WORLD FAIRS.

AN ACT relating to state development and world fairs; creating a commission for the study of a world fair; describing powers and duties; and making an appropriation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. The 1909 world fair and exposition known as the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition held in Seattle redounded in large measure to the benefit to the state of Washington by attracting thousands of visitors and promoting the state and its large variety of products and industries and its great trade potential. The year 1959 will mark the fiftieth anniversary of this exposition. There is wide interest in the state in the holding of another such world fair to dramatize the recent great developments and accomplishments in this state as well as its future opportunities. The feasibility and desirability of such a world fair and the proper participation of the state of Washington in such a fair should be thoroughly studied before the 1957 regular session of the legislature.

Feasibility and desirability of holding world fair and the proper participation of the state in such a fair studied.
