

CHAPTER 77.

[S. B. 203.]

EXHIBITION OF BOVINE ANIMALS.

AN ACT relating to the exhibition of bovine animals and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Certificate of health required before exhibiting.

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful to exhibit at any state, county or district fair, or livestock exhibition within the State of Washington, any bovine animal over one year old, unless within six months prior to such exhibition it has been subjected to a tuberculin test and received a certificate of health from a qualified veterinarian. No entry of such animal for exhibition shall be accepted by any authorized representative of any such fairs or exposition, until such certificate of health has been filed with the proper officer of the fair or exposition.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 2. Any person who exhibits or permits the exhibition of any animal in violation of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty ($250.00) dollars.

Passed by the Senate March 3, 1921.

Passed by the House March 7, 1921.

Approved by the Governor March 14, 1921.
