

2019 Growth Management Act Impact Fee Survey

Reporting Period 1/1/2019 - 12/31/2019

Contact Information

First Name

Last Name

Workplace

Phone

Email

Jurisdiction

Other (please specify)

If someone in your jurisdiction is building a single-family residence, do they need to pay Growth Management Act impact fees?

- Yes
 - No
-

How many new construction permits for single-family residences were issued by your jurisdiction in CY 2019?

Public Streets and Roads Impact Fees

If someone building a single-family home in your jurisdiction, do they have to pay public streets and roads impact fees? This includes fees that your planning department may collect directly as well as those that may be collected by other entities.

- Yes
 - No
-

Does your department administer collection of public streets and roads impact fees required in your jurisdiction?

- Yes
- No

If no, please provide contact information for entity that administers public streets and roads impact fees:

Entity:

Phone:

Email:

Employee Contact Name (if known):

Does your jurisdiction have a process in place for someone building a single-family residence to defer public streets and roads impact fees?

- Yes
 - No
-

Does your jurisdiction have a plan to develop a process for the deferral of public streets and roads impact fees?

- Yes
- No

Please provide additional information about your jurisdiction's plan to develop or not develop a process for deferring public streets and roads impact fees.

How many deferrals were requested?

How many deferrals were issued?

What was the monetary amount of the impact fees deferred?

How many deferrals were not fully and timely paid?

What was the cost to your jurisdiction to collect delinquent fees?

Must public streets and roads impact fees be deferred separately, or can they be deferred with other types of impact fees? Select all that apply.

- Public streets and roads impact fees must be deferred separately
 - Can be deferred with fire protection facilities impact fees
 - Can be deferred with publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees
 - Can be deferred with school facilities impact fees
 - All impact fees may be deferred together
-

What fee, if any, is charged for deferring payment of impact fees?

At what point does deferral end? (ex: nailing of sheetrock or certificate of occupancy)

Fire Protection Facilities Impact Fees

If someone building a single-family home in your jurisdiction, do they have to pay fire protection facilities impact fees? This includes fees that your planning department may collect directly as well as those that may be collected by other entities.

- Yes
 - No
-

Does your department administer collection of fire protection facilities impact fees required by your jurisdiction?

- Yes
 - No
-

Does your jurisdiction have a process in place for someone building a single-family residence to defer fire protection facilities impact fees?

- Yes
 - No
-

Does your department administer collection of fire protection facilities impact fees required by your jurisdiction?

- Yes
- No

If no, please provide contact information for entity that administers fire protection facilities impact fees:

Entity:

Phone:

Email:

Employee Contact Name (if known):

Does your jurisdiction have a process in place for someone building a single-family residence to defer fire protection facilities impact fees?

- Yes
 - No
-

Does your jurisdiction have a plan to develop a process for the deferral of fire protection facilities impact fees?

- Yes
 - No
-

Please provide additional information about your jurisdiction's plan to develop or not develop a process for deferring fire protection facilities impact fees.

How many deferrals were requested?

How many deferrals were issued?

What was the monetary amount of the impact fees deferred?

How many deferrals were not fully and timely paid?

What was the cost to your jurisdiction to collect delinquent fees?

Must fire protection facilities impact fees be deferred separately or can they be deferred with other types of impact fees? Select all that apply.

- Fire protection facilities impact fees must be deferred separately
 - Can be deferred with public streets and roads impact fees
 - Can be deferred with publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees
 - Can be deferred with school facilities impact fees
 - All impact fees may be deferred together
-

What fee, if any, is charged for deferring payment of impact fees?

At what point does deferral end? (ex: nailing of sheetrock or certificate of occupancy)

Publicly Owned Parks, Open Space, and Recreation Facilities Impact Fees

If someone building a single-family home in your jurisdiction, do they have to pay publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees? This includes fees that your planning department may collect directly as well as those that may be collected by other entities.

- Yes
 - No
-

Does your department administer collection of publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees required in your jurisdiction?

- Yes
- No

If no, please provide contact information for entity that administers publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees:

Entity:

Phone:

Email:

Employee Contact Name (if known):

Does your jurisdiction have a process in place for someone building a single-family residence to defer publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees?

- Yes
 - No
-

Does your jurisdiction have a plan to develop a process for the deferral of publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees?

- Yes
- No

Please provide additional information about your jurisdiction's plan to develop or not develop a process for deferring publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees.

How many deferrals were requested?

How many deferrals were issued?

What was the monetary amount of the impact fees deferred?

How many deferrals were not fully and timely paid?

What was the cost to your jurisdiction to collect delinquent fees?

Must publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees be deferred separately, or can they be deferred with other types of impact fees? Select all that apply.

- Publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees must be deferred separately
 - Can be deferred with public streets and roads impact fees
 - Can be deferred with fire protection facilities impact fees
 - Can be deferred with school facilities impact fees
 - All impact fees may be deferred together
-

What fee, if any, is charged for deferring payment of impact fees?

At what point does deferral end? (ex: nailing of sheetrock or certificate of occupancy)

School Facilities Impact Fees

If someone building a single-family home in your jurisdiction, do they have to pay school facilities impact fees? This includes fees that your planning department may collect directly as well as those that may be collected by school districts or other entities.

- Yes
- No

Does your department administer collection of school facilities impact fees required in your jurisdiction?

- Yes
- No

If no, please provide contact information for entity that administers school facilities impact fees:

Entity:

Phone:

Email:

Employee Contact Name (if known):

Does your jurisdiction have a process in place for someone building a single-family residence to defer school facilities impact fees?

- Yes
- No

Does your jurisdiction have a plan to develop a process for the deferral of school facilities impact fees?

- Yes
- No

Please provide additional information about your jurisdiction's plan to develop or not develop a process for deferring school facilities impact fees.

How many deferrals were requested?

How many deferrals were issued?

What was the monetary amount of the impact fees deferred?

How many deferrals were not fully and timely paid?

What was the cost to your jurisdiction to collect delinquent fees?

Must school facilities impact fees be deferred separately, or can they be deferred with other types of impact fees? Select all that apply.

- School facilities impact fees must be deferred separately
 - Can be deferred with public streets and roads impact fees
 - Can be deferred with fire protection facilities impact fees
 - Can be deferred with publicly owned parks, open space, and recreation facilities impact fees
 - All impact fees may be deferred together
-

What fee, if any, is charged for deferring payment of impact fees?

At what point does deferral end? (ex: nailing of sheetrock or certificate of occupancy)

Would you like to provide any feedback for this survey that will help us in designing future impact fee surveys?
