CHAPTER 63.

[S. B. 213.]

RELATING TO THE SELECTION OF JURORS.

AN ACT amending section three of an act entitled "An act providing for and regulating the selection of jurors in the superior courts of the state; and providing for the appointment of jury commissioners, prescribing their duties, qualifications and compensation, and providing for their removal from office; declaring certain violations of this act to be contempt of court and providing for the punishment thereof as such; and repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict therewith," approved March 9, 1905.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section three of an act entitled "An Act providing for and regulating the selection of jurors in the superior courts of the state, and providing for the appointment of jury commissioners, prescribing their duties, qualifications and compensation, and providing for their removal from office; declaring certain violations of this act to be contempt of court and providing for the punishment thereof as such; and repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith," approved March 9, 1905, be amended to read as follows: Sec. 3. In open court within twenty days in counties of the first class and within ten days in counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth classes, the commissioners shall select the names of all the qualified jurors in the county, as far as the commissioners may be able to ascertain the same from the latest tax rolls, and poll books of the county and deposit the same written on separate slips of paper of uniform size, shape and color in a box to be furnished by the clerk of the court for that purpose. In selecting and depositing such names the said commissioners shall, in all things observe their oaths and they shall not select the name of any person who is to them known to be interested in any cause pending in the court by which such commissioners were appointed. When such names have been selected and deposited in such box, the jury commissioners shall deliver the box, locked and the key thereof, to the clerk of the court by which the commissioners were appointed; and such clerk shall at all times keep such locked box and said key separately in some safe and convenient place in his office. A list of the names so chosen shall be spread at large upon the journal of the court and all names subsequently drawn from the box shall at the time of drawing be compared and checked in open court with the list as so recorded: Provided, That in counties of the first class, where twenty thousand or more votes shall have been polled at the next preceding general election, the superior court may on a showing of necessity made by affidavit of the commissioners selected by it, extend the time for the completion of the duties prescribed in this section, for a period not to exceed forty days altogether.
