

CHAPTER 102.

[H. B. 193.]

PROVIDING CLERKS, ROOMS, BOOKS AND STATIONERY FOR JUSTICES OF PEACE IN FIRST AND SECOND CLASS CITIES.

AN ACT relating to justices of the peace and constables in cities of the first and second class, and amending section 6547 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 6547 of Rem. & Bal. Code be amended to read as follows:

Section 6547. In cities of the first class of 100,000 population, or more, where there are two or more justices of the peace, such justices acting as a board shall have the power to appoint one chief clerk at a salary to be fixed by the board of county commissioners and such assistant clerks as may be found necessary by said justices, not exceeding the number of justices unless authority to appoint additional clerks be obtained from the board of county commissioners, the salaries of said clerks to be designated by the county commissioners, and paid in the same manner and at the same time as said justices. The board of county commissioners may allow justices of the peace in cities of the second class and cities of the first class of less than 100,000 population one clerk, and the board of county commissioners shall furnish for the use of each of the justices provided for in this chapter a suitable office room; and also, they shall furnish to each of the said justices and constables all necessary books, blanks and stationery for conducting the public business of his office; said office room, books, blanks, and stationery to be paid for on the warrant of the auditor out of the general fund of the county.

In first class cities of 100,000 population.

In first class cities of less than 100,000, and second class cities.

Passed the House March 3, 1917.

Passed the Senate March 7, 1917.

Approved by the Governor March 13, 1917.
