, and family status of the accused.

(2) If the accused has not been apprehended, any information necessary to aid in his apprehension or to warn the public of any dangers he may present.

(3) A request for assistance in obtaining evidence.

(4) The identity of the victim of the crime.

(5) The fact, time, and place of arrest, resistance, pursuit, and use of weapons.

(6) The identity of investigating and arresting officers or agencies and the length of the investigation.

(7) At the time of seizure, a description of the physical evidence seized, other than a confession, admission, or statement.

(8) The nature, substance, or text of the charge.

(9) Quotations from or references to public records of the court in the case.

(10) The scheduling or result of any step in the judicial proceedings.

(11) That the accused denies the charges made against him.

(D) During the selection of a jury or the trial of a criminal matter, a lawyer or law firm associated with the prosecution or defense of a criminal matter shall not make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that relates to the trial, parties, or issues in the trial or other matters that are reasonably likely to interfere with a fair trial, except that he may quote from or refer without comment to public records of the court in the case.

(E) After the completion of a trial or disposition without trial of a criminal matter and prior to the imposition of sentence, a lawyer or law firm associated with the prosecution or defense shall not make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by public communication and that is reasonably likely to affect the imposition of sentence.

(F) The foregoing provisions of CPR DR 7-107 also apply to professional disciplinary proceedings and juvenile disciplinary proceedings when pertinent and consistent with other law applicable to such proceedings.

(G) A lawyer or law firm associated with a civil action shall not during its investigation or litigation make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement, other than a quotation from or reference to public records, that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that relates to:

(1) Evidence regarding the occurrence or transaction involved.

(2) The character, credibility, or criminal record of a party, witness, or prospective witness.

(3) The performance or results of any examinations or tests or the refusal or failure of a party to submit to such.

(4) His opinion as to the merits of the claims or defenses of a party, except as required by law or administrative rule.

(5) Any other matter reasonably likely to interfere with a fair trial of the action.

(H) During the pendency of an administrative proceeding, a lawyer or law firm associated therewith shall not make or participate in making a statement, other than a quotation from or reference to public records, that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication if it is made outside the official course of the proceeding and relates to:

(1) Evidence regarding the occurrence or transaction involved.

(2) The character, credibility, or criminal record of a party, witness, or prospective witness.

(3) Physical evidence or the performance or results of any examinations or tests or the refusal or failure of a party to submit to such.

(4) His opinion as to the merits of the claims, defenses, or positions of an interested person.

(5) Any other matter reasonably likely to interfere with a fair hearing.

(I) The foregoing provisions of CPR DR 7-107 do not preclude a lawyer from replying to charges of misconduct publicly made against him or from participating in the proceedings of legislative, administrative, or other investigative bodies.

(J) A lawyer shall exercise reasonable care to prevent his employees, associates and clients from making an extrajudicial statement that he would be prohibited from making under CPR DR 7-107.

DR 7-108 COMMUNICATION WITH OR INVESTIGATION OF JURORS

(A) Before the trial of a case a lawyer connected therewith shall not communicate with or cause another to communicate with anyone he knows to be a member of the venire from which the jury will be selected for the trial of the case.

(B) During the trial of a case:

(1) A lawyer connected therewith shall not communicate with or cause another to communicate with any member of the jury.

(2) A lawyer who is not connected therewith shall not communicate with or cause another to communicate with a juror concerning the case.

(C) Sections (A) and (B) do not prohibit a lawyer from necessary communication with veniremen or jurors solely in the course of official proceedings.

(D) After discharge of the jury from further consideration of a case with which the lawyer was connected, the lawyer shall not ask questions of or make comments to a member of that jury that are calculated merely to harass or embarrass the juror or to influence his actions in future jury service.

(E) A lawyer shall not conduct or cause, by financial support or otherwise, another to conduct a vexatious or harassing investigation of either a venireman or a juror.

(F) All restrictions imposed by CPR DR 7-108 upon a lawyer also apply to communications with or investigations of members of a family of a venireman or a juror.

(G) A lawyer shall reveal promptly to the court improper conduct by a venireman or a juror, or by another toward a venireman or a juror or a member of his family, of which the lawyer has knowledge.

DR 7-109 CONTACT WITH WITNESSES

(A) A lawyer shall not suppress any evidence that he or his client has a legal obligation to reveal or produce.

(B) A lawyer shall not advise or cause a person to secrete himself or to leave the jurisdiction of a tribunal for the purpose of making him unavailable as a witness therein.

(C) A lawyer shall not pay, offer to pay, or acquiesce in the payment of compensation to a witness contingent upon the content of his testimony or the outcome of the case. But a lawyer may advance, guarantee, or acquiesce in the payment of:

(1) Expenses reasonably incurred by a witness in attending or testifying.

(2) Reasonable compensation to a witness for his loss of time in attending or testifying.

(3) A reasonable fee for the professional services of an expert witness.

DR 7-110 CONTACT WITH OFFICIALS

(A) A lawyer shall not give or lend anything of value to a judge, official, or employee of a tribunal which might be reasonably construed as being for the purpose of influencing his official acts.

(B) In an adversary proceeding, a lawyer shall not communicate, or cause another to communicate, as to the merits of the cause with a judge or an official before whom the proceeding is pending, except:

(1) As required in the course of official proceedings in the cause.

(2) In writing if he promptly delivers a copy of the writing to opposing counsel or to the adverse party if he is not represented by a lawyer.

(3) Orally upon adequate notice to opposing counsel or to the adverse party if he is not represented by a lawyer.

(4) As otherwise authorized by law.

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 7-1 The duty of a lawyer, both to his client and to the legal system, is to represent his client zealously within the bounds of the law, which includes disciplinary rules and enforceable professional regulations. The professional responsibility of a lawyer derives from his membership in a profession which has the duty of assisting members of the public to secure and protect available legal rights and benefits. In our government of laws and not of men, each member of our society is entitled to have his conduct judged and regulated in accordance with the law; to seek any lawful objective through legally permissible means; and to present for adjudication any lawful claim, issue, or defense.

EC 7-2 The bounds of the law in a given case are often difficult to ascertain. The language of legislative enactments and judicial opinions may be uncertain as applied to varying factual situations. The limits and specific meaning of apparently relevant law may be made doubtful by changing or developing constitutional interpretations, inadequately expressed statutes or judicial opinions, and changing public and judicial attitudes. Certainty of law ranges from well settled rules through areas of conflicting authority to areas without precedent.

EC 7-3 Where the bounds of law are uncertain, the action of a lawyer may depend on whether he is serving as advocate or adviser. A lawyer may serve simultaneously as both advocate and adviser, but the two roles are essentially different. In asserting a position on behalf of his client, an advocate for the most part deals with past conduct and must take the facts as he finds them. By contrast, a lawyer serving as adviser primarily assists his client in determining the course of future conduct and relationships. While serving as advocate, a lawyer should resolve in favor of his client doubts as to the bounds of the law. In serving a client as adviser, a lawyer in appropriate circumstances should give his professional opinion as to what the ultimate decisions of the courts would likely be as to the applicable law.

Duty of the Lawyer to a Client

EC 7-4 The advocate may urge any permissible construction of the law favorable to his client, without regard to his professional opinion as to the likelihood that the construction will ultimately prevail. His conduct is within the bounds of the law, and therefore permissible, if the position taken is supported by the law or is supportable by a good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of the law. However, a lawyer is not justified in asserting a position in litigation that is frivolous.

EC 7-5 A lawyer as adviser furthers the interest of his client by giving his professional opinion as to what he believes would likely be the ultimate decision of the courts on the matter at hand and by informing his client of the practical effect of such decision. He may continue in the representation of his client even though his client has elected to pursue a course of conduct contrary to the advice of the lawyer so long as he does not thereby knowingly assist the client to engage in illegal conduct or to take a frivolous legal position. A lawyer should never encourage or aid his client to commit criminal acts or counsel his client on how to violate the law and avoid punishment therefor.

EC 7-6 Whether the proposed action of a lawyer is within the bounds of the law may be a perplexing question when his client is contemplating a course of conduct having legal consequences that vary according to the client's intent, motive, or desires at the time of the action. Often a lawyer is asked to assist his client in developing evidence relevant to the state of mind of the client at a particular time. He may properly assist his client in the development and preservation of evidence of existing motive, intent, or desire; obviously, he may not do anything furthering the creation or preservation of false evidence. In many cases a lawyer may not be certain as to the state of mind of his client, and in those situations he should resolve reasonable doubts in favor of his client.

EC 7-7 In certain areas of legal representation not affecting the merits of the cause or substantially prejudicing the rights of a client, a lawyer is entitled to make decisions on his own. But otherwise the authority to make decisions is exclusively that of the client and, if made within the framework of the law, such decisions are binding on his lawyer. As typical examples in civil cases, it is for the client to decide whether he will accept a settlement offer or whether he will waive his right to plead an affirmative defense. A defense lawyer in a criminal case has the duty to advise his client fully on whether a particular plea to a charge appears to be desirable and as to the prospects of success on appeal, but it is for the client to decide what plea should be entered and whether an appeal should be taken.

EC 7-8 A lawyer should exert his best efforts to insure that decisions of his client are made only after the client has been informed of relevant considerations. A lawyer ought to initiate this decisionmaking process if the client does not do so. Advice of a lawyer to his client need not be confined to purely legal considerations. A lawyer should advise his client of the possible effect of each legal alternative. A lawyer should bring to bear upon this decisionmaking process the fullness of his experience as well as his objective viewpoint. In assisting his client to reach a proper decision, it is often desirable for a lawyer to point out those factors which may lead to a decision that is morally just as well as legally permissible. He may emphasize the possibility of harsh consequences that might result from assertion of legally permissible positions. In the final analysis, however, the lawyer should always remember that the decision whether to forego legally available objectives or methods because of nonlegal factors is ultimately for the client and not for himself. In the event that the client in a nonadjudicatory matter insists upon a course of conduct that is contrary to the judgment and advice of the lawyer but not prohibited by disciplinary rules, the lawyer may withdraw from the employment.

EC 7-9 In the exercise of his professional judgment on those decisions which are for his determination in the handling of a legal matter, a lawyer should always act in a manner consistent with the best interests of his client. However, when an action in the best interest of his client seems to him to be unjust, he may ask his client for permission to forego such action.

EC 7-10 The duty of a lawyer to represent his client with zeal does not militate against his concurrent obligation to treat with consideration all persons involved in the legal process and to avoid the infliction of needless harm.

EC 7-11 The responsibilities of a lawyer may vary according to the intelligence, experience, mental condition or age of a client, the obligation of a public officer, or the nature of a particular proceeding. Examples include the representation of an illiterate or an incompetent, service as a public prosecutor or other government lawyer, and appearances before administrative and legislative bodies.

EC 7-12 Any mental or physical condition of a client that renders him incapable of making a considered judgment on his own behalf casts additional responsibilities upon his lawyer. Where an incompetent is acting through a guardian or other legal representative, a lawyer must look to such representative for those decisions which are normally the prerogative of the client to make. If a client under disability has no legal representative, his lawyer may be compelled in court proceedings to make decisions on behalf of the client. If the client is capable of understanding the matter in question or of contributing to the advancement of his interests, regardless of whether he is legally disqualified from performing certain acts, the lawyer should obtain from him all possible aid. If the disability of a client and the lack of a legal representative compel the lawyer to make decisions for his client, the lawyer should consider all circumstances then prevailing and act with care to safeguard and advance the interests of his client. But obviously a lawyer cannot perform any act or make any decision which the law requires his client to perform or make, either acting for himself if competent, or by a duly constituted representative if legally incompetent.

EC 7-13 The responsibility of a public prosecutor differs from that of the usual advocate; his duty is to seek justice, not merely to convict. This special duty exists because: (1) the prosecutor represents the sovereign and therefore should use restraint in the discretionary exercise of governmental powers, such as in the selection of cases to prosecute; (2) during trial the prosecutor is not only an advocate but he also may make decisions normally made by an individual client, and those affecting the public interest should be fair to all; and (3) in our system of criminal justice the accused is to be given the benefit of all reasonable doubts. With respect to evidence and witnesses, the prosecutor has responsibilities different from those of a lawyer in private practice; the prosecutor should make timely disclosure to the defense of available evidence, known to him, that tends to negate the guilt of the accused, mitigate the degree of the offense, or reduce the punishment. Further, a prosecutor should not intentionally avoid pursuit of evidence merely because he believes it will damage the prosecutor's case or aid the accused.

EC 7-14 A government lawyer who has discretionary power relative to litigation should refrain from instituting or continuing litigation that is obviously unfair. A government lawyer not having such discretionary power who believes there is lack of merit in a controversy submitted to him should so advise his superiors and recommend the avoidance of unfair litigation. A government lawyer in a civil action or administrative proceeding has the responsibility to seek justice and to develop a full and fair record, and he should not use his position or the economic power of the government to harass parties or to bring about unjust settlements or results.

EC 7-15 The nature and purpose of proceedings before administrative agencies vary widely. The proceedings may be legislative or quasi judicial, or a combination of both. They may be ex parte in character, in which event they may originate either at the instance of the agency or upon motion of an interested party. The scope of an inquiry may be purely investigative or it may be truly adversary looking toward the adjudication of specific rights of a party or of classes of parties. The foregoing are but examples of some of the types of proceedings conducted by administrative agencies. A lawyer appearing before an administrative agency, regardless of the nature of the proceeding it is conducting, has the continuing duty to advance the cause of his client within the bounds of the law. Where the applicable rules of the agency impose specific obligations upon a lawyer, it is his duty to comply therewith, unless the lawyer has a legitimate basis for challenging the validity thereof. In all appearances before administrative agencies, a lawyer should identify himself, his client if identity of his client is not privileged, and the representative nature of his appearance. It is not improper, however, for a lawyer to seek from an agency information available to the public without identifying his client.

EC 7-16 The primary business of a legislative body is to enact laws rather than to adjudicate controversies, although on occasion the activities of a legislative body may take on the characteristics of an adversary proceeding, particularly in investigative and impeachment matters. The role of a lawyer supporting or opposing proposed legislation normally is quite different from his role in representing a person under investigation or on trial by a legislative body. When a lawyer appears in connection with proposed legislation, he seeks to affect the lawmaking process, but when he appears on behalf of a client in investigatory or impeachment proceedings, he is concerned with the protection of the rights of his client. In either event, he should identify himself and his client, if identity of his client is not privileged, and should comply with applicable laws and legislative rules.

EC 7-17 The obligation of loyalty to his client applies only to a lawyer in the discharge of his professional duties and implies no obligation to adopt a personal viewpoint favorable to the interests or desires of his client. While a lawyer must act always with circumspection in order that his conduct will not adversely affect the rights of a client in a matter he is then handling, he may take positions on public issues and espouse legal reforms he favors without regard to the individual views of any client.

EC 7-18 The legal system in its broadest sense functions best when persons in need of legal advice or assistance are represented by their own counsel. For this reason a lawyer should not communicate on the subject matter of the representation of his client with a person he knows to be represented in the matter by a lawyer, unless pursuant to law or rule of court or unless he has the consent of the lawyer for that person. If one is not represented by counsel, a lawyer representing another may have to deal directly with the unrepresented person; in such an instance, a lawyer should not undertake to give advice to the person who is attempting to represent himself, except that he may advise him to obtain a lawyer.

Duty of the Lawyer to the Adversary System of Justice

EC 7-19 Our legal system provides for the adjudication of disputes governed by the rules of substantive, evidentiary, and procedural law. An adversary presentation counters the natural human tendency to judge too swiftly in terms of the familiar that which is not yet fully known; the advocate, by his zealous preparation and presentation of facts and law, enables the tribunal to come to the hearing with an open and neutral mind and to render impartial judgments. The duty of a lawyer to his client and his duty to the legal system are the same: to represent his client zealously within the bounds of the law.

EC 7-20 In order to function properly, our adjudicative process requires an informed, impartial tribunal capable of administering justice promptly and efficiently according to procedures that command public confidence and respect. Not only must there be competent, adverse presentation of evidence and issues, but a tribunal must be aided by rules appropriate to an effective and dignified process. The procedures under which tribunals operate in our adversary system have been prescribed largely by legislative enactments, court rules and decisions, and administrative rules. Through the years certain concepts of proper professional conduct have become rules of law applicable to the adversary adjudicative process. Many of these concepts are the basis for standards of professional conduct set forth in the disciplinary rules.

EC 7-21 The civil adjudicative process is primarily designed for the settlement of disputes between parties, while the criminal process is designed for the protection of society as a whole. Threatening to use, or using, the criminal process to coerce adjustment of private civil claims or controversies is a subversion of that process; further, the person against whom the criminal process is so misused may be deterred from asserting his legal rights and thus the usefulness of the civil process in settling private disputes is impaired. As in all cases of abuse of judicial process, the improper use of criminal process tends to diminish public confidence in our legal system.

EC 7-22 Respect for judicial rulings is essential to the proper administration of justice; however, a litigant or his lawyer may, in good faith and within the framework of the law, take steps to test the correctness of a ruling of a tribunal.

EC 7-23 The complexity of law often makes it difficult for a tribunal to be fully informed unless the pertinent law is presented by the lawyers in the cause. A tribunal that is fully informed on the applicable law is better able to make a fair and accurate determination of the matter before it. The adversary system contemplates that each lawyer will present and argue the existing law in the light most favorable to his client. Where a lawyer knows of legal authority in the controlling jurisdiction directly adverse to the position of his client, he should inform the tribunal of its existence unless his adversary has done so; but, having made such disclosure, he may challenge its soundness in whole or in part.

EC 7-24 In order to bring about just and informed decisions, evidentiary and procedural rules have been established by tribunals to permit the inclusion of relevant evidence and argument and the exclusion of all other considerations. The expression by a lawyer of his personal opinion as to the justness of a cause, as to the credibility of a witness, as to the culpability of a civil litigant, or as to the guilt or innocence of an accused is not a proper subject for argument to the trier of fact. It is improper as to factual matters because admissible evidence possessed by a lawyer should be presented only as sworn testimony. It is improper as to all other matters because, were the rule otherwise, the silence of a lawyer on a given occasion could be construed unfavorably to his client. However, a lawyer may argue, on his analysis of the evidence, for any position or conclusion with respect to any of the foregoing matters.

EC 7-25 Rules of evidence and procedure are designed to lead to just decisions and are part of the framework of the law. Thus while a lawyer may take steps in good faith and within the framework of the law to test the validity of rules, he is not justified in consciously violating such rules and he should be diligent in his efforts to guard against his unintentional violation of them. As examples, a lawyer should subscribe to or verify only those pleadings that he believes are in compliance with applicable law and rules; a lawyer should not make any prefatory statement before a tribunal in regard to the purported facts of the case on trial unless he believes that his statement will be supported by admissible evidence; a lawyer should not ask a witness a question solely for the purpose of harassing or embarrassing him; and a lawyer should not by subterfuge put before a jury matters which it cannot properly consider.

EC 7-26 The law and disciplinary rules prohibit the use of fraudulent, false, or perjured testimony or evidence. A lawyer who knowingly participates in introduction of such testimony or evidence is subject to discipline. A lawyer should, however, present any admissible evidence his client desires to have presented unless he knows, or from facts within his knowledge should know, that such testimony or evidence is false, fraudulent, or perjured.

EC 7-27 Because it interferes with the proper administration of justice, a lawyer should not suppress evidence that he or his client has a legal obligation to reveal or produce. In like manner, a lawyer should not advise or cause a person to secrete himself or to leave the jurisdiction of a tribunal for the purpose of making him unavailable as a witness therein.

EC 7-28 Witnesses should always testify truthfully and should be free from any financial inducements that might tempt them to do otherwise. A lawyer should not pay or agree to pay a nonexpert witness an amount in excess of reimbursement for expenses and financial loss incident to his being a witness; however, a lawyer may pay or agree to pay an expert witness a reasonable fee for his services as an expert. But in no event should a lawyer pay or agree to pay a contingent fee to any witness. A lawyer should exercise reasonable diligence to see that his client and lay associates conform to these standards.

EC 7-29 To safeguard the impartiality that is essential to the judicial process, veniremen and jurors should be protected against extraneous influences. When impartiality is present, public confidence in the judicial system is enhanced. There should be no extrajudicial communication with veniremen prior to trial or with jurors during trial by or on behalf of a lawyer connected with the case. Furthermore, a lawyer who is not connected with the case should not communicate with or cause another to communicate with a venireman or a juror about the case. After the trial, communication by a lawyer with jurors is permitted so long as he refrains from asking questions or making comments that tend to harass or embarrass the juror or to influence actions of the juror in future cases. Were a lawyer to be prohibited from communicating after trial with a juror, he could not ascertain if the verdict might be subject to legal challenge, in which event the invalidity of a verdict might go undetected. When an extrajudicial communication by a lawyer with a juror is permitted by law, it should be made considerately and with deference to the personal feelings of the juror.

EC 7-30 Vexatious or harassing investigations of veniremen or jurors seriously impair the effectiveness of our jury system. For this reason, a lawyer or anyone on his behalf who conducts an investigation of veniremen or jurors should act with circumspection and restraint.

EC 7-31 Communications with or investigations of members of families of veniremen or jurors by a lawyer or by anyone on his behalf are subject to the restrictions imposed upon the lawyer with respect to his communications with or investigations of veniremen and jurors.

EC 7-32 Because of his duty to aid in preserving the integrity of the jury system, a lawyer who learns of improper conduct by or towards a venireman, a juror, or a member of the family of either should make a prompt report to the court regarding such conduct.

EC 7-33 A goal of our legal system is that each party shall have his case, criminal or civil, adjudicated by an impartial tribunal. The attainment of this goal may be defeated by dissemination of news or comments which tend to influence judge or jury. Such news or comments may prevent prospective jurors from being impartial at the outset of the trial and may also interfere with the obligation of jurors to base their verdict solely upon the evidence admitted in the trial. The release by a lawyer of out-of-court statements regarding an anticipated or pending trial may improperly affect the impartiality of the tribunal. For these reasons, standards for permissible and prohibited conduct of a lawyer with respect to trial publicity have been established.

EC 7-34 The impartiality of a public servant in our legal system may be impaired by the receipt of gifts or loans. A lawyer, therefore, is never justified in making a gift or a loan to a judge, a hearing officer, or an official or employee of a tribunal which might reasonably be construed as being for the purpose of influencing his official actions.

EC 7-35 All litigants and lawyers should have access to tribunals on an equal basis. Generally, in adversary proceedings a lawyer should not communicate with a judge relative to a matter pending before, or which is to be brought before, a tribunal over which he presides in circumstances which might have the effect or give the appearance of granting undue advantage to one party. For example, a lawyer should not communicate with a tribunal by a writing unless a copy thereof is promptly delivered to opposing counsel or to the adverse party if he is not represented by a lawyer. Ordinarily an oral communication by a lawyer with a judge or hearing officer should be made only upon adequate notice to opposing counsel, or, if there is none, to the opposing party. A lawyer should not condone or lend himself to private importunities by another with a judge or hearing officer on behalf of himself or his client.

EC 7-36 Judicial hearings ought to be conducted through dignified and orderly procedures designed to protect the rights of all parties. Although a lawyer has the duty to represent his client zealously, he should not engage in any conduct that offends the dignity and decorum of proceedings. While maintaining his independence, a lawyer should be respectful, courteous, and above board in his relations with a judge or hearing officer before whom he appears. He should avoid undue solicitude for the comfort or convenience of judge or jury and should avoid any other conduct calculated to gain special consideration.

EC 7-37 In adversary proceedings, clients are litigants and though ill feeling may exist between clients, such ill feeling should not influence a lawyer in his conduct, attitude, and demeanor towards opposing lawyers. A lawyer should not make unfair or derogatory personal reference to opposing counsel. Haranguing and offensive tactics by lawyers interfere with the orderly administration of justice and have no proper place in our legal system.

EC 7-38 A lawyer should be courteous to opposing counsel and should accede to reasonable requests regarding court proceedings, settings, continuances, waiver of procedural formalities, and similar matters which do not prejudice the rights of his client. He should follow local customs of courtesy or practice, unless he gives timely notice to opposing counsel of his intention not to do so. A lawyer should be punctual in fulfilling all professional commitments.

EC 7-39 In the final analysis, proper functioning of the adversary system depends upon cooperation between lawyers and tribunals in utilizing procedures which will preserve the impartiality of tribunals and make their decisional processes prompt and just, without impinging upon the obligation of lawyers to represent their clients zealously within the framework of the law.

CANON 8—A LAWYER SHOULD ASSIST IN IMPROVING THE LEGAL SYSTEM

DR 8-101 ACTION AS A PUBLIC OFFICIAL

(A) A lawyer who holds public office shall not:

(1) Use his public position to obtain, or attempt to obtain, a special advantage in legislative matters for himself or for a client under circumstances where he knows or it is obvious that such action is not in the public interest.

(2) Use his public position to influence, or attempt to influence, a tribunal to act in favor of himself or of a client.

(3) Accept anything of value from any person when the lawyer knows or it is obvious that the offer is for the purpose of influencing his action as a public official.

DR 8-102 STATEMENTS CONCERNING JUDGES AND OTHER ADJUDICATORY OFFICERS

(A) A lawyer shall not knowingly make false statements of fact concerning the qualifications of a candidate for election or appointment to a judicial office.

(B) A lawyer shall not knowingly make false accusations against a judge or other adjudicatory officer.

DR 8-103 LAWYER CANDIDATE FOR JUDICIAL OFFICE

(A) A lawyer who is a candidate for judicial office shall comply with the applicable provisions of Canon 7 of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 8-1 Changes in human affairs and imperfections in human institutions make necessary constant efforts to maintain and improve our legal system. This system should function in a manner that commands public respect and fosters the use of legal remedies to achieve redress of grievances. By reason of education and experience, lawyers are especially qualified to recognize deficiencies in the legal system and to initiate corrective measures therein. Thus they should participate in proposing and supporting legislation and programs to improve the system, without regard to the general interests or desires of clients or former clients.

EC 8-2 Rules of law are deficient if they are not just, understandable, and responsive to the needs of society. If a lawyer believes that the existence or absence of a rule of law, substantive or procedural, causes or contributes to an unjust result, he should endeavor by lawful means to obtain appropriate changes in the law. He should encourage the simplification of laws and the repeal or amendment of laws that are outmoded. Likewise, legal procedures should be improved whenever experience indicates a change is needed.

EC 8-3 The fair administration of justice requires the availability of competent lawyers. Members of the public should be educated to recognize the existence of legal problems and the resultant need for legal services, and should be provided methods for intelligent selection of counsel. Those persons unable to pay for legal services should be provided needed services. Clients and lawyers should not be penalized by undue geographical restraints upon representation in legal matters, and the bar should address itself to improvements in licensing, reciprocity, and admission procedures consistent with the needs of modern commerce.

EC 8-4 Whenever a lawyer seeks legislative or administrative changes, he should identify the capacity in which he appears, whether on behalf of himself, a client, or the public. A lawyer may advocate such changes on behalf of a client even though he does not agree with them. But when a lawyer purports to act on behalf of the public, he should espouse only those changes which he conscientiously believes to be in the public interest.

EC 8-5 Fraudulent, deceptive, or otherwise illegal conduct by a participant in a proceeding before a tribunal or legislative body is inconsistent with fair administration of justice, and it should never be participated in or condoned by lawyers. Unless constrained by his obligation to preserve the confidences and secrets of his client, a lawyer should reveal to appropriate authorities any knowledge he may have of such improper conduct.

EC 8-6 Judges and administrative officials having adjudicatory powers ought to be persons of integrity, competence, and suitable temperament. Generally, lawyers are qualified, by personal observation or investigation, to evaluate the qualifications of persons seeking or being considered for such public offices, and for this reason they have a special responsibility to aid in the selection of only those who are qualified. It is the duty of lawyers to endeavor to prevent political considerations from outweighing judicial fitness in the selection of judges. Lawyers should protest earnestly against the appointment or election of those who are unsuited for the bench and should strive to have elected or appointed thereto only those who are willing to forego pursuits, whether of a business, political, or other nature, that may interfere with the free and fair consideration of questions presented for adjudication. Adjudicatory officials, not being wholly free to defend themselves, are entitled to receive the support of the bar against unjust criticism. While a lawyer as a citizen has a right to criticize such officials publicly, he should be certain of the merit of his complaint, use appropriate language, and avoid petty criticisms, for unrestrained and intemperate statements tend to lessen public confidence in our legal system. Criticisms motivated by reasons other than a desire to improve the legal system are not justified.

EC 8-7 Since lawyers are a vital part of the legal system, they should be persons of integrity, of professional skill, and of dedication to the improvement of the system. Thus a lawyer should aid in establishing, as well as enforcing, standards of conduct adequate to protect the public by insuring that those who practice law are qualified to do so.

EC 8-8 Lawyers often serve as legislators or as holders of other public offices. This is highly desirable, as lawyers are uniquely qualified to make significant contributions to the improvement of the legal system. A lawyer who is a public officer, whether full or part time, should not engage in activities in which his personal or professional interests are or foreseeably may be in conflict with his official duties.

EC 8-9 The advancement of our legal system is of vital importance in maintaining the rule of law and in facilitating orderly changes; therefore, lawyers should encourage, and should aid in making, needed changes and improvements.

CANON 9—A LAWYER SHOULD AVOID EVEN THE APPEARANCE OF PROFESSIONAL IMPROPRIETY

DR 9-101 AVOIDING EVEN THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY

(A) A lawyer shall not accept private employment in a matter upon the merits of which he has acted in a judicial capacity.

(B) A lawyer shall not accept private employment in a matter in which he had substantial responsibility while he was a public employee.

(C) A lawyer shall not state or imply that he is able to influence improperly or upon irrelevant grounds any tribunal, legislative body, or public official.

DR 9-102 PRESERVING IDENTITY OF FUNDS AND PROPERTY OF A CLIENT

(A) All funds of clients paid to a lawyer or law firm, other than advances for costs and expenses, shall be deposited in one or more identifiable bank accounts maintained in the state in which the law office is situated and no funds belonging to the lawyer or law firm shall be deposited therein except as follows:

(1) Funds reasonably sufficient to pay bank charges may be deposited therein.

(2) Funds belonging in part to a client and in part presently or potentially to the lawyer or law firm must be deposited therein, but the portion belonging to the lawyer or law firm may be withdrawn when due unless the right of the lawyer or law firm to receive it is disputed by the client, in which event the disputed portion shall not be withdrawn until the dispute is finally resolved.

(B) A lawyer shall:

(1) Promptly notify a client of the receipt of his funds, securities, or other properties.

(2) Identify and label securities and properties of a client promptly upon receipt and place them in a safe deposit box or other place of safekeeping as soon as practicable.

(3) Maintain complete records of all funds, securities, and other properties of a client coming into the possession of the lawyer and render appropriate accounts to his client regarding them.

(4) Promptly pay or deliver to the client as requested by a client the funds, securities, or other properties in the possession of the lawyer which the client is entitled to receive.

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 9-1 Continuation of the American concept that we are to be governed by rules of law requires that the people have faith that justice can be obtained through our legal system. A lawyer should promote public confidence in our system and in the legal profession.

EC 9-2 Public confidence in law and lawyers may be eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct of a lawyer. On occasion, ethical conduct of a lawyer may appear to laymen to be unethical. In order to avoid misunderstandings and hence to maintain confidence, a lawyer should fully and promptly inform his client of material developments in the matters being handled for the client. While a lawyer should guard against otherwise proper conduct that has a tendency to diminish public confidence in the legal system or in the legal profession, his duty to clients or to the public should never be subordinate merely because the full discharge of his obligation may be misunderstood or may tend to subject him or the legal profession to criticism. When explicit ethical guidance does not exist, a lawyer should determine his conduct by acting in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and efficiency of the legal system and the legal profession.

EC 9-3 After a lawyer leaves judicial office or other public employment, he should not accept employment in connection with any matter in which he had substantial responsibility prior to his leaving, since to accept employment would give the appearance of impropriety even if none exists.

EC 9-4 Because the very essence of the legal system is to provide procedures by which matters can be presented in an impartial manner so that they may be decided solely upon the merits, any statement or suggestion by a lawyer that he can or would attempt to circumvent those procedures is detrimental to the legal system and tends to undermine public confidence in it.

EC 9-5 Separation of the funds of a client from those of his lawyer not only serves to protect the client but also avoids even the appearance of impropriety, and therefore commingling of such funds should be avoided.

EC 9-6 Every lawyer owes a solemn duty to uphold the integrity and honor of his profession; to encourage respect for the law and for the courts and judges thereof; to observe the Code of Professional Responsibility; to act as a member of a learned profession, one dedicated to public service; to cooperate with his brother lawyers in supporting the organized bar through the devoting of his time, efforts, and financial support as his professional standing and ability reasonably permit; to conduct himself so as to reflect credit on the legal profession and to inspire the confidence, respect, and trust of his clients and of the public; and to strive to avoid not only professional impropriety but also the appearance of impropriety.

DEFINITIONS*

As used in the disciplinary rules of the Code of Professional Responsibility:

(1) "Differing interests" include every interest that will adversely affect either the judgment or the loyalty of a lawyer to a client, whether it be a conflicting, inconsistent, diverse, or other interest.

(2) "Law firm" includes a professional legal corporation.

(3) "Person" includes a corporation, an association, a trust, a partnership, and any other organization or legal entity.

(4) "Professional legal corporation" means a corporation, or an association treated as a corporation, authorized by law to practice law for profit.

(5) "State" includes the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and other federal territories and possessions.

(6) "Tribunal" includes all courts and all other adjudicatory bodies.

(7) "Qualified legal assistance organizations" means an office or organization of one of the four types listed in CPR DR 2-103(D)(1)-(4), inclusive, that meets all the requirements thereof.

*"Confidence" and "secret" are defined in CPR DR 4-101(A).

ADMISSION TO PRACTICE RULES (APR)

RULE 1

ADMISSION

Every person desiring to be admitted to the Bar of the State of Washington must pass a bar examination and satisfy all of the requirements of these rules applicable to the classification of applicant to which he belongs.

For the purpose of these rules, applicants for admission to practice in the state of Washington are classified either as "general applicants" or as "attorney applicants."

RULE 2

GENERAL APPLICANTS

(a) Definitions. A "general applicant" means either (1) a graduate of an approved law school who does not qualify as an attorney applicant under rule 3, or (2) a registered law clerk who has satisfactorily completed the course of study prescribed by these rules.

An "approved law school" means a law school approved by the Board of Governors. The Board of Governors shall keep a list of approved law schools on file with the State Bar Association and the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

(b) Qualifications. A general applicant, in order to be permitted to take the bar examination, must

(1) Present satisfactory proof of either (i) graduation from an approved law school, or (ii) satisfactory completion of the course of study prescribed for a registered law clerk by these rules;

(2) Be either (i) a citizen of the United States, or (ii) an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence in accordance with Federal Immigration and Naturalization Law (See 90 Wn.2d 827);

(3) Be of good moral character;

(4) Execute under oath and file with the State Bar Association within the time specified in section (c) of this rule 2, two copies of his application, one of which shall be in his own handwriting, in such form as may be required by the Board of Governors. Additional proof of any fact stated in the application may be required by the Board. In the event of the failure or refusal of an applicant to furnish any information or proof, or to answer any interrogatories of the Board pertinent to the pending application, the Board may deny the application. The form of application shall be provided by the Board, and the contents thereof shall be such as the Board may direct from time to time;

(5) Pay, upon the filing of the application, an examination and admission fee in the amount prescribed in section (c) of this rule 2 and also an investigation fee in the amount prescribed in section (c) of this rule 2. The investigation shall cover all phases of the applicant's qualifications for admission, as the Board may deem necessary. No refund of any examination and admission fee shall be made unless the request to withdraw the application is made at least 10 days in advance of the examination date. The investigation fee is not subject to refund.

(c) Time for Filing Applications and Fees Payable.

(1) A general applicant shall pay an examination and admission fee of $100.

(2) A general applicant who has not been admitted to the Bar anywhere in the world prior to the filing of his application, must file his application to take each bar examination not less than 30 days prior to the examination date, and pay an investigation fee of $100. In the case of late filing the Board of Governors may, for good cause, reduce the time requirement for filing the application to take the bar examination.

(3) A general applicant who has been admitted to the Bar anywhere in the world prior to the filing of his application, must file his application to take each bar examination:

(i) Ninety days prior to the examination date if he is applying to take the Washington State Bar examination for the first time, or

(ii) Thirty days in advance of the examination date in the case of a repeater. In the case of late filing the Board of Governors may, for good cause, reduce the time requirement for filing the application to take the bar examination. Said general applicant shall pay at the time of filing his application an investigation fee of $225.

(d) Law Clerks.

(1) Requisites. Every person who desires subsequently to qualify as a general applicant for admission to practice in the state of Washington, without having been graduated from an approved law school, shall register as a law clerk as hereinafter provided. He must be a bona fide resident of the state of Washington and shall present satisfactory proof that he has been granted a bachelor's degree (other than bachelor of laws) by a college or university offering such degree on the basis of a 4-year course of study.

(2) Registrations—Employment in Law Office—Application—Statement of Employer. Such applicant shall obtain regular and full-time employment as a law clerk in the office of a judge of a court of record or an attorney or firm of attorneys licensed to practice law in the state of Washington and engaged in the general practice of law. The person by whom he is employed, or if he be employed by a firm, the person under whose direction he is to study, must have been admitted to practice law in this state for at least 10 years at the time the application for registration is filed, and be otherwise eligible to act as tutor. Prior to the commencement of the study of law under this rule 2(d) the applicant shall file with the State Bar Association an application to register as a law clerk. Such application shall be made on a form to be provided by the State Bar Association and shall require answers to such interrogatories as the Board may determine from time to time to be relevant to a consideration of the application. Proof of any fact stated in the application may be required by the Board. If the applicant fails or refuses to furnish any information or proof or answer any interrogatory required by the application, or independently thereof by the Board, in a manner satisfactory to the Board, the application may be denied.

Accompanying the application there must be submitted a statement under oath of the person by whom such applicant is employed as a law clerk, or, if he is employed by a firm, of the person under whose direction he is to study, certifying to the fact of such employment, and that such person will act as tutor for the applicant and will faithfully instruct the applicant in the branches of the law prescribed by the course of study adopted by the Board of Governors. No person shall be eligible to act as tutor while disciplinary proceedings (following the service of a formal complaint) are pending against him, or if he has ever been censured, reprimanded, suspended or disbarred. If a registered law clerk finds it necessary to change his tutor during his period of study, a new application for registration as a law clerk shall be required and such credit given for study under his prior tutor as the Board may determine.

(3) Course of Study—How Pursued. A law clerk whose registration has been approved by the Board must pursue a course of study for 4 calendar years of at least 48 weeks each year, with a minimum each week of 30 hours of study (it being understood that the time actually spent in the performance of the duties of law clerk is to be considered as time spent in the study of law). The tutor must give personal direction regularly and frequently to the clerk, must examine him at least once a month on the work done in the previous month, and must certify monthly as to compliance with the requirements of subsections 3 and 4 of this rule 2(d).

The examinations shall be written and not oral, and shall be answered by the clerk without research or assistance during the examination. The monthly certificate of compliance submitted by the tutor shall be accompanied by the originals of all written examinations and answers thereto given during the period reported.

If the certificates, together with the required attachments, be not filed timely in the office of the State Bar Association, no credit shall be given for any period of such default.

If a registered law clerk does not furnish evidence of completion of his law studies hereunder within a period of 6 years after registration, the Board may cancel such registration.

(4) Course of Study—Subjects—Books. The course of study to be pursued by a registered law clerk shall cover subjects, and such textbooks, casebooks, and other material, as the Board of Governors may from time to time require.

(5) Advanced Standing—Special Students. A registered law clerk who has attended either an approved or a nonapproved law school may, in the discretion of the Board, receive credit for work done and obtain advanced standing. In no event will credit be given for fractional parts of semesters or terms, or for correspondence school work.

(6) Change of Rules—Effect. This latest (1964) revision of these rules shall not be retroactive as to a law clerk whose registration has been approved by the Board of Governors prior to the effective date of this revision. Each such person may complete his course of study in accordance with the rules in force at the time of his registration or enrollment and with the same effect as if said rules were still in force.

ATTORNEY APPLICANTS

(a) Definition. An "attorney applicant" means an attorney who (1) has been in the active full-time practice of law in a state or territory of the United States or a foreign country for a period of 5 years or more, or (2) has held a judicial position at least equal to a judge of the superior court of the State of Washington for a period of 5 years or more in a state or territory of the United States or a foreign country, or (3) has held a full-time teaching position in an approved law school for a period of 5 years or more.

(b) Qualifications. To qualify as an attorney applicant for admission to practice law in the state of Washington, a person must

(1) Satisfy the requirements of rule 2(b)(2);
 (2) Have been a bona fide resident of the state of Washington for a period beginning at least 180 days prior to the date of the examination;

(3) Be of good moral character;

(4) Execute under oath and file with the executive director of the State Bar Association (i) not less than 90 days prior to the examination date, if he is applying to take the Washington State Bar examination for the first time, or (ii) 30 days in advance of each examination date, in the case of a repeater, two copies of his application, one of which shall be in his own handwriting, in such form as may be required by the Board of Governors. Additional proof of any fact stated in the application may be required by the Board. In the event of the failure or refusal of an applicant to furnish any information or proof, or to answer any interrogatory of the Board pertinent to the pending application, the Board may deny the application. In the case of late filing, the Board may, for good cause, reduce the time requirement for filing the application to take the bar examination;

(5) Pay, upon the filing of each application, an examination and admission fee of $50 plus an investigation fee of $175. The investigation shall cover all phases of the applicant's qualifications for admission. No refund of any examination and admission fee shall be made unless the request to withdraw the application is made at least 10 days in advance of the examination date. The investigation fee is not subject to refund;

(6) Have been admitted to practice in another state, territory of the United States or foreign country, where the common law of England exists as a basis of its jurisprudence, and where the requirements for admission are substantially equivalent to those of this state. The applicant shall submit with his application a certificate from the clerk or other officer of the highest court of record of such state, territory of the United States or foreign country, in which he has previously been admitted, or from the clerk of the court of such state, territory of the United States or foreign country, by which attorneys are admitted, under the seal of the court, showing that the applicant has been admitted to, and is entitled to, practice in such state, territory of the United States or foreign country, and the date of his admission;

(7) Submit with his application satisfactory evidence that he has been actively and continuously engaged in the general private practice in such state, territory of the United States or foreign country, or has held a judicial position or full-time law-teaching position therein for a total period of at least 5 years. Admission to practice and such continuous practice or the holding of a judicial position or full-time law-teaching position in two or more states, territories of the United States or foreign countries for a total period of at least 5 years, shall be equivalent to such admission and practice in one state. The application of such applicant shall not be approved by the Board of Governors unless it shall be presented within a period of 3 years from the termination of the period during which the applicant was actually engaged in such practice or was holding such judicial position or full-time law-teaching position: Provided, however, the Board may in its discretion approve such application if a longer period has elapsed, upon a showing to the Board that the occupation of the applicant during such intervening period was of such character as to keep the applicant in close relationship to the practice of the law; and provided further that the aforesaid 3-year period shall not be deemed to include the time necessarily taken in diligent effort to secure citizenship;

(8) Submit with his application a certificate from the Chief Justice or other member of the court of the state in which he has previously been admitted to practice, under the seal of the court, certifying that the applicant is in good standing at the Bar of the court and is an honorable and worthy member of the profession, and if the applicant comes from a place where there is a local Bar Association, he shall also submit a recommendation from the president and secretary of such association. If either of these certificates cannot be procured on account of lack of acquaintance or lack of existence of a local Bar Association, then the applicant may present in lieu thereof a certificate of the judge of the highest court of record in the county or counties within which such applicant was so engaged in practice or was holding such judicial or teaching position, and recommendations from at least three members of the local bar of the county where he last practiced. If for sufficient reason the applicant cannot obtain any of the recommendations required, the Board of Governors may accept other satisfactory proof of his character and reputation. The certificates required by this subsection (8) of this rule 3(b) shall not be conclusive upon the Board on the question of the moral or ethical fitness of the applicant, but the Board shall in all cases have the right to make such further independent investigation as it may desire upon said questions. If, upon consideration of all the evidence in respect thereto, the Board is of the opinion that the applicant does not possess such moral and ethical qualifications, or such character and reputation as is consistent with the standards of the profession, the application shall be rejected;

(9) Present himself before the Board of Governors at such time and place as may be required, for oral examination as to his moral character and as to any other qualifications;

(10) After having satisfied the foregoing requirements, have passed the attorney's examination as prescribed in these rules, and complied with the provisions concerning enrollment and fees prescribed herein.

RULE 4 EXAMINATIONS

(a) General Applicant's Examination—How Conducted. The general applicant's examination shall be conducted by and under the direction of the Board of Governors, who shall, for the purpose of conducting such examination, appoint a committee of three or more active members of the State Bar, and this committee shall be known as the committee of law examiners. The examination shall consist of such questions as the committee may select on such subjects as may be listed by the committee and approved by the Board of Governors. The Board shall furnish to this committee such clerical or other assistance as in the discretion of the Board shall be deemed necessary. The State Bar Association shall certify to this committee, on or prior to the morning of the first day of each examination, the names of those whose applications for examinations have been approved by the Board of Governors. The committee of law examiners shall have charge of the conduct of such examination and shall, as soon as practicable, after the completion thereof, certify to the Board of Governors the grades of those who have taken the examination.

Examinations for admission to the Bar will be held on the third Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of January and July of each year, commencing at 9 a.m. or on such other dates and at such times as the Board of Governors may designate, at such location as the Board of Governors may designate.

(b) Attorney Applicant's Examination. Before being certified for admission, each attorney applicant must pass a written examination, which shall be conducted by the committee of law examiners and which shall be held on the third Monday of January and July of each year, commencing at 9 a.m. or on such other dates and at such times as the Board of Governors may designate, at such location as the Board of Governors may designate.

The examination shall consist of such questions as the committee may select on general law and on Washington procedure and Washington substantive, constitutional, and statutory law. The State Bar Association shall certify to the committee, on or prior to the morning of the examination, the names of those whose applications for examination have been approved by the Board of Governors. As soon as practicable after the completion of the examination, the committee of law examiners shall certify to the Board of Governors the grades of those who have taken the attorney's examination.

(c) Examination—Failure. Any applicant failing to pass an examination which he or she takes may apply to take another examination, but after the third failure, no such applicant shall take any subsequent examination unless 11 months have elapsed since the date upon which the last preceding examination was taken.

RULE 5

CERTIFICATE OF RESULTS—ADMISSION OATH— PAYMENT OF MEMBERSHIP FEE

(a) Upon completion of the examination and the receipt of the certificate from the committee of law examiners, the Board of Governors shall cause each applicant to be notified of the result of the examination and shall recommend to the Supreme Court of the State of Washington the admission or rejection of each applicant who has passed the examination.

(b) There shall be no requirement that an applicant or member of the Bar Association be a resident or bona fide resident in the State of Washington. However, any applicant or active member who does not live or maintain an office in the State of Washington must file with the Bar Association the name and address of an agent within this state for the purpose of receiving service of process or any other document required or permitted by statute or court rule to be served or delivered to a resident lawyer. Service or delivery to such agent shall be deemed service upon or delivery to the lawyer.

(c) In all cases the oath of attorney must be taken within 1 year from the date of the examination except for good cause shown.

(d) The recommendation of the Board of Governors to the court shall be accompanied by the successful candidates' applications for examination and any other documents deemed pertinent by the Board. Such recommendation and all other documents and papers forwarded shall be kept by the Clerk of the Supreme Court in a separate file and such file shall not be a public record. The Supreme Court may thereupon examine the recommendation and accompanying papers and make such order in each case as it deems advisable. Upon the request of the court, the Board shall forward to the court the examination papers of, and all documents presented in connection with, any registration, whether for "clerkship" or "examination", and all papers in connection with the examination of such applicant.

(e) The Supreme Court shall enter an order admitting to practice those applicants it deems qualified, conditioned upon such applicants

(1) Taking, and filing with the Clerk of the Supreme Court, the oath of attorney as provided herein, and

(2) Paying to the Washington State Bar Association its membership fee for the current year.

Upon the entry of such order, the taking and filing of the oath, and payment of said annual membership fee, an applicant shall be enrolled as a member of the Bar and shall be entitled to practice law in the state of Washington.

(f) The oath of attorney must be taken before a court of record in the state of Washington sitting in open court, provided that in the event a successful applicant is outside the state of Washington and the Chief Justice is satisfied that it is impossible or impractical for him to take the oath below prescribed before a court of record of this state, the Chief Justice may, upon proper application setting forth all the circumstances, designate the person authorized by law to administer oaths, before whom the applicant may appear and take said oath.

(g) The oath which all applicants shall take is as follows:

OATH OF ATTORNEY

State of Washington, County of _____, ss.

I, _____, do solemnly swear:

1. I am fully subject to the laws of the State of Washington and the laws of the United States and will abide by the same.

2. I will support the constitution of the State of Washington and the constitution of the United States.

3. I will abide by the Code of Professional Responsibility approved by the Supreme Court of the State of Washington.

4. I will maintain the respect due to the courts of justice and judicial officers.

5. I will not counsel, or maintain any suit, or proceeding, which shall appear to me to be unjust, or any defense except as I believe it to be honestly debatable under the law, unless it is in defense of a person charged with a public offense. I will employ for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to me only those means consistent with truth and honor. I will never seek to mislead the judge or jury by any artifice or false statement.

6. I will maintain the confidence and preserve inviolate the secrets of my client, and will accept no compensation in connection with the business of my client unless this compensation is from or with the knowledge and approval of the client.

7. I will abstain from all offensive personalities, and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness unless required by the justice of the cause with which I am charged.

8. I will never reject, from any consideration personal to myself, the cause of the defenseless or oppressed, or delay unjustly the cause of any person.

So help me God.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19____.

RULE 6

SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS

The Board of Governors may refer any application for admission, examination, or registration as a law clerk to any existing committee of the State Bar Association or to a special committee thereof for the purpose of investigating and making recommendations on any matter connected with said application. Any applicant for admission, examination, or registration as a law clerk may be required to appear before the Board or any committee of the State Bar Association upon reasonable notice and submit to an examination touching any matter deemed by the Board of Governors relevant to a proper consideration of the pending application. Failure to appear before the Board or any committee as directed shall be sufficient reason for rejection of the application. The Board of Governors shall have the power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses or the production of books or documents in connection with any such investigation.

RULE 7

PRACTICE BY MEMBERS OF BAR FROM OTHER JURISDICTIONS PROHIBITED—EXCEPTION

(a) In General.

(1) No person shall appear as attorney or counsel in any of the courts of this state, unless he is an active member of the State Bar: Provided, that a member in good standing of the Bar of any other state who is a resident of and who maintains a practice in such other state may, with permission of the court, appear as counsel in the trial of an action or proceeding in association only with an active member of the State Bar, who shall be the attorney of record therein and responsible for the conduct thereof and shall be present at all court proceedings.

(2) Application to appear as such counsel shall be made to the court before whom the action or proceeding in which it is desired to appear as counsel is pending. The application shall be heard by the court after such notice to the adverse parties as the court shall direct; and an order granting or rejecting the application made, and if rejected, the court shall state the reasons therefor.

(3) No member of the State Bar shall lend his name for the purpose of, or in any way assist in, avoiding the effect of this rule.

(b) Indigent Representation.

(1) A member in good standing of the Bar of another state who is eligible to take the bar examination in this state (herein referred to as the applicant), while rendering service in either a Bar Association or governmentally sponsored legal services organization or in a public defender's office or similar program providing legal services to indigents and solely in that capacity, may, upon application and approval, practice law and appear as counsel before the courts of this state in any matter, litigation, or administrative proceeding, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(i) In any such matter, litigation, or administrative proceeding, an active member of the Washington State Bar Association must be associated with the applicant; shall be counsel of record in all litigation and administrative proceedings; and shall be the person responsible for the conduct of the matter, litigation, or administrative proceeding.

(ii) The applicant shall apply to sit for and shall take the first bar examination which is given more than 90 days after the date of his or her admission to practice under this rule. Failure to do so shall automatically revoke the applicant's right to practice under this rule.

(iii) If the applicant does not pass the bar examination, such applicant's right to practice under this rule shall terminate on the date that the bar examination results are published.

(iv) If the applicant passes the bar examination, he or she shall, at the earliest practicable date, apply for active membership in the Washington State Bar Association and shall become an active member therein at the first opportunity. Either the failure to apply or the failure to become an active member for any reason shall terminate the applicant's right to practice under this rule.

(v) The Supreme Court may terminate the applicant's right to practice under this rule at any time, with or without cause.

(vi) The applicant's right to practice under this rule shall, unless sooner terminated pursuant to the other provisions of this rule, terminate in any event 1 year after the original date of his or her admission to practice.

(2) Application to practice under this rule shall be made to the Supreme Court of the State of Washington, and the applicant shall be subject to the Discipline Rules for Attorneys and the Code of Professional Responsibility.

RULE 8

ADMISSIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES

Notwithstanding any provision of any other rule to the contrary, an attorney who has been regularly admitted to practice in another state or the District of Columbia and who is enrolled and in good standing as a post graduate student or faculty member in a program of an approved law school of this state involving clinical work in the courts or in the practice of law which has been approved by the Board of Governors for the purpose of this rule, may, upon application to the Washington State Bar Association, and upon payment of an investigation fee to be established by the Board of Governors, be admitted to the limited practice of law in this state for the period such applicant actively participates in said program and complies with the Code of Professional Responsibility. An applicant hereunder shall establish in the manner specified by the Board of Governors that the applicant:

(1) Satisfies the requirements of rule 2(b)(2);

(2) Is of good moral character;

(3) Is admitted to practice in another state or the District of Columbia, and is in good standing as an attorney of such Bar;

(4) Is enrolled and in good standing in such an approved program.

Upon approval of such application by the Board, the applicant shall take the oath of attorney and the Board shall recommend to the Supreme Court the admission of such applicant for the purposes herein stated; such oath, together with any other documents the Board deems pertinent, shall be sent to the Supreme Court which shall enter an appropriate order upon the limited admission of such applicant.

Practice of an applicant so admitted shall be limited to the clinical work of the particular approved course of study in which the applicant is enrolled; no charge shall be made for any services so rendered. When such applicant ceases to actively participate in such program the dean of the law school shall immediately notify the Washington State Bar Association and the clerk of the court so that the right of the applicant to practice may be terminated of record. An applicant admitted pursuant to this rule shall be considered an "active member" of the Washington State Bar Association for the purpose of serving as a supervising attorney for legal interns under rule 9, but shall be an active member for no other purpose.

RULE 9
LEGAL INTERNS

(a) Admission to Limited Practice as a Legal Intern. Notwithstanding any provision of any other rule to the contrary, qualified law students, registered law clerks and graduates of approved law schools, upon application and approval in accordance with the requirements set forth in section (b), may be admitted to the status of "legal intern" and may be granted a limited license to engage in the practice of law, as hereinafter provided and not otherwise.

(b) Application for Limited License as a Legal Intern—Qualifications—Procedure.

(1) Qualifications. The applicant when submitting an application must:

(i) be a student duly enrolled and in good academic standing at an approved law school with legal studies completed amounting to not less than two-thirds of a prescribed 3-year course of study or five-eighths of a prescribed 4-year course of study, and have the written approval of the applicant's law school dean or a person designated by such dean; or

(ii) be a registered law clerk in compliance with the provisions of rule 2(d) with not less than three-fourths of the prescribed 4-year course of study completed, and have the written approval of his or her tutor; or

(iii) make the application before the expiration of 9 months following graduation from an approved law school, and submit satisfactory evidence thereof to the Washington State Bar Association;

(iv) certify in writing under oath that he or she has read, is familiar with, and will abide by, the Code of Professional Responsibility as adopted by the Supreme Court, and this rule.

(2) Procedure.

(i) The applicant shall submit an application on a form provided by the Washington State Bar Association. Such application shall set forth all of the qualifications of the applicant required in this section. There shall be no fee for filing such application.

(ii) The application shall give the name of, and shall be signed by, the supervising attorney who, in doing so, shall assume the responsibilities of supervising attorney set forth in section (d) if the applicant is granted a limited license as a legal intern. The supervising attorney shall be relieved of such responsibilities upon the termination of such limited license or at such earlier time as the supervising attorney or the applicant shall give written notice to the Washington State Bar Association and the Supreme Court of the State of Washington requesting that the supervising attorney be so relieved. In the latter event another active member of the Bar may be substituted as such supervising attorney by giving written notice of such substitution, signed by the applicant and by such other active member, to the Washington State Bar Association and the Supreme Court of the State of Washington.

(iii) Upon receipt of the application, the Washington State Bar Association shall examine and evaluate such application and endorse thereon its approval or disapproval and forward the same to the Supreme Court of the State of Washington.

(iv) The Supreme Court of the State of Washington shall issue or refuse the issuance of a limited license of a legal intern. The court's decision shall be forwarded to the Washington State Bar Association, and the applicant shall be informed of the court's decision.

(c) Scope of Practice by Legal Intern Under the Limited License.

(1) A legal intern shall be authorized to engage in the limited practice of law, in civil and criminal matters, as authorized by the provisions of this rule. A legal intern shall be subject to the Code of Professional Responsibility and Discipline Rules for Attorneys as adopted by the Supreme Court and to all other laws and rules governing lawyers admitted to the Bar of this state, and shall be personally responsible for all services performed as an intern. Upon recommendation of the Disciplinary Board, a legal intern may be precluded from sitting for the bar examination or from being admitted as a member of the Washington State Bar Association within the discretion of the Board of Governors. Any such intern barred from the bar examination or from recommendation for admission by the Board of Governors shall have the usual rights of appeal to the State Supreme Court.

(2) A judge may exclude a legal intern from active participation in a case filed with the court in the interest of orderly administration of justice or for the protection of a litigant or witness, and shall thereupon grant a continuance to secure the attendance of the supervising attorney.

(3) No legal intern may receive payment from a client for his or her services; however, nothing contained herein shall prevent a legal intern from being paid for his or her services by the intern's employer or to prevent the employer from making such charges for the service of the legal intern as may otherwise be proper. A legal intern and his or her supervising attorney or an attorney from the same office shall, before the intern undertakes to perform any services for a client, inform the client of the legal intern's status as such.

(4) A legal intern may participate in superior court and Court of Appeals proceedings, including depositions, provided the supervising attorney or another attorney from the same office is present. Ex parte and agreed orders may be presented to the court by a legal intern without the presence of his or her supervising attorney or another attorney from the same office; provided further that an intern may represent the State in juvenile court in misdemeanor and gross misdemeanor cases without in-court supervision after a reasonable period of in-court supervision, which shall not be less than one trial.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in rule 9(c)(6), in courts of limited jurisdiction, a legal intern, only after participating with his or her supervising lawyer in at least one nonjury case, may try nonjury cases in such courts without the presence of a supervising lawyer; and only after participating with his or her supervising lawyer in at least one jury case, may try jury cases in such courts without the presence of a supervising lawyer.

(6) Either the supervising attorney or an attorney from the same office shall be present in the representation of a defendant in all preliminary criminal hearings.

(d) Supervising Attorneys—Qualifications, Responsibilities, and Duties.

(1) The supervising attorney shall be an active member of the Washington State Bar Association and shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law in the state of Washington or elsewhere for at least 3 years at the time the application is filed.

(2) The supervising attorney or another attorney from the same office shall direct, supervise, and review all of the work of the legal intern and both shall assume personal professional responsibility for any work undertaken by the legal intern while under his or her supervision. All pleadings, motions, briefs, and other documents prepared by the legal intern shall be reviewed by the supervising attorney or an attorney from the same office as the supervising attorney. When a legal intern signs any correspondence or legal document, the intern's signature shall be followed by the title "Legal Intern" and, if the document is prepared for presentation to a court or for filing with the clerk thereof, the document shall also be signed by the supervising attorney or an attorney from the same office as the supervising attorney. In any proceeding in which a legal intern appears before the court, the legal intern must advise the court of the intern's status and the name of the intern's supervising attorney.

(3) Supervision shall not require that the supervising attorney be present in the room while the legal intern is advising or negotiating on behalf of a person referred to the intern by the supervising attorney, or while the legal intern is preparing the necessary pleadings, motions, briefs, or other documents.

(4) No supervising attorney shall have supervision over more than 1 legal intern at any one time; however, in the case of: (a) recognized institutions of legal aid, legal assistance, public defender, and similar programs furnishing legal assistance to indigents, or legal departments of a state, county, or municipality, the supervising attorney may have supervision over 2 legal interns at one time, or (b) a clinical course offered by an accredited law school, approved by its dean and directed by a member of its faculty, and conducted within institutions or legal departments described in part (a) of this subsection or the law school, each full-time clinical supervising attorney may have supervision over 10 legal interns at one time provided a supervising attorney attends all adversarial proceedings conducted by the legal interns.

(5) No attorney shall be authorized to become a supervising attorney if the attorney is subject to pending disciplinary proceedings (following the service of a formal complaint) or if the attorney has ever been censored, reprimanded, suspended, or disbarred. No attorney without the express approval of the Board of Governors shall be authorized to become a supervising attorney if the attorney is or within the previous 12 months has been the subject of any complaint received by the Washington State Bar Association which has not been resolved in the attorney's favor.

(6) An attorney currently acting as a supervising attorney may be terminated as a supervising attorney at the discretion of the Board of Governors. When an intern's supervisor is so terminated, the intern shall cease performing any services under this rule and shall cease holding himself or herself out as a legal intern until written notice of a substitute supervising attorney, signed by the intern and by a new and qualified supervising attorney, is given to the Washington State Bar Association and to the Supreme Court of the State of Washington.

(7) The failure of a supervising attorney, or an attorney acting as a supervising attorney, to provide adequate supervision or to comply with the duties set forth in this rule shall be grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to the Discipline Rules for Attorneys.

(8) For purposes of the attorney-client privilege, an intern shall be considered a subordinate of the attorney providing supervision for the intern.

(9) For purposes of the provisions of this section which permit an attorney from the same office as the supervising attorney to sign documents or be present with a legal intern during court appearances, the attorney so acting must be one who meets all of the qualifications for becoming a supervising attorney under this rule.

(e) Term of Limited License.

(1) A limited license as a legal intern shall be valid, unless revoked, for a period of 24 consecutive months, provided that a person who fails the Washington State Bar examination shall not continue to serve or to be eligible to become a legal intern after the date the results of the said bar examination are made public, and provided further that a person shall not serve as a legal intern more than 12 months after graduation from law school.

(2) The approval given to a law student by his or her law school dean or the dean's designee or to a clerk by his or her tutor may be withdrawn at any time by mailing notice to that effect to the Clerk of the Supreme Court and to the Washington State Bar Association, and shall be withdrawn if the student ceases to be duly enrolled as a student prior to graduation or ceases to be in good academic standing or if the law clerk ceases to comply with rule 2(d).

(3) A limited license is granted at the sufferance of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington and may be revoked at any time upon the court's own motion, or upon the motion of the Board of Governors of the Washington State Bar Association, in either case with or without cause.

(4) An intern shall immediately cease performing any services under this rule and shall cease holding himself or herself out as a legal intern: upon termination for any reason of said intern's limited license under this rule; upon the resignation of the intern's supervising attorney; upon the suspension or termination by the Board of Governors of the Washington State Bar Association of the supervising attorney's status as supervising attorney; or upon the withdrawal of approval of the intern pursuant to subsection (e)(2).

(5) Any person applying for permission to take the Washington State Bar examination who has ever had his or her limited license revoked shall disclose that fact on his or her application and explain the reason for revocation, if known.

RULE 10

REVOCATION OF ORDER ADMITTING TO PRACTICE

The order admitting to practice an applicant under rule 2(b)(2)(ii) may be revoked by the Supreme Court, upon the recommendation of the Board of Governors, for failure of the applicant to proceed with due diligence in completing his naturalization process.

RULE 11

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

11.1

PURPOSE

It is of primary importance to the members of the Bar and to the public that attorneys continue their legal education throughout the period of their active practice of law. These rules will establish the minimum requirements for continuing legal education.

11.2

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENT

(a) Minimum Requirement. Each active member of the Bar Association shall complete a minimum of 15 credit hours of approved or accredited legal education (as provided in rule 11.4) during each calendar year after 1976. If a member completes more than 15 such hours in a given calendar year after 1976, the excess credit may be carried forward and applied to such member's education requirement for either or both of the next 2 succeeding calendar years. Such legal education completed between September 1, 1976, and December 31, 1976, shall be credited as though it had been completed in 1977.

(b) New Admission. An attorney shall not be required to comply with this rule during the calendar year in which he or she is admitted nor for the following full calendar year.

BOARD OF CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

There is hereby established a Board of Continuing Legal Education (referred to herein as the board) consisting of seven members. Six of the members of the board must be active members of the Washington State Bar Association (referred to herein as the Bar Association). The seventh member shall not be a member of the Bar Association. The Supreme Court shall designate a chairperson of the board, who shall serve at the pleasure of the court. The members of the board shall be nominated by the Bar Association and appointed by the Supreme Court. Of the members first appointed, two shall be appointed for 1 year, three for 2 years, and two for 3 years. Thereafter, appointments shall be for a 3-year term. No member may serve more than two consecutive terms. Terms shall end on September 30 of the applicable year, except that no term shall end prior to September 30, 1977.

POWERS OF THE BOARD

The board shall approve individual courses and may accredit all or portions of the entire legal educational program of a given organization which, in the board's judgment, will satisfy the education requirements of these rules. It shall determine the number of credit hours to be allowed for each such course. It shall discover and encourage the offering of such courses and programs by established organizations, whether offered within or outside of this state. The board may adopt regulations pertinent to these powers subject to the approval of the Bar Association and the Supreme Court. Individual compliance with the educational or time requirements of these rules may be waived or modified by the board upon a showing of undue hardship, age, or infirmity.

EXPENSES OF THE BOARD

Members of the board shall not be compensated for their services. For their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, they shall be reimbursed by the Bar Association in a manner consistent with the Association's reimbursement of its committee members. The Bar Association shall furnish the board with the necessary staff and clerical help to carry out its duties and shall pay all expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred by the board, pursuant to a budget for the board which the board shall submit annually to the Bar Association, subject to approval by the Association.

REPORTS AND ENFORCEMENT

(a) Compliance Report. On or before each January 31, commencing January 31, 1978, each active member shall file a report with the Bar Association in such form as the Bar Association shall prescribe concerning such member's completion of accredited legal education during the preceding calendar year. If such member has not completed the minimum education requirement for the preceding year, compliance may still be accomplished by making up the deficiency within the first 4 months of the next succeeding calendar year, filing a supplemental report with the Bar Association by May 1 of such year evidencing such compliance in such form as the Bar Association shall prescribe and by paying a special $50 filing fee therefor: Provided, however, that such special filing fee shall be increased by $100 for each consecutive year in which such member shall accomplish compliance with the minimum education requirement by making up any deficiency within the next succeeding year as provided above.

(b) Delinquency. Any member who has not so complied by May 1 of each year, commencing with May 1, 1978, may be removed (or conditionally removed) from the roll of active members of the Bar and transferred to inactive status pending such member's compliance with section (a) above. To effect such removal the board shall by written notice to the noncomplying member advise of the pendency of removal proceedings unless within 10 days of receipt of such notice such member shall complete and return to the board an accompanying form of petition which may be accompanied by affidavit(s) in support of request for extension of time for or exemption from compliance with section (a) above or for a ruling by the board of substantial compliance therewith.

(1) Unless such petition be so filed, the board shall report such fact to the Supreme Court with its recommendations for appropriate action. The Supreme Court shall enter such order or conditional order as it deems appropriate.

(2) If such petition be so filed, the board may, in its discretion, approve the same without hearing, or may enter into agreement on terms with such member as to time and requirements for achieving compliance with the provisions of section (a).

(3) If the board does not so approve such petition or enter into such agreement with terms, the board shall hold a hearing upon the petition and shall give the member at least 10 days' notice of the time and place thereof. Testimony taken at the hearing shall be under oath and the oath shall be administered by the chairperson of the board. For good cause shown the board may rule that the member has substantially complied with these rules for the year in question or, if he or she has not done so, it may grant the member an extension of time within which to comply and may do so upon terms as it may deem appropriate. As to each such application the board shall enter written findings of fact and an appropriate order, a copy of which shall be mailed forthwith to the member at the address on file with the Bar Association. Any such order shall be final unless within 10 days from the date thereof the member shall file with the Bar Association at its office a written appeal to the Board of Governors of the Bar Association.

(4) In its consideration of petitions for relief hereunder, the board shall consider factors of hardship such as age or disability, or of restricted practice.

(c) Appeal to Board of Governors. Any such appeal shall be considered by the Board of Governors at its next regular meeting (unless that meeting takes place less than 5 days following the perfection of the appeal, in which event it shall be the second meeting following thereafter). To perfect such appeal the member shall, at the member's expense, within 15 days of the filing of the notice of such appeal, cause to be transcribed and filed with the Bar Association a narrative report of proceedings in compliance with RAP 9.3. The Board chairperson shall certify that the narrative report of proceedings contains a fair and accurate report of the occurrences in and evidence introduced in the cause. Upon the filing of any such notice of appeal to the Board of Governors, the Bar Association shall prepare a transcript of all orders, findings, and other documents pertinent to the proceeding, which transcript shall be certified by the Board chairperson. The Board of Governors may require the member to submit his or her argument in writing and it may, but shall not be obligated to, permit the member or his or her counsel to appear in person before it. The Board of Governors may affirm, reverse, or modify the ruling of the Board of Continuing Legal Education as it deems appropriate. The decision of the Board of Governors shall be reduced to writing and a copy thereof shall be mailed forthwith to the member at the member's address. The decision of the Board of Governors shall be final, unless within 10 days from the date thereof, the member shall file with the Bar Association at its office a written notice of appeal to the Supreme Court.

(d) Appeal to the Supreme Court. To perfect such appeal to the Supreme Court, the member shall at the member's expense, if testimony was taken before the Board of Governors, cause to be transcribed and filed with the Bar Association as to proceedings before the Board of Governors, a narrative report of proceedings in compliance with RAP 9.3. The president of the Bar Association shall certify that any such narrative report of proceedings contains a fair and accurate report of the occurrences in and evidence introduced in the cause. The Bar Association shall prepare a transcript of all orders and other documents pertinent to the proceeding before the Board of Governors, which transcript shall be certified by the president of the Bar Association. The Bar Association shall then file promptly with the Clerk of the Supreme Court said narrative report of proceedings and the transcripts pertinent to the proceedings before the board and the Board of Governors. The matter shall be heard in the Supreme Court on the motion calendar and the provisions of RAP 17.4 and RAP 17.5 shall be applicable thereto.

(e) Time. The times set forth in this rule for filing notices of appeal are jurisdictional. The Board of Governors or the Supreme Court, as to appeals pending before each such body respectively, may, for good cause shown:

(1) Extend the time for the filing or certification of said statement of facts, or

(2) Dismiss the appeal for failure to prosecute the same diligently.

(f) Costs. If the member prevails in his or her appeal before the Board of Governors or in his or her appeal to the Supreme Court, the member shall be awarded costs against the Bar Association in an amount equal to his or her reasonable expenditures for the preparation of the statement or statements of facts.

(g) Change of Status. Once an attorney has been transferred to inactive membership status for noncompliance with these rules, the attorney affected must comply with the then-applicable regulations of the Board for transfer from inactive to active status.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The files and records of the Bar Association, as they may relate to or arise out of any failure of a member of the Association to satisfy these continuing legal education requirements, shall be deemed confidential and shall not be disclosed except in furtherance of its duties, or upon request of the attorney affected, or pursuant to a proper subpoena duces tecum, or as directed by this court.

RULE 12

LIMITED PRACTICE RULE FOR CLOSING OFFICERS

(a) Purpose. The purpose of this rule is to authorize certain lay persons to select, prepare and complete legal documents incident to the closing of real estate and personal property transactions and to prescribe the conditions of and limitations upon such activities.

(b) Limited Practice Board.

(1) Establishment. There is hereby established a Limited Practice Board (referred to herein as the "Board") consisting of nine members to be appointed by the Supreme Court of the State of Washington. Not less than four of the members of the Board must be admitted to the practice of law in the State of Washington. Four of the members of the Board shall be business representatives, one each of the following four industries: escrow, lending, title insurance, and real estate. Of the members first appointed, two shall be appointed for 1 year, three for 2 years, two for 3 years, and two for 4 years. Thereafter, appointments shall be for 4-year terms. No member may serve more than two consecutive terms. Terms shall end on December 31 of the applicable year, except that no term shall end prior to December 31, 1984. The Supreme Court shall designate one of the members of the Board as chairperson.

(2) Duties and Powers.

(i) Applications. The Board shall accept and process applications for certification under this rule.

(ii) Examination. The Board shall conduct the examination for certification required by this rule. The examination shall consist of such questions as the Board may select on such subjects as may be listed by the Board and approved by the Supreme Court. The Board shall establish the number of examinations to be given each year and the dates of the examinations.

(iii) Investigation and recommendation for admission. The Board shall notify each applicant of the results of the examination and shall recommend to the Supreme Court the admission or rejection of each applicant. The Supreme Court shall enter an order admitting to limited practice those applicants it deems qualified, conditioned upon each applicant taking an oath that he or she will comply with this rule and paying to the Board the annual fee for the current year. Upon the entry of such order, the taking and filing of the oath, and payment of the annual fee, an applicant shall be enrolled as a certified closing officer and shall be entitled to perform those services permitted by this rule. The oath must be taken before a court of record in the State of Washington.

(iv) Education. The Board shall approve individual courses and may accredit all or portions of the entire educational program of a given organization which, in the Board's judgment, will satisfy the educational requirement of these rules. It shall determine the number of credit hours to be allowed for each such course. It shall encourage the offering of such courses and programs by established organizations, whether offered within or outside this state.

(v) Grievances and discipline. The Board shall adopt hearing and appeal procedures and shall hear complaints of persons aggrieved by the failure of certified closing officers to comply with the requirements of this rule. Upon a finding by the Board that a certified closing officer has failed to comply in any material manner with the requirements of this rule, the Board shall take such action as may be appropriate to the degree of the violation, considering also the number of violations and the previous disciplinary record of the closing officer. Disciplinary action may include admonitions, letters of censure, reprimands, and recommendations to the Supreme Court for the suspension or revocation of the closing officer's certification.

(vi) Investigation. Upon the receipt of a complaint that a closing officer has violated the provisions of this rule and in other appropriate circumstances, the Board may investigate the conduct of the closing officer to determine whether the closing officer has violated the requirements, conditions or limitations imposed by this rule.

(vii) Approval of forms. The Board shall approve standard forms for use by closing officers in the performance of services authorized by this rule.

(viii) Fees. The Board shall establish and collect examination and annual fees in such amounts as are necessary to carry out the duties and responsibilities of the Board.

(ix) Regulations. The Board shall propose regulations to implement the provisions of this rule for adoption by the Supreme Court.

(x) Interim certification and approval of forms. The Board may adopt regulations permitting interim certification of closing officers and approval of forms pending adoption of final regulations and the initial certification of successful applicants pursuant to this rule, provided that this interim certification shall expire 1 year from the date of adoption of this rule.

(3) Expenses of the Board. Members of the Board shall not be compensated for their services. For their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, they shall be reimbursed by the Board in a manner consistent with its rules. The Board may contract with agencies or organizations to carry out its administrative functions. All such expenses shall be paid pursuant to a budget submitted to and approved by the Supreme Court on an annual basis. Funds accumulated from examination fees, annual fees, and other revenues shall be used to defray all expenses of the Board.

(c) Certification Requirements. An applicant for certification as a closing officer shall:

(1) Age. Be at least 18 years of age.

(2) Moral Character. Be of good moral character.

(3) Examination. Satisfy the examination requirements established by the Board.

(4) Oath. Execute under oath and file with the Board two copies of his or her application, one of which shall be in the applicant's own handwriting, in such form as may be required by the Board. Additional proof of any fact stated in the application may be required by the Board. In the event of the failure or refusal of an applicant to furnish any information or proof, or to answer any interrogatories of the Board pertinent to the pending application, the Board may deny the application. The form of the application shall be prescribed by the Board by regulation adopted pursuant to this rule.

(5) Examination Fee. Pay, upon the filing of an application, the examination fee.

(d) Scope of Practice Authorized by Limited Practice Rule. Notwithstanding any provision of any other rule to the contrary, a person certified as a closing officer under this rule may select, prepare and complete documents in a form previously approved by the Board for use in closing a loan, extension of credit, sale or other transfer of real or personal property. Such documents shall be limited to deeds, promissory notes, guaranties, deeds of trust, reconveyances, mortgages, satisfactions, security agreements, releases, Uniform Commercial Code documents, assignments, contracts, real estate excise tax affidavits, and bills of sale. Other documents may be from time to time approved by the Board with the concurrence of the Supreme Court.

(e) Conditions Under Which Certified Closing Officers May Prepare and Complete Documents. Certified closing officers may render services authorized by this rule only under the following conditions and with the following limitations:

(1) Agreement of the Parties. Prior to the performance of the services, all parties to the transaction shall have agreed in writing to the basic terms and conditions of the transaction.

(2) Disclosures to the Parties. The closing officer shall advise the parties of the limitations of the services rendered pursuant to this rule and shall further advise them in writing:

(i) that the closing officer is not acting as the advocate or representative of either of the parties;

(ii) that the documents prepared by the closing officer will affect the legal rights of the parties;

(iii) that the parties' interests in the documents may differ;

(iv) that the parties have a right to be represented by lawyers of their own selection; and

(v) that the closing officer cannot give legal advice as to the manner in which the documents affect the parties.

(f) Continuing Certification Requirements.

(1) Continuing Education. Each certified closing officer must complete a minimum number of credit hours of approved or accredited education, as prescribed by regulation of the Board, during each calendar year after the effective date of this rule in courses certified by the Board to be appropriate for study by closing officers providing services pursuant to this rule; provided, that the certified closing officer shall not be required to comply with this subsection during the calendar year in which he or she is initially certified.

(2) Financial Responsibility. Each certified closing officer or employer thereof shall show proof of ability to respond in damages resulting from his or her acts or omissions in the performance of services permitted by this rule. The proof of financial responsibility shall be in such form and in such amount as the Board may by regulation prescribe.

(3) Annual Fee. Each certified closing officer must pay the annual fee established by the Board.

(g) Existing Law Unchanged. This rule shall in no way expand, narrow or affect existing law in the following areas:

(1) The fiduciary relationship between a certified closing officer and his or her customers or clients;

(2) Conflicts of interest that may arise between the certified closing officer and a client or customer;

(3) The right to act as one's own attorney under the pro se exception to the unauthorized practice of law including but not limited to the right of a lender to prepare documents conveying or granting title to property in which it is taking a security interest;

(4) The lack of authority of a certified closing officer to give legal advice without being licensed to practice law;

(5) The standard of care which a certified closing officer must practice when carrying out the functions permitted by this rule.

TITLE 1

GROUNDS AND JURISDICTION

RULE 1.1

GROUNDS FOR DISCIPLINE

A lawyer may be subjected to the disciplinary sanctions or actions set forth in these rules for any of the following:

(a) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, or any unjustified act of assault or other act which reflects disregard for the rule of law, whether the same be committed in the course of his or her conduct as a lawyer, or otherwise, and whether the same constitutes a felony or misdemeanor or not; and if the act constitutes a felony or misdemeanor, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action, nor shall acquittal or dismissal thereof preclude the commencement of a disciplinary proceeding;

(b) Willful disobedience or violation of a court order directing him or her to do or cease doing an act which he or she ought in good faith to do or forbear;

(c) Violation of his or her oath or duties as a lawyer;

(d) Willfully purporting to act as a lawyer for any person without the authority of that person;

(e) Permitting his or her name to be used as a lawyer by another person who is not a lawyer authorized to practice law in the state of Washington;

(f) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact made in his or her application for admission to the bar or admission to the bar examination or reinstatement or in support thereof;

(g) Suspension, disbarment or other disciplinary sanction by competent authority in any state, federal or foreign jurisdiction;

(h) Practicing law with or in cooperation with a disbarred or suspended lawyer, or maintaining an office for the practice of law in a room or office occupied or used in whole or in part by a disbarred or suspended lawyer, or permitting a disbarred or suspended lawyer to use his or her name for the practice of law, or practicing law for or on behalf of a disbarred or suspended lawyer, or practicing law under any arrangement or understanding for division of fees or compensation of any kind with a disbarred or suspended lawyer;

(i) Violation of the Code of Professional Responsibility of the profession adopted by the Supreme Court of the State of Washington;

(j) Violation of duties imposed by these rules, including but not limited to violation of rule 2.8, failing to respond to inquiries or requests regarding matters under investigation; rule 4.5, failing to file an answer to a formal complaint; rule 4.6(c), failing to file an answer to an amendment to a formal complaint; rule 4.7(e), failing to cooperate with discovery; rule 4.10(g), failing to attend a hearing or failing to bring materials requested by state bar counsel; rule 5.5(b), failing to appear to receive a reprimand; rule 8.1, failing to notify clients and others of inability to act; rule 8.2, failing to discontinue practice; rule 8.3, failing to file an affidavit of compliance; rule 11.1(l), wrongful disclosure; rule 13.2, failing to cooperate with an examination of books and records; rule 13.3, failing to file a declaration or questionnaire certifying compliance with CPR DR 9-102;

(k) Violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct;

(l) Engaging in the practice of law while on inactive status, or while suspended from the practice of law for any cause;

(m) Failure to meet conditions of probation imposed pursuant to rule 5.2, or conditions of a stipulation approved pursuant to rule 4.14;

(n) Willful failure to pay restitution where required pursuant to rule 5.3, or to pay costs where required pursuant to rule 2.8(b) or rule 5.7;

(o) Attempting to commit an act, or assisting another in committing or attempting to commit an act, which if completed would be prohibited by this rule;

(p) Conduct demonstrating unfitness to practice law.

JURISDICTION

A lawyer admitted to the practice of law in this state, and any lawyer specially admitted by a court of this state for a particular case, shall be subject to these Rules for Lawyer Discipline. Jurisdiction shall continue whether or not the lawyer retains the authority to practice law in this state, and regardless of the residence of the lawyer.

TITLE 2

STRUCTURE AND DUTIES

RULE 2.1

SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court of Washington has exclusive responsibility within the state for the administration of the lawyer discipline and disability system and has inherent power to maintain appropriate standards of professional conduct and to dispose of individual cases of lawyer discipline and disability. Persons carrying out the functions set forth in these rules are acting under the authority of the Supreme Court.

RULE 2.2

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

(a) Authority. The Board of Governors of the Association shall have the power and authority to:

(1) Supervise the general functioning of the Disciplinary Board, review committees, state bar counsel, bar staff and special district counsel;

(2) Make appointments, remove persons appointed, and fill vacancies as provided in these rules;

(3) Consider petitions for reinstatement after disbarment pursuant to Title 9;

(4) Perform such other functions and take such other actions as provided in these rules or as may be delegated to it by the Supreme Court or as may be necessary and proper to carry out its duties.

(b) Limitation of Authority. The Board of Governors shall have no right or responsibility to review decisions or recommendations of a hearing officer or panel or of the Disciplinary Board in specific cases except as provided in rule 7.3(c).

RULE 2.3
DISCIPLINARY BOARD

(a) Membership.

(1) Composition. The Board shall consist of not less than three nonlawyer members, appointed by the Supreme Court, and not less than one lawyer member from each congressional district, appointed by the Board of Governors.

(2) Qualifications. Lawyer members must have been active members of the Association for at least 7 years.

(3) Quorum. A majority of the Board members shall constitute a quorum. Given a quorum, the concurrence of a majority of those present shall constitute action of the Board.

(4) Disqualification. In the event a complaint is made to the Association alleging an act of misconduct by a lawyer member of the Board, such member shall take a leave of absence from the Board until the matter is resolved, unless otherwise directed by the Board of Governors. If a disciplinary sanction is imposed against the member, he or she shall be ineligible to serve further on the Board. The resulting vacancy shall be filled as set forth in section (d).

(5) Voting. Each member, whether nonlawyer or lawyer, shall have one vote.

(b) Terms of Office. The term of office for a member of the Board shall be 3 years. Newly created Board positions may be filled by appointments of less than 3 years, as designated by the court or the Board of Governors, to permit as equal a number of positions as possible to be filled each year. All terms of office begin October 1 and end September 30 or when a successor has been appointed, whichever occurs later. Members may not serve more than one term except as otherwise provided in these rules. Members heretofore appointed shall continue to serve until replaced.

(c) Chairperson. The Board of Governors shall annually designate one lawyer member of the Board to act as chairperson and another as vice-chairperson. The vice-chairperson shall serve in the absence of or at the request of the chairperson.

(d) Vacancies. Vacancies in lawyer membership on the Board and in the office of the chairperson and the vice-chairperson shall be filled by the Board of Governors. Vacancies in nonlawyer membership shall be filled by the Supreme Court. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall complete the unexpired term of the person he or she replaces, and if that unexpired term is less than 18 months he or she may be reappointed to a consecutive term.

(e) Pro Tempore Members. When a member of the Board is disqualified or unable to function on a case for good cause, the chairperson of the Board may, by written order, designate a member pro tempore to sit with the Board to hear and determine the cause. A member pro tempore may be appointed from among those persons who have previously served as members of the Disciplinary Board, or from among lawyers appointed as alternate Board members by the Board of Governors and nonlawyers appointed as alternate Board members by the Supreme Court. A lawyer shall be appointed to substitute for a lawyer member of the Board, and a nonlawyer to substitute for a nonlawyer member of the Board.

(f) Authority of Board. The Board shall have the power and authority to:

(1) Review each proceeding in which a recommendation of disbarment, suspension, or transfer to disability inactive status has been made by a hearing officer or panel;

(2) Review each proceeding in which a recommendation other than disbarment or suspension from the practice of law has been made by a hearing officer or panel, including a recommendation of dismissal, upon an appeal filed pursuant to rule 6.1(b);

(3) Review stipulations entered into pursuant to rule 4.14 when such stipulations provide for suspension or disbarment;

(4) Review any prehearing ruling of a hearing officer or panel, upon request for review by either the respondent lawyer or state bar counsel, where the chairperson of the Board determines that such review is necessary and appropriate and will serve the ends of justice;

(5) Review the decision of a review committee dismissing allegations of misconduct by a lawyer when such review is directed by the chairperson of the Board, and upon such review order a hearing on the alleged misconduct, dismiss the matter, issue an advisory letter, or order such further investigation as may appear appropriate;

(6) Perform such other functions and take such other actions as provided in these rules or as may be delegated to it by the Board of Governors or Supreme Court, or as may be necessary and proper to carry out its duties.

(g) Meetings. The Board shall hold meetings at such times and places as it may determine. Where the chairperson of the Board determines that prompt action is necessary for protection of the public, and that circumstances do not permit a full meeting of the Board, the Board may vote on a matter otherwise ready for review without meeting together, through telephone or written communication.

(h) Clerk. The Executive Director of the Association, under the direction of the Board of Governors, may appoint a suitable person or persons to act as clerk to the Board, to assist the Board and the review committees in carrying out their functions under these rules.

RULE 2.4

REVIEW COMMITTEES

(a) Membership. The chairperson of the Board shall appoint three or more review committees of three members each from among the members of the Board. Each review committee shall consist of two lawyers and one nonlawyer. The chairperson of the Board may reassign members among the several committees on an interim or permanent basis. The chairperson of the Board shall not serve on a review committee.

(b) Chairperson. The chairperson of the Board shall designate one member of each review committee to act as its chairperson.

(c) Terms of Office. A member of a review committee shall serve until his or her term of office on the Board expires.

(d) Authority of Review Committees. Each review committee shall have the power and authority to:

(1) Review reports on investigations of alleged acts of misconduct by a lawyer, and upon such review order a hearing on the alleged misconduct, dismiss the matter, issue an advisory letter, or direct such further investigation as may appear appropriate;

(2) Order that an investigation into an alleged act of misconduct by a lawyer be deferred when it appears that the allegations are substantially similar to those in pending civil or criminal litigation, or when the lawyer complained against is physically or mentally unable to respond to the investigation, or for other good cause, where it appears that such deferral will not endanger the public;

(3) Review reports on investigations into allegations that a lawyer is mentally or physically unable to conduct the practice of law, and upon such review order a hearing into the capacity of the lawyer to conduct the practice of law, dismiss the matter, or direct such further investigation as may appear appropriate;

(4) Reconsider complaints conditionally dismissed by state bar counsel, when the complainant has disputed the dismissal and the complaint has not been reopened, and upon such reconsideration affirm the dismissal, order a hearing on the alleged misconduct, issue an advisory letter, or direct such further investigation as may appear appropriate;

(5) Review stipulations entered into pursuant to rule 4.14, other than stipulations for suspension or disbarment, and approve or reject such stipulations;

(6) Make determinations of whether a crime is a "serious crime" under rule 3.1 and authorize proceedings for suspension of a lawyer upon finding of risk to the public pursuant to rule 3.2(a);

(7) Perform such other functions and take such other actions as provided in these rules or as may be delegated to it by the Disciplinary Board or the Board of Governors, or as may be necessary and proper to carry out its duties.

(e) Distribution of Cases. The clerk of the Board if one has been appointed, or state bar counsel, shall have the responsibility of transmitting matters to the several review committees under direction of the chairperson of the Board so as to equalize the case load of the committees to the extent possible.

(f) Meetings. Each review committee shall meet at such times and places as determined by the committee chairperson, under the general direction of the chairperson of the Board. A review committee may also conduct business and take action by conference call or through written communication without meeting together where the chairperson of the committee determines that prompt action is necessary.

RULE 2.5

HEARING OFFICER OR PANEL

(a) Eligibility. Hearing officers shall be assigned to cases from a list of lawyers maintained by the Board of Governors. The list shall include all lawyer members of the Disciplinary Board, and shall also include as many additional lawyers as the Board of Governors considers necessary to carry out the provisions of these rules effectively and efficiently.

(b) Qualifications. Appointment by the Board of Governors to the hearing officer list shall be made from among lawyers who have been active members of the Association for at least 7 years.

(c) Hearing Panel. When a hearing panel is assigned to hear a matter, the panel shall consist of three persons on the hearing officer list, or two such persons plus a nonlawyer. If the third member of a hearing panel is to be a nonlawyer, he or she shall be assigned from a list of suitable persons willing to serve in that capacity to be maintained by the Board of Governors. Such list may include the nonlawyer members of the Disciplinary Board, at the option of those members.

(d) Terms of Appointment. Appointment by the Board of Governors to the hearing officer list, or to the list of nonlawyers maintained pursuant to section (c), shall be for a period of 3 years. Eligibility of a member of the Disciplinary Board to serve as a hearing officer or panel member shall be concurrent with his or her term on the Board. Notwithstanding the provisions of this rule, a hearing officer or panel member shall have authority to act in any matter assigned to him or her prior to the expiration of his or her appointment or term.

(e) Duty. It shall be the duty of the hearing officer or panel to whom a case has been assigned for hearing to conduct the hearing as hereinafter provided.

RULE 2.6

STATE BAR COUNSEL

(a) Appointment. The Executive Director of the Association, under the direction of the Board of Governors, shall employ a suitable person or persons from among the members of the Association to act as counsel for the Association with respect to matters under these rules. Special state bar counsel may be appointed whenever necessary to conduct an individual investigation or proceeding.

(b) Duties. It shall be the duty of state bar counsel to:

(1) Take cognizance of any alleged or apparent act of misconduct by a lawyer, whether by complaint or otherwise, and investigate the same or assign the same for investigation to special district counsel;

(2) Assist in investigations conducted by special district counsel;

(3) Report results of investigations, except those conditionally dismissed, to a review committee;

(4) Conduct such additional investigation as a review committee may request;

(5) Act as counsel on behalf of the Association on all matters coming within these rules;

(6) Perform such other duties as shall be required by the Executive Director or the Board of Governors.

(c) Conditional Dismissals. State bar counsel shall have power conditionally to dismiss allegations of misconduct. A complainant may dispute such a conditional dismissal, in which case state bar counsel may either reopen the matter for investigation, or may refer the case to a review committee for reconsideration of the conditional dismissal.

(d) Discovery Prior to Formal Complaint. Where state bar counsel deems it advisable prior to the filing of a formal complaint to conduct the deposition of a lawyer being investigated or of a witness, or to issue requests for admission to a lawyer being investigated, he or she may do so.

(1) Procedure. Depositions pursuant to this rule shall be conducted in conformity with CR 30 or 31 to the extent possible. Requests for admission shall be governed by CR 36.

(2) Subpoenas for Depositions. A lawyer member of the Board or state bar counsel shall have the power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of the lawyer being investigated or of a witness, or the production of books, or documents, or other evidence, at the taking of a deposition. Subpoenas shall be served in the same manner as in civil cases in the superior court.

RULE 2.7

SPECIAL DISTRICT COUNSEL

(a) Appointment and Term of Office. The Board of Governors shall appoint one or more special district counsel in each congressional district of the state, from among the active members of the Association in good standing practicing in the district. The term of office for each special district counsel shall be 3 years. Special district counsel may be reappointed for consecutive terms.

(b) Duties. It shall be the duty of special district counsel to:

(1) Assist state bar counsel when requested in investigating allegations of misconduct by a lawyer, whether or not the lawyer resides or practices in the same congressional district;

(2) Forward to state bar counsel complaints alleging misconduct by a lawyer;

(3) Investigate at the request of a review committee any complaint of misconduct brought against state bar counsel and report the same directly to the review committee.

(c) Review by State Bar Counsel. Upon receiving a report of an investigation conducted by a special district counsel, state bar counsel may request additional investigation, may conduct any additional investigation as may appear necessary, and may take any action under rule 2.6 as appears appropriate.

RULE 2.8

RESPONDENT LAWYER

(a) Duty To Furnish Prompt Response. It is the duty of every lawyer promptly to respond to any inquiry or request made pursuant to these rules for information relevant to complaints, grievances or matters under investigation concerning conduct of a lawyer. Upon such inquiry or request, every lawyer:

(1) Shall furnish in writing, or orally if requested, a full and complete response to inquiries and questions;

(2) Shall permit inspection and copying of his or her business records, files and accounts;

(3) Shall furnish copies of requested records, files and accounts;

(4) Shall furnish written releases or authorizations where needed to obtain access to documents or information in the possession of third parties, including in the case of inquiries into the physical or mental capacity of a lawyer written releases or authorizations needed to obtain access to medical, psychiatric, psychological or other relevant records and opinions; and

(5) Shall comply with discovery conducted pursuant to rule 2.6.

(b) Failure To Cooperate. When a lawyer has failed to comply with any request made pursuant to section (a) for more than 30 days, state bar counsel may notify the lawyer that failure to so comply within 10 days may necessitate the taking of the deposition of the lawyer pursuant to subpoena.

(1) Any deposition conducted after the expiration of that 10-day period and necessitated by the continued failure to cooperate by the lawyer may be conducted at any place within the state of Washington.

(2) A lawyer whose failure to cooperate has resulted in a deposition being conducted pursuant to the preceding subsection shall be liable for the actual costs of conducting such deposition, including but not limited to service fees, court reporter fees, travel expenses and the cost of transcribing the deposition, if ordered by state bar counsel, regardless of the ultimate disposition of the underlying complaint. Upon application of state bar counsel to a review committee itemizing the costs and setting forth the reasons necessitating the deposition, and after giving the lawyer 10 days to respond, the review committee shall by order assess such costs as appear appropriate against the lawyer. Board review of an order assessing costs under this rule may be conducted in the same manner and under the same terms as review under rule 5.7(e).

(3) Failure of a lawyer to cooperate fully and promptly with an investigation as required by section (a) of this rule shall also constitute grounds for discipline.

(c) Privilege Against Self-Incrimination. The duty of a lawyer to cooperate during the course of an investigation shall be subject to the lawyer's proper exercise of his or her privilege against self-incrimination, where applicable.

(d) Attorney-Client Privilege. A lawyer may not assert the attorney-client privilege or other prohibitions on revealing client confidences or secrets as a ground for refusing to provide information during the course of an investigation, but any information obtained during an investigation which involves client confidences or secrets shall be kept confidential to the extent possible under these rules unless the client otherwise consents.

(e) Right to Representation. A lawyer may be represented by counsel during any stage of an investigation or proceeding under these rules.

RULE 2.9 COMPLAINANT

(a) Rights. Any person filing a complaint with the Association alleging an act of misconduct by a lawyer shall have the right to:

(1) Be advised promptly of the receipt of the complaint, and of the name, address and office phone number of the person assigned to its investigation if such an assignment is made;

(2) Request reconsideration by a review committee of a conditional dismissal of the complaint by state bar counsel or reconsideration by the Board of a dismissal of the complaint by a review committee when the chairperson of the Board so directs;

(3) Have a reasonable opportunity to speak with the investigator assigned to the complaint, by telephone or in person, concerning the substance of the complaint or its status;

(4) Receive a copy of any response submitted by the lawyer complained against, except when that response makes reference to confidences or secrets of a client of the lawyer to which the complainant is not privy, or contains information of a personal and private nature regarding the lawyer, or when a review committee determines that the interests of justice would better be served if the response is not released;

(5) Submit additional supplemental written information or documentation at any time;

(6) Attend and testify as a witness at any hearing conducted into the complaint, subject to the applicable rules of evidence and any protective order issued pursuant to rule 11.1(f);

(7) Be advised of the disposition of the complaint.

(b) Duties. A person filing a complaint shall have the duty to furnish the person assigned to its investigation with documentary evidence in his or her possession, and the names and addresses of witnesses; to assist in securing evidence in relation to the facts charged; and to appear and testify at any hearing resulting from the complaint. Failure to fulfill these duties may be grounds for dismissal of a complaint.

(c) Consent to Disclosure. The filing of a complaint shall constitute consent to disclose the content of the complaint to the lawyer or to any other person contacted during the investigation of the complaint, unless the complainant specifically withholds such consent. The filing of a complaint shall also constitute consent to disclosure by the lawyer complained against, or by any other lawyer contacted by the complainant, of any information relevant to the investigation of the complaint, unless the complainant specifically withholds such consent.

(d) Continuation of Complaint. Neither the unwillingness of a complainant to continue his or her complaint, nor withdrawal of the complaint, nor compromise between the complainant and the lawyer, nor restitution by the lawyer, shall in itself require dismissal of a complaint.

TITLE 3 SUSPENSION BEFORE FINAL DISPOSITION

RULE 3.1 SUSPENSION FOR CONVICTION OF A CRIME

(a) Court Clerk To Advise Association of Conviction. The clerk of any court of this state in which a lawyer is convicted of a crime shall advise the Association of the conviction, and shall provide the Association upon request with certified copies of any order or other document evidencing the conviction. "Conviction" for the purposes of this rule shall be considered to have occurred upon entry of a plea of guilty, unless the defendant affirmatively shows that the plea was not accepted or was withdrawn, or upon entry of a finding or verdict of guilty, unless the defendant affirmatively shows that judgment was arrested or a new trial granted.

(b) Determination of "Serious Crime." Upon being advised that a lawyer has been convicted of a crime, a review committee shall determine whether the crime constitutes a serious crime as defined by this rule, unless the crime is a felony. If the crime is a felony, or if a review committee determines by order that the crime constitutes a serious crime, state bar counsel shall petition the Supreme Court for an order suspending the lawyer during the pendency of disciplinary proceedings, and shall also proceed to file a formal complaint with regard to the conviction. The petition for suspension may be filed before the formal complaint. If the crime is not a felony and is determined not to be a serious crime, the review committee shall consider the report of the conviction in the same manner as any other report of possible misconduct by a lawyer.

(c) Petition. A petition to the Supreme Court for suspension of a lawyer under this rule shall include a copy of any available document establishing the fact of conviction. When the crime is not a felony, the petition shall also include a copy of the order of the review committee finding that the crime is a serious crime. The petition may also include additional facts, statements, arguments, affidavits, and documents in the discretion of state bar counsel. A copy of the petition shall be personally served upon the respondent lawyer, and proof of service filed with the court.

(d) Immediate Interim Suspension. Upon the filing of a petition for suspension pursuant to this rule, the court shall determine whether the crime constitutes a serious crime as defined herein. If the crime is a felony, the court shall enter an order immediately suspending the lawyer from the practice of law. If the crime is not a felony, a show cause proceeding shall be conducted as provided in rule 3.2(d)–(e) to determine whether the crime is a serious crime as defined herein. Suspension under this rule shall occur whether the conviction of the serious crime was under a law of this state or of any other state or was under federal law, and whether the conviction was after a plea of guilty, nolo contendere, not guilty, or otherwise, and regardless of the pendency of an appeal. Upon such suspension the lawyer shall comply with the notice provisions of rule 8.1(a). If the court determines that the crime is not a serious crime, the Association shall be advised and the matter shall be processed in the ordinary manner.

(e) Duration of Suspension. When a lawyer is suspended under this rule, the duration of such suspension shall not exceed final disposition of the disciplinary proceeding commenced against the lawyer. When the disciplinary proceeding is fully completed, after appeal or otherwise, the suspension occurring under this rule shall end.

(f) Termination of Suspension. The Board may, upon petition of the respondent lawyer, recommend to the Supreme Court the termination of a suspension under this rule at any time prior to the final disposition of the disciplinary proceedings. State bar counsel may file a response to the petition for termination of suspension and may be directed by the chairperson of the Board to conduct such investigation as appears appropriate. Oral argument before the Board on the petition shall be permitted upon the request of either the respondent lawyer or state bar counsel and shall be conducted at such time and place and under such terms as the chairperson of the Board shall direct. A recommendation for termination of suspension may be made only upon an affirmative finding of the Board that there is good cause for terminating the suspension. Upon receipt by the court of a recommendation for termination of suspension, it shall be reviewed under such proceedings as the court may direct. There shall be no right of appeal from a decision of the Board declining to recommend termination of a suspension under this rule.

(g) Notice of Dismissal to Supreme Court. When a petition for suspension has been filed under this rule, and the disciplinary proceedings based on the criminal conviction of the lawyer are dismissed, the Supreme Court shall be provided with a copy of the decision granting dismissal whether or not the lawyer is under suspension at the time of dismissal.

(h) Definition of "Serious Crime." "Serious crime" includes any felony and also includes any other crime a necessary element of which, as determined by the statutory or common law definition of such crime, involves interference with the administration of justice, false swearing, misrepresentation, fraud, deceit, bribery, extortion, misappropriation or theft; or an attempt, or a conspiracy, or solicitation of another, to commit a "serious crime".

RULE 3.2

SUSPENSION IN OTHER CIRCUMSTANCES

(a) Upon Finding of Risk to Public. At any time when it appears that a continuation of the practice of law by a respondent lawyer during the pendency of any proceeding under these rules, including proceedings under Title 10, will result in substantial harm, loss or damage to the public, the Association, on unanimous recommendation of a review committee, may petition the Supreme Court for an order suspending the respondent lawyer during the pendency of the proceedings.

(b) Upon Board Recommendation for Disbarment. When the Board enters a decision providing for disbarment of a lawyer, state bar counsel shall file a petition under this rule for suspension of the lawyer during the remainder of the proceedings. Suspension under this section shall occur unless a lawyer makes an affirmative showing that his or her continuation of the practice of law will not be detrimental to the integrity and standing of the bar and the administration of justice, or be contrary to the public interest. If the decision of the Board is not appealed and becomes final, such petition need not be filed, or if filed may be withdrawn.

(c) Petition. A petition to the Supreme Court under this rule shall set forth the acts of the respondent lawyer believed to constitute grounds for such suspension, and if filed pursuant to section (b) shall include a copy of the decision of the Board. The petition may be supported by documents or affidavits. A copy of the petition shall be personally served upon the respondent lawyer.

(d) Show Cause Order. Upon filing of the petition an order to show cause, signed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, shall be issued requiring the respondent lawyer to appear before the court on such date as the Chief Justice may set, and then and there show cause why the petition for suspension should not be granted. A copy of the order to show cause shall be personally served upon the respondent lawyer by the Association at least 5 days before the scheduled show cause hearing.

(e) Answer to Petition. The respondent lawyer may answer the petition. Any such answer may be supported by documents or affidavits. Failure to answer shall not result in default or waive the right to appear at the show cause hearing.

(f) Filing of Answer. A copy of any answer shall be filed with both the Supreme Court and the Association at least 3 days before the scheduled show cause hearing.

(g) Application of Other Rules. If the Supreme Court enters an order suspending the lawyer, the provisions of these rules relating to suspended attorneys, including Title 8, shall apply.

TITLE 4

HEARING PROCEDURES AND STIPULATIONS

RULE 4.1

APPLICATION OF CIVIL RULES

(a) General Conformance With Civil Rules. Proceedings pursuant to these rules shall be conducted in general conformance with the civil rules applicable to actions in the superior courts of the State of Washington. Those rules shall apply directly when indicated, and in all other cases shall serve as guidance.

(b) Meaning of Terms. In applying the civil rules to proceedings pursuant to these rules, terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Court" or "judge" as used in the civil rules shall mean the hearing officer or panel chairperson; the hearing panel; or the Board or Board chairperson, as appropriate;

(2) "Parties" as used in the civil rules shall mean the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel.

APPOINTMENT OF HEARING OFFICER OR PANEL

(a) Appointment. The chairperson of the Board shall appoint a hearing officer or panel to hear a matter ordered to hearing from among the persons eligible under rule 2.5, except that a member of the review committee which ordered the matter to hearing shall not be appointed on the case. When a panel is appointed the committee shall designate one lawyer member as chairperson. Any vacancy in the position of hearing officer or hearing panel member or chairperson may be filled by the chairperson of the Board.

(b) Disqualification. The respondent attorney may seek the disqualification of the hearing officer or any hearing panel member for cause.

(1) A request for disqualification of a hearing officer or panel member shall be filed in writing within 20 days of service upon the respondent lawyer of the name of the officer or panel member challenged. The request shall set forth in detail the reason for the request.

(2) The unchallenged member or members of the hearing panel, if any, shall rule on the request. In the event the challenge is against a hearing officer or against all members of the panel, or if the remaining members of the panel cannot agree, the chairperson of the Board shall rule on the requested disqualification.

(3) If a request for disqualification is granted, the chairperson of the Board shall fill the vacancy created. The respondent lawyer shall have the right to request the disqualification of any such appointee in the same manner as the original appointee.

(c) Authority. In addition to the powers specifically provided herein, the hearing officer or panel chairperson appointed to hear a matter may make any ruling which appears necessary and appropriate to insure a fair and orderly proceeding.

RULE 4.3

COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS

(a) Formal Complaint. Following a decision that a hearing should be held to determine whether a lawyer has committed an act of misconduct under rule 1.1, state bar counsel shall prepare a formal complaint and file it in the office of the Association. State bar counsel shall additionally send a copy of the formal complaint to the hearing officer or to each member of the hearing panel appointed to hear the matter, upon filing of the complaint or as soon thereafter as a hearing officer or panel is appointed.

(b) Content. The formal complaint shall set forth the acts or omissions of the respondent lawyer in sufficient detail to make the lawyer aware of the nature of the allegations of misconduct. It shall be signed by state bar counsel, but need not be verified.

(c) Prior Discipline. The record of prior disciplinary proceedings resulting in the imposition of sanctions against the respondent lawyer may be made a separate count of the formal complaint if the lawyer is being charged with conduct demonstrating unfitness to practice law.

(d) Joinder. The body ordering a hearing on alleged misconduct may in its discretion consolidate for hearing two or more charges as to the same lawyer, or may join the charges as to two or more lawyers in one formal complaint.

(e) Filing Commences Proceedings. A disciplinary proceeding shall be deemed commenced when the formal complaint is filed.

(f) Service. After the formal complaint is filed it shall be personally served on the respondent lawyer, together with a notice to answer.

RULE 4.4

NOTICE TO ANSWER

(a) Content. The notice to answer shall be substantially in the following form:

BEFORE THE DISCIPLINARY BOARD OF THE WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

In re _____ an Attorney at Law.	}	NOTICE TO ANSWER AND NOTICE OF HEARING OFFICER [OR PANEL]

To: The above named attorney at law:

You are notified that a formal complaint has been filed against you, a copy of which is served upon you with this notice. You are notified that you must file your answer to the complaint within 20 days of the date of service upon you, by filing the original and one copy of your answer at the office of the Washington State Bar Association, at the address given below, and by filing one copy [with the hearing officer] [with each member of the hearing panel] at the address[es] given below. Failure to file an answer may result in the imposition of a disciplinary sanction against you. Upon the filing of your answer, or in the case of your failure to answer within 20 days, further proceedings will be had in accordance with the Rules for Lawyer Discipline, and shall become public pursuant to rule 11.1.

You are further notified that the [hearing officer] [hearing panel] assigned to this proceeding is: [insert name, address and telephone number of hearing officer, or name, address and telephone number of each hearing panel member with an indication of the chairperson of the panel].

Dated this _____ day of _____, 19__.

WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

By _____ State Bar Counsel

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

(b) Notice When Hearing Officer or Panel Not Appointed. When at the time a formal complaint is filed no hearing officer or panel has been appointed to conduct the proceeding, the formal complaint and a notice to answer in the form prescribed in section (a), but omitting reference to the hearing officer or panel, shall be served on the respondent lawyer. In such case state bar counsel shall serve upon the lawyer a separate notice of hearing officer or panel promptly upon appointment of a hearing officer or panel, and no action shall be taken by state bar counsel in the proceeding except action permitted under Title 3 until such notice is given.

RULE 4.5

ANSWER

(a) Content. A respondent lawyer must file and serve an answer containing:

(1) A specific denial of each fact or claim asserted in the formal complaint in accordance with the provisions of CR 8(b);

(2) A statement of any matter or facts constituting a defense, affirmative defense or justification, in ordinary and concise language without repetition; and

(3) An address at which all further pleadings, notices and other documents in relation to the proceeding may be served upon the respondent lawyer.

(b) Filing and Service. The answer shall be filed and served pursuant to rules 12.1 and 12.2. When a hearing panel has been appointed to hear a matter each member shall be sent a copy of the answer.

(c) Time To Answer. The respondent lawyer shall have 20 days from the date of service of the formal complaint and notice to answer to file his or her answer. Failure to file an answer as required may constitute grounds for discipline.

AMENDMENT OF FORMAL COMPLAINT

(a) Right To Amend. State bar counsel shall have the right to amend a formal complaint at any time to set forth additional facts or to add new charges, where the additional facts or new charges relate to the matters set forth in the complaint to be amended or to the conduct of the lawyer with respect to the pending proceedings. A review committee need not authorize such amendment.

(b) Amendment With Authorization. A review committee may authorize an amendment of a formal complaint to add additional facts or new charges in other cases, or may require that the additional facts or charges be made the subject of a separate formal complaint. The chairperson of the Board, with the consent of the respondent lawyer, and after consultation with the hearing officer or panel chairperson on the previously filed matter, may consolidate hearing on such a separate formal complaint with hearing on the other pending formal complaint against the lawyer.

(c) Service and Answer. Service of an amendment to a formal complaint shall be made on the respondent lawyer as provided in rule 12.1(a). The respondent lawyer must file an answer to the amendment within 20 days of service, unless the time to answer is shortened upon motion of state bar counsel. The answer to an amendment shall be governed by rule 4.5, except that any part of a previous answer may be incorporated therein by reference. Failure to file an answer to an amendment may constitute grounds for discipline.

RULE 4.7

DISCOVERY

(a) Depositions. The taking of depositions pursuant to either CR 30 or 31 is permitted after the filing of a formal complaint under the following circumstances:

(1) Either state bar counsel or the respondent lawyer may take the deposition of a witness living outside the state or county in which the hearing is to be held or who is physically unable to attend the hearing.

(2) The hearing officer or panel chairperson shall have the power to authorize the taking of any other deposition, and to make such further orders relative thereto as will insure a fair and orderly hearing.

(3) Where depositions are to be taken outside of the state of Washington, a commission need not issue, but a copy of the order of the hearing officer or panel chairperson, certified by the officer or chairperson, shall be sufficient authority to authorize the taking of such depositions.

(4) Subpoenas for depositions may be issued pursuant to the provisions of CR 45.

(5) All depositions when taken and transcribed shall be filed in the office of the Association.

(b) Requests for Admission. After the filing of a formal complaint, the respondent lawyer and the Association may use requests for admission as set forth in CR 36. Under appropriate circumstances, in the exercise of his or her discretion, the hearing officer or panel chairperson may apply the sanctions set forth in CR 37(c) for improper denial of requests for admission.

(c) Other Discovery. After the filing of a formal complaint, the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel shall have the rights given to superior court civil litigants under CR 33, 34, and 35 only upon application and under such terms, and with such limitations, as the hearing officer or panel chairperson deems just.

(d) Limitations. In the exercise of his or her discretion, the hearing officer or panel chairperson shall impose such terms or limitations on the exercise of discovery as may appear necessary to prevent undue delay or expense in bringing the matter to hearing and to promote the interests of justice.

(e) Duty To Cooperate. It shall be the duty of the lawyer who has been served with a formal complaint to respond to discovery requests and to all lawful orders made by the hearing officer or panel chairperson pursuant to this rule. Failure to so respond may constitute grounds for discipline, and the hearing officer or panel may additionally draw such adverse inferences as appear warranted by the lawyer's failure to respond.

RULE 4.8

MOTIONS

(a) Filing and Service. Motions made by any party to the hearing officer or panel chairperson, except motions which may be made ex parte or motions made at hearing, shall be in writing and shall be filed and served as required by rules 12.1 and 12.2.

(b) Response. The opposing party shall be allowed 5 days from service of a motion on him or her to respond, unless the time is shortened by the hearing officer or panel chairperson for good cause. A request to shorten time for response to a motion may be made ex parte.

(c) Consideration of Motion. Upon expiration of the time for response, the hearing officer or panel chairperson shall promptly rule on the motion, with or without argument as may appear appropriate. Argument on a motion may be heard by conference telephone call.

(d) Ruling. A ruling on a written motion shall be in writing and filed with the Association.

(e) Minor Matters. Alternatively, motions on minor matters may be made in letter form to the hearing officer or panel chairperson, with a copy to the opposing party and to the Association for inclusion in the bar file. The provisions of sections (b) and (c) shall apply to such matters. A ruling on such motion may also be in letter form, directed to each party and with a copy to the Association for inclusion in the bar file.

RULE 4.9

PROCEEDING BASED ON CRIMINAL CONVICTION

When a formal complaint charges a lawyer with an act of misconduct for which the lawyer has been convicted in a criminal proceeding, the court record setting forth the conviction shall be conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the respondent lawyer of the crime for which he or she was convicted and of his or her violation of the statute upon which the conviction was based.

RULE 4.10

DISCIPLINARY HEARING

(a) Where Held. All disciplinary hearings shall be held in the state of Washington at a location designated by the hearing officer or panel chairperson, except that if the respondent lawyer is not a resident of the state, or cannot be found in the state, the hearing may be held outside of the state.

(b) Scheduling of Hearing. When possible, state bar counsel and the respondent lawyer should arrange a date, time, and place for the hearing by agreement among themselves and the hearing officer or panel members. Alternatively, at any time after the respondent lawyer has filed his or her answer to the formal complaint, or after the time to file such an answer has expired, either state bar counsel or the respondent lawyer may move the hearing officer or hearing panel chairperson for an order setting a date, time, and place for the hearing. Such a motion shall be made pursuant to rule 4.8 and shall set forth the requested date or dates for the hearing, other dates that are available to the requesting party, the expected length of time the hearing will take, the nature of matters including discovery which are pending or which must be completed prior to the hearing, and the requested time and place for the hearing. A response to such a motion shall contain the same information. The hearing officer or panel chairperson shall rule on the motion as provided in rule 4.8(c) and file a ruling as provided in rule 4.8(d).

(c) Motion for Hearing Within 120 Days. A request by a respondent lawyer, made by motion pursuant to section (b), for a hearing within 120 days shall be granted, unless state bar counsel shows good cause for setting the hearing at a later date.

(d) Notice. Service of a copy of an order or ruling of the hearing officer or panel chairperson setting a date, time, and place for the hearing shall constitute notice of the hearing. The respondent lawyer shall be given at least 10 days' notice of the hearing unless he or she otherwise consents.

(e) Continuance. Either the respondent lawyer or state bar counsel may by motion request a continuance of the hearing date. Such a motion may be granted in the discretion of the hearing officer or panel chairperson for good cause shown.

(f) Representation. The Association shall be represented at the hearing by state bar counsel. The respondent lawyer may be represented by counsel.

(g) Lawyer Must Attend. A respondent lawyer given notice of a hearing must attend the hearing. In addition, the lawyer must bring to the hearing such documents, files, records, or other written materials or things as state bar counsel may request in writing. The written request shall be served on the respondent lawyer at least 3 days before the scheduled hearing. Failure to attend the hearing or bring requested materials as herein provided, without good cause, may constitute grounds for discipline.

(b) Default. In no event shall a default be entered against a respondent lawyer, but:

(1) If the respondent lawyer fails to attend the hearing, after proper notice, regardless of whether an answer has been filed, the hearing officer or panel may draw an adverse inference from the failure to attend as to any questions which might have been asked the lawyer at the hearing and shall allow evidence and testimony to be submitted through affidavit and/or deposition regardless of the whereabouts of the person supplying the affidavit or testifying at the deposition.

(2) If the respondent lawyer fails to answer the formal complaint, but attends the hearing, the hearing officer or panel shall grant a request of state bar counsel to allow presentation of additional evidence at a later date, which request may be made before or after the available witnesses have testified and the available evidence has been submitted.

(i) Witnesses. Except as provided under section (h)(1), witnesses shall testify under oath. Testimony may also be submitted by deposition under the same terms as permitted by CR 32. Testimony shall be recorded by a court reporter or by tape recording if allowed by the hearing officer or panel chairperson.

(j) Subpoenas. Subpoenas for witnesses or for production of documents or things shall be available to both the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel pursuant to the terms of CR 45.

RULE 4.11

EVIDENCE AND BURDEN OF PROOF

(a) Proceedings Not Civil or Criminal. In resolving evidentiary and other procedural questions the hearing officer or panel chairperson should make rulings based upon the legal principle that disciplinary proceedings are neither civil nor criminal but are sui generis hearings intended to determine whether a lawyer's conduct should have an impact upon his or her license to practice law.

(b) Burden of Proof. State bar counsel shall have the burden of establishing an act of misconduct by a clear preponderance of the evidence.

(c) Rules of Evidence. Consistent with sections (a) and (b) of this rule the following rules of evidence shall apply during disciplinary hearings:

(1) The hearing officer or panel may admit and give probative effect to evidence which possesses probative value commonly accepted by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their affairs. The hearing officer or panel may exclude incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial, and unduly repetitious evidence.

(2) All evidence, including but not limited to records and documents in the possession of the Association of which it desires to avail itself, shall be offered and made a part of the record in the case and no other factual information or evidence shall be considered in the determination of the case. Documentary evidence may be received in the form of copies or excerpts or by incorporation by reference.

(3) The respondent and state bar counsel shall have the right of cross examination of witnesses who testify and shall have the right to submit rebuttal evidence.

(4) The hearing officer or panel may take notice of judicially cognizable facts and in addition may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within the hearing officer's or panel's specialized knowledge. The respondent and state bar counsel shall be notified either before or during hearing, or by reference in preliminary reports or otherwise, of the material so noticed and shall be afforded an opportunity to contest the facts so noticed.

RULE 4.12

PRIOR DISCIPLINARY RECORD

(a) Required Part of Record of Proceedings. If a lawyer has a record of prior discipline, the nature of that record, or the fact that the lawyer has had no prior discipline, must be made a part of the hearing record before the decision of the hearing officer or panel is filed.

(b) Bifurcated Proceedings. Upon written motion filed no later than 20 days prior to the scheduled hearing, either the respondent lawyer or state bar counsel may request that the disciplinary proceeding be bifurcated. The motion shall be granted when bifurcation appears necessary to insure a fair and orderly proceeding.

(1) A bifurcated proceeding shall begin with an initial factfinding hearing. During this stage of the proceedings evidence of a prior disciplinary record shall not be admissible to prove the character of the respondent lawyer or to impeach his or her credibility. Evidence of prior acts of misconduct may, however, be admissible for other purposes, such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake, or accident. At the conclusion of that hearing, the hearing officer or panel shall file findings and conclusions. If no misconduct is found, the proceedings are concluded and the findings and conclusions shall be the decision of the hearing officer or panel.

(2) After the filing of the findings and conclusions, if misconduct is found, a second proceeding shall be held to determine the appropriate recommendation. During the second proceeding evidence of the existence or lack of any prior disciplinary record shall be admissible. At the conclusion of the second proceeding, the hearing officer or panel shall file its recommendation. The recommendation together with the previously filed findings and conclusions shall be the decision of the hearing officer or panel.

DECISION OF HEARING OFFICER OR PANEL

(a) Proposed Findings. At the request of the hearing officer or panel chairperson, or without such request, either the respondent lawyer or state bar counsel may submit a proposed decision in the form of findings, conclusions, and recommendation to the hearing officer or to each member of the hearing panel.

(b) Filing. Within 20 days after the proceedings are concluded, unless extended by agreement, the hearing officer or panel chairperson should file a decision in the form of findings, conclusions, and recommendation in the office of the Association.

(c) Amendment. Within 5 days of service of the decision of the hearing officer or panel on the respondent lawyer, either the respondent lawyer or state bar counsel may file a motion to modify, amend, or correct the decision. When a hearing panel member dissents from a decision of the majority, the 5-day period shall not begin until the written dissent is filed or the period to file such a dissent has expired, whichever is sooner. Consideration of such a motion shall be governed by the provisions of rule 4.8, except that all members of a hearing panel shall be served with the motion and any response thereto, and shall participate in a decision on the motion. Deliberation by a panel may be conducted through telephone conference call. The hearing officer or panel shall rule on such a motion within 15 days after the filing of a timely response or after the period to file such a response under rule 4.8(b) has expired. The ruling may deny the motion or may allow such amendment, modification, or correction of the decision as may appear appropriate. Failure to move for a modification, correction, or amendment shall not affect any appeal to the Board or review by the Supreme Court.

(d) Dissent of Panel Member. Any member of a hearing panel who dissents from the decision of the majority of the panel shall file a dissent, which may consist of alternative findings, conclusions, or recommendation. A dissent should be filed within 10 days of the filing of the decision of the majority of the panel and shall become part of the record of the proceedings.

(e) Panel Members Unable To Agree. Where no two panel members are able to agree on a decision, each panel member shall file his or her own findings, conclusions, and recommendation, and the Board shall review the matter whether or not an appeal is filed.

(f) Decision Final. When the decision of a hearing officer or panel recommends reprimand or censure upon a finding of misconduct, or recommends dismissal of the charges against the respondent lawyer, the recommendation shall become the final decision in the case if neither the respondent lawyer nor state bar counsel files an appeal within the time permitted by rule 6.1.

RULE 4.14 STIPULATIONS

(a) Requirements. Any disciplinary matter or proceeding may be disposed of by a stipulation for discipline entered into at any time. The stipulation shall be signed by the respondent lawyer and approved by state bar counsel. The stipulation may contain the imposition of terms and conditions of probation and such other provisions as may appear appropriate.

(b) Form. A stipulation for discipline shall:

(1) Set forth the material facts relating to the particular acts or omissions of the respondent lawyer in such detail as to enable a review committee or the Board to form an opinion as to the propriety of the discipline being agreed upon, and, if approved, to make the stipulation useful in any subsequent disciplinary proceeding against the respondent lawyer;

(2) Set forth the respondent lawyer's prior disciplinary record or the absence of such record;

(3) State that the stipulation is not binding on the Association as a statement of all existing facts relating to the professional conduct of the respondent lawyer, but that any additional existing facts may be proven in any subsequent disciplinary proceeding; and

(4) Fix the amount of the costs and expenses to be paid by the lawyer.

(c) Approval. A stipulation providing for suspension or disbarment shall be filed with the Board. Any other stipulation shall be filed with a review committee. A stipulation may be presented to the Board or to a review committee without notice and shall be reviewed solely on the basis of the record as agreed upon by the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel. The Board or review committee may either approve a stipulation or reject it. Regardless of the provisions of rule 11.1(g), the Board or a review committee may direct that information or documents considered in reviewing a stipulation be kept confidential.

(d) Stipulation Not Approved. If a stipulation is not approved by a review committee or by the Board as herein provided, then the stipulation shall be of no force and effect and neither it nor the fact of its execution shall be admissible in evidence in the pending disciplinary proceeding, in any subsequent disciplinary proceeding, or in any civil or criminal action.

(e) Failure To Comply. Failure of a respondent lawyer to comply with the terms of a stipulation for discipline entered into and approved as provided in this rule may constitute grounds for discipline.

TITLE 5 SANCTIONS AND OTHER REMEDIES RULE 5.1 SANCTIONS

Upon a finding that a lawyer has committed an act of misconduct, one or more of the following sanctions may be imposed:

- (a) Disbarment;
- (b) Suspension from the practice of law for an appropriate fixed period of time not exceeding 2 years;
- (c) Reprimand;
- (d) Censure;
- (e) Cumulative disciplinary suspension pursuant to rule 5.4.

RULE 5.2 PROBATION

(a) Conditions of Probation. A lawyer who has been found to have committed an act of misconduct and who has been sanctioned pursuant to rule 5.1 may in addition be placed on probation for a fixed period not in excess of 2 years, under such conditions as may appear appropriate. Such conditions may include but are not limited to requiring alcohol or drug treatment, requiring medical care, requiring psychological or psychiatric care, requiring professional office practice or management counseling, and requiring periodic audits or reports. In any case where a lawyer is placed on probation pursuant to this rule, the chairperson of the Board may upon the request of state bar counsel appoint a suitable person to supervise the probation. Cooperation with a person so appointed shall be a condition of the probation.

(b) Failure To Comply. Failure to comply with a condition of probation may result in a disciplinary proceeding pursuant to rule 1.1(m), and any sanction to be imposed for violation of that provision shall take into account the act or acts of misconduct leading to the probation.

RULE 5.3 RESTITUTION

(a) Restitution May Be Required. A lawyer who has been found to have committed an act of misconduct and who has been sanctioned pursuant to rule 5.1 may in addition be ordered to make restitution to persons financially injured by the lawyer's conduct.

(b) Payment of Restitution. A lawyer ordered to make restitution shall do so within 30 days of the date upon which the decision requiring restitution becomes final, unless otherwise provided in that decision, or unless a periodic payment plan has been entered into with the approval of state bar counsel. State bar counsel shall have authority to enter into an agreement with a lawyer for a reasonable periodic payment plan upon the lawyer's affirmative written demonstration of present inability to meet the terms of a decision requiring restitution, and after consultation with the persons to whom restitution is to be made.

(c) Failure To Comply. Failure of a lawyer to make restitution when ordered to do so, or failure of a lawyer to comply with the terms of a periodic payment plan entered into by agreement between the lawyer and state bar counsel, may constitute grounds for discipline.

RULE 5.4 SUSPENSION FOR CUMULATIVE DISCIPLINE

(a) Grounds. A lawyer may be suspended from the practice of law for a fixed period of time not exceeding 2 years upon accumulation of:

- (1) Three or more censures and/or reprimands;
- (2) Any combination of a suspension or disbarment plus one or more censures or reprimands.

(b) Procedure. Suspension for cumulative discipline may be recommended by a hearing officer or panel or by the Board during the course of any disciplinary proceeding when a recommended sanction in that proceeding results in an accumulation of discipline equal to or exceeding that provided in section (a). Alternatively, a review committee may authorize the filing of a formal complaint based solely on the provisions of this rule. The issues in such a proceeding, which shall be conducted in the same manner as any disciplinary proceeding, shall be whether the respondent lawyer has accumulated a record of discipline which would subject him or her to the provisions of this rule and, if so, whether a suspension for cumulative discipline should be recommended.

RULE 5.5 ADMINISTRATION OF CENSURE AND REPRIMAND

(a) Censure. A censure shall be administered to a respondent lawyer by letter. The letter shall be prepared by state bar counsel and shall be signed by the president of the Association. If the respondent lawyer objects to the content of such letter, he or she may file a request for review of the content of the letter of censure with the Board. The Board shall review the letter of censure in light of the decision or stipulation imposing the censure and may take whatever action appears appropriate under the circumstances. The action of the Board shall be final and not subject to further review.

(b) Reprimand. A reprimand shall be administered personally to a respondent lawyer. The lawyer shall appear at a time and place directed by the Board of Governors to receive the reprimand. Notice shall be given at least 20 days before the scheduled appearance at which time a copy of the proposed reprimand shall be provided to the respondent lawyer. Within 5 days of receipt of the notice the lawyer may file a request for review of the content of the proposed reprimand with the Disciplinary Board. Such a request will stay the administration of the reprimand. The Disciplinary Board shall review the proposed reprimand in light of the decision or stipulation imposing the reprimand and may take whatever action appears appropriate under the circumstances. The action of the Board shall be final and not subject to further review. If no such request is received, the reprimand shall be administered at the time and place set. It shall be given privately, and the respondent lawyer shall not make any statement in support of or in opposition thereto or in mitigation thereof. A reprimand shall be deemed administered at the time it is scheduled whether or not the lawyer appears as required. Failure to so appear after proper notice may constitute grounds for discipline.

RULE 5.6 ADVISORY LETTER

An advisory letter may be issued when a hearing does not appear warranted but when it appears appropriate to caution a lawyer concerning his or her conduct. An advisory letter may be issued by a review committee, or by the Board when reviewing a matter under rule 2.3(f)(5), but shall not be issued when a complaint is dismissed following a hearing. An advisory letter shall not constitute a finding of misconduct and is not a disciplinary sanction.

RULE 5.7

COSTS AND EXPENSES

(a) Assessment. In all cases in which a sanction is imposed upon a lawyer following a hearing and a finding of misconduct, costs and expenses as herein defined may be assessed against the lawyer in favor of the Association.

(b) Costs Defined. The term "costs" for the purposes of this rule shall include all obligations in money reasonably and necessarily incurred by the Association in the complete performance of its duties under these rules, whether incurred before or after the filing of a formal complaint, except attorney's fees. Costs shall include, by way of illustration and not of limitation:

(1) Charges of court reporters in attending and transcribing depositions or hearings;

(2) Charges of process servers;

(3) Necessary travel expenses of hearing officers or hearing panel members, or of state bar counsel, or of witnesses;

(4) Charges of expert witnesses;

(5) Costs in conducting an examination of books and records or an audit pursuant to Title 13;

(6) Costs incurred in supervising probation imposed pursuant to rule 5.2;

(7) Telephone toll charges;

(8) Charges of a lawyer appointed pursuant to rule 10.2(d);

(9) Costs of copying materials for submission to a review committee, a hearing officer or panel, the Disciplinary Board, or the Board of Governors.

(c) Expenses Defined. "Expenses" for the purposes of this rule shall mean a reasonable charge for attorney's fees and administrative costs. Expenses assessed pursuant to this rule may equal the actual expenses incurred by the Association, but in any case the following amounts shall conclusively be presumed reasonable:

(1) For a matter which becomes final without review by the Board, $350.

(2) For a matter which becomes final following Board review, without appeal to the Supreme Court, a total of $450.

(3) For a matter appealed to the Supreme Court, a total of $750.

(d) Association To File Statement of Costs and Expenses. When the decision of a hearing officer or panel imposing a sanction becomes final without Board review, or when a decision of the Board imposing a sanction is served on the respondent lawyer after Board review, the Association shall have 10 days in which to file a statement of costs and expenses in the office of the Association.

(1) Content. A statement of costs and expenses shall state with particularity the nature and amount of the costs claimed and shall state the expenses requested. The statement shall be signed by state bar counsel, which signature shall constitute a certification that all reasonable attempts have been made to insure the accuracy of the statement.

(2) Exceptions. The respondent lawyer shall have 10 days from service of the statement of costs and expenses on him or her to file exceptions in the office of the Association.

(e) Assessment. The chairperson of the Board shall review the statement of costs and expenses and any exceptions thereto after the period for filing such exceptions has passed and the decision of the hearing officer or panel or of the Board and shall enter and file with the Association an order assessing costs and expenses. The order shall be served on the respondent lawyer.

(1) Request for Review by Board. Within 10 days of service on the respondent lawyer of the order assessing costs and expenses, the lawyer may file with the Association a request for Board review of the order. Upon the timely filing of such a request, the Board shall review the order assessing costs and expenses, based upon the statement of costs and expenses of the Association and the exceptions thereto, the decision of the hearing officer or panel or of the Board, and any written statement submitted by either party within such time as the chairperson of the Board may direct.

(2) Board Action. The Board may approve or modify the order assessing costs and expenses by order filed with the Association and served upon the respondent lawyer. The decision of the Board shall be final when filed and not subject to further review, except in cases reviewed by the Supreme Court pursuant to Title 7.

(f) Assessment in Matters Reviewed by the Supreme Court. When a matter is reviewed by the Supreme Court as provided in Title 7, any order assessing costs and expenses entered pursuant to section (e) and any statement of costs and expenses and exceptions thereto filed in the proceeding shall be made a part of the record transmitted to the court. Upon filing of an opinion by the court imposing a sanction, costs and expenses may be assessed in favor of the Association pursuant to the procedures of RAP Title 14, except that "costs" as used in that rule shall mean any costs and expenses allowable under this rule.

(g) Waiver. In all cases where costs and expenses are sought pursuant to this rule, assessment of any or all such costs and expenses may be denied where it appears in the interests of justice to do so.

(h) Payment of Costs and Expenses. A lawyer ordered to pay costs and expenses shall do so within 30 days of the date upon which the assessment becomes final, unless otherwise ordered at the time costs and expenses are assessed, or unless a periodic payment plan has been entered into with the approval of state bar counsel. State bar counsel shall have authority to enter into an agreement with a lawyer for a reasonable periodic payment plan upon the lawyer's affirmative written demonstration of present inability to meet the terms of an order or decision assessing costs and expenses.

(i) Failure To Comply. Failure of a lawyer to pay costs and expenses when ordered to do so or failure of a lawyer to comply with the terms of a periodic payment plan entered into by agreement between the lawyer and state bar counsel may constitute grounds for discipline.

(j) Costs in Other Cases. Costs in cases involving stipulations shall be governed by the provisions of rule 4.14. Assessment of costs in cases of transfer to disability inactive status shall be governed by the provisions of this rule, but payment of such costs shall not become due until 90 days after the lawyer is reinstated to active status.

TITLE 6

REVIEW BY BOARD

RULE 6.1

DECISIONS SUBJECT TO BOARD REVIEW

The decision of a hearing officer or panel shall be reviewed by the Board when:

(a) The recommendation is for the suspension or disbarment of the respondent lawyer; or

(b) The respondent lawyer or state bar counsel files a notice of appeal with the Association within 15 days of service of the decision on the respondent lawyer. When a motion to amend is filed as permitted by rule 4.13(c) the 15-day period shall not begin until the motion is decided. A notice of appeal shall specify the issues intended to be raised before the Board.

RULE 6.2

REVIEW OF SUSPENSION OR DISBARMENT RECOMMENDATION

(a) Statements in Support or Opposition. When a matter is before the Board for review of a recommendation of suspension or disbarment, the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel may each file a statement in support of or in opposition to the decision of the hearing officer or panel, or any part of that decision.

(b) Transcript Required. When a hearing officer or panel has entered a recommendation for suspension or disbarment, a transcript of the hearing shall be prepared, served and settled as provided in rule 6.6.

(c) Time for Filing Statements. Statements shall be filed with the Association according to the following schedule:

(1) The respondent lawyer shall file his or her statement (i) within 20 days of service on the lawyer of a copy of the transcript of the hearing, whether or not the transcript has been settled, or (ii) within 20 days of the service on the lawyer of the decision of the hearing officer or panel when the transcript has previously been prepared and served on the respondent lawyer, whichever occurs later. When a motion to amend has been filed as permitted by rule 4.13(c), the 20-day period shall not begin until the motion is decided.

(2) State bar counsel shall file his or her statement within 15 days of service on state bar counsel of the statement of the respondent lawyer, or, if no statement is filed by the respondent lawyer, within 15 days of the expiration of the period for the respondent lawyer to file such a statement.

(3) The respondent lawyer may file a response to a statement of state bar counsel within 10 days of service of that statement upon the respondent lawyer.

RULE 6.3

APPEAL BY RESPONDENT LAWYER OR STATE BAR COUNSEL

(a) Transcript To Be Ordered. When Board review is being conducted pursuant to a notice of appeal filed under rule 6.1(b), state bar counsel shall cause a transcript of the hearing to be prepared and settled pursuant to rule 6.6, unless the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel agree that no transcript or only a partial transcript of the hearing is necessary for review.

(b) Statement in Opposition. The appealing party shall file with the Association a statement in opposition to the decision of the hearing officer or panel (1) within 20 days of service on the respondent lawyer of a copy of the transcript, whether or not the transcript has been settled; or (2) within 20 days of filing of the notice of appeal when the transcript has previously been prepared and served on the respondent lawyer or when the parties have agreed that no transcript is necessary for review, whichever occurs later. Failure to file such a statement within the required period shall constitute an abandonment of the appeal.

(c) Counterstatement. The opposing party shall have 15 days from service on him or her of the statement of the appealing party to file a counterstatement, in response to the issues raised on appeal.

(d) Response. The appealing party may file a response to the counterstatement of the opposing party within 10 days of service of the counterstatement on him or her.

(e) Procedure When Both Parties Appeal. When the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel both file notices of appeal pursuant to rule 6.1(b), the respondent lawyer shall be considered the appealing party and state bar counsel shall be considered the opposing party for purposes of this rule. In such case the counterstatement of state bar counsel may raise any issue for Board review, and the respondent lawyer shall have an additional 5 days to file the response permitted by section (d).

RULE 6.4

REFERENCE TO RECORD

Statements, counterstatements and responses filed pursuant to rules 6.2 and 6.3 shall make specific reference to the record where available, using the designations TR for transcript of hearing, EX for exhibits, and BF for bar file documents. Copies of any exhibits to which the parties refer in their statements may be appended to those statements.

RULE 6.5

REQUEST TO REOPEN PROCEEDINGS

(a) How Made. In making any statement, counterstatement or response as permitted in rules 6.2

and 6.3, the respondent lawyer or state bar counsel may request that the record be reopened to allow the submission of additional evidence, or that an additional hearing be held before the hearing officer or panel on the ground of newly discovered evidence. A request to reopen the record or to conduct an additional hearing shall be supported by affidavit describing in detail the additional evidence sought to be admitted, and the reason or reasons why the same was not presented at the hearing. Such request may be granted or denied in the discretion of the Board.

(b) No Additional Evidence. Except as allowed under section (a), evidence not presented to the hearing officer or panel shall not be presented to the Board by any party without the consent of the opposing party.

RULE 6.6

TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING

(a) Ordering Transcript. A transcript or partial transcript of the hearing may be ordered at any time by the hearing officer or panel, respondent lawyer, state bar counsel, or the Board. When prepared, the original of the transcript shall be filed in the office of the Association. State bar counsel shall cause a copy of the transcript to be served on the respondent lawyer except when the respondent has ordered the transcript.

(b) Proposed Corrections. Within 10 days of service of a copy of the transcript on the respondent lawyer, or within 10 days of the filing of the transcript in the office of the Association when the respondent lawyer has ordered the transcript, state bar counsel and the respondent lawyer may each file with the Association any proposed corrections to the transcript. Each party shall have 5 days after service of the proposed corrections of the opposing party on him or her to file objections to those proposed corrections.

(c) Settlement of Transcript. If either party files objections to any proposed correction as permitted under section (b), the hearing officer or panel chairperson shall, upon review of the proposed corrections and objections, enter an order settling the transcript. In all other cases the transcript shall be deemed settled, and any proposed corrections deemed incorporated therein, if at the expiration of the time to file proposed corrections none is filed, or if at the expiration of the time to file objections to proposed corrections none is filed.

DECISION OF BOARD

(a) Basis for Review. Review by the Board shall be based on the decision of the hearing officer or panel; any dissent of a hearing panel member; the statements and responses filed by the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel pursuant to rule 6.2 or 6.3; and the transcript or partial transcript of the hearing if one has been prepared. The Board may additionally review any other portion of the record of the matter including bar file documents and exhibits.

(b) Participation by Hearing Officer. A member of the Board who sat as hearing officer or as a member of a hearing panel on a matter shall not be present during the review of that matter by the Board.

(c) Oral Argument. Oral argument before the Board shall be permitted upon the request of either the respondent lawyer or state bar counsel. Such request shall be filed with the Association no later than the date on which the party requesting oral argument is permitted to file his or her final statement, counterstatement or response under rule 6.2 or rule 6.3. Oral argument shall be conducted at such time and place and under such terms as the chairperson of the Board shall direct.

(d) Action by Board. Upon review the Board may adopt, modify or reverse the findings, conclusions or recommendation of the hearing officer or panel. The Board may also reopen the record to allow the admission of additional evidence, or direct that an additional hearing be held with regard to any issue, on its own motion or upon request of either party.

(e) Decision. The action of the Board shall be set forth in a written order filed with the Association, a copy of which shall be served upon the respondent lawyer. If the Board amends, modifies, or reverses any finding, conclusion or recommendation of the hearing officer or panel, the order of the Board shall set forth the reasons for its decision. A member of the Board agreeing with the decision of the majority may file separate concurring reasons.

(f) Dissent. If any member of the Board dissents from the decision of a majority of the Board in a matter in which the majority of the Board recommends suspension or disbarment, he or she shall set forth in writing the reasons for that dissent. Written dissents may be filed in any other case. A copy of any dissent shall be served upon the respondent lawyer, and shall be part of the record.

(g) Decision Final Unless Appealed. A decision of the Board shall become final if neither a notice of appeal nor a petition for review is filed by the respondent lawyer or state bar counsel within the time permitted by Title 7. A decision of the Board shall also become final upon denial by the Supreme Court of a petition for discretionary review.

RULE 6.8

CHAIRPERSON MAY MODIFY REQUIREMENTS

Upon written motion filed with the Association by a respondent lawyer or state bar counsel, for good cause shown, the chairperson of the Board may modify the time periods set forth in Title 6, and make such other orders as may appear appropriate to assure fair and orderly Board review, provided, that the time period for filing a notice of appeal set forth in rule 6.1(b) may not be extended or altered.

TITLE 7

REVIEW BY SUPREME COURT

RULE 7.1

METHODS OF SEEKING REVIEW

(a) Two Methods for Seeking Review of Board Decisions. There are two methods for seeking review by the Supreme Court of decisions of the Board entered pursuant to rule 6.7(e): (1) Review as a matter of right, called "appeal"; and (2) Review by permission of the Supreme Court, called "discretionary review." Both "appeal" and "discretionary review" are called "review."

(b) Power of Court Not Affected. This rule shall not affect the power of the Supreme Court to exercise its inherent and exclusive jurisdiction over the lawyer discipline and disability system.

RULE 7.2

APPEAL

(a) Respondent Lawyer May Appeal Decision Imposing Suspension or Disbarment. The right to appeal a decision of the Board finding misconduct shall be available only to the respondent lawyer, and only in cases where the decision provides for suspension or disbarment.

(b) Notice of Appeal. In order to exercise a right to appeal, the respondent lawyer must file a notice of appeal with the Association within 15 days of service of the decision of the Board on the respondent lawyer.

RULE 7.3

DISCRETIONARY REVIEW

(a) Decisions Subject to Discretionary Review. Decisions of the Board entered pursuant to rule 6.7(e) which do not provide for suspension or disbarment are subject to review by the Supreme Court only through discretionary review. Discretionary review will be accepted only:

(1) If the decision of the Board is in conflict with a decision of the Supreme Court; or

(2) If a significant question of law is involved; or

(3) If there is no substantial evidence in the record to support a material finding of fact upon which the decision of the Board is based; or

(4) If the petition involves an issue of substantial public interest that should be determined by the Supreme Court.

(b) Respondent Lawyer May Petition. A respondent lawyer wishing to seek discretionary review by the Supreme Court of a decision of the Board must file a petition for review with the Supreme Court within 25 days of service of the decision of the Board upon the respondent lawyer.

(c) Board of Governors May Authorize Petition by State Bar Counsel. The Board of Governors may authorize state bar counsel to seek discretionary review by the Supreme Court of a decision of the Disciplinary Board. In order to seek such review, state bar counsel must file a notice of intention to seek discretionary review with the Association within 15 days of service of the decision of the Board upon the respondent lawyer. Within 45 days thereafter state bar counsel must file a petition for review with the Supreme Court, together with an order of the Board of Governors, signed by the president, authorizing such a petition. If the Board of Governors denies such authorization, the respondent lawyer shall be promptly notified.

(d) Content of Petition; Answer; Service; Decision. A petition for review should be substantially in the form prescribed by RAP 13.4(c) for petitions for review by the Supreme Court of decisions of the Court of Appeals, except that references in that rule to the Court of Appeals shall be considered references to the Board. The appendix to the petition or an appendix to an answer or reply may additionally contain any part of the record, including portions of the transcript or exhibits, to which the party refers in the petition, answer or reply. The provisions of RAP 13.4(d), (e), (f), (g) and (h) shall govern answers and replies to petitions for review and related matters including service and decision by the court. Any party filing a petition for review with the court shall give notice of that fact to the other party.

(e) Acceptance of Review. The Supreme Court accepts discretionary review of a decision of the Board by granting a petition for review. Upon acceptance of review, procedures in the Supreme Court for matters subject to appeal and for matters subject to discretionary review are the same.

RULE 7.4

APPLICABILITY OF RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE

The Rules of Appellate Procedure shall serve as guidance for review conducted pursuant to this rule, except that these rules shall control as to matters specifically dealt with herein.

RULE 7.5

RECORD TO SUPREME COURT

(a) Transmittal. Upon filing of a notice of appeal by the respondent attorney or upon acceptance of discretionary review by the Supreme Court, the record shall be transmitted to the Supreme Court by the clerk of the Board if one has been appointed, or by state bar counsel. Each party shall be provided with a list of the portions of the record so transmitted.

(b) Content. The record transmitted to the court shall consist of:

(1) Any notice of appeal filed by the respondent attorney, and any notice of intention to seek discretionary review filed by state bar counsel;

(2) The decision of the Board, including any dissents or concurring statements;

(3) The decision of the hearing officer or panel, including any dissent;

(4) The transcript or partial transcript of the hearing if one has been prepared;

(5) Exhibits admitted in evidence;

(6) Any order assessing costs and expenses and any statements of costs and expenses and exceptions thereto;

(7) Any other portions of the record, including bar file documents, which appear necessary for full review.

(c) Additions to Record. The respondent lawyer and state bar counsel shall each have the right at any time to request the transmittal of additional portions of the record to the court.

BRIEFS

(a) Brief Required. The party seeking review shall file a brief setting forth his or her objections to the decision of the Board.

(b) Time for Filing. The brief of the party seeking review should be filed with the Supreme Court within 45 days after he or she is notified of transmittal of the record to the Supreme Court.

(c) Answering Brief. The answering brief of the other party should be filed with the Supreme Court within 30 days after service of the brief of the party seeking review.

(d) Reply Brief. A reply brief of a party seeking review should be filed with the Supreme Court within the sooner of 30 days after service of the answering brief or 14 days before oral argument. A reply brief should be limited to a response to the issues in the brief to which the reply brief is directed.

(e) Briefs When Both Parties Seek Review. When both the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel seek review of a decision of the Board, the respondent lawyer is deemed the party seeking review for the purposes of this rule. In such case state bar counsel may file a brief in reply to any response the respondent lawyer has made to the issues presented by state bar counsel, to be filed with the Supreme Court the sooner of 30 days after service of the reply brief of the respondent lawyer or 14 days before oral argument.

(f) Form of Briefs. Briefs filed pursuant to this rule shall conform as nearly as possible to the requirements of RAP 10.3 and 10.4. Bar file documents should be abbreviated BF and the transcript or partial transcript of the hearing should be abbreviated TR.

(g) Reproduction and Service of Briefs by Clerk. Briefs filed pursuant to this rule shall be reproduced and served by the clerk as provided in RAP 10.5.

RULE 7.7

ARGUMENT

(a) Rules Applicable. Oral argument before the Supreme Court shall be conducted under the provisions of Title 11 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure, unless the court shall otherwise direct.

(b) Priority. Disciplinary proceedings shall have priority and shall be set upon compliance with the above rules.

OPINION

(a) Finality. An opinion in a disciplinary proceeding is final when filed unless the court specifically provides otherwise.

(b) Motion for Reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration may be filed as provided in RAP 12.4, but the motion will not stay the judgment unless a stay is entered by the court.

RULE 7.9

VIOLATION OF RULES

Sanctions for violation of these rules may be imposed on a party pursuant to the provisions of RAP 18.9. Upon dismissal of a review sought by a respondent lawyer pursuant to that rule and expiration of the period to file objections under RAP 17.7, or after dismissal of his or her review by the court if timely objections are filed, the decision of the Board shall become final.

TITLE 8

PROTECTION OF PUBLIC WHEN LAWYER UNABLE TO ACT

RULE 8.1

NOTICE TO CLIENTS AND OTHERS

(a) Upon Disbarment or Suspension of Certain Kinds. A lawyer who has been disbarred, suspended for more than 60 days, or suspended pursuant to the provisions of Title 3, APR 11, or for nonpayment of dues, shall within 10 days of the effective date of his or her disbarment or suspension:

(1) Notify all clients of his or her inability to act as their lawyer and the reason therefor, and advise them that they should seek legal advice elsewhere; and

(2) Advise all clients involved in litigation or administrative proceedings to seek the prompt substitution of another lawyer. In the event the client does not substitute counsel within 10 days of being notified of the lawyer's inability to act, it shall be the responsibility of the lawyer to advise the court or agency of the lawyer's inability to act; and

(3) Notify the lawyer or lawyers of each adverse party in pending litigation or administrative proceedings, or the adverse party directly if not represented by counsel, of the lawyer's inability to act further on the client's behalf; and

(4) Provide clients or their substituted counsel upon request with their files and other documents of the client in the possession of the lawyer, regardless of any possible claim of lien under RCW 60.40.

(b) Upon Transfer to Disability Inactive Status. A lawyer transferred to disability inactive status, or his or her guardian if one has been appointed, shall give all notices required by section (a), except that such notices need not refer to disability.

(c) Upon Suspension for 60 Days or Less. A lawyer who has been suspended for 60 days or less shall within 10 days of the effective date of his or her suspension:

(1) Notify all clients involved in litigation or administrative proceedings, and the lawyer or lawyers for each adverse party (or the adverse party directly if not represented by counsel) in such litigation or proceeding, of the suspension and the reason therefor, and of his or her consequent inability to act as a lawyer after the effective date of the suspension, and shall advise all such clients to seek prompt substitution of another lawyer. In the event the client does not substitute counsel within 10 days of being notified of the lawyer's inability to act, it shall be the responsibility of the lawyer to advise the court or agency of the lawyer's inability to act; and

(2) Notify all other clients of his or her suspension and the reason therefor and consequent inability to act during the period of that suspension. The notice shall advise the clients to seek legal advice elsewhere if they feel they need such advice during the period of the lawyer's suspension; and

(3) Provide clients or their substituted counsel upon request with their files and other documents of the client in the possession of the lawyer, regardless of any possible claim of lien under RCW 60.40.

(d) Address of Client. All notices to lawyers, adverse parties, courts or agencies as required by sections (a), (b), or (c) shall contain the name and last known address of the person being represented by the lawyer, unless disclosure would violate a confidence or secret of the client. If the name and address are omitted, as permitted herein, the client shall be advised that so long as his or her address remains undisclosed and no new attorney is substituted, the client may be served by leaving papers with the clerk of the court pursuant to CR 5(b)(1) in pending superior court actions, and that comparable provisions may allow similar service in other court proceedings or administrative actions.

LAWYER TO DISCONTINUE PRACTICE

A disbarred or suspended lawyer, or a lawyer transferred to disability inactive status, shall not accept any new retainer, give any legal advice, or act as the lawyer for another in a pending case or legal matter of any nature after the effective date of his or her disbarment, suspension, or transfer to disability inactive status, and shall also take whatever steps may be necessary to avoid any possibility that any person may think that he or she is a lawyer authorized to practice law. This rule shall not preclude a disbarred or suspended lawyer, or a lawyer transferred to disability inactive status, from providing information on the facts of a case and its status to a succeeding lawyer, and such information shall be provided on request and without charge.

AFFIDAVIT OF COMPLIANCE

Within 25 days after the effective date of his or her disbarment, suspension, or transfer to disability inactive status, the lawyer shall file with the Association an affidavit stating that he or she has fully complied with the provisions of these rules. The affidavit shall also set forth the residence or other address of the lawyer to whom communications may thereafter be directed. The lawyer shall attach to the affidavit copies of the form letters of notification sent to the lawyer's clients, and to opposing counsel or opposing parties, and copies of letters to any court, together with a list of names and addresses of all clients and adverse parties or their lawyers to whom notices were sent.

PUBLIC NOTICE

(a) Publication. The Association shall cause a notice of the disbarment, suspension, or transfer to disability status of a lawyer to be published in the Washington State Bar News and a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the lawyer maintained his or her practice, except that in the case of transfer to disability inactive status no reference shall be made to disability.

(b) Notice to Judges. The Association shall promptly notify the presiding judge of the superior court of the county in which the lawyer maintained his or her practice of the lawyer's disbarment, suspension or transfer to disability inactive status, and may similarly notify the presiding judge of any district court located in the county where the lawyer practiced, or the judge of any other court in which the lawyer may have practiced or is known to have practiced.

(c) Other Notice. The notice provisions of this rule shall be in addition to the notice requirements of rule 11.2, which shall also be followed.

RULE 8.5

LAWYER TO KEEP RECORDS OF COMPLIANCE

A lawyer who has been disbarred, suspended, or transferred to disability inactive status must maintain written records of the various steps taken by him or her under these rules, so that upon any subsequent proceeding instituted by or against him or her proof of compliance with these rules will be available.

RULE 8.6

APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL TO PROTECT CLIENTS' INTERESTS

(a) Appointment. Whenever a lawyer has been transferred to disability inactive status, suspended, or disbarred, and fails to carry out the obligations of this rule or fails to protect his or her clients' interests, or whenever a lawyer disappears or dies, the chairperson of the Board may appoint a lawyer or lawyers to protect the clients' interests, unless a partner, personal representative or other responsible person appears to be properly protecting those interests. The appointment shall be made upon application of the Association or any interested party and upon proper proof of facts. The appointed lawyer or lawyers shall take possession of the necessary files and records and take such action as seems indicated to protect the clients' interests or as required under these rules. Such action may include but is not limited to assuming control of trust accounts or other financial affairs. Any bank or other person honoring the authority of the appointed lawyer or lawyers shall be exonerated from any liability resulting therefrom.

(b) Costs. Payment of any costs incurred by the Association pursuant to this rule may be made a condition of reinstatement of a disbarred lawyer or a lawyer transferred to disability inactive status, or may be ordered as restitution in a disciplinary proceeding brought against a suspended lawyer for failure to comply with rule 8.1.

TITLE 9

REINSTATEMENT AFTER DISBARMENT

RULE 9.1

RESTRICTIONS AGAINST PETITIONING

(a) When Petition May Be Filed. No petition for reinstatement shall be filed within a period of 3 years after disbarment or within a period of 2 years after an adverse decision of the Supreme Court upon a former petition, or within a period of 1 year after an adverse recommendation of the Board of Governors on a former petition when that recommendation is not submitted to the Supreme Court. If prior to disbarment the lawyer was suspended from the practice of law pursuant to the provisions of Title 3, or any comparable rule, the period of such suspension shall be credited toward the 3 years referred to above.

(b) Payment of Obligations. No disbarred lawyer may file a petition for reinstatement until costs and expenses assessed pursuant to these rules, and restitution ordered as provided herein, have been paid and until amounts paid out of the Clients' Security Fund as a result of the conduct of the petitioner have been repaid to the Association, or until periodic payment plans for costs and expenses, restitution and repayment to the Clients' Security Fund have been entered into by agreement between the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel.

REVERSAL OF CONVICTION

If a lawyer has been disbarred solely because of his or her conviction of a crime and the conviction is later reversed and the charges dismissed on their merits, the Supreme Court may in its discretion, upon direct application by the lawyer, enter an order reinstating the lawyer to active status. At the time such direct application is filed with the court a copy shall be filed with the Association.

RULE 9.3

FORM OF PETITION

A petition for reinstatement as a member of the Association after disbarment shall be in writing in such form as the Board of Governors may prescribe. The petition shall be filed with the Board of Governors. The petition shall set forth the age, residence and address of the petitioner, the date of disbarment, and a concise statement of facts claimed to justify reinstatement. The petition shall be accompanied by the total fees required of a lawyer applicant under the Admission to Practice Rules.

RULE 9.4

INVESTIGATION

The Board of Governors may in its discretion refer the petition for reinstatement for investigation and report to the Board by state bar counsel, special district counsel, or by such other person or persons as may be determined by the Board of Governors.

RULE 9.5

HEARING BEFORE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

(a) Notice. The Board of Governors may fix a time and place for a hearing on the petition, and shall serve notice thereof 10 days prior to the hearing upon the petitioner and upon such other persons as may be ordered by the Board of Governors. Notice of the hearing shall also be published at least once in the Washington State Bar News or such other newspaper or periodical as the Board of Governors may direct. Such published notice shall contain a statement that a petition for reinstatement has been filed and shall give the date fixed for the hearing.

(b) Statement in Support or Opposition. On or prior to the date of hearing, anyone wishing to do so may file with the Board of Governors a written statement for or against reinstatement, such statements to set forth factual matters showing that the petitioner does or does not meet the requirements of rule 9.6(a). Except by its leave no person other than the petitioner or petitioner's counsel shall be heard orally by the Board of Governors.

ACTION BY BOARD OF GOVERNORS

(a) Requirements for Favorable Recommendation. Reinstatement may be recommended by the Board of Governors only upon an affirmative showing that the petitioner possesses the qualifications and meets the requirements as set forth in the Admission to Practice Rules for lawyer applicants, and that his or her reinstatement will not be detrimental to the integrity and standing of the judicial system or to the administration of justice, or be contrary to the public interest.

(b) Action on Recommendation. The recommendation of the Board of Governors shall be served upon the petitioner. If the Board recommends reinstatement, the record and recommendation shall be transmitted to the Supreme Court for disposition. If the Board recommends against reinstatement, the record and recommendation shall be retained in the office of the Association unless the petitioner requests that it be submitted to the Supreme Court. If the petitioner so requests the record and recommendation shall be transmitted to the Supreme Court for disposition. If the petitioner does not so request, the bar examination fee shall be refunded to the petitioner, but the petitioner shall still be responsible for payment of the costs incidental to the reinstatement proceeding as directed by the Board of Governors.

ACTION ON SUPREME COURT'S DETERMINATION

(a) Petition Approved. If the petition for reinstatement is granted by the Supreme Court, the reinstatement shall be subject to the petitioner's taking and passing the bar examination and paying the costs incidental to the reinstatement proceeding as directed by the Supreme Court.

(b) Petition Denied. If the petition for reinstatement is denied, the bar examination fee shall be refunded to the petitioner, but the petitioner shall still be responsible for payment of the costs incidental to the reinstatement proceeding.

TITLE 10

TRANSFER TO DISABILITY INACTIVE STATUS

RULE 10.1

AUTOMATIC TRANSFER

(a) Grounds. In the event that an active lawyer (1) has been found to be incapable of assisting in his or her own defense in a criminal action; or (2) has been acquitted of a crime on the ground of insanity; or (3) has had a guardian (but not a limited guardian) appointed for his or her person or estate upon a finding of incompetency; or (4) has been found to be mentally incapable of conducting the practice of law in any other jurisdiction, he or she shall automatically be transferred from active to disability inactive membership status upon receipt by the Association of a certified copy of the judgment, order or other appropriate document demonstrating that one or more of the above events has occurred.

(b) Notice to Lawyer. The disabled lawyer and his or her guardian, if one has been appointed, shall forthwith be notified of the transfer to disability inactive status. The Supreme Court shall be notified of the transfer to disability inactive status and shall be provided with a copy of the judgment, order or other appropriate document upon which the transfer was based.

DISCRETIONARY TRANSFER

(a) Review Committee May Order Inquiry. When it appears to a review committee that there is reasonable cause to believe that an active lawyer is unable adequately to practice law because of insanity, mental illness, senility, excessive use of alcohol or drugs, or other mental or physical incapacity, the committee shall order that a hearing be held to inquire into the capacity of the lawyer to practice law.

(b) Inquiry During Course of Disciplinary Proceedings. When it appears to the Board, a hearing officer or a hearing panel that there is reasonable cause to believe that a respondent lawyer is incapable of conducting a proper defense to a disciplinary proceeding against him or her because of insanity, mental illness, senility, excessive use of alcohol or drugs, or other mental or physical incapacity, the Board, officer or panel shall order that a supplemental hearing be held to inquire into the capacity of the lawyer to conduct a proper defense. Such hearing shall be automatic where the respondent lawyer alleges in the course of a disciplinary proceeding that he or she is unable to conduct a proper defense because of mental or physical incapacity.

(c) Procedure. Proceedings conducted pursuant to this rule are not disciplinary proceedings, but shall be conducted under the same procedural rules as disciplinary proceedings. Any hearing held under section (b) above may be treated either as a new proceeding or as part of an existing proceeding, in the discretion of the Board, hearing officer or panel, and the disciplinary proceedings shall be held in abeyance pending the outcome of the supplemental proceeding. A recommendation of a hearing officer or panel that a lawyer be transferred to inactive status under this rule shall be treated as a recommendation for suspension for the procedural purposes of these rules, including rule 6.1(a) and rule 7.2(a).

(d) Appointment of Counsel. In the event the respondent lawyer does not appear by counsel within the time required by these rules for the filing of an answer, or within 20 days of being notified of the issues to be considered in a supplemental proceeding under section (b), the chairperson of the Board shall appoint a member of the Association as counsel for such respondent lawyer.

(e) Finding of Incapacity. If after review of the decision of the hearing officer or panel, the Board finds that a lawyer does not have adequate mental or physical capacity to practice law or to conduct a proper defense to disciplinary charges, it shall enter an order immediately transferring the lawyer to disability inactive status. Such transfer shall become effective upon service of such order upon the lawyer or his or her counsel.

(f) Appeal to Supreme Court. The lawyer may appeal an order of transfer to disability inactive status pursuant to the provisions of rule 7.2. The order of the Board shall remain in effect, regardless of the pendency of such appeal, unless and until reversed by the Supreme Court.

(g) Proceedings Confidential. All proceedings conducted pursuant to this rule shall be confidential.

RULE 10.3

REINSTATEMENT TO ACTIVE STATUS

(a) Restriction, Right of Petition and Burden. No lawyer transferred to disability inactive status may resume active status except by order of the Board or the Supreme Court. Any lawyer transferred to disability inactive status shall be entitled to petition the Board for transfer to active status. The lawyer shall have the burden of showing that the disability has been removed.

(b) Petition and Initial Review. The petition for reinstatement shall set forth the facts demonstrating that the disability has been removed. The petition shall be filed with the Board at the office of the Association. Upon the filing of the petition the chairperson of the Board shall direct whatever action appears necessary or proper to determine whether the disability has been removed. Such actions include but are not limited to direction: (1) that state bar counsel or any other person conduct an investigation and file a report; (2) that an examination of the lawyer be conducted by a qualified expert or experts; and (3) that a hearing be held before the Board, or before a hearing officer or panel.

(c) Waiver of Doctor–Patient Privilege. The filing of a petition for reinstatement to active status by a lawyer transferred to disability inactive status shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of any doctor–patient privilege with respect to any treatment of the lawyer during the period of his or her disability. The lawyer shall be required to disclose the name of each psychiatrist, psychologist, physician, or other person, and each hospital or other institution by whom or in which the lawyer has been examined or treated since his or her transfer to disability inactive status. The lawyer shall furnish, if requested by the Board or state bar counsel, written consent to each person or hospital to divulge information and records relating to the disability.

(d) Review of Record. Prior to the submission of the petition and any report to the Board the lawyer shall have a reasonable opportunity to review the report and to make any additional submissions he or she deems desirable.

(e) Board Review. The Board shall review the petition and report as expeditiously as possible and take one or more of the following actions:

- (1) Grant the petition;
- (2) Direct whatever additional action the Board deems necessary or proper to determine whether the disability has been removed;
- (3) Direct that the lawyer establish proof of competence and learning in the law, which proof may include certification by the bar examiners of his or her successful completion of an examination for admission to practice;
- (4) Deny the petition, but no such denial shall occur except as hereinafter provided without the lawyer having the opportunity for a hearing before the Board, or before a hearing officer or panel. A hearing is not necessary if the lawyer has failed to state a prima facie case for reinstatement in his or her petition, or if the petition does not indicate a material change of circumstance since a previous denial of a petition for reinstatement filed by the lawyer;

(5) Direct the lawyer to pay the costs of the reinstatement proceedings.

(f) Petition Granted. If the petition for reinstatement is granted, the lawyer shall immediately be transferred to active status and the Supreme Court notified thereof. If a disciplinary proceeding has been held in abeyance because of the disability transfer, the proceeding shall go forward upon reinstatement.

(g) Review by Supreme Court. If the petition for reinstatement is not granted, the respondent lawyer shall have the right to appeal the decision of the Board to the Supreme Court, by filing a notice of appeal with the Association within 15 days of service of the decision of the Board upon the respondent lawyer. Review shall be conducted pursuant to the procedures of Title 7.

TITLE 11

ACCESS TO DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

RULE 11.1

PENDING INVESTIGATIONS AND PROCEEDINGS

(a) Investigations Confidential. An investigation into an alleged act of misconduct by a lawyer shall be confidential except as necessary to conduct the investigation or to keep a complainant advised of the status of a matter, but the pendency, subject matter, and status of an investigation may be disclosed if:

- (1) Both the respondent lawyer and the complainant have waived confidentiality; or
- (2) The proceeding is based upon the conviction of a crime; or
- (3) A review panel finds that the investigation is based upon allegations that have become generally known to the public.

(b) Release May Be Authorized. The Board of Governors, or the Executive Director acting under the direction of the Board, may authorize the general or limited release of any confidential information obtained during the course of an investigation when to do so appears necessary to protect the interests of clients or other persons, the public, or the integrity of the bar. A respondent lawyer shall be served with notice of a decision to release information under this section 5 days prior to its release unless the Board finds that such notice would jeopardize serious interests of any person or the public.

(c) Proceedings Public. Upon the filing and service of a formal complaint and after the lawyer has answered that complaint, or failed to answer within the time required, a disciplinary proceeding shall be public, subject to the provisions of any protective order as may be entered pursuant to section (f). The filing of a motion for a protective order shall stay the provisions of this rule with regard to any matter sought to be kept confidential in that motion, and the motion itself shall be confidential, until ruled upon.

(d) Matters Which Are Public. In a matter which is public pursuant to section (c), any person may have access to the contents of the bar file in the pending proceeding, may attend any hearing on the charges against the attorney, except a hearing on a motion, and may attend any oral argument before the Board conducted pursuant to rule 6.7(c). In any disciplinary matter referred to the Supreme Court, the file, record, briefs, and argument in the case shall also be public except to the extent previously made confidential by a protective order or as otherwise ordered by the court.

(e) Matters Which Are Not Public. In no case shall deliberations of a hearing panel, board or court, or matters made confidential by a protective order, be public.

(f) Protective Orders. In order to protect a compelling interest of a complainant, witness, third party, or respondent, the hearing officer or panel chairperson to whom a matter is assigned, the chairperson of a review committee or of the Board when a matter is before a committee or the Board for review, or the president of the Association in the case of a petition for reinstatement after disbarment, may, upon motion and for good cause shown, issue a protective order prohibiting the disclosure of specific information or specific documents or pleadings, and direct that the proceedings be conducted so as to implement the order.

(g) Application to Stipulations. A stipulation entered into pursuant to rule 4.14 shall be confidential until approved by a review committee or the Board, except that a complainant may be advised concerning a stipulation and its proposed or actual content at any time. A stipulation which is approved by a review committee or the Board shall be public, except that a stipulation entered into prior to the filing of a formal complaint and which provides for dismissal or conditional dismissal of a complaint without the imposition of a disciplinary sanction shall be confidential, unless and until proceedings are instituted for failure to comply with the conditions of the stipulation.

(h) Application to Title 3 Suspensions. Proceedings for suspension of a lawyer for conviction of a crime pursuant to rule 3.1 shall be public upon the filing of the petition. Proceedings for suspension of a lawyer for other causes pursuant to rule 3.2 shall be public upon issuance of a show cause order by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

(i) Application for Disability Proceedings. Proceedings for transfer to and from disability inactive status are confidential. However, a complainant may be advised of disability proceedings or transfers affecting a lawyer complained against. The fact that a lawyer is on inactive status, or has been reinstated to active status, is public.

(j) Application to Reinstatement Proceedings. A petition for reinstatement after disbarment shall be a public proceeding within this rule from the time the petition is filed.

(k) Regulations. Public access to file materials and proceedings as permitted by this rule may be subject to reasonable regulation as to time, place and circumstances. Certified copies of public bar file documents shall be made available at the same rate as certified copies of superior court records. Uncertified copies of public bar file documents shall be made available at a rate to be set by the Executive Director of the Association.

(l) Wrongful Disclosure. Disclosure by any person of any information concerning a pending or completed investigation or proceeding, except as permitted by these rules, may subject that person to an action for contempt of the Supreme Court. When the person is a lawyer, such wrongful disclosure may also be grounds for discipline.

RULE 11.2

NOTICE OF DISCIPLINE

(a) Discipline To Be Public. In any case in which a disciplinary sanction is imposed upon a lawyer pursuant to these rules, whether after a hearing or by stipulation, the nature of the sanction and the decision or stipulation upon which it is based shall be public. When a lawyer is permitted to resign with discipline pending, the fact of the resignation with discipline pending shall also be public.

(b) Notice to Supreme Court. A copy of any decision imposing a disciplinary sanction on a lawyer shall be filed with the Supreme Court when that decision becomes final.

(c) Other Notices. Notice of the imposition of a disciplinary sanction on a lawyer shall also be given to the following authorities, in such form as may appear appropriate:

(1) The lawyer discipline authority or highest court in any jurisdiction where the lawyer is believed to be admitted to practice;

(2) The chief judge of each federal district court in the state of Washington, and the chief judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit;

(3) The National Discipline Data Bank.

(d) Notices of Suspension, Disbarment, or Disability Inactive Status. Additional notices in any case where a lawyer is suspended, disbarred, or transferred to disability inactive status shall be given as provided in rule 8.4.

(e) Person Responsible. The clerk of the Board if one has been appointed, or state bar counsel, shall be responsible for providing the notices set forth in this rule.

(f) Discipline Under Prior Rules. Discipline imposed on a lawyer under prior rules of this state which was confidential when imposed shall remain confidential, regardless of the provisions of section (a). A record of confidential discipline may be kept confidential during the course of proceedings under these rules, or in connection with the consideration of a stipulation under rule 4.14, through a protective order issued under rule 11.1(f).

TITLE 12
GENERAL PROVISIONS
RULE 12.1
SERVICE OF PAPERS

(a) Service Required. Every pleading, every paper relating to discovery, every written request or motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every similar paper or document issued by state bar counsel or the respondent lawyer under any provision of these rules shall be served on the opposing party (the respondent lawyer or state bar counsel as the case may be) as follows, unless personal service is required or unless these rules specifically provide otherwise:

(1) On the respondent lawyer, by mailing the same postage prepaid to the lawyer or his or her attorney of record, or leaving the same, at the address set forth in the answer or in a notice of appearance filed by an attorney on behalf of the lawyer or at the address set forth in any subsequent document filed by the lawyer or his or her attorney; or, in the absence of an answer, by mailing the same postage prepaid to the lawyer or leaving the same at his or her address on file with the Association;

(2) On state bar counsel, by mailing the same postage prepaid, or leaving the same, at the address of the Association or such other address as state bar counsel may request;

(3) Service by mail under this section shall be by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, unless the parties agree otherwise, except that when one or more certified mailings properly made pursuant to this rule is returned as unclaimed service may be made by regular first class mail. Service properly made as herein provided shall be effective regardless of whether the person to whom the mail is addressed actually receives it.

(b) Personal Service. When personal service upon a respondent lawyer is required by these rules, it shall be accomplished as follows:

(1) If the respondent lawyer is found in the state of Washington, by personal service upon him or her in the manner required for personal service of a summons in a civil action in the superior court.

(2) If the respondent lawyer cannot be found in the state of Washington, service can be made either by (i) leaving a copy at his or her place of usual abode in the state of Washington with some person of suitable age and discretion then resident therein; or (ii) mailing by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, a copy addressed to him or her at his or her last known place of abode, or office address maintained by him or her for the practice of law, or post office address or address on file with the Association.

(3) If the respondent lawyer is found outside of the state of Washington, then by service as set forth in (1) or (2) above.

(c) Service Where Question of Mental Competence. If a guardian or guardian ad litem has been duly appointed for a respondent lawyer who has been judicially declared to be of unsound mind or incapable of conducting his or her own affairs, service under sections 12.1(a) and (b) above shall also be made on the guardian or guardian ad litem.

(d) Proof of Service. Proof of service when personal service is required shall be made by affidavit of service, sheriff's return of service, or a signed acknowledgment of service. Proof of service in other cases may alternatively be made by certificate of an attorney similar to that allowed by CR 5(b)(2)(B), which certificate shall state the form of mail used. Proof of service in all cases shall be filed in the office of the Association, or with the Supreme Court in matters before the court, but need not be served on the opposing party.

FILING; COPY TO HEARING OFFICER; ORDERS

(a) Filing Originals; Copies to Hearing Officer or Panel. The original of any pleading, motion, discovery document or other paper authorized by these rules, except in matters before the Supreme Court, shall be filed in the office of the Association. Filing may be made by first class mail, and shall be deemed accomplished on the date of mailing. In addition to service upon the opposing party as required by rule 12.1(a), in cases where a hearing is pending a copy of any such paper except discovery documents shall be sent or delivered to the hearing officer or panel chairperson, or to each member of a hearing panel where required by these rules. Service on a hearing officer or panel may be by regular first class mail.

(b) Filing and Service of Orders. Any written order, decision or ruling entered under these rules, except an order of the Supreme Court or an informal ruling issued pursuant to rule 4.8(e), shall be filed with the Association, and shall be served upon the respondent lawyer by the clerk to the Board if one has been appointed, or by state bar counsel as provided in rule 12.1(a).

RULE 12.3
PAPERS

All pleadings or other papers under these rules must be typewritten or printed, double spaced, on good quality 8½ by 11-inch or 8½ by 13-inch paper.

EXPENSES

(a) Board, Special District Counsel, Hearing Officer or Panel. The members of the Board, special district counsel, hearing officers and hearing panel members shall receive no compensation for their services, except as hereinafter provided, but expenses incurred in connection with their duties shall be paid from the funds of the Association subject to any limitation established by resolution of the Board of Governors. The Board of Governors shall have discretionary authority to provide compensation to hearing officers or hearing panel members in cases which are unusually time consuming or where some other especially burdensome circumstance is involved.

(b) Special Appointments. The fees for counsel appointed pursuant to rule 8.6 or rule 10.2(d) and costs or expenses reasonably incurred by such counsel under authority of these rules shall be paid by the Association.

RULE 12.5

RESTRICTIONS ON REPRESENTATION OF RESPONDENT

A former president of the Association, a former member of the Board of Governors, or a former member of the Disciplinary Board shall not represent a respondent lawyer in any proceeding under these rules until 3 years have elapsed following expiration of his or her term of office.

RULE 12.6

RECIPROCAL DISCIPLINE

(a) Supreme Court Action. Upon receipt of a certified copy of an order demonstrating that a lawyer admitted to practice in this state has been disciplined in another jurisdiction, the Supreme Court shall forthwith direct the Association to issue a notice directed to the respondent lawyer containing:

(1) A copy of the order from the other jurisdiction; and

(2) An order directing that the respondent lawyer inform the court within 30 days from service of the notice of any claim that the imposition of the identical discipline in this state would be unwarranted, and if so the reasons therefor. The notice shall be personally served on the respondent lawyer as provided in rule 12.1(b).

(b) Deferral. In the event the discipline imposed in the other jurisdiction has been stayed there, any reciprocal discipline imposed in this state shall be deferred until the stay expires.

(c) Conclusive Effect. In all other respects, a final adjudication in another jurisdiction that a lawyer has been guilty of misconduct shall establish conclusively the misconduct for purposes of a disciplinary proceeding in this state.

RULE 12.7

REMOVAL OF APPOINTEES

The power granted by these rules to any person, committee or board to make any appointment shall include the power to remove the person appointed whenever that person appears unwilling or unable to perform his or her duties, or for any other cause, and to fill the resulting vacancy.

RULE 12.8

MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS

(a) Permanent Records. In any matter in which a disciplinary sanction has been imposed on a lawyer, the bar file and transcripts in the proceeding shall be permanent records of the Association and/or of the Supreme Court. Related file materials, including investigatory files, may be maintained in the discretion of state bar counsel. Exhibits may be returned to the party supplying them, but copies shall be retained where possible.

(b) Destruction of Files. In any matter in which a complaint or investigation has been dismissed without the imposition of a disciplinary sanction, whether following a hearing or otherwise, file materials relating to the matter may be destroyed 5 years after the dismissal occurred, and shall be destroyed at that time upon the request of the lawyer involved unless the files are being used in an ongoing investigation or unless other good cause exists for retention. The Board of Governors shall rule on a request by a lawyer for destruction of files pursuant to this rule when that request is opposed by state bar counsel.

(c) Retention of Docket. When a file on a matter has been destroyed pursuant to section (b), the Association may retain a docket record of the matter for statistical purposes only. That docket record shall not include the name or other identification of the lawyer complained against.

(d) Deceased Lawyers. Records and files relating to a lawyer who has died, including permanent records, may be destroyed at any time in the discretion of state bar counsel.

RULE 12.9

CONFIDENTIAL SOURCES

When a complaint is made or information provided to state bar counsel or the Association regarding a possible act of misconduct by a lawyer, or possible mental or physical inability of a lawyer to conduct his or her practice of law, and the person making the complaint or providing the information requests that his or her identity be kept confidential, an investigation may be conducted in the name of the Association. Unless otherwise ordered, the identity of the person complaining or providing information, the "confidential source," shall not be disclosed to the lawyer, either during the investigation or in subsequent formal proceedings if such proceedings are ordered. The chairperson of the Board, the chairperson of a review committee, or a hearing officer or panel chairperson before whom a matter is pending may order state bar counsel to reveal the identity of a confidential source upon motion of the lawyer, where after private examination of state bar counsel and any requested documents or file materials it appears necessary to reveal the identity of the confidential source to the lawyer to enable the lawyer to conduct a proper defense to the charges against him or her.

RULE 12.10

STATUTE OF LIMITATION

There is no statute of limitation or other time limitation restricting the bringing of a proceeding under these rules, but the passage of time since an act of misconduct occurred may be considered in determining what if any action or sanction is warranted.

RULE 12.11

EXONERATION FROM LIABILITY

(a) Association and Its Agents. No cause of action shall accrue in favor of a respondent lawyer or any other person, arising from an investigation or proceeding pursuant to these rules, against the Association, or its officers or agents (including but not limited to its staff, members of the Board of Governors, the Disciplinary Board, review committees, hearing panels, hearing officers, state bar counsel, special district counsel, a lawyer appointed pursuant to rule 8.6 or 10.2(d), probation officers appointed pursuant to rule 5.2, or any other individual acting under authority of these rules) provided only that the Association or individual shall have acted in good faith. The burden of proving bad faith in this context shall be upon the party asserting it. The Association shall provide defense to any action brought against an officer or agent of the Association for actions taken in good faith under these rules and shall bear the costs of that defense.

(b) Complainants and Witnesses. Communications to the Association, Board of Governors, Disciplinary Board, review committee, hearing officer or panel, state bar counsel, special district counsel, Association staff, or any other individual acting under authority of these rules, are absolutely privileged, and no lawsuit predicated thereon may be instituted against any complainant, witness or other person providing information.

RULE 12.12

COMPUTATION OF TIME

In computing any period of time under these rules the provisions of CR 6(a) and (e) shall apply.

RULE 12.13

STIPULATION TO EXTENSION OF TIME

In any proceeding under these rules, except matters pending before the Supreme Court, the respondent lawyer and state bar counsel may stipulate to extension of the time requirements provided herein, except the time within which any notice of appeal must be filed.

RULE 12.14

PRIORITIES

Guidelines may be established by the Board of Governors or the Disciplinary Board providing for the priority under which investigations or proceedings will be processed, with first priority being given to those allegations or charges which appear to represent the most immediate threat of harm to the public.

RULE 12.15

DEFINITIONS

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, terms used in these rules shall have the following meaning:

(a) "Association" shall mean the Washington State Bar Association.

(b) "Bar file" shall mean the pleadings, motions, rulings, decisions, and other formal papers filed in a proceeding beginning with the formal complaint.

(c) "Board" when used alone in these rules shall mean the Disciplinary Board.

(d) "Panel" shall mean a hearing panel.

RULE 12.16

EFFECT ON PENDING PROCEEDINGS

Upon the effective date of these rules as ordered by the Supreme Court they shall apply in their entirety to any matter or investigation which is pending and which has not yet been ordered to hearing or ordered dismissed. They shall apply to other pending matters insofar as practicable. The hearing officer or panel chairperson appointed to hear a matter, or the chairperson of the Board in a matter pending before the Board, shall rule on questions concerning the appropriate procedure to be followed with a view to insuring a fair and orderly proceeding.

TITLE 13

AUDITS

AUDIT AND INVESTIGATION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Board and its chairperson shall have the following authority to examine, investigate and audit the books and records of any lawyer for the purpose of ascertaining and reporting whether CPR DR 9-102 has been or is being complied with by such lawyer:

(a) Random Examination. The Board may from time to time authorize examinations of the books and records of any lawyer or firm of lawyers selected at random. Such examinations shall extend only to the books and records of such lawyer or firm of lawyers.

(b) Particular Examination. The chairperson of the Board may, upon receipt of information that a particular lawyer or firm of lawyers may not be in compliance with CPR DR 9-102, authorize an examination limited to the scope set forth in section (a). Such information may be presented to the chairperson without notice to the lawyer or firm of lawyers.

(c) Audit. Upon the examination set forth in section (a) or (b), if the chairperson of the Board shall determine that further examination is warranted, the chairperson may then order an appropriate audit of the lawyer's or the firm's books and records, including verification of the information therein from available sources.

RULE 13.2

COOPERATION OF LAWYER

It shall be the duty and obligation of any lawyer or firm who is subject to examination, investigation and audit under rule 13.1 to cooperate with the person conducting the examination, investigation or audit, subject only to the proper exercise of any privilege against self-incrimination where applicable, by:

(a) Producing to such person forthwith all evidence, books, records and papers as such person shall request for the purpose of his or her examination, investigation or audit;

(b) Furnishing forthwith such explanations as the person may require for the purpose of his or her examination, investigation or audit;

(c) Producing, in those cases where the examination, investigation or audit is being conducted pursuant to rule 13.1, to such person forthwith written authorization, directed to any bank or depository, for the person to examine, investigate or audit trust and general accounts, safe deposit boxes and other forms of maintaining trust property by the lawyer in such bank or depository.

RULE 13.3

DECLARATION OR QUESTIONNAIRE

(a) Questionnaire. The Association shall cause to be directed annually to each active lawyer a written declaration or questionnaire designed to determine whether such lawyer is complying with CPR DR 9-102. Such declaration or questionnaire shall be completed, executed and delivered by such lawyer to the Association on or before the date of delivery specified in such declaration or questionnaire.

(b) Noncompliance. Failure to file the declaration or questionnaire on or before the date specified in section (a) shall be grounds for discipline. Such failure shall also subject the lawyer who has failed to comply with this rule to a full audit of his or her books and records as provided in rule 13.1(c), upon request of state bar counsel to a review committee. A copy of any request made under this section shall be served upon the lawyer involved. The request shall be granted upon a showing that the lawyer has failed to comply with section (a) of this rule. If the lawyer should later comply, state bar counsel shall have discretion to determine whether an audit should be conducted, and if so the scope of that audit. A lawyer audited pursuant to this section shall be liable for all actual costs of conducting such audit, and also a charge of $100 per day spent by the auditor in conducting the audit and preparing an audit report. Costs and charges shall be assessed in the same manner as costs under rule 2.8(b)(2).

DISCLOSURE

The examination and audit report shall be open to the Board, state bar counsel, the lawyer or firm examined, investigated or audited, and to the Board of Governors upon its request, unless a disciplinary proceeding is commenced in which event the disclosure provisions of Title 11 shall apply.

RULE 13.5

REGULATIONS

The Disciplinary Board may adopt regulations pertinent to the powers set forth in this rule subject to the approval of the Board of Governors and the Supreme Court.

RULE 1

JUDICIAL INFORMATION SYSTEM

It is the intent of the Supreme Court that a statewide Judicial Information System be developed. The system is to be designed and operated by the Administrator for the Courts under the direction of the Judicial Information System Committee and with the approval of the Supreme Court pursuant to RCW 2.56. The system is to serve the courts of the state of Washington.

RULE 2

COMPOSITION

(a) Membership. The Judicial Information System Committee (JISC) shall be representative of the judiciary of the state of Washington and shall be appointed by the Chief Justice with the approval of the Supreme Court from a list of names submitted by representative groups and associations from within the judicial system and shall be composed of a Supreme Court Justice (the Supreme Court), a Court of Appeals judge (Court of Appeals), three superior court judges (Superior Court Judges' Association), three judges of courts of limited jurisdiction (Washington Magistrates' Association), the Supreme Court Clerk, two county clerks (Washington State Association of County Clerks), a prosecuting attorney (Washington State Prosecuting Attorneys' Association), a lay citizen (Chief Justice), a representative of the Washington State Bar Association, a director of juvenile court services (Juvenile Directors Association), the Executive Director of the Washington State Data Processing Authority, the Administrator for the Courts, two superior court administrators (Association of Washington Superior Court Administrators) and three clerks/administrators from courts of limited jurisdiction (Washington State Court Administrators Association).

(b) Terms of Office. The term of membership for those who are appointed to represent specific organizations shall be for a term of 3 years with the initial term as determined by lot, staggered so as to insure that an equal number of terms expire each year. Any vacancy in the membership of the committee shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made and the term of membership shall expire on the same date as the original appointment expiration date.

(c) Operation. The Supreme Court Justice shall be the chairperson. The members of the committee shall elect a vice-chairperson from among themselves. Meetings of the committee shall be called regularly and at a minimum of four times per year at the discretion of the chair. Any members with two unexcused absences from regularly scheduled JISC meetings during any calendar year shall be requested to resign and the respective association shall appoint a successor to fulfill the unexpired term. Ad hoc committees may also be established for the purpose of making special studies and recommendations to the JISC as required and as recommended by the chair and approved by the committee. The JISC shall review the work of the Administrator for the Courts with regard to the Judicial Information System and be responsible for recommendations to the Supreme Court concerning policies, procedures, and rules which affect the operation of the Judicial Information System or any new or presently existing information system projects within the state judiciary.

STAFF

Staff for the Judicial Information System Committee will be provided by and be responsible to the Administrator for the Courts who will be charged with providing operational, statistical, and other information to legitimate and appropriate users of judicial information.

BUDGETS

The Administrator for the Courts, under the direction of the Judicial Information System Committee, and with the approval of the Supreme Court, shall prepare funding requests for personnel, hardware, and software as required for a phased implementation of the Judicial Information System. Any budget requests prepared by the Administrator for the Courts shall address the issues of control and dissemination of data from court files, developmental and operational priorities, a clear definition of operational expenses and security, and privacy of information and facilities within the system.

RULE 5

STANDARD DATA ELEMENTS

A standard court data element dictionary for the Judicial Information System shall be prepared and maintained by the Administrator for the Courts with the approval of the Judicial Information System Committee. Any modifications, additions, or deletions from the standard court data element dictionary must be reviewed and approved by the Judicial Information System Committee.

RULE 6

REPORTS

The Administrator for the Courts shall furnish to the courts and clerks of the state standard report formats as recommended and approved by the Judicial Information System Committee. Records and reports either in computerized or manual formats shall be in accordance with the standard court data elements established by the Judicial Information System Committee and consistent with the definitions contained therein.

RULE 7

CODES AND CASE NUMBERS

The Administrator for the Courts shall establish, with the approval of the Judicial Information System Committee, a uniform set of codes and case numbering systems for criminal charges, civil actions, juvenile referrals, attorney identification, and standard disposition identification codes.

RULE 8

RETENTION

The Administrator for the Courts shall establish retention periods for all computerized records based upon the recommendations of the Judicial Information System Committee and consistent with state law.

RULE 9

COMMUNICATIONS LINK WITH OTHER SYSTEMS

The Judicial Information System will serve as the communications link for the courts with all local, regional, statewide, and national noncourt systems. The Judicial Information System shall perform all functions relating to the transfer of computerized judicial data or information except as specifically approved by the Supreme Court upon the recommendations of the Judicial Information System Committee.

RULE 10

ATTORNEY IDENTIFICATION NUMBERS

The Office of the Administrator for the Courts will assign and maintain a uniform attorney identification number consistent with the number currently utilized by the Washington State Bar Association. The use of such code numbers will be subject to rules promulgated by the Supreme Court upon recommendations by the Judicial Information System Committee and the Board of Governors of the Washington State Bar Association.

RULE 11

SECURITY, PRIVACY, AND CONFIDENTIALITY

All court record systems must conform to the privacy and confidentiality rules as promulgated by the Supreme Court upon the recommendation of the Judicial Information System Committee, which rules shall be consistent with all applicable law relating to public records. Any modifications, additions, or deletions from the established rules must be reviewed by the Judicial Information System Committee and approved by the Supreme Court. Additionally:

(a) Courts obtaining information from computerized files subject to special security and privacy administrative rules or legislative direction must insure that all such rules or legislative enactments are followed in the handling of such information.

(b) In all automated systems, duplicate records must be prepared regularly and stored separately and a transaction log kept of all record changes covering the entire time period since the preparation of the last duplicate set of records.

(c) The Office of the Administrator for the Courts will maintain a library of court system documentation for the state. All automated information systems which have received approval from the Supreme Court to collect, store, and/or disseminate computerized judicial information must submit to the Office of the Administrator for the Courts and maintain on file a copy of all system documentation related to the collection, storage, and dissemination of such information.

RULE 12

DISSEMINATION OF COURT INFORMATION

The Judicial Information System Committee will adopt rules, consistent with all applicable law relating to public records, governing the release of information contained within the Judicial Information System. Such rules and any amendments thereto shall be forwarded to the Supreme Court and, unless altered by the court or returned to the Judicial Information System Committee for its further consideration and recommendations, shall take effect 45 days after the receipt of such rules by the Supreme Court.

RULE 13

LOCAL COURT SYSTEMS

Counties or cities wishing to establish automated court record systems shall provide advance notice of the proposed development to the Judicial Information System Committee and the Office of the Administrator for the Courts 90 days prior to the commencement of such projects for the purpose of review and approval.

RULE 14

CONTROL OF DATA PROCESSING EQUIPMENT

Data processing for courts shall be processed on computer equipment managed and controlled by the courts. In exceptional instances where extreme care has been taken to insure the integrity of the internal function of the courts, explicit approval may be obtained from the Supreme Court upon the recommendation of the Administrator for the Courts and the Judicial Information System Committee to utilize facilities not totally managed and controlled by the courts.

RULE 15

DATA DISSEMINATION OF COMPUTER-BASED COURT INFORMATION

It is declared to be the policy of the courts to facilitate public access to court records, provided such disclosures in no way present an unreasonable invasion of personal privacy and will not be unduly burdensome to the ongoing business of the courts.

Due to the confidential nature of some court information, authority over the dissemination of such information shall be exercised by the judicial branch. This rule establishes the minimum criteria to be met by each information request before allowing dissemination.

(a) Application. This rule applies to all requests for computer-based court information submitted by an individual, as well as public and private associations and agencies. This rule does not apply to requests initiated by or with the consent of the Administrator for the Courts for the purpose of answering a request vital to the internal business of the courts.

(b) Excluded Information. Records sealed, exempted, or otherwise restricted by law or court rule may not be released to the general public except by court order.

(c) Data Dissemination Committee. The Chair of the Judicial Information System Committee shall appoint a Data Dissemination Committee whose members shall be appointed for 3-year terms. Membership terms shall be staggered.

(d) Data Dissemination Policies and Procedures. The Administrator for the Courts shall promulgate policies and procedures for handling applications for computer-based information. These policies and procedures shall be subject to the approval of the Data Dissemination Committee.

(e) Information for Release of Data. Information which must be supplied by the requestor and upon which evaluation will be made includes:

- (1) Identifying information concerning the applicant;
- (2) Statement of the intended use and distribution;
- (3) Type of information needed.

(f) Criteria To Determine Release of Data. The criteria against which the applications are evaluated are as follows:

- (1) Availability of data;
- (2) Specificity of the request;
- (3) Potential for infringement of personal privacy created by release of the information requested;
- (4) Potential disruption to the internal, ongoing business of the courts.

(g) Cost. The requestor shall bear the cost of honoring the request for information in accordance with section (d).

(h) Appeal. If a request is denied by the Administrator for the Courts, the requestor may appeal the decision to the Data Dissemination Committee in accordance with section (d). The Data Dissemination Committee shall review and act upon the appeal in accordance with procedures promulgated by the Committee for this purpose.

RULE 16

RECORD AND DISSEMINATION DATA PROCESSING

The Office of the Administrator for the Courts shall be responsible for the recording and dissemination of decisions concerning the policies of the Supreme Court in the area of data processing, except for such policies as relate to the preparation of appellate court opinions and their publication in the official law reports which are the responsibility of the Reporter of Decisions and the Commission on State Law Reports.

RULE 17

EFFECTIVE DATE

These rules, with the exception of rule 2, shall take effect on May 15, 1976. Rule 2 shall take effect on July 1, 1976, and until such time, the Superior Courts Management Information System (SCOMIS) Committee formed on February 21, 1974, shall continue to function as directed by this court.

Introductory Comment

A comment prepared by the Judicial Council Task Force on Evidence appears after each rule. If the rule is identical to the corresponding rule in the Federal Rules of Evidence, no effort is made to reiterate the Advisory Committee's Note to the federal rule. That information is readily available in works such as Weinstein's Evidence (Matthew Bender, 1975), Wright & Graham, Federal Practice and Procedure: Evidence (West, 1977), Moore's Federal Practice (Matthew Bender, 1976), and Louisell & Mueller, Federal Evidence (Bancroft-Whitney, 1978). The rules are also discussed in J. Powell & R. Burns, A Discussion of the New Federal Rules of Evidence, 8 Gonz. L. Rev. 1 (1972).

The comments here focus on the intent of the drafters with respect to prior Washington law and on the reasons for departures from the federal rules. In these comments, the word "drafters" refers only to the Washington Judicial Council and its Task Force on Evidence. It does not refer to Congress, the Washington State Supreme Court, or to any other judicial or legislative body.

The rules do not purport to codify constitutional law. The application of a rule may be subject to constitutional restrictions or limitations which are not defined in the rule. See, for example, the comments to rules 104, 105, and 804.

TITLE 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

RULE 101

SCOPE

These rules govern proceedings in the courts of the state of Washington to the extent and with the exceptions stated in rule 1101.

Comment 101

Rule 1101 specifies in more detail the courts, proceedings, questions, and stages of proceedings to which the rules apply.

RULE 102

PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION

These rules shall be construed to secure fairness in administration, elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay, and promotion of growth and development of the law of evidence to the end that the truth may be ascertained and proceedings justly determined.

Comment 102

The rule is the same as Federal Rule 102. This generalized statement of purpose is comparable to CR 1, CrR 1.2, and RAP 1.2. The Rules of Evidence, like other court rules, give the judge the authority to interpret the rules in a way which avoids an unjust result. See Petrarca v. Halligan, 83 Wn.2d 773, 522 P.2d 827 (1974).

"Following the rules is not an end in itself. Rather, the rules are carefully designed to enable judges, lawyers, litigants, and juries to achieve sound results. . . . Rule 102 recognizes the responsibility judges bear by enumerating goals which cannot be achieved mechanically, and which will compete with another at times." 10 Moore's Federal Practice § 102.02 (1976). See also United States v. Jackson, 405 F. Supp. 938 (1975).

This approach implies a considerable grant of discretion to the trial judge in situations not explicitly covered by the rules which may require differentiated treatment in the light of special factors. 1 Weinstein's Evidence § 102[01] (1975). The rules place a burden on the lawyer to explain his position and the reasons for it at the trial level. It also places heavy burdens on the trial judge. Weinstein's Evidence, supra.

"Judges should indicate which factors are significant and which goals paramount in a particular case and why, so that members of the Bar can adjust to changing nuances in the law in advising their clients and in conducting litigations. This process of accommodation to change will itself promote desirable change while preserving the sound fundamentals of the law of evidence." Weinstein's Evidence, supra.

RULE 103

RULINGS ON EVIDENCE

(a) Effect of Erroneous Ruling. Error may not be predicated upon a ruling which admits or excludes evidence unless a substantial right of the party is affected, and

(1) Objection. In case the ruling is one admitting evidence, a timely objection or motion to strike is made, stating the specific ground of objection, if the specific ground was not apparent from the context; or

(2) Offer of Proof. In case the ruling is one excluding evidence, the substance of the evidence was made known to the court by offer or was apparent from the context within which questions were asked.

(b) Record of Offer and Ruling. The court may add any other or further statement which shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling thereon. The court may direct the making of an offer in question and answer form.

(c) Hearing of Jury. In jury cases, proceedings shall be conducted, to the extent practicable, so as to prevent inadmissible evidence from being suggested to the jury by any means, such as making statements or offers of proof or asking questions in the hearing of the jury.

(d) Errors Raised for the First Time on Review. [Reserved—See RAP 2.5(a).]

Section (a). This section is the same as Federal Rule 103(a), except that the words "is made" are substituted for "appears of record" in subsection (a)(1). This change is necessary because the rules are applicable to courts, such as district courts, where testimony and argument are not recorded. Section (a) is consistent with prior Washington law. Harmless evidentiary errors are disregarded. Primm v. Wockner, 56 Wn.2d 215, 351 P.2d 933 (1960). A timely objection or motion to strike is ordinarily necessary to seek appellate review of the admission of evidence. State v. James, 63 Wn.2d 71, 385 P.2d 558 (1963). In order to obtain appellate review of the exclusion of evidence, an offer of proof must be made which fairly advises the trial court whether the evidence is admissible. Northern State Construction v. Robbins, 76 Wn.2d 357, 457 P.2d 187 (1969). The procedure for objecting is defined by CR 46 and CrR 8.7.

Section (b). This section is the same as Federal Rule 103(b) except that the word "It" in the second sentence is changed to "The court" to improve readability. As a practical matter, the section is consistent with prior Washington law. The previous Washington rule, CR 43(c), provided that the court's statements about the character of the evidence had to be made in the absence of the jury. Although this mandatory provision is not found in rule 103, section (c) encourages the statements to be made in the absence of the jury, and this procedure would ordinarily be required in order to conform to the state constitutional prohibition against a judge commenting on the evidence. Const. art. 4, § 16.

Section (c). This section is the same as Federal Rule 103(c) and differs slightly from prior Washington law. The previous rule, CR 43(c), distinguishes between offers of proof and statements by the court. Under that rule, the court could, in its discretion, direct that an offer of proof be made in the absence of the jury, but a statement by the court as to the character of the evidence had to be made in the absence of the jury. Under rule 103(c), inadmissible evidence is to be kept from the jury "to the extent practicable."

The court's discretion under rule 103(c) must be exercised cautiously in light of the state constitutional prohibition against a judge commenting on the evidence. Const. art. 4, § 16.

Section (d). Federal Rule 103(d), Plain error, is deleted. The Washington Supreme Court recently codified the extent to which an error may be asserted for the first time in an appellate court. See RAP 2.5(a). Rule 103(d) defers to the Rules of Appellate Procedure and the decisions construing them.

To be distinguished is the extent to which counsel may acquiesce in a trial court ruling and then move for a new trial on the ground that the ruling was in error. That determination is made by reference not to the appellate rules but to the rules of civil and criminal procedure and decisional law. See, e.g., CR 46; CrR 8.7; Sherman v. Mobbs, 55 Wn.2d 202, 347 P.2d 189 (1959).

RULE 104

PRELIMINARY QUESTIONS

(a) Questions of Admissibility Generally. Preliminary questions concerning the qualification of a person to be a witness, the existence of a privilege, or the admissibility of evidence shall be determined by the court, subject to the provisions of section (b). In making its determination it is not bound by the rules of evidence except those with respect to privileges.

(b) Relevancy Conditioned on Fact. When the relevancy of evidence depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the court shall admit it upon, or subject to, the introduction of evidence sufficient to support a finding of the fulfillment of the condition.

(c) Hearing of Jury. Hearings on the admissibility of confessions shall in all cases be conducted out of the hearing of the jury. Hearings on other preliminary matters shall be so conducted when the interests of justice require or, when an accused is a witness, if he so requests.

(d) Testimony by Accused. The accused does not, by testifying upon a preliminary matter, subject himself to cross examination as to other issues in the case.

(e) Weight and Credibility. This rule does not limit the right of a party to introduce before the jury evidence relevant to weight or credibility.

Comment 104

Section (a). This section is the same as Federal Rule 104(a) and is consistent with prior Washington law. See RCW 4.44.080. The statute does not expressly say, as the rule does, that preliminary determinations are not subject to the rules of evidence, but this is the generally prevailing view. The civil and criminal rules for superior court, for example, authorize many preliminary determinations to be made on the basis of affidavits. See, e.g., CR 43(e) and CrR 2.3(c). The law with respect to privileged communications does apply to preliminary determinations. See also rule 1101. Thus, a privilege may not be violated even in a preliminary hearing to determine whether the privilege exists.

The proceedings to which the rules of evidence do, and do not, apply are discussed in more detail in the comment to rule 1101.

Section (b). This section is the same as Federal Rule 104(b) and defines a procedure for handling the situation in which a party wishes to prove fact A, but fact A is relevant only if fact B is established. The order of proof under this rule, as generally, is determined by the judge. Rule 611. The court, in its discretion, may decide whether to hear evidence of fact A or B first, taking into account the relative prejudice of having the jury hear one rather than the other if the proponent fails to offer evidence of one of them sufficient to warrant a finding of its truth. Because of this danger of prejudice, the rule should be used with caution, especially in criminal cases.

The rule is substantially in accord with previous Washington law. See State v. Whetstone, 30 Wn.2d 301, 191 P.2d 818 (1948); 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 1 (1965 & Supp.).

Section (c). This section is the same as Federal Rule 104(c). In a criminal case, a hearing on the admissibility of a confession is constitutionally required to be conducted in the absence of the jury. Jackson v. Denno, 378 U.S. 368 (1964). The rule further provides that the accused, as a witness, is entitled on request to have any preliminary hearing conducted in the absence of the jury. In other situations, and in civil cases, the judge has discretion to decide whether the interests of justice require preliminary matters to be considered in the absence of the jury. Accord, Gilcher v. Seattle Elec. Co., 82 Wash. 414, 144 P. 530 (1914).

Section (d). This section is the same as Federal Rule 104(d) and is consistent with prior Washington law. It is designed to encourage participation by the accused in the determination of preliminary matter. Portions of the subject matter of rule 104 are covered in superior court by CrR 3.5(b), a more detailed rule. CrR 3.5 is not superseded by rule 104. The rules are not in conflict, and both apply in superior court. Neither rule prevents cross examination of the accused as to credibility at a preliminary hearing. See Weinstein's Evidence § 104[10] (1975).

Rule 104 does not address itself to questions of the subsequent use of testimony given by an accused at a preliminary hearing. See Walder v. United States, 347 U.S. 62 (1954); Simmons v. United States, 390 U.S. 377 (1968); Harris v. New York, 401 U.S. 222 (1971). In superior court, CrR 3.5(b) restricts the use of preliminary testimony in some respects.

Section (e). This section is the same as Federal Rule 104(e) and is consistent with prior Washington law. See CrR 3.5, discussed above.

RULE 105

LIMITED ADMISSIBILITY

When evidence which is admissible as to one party or for one purpose but not admissible as to another party or for another purpose is admitted, the court, upon request, shall restrict the evidence to its proper scope and instruct the jury accordingly.

Comment 105

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 105 and should be read together with rule 403, which provides that evidence may be excluded, although relevant, if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, undue delay, or the like. These rules are consistent with prior Washington law. See State v. Stevenson, 16 Wn. App. 341, 555 P.2d 1004 (1976) and State v. Goebel, 36 Wn.2d 367, 218 P.2d 300 (1950).

The rules neither imply that limiting instructions are sufficient in all situations nor restrict the court's authority to order a severance in a multidefendant case. The availability and effectiveness of these practices must be taken into consideration in deciding whether to exclude evidence under rule 403. In Bruton v. United States, 389 U.S. 818 (1968), the court ruled that a limiting instruction did not effectively protect the accused against the prejudicial effect of admitting in evidence the confession of a codefendant which implicated him.

REMAINDER OF OR RELATED WRITINGS OR RECORDED STATEMENTS

When a writing or recorded statement or part thereof is introduced by a party, an adverse party may require the party at that time to introduce any other part, or any other writing or recorded statement, which ought in fairness to be considered contemporaneously with it.

Comment 106

This rule is substantially the same as Federal Rule 106. In the Washington rule, commas were added between the words "part" and "or" and between "statement" and "which". The added punctuation insures that the phrase "which ought in fairness" is read as modifying all of the nouns ("part . . . writing . . . statement") which precede it. The word "him" has been changed to "the party".

Existing Washington rules, CR 32(b) and 33(b), provide that the rules of evidence apply with respect to the admission of depositions and interrogatories. The drafters of Federal Rule 106 considered a number of suggestions to include language in the rule indicating that the other rules of evidence apply. The language was not included in the final draft, not because the other rules did not apply, but because the drafters thought such a provision would be surplusage. Weinstein's Evidence, § 106[01] (1975). Thus, the rules of evidence apply to the admission of any additional evidence under rule 106, and irrelevant portions of documents remain inadmissible under this rule.

JUDICIAL NOTICE

RULE 201

JUDICIAL NOTICE OF ADJUDICATIVE FACTS

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule governs only judicial notice of adjudicative facts.

(b) Kinds of Facts. A judicially noticed fact must be one not subject to reasonable dispute in that it is either (1) generally known within the territorial jurisdiction of the trial court or (2) capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

(c) When Discretionary. A court may take judicial notice, whether requested or not.

(d) When Mandatory. A court shall take judicial notice if requested by a party and supplied with the necessary information.

(e) Opportunity To Be Heard. A party is entitled upon timely request to an opportunity to be heard as to the propriety of taking judicial notice and the tenor of the matter noticed. In the absence of prior notification, the request may be made after judicial notice has been taken.

(f) Time of Taking Notice. Judicial notice may be taken at any stage of the proceeding.

Comment 201

The rule is the same as Federal Rule 201(a) through (f). Federal Rule 201(g), Instructing Jury, is deleted.

Prior Washington law has not offered a comprehensive theory of judicial notice. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 591 (1965 & Supp.) (hereinafter cited Meisenholder). Rule 201 establishes a coherent theoretical basis for the taking of judicial notice of adjudicative facts.

Section (a). The rule applies only to judicial notice of "adjudicative facts" as distinguished from "legislative facts". An adjudicative fact is the "what-happened", "who-did-what-and-when" kind of question that normally goes to a jury. It seems reasonable to require, as the rule does, that a judicially noticed adjudicative fact must be one not subject to reasonable dispute. Legislative facts are those a court takes into account in determining the constitutionality or interpretation of a statute or the extension or restriction of a common law rule upon grounds of policy. They will often hinge on social, economic, or political facts not generally known by intelligent people or readily determinable by resort to sources of unquestioned accuracy. See 2 K. Davis, Administrative Law

Treatise 353 (1958). Section (a) excludes legislative facts from the operation of the rule.

The determination of foreign law is governed by CR 44.1 and RCW 5.24.

Section (b). This section requires that a judicially noticed fact must not be subject to reasonable dispute and that it must be either generally known in the area or readily found in noncontroversial references.

For purposes of judicial notice, no distinction between adjudicative and legislative facts has been recognized in prior Washington law. Washington opinions have stated that courts may take judicial notice of facts which are within the common knowledge of the community and facts which are capable of certain verification by reference to competent authoritative sources. Rogstad v. Rogstad, 74 Wn.2d 736, 446 P.2d 340 (1968). See Meisenholder § 592, 593. This is consistent with rule 201(b) and adoption of the rule does little to change the kinds of adjudicative facts which may be judicially noticed in Washington. Judicial notice of legislative facts continues to be governed by previous Washington law.

Sections (c) and (d). Under section (c), the court has discretionary authority to take judicial notice, regardless of whether it is requested by a party. The taking of judicial notice is mandatory under section (d) only when a party requests it and the necessary information is supplied. No procedure is specified to determine what types of information may be considered, and from what sources; nor is the process of evaluation defined. These matters are, however, often defined by statute.

A number of statutes require the taking of judicial notice in specific instances. See, for example, RCW 4.36.090 (private statutes); RCW 4.36.110 (any ordinance of a city or town in Washington); RCW 5.24.010 (constitution, common law, and statutes of every state, territory, and other jurisdiction of the United States); RCW 28B.19.070 (rules for higher education); RCW 34.04.050(6) (rules of state agencies); RCW 35.03.050 (certain city charters); RCW 35.06.070 (existence of incorporated cities); RCW 35.22.110 (charters of first class cities); RCW 35A.08.120 (certain city charters); RCW 49.48.040 (seal of the Department of Labor and Industries of the State of Washington); RCW 49.60.080 (seal of state board against discrimination); RCW 50.12.010 (seal of the employment security commissioner); RCW 51.52.010 (seal of the board of industrial insurance appeals); and RCW 61.12.060 (economic conditions—discretionary with court).

The statutes cited are not in conflict with rule 201 and are not superseded. To the extent that a statute applies to legislative facts, the rule does not apply at all. To the extent that a statute applies to adjudicative facts, the statute states a more specific requirement than the more general process of broad applicability defined in the rule.

As a general rule, a court may take judicial notice of court records in the same case, but not records of a different case. This rule and certain exceptions are discussed in Meisenholder § 594.

Section (e). Basic considerations of procedural fairness require an opportunity to be heard on the propriety of taking judicial notice and the tenor of the matter noticed. The rule provides this opportunity on request. If a party has received no prior notification that judicial notice will be taken, a request to be heard may be made after judicial notice has been taken. No formal procedure for giving notice is defined.

There has been no prior Washington authority for the proposition stated in rule 201(e), but an opportunity to be heard may often have been accorded as a matter of practice. Meisenholder § 597.

Section (f). Section (f) appears to be consistent with prior Washington law. There are no decisions authorizing any particular practices or procedures for raising questions of whether particular facts should be judicially noticed. However, it seems beyond dispute that judicial notice may, under appropriate circumstances, be taken by appellate courts. See Meisenholder § 596.

Federal Rule 201(g). Instructing jury, is deleted. That rule provides:

(g) Instructing jury. In a civil action or proceeding, the court shall instruct the jury to accept as conclusive any fact judicially noticed. In a criminal case, the court shall instruct the jury that it may, but is not required to, accept as conclusive any fact judicially noticed.

Article 4, section 16 of the Washington Constitution prohibits the court from charging the jury with respect to disputed matters of fact. See Hansen v. Wightman, 14 Wn. App. 78, 538 P.2d 1283 (1975) for a recent discussion of this provision. The drafters of the Washington rules felt that a literal application of the federal rule may be unconstitutional in some circumstances. The state of Nevada, in promulgating rules of evidence based on the federal rules, felt bound by a similar provision in its constitution to omit Federal Rule 201(g).

The drafters of the Washington rules felt that the court must be given more discretion, both with respect to whether to receive evidence contrary to a judicially noticed fact, and with respect to the manner of instructing the jury. Recognizing the difficulty of codifying a procedure which would be constitutional in every case, the drafters felt that the constitutional requirement would be better served by deleting the rule and permitting the courts to fashion a constitutional procedure on a case-by-case basis.

TITLE 3

PRESUMPTIONS IN CIVIL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS

RULE 301

PRESUMPTIONS IN GENERAL IN CIVIL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS

[RESERVED]

Comment 301

An earlier draft proposed by the task force and tentatively approved by the Judicial Council included rule 301, titled Presumptions in General in Civil Actions and Proceedings. The proposed rule was the same as Federal Rule 301 and read as follows:

In all civil actions and proceedings not otherwise provided for by statute or by these rules, a presumption imposes on the party against whom it is directed the burden of going forward with evidence to rebut or meet the presumption, but does not shift to such party the burden of proof in the sense of the risk of nonpersuasion, which remains throughout the trial upon the party on whom it was originally cast.

On reconsideration, the Judicial Council decided to delete the proposed rule from its draft. This decision was based primarily on the fact that the federal courts have not yet developed a uniform practice under the rule, and that we would, in effect, be adopting a rule without knowing its intended application in practice. The Council was particularly concerned about the rule's effect upon "enhanced" presumptions which can be overcome only by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence. The commentators do not agree upon the intended effect of the federal rule in this regard. Some Judicial Council members also expressed the belief that presumptions were beyond the Supreme Court's rulemaking authority.

The Judicial Council recommends that this rule be reserved, and that it be the subject of further study.

RULE 302

APPLICABILITY OF STATE LAW IN CIVIL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS

[RESERVED]

Comment 302

The drafters of the Washington rules deleted Federal Rule 302, Applicability of State Law in Civil Actions and Proceedings. That rule would not apply to proceedings in a state court. The converse of Federal Rule 302—the extent to which federal law applies in state court—is determined by reference to the law of preemption and would not appropriately be defined by a state court rule.

TITLE 4

RELEVANCY AND ITS LIMITS

RULE 401

DEFINITION OF "RELEVANT EVIDENCE"

"Relevant evidence" means evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence.

Comment 401

Rule 401 is the same as Federal Rule 401. Although the terminology in some decisions differs from that of the rule, the Washington view of relevancy remains substantially unaltered by rule 401. See 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 1 (1965 & Supp.).

RULE 402

RELEVANT EVIDENCE GENERALLY ADMISSIBLE; IRRELEVANT EVIDENCE INADMISSIBLE

All relevant evidence is admissible, except as limited by constitutional requirements or as otherwise provided by statute, by these rules, or by other rules or regulations applicable in the courts of this state. Evidence which is not relevant is not admissible.

Comment 402

The rule is substantially the same as Federal Rule 402 and is consistent with previous Washington law. See 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 1 (1965). Federal Rule 402 defers to the United States Constitution and Acts of Congress. Washington rule 402 defers generally to statutes, regulations, and rules which make relevant evidence inadmissible.

The rule's deference to other codified law making relevant evidence inadmissible applies generally throughout the rules in Title 4. For example, in rape cases, RCW 9.79.150 defines detailed restrictions upon disclosure of the victim's past sexual behavior. The statute prevails over conflicting provisions in rule 404.

RULE 403

EXCLUSION OF RELEVANT EVIDENCE ON GROUNDS OF PREJUDICE, CONFUSION, OR WASTE OF TIME

Although relevant, evidence may be excluded if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or misleading the jury, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence.

Comment 403

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 403 and is consistent with previous Washington law. See State v. Stevenson, 16 Wn. App. 341, 555 P.2d 1004 (1976).

It is recognized that certain circumstances call for the exclusion of evidence which is of unquestioned relevance. The rule lists six safeguards by which the trial judge may, in the exercise of discretion, exclude evidence even though it is relevant.

The rule does not specify surprise as a ground of exclusion, following Wigmore's view of the common law. 6 Wigmore § 1849. The Advisory Committee Note to Federal Rule 403 observes that claims of unfair surprise may still be justified in some cases despite procedural requirements of notice and the availability of discovery, but that the granting of a continuance is a more appropriate remedy than exclusion of the evidence.

In deciding whether to exclude evidence on grounds of unfair prejudice, consideration should be given to the probable effectiveness or lack of effectiveness of a limiting instruction. The availability of other means of proof may also be an appropriate factor. These procedural factors may favor admission or exclusion, depending on the circumstances.

RULE 404

CHARACTER EVIDENCE NOT ADMISSIBLE TO PROVE CONDUCT; EXCEPTIONS; OTHER CRIMES

(a) Character Evidence Generally. Evidence of a person's character or a trait of his character is not admissible for the purpose of proving that he acted in conformity therewith on a particular occasion, except:

(1) Character of Accused. Evidence of a pertinent trait of his character offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same;

(2) Character of Victim. Evidence of a pertinent trait of character of the victim of the crime offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same, or evidence of a character trait of peacefulness of the victim offered by the prosecution in a homicide case to rebut evidence that the victim was the first aggressor;

(3) Character of Witness. Evidence of the character of a witness, as provided in rules 607, 608, and 609.

(b) Other Crimes, Wrongs, or Acts. Evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts is not admissible to prove the character of a person in order to show that he acted in conformity therewith. It may, however, be admissible for other purposes, such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake or accident.

Comment 404

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 404 and conforms substantially to previous Washington law.

Section (a). Section (a) deals with the question whether character evidence should be admitted to prove that a person acted in conformity therewith on a particular occasion. This use of character evidence is often called "circumstantial". The basic premise is that circumstantial character evidence is inadmissible unless it falls within one of the three exceptions. Once the admissibility of character evidence in some form is established under this rule, reference must then be made to rule 405 in order to determine the appropriate method of proof. If the character is that of a witness, rules 608 and 609 provide methods of proof.

To be distinguished are cases in which a person's character is "in issue". The admissibility of character evidence as proof of a material element is governed by rule 405, not rule 404.

Rule 404 does not permit the admission of circumstantial character evidence in civil cases. Under rules 404 and 405, evidence of character is admissible in a civil case only if the person's character is actually in issue. Previous Washington law is in accord. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. §§ 2, 3 (1965 & Supp.) [hereinafter cited Meisenholder].

Under rule 404(a)(1), the accused in a criminal case may introduce evidence of his good character. Accord, State v. Arine, 182 Wash. 697, 48 P.2d 249 (1935). The evidence must be directed toward a trait of character which is pertinent to rebut the nature of the charge against the defendant. State v. Schuman, 89 Wash. 9, 153 P. 1084 (1915). A character witness for the accused is limited by rule 405(a) to testimony as to the reputation of the accused. Neither rules 404 and 405 nor previous Washington law permit the accused to demonstrate his good character by having a witness testify as to specific instances of good conduct by the accused. 2 Weinstein's Evidence § 405[04] at 405-39 (1976); Meisenholder § 4, at 21 n.7.

If the accused introduces evidence of good character under rule 404(a)(1), the prosecution may rebut the evidence either by testimony from the prosecutor's own witnesses or by cross-examining the accused's witnesses. 2 Weinstein's Evidence § 404[04] at 404-25 (1976). Rebuttal testimony by the prosecution's witnesses is limited under rule 405(a) to the reputation of the accused, but the prosecutor may inquire into specific instances of conduct on cross examination of the witnesses for the accused. Weinstein's Evidence, at 405-20. Prior Washington law is in accord. Meisenholder § 4, at 22 n.15, and 23 n.20.

Rule 404(a)(2) admits evidence of the character of the victim in a criminal case under certain circumstances. Previous Washington law is substantially in accord with the rule. Where there is an issue of self-defense, the accused may show the victim was the first aggressor by character evidence of the victim's reputation for violent disposition or for using deadly weapons in quarrels or fights. Meisenholder § 4 at 24. Evidence of specific acts or conduct is inadmissible to show the character of the victim, but it may be admissible for the limited purpose of showing whether the accused had a reasonable apprehension of danger from the victim. State v. Walker, 13 Wn. App. 545, 536 P.2d 657 (1975). In rebuttal, the prosecution may show the victim's good character for the pertinent trait, but only after the defendant has attacked that good reputation. Meisenholder § 4 at 25.

In rape cases, RCW 9.79.150 defines detailed restrictions upon disclosure of the victim's past sexual behavior. By the terms of rule 402, the statute prevails over conflicting provisions in rule 404. See the comment to rule 402.

Section (b). Evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts is not admissible to prove character as a basis for suggesting that conduct on a particular occasion was in conformity with it. The evidence may, however, be offered for another purpose such as proof of motive or opportunity. The court must determine whether the danger of undue prejudice outweighs the probative value of the evidence, in view of the availability of other means of proof and other factors. Slough & Knightly, Other Vices, Other Crimes, 41 Iowa L. Rev. 325 (1956). Previous Washington law is in accord. See State v. Whalon, 1 Wn. App. 785, 464 P.2d 730 (1970).

The fact that section (b) uses the discretionary word "may" does not confer arbitrary discretion on the trial judge. Whether evidence is admissible under this section is determined by reference to the considerations set forth in rule 403. Federal Rule 404, Report of the House Committee on the Judiciary. Although the words "crimes, wrongs, or acts" are deliberately imprecise, a number of recent decisions indicate that evidence of this sort should be admitted with extreme caution to avoid prejudice against the defendant, particularly when admitting acts which are not unlawful but which may tend to disparage the defendant. In State v. Draper, 10 Wn. App. 802, 521 P.2d 53 (1974), the court held that in a prosecution for delivery of a controlled substance, it was prejudicial error to admit evidence of a perhaps unusual amount of prescription drugs, lawfully in the defendant's possession. The error may be prejudicial even though the judge has instructed the jury to disregard the evidence of other conduct. State v. Miles, 73 Wn.2d 67, 436 P.2d 198 (1968). These and other decisions are collected and discussed in Meisenholder § 4 (1975 Supp.).

RULE 405

METHODS OF PROVING CHARACTER

(a) Reputation. In all cases in which evidence of character or a trait of character of a person is admissible, proof may be made by testimony as to reputation. On cross examination, inquiry is allowable into relevant specific instances of conduct.

(b) Specific Instances of Conduct. In cases in which character or a trait of character of a person is an essential element of a charge, claim, or defense, proof may also be made of specific instances of his conduct.

Comment 405

For a discussion of the relationship between this rule and rule 404, see the comment to rule 404.

Section (a). This section differs from Federal Rule 405 in that the Washington rule does not permit proof of character by testimony in the form of an opinion. Previous Washington law has not permitted the introduction of opinion testimony to prove a person's character. Thompson-Cadillac Co. v. Matthews, 173 Wash. 353, 23 P.2d 399 (1933); Johansen v. Pioneer Mining Co., 77 Wash. 421, 137 P. 1019 (1914); 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 4 (1965 & Supp.). The drafters of the Washington rule felt that the policy established by decisional law was preferable to that of the federal rule.

On a practical level, the drafters were convinced that weaknesses in such opinion testimony cannot be exposed except with difficulty by cross examination of the witness, and that challenges to the witness' answers on cross examination by extrinsic evidence may not be completely realistic and that it may in effect disguise the opinion of the witness who testifies to reputation. However, again on a practical level, it seems preferable to opinion testimony, because it can much more easily and clearly be tested by cross examination of the witness.

References to opinion testimony were similarly deleted from rule 608.

Section (b). This section is the same as Federal Rule 405(b) and appears to be consistent with existing Washington law. See Johansen v. Pioneer Mining Co., 77 Wash. 421, 137 P. 1019 (1914); Meisenholder §§ 2, 4.

In rape cases RCW 9.79.150 defines in detail the extent to which the victim's past behavior is admissible and the procedure for seeking its admission. By the terms of rule 402, the statute prevails over inconsistent provisions in rule 405.

RULE 406

HABIT; ROUTINE PRACTICE

Evidence of the habit of a person or of the routine practice of an organization, whether corroborated or not and regardless of the presence of eyewitnesses, is relevant to prove that the conduct of the person or organization on a particular occasion was in conformity with the habit or routine practice.

Comment 406

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 406. The rule recognizes the relevancy of a person's habit or the routine practice of an organization in proving that conduct on a particular occasion was in conformity with the habit or routine practice. Rule 404 states the general rule that evidence of a person's character or a trait of his character is not admissible for the purpose of proving that he acted in conformity therewith on a particular occasion. Why should habit be treated differently under rule 406? The rationale is that habit describes one's regular response to a repeated specific situation so that doing the habitual act becomes semi-automatic. It is the notion of the invariable regularity that gives habit evidence its probative force. Although the rule does not define habit, the Advisory Committee Note to Federal Rule 406 contains a quote from McCormick describing habitual behavior as "consisting of semi-automatic, almost involuntary and invariable specific responses to fairly specific stimuli."

It is not clear to what extent the rule changes previous Washington law. There are cases contrary to the rule, particularly where the evidence bears on the issue of negligence. Rossier v. Payne, 125 Wash. 155, 215 P. 366 (1923); State v. Lewis, 37 Wn.2d 540, 255 P.2d 428 (1950). In a recent case arising out of an automobile accident, the defendant sought to introduce testimony to the effect that the plaintiff was always a fast driver and always drove recklessly. The Court of Appeals affirmed the trial judge's refusal to admit the testimony, saying that it was irrelevant to the issue of whether the recklessness or speed of the plaintiff was the cause of the particular accident in issue. Breimon v. General Motors Corp., 8 Wn. App. 747, 509 P.2d 398 (1973).

Rule 406, however, appears to clarify Washington law rather than to significantly change it. Despite the cases cited above, evidence of habit has been held properly admitted in a number of cases collected in 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 6 (1965 & Supp.). Evidence offered under this rule could, of course, still be excluded if the court determined that the conduct sought to be shown did not reach the level of habit or routine practice.

SUBSEQUENT REMEDIAL MEASURES

When, after an event, measures are taken which, if taken previously, would have made the event less likely to occur, evidence of the subsequent measures is not admissible to prove negligence or culpable conduct in connection with the event. This rule does not require the exclusion of evidence of subsequent measures when offered for another purpose, such as proving ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measures, if controverted, or impeachment.

Comment 407

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 407 and is consistent with previous Washington law.

The rule of exclusion has been applied to evidence introduced on the question of liability. Cochran v. Harrison Mem. Hosp., 42 Wn.2d 264, 254 P.2d 752 (1953). Washington courts have justified the principle on the ground that such evidence is irrelevant, Alread v. Northern Pac. Ry. Co., 93 Wash. 209, 160 P. 429 (1916), and that it is contrary to the policy of encouraging safety measures to admit such evidence. Carter v. Seattle, 21 Wash. 585, 59 P. 500 (1899).

The rule bars evidence to prove "negligence or culpable conduct." It has been held that a virtually identical California statute is inapplicable to a products liability case in which the manufacturer is alleged to be strictly liable for placing a defective product on the market. Ault v. Int'l Harvester Co., 13 Cal. 3d 113, 117 Cal. Rptr. 812, 528 P.2d 1148 (1975). But see Smyth v. Upjohn Co., 529 F.2d 803 (2d Cir. 1975) to the contrary.

The Washington cases are consistent with the rule in admitting evidence of subsequent remedial measures for purposes other than proving liability. The rule cites as examples proving ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measures, or impeachment. In Washington, see Hatcher v. Globe Union Mfg. Co., 170 Wash. 494, 16 P.2d 824 (1932), Brown v. Quick Mix Co., 75 Wn.2d 833, 454 P.2d 205 (1969) on feasibility of precautionary measures; Peterson v. King County, 41 Wn.2d 907, 252 P.2d 797 (1953) on nature of conditions existing at time of incident; Cochran v. Harrison Mem. Hosp., supra, dictum on issue of control of an instrumentality.

Under rule 407, the permissible "other purpose" must be controverted in order to avoid the introduction of evidence under false pretenses. The evidence must be relevant as proof upon the actual issues in the case. See 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 10 (1965).

COMPROMISE AND OFFERS TO COMPROMISE

Evidence of (1) furnishing or offering or promising to furnish, or (2) accepting or offering or promising to accept a valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise a claim which was disputed as to either validity or amount, is not admissible to prove liability for or invalidity of the claim or its amount. Evidence of conduct or statements made in compromise negotiations is likewise not admissible. This rule does not require exclusion of any evidence otherwise discoverable merely because it is presented in the course of compromise negotiations. This rule also does not require exclusion when the evidence is offered for another purpose, such as proving bias or prejudice of a witness, negating a contention of undue delay, or proving an effort to obstruct a criminal investigation or prosecution.

Comment 408

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 408 and changes Washington case law only with respect to the admissibility of statements made in compromise negotiations.

The first sentence codifies the common law rule that evidence of an offer to compromise a claim is inadmissible to prove liability or lack thereof. It is consistent with previous Washington law. See Eagle Ins. Co. v. Albright, 3 Wn. App. 256, 474 P.2d 920 (1970). The foundation of the rule in Washington, as in the federal rules, is the policy favoring compromise and settlement of disputes. Berliner v. Greenberg, 37 Wn.2d 308, 223 P.2d 598 (1950).

The second sentence of the rule changed federal law by making evidence of conduct or statements made in compromise negotiations inadmissible. Compare Factor v. Commissioner, 281 F.2d 100 (9th Cir. 1960). Similarly in Washington, the conduct or statements have been allowed in evidence as admissions of a party opponent, Romano Eng'r Corp. v. State, 8 Wn.2d 670, 113 P.2d 670, 113 P.2d 649 (1941), unless the statement of fact is expressly made without prejudice. Wagner v. Peshastin Lumber Co., 149 Wash. 328, 270 P. 1032 (1928).

By contrast, rule 408 makes the evidence inadmissible and is based on the policy of promoting complete freedom of communication in compromise negotiations. Parties are encouraged to make whatever admissions may lead to a successful compromise without sacrificing portions of their case in the event such efforts fail. The rule avoids the generation of controversy over whether a statement was within or without the area of compromise negotiations.

The rule also provides that the exclusionary rule applies only to claims disputed as to validity or amount. There has been no previous authority on this issue in Washington. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 9 (1965 & Supp.).

The third sentence, relating to evidence otherwise discoverable, was added by Congress to the Supreme Court draft of the federal rules. The sentence clarifies the dual objective of rule 408 to encourage compromise and to prevent immunization of evidence merely because it is presented in the course of compromise negotiations. 10 Moore's Federal Practice § 408.06 (1976). A party may not use rule 408 as a screen for curtailing the opposing party's rights to discovery. 2 Weinstein's Evidence § 408[01] (1976). The Senate Report on Rule 408 suggests, for example, that documents disclosed in compromise negotiations are not thereby insulated from discovery. The Conference Report makes it clear that this provision applies to factual evidence as well.

The fourth sentence is consistent with previous Washington law admitting evidence of compromise and offers of compromise when offered for some purpose other than liability. Meisenholder § 9. See Matteson v. Ziebarth, 40 Wn.2d 286, 242 P.2d 1025 (1952) (to prove lack of good faith where good faith in issue); Robinson v. Hill, 60 Wash. 615, 111 P. 871 (1910) (to prove employer-employee relationship). Settlement agreements may be introduced where breach is the issue, or to show bias or interest of witnesses. Meisenholder § 9. The word "negating" is substituted for "negating," the word used in the federal rule. This is only an improvement in style. No substantive change is intended.

RULE 409

PAYMENT OF MEDICAL AND SIMILAR EXPENSES

Evidence of furnishing or offering or promising to pay medical, hospital, or similar expenses occasioned by an injury is not admissible to prove liability for the injury.

Comment 409

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 409 and is consistent with previous Washington law. See Libee v. Handy, 163 Wash. 410, 1 P.2d 312 (1931). RCW 5.64.010 is consistent with the rule and is not superseded.

RULE 410

INADMISSIBILITY OF PLEAS, OFFERS OF PLEAS, AND RELATED STATEMENTS

Except as otherwise provided in this rule, evidence of a plea of guilty, later withdrawn, or a plea of nolo contendere, or of an offer to plead guilty or nolo contendere to the crime charged or any other crime, or of statements made in connection with, and relevant to, any of the foregoing pleas or offers, is not admissible in any civil or criminal proceeding against the person who made the plea or offer. However, evidence of a statement made in connection with, and relevant to, a plea of guilty, later withdrawn, a plea of nolo contendere, or an offer to plead guilty or nolo contendere to the crime charged or any other crime, is admissible in a criminal proceeding for perjury or false statement if the statement was made by the defendant under oath and in the presence of counsel. This rule does not govern the admissibility of evidence of a deferred sentence imposed under RCW 3.66.067 or RCW 9.95.200-240.

Comment 410

This rule is substantially the same as Federal Rule 410 and changes previous Washington law in some respects. Prior to rule 410, offers to compromise criminal actions have not been privileged against disclosure. State v. Bixby, 27 Wn.2d 144, 177 P.2d 689 (1947). Rule 410 makes withdrawn guilty pleas, pleas of nolo contendere, and statements made in connection with offers to compromise criminal actions inadmissible even for impeachment, in any proceeding against the person making the plea or statement. 8 Moore's Federal Practice § 11.08[2]. The only exception is that a statement may be used in a criminal proceeding for perjury or false statement, and then only if the statement was made by the defendant under oath and in the presence of counsel. A third requirement in the federal rule, that the statement be made on the record, is not included in the proposed Washington rule. This omission is necessary because the rules apply in courts, such as district court, where no formal record of the proceedings is kept.

"Perjury" and "false statement" are used generically in the rule to refer to crimes of that nature, regardless of their designations in the criminal code or other applicable statutes.

To admit a withdrawn guilty plea into evidence would frustrate the purpose of allowing the withdrawal and would place the accused in a dilemma inconsistent with the decision to award him a trial. Withdrawn pleas of guilty have long been inadmissible in federal prosecutions. Kercheval v. United States, 274 U.S. 220 (1927). Rule 410 conforms to this practice. The provisions making offers to compromise inadmissible are designed to encourage the disposition of criminal cases by compromise.

The rule similarly makes pleas of nolo contendere inadmissible. This plea is not recognized in Washington, and rule 410 does not create the right to a plea of nolo contendere. See CrR 4.2(a). The rule would apply only to a plea in a jurisdiction which permits the plea, entered by a person later involved in proceedings in a Washington court.

The rule protects from disclosure only statements "made in connection with, and relevant to" the plea or offer. The rule should not be interpreted as barring admission of statements made to police officers during the early stages of investigation, before an indictment or information is filed. Weinstein's Evidence § 410[07] (1975). Nor are statements made as a result of a plea bargain necessarily inadmissible. In Hutto v. Ross, 429 U.S. 28, 97 S. Ct. 202, 50 L. Ed. 2d 194 (1976), the defendant had entered into a plea bargain. Two weeks later he confessed to the crime charged. He subsequently withdrew from the bargain and demanded a trial. The Court held the confession admissible, so long as it was voluntary and the defendant knew he could have enforced the bargain whether he confessed or not.

Similarly, the rule probably does not bar the admission of evidence derived as a result of a statement which is inadmissible under rule 410. Suppose that the defendant accepts the prosecutor's offer to accept a guilty plea to a lesser offense if the defendant discloses the location of stolen property. The property is retrieved. The defendant later withdraws the plea and demands a trial. Although no cases directly in point have been found, rule 410 would not appear to bar the use of the property at trial as evidence of the defendant's guilt.

A final sentence was added to the federal rule to provide that the rule does not govern the admission or exclusion of evidence of a deferred sentence. That determination is made by reference to the statutes cited in the rule, the decisions construing them, and in some instances, constitutional principles. See also 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac., Evidence §§ 9, 300, 421, and 423.

RULE 411

LIABILITY INSURANCE

Evidence that a person was or was not insured against liability is not admissible upon the issue whether he acted negligently or otherwise wrongfully. This rule does not require the exclusion of evidence of insurance against liability when offered for another purpose, such as proof of agency, ownership, or control, or bias or prejudice of a witness.

Comment 411

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 411 and is consistent with previous Washington law.

The rule is broadly drafted to include contributory and comparative negligence or other fault of the plaintiff as well as fault of a defendant. Like rules 407 and 408, rule 411 allows the evidence if offered for a purpose other than determining fault, such as proof of agency, ownership, or control, or bias or prejudice of a witness.

"It is undoubtedly the general rule in this state, in personal injury cases, that the fact that the defendant carries liability insurance is entirely immaterial on the main issue of liability . . ." Williams v. Hofer, 30 Wn.2d 253, 191 P.2d 306 (1948).

Existing Washington law is consistent with the rule in admitting evidence of liability insurance for purposes other than a determination of liability. See Robinson v. Hill, 60 Wash. 615, 11 P. 871 (1910), on issue of agency; Jerdal v. Sinclair, 54 Wn.2d 565, 342 P.2d 585 (1959) on issue of ownership of automobile; Moy Quon v. M. Furaya Co., 81 Wash. 526, 143 P. 99 (1914), on issue of bias or prejudice of witness.

With respect to the plaintiff's insurance coverage, it seems probable that the fact that plaintiff is so covered is inadmissible. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 8 (1965 & Supp.), citing Rich v. Campbell, 164 Wash. 393, 2 P.2d 886 (1931). This is in accord with the rule, as is the prohibition against defendant's introduction of evidence that he does not have liability insurance. King v. Starr, 43 Wn.2d 115, 260 P.2d 351 (1953).

The rule does not affect the view that if the mention of insurance is inadvertent and it appears that neither the attorney nor the witness deliberately raised the subject, a mistrial will not be granted. See, e.g., Williams v. Hofer, 30 Wn.2d 253, 191 P.2d 306 (1948). The reference to insurance may, on motion, be stricken and the jury instructed to disregard it. Meisenholder § 8.

TITLE 5

PRIVILEGES

RULE 501

GENERAL RULE

[RESERVED]

Comment 501

Rule 501, which in the federal rules relates to privileged communications, is deleted. The practical effect of Federal Rule 501 is that (1) the federal law of privilege applies in federal criminal cases; (2) the federal law of privilege applies to civil actions unless state law supplies the rule of decision for a claim or defense, or for an element of a claim or defense; and (3) the state law of privilege applies when state law also supplies the rule of decision (e.g., diversity cases). The rule is addressed to choice-of-law problems unique to the federal courts and has no utility at the state level.

Much of the law of privileged communications in Washington is statutory. Although the statutes lack the detail codified in certain other jurisdictions, many details can be determined by reference to decisional law. These statutes and decisions interpreting them remain the law under the Washington Rules of Evidence. The drafters of the Washington rules felt that privileges are established in order to protect a specific relationship or interest as a matter of public policy. Evidentiary privileges pertaining to confidential communications foster interests or relationships determined to be of sufficient social importance that nondisclosure of the communication is considered an acceptable cost even though consideration of the testimony would aid in the determination of the truth in the course of litigation. The Legislature is equipped to make the policy determinations underlying the creation of evidentiary privileges. Thus, privileges are ordinarily more appropriately created by statute than by procedural rule.

TITLE 6

WITNESSES

RULE 601

GENERAL RULE OF COMPETENCY

Every person is competent to be a witness except as otherwise provided by statute or by court rule.

Comment 601

This rule differs significantly from Federal Rule 601. The federal rule eliminates all grounds of incompetency not specifically recognized in the succeeding rules in Title 6. Included among the grounds abolished are religious belief, conviction of a crime, and interest in the litigation. No mental or moral qualifications are specified. The drafters of the Washington rules felt that the subjects covered in Title 6 are, in many cases, adequately covered by existing statutes and rules which have become familiar to the members of the bench and bar. Accordingly, rule 601 defers to other statutes and rules defining grounds for incompetence. The grounds for incompetence defined in Title 6 supplement those found in existing statutes and rules.

Civil Cases. Washington statutory law is more restrictive than the federal rules. The basic statutory provision on competence is RCW 5.60.020: "Every person of sound mind, suitable age and discretion, except as hereinafter provided, may be a witness in any action, or proceeding." This statute is supplemented by RCW 5.60.050 which specifies those who are incompetent to testify: "those who are of unsound mind, or intoxicated at the time of their production for examination and children under ten years of age, who appear incapable of receiving just impressions of the facts, respecting which they are examined, or of relating them truly."

The statutory provisions requiring that a witness be of sound mind have been interpreted as being a codification of the common law rule as to mental capacity. A person will be held competent to testify if he understands the nature of an oath and is capable of giving a correct account of what he has seen and heard. State v. Morrison, 43 Wn.2d 23, 259 P.2d 1105 (1953).

The trial judge has wide discretion in determining the competency of a child as a witness. There is a presumption that a child over ten years of age is competent to testify. For children under ten years of age the test is fairly explicit. "Where it appears that a child has sufficient intelligence to receive just impressions concerning which he is to testify, has sufficient capacity to relate them correctly and has received sufficient instructions to appreciate the nature and obligations of his age." Stafford, The Child as a Witness, 37 Wash. L. Rev. 303 (1962). It is often appropriate to determine the competency of a child in the absence of the jury. This procedure is authorized by rule 104(c).

The competency of a person who has been convicted of a crime is the subject of several codified rules. The original Washington statute, RCW 5.60.040, provided that, "any person who shall have been convicted of the crime of perjury shall not be a competent witness in any case, unless such conviction shall have been reversed, or unless he shall have received a pardon." A later statute, RCW 10.52.030, provided that, "every person convicted of a crime shall be a competent witness in any civil or criminal proceeding." This later statute contained no exception for those convicted of perjury. Mullin v. Builders Dev. & Fin. Serv., Inc., 62 Wn.2d 202, 318 P.2d 970 (1963) held that RCW 10.52.030 applied only to criminal cases, while RCW 5.60.040 applied only to civil cases. Thus, the Washington law appears to be that prior conviction of a crime does not make a witness incompetent to testify except, in a civil case, for a prior conviction of perjury.

Interest was abolished as a ground for disqualification by RCW 5.60.030, but that statute does contain an exception to that rule in the form of a dead man statute.

As to religious beliefs, see the comment to rule 610.

Criminal Cases in Superior Court. Competency of witnesses in superior court criminal cases is governed by CrR 6.12. The language of the rule is quite broad. By its terms, interest is abolished as a basis for incompetency. As to age, the rule eliminates the 10-year-old standard and applies the test of competency to children generally.

By implication, the rule abolishes other bases of incompetency. Among those are conviction of crime and religious belief. The rule parallels the law in civil cases by retaining unsound mind and intoxication as grounds for a finding of incompetency.

The Supreme Court has not determined by written opinion whether the statutory grounds for incompetency apply in criminal cases after the adoption of CrR 6.12, and the issue appears to be debatable. See 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. §§ 164, 165 (1975 Supp.). The drafters of the rules of evidence recommended that the law be clarified by incorporating the rules of evidence by reference into CrR 6.12(a). Because the rules of evidence incorporate the statutory grounds for incompetency, the statutes would also become clearly applicable to criminal cases.

LACK OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

A witness may not testify to a matter unless evidence is introduced sufficient to support a finding that he has personal knowledge of the matter. Evidence to prove personal knowledge may, but need not, consist of the testimony of the witness himself. This rule is subject to the provisions of rule 703, relating to opinion testimony by expert witnesses.

Comment 602

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 602 and is consistent with previous Washington law. The required personal knowledge need not be absolute. Testimony has been held competent although qualified by the following expressions: "according to his best impression", "to the best of his judgment and belief", "to the best of your knowledge", that the witness "thought" thus and so, "your best recollection", in the "best judgment" of the witness, and "it is my belief". These qualifications were expressed in the question or the answer and were apparently interpreted as qualifications upon memory, observation, perception, or the reliance of the witness upon his memory or observation. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 331 (1965 & Supp.).

RULE 603

OATH OR AFFIRMATION

Before testifying, every witness shall be required to declare that he will testify truthfully, by oath or affirmation administered in a form calculated to awaken his conscience and impress his mind with his duty to do so.

Comment 603

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 603 and is substantially in accord with previous Washington law. The statutes relating to oaths, RCW 5.28.010 through 5.28.060, provide that different forms of the oath may be used as required by the special circumstances of the witness. The statutes are consistent with the rule and are not superseded. The use of an affirmation may be substituted for an oath if the witness so desires. While the form of the oath or affirmation may be varied, it has been held that some form of swearing in the witnesses is required. In re Ross, 45 Wn.2d 654, 277 P.2d 335 (1954).

RULE 604

INTERPRETERS

An interpreter is subject to the provisions of these rules relating to qualification as an expert and the administration of an oath or affirmation that he will make a true translation.

Comment 604

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 604. Statutory law provides for interpreters for persons of impaired speech or hearing involved in legal proceedings. RCW 2.42.010 through 2.42.050. It speaks of a "qualified interpreter" as "one who is able readily to translate spoken English to and for impaired persons and to translate statements of impaired persons into spoken English." RCW 2.42.020(2). The interpreter is required to take an oath that he will make a true interpretation to the person being examined of all the proceedings in a language which that person understands, and that he will repeat the statements of such person to the court or other agency conducting the proceedings, in the English language, to the best of his skill and judgment. RCW 2.42.050. Although the statute is more detailed than the rule, it in no way conflicts with the rule and is not superseded.

RULE 605

COMPETENCY OF JUDGE AS WITNESS

The judge presiding at the trial may not testify in that trial as a witness. No objection need be made in order to preserve the point.

Comment 605

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 605 and is consistent with previous Washington law. Maitland v. Zanga, 14 Wash. 92, 44 P. 117 (1896). The rule is absolute; there are no limitations or qualifications.

The rule provides for automatic objection. This saves counsel from the predicament of choosing between remaining silent and thereby waiving objection, or objecting, which is apt to be considered an offensive attack on the judge's integrity.

The rule does not prevent the judge from testifying in collateral proceedings as to what occurred in an earlier trial. A judge is barred from testifying only at a trial over which he is presiding.

RULE 606

COMPETENCY OF JUROR AS WITNESS

A member of the jury may not testify as a witness before that jury in the trial of the case in which he is sitting as a juror. If he is called so to testify, the opposing party shall be afforded an opportunity to object out of the presence of the jury.

Comment 606

This rule is the same as section (a) of Federal Rule 606. Section (b), Inquiry into validity of verdict or indictment, is omitted.

This rule is contrary to RCW 5.60.010, which provides that a juror who is otherwise competent may testify at trial. Although rule 601 defers generally to statutes, it only defers to statutes which make a person incompetent to testify. It leaves open the possibility for subsequent court rules establishing other grounds for incompetency. Thus, rule 606(a) prevails over, and supersedes, RCW 5.60.010.

Section (b) of Federal Rule 606 concerns the extent to which testimony, affidavits, or statements of jurors may be received for the purpose of invalidating or supporting a verdict or indictment. Previous Washington law has defined the extent to which jurors' testimony and affidavits are admissible in terms of their being inadmissible if the evidence "inheres in the verdict." For a more complete discussion of this doctrine, see 2 L. Orland, Wash. Prac. § 294 (3d ed. 1972). Federal Rule 606(b) is omitted in deference to existing Washington law.

RULE 607

WHO MAY IMPEACH

The credibility of a witness may be attacked by any party, including the party calling him.

Comment 607

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 607 and reverses the traditional common law rule against impeaching one's own witness. The common law rule has been the subject of much criticism in that it is based on false premises. A party does not vouch for the credibility of witnesses because a party rarely has free choice in selecting them. Denial of the right to impeach would leave the party at the mercy of the witness as well as of the adversary. See Advisory Committee Note, Federal Rule 607.

There is precedent for permitting impeachment of one's own witness. Rule 32(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure allows any party to impeach a witness by means of a deposition, and rule 43(b) has allowed the calling and impeachment of an adverse party or of a person identified with an adverse party. Similar provisions are found in the corresponding civil rules in Washington.

Prior Washington law has allowed a party to impeach the party's own witness but only if the party was "taken by surprise by reason of affirmative testimony prejudicial to the interests of the party calling the witness." State v. Thomas, 1 Wn.2d 298, 95 P.2d 1036 (1939). The two-part test required both the showing of surprise and testimony prejudicial to the party's interests. The requirement of prejudice was not met when the witness merely failed to testify as favorably as expected. Cole v. McGhie, 59 Wn.2d 436, 361 P.2d 938 (1961). Cf. State v. Calhoun, 13 Wn. App. 644, 536 P.2d 668 (1975).

EVIDENCE OF CHARACTER AND CONDUCT OF WITNESS

(a) Reputation Evidence of Character. The credibility of a witness may be attacked or supported by evidence in the form of reputation, but subject to the limitations: (1) the evidence may refer only to character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, and (2) evidence of truthful character is admissible only after the character of the witness for truthfulness has been attacked by reputation evidence or otherwise.

(b) Specific Instances of Conduct. Specific instances of the conduct of a witness, for the purpose of attacking or supporting his credibility, other than conviction of crime as provided in rule 609, may not be proved by extrinsic evidence. They may, however, in the discretion of the court, if probative of truthfulness or untruthfulness, be inquired into on cross examination of the witness (1) concerning his character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, or (2) concerning the character for truthfulness or untruthfulness of another witness as to which character the witness being cross-examined has testified.

Comment 608

Section (a). This rule differs from Federal Rule 608 in that it does not authorize the introduction of evidence of character in the form of an opinion. The rule thus parallels the approach taken in rule 405. The rule restricts the use of character evidence for impeachment to evidence of the witness' reputation for truthfulness, in accordance with existing Washington law. See State v. Swenson, 62 Wn.2d 259, 382 P.2d 614 (1963). The proper procedure for introducing evidence of character is described in 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 301 (1965 & Supp.). The drafters of the Washington rule felt that impeachment by use of opinion is too prejudicial and on a practical level is not easily subject to testing by cross examination or contradiction.

By statute, a rape victim's reputation concerning sexual matters is inadmissible in proceedings against the accused. RCW 9.79.150. The statute is consistent with the rule and is not superseded.

Section (b). This section is the same as Federal Rule 608(b) and gives the court discretion to allow inquiry on cross examination into specific instances of conduct bearing upon the credibility of the witness. The effect of rule 608(b) upon existing Washington law is not entirely clear. Although there is not total consistency in the Washington case law, the general rule appears to be that acts of misconduct not the subject of a prior conviction have not been admissible for impeachment purposes. "[A] witness may not be impeached by showing specific acts of misconduct. This is true whether the impeachment is attempted by means of extrinsic evidence or cross-examination." State v. Emmanuel, 42 Wn.2d 1, 253 P.2d 761 (1950). There are some cases written in terms of a discretionary power in the judge to admit evidence of acts of misconduct, but these appear to be early cases and probably do not represent the current rule. Meisenholder § 301. Prior to the adoption of RCW 9.79.150, in prosecutions involving sexual matters, the judge had the discretionary power to permit the prosecuting witness to be questioned about acts of unchastity. State v. Linton, 36 Wn.2d 67, 216 P.2d 761 (1950). The statute removes the judge's discretion by making sexual conduct inadmissible on the issue of credibility. The drafters of the Washington rules felt that the rule, restricted as it is to matters probative of truthfulness or untruthfulness, clarified the law and reflected a sound policy.

A third, unlettered section appears in Federal Rule 608. That section provides: The giving of testimony, whether by an accused or by any other witness, does not operate as a waiver of his privilege against self-incrimination when examined with respect to matters which relate only to credibility.

This section was omitted from the Washington rule, not because of any fundamental disagreement with the policy expressed, but because the drafters felt that the subject was more appropriately left to developing principles of constitutional law.

RULE 609

IMPEACHMENT BY EVIDENCE OF CONVICTION OF CRIME

(a) General Rule. For the purpose of attacking the credibility of a witness, evidence that he has been convicted of a crime shall be admitted if elicited from him or established by public record during cross examination but only if the crime (1) was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of 1 year under the law under which he was convicted, and the court determines that the probative value of admitting this evidence outweighs its prejudicial effect to the defendant, or (2) involved dishonesty or false statement, regardless of the punishment.

(b) Time Limit. Evidence of a conviction under this rule is not admissible if a period of more than 10 years has elapsed since the date of the conviction or of the release of the witness from the confinement imposed for that conviction, whichever is the later date, unless the court determines, in the interests of justice, that the probative value of the conviction supported by specific facts and circumstances substantially outweighs its prejudicial effect. However, evidence of a conviction more than 10 years old as calculated herein, is not admissible unless the proponent gives to the adverse party sufficient advance written notice of intent to use such evidence to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to contest the use of such evidence.

(c) Effect of Pardon, Annulment, or Certificate of Rehabilitation. Evidence of a conviction is not admissible under this rule if (1) the conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, certificate of rehabilitation, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of the rehabilitation of the person convicted, and that person has not been convicted of a subsequent crime which was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of 1 year, or (2) the conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of innocence.

(d) Juvenile Adjudications. Evidence of juvenile adjudications is generally not admissible under this rule. The court may, however, in a criminal case allow evidence of a finding of guilt in a juvenile offense proceeding of a witness other than the accused if conviction of the offense would be admissible to attack the credibility of an adult and the court is satisfied that admission in evidence is necessary for a fair determination of the issue of guilt or innocence.

(e) Pendency of Appeal. The pendency of an appeal therefrom does not render evidence of a conviction inadmissible. Evidence of the pendency of an appeal is admissible.

Comment 609

This rule is substantially the same as Federal Rule 609 and is more restrictive than previous Washington law.

Two Washington statutes provide that the credibility of a witness may be attacked by evidence that the witness had been previously convicted of a crime. RCW 5.60.040; 10.52.030. The statutes, and some limitations developed by decisional law, are discussed in 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 300 (1965 & Supp.). The Washington Supreme Court has recently expressed some concern about the constitutionality of the statutes, but it has not invalidated them. State v. Murray, 86 Wn.2d 165, 543 P.2d 332 (1975) (Rosellini, J., concurring); State v. Hultenschmidt, 87 Wn.2d 212, 550 P.2d 115 (1976). Justice Rosellini, concurring in State v. Murray, above, observed that, "These statutes, relating as they do to the judicial process, may be superseded by rule of court." 86 Wn.2d at 170. Rule 609 offers a balance between the right of the accused to testify freely in his own behalf and the desirability of allowing the State to attack the credibility of the accused who chooses to testify. The two statutes in point are superseded.

Section (a). This section narrows the scope of convictions which may be used to impeach the accused in a criminal case. RCW 10.52.030, which is superseded by the rule, did not contain the restrictions expressed in section (a). This portion of the rule will not cause a different result in most civil cases because misdemeanor convictions were not ordinarily admissible for impeachment in civil cases under prior law, and they remain excluded by the 1-year limitation defined by the rule. See Willey v. Hilltop Associates, 13 Wn. App. 336, 535 P.2d 850 (1975); RCW 9A.04.040.

Section (b). This section narrows the scope of convictions which may be used for impeachment. No time limit was found in previous Washington law. See State v. Robinson, 75 Wn.2d 230, 450 P.2d 180 (1969).

Section (c). This section supersedes prior Washington law holding that a pardon has no effect upon the admissibility of a conviction for impeachment. See State v. Serfling, 131 Wash. 605, 230 P. 847 (1924); State v. Knott, 6 Wn. App. 436, 493 P.2d 1027 (1972).

Section (d). This section gives somewhat more discretion to the trial judge than prior Washington law holding juvenile adjudications inadmissible for impeachment. See State v. Temple, 5 Wn. App. 1, 485 P.2d 93 (1971). The federal term, "juvenile adjudication," is changed in the text of the rule to "finding of guilt in a juvenile offense proceeding." This change conforms to the Washington Juvenile Court Act and makes it clear that adjudications of dependency remain inadmissible.

Section (e). The first sentence of this section is consistent with prior Washington law. State v. Robbins, 37 Wn.2d 492, 224 P.2d 1076 (1950). There appears to be no prior law directly bearing upon the second sentence.

In some situations a party may wish to use evidence of a prior conviction as substantive evidence of a fact alleged in subsequent litigation. Rule 609 would not apply because it relates only to impeachment by evidence of a conviction. Criminal convictions as substantive evidence are governed by rule 803(a)(22).

RULE 610

RELIGIOUS BELIEFS OR OPINIONS

Evidence of the beliefs or opinions of a witness on matters of religion is not admissible for the purpose of showing that by reason of their nature his credibility is impaired or enhanced.

Comment 610

Although the rule is the same as Federal Rule 610, it is not intended to reflect any departure from a similar provision in the Washington Constitution. Const. art. 1, § 11 (amend. 34).

RULE 611

MODE AND ORDER OF INTERROGATION AND PRESENTATION

(a) Control by Court. The court shall exercise reasonable control over the mode and order of interrogating witnesses and presenting evidence so as to (1) make the interrogation and presentation effective for the ascertainment of the truth, (2) avoid needless consumption of time, and (3) protect witnesses from harassment or undue embarrassment.

(b) Scope of Cross Examination. Cross examination should be limited to the subject matter of the direct examination and matters affecting the credibility of the witness. The court may, in the exercise of discretion, permit inquiry into additional matters as if on direct examination.

(c) Leading Questions. Leading questions should not be used on the direct examination of a witness except as may be necessary to develop his testimony. Ordinarily leading questions should be permitted on cross examination. When a party calls a hostile witness, an adverse party, or a witness identified with an adverse party, interrogation may be by leading questions.

Comment 611

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 611. Although the rule is primarily one of discretion, it is not intended to broaden the discretion permitted under previous law. As to the scope of cross examination, see State v. Robideau, 70 Wn.2d 994, 425 P.2d 880 (1967). As to leading questions, see State v. Scott, 20 Wn.2d 696, 149 P.2d 152 (1944).

RULE 612

WRITING USED TO REFRESH MEMORY

If a witness uses a writing to refresh his memory for the purpose of testifying, either: while testifying, or before testifying, if the court in its discretion determines it is necessary in the interests of justice, an adverse party is entitled to have the writing produced at the hearing, to inspect it, to cross-examine the witness thereon, and to introduce in evidence those portions which relate to the testimony of the witness. If it is claimed that the writing contains matters not related to the subject matter of the testimony, the court shall examine the writing in camera, excise any portions not so related, and order delivery of the remainder to the party entitled thereto. Any portion withheld over objections shall be preserved and made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal. If a writing is not produced or delivered pursuant to order under this rule, the court shall make any order justice requires.

Comment 612

This rule is substantially the same as Federal Rule 612. An introductory reference in the federal rule to the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500, is omitted from the Washington version because the statute would normally be inapplicable in state court. Also omitted from the Washington version is a clause at the end of the federal rule, providing: "except that in criminal cases when the prosecution elects not to comply, the order shall be one striking the testimony or, if the court in its discretion determines that the interests of justice so require, declaring a mistrial." Although this provision appears to be a restriction on the federal court's discretion, the Advisory Committee's note to Federal Rule 612 indicates that the provision is included only to parallel the Jencks Act, and that other alternatives such as contempt or dismissal remain available under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The drafters of the Washington rule felt that this approach was unduly confusing and that the clause could be eliminated without compromising the substance of the rule.

Under previous Washington law, there has been a distinction between memoranda used to refresh memory before trial and those used during the appearance of the witness in court. Under State v. Little, 57 Wn.2d 516, 358 P.2d 120 (1961), memoranda used in court are clearly subject to a right of inspection by opposing counsel, but there has been no similar right to inspect memoranda used to refresh memory before trial. State v. Paschall, 182 Wash.

304, 47 P.2d 15 (1935). The rule changes previous law to the extent that it gives the court discretion to permit inspection of memoranda used before trial.

RULE 613

PRIOR STATEMENTS OF WITNESSES

(a) Examining Witness Concerning Prior Statement. In the examination of a witness concerning a prior statement made by him, whether written or not, the court may require that the statement be shown or its contents disclosed to him at that time, and on request the same shall be shown or disclosed to opposing counsel.

(b) Extrinsic Evidence of Prior Inconsistent Statement of Witness. Extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement by a witness is not admissible unless the witness is afforded an opportunity to explain or deny the same and the opposite party is afforded an opportunity to interrogate him thereon, or the interests of justice otherwise require. This provision does not apply to admissions of a party-opponent as defined in rule 801(d)(2).

Comment 613

This rule is a modification of Federal Rule 613 and conforms substantially to previous Washington law.

Section (a) of the federal rule abolishes the old English requirement that a witness be shown a prior written statement before opposing counsel can cross-examine the witness about the statement. Similarly, the federal rule provides that the contents of a prior oral statement need not be disclosed to the witness before cross examination.

In Washington, previous decisional law is not entirely clear but appears to be closer to the common law view. With reference to the prior oral statements, counsel must ask foundation questions which substantially repeat the prior inconsistent statement and direct the attention of the witness to the circumstances under which he purportedly made the statement. With reference to prior written statements, similar foundation questions are required, but there appears to be no decisional law requiring the written statement to actually be shown to the witness before cross examination. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac., Evidence § 296 (1965 & Supp.).

The Advisory Committee's note to Federal Rule 613 indicates that the federal drafters considered the common law rule to be a "useless impediment to cross examination." The drafters of the proposed Washington rule agreed to the extent that the common law requirement can be a useless impediment under some circumstances. The drafters felt, however, that the court should be given some measure of discretion to require that the prior statement be disclosed if it would be manifestly unfair to begin cross-examining the witness before disclosing the statement. Accordingly, section (a) of the rule provides that the court "may require" that the prior statement be shown or its contents disclosed to the witness before cross examination.

Both the federal rule and the Washington rule also provide that the prior statement must, on request, be shown or disclosed to the lawyer who originally called the witness. This provision, which is consistent with previous law, protects against unwarranted insinuations that a statement was made when in fact it was not. It also serves to prepare counsel for an effort to rehabilitate the witness on redirect examination. Butcher v. Seattle, 142 Wash. 588, 253 P. 1082 (1927).

Section (b) is the same as Federal Rule 613(b) and provides that extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement is not admissible unless the witness is given an opportunity to explain or deny the statement. Previous Washington law is in accord. Meisenholder § 296. The rule affords a measure of discretion in "the interests of justice" to allow for unusual circumstances such as a witness becoming unavailable by the time a prior inconsistent statement is discovered.

There are prior Washington decisions to the effect that if the witness responds to foundation questions by admitting making the prior inconsistent statement, then extrinsic evidence of the statement is inadmissible. It is felt that the additional extrinsic evidence would usually be of little value and would be a waste of time. Meisenholder § 296. Although rule 613 does not expressly bar the admission of extrinsic evidence under these circumstances, rule 403 gives the court broad discretion to exclude evidence on the grounds that it would cause undue delay, be a waste of time, or that it is a needless presentation of cumulative evidence.

It should be remembered that rule 613 relates to the admission of evidence for impeachment rather than as substantive evidence. Section (b) of rule 613 expressly disclaims any application to admissions of a party-opponent as defined in rule 801(d)(2). The admissibility of hearsay statements as substantive evidence is governed by the rules in Title 8.

RULE 614

CALLING AND INTERROGATION OF WITNESSES
BY COURT

(a) Calling by Court. The court may, on its own motion where necessary in the interests of justice or on motion of a party, call witnesses, and all parties are entitled to cross-examine witnesses thus called.

(b) Interrogation by Court. The court may interrogate witnesses, whether called by itself or by a party; provided, however, that in trials before a jury, the court's questioning must be cautiously guarded so as not to constitute a comment on the evidence.

(c) Objections. Objections to the calling of witnesses by the court or to interrogation by it may be made at the time or at the next available opportunity when the jury is not present.

Comment 614

Sections (a) and (b) are modifications of Federal Rule 614. Section (c) is the same as Federal Rule 614(c). As modified, the rule is consistent with previous Washington law.

Section (a). There is dictum to the effect that a trial judge may call witnesses in Washington. Ramsey v. Mading, 36 Wn.2d 303, 217 P.2d 1041 (1950). The phrase "where necessary in the interests of justice" has been added to the language of the federal rule to insure against unlimited, unreviewable discretion. If the court intends to call a witness, the judge, in fairness, should confer with counsel before calling the witness, and the conference should be on the record.

The federal rule provides that the court may also call a witness "at the suggestion of a party." The Washington rule substitutes the phrase "on motion of a party." The drafters of the Washington rule felt that the word "suggestion" was ambiguous and that "motion" was more precise in terms of established practice under the civil and criminal rules.

Section (b). A trial judge in Washington may question a witness so long as the questions do not violate the constitutional prohibition against a judge commenting on the evidence. Const. art. 4, § 16; State v. Brown, 31 Wn.2d 475, 197 P.2d 590 (1948); 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 269 (1965 & Supp.). A proviso to this effect has been added to Federal Rule 614.

Section (c). Counsel may object to the judge's questions on the basis of any of the rules of evidence. This section is designed to relieve counsel of the embarrassment of objecting to the judge's questions in front of the jury. The objection is not automatic, however, as it is under rule 605.

RULE 615

EXCLUSION OF WITNESSES

At the request of a party the court may order witnesses excluded so that they cannot hear the testimony of other witnesses, and it may make the order of its own motion. This rule does not authorize exclusion of (1) a party who is a natural person, or (2) an officer or employee of a party which is not a natural person designated as its representative by its attorney, or (3) a person whose presence is shown by a party to be reasonably necessary to the presentation of his cause.

Comment 615

This rule differs from Federal Rule 615 in that the word "may" has been substituted for "shall" in the first sentence, and the words "reasonably necessary" have been substituted for "essential" in the last sentence. The word "may" preserves the discretionary nature of the rule under previous Washington law. State v. Adams, 76 Wn.2d 650, 485 P.2d 558 (1969). The drafters of the Washington rule felt that the federal rule's use of the word "essential" in subdivision (3) established an inordinately strict test which could force an unjustified reversal on appeal. The test of "reasonably necessary" offers more flexibility.

The rule modifies previous Washington law in that it delineates certain witnesses who may not be excluded. Under previous law, the judge was given more discretion in this regard. State v. Weaver, 60 Wn.2d 87, 371 P.2d 1006 (1962).

TITLE 7

OPINIONS AND EXPERT TESTIMONY

RULE 701

OPINION TESTIMONY BY LAY WITNESSES

If the witness is not testifying as an expert, his testimony in the form of opinions or inferences is limited to those opinions or inferences which are (a) rationally based on the perception of the witness and (b) helpful to a clear understanding of his testimony or the determination of a fact in issue.

Comment 701

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 701. It is essentially a rule of discretion and differs from previous law more in form than substance. The rule requires the trial judge, on the basis of the posture of the particular case, to decide whether concreteness, abstraction or a combination of both will be most effective in enabling the jury to ascertain the truth and reach a just result. In applying the rule, it should be kept in mind that its purpose is to eliminate time-consuming quibbles over objections that would not affect the outcome regardless of how they were decided. The emphasis belongs on what the witness knows and not on how he is expressing himself. Weinstein's Evidence § 701[02] (1975).

In several recent cases the Washington Supreme Court has cited section 401 of the Model Code of Evidence as controlling the admission of a lay opinion testimony in Washington. See Church v. West, 75 Wn.2d 502, 452 P.2d 265 (1969) and 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 341 (1975 Supp.). Section 401 would usually yield the same result as decisional law predating it. Some examples of admissible opinion testimony are: the speed of a vehicle, the mental responsibility of another, whether another was "healthy", the value of one's own property, and the identification of a person. Meisenholder § 341 (1975 Supp.).

Differences between existing Washington law and rule 701 are largely matters of form rather than substance. Although Model Code section 401 assumes that the witness may generally testify in terms of inference and opinion, the court may require the testimony to be stated in nonabstract detail if it finds that the witness is capable of doing so satisfactorily and that the statement by the witness of his conclusory inferences might mislead the trier of fact. Rule 701 approaches the problem in reverse. It assumes that the witness will give his testimony by stating his observations in as raw a form as practicable, but permits him to resort to inferences and opinions when this form of testimony will be helpful. Both rules give the trial court a wide latitude of discretion. As a practical matter, the rule 701 is unlikely to change Washington law. See Meisenholder § 343.

The subject matter of rule 701 is analyzed in greater detail in J. Powell & R. Burns, A Discussion of the New Federal Rules of Evidence, 8 Gonz. L. Rev. 1, 14-16 (1972).

RULE 702

TESTIMONY BY EXPERTS

If scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education, may testify thereto in the form of an opinion or otherwise.

Comment 702

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 702 and is consistent with previous law giving the court broad discretion to determine whether a witness is qualified to express an expert opinion. See State v. Tatum, 58 Wn.2d 73, 360 P.2d 754 (1961).

The Washington Supreme Court has more recently cited section 401 of the Model Code of Evidence as governing the admissibility of expert testimony. See Church v. West, 75 Wn.2d 502, 452 P.2d 265 (1969). However, the results and language of these opinions indicate that in effect the Court interprets section 401 in line with the prior general Washington case law. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 351 (1975 Supp.).

RULE 703

BASES OF OPINION TESTIMONY BY EXPERTS

The facts or data in the particular case upon which an expert bases an opinion or inference may be those perceived by or made known to him at or before the hearing. If of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the particular field in forming opinions or inferences upon the subject, the facts or data need not be admissible in evidence.

Comment 703

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 703. The first sentence codifies the universally accepted principle that an expert may base an opinion on (1) first-hand information or (2) facts or data presented to him at trial and is consistent with previous Washington law. See 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. §§ 354, 355 (1965 & Supp.). The second sentence allows an expert to base an opinion on data which could not be admitted in evidence provided it is of the type reasonably relied upon by experts in forming opinions upon the subject in their particular field of competence. Before an expert will be permitted to testify upon the basis of facts not admissible in evidence, the court will have to find pursuant to rule 104(a) that the particular underlying data is of a kind that is reasonably relied upon by experts in the particular field in reaching conclusions. If there is a serious issue the trial judge will examine the expert outside the presence of the jury to determine whether these conditions are met. Since rule 703 is concerned with the trustworthiness of the resulting opinion, the judge should not allow the opinion if the expert can show only that he customarily relies upon such material or that it is relied upon only in preparing for litigation. The expert must establish that he as well as others would act upon the information for purposes other than testifying in a lawsuit. Weinstein's Evidence § 703[01] (1975).

The expert will ordinarily be in the best position to know what data can be reasonably relied upon, and the court will usually follow the expert's advice on the point. The court's decision will, to a large extent, be based on the degree of confidence it has in the professional calibre and ethics of the expert group involved. Physicians are likely to be given more leeway than accidentologists. Weinstein's Evidence § 703[01].

Several older Washington cases suggest that the opinion of an expert based solely upon hearsay reports or other hearsay is inadmissible. Meisenholder § 357. One case, however, held that a doctor could state his opinion that the eyesight of a person was normal when the doctor's opinion was based upon his office record of visual field charts prepared by a technician during the course of examination by the technician. Engler v. Woodman, 54 Wn.2d 360, 340 P.2d 563 (1959). And in State v. Wineberg, 74 Wn.2d 372, 444 P.2d 787 (1968), the court held that an expert could, in the trial court's discretion, be permitted to give an opinion as to the value of property even though some of the factors (e.g., comparable sales prices) would be inadmissible as hearsay, so long as the opinion was the product of the expert's own independent judgment. Rule 703 reflects the approach taken in the more recent cases.

RULE 704

OPINION ON ULTIMATE ISSUE

Testimony in the form of an opinion or inferences otherwise admissible is not objectionable because it embraces an ultimate issue to be decided by the trier of fact.

Comment 704

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 704 and is consistent with previous Washington law. In rejecting challenges that opinions should have been excluded because they were opinions on ultimate facts, the court has permitted opinions to be voiced upon various matters: that the physical condition of prosecuting witness could not have been the result of ordinary normal sexual intercourse, the point of impact between vehicles based upon skidmarks, the sanity or insanity of a criminal defendant, the possibility of gainful employment, how a disease would be communicated, and other matters. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 356 (1965 & Supp.).

Except for testimony concerning foreign law, experts are not to state opinions of law or mixed fact and law. On this basis, questions such as whether X was negligent can be excluded. Meisenholder § 356.

The introduction of evidence under rule 704 is subject to the restrictions of rules 701 and 702, which require opinions to be helpful to the trier of fact, and rule 403, which authorizes the exclusion of time-wasting evidence.

RULE 705

DISCLOSURE OF FACTS OR DATA UNDERLYING EXPERT OPINION

The expert may testify in terms of opinion or inference and give his reasons therefor without prior disclosure of the underlying facts or data, unless the judge requires otherwise. The expert may in any event be required to disclose the underlying facts or data on cross examination.

Comment 705

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 705. It clarifies Washington law by defining a procedure which cannot be determined by reference to decisional law. See 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 354 (1965 & Supp.). The use of hypothetical questions, often criticized by the authorities, becomes an optional tactic rather than a requirement, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Without preliminary disclosure at trial of underlying data, effective cross examination is often impossible unless the information has been obtained through pretrial discovery. The court, therefore, should liberally grant permission for depositions and other discovery with respect to experts under CR 26(b)(4). D. Smith & S. Henley, Opinion Evidence: An Analysis of the New Federal Rules and Current Washington Law, 11 Gonz. L. Rev. 692, 697-98 (1976).

COURT APPOINTED EXPERTS

(a) Appointment. The court may on its own motion or on the motion of any party enter an order to show cause why expert witnesses should not be appointed, and may request the parties to submit nominations. The court may appoint any expert witnesses agreed upon by the parties, and may appoint witnesses of its own selection. An expert witness shall not be appointed by the court unless he consents to act. A witness so appointed shall be informed of his duties by the court in writing, a copy of which shall be filed with the clerk, or at a conference in which the parties shall have opportunity to participate. A witness so appointed shall advise the parties of his findings, if any; his deposition may be taken by any party; and he may be called to testify by the court or any party. He shall be subject to cross examination by each party, including a party calling him as a witness.

(b) Compensation. Expert witnesses so appointed are entitled to reasonable compensation in whatever sum the court may allow. Except as otherwise provided by law, the compensation shall be paid by the parties in such proportion and at such time as the court directs, and thereafter charged in like manner as other costs.

(c) Disclosure of Appointment. In the exercise of its discretion, the court may authorize disclosure to the jury of the fact that the court appointed the expert witness.

(d) Parties' Experts of Own Selection. Nothing in this rule limits the parties in calling expert witnesses of their own selection.

Comment 706

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 706, except that a provision in section (b) for compensating experts from public funds was deleted. Rule 706 does not apply to the appointment of defense experts in indigent criminal cases. That practice is governed by a more specialized rule, CrR 3.1.

Legal writers and revisers have long favored reforming trial practice by implementing the trial judge's common law power to call experts. Their imprecations against the "battle of experts" led to the drafting of the Uniform Expert Testimony Act in 1937, which later formed the basis for rules 403-410 of the Model Code of Evidence, for rules 59, 60, and 61 of the Uniform Rules of Evidence, and Federal Rule of Evidence 706. Weinstein's Evidence § 706[01] (1975).

There is dicta in the Washington cases suggesting that a judge may appoint an expert witness in nonjury cases. Ramsey v. Mading, 36 Wn.2d 303, 310-11, 217 P.2d 1041 (1950). (The dictum in Ramsey was inaccurately characterized as a holding in State v. Swenson, 62 Wn.2d 259, 277, 382 P.2d 614 (1963).) A relatively small number of rules and statutes relate to the appointment and compensation of experts in specific kinds of cases. Rule 706 codifies the common law power of the court to call an expert and defines a procedure applicable to all cases.

Expert witness fees in state condemnation proceedings are payable from public funds, as anticipated by Federal Rule 706, but only pursuant to a statutory scheme which imposes certain conditions and restrictions not found in the federal rule. See RCW 8.25.070. The statute does not mention the possibility of the expert being appointed by the court, and the statute does not authorize the disbursement of public funds for an appointed expert. The drafters of the Washington rule eliminated the language in Federal Rule 706 authorizing disbursement of public funds in deference to applicable statutes.

There is an obvious danger that the jury will be more impressed by an expert appointed by the court than by one called by a party. It has been argued that to disclose to the jury the fact that an expert was appointed by the court would violate the state constitutional prohibition against a judge commenting on the evidence. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 363 (1965); Const. art. 4, § 16. The court's discretion to make such a disclosure under rule 706(c) should be used with extreme caution to avoid the possibility of commenting on the evidence.

TITLE 8
HEARSAY
RULE 801
DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply under this article:

(a) Statement. A "statement" is (1) an oral or written assertion or (2) nonverbal conduct of a person, if it is intended by him as an assertion.

(b) Declarant. A "declarant" is a person who makes a statement.

(c) Hearsay. "Hearsay" is a statement, other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the trial or hearing, offered in evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted.

(d) Statements Which Are Not Hearsay. A statement is not hearsay if—

(1) Prior Statement by Witness. The declarant testifies at the trial or hearing and is subject to cross examination concerning the statement, and the statement is (i) inconsistent with his testimony, and was given under oath subject to the penalty of perjury at a trial, hearing, or other proceeding, or in a deposition, or (ii) consistent with his testimony and is offered to rebut an express or implied charge against him of recent fabrication or improper influence or motive, or (iii) one of identification of a person made after perceiving him; or

(2) Admission by Party-Opponent. The statement is offered against a party and is (i) his own statement, in either his individual or a representative capacity or (ii) a statement of which he has manifested his adoption or belief in its truth, or (iii) a statement by a person authorized by him to make a statement concerning the subject, or (iv) a statement by his agent or servant acting within the scope of his authority to make the statement for the party, or (v) a statement by a coconspirator of a party during the course and in furtherance of the conspiracy.

Comment 801

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 801, except that subsection (d)(2)(iv) has been modified with respect to the admissibility of statements by agents and servants.

Section (a). The definition of "statement" is consistent with previous Washington law. Oral assertions, written assertions, and assertive conduct all constitute statements, but acts of nonassertive conduct do not. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 387 (1965 & Supp.).

Section (b). Section (b) is self-explanatory.

Section (c). The definition of "hearsay" is substantially in accord with previous Washington law. See Moen v. Chestnut, 9 Wn.2d 93, 113 P.2d 1030 (1941).

Section (d). This section excludes from the definition of hearsay several types of statements which literally are within the definition. Statements excluded from the hearsay rule by rule 801(d) are admissible as substantive evidence. The rule does not affect the use of prior inconsistent statements to impeach a witness. The use of these statements for impeachment is governed by rule 613.

Subsection (d)(1) defines the extent to which prior out-of-court statements are admissible as substantive evidence if the declarant is presently available for cross examination at trial. One Washington case is in accord with the theory expressed by the rule. State v. Simmons, 63 Wn.2d 17, 385 P.2d 389 (1963). Other cases, however, are to the contrary. Meisenholder § 381. The rule clarifies the law by detailing the circumstances under which the statements are admissible and conforms state law to federal practice.

Subsection (d)(1)(i) provides that a witness' prior inconsistent statement is admissible as substantive evidence if it was given under oath subject to the penalty of perjury at a trial, hearing, or other proceeding, or in a deposition. The rule does not require the statement to have been subject to cross examination at the time it was made. See Conference Report, quoted in Weinstein's Evidence 801-24 (1975). The rule would not, however, necessarily admit statements made in pretrial affidavits. The rule applies only to statements given in a trial, hearing, proceeding, or deposition. Although the meaning of "proceeding" is not yet clear, it has been observed that the words of limitation were designed in part to prevent the admission of affidavits given by a coerced or misinformed witness. Weinstein's Evidence §§ 801(d)(1)[01], 801(d)(1)(A)[01] 1055 (9th Cir. 1976). The constitutionality of a California statute even less restrictive than rule 801(d)(1)(i) was upheld in California v. Green, 399 U.S. 149 (1970).

Subsection (d)(1)(ii) makes statements admissible as substantive evidence which were previously admissible only to rehabilitate an impeached witness. See Meisenholder § 306.

Subsection (d)(1)(iii) is consistent with previous Washington law. See State v. Simmons, 63 Wn.2d 17, 385 P.2d 389 (1963).

Subsection (d)(2) differs from previous Washington law more in theory than in practice. Previous decisions have considered admissions by party-opponents to be hearsay but have admitted them as an exception to the hearsay rule. Meisenholder § 421. Rule 801 continues to admit the statements, not as an exception to the hearsay rule, but by excluding them from the definition of hearsay altogether.

Statements of others that are expressly adopted by a party have been held admissible as admissions. State v. McKenzie, 184 Wash. 32, 48 P.2d 1115 (1935). Statements by authorized persons have been similarly held to be admissions. State ex rel. Ledger Pub. Co. v. Gloyd, 14 Wash. 4, 44 P. 103 (1896).

Federal Rule 801 provides in relevant part: "A statement is not hearsay if . . . the statement is offered against a party and is . . . a statement by his agent or servant concerning a matter within the scope of his agency or employment, made during the existence of the relationship. . . ." The Washington cases have not adopted the rule of broader admissibility expressed by the federal rule. The traditional rule, which was applied in early Washington decisions, was that, "the acts and declarations of the agent, when acting within the scope of his authority, having relations to, and connected with, and in the course of, the particular transaction in which he is engaged, are, in legal effect, the acts or declarations of his principal." Tacoma & Eastern Lumber Co. v. Field & Co., 100 Wash. 79, 86, 170 P. 360 (1918). This was known as the "res gestae" rule, and the admissibility of an agent's statement depended upon how closely the statement was related to the transaction in question. Meisenholder § 425(1).

Later decisions have phrased the rule not in terms of res gestae, but in terms of whether the agent was authorized to make the statement on behalf of the principal. Meisenholder § 425(1). become known as the "speaking agent" approach and has continued to be applied in relatively recent decisions. See, e.g., Kadiak Fish Co. v. Murphy Diesel Co., 70 Wn.2d 153, 422 P.2d 946 (1967). Accord, Restatement (Second) of Agency §§ 286-88 (1958). The drafters of the Washington rule felt that existing Washington law, as exemplified by the later cases, reflected the better policy and deleted the language in the federal rule which would have broadened the admissibility of statements by agents.

The provision concerning statements by coconspirators is consistent with previous Washington law. Meisenholder § 430.

RULE 802

HEARSAY RULE

Hearsay is not admissible except as provided by these rules, by other court rules, or by statute.

Comment 802

The language of Federal Rule 802 is modified to adapt the rule to state practice. The rule preserves other court rules such as CR 43(e), authorizing the admission of hearsay evidence under particular circumstances.

RULE 803

HEARSAY EXCEPTIONS; AVAILABILITY OF DECLARANT
IMMATERIAL

(a) Specific Exceptions. The following are not excluded by the hearsay rule, even though the declarant is available as a witness:

(1) Present Sense Impression. A statement describing or explaining an event or condition made while the declarant was perceiving the event or condition, or immediately thereafter.

(2) Excited Utterance. A statement relating to a startling event or condition made while the declarant was under the stress of excitement caused by the event or condition.

(3) Then Existing Mental, Emotional, or Physical Condition. A statement of the declarant's then existing state of mind, emotion, sensation, or physical condition (such as intent, plan, motive, design, mental feeling, pain, and bodily health), but not including a statement of memory or belief to prove the fact remembered or believed unless it relates to the execution, revocation, identification, or terms of declarant's will.

(4) Statements for Purposes of Medical Diagnosis or Treatment. Statements made for purposes of medical diagnosis or treatment and describing medical history, or past or present symptoms, pain, or sensations, or the inception or general character of the cause or external source thereof insofar as reasonably pertinent to diagnosis or treatment.

(5) Recorded Recollection. A memorandum or record concerning a matter about which a witness once had knowledge but now has insufficient recollection to enable him to testify fully and accurately, shown to have been made or adopted by the witness when the matter was fresh in his memory and to reflect that knowledge correctly. If admitted, the memorandum or record may be read into evidence but may not itself be received as an exhibit unless offered by an adverse party.

(6) Records of Regularly Conducted Activity. [Reserved. See RCW 5.45.]

(7) Absence of Entry in Records Kept in Accordance With RCW 5.45. Evidence that a matter is not included in the memoranda, reports, records, or data compilations, in any form, kept in accordance with the provisions of RCW 5.45, to prove the nonoccurrence or nonexistence of the matter, if the matter was of a kind of which a memorandum, report, record, or data compilation was regularly made and preserved, unless the sources of information or other circumstances indicate lack of trustworthiness.

(8) Public Records and Reports. [Reserved. See RCW 5.44.040.]

(9) Records of Vital Statistics. Records or data compilations, in any form, of births, fetal deaths, deaths, or marriages, if the report thereof was made to a public office pursuant to requirements of law.

(10) Absence of Public Record or Entry. To prove the absence of a record, report, statement, or data compilation, in any form, or the nonoccurrence or nonexistence of a matter of which a record, report, statement, or data compilation, in any form, was regularly made and preserved by a public office or agency, evidence in the form of a certification in accordance with rule 902, or testimony, that diligent search failed to disclose the record, report, statement, or data compilation, or entry.

(11) Records of Religious Organizations. Statements of births, marriages, divorces, deaths, legitimacy, ancestry, relationship by blood or marriage, or other similar facts of personal or family history, contained in a regularly kept record of a religious organization.

(12) Marriage, Baptismal, and Similar Certificates. Statements of fact contained in a certificate that the maker performed a marriage or other ceremony or administered a sacrament, made by a clergyman, public official, or other person authorized by the rules or practices of a religious organization or by law to perform the act certified, and purporting to have been issued at the time of the act or within a reasonable time thereafter.

(13) Family Records. Statements of fact concerning personal or family history contained in family Bibles, genealogies, charts, engravings on rings, inscription on family portraits, tattoos, engravings on urns, crypts, or tombstones, or the like.

(14) Records of Documents Affecting an Interest in Property. The record of a document purporting to establish or affect an interest in property, as proof of the content of the original recorded document and its execution and delivery by each person by whom it purports to have been executed, if the record is a record of a public office and an applicable statute authorized the recording of documents of that kind in that office.

(15) Statements in Documents Affecting an Interest in Property. A statement contained in a document purporting to establish or affect an interest in property if the matter stated was relevant to the purpose of the document unless dealings with the property since the document was made have been inconsistent with the truth of the statement or the purport of the document.

(16) Statements in Ancient Documents. Statements in a document in existence 20 years or more whose authenticity is established.

(17) Market Reports, Commercial Publications. Market quotations, tabulations, lists, directories, or other published compilations, generally used and relied upon by the public or by persons in particular occupations.

(18) Learned Treatises. To the extent called to the attention of an expert witness upon cross examination or relied upon by him in direct examination, statements contained in published treatises, periodicals, or pamphlets on a subject of history, medicine, or other science or art, established as a reliable authority by the testimony or admission of the witness or by other expert testimony or by judicial notice. If admitted, the statements may be read into evidence but may not be received as exhibits.

(19) Reputation Concerning Personal or Family History. Reputation among members of his family by blood, adoption, or marriage, or among his associates, or in the community, concerning a person's birth, adoption, marriage, divorce, death, legitimacy, relationship by blood, adoption, or marriage, ancestry, or other similar fact of his personal or family history.

(20) Reputation Concerning Boundaries or General History. Reputation in a community, arising before the controversy, as to boundaries of or customs affecting lands in the community, and reputation as to events of general history important to the community or state or nation in which located.

(21) Reputation as to Character. Reputation of a person's character among his associates or in the community.

(22) Judgment of Previous Conviction. Evidence of a final judgment, entered after a trial or upon a plea of guilty (but not upon a plea of nolo contendere), adjudging a person guilty of a crime punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of 1 year, to prove any fact essential to sustain the judgment, but not including, when offered by the prosecution in a criminal case for purposes other than impeachment, judgments against persons other than the accused. The pendency of an appeal may be shown but does not affect admissibility.

(23) Judgment as to Personal, Family, or General History, or Boundaries. Judgments as proof of matters of personal, family, or general history, or boundaries, essential to the judgment, if the same would be provable by evidence of reputation.

(b) Other Exceptions. [Reserved.]

Comment 803

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 803, except that one addition is made in subsection (a)(13), a minor editorial improvement is made in subsection (a)(22), and subsection (a)(24) is omitted.

Subsection (a)(1). This subsection is consistent with previous Washington law. Beck v. Dye, 200 Wash. 1, 92 P.2d 113 (1939).

Subsection (a)(2). This subsection is consistent with previous Washington law. Beck v. Dye, supra.

Subsection (a)(3). This subsection is a specialized application of the expert expressed in subsection (a)(1). Under previous law it was not clear whether statements to a physician of the declarant's present pain and suffering were admissible. See 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 472 (1965 & Supp.). The statements are admissible under rule 803.

Statements of the declarant's then existing state of mind have been admissible in Washington if there is need for their use and if there is circumstantial probability of their trustworthiness. Raborn v. Hayton, 34 Wn.2d 105, 208 P.2d 133 (1949). The rule is substantially in accord.

The provision relating to wills appears to change Washington law. Carey v. Powell, 32 Wn.2d 761, 204 P.2d 193 (1949). This portion of rule 803 is based on practical considerations of necessity and expediency and conforms Washington law to the practice followed in a majority of American jurisdictions. Weinstein's Evidence § 803(3)[05] (1975).

Subsection (a)(4). This subsection changes Washington law. Under previous cases, statements of past symptoms and statements relating to medical history, even though made to a treating physician, have been inadmissible as independent substantive evidence. Smith v. Ernst Hardware Co., 61 Wn.2d 75, 377 P.2d 258 (1962). Statements made to a treating or nontreating physician have been allowed into evidence, but only for the purpose of supporting the physician's medical conclusions. Kennedy v. Monroe, 15 Wn. App. 39, 547 P.2d 899 (1976). Rule 803 admits the statements for the purpose of proving the truth of the matter asserted. The justification for the rule, already followed in a number of states, is the patient's motivation to be truthful. Meisenholder § 472. Further, it is unrealistic to assume that a juror, instructed according to previous law, would be able to draw the distinction necessary to hear the statements in order to justify a medical conclusion but to disregard them as to the truth of the matter asserted.

The rule is subject to the restrictions imposed by the law of privileged communications.

Subsection (a)(5). This subsection codifies the familiar hearsay exception for past recollection recorded. Under previous Washington law, the exception only applied if the witness had no independent recollection of the facts. State v. Benson, 58 Wn.2d 490, 364 P.2d 220 (1961). Rule 803 is slightly broader in that it requires only that the witness must have insufficient recollection to testify fully and accurately.

Subsection (a)(6). Federal Rule 803(6) is deleted, not because of any fundamental disagreement with the rule, but because the drafters felt that the subject matter was adequately covered by statutes and decisions already familiar to the bench and bar. See Meisenholder, ch. 28.

Subsection (a)(7). Federal Rule 803(7) is modified to refer to RCW 5.45 rather than to subsection (a)(6). The rule resolves an issue which has not been addressed in this state's decisional law. Meisenholder § 516.

Subsection (a)(8). Federal Rule 803(8) is deleted, not because of any fundamental disagreement with the rule, but because the drafters felt that the subject matter was adequately covered by the statute and decisions already familiar to the bench and bar. See Meisenholder, ch. 29.

Subsection (a)(9). There do not appear to be any previous Washington cases or statutes directly bearing on the admissibility of vital statistics as a hearsay exception. RCW 5.44.040, preserved by subsection (a)(8), may be controlling in many instances.

Subsection (a)(10). A similar provision is found in CR 44(b). CR 44 is not superseded.

Subsection (a)(11). There do not appear to be any previous Washington cases or statutes directly in point, except to the extent that a religious organization may qualify as a "business" under RCW 5.45.010. Subsection (a)(11) clarifies the law by making specific records of religious organizations admissible as hearsay exceptions.

Subsection (a)(12). There do not appear to be any previous Washington cases or statutes directly in point, except to the extent that the statutes preserved by subsection (a)(6) and (8) may also cover the subject matter of subsection (a)(12).

Subsection (a)(13). This subsection conforms substantially to previous Washington law. Meisenholder § 542. Tattoos have been added to the items enumerated in the federal rule. The drafters felt that tattoos often reflect personal or family history and are apt to be as trustworthy as the other items listed in the rule.

Subsection (a)(14). The hearsay exception for records of documents affecting an interest in property has previously been recognized in Washington. Copies of all deeds which must be filed with the county auditor are admissible. RCW 5.44.070. Copies of city or town plats are admissible. RCW 58.10.020. "Whenever any deed, conveyance, bond, mortgage or other writing, shall have been recorded . . . in pursuance of law, copies of record of such deed, [etc.] . . . shall be received in evidence to all intents and purposes as the originals themselves." RCW 5.44.060. The rule does not conflict with the statutes. It supplements the statutes but does not supersede them.

Subsection (a)(15). There is little prior authority on the admissibility of evidence of statements in documents affecting an interest in property, but what little there is supports an exception to the hearsay rule in accord with the rule. In Adams v. Mignon, 197 Wash. 293, 84 P.2d 1016 (1938), the court held that the trial court did not err when it admitted an abstract of title into evidence: "The abstract, while not conclusive as to facts shown by the record, was admissible for what it was worth."

Subsection (a)(16). The rule reduces the time limit from 30 to 20 years. Compare Spokane v. Catholic Bishop, 33 Wn.2d 496, 206 P.2d 277 (1949). Authentication is accomplished pursuant to rule 901(b)(8).

Subsection (a)(17). This subsection is substantially in accord with previous Washington law. See Nordstrom v. White Metal, 75 Wn.2d 629, 453 P.2d 619 (1969) and Meyer Bros. Drug Co. v. Callison, 120 Wash. 378, 207 P. 683 (1922).

Subsection (a)(18). This subsection makes statements contained in treatises, periodicals, and pamphlets admissible as substantive evidence, but only when the expert is on the stand and available to explain and assist in the application of the information. Prior cases holding that treatises are not admissible to prove the truth of the statements contained therein are no longer controlling. Compare Dabroe v. Rhodes Co., 64 Wn.2d 431, 392 P.2d 317 (1964). The traditional use of treatises on cross examination is authorized by rules 611, 703, and 705.

Subsection (a)(19). Previous Washington law has authorized admission of evidence of reputation within the family or among close associates on matters of family history. Meisenholder § 542. Rule 803(a)(19) clarifies the law by stating more specifically the scope of this hearsay exception. The rule does not require the declarant to be unavailable, nor does it require that the statements must be made prior to litigation with no motive to deceive. Compare Carfe v. Albright, 39 Wn.2d 697, 237 P.2d 795 (1951) and Armstrong v. Woodmen of America, 105 Wash. 356, 178 P. 1 (1919).

Subsection (a)(20). This subsection is substantially in accord with previous Washington law, except that the rule does not require the declarant to be unavailable before the hearsay exception applies. See Kay Corp. v. Anderson, 72 Wn.2d 879, 436 P.2d 459 (1967) and Alverson v. Hooper, 108 Wash. 510, 185 P. 808 (1919).

Subsection (a)(21). Under previous law, the scope of this exception could not be stated definitively. Meisenholder § 544. The rule clarifies the law by establishing reputation as a general exception to the hearsay rule. The methods of proving character are defined by rule 405.

Subsection (a)(22). No similar exception to the hearsay rule is defined by previous Washington law. Meisenholder § 545. Admissibility is limited by the restrictions stated in the rule. The rule does not deal with the substantive effect of a judgment as res judicata, nor does it govern evidence of a conviction for impeachment. The latter is governed by rule 609. Even though the rule permits certain convictions to be used as substantive evidence in later litigation, the rule does not preclude the defendant from offering an explanation of the conviction based on newly acquired evidence. 4 Weinstein's Evidence § 802(22)[01] (1975).

Subsection (a)(23). There do not appear to be any previous Washington statutes or cases directly in point. The leading case is Patterson v. Gaines, 47 U.S. (6 How.) 550 (1848).

Section (b). Federal Rule 803(24) is deleted. The drafters decided not to adopt any catch-all provision. Despite purported safeguards, there is a serious risk that trial judges would differ greatly in applying the elastic standard of equivalent trustworthiness. The result would be a lack of uniformity which would make preparation for trial difficult. Nor would it be likely that an appellate court could effectively apply corrective measures. There would be doubt whether an affirmation of an admission of evidence under the catch-all provision amounted to the creation of a new exception with the force of precedent or merely a refusal to rule that the trial court had abused its discretion.

Flexibility in construction of the rules so as to promote growth and development of the law of evidence is called for by rule 102. Under this mandate there will be room to construe an existing hearsay exception broadly in the interest of ascertaining truth, as distinguished from creating an entirely new exception based upon the trial judge's determination of equivalent trustworthiness, a guideline which the most conscientious of judges would find extremely difficult to follow.

RULE 804

HEARSAY EXCEPTIONS: DECLARANT UNAVAILABLE

(a) Definition of Unavailability. "Unavailability as a witness" includes situations in which the declarant:

(1) Is exempted by ruling of the court on the ground of privilege from testifying concerning the subject matter of his statement; or

(2) Persists in refusing to testify concerning the subject matter of his statement despite an order of the court to do so; or

(3) Testifies to a lack of memory of the subject matter of his statement; or

(4) Is unable to be present or to testify at the hearing because of death or then existing physical or mental illness or infirmity; or

(5) Is absent from the hearing and the proponent of his statement has been unable to procure his attendance (or in the case of a hearsay exception under subsection (b)(2), (3), or (4), his attendance or testimony) by process or other reasonable means.

(6) A declarant is not unavailable as a witness if his exemption, refusal, claim of lack of memory, inability, or absence is due to the procurement or wrongdoing of the proponent of his statement for the purpose of preventing the witness from attending or testifying.

(b) Hearsay Exceptions. The following are not excluded by the hearsay rule if the declarant is unavailable as a witness:

(1) Former Testimony. Testimony given as a witness at another hearing of the same or a different proceeding, or in a deposition taken in compliance with law in the course of the same or another proceeding, if the party against whom the testimony is now offered, or, in a civil action or proceeding, a predecessor in interest, had an opportunity and similar motive to develop the testimony by direct, cross, or redirect examination.

(2) Statement Under Belief of Impending Death. In a trial for homicide or in a civil action or proceeding, a statement made by a declarant while believing that his death was imminent, concerning the cause or circumstances of what he believed to be his impending death.

(3) Statement Against Interest. A statement which was at the time of its making so far contrary to the declarant's pecuniary or proprietary interest, or so far tended to subject him to civil or criminal liability, or to render invalid a claim by him against another, that a reasonable man in his position would not have made the statement unless he believed it to be true. A statement tending to expose the declarant to criminal liability and offered to exculpate the accused is not admissible unless corroborating circumstances clearly indicate the trustworthiness of the statement.

(4) Statement of Personal or Family History. (i) A statement concerning the declarant's own birth, adoption, marriage, divorce, legitimacy, relationship by blood, adoption, or marriage, ancestry, or other similar fact of personal or family history, even though declarant had no means of acquiring personal knowledge of the matter stated; or (ii) a statement concerning the foregoing matters, and death also, of another person, if the declarant was related to the other by blood, adoption, or marriage or was so intimately associated with the other's family as to be likely to have accurate information concerning the matter declared.

(5) Other Exceptions. [Reserved.]

Comment 804

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 804, except that a minor editorial change is made in subsection (b)(2), and subsection (b)(5) is omitted. The rule defines the hearsay exceptions which apply only if the declarant is unavailable.

Section (a). Previous Washington law has defined "unavailability" differently in various contexts. See State v. Ortego, 22 Wn.2d 552, 157 P.2d 320 (1945); State v. Solomon, 5 Wn. App. 412, 487 P.2d 643 (1971); Allen v. Dillard, 15 Wn.2d 35, 129 P.2d 813 (1943). Rule 804 clarifies the law by establishing a general definition applicable to all cases.

The admissibility of hearsay against a defendant in a criminal case is also subject to overriding constitutional considerations. In Barber v. Page, 390 U.S. 719 (1968), for example, the Supreme Court held that the confrontation clause of the Sixth Amendment requires the government to make stringent efforts to procure the attendance of a prosecution witness before the witness can be considered "unavailable". A lesser standard prevails in civil cases and in criminal cases where the statement is being offered on behalf of the accused. These and other constitutional restrictions on rules 801 and 804 are discussed in Weinstein's Evidence § 804(a)[01] (1975).

Read literally, subsection (a)(3) seems to require only that the declarant assert a lack of memory to be considered unavailable. The rule does not appear to require that the court believe that the declarant is telling the truth. The Report of the House Committee on the Judiciary, however, indicates that "the Committee intends no change in the existing federal law under which the court may choose to disbelieve the declarant's testimony as to a lack of memory." Federal Rules of Evidence for the United States Courts and Magistrates 140 (West 1975). Accord, Weinstein's Evidence § 804(a)[01] (1975).

Since the witness must testify to the lack of memory and is, therefore, subject to cross examination about his claim, the concern of some courts that the witness may make a perjured allegation of forgetfulness to avoid having to be cross-examined about his testimony is considerably lessened. Cross examination about the making of the statement and his present recollection gives the trial judge an opportunity for assessing the witness' credibility. Weinstein's Evidence § 804a[01]

Subsection (b)(1). This portion of the rule is substantially in accord with previous Washington law in civil cases. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. §§ 401-08 (1965 & Supp.). See also CR 43(h) and (j). In criminal cases, previous Washington law has imposed greater restrictions on the use of former testimony. The use of testimony at a former trial has been limited to proceedings on the same charge. State v. Lunsford, 163 Wash. 199, 300 P. 529 (1931). Rule 804 is less restrictive but is, of course, subject to constitutional limitations. For example, it has been held that under the state constitution, the defendant in criminal cases against whom the former testimony is introduced must have been present at the former trial and must have had the opportunity to confront and cross-examine witnesses. State v. Ortego, 22 Wn.2d 552, 157 P.2d 320 (1945).

Subsection (b)(2). Previous Washington law has recognized a limited exception for dying declarations. It has applied only in criminal cases involving prosecution for homicide. Hobbs v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 80 Wash. 678, 142 P. 20 (1914). Death must have actually resulted from the injuries creating the belief in impending death. State v. Lewis, 80 Wash. 532, 141 P. 1025 (1914). Declarations containing conclusions or opinion have been inadmissible to that extent. State v. Schwartz, 108 Wash. 21, 182 P. 953 (1919). Rule 804 broadens the scope of this exception. The rule substitutes the word "trial" for "prosecution" to avoid the unwarranted implication that the defendant might not be allowed to introduce a dying declaration.

Subsection (b)(3). Under previous Washington law, this exception has applied only to declarations against the declarant's pecuniary or proprietary interest. Allen v. Dillard, 15 Wn.2d 35, 129 P.2d 813 (1943). There has been no apparent authority concerning statements of matters which could furnish the basis for tort liability or invalidate a claim, nor has there been authority concerning statements furnishing the basis for criminal liability. Meisenholder § 441. Rule 804 expands and clarifies the scope of this exception.

Subsection (b)(4). Previous Washington law has recognized an exception for statements of personal or family history substantially in accord with rule 804, although the rule is much more detailed. The rule does not require the statement to have been made prior to the litigation and with no motive to deceive, a restriction apparently imposed by previous law. Meisenholder § 542.

Subsection (b)(5). Federal Rule 804(b)(5) is deleted for the same reasons that Federal Rule 803(24) is deleted. See the comment to rule 803(b).

RULE 805

HEARSAY WITHIN HEARSAY

Hearsay included within hearsay is not excluded under the hearsay rule if each part of the combined statements conforms with an exception to the hearsay rule provided in these rules.

Comment 805

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 805. It accepts the trustworthiness of each hearsay statement once it has been deemed worthy of an exception. Thus, if a dying declaration incorporated a declaration against interest by another out-of-court declarant, both statements would be admissible as exceptions to the hearsay rule. The statement of the second declarant is not admissible, however, if it does not fall within an exception. See for example Johnson v. Lutz, 253 N.Y. 124, 170 N.E. 517 (1930), holding information from a bystander incorporated in an admissible police report to be inadmissible as hearsay.

RULE 806

ATTACKING AND SUPPORTING CREDIBILITY OF DECLARANT

When a hearsay statement, or a statement defined in rule 801(d)(2)(iii), (iv), or (v), has been admitted in evidence, the credibility of the declarant may be attacked, and if attacked may be supported, by any evidence which would be admissible for those purposes if declarant had testified as a witness. Evidence of a statement or conduct by the declarant at any time, inconsistent with his hearsay statement, is not subject to any requirement that he may have been afforded an opportunity to deny or explain. If the party against whom a hearsay statement has been admitted calls the declarant as a witness, the party is entitled to examine him on the statement as if under cross examination.

Comment 806

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 806. The declarant of a hearsay statement which is admitted in evidence is in effect a witness. His credibility is subject to impeachment and support just as if he had testified.

The use of an inconsistent statement to impeach a hearsay declarant is not subject to the usual requirement that the witness have been afforded an opportunity to deny or explain it. Compare rule 613. The foundation requirement is relaxed here because, as a practical matter, the declarant seldom will have been confronted with inconsistent statements when making an out-of-court statement later admitted as an exception to the hearsay rule. See Weinstein's Evidence § 806[01] (1975).

TITLE 9

AUTHENTICATION AND IDENTIFICATION

RULE 901

REQUIREMENT OF AUTHENTICATION OR IDENTIFICATION

(a) General Provision. The requirement of authentication or identification as a condition precedent to admissibility is satisfied by evidence sufficient to support a finding that the matter in question is what its proponent claims.

(b) Illustrations. By way of illustration only, and not by way of limitation, the following are examples of authentication or identification conforming with the requirements of this rule:

(1) Testimony of Witness With Knowledge. Testimony that a matter is what it is claimed to be.

(2) Nonexpert Opinion on Handwriting. Nonexpert opinion as to the genuineness of handwriting, based upon familiarity not acquired for purposes of the litigation.

(3) Comparison by Court or Expert Witness. Comparison by the court or by expert witnesses with specimens which have been authenticated.

(4) Distinctive Characteristics and the Like. Appearance, contents, substance, internal patterns, or other distinctive characteristics, taken in conjunction with circumstances.

(5) Voice Identification. Identification of a voice, whether heard firsthand or through mechanical or electronic transmission or recording, by opinion based upon hearing the voice at any time under circumstances connecting it with the alleged speaker.

(6) Telephone Conversations. Telephone conversations, by evidence that a call was made to the number assigned at the time by the telephone company to a particular person or business, if (i) in the case of a person, circumstances, including self-identification, show the person answering to be the one called, or (ii) in the case of a business, the call was made to a place of business and the conversation related to business reasonably transacted over the telephone.

(7) Public Records or Reports. [Reserved. See RCW 5.44 and CR 44.]

(8) Ancient Documents or Data Compilation. Evidence that a document or data compilation, in any form, (i) is in such condition as to create no suspicion concerning its authenticity, (ii) was in a place where it, if authentic, would likely be, and (iii) has been in existence 20 years or more at the time it is offered.

(9) Process or System. Evidence describing a process or system used to produce a result and showing that the process or system produces an accurate result.

(10) Methods Provided by Statute or Rule. Any method of authentication or identification provided by statute or court rule.

Comment 901

Federal Rule 901 has been modified to restrict the application of subsection (b)(3), to delete subsection (b)(7), and to adapt subsection (b)(10) to state practice.

Section (a). The rule treats preliminary questions of authentication and identification as matters of conditional relevance under rule 104(b). The court should admit the evidence if sufficient proof is introduced to permit a reasonable juror to find in favor of its authenticity or identification. Weinstein's Evidence § 901(a)[01] (1975). There is no apparent conflict between section (a) and previous Washington law. See 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. §§ 38, 61 (1965 & Supp.). The rule is concerned only with proving authenticity. It does not govern admissibility. An authentic document may still be inadmissible under another rule.

Example 1. This portion of the rule is consistent with previous Washington law. Allen v. Porter, 19 Wn.2d 503, 143 P.2d 328 (1943); State v. Cottrell, 56 Wash. 543, 106 P. 179 (1910). The rule does not require that the witness' testimony, alone, be sufficient for authentication. This is true for the other examples as well. Any combination of methods illustrated by rule 901(b)(1) through (10) will suffice so long as rule 901(a) is satisfied. Weinstein's Evidence § 901(b)(1)[01] (1975).

Example 2. This portion of the rule is consistent with previous Washington law. State v. Simmons, 52 Wash. 132, 100 P. 269 (1909); Meisenholder § 61.

Example 3. Federal Rule 901(b)(3) permits the comparison to be made by the "trier of fact." The Washington rule substitutes the word "court" to avoid any suggestion that the jury initially determines whether the requirement of authentication has been satisfied. It is the judge who determines whether the proponent of the evidence has made a prima facie demonstration that it is genuine. Once this demonstration is made, the document is sufficiently authenticated for admissibility. Meisenholder § 61. After the document is admitted, however, evidence challenging its authenticity is pertinent and authenticity ultimately becomes a factual issue for the jury. See, e.g., State v. Bogart, 21 Wn.2d 765, 153 P.2d 507 (1944); Mitchell v. Mitchell, 24 Wn.2d 701, 166 P.2d 938 (1946); State v. Haislip, 77 Wn.2d 838, 467 P.2d 284 (1970).

In a jury case, the initial comparison by the judge should probably be made in the absence of the jury. This procedure is authorized by rule 104(c).

Example 4. This portion of the rule reflects, for example, the reply letter technique. A letter is sufficiently authenticated by showing that a letter was sent to a person and that the letter to be introduced is in reply to the first letter. Connor v. Zanuzoski, 36 Wn.2d 458, 218 P.2d 879 (1950). Other examples of circumstantial proof are cited in Meisenholder § 63.

Example 5. This portion of the rule is substantially in accord with previous Washington law. State v. Williams, 49 Wn.2d 354, 301 P.2d 769 (1956). Proper identification and authentication do not assure admissibility. RCW 9.73.050, for example, makes sound recordings inadmissible under certain circumstances.

Example 6. This portion of the rule is substantially in accord with previous law in Washington and elsewhere. Meisenholder § 66. One Washington decision appears to hold that self-identification by the answering party is insufficient for authentication. State v. Manos, 149 Wash. 60, 270 P. 132 (1929). Self-identification is sufficient under rule 901 so long as the call was made to the telephone number assigned to that particular person.

Example 7. Federal Rule 901(b)(7) is deleted, not because of any fundamental disagreement with its content, but because the subject matter is covered by existing statutes and rules which have become familiar to the bench and bar. CR 44 does not supersede the cited statute. Either procedure may be used. State v. Hodge, 11 Wn. App. 323, 523 P.2d 953 (1974). A common law procedure for authenticating original government documents is described in State v. Bolen, 142 Wash. 653, 254 P. 445 (1927).

Example 8. The rule reduces the time limit from 30 to 20 years. Compare Spokane v. Catholic Bishop, 33 Wn.2d 496, 206 P.2d 277 (1949).

Example 9. This portion of the rule would apply, for example, to the authentication of photographs and X-rays. Meisenholder § 32. Authorities discussing computer printouts are cited in the Advisory Committee Note to Federal Rule 902. See also Seattle v. Heath, 10 Wn. App. 949, 520 P.2d 1392 (1974).

Example 10. Statutes and other court rules defining methods of authentication are not superseded by rule 901.

RULE 902

SELF-AUTHENTICATION

Extrinsic evidence of authenticity as a condition precedent to admissibility is not required with respect to the following:

(a) Domestic Public Documents Under Seal. A document bearing a seal purporting to be that of the United States, or of any state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or the Panama Canal Zone, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, or of a political subdivision, department, officer, or agency thereof, and a signature purporting to be an attestation or execution.

(b) Domestic Public Documents Not Under Seal. A document purporting to bear the signature in his official capacity of an officer or employee of any entity included in section (a), having no seal, if a public officer having a seal and having official duties in the district or political subdivision of the officer or employee certifies under seal that the signer has the official capacity and that the signature is genuine.

(c) Foreign Public Documents. A document purporting to be executed or attested in his official capacity by a person authorized by the laws of a foreign country to make the execution or attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (1) of the executing or attesting person, or (2) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the execution or attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the execution or attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of official documents, the court may, for good cause shown, order that they be treated as presumptively authentic without final certification or permit them to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without final certification.

(d) Certified Copies of Public Records. A copy of an official record or report or entry therein, or of a document authorized by law to be recorded or filed and actually recorded or filed in a public office, including data compilations in any form, certified as correct by the custodian or other person authorized to make the certification, by certificate complying with section (a), (b), or (c) of this rule or complying with any law of the United States or of this state.

(e) Official Publications. Books, pamphlets, or other publications purporting to be issued by public authority.

(f) Newspapers and Periodicals. Printed materials purporting to be newspapers or periodicals.

(g) Trade Inscriptions and the Like. Inscriptions, signs, tags, or labels purporting to have been affixed in the course of business and indicating ownership, control, or origin.

(h) Acknowledged Documents. Documents accompanied by a certificate of acknowledgement executed in the manner provided by law by a notary public or other officer authorized by law to take acknowledgements.

(i) Commercial Paper and Related Documents. Commercial paper, signatures thereon, and documents relating thereto to the extent provided by general commercial law.

(j) Presumptions Created by Law. Any signature, document, or other matter declared by any law of the United States or of this state to be presumptively or prima facie genuine or authentic.

Comment 902

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 902, except that sections (d) and (j) have been modified to adapt the rule to state practice. Unlike the ten subsections in rule 901, the ten sections in rule 902 are not set forth as examples. They comprise instead the scope of the rule. This rule does not preclude the opposite party from disputing the authenticity of a document listed in the rule. It should also be emphasized that the rule is concerned only with the authenticity of certain documents. It is not concerned with their admissibility. A document deemed authentic may still be inadmissible under another rule.

By the terms of rules 901(b)(10) and 902(j), statutory methods of authentication are preserved as alternative procedures. See, e.g., RCW 5.44. CR 44, Proof of Official Record, relates to some of the matters governed by rule 902. CR 44 is not superseded and remains as an alternative procedure. R. Meisenholder, 3 West's Federal Forms § 3926 (1976 Supp.).

Section (a). This section simplifies the procedure for determining the authenticity of a domestic public document bearing a seal. Forgeries are unlikely, and detection is relatively easy and certain.

Section (b). A document purporting to bear an official signature is more easily forged in the absence of a seal. The rule thus requires the additional safeguard of authentication by an officer who does have a seal.

Section (c). This section is substantially the same as CR 44(a)(2).

Section (d). This section reflects the familiar practice of recognizing certified copies of public records. The rule defers to statutes such as RCW 5.44 which address the procedure for certification in more detail.

Section (e). By statute, certain official publications are considered authentic. See, e.g., RCW 5.44.070, 5.44.080. The rule accepts all official publications as authentic. The rule does not confer authenticity upon statutes, rules, and court decisions reprinted by nongovernmental publishers. Weinstein's Evidence § 902(5)[01] (1975).

Section (f). Newspapers and periodicals are considered authentic because the risk of forgery is minimal. The rule could not be determined with certainty under previous Washington law. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 65 (1965 & Supp.).

Section (g). The laws protecting trade inscriptions minimize the risk of forgery. The rule generalizes upon a policy which has been previously implemented on a piece-meal basis. See, e.g., RCW 16.57.100 (brands as evidence of title to livestock); Kneeland Inv. Co. v. Berendes, 81 Wash. 372, 142

P. 869 (1914) (seal of corporation on stock certificate held sufficient authentication).

Section (b). The rule is consistent with RCW 64.08.050. The persons authorized to take acknowledgements are defined by RCW 64.08.010.

Section (i). The rule incorporates the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code relating to authenticity. See RCW 62A.1-202 (certain documents deemed to be prima facie evidence of their own authenticity and genuineness); RCW 62A.3-307 (signatures presumed to be genuine); RCW 62A.3-510 (certain documents are admissible in evidence and create presumption of dishonor).

Section (j). Federal Rule 902(10) has been modified to refer to state law as well as to federal statutes. Statutory procedures such as those defined in RCW 5.44 are preserved. As to self-authenticating wills, see RCW 11.20.020. Some statutes provide that a document is presumptively authentic, but only after it has been certified or otherwise verified in a specified manner. See, e.g., RCW 77.12.050 (rules and regulations of state game commission). Section (j) does not eliminate these restrictions. Certified copies are governed by section (d). Other documents not falling within sections (a) through (i) but made presumptively authentic by statute are subject to any statutory conditions or restrictions on authenticity.

RULE 903

SUBSCRIBING WITNESS' TESTIMONY UNNECESSARY

The testimony of a subscribing witness is not necessary to authenticate a writing unless required by the laws of the jurisdiction whose laws govern the validity of the writing.

Comment 903

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 903. It eliminates the traditional common law requirement of live testimony from a subscribing witness and reflects the prevailing modern view. McCormick on Evidence § 220 (2d ed. 1972). The rule preserves statutes which require live testimony under particular circumstances.

TITLE 10

CONTENTS OF WRITINGS, RECORDINGS, AND PHOTOGRAPHS

RULE 1001 DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this article the following definitions are applicable:

(a) Writings and Recordings. "Writings" and "recordings" consist of letters, words, sounds, or numbers, or their equivalent, set down by handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, magnetic impulse, mechanical or electronic recording, or other form of data compilation.

(b) Photographs. "Photographs" include still photographs, X-ray films, video tapes, and motion pictures.

(c) Original. An "original" of a writing or recording is the writing or recording itself or any counterpart intended to have the same effect by a person executing or issuing it. An "original" of a photograph includes the negative or any print therefrom. If data are stored in a computer or similar device, any printout or other output readable by sight, shown to reflect the data accurately, is an "original".

(d) Duplicate. A "duplicate" is a counterpart produced by the same impression as the original, or from the same matrix, or by means of photography, including enlargements and miniatures, or by mechanical or electronic recording, or by chemical reproduction, or by other equivalent techniques which accurately reproduce the original.

Comment 1001

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 1001 except that "sounds" have been added to section (a). This addition is also found in Uniform Rule 1001. The rule establishes definitions which apply throughout Title 10. "Original" includes a counterpart intended to have the effect of an original. Thus, for example, an original and a photocopy of a contract, both bearing the original signatures of the parties and intended as originals, would both be originals under the rule. Previous Washington law is in accord. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 94 (1965 & Supp.). To qualify as a "duplicate", a copy must be produced by a method which virtually eliminates the possibility of error. Copies produced manually, whether handwritten or typed, are not within the definition.

The rules in Title 10 do not govern the authenticity of an "original". That determination is made by reference to the rules in Title 9. The authenticity of any piece of evidence, even documents which are self-authenticating under rule 902, may be disputed by the opposing party. Advisory Committee Note, Federal Rule 902. Thus, for example, an opposing party may challenge the integrity of an electronic recording even though it qualifies as an "original" under Title 10. See also Comments 901 and 902. Similarly, the rules do not prevent a party from challenging the accuracy of data fed into a computer or the integrity of the computer's storage system, even though a printout qualifies as the "original".

RULE 1002

REQUIREMENT OF ORIGINAL

To prove the content of a writing, recording, or photograph, the original writing, recording, or photograph is required, except as otherwise provided in these rules or by rules adopted by the Supreme Court of this state or by statute.

Comment 1002

Federal Rule 1002 has been modified to refer to state rules and statutes instead of to federal statutes. Taken together, rules 1001 and 1002 extend the traditional best evidence rule from writings to photographs and recordings as well. Previous Washington law has applied the best evidence rule only to writings. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 99 (1965 & Supp.). Although the rule now requires original photographs, rule 1001(3) defines an original photograph broadly as the negative or any print therefrom. The rule defers to statutory exceptions to the normal rule of requiring the original. These statutes are cited and discussed in Meisenholder § 98.

RULE 1003

ADMISSIBILITY OF DUPLICATES

A duplicate is admissible to the same extent as an original unless (1) a genuine question is raised as to the authenticity of the original or (2) in the circumstances it would be unfair to admit the duplicate in lieu of the original.

Comment 1003

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 1003 and relaxes the best evidence rule with respect to duplicates. Under rule 1003, the admission of duplicates is not limited to situations where the original is unavailable. Compare 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 95 (1965 & Supp.). The rule applies only to duplicates as defined in rule 1001 and thus assures the admission of accurate reproductions. The rule changes the law more in theory than in practice. As a practical matter, photocopies are reliable reproductions and are widely used both in commercial transactions and in litigation. The rule reflects this reality and at the same time affords ample opportunity to challenge the authenticity of a duplicate.

RULE 1004

ADMISSIBILITY OF OTHER EVIDENCE OF CONTENTS

The original is not required, and other evidence of the contents of a writing, recording, or photograph is admissible if:

(a) Original Lost or Destroyed. All originals are lost or have been destroyed, unless the proponent lost or destroyed them in bad faith; or

(b) Original Not Obtainable. No original can be obtained by any available judicial process or procedure; or

(c) Original in Possession of Opponent. At a time when an original was under the control of the party against whom offered, he was put on notice, by the pleadings or otherwise, that the contents would be a subject of proof at the hearing, and he does not produce the original at the hearing; or

(d) Collateral Matters. The writing, recording, or photograph is not closely related to a controlling issue.

Comment 1004

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 1004 and rejects any suggestion of a "second best" evidence rule. It is substantially in accord with previous Washington law. Although there is no case directly in point, the decisions appear to assume that there are no degrees of secondary evidence. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. §§ 95, 96 (1965 & Supp.).

Proof of a lost or destroyed will is governed by RCW 11.20.070. The statute defines "lost" and "destroyed" for purposes of probate and establishes the procedure to be followed. The statute is not in conflict with the rule and is not superseded.

Section (d), relating to collateral matters, reflects existing law in Washington and elsewhere. Meisenholder § 93.

The definition of "collateral" is elusive in the absence of specific facts. "In the final analysis the question of whether a document's terms are collateral depends upon the importance of the terms to the issues in the case. Insistence upon proof by introduction of an original document to prove its terms is a waste of time when the terms are relatively unimportant and not the subject of an important factual issue." Meisenholder § 93. See also McCormick on Evidence § 236 (2d ed. 1972).

Thus, for example, in State ex rel. Walton v. Superior Court, 18 Wn.2d 810, 140 P.2d 554 (1943), the principal issue was whether an easement over the land to be condemned was necessary in order to reach certain timber. The court held that oral testimony concerning ownership of the land to be benefited by the easement was admissible because ownership was a collateral question. In another case, oral testimony concerning a contract was held admissible to show the relationship between the plaintiffs and their right to sue jointly. Hull v. Seattle, R. & S. Ry., 60 Wash. 162, 110 P. 804 (1910).

RULE 1005

PUBLIC RECORDS

The contents of an official record, or of a document authorized to be recorded or filed and actually recorded or filed, including data compilations in any form, if otherwise admissible, may be proved by copy, certified as correct in accordance with rule 902 or testified to be correct by a witness who has compared it with the original. If a copy which complies with the foregoing cannot be obtained by the exercise of reasonable diligence, then other evidence of the contents may be given.

Comment 1005

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 1005. It exempts public records from the requirement of producing the original under rule 1002 because their removal from public custody is often not feasible. Unlike rule 1002, which makes no distinction among degrees of secondary evidence, this rule expresses a preference for certified or compared copies over other forms of secondary evidence.

Various statutes authorize the use of certified copies. RCW 5.44.040 (certified copies of public records); RCW 5.44.060 (certified copies of recorded instruments); RCW 5.44.070 (certified copies of transcripts of county commissioners' proceedings); RCW 5.44.090 (certified copies of instruments restoring civil rights). The rule authorizes proof by certified copy of any public record.

The rule changes Washington law in the sense that no previous authority has been found which equates compared copies with certified copies.

The last sentence of the rule authorizes proof by other forms of secondary evidence if neither a certified nor a compared copy can be obtained with reasonable diligence. Although this approach has been authorized in a number of factual situations, no previous authority has been found which applies the rule generally to public records. See 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. §§ 95, 96 (1965 & Supp.).

RULE 1006

SUMMARIES

The contents of voluminous writings, recordings, or photographs which cannot conveniently be examined in court may be presented in the form of a chart, summary, or calculation. The originals, or duplicates, shall be made available for examination or copying, or both, by other parties at reasonable time and place. The court may order that they be produced in court.

Comment 1006

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 1006 and is substantially in accord with previous Washington law. See Kenn v. O'Rourke, 48 Wn.2d 1, 290 P.2d 976 (1955). The rule does not require that the summary be prepared by a person with special expertise, but as a practical matter, the summary would ordinarily be prepared by a qualified person in order to avoid a challenge to its accuracy under rule 1008. See Weinstein's Evidence § 1006[01] (1975).

RULE 1007

TESTIMONY OR WRITTEN ADMISSION OF PARTY

Contents of writings, recordings, or photographs may be proved by the testimony or deposition of the party against whom offered or by his written admission, without accounting for the nonproduction of the original.

Comment 1007

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 1007 and conforms to the view expressed in McCormick on Evidence § 242 (2d ed. 1972). An adverse party's oral testimony, deposition, and writings are within the scope of the rule; oral admissions made out of court are not. Written responses to interrogatories and requests for admission are admissible under this rule. Weinstein's Evidence § 1007[05] (1975). There appears to be no previous Washington law on this point. 5 R. Meisenholder, Wash. Prac. § 97 (1965 & Supp.).

RULE 1008

FUNCTIONS OF COURT AND JURY

When the admissibility of other evidence of contents of writings, recordings, or photographs under these rules depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the question whether the condition has been fulfilled is ordinarily for the court to determine in accordance with the provisions of rule 104. However, when an issue is raised (1) whether the asserted writing ever existed, or (2) whether another writing, recording, or photograph produced at the trial is the original, or (3) whether other evidence of contents correctly reflects the contents, the issue is for the trier of fact to determine as in the case of other issues of fact.

Comment 1008

This rule is the same as Federal Rule 1008 and defines a specialized approach to determining questions under rule 104 for matters within the scope of Title 10. RCW 4.44.080 and 4.44.090 allocate questions of law and fact to the court and jury, respectively. The rule is more specific than the statutes but does not conflict with them. The statutes are not superseded.

TITLE 11

MISCELLANEOUS RULES

RULE 1101

APPLICABILITY OF RULES

(a) Courts Generally. Except as otherwise provided in section (c), these rules apply to all actions and proceedings in the courts of the state of Washington.

The terms "judge" and "court" in these rules refer to any judge of any court to which these rules apply or any other officer who is authorized by law to hold any hearing to which these rules apply.

(b) Law With Respect to Privilege. The law with respect to privileges applies at all stages of all actions, cases, and proceedings.

(c) When Rules Need Not Be Applied. The rules (other than with respect to privileges) need not be applied in the following situations:

(1) Preliminary Questions of Fact. The determination of questions of fact preliminary to admissibility of evidence when the issue is to be determined by the court under rule 104(a).

(2) Grand Jury. Proceedings before grand juries and special inquiry judges.

(3) Miscellaneous Proceedings. Proceedings for extradition or rendition; detainer proceedings under RCW 9.100; preliminary determinations in criminal cases; sentencing, or granting or revoking probation; issuance of warrants for arrest, criminal summonses, and search warrants; proceedings with respect to release on bail or otherwise; contempt proceedings in which the court may act summarily; habeas corpus proceedings; small claims court; supplemental proceedings under RCW 6.32; coroners' inquests; preliminary determinations in juvenile court proceedings under RCW Title 13; juvenile court hearings on declining jurisdiction under RCW 13.40.110; disposition hearings in juvenile court; review hearings in juvenile court under RCW 13.32A.190 and RCW 13.34.130(3); dispositional determinations under the Uniform Alcoholism and Intoxication Treatment Act, RCW 70.96A; and dispositional determinations under the Civil Commitment Act, RCW 71.05.

Comment 1101

Federal Rule 1101 has been modified by deleting references to matters heard only in federal court and by adding references to certain proceedings heard in the state courts. The rule conforms substantially to previous Washington practice.

Section (a). The rules of evidence apply generally to civil and criminal proceedings, including mental commitment proceedings, reference hearings, and juvenile court fact-finding and adjudicatory hearings. See RCW 71.05.250, RCW 71.05.310, MPR 3.4, RAP 16.12, JuCR 3.7, and JuCR 7.11. Juvenile court hearings on whether to decline jurisdiction are not excused from the operation of the rules. These hearings have a substantial impact upon the case and deserve the formality of evidentiary rules. Cf. In re Harbert, 85 Wn.2d 719, 538 P.2d 1212 (1975).

The words "judge" and "court" are used interchangeably throughout the rules and refer to a judge, judge pro tempore, commissioner, or any other person authorized to hold a hearing to which the rules apply.

Section (b). The law concerning privileged communications applies to all proceedings, including those listed in section (c).

Subsection (c)(1). This portion of the rule is a restatement of a similar provision in rule 104. The rules need not be applied, for example, at a hearing on a motion to suppress evidence. United States v. Matlock, 415 U.S. 164 (1974); Am. Jur. 2d, Federal Rules of Evidence (New Topic Service 1975). The rule, like all of the other rules, does not attempt to specify the situations in which due process would require a full evidentiary hearing. That determination is made by reference to constitutional law.

In the absence of a constitutional requirement, the rule still does not prevent the court from requiring a certain measure of reliability with respect to the admission of evidence in the proceedings specified in section (c). The court should have the discretion to require an appropriate level of formality.

Subsection (c)(2). The statutes contain special evidentiary provisions for grand juries and inquiry judges. See RCW 10.27.120, .130, .140, and .170. Although there are no Washington cases directly in point, the majority view is that the validity of a grand jury indictment may not be challenged on the basis of insufficient or incompetent evidence unless none of the witnesses was competent. Annot., 37 A.L.R.3d 612 (1971); Annot., 39 A.L.R.3d 1064 (1971).

Subsection (c)(3). Proceedings with respect to extradition, rendition, and detainees are essentially administrative matters, and the rules of evidence have traditionally not applied. Gibson v. Beall, 249 F.2d 489 (D.C. Cir. 1957); United States v. Flood, 374 F.2d 554 (2d Cir. 1967).

The view that the rules of evidence do not apply to preliminary determinations in criminal cases is consistent with the Superior Court Criminal Rules. See, e.g., CrR 3.2(i), relating to hearings on pretrial release. The rule refers to "determinations" rather than to "examinations," the federal rule's terminology. This change was made to clarify the intent to relax the rules of evidence with respect to all preliminary matters, not just at hearings in which the accused gives testimony.

The normal rules of evidence do not apply to hearings with respect to sentencing or probation. State v. Short, 12 Wn. App. 125, 528 P.2d 480 (1974); State v. Shannon, 60 Wn.2d 883, 376 P.2d 646 (1962); State v. Kuhn, 80 Wn.2d 648, 503 P.2d 1061 (1972). As to sentencing proceedings in cases involving the death penalty, see also RCW 10.94.020. As to search warrants, see CrR 2.3(c). The rules do not apply to hearings with respect to pretrial release. CrR 3.2(i).

The provision regarding contempt applies to contempt committed in the presence of the court as defined by RCW 7.20.030.

The rule clarifies the law with respect to habeas corpus hearings. A statute, RCW 7.36.120, directs the court to hear and determine the matter "in a summary way." The Supreme Court has held that the trial court may thus determine factual matters by reference to affidavits. Little v. Rhay, 68 Wn.2d 353, 413 P.2d 15 (1966). Later, a division of the Court of Appeals held that such affidavits should be considered only to assist in formulating the issues of fact and not in themselves to determine disputed questions of material fact. Little v. Rhay, 8 Wn. App. 725, 509 P.2d 92 (1973). A dissenting opinion argued that the majority opinion nullified the statute and disregarded earlier decisions of the Supreme Court. Rule 1101 adopts the approach taken by the earlier Supreme Court decisions. This is contrary to Federal Rule 1101, which makes the rules of evidence applicable to federal habeas corpus proceedings, but the underlying federal statute requires testimony to be taken. Walker v. Johnson, 312 U.S. 275 (1941).

The rules do not apply to small claims courts, supplemental proceedings, or to coroners' inquests, primarily because the purposes of these proceedings would be frustrated by strictly imposing rules of evidence. As a practical matter, the rules have not been applied to these proceedings in the past.

Fact-finding and adjudicatory hearings in juvenile court are conducted in accordance with the rules of evidence. JuCR 3.7 and JuCR 7.11. Once the facts have been determined, however, the appropriate form of disposition is determined with less formality. The situation is analogous to the distinction between a criminal trial and sentencing. Rule 1101 thus authorizes a relaxation of the rules of evidence for disposition hearings in juvenile court. A corresponding relaxation of the rules is authorized for dispositional determinations under the Uniform Alcoholism and Intoxication Treatment Act, RCW 70.96A, and the civil commitment act, RCW 71.05.

RULE 1103

TITLE

These rules may be known and cited as the Washington Rules of Evidence. ER is the official abbreviation.

Part II

RULES FOR APPELLATE COURT ADMINISTRATION

Table of Rules	Abbreviation	Formerly
Supreme Court Administrative Rules	SAR	(RPBSC)
Court of Appeals Administrative Rules	CAR	(CAR)

RULE 3 JUDGMENTS

The judgments and decrees of the Supreme Court shall be final and conclusive upon all the parties properly before the court.

RULE 4

SESSIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT

The regular sessions of the Supreme Court shall be held in the Supreme Court, the Temple of Justice, at the capital, beginning on the second Monday of January, the second Monday of May, and the second Monday of September each year. The court will not sit for the regular hearing of cases in July and August.

Sessions of the court shall commence at 9 a.m. or at such other time as the court may order.

Hearings en banc, rehearings, and special hearings may be set by the court in its discretion at such other times as the court may order.

RULE 5

ADJOURNMENTS

Adjournments from day to day, or from time to time, are to be construed as recesses in the sessions, and shall not prevent the court sitting at any time.

RULE 6

TWO DEPARTMENTS—ASSIGNMENT OF JUSTICES

The court may be divided into two departments for the hearing of motions and such other matters as the Chief Justice may designate. The Chief Justice shall assign four of the associate Justices to each department, and such assignment may be changed by him from time to time, provided that the associate Justices shall be competent to sit in either department and may interchange with one another by agreement among themselves, or, if no such agreement is made, as ordered by the Chief Justice.

The Chief Justice shall sit in both departments and shall preside when so sitting.

RULE 1

SEAL

The seal of the Supreme Court shall be the vignette of General George Washington, with the words, "SEAL OF THE SUPREME COURT—STATE OF WASHINGTON," surrounding the vignette.

RULE 2

STYLE OF PROCESS

Process of the Supreme Court shall run in the name of the "State of Washington," bear attest in the name of the Chief Justice, be signed by the clerk of the court, dated when issued, sealed with the seal of the court, and made returnable according to such rules or orders as are prescribed by the court.

RULE 8

CHIEF JUSTICE, CHOICE OF—DUTY

The Justice having the shortest term to serve, not holding his office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy, shall be the Chief Justice, and shall preside at all sessions of the Supreme Court, and in case there shall be two Justices having in like manner the same short term, the other Justices of the Supreme Court shall determine which of them shall be Chief Justice.

The Chief Justice shall be the executive officer of the court and shall do and perform those duties required of him by the constitution and laws of the State of Washington and the rules of this court, and shall serve as coordinator between the two departments.

RULE 9

ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE

The court shall elect from time to time an Acting Chief Justice. The Acting Chief Justice may be any member of the court not holding his office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy. The Acting Chief Justice shall perform the duties, and exercise the powers of the Chief Justice during the absence or inability of the Chief Justice to act.

RULE 10

RIGHT OF SENIOR JUSTICE TO ACT

In the absence or inability of both the Chief Justice and the Acting Chief Justice, the senior Justice present at the capital shall act as Chief Justice.

RULE 11

SENIORITY OF JUSTICES

Seniority among the Justices of the Supreme Court shall be determined by length of continuous service.

RULE 12

ACTS IN CONTEMPT OF COURT

It shall be contempt of this court for anyone to divulge to others than the Justices and employees of this court working upon an opinion, the results of any appeal or the identity of the assignment Justice prior to the time the opinion is filed by the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

RULE 13

MINUTES—COURT BUSINESS MEETINGS

The court will cause to be recorded in a book kept for that purpose minutes of all business meetings. The Justice junior in length of service shall act as secretary.

RULE 14

OPINIONS—WHEN FILED

All opinions filed with the clerk of this court shall be signed except per curiams. All opinions in any case shall be filed at the same time, and the time of filing shall be determined by the Chief Justice. Original opinions shall not be taken from the clerk's office.

RULE 15

COMMISSIONER OF THE SUPREME COURT

(a) Appointment. To promote the effective administration of justice, the Justices of the Supreme Court will appoint a commissioner of the court. The salary of the commissioner will be fixed by the court. The commissioner may be removed at the pleasure of the Supreme Court.

(b) Deciding Motions. The commissioner will hear and decide those motions authorized by the Rules of Appellate Procedure and any additional motions that may be assigned to the commissioner by the court.

(c) Screening for the Court. The commissioner will screen petitions for review and direct appeals to the Supreme Court and recommend whether Supreme Court review should be granted. Except for motions to modify a ruling of the commissioner, the commissioner will also screen motions which are to be decided by the Justices and recommend to the court an appropriate disposition for each motion. When necessary, screening memoranda will contain an evaluation sufficiently comprehensive to assist each Justice in independently deciding the matter being screened.

(d) Assisting Chief Justice. The commissioner will assist the Chief Justice in determining whether cases certified by the Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court should be accepted for review. The commissioner will also assist the Chief Justice with motions to file amicus curiae briefs.

(e) Judicial Law Clerks. The commissioner will assist the Justices of the Supreme Court with the selection of judicial law clerks, as desired by each Justice. The commissioner will present an annual orientation for the new law clerks. The commissioner will prepare and periodically revise a manual for use by the judicial law clerks.

(f) Improving Administration of Justice. The commissioner will make recommendations to the court regarding procedures. The commissioner will serve on court committees when appointed thereto by the Chief Justice.

(g) Central Staff. The commissioner will employ and train staff attorneys and other personnel to assist the commissioner in carrying out the duties of the commissioner's office. These employees shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner. To the extent appropriations permit, the court will authorize the commissioner to employ sufficient staff to assist the court in expeditiously fulfilling its duties to promptly fulfill the duties of the office.

(h) Duties To Benefit Full Court. All duties performed by the commissioner are for the benefit of the court as a whole. The court may alter or add to the duties of the commissioner. In the performance of these duties the commissioner is responsible to the Chief Justice as executive officer of the court under SAR 8.

(i) Qualifications. The commissioner must be a graduate of an accredited law school and a member in good standing of the Washington State Bar Association and, prior to appointment, have at least 5 years of experience in the practice of law or in a judicially related field.

(j) Oath of Office. Before entering upon the duties of the office, the commissioner will take and file an oath of office in the form prescribed by order of the Supreme Court. The oath will include a requirement that the commissioner adhere to the Code of Judicial Conduct.

(k) Prohibition From Practice of Law. The commissioner is prohibited, during term of office, from acting as an attorney or having a partner who acts as an attorney.

RULE 16

CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT—APPOINTMENT— POWERS—DUTIES

(a) The Justices of the Supreme Court shall appoint a clerk of that court, who may be removed at their pleasure. The clerk shall receive such compensation by salary only as shall be fixed by the court.

(b) The Clerk of the Supreme Court may have one or more deputies, to be appointed by him in writing, to serve during his pleasure. The deputies shall have the power to perform any act or duty relating to the clerk's office that their principal has, and their principal is responsible for their conduct.

(c) The clerk and his deputies are prohibited, during their continuance in office, from acting or having a partner who acts as an attorney.

(d) Before entering upon the duties of his office, the clerk and each deputy clerk shall take an oath of office, and give bond in such a sum, with surety and condition, as the court shall require, which oath and bond shall be deposited with the Secretary of State.

(e) The clerk shall keep his office at the seat of government open at such hours as the court shall require, and shall keep such records and books as are prescribed by the court.

(f) The Clerk of the Supreme Court is given the power to take and certify the proof and acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property or any other written instrument authorized or required to be proved or acknowledged, and to administer oaths in every case when authorized by law. It is the duty of the clerk—

- (1) to keep the seal of the court and affix it in all cases where he is required by law;
- (2) to record the proceedings of the court;
- (3) to keep the records, files and other books and papers appertaining to the court;
- (4) to file all papers delivered to him for that purpose, in any action or proceeding in that court, except when by the rules of court he is directed to refuse to file papers under the conditions set out by the rules.

(g) The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall keep the following books and records:

- (1) Journal in which he shall record
 - (i) all judgments;
 - (ii) orders of the court except those of a temporary nature which do not affect the final result of the case;
 - (iii) original bonds;
 - (iv) citations to the Supreme Court of the United States;
 - (v) mandates from the Supreme Court of the United States and certified copies of its orders.
 - (2) Appearance docket in which he shall show
 - (i) the substantial title of the case, the number in the superior court, the trial judge, the county whence comes the appeal, and names of attorneys;
 - (ii) appearance fees and money paid into the clerk's trust fund;
 - (iii) the date of filing each paper and part of the record;
 - (iv) all minute entries directed by the court or Chief Justice;
 - (v) the date for hearing on the calendar and any continuance;
 - (vi) the disposition of motions and petitions;
 - (vii) the entry of judgment and where recorded;
 - (viii) date mandated;
 - (ix) citation of opinion in Washington Reports.
 - (3) General index of cases;
 - (4) Motion docket, which shall show the number and title of the case, the attorneys, the nature of the motion and sufficient space for the Chief Justice to show the disposition;
 - (5) Cash book, in which shall be shown all monies received and disbursed by the clerk;
 - (6) Trust fund journal, in which shall be shown all receipts and disbursements in clerk's trust fund;
 - (7) Appropriation expenditure ledger, showing all expenditures from appropriations for salaries and operations;
 - (8) Withholding tax ledger, showing withholdings from salaries of each employee and officer of the court for federal income taxes and disbursement of the same;
 - (9) Courtroom docket, which shall show the title and number of each case argued, the department, names of the judges sitting, the attorneys arguing each side of the case, and the time used by each, together with the nature of the matter heard. The bailiff, at the direction of the clerk, will prepare and make entries;
 - (10) Clerk's docket of admission and discipline of attorneys, which shall show all papers covering the admission and discipline of attorneys.
- (h) The clerk shall do and perform any and all other duties as may be prescribed by the Supreme Court.
- (i) In all cases that are remanded for a new trial or for further proceedings, at the time the mandate goes down, the clerk, at the expense of appellant, shall return the statement of facts and the exhibits to the clerk of the superior court.

RULE 17

REPORTER—APPOINTMENT—DUTIES

(a) The Justices of the Supreme Court shall appoint a reporter for the decisions of the court, who shall be removable at their pleasure. He shall receive such annual salary as shall be fixed and determined by the Supreme Court.

(b) The reporter shall prepare the decisions of the Supreme Court for publication in the weekly advance sheets and in the permanent volumes of the Washington Reports. The decisions shall be published chronologically, unless otherwise directed by the court.

(c) When in any case a motion for reconsideration has been made and denied, he shall make a notation thereof at the conclusion of the decision as reported in the permanent volume.

(d) He shall prepare the decisions for publication in the weekly advance sheets by giving the title of each case, the classification of the points decided, and the names of counsel, and shall prepare a subject index to each book and prefix a table of cases reported. When the decisions published in a volume of advance sheets approximately equal those to be published in the corresponding permanent volume, the volume of advance sheets shall be closed, and the reporter shall prepare a cumulative subject index covering such volume, to be published in the last book thereof.

(e) He shall prepare the decisions for publication in the permanent volumes by giving the title of each case, a syllabus of the points decided, and the names of counsel, and shall prepare a full and comprehensive index of each volume, and prefix a table of cases reported.

(f) He shall furnish to each of the Justices proof sheets of the decisions written by such Justice, as the same are to appear in the bound volume, and, after examination, the Justice will return them to the reporter.

RULE 18

STATE LAW LIBRARY

The following rules shall govern the operation of the State Law Library:

(a) State Law Library—General. The primary function of the State Law Library shall be to maintain a legal research library at the state capital for the use of all state officials and employees, equipped to serve them effectively with legal research materials required by them in connection with their official duties. Specifically included, but not limited to, are members, staff, and employees of the:

- (1) Supreme Court
- (2) Office of Administrator for the Courts
- (3) Attorney General
- (4) Legislature
- (5) Governor's Office
- (6) Commissions, agencies, and boards of all branches of state government.

(b) Public Use. In addition to the groups provided in section (a), the library shall be open to the public each day of the week from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. except Saturdays, Sundays, and those legal holidays provided in RCW 1.16.050.

(c) After-Hours Use. In addition to the hours for public use as provided in section (b), and when required by them in connection with their official duties, those persons provided for in section (a) may, upon application to the law librarian, have access to the library collection during evenings, weekends, and holidays.

(d) State Law Librarian—Appointments. The court will appoint a law librarian who may be removed at its pleasure.

(e) State Law Librarian—Duties. The state law librarian shall:

- (1) Maintain as complete and up-to-date law library as possible;
- (2) Administer the library in accordance with the best professional standards and protect library property from loss or damage;
- (3) Do legal research for any Supreme Court Justice when he requests it;
- (4) Establish, develop, and maintain legal research libraries for each division of the Court of Appeals;
- (5) Upon request, advise and consult with Boards of Trustees, or other administrative bodies, of county law libraries in the development, improvement, arrangement, and maintenance of county law library collections and services;
- (6) Promote improved statewide law library service to all citizens of the state of Washington by lending of legal materials and providing reference assistance in any manner not inconsistent with the primary responsibility of the State Law Library as set forth in section (a);
- (7) Make distribution of legislative journals, session laws, Washington Reports, and Washington Appellate Reports as required by statute;
- (8) Perform any and all other duties as may be prescribed by the Supreme Court or by statute.

RULE 19

BAILIFF—APPOINTMENT—DUTIES

The court will appoint a bailiff whose duties shall be to attend the sessions of the court, circulate opinions and petitions, act as clerk to the Chief Justice, and do and perform such other duties as may be required by the court.

RULE 20

MEMORIAL EXERCISES

During the week before the beginning of the May term of each year, the court will conduct suitable memorial exercises for members or former members of the Supreme Court who have died within the preceding year.

RULE 21

JUSTICES PRO TEMPORE

(a) Selection and Use. When a member of the court is disqualified or unable to function on a case for good cause, a majority of the regular remaining members of the court may, by written order, designate a justice pro tempore to sit with the court en banc to hear and determine the case. The designating order shall set forth the period of service. In no event shall more than two justices pro tempore sit with the court en banc. No justice pro tempore shall be appointed who has less than 5 years' service as a judge of a court of record.

(b) Qualifications. A justice pro tempore shall take the oath of office required by article 4, section 28 of the state constitution. The oath of office, together with the original order of appointment, shall be filed forthwith in the office of the Secretary of State. A copy of the oath and order of appointment shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

(c) Duties of the Justice Pro Tempore.

(1) A justice, while serving pro tempore, shall have the same power and authority as a Justice of the Supreme Court, and he shall perform such duties as the court may direct. Justices pro tempore shall not author majority opinions other than in those cases wherein they prevail by concurring or dissenting opinion.

(2) A justice pro tempore will function promptly on opinions and motions for reconsideration on which he is qualified to function. When such opinions are received by him after the period of his appointment has expired, his original period of office as a justice pro tempore shall be deemed to exist in order for him to function and to accomplish the ministerial act of filing the opinion.

(d) Publication of Opinions.

(1) Dissents and Concurrences. Dissents or concurrences written by a justice pro tempore shall be published in regular form, except that a reference symbol shall be placed after his name, directing attention to a footnote which shall read:

"Justice _____ is serving as a justice pro tempore of the Supreme Court pursuant to Const. art. 4, § 2(a) (amend. 38)."

(2) Opinions signed by a justice pro tempore shall be published in the regular form, except that the names of the justice pro tempore shall follow the names of the Justices of the Supreme Court signing such opinion, with the designation "Pro Tem." after his signature.

(3) There shall appear, in each bound volume of the Washington Reports, on the page following the page listing the Justices of the Supreme Court, the names and terms of office of the justices pro tempore who served during the period covered by the published volume.

RULE 22

REPORTING OF CRIMINAL CASES

On any criminal appeal taken to the Supreme Court from a determination made by a court of lesser jurisdiction, the court clerk shall, within 5 court days of the filing of a final decision on the merits in the matter, forward to the Washington State Patrol Section on Identification on a form approved by the Administrator for the Courts its disposition of the particular case. In the event that original or collateral proceedings are brought in the Supreme Court and the result of those original or collateral proceedings changes, or otherwise makes inaccurate, the information forwarded on the original disposition report, the court clerk shall prepare and forward to the Section a supplemental disposition report on a form approved by the Administrator for the Courts indicating thereon the information necessary to correct the current status of the disposition of charges against the subject maintained in the records of the Section.

RULE 23

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

A Justice who has not participated in an opinion rendered by the Supreme Court shall not be entitled to act on a motion for reconsideration.

COURT OF APPEALS
ADMINISTRATIVE RULES (CAR)

RULE 1

SEAL

The seal of the Court of Appeals shall be in the vignette of George Washington, with the words "SEAL OF THE COURT OF APPEALS—STATE OF WASHINGTON" surrounding the vignette.

RULE 2

STYLE OF PROCESS

Processes of the Court of Appeals shall run in the name of the "State of Washington," bear attest in the name of the Chief Judge, be signed by the clerk of the court, dated when issued, sealed with the seal of the court, and made returnable according to such rules or orders as are prescribed by the court.

RULE 3

JUDGMENTS

The judgments and decrees of the Court of Appeals shall be final and conclusive upon all parties except when the Supreme Court has assumed jurisdiction of the cause.

SESSIONS

The regular sessions of each division of the Court of Appeals shall be held at the headquarters, and, by orders of the Chief Judge of the division, at such other locations as authorized by statute. Pursuant to Laws of 1969, 1st Ex. Sess., ch. 221, the first division shall have its headquarters in Seattle; the second division shall have its headquarters in Tacoma; and the third division shall have its headquarters in Spokane. Conferences and ceremonial sessions may be held at any location within the geographical boundaries of any division by order of its Chief Judge.

Part II (CAR)

Rules of Court

RULE 5
ADJOURNMENTS

Adjournments from day to day, or from time to time, are to be construed as recesses in the sessions, and shall not prevent the court sitting at any time.

RULE 6
AUTHORITY

The presence of three judges and a concurrence of at least a majority thereof shall be required to dispose of a case, except for dismissal on stipulation of counsel of record. The Chief Judge may function on all procedural matters not affecting the content of the record or argument.

RULE 7
APPORTIONMENT OF BUSINESS

The Chief Judge shall apportion cases fairly among all judges of the division.

RULE 8
CHIEF JUDGE

The judges of each division will select its Chief Judge. Generally the judge of each division having the shortest term to serve not holding his office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy shall be the Chief Judge and in case there shall be two judges having the same short term, the other judges of the division shall determine which of them shall be Chief Judge. In a division having more than four judges, the Chief Judge shall assign the judges to panels.

RULE 9
ACTING CHIEF JUDGE

Each division shall elect from time to time an Acting Chief Judge. The Acting Chief Judge shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chief Judge during the absence or inability of the Chief Judge to act.

RULE 10
RIGHT OF SENIOR JUDGE TO ACT

In the absence or inability of both the Chief Judge and the Acting Chief Judge, the senior judge present, of the division, shall act as Chief Judge.

RULE 11
SENIORITY OF JUDGES

Seniority among the judges of the Court of Appeals shall be determined by length of continuous service on the Court of Appeals.

RULE 12
ACTS IN CONTEMPT OF COURT

It shall be contempt of this court for anyone to divulge to others than the judges or employees of this court any information relative to a case, except that which is of public record.

RULE 13
MINUTES—COURT BUSINESS MEETINGS

The court will cause to be recorded in a book kept for the purpose, minutes of all business meetings.

RULE 14
OPINIONS—WHEN FILED

All opinions filed with a clerk of a division shall be signed, except per curiams. All opinions in any one case shall be filed at the same time, and the time of filing shall be determined by the Chief Judge. Original opinions shall not be taken from the clerk's office.

RULE 15
[RESCINDED]

RULE 16
COURT PERSONNEL

The Court of Appeals shall have such personnel as are authorized by Supreme Court rule. The personnel will be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the division of the court to which they report.

(a) Clerk's Office. Each division shall have a clerk and such other personnel for the operation of the office as are authorized by the Supreme Court. Before undertaking his duties, the clerk shall file with the Secretary of State an oath of office.

(b) Law Clerks and Secretaries. Each judge and Chief judge is entitled to not less than one law clerk and one secretary.

(c) Commissioner. To promote the effective administration of justice, the judges of each division of the Court of Appeals will appoint one or more commissioners of the court. The salary of the commissioners will be fixed by the court.

(1) Deciding Motions. The commissioners will hear and decide those motions authorized by the Rules of Appellate Procedure and any additional motions that may be assigned to the commissioners by the court.

(2) Screening for the Court. The commissioners may screen appeals to the Court of Appeals and recommend whether a case should be disposed of by a published or unpublished opinion.

(3) Assisting Chief Judge. The commissioners may assist the Chief Judges in the initial consideration of personal restraint petitions and such other administrative and research duties as may be assigned.

(4) Judicial Law Clerks. The commissioners may assist the judges of the Court of Appeals with the selection of judicial law clerks, as desired by each judge. The commissioners will present an annual orientation for the new law clerks. The commissioners will prepare and periodically revise a manual for use by the judicial law clerks.

(5) Improving Administration of Justice. The commissioners will make recommendations to the court regarding procedures and the more effective use of judicial manpower in a particular division. The commissioners will serve on court committees when appointed thereto by the Chief Judges.

(6) Assistants. The commissioners will employ and train staff attorneys and other personnel to assist the commissioners in carrying out the duties of the commissioners' offices. These employees shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioners.

(7) Duties To Benefit Full Court. All duties performed by the commissioners are for the benefit of the court as a whole. The court may alter or add to the duties of the commissioners. In the performance of these duties the commissioners are responsible to the Chief Judges as executive officers of the court.

(8) Qualifications. The commissioners must be graduates of an accredited law school and members in good standing of the Washington State Bar Association and, prior to appointment, have at least 5 years of experience in the practice of law or in a judicially related field.

(9) Oath of Office. Before entering upon the duties of the office, the commissioners will take and file an oath of office in the form prescribed by order of the Supreme Court. The oath will include a requirement that the commissioners adhere to the Code of Judicial Conduct.

(10) State Bar Association Membership. The commissioners are not prohibited, during term of office, from maintaining active memberships in the Washington State Bar Association.

RULE 17
REPORTER

The opinions of the Court of Appeals shall be published by the reporter of decisions of the Supreme Court, under the supervision of the Commission on Supreme Court Reports.

RULE 18
LAW LIBRARIAN

The state law librarian shall counsel and advise in the selection of books, periodicals, and all other legal research materials for the use of the Court of Appeals.

Acquisition of all such material shall be made through the State Law Library.

RULE 19
BAILIFF

The clerk of each division may serve as bailiff. The Chief Judge may designate a law clerk to serve as temporary bailiff.

RULE 20
MEMORIAL EXERCISES

At the beginning of the May term of each year, the court will conduct suitable memorial exercises for members or former members of the Court of Appeals who have died during the preceding year.

RULE 21
TRANSFER OF JUDGES AND CASES

(a) Generally. A judge of one division of the Court of Appeals may sit in any other division by mutual agreement of the Chief Judges of the two divisions involved. A case may be transferred from one division to another by written order of the Chief Judge of the transferring division, with the concurrence of the Chief Judge of the division to which the case is transferred.

(b) For Settlement Conferences. A judge or judge pro tempore of the Court of Appeals may be assigned to expedite the use of settlement conferences provided for under RAP 5.5 as follows:

(1) Judge. A judge of one division of the Court of Appeals may sit in any other division as a settlement conference judge or to replace during argument and decision a judge of another division who has acted as a settlement conference judge, by mutual agreement of the Chief Judges of the two divisions involved.

(2) Judge Pro Tempore. The Chief Judge of any division of the Court of Appeals may appoint a retired judge of a court of record to sit in that division as a settlement conference judge or to replace during argument and decision a judge who has acted as a settlement conference judge.

RULE 22
SUPREME COURT CLERK

The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall be responsible for the training and coordination control of the clerks of the Court of Appeals.

RULE 23
ADMINISTRATOR FOR THE COURTS

(a) Fiscal Services. Fiscal services for the Court of Appeals shall be provided by the Administrator for the Courts.

(b) Budgetary Planning. Each division shall submit to the Administrator for the Courts a proposed budget at such time and in such form as the Administrator for the Courts shall request. The Administrator for the Courts shall, with the advice and assistance of at least one judge from each of the divisions, prepare a proposed budget for the Court of Appeals.

(c) Statistics. The Administrator for the Courts, under the supervision of the Supreme Court and the Chief Justice, shall collect and compile statistical and other data reflecting the state of the dockets and any need for judicial assistance, and shall make reports of the business transacted by the Court of Appeals. The clerks of the Court of Appeals and all other officers and employees of the court shall comply with all requests made by the Administrator for the Courts, after approval by the Chief Justice, for information and statistical data bearing upon the business transacted and the judicial accomplishments of that court.

(d) Bond. The Administrator for the Courts shall obtain public employee faithful performance bond coverage for all court employees.

RULE 24

[RESCINDED]

RULE 25

REPORTING OF CRIMINAL CASES

On any criminal appeal taken to the Court of Appeals from a determination made by a court of lesser jurisdiction, the court clerk shall, within 5 court days of the filing of a final decision on the merits in the matter, forward to the Washington State Patrol Section on Identification on a form approved by the Administrator for the Courts its disposition of the particular case. In the event that collateral proceedings are brought in the Court of Appeals and the result of those collateral proceedings changes, or otherwise makes inaccurate, the information forwarded on the original disposition report, the court clerk shall prepare and forward to the Section a supplemental disposition report on a form approved by the Administrator for the Courts indicating thereon the information necessary to correct the current status of the disposition of charges against the subject maintained in the records of the section.

RULE 1.1

SCOPE OF RULES

(a) Review of Trial Court Decision. These rules govern proceedings in the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals for review of a trial court decision.

(b) Review of Decision of Court of Appeals. These rules also establish the procedure for seeking review of a decision of the Court of Appeals by the Supreme Court. Review of a decision of the Court of Appeals is governed by Title 13 of these rules.

(c) Special Proceedings. These rules also establish the procedure for original actions in the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals and the procedure for determining questions of law certified by a federal court, all called "special proceedings." Special proceedings are governed by Title 16 of these rules.

(d) Application to Both Appellate Courts. Each rule applies to proceedings both in the Supreme Court and in the Court of Appeals, unless a different application is indicated. Both the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals are called "appellate court."

(e) Application to Civil and Criminal Proceedings and Juvenile Court Proceedings. Each rule applies to both civil and criminal proceedings, unless a different application is indicated. If different rules apply in civil and criminal proceedings, the criminal rule applies to review of a decision in a juvenile offense proceeding, and the civil rule applies to review of any other decision by a juvenile court.

(f) Action of Appellate Court. The appellate court clerk and commissioner are given authority by these rules to make some decisions, called rulings. An act performed on the authority of these rules is action taken by the appellate court whether that act is performed by the clerk or a commissioner or by the judges of the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals.

(g) Superseding Effect of Rules. These rules supersede all statutes and rules covering procedure in the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals, unless one of these rules specifically indicates to the contrary.

(h) Effect of Subsequent Legislation. If a statute in conflict with a rule is enacted after these rules become effective and that statute does not supersede the conflicting rule by direct reference to the rule by number, the rule applies unless the rule specifically indicates that statutes control. If a statute in conflict with a rule is enacted after these rules become effective and that statute does supersede the conflicting rule by direct reference to the rule by number, the statute applies until such time as the rule may be amended or changed by the Supreme Court through exercise of its rulemaking power.

RULE 1.2

INTERPRETATION AND WAIVER OF RULES BY COURT

(a) Interpretation. These rules will be liberally interpreted to promote justice and facilitate the decision of cases on the merits. Cases and issues will not be determined on the basis of compliance or noncompliance with these rules except in compelling circumstances where justice demands, subject to the restrictions in rule 18.8(b).

(b) Words of Command. Unless the context of the rule indicates otherwise: "Should" is used when referring to an act a party or counsel for a party is under an obligation to perform. The court will ordinarily impose sanctions if the act is not done within the time or in the manner specified. The word "must" is used in place of "should" if extending the time within which the act must be done is subject to the severe test under rule 18.8(b) or to emphasize failure to perform the act in a timely way may result in more severe than usual sanctions. The word "will" or "may" is used when referring to an act of the appellate court. The word "shall" is used when referring to an act that is to be done by an entity other than the appellate court, a party, or counsel for a party.

(c) Waiver. The appellate court may waive or alter the provisions of any of these rules in order to serve the ends of justice, subject to the restrictions in rule 18.8(b) and (c).

RULE 2.1

METHODS FOR SEEKING REVIEW OF TRIAL COURT DECISION—GENERALLY

(a) Two Methods for Seeking Review of Trial Court Decisions. The only methods for seeking review of decisions of the superior court by the Court of Appeals and by the Supreme Court are the two methods provided by these rules. The two methods are:

- (1) Review as a matter of right, called "appeal"; and

(2) Review by permission of the reviewing court, called "discretionary review." Both "appeal" and "discretionary review" are called "review." The term "decision" refers to rulings, orders, and judgments of the trial court, or the appellate court, as the context indicates.

(b) Writ Procedure Superseded. The procedure for seeking review of trial court decisions established by these rules supersedes the review procedure formerly available by extraordinary writs of review, certiorari, mandamus, prohibition, and other writs formerly considered necessary and proper to the complete exercise of appellate and revisory jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals. Original writs in the appellate court are not superseded and are governed by Title 16.

RULE 2.2

DECISIONS OF THE SUPERIOR COURT WHICH MAY BE APPEALED

(a) Generally. Except as provided in sections (b) and (c), a party may appeal from only the following superior court decisions:

(1) Final Judgment. The final judgment entered in any action or proceeding, except a final decree of adoption.

(2) Interlocutory Decree of Adoption. An interlocutory decree of adoption.

(3) Decision Determining Action. Any written decision affecting a substantial right in a civil case which in effect determines the action and prevents a final judgment or discontinues the action.

(4) Order of Public Use and Necessity. An order of public use and necessity in a condemnation case.

(5) Juvenile Court Disposition. The disposition decision following a finding of dependency by a juvenile court, or a disposition decision following a finding of guilt in a juvenile offense proceeding.

(6) Deprivation of All Parental Rights. A decision depriving a person of all parental rights with respect to a child.

(7) Order of Incompetency. A decision declaring an adult legally incompetent, or an order establishing a conservatorship or guardianship for an adult.

(8) Order of Commitment. A decision ordering commitment, entered after a sanity hearing.

(9) Order on Motion for New Trial or Amendment of Judgment. An order granting or denying a motion for new trial or amendment of judgment.

(10) Order on Motion for Vacation of Judgment. An order granting or denying a motion to vacate a judgment.

(11) Order on Motion for Arrest of Judgment. An order arresting or denying arrest of a judgment in a criminal case.

(12) Order Denying Motion To Vacate Order of Arrest of a Person. An order denying a motion to vacate an order of arrest of a person in a civil case.

(13) Final Order After Judgment. Any final order made after judgment which affects a substantial right.

(b) Appeal by State or a Local Government in Criminal Case. Except as provided in section (c), the State or a local government may appeal in a criminal case only from the following superior court decisions and only if the appeal will not place the defendant in double jeopardy:

(1) Final Decision, Except Not Guilty. A decision which in effect abates, discontinues, or determines the case other than by a judgment or verdict of not guilty, including but not limited to a decision setting aside, quashing, or dismissing an indictment or information.

(2) Pretrial Order Suppressing Evidence. A pretrial order suppressing evidence, if the trial court expressly finds that the practical effect of the order is to terminate the case.

(3) Arrest or Vacation of Judgment. An order arresting or vacating a judgment.

(4) New Trial. An order granting a new trial.

(5) Disposition in Juvenile Offense Proceeding. A disposition in a juvenile offense proceeding which is outside the standard range of disposition for the offense.

(c) Superior Court Decision on Review of Decision of Court of Limited Jurisdiction. If the superior court decision has been entered after a proceeding to review a decision of a court of limited jurisdiction, a party may appeal only if the review proceeding was a trial de novo and the final judgment is not a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed.

(d) Multiple Parties or Multiple Claims or Counts. In any case with multiple parties or multiple claims for relief, or in a criminal case with multiple counts, an appeal may be taken from a final judgment which does not dispose of all the claims or counts as to all the parties, but only after an express direction by the trial court for entry of judgment and a written finding that there is no just reason for delay. The finding may be made at the time of entry of judgment or thereafter on the court's own motion or on motion of any party. The time for filing notice of appeal begins to run from the entry of the required finding. In the absence of the required finding, a judgment that adjudicates less than all the claims or counts, or adjudicates the rights and liabilities of less than all the parties, is subject only to discretionary review until the entry of a final judgment adjudicating all the claims, counts, rights, and liabilities of all the parties.

RULE 2.3

DECISIONS OF THE TRIAL COURT WHICH MAY BE REVIEWED BY DISCRETIONARY REVIEW

(a) Decision of Superior Court. A party may seek discretionary review of any act of the superior court not appealable as a matter of right.

(b) Considerations Governing Acceptance of Review. Except as provided in section (d), discretionary review will be accepted only:

(1) If the superior court has committed an obvious error which would render further proceedings useless; or

(2) If the superior court has committed probable error and the decision of the superior court substantially alters the status quo or substantially limits the freedom of a party to act; or

(3) If the superior court has so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, or so far sanctioned such a departure by an inferior court or administrative agency, as to call for review by the appellate court.

(c) Effect of Denial of Discretionary Review. Except with regard to a decision of a superior court entered in a proceeding to review a decision of a court of limited jurisdiction, the denial of discretionary review of a superior court decision does not affect the right of a party to obtain later review of the trial court decision or the issues pertaining to that decision.

(d) Considerations Governing Acceptance of Review of Superior Court Decision on Review of Decision of Court of Limited Jurisdiction. Discretionary review of a superior court decision entered in a proceeding to review a decision of a court of limited jurisdiction will be accepted only:

(1) If the decision of the superior court is in conflict with a decision of the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court; or

(2) If a significant question of law under the Constitution of the State of Washington or of the United States is involved; or

(3) If the decision involves an issue of public interest which should be determined by an appellate court; or

(4) If the superior court has so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, or so far sanctioned such a departure by the court of limited jurisdiction, as to call for review by the appellate court.

RULE 2.4

SCOPE OF REVIEW OF A TRIAL COURT DECISION

(a) Generally. The appellate court will, at the instance of appellant, review the decision or parts of the decision designated in the notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review and other decisions in the case as provided in sections (b), (c), (d), and (e). The appellate court will, at the instance of the respondent, review those acts in the proceeding below which if repeated on remand would constitute error prejudicial to respondent. The appellate court will grant a respondent affirmative relief by modifying the decision which is the subject matter of the review only (1) if the respondent also seeks review of the decision by the timely filing of a notice of appeal or a notice for discretionary review, or (2) if demanded by the necessities of the case.

(b) Order or Ruling Not Designated in Notice. The appellate court will review a trial court order or ruling not designated in the notice, including an appealable order, if (1) the order or ruling prejudicially affects the decision designated in the notice, and (2) the order is entered, or the ruling is made, before the appellate court accepts review.

(c) Final Judgment Not Designated in Notice. The appellate court will review a final judgment not designated in the notice only if the notice designates an order deciding a timely posttrial motion based on (1) CR 59

(reconsideration, new trial, and amendment of judgments), (2) CrR 7.4 (arrest of judgment), or (3) CrR 7.6 (new trial).

(d) Order Deciding Alternative Posttrial Motions in Civil Case. An appeal from the judgment granted on a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict brings up for review the ruling of the trial court on a motion for new trial. If the appellate court reverses the judgment notwithstanding the verdict, the appellate court will review the ruling on the motion for a new trial.

(e) Order Deciding Alternative Posttrial Motions in Criminal Case. An appeal from an order granting a motion in arrest of judgment brings up for review the ruling of the trial court on a motion for new trial. If the appellate court reverses the order granting the motion in arrest of judgment, the appellate court will review the ruling on a motion for new trial.

RULE 2.5

CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH MAY AFFECT SCOPE OF REVIEW

(a) Errors Raised for First Time on Review. The appellate court may refuse to review any claim of error which was not raised in the trial court. However, a party may raise the following claimed errors for the first time in the appellate court: (1) lack of trial court jurisdiction, (2) failure to establish facts upon which relief can be granted, and (3) manifest error affecting a constitutional right. A party or the court may raise at any time the question of appellate court jurisdiction.

(b) Acceptance of Benefits.

(1) Decision Subject to Modification. A party may accept the benefits of a trial court decision without losing the right to obtain review of that decision only (i) if the decision is one which is subject to modification by the court making the decision or (ii) if the party gives security as provided in subsection (b)(2).

(2) Other Decisions—Security. If a party gives adequate security to make restitution if the decision is reversed or modified, a party may accept the benefits of the decision without losing the right to obtain review of that decision. The trial court making the decision shall fix the amount and type of security to be given by the party accepting the benefits.

(3) Conflict With Statutes. In the event of any conflict between this section and a statute, the statute governs.

(c) Law of the Case Doctrine Restricted. The following provisions apply if the same case is again before the appellate court following a remand:

(1) Prior Trial Court Action. If a trial court decision is otherwise properly before the appellate court, the appellate court may at the instance of a party review and determine the propriety of a decision of the trial court even though a similar decision was not disputed in an earlier review of the same case.

(2) Prior Appellate Court Decision. The appellate court may at the instance of a party review the propriety of an earlier decision of the appellate court in the same case and, where justice would best be served, decide the case on the basis of the appellate court's opinion of the law at the time of the later review.

TITLE 3

PARTIES

Rule

- 3.1 Who May Seek Review
- 3.2 Substitution of Parties
 - (a) Substitution Generally
 - (b) Duty To Move for Substitution
 - (c) Where To Make Motion
 - (d) Procedure Pending Substitution
 - (e) Time Limits
 - (f) Public Officer
- 3.3 Consolidation of Cases
 - (a) Cases Consolidated in Trial Court
 - (b) Cases Consolidated in Appellate Court
- 3.4 Title of Case and Designation of Parties

RULE 3.1

WHO MAY SEEK REVIEW

Only an aggrieved party may seek review by the appellate court.

RULE 3.2

SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES

(a) Substitution Generally. The appellate court will substitute parties to a review when it appears that a party is deceased or legally incompetent or that the interest of a party in the subject matter of the review has been transferred.

(b) Duty To Move for Substitution. A party with knowledge of the death or declared legal disability of a party to review, or knowledge of the transfer of a party's interest in the subject matter of the review, shall promptly move for substitution of parties. The motion and all other documents must be served on all parties and on the personal representative or successor in interest of a party, within the time and in the manner provided for service on a party. If a party fails to promptly move for substitution, the personal representative of a deceased or legally disabled party, or the successor in interest of a party, should promptly move for substitution of parties.

(c) Where To Make Motion. The motion to substitute parties must be made in the appellate court if the motion is made after review is accepted. In other cases, the motion should be made in the trial court.

(d) Procedure Pending Substitution. A party, a successor in interest of a party, a personal representative of a deceased or legally disabled party, or an attorney of record for a deceased or legally disabled party who has no personal representative, may without waiting for substitution file (1) a notice of appeal, (2) a notice for discretionary review, (3) a motion for reconsideration, (4) a petition for review, and (5) a motion for discretionary review of a decision of a trial court or the Court of Appeals.

(e) Time Limits. The time reasonably necessary to accomplish substitution of parties is excluded from computations of time made to determine whether the following have been timely filed: (1) a notice of appeal, (2) a notice for discretionary review, (3) a motion for reconsideration, (4) a petition for review, and (5) a motion for discretionary review of a decision of a trial court or the Court of Appeals.

(f) Public Officer. If a public officer is a party to a proceeding in the appellate court and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, a party or the new public officer may move for substitution of the successor as provided in this rule.

RULE 3.3

CONSOLIDATION OF CASES

(a) Cases Consolidated in Trial Court. If two or more cases have been consolidated for trial by order of the trial court, the cases remain consolidated for the purpose of review unless the appellate court otherwise directs.

(b) Cases Consolidated in Appellate Court. The appellate court, on its own initiative or on motion of a party, may order the consolidation of cases or the separation of cases for the purpose of review. A party should move to consolidate two or more cases if consolidation would save time and expense and provide for a fair review of the cases. If two or more cases have been consolidated for review in the Court of Appeals, the cases remain consolidated for review in the Supreme Court unless the Supreme Court otherwise directs.

RULE 3.4

TITLE OF CASE AND DESIGNATION OF PARTIES

The title of a case in the appellate court is the same as in the trial court except that the party seeking review by appeal is called an "appellant," the party seeking review by discretionary review is called a "petitioner," and an adverse party on review is called a "respondent."

TITLE 4

WHERE TO SEEK REVIEW OF A TRIAL COURT DECISION

Rule

- 4.1 Review of Trial Court Decision by the Court of Appeals
 - (a) Decisions Reviewed by Court of Appeals
 - (b) Division of Court of Appeals
- 4.2 Direct Review of Trial Court Decision by Supreme Court
 - (a) Types of Cases Reviewed Directly
 - (b) Statement of Grounds for Direct Review
 - (c) Effect of Denial of Direct Review
- 4.3 Transfer of Cases by Supreme Court

RULE 4.1

REVIEW OF TRIAL COURT DECISION BY THE COURT OF APPEALS

(a) Decisions Reviewed by Court of Appeals. A party may seek review in the Court of Appeals of any trial court decision which is subject to review as provided in Title 2.

(b) Division of Court of Appeals.

(1) Division One. A party must seek review in Division One of the Court of Appeals of a decision by a trial court located in any of the following counties: Island, King, San Juan, Skagit, Snohomish, or Whatcom.

(2) Division Two. A party must seek review in Division Two of the Court of Appeals of a decision by a trial court located in any of the following counties: Clallam, Clark, Cowlitz, Grays Harbor, Jefferson, Kitsap, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, Pierce, Skamania, Thurston, or Wahkiakum.

(3) Division Three. A party must seek review in Division Three of the Court of Appeals of a decision by a trial court located in any of the following counties: Adams, Asotin, Benton, Chelan, Columbia, Douglas, Ferry, Franklin, Garfield, Grant, Kittitas, Klickitat, Lincoln, Okanogan, Pend Oreille, Spokane, Stevens, Walla Walla, Whitman, or Yakima.

RULE 4.2

DIRECT REVIEW OF TRIAL COURT DECISION BY SUPREME COURT

(a) Types of Cases Reviewed Directly. A party may seek review in the Supreme Court of a decision of a trial court which is subject to review as provided in Title 2 only in the following types of cases:

(1) Authorized by Statute. A case in which a statute authorizes direct review in the Supreme Court.

(2) Law Unconstitutional. A case in which the trial court has held invalid a statute, ordinance, tax, impost, assessment, or toll, upon the ground that it is repugnant to the United States Constitution, the Washington State Constitution, a statute of the United States, or a treaty.

(3) Conflicting Decisions. A case involving an issue in which there is a conflict among decisions of the Court of Appeals or an inconsistency in decisions of the Supreme Court.

(4) Public Issues. A case involving a fundamental and urgent issue of broad public import which requires prompt and ultimate determination.

(5) Action Against State Officer. An action against a state officer in the nature of quo warranto, prohibition, injunction, or mandamus.

(6) Death Penalty. A case in which the death penalty has been decreed.

(b) Statement of Grounds for Direct Review. A party seeking direct review of a trial court decision in the Supreme Court must file a short written statement with the Supreme Court indicating (1) the grounds upon which the party contends direct review should be granted, and (2) whether the case is one which the Supreme Court would probably review if decided by the Court of Appeals in the first instance. In an appeal, the party must file the statement on or before the filing of the party's opening brief. In a proceeding for discretionary review, the party must file the statement with the motion.

(c) Effect of Denial of Direct Review. If the Supreme Court denies direct review of a proceeding the case will be transferred without prejudice and without costs to the Court of Appeals for determination. The Supreme Court may transfer to the Court of Appeals for determination a motion filed in the Supreme Court for discretionary review of a trial court decision.

RULE 4.3

TRANSFER OF CASES BY SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court, to promote the orderly administration of justice may, on its own initiative or on motion of a party, transfer a case from the Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court or from one division to another division of the Court of Appeals.

RULE 5.1

REVIEW INITIATED BY FILING NOTICE OF APPEAL
OR NOTICE FOR DISCRETIONARY REVIEW

(a) Review Initiated by Notice. A party seeking review of a trial court decision reviewable as a matter of right must file a notice of appeal. A party seeking review of a trial court decision subject to discretionary review must file a notice for discretionary review. Each notice must be filed with the trial court within the time provided by rule 5.2.

(b) Filing Fee. The first party to file a notice of appeal or a notice for discretionary review must, at the time the notice is filed, pay the statutory filing fee to the clerk of the superior court in which the notice is filed.

(c) Incorrectly Designated Notice. A notice for discretionary review of a decision which is appealable will be given the same effect as a notice of appeal. A notice of appeal of a decision which is not appealable will be given the same effect as a notice for discretionary review.

(d) Cross Review. Cross review means review initiated by a party already a respondent in an appeal or a discretionary review. A party seeking cross review must file a notice of appeal or a notice for discretionary review within the time allowed by rule 5.2(f).

(e) Final Judgment Entered After Notice for Discretionary Review Has Been Filed. If a final judgment is entered after a notice for discretionary review is filed, a party seeking review of the final judgment must file a notice of appeal from the judgment within the time provided by rule 5.2.

(f) Order Entered After Review Accepted. If a party wants to seek review of a trial court decision entered pursuant to rule 7.2 after review in the same case has been accepted by the appellate court, the party must initiate a separate review of the decision by timely filing a notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review, except as provided by rules 7.2(i), 8.1(d) and 8.2(b).

RULE 5.2

TIME ALLOWED TO FILE NOTICE

(a) Notice of Appeal. Except as provided in rules 3.2(e), 5.2(d) and (f), and 15.2(a), a notice of appeal must be filed in the trial court within the longer of (1) 30 days after the entry of the decision of the trial court which the party filing the notice wants reviewed, or (2) the time provided in section (e).

(b) Notice for Discretionary Review. Except as provided in rules 3.2(e), 5.2(d) and (f), and 15.2(a), a notice for discretionary review must be filed in the trial court within 30 days after the entry of the decision of the trial court which the party filing the notice wants reviewed.

(c) Date Time Begins To Run. The date of entry of a trial court decision is determined by CR 5(e) and 58.

(d) Time Requirements Set by Statute Govern. If a statute provides that a notice of appeal, a petition for extraordinary writ, or a notice for discretionary review must be filed within a time period other than 30 days after entry of the decision, the notice required by these rules must be filed within the time period established by the statute.

(e) Effect of Certain Posttrial Motions. A notice of appeal of orders deciding certain timely posttrial motions designated in this paragraph must be filed in the trial court within (1) 30 days after the entry of the order, or (2) if a statute provides that a notice of appeal, a petition for extraordinary writ, or a notice for discretionary review must be filed within a time period other than 30 days after entry of a decision, the number of days after the entry of the order established by the statute for initiating review. The posttrial motions to which this rule applies are a motion for arrest of judgment under CrR 7.4, a motion for new trial under CrR 7.6, a motion for reconsideration or new trial under CR 59, and a motion for amendment of judgment under CR 59.

(f) Subsequent Notice by Other Parties. If a timely notice of appeal or a timely notice for discretionary review is filed by a party, any other party who wants relief from the decision must file a notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review within the later of (1) 14 days after service by the trial court clerk of the notice filed by the other party, or (2) the time within which notice must be given as provided in sections (a), (b), (d) or (e).

(g) Effect of Premature Notice. A notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review filed after the announcement of a decision but before entry of the decision will be treated as filed on the day following the entry of the decision.

RULE 5.3

CONTENT OF NOTICE—FILING

(a) Content of Notice of Appeal. A notice of appeal must (1) be titled a notice of appeal, (2) specify the party or parties seeking the review, (3) designate the decision or part of decision which the party wants reviewed, and (4) name the appellate court to which the review is taken.

(b) Content of Notice for Discretionary Review. A notice for discretionary review must comply in content and form with the requirements for a notice of appeal, except that it should be titled a notice for discretionary review.

(c) Identification of Parties, Counsel, and Address of Defendant in Criminal Case. The party seeking review should advise the trial court clerk of the name and address of the attorney for each of the parties by placing this information on the notice. In a criminal case the attorney for the defendant should also notify the appellate court clerk of the defendant's address, by placing this information on the notice. The attorney for a defendant in a criminal case must also keep the appellate court clerk advised of any changes in defendant's address during review.

(d) Multiple Parties Filing Notice. More than one party may join in filing a single notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review.

(e) Notices Directed to More Than One Case. If cases have been consolidated for trial, separate notices for each case or a single notice for more than one case may be filed. A single notice for more than one decision will be given the same effect as if a separate notice had been filed for each decision. If cases have not been consolidated for trial, separate notices must be filed.

(f) Defects in Form of Notice. The appellate court will disregard defects in the form of a notice of appeal or a notice for discretionary review if the notice clearly reflects an intent by a party to seek review.

(g) Notices Directed to More Than One Court. If a notice of appeal or a notice for discretionary review is filed which is directed to the Court of Appeals and a notice is filed in the same case which is directed to the Supreme Court, the case will be treated as if all notices were directed to the Supreme Court.

(h) Amendment of Notice Directed to Portion of Decision. The appellate court may, on its own initiative or on the motion of a party, permit an amendment of a notice to include additional parts of a decision in order to do justice. The appellate court may condition the amendment on appropriate terms, including payment of a compensatory award under rule 18.9.

(i) Notice by Fewer Than All Parties on a Side—Joinder. If there are multiple parties on a side of a case and fewer than all of the parties on that side of the case timely file a notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review, the appellate court will grant relief only (1) to a party who has timely filed a notice, (2) to a party who has been joined as provided in this section or (3) to a party if demanded by the necessities of the case. The appellate court will permit the joinder on review of a party who did not give notice only if the party's rights or duties are derived through the rights or duties of a party who timely filed a notice or if the party's rights or duties are dependent upon the appellate court determination of the rights or duties of a party who timely filed a notice.

(j) Assistance to Defendant in Criminal Case. The trial court clerk shall, if requested by a defendant in a criminal case in open court or in writing, file a notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review on the defendant's behalf.

RULE 5.4

FILING OF NOTICE AND SERVICE BY CLERK

The clerk of the trial court shall immediately upon filing of a notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review (1) file a copy of the notice with the appellate court designated in the notice, and transmit the filing fee to that court, and (2) serve by mail a copy of the notice on each party of record. The clerk shall indicate on the notice in the clerk's file, or on a separate paper, the date the notice was mailed to each party. Failure by the clerk to file the notice with the appellate court has no effect on the rights of any party to review. Failure by the clerk to serve a party with notice does not prejudice the rights of the party seeking review. The clerk or a party may correct the oversight by serving the notice at any time. A party prejudiced by the clerk's failure to serve the notice may move in the appellate court for appropriate relief.

RULE 5.5

CIVIL APPEAL STATEMENT AND SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE IN COURT OF APPEALS

(a) Application of Rule. This rule applies only to an appeal to the Court of Appeals from a trial court decision in a civil case.

(b) Service and Filing of Civil Appeal Statement. A party that files a notice of appeal must, within 15 days after the notice is filed, serve on all other parties and file in the Court of Appeals a "civil appeal statement" in the form provided in section (c).

(c) Form of Civil Appeal Statement. The statement should be captioned "Civil Appeal Statement," contain the title of the case as provided in rule 3.4, and contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:

(1) Nature of Case and Decision. A short statement of the substance of the case below and the basis for the trial court decision.

(2) Issues Presented for Review. A statement of each issue the party intends to present for review by the Court of Appeals.

(3) Relief Sought in Court of Appeals. The relief the party seeks in the Court of Appeals.

(4) Trial Court. The name of the court from which the appeal was taken.

(5) Judge. The name of the trial court judge who made the decision which is being reviewed.

(6) Date of Decision. The date the decision was entered in the trial court.

(7) Postdecision Motions. A statement of each postdecision motion made in the trial court including the nature of the motion, the date the motion was made, the decision on the motion, and the date the decision was entered.

(8) Notice of Appeal. The date the notice of appeal was filed. A copy of the notice should be attached to the statement.

(9) Counsel. The name, address, and telephone number of counsel for each party.

(10) Method of Disposition in Trial Court. A statement of the method used to decide the case in the trial court.

(11) Relief Granted by Trial Court. A short statement of the relief granted by the trial court.

(12) Relief Denied by Trial Court. A short statement of the relief sought by the party making the statement which was denied by the trial court.

(13) Certificate of Counsel. A statement signed by counsel for the party filing the statement certifying that the appeal is taken in good faith; the appeal is not taken for the purpose of delay; and that the party represented by counsel is or is not prepared to immediately take all steps to complete the appeal. If the statement indicates the party is not prepared to immediately take all steps to complete the appeal, the certificate of counsel must state why the party is not prepared to immediately complete the appeal.

(d) Answer to Civil Appeal Statement. A respondent must file an answer to the civil appeal statement within 7 days after service of the statement on respondent. The answer should include any modifications to the civil appeal statement that the respondent feels are necessary to give the settlement conference judge a fair presentation of the matters material to settlement of the case. To the extent reasonably necessary to meet this objective, the answer should correct any errors in the civil appeal statement, and present any new issues or modify those presented in the civil appeal statement.

(e) Notice of Settlement Conference. The Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals will determine if one or more settlement conferences are appropriate in each civil appeal. The clerk of the Court of Appeals will notify each party if a settlement conference is to be held. The notice will specify the date, time, and place of the conference; the name of the judge or judge pro tempore who will conduct the conference; and whether the parties are required to attend the conference.

(f) Stay Pending Settlement Conference. Unless the notice of the settlement conference states otherwise, a party who has received a notice of settlement conference is not required to take any further steps to complete the review until the settlement conference is concluded. After the settlement conference is completed, the clerk or a commissioner or the settlement judge will establish the dates within which the remaining steps in the review should be completed.

(g) Attendance at Settlement Conference. The attorney for each party, and the party if the notice requires it, must attend the settlement conference on the date, time, and place specified in the clerk's notice. Those in attendance should be ready to seriously consider the possibility of settlement, limitation of the issues to be presented for review, and other matters which may promote the prompt and fair disposition of the appeal.

(h) Settlement Conference Order. If the parties agree to settle the case, to limit the issues, or to other matters to promote the prompt and fair disposition of the appeal, the settlement judge may enter an order consistent with that agreement. If the settlement conference order fully settles the case, the clerk of the Court of Appeals will immediately issue the mandate to the trial court with directions to enter judgment as indicated in the order. In all other cases the order is binding on the parties during the review proceeding, unless the appellate court otherwise directs on its own initiative or on motion of a party for good cause shown and on those terms the appellate court deems appropriate.

(i) Sanctions. If a party or counsel for a party fails to comply with this rule or to comply with a settlement conference order, the Court of Appeals may impose sanctions or dismiss the review proceeding as provided in rule 18.9.

(j) Settlement Conference Judge May Be Disqualified. The settlement conference judge may hear the appeal on the merits unless (1) the judge decides the best interests of justice would be served by refraining from hearing the case on the merits, or (2) a party disqualifies the judge by request to the clerk of the appellate court. A party may disqualify the judge without cause. Each clerk of the Court of Appeals shall adopt and implement a procedure to preserve the confidentiality of the identity of a party who disqualifies the judge.

TITLE 6

ACCEPTANCE OF REVIEW

Rule

- 6.1 Appeal as a Matter of Right
- 6.2 Discretionary Review
 - (a) Generally
 - (b) Time To Make Motion
 - (c) Regular Motion Procedure Governs
 - (d) Notice of Decision on Motion

RULE 6.1

APPEAL AS A MATTER OF RIGHT

The appellate court "accepts review" of a trial court decision upon the timely filing in the trial court of a notice of appeal from a decision which is reviewable as a matter of right.

RULE 6.2

DISCRETIONARY REVIEW

(a) Generally. The appellate court accepts discretionary review of a trial court decision by granting a motion for discretionary review.

(b) Time To Make Motion. The party seeking discretionary review must file in the appellate court a motion for discretionary review within 15 days after filing the notice for discretionary review. If a party files a notice of appeal from a decision which may not be subject to review as a matter of right, the clerk or a party may note for hearing the question whether the decision is reviewable as a matter of right and, if the decision is reviewable by discretion, the question whether review should be accepted.

(c) Regular Motion Procedure Governs. A motion for discretionary review is governed by the motion procedure established by Title 17.

(d) Notice of Decision on Motion. The clerk of the appellate court will promptly give written notice to the parties and the trial court of the appellate court's decision on the motion for discretionary review.

TITLE 7

AUTHORITY OF TRIAL COURT AND APPELLATE COURT PENDING REVIEW

Rule

- 7.1 Authority of Trial Court Before Review Accepted
- 7.2 Authority of Trial Court After Review Accepted
 - (a) Generally
 - (b) Settlement of Record
 - (c) Enforcement of Trial Court Decision
 - (d) Attorney Fees and Costs
 - (e) Postjudgment Motions and Actions To Modify Decision
 - (f) Release of Defendant in Criminal Case
 - (g) Questions Relating to Indigency
 - (h) Supersedeas, Stay, and Bond
 - (i) Costs

- (j) Juvenile Court Decision
7.3 Authority of Appellate Court

RULE 7.1

AUTHORITY OF TRIAL COURT BEFORE REVIEW ACCEPTED

The trial court retains full authority to act in a case before review is accepted by the appellate court, unless the appellate court directs otherwise as provided in rule 8.3.

RULE 7.2

AUTHORITY OF TRIAL COURT AFTER REVIEW ACCEPTED

(a) Generally. After review is accepted by the appellate court, the trial court has authority to act in a case only to the extent provided in this rule, unless the appellate court limits or expands that authority as provided in rule 8.3.

(b) Settlement of Record. The trial court has authority to settle the record as provided in Title 9 of these rules.

(c) Enforcement of Trial Court Decision. Except to the extent a decision has been superseded as provided in rule 8.1, the trial court has authority to enforce any decision of the trial court and a party may execute on any judgment of the trial court. Any person may take action premised on the validity of a trial court decision until enforcement of the decision is superseded as provided in rule 8.1.

(d) Attorney Fees and Costs. The trial court has authority to award attorney fees and costs for an appeal in a marriage dissolution, a legal separation, a declaration of invalidity proceeding, and in an action to modify a decree in any of these proceedings.

(e) Postjudgment Motions and Actions To Modify Decision. The trial court has authority to hear and determine (1) postjudgment motions authorized by the civil rules, the criminal rules, or statutes, and (2) actions to change or modify a decision that is subject to modification by the court that initially made the decision. If the trial court determination will change a decision then being reviewed by the appellate court, the permission of the appellate court must be obtained prior to the entry of the trial court decision. A party should seek the required permission by motion. The decision granting or denying a postjudgment motion may be subject to review. A party may only obtain review of the decision on the postjudgment motion by initiating a separate review in the manner and within the time provided by these rules. If review of a postjudgment motion is accepted while the appellate court is reviewing another decision in the same case, the appellate court may on its own initiative or on motion of a party consolidate the separate reviews as provided in rule 3.3(b).

(f) Release of Defendant in Criminal Case. In a criminal case, the trial court has authority to fix conditions of release of a defendant and to revoke a suspended or deferred sentence.

(g) Questions Relating to Indigency. The trial court has authority to decide questions relating to indigency as provided in Title 15 of these rules.

(h) Supersedeas, Stay, and Bond. The trial court has authority to act on matters of supersedeas, stays, and bonds as provided in rules 8.1 and 8.4, CR 62(a), (b), and (h), and RCW 6.08.

(i) Costs. The trial court has authority to act on claims for costs and objections to costs. A party may obtain review of a trial court decision on costs in the same review proceeding as that challenging the judgment without filing a separate notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review.

(j) Juvenile Court Decision. The trial court has authority to act on matters of supersedeas, stays, bonds, and the release of a person pending review of a juvenile court proceeding.

RULE 7.3

AUTHORITY OF APPELLATE COURT

The appellate court has the authority to determine whether a matter is properly before it, and to perform all acts necessary or appropriate to secure the fair and orderly review of a case. The Court of Appeals retains authority to act in a case pending before it until review is accepted by the Supreme Court, unless the Supreme Court directs otherwise.

TITLE 8

SUPERSEDEAS, INJUNCTIONS, AND OTHER ORDERS TO INSURE EFFECTIVE REVIEW—BONDS

Rule

- 8.1 Supersedeas in the Trial Court
 - (a) Application of Civil Rules
 - (b) Supersedeas by Bond or Other Security
 - (c) Supersedeas by Party Not Required To Post Bond
 - (d) Objection to Supersedeas Decision
- 8.2 Release of Defendant or Juvenile During Review
 - (a) Release Not Governed by These Rules
 - (b) Objection to Decision
- 8.3 Appellate Court Orders Needed for Effective Review
- 8.4 Bond With Individual Sureties—Justification—Objection
 - (a) Scope of Rule
 - (b) Justification
 - (c) Objection
- 8.5 State as Obligee on Bond
- 8.6 Termination of Supersedeas, Injunctions, and Other Orders

RULE 8.1

SUPERSEDEAS IN THE TRIAL COURT

(a) Application of Civil Rules. This rule provides a means of delaying the enforcement of a trial court decision in a civil case in addition to the means provided in CR 62(a), (b), and (h).

(b) Supersedeas by Bond or Other Security. Except when prohibited by statute, a party may supersede the enforcement of a money judgment or decision affecting property by filing a supersedeas bond executed by one or more sureties approved by the trial court. The bond must be conditioned for the satisfaction of the judgment in full together with interest and costs, and the satisfaction in full of any probable modification of the judgment by the appellate court. If a party seeks to supersede only part of a decision, the bond amount shall be adjusted to accomplish the purpose desired. The trial court may authorize a party to post security other than a bond.

(1) Money Judgment. If the judgment is for the recovery of money not wholly secured, the amount of the bond shall be fixed at such sum as will cover the whole amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied and unsecured, together with interest thereon, unless the court, after notice and hearing and for good cause shown, fixes a different amount.

(2) Decision Affecting Property. If the decision determines the disposition of property in controversy, or if the property is in the custody of the sheriff, or if the proceeds of the property or a bond for its value are in the custody or control of the court, the amount of the supersedeas bond shall be fixed at such sum only as will secure any money judgment plus the amount of loss which a party may be entitled to recover as a result of the inability of the party to enforce the judgment during review.

(c) Supersedeas by Party Not Required To Post Bond. If a party is not required to post a bond, that party shall file a notice that the decision is superseded without bond and, after filing the notice, the party shall be in the same position as if the party had posted a bond pursuant to the provisions of this rule.

(d) Objection to Supersedeas Decision. A party may object to a supersedeas decision of the trial court by motion in the appellate court.

RULE 8.2

RELEASE OF DEFENDANT OR JUVENILE DURING REVIEW

(a) Release Not Governed by These Rules. The conditions under which a defendant in a criminal case or a juvenile in a juvenile offense proceeding may be released pending review are set forth in the criminal rules, juvenile court rules, and in statutes.

(b) Objection to Decision. A party may object to a trial court decision relating to release of a defendant or a juvenile during a review of a criminal case or a juvenile offense proceeding by motion in the appellate court.

RULE 8.3

APPELLATE COURT ORDERS NEEDED FOR EFFECTIVE REVIEW

Except when prohibited by statute, the appellate court has authority to issue orders, before or after acceptance of review, to insure effective and equitable review, including authority to grant injunctive or other relief to a party. The appellate court will ordinarily condition the order on furnishing a bond or other security. A party seeking the relief provided by this rule should use the motion procedure provided in Title 17.

RULE 8.4

BOND WITH INDIVIDUAL SURETIES— JUSTIFICATION—OBJECTION

(a) Scope of Rule. An individual who is a resident of this state may be a surety on a bond, except that a party may not act as a surety. This rule applies to justification of and objection to a surety on a bond given pursuant to rule 8.1 or 8.3, but only if the surety is a person other than a surety company authorized to transact surety business in this state.

(b) Justification. The bond must be accompanied by an affidavit signed by each surety affirming that (1) the surety is a resident of this state, and (2) the surety alone or the sureties together have a net worth, excluding property exempt from execution, at least equal to twice the penalty in the bond.

(c) Objection. A party may object to the sufficiency of the surety on the bond or the form of the bond by a motion in the trial court made within 7 days after the party making the motion is served with the bond and the supporting affidavit or affidavits. If the trial court determines that the bond is improper as to form or that the net worth of the surety is inadequate, the supersedeas or other order conditioned upon the posting of the bond may be preserved only by furnishing a proper new bond within 7 days of the entry of the order declaring the first bond deficient.

RULE 8.5

STATE AS OBLIGEE ON BOND

The obligee in a bond given pursuant to rule 8.1 or 8.3 may be named as the State of Washington for the benefit of whom it may concern. If the State is named as the obligee, anyone has the same right upon or concerning the bond as if named as an obligee in the bond. The State of Washington shall not, solely because the State is named as an obligee, be sued or named as a party in any suit on the bond.

RULE 8.6

TERMINATION OF SUPERSEDEAS, INJUNCTIONS, AND OTHER ORDERS

The issuance of the mandate as provided in rule 12.5 terminates any delay of enforcement of a trial court decision obtained pursuant to rule 8.1 and terminates orders entered pursuant to rule 8.3.

TITLE 9

RECORD ON REVIEW

Rule

- 9.1 Composition of Record on Review
 - (a) Generally
 - (b) Report of Proceedings
 - (c) Clerk's Papers
 - (d) Avoid Duplication
- 9.2 Verbatim Report of Proceedings
 - (a) Transcription and Statement of Arrangements
 - (b) Content
 - (c) Notice of Partial Report of Proceedings and Issues

- (d) Payment of Expenses
- (e) Index
- (f) Form Generally
- (g) Form When at Public Expense
- 9.3 Narrative Report of Proceedings
- 9.4 Agreed Report of Proceedings
- 9.5 Filing and Service of Report of Proceedings—Objections
 - (a) Generally
 - (b) Submission of Report of Proceedings to Trial Judge
 - (c) Substitute Judge May Settle Report of Proceedings
 - (d) Use of Copy of Report of Proceedings
- 9.6 Designation of Clerk's Papers and Exhibits
- 9.7 Preparing Clerk's Papers and Exhibits for Appellate Court
 - (a) Clerk's Papers
 - (b) Exhibits
- 9.8 Transmitting Record on Review
 - (a) Duty of Trial Court Clerk
 - (b) Cumbersome Exhibits
 - (c) Temporary Transmittal to Another Court
- 9.9 Correcting or Supplementing Report of Proceedings Before Transmittal to Appellate Court
- 9.10 Correcting or Supplementing Record After Transmittal to Appellate Court
- 9.11 Additional Evidence on Review
 - (a) Remedy Limited
 - (b) Where Taken

RULE 9.1

COMPOSITION OF RECORD ON REVIEW

(a) Generally. The "record on review" may consist of (1) a "report of proceedings", (2) "clerk's papers", and (3) exhibits.

(b) Report of Proceedings. The report of proceedings may take the form of a "verbatim report of proceedings" as provided in rule 9.2, a "narrative report of proceedings" as provided in rule 9.3, or an "agreed report of proceedings" as provided in rule 9.4.

(c) Clerk's Papers. The clerk's papers include the pleadings, orders, and other papers filed with the clerk of the trial court.

(d) Avoid Duplication. Material appearing in one part of the record on review should not be duplicated in another part of the record on review.

RULE 9.2

VERBATIM REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS

(a) Transcription and Statement of Arrangements. If the party seeking review intends to provide a verbatim report of proceedings, the party should arrange for transcription of and payment for an original and one copy of the verbatim report of proceedings within 45 days after acceptance of review. The party seeking review must file with the appellate court a statement that arrangements have been made for the transcription of the report. The statement must be filed within 45 days after acceptance of review. The party must indicate the date that the statement was ordered and the financial arrangements which have been made for payment of transcription costs.

(b) Content. A party should arrange for the transcription of only those portions of the verbatim report of proceedings necessary to present the issues raised on review. If the party seeking review intends to urge that a verdict or finding of fact is not supported by the evidence, the party should include in the record all evidence relevant to the disputed verdict or finding. If the party seeking review intends to urge that the court erred in giving or failing to give an instruction, the party should include in the record all of the instructions given, the relevant instructions proposed, the party's objections to the instructions given, and the court's ruling on the objections.

(c) Notice of Partial Report of Proceedings and Issues. If a party seeking review arranges for less than all of the verbatim report of proceedings, the party should file and serve on all other parties within 45 days after review is accepted a description of the parts of the verbatim report of proceedings which the party intends to include in the record and a statement of the issues the party intends to present on review. Any other party who wishes to add to the verbatim report of proceedings should within 10 days after service of the description and notice file and serve on all other parties a designation of additional parts of the verbatim report of proceedings. If the party seeking review refuses to provide the additional parts of the verbatim report of proceedings, the party seeking the additional parts may provide them at the party's own expense or apply to the trial court for an order requiring the party seeking review to pay for the additional parts of the verbatim report of proceedings.

(d) Payment of Expenses. If a party fails to make arrangements for payment of the costs of the verbatim report of proceedings at the time the verbatim report of proceedings is ordered, the party may be subject to sanctions as provided in rule 18.9.

(e) Index. The verbatim report of proceedings should include an index indicating, under the headings listed below, the pages where the following appear:

(1) Proceedings. The beginning of each proceeding and the nature of that proceeding;

(2) Witnesses. The testimony of each witness and the type of examination;

(3) Exhibits. The marking and admission into evidence of exhibits and depositions;

(4) Motions. All motions and decisions of motions;

(5) Argument. Opening and closing arguments;

(6) Instructions. All instructions proposed and given.

Any other events should be listed under a suitable heading which would help the reviewing court locate separate parts of the verbatim report of proceedings.

(f) Form Generally. The verbatim report of proceedings must be on 8½-inch by 11-inch paper. Margins should be lined 1⅜ inches from the left and ⅝ inches from the right side of each page. The type should fill the space between the lines. Indentations from the left lined margin should be: 1 space for "Q" and "A"; 3 spaces for the body of the testimony; 8 spaces for commencement of a paragraph; and 10 spaces for quoted authority. Typing should be double spaced or 1½ spaced except that comments by the reporter should be single spaced. If double spaced, the page should have 25 lines of type. If 1½ spaced, the page should have 33 lines of type. Type must be pica type or its equivalent with no more than 10 characters an inch.

(g) Form When at Public Expense. A verbatim report of proceedings provided at public expense must be in the form provided by section (f), except the report must be on 8½-inch by 13-inch paper and typing must be double spaced 30 lines of type to the page. Comments by the reporter must be single spaced.

RULE 9.3

NARRATIVE REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS

The party seeking review may prepare a narrative report of proceedings. A party preparing a narrative report must exercise the party's best efforts to include a fair and accurate statement of the occurrences in and evidence introduced in the trial court material to the issues on review. A narrative report should be in the same form as a verbatim report, as provided in rule 9.2(e) and (f). If any party prepares a verbatim report of proceedings, that report will be used as the report of proceedings for the review.

RULE 9.4

AGREED REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS

The parties may prepare and sign an agreed report of proceedings setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to the decision of the issues presented for review. The agreed report of proceedings must include only matters which were actually before the trial court. An agreed report of proceedings should be in the same form as a verbatim report, as provided in rule 9.2(e) and (f).

RULE 9.5

FILING AND SERVICE OF REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS—OBJECTIONS

(a) Generally. The party seeking review must file the report of proceedings with the clerk of the trial court, and then submit it to the judge as provided in section (b), within 90 days after review is accepted by the appellate court. The party must at the time of filing the report of proceedings serve one copy on an adverse party and serve and file notice of the filing on all other parties. A party may serve and file objections to, and propose amendments to, a narrative report of proceedings or a verbatim report of proceedings within 10 days after receipt of the report of proceedings or receipt of the notice of filing of the report of proceedings. If objections or amendments to the report of proceedings are served and filed, the report of proceedings and any objections or proposed amendments must be submitted to the trial court judge before whom the proceedings were held for settlement and approval. The trial court may direct the party seeking review to pay for the expense of any modifications of the proposed report of proceedings.

(b) Submission of Report of Proceedings to Trial Judge. A report of proceedings must be submitted to the trial court judge before whom the proceedings were held for approval. The judge may call the parties to appear before the court for the purpose of adding to or correcting the report of proceedings. The report of proceedings is deemed approved if the trial court judge does not otherwise notify the parties within 10 days after submission of the report to the judge and if a party has not objected to the report as provided in section (a).

(c) Substitute Judge May Settle Report of Proceedings. If the judge before whom the proceedings were held is for any reason unable to promptly settle questions as provided in section (a), or unable to promptly accept and review the report as provided in section (b), another judge may act in the place of the judge before whom the proceedings were held.

(d) Use of Copy of Report of Proceedings. The party who has the right to file the next brief must be given the use of the copy of the report of proceedings. If more than one party has the right to file the next brief, the parties must cooperate in the use of the report of proceedings. When all briefs are filed, the copy of the report of proceedings should be returned to the party who paid for it.

RULE 9.6

DESIGNATION OF CLERK'S PAPERS AND EXHIBITS

The party seeking review should, within 30 days after review is accepted, serve on all other parties and file a designation of those clerk's papers and exhibits the party wants the trial court clerk to transmit to the appellate court. Any other party may in the same manner designate additional clerk's papers or exhibits for transmittal to the appellate court. Each party is encouraged to designate only clerk's papers and exhibits needed to review the issues presented to the appellate court.

RULE 9.7

PREPARING CLERK'S PAPERS AND EXHIBITS FOR APPELLATE COURT

(a) Clerk's Papers. The clerk of the trial court shall make copies at cost, not to exceed 50 cents a page, of those portions of the clerk's papers designated by the parties and prepare them for transmission to the appellate court. The clerk shall assemble the copies and number each page of the clerk's papers in chronological order of filing. The clerk shall prepare a cover sheet for the papers with the title "Clerk's Papers" and prepare an alphabetical index to the papers. The clerk shall promptly send a copy of the index to each party.

(b) Exhibits. The clerk of the trial court shall assemble those exhibits designated by the parties and prepare them for transmission to the appellate court. Exhibits which are papers should be assembled in the order the exhibits are numbered with a cover sheet which lists the exhibits and is titled "Exhibits."

RULE 9.8

TRANSMITTING RECORD ON REVIEW

(a) Duty of Trial Court Clerk. Except as provided in section (b), the clerk of the trial court shall transmit the record on review to the appellate court when requested by the clerk of the appellate court. The clerk shall endorse on the face of the record the date upon which the record on review is transmitted to the appellate court.

(b) Cumbersome Exhibits. The clerk of the trial court shall transmit to the appellate court exhibits which are difficult or unusually expensive to transmit only if the appellate court directs or if a party makes arrangements with the clerk to transmit the exhibits at the expense of the party requesting the transfer of the exhibits.

(c) Temporary Transmittal to Another Court. If the record or any part of it is needed in another court while a review is pending, the clerk of the appellate court will, on the order or ruling of the appellate court, transmit the record or part of it to the clerk of that court, to remain there until the purpose for which it is transmitted has been satisfied or until the clerk of the appellate court requests its return.

RULE 9.9

CORRECTING OR SUPPLEMENTING REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS BEFORE TRANSMITTAL TO APPELLATE COURT

The report of proceedings may be corrected or supplemented by the trial court on motion of a party, or on stipulation of the parties, at any time prior to the transmission of the report to the appellate court. The trial court may impose the same kinds of sanctions provided in rule 18.9(a) as a condition to correcting or supplementing the report of proceedings after the time provided in rule 9.5.

RULE 9.10

CORRECTING OR SUPPLEMENTING RECORD AFTER TRANSMITTAL TO APPELLATE COURT

If a party has made a good faith effort to provide those portions of the record required by rule 9.2(b), the appellate court will not ordinarily dismiss a review proceeding or affirm, reverse, or modify a trial court decision because of the failure of the party to provide the appellate court with a complete record of the proceedings below. If the record is not sufficiently complete to permit a decision on the merits of the issues presented for review, the appellate court may, on its own initiative or on the motion of a party (1) direct the transmittal of additional clerk's papers and exhibits, or (2) correct, or direct the supplementation or correction of, the report of proceedings. The appellate court may impose sanctions as provided in rule 18.9(a) as a condition to correcting or supplementing the record on review.

RULE 9.11

ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE ON REVIEW

(a) Remedy Limited. The appellate court may only on its own initiative direct that additional evidence be taken before the decision of a case on review if: (1) additional proof of facts is needed to fairly resolve the issues on review, (2) the additional evidence would probably change the decision being reviewed, (3) it is equitable to excuse a party's failure to present the evidence to the trial court, (4) the remedy available to a party through post-judgment motions in the trial court is inadequate or unnecessarily expensive, (5) the appellate court remedy of granting a new trial is inadequate or unnecessarily expensive, and (6) it would be inequitable to decide the case solely on the evidence already taken in the trial court.

(b) Where Taken. The appellate court will ordinarily direct the trial court to take additional evidence and find the facts based on that evidence.

RULE 10.1

BRIEFS WHICH MAY BE FILED

(a) Scope of Title. The rules in this title apply only to the briefs referred to in this rule, unless a particular rule indicates a different application is intended.

(b) Briefs Which May Be Filed in Any Review. The following briefs may be filed in any review: (1) a brief of appellant or petitioner, (2) a brief of respondent, and (3) a reply brief of appellant or petitioner.

(c) Reply Brief of Respondent. If the respondent is also seeking review, the respondent may file a brief in reply to the response the appellant or petitioner has made to the issues presented by respondent's review.

(d) Pro Se Supplemental Brief in Criminal Case. A defendant in a review of a criminal case may file a brief supplementing the brief filed by the defendant's counsel, but only if the defendant files a notice of intention to file a pro se supplemental brief. The notice of intent should be filed within 30 days after the defendant has received the brief prepared by defendant's counsel, a notice from the clerk of the appellate court advising the defendant of the substance of this section, rules 10.2(e), and 10.3(d), and a form of notice of intention to file a pro se supplemental brief. The clerk will advise all parties if the defendant files the notice of intention.

(e) Amicus Curiae Brief. An amicus curiae brief may be filed only if permission is obtained as provided in rule 10.6. If an amicus curiae brief is filed, a brief in answer to the brief of amicus curiae may be filed by a party.

(f) Briefs in Cases Involving Cross Review. If a cross review is filed, the party first filing a notice of appeal or notice of discretionary review is deemed the appellant or petitioner for the purpose of this title, unless the parties otherwise agree or the appellate court otherwise orders.

(g) Briefs in Consolidated Cases and in Cases Involving Multiple Parties. In cases consolidated for the purpose of review and in a case with more than one party to a side, a party may (1) join with one or more other parties in a single brief, or (2) file a separate brief and adopt by reference any part of the brief of another.

(h) Other Briefs. The appellate court may in a particular case authorize or direct the filing of briefs on the merits other than those listed in this rule.

RULE 10.2

TIME FOR FILING BRIEFS

(a) Brief of Appellant or Petitioner. The brief of an appellant or petitioner should be filed with the appellate court within 45 days after the report of proceedings is filed in the trial court; or, if the record on review does not include a report of proceedings, within 45 days after the party seeking review has filed the designation of clerk's papers and exhibits.

(b) Brief of Respondent in Civil Case. The brief of a respondent in a civil case should be filed with the appellate court within 30 days after service of the brief of appellant or petitioner.

(c) Brief of Respondent in Criminal Case. The brief of a respondent in a criminal case should be filed with the appellate court within 60 days after service of the brief of appellant or petitioner or, if a defendant files a pro se supplemental brief, within 30 days after service of the pro se supplemental brief.

(d) Reply Brief. A reply brief of an appellant or petitioner should be filed with the appellate court within the sooner of 30 days after service of the brief of respondent or 14 days before oral argument.

(e) Pro Se Supplemental Brief in Criminal Case. A pro se supplemental brief in a criminal case should be filed with the appellate court within 60 days after the defendant has received the brief prepared by counsel and has had an opportunity to view the report of proceedings.

(f) Brief of Amicus Curiae. A brief of amicus curiae must be filed with the appellate court not later than the date fixed by the appellate court.

(g) Answer to Brief of Amicus Curiae. A brief in answer to the brief of amicus curiae may be filed with the appellate court not later than the date fixed by the appellate court.

(h) Sanctions for Late Filing. The appellate court will ordinarily impose sanctions under rule 18.9 for failure to timely file a brief.

RULE 10.3

CONTENT OF BRIEF

(a) Brief of Appellant or Petitioner. The brief of the appellant or petitioner should contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:

(1) Title Page. A title page, which is the cover.

(2) Tables. A table of contents, with page references, and a table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes and other authorities cited, with references to the pages of the brief where cited.

(3) Assignments of Error. A separate concise statement of each error a party contends was made by the trial court, together with the issues pertaining to the assignments of error.

(4) Statement of the Case. A fair statement of the facts and procedure relevant to the issues presented for review, without argument. Reference to the record must be included for each factual statement.

(5) Argument. The argument in support of the issues presented for review, together with citations to legal authority and references to relevant parts of the record. The argument may be preceded by a summary.

(6) Conclusion. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(7) Appendix. An appendix to the brief if deemed appropriate by the party submitting the brief.

(b) Brief of Respondent. The brief of respondent should conform to section (a) and answer the brief of appellant or petitioner. A statement of the issues and a statement of the case need not be made if respondent is satisfied with the statement in the brief of appellant or petitioner. If a respondent is also seeking review, the brief of respondent must state the assignments of error and the issues pertaining to those assignments of error presented for review by respondent and include argument of those issues.

(c) Reply Brief. A reply brief should be limited to a response to the issues in the brief to which the reply brief is directed.

(d) Pro Se Supplemental Brief in Criminal Case. The pro se supplemental brief in a criminal case should be limited to those matters which defendant believes have not been adequately covered by the brief filed by the defendant's counsel.

(e) Amicus Curiae Brief. The brief of amicus curiae should conform to section (a) but should in all respects be limited to the issues of concern to amicus. Amicus must review all briefs on file and avoid repetition of matters in other briefs.

(f) Answer to Brief of Amicus Curiae. The brief in answer to a brief of amicus curiae should be limited solely to the new matters raised in the brief of amicus curiae.

(g) Special Provision for Assignments of Error. A separate assignment of error for each instruction which a party contends was improperly given or refused must be included with reference to each instruction or proposed instruction by number. A separate assignment of error for each finding of fact a party contends was improperly made or refused must be included with reference to the finding or proposed finding by number. The appellate court will only review a claimed error which is included in an assignment of error or clearly disclosed in the associated issue pertaining thereto.

RULE 10.4

PREPARATION AND FILING OF BRIEF BY PARTY

(a) Typing and Filing Brief. One legible, clean, and reproducible copy of the brief must be filed with the appellate court. The brief should be typed with black ribbon on 20-pound substance 8½-inch by 11-inch white paper. The type should not be smaller than pica equivalent to 10 point type. Lines should not generally exceed 5 inches in length. Margins 2 inches on the left side and 1½ inches on the right side and on the top and bottom of each page are preferred. Lines should be double or 1½ spaced. Quotations may be single spaced and footnotes should be single spaced.

(b) Length of Brief. A brief of appellant, petitioner, or respondent, and a pro se brief in a criminal case should not exceed 70 pages if double spaced, or 54 pages if 1½ spaced. A reply brief should not exceed 35 pages if double spaced, or 27 pages if 1½ spaced. An amicus curiae brief should not exceed 30 pages if double spaced, or 23 pages if 1½ spaced. For the purpose of determining compliance with this rule appendices are included. The title sheet, table of contents, and table of authorities are not included.

(1) Waiver of Page Limitations. Waiver of page limitations will be granted only upon a motion made at least 14 days before the brief is due. Such motion must set forth the extraordinary reasons why compliance with the usual provisions of rule 10.4(b) cannot be met. The motion may be heard ex parte.

(c) Text of Statute, Rule, Jury Instruction, or the Like. If a party presents an issue which requires study of a statute, rule, regulation, jury instruction, finding of fact, exhibit, or the like, the party should type the material portions of the text out verbatim or include them by facsimile copy in the text or in an appendix to the brief.

(d) Motion in Brief. A party may include in a brief only a motion which, if granted, would preclude hearing the case on the merits.

(e) Reference to Party. References to parties by such designations as "appellant" and "respondent" should be kept to a minimum. It promotes clarity to use the designations used in the lower court, the actual names of the parties, or descriptive terms such as "the employee," "the injured person," and "the taxpayer."

(f) Reference to Record. A reference to the record should designate the page and part of the record. Exhibits should be referred to by number. The clerk's papers should be abbreviated as "CP"; exhibits should be abbreviated as "Ex"; and the report of proceedings should be abbreviated as "RP." Suitable abbreviations for other recurrent references may be used.

(g) Citations. Citations must be in conformity with the form used in current volumes of the Washington Reports. Decisions of the Supreme Court and of the Court of Appeals must be cited to the official report thereof and should include the national reporter citation and the year of the decision. The citation of other state court decisions should include both the state and national reporter citations. The citation of a United States Supreme Court decision should include the United States Reports, the United States Supreme Court Reports Lawyers' Edition, and the Supreme Court Reporter. The citation of a decision of any other federal court should include the federal reporter citation and the district of the district court or circuit of the court of appeals deciding the case. Any citation should include the year decided and a reference to and citation of any subsequent decision of the same case.

RULE 10.5

REPRODUCTION AND SERVICE OF BRIEFS BY CLERK

(a) Reproduction of Brief. The appellate court commissioner or clerk will arrange for the economical reproduction of each brief and bill the party or amicus filing the brief for the cost of reproduction. Each brief will be reproduced in the number of copies deemed necessary by the commissioner or clerk. The party or amicus must pay the cost of reproduction of the brief within 10 days after receiving the bill from the clerk. The appellate court commissioner or clerk may permit, under appropriate standards, a governmental party to reproduce and directly supply to the commissioner or clerk the number of copies required by the court in lieu of reproduction of the briefs being made by the court.

(b) Service of Brief. The clerk will serve two copies of each brief on each party and one each on the defendant in a criminal case and on any amicus curiae. The clerk will also send five copies of each brief to the Washington State Law Library.

(c) Notice to Defendant in Criminal Case. In a criminal case, the clerk will, at the time of service of the brief, serve the defendant with a notice and form as provided in rule 10.1(d).

RULE 10.6

AMICUS CURIAE BRIEF

(a) When Allowed by Motion. The appellate court may prior to oral argument, on motion, grant permission to file an amicus curiae brief only if all parties consent, or if the filing of the brief would assist the appellate court. An amicus curiae brief may be filed only by an attorney authorized to practice law in this state, or by a member in good standing of the Bar of another state in association with an attorney authorized to practice law in this state.

(b) Motion. A motion to file an amicus curiae brief must include a statement of (1) applicant's interest and the person or group applicant represents, (2) applicant's familiarity with the issues involved in the review and with the scope of the argument presented or to be presented by the parties, (3) specific issues to which the amicus curiae brief will be directed, and (4) applicant's reason for believing that additional argument is necessary on these specific issues. The brief of amicus curiae may be filed with the motion.

(c) On Request of the Appellate Court. The appellate court may ask for an amicus brief at any stage of review.

RULE 10.7

SUBMISSION OF IMPROPER BRIEF

If a party submits a brief which fails to comply with the requirements for content, style, legibility, and length provided by rules 10.3 and 10.4, the appellate court, on its own initiative or on the motion of a party, may (1) order the brief returned for correction or replacement within a specified time, (2) order the brief stricken from the files with leave to file a new brief within a specified time, or (3) accept the brief. The appellate court will ordinarily impose sanctions on a party or counsel for a party who files a brief which fails to comply with these rules.

RULE 10.8

ADDITIONAL AUTHORITIES

A party may file a statement of additional authorities, without argument. The statement must be served and filed prior to the filing of the decision on the merits or, if there is a motion for reconsideration, prior to the filing of the decision on the motion.

TITLE 11

ORAL ARGUMENT ON MERITS

Rule

- 11.1 Oral Arguments to Which Title Applies
- 11.2 Who May Present Oral Argument
 - (a) Party
 - (b) Amicus Curiae
- 11.3 Date of Argument
 - (a) Notice
 - (b) Postponement

11.4 Time Allowed and Order of Argument

- (a) Time Allowed to a Party
- (b) Time Allowed to Amicus Curiae
- (c) Order of Argument
- (d) Cross Review
- (e) Failure To Appear

11.5 Conduct of Argument

- (a) Scope of Argument
- (b) Reading at Length
- (c) Duplication of Argument
- (d) Use of Exhibits

11.6 Submitting Case Without Oral Argument

RULE 11.1

ORAL ARGUMENTS TO WHICH TITLE APPLIES

The rules in this title apply to all oral argument in the appellate court except an argument on a motion.

RULE 11.2

WHO MAY PRESENT ORAL ARGUMENT

(a) Party. A party of record may present oral argument only if the party has filed a brief.

(b) Amicus Curiae. Amicus curiae may present oral argument only if time is made available for the argument by a party, or if the appellate court grants additional time for argument by amicus curiae.

RULE 11.3

DATE OF ARGUMENT

(a) Notice. The clerk will advise all parties and others who have filed briefs of the time and place of oral argument.

(b) Postponement. A request to postpone oral argument must be made by motion filed reasonably in advance of the date fixed for oral argument.

RULE 11.4

TIME ALLOWED AND ORDER OF ARGUMENT

(a) Time Allowed to a Party. Each side is allowed 30 minutes for oral argument. If there is more than one party to a side in a single review or in a consolidated review, the parties on that side will share the 30 minutes equally, unless the parties on that side agree to some other allocation.

(b) Time Allowed to Amicus Curiae. Amicus curiae may present oral argument with the consent of a party and within a portion of the time for oral argument allocated to that party, or within the time allowed by the court.

(c) Order of Argument. The appellant or petitioner is entitled to open and conclude oral argument. The party first filing a notice of appeal or a notice for discretionary review is deemed the appellant or petitioner for the purpose of this rule.

(d) Cross Review. The argument on any cross review must be made at the same time as the argument on the initial review.

(e) Failure To Appear. The appellate court will hear argument on behalf of a party who has filed a brief who appears at the time of oral argument. If none of the parties to the review appears for oral argument, the court may order oral argument at a later time or may decide the case on the briefs.

RULE 11.5

CONDUCT OF ARGUMENT

(a) Scope of Argument. The court ordinarily encourages oral argument. The opening argument should include a fair and concise statement of the facts of the case. Counsel need not argue all issues raised and argued in the briefs.

(b) Reading at Length. Counsel should avoid reading at length from briefs, records, or authorities.

(c) Duplication of Argument. Counsel should avoid duplication of argument, particularly if there are multiple parties arguing in support of the same issue.

(d) Use of Exhibits. Counsel may, to promote clarity of argument, use exhibits brought up as a part of the record and demonstrative or illustrative exhibits not a part of the record. Counsel should arrange, before court convenes, for the placement in the courtroom of exhibits and equipment to be used in oral argument.

RULE 11.6

SUBMITTING CASE WITHOUT ORAL ARGUMENT

The appellate court may, on its own initiative or on motion of all parties, decide a case without oral argument.

TITLE 12

APPELLATE COURT DECISION AND PROCEDURE AFTER DECISION

Rule

- 12.1 Basis for Decision
 - (a) Generally
 - (b) Issues Raised by the Court
- 12.2 Disposition on Review
- 12.3 Forms of Decision
 - (a) Decision Terminating Review
 - (b) Interlocutory Decision
 - (c) Ruling
- 12.4 Motion for Reconsideration of Decision Terminating Review
 - (a) Generally
 - (b) Time
 - (c) Content
 - (d) Answer and Reply
 - (e) Length—One Copy
 - (f) No Oral Argument
 - (g) Grant of Motion
 - (h) Only One Motion Permitted
- 12.5 Mandate
 - (a) Mandate Defined
 - (b) When Mandate Issued by Court of Appeals
 - (c) When Mandate Issued by Supreme Court
 - (d) Copies Provided in Criminal Case
- 12.6 Stay of Mandate Pending Decision on Application for Review by United States Supreme Court

- 12.7 Finality of Decision
 - (a) Court of Appeals
 - (b) Supreme Court
 - (c) Special Rule for Costs
 - (d) Special Rule for Law of the Case
- 12.8 Effect of Reversal on Intervening Rights
- 12.9 Recall of Mandate
 - (a) To Require Compliance With Decision
 - (b) To Correct Error
 - (c) Time for Motion

RULE 12.1

BASIS FOR DECISION

(a) Generally. Except as provided in section (b), the appellate court will decide a case only on the basis of issues set forth by the parties in their briefs.

(b) Issues Raised by the Court. If the appellate court concludes that an issue which is not set forth in the briefs should be considered to properly decide a case, the court may notify the parties and give them an opportunity to present written argument on the issue raised by the court.

RULE 12.2

DISPOSITION ON REVIEW

The appellate court may reverse, affirm, or modify the decision being reviewed and take any other action as the merits of the case and the interest of justice may require. Upon issuance of the mandate of the appellate court as provided in rule 12.5, the action taken and decision made by the appellate court is effective and binding on the parties to the review and governs all subsequent proceedings in the action in any court, unless otherwise directed upon recall of the mandate as provided in rule 12.9, and except as provided in rule 2.5(c)(2).

RULE 12.3

FORMS OF DECISION

(a) Decision Terminating Review. A "decision terminating review" is an opinion, order, or judgment of the appellate court or a ruling of a commissioner or clerk of an appellate court if it:

- (1) Is filed after review is accepted by the appellate court filing the decision; and
- (2) Terminates review unconditionally; and
- (3) Is (i) a decision on the merits, or (ii) a decision by the judges dismissing review, or (iii) a ruling by a commissioner or clerk dismissing review, or (iv) an order refusing to modify a ruling by the commissioner or clerk dismissing review.

(b) Interlocutory Decision. An "interlocutory decision" is any opinion, order, or judgment of the appellate court or ruling of a commissioner or clerk which is not a decision terminating review.

(c) Ruling. A "ruling" is any determination of a commissioner or clerk of an appellate court. The ruling may be a decision terminating review or an interlocutory decision.

RULE 12.4

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF DECISION
TERMINATING REVIEW

(a) Generally. A party may file a motion for reconsideration only of a decision terminating review which is not a ruling of the appellate court commissioner or clerk. The motion should be in the form and be served and filed as provided in rules 17.3(a), 17.4(a) and (g), and 18.5, except as otherwise provided in this rule.

(b) Time. The party must file the motion for reconsideration within 20 days after the decision the party wants reconsidered is filed in the appellate court.

(c) Content. The motion should state with particularity the points of law or fact which the moving party contends the court has overlooked or misapprehended, together with a brief argument on the points raised.

(d) Answer and Reply. A party should not file an answer to a motion for reconsideration or a reply to an answer unless requested by the appellate court.

(e) Length—One Copy. The motion, answer, or reply should not exceed 25 pages in length if double spaced or 20 pages if 1½ spaced unless additional length is authorized under rule 18.8. Only one legible copy should be filed.

(f) No Oral Argument. A motion for reconsideration will be decided without oral argument.

(g) Grant of Motion. If a motion for reconsideration is granted, the appellate court may (1) modify the decision without new argument, (2) call for new argument, or (3) take such other action as may be appropriate.

(h) Only One Motion Permitted. Only one motion for reconsideration may be filed, even if the appellate court modifies its decision or changes the language in the opinion rendered by the court.

RULE 12.5

MANDATE

(a) Mandate Defined. A "mandate" is the written notification by the clerk to the trial court and to the parties of an appellate court decision terminating review. No mandate issues for an interlocutory decision.

(b) When Mandate Issued by Court of Appeals. The clerk of the Court of Appeals issues the mandate for a Court of Appeals decision terminating review upon stipulation of the parties that no motion for reconsideration or petition for review will be filed. In the absence of that stipulation, and except to the extent the mandate is stayed as provided in rule 12.6, the clerk issues the mandate:

(1) Twenty days after the decision is filed, unless (i) a motion for reconsideration of the decision has been earlier filed, (ii) a petition for review to the Supreme Court has been earlier filed, or (iii) the decision is a ruling of the commissioner or clerk and a motion to modify the ruling has been earlier filed.

(2) If a motion for reconsideration is timely filed and denied, 30 days after filing the order denying the motion for reconsideration, unless a petition for review to the Supreme Court has been earlier filed.

(3) If a petition for review has been timely filed and denied by the Supreme Court, upon denial of the petition for review.

(c) When Mandate Issued by Supreme Court. The clerk of the Supreme Court issues the mandate for a Supreme Court decision terminating review upon stipulation of the parties that no motion for reconsideration will be filed. In the absence of that stipulation, and except to the extent the mandate is stayed as provided in rule 12.6, the clerk issues the mandate:

(1) Twenty days after the decision is filed, unless (i) a motion for reconsideration has been earlier filed, or (ii) the decision is a ruling of the commissioner or clerk and a motion to modify the ruling has been earlier filed.

(2) If a motion for reconsideration is timely filed and denied, upon filing the order denying the motion for reconsideration.

(d) Copies Provided in Criminal Case. When the appellate court remands a criminal case to the trial court, the clerk of the appellate court shall transmit a copy of the mandate to the presiding judge of the trial court, to trial counsel of record, and to the clerk of the trial court.

RULE 12.6

STAY OF MANDATE PENDING DECISION ON APPLICATION FOR REVIEW BY UNITED STATES
SUPREME COURT

The appellate court will not stay issuance of the mandate for the length of time necessary to secure a decision by the United States Supreme Court on an application for review, except in a case in which the penalty of death has been imposed.

RULE 12.7

FINALITY OF DECISION

(a) Court of Appeals. The Court of Appeals loses the power to change or modify its decision (1) upon issuance of its mandate in accordance with rule 12.5, except when the mandate is recalled as provided in rule 12.9, or (2) upon acceptance by the Supreme Court of review of the decision of the Court of Appeals.

(b) Supreme Court. The Supreme Court loses the power to change or modify a decision of the Court of Appeals upon issuance of the mandate of the Court of Appeals in accordance with rule 12.5. The Supreme Court loses the power to change or modify a Supreme Court decision upon issuance of the mandate of the Supreme Court in accordance with rule 12.5, except when the mandate is recalled as provided in rule 12.9.

(c) Special Rule for Costs. The appellate court retains the power to act on questions of costs as provided in Title 14 after the issuance of the mandate.

(d) Special Rule for Law of the Case. The appellate court retains the power to change a decision as provided in rule 2.5(c)(2).

RULE 12.8

EFFECT OF REVERSAL ON INTERVENING RIGHTS

If a party has voluntarily or involuntarily partially or wholly satisfied a trial court decision which is modified by the appellate court, the trial court shall enter orders and authorize the issuance of process appropriate to restore to the party any property taken from that party, or the value of the property. An interest in property acquired by a purchaser in good faith, under a decision subsequently reversed or modified, shall not be affected by the reversal or modification of that decision.

RULE 12.9

RECALL OF MANDATE

(a) To Require Compliance With Decision. The appellate court may recall a mandate issued by it to determine if the trial court has complied with an earlier decision of the appellate court given in the same case. The question of compliance by the trial court may be raised by motion to recall the mandate, or by initiating a separate review of the lower court decision entered after issuance of the mandate.

(b) To Correct Error. The appellate court may recall a mandate issued by it to correct an inadvertent mistake, to modify a decision obtained by fraud of a party or counsel in the appellate court, or to modify a decision of the appellate court which was beyond the jurisdiction of the court.

(c) Time for Motion. The motion to recall the mandate must be made within a reasonable time.

TITLE 13

REVIEW BY THE SUPREME COURT OF COURT OF APPEALS DECISION

Rule

- 13.1 Method of Seeking Review
 - (a) One Method of Seeking Review
 - (b) Writ Procedure Superseded
- 13.2 Rescinded
- 13.3 Decisions Reviewed as a Matter of Discretion
 - (a) What May Be Reviewed

 - (g) Service and Reproduction of Petition, Answer, and Reply
 - (h) No Oral Argument
- 13.5 Discretionary Review of Interlocutory Decision
 - (a) How To Seek Review
 - (b) Considerations Governing Acceptance of Review
 - (c) Motion Procedure
 - (d) Effect of Denial
- 13.6 Acceptance of Review

- 13.7 Proceedings After Acceptance of Review
 - (a) Procedure
 - (b) Scope of Review
 - (c) Other Limitations on Scope of Review

RULE 13.1

METHOD OF SEEKING REVIEW

(a) One Method of Seeking Review. The only method of seeking review by the Supreme Court of decisions of the Court of Appeals is review by permission of the Supreme Court, called "discretionary review."

(b) Writ Procedure Superseded. The procedure for seeking review of decisions of the Court of Appeals established by these rules supersedes the review procedure formerly available by extraordinary writs of review, certiorari, mandamus, prohibition, and other writs formerly considered necessary and proper to the complete exercise of appellate and revisory jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

RULE 13.2

[RESCINDED]

RULE 13.3

DECISIONS REVIEWED AS A MATTER OF DISCRETION

(a) What May Be Reviewed. A party may seek discretionary review by the Supreme Court of any decision of the Court of Appeals which is not a ruling including:

(1) Decision Terminating Review. Any decision terminating review.

(2) Interlocutory Decision. Subject to the restrictions imposed by rule 13.5(b), any interlocutory decision, including but not limited to (i) a decision denying a motion to modify a ruling of the commissioner or clerk which denies a motion for discretionary review, and (ii) if the clerk refers a motion for discretionary review to the court, a decision by the court which denies a motion for discretionary review.

(b) Decision Terminating Review. A party seeking review of a Court of Appeals decision terminating review may first file a motion for reconsideration under rule 12.4 and must file a "petition for review" as provided in rule 13.4.

(c) Interlocutory Decision. A party seeking review of an interlocutory decision of the Court of Appeals must file a "motion for discretionary review" as provided in rule 13.5.

(d) Incorrect Designation of Motion or Petition. A motion for discretionary review of a decision terminating review will be given the same effect as a petition for review. A petition for review of an interlocutory decision will be given the same effect as a motion for discretionary review.

(e) Ruling by Commissioner or Clerk. A ruling by a commissioner or clerk of the Court of Appeals is not subject to review by the Supreme Court. The decision of the Court of Appeals on a motion to modify a ruling by the commissioner or clerk may be subject to review as provided in this title.

RULE 13.4

DISCRETIONARY REVIEW OF DECISION TERMINATING REVIEW

(a) How To Seek Review. A party seeking discretionary review by the Supreme Court of a Court of Appeals decision terminating review must file a petition for review in the Court of Appeals within 30 days after an order is filed denying a timely motion for reconsideration of that decision. If no motion for reconsideration is made, a petition for review must be filed within 30 days after the decision is filed.

(b) Considerations Governing Acceptance of Review. A petition for review will be accepted by the Supreme Court only:

- (1) If the decision of the Court of Appeals is in conflict with a decision of the Supreme Court; or
- (2) If the decision of the Court of Appeals is in conflict with a decision of another division of the Court of Appeals; or
- (3) If a significant question of law under the Constitution of the State of Washington or of the United States is involved; or

(4) If the petition involves an issue of substantial public interest that should be determined by the Supreme Court.

(c) Content and Style of Petition. The petition for review should contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:

- (1) Cover. A title page, which is the cover.
- (2) Tables. A table of contents, with page references, and a table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes and other authorities cited, with reference to the pages of the brief where cited.
- (3) Identity of Petitioner. A statement of the name and designation of the person filing the petition.
- (4) Citation to Court of Appeals Decision. A reference to the Court of Appeals decision which petitioner wants reviewed, the date of filing the decision, and the date of any order granting or denying a motion for reconsideration.
- (5) Issues Presented for Review. A concise statement of the issues presented for review.
- (6) Statement of the Case. A statement of the facts and procedure in the trial court and in the Court of Appeals relevant to the issues presented for review, with appropriate references to the record.
- (7) Argument. A direct and concise statement of the reason why review should be accepted under one or more of the tests established in section (b), with argument.
- (8) Conclusion. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(9) Appendix. An appendix containing a copy of the Court of Appeals decision, any order granting or denying a motion for reconsideration of the decision, and copies of statutes and constitutional provisions relevant to the issues presented for review.

(d) Answer and Reply. A party may file an answer to a petition for review, or a reply to an answer. If a party wants to raise an issue which is not raised in the petition for review, that party must raise that new issue in an answer filed within 15 days of the service on the party of the petition. The Supreme Court may call for an answer or a reply to an answer.

(e) Form of Petition, Answer, and Reply. The petition, answer, and reply should comply with the requirements as to form for a brief as provided in rules 10.3 and 10.4, except as otherwise provided in this rule.

(f) Length. The petition for review, answer, or reply should not exceed 20 pages if double spaced or 15 pages if 1½ spaced.

(g) Service and Reproduction of Petition, Answer, and Reply. The clerk will arrange for the reproduction of copies of a petition for review, an answer, or a reply, and bill the appropriate party for the copies as provided in rule 10.5. The clerk will serve the petition, answer, or reply as provided in rule 10.5(b).

(h) No Oral Argument. The Supreme Court will decide the petition without oral argument.

RULE 13.5

DISCRETIONARY REVIEW OF INTERLOCUTORY DECISION

(a) How To Seek Review. A party seeking review by the Supreme Court of an interlocutory decision of the Court of Appeals must file a motion for discretionary review in the Supreme Court and a copy in the Court of Appeals within 30 days after the decision is filed.

(b) Considerations Governing Acceptance of Review. Discretionary review of an interlocutory decision of the Court of Appeals will be accepted by the Supreme Court only:

- (1) If the Court of Appeals has committed an obvious error which would render further proceedings useless; or
- (2) If the Court of Appeals has committed probable error and the decision of the Court of Appeals substantially alters the status quo or substantially limits the freedom of a party to act; or
- (3) If the Court of Appeals has so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, or so far sanctioned such a departure by a trial court or administrative agency, as to call for the exercise of revisory jurisdiction by the Supreme Court.

(c) Motion Procedure. The procedure for and the form of the motion for discretionary review is as provided in Title 17.

(d) Effect of Denial. Denial of discretionary review of a decision does not affect the right of a party to obtain later review of the Court of Appeals decision or the issues pertaining to that decision.

RULE 13.6

ACCEPTANCE OF REVIEW

The Supreme Court accepts discretionary review of a decision of the Court of Appeals by granting a motion for discretionary review or by granting a petition for review.

RULE 13.7

PROCEEDINGS AFTER ACCEPTANCE OF REVIEW

(a) Procedure. The procedure in the Supreme Court, after acceptance of review of a decision of the Court of Appeals, is the same as the procedure in the Supreme Court after acceptance of review of a trial court decision, except that (1) the record in the Court of Appeals is the record on review in the Supreme Court, and (2) only the briefs filed in the Court of Appeals and the documents submitted in connection with the motion for discretionary review or petition for review will be considered by the Supreme Court, unless additional briefs are requested by the Supreme Court.

(b) Scope of Review. If the Supreme Court accepts review of a Court of Appeals decision, the Supreme Court will review only the questions raised in the motion for discretionary review, if review is sought of an interlocutory decision, or the petition for review and the answer, unless the Supreme Court orders otherwise upon the granting of the motion or petition. The Supreme Court may limit the issues to one or more of those raised by the parties.

(c) Other Limitations on Scope of Review. The scope of review may be further affected by the circumstances set forth in rule 2.5.

- 14.5 Objections to Cost Bill
- 14.6 Award of Costs
 - (a) Commissioner or Clerk Awards Costs
 - (b) Objection to Ruling
 - (c) Transmitting Judgment for Costs

RULE 14.1

COSTS GENERALLY

(a) When Allowed. The appellate court determines costs in all cases after the filing of a decision terminating review, except as provided in rule 18.2 relating to voluntary withdrawal of review.

(b) Which Court Determines and Awards Costs. Costs on review are determined and awarded by the appellate court which accepts review and makes the final determination of the case.

(c) Who Determines and Awards Costs. If the court determines costs in its opinion or order, a commissioner or clerk will award costs in accordance with that determination. In all other circumstances, a commissioner or clerk determines and awards costs by ruling as provided in rule 14.6(a). A party may object to the ruling of a commissioner or clerk as provided in rule 14.6(b).

(d) Who Is Entitled to Costs. Rule 14.2 defines who is entitled to costs.

(e) What Expenses Are Allowed as Costs. Rule 14.3 defines the expenses which may be allowed as costs.

(f) How Costs Are Claimed—Objections. A party claims costs by filing a cost bill in the manner provided in rule 14.4. A party objects to claimed costs in the manner provided in rule 14.5.

RULE 14.2

WHO IS ENTITLED TO COSTS

A commissioner or clerk of the appellate court will award costs to the party that substantially prevails on review, unless the appellate court directs otherwise in its decision terminating review. If there is no substantially prevailing party on review, the commissioner or clerk will not award costs to any party. An award of costs will specify the party who must pay the award. A party who is a nominal party only will not be awarded costs and will not be required to pay costs. A "nominal party" is one who is named but has no real interest in the controversy.

RULE 14.3

EXPENSES ALLOWED AS COSTS

(a) Generally. Only statutory attorney fees and the reasonable expenses actually incurred by a party for the following items which were reasonably necessary for review may be awarded to a party as costs: (1) preparation of the original and one copy of the report of proceedings, (2) copies of the clerk's papers, (3) preparation of an original document to be reproduced by the clerk, as provided in rule 14.3(b), (4) transmittal of the record on review, (5) bonds given in connection with the review, and (6) the lesser of the charges of the clerk for reproduction of briefs, petitions, and motions, or the costs incurred by the party reproducing briefs as authorized under rule 10.5(a). If a party has incurred an expense for one of the designated items, the item is presumed to have been reasonably necessary for review, which presumption is rebuttable. The amount paid by a party for the designated item is presumed reasonable, which presumption is rebuttable.

(b) Special Rule for Cost of Preparing Original Document. The costs awarded for preparing an original document is an amount per page fixed from time to time by the Supreme Court. The cost for preparing an original document will only be awarded for a document which substantially complies with these rules and only for the actual number of pages of the document including the front cover and appendix. If a document is unreasonably long, costs will be awarded only for a reasonable number of pages.

(c) Special Rule for Indigent Review. An indigent may not recover costs from the State for expenses paid with public funds as provided in Title 15. The clerk or commissioner will claim costs due from other parties which reimburse the State for expenses paid with public funds as provided in Title 15.

RULE 14.4
COST BILL

(a) Generally. Except as provided in sections (b) and (c), a party seeking costs on review must file a cost bill with the appellate court and serve a copy of the cost bill on all parties within 10 days after the filing of an appellate court decision terminating review. If a party seeks costs for an expense incurred after the time to file a cost bill has expired, that party must serve on all parties and file a supplemental cost bill with the appellate court within 10 days after the expense was incurred. If a decision terminating review is modified to the extent that a different party is entitled to costs, the party seeking costs must file a cost bill with the appellate court and serve a copy of the cost bill on all parties within 10 days after the filing of the decision which modifies the original decision terminating review.

(b) When Costs Abide Final Result and There Is no Second Review. If the costs on review are to abide the final determination in the trial court and that final determination is not reviewed by the appellate court, a party seeking costs must, within 30 days after the time to seek review of the trial court decision has expired, file with the appellate court and serve on each party: (1) a cost bill for costs on review, or if a cost bill was filed for the earlier review, a copy of the cost bill previously filed in the appellate court, (2) a copy of the final determination of the trial court, and (3) an affidavit stating that a notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review of the decision finally determining the case has not been filed.

(c) When Costs Abide Final Result and There Is a Second Review. If the costs on review are to abide the final determination of the case by the trial court and that final determination is reviewed by the appellate court, the costs of the earlier review will be taxed at the same time the costs of the later review are taxed. A party seeking costs of the earlier review must file (1) a cost bill for costs on the earlier review or, if a cost bill was filed for the earlier review, a copy of the cost bill for the earlier review, and (2) a cost bill for the later review.

RULE 14.5

OBJECTIONS TO COST BILL

A party may object to items in the cost bill of another party by serving on all parties and filing with the appellate court objections to the cost bill within 10 days after service of the cost bill upon the party.

RULE 14.6

AWARD OF COSTS

(a) Commissioner or Clerk Awards Costs. A commissioner or the clerk will determine costs within 10 days after the time has expired for filing objections to the cost bill. The commissioner or clerk will notify the parties of the ruling on costs.

(b) Objection to Ruling. A party may only object to the ruling on costs by motion to the appellate court in the same manner and within the same time as provided for objections to any other rulings of a commissioner or clerk as provided in rule 17.7.

(c) Transmitting Judgment for Costs. The commissioner or clerk will award costs in the mandate or in a supplemental judgment. An award of costs may be enforced as part of the judgment in the trial court.

 - (b) Disallowance of Claim
- 15.6 Recovery of Public Funds

RULE 15.1

PROCEDURES TO WHICH TITLE APPLIES

The rules in this title define the procedure to be used (1) to determine indigency and to determine the expenses of an indigent party to review which will be paid from public funds as provided in rule 15.2, (2) to obtain a waiver of charges imposed by the court as provided in rule 15.3, (3) to claim payment from public funds for services rendered to an indigent party to review as provided in rule 15.4, (4) to allow claims for expense as provided in rule 15.5, and (5) to recover public funds expended on behalf of an indigent as provided in rule 15.6. The rules in this title apply to all proceedings in the appellate court, except the rules apply to personal restraint petitions only to the extent defined in rule 16.15(f) and (g).

RULE 15.2

DETERMINATION OF INDIGENCY AND RIGHTS OF INDIGENT PARTY

(a) Motion for Order of Indigency. A party seeking review partially or wholly at public expense must move in the trial court for an order of indigency. The motion must be served and filed within the time allowed for filing a notice of appeal or a notice for discretionary review. The time between the service and filing of the motion for an order of indigency and the determination of that motion is excluded from the time allowed for filing a notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review. The motion must be supported by an affidavit setting forth the moving party's total assets; the expenses and liabilities of the party; a statement of the amount, if any, the party can contribute toward the expense of review; a statement of the expenses the party wants waived or provided at public expense; a brief statement of the nature of the case and the issues sought to be reviewed; a designation of those parts of the record the party thinks are necessary for review; and a statement that review is sought in good faith. If the case is a civil case which does not involve a termination of parental rights or a disposition in a juvenile offense proceeding, the party must also demonstrate in the motion or the supporting affidavit that the issues the party wants reviewed have probable merit and that the party has a constitutional right to review partially or wholly at public expense.

(b) Action by Superior Court. The superior court shall decide the motion for an order of indigency, after a hearing if the circumstances warrant, as follows:

(1) Denial Generally. The superior court shall deny the motion if a party has adequate means to pay all of the expenses of review. The order denying the motion for an order of indigency shall contain findings designating the funds or source of funds available to the party to pay all of the expenses of review.

(2) Cases Involving Crimes, Parental Rights, Juvenile Offenses. In a criminal case, a case involving a termination of parental rights, or a case involving a disposition in a juvenile offense proceeding, the superior court shall grant the motion and enter an order of indigency if the party seeking public funds is unable by reason of poverty to pay for all or some of the expenses of appellate review.

(3) Other Civil Cases. If the case is a civil case which does not involve a termination of parental rights or a disposition in a juvenile offense proceeding and if the party is unable by reason of poverty to pay for all of the expenses of review, the superior court shall enter findings of indigency. The superior court shall determine in those findings the portion of the record necessary for review and the amount, if any, the party is able to contribute toward the expense of review. The findings shall conclude with an order to the clerk of the superior court to promptly transmit to the Supreme Court, without charge to the moving party, the findings of indigency, the motion for an order of indigency, the affidavit in support of the motion, and all other papers submitted in support of or in opposition to the motion. The superior court clerk shall promptly transmit to the Supreme Court the papers designated in the findings of indigency.

(c) Action by Supreme Court. If findings of indigency and other papers relating to the motion for an order of indigency are transmitted to the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court will determine whether an order of indigency in that case should be entered by the superior court. The determination will be made by a department of the Supreme Court on a regular motion day without oral argument and based only on the papers transmitted to the Supreme Court by the superior court clerk, unless the Supreme Court directs otherwise. If the Supreme Court determines that the party is seeking review in good faith, that an issue of probable merit is presented, and that the party is entitled under the state or federal constitution to review partially or wholly at public expense, the Supreme Court will enter an order directing the trial court to enter an order of indigency. In all other cases, the Supreme Court will enter an order denying the party's motion for an order of indigency. The clerk of the appellate court will transmit a copy of the order to the clerk of the superior court and notify all parties of the decision of the Supreme Court.

(d) Order of Indigency. An order of indigency shall designate the items of expense which are to be paid with public funds and, where appropriate, the items of expense to be paid by a party or the amount which the party must contribute toward the expense of review. The order shall designate the extent to which public funds are to be used for payment of the expense of the record on review, limited to those parts of the record reasonably necessary to review issues argued in good faith. The order of indigency shall appoint counsel if the party is entitled to counsel on review at public expense. The order of indigency must be transmitted to the appellate court as a part of the record on review.

(e) Continued Indigency Presumed. A party and counsel for the party who has been granted an order of indigency must bring to the attention of the trial court any significant improvement during review in the financial condition of the party. The appellate court will give a party the benefits of an order of indigency throughout the review unless the trial court finds the party's financial condition has improved to the extent that the party is no longer indigent.

(f) Appointment and Withdrawal of Counsel in Trial Court. The trial court shall determine questions relating to the appointment and withdrawal of counsel for an indigent party on review, except withdrawal as provided in section (h). If trial counsel is not appointed, trial counsel must assist counsel appointed for review in preparing the record.

(g) Review of Order of Indigency. Only a party in a criminal case, in a case involving termination of parental rights, or in a case determining whether a person is a juvenile offender may seek review of an order of indigency or an order denying an order of indigency. Review must be sought by a motion for discretionary review.

(h) Withdrawal of Counsel in Appellate Court. If counsel can find no basis for a good faith argument on review, counsel should file a motion in the appellate court to withdraw as counsel for the indigent. The motion should be supported by a brief. The motion and brief will be reproduced by the clerk and served on the opposing party and the person represented by counsel seeking to withdraw.

RULE 15.3

WAIVER OF CHARGES FOR REPRODUCING BRIEFS

The appellate court will waive the charges of the appellate court for reproducing briefs and other papers only to the extent authorized by the order of indigency.

RULE 15.4

CLAIM FOR PAYMENT OF EXPENSE FOR INDIGENT PARTY

(a) Conditions for Payment. The expenses for an indigent party which are necessarily incident to review by an appellate court will be paid from public funds only if:

- (1) An order of indigency is included in the record on review; and
- (2) An order properly authorizes the expense claimed; and
- (3) The claim is made by filing four copies of an invoice in the form and manner and within the time provided by this rule.

(b) Invoice Generally. Each invoice must include the appellate court caption and docket number and the name of the claimant. The claimant's social security number or the Internal Revenue Service employer identification number of the claimant's firm must be included on each invoice, except one submitted by the superior court clerk. The invoice of a court reporter or a superior court clerk may be submitted as soon as the services have been performed or the expense incurred, but the invoice must be filed within 10 days after issuance of the mandate. The invoice must be filed in the appellate court to which the notice of appeal or notice for discretionary review was directed. Invoices filed in the Court of Appeals will be forwarded to the Supreme Court together with a statement indicating whether the requirements of this rule are satisfied.

(c) Invoice of Counsel. An invoice submitted by counsel representing an indigent party should be titled "Invoice of Counsel for Indigent Party." An invoice may be submitted only after oral argument, and not later than 10 days after issuance of the mandate. Counsel may submit only one invoice in the same review proceeding. The invoice must include a statement of the number of hours spent by counsel preparing the review, the amount of compensation claimed, and the reasonable expenses excluding normal overhead incurred by counsel for the review including travel expenses of counsel incurred for argument in the appellate court. Travel expenses may not exceed the amount allowable to state employees for travel by private vehicle. The invoice must include an affidavit of counsel stating that the items listed are correct charges for necessary services rendered and expenses incurred for proper consideration of the review and that counsel has not received and has not been promised compensation for the review from the indigent party or from any other source except as may have been approved by the court.

(d) Invoice of Court Reporter. An invoice submitted by the court reporter should be titled "Invoice of Court Reporter—Indigent Case." The invoice must state the number of pages transcribed and the billing rate per page. The billing rate must be at the rate per page or line page equivalent set by the Supreme Court for the original and one copy of that portion of the report of proceedings ordered by the superior court. Additional copies which have been authorized and ordered from the reporter must be charged for as though reproduced by the most economical method available to the reporter. The superior court clerk shall certify the reporter's invoice as follows:

I hereby certify that the amount claimed in this invoice is for that portion of the verbatim report of proceedings ordered by the trial court; that the typing of the report is in accordance with appellate rule 9.2(e) and (g); and that the bill is computed at the current rate per page set by the Supreme Court for the original and one copy, namely $ _____ per page.

(e) Invoice of Superior Court Clerk. An invoice submitted by the superior court clerk should be titled "Invoice of Superior Court Clerk—Indigent Case." The invoice must itemize the clerk's charges for the preparation of the record ordered by counsel for the indigent or the trial court and list the actual expenses of the clerk for transmittal of those portions of the record. The superior court clerk shall certify the clerk's invoice as follows:

I hereby certify that the items listed in this invoice are correct charges for the preparation of those portions of the record ordered by counsel or the trial court and for the actual expense of transmittal of those portions of the record.

RULE 15.5

ALLOWANCE OF CLAIM FOR PAYMENT OF EXPENSE FOR INDIGENT PARTY

(a) Allowance Generally. A commissioner of the Clerk of the Supreme Court determines all claims for expense by ruling. The commissioner or clerk will allow or disallow all or part of the claimed expense by ruling within 10 days after the invoice has been filed in the Supreme Court. The commissioner or clerk will notify the claimant of the ruling. A claimant may object to the ruling of the commissioner or clerk by motion to the Supreme Court, in the same manner and within the same time as an objection to any other ruling as provided in rule 17.7.

(b) Disallowance of Claim. If a brief is unnecessarily long, improper in substance, or not in compliance with these rules, all or a portion of counsel's claim may be disallowed. If the court reporter or counsel has been dilatory, all or a portion of the claim of the court reporter or the claim of counsel may be disallowed.

RULE 15.6

RECOVERY OF PUBLIC FUNDS

If a case on review is returned to the trial court for further proceedings and the case involves a claim for a money judgment for the party on whose behalf public funds have been expended, the Clerk of the Supreme Court will indicate the amount of public funds expended on behalf of the party in the mandate or in a supplemental judgment. The amount indicated in the mandate and supplemental judgment is a lien on any settlement or judgment obtained by the party on whose behalf public funds have been expended. This lien must be satisfied prior to the payment of any other amounts to the party. If a judgment is entered, the judgment should reflect the lien imposed by this rule. The amount of the lien must be paid to the clerk of the superior court. The clerk of the superior court shall forward all funds recovered to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, who will credit these funds to the Indigent Appeal Allotment.

RULE 16.1

PROCEEDINGS TO WHICH TITLE APPLIES

(a) Generally. The rules in this title establish the procedure for original actions in the Supreme Court and in the Court of Appeals, and the procedure for determining questions of law certified by a federal court.

(b) Original Actions in Supreme Court Against State Officers. Rule 16.2 defines the procedure for petitions against state officers for writs of mandamus, prohibition, quo warranto, and similar writs, but only when the proceeding is started for the first time in the Supreme Court.

(c) Original Actions in the Appellate Court—Personal Restraint Petition. Rules 16.3 through 16.15 define the procedure for a personal restraint petition, but only when the proceeding is started for the first time in the appellate court.

(d) Questions Certified by Federal Court. Rule 16.16 defines the procedure for determining questions of law certified by a federal court.

(e) Review of Decision of the Court of Appeals. Except as provided in rule 16.14, a Court of Appeals decision in a special proceeding is subject to review by the Supreme Court only by discretionary review as provided in Title 13.

(f) Removal of Public Officer. Proceedings to remove a public officer are governed by statute and not these rules.

RULE 16.2

ORIGINAL ACTION AGAINST STATE OFFICER

(a) Generally. The Supreme Court and the superior court have concurrent original jurisdiction of a petition against a state officer in the nature of quo warranto, prohibition, or mandamus. This rule applies only to an action originating in the Supreme Court.

(b) Initiating Proceeding. The proceeding is initiated by filing the petition in the Supreme Court and serving the petition on the proper parties. The petition must be noted for hearing before the commissioner or clerk as provided in rule 17.4 for motions. The notice of hearing should be served with the petition. Service of the petition and notice must be made as provided in the Superior Court Civil Rules and statutes for service of a summons in a superior court action.

(c) Motion Procedure Governs. The petition is treated by the Supreme Court as a motion to a commissioner or clerk. Title 17 relating to motions governs the response to the petition, oral argument, decisions by ruling, and the means of objecting to the ruling of the commissioner or clerk.

(d) Decisions Made by Commissioner or Clerk. A commissioner or clerk will, at the hearing, determine if the petition should be decided by the Supreme Court. If the commissioner or clerk decides that the petition should be transferred, the petition will be transferred to a superior court for determination on the merits. If the petition is not transferred, the commissioner or clerk will refer questions of fact to a master or to the superior court unless an agreed and adequate written statement of facts is approved by the parties prior to or at the hearing. The commissioner or clerk will also determine the timing of all remaining steps in the proceeding, including time for filing briefs on the merits.

(e) Procedure if Petition Is Not Transferred. The procedure if the petition is not transferred is the same as the procedure in the Supreme Court after acceptance of review of a trial court decision, except as otherwise directed by a ruling of the commissioner or clerk as provided in section (d).

(f) Statutory Time Limits Govern. If a statute provides a time within which a petition against a state officer in the nature of quo warranto, prohibition, or mandamus must be filed, the petition must be filed in the Supreme Court within the time period established by the statute.

(g) Costs. Costs are determined and awarded as provided in Title 14. The appellate court will award costs by supplemental judgment and will, on motion, transmit the judgment to the clerk of the superior court in the county selected by the party who is awarded costs. The supplemental judgment to the superior court shall be filed as a judgment in that court without payment of a filing fee.

RULE 16.3

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION—GENERALLY

(a) Habeas Corpus and Postconviction Relief. Rules 16.3 through 16.15 establish a single procedure for original proceedings in the appellate court to obtain relief formerly available by a petition for writ of habeas corpus or by an application for postconviction relief.

(b) Former Procedure Superseded. The procedure established by rules 16.3 through 16.15 for a personal restraint petition supersedes the appellate procedure formerly available for a petition for writ of habeas corpus and for an application for postconviction relief, unless one of these rules specifically indicates to the contrary. These rules do not supersede and do not apply to habeas corpus proceedings initiated in the superior court.

(c) Original Appellate Court Jurisdiction. The Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals have original concurrent jurisdiction in personal restraint petition proceedings. The Supreme Court will ordinarily exercise its jurisdiction by transferring the petition to the Court of Appeals.

RULE 16.4

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION—GROUNDS FOR REMEDY

(a) Generally. Except as restricted by section (d), the appellate court will grant appropriate relief to a petitioner if the petitioner is under a "restraint" as defined in section (b) and the petitioner's restraint is unlawful for one or more of the reasons defined in section (c).

(b) Restraint. A petitioner is under a "restraint" if the petitioner has limited freedom because of a court decision in a civil or criminal proceeding, the petitioner is confined, the petitioner is subject to imminent confinement, or the petitioner is under some other disability resulting from a judgment or sentence in a criminal case.

(c) Unlawful Nature of Restraint. The restraint must be unlawful for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) The decision in a civil or criminal proceeding was entered without jurisdiction over the person of the petitioner or the subject matter; or

(2) The conviction was obtained or the sentence or other order entered in a criminal proceeding or civil proceeding instituted by the state or local government was imposed or entered in violation of the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution or laws of the State of Washington; or

(3) Material facts exist which have not been previously presented and heard, which in the interest of justice require vacation of the conviction, sentence, or other order entered in a criminal proceeding or civil proceeding instituted by the state or local government; or

(4) There has been a significant change in the law, whether substantive or procedural, which is material to the conviction, sentence, or other order entered in a criminal proceeding or civil proceeding instituted by the state or local government, and sufficient reasons exist to require retroactive application of the changed legal standard; or

(5) Other grounds exist for a collateral attack upon a judgment in a criminal proceeding or civil proceeding instituted by the state or local government; or

(6) The conditions or manner of the restraint of petitioner are in violation of the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution or laws of the State of Washington; or

(7) Other grounds exist to challenge the legality of the restraint of petitioner.

(d) Restrictions. The appellate court will only grant relief by a personal restraint petition if other remedies which may be available to petitioner are inadequate under the circumstances. No more than one petition for similar relief on behalf of the same petitioner will be entertained without good cause shown.

RULE 16.5

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION—WHERE TO SEEK RELIEF

(a) Court of Appeals. A personal restraint petition should be filed in the Court of Appeals.

(b) Supreme Court. If a personal restraint petition is filed in the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court will ordinarily transfer the petition to the Court of Appeals.

RULE 16.6

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION—PARTIES

(a) Parties. If petitioner is under a restraint imposed by the state or local government, the petition should be captioned only with the name of the petitioner. If petitioner is not under a restraint imposed by the state or local government, the petition should be captioned with the name of the petitioner and the name of the person or agency restraining petitioner's liberty, as respondent. The petition may be brought by the person who is under a restraint or in the person's name by that person's guardian, conservator, parent, or attorney.

(b) Respondent—Restraint by Government. If petitioner is under a restraint imposed by the state or local government, the officer or agency responsible for the proceeding against petitioner at the time petitioner claims the proceeding was defective or improper shall respond to the petition. If there are two or more proper respondents, each shall serve and file a separate response unless they agree to joint representation and notify the appellate court and the petitioner of that agreement.

(c) Change of Respondent. If the petitioner is under a restraint imposed by the state or local government, the appellate court may on its own initiative or on motion substitute the proper respondent, and the clerk of the court will notify substituted respondent.

RULE 16.7

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION—FORM OF PETITION

(a) Generally. Under the titles indicated, the petition should set forth:

(1) Status of Petitioner. The restraint on petitioner; the place where petitioner is held in custody, if confined; the judgment, sentence, or other order or authority upon which petitioner's restraint is based, identified by date of entry, court, and cause number; any appeals taken from that judgment, sentence or order; and a statement of each other petition filed with regard to the same allegedly unlawful restraint, identified by the date filed, the court, the disposition made by the court, and the date of disposition.

(2) Grounds for Relief. A statement of (i) the facts upon which the claim of unlawful restraint of petitioner is based and the evidence available to support the factual allegations, (ii) why other remedies are inadequate, and (iii) why the petitioner's restraint is unlawful for one or more of the reasons specified in rule 16.4(c). Legal argument and authorities may be included in the petition, or submitted in a separate brief as provided in rule 16.10(a).

(3) Statement of Finances. If petitioner is unable to pay the filing fee or fees of counsel, a request should be included for waiver of the filing fee and for the appointment of counsel at public expense. The request should be supported by a statement of petitioner's total assets and liabilities.

(4) Request for Relief. The relief petitioner wants.

(5) Oath. If a notary is available, the petition must be signed by the petitioner or his attorney and verified substantially as follows:

After being first duly sworn, on oath, I depose and say: That I am the petitioner, that I have read the petition, know its contents, and I believe the petition is true.

OR

After being first duly sworn, on oath, I depose and say: That I am the attorney for the petitioner, that I have read the petition, know its contents, and I believe the petition is true.

[Signature]

Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19____.

Notary Public in and for the State of Washington, residing at

If a notary is not available, the petition must be subscribed by the petitioner or his attorney substantially as follows:

I declare that I have examined this petition and to the best of my knowledge and belief it is true and correct.

Dated this _____ day of _____, 19____.

[Signature]

If a notary is available and a petition is filed which is not verified, the appellate court will return the petition for verified signature and advise the petitioner's custodian to make a notary available.

(b) Standard Form. The clerk of the appellate court will make the standard form of petition available to persons who are confined in state institutions and to others who may request the form.

RULE 16.8

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION—FILING AND SERVICE

(a) Filing Fee. A personal restraint petition will be filed by the clerk of the appellate court only if the statutory filing fee is paid, unless the appellate court determines that the petitioner is unable to pay the filing fee.

The statute requiring payment of a fee for filing a petition for writ of habeas corpus is controlling.

(b) Filing in Court of Appeals. A personal restraint petition filed in the Court of Appeals must be filed in the division which includes the superior court entering the decision on the basis of which petitioner is held in custody or, if petitioner is not being held in custody on the basis of a decision, in the division in which the petitioner is located.

(c) Service of Petition. If petitioner's restraint is imposed by the state or local government, the clerk of the appellate court will reproduce a copy of the petition and serve the petition on the officer or agency under a duty to respond to the petition. If petitioner's restraint is imposed by a person or agency other than the state or local government, the petitioner must prepare and serve a copy of the petition on the proper respondent.

RULE 16.9

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION— RESPONSE TO PETITION

The respondent must, within 20 days after the petition is served, unless the time is extended by the commissioner or clerk for good cause shown, serve and file a response to the petition. The response must answer the allegations in the petition. The response must state the authority for the restraint of petitioner by respondent and, if the authority is in writing, include a conformed copy of the writing. If an allegation in the petition can be answered by reference to a record of another proceeding, the response should so indicate and include a copy of those parts of the record which are relevant. Respondent should also identify in the response all material disputed questions of fact.

RULE 16.10

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION—BRIEFS

(a) Briefs Allowed. The following briefs may be, but need not be, filed:

(1) Petitioner's Opening Brief. Petitioner's opening brief, which should be filed with the petition.

(2) Petitioner's Reply Brief. Petitioner's reply brief, which should be filed within 20 days after the answering brief is served on petitioner. If the brief is mailed, it must be mailed within 17 days after the answering brief is served on petitioner.

(b) Brief Required. Respondent must file an answering brief within the time the response must be filed.

(c) Briefs at Request of Appellate Court. The appellate court may call for additional briefs at any stage of the consideration of the petition.

(d) Content and Style of Briefs. The content and style of briefs is governed by rules 10.3 and 10.4.

(e) Reproduction and Service of Briefs. Briefs must be filed with the clerk of the appellate court. Briefs will be reproduced and served by the clerk in accordance with rule 10.5.

RULE 16.11

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION— CONSIDERATION OF PETITION

(a) Generally. The Chief Judge will consider the petition promptly after the time has expired to file petitioner's reply brief. The Chief Judge determines at the initial consideration if the petition will be retained by the appellate court for determination on the merits or transferred to a superior court for determination on the merits or for a reference hearing.

(b) Determination by Appellate Court. The Chief Judge determines at the initial consideration of the petition the steps necessary to properly decide on the merits the issues raised by the petition. If the issues presented are frivolous, the Chief Judge will dismiss the petition. If the petition is not frivolous and can be determined solely on the record, the Chief Judge will refer the petition to a panel of judges for determination on the merits. If the petition cannot be determined solely on the record, the Chief Judge will transfer the petition to a superior court for a determination on the merits or for a reference hearing. The Chief Judge may enter other orders necessary to obtain a prompt determination of the petition on the merits.

(c) Oral Argument. Decisions of the Chief Judge will be made without oral argument. If a petition is to be decided on the merits by a panel of judges, the appellate court clerk will set the petition for consideration by the panel of judges, with or without oral argument. If oral argument is directed, the clerk will notify the parties of the date set for oral argument.

RULE 16.12

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION— SUPERIOR COURT HEARING

If the appellate court transfers the petition to a superior court, the transfer will be to the superior court for the county in which the decision was made resulting in the restraint of petitioner or, if petitioner is not being restrained on the basis of a decision, in the superior court in the county in which petitioner is located. If the respondent is represented by the Attorney General, the prosecuting attorney, or a municipal attorney, respondent must take steps to obtain a prompt evidentiary hearing and must serve notice of the date set for hearing on all other parties. The parties, on motion and for good cause shown, will be granted reasonable pretrial discovery. Each party has the right to subpoena witnesses. The hearing shall be held before a judge who was not involved in the challenged proceeding. The petitioner has the right to be present at the hearing and the right to cross-examine adverse witnesses. The Rules of Evidence apply at the hearing. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, if the case has been transferred for a reference hearing the superior court shall enter findings of fact and have the findings and all appellate court files forwarded to the appellate court. Upon the conclusion of the hearing if the case has been transferred for a determination on the merits, the superior court shall enter findings of fact and conclusions of law and an order deciding the petition.

RULE 16.13

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION—PROCEDURE
AFTER REFERENCE HEARING

After a reference hearing and the findings of fact and appellate court files have been returned to the appellate court, the Chief Judge will dismiss the petition if the issues presented are frivolous. If the petition is not frivolous, the Chief Judge will refer the petition to a panel of judges for determination on the merits. The appellate court may, on motion of a party, order the preparation of and transmittal to the appellate court of a part or all of the record of the reference proceeding. The appellate court order will define at whose expense the record is prepared. Oral argument is governed by rule 16.11(c).

RULE 16.14

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION—
APPELLATE REVIEW

(a) Decision Whether To Transfer. A decision to transfer a petition to a superior court for a hearing or to retain the petition for determination by the appellate court is not subject to review by the Supreme Court.

(b) Decision of Superior Court. A decision of a superior court in a personal restraint proceeding transferred to that court for a determination on the merits is subject to review in the same manner and under the same procedure as any other trial court decision.

(c) Other Decisions. If the petition is dismissed by the Chief Judge or decided by the Court of Appeals on the merits, the decision is subject to review by the Supreme Court only by a motion for discretionary review on the terms and in the manner provided in rule 13.5(a), (b), and (c).

RULE 16.15

PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION—
SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

(a) Motion. The procedure for and form of a motion is as provided in Title 17, except that a motion by the petitioner must be verified in the same manner as a petition. Motions will ordinarily be considered without oral argument.

(b) Release by Appellate Court of Person in Custody. The appellate court may release a petitioner on bail or personal recognizance before deciding the petition, if release prevents further unlawful confinement and it is unjust to delay the petitioner's release until the petition is determined. The appellate court or the superior court in its decision on the merits, or by separate order after a decision on the merits, may release a petitioner on bail or on personal recognizance. The appellate court may direct the release of petitioner with the conditions of release to be determined by a trial court.

(c) Oral Argument. Except as otherwise provided in rule 16.11(c), the procedure for oral argument is governed by Title 11.

(d) Disposition of Petition. The petition will be determined by the appellate court by written opinion or order briefly stating the reasons for the determination.

(e) Costs. Costs are awarded as provided in Title 14.

(f) Indigency—Superior Court Determination. The provisions of CrR 3.1 apply to a personal restraint petition transferred to a superior court. If any of the petitioner's expenses incurred in the superior court are to be paid with public funds, the expenses shall be paid with funds appropriated by the county in which the superior court is located.

(g) Indigency—Appellate Court Proceeding. If the restraint is imposed by the state or local government, and if the appellate court determines that petitioner is indigent, the court may provide for the appointment of counsel at public expense for services in the appellate court, order waiver of charges for reproducing briefs and motions, provide for the preparation of the record of prior proceedings and provide for the payment of such other expenses as may be necessary to consider the petition in the appellate court. Invoices for expenses of an indigent person in the appellate court must be submitted to the appellate court which decided the petition in the form and manner provided in rule 15.4, except that a trial court order of indigency is not required and the invoice must be submitted within 45 days after the appellate court decision terminating the proceeding is filed. If a petitioner who claims to be indigent is in the custody of an agency of the Department of Social and Health Services, the clerk of the appellate court will obtain a statement of petitioner's known assets from the superintendent of the institution where petitioner is confined. Statutes providing for payment of expenses with public funds are not superseded.

RULE 16.16

QUESTION CERTIFIED BY FEDERAL COURT

(a) Generally. The Supreme Court may entertain a petition to determine a question of law certified to it under the Federal Court Local Law Certificate Procedure Act if the question of state law is one which has not been clearly determined and does not involve a question determined by reference to the United States Constitution. Certificate procedure is the means by which a federal court submits a question of Washington law to the Supreme Court. This rule provides the procedure for implementing RCW 2.60.

(b) Caption of Pleadings and Briefs Filed in Supreme Court. The caption of the case should be:

CERTIFICATION FROM [ORIGINATING UNITED STATES COURT] IN [Title of Action]

(c) Filing. The cause shall be filed, indexed, and numbered in the same manner as an appeal to the Supreme Court.

(d) Record. The record shall be certified by the federal court as required by statute.

(e) Briefs.

(1) Procedure. The federal court shall designate who will file the first brief. The first brief should be filed within 30 days after the record is filed in the Supreme Court. The opposing party should file the opposing brief within 20 days after receipt of the opening brief. A reply brief should be filed within 10 days after the opposing brief is served. The time for filing the record, the supplemental record, or briefs may be extended for cause.

(2) Form and Reproduction of Briefs. Briefs should be in the form provided by rules 10.3 and 10.4. Briefs will be reproduced and served in accordance with rule 10.5.

(f) Costs. The cost provisions of Title 14 are applicable except that both parties must file a cost bill, and that the commissioner or clerk will not award costs but will divide the total costs equally between the parties.

(g) Finality of Opinion. The opinion of the Supreme Court is certified to the federal court at the time a mandate would issue as provided in rule 12.5. The certification by the clerk states that the opinion is in answer to the question of Washington law submitted.

RULE 16.17

OTHER RULES APPLICABLE

Rules 1.1, 1.2, 18.1, 18.3 through 18.10, and 18.21 through 18.24 are applicable to the special proceedings in this title.

RULE 17.1

RELIEF AVAILABLE BY MOTION

A person may seek relief, other than a decision of the case on the merits, by motion as provided in Title 17.

RULE 17.2

WHO DECIDES A MOTION

(a) Generally. The judges determine (1) a motion in a brief, (2) a motion to modify a ruling by a commissioner or the clerk, (3) a motion for reconsideration of a decision, (4) a motion to recall the mandate, and (5) a motion to extend time under rule 18.8(b). All other motions may be determined initially by a commissioner or the clerk of the appellate court.

(b) Reference to the Judges. A commissioner or clerk may refer a motion to the judges for determination. If the motion is referred to the judges, the commissioner or clerk will give notice of the reference to all persons entitled to notice of the motion.

(c) Transfer by Supreme Court to Court of Appeals. A commissioner or clerk of the Supreme Court may transfer a motion for discretionary review of a trial court decision to the Court of Appeals for determination.

RULE 17.3

CONTENT OF MOTION

(a) Generally. A motion must include (1) a statement of the name and designation of the person filing the motion, (2) a statement of the relief sought, (3) reference to or copies of parts of the record relevant to the motion, and (4) a statement of the grounds for the relief sought, with supporting argument.

(b) Motion for Discretionary Review. A motion for discretionary review should contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:

(1) Cover. A title page, which is the cover.

(2) Identity of Petitioner. A statement of the name and designation of the person filing the motion.

(3) Decision Below. A statement of the decision which petitioner wants reviewed, the court entering or filing the decision, the date entered or filed, and the date and a description of any order granting or denying motions made after the decision.

(4) Issues Presented for Review. A concise statement of the issues presented for review.

(5) Statement of the Case. A statement of the facts and procedure below relevant to the issues presented for review, with appropriate reference to the record.

(6) Argument. A direct and concise statement of the reasons why review should be granted, with supporting argument.

(7) Conclusion. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(8) Appendix. An appendix containing a conformed copy of the decision which the party wants reviewed and a conformed copy of any order granting or denying motions made with respect to that decision. In addition, the appendix may include copies of statutes and constitutional provisions relevant to the issues presented for review, a conformed copy of parts of the record relevant to the motion, and other material which would assist the court in determining whether the motion should be granted.

(c) Statement of Grounds for Direct Review. If the motion is for discretionary review of a trial court decision and the party making the motion seeks direct review by the Supreme Court, the party seeking review must also file a separate statement urging grounds for Supreme Court review as provided in rule 4.2(b).

RULE 17.4

FILING AND SERVICE OF MOTION— RESPONSE TO MOTION

(a) Filing and Service Generally. Except in the special circumstances defined in section (c), a motion must be served on all parties, amicus, and other persons entitled to notice, and filed in the appellate court. Except in the special circumstances defined in sections (b), (c), and (d), a motion which is to be decided by a commissioner or the clerk must be accompanied by a notice of the time and date set for oral argument of the motion. The movant should contact the clerk of the appellate court to determine the date and time available for argument of the motion. The motion and notice must be served on all parties, amicus, and other persons entitled to notice and filed in the appellate court at least 10 days before the date noted for the hearing on the motion. If service is by mail, the moving party must mail the motion and notice at least 13 days before the date noted for hearing the motion.

(b) Emergency Motion. In an emergency, a person may present a motion to the commissioner or clerk on notice less than that required by section (a) and at any time and place the commissioner or clerk will make available to hear the motion. The movant shall notify all parties, amicus, and other persons entitled to notice of the date, time, and place the motion will be heard. The notice may be written or oral. The person presenting the motion must, at the time the motion is heard, file an affidavit stating the type of notice given and the time and date the notice was given to each person. The commissioner or clerk may decide the motion only if satisfied (1) that adequate relief cannot be given if a decision of the motion is delayed to permit the notice required by section (a), and (2) the movant has taken reasonable steps under the circumstances to give notice to persons who would be affected by the ruling sought.

(c) Summary Determination. The commissioner or clerk may summarily determine without oral argument a motion which, in the judgment of the commissioner or clerk, does not affect a substantial right of a party. The commissioner or clerk may also hear and decide verbal ex parte motions which, in the judgment of the commissioner or clerk, involve minor matters and seek relief which would be routinely granted without sanctions.

(d) Motion in Brief. A party may include in a brief only a motion which, if granted, would preclude hearing the case on the merits.

(e) Response to Motion. A person with a recognized interest in the subject matter of the motion may submit a written response to the motion. A response to a motion must be served and filed at least 2 days preceding the day of hearing. If service is by mail, the responding party must mail the response at least 5 days before the day noted for hearing the motion. The response to a motion within a brief may be made within the brief of the responding party.

(f) Supporting Papers. A person should serve and file with the motion all affidavits and other papers submitted in support of the motion. A person must, in any event, serve and file affidavits and other papers submitted in support of the motion not less than 5 days before the date designated for hearing the motion. If the affidavits and other papers are mailed, the person must, in any event, mail them at least 8 days before the day noted for hearing the motion. Affidavits and other papers submitted in support of a response must be served and filed with the response.

(g) Form of Papers and Number of Copies. All papers relating to motions or responses should be filed in duplicate in the form provided for briefs in rule 10.4(a). The appellate court commissioner or clerk will reproduce additional copies that may be necessary for the appellate court and charge the appropriate party as provided in rule 10.5(a).

RULE 17.5

ORAL ARGUMENT OF MOTION

(a) Oral Argument to Commissioner or Clerk. Unless the motion is determined without oral argument, as provided in rule 17.4(c) for a motion determined summarily, the movant, and any person entitled to notice of the motion who has filed a response to the motion, may present oral argument on a motion to be decided by a commissioner or the clerk.

(b) Oral Argument to Judges. A motion to be decided by the judges will be decided without oral argument, unless the appellate court directs otherwise.

(c) Date and Time of Argument. Oral argument on a motion to be determined by the clerk or a commissioner will be held on the date and time noted for hearing the motion, unless otherwise directed by the appellate court.

(d) Time Allowed, Order, and Conduct of Oral Argument. If oral argument is held, each side is allowed 10 minutes for argument of a motion. The moving party is entitled to open and conclude oral argument. Rule 11.5 applies to the conduct of argument of motions.

(e) Telephone Argument. The appellate court may direct the parties to conduct oral argument of a motion to the commissioner or clerk or to the court by means of a conference telephone call. The expense of the call will be shared equally by the parties, unless the appellate court directs otherwise in the ruling or decision on the motion. A party may request telephone conference argument by letter to the appellate court clerk.

RULE 17.6

MOTION DECIDED BY RULING OR ORDER

(a) Motion Decided by Commissioner or Clerk. A commissioner or clerk decides a motion by a written ruling which includes a statement of the reason for the decision. The commissioner or clerk will file the ruling and serve a copy on the movant and all persons entitled to notice of the original motion.

(b) Motion Decided by Judges. Ordinarily the judges decide a motion by an order. The judges may decide a motion by an opinion. The clerk will notify the movant and all persons entitled to notice of the motion of the order made or opinion rendered by the court.

RULE 17.7

OBJECTION TO RULING—REVIEW OF DECISION ON MOTION

An aggrieved person may object to a ruling of a commissioner or clerk, including transfer of the case to the Court of Appeals under rule 17.2(c), only by a motion to modify the ruling directed to the judges of the court served by the commissioner or clerk. The motion to modify the ruling must be served on all persons entitled to notice of the original motion and filed in the appellate court not later than 10 days after the ruling is filed. A motion to the Justices in the Supreme Court will be decided by a panel of five Justices unless the court directs a hearing by the court en banc.

RULE 18.1

ATTORNEY FEES AND EXPENSES

(a) Generally. If applicable law grants to a party the right to recover reasonable attorney fees or expenses on review, the party should request the fees or expenses as provided in this rule.

(b) Argument in Brief. The party should devote a section of the brief to the request for the fee or expenses. The request should not be made in the cost bill.

(c) Affidavit. Seven days prior to oral argument, the party should serve and file an affidavit in the appellate court detailing the expenses incurred and the services performed by counsel.

(d) Oral Argument. A party should include in oral argument a request for the fee or expenses and a reference to the affidavit on file.

(e) Fees and Expenses Determined After Remand. The appellate court may direct that the amount of fees and expenses be determined by the trial court after remand.

RULE 18.2

VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL OF REVIEW

The appellate court on motion may, in its discretion, dismiss review of a case on stipulation of all parties and, in criminal cases, the written consent of the defendant, if the motion is made before oral argument on the merits. The appellate court may, in its discretion, dismiss review of a case on the motion of a party who has filed a notice of appeal, a notice for discretionary review, or a motion for discretionary review by the Supreme Court. Costs will be awarded in a case dismissed on a motion for voluntary withdrawal of review only if the appellate court so directs at the time the motion is granted.

RULE 18.3

WITHDRAWAL BY COUNSEL IN CRIMINAL CASE

Except for indigent appointments and withdrawals as provided in rule 15.2(f), counsel for a defendant in a criminal case may withdraw only with the permission of the appellate court on a showing of good cause. The appellate court will not ordinarily grant permission to counsel to withdraw after the opening brief has been filed. A motion to withdraw must be served on all parties and on the defendant personally. An affidavit of service must be filed with the motion to withdraw.

RULE 18.4

DISPOSITION OF EXHIBITS

(a) If Further Proceedings Ordered. If a case is returned to the trial court for further proceedings, exhibits in the custody of the appellate court will be returned to the trial court.

(b) Exhibits Requested by Interested Person. If a case is not returned to the trial court for further proceedings, the clerk of the appellate court will dispose of exhibits in a civil case as stipulated by the parties, at the expense of the parties designated in the stipulation. In all other circumstances where an interested person requests an exhibit in a civil or criminal case, the exhibit will be returned to the trial court for disposition.

(c) Exhibits Not Requested by Interested Person. Exhibits which are not requested by an interested person will be disposed of in the following manner:

(1) Cumbersome Exhibits. If an exhibit cannot reasonably be retained in the appellate court case pouch, the clerk will notify the parties that the exhibit will be disposed of in accordance with section (d) unless requested by an interested person in accordance with section (b) within 6 months of the date of the clerk's notice.

(2) Other Exhibits. Exhibits will be retained in the appellate court case pouch for 30 years after a case is final if it is reasonably practical to do so. After that time if the exhibit appears to the clerk to have material or sentimental value, the clerk will make a reasonable attempt to notify the parties that the exhibit will be disposed of in accordance with section (d) unless the exhibit is requested by an interested person in accordance with section (b) within 3 months of the date of the clerk's notice.

(d) Disposition of Exhibits by Clerk. Exhibits not requested by an interested person within the time provided in section (c) will be destroyed by the clerk unless: (1) the exhibit is of historical value, in which case it will be transferred to the custody of the Washington State Museum; or (2) the exhibit is of material value, in which case it will be transferred to the Surplus Property Section of the Washington State Department of General Administration for sale; or (3) the transfer or destruction of the exhibit is regulated, in which case the exhibit will be disposed of in accordance with applicable law.

RULE 18.5

SERVICE AND FILING OF PAPERS

(a) Service. Except when a rule requires the appellate court commissioner or clerk or the trial court clerk to serve a particular paper, and except as provided in rule 9.5, a person filing a paper must, at or before the time of filing, serve a copy of the paper on all parties, amicus, and other persons who may be entitled to notice. If a person does not have an attorney of record, service should be made upon the person. Service must be made as provided in CR 5(b), (f), (g), and (h).

(b) Proof of Service. Proof of service should be made by an acknowledgment of service, or by an affidavit, or, if service is by mail, as provided in CR 5(b). Proof of service may appear on or be attached to the papers filed.

(c) Filing. Papers required or permitted to be filed in the appellate court must be filed with the clerk, except that an appellate court judge may permit papers to be filed with the judge, in which event the judge will note the filing date on the papers and promptly transmit them to the appellate court clerk.

RULE 18.6

COMPUTATION OF TIME

(a) Generally. In computing any period of time prescribed by these rules, the day of the event from which the time begins to run is not included. The last day of the period so computed is included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or day when the appellate court is not open, in which case the period extends to the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or day when the court is not open.

(b) Service by Mail. Except as otherwise provided in rule 17.4, if the time period in question applies to a party serving a paper by mail, the paper is timely served if mailed within the time permitted for service. If the time period in question applies to the party upon whom service is made, the time begins to run 3 days after the paper is mailed to the party.

(c) Filing by Mail. A brief authorized by Title 10 is timely filed if mailed to the appellate court within the time permitted for filing. Except as provided in rule 17.4, any other paper is timely filed only if it is received by the appellate court within the time permitted for filing.

RULE 18.7

SIGNING AND DATING PAPERS

Each paper filed pursuant to these rules should be dated and signed by an attorney or party as provided in CR 11, except papers prepared by a judge, commissioner or clerk of court, bonds, papers comprising a record on review, papers which are verified on oath or by certificate, and exhibits.

RULE 18.8

WAIVER OF RULES AND EXTENSION AND REDUCTION OF TIME

(a) Generally. The appellate court may, on its own initiative or on motion of a party, waive or alter the provisions of any of these rules and enlarge or shorten the time within which an act must be done in a particular case in order to serve the ends of justice, subject to the restrictions in sections (b) and (c).

(b) Restriction on Extension of Time. The appellate court will only in extraordinary circumstances and to prevent a gross miscarriage of justice extend the time within which a party must file a notice of appeal, a notice for discretionary review, a motion for discretionary review of a decision of the Court of Appeals, a petition for review, or a motion for reconsideration. The appellate court will ordinarily hold that the desirability of finality of decisions outweighs the privilege of a litigant to obtain an extension of time under this section. The motion to extend time is determined by the appellate court to which the untimely notice, motion or petition is directed.

(c) Restriction on Changing Decision. The appellate court will not enlarge the time provided in rule 12.7 within which the appellate court may change or modify its decision.

(d) Terms. The remedy for violation of these rules is set forth in rule 18.9. The court may condition the exercise of its authority under this rule by imposing terms or awarding compensatory damages, or both, as provided in rule 18.9.

RULE 18.9

VIOLATION OF RULES

(a) Sanctions. The appellate court on its own initiative or on motion of a party may order a party or counsel who uses these rules for the purpose of delay or who fails to comply with these rules to pay terms or compensatory damages to any other party who has been harmed by the delay or the failure to comply. The appellate court may condition a party's right to participate further in the review on compliance with terms of an order or ruling including payment of an award which is ordered paid by the party. If an award is not paid within the time specified by the court, the appellate court will transmit the award to the superior court of the county where the case arose and direct the entry of a judgment in accordance with the award.

(b) Dismissal on Motion of Commissioner or Clerk. The commissioner or clerk, on 30 days' notice to the parties, may (1) dismiss a review proceeding as provided in section (a) and (2) except as provided in rule 18.8(b), will dismiss a review proceeding for failure to timely file a notice of appeal, a notice for discretionary review, a motion for discretionary review of a decision of the Court of Appeals, or a petition for review. A party may object to the ruling of the commissioner or clerk only as provided in rule 17.7.

(c) Dismissal on Motion of Party. The appellate court will, on motion of a party, dismiss review of a case (1) for want of prosecution if the party seeking review has abandoned the review, or (2) if the application for review is frivolous, moot, or solely for the purpose of delay, or (3) except as provided in rule 18.8(b), for failure to timely file a notice of appeal, a notice of discretionary review, a motion for discretionary review of a decision of the Court of Appeals, or a petition for review.

(d) Objection to Ruling. A counsel upon whom sanctions have been imposed or a party may object to the ruling of a commissioner or the clerk only as provided in rule 17.7.

RULE 18.10

FORMS

A person may use any form which substantially complies with these rules. The forms in the Appendix are only illustrative.

RULE 18.11

[RESCINDED]

RULE 18.12

ACCELERATED REVIEW GENERALLY

The appellate court may set any review proceeding for accelerated disposition on the judges' motion calendar. The appellate court clerk will notify the parties of the setting and any orders entered to promote the accelerated disposition under rules 1.2(c) and 18.8(a).

RULE 18.13

ACCELERATED REVIEW OF DISPOSITIONS IN JUVENILE OFFENSE PROCEEDINGS

(a) Generally. A disposition in a juvenile offense proceeding which is beyond the standard range for that offense may be reviewed in the manner provided in the rules for other decisions or by accelerated review as provided in this rule.

(b) Accelerated Review by Motion. A party seeking accelerated review of the disposition shall do so by motion. The motion must include (1) the name of the party filing the motion; (2) the offense; (3) the disposition of the trial court; (4) the standard range for the offense; (5) a statement of the disposition urged by the moving party; (6) copies of the clerk's papers and a written verbatim report of those portions of the disposition proceeding which are material to the motion; (7) an argument for the relief the party seeks; and (8) a statement of any other issues to be decided in the review proceeding.

(c) Motion Procedure Controls. The motion procedure, including a party's response, is governed by Title 17.

(d) Accelerated Review of Other Issues. The decision of issues other than those relating to the juvenile offense disposition may be accelerated only pursuant to rules 18.8 and 18.12.

RULES 18.14 through 18.20

[RESERVED]

RULE 18.21

TITLE AND CITATION OF RULES

These rules are called the Rules of Appellate Procedure and may be cited as RAP.

RULE 18.22

STATUTES AND RULES SUPERSEDED

(a) Generally. Rule 1.1(g) provides that these rules supersede all statutes and rules covering procedure in the appellate courts, unless a particular rule indicates that statutes control. The statutes and rules superseded by these rules continue to apply to any case pending before the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals on July 1, 1976.

(b) List of Statutes and Rules. Some, but not necessarily all, of the statutes and rules which are superseded by these rules are listed below. If a listed statute relates to appellate procedure and to some other subject, it is superseded only as it relates to appellate procedure. If a listed statute relates in part to one of these rules which specifies that statutes control, and in part to other rules, the listed statute is superseded only as it relates to the other rules. The rules listed are superseded and no longer effective.

MOTION FOR DISCRETIONARY REVIEW

[Name of petitioner's attorney] Attorney for [Petitioner]

[Address and telephone number of petitioner's attorney]

A. IDENTITY OF PETITIONER

[Name] asks this court to accept review of the decision or parts of the decision designated in Part B of this motion.

B. DECISION

[Identify the decision or parts of decision which the party wants reviewed by the type of decision, the court entering or filing the decision, the date entered or filed, and the date and a description of any order granting or denying motions made after the decision such as a motion for reconsideration. The substance of the decision may also be described: for example, "The decision restrained defendant from using any of her assets for any purpose other than living expenses. Defendant is thus restrained from using her assets to pay fees and costs to defend against plaintiff's suit for a claimed conversion of funds from a joint bank account."] A copy of the decision [and the trial court memorandum opinion] is in the Appendix at pages A-____ through ____.

C. ISSUES PRESENTED FOR REVIEW

[Define the issues which the court is asked to decide if review is granted. See Part A of Form 6 for suggestions for framing issues presented for review.]

D. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

[Write a statement of the procedure below and the facts. The statement should be brief and contain only material relevant to the motion. If the motion is directed to a Court of Appeals decision, the statement should contain appropriate references to the record on review. See Part B of Form 6. If the motion is directed to a trial court decision, reference should be made to portions of the trial court record. Portions of the trial court record may be placed in the Appendix. Certified copies are not necessary. If portions of the trial court record are placed in the Appendix, the portions should be identified here with reference to the pages in the Appendix where the portions of the record appear.]

E. ARGUMENT WHY REVIEW SHOULD BE ACCEPTED

[The argument should be short and concise and supported by authority. The argument should be directed to the considerations for accepting review set out in rule 2.3(b) for review of a trial court decision and rule 13.5(b) for review of a decision of the Court of Appeals.]

F. CONCLUSION

[State the relief sought if review is granted. For example: "This court should accept review for the reasons indicated in Part E and modify the restraining order to permit defendant to use her assets to pay fees and costs incurred in defending plaintiff's suit for conversion."]

Regulations and Rules

[Here list regulations and court rules grouped in appropriate categories and listed in numerical order in each category with page numbers where each is referred to in the brief.]

Other Authorities

[Here list other authorities with page numbers where each is referred to in the brief.]

Note: For form of citations generally, see sections 71 through 76 of F. Wiener, Briefing and Arguing Federal Appeals (1967).

A. ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR

Assignments of Error

[Here separately state and number each assignment of error as required by rule 10.3(a) and (g). For example:

"1. The trial court erred in entering the order of May 12, 1975, denying defendant's motion to vacate the judgment entered on May 1, 1975."

OR

"2. The trial court erred in denying the defendant's motion to suppress evidence by order entered on March 10, 1975."

Issues Pertaining to Assignments of Error

[Concisely define the legal issues in question form which the appellate court is asked to decide and number each issue. List after each issue the Assignments of Error which pertain to the issue. Proper phrasing of the issues is important. Each issue should be phrased in the terms and circumstances of the case, but without unnecessary detail. The court should be able to determine what the case is about and what specific issues the court will be called upon to decide by merely reading the issues presented for review. For an excellent discussion of how to properly phrase issues, see sections 31 through 33 of F. Wiener, Briefing and Arguing Federal Appeals (1967).]

[Examples of issues presented for review are: "Does an attorney, without express authority from his client, have implied authority to stipulate to the entry of judgment against his client as a part of a settlement which limits the satisfaction of the judgment to specific property of the client? (Assignment of Error 1.)"

OR

"Defendant was arrested for a traffic offense and held in jail for 2 days because of outstanding traffic warrants. The police impounded defendant's car and conducted a warrantless 'inventory' search of defendant's car and seized stolen property in the trunk. The impound was not authorized by any ordinance. Did the search and seizure violate defendant's rights under the fourth and fourteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States and under article 1, section 7 of the Constitution of the State of Washington? (Assignment of Error 2.)"

B. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

[Write a statement of the procedure below and the facts relevant to the issues presented for review. The statement should not be argumentative. Every factual statement should be supported by a reference to the record. See rule 10.4(f) for proper abbreviations for the record. For a good discussion of this aspect of brief writing, see Wiener, supra, sections 23 through 28 and 42 through 45.]

C. SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

[This is optional. For suggestions for preparing a summary of argument, see Wiener, supra, section 65.]

D. ARGUMENT

[The argument should ordinarily be separately stated under appropriate headings for each issue presented for review. Long arguments should be divided into subheadings. The argument should include citations to legal authority and references to relevant parts of the record. See Wiener, supra, sections 34 through 36, 38, and 46 through 64.]

FORM 21. Civil Appeal Statement

[Rule 5.5(c)]

COURT OF APPEALS, DIVISION ____ OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

[Title of trial court proceeding with parties designated as in rule 3.4]

CIVIL APPEAL STATEMENT

1. NATURE OF THE CASE AND DECISION

[State the substance of the case below and the basis for the trial court decision. For example: "Defendant was driving his automobile when struck from the rear by a truck driven by Jones. An automobile coming from the opposite direction driven by an uninsured motorist crossed the center line into the lane occupied by defendant and collided with the defendant's car. Defendant settled his claim against Jones and executed a release without the consent of plaintiff insurance company. The policy issued by plaintiff contained a provision which excluded coverage under the uninsured motorist provisions for bodily injury to an insured who has made any settlement with any person without the written consent of the company. The trial court held that this exclusion violated public policy by restricting the uninsured motorist coverage required by RCW 48.22.030 and declared the exclusion void."]

2. ISSUES PRESENTED FOR REVIEW

[State the issues the party intends to present for review by the Court of Appeals. For example: "Whether a provision which excludes coverage when the insured does not secure the insurer's consent before settling with any person responsible for an injury violates public policy by restricting the uninsured motorist coverage required by RCW 48.22.030?" List under each issue the legal authority relevant to that issue.]

3. RELIEF SOUGHT IN COURT OF APPEALS

[State the relief the party seeks in the Court of Appeals. For example: "Reversal of trial court decision with directions to enter judgment declaring that defendant is not covered by the uninsured motorist provisions of the liability policy issued by plaintiff."]

4. TRIAL COURT

8. NOTICE OF APPEAL

The notice of appeal was filed on [date]. A copy of the notice of appeal is attached to this statement.

9. COUNSEL

Counsel for appellant [name of appellant] is [name, address, and telephone number of attorney]. Counsel for respondent [name of respondent] is [name, address, and telephone number of attorney].

10. METHOD OF DISPOSITION IN TRIAL COURT

[State the method used to decide the case in the trial court. For example: "summary judgment, order of dismissal, judgment after trial to the court, judgment after jury trial."]

11. RELIEF GRANTED BY TRIAL COURT

[State the relief granted by the trial court. For example: "The trial court entered a judgment declaring that defendant has coverage under the uninsured motorist provisions of the automobile liability policy issued by plaintiff."]

12. RELIEF DENIED BY TRIAL COURT

[State the relief sought by the party making the statement which was denied by the trial court. For example: "Plaintiff sought a judgment declaring that the uninsured motorist provision of the automobile liability policy no longer provided coverage to defendant."]

13. CERTIFICATE OF COUNSEL

I, attorney for appellant [name of appellant], certify that this appeal is taken in good faith and not for purposes of delay. I further certify that my client [is or is not] prepared to immediately take all steps to complete the appeal. SUPERIOR COURT CIVIL RULES (CR)

1. INTRODUCTORY (RULES 1–2A)

RULE 1

SCOPE OF RULES

These rules govern the procedure in the superior court in all suits of a civil nature whether cognizable as cases at law or in equity with the exceptions stated in rule 81. They shall be construed to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action.

RULE 2

ONE FORM OF ACTION

There shall be one form of action to be known as "civil action."

RULE 2A

STIPULATIONS

No agreement or consent between parties or attorneys in respect to the proceedings in a cause, the purport of which is disputed, will be regarded by the court unless the same shall have been made and assented to in open court before a court reporter, or entered in the minutes, or unless the evidence thereof shall be in writing and subscribed by the attorneys denying the same.

2. COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION; SERVICE OF PROCESS, PLEADINGS, MOTIONS, AND ORDERS (RULES 3–6)

RULE 3

COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION

(a) Methods. Except as provided in rule 4.1, a civil action is commenced by service of a copy of a summons together with a copy of a complaint, as provided in rule 4 or by filing a complaint. Upon written demand by any other party, the plaintiff instituting the action shall pay the filing fee and file the summons and complaint within 14 days after service of the demand or the service shall be void. An action shall not be deemed commenced for the purpose of tolling any statute of limitations except as provided in RCW 4.16.170.

(b) Tolling Statute. [Reserved. See RCW 4.16.170.]

(c) Obtaining Jurisdiction. [Reserved. See RCW 4.28.020.]

(d) Lis Pendens. [Reserved. See RCW 4.28.320 and 4.28.160.]

SUPERIOR COURT ADMINISTRATIVE RULES (AR)

RULE 1

REPORTING OF CRIMINAL CASES

(a) Report of Disposition. Within 5 court days after disposition by the superior court of a criminal charge, whether the disposition be a plea of guilty or by deferral or suspension of imposition of sentence, or a finding of guilty, or not guilty after trial, or by dismissal of the charge, the court clerk shall report such disposition to the Washington State Patrol Section on Identification on a disposition form approved by the Administrator for the Courts. When a sentence has been deferred or suspended, the report to the Section shall indicate the length of time over which such suspension or deferral is to be effective. At the conclusion of the time period for deferral or suspension of sentence, the court clerk shall forward an amended disposition form to the Section showing the actual disposition of the case.

(b) Report of Appeal. If an appeal is taken from the disposition made by the superior court, the court clerk shall, within 5 court days of the taking of the appeal, notify the Section on an amended disposition form. In the event that the result of any proceeding changes or otherwise makes inaccurate the information forwarded on the original disposition report, the court clerk shall prepare and forward to the Section a supplemental disposition report on a form approved by the Administrator for the Courts indicating thereon the information necessary to correct the current status of the disposition of charges against the subject maintained in the records of the Section.

RULE 4
PROCESS

(-) [Deleted.]

(a) Summons—Issuance.

(1) The summons must be signed and dated by the plaintiff or his attorney, and directed to the defendant requiring him to defend the action and to serve a copy of his appearance or defense on the person whose name is signed on the summons.

(2) Unless a statute or rule provides for a different time requirement, the summons shall require the defendant to serve a copy of his defense within 20 days after the service of summons, exclusive of the day of service. If a statute or rule other than this rule provides for a different time to serve a defense, that time shall be stated in the summons.

(3) A notice of appearance, if made, shall be in writing, shall be signed by the defendant or his attorney, and shall be served upon the person whose name is signed on the summons. In condemnation cases a notice of appearance only shall be served on the person whose name is signed on the petition.

(4) No summons is necessary for a counterclaim or cross claim for any person who previously has been made a party. Counterclaims and cross claims against an existing party may be served as provided in rule 5.

(b) Summons.

(1) Contents. The summons for personal service shall contain:

(i) the title of the cause, specifying the name of the court in which the action is brought, the name of the county designated by the plaintiff as the place of trial, and the names of the parties to the action, plaintiff and defendant;

(ii) a direction to the defendant summoning him to serve a copy of his defense within a time stated in the summons;

(iii) a notice that, in case of failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against him by default. It shall be signed and dated by the plaintiff, or his attorney, with the addition of his post office address, at which the papers in the action may be served on him by mail.

(2) Form. Except in condemnation cases the summons for personal service in the state shall be substantially in the following form:

SUPERIOR COURT OF WASHINGTON
FOR [] COUNTY

Plaintiff,	}	No. _____
v.
Defendant.
		SUMMONS [20 days]

TO THE DEFENDANT: A lawsuit has been started against you in the above entitled court by _____, plaintiff. Plaintiff's claim is stated in the written complaint, a copy of which is served upon you with this summons.

In order to defend against this lawsuit, you must respond to the complaint by stating your defense in writing, and by serving a copy upon the person signing this summons within 20 days after the service of this summons, excluding the day of service, or a default judgment may be entered against you without notice. A default judgment is one where plaintiff is entitled to what he asks for because you have not responded. If you serve a notice of appearance on the undersigned person, you are entitled to notice before a default judgment may be entered.

You may demand that the plaintiff file this lawsuit with the court. If you do so, the demand must be in writing and must be served upon the person signing this summons. Within 14 days after you serve the demand, the plaintiff must file this lawsuit with the court, or the service on you of this summons and complaint will be void.

If you wish to seek the advice of an attorney in this matter, you should do so promptly so that your written response, if any, may be served on time.

This summons is issued pursuant to rule 4 of the Superior Court Civil Rules of the State of Washington.

(c) By Whom Served. Service of summons and process, except when service is by publication, shall be by the sheriff of the county wherein the service is made, or by his deputy, or by any person over 18 years of age who is competent to be a witness in the action, other than a party. Subpoenas may be served as provided in rule 45.

(d) Service.

(1) Of Summons and Complaint. The summons and complaint shall be served together.

(2) Personal in State. Personal service of summons and other process shall be as provided in RCW 4.28-.080-.090, 23A.08.110, 23A.32.10, 46.64.040, and 48-.05.200 and .210, and other statutes which provide for personal service.

(3) By Publication. Service of summons and other process by publication shall be as provided in RCW 4.28.100 and .110, 13.34.080, and 26.32.044, and other statutes which provide for service by publication.

(4) Alternative to Service by Publication. In circumstances justifying service by publication, if the serving party files an affidavit stating facts from which the court determines that service by mail is just as likely to give actual notice as service by publication, the court may order that service be made by any person over 18 years of age, who is competent to be a witness, other than a party, by mailing copies of the summons and other process to the party to be served at his last known address or any other address determined by the court to be appropriate. Two copies shall be mailed, postage prepaid, one by ordinary first class mail and the other by a form of mail requiring a signed receipt showing when and to whom it was delivered. The envelopes must bear the return address of the sender. The summons shall contain the date it was deposited in the mail and shall require the defendant to appear and answer the complaint within 90 days from the date of mailing. Service under this subsection has the same jurisdictional effect as service by publication.

(5) Appearance. A voluntary appearance of a defendant does not preclude his right to challenge lack of jurisdiction over his person, insufficiency of process, or insufficiency of service of process pursuant to rule 12(b).

(e) Other Service.

(1) Generally. Whenever a statute or an order of court thereunder provides for service of a summons, or of a notice, or of an order in lieu of summons upon a party not an inhabitant of or not found within the state, service may be made under the circumstances and in the manner prescribed by the statute or order, or if there is no provision prescribing the manner of service, in a manner prescribed by this rule.

(2) Personal Service Out of State—Generally. Although rule 4 does not generally apply to personal service out of state, the prescribed form of summons may, with the modifications required by statute, be used for that purpose. See RCW 4.28.180.

(3) Personal Service Out of State—Acts Submitting Person to Jurisdiction of Courts. [Reserved. See RCW 4.28.185.]

(4) Nonresident Motorists. [Reserved. See RCW 46.64.040.]

(f) Territorial Limits of Effective Service. All process other than a subpoena may be served anywhere within the territorial limits of the state, and when a statute or these rules so provide beyond the territorial limits of the state. A subpoena may be served within the territorial limits provided in rule 45 and RCW 5.56.010.

(g) Return of Service. Proof of service shall be as follows:

(1) If served by the sheriff or his deputy, the return of the sheriff or his deputy endorsed upon or attached to the summons;

(2) If served by any other person, his affidavit of service endorsed upon or attached to the summons; or

(3) If served by publication, the affidavit of the publisher, foreman, principal clerk, or business manager of the newspaper showing the same, together with a printed copy of the summons as published; or

(4) If served as provided in subsection (d)(4), the affidavit of the serving party stating that copies of the summons and other process were sent by mail in accordance with the rule and directions by the court, and stating to whom, and when, the envelopes were mailed.

(5) The written acceptance or admission of the defendant, his agent or attorney;

(6) In case of personal service out of the state, the affidavit of the person making the service, sworn to before a notary public, with a seal attached, or before a clerk of a court of record.

(7) In case of service otherwise than by publication, the return, acceptance, admission, or affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.

(h) Amendment of Process. At any time in its discretion and upon such terms as it deems just, the court may allow any process or proof of service thereof to be amended, unless it clearly appears that material prejudice would result to the substantial rights of the party against whom the process issued.

(i) Alternative Provisions for Service in a Foreign Country.

(1) Manner. When a statute or rule authorizes service upon a party not an inhabitant of or found within the state, and service is to be effected upon the party in a foreign country, it is also sufficient if service of the summons and complaint is made: (i) in the manner prescribed by the law of the foreign country for service in that country in an action in any of its courts of general jurisdiction; or (ii) as directed by the foreign authority in response to a letter rogatory, when service in either case is reasonably calculated to give actual notice; or (iii) upon an individual, by delivery to him personally, and upon a corporation or partnership or association, by delivery to an officer, a managing or general agent; or (iv) by any form of mail, requiring a signed receipt, to be addressed and mailed to the party to be served; or (v) as directed by order of the court. Service under (iii) or (v) above may be made by any person who is not a party and is not less than 21 years of age or who is designated by order of the court or by the foreign court.

(2) Return. Proof of service may be made as prescribed by section (g) of this rule, or by the law of the foreign country, or by order of the court. When service is made pursuant to subsection (1)(iv) of this section, proof of service shall include a receipt signed by the addressee or other evidence of delivery to the addressee satisfactory to the court.

(j) Other Process. These rules do not exclude the use of other forms of process authorized by law.

RULE 4.1

PROCESS—DOMESTIC RELATIONS ACTIONS

(a) Summons—General. Actions authorized by RCW 26.09 shall be commenced by filing a petition. Service of the summons and a copy of the petition shall be made on respondent as provided in rule 4. No summons is necessary if both spouses sign a joint petition or if the respondent files a written joinder in the proceeding.

(b) Summons—Content, Form.

(1) Content. The summons shall contain the title of the action, the name of the county and the court in which the action is brought, the names of the parties, as petitioner and respondent, a direction to the respondent to serve a copy of his or her response on the person who has signed the summons, the time limit within which the copy of the response must be served, notice that failure to serve a copy of the response within the stated time may result in a judgment by default, the signature and address of the petitioner or petitioner's attorney, and the date.

(2) Form. The summons for personal service in the state in an action for dissolution of marriage shall be substantially in the form below. The summons for personal service in the state in any other action authorized by RCW 26.09 should be adapted from this form. The summons for personal service out of state should be adapted from this form and must include the modifications required by statute. See RCW 4.28.180.

SUPERIOR COURT OF WASHINGTON
FOR _____ COUNTY

In the Matter of the Marriage of _____ Petitioner, and _____ Respondent.	No. _____	SUMMONS FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE
--	-----------	--

TO THE RESPONDENT: The petitioner has filed with the clerk of the above court a petition requesting that your marriage be dissolved. Additional requests, if any, are stated in the petition, a copy of which is attached to this summons.

You may respond to this summons and petition by filing a written response with the clerk of the court and serving a copy of your response on the person signing this summons. If you do not serve your written response within 20 days after the date this summons was served on you, exclusive of the day of service, the court may enter an order of default against you, and at the end of 90 days after service, the court may, without further notice to you, enter a decree dissolving your marriage and approving or providing for other relief requested in the petition.

One method of filing your response and serving a copy on the petitioner is to send them by certified mail with return receipt requested.

RULE 5

SERVICE AND FILING OF PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS

(a) Service—When Required. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every paper relating to discovery required to be served upon a party unless the court otherwise orders, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons in rule 4.

In an action begun by seizure of property, in which no person need be or is named as defendant, any service required to be made prior to the filing of an answer, claim, or appearance shall be made upon the person having custody or possession of the property at the time of its seizure.

(b) Service—How Made.

(1) On Attorney or Party. Whenever under these rules service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address or, if no address is known, filing with the clerk of the court an affidavit of attempt to serve. Delivery of a copy within this rule means: handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. Service on an attorney is subject to the restrictions in subsections (b)(4) and (5) of this rule and in rule 71, Withdrawal by Attorneys.

(2) Service by Mail.

(i) How made. If service is made by mail, the papers shall be deposited in the post office addressed to the person on whom they are being served, with the postage prepaid. The service shall be deemed complete upon the third day following the day upon which they are placed in the mail, unless the third day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, in which event service shall be deemed complete on the first day other than a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, following the third day.

(ii) Proof of service by mail. Proof of service of all papers permitted to be mailed may be by written acknowledgment of service, by affidavit of the person who mailed the papers, or by certificate of an attorney. The certificate of an attorney may be in form substantially as follows:

CERTIFICATE

I certify that I mailed a copy of the foregoing _____ to [John Smith], [plaintiff's] attorney, at [office address or residence], and to [Joseph Doe], an additional [defendant's] attorney [or attorneys] at [office address or residence], postage prepaid, on [date].

 [John Brown]
 Attorney for [Defendant] William Noe

(3) Service on Nonresidents. Where a plaintiff or defendant who has appeared resides outside the state and has no attorney in the action, the service may be made by mail if his residence is known; if not known, on the clerk of the court for him. Where a party, whether resident or nonresident, has an attorney in the action, the service of papers shall be upon the attorney instead of the party. If the attorney does not have an office within the state or has removed his residence from the state, the service may be upon him personally either within or without the state, or by mail to him at either his place of residence or his office, if either is known, and if not known, then by mail upon the party, if his residence is known, whether within or without the state. If the residence of neither the party nor his attorney, nor the office address of the attorney is known, an affidavit of the attempt to serve shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

(4) Service on Attorney Restricted After Final Judgment. A party, rather than the party's attorney, must be served if the final judgment or decree has been entered and the time for filing an appeal has expired, or if an appeal has been taken (i) after the final judgment or decree upon remand has been entered or (ii) after the mandate has been issued affirming the judgment or decree or disposing of the case in a manner calling for no further action by the trial court. This rule is subject to the exceptions defined in subsection (b)(6).

(5) Required Notice to Party. If a party is served under circumstances described in subsection (b)(4), the paper shall (i) include a notice to the party of the right to file written opposition or a response, the time within which such opposition or response must be filed, and the place where it must be filed; (ii) state that failure to respond may result in the requested relief being granted; and (iii) state that the paper has not been served on that party's lawyer.

(6) Exceptions. An attorney may be served notwithstanding subsection (b)(4) of this rule if (i) fewer than 63 days have elapsed since the filing of any paper or the issuance of any process in the action or proceeding or (ii) if the attorney has filed a notice of continuing representation.

(c) Service—Numerous Defendants. In any action in which there are unusually large numbers of defendants, the court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as between the defendants and that any cross claim, counterclaim, or matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied or avoided by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the court directs.

(d) Filing.

(1) Time. Complaints shall be filed as provided in rule 3(a). All pleadings and other papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party shall be filed with the court either before service or promptly thereafter.

(2) Sanctions. The effect of failing to file a complaint is governed by rule 3. If a party fails to file any other pleading or paper under this rule, the court upon 5 days' notice of motion for sanctions may dismiss the action or strike the pleading or other paper and grant judgment against the defaulting party for costs and terms including a reasonable attorney fee unless good cause is shown for, or justice requires, the granting of an extension of time.

(3) Limitation. No sanction shall be imposed if prior to the hearing the pleading or paper other than the complaint is filed and the moving attorney is notified of the filing before he leaves his office for the hearing.

(4) Nonpayment. No further action shall be taken in the pending action and no subsequent pleading or other paper shall be filed until the judgment is paid. No subsequent action shall be commenced upon the same subject matter until the judgment has been paid.

(e) Filing With the Court Defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the clerk of the court, except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the filing date and forthwith transmit them to the office of the clerk.

(f) Other Methods of Service. Service of all papers other than the summons and other process may also be made as authorized by statutes other than RCW 4.28-.230, 4.28.240, 4.28.250, 4.28.260, 4.28.270, and 4.28-.280, which are superseded by these rules.

(g) Certified Mail. Whenever the use of "registered" mail is authorized by statutes relating to judicial proceedings or by rule of court, "certified" mail, with return receipt requested, may be used.

(h) Service of Papers by Telegraph. Any writ or order in any civil suit or proceeding and all the papers requiring service may be transmitted by telegraph for service in any place, and the telegraphic copy of such writ or order or paper so transmitted may be served or executed by the officer or person to whom it is sent for that purpose and returned by him, if any return be requisite, in the same manner, and with the same force and effect in all respects as the original thereof might be, if delivered to him, and the officer or person serving or executing the same shall have the same authority and be subject to the same liabilities as if the said copy were the original. The original, when a writ or order, shall also be filed in the court from which it was issued, and a certified copy thereof shall be preserved in the telegraph office from which it was sent. In sending it, either the original or certified copy may be used by the operator for that purpose.

RULE 6

TIME

(a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by the local rules of any superior court, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, a Sunday nor a legal holiday. Legal holidays are prescribed in RCW 1.16.050. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 7 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation.

(b) Enlargement. When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion, (1) with or without motion or notice, order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or, (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period, permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under rules 50(b), 52(b), 59(b), 59(d), and 60(b).

(c) Proceeding Not To Fail for Want of Judge or Session of Court. No proceeding in a court of justice in any action, suit, or proceeding pending therein, is affected by a vacancy in the office of any or all of the judges or by the failure of a session of the court.

(d) For Motions—Affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than 5 days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in rule 59(c), opposing affidavits may be served not later than 1 day before the hearing, unless the court permits them to be served at some other time.

(e) Additional Time After Service by Mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period.

3. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS (RULES 7–16)

RULE 7

PLEADINGS ALLOWED; FORM OF MOTIONS

(a) Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and an answer; a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; an answer to a cross claim, if the answer contains a cross claim; a third party complaint, if a person who was not an original party is summoned under the provisions of rule 14; and a third party answer, if a third party complaint is served. No other pleading shall be allowed, except that the court may order a reply to an answer or a third party answer.

(b) Motions and Other Papers.

(1) How Made. An application to the court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, and shall set forth the relief or order sought. The requirement of writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.

(2) Form. The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by these rules.

(3) Identification of Evidence. When a motion is supported by affidavits or other papers, it shall specify the papers to be used by the moving party.

(c) Demurrers, Pleas, etc., Abolished. Demurrers, pleas and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used.

(d) Security for Costs. [Reserved. See RCW 4.84.210 et seq.]

RULE 8

GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING

(a) Claims for Relief. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim, shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief and (2) a demand for judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

(b) Defenses; Form of Denials. A party shall state in short and plain terms his defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, he shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, he may make his denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs, or he may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as he expressly admits; but, when he does so intend to controvert all its averments, he may do so by general denial subject to the obligations set forth in rule 11.

(c) Affirmative Defenses. In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

(d) Effect of Failure To Deny. Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

(e) Pleading To Be Concise and Direct; Consistency.

(1) Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleadings or motions are required.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternately or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or on equitable grounds or on both. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in rule 11.

(f) Construction of Pleadings. All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice.

The adoption of this rule shall not be considered an adoption or approval of the forms of pleading in the Appendix of Forms approved in rule 84, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

RULE 9

PLEADING SPECIAL MATTERS

(a) Capacity. It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, he shall do so by specific negative averment which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge.

(b) Fraud, Mistake, Condition of the Mind. In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

(c) Condition Precedent. In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent, it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity.

(d) Official Document or Act. In pleading an official document or official act, it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law.

(e) Judgment. In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

(f) Time and Place. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

(g) Special Damage. When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated.

(h) Pleading Existence of City or Town. In pleading the existence of any city or town in this state, it shall be sufficient to state in such pleading that the same is an existing city or town, incorporated or organized under the laws of Washington.

(i) Pleading Ordinance. In pleading any ordinance of a city or town in this state it shall be sufficient to state the title of such ordinance and the date of its passage, whereupon the court shall take judicial notice of the existence of such ordinance and the tenor and effect thereof.

(j) Pleading Private Statutes. In pleading a private statute, or a right derived therefrom, it shall be sufficient to refer to such statute by its title, and the day of its passage, and the court shall thereupon take judicial notice thereof.

(k) Foreign Law.

(1) United States Jurisdictions. A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a state, territory, or other jurisdiction of the United States shall set forth in his pleading facts which show that the law of another United States jurisdiction may be applicable, or shall state in his pleading or serve other reasonable written notice that the law of another United States jurisdiction may be relied upon.

(2) Other Jurisdictions. A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a jurisdiction other than a state, territory or other jurisdiction of the United States shall give notice in his pleading of the foreign jurisdiction whose law he contends may be applicable to the facts of the case. The following matters need not be pleaded, but may be discovered pursuant to rule 26:

(i) the party's contentions as to which issues of law are governed by the foreign law;

(ii) the substance of such foreign law;

(iii) the expected effect of such foreign law on the legal issues and on the outcome of the case being tried;

(iv) the specific foreign statutes, regulations, judicial and administrative decisions, documents and other non-privileged written materials and translations thereof upon which the party intends to rely.

(3) Application of Foreign Law. Issues of foreign law may be simplified pursuant to rule 16 and determined in advance of trial pursuant to rule 56.

(4) Failure To Plead Foreign Law. If no party has requested in his pleadings application of the law of a jurisdiction other than a state, territory or other jurisdiction of the United States, the court at time of trial shall apply the law of the State of Washington unless such application would result in manifest injustice.

(l) Burden of Proof. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to shift or alter the burden of proof.

RULE 10

FORM OF PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS

(a) Caption. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the action, the file number if known to the person signing it, and an identification as to the nature of the pleading or other paper.

(1) Names of Parties. In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties.

(2) Unknown Names. When the plaintiff is ignorant of the name of the defendant, it shall be so stated in his pleading, and such defendant may be designated in any pleading or proceeding by any name, and when his true name shall be discovered, the pleading or proceeding may be amended accordingly.

(3) Unknown Heirs. When the heirs of any deceased person are proper parties defendant to any action relating to real property in this state, and when the names and residences of such heirs are unknown, such heirs may be proceeded against under the name and title of the "unknown heirs" of the deceased. In any action brought to determine any adverse claim, estate, lien, or interest in real property, or to quiet title to real property, unknown parties shall be designated as "also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien, or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein."

(b) Paragraphs; Separate Statements. All averments of claim or defense shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence, and each defense other than denials, shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.

(c) Adoption by Reference; Exhibits. Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part thereof for all purposes.

(d) Paper Size. All pleadings, motions, and other papers shall be plainly written or printed, and the use of letter-size paper (8½ by 11 inches) is optional.

(e) Format Recommendations. It is recommended that all pleadings and other papers include or provide for the following:

(1) Service and Filing. Space should be left at the top of the first page to provide on the right half space for the clerk's filing stamp, and space at the left half for acknowledging the receipt of copies.

(2) Title. All pleadings under the space under the docket number should contain a title indicating their purpose and party presenting them. For example:

USE	DO NOT USE
Petition for Dissolution	Petition
Defendant's Motion for Support, etc.	Motion
Order for Support	Order
Plaintiff's Trial Brief	Trial Brief

(3) Bottom Notation. At the left side of the bottom of each page of all pleadings and other papers an abbreviated name of the pleading or other paper should be repeated, followed by the page number. At the right side of the bottom of the first page of each pleading or other paper the name, mailing address and telephone number of the attorney or firm preparing the paper should be printed or typed.

(4) Typed Names. The names of all persons signing a pleading or other paper should be typed under their signatures.

(5) Headings and Subheadings. Headings and subheadings should be used for all paragraphs which shall be numbered with roman and/or arabic numerals.

(6) Numbered Paper. Use numbered paper.

RULE 11

SIGNING OF PLEADINGS

Every pleading of a party represented by an attorney shall be dated and signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign and date his pleading and state his address. Petitions for dissolution of marriage, separation, declarations concerning the validity of a marriage, custody, and modification of decrees issued as a result of any of the foregoing petitions shall be verified. Other pleadings need not, but may be, verified or accompanied by affidavit. The signature of a party or of an attorney constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleading; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. For a willful violation of this rule an attorney may be subjected to appropriate action as for contempt. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted.

RULE 12

DEFENSES AND OBJECTIONS

(a) When Presented. A defendant shall serve his answer within the following periods:

(1) Within 20 days, exclusive of the day of service, after the service of the summons and complaint upon him pursuant to rule 4;

(2) Within 60 days from the date of the first publication of the summons if the summons is served by publication in accordance with rule 4(d)(3);

(3) Within 60 days after the service of the summons upon him if the summons is served upon him personally out of the state in accordance with RCW 4.28.180 and 4.28.185 or on the Secretary of State as provided by RCW 46.64.040.

(4) Within the period fixed by any other applicable statutes or rules.

A party served with a pleading stating a cross claim against him shall serve an answer thereto within 20 days after the service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his reply to a counterclaim in the answer within 20 days after service of the answer or, if a reply is ordered by the court, within 20 days after service of the order, unless the order otherwise directs. The service of a motion permitted under this rule alters these periods of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the court.

(i) If the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after notice of the court's action.

(ii) If the court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after the service of the more definite statement.

(b) How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) improper venue, (4) insufficiency of process, (5) insufficiency of service of process, (6) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, (7) failure to join a party under rule 19. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (6) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by rule 56.

(c) Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by rule 56.

(d) Preliminary Hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (1)–(7) in section (b) of this rule, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment mentioned in section (c) of this rule shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

(e) Motion for More Definite Statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, or if more particularity in that pleading will further the efficient economical disposition of the action, he may move for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 10 days after the notice of the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

(f) Motion To Strike. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within 20 days after the service of the pleading upon him or upon the court's own initiative at any time, the court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.

(g) Consolidation of Defenses in Motion. A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it any other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motion, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in subsection (h)(2) hereof on any of the grounds there stated.

(h) Waiver or Preservation of Certain Defenses.

(1) A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, improper venue, insufficiency of process, or insufficiency of service of process is waived (i) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in section (g), or (ii) if it is neither made by motion under this rule nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by rule 15(a) to be made as a matter of course.

(2) A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable under rule 19, and an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under rule 7(a), or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.

(3) Whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action.

RULE 13

COUNTERCLAIM AND CROSS CLAIM

(a) Compulsory Counterclaims. A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the court cannot acquire jurisdiction. But the pleader need not state the claim if (1) at the time the action was commenced the claim was the subject of another pending action, or (2) the opposing party brought suit upon his claim by attachment or other process by which the court did not acquire jurisdiction to render a personal judgment on that claim, and the pleader is not stating any counterclaim under this rule.

(b) Permissive Counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim.

(c) Counterclaim Exceeding Opposing Claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

(d) Counterclaim Against the State. These rules shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits now fixed by law the right to assert counterclaims, or to claim credits against the State or an officer or agency thereof.

(e) Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired After Pleading. A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

(f) Omitted Counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, he may by leave of court set up the counterclaim by amendment.

(g) Cross Claim Against Coparty. A pleading may state as a cross claim any claim by one party against a coparty arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross claimant.

(h) Joinder of Additional Parties. Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross claim in accordance with the provisions of rules 19 and 20.

(i) Separate Trials; Separate Judgment. If the court orders separate trials as provided in rule 42(b), judgment on a counterclaim or cross claim may be rendered in accordance with the terms of rule 54(b), even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

(j) Setoff Against Assignee. The defendant in a civil action upon a contract express or implied, other than upon a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, negotiated in good faith and without notice before due, which has been assigned to the plaintiff, may set off a demand of a like nature existing against the person to whom he was originally liable, or any assignee prior to the plaintiff, of such contract, provided such demand existed at the time of the assignment thereof, and belonging to the defendant in good faith, before notice of such assignment, and was such a demand as might have been set off against such person to whom he was originally liable, or such assignee while the contract belonged to him.

(k) Other Setoff Rules. [Reserved. See RCW 4.32.120 through 4.32.150 and RCW 4.56.050 through 4.56.075.]

RULE 14

THIRD PARTY PRACTICE

(a) When Defendant May Bring in Third Party. At any time after commencement of the action a defending party, as a third party plaintiff, may cause a summons and complaint to be served upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him. The third party plaintiff need not obtain leave to make the service if he files the third party complaint not later than 10 days after he serves his original answer. Otherwise he must obtain leave on motion upon notice to all parties to the action. The person served with the summons and third party complaint, hereinafter called the third party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third party plaintiff's claim as provided in rule 12 and his counterclaims against the third party plaintiff and cross claims against other third party defendants as provided in rule 13. The third party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third party plaintiff, and the third party defendant thereupon shall assert his defenses as provided in rule 12 and his counterclaims and cross claims as provided in rule 13. Any party may move to strike the third party claim, or for its severance or separate trial. A third party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third party defendant.

(b) When Plaintiff May Bring in Third Party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this rule would entitle a defendant to do so.

(c) Tort Cases. This rule shall not be applied in tort cases, to permit the joinder of a liability or indemnity insurance company, unless such company is by statute or contract directly liable to the person injured or damaged.

RULE 15

AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS

(a) Amendments. A party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, he may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served. Otherwise, a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within 10 days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

(b) Amendments To Conform to the Evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

(c) Relation Back of Amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against him, the party to be brought in by amendment (1) has received such notice of the institution of the action that he will not be prejudiced in maintaining his defense on the merits, and (2) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against him.

(d) Supplemental Pleadings. Upon motion of a party the court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. Permission may be granted even though the original pleading is defective in its statement of a claim for relief or defense. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead to the supplemental pleading, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

(e) Interlineations. No amendments shall be made to any pleading by erasing or adding words to the original on file, without first obtaining leave of court.

RULE 16

PRETRIAL PROCEDURE AND FORMULATING ISSUES

(a) Hearing Matters Considered. By order, or on the motion of any party, the court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference to consider:

- (1) The simplification of the issues;
- (2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;

- (3) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
- (4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;
- (5) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

(b) Pretrial Order. The court shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice. The court in its discretion may establish by rule a pretrial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration as above provided and may either confine the calendar to jury actions or to nonjury actions or extend it to all actions.

4. PARTIES (RULES 17-25)

RULE 17

PARTIES PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT; CAPACITY

(-) Designation of Parties. The party commencing the action shall be known as the plaintiff, and the opposite party as the defendant.

(a) Real Party in Interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

(b) Capacity To Sue or Be Sued. [Reserved.]

(c) Infants, or Incompetent Persons.

(1) Scope. Generally this rule does not affect statutes and rules concerning the capacity of infants and incompetents to sue or be sued.

(2) Guardian ad Litem for Infant. [Reserved. See RCW 4.08.050.]

(3) Guardian ad Litem for Incompetents. [Reserved. See RCW 4.08.060.]

(d) Actions on Assigned Choses in Action. [Reserved. See RCW 4.08.080.]

(e) Public Corporations.

(1) Actions by. [Reserved. See RCW 4.08.110.]

(2) Actions Against. [Reserved. See RCW 4.08.120.]

(f) Tort Actions Against State. [Reserved. See RCW 4.92.]

RULE 18

JOINDER OF CLAIMS AND REMEDIES

(a) Joinder of Claims. A party asserting a claim to relief as an original claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate claims, as many claims, legal, equitable, or maritime, as he has against an opposing party.

(b) Joinder of Remedies; Fraudulent Conveyances. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. In particular, a plaintiff may state a claim for money and a claim to have set aside a conveyance fraudulent as to him, without first having obtained a judgment establishing the claim for money.

RULE 19

JOINDER OF PERSONS NEEDED FOR JUST ADJUDICATION

(a) Persons To Be Joined if Feasible. A person who is subject to service of process and whose joinder will not deprive the court of jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action shall be joined as a party in the action if (1) in his absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties, or (2) he claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in his absence may (i) as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest or (ii) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of his claimed interest. If he has not been so joined, the court shall order that he be made a party. If he should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant, or, in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff. If the joined party objects to venue and his joinder would render the venue of the action improper, he shall be dismissed from the action.

(b) Determination by Court Whenever Joinder Not Feasible. If a person joinable under (1) or (2) of section (a) hereof cannot be made a party, the court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the court include: (1) to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to him or those already parties; (2) the extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided; (3) whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; (4) whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for nonjoinder.

(c) Pleading Reasons for Nonjoinder. A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any persons joinable under (1) or (2) of section (a) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

(d) Exception of Class Actions. This rule is subject to the provisions of rule 23.

(e) Husband and Wife Must Join—Exceptions. [Reserved. See RCW 4.08.030.]

RULE 20

PERMISSIVE JOINDER OF PARTIES

(a) Permissive Joinder. All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of these persons will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendant if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

(b) Separate Trials. The court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

(c) When Husband and Wife May Join. [Reserved. See RCW 4.08.040.]

(d) Service on Joint Defendants; Procedure After Service. When the action is against two or more defendants and the summons is served on one or more but not on all of them, the plaintiff may proceed as follows:

(1) If the action is against the defendants jointly indebted upon a contract, he may proceed against the defendants served unless the court otherwise directs; and if he recovers judgment it may be entered against all the defendants thus jointly indebted so far only as it may be enforced against the joint property of all and the separate property of the defendants served.

(2) If the action is against defendants severally liable, he may proceed against the defendants served in the same manner as if they were the only defendants.

(3) Though all the defendants may have been served with the summons, judgment may be taken against any of them severally, when the plaintiff would be entitled to judgment against such defendants if the action had been against them alone.

(e) Procedure To Bind Joint Debtor. [Reserved. See RCW 4.68.]

RULE 21

MISJOINDER AND NONJOINDER OF PARTIES

Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately.

RULE 22

INTERPLEADER

(a) Rule. Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this rule supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted under other rules and statutes.

(b) Statutes. The remedy herein provided is in addition to and in no way supersedes or limits the remedy provided by RCW 4.08.150 to 4.08.180, inclusive.

RULE 23

CLASS ACTIONS

(a) Prerequisites to a Class Action. One or more members of a class may sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of all only if (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class, (3) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class, and (4) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

(b) Class Actions Maintainable. An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of section (a) are satisfied, and in addition:

(1) The prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of

(i) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class, or

(ii) adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interest; or

(2) The party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or

(3) The court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include: (i) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (ii) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class; (iii) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; (iv) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(c) Determination by Order Whether Class Action To Be Maintained; Notice; Judgment; Actions Conducted Partially as Class Actions.

(1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order under this subsection may be conditional, and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.

(2) In any class action maintained under subsection (b)(3), the court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that (i) the court will exclude him from the class if he so requests by a specified date; (ii) the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and (iii) any member who does not request exclusion may, if he desires, enter an appearance through his counsel.

(3) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subsection (b)(1) or (b)(2), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subsection (b)(3), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subsection (c)(2) was directed, and who have not requested exclusion, and whom the court finds to be members of the class.

(4) When appropriate, (i) an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or (ii) a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this rule shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

(d) Orders in Conduct of Actions. In the conduct of actions to which this rule applies, the court may make appropriate orders: (1) determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument; (2) requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action; (3) imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors; (4) requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly; (5) dealing with similar procedural matters. The orders may be combined with an order under rule 16, and may be altered or amended as may be desirable from time to time.

(e) Dismissal or Compromise. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the court directs.

RULE 23.1

DERIVATIVE ACTIONS BY SHAREHOLDERS

In a derivative action brought by one or more shareholders or members to enforce a right of a corporation or of an unincorporated association, the corporation or association having failed to enforce a right which may properly be asserted by it, the complaint shall be verified and shall allege (a) that the plaintiff was a shareholder or member at the time of the transaction of which he complains or that his share or membership thereafter devolved on him by operation of law, and (b) that the action is not a collusive one to confer jurisdiction on a court of this state which it would not otherwise have. The complaint shall also allege with particularity the efforts, if any, made by the plaintiff to obtain the action he desires from the directors or comparable authority and, if necessary, from the shareholders or members, and the reasons for his failure to obtain the action or for not making the effort. The derivative action may not be maintained if it appears that the plaintiff does not fairly and adequately represent the interests of the shareholders or members similarly situated in enforcing the right of the corporation or association. The action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to shareholders or members in such manner as the court directs.

RULE 23.2

ACTIONS RELATING TO UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS

An action brought by or against the members of an unincorporated association as a class by naming certain members as representative parties may be maintained only if it appears that the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the association and its members. In the conduct of the action the court may make appropriate orders corresponding with those described in rule 23(d), and the procedure for dismissal or compromise of the action shall correspond with that provided in rule 23(e).

RULE 24

INTERVENTION

(a) Intervention of Right. Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (2) when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and he is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.

(b) Permissive Intervention. Upon timely application, anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action:

(1) When a statute confers a conditional right to intervene; or

(2) When an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a federal or state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirements, or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion the court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

(c) Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon all the parties as provided in rule 5. The motion shall state the grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought.

RULE 25

SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES

(a) Death.

(1) Procedure. If a party dies and the claim is not thereby extinguished, the court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by the successors or representatives of the deceased party or by any party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided by rule 5 for service of notices, and upon persons not parties in the manner provided by statute or by rule for the service of a summons. If substitution is not made within the time authorized by law, the action may be dismissed as to the deceased party.

(2) Partial Abatement. In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or of one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be suggested upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

(b) Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the court upon motion served as provided in section (a) of this rule may allow the action to be continued by or against his representative.

(c) Transfer of Interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party unless the court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in section (a) of this rule.

(d) Public Offices; Death or Separation From Office. [Reserved.]

5. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY (RULES 26–37)

RULE 26

GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISCOVERY

(a) Discovery Methods. Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property, for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admission. Unless the court orders otherwise under section (c) of this rule, the frequency of use of these methods is not limited.

(b) Scope of Discovery. Unless otherwise limited by order of the court in accordance with these rules, the scope of discovery is as follows:

(1) In General. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(2) Insurance Agreements. A party may obtain discovery of the existence and contents of any insurance agreement under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment. Information concerning the insurance agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial. For purposes of this section, an application for insurance shall not be treated as part of an insurance agreement.

(3) Trial Preparation: Materials. Subject to the provisions of subsection (b)(4) of this rule, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under subsection (b)(1) of this rule and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative (including his attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of his case and that he is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the court shall protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation.

A party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person not a party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person may move for a court order. The provisions of rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this section, a statement previously made is (i) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it, or (ii) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

(4) Trial Preparation: Experts. Discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, otherwise discoverable under the provisions of subsection (b)(1) of this rule and acquired or developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, may be obtained only as follows:

(i)(a) A party may through interrogatories require any other party to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion. (b) Upon motion, the court may order further discovery by other means, subject to such restrictions as to scope and such provisions, pursuant to subsection (b)(4)(iii) of this rule, concerning fees and expenses as the court may deem appropriate.

(ii) A party may discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial, only as provided in rule 35(b) or upon a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.

(iii) Unless manifest injustice would result, (a) the court shall require that the party seeking discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent in responding to discovery under subsections (b)(4)(i)(b) and (b)(4)(ii) of this rule; and (b) with respect to discovery obtained under subsection (b)(4)(i)(b) of this rule the court may require, and with respect to discovery obtained under subsection (b)(4)(ii) of this rule the court shall require the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party in obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.

(c) Protective Orders. Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought, and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending or alternatively, on matters relating to a deposition, the court in the county where the deposition is to be taken may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the following: (1) that the discovery not be had; (2) that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time or place; (3) that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery; (4) that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters; (5) that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the court; (6) that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the court; (7) that a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way; (8) that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may, on such terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(d) Sequence and Timing of Discovery. Unless the court upon motion, for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not operate to delay any other party's discovery.

(e) Supplementation of Responses. A party who has responded to a request for discovery with a response that was complete when made is under no duty to supplement his response to include information thereafter acquired, except as follows:

(1) A party is under a duty seasonably to supplement his response with respect to any question directly addressed to (i) the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters, and (ii) the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial, the subject matter on which he is expected to testify, and the substance of his testimony.

(2) A party is under a duty seasonably to amend a prior response if he obtains information upon the basis of which (i) he knows that the response was incorrect when made, or (ii) he knows that the response though correct when made is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is in substance a knowing concealment.

(3) A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the court, agreement of the parties, or at any time prior to trial through new requests for supplementation of prior responses.

(4) Failure to seasonably supplement in accordance with this rule will subject the party to such terms and conditions as the trial court may deem appropriate.

RULE 27

PERPETUATION OF TESTIMONY

(a) Perpetuation Before Action.

(1) Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate his own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter that may be cognizable in any superior court may file a verified petition in the superior court in the county of the residence of any expected adverse party. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show:

(i) that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action cognizable in a superior court but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought;

(ii) the subject matter of the expected action and his interest therein;

(iii) the facts which he desires to establish by the proposed testimony and his reasons for desiring to perpetuate it;

(iv) the names or a description of the persons he expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known; and

(v) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each, and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the depositions of the persons to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.

(2) Notice and Service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least 20 days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served in the manner provided by law for service of summons; but if such service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint, for persons not served personally in the manner provided by law, an attorney who shall represent them and, in case they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is a minor or incompetent, the court shall make such order as deemed appropriate for the protection of the minor or incompetent as provided in RCW 4.08.050 and 4.08.060.

(3) Order and Examination. If the court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories. The depositions may then be taken in accordance with these rules; and the court may make orders of the character provided for by rules 34 and 35. For the purpose of applying these rules to depositions for perpetuating testimony, each reference therein to the court in which the action is pending shall be deemed to refer to the court in which the petition for such deposition was filed.

(4) Use of Deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under these rules or if, although not so taken, it would be admissible in evidence in the courts of the state in which it is taken, it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in a superior court of this state.

(b) Perpetuation Pending Appeal. If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of a superior court or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the superior court in which the judgment was rendered may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the superior court. In such case the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the superior court for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending in the superior court. The motion shall show (1) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each; (2) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, it may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken and may make orders of the character provided for by rules 34 and 35, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these rules for depositions taken in actions pending in the superior court.

(c) Perpetuation by Action. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an action to perpetuate testimony.

RULE 28

PERSONS BEFORE WHOM DEPOSITIONS MAY BE TAKEN

(-) Within the State. Depositions within the state may be taken before the following officers:

(1) Court Commissioners. [Reserved. See RCW 2.24.040(9) and (10).]

(2) Superior Courts. [Reserved. See RCW 2.28.010(7).]

(3) Judicial Officers. [Reserved. See RCW 2.28.060.]

(4) Judges of Supreme and Superior Courts. [Reserved. See RCW 2.28.080(3).]

(5) Inferior Judicial Officers. [Reserved. See RCW 2.28.090.]

(6) Notaries Public. [Reserved. See RCW 42.28.040(3).]

(7) Special Commissions. [Reserved. See RCW 11.20.030.]

(a) Within the United States. Within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, depositions shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held, or before a person appointed by the court in which the action is pending. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony.

(b) In Foreign Countries. In a foreign country, depositions may be taken (1) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States, or (2) before a person commissioned by the court, and the person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of his commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony, or (3) pursuant to a letter rogatory. A commission or a letter rogatory shall be issued on application and notice, and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter rogatory may be issued in proper cases. A notice or commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in [here name the country]." Evidence obtained in response to a letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or for any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the United States under these rules.

(c) Disqualification for Interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action.

RULE 29

STIPULATIONS REGARDING DISCOVERY PROCEDURE

Unless the court orders otherwise, the parties may by written stipulation (1) provide that depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions, and (2) modify the procedures provided by these rules for other methods of discovery.

RULE 30

DEPOSITIONS UPON ORAL EXAMINATION

(a) When Depositions May Be Taken. After the summons and a copy of the complaint are served, or the complaint is filed, whichever shall first occur, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained only if the plaintiff seeks to take a deposition prior to the expiration of 30 days after service of the summons and complaint upon any defendant or service made under rule 4(e), except that leave is not required (1) if a defendant has served a notice of taking deposition or otherwise sought discovery, or (2) if special notice is given as provided in subsection (b)(2) of this rule. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena as provided in rule 45. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes.

(b) Notice of Examination; General Requirements; Special Notice; Nonstenographic Recording; Production of Documents and Things; Deposition of Organization.

(1) A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing of not less than 5 days (exclusive of the day of service, Saturdays, Sundays and court holidays) to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced as set forth in the subpoena shall be attached to or included in the notice.

(2) Leave of court is not required for the taking of a deposition by plaintiff if the notice (i) states that the person to be examined is about to go out of the state and will be unavailable for examination unless his deposition is taken before expiration of the 30-day period, and (ii) sets forth facts to support the statement. The plaintiff's attorney shall sign the notice, and his signature constitutes a certification by him that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief the statement and supporting facts are true. The sanctions provided by rule 11 are applicable to the certification.

If a party shows that when he was served with notice under this subsection (b)(2) he was unable through the exercise of diligence to obtain counsel to represent him at the taking of the deposition, the deposition may not be used against him.

(3) The court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time for taking the deposition.

(4) The court may upon motion order that the testimony at a deposition be recorded by other than stenographic means in which event the order shall designate the manner of recording, preserving, and filing the deposition, and may include other provisions to assure that the recorded testimony will be accurate and trustworthy. If the order is made, a party may nevertheless arrange to have a stenographic transcription made at his own expense.

(5) The notice to a party deponent may be accompanied by a request made in compliance with rule 34 for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition. The procedure of rule 34 shall apply to the request.

(6) A party may in his notice and in a subpoena name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and designate with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event the organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated, the matters known on which he will testify. A subpoena shall advise a nonparty organization of its duty to make such a designation. The persons so designated shall testify as to the matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This subsection (b)(6) does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in these rules.

(c) Examination and Cross Examination; Record of Examination; Oath; Objections. Examination and cross examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of the Washington Rules of Evidence (ER). The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other means ordered in accordance with subsection (b)(4) of this rule. If requested by one of the parties, the testimony shall be transcribed.

All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and he shall transmit them to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

(d) Motion To Terminate or Limit Examination. At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the court in which the action is pending or the court in the county where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in rule 26(c). If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the court in which the action is pending. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. The provisions of rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(e) Submission to Witness; Changes; Signing. When the testimony is fully transcribed the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within 15 days of its submission to him, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed unless on a motion to suppress under rule 32(d)(4) the court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

(f) Certification and Filing by Officer; Exhibits; Copies; Notice of Filing.

(1) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of [here insert name of witness]" and shall promptly file it with the court in which the action is pending or send it by registered mail to the clerk thereof for filing.

Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness, shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to and returned with the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party, except that (i) the person producing the materials may substitute copies to be marked for identification, if he affords to all parties fair opportunity to verify the copies of comparison with the originals, and (ii) if the person producing the materials requests their return, the officer shall mark them, give each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, and return them to the person producing them, and the materials may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to and returned with the deposition. Any party may move for an order that the original be annexed to and returned with the deposition to the court, pending final disposition of the case.

(2) Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or the deponent.

(3) The officer filing the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all parties.

(g) Failure To Attend or To Serve Subpoena; Expenses.

(1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney fees.

(2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon him and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because he expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney fees.

RULE 31

DEPOSITIONS UPON WRITTEN QUESTIONS

(a) Serving Questions; Notice. After the summons and a copy of the complaint are served, or the complaint is filed, whichever shall first occur, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon written questions. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in rule 45. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes.

A party desiring to take a deposition upon written questions shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating (1) the name and address of the person who is to answer them, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs, and (2) the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. A deposition upon written questions may be taken of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency in accordance with the provisions of rule 30(b)(6).

Within 15 days after the notice and written questions are served, a party may serve cross questions upon all other parties. Within 10 days after being served with cross questions, a party may serve redirect questions upon all other parties. Within 10 days after being served with redirect questions, a party may serve recross questions upon all other parties. The court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.

(b) Officer To Take Responses and Prepare Record. A copy of the notice and copies of all questions served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly, in the manner provided by rule 30(c), (e), and (f), to take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and to prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the questions received by him.

(c) Notice of Filing. When the deposition is filed, the officer filing it shall promptly give notice thereof to all parties.

RULE 32

USE OF DEPOSITIONS IN COURT PROCEEDINGS

(a) Use of Depositions. At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the Rules of Evidence applied as though the witness were then present and testifying, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had reasonable notice thereof, in accordance with any of the following provisions:

(1) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness or for any purpose permitted by the Rules of Evidence.

(2) The deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, or managing agent, or a person designated under rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a public or private corporation, partnership or association or governmental agency which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.

(3) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the court finds: (i) that the witness is dead; or (ii) that the witness resides out of the county and more than 20 miles from the place of trial, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or (iii) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (iv) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or (v) upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court, to allow the deposition to be used.

(4) If only part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce any other part which ought in fairness to be considered with the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts.

Substitution of parties pursuant to rule 25 does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and, when an action has been brought in any court of the United States or of any state and another action involving the same issues and subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefor. A deposition previously taken may also be used as permitted by the Rules of Evidence.

(b) Objections to Admissibility. Subject to the provisions of rule 28(b) and subsection (d)(3) of this rule, objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

(c) Effect of Taking or Using Depositions. A party does not make a person his own witness for any purpose by taking his deposition. The introduction in evidence of the deposition or any part thereof for any purpose other than that of contradicting or impeaching the deponent makes the deponent the witness of the party introducing the deposition, but this shall not apply to the use by an adverse party of a deposition under subsection (a)(2) of this rule. At the trial or hearing any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or by any other party.

(d) Effect of Errors and Irregularities in Depositions.

(1) As to Notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.

(2) As to Disqualification of Officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

(3) As to Taking of Deposition.

(i) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(ii) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

(iii) Objections to the form of written questions submitted under rule 31 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other questions and within 5 days after service of the last questions authorized.

(4) As to Completion and Return of Deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under rules 30 and 31 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

RULE 33

INTERROGATORIES TO PARTIES

(a) Availability; Procedures for Use. Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after the summons and a copy of the complaint are served upon the defendant, or the complaint is filed, whichever shall first occur, and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

Interrogatories shall be so arranged that after each separate question there shall appear a blank space reasonably calculated to enable the answering party to have his answer typed in. Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer. The answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making them. The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers, and objections if any, within 20 days after the service of the interrogatories, except that a defendant may serve answers or objections within 40 days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The parties may stipulate or the party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order under rule 37(a) with respect to any objection to or other failure to answer an interrogatory.

(b) Scope; Use at Trial. Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under rule 26(b), and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the Rules of Evidence.

An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until a pretrial conference or other later time.

(c) Option To Produce Business Records. Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, or from a compilation, abstract or summary based thereon, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries.

RULE 34

PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS AND ENTRY UPON LAND FOR INSPECTION AND OTHER PURPOSES

(a) Scope. Any party may serve on any other party a request (1) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on his behalf, to inspect and copy, any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phonorecords, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonably usable form), or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of rule 26(b) and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or (2) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of rule 26(b).

(b) Procedure. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after the summons and a copy of the complaint are served upon the defendant, or the complaint is filed, whichever shall first occur, and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. The request shall set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts.

The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within 20 days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within 40 days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The parties may stipulate or the court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response shall state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified. The party submitting the request may move for an order under rule 37(a) with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested.

(c) Persons Not Parties. This rule does not preclude an independent action against a person not a party for production of documents and things and permission to enter upon land.

RULE 35

PHYSICAL AND MENTAL EXAMINATION OF PERSONS

(a) Order for Examination. When the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of a party, or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, is in controversy, the court in which the action is pending may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician or to produce for examination the person in his custody or legal control. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

(b) Report of Examining Physician.

(1) If requested by the party against whom an order is made under rule 35(a) or the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to him a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out his finding, including results of all tests made, diagnosis and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After delivery the party causing the examination shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party against whom the order is made a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same condition, unless, in the case of a report of examination of a person not a party, the party shows that he is unable to obtain it. The court on motion may make an order against a party requiring delivery of a report on such terms as are just, and if a physician fails or refuses to make a report the court may exclude his testimony if offered at the trial.

(2) By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party examined waives any privilege he may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine him in respect of the same mental or physical condition.

(3) This subsection applies to examinations made by agreement of the parties, unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise. This subsection does not preclude discovery of a report of an examining physician or the taking of a deposition of the physician in accordance with the provisions of any other rule.

RULE 36

REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

(a) Request for Admission. A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of rule 26(b) set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact, including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after the summons and a copy of the complaint are served upon the defendant, or the complaint is filed, whichever shall first occur, and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within 20 days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the court may allow the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by his attorney, but, unless the court shortens the time, a defendant shall not be required to serve answers or objections before the expiration of 40 days after service of the summons and complaint upon him. If objection is made, the reasons therefor shall be stated. The answer shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify his answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, he shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless he states that he has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by him is insufficient to enable him to admit or deny. A party who considers that a matter of which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; he may, subject to the provisions of rule 37(c), deny the matter or set forth reasons why he cannot admit or deny it.

The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this rule, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pretrial conference or at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(b) Effect of Admission. Any matter admitted under this rule is conclusively established unless the court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Subject to the provisions of rule 16 governing amendment of a pretrial order, the court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the party who obtained the admission fails to satisfy the court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense on the merits. Any admission made by a party under this rule is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not an admission by him for any other purpose nor may it be used against him in any other proceeding.

RULE 37

FAILURE TO MAKE DISCOVERY: SANCTIONS

(a) Motion for Order Compelling Discovery. A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply to the court in the county where the deposition was taken, or in the county where the action is pending, for an order compelling discovery as follows:

(1) Appropriate Court. An application for an order to a party may be made to the court in which the action is pending, or on matters relating to a deposition, to the court in the county where the deposition is being taken. An application for an order to a deponent who is not a party shall be made to the court in the county where the deposition is being taken.

(2) Motion. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under rules 30 or 31, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a), or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under rule 33, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under rule 34, fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before he applies for an order.

If the court denies the motion in whole or in part, it may make such protective order as it would have been empowered to make on a motion made pursuant to rule 26(c).

(3) Evasive or Incomplete Answer. For purposes of this section an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.

(4) Award of Expenses of Motion. If the motion is granted, the court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorney fees, unless the court finds that the opposition to the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is denied, the court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the moving party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney fees, unless the court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the court may apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.

(b) Failure To Comply With Order.

(1) Sanctions by Court in District Where Deposition Is Taken. If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the court in the county in which the deposition is being taken, the failure may be considered a contempt of that court.

(2) Sanctions by Court in Which Action Is Pending. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under section (a) of this rule or rule 35, the court in which the action is pending may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the following:

(i) an order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;

(ii) an order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting him from introducing designated matters in evidence;

(iii) an order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceedings or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;

(iv) in lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to physical or mental examination;

(v) where a party has failed to comply with an order under rule 35(a) requiring him to produce another for examination such orders as are listed in sections (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subsection, unless the party failing to comply shows that he is unable to produce such person for examination.

In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

(c) Expenses on Failure To Admit. If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter as requested under rule 36, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of the matter, he may apply to the court for an order requiring the other party to pay him the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney fees. The court shall make the order unless it finds that (1) the request was held objectionable pursuant to rule 36(a), or (2) the admission sought was of no substantial importance, or (3) the party failing to admit had reasonable ground to believe the fact was not true or the document was not genuine, or (4) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.

(d) Failure of Party To Attend at Own Deposition or Serve Answers to Interrogatories or Respond to Request for Inspection. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails (1) to appear before the officer who is to take his deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or (2) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under rule 33, after proper service of the interrogatories, or (3) to serve a written response to a request for inspection submitted under rule 34, after proper service of the request, the court in which the action is pending on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others it may take any action authorized under sections (i), (ii), and (iii) of subsection (b)(2) of this rule. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

The failure to act described in this subsection may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as provided by rule 26(c).

6. TRIALS
(RULES 38–53)

JURY TRIAL OF RIGHT

(–) Defined. A trial is the judicial examination of the issues between the parties, whether they are issues of law or of fact.

(a) Right of Jury Trial Preserved. The right of trial by jury as declared by article 1, § 21 of the constitution or as given by a statute shall be preserved to the parties inviolate.

(b) Demand for Jury. At or prior to the time the case is called to be set for trial, any party may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by a jury by serving upon the other parties a demand therefor in writing, by filing the demand with the clerk, and by paying the jury fee required by law. If before the case is called to be set for trial no party serves or files a demand that the case be tried by a jury of 12, it shall be tried by a jury of 6 members with the concurrence of 5 being required to reach a verdict.

(c) Specification of Issues. In his demand a party may specify the issues which he wishes so tried; otherwise he shall be deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If he has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within 10 days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.

(d) Waiver of Jury. The failure of a party to serve a demand as required by this rule, to file it as required by this rule, and to pay the jury fee required by law in accordance with this rule, constitutes a waiver by him of trial by jury. A demand for trial by jury made as herein provided may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties.

RULE 39

TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT

(–) Issues—How Tried. [Reserved. See RCW 4.40.010 through 4.40.070.]

(a) By Jury.

(1) Rule. When trial by jury has been demanded as provided in rule 38, the action shall be designated upon the docket as a jury action. The trial of all issues so demanded shall be by jury, unless (i) the parties or their attorneys of record, by written stipulation filed with the court or by an oral stipulation made in open court and entered in the record, consent to trial by the court sitting without a jury or (ii) the court upon motion or of its own initiative finds that a right of trial by jury of some or all of those issues does not exist under the constitution or statutes of the state.

(2) Questions of Fact for Jury. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.090.]

(b) By the Court.

(1) Rule. Issues not demanded for trial by jury as provided in rule 38 shall be tried by the court; but, notwithstanding the failure of a party to demand a jury in an action in which such a demand might have been made of right, the court in its discretion upon motion may order a trial by a jury of any or all issues.

(2) Questions of Law To Be Decided by Court. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.080.]

(c) Advisory Jury and Trial by Consent. In all actions not triable of right by a jury the court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may try an issue with an advisory jury or it may, with the consent of both parties, order a trial with a jury whose verdict has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right.

RULE 40

ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

(a) Notice of Trial—Note of Issue.

(1) Of Fact. At any time after the issues of fact are completed in any case by the service of complaint and answer or reply when necessary, as herein provided, either party may cause the issues of fact to be brought on for trial, by serving upon the opposite party a notice of trial at least 3 days before any day provided by rules of court for setting causes for trial, which notice shall give the title of the cause as in the pleadings, and notify the opposite party that the issues in such action will be brought on for trial at the time set by the court; and the party giving such notice of trial shall, at least 5 days before the day of setting such causes for trial, file with the clerk of the court a note of issue containing the title of the action, the names of the attorneys and the date when the last pleading was served; and the clerk shall thereupon enter the cause upon the trial docket according to the date of the issue.

(2) Of Law. In case an issue of law raised upon the pleadings is desired to be brought on for argument, either party shall, at least 5 days before the day set apart by the court under its rules for hearing issues of law, serve upon the opposite party a like notice of trial and furnish the clerk of the court with a note of issue as above provided, which note of issue shall specify that the issue to be tried is an issue of law; and the clerk of the court shall thereupon enter such action upon the motion docket of the court.

(3) Adjournments. When a cause has once been placed upon either docket of the court, if not tried or argued at the time for which notice was given, it need not be noticed for a subsequent session or day, but shall remain upon the docket from session to session or from law day to law day until final disposition or stricken off by the court.

(4) Filing Note by Opposite Party. The party upon whom notice of trial is served may file the note of issue and cause the action to be placed upon the calendar without further notice on his part.

(5) Issue May Be Brought to Trial by Either Party. Either party, after the notice of trial, whether given by himself or the adverse party, may bring the issue to trial, and in the absence of the adverse party, unless the court for good cause otherwise directs, may proceed with his case, and take a dismissal of the action, or a verdict or judgment, as the case may require.

(b) Methods. Each superior court may provide by local rule for placing of actions upon the trial calendar (1) without request of the parties or (2) upon request of a party and notice to the other parties or (3) in such other manner as the court deems expedient.

(c) Preferences. In setting cases for trial, unless otherwise provided by statute, preference shall be given to criminal over civil cases, and cases where the defendant or a witness is in confinement shall have preference over other cases.

(d) Trials. When a cause is set and called for trial, it shall be tried or dismissed, unless good cause is shown for a continuance. The court may in a proper case, and upon terms, reset the same.

(e) Continuances. A motion to continue a trial on the ground of the absence of evidence shall only be made upon affidavit showing the materiality of the evidence expected to be obtained, and that due diligence has been used to procure it, and also the name and address of the witness or witnesses. The court may also require the moving party to state upon affidavit the evidence which he expects to obtain; and if the adverse party admits that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial shall not be continued. The court, upon its allowance of the motion, may impose terms or conditions upon the moving party.

(f) Change of Judge. [Reserved. See RCW 4.12.040 and 4.12.050.]

RULE 41

DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS

(a) Voluntary Dismissal.

(1) Mandatory. Subject to the provisions of rules 23(e) and 23.1, any action shall be dismissed by the court:

(i) By stipulation. When all parties who have appeared so stipulate in writing; or

(ii) By plaintiff before resting. Upon motion of the plaintiff at any time before plaintiff rests at the conclusion of his opening case.

(2) Permissive. After plaintiff rests after his opening case, plaintiff may move for a voluntary dismissal without prejudice upon good cause shown and upon such terms and conditions as the court deems proper.

(3) Counterclaim. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon him of plaintiff's motion for dismissal, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court.

(4) Effect. Unless otherwise stated in the order of dismissal, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that an order of dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits when obtained by a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action based on or including the same claim in any court of the United States or of any state.

(b) Involuntary Dismissal; Effect. For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of the court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against him.

(1) Want of Prosecution on Motion of Party. Any civil action shall be dismissed, without prejudice, for want of prosecution whenever the plaintiff, counterclaimant, cross claimant, or third party plaintiff neglects to note the action for trial or hearing within 1 year after any issue of law or fact has been joined, unless the failure to bring the same on for trial or hearing was caused by the party who makes the motion to dismiss. Such motion to dismiss shall come on for hearing only after 10 days' notice to the adverse party. If the case is noted for trial before the hearing on the motion, the action shall not be dismissed.

(2) Dismissal on Clerk's Motion.

(i) Notice. In all civil cases wherein there has been no action of record during the 12 months just past, the clerk of the superior court shall mail notice to the attorneys of record that such case will be dismissed by the court for want of prosecution unless within 30 days following said mailing, action of record is made or an application in writing is made to the court and good cause shown why it should be continued as a pending case. If such application is not made or good cause is not shown, the court shall dismiss each such case without prejudice. The cost of filing such order of dismissal with the clerk shall not be assessed against either party.

(ii) Mailing notice. The notice shall be mailed in every eligible case not later than 30 days before June 15 and December 15 of each year, and all such cases shall be presented to the court by the clerk for action thereon on or before June 30 and December 31 of each year. These deadlines shall not be interpreted as a prohibition against mailing of notice and dismissal thereon as cases may become eligible for dismissal under this rule.

(iii) Applicable date. This dismissal procedure is mandatory as to all cases filed after January 1, 1959, and permissive as to all cases filed before that date. This rule is not a limitation upon any other power that the court may have to dismiss any action upon motion or otherwise.

(3) Defendant's Motion After Plaintiff Rests. After the plaintiff, in an action tried by the court without a jury, has completed the presentation of his evidence, the defendant, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for a dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. The court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the court renders judgment on the merits against the plaintiff, the court shall make findings as provided in rule 52(a). Unless the court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subsection and any dismissal not provided for in this rule, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction, for improper venue, or for failure to join a party under rule 19, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

(c) Dismissal of Counterclaim, Cross Claim, or Third Party Claim. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim. A voluntary dismissal by the claimant alone pursuant to subsection (a)(1) of this rule shall be made before a responsive pleading is served or, if there is none, before the introduction of evidence at the trial or hearing.

(d) Costs of Previously Dismissed Action. If a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action in any court commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same defendant, the court may make such order for the payment of taxable costs of the action previously dismissed as it may deem proper and may stay the proceedings in the action until the plaintiff has complied with the order.

(e) Notice of Settlements. If a case is settled after it has been assigned for trial, it shall be the duty of the attorneys or of any party appearing pro se to notify the court promptly of the settlement. If the settlement is made within 5 days before the trial date, the notice shall be made by telephone or in person. All notices of settlement shall be confirmed in writing to the clerk.

RULE 42

CONSOLIDATION; SEPARATE TRIALS

(a) Consolidation. When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the action; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

(b) Separate Trials. The court, in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice, or when separate trials will be conducive to expedition and economy, may order a separate trial of any claim, cross claim, counterclaim, or third party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross claims, counterclaims, third party claims, or issues, always preserving inviolate the right of trial by jury.

RULE 43

TAKING OF TESTIMONY

(a) Testimony.

(1) Generally. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise directed by the court or provided by rule or statute.

(2) Multiple Examinations. When two or more attorneys are upon the same side trying a case, the attorney conducting the examination of a witness shall continue until the witness is excused from the stand; and all objections and offers of proof made during the examination of such witness shall be made or announced by the attorney who is conducting the examination or cross examination.

(b) and (c) [Reserved. See ER 103 and 611.]

(d) Oaths of Witnesses.

(1) Administration. The oaths of all witnesses in the superior court

(i) shall be administered by the judge;

(ii) shall be administered to each witness individually; and

(iii) the witness shall stand while the oath is administered.

(2) Applicability. This rule shall not apply to civil ex parte proceedings or default divorce cases and in such cases the manner of swearing witnesses shall be as each superior court may prescribe.

(3) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath. Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(e) Evidence on Motions.

(1) Generally. When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record the court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.

(2) For Injunctions, etc. On application for injunction or motion to dissolve an injunction or discharge an attachment, or to appoint or discharge a receiver, the notice thereof shall designate the kind of evidence to be introduced on the hearing. If the application is to be heard on affidavits, copies thereof must be served by the moving party upon the adverse party at least 3 days before the hearing. Oral testimony shall not be taken on such hearing unless permission of the court is first obtained and notice of such permission served upon the adverse party at least 3 days before the hearing. This rule shall not be construed as pertaining to applications for restraining orders or for appointment of temporary receivers.

(f) Adverse Party as Witness.

(1) Party or Managing Agent as Adverse Witness. A party, or anyone who at the time of the notice is an officer, director, or other managing agent (herein collectively referred to as "managing agent") of a public or private corporation, partnership or association which is a party to an action or proceeding may be examined at the instance of any adverse party. Attendance of such deponent or witness may be compelled solely by notice (in lieu of a subpoena) given in the manner prescribed in rule 30(a) to opposing counsel of record. Notices for the attendance of a party or of a managing agent at the trial shall be given not less than 10 days before trial (exclusive of the day of service, Saturdays, Sundays, and court holidays). For good cause shown in the manner prescribed in rule 30(b), the court may make orders for the protection of the party or managing agent to be examined.

(2) Effect of Discovery, etc. A party who has filed interrogatories to be answered by the adverse party or who has taken the deposition of an adverse party or of the managing agent of an adverse party shall not be precluded for that reason from examining such adverse party or managing agent at the trial. The testimony of an adverse party or managing agent at the trial or on deposition or interrogatories shall not bind his adversary but may be rebutted.

(3) Refusal To Attend and Testify, Penalties. If a party or a managing agent refuses to attend and testify before the officer designated to take his deposition or at the trial after notice served as prescribed in rule 30(a), the complaint, answer, or reply of the party may be stricken and judgment taken against the party, and the contumacious party or managing agent may also be proceeded against as in other cases of contempt. This rule shall not be construed:

(i) to compel any person to answer any question where such answer might tend to incriminate him;

(ii) to prevent a party from using a subpoena to compel the attendance of any party or managing agent to give testimony by deposition or at the trial; nor

(iii) to limit the applicability of any other sanctions or penalties provided in rule 37 or otherwise for failure to attend and give testimony.

(g) Attorney as Witness. If any attorney offers himself as a witness on behalf of his client and gives evidence on the merits, he shall not argue the case to the jury, unless by permission of the court.

(h) Report or Transcript as Evidence. Whenever the testimony of a witness at a trial or hearing which was reported is admissible in evidence at a later trial, it may be proved by the transcript thereof duly certified by the person who reported the testimony.

(i) [Reserved. See ER 804.]

(j) Report of Proceedings in Retrial of Nonjury Cases.

In the event a cause has been remanded by the court for a new trial or the taking of further testimony, and such cause shall have been tried without a jury, and the testimony in such cause shall have been taken in full and used as the report of proceedings upon review, either party upon the retrial of such cause or the taking of further testimony therein shall have the right, provided the court shall so order after an application on 10 days' notice to the opposing party or parties, to submit said report of proceedings as the testimony in said cause upon its second hearing, to the same effect as if the witnesses called by him in the earlier hearing had been called, sworn, and testified in the further hearing; but no party shall be denied the right to submit other or further testimony upon such retrial or further hearing, and the party having the right of cross examination shall have the privilege of subpoenaing any witness whose testimony is contained in such report of proceedings for further cross examination.

RULE 44

PROOF OF OFFICIAL RECORD

(a) Authentication.

(1) Domestic. An official record kept within the United States, or any state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or within the Panama Canal Zone, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, or the Ryukyu Islands, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy, and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office or official custody of the seal of the political subdivision and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office or the seal of the political subdivision.

(2) Foreign. A foreign official record, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof; or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the court may, for good cause shown, either admit an attested copy without final certification or permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification.

(b) Lack of Record. A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records, designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in subsection (a)(1) of this rule in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of subsection (a)(2) of this rule for a summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.

(c) Other Proof. This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

RULE 44.1

DETERMINATION OF FOREIGN LAW

(a) Pleading. A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a state, territory, or other jurisdiction of the United States, or a foreign country shall give notice in his pleadings in accordance with rule 9(k).

(b) United States Jurisdiction. The law of a state, territory, or other jurisdiction of the United States shall be determined as provided in RCW 5.24.

(c) Other Jurisdictions. The court, in determining the law of any jurisdiction other than a state, territory, or other jurisdiction of the United States, may consider any relevant written material or other source, including testimony, having due regard for their trustworthiness, whether or not submitted by a party and whether or not admissible under the Rules of Evidence. If the court considers any material or source not received in open court, prior to its determination the court shall:

- (1) Identify in the record such material or source;
- (2) Summarize in the record any unwritten information received; and
- (3) Afford the parties an opportunity to respond thereto. The court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law.

RULE 45

SUBPOENA

(a) For Attendance of Witnesses. The subpoena shall be issued as follows:

(1) Form. To require attendance before a court of record or at the trial of an issue therein, such subpoena may be issued in the name of the State of Washington and be under the seal of the court before which the attendance is required or in which the issue is pending: Provided, That such subpoena may be issued with like effect by the attorney of record of the party to the action in whose behalf the witness is required to appear, and the form of such subpoena in each case may be the same as when issued by the court except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of such attorney.

(2) Issuance for Trial. To require attendance before a court of record or at the trial of an issue of fact, the subpoena may be issued by the clerk in response to a praecipe or by an attorney of record.

(3) Issuance for Deposition. To require attendance out of such court before a judge, justice of the peace, commissioner, referee or other officer authorized to administer oaths or to take testimony in any matter under the laws of this state, it shall be issued by an attorney of record or by such judge, justice of the peace, commissioner, referee or other officer before whom the attendance is required.

(b) For Production of Documentary Evidence. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein; but the court, upon motion made promptly and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive or (2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

(c) Service. A subpoena may be served by any suitable person over 18 years of age, by exhibiting and reading it to the witness, or by giving him a copy thereof, or by leaving such copy at the place of his abode. When service is made by any other person than an officer authorized to serve process, proof of service shall be made by affidavit.

(d) Subpoena for Taking Depositions; Place of Examination.

(1) Proof of service of a notice to take a deposition as provided in rules 30(b) and 31(a) constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance by the attorney of record or the officer taking the deposition of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein. The subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of the examination permitted by rule 26(b), but in that event the subpoena will be subject to the provisions of rule 26(c) and section (b) of this rule.

The person to whom the subpoena is directed may, within 10 days after the service thereof or on or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance if such time is less than 10 days after service, serve upon the attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials except pursuant to an order of the court from which the subpoena was issued. The party serving the subpoena may, if objection has been made, move upon notice to the deponent for an order at any time before or during the taking of the deposition.

(2) Place of Examination. A resident of the state may be required to attend an examination only in the county wherein he resides or is employed or transacts his business in person, or at such other convenient place as is fixed by an order of the court. A nonresident of the state may be required to attend only in the county wherein he is served with a subpoena, or within 40 miles from the place of service or at such other convenient place as is fixed by an order of the court.

(3) Foreign Depositions for Local Actions. When the place of examination is in another state, territory, or country, the party desiring to take the deposition may secure the issuance of a subpoena or equivalent process in accordance with the laws of such state, territory or country to require the deponent to attend the examination.

(4) Local Depositions for Foreign Actions. When any officer or person is authorized to take depositions in this state by the law of another state, territory or country, with or without a commission, a subpoena to require attendance before such officer or person may be issued by any judge or justice of the peace of this state for attendance at any places within his jurisdiction.

(e) Subpoena for Hearing or Trial. [Reserved. See RCW 5.56.010.]

(f) Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon him may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued.

(g) When Excused. A witness subpoenaed to attend in a civil case is dismissed and excused from further attendance as soon as he has given his testimony in chief and has been cross-examined thereon, unless either party moves in open court that the witness remain in attendance and the court so orders; and witness fees will not be allowed any witness after the day on which his testimony is given, except when the witness has in open court been required to remain in further attendance, and when so required the clerk shall note that fact in the minutes.

RULE 46

EXCEPTIONS UNNECESSARY

Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the court are unnecessary; but for all purposes for which an exception has heretofore been necessary it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the court is made or sought, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take or his objection to the action of the court and his grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

RULE 47

JURORS

(a) Examination of Jurors. The court may examine the prospective jurors to the extent it deems appropriate, and shall permit the parties or their attorneys to ask reasonable questions.

(b) Alternate Jurors. The court may direct that not more than six jurors in addition to the regular jury be called and impaneled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors in the order in which they are called shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become or are found to be unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges, shall take the same oath, and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the regular jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a regular juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. Each side is entitled to one peremptory challenge in addition to those otherwise allowed by law if one or two alternate jurors are to be impaneled, two peremptory challenges if three or four alternate jurors are to be impaneled, and three peremptory challenges if five or six alternate jurors are to be impaneled. The additional peremptory challenges may be used against an alternate juror only, and the other peremptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against an alternate juror.

(c) Procedure When Juror Becomes Ill. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.290.]

(d) Impaneling Jury. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.120.]

(e) Challenge.

(1) Kind and Number. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.130.]

(2) Peremptory Challenges Defined. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.140.]

(3) Challenges for Cause. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.150.]

(4) General Causes of Challenge. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.160.]

(5) Particular Causes of Challenge. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.170.]

(6) Implied Bias Defined. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.180.]

(7) Challenge for Actual Bias. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.190.]

(8) Exemption Not Cause of Challenge. [Reserved.]

(9) Peremptory Challenges. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.210.]

(10) Order of Taking Challenges. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.220.]

(11) Objections to Challenges. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.230.]

(12) Trial of Challenge. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44-.240.]

(13) Challenge, Objection and Denial May Be Oral. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.250.]

(f) Oath of Jurors. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.260.]

(g) View of Premises by Jury. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.270.]

(h) Admonitions to Jurors. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44-.280.]

(i) Care of Jury While Deliberating.

(1) Generally. During trial and deliberations the jury may be allowed to separate unless good cause is shown, on the record, for sequestration of the jury.

(2) Communication Restricted. Unless the jury is allowed to separate, the jurors shall be kept together under the charge of one or more officers until they agree upon their verdict or are discharged by the court. The officer shall keep the jurors separate from other persons and shall not allow any communication which may affect the case to be made to the jurors, nor make any himself, unless by order of the court, except to ask the jurors if they have agreed upon their verdict. The officer shall not, before the verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of the jurors' deliberations or their verdict.

(3) Motions. Any motions or proceedings concerning the separation or sequestration of the jury shall be made out of the presence of the jury.

(j) Note Taking by Jurors. With the permission of the trial judge, jurors may take written notes regarding the evidence presented to them and keep these notes with them when they retire for their deliberation. Such notes should be treated as confidential between the jurors making them and their fellow jurors, and shall be destroyed immediately after the verdict is rendered.

RULE 48

JURIES OF LESS THAN TWELVE

The parties may stipulate that the jury shall consist of any number less than 12 or that a verdict or a finding of a stated majority of the jurors shall be taken as the verdict or finding of the jury.

RULE 49

VERDICTS

(-) General Verdict. A general verdict is that by which the jury pronounces generally upon all or any of the issues in favor of either the plaintiff or defendant.

(a) Special Verdict. The court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event the court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use such other method of submitting the issues and requiring the written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The court shall give to the jury such explanation and instruction concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in so doing the court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleadings or by the evidence, each party waives his rights to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless before the jury retires he demands its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand the court may make a finding; or, if it fails to do so, it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the judgment on the special verdict.

(b) General Verdict Accompanied by Answer to Interrogatories. The court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one or more issues of fact the decision of which is necessary to a verdict. The court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict, and the court shall direct the jury both to make written answers and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are harmonious, the appropriate judgment upon the verdict and answers shall be entered pursuant to rule 58. When the answers are consistent with each other but one or more is inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment may be entered pursuant to rule 58 in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict, or the court may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment shall not be entered, but the court shall return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or shall order a new trial.

(c) Discharge of Jury.

(1) Without Verdict. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.330.]

(2) Effect of Discharge. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.340.]

(d) Court Recess During Deliberation. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.350.]

(e) Proceedings When Jurors Have Agreed. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.360.]

(f) Manner of Giving Verdict. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.370.]

(g) Ten Jurors in Civil Cases. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.380.]

(h) Jury May Be Polled. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.390.]

(i) Correction of Informal Verdict. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.400.]

(j) Jury To Assess Amount of Recovery. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.450.]

(k) Receiving Verdict and Discharging Jury. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.460.]

RULE 50

MOTION FOR A DIRECTED VERDICT AND FOR JUDGMENT NOTWITHSTANDING THE VERDICT

(a) Motion for Directed Verdict; When Made; Effect. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent may offer evidence in the event that the motion is not granted, without having reserved the right so to do and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict which is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for a directed verdict shall state the specific ground therefor.

(b) Motion for Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict. Not later than 5 days after the entry of judgment or after the jury is discharged if no verdict is returned, whether or not he has moved for a directed verdict and whether or not a verdict was returned, a party may move for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. A motion in the alternative for a new trial may be joined with this motion.

(c) Alternative Motions for Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict or for a New Trial—Effect of Appeal. Whenever a motion for a judgment notwithstanding the verdict and, in the alternative, for a new trial shall be filed and submitted in any superior court in any civil cause tried before a jury, and such superior court shall enter an order granting such motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, such court shall at the same time, in the alternative, pass upon and decide in the same order such motion for a new trial; such ruling upon said motion for a new trial not to become effective unless and until the order granting the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict shall thereafter be reversed, vacated, or set aside in the manner provided by law. An appeal to the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals from a judgment granted on a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict shall, of itself, without the necessity of cross appeal, bring up for review the ruling of the trial court on the motion for a new trial; and the appellate court shall, if it reverses the judgment entered notwithstanding the verdict, review and determine the validity of the ruling on the motion for a new trial.

RULE 51

INSTRUCTIONS TO JURY AND DELIBERATION

(a) Proposed. Unless otherwise requested by the trial judge on timely notice to counsel, proposed instructions shall be submitted when the case is called for trial. Proposed instructions upon questions of law developed by the evidence, which could not reasonably be anticipated, may be submitted at any time before the court has instructed the jury.

(b) Submission. Submission of proposed instructions shall be by delivering the original and three or more copies as required by the trial judge, by filing one copy with the clerk, identified as the party's proposed instructions, and by serving one copy upon each opposing counsel.

(c) Form. Each proposed instruction shall be typewritten or printed on a separate sheet of letter-size (8½ by 11 inches) paper. Except for one copy of each, the instructions delivered to the trial court shall not be numbered or identified as to the proposing party. One copy delivered to the trial court, and the copy filed with the clerk, and copies served on each opposing counsel shall be numbered and identified as to proposing party, and may contain supporting annotations.

(d) Published Instructions.

(1) Request. Any instruction appearing in the Washington Pattern Instructions (WPI) may be requested by counsel who must submit the proper number of copies of the requested instruction, identified by number as in section (c) of this rule, in the form he wishes it read to the jury. If the instruction in WPI allows or provides for a choice of wording by the use of brackets or otherwise, the written requested instruction shall use the choice of wording which is being requested.

(2) Record on Review. Where the refusal to give a requested instruction is an asserted error on review, a copy of the requested instruction shall be placed in the record on review.

(3) Local Option. Any superior court may adopt a local rule to substitute for CR 51(d)(1) and to allow instructions appearing in the Washington Pattern Instructions (WPI) to be requested by reference to the published number. If the instruction in WPI allows or provides for a choice of wording by the use of brackets or otherwise, the local rule must require that the written request which designates the number of the instruction shall also designate the choice of wording which is being requested.

(e) Disregarding Requests. The trial court may disregard any proposed instruction not submitted in accordance with this rule.

(f) Objections to Instruction. Before instructing the jury, the court shall supply counsel with copies of its proposed instructions which shall be numbered. Counsel shall then be afforded an opportunity in the absence of the jury to make objections to the giving of any instruction and to the refusal to give a requested instruction. The objector shall state distinctly the matter to which he objects and the grounds of his objection, specifying the number, paragraph or particular part of the instruction to be given or refused and to which objection is made.

(g) Instructing the Jury and Argument. After counsel have completed their objections and the court has made any modifications deemed appropriate, the court shall then provide each counsel with a copy of the instructions in their final form. The court shall then read the instructions to the jury. The plaintiff or party having the burden of proof may then address the jury upon the evidence, and the law as contained in the court's instructions; after which the adverse party may address the jury; followed by the rebuttal of the party first addressing the jury.

(h) Deliberation. After argument, the jury shall retire to consider its verdict. In addition to the written instructions given, the jury shall take with it all exhibits received in evidence, except depositions. Copies may be substituted for any parts of public records or private documents as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession. Pleadings shall not go to the jury room.

(i) Further Instructions. After retirement for deliberation, if the jury desires to be informed on any point of law, the judge may require the officer having them in charge to conduct them into court. Upon the jury's being brought into court, the information requested, if given, shall be given in the presence of, or after notice to the parties or their counsel. Any additional instruction upon any point of law shall be given in writing.

(j) Comments Upon Evidence. Judges shall not instruct with respect to matters of fact, nor comment thereon.

RULE 52

DECISIONS, FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

(a) Requirements.

(1) Generally. In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law. Judgment shall be entered pursuant to rule 58 and may be entered at the same time as the entry of the findings of fact and the conclusions of law.

(2) Specifically Required. Without in any way limiting the requirements of subsection (1), findings and conclusions are required:

(i) Temporary injunctions. In granting or refusing temporary injunctions.

(ii) Domestic relations. In connection with all final decisions in adoption, custody, and divorce proceedings, whether heard ex parte or not.

(iii) Other. In connection with any other decision where findings and conclusions are specifically required by statute, by another rule, or by a local rule of the superior court.

(3) Proposed. Requests for proposed findings of fact are not necessary for review.

(4) Form. If a written opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it will be sufficient if formal findings of fact and conclusions of law are included.

(5) When Unnecessary. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are not necessary:

(i) Stipulation. Where all parties stipulate in writing that there will be no appeal.

(ii) Decision on motions. On decisions of motions under rules 12 or 56 or any other motion, except as provided in rules 41(b)(3) and 55(b)(2).

(iii) Temporary restraining orders. On the issuance of temporary restraining orders issued ex parte.

(b) Amendment of Findings. Upon motion of a party made not later than 5 days after entry of judgment the court may amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the judgment accordingly. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial pursuant to rule 59. When findings of fact are made in actions tried by the court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question has made in the court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment.

(c) Presentation. Unless an emergency is shown to exist, the court shall not sign findings of fact or conclusions of law until the defeated party or parties have received 5 days' notice of the time and place of the submission, and have been served with copies of the proposed findings and conclusions.

(d) Judgment Without Findings, etc. A judgment entered in a case tried to the court where findings are required, without findings of fact having been made, is subject to a motion to vacate within the time for the taking of an appeal. After vacation, the judgment shall not be reentered until findings are entered pursuant to this rule.

(e) Time Limit for Decision. [Reserved. See RCW 2.08.240.]

7. JUDGMENT
(RULES 54–63)

RULE 54
JUDGMENTS AND COSTS

(a) Definitions.

(1) Judgment. A judgment is the final determination of the rights of the parties in the action and includes any decree and order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall be in writing and signed by the judge and filed forthwith as provided in rule 58.

(2) Order. Every direction of a court or judge, made or entered in writing, not included in a judgment, is denominated an order.

(b) Judgment Upon Multiple Claims or Involving Multiple Parties. When more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim, or when multiple parties are involved, the court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or parties only upon an express determination in the judgment that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all the claims or the rights and liabilities of fewer than all the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.

(c) Demand for Judgment. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in his pleadings.

(d) Costs. Costs shall be fixed and allowed as provided in RCW 4.84 or by any other applicable statute.

(e) Preparation of Order or Judgment. The attorney of record for the prevailing party shall prepare and present a proposed form of order or judgment not later than 15 days after the entry of the verdict or decision, or at any other time as the court may direct. Where the prevailing party is represented by an attorney of record, no order or judgment may be entered for the prevailing party unless presented or approved by the attorney of record. If both the prevailing party and his attorney of record fail to prepare and present the form of order or judgment within the prescribed time, any other party may do so, without the approval of the attorney of record of the prevailing party upon notice of presentation as provided in subsection (f)(2)

(f) Presentation.

(1) Time. Judgments may be presented at the same time as the findings of fact and conclusions of law under rule 52.

(2) Notice of Presentation. No order or judgment shall be signed or entered until opposing counsel have been given 5 days' notice of presentation and served with a copy of the proposed order or judgment unless:

(i) Emergency. An emergency is shown to exist.

(ii) Approval. Opposing counsel has approved in writing the entry of the proposed order or judgment or waived notice of presentation.

(iii) After verdict, etc. If presentation is made after entry of verdict or findings and while opposing counsel is in open court.

RULE 55

DEFAULT AND JUDGMENT

(a) Entry of Default.

(1) Motion. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to appear, plead, or otherwise defend as provided by these rules and that fact is made to appear by motion and affidavit, a motion for default may be made.

(2) Pleading After Default. Any party may respond to any pleading or otherwise defend at any time before a motion for default and supporting affidavit is filed, whether the party previously has appeared or not. If the party has appeared before the motion is filed, he may respond to the pleading or otherwise defend at any time before the hearing on the motion. If the party has not appeared before the motion is filed he may not respond to the pleading nor otherwise defend without leave of court. Any appearances for any purpose in the action shall be for all purposes under this rule 55.

(3) Notice. Any party who has appeared in the action for any purpose, shall be served with a written notice of motion for default and the supporting affidavit at least 5 days before the hearing on the motion. Any party who has not appeared before the motion for default and supporting affidavit are filed is not entitled to a notice of the motion, except as provided in rule 55(f)(2)(i).

(4) Venue. A motion for default shall include a statement of the basis for venue in the action. A default shall not be entered if it clearly appears to the court from the papers on file that the action was brought in an improper county.

(b) Entry of Default Judgment. As limited in rule 54(c), judgment after default may be entered as follows, if proof of service is on file as required by subsection (b)(4):

(1) When Amount Certain. When the claim against a party, whose default has been entered under section (a), is for a sum certain or for a sum which can by computation be made certain, the court upon motion and affidavit of the amount due shall enter judgment for that amount and costs against the party in default, if he is not an infant or incompetent person. No judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented by a general guardian or guardian ad litem. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are not necessary under this subsection even though reasonable attorney fees are requested and allowed.

(2) When Amount Uncertain. If, in order to enable the court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the court may conduct such hearings as are deemed necessary or, when required by statute, shall have such matters resolved by a jury. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are required under this subsection.

(3) When Service by Publication or Mail. In an action where the service of the summons was by publication, or by mail under rule 4(d)(4), the plaintiff, upon the expiration of the time for answering, may, upon proof of service, apply for judgment. The court must thereupon require proof of the demand mentioned in the complaint, and must require the plaintiff or his agent to be examined on oath respecting any payments that have been made to the plaintiff, or to anyone for his use on account of such demand, and may render judgment for the amount which he is entitled to recover, or for such other relief as he may be entitled to.

(4) Costs and Proof of Service. Costs shall not be awarded and default judgment shall not be rendered unless proof of service is on file with the court.

(c) Setting Aside Default.

(1) Generally. For good cause shown and upon such terms as the court deems just, the court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with rule 60(b).

(2) When Venue Is Improper. A default judgment entered in a county of improper venue is valid but will on motion be vacated for irregularity pursuant to rule 60(b)(1). A party who procures the entry of the judgment, shall in the vacation proceedings, be required to pay to the party seeking vacation the costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred by the party in seeking vacation if the party procuring the judgment could have determined the county of proper venue with reasonable diligence. This subsection does not apply if either (i) the parties stipulate in writing to venue after commencement of the action, or (ii) the defendant has appeared, has been given written notice of the motion for an order of default, and does not object to venue before the entry of the default order.

(d) Plaintiffs, Counterclaimants, Cross Claimants. The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross claim or counterclaim. In all cases a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of rule 54(c).

(e) Judgment Against State. Reserved. How Made After Elapse of Year.

(1) Notice. When more than 1 year has elapsed after service of summons with no appearance being made, the court shall not sign an order of default or enter a judgment until a notice of the time and place of the application for the order or judgment is served on the party in default, not less than 10 days prior to the entry. Proof by affidavit of the service of the notice shall be filed before entry of the judgment.

(2) Service. Service of notice of the time and place on the application for the order of default or default judgment shall be made as follows:

(i) by service upon the attorney of record;

(ii) if there is no attorney of record, then by service upon the defendant by certified mail with return receipt of said service to be attached to the affidavit in support of the application; or

(iii) by a personal service upon the defendant in the same manner provided for service of process.

(iv) If service of notice cannot be made under sections (i) and (iii), the notice may be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the action is pending for one publication, and by mailing a copy to the last known address of each defendant. Both the publication and mailing shall be done 10 days prior to the hearing.

RULE 56

SUMMARY JUDGMENT

(a) For Claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross claim, or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the expiration of the period within which the defendant is required to appear, or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor upon all or any part thereof.

(b) For Defending Party. A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor as to all or any part thereof.

(c) Motion and Proceedings. The motion shall be served at least 10 days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party, prior to the day of hearing, may serve opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

(d) Case Not Fully Adjudicated on Motion. If on motion under the rule judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action, the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

(e) Form of Affidavits; Further Testimony; Defense Required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this rule, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of his pleading, but his response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in this rule, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If he does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against him.

(f) When Affidavits Are Unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that he cannot, for reasons stated, present by affidavit facts essential to justify his opposition, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

(g) Affidavits Made in Bad Faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this rule are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused him to incur, including reasonable attorney fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

RULE 57

DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS

The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment pursuant to the Uniform Declaratory Judgments Act, RCW 7.24, shall be in accordance with these rules, and the right to trial by jury may be demanded under the circumstances and in the manner provided in rules 38 and 39. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar.

RULE 58

ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

(a) When. Unless the court otherwise directs and subject to the provisions of rule 54(b), all judgments shall be entered immediately after they are signed by the judge.

(b) Effective Time. Judgments shall be deemed entered for all procedural purposes from the time of delivery to the clerk for filing, unless the judge earlier permits the judgment to be filed with him as authorized by rule 5(e).

(c) Notice of Entry. [Reserved. See rule 54(f).]

(d) [Reserved.]

(e) Judgment by Confession. [Reserved. See RCW 4.60.]

(f) Assignment of Judgment. [Reserved. See RCW 4.56.090.]

(g) Interest on Judgment. [Reserved. See RCW 4.56.110.]

(h) Satisfaction of Judgment. [Reserved. See RCW 4.56.100.]

(i) Lien of Judgment. [Reserved. See RCW 4.56.190.]

(j) Commencement of Lien on Real Estate. [Reserved. See RCW 4.56.200.]

(k) Cessation of Lien—Extension Prohibited. [Reserved. See RCW 4.56.210.]

(l) Revival of Judgments. [Reserved.]

RULE 59

NEW TRIAL AND AMENDMENT OF JUDGMENTS

(a) Grounds for Reconsideration or New Trial. The verdict or other decision may be vacated and a new trial granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues when such issues are clearly and fairly separable and distinct, on the motion of the party aggrieved for any one of the following causes materially affecting the substantial rights of such parties:

(1) Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury or adverse party, or any order of the court, or abuse of discretion, by which such party was prevented from having a fair trial.

(2) Misconduct of prevailing party or jury; and whenever any one or more of the jurors shall have been induced to assent to any general or special verdict or to a finding on any question or questions submitted to the jury by the court, other and different from his own conclusions, and arrived at by a resort to the determination of chance or lot, such misconduct may be proved by the affidavits of one or more of the jurors;

(3) Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

(4) Newly discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the trial;

(5) Damages so excessive or inadequate as unmistakably to indicate that the verdict must have been the result of passion or prejudice;

(6) Error in the assessment of the amount of recovery whether too large or too small, when the action is upon a contract, or for the injury or detention of property;

(7) That there is no evidence or reasonable inference from the evidence to justify the verdict or the decision, or that it is contrary to law;

(8) Error in law occurring at the trial and objected to at the time by the party making the application;

(9) That substantial justice has not been done.

(b) Time for Motion. A motion for a new trial shall be served not later than 5 days after the entry of the judgment.

(c) Time for Serving Affidavits. When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has 5 days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding 20 days either by the court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The court may permit reply affidavits.

(d) On Initiative of Court. Not later than 5 days after entry of judgment, the court of its own initiative may order a hearing on its proposed order for a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party, and in the order shall specify the grounds thereof.

(e) Hearing on Motion. When a motion for reconsideration or for a new trial is served and filed, the judge by whom it is to be heard may on his own motion or on application determine:

(1) Time of Hearing. Whether the motion shall be heard before the entry of judgment;

(2) Consolidation of Hearings. Whether the motion shall be heard before or at the same time as the presentation of the findings and conclusions and/or judgment, and the hearing on any other pending motion; and

(3) Nature of Hearing. Whether the motion or motions and presentation shall be heard on oral argument or submitted on briefs, and if on briefs, shall fix the time within which the briefs shall be served and filed.

(f) Statement of Reasons. In all cases where the trial court grants a motion for a new trial, it shall, in the order granting the motion, state whether the order is based upon the record or upon facts and circumstances outside the record which cannot be made a part thereof. If the order is based upon the record, the court shall give definite reasons of law and facts for its order. If the order is based upon matters outside the record, the court shall state the facts and circumstances upon which it relied.

(g) Reopening Judgment. On a motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the court may open the judgment if one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of fact and conclusions of law or make new findings and conclusions, and direct the entry of a new judgment.

(h) Motion To Alter or Amend Judgment. A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be served not later than 5 days after entry of the judgment.

(i) Alternative Motions, etc. Alternative motions for judgment notwithstanding the verdict and for a new trial may be made in accordance with rule 50(c).

(j) Limit on Motions. If a motion for reconsideration, or for a new trial, or for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, is made and heard before the entry of the judgment, no further motion may be made for a new trial nor pursuant to sections (g), (h), and (i) of this rule, nor under rule 52(b), without leave of court first obtained for good cause shown.

RULE 60

RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER

(a) Clerical Mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders. Such mistakes may be so corrected before review is accepted by an appellate court, and thereafter may be corrected pursuant to RAP 7.2(e).

(b) Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud; etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons:

(1) Mistakes, inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect or irregularity in obtaining a judgment or order;

(2) For erroneous proceedings against a minor or person of unsound mind, when the condition of such defendant does not appear in the record, nor the error in the proceedings;

(3) Newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under rule 59(b);

(4) Fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;

(5) The judgment is void;

(6) The judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application;

(7) If the defendant was served by publication, relief may be granted as prescribed in RCW 4.28.200;

(8) Death of one of the parties before the judgment in the action;

(9) Unavoidable casualty or misfortune preventing the party from prosecuting or defending;

(10) Error in judgment shown by a minor, within 12 months after arriving at full age; or

(11) Any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment.

The motion shall be made within a reasonable time and for reasons (1), (2) or (3) not more than 1 year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. If the party entitled to relief is a minor or a person of unsound mind, the motion shall be made within 1 year after the disability ceases. A motion under this section (b) does not affect the finality of the judgment or suspend its operation.

(c) Other Remedies. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding.

(d) Writs Abolished—Procedure. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela, and bills of review and bills in the nature of a bill of review are abolished. The procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in these rules or by an independent action.

(e) Procedure on Vacation of Judgment.

(1) Motion. Application shall be made by motion filed in the cause stating the grounds upon which relief is asked, and supported by the affidavit of the applicant or his attorney setting forth a concise statement of the facts or errors upon which the motion is based, and if the moving party be a defendant, the facts constituting a defense to the action or proceeding.

(2) Notice. Upon the filing of the motion and affidavit, the court shall enter an order fixing the time and place of the hearing thereof and directing all parties to the action or proceeding who may be affected thereby to appear and show cause why the relief asked for should not be granted.

(3) Service. The motion, affidavit, and the order to show cause shall be served upon all parties affected in the same manner as in the case of summons in a civil action at such time before the date fixed for the hearing as the order shall provide; but in case such service cannot be made, the order shall be published in the manner and for such time as may be ordered by the court, and in such case a copy of the motion, affidavit, and order shall be mailed to such parties at their last known post office address and a copy thereof served upon the attorneys of record of such parties in such action or proceeding such time prior to the hearing as the court may direct.

(4) Statutes. Except as modified by this rule, RCW 4.72.010-.090 shall remain in full force and effect.

RULE 61

HARMLESS ERROR

[Reserved]

RULE 62

STAY OF PROCEEDINGS TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT

(a) Automatic Stays. No execution shall issue upon a judgment nor shall proceedings be taken for its enforcement until the expiration of 5 days after its entry. Unless otherwise ordered, an interlocutory or final judgment in an action for an injunction or in a receivership action, shall not be stayed during the period after its entry and until appellate review is accepted or during the pendency of appellate review.

(b) Stay on Motion for New Trial or for Judgment. In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment made pursuant to rule 59, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order made pursuant to rule 60, or of a motion for judgment in accordance with a motion for a directed verdict made pursuant to rule 50, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to rule 52(b).

(c) Other Stays. This rule does not limit the right of a party to a stay otherwise provided by statute or rule.

(d) Multiple Claims or Multiple Parties. When a court has ordered a final judgment under the conditions stated in rule 54(b), the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

RULE 63

JUDGES

(a) Powers. See rule 77.

(b) Disability of a Judge. If by reason of death, sickness, or other disability, a judge before whom an action has been tried is unable to perform the duties to be performed by the court under these rules after a verdict is returned or findings of fact and conclusions of law are filed, then any other judge regularly sitting in or assigned to the court in which the action was tried may perform those duties; but if such other judge is satisfied that he cannot perform those duties because he did not preside at the trial or for any other reason, he may in his discretion grant a new trial.

8. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES (RULES 64-71)

RULE 64

SEIZURE OF PERSON OR PROPERTY

At the commencement of and during the course of an action, all remedies providing for seizure of person or property for the purpose of securing satisfaction of the judgment ultimately to be entered in the action are available under the circumstances and in the manner provided by the law existing at the time the remedy is sought. The remedies thus available include arrest, attachment, garnishment, replevin, sequestration, and other corresponding or equivalent remedies, however designated and regardless of whether the remedy is ancillary to an action or must be obtained by an independent action.

RULE 65

INJUNCTIONS

(a) Preliminary Injunction.

(1) Notice. No preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the adverse party.

(2) Consolidation of Hearing With Trial on Merits. Before or after the commencement of the hearing of an application for a preliminary injunction, the court may order the trial of the action on the merits to be advanced and consolidated with the hearing of the application. Even when this consolidation is not ordered, any evidence received upon an application for a preliminary injunction which would be admissible upon the trial on the merits becomes part of the record on the trial and need not be repeated upon the trial. This subsection shall be so construed and applied as to save to the parties any rights they may have to trial by jury.

(b) Temporary Restraining Order; Notice; Hearing; Duration. A temporary restraining order may be granted without written or oral notice to the adverse party or his attorney only if (1) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or his attorney can be heard in opposition, and (2) the applicant's attorney certifies to the court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give the notice and the reasons supporting his claim that notice should not be required. Every temporary restraining order granted without notice shall be endorsed with the date and hour of issuance; shall be filed forthwith in the clerk's office and entered of record; shall define the injury and state why it is irreparable and why the order was granted without notice; and shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed 14 days, as the court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for a like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a longer period. The reasons for the extension shall be entered of record. In case a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the motion for a preliminary injunction shall be set down for hearing at the earliest possible time and takes precedence over all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the motion comes on for hearing the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a preliminary injunction and, if he does not do so, the court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. On 2 days' notice to the party who obtained the temporary restraining order without notice or on such shorter notice to that party as the court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification and in that event the court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

(c) Security. Except where the court in issuing orders pursuant to RCW 26.09 (marriage dissolution and related proceedings) directs otherwise, no restraining order or preliminary injunction shall issue except upon the giving of security by the applicant, in such sum as the court deems proper, for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. No such security shall be required of the United States or of an officer or agency thereof. Pursuant to RCW 4.92.080 no security shall be required of the State of Washington, municipal corporations or political subdivisions of the State of Washington.

The provisions of rule 65.1 apply to a surety upon a bond or undertaking under this rule.

(d) Form and Scope. Every order granting an injunction and every restraining order shall set forth the reasons for its issuance; shall be specific in terms; shall describe in reasonable detail, and not by reference to the complaint or other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained; and is binding only upon the parties to the action, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and upon those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise.

(e) Statutes. These rules are intended to supplement and not to modify any statute prescribing the basis for obtaining injunctive relief. These rules shall prevail over statutes if there are procedural conflicts.

RULE 65.1

SECURITY—PROCEEDINGS AGAINST SURETIES

Whenever these rules require or permit the giving of security by a party, and security is given in the form of a bond or stipulation or other undertaking with one or more sureties, each surety submits himself to the jurisdiction of the court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the court as his agent upon whom any papers affecting his liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. His liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the court prescribes may be served on the clerk of the court, who shall forthwith mail copies to the sureties if their addresses are known.

RULE 66

RECEIVERSHIP PROCEEDINGS

(a) Generally. Receivership proceedings shall be in accordance with the practice heretofore followed in the superior court or as provided by local rules. In all other respects, the action in which the receiver is sought or which is brought by or against a receiver is governed by these rules.

(b) Dismissal. An action wherein a receiver has been appointed shall not be dismissed except by order of the court.

(c) Notice to Creditors. A general receiver appointed to liquidate and wind up affairs shall, under the direction of the court, give notice to the creditors of the corporation, of the copartnership, or of the individual, by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the action is pending, once each week for 3 weeks, requiring such creditors to file their claims, duly verified, with the receiver, his attorney, or the clerk of the court, within 30 days from the date of first publication of such notice. If necessary to afford proper notice to such creditors, the court may by order enlarge the time for such publication or direct publication of such notice in other counties. In addition to such publication, the receiver shall give actual notice by mail at their last known addresses to all persons and parties to him known to be or to claim to be creditors.

(d) Request for Special Notices. At any time after a receiver is appointed, any person interested in said receivership as a party, creditor, or otherwise, may serve upon the receiver (or upon the attorney for such receiver) and file with the clerk a written request stating that he desires special notice of any and all of the following named matters, steps or proceedings in the administration of said receivership, to wit:

(1) Filing of petitions for sales, leases, or mortgages of any property in the receivership;

(2) Filing of accounts;

(3) Filing of petitions for removal or discharge of receiver;

(4) Such other matters as are officially requested and approved by the court.

Such request shall state the post office address of such person, or his attorney.

(e) Notices and Hearings. Notice of any of the proceedings set out in section (d) of this rule (except petitions for the sale of perishable property, or other personal property, the keeping of which will involve expense or loss) shall be addressed to such person, or his attorney, at his stated post office address and deposited in the United States Post Office with the postage thereon prepaid at least 5 days before the hearing on any of the matters above described; or personal service of such notice may be made on such person or his attorney not less than 5 days before such hearing; and proof of mailing or personal service must be filed with the clerk before the hearing. If upon the hearing it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the notice has been regularly given, the court shall so find in its order of judgment, and such judgment shall be final and conclusive.

RULE 67

DEPOSIT IN COURT

In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of court, may deposit with the court all or any part of such sum or thing. Money paid into court under this rule shall be deposited and withdrawn in accordance with the provisions of RCW 4.44.480 through 4.44.500 or any like statute or rule.

RULE 68

OFFER OF JUDGMENT

At any time more than 10 days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the money or property or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs then accrued. If within 10 days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the court shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. When the liability of one party to another has been determined by verdict or order or judgment, but the amount or extent of the liability remains to be determined by further proceedings, the party adjudged liable may make an offer of judgment, which shall have the same effect as an offer made before trial if it is served within a reasonable time not less than 10 days prior to the commencement of hearings to determine the amount or extent of liability.

RULE 69

EXECUTION

(a) Procedure. The procedure on execution, in proceedings supplementary to and in aid of a judgment, and in proceedings on and in aid of execution shall be in accordance with the practice and procedure of the State as authorized in RCW 6.04, 6.08, 6.12, 6.16, 6.20, 6.24, 6.32, 6.36, and any other applicable statutes.

(b) Supplemental Proceedings. In aid of the judgment or execution, the judgment creditor or his successor in interest when that interest appears of record, may examine any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in these rules for taking depositions or in the manner provided by RCW 6.32.

RULE 70

JUDGMENT FOR SPECIFIC ACTS; VESTING TITLE

If a judgment directs a party to execute a conveyance of land or to deliver deeds or other documents or to perform any other specific act and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the court may direct the act to be done at the cost of the disobedient party by some other person appointed by the court and the act when so done has like effect as if done by the party. On application of the party entitled to performance, the clerk shall issue a writ of attachment or sequestration against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the judgment. The court may also in proper cases adjudge the party in contempt. If real or personal property is within the state, the court in lieu of directing a conveyance thereof may enter a judgment divesting the title of any party and vesting it in others and such judgment has the effect of a conveyance executed in due form of law. When any order or judgment is for the delivery of possession, the party in whose favor it is entered is entitled to a writ of execution or assistance upon application to the clerk.

RULE 71

WITHDRAWAL BY ATTORNEY

(a) Withdrawal by Attorney. Service on an attorney who has appeared for a party in a civil proceeding shall be valid to the extent permitted by statute and rule 5(b) only until the attorney has withdrawn in the manner provided in sections (b), (c), and (d). Nothing in this rule defines the circumstances under which a withdrawal might be denied by the court.

(b) Withdrawal by Order. A court appointed attorney may not withdraw without an order of the court. The client of the withdrawing attorney must be given notice of the motion to withdraw and the date and place the motion will be heard.

(c) Withdrawal by Notice. Except as provided in sections (b) and (d), an attorney may withdraw by notice in the manner provided in this section.

(1) Notice of Intent To Withdraw. The attorney shall file and serve a Notice of Intent To Withdraw on all other parties in the proceeding. The notice shall specify a date when the attorney intends to withdraw, which date shall be at least 10 days after the service of the Notice of Intent To Withdraw. The notice shall include a statement that the withdrawal shall be effective without order of court unless an objection to the withdrawal is served upon the withdrawing attorney prior to the date set forth in the notice. If notice is given before trial, the notice shall include the date set for trial. The notice shall include the names and last known addresses of the persons represented by the withdrawing attorney, unless disclosure of the address would violate the Code of Professional Responsibility, in which case the address may be omitted. If the address is omitted, the notice must contain a statement that after the attorney withdraws, and so long as the address of the withdrawing attorney's client remains undisclosed and no new attorney is substituted, the client may be served by leaving papers with the clerk of the court pursuant to rule 5(b)(1).

(2) Service on Client. Prior to service on other parties, the Notice of Intent To Withdraw shall be served on the persons represented by the withdrawing attorney or sent to them by certified mail, postage prepaid, to their last known mailing addresses. Proof of service or mailing shall be filed, except that the address of the withdrawing attorney's client may be omitted under circumstances defined by subsection (c)(1) of this rule.

(3) Withdrawal Without Objection. The withdrawal shall be effective, without order of court and without the service and filing of any additional papers, on the date designated in the Notice of Intent To Withdraw, unless a written objection to the withdrawal is served by a party on the withdrawing attorney prior to the date specified as the day of withdrawal in the Notice of Intent To Withdraw.

(4) Effect of Objection. If a timely written objection is served, withdrawal may be obtained only by order of the court.

(d) Withdrawal and Substitution. Except as provided in section (b), an attorney may withdraw if a new attorney is substituted by filing and serving a Notice of Withdrawal and Substitution. The notice shall include a statement of the date on which the withdrawal and substitution are effective and shall include the name, address, and signature of the withdrawing attorney and the substituted attorney.

(d) Duty of judges to comply with chief justice's direction. [Reserved. See RCW 2.56.040.]

(ii) Powers. Whenever a visiting judge has heard or tried any case or matter and has departed from the county, he may require the argument or any posttrial motion to be submitted to him on briefs at such place within the state as he may designate and he may sign findings of fact, conclusions of law, judgments and post-trial orders anywhere within the state. See also RCW 2.08.140 and 2.08.150.

(9) Judges Pro Tempore. [Reserved. See RCW 2.08-.180.]

(10) Change of Judge. [Reserved. See RCW 4.12.040 and 4.12.050.]

(11) Court May Fix Amount of Bond in Civil Actions. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.470.]

(d) Superior Courts Always Open. The superior courts are courts of record, and shall be always open, except on nonjudicial days.

(e) No Court on Legal Holidays—Exceptions. [Reserved. See RCW 2.28.100.]

(f) Sessions. The superior court shall hold regular and special sessions at the county seats of the several counties at such times as the judges may determine. Special sessions, i.e., mental illness hearings, juvenile hearings, and proceedings which are authorized to be held before a court commissioner may be held at such times and places as the judges may authorize.

(g) Adjournments.

(1) Power. [Reserved. See RCW 2.28.120.]

(2) Automatic. [Reserved. See RCW 2.28.110.]

(3) Effect. [Reserved. See RCW 2.08.040.]

(h) Summer Recess. No cases shall be tried between the first day of July and the first day of September of each year except by order of the court or by consent of all parties and of the court.

(i) Sessions Where More Than One Judge Sits—Effect of Decrees, Orders, etc. [Reserved. See RCW 2.08.160.]

(j) Trials and Hearings; Orders in Chambers. Except as otherwise authorized by these rules or by statute, all trials upon the merits shall be conducted in open court and so far as convenient in a regular courtroom. All other acts or proceedings may be done or conducted by a judge in chambers, without the attendance of the clerk or other court officials and at any place either within or without the county; but no hearing, other than one ex parte, shall be conducted outside the county in which the cause or proceedings are pending without the consent of all parties affected thereby.

(k) Motion Day—Local Rules. Unless local conditions make it impracticable, the superior court in each county shall establish regular times and places, at intervals sufficiently frequent for the prompt dispatch of business, at which motions requiring notice and hearing may be heard and disposed of; but the judge at any time or place and on such notice, if any, as he considers reasonable may make orders for the advancement, conduct, and hearing of actions.

(l) Submission on Briefs. To expedite its business, the court may make provision by rule or order for the submission and determination of motions without oral hearing upon brief written statements of reasons in support and opposition.

(m) Stipulations. See rule 16.

(n) Seal of Court. [Reserved. See RCW 2.08.050.]

RULE 78

CLERKS

(a) Powers and Duties of Clerks. [Reserved. See RCW 2.32.050.]

(b) Office Hours. The clerk's office with the clerk or a deputy in attendance shall be open during business hours on all days except Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays.

(c) Orders by Clerk. All motions and applications in the clerk's office for issuing mesne process, for issuing final process to enforce and execute judgments, and for other proceedings which do not require allowance or order of the court are grantable of course by the clerk; but his action may be suspended or altered or rescinded by the court upon cause shown.

(d) Receipt and Publication of Depositions. Upon the receipt of a deposition in any case, the clerk shall forthwith endorse the date of the reception upon the wrapper thereof, and shall enter the same upon the appearance docket. Such deposition shall remain unopened until the court shall order the same to be published, which will be at the request of either party. When publication is ordered, the clerk shall endorse upon the same: "This deposition filed [giving the date on the wrapper] and published this _____ day of _____, 19____." The wrapper shall be preserved by the clerk without unnecessary mutilation.

(e) Entry of Judgments and Costs. The clerk shall enter judgment or decree pursuant to the provisions of rule 58 and the same shall then be entered for the sum found due or the relief awarded, with costs and disbursements, if any, to be taxed. Entry of judgment shall not be delayed for the taxing of costs. If no cost bill is filed by the party to whom costs are awarded within 10 days after the entry of the judgment or decree, the clerk shall proceed to tax the following costs and disbursements, namely:

- (1) The statutory attorney fee;
- (2) The clerk's fee;
- (3) The sheriff's fee; and

(4) Other disbursements, the amount whereof plainly appears on the papers in the case, and shall enter the sum thereof in the judgment entry and execution docket. If a cost bill is filed, he shall enter as the amount to be recovered the amount claimed in such cost bill, and no motion to retax costs shall be considered unless the same be filed within 6 days after the filing of the cost bill.

(f) Bonds. The clerk shall at once upon the filing of a bond (except bond for costs) enter the same at large upon the journal. The clerk shall endorse upon every affidavit or undertaking filed to procure a writ of attachment, the day, hour, and minute of filing thereof.

(d) Other Books and Records of Clerk. [Reserved.]

(e) Destruction of Records. [Reserved. See RCW 36.23.065.]

(f) List of Pending Decisions. The clerk of each county shall maintain a permanent, public record showing each case submitted to a judge and not yet decided. Said list shall clearly show what, if any, further action is to be taken by any party or counsel and when said action should be taken. Said list shall be called to the attention of every judge in said county on the first Monday of each calendar month. Any case which shall have been submitted to any visiting judge and not yet decided shall be called to the attention of such visiting judge by mail on said dates.

RULE 80

COURT REPORTERS

(a) [Reserved.]

(b) Electronic Recording. In any civil or criminal proceedings, electronic or mechanical recording devices may be used to record oral testimony and other oral proceedings in lieu of or supplementary to causing shorthand notes thereof to be taken. In ex parte matters the use of such a device shall rest within the sole discretion of the court. In controverted matters, the use of recording devices shall be at the discretion of the court, unless a party of record or his counsel makes timely objection prior to the commencement of the proceedings.

11. GENERAL PROVISIONS (RULES 81–86)

RULE 81

APPLICABILITY IN GENERAL

(a) To What Proceedings Applicable. Except where inconsistent with rules or statutes applicable to special proceedings, these rules shall govern all civil proceedings. Where statutes relating to special proceedings provide for procedure under former statutes applicable generally to civil actions, the procedure shall be governed by these rules.

(b) Conflicting Statutes and Rules. Subject to the provisions of section (a) of this rule, these rules supersede all procedural statutes and other rules that may be in conflict.

RULE 82

VENUE

(a) Nonresident. An action against a nonresident of this state may be brought:

(1) In any county in which service of process may be had; or

(2) In a county in which the acts, or any of them, were done which gave rise to service under RCW 4.28-.180 and 4.28.185; or

(3) In the county in which the plaintiffs, or any of them, reside.

(b) Request—Waiver. If an action is brought in the wrong county, the action may nevertheless be tried therein unless the defendant, pursuant to the provisions of rule 12, requests that the trial be held in the proper county and files an affidavit of merits.

(c) Default. See rule 55(c). No order of default shall be entered if it clearly appears to the court from the papers on file that the action was brought in an improper county, except as provided in rule 55(c)(2)(i) or (ii).

(d) Change of Venue—Fees. Any fees or costs required to be paid by a party pursuant to RCW 4.12.090 shall be to the clerk of the county from which the case is being transferred by check or money order made payable to the clerk of the county to which the case is being transferred.

RULE 83

LOCAL RULES OF SUPERIOR COURT

(a) Adoption. Each superior court by action of a majority of the judges may from time to time make and amend local rules governing its practice not inconsistent with these rules.

(b) Filing With the Administrator for the Courts. Local rules and amendments become effective only after they are filed with the state Administrator for the Courts in accordance with GR 7.

RULE 84

FORMS

[RESERVED]

RULE 85

TITLE OF RULES

These rules shall be known and cited as the Superior Court Civil Rules. CR is the official abbreviation.

RULE 86

EFFECTIVE DATES

Generally—Pending Actions. These rules and amendments promulgated pursuant to authority granted to the Supreme Court shall govern all proceedings in actions after they take effect, and also all further proceedings in actions pending on their effective dates, except to the extent that in the opinion of the superior court, expressed by its order, the application of rules in a particular action pending when the rules take effect would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the procedure existing at the time the action was brought applies.

RULE 1.1

APPLICATION OF RULES

These arbitration rules apply to mandatory arbitration of civil actions under RCW 7.06. These rules do not apply to arbitration by private agreement or to arbitration under other statutes, except by stipulation under rule 8.1.

Judicial Council Comment

A number of statutes authorize arbitration in specific instances. See, e.g., RCW 3.62.070 (justice court filing fee—city and county); 4.56.240 (personal injury damages—annuity payments); 7.70.030 (medical malpractice); 39.04.120 (public works contracts); 39.12.060 (public works contracts); 41.56.450 (collective bargaining by uniformed personnel); 49.66.090 (health care activities); 59.18.320 (landlord-tenant disputes); 77.12.280 (damages caused by game). The rules do not apply to arbitration under these specialized statutes.

The rules do not apply to arbitration by private agreement except when the parties stipulate to arbitration under these rules of a case which would not otherwise be subject to arbitration under RCW 7.06.

These rules do not restrict voluntary methods of settlement such as mediation.

RULE 1.2

MATTERS SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION

A civil action, other than an appeal from a court of limited jurisdiction, is subject to arbitration under these rules if the action is at issue in a superior court in a county which has authorized mandatory arbitration under RCW 7.06, if the sole relief sought is a money judgment, and if (1) no party asserts a claim in excess of $10,000, exclusive of attorney fees, interest and costs, or if (2) all parties for purposes of arbitration waive claims in excess of $10,000, exclusive of attorney fees, interest and costs. Other matters may be arbitrated under these rules only by stipulation under rule 8.1.

Judicial Council Comment

The rule, up through section (1), parallels RCW 7.06.020. A second provision is added allowing arbitration if all parties waive claims in excess of $10,000 for purposes of arbitration. Thus, for example, a plaintiff who could potentially be awarded more than $10,000 may choose to limit the claim to $10,000 in order to qualify for arbitration. Neither provision restricts the assertion of larger claims upon a trial de novo in superior court. A trial de novo is available, however, only to an aggrieved party. Thus, if the plaintiff asserts a claim for $10,000 and is awarded that amount by the arbitrator, the plaintiff is not entitled to a trial de novo under rule 7.1. The plaintiff would be entitled to a trial de novo only if the arbitrator's award were less than the amount claimed by the plaintiff.

Reference is made to rule 8.1, allowing parties to arbitrate by stipulation in cases not otherwise within the statute.

RULE 1.3

RELATIONSHIP TO SUPERIOR COURT JURISDICTION AND OTHER RULES

(a) Superior Court Jurisdiction. A case filed in the superior court remains under the jurisdiction of the superior court in all stages of the proceeding, including arbitration. Except for the authority expressly given to the arbitrator by these rules, all issues shall be determined by the court.

(b) Which Rules Apply. Until a case is assigned to the arbitrator under rule 2.3, the rules of civil procedure apply. After a case is assigned to the arbitrator, these arbitration rules apply except where an arbitration rule states that a civil rule applies.

Judicial Council Comment

Rule 1.3 disengages the court from the arbitration process to the extent feasible. The court, after assignment of a case to the arbitrator, will not ordinarily entertain procedural motions, receive papers for filing, or the like. The case is, for all practical purposes, in the hands of the arbitrator until entry of the award.

The court will intervene in the arbitration process only under the most exceptional circumstances. In most instances, a trial de novo under rule 7.1 or a motion to vacate under rule 7.2 will provide an adequate safeguard against an unjust result from arbitration. See also the comment to rule 3.2.

2. TRANSFER TO ARBITRATION AND ASSIGNMENT OF ARBITRATOR

RULE 2.1

TRANSFER TO ARBITRATION

The point at which a case is transferred to arbitration and the procedures for accomplishing the transfer to an arbitration calendar shall be established by local rule adopted in accordance with rule 8.2.

RULE 2.2

COURT MAY DETERMINE ARBITRABILITY

(a) Generally. The court may, on its own motion or on motion of a party, determine whether a case is actually subject to arbitration under RCW 7.06.020 and rule 1.2 and may accordingly order a case transferred to or from the arbitration calendar. Only in extraordinary circumstances after a case has been assigned to an arbitrator under rule 2.3 will the court order a case returned from the arbitration calendar to the trial calendar.

(b) Effect on Right To Appeal. If a party asserts a claim which disqualifies a case for arbitration but the court nevertheless orders a transfer to arbitration under section (a), any party is deemed aggrieved under rule 7.1 if the arbitrator awards less than the party's original claim.

Judicial Council Comment

The court may determine whether a case should be arbitrated under rule 1.2 and the underlying statute. Thus, for example, if frivolous equitable claims or exaggerated damages are asserted for the sole purpose of avoiding arbitration, the court might order the case transferred to arbitration if the case is otherwise eligible for arbitration.

The second sentence of rule 2.2 reflects the belief that the court should intervene in the arbitration process only under exceptional circumstances. Any party to the arbitration who has asserted a disqualifying claim and has been awarded less than the claimed amount is an "aggrieved party". See also the comments to rules 1.3 and 3.2.

RULE 2.3

ASSIGNMENT TO ARBITRATOR

(a) Generally. The parties may select an arbitrator by stipulation. If an arbitrator is not chosen by stipulation within 14 days after a case has been placed on the arbitration calendar, the court shall promptly select an arbitrator and notify the arbitrator and the parties of the assignment. The case is deemed assigned for purposes of rule 1.3 upon the final selection of the arbitrator under this rule.

(b) Communication With Potential Arbitrator Restricted. The restrictions on communication defined by rule 4.1 apply to communication with a person under consideration as a possible arbitrator in a case.

Judicial Council Comment

Rule 2.3 leaves most of the details of the assignment procedure to be developed by local rule. By local rule, for example, an arbitrator might be selected from a panel on the basis of special expertise or experience. It is expected that by local rule each party will have one opportunity to object to an arbitrator selected by the court, paralleling the opportunity to object to the judge assigned to a trial. Other methods of selection and objection may also be developed locally.

The authority of the arbitrator to act does not arise until the case is assigned to a specific arbitrator and any disputes over the assignment are settled. See rule 1.3.

3. ARBITRATORS

RULE 3.1

QUALIFICATIONS

Unless otherwise ordered or stipulated, an arbitrator must be a member of the Washington State Bar Association who has been admitted to the bar for a minimum of 5 years, or who is a retired judge. The parties may stipulate to a nonlawyer arbitrator.

To qualify as an arbitrator, a person must sign and file an oath of office, either to serve in a particular case, or as a member of a panel of arbitrators.

Judicial Council Comment

The rule requires arbitrators to be lawyers unless otherwise ordered or stipulated. Membership in the Washington State Bar Association is required and assures the ability to discipline an arbitrator who acts improperly. Both active and inactive members qualify under the rule.

RULE 3.2

AUTHORITY OF ARBITRATORS

An arbitrator has the authority to:

- (1) Decide procedural issues arising before or during the arbitration hearing, except issues relating to the qualifications of an arbitrator;
- (2) Invite, with reasonable notice, the parties to submit trial briefs;
- (3) Examine any site or object relevant to the case;
- (4) Issue a subpoena under rule 4.3;
- (5) Administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses;
- (6) Rule on the admissibility of evidence under rule 5.3;
- (7) Determine the facts, decide the law, and make an award;
- (8) Perform other acts as authorized by these rules or local rules adopted and filed under rule 8.2.

Judicial Council Comment

An arbitrator may exercise the authority conferred by rule 3.2 only after the case is assigned to a specific arbitrator and any disputes over the assignment are settled. See rules 1.3 and 2.3. After the case is assigned to an arbitrator, the superior court retains jurisdiction but will intervene in the arbitration process only under the most exceptional circumstances. The court, for example, might entertain a challenge to the qualifications of an arbitrator on grounds which could not reasonably be discovered prior to the assignment of the arbitrator to the case.

Neither the rule nor the underlying statute authorizes the arbitrator to award witness fees or other costs. Costs are not awarded until entry of the judgment on the award.

4. PROCEDURES AFTER ASSIGNMENT

RULE 4.1

RESTRICTIONS ON COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ARBITRATOR AND PARTIES

No disclosure of any offers of settlement made by any party shall be made to the arbitrator prior to the announcement of the award. Neither counsel nor a party may communicate with the arbitrator except in the presence of, or on reasonable notice to, all other parties.

Judicial Council Comment

The Code of Professional Responsibility also restricts ex parte communication between counsel and an arbitrator.

RULE 4.2

DISCOVERY

After the assignment of a case to the arbitrator, a party may demand a specification of damages under RCW 4.28.360, may request from the arbitrator an examination under CR 35, may request admissions from a party under CR 36, and may take the deposition of another party, unless the arbitrator orders otherwise. No additional discovery shall be allowed, except as the parties may stipulate or as the arbitrator may order. The arbitrator will allow discovery only when reasonably necessary.

Judicial Council Comment

Before assignment of a case to an arbitrator, discovery is allowed to the full extent authorized by the civil rules. In determining the extent of discovery, the arbitrator should consider the amount in controversy and the nature of the case.

RULE 4.3

SUBPOENA

In accordance with CR 45, a lawyer of record or the arbitrator may issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness at the arbitration hearing or for the production of documentary evidence at the hearing. A subpoena for discovery purposes may be issued only with the permission of the arbitrator or by stipulation.

Judicial Council Comment

Rule 4.3 allows an arbitrator to issue a subpoena regardless of whether the arbitrator is a lawyer.

5. HEARING

RULE 5.1

NOTICE OF HEARING

The arbitrator shall set the time, date, and place of the hearing and shall give reasonable notice of the hearing date to the parties. Except by stipulation or for good cause shown, the hearing shall be scheduled to take place not sooner than 21 days, nor later than 63 days, from the date of the assignment of the case to the arbitrator. The hearing shall take place in appropriate facilities provided or authorized by the court.

Judicial Council Comment

The rule follows the current practice of defining time limits in multiples of 7 days. This approach allows time to be computed by the week and ordinarily results in the due date falling on a business day.

The last sentence of the rule authorizes a court to allow, by local rule, hearings in facilities other than the courthouse.

RULE 5.2

PREHEARING STATEMENT OF PROOF

At least 14 days prior to the date of the arbitration hearing, each party shall file with the arbitrator and serve upon all other parties a statement containing a list of witnesses whom the party intends to call at the arbitration hearing and a list of exhibits and documentary evidence. The statement shall contain a brief description of the matters about which each witness will be called to testify. Each party, upon request, shall make the exhibits and other documentary evidence available for inspection by other parties. A party failing to comply with this rule or failing to comply with a discovery order may not present at the hearing the witness, exhibit, or documentary evidence required to be disclosed or made available, except with the permission of the arbitrator.

RULE 5.3

CONDUCT OF HEARING

The arbitrator shall exercise reasonable control over the mode and order of interrogating witnesses and presenting evidence so as to (1) make the interrogation and presentation effective for the ascertainment of the facts, (2) avoid needless consumption of time, and (3) protect witnesses from harassment or undue embarrassment. A witness shall be placed under oath or affirmation by the arbitrator prior to presenting testimony, a violation of which oath shall be deemed a contempt of court in addition to any other penalties that may be provided by law. The arbitrator may question a witness. The extent to which the Rules of Evidence will be applied shall be determined in the exercise of discretion of the arbitrator.

Judicial Council Comment

The first sentence is adapted from ER 611(a).

RULE 5.4

ABSENCE OF PARTY AT HEARING

The arbitration hearing may proceed, and an award may be made, in the absence of any party who after due notice fails to participate or to obtain a continuance. If a defendant is absent, the arbitrator shall require the plaintiff to submit the evidence required for the making of an award. In a case involving more than one defendant, the absence of a defendant does not preclude the arbitrator from assessing as part of the award damages against the defendant or defendants who are absent. The arbitrator, for good cause shown, may allow an absent party an opportunity to appear at a subsequent hearing before making an award. A party who fails to participate without good cause waives the right to a trial de novo.

6. AWARD

RULE 6.1

FORM AND CONTENT OF AWARD

The award shall be in writing and signed by the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall determine all issues raised by the pleadings, including a determination of any damages. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are not required.

Judicial Council Comment

Costs are not awarded until entry of a judgment on the award, as in other civil cases.

RULE 6.2

FILING OF AWARD

Within 14 days after the conclusion of the arbitration hearing, the arbitrator shall file the award with the clerk of the superior court, with proof of service of a copy on each party. On the arbitrator's application in cases of unusual length or complexity, the arbitrator may apply for and the court may allow up to 14 additional days for the filing and service of the award. The arbitrator may file with the court and serve upon the parties an amended award to correct an obvious error made in stating the award if done within the time for filing an award or upon application to the superior court to amend.

Judicial Council Comment

The rule does not authorize the use of an amended award to change the arbitrator's decision on the merits. An amended award may only modify an award in order to correct an inadvertent miscalculation or description, to adjust the award in a matter of form rather than substance, or the like. In general, the grounds for modifying an award under this rule parallel the grounds for modifying an award in voluntary, private arbitration. See RCW 7.04.170.

RULE 6.3

JUDGMENT ON AWARD

If within 20 days after the award is filed no party has sought a trial de novo under rule 7.1, the prevailing party on notice as required by CR 54(f) shall present to the court a judgment on the award of arbitration for entry as the final judgment. A judgment so entered is subject to all provisions of law relating to judgments in civil actions, but it is not subject to appellate review and it may not be attacked or set aside except by a motion to vacate under CR 60.

Judicial Council Comment

The judgment on an award is not subject to appellate review. As a practical matter, appellate review is precluded by the lack of a record of the arbitration proceeding. The remedy to correct an error or impropriety in the arbitration proceeding is a trial de novo or a motion to vacate the judgment on the award.

The rule does not restrict appellate review of a judgment following a trial de novo or of a ruling on a motion to vacate.

RULE 6.4

WITNESS FEES AND COSTS

Witness fees and other costs provided for by statute or court rule in superior court proceedings shall be payable upon entry of judgment in the same manner as if the hearing were held in court.

7. TRIAL DE NOVO

RULE 7.1

REQUEST FOR TRIAL DE NOVO

(a) Service and Filing. Within 20 days after the arbitration award is filed with the clerk, any aggrieved party not having waived the right to appeal may serve and file with the clerk a written request for a trial de novo in the superior court along with proof that a copy has been served upon all other parties appearing in the case. The 20-day period within which to request a trial de novo may not be extended.

(b) Calendar. When a trial de novo is requested as provided in section (a), the case shall be transferred from the arbitration calendar in accordance with rule 8.2 in a manner established by local rule.

Judicial Council Comment

Only an aggrieved party may seek a trial de novo. For an explanation of the relationship between this requirement and the claims originally asserted, see rule 2.2 and the comment to rule 1.2.

RULE 7.2

PROCEDURE AT TRIAL

The trial de novo shall be conducted as though no arbitration proceeding had occurred. If tried to a jury, no reference may be made during the trial to the arbitration award, to the fact there had been an arbitration proceeding, or to any other aspect of the arbitration proceeding.

RULE 7.3

COSTS AND ATTORNEY FEES

The court shall assess costs and reasonable attorney fees against a party who appeals the award and fails to improve the party's position on the trial de novo. The court may assess costs and reasonable attorney fees against a party who voluntarily withdraws a request for a trial de novo.

Judicial Council Comment

The provision in rule 7.3 concerning costs and attorney fees upon withdrawal of a request for a trial de novo discourages a party from requesting a trial de novo solely for the purpose of delaying enforcement of the award.

8. GENERAL PROVISIONS

RULE 8.1

STIPULATIONS

(a) Generally. No agreement or consent between parties or lawyers relating to the conduct of the arbitration proceedings, the purport of which is disputed, will be regarded by the arbitrator unless the agreement or consent is made at the arbitration hearing, or unless the agreement or consent is in writing and signed by the lawyers or parties denying the same.

(b) To Arbitrate Other Cases. The parties may stipulate to enter into arbitration under these rules in a civil matter that would not otherwise be subject to arbitration under rule 1.2. A case transferred to arbitration by stipulation is subject to the arbitration rules in their entirety, except as otherwise agreed under section (a).

Judicial Council Comment

Section (a) is an adaptation of CR 2A.

RULE 8.2

LOCAL RULES

The arbitration rules may be supplemented by local superior court rules adopted and filed in accordance with CR 83.

Judicial Council Comment

This rule authorizes the details of administration and procedure to be developed by local rule.

The arbitration rules identify a number of areas in which local rules are appropriate. Rule 2.1, for example, provides that the procedure for transferring a case to an arbitration calendar is to be defined by local rule. The comment to rule 2.3 encourages local rules concerning the selection of an arbitrator and the right of a party to challenge the selection of a particular arbitrator by the court. Rule 7.1 provides that the procedure for scheduling a trial de novo is to be defined by local rule. The fact that local rules are encouraged in some areas does not restrict the adoption of local rules in other areas.

RULE 8.3

EFFECTIVE DATE

These rules shall take effect on July 1, 1980, and shall apply to all cases in which trial has not commenced on the merits by July 1, 1980.

RULE 8.4

TITLE AND CITATION

These rules shall be known and cited as the Superior Court Mandatory Arbitration Rules. MAR is the official abbreviation.

Judicial Council Comment

Reference is made to mandatory arbitration to avoid any implication that the rules apply to voluntary arbitration.

RULE 8.5

STATUS OF COMMENTS

The comments to these rules have not been adopted by the Supreme Court. The comments are solely those of the Judicial Council.

SUPERIOR COURT SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS RULES (SPR)

EXPLANATION

Format. When adopting the format of the rule numbering and subdivision organization of the federal rules it was necessary to remove all miscellaneous rules applicable to special proceedings. This had been partially accomplished because many of these miscellaneous rules had been assigned rule numbers between 87 and 99. These rule numbers continue to be reserved for this purpose and all the miscellaneous rules relating to special proceedings, except criminal, are now renumbered in this series. Other than the addition of subheadings, no major revisions have been undertaken in the Special Proceedings Rules.

Statutes. No attempt has been made to cross-reference applicable statutes.

Abbreviations. These Superior Court Special Proceedings Rules may be cited as SPR.

RULE 90.04W

ATTACHMENTS—DUTIES OF THE SHERIFF

Immediately upon the receipt of a writ of attachment, the sheriff shall endorse thereon, in ink, the day, hour, and minute when the same first came into his hands.

Comment

This rule is identical to and supersedes RPPP 77.20W.

RULE 91.04W

GARNISHMENTS—SERVICE, OBJECTIONS, ETC.

(a) Methods of Service. In any case where a writ of garnishment has issued, the party at whose instance the writ was issued shall, on or before the day of the service of the writ on the garnishee, mail, or cause to be mailed, by certified mail, a copy of the writ to the defendant or judgment debtor in said cause at his last known post office address; or, in the alternative, a copy of the writ shall be served upon the defendant or judgment debtor in the same manner as is required for personal service of summons upon a party to an action on or before the day of the service of said writ on the garnishee or within 2 days thereafter.

(b) Irregularities. This requirement shall not be deemed jurisdictional, but if the copy is not mailed or served as herein provided, or any irregularity shall appear with respect to the mailing or service, the court may, in its discretion on motion of the defendant or judgment debtor promptly made and supported by affidavit showing that he has suffered substantial injury from the failure to mail said copy, set aside the said garnishment.

(c) Objections. The judgment debtor shall make any objections to the entry of judgment based upon the answer of a garnishee prior to the expiration of the time within which the garnishment should have been answered.

(d) Judgment Against Garnishee. No judgment based on the answer of the garnishee, or upon failure to answer shall be entered prior to the expiration of the time within which the garnishee is required to answer.

(e) Proof of Service. The date of service of the writ of garnishment on the defendant and on the garnishee shall be determined by proof of service or by such other evidence deemed by the court to be satisfactory.

(f) Applicability. This rule shall apply to garnishments in both the superior courts and justice courts in the state of Washington and shall supplement RCW 7.33.

RULE 93.04W

DISPOSITION OF REPORTS—ADOPTIONS

Any report filed by the next friend of the child in any adoption proceeding insofar as it affects or concerns the adopters shall be open to inspection by the adopter and his attorney. Such report at the close of the entire proceeding shall be sealed and filed by the clerk in the record of the adoption proceeding, or in the discretion of the court shall be destroyed and, in any event, it shall not be disclosed to any person without a special order therefor in writing by the judge, and shall thereafter be sealed as before.

Comment

This rule is identical to RPPP 92.04W.

RULE 98.08W

ESTATES—SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS BY EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS AND RECEIVERS

In all actions or proceedings in which executors, administrators, receivers, or other persons having charge or settlement of any estate, apply to the court for an order allowing a claim to be compromised and settled for less than its face value, the court shall appoint a day not less than 5 days after such application for hearing the same, unless for good cause shown less time should intervene, and direct the giving of such notice as may be deemed proper.

Comment

This rule is identical to the first paragraph of RPPP 98.08W.

RULE 98.10W

ESTATES—RECEIVERSHIP—REPORTS

All reports of receivers which involve an accounting shall be filed at least 10 days before the hearing. On filing and presentation of such report the court will appoint a time for hearing the same, and will direct such notice to be given as will most likely advise all interested parties of such hearing.

Comment

This rule is identical to the second paragraph of RPPP 98.08W.

RULE 98.12W

ESTATES GENERALLY—FEES

Before compensation shall be allowed to any executor, administrator, guardian, or attorney in connection with any probate matter or proceeding, or to any receiver or his attorney, and before any agreement therefor shall be approved, the amount of compensation claimed shall be definitely and clearly set forth in the application therefor, and all parties interested in the matter shall be given notice of the amount claimed in such manner as shall be fixed by statute, or, in the absence of statute, as shall be directed by the court; unless such application be filed with or made a part of a report or final account of such executor, administrator, guardian, or receiver.

Comment

No change is made in this rule.

RULE 98.16W

ESTATES—GUARDIANSHIP—SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS OF MINORS

(a) Representation. In every case where there is a settlement involving a beneficial interest or claim of a person under the age of 18, hereinafter referred to as a minor, the court must appoint an independent guardian ad litem to investigate the adequacy of the offered settlement and file a written report. Said guardian ad litem shall be an attorney at law and shall serve in said capacity with the authority to withdraw funds on order of the court after ex parte hearing on petition setting forth the grounds therefor, on behalf of the minor by order until the minor attains the age of 18 or until relieved by the court. The court may dispense with the appointment of the guardian ad litem if a general guardian has been previously appointed or if the court affirmatively finds that the minor is represented by independent counsel.

(b) Hearing. At the time the petition for approval of the settlement is heard, the allowance and taxation of all fees, costs, and other charges incident to the settlement of the minor's claim shall be considered and disposed of by the court.

(c) Deposit in Court and Disbursements. The total judgment shall be paid into the registry of the court. All sums deductible therefrom including costs, attorney fees, hospital and medical expenses, and any other expense, shall be paid upon approval of the court.

(d) Control of Remaining Funds.

(1) Under $5,000. If the money or the value of other property remaining is $5,000 or less and there is no general guardian of the ward, the court shall require that (i) the money be deposited in a bank or trust company or be invested in an account in an insured financial institution for the benefit of the ward subject to withdrawal only upon the order of the court as a part of the original proceeding, or (ii) a general guardian be appointed and the money or other property be paid or delivered to such guardian.

(2) Over $5,000. If the money or the value of other property remaining exceeds $5,000, and there is no general guardian of the ward, the court in the order or judgment shall require that a general guardian be appointed.

(e) Deposit of Minor's Funds. Checks for funds that go to the minor may be made out by the clerk jointly to the depository bank, trust company, or insured financial institution and the independent attorney for the minor, guardian ad litem or general guardian and deposit shall be made in a blocked account for the minor with provision that withdrawals cannot be made without court order. A deposit receipt to that effect must forthwith be filed with the court by the attorney or guardian.

RULE 98.20W

ESTATES—GUARDIANSHIPS—AUTHORIZATION OF EXPENDITURES

Judges of the superior court in charge of probate, in directing and authorizing a guardian of the estate of the ward to make expenditures from the estate in monthly or other periodic installments, shall limit the term of such order to a period not greater than 12 months.

Comment
This rule is identical to RPPP 98.16W.

SUPERIOR COURT CRIMINAL RULES (CrR)

1. SCOPE, PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION

- Rule
1.1 Scope
1.2 Purpose and Construction
1.3 Effect
1.4 Prosecuting Attorney Definition

RULE 1.1

SCOPE

These rules govern the procedure in the courts of general jurisdiction of the State of Washington in all criminal proceedings and supersede all procedural statutes and rules that may be in conflict and shall be interpreted and supplemented in light of the common law and the decisional law of this state. These rules shall not be construed to affect or derogate from the constitutional rights of any defendant.

RULE 1.2

PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION

These rules are intended to provide for the just determination of every criminal proceeding. They shall be construed to secure simplicity in procedure, fairness in administration, effective justice, and the elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay.

EFFECT

Except as otherwise provided elsewhere in these rules, on their effective date:

(a) Any acts done before the effective date in any proceedings then pending or any action taken in any proceeding pending under rules of procedure in effect prior to the effective date of these rules and any constitutional right are not impaired by these rules.

(b) These rules also apply to any proceedings in court then pending or thereafter commenced regardless of when the proceedings were commenced, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court, the former procedure should continue to be made applicable in a particular case in the interest of justice or because of infeasibility of application of the procedures of these rules.

RULE 1.4

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY DEFINITION

Whenever used in these rules, prosecuting attorney shall include deputy prosecuting attorneys, or such other person as may be designated by statute.

2. PROCEDURES PRIOR TO ARREST AND OTHER SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

Rule

- 2.1 The Indictment and the Information
2.2 Warrant of Arrest and Summons
2.3 Search and Seizure

RULE 2.1

THE INDICTMENT AND THE INFORMATION

(a) Use of Indictment or Information. The initial pleading by the State shall be an indictment or an information in all criminal proceedings filed by the prosecuting attorney.

(b) Nature and Contents. The indictment or the information shall be a plain, concise and definite written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney. Allegations made in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count. It may be alleged that the means by which the defendant committed the offense are unknown or that he committed it by one or more specified means. The indictment or information shall state for each count the official or customary citation of the statute, rule, regulation or other provision of law which the defendant is alleged therein to have violated. Error in the citation or its omission shall not be ground for dismissal of the indictment or information or for reversal of a conviction if the error or omission did not mislead the defendant to his prejudice.

(c) Surplusage. The court on motion of the defendant may strike surplusage from the indictment or information.

(d) Amendment of Information. The court may permit any information to be amended at any time before verdict or finding if substantial rights of the defendant are not prejudiced.

(e) Bill of Particulars. The court may direct the filing of a bill of particulars. A motion for a bill of particulars may be made before arraignment or within 10 days after arraignment or at such later time as the court may permit. A bill of particulars may be amended at any time subject to such conditions as justice requires.

RULE 2.2

WARRANT OF ARREST AND SUMMONS

(a) Warrant of Arrest. If an indictment is found or an information is filed, the court may direct the clerk to issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant. A warrant of arrest must be supported by an affidavit or affidavits or sworn testimony establishing the grounds for issuing the warrant which shall be recorded electronically or stenographically. The court must determine that there is probable cause for the issuance of the warrant. The finding of probable cause may be based on evidence which is hearsay in whole or in part.

(b) Issuance of Summons in Lieu of Warrant.

(1) Generally. If an indictment is found or an information is filed, the court may direct the clerk to issue a summons commanding the defendant to appear before the court at a specified time and place.

(2) When Summons Must Issue. If the indictment or information charges only the commission of a misdemeanor or a gross misdemeanor, the court shall direct the clerk to issue a summons instead of a warrant unless it finds reasonable cause to believe that the defendant will not appear in response to a summons, or that arrest is necessary to prevent serious bodily harm to the accused or another, in which case it may issue a warrant.

(3) Summons. A summons shall be in writing and in the name of the State of Washington, shall be signed by the clerk with the title of his office, and shall state the date when issued and the county where issued. It shall state the name of the defendant and shall summon the defendant to appear before the court at a stated time and place.

(4) Failure To Appear on Summons. If a person fails to appear in response to a summons, or if service is not effected within a reasonable time, a warrant for arrest may issue.

(c) Requisites of a Warrant. The warrant shall be in writing and in the name of the State of Washington, shall be signed by the clerk with the title of his office, and shall state the date when issued and the county where issued. It shall specify the name of the defendant, or if his name is unknown, any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty. The warrant shall specify the offense charged against the defendant and that the court has found that probable cause exists to believe the defendant has committed the offense charged and shall command that the defendant be arrested and brought forthwith before the court issuing the warrant. If the offense is bailable, the judge shall set forth in the order for the warrant, bail, or other conditions of release.

(d) Execution; Service.

(1) Execution of Warrant. The warrant shall be directed to all peace officers in the state and shall be executed only by a peace officer.

(2) Service of Summons. The summons may be served any place within the state. It shall be served by a peace officer who shall deliver a copy of the same to the defendant personally, or it may be served by mailing the same, postage prepaid, to the defendant at his address.

(e) Return. The officer executing a warrant shall make return thereof to the court before whom the defendant is brought pursuant to these rules. At the request of the prosecuting attorney any unexecuted warrant shall be returned to the judge by whom issued and shall be canceled by him. The person to whom a summons has been delivered for service shall, on or before the return date, file a return thereof with the judge before whom summons is returnable. For reasonable cause, the judge may order that the warrant be returned to him.

(f) Defective Warrant or Summons.

(1) Amendment. No person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons shall be discharged from custody or dismissed because of any irregularity in the warrant or summons, but the warrant or summons may be amended so as to remedy any such irregularity.

(2) Issuance of New Warrant or Summons. If during the preliminary examination of any person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons, it appears that the warrant or summons does not properly name or describe the defendant or the offense with which he is charged, or that although not guilty of the offense specified in the warrant or summons, there is reasonable ground to believe that he is guilty of some other offense, the judge shall not discharge or dismiss the defendant but may allow a new indictment or information to be filed and shall thereupon issue a new warrant or summons.

RULE 2.3

SEARCH AND SEIZURE

(a) Authority To Issue Warrant. A search warrant authorized by this rule may be issued by the court upon request of a peace officer or a prosecuting attorney.

(b) Property or Persons Which May Be Seized With a Warrant. A warrant may be issued under this rule to search for and seize any (1) evidence of a crime; or (2) contraband, the fruits of crime, or things otherwise criminally possessed; or (3) weapons or other things by means of which a crime has been committed or reasonably appears about to be committed; or (4) person for whose arrest there is probable cause, or who is unlawfully restrained.

(c) Issuance and Contents. A search warrant may be issued only if the court determines there is probable cause for the issuance of a warrant. There must be an affidavit or affidavits or sworn testimony establishing the grounds for issuing the warrant. The sworn testimony may be an electronically recorded telephonic statement. The recording or a duplication of the recording shall be a part of the court record and shall be transcribed if requested by a party if there is a challenge to the validity of the warrant or if ordered by the court. The finding of probable cause may be based on evidence which is hearsay in whole or in part. If the court finds that probable cause for the issuance of a warrant exists, it shall issue a warrant or direct an individual whom it authorizes for such purpose to affix the court's signature to a warrant identifying the property or person and naming or describing the person, place or thing to be searched. The judge shall record a summary of any additional evidence on which he relies. The warrant shall be directed to any peace officer. It shall command the officer to search, within a specified period of time not to exceed 10 days, the person, place, or thing named for the property or person specified. It shall designate to whom it shall be returned. The warrant may be served at any time.

(d) Execution and Return With Inventory. The peace officer taking property under the warrant shall give to the person from whom or from whose premises the property is taken a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken. If no such person is present, the officer may post a copy of the search warrant and receipt. The return shall be made promptly and shall be accompanied by a written inventory of any property taken. The inventory shall be made in the presence of the person from whose possession or premises the property is taken, or in the presence of at least one person other than the officer. The judge shall upon request deliver a copy of the inventory to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was taken and to the applicant for the warrant.

(e) Motion for Return of Property. A person aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the court for the return of the property on the ground that the property was illegally seized and that he is lawfully entitled to possession thereof. If the motion is granted the property shall be returned. If a motion for return of property is made or comes on for hearing after an indictment or information is filed in the court in which the motion is pending, it shall be treated as a motion to suppress.

(f) Searches of Media.

(1) Scope. If an application for a search warrant is governed by RCW 10.79.015(3) or 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000aa et seq., this section controls the procedure for obtaining the evidence.

(2) Subpoena Duces Tecum. Except as provided in subsection (3), if the court determines that the application satisfies the requirements for issuance of a warrant, as provided in section (c) of this rule, the court shall issue a subpoena duces tecum in accordance with CR 45(b).

(3) Warrant. If the court determines that the application satisfies the requirements for issuance of a warrant and that RCW 10.79.015(3) and 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000aa et seq. permit issuance of a search warrant rather than a subpoena duces tecum, the court may issue a warrant.

3. RIGHTS OF DEFENDANTS

Rule

- 3.1 Right to and Assignment of Counsel
- 3.2 Release of Accused
- 3.2A Preliminary Appearance
- 3.3 Time for Trial
- 3.4 Presence of the Defendant
- 3.5 Confession Procedure
- 3.6 Suppression Hearings—Duty of Court

RULE 3.1

RIGHT TO AND ASSIGNMENT OF COUNSEL

(a) Types of Proceedings. The right to counsel shall extend to all criminal proceedings for offenses punishable by loss of liberty regardless of their denomination as felonies, misdemeanors, or otherwise.

(b) Stage of Proceedings.

(1) The right to counsel shall accrue as soon as feasible after the defendant is taken into custody, when he appears before a committing magistrate, or when he is formally charged, whichever occurs earliest.

(2) Counsel shall be provided at every stage of the proceedings, including sentencing, appeal, and post-conviction review. Counsel initially appointed shall continue to represent the defendant through all stages of the proceedings unless a new appointment is made by the court following withdrawal of original counsel pursuant to section (e) because geographical considerations or other factors make it necessary.

(c) Explaining the Availability of a Lawyer.

(1) When a person is taken into custody he shall immediately be advised of his right to counsel. Such advice shall be made in words easily understood, and it shall be stated expressly that a person who is unable to pay a lawyer is entitled to have one provided without charge.

(2) At the earliest opportunity a person in custody who desires counsel shall be provided access to a telephone, the telephone number of the public defender or official responsible for assigning counsel, and any other means necessary to place him in communication with a lawyer.

(d) Assignment of Counsel.

(1) Unless waived, counsel shall be provided to any person who is financially unable to obtain one without causing substantial hardship to himself or his family. Counsel shall not be denied to any person merely because his friends or relatives have resources adequate to retain counsel or because he has posted or is capable of posting bond.

(2) The ability to pay part of the cost of counsel shall not preclude assignment. The assignment of counsel may be conditioned upon part payment pursuant to an established method of collection.

(e) Withdrawal of Attorneys. Whenever a criminal cause has been set for trial, no attorney shall be allowed to withdraw from said cause, except upon written consent of the court, for good and sufficient reason shown.

(f) Services Other Than Counsel. Counsel for a defendant who is financially unable to obtain investigative, expert, or other services necessary to an adequate defense in his case may request them by a motion. Upon finding that the services are necessary and that the defendant is financially unable to obtain them, the court shall authorize counsel to obtain the services on behalf of the defendant. The courts, in the interest of justice and on a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could not await prior authorization, shall ratify such services after they have been obtained.

The court shall determine reasonable compensation for the services and direct payment to the organization or person who rendered them upon the filing of a claim for compensation supported by affidavit specifying the time expended and the services, and expenses incurred on behalf of the defendant, and the compensation received in the same case or for the same services from any other source.

RULE 3.2

RELEASE OF ACCUSED

(a) Release in Noncapital Cases. Any person, other than a person charged with a capital offense, shall at his preliminary appearance or reappearance pursuant to rule 3.2A or JCrR 2.03 be ordered released on his personal recognizance pending trial unless the court determines that such recognizance will not reasonably assure his appearance, when required. If the court finds that release should be denied or that conditions should attach to the release on personal recognizance, other than the promise to appear for trial, the court shall proceed to determine whether probable cause exists to believe that the accused committed the offense charged, unless this determination has previously been made by a court. Before making the determination, the court may consider an affidavit or affidavits filed or sworn testimony and further may examine under oath the affiant and any witnesses he may produce. The court shall impose the least restrictive of the following conditions that will reasonably assure the accused's appearance or, if no single condition gives that assurance, any combination of the following conditions:

- (1) Place the accused in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him;
- (2) Place restrictions on the travel, association, or place of abode of the accused during the period of release;
- (3) Require the execution of an unsecured appearance bond in a specified amount;
- (4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount and the deposit in the registry of the court in cash or other security as directed, of a sum not to exceed 10 percent of the amount of the bond, such deposit to be returned upon the performance of the conditions of release;
- (5) Require the execution of an appearance bond with sufficient solvent sureties, or the deposit of cash in lieu thereof;
- (6) Require the accused to return to custody during specified hours; or
- (7) Impose any condition other than detention deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required.

(b) Relevant Factors. In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure the accused's appearance, the court shall, on the available information, consider the relevant facts including: the length and character of the accused's residence in the community; his employment status and history and financial condition; his family ties and relationships; his reputation, character and mental condition; his history of response to legal process; his prior criminal record; the willingness of responsible members of the community to vouch for the accused's reliability and assist him in appearing in court; the nature of the charge; and any other factors indicating the accused's ties to the community.

(c) Conditions of Release. Upon a showing that there exists a substantial danger that the accused will commit a serious crime or that he will seek to intimidate witnesses, or otherwise unlawfully interfere with the administration of justice, the court, upon the accused's release, may impose one or more of the following conditions:

- (1) Prohibit him from approaching or communicating with particular persons or classes of persons;
- (2) Prohibit him from going to certain geographical areas or premises;
- (3) Prohibit him from possessing any dangerous weapons, or engaging in certain described activities or indulging in intoxicating liquors or in certain drugs;
- (4) Require him to report regularly to and remain under the supervision of an officer of the court or other person or agency.

(d) Delay of Release. The court may delay release of a person in the following circumstances:

- (1) If the person is intoxicated and his release will jeopardize his safety or that of others, the court may delay release of the person or have the person transferred to the custody and care of a treatment center.
- (2) If the person's mental condition is such that the court believes he should be interviewed by a mental health professional for possible commitment to a mental treatment facility pursuant to RCW 71.05, the court may delay release of the person.
- (3) Unless other grounds exist for continued detention, a person detained pursuant to this section must be released from detention not later than 24 hours after the preliminary appearance.

(e) Release in Capital Cases. Any person charged with a capital offense shall be released in accordance with sections (a) through (c) unless the court has reason to believe that no one or more conditions of release will reasonably assure that the accused will not flee the state or pose a substantial danger to another or the community. If a risk of flight or danger is believed to exist, the person may be ordered detained.

(f) Release After Finding or Plea of Guilty. After a person has been found or pleaded guilty, the court may revoke, modify, or suspend the terms of release previously ordered.

(g) Order for Release. A court authorizing the release of the accused under this rule shall issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any, shall inform him of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions imposed, if any, shall inform him of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of his release and shall advise him that a warrant for his arrest may be issued upon any such violation.

(h) Review of Conditions. Upon determining the conditions of release, the court, upon request, after 24 hours from the time of release, may review the conditions previously imposed.

(i) Amendment of Order. The court ordering the release of an accused on any condition specified in this rule may at any time on change of circumstances or showing of good cause amend its order to impose additional or different conditions for release.

(j) Arrest for Violation of Conditions.

(1) Arrest With Warrant. Upon the court's own motion or a verified application by the prosecuting attorney alleging with specificity that an accused has willfully violated a condition of his release, a court shall order the accused to appear for immediate hearing or issue a warrant directing the arrest of the accused for immediate hearing for reconsideration of conditions of release pursuant to section (i).

(2) Arrest Without Warrant. A law enforcement officer having probable cause to believe that an accused released pending trial for a felony is about to leave the state or has violated a condition of such release under circumstances rendering the securing of a warrant impracticable may arrest the accused and take him forthwith before the court for reconsideration of conditions of release pursuant to section (i).

(k) Evidence. Information stated in, or offered in connection with, any order entered pursuant to this rule need not conform to the rules pertaining to the admissibility of evidence in a court of law.

(l) Forfeiture. Nothing contained in this rule shall be construed to prevent the disposition of any case or class of cases by forfeiture of collateral security where such disposition is authorized by the court.

(m) Accused Discharged on Recognizance or Bail—Absence—Forfeiture. If the accused has been discharged on his own recognizance, on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear when his personal appearance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the recognizance, or of the money deposited, may direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest.

RULE 3.2A

PRELIMINARY APPEARANCE

(a) Preliminary Appearance.

(1) Unless a defendant has appeared or will appear before a court of limited jurisdiction for a preliminary appearance pursuant to JCrR 2.03(a), any defendant whether detained in jail or subjected to court authorized conditions of release, and any person in whose case the juvenile court has entered a written order declining jurisdiction, must be taken or required to appear before the superior court as soon as practicable after the detention is commenced, the conditions of release are imposed or the order is entered, but in any event before the close of business on the next judicial day. A person is not subject to conditions of release if the person has been served with a summons and the only obligation is to appear in court on a future date.

(2) If a defendant is unavailable for preliminary appearance because of physical or mental disability, the court may, for good cause shown and recited in a written order, enlarge the time prior to preliminary appearance.

(b) Procedure at Preliminary Appearance. At the preliminary appearance the court shall orally inform the defendant:

(1) Of the nature of the charge against the defendant, and;

(2) Of the right to be assisted by a lawyer at every stage of the proceedings.

The court shall provide for counsel pursuant to rule 3.1 and for pretrial release pursuant to rule 3.2.

(c) Time Limits.

(1) Unless an information or indictment is filed or the affected person consents in writing or on the record in open court, a defendant shall not be detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release for more than 72 hours after the defendant's detention in jail or release on conditions, whichever occurs first. Computation of the 72-hour period shall not include any part of Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays.

(2) If no complaint, information or indictment has been filed at the time of the preliminary appearance, and the defendant has not otherwise consented, the court at a time certain which is within the period described in subsection (c)(1), shall either (i) require that the defendant be released from jail or exonerated from the conditions of release, or (ii) set a time at which the defendant shall reappear before the court. The time for reappearance must also be within the period described in subsection (c)(1). If no complaint, information or indictment has been filed by the time set for release or reappearance, the defendant shall be immediately released from jail or deemed exonerated from all conditions of release.

RULE 3.3

TIME FOR TRIAL

(a) Responsibility of Court. It shall be the responsibility of the court to ensure a trial in accordance with this rule to each person charged with having committed a crime.

(b) Precedence Over Civil Cases. Criminal trials shall take precedence over civil trials.

(c) Time for Arraignment and Trial.

(1) Cases Filed Directly in Superior Court. If the defendant is detained in jail or subject to conditions of release, the defendant shall be arraigned not later than 14 days after the date the information or indictment is filed directly in superior court. If the defendant is not detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the defendant shall be arraigned not later than 14 days after that appearance in superior court which next follows the filing of the information or indictment. A defendant not released from jail pending trial shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the date of arraignment. A defendant released from jail whether or not subjected to conditions of release pending trial shall be brought to trial not later than 90 days after the date of arraignment.

(2) Cases Filed Initially in District Court.

(i) If after proceedings have been initiated in district court an information or indictment is filed with the superior court, and if at the time the information or indictment is filed the defendant is detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the defendant shall be arraigned not later than 14 days after the date the information or indictment is filed. If after proceedings have been initiated in district court an information or indictment is filed with the superior court, and if at the time the information or indictment is filed the defendant is not detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the defendant shall be arraigned not later than 14 days after the date of that appearance in superior court which next follows the filing of the information or indictment. A defendant not released from jail pending trial shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the date of arraignment, less time elapsed in district court. A defendant released from jail whether or not subjected to conditions of release pending trial shall be brought to trial not later than 90 days after the date of arraignment, less time elapsed in district court.

(ii) "Time elapsed in district court" means the following: If at the time a complaint is filed with the district court a defendant is detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, time elapsed in district court commences on the date the complaint is filed. If at the time a complaint is filed with the district court the defendant is not detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, time elapsed in district court commences on the date of the defendant's appearance in district court which next follows the filing of the complaint. Time elapsed in district court ends with the earlier of (a) an oral or written order of dismissal entered by the district court, or (b) the filing of an information or indictment in superior court. Time elapsed in district court does not include time which was the subject of a stipulation entered into pursuant to JCrR 2.03(d)(3).

(3) Cases Filed Initially in Juvenile Court. If an information or indictment is filed with the superior court after a juvenile court has declined jurisdiction, and if at the time the information or indictment is filed the defendant is detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the defendant shall be arraigned not later than 14 days after the date the information or indictment is filed. If an information or indictment is filed with the superior court after a juvenile court has declined jurisdiction, and if at the time the information or indictment is filed the defendant is not detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the defendant shall be arraigned not later than 14 days after that appearance in superior court which next follows the filing of the information or indictment. A defendant not released from jail pending trial in superior court shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the date of arraignment. A defendant released from jail whether or not subjected to conditions of release pending trial in superior court shall be brought to trial not later than 90 days after the date of arraignment.

(4) Untimely Arraignment. If a defendant is not arraigned within the time limits of this rule and an objection to the date of arraignment has been made as required by section (e) of this rule, the time for trial established in this section shall commence on the last day the defendant could properly have been arraigned.

(5) Rearraignment. If a defendant is required to be rearraigned on a charge that arises out of the same occurrence and has the same elements of proof as those upon which the defendant was previously arraigned, the time for trial established in this section shall commence on the date of the previous arraignment in superior court.

(6) Arraignment Defined. As used in CrR 3.3, "arraignment" means the date on which a plea is entered to the charge.

(d) Extensions of Time for Trial. The following extensions of time limits apply notwithstanding the provisions of section (c):

(1) Revocation of Release. A defendant who has been released from jail pending trial, pursuant to an order imposing conditions of release, but whose release is then revoked by order of the court, shall be brought to trial within such a time period that the defendant spends no more than a total of 60 days in jail following the date of arraignment, and in any event within such a time period that the defendant is tried not later than a total of 90 days after the date of arraignment unless the time period is otherwise extended by this rule.

(2) Failure To Appear. When a defendant who has already been arraigned fails to appear for any trial or pretrial proceeding at which the defendant's presence is required pursuant to rule 3.4, the defendant shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the date upon which the defendant is present in the county where the criminal charge is pending and the defendant's presence has been made known to the court on the record, if the defendant is thereafter detained in jail or not later than 90 days after such date if the defendant is not detained in jail whether or not the defendant is thereafter subjected to conditions of release.

(3) Mistrial and New Trial. If before verdict the superior court orders a mistrial, the defendant shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the oral order of the court if the defendant is thereafter detained in jail or not later than 90 days after the oral order if the defendant is not detained in jail and whether or not the defendant is subjected to conditions of release. If after verdict the superior court orders a new trial, the defendant shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after entry of the written order of the court if the defendant is thereafter detained in jail, or not later than 90 days after entry of such written order if the defendant is not detained in jail and whether or not the defendant is thereafter subjected to conditions of release.

(4) Retrial After Appellate Reversal. If an appellate court orders a new trial, the defendant shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after that appearance in superior court which next follows receipt by the clerk of the superior court of the mandate or other written order, if after such appearance the defendant is detained in jail, or not later than 90 days after such appearance if the defendant is thereafter released whether or not subject to conditions of release.

(5) Change of Venue. If a change of venue has been granted pursuant to rule 5.2, the case shall be transferred to the receiving court as soon as practicable but within 7 days and the defendant shall be brought to trial as prescribed by this rule or not later than 30 days following the date upon which the court to which the case is being transferred for trial receives the filing of the case, whichever is later. If, however, after a change of venue is attempted, the criminal calendar of the receiving county will prevent compliance with the time limits within this section, the trial shall commence on the earliest available date permitted by the criminal calendar of the receiving county.

(6) Disqualification. If the prosecuting attorney or judge becomes disqualified from participating in the case, the defendant shall be brought to trial as prescribed by this rule or not later than 30 days following the disqualification, whichever is later.

(7) Withdrawal of Guilty Plea. If a defendant has been permitted to withdraw a plea of guilty, the defendant shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the date of the written order allowing withdrawal of the guilty plea if the defendant is thereafter detained in jail or not later than 90 days if the defendant is thereafter released from jail, whether or not subjected to conditions of release.

(8) Five-Day Extensions. When a trial is not begun on the date set because of unavoidable or unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the court or the parties, the court, even if the time for trial has expired, may extend the time within which trial must be held for no more than 5 days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays unless the defendant will be substantially prejudiced in his or her defense. The court must state on the record or in writing the reasons for the extension. If the nature of the unforeseen or unavoidable circumstance continues, the court may extend the time for trial in increments of not to exceed 5 days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays unless the defendant will be substantially prejudiced in his or her defense. The court must state on the record or in writing the reasons for the extension.

(e) Objection to Arraignment Date—Waiver of Objection. A party who objects to the date of arraignment on the ground that it is not within the time limits prescribed by this rule must state the objection to the court at the time of the arraignment. If the court rules that the objection is correct, it shall establish and announce the proper date of arraignment pursuant to section (c) of this rule, and the time for trial set out in section (c) shall be deemed to have commenced on that date. Failure of a party to object as required shall be a waiver of the objection, and the date of arraignment shall be conclusively established as the date upon which the defendant was actually arraigned.

(f) Setting of Trial Date—Notice to Parties—Objection to Trial Date—Waiver.

(1) The court shall, within 15 days of the defendant's actual arraignment in superior court, set a date for trial which is within the time limits prescribed by this rule, and notify counsel for each party of the date set. If a party is not represented by counsel, the notice shall be given to the party, and may be mailed to the party's last known address. The notice shall set forth the proper date of the defendant's arraignment as established at the time of arraignment, the date set for trial and the number of days which will elapse before the trial date. A party who objects to the date set upon the ground that it is not within the time limits prescribed by this rule must, within 10 days after the notice is mailed or otherwise given, move that the court set a trial within those time limits. Failure of a party, for any reason, to make such a motion shall be a waiver of the objection that a trial commenced on such date, or on an extension of such date properly granted pursuant to this rule, is not within the time limits prescribed by this rule.

(2) When the court determines that the trial date should be reset for any reason, including but not limited to the applicability of a period of extension pursuant to section (d) or a period of exclusion pursuant to section (g), the court shall set a new date for trial which is within the time limits prescribed and notify each counsel or party of the date set as provided in subsection (f)(1). A party who objects to the date set on the ground that it is not within the time limits prescribed by this rule must, within 10 days after the notice is mailed or otherwise given, move that the court set a trial date within those time limits. Failure of a party, for any reason, to make such a motion shall be a waiver of the objection that a trial commenced on such a date or on an extension of such date granted pursuant to subsection (d)(8), is not within the time limits prescribed by this rule.

(g) Excluded Periods. The following periods shall be excluded in computing the time for arraignment and the time for trial:

(1) All proceedings relating to the competency of a defendant to stand trial, terminating when the court enters a written order finding the defendant to be competent;

(2) Preliminary proceedings and trial on another charge except as otherwise provided by CrR 3.3(c)(5);

(3) Delay granted by the court pursuant to section (h).

(4) The time between the dismissal of a charge and the defendant's arraignment or rearraignment in superior court following the refile of the same charge;

(5) Delay resulting from a stay granted by an appellate court;

(6) The time during which a defendant is detained in jail or prison outside the state of Washington or in a federal jail or prison and the time during which a defendant is subjected to conditions of release not imposed by a court of the State of Washington;

(7) All proceedings in juvenile court.

(h) Continuances. Continuances or other delays may be granted as follows:

(1) Upon written agreement of the parties which must be signed by the defendant or all defendants. The agreement shall be effective when approved by the court on the record or in writing.

(2) On motion of the State, the court or a party, the court may continue the case when required in the administration of justice and the defendant will not be substantially prejudiced in the presentation of his or her defense. The motion must be filed on or before the date set for trial or the last day of any continuance or extension granted pursuant to this rule. The court must state on the record or in writing the reasons for the continuance.

(i) Dismissal With Prejudice. A criminal charge not brought to trial within the time period provided by this rule shall be dismissed with prejudice.

RULE 3.4

PRESENCE OF THE DEFENDANT

(a) When Necessary. The defendant shall be present at the arraignment, at every stage of the trial including the empaneling of the jury and the return of the verdict, and at the imposition of sentence, except as otherwise provided by these rules, or as excused or excluded by the court for good cause shown.

(b) Effect of Voluntary Absence. In prosecutions for offenses not punishable by death, the defendant's voluntary absence after the trial has commenced in his presence shall not prevent continuing the trial to and including the return of the verdict. A corporation may appear by counsel for all purposes. In prosecutions for offenses punishable by fine only, the court, with the written consent of the defendant, may permit arraignment, plea, trial and imposition of sentence in the defendant's absence.

(c) Defendant Not Present. If in any case the defendant is not present when his personal attendance is necessary, the court may order the clerk to issue a warrant for his arrest, which may be served as a warrant of arrest in other cases.

RULE 3.5

CONFESSION PROCEDURE

(a) Requirement for and Time of Hearing. When a statement of the accused is to be offered in evidence, the judge at the time of the omnibus hearing shall hold or set the time for a hearing, if not previously held, for the purpose of determining whether the statement is admissible. A court reporter or a court approved electronic recording device shall record the evidence adduced at this hearing.

(b) Duty of Court To Inform Defendant. It shall be the duty of the court to inform the defendant that: (1) he may, but need not, testify at the hearing on the circumstances surrounding the statement; (2) if he does testify at the hearing, he will be subject to cross examination with respect to the circumstances surrounding the statement and with respect to his credibility; (3) if he does testify at the hearing, he does not by so testifying waive his right to remain silent during the trial; and (4) if he does testify at the hearing, neither this fact nor his testimony at the hearing shall be mentioned to the jury unless he testifies concerning the statement at trial.

(c) Duty of Court To Make a Record. After the hearing, the court shall set forth in writing: (1) the undisputed facts; (2) the disputed facts; (3) conclusions as to the disputed facts; and (4) conclusion as to whether the statement is admissible and the reasons therefor.

(d) Rights of Defendant When Statement Is Ruled Admissible. If the court rules that the statement is admissible, and it is offered in evidence: (1) the defense may offer evidence or cross-examine the witnesses, with respect to the statement without waiving an objection to the admissibility of the statement; (2) unless the defendant testifies at the trial concerning the statement, no reference shall be made to the fact, if it be so, that the defendant testified at the preliminary hearing on the admissibility of the confession; (3) if the defendant becomes a witness on this issue, he shall be subject to cross examination to the same extent as would any other witness; and, (4) if the defense raises the issue of voluntariness under subsection (1) above, the jury shall be instructed that they may give such weight and credibility to the confession in view of the surrounding circumstances, as they see fit.

RULE 3.6

SUPPRESSION HEARINGS—DUTY OF COURT

At the conclusion of a hearing, upon a motion to suppress physical, oral or identification evidence the trial court shall set forth in writing: (1) the undisputed facts; (2) the disputed facts; (3) the court's findings as to the disputed facts; and (4) the court's reason for the admissibility or inadmissibility of the evidence sought to be suppressed.

RULE 4.1

ARRAIGNMENT

(a) Time. Promptly after the indictment or information has been filed, the defendant shall be arraigned thereon in open court.

(b) Counsel. If the defendant appears without counsel, the court shall inform him of his right to have counsel before being arraigned. The court shall inquire if he has counsel. If he is not represented and is unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned to him by the court, unless otherwise provided.

(c) Waiver of Counsel. If the defendant chooses to proceed without counsel, the court shall ascertain whether this waiver is made voluntarily, competently and with knowledge of the consequences. If the court finds the waiver valid, an appropriate finding shall be entered in the minutes. Unless the waiver is valid, the court shall not proceed with the arraignment until counsel is provided. Waiver of counsel at arraignment shall not preclude the defendant from claiming his right to counsel in subsequent proceedings in the cause, and the defendant shall be so informed. If such claim for counsel is not timely, the court shall appoint counsel but may deny or limit a continuance.

(d) Name. Defendant shall be asked his true name. If he alleges that his true name is one other than that by which he is charged, it must be entered in the minutes of the court, and subsequent proceedings shall be had against him by that name or other names relevant to the proceedings.

(e) Reading. The indictment or information shall be read to defendant, unless the reading is waived, and a copy shall be given to defendant.

RULE 4.2
PLEAS

(a) Types. A defendant may plead not guilty, not guilty by reason of insanity or guilty.

(b) Multiple Offenses. Where the indictment or information charges two or more offenses in separate counts the defendant shall plead separately to each.

(c) Pleading Insanity. Written notice of an intent to rely on the insanity defense, and/or a claim of present incompetency to stand trial, must be filed at the time of arraignment or within 10 days thereafter, or at such later time as the court may for good cause permit. All procedures concerning the defense of insanity or the competence of the defendant to stand trial are governed by RCW 10.77.

(d) Voluntariness. The court shall not accept a plea of guilty, without first determining that it is made voluntarily, competently and with an understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea. The court shall not enter a judgment upon a plea of guilty unless it is satisfied that there is a factual basis for the plea.

(e) Agreements. If a plea of guilty is based upon an agreement between the defendant and the prosecuting attorney, such agreement must be made a part of the record at the time the plea is entered. No agreement shall be made which specifies what action the judge shall take on or pursuant to the plea or which attempts to control the exercise of his discretion, and the court shall so advise the defendant.

(f) Withdrawal of Plea. The court shall allow a defendant to withdraw his plea of guilty whenever it appears that the withdrawal is necessary to correct a manifest injustice.

(g) Written Statement. A written statement of the defendant in substantially the form set forth below shall be filed on a plea of guilty:

4. I have been informed and fully understand that I have the right to representation by a lawyer and that if I cannot afford to pay for a lawyer, one will be provided at no expense to me. My lawyer's name is _____.

5. I have been informed and fully understand that I am charged with the crime of _____, that the elements of the crime are _____, and that the maximum sentence for the crime is _____. I have been given a copy of the information.

6. I have been informed and fully understand that:

(a) I have the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury in the county where the crime is alleged to have been committed.

(b) I have the right to remain silent before and during trial, and I need not testify against myself.

(c) I have the right at trial to hear and question witnesses who testify against me.

(d) I have the right at trial to have witnesses testify for me. These witnesses can be made to appear at no expense to me.

(e) I am presumed innocent until the charge is proven beyond a reasonable doubt or I enter a plea of guilty.

(f) I have the right to appeal a determination of guilt after a trial.

(g) If I plead guilty I give up the rights in statements 6(a)-(f).

7. I plead _____ to the crime of _____ as charged in the information.

8. I make this plea freely and voluntarily.

9. No one has threatened harm of any kind to me or to any other person to cause me to make this plea.

10. No person has made promises of any kind to cause me to enter this plea except as set forth in this statement.

11. I have been informed and fully understand the Prosecuting Attorney will make the following recommendation to the court and to the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles: _____.

12. I have been informed and fully understand that the court does not have to follow the Prosecuting Attorney's recommendation as to sentence. The court is completely free to give me any sentence up to the maximum permitted by law no matter what the Prosecuting Attorney recommends.

13. I have been informed and fully understand that if I am sentenced to prison the Judge must sentence me to the maximum term required by the law, which in this case is _____. The minimum term of sentence is set by the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles. The Judge and Prosecuting Attorney may recommend a minimum sentence to the Board but the Board does not have to follow their recommendation. I have been further advised that the crime with which I am charged carries a mandatory minimum of _____ years. I have been advised that the law requires that a prison term be imposed and does not permit any form of probation for the crime with which I am charged. I have been advised that if I am sentenced to prison, my sentence must be served consecutively to my prior prison sentence for a prior felony. (If not applicable, any or all of the last three sentences shall be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the Judge.)

14. I understand that if I am not a citizen of the United States, a plea of guilty to an offense punishable as a crime under state law is grounds for deportation, exclusion from admission to the United States, or denial of naturalization pursuant to the laws of the United States.

15. The court has asked me to state briefly in my own words what I did that resulted in my being charged with the crime in the information. This is my statement: _____.

16. I have read or have had read to me and fully understand all of the numbered sections above (1 through 15) and have received a copy of "Statement of Defendant on Plea of Guilty." I have no further questions to ask of the court.

Defendant

Prosecuting Attorney Defendant's Lawyer

The foregoing statement was read by or to the defendant and signed by the defendant in the presence of his attorney, and the undersigned Judge, in open court. The court finds the defendant's plea of guilty to be knowingly, intelligently and voluntarily made, that the court has informed the defendant of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea, that there is a factual basis for the plea, and that the defendant is guilty as charged.

(h) Verification by Interpreter. If a defendant is not fluent in the English language, a person the court has determined has fluency in the defendant's language shall certify that the written statement provided for in section (g) has been translated orally or in writing and that the defendant has acknowledged that he or she understands the translation.

RULE 4.3

JOINDER OF OFFENSES AND DEFENDANTS

(a) Joinder of Offenses. Two or more offenses may be joined in one charge, with each offense stated in a separate count, when the offenses, whether felonies or misdemeanors or both:

(1) Are of the same or similar character, even if not part of a single scheme or plan; or

(2) Are based on the same conduct or on a series of acts connected together or constituting parts of a single scheme or plan;

(3) Improper joinder of offenses or defendants shall not preclude subsequent prosecution on the same charge for the charge or defendant improperly joined.

(b) Joinder of Defendants. Two or more defendants may be joined in the same charge:

(1) When each of the defendants is charged with accountability for each offense included;

(2) When each of the defendants is charged with conspiracy and one or more of the defendants is also charged with one or more offenses alleged to be in furtherance of the conspiracy; or

(3) When, even if conspiracy is not charged and all of the defendants are not charged in each count, it is alleged that the several offenses charged:

(i) were part of a common scheme or plan; or

(ii) were so closely connected in respect to time, place and occasion that it would be difficult to separate proof of one charge from proof of the others.

(c) Failure To Join Related Offenses.

(1) Two or more offenses are related offenses, for purposes of this rule, if they are within the jurisdiction and venue of the same court and are based on the same conduct.

(2) When a defendant has been charged with two or more related offenses, his timely motion to join them for trial should be granted unless the court determines that because the prosecuting attorney does not have sufficient evidence to warrant trying some of the offenses at that time, or for some other reason, the ends of justice would be defeated if the motion were granted. A defendant's failure to so move constitutes a waiver of any right of joinder as to related offenses with which the defendant knew he was charged.

(3) A defendant who has been tried for one offense may thereafter move to dismiss a charge for a related offense, unless a motion for joinder of these offenses was previously denied or the right of joinder was waived as provided in section (b). The motion to dismiss must be made prior to the second trial, and shall be granted unless the court determines that because the prosecuting attorney was unaware of the facts constituting the related offense or did not have sufficient evidence to warrant trying this offense at the time of the first trial, or for some other reason, the ends of justice would be defeated if the motion were granted.

(4) Entry of a plea of guilty to one offense does not bar the subsequent prosecution of a related offense unless the plea of guilty was entered on the basis of a plea agreement in which the prosecuting attorney agreed to seek or not to oppose dismissal of other related charges or not to prosecute other potential related charges.

(d) Authority of Court To Act on Own Motion. The court may order consolidation for trial of two or more indictments or informations if the offenses or defendants could have been joined in a single charge.

RULE 4.4

SEVERANCE OF OFFENSES AND DEFENDANTS

(a) Timeliness of Motion—Waiver.

(1) A defendant's motion for severance of offenses or defendants must be made before trial, except that a motion for severance may be made before or at the close of all the evidence if the interests of justice require. Severance is waived if the motion is not made at the appropriate time.

(2) If a defendant's pretrial motion for severance was overruled he may renew the motion on the same ground before or at the close of all the evidence. Severance is waived by failure to renew the motion.

(b) Severance of Offenses. The court, on application of the prosecuting attorney, or on application of the defendant other than under section (a), shall grant a severance of offenses whenever before trial or during trial with consent of the defendant, the court determines that severance will promote a fair determination of the defendant's guilt or innocence of each offense.

(c) Severance of Defendants.

(1) A defendant's motion for severance on the ground that an out-of-court statement of a codefendant referring to him is inadmissible against him shall be granted unless:

(i) the prosecuting attorney elects not to offer the statement in the case in chief;

(ii) deletion of all references to the moving defendant will eliminate any prejudice to him from the admission of the statement.

(2) The court, on application of the prosecuting attorney, or on application of the defendant other than under subsection (i), should grant a severance of defendants whenever:

(i) if before trial, it is deemed necessary to protect a defendant's rights to a speedy trial, or it is deemed appropriate to promote a fair determination of the guilt or innocence of a defendant; or

(ii) if during trial upon consent of the severed defendant, it is deemed necessary to achieve a fair determination of the guilt or innocence of a defendant.

(3) When such information would assist the court in ruling on a motion for severance of defendants, the court may order the prosecuting attorney to disclose any statements made by the defendants which he intends to introduce in evidence at the trial.

(d) Failure To Prove Grounds for Joinder of Defendants. If, pursuant to section (a), a defendant moves to be severed at the conclusion of the prosecution's case or of all the evidence, and there is not sufficient evidence to support the grounds upon which the moving defendant was joined or previously denied severance, the court shall grant a severance if, in view of this lack of evidence, failure to sever prejudices the moving defendant.

(e) Authority of Court To Act on Own Motion. The court may order a severance of offenses or defendants before trial if a severance could be obtained on motion of a defendant or the prosecution.

RULE 4.5

OMNIBUS HEARING

(a) When Required. When a plea of not guilty is entered, the court may set a time for an omnibus hearing.

(b) Time. The time set for the omnibus hearing shall allow sufficient time for counsel to (1) initiate and complete discovery; (2) conduct further investigation of the case, as needed; and (3) continue plea discussions.

(c) Checklist. At the omnibus hearing, the trial court on its own initiative, utilizing a checklist substantially in the form of the omnibus application by plaintiff and defendant (see section (h)) shall:

(1) Ensure that standards regarding provision of counsel have been complied with;

(2) Ascertain whether the parties have completed discovery and, if not, make orders appropriate to expedite completion;

(3) Make rulings on any motions, other requests then pending, and ascertain whether any additional motions, or requests will be made at the hearing or continued portions thereof;

(4) Ascertain whether there are any procedural or constitutional issues which should be considered;

(5) Upon agreement of counsel, or upon a finding that the trial is likely to be protracted or otherwise unusually complicated, set a time for a pretrial conference; and

(6) Permit defendant to change his plea.

(d) Motions. All motions and other requests prior to trial should ordinarily be reserved for and presented orally at the omnibus hearing unless the court otherwise directs. Failure to raise or give notice at the hearing of any error or issue of which the party concerned has knowledge may constitute waiver of such error or issue. Checklist forms substantially like the memorandum required by section (h) shall be made available by the court and utilized at the hearing to ensure that all requests, errors and issues are then considered.

(e) Continuance. Any and all issues should be raised either by counsel or by the court without prior notice, and if appropriate, informally disposed of. If additional discovery, investigation or preparation, or evidentiary hearing, or formal presentation is necessary for a fair and orderly determination of any issue, the omnibus hearing should be continued from time to time until all matters raised are properly disposed of.

(f) Record. A verbatim record (electronic, mechanical or otherwise), shall be made of all proceedings at the hearing.

(g) Stipulations. Stipulations by any party shall be binding upon that party at trial unless set aside or modified by the court in the interests of justice.

(h) Memorandum. At the conclusion of the hearing, a summary memorandum shall be made indicating disclosure made, rulings and orders of the court, stipulations, and any other matters determined or pending. Such summary memorandum shall be in substantially the following form:

RULE 4.6

DEPOSITIONS

(a) When Taken. Upon a showing that a prospective witness may be unable to attend or prevented from attending a trial or hearing or if a witness refuses to discuss the case with either counsel and that his testimony is material and that it is necessary to take his deposition in order to prevent a failure of justice, the court at any time after the filing of an indictment or information may upon motion of a party and notice to the parties order that his testimony be taken by deposition and that any designated books, papers, documents or tangible objects, not privileged, be produced at the same time and place.

(b) Notice of Taking. The party at whose instance a deposition is to be taken shall give to every other party reasonable written notice of the time and place for taking the deposition. The notice shall state the name and address of each person to be examined. On motion of a party upon whom the notice is served, the court for cause shown may extend or shorten the time and may change the place of taking.

(c) How Taken. A deposition shall be taken in the manner provided in civil actions. No deposition shall be used in evidence against any defendant who has not had notice of and an opportunity to participate in or be present at the taking thereof.

(d) Use. Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of the deponent as witness, or as substantive evidence under circumstances permitted by the Rules of Evidence.

(e) Objections to Admissibility. Objections to receiving in evidence a deposition or part thereof may be made as provided in civil actions.

RULE 4.7

DISCOVERY

(a) Prosecutor's Obligations.

(1) Except as otherwise provided by protective orders or as to matters not subject to disclosure, the prosecuting attorney shall disclose to the defendant the following material and information within his possession or control no later than the omnibus hearing:

(i) the names and addresses of persons whom the prosecuting attorney intends to call as witnesses at the hearing or trial, together with any written or recorded statements and the substance of any oral statements of such witnesses;

(ii) any written or recorded statements and the substance of any oral statements made by the defendant, or made by a codefendant if the trial is to be a joint one;

(iii) when authorized by the court, those portions of grand jury minutes containing testimony of the defendant, relevant testimony of persons whom the prosecuting attorney intends to call as witnesses at the hearing or trial, and any relevant testimony that has not been transcribed;

(iv) any reports or statements of experts made in connection with the particular case, including results of physical or mental examinations and scientific tests, experiments, or comparisons;

(v) any books, papers, documents, photographs, or tangible objects, which the prosecuting attorney intends to use in the hearing or trial or which were obtained from or belonged to the defendant; and

(vi) any record or prior criminal convictions known to the prosecuting attorney of the defendant and of persons whom the prosecuting attorney intends to call as witnesses at the hearing or trial.

(2) The prosecuting attorney shall disclose to the defendant:

(i) any electronic surveillance, including wiretapping, of the defendant's premises or conversations to which the defendant was a party and any record thereof;

(ii) any expert witnesses whom the prosecuting attorney will call at the hearing or trial, the subject of their testimony, and any reports they have submitted to the prosecuting attorney;

(iii) any information which the prosecuting attorney has indicating entrapment of the defendant.

(3) Except as is otherwise provided as to protective orders, the prosecuting attorney shall disclose to defendant's counsel any material or information within his knowledge which tends to negate defendant's guilt as to the offense charged.

(4) The prosecuting attorney's obligation under this section is limited to material and information within the knowledge, possession or control of members of his staff.

(b) Defendant's Obligations.

(1) Except as is otherwise provided as to matters not subject to disclosure and protective orders, the defendant shall disclose to the prosecuting attorney the following material and information within his control no later than the omnibus hearing: the names and addresses of persons whom the defendant intends to call as witnesses at the hearing or trial, together with any written or recorded statements and the substance of any oral statements of such witness.

(2) Notwithstanding the initiation of judicial proceedings, and subject to constitutional limitations, the court on motion of the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, may require or allow the defendant to:

- (i) appear in a lineup;
- (ii) speak for identification by a witness to an offense;
- (iii) be fingerprinted;
- (iv) pose for photographs not involving reenactment of the crime charged;
- (v) try on articles of clothing;
- (vi) permit the taking of samples of or from his blood, hair, and other materials of his body including materials under his fingernails which involve no unreasonable intrusion thereof;
- (vii) provide specimens of his handwriting;
- (viii) submit to a reasonable physical, medical, or psychiatric inspection or examination;
- (ix) state whether there is any claim of incompetency to stand trial;
- (x) allow inspection of physical or documentary evidence in defendant's possession;
- (xi) state whether his prior convictions will be stipulated or need to be proved;
- (xii) state whether or not he will rely on an alibi and, if so, furnish a list of alibi witnesses and their addresses;
- (xiii) state whether or not he will rely on a defense of insanity at the time of the offense;
- (xiv) state the general nature of his defense.

(3) Provisions may be made for appearance for the foregoing purposes in an order for pretrial release.

(c) Additional Disclosures Upon Request and Specification. Except as is otherwise provided as to matters not subject to disclosure the prosecuting attorney shall, upon request of the defendant, disclose any relevant material and information regarding:

- (1) Specified searches and seizures;
- (2) The acquisition of specified statements from the defendant; and
- (3) The relationship, if any, of specified persons to the prosecuting authority.

(d) Material Held by Others. Upon defendant's request and designation of material or information in the knowledge, possession or control of other persons which would be discoverable if in the knowledge, possession or control of the prosecuting attorney, the prosecuting attorney shall attempt to cause such material or information to be made available to the defendant. If the prosecuting attorney's efforts are unsuccessful and if such material or persons are subject to the jurisdiction of the court, the court shall issue suitable subpoenas or orders to cause such material to be made available to the defendant.

(e) Discretionary Disclosures.

(1) Upon a showing of materiality to the preparation of the defense, and if the request is reasonable, the court in its discretion may require disclosure to the defendant of the relevant material and information not covered by sections (a), (c) and (d).

(2) The court may condition or deny disclosure authorized by this rule if it finds that there is a substantial risk to any person of physical harm, intimidation, bribery, economic reprisals or unnecessary annoyance or embarrassment, resulting from such disclosure, which outweigh any usefulness of the disclosure to the defendant.

(f) Matters Not Subject to Disclosure.

(1) Work Product. Disclosure shall not be required of legal research or of records, correspondence, reports or memoranda to the extent that they contain the opinions, theories or conclusions of investigating or prosecuting agencies except as to material discoverable under subsection (a)(1)(iv).

(2) Informants. Disclosure of an informant's identity shall not be required where his identity is a prosecution secret and a failure to disclose will not infringe upon the constitutional rights of the defendant. Disclosure of the identity of witnesses to be produced at a hearing or trial shall not be denied.

(g) Medical and Scientific Reports. Subject to constitutional limitations, the court may require the defendant to disclose any reports or results, or testimony relative thereto, of physical or mental examinations or of scientific tests, experiments or comparisons, or any other reports or statements of experts which the defendant intends to use at a hearing or trial.

(h) Regulation of Discovery.

(1) Investigations Not To Be Impeded. Except as is otherwise provided with respect to protective orders and matters not subject to disclosure, neither the counsel for the parties nor other prosecution or defense personnel shall advise persons other than the defendant having relevant material or information to refrain from discussing the case with opposing counsel or showing opposing counsel any relevant material, nor shall they otherwise impede opposing counsel's investigation of the case.

(2) Continuing Duty To Disclose. If, after compliance with these standards or orders pursuant thereto, a party discovers additional material or information which is subject to disclosure, he shall promptly notify the other party or his counsel of the existence of such additional material, and if the additional material or information is discovered during trial, the court shall also be notified.

(3) Custody of Materials. Any materials furnished to an attorney pursuant to these standards shall remain in his exclusive custody and be used only for the purposes of conducting his side of the case, and shall be subject to such other terms and conditions as the court may provide.

(4) Protective Orders. Upon a showing of cause, the court may at any time order that specified disclosure be restricted or deferred, or make such other order as is appropriate, provided that all material and information to which a party is entitled must be disclosed in time to permit his counsel to make beneficial use thereof.

(5) Excision. When some parts of certain material are discoverable under this rule, and other parts not discoverable, as much of the material shall be disclosed as is consistent with this rule. Material excised pursuant to judicial order shall be sealed and preserved in the records of the court, to be made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal.

(6) In Camera Proceedings. Upon request of any person, the court may permit any showing of cause for denial or regulation of disclosure, or portion of such showing, to be made in camera. A record shall be made of such proceedings. If the court enters an order granting relief following a showing in camera, the entire record of such showing shall be sealed and preserved in the records of the court, to be made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal.

(7) Sanctions.

(i) if at any time during the course of the proceedings it is brought to the attention of the court that a party has failed to comply with an applicable discovery rule or an order issued pursuant thereto, the court may order such party to permit the discovery of material and information not previously disclosed, grant a continuance, dismiss the action or enter such other order as it deems just under the circumstances.

(ii) willful violation by counsel of an applicable discovery rule or an order issued pursuant thereto may subject counsel to appropriate sanctions by the court.

RULE 4.8

5. VENUE

- Rule
5.1 Commencement of Actions
5.2 Change of Venue

RULE 5.1
COMMENCEMENT OF ACTIONS

(a) Where Commenced. All actions shall be commenced:

- (1) In the county where the offense was committed;
- (2) In any county wherein an element of the offense was committed or occurred.

(b) Two or More Counties. When there is reasonable doubt whether an offense has been committed in one of two or more counties, the action may be commenced in any such county.

(c) Right To Change. When a case is filed pursuant to section (b) of this rule, the defendant shall have the right to change venue to any other county in which the offense may have been committed. Any objection to venue must be made as soon after the initial pleading is filed as the defendant has knowledge upon which to make it.

RULE 5.2
CHANGE OF VENUE

(a) When Ordered—Improper County. The court shall order a change of venue upon motion and showing that the action has not been prosecuted in the proper county.

(b) When Ordered—On Motion of Party. The court may order a change of venue to any county in the state:

(1) Upon written agreement of the prosecuting attorney and the defendant;

(2) Upon motion of the defendant, supported by affidavit that he believes he cannot receive a fair trial in the county where the action is pending.

(c) Discharge of Jury. When the court orders a change of venue it shall discharge the jury, if any, without prejudice to the prosecution, and direct that all the papers and proceedings be certified to the superior court of the proper county and direct the defendant and the witnesses to appear at such court.

RULE 6.1
TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT

(a) Trial by Jury. Cases required to be tried by jury shall be so tried unless the defendant files a written waiver of a jury trial, and has consent of the court.

(b) Number of Jurors. Unless otherwise provided by these rules, the number of persons serving on a jury shall be 12, not including alternates. If prior to trial on a noncapital case all defendants so elect, the case shall be tried by a jury of not less than six, or by the court.

(c) Juror Unable To Continue. If a case has not yet been submitted to the jury and a juror is unable to continue and no alternate jurors were selected or none are available, or if a case has been submitted to the jury and a juror is unable to continue, all defendants may elect to continue with the remaining jurors. The court shall declare a mistrial for any defendant who does not elect to continue with the remaining jurors. If some, but not all, defendants elect to continue with the trial, the court shall proceed with the trial for those defendants unless the court determines manifest necessity requires a mistrial.

(d) Trial Without Jury. In a case tried without a jury, the court shall enter findings of fact and conclusions of law. In giving the decision, the facts found and the conclusions of law shall be separately stated. The court shall enter such findings of fact and conclusions of law only upon 5 days' notice of presentation to the parties.

RULE 6.2

JURORS' ORIENTATION

All jurors will be given a general orientation when they report for duty.

(a) Juror Handbook. A copy of the Uniform Washington Juror's Handbook as prepared by the Washington Supreme Court Committee on Jury Instructions shall be provided to all petit jurors by the court in which they are to serve.

(b) Juror Information Sheet. Prior to the commencement of a petit juror's term of service, a juror information sheet shall be furnished to him by the court in which he is to serve. The format of the information sheet shall be consistent with recommendations of the Administrator for the Courts.

RULE 6.3

SELECTING THE JURY

When the action is called for trial, the clerk shall prepare separate ballots containing the names of the jurors summoned who have appeared and not been excused, and deposit them in a box. He shall draw the required number of names for purposes of voir dire examination. Any necessary additions to the panel shall be drawn from the clerk's list of qualified jurors. The clerk shall thereupon prepare separate ballots and deposit them in the trial jury box.

RULE 6.4

CHALLENGES

(a) Challenges to the Entire Panel. Challenges to the entire panel shall only be sustained for a material departure from the procedures prescribed by law for their selection.

(b) Voir Dire. A voir dire examination shall be conducted for the purpose of discovering any basis for challenge for cause and for the purpose of gaining knowledge to enable an intelligent exercise of peremptory challenges. The judge shall initiate the voir dire examination by identifying the parties and their respective counsel and by briefly outlining the nature of the case. The judge and counsel may then ask the prospective jurors questions touching their qualifications to serve as jurors in the case, subject to the supervision of the court as appropriate to the facts of the case.

(c) Challenges for Cause.

(1) If the judge after examination of any juror is of the opinion that grounds for challenge are present, he shall excuse that juror from the trial of the case. If the judge does not excuse the juror, any party may challenge the juror for cause.

(2) RCW 4.44.150 through 4.44.200 shall govern challenges for cause.

(d) Exceptions to Challenge.

(1) Determination. The challenge may be excepted to by the adverse party for insufficiency and, if so, the court shall determine the sufficiency thereof, assuming the facts alleged therein to be true. The challenge may be denied by the adverse party and, if so, the court shall try the issue and determine the law and the facts.

(2) Trial of Challenge. Upon trial of a challenge, the Rules of Evidence applicable to testimony offered upon the trial of an ordinary issue of fact shall govern. The juror challenged, or any other person otherwise competent, may be examined as a witness by either party. If a challenge be determined to be sufficient, or if found to be true, as the case may be, it shall be allowed, and the juror to whom it was taken excluded; but if not so determined or found otherwise, it shall be disallowed.

(e) Peremptory Challenges.

(1) Peremptory Challenges Defined. A peremptory challenge is an objection to a juror for which there is no reason given, but upon which the court shall exclude him. In prosecutions for capital offenses the defense and the state may challenge peremptorily 12 jurors each; in prosecution for offenses punishable by imprisonment in a penitentiary 6 jurors each; in all other prosecutions, 3 jurors each. When several defendants are on trial together, each defendant shall be entitled to one challenge in addition to the number of challenges provided above, with discretion in the trial judge to afford the prosecution such additional challenges as circumstances warrant.

(2) Peremptory Challenges—How Taken. After prospective jurors have been passed for cause, peremptory challenges shall be exercised alternately first by the prosecution then by each defendant until the peremptory challenges are exhausted or the jury accepted. Acceptance of the jury as presently constituted shall not waive any remaining peremptory challenges to jurors subsequently called.

RULE 6.5

ALTERNATE JURORS

When the jury is selected the court may direct the selection of one or more additional jurors, in its discretion, to be known as alternate jurors. Each party shall be entitled to one peremptory challenge for each alternate juror to be selected. When several defendants are on trial together, each defendant shall be entitled to one challenge in addition to the challenge provided above, with discretion in the trial judge to afford the prosecution such additional challenges as circumstances warrant. If at any time before submission of the case to the jury a juror is found unable to perform his duties the court shall order him discharged, and the clerk shall draw the name of an alternate who shall take his place on the jury.

RULE 6.6
JURORS' OATH

The jury shall be sworn or affirmed well and truly to try the issue between the State and the defendant, according to the evidence and instructions by the court.

RULE 6.7
CUSTODY OF JURY

(a) Generally. During trial and deliberations the jury may be allowed to separate unless good cause is shown, on the record, for sequestration of the jury.

(b) Communication Restricted. Unless the jury is allowed to separate, the jurors shall be kept together under the charge of one or more officers until they agree upon their verdict or are discharged by the court. The officer shall keep the jurors separate from other persons and shall not allow any communication which may affect the case to be made to the jurors, nor make any himself, unless by order of the court, except to ask the jurors if they have agreed upon their verdict. The officer shall not, before the verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of the jurors' deliberations or their verdict.

(c) Motions. Any motions or proceedings concerning the separation or sequestration of the jury shall be made out of the presence of the jury.

RULE 6.8
NOTETAKING BY JURORS

With permission of the trial judge, jurors may take notes regarding the evidence presented to them and keep these notes with them when they retire for their deliberation. Such notes should be treated as confidential between the jurors making them and their fellow jurors, and be destroyed immediately after the verdict is rendered.

RULE 6.9
VIEW OF PREMISES BY JURY

The court may allow the jury to view the place in which any material fact occurred. In such event it shall order the jury to be conducted in a body, in the custody of a proper officer of the court to the place which shall be shown to them by the judge. The defendant shall be present at the view. During the view, no person other than the judge or person authorized by him shall speak to the jury on any subject relating to the trial.

RULE 6.10
DISCHARGE OF JURY

The jury may be discharged by the court on consent of both parties or when it appears that there is no reasonable probability of their reaching agreement.

RULE 6.11
JUDGE—DISABILITY

(a) Disability of Judge During Jury Trial. If, before the judge submits the case to the jury, he is unable to continue with the trial, any other judge assigned to or regularly sitting in the court, upon familiarizing himself with the record of the trial, may proceed with the trial. Upon defendant's objection to the replacement, a mistrial shall be granted. If, after the judge submits the case to the jury, he is unable to continue, the case shall proceed before another judge.

(b) Disability of Judge During Nonjury Trial. If a judge before whom trial without jury has commenced is unable to proceed with the trial, a mistrial shall be granted.

RULE 6.12
WITNESSES

(a) Who May Testify. Any person may be a witness in any action or proceeding under these rules except as hereinafter provided or as provided in the Rules of Evidence.

(b) When Excused. A witness subpoenaed to attend in a criminal case is dismissed and excused from further attendance as soon as he has given his testimony in chief and has been cross-examined thereon, unless either party makes requests in open court that the witness remain in attendance; and witness fees will not be allowed any witness after the day on which his testimony is given, except when the witness has in open court been required to remain in further attendance, and when so required the clerk shall note that fact in his journal.

(c) Persons Incompetent To Testify. The following persons are incompetent to testify: (1) Those who are of unsound mind, or intoxicated at the time of their production for examination; and (2) children who do not have the capacity of receiving just impressions of the facts about which they are examined or who do not have the capacity of relating them truly. This shall not affect any recognized privileges.

(d) Not Excluded on Grounds of Interest. No person offered as a witness shall be excluded from giving evidence by reason of his interest in the result of the action, as a party thereto or otherwise, but such interest may be shown to affect his credibility.

(e) Material Witnesses. On motion of the prosecuting attorney or the defendant a witness may be compelled to attend a hearing to determine whether his testimony is material. Upon request, the court shall appoint counsel for a witness who is financially unable to obtain one if it appears to the court, after an offer of proof by the moving party, that the testimony of such witness would tend to incriminate him, or it appears that counsel is required to otherwise fully protect the rights of such witness.

RULE 6.13

TESTIMONY IN LIEU OF WITNESSES

(a) Deposition. Upon a determination that the testimony of a witness is material, and that it appears probable that the witness will not voluntarily appear at the trial, the court may order the taking of his deposition. Pending the taking of the deposition the provisions of CrR 3.2 shall apply.

(b) Test Report by Expert.

(1) Certification Required. Subject to subsection (b)(3) of this rule, the official written report of an expert witness which contains the results of any test of a substance or object which are relevant to an issue in a trial shall be admitted in evidence without further proof or foundation as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the report if the report bears or has attached a certification stating that the certifier has performed a test on the substance or object in question, the name of the person from whom the substance or object was received, the certificate is attached to a true and complete copy of the certifier's official report, the report was made by the certifier, and the qualifications of the certifier to make such tests. The certificate shall be signed by the certifier with the title of his office and his business address and telephone number.

(2) Form. The certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

The undersigned certifies under penalty of perjury that:

1. He performed a test on the (substance) (object) in question;
2. The person from whom he received the (substance) (object) in question is _____;

3. The document on which this certificate appears or to which it is attached is a true and complete copy of my official report; and

4. Such document is a report of the results of a test which report and test were made by the undersigned who has the following qualifications and experience:

 Signature

 Title

 Business Address and Telephone

(3) Notice Requirements. The court shall exclude such report if:

(i) a copy of the report and certificate has not been served on the defendant or the defendant's attorney at least 15 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper; or

(ii) in the case of an unrepresented defendant, a copy of this rule in addition to a copy of the report and certificate has not been served on the defendant at least 15 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper; or

(iii) at least 7 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, the defendant has served a written demand upon the prosecutor to produce the expert witness at the trial.

RULE 6.14

IMMUNITY

In any case the court on motion of the prosecuting attorney may order that a witness shall not be excused from giving testimony or producing any papers, documents or things, on the ground that his testimony may tend to incriminate or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to criminal penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or fact concerning which he has been ordered to testify pursuant to this rule. He may nevertheless be prosecuted for failing to comply with the order to answer, or for perjury or the giving of false evidence.

RULE 6.15

INSTRUCTIONS AND ARGUMENT

(a) Proposed Instructions. Proposed jury instructions shall be served and filed when a case is called for trial by serving one copy upon counsel for each party, by filing one copy with the clerk, and by delivering the original and one additional copy for each party to the trial judge. Additional instructions, which could not be reasonably anticipated, shall be served and filed at any time before the court has instructed the jury.

Not less than 10 days before the date of trial, the court may order counsel to serve and file proposed instructions not less than 3 days before the trial date.

Each proposed instruction shall be on a separate sheet of paper. The original shall not be numbered nor include citations of authority.

Any superior court may adopt special rules permitting certain instructions to be requested by number from any published book of instructions.

(b) Statute Abrogated. That portion of RCW 10.52-.040, reading as follows, is hereby abrogated:

And provided further, That it shall be the duty of the court to instruct the jury that no inference of guilt shall arise against the accused if the accused shall fail or refuse to testify as a witness in his or her own behalf.

(c) Objection to Instructions. Before instructing the jury, the court shall supply counsel with copies of the proposed numbered instructions, verdict and special finding forms. The court shall afford to counsel an opportunity in the absence of the jury to object to the giving of any instructions and the refusal to give a requested instruction or submission of a verdict or special finding form. The party objecting shall state the reasons for his objection, specifying the number, paragraph, and particular part of the instruction to be given or refused. The court shall provide counsel for each party with a copy of the instructions in their final form.

(d) Instructing the Jury and Argument of Counsel. The court shall read the instructions to the jury. The prosecution may then address the jury after which the defense may address the jury followed by the prosecution's rebuttal.

(e) Deliberation. After argument, the jury shall retire to consider the verdict. The jury shall take with it the instructions given, all exhibits received in evidence and a verdict form or forms.

(f) Additional or Subsequent Instructions.

(1) After retirement for deliberation, if the jury desires to be informed on any point of law, the judge may require the officer having them in charge to conduct them into court. Upon the jury being brought into court, the information requested, if given, shall be given in the presence of, or after notice to the parties or their counsel. Any additional instruction upon any point of law shall be given in writing.

(2) After jury deliberations have begun, the court shall not instruct the jury in such a way as to suggest the need for agreement, the consequences of no agreement, or the length of time a jury will be required to deliberate.

(g) Several Offenses. The verdict forms for an offense charged or necessarily included in the offense charged or an attempt to commit either the offense charged or any offense necessarily included therein may be submitted to the jury.

RULE 6.16

VERDICTS AND FINDINGS

(a) Verdicts.

(1) Several Defendants. If there are two or more defendants, the jury at any time during its deliberations may return a verdict or verdicts with respect to a defendant or defendants as to whom it has agreed; if a jury cannot agree with respect to all, the defendant or defendants as to whom it does not agree may be tried again.

(2) Return of Verdict. When all members of the jury agree upon a verdict, the foreman shall complete and sign the verdict form and return it to the judge in open court.

(3) Poll of Jurors. When a verdict or special finding is returned and before it is recorded, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion. If at the conclusion of the poll, all of the jurors do not concur, the jury may be directed to retire for further deliberations or may be discharged by the court.

(b) Special Findings. The court may submit to the jury forms for such special findings which may be required or authorized by law. The court shall give such instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make these special findings or verdicts and to render a general verdict. When a special finding is inconsistent with another special finding or with the general verdict, the court may order the jury to retire for further consideration.

(c) Forms.

(1) Verdict. The verdict of the jury may be in substantially the following form:

We, the jury, find the defendant guilty [or not guilty] of the crime of _____ as charged in count number _____.

Signature of Foreman

(2) Special Findings. Special findings may be substantially in the following form:

Was the defendant _____ [name] armed with a deadly weapon at the time of the commission of the crime charged in count number _____? Yes
() No ()

7. PROCEDURES FOLLOWING CONVICTION

Rule

- 7.1 Sentencing
- 7.2 Presentence Investigation
- 7.3 Judgment
- 7.4 Arrest of Judgment
- 7.5 Probation
- 7.6 New Trial
- 7.7 Post-Conviction Relief [Rescinded]

RULE 7.1

SENTENCING

(a) Sentencing. Sentence shall be imposed or an order deferring sentence shall be entered without unreasonable delay. Pending such action the court may release or commit the defendant, pursuant to CrR 3.2. Before disposition the court shall afford counsel an opportunity to speak and shall ask the defendant if he wishes to make a statement in his own behalf and to present any information in mitigation of punishment.

(b) Procedure at Time of Sentencing. The court shall, at the time of sentencing, unless the judgment and sentence are based on a plea of guilty, advise the defendant:

- (1) Of his right to appeal;
- (2) That unless a notice of appeal is filed within 30 days after the entry of the judgment or order appealed from, the right of appeal is irrevocably waived;
- (3) That the court clerk will, if requested by defendant appearing without counsel, file a notice of appeal in his behalf; and
- (4) Of his right, if unable to pay the costs thereof, to have counsel appointed and portions of the trial record necessary for review of assigned errors transcribed at public expense for an appeal. These proceedings shall be made a part of the record.

(c) Withdrawal of Plea of Guilty. A motion to withdraw a plea of guilty may be made only before sentence is imposed or imposition of sentence is suspended or deferred; but to correct manifest injustice the court, after sentence, may set aside the judgment of conviction and permit the defendant to withdraw his plea.

RULE 7.2

PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION

(a) When Made. The court shall order the Department of Corrections to make a presentence investigation and report to the court before the imposition of sentence or the granting of probation, except that the court may dispense with a presentence report if:

- (1) The maximum penalty is 1 year or less;
- (2) The defendant has two or more prior felony convictions;
- (3) The defendant refuses to be interviewed by the probation department or requests that disposition be made without a presentence report;
- (4) It is impractical to verify the background of the defendant;
- (5) The court finds in writing, with reasons stated, that the report would be of no practical use.

(b) Report. The report of the presentence investigation shall contain any prior criminal record of the defendant and such information about his characteristics, his financial condition and the circumstances affecting his behavior as may be helpful in imposing sentence or in granting probation or in the correctional treatment of the defendant, and such other information as may be required by the court.

(c) Disclosure.

(1) Before imposing sentence the court shall permit the defendant to read the report of the presentence investigation unless in the opinion of the court the report contains information which if disclosed would be harmful to the defendant or other persons; and the court shall afford the defendant or his counsel an opportunity for comment or rebuttal.

(2) If the court is of the view that there is information in the presentence report, disclosure of which would be harmful to the defendant or to other persons, the court in lieu of making the report or part thereof available shall state orally or in writing a summary of the factual information contained therein to be relied on in determining sentence, and shall give the defendant or his counsel an opportunity for comment or rebuttal. The statement may be made to the parties in camera.

(3) Any material disclosed to the defendant or his counsel shall also be disclosed to the prosecuting attorney.

RULE 7.3

JUDGMENT

A judgment of conviction shall set forth whether defendant was represented by counsel or validly waived counsel, the plea, the verdict or findings, and the adjudication and sentence. If the defendant is found not guilty or for any other reason is entitled to be discharged, judgment shall be entered accordingly. The judgment shall be signed by the judge and entered by the clerk.

RULE 7.4

ARREST OF JUDGMENT

(a) Arrest of Judgment. Judgment may be arrested on the motion of the defendant for the following causes: (1) Lack of jurisdiction of the person or offense; (2) the indictment or information does not charge a crime; or (3) insufficiency of the proof of a material element of the crime.

(b) Time for Motion. A motion for arrest of judgment must be served and filed within 5 days after the verdict or decision. The court on application of the defendant or on its own motion may in its discretion extend the time.

(c) New Charges After Arrest of Judgment. When judgment is arrested and there is reasonable ground to believe that the defendant can be convicted of an offense properly charged, the court may order the defendant to be recommitted or released to answer a new indictment or information. If judgment was arrested because there was no proof of the material element of the crime the defendant shall be dismissed.

(d) Rulings on Alternative Motions in Arrest of Judgment or for a New Trial in Superior Court. Whenever a motion in arrest of a judgment and, in the alternative, for a new trial is filed and submitted in any superior court in any criminal cause tried before a jury, and the superior court enters an order granting the motion in arrest of judgment, the court shall, at the same time, in the alternative, pass upon and decide in the same order the motion for a new trial. The ruling upon the motion for a new trial shall not become effective unless and until the order granting the motion in arrest of judgment is reversed, vacated, or set aside in the manner provided by law.

RULE 7.5

PROBATION

(a) Probation. After conviction of an offense the defendant may be placed on probation as provided by law.

(b) Revocation of Probation. The court shall not revoke probation except after a hearing in which the defendant shall be present and apprised of the grounds on which such action is proposed. The defendant is entitled to be represented by counsel and may be released pursuant to CrR 3.2 pending such hearing. Counsel shall be appointed for a defendant financially unable to obtain counsel.

RULE 7.6

NEW TRIAL

(a) Grounds for New Trial. The court on motion of defendant may grant a new trial for any one of the following causes when it affirmatively appears that a substantial right of the defendant was materially affected:

- (1) Receipt by the jury of any evidence, paper, document or book not allowed by the court;
- (2) Misconduct of the prosecution or jury;
- (3) Newly discovered evidence material for the defendant, which he could not have discovered with reasonable diligence and produced at the trial;
- (4) Accident or surprise;

(5) Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury or prosecution, or any order of court, or abuse of discretion, by which the defendant was prevented from having a fair trial;

(6) Error of law occurring at the trial and excepted to at the time by the defendant;

(7) That the verdict or decision is contrary to law and the evidence;

(8) That substantial justice has not been done. When the motion is based on matters outside the record, the facts shall be shown by affidavit.

(b) Time for Motion. A motion for new trial must be served and filed within 5 days after the verdict or decision. The court on application of the defendant or on its own motion may in its discretion extend the time.

(c) Time for Affidavits. When a motion for a new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The prosecution has 5 days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits. The court may extend the period for submitting affidavits to a time certain for good cause shown or upon stipulation.

(d) Statement of Reasons. In all cases where the court grants a motion for a new trial, it shall, in the order granting the motion, state whether the order is based upon the record or upon facts and circumstances outside the record which cannot be made a part thereof. If the order is based upon the record, the court shall give definite reasons of law and facts for its order. If the order is based upon matters outside the record, the court shall state the facts and circumstances upon which it relied.

(e) Disposition of Motion. The motion shall be disposed of before judgment and sentence or order deferring sentence.

Time shall be computed and enlarged in accordance with CR 6.

RULE 8.2

MOTIONS

CR 7(b) shall govern motions in criminal cases.

RULE 8.3

DISMISSAL

(a) On Motion of Prosecution. The court may, in its discretion, upon written motion of the prosecuting attorney setting forth the reasons therefor, dismiss an indictment, information or complaint.

(b) On Motion of Court. The court on its own motion in the furtherance of justice, after notice and hearing, may dismiss any criminal prosecution and shall set forth its reasons in a written order.

RULE 8.4

SERVICE AND FILING OF PAPERS

CR 5 shall govern service and filing of written motions (except those heard ex parte) in criminal causes.

RULE 8.5

CALENDARS

In setting cases for trial, unless otherwise provided by statute, preference shall be given to criminal over civil cases, and criminal cases where the defendant or a witness is in confinement shall have preference over other criminal cases.

RULE 8.6

EXCEPTIONS UNNECESSARY

CR 46 shall govern exceptions to rulings and orders in criminal cases.

RULE 8.7

OBJECTIONS

Objections in criminal causes shall be taken as in civil causes.

RULE 8.8

DISCHARGE

Upon acquittal, or whenever the court shall direct any criminal prosecution to be dismissed, the defendant shall be released from custody or conditions of release on such charge and any bail shall be exonerated.

SUPERIOR COURT
 MENTAL PROCEEDINGS RULES (MPR)

INTRODUCTION

The following rules have been designed and promulgated to give full force and effect to Laws of 1973, 1st Ex. Sess., ch. 142. Any future amendments which may be enacted will be dealt with in rules as the need may arise.

Section 62 of the act directs the Supreme Court to adopt rules with respect to court procedures and proceedings. Adoption of these rules is not to be construed as approval of what could be a breach of the separation of powers of government. While the Legislature may recommend rulemaking as to particular matters, it may not mandate rulemaking which is an inherent power of the judicial branch.

Although the courts generally do not pass upon the wisdom or the workability of statutes, they are concerned with their constitutionality. The adoption of these rules, which are merely designed to give effect to the statute as it is written, does not in any manner indicate an opinion of the court that the statute is or is not constitutional in any respect. In promulgating them, the court does not in any manner obviate further consideration of any portion of the statute or these rules in a proper case.

Because of the complicated nature of the statute necessitating these rules and the need that they be effective January 1, 1974, the court has promulgated them without submitting them for comment, and now invites comment from the bench and bar.

RULE 1.1

NOTICE—GENERAL

Whenever any notice or document pursuant to the provisions of RCW 71.05 is required to be served on a person who is detained or committed, such notice or document shall be provided to the person's attorney, guardian, if any, and, if the person is under 18 years of age, to any person, entity, or institution having actual custody, in addition to any other person provided by statute.

(a) Notice to Prosecutor. In any judicial proceeding under RCW 71.05 for involuntary commitment or detention in which the prosecuting attorney is required to represent a party (see RCW 71.05.130), the prosecuting attorney for the county in which the proceeding is initiated shall be served with written notice of the proceedings and copies of the initiating papers by the party initiating the proceedings.

(b) Notice to Attorney General. In any judicial proceeding under RCW 71.05 for involuntary commitment or detention in which the Attorney General is required to represent a party (see RCW 71.05.130), the Attorney General shall be served with written notice of the proceedings and copies of the initiating papers by the party initiating the proceedings.

(c) Notice of Release. Whenever a person committed or detained under RCW 71.05 is released or conditionally released, the court ordering such commitment shall be notified immediately in writing of the release by the superintendent or professional person in charge of the facility from which the person is released.

RULE 1.2

CONTINUANCE OR POSTPONEMENT

In any judicial proceeding for involuntary commitment or detention held pursuant to RCW 71.05 the court may continue or postpone such proceeding for a reasonable time, subject to RCW 71.05.210 and RCW 71.05.240, on the following grounds:

(a) On motion of the respondent if there is a showing of good cause;

(b) On motion of the prosecuting attorney or the Attorney General if:

(1) The respondent expressly consents to a continuance or delay and there is a showing of good cause; or

(2) Required in the proper administration of justice and the respondent will not be substantially prejudiced in the presentation of respondent's case.

(c) The court on its own motion may continue the case when required in the due administration of justice and when the respondent will not be substantially prejudiced in the presentation of his case.

An order granting continuance shall state whether detention will be extended and the grounds therefor.

RULE 1.3

CONFIDENTIALITY OF PROCEEDINGS

Proceedings had pursuant to RCW 71.05 shall not be open to the public, unless the person who is the subject of the proceedings or his attorney files with the court a written request that the proceedings be public. The court in its discretion may permit a limited number of persons to observe the proceedings as a part of a training program of a facility devoted to the healing arts or of an accredited educational institution within the state.

RULE 1.4

ALTERNATIVE LESS RESTRICTIVE TREATMENT

(a) As an alternative to detention, where the court makes a finding or a special verdict is returned that the respondent should receive less restrictive alternative treatment, the court may order such less restrictive alternative treatment for no longer than the period for which the respondent could have been committed at the hearing.

(b) If the court orders less restrictive alternative treatment, the order shall specify the terms and conditions of the alternative treatment and a copy shall be delivered to the respondent.

(c) If the conditions of the alternative treatment are not adhered to, the designated mental health professional may order the respondent apprehended according to the procedure defined by rules 4.1 through 4.5.

RULE 2.1

SUMMONS

The summons issued pursuant to RCW 71.05.150 shall include the following:

(a) The date and time for appearance, not less than 24 hours from the time at which the summons is served, at an evaluation and treatment facility.

(b) The address of the evaluation and treatment facility.

(c) The business address and business telephone number of the designated mental health professional.

(d) A statement that the person summoned may be detained at the evaluation and treatment facility for up to 72 hours excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

(e) A statement whether the 72-hour evaluation period is on outpatient or inpatient status.

(f) A statement that if the person summoned fails to appear at the evaluation and treatment facility on or before the date and time indicated, he may be taken into custody.

(g) A statement that an attorney will be appointed for the person summoned unless the person has retained his own attorney.

(h) The name, business address and business telephone number of the designated attorney.

(i) The summons shall be in substantially the following form:

THE STATE OF WASHINGTON To (name person to be detained):

It is alleged that because of mental disorder you present a likelihood of serious harm to yourself, other persons, or the property of other persons, or are gravely disabled.

You are hereby required to appear in person at (address of evaluation and treatment facility) in (city), Washington, on or before (hour) on (month, day, year) for evaluation and possible treatment. You may be detained without court order for evaluation and possible treatment for not more than 72 hours, not including Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays. If you fail to appear in person on or before the date stated above, you may be taken into custody.

You have the right to have an attorney. (Name, address, telephone number) will be appointed as your attorney unless you make arrangements to be represented by another attorney.

RULE 2.2

AUTHORIZATION AND NOTICE OF DETENTION

At the time when any person is taken into custody or as soon as possible thereafter pursuant to RCW 71.05-.150(1)(d) or RCW 71.05.150(2) regardless of whether a summons has been issued pursuant to rule 2.1 written authorization to do so shall be served upon such person. A copy of the authorization and a notice of detention shall be filed with the court. The authorization and notice of detention shall include:

(a) The name of the person to be taken into custody.

(b) A statement that the person authorized to take custody is authorized pursuant to RCW 71.05.150(1)(d) or RCW 71.05.150(2).

(c) A statement that the person is to be taken into custody for the purpose of delivering that person to an evaluation and treatment facility for a period of up to 72 hours excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. The 72-hour period begins when the evaluation and treatment facility provisionally accepts the person as provided in RCW 71.05.170.

(d) A statement specifying the name and location of the evaluation and treatment facility where such person will be detained.

(e) The authorization and notice of detention shall be in substantially the following form:

RULE 2.3

RIGHT TO COPY COURT FILES

Prior to and at the hearing provided for in RCW 71.05.200, 71.05.240, and 71.05.250, the attorney for any detained person who will be a respondent at such hearing shall be permitted to view and copy all documents relating to the detained person which have been filed with the court.

RULE 2.4

PROBABLE CAUSE HEARING

(a) Notice. If notice to the court and the prosecuting attorney of the probable cause hearing as required by RCW 71.05.150(1)(c) includes the date and time of the provisional acceptance of any person involuntarily detained, no additional notice to the court shall be required pursuant to RCW 71.05.170.

(b) Procedure.

(1) The probable cause hearing provided in RCW 71.05.200(1) shall be held in accordance with the provisions of RCW 71.05.200(1), 71.05.240, and 71.05.250, except that under the circumstances defined by RCW 10.77.090, the prosecuting attorney may be the petitioner.

(2) The probable cause hearing shall proceed as in other civil actions, except that the court, in its discretion, may dispense with opening statements and final arguments.

(3) The court shall be advised of any medications administered to the respondent within the prior 24-hour period, and if it appears that the person detained has refused medication 24 hours before the hearing, but was nevertheless forced to receive medication during that period, the court may continue the hearing for 24 hours, and may order that no medication shall be administered to the person detained during such period.

(4) At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall make written findings of fact and conclusions of law, and enter an order for release or for detention for an additional 14 days in an evaluation and treatment facility, or such lesser treatment as shall to the court appear proper. A copy of the order shall be served upon the evaluation and treatment facility and on the mental health professional who signed the petition.

RULE 2.5

JUVENILE COURT PROCEEDINGS

(a) Minors over 13 years of age involuntarily committed pursuant to RCW 72.23.070(3)(c) shall be released from such involuntary detention at the expiration of 1 year unless a new petition is filed pursuant to RCW 72.23.070(3)(b).

(b) The term "clearly" as used in RCW 72.23.070 shall describe the standard, "clear, cogent, and convincing."

(c) An order shall be "necessary" or in the "best interest" of a minor, as those terms are used in RCW 72.23.070, when the minor is gravely disabled or presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself.

(d) In the event the professional person in charge of the facility or his designee seeks to prevent the release of a voluntarily committed minor seeking release pursuant to RCW 72.23.070, the petition or written objections required to be filed by him with the juvenile court shall be the same as a petition for initial involuntary detention of minors (rule 6.1A).

RULE 3.1

FIRST COURT APPEARANCE

For purposes of proceedings for 90-day commitment, the phrase "first court appearance" provided in RCW 71.05.310, shall refer to the appearance provided for in RCW 71.05.300 of that act.

RULE 3.2

PRELIMINARY APPEARANCE

Prior to the hearing provided for in RCW 71.05.320(2), the committed person shall be brought before the court for an appearance which shall be the same as that provided in RCW 71.05.300 of that act.

RULE 3.3
JURY DEMAND

(a) When Available. A jury is available only in a hearing for 90- or 180-day commitment proceedings pursuant to RCW 71.05.300 and RCW 71.05.320.

(b) Procedure for Demand. Within 2 judicial days after the person detained is advised in open court of his right to a jury trial as provided in RCW 71.05.300 the person detained may demand a trial by jury in the hearing on the petition for 90-day or 180-day detention by serving upon the prosecuting attorney a demand therefor in writing, by filing the demand therefor with the clerk. No jury fee shall be required. If no party, within the time above specified, serves and files a demand for jury trial, the matter shall be heard without a jury. If no party, within the time above specified, serves or files a demand that the matter be tried by a jury of 12, it shall be tried by a jury of 6 members, with concurrence of 5 being required to reach a verdict.

RULE 3.4
HEARING

(a) Procedure. The hearing shall be proceeded with as in any other civil action.

(b) Findings and Conclusions. Unless the matter is tried to a jury, the court shall make and enter findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(c) Verdict. If the matter is tried to a jury, the court shall instruct the jury to bring in a special verdict, which shall be in terms of the issues specified in RCW 71.05-.320.

RULE 4.1
NOTICE OF CONDITIONS

Any person conditionally released pursuant to RCW 71.05.340 shall be notified in writing of the terms and conditions of the release and shall be notified in writing of any modifications of such terms and conditions. Such notification shall also be given in writing to the court which ordered the person's commitment.

RULE 4.2
AUTHORIZATION FOR APPREHENSION AND DETENTION

At the time of taking any person into custody for failure to adhere to the terms and conditions of release under RCW 71.05.340 or of an alternative treatment under RCW 71.05.320, an authorization for apprehension and detention shall be served upon the person. The authorization for apprehension and detention shall include:

- (a) The name of the person taken into custody;
- (b) A statement that it is issued pursuant to the suspension of conditional release or alternative treatment;

(c) The date on which the order of commitment or order for alternative treatment was entered and the number of days, if any, for which the person was ordered committed.

(d) The authorization shall be in substantially the following form:

TO: ANY PEACE OFFICER OR MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL
You are authorized to take or cause to be taken (name of person) into custody and place such person in (name and location of evaluation and treatment facility) for detention pursuant to RCW 71.05.340 (suspension of conditional release) or RCW 71.05.320 (suspension of alternative treatment). The named person was conditionally released from an order of commitment or originally placed on alternative treatment, the conditions of which have been violated. The named person's commitment to inpatient treatment or alternative treatment was originally ordered for (number) days by (name of court) on (date).

RULE 4.3
PETITION AND ORDER OF APPREHENSION AND DETENTION—SERVICE

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the petition and order of apprehension and detention required in RCW 71.05.340, shall be served on the person to be apprehended and detained at the time of apprehension, and on his guardian, if any, and his attorney, if any, as soon as possible.

Where no order of apprehension and detention has been issued, a petition shall be filed with the court within 72 hours and the person, his attorney, if any, and his guardian, if any, shall be served with a copy of the petition within 24 hours after the petition is filed with the court. At the time the petition is served on the person, notice shall be filed with the court and served on the person that a hearing will be held within 15 days.

RULE 4.4
PETITION FOR INITIAL DETENTION

A mental health professional may commence new proceedings for 72-hour detention pursuant to RCW 71.05.150, notwithstanding an order of less restrictive alternative treatment under RCW 71.05.320 or a grant of conditional release pursuant to RCW 71.05.340.

RULE 4.5
HEARING

(a) Burden of Proof. Before entering an order returning any person for involuntary treatment on an inpatient basis as a result of failure to adhere to the terms and conditions of conditional release pursuant to RCW 71.05.340 or less restrictive treatment under RCW 71.05-.320, the court shall find at the hearing that there is clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that such person did not adhere to the terms and conditions of release or less restrictive treatment, that the terms of such release or treatment should not be modified, and that the person should be returned to inpatient treatment.

(b) Waiver. Waiver of the hearing provided for in RCW 71.05.340 shall be in writing signed by all persons required to waive under that section. A copy of the waiver shall be filed with the court in which the notice of apprehension and detention was filed.

RULE 5.1
GENERAL

Proceedings pursuant to RCW 71.05 shall be brought in the superior court of the county in which the person is being detained. The court, for good cause, may transfer a proceeding to the county of respondent's residence, or to the county in which the alleged conduct evidencing need for treatment occurred.

RULE 5.2
CONDITIONAL RELEASE HEARING

The notice of apprehension and detention and the petition for hearing required in RCW 71.05.340, shall be filed in the county ordering the commitment from which the person was conditionally released. Upon motion for good cause, the court may order the proceeding transferred to the court in the county in which the person was receiving outpatient care or the county of the person's residence.

RULE 5.3
RELEASE OF RECORDS

A proceeding for the release of records or files pursuant to RCW 71.05.390 shall be in the court maintaining such records or files.

RULE 5.4
[RESERVED]

RULE 6.1
PETITION FOR INITIAL DETENTION

The petition for initial detention shall contain the following:

- (a) Identification of the petitioner as a peace officer or designated mental health professional.
- (b) A statement describing the circumstances under which the condition of the respondent was brought to the petitioner's attention.
- (c) A statement that as a result of the petitioner's personal observation or investigation, the petitioner believes that the actions of the respondent constitute a likelihood of harm to the respondent, others, or to the property of others, or that the respondent is gravely disabled.
- (d) A statement of the specific facts known to the petitioner upon which he bases his belief that respondent should be detained for the purposes and under the authority of RCW 71.05.

(e) A request that the respondent be detained at an evaluation and treatment facility for no more than a 72-hour treatment and evaluation period.

(f) The date and the signature of the petitioner.

TITLE 1

SCOPE AND APPLICATION OF RULES

RULE 1.1

SCOPE OF RULES

These rules relate to procedure in the juvenile court.

RULE 1.2

JURISDICTION OF JUVENILE COURT

The jurisdiction of the juvenile court is defined by RCW 13.04.030.

RULE 1.3

DEFINITIONS

The definitions in RCW 13.04.011, RCW 13.34.030, RCW 9A.76.010 and RCW 13.40.020 shall apply to these rules. For the purposes of these rules:

(a) Guardian. "Guardian" means a person appointed by court order under RCW 11.88, but does not mean a person appointed a guardian ad litem under RCW 11.88.090.

(b) Custodian. "Custodian" or "legal custodian" means a person (other than a parent or a guardian) or an agency to whom legal custody of a child has been given by a court having jurisdiction over the child.

(c) Legal Custody. "Legal custody" means a status created by court order.

RULE 1.4

APPLICABILITY OF OTHER RULES

(a) Civil Rules. The Superior Court Civil Rules shall apply in proceedings other than those involving a juvenile offense when not inconsistent with these rules and applicable statutes.

(b) Criminal Rules. The Superior Court Criminal Rules shall apply in juvenile offense proceedings when not inconsistent with these rules and applicable statutes.

(c) Local Rules. The local rules of a juvenile court shall apply when not inconsistent with these rules and applicable statutes. Local rules for juvenile court proceedings must be adopted in accordance with GR 7.

RULE 1.5

CONTINUATION OF ACTIONS

(a) Dependency and Termination Proceedings.

(1) Actions filed on or after May 1, 1978, alleging dependency or seeking the termination of the parent-child relationship, in which the court has not entered a final order of dependency or termination prior to July 1, 1978, shall, after July 1, 1978, be governed by RCW 13.34 and these rules.

(2) The status of all juveniles found to be dependent prior to July 1, 1978, shall be reviewed as provided in RCW 13.34.130(3).

(3) Any proceeding to modify a disposition order in a case involving a juvenile found, prior to July 1, 1978, to be dependent shall be governed by RCW 13.34 and these rules.

(4) The court may modify the application of this section to a particular case when, in the opinion of the court, that application would work injustice.

(b) Juvenile Offense Proceedings. Juvenile offense proceedings shall be governed by the law in effect on the date the offense is found to have taken place.

TITLE 2

SHELTER CARE PROCEEDINGS

RULE 2.1

PLACEMENT OF JUVENILE IN SHELTER CARE GENERALLY

(a) Without Court Order. A juvenile may be placed in shelter care without court order if the juvenile has been taken into custody pursuant to RCW 26.44.050.

(b) With Court Order. A juvenile may be placed in shelter care with a court order if:

(1) A dependency petition has been filed pursuant to rule 3.2 and a motion has been made pursuant to section (c); or

(2) The juvenile has previously been found to be dependent, is the subject of a disposition order still in effect, and a motion has been made pursuant to section (c).

(c) Obtaining Shelter Care Order. A request for an order pursuant to RCW 13.34.050 shall be by motion supported by a sworn statement filed with the court or by testimony given in open court, setting forth the facts which form the basis for the motion.

RULE 2.2

RELEASE OF JUVENILE FROM SHELTER CARE WITHOUT HEARING

(a) If Shelter Care Is Without Court Order. If a juvenile is taken into shelter care without a court order pursuant to RCW 26.44.050, the juvenile shall be released unless a petition alleging dependency is filed within 72 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) after taking the juvenile into custody.

(b) If Shelter Care Is With Court Order. If a juvenile is taken into shelter care pursuant to a court order, the juvenile shall be released unless an order authorizing continued shelter care is entered within 72 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) after the juvenile is taken into custody.

RULE 2.3

RIGHT TO AND NOTICE OF SHELTER CARE HEARING

(a) Shelter Care Hearing Defined. The term "shelter care hearing" means any hearing under RCW 13.34.060.

(b) Notice of Right to Shelter Care Hearing. The notice of the right to request a shelter care hearing required by RCW 13.34.060 shall be given to the juvenile, his or her parents, guardian, or custodian within 72 hours of the taking into custody of the juvenile, and in accordance with rule 11.2.

(c) Shelter Care Hearing Requested. If a shelter care hearing has been requested the court shall hold the hearing within 72 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) of the request for a shelter care hearing.

(d) Notice of Shelter Care Hearing. The notice required by RCW 13.34.060(2) shall be given in accordance with rule 11.2. The notice shall inform the parents, guardian, or custodian of their right to a lawyer as provided in Title 9 of these rules.

RULE 2.4

PROCEDURE AT SHELTER CARE HEARING

(a) Inform Parties of Rights. The court shall inform the parties of their rights as set forth in RCW 13.34.090 and in Titles 2, 3, and 9 of these rules. The court may continue the hearing if the parties have been unable to retain a lawyer or have been unable to have a lawyer appointed for them.

(b) Hearing and Decision. The court shall hold the hearing on the question of shelter care in accordance with RCW 13.34.060(4) and RCW 13.34.090. The court shall make its decision in accordance with RCW 13.34-.060(6).

(c) Release of Juvenile on Conditions. The court may release the juvenile on those conditions it deems appropriate. As provided in RCW 13.34.060(7), the conditions may be modified upon notice to the parties given in accordance with rule 11.2 and after a hearing.

RULE 2.5

AMENDMENT OF SHELTER CARE ORDER

The court may amend a shelter care order as provided in RCW 13.34.060(8) at a hearing held after notice to the parties given in accordance with rule 11.2. Any party may move to amend a shelter care order.

TITLE 3

DEPENDENCY PROCEEDINGS

RULE 3.1

INVOKING JURISDICTION OF JUVENILE COURT

Juvenile court jurisdiction is invoked over dependency proceedings by filing a petition.

RULE 3.2

WHO MAY FILE PETITION—VENUE

(a) Who May File. Any person may file a petition alleging dependency.

(b) Venue. The petition shall be filed in the county where the juvenile is located or where the juvenile resides.

RULE 3.3

CONTENT OF DEPENDENCY PETITION

A dependency petition shall contain:

(a) Identification of the Juvenile. The name, age, sex, and residence of the juvenile so far as known to the petitioner.

(b) Identification of Parent, Guardian, or Custodian. The name, marital status, and residence of the parent, guardian, or custodian, or person with whom the juvenile is residing, so far as known to the petitioner. If not known, the petition shall so state.

(c) Jurisdictional Statement. A statement of the statutory provisions which give the court jurisdiction over the proceeding.

(d) Statement of Facts. A statement of the facts which give the court jurisdiction over the juvenile and over the subject matter of the proceedings, stated in plain language and with reasonable definiteness and particularity.

(e) Request for Inquiry. A request that the court inquire into the matter and enter an order that the court shall find to be in the best interests of the juvenile and justice.

(f) Other. Any other information required by court rule or statute.

RULE 3.4

NOTICE AND SUMMONS—SCHEDULING OF FACTFINDING HEARING

(a) Notice and Summons. After the petition has been filed, notice and summons shall be issued and served pursuant to RCW 13.34.070 or published pursuant to RCW 13.34.080.

(b) Advice To Be Contained in Notice. A notice directed to the juvenile or the juvenile's parent, custodian, or guardian shall contain the following advisement:

Right to Lawyer

(1) You have the right to talk to a lawyer if you desire and, if you cannot afford a lawyer, one will be appointed for you.

(2) A lawyer can look at the social and legal files in your case, talk to the caseworker, tell you about the law, help you understand your rights, and help you at trial.

(c) Notice of Possible Termination Proceedings. If the petition alleges dependency pursuant to RCW 13.34-.030(2)(a) or (b), or has been amended to include that allegation, the notice shall state that the petition begins a process which, if the juvenile is found dependent, may result in permanent termination of the parent-child relationship.

(d) Scheduling Factfinding Hearing. The court shall schedule a factfinding hearing with reasonable speed, giving preference to those cases where the juvenile is held in shelter care or detention.

RULE 3.5

AMENDMENT OF PETITION

A petition may be amended at any time. The court shall grant additional time if necessary to insure a full and fair hearing on any new allegations in an amended petition.

RULE 3.6

ANSWER TO PETITION

Any party may file a written answer to a petition. An answer is not required unless ordered by the court or required by local rule.

RULE 3.7

FACTFINDING HEARING

(a) Procedure at Hearing. The court shall hold a factfinding hearing on the petition in accordance with RCW 13.34.110.

(b) Evidence. The Rules of Evidence shall apply to the hearing. No social file or social study shall be considered by the court in connection with the factfinding hearing or prior to factual determination.

(c) Burden of Proof. In a factfinding hearing on a petition alleging dependency pursuant to RCW 13.34-.030(2)(a), (b), or (c), the facts alleged in the petition must be proven by a preponderance of the evidence. In a factfinding hearing on a petition alleging dependency pursuant to RCW 13.34.030(2)(d), the facts alleged in the petition must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

RULE 3.8

DISPOSITION HEARING

(a) Time. If a juvenile has been found to be dependent, the court shall hold a disposition hearing. If the disposition hearing does not immediately follow the factfinding hearing, notice of the continued hearing shall be given to all parties in accordance with RCW 13.34.110.

(b) Informing Parties of Purpose of Hearing. The court shall inform the parties of the purpose of the hearing. The court shall inform the parties of the new status of the juvenile as a result of the finding of dependency.

(c) Evidence. The court shall consider the social file, social study, and other appropriate predisposition studies, in addition to information produced at the factfinding and disposition hearings. Any party shall have the right to be heard at the disposition hearing. Any social file, social study, or predisposition study shall be made available for inspection by a party or his or her lawyer for a reasonable time prior to the disposition hearing.

(d) Submission of Agency Plan. If the agency plan referred to in RCW 13.34.130(2) is not submitted to the court at the time of the disposition hearing, it shall be filed with the court and distributed to all parties within 30 days after the disposition hearing.

(e) Transferring Legal Custody. A disposition which orders removal of the juvenile from his or her home shall have the effect of transferring legal custody to the agency or custodian charged with the juvenile's care. The transfer of legal custody shall give the legal custodian the following rights and duties:

- (1) To maintain the physical custody of the juvenile;
- (2) To protect, train, and discipline the juvenile;
- (3) To provide food, clothing, shelter, education as required by law, and routine medical care for a juvenile; and
- (4) To consent to emergency medical and surgical care and to sign a release of medical information to appropriate authorities, pursuant to law.

The court may, in its disposition order, modify the rights and duties granted to the legal custodian as a result of the transfer of legal custody.

RULE 3.9

REVIEW HEARING

The status of all juveniles found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every 6 months, in accordance with RCW 13.34.130(3). The parties shall be given notice of the review hearing in accordance with rule 11.2. All parties shall have the right to be present at the review hearing and to be heard. Notice of a review hearing concerning a juvenile who has been found dependent under RCW 13.34.030(2)(a) or (b) and who has been removed from the parental home shall include an advisement that a petition to terminate the parent-child relationship may be filed 6 months after the juvenile has been removed from the parental home.

RULE 3.10

MODIFICATION OF ORDER

Any party may move to change, modify, or set aside an order pursuant to RCW 13.34.150. The motion shall be in writing and must state the basis for the motion and the relief requested. No order shall be changed, modified, or set aside except after notice to all parties and a hearing, unless the court waives the hearing on its own motion or upon motion of one of the parties, for good cause shown.

TITLE 4

PROCEEDINGS TO TERMINATE PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIP

RULE 4.1

INVOKING JURISDICTION OF JUVENILE COURT

Juvenile court jurisdiction is invoked over a proceeding to terminate a parent-child relationship by filing a petition.

PLEADINGS

(a) Petition. A petition requesting the termination of a parent-child relationship may be filed in the juvenile court. The petition shall conform to the requirements of rule 3.3, shall be verified, and shall state the facts which underlie each of the allegations required by RCW 13.34.180.

(b) Amendment of Petition. A petition may be amended as provided in rule 3.5.

(c) Answer. A party may answer a petition as provided in rule 3.6.

RULE 4.3

NOTICE OF TERMINATION HEARING

Notice of the termination hearing and a copy of the petition shall be served on all parties in the manner defined by RCW 13.34.070(6) and (7) or published in the manner defined by RCW 13.34.080.

TITLE 5

PROCEEDINGS FOR ALTERNATIVE RESIDENTIAL PLACEMENT

RULE 5.1

INVOKING JURISDICTION OF JUVENILE COURT

Juvenile court jurisdiction is invoked over a proceeding for alternative residential placement by filing a petition.

RULE 5.2

PLEADINGS—RELEASE OF JUVENILE IN DETENTION

(a) Petition. A petition requesting an alternative residential placement, conforming to the requirements of rule 3.3, may be filed by a juvenile or a juvenile's parent or custodian pursuant to RCW 74.13.031(4)(f).

(b) Venue. The petition shall be filed in the county where a custodial parent or custodian resides.

(c) Amendment of Petition. A petition may be amended as provided in rule 3.5.

(d) Answer. A party may answer a petition as provided in rule 3.6.

(e) Release of Juvenile in Detention. If a juvenile is held in detention pursuant to RCW 74.13.031(4)(g), the juvenile shall be released unless a petition is filed within 48 hours after the initial detention of the juvenile.

RULE 5.3

SCHEDULING OF PLACEMENT HEARING

(a) Time. If the petition has been filed by a juvenile, or a juvenile's parent or guardian, the court shall schedule a hearing upon the question of alternative residential placement with reasonable speed. The hearing shall be held within 14 days after the filing of the petition, unless the time is extended for good cause shown.

(b) Hearing When Juvenile Is Held in Detention. If a petition has been filed pursuant to RCW 74.13.031(4)(g), a hearing on the petition shall be held within 72 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) of the initial detention of the juvenile or the juvenile shall be released.

RULE 5.4

NOTICE OF PLACEMENT HEARING

The notice required by RCW 13.32.030 shall be given in accordance with rule 11.2. The notice shall also include the following:

(1) Right to Lawyer. A statement advising the parents or the custodian of their right to be represented by a retained lawyer at the hearing;

(2) Consequences of Petition Approval. A statement advising the parties that if the court approves the petition, the juvenile will have the right to live in the placement approved by the court, subject to the terms of the court order, and that the parents will not be relieved of financial responsibility for the juvenile; and

(3) Alternative Placement. A statement advising the parties that the court may, instead of approving the requested placement, order the juvenile placed in an appropriate nonsecure facility.

RULE 5.5

PLACEMENT HEARING

The hearing to consider the juvenile's placement shall be held in accordance with RCW 13.32.040.

RULE 5.6

REVIEW HEARING

(a) Time. The court shall schedule a review of any alternative residential placement within 6 months of the placement. The notice of the review hearing required to be given by RCW 13.32.050 may be given to the parties at the placement hearing, or they may be notified in accordance with rule 11.2. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with RCW 13.32.050.

(b) Additional Review Hearings. If the court approves continuation of alternative placement, it shall hold another review hearing within 6 months of that approval. If the court does not continue alternative placement, it may hold another review hearing within 6 months.

(c) Notice. The parties shall be notified of a subsequent review hearing in accordance with rule 11.2.

TITLE 6

JUVENILE OFFENSE PROCEEDINGS—DIVERSION AGREEMENTS

RULE 6.1

ELIGIBILITY FOR DIVERSION

A juvenile's eligibility for diversion shall be determined pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 and .080.

RULE 6.2

RIGHT TO CONSULT WITH A LAWYER

(a) Advice of Right to Representation by Lawyer. A juvenile found eligible for diversion shall, prior to the initial interview with the diversion unit, be advised of his or her right to consult with a lawyer concerning the juvenile's decision to enter into a diversion agreement or to appear in juvenile court.

(b) Appointment of Lawyer. The court shall appoint a lawyer for any juvenile who is financially unable to obtain a lawyer for the consultation if the juvenile does not waive that right pursuant to rule 6.3.

(c) Retained Lawyer During Diversion Process. A juvenile may be represented by a retained lawyer during the diversion process in accordance with RCW 13.40.080(6).

RULE 6.3

WAIVER OF RIGHT TO LAWYER

A waiver containing the following statements and in substantially the following form shall be read by, signed by, and a copy given to a juvenile who waives the right to consult with a lawyer before an initial interview with a diversion unit:

Waiver of Lawyer

1. I know that I can talk to a lawyer about whether I should enter into a diversion process and will not have to pay for one if I cannot afford it.

Part IV (JuCR)

Rules of Court

2. I know that a lawyer can look at my police reports, tell me about the law, help me understand my rights, and help me decide whether I should enter into a diversion process or go to juvenile court.

RULE 6.4

ADVICE ABOUT DIVERSION PROCESS

A statement in substantially the following form shall be read to, signed by, and a copy given to a juvenile before an initial interview with the diversion unit:

Advice About Diversion

- 1. Diversion is a different way of dealing with juveniles who are charged with a crime. You do not go to court and there is no trial before a judge.
2. A diversion agreement is a contract between you and the diversion unit. A diversion agreement may require you to do certain things, such as community service or make restitution, but you cannot be sent to jail.
3. The diversion agreement will be part of your criminal record.
4. You have the right to talk to a lawyer about whether you should participate in diversion or whether you should go to court. You will not have to pay for a lawyer if you cannot afford it.
5. When you agree to participate in the diversion process, you do not have the right to have a free lawyer appointed for you to help you work out a diversion agreement, but you do have the right to have a lawyer help you work out a diversion agreement if you can afford to pay for it.
6. Even if you talk to the diversion unit, you can decide not to sign the diversion agreement; then your case would go to court if charges are filed by the prosecutor.

RULE 6.5

ADVICE OF RIGHTS AND EFFECT OF DIVERSION

(a) Advice to Juvenile Entering Into a Diversion Agreement. A statement in substantially the following form shall be read to, signed by, and a copy given to a juvenile who enters into a diversion agreement before the agreement is signed:

Effect of Diversion Agreement

- 1. I understand that the crime I am charged with will be part of my criminal record.
2. I understand that the diversion agreement will be part of my criminal record.
3. I understand that I might not be able to make a diversion agreement for another crime because I have signed this diversion agreement.
4. I understand that I may be given a longer sentence for another crime because I have signed this diversion agreement.
5. I understand that my criminal record will show how well I follow the diversion agreement.
6. I understand that if I do not follow the diversion agreement, the prosecutor can bring me to trial for the crime I am charged with.
7. I understand that my criminal record will be available to the police, the prosecutor, and the court if I am charged with another crime.
8. I understand that when I am 23 years old I may ask the court to remove this crime and the diversion agreement from my record if I have not been charged with or been convicted of another crime.
9. I understand that I do not have to sign this agreement. If I do not sign, I understand that my case will go to court if charges are filed by the prosecutor.

10. I understand that if my case goes to court, I can talk to a lawyer and will not have to pay for it if I cannot afford it.

11. I have read or someone has read to me everything printed above and I understand it. I have been given a copy of this statement.

(b) Advice to Juvenile Released Without Entering Into a Diversion Agreement. A statement in substantially the following form shall be read to, signed by, and a copy given to a juvenile who is released by a diversion unit pursuant to RCW 13.40.080(9):

Effect of Nondiversion Release

- 1. I understand that the crime I am charged with will be part of my criminal record.
2. I understand that I might not be able to make a diversion agreement for another crime because I have agreed not to go to trial.
3. I understand that I may be given a longer sentence for another crime because I have agreed not to go to trial.
4. I understand that my criminal record will be available to the police, the prosecutor, and the court if I am charged with another crime.
5. I understand that when I am 23 years old I may ask the court to remove this crime from my record if I have not been charged with or convicted of another crime.
6. I understand that I do not have to sign this statement. If I do not sign, I understand that my case will go to court if charges are filed by the prosecutor.
7. I understand that if my case goes to court I can talk to a lawyer and will not have to pay for it if I cannot afford it.
8. I have read or someone has read to me everything printed above and I understand it. I have been given a copy of this statement.
