SECTION 1. That section 5089 of Remington's Compiled Statutes be amended to read as follows:

Section 5089. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of public instruction at such times as he may deem it advisable, but not oftener than three times each year, to forward questions prepared by the state board of education for use in the examination of pupils having completed the grammar school course of study, to fix the date for such examination, and to grant certificates of promotion to pupils successfully passing such examination according to the standard prescribed by the state board of education; which said certificate shall entitle the holder thereof to entrance into any high school of the state without further examination; Provided, That such examination shall be optional in any school district in which standard supervision is maintained in accordance with rules and regulations of the State Board of Education: Provided further, That nothing in this act shall be construed as compelling boards of directors to admit nonresident pupils without tuition charge.

Passed the House February 28, 1923.

Passed the Senate March 7, 1923.

Approved by the Governor March 14, 1923.
