MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 16, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3437 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that a growing number of unfounded lawsuits, claims, and liens are filed against law enforcement officers, prosecuting authorities, and judges, and against their property, having the purpose and effect of deterring those officers in the exercise of their discretion and inhibiting the performance of their public duties.

The legislature also finds that the cost of defending against such unfounded suits, claims and liens is severely burdensome to such officers, and also to the state and the various cities and counties of the state. The purpose of section 2 of this 1984 act is to provide a remedy to those public officers and to the public.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 158, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.350 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In any action for damages, whether based on tort or contract or otherwise, a claim or counterclaim for damages may be litigated in the principal action for malicious prosecution on the ground that the action was instituted with knowledge that the same was false, and unfounded, malicious and without probable cause in the filing of such action, or that the same was filed as a part of a conspiracy to misuse judicial process by filing an action known to be false and unfounded.

(2) In any action, claim, or counterclaim brought by a judicial officer, prosecuting authority, or law enforcement officer for malicious prosecution arising out of the performance or purported performance of the public duty of such officer, an arrest or seizure of property need not be an element of the claim, nor do special damages need to be proved. A judicial officer, prosecuting authority, or law enforcement officer prevailing in such an action may be allowed an amount up to one thousand dollars as liquidated damages, together with a reasonable attorneys' fee, and other costs of suit. A government entity which has provided legal services to the prevailing judicial officer, prosecuting authority, or law enforcement officer has reimbursement rights to any award for reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs, but shall have no such rights to any liquidated damages allowed.

(3) No action may be brought against an attorney under this section solely because of that attorney's representation of a party in a lawsuit.

(4) As used in this section:

(a) "Judicial officer" means a justice, judge, magistrate, or other judicial officer of the state or a city, town, or county.

(b) "Prosecuting authority" means any officer or employee of the state or a city, town, or county who is authorized by law to initiate a criminal or civil proceeding on behalf of the public.

(c) "Law enforcement officer" means a member of the state patrol, a sheriff or deputy sheriff, or a member of the police force of a city, town, university, or state college, or a "wildlife agent" or "ex officio wildlife agent" as defined in RCW 77.08.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The provisions of section 2 of this 1984 act are remedial and shall be liberally construed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, I'm wondering about subsection 3--'no action may be brought against an attorney under this section solely because of that attorney's representation of a party in a lawsuit.' Your part on the offices and things like that--if I feel my attorneys do not properly represent me, that's always open to question and is subject to suit. This would say that I can't get another attorney and this happens all the time, of course, in the bar cases you read about, but I can't sue my attorneys."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, if you look at the original bill, as it passed the Senate, it contained the very same provision. What this is designed to do is to prevent an ever escalating round of counterclaims for malicious prosecution against the attorneys who would bring the action. This is designed to say that where the judge, the prosecutor, or the police officer was filing the action for malicious prosecution, they would be filing this counterclaim against the other party who initiated the lawsuit and not against the attorney for that party who was representing the party in the bringing of the lawsuit.

"The theory is that the lawyer is the agent for the party who is bringing the lawsuit and if it's malicious and harassing, it's the intention of that person to be malicious and harassing and not the attorney."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, my understanding is that the attorney is only doing what his client wants him to do and he doesn't get blamed in that respect, even if it does go to trial."

Senator Talmadge: "That's right, Senator, I would also point out that if the lawyer is the one that is bringing a malicious and harassing lawsuit that has no foundation in the law, that the attorney would be subject to discipline by the Bar Association, because attorneys are proscribed from bringing lawsuits without merit in the course of their practice."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 06; absent, 00; excused, 02.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Woody, Zimmerman - 41.

Voting nay: Senators Hansen, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Seilar, von Reichbauer - 6.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 17, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3449 with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 8, after "(1)" strike all material through "herself," on line 9

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

Senator Warnke moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the Senate considered the House amendments separately.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the Senate concurred in the first House amendment on page 1, beginning on line 8, to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

MOTION

Senator Warnke moved that the Senate do concur in the second House amendment on page 1, line 13, to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of order. The second amendment clearly expands the scope and object of the bill and I would like you to so rule. The basic bill before us, without the House amendment, is a nice little bill that makes some grammatical changes. As you can see, we changed a 'which' to a 'that' and a 'nor shall any' to a 'no.' Those are all nice grammatical changes, whereas the House amendment adds a major philosophical addition to the bill. The House amendment on page 1, line 13, states that statements are prohibited in the voters' pamphlet against your opponent. In other words, if your opponent is a dirty, rotten SOB, you can't say so and that's a restriction of freedom, and that's a major philosophical addition to this nice little bill that makes some grammatical changes in the bill.

"Now, the President might or someone might note that the original bill did have, in there, the third sentence which says, 'the candidates' pamphlet shall be limited to those about the candidate himself', but we just took that out--that has been stricken from the bill. The President has forever ruled, in this body, that when you raise scope and object, you raise it on the language that's before you, at that time, and not on the language that previously existed and since we concurred with the first amendment, we have taken that language out. Therefore, that language is not in there and the only language remaining in the bill is a nice little grammatical update and I think those grammatical changes are good changes and I think they should be adopted. However, the second amendment is a major deviation from those nice little grammatical changes and, therefore, it clearly expands the scope and object of the bill.

"I would conclude by reminding that prior precedent in this body is that scope and object is applied solely to the language that's before us, and not to any language that might have existed in the past."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449 was deferred.

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Kiskaddon was excused.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raise by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449 is a measure which deals with the subject of the candidates' pamphlet.

"The amendment proposed by the House of Representatives also deals with the subject of the candidates' pamphlet. The amendment merely phrases, in a different way, the requirement that the statements in the pamphlet are limited to those pertaining to the candidate.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The second House amendment was ruled in order.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate was the motion by Senator Warnke to concur in the second House amendment on page 1, line 13, to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hemstad, Hughes, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Shinoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Woody - 27.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hurley, Lee, McDonald, Metcalf, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 19.

(a) If the civil and criminal sanctions imposed or to be imposed are for the same minimum length of time, the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department is limited to that first imposed and fully effective under one of those provisions:

(b) If the civil and criminal sanctions are of different minimum lengths of time, the department shall impose the sanction of longer duration. If the sanction with the shorter minimum duration has earlier been imposed by the department, the department shall reduce the minimum duration of the longer revocation by the number of days the license, permit, or privilege to drive was actually under suspension, revocation, or denial pursuant to the earlier action by the department.

If a suspension, revocation, or denial of a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive would have been imposed by the department under RCW 46.20.610 but for the operation of this section, the suspension, revocation, or denial shall be treated as if it had been imposed for the purposes of determining the minimum duration of subsequent suspensions or revocations required under that section.

Sec. 327. Section 23, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 58, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.44.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) In addition to the penalties imposed in subsection (1) of this section, any person violating RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 shall be assessed three cents for each pound of excess weight. Upon a first violation in any calendar year, the court may suspend the penalty for five hundred pounds of excess weight for each axle on any vehicle or combination of vehicles, not to exceed a two thousand pound suspension. In no case may the basic penalty assessed in subsection (1) of this section be suspended.

(3) Whenever any vehicle or combination of vehicles is involved in two violations of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 during any twelve-month period, the court may suspend the certificate of license registration of the vehicle or combination of vehicles for not less than thirty days. Upon a third or succeeding violation in any twelve-month period, the court shall suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days. Whenever the certificate of license registration is suspended, the court shall secure such certificate and immediately forward the same to the director with information concerning the suspension.

(4) Any person found to have violated any posted limitations of a highway or section of highway shall be assessed a monetary penalty of not less than one hundred and fifty dollars, and the court shall in addition thereto upon second violation within a twelve-month period involving the same power unit, suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days.

(5) Any police officer is authorized to require the driver of any vehicle or combination of vehicles to stop and submit to a weighing either by means of a portable or stationary scale and may require that the vehicle be driven to the nearest public scale. Whenever a police officer, upon weighing a vehicle and load, determines that the weight is unlawful, the officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable location and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of the vehicle to the limit permitted by law.

Any vehicle whose driver or owner represents that the vehicle is disabled or otherwise unable to proceed to a weighing location shall have its load sealed or otherwise marked by any police officer. The owner or driver shall be directed that upon completion of repairs, the vehicle shall submit to weighing with the load and markings and/or seal intact and undisturbed. Failure to report for weighing, appearing for weighing with the seal broken or the markings disturbed, or removal of any cargo prior to weighing is unlawful. Any person so convicted shall be fined five hundred dollars, and in addition the certificate of license registration shall be suspended for not less than thirty days.

(6) Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, justice courts having venue have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior courts for the imposition of any penalties authorized under this section.

Sec. 608. Section 33, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 57, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.400 are each amended to read as follows:

The revenue accrual account is hereby created in the state general fund. At the close of each fiscal biennium, the state treasurer shall transfer the balance in the state general fund, other than amounts reappropriated for the next fiscal biennium, to this account. Moneys in this account may only be spent after appropriation by statute for the purpose of decreasing the unfunded liability of a state retirement system or, during the 1983-1985 fiscal biennium, for the purpose of discharging obligations which the legislature determines are correctly chargeable to a prior biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 609. There is added to chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. a new section to read as follows:

Eight million one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the revenue accrual account in the general fund to the department of social and health services for payment for services and supplies chargeable to the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1983. The amounts spent under this section shall not exceed the unspent balances of the original appropriations provided for such services and supplies for the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1983. If RCW 82.32.400 is not amended in 1984 to permit moneys in the revenue accrual account to be appropriated and spent for the purpose of discharging obligations that are correctly chargeable to a prior biennium, this appropriation shall lapse.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 610. There is added to chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. a new section to read as follows:

(1) There is appropriated from the revenue accrual account of the general fund the sum of $16,500,000 in settlement of all claims of all plaintiffs and defendants in the following civil actions, covering the period from January 1, 1978, through June 30, 1981, in the Superior Court for Thurston County:

(a) United Nursing Homes, Inc. et al. v. McNutt, Cause No. 59035;

(b) United Nursing Homes, Inc. et al. v. Thompson, Cause No. 80-2-01440-1;

(2) If, before July 1, 1984, stipulated final judgment has not been entered in the Superior Court for Thurston County in each of the three civil actions identified in this section, covering all claims of plaintiffs and defendants for the period from January 1, 1978, through June 30, 1981, in amounts whose total, including costs, attorneys' fees, other fees, costs of distribution, and interest, does not exceed the $16,500,000 appropriated in this section (not including amounts which may be payable as a result of administrative appeals under RCW 74.46.780 or its predecessor), this appropriation shall lapse. If such stipulated final judgment does not require (a) netting within facilities of all overpayments and underpayments incurred throughout the period from January 1, 1978, through June 30, 1981, and (b) repayment to the state of residual funds remaining after payment to plaintiffs of all audited allowable costs for such period plus costs of suit, attorneys' fees, other fees, costs of distribution, and interest, this appropriation shall lapse. The legislature determines that the amounts which may be payable as damages, along with costs, attorneys' fees, other fees, costs of distribution, and interest, in the three civil actions identified in this section are obligations correctly chargeable to prior biennia. If RCW 83.32.400 is not amended in 1984 to permit moneys in the revenue accrual account to be appropriated and spent for the purpose of discharging obligations which are correctly chargeable to a prior biennium, this appropriation shall lapse.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 611. There is added to chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. a new section to read as follows:

For the purposes of section 143, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess., moneys appropriated to the state treasurer for bond retirement and interest may be expended for ongoing bond registration and transfer charges.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 612. Section 47, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 613. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 614. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Is it concerning the motion?"

Senator McDonald: "Yes, it is. Mr. President, how many votes does it take to adopt any kind of amendment, whether it be words or numbers in this particular deliberation?"

President Cherberg: "A majority of the quorum. It takes thirty votes--sixty percent to increase appropriations."

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, could you cite the rule that we're operating under--just for my personal reference?"

President Cherberg: "Rule 52, page 436, 'No amendment to the budget or supplemental budget, not incorporated in the bill as reported by the ways and means committee, shall be adopted except by the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the senators elected.'"

Senator McDonald: "Well, Mr. President, my concern is that that appears to mean any amendment whether it be words or whether it be increases or decreases in amounts. Is that the interpretation?"

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator."

Senator McDonald: "Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Williams to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: “Senator Hughes, do you still feel and will you still be voting that it would be unwise for the state to provide any additional funds for tourism advertising to create jobs in that sector?”

Senator Hughes: “Senator Lee, first of all, I wouldn’t want to get into vote trading because that wouldn’t be proper. I believe that the budget level of tourism in light of the fiscal problems that face this state are adequate. I think we have some studies that will be coming in and I believe those are crucial.

“One thing I would like to say is without this amendment, I think we may be putting the agencies in a position of where they’re going to have to eat the additional costs and as I stated earlier, I think these costs are somewhat inflated. I think when you look at this program, you must look at the benefits to society, the environmental concerns and the additions. I think that anybody that is familiar, and I know you are, with the civilian conservation corps, you know the benefits will not only go to us but to our children and future generations. So while I would like to see the costs come down even lower, and I think they will in the interim, I think this is a very, very wise investment of taxpayer dollars.”

Further debate ensued.

Senator Hughes demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendments by Senators Hughes and McDermott to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

ROLL CALL

MOTION

Senator Woody moved the following amendment by Senators Woody and McDermott to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 53, line 3, after the period insert: “425,000 of this amount is provided solely for the regional tourism development program.”

Debate ensued.

Senator Woody demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators Woody and McDermott to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

MOTION

Senator Patterson moved the following amendments by Senators Patterson and Gaspard to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 61, line 19, strike "23,254,000" and insert "23,274,000"

On page 62, following line 10, add a new subsection to read as follows:

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Patterson, I notice your amendment says that we should spend twenty thousand dollars solely to provide for an exemplary study. How do we know if it's exemplary until it's done?"

Senator Patterson: "Well, you've got to take your chances, Senator. We certainly hope that by having that in there it will turn out to be that kind of a study."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senators Haley and von Reichbauer were excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senators Patterson and Gaspard to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The motion by Senator Patterson carried and the amendments to the committee amendment, having received the constitutional 60% majority were adopted.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved the following amendment by Senators Bottiger, Guess and Patterson to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 78, of the amendment, after line 6, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 515. There is added to chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. a new section to read as follows:

The appropriations in this act to the state board for community college education and the four-year institutions of higher education are subject to the following conditions and limitations: (1) Individual community colleges may provide off-campus programs within the respective district boundaries without prior legislative approval; (2) No four-year institution may enter into new contracts, leases, or other commitments to establish off-campus extension centers without prior legislative approval."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Bottiger, historically, community colleges have provided programs and services to the community, off-campus, in small business establishments and at plant sites. Is it your intention to require each and every new program or service offering to come before the Legislature for approval?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, Senator. If an institution has an on-going program or commitment to provide intermittent training anywhere in the district, then those temporary programs do not require legislative approval. I am concerned with the establishment of more or less permanent satellite campuses by these institutions, and I think that is what my amendment curtails, unless they have prior approval. We're not talking about going to a--say a new high-tech industry and offering to put on a training program where they don't have a permanent building or permanent structure or rented classrooms."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fuller: "Senator Bottiger, does this leave intact those existing programs such as we have in the east end of Lewis County?"

Senator Bottiger: "Yes, Senator, I'm not asking anybody to cancel anything. That would be very expensive. You'd have people caught in the middle of course, and it's only, obviously since we're on a budget bill, for the rest of the biennium. We're saying 'don't start any new ones unless you've got our approval.'"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Bottiger, are we talking about your second revised amendment--the one on the short piece of paper?"

"You relate to the term 'off campus extension centers.' I know you're aware of the extension service that is, in fact, provided by Washington State University, with responsibility directed towards agriculture and the various counties. Would that be included if they were going to make any kind of change?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, Senator, this doesn't apply. The actual reason for the second revised amendment was that we contacted a representative of the community colleges to make sure what do you call these things when you open an old former grocery store or a former theater and they are called 'off campus extension centers,' and that's why we revised it so we were directly after what--"

Senator Lee: "And so you do not intend to include it if you have extended service?"

Senator Bottiger: "Right."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Bottiger, there is one community college in this state which has no campus at all. It does all of its instruction through centers of one kind or another located solely within the community college district. I would assume that this does not affect any community college which has this kind of delivery system within its own community college district. Is that correct?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, they could not establish an off-campus extension center if they didn't have a campus."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Bottiger, it is my understanding that since 1977 there has normally been a proviso in the biennium budget that has prohibited the undertaking of new off-campus programs at least in the four-year schools and I suspect it probably applies to the community colleges without the prior approval of the Council on Postsecondary Education.

"Would you object if this were amended to replace the Legislature by the Council?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, it's the Council that has been giving the approval. Yes, I would object. You know, Senator Wojahn and I hit a storm when Evergreen rented a former theater and opened up a new quote off-campus something extension center and we didn't know about it. They apparently got approval from the Council of Postsecondary Education."

Senator Hemstad: "I believe they did. They go through the process that's fairly elaborate in deciding whether it makes sense to do just that. My concern is, I guess, that we have it in the Legislature it brings to a halt any kind of evolutionary and development in this area that would make sense."

Senator Bottiger: "Well, Senator, I'd like to know about it. I'd like to have them come down and tell us and I'd like them to reference it someplace and I don't want to delegate it to somebody else."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Bottiger, I have two questions. The first one is would this particular amendment affect Washington State University? As you are well aware, they have what they call a small business development center that is funded out of the Washington State University--and they do have several centers around the state that they, in conjunction with local economic development groups, set up to try and help small businessmen. As a matter of fact, the last one they've gone into is down in Clark County, at this point in time.

"Would this have an effect on that type of operation?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Fleming, I suggest that that's almost a rephrase of Senator Gaspard's question. No, if they have a program in which they've done this and they're short termed.--no leases, no permanent buildings--it's not my intent to prohibit--"

Senator Fleming: "No, this is not a question of whether it's short termed, no leased buildings. These are permanent programs moved into communities to help small businesses in chapter 11 situations and so forth--to try to strive at small businesses and so I would be concerned about that.

"My second question would be on the Evergreen one. Is it the fact that you did not know, or is it the fact that you or those that are concerned about this, don't like the Evergreen-type of program that has moved into Tacoma and PLU or something like that--sees that as some kind of competition?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I have been a supporter of Evergreen. I support the concept of the kind of program they offer. I do think they ought to tell the Legislature before they create off-campus satellites. I think we ought to know about that and I think we ought to approve it. Now, with every satellite goes libraries, extensions--different kinds of services and the cost to the taxpayers gets very high."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Bottiger, I have the same concerns as Senator Fleming had. When the mine shut down at Chewelah, the Spokane Community College immediately went there and put in a school for training seamstresses to sew ski jackets for Pacific Trail. Now, they had to lease for a period of three years--they had to lease the building, which they did. Is this going to preclude--when some business goes out and the community college responds to industry and to the community to try and save their community, will this keep them from having--make them come back here?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I don't know how to answer that question, because first of all, I don't even know where Chewelah is. I do know that the activities of some of our colleges moving into communities and establishing satellite campuses--to avoid the legislative approval process has got me upset. Now, if this community college--creating a satellite campus had gone through the legislative review process--we meet every year--I don't know how much advance planning they need, but my suggestion would be they come down and make sure that we approve it."

Senator Guess: "Senator, they have not ever, in my knowledge, had to come back to the Legislature. We have appropriated them a block of money. We've not told them that they can educate exactly the number of students--and so they went to Chewelah, they went to Davenport, they went to Colville, they went to Colfax--they have leased buildings on store fronts in those towns and they conduct hundreds and hundreds of classes every year. This would preclude the normal way they've been operating ever since the Community College Act passed in 1967."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bauer: "Senator Bottiger, Evergreen, which got placed in Olympia as opposed to Vancouver several years ago left Southwestern Washington a little vacant in four-year institutional opportunities, now has offered some courses in the Vancouver area. They got kicked out of a building they were in for awhile because it changed ownership. They now are relocating, hopefully on the Clark College campus, with some agreement. Now that they're in transit and there's some proposal of working with Clark College on a building arrangement, would this preclude them from doing that?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, if the amendment is adopted they had better get the contract signed within ninety days."

Senator Bauer: "Well, we've got some money in the capital budget so we want to get those bricks and cement going before this happens. Senator."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, then it's approved. Then we would have no objection. If they've got the money in the capital budget, then they've got legislative approval."

Further debate ensued.

MOTIONS

Senator Hemstad moved that the following amendment to the Bottiger amendment to the Committee on Ways amendment be adopted:

On the last line of the amendment, strike "legislative" and insert "of the Council of Postsecondary Education"

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of the amendment to the Bottiger amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was deferred.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "My inquiry is what number of votes will it be required to move an amendment to the amendment? I would suggest that it would probably be a simple majority, because under the rule an amendment to the budget requires sixty percent, but I think an amendment to the amendment would probably only require a simple majority."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In reply to the inquiry by Senator Hemstad, Rule 52 states that no amendment to the budget or supplemental budget, not incorporated in the bill as reported by the ways and means committee, shall be adopted except by the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the senators elected.

"Therefore, the President rules that each amendment, oral or otherwise, requires a 60 percent favorable vote of the members elected."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendment by Senators Goltz, Gaspard, Guess, Rinehart, Patterson and Hurley to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, having received the constitutional 60% majority, was adopted:

On page 82, beginning on line 7, after "(8)", strike all material down to and including "area," on line 13, and insert the following:

"$80,000 is appropriated from the general fund to provide for a needs assessment and planning by the higher education institutions in the Spokane area for programs in engineering and technology to meet community and industrial needs. The institutions participating in the development of the needs assessment and planning shall include, but not be limited to, Washington State University, Gonzaga University, Eastern Washington University, Whitworth College and the Spokane Community College District. The funds appropriated herein shall be administered by Washington State University serving as agent of record."

MOTION

Senator Hansen moved the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 84, after line 27, insert a new subsection as follows:

"(6) $200,000 is appropriated from the general fund for an electronic engineering technology degree program."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Hansen, since this is not an additional amount of money for Central Washington University, it is simply saying that the money we are already appropriating for you--we are not changing that--you must use two hundred thousand dollars for this program. I guess what I'm mystified at, is there some indication we won't use it unless we tell them to?"

Senator Hansen: "I believe this is added money."

Senator Lee: "It is not. I don't see any language in any amendment that provides additional money for Central Washington University. This, in fact, would have to come from the appropriation that we already have in the bill. It would take another amendment to do that, Senator Hansen."

Senator Hansen: "Central Washington is the one that wrote the amendment. As I understand it, it adds two hundred thousand dollars that they overlooked getting into the original budget."

Senator Lee: "Senator Hansen, it's important for me to understand whether or not--since this language does not say that--does not change the appropriation to Central Washington University--it would have to be changed on page 83."

Senator Hansen: "I would have to get back to you, Senator Lee, so maybe we can set this amendment down until I get that information for you."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hansen, further consideration of the amendment on page 84, line 27, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was deferred.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 96, line 10, after "biennium," insert "Moneys in the account shall be spent to implement Substitute Senate Bill No. 3287."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator McDermott, I hear what you're saying and I don't disagree with your logic, but I can't see how it fits in the bill. If this is in the section that appropriates eight million one hundred thousand dollars and not the 1.2 that you were mentioning and it follows after 'awards,' it then leaves the rest of that sentence hanging 'ending June 30, 1983.' I just wonder if we have an incorrect reference here?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Lee, the reference is page 96, line 10, which I corrected, but apparently it didn't get read as we were reading it. It goes in the section dealing with the revenue accrual accounts which begins on page 95, line 34."

Senator Lee: "O.K., I understand that. What I'm looking for now is to be sure that we are limiting it just to that 1.2 million dollars that you were talking about and not to the entire revenue accrual account."

Senator McDermott: "Well, Senator Lee, if you read the entire section, you will see on line 2--'is hereby created in the general fund at the close of the fiscal biennium shall transfer out of the general fund. Monies from this account may only be spent after appropriations by statute for the purpose of decreasing the unfunded liability of state retirement systems or during the '83-'85 session for the purpose of discharging obligations which the Legislature determined are correctly chargeable to a prior biennium.' We are now adding a line which says 'money shall be used for the implementation of this bill,' so it is tightly drawn to deal only with that particular bill in this biennium."

Senator Lee: "I guess my question is, does this language indicate that that's now going to be the only purpose for which this money can be spent?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Lee, you'll have to show me the word where it says 'only.' It says 'monies in the account shall be spent'--implemented. It doesn't say 'shall only be spent.'"

Senator Lee: "We're not giving them any other alternative. We're just saying 'monies in the account shall be spent' and if there's some left over, of course, it probably can't be spent for anything else other than this one purpose. I don't think that was your intent, was it?"

Senator McDermott: "It's pretty clear what my intent is, I think. If you don't have the word 'only' in there, it will be used for the other purposes above. It can additionally be used for this purpose."

Further debate ensued.

Senator McDermott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator McDermott to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

I might also respond to this extent that if the Legislature is apprehensive that this committee or that this section of the State Patrol is doing something, by way of investigating the Legislature, it should be amply protected by the fact it is supervised by eight legislators from both parties and those legislators have the right to inquire in detail into any sort of activity that particular division gets into."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator McDermott, I thought I heard you say that we had put three hundred thousand dollars in there to make buys."

Senator McDermott: "Yes."

Senator Guess: "They just laid this amendment on my desk. It says 'deletes the three hundred thousand dollar appropriation.' Is that a different three hundred thousand dollars?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Guess, I put this amendment on the desk so if the amendment hangs we will pull that buy money out. I think if you're going to be making the decision here that you want a state police, then I don't think you should have them with a bunch of buy money. They ought to have to come in and ask for it from us directly, so I don't think you can go both ways at the same time. If this amendment--Senator Clarke's amendment--hangs, then I think this other amendment is appropriate. If it does not hang, I will pull this amendment from the desk."

Senator Guess: "Just one more question. The amendment adds four hundred and twelve thousand and then gives them four operatives and does that include the three hundred thousand dollars then to buy money?"

Senator McDermott: "No."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Pullen, do you know how much per biennium in additional interest we have to pay because we lost our credit rating?"

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sellar: "Senator Bottiger, in section 403, there is money for a joint study with the Department of Transportation and Washington Public Ports--part of that is a contribution by the Ports. In your opinion, could that contribution be a combination of cash and in-kind service?"

Senator Bottiger: "When the Department of Transportation and the Ports discussed this with me and it was anticipated that the Ports would provide the supervision for the study that would be put out on contract. There would be a request for proposals. The contract would be less than three hundred thousand and the Ports would have to come up with the balance to provide the supervision. That is what the fifteen percent is for."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Peterson and Shinpoch demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1509, by Representatives Tanner, L. Smith, J. King, Struthers, Heck, Sutherland, Galloway, Hastings, Appelwick, Hankins, O'Brien, Bond, Wang, Barnes, Armstrong, Betrozoff, Jacobsen, Schmidt, Braddock, Walk, Schoon, D. Nelson, Kaiser, Sayan, Rust, Smitherman, Ballard, Monohon, Fisher, Gallagher, Locke, Powers, R. King, Burns, McMullen, Pruitt, Crane, Stratton, Egger, Dellwo, Zellinsky, Garrett, Sommers, Ellis, Scott, Belcher, Todd, Lux, Grimm, Isaacson, J. Williams, Brough, Dickie, C. Smith, Prince, Clayton, Van Luven, Patrick, Chandler, Fuhrman, Padden, Cantu, West, Vander Stoep, Barrett, Ebersole, Tilly, Allen, Long, Holland, B. Williams, Miller, Johnson and Silver Authorizing a county tax on nonresidents of the state employed in the county.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1509 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Thompson, in your remarks, you referenced only the state of Oregon. I'm wondering whether or not the counties that border on Idaho, would be given this same opportunity under this legislation?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Patterson, they would be similarly affected should a county choose to exercise its permissive authority."

Senator Patterson: "Then, what you are saying is that the residents of Idaho who are working in the state of Washington--the county where they work would have the authority, under this legislation, to levy the excise tax on their employment in the state of Washington from Idaho?"

Senator Thompson: "Yes, I am."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Thompson, because there has been no conflict between the border counties and Idaho, and I would like to speak for Spokane County, I think that it might be a good will measure to have you answer the question that I am going to ask? There is no intent, is there, by any other border counties that you know of to exercise this privilege?"

Senator Thompson: "There certainly is no intent to do so, Senator Hurley, and I would also like to key on your words 'good will.' I would hope that 'good will' would be maintained or obtained in our relationship with all our bordering states, even with the state of Oregon. This measure simply represents, with its delayed implementation date of July 1, 1985, a last resort option that the state of Washington would have in dealing with the Oregon situation."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Thompson, I may have missed it, but just in case I did, maybe you could point it out to me. In lines 18 through 20, it states 'the county shall allocate to each city or town the amount of such taxes as are paid by nonresidents employed respectively in each such city or town.' What amount of this tax will go to the counties?"

Senator Thompson: "That proportion--that share that is represented by those numbers that are employed in the unincorporated area."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Thompson, I know you are one of those, as I am, and the rest of the body here, that want to encourage industries to come into the state--high-tech and all of that. Could you explain to me how we would handle a case such as Hewlett-Packard or Fairchild Camera, that have come into the state for the purposes of constructing the plants and engineering the plants, yet they are residents of California or New York? How would we handle that? This applies to all counties and I know Snohomish County has high-tech up there, with Hewlett-Packard. We have Fairchild Camera in Pierce County. We would then be obligated to assess fees against these industries that we have invited into the state--the employees of those--"

Senator Thompson: "May I answer now, Senator Rasmussen? This is a commuter tax, in effect, and I assume that there is no one that is going to commute from those distant states to Pierce County or any interior county. As a matter of fact, I don't anticipate that this measure will ever be implemented. I'm hopeful that it will be repealed prior to its effective date, but nevertheless in response to your concern, it is a commuter tax, in effect."

Senator Rasmussen: "Could you define 'commuter'? Is that the person that comes in once a month--once every six months--or twice a day? I don't see any definition in the bill. I don't even see 'commuter tax.'"

Senator Thompson: "It would be a tax on persons residing outside of the state who are employed inside the county. It is a county tax."

Senator Rasmussen: "And it covers all thirty-nine counties?" Senator Thompson: "Yes, it does." Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Thompson, recognizing your expertise here as chairman of the Local Government Committee, and I recognize that this is dealing with thirty-nine counties. Is it possible that we could offer an amendment or an amendment could fit into this section that would extend this to allow cities to do that same kind of thing?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Fleming, this measure is drafted to provide for cities to be involved in the income from this tax. As a matter of practical fact, if it were ever to be implemented, which I wouldn't anticipate, cities would most assuredly derive most of the income, because most of the employment is within city limits."

Senator Fleming: "Well, my problem is that you are having problems with the Oregon state border, we, sometimes in Seattle, have problems with the bedroom cities, like Mercer Island and others that come across the bridge and use our streets, come work in our city and go back home to their bedroom and then don't want to help pay for any of those kinds of services that they used up. So, when I was in the House, we talked about a head tax and I am just wondering if I could get a little amendment on this so that every time Senator Clarke went across that bridge over to Seattle and made his money and then went back to Mercer Island, then we might be able to collect a head tax to help pay for the damage to those streets and some of the other services that he used up. I'm just using that as an example--I'm not picking on Senator Clarke--that could be in the south or in the north or whatever."

Senator Thompson: "Senator Fleming, you see possibilities in this context that I hope you hadn't noticed."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1509.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1509, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 05; absent, 00; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vogt, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 44.

Voting nay: Senators Craswell, Guess, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen - 5.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1509, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4381 and the pending House of Representatives amendment, deferred on February 28, 1984.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Metcalf, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 4381 is an omnibus bill dealing with election procedures by modifying provisions relating to oaths of office, filing dates, precinct boundaries, ballot titles and port commissioner vacancies.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives also deal with the subject of election procedures by incorporating the provisions of the original bill, and by adding procedures for filling a vacancy in the position of United States Senator or Representative, and by eliminating primaries for nonpartisan positions in certain instances.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives were ruled in order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4381 and requested a Conference thereon.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4798 and the pending House of Representatives amendments, deferred on February 28, 1984.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4798 is a measure dealing with the subject of prison overcrowding by extending the Prison Overcrowding Reform Act, by appropriating funds to local communities where correctional facilities are located, and by providing for the development of a comprehensive system of alternative programs for nonviolent offenders by the Department of Corrections.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives also deal with the subject of prison overcrowding by incorporating most of the provisions of the Senate Bill, by giving the Governor additional authority to deal with prison overcrowding, and by establishing a program to assist employees of the Department of Corrections who are injured by prison inmates, in recognition of prison overcrowding and the hazardous nature of that employment.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives were ruled in order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Granlund, the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4798 and requested a Conference thereon.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4435 and the pending House of Representatives amendments, deferred on February 28, 1984.

Senator Hemstad moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4435.

Senator Hemstad demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, Senator Bauer was excused.

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Zimmerman was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the motion by Senator Hemstad to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4435.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Hemstad failed and the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4435 by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 24; absent, 00; excused, 02.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Sellar, von Reichbauer - 23.

Excused: Senators Bauer, Zimmerman - 2.

Senator Rasmussen: "What will the poor people do in the meantime when they go into the bank and they have a state welfare check or a social security check and they want to charge them two and a half, three and a half or four dollars for the cashing of them?"

Senator Moore: "I hope, Senator Rasmussen, that as a result of your question and my answer that the banks will be alerted to a modest amount of trouble ahead for them if they continue this practice."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 29, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4541 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This chapter may be cited as the "Domestic Violence Prevention Act".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(1) "Domestic violence" means: (a) Physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or the infliction of fear of imminent physical harm, bodily injury or assault, between family or household members; or (b) sexual assault of one family or household member by another.

(2) "Family or household members" means spouses, former spouses, adult persons related by blood or marriage, persons who are presently residing together, or who have resided together in the past, and persons who have a child in common regardless of whether they have been married or have lived together at any time.

(3) "Court" includes the superior, district, and municipal courts of the state of Washington.

(4) "Judicial day" does not include Saturdays, Sundays, or legal holidays.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Any person may seek relief under this chapter by filing a petition with a court alleging that the person has been the victim of domestic violence committed by the respondent. The person may petition for relief on behalf of himself or herself and on behalf of minor family or household members.

(2) The courts defined in section 2(3) of this act have jurisdiction over proceedings under this chapter. If a proceeding under chapter 26.09, 26.12, or 26.26 RCW is commenced in a superior court before or after the filing of an action in a district or municipal court under this chapter, then the superior court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over proceedings under this chapter. Any municipal or district court order entered while that court had jurisdiction remains valid until superseded by a superior court order.

(3) An action under this chapter shall be filed in the county or the municipality where the petitioner resides, unless the petitioner has left the residence or household to avoid abuse. In that case, the petitioner may bring an action in the county or municipality of the previous or the new household or residence.

(4) A person's right to petition for relief under this chapter is not affected by the person leaving the residence or household to avoid abuse.

(5) If an action under this chapter is commenced in a district or municipal court and a petitioner or respondent contests custody or visitation rights, then, upon the motion of either party containing proof that the petition for relief under this chapter has been filed with the superior court, the district or municipal court shall dismiss the action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There shall exist an action known as a petition for an order for protection in cases of domestic violence.

(1) A petition for relief shall allege the existence of domestic violence, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit made under oath stating the specific facts and circumstances from which relief is sought.

(2) A petition for relief may be made regardless of whether or not there is a pending lawsuit, complaint, petition, or other action between the parties.

(3) All court clerk's offices shall make available simplified forms and instructional brochures. Any assistance or information provided by clerks under this section does not constitute the practice of law and clerks are not responsible for incorrect information contained in a petition.

(4) A filing fee of twenty dollars shall be charged for proceedings under this section. Forms and instructional brochures shall be provided free of charge.

(5) A person is not required to post a bond to obtain relief in any proceeding under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Persons seeking relief under this chapter may file an application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis on forms supplied by the court. If the court determines that a petitioner lacks the funds to pay the costs of filing, the petitioner shall be granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis and no filing fee shall be charged by the court to the petitioner for relief sought under this chapter.

(2) For the purpose of determining whether a petitioner has the funds available to pay the costs of filing an action under this chapter, the income of the household or family member named as the respondent is not considered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Upon receipt of the petition, the court shall order a hearing which shall be held not later than fourteen days from the date of the order. Personal service shall be made upon the respondent not less than five court days prior to the hearing. If timely service cannot be made, the court may set a new hearing date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Upon notice and after hearing, the court may provide relief as follows:

(1) Restrain a party from committing acts of domestic violence;

(2) Exclude the respondent from the dwelling which the parties share or from the residence of the petitioner;

(3) On the same basis as is provided in chapter 26.09 RCW, award temporary custody and establish temporary visitation with regard to minor children of the parties, and restrain any party from interfering with the custody of the minor children;

(4) Order the respondent to participate in treatment or counseling services;

(5) Order other relief as it deems necessary for the protection of a family or household member, including orders or directives to a peace officer, as allowed under this chapter; and

(6) Require the respondent to pay the filing fee and court costs, including service fees, and to reimburse the petitioner for costs incurred in bringing the action, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Any relief granted by the order for protection, other than a judgment for costs, shall be for a fixed period not to exceed one year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Where an application under this section alleges that irreparable injury could result from domestic violence if an order is not issued immediately without prior notice to the respondent, the court may grant an ex parte temporary order for protection, pending a full hearing, and grant relief as the court deems proper, including an order:

(a) Restraining any party from committing acts of domestic violence;

(b) Excluding any party from the dwelling shared or from the residence of the other until further order of the court; and

(c) Restraining any party from interfering with the other's custody of the minor children or from removing the children from the jurisdiction of the court.

(2) Irreparable injury under this section includes but is not limited to situations in which the respondent has recently threatened petitioner with bodily injury or has engaged in acts of domestic violence against the petitioner.

(3) The court shall hold an ex parte hearing in person or by telephone on the day the petition is filed or on the following judicial day.

(4) An ex parte temporary order for protection shall be effective for a fixed period not to exceed fourteen days, but may be reissued. A full hearing, as provided in this chapter, shall be set for not later than fourteen days from the issuance of the temporary order. The respondent shall be served with a copy of the ex parte order along with a copy of the petition and notice of the date set for the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. When an order is issued under this chapter upon request of the petitioner, the court may order a peace officer to accompany the petitioner and assist in placing the petitioner in possession of the dwelling or residence, or otherwise assist in the execution of the order of protection. Orders issued under this chapter shall include a designation of the appropriate law enforcement agency to execute, serve, or enforce the order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) An order issued under this chapter shall be personally served upon the respondent, except as provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(2) The sheriff of the county or the peace officers of the municipality in which the respondent resides shall serve the respondent personally unless the petitioner elects to have the respondent served by a private party.

(3) If service by a sheriff or municipal peace officer is to be used, the clerk of the court shall have a copy of any order issued under this chapter forwarded on or before the next judicial day to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order for service upon the respondent. Service of an order issued under this chapter shall take precedence over the service of other documents unless they are of a similar emergency nature.

(4) If the sheriff or municipal peace officer cannot complete service upon the respondent within ten days, the sheriff or municipal peace officer shall notify the petitioner. The petitioner shall provide information sufficient to permit notification.

(5) Returns of service under this chapter shall be made in accordance with the applicable court rules.

(6) If an order entered by the court recites that the respondent appeared in person before the court, the necessity for further service is waived and proof of service of that order is not necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A copy of an order for protection granted under this chapter shall be forwarded by the clerk of the court on or before the next judicial day to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order.

Upon receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall forthwith enter the order for one year into any computer-based criminal intelligence information system available in this state used by law enforcement agencies to list outstanding warrants. Entry into the law enforcement information system constitutes notice to all law enforcement agencies of the existence of the order. The order is fully enforceable in any county in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Whenever an order for protection is granted under this chapter and the respondent or person to be restrained knows of the order, a violation of the restraint provisions or of a provision excluding the person from a residence is a misdemeanor.

(2) A peace officer shall arrest without a warrant and take into custody a person whom the peace officer has probable cause to believe has violated an order issued under this chapter that restrains the person or excludes the person from a residence, if the person restrained knows of the order.

(3) A violation of an order for protection shall also constitute contempt of court, and is subject to the penalties prescribed by law.

(4) Upon the filing of an affidavit by the petitioner or any peace officer alleging that the respondent has violated an order for protection granted under this chapter, the court may issue an order to the respondent, requiring the respondent to appear and show cause within fourteen days why the respondent should not be found in contempt of court and punished accordingly. The hearing may be held in the court of any county or municipality in which the petitioner or respondent temporarily or permanently resides at the time of the alleged violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. When a party alleging a violation of an order for protection issued under this chapter states that the party is unable to afford private counsel and asks the prosecuting attorney for the county or the attorney for the municipality in which the order was issued for assistance, the attorney shall initiate and prosecute a contempt proceeding if there is probable cause to believe that the violation occurred. In this action, the court may require the violator of the order to pay the costs incurred in bringing the action, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Upon application with notice to all parties and after a hearing, the court may modify the terms of an existing order for protection. In any situation where an order is terminated or modified before its expiration date, the clerk of the court shall forward on or before the next judicial day a true copy of the modified order or the termination order to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the modified or termination order. Upon receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall promptly enter it in the law enforcement information system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Nothing in this act may affect the title to real estate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Any proceeding under this act is in addition to other civil or criminal remedies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. No peace officer may be held criminally or civilly liable for making an arrest under section 12 of this act if the police officer acts in good faith and without malice.

((7)) (8) Records kept pursuant to subsections (3) and ((6)) (7) of this section shall be made identifiable by means of a departmental code for domestic violence.

Sec. 22. Section 4, chapter 105, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 232, Laws of 1983 and RCW 10.99.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(c) Shall waive any requirement that the victim's location be disclosed to any person, other than the attorney of a criminal defendant, upon a showing that there is a possibility of further violence: PROVIDED, That the court may order a criminal defense attorney not to disclose to his client the victim's location; and

(2) Because of the likelihood of repeated violence directed at those who have been victims of domestic violence in the past, when any defendant charged with a crime involving domestic violence is released from custody before trial on bail or personal recognizance, the court authorizing the release may prohibit the defendant from having any contact with the victim. The arresting jurisdiction authorizing the release shall determine whether the defendant should be prohibited from having any contact with the victim. If there is no outstanding restraining or protective order prohibiting the defendant from having contact with the victim, the court authorizing release may issue, by telephone, a no-contact order prohibiting the defendant from having contact with the victim. The no-contact order shall also be issued in writing as soon as possible. If the court has probable cause to believe that the defendant is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in any further acts of violence, the court may also require the defendant to surrender any deadly weapon in the defendant's immediate possession or control, or subject to the defendant's immediate possession or control, to the sheriff of the county or chief of police of the municipality in which the defendant resides or to the defendant's counsel for safekeeping.

(3) Willful violation of a court order issued under subsection (2) of this section is a misdemeanor. A certified copy of ((such)) the order shall be provided to the victim.

(4) Whenever an order prohibiting contact is issued under subsection (2) of this section, the clerk of the court shall forward a copy of the order on or before the next judicial day to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order. Upon receipt of the copy of the order the law enforcement agency shall forthwith enter the order for one year into any computer-based criminal intelligence information system available in this state used by law enforcement agencies to list outstanding warrants. Entry into the law enforcement information system constitutes notice to all law enforcement agencies of the existence of the order. The order is fully enforceable in any jurisdiction in the state.

Sec. 23. Section 7, chapter 145, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 8, chapter 232, Laws of 1983 and RCW 10.99.045 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A defendant arrested for an offense involving domestic violence as defined by RCW 10.99.020(2) shall be required to appear in person before a magistrate within one judicial day after the arrest((-or));

(2) A defendant who is charged by citation, complaint, or information with an offense involving domestic violence as defined by RCW 10.99.020(2) and not arrested shall appear in court for arraignment in person as soon as practicable, but in no event later than fourteen days after the next day on which court is in session following the issuance of the citation or the filing of the complaint or information.

(3) At the time of the appearances provided in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the court shall determine the necessity of imposing a no contact order or other conditions of pretrial release according to the procedures established by court rule for a preliminary appearance or an arraignment. If the court has probable cause to believe that the defendant is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in any further acts of violence, as one of the conditions of pretrial release, the court may require the defendant to surrender any deadly weapon in the defendant's immediate possession or control, or subject to the defendant's immediate possession or control, to the sheriff of the county or chief of police of the municipality in which the defendant resides or to the defendant's counsel for safekeeping. The decision of the judge and findings of fact in support thereof shall be in writing.

(4) Appearances required pursuant to this section are mandatory and cannot be waived.

(5) The no-contact order shall be issued and entered with the appropriate law enforcement agency pursuant to the procedures outlined in RCW 10.99.040 (2) and (4).

Sec. 24. Section 5, chapter 105, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 10.99.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a defendant is found guilty of a crime and a condition of the sentence restricts the defendant's ability to have contact with the victim, such condition shall be recorded and a written certified copy of that order shall be provided to the victim.

(2) Whenever an order prohibiting contact is issued pursuant to this section, the clerk of the court shall forward a copy of the order on or before the next judicial day to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order. Upon receipt of the copy of the order the law enforcement agency shall forthwith enter the order for one year into any computer-based criminal intelligence information system available in this state used by law enforcement agencies to list outstanding warrants. Entry into the law enforcement information system constitutes notice to all law enforcement agencies of the existence of the order. The order is fully enforceable in any jurisdiction in the state.

Sec. 25. Section 8, chapter 145, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 9, chapter 232, Laws of 1983 and RCW 10.99.055 are each amended to read as follows:

((Any law enforcement agency in this state may enforce this chapter as it relates to orders restricting the defendants' ability to have contact with the victim and orders requiring defendants to surrender firearms.)) A peace officer in this state shall enforce an order issued by any court in this state restricting a defendant's ability to have contact with a victim by arresting and taking the defendant into custody, pending release on bail, personal recognizance, or court order, when the officer has probable cause to believe that the defendant has violated the terms of that order.

Sec. 26. Section 6, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 41, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In a proceeding for:

(a) Dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or a declaration of invalidity; or

(b) Disposition of property or liabilities, maintenance, or support following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse; either party may move for temporary maintenance or for temporary support of children entitled to support. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(2) As a part of a motion for temporary maintenance or support or by independent motion accompanied by affidavit, either party may request the court to issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, providing relief proper in the circumstances, and restraining or enjoining any person from:

(a) Transferring, removing, encumbering, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and, if so restrained or enjoined, requiring him to notify the moving party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures made after the order is issued;

(b) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party or of any child and, upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the party so restrained or enjoined has used or displayed or threatened to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in an act of violence or has previously committed acts of domestic violence and is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon in an act of domestic violence, requiring the party to surrender any deadly weapon in his immediate possession or control or subject to his immediate possession or control to the sheriff of the county having jurisdiction of the proceeding or to the restrained or enjoined party's counsel or to any person designated by the court. The court may order temporary surrender of deadly weapons without notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for response has elapsed;

(c) Entering the family home or the home of the other party upon a showing of the necessity therefor;

(d) Removing a child from the jurisdiction of the court.

(3) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(4) The court may issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction and an order for temporary maintenance or support in such amounts and on such terms as are just and proper in the circumstances.

(5) Restraining orders issued under this section restraining the person from molesting or disturbing another party or from entering a party's home shall bear the legend: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER WITH ACTUAL NOTICE OF ITS TERMS IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNDER CHAPTER 26.09 RCW AND WILL SUBJECT A VIOLATOR TO ARREST.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hayner, Senator McDonald was the one that kind of came down on the cost and the comparison to what private nursing home care facilities had been constructed for. He isn't here, but I was looking to ask him if this was more in line, because I was impressed with his argument."

Senator Hayner: "Yes, this is more in line. The figure he had was twenty-two thousand dollars a bed, but then when we compared the fact that the private nursing homes are not under the same constraints, as far as building—as is the state—we added a little bit of money to that, but as I say, the original figure was 3.3 million dollars, so we have reduced it to 2.5, which I think is definitely in the ball park.”

Senator Bottiger: “Senator Hayner, the other concern, in committee, was that we are counting on the federal government to continue funding this, when the statement is made that, in fact, it is going to operate at no cost to the general fund. I’m concerned about the current administration cutting this program out and leaving us with a new bill to pick up.”

Senator Hayner: “Well, let me speak to that, too. As I said, this is a building that is integrated into the veterans’ hospital site. There’s no way, I think, that they would eliminate it. I can also speak to the fact that the federal government provides seventeen dollars and five cents per day per veteran to the state veterans’ nursing facilities, and in addition to that, the veterans’ contribution of twenty-eight dollars per day and they are contracting for twenty-five beds at fifty dollars a day. So, I think, on that basis it is something that is very viable. We’ve been working on this actually for three years—it isn’t a new thing.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: “Senator Hayner, do we have any long-term contracts with the federal government that assures that they’re going to continue to pay the kinds of money and provide the kinds of services that you’ve listed?”

Senator Hayner: “I guess there is no way that I can guarantee that there’s going to be seventeen dollars and twenty-eight dollars and so on, but I guess if the Veterans’ Hospital there goes out of business, then it will not be there. It’s been there for years and years and years. It’s about the size of Old Fort Walla Walla, and I suspect it was one of the very early hospitals in that area. I don’t think there’s any chance it’s going out of business.”

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators McDermott and Hayner to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Hemstad moved that the following amendment by Senators Hemstad, Zimmerman and Fuller to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1157, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDermott, concerning section 2, I merely ask -- a hundred seventy-five thousand dollars necessary to survey land and boundary at McNeil Island--is that divided up between the seals and the Blue Herons? I'm not a member of the Ways and Means Committee, but I was wondering--I know the circumference of the island and you really can't survey much of an island as long as you're finding deep water, but what is the purpose of the survey?"

Senator McDermott: "My understanding, Senator, is that the entire island does not belong to the state of Washington. Some part of it is still going to be used as a sanctuary for our feathered friends and so we want to make sure we have it just right as we get the title from the federal government. I know you wouldn't want us to get more than our fair share."

Senator Rasmussen: "No, but a hundred seventy-five thousand dollar survey is a very expensive survey. It involves a lot of extra planning. My understanding is that the government has a monument there already and I don't understand the tremendous cost. Well, I hope this is only in general--and when the contract is let, it probably will be for less, I presume."

Senator McDermott: "That's my understanding."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would hope so. Then the other one is the total appropriation for McNeil Island--in the supplemental--amounts to about fifteen million dollars. That's turning out to be quite an expensive island for a prison. That's why the federal government left the prison over there. Do you anticipate further costs?"

Senator McDermott: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "It's going to be just as expensive for us, but we will not be able to leave the island. That is the reason the feds left--of course--because of expense."

Senator McDermott: "Yes, they did, and I think no one thought carefully about our original acquisition of the island--thought it was going to be without some expense. It had been allowed to deteriorate in many respects. We had a problem of purchasing a ferry boat of sufficient size to carry people back and forth. We now have almost a thousand prisoners there, which is more than the federal government ever had, so that we have strained the capacity almost to the maximum and much of what is happening is to deal with that--really to try and relieve the overcrowding of our prison systems."

Senator Rasmussen: "No suggestions of Senator Haley's bridge?"

Senator McDermott: "They're certainly not even planning money. No one even thinks about something like that."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1157, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1157, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 14; absent, 00; excused, 00.

(1) It is a traffic infraction to drink any alcoholic beverage in a motor vehicle when the vehicle is upon a highway.

(2) It is a traffic infraction for a person to have in his possession while in a motor vehicle upon a highway, a bottle, can, or other receptacle containing an alcoholic beverage if the container has been opened or a seal broken or the contents partially removed.

(3) It is a traffic infraction for the registered owner of a motor vehicle, or the driver if the registered owner is not then present in the vehicle, to keep in a motor vehicle when the vehicle is upon a highway, a bottle, can, or other receptacle containing an alcoholic beverage which has been opened or a seal broken or the contents partially removed, unless the container is kept in the trunk of the vehicle or in some other area of the vehicle not normally occupied by the driver or passengers if the vehicle does not have a trunk. DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4362.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, when I read the House amendment, 'in addition, local municipalities may enact ordinances governing open container restrictions that are more strict than state law.' Say, I picked up at the border of the state of Washington a copy of the state law--I'm driving through--I'm a state tourist and know nothing about the particulars, but I imagine this is supposed to be given out at the tourist center to advise them of the hazards. Then I drive through a city that has different or stricter regulations. What does that do? It doesn't give a uniform application of the law and apparently puts people in a trap?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, we permit local municipalities to have more stringent penalties than what we provide with respect to certain violations in many, many instances. I don't think the standard would be any different. The fact that if someone had an open container of alcohol in the car, that would be a violation of state law and it would probably be, also, a violation of a municipal ordinance. We provided for punishment of this violation as a misdemeanor. The local jurisdiction could, I suppose, treat it, in effect, as a gross misdemeanor if they so chose, but I suspect that the change would be that the local municipality could enact more stringent penalties than what we have provided. Probably not a different standard--it would be hard to come up with a standard other than an open container of alcohol in the car."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator von Reichbauer was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge to concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4362.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 25, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4419 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 15.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) If the results of an antibiotic or pesticide residue test are above the actionable level as determined by procedures set forth in the current edition of "Standard Methods for the Examination of Dairy Products," a producer holding a grade A permit is subject to a civil penalty. The penalty shall be in an amount equal to one-half the value of the sum of the volumes of milk equivalent produced under the permit on the day prior to and the day of the adulteration. The value of the milk shall be computed by the weighted average price for the federal market order under which the milk is delivered.

(2) The penalty is imposed by the department giving a written notice which is either personally served upon or transmitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person incurring the penalty. The notice of the civil penalty shall be a final order of the department unless, within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty appeals the penalty by filing a notice of appeal with the department. If a notice of appeal is filed in a timely manner, a contested case hearing shall be conducted on behalf of the department by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW and, to the extent they are not inconsistent with this subsection, the provisions of RCW 15.36.580. At the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall determine whether the penalty should be affirmed, reduced, or not imposed and shall issue a final order setting forth the civil penalty assessed, if any. The order may be appealed to superior court in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. Tests performed for antibiotic or pesticide residues by a state or certified industry laboratory of a milk sample drawn by a department official or a licensed dairy technician shall be admitted as prima facie evidence of the presence or absence of an antibiotic or pesticide residue.

(3) Any penalty imposed under this section is due and payable upon the issuance of the final order by the department. The penalty shall be deducted by the violator's marketing organization from the violator's final payment for the month following the issuance of the final order. The department shall promptly notify the violator's marketing organization of any penalties contained in the final order.

(4) All penalties received or recovered from violations of this section shall be remitted monthly by the violator's marketing organization to the Washington state dairy products commission and deposited in a revolving fund to be used solely for the purposes of education and research. No appropriation is required for disbursements from this fund.

(5) In case of a violation of the antibiotic or pesticide residue test requirements, an investigation shall be made to determine the cause of the residue which shall be corrected. Additional samples shall be taken as soon as possible and tested as soon as feasible for antibiotic or pesticide residue by the department or a certified laboratory. After the notice has been received by the producer and the results of a test of such an additional sample indicate that residues are above the actionable level or levels referred to in subsection (1) of this section, the producer's milk may not be sold until a sample is shown to be below the actionable levels established for the residues.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 22, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 4376 with the following amendments:

On page 3, line 35, delete "This act applies" and insert "Sections 1 and 2 of this act apply"

On page 4, after line 7, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 21, chapter 49, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 99, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.14.200 are each amended to read as follows:

There is created in the state general fund a special account to be known as the "county sales and use tax equalization account." Into this account shall be placed a portion of all motor vehicle excise tax receipts as provided in RCW 82.44.150(2). Funds in this account shall be allocated by the state treasurer according to the following procedure:

(1) Prior to April 1st of each year the director of revenue shall inform the state treasurer of the total and the per capita levels of revenues for the unincorporated area of each county and the state-wide weighted average per capita level of revenues for the unincorporated areas of all counties imposing the sales and use tax authorized under RCW 82.14.030(1) for the previous calendar year.

(2) At such times as distributions are made under RCW 82.44.150, as now or hereafter amended, the state treasurer shall apportion to each county imposing the sales and use tax under RCW 82.14.030(1) at the maximum rate and receiving less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars from the tax for the previous calendar year, an amount from the county sales and use tax equalization account sufficient, when added to the amount of revenues received the previous calendar year by the county, to equal one hundred fifty thousand dollars.

The department of revenue shall establish a governmental price index as provided in this subsection. The base year for the index shall be the end of the third quarter of 1982. Prior to November 1, 1983, and prior to each November 1st thereafter, the department of revenue shall establish another index figure for the third quarter of that year. The department of revenue may use the implicit price deflators for state and local government purchases of goods and services calculated by the United States department of commerce to establish the governmental price index. Beginning on January 1, 1984, and each January 1st thereafter, the one hundred fifty thousand dollar base figure in this subsection shall be adjusted in direct proportion to the percentage change in the governmental price index from 1982 until the year before the adjustment. Distributions made under this subsection for 1984 and thereafter shall use this adjusted base amount figure.

(3) Subsequent to the distributions under subsection (2) of this section and at such times as distributions are made under RCW 82.44.150, as now or hereafter amended, the state treasurer shall apportion to each county imposing the sales and use tax under RCW 82.14.030(1) at the maximum rate and receiving less than seventy percent of the state-wide weighted average per capita level of revenues for the unincorporated areas of all counties as determined by the department of revenue under subsection (1) of this section, an amount from the county sales and use tax equalization account sufficient, when added to the per capita level of revenues for the unincorporated area received the previous calendar year by the county, to equal seventy percent of the state-wide weighted average per capita level of revenues for the unincorporated areas of all counties determined under subsection (1) of this section, subject to reduction under subsections ~~((5) and)~~ (6) and (7) of this section. When computing distributions under this section, any distribution under subsection (2) of this section shall be considered revenues received from the tax imposed under RCW 82.14.030(1) for the previous calendar year.

(4) Subsequent to the distributions under subsection (3) of this section and at such times as distributions are made under RCW 82.44.150, as now or hereafter amended, the state treasurer shall apportion to each county imposing the sales and use tax under RCW 82.14.030(2) at the maximum rate and receiving a distribution under subsection (2) of this section, a third distribution from the county sales and use tax equalization account. The distribution to each qualifying county shall be equal to the distribution to the county under subsection (2) of this section, subject to the reduction under subsections (6) and (7) of this section. To qualify for the total distribution under this subsection, the county must impose the tax under RCW 82.14.030(2) for the entire calendar year. Counties imposing the tax for less than the full year shall qualify for prorated allocations under this subsection proportionate to the number of months of the year during which the tax is imposed.

(5) Subsequent to the distributions under subsection ((3)) (4) of this section and at such times as distributions are made under RCW 82.44.150, as now or hereafter amended, the state treasurer shall apportion to each county imposing the sales and use tax under RCW 82.14.030(2) at the maximum rate and receiving a distribution under subsection (3) of this section, a ((third)) fourth distribution from the county sales and use tax equalization account. The distribution to each qualifying county shall be equal to the distribution to the county under subsection (3) of this section, subject to the reduction under subsections ((5) and) (6) and (7) of this section. To qualify for the distributions under this subsection, the county must impose the tax under RCW 82.14.030(2) for the entire calendar year. Counties imposing the tax for less than the full year shall qualify for prorated allocations under this subsection proportionate to the number of months of the year during which the tax is imposed.

((5)) (6) Revenues distributed under this section in any calendar year shall not exceed an amount equal to seventy percent of the state-wide weighted average per capita level of revenues for the unincorporated areas of all counties during the previous calendar year. If distributions under subsections (3) ((or (4)) through (5) of this section cannot be made because of this limitation, then distributions under subsections (3) ((or (4)) through (5) of this section shall be reduced ratably among the qualifying counties.

((6)) (7) If inadequate revenues exist in the county sales and use tax equalization account to make the distributions under subsections (3) ((or (4)) through (5) of this section, then the distributions under subsections (3) ((or (4)) through (5) of this section shall be reduced ratably among the qualifying counties. At such time during the year as additional funds accrue to the county sales and use tax equalization account, additional distributions shall be made under subsections (3) ((and (4)) through (5) of this section to the counties.

((7)) (8) If the level of revenues in the county sales and use tax equalization account exceeds the amount necessary to make the distributions under subsections (2) through ((4)) (5) of this section, then the additional revenues shall be credited and transferred to the state general fund.

Sec. 6. Section 4, chapter 49, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 99, Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.21.870 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No city or town may impose a tax on the privilege of conducting an electrical energy, natural gas, steam energy, or telephone business at a rate which exceeds six percent unless the rate is first approved by a majority of the voters of the city or town voting on such a proposition.

(2) If a city or town is imposing a rate of tax under subsection (1) of this section in excess of six percent on April 20, 1982, the city or town shall decrease the rate to a rate of six percent or less by reducing the rate each year on or before November 1st by ordinances to be effective on January 1st of the succeeding year, by an amount equal to one-tenth the difference between the tax rate on April 20, 1982, and six percent.

Nothing in this subsection prohibits a city or town from reducing its rates by amounts greater than the amounts required in this subsection.

Voter approved rate increases under subsection (1) of this section shall not be included in the computations under this subsection."

Renumber the remaining sections.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "government," insert "amending section 21, chapter 49, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 99, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.14.200; amending section 4, chapter 49, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 99, Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.21.870;"

and the same are herewith transmitted.

The legislature finds that certain groups, as characterized by sex or ethnic background, are traditionally underrepresented in mathematics, engineering, and the science-related professions in this state. The legislature finds that women and minority students have been traditionally discouraged from entering the fields of science and mathematics. (3) Promote cooperation among institutions of higher education, the superintendent of public instruction and local school districts in working towards the goals of the program; and

(4) Solicit contributions of time and resources from public and private institutions of higher education, high schools, and private business and industry.

Women and students from minority groups, which are traditionally underrepresented in mathematics and science-related professions and which meet the requirements established by the coordinator shall be selected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The coordinator shall establish local program centers throughout the state to implement sections 2 through 4 of this act. Each center shall be managed by a center director. Additional staff as necessary may be hired.

The county treasurer shall supply the name and address of the current mineral interest owner as they appear on the county property tax records to the surface owner without charge. If the current mineral interest owner is unknown to the county treasurer, and the current mineral interest owner cannot be determined after due diligence, the surface owner may serve the notice upon the current mineral interest owner by publishing the notice at least once each week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the property interest is located, and if there is no newspaper of general circulation in the county, then in a newspaper of general circulation published in an adjoining county, and if there is no such newspaper in an adjoining county, then in a newspaper of general circulation published at the capital of the state.

(2) The notice of intention to file a claim of abandonment and extinguishment shall contain:

(a) The name and address, if known, of the holder of the mineral interest, as shown of record;

(b) A reference to the instrument originally creating the mineral interest, including where it is recorded;

(e) The date of the first publication of the notice if notice is by publication; and

(f) A statement that a claim of abandonment and extinguishment of the mineral interest will be filed upon the expiration of a period of sixty days after the date of the last publication or the date service was perfected by personal service or registered mail on the current mineral interest owner, unless the current mineral interest owner files a statement of claim of mineral interest in the form prescribed in section 4 of this act.

(3) A copy of the notice of intention to file a claim of abandonment and extinguishment and an affidavit of publication shall be submitted to the county auditor within fifteen days after the date of the last publication or the date service was perfected by personal service or registered mail on the current mineral interest owner.

(4) The affidavit of publication shall contain either:

(a) A statement that a copy of the notice has been personally served upon or mailed to the owner of the current mineral interest and the address to which it was mailed; or

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Upon payment of fees provided in RCW 36.18.010, and if the surface owner files the claim of abandonment and extinguishment, together with a copy of the notice and the affidavit of publication, as required in section 5 of this act, in the county auditor's office for the county where such interest is located then the mineral interest shall be conclusively presumed to be extinguished.

If a statement of claim of mineral interest is filed by the current mineral interest owner within the sixty-day period provided in section 5 of this act, together with payment of fees provided in RCW 36.18.010, the county auditor shall record, index, and make special notation in the index of the filing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Upon receipt, the county auditor shall record a statement of claim or a notice and affidavit of publication in the dormant mineral interest index. When possible, the auditor shall also indicate by marginal notation on the instrument originally creating the mineral interest the recording of the statement of claim or notice and affidavit of publication. NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Mineral interests retained or owned by any public entity or mineral interests resulting from land exchanges between public and private owners shall not be subject to a claim of abandonment and extinguishment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 78 RCW."

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4443.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bottiger, the House amendment eliminates the duties imposed upon the county auditors with regard to locating mineral interest owners and notifying surface owners when mineral interest owners submit statements of claims. How is the owner going to find out if the auditor doesn't notify them?"

Senator Bottiger: "One of the problems, Senator, was the fiscal issue of the imposing on the county a new obligation. The counties said that since the surface owner had started the process, it would be up to him to check and see if someone filed an acknowledgment that they were the owner of the mineral rights and if the surface owner wasn't interested enough to go down and find out, then he wasn't interested enough to file a claim in the first place. It seemed to me to be the logical solution. The county then would have no financial impact and the surface owner's obligation would be to both start the process and to go down and see if anything has turned up."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, Senator Bottiger, if I may, Mr. President. At the present time, of course, when a lien is filed on something, there's a notice posted. This doesn't require a posting of any notice."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, this is entirely different. The mineral rights--the dormant, or mystery or lost mineral rights turn up on your title insurance policy. When you go look to see who this is, quote, Chicago Coal Company or the unknown heirs of Joe McGuire, you can't find them. The bill says, 'the surface owner,'--if there has been no activity for twenty years, can start a process to send notification as best as possible and if there has been no activity for twenty years, the courts may order him to do so--publish the notice, make the proper publication in the newspapers and then if nobody appears for two years--he goes down and checks to see if anybody has filed with the county treasurer. if nobody has, then the mineral right is extinguished."

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, one further question of Senator Bottiger, if I may. Senator Bottiger, in the instance when your title reads 'mineral rights reserved' and that's quite common where the railroads own the majority of the land. Does that also apply to those continued titles--the mineral rights in reserve, if there is no activity for twenty years and you can file to recover the mineral rights?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, only if the person is unknown. Now the bill provides that if you claim you own mineral rights in Pierce County as a result of transactions beginning originally with Chicago Coal Company, all you have to do is go down and notify the county treasurer, then you can find out who's got the Chicago Coal Company mineral rights because they expired in 1908 in Chicago. There's no trace of them since that time.

"After the House amendment was adopted, the Washington Association of Title Companies, the Washington Association of Title Attorneys, the Board of Realtors--everybody was satisfied with the bill and I think it passed the House 93 to 5."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Bottiger, does the twenty-year period that is identified in the bill start running immediately retroactive to 1964 or does the twenty-year period start running with the time zero being the effective date of this act, or is it some other combination?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, the twenty years begins running after the last activity, which if you'll look in sections about one through eight describe all the things that would be activity. Merely filing a notice of mineral right is a use of the mineral right and the twenty years would start from that point."

Senator Pullen: "If none of the activity had occurred since say 1964, then would the effective date of this act--"

Senator Bottiger: "Then the two years would begin."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Owen to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4443.

The motion by Senator Owen carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4443.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4443, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4443, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 10; absent, 00; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shipoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 39.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Craswell, Hayner, McCaslin, McDonald, Pullen, Quigg, Sellar, von Reichbauer - 10.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4443, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The health care facility or health care practitioner shall provide the licensing authority with a certified roster of health care assistants who are certified.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator McManus moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4448.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Haley: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of scope and object on these amendments and ask for a ruling thereon. The bill was intended to simply allow certain health providers to delegate the drawing of blood, whereas the amendments by the naturopaths would expand their practice act, which would expand the scope and object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Haley, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4448 is a measure which provides for the certification of unlicensed health care professionals to perform certain procedures when working under the supervision of a physician, podiatrist or registered nurse, after meeting certain minimum requirements.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives, while incorporating the provisions of the original bill, also authorize persons licensed to practice drugless healing as a naturopathic physician to draw blood for diagnostic purposes.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives were ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Haley, the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4448 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, Senators Granlund and Woody were excused.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Williams, what I would like to know, is the federal government also paid for the fringe benefit program that goes with this position?"

Senator Williams: "I don't know if I can specifically answer that, but as far as I know the DOE staff are paid for--everything comes out of the federal appropriation or the grant to the state--all the salaries, all the benefits and everything, as far as I know come out of the federal money."

Senator Patterson: "You're assuring me then that the state of Washington and its pension system and its medical aid--health care--program are not going to be paid for this position out of the revenues of the state of Washington?"

Senator Williams: "I suspect that somebody else will have to answer that question. That's an area that I don't know about but I know, to my knowledge at least, everything related to the cost of this program is paid for by the federal government. Now, I don't know what happens with those state employees, once the program is over, whether they then become absorbed back into the system and so forth. There are people presently involved in this who have been with the DOE in the past and are now transferred to this. As far as I know, everything is paid out of the federal fund."

MOTION

Senator McManus moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4647.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator McManus, according to the terms of the bill, as I understand it, the membership of the advisory committee is supposed to be represented by age, sex and ethnic balance. Could you tell me what balance age, sex and ethnicity is?"

Senator McManus: "Well, Senator Pullen, that's a very good question. I think we could probably debate that into 1985. Obviously, what we're trying to do here is just to make sure that all ranges of age and both sexes and as large a range of ethnic representation is available, as much as possible, so that the secretary can obtain a well-rounded set of advice and counsel for running her department."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator McManus to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4647.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4111.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4111, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4111, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 02.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 46.

Absent: Senator Hughes - 1.

Excused: Senators Quigg, von Reichbauer - 2.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4111, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4228 and the pending motion by Senator Talmadge to concur in the House amendment earlier today.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a point of order. I want to raise scope and object on the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4228. The House amendment adds sexual orientation to the bill, which was not in the bill at the time it passed the Senate--and greatly expands the identification that's in the bill. I would urge the President to rule on the scope and object."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen, the President finds that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4228 is a measure which makes it a crime to maliciously harass a person because of a mental, physical or sensory handicap.

"The amendment proposed by the House of Representatives, makes it a crime to maliciously harass someone because of three additional categories--age, sex and sexual orientation.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The House of Representatives amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4228 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "There's still life in the old bill."

Senator McDonald: "There's still life in the old bill? I'll read my Reed's Rules a little more carefully then."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Warnke that the Senate adhere to its position on Engrossed House Joint Memorial No. 16 and once again asks the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDermott, I don't know the figures. Could you enlighten us on the amount of money we're talking about? Is this the equivalent of the state employees' IRA plans that could be invested?"

Senator McDermott: "Yes, basically it is possible, now, for people to set part of their salary aside in a deferred compensation plan and it is being invested. There is no provision for the state to do it themselves. This bill would allow them to do that and use an inter-fund loan for the administration of that, which would be paid back out of the earnings."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I'm really asking this question for Senator Clarke and some of the rest of us around here. This makes no provision for those over seventy, does it? I mean, we're left out in the cold with nothing to take care of our old age and I was wondering if you had something to include in that bill—that maybe is needed."

Senator McDermott: "Senator Rasmussen, I have the feeling that you're never going to take any pension out of this place. You're going to work here forever."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I'd like to save something for my old age, if I could earn some interest."

Senator McDermott: "When will that start?"

Senator Rasmussen: "A few years from now."

We've had an act relating to sales and use taxation; now we have an act related to taxation on coin and bullion investments. It's my understanding that that's not proper—that we cannot amend that before the semicolon, and I wonder if the policy has changed—or what is the policy?"

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 105, by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Representatives Martinis, B. Williams and Stratton) (by Department of Game request)

Eliminating counties' option to collect in-lieu property taxes on game department lands.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the following Committee on Natural Resources amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 97, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 36, chapter 78, Laws of 1980 and RCW 77.12.201 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of a county may elect, by giving written notice to the director and the treasurer prior to January 1st of any year, to obtain for the following year an amount in lieu of real property taxes on game lands (~~equal to that which would be paid on similar parcels of real property situated in the county~~) as provided in RCW 77.12.203. Upon the election, all fines and forfeitures received by the county during that year under RCW 77.12.170 shall be deposited in the state treasury to be credited to the state game fund. The election shall continue until the department is notified differently prior to January 1st of any year.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 97, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 37, chapter 78, Laws of 1980 and RCW 77.12.203 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding RCW 84.36.010 or other statutes to the contrary, the director shall pay by April 30th of each year on game lands in each county, if requested by an election under RCW 77.12.201, an amount in lieu of real property taxes equal to that amount paid on similar parcels of ((real property subject to real property taxes)) open space land taxable under chapter 84.34 RCW or the greater of seventy cents per acre per year or the amount paid in 1984. This amount shall not be assessed or paid on department buildings, structures, facilities, game farms, fish hatcheries, tidelands, or public fishing areas of less than one hundred acres.

"Game lands," as used in this section and RCW 77.12.201, means those tracts one hundred acres or larger owned in fee by the department and used for wildlife habitat and public recreational purposes.

~~((The director has the same rights of appeal and adjustment of taxes or assessments as do other owners of real property:~~

~~Upon election by the county legislative authority to receive an amount in lieu of real property taxes, the county assessor shall enter the property on the tax rolls and the department shall pay the amount due as others pay taxes on their real property in the county:))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act takes effect on January 1, 1985."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Patterson, the following amendment to the Committee on Natural Resources amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 27, after "purposes," insert:

"All lands purchased for wildlife habitat, public access or recreation purposes with federal funds in the Snake River drainage basin shall be considered game lands regardless of acreage."

On motion of Senator Hansen, the following amendment to the Committee on Natural Resources amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 15, after "1984" insert "plus an additional amount for control of noxious weeds equal to that which would be paid if such lands were privately owned"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Natural Resources amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Owen carried and the Committee on Natural Resources amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 105, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Owen, I'm sorry I don't have an idea of the thirteen counties that have already done this. Could you indicate--I guess I would be interested in what the situation is down in Clark, Skamania and Klickitat."

Senator Owen: "I can't recall which they are. There are four counties that are under open space right now, and I can't recall which four they are."

Senator Zimmerman: "But as far as being in lieu--"

Senator Owen: "In lieu of property taxes? Very few are actually taking the game fine."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Owen, it wasn't quite clear as you explained the bill but it seems like a reasonable approach to me--provided this is a county option. Is that correct?"

Senator Owen: "That's correct."

Senator Barr: "The way I understand it then, and the effects of it would be that the counties would be protected in that they wouldn't have to take less than what they got in '84 and the Game Department would be protected from future increases. If that's true then, and that would seem like a reasonable compromise at this point, then I would favor--if that's true."

Senator Owen: "That's correct. Originally, they were asking to actually have it reduced, either by putting it into open space or seventy cents an acre, but the compromised agreement was that they would choose between any of these categories, whichever one that they wanted and then they would be set at that rate."

Senator Barr: "Thank you and then that does protect the Game Department though, from any future increases?"

Senator Owen: "Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Owen, you indicated that they could make a choice--seventy cents an acre. How did they arrive at that figure of seventy cents an acre?"

Senator Owen: "I believe that the Department of Game was trying to come up with a rate that was somewhat similar to what they were paying presently, or what they would be paying under open space, and that's where they came up with the seventy cents."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, what I was wondering--seventy cents per acre seems to be quite a bit more than the timber companies are paying at the present time and I wondered why they were going to pay that exorbitant rate--seventy cents? Timber companies pay, maybe, about nine cents an acre in a large number of cases."

Senator Owen: "O.K."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I didn't want the Game Department to be gouged by the Legislature."

Senator Owen: "Did you have a question, Senator Rasmussen?"

Senator Rasmussen: "That was it. Why the difference? Timber companies pay only nine cents an acre and the Game Department is required to pay seventy cents."

Senator Owen: "I guess I don't understand the comparison you are making. Timber companies, also, pay a yield tax besides whatever rate that they pay on the land. The Department of Game's land should have, in my opinion and the opinion of others, been allowed to go under open space when the open space legislation was passed. However, many of the counties have been extremely reluctant to do that. And really that's what they are doing, they are providing a public resource to the public and should be under open space. However, the counties have been reluctant to do that, but really I don't see where there's an analogy between that and the timber companies."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, it's hard to understand, I agree. Thank you, Senator Owen."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 105, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 105, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 00; absent, 00; excused, 05.

After the expiration of three years from the date of delinquency, when any property remains on the tax rolls for which no certificate of delinquency has been issued, the county treasurer shall proceed to issue certificates of delinquency on said property to the county for all years' taxes, interest, and costs: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer, with the consent of the county legislative authority, may elect to issue a certificate for fewer than all years' taxes, interest, and costs to a minimum of the taxes, interest, and costs for the earliest year.

The change to a three-year grace period shall first be effective on May 1, 1983. Prior to that date, the county treasurer shall send a notice to all taxpayers with taxes delinquent for two years or more, notifying them of the change in the grace period. The treasurer shall file said certificates when completed with the clerk of the court, and the treasurer shall thereupon, with such legal assistance as the county legislative authority shall provide in counties having a population of thirty thousand or more, and with the assistance of the county prosecuting attorney in counties having a population of less than thirty thousand, proceed to foreclose in the name of the county, the tax liens embraced in such certificates, and the same proceedings shall be had as when held by an individual: PROVIDED, That notice and summons must be served or notice given in a manner reasonably calculated to inform the owner or owners of the foreclosure action. Either (1) personal service upon the owner or owners or (2) publication once in a newspaper of general circulation, which is circulated in the area of the property and mailing of notice by certified mail to the owner or owners or, if a mailing address is unavailable, personal service upon the occupant of the property, if any, is sufficient. In addition to describing the property as the same is described on the tax rolls, the notice must include the local street address, if any. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to mail a copy of the published summons, within fifteen days after the first publication thereof, to the treasurer of each city or town within which any property involved in a tax foreclosure is situated, but the treasurer's failure to do so shall not affect the jurisdiction of the court nor the priority of any tax sought to be foreclosed. Said certificates of delinquency issued to the county may be issued in one general certificate in book form including all property, and the proceedings to foreclose the liens against said property may be brought in one action and all persons interested in any of the property involved in said proceedings may be made codefendants in said action, and if unknown may be therein named as unknown owners, and the publication of such notice shall be sufficient service thereof on all persons interested in the property described therein, except as provided above. The person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners of said property shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and if upon said treasurer's rolls it appears that the owner or owners of said property are unknown, then said property shall be proceeded against, as belonging to an unknown owner or owners, as the case may be, and all persons owning or claiming to own, or having or claiming to have an interest therein, are hereby required to take notice of said proceedings and of any and all steps thereunder: PROVIDED, That, at least thirty days prior to the sale of the property, if such property is shown on the tax rolls under unknown owners or as having an assessed value of three thousand dollars or more, the treasurer shall order or conduct a title search of the property to be sold to determine the legal description of the property to be sold and the record title holder, and if the record title holder or holders differ from the person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners, the record title holder or holders shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and shall be entitled to the notice provided for in this section.

The county treasurer shall not issue certificates of delinquency upon property (~~owned and occupied as a principal place of residence by a person sixty-two years of age or older~~) which is eligible for deferral of taxes under chapter 84.38 RCW but shall require the owner of the property to file a declaration to defer taxes under chapter 84.38 RCW."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4340, by Senator Gaspard

Taxing the possession for sale or use of marijuana and controlled substances.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4340 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4340 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Hayner moved that the following amendment by Senators Hayner and Gaspard be adopted:

On page 2, line 7, after "information" insert: "which has been voluntarily provided to the department by an individual seeking to pay the tax imposed by section 3 of this Act"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Gaspard, it's not clear to me. I thought the tax was going to be imposed after the arrest rather than prior to. I can think of that fellow that's renting an apartment—he's got his lights in there and he's raising marijuana and he can go in now, as I understand this, and pay the tax on it voluntarily—after this legislation and it will not be revealed to the law enforcement agencies. Is that the way it works?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Rasmussen, the proposal that we have in front of us would put a use tax on the use and sale of controlled substances and marijuana. Now, if someone should voluntarily come in to pay that tax, which in all candidness is very unlikely to happen here—from past experience to not have anybody to come in and volunteer to pay that tax. But if that should happen, under the Constitution, the rights then would be for the individuals to have that as confidential information."

Senator Rasmussen: "They'd be paying a marijuana tax just like they'd be paying a cigarette tax."

Senator Gaspard: "That is true, but that does not relieve them of any possibility of criminal prosecution at all."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, I'm confused."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Hayner and Gaspard.

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator McDonald moved that the following amendment be adopted:
On page 1, line 7, after "That" strike "No"

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McDonald.

The motion by Senator McDonald failed and the amendment was not adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "May I ask another question please, of Senator Gaspard? Senator Gaspard, this press release out of the Spokane Chronicle that was laid on our desks says that 'all state and local law enforcement agencies would be required by law to notify the state Department of Revenue of each person found in possession of illegal drugs.' Now, that's a one-way street. All state and local law enforcement agencies would be required to notify the Department of Revenue and then, in turn, we're telling the Department of Revenue that you do not have to notify the state and local law enforcement agencies. I don't see that one-way street. I think it should be a two-way street. Do you have an explanation?"

Senator Gaspard: "Yes, I do, Senator Rasmussen. First, that this is not a press release. This is an editorial that appeared in the Spokane Chronicle, March 2, 1984. Secondly, I thought that we tried our best to cover that issue in the amendment that was offered by Senator McDonald.

"The proposed bill that you have in front of you requires local law enforcement agencies to submit to the Department of Revenue a list of those individuals who are found to be in possession of marijuana or a controlled substance and would be a malice—that is, found to be in possession. From that point, then, the Department of Revenue will send out a notice of tax due and they'll operate just like any other tax structure that we have in the state of Washington.

"Now, as a result of the amendment that Senator Hayner and I sponsored, if the Department should come across some information that was not voluntarily given to them as a result of someone volunteering to pay their tax, that type of information probably could be passed on."

Senator Rasmussen: "I'm still in the forest—lost among the marijuana weeds."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Haley, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 21, after "person" insert "illegally"

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4340 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Gaspard, a couple of questions--just to clarify. Do you regard this as a deterrent measure or a revenue measure or both?"

Senator Gaspard: "I regard this as both. It has the laudable purpose, I think, of raising funds for drug education, rehabilitation and law enforcement, as I mentioned before. Also, I think that law enforcement will look at it as a deterrent of those individuals who are involved in this type of activity."

Senator Deccio: "The other question, you mentioned '--by reference.' Did you mean that we would have to license them before we could find them?"

Senator Gaspard: "No. Senator Deccio, when I gave those comments that was in regard to the Arizona statutes. This proposed statute that I have submitted to the body does not have anything in it about the licensure requirement."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Peterson and Shinpoch demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4340.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4340, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 10; absent, 00; excused, 04.

(1) If ~~(the)~~ an injury to a worker for which benefits and compensation are provided under this title is due to the negligence or wrong of a third person not in the same employ, the injured worker or beneficiary may elect to seek damages from the third person.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter, "injury" shall include any physical or mental condition, disease, ailment or loss, including death, for which compensation and benefits are paid or payable under this title.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 211, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An election not to proceed against the third person operates as an assignment of the cause of action to the department or self-insurer, which may prosecute or compromise the action in its discretion in the name of the injured worker, beneficiary or legal representative.

(2) If an injury to a worker results in the worker's death, the department or self-insurer to which the cause of action has been assigned may petition a court for the appointment of a special personal representative for the limited purpose of maintaining an action under this chapter and chapter 4.20 RCW.

(3) If a beneficiary is a minor child, an election not to proceed against a third person on such beneficiary's cause of action may be exercised by the beneficiary's legal custodian or guardian.

(4) Any ~~(award or settlement recovered)~~ recovery made by the department or self-insurer shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The department or self-insurer shall be paid the expenses incurred in making the recovery including reasonable costs of legal services;

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the ~~(award or settlement)~~ recovery made, which shall not be subject to subsection ~~((3))~~ (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the compensation and benefits paid to or on behalf of the injured worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer; and

(d) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid any remaining balance.

~~((3))~~ (5) Thereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation ~~(or)~~ and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no ~~(third party person claim)~~ recovery had been made from a third person.

~~((4))~~ (6) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation or benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(7) When the cause of action has been assigned to the self-insurer and compensation and benefits have been paid and/or are payable from state funds for the same injury:

(a) The prosecution of such cause of action shall also be for the benefit of the department to the extent of compensation and benefits paid and payable from state funds;

(b) Any compromise or settlement of such cause of action which results in less than the entitlement under this title is void unless made with the written approval of the department;

(c) The department shall be reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid from state funds;

(d) The department shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the self-insurer in obtaining the award or settlement; and

(e) Any remaining balance under subsection (4)(d) of this section shall be applied, under subsection (5) of this section, to reduce the obligations of the department and self-insurer to pay further compensation and benefits in proportion to which the obligations of each bear to the remaining entitlement of the worker or beneficiary.

Sec. 5, Section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 211, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((In an action by the injured worker or beneficiary against the third person))~~ If the injured worker or beneficiary elects to seek damages from the third person, any ~~((award or settlement))~~ recovery made shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The costs and reasonable attorneys' fees shall be paid proportionately by the injured worker or beneficiary and the department and/or self-insurer;

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the award: PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the ~~((award))~~ recovery made, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department and/or self-insurer for compensation ~~((or))~~ and benefits paid;

(i) The department and/or self-insurer shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the ~~((claimant))~~ worker or beneficiary to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title: PROVIDED, That the department or self-insurer may require court approval of costs and attorneys' fees or may petition a court for determination of the reasonableness of costs and attorneys' fees.

(ii) The sum representing the department's and/or self-insurer's proportionate share shall not be subject to subsection (1) (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Any remaining balance shall be paid to the injured worker or beneficiary;

(e) Thereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation ~~((or))~~ and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no ~~((third party person claim))~~ recovery had been made from a third person.

(2) The ~~((award or settlement))~~ recovery made shall be subject to a lien by the department and/or self-insurer for its share under this section.

(3) The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien. In deciding whether or to what extent to compromise its lien, the department or self-insurer shall consider at least the following:

(a) The likelihood of collection of the award or settlement as may be affected by insurance coverage, solvency, or other factors relating to the third person;

(b) Factual and legal issues of liability as between the injured worker or beneficiary and the third person. Such issues include but are not limited to possible contributory negligence and novel theories of liability; and

(c) Problems of proof faced in obtaining the award or settlement.

(4) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation ~~((or))~~ and benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(5) In an action under this section, the self-insurer may act on behalf and for the benefit of the department to the extent of any compensation and benefits paid or payable from state funds.

(6) It shall be the duty of the person to whom any recovery is paid before distribution under this section to advise the department or self-insurer of the fact and amount of such recovery, the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees associated with the recovery, and to distribute the recovery in compliance with this section.

(7) The distribution of any recovery made by award or settlement of the third party action shall be confirmed by department order, served by registered or certified mail, and shall be subject to chapter 51.52 RCW. In the event the order of distribution becomes final under chapter 51.52 RCW, the director or the director's designee may file with the clerk of any county within the state a warrant in the amount of the sum representing the unpaid lien plus interest accruing from the date the order became final. The clerk of the county in which the warrant is filed shall immediately designate a superior court cause number for such warrant and the clerk shall cause to be entered in the judgment docket under the superior court cause number assigned to the warrant, the name of such worker or beneficiary mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the unpaid lien plus interest accrued and the date when the warrant was filed. The amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and personal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execution or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

(8) The director, or the director's designee, may issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind if he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, property which is due, owing, or belonging to any worker or beneficiary upon whom a warrant has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any authorized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state upon whom service has been made shall answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with such notice and order, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's authorized representative upon demand. If the party served and named in the notice and order fails to answer the notice and order within the time prescribed in this section, the court may, after the time to answer such order has expired, render judgment by default against the party named in the notice for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice together with costs. In the event that a notice to withhold and deliver is served upon an employer and the property found to be subject thereto is wages, the employer may assert in the answer to all exemptions provided for by chapter 7.33 RCW to which the wage earner may be entitled.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department or self-insurer may require the injured worker or beneficiary to exercise the right of election under this chapter by serving a written demand by registered mail, certified mail, or personal service on the worker or beneficiary.

(2) Unless an election is made within sixty days of the receipt of the demand, and unless an action is instituted or settled within the time granted by the department or self-insurer, the injured worker or beneficiary is deemed to have assigned the action to the department or self-insurer. The department or self-insurer shall allow the worker or beneficiary at least ninety days from the election to institute or settle the action. When a beneficiary is a minor child the demand shall be served upon the legal custodian or guardian of such beneficiary.

(3) If an action which has been filed is not diligently prosecuted, the department or self-insurer may petition the court in which the action is pending for an order assigning the cause of action to the department or self-insurer. Upon a sufficient showing of a lack of diligent prosecution the court in its discretion may issue the order.

(4) If the department or self-insurer has taken an assignment of the third party cause of action under subsection (2) of this section, the injured worker or beneficiary may, at the discretion of the department or self-insurer, exercise a right of reelection and assume the cause of action subject to reimbursement of litigation expenses incurred by the department or self-insurer.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any compromise or settlement of the third party cause of action by the injured worker or beneficiary which results in less than the entitlement under this title is void unless made with the written approval of the department or self-insurer: PROVIDED, That for the purposes of this chapter, "entitlement" means benefits and compensation paid and payable.

(2) If a compromise or settlement is void because of subsection (1) of this section, the department or self-insurer may petition the court in which the action was filed for an order assigning the cause of action to the department or self-insurer. If an action has not been filed, the department or self-insurer may proceed as provided in chapter 7.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 51.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department may adopt, amend, and rescind under chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 51.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This act applies to all causes of action against third persons in which judgment or settlement of the underlying action has not taken place before the effective date of this act."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "insurance," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 51.24.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 31, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.020; amending section 1, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.030; amending section 3, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 211, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.24.050; amending section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 211, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.24.060; amending section 5, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.070; amending section 7, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.090; and adding new sections to chapter 51.24 RCW."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1984

Mr. President:

The House insists on its position regarding the House amendments to SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3815 and asks the Senate to concur therein, and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON L. CASE, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Granlund moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3815.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Granlund, this is about $157,000 and, of course, it involves more prisoners than the state would otherwise be able to incarcerate in their existing facilities. I presume. In other words, less persons for which we would have to use our early release at the other end. Under what portion of the budget are we looking at for these extra prisoners that we're going to be able to house in the local jail?"

Senator Granlund: "Senator Lee, the main thrust for this particular bill is to put language in for the state's responsibility. Over the years, when state prisoners have been picked up--say for revocation or something like that--the counties have been stuck with housing them. I became interested in this about three years ago when I sat in on a revocation hearing in Pierce County and the state had one of their prisoners who had been there for a hundred days--and the county, at that time, was stuck with that funding for that prisoner. This is a definition of county and state's responsibility--for whose fiscal responsibility it is. We are not getting into the area of whether counties should subcontract with the state for taking some of the overflow of the prisoners from state institutions. This is a definition of whose responsibility a prisoner is."

Senator Lee: "But, is there some additional expense over what it was--let's say a year ago?"

Senator Granlund: "What it is--yes--the state will have to pay--the Department of Corrections will pay for their responsibility for having escaped prisoners in a county or city jail. It really is clarifying of state law--what that responsibility is. May I just continue one minute, Senator Lee? The reason why the Senate has backed down on that appropriation is that we feel the main thrust of this bill, at this point, is to be sure that the delineation of fiscal responsibility is there in law, and so we would like to see that done this session."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Lee, you're saying that perhaps under Initiative 62, we would be required or should be required to pay this money--in terms of the fact that we're not going to appropriate to Corrections the money that they would have to pay out. Consequently, it puts the burden on local government to pay?"

Senator Lee: "The state is going to have to pay these bills--that's what the act does that Senator Granlund was explaining to us. It would require the state to pay the cost of state prisoners in county jails under certain circumstances. She is urging us to concur in the House amendment which removes the money as an additional appropriation to the Department of Corrections and saying that that should have to come out of their existing funds. So we will still have to pay the bill. That's what the law would require. What we're talking about right now is whether or not to concur in the House amendment. The House amendment removes the appropriation for that purpose."

Senator Zimmerman: "At this point then, $157,325 is not being appropriated and consequently must come out of the Correction's budget or it's just not there somehow--we're omitting that hole then?"

Senator Lee: "If this House amendment is adopted, that would be the case."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator McDermott, what you're saying then, based on a conversation I just had with Senator Granlund, the important thing is to have the language in the bill which gives direction as to how you're going to deal with state prisoners in county jails?"

Senator McDermott: "Yes, we would have referenced this in the budget itself had we recognized how much the House was going to push on this issue, but I think it is critical that this bill pass, so that there is a definition, because otherwise you will have the state fighting with your local counties saying 'it's not our responsibility--they're yours as long as they're there--and you've got to pay for them--we pay for them when we take them on a chain to Walla Walla.' In many counties, this is going to strain their budget and I think it is really important to county government that there be a definition in the law."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Granlund demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Granlund to concur in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3815.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Granlund carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3815 by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 14; absent, 01; excused, 04.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody - 30.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Craswell, Fuller, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Patterson, Sellar, Zimmerman - 14.

Absent: Senator Newhouse - 1.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Pullen, Quigg, von Reichbauer - 4.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Senator McDermott, since we have struck the appropriation, we probably don't have a fiscal note any more and in that fiscal note, as I remember, there were long discussions about what the counties were going to charge us and what we were going to pay per day. Whereas the average cost was somewhere around forty dollars per day, we were actually going to pay them ten dollars per day, which is their marginal cost. Is that still your interpretation of what we are going to pay and what the deal was?"

Senator McDermott: "My understanding is that we will arrange to pay a minimal amount--around the figure of ten dollars a day--and this would cover the marginal cost above what they would pay in the past."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3815, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3815, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 00; absent, 00; excused, 04.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Pullen, Quigg, von Reichbauer - 4.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1275 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Rinehart, in the brief here, it states that the sales tax ranges from 5.9 to 8.1 percent. Where is it that they have that tremendously high sales tax?"

Senator Rinehart: "In King County."

Senator Rasmussen: "King County is noted as having the highest sales tax in the state?"

Senator Rinehart: "I think there are others that pay that same high rate."

Senator Rasmussen: "I'd move my floating home out of there."

Senator Rinehart: "Sir, you can't. There are only a certain number of moorages and that's one of the problems that those people face. You can't pick them up and move them."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1275.

MOTION

Senator Shinpoch moved that the following amendment be adopted:
On page 6, line 20, after "fund" strike everything through "chapter" on line 22.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Haley: "Senator Shinpoch, you have me a little confused. One minute you are very much opposed and the next minute you seem to think it's all right to have dedicated funds. For instance, that bill yesterday--about taxing marijuana. You didn't seem to object at all about the dedicated funds. Could you explain your position on that, please?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, Senator Haley, every one that I find, I draw an amendment to take it out. I don't think I should be totally responsible to see that the Legislature does not set up dedicated funds. I think you have to accept some responsibility to help me do this."

Senator Haley: "I tried to bring it to your attention yesterday, unsuccessfully."

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Bottiger is very good when he's around in trying to catch them, but I don't catch them all."

MOTION

Senator Shinpoch moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 7, line 35, reinsert all the stricken language through "~~((regulations))~~" on page 8, line 3.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Owen: "Senator Talmadge, throughout the state, there are gravel pits that are inactive, and the Department knows where they're at--and the language refers to the inspection, et cetera of these surface mines. Is it your intent that those inactive mines would have to be continued under this process and continued to be inspected also?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, it would not be, Senator Owen. In fact, the language that was stricken by the Department said that upon the receipt of the operator's report--and most significantly--any other reasonable kinds, the Department may elect--the Department shall cause the permit area to be inspected to determine if the reclamation report had been complied with. So, there is discretion in the Department if the gravel pit is inactive to not require such an inspection."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Shinpoch.

The motion by Senator Shinpoch carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed Substitute House Bill No. 480, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Modifying provisions regarding public lands.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Owen moved adoption of the following Committee on Natural Resources amendment:

On page 1, line 21, after "acquire" insert "forest or agricultural"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Vognild, is there another option that the Department has other than the three that have been indicated--forest land, agricultural land or building and leasing?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator Deccio, I assume you are talking about the option that Senator Hayner was just talking about investing. Yes, on the transitional lands and the money involved there, they certainly can invest it. They have a rather interesting record, I think. In the year 1980, the investment board yielded 11.96 percent on the money that was invested there. And in the first nine months of 1981, which is the current figure we could get available, the yield was 14.25. That money can be invested in that manner and then invested back into agricultural and forest land and at a later time when the purchase is better."

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the Committee on Natural Resources amendment.

ROLL CALL

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hayner, Hemstad, McDonald, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Shinpoch, Thompson, Zimmerman - 22.

Absent: Senator Sellar - 1.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Pullen, Quigg, von Reichbauer - 4.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the following Committee on Natural Resources amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 25, after "diversity" strike everything down to and including "trusts" on line 26 and insert "of public uses on the trust lands"

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the following Committee on Natural Resources amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 27, after "shall" strike "consider" and insert "comply with"

On page 4, line 9, after "shall" strike "consider" and insert "adhere to"

On page 4, line 9, after "existing" insert "local"

On page 4, line 9, after "plans" insert ", zoning classifications, and duly adopted local policies"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Owen, this amendment--'after shall, strike consider, then insert comply with.'--would it be your intent that this would say they could not apply for a variance or apply for a change in zoning?"

Senator Owen: "In answer to your question, Senator Rasmussen, the intent of all these amendments is to see to it that the Department of Natural Resources is treated the same as anybody else that went before the local government. They would have to comply with the regulations--the ordinances of the local government.

"The intent would be, in my opinion, that they would have to go in and request a variance--they could not just do that on their own. The way the language is now it's not clear that they must deal with the local government and they must comply with the local government. So, in answer to your question, they would have to go before the local government, but I would interpret it to mean that they could be granted a variance."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the four Committee on Natural Resources amendments.

The motion by Senator Owen carried and the committee amendments were adopted.

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the following Committee on Natural Resources amendment be adopted:

On page 4, line 10, after "identification" insert "and determining the fair market value of the property"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Owen, I thought I just heard the amendments on page 4, line 9 adopted, and it seems to me like when we're talking about zoning classifications, we talk about existing local comprehensive plans and zoning classifications as duly adopted local policies. I don't find any place in that that necessarily talks about open spaces and I didn't understand your comment relative to open spaces. When you talk about zoning, that's not normally an open space. Would you, maybe, clarify a misunderstanding?"

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President, since I sponsored this amendment in committee, perhaps I can answer Senator Shinpoch. The amendment will require that the DNR determines the fair market value of the property that it expects to convert, based upon its zoning designation.

"The intent here is that if a city or a town wants to purchase that property as part of their plan or for an open space that they are planning, that they will then be able to purchase it and it will be marketed at its value as zoned, as opposed to the Department saying that we believe that this is potentially commercial land, and if it were zoned differently it would be valued as commercial land and, therefore, that is the value we place on it and if you--Mr. City or County--wish to buy it, that is the price you're going to pay. It simply says that it must be assessed at its value under its present zoning. If the city or county want to purchase, they can't change the zone to suddenly make it less than its present zoning."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Thompson: "Senator Vognild, I guess I understand that, with this amendment, local government--cities--couldn't be prevailed upon to change the zoning in a way to enhance the value of the property. Could they, under this language, downgrade it if they want to disadvantage the Department and obtain, in effect, a lower value by that means?"

Senator Vognild: "Well, my intent by the amendment is certainly not to have that happen. The amendment is an attempt to indicate that as the property is zoned in the city or county's comprehensive plan that that is the market value that will be established if the city or county wishes to buy it--as presently zoned."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Vognild, the problem with zoning is that there may be a county or city or a portion of one, which is in the process of doing a comprehensive rezone and it may be that--say next year--this comprehensive rezone is completed. Then two years after that, or three years after that, the issue of a particular piece of land owned by DNR may come up. What zoning classification would the land then be considered under? The one that exists today at the time, if the law should pass, or the one where the rezoning is taking place a year later, but the desire to purchase it, does not take place until sometime in the future?"

Senator Vognild: "Well, it would be my belief here, Senator, that the zoning at the time that the land is put up for sale would be the zoning that would prevail. If DNR decides that a particular piece of land is surplus to their needs and unmanageable--whatever they decide--and they decide to put it up for sale, if a city or a county--and I think it's important we identify that--if a city or a county wishes to purchase that land because it is a part of their comprehensive plan, it's part of their open land or green belt, then they are entitled to purchase it at the fair market value of the current zoning.

"What I'm concerned about here, and I think we all should be concerned, is that that land could be estimated by DNR or a developer or anybody, that the land is now eligible for industrial development--if we could just get the zone changed, as there may possibly be people who would be willing to speculate on a zone change. That speculation may force cities and counties out and they may not be able to purchase the land. If they purchase it, they're going to hold it in open lands or a green belt, and I think that's the way it should be."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Natural Resources amendment.

The motion by Senator Owen carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Owen, the following Committee on Natural Resources amendment was adopted:

(b) ((The summons shall state a date and time to appear not less than twenty-four hours after the service of the summons. The summons)) Whenever it appears, by petition for initial detention, to the satisfaction of a judge of the superior court that a person presents, as a result of a mental disorder, a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself, or is gravely disabled, and that the person has refused or failed to accept appropriate evaluation and treatment voluntarily, the judge may issue an order requiring the person to appear not less than twenty-four hours after service of the order at a designated evaluation and treatment facility for not more than a seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment period. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) A person who knowingly makes an extortionate extension of credit is guilty of a class B felony.

(2) In a prosecution under this section, if it is shown that all of the following factors are present in connection with the extension of credit, there is prima facie evidence that the extension of credit was extortionate:

(a) The repayment of the extension of credit, or the performance of any promise given in consideration thereof, would be unenforceable at the time the extension of credit was made through civil judicial processes against the debtor in the county in which the debtor, if a natural person, resided or in every county in which the debtor, if other than a natural person, was incorporated or qualified to do business.

(b) The extension of credit was made at a rate of interest in excess of an annual rate of forty-five percent calculated according to the actuarial method of allocating payments made on a debt between principal and interest, pursuant to which a payment is applied first to the accumulated interest and the balance is applied to the unpaid principal.

(c) At the time the extension of credit was made, the debtor reasonably believed that either of the following:

(i) One or more extensions of credit by the creditor had been collected or attempted to be collected by extortionate means, or the nonrepayment had been punished by extortionate means.

(ii) The creditor had a reputation for the use of extortionate means to collect extensions of credit or to punish the nonrepayment thereof.

(d) Upon the making of the extension of credit, the total of the extensions of credit by the creditor to the debtor then outstanding, including any unpaid interest or similar charges, exceeded one hundred dollars.

(3) In a prosecution under this section, if evidence has been introduced tending to show the existence of any of the circumstances described in subsection (2)(a) or (b) of this section, and direct evidence of the actual belief of the debtor as to the creditor's collection practices is not available, then for the purpose of showing the understanding of the debtor and the creditor at the time the extension of credit was made, the court may in its discretion allow evidence to be introduced tending to show the reputation as to collection practices of the creditor in any community of which the debtor was a member at the time of the extension.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A person who knowingly participates in any way in the use of any extortionate means to collect or attempt to collect any extensions of credit or to punish any person for the nonrepayment thereof, is guilty of a class B felony.

(2) In a prosecution under this section, for the purpose of showing an implicit threat as a means of collection, evidence may be introduced tending to show that one or more extensions of credit by the creditor were, to the knowledge of the person against whom the implicit threat was alleged to have been made, collected or attempted to be collected by extortionate means or that the nonrepayment was punished by extortionate means.

(3) In a prosecution under this section, if evidence has been introduced tending to show the existence at the time the extension of credit in question was made of the circumstances described in section 2(2)(a) or (b) of this act, and direct evidence of the actual belief of the debtor as to the creditor's collection practices is not available, then for the purpose of showing that words or other means of communication, shown to have been employed as a means of collection, in fact carried an express or implicit threat, the court may in its discretion allow evidence to be introduced tending to show the reputation of the defendant in any community of which the person against whom the alleged threat was made was a member at the time of the collection or attempt at collection.

The judge so designated shall promptly assign the action for hearing, participate in the hearings and determination, and cause the action to be expedited.

(9) The standard of proof in actions brought pursuant to this section is the preponderance of the evidence test.

(10) A person other than the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney who files an action under this section shall serve notice and one copy of the pleading on the attorney general within thirty days after the action is filed with the superior court. The notice shall identify the action, the person, and the person's attorney. Service of the notice does not limit or otherwise affect the right of the state to maintain an action under this section or intervene in a pending action nor does it authorize the person to name the state or the attorney general as a party to the action.

(11) Except in cases filed by a county prosecuting attorney, the attorney general may, upon timely application, intervene in any civil action or proceeding brought under this section if the attorney general certifies that in the attorney general's opinion the action is of special public importance. Upon intervention, the attorney general may assert any available claim and is entitled to the same relief as if the attorney general had instituted a separate action.

(12) In addition to the attorney general's right to intervene as a party in any action under this section, the attorney general may appear as amicus curiae in any proceeding in which a claim under this section has been asserted or in which a court is interpreting section 1, 8, 9, 11, or 12 of this act, or this section.

(13) A civil action under this section is remedial and does not limit any other civil or criminal action under this chapter or any other provision. Civil remedies provided under this section are supplemental and not mutually exclusive.

(14) In bringing a civil action under this chapter, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may grant a witness immunity in exchange for testimony in the civil case. The immunity bars the use or derivative use of the witness' testimony in any subsequent criminal prosecution of the witness except for perjury or false swearing committed during the course of the testimony.

When the fund exceeds seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, all funds in excess of the seven hundred fifty thousand dollars shall be deposited in the state general fund.

(c) The moneys in the fund shall be used by the attorney general for the investigation and prosecution of any offense, within the jurisdiction of the attorney general, included in the definition of racketeering, including civil enforcement.

(2) (a) The county legislative authority may establish an antiracketeering revolving fund to be administered by the county prosecuting attorney under the conditions and for the purposes provided by this subsection. (d) The moneys in the fund shall be used by the county prosecuting attorney for the investigation and prosecution of any offense, within the jurisdiction of the county prosecuting attorney, included in the definition of racketeering, including civil enforcement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The state, upon filing a civil action under section 10 of this act, may file in accordance with this section a racketeering lien. A filing fee or other charge is not required for filing a racketeering lien.

(2) A racketeering lien shall be signed by the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney representing the state in the action and shall set forth the following information:

(a) The name of the defendant whose property or other interests are to be subject to the lien;

(b) In the discretion of the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, any aliases or fictitious names of the defendant named in the lien;

(c) If known to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, the present residence or principal place of business of the person named in the lien;

(d) A reference to the proceeding pursuant to which the lien is filed, including the name of the court, the title of the action, and the court's file number for the proceeding;

(e) The name and address of the attorney representing the state in the proceeding pursuant to which the lien is filed;

(f) A statement that the notice is being filed pursuant to this section;

(g) The amount which the state claims in the action or, with respect to property or other interests which the state has requested forfeiture to the state or county, a description of the property or interests sought to be paid or forfeited;

(h) If known to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, a description of property which is subject to forfeiture to the state or property in which the defendant has an interest which is available to satisfy a judgment entered in favor of the state; and

(i) Such other information as the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien deems appropriate.

(3) The attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney filing the lien may amend a lien filed under this section at any time by filing an amended racketeering lien in accordance with this section which identifies the prior lien amended.

(4) The attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney filing the lien shall, as soon as practical after filing a racketeering lien, furnish to any person named in the lien a notice of the filing of the lien. Failure to furnish notice under this subsection does not invalidate or otherwise affect a racketeering lien filed in accordance with this section.

(5) A racketeering lien is perfected against interests in personal property by filing the lien with the department of licensing. A racketeering lien is perfected against interests in real property by filing the lien with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located. The state may give such additional notice of the lien as it deems appropriate.

(6) The filing of a racketeering lien in accordance with this section creates a lien in favor of the state in:

(a) Any interest of the defendant, in real property situated in the county in which the lien is filed, then maintained, or thereafter acquired in the name of the defendant identified in the lien;

(b) Any interest of the defendant, in personal property situated in this state, then maintained or thereafter acquired in the name of the defendant identified in the lien; and

(c) Any property identified in the lien to the extent of the defendant's interest therein.

(7) The filing of a racketeering lien under this section is notice to all persons dealing with the person or property identified in the lien of the state's claim. The lien created in favor of the state in accordance with this section is superior and prior to the claims or interests of any other person, except a person possessing:

(a) A valid lien perfected prior to the filing of the racketeering lien;

(b) In the case of real property, an interest acquired and recorded prior to the filing of the racketeering lien; or

(c) In the case of personal property, an interest acquired prior to the filing of the racketeering lien.

(8) Upon entry of judgment in favor of the state, the state may proceed to execute thereon as in the case of any other judgment, except that in order to preserve the state's lien priority as provided in this section the state shall, in addition to such other notice as is required by law, give at least thirty days' notice of the execution to any person possessing at the time the notice is given, an interest recorded subsequent to the date the state's lien was perfected.

(9) Upon the entry of a final judgment in favor of the state providing for forfeiture of property to the state, the title of the state to the property:

(a) In the case of real property or a beneficial interest in real property, relates back to the date of filing the racketeering lien with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located or, if no racketeering lien is filed, then to the date of recording of the final judgment or the abstract thereof with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located; or

(b) In the case of personal property or a beneficial interest in personal property, relates back to the date the personal property was seized by the state, or the date of filing of a racketeering lien in accordance with this section, whichever is earlier, but if the property was not seized and no racketeering lien was filed then to the date the final judgment was filed with the department of licensing and, if the personal property is an aircraft, with the federal aviation administration.

(10) This section does not limit the right of the state to obtain any order or injunction, receivership, writ, attachment, garnishment, or other remedy authorized under section 10 of this act or appropriate to protect the interests of the state or available under other applicable law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A trustee who receives written notice that a lien notice has been recorded or a civil proceeding or criminal proceeding has been instituted against any person for whom the trustee holds legal or record title to real property, shall immediately furnish to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney the following:

(a) The name and address of the person, as known to the trustee;

(b) To the extent known to the trustee, the name and address of all other persons for whose benefit the trustee holds title to the real property; and

(c) If requested by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney, a copy of the trust agreement or other instrument under which the trustee holds legal or record title to the real property.

(2) The recording of a lien notice shall not constitute a lien on the record title to real property owned by a trustee at the time of recording except to the extent that trustee is named in the lien notice. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may bring a civil proceeding in superior court against the trustee to recover from the trustee the amounts set forth in section 15 of this act. In addition to amounts recovered under section 15 of this act, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney also may recover its investigative costs and attorneys' fees.

(3) The recording of a lien notice does not affect the use to which real property or a beneficial interest owned by the person named in the lien notice may be put or the right of the person to receive any avails, rents, or other proceeds resulting from the use and ownership except the sale of the property, until a judgment of forfeiture is entered.

(4) This section does not apply to any conveyance by a trustee under a court order unless the court order is entered in an action between the trustee and the beneficiary.

(5) Unless a trustee receives written notice that a person having a beneficial interest in the trust is named in a lien notice or is otherwise a defendant in a civil proceeding, this section does not apply to:

(a) A conveyance by a trustee required under the terms of any trust agreement if the trust agreement is a matter of public record before a lien notice is filed; or

(b) A conveyance by a trustee to all persons who have a beneficial interest in the trust.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The term of a lien notice shall be six years from the date the lien notice is recorded. If a renewal lien notice is filed by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney, the term of the renewal lien notice shall be for six years from the date the renewal lien notice is recorded. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney is entitled to only one renewal of the lien notice.

(2) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien notice may release in whole or in part any lien notice or may release any specific property or beneficial interest from the lien notice upon such terms and conditions as the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney considers appropriate. A release of a lien notice executed by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney shall be recorded in the official records in which the lien notice covering that property was recorded. No charge or fee may be imposed for recording any release of a lien notice.

(3) (a) A person named in the lien notice may move the court in which the civil proceeding giving rise to the lien notice is pending for an order extinguishing the lien notice.

(b) Upon the motion of a person under (a) of this subsection, the court immediately shall enter an order setting a date for hearing, which shall be not less than five nor more than ten days after the motion is filed. The order and a copy of the motion shall be served on the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney within three days after the entry of the court's order. At the hearing, the court shall take evidence on the issue of whether any property or beneficial interest owned by the person is covered by the lien notice or otherwise subject to forfeiture under section 12 of this act. If the person shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the lien notice is not applicable to the person or that any property or beneficial interest owned by the person is not subject to forfeiture under section 12 of this act, the court shall enter a judgment extinguishing the lien notice or releasing the property or beneficial interest from the lien notice.

(c) The court may enter an order releasing from the lien notice any specific real property or beneficial interest if, at the time the lien notice is recorded, there is pending an arms length sale of the real property or beneficial interest in which the parties are under no undue compulsion to sell or buy and are able, willing, and reasonably well informed and the sale is for the fair market value of the real property or beneficial interest and the recording of the lien notice prevents the sale of the property or interest. The proceeds resulting from the sale of the real property or beneficial interest shall be deposited with the court, subject to the further order of the court.

(d) At the hearing held pursuant to (b) of this subsection, if the court releases from the lien notice any property or beneficial interest, the person shall post security equal to the fair market value of the property or beneficial interest owned by the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) If a trustee conveys title to real property for which, at the time of the conveyance, a lien notice has been recorded in the county in which the real property is situated and the notice names a person who the trustee knows holds a beneficial interest in the trust, the trustee shall be liable to the state for the greater of:

(a) The amount of proceeds received by the person named in the lien notice as a result of the conveyance;

(b) The amount of proceeds received by the trustee as a result of the conveyance and distributed by the trustee to the person named in the lien notice; or

(c) The fair market value of the interest of the person named in the lien notice in the real property so conveyed.

(2) If the trustee conveys the real property for which a lien notice has been recorded at the time of the conveyance and holds the proceeds that would otherwise be paid or distributed to the beneficiary or at the direction of the beneficiary or beneficiary's designee, the trustee's liability shall not exceed the amount of the proceeds so held so long as the trustee continues to hold the proceeds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A trustee who fails to comply with section 13(1) of this act is guilty of a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) A custodian of the records of a financial institution shall, at no expense to the financial institution, produce for inspection or copying the records in the custody of the financial institution when requested to be inspected by the attorney general or a county prosecuting attorney, provided the person requesting the information has served a subpoena issued by a court or obtained a court order for the information. The attorney general or a county prosecuting attorney or any peace officer or other person designated by the county prosecuting attorney or the attorney general shall be prohibited from using or releasing the information except in the proper discharge of official duties. If directed by the court in the subpoena or court order, neither the custodian nor any other employee of the institution shall disclose to the institution's customer the fact that the customer's records have been examined or copied. The furnishing of records in compliance with this section by a custodian of records is a bar to civil or criminal liability against the custodian or financial institution in any action brought alleging violation of the confidentiality of the records.

(2) Disclosure by the attorney general, county prosecuting attorney, or any peace officer designated by the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney of information obtained under this section, except in the proper discharge of official duties, is a misdemeanor.

(3) Disclosure by the custodian or employee of the financial institution contrary to subsection (1) of this section is a misdemeanor.

(4) This section does not preclude the use of any other legally authorized means of obtaining the information.

Sec. 18. Section 9A.04.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 129, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9A.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 1 through 17 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 9A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1985."

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4490, restricting utilities from terminating utility service for residential space heat, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 35.21.300, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The lien for charges for service by a city waterworks, or electric light or power plant may be enforced only by cutting off the service until the delinquent and unpaid charges are paid, except that until June 30, 1986, electricity for residential space heating may be terminated between November 15 and March 15 only as provided in subsection (2) of this section. In the event of a disputed account and tender by the owner of the premises of the amount he claims to be due before the service is cut off, the right to refuse service to any premises shall not accrue until suit has been entered by the city and judgment entered in the case.

(2) Until June 30, 1986:

(a) Electricity for residential space heating shall not be terminated between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:

(i) Notifies the utility of the inability to pay the bill. This notice shall be provided within five business days of receiving a payment overdue notice unless there are extenuating circumstances;

(ii) Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or a grantee of the planning and community affairs agency which administers federally funded energy assistance programs, that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and which provides a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income;

(iii) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(iv) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is applicable for the dwelling;

(v) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but the plan shall not be invalidated unless payment during this period is less than seven percent. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan; and

(vi) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

(b) The utility shall:

(i) Include in any notice that an account is delinquent and that service may be subject to termination a description of the customer's duties in this subsection;

(ii) Assist the customer in fulfilling the requirements under this subsection;

(iii) Be authorized to transfer an account to a new residence when a customer who has established a plan under this subsection moves from one residence to another within the same utility service area; and

(iv) Be permitted to disconnect service if the customer fails to honor the payment program. Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this subsection.

(c) In distributing energy assistance funds pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 8624, the department of social and health services and grantees of the planning and community affairs agency shall make all payments either directly to the utility or jointly payable to the customer and the utility.

(3) All municipal utilities shall offer residential customers the option of a budget billing or equal payment plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 54.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(b) Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or a grantee of the planning and community affairs agency which administers federally funded energy assistance programs, that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and which provides a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income;

(c) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(d) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is applicable for the dwelling;

(e) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but the plan shall not be invalidated unless payment during this period is less than seven percent. (3) In distributing energy assistance funds pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 8624, the department of social and health services and grantees of the planning and community affairs agency shall make payments either directly to the utility or jointly payable to the customer and the utility.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

No certification made by one health care facility or health care practitioner is transferrable to another health care facility or health care practitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The director, or the director's designee, with the advice of designees of the board of medical examiners, the board of osteopathic medicine and surgery, the podiatry board, and the board of nursing, shall adopt rules necessary to administer, implement, and enforce this chapter and establish the minimum uniform requirements necessary for a health care facility or health care practitioner to certify a health care assistant capable of performing the functions authorized in this chapter. These requirements shall not prevent the certifying entity from imposing such additional standards as the certifying entity considers appropriate. The health care facility or health care practitioner shall provide the licensing authority with a certified roster of health care assistants who are certified.

(2) Certification of a health care assistant shall be effective for a period of two years. Recertification is required at the end of this period. Requirements for recertification shall be established by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The licensing authority of health care facilities or the disciplinary board of the delegating or supervising health care practitioner shall investigate all complaints or allegations of violations of proper certification of a health care assistant or violations of delegation of authority or supervision. A substantiated violation shall constitute sufficient cause for disciplinary action by the licensing authority of a health care facility or the disciplinary board of the health care practitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The director or the director's designee shall decertify a health care assistant based on a finding that the assistant has obtained certification through misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact or has engaged in unsafe or negligent practices.

MOTION

Senator Hurley moved that the following amendment by Senators Hurley, Williams, Fuller and Goltz be adopted:

Strike everything after "WHEREAS," on line 1 and insert the following:

"The United States Congress enacted the Nuclear Waste Policy Act of 1982 which envisions a cooperative state-federal relationship in selecting high-level nuclear waste repository sites in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The federal act recognizes both a legislative and executive role in establishing the state's position and policies with respect to the siting process; and

WHEREAS, A draft agreement is being negotiated which would constitute a contract between the state and the federal government as provided for by the Nuclear Waste Policy Act of 1982; and

WHEREAS, It is recognized that entering into this contract does not indicate acceptance of a decision to locate a repository within the state; and

WHEREAS, The federal government maintains that its liability for accidents at the repository site or in the transportation of waste to the site is limited; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature finds that the safety of the citizens of the state of Washington is endangered by the transportation of high-level radioactive waste through the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, the House of Representatives concurring. That if an agreement is entered into between the state and the federal government, it should resolve at least those issues pertaining to: Whether foreign waste should be included in a repository; the reasons for which the state may demand that work should be stopped at the site; how the state may obtain injunctive relief; what role the state may play in the federal decision-making process if a decision is made to commingle defense and civilian wastes; the completion of an emergency response plan; and federal liability for accidents at the repository site or during transportation of waste to the site; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That no agreement shall be signed until these issues have been resolved, and the agreement is subject to legislative approval or disapproval; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be delivered to the Governor of the state of Washington, the Director of the Washington state Department of Ecology, and to the Secretary of the United States Department of Energy."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President, a point of order. I raise the point of scope and object. I believe it expands, considerably, from what SCR 142 started out. The new measure talks about foreign waste and the question is, is it foreign waste when you understand what you're speaking of? It demands that the state may stop the work on a federal project--unbelievable. It talks about comingling defense waste with civilian waste--a subject of which is not appropriate here, and the Supreme Court, on the last item I see just off hand, made a ruling that the state cannot effect the transportation of high level nuclear waste. The United States Supreme Court just made that decision and yet we see it here. I think those things expand the scope and object."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 142 was deferred.

President Pro Tempore Goltz assumed the chair.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate reverted to the first order of business.

Senator Quigg: "Well, it indicates by that statement that it includes government utilities, therefore, it would include WPPSS. It says, 'generally, this debt is mainly serviced by revenues from utilities. No national source has been found to allow this debt to be extracted from the factor's data. In addition, this factor does not take into account any unfunded pension liability of the state and local governments, since the data was not available.' So it does appear to include WPPSS."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "government;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 35.43.140, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.43.140; amending section 35A.05.040, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.05.040; amending section 84.09-.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 26, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.09.030; adding a new section to chapter 35.21 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 36.32 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 42.24 RCW; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

Signed by: Senators Thompson and Granlund; Representatives Grimm, Ebersole and Hankins.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "A point of order, Mr. President. The proposed Free Conference Committee Report which has been passed out on the desks clearly expands the scope and object of the bill.

"Mr. President and members of the Senate, I've counted at least three bills that have been added on--three whole bills that previously have passed one body or the other--that did not pass both bodies, which have now been lumped into the Free Conference Committee Report in an effort to get these other bills through, which previously were either defeated or which did not make their way through.

"I would also draw the President's attention to the title amendments--I see so many title amendments--I am trying to count them all. It looks like there are at least six or seven extra title amendments to accompany all these additional whole bills that were added to the Free Conference Committee Report. The President, in the past, has indicated, I believe, that the issue of scope and object also applies to any amendatory action, including Free Conference Committee Reports. If it did not, that would be subverting both the Constitution and the intent of the Constitution as well as the rules of the Senate. Therefore, it clearly expands the scope and object and I would hopefully ask the President to so rule."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 392 was deferred.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 4, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred, SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 689, establishing small business assistance coordinating council, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the small businesses in the state of Washington are essential to the well-being of the state's economy and that these businesses have unique needs and problems that must be dealt with to insure a healthy economy for all of the citizens of the state. The legislature further recognizes that small businesses represent a majority of the businesses in this state and that it is vital that the ability of small businesses be enhanced to provide more jobs for Washington workers, insure essential economic competition, and broaden the industrial base of Washington industries. To stimulate the expansion of small business growth and resultant new jobs, the legislature finds that:

(1) There is a need for an overall coordination within the state that can integrate, coordinate, and provide services to small businesses and more efficiently use the individual operating entities as they now exist; and

(2) There is a need for additional services for the small business community in the areas of financing, dealing with regulatory problems, and encouraging more small businesses to export their products and services overseas.

(3) There is a need for an advisory council to establish long-range policy recommendations for state delivered small business programs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, a "small business assistance program" is any service offered by a unit of state government where the majority of the services attempt to aid or assist in the establishment, expansion, or management of a small business as defined in RCW 43.31.920.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) There is established the small business assistance coordinating council, referred to in this chapter as "the council."

(2) The council shall consist of nine persons, three of whom shall be appointed by the governor. The council shall include the director of commerce and economic development or its successor, the director of planning and community affairs or its successor, two members of the house of representatives, one from each of the two political parties with the largest number of members, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives from the house committee on commerce and economic development or its successor, and two members of the senate, one from each of the two political parties with the largest number of members, appointed by the president of the senate from the senate committee on commerce and labor or its successor. The members appointed by the governor shall include representatives of small businesses from the various geographic areas of the state one or two of whom shall also represent minority-owned business and women-owned business. The council shall elect a chairman from among the voting members. The planning and community affairs agency or its successor is responsible for providing administrative support to the council and shall keep a record of the proceedings of each council meeting.

(3) All voting members of the council shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) If a vacancy in an appointive position on the council occurs by death, resignation, or otherwise, the governor shall fill the position for the unexpired term. Mr. President:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4416, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:

SENATE BILL NO. 4275,
 SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4435,
 SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4578,
 SENATE BILL NO. 4607.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the sixth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 142 and the pending amendment by Senators Hurley, Williams, Fuller and Goltz, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Benitz, the President finds that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 142 is a measure which deals with the negotiation of an agreement between Washington State and the federal government, regarding the siting of a high level nuclear waste repository in this state.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Hurley and others also deals with essentially the same propositions and simply suggests issues to be considered in the negotiation of the agreement.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment was ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of information. This is a Senate Concurrent Resolution which purports to have the effect of law it would seem--force and effect--and is this properly drafted? It will not be codified, I understand, and is supposed to be binding on future legislatures and state officials and evidently designed in that fashion to by-pass any possible veto by the Governor."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 142 was deferred.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3193 and has granted the Committee the powers of Free Conference, and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 5, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred, ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3193, modifying provisions of the Washington clean air act, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the Senate amendment be adopted with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 61, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.430 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or any ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation in force pursuant thereto (~~other than RCW 70.94.205~~) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than ~~((two hundred fifty))~~ one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than ninety days, or by both fine and imprisonment for each separate violation. ~~((Each day upon which such violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation.))~~

Any person who wilfully violates any of the provisions of this chapter or any ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation in force pursuant thereto shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. ~~((Each day upon which such willful violation occurs shall constitute a separate offense.))~~ Upon conviction the offender shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars for each offense(:

~~Any person who wilfully violates RCW 70.94.205 or any other provision of this act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars,))~~ or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year or by both fine and imprisonment.

In case of a continuing violation, whether or not wilfully committed, each day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation.

Sec. 2. Section 53, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 176, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.431 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to or as an alternate to any other penalty provided by law, any person who violates any of the provisions of chapter 70.94 RCW or any of the rules and regulations of the department or the board shall incur a penalty in the form of a fine in an amount not to exceed ~~((two hundred fifty))~~ one thousand dollars per day for each violation. Each such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation, each day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation. For the purposes of this subsection, the maximum daily fine imposed by a local board for violations of standards by a specific emissions unit is one thousand dollars.

(2) Further, the person is subject to a fine of up to five thousand dollars to be levied by the director of the department of ecology if requested by the board of a local authority or if the director determines that the penalty is needed for effective enforcement of this chapter. A local board shall not make such a request until notice of violation and compliance order procedures have been exhausted, if such procedures are applicable. For the purposes of this subsection, the maximum daily fine imposed by the department of ecology for violations of standards by a specific emissions unit is five thousand dollars.

(3) Each act of commission or omission which procures, aids or abets in the violation shall be considered a violation under the provisions of this section and subject to the same penalty. Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the penalty shall become due and payable when the person incurring the same receives a notice in writing from the director or his designee or the control officer of the authority or his designee describing the violation with reasonable particularity and advising such person that the penalty is due unless a request is made for a hearing to the hearings board as provided for in chapter 43.21B RCW. When a request is made for a hearing, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final order affirming the penalty in whole or part. If the amount of such penalty is not paid to the department or the board within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, and a request for a hearing has not been made, the attorney general, upon the request of the director or his designee, or the attorney for the local authority, upon request of the board or control officer, shall bring an action to recover such penalty in the superior court of the county in which the violation occurred. All penalties recovered under this section by the state board shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund or, if recovered by the authority, fifty percent shall be paid into the treasury of the authority and credited to its funds and fifty percent shall be distributed to the cities, towns and counties within the authority, on a pro rata basis, as each contributes to support the authority pursuant to RCW 70.94.093. If a prior penalty for the same violation has been paid to a local authority, the penalty imposed under subsection (2) of this section shall be reduced by the amount of the payment. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, no penalty may be levied for the violation of any opacity standard in an amount exceeding four hundred dollars per day.

(4) If a penalty is levied under subsection (2) of this section, the director or the director's authorized delegate may, upon written application therefor received within fifteen days after the notice imposing any penalty is received by the person incurring the penalty, and when deemed in the best interest to carry out the purposes of this chapter, remit or mitigate any penalty provided in this section upon such terms as the director in the director's discretion deems proper, and may ascertain the facts upon all such applications in such manner and under such regulations as the director deems proper. The mitigation shall not affect or reduce the penalty imposed by the local board. Any person incurring any penalty under this section may appeal the same to the hearings board as provided in chapter 43.21B RCW. Appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice imposing any penalty unless an application for remission or mitigation is made to the department. When an application for remission or mitigation is made, appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice from the director or the director's authorized delegate setting forth the disposition of the application. Any penalty imposed under this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of a notice imposing the same unless application for remission or mitigation is made or an appeal is filed. When an application for remission or mitigation is made, any penalty incurred under this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of the application unless an appeal is filed from the disposition. Whenever an appeal of any penalty incurred under this section is filed, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final order confirming the penalty in whole or in part. If the amount of any penalty is not paid to the department within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, the attorney general, upon the request of the director, shall bring an action in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county or of any county in which the violator may do business, to recover the penalty. In all such actions the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as for an ordinary civil action except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

To secure the penalty incurred under this section, the state or the authority shall have a lien on any vessel used or operated in violation of this chapter which shall be enforced as provided in RCW 60.36.050.

In all actions brought in the superior court for the recovery of penalties hereunder, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as in an ordinary civil action."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "act:" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 61, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.430; and amending section 53, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 176, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.431."

Signed by: Senators Hughes and Talmadge; Representatives Rust, Dellwo and Patrick.

MOTION

Senator Hughes moved that the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3193 be adopted and the powers of Free Conference be granted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Hughes, would you please describe the contents of the proposed Free Conference Report?"

Senator Hughes: "Yes, Senator Newhouse, the objective of the Free Conference is to reach a compromise between the House and the Senate. The House added a couple of amendments which in the Senate, we found to be in divergence to the intent of the bill. They increased the fine for violating opacity standards from two fifty to a thousand, and also there were attempts to bring about some changes in the 50-50 split. I think we will be reaching a compromise that is most acceptable."

Senator Newhouse: "The understanding is that the agreement for the Free Conference Report would have been reached before you asked for powers of Free Conference. Have you got the details of that?"

Senator Hughes: "Yes, I do."

Senator Newhouse: "What is the fine that is proposed there?"

Senator Hughes: "In finality, what we will see is the 50-50 split will remain as is. There will be no attempt to change that. There will be an increase in the opacity violation from 250 to 400 and I think there is strong agreement with that."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Hughes to adopt the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3193 and to grant the powers of Free Conference.

The motion by Senator Hughes carried and the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3193 was adopted and the powers of Free Conference were granted.

MOTION

At 5:38 p.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate adjourned until 11:15 a.m., Tuesday, March 6, 1984.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.
SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

HOUSE BILL NO. 939.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4831 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "worker and community right to know act."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares that the proliferation of hazardous substances in the environment poses a growing threat to the public health, safety, and welfare; that the constantly increasing number and variety of hazardous substances, and the many routes of exposure to them make it difficult and expensive to monitor adequately and detect any adverse health effects attributable thereto; that individuals themselves are often able to detect and thus minimize effects of exposure to hazardous substances if they are aware of the identity of the substances and the early symptoms of unsafe exposure; and that individuals have an inherent right to know the full range of the risks they face so that they can make reasoned decisions and take informed action concerning their employment and their living conditions.

The legislature further declares that local health, fire, police, safety, and other government officials require detailed information about the identity, characteristics, and quantities of hazardous substances used and stored in communities within their jurisdictions, in order to plan adequately for, and respond to, emergencies, enforce compliance with applicable laws and regulations concerning these substances, and to compile records of exposures to hazardous substances over a period of time that will facilitate the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of disease.

The legislature further declares that the extent of the toxic contamination of the air, water, and land in this state has caused a high degree of concern among its residents and that much of this concern is needlessly aggravated by the unfamiliarity of these substances to residents.

The legislature therefore determines that it is in the public interest to establish a comprehensive program for the disclosure of information about hazardous substances in the workplace and the community, and to provide a procedure whereby residents of this state may gain access to this information.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(d) The acute and chronic health hazards of the hazardous substance, including signs and symptoms of exposure, and any medical conditions that are generally recognized as being aggravated by exposure to the hazardous substance;

(e) The primary route of entry;

(f) The occupational safety and health act (OSHA) permissible exposure limit, American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists threshold limit value, and any other exposure limit used or recommended by the manufacturer or supplier preparing the material safety data sheet, where available;

(g) Whether the hazardous substance is listed in the National Toxicology Program (NTP) Annual Report on Carcinogens (latest edition) or has been found to be a potential carcinogen in the International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC) Monographs (latest editions), or by the occupational safety and health act;

(h) Any generally applicable precautions for safe handling and use that are known to the manufacturer or supplier preparing the material safety data sheet, including appropriate hygienic practices, protective measures during repair and maintenance of contaminated equipment, and procedures for clean-up of spills and leaks;

(i) Any generally applicable control measures that are known to the manufacturer or supplier preparing the material safety data sheet, such as appropriate engineering controls, work practices, or personal protective equipment;

(j) Emergency and first aid procedures;

(k) The date of preparation of the material safety data sheet or the last change to it;

(l) The name, address, and telephone number of the manufacturer, supplier, or other responsible party preparing or distributing the material safety data sheet, who can provide additional information on the hazardous substance and appropriate emergency procedures, if necessary; and

(m) Any additional information the department may require under section 23 of this act.

If no relevant information is found for any given category on the material safety data sheet, the manufacturer or supplier preparing the material safety data sheet shall mark it to indicate that no applicable information was found.

Where complex mixtures have similar hazards and contents, i.e., the chemical ingredients are essentially the same, but the specific composition varies from mixture to mixture, the manufacturer or supplier may prepare one material safety data sheet to apply to all of these similar mixtures.

The manufacturer or supplier preparing the material safety data sheet shall ensure that the information recorded accurately reflects the scientific evidence used in making the hazard determination. If the manufacturer or supplier becomes newly aware of any significant information regarding the hazards of a hazardous substance, or ways to protect against the hazards, this new information shall be added to the material safety data sheet within three months. Effective November 25, 1985, if the hazardous substance is not being produced or imported, the manufacturer or supplier shall add the information to the material safety data sheet before the hazardous substance is introduced into the workplace.

(16) "Mixture" means any combination of two or more chemicals if the combination is not, in whole or in part, the result of a chemical reaction.

(17) "Nonhazardous substance" means any item not included in the workplace hazardous substance list as prepared by the department pursuant to section 5 of this act.

(18) "Process container" means:

(a) A container, excluding a pipeline, the content of which is changed frequently;

(b) A container into which substances are transferred from labeled containers, and which is intended only for the immediate use of the employee who performs the transfer;

(c) A container on which a label would be obscured by heat, spillage, or other factors; or

(d) A test tube, beaker, vial, or other container which is routinely used and reused;

(e) The employer may use signs, placards, process sheets, batch tickets, operating procedures, or other written materials in lieu of affixing labels to individual process containers, as long as the alternative method identifies the containers to which the label is applicable and conveys the information required by section 14 of this act to be on a label. The written materials shall be readily accessible to the employees in their work area throughout each work shift;

(f) The employer is not required to label portable containers into which hazardous chemicals are transferred from labeled containers, and which are intended only for the immediate use of the employee who performs the transfer.

(19) "Research and development laboratory" means a specially designated area used primarily for research, development, teaching, and testing activity, and not primarily involved in the production of goods for commercial sale, in which hazardous substances are used by or under the direct supervision of a technically qualified person.

(20) "Supplier" means any firm or individual other than the initial manufacturer, such as an importer or distributor, who supplies or imports products containing hazardous substances.

(21) "Technically qualified individual" means a person who, because of education, training, or experience, understands the health risks associated with the hazardous substance or mixture handled by or under his or her supervision.

(22) "Trade secret" has the definition found in the uniform trade secrets act, RCW 19.108.010(4).

(23) "Work area" means a room or defined space in a workplace where hazardous substances are produced or used and where employees are present.

(24) "Workplace" means an establishment at one geographical location containing one or more work areas.

(25) "Workplace hazardous substance list" means the list of health hazard substances developed by the department under section 5 of this act for which a manufacturer or supplier may make a trade secret claim.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) The application of this chapter is limited with respect to the following employees:

- (a) Employees of handlers of sewage or solid waste;
- (b) Employees of research and development laboratories;
- (c) Employees who are performing duties subject to regulations regarding the transportation of hazardous substances promulgated by any of the following agencies:

(i) The federal department of transportation;

(ii) The Washington utilities and transportation commission; or

(iii) The international maritime organization of the United Nations;

(d) Other employees who are performing duties directly relating to the transportation of hazardous substances.

(2) Employers shall be limited to the following responsibilities under this chapter with regard to employees listed in subsection (1) of this section:

(a) Extensive education and training programs shall be provided to employees in accordance with section 13 of this act;

(b) Employers shall ensure that labels on incoming containers of hazardous substances are not removed or defaced;

(c) Employers shall maintain material safety data sheets that are received with incoming shipments for each type of hazardous substance in their workplace, and ensure that they are readily accessible to employees;

(d) The workplace survey required by section 6 of this act shall be completed to the extent that information is reasonably available; and

(e) Any employee who is exposed to a hazardous substance shall be immediately provided with a material safety data sheet if possible.

(3) The limitations in this section apply only to employees directly involved in the transportation of hazardous substances, directly involved in laboratory research, or directly involved in handling sewage or solid waste. Employees not directly involved in the transportation of hazardous substances, not directly involved in laboratory research, or not directly involved in handling sewage or solid waste are covered by the full terms of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) The department, after consultation with the department of agriculture, shall develop a workplace hazardous substance list in accordance with rules adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW that shall include:

(a) Any substance regulated under the Washington industrial safety and health act, chapter 49.17 RCW;

(b) Those environmental hazardous substances designated by the federal Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to section 307 and 311 of the federal Clean Water Act of 1977 (33 U.S.C. Secs. 1317 and 1321 respectively) or as hazardous air pollutants pursuant to section 112 of the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 4712) as amended, which have known adverse human health risks;

(c) Substances listed as human or animal carcinogens by the International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC);

(d) Substances for which an information alert has been issued by the department; and

(e) Any other substance which the department, based on documented scientific evidence, determines may pose a threat to the health or safety of an employee.

(2) The department shall develop by rule, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, criteria by which hazardous substances may be placed or deleted from the list established under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The department, after consultation with the department of agriculture, shall develop a workplace survey in accordance with rules adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW. The workplace survey shall include a copy of the workplace hazardous substance list.

(2) The department shall transmit the workplace survey to each employer in the state no later than June 1, 1986. Employers shall complete the workplace survey and return it to the department within forty-five days except when employer receives an extension from the department. The number of workplace surveys an employer must submit shall be in accordance with criteria developed by the department.

(3) For those employees who communicate primarily in a language other than English, employers shall make a reasonable effort to inform such employees of their rights under this chapter. When necessary or desirable, the department shall prepare and, upon request, make available to the employers and the public a translation of the workplace survey and each material safety data sheet. The department shall also prepare and make available, when necessary or desirable, translations of written material prepared by the department to inform employees of their rights under this chapter.

An employer shall ensure that all employees, regardless of any language barriers, are provided with a suitable education and training program required pursuant to section 14 of this act.

Every employer employing employees who have trouble communicating in English shall make reasonable efforts to post any notices in the employees' native language as provided by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The manufacturer or supplier of any product used or brought into the state, which product contains hazardous substances as listed pursuant to section 5 of this act, shall prepare and/or provide its purchasers of the product and the department with a material safety data sheet or sheets containing information specified in section 3(15) of this act by November 25, 1985. The manufacturer or supplier shall make every reasonable effort to ensure that the information contained in each material safety data sheet is current, accurate, and complete. Failure to provide current, accurate, and complete information as required by this section shall result in civil and criminal penalties as provided in chapter 49.17 RCW.

(a) This material safety data sheet shall be provided to the purchaser and to the department at the time of initial shipment and with the first shipment after each update of the material safety data sheet.

(b) The manufacturer or supplier shall revise a material safety data sheet pursuant to section 3(15) of this act regarding new information that affects the accuracy of the existing material safety data sheet. If the new information indicates either increased or decreased risks or additional measures necessary to protect employee health as compared to those stated on the material safety data sheet previously provided, the manufacturer or supplier shall provide the new material safety data sheet to the department and to those who have purchased the product directly from the manufacturer or supplier within the last year.

(2) If an employer has reason to believe that a product present at the employer's facility contains a hazardous substance as a component, but has not obtained from the manufacturer or supplier of the product a material safety data sheet, the employer shall list the product by its common name in the space provided on the survey. The department shall have the responsibility of obtaining the material safety data sheet, and, upon obtaining this information, shall transmit it to the employer.

(3) The manufacturer or supplier may provide the information required by section 3(15) of this act on an entire product mixture instead of on each hazardous substance in it when all of the following conditions exist:

(a) Hazard test information exists on the mixture itself, or adequate information exists to form a valid judgment of the hazardous properties of the mixture itself and the material safety data sheet indicates that the information presented and the conclusions drawn are from some source other than direct test data on the mixture itself;

(b) Providing information on the mixture will be as effective in protecting employee health as information on the ingredients; and

(c) The hazardous substances in the mixture are identified on the material safety data sheet unless it is either unfeasible to describe all the ingredients in the mixture or the identity of the ingredients is itself a valid trade secret. In either case, the reason why the hazardous substances in the mixture are not identified shall be stated on the material safety data sheet.

(4) A single mixture material safety data sheet may be provided for more than one formulation of a product mixture if the information provided pursuant to section 3(15) of this act does not vary for the formulation.

(5) The provisions of this section shall be complied with not later than November 25, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The department shall, upon request, transmit a copy of the workplace survey to the health department of the county in which the employer's facility is located, the local fire department, and the local police department.

(2) The department shall annually notify the association of Washington cities, the Washington state association of counties, and the Washington fire commissioners association of their rights under this chapter. These organizations shall inform their members of the information available to the members through the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The manufacturer, employer, or supplier may make a trade secret claim to the department. Such a trade secret claim does not relieve the manufacturer or supplier from the duty to provide the department with the material safety data sheet. The department shall, by rules adopted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, establish criteria to determine whether the trade secret claim is warranted, and if warranted set forth procedures for the transmittal of information obtained on the material safety data sheet to the employer while providing protection for the trade secret. While the trade secret claim is under review, a manufacturer, employer, or supplier may withhold the hazardous substance trade secret information from the label required by section 14 of this act, the workplace survey required by section 6 of this act, and the material safety data sheet required by section 7 of this act. The manufacturer or supplier shall notify purchasers of trade secret claims made to the department. For any trade secret claim, the manufacturers or suppliers shall compensate the department for expenses incurred in evaluating the validity of that claim.

(2) Where a treating physician or nurse determines that a medical emergency exists and the specific chemical identity of a hazardous chemical is necessary for emergency or first-aid treatment, the manufacturer, supplier, or employer shall immediately disclose the specific chemical identity to that treating physician or nurse, regardless of the existence of a written statement of need or a confidentiality agreement. The manufacturer, supplier, or employer may require a written statement of need and confidentiality agreement in accordance with provisions developed by the department.

(3) Any challenge to the denial of a trade secret claim shall be heard by an administrative law judge in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The department shall maintain a file of all completed workplace surveys and material safety data sheets received pursuant to sections 5, 7, and 8 of this act. The workplace surveys and material safety data sheets shall be retained by the department for thirty years.

(2) Copies of such records maintained on microfiche or microfilm shall be admissible evidence in any judicial or administrative proceeding.

(3) The department shall require employers who have hazardous substances present at their workplaces to update annually the workplace survey for the employer's workplace.

(4) The department shall require all employers to complete a workplace survey at least once every five years.

(5) Any person may request from the department a copy of a workplace survey for a workplace, together with the appropriate material safety data sheets. The department is the only public agency required to respond to these requests. The department shall keep a record of each request to be made available to health and law enforcement agencies. The record shall include the information released and the identification of the person or organization making the request. A "community right-to-know" state-wide toll-free telephone number shall be made available by the department to receive workplace survey and material safety data sheet requests. The department shall advise the employer when requests for information pertaining to his or her workplace have been made by persons or organizations other than (a) employees working for the employer, or (b) local health, fire, and law enforcement agencies. The department shall impose reasonable limits on requests made under this section and may establish reasonable fees to be charged for copies. Any request by an employee for material pertaining to the workplace where the employee is employed made pursuant to this subsection shall be treated by the department as confidential.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Every employer shall establish and maintain a central file at that employer's workplace in which the employer shall retain a workplace survey for the workplace and appropriate material safety data sheets. Every employer shall post on bulletin boards or other places readily accessible to employees a notice in a form substantially the same as a notice developed by the department of the availability of the information in the file. Every employer shall supply employees with any material designed and provided by the department to inform employees of their rights under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Within three working days, employers shall make available as soon as possible without interrupting normal work operations, a workplace survey and a material safety data sheet on each hazardous substance in the employees' work area upon written request of an employee, or the employee's designated representative.

(2) If a manufacturer or supplier has failed to provide a material safety data sheet as specified in section 7 of this act, employers shall notify the department and identify the hazardous substance, manufacturer or supplier, and trade name to the department.

(3) If the material safety data sheet is not on file with the department, the department shall request the manufacturer or supplier to furnish:

(a) The most current material safety data sheet;

(b) A statement that the material safety data sheet is under development and the estimated completion date; or

(c) A statement that the product is not subject to the requirements of this chapter.

(4) The manufacturer or supplier shall provide a response to the request under subsection

(3) of this section within fifteen days of receipt of the request.

(5) The department shall supply the employer and employee with copies of the response.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Every employer or group of employers shall establish or use an existing education and training program for that employer's employees, which shall be designed to inform employees in writing and orally of the nature of the hazardous substances to which they are exposed in the course of their employment and the potential health risks which the hazardous substances pose as provided in the material safety data sheets for the hazardous substances to which the employees may be exposed at the workplace. An employer shall provide current employees with the education and training program by June 1, 1986, and annually thereafter. Beginning June 1, 1986, all new employees shall be provided with the training and education program within the first month of employment. At the time of entering an employment agreement with a prospective employee, an employer shall notify a prospective employee of the availability of workplace surveys and appropriate material safety data sheets for the workplace at which the prospective employee will be employed.

(2) An employer with fewer than thirty-five full-time employees may request assistance, including on-site assistance, from the department in completing its workplace surveys and education and training programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) A company or individual who manufactures or supplies a hazardous substance or mixture containing a hazardous substance and who supplies the substance or mixture to an employer in the state shall label all such substances and mixtures by the chemical or common name and the appropriate hazard warnings according to chapter 49.17 RCW. These labels shall be updated whenever the product mix is changed or if the manufacturer or supplier becomes aware of any information which is both new and significant regarding the health hazard of a component of the product.

(2) By June 1, 1986, every employer shall make every reasonable effort to assure that every container at the employer's workplace containing a hazardous substance shall bear a label indicating the chemical or common name and the appropriate hazard warnings in accordance with chapter 49.17 RCW.

(3) The labeling requirements of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not apply to containers labeled pursuant to the "Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act" (61 Stat. 163; 7 U.S.C. sec. 121 et al.). The department may, by rule, certify containers labeled pursuant to any other federal rule or regulation as labeled in compliance with this section.

(4) Although process containers are excluded from labeling requirements, the employer shall post in a readily available place a workplace hazardous substance list indicating the chemical name or chemical abstracts service number of all hazardous substances contained therein. Labeling of normally-operated vents to the atmosphere, sample connections, and drains in those areas is required if there is potential for employee exposure to a hazardous substance.

(5) In cases of pipes or piping systems, a fixed storage tank, or a reaction vessel, an employer may choose to convey the information required by this section by posting signs, placards, or operating instructions, or other methods rather than affixing labels. For any pipe or piping system, the information required by this section shall be provided at points where direct employee exposure to the hazardous substance contained in the pipe or piping system is likely to occur under normal operating conditions.

(6) If any provisions of this section are inconsistent with the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, or with applicable regulations issued under that act by the Environmental Protection Agency or with chapter 70 RCW, or with regulations adopted by the department of ecology pursuant to its authority under RCW 70.105.020 and RCW 70.105.130, the provisions of this section shall be deemed superseded by those federal and state statutes and regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. An employee or employee representative may request, in writing, from the employer, a copy of a workplace survey or a material safety data sheet, filed pursuant to this chapter for the employee's work area. The employer shall supply this material within three working days of the request. If an employer has not complied with section 12 of this act, an employee shall have the right to refuse to work with a particular hazardous substance for which a request was made and not honored within the statutory time period without loss of pay or forfeit of any other privilege until the request is honored. This section shall not apply to employees of vessels while the employees are on the water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. No employer may discharge, cause to be discharged, or otherwise discipline, penalize, or discriminate against any employee because the employee or the employee's representative has exercised any right established in this chapter. The discrimination provisions of chapter 49.17 RCW apply to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) The director shall establish in the department a right-to-know advisory council, which shall consist of fifteen members appointed by the director. Each of these members shall be appointed for a term of three years, provided that of the members of the council first appointed by the director, five shall serve for terms of one year, five shall serve for terms of two years, and five shall serve for terms of three years. Of these members, one shall be appointed from persons having training and experience in industrial hygiene recommended by recognized labor unions; one from persons recommended by recognized agricultural organizations; one from persons recommended by recognized environmental organizations; one from persons recommended by recognized public interest organizations; one from persons recommended by recognized organizations of chemical industries; one from persons recommended by recognized community organizations; one from persons recommended by recognized organizations of petroleum industries; one from persons recommended by recognized organizations of fire fighters; one from persons recommended by recognized business or trade organizations; one from persons recommended by recognized organizations of small business; one from persons holding an M.D. degree recommended by recognized public health organizations; two persons from professional accident and safety organizations; one person from the technology-based industries; and one from persons with training and experience in environmental epidemiology and toxicology recommended by recognized research or academic organizations. In the event that no recommendations for a particular category of membership are made to the director three months after the effective date of this act in the case of the initial appointments, or within sixty days of the date of the expiration of the term of office of any member or the occurrence of any vacancy in the case of subsequent appointments, the director shall appoint as a member for that category of membership a person whom the director believes will be representative thereof.

(2) A majority of the membership of the council constitutes a quorum for the transaction of council business. Action may be taken and motions and resolutions adopted by the council at any meeting thereof by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the council present and voting.

(3) The council shall meet regularly as it may determine, and shall also meet at the call of the department.

(4) The council shall appoint a chairman and other officers as may be necessary from among its members. The council may, within the limits of any funds appropriated or otherwise made available to it for this purpose, appoint such staff or hire such experts as it may require.

(5) Members of the council shall serve without compensation, but the council may, within the limits of funds appropriated or otherwise made available to it for such purposes, reimburse its members for necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) The council shall:

(a) Advise the department on the revision of the workplace hazardous substance lists;

(b) Study the impact of this chapter on employers and make recommendations to the legislature. Special emphasis shall be given to the study of the impacts on agricultural and small business employers;

(c) Advise the department on the implementation of this chapter; and

(d) Review any matters submitted to it by the department.

(2) The council may:

(a) Review any aspect of the implementation of this chapter, and transmit its recommendations to the department; and

(b) Hold public meetings or hearings within the state on any matter or matters related to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The department, in conjunction with the council, shall establish a procedure for annually receiving information, advice, testimony, and recommendations from the council, the public, and any other interested party concerning the implementation of this chapter. This procedure shall include a mechanism for revising the workplace hazardous substance list. Any revision of the workplace hazardous substance list shall be based on documented scientific evidence. The department shall publicly announce any revisions of the workplace hazardous substance list, and any such additions or revisions shall be made pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The department shall produce educational brochures and public service announcements detailing information available to citizens under this chapter. These educational materials shall be sent to each county health department. As necessary, the department shall provide information needed to update these educational materials.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A person may bring a civil action on his or her own behalf against a manufacturer, supplier, employer, or user for a violation of a provision of this chapter or any rule promulgated under this chapter. The superior court shall have jurisdiction over these actions. The court may award costs of litigation to the prevailing party, including reasonable attorney and expert witness fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Substances not included on the workplace hazardous substance list shall not be subject to the reporting provisions of this chapter. However, the absence of any substance from the workplace hazardous substance list, or the provision of any information by an employer to an employee or any other person pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall not affect any other liability of an employer with regard to safeguarding the health and safety of an employee or any other person exposed to the substance, nor shall it affect any other duty or responsibility of an employer to warn ultimate users of a substance of any potential health hazards associated with the use of the substance pursuant to the provisions of any law or rule adopted pursuant thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The department may request from an employer submitting surveys to it further information concerning the surveys, and the employer shall provide the additional information upon the request. The employer may require the department to provide reasons why further information is needed and to sign an agreement protecting the confidentiality of any additional information provided under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. (1) The worker and community right to know fund is hereby established in the custody of the state treasurer. The department shall deposit all moneys received under this chapter in the fund. Moneys in the fund may be spent only for the purposes of this chapter following legislative appropriation. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the director or the director's designee. The fund is subject to the allotment procedure provided under chapter 43.88 RCW.

(2) The department shall assess each employer a fee of seventy-five cents per employee to provide for the implementation of the provisions of this chapter. After this initial assessment, the fees shall be based on a fee schedule developed by the department and shall be collected only from those employers who have hazardous substances present at their workplaces. All fees collected by the department pursuant to this section shall be collected in a cost-efficient manner and shall be deposited in the fund.

(3) Records required by this chapter shall at all times be open to the inspection of the director, or his designee including, the traveling auditors, agents or assistants of the department provided for in RCW 51.16.070 and 51.48.040. The information obtained from employer records under the provisions of this section shall be subject to the same confidentiality requirements as set forth in RCW 51.16.070.

(4) An employer may appeal the assessment of the fee pursuant to the procedures set forth in chapter 49.17 RCW and accompanying rules except that the employer shall not have the right of appeal to superior court as provided in chapter 49.17 RCW. The employer from whom the fee is demanded or enforced, may however, within thirty days of the board of industrial insurance appeal's final order, pay the fee under written protest setting forth all the grounds upon which such fee is claimed to be unlawful, excessive or otherwise improper and thereafter bring an action in superior court against the department to recover such fee or any portion of the fee which was paid under protest.

(5) Repayment shall be made to the general fund of any moneys appropriated by law in order to implement this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Unless reference is specifically made to another chapter, this chapter shall be implemented and enforced including penalties, violations, citations, and other administrative procedures pursuant to chapter 49.17 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If a manufacturer, supplier, employer, or user refuses or fails to provide the department with any data sheets, workplace surveys, or other papers, documents, or information required by this chapter, the department may give written notice to the manufacturer, supplier, employer, or user demanding immediate compliance. If the manufacturer, supplier, employer, or user fails to begin to comply with the terms of the notice within fourteen days of receipt, the department may levy a fine of up to five thousand dollars per day from the final date for compliance allowed by this section or by the department. In any case where the noncompliance continues for more than fifteen days or where the department determines the failure to comply creates a potential health or safety hazard to employees or hinders the department's performance of its duties under this chapter, the department may, in lieu of levying a fine or further fines, petition the superior court of Thurston county or the county where the manufacturer, supplier, employer, or user is located for an order enjoining the manufacturer, employer, supplier, or user from further noncompliance and granting any other remedies that may be appropriate. The court may award the department costs of litigation, including attorney's fees, if the department is the prevailing party.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the department, after consultation with the department of agriculture, shall adopt any rules necessary to carry out its responsibilities under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Sections 3 through 27 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 49 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. There is appropriated from the general fund to the worker and community right to know fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of ninety-seven thousand four hundred fifty-three dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Hughes moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 4831.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Hughes, in the amendment of the House, I haven't been able to study the details, but in the general summary here, did it provide for a means for companies, particularly high tech companies, to have trade secrets or at least the detail involved in their specific advantage that they have as to the protection of that?"

Senator Hughes: "The answer is 'yes.' I'll ask Senator Talmadge to give you some of the details."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Zimmerman, Senator Hughes' response was absolutely correct. It was provided for in the original Senate Bill—a very strong protection for trade secrets, which includes the processes of the manufacturer and that is retained in the House amendment."

Senator Zimmerman: "There had been some question, apparently, of the House version. On the basis of that, that's why I asked the question, as far as some of the individual firms. But you feel comfortable, at least, that they are protected and will not be in a position where they would be losing their advantages because of the bill?"

Senator Talmadge: "I do, Senator, and I believe, in fact, the state protection of trade secrets and trade processes are as strong or perhaps stronger than the protections afforded under the OSHA regulations."

Senator Zimmerman: "One final question—do you feel that, at this point, this bill is preferable to waiting and taking some of the OSHA—the heavy items that are included in the federal legislation—that is already in effect and is going in effect?"

Senator Talmadge: "I think it's clearly preferable. It's clearly preferable for the reason that there's a broader coverage under the state act than will be true under the federal regulations. In fact, I think our definitions and our examination of the issue has been a better one than was done for the federal OSHA regulations. I think ours is a superior piece of legislation from the indications we have from other jurisdictions. They believe that's true also."

Senator Zimmerman: "You're not concerned that the paper work is going to be overwhelming in terms of length of time to keep it going?"

Senator Talmadge: "No."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Talmadge, I think that this bill is not liveable as far as those people who have to comply with it. If time proves that I'm right, would you, if you're here, be willing to scale down what I think is overkill and what would prove to be overkill, so that the bill could be made to be liveable and be possible to comply with—in order to achieve that thing which you see to be the purpose of the bill and that is to protect the workers and the people in the community?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I'm always willing to do the reasonable thing in the protection of workers, but, of course, I do take some issue with the majority of terms like 'overkill' and 'onerous materials' and so forth, which you used in your question. It's simply my belief that this bill is not onerous. It's very similar to the requirements under the federal OSHA regulations. We've covered more employment because it's our belief that hazard is to be found in a greater number of employment than was true under the federal OSHA regulations. But, if in fact, it proves to be a difficulty, I will certainly join with you in dealing with that difficulty as best I can. As I indicated, I will be chairing the subcommittee with Senator Hughes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Talmadge, I have just a floor summary of the bill and on page 6 it says 'employees are insured regardless of any language barriers of a suitable education and training program.' Is that the equivalent of a workplace education for all provision? What does that mean in English?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, of course, when you read the Senate Bill, that was provided for there also, and the requirement is that they be advised of suitable precautions to take against hazardous material, and I remind you that 'hazardous materials' as defined in the bill, included those materials that would kill them, that would cause cancer, or would cause some other terrible occupational disease. So, in fact, suitable training programs would mean acquainting them with the process of material safety data sheets and the kinds of precautions they might have to take against hazardous materials."

Senator Quigg: "Well, what would be, then, the test whether or not suitability had been achieved? How would one know whether or not they suitably educated or trained employees regardless of their particular language?"

Senator Talmadge: "Well, Senator, as we provided in the Senate version, and was retained in the House version, that was required of the Department of Labor and Industries to enforce--to determine if, in fact, those people had received what amounted to a training program to advise them of the problems of these hazardous materials."

Senator Quigg: "So, in other words, L & I will be the judge and jury as it relates to this education portion?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, that's usually the case with any administrative regulations."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Haley, with regard to the Free Conference Committee Report on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4448, the President believes that pursuant to Joint Rule No. 8, a Free Conference Committee may add 'new proposed items' to the bill in conference, as long as they come within the breadth of the title. The President believes that the title refers to the language in the enacting clause--in this case 'an act relating to the regulation of persons who perform minor health care services.'

"In this situation, the President is guided by the Joint Rules of the Legislature and fully realizes that Joint Rule 8 allows for the inclusion of amendments which may not necessarily be ruled in order pursuant to Senate Rule 65, entitled 'scope and object of bill not to be changed.'

"The President finds that a careful review of the Free Conference Committee Report to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4448 shows that the proposed new item does come within the title of the bill. The President, therefore, finds that the Free Conference Committee Report to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4448 does not expand the scope and object of the title and that the point of order is not well taken."

The Report of the Free Conference Committee was ruled in order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator McManus to adopt the Report of the Free Conference Committee.

The motion by Senator McManus carried and the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4448 was adopted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 6, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4798, extending prison overcrowding reform act, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 16, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 4, chapter 163, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.160 are each amended to read as follows:

If the governor finds that an emergency exists in that the population of a state residential correctional facility exceeds its reasonable, maximum capacity, then the governor may do any one or more of the following:

The legislature shall approve or modify the commission's revision or amendment at the next legislative session after the revision or amendment takes effect. Failure of the legislature to act shall be deemed as approval of the revision or amendment;

(2) If the emergency occurs prior to July 1, 1988, call the board of prison terms and paroles into an emergency meeting for the purpose of evaluating its guidelines and procedures for release of prisoners under its jurisdiction. The board shall adopt guidelines for the reduction of inmate population to be used in the event the governor calls the board into an emergency meeting under this section. The board shall not, under this subsection, reduce the prison term of an inmate serving a mandatory minimum term under RCW 9.95.040, an inmate confined for treason, an inmate confined for any violent offense as defined by RCW 9.94A.030, or an inmate who has been found to be a sexual psychopath under chapter 71.06 RCW. In establishing these guidelines, the board shall give priority to sentence reductions for inmates confined for nonviolent offenses, inmates who are within six months of a scheduled parole, and inmates with the best records of conduct during confinement. The board shall consider the public safety, the detrimental effect of overcrowding upon inmate rehabilitation, and the best allocation of limited correctional facility resources. Guidelines adopted under this subsection shall be submitted to the senate institutions and house of representatives social and health services committees for their review. This subsection does not require the board to reduce inmate population to or below any certain number. The board may also take any other action authorized by law to modify the terms of prisoners under its jurisdiction:

(3) Call the clemency and pardons board into an emergency meeting for the purpose of recommending whether the governor's commutation or pardon power should be exercised to meet the present emergency.

(b) The superintendents of each correctional institution, as defined in RCW 72.65.010, shall establish community-based volunteer alcohol and drug rehabilitation programs in their respective correctional institution. The superintendents shall encourage groups conducting such programs outside the institutions to participate in such programs inside the institution. An employee at each correctional institution shall be designated to coordinate the programs mandated in this subsection.

(c) The department shall contract with appropriate counties for the use of up to 200 beds in county jails. Contracted jail space shall be used for inmates who have not fully entered the state prison system and for inmates who are nearing their release date who are not appropriate for parole, work release, or early release.

(3) ADMINISTRATION AND PROGRAM SUPPORT

General Fund Appropriation—State	$ 13,278,000
General Fund—Institutional Impact Account Appropriation	$ 865,000
Total Appropriation	$ 14,143,000

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations: $1,480,000 is provided solely for the one-time cost impact to communities associated with locating additional state correctional facilities and for the one-time cost impact associated with the double bunking at the Washington Corrections Center due to the significant increase in the inmate population and the consequent impact on the community.

(4) INSTITUTIONAL INDUSTRIES

General Fund Appropriation $ 5,463,000

(5) The appropriations in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section are made solely for those purposes and no transfer shall be made among said subsections.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) The sentencing reform act of 1981 which established the sentencing guidelines commission and directed the commission to devise a system of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses, required the commission, in setting the standards, to emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender.

(2) There is a need to plan and develop a system through which alternatives to total confinement can be used to serve nonviolent offenders who have been convicted of crimes but who, in the judgment of the courts and appropriate corrections personnel, can best serve their sentences without substantial danger to the community in local community programs rather than in state prisons or local jails.

(3) The department of corrections, which, under RCW 72.09.060 and 72.09.100(5), is charged with developing, establishing, and administering community service programs state-wide, has the expertise, and personnel to enable the development of a comprehensive system of alternative programs for nonviolent offenders.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 4 through 8 of this act.

(1) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(2) "Secretary" means the secretary of corrections.

(3) "Alternatives to total confinement" means residential and nonresidential programs that meet the definitional requirements of the five categories of sanctions established under chapter 9.94A RCW and that are operated by the department or local government entities to serve nonviolent offenders who have been convicted of crimes, in lieu of incarceration in state prisons or local jails.

(4) "Nonviolent offender" means any person convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense under chapter 9.94A RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The department shall formulate a comprehensive plan for the development, implementation, and operation of alternatives to total confinement for nonviolent offenders, that meet the definitional requirements of the five categories of sanctions established under chapter 9.94A RCW.

The plan shall be submitted to the appropriate standing committee of the house of representatives and the senate for review by December 1, 1984. The plan shall include, but is not limited to:

(1) The establishment of goals and objectives for the development, implementation, and expansion of alternatives to total confinement;

(2) An identification and evaluation of current state and local alternatives to total confinement, including, but not limited to, probation-type services and court-ordered community service programs authorized under RCW 72.09.100(5);

(3) An evaluation of the existing organizational structure and of the services provided by the department's division of community services and its role in providing or administering programs that are alternatives to total confinement after July 1, 1984;

(4) The establishment of policies and procedures to improve and expand existing alternatives to total confinement including, but not limited to, probation-type services and court-ordered community service, and to develop new alternatives to total confinement. Policies and procedures on program site selection, offender intake assessment, program and offender monitoring, and evaluating and reporting the effectiveness of alternatives to total confinement should be included;

(5) The identification of the projected numbers of nonviolent offenders who may be eligible for alternatives to total confinement;

(6) A delineation of the role and functions of affected state and local government entities and state and local service providers with respect to the administration and operation of programs that are alternatives to total confinement;

(7) The identification of funding sources, funding responsibility, and costs associated with alternatives to total confinement and how funding for such programs can occur within state and local budget limitations;

(8) An analysis of the legal liability of state and local government entities and private sector service providers, and a determination of what types of insurance or other mechanisms are available to provide legal and financial safeguards;

(9) An identification of the statutory changes which may be necessary to permit full implementation of the plan; and

(10) An analysis of the role local correctional facilities should assume under chapter 9.94A RCW. The analysis shall determine: (a) Whether the state should assume financial responsibility for operating local correctional facilities, (b) whether the state should contract for county jail beds to house state prisoners, (c) whether new jail facilities have adequate programs to meet the needs of state prisoners, and (d) the feasibility of counties using minimum security facilities for low-risk offenders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department, in developing the plan, shall consult with and receive input from representatives of affected state and local government entities including the governor's interagency criminal justice work group, correctional organizations and associations, prosecuting attorneys, the defense bar, the legislature, private nonprofit agencies, and private citizens. The plan shall be submitted to the governor's interagency criminal justice work group for review prior to the submission of such plan to the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department's plan for the development, implementation, operation, and expansion of alternatives to total confinement shall reflect regional differences. The department shall consult with and receive input from affected agencies, organizations, service providers, and individuals working at the regional level.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department, in developing the plan, may request from the office of financial management, the board of prison terms and paroles, the administrator for the courts, the sentencing guidelines commission, the corrections standards board, and the department of social and health services such staff assistance, data, information, and data processing assistance as it may need to accomplish its task, and such services shall be provided without cost to the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 72.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In recognition of prison overcrowding and the hazardous nature of employment in state correctional institutions, the legislature hereby provides a supplementary program to reimburse employees of the department of corrections for some of their costs attributable to their being the victims of inmate assaults. This program shall be limited to the reimbursement provided in this section.

(2) An employee is only entitled to receive the reimbursement provided in this section if the secretary of corrections, or the secretary's designee, finds that each of the following has occurred:

(a) An inmate has assaulted the employee and as a result thereof the employee has sustained injuries which have required the employee to miss days of work; and

(b) The assault cannot be attributable to any extent to the employee's negligence, misconduct, or failure to comply with any rules or conditions of employment.

(3) The reimbursement authorized under this section shall be as follows:

(a) The employee's accumulated sick leave days shall not be reduced for the workdays missed;

(b) For each workday missed for which the employee is not eligible to receive compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall receive full pay; and

(c) In respect to workdays missed for which the employee will receive or has received compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall be reimbursed in an amount which, when added to that compensation, will result in the employee receiving full pay for the workdays missed.

(4) Reimbursement under this section may not last longer than three hundred sixty-five consecutive days after the date of the injury.

(5) The employee shall not be entitled to the reimbursement provided in subsection (3) of this section for any workday for which the secretary, or the secretary's designee, finds that the employee has not diligently pursued his or her compensation remedies under chapter 51.32 RCW.

(6) The reimbursement shall only be made for absences which the secretary, or the secretary's designee, believes are justified.

(7) While the employee is receiving reimbursement under this section, he or she shall continue to be classified as a state employee and the reimbursement amount shall be considered as salary or wages.

(8) All reimbursement payments required to be made to employees under this section shall be made by the department of corrections. The payments shall be considered as a salary or wage expense and shall be paid by the department in the same manner and from the same appropriations as other salary and wage expenses of the department.

(9) Should the legislature revoke the reimbursement authorized under this section or repeal this section, no affected employee is entitled thereafter to receive the reimbursement as a matter of contractual right.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of corrections for the period ending December 30, 1984, the sum of forty-five thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 3 through 8 of this act shall expire December 30, 1984."

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Composite property tax rate" for a county means the total amount of property taxes levied upon forest lands by all taxing districts in the county other than the state, divided by the total assessed value of all forest land in the county.

(2) "Forest land" means forest land which is classified or designated forest land under this chapter.

(3) "Harvested" means the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity of timber by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(4) "Harvester" means every person who from the person's own land or from the land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services, fells, cuts, or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use. The term does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(5) "Stumpage value of timber" means the appropriate stumpage value shown on tables prepared by the department of revenue under section 11 of this act, provided that for timber harvested from public land and sold under a competitive bidding process, stumpage value shall mean that actual amount paid to the seller in cash or other consideration. Whenever payment for the stumpage includes considerations other than cash, the value shall be the fair market value of the other consideration, provided that if the other consideration is permanent roads, the value of the roads shall be the appraised value as appraised by the seller.

(6) "Timber" means forest trees, standing or down, on privately or publicly owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

(7) "Timber assessed value" for a county means a value, calculated by the department of revenue before October 1 of each year, equal to the total stumpage value of timber harvested from privately owned land in the county during the most recent four calendar quarters for which the information is available multiplied by a ratio. The numerator of the ratio is the rate of tax imposed by the county under section 8 of this act for the year of the calculation. The denominator of the ratio is the composite property tax rate for the county for taxes due in the year of the calculation, expressed as a percentage of assessed value.

(8) "Timber assessed value" for a taxing district means the timber assessed value for the county multiplied by a ratio. The numerator of the ratio is the total assessed value of forest land in the taxing district. The denominator is the total assessed value of forest land in the county. As used in this section, "assessed value of forest land" means the assessed value of forest land for taxes due in the year the timber assessed value for the county is calculated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) An excise tax is imposed on every person engaging in this state in business as a harvester of timber on privately or publicly owned land. The tax is equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the rate provided in this chapter.

(2) A credit is allowed against the tax imposed under this section for any tax paid under section 8 of this act.

(3) Moneys received as payment for the tax imposed under this section and section 8 of this act shall be deposited in the timber tax distribution account hereby established in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The rate of tax imposed under section 2 of this act for timber harvested July 1, 1984, through June 30, 1985, shall be six and one-half percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The rate of tax imposed under section 2 of this act for timber harvested July 1, 1985, through June 30, 1986, shall be six and one-eighth percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The rate of tax imposed under section 2 of this act for timber harvested July 1, 1986, through June 30, 1987, shall be five and three-fourths percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The rate of tax imposed under section 2 of this act for timber harvested July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988, shall be five and three-eighths percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The rate of tax imposed under section 2 of this act for timber harvested July 1, 1988, and thereafter, shall be five percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The legislative body of any county may impose a tax upon every person engaging in the county in business as a harvester effective October 1, 1984. The tax shall be equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested from privately owned land multiplied by a rate of four percent.

(2) Before the effective date of any ordinance imposing a tax under this section, the county shall contract with the department of revenue for administration and collection of the tax. The tax collected by the department of revenue under this section shall be deposited by the department in the timber tax distribution account. Moneys in the account may be spent only for distributions to counties under section 9 of this act and, after appropriation by the legislature, for the activities undertaken by the department of revenue relating to the collection and administration of the taxes imposed under this section and section 2 of this act. Appropriations are not required for distributions to counties under section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) On the last business day of the second month of each calendar quarter, the state treasurer shall distribute from the timber tax distribution account to each county the amount of tax collected on behalf of each county under section 8 of this act, less each county's proportionate share of appropriations for collection and administration activities under section 8 of this act, and shall transfer to the state general fund the amount of tax collected on behalf of the state under section 2 of this act, less the state's proportionate share of appropriations for collection and administration activities under section 2 of this act. The county treasurer shall deposit moneys received under this section in a county timber tax account which shall be established by each county. Following receipt of moneys under this section, the county treasurer shall make distributions from any moneys available in the county timber tax account to taxing districts in the county, except the state, under subsections (2) through (4) of this section.

(2) From moneys available, there first shall be a distribution to each taxing district having debt service payments due during the calendar year, based upon bonds issued under authority of a vote of the people conducted pursuant to RCW 84.52.056 and based upon excess levies for a capital project fund authorized pursuant to RCW 84.52.053, of an amount equal to the timber assessed value of the district multiplied by the tax rate levied for payment of the debt service and capital projects: PROVIDED, That in respect to levies for a debt service or capital project fund authorized before the effective date of this act, the amount allocated shall not be less than an amount equal to the same percentage of such debt service or capital project fund represented by timber tax allocations to such payments in calendar year 1984. Distribution under this subsection (2) shall be used only for debt service and capital projects payments.

(3) From the moneys remaining after the distributions under subsection (2) of this section, the county treasurer shall distribute to each school district an amount equal to one-half of the timber assessed value of the district or eighty percent of the timber roll of such district in calendar year 1983 as determined under this chapter, whichever is greater, multiplied by the tax rate, if any, levied by the district under RCW 84.52.052 or 84.52.053 for purposes other than debt service payments and capital projects supported under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) After the distributions directed under subsections (2) and (3) of this section, if any, each taxing district shall receive an amount equal to the timber assessed value of the district multiplied by the tax rate, if any, levied as a regular levy of the district or as a special levy not included in subsection (2) or (3) of this section.

(5) If there are insufficient moneys in the county timber tax account to make full distribution under subsection (4) of this section, the county treasurer shall multiply the amount to be distributed to each taxing district under that subsection by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the county timber tax account balance before making the distribution under that subsection. The denominator of the fraction is the account balance which would be required to make full distribution under that subsection.

(6) After making the distributions under subsections (2) through (4) of this section in the full amount indicated for the calendar year, the county treasurer shall place any excess revenue up to twenty percent of the total distributions made for the year under subsections (2) through (4) of this section in a reserve status until the beginning of the next calendar year. Any moneys remaining in the county timber tax account after this amount is placed in reserve shall be distributed to each taxing district in the county in the same proportions as the distributions made under subsection (4) of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) The taxes imposed under this chapter shall be computed with respect to timber harvested each calendar quarter and shall be due and payable in quarterly installments. Remittance shall be made on or before the last day of the month next succeeding the end of the quarterly period in which the tax accrues. The taxpayer on or before such date shall make out a return, upon such forms and setting forth such information as the department of revenue may require, showing the amount of tax for which the taxpayer is liable for the preceding quarterly period and shall sign and transmit the same to the department of revenue, together with a remittance for the amount of tax.

(2) The taxes imposed by this chapter are in addition to any taxes imposed upon the same persons under chapter 82.04 RCW.

(3) Any harvester incurring less than ten dollars tax liability under this section in any calendar quarter is excused from the payment of such tax, but may be required by the department of revenue to file a return even though no tax may be due.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. (1) The department of revenue shall designate areas containing timber having similar growing, harvesting, and marketing conditions to be used as units for the preparation and application of stumpage values. Each year on or before December 31 for use the following January through June 30, and on or before June 30 for use the following July through December 31, the department shall prepare tables of stumpage values of each species or subclassification of timber within these units. The stumpage value shall be the amount that each such species or subclassification would sell for at a voluntary sale made in the ordinary course of business for purposes of immediate harvest. These stumpage values, expressed in terms of a dollar amount per thousand board feet or other unit measure, shall be determined in a manner which makes reasonable and adequate allowances for age, size, quality, costs of removal, accessibility to point of conversion, market conditions, and all other relevant factors from:

(a) Gross proceeds from sales on the stump of similar timber of like quality and character at similar locations, and in similar quantities;

(b) Gross proceeds from sales of logs adjusted to reflect only the portion of such proceeds attributable to value on the stump immediately prior to harvest; or

(c) A combination of (a) and (b) of this subsection.

(2) Upon application from any person who plans to harvest damaged timber, the stumpage values for which have been materially reduced from the values shown in the applicable tables due to damage resulting from fire, blow down, ice storm, flood, or other sudden unforeseen cause, the department shall revise the stumpage value tables for any area in which such timber is located and shall specify any additional accounting or other requirements to be complied with in reporting and paying the tax.

(3) The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof are subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house of representatives and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be signed by the director or the director's designee and authenticated by the official seal of the department. A copy thereof shall be mailed to anyone who has submitted to the department a written request for a copy.

(4) On or before the sixtieth day after the date of final adoption of any stumpage value tables, any harvester may appeal to the board of tax appeals for a revision of stumpage values for an area determined pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The state timber tax account A and state timber tax reserve account established in RCW 84.33.071 and the timber tax distribution guarantee account established in RCW 84.33.085 shall continue within the state general fund and state treasury, respectively, until all funds remaining therein after complying with subsections (4) and (5) of this section are distributed as follows:

(1) Any remaining timber tax moneys in the state timber tax account A and state timber tax reserve account shall be distributed in the following manner:

(a) Thirty-seven percent to the state general fund for use in support of the common schools.

(b) Subject to appropriation by the legislature, sixty-three percent to the counties of the state in the proportion the receipts of harvester excise tax from each county are to the total receipts of harvester excise tax from all counties in the state in calendar years 1982 and 1983.

(2) Any remaining timber tax moneys in the timber tax distribution guarantee account shall be distributed to the counties in the same proportions and percentages as provided for the state timber tax account A and the state timber tax reserve account on May 1, 1985.

(3) Distributions to the counties under authority of this section shall be deposited in the timber tax account of the counties and disbursed to taxing districts of each county in the same priority and as part of the distributions authorized by section 9 of this act.

(4) The taxes due and payable under RCW 84.33.071 with respect to timber harvested during the second and third quarters of calendar year 1984 shall be collected and deposited in the state treasury as though this act had not been enacted.

(5) The payments required to be made through November 20, 1984, by the state treasurer to the treasurer of each timber county under RCW 84.33.080 shall be made as though this act had not been enacted.

This section shall expire on January 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. All sections of chapter 82.32 RCW, except RCW 82.32.045 and 82.32.270, apply to the taxes imposed under this chapter.

Sec. 14. Section 84.52.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The county assessor shall extend the taxes upon the tax rolls in the form herein prescribed. The rate percent necessary to raise the amounts of taxes levied for state and county purposes, and for purposes of taxing districts coextensive with the county, shall be computed upon the assessed value of the property of the county; the rate percent necessary to raise the amount of taxes levied for any taxing district within the county shall be computed upon the assessed value of the property of the district; all taxes assessed against any property shall be added together and extended on the rolls in a column headed consolidated or total tax. In extending any tax, whenever it amounts to a fractional part of a cent greater than five mills it shall be made one cent, and whenever it amounts to five mills or less than five mills it shall be dropped. The amount of all taxes shall be entered in the proper columns, as shown by entering the rate percent necessary to raise the consolidated or total tax and the total tax assessed against the property.

(2) For the purpose of computing the rate necessary to raise the amount of any excess levy in a taxing district which has classified or designated forest land under chapter 84.33 RCW, other than the state, the county assessor shall add the district's timber assessed value, as defined in section 1 of this 1984 act, to the assessed value of the property: PROVIDED, That for school districts maintenance and operations levies only one-half of the district's timber assessed value shall be added.

Sec. 15. Section 1, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 39.36.015 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever used in this 1970 amendatory act, the term "value of the taxable property" shall mean the actual value of the taxable property in a taxing district incurring indebtedness, as the term "taxing district" is defined in RCW 39.36.010, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness except that in incorporated cities the assessment shall be taken from the last assessment for city purposes, plus the timber assessed value for the district as defined in section 1 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 16. Section 1, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As a result of the study and analysis of systems of taxation of standing timber and forest lands by the forest tax committee pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 30 of the 41st session of the legislature, and the recommendations of the committee based thereon, the legislature hereby finds that:

(1) The public welfare requires that this state's system for taxation of timber and forest lands be modernized to assure the citizens of this state and its future generations the advantages to be derived from the continuous production of timber and forest products from the significant area of privately owned forests in this state. It is this state's policy to encourage forestry and restocking and reforesting of such forests so that present and future generations will enjoy the benefits which forest areas provide in enhancing water supply, in minimizing soil erosion, storm and flood damage to persons or property, in providing a habitat for wild game, in providing scenic and recreational spaces, in maintaining land areas whose forests contribute to the natural ecological equilibrium, and in providing employment and profits to its citizens and raw materials for products needed by everyone.

(2) The combination of variations in quantities, qualities and locations of timber and forest lands, the fact that market areas for timber products are nation-wide and world-wide and the unique long term nature of investment costs and risks associated with growing timber, all make exceedingly difficult the function of valuing and assessing timber and forest lands.

(3) The existing ad valorem property tax system is unsatisfactory for taxation of standing timber and forest land and will significantly frustrate, to an ever increasing degree with the passage of time, the perpetual enjoyment of the benefits enumerated above.

(4) For these reasons it is desirable, in exercise of the powers to promote the general welfare and to impose taxes; that

(a) the ad valorem system for taxing timber be modified and discontinued in stages over a three year period during which such system will be replaced by one under which timber will be taxed on the basis of stumpage value at the time of harvest, and

(b) forest land remain under the ad valorem taxation system but be taxed only as provided in this chapter ~~(and RCW 84.33.074)~~ and RCW 28A.41.130.

Sec. 17. Section 2, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Lands not heretofore so classified, which are primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber are hereby classified as lands devoted to reforestation and such lands and timber shall be taxed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter ~~(RCW 84.33.074)~~ and RCW 28A.41.130.

Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.040 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(Except as provided in RCW 84.33.050;)~~ Timber on privately owned land or federally owned land shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation.

Sec. 19. Section 2, chapter 146, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.074 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A small harvester may elect to calculate the tax imposed by ~~(RCW 84.33.074)~~ this chapter in the manner provided in this section.

(2) Timber shall be considered harvested at the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity thereof by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(3) Timber values shall be determined by either of the following methods, whichever is most appropriate to the circumstances of the harvest:

(a) When standing timber is sold on the stump, the taxable value is the actual gross receipts received by the landowner from the sale of the standing timber.

(b) When timber is sold after it has been harvested, the taxable value is the actual gross receipts from sale of the harvested timber minus the costs of harvesting and marketing the timber. When the taxpayer is unable to provide documented proof of harvesting and marketing costs, this deduction for harvesting and marketing costs shall be a percentage of the gross receipts from sale of the harvested timber as determined by the department of revenue but in no case less than twenty-five percent.

(4) The department of revenue shall prescribe a short filing form which shall be as simple as possible.

Sec. 20. Section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1980 and RCW 84.33.075 are each amended to read as follows:

The excise tax imposed by ((RCW 84.33.071)) this chapter shall not apply to any timber harvested by a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation from forest lands owned by it, where such lands are exempt from property taxes under RCW 84.36.030, and where all of the income and receipts of the nonprofit organization, association, or corporation derived from such timber sales are used solely for the expense of promoting, operating, and maintaining youth programs which are equally available to all, regardless of race, color, national origin, ancestry, or religious belief.

In order to determine whether the harvesting of timber by a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation is exempt, the director of the department of revenue shall have access to its books.

For the purposes of this section, a "nonprofit" organization, association, or corporation is one: (1) Which pays no part of its income directly or indirectly to its members, stockholders, officers, directors, or trustees except in the form of services rendered by the organization, association, or corporation in accordance with its purposes and bylaws; and (2) which pays salary or compensation to its officers only for actual services rendered, and at levels comparable to the salary or compensation of like positions within the public services of the state.

Sec. 21. Section 8, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.077 are each amended to read as follows:

The amount of any property taxes paid on timber standing on public land shall be allowed as a credit against any tax imposed with respect to the business of harvesting timber from publicly owned land under ((RCW 84.33.071)) section 2 of this 1984 act. However, the amount of credit allowed shall not exceed the amount of excise tax due in respect to the business of harvesting timber from publicly owned land.

Sec. 22. Section 9, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.078 are each amended to read as follows:

When any timber standing on public land, other than federally owned land, is sold separate from the land, the department of natural resources or other governmental unit, as appropriate, shall provide each bidder with a written notice clearly stating that timber sold separate from the land is subject to property tax in 1984 and thereafter and that the amount of the tax paid may be used as a credit against any tax imposed with respect to business of harvesting timber from publicly owned land under ((RCW 84.33.071)) section 2 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 23. Section 12, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 148, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In preparing the assessment rolls as of January 1, 1982, for taxes payable in 1983 and each January 1st thereafter, the assessor shall list each parcel of forest land at a value with respect to the grade and class provided in this subsection and adjusted as provided in subsection (2) of this section and shall compute the assessed value of the land by using the same assessment ratio he applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property in his county. Values for the several grades of bare forest land shall be as follows.

(2) On or before December 31, 1981, the department shall adjust, by rule under chapter 34.04 RCW, the forest land values contained in subsection (1) of this section in accordance with this subsection, and shall certify these adjusted values to the county assessor for his use in preparing the assessment rolls as of January 1, 1982. For the adjustment to be made on or before December 31, 1981, for use in the 1982 assessment year, the department shall:

(a) Divide the aggregate value of all timber harvested within the state between July 1, 1976, and June 30, 1981, by the aggregate harvest volume for the same period, as determined from the harvester excise tax returns filed with the department under RCW 82.04.291 and 84.33.071; and

(b) Divide the aggregate value of all timber harvested within the state between July 1, 1975, and June 30, 1980, by the aggregate harvest volume for the same period, as determined from the harvester excise tax returns filed with the department under RCW 82.04.291 and 84.33.071; and

(c) Adjust the forest land values contained in subsection (1) of this section by a percentage equal to one-half of the percentage change in the average values of harvested timber reflected by comparing the resultant values calculated under (a) and (b) of this subsection.

For the adjustments to be made on or before December 31, 1982, and each succeeding year thereafter, the same procedure shall be followed as described in this subsection utilizing harvester excise tax returns filed under RCW 82.04.291 and ((84.33.071;)) this chapter except that this adjustment shall be made to the prior year's adjusted value, and the five-year periods for calculating average harvested timber values shall be successively one year more recent.

(3) In preparing the assessment roll for 1972 and each year thereafter, the assessor shall enter as the true and fair value of each parcel of forest land the appropriate grade value certified to him by the department of revenue, and he shall compute the assessed value of such land by using the same assessment ratio he applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property in his county. In preparing the assessment roll for 1975 and each year thereafter, the assessor shall assess and value as classified forest land all forest land that is not then designated pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130 and shall make a notation of such classification upon the assessment and tax rolls. On or before January 15 of the first year in which such notation is made, the assessor shall mail notice by certified mail to the owner that such land has been classified as forest land and is subject to the compensating tax imposed by this section. If the owner desires not to have such land assessed and valued as classified forest land, he shall give the assessor written notice thereof on or before March 31 of such year and the assessor shall remove from the assessment and tax rolls the classification notation entered pursuant to this subsection, and shall thereafter assess and value such land in the manner provided by law other than this chapter 84.33 RCW.

(4) In any year commencing with 1972, an owner of land which is assessed and valued by the assessor other than pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 84.33.110 and this section, and which has, in the immediately preceding year, been assessed and valued by the assessor as forest land, may appeal to the county board of equalization by filing an application with the board in the manner prescribed in subsection (2) of RCW 84.33.130. The county board shall afford the applicant an opportunity to be heard if the application so requests and shall act upon the application in the manner prescribed in subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.130.

(5) Land that has been assessed and valued as classified forest land as of any year commencing with 1975 assessment year or earlier shall continue to be so assessed and valued until removal of classification by the assessor only upon the occurrence of one of the following events:

- (a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove such land from classification as forest land;
- (b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(c) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that, because of actions taken by the owner, such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber;

(d) Determination that a higher and better use exists for such land than growing and harvesting timber after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard;

(e) Sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner, unless the new owner has signed a notice of forest land classification continuance. The signed notice of continuance shall be attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit provided for in RCW 82.45.120, as now or hereafter amended. The notice of continuance shall be on a form prepared by the department of revenue. If the notice of continuance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all compensating taxes calculated pursuant to subsection (7) of this section shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of classified forest land for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of continuance or the compensating tax has been paid. The seller, transferor, or new owner may appeal the new assessed valuation calculated under subsection (7) of this section to the county board of equalization. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the county board of equalization to hear these appeals.

The assessor shall remove classification pursuant to subsections (c) or (d) above prior to September 30 of the year prior to the assessment year for which termination of classification is to be effective. Removal of classification as forest land upon occurrence of subsection (a), (b), (d), or (e) above shall apply only to the land affected, and upon occurrence of subsection (c) shall apply only to the actual area of land no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber: PROVIDED, That any remaining classified forest land meets necessary definitions of forest land pursuant to RCW 84.33.100 as now or hereafter amended.

(6) Within thirty days after such removal of classification as forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner of such land shall thereupon have the right to apply for designation of such land as forest land pursuant to subsection (4) of this section or RCW 84.33.130. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(7) Unless the owner successfully applies for designation of such land or unless the removal is reversed on appeal, notation of removal from classification shall immediately be made upon the assessment and tax rolls, and commencing on January 1 of the year following the year in which the assessor made such notation, such land shall be assessed on the same basis as real property is assessed generally in that county. Except as provided in ~~((subsection(s)))~~ subsections (5)(e) and (9) of this section and unless the assessor shall not have mailed notice of classification pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, a compensating tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer thirty days after the owner is notified of the amount of the compensating tax. As soon as possible, the assessor shall compute the amount of such compensating tax and mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such compensating tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference, if any, between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land multiplied by the dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by

(b) A number, in no event greater than ten, equal to the number of years, commencing with assessment year 1975, for which such land was assessed and valued as forest land.

(8) Compensating tax, together with applicable interest thereon, shall become a lien on such land which shall attach at the time such land is removed from classification as forest land and shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. Any compensating tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(9) The compensating tax specified in subsection (7) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of classification as forest land pursuant to subsection (5) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other forest land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land.

(10) With respect to any land that has been designated prior to May 6, 1974, pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130, the assessor may, prior to January 1, 1975, on his own motion or pursuant to petition by the owner, change, without imposition of the compensating tax provided under RCW 84.33.140, the status of such designated land to classified forest land.

Sec. 24. Section 17, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 226, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 84.33.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, this chapter shall not exempt from the ad valorem tax nor subject to the excise tax imposed by (~~RCW 84.33.071~~) this chapter, Christmas trees which are grown on land which has been prepared by intensive cultivation and tilling, such as by plowing or turning over the soil, and on which all unwanted plant growth is controlled continuously for the exclusive purpose of raising such Christmas trees, and such land on which such Christmas trees stand shall not be taxed as provided in RCW 84.33.100 through 84.33.140.

Sec. 25. Section 9, chapter 187, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 6, Laws of 1979 and RCW 84.33.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature shall review the system of distribution and allocation of all timber excise tax revenues in January, 1975 and each year thereafter to provide a uniform and equitable distribution and allocation of such revenues to the state and local taxing districts.

(2) In order to allow legislative review of the rules and regulations to be adopted by the department of revenue establishing the stumpage (~~value index~~) values provided for in (~~RCW 84.33.071(3)~~) section 11 of this 1984 act, such rules and regulations shall be effective not less than sixty days after transmitting to the staffs of the senate and house ways and means committees (or their successor committees) the same proposed rules and regulations as shall have been previously filed with the office of the code reviser pursuant to RCW 34.04.025(1)(a).

(3) In the event that a permanent timber tax rate is not set in 1979, a joint timber tax advisory committee shall be established. The joint advisory committee shall be composed of members of the house of representatives and the senate and co-chaired by a member of the house revenue committee and a member of the senate ways and means committee. The joint advisory committee shall recommend a rate level and distribution system on or before the convening of the forty-seventh legislature.

(4) The department of revenue and the department of natural resources shall make available to the revenue committees of the senate and house of representatives of the state legislature information and data, as it may be available, pertaining to the status of forest land grading throughout the state, the collection of timber excise tax revenues, the distribution and allocation of timber excise tax revenues to the state and local taxing districts, and any other information as may be necessary for the proper legislative review and implementation of the timber excise tax system, and in addition, the departments shall provide an annual report of such matters in January of each year to such committees.

Sec. 26. Section 82.32.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 219, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall apply with respect to the taxes imposed under chapters 82.04 through (~~82.27~~) 82.29A RCW of this title (~~and~~), under chapter 84.33 RCW (~~84.33.071~~), and under other titles, chapters, and sections in such manner and to such extent as indicated in each such title, chapter, or section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. The legislature finds that two separate systems are used in the taxation of forest land and the timber and forest crops grown thereon. Less than eight percent of private forest land is taxed under the system enacted in 1931; over ninety-two percent is taxed under the 1971 law. The policies established under RCW 84.28.005 in 1931 and RCW 84.33.010 in 1971 will be carried out more efficiently and equitably under a single uniform taxing system. It is the purpose of sections 28 through 43 of this act to phase out the system enacted in 1931 for taxation of forest land and forest crops and to integrate the taxation of that land and forest crops into the tax system enacted in 1971.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. There is added to chapter 84.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The classification of land as reforestation land under this chapter is terminated, effective July 1, 1984. Effective July 1, 1984, this land shall be classified forest land under chapter 84.33 RCW and this land and the timber standing thereon shall be subject to all provisions of chapter 84.33 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. There is added to chapter 84.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, "reclassified reforestation land" means land for which the classification has terminated under section 28 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. There is added to chapter 84.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The county assessor of a county in which there are reclassified reforestation lands shall notify each owner of record of reclassified reforestation land of the reclassification prior to August 1, 1984. If the owner desires to remove any such land from classification as reclassified reforestation land, the owner shall file an application for removal from classification of the land by legal description prior to October 1, 1984. The application for declassification shall be accompanied by a payment equal to six percent of the stumpage value of any commercial timber standing on the land as of July 1, 1984. The assessor shall accept the request for removal from classification but may ask for an appraisal of the standing timber certified by an experienced timber cruiser before final acceptance of the payment due. Upon final approval and payment of the proper amount, the assessor shall assess the land at its value for highest and best use as of January 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. There is added to chapter 84.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In preparing the assessment rolls as of January 1, 1985, for taxes payable in 1986, the assessor shall list, prior to May 31, 1985, each parcel of reclassified reforestation land at the values set in accordance with RCW 84.33.120. For the purpose of calculating the limitation on tax levies under chapter 84.55 RCW, the increase in assessed valuation of reclassified reforestation land entered on the tax rolls as of January 1, 1985, shall be treated the same as increases resulting from new construction. Reclassified reforestation land shall be considered to have been designated or classified forest land for a period in excess of ten years for purposes of calculating any compensating tax which may become payable under RCW 84.33.140.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There shall be paid by each owner of reclassified reforestation lands, as defined in section 29 of this act, in lieu of the excise tax rate imposed under section 2 of this act, a rate equal to twelve and one-half percent, minus the amounts specified in this chapter. Such tax shall be paid and distributed as follows:

(1) The amount of taxes payable equal to the amount of taxes which would be payable if the rate under this section equaled the rate imposed under section 2 of this act shall be paid and distributed as provided in this chapter.

For timber harvested from reclassified reforestation lands, as defined in section 29 of this act, for the period July 1, 1984, through December 31, 1984, the tax shall be paid prior to January 31, 1985, and such tax revenue shall be distributed to the state and local taxing districts in the same manner as if the timber were harvested after October 1, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested July 1, 1984, through December 31, 1984, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by one percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested in 1985, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by two percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested in 1986, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by three percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested in 1987, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by three and one-half percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested in 1988, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by four percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested in 1989, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by four and one-half percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested in 1990, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by five percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested in 1991, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by five and one-half percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested in 1992, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by six percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested in 1993, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by six and one-half percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For timber harvested in 1994, and thereafter, the rate provided in section 32 of this act shall be reduced by seven and one-half percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. The department of revenue shall audit the records of each county in which there are forest lands classified under chapter 84.28 RCW for the purpose of determining compliance with chapter 84.28 RCW in respect to the collection of yield taxes on timber harvested and the disposition of such moneys for the period 1980 through 1984. The department of revenue shall advise the state treasurer of any underpayment or overpayment of moneys due the state and may enter into an agreement with the county treasurer relieving the county of any further liability under chapter 84.28 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. Nothing in sections 28 through 43 of this act excuses or discharges any person from the yield tax imposed by RCW 84.28.110 with respect to timber harvested from reforestation lands prior to July 1, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. Sections 1 through 13 of this act are each added to chapter 84.33 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

MOTION

Senator Hurley moved the following amendment by Senators Hurley and Hughes to the Owen amendment be adopted:

On page 4, beginning on line 18, strike all of sections 4, 5, 6, and 7 and renumber the sections and change internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

Senator Hughes demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators Hurley and Hughes to the Owen amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Hurley failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote:

Yeas, 18; nays, 30; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Bender, Bottiger, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, McDermott, Moore, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 18.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendments to the Owen amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 34, after line 33, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Base year" means the calendar year before the employment year.

(b) "Eligibility voucher" means a voucher issued under subsection (4) of this section.

(c) "Employment year" means the calendar year before the year in which an application for credit is made under this section.

(d) "Other person" means a person other than a previously unemployed resident.

(e) "Previously unemployed resident" means a person who possesses a validly issued eligibility voucher indicating the person has been a resident of this state for a minimum of two years immediately preceding the issuance of the voucher and has been unemployed for at least twenty out of the most recent fifty-two weeks.

(2) Beginning July 1, 1986, credits may be claimed against the tax imposed under RCW 84.33.071 in the following amounts:

(a) For each previously unemployed resident newly employed by the taxpayer, four thousand dollars after the first year of continuous employment, plus two thousand dollars after the second year of continuous employment; and

(4) The employment security department shall issue an eligibility voucher to each previously unemployed resident upon application. The employment security department shall not issue more than one eligibility voucher to any person per three-year period. The employment security department shall issue rules for the effective administration of this section. The employment security department shall not impose more than minimal paperwork requirements upon taxpayers under this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 28. Section 2 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1985."

On page 4, beginning on line 18, strike all of sections 4, 5, 6 and 7.

Renumber the sections and change internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President, a point of order. I raise the question of scope and object and will do the same on the various other amendments which I feel are definitely beyond the scope and object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore assumed the chair.

MOTION

Senator Conner moved the following amendment to the Owen amendment be adopted:

On page 37 of the amendment, line 33, after "chapter" insert ": PROVIDED, That the rate imposed on small harvesters, as defined in RCW 84.33.073, shall equal the rate imposed under section 2 of this act"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator, just a little clarification on this. How many acres are we talking about? What is the magnitude of the impact of your amendment?"

Senator Conner: "I guess I couldn't really answer that. If I researched, but perhaps I could ask Senator Bottiger. He has some small timber operators in his area and a great deal more than myself."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Quigg, unlike the amendment by Senators Hurley and Hughes, which pertains to the harvesters, this amendment pertains to the landowner--and again it's one million board feet."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Conner, this bill also deals with the issue of the reforestation change in the standards and tends to apply, for example, to the Simpson Timber Company. How does this amendment relate to that portion of the bill? I'm asking it so I can better understand the impact of your amendment."

Senator Conner: "I couldn't really explain that. I don't happen to live around Simpson Timber, but I know we have some small loggers in our area that are concerned about this."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Would Senator Owen yield to that question?"

Senator Owen: "Senator Hemstad, it's my understanding of how it relates is that under the reforestation act and those that would harvest over one million board feet per year would fall under what's in the bill right now--of a phase out of ten years. What I understand that this amendment would do would be to immediately phase out for those small companies."

Senator Hemstad: "....The bill as it is now with regard to those persons falling under the reforestation act is a ten year phase out, but for the small forester then, it would be an immediate, complete phase out?"

Senator Owen: "That's the way I understand."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Conner demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Conner to the Owen amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Conner failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote:

Yeas, 21; nays, 27; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Peterson, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody - 21.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Sellar, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 27.

Excused: Senator Rasmussen - 1.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Senate Bill No. 4421 was deferred.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 5, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred, SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 552, permitting off-duty patrol officers to wear their uniforms while participating in public service educational programs, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"AN ACT Relating to the Washington state patrol; adding a new section to chapter 43.43 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 43.43 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The chief of the Washington state patrol shall designate twenty-four or more officers as traffic safety education officers. The chief of the Washington state patrol shall make the designations in a manner designed to ensure that the programs under subsection (2) of this section are reasonably available in all areas of the state.

(2) The chief of the Washington state patrol may permit these traffic safety education officers to appear in their off-duty hours in uniform to give programs in schools or the community on the duties of the state patrol, traffic safety, or crime prevention.

(3) The traffic safety education officers may accept such pay and reimbursement of expenses as are approved by the state patrol from the sponsoring organization.

(4) The state patrol is encouraged to work with community organizations to set up these programs state-wide.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Signed by: Senators Warnke and Quigg; Representatives Niemi, Halsan and West.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the report of the Conference Committee was adopted on Substitute House Bill No. 552 and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 392 and the request for a Free Conference Committee in order to amend the bill, deferred March 5, 1984.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Pullen, with regard to the Free Conference Report on Engrossed House Bill No. 392, the President believes that pursuant to Joint Rule No. 8 that a Free Conference Committee may add 'new proposed items' to the bill in conference as long as they come within the breadth of the title. The President believes that the title refers to the language in the enacting clause--in this case 'an act relating to local government.'"

"The President finds that a careful review of the Free Conference Committee Report to Engrossed House Bill No. 392 shows that all of the proposed new items do relate to the subject of local government."

"The President, therefore, finds that the Free Conference Committee Report to Engrossed House Bill No. 392 does not expand the scope and object of the title and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment proposed by the Free Conference Committee was ruled in order.

MOTION

Senator Thompson moved that the Report of the Conference Committee be adopted on Engrossed House Bill No. 392 and that the committee be granted the powers of Free Conference.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Thompson, as I was reading this report, I was looking at new section 8. It says 'Territory may be withdrawn from a public hospital district as provided by this section. The commissioners of a public hospital district may hold a hearing on the proposed removal of--.' What is that section about? Who is asking for that bill? I don't even remember us working on that."

Senator Thompson: "Senator McDermott, that section has been handled out of sympathy for the purpose desired by the minority, as I understand, in both houses of the legislature and included in consultation with people from the Tri Cities and their legislative representatives here to facilitate a problem connected with the hospital district in that area."

Senator McDermott: "Then this is essentially, if I understand you correctly, a central Washington amendment that aids members of the minority who represent a district that is having difficulty."

Senator Thompson: "You recognized it correctly."

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Haley: "So that I'll be sure to fall within the rules of what I'm going to talk, it suggests to me that we're seeing a new trend develop here, and there may be something good about it. We might call this bill the local government clean-up bill, but we could also run things through so they get to a Free Conference Report and then have a state government clean-up bill--"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "I believe, Senator Haley, you are not speaking to a point of personal privilege at this point."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Conference Report on Engrossed House Bill No. 392.

The motion by Senator Thompson failed and the Report of the Free Conference Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 392 was not adopted.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Upon the defeat of that motion, I take it the Conference Committee could return and attempt to work out the problem and re-draft another Conference Committee Report?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "My understanding is that the bill is in the same position it was before the motion placed by Senator Thompson and that the conference--the bill is in the hands of the Conference Committee."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Haley: "Mr. Speaker, would it be proper to ask the House to recede from its position on various aspects of this bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "It's in conference at the present time and that would be a matter for the conferees to consider."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "The Conference Committee could now go back and rewrite the bill in a different way and come back and ask for another conference--Free Conference Committee--is that not so?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "That is correct. The Conference Committee has the bill in its possession and can make any report that it wishes to this body."

At 5:21 p.m., and there being no objection, the President Pro Tempore declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 5:25 p.m.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1984

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1157 and requests a conference thereon. The Speaker has appointed the following members as conferees: Representatives Braddock, Grimm and Tilly, and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the request for a conference on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1157 and the Senate amendments thereto was granted.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1157 and the Senate amendments thereto: Senators McDermott, Deccio and Thompson.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the sixth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 4421 and the pending McDermott amendments to the Owen amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Clarke, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 4421 is an omnibus measure which deals with the subject of taxation of timber and forest lands and the distribution of the revenue collected.

"The amendments proposed by Senator McDermott, also, deal with this subject by providing for a credit against the timber tax for employment of previously unemployed persons.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendments to the amendment were ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Senator McDermott, are you saying that they will get the credit and not the tax reduction or both?"

Senator McDermott: "They'll not get the tax reduction. The last segment takes away the tax reduction, but it would give them the credit if they hire anybody. If they don't hire anybody, they don't get any tax reduction."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lee: "When someone is trying to put words into another person's mouth, I think it's proper to correct that, and I'm simply saying that the words that were attributed to me were not the words that I said. The point that I'm trying to make, and I think that it has been well made by others on this floor, is that timber harvesters are not a homogenous group and the particular measure we have before us applies only to those who have large numbers of employees."

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendments by Senator McDermott to the Owen amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator McDermott failed and the amendments to the amendment were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 29; absent, 01; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, McDermott, Moore, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Williams, Wojahn - 18.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Woody, Zimmerman - 29.

Absent: Senator Vognil - 1.

Excused: Senator Rasmussen - 1.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, and there being no objection, all of his amendments on the desk were withdrawn.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Owen.

The motion by Senator Owen carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "taxation" strike the remainder of the title and insert "; amending section 84.52.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.080; amending section 1, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 39.36.015; amending section 1, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.010; amending section 2, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.020; amending section 4, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.040; amending section 2, chapter 146, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.074; amending section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1980 and RCW 84.33.075; amending section 8, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.077; amending section 9, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.078; amending section 12, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 148, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.120; amending section 17, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 226, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 84.33.170; amending section 9, chapter 187, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 6, Laws of 1979 and RCW 84.33.200; amending section 82.32.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 219, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.32.010; adding new sections to chapter 84.28 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 84.33 RCW; creating new sections; repealing section 3, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 4, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.030; repealing section 5, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 4, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess., section 90, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 3, chapter 187, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 148, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.050; repealing section 6, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 91, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 2, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 6, Laws of 1979 and RCW 84.33.060; repealing section 1, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1979, section 1, chapter 148, Laws of 1981, section 2, chapter 4, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess., section 59, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.071; repealing section 6, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.072; repealing section 8, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess., section 92, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 2, chapter 187, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 8, chapter 123, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., section 3, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 3, chapter 6, Laws of 1979, section 6, chapter 4, Laws of 1981, section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1983 and RCW 84.33.080; repealing section 5, chapter 4, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.085; repealing section 9, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 3, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess., section 3, chapter 148, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.090; and providing an effective date."

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 5, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred, SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 843, modifying provisions relating to retirement from public services, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 41.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The employer of any employee whose retirement benefits are based in part on excess compensation, as defined in this section, shall, upon receipt of a billing from the department, pay into the appropriate retirement system the present value at the time of the employee's retirement of the total estimated cost of all present and future benefits from the retirement system attributable to the excess compensation. The state actuary shall determine the estimated cost using the same method and procedure as is used in preparing fiscal note costs for the legislature. However, the director may in the director's discretion decline to bill the employer if the amount due is less than fifty dollars. Accounts unsettled within thirty days of the receipt of the billing shall be assessed an interest penalty of one percent of the amount due for each month or fraction thereof beyond the original thirty-day period.

(2) "Excess compensation," as used in this section, includes any payment that was used in the calculation of the employee's retirement allowance, except regular salary and overtime, but is not limited to a cash out of unused annual leave in excess of two hundred forty hours of such leave, a cash out of any other form of leave, a payment for, or in lieu of, any personal expense, and any other termination or severance payment used in the calculation of the employee's retirement allowance. Sections 23 through 28 of this act are not intended to and do not govern retirement rights of any members of the retirement systems established by chapter 41.16, 41.18, 41.20, or 41.26 RCW, or of employees described in RCW 35.58.265, 35.58.390, or 70.08.070. To the extent there is any conflict between sections 23 through 28 of this act and RCW 41.04.110, the provisions of sections 23 through 28 of this act shall govern.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 22 through 28 of this act.

(1) "Legal entity" means any political subdivision or municipal corporation of the state, including but not limited to public agencies created under RCW 35.63.070, 36.70.060, or 39.34.030.

(2) "Consolidated employer" means the legal entity assigned by agreement to perform a governmental service, activity, or undertaking for two or more units of local government of the state, at least one of which is a first class city with its own retirement system.

(3) "Existing employee" means a person who both (a) becomes employed by the consolidated employer within one year after the consolidation and (b) was employed by one of the combining legal entities at the time of the consolidation.

(4) "New employee" means an employee of the consolidated employer who is not an existing employee.

(5) "Active member" means a member of a retirement system who was making contributions to that retirement system at the time of the consolidation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. If a consolidated employer is a participating member in the public employees' retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW prior to the consolidation:

(1) All existing employees of the consolidated employer who are active members of the public employees' retirement system immediately prior to the consolidation shall continue to be members of that retirement system while employed by the consolidated employer.

(2) All existing employees of the consolidated employer who are active members of a first class city retirement system under chapter 41.28 RCW immediately prior to the consolidation shall cease to be members of that system at the time of the consolidation and, if eligible, shall immediately become members of the public employees' retirement system. However, any such active member may, by a writing filed with the consolidated employer within thirty days after the consolidation or within thirty days after the effective date of this act, whichever is later, irrevocably elect instead to continue to be a member of the first class city retirement system, thereby forever waiving any rights under the public employees' retirement system based upon employment with the consolidated employer.

(3) Only prospective periods of qualifying service under the public employees' retirement system may be established under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. If a consolidated employer is a city operating a first class city retirement system under chapter 41.28 RCW prior to the consolidation:

(1) All existing employees of the consolidated employer who are active members of the first class city retirement system immediately prior to the consolidation shall continue to be members of that retirement system while employed by the consolidated employer.

(2) All existing employees of the consolidated employer who are active members of the public employees' retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW immediately prior to the consolidation shall cease to be members of that system at the time of the consolidation and, if eligible, shall immediately become members of the first class city retirement system. However, any such active member may, by a writing filed with the consolidated employer within thirty days after the consolidation or within thirty days after the effective date of this act, whichever is later, irrevocably elect instead to continue to be a member of the public employees' retirement system, thereby forever waiving any rights under the first class city retirement system based upon such employment with the consolidated employer.

(3) Only prospective periods of qualifying service under the first class city retirement system may be established under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If a consolidated employer is a newly created legal entity and does not immediately join the public employees' retirement system pursuant to RCW 41.40.410:

(1) All existing employees of the consolidated employer who are active members of a first class city retirement system or the public employees' retirement system immediately prior to the consolidation shall cease to be members of these systems. However, any such active members may, by a writing filed with the consolidated employer within thirty days after the consolidation or within thirty days after the effective date of this act, whichever is later, irrevocably elect instead to continue as members of the retirement system to which they belonged at the time of the consolidation for all periods of employment with the consolidated employer.

(2) If the consolidated employer later joins the public employees' retirement system, all existing employees still employed on that date shall, effective from that date, have the same retirement system rights and options, subject to the same conditions as employees governed by section 24 of this act, notwithstanding any previous election under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) No new employees of the consolidated employer may become members of an employer-sponsored retirement system until such time as the employer joins the public employees' retirement system pursuant to RCW 41.40.410.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Notwithstanding any provision of section 24, 25, or 26 of this act:

(1) No person may simultaneously accrue any contractual rights whatsoever in more than one Washington public retirement system as a consequence of employment by a consolidated employer.

(2) No person who makes a written election permitted by section 24, 25, or 26 of this act may receive a retirement allowance from such retirement system under any circumstances while employed or reemployed by the consolidated employer.

(3) No person may accrue any benefits or rights under any Washington public retirement system as a result of section 24, 25, or 26 of this act except such rights of continuing membership that are specifically and explicitly granted by section 24, 25, or 26 of this act.

(4) Nothing in sections 22 through 27 of this act is intended to constitute an amendment or waiver of any law or rule of any Washington public retirement system, including but not limited to those governing eligibility for service credit, benefits, or membership, except to broaden the class of legal entities that are deemed to be participating employers in the retirement systems in the specific circumstances stated in sections 24, 25, and 26 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. (1) Consolidated employers that employ persons governed by section 24, 25, or 26 of this act shall comply with all laws and rules governing the retirement system in which the persons participate as members, including but not limited to the obligations to make employer contributions, to deduct and transmit employee contributions, and to submit required reports.

(2) Sections 24, 25, 26, and 27 of this act govern any consolidation occurring on or after December 31, 1981.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. Sections 22 through 28 of this act are each added to chapter 41.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. (1) There is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, from the state general fund to the public employees' retirement system fund the sum of two hundred ten thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of section 9 of this act.

(2) There is appropriated to the department of retirement systems for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, from the department of retirement systems expense fund the sum of fifty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the administration of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4490, restricting utilities from terminating utility service for residential space heat, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and that the amended bill do pass:

(See amendments in Report of Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490, read in on March 4, 1984)

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 35.21.300, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The lien for charges for service by a city waterworks, or electric light or power plant may be enforced only by cutting off the service until the delinquent and unpaid charges are paid, except that until June 30, 1986, electricity for residential space heating may be terminated between November 15 and March 15 only as provided in subsection (2) of this section. In the event of a disputed account and tender by the owner of the premises of the amount he claims to be due before the service is cut off, the right to refuse service to any premises shall not accrue until suit has been entered by the city and judgment entered in the case.

(2) Until June 30, 1986:

(a) Electricity for residential space heating shall not be terminated between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:

(ii) Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or a grantee of the planning and community affairs agency which administers federally funded energy assistance programs, that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and which provides a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income;

(iii) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(iv) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is applicable for the dwelling;

The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but the plan shall not be invalidated unless payment during this period is less than seven percent. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan; and

(vi) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

(ii) Assist the customer in fulfilling the requirements under this subsection;

(iii) Be authorized to transfer an account to a new residence when a customer who has established a plan under this subsection moves from one residence to another within the same utility service area; and

(iv) Be permitted to disconnect service if the customer fails to honor the payment program. Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this subsection.

(c) In distributing energy assistance funds pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 8624, the department of social and health services and grantees of the planning and community affairs agency shall make all payments either directly to the utility or jointly payable to the customer and the utility.

(c) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(d) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is applicable for the dwelling;

(e) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but the plan shall not be invalidated unless payment during this period is less than seven percent. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan; and

(f) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

(2) The utility shall:

(a) Include in any notice that an account is delinquent and that service may be subject to termination a description of the customer's duties in this section;

(c) Be authorized to transfer an account to a new residence when a customer who has established a plan under this section moves from one residence to another within the same utility service area; and

(d) Be permitted to disconnect service if the customer fails to honor the payment program. Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this section.

(3) In distributing energy assistance funds pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 8624, the department of social and health services and grantees of the planning and community affairs agency shall make payments either directly to the utility or jointly payable to the customer and the utility.

(4) This section shall expire June 30, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 54.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1163.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1509.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1652.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the seventh order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Second Substitute House Bill No. 181, which was placed on third reading on March 5, 1984.

THIRD READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 181, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Stratton, B. Williams, Isaacson, Sanders, Martinis, McClure, McDonald and Mitchell)

Modifying provisions regarding public lands.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President, I'd like to raise a point of order that this bill fails to survive the cut-off.

"Mr. President, I have read this bill several times. I have been trying to find where it fits into the cut-off resolution. It is not a part of the budget bill. I can find nothing in here dealing with unemployment unless, perhaps, the creation of a new department which I perceive would wind up having something to do with reducing unemployment, other than that I can't find it.

"Talking about revenue--the third section of the cut-off--there are no fee increases in here. There's merely a piece of language which says the Department may continue to extract 25% fees when they handle the exchange of property. I do not consider that an increase in fees or change in fees. Dealing in terms of revenues to the fund, I can only quote Mr. Hitchman, who indicates that he thinks that the possibility of DNR entering into commercial real estate business is very risky. Success in this area demands a great deal of expertise and a highly competent, experienced staff. Although there is a potential that income to the trust beneficiary could be increased, that potential will not come to fruition without some way to eliminate some of the risks associated with the transaction.

"Viewing that, which happens to be my opinion of the bill, as well, I cannot find that there is any revenue portion of this bill. Unless one of those three elements is strongly in this bill, I believe that the bill has failed to survive the cut-off, and that it is not properly before this body."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In reply to Senator Vognild's point, the President rules that Second Substitute House Bill No. 181 is properly before the Senate when one reads the cut-off resolution, which states 'That after 5:00 p.m. on the forty-ninth day of the session, Sunday, February 26, 1984, neither the House nor the Senate may consider any bills except the supplemental budget and matters relating to revenue....' This measure relates to revenue, either the gain or the loss. So, therefore, the President rules the bill is properly before the Senate."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Peterson and Conner demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 181, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 181, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 23; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hayner, Hemstad, Kiskaddon, McDermott, McDonald, Newhouse, Peterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Shinpoch, Thompson, von Reichbauer, Williams, Zimmerman - 25.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bender, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, Lee, McCaslin, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Pullen, Quigg, Rinehart, Sellar, Talmadge, Vogtild, Warnke, Wojahn, Woody - 23.

Excused: Senator Haley - 1.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 181, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved that the Senate revert to the fifth order of business.

MOTION

At 11:23 a.m., Senator Bottiger moved that the Senate recess until 1:30 p.m.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: Senator Bottiger, would it be your intent, then, to take up this motion after 1:30 p.m.?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I don't want to take up the motion at any time. What I really wanted to do was to get some Conference Committee Reports on the desk, which have to be here by 12:00 or those Conference Committee Reports are dead. If we spend four hours debating your motion, then a lot of these measures are going to fall through the cracks."

Senator Metcalf: "Well, all I would ask you is that you'll give us a commitment to take this up at 1:30. Certainly, you know, I think we should take it up at that time. I don't want to get involved in delaying any essential business of the Senate, but this is a very essential measure. If we take it up at 1:30, that's fine. Let's do that."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and at 11:24 a.m., the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the motion by Senator Metcalf to revert to the fifth order of business.

Debate ensued.

Senator Fleming demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Metcalf to revert to the fifth order of business.

The survey testing shall be based on a statistical random sample of students from these grade levels sufficient to generalize about all of the students at each of the selected grade levels from the state's school districts. The purpose of these surveys is to allow the public and the legislature to evaluate how Washington students in these grades compare to students in the same grades tested in other comparable national achievement surveys. The office of superintendent of public instruction shall coordinate such tests and provide such information as obtained therefrom to the legislature no less often than once every four years.~~

~~(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare a report to the legislature on the achievement levels of students in grades eight and eleven based on the achievement level surveys conducted in the 1975-77 biennium and for each of the subsequent testing cycles as designated by the superintendent of public instruction's office. Such report shall include a comparison of the achievement levels attained by Washington students to the levels attained by students outside of the state, with special emphasis placed on the basic skills of reading, mathematics, and language arts. Such report shall also focus on appropriate input variables and comparisons of variables reported by other states' testing programs.~~

~~(3) Results of the first survey test shall be made available to the school districts and the legislature no later than June 30, 1977.~~

~~(4) In addition to the survey testing for grades eight and eleven as set forth in this section,)) Every school district is encouraged to test pupils in grade two by an assessment device designed or selected by the local school districts. This test shall be used to help teachers in identifying those pupils in need of assistance in the skills of reading, writing, mathematics, and language arts. The test results are not to be compiled by the superintendent of public instruction, but are only to be used by the local school district.~~

~~((5)) (2) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare((-with the assistance of local school districts)) and conduct, with the assistance of local school districts, a standardized achievement test to be given annually to all pupils in grade four. The test shall assess students' skill in reading, mathematics, and language arts and shall focus upon appropriate input variables. Results of such tests shall be compiled by the superintendent of public instruction, who shall make those results available annually to the legislature, to all local school districts and~~

subsequently to parents of those children tested. The results shall allow parents to ascertain the achievement levels and input variables of their children as compared with the other students within the district, the state and, if applicable, the nation.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare and conduct, with the assistance of local school districts, an assessment to be administered annually to all grade eight students. The purposes of the assessment are to assist students, parents, and teachers in the planning and selection of appropriate high school programs and courses for the students and to provide comparisons within the district, the state and, if applicable, the nation. The assessment shall include but not be limited to tests in reading, mathematics, and language arts and a student interest inventory. The superintendent of public instruction shall make the results available to all local school districts which shall in turn make them available to students, parents, and teachers in a timely fashion.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall test approximately two thousand students distributed throughout the state in the eleventh grade once every two years. Choice of students shall be based on a statistical random sample of students from this grade level sufficient to generalize about all of the students at the grade level from the state's school districts. The purpose of the test is to allow the public, the legislature, and school district personnel to evaluate how Washington students in this grade compare to students in the same grade tested in other comparable national achievement surveys.

(5) The superintendent of public instruction shall report annually to the legislature on the achievement levels of students in grades four and eight and shall report biennially to the legislature on the achievement levels of students in grade eleven.

The test shall include questions designed to determine students' academic growth and proficiency in skills generally thought to be useful in adult life, including but not limited to English, vocabulary, communications, and mathematical skills as such skills relate to career, consumer, economic, health, and other issues important to individuals becoming productive citizens. The superintendent of public instruction shall develop and implement a process to review periodically the contents of the test and make changes as may be appropriate or necessary.

Each annual average full time equivalent certificated classroom teacher's direct classroom contact hours shall average at least twenty-five hours per week. Direct classroom contact hours shall be exclusive of time required to be spent for preparation, conferences, or any other nonclassroom instruction duties. Up to two hundred minutes per week may be deducted from the twenty-five contact hour requirement, at the discretion of the school district board of directors, to accommodate authorized teacher/parent-guardian conferences, recess, passing time between classes, and informal instructional activity. Implementing rules to be adopted by the state board of education pursuant to RCW 28A.58.754(6) shall provide that compliance with the direct contact hour requirement shall be based upon teachers' normally assigned weekly instructional schedules, as assigned by the district administration. Additional record-keeping by classroom teachers as a means of accounting for contact hours shall not be required. However, upon request from the board of directors of any school district, the provisions relating to direct classroom contact hours for individual teachers in that district may be waived by the state board of education if the waiver is necessary to implement a locally approved plan for educational excellence and the waiver is limited to those individual teachers approved in the local plan for educational excellence. The state board of education shall develop criteria to evaluate the need for the waiver. Granting of the waiver shall depend upon verification that: (a) The students' classroom instructional time will not be reduced; and (b) the teacher's expertise is critical to the success of the local plan for excellence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.67 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish an annual teacher excellence award program for teachers in diverse grades or subject areas. Not more than one award per educational service district may be granted in any school year.

(2) The awards shall include:

(a) Certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at public ceremonies in appropriate locations;

(b) Waiver of tuition and fees under section 9 of this act; and

(c) A stipend not to exceed one thousand dollars to cover costs incurred in taking courses, which stipend shall not be considered compensation for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.095.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Teachers who have received a teacher excellence award under section 8 of this act shall have the tuition and fees waived at any state institution of higher education for eighteen quarter hours or twelve semester hours taken within three years after the award was received.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

School district boards of directors are encouraged to develop and implement incentives which recognize and encourage staff excellence. School districts may provide compensation incentives to staff for additional work or assigned projects conducted as part of a district's excellence in education program or programs that are in addition to a district's basic education program. Such compensation shall not be deemed an increase in salary or compensation for purposes of RCW 28A.58.095 nor shall such compensation be applied to the district's salary schedule or be provided in a manner which would increase the state's basic education funding obligation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) There is established for the 1984-85 school year a pilot program to permit up to one hundred fifty teachers who are assigned to supervise the field experience of student teachers to receive a stipend and up to three quarter hour credits or the equivalent at a state institution of higher education.

(2) The objective of the program is to: (a) Enhance the quality of teachers entering the profession through improved practical field experience; and (b) recognize the value of instruction provided by supervisory teachers.

(3) Each supervisory teacher shall assure that the student teacher receives practical teaching experience and direct supervision throughout the assignment.

(4) Each participating school or college of education shall provide training in supervisory skills for the supervisory teacher.

(5) School districts shall provide supervisory teachers with release time the district deems necessary to be able to supervise the student teachers.

(6) For the purposes of this section, "student teacher" means an individual who receives training experiences under supervision in school or school-related settings while participating in a teacher education program approved by the state board of education.

(7) The state board of education shall administer, coordinate, and evaluate the program and report back to the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate by September 15, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The state board of education shall recommend a plan to establish a graduate level professional teacher preparation program for teacher certification. The plan shall be based on an analysis of the need for and design of: Explicit entry and exit competency criteria, which shall include testing and assessments of competency in various subject matters or in pedagogy including the ability to encourage students to learn and relate to others in a mutually respectful manner, or both; breadth and depth of subject matter; training and research relevant to teaching skills; extensive experience in local districts including internship, a portion of which may be paid; research on education; continued involvement of program units as defined by the state board of education; and other criteria as the board may determine appropriate. The state board shall also recommend enabling legislation and changes in certification needed to establish such program, provide data relative to costs, and recommend a process for certifying teachers who have been certified in another state. The state board of education shall submit to the legislature by December 1, 1984, recommendations for legislation required to implement such a graduate level professional teacher preparation program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After June 30, 1987, each applicant for initial certification shall have completed the necessary coursework and field training requirements, shall submit letters of evaluation from academic and field training supervisors, shall pass an examination or examinations that measure the applicant's subject area knowledge, and shall satisfy other procedures prescribed by the state board of education before receiving initial certification to teach or perform other professional duties in the schools of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The Washington state legislature intends to study the appropriate salary and benefit levels of educators. The study shall:

(1) Address the appropriate salary and benefit levels of teachers, for both current preparation standards and the increased professional preparation standards under section 12 of this act, to a level similar to persons in public and private occupations in this state holding positions requiring or imposing similar training, responsibilities, judgment, knowledge, skills, and working conditions. The study shall compare teachers to public and private occupations on both an hourly wage basis and on an annual salary basis.

(2) Compare Washington state teachers and administrators to teachers and administrators in other states on the bases under subsection (1) of this section; and

(3) Compare the workloads of Washington state teachers and administrators with teachers and administrators in other states.

The superintendent of public instruction shall contract for a study to assist the legislature in the study. The study shall be completed and the results reported to the legislature by January 1, 1985. The superintendent of public instruction shall also make available to the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management, prior to the presentation of the final report, such data as may be developed as part of the study. The legislature is not obligated to implement any or all of the results contained in such study.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.71 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to equate credits for district in-service training with college credits for the purpose of salary allocation. Certificated employees may receive up to three additional education credits per year for advancement on the salary schedule for staff development courses taking place after September 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.71 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each school district shall design, and implement a staff development plan under the In-Service Training Act of 1977, RCW 28A.71.200 and 28A.71.210.

The plan shall be established prior to September 1, 1985, and shall provide for staff development training programs which are of professional benefit to employees. School districts shall review and approve staff development training courses. Courses shall be recognized by a school district if such courses:

(1) Enable employees to maintain or improve proficiency in their current or anticipated assignments; or

(2) Respond to an area of district-needed expertise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Local districts shall assign secondary teachers holding initial level certificates to endorsed areas and levels only. Teachers holding initial level elementary endorsement shall be assigned to elementary grades only. Teachers holding continuing level certificates should be assigned to recommended areas and levels or to areas and levels in which they have demonstrated competency during professional service: PROVIDED, That teachers holding certificates endorsed for grades kindergarten through eight or seven through twelve may be assigned to junior high schools and middle schools: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when it is considered justifiable the superintendent of public instruction may, if requested by the school district superintendent who will provide evidence of the need for such assignment, authorize initially certificated teachers to serve at different grade levels or in different subject matter fields from those recommended: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when a certificated teacher is assigned outside his or her recommended areas or levels, or outside areas or levels where competence has been demonstrated, the school district shall provide training in the new assignment and the district shall develop with each affected teacher a plan for this training, which plan shall be submitted to the superintendent of public instruction within thirty days of the individual's assignment, and the teacher may not continue teaching outside his or her recommended areas or levels for more than one year unless substantial progress has been made on this planned training.

(2) Assignments to serve in educational staff associate roles shall be limited to persons holding valid educational staff associate certificates with appropriate endorsements.

(3) Assignment of persons to serve as principals or vice principals shall be limited to persons holding valid administrator certificates with the appropriate endorsement or endorsements: PROVIDED, That principals holding certificates endorsed for grades kindergarten through eight or seven through twelve may be assigned to junior high schools and middle schools.

(4) School districts shall assign beginning teachers who hold provisional certificates to the elementary, junior high, or senior high school levels and to subject fields in accordance with the beginning teacher's qualifications. Such assignment shall obtain during the beginning teacher's first year of teaching: PROVIDED, That when it is considered justifiable the superintendent of public instruction may, if requested by the school district superintendent who will provide evidence of the need for such assignment, authorize beginning teachers to teach at different grade levels or in different subject matter fields from those recommended: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when a beginning teacher is assigned outside his or her areas or levels of qualification, the school district shall provide training equivalent to that needed for endorsement in the new assignment and the district shall develop with each affected teacher a plan for this training, and the teacher may not continue teaching outside his or her areas or levels of qualification for more than one year unless substantial progress has been made on this planned training.

Sec. 18. Section 7, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.0284 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply in respect to the use of (~~computers, computer components, computer accessories, or computer software~~) tangible personal property irrevocably donated to and accepted by any public or private nonprofit school or (college) institution of higher education, as defined under chapter 84.36 RCW, in this state. (~~For purposes of this section, "computer" means a data processor that can perform substantial computation;~~ including numerous arithmetic or logic operations, without intervention by a human operator during the run.))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Implementation of sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16 of this act are each subject to funds being appropriated or available for such purpose or purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 6, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred, SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3194, authorizing department to destroy vehicle license renewal applications upon entering the information contained on them into the computer system, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 46.08.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.01.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The director, in his discretion, may destroy applications for vehicle licenses, copies of vehicle licenses issued, applications for drivers' licenses, copies of issued drivers' licenses, certificates of title and registration, or other documents, records, or supporting papers on file in his office which have been microfilmed or photographed or are more than five years old. If the applications for vehicle licenses are renewal applications, the director may destroy such applications when the computer record thereof has been updated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 46.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 42.17 RCW, the name or address of an individual vehicle owner shall not be released by the department, county auditor or other public agency except upon written request, signed by the person requesting disclosure, stating their full legal name and address. The request for disclosure is itself a public record, subject to inspection and copying, and shall be retained by the disclosing agency for two years.

When deemed appropriate by the disclosing agency, notice that such a disclosure request has been honored may be sent to the affected vehicle owner, indicating the name and address of the person requesting disclosure.

This section shall not apply to persons who routinely request disclosure of vehicle registration information for use in the course of their business or occupation."

In line 2 of the title, after "amending" strike the remainder of the title, and insert "section 46.08.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.01.260; and adding a new section to chapter 46.12 RCW."

Signed by: Senators Peterson and Patterson; Representatives Walk, Sutherland and Wilson.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Presumably, that Free Conference Report would have to be on the desks by 12:00 noon today, and powers of Free Conference would only extend if we had an extended session, because everything would die as of the end of the session."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that the report was on the Senator's desk prior to noon."

Senator Rasmussen: "We're only granting the powers of Free Conference right now. I don't know how the report of the Free Conference Committee could be on the desks at noon when we're only granting the powers right now. I'm confused."

President Cherberg: "Senator Rasmussen and other members, Rule 11 of the Joint Rules states that 'The report shall be read in full in each house before a vote is taken on the report. The Senate and House, within their own bodies, can suspend the reading of a report in full. The House and Senate shall have thirty-six hours from the time of receipt in the house originating the conference request to consider reports from a Free Conference Committee and shall not vote thereon until the thirty-six hour period shall have elapsed, except that with respect to budget and appropriations and revenue and tax measures, the required interval shall be twenty-four hours.'

"The Secretary advises and Senator Peterson corroborates the reports were on the desks yesterday."

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I fail to understand how a Free Conference Committee Report can be on the desks before we have granted the powers of Free Conference, which we are purporting to do right now."

President Cherberg: "The rules permit the Conference Committee to prepare amendments that will be incorporated in the bill that will be drawn by the Free Conference Committee."

Senator Rasmussen: "I understand that, Mr. President, but a Free Conference Committee has no limit on what it does, as we well know. As we look at the bill, and I should point out to you, House Bill 392, came back with three different bills on it and we never had any hint of what they were going to do with that. So, I would think that our rules--and I don't wish to argue with the President--I might argue with the Secretary of the Senate--that our rules would provide thirty-six hours from the time that the Free Conference Committee lays the report on our desks and was signed by the Free Conference Committee--not the Conference Committee."

President Cherberg: "Senator, this rule refers to the conference request."

Senator Rasmussen: "The conference request, but the rules require that we have the completed material by the Free Conference Committee."

President Cherberg: "The President wishes to advise Senator Rasmussen that, in all honesty, he believes that the report is properly before the Senate."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Mr. President. Then the question can be raised at the time that we consider the Free Conference Report, as to whether it has been on our desks for thirty-six hours?"

President Cherberg: "You may raise the question at any time, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Mr. President."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "A point of parliamentary inquiry. Based on the remarks of the previous two Senators, I'm curious as to whether the reports of the Conference Committees are time-stamped when they are distributed on our desks or if there is some way that we know the precise time at which the Report of the Free Conference Committee is put on the desks? I think that's very important to know concerning some of the reports that are now being considered by this body within the last twenty-four hours of the session. May we inquire of the Secretary for any particular bill, the precise time that it was distributed, so that we can watch the thirty-six hour rule?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Well, all the President can realize is that if the Report of a Free Conference Committee comes on the desk now, it will probably be two o'clock Friday morning before you can consider the measure."

Senator Pullen: "Yes, I agree one hundred percent and I gather that if we watched for such distributions, we can rise to a point of order at the time that someone wishes to bring it up."

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator Pullen."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson, the report of the Conference Committee was adopted on Substitute Senate Bill No. 3194 and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

Mr. President:

The House adopted the report of the Conference Committee on SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 843 and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 2, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred, SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 843, modifying provisions relating to retirement from public service, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows:

(See amendments in Report of Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 843, read in earlier today)

Signed by: Senators Shinpoch, McDermott and Newhouse; Representatives Monohon, Sommers and Cantu.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 843 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 843, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator McDermott, referring to subsection (2) of section 1 of the bill, there are references there to 'any labor agreement currently in force' and also 'after the expiration of the current contract.' As the sponsor of the amendment adding this language to the bill, did you intend these references to include only traditional collective bargaining agreements with a recognized union bargaining agent? In other words, was this language intended not to extend to general personnel policies of an employer or individual written or oral agreements with individual employees?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Shinpoch, this language is intended to refer only to a traditional union collective bargaining agreement with a fixed expiration date. It was brought to me by the Association of Counties who have collective bargaining agreements in effect which will be allowed to run until the end of them and then they will have to negotiate a new contract under the terms of this bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Shinpoch, it's my understanding that the PUD pension system is funded fully by the employer--the state is not involved--and with that understanding, is it correct that this bill would not affect the PUD pensions?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Vognild, I'm not sure what portion you're referring to, but we do have a portion of this bill that the PUD seemed to be concerned about and it deals with the ballooning of pensions and it does not tell any pension system that they can't balloon their pensions, if that's their desire. It simply says that they have to pay for it, rather than other people paying for it."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 843, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 843, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 01; absent, 02; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 46.

Voting nay: Senator Sellar - 1.

Absent: Senators Barr, Woody - 2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 843, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the fifth order of business.

Voting nay: Senators Craswell, Hayner, Quigg - 3.

Absent: Senators Hansen, Lee, McDermott, Thompson - 4.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen: "A point of personal privilege. Mr. President and Senator Quigg, I forgot to tell you that all of the members of the Trade Mission pay their own way, contrary to many of those governmental junkets that you hear about. Each member of the Trade Mission has paid his own way and if he takes his wife along--which most of them hopefully will--rather than a girl friend--they pay for their wife's travel, also, and that's contrary to a lot of the junkets, as the public generally attributes to the politicians. I just wanted to bring that out. I think it's to the credit of the Washington Trade Mission that they do that."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 154 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

There being no objection, the President reverted the Senate to the fourth order of business.

Mr. President:

The House adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4403 and granted said committee the powers of Free Conference, and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 6, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4403, revising provisions relating to health care costs, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

The primary purpose of this chapter is to promote the economic delivery of high quality, necessary, and effective ((hospital)) health care services to the people by establishing a hospital commission with authority over financial disclosure ((and)), budget ((and)), prospective rate ((review)) approval, and other related matters, including authority to develop a hospital reimbursement control system, which will assure all purchasers of ((hospital)) health care services that total hospital costs are reasonably related to total services, that costs do not exceed those that are necessary for prudently and reasonably managed hospitals, that hospital rates are reasonably related to aggregate costs, and that such rates are set equitably among all purchasers of these services without undue discrimination.

The legislature finds and declares that rising hospital costs are a vital concern to the people of this state because of the danger which is posed that hospital and health care services are fast becoming out of the economic reach of the majority of our population. It is further declared that health care is a right of the people and one of the primary purposes for which governments are established, and it is, therefore, essential that an effective cost control program be established ((which will both enable and motivate hospitals to control their spiraling costs)). It is the legislative intent, in pursuance of this declared public policy, to provide for uniform measures on a state-wide basis to control hospital ((costs)) rates without the sacrifice of quality of service or reasonable access to necessary health care.

The legislature further finds and declares that: (1) There is an increased need for comprehensive public oversight of the costs of and expenditures for health care services; (2) no one should be denied access to necessary health care because of poverty or unemployment; (3) access to necessary health care in rural areas must be assured; (4) the hospital commission and the public need additional information to make better-informed decisions about health care costs and charges; (5) there is a need to encourage market penetration of alternative health care delivery systems that have internal incentives to control costs and stimulate market competition, and that some regulatory policies have impeded health care cost containment by unduly restricting competition; (6) there is a need for more effective assessment of the impact of technology on the cost and delivery of health care services so that appropriate public policies may be adopted; and (7) the hospital commission should be more representative of a diversity of public interests so that it can more effectively carry out its mission.

It is the intent of the 1984 amendments to this chapter to strengthen certain regulatory policies which have had limited success in containing hospital costs since this chapter was enacted, and to promote constructive competition among health care delivery systems.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Commission" means the hospital commission of the state of Washington as created by this chapter;

(2) "Consumer" means any person whose occupation is other than the administration of health activities or the providing of health services, who has no fiduciary obligation to a health facility or other health agency, and who has no material financial interest in the rendering of health services;

(3) "Hospital" means any health care institution which is required to qualify for a license under RCW 70.41.020(2); or as a psychiatric hospital under chapter 71.12 RCW, but shall not include beds utilized by a comprehensive cancer center for cancer research, or any health care institution conducted for those who rely primarily upon treatment by prayer or spiritual means in accordance with the creed or tenets of any church or denomination.

(4) "Diagnosis-related groups" is a classification system that groups hospital patients according to principal and secondary diagnosis, presence or absence of a surgical procedure, age, presence or absence of significant comorbidities or complications, and other relevant criteria, an example of which has been adopted as the basis for prospective payment under the federal medicare program by the social security amendments of 1983, Public Law 98-21.

(5) "Medical technology" means the drugs, devices, and medical or surgical procedures used in the delivery of health care, and the organizational or supportive systems within which such care is provided.

(6) "Technology assessment" means a comprehensive form of policy research that examines the technical, economic, and social consequences of technological applications, including the indirect, unintended, or delayed social or economic impacts. In health care, such analysis must evaluate efficacy and safety as well as efficiency.

(7) "Charity care" means necessary hospital health care rendered to indigent persons, to the extent that the persons are unable to pay for the care or to pay deductibles or co-insurance amounts required by a third-party payer, as determined by the commission.

(8) "Rate" means the maximum revenue which a hospital may receive for each unit of service, as determined by the commission.

(9) "Comprehensive cancer center" means an institution and its research programs as recognized by the National Cancer Institute prior to April 20, 1983.

(10) "Region" means one of the health service areas established pursuant to RCW 70.38.085, except that King county shall be considered a separate region for the purposes of this chapter.

(a) Three members representing consumers of health care services, at least one of whom represents the interests of low-income persons;

(b) One member representing private employers;

Except for the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, members of the commission shall serve for four-year terms ~~((PROVIDED, That upon the expiration of the initial four-year terms, two persons shall be appointed for three-year terms and three persons for four-year terms and thereafter all members of the commission shall serve for four-year terms))~~. Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member shall serve on the commission for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes. Of the three additional members, other than the secretary, appointed after the effective date of this 1984 act, two shall initially be appointed for two-year terms and one for a three-year term.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.050 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The))~~ A member representing consumers of health care services and designated by the governor shall serve as chairman. The commission shall elect from its members a vice-chairman biennially. Meetings of the commission shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The commission shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions.

The executive director shall be the chief administrative officer of the commission and shall be subject to its direction.

The commission shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the commission, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW, and under the supervision of the executive director. In addition, the commission may contract with third parties for services necessary to carry out its activities where this will promote economy, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise.

Any such contractor or consultant shall be prohibited from releasing, publishing, or otherwise using any information made available to it under its contractual responsibility, without specific permission of the commission.

The commission may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to hospital health care costs.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Except for the members designated in subsections (2), (3), (10), and (11) of this section, members of the committee shall not have any fiduciary obligation to any health care facility or any material financial interest in the provision of health care services.

With the exception of members designated in subsections (5) and (6) of this section, the members shall serve concurrently and shall have four-year terms. Any vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governor and an appointee selected to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the balance of the term for which his predecessor was appointed. The committee shall elect from its members a chairman and a vice-chairman to serve concurrently with the chairman. The executive director of the commission shall act as executive secretary to the committee, and the commission shall otherwise offer such staff services and supplies as the committee may require to carry out its responsibilities.

The committee shall meet on call of the chairman of the commission, or on request of a majority of the commission. Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee shall have the duty upon the request of the commission to consult with and make recommendations to the commission:

(1) On matters of public policy related to the delivery of health care services;

(2) On rules and regulations proposed by the commission to implement this chapter;

(3) On analyses and studies of hospital health care costs and related matters which may be undertaken by the commission; ~~((and))~~

(4) On any issue related to medical technology or technology assessment in the area of health care; and

(5) On such other matters as the commission may refer.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.090 are each amended to read as follows:

To further the purposes of this chapter, the commission may create committees from its membership, and may create such ad hoc advisory committees in specialized fields, related to the functions of hospitals, the delivery of health care services, economic issues concerning health care, technology assessment, and such other subjects as it deems necessary, to supplement the resources provided by the technical advisory committee.

Sec. 10. Section 11, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission, after study and in consultation with advisory committees, if any, shall establish by the promulgation of rules and regulations pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, a uniform system of accounting and financial reporting, including such cost allocation methods as it may prescribe, by which hospitals shall record and report to the commission their revenues, expenses, other income, other outlays, assets and liabilities, and units of service. All hospitals shall adopt the system for their fiscal year period to be effective at such time and date as the commission shall direct. In determining the effective date for reporting requirements, the commission shall be mindful both of the immediate need for uniform hospital reporting information to effectuate the purposes of this chapter and the administrative and economic difficulties which hospitals may encounter in conversion, but in no event shall such effective date be later than two and one-half years from the date of the formation of the commission.

(2) In establishing such accounting systems and uniform reporting procedures, the commission shall take into consideration:

(a) Existing systems of accounting and reporting presently utilized by hospitals;

(b) Differences among hospitals according to size; financial structure; methods of payment for services; and scope, type, and method of providing services; and

(c) Other pertinent distinguishing factors.

(3) The commission shall, where appropriate, provide for modification, consistent with the purposes of this chapter, of reporting requirements to correctly reflect these differences among hospitals, and to avoid otherwise unduly burdensome costs in meeting the requirements of the uniform system of accounting and financial reporting.

(4) The accounting system, where appropriate, shall be structured so as to establish and differentiate costs incurred for patient-related services rendered by hospitals, as distinguished from those incurred with reference to educational research and other nonpatient-related activities including but not limited to charitable activities of such hospitals.

(5) The commission shall collect and maintain patient discharge data, including data necessary for identification of discharges by diagnosis-related groups. So far as possible, the data collection procedures shall be coordinated with any similar procedures or requirements of the federal department of health and human services for the medicare program and the needs of the department of social and health services in gathering public health statistics, in order to minimize any unduly burdensome reporting requirements imposed on hospitals.

Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each hospital shall file annually, at such time as the commission may prescribe, its proposed budget for the next fiscal year, showing projected revenues and expenses and including such further information as the commission may require to implement the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Each hospital shall file annually with the commission after the close of the fiscal year:

(a) A balance sheet detailing the assets, liabilities, and net worth of the hospital;

(b) A statement of income and expenses; and

(c) Such other reports of the costs incurred in rendering services as the commission may prescribe.

~~((2))~~ (3) Where more than one licensed hospital is operated by the reporting organization, the information required by this section shall be reported for each hospital separately.

~~((3))~~ (4) The commission shall require certification of specified financial reports by the hospital's certified public accountant, and may require attestation as to such statements from responsible officials of the hospital that such reports have to the best of their knowledge and belief been prepared in accordance with the prescribed system of accounting and reporting.

~~((4))~~ (5) All reports, except privileged medical information, filed under this chapter shall be ~~((open to))~~ available for public inspection and copying under RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.340.

~~((5))~~ (6) The commission shall ~~((have the right of inspection of))~~ inspect hospital books, audits, and records as reasonably necessary to ~~((verify hospital reports))~~ implement the policies and purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 12. Section 13, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission shall from time to time undertake analyses and studies relating to ~~((hospital))~~ the need for and delivery of health care services, the availability of such services, hospital rates, health care costs, and ((to)) the financial status of any hospital or hospitals subject to the provisions of this chapter, and may publish and disseminate such information as it deems desirable in the public interest. It shall further ((require the filing of)) publish information concerning the ((total financial needs of each hospital and the resources available or expected to become available to meet such needs, including the effect of proposals made by area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies)) need for health care services identified by area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies under chapter 70.38 RCW and the extent to which such needs are being met.

(2) The commission shall also prepare and file such summaries and compilations or other supplementary reports based on the information filed with the commission hereunder as will advance the purposes of this chapter.

(3) The commission shall furnish a copy of any report regarding any hospital to the chief executive officer of the hospital and the presiding officer of the hospital's governing body.

Sec. 13. Section 14, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 82, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 70.39.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall prepare and, prior to each legislative session beginning in January, transmit to the governor and to the legislature an annual report of commission operations and activities for the preceding fiscal year. This report shall include such findings and recommendations as the commission ((deems necessary)) believes will further the legislative goal of cost containment in the delivery of good quality health care services, including cost-containment programs that have been or might be adopted, and issues of access to good quality care. The report shall also include data on the amount and proportion of charity care provided by each hospital. The commission's report for 1986, to be submitted in January 1987, shall include an analysis of the impacts of section 15 of this 1984 act on (1) the use by indigent persons of health care settings other than hospitals and (2) the caseloads and costs associated with the limited casualty program for medical indigents under RCW 74.09.700. The department of social and health services and the health systems agencies established under chapter 70.38 RCW shall provide such information and assistance as the commission may reasonably require in preparing the report on the impact of section 15 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 14. Section 15, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) From and after a date not less than twelve months but not more than twenty-four months after the adoption of the uniform system of accounting and financial reporting required by RCW 70.39.100, as the commission may direct, the commission shall have the power to initiate such reviews or investigations as may be necessary to assure all purchasers of ((hospital)) health care services that the total costs of a hospital are reasonably related to the total services offered by that hospital, that costs do not exceed those that are necessary for prudently and reasonably managed hospitals, that the hospital's ((aggregate revenues as expressed by)) rates are reasonably related to the hospital's aggregate costs; and that rates are set equitably among all purchasers or classes of purchasers of services without undue discrimination or preference. Effective July 1, 1985, if all 1984 amendments to this section and section 22 of this 1984 act take effect, this chapter does not preclude any hospital from negotiating with and charging any particular payer or purchaser rates that are less than those approved by the commission, if:

(a) The rates are cost justified and do not result in any shifting of costs to other payers or purchasers in the current or any subsequent year;

(b) The hospital granting such rates has been determined by the commission to be providing charity care at or above the average for such care in the region served by the hospital and as determined by the commission; and

(c) All the terms of such negotiated rates are filed with the commission within ten working days and made available for public inspection.

The commission may retrospectively disapprove such negotiated rates in accordance with procedures established by the commission if such rates are found to contravene any provision of this section.

(2) In order to properly discharge these obligations, the commission shall have full power to review projected annual revenues and approve the reasonableness of rates proposed to generate that revenue established or requested by any hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter. No hospital shall charge for services at rates ((other than)) exceeding those established in accordance with the procedures established hereunder. After June 30, 1985, rates for inpatient care shall be expressed using an appropriate measure of hospital efficiency, such as that based on diagnosis-related groups, and, if necessary for federal medicare participation in a hospital reimbursement control system, hospitals shall charge for such care at rates prospectively established and expressed in terms of a comparable unit of total payment, such as diagnosis-related groups. In the event any hospital reimbursement control system is implemented, children's hospitals shall be exempted until such time as a pediatric based classification system which reflects the unique resource consumption by patients of a children's hospital is perfected. For the purposes of this exemption, children's hospitals are defined as hospitals whose patients are predominantly under eighteen years of age.

(3) In the interest of promoting the most efficient and effective use of ((hospital)) health care service, and providing greater promise of hospital cost containment, the commission may ((promote and approve alternative methods of rate determination and payment of an experimental nature that may be in the public interest and consistent with the purposes of this chapter)) develop a hospital reimbursement control system in which all payers or purchasers participate, that includes procedures for establishing prospective rates, that deals equitably with the costs of providing charity care, and that shall include the participation of the federal medicare program under the social security amendments of 1983, Public Law 98-21. The commission shall have the authority to require utilization reviews of patient care to ensure that hospital admissions and services provided are medically justified. The commission may seek approval, concurrence, or participation in such a system from any federal agency, such as the department of health and human services, prior to securing legislative approval pursuant to concurrent resolution for implementation of any hospital reimbursement control system developed pursuant to this section. The commission shall involve the legislature in the development of any plan for a hospital reimbursement control system.

(4) The commission shall assure that no hospital or its medical staff either adopts or maintains admission practices or policies which result in:

(a) A significant reduction in the proportion of patients who have no third-party coverage and who are unable to pay for hospital services;

(b) A significant reduction in the proportion of individuals admitted for inpatient hospital services for which payment is or is likely to be less than the anticipated charges for or costs of such services;

(c) The refusal to admit patients who would be expected to require unusually costly or prolonged treatment for reasons other than those related to the appropriateness of the care available at the hospital; or

(d) The refusal to provide emergency or other medically necessary services to any person who is in need of such services if the hospital provides such services. The commission shall establish by rule a definition of "medically necessary services" for the purposes of this subsection (4)(d), which shall be narrowly construed.

(5) The commission shall serve as the state agency responsible for coordinating state actions and otherwise responding and relating to the efforts of the ((cost of living council, or its successor)) federal department of health and human services in planning and implementing federal cost containment programs with respect to hospitals and related health care institutions as authorized by the ((Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970)) social security amendments of 1983, as now or hereafter amended, or other federal law, and any rules or regulations promulgated thereto. In carrying out this responsibility, the commission may ((serve as the state agency responsible for recommending increases in rates for hospitals and related health care institutions to the cost of living council, or its successor; may apply to the cost of living council for authorization to administer a control program in Washington state in lieu of the federal controls established and otherwise administered by the cost of living council; may)) assume ((another)) any function or role authorized by appropriate federal regulations implementing the ((Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970)) social security amendments of 1983; or assume any combination of such roles or functions as it may determine will most effectively contain the rising costs of the varying kinds of hospitals and related health care institutions in Washington state. In determining its functions or roles in relation to ((the)) federal efforts ((to the cost of living council, or its successor)), the commission shall seek to ensure coordination, and the reduction of duplicatory cost containment efforts, by the state and federal governments, as well as the diligent fulfillment of the purposes of this chapter and declared public policy and legislative intent herein((-PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in cases where the rates of nursing homes or similar health institutions are subject to review pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970 or any rules or regulations promulgated thereto, the members of the commission representing hospitals shall not sit in the proceedings nor vote, and the governor shall appoint an ad hoc member representing nursing homes or similar health institutions in lieu thereof, who shall have the same powers as the other members with respect to such review only)).

Nothing in this chapter limits the ability of the department of social and health services to establish hospital payment rates pursuant to RCW 74.09.120 or in accord with a federally approvable state plan under Title XIX of the federal social security act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 70.39 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Within six months of the effective date of this act, the commission shall establish by rule, consistent with the definition of charity care under RCW 70.39.020, the following:

(1) Uniform procedures, data requirements, and criteria for identifying patients receiving charity care;

(2) A definition of residual bad debt as a component of hospital rate-setting and budget review, including reasonable and uniform standards for collection procedures to be used in efforts to collect the unpaid portions of hospital charges that are the patient's responsibility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. By January 1, 1985, a select committee of the legislature shall develop legislative recommendations for programs that will promote the state-wide development of comprehensive cost-effective managed health care systems and shall recommend programs that will promote use of such managed health care systems. The select committee shall be composed of twelve members of the legislature, six appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and six appointed by the president of the senate, three from each of the two largest political caucuses in each house, upon recommendation of the majority and minority caucuses of their respective bodies.

The committee shall elect a chairperson from among its membership.

The committee is authorized to appoint a technical advisory committee to prepare proposals under which cost-effective managed health care systems could be used to control health care costs, to more equitably distribute charity care among hospitals and licensed health care practitioners, and more effectively provide publicly and privately financed patient care.

For the purposes of this study "managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract comprehensive health care services to one or more defined patient populations by enrollment or other prior agreement or arrangement.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. By January 1, 1985, the governor shall submit a six-year state health care purchasing plan to the legislature. The plan shall identify the number and type of health care services purchased by the state through the department of social and health services, the department of labor and industries, the state employees' insurance board, the office of superintendent of public instruction, and other agencies of government where state funds are used to purchase health care. The plan shall contain objectives for realizing specific dollar savings in the purchase of these health care services by obtaining discounts from providers, contracting with managed health care systems, altering copayment and deductible requirements, instituting improved utilization controls, using prospective payment arrangements, or by other means.

The governor or the governor's designee shall report the governor's progress in completing this plan to the legislative budget committee and the social and health services and ways and means committees of the house of representatives and the senate by September 30, 1984.

Sec. 18. Section 16, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 154, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.150 are each amended to read as follows:

To properly carry out its authority the commission shall:

(1) Compile and maintain all relevant financial ((and)), accounting, and patient discharge data in order to have available the statistical information necessary to properly conduct rate review and approval. Such data shall include necessary operating expenses, appropriate expenses incurred for charity care and for rendering services to patients who ((cannot or)) do not pay, all properly incurred interest charges, and reasonable depreciation expenses based on the expected useful life of the property and equipment involved. The commission shall define and prescribe by rule and regulation the types and classes of charges which cannot be changed except as provided by the procedure contained in RCW 70.39.160 and it shall also obtain from each such hospital a current rate schedule as well as any subsequent amendments or modifications of that schedule as it may require. So far as possible, the commission shall compile and maintain the same patient discharge data with respect to all patients as that required under the federal medicare program and the uniform billing procedures applicable to third-party payers.

(2) Permit any ((nonprofit)) hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge reasonable rates which will permit the hospital to render necessary, effective, and efficient service in the public interest ((and on a solvent basis)).

(3) ((Permit any proprietary profit-making hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge reasonable rates which will permit the hospital to render effective and efficient service in the public interest and which includes an allowance for a fair return to stockholders based upon actual investment or, if the hospital elects, upon the fair value of the investment on the effective date of this section: PROVIDED, That once the election is made it may not be changed without the approval of the commission.

(4) Take into account, in the determination of reasonable rates under this section, that it is its obligation to assure access to necessary, effective, economically viable, and efficient hospital health care capability throughout the state, rather than the solvency or profitability of any individual hospital subject to this chapter except where the insolvency of a hospital would seriously threaten the access of the rural public to basic health care services.

(4) Take into account, in the determination of reasonable rates under this section for each hospital, the recommendations of appropriate area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies to ensure compliance with Washington comprehensive health planning law, chapter 70.38 RCW.

((5) Permit, in considering a request for change in or initiating a review of rate schedules or other charges, any hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge rates which will in the aggregate produce sufficient total revenue for the hospital to meet all of the reasonable obligations specified in this chapter:))

(5) Permit any hospital, whether proprietary, district, public, or not-for-profit, to retain the excess of its revenues, if any, that exceed the actual cost of providing services, generated as a result of cost-effective practices, if the hospital charges do not exceed rates permitted by the commission.

(6) On or before October 1 of each year, after notice and public hearing, and in full consideration of the intent and purpose of this chapter as expressed in RCW 70.39.010, adopt a target dollar amount of total state-wide hospital revenue for the ensuing calendar year. To set the target amount, the commission shall develop a standard methodology that considers such factors as changes in the economy, affordability of hospital care, cost of hospital-purchased goods, numbers and age of the population, technology, and severity of illness of hospital patients. The commission shall endeavor, in establishing rates, to assure that total hospital revenues do not exceed the target amount for the applicable year.

Sec. 19. Section 17, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.160 are each amended to read as follows:

From and after the date determined by the commission pursuant to RCW 70.39.140, no hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter shall change or amend that schedule of rates and charges of the type and class which cannot be changed without prior approval of the commission, except in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) Any request for a change in rate schedules or other charges must be filed in writing in the form and content prescribed by the commission and with such supporting data as the hospital seeking the change deems appropriate. Unless the commission orders otherwise as provided for in subsection (4) of this section, no hospital shall establish such changes except after publication and notice to the commission of at least thirty days from the time the rate is intended to go into effect. All proposed changes shall be plainly indicated on the schedule effective at that time and shall be open to public inspection. Upon receipt of notice, the commission may suspend the effective date of any proposed change. In any such case a formal written statement of the reasons for the suspension will be promptly submitted to the hospital. Unless suspended, any proposed change shall go into effect upon the date specified in the application.

(2) In any case where such action is deemed necessary, the commission shall promptly, but in any event within thirty days, institute proceedings as to the reasonableness of the proposed changes. The suspension may extend for a period of not more than thirty days beyond the date the change would otherwise go into effect: PROVIDED, That should it be necessary, the commission may extend the suspension for an additional thirty days. After the expiration of ninety days from the date the rate is intended to go into effect the new rate will go into effect, if the commission does not approve, disapprove, or modify the request by that time.

(3) Such proposed changes shall be considered at a public hearing, the time and place of which shall be determined by the commission. The hearing shall be conducted by the commission. Evidence for and against the requested change may be introduced at the time of the hearing by any interested party and witnesses may be heard. The hearing may be conducted without compliance with formal rules of evidence.

(4) The commission may, in its discretion, permit any hospital to make a temporary change in rates which shall be effective immediately upon filing and in advance of any review procedure when it deems it in the public interest to do so. Notwithstanding such temporary change in rates, the review procedures set out in this section shall be conducted by the commission as soon thereafter as is practicable.

(5) Every decision and order of the commission in any contested proceeding shall be in writing and shall state the grounds for the commission's conclusions. The effects of such orders shall be prospective in nature.

Sec. 20. Section 21, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person who shall violate or knowingly aid and abet the violation of this chapter or any valid orders, rules, or regulations thereunder, or who fails to perform any act which it is herein made his duty to perform shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Following official notice to the accused by the commission of the existence of an alleged violation, each day upon which a violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation. Any person violating the provisions of this chapter may be enjoined from continuing such violation. The commission has authority to levy civil penalties not exceeding one thousand dollars for violations of this chapter.

Sec. 21. Section 10, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 235, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.38.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department is authorized and directed to implement the certificate of need program in this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) There shall be a state certificate of need program which is administered consistent with the requirements of federal law as necessary to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

(3) No person shall engage in any undertaking which is subject to certificate of need review under subsection (4) of this section without first having received from the department either a certificate of need or an exception granted in accordance with this chapter.

(4) The following shall be subject to certificate of need review under this chapter:

(a) The construction, development, or other establishment of a new health care facility;

(b) The sale, purchase, or lease of part or all of any existing hospital as defined in RCW 70.39.020;

(c) Any capital expenditure by or on behalf of a health care facility which substantially changes the services of the facility after January 1, 1981, provided that the substantial changes in services are specified by the department in rule;

((c)) (d) Any capital expenditure by or on behalf of a health care facility which exceeds the expenditure minimum as defined by RCW 70.38.025. However, a capital expenditure which is not subject to certificate of need review under (a), (b), ((d)) (c), (e), ((e)) (f), or (g) of this subsection and which is solely for any one or more of the following is not subject to certificate of need review except to the extent required by the federal government as a condition to receipt of federal assistance and does not substantially affect patient charges:

- (i) Communications and parking facilities;
- (ii) Mechanical, electrical, ventilation, heating, and air conditioning systems;
- (iii) Energy conservation systems;
- (iv) Repairs to, or the correction of, deficiencies in existing physical plant facilities which are necessary to maintain state licensure;
- (v) Acquisition of equipment, including data processing equipment, which is not or will not be used in the direct provision of health services;
- (vi) Construction which involves physical plant facilities, including administrative and support facilities, which are not or will not be used for the provision of health services;
- (vii) Acquisition of land; and
- (viii) Refinancing of existing debt;

((d)) (e) A change in bed capacity of a health care facility which increases the total number of licensed beds or redistributes beds among facility and service categories of acute care, skilled nursing, intermediate care, and boarding home care if the bed redistribution is to be effective for a period in excess of six months;

((e)) (f) Acquisition of major medical equipment:

- (i) If the equipment will be owned by or located in a health care facility; or
- (ii) If, after January 1, 1981, the equipment is not to be owned by or located in a health care facility, the department finds consistent with federal regulations the equipment will be used to provide services for hospital inpatients, or the person acquiring such equipment did not notify the department of the intent to acquire such equipment at least thirty days before entering into contractual arrangements for such acquisition;

((f)) (g) Any new institutional health services which are offered in or through a health care facility, and which were not offered on a regular basis by, in, or through such health care facility within the twelve-month period prior to the time such services would be offered; and

((g)) (h) Any expenditure by or on behalf of a health care facility in excess of the expenditure minimum made in preparation for any undertaking under subsection (4) of this section and any arrangement or commitment made for financing such undertaking. Expenditures of preparation shall include expenditures for architectural designs, plans, working drawings, and specifications. The department may issue certificates of need permitting predevelopment expenditures, only, without authorizing any subsequent undertaking with respect to which such predevelopment expenditures are made.

(5) No person may divide a project in order to avoid review requirements under any of the thresholds specified in this section.

Sec. 22. Section 11, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 235, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.38.115 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certificates of need shall be issued, denied, suspended, or revoked by the designee of the secretary of the department in accord with the provisions of this chapter and rules of the department which establish review procedures and criteria for the certificate of need program.

(2) Criteria for the review of certificate of need applications, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section for health maintenance organizations, shall include but not be limited to consideration of the following:

- (a) The relationship of the health services being reviewed to the applicable health plans;
- (b) The need that the population served or to be served by such services has for such services;
- (c) The availability of less costly or more effective alternative methods of providing such services;

(d) The financial feasibility and the probable impact of the proposal on the cost of and charges for providing health services in the community to be served, including findings and recommendations of the Washington state hospital commission in the case of applications submitted by hospitals. An application by a hospital shall be denied if the state hospital commission does not recommend approval, unless the secretary provides the commission with a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons, and citing the applicable subsection or subsections of this section, for approving an application that the commission has determined to be not feasible;

(e) In the case of health services to be provided, (i) the availability of alternative uses of project resources for the provision of other health services, (ii) the extent to which such proposed services will be accessible to all residents of the area to be served, and (iii) the need for

and the availability in the community of services and facilities for osteopathic and allopathic physicians and their patients. The department shall consider the application in terms of its impact on existing and proposed institutional training programs for doctors of osteopathy and medicine at the student, internship, and residency training levels;

(f) In the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the cost and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed (i) on the cost of providing health services by the person proposing such construction project and (ii) on the cost and charges to the public of providing health services by other persons;

(g) The special needs and circumstances of osteopathic hospitals ((and)), nonallopathic services and children's hospitals;

(h) Improvements or innovations in the financing and delivery of health services which foster cost containment and serve to promote quality assurance and cost-effectiveness;

(i) In the case of health services proposed to be provided, the efficiency and appropriateness of the use of existing services and facilities similar to those proposed; ((and))

(j) In the case of existing services or facilities, the quality of care provided by such services or facilities in the past; and

(k) In the case of hospital certificate of need applications, whether the hospital meets or exceeds the regional average level of charity care, as determined by the hospital commission. No certificate of need may be granted to a hospital which has not met or exceeded the regional average level of charity care in the year preceding application and which does not give assurance it will continue to meet or exceed such level in the future.

(3) A certificate of need application of a health maintenance organization or a health care facility which is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a health maintenance organization, shall be approved by the department if the department finds:

(a) Approval of such application is required to meet the needs of the members of the health maintenance organization and of the new members which such organization can reasonably be expected to enroll; and

(b) The health maintenance organization is unable to provide, through services or facilities which can reasonably be expected to be available to the organization, its institutional health services in a reasonable and cost-effective manner which is consistent with the basic method of operation of the organization and which makes such services available on a long-term basis through physicians and other health professionals associated with it.

A health care facility (or any part thereof) or medical equipment with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or equipment or in a lease of such facility or equipment may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

(4) The decision of the department on a certificate of need application shall be consistent with the state health plan in effect, except in emergency circumstances which pose a threat to the public health. The department in making its final decision may issue a conditional certificate of need if it finds that the project is justified only under specific circumstances. The conditions shall directly relate to the project being reviewed. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(5) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

(6) The department shall specify information to be required for certificate of need applications. Within fifteen days of receipt of the application, the department shall request additional information considered necessary to the application or start the review process. Applicants may decline to submit requested information through written notice to the department, in which case review starts on the date of receipt of the notice. Applications may be denied or limited because of failure to submit required and necessary information.

(7) Concurrent review is for the purpose of comparative analysis and evaluation of competing or similar projects in order to determine which of the projects may best meet identified needs. Categories of projects subject to concurrent review include at least new health care facilities, new services, and expansion of existing health care facilities. The department shall specify time periods for the submission of applications for certificates of need subject to concurrent review, which shall not exceed ninety days. Review of concurrent applications shall start fifteen days after the conclusion of the time period for submission of applications subject to concurrent review. Concurrent review periods shall be limited to one hundred fifty days, except as provided for in rules adopted by the department authorizing and limiting amendment during the course of the review, or for an unresolved pivotal issue declared by the department.

(8) Review periods for certificate of need applications other than those subject to concurrent review shall be limited to ninety days. Review periods may be extended up to thirty days if needed by a review agency, and for unresolved pivotal issues the department may extend up to an additional thirty days. A review may be extended in any case if the applicant agrees to the extension.

(9) The department or a designated regional health council shall conduct a public hearing on a certificate of need application if requested unless the review is expedited or subject to emergency review. The department by rule shall specify the period of time within which a public hearing must be requested and requirements related to public notice of the hearing, procedures, recordkeeping and related matters.

(10) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor. An administrative law judge shall review the decision of the secretary's designee and render a proposed decision for consideration by the secretary in accordance with chapter 34.12 RCW or remand the matter to the secretary's designee for further consideration. The secretary's final decision is subject to review by the superior court as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(11) The department may establish procedures and criteria for reconsideration of decisions.

(12) An amended certificate of need shall be required for the following modifications of an approved project:

- (a) A new service;
- (b) An expansion of a service beyond that originally approved;
- (c) An increase in bed capacity;
- (d) A significant reduction in the scope of a project without a commensurate reduction in the cost of the project, or a cost increase (as represented in bids on a construction project or final cost estimates acceptable to the person to whom the certificate of need was issued) if the total of such increases exceeds twelve percent or fifty thousand dollars, whichever is greater, over the maximum capital expenditure approved. The review of reductions or cost increases shall be restricted to the continued conformance of the project with the review criteria pertaining to financial feasibility and cost containment.

(13) An application for a certificate of need for a capital expenditure which is determined by the department to be required to eliminate or prevent imminent safety hazards or correct violations of applicable licensure and accreditation standards shall be approved.

The commission may request such information from the entities identified in this section, and from the federal department of health and human services, if and when the commission deems appropriate to accord with any requirements of federal law which may be imposed.

Signed by: Senators McDermott, Sellar and Talmadge; Representatives Kreidler and McClure.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4403 be adopted and that the committee be granted the powers of Free Conference.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "I would like to know when the bell starts to toll--the time starts to run on the thirty-six hours--if the motion is now made at almost three o'clock in the afternoon of the fifty-ninth day, for powers of Free Conference? Is the proposed Free Conference Report on our desks and will there be thirty-six hours?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR MCDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, the Free Conference Committee Report has been lying on your desks since yesterday--the reports were signed at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and the Conference Report has been lying on your desks since then."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "A point of parliamentary inquiry. How can a report of a Free Conference Committee be signed by the Free Conference prior to the time that the powers of Free Conference are granted? Is Senator telling us that the Free Conference Report was signed prior to the time that the powers to act in Free Conference were granted?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR MCDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "No, Mr. President. Senator Clarke, what I'm telling you is that this side of the aisle is very determined to go home and we've been working with all this deliberate speed. We had all six members of the Conference Committee there. The mechanics of running it through the motions back and forth between the House has been a little slow, but the Conference Committee has been working very well, and we've actually had the printing out here so you could spend all night reading it. We wanted to make sure that everybody understood what was in the bill."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President would like to call to your attention Item 7 of Rule 22 on page 425 of the Senate Rules, which states, 'No floor vote may be taken on any Free Conference Committee Report within twenty-four hours of its placement on each member's desk, unless the Free Conference Committee made no changes in the bill as it was last acted upon by the senate.' Also, Rule 10 of the Joint Rules, on page 395, 'The conference or free conference committee shall submit the bill as amended together with three signed copies of its report to the house which asked for the conference. A copy of the report shall be placed upon the desk of each member of the legislature at the time the report is received by this house. If this house acts to approve the report and pass the bill as amended, it shall then transmit its action, the bill, and two copies of the report to the other house.'"

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: Mr. President, the rule we were referring to is Rule 11, which immediately follows Rule 10 and would seem to supplement it. I refer to Rule 11 of the Joint Rules and I would submit that if there is an apparent conflict between the Joint Rules and the Rules of the Senate, as to matters between the two houses the Joint Rules would have to prevail."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that, in this instance, the President would be guided by the Senate Rules and the Joint Rules secondly."

Senator Clarke: "Do I understand, then, that if there is a conflict between the Senate Rules and the Joint Rules, it is the ruling of the President that the Senate Rules prevail over the Joint Rules?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That's the President's opinion."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator McDermott to adopt the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4403 and that the powers of Free Conference be granted.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4403 was adopted and the powers of Free Conference were granted.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry--not to prolong the issue. We have just voted the powers of Free Conference on 843, which would be actual notice to the body that we have granted the powers of Free Conference. The fact that somebody has laid a bill on the desk two or three days ago of what the Free Conference Committee intended to do--we have no knowledge of that. I would presume following the ruling that when the powers of Free Conference are granted, then it takes thirty-six hours from that time if they lay the bill right down on your desk--immediately--which they tell us we had it here two or three days ago. But, there is no notice to the body as a whole, Mr. President, that we have granted the powers of Free Conference until we actually vote on it, as we just did. That would be my presumption. I would hope we have a clear definition, Mr. President, rather than laboring along here between rules."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator, Joint Rule 11 says, 'The Senate and House, within their own bodies, can suspend the reading of a report in full. The House and Senate shall have thirty-six hours from the time of receipt in the house originating the conference request to consider reports from a Free Conference Committee...' The Senate has been in receipt of this measure since yesterday, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Mr. President. My only point would be that we never gave them any authority until just a few seconds ago. I think that would be the binding decision. No Conference Committee can act without the permission of the Senate and we only granted that two minutes ago."

President Cherberg: "You've had the measure since yesterday, Senator. Actually, it says 'received by the house.'"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Hurley, in the terms of the Conference Committee Report, did the House amendment--did you say it was turned down as far as their amendment?"

Senator Hurley: "The House amendment came over to the Senate and there was some concern about the difficulty of putting it into effect even though it was already a part of the budget. In trying to work it out, I was afraid that we would lose the bill and although I had objected to the amendment in the first place, I'm sure that the SPI is going to have to adopt rules and regulations anyway in order to put this into effect and I think that it brings about equity and that's what I wanted."

Senator Zimmerman: "Do you feel that under the present bill, as it's now written with everything included, that it is something that can be adequately monitored--adequately enforced in terms of---"

Senator Hurley: "Yes, at first I didn't think so. I thought it would cause too much entanglement and back and forth and everything, but since then, I have talked to some of those in the SPI office and I'm sure it won't cause that much trouble."

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that state-owned aquatic lands are a finite natural resource of great value and an irreplaceable public heritage. The legislature recognizes that the state owns these aquatic lands in fee and has delegated to the department of natural resources the responsibility to manage these lands for the benefit of the public. The legislature finds that water-dependent industries and activities have played a major role in the history of the state and will continue to be important in the future. The legislature finds that revenues derived from leases of state-owned aquatic lands should be used to enhance opportunities for public recreation, shoreline access, environmental protection, and other public benefits associated with the aquatic lands of the state. The legislature further finds that aquatic lands are faced with conflicting use demands. The purpose of sections 1 through 20 of this act is to articulate a management philosophy to guide the exercise of the state's ownership interest and the exercise of the department's management authority, and to establish standards for determining equitable and predictable lease rates for users of state-owned aquatic lands.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The management of state-owned aquatic lands shall be in conformance with constitutional and statutory requirements. The manager of state-owned aquatic lands shall strive to provide a balance of public benefits for all citizens of the state. The public benefits provided by aquatic lands are varied and include:

- (1) Encouraging direct public use and access;
- (2) Fostering water-dependent uses;
- (3) Ensuring environmental protection;
- (4) Utilizing renewable resources.

Generating revenue in a manner consistent with subsections (1) through (4) of this section is a public benefit.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) The management of state-owned aquatic lands shall preserve and enhance water-dependent uses. Water-dependent uses shall be favored over other uses in aquatic land planning and in resolving conflicts between competing lease applications. In cases of conflict between water-dependent uses, priority shall be given to uses which enhance renewable resources, water-borne commerce, and the navigational and biological capacity of the waters, and to state-wide interests as distinguished from local interests.

(2) Nonwater-dependent use of state-owned aquatic lands is a low-priority use providing minimal public benefits and shall not be permitted to expand or be established in new areas except in exceptional circumstances where it is compatible with water-dependent uses occurring in or planned for the area.

(3) The department shall consider the natural values of state-owned aquatic lands as wildlife habitat, natural area preserve, representative ecosystem, or spawning area prior to issuing any initial lease or authorizing any change in use. The department may withhold from leasing lands which it finds to have significant natural values, or may provide within any lease for the protection of such values.

(4) The power to lease state-owned aquatic lands is vested in the department of natural resources, which has the authority to make leases upon terms, conditions, and length of time in conformance with the state Constitution and chapters 79.90 through 79.96 RCW.

(5) State-owned aquatic lands shall not be leased to persons or organizations which discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, or physical or mental handicap.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The definitions in this section apply throughout chapters 79.90 through 79.96 RCW.

(1) "Water-dependent use" means a use which cannot logically exist in any location but on the water. Examples include, but are not limited to, water-borne commerce; terminal and transfer facilities; ferry terminals; watercraft sales in conjunction with other water-dependent uses; watercraft construction, repair, and maintenance; moorage and launching facilities; aquaculture; log booming; and public fishing piers and parks.

(2) "Water-oriented use" means a use which historically has been dependent on a waterfront location, but with existing technology could be located away from the waterfront. Examples include, but are not limited to, wood products manufacturing, watercraft sales, fish processing, petroleum refining, sand and gravel processing, log storage, and house boats. For the purposes of determining rent under this chapter, water-oriented uses shall be classified as water-dependent uses if the activity either is conducted on state-owned aquatic lands leased on October 1, 1984, or was actually conducted on the state-owned aquatic lands for at least three years before October 1, 1984. If, after October 1, 1984, the activity is changed to a use other than a water-dependent use, the activity shall be classified as a nonwater-dependent use. If continuation of the existing use requires leasing additional state-owned aquatic lands and is permitted under the shoreline management act of 1971, chapter 90.58 RCW, the department may allow reasonable expansion of the water-oriented use.

(3) "Nonwater-dependent use" means a use which can operate in a location other than on the waterfront. Examples include, but are not limited to, hotels, condominiums, apartments, restaurants, retail stores, and warehouses not part of a marine terminal or transfer facility.

(4) "Log storage" means the water storage of logs in rafts or otherwise prepared for shipment in water-borne commerce, but does not include the temporary holding of logs to be taken directly into a vessel or processing facility.

(5) "Log booming" means placing logs into and taking them out of the water, assembling and disassembling log rafts before or after their movement in water-borne commerce, related handling and sorting activities taking place in the water, and the temporary holding of logs to be taken directly into a processing facility. "Log booming" does not include the temporary holding of logs to be taken directly into a vessel.

(6) "Department" means the department of natural resources.

(7) "Port district" means a port district created under Title 53 RCW.

(8) The "real rate of return" means the average for the most recent ten calendar years of the average rate of return on conventional real property mortgages as reported by the federal home loan bank board or any successor agency, minus the average inflation rate for the most recent ten calendar years.

(9) The "inflation rate" for a given year is the percentage rate of change in the previous calendar year's all commodity producer price index of the bureau of labor statistics of the United States department of commerce. If the index ceases to be published, the department shall designate by rule a comparable substitute index.

(10) "Public utility lines" means pipes, conduits, and similar facilities for distribution of water, electricity, natural gas, telephone, other electronic communication, and sewers, including sewer outfall lines.

(11) "Terminal" means a point of interchange between land and water carriers, such as a pier, wharf, or group of such, equipped with facilities for care and handling of cargo and/or passengers.

(12) "State-owned aquatic lands" means those aquatic lands and waterways administered by the department of natural resources or managed under section 6 of this act by a port district. "State-owned aquatic lands" does not include aquatic lands owned in fee by, or withdrawn for the use of, state agencies other than the department of natural resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The use of state-owned aquatic lands for public utility lines owned by a governmental entity shall be granted without charge by an agreement, permit, or other instrument if the use is consistent with the purposes of sections 1 through 3 of this act and does not obstruct navigation or other public uses. Use for public parks or public recreation purposes shall be granted without charge if the aquatic lands and improvements are available to the general public on a first-come, first-served basis and are not managed to produce a profit for the operator or a concessionaire. The department may lease state-owned tidelands that are in front of state parks only with the approval of the state parks and recreation commission. The department may lease bedlands in front of state parks only after the department has consulted with the state parks and recreation commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Upon request of a port district, the department and port district may enter into an agreement authorizing the port district to manage state-owned aquatic lands abutting or used in conjunction with and contiguous to uplands owned, leased, or otherwise managed by a port district, for port purposes as provided in Title 53 RCW. Such agreement shall include, but not be limited to, provisions defining the specific area to be managed, the term, conditions of occupancy, reservations, periodic review, and other conditions to ensure consistency with the state Constitution and the policies of this chapter. If a port district acquires operating management, lease, or ownership of real property which abuts state-owned aquatic lands currently under lease from the state to a person other than the port district, the port district shall manage such aquatic lands if: (1) The port district acquires the leasehold interest in accordance with state law, or (2) the current lessee and the department agree to termination of the current lease to accommodate management by the port. The administration of aquatic lands covered by a management agreement shall be consistent with the aquatic land policies of chapters 79.90 through 79.96 RCW and the implementing regulations adopted by the department. The administrative procedures for management of the lands shall be those of Title 53 RCW.

No rent shall be due the state for the use of state-owned aquatic lands managed under this section for water-dependent or water-oriented uses. If a port district manages state-owned aquatic lands under this section and either leases or otherwise permits any person to use such lands, the rental fee attributable to such aquatic land only shall be comparable to the rent charged lessees for the same or similar uses by the department: PROVIDED, That a port district need not itemize for the lessee any charges for state-owned aquatic lands improved by the port district for use by carriers by water. If a port leases state-owned aquatic lands to any person for nonwater-dependent use, eighty-five percent of the revenue attributable to the rent of the state-owned aquatic land only shall be paid to the state.

Upon application for a management agreement, and so long as the application is pending and being diligently pursued, no rent shall be due the department for the lease by the port district of state-owned aquatic lands included within the application for water-dependent or water-oriented uses.

The department and representatives of the port industry shall develop a proposed model management agreement which shall be used as the basis for negotiating the management agreements required by this section. The model management agreement shall be reviewed and approved by the board of natural resources.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, annual rent rates for the lease of state-owned aquatic lands for water-dependent uses shall be determined as follows:

(1)(a) The assessed land value, exclusive of improvements, as determined by the county assessor, of the upland tax parcel used in conjunction with the leased area or, if there are no such uplands, of the nearest upland tax parcel used for water-dependent purposes divided by the parcel area equals the upland value.

(b) The upland value times the area of leased aquatic lands times thirty percent equals the aquatic land value.

(2) As of July 1, 1989, and each July 1 thereafter, the department shall determine the real capitalization rate to be applied to water-dependent aquatic land leases commencing or being adjusted under subsection (3)(a) of this section in that fiscal year. The real capitalization rate shall be the real rate of return, except that until June 30, 1989, the real capitalization rate shall be five percent and thereafter it shall not change by more than one percentage point in any one year or be more than seven percent or less than three percent.

(3) The annual rent shall be:

(a) Determined initially, and redetermined every four years or as otherwise provided in the lease, by multiplying the aquatic land value times the real capitalization rate; and

(b) Adjusted by the inflation rate each year in which the rent is not determined under subsection (3)(a) of this section.

(4) If the upland parcel used in conjunction with the leased area is not assessed or has an assessed value inconsistent with the purposes of the lease, the nearest comparable upland parcel used for similar purposes shall be substituted and the lease payment determined in the same manner as provided in this section.

(5) For the purposes of this section, "upland tax parcel" is a tax parcel, some portion of which has upland characteristics. Filled tidelands or shorelands with upland characteristics which about state-owned aquatic land shall be considered as uplands in determining aquatic land values.

(6) The annual rent for filled state-owned aquatic lands that have the characteristics of uplands shall be determined in accordance with section 11 of this act in those cases in which the state owns the fill and has a right to charge for the fill.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) Until June 30, 1989, the log storage rents per acre shall be the average rents the log storage leases in effect on July 1, 1984, would have had under the formula for water-dependent leases as set out in section 7 of this act, except that the aquatic land values shall be thirty percent of the assessed value of the abutting upland parcels exclusive of improvements, if they are assessed. If the abutting upland parcel is not assessed, the nearest assessed upland parcel shall be used.

(2) On July 1, 1989, and every four years thereafter, the base log storage rents established under subsection (1) of this section shall be adjusted in proportion to the change in average water-dependent lease rates per acre since the date the log storage rates were last established under this section.

(3) The annual rent shall be adjusted by the inflation rate each year in which the rent is not determined under subsection (1) or (2) of this section.

(4) If the lease provides for seasonal use so that portions of the leased area are available for public use without charge part of the year, the annual rent may be discounted to reflect such public use in accordance with rules adopted by the board of natural resources.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. For leases in effect on October 1, 1984, the rent shall remain at the annual rate in effect on September 30, 1984, until the next lease anniversary date, at which time rent established under section 7 or 8 of this act shall become effective. If the first rent amount established is an increase of more than one hundred dollars and is more than thirty-three percent above the rent in effect on September 30, 1984, the annual rent shall not increase in any year by more than thirty-three percent of the difference between the previous rent and the rent established under section 7 or 8 of this act. If the first rent amount established under section 7 or 8 of this act is more than thirty-three percent below the rent in effect on September 30, 1984, the annual rent shall not decrease in any year by more than thirty-three percent of the difference between the previous rent and the rent established under section 7 or 8 of this act. Thereafter, notwithstanding any other provision of this title, the annual rental established under section 7 or 8 of this act shall not increase more than fifty percent in any year.

This section applies only to leases of state-owned aquatic lands subject to section 7 or 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If state-owned aquatic lands are used for aquaculture production or harvesting, rents and fees shall be established through competitive bidding or negotiation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Leases for nonwater-dependent uses of state-owned aquatic lands shall be charged the fair market rental value of the leased lands, determined in accordance with appraisal techniques specified by rule. However, rents for nonwater-dependent uses shall always be more than the amount that would be charged as rent for a water-dependent use of the same parcel. Rents and fees for the mining or other recovery of mineral or geothermal resources shall be established through competitive bidding, negotiations, or as otherwise provided by statute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If water-dependent and nonwater-dependent uses occupy separate portions of the same leased parcel of state-owned aquatic land, the rental rate for each use shall be that established for such use by this chapter, prorated in accordance with the proportion of the whole parcel that each use occupies. If water-dependent and nonwater-dependent uses occupy the same portion of a leased parcel of state-owned aquatic land, the rental rate for such parcel shall be subject to negotiation with the department taking into account the proportion of the improvements each use occupies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If a parcel leased for water-dependent uses is used for an extended period of time, as defined by rule of the department, for a nonwater-dependent use, the rental for the nonwater-dependent use shall be negotiated with the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Except as agreed between the department and the lessee prior to construction of the improvements, rent shall not be charged under any lease of state-owned aquatic lands for improvements, including fills, authorized by the department or installed by the lessee or its predecessor before June 1, 1971, so long as the lands remain under a lease or succession of leases without a period of three years in which no lease is in effect or a bona fide application for a lease is pending.

If improvements were installed under a good faith belief that a state aquatic lands lease was not necessary, rent shall not be charged for the improvements if, within ninety days after specific written notification by the department that a lease is required, the owner either applies for a lease or files suit to determine if a lease is required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The manager shall, by rule, provide for an administrative review of any aquatic land rent proposed to be charged. The rules shall require that the lessee or applicant for release file a request for review within thirty days after the manager has notified the lessee or applicant of the rent due. For leases issued by the department, the final authority for the review rests with the board of natural resources. For leases managed under section 6 of this act, the final authority for the review rests with the appropriate port commission. If the request for review is made within thirty days after the manager's final determination as to the rental, the lessee may pay rent at the preceding year's rate pending completion of the review, and shall pay any additional rent or be entitled to a refund, with interest thirty days after announcement of the decision. The interest rate shall be the average rate of return for the prior calendar year on conventional real property mortgages as reported by the federal home loan bank board. Nothing in this section abrogates the right of an aggrieved party to pursue legal remedies including those under chapter 34.04 RCW. For purposes of this section, "manager" is the department except where state-owned aquatic lands are managed by a port district, in which case "manager" is the port district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. For any lease for a term of more than one year, the department may require that the rent be secured by insurance, bond, or other security satisfactory to the department in an amount not exceeding two years' rent. The department may require additional security for other lease provisions. The department shall not require cash deposits exceeding one-twelfth of the annual rental.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If the annual rent charged for the use of a parcel of state-owned aquatic lands exceeds four thousand dollars, the lessee may pay on a prorated quarterly basis. If the annual rent exceeds twelve thousand dollars, the lessee may pay on a prorated monthly basis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The lessee shall pay interest at the rate of one percent per month on rent or other sums owing to the department commencing thirty days after the date each rent or other sum is due and payable, unless there is review pending under section 15 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The department shall adopt such rules as are necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 1 through 18 of this act, specifically including criteria for determining under section 7(4) of this act when an abutting upland parcel has been inappropriately assessed and for determining the nearest comparable upland parcel used for water-dependent uses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Nothing in this chapter or RCW 79.93.040 or 79.93.060 shall modify or affect any existing legal rights involving the boundaries of, title to, or vested property rights in aquatic lands or waterways. Nothing in this chapter shall modify, alter, or otherwise affect the applicability of chapter 90.58 RCW.

Sec. 21. Section 83, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.93.040 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Whenever, in any waterways created under the laws of this state,))~~ If the United States government ((shall have)) has established pierhead lines within ((said)) a waterway created under the laws of this state at any distance from the boundaries ((thereof)) established by the state, structures ((shall be allowed to)) may be constructed in that strip of waterway between the waterway boundary and the nearest pierhead line ((but)) only ((upon)) with the consent of the department of natural resources and upon such plans, terms, and conditions and for such term as ((approved and fixed)) determined by the department. However, no permit shall extend for a period longer than thirty years.

~~((The department shall require of the holder of every permit under this section a penalty bond with sufficient surety, to be approved by the department, in an amount not exceeding twice the amount of the annual rental, but in no case less than five hundred dollars. The bond shall secure the payment of the rental reserved in the permit, during the term of such permit or during such part thereof as said department in its discretion shall require to be covered by such bond, in case only a part of the term of such permit shall be covered thereby, the department shall require another like bond, to be executed and delivered within three months and not less than one month prior to the expiration of the period covered by the previous bond, to cover the remainder of the term of the permit, or such part thereof as the department in its discretion shall require to be covered thereby. The department shall have power at any time to summon sureties upon any bond and to examine into the sufficiency of the bond, and if the department shall find the same to be insufficient, it shall require the holder of the permit to file a new and sufficient bond within thirty days after receiving notice to do so, under penalty of cancellation of the permit.))~~

The department ((shall have power upon sixty days' notice to)) may cancel any permit upon sixty days' notice for a substantial breach by the ((holder thereof)) permittee of any of the permit conditions((thereof, or for lack of a bond therewith as required by this section)).

~~((In case(s) where such))~~ If a waterway((s shall be)) is within the territorial limits of a port district ((organized under the laws of this state)), the duties assigned by this section to the department ((shall)) may be exercised by the port commission of such port district((, and in every case the rentals received shall be disposed of as follows: Seventy-five percent shall be paid by the state treasurer to the county treasurer of the county wherein such port district is situated, for the use of said port district and twenty-five percent into the state treasury; PROVIDED: That in cases where the port district itself shall have constructed or shall have owned structures or improvements situated upon such strip of waterway since June 22, 1913, the entire rentals for such improved strip of waterway shall be paid directly to the county treasurer for the use of such port district)) as provided in section 6 of this 1984 act.

Nothing in this section shall confer upon, create, or recognize in any abutting owner any right or privilege in or to any strip of waterway abutting any street and between prolongations of the lines of such street, but the control of and the right to use such strip is hereby reserved to the state of Washington, except ~~((that in cases situate in a port district such control and use shall vest in such port district))~~ as authorized by section 6 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 22. Section 85, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.93.060 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Whenever any))~~ If a waterway established under the ((authority of the)) laws of this state, or any portion of ((such)) the waterway, ((shall)) has not ((have)) been excavated, or ((shall not be in use)) is not used for ((the purposes of)) navigation, or ((shall no longer be)) is not required in the public interest to exist as a waterway, such waterway or portion thereof may be vacated by written order of the commissioner of public lands ((of the state of Washington whenever he shall be)) upon request((ed so to do)) by ordinance or resolution of the city council of the city in which such waterway is ((situate, in whole or in part, or, in case such waterway is situate, in whole or in part, in a port district organized under the laws of the state of Washington, whenever he shall be requested so to do)) located or by resolution of the port commission of ((such)) the port district((, and upon the making of such order the waterway or portion thereof shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be thereby vacated; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That)) in which the waterway is located. If the waterway or portion thereof ((so)) which is vacated ((be)) is navigable water of the United States, or otherwise within the jurisdiction of the United States, a copy of such resolution or ordinance, together with a copy of ((said)) the vacation order of the commissioner of public lands ((certified to by him)) shall be submitted to the United States Army Corps of Engineers for their approval, and if they approve, the ((same such)) waterway or portion thereof ((shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be thereupon)) is vacated; PROVIDED, That if a port district owns property abutting the waterway and the provisions of this section are otherwise satisfied, the waterway, or the portion thereof that abuts the port district property, shall be vacated.

Upon such vacation (~~(occurring, in either of the manners aforesaid,)~~ of a waterway, the commissioner of public lands shall notify the city (~~(within, or in front of,)~~ in which) (~~(-such)~~) the waterway is located, and the city (~~(shall have)~~) has the right, if otherwise permitted by RCW 79.94.150, to extend across the portions so vacated any existing streets, or to select (~~(therefrom)~~) such portions (~~(thereof)~~) of the waterway as the city may desire for street purposes, in no case to exceed one hundred fifty feet in width for any one street. Such selection shall be made within sixty days subsequent to the receipt of notice of the vacation of the portion of the waterway (~~(so vacated)~~).

~~((Should such)) If the city fails to make ((such)) a selection within such time, or ((within such time make such selection)) selects only a portion of the waterway, the title of the remaining portions of ((such)) the vacated waterway ((so vacated)) shall vest in the state, unless the ((same be situate)) waterway is located within the territorial limits of a port district ((created under the laws of the state)), in which event, if otherwise permitted by RCW 79.94.150, ((such)) the title shall vest in ((said)) the port district. ((If subsequent to such vacation, the vacated waterway or portion of waterway shall be embraced within the limits of a port district created under the laws of the state, the title to such portions thereof as shall then remain undisposed of by the state shall vest in such port district. Such title so vesting shall be)) The title is subject to any railroad or street railway crossings existing at the time of such vacation.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 79.93 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Copies of waterway permits or leases in existence on the effective date of this act shall be delivered to the department of natural resources except in those cases in which the port district enters into an agreement authorizing management of state-owned aquatic land as provided in section 6 of this act.

Sec. 24. Section 9, chapter 167, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 8, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 79.24.580 are each amended to read as follows:

After deduction for management costs as provided in RCW 79.64.040 and payments to towns under RCW 79.92.110(2), all moneys received by the state from the sale ((of tidelands and shorelands,)) or lease of state-owned aquatic lands and from the sale of valuable material from ((tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters and harbor areas and from the lease of shorelands and beds of navigable waters,)) state-owned aquatic lands shall be distributed as follows: (1) Thirty percent shall be deposited in the aquatic lands enhancement account of the general fund which is hereby created. After appropriation, these funds shall be used solely for aquatic lands enhancement projects: for the purchase, improvement, or protection of aquatic lands for public purposes; for providing and improving access to such lands; and for volunteer cooperative fish and game projects; and (2) the remainder shall be deposited in the capitol purchase and development account of the general fund, the creation of which is hereby authorized or, in the event that revenue bonds are issued as authorized by RCW 79.24.630 through 79.24.647, into the state building bond redemption fund pursuant to RCW 79.24.638.

Sec. 25. Section 79, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 153, Laws of 1983 and RCW 79.92.110 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The rents paid under leases of harbor areas and tidelands belonging to the state of Washington, where not otherwise directed to a particular account, shall be disposed of as follows:~~

~~(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, where the leased harbor area or tideland is situated within the territorial limits of a port district, twenty-five percent of the rentals received from such leases shall be paid by the state treasurer to the county treasurer of the county wherein such port district is situated for the use of such port district and said rental shall go into a special fund to be expended only for harbor or waterfront improvement purposes. The remaining seventy-five percent shall be deposited in the capitol purchase and development account of the general fund of the state treasury. PROVIDED, That in cases where the port district itself shall have before April 28, 1967, constructed or owned structures or improvements situate upon the leased harbor area, or tidelands, the entire rentals from such improved harbor area or tideland shall go to the port district. PROVIDED FURTHER, That whenever the port district shall after April 28, 1967, construct improvements on such leased harbor area or tidelands, the rental attributable to such improvements shall go to the port district.~~

~~(2) In all other cases twenty-five percent of the rents shall be paid by the state treasurer into the county treasury of the county in which the leased harbor area or tidelands are situated, the same to go into a special fund known as the "harbor improvement fund", and to be disbursed only for harbor or harbor improvement purposes; and the remaining seventy-five percent shall be deposited in the capitol purchase and development account of the general fund of the state treasury. PROVIDED, That where any leased harbor area or tideland is situated within the limits of any incorporated city and is not embraced within the area of any port district, the legislative body of the county shall allocate the funds received from the lease thereof to the municipal authorities of such city, to be expended by said authorities for harbor or waterfront purposes. PROVIDED FURTHER, That)) (1) Where any leased harbor area or tideland is situated within the limits of a town, whether or not the harbor area or tideland lies~~ within a port district, the rents from such leases shall be paid by the state treasurer to the municipal authorities of the town to be expended for water-related improvements.

~~((3)) (2) The state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to make ((such)) payments to the respective ((county treasurers and municipal authorities for the use of such port districts, counties, or towns, as the case may be.)) towns on the first days of July and January of each year, of all moneys ((in his hands on such dates)) payable under the terms of this section ((to such port district, counties, or towns respectively)).~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The department of natural resources may enter into agreements with the department of fisheries for the development of an intensive management plan for geoducks including the development and operation of a geoduck hatchery.

The department of natural resources shall evaluate the progress of the intensive geoduck management program and provide a written report to the legislature by December 1, 1990, for delivery to the appropriate standing committees. The evaluation shall determine the benefits and costs of continued operation of the program, and shall discuss alternatives including continuance, modification, and termination of the intensive geoduck management program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. The department of natural resources shall evaluate the progress of the seaweed aquaculture program and provide a written report to the legislature by December 1, 1987, for delivery to the appropriate standing committees. The evaluation shall determine the benefits and costs of continued operation of the program, and shall discuss alternatives including continuance, modification, and termination of the seaweed aquaculture program. MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 25, line 20, after "(1)" strike "Thirty" and insert "Forty"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Shinpoch, could you explain--I know there's a logical answer and respectfully ask if, and I know how you feel about dedicated funds--could you explain the difference between a pool and a dedicated fund? I ask that in all respect. This seems like it's getting pretty close to a dedicated fund when you say 'allocated to a pool for a particular purpose.' I think, to me, that's a fair question."

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Barr, you are absolutely right. It is a dedicated fund. The difference is that it is an appropriated dedicated fund under the--I have in the past and continue to support any appropriated dedicated fund where the Legislature keeps within their hands the policy that they will make every time that they appropriated that fund, and you're right, that's the semantics of whether it is a pool of money or whether it's a dedicated fund--that's the same thing. It is a dedicated fund that is appropriated by the Legislature and that, to me, is the key and the key is that we make the policy of what is going to happen each and every year instead of the policy being made and stays that way forever."

Senator Barr: "Thank you very much and just a little bit further now. In reassigning these funds, this is at 40% now, those monies were going to where previously? Where is this a shift from the past?"

Senator Shinpoch: "I don't think anyone can answer that specifically, because there were pools of money which were set up for two or three different purposes and it could have gone in any fashion, but you've got the IAC, you've got the community colleges and so forth."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Owen, I think I know what your answer is going to be, but just to have it in the record, I'd like to ask you--the situation that existed at Diamond Lake, where the people were going to be charged for the use of their recreational dock and, presumably, this was settled last year, I wondered if there is anything in the bill that would adversely affect that?"

Senator Owen: "No. That situation where people can utilize the recreational dock at no charge from the Department of Natural Resources is not changed in this bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute House Bill No. 1231, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Woody, can you give us a little more idea of what we're looking at financially in the years to come? I mean, this particular measure is supposedly dealing with a very small amount in terms of retrospect to the budget--in terms of dollars that we've been talking about here and the figure of a million eight, a figure of five hundred thousand and so on. Would you want to project for us what you see as the increase? I see 33% a year possible increases and so on. What are we talking about in terms of dollars? We don't have a fiscal note is what I'm saying."

Senator Woody: "Senator Zimmerman, let me try. Obviously, the revenue that comes in from aquatic land leases will gradually increase over the years. The intent of this bill is to establish a reasonable statewide policy and process so that the leases will not astronomically increase. We are looking at gradual increases. If you're talking about the 1.8 million, that is the amount of money that is anticipated to come into the state fund through the aquatic land leases after the cost of management has been taken off the top in FY 1986. From that 1.8 million, we have dedicated 40% which would be $720,000 to flow back into the aquatic lands enhancement account and to be used for aquatic lands enhancement purposes, and the remaining 60% of that 1.8 would go to the capital project and development fund, where the largest portion of the money from these aquatic leases already resides."

Senator Zimmerman: "I see that as immediate. I'm trying to see what your projection is for a ten-year period. You haven't tried to do that as far as the total--"

Senator Woody: "I don't have the information, but I can get it from staff for you in about a half an hour."

Senator Zimmerman: "In terms of ports, because they will have no charge except that they were to lease their properties--that's the way that is being handled--that was the trade-off on it?"

Senator Woody: "That's right. The ports very strongly made the point that they did not want to pay leases to the state for water-dependent or water-oriented uses on the one hand then receive the same amount of money essentially, which is what they're doing right now, from the state for management of the harbors and harbor improvements, so they were quite pleased to have that trade-off. They will pay us the lease money, but then on the other hand from aquatic land leases, they will not get that portion that we've generally paid."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 1231, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 1231, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 02; absent, 02; excused, 01.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, Second Substitute House Bill No. 1231 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, we have less than--slightly more than twelve hours before this session must adjourn, and I'm speaking as one of the women members of this Legislature who has worked very hard to see that there are a number of qualified women as gubernatorial appointees, and in that vein I want to simply point out to this body that we have something going on here that I think is inappropriate and that is that we have over a third of the appointees that have not come out at all--women members--highly qualified individuals. On the calendar that we have before us--nine--and there are only two there. I think that we have something going on here and I protest--that we should have some equal treatment as far as gubernatorial appointees, and I do not see that happening."

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 36.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any county may acquire title to or any interest in real and personal property for the purpose of historic preservation and may restore, improve, maintain, manage, and lease the

No ad hoc community council may be formed that has less than one hundred registered voters residing within its boundaries. Ad hoc community councils shall only have advisory capacities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 36.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Signed by: Senators Thompson and Granlund; Representatives Grimm, Ebersole and Hankins.

MOTION

Senator Thompson moved that the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 392 be granted and that the powers of Free Conference be granted.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "A point of order, Mr. President. I believe that by that motion, Senator Thompson is subverting the Senate Rules which provide that a measure to be voted on after it has already been defeated requires a reconsideration of the motion, and subsequently requires two-thirds vote because no notice of reconsideration was given and acted upon the day that we defeated this motion previously. This very same motion, which was defeated previously, because we are dealing with the very identical language that was before us before--was put to the Senate about two days ago and was defeated at that time. Under our Senate Rules, and the President has indicated that the Senate Rules would take priority over Joint Rules, under our Senate Rules, the only way a measure that has been defeated can be considered again is for it to be reconsidered, and no notice of reconsideration was given and no motion has been made to reconsider. Therefore, I contend if we are to vote on this motion again, it, in effect, is a motion to reconsider and would take a two-thirds vote because no notice was previously given--and because it has been defeated."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, the rules provide and I'm looking for the exact language--that the Free Conference Committee Report can be resubmitted as long as nothing has been changed in the original Free Conference Report and that's precisely what we have before us. I'm sorry--Secretary Snyder was showing me the rule--"

Senator Pullen: "I have it now. I think it's Rule 22 that Senator Bottiger was referring to. However, I would like to refer to Rule 37. Rule 37 of the Senate Rules that deals with reconsideration, and I would contend that the only way under Rule 37 we can be voting on this, at this time, is for the motion to have been a reconsideration motion and that would take a suspension of the rules and a two-thirds vote because no notice was previously given.

"Yes, I think it was Rule 22 that Senator Bottiger was referring to. Rule 22, subsection 7--and Senator Bottiger is quite correct in taking notice of what that rule says and he is quite correct to the extent that it goes, however, my contention is that if we do not take this as a motion to reconsider and a suspension of the rules, then we are also in contradiction of Rule 37."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Was the motion to grant the powers of Free Conference? Is there anything before us?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes. The motion before the Senate is to request the powers of Free Conference."

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a further inquiry then--requesting the powers of Free Conference--the time delay would then start running as of 2:45--requiring the thirty-six hours?"

President Cherberg: "The report has been on the desk for several days, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, if we grant the powers of Free Conference, they may decide to change the report, knowing there is some objection. I would think that, then, the only correct way would be to say as of the time you grant the powers of Free Conference--that's the time that requires the thirty-six hours. You don't know what this Conference Committee is going to do once they've been granted the power."

President Cherberg: "At the present time, Senator Rasmussen, the members of the Senate do not know whether the Conference Committee, if granted the powers of Free Conference, will make a change."

Senator Rasmussen: "That's right. We don't know and that's why the thirty-six hour delay should run from the time that we grant these powers of Free Conference. We have no knowledge of what they'll come up with. They may add, delete or even just study it until we go by the sine die."

President Cherberg: "Then you can raise the point of order at that time, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "On the thirty-six hours?"

President Cherberg: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Mr. President."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 392 was deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Haley was excused.
