RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2005-4668, By Representative Kessler

WHEREAS, The year 2005 represents the centennial anniversary of the United States Forest Service; and

WHEREAS, The Forest Service was the first government agency to put trained professionals in charge of managing public lands, creating a new model for land conservation; and

WHEREAS, Since 1905, the Forest Service has endeavored to satisfy the vision of its first chief, Gifford Pinchot, when he described the mission of the Forest Service as that of providing the greatest amount of good for the greatest amount of people in the long run; and

WHEREAS, The Forest Service has managed to succeed with its challenging mandate of sustaining healthy, diverse, and productive forests for both present and future generations; and

WHEREAS, The Forest Service not only produces forest products that are important to the nation's economy, but it also provides recreational opportunities and wildlife habitat; and

WHEREAS, The Forest Service is also the largest forestry research organization in the world, providing technical and financial assistance to state and private forestry agencies; and

WHEREAS, Nationally, the Forest Service manages over one hundred ninety million acres, which is an area approximately equivalent to the size of the state of Texas; and

WHEREAS, The Forest Service manages millions of acres in six national forests, and one national volcanic monument, in Washington alone;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives congratulate and honor the United States Forest Service on its centennial anniversary; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Dale Bosworth, Chief of the United States Forest Service and Mike Johanns, Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4668 was adopted.

RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2005-4667, By Representatives Condotta, Newhouse, Armstrong, Chandler, Buri, McDermott and Kenney

WHEREAS, It is the policy of the Washington State Legislature to recognize and honor excellence in service and contribution to this great state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, The Apple Blossom Festival celebrates the very best of Eastern Washington and the Wenatchee Valley region as well as neighboring and surrounding communities; and

WHEREAS, Each year there are selected those young women who will serve as the ambassadors and representatives of this great region of Eastern Washington and the Wenatchee Valley and surrounding communities as the Princesses and Queen of the Apple Blossom Festival; and

WHEREAS, Pamela Alvarado has been selected to represent her community and the great state of Washington as a 2005 Apple Blossom Princess, in part due to her accomplishments and contributions to the community including scholastic, academic, and extracurricular activities at Eastmont High School, where she serves as ASB Vice President, is a member of Senate Class, and is active in Young Life; and

WHEREAS, Piper Gillin has also been selected to represent her community and the great state of Washington as a 2005 Apple Blossom Princess, also in part due to accomplishments and contributions to the community including scholastic, academic, and extracurricular activities at Wenatchee High School, where she is a varsity cheerleader and member of the National Honor Society and Chamber Singers Honor Choir; and

WHEREAS, Anika Grubbs, of Eastmont High School, has been selected to represent her community and the great state of Washington as the 2005 Apple Blossom Queen due in part to her accomplishments and contributions to the community including scholastic, academic, and extracurricular activities including Governor of Girl's State, President of Key Club, Foreign Language Club, FBLA, and the National Honor Society;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives honor the highest level of excellence and community service demonstrated by Apple Blossom Festival Princesses Pamela Alvarado and Piper Gillin and Queen Anika Grubbs; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives further commend Apple Blossom Festival Princesses Pamela Alvarado and Piper Gillin and Queen Anika Grubbs for the outstanding example they have set for others; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Pamela Alvarado, Piper Gillin, and Anika Grubbs.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4667 was adopted.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2005-4669, By Representatives Kagi, Conway, McDermott and Kenney

WHEREAS, The family serves as the primary source of love, identity, self-esteem, and support for children and is the very foundation of our communities and our state; and

WHEREAS, In circumstances where children are unable to live with their families due to child abuse and neglect, foster parents provide needed care to thousands of children; and

WHEREAS, In Washington there are over 6,000 children and youth in foster care being provided with a safe, secure, and stable home along with the compassion and nurturing of a foster family; and

WHEREAS, Foster families, who open their homes and hearts, give hope to children whose families are in crisis; and

WHEREAS, Foster families play a vital role in helping children and families heal and reconnect and preparing children for success in adulthood; and

WHEREAS, Dedicated foster families frequently adopt foster children, resulting in greater need for more foster families; and

WHEREAS, In addition to the enduring and valuable contribution of foster parents, there are numerous individuals and public and private organizations who work to increase public awareness of the needs of children both in foster care and leaving foster care and thereby contribute to the strength of the foster care system;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives support foster care by observing May as Foster Care Month as declared by Governor Gregoire, and urge all citizens of the state to volunteer their talents and energies on behalf of children in foster care, foster parents, and the child welfare professional staff working with them during this month and throughout the year; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Honorable Christine Gregoire.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4669 was adopted.

(2)(a) The task force consists of the following members: two members of the house of representatives, one from each major caucus, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; two members of the senate, one from each major caucus, appointed by the president of the senate; one representative of the university of Washington; one representative of Washington state university; and three citizens, appointed by the governor.

(b) Legislative members of the task force shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 44.04.120. Nonlegislative members, except those representing an employer or organization, are entitled to be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(c) Staff support for the task force shall be provided by the office of financial management, senate committee services, and the house office of program research.

(3) By December 1, 2005, the task force shall review and make written recommendations to the governor and to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the legislature. The recommendations shall address, at a minimum, the following subjects:

(a) The appropriate scope of public investment in scientific research, including the scope and nature of the research to be supported, and the linkage between the research and (i) public health outcomes and (ii) potential economic development and other associated economic benefits to the state and its citizens;

(b) The appropriate funding mechanism for the publicly supported research, including: (i) potential identification of a revenue stream, including whether strategic contribution payments received under the master settlement agreement with the major manufacturers of tobacco would be an appropriate revenue stream; and (ii) the appropriate degree of policy and fiscal oversight by the legislature and the office of financial management, including whether revenues should be appropriated to the grant-making authority or should be expended by the authority without an appropriation, and the appropriate legislative role in reviewing grants for which funding is sought; and (iii) how the funding mechanism relates to the ability of the grant-making authority to raise private funds;

(c) The appropriate governance structure for the grant-making authority, including ensuring appropriate requirements regarding public disclosure, financial disclosure for the authority's officers and employees, and measures to prevent conflicts of interest;

(d) Whether a proposal to establish a grant-making authority complies with article 8, section 5 of the state constitution regarding restrictions on lending of the state's credit and gifts of public funds, and guidelines for ensuring that grants comply with these constitutional requirements;

(e) The ability of the public to achieve a return on the expenditure of public funds, including an analysis of (i) potential employment, tax revenues, and other economic benefits from creation of such a grant program; (ii) the potential for raising non-state contributions and requiring such contributions as a match for public dollars; and (iii) the ability of the state to recapture a portion of its expenditures in the form of royalty income or other intellectual property rights;

(f) Ethical issues pertaining to public investment in scientific research, including recommendations regarding cloning, stem cell research, genetic engineering, and financial conflicts of interest; and

(g) The appropriate exemptions, if any, from applicable public disclosure and open meetings laws if needed to protect proprietary or other sensitive information."

April 16, 2005

Mr. Speaker:

The President has signed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1460, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Thomas Hoemann, Secretary

RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2005-4670, By Representatives Green and Talcott

WHEREAS, Lakes High School of the Clover Park School District in the City of Lakewood, Washington began offering a vocal music program of unparalleled excellence upon its inception in 1964, under the leadership of Mr. Edward R. Harmic, Director and Mr. Loren J. Mann, Principal; and

WHEREAS, The Lakes High School Concert Choir, under many dedicated and qualified directors, has continued to enhance, develop, and exhibit the highest standards of vocal performances and has demonstrated the highest standards of excellence at local and regional High School Choral Competitions, receiving only Outstanding (the highest) ratings at these Competitions for over forty consecutive years; and

WHEREAS, The Lakes High School Concert Choir has accepted invitations from prestigious Music Education Organizations, and performed at the National Conventions and Conferences of the American Choral Directors Association and the Music Educator National Conference and other leading organizations; and

WHEREAS, The Lakes High School Concert Choir, under the leadership of Dr. Benjamin Keller, Director, and Ms. Georgia Dewhurst, Principal, is recognized across the nation as the standard of excellence in choral music, having received and accepted invitations to perform in such recognized world renown venues such as The Kennedy Center, The Lincoln Center, and Carnegie Hall, and other prestigious centers in San Francisco, California, Washington D.C., and Salt Lake City, Utah; and

WHEREAS, The Lakes High School Concert Choir, upon completing a concert tour from April 1, 2005, through April 4, 2005, to include the Heritage Festival of Gold at Orchestra Hall in Chicago, Illinois, was judged by the panel of musical experts, performers, composers, and educators to be The Best High School Choir in the Nation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the members of the Lakes High School Concert Choir during the school year 2004-05 for the hours of dedicated practice and for meeting and overcoming the severe challenges that can prevent one from being the best; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize all of the supporters and the participants of past choirs for their efforts in setting the tradition of excellence; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives offer the Lakes High School Concert Choir as an Ensign to music education programs across the state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Lakes High School in Lakewood, Washington.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4670 was adopted.
