(a) Motion. The procedure to seek termination of a diversion agreement is to file a motion in juvenile court alleging that the juvenile has substantially violated the terms of the diversion agreement. The motion shall include a statement of:

- (1) The offense which the juvenile was alleged to have committed;
(2) The terms of the diversion agreement; and
(3) The alleged violation of the diversion agreement.

(b) Scheduling and Notice of Hearing. The court shall schedule a hearing on the allegations in the motion with reasonable speed. A copy of the motion and the written notice of the hearing required by RCW 13.40.080(4) shall be given the juvenile in accordance with rule 11.2. The notice shall also state that an information may be filed on the original offense.

(c) Disclosure of Evidence. All evidence to be offered against the juvenile shall be disclosed to the juvenile a reasonable time prior to the hearing.

(d) Procedure at Hearing. The court shall hold a hearing on the allegations made in the motion. At the hearing the juvenile shall have the opportunity to be heard in person, to present evidence, and to confront and cross-examine all adverse witnesses.

(e) Burden of Proof and Order Terminating Diversion Agreement. The moving party must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the allegations in the motion are true and that they are a substantial violation of the diversion agreement. If the court finds that the moving party has met this burden of proof, it may order the termination of the diversion agreement. An order terminating a diversion agreement shall include a written statement of the evidence relied upon by the court and the reasons for the termination.

(f) Consolidation of Termination Hearing With Adjudication of Offense. When the diversion unit has referred the case to the prosecuting attorney, and the prosecutor has filed an information, the court may schedule the hearing on the allegations in the motion to terminate the diversion agreement for the same time and place as the adjudicatory hearing on the allegations in the information. In that case, the court shall hold a hearing in accordance with this rule and make a finding with respect to the allegations in the motion before conducting the adjudicatory hearing on the allegations in the information.

RULE 7.13

RELEASE PENDING APPELLATE REVIEW

If the only error asserted on appellate review is the appropriateness of the disposition, release of the juvenile pending review is governed by RCW 13.40.230(5). If additional or different errors are asserted, the juvenile court shall release the juvenile pending review if the court determines, at a hearing, that detention is not necessary to prevent the juvenile from fleeing the jurisdiction or harming the juvenile or the person or property of others. The court may impose conditions on the release as in RCW 13.40.040(4) and RCW 13.40.050(6).

Upon finding that the services are necessary and that the juvenile is financially unable to obtain them without substantial hardship to himself or herself or the juvenile's family, the court shall authorize counsel to obtain the services on the behalf of the juvenile. The ability to pay part of the cost of the services shall not preclude the provision of those services by the court. A juvenile shall not be deprived of necessary services because a parent, guardian, or custodian refuses to pay for those services. The court, in the interest of justice and on a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could not await prior authorization, may ratify services after they have been obtained.

(b) Compensation. The court shall determine reasonable compensation for the services and direct payment to the organization or person who rendered them on the filing of a claim for compensation supported by affidavits specifying the time expended and the services, and expenses incurred on behalf of the juvenile, and the compensation received in the same case or for the same services from the juvenile or any other source.

RULE 1 [RESCINDED]

RULE 2 SCOPE OF RULES

These rules shall govern the procedure of civil, criminal, and traffic cases in all courts of limited jurisdiction inferior to the superior court. They shall be construed to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action. Failure to set forth herein any provisions of common law or statute, not inconsistent with these rules, shall not be construed as an implied repeal thereof.

RULE 3 DEFINITION OF TERMS

As used in these rules, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

- (1) "Court" means any court inferior to the superior court.
- (2) "Judge" shall mean justice of the peace, municipal court judge, police court judge, and the judge of any court inferior to the superior court which may be hereafter established.

RULE 4 CANONS OF JUDICIAL ETHICS

(1) The Canons of Judicial Ethics as adopted by the Supreme Court of Washington shall apply to the judge of each court subject to these rules, whether or not such judge has been admitted to the Bar. It shall be the obligation of each such judge to conduct his court and his professional and personal relationships in accordance with the same standards as are required of judges of courts of record, except that Canon 31, prohibiting judges from practicing law, shall not apply to attorney-justices of courts of limited jurisdiction who have been specifically authorized by statute to practice law.

(2) The taking of photographs in the courtroom or radio or television broadcasting or transmitting of judicial proceedings from the courtroom during the progress of judicial proceedings shall be governed by the Canons of Judicial Ethics.

RULE 5 PRESIDING JUDGE, MULTIPLE JUDGE JUSTICE COURT DISTRICT

(a) Appointment. In all justice court districts having more than one judge, the judicial business of the district shall be supervised by one of those judges to be known as the "Presiding Judge," who shall be elected by the judges of such district for a term not to exceed 1 year subject to reelection. In the same manner, the judges shall elect another judge of said district to serve as Acting Presiding Judge during the temporary absence or disability of the Presiding Judge. Interim vacancies in the office of Presiding Judge or Acting Presiding Judge shall be filled as in the original election above described.

The Presiding Judge so elected shall send notice of the election of such Presiding Judge and Acting Presiding Judge to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court on or before May 1, 1963, and thereafter on or before March 15 of each year. If the judges of a district shall fail or refuse to elect and certify to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court shall by appointment designate the Presiding Judge and Acting Presiding Judge.

(b) Duties. The duties of the Presiding Judge shall include the supervision of the business of the judicial district in such manner as to assure the expeditious and efficient handling of all cases and equal distribution of the work load among the several judges; assigning the justices of the peace to departments, if the court is departmentalized; presiding at meetings of the justices of the peace of the district; supervising the preparation and filing of reports required by statute or rule of court; and such other duties as may be assigned by statute or by rule.

RULE 6

RECORDS: SEPARATE DOCKETS—CONTENTS

(a) Every court having criminal jurisdiction shall keep such records as are required by law.

(b) Separate dockets shall be kept for criminal, traffic, civil, and small claims actions. The required entries within the traffic and criminal dockets shall be as required on the "Complaint/Citation Docket Form" prescribed in JTR 2.01. In civil and small claims dockets there shall be entered:

- (1) The title of all actions;

- (6) All demands for a trial by jury, and by whom;
- (7) The names of the jurors who appear and are sworn, the names of witnesses sworn, and at whose request;
- (8) An abstract of the verdict of the jury when received and other proceedings in connection with the jury;
- (9) An abstract of the judgment of the court and the amount thereof, and all costs granted in connection therewith;
- (10) The time of issuing execution, and an account of the debt and costs, and the fees due to each person separately;
- (11) The fact of a notice of appeal and the date thereof;
- (12) Satisfaction of the judgment, or any money paid thereon and the date thereof;
- (13) Such other entries as may be material.

RULE 7

VIOLATION OF RULES—CONTEMPT—WHEN

Any willful failure to apply the provisions of these rules in his court, the failure to amend or vacate local court rules contradictory to those herein set forth, or the continuation of practices expressly forbidden in these rules by the judge of any court subject thereto who has received actual notice of their adoption may be considered a contempt of the Supreme Court of Washington and punishable as such.

RULE 8

REPORTING OF CRIMINAL CASES

(a) Report of Disposition. Within 5 court days after the disposition by a court of limited jurisdiction of a felony or gross misdemeanor charge or misdemeanor charges which have been reported to the Washington State Patrol Section on Identification, whether the disposition be a plea of guilty or by deferral or suspension of imposition of sentence, or a finding of guilty, or not guilty after trial, or by a dismissal of the charge, the court clerk shall report such disposition to the Section on a disposition form approved by the Administrator for the Courts. When a sentence has been deferred or suspended, the report to the Section shall indicate the length of time over which such suspension or deferral is to be effective. At the conclusion of the time period for deferral or suspension of sentence, the court clerk shall forward an amended disposition form to the Section showing the actual disposition of the case.

(b) Report of Appeal. If an appeal is taken from the disposition made by a court of limited jurisdiction, the court clerk shall, within 5 court days of the taking of the appeal, notify the Section on an amended disposition form. In the event that the result of any proceeding changes or otherwise makes inaccurate the information forwarded on the original disposition report, the court clerk shall prepare and forward to the Section a supplemental disposition report on a form approved by the Administrator for the Courts indicating thereon the information necessary to correct the current status of the disposition of charges against the subject maintained in the records of the Section.

TITLE 1

SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF RULES

RULE 1.1

SCOPE OF RULES

(a) Proceedings Subject to Rules. These rules establish the procedure, called appeal, for review by the superior court of a final decision of a court of limited jurisdiction, subject to the restrictions defined in this rule. These rules apply only to review of (1) district courts operating under RCW 3.30; (2) municipal departments operating under RCW 3.46; (3) alternative municipal courts operating under RCW 3.50 in municipalities exceeding 5,000 in population; (4) municipal courts operating under RCW 35.20; (5) all other courts operating under RCW Title 35 or 35A in municipalities exceeding 5,000 in population; and (6) any other court required by law to have a lawyer-judge. These rules do not apply to review of other courts of limited jurisdiction, do not apply to review of a small claims court operating under RCW 12.40, and do not apply to review of a decision of a judge who is not admitted to the practice of law in Washington. These rules do not supersede the procedure for seeking de novo review when these rules do not apply. These rules do not apply to and do not supersede the procedure for seeking de novo review of other decisions of a court of limited jurisdiction.

(b) Statutory Writs Retained. These rules do not supersede and do not govern the procedure for seeking review of a decision of a court of limited jurisdiction by statutory writ.

(c) Application to Civil and Criminal Proceedings. Each rule applies to both civil and criminal proceedings, unless a different application is intended.

(d) Superseding Effect of Rules. These rules supersede all statutes and rules covering the procedure for review in the superior court of a decision of a court of limited jurisdiction to which these rules apply, unless one of these rules specifically indicates to the contrary.

(e) Effect of Subsequent Legislation. If a statute in conflict with a rule is enacted after these rules become effective and that statute does not supersede the conflicting rule by direct reference to the rule by number, the rule applies unless the rule specifically indicates that statutes control. If a statute in conflict with a rule is enacted after these rules become effective and that statute does supersede the conflicting rule by direct reference to the rule by number, the statute applies until such time as the rule may be amended or changed by the Supreme Court through exercise of its rulemaking power.

RULE 1.2

INTERPRETATION AND APPLICATION OF RULES

(a) Interpretation. These rules will be liberally interpreted to promote justice and facilitate the decision of cases on the merits.

(b) Application of Rules. Cases and issues will not be determined on the basis of compliance or noncompliance with these rules, except that a case will be dismissed without a decision on the merits for failure to timely file a notice of appeal in the superior court or for want of prosecution of the appeal under rule 10.2(a), and a party's right to proceed further in an appeal may be conditioned on compliance with the terms of a sanction order under rule 10.1.

TITLE 2

INITIATING AN APPEAL

RULE 2.1

WHO MAY APPEAL

Only an aggrieved party may appeal.

RULE 2.2

WHAT MAY BE APPEALED

(a) Final Decision. A party may appeal from a final decision of a court of limited jurisdiction to which these rules apply under rule 1.1(a), except a decision in a mitigation hearing under RCW 46.63.100 and JTIR 2.6(b).

(b) Amount in Controversy. Statutes control limitations on appeal based on the amount in controversy.

RULE 2.3

WHERE TO APPEAL—CHANGE OF VENUE

(a) Where To Appeal. A party must seek review of a decision in a criminal case in the superior court of the county in which the offense allegedly occurred if the court of limited jurisdiction from which the appeal is taken is located in a joint justice court district. In all other cases, a party must seek review in the superior court for the county in which the court of limited jurisdiction from which the appeal is taken is located.

(b) Change of Venue. If a party seeks review in the wrong superior court, the venue of the appeal shall be changed to the proper superior court on motion of a party or on the initiative of the superior court.

RULE 2.4

HOW TO INITIATE AN APPEAL

(a) Review Initiated by Filing Notice of Appeal in Superior Court. A party appealing a decision subject to these rules must file a notice of appeal in the superior court within the time provided by rule 2.5. This is the only jurisdictional requirement for an appeal.

(b) Filing Fee in Superior Court. The first party to file a notice of appeal shall, at the time the notice is filed, pay the statutory filing fee to the clerk of the superior court in which the notice is filed, unless the party filing the notice is excused from paying a filing fee by statute or by the constitution.

(c) Filing Notice in Court of Limited Jurisdiction and Service. A party filing a notice of appeal in superior court shall simultaneously file a copy of the notice in the court of limited jurisdiction that entered the decision and serve a copy of the notice on all other parties.

RULE 2.5

TIME ALLOWED TO INITIATE APPEAL BY FILING NOTICE

(a) Time Allowed To File Notice of Appeal. Except as provided in section (c), a notice of appeal must be filed in the superior court within 14 days after the date of entry of the final decision which the party filing the notice seeks to appeal.

(b) Date of Entry Defined. If the final decision of the court of limited jurisdiction is oral and evidenced solely by a writing in the court record, the date of entry is the date the writing was placed in the record. If the final decision is by a writing signed by the court of limited jurisdiction, the date of entry is the date of delivery of the writing signed by the judge to the clerk for filing. If the decision is entered other than at a regularly scheduled and noticed hearing, the date of entry of the decision for a party is 3 days after the court of limited jurisdiction mails a notice to that party advising the party of both the court's decision and of the date that decision was written in the court record or the date that decision was delivered to the clerk for filing.

(c) Subsequent Notice by Other Parties. If a timely notice of appeal is filed by a party, any other party seeking relief from the decision must file a notice of appeal within the later of (1) 7 days after service of the notice of appeal filed by the other party, or (2) the time within which a notice of appeal must be filed as provided in section (a).

(d) Effect of Premature Notice of Appeal. A notice of appeal filed after the announcement of a decision but before entry of the final decision will be treated as filed on the day following entry of the decision.

RULE 2.6

CONTENT OF NOTICE OF APPEAL

(a) Content of Notice of Appeal Generally. A notice of appeal should (1) be titled "Notice of Appeal", (2) identify the party or parties appealing, (3) designate the decision which the party wants reviewed, (4) name the superior court to which the appeal is taken, (5) provide the identifying material required by section (b), and (6) designate the claimed errors as required by section (c).

(b) Identification of Parties, Lawyers, and Address of Defendant in Criminal Case. The first party to file a notice of appeal should include on the notice the name and address of the lawyer for each of the parties represented by a lawyer and the address of parties who are not represented by counsel. If a defendant in a criminal case appeals, the notice of appeal should include the defendant's address. The defendant in a criminal case must file a statement in the superior court indicating any changes in the defendant's address during the appeal.

(c) Designation of Claimed Errors. The notice of appeal shall include a statement of the errors the appealing party claims were made by the court of limited jurisdiction. If an electronic recording is to be reviewed, the notice of appeal must identify, in accordance with local court rule or if there is no local court rule, in accordance with procedures established by the Administrator for the Courts, the location of claimed errors on the recording.

(d) Amending Claims of Error. A party filing a notice of appeal may, without court permission, file one statement including additional claims of error or amending those claims previously included on the notice of appeal. The statement shall be served on all parties and be filed in the superior court at least 14 days before the scheduled hearing of the appeal. Additional claims of error may be added or claims of error modified only with permission of the superior court.

(e) Multiple Parties Filing Notice of Appeal. More than one party may join in a single notice of appeal.

(f) Defects in Form of Notice of Appeal. The superior court will disregard defects in the form of a notice of appeal if the notice clearly reflects an intent by a party to seek review.

(g) Notice by Fewer Than All Parties on a Side—Joinder. If there are multiple parties on a side of a case and fewer than all of the parties on that side of the case timely file a notice of appeal, the superior court will grant relief only (1) to a party who has timely filed a notice, (2) to a party who has been joined as provided in this paragraph, or (3) to a party if demanded by the necessities of the case. The superior court will permit joinder on appeal of a party who did not file a notice of appeal only if the party's rights or duties are derived through the rights or duties of the party who timely filed notice or if the party's rights or duties are dependent upon the superior court determination of the rights or duties of a party who timely filed a notice.

ADVICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL IN CRIMINAL CASE

In a criminal case, the judge of the court of limited jurisdiction shall advise the defendant of the defendant's right to appeal a final decision by filing a notice of appeal in the superior court. The judge shall also advise the defendant that the notice must be served on all other parties and filed in the superior court within 14 days after the final decision in the case, and that the notice must specify the errors claimed by the defendant. Upon request, the court shall supply the defendant with a standard form of notice of appeal.

(c) Waiver of Privilege To Change Judge. The privilege of a party to seek the change of a judge in superior court is waived if a party fails to seek a change of judge within 7 days after receipt of a notice of assignment, unless the ground for seeking a change of judge is a particular incident, conversation, or utterance by the judge which was not known to the party or to the party's attorney within the 7-day period.

TITLE 4

AND OF SUPERIOR COURT PENDING
APPEAL—STAYS

RULE 4.1

(b) Court of Limited Jurisdiction. After a notice of appeal has been filed, and while the case is on appeal, the court of limited jurisdiction has authority to act in a case only to the extent provided in these rules, unless the superior court limits or expands that authority in a particular case.

RULE 4.2

ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENT

(a) Civil Case. A party may not enforce a civil judgment of a court of limited jurisdiction until 14 days after entry of the judgment. Thereafter, a party may enforce the judgment unless enforcement is stayed as provided in rule 4.3.

(b) Criminal Case. A sentence in a criminal case will be enforced by the court of limited jurisdiction if the defendant does not appeal or if the defendant appeals and fails to stay enforcement of sentence as provided in rule 4.3(b).

(c) Statutes Control. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, statutes and other rules relating to enforcement of a judgment and a sentence are applicable.

RULE 4.3

STAY OF ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENT

(b) Criminal Case. The court of limited jurisdiction shall stay enforcement of a sentence in a criminal case if a notice of appeal is filed by the defendant and (1) the defendant posts cash bail or files a bond to the State in a reasonable sum fixed by the court of limited jurisdiction, with sureties as the court may require, or (2) the court of limited jurisdiction determines that enforcement of the sentence should be stayed without cash bail or a bond. A stay must be conditioned on the defendant's timely prosecution of the appeal. In a criminal case, the trial court has authority to fix conditions of release of a defendant and to revoke a suspended or deferred sentence.

TITLE 5

RECORDING PROCEEDINGS IN COURT OF LIMITED JURISDICTION

RULE 5.1

RECORDING GENERALLY

(a) Generally. The proceedings in a court of limited jurisdiction shall be recorded by electronic means, unless the parties agree that some other form of record shall be prepared at the parties' own expense or that no record of the proceedings is necessary. This title applies to proceedings which are to be recorded by electronic means.

(b) Nonelectronic Record in Emergency. In the event of an equipment failure or other situation making an electronic recording impossible, the court may order the proceeding to be recorded by nonelectronic means. (b) Decision, Findings, Conclusions. In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury the court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law. Judgment shall be entered pursuant to JCR 58 or JCrR 5.03 and may be entered at the same time as the entry of the findings of fact and the conclusions of law. If a written opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it will be sufficient if formal findings of fact and conclusions of law are included.

RULE 5.3
LOG

The judge of the court of limited jurisdiction shall cause a written log to be maintained separate from the recording indicating the location on the electronic record of relevant events in the proceedings, including but not limited to the beginning of the proceeding, the beginning and ending of the testimony of each witness, the decision of the court, and the end of the proceeding.

RULE 5.4
LOSS OR DAMAGE OF ELECTRONIC RECORD

In the event of loss or damage of the electronic record, or any significant or material portion thereof, the appellant, upon motion to the superior court, shall be entitled to a new trial, but only if the loss or damage of the record is not attributable to the appellant's malfeasance. In lieu of a new trial, the parties may stipulate to a nonelectronic record as provided in rule 6.1(b).

TRANSMITTAL OF RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

Within 14 days after the filing of the notice of appeal in the superior court, the clerk of the court of limited jurisdiction shall arrange for any necessary duplication of the record, state in writing that the record is true and complete, and transmit it to the superior court. The party appealing shall pay for the cost of preparation of the record.

RULE 6.3
COPY OF RECORDING FOR PARTIES

The clerk of the court of limited jurisdiction shall provide any party with a copy of all or part of the record of proceedings and the log for the record upon request and upon the payment of the actual expense for preparation of the requested copy.

TITLE 9

SUPERIOR COURT DECISION

RULE 9.1

BASIS FOR DECISION ON APPEAL

(a) Errors of Law. The superior court shall review the decision of the court of limited jurisdiction to determine whether that court has committed any errors of law.

(b) Factual Determinations. The superior court shall accept those factual determinations supported by substantial evidence in the record (1) which were expressly made by the court of limited jurisdiction, or (2) that may reasonably be inferred from the judgment of the court of limited jurisdiction.

(c) Limitation on Scope of Review. The superior court will ordinarily limit its consideration of issues to those asserted in the notice of appeal or in an amending statement filed pursuant to rule 2.6(d).

(d) Disposition on Appeal Generally. The superior court may reverse, affirm, or modify the decision of the court of limited jurisdiction or remand the case back to that court for further proceedings.

(f) Form of Decision. The decision of the superior court shall be in writing and filed in the clerk's office with the other papers in the case. The reasons for the decision shall be stated.

RULE 9.2

ENTRY OF DECISION

(b) Statutes Control. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, statutes and other rules apply to the enforcement of a superior court judgment entered under section (a).

(c) Court of Limited Jurisdiction. The clerk of the superior court shall transmit a copy of the decision of the superior court on appeal to the court of limited jurisdiction rendering the decision that was the subject of the appeal and a copy to each party in the case.

RULE 9.3

COSTS

(a) Party Entitled to Costs. The party that substantially prevails on appeal shall be awarded costs on appeal. Costs will be imposed against a party whose appeal is involuntarily dismissed. Costs will be awarded in a case dismissed by reason of a voluntary withdrawal of an appeal only if the superior court so directs at the time the order is entered permitting the voluntary withdrawal of the appeal.

(b) How Claimed. Costs must be claimed by serving a cost bill on all parties and filing it in the superior court within 10 days after entry of the superior court decision on the appeal. The party should itemize each item of expense claimed in the cost bill.

(c) Expenses Allowed as Costs. Only the reasonable expenses actually incurred by a party for the following items which were reasonably necessary for review may be awarded to a party as costs: (1) statutory attorneys' fees allowed for a superior court nonjury trial, (2) the superior court filing fee, (3) the expense of obtaining a copy of the record of proceedings and the log for the record as provided in rule 6.3, and (4) the expense of bonds given in connection with the appeal.

(d) Objections to Costs Claimed. A party may object to items in the cost bill of another party by serving on all parties and filing with the superior court objections to the cost bill within 10 days after service of the cost bill upon the party.

(e) Award of Costs. The superior court judge who decided the appeal shall be informed by the parties if a dispute arises over costs. The judge shall decide the dispute promptly after learning of it, without oral argument unless the judge otherwise directs.

(f) Judgment for Costs. The costs claimed by a party become a part of the judgment under rule 9.2, unless another party files and serves written objections within the time provided by section (d). If a party objects to costs in a timely manner, the costs allowed by the superior court judge become a part of the judgment under rule 9.2.

(g) Reasonable Attorneys' Fees. A request for reasonable attorneys' fees should not be made in the cost bill. The request should be made as provided in rule 11.2.

TITLE 10

The superior court may condition a party's right to participate further in the appeal on compliance with the terms of a sanction order, including an order directing payment of an award by a party. If an award is not paid within the time specified by the superior court, the superior court shall direct the entry of a judgment in accordance with the award.

RULE 10.2

DISMISSAL OF APPEAL

(a) Involuntary Dismissal. The superior court will, on motion of a party, dismiss an appeal of the case (1) for failure to timely file a notice of appeal, or (2) for want of prosecution if the party appealing has abandoned the appeal.

(b) Voluntary Withdrawal of Appeal. The superior court may, in its discretion, dismiss an appeal on stipulation of all the parties and, in criminal cases, the written consent of the defendant. (5) If against a corporation owning or operating sleeping cars, or hotel cars, to any person having charge of any of its cars or any agent found.

(6) If against a domestic insurance company, to any agent authorized by such company to solicit insurance.

(7) If against a foreign or alien insurance company as provided in RCW 48.05.200 and 48.05.210.

(8) If against a company or corporation doing any express business, to any agent authorized by said company or corporation to receive and deliver express matters and collect pay therefor.

(9) If the suit be against a company or corporation other than those designated in the preceding subdivisions of this section, to the president or other head of the company or corporation, secretary, cashier or managing agent of the company or corporation or branch or local office or to the secretary, stenographer or office assistant of such individuals.

(10) If the suit be against a foreign corporation or nonresident joint stock company, partnership or association doing business within this state, to any agent, cashier or secretary thereof.

(11) If against a minor under the age of 14 years, to such minor personally, and also to his father, mother, guardian, or if there be none within the jurisdiction then to any person having the care or control of such minor, or with whom he resides, or in whose service he is employed, if such there be.

(12) If against any person for whom a guardian has been appointed for any cause, then to such guardian.

(13) In all other cases, to the defendant personally, or by leaving complaint and notice at the house of his usual abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then resident therein.

(14) Whenever any domestic or foreign corporation, which has been doing business in this state, has been placed in the hands of a receiver and the receiver is in possession of any of the property or assets of such corporation, service of all process upon such corporation may be made upon the receiver thereof.

Service made in the modes provided in this section shall be taken and held to be personal service.

(f) Notice: Service by Publication and Personal Service Out of the Jurisdiction.

(1) When the defendant cannot be found within the territorial jurisdiction of the court (of which the return of the sheriff of the county in which the action is brought, that the defendant cannot be found in the county, is prima facie evidence), and upon the filing of an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, with the court stating that he believes that the defendant is not a resident of the county, or cannot be found therein, and that he has deposited a copy of the notice (substantially in the form prescribed in this rule) and complaint in the post office, directed to the defendant at his place of residence, unless it is stated in the affidavit that such residence is not known to the affiant, and stating the existence of one of the cases hereinafter specified, the service may be made by publication of the notice by the plaintiff or his attorney in any of the following cases:

- (i) when the defendant is a foreign corporation, and has property within the county;
- (ii) when the defendant, being a resident of the county, has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of a notice and complaint, or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent;
- (iii) when the defendant is not a resident of the county, but has property therein which has been brought under the control of the court by seizure or some equivalent act;
- (iv) when the subject of the action is personal property in the county, and the defendant has or claims a lien or interest, actual or contingent, therein, and the relief demanded consists wholly, or partially, in excluding the defendant from any interest or lien therein;
- (v) when the action is brought under RCW 4.08.160 and 4.08.170 to determine conflicting claims to personal property in the county.

(2) The publication shall be made in a newspaper authorized to publish a summons in superior court and shall not be published until after the filing of the complaint. The notice must be subscribed by the judge or clerk, it shall notify the defendant to appear in person or by attorney on a date certain, and it shall contain a brief statement of the object of the action. Said notice shall be published not less than once a week for 3 weeks prior to the time fixed for the hearing of the cause, which shall not be less than 4 weeks from the time of first publication of such notice; and publication shall be deemed complete on the seventh day following the last publication.

The notice shall be substantially in the following form:

[NAME AND LOCATION OF COURT]

Plaintiff,	No. _____
v.	NOTICE OF SUIT
Defendant.

To: _____ (Defendant(s))

On _____, 19____, above named plaintiff(s) filed a claim against you.

You are notified to appear in person or by attorney on or at any time before _____ at the office of the clerk of the above entitled court at _____ and admit or deny the above claim. If you deny any part of the claim, then the court clerk will set the case for trial at a future date.

If you fail to appear or to answer, judgment will be taken against you by default as demanded in the claim. (Insert here a brief statement of the object of the action.)

Issued: _____
(Name and address of plaintiff or his attorney)

Judge or Clerk

(3) Personal service on the defendant out of the territorial jurisdiction of the court shall be equivalent to service by publication, and the notice to the defendant out of the county shall contain the same as the notice by publication and shall require the defendant to appear at a time and place certain which shall not be less than 30 days from the date of service.

(4) Service made in the modes provided in this rule 4(f) shall not alone be taken and held to give the court jurisdiction over the person of the defendant. By such service the court only acquires jurisdiction to give a judgment which is effective as to property or debts attached or garnished in connection with the suit or other property which properly forms the basis of jurisdiction of the court. If the defendant appears in a suit commenced by such service the court shall have jurisdiction over his person. The defendant may appear specially and solely to challenge jurisdiction over property or debts attached or garnished or other property within the jurisdiction of the court.

(g) Territorial Limits of Effective Service. The complaint and notice may be served anywhere within the county or counties in which the district of the court is located.

(h) Return.

(1) The person serving the complaint and notice shall make proof of service thereof to the court promptly and in any event within the time during which the person served must respond to the notice.

(2) Proof of service shall be as follows:

- (i) if served by the sheriff or his deputy or a constable, the return of the officer endorsed upon or attached to a copy of the notice; or
- (ii) if served by any other person, his affidavit of service endorsed upon or attached to a copy of the notice; or
- (iii) if served by publication, the affidavit of the printer, publisher, foreman, principal clerk or business manager of the newspaper showing the same, together with a printed copy of the notice as published; or
- (iv) written admission of the defendant endorsed upon a copy of the notice.

In case of service otherwise than by publication, the return, affidavit, or admission must state the time, place and manner of service.

(3) costs shall not be awarded and a default judgment shall not be rendered unless proof of service is on file with the court.

(i) Amendment. At any time in its discretion and upon such terms as it deems just, the court may allow any process or proof of service thereof to be amended, unless it clearly appears that material prejudice would result to the substantial rights of the party against whom the process issued.

RULE 5

SERVICE AND FILING OF PLEADINGS
AND OTHER PAPERS

(a) Service: When Required. Every order required by its terms to be served, every written pleading subsequent to the original complaint, every written motion, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, or other paper shall be served upon all parties, but no service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of notice and complaint in rule 4.

(b) Same: How Made. Whenever under these rules service of papers other than the complaint and notice is required or permitted the rules governing the manner of service of such papers in superior courts shall govern.

(c) Filing. When pleadings or motions are oral the substance of them shall be entered in the records. All papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party shall be filed with the court either before service or within a reasonable time thereafter and a reference shall be made to them in the record of the court.

(d) Filing With the Court Defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the judge or with his authorized clerk and the filing date shall be noted thereon at the time of filing.

RULE 6 TIME

(a) Computation. The time within which an act is to be done, as herein provided, shall be computed by excluding the first day, and including the last, unless the last day is a holiday or Sunday, and then it is also excluded.

(b) For Motions—Affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than 3 days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in any of these rules, opposing affidavits may be served not later than 1 day before the hearing, unless the court permits them to be served at some other time.

3. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS (RULES 7-16)

RULE 7

PLEADINGS ALLOWED: FORM OF MOTIONS

(a) Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and an answer; and there shall be a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; an answer to a cross claim, if the answer contains a cross claim; a third party complaint, if leave is given under rule 14 to summon a person who was not an original party; and there shall be a third party answer, if a third party complaint is served. No other pleadings shall be allowed.

The complaints, counterclaims, cross claims and third party claims shall be in writing. A reply to a counterclaim and answers may be written or oral. When pleadings are oral the substance of them shall be entered in the docket.

(b) Motions and Other Papers.

(1) An application to the court for an order shall be by motion. Motions may be oral or written. Motions need not be in any special form but must be such as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

(2) The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of written pleadings apply to all written motions and other papers provided for by these rules.

(c) Demurrers, Pleas, etc., Abolished. Demurrers, pleas and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used.

RULE 8

GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING

(a) Claims for Relief. A complaint, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (2) a demand for judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

(b) Defenses; Form of Denials. A party shall state his defenses, denials and objections to each claim asserted against him in any form which will enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial.

(c) Affirmative Defenses. In a written answer to a complaint, cross claim or third party claim and in a written reply to a counterclaim, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

(d) Effect of Failure To Deny. Statements in a pleading to which responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied by responsive pleading. Statements of an answer to a complaint, cross claim, or third party complaint, or a reply to a counterclaim shall be taken as denied or avoided.

(e) Pleading To Be Concise and Direct: Consistency.

(1) No technical forms of pleadings or motions are required. Pleadings and motions shall be stated so as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternately or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or on equitable grounds or on both. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in rule 11.

(f) Construction of Pleadings. All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice.

RULE 9

[RESERVED]

RULE 10

FORM OF PLEADINGS

(a) Caption; Names of Parties. Every written pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the action, the file number if known to the person signing it, and a designation as in rule 7(a). In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other written pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties. When the plaintiff is ignorant of the name of the defendant, it shall be so stated in his pleading, and such defendant may be designated in any pleading or proceeding by any name, and when his true name shall be discovered, the pleading or proceeding may be amended accordingly.

(b) Adoption by Reference; Exhibits. Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part thereof for all purposes.

(c) Form. All notices, pleadings, motions, and other papers filed shall be plainly written or typed.

RULE 11

VERIFICATION AND SIGNING OF PLEADINGS

(1) Every complaint, answer or reply shall be verified by the oath of the party pleading; or if he be not present, by the oath of his attorney or agent, to the effect that he believes it to be true. The verification shall be oral, or in writing, in conformity with the pleading verified.

(2) All other pleadings of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign his pleading and state his address. The signature of a party or an attorney constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleading; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay.

RULE 12

DEFENSES AND OBJECTIONS—WHEN AND HOW PRESENTED—BY PLEADING OR MOTION— MOTION FOR JUDGMENT— ON PLEADINGS

(a) When Presented. If the answer is oral, a defendant shall make the oral answer on or before the time he is required to appear in answer to the notice as indicated in rule 4. If the answer is written a defendant shall serve his answer on or before the time he is required to appear in answer to the notice as indicated in rule 4. A party served with a pleading stating a cross claim against him shall answer thereto on the return date fixed in a notice which shall accompany the pleading. The plaintiff shall reply to a counterclaim not less than 3 days prior to trial. If the court denies a motion permitted under this rule or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the court may set the case for trial at the same time and also fix a time for the responsive pleading. If the court grants a motion for more definite statement the court may set the case for trial at the same time and fix the date for making the more definite statement and for the responsive pleading to the more definite statement.

(b) How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim, shall be asserted by the responsive pleading thereto, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) insufficiency of process, (4) insufficiency of service of process, (5) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, (6) failure to join an indispensable party. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (5) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in CR 56 and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by CR 56.

(c) Preliminary Hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (1)–(6) in section (b) of this rule, whether made in a pleading or by motion, shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

(d) Motion for More Definite Statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted (for example, the complaint) is so vague or ambiguous that a person of common understanding cannot know what is intended, he may move for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 10 days after the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

(e) Motion To Strike. Upon motion made by a party not less than 3 days prior to trial or upon the court's own initiative at any time the court may order stricken from the complaint any impertinent or scandalous matter.

(f) Consolidation of Defenses. A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it the other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule and does not include therein all defenses and objections then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motions, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on any of the defenses or objections so omitted, except as provided in section (g) of this rule.

(g) Waiver of Defenses. A party waives all defenses and objections which he does not present either by motion as hereinbefore provided or, if he has made no motion, in his answer or reply, except (1) that the defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, the defense of failure to join an indispensable party, and the objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may also be made by a later pleading, if one is permitted, or by motion for judgment on the pleadings or at the trial on the merits, and except (2) that, whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action. The objection or defense, if made at the trial, shall be disposed of as provided in rule 15(b) in the light of any evidence that may have been received.

COUNTERCLAIM AND CROSS CLAIM

(a) Permissive Counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party.

(b) Counterclaim Exceeding Opposing Claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

(c) Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired After Pleading. A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

(d) Omitted Counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, he may by leave of court set up the counterclaim by amendment.

(e) Cross Claim Against Coparty. A pleading may state as a cross claim any claim by one party against a coparty arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross claimant.

(f) Additional Parties May Be Brought In. When the presence of parties other than those to the original action is required for the granting of complete relief in the determination of a counterclaim or cross claim, the court shall order them to be brought in as defendants as provided in these rules, if jurisdiction of them can be obtained.

(g) Separate Trials; Separate Judgment. If the court orders separate trials as provided in rule 42(b), judgment on a counterclaim or cross claim may be rendered in accordance with the terms of rule 42(b), even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

SETOFFS AGAINST ASSIGNEES

(a) Setoff Against Assignee. The defendant in a civil action upon a contract express or implied, other than upon a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, negotiated in good faith and without notice before due, which has been assigned to the plaintiff, may set off a demand of a like nature existing against the person to whom he was originally liable, or any assignee prior to the plaintiff, of such contract, provided such demand existed at the time of the assignment thereof, and belonging to the defendant in good faith, before notice of such assignment, and was such a demand as might have been set off against such person to whom he was originally liable, or such assignee while the contract belonged to him.

(b) Setoff Against Beneficiary of Trust Estate. If the plaintiff be a trustee to any other, or if the action be in a name of a plaintiff which has no real interest in the contract upon which the action is founded, so much of a demand existing against those whom the plaintiff represents or for whose benefit the action is brought, may be set off as will satisfy the plaintiff's debt, if the same might have been set off in an action brought against those beneficially interested.

(c) Setoff Must Be Pleaded. To entitle a defendant to a setoff under this rule, he must set forth the same in his answer.

RULE 14

THIRD PARTY PRACTICE

(a) When Defendant May Bring In Third Party. Before making his answer, a defendant may move ex parte or, after answering, on notice to the plaintiff, for leave as a third party plaintiff to serve a notice and complaint upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him. If the motion is granted and the notice and complaint are served, the person so served, hereinafter called the third party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third party plaintiff's claim as provided in rule 12 and his counterclaims against the third party plaintiff and cross claims against other third party defendants as provided in rule 13. The third party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third party plaintiff, and the third party defendant thereupon shall assert his defenses as provided in rule 12. A third party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third party defendant.

(b) When Plaintiff May Bring In Third Party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this rule would entitle a defendant to do so.

(c) Tort Cases. This rule shall not be applied, in tort cases, so as to permit the joinder of a liability or indemnity insurance company, unless such company is by statute or contract directly liable to the person injured or damaged.

AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS

(a) Amendments Prior to Trial. A party may amend a complaint, counterclaim, cross claim or third party complaint once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is made, or, if the pleading is an answer or a reply to a counterclaim he may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served, provided it is amended prior to trial. Otherwise, prior to trial a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within 10 days after service or notice of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

(b) Amendments At or After the Trial. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues.

If the evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

(c) Relation Back of Amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading.

(d) Supplemental Pleadings. Upon motion of a party, the court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve or make a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead thereto, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

(e) Interlineations. No amendments shall be made to any pleading by erasing or adding words to the original on file, except by permission of the court.

RULE 16

GARNISHMENTS

Garnishments are governed by RCW 7.33. Provided, that judges or their clerks, may issue writs of garnishment in accordance with the provisions therein.

4. PARTIES (RULES 17-25)

RULE 17

PARTIES PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT; CAPACITY

(a) Real Party in Interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest; but an executor, administrator, guardian, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought.

(b) Infants or Incompetent Persons.

(1) When an infant is a party he shall appear by guardian, or if he has no guardian, or in the opinion of the court the guardian is an improper person, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem. The guardian shall be appointed:

(ii) when the infant is defendant, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of 14 years, and applies within the time he is to appear; if he be under the age of 14, or neglects to apply, then upon the application of any other party to the action, or of a relative or friend of the infant.

(2) When an insane person is a party to an action he shall appear by guardian, or if he has no guardian, or in the opinion of the court the guardian is an improper person, the court shall appoint one to act as guardian ad litem. Said guardian shall be appointed:

(i) when the insane person is plaintiff, upon the application of a relative or friend of the insane person;

(ii) when the insane person is defendant, upon the application of a relative or friend of such insane person, such application shall be made within the time he is to appear. If no such application be made within the time above limited, application may be made by any party to the action.

RULE 18

JOINDER OF CLAIMS AND REMEDIES

(a) Joinder of Claims. The plaintiff in his complaint or in reply setting forth a counterclaim and the defendant in an answer setting forth a counterclaim may join either as independent or as alternate claims as many claims either legal or equitable or both as he may have against an opposing party. There may be a like joinder of claims when there are multiple parties if the requirements of rules 19, 20, and 22 are satisfied. There may be a like joinder of cross claims or third party claims if the requirements of rules 13 and 14 respectively are satisfied.

(b) Joinder of Remedies. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties.

RULE 19

NECESSARY JOINDER OF PARTIES

(a) Necessary Joinder. Subject to the provisions of section (b) of this rule, persons having a joint interest shall be made parties and be joined on the same side as plaintiffs or defendants. When a person who should join as a plaintiff refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant.

(b) Effect of Failure To Join. When persons who are not indispensable, but who ought to be parties if complete relief is to be accorded between those already parties, have not been made parties and are subject to the jurisdiction of the court as to both service of process and venue, the court shall order them summoned to appear in the action. The court in its discretion may proceed in the action without making such persons parties, if its jurisdiction over them as to either service of process or venue can be acquired only by their consent or voluntary appearance; but the judgment rendered therein does not affect the rights or liabilities of absent persons.

(c) Same: Names of Omitted Persons and Reasons for Nonjoinder To Be Plead. In any pleading in which relief is asked, the pleader shall set forth the names, if known to him, of persons who ought to be parties if complete relief is to be accorded between those already parties, but who are not joined, and shall state why they are omitted.

PERMISSIVE JOINDER OF PARTIES

(a) Permissive Joinder. All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

RCW 4.08.040 applies to joinder of husband and wife.

(b) Separate Trials. The court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

RULE 21

MISJOINDER AND NONJOINDER OF PARTIES

Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately.

INTERPLEADER

(a) Scope. Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this rule supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted under other rules and statutes.

(b) Other Remedies. The remedy herein provided is in addition to and in no way supersedes or limits the remedy provided by RCW 4.08.150 to 4.08.180, inclusive.

RULE 23

[RESERVED]

RULE 24

INTERVENTION

(a) Intervention of Right. Upon timely application, anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (2) when the representation of the applicant's interest by existing parties is or may be inadequate and the applicant is or may be bound by a judgment in the action; or (3) when the applicant is so situated as to be adversely affected by a distribution or other disposition of property which is in the custody or subject to the control or disposition of the court.

(b) Permissive Intervention. Upon timely application, anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers a conditional right to intervene; or (2) when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a federal or state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirements, or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion the court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

(c) Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon all parties affected thereby. The motion shall state the ground therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought.

SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES

(a) Death.

(1) If a party dies and the claim is not thereby extinguished, the court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by the successors or representatives of the deceased party or by any party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided by statute for service of notices, and upon persons not parties in the manner provided by these rules for the service of notice and complaint. If substitution is not made within a reasonable time, the action may be dismissed as to the deceased party.

(2) In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The fact of death shall be noted in the docket and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

(b) Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the court upon motion served as provided in section (a) of this rule may allow the action to be continued by or against his representative.

(c) Transfer of Interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party unless the court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in section (a) of this rule.

5. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY (RULES 26–37)

RULE 26

DEPOSITIONS PENDING ACTION

The taking of depositions, the requesting of admissions and all other procedures authorized by rules 26 through 37 of the Superior Court Civil Rules applicable for use in the superior court may be available only upon prior permission of the court. The court shall have absolute discretion to decide whether to permit any such procedures. In exercising such discretion the court shall consider (1) whether all parties are represented by counsel, (2) whether undue delay in bringing the case to trial will result and (3) whether the interests of justice will be promoted.

RULES 27–37

[RESERVED]

6. TRIALS (RULES 38–53)

RULE 38

JURY TRIAL

After the appearance of the defendant, and before the court shall proceed to inquire into the merits of the cause, either party may demand a jury to try the action. The selection and other matters concerning jury trials are governed by RCW 12.12.030 through 12.12.100 inclusive.

RULE 39

TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT

(a) By Jury. In a civil case, when a jury is demanded, it shall be allowed and tried with all reasonable speed. All issues of fact shall be tried by the jury.

(b) By the Court. All questions of law including the admissibility of testimony, the facts preliminary to such admission, and the construction of statutes and other writings, and other rules of evidence, are to be decided by the judge, and all discussions of law addressed to him.

RULE 40

ASSIGNMENT OF CASES FOR TRIAL—
JUDGE, DISQUALIFICATION

(a) Assignment for Trial. When the pleadings of the parties have taken place a case shall be tried, but cases may be continued by the court to a date certain. Continuances may not be granted for a longer period than 60 days each.

(b) Disqualification. In any case pending in any court of limited jurisdiction, unless otherwise provided by law, the judge thereof shall be deemed disqualified to hear and try the case when he is in anywise interested or prejudiced. The judge, of his own initiative, may enter an order disqualifying himself; and he shall also disqualify himself under the provisions of this rule if, before the jury is sworn or the trial is commenced, a party files an affidavit that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial by reason of the interest or prejudice of the judge or for other ground provided by law. Only one such affidavit shall be filed by the same party in the case and such affidavit shall be made as to only one of the judges of said court.

All right to an affidavit of prejudice will be considered waived where filed more than 10 days after the case is set for trial, unless the affidavit alleges a particular incident, conversation or utterance by the judge, which was not known to the party or his attorney within the 10-day period. In multiple judge courts, or where a pro tempore or visiting judge is designated as the trial judge, the 10-day period shall commence on the date that the defendant or his attorney has actual notice of assignment or reassignment to a designated trial judge.

DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS

(a) Without Prejudice. Judgment that the action be dismissed, without prejudice to a new action, may be entered, with costs, in the following cases:

(1) When the plaintiff voluntarily dismisses the action before it is finally submitted;

(2) When plaintiff fails to appear at the time set for trial or other hearing.

(b) Limitation. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by defendant, the action shall not be dismissed against defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court.

(c) Counterclaims, etc. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, setoff, cross claim, or third party claim.

RULE 42

CONSOLIDATION; SEPARATE TRIALS

(a) Consolidation. When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

(b) Separate Trials. The court in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice may order a separate trial of any claim, cross claim, counterclaim, or third party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross claims, counterclaims, third party claims, or issues.

RULE 43

TAKING OF TESTIMONY

(a) Form. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by rule or statute.

(a-1) Multiple Examinations. When two or more attorneys are upon the same side trying a case, the attorney conducting the examination of a witness shall continue until the witness is excused from the stand; and all objections and offers of proof made during the examination of such witness shall be made or announced by the attorney who is conducting the examination or cross examination.

(b) [Reserved. See ER 607 and 611.]

(c) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath. Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(d) Adverse Party as Witness.

(1) Party or Managing Agent as Adverse Witness. A party, or anyone who at the time of the notice is an officer, director, or other managing agent (herein collectively referred to as "managing agent") of a public or private corporation, partnership or association which is a party to an action or proceeding may be examined at the instance of any adverse party. Attendance of such deponent or witness may be compelled solely by notice (in lieu of a subpoena) given to opposing counsel of record. Notices for the attendance of a party or a managing agent at the trial shall be given a reasonable time before the trial of not less than 10 days (exclusive of the day of service, Saturdays, Sundays, and court holidays). For good cause shown, the court may make orders for the protection of the party or managing agent to be examined.

(2) Effect of Discovery, etc. A party who has filed interrogatories to be answered by the adverse party or who has taken the deposition of an adverse party or of the managing agent of an adverse party shall not be precluded for that reason from examining such adverse party or managing agent at the trial. The testimony of an adverse party or managing agent at the trial or on deposition or interrogatories shall not bind his adversary but may be rebutted.

(3) Refusal To Attend and Testify: Penalties. If a party or a managing agent refuses to attend and testify before the officer designated to take his deposition or at the trial after notice served, the complaint, answer, or reply of the party may be stricken and judgment taken against the party, and the contumacious party or managing agent may also be proceeded against as in other cases of contempt. This rule shall not be construed: (i) to compel any person to answer any question where such answer might tend to incriminate him; or (ii) to prevent a party from using a subpoena to compel the attendance of any party or managing agent to give testimony by deposition or at the trial; or (iii) to limit the applicability of any other sanctions or penalties.

(e) Attorneys as Witnesses. If an attorney offers himself as a witness on behalf of his client and gives evidence on the merits, he shall not argue the case to the jury, unless by permission of the court.

RULE 44

PROOF OF OFFICIAL RECORD

(a) Authentication of Copy. An official record or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy, and accompanied with a certificate that such officer has the custody. If the office in which the record is kept is within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, the certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office. If the office in which the record is kept is in a foreign state or country, the certificate may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent or by any officer in the foreign service of the United States stationed in the foreign state or country in which the record is kept, and authenticated by the seal of his office.

(b) Proof of Lack of Record. A written statement signed by an officer having the custody of an official record or by his deputy that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records of his office, accompanied by a certificate as above provided, is admissible as evidence that the records of his office contain no such record or entry.

(c) Other Proof. This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any method authorized by an applicable statute, or by the rules of evidence at common law.

RULE 45

SUBPOENA

Subpoenas are governed by RCW 12.16.010 through 12.16.050, inclusive. Provided, that subpoenas may be issued with like effect by the attorney of record of the party to the action in whose behalf the witness is required to appear, and the form of such subpoena in each case shall be the same as when issued by the court except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of such attorney.

RULES 46–50

[RESERVED]

RULE 51

INSTRUCTIONS TO JURY; OBJECTION

At the close of the evidence the court on its own motion, or on the request of either party, shall instruct the jury on the law either orally or in writing or both. Any party may file written request that the court instruct the jury. At the same time copies of requested instructions shall be furnished to adverse parties. The court need not grant any requested instruction if the matter is fairly covered by the instruction given. The court shall not instruct with respect to matters of fact or comment upon the evidence.

RULE 52

FINDINGS BY THE COURT

If a jury trial is not demanded, the judge shall hear the evidence, and decide all questions of fact and law and render judgment accordingly. He is not required to make findings of fact or conclusions of law.

RULE 53

[RESERVED]

7. JUDGMENTS (RULES 54–63)

RULE 54

JUDGMENTS; COSTS

(a) Definition; Form. "Judgment" as used in these rules includes a decree and any final order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings or the record of prior proceedings. Judgments may be in a writing signed by the court or may be oral confirmed by an entry in the record.

(b) Judgment Upon Multiple Claims. When more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim, the court may direct the entry of a final judgment upon one or more but less than all of the claims only upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decisions, however designated, which adjudicates less than all the claims shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims.

(c) Demand for Judgment. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment.

DEFAULT

(a) Judgment. When the defendant fails to appear and plead before or at the time specified in the notice, or within 1 hour thereafter, or upon continuance, or for trial, judgment shall be given on motion of the plaintiff, if the motion includes a statement of the basis for venue in the action and it does not clearly appear to the court from the papers on file that venue is improper, as follows: When the defendant has been served with a true copy of the complaint, judgment shall be given upon proof satisfactory to the court. In those cases where interest and attorney fees are claimed by virtue of a written instrument, a copy of said instrument shall be filed and the court shall set a reasonable attorney fee. The court shall notify the defendant of the entry of a default judgment by mailing a copy of the order and judgment to the defendant at his last known address within 5 days after entry of the judgment.

(b) Setting Aside Default.

(1) For good cause shown and upon such terms as the court deems just, the court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with rule 60(b). No court shall issue a transcript or pay out or turn over money or property received by the court by virtue of any default judgment until the expiration of 20 days from entry of the judgment.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall limit the power of the court to set aside a judgment, at any time, where the court lacked jurisdiction to enter the judgment.

(c) Plaintiffs, Counterclaimants, Cross Claimants. The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross claim or counterclaim.

RULES 56–57
[RESERVED]

RULE 58
ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Upon the verdict of a jury, the court shall immediately render judgment thereon. If the trial is by the judge, judgment shall be entered immediately after the close of the trial, unless he reserves his decision, in which event the trial shall be continued to a day certain, but not longer than 15 days.

RULE 59
[RESERVED]

RULE 60
RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER

(a) Clerical Mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

(b) Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud; etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons:

(1) Mistakes, inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect or irregularity in obtaining a judgment or order;

(2) For erroneous proceedings against a minor or person of unsound mind, when the condition of such defendant does not appear in the record, nor the error in the proceedings;

(3) Venue is improper and the judgment or order has been entered by default;

(4) Fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;

(5) The judgment is void;

(6) The judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated;

(7) If the defendant was served by publication, relief may be granted as prescribed in RCW 4.28.200;

(8) Death of one of the parties before the judgment in the action;

(9) Unavoidable casualty or misfortune preventing the party from prosecuting or defending;

(10) Error in judgment shown by a minor, within 12 months after arriving at full age; or

(11) Any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment.

RULE 61
[RESERVED]

RULE 62

STAY OF PROCEEDINGS TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT

When the court has ordered a final judgment on some but not all the claims presented in the action, under the conditions stated in rule 54(b), the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

RULE 63

[RESERVED]

8. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES
AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS
(RULES 64–71)

GARNISHMENT

RCW 7.33 and SPR 91.04W shall continue in full force and effect and shall be fully applicable to garnishment in courts of limited jurisdiction.

RULES 65–67

[RESERVED]

RULE 68

OFFER OF JUDGMENT

At any time more than 5 days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the money or property or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs then accrued. If within 5 days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the court shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the cost incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer.

[RESERVED]

9. APPEALS
(RULES 72–76)

RULE 72

[RESERVED]

RULE 73

APPEAL TO A SUPERIOR COURT

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction (RALJ). The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Filing Notice of Appeal Jurisdictional—Service. When an appeal is permitted by law from a court of limited jurisdiction to a superior court such appeal shall be taken by filing in the court of limited jurisdiction a notice of appeal within 14 days after the judgment is rendered or decision made. Filing the notice of appeal is the only jurisdictional requirement for an appeal. A party filing a notice of appeal shall also, within the same 14 days, serve a copy of the notice of appeal on all other parties or their lawyers and file an acknowledgment or affidavit of service in the court of limited jurisdiction.

(c) Bond. A bond or undertaking shall be executed on the part of the appellant, except when the appellant is a county, city, town or school district, and filed with and approved by the court of limited jurisdiction with one or more sureties, in the sum of $100, conditioned that the appellant will pay all costs that may be awarded against him on appeal; or if a stay of proceedings in the court of limited jurisdiction be claimed, except by a county, city, town or school district, a bond or undertaking, with two or more personal sureties, or a surety company as surety, to be approved by the court of limited jurisdiction, in a sum equal to twice the amount of the judgment and costs, conditioned that the appellant will pay such judgment, including costs, as may be rendered against him on appeal, be so executed and filed.

(d) Stay of Proceedings. Upon an appeal being taken and a bond filed to stay all proceedings, the court of limited jurisdiction shall allow the same and make an entry of such allowance, and all further proceedings on the judgment in such court shall thereupon be suspended; and if in the meantime execution shall have been issued, such court shall give the appellant a certificate that such appeal has been allowed.

(e) Release of Property Taken on Execution. On such certificate being presented to the officer holding the execution, he shall forthwith release the property of the judgment debtor that may have been taken on execution.

(f) No Dismissal for Defective Bond. No appeal allowed by a court of limited jurisdiction shall be dismissed on account of any defect in the bond on appeal, if the appellant, before the motion is determined, shall execute and file in the superior court such bond as he should have executed at the time of taking the appeal, and pay all costs that may have accrued by reason of such defect.

(g) Judgment Against Appellant and Sureties. In all cases of appeal to the superior court, if on the trial anew in such court, the judgment be against the appellant in whole or in part, such judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties on the bond on appeal.

RULE 74

[RESERVED]

RULE 75

RECORD ON APPEAL TO A SUPERIOR COURT

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction (RALJ). The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Transcript; Procedure in Superior Court; Pleadings in Superior Court. Within 14 days after the notice of appeal has been filed in a civil action or proceeding, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the superior court a transcript of all entries made in the docket of the court of limited jurisdiction relating to the case, together with all the process and other papers relating to the case filed in the court of limited jurisdiction which shall be made and certified by such court to be correct upon the payment of the fees allowed by law therefor, and upon the filing of such transcript the superior court shall become possessed of the cause, and shall proceed in the same manner, as near as may be, as in actions originally commenced in that court, except as provided in these rules. The issue before the court of limited jurisdiction shall be tried in the superior court without other or new pleadings, unless otherwise directed by the superior court.

(c) Transcript; Procedure on Failure To Make and Certify; Amendment. If upon an appeal being taken the court of limited jurisdiction fails, neglects or refuses, upon the tender or payment of the fees allowed by law, to make and certify the transcript, the appellant may make application, supported by affidavit, to the superior court and the court shall issue an order directing the court of limited jurisdiction to make and certify such transcript upon the payment of such fees. Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the superior court that the return of the court of limited jurisdiction to such order is substantially erroneous or defective it may order the court of limited jurisdiction to amend the same. If the judge of the court of limited jurisdiction fails, neglects or refuses to comply with any order issued under the provisions of this section he may be cited and punished for contempt of court.

- (i) the name of the court;
- (ii) the title of the action and the name of the offense charged;
- (iii) the name of the person charged; and

(iv) the offense charged, in the language of the statute, together with a statement as to the time, place, person, and property involved to enable the defendant to understand the character of the offense charged.

(3) Certification. The complaint shall contain a form of certificate by the prosecuting attorney that he or she certifies, under penalty of perjury, as provided in RCW 3.50.140, and any law amendatory thereof, that he or she has reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe, the person committed the offense contrary to law. The certificate need not be made before a magistrate or any other person.

(4) Approval of Form. The complaint shall be on a form prescribed or approved by the Administrator for the Courts.

(b) Citation and Notice To Appear.

(1) Issuance. Whenever a person is arrested for a violation of law which is punishable as a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor the arresting officer, or any other authorized peace officer, may serve upon the arrested person a citation and notice to appear in court, in lieu of continued custody. In determining whether to issue a citation and notice to appear, a peace officer may consider the following factors:

(i) whether the person has identified himself satisfactorily;

(ii) whether detention appears reasonably necessary to prevent imminent bodily harm to himself or to another, injury to property, or breach of the peace;

(iii) whether the person has ties to the community reasonably sufficient to assure his appearance or whether there is substantial likelihood that he will refuse to respond to the citation; and

(iv) whether the person previously has failed to appear in response to a citation issued pursuant to this section or to other lawful process.

(2) Contents. The citation and notice shall include:

(i) the name of the court and a space for the court's docket, case or file number;

(ii) the name of the person, his address, date of birth, and sex;

(iii) the date, time, place and description of the offense charged, the date on which the citation was issued, and the name of the citing officer;

(iv) the time and place at which the person is to appear in court which need not be a time certain, but may be within 72 hours or within a greater period of time not to exceed 15 days after the date of the citation;

(v) a space for the person to sign a promise to appear.

(3) Release. To secure his release, the person must give his written promise to appear in court as required by the citation and notice served.

(4) Certificate. The citation and notice to appear shall contain a form of certificate by the citing official that he certifies, under penalties of perjury, as provided by RCW 3.50.140, and any law amendatory thereof, that he has reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe, the person committed the offense contrary to law. The certificate need not be made before a magistrate or any other person. Such citation and notice when signed by the citing officer and filed with a court of competent jurisdiction shall be deemed a lawful complaint for the purpose of initiating prosecution of the offense charged therein.

(5) Additional Information. The citation and notice may also contain such identifying and additional information as may be necessary.

(6) Approval of Form. The citation and notice shall be on a form prescribed or approved by the Administrator for the Courts.

(c) Citizen Complaints. Any person wishing to make a complaint shall appear before a judge empowered to commit persons charged with offenses against the State. The judge shall examine on oath the complainant and any witnesses he may require, take their statements, and cause the statements and the complaint to be subscribed under oath by the person or persons making it.

(1) Citizen's Complaint—Alternate Method. The judge may consider any complaint on the basis of an affidavit sworn to before the judge, a clerk, commissioner or notary public where the judge is satisfied that probable cause exists, that the complaining witness is aware of the gravity of initiating a criminal complaint, the necessity of a court appearance for himself and witnesses, the possible liability for false arrest and consequences of perjury. Such affidavit may be in substantially the form as provided herein.

(1) The original of the complaint or citation and notice shall be filed with the clerk of the court, and sufficient copies shall be prepared in order to provide a copy for each defendant.

(2) The citation and notice in a traffic case shall be filed with the court within 48 hours after issuance, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. A citation and notice not filed within the time limits of this section may be dismissed without prejudice.

RULE 2.02

WARRANT OR SUMMONS UPON COMPLAINT

(a) Issuance of Warrant of Arrest. If it appears from the complaint or from an affidavit or affidavits filed therewith, that there is reasonable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, the judge, except as otherwise provided in rule 2.02(b), shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant unless he has already been arrested in connection with the offense charged and is in custody or has been released on obligation to appear in court. Before ruling on a request for a warrant the judge may require the complainant to appear personally and may examine under oath the complainant and any witnesses he may produce.

(b) Issuance of Summons in Lieu of Warrant of Arrest.

(1) Where Summons May Issue. In any case in which the judge finds sufficient grounds for issuing a warrant pursuant to rule 2.02(a), he may issue a summons commanding the defendant to appear in lieu of a warrant.

(2) When Summons Must Issue. If the complaint charges the commission of one or more misdemeanors or gross misdemeanors, the judge shall issue a summons instead of a warrant unless he has reasonable cause to believe that the defendant will not appear in response to a summons, or that arrest is necessary to prevent serious bodily harm to the accused or another, in which case he may issue a warrant.

(3) Failure To Appeal on Summons. If a person summoned fails to appear in response to the summons, or if service is unsuccessful, a warrant for his arrest may issue.

(c) Form.

(1) Warrant. The warrant shall be in writing and in the name of the State of Washington, shall be signed by the judge with the title of his office, and shall state the date when issued and the municipality or county where issued. It shall specify the name of the defendant, or if his name is unknown, any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty. It shall describe the offense charged against the defendant; if the offense charged is triable in the county in which the warrant issues, the warrant shall command that the defendant be arrested and brought forthwith before the judge issuing the warrant. If the offense is bailable, the warrant shall contain the release provisions then fixed by the judge pursuant to JCrR 2.09.

I, the undersigned complainant understand that I have the choice of complaining to a prosecuting authority rather than signing this affidavit. I elect to use this method to start criminal proceedings. I understand that the following are some but not all of the consequences of my signing a criminal complaint: (1) the defendant may be arrested and placed in custody; (2) the arrest if proved false may result in a lawsuit against me; (3) if I have sworn falsely I may be prosecuted for perjury; (4) this charge will be prosecuted even though I might later change my mind; (5) witnesses and complainant will be required to appear in court on the trial date regardless of inconvenience, school, job, etc.

Following is a true statement of the events that led to filing this charge. I (have) (have not) consulted with a prosecuting authority concerning this incident.

(d) Filing.

(2) Summons. The summons shall be in the same form as the warrant except that it shall summon the defendant to appear before the judge issuing it at a stated time and place.

(d) Execution or Service.

(1) Execution of Warrant. The warrant shall be directed to all peace officers in the state and shall be executed only by a peace officer.

(2) Service of Summons. The summons may be served any place within the state. It shall be served by a peace officer who shall deliver a copy of the same to the defendant personally, or it may be served by mailing the same, postage prepaid, to the defendant at his address.

(e) Return. The officer executing a warrant shall make return thereof to the court before whom the defendant is brought pursuant to JCrR 2.03. At the request of the prosecuting attorney any unexecuted warrant shall be returned to the judge by whom issued and shall be canceled by him. The person to whom a summons has been delivered for service shall, on or before the return date, make return thereof to the judge before whom the summons is returnable. The judge for reasonable cause can also order that the warrant be returned to him.

(f) Defective Warrant or Summons.

(1) Amendment. No person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons shall be discharged from custody or dismissed because of any irregularity in the warrant or summons, but the warrant or summons may be amended so as to remedy any such irregularity.

(2) Issuance of New Warrant or Summons. If during the preliminary examination of any person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons, it appears that the warrant or summons does not properly name or describe the defendant, or the offense with which he is charged, or that although not guilty of the offense specified in the warrant or summons there is reasonable ground to believe that he is guilty of some other offense, the judge shall not discharge or dismiss the defendant but may allow a new complaint to be filed and shall thereupon issue a new warrant or summons.

RULE 2.03

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE JUDGE—PROCEDURE FOLLOWING EXECUTION OF A WARRANT OR ARREST WITHOUT A WARRANT—BAIL—PRELIMINARY HEARING

(a) Preliminary Appearance.

(1) Unless a defendant has appeared or will appear before the superior court for a preliminary appearance, any defendant whether detained in jail or subjected to court authorized conditions of release, and any person in whose case the juvenile court has entered a written order declining jurisdiction, must be taken or required to appear before a judge of a court of limited jurisdiction as soon as practicable after the detention is commenced, the conditions of release imposed or the order entered, but in any event before the close of business on the next judicial day. A person is not subject to conditions of release if the person has been served with a summons or traffic or misdemeanor citation and the only obligation is to appear in court on a future date.

(2) If a defendant is unavailable for preliminary appearance because of physical or mental disability, the court may, for good cause shown and recited in a written order, enlarge the time prior to preliminary appearance.

(b) Procedure at Preliminary Appearance. At the preliminary appearance the judge shall orally inform the defendant:

(1) Of the nature of the charge against the defendant; and

(2) Of the right to be assisted by a lawyer at every stage of the proceedings.

The court shall provide for counsel pursuant to rule 2.11 and for pretrial release pursuant to rule 2.09.

(c) Time Limits.

(1) Unless a written complaint is filed or the affected person consents in writing or on the record in open court, a defendant shall not be detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release for more than 72 hours after the defendant's detention in jail or release on conditions, whichever occurs first. Computation of the 72-hour period shall not include any part of Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays.

(2) If no complaint, information or indictment has been filed at the time of the preliminary appearance, and the defendant has not otherwise consented, the court at a time certain which is within the period described in subsection (c)(1), shall either (i) order in writing that the defendant be released from jail or exonerated from the conditions of release, or (ii) set a time at which the defendant shall reappear before the court. The time set for reappearance must also be within the period described in subsection (c)(1). If no complaint, information or indictment has been filed by the time set for release or reappearance, the defendant shall be immediately released from jail or deemed exonerated from all conditions of release.

(d) Preliminary Hearings on Felony Complaint.

(1) When a felony complaint is filed, the court may conduct a preliminary hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a felony. If the court finds probable cause, the court shall bind the defendant over to the superior court. If the court binds the defendant over, or if the parties waive the preliminary hearing, an information shall be filed without unnecessary delay.

(2) If at the time a complaint is filed with the district court the defendant is detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the time from the filing of the complaint in district court to the filing of an information in superior court shall not exceed 30 days plus any time which is the subject of a stipulation under subsection (d)(3). If at the time the complaint is filed with the district court the defendant is not detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the time from the defendant's first appearance in district court which next follows the filing of the complaint to the time of the filing of an information in superior court shall not exceed

30 days, excluding any time which is the subject of a stipulation under subsection (d)(3). If the applicable time period specified above elapses and no information has been filed in superior court, the case shall be dismissed without prejudice. The court shall file the transcript in superior court promptly after notice that the information has been filed. The transcript shall include, but not be limited to, the bond and any exhibits filed in the court of limited jurisdiction. Jurisdiction vests in the superior court at the time the information is filed.

(3) Before or after the preliminary hearing or a waiver thereof, the court may delay a preliminary hearing or defer a bind-over order if the parties stipulate in writing that the case shall remain in the court of limited jurisdiction for a specified time not exceeding 30 days, which may be in addition to the 30-day time limit established in subsection (d)(2).

(4) A preliminary hearing shall be conducted as follows:

(i) the defendant may as a matter of right be present at such hearing;

(ii) the court shall inform the defendant of the charge unless the defendant waives such reading;

(iii) witnesses shall be examined under oath and may be cross-examined;

(iv) the defendant may testify and call witnesses in the defendant's behalf.

(5) If a preliminary hearing on the felony complaint is held and the court finds that probable cause does not exist, the charge shall be dismissed, and may be refiled only if a motion to set aside the finding is granted by the superior court. The superior court shall determine whether, at the time of the hearing on such motion, there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a felony.

RULE 2.04

COMPLAINT AND CITATION—SUFFICIENCIES

(a) Complaint. The complaint shall not be deemed insufficient for lack of a formal caption or commencement or a formal conclusion, or any other matter not necessary to a plain, concise and definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific offense or offenses with which the defendant is charged, nor for lack of any other matter not necessary to such statement, nor need it negate any exception, excuse or proviso contained in any statute creating or defining the offense charged. Allegations made in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count. It may be alleged in any count that the means by which the defendant committed the offense are unknown or that he committed it by one or more specified means. Unnecessary allegations may be disregarded as surplusage and on motion of the defendant prior to trial may be stricken from the complaint by the court. The complaint shall state for each count the official or customary citation of any applicable statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other provision of law which the defendant is alleged therein to have violated; but, error in the citation or its omission shall not be ground for dismissal of the complaint or for reversal of a conviction unless the error or omission misleads the defendant to his prejudice.

(b) Citation and Notice. No citation and notice issued pursuant to the provisions of rule 2.01(b) shall be deemed insufficient for failure to contain a definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific offense with which the defendant is charged, nor by reason of defects or imperfections which do not tend to prejudice substantial rights of the defendant. Any defendant upon request shall be entitled as a matter of right to a bill of particulars.

RULE 2.05

COMPLAINT—JOINDER OF OFFENSES AND DEFENDANTS

(a) Joinder of Offenses. Two or more offenses may be charged in the same complaint in a separate count for each offense if the offenses charged are of the same or similar character or are based on the same act or transaction or on two or more acts or connected transactions or transactions constituting parts of a common scheme or plan.

(b) Joinder of Defendants. Two or more defendants may be charged in the same complaint if they are alleged to have participated in the same act or transaction or in the same series of acts or transactions constituting an offense or offenses. Such defendants may be charged in one or more counts together or separately and it shall not be necessary to charge all the defendants in each count.

RULE 2.06

SEVERAL COMPLAINTS FOR SAME OFFENSE—JURISDICTION—CONSOLIDATION

(a) Several Complaints for Same Offense—Same Court. If two or more complaints are filed against the same defendant in the same court for the same offense, the court shall order the complaints to be consolidated.

(b) Several Complaints for Same Offense—Different Courts. If two or more complaints are filed against the same defendant for the same offense in different courts, and if each court has jurisdiction, the court in which the first complaint was filed shall try the case and upon motion by either party, or the judge, the second or several complaints shall be forwarded to the court in which a complaint was first filed for consolidation and trial.

RULE 2.07

COMPLAINT—LOSS OR DESTRUCTION—COPY

When a complaint has been lost or destroyed a copy thereof certified by the court may be substituted and the case shall proceed without delay from that cause.

RULE 2.08

PROCEDURE ON FAILURE TO OBEY CITATION AND NOTICE TO APPEAR

(a) Residents. The court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of any defendant who is a resident of this state and who has failed to appear before the court either in person or by counsel in answer to a citation and notice to appear upon which he has given his written promise to appear. If the warrant is not executed within 30 days after issue, the court shall make an entry of the notification on the docket, and may add a charge against the defendant for failure to appear after a written promise to do so, and mark the case closed, subject to being reopened when the appearance of the defendant is thereafter obtained.

(b) Nonresidents. If a nonresident¹ defendant fails to appear before the court either in person or by counsel in answer to a citation and notice to appear upon which he has given his written promise to appear, the court shall mail a notice to the defendant at the address stated in the citation and notice to appear requesting him to abide by his promise and appear in person or by counsel on a day certain, and notifying him that he may also be charged for his failure to appear after a written promise to do so. If the nonresident defendant fails to respond within 30 days after the date set in the notice, the court shall issue a warrant for his arrest, and shall make an entry of the notification on the docket, and may add a charge against the defendant for failure to appear after a written promise to do so, and mark the case closed, subject to being reopened when the appearance of the defendant is thereafter obtained.

PRETRIAL RELEASE

(a) Personal Recognizance. Any defendant charged with an offense shall at his first court appearance be ordered released on his personal recognizance pending trial unless the court determines that such recognizance will not reasonably assure his appearance when required. When such a determination is made, the court shall impose the least restrictive of the following conditions that will reasonably assure his appearance or if no single condition gives that assurance, any combination of the following conditions:

(1) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him;

(2) Place restrictions on the travel, association, or place of abode of the defendant during the period of release;

(3) Require the execution of an unsecured appearance bond in a specified amount;

(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount and the deposit in the registry of the court in cash or other security as directed, of a sum not to exceed 10 percent of the amount of the bond, such deposit to be returned upon the performance of the conditions of release;

(5) Require the execution of an appearance bond with sufficient solvent sureties, or the deposit of cash in lieu thereof;

(6) Require the defendant's return to custody during specified hours; or

(7) Impose any condition other than detention deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required.

(b) Relevant Factors. In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance, the court shall, on the available information, consider the relevant facts including: the length and character of the defendant's residence in the community; his employment status and history and financial condition; his family ties and relationships; his reputation, character and mental condition; his history of response to legal process; his prior criminal record; the willingness of responsible members of the community to vouch for the defendant's reliability and assist him in appearing in court; the nature of the charge; and any other factors indicating the defendant's ties to the community.

(c) Conditions of Release. Upon a showing that there exists a substantial danger that the defendant will commit a serious crime or that the defendant's physical condition is such to jeopardize his safety or that of others or that he will seek to intimidate witnesses, or otherwise unlawfully interfere with the administration of justice, the court, upon the defendant's release, may impose one or more of the following conditions:

(1) Prohibit him from approaching or communicating with particular persons or classes of persons;

(2) Prohibit him from going to certain geographical areas or premises;

(3) Prohibit him from possessing any dangerous weapons, or engaging in certain described activities or indulging in intoxicating liquors or in certain drugs;

(4) Require him to report regularly to and remain under the supervision of an officer of the court or other person or agency;

(5) Detain him until his physical condition permits his release.

(d) Order for Release. A court authorizing the release of the defendant under this rule shall issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any, shall inform him of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of his release and shall advise him that a warrant for his arrest may be issued immediately upon any such violation.

(e) Review of Conditions. Upon determining the conditions of release, the court, upon request, after 24 hours from the time of release, may review the conditions previously imposed.

(f) Amendment of Order. The court ordering the release of a defendant on any condition specified in this rule may at any time on change of circumstances or showing of good cause amend its order to impose additional or different conditions for release.

(g) Revocation of Release. Upon a verified application by the prosecuting attorney alleging with specificity that a defendant has willfully violated a condition of his release, a court shall order the defendant to appear for immediate hearing or issue a warrant directing the arrest of the defendant for immediate hearing. A law enforcement officer having probable cause to believe that a defendant released pending trial for a felony is about to leave the state or that he has violated a condition of such release, imposed pursuant to section (c), under circumstances rendering the securing of a warrant impracticable, may arrest the defendant and take him forthwith before the court.

(h) Release After Verdict. A defendant (1) who is charged with a capital offense or (2) who has been found guilty of a felony and is either awaiting sentence or has filed an appeal shall be released pursuant to this rule, unless the court finds that the defendant may flee the state or pose a substantial danger to another or to the community. If such a risk of flight or danger exists, the defendant may be ordered detained.

(i) Evidence. Information stated in, or offered in connection with, any order entered pursuant to this rule need not conform to the rules pertaining to the admissibility of evidence in a court of law.

(j) Forfeiture. Nothing contained in this rule shall be construed to prevent the disposition of any case or class of cases by forfeiture of collateral security where such disposition is authorized by the court.

(k) Defendant Discharged on Recognizance or Bail—Absence—Forfeiture. If the defendant has been discharged on his own recognizance, on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear for judgment when his personal appearance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the recognizance, or of the money deposited, may direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest.

(l) Bail in Traffic Offense Cases—Mandatory Appearance. When required to reasonably assure appearance in court, bail for a person arrested for the following offenses shall be the amount listed in this rule, unless the court for good cause recited in a written order sets a different amount, not to exceed $500. Forfeiture of bail shall not constitute a final disposition for the following offenses without a written order of the court showing the reasons. The order may be a simple docket entry. If the court allows forfeiture of bail, it may accept the bail as full payment including all statutory assessments.

RULE 2.10

SEARCH AND SEIZURE

(a) Authority To Issue Warrant. A search warrant authorized by this rule may be issued by a magistrate upon request of a peace officer or prosecuting attorney.

(b) Property or Persons Which May Be Seized With a Warrant. A warrant may be issued under this rule to search for and seize any (1) evidence of a crime; or (2) contraband, the fruits of crime, or things otherwise criminally possessed; or (3) weapons or other things by means of which a crime has been committed or reasonably appears about to be committed; or (4) person for whose arrest there is probable cause, or who is unlawfully restrained.

(c) Issuance and Contents. A search warrant may be issued only if the court determines there is probable cause for the issuance of a warrant. There must be an affidavit or affidavits or sworn testimony establishing the grounds for issuing the warrant. The sworn testimony may be an electronically recorded telephonic statement. The recording or a duplication of the recording shall be a part of the court record and shall be transcribed if requested by a party if there is a challenge to the validity of the warrant or if ordered by the court. The finding of probable cause may be based on evidence which is hearsay in whole or in part. If the court finds that probable cause for the issuance of a warrant exists, it shall issue a warrant or direct an individual whom it authorizes for such purpose to affix the court's signature to a warrant identifying the property or person and naming or describing the person or place or thing to be searched. The judge shall record a summary of any additional evidence on which he relies. The warrant shall be directed to any peace officer. It shall command the officer to search, within a specified period of time not to exceed 10 days, the person, place, or thing named for the property or person specified. It shall designate to whom it shall be returned. The warrant may be served at any time.

(d) Execution and Return With Inventory. The peace officer taking property under the warrant shall give to the person from whom or from whose premises the property is taken a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken. The return shall be made promptly and shall be accompanied by a written inventory of any property taken. The inventory shall be made in the presence of the person from whose possession or premises the property is taken, or in the presence of at least one person other than the officer. The magistrate shall upon request deliver a copy of the inventory to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was taken and to the applicant for the warrant.

(e) Motion for Return of Property. A person aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the court for the return of the property on the ground that the property was illegally seized and that he is lawfully entitled to possession thereof. If the motion is granted, the property shall be returned. If a motion for return of property is made or comes on for hearing after an indictment or information is filed in the court in which the motion is pending, it shall be treated as a motion to suppress.

RULE 2.11

RIGHT TO AND ASSIGNMENT OF COUNSEL

(a) Types of Proceedings. The right to counsel shall extend to all criminal proceedings for offenses punishable by loss of liberty regardless of their denomination as felonies, misdemeanors, or otherwise.

(b) Stage of Proceedings.

(1) The right to counsel shall accrue as soon as feasible after the defendant is taken into custody, when he appears before a committing magistrate, or when he is formally charged, whichever occurs earliest.

(2) Counsel shall be provided at every stage of the proceedings, including sentencing, appeal, and postconviction review. Counsel initially appointed shall continue to represent the defendant through all stages of the proceedings unless a new appointment is made because geographical considerations or other factors make it necessary.

(c) Explaining the Availability of a Lawyer.

(1) When a person is taken into custody he shall immediately be advised of his right to counsel. Such advice shall be made in words easily understood, and it shall be stated expressly that a person who is unable to pay a lawyer is entitled to have one provided without charge.

(2) At the earliest opportunity a person in custody who desires counsel shall be provided access to a telephone, the telephone number of the public defender or official responsible for assigning counsel, and any other means necessary to place him in communication with a lawyer.

(d) Assignment of Counsel.

(1) Unless waived, counsel shall be provided to any person who is financially unable to obtain one without causing substantial hardship to himself or his family. Counsel shall not be denied to any person merely because his friends or relatives have resources adequate to retain counsel or because he has posted or is capable of posting bond.

(2) The ability to pay part of the cost of counsel shall not preclude assignment. The assignment of counsel may be conditioned upon part payment pursuant to an established method of collection.

(e) Withdrawal of Attorneys. Whenever a criminal cause has been set for trial, no attorney shall be allowed to withdraw from said cause, except upon written consent of the court for good and sufficient reason shown.

(f) Services Other Than Counsel. Counsel for a defendant who is financially unable to obtain investigative, expert, or other services necessary to an adequate defense in his case may request them by a motion. Upon finding that the services are necessary and that the defendant is financially unable to obtain them, the court shall authorize counsel to obtain the services on behalf of the defendant. The courts, in the interest of justice and on a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could not await prior authorization, shall ratify such services after they have been obtained.

The court shall determine reasonable compensation for the services and direct payment to the organization or person who rendered them upon the filing of a claim for compensation supported by an affidavit specifying the time expended and the services and expenses incurred on behalf of the defendant, and the compensation received in the same cases or for the same services from any other source.

3. ARRAIGNMENT AND PREPARATION FOR TRIAL

RULE 3.01

ARRAIGNMENT

Arraignment shall be conducted in open court and shall consist of reading the complaint to the defendant or stating to him the substance of the charge, and calling on him to plead thereto. He shall be given a copy of the complaint before he is called upon to plead.

RULE 3.02

ARRAIGNMENT—TIME TO DETERMINE PLEA AND TO CONSULT COUNSEL

The defendant shall not be required to plead to the complaint until he shall have had a reasonable time to examine the complaint. If the defendant appears in court without counsel, the court shall advise him of his right to counsel and, if available, his right to trial by jury, enter this fact on the record and, if time is requested to consult counsel, grant the defendant a reasonable time to consult counsel and determine his plea.

RULE 3.03

ARRAIGNMENT—APPEARANCE BY COUNSEL ONLY

If the complaint is for a misdemeanor punishable by fine only, the defendant may appear upon arraignment by counsel. Any court may adopt a local rule, not limited to misdemeanors, substantially as follows: attorneys at law may enter a plea of not guilty in writing on all (here insert type of case) cases. No further arraignment shall be required.

RULE 3.04

ARRAIGNMENT—PROCEDURES—EFFECT OF

(a) Upon arraignment, the court shall ask the defendant his true name and, if it has been incorrectly stated in the complaint, order the complaint corrected accordingly.

(b) The defendant may move to set aside the complaint on the grounds that the complaint:

- (1) Does not satisfy the requirements of these rules; or
- (2) Does not set forth facts constituting a crime; or
- (3) Contains matter which, if true, would constitute a defense or other legal bar to the action.

(c) If the motion is well taken, the court shall order the appropriate amendments or corrections to be made, if permitted under rule 2.04; otherwise, the court shall order the complaint dismissed.

(d) If the motion of dismissal is sustained because the complaint contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the action, the judgment shall be final and the defendant must be discharged; if sustained for any other reason, the dismissal shall not bar another prosecution for the same offense.

(e) If the motion is overruled, or well taken, followed by appropriate amendments or corrections, the defendant shall enter his plea.

RULE 3.06

ARRAIGNMENT—PLEAS

(a) The defendant may plead not guilty, former conviction, dismissal under rule 3.04(d), or acquittal, which may be pleaded with or without the plea of not guilty, or guilty. The plea of guilty can be made only by the defendant in open court. The court may refuse to accept a plea of guilty and shall not accept such plea without first determining of record that the plea is made voluntarily and with understanding of the nature of the charge. If the defendant fails or refuses to plead to the complaint, or the court refuses to accept a plea of guilty, a plea of not guilty shall be entered by the court.

(b) The court may, at any time before judgment, permit any plea to be withdrawn and an appropriate plea substituted, if it deems such action necessary in the interest of justice.

(c) The plea of not guilty is a denial of every material allegation in the complaint. All matters of fact may be given in evidence under it, except a former conviction or acquittal.

RULE 3.07

COMPLAINTS—WHEN TRIED

The defendant, charged by complaint, may be tried, with his consent, immediately following his plea to the complaint, or on the first available court day, unless in either case the trial be continued to a day certain for good cause.

RULE 3.08

CONTINUANCES—TRIAL WITHIN SIXTY DAYS—DISMISSAL

Continuances may be granted to either party for good cause shown. Also, the court, on its own motion, may postpone the trial for good and sufficient reason. In either case, the continuance or postponement must be to a date certain. If the defendant is not brought to trial within 60 days from the date of appearance, except where the postponement was requested by the defendant, the court shall order the complaint to be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary is shown. Dismissal under such circumstances shall be a bar to further prosecution for the offense charged.

RULE 3.10

WITNESSES—PROCESS—SUBPOENA

(a) Before trial, upon request of the defendant, the prosecuting attorney shall file with the court the names of the witnesses he intends to call at the trial and shall provide a copy of the list for the defendant or his counsel.

(b) Both the prosecution and the defendant are entitled to subpoena such witnesses as are necessary, such process to be issued by the judge or the clerk of the court and directed to the sheriff of any county or any peace officer of any municipality in the state in which such witness may be.

(c) When so required by the court, the applicant for subpoena, either in person or by counsel, shall show to the satisfaction of the court the materiality of the testimony which is expected to be obtained from such witness. See RPPP 101.16W.

(d) The procedure for compelling attendance of witnesses shall be as established in RCW 5.56; RCW 10-.04.060, 10.16.010, .140, .145, .150, .160, .190; RCW 12.16.010 and .040.

RULE 3.11

WITNESSES—CONTINUED OBLIGATION TO ATTEND—DISMISSAL

When a witness has been subpoenaed he shall remain in attendance until the case is disposed of, unless he be excused or dismissed as provided in RPPP 101.12W, Witnesses in Criminal Cases; and he shall be liable for contempt for any default or failure to appear.

RULE 3.12

SUBPOENA DUCES TECUM—MOTION TO QUASH—PRODUCTION AND INSPECTION

(a) A subpoena duces tecum may be issued by the court upon application of either party, commanding the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents or other objects designated therein. The court, on motion made promptly, may quash or modify the subpoena if compliance would be illegal, unreasonable or oppressive.

(b) The court may direct that books, papers, documents or objects designated in the subpoena be produced before the court at a time prior to the trial or prior to the time when they are to be offered in evidence and may, upon their production, permit the books, papers, documents or objects or portions thereof to be inspected by the parties and their attorneys.

RULE 3.13

PROCESS—CRIMINAL

The court may issue criminal process to any person anywhere in the state.

4. TRIAL

RULE 4.01

CONDUCT OF TRIAL

All judicial proceedings and trials shall be held in open court, and shall be conducted in accordance with these rules. Questions pertaining to the conduct of the trial and not covered by these rules or appropriate statutes shall be determined by the trial judge acting within his sound discretion.

RULE 4.02

PROCEDURE UPON A PLEA OF GUILTY

If the defendant pleads guilty, the judge may, if he wishes or if he has any doubts as to the plea, examine a witness or witnesses concerning the circumstances of the charge. If he is satisfied, either with or without the examination of witnesses, that the defendant is guilty, the judge shall assess the punishment and enter judgment accordingly. If, after an examination of a witness or witnesses, he is not satisfied as to the guilt of the defendant, he may, in his discretion, refuse to accept the plea and enter a plea of not guilty.

RULE 4.03

PROCEDURE ON A PLEA OF NOT GUILTY, OR OF FORMER ACQUITTAL OR CONVICTION, OR BOTH

The proceedings upon the trial of criminal and traffic offenses with respect to a plea of not guilty, or, of former acquittal or conviction, or both, in all courts of limited jurisdiction shall be the same as those which apply to the trial of criminal cases in superior court except as altered by these rules or by statute.

RULE 4.04

TRIAL TOGETHER OF COMPLAINTS

The court may order two or more complaints to be tried together if the offenses, and the defendants if there is more than one, could have been joined in a single complaint. The procedure shall be the same as if the prosecution were under a single complaint.

RULE 4.05

RELIEF FROM PREJUDICIAL JOINDER

If it appears that a defendant or the State is prejudiced by a joinder of offenses or of defendants in a complaint by such joinder for trial together, the court may order a separate trial of counts, grant a severance of defendants, or provide whatever other relief justice requires.

RULE 4.06

PRESENCE OF THE DEFENDANT

The defendant shall be present during the trial. A person being prosecuted for an offense punishable only by a fine may with the approval of the court be absent if with the approval of the court some responsible person undertakes to be bail for stay of execution and payment of the fine and costs that may be assessed against the defendant.

RULE 4.07

TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT

(a) Trial by Jury—Waiver. When a trial by jury is authorized by the constitution, statutes or decisions of the Supreme Court, either the State or the defendant may demand a jury, which shall consist of six or less citizens of the state, who shall be impaneled and sworn as required by law. Demand for jury trial must be made at the time the defendant's plea is entered; otherwise, it shall be deemed waived, unless the court rules to the contrary.

(b) Trial by Jury—Selection. A jury shall be selected as follows: the judge shall write in a panel the names of 18 persons, citizens of the county, from which the defendant, or his attorney, must strike one name, the prosecuting attorney one, and so on alternately until each party shall have stricken six names, and the remaining six names shall constitute the jury to try such case; and if either party neglect or refuse to aid in striking the jury as aforesaid the judge shall strike the name in behalf of such party.

(c) Trial by the Court. Unless the court refuses to assent, the parties may waive the right to trial by jury either explicitly or by failing to demand a jury trial in a timely manner, and trial shall be by the court. In trials for violation of municipal ordinances, except as indicated in rule 4.07(a), the trial shall be by the court without a jury. Where trial is by the court, the court shall make a general finding and may, in its discretion, find the facts specifically.

(d) Issues of Law. The court shall decide all questions of law which shall arise in the course of a trial. The judge may, with the consent of all parties, answer questions asked by jurors pertaining to the law applicable to the case.

(e) Issues of Fact—Judge May Charge Jury as to Law. Issues of fact shall be tried by the jury in jury cases and by the judge in nonjury cases. In cases tried by a jury, the judge shall not comment on the evidence; however, the court shall instruct the jury either orally or in writing as to the law governing the case.

RULE 4.08

ORDER OF TRIAL

(a) The order of trial in jury cases shall be as follows:

(1) Where trial by jury is requested, and authorized, a qualified jury, selected as provided by law, shall be sworn well and truly to try the case.

(2) Unless both parties waive opening statements, the prosecutor shall make the opening statement outlining the evidence which will be offered by the prosecution, and the defendant or his counsel may immediately thereafter make the opening statement for the defendant or such opening statement may be reserved until after the conclusion of the prosecution's case in chief.

(3) The prosecutor shall submit evidence in support of the prosecution.

(4) Defendant's attorney may challenge the sufficiency of the evidence at the close of the prosecution's case in chief and, if sustained, the case shall be dismissed; otherwise, the defendant may then offer evidence in defense.

(5) If the defendant's counsel shall have reserved his opening statement until the close of the prosecution's case in chief, he may then state the case for the defense; if such statement has already been made, he may then offer evidence in support thereof or he may, by proper motion, challenge the sufficiency of the prosecution's case in chief to sustain a conviction.

(6) The parties may thereafter respectively offer testimony in rebuttal only unless the court, for good cause shown or believing that the interests of justice will be best served thereby, permits the parties to offer evidence upon their original cases.

(7) If the jury is instructed, the instructions shall be given prior to argument by counsel.

(8) Unless both parties waive argument and agree that the cause be decided by the court or submitted to the jury without argument, the prosecutor shall make the opening argument and the counsel for the defendant may follow and the prosecutor may conclude the argument. The length of time of all arguments shall be fixed by the court in its discretion and announced before the arguments are commenced. Equal time shall be allowed each party.

(b) The order of trial in nonjury cases shall be the same as in section (a) except as to such portions as are not applicable to nonjury cases.

RULE 4.09

EVIDENCE

(a) Rules of Evidence. The Rules of Evidence are applicable to criminal prosecutions.

(b) Confessions. With respect to confessions, in jury cases, the procedure set forth in CrR 3.5 shall apply, upon demand of the defendant.

(c) Test Reports by Experts.

(1) Generally. The official written report of an expert witness which contains the results of any test of a substance or object which are relevant to an issue in a trial shall be admitted in evidence without further proof or foundation as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the report if the report bears the following certification:

TEST CERTIFICATION

The undersigned certifies under penalty of perjury that:

1. He performed the test on the (substance) (object) in question,

2. The person from whom he received the (substance) (object) in question is:

3. The document on which this certificate appears or to which it is attached is a true and complete copy of my official report, and

4. Such document is a report of the results of a test which report and test were made by the undersigned who has the following qualifications and experience:

Signature

Title

Business Address and Phone

(2) Exclusion of Test Reports. The court shall exclude test reports otherwise admissible under section (c) if:

(i) a copy of the certified report or certificate has not been delivered or mailed to the defendant or the defendant's lawyer at least 14 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, or

(ii) in the case of an unrepresented defendant, a copy of this rule in addition to a copy of the certified report or certificate has not been delivered or mailed to the defendant at least 14 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, or

(iii) at least 7 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, the defendant has delivered or mailed a written demand upon the prosecutor to produce the expert witness at the trial.

(d) Breathalyzer Maintenance Certificates.

(1) Admission of Certificate. In the absence of a request to produce a Breathalyzer maintenance operator made at least 7 days prior to trial or such lesser time as the court deems proper, certificates in the following form are admissible in any court proceeding held pursuant to RCW 46.61.506 for the purpose of determining whether a person was operating or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors:

BREATHALYZER MAINTENANCE AND CHEMICAL CERTIFICATION

I, _____, do certify under penalty of perjury as follows:
I am a maintenance operator possessing a valid permit or certificate issued to me by the state toxicologist by virtue of his rules, WAC 448, chapter 12, and RCW 46.61.506.

On _____ (date) at _____ (time) I examined, tested and calibrated a Breathalyzer machine with Serial No. _____ using a sealed ampule of chemicals with Control No. _____ according to the methods established and approved by the state toxicologist.

I further certify that said machine was, on that date, in proper working order, and that the chemicals in ampules with the above control number are suitable for use in this machine.

Breathalyzer Maintenance Operator

Dated _____

(2) Continuance. The court at the time of trial shall hear testimony concerning the alleged offense and, if necessary, may continue the proceedings for the purpose of obtaining the maintenance operator's presence for testimony concerning the working order of the Breathalyzer machine and his certification thereof. If, at the time the maintenance operator is produced, the prosecutor's Breathalyzer evidence is insufficient, a motion to suppress the results of such tests shall be granted.

RULE 4.10

AMENDMENTS TO COMPLAINT—CONTINUANCE

The court may permit a complaint to be amended at any time before judgment if no additional or different offense is charged, and if substantial rights of the defendant are not thereby prejudiced. A continuance shall not be granted upon such amendment unless the defendant shall satisfy the court that the amendment has made it necessary for him to have additional time in which to prepare his defense.

RULE 4.11

MOTION FOR JUDGMENT OF DISMISSAL

Motions for directed verdict are abolished and motions for judgment of dismissal are substituted in their place. The court either on motion of a defendant, or on its own motion, shall order entry of judgment of dismissal of one or more offenses charged by complaint if, after the evidence on either side is closed, the court concludes as a matter of law that such evidence is not sufficient to sustain a judgment of conviction of such offense or offenses. If a defendant's motion for judgment of dismissal at the close of the prosecution's case in chief is not granted, the defendant may offer evidence without having reserved the right. If defendant's motion is granted, the State shall have the right to appeal from the court's ruling.

5. VERDICT, JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE

RULE 5.01

TRIAL BY THE COURT

Where trial is by the court, the court shall make a general finding and may, in its discretion, find the facts specifically.

RULE 5.02

VERDICT OF JURY

(a) When all the members of the jury have agreed upon a verdict of guilty or not guilty, it must be signed by the foreman and returned by the jury to the judge in open court.

(b) When a verdict is returned and before it is recorded, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion. If at the conclusion of the poll all of the jurors do not concur, the jury may be directed to retire for further deliberations or may be discharged by the court.

RULE 5.03

BAIL, SENTENCE AND JUDGMENT

(a) Bail. Pending sentence, the court may commit the defendant or continue or alter the bail.

(b) Sentence. Before imposing sentence, the court shall afford the defendant, and the prosecution, an opportunity to make a statement and to present information in extenuation, mitigation, or aggravation of punishment. Upon a finding of guilty, in courts established under RCW 3.30 through 3.74, the sentence shall be determined and imposed by the court. In other courts of limited jurisdiction, unless the case is tried without a jury, the jury imposes the sentence.

(c) Judgment. The judgment of conviction shall set forth the plea, the verdict or findings, and the adjudication and sentence. If the defendant is found not guilty or for any other reason is entitled to be discharged, the judgment shall be entered accordingly.

RULE 5.04

JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE—PRESENCE OF DEFENDANT—WARRANT FOR ARREST

The defendant must be personally present when sentence and judgment are pronounced unless the court, upon request, consents to the absence of the defendant. If the defendant is in custody, he must be brought before the court for judgment and sentence; if he is not present when his personal attendance is necessary, the court may order the issuance of a warrant for his arrest.

RULE 5.05

JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE—DUTY OF JUDGE AND CLERK

Whenever a judgment upon a conviction shall be rendered in any court, the judge or clerk of such court shall enter such judgment on the court record, stating briefly the offense for which such conviction shall have been had; but the omission of this duty, either by the judge or clerk, shall not affect or impair the validity of the judgment.

RULE 5.06
JUDGMENT SET ASIDE

The court may for cause, on its own initiative, or on motion of the defendant set aside a judgment of conviction and order a new trial at any time before the time for appeal has expired and before an appeal has been taken.

6. APPEALS

RULE 6.01

APPEALS—PERFECTING OF

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction. The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Venue. Appeals shall be to the superior court of the county in which the court of limited jurisdiction is located. The appeal from a justice court located in a joint justice court district shall be made to the superior court of the county where the offense was alleged to have been committed.

(c) Notice of Appeal. The appeal shall be taken by filing in the court of limited jurisdiction a written notice of appeal containing the address of the appellant and appellant's attorney within 14 days after entry of judgment. If a motion for a new trial or for arrest of judgment has been timely made, such notice and proof of service may be filed within 14 days after entry of the order denying the motion. Filing the notice of appeal is the only jurisdictional requirement for an appeal. A party filing a notice of appeal shall also, within the same 14 days, serve a copy of the notice of appeal upon the lawyer for the party in whose favor the judgment was entered and file an acknowledgment or affidavit of service in the court of limited jurisdiction.

(d) The Record. After a notice of appeal is filed, the justice court shall immediately, and in no event later than 14 days thereafter, file with the clerk of the superior court in which the appeal is pending a transcript duly certified by such justice court, furnished without charge, containing a copy of all written pleadings and docket entries, and including exhibits introduced into evidence in the trial before the justice court. A cash bail or bail bond filed in the justice court shall at the same time be transferred to the superior court, there to be held pending disposition of the appeal. Evidence not offered in trial in the superior court shall be returned to the justice court.

(e) Notice of Filing. The justice court shall give prompt notice of the filing or mailing to the respondent and appellant, giving such particulars as date of filing or mailing and superior court file number, if known. Where the justice court is not located at the county courthouse, such filing may be made by certified mail, in which case the justice court shall advise appellant and respondent of the date of mailing.

(f) Noting for Trial. Within 21 days after the transcript is filed, the superior court shall set a trial date and notify the parties of the date.

RULE 6.02

IMPOSITION OF SENTENCE PENDING APPEAL

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction. The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Stay of Sentence. All sentences shall be stayed if an appeal is taken and the defendant posts cash bail or his bond to the State which shall be deposited with the clerk of the court, in such reasonable sum with sureties as the lower court judge may require, upon the following conditions: that he will diligently prosecute the appeal, and will appear at the court appealed to and comply with any sentence of the superior court, and will, if the appeal is dismissed for any reason, comply with the sentence of the lower court.

(c) Imposition of Sentence. If the appellant fails to provide security, sentence imposed shall be executed.

RULE 6.03

APPEAL—PROSECUTION THEREOF

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction. The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Failure To Certify Transcript. If the lower court fails, neglects or refuses to make and certify the transcript within the time allowed, the appellant may make application to the superior court not later than 21 days after the filing of the notice of appeal and the superior court shall issue an order to make and certify the transcript.

(c) Dismissal for Want of Prosecution. Upon dismissal of the appeal for failure of appellant to proceed diligently with the appeal as herein required, or for any other cause, the judgment of the lower court shall be enforced by the judge thereof. If, at the time of such dismissal, cash deposit or appeal bond as hereinafter required has been furnished and is in the custody of the superior court, the same shall be returned to the lower court. The lower court shall have power to forfeit the cash bail or appeal bond and issue execution thereon for breach of any condition under which it is furnished.

(d) Dismissal on Clerk's Motion. In all justice court appeals wherein there has been no action of record during the 90 days just past, the clerk of the superior court shall mail notice to the appellant and counsel at the addresses contained in the notice of appeal that such appeal will be dismissed by the court for want of prosecution unless within 30 days following such mailing, action of record is made for an application in writing to the court and good cause shown why it should be continued as a pending case. If the appeal is dismissed, the clerk of the court will proceed as per section (c) above.

8. DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE, CLERICAL MISTAKES, CONDUCT OF COURT

RULE 8.01

JUDGE, DISQUALIFICATION

(a) Disqualification. In any case pending in any court of limited jurisdiction, unless otherwise provided by law, the judge thereof shall be deemed disqualified to hear and try the case when he is in anywise interested or prejudiced. The judge, of his own initiative, may enter an order disqualifying himself; and he shall also disqualify himself under the provisions of this rule if, before the jury is sworn or the trial is commenced, a party or his attorney of record files an affidavit that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial by reason of the interest or prejudice of the judge or for other ground provided by law. Only one such affidavit shall be filed on behalf of the same party in the case and such affidavit shall be made as to only one of the judges of said court.

(b) Affidavit of Prejudice. All right to an affidavit of prejudice will be considered waived where filed more than 10 days after the defendant's plea is entered, or the case is set for trial whichever should occur first, unless the affidavit alleges a particular incident, conversation or utterance by the judge, which was not known to the party or his attorney within the 10-day period. In multiple judge courts, or where a pro tempore or visiting judge is designated as the trial judge, the 10-day period shall commence on the date that the defendant or his attorney has actual notice of assignment or reassignment to a designated trial judge.

RULE 8.02

JUDGE, DISQUALIFICATION—ANOTHER JUDGE

Whenever a justice of the peace is disqualified, said judge shall forthwith make an order transferring and removing the case to another judge authorized by law to hear such case. RCW 3.50.280 shall apply to municipal courts.

RULE 8.03

CLERICAL MISTAKES

Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors in the record arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time and after such notice, if any, as the court may order. If an appeal has been taken, such mistakes may be so corrected until the record has been filed in the appellate court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with the leave of the appellate court.

RULE 8.04

RULES OF COURT

If no procedure is specifically prescribed by rule, the court may proceed in any lawful manner not inconsistent with these rules, or with any applicable statute.

10. MISCELLANEOUS

RULE 10.01

TIME—RULES FOR COMPUTING

(a) In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by order of court or by any applicable law, the day of the act, event or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be counted or included, and the last day of the prescribed or allowed period so computed is to be counted and included, unless such last day be a Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Sunday nor a legal holiday. When the allowed period is less than 7 days, intermediate Sundays and legal holidays, if any, shall be excluded in the computation.

(b) Whenever by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court, for good cause shown, may at any time in its discretion: (1) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if application therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order; or (2) upon motion and notice permit the act to be done after the expiration of the specified period where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but the court may not enlarge the period for taking an appeal as provided for in these rules.

RULE 10.02

MOTIONS AND APPLICATIONS—NOTICE—SERVICE

Reasonable notice shall be given to the opposing party or attorney of record of all motions and applications other than those ex parte. Where a motion or application is supported by an affidavit, a copy of such affidavit shall be served with the motion or application.

RULE 2.2

INITIATION OF TRAFFIC CASES

(a) Generally. A traffic case is initiated by the issuance, service, and filing of a notice of traffic infraction in accordance with this rule.

(b) Only Law Enforcement Officer May Issue. Only a law enforcement officer may issue a notice of traffic infraction.

(c) Service of Notice. A notice of traffic infraction may be served either by:

(1) The law enforcement officer serving the notice of traffic infraction on the person named in the notice of traffic infraction at the time of issuance;

(2) The law enforcement officer affixing to a vehicle in a conspicuous place the notice of traffic infraction if it alleges the violation of a parking, standing, or stopping statute; or

(3) The law enforcement officer filing the notice of traffic infraction with the court, in which case the court shall have the notice served either personally or by mail, postage prepaid, on the person named in the notice of traffic infraction at his address. If a notice of traffic infraction served by mail is returned to the court as undeliverable, the court shall issue a summons.

(d) Filing of Notice. When a notice of traffic infraction has been issued, the notice shall be filed with a court having jurisdiction over the traffic infraction or with a violations bureau subject to such court's supervision. The notice must be filed within 48 hours after issuance of the notice, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. A notice of traffic infraction not filed within the time limits of this section may be dismissed without prejudice.

RULE 2.3

VENUE

A traffic case shall be brought in the justice court district or the municipality where the traffic infraction occurred. If a notice of infraction is filed in a court which is not the proper venue, the notice shall be dismissed without prejudice on motion of either party.

RULE 2.4

RESPONSE TO NOTICE

(a) Generally: A person who has been served with a notice of traffic infraction must respond to the notice within 7 days of the date the notice is personally served or, if the notice is served by mail, within 10 days of the date the notice is mailed.

(b) Three Alternatives. A person may respond to a notice of traffic infraction by:

(1) Paying the amount of the monetary penalty in accordance with RCW 46.63.070(2), in which case the court shall enter a judgment that the defendant has committed the traffic infraction;

(2) Contesting the determination that a traffic infraction occurred by requesting a hearing in accordance with RCW 46.63.070(3); or

(3) Requesting a hearing to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the commission of the offense in accordance with RCW 46.63.070(4).

(c) Method of Response. A person may respond to a notice of traffic infraction either personally or by mail. If the response is mailed, it must be mailed not later than midnight of the day the response is due.

RULE 2.5

FAILURE TO RESPOND

If the defendant fails to respond to a notice of traffic infraction, the court shall enter an order finding that the defendant has committed the infraction, shall assess any monetary penalties provided for by law, and shall notify the department of the defendant's failure to respond in accordance with RCW 46.20.270.

RULE 2.6

SCHEDULING OF HEARINGS

(a) Contested Hearings.

(1) Upon receipt of a response submitted pursuant to rule 2.4(b)(2), the court shall schedule a hearing to determine whether the defendant committed the infraction. The hearing shall be scheduled for not less than 7 days nor more than 90 days from the date of written notice of the hearing date, unless otherwise agreed by the defendant in writing.

(2) The court shall send the defendant written notice of the time, place, and date of the hearing within 14 days of the receipt of the request for a hearing. The notice of the hearing shall also include statements advising the defendant of his rights at the hearing, how the defendant may request that witnesses be subpoenaed, and that failure to appear is a crime for which the defendant may be arrested.

(3) The court may schedule the hearing on a contested traffic infraction for the same time as the hearing on another traffic infraction alleged to have been committed by the defendant. The court may schedule the hearing on a contested traffic infraction for the same time as the trial on a misdemeanor arising out of the same occurrence as the traffic infraction.

(b) Mitigation Hearings.

(1) Upon receipt of a response submitted pursuant to rule 2.4(b)(3) the court shall schedule a hearing to determine whether there were mitigating circumstances surrounding the commission of the infraction. The hearing shall be scheduled for not less than 7 days nor more than 90 days from the date of written notice of the hearing date, unless otherwise agreed by the defendant in writing.

(2) The court shall send the defendant written notice of the time, place, and date of the hearing within 14 days of the request for a hearing. The notice shall also include statements advising the defendant of his rights at the hearing and stating that failure to appear is a crime for which the defendant may be arrested.

(3) The court may schedule the mitigation hearing for the same time as the mitigation hearing on another traffic infraction alleged to have been committed by the defendant.

TITLE 3

PROCEDURE AT HEARINGS

RULE 3.1

CONTESTED HEARINGS—PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS

(a) Subpoena. The defendant and the plaintiff may subpoena witnesses necessary for the presentation of their respective cases. The subpoena may be issued by a judge, court commissioner, or clerk of the court or by a party's lawyer. If a party's lawyer issues a subpoena, a copy shall be filed with the court. A subpoena may be directed to the sheriff of any county or any peace officer of any municipality in the state in which the witness may be or it may be served as provided in CR 45(c). If the subpoena is for a witness outside the county, the judge must approve of the subpoena.

(b) Witness List. The plaintiff's lawyer, upon request of the defendant 14 days prior to a contested hearing, shall at least 7 days prior to the hearing provide the defendant or defendant's lawyer with a list of the witnesses the plaintiff intends to call at the hearing.

(c) Amendment of Notice. The court may permit a notice of traffic infraction to be amended at any time before judgment if no additional or different infraction is charged, and if substantial rights of the defendant are not thereby prejudiced. A continuance shall be granted if the defendant satisfies the court that the additional time is needed to defend against the amended notice of infraction.

(d) Sufficiency. No notice of infraction shall be deemed insufficient for failure to contain a definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific infraction which the defendant is alleged to have committed, nor by reason of defects or imperfections which do not tend to prejudice substantial rights of the defendant.

RULE 3.2

FAILURE TO APPEAR

(a) Entry of Judgment. If the defendant fails to appear at a requested hearing the court shall enter judgment against the defendant finding that the defendant has committed the traffic infraction and assessing against the defendant any monetary penalties provided by law. A judgment upon a failure to appear shall not be entered if it appears to the court from the papers on file that the traffic case was brought in an improper court.

(b) Setting Aside Judgment Upon Failure To Appear. For good cause shown and upon terms the court deems just, the court may set aside a judgment entered upon a failure to appear in accordance with JCR 60(b). A motion to set aside the judgment must be made within 90 days after entry of the judgment.

RULE 3.3

PROCEDURE AT CONTESTED HEARING

(a) Generally. The court shall conduct the hearing for contesting the notice of traffic infraction in accordance with RCW 46.63.090.

(b) Plaintiff Represented by Lawyer. At a contested hearing, the plaintiff shall be represented by a lawyer representative of the prosecuting attorney or of the city attorney when prescribed by local court rule.

(c) Rules of Evidence. The Rules of Evidence shall apply to contested hearings.

(d) Factual Determination. The court shall determine whether the plaintiff has proved by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant committed the traffic infraction. If the court finds the infraction was committed, it shall enter an appropriate order on its records. If the court finds the infraction was not committed, it shall enter an order dismissing the case.

(e) Disposition. If the court determines that the traffic infraction has been committed, it may assess a monetary penalty against the defendant. The monetary penalty assessed may not exceed the monetary penalty provided for the infraction in rule 6.2 or provided for by local court rule. The court may waive or suspend a portion of the monetary penalty, or provide for time payments, or in lieu of monetary payment provide for the performance of community service as provided in RCW 46.63.120. The court has continuing jurisdiction and authority to supervise disposition for not more than 1 year.

RULE 3.4

HEARING ON MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES

(a) Generally. The court shall conduct the hearing concerning mitigating circumstances in accordance with RCW 46.63.100.

(b) Procedure at Hearing. The court shall hold an informal hearing which shall not be governed by the Rules of Evidence. The plaintiff and the defendant may each be represented by a lawyer. The defendant may present witnesses, but they may not be compelled to attend.

(c) Disposition. The court shall determine whether the defendant's explanation of the events justifies reduction of the monetary penalty. The court shall enter an order finding the defendant committed the infraction and may assess a monetary penalty. The court may not impose a penalty in excess of the monetary penalty provided for the infraction in rule 6.2 or provided for by local court rule. The court may waive or suspend a portion of the monetary penalty, or provide for time payments, or in lieu of monetary payment provide for the performance of community service as provided in RCW 46.63.120. The court has continuing jurisdiction and authority to supervise disposition for not more than 1 year.

TITLE 4

DISPOSITION PROCEDURES

RULE 4.1

NOTIFICATION TO DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING

(a) Generally. Within 10 days of entry of judgment that the infraction was committed the court shall forward to the department of licensing a copy of the notice of traffic infraction and an abstract of the court's order.

(b) Parking, Standing, Stopping, or Pedestrian Infractions. The court shall not notify the department of a parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infraction.

(c) Notice to Department When Failure To Appear Set Aside. If a judgment for a failure to appear has been set aside, the department shall be notified that it has been set aside and of the final disposition of the infraction within 10 days after judgment has been rendered.

RULE 4.2

FAILURE TO PAY OR COMPLETE COMMUNITY SERVICE

(a) Failure To Pay or Complete Community Service. Unless the infraction is a parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infraction, the court shall notify the department within 10 days:

(1) If the defendant fails to pay the monetary penalty assessed after a hearing to contest the traffic infraction or after a hearing to explain mitigating circumstances, or

(2) If the defendant fails to meet a time payment authorized by the court or fails to complete community service approved by the court.

(b) Notice to Department. The notice to the department shall be in the form prescribed by the department.

(c) Removal of the Failure To Pay or Complete Community Service. When the defendant has paid all monetary penalties owing, including completion of community service, the court shall notify the department within 10 days of payment or of completion of community service on a form prescribed by the department.

TITLE 5

APPEALS

WHAT ORDERS MAY BE APPEALED

A defendant may appeal a judgment entered after a contested hearing finding that the defendant has committed the infraction. The plaintiff may appeal a decision which in effect abates, discontinues, or determines the case other than by a judgment that the defendant has not committed a traffic infraction. No other orders or judgments are appealable by either party.

RULE 5.2

PROCEDURE TO APPEAL

The Justice Court Civil Rules govern the procedure to appeal a traffic case. The time for appeal under JCR 73 begins to run from the date the court makes its disposition under rule 3.3(e).

TITLE 6

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

TIME

Time shall be computed or enlarged as provided in CR 6, except that the time in which to respond to the notice of traffic infraction under rule 2.4 and the time in which to file an appeal under JCR 73 may not be enlarged.

(c) Infractions Not Covered. This schedule does not apply to penalties for parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infractions established by municipal or county statute. Judicial Qualifications Commission Rules
Adopted October 14, 1981

Rule 1. SCOPE AND TITLE

(a) Scope. These rules apply to proceedings before the Judicial Qualifications Commission created by Article IV, Section 31, of the Constitution of the State of Washington, and governed by Ch. 268, Laws of 1981. These rules govern the procedure for considering allegations that a judge has violated a rule of judicial conduct, or has a disability which is permanent or likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties.

(b) Title. These rules shall be known as the Judicial Qualifications Commission Rules and may be abbreviated as JQCR.

(c) Supreme Court Rules. Supreme Court consideration of Judicial Qualifications Commission recommendations is governed by the Discipline Rules for Judges (DRJ) adopted by the Supreme Court.

Rule 2. DEFINITIONS

In these rules,

(a) "Admonition" means a written informal disposition of an allegation consented to by the judge which cautions the judge not to engage in certain proscribed behavior and may contain agreed corrective action to be taken by the judge.

(b) "Allegation" means a statement or communication alleging facts which may upon investigation lead to a finding of judicial misconduct or disability.

(c) "Chairperson" includes the acting chairperson.

(d) "Commission" means the Judicial Qualifications Commission.

(e) "Complaint" means the formal charge of judicial misconduct or disability filed by the commission and forming the basis for a fact-finding hearing.

(f) "Fact-finder" means the commission, or at the discretion of the commission, a three-member subcommittee of the commission or a master.

(g) "Hearing" means a meeting for the purpose of taking evidence and conducted by a fact-finder.

(h) "Judge" means a judge or justice and includes justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, judges of the superior court, judges of any court organized under Titles 3, 35, or 35A RCW, and judges pro tempore. The term includes full-time and part-time judges and judges who have been or have not been admitted to the practice of law in Washington.

(i) "Master" means a person appointed by the commission to hear and take evidence with respect to charges against a judge.

(j) "Meeting" means a meeting of the commission for any purpose other than the taking of evidence for fact-finding.

(k) "Member" means a member of the commission and includes alternates acting as members.

(l) "Party" means the judge or the commission.

Rule 3. ORGANIZATION OF THE COMMISSION

(a) Officers. The commission shall elect from its members a chairperson and a vice-chairperson, each of whom shall serve a term of two years or until they cease to be members of the commission, whichever period is shorter. The vice-chairperson shall act as chairperson in the absence of the chairperson. In the absence of both the chairperson and the vice-chairperson, the members present may select a temporary chairperson.

(b) Executive Director and Staff. The commission will hire an executive director, staff, masters, and counsel, as necessary to the effective performance of the commission's duties.

(c) Meetings.

(1) Meetings of the commission shall be held at the call of the chairperson or the written request of three members of the commission.

(2) The commission may conduct meetings by telephone conference call.

(d) Quorum. Four members must be present for the transaction of business by the commission. A final decision of the commission, other than a decision recommending discipline or retirement, must be supported by a majority of the members present. A final decision recommending discipline or retirement must be supported by four members of the commission.

(e) Alternates. The chairperson will call upon an alternate member selected by the appropriate appointing authority to serve in the place of a member whenever a member is disabled, disqualified, or unable to serve. The chairperson shall announce when an alternate member is serving in the place of a commission member.

Rule 4. CONFIDENTIALITY OF PROCEEDINGS

(a) Generally. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, all papers filed with the commission are confidential and all qualification proceedings before the commission, a subcommittee, or a master will be conducted in executive session.

(b) Public Inspection of Recommendation. A commission recommendation of discipline or retirement, and the findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting the recommendation, shall be available for public inspection in the commission's office during regular business hours after the recommendation is filed with the Supreme Court.

(c) Release of Information. The commission may with due consideration for the interests of the judge make a public statement regarding a pending or completed proceeding which would otherwise be confidential in the following circumstances:

(1) If public statements that charges are pending before the commission are substantially unfair to a judge.

(2) If a judge is publicly associated with violating a rule of judicial conduct or with having a disability, and the commission, after a preliminary investigation or a formal hearing, has determined there is no basis for further proceedings or for a recommendation of discipline or retirement.

(3) If a formal hearing has been ordered in a proceeding in which the subject matter is generally known to the public and in which there is broad public interest, and in which confidence in the administration of justice is threatened due to misinformation or lack of information.

(d) Notice to Complainant. After final commission action on an allegation or complaint, the commission will disclose to the person making an allegation that after an investigation of the charges (i) the commission has found no basis for action by the commission against the judge, (ii) the commission has determined that the matter should be or should have been resolved by an appeal and involves no misconduct or disability, (iii) the commission has taken appropriate corrective action, or (iv) the commission has filed a recommendation with the Supreme Court for the censure, suspension, removal or retirement of the judge. The name of the judge in the discretion of the commission shall not be used in written communication to the complainant.

(e) Judge's Request for Release of Information. The commission may in its discretion release information concerning a pending or completed proceeding at the request of the judge who is the subject of the proceeding.

(f) Release of Information to Bar Association or Law Enforcement Agency. The commission may release information concerning a lawyer judge to the Washington State Bar Association or concerning any judge to law enforcement agencies when required in the interests of justice or to maintain confidence in the administration of the judiciary.

(g) Public Proceedings. If the commission determines that the public interest in maintaining confidence in the judiciary and the integrity of the administration of justice so require, it may order that some or all aspects of the proceeding before the commission may be publicly conducted or otherwise reported or disclosed to the public. The judge the subject of any hearing which may be made public will be given notice and an opportunity to be heard on the issue before the commission determines to make a hearing public.

(h) Contempt. Unless otherwise permitted by these rules, no person shall disclose information obtained by that person during commission proceedings or from papers filed with the commission. Any person giving information to the commission or any member or employee of the commission is subject to a proceeding for contempt in superior court for disclosing information in violation of this rule.

Rule 5. INITIAL PROCEEDINGS

(a) Allegations of Misconduct or Disability. Any organization, association, or person, including a member of the commission, may make an allegation of judicial misconduct or disability to the commission. An allegation may be made orally or in writing.

(b) Distinguished from Appeal. In the absence of grounds for recommending the discipline of a judge, the commission will not recommend the discipline of a judge for the exercise of discretion in making findings of fact, reaching a legal conclusion, or applying the law as the judge understands it. Claims of error shall be considered only on appeal.

(c) Screening by Executive Director. Upon receipt of an allegation not obviously unfounded or frivolous, the executive director shall make a prompt, discreet, and confidential inquiry and evaluation. The executive director shall make a recommendation to the commission as to whether a preliminary investigation should be initiated on every allegation received.

(d) Commission Determination. If the commission determines at a meeting that a preliminary investigation should be initiated, the person making the allegation will be requested to file a verified statement with the commission. If a verified statement is not filed by the person making the allegation, the executive director shall prepare and file a verified statement.

(e) Contents of Verified Statement. A verified statement requesting that the commission investigate allegations must include facts showing that a judge may have violated a rule of judicial conduct or may be suffering a disability that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties and is or is likely to become permanent.

Rule 6. PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION

(a) Conduct of Preliminary Investigation. If the commission orders a preliminary investigation, the executive director and/or a special investigator will conduct the investigation.

(b) Notification of Investigation. The judge who is the subject of a preliminary investigation will be notified by the commission within 7 days after the filing of a verified statement. The judge shall also be advised of the nature of the charge, and, in the discretion of the commission, the name of the individual making the verified statement, if any, or that the investigation is on the commission's own motion.

(c) Judge's Response. The judge shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity in the course of the preliminary investigation to present such matters as he or she may choose.

(d) Order for Medical Examination. If the preliminary investigation concerns a judge who may be suffering a possible physical and/or mental disability which may seriously impair the performance of judicial duties, the commission may order a judge to submit to physical and/or mental examinations at commission expense. The failure or refusal of a judge to submit to physical and/or mental examinations ordered by the commission may, in the discretion of the commission, preclude the judge from presenting the results of other physical and/or mental examinations on his or her own behalf. The commission may consider the failure or refusal to submit to physical and/or mental examinations as evidence that the judge has a disability that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties and is or is likely to become permanent.

(e) Result of Preliminary Investigation.

(1) If the commission determines at a meeting after a preliminary investigation that there are insufficient grounds for further commission proceedings, the judge and the person making the allegation will be so notified.

(2) If the commission determines at a meeting after a preliminary investigation that probable cause exists for believing that the judge has violated a rule of judicial conduct or that the judge may be suffering from a disability that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties and is or is likely to become permanent, the commission shall order the filing of a complaint pursuant to Rule 7 or may informally dispose of the matter pursuant to Rule 19.

Rule 7. INITIATING FORMAL PROCEEDINGS

(a) Generally. The commission after a preliminary investigation may file a complaint alleging the violation of a rule of judicial conduct or the disability of a judge that is or is likely to become permanent. The complaint will be served on the judge within 7 days after filing of the complaint in the commission's office.

(b) Form of complaint. The complaint will state in ordinary and concise language the basis for commission action and the facts supporting the complaint. The complaint shall also inform the judge that he or she may file a written answer to the charges as provided in paragraph (c).

(c) Answer. The judge may file with the commission an answer to the complaint. The answer must be filed within 14 days after service of the complaint on the judge. If the judge does not file a written answer, a general denial will be entered on behalf of the judge. The complaint and the answer shall be the only pleadings required.

Rule 8. SCHEDULING FACT-FINDING HEARING

A fact-finding hearing will be scheduled to take place within 42 days after the time for answer has expired or after the answer is filed. The executive director will set a time and place for the fact-finding hearing. The judge will be given at least 14 days notice of the fact-finding hearing. The notice will include the name or names of the fact-finder and the presiding officer, if any.

Rule 9. DISQUALIFICATION OF FACT-FINDER

(a) Disqualification of Member or Master. A member of the commission or a master must disqualify himself or herself in any proceedings involving his or her own conduct or alleged disability. A member of the commission or a master must disqualify himself or herself if he or she cannot impartially consider the complaint against a judge.

(b) Challenge for Cause. A judge may file an affidavit challenging for cause any member or a master who the judge believes will not impartially consider the complaint. The affidavit must be filed within 7 days after notice of the fact-finding hearing. The commission will decide any challenge for cause if the member does not disqualify himself or herself.

(c) Peremptory Challenge. A judge may file one peremptory challenge against one member of the commission. The challenge must be filed within 7 days after notice of a fact-finding hearing. If the judge has unsuccessfully challenged a member for cause, any peremptory challenge against that member must be filed within 3 days after service of notice of the determination of the challenge for cause.

Rule 10. PROCEDURAL RIGHTS OF JUDGE

(a) Generally. The judge has a right to notice of the allegations concerning the judge which have been found by the commission to warrant a preliminary investigation. The judge shall have the right and reasonable opportunity at a fact-finding hearing to defend against the allegations in the complaint by the introduction of evidence. The judge has the privilege against self-incrimination. The judge may be represented by counsel and may examine and cross-examine witnesses. The judge has the right to testify or not to testify on his or her own behalf. The judge has the right to the issuance of subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses to testify or produce evidentiary matters. The judge has the right to a prompt resolution of the allegations in the complaint.

(b) Transcripts. The judge will be provided without cost a copy of any report of proceedings prepared by the commission. The judge may, in addition, have all or any portion of the testimony in the proceedings transcribed at his or her own expense.

(c) Witness Fees. All witnesses shall receive fees and expenses in the amount allowed by law. Expenses of witnesses shall be borne by the party calling them, unless:

(1) Physical or mental disability of the judge is in issue, in which case the commission shall reimburse the judge for the reasonable expenses of the witnesses whose testimony related to the disability; or

(2) The judge is exonerated of the allegations, and the commission determines that the imposition of costs and expert witness fees would work a financial hardship or injustice upon the judge and orders that those fees be reimbursed.

Rule 11. GUARDIANS AD LITEM

If it appears to the commission at any time during the proceedings that the judge is not competent to act, or if it has been previously judicially determined that the judge is not competent to act, the commission will appoint a guardian ad litem for the judge unless the judge already has a guardian who will represent the judge's interests. In the appointment of a guardian ad litem, consideration may be given to the wishes of the members of the judge's immediate family. The guardian or guardian ad litem may claim and exercise any right and privilege and make any defense for the judge which the judge could have claimed, exercised, or made if competent. Any notice to be served on the judge will also be served on the guardian or guardian ad litem.

Rule 12. PROCEDURE BEFORE FACT-FINDING

(a) Request for Witnesses. Upon written demand of a party, the opposing party will disclose within 7 days the names and addresses of all witnesses whose testimony that party expects to offer at the hearing. A party will give to the opposing party copies of all written statements and transcripts of testimony of such witnesses in the party's possession which are relevant to the subject matter of the hearing and which have not previously been furnished. Witnesses not disclosed may be precluded from testifying.

(b) Discovery. The taking of depositions, the requesting of admissions and all other procedures authorized by Rules 26 through 37 of the Superior Court Civil Rules are available upon stipulation of the parties or upon prior permission of the master or presiding officer. A request for discovery shall be granted, unless the master or presiding officer determines that the request is frivolous, will create an undue burden on the party, or will result in undue delay.

(c) Disclosure by Commission's Counsel. The commission's counsel shall disclose to the judge any material or information within his or her knowledge which tends to negate the allegations against the judge or mitigate the degree of discipline which may be imposed.

Rule 13. AMENDMENTS TO COMPLAINT OR ANSWER

The fact-finder, at any time prior to the conclusion of the hearing, or the commission, at any time prior to its decision, may allow or require amendments to the complaint or the answer. The complaint may be amended to conform to the proof or set forth additional facts, whether occurring before or after the commencement of the hearing. Except for amendments to conform to the proof at a fact-finding hearing, if an amendment substantially affects the nature of the charges, the judge will be given reasonable time to answer the amendment and prepare and present a defense against the new matter raised.

Rule 14. PROCEDURE AT FACT-FINDING HEARING

(a) Order of Presentation. The order of presentation shall be in the same manner as in civil cases in superior court.

(b) Commission Represented by Counsel. The case for the commission shall be presented by counsel retained by the commission.

(c) Rules of Evidence. The Rules of Evidence (ER) as applicable in civil proceedings shall govern the fact-finding hearing.

(d) Standard of Proof. The fact-finder must find by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that the judge has violated a rule of judicial conduct or that the judge has a disability which is or is likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties.

(e) Presiding Officer. Unless the fact-finding hearing is before a master, the chairperson may appoint a member to be presiding officer or to rule on motions and objections made during the hearing. If the hearing is before the commission, a member may appeal a ruling to the commission members present. A majority vote will determine the motion.

(f) Failure to Answer or Appear. The failure of a judge to answer or to appear at the hearing or to submit to a mental or physical examination required by the commission will not be sufficient in and of itself to constitute grounds for censure, suspension, removal, or retirement. The failure may be considered with other evidence, unless it appears that such failure was due to circumstances beyond the judge's control.

(g) Verbatim Record. Unless the judge and the commission stipulate to a different record, a verbatim record will be made and kept of the fact-finding hearing. The commission shall determine whether the verbatim record will be by court reporter or electronic recording device.

Rule 15. REPORT OF FACT-FINDER

The fact-finder shall prepare a report containing a brief statement of the procedure followed and the proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommendation with respect to the issues presented at the fact-finding hearing. The report shall be served on the parties within 21 days after the fact-finding hearing. The fact-finder may request the prevailing party to prepare the findings of fact and conclusions of law. The parties may stipulate to all or a portion of the report without the necessity of a hearing on the stipulated matters.

Rule 16. APPEARANCE BEFORE COMMISSION

(a) Objections. A party may file with the commission a statement of objections to the report of the fact-finder filed with the commission. The statement shall set forth all objections to the report and state reasons in opposition to the findings, conclusions, or recommendations made by the fact-finder. The objections must be filed with the commission and served on the opposing party within 14 days after service of the report on the party.

(b) No Objections Filed. If no statement of objections to the report of the fact-finder is filed within the time provided in paragraph (a), or if the consent of the parties to the report of a subcommittee or master is filed, the report may be adopted by the commission without argument. The commission will determine what recommendation, if any, should be made to the Supreme Court based on the findings.

(c) Objections Filed. If a statement of objections is timely filed, or if the commission proposes to modify or reject the report of a subcommittee or master, the commission shall schedule a time for oral argument before the commission on the record before the fact-finder along with briefs of the parties. The parties shall be given at least 14 days written notice of the time and place for argument.

Rule 17. ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE

The commission may order a hearing for the taking of additional evidence at any time before its decision is final. The order will set the time and place of the hearing and will specify the matters on which the additional evidence is to be taken. A copy of the order shall be served upon the judge at least 14 days prior to the date set for hearing. The hearing will be conducted in the manner provided in Rules 8–16.

Rule 18. COMMISSION DECISION

(a) Recommendation. The commission will recommend the discipline or retirement of a judge only upon the affirmative vote of at least four members. A member must consider the verbatim record and the report of the fact-finder and be present at all relevant hearings before the commission in order to vote in a particular matter. If at least four members do not vote for the discipline or retirement of a judge, the complaint shall be dismissed. Any commission member may file a dissent.

(b) Decision. The commission's decision will include written findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommendation. The commission may adopt the report of the fact-finder, in whole or in part, by reference.

(c) Notice to Judge. The commission's decision will be served upon the judge and his or her counsel of record within 7 days after the decision is filed in the commission's office.

(d) Motion for Reconsideration. A party may file a motion for reconsideration of the commission decision. The motion must be filed within 14 days after the decision has been filed in the commission's office.

(e) Finality of Decision. The commission decision is final 14 days after filing in the commission's office unless a motion for reconsideration is earlier filed. If a motion for reconsideration is denied, the decision is then final. If the motion for reconsideration is granted, the reconsidered decision is final when filed in the commission's office.

(f) Notice of Commission Decision. When the decision is final, the commission will notify the person making the allegation of the general nature of its decision, in accordance with Rule 4(d).

Rule 19. INFORMAL DISPOSITION

An allegation of misconduct may be disposed of by a proposal to the judge for an admonition. The proposal will provide whether acceptance of the proposal may be considered as an admission of misconduct by the judge. If the judge accepts the proposal in writing within 14 days after service of the proposal, a letter of admonition will be issued and no further action will be taken by the commission. If the judge accepts the proposal, the person making the allegation shall be notified that the matter has been resolved, in accordance with Rule 4(d). If the judge does not accept or fails to respond to the proposal, proceedings will continue.

Rule 20. SUPREME COURT PROCEDURES

(a) Certification to Supreme Court. Within 14 days after the decision is final, a commission decision recommending the discipline or retirement of a judge will be filed with the Supreme Court and served on the judge. The notice of the decision served on the judge shall state the date the decision was filed in the Supreme Court and shall specify the period during which the judge may challenge the commission recommendation as provided in Discipline Rules for Judges Rule 2.

(b) Record for Supreme Court Review. The chairperson shall certify the record of commission proceedings and transmit to the judge those portions of the record required by Discipline Rules for Judges Rule 4.

(c) Objections to Record. Objections to the record of the commission proceedings must be filed in the commission's office within 14 days after service of the record. Objections will be determined by the chairperson, or in his or her discretion, the fact-finder. The record shall be filed in the Supreme Court and served on the judge within 14 days after the objection is filed with the commission, or in the absence of objection, within 14 days after the time for objection has expired.

(d) Remand from Supreme Court. If the Supreme Court remands a case to the commission the chairperson shall assign the case to a fact-finder or the commission in accordance with the request of the Supreme Court.

Rule 21. [Reserved]

Rule 22. EXTENSION OF TIME

Upon a showing of good cause the chairperson or fact-finder may enlarge the time within which an act must be done under these rules.

Rule 23. SERVICE

(a) Service on Judge. A complaint under Rule 7 shall be served on a judge in person, unless the judge cannot be found within the state. If the judge cannot be found, the complaint may be served by mail addressed to the judge's last known business and residence addresses. All other papers in commission proceedings may be served on a judge in person or by mail. If counsel has appeared for a judge, papers, other than a complaint, may be served on counsel in lieu of service upon the judge.

(b) Service on Commission. Service of papers on the commission shall be given by delivering or mailing the papers to the commission's office.

(c) When Service Accomplished. If service is by mail, a paper is timely served if mailed within the time permitted for service. If a paper is served by mail, a time period dependent on that service begins to run 3 days after the paper is mailed.

Rule 24. RULE ADOPTION, AMENDMENT, OR REPEAL

(a) Generally. Any person may petition the commission requesting the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a commission rule.

(b) Petition. The petition must set out the proposed rule, or any amendments to an existing rule, in full. The petition must also include reasons in support of the request.

(c) Commission Review. The executive director shall recommend to the commission whether to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule as requested in a petition. The chairperson may order a public hearing for further consideration of the petition. The commission will order the publication of the proposal for public comment before taking final action to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule.

(d) Notice to Petitioner. The commission will notify the petitioner of its final action within a reasonable time after disposition of the petition.

CODIFICATION TABLES

- (1) Remington's Revised Statutes to Revised Code of Washington.
- (2) Session law sections not included in Remington's Revised statutes but included in the Revised Code of Washington: 1854 to 1949 Session Laws; inclusive.
- (3) Session law sections commencing with the 1950 Extraordinary Session.

These tables include: (1) All sections of Remington's Revised Statutes or parts thereof that have parallel sections in the Revised Code of Washington as originally published, accounting as well for those Remington sections that are omitted from the Revised Code of Washington, and which omitted sections may not be accounted for in tables or notes published in Remington's Revised Statutes, its pocket supplements, and its biennial supplements up to and including that for the year 1949; (2) Session law sections not included in Remington's Revised statutes but included in the Revised Code of Washington: 1854 to 1949 Session Laws, inclusive; and (3) Session law sections commencing with the 1950 Extraordinary Session.

The original codification tables were prepared in 1951. Since that date, the Statute Law Committee has restored the Revised Code of Washington to the sectionalization of the session laws. As a result, several of the RCW citations are no longer accurate. If the RCW section cited in the table cannot be found in the text of the Revised Code of Washington, consult the table entitled "Disposition of Former RCW Sections" for further information.
