CHAPTER CXLIV.

[S. B. No. 29.]

AN ACT requiring street railway companies to provide weather guards on street cars, and providing a penalty for violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. All corporations, companies or individuals owning, managing or operating any street railway or line in the State of Washington, shall provide, during the rain or winter season, all cars run or used on its or their respective roads with good, substantial and sufficient vestibules, or weather guards, for the protection of the employés of such corporation, company or individual.

SEC. 2. The vestibules or weather guards, provided for in section one hereof, shall be so constructed as to protect the employés of such company, corporation or individual from the wind, rain or snow.

SEC. 3. Any such street railway company, corporation or individual, as mentioned in the preceding sections, failing to comply with the provisions of this act, shall forfeit and pay to the State of Washington a penalty of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars for each and every violation of this act, and each period of ten days that any such company, corporation or individual shall fail to comply with the provisions of this act, or for each car used by such corporation, company or individual not in conformity with this act, shall be taken and deemed to be a separate violation of this act, and all moneys collected under and by virtue of the provisions of this act shall be paid into the common school fund of the State of Washington.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting or county attorneys of the various counties of this state to see that the provisions of this act are complied with.

Passed the senate February 13, 1895.

Passed the house March 14, 1895.

Approved March 20, 1895.
