The number of senators shall not be more than one-half nor less than one-third of the number of members of the house of representatives. The first legislature shall be composed of seventy members of the house of representatives, and thirty-five senators.”

Article II, Sec. 3:

“. . . and also after each enumeration made by the authority of the United States, the legislature shall apportion and district anew the members of the senate and house of representatives, according to the number of inhabitants . . .”

Article XXII, Sec. 1 and 2:

“. . . the state shall be divided into twenty-four senatorial districts . . . and the representatives shall be divided among the several counties . . .”

1890 Legislature passed a redistricting bill creating 34 single-member senatorial districts and 49 representative districts, which contained from one to three representatives, depending on the population of the district, for a total of 78 representatives. (Effective date: September, 1890)

1899 Legislature passed a bill creating Ferry County. It was included in the 2nd senatorial district and constituted the 50th representative district. (C 18 L 99)

Legislature passed a bill creating Chelan County. It was included in the 1st senatorial district and constituted the 51st representative district. (C 95 L 99)

1901 Legislature passed a redistricting and reapportionment act creating 42 single-member senatorial districts and 56 representative districts, which contained from one to three representatives, depending on the population of the district, for a total of 95 representatives. (C 60 L 01– Effective date: January, 1903) (This act was vetoed by the Governor on March 4, 1901, and returned to the Senate. The act was passed over the Governor’s veto on March 4, 1901 by the Senate, and on March 6, 1901 by the House of Representatives.)

1905 Legislature passed a bill creating Benton County. It was included in the 15th senatorial district and constituted the 57th (later the 58th) representative district. (C 89 L 05) (In 1911, the 57th representative district was changed to the 58th representative district. Remington and Ballinger’s Code, Sec. 6883.)

1907 Legislature divided Chehalis County and named the new portion Grays Harbor County. It was included in the 21st senatorial district and became the 30th representative district. (C 47 L 07) Later, however, the Washington State Supreme Court ruled that this action was unconstitutional.

1909 Legislature passed a bill creating Grant County. It was included in the 1st senatorial district and constituted the 58th (59th) representative district. (C 17 L 09) (In 1911, the 58th representative district was changed to the 59th representative district. Remington and Ballinger’s Code, Sec. 6883.)

Legislature passed four redistricting bills which made boundary changes in the 7th, 8th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 32nd and 36th senatorial districts and the 8th, 9th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 42nd, 46th, 53rd and 54th representative districts. (C 103 L 09) (C 107 L 09) (C 178 L 09) (C 187 L 09)

1911 Legislature passed a bill creating Pend Oreille County. It was included in the 2nd senatorial district and constituted the 60th representative district. (C 28 L 11)

1915 Legislature passed a bill changing the name of Chehalis County to Grays Harbor County. (C 77 L 15)

1921 Legislature passed two redistricting bills which made boundary changes in the 4th, 5th, and 7th senatorial districts and the 3rd, 4th, and 6th representative districts. (C 47 L 21) (C 167 L 21)

1923 Legislature passed a redistricting bill which made boundary changes in the 3rd and 4th senatorial districts and the 2nd and 3rd representative districts. (C 91 L 23)

HISTORY OF REAPPORTIONMENT AND REDISTRICTING IN WASHINGTON STATE

1925 Legislature passed a bill changing the spelling of Clarke County to “Clark County.” (C 51 L 25)

1927 Legislature passed a redistricting bill which made boundary changes in the 31st and 32nd senatorial districts and the 41st and 42nd representative districts. (C 221 L 27)

Legislature repealed an 1890 act which prescribed the number of senators and representatives; provided for their election and for the apportionment of the state into senatorial and representative districts. (C 127 L 27)

1929 Legislature repealed C 178 L 09 which made boundary changes in the 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, and 29th senatorial districts and the 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th and 39th representative districts. (C 22 L 29)

1930 People redistricted by Initiative 57. State Supreme Court upheld the use of the initiative process for redistricting. The initiative provided an increase of senators from 42 to 46 and representatives from 97 to 99. Other changes were: (1) representative districts were made the same as senatorial districts; (2) each district had a minimum of two representatives; and (3) county lines were used primarily as boundaries for districts. (C 2 L 31– Effective date: January, 1931)

1933 Legislature passed two redistricting bills which made changes in boundaries of the 9th and 10th districts and the 4th and 5th districts. (C 20 L 33; C 74 L 33)

1956 People redistricted by Initiative 199. The initiative provided for 49 senate members from each of 49 districts. The house consisted of 99 members; two from each of the 49 districts and one additional member from the 31st district. (C 5 L 57)

1957 Legislature amended people’s Initiative 199. (Initiatives may be amended by 2/3 vote of both houses of the legislature.) State Supreme Court upheld amendments. Amendments did not change the number of districts; only made boundary changes. (C 289 L 57– Effective date: January, 1957)

March 1962 U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Baker v. Carr that the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution provides basis for legal action on malapportionment.

July 1962 Initiative 211, a redistricting measure, certified for the November ballot after required number of signatures filed with Secretary of State.

August 1962 Thigpen v. Meyers filed in U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington. Plaintiff sought relief for malapportionment. Court postponed hearing until after November election when people cast vote on Initiative 211.

November 1962 Initiative 211 defeated at polls – 396,419 FOR; 441,085 AGAINST.

December 1962 The U.S. District Court heard case of Thigpen v. Meyers and ruled that “existing apportionment of the Washington Legislature is invidiously discriminatory.” Court deferred final action until after 1963 legislature met “to afford it the opportunity of discharging constitutional mandate.”

April 1963 Legislature adjourned, after a 60-day regular session and a 23-day extraordinary session, without passing a redistricting bill.

May 1963 The U.S. District Court declared existing legislative districts null and void, enjoined Secretary of State (defendant) from conducting elections from existing districts.

July 1963 Secretary of State appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court and petitioned for a stay of the District Court’s judgment, pending appeal.

February 1964 The U.S. Supreme Court granted stay of proceedings in case of Thigpen v. Meyers pending appeal—in effect, restoring existing districts.

June 15, 1964 The U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Reynolds v. Sims that both houses of state legislature must be apportioned on the basis of population.

June 22, 1964 The U.S. Supreme Court rejected state’s appeal in Thigpen v. Meyers thus upholding the judgment of the District Court.

October 1964 The District Court ordered legislature to enact a constitutional reapportionment as its first order of business in the 1965 regular session. Court retained jurisdiction in order to examine any apportionment enacted by the legislature.

1965 In compliance with the order of the U.S. District Court in October 1964, the legislature could not pass any legislation until it had passed a redistricting bill. Forty-seven days after convening, the legislature passed a redistricting and reapportionment act creating 49 senatorial districts with one member elected from each district; 56 legislative districts with two representatives elected from each of 41 districts, three representatives from one district (District 42), and one from each of the remaining 14 districts (which were actually seven A-B districts), for a total of 99 representatives. (C 6 L 65– Effective date: February, 1965)

May 1971 Legislature adjourned, after a 60-day regular session and a 60-day extraordinary session, without passing a redistricting bill.

HISTORY OF REAPPORTIONMENT AND REDISTRICTING IN WASHINGTON STATE

July 1971 Prince v. Kramer, et. al., filed in U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington. Plaintiff sought legislative and congressional redistricting of the state.

August 1971 The U.S. District Court declared 1965 redistricting laws unconstitutional and invalid. The order also enjoined the defendants (Washington State and King County election officials) from conducting any further elections under the 1965 law.

September 1971 The U.S. District Court ordered that unless the legislature shall have enacted a redistricting bill on or before February 25, 1972, the court would order the redistricting of the state.

February 1972 Legislature adjourned without passing a redistricting bill.

April 1972 The U.S. District Court established legislative district boundaries for the state in Prince v. Kramer, et. al., Civil Order No. 9668. (Effective date: April 21, 1972)

1974 Legislature passed a redistricting bill which made boundary changes in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 13th, 14th, 23rd, 26th and 27th districts. (C 123 L 74 1st Ex. S.)

1981 Legislature passed a redistricting plan composed of 51 legislative districts. Four of the districts, 19-A, 19-B, 39-A, and 39-B were single-member representative districts and the remainder were multi-member representative districts each electing two representatives. All legislative districts were single-member senate districts, except that 19-A and 19-B were combined to form the 19th senatorial district and 39-A and 39-B were combined to form the 39th senatorial district. (C 288 L 81–Effective date: May 18, 1981) (Federal court suit)

1982 An independent bipartisan redistricting commission was established to begin in 1991. Redistricting plans were to be submitted to the legislature for ratification without amendment. (C 2 L 82–Effective date: February 17, 1982)

1983 A new independent bipartisan redistricting commission was established in law and the State Constitution and charged with both legislative and congressional redistricting. The legislature was given limited modification authority of any commission approved plan. (C 16 L 83 and Amendment 74 to the Washington State Constitution–Effective date: November 8, 1983)

1984 Legislature passed modifications to the 1983 Redistricting Act which made technical corrections and included language inadvertently omitted from the earlier act. (C 13 L 84–Effective date: June 7, 1984)

1991-1992 The first bipartisan redistricting commission authorized by the 1983 constitutional amendment was appointed in January 1991. After public hearings, the commission prepared a redistricting plan for legislative and congressional districts. The plan was officially submitted to the legislature on January 1, 1992. The 1992 legislature made only technical changes in the congressional plan (SCR 8421). The 30-day period in which the legislature could amend the commission's plan expired on February 11, 1992 and the plan became the state's districting law. (Legislative district plan codified as Chapter 44.07C RCW; congressional district plan codified as Chapter 29.69B RCW–Effective date: February 11, 1992.)

2001-2002 Pursuant to Chapter 44.05.030 RCW, the decennial redistricting commission was appointed in January 2001. After public hearings, the commission prepared redistricting plans for legislative and congressional districts. The legislative plan was adopted by the statutory deadline of December 15, 2001. The congressional plan was adopted by the constitutional deadline of January 1, 2002 and submitted to the legislature. Both plans were submitted to the legislature after their respective adoptions.

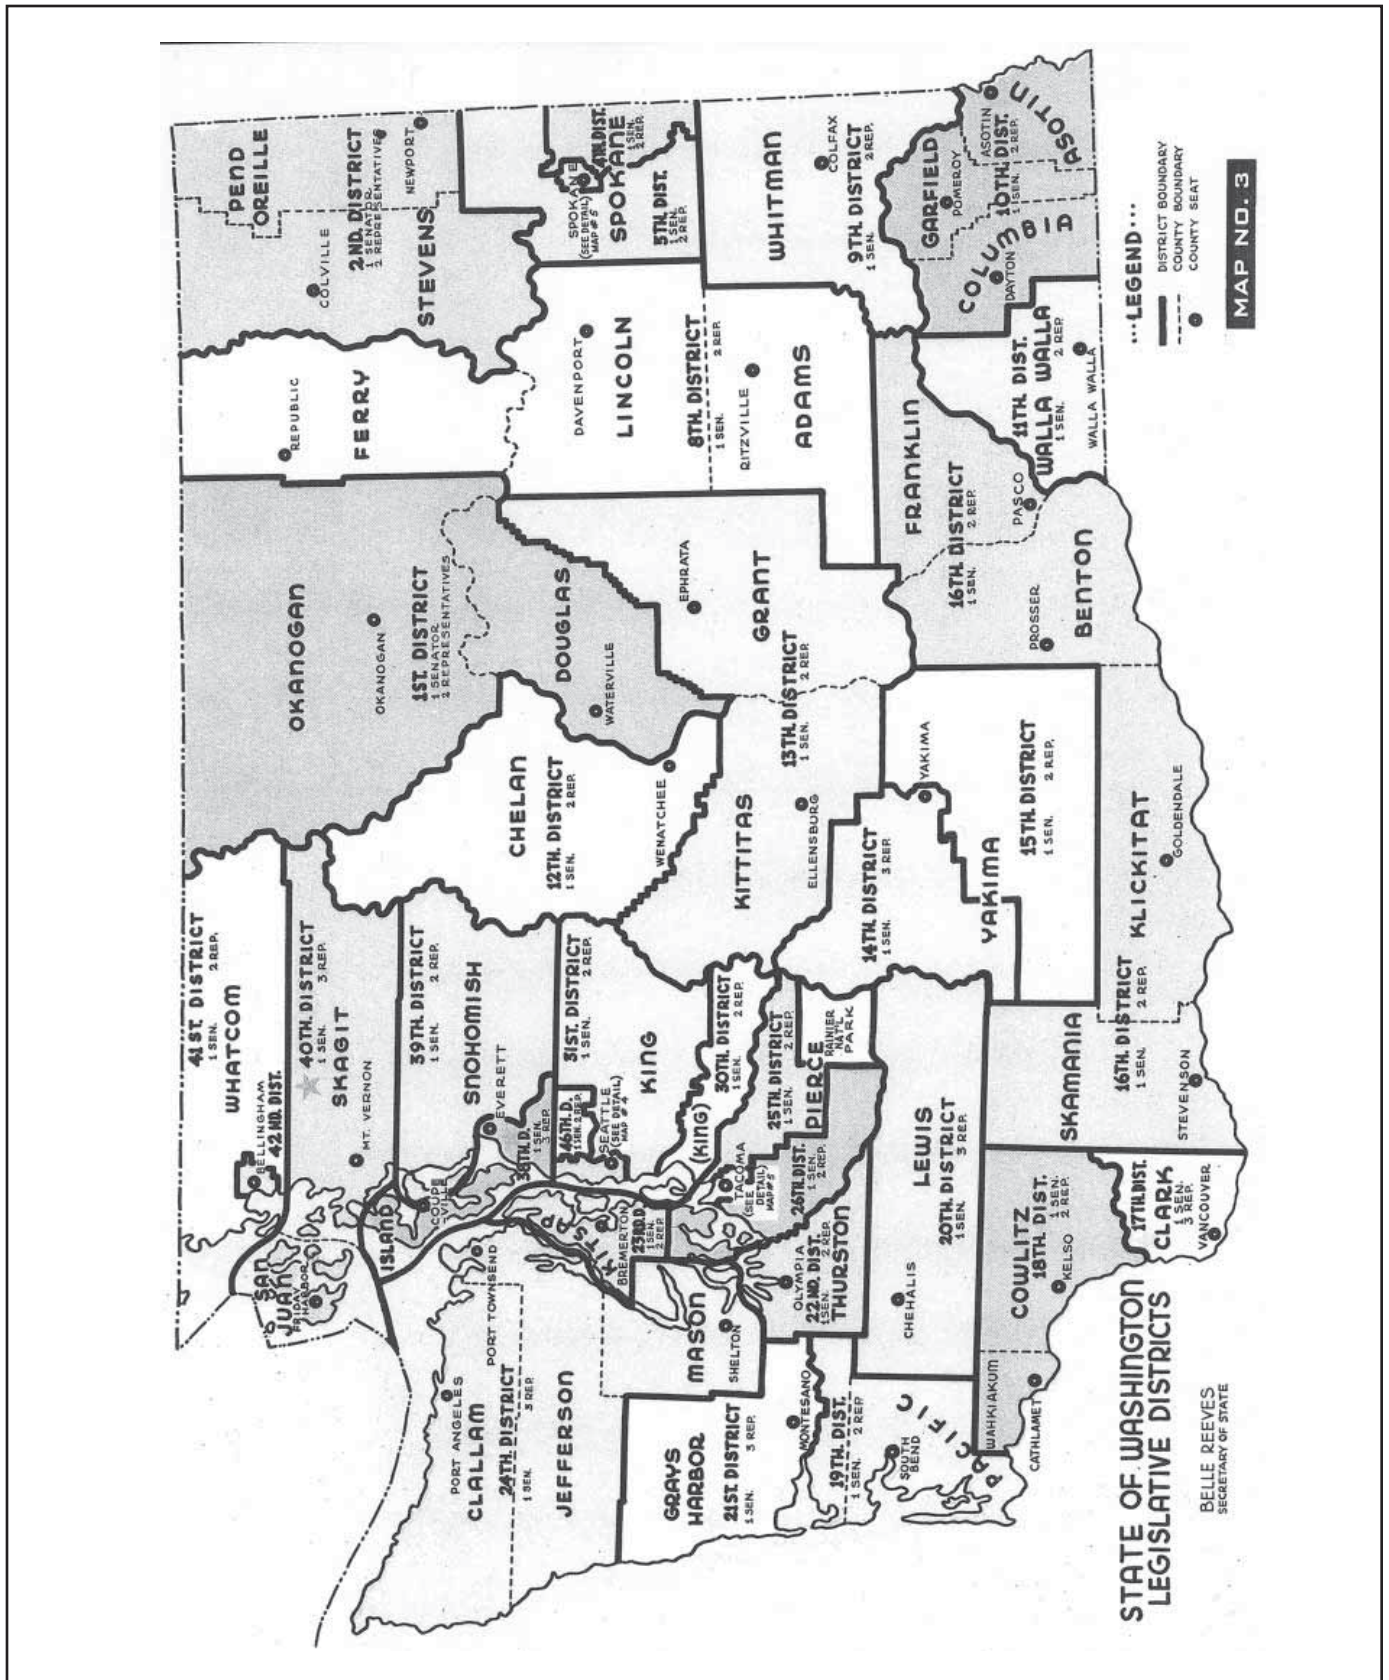

The 2002 legislature subsequently adopted legislation retroactively changing the statutory deadline for the submission of redistricting plans to January 1st of each year ending in two (SB 6296; C 4 L 02). The 2002 legislature also made minor amendments to the legislative plan (SCR 8429, SCR 8430) affecting the 7th & 12th, 27th & 28th and 18th & 49th districts. Although the 30-day period in which the legislature could have amended the commission plan would have expired on February 12, 2002, the legislative and congressional plan became the state's districting law on February 8, 2002, the effective dates of the amendatory resolutions. (Legislative district plan codified as Chapter 44.07D RCW; congressional district plan codified as Chapter 29A.76A RCW.)

The History of Women in the Washington State Legislature

In 1854 as Washington Territory was being formed, the Territorial Convention proposal to grant women the right to vote was defeated by a single vote. In 1881, the Territorial House passed legislation granting women the right to vote, but it failed in the Council on a narrow 5 to 7 vote. The issue was debated every session thereafter. The constant protesting and pushing by the Washington Equal Suffrage Association, organized by Susan B. Anthony and Abigail Scott Duniway in 1871, led the Territorial Legislature to grant full voting rights to women in 1883. However, in 1887, the Territorial Supreme Court overturned that law and another that was enacted in 1888. The State Constitutional Convention of 1889 did not include women's suffrage in its constitutional proposal to Congress but the questions of voting rights for women, prohibition and siting the state capitol were submitted as separate ballot actions. Women's suffrage and prohibition both failed to pass.

The 1909 Legislature again placed a women's suffrage proposal on the ballot. In 1910, following a campaign headed by Emma Smith DeVoe and May Arkwright Hutton, voters in Washington approved Amendment VI to the State Constitution granting women the right to vote. This broke a 14-year gridlock in the national women's suffrage crusade. The state became the fifth in the nation to enfranchise women – the first on the Pacific coast. In 1920, the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution won the necessary two-thirds ratification from state legislatures and women's suffrage became the law of the land on August 26.

Women were elected to the State House in 1912 and in 1922 to the State Senate. Nationally, the number of female lawmakers in state legislatures steadily climbed after women first entered state office in the 1920s and gained more with the women's movement of the late 1960s and early 1970s, according to research by the Center for American Women and Politics at Rutgers University. In 1998 and 2004, Washington State had the distinction of electing the highest percentage of women to its Statehouse, 40 percent in 1998 and 37 percent in 2004. The state consistently ranks among the top ten of all states.

History of Legislative Meeting Sites

The first legislative assembly of the Washington Territory convened upstairs in the Parker & Colter Store in a building owned by Olympia's founder Edmund Sylvester on Main Street between Second and Third Streets on February 28, 1854. The second legislature met in December 1854, in a colonnaded hall built by the Olympia Lodge 5, Free and Accepted Masons located at the corner of Capitol Way and Eighth. It was in this Masonic Temple that the assembly formally set Olympia as the territorial capital while accepting Edmund Sylvester's donation of a 12-acre tract on Capitol Hill on a bluff overlooking the south end of Puget Sound for use as the site for a permanent capitol building.

On December 1, 1856, the fourth session of the assembly was called to order in its own "temporary" building. This wooden Territorial Capitol Building was located on the Sylvester tract on the present-day capitol campus between the Legislative and Insurance Buildings and would serve as the territorial and state capitol for nearly 50 years. The simple two-story wood frame building, 40 feet by 80 feet, was styled like a New England colonial church with a small tower but without a steeple. The Capitol had a portico in front with pillars supporting a balcony above. The House of Representatives met on the first floor, the Council (predecessor to the State Senate) met on the second next to the Territorial Library.

In 1893, foundations for a new State Capitol were laid on the present campus, but a financial panic halted work and there were no bids on further construction. Still needing a new capitol to replace their cramped and stuffy quarters, in 1901 the legislature purchased the Thurston County Courthouse located on Sixth and Washington Streets, and it became Washington's second capitol. Built in 1891, the Old Capitol Building, made out of Chuckanut sandstone, is a characteristic example of Nineteenth Century American Romanesque architecture.

An annex to house the legislative chambers was to be completed by the 1903 session but the addition was not ready and the Secretary of State hastily arranged for the legislature to meet in the Farquhar Store which was located near 7th and Adams Streets – the Territorial Capitol Building on the campus had, by 1903, become uninhabitable. The Farquhar Building was built in 1889 as a hardware, feed and hay store and covered "1600 square yards." According to newspaper reports, the state spent funds fitting up the building, but legislators called it "The Barn" and their desks were referred to as "stalls." The legislators were unhappy although the building was warmer than the old 1856-era capitol and had indoor plumbing. The lighting consisted of "32 candle incandescents hung over the members" and was woefully inadequate.

After the Legislature occupied its new building, the Farquhar Building was pressed into service as a social center for the legislature in 1905 after a fire in 1904 destroyed the elegant Olympia Hotel. The Farquhar store was later used as an armory, public hall, skating rink and dance hall. It was razed in 1920.

The Old Capitol Building was dedicated January 11, 1905, before a joint session in the House of Representatives at the inauguration of Governor Albert Mead. Politicians and some observers said it could serve the needs of the state for 50 years and would be a source of pride replacing the frontier Capitol which was becoming an increasing embarrassment. As it was, the Capitol was certainly an improvement. For the first time, there was room for spectators and better ventilation than the frontier Capitol. Nevertheless, as some had predicted, the building soon proved too small to house state government – it is said that storing license plates for automobiles of the early 1900s caused the floor of the basement to collapse. The legislature was better off for space than it had been, but room for desks was still limited.

Having noted Washington's and other states' growth, the State Capitol Commission that met in 1911 opted for a design of a group of buildings, rather than a single facility, to serve as the capitol. Walter Wilder and Harry White won the competition, while the Olmsted brothers of Brookline, Massachusetts, were asked to prepare the landscape designs. Construction began in 1912. The Temple of Justice was occupied in 1913, followed the Insurance Building and the power and heating plant used to support the capitol group in 1920. After multiple design changes, funding and construction issues, the Legislative Building was completed in 1928 at a cost of just over seven million dollars. Funding for a dedication ceremony for the new Legislative Building was vetoed by the governor. On March 9, 1927, the 20th Legislature marched in a procession from the Old Capitol to the Legislative Building. They proceeded up the north steps and through the huge bronze doors and divided in the rotunda, the senators assuming their seats in the new Senate chamber and the representatives moving into their chamber on the west. Washington, a state for 39 years and a territory for 36 before that, finally had a permanent statehouse – 75 years after becoming a territory.

The last two members of the capitol group, the John A. Cherberg Building (originally named the Public Lands ~ Social Security Building) and the John L. O'Brien Building (originally named the Transportation Building) were constructed in 1937 and 1939, respectively. A sixth building to originally meant for the west side of the Legislative Building to complement the Insurance Building was never realized.

Seventy-five years after the Legislative Building first opened it received its first major renovation as a result of the Nisqually Earthquake of 2001 which precipitated already planned-for renovations.

The earthquake forced the evacuation of the Legislative Building. The Senate happened to be in session at the time and it reconvened near the street by the Building's southeast entrance at the corner of Syd Snyder Avenue and Cherry Lane to formally adjourn for the day. For a time during the Spring of 2001, the House met in the John L. O'Brien Building and the Senate met in the John A. Cherberg Building until the Legislative Building was deemed safe to occupy. The Legislature was forced out of the Building during the Summer 2002 to Fall 2004 rehabilitation of the Legislative Building. For the 2003 and 2004 Sessions, the House of Representatives convened on the second floor of one of two temporary modular buildings brought onto the capitol campus, Modular Building II, and the Senate convened on the first floor of the Joel M. Pritchard Building.

On January 10, 2005, the Legislature held a Re-opening Day Celebration marking the re-occupation of the Legislative Building after a two-year rehabilitation and renovation project.

APPENDIX A
TERRITORIAL ASSEMBLY – 1854-1887

*Information taken from “Members of the Territorial Legislature 1854 - 1887”
Compiled by Ellen Levesque, Washington State Library, Olympia, WA
October 1989*

Explanatory notes

The information found in this document was gathered from several sources:

California researcher Sally Owen spent several days at the Washington State Library reading through the Journals of both the House and Council, extracting as much information as possible. There were, however, some gaps in this source.

Beginning in August of 1989, Washington/Northwest Room Library Technician Ellen Levesque began a listing of the Territorial Legislators found in an old card file of State Officials. In comparing this information with that compiled by Sally Owen, she was able to fill in several missing pieces of information. Then using Federal Census Indexes for 1860, 1870 and 1880, as well as newspaper accounts and the Washington/Northwest Room biographical index file, many other gaps were filled. Since the original Journals often listed members by initials only, this included finding the whole name of as many members as possible. Unfortunately, it was impossible to find every one.
