POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative Walsh: “Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise for a Point of Personal Privilege if I may. I just wanted to say that our Walla Walla Community College was in the running for an Aspen Award which is a very prestigious award for community colleges across the nation actually, and came in as one of the top four finalists for that award and as a result, got a one-hundred-thousand-dollar award for their great work that they do. Former Michigan Governor John Engler helped present the award; he said one of the most impressive things about the Walla Walla Community College is that they award degrees and certificates that are tied to real jobs. That is really true and it is something we are extremely proud of. I know you want to go home but I wanted to brag a little on my community college and I also wanted to wish you all a very happy holidays.”

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative Hinkle: “Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise for a Point of Personal Privilege. It’s probably well known, although he didn’t want me to do this, the good gentlemen in front of you to your right, Al Audette, is an E-4 in the military and is about, on January 6th I believe, ready to leave here and serve not just a few months but actually a couple years, serve his country. Starting in Iraq and Kuwait and other places that he could tell me but he’d have to kill me if he did. I just want to say Al is one of our local heroes. We appreciate his service to us here, he has served with distinction and class. It’s been really wonderful to have you here and we pray for your safe return and that God would keep you throughout your mission and help you accomplish your missions as they are delivered to you. Please join me Mr. Speaker in wishing him the best.”

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative Klippert: “Mr. Speaker I stand to request a Point of Personal Privilege. Mr. Speaker, as many of you know, yesterday two army aircrafts went down at Joint Base Lewis McChord and four aviators lost their lives in that crash. As a former aviator who’s trained on that base and others here who have loved ones who have done the same, I ask that you might consider a moment of silence for those soldiers and their families and their loved ones at this time.”

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative DeBolt: “Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise for a Point of Personal Privilege. You know it’s funny, as we end this session, next session is just about to begin and we are going to be missing a valuable member of our team. I just wanted to take a moment to thank our Sgt. At Arms. Ron Finley, stand up and say hi Ron. Ron has been my dearest friend since I’ve been here. He has been here over twenty years, I’ve been here sixteen. He’s been the one that has helped corrupt me and also get me out of trouble. He’s also been that guidance, someone to talk to when you need somebody to talk to. He’s protected us when we have protesters, he’s made our chamber safe when it got invaded. He has run a crew that I think is second to none. Because of it, we get to go about our business like nothing at all is happening around us when sometimes there is chaos and we don’t even know and it’s because of Ron Finley. Ron Finley served his country for us overseas, he’s been serving people his whole entire life and now his service is coming to an end. It’s with a super heavy heart that he does this because we know that you’re not feeling well and we just want you to feel better. From our caucus and everybody in this building, even the senators across the way, anything you need from us to feel better, anything you need to get better, we want you better and we want you back. The other thing I need to tell you about Ron, if you don’t know this about Ron, he’s got quite the sense of humor, avid gun collector, collects a lot of different things and I’m just going to leave most of them out. His wife also dedicated her life to this building serving many different members over the years. He is to me what this institution is. He has been here, I am going to miss you dearly my friend, there will never be another one like you. I still think you should make Dave wear the suit opening day, if not send it to me and I’ll wear it. We love you very much and take care of yourself.”

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative Sullivan: “Thank you Mr. Speaker, a Point of Personal Privilege. Mr. Speaker, I too want to express from our caucus, and I think everyone here, our gratitude to Ron for his years of dedicated service here to the House of Representatives. I don’t talk a lot about my previous life, but I began back here in 1987 and Ron joined us in 1989 and has served as supervisor since 1993, ’93, that’s amazing to me. He has, I’m sure, some incredible stories and Ron, please keep those to yourself, I think we would appreciate that. You know it’s going to be hard to be here and not see your smiling face around here. We have had some significant challenges over the last several years and you have been such a part of this institution and as the good gentlemen from the 20th said, that suit, we are really going to miss that suit. Maybe you could just show up for that first day just to kind of help us get moving. We would certainly welcome you back here anytime. So thank you very much Ron, you will be greatly missed, and take care of yourself.”
