

CHAPTER 159.

[S. B. 79.]

MIGRATORY BIRD RESERVATIONS.

AN ACT consenting to the acquisition by the United States of land, water, or land and water, within the State of Washington for migratory-bird reservations authorized by act of congress of February 18, 1929.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Migratory
bird reservations.

SECTION 1. Consent of the State of Washington is given to the acquisition by the United States by purchase, gift, devise, or lease of such areas of land or water, or of land and water, in the State of Washington, as the United States may deem necessary for the establishment of migratory-bird reservations in accordance with the act of congress approved February 18, 1929, entitled "An Act to more effectively meet the obligations of the United States under the migratory bird treaty with Great Britain by lessening the dangers threatening migratory game birds from drainage and other causes by the acquisition of areas of land and of water to furnish in perpetuity reservations for the adequate protection of such birds; and authorizing appropriations for the establishment of such areas, their maintenance and improvement and for other purposes," reserving, however, to the State of Washington full and complete jurisdiction and authority over all such areas not incompatible with the administration, maintenance, protection, and control thereof by the United States under the terms of said act of congress.

Passed the Senate February 21, 1933.

Passed the House March 8, 1933.

Approved by the Governor March 18, 1933.
