

CHAPTER CVIII.

[H. B. No. 535.]

RELATING TO THE INTERMENT OF THE BODIES OF WASHINGTON VOLUNTEERS.

AN ACT providing for the honorable interment of the bodies of Washington Volunteers returned by the government of the United States, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring an emergency.

WHEREAS, In the Spanish-American war many of the volunteers from this commonwealth have sacrificed their lives in the service of the United States, and many others are liable to meet death in such service; and,

WHEREAS, In many cases the relatives and friends of such deceased volunteers are without means to give such bodies a suitable burial, and,

WHEREAS, The State of Washington owes to its noble citizens who sacrificed their lives at their country's call, an honorable interment; therefore

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SEC. 1. It shall be the duty of the adjutant general of this state to make suitable provision for the interment of the remains of all deceased Washington volunteers returned to this state by the United States government, and whenever possible, he shall communicate with the relatives or friends of such deceased volunteers, and when practicable be governed by their desires as to the disposition of such remains. In case the adjutant general should fail to receive directions from relatives or friends of any deceased volunteer it shall be his duty to inter such remains in the state cemetery at Orting, Washington, or such other public cemetery as in his judgment may be deemed advisable.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act there is hereby appropriated out of the general funds of the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of ten thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

SEC. 3. An emergency exists and this act shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House March 9, 1899.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1899.

Approved March 13, 1899.
