CHAPTER 70.

[H. B. 101.]

POLICE JUSTICES IN FOURTH CLASS CITIES OR TOWNS.

AN ACT relating to the appointment, powers and duties of police justices in fourth class cities or towns, and amending section 7748 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington (Section 853, Pierce's Washington Code).

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 7748 of Rem. & Bal. Code be amended to read as follows:

Section 7748. There shall be appointed by the mayor a police justice from the justices of the peace duly elected or appointed under the laws of the State of Washington for said town, which appointment shall become effective when confirmed by the council. Such police justice so appointed, in addition to his powers as a justice of the peace, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all offenses defined by any ordinance of the town, and all other actions brought to enforce or recover any license, penalty or forfeiture declared or given by any such ordinance, and full power to forfeit bail bonds and issue execution thereon and full power to forfeit cash bail, and full power to hear and determine all causes,

jurisdiction.

civil or criminal, arising under such ordinance, and pronounce judgment in accordance therewith: Provided, That for the violation of a criminal ordinance no greater punishment shall be imposed than a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment not to exceed thirty days or by both such fine and imprisonment. In the trial of actions brought for the violation of any town ordinance no jury shall be allowed, and no change of venue shall be allowed from such police judge in actions brought for violation of town ordinances. All criminal and civil proceedings before such police justice and judgment rendered by him shall be subject to review in the superior court of the proper county by writ of review or appeal. In actions brought before such police justice to enforce or recover any license, penalty or forfeiture declared or given by any ordinance and in all other civil actions the manner of commencing the same, the manner of obtaining service upon the defendant, the procedure during the pendency of the action and for the enforcement of the judgment obtained, if any, and the procedure in appeal therefrom, together with the time limitation upon such appeal shall be as provided in the case of civil actions before justices of the peace. All officers so appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council are subject to removal by the town council at any time for cause deemed sufficient. Said police justice shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give such additional bond to the city for the faithful performance of his duties as the city council may by ordinance direct, and shall receive such salary in addition to his salary as justice of the peace as the council may by ordinance direct.
