CHAPTER 265

[Substitute House Bill No. 225]

HIGHER EDUCATION—IMMIGRANT REFUGEES—TUITION AND FEES—
RESIDENT STATUS

AN ACT Relating to higher education; adding a new section to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature recognizes that in extending resident tuition and fee rates at the state's universities, colleges, and community colleges to Indo-Chinese and other immigrant refugees as provided for in section 2 of this 1977 act, necessary assistance is being provided to people who have suffered hardship and who require help in attaining basic and fundamental skills in order to adapt to life within their respective communities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used herein, the term parole status shall mean that resident status heretofore granted by the Attorney General of the United States under the provisions of Title 8 United States Code, Section 1182(d)(5).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The state's universities, colleges, and community colleges shall grant resident status for the purpose of tuition and fee payment, including operating fees and services and activities fees, to any immigrant refugee, including but not limited to
