

CHAPTER 132.

[H. B. 68.]

NOTICE OF PROBATE PROCEEDINGS.

AN ACT relating to probate of estates and authorizing creditors of deceased persons to file a demand for notice of proceedings by executors or administrators, and amending section 64, chapter 156, Session Laws of 1917 (section 1434, Remington's Revised Statutes).

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 1434, Remington's Revised Statutes be amended to read as follows:

Section 1434. At any time after the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration upon the estate of any decedent, any person interested in said estate as heir, devisee, legatee or creditor whose claim has been duly served and filed, or attorney for such heir, devisee, legatee, or creditor, may serve upon the executor or administrator (or upon the attorney for such executor or administrator) and file with the clerk of the court wherein the administration of such estate is pending, a written request stating that he desires special notice of any or all of the following named matters, steps or proceedings in the administration of said estate, to-wit:

- (1) Filing of petitions for sales, leases or mortgages of any property of the estate.
- (2) Filing of accounts.
- (3) Filing of petitions for distribution.
- (4) Petitions by the executor or administrator for family allowances and homesteads.

Such requests shall state the postoffice address of such heir, devisee, legatee or creditor, or his attorney, and thereafter a brief notice of the filing of any of such petitions or accounts, except petitions for sale of perishable property, or other personal property which will incur expense or loss by keeping, shall be addressed to such heir, devisee, legatee
