CHAPTER 168.

(S. B. No. 182)

CREATING OFFICE OF PUBLIC PRINTER AND PROVIDING FOR PUBLIC PRINTING AND BINDING.

AN ACT creating the office of public printer; providing for the appointment thereof and qualifications of said officer; providing for the public printing and binding, fixing the compensation thereof, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Governor to appoint.

SECTION 1. The office of public printer is hereby created, which office shall be filled by appointment, by the Governor, and who, when appointed, shall hold office at the pleasure of the Governor, until his successor is appointed and qualified.

SEC. 2. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the ^{Bond.} public printer shall execute to the State of Washington, a good and sufficient bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful and punctual performance of all the duties of his office. Such bond shall be approved by the Governor and filed with the secretary of state.

SEC. 3. The public printer shall print and bind the ses- ^{Duty of printer.} sion laws, the journals of the two houses of the Legislature, all bills, resolutions, documents and other printing and binding of either the senate or house, as the same may be ordered by the Legislature; and all forms, blanks, record books and printing and binding of every description required by all state officers, boards, commissions and institutions and the supreme court and officers thereof, as the same may be ordered on requisition, from time to time by the proper authorities: Provided, This act shall not apply to the printing of the supreme court reports.

SEC. 4. All printing and binding shall be done under the ^{Supervision.} general superintendence of the authorities ordering the same, and when completed shall be delivered to such authorities, who shall sign receipts in duplicate therefor: Provided, however, That before the public printer shall execute any printing or binding for any office, board, commission or institution, the proper officer thereof shall apply for, and, if such ^{Requisitions for work ordered.} printing and binding is found to be necessary and proper, they shall be furnished with requisitions in duplicate for such printing and binding approved by the Governor, who shall also approve all bills for printing or binding before the same are paid.

SEC. 5. Upon the delivery of work and receiving a receipt therefor the public printer shall make out, and deliver to the secretary of state a bill in duplicate therefor, stating what ^{Duplicate bills for each job.} the book, work or job is when the requisition therefor was received by him and when the same was finished and delivered, and specify particularly by item everything charged for in such bill, giving the amount and the price charged for each separate item as hereinafter specified, and the aggregate amount charged for such job or work, together with the number of copies thereof printed and delivered, and with the original requisition issued by the Governor for such job or work attached. One copy of such bill shall have attached a copy of the book, job or work herein mentioned and a receipt from the officer receiving such work, and together with the original requisition of the Governor shall remain on file in the office of the secretary of state. No bills shall cover more than one book, report, blank or job of any kind.

Secretary of State to keep record.

All bills shall be numbered, and the secretary of state shall register the same in numerical order in a book designated as "Register of Public Printing," which shall be so ruled and printed that he can enter in red ink opposite the amount charged by the public printer for each item, the amount allowed by the secretary of state as auditor for such item, and the amount so audited and allowed, if different from the amount claimed in said bill, shall in all cases, be so entered by such secretary of state. Immediately after the registering of such bill the secretary of state shall designate on the duplicate of said bill, such item or items as he shall disallow in whole or in part, and shall certify thereon to the state auditor the amount by him allowed and upon presentation of such duplicate together with the duplicate requisition issued by the Governor therefor, with the approval of the Governor covering the items listed thereon, the state auditor shall issue a warrant therefor on the state treasurer, payable out of any funds appropriated for that purpose: Provided, That the state auditor may include in one warrant the aggregate amount of any number of bills as audited and certified by the secretary of state when such bills are payable out of the same funds.

Classification. SEC. 6. For the purpose of providing for the compensation of the public printer for his services, the public printing shall be divided into the following classes, and be paid for as herein stated:

First class. First Class. The bills, resolutions, and other matters that may be ordered by the Legislature, or either branch thereof, in bill form, shall constitute the first class, and shall be printed on half sheet cap paper, weighing not less than fourteen pounds to the ream, in small pica type, each page to contain not more than forty-four lines of said matter of the usual length of forty-pica ems, and the lines shall be successively numbered, with a nonpareil slug between each line; and the same shall be measured as solid matter at single price when lines are not underscored, and when more than five lines on any one page are underscored, at price and one-half; and every fraction of a page shall be measured as a full page, but no blank pages shall be counted or paid for. The compensation to be paid for printing of the first class shall be as follows:

Composition, forty-five cents per one thousand ems.

Second Class. The second class shall consist of the journals of the senate and House of representatives, and shall be printed on what is known as book paper, weighing not less than fifty pounds to the ream, in long primer type, with a six-to-pica lead between each line, and without unnecessary blanks, broken pages or paragraphs; the blanks between the proceedings of each day and of the different sessions of the same day not to exceed four picas; the type matter for a page to be four by seven inches. Second class.

The general style of the journals of the house and senate of the session of 1903, shall be followed in the printing and binding of the journals hereafter. The compensation to be paid for printing of the second class shall be as follows:

Composition, sixty cents per one thousand ems.

Presswork, fifty cents for the first one hundred impressions of a form and fifteen cents for each subsequent one hundred impressions thereof; a form to consist of eight pages.

Third Class. The third class shall consist of all reports, communications and other documents that may be ordered printed in book form by the Legislature, or either branch thereof (except such as are otherwise specified in this section) and all reports, pamphlets and other like matters required by all state officers, boards, commissions and institutions, and shall be printed in the same kind of type and on the same kind of paper, and the pages shall be of the same size as specified in the second class. The compensation to be paid for printing of the third class shall be the same as that for the second class: Provided, That tabular matter shall be set in nonpareil. Third class.

Fourth Class. The fourth class shall consist of the session laws, and shall be printed and bound in the same style, size of page and form as the session laws published by this State heretofore, with similar marginal notes, and shall be on book paper weighing not less than sixty pounds to the Fourth class.

ream. The compensation to be paid for printing for the fourth class shall be as follows:

Composition, sixty cents per one thousand ems, with marginal notes measured in the type in which they are set, separate from the body of the page.

Presswork, same as the prices fixed for printing of the second class.

Reprints of the session laws, when authorized by law, shall be printed and paid for as fourth class printing.

Fifth class.

Fifth Class. The fifth class shall consist of the printing of all blanks, record books and circulars required by the respective state officers, boards, commissions and institutions, and the rate and compensation to be paid therefor shall be as follows:

Composition, fifty cents per one thousand ems.

Presswork, fifty cents for the first one hundred impressions of a form, and fifteen cents for each subsequent one hundred impressions thereof up to 1000 impressions, and for all over 1000 impressions thirteen cents for each subsequent one hundred impressions; a form to consist of one side of the sheet on which the job is printed and delivered: Provided, That all job work set in not larger than pica type shall be measured in the type in which the job is set, and all job work set in type larger than pica shall be charged for as time work. The price herein provided to be paid for all composition in the classes specified in this act shall include and cover proof-reading, make-up and lock-up ready for the press, and there shall be no extra charge made therefor unless alterations are made from original copy.

Measurements SEC. 7. All measurements of composition shall be based on the published rule of the international typographical union.

SEC. 8. Compensation for binding on all classes of work shall be under and according to the following schedule:

Pages 6 x 9. Standard size of pages shall be six by nine inches. A signature shall consist of sixteen pages or necessary fraction thereof.

Pamphlets. For pamphlets containing one signature or less, including folding, gathering, stitching, covering and trimming, for one thousand finished pamphlets $4.75, and for each additional signature or fraction thereof $1.60 for each 1000 finished pamphlets.

For pamphlets containing more than twelve and not more than eighteen signatures, including items as above, for one thousand finished pamphlets, $35.00.

For case covered bound books, cloth or full sheep or skiver, including folding, gathering, sewing on three bands, forwarding and finishing, stamping and trimming complete and finished as follows:

Per volume of not over six signatures, 25 cents.

Per volume over six sections and not over twelve sections, 30 cents.

Per volume over twelve sections and not over eighteen sections, 35 cents.

Per volume over eighteen sections and not over twenty-four sections, 40 cents.

Per volume over twenty-four sections, five cents for each additional six sections or fraction thereof.

All inserts tipped in per 1000, $1.50.

All time work not covered by the above described work shall be paid for at the rate of $1.00 per hour.

All ruled work to be paid for at the rate of $1.25 per hour for time of machine and attendance.

The public printer shall furnish all paper, stock and binding materials required in all public work and shall charge the same to the State, as the same is actually used, at the actual price at which same was purchased. Whenever a piece of work is delivered to the State, the public printer shall make and file in the office of the Governor an affidavit stating the amount of material actually used in said piece of work and the actual value of same, calculated at the wholesale price at which the same was purchased.

The public printer shall also file in the office of said Governor all bills for material purchased by him for State work, accompanied by his affidavit that same is true and correct, and that said bills show the true amount actually paid therefor.

SEC. 11. An emergency exists and this act shall take effect immediately.
