NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. RESERVE FUNDS. The authority may create and establish one or more reserve funds to be known as debt service reserve funds and pay into any such reserve fund (a) any proceeds of sale of bonds and notes to the extent provided in the resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance thereof, (b) any moneys directed to be transferred by the authority to such debt service reserve fund, and any other moneys made available to the authority for the purposes of such fund from any other source or sources. The moneys held in or credited to any debt service reserve fund established under this subsection, except as hereinafter provided, shall be used solely for the payment of the principal of bonds of the authority secured by such debt service reserve fund, as the same mature, required payments to any sinking fund established for the amortization of such bonds (hereinafter referred to as "sinking fund payments"), the purchase or redemption of such bonds of the authority, the payment of interest on such bonds of the authority or the payment of any redemption premium required to be paid when such bonds are redeemed prior to maturity. Moneys in such fund shall not be withdrawn therefrom at any time in such amount as would reduce the amount of such fund to less than the amount which the authority shall determine to be reasonably necessary for the purposes of such reserve fund, except for the purpose of paying principal, sinking fund payments, if any, and interest on such bonds of the authority secured by such reserve fund maturing and becoming due for the payment of which other moneys of the authority are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or increment to, any such debt service reserve fund due to the investment thereof may be transferred to any other fund or account of the authority to the extent it does not reduce the amount of such debt service reserve fund below the amount which the authority shall determine to be reasonably necessary for the purposes of such reserve fund. Moneys in any debt service reserve fund not required for immediate use or disbursement may be invested in accordance with the provisions of subsection (6) of section 5 of this 1973 act. In computing the amount of any debt service reserve fund for the purposes of this section, securities in which all or a portion of such reserve fund are invested shall be valued at par or, if purchased at other than par, at their amortized cost to the authority. If the authority shall create and establish one or more debt service reserve funds as herein provided, the authority shall not issue bonds at any time if the amount of any debt service reserve fund at the time of issuance thereof does not equal or exceed the amount which the authority shall determine to be reasonably necessary for the purposes of such reserve fund, unless the authority, at the time of issuance of such bonds, shall deposit in such reserve fund from the proceeds of the bonds to be issued, or otherwise, an amount which together with the amount then in such reserve fund, shall be not less than the amount which the authority shall determine to be reasonably necessary for the purposes of such reserve fund. The authority may create and establish such other reserve funds as it shall deem advisable and necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. REMEDIES OF BONDHOLDERS AND NOTEHOLDERS. (1) In the event that the authority shall default in the payment of principal or of interest on any issue of bonds or notes after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this chapter, or shall default in any agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds or notes, the holders of twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds or notes of such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal office of the authority is located, and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of such bonds or notes for the purposes herein provided.

(2) Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such issue of bonds or notes then outstanding shall, in his or its own name,

(a) enforce all rights of the bondholders or noteholders, including the right to require the authority to collect interest and principal payments on the loans held by it adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, such interest and principal payments, and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds or notes and to perform its duties under this chapter;

(b) bring suit upon such bonds or notes;

(c) by action or suit, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds or notes;

(d) by action or suit, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds or notes;

(e) declare all such bonds or notes due and payable and if all defaults shall be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such issue of bonds or notes then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

(3) Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of bondholders or noteholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

(4) Before declaring the principal of bonds or notes due and payable, the trustee shall first give thirty days' notice in writing to the governor, to the authority, and to the attorney general of the state.

(5) The superior court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of bondholders or noteholders. The venue of any such suit, action, or proceeding shall be laid in the county in which the principal office of the authority is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. STATE AND MUNICIPALITIES NOT LIABLE ON BONDS AND NOTES. The bonds, notes and other obligations of the authority shall not be a debt of the state of Washington or of any municipality, and neither the state nor any municipality shall be liable thereon, nor shall they be payable out of any funds other than those of the authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. AGREEMENT OF THE STATE. The state of Washington does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds or notes issued under this chapter that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders thereof, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such bonds or notes together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of such bonds or notes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. BONDS AND NOTES AS LEGAL INVESTMENTS FOR PUBLIC OFFICERS AND FIDUCIARIES. The bonds and notes of the authority are hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this state, including without limitation the state employees' retirement fund and the public school employees' retirement fund, and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bank and trust companies, trust companies, private banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds and notes are also hereby made securities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. TAX EXEMPTION AND DEDUCTIONS. (1) It is hereby determined that the creation of the authority is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state, for the improvement of their health and welfare, and for the promotion of the economy, and that said purposes are public purposes and the authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this chapter, and the state covenants with the purchasers and all subsequent holders and transferees of bonds and notes issued by the authority, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds and notes, that the bonds and notes of the authority issued pursuant to this chapter and the income therefrom shall at all times be free from taxation, except for estate or gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

(2) The property of the authority and its income and operations shall be exempt from taxation and assessments of every kind and nature, other than assessments for local improvements. The authority shall not be required to pay any recording fee or transfer tax of any kind on account of instruments recorded by it or on its behalf.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law or the provisions of any certificate of incorporation, charter or other articles of organization, all domestic corporations or associations organized for the purpose of carrying on business in the state and all persons are hereby authorized to make contributions to the authority and a sum equal to any such contribution may be deducted from any tax imposed by the provisions of Title 82 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. MONEYS OF THE AUTHORITY. (1) All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived, except as otherwise authorized or provided in this chapter, shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority and shall be deposited forthwith in a bank or banks in the state designated by the authority. The moneys in such accounts shall be withdrawn on the order of such person or persons as the authority may authorize. All deposits of such moneys shall, if required by the authority, be secured in such manner as the authority may determine. The state auditor and his legally authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing; the authority shall not be required to pay a fee for any such examination.

(2) The authority shall have power to contract with holders of any of its bonds or notes as to the custody, collection, securing, investment, and payment of any moneys of the authority, of any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes, and to carry out such contract. Moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or notes or in any way to secure bonds or notes and deposits of such moneys may be secured in the same manner as moneys of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits.

(3) Subject to the provisions of any contract with bondholders or noteholders and to the approval of the state auditor, the authority shall prescribe a system of accounts.

(4) The authority shall submit to the governor, president pro tempore of the senate, speaker of the house of representatives, and the state auditor, within thirty days of the receipt thereof by the authority, a copy of the report of every external examination of the books and accounts of the authority other than copies of the reports of such examinations made by the state auditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. Neither the members of the authority, nor any person or persons acting in its behalf, while acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from carrying out any of the powers expressly given in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. ASSISTANCE BY STATE OFFICERS, DEPARTMENTS, BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS. (1) The commission, council, attorney general and state treasurer, and all other state agencies may render such services to the authority within their respective functions as may be requested by the authority.

(2) Upon request of the authority, any state agency is hereby authorized and empowered to transfer to the authority such officers and employees as it may deem necessary from time to time to assist the authority in carrying out its functions and duties under this chapter. Officers and employees so transferred shall not lose their civil service status or rights.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. ANNUAL REPORT. The authority shall submit to the governor, the president pro tempore of the senate, speaker of the house of representatives and the state auditor, within six months after the end of its fiscal year, a complete and detailed report setting forth: (1) Its operations and accomplishments; (2) its receipts and expenditures during such fiscal year in accordance with the categories or classifications established by the authority for its operating and capital outlay purposes, including a listing of all private consultants engaged by the authority on a contract basis and a statement of the total amount paid to each such private consultant; (3) its assets and liabilities at the end of its fiscal year and the status of reserve, special or other funds; and (4) a schedule of its bonds and notes outstanding at the end of its fiscal year, together with a statement of the amounts redeemed and incurred during such fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. COURT PROCEEDINGS; PREFERENCES; VENUE. Any action or proceeding to which the authority or the people of the state of Washington may be a party, in which any question arises as to the validity of this chapter, shall be preferred over all other civil causes in all courts of the state of Washington and shall be heard and determined in preference to all other civil business pending therein irrespective of position on the calendar. The same preference shall be granted upon application of counsel to the authority in any action or proceeding questioning the validity of this chapter in which he may be allowed to intervene. The venue of any such action or proceeding shall be laid in the county in which the principal office of the authority is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. CORPORATE EXISTENCE. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until terminated by law: PROVIDED, That no such law shall take effect so long as the authority shall have bonds, notes and other obligations outstanding, unless adequate provision has been made for the payment thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all its rights and properties in excess of its obligations shall pass to and be vested in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. INCONSISTENT PROVISIONS OF OTHER LAWS SUPERSEDED. Insofar as the provisions of this chapter are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general, special or local, the provisions of this chapter shall be controlling.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. CONSTRUCTION. This chapter, being necessary for the welfare of the state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this 1973 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. APPROPRIATION. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund the sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to the authority for the biennium ending June 30, 1975 for the payment of expenses of the authority in carrying out the provisions of sections 1 through 21 of this 1973 act: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no portion of the sum hereby appropriated shall be available, or shall be used by the authority, for the purchase of any loans as provided in section 6 of this 1973 act, for the payment of any principal of, or redemption premium or interest on any bonds or notes of the authority issued pursuant to section 7 of this 1973 act, or for deposit in any debt service reserve fund created pursuant to section 8 of this 1973 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 1 through 21 of this 1973 act are hereby added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to Title 28B RCW as a new chapter thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. EMERGENCY. This 1973 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 14, 1973.

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2425]

ELECTIONS--WRITE-IN VOTING--

EXCLUSIONS

AN ACT Relating to elections; amending section 29.51.170, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 28, chapter 109, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 29.51.170; and amending section 29.54.050, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 11, chapter 101, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 29.54.050.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 29.51.170, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 28, chapter 109, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 29.51.170 are each amended to read as follows:

At any election or primary, any voter may write in on the ballot the name of any person for whom he desires to vote for any office and such vote shall be counted the same as if the name had been printed on the ballot and marked by the voter: PROVIDED, That no write-in vote for a partisan office at a general election shall be valid for any person who has offered himself as a candidate for such position for the nomination at the preceding primary: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That when voting machines or voting devices and ballot cards are used, no write-in vote for any candidate for a partisan office at either a state primary election or state general election shall be valid unless a political party affiliation is also written by the voter after the candidate's name: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the instance of a write-in candidate for a partisan office only those write-in votes constituting the greatest number of a single political party designation shall be valid for counting purposes when the canvassing authority certifies the official election returns. The same procedure must be followed when paper ballots are used for partisan offices at a state primary election. For such write-in voting, it shall not be necessary for a voter to write the full name of the political party concerned. Any abbreviation including the first letter of the political party name shall be acceptable as long as the precinct election officers can determine to their satisfaction the person voted for and the political party intended.

Any person who is nominated at any primary election as a write-in candidate for any public office but who has not previously paid the regular filing fee shall not have his name printed on the official ballot for the general election unless, within five days after the official canvass of the primary vote, he executes a declaration of candidacy and pays the same fee required by law to be paid by candidates for filing for the office for which he has been nominated.

Sec. 2. Section 29.54.050, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 11, chapter 101, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 29.54.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Ballots must be rejected if:

- (1) Two are found folded together;
- (2) Marked so as to identify who the voter is: PROVIDED, That this subsection (2) shall not apply to absentee ballots;
- (3) Printed other than by the respective county auditors or other authorized election officials as provided by law.

Those parts of ballots must not be counted which:

- (1) Designate more persons for an office than are to be elected to that office;
- (2) Are not in compliance with section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act;

{3} Are not marked with sufficient definiteness to determine the voter's choice or intention: PROVIDED, That no ballot or part thereof shall be rejected for want of form or mistake in initials of names if the election board can determine to their satisfaction the person voted for and the office intended.

Passed the Senate April 15, 1973.

Passed the House April 15, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 23, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 24, 1973.

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2490]

CRIME VICTIMS--

COMPENSATION

AN ACT Relating to special proceedings; providing benefits to victims of crime; adding a new section to Title 7 RCW; repealing section 1, chapter 72, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 72.66.100; and prescribing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. INTENT. It is the intent of the legislature of the state of Washington to provide a method of compensating and assisting those residents of the state who are innocent victims of criminal acts and who suffer bodily injury or death as a consequence thereof. To that end, it is the intention of the legislature to make certain of the benefits and services which are now or hereafter available to injured workmen under Title 51 RCW also available to innocent victims of crime as defined and provided for in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. The following words and phrases as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Department" means the department of labor and industries;

(2) "Criminal act" means an act committed or attempted in this state which is punishable as a felony or gross misdemeanor under the laws of this state: PROVIDED, That the operation of a motor vehicle, motorcycle, train, boat, or aircraft in violation of law does not constitute a "criminal act" unless the injury or death was intentionally inflicted or the operation thereof was part of the commission of another criminal act as defined in this section: PROVIDED FURTHER: (a) That neither an acquittal in a criminal prosecution nor the absence of any such prosecution shall be admissible in any claim or proceeding under this chapter as evidence of the noncriminal character of the acts giving rise to such claim or proceeding; (b) that evidence of a criminal conviction arising from acts which are the basis for a claim or proceeding under this chapter shall be admissible in such claim or proceeding for the limited purpose of proving the criminal character of the acts; (c) that acts which, but for the insanity or mental irresponsibility of the perpetrator, would constitute criminal conduct shall be deemed to be criminal conduct within the meaning of this chapter.

(3) "Victim" means a resident of the state who suffers bodily injury or death as a proximate result of a criminal act of another person, the victim's own good faith and reasonable effort to prevent a criminal act, or his good faith effort to apprehend a person reasonably suspected of engaging in a criminal act. For the purposes of receiving benefits pursuant to this chapter, "victim" shall be interchangeable with "employee" or "workman" as defined in chapter 51.08 RCW.

(4) "Child", "accredited school", "dependent", "beneficiary", "average monthly wage", "director", "injury", "invalid", "permanent partial disability", and "permanent total disability" shall have the meanings assigned to them in chapter 51.08 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. DUTIES OF DEPARTMENT. GENERAL PROVISIONS. It shall be the duty of the director to establish and administer a program of benefits to victims of criminal acts within the terms and limitations of this chapter. In so doing, the director shall, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, adopt rules and regulations necessary to the administration of this chapter, and the provisions contained in chapter 51.04 RCW, including but not limited to RCW 51.04.020, 51.04.030, 51.04.040, 51.04.050 and 51.04.100 as now or hereafter amended, shall apply where appropriate in keeping with the intent of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. CIVIL ACTIONS AGAINST STATE AND JURISDICTION OF COURTS ABOLISHED. In keeping with the intent of the legislature as set forth in section 1 of this act, all civil actions and civil causes of action against the state for injury or death as a consequence of a criminal act, and all jurisdiction of the courts of the state over such causes, are hereby abolished except as in this chapter provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. RIGHT OF ACTION AGAINST PERPETRATOR. No right of action at law against a person who has committed a criminal act, for damages as a consequence of such act, shall be lost as a consequence of receiving benefits under the provisions of this chapter. In the event any person receiving benefits under this chapter additionally seeks a remedy for damages from the person or persons who have committed the criminal act resulting in damages, then and in that event the department shall be subrogated to and have a lien upon any recovery so made to the extent of the payments made by the department to or on behalf of such person under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. APPLICATIONS FOR BENEFITS. For the purposes of applying for benefits under this chapter, the rights, privileges, responsibilities, duties, limitations and procedures contained in RCW 51.28.020, 51.28.030, 51.28.040 and 51.28.060 as now or hereafter amended shall apply: PROVIDED, That no compensation of any kind shall be available under this chapter if an application for benefits is not received by the department within one hundred eighty days after the date of injury or one hundred twenty days after the date of death of the victim, or the rights of dependents or beneficiaries accrued, if such is the case.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. BENEFITS--RIGHT TO AND AMOUNT. The right to benefits under this chapter and the amount thereof will be governed insofar as is applicable by the provisions contained in chapter 51.32 RCW except as provided in this section:

(1) The provisions contained in RCW 51.32.005, 51.32.015, 51.32.030, 51.32.070, 51.32.073, 51.32.180, 51.32.190 and 51.32.200 as now or hereafter amended are not applicable to this chapter.

(2) Each victim injured as a result of a criminal act, or his family or dependents in case of death of the victim, are entitled to benefits in accordance with this chapter, and the rights, duties, responsibilities, limitations and procedures applicable to a workman as contained in RCW 51.32.010 as now or hereafter amended are applicable to this chapter.

(3) The limitations contained in RCW 51.32.020 as now or hereafter amended are applicable to claims under this chapter. In addition thereto, no person or spouse, child or dependent of such person shall be entitled to benefits under this chapter when the injury for which benefits are sought was the result of consent, provocation or incitement by the victim, was the result of an act or acts committed by a person residing with the victim or who is a spouse, child, parent, or sibling of the victim by the half or whole blood, adoption or marriage, when the person injured sustained his injury as a result of his assisting, attempting, or committing a criminal act, or occurred while the victim was resident in any county or city jail or any state institution maintained and operated by the department of social and health services.

(4) The benefits established upon the death of a workman and contained in RCW 51.32.050 as now or hereafter amended shall be the benefits obtainable under this chapter and provisions relating to payment contained in that section shall equally apply under this chapter: PROVIDED, That in the event of the death of a victim who was not gainfully employed at the time of death, and who was not so employed for at least three of the twelve months immediately preceding injury, benefits payable to an eligible surviving spouse shall be limited to burial expenses as provided in RCW 51.32.050 as now or hereafter amended and a lump sum payment of seven thousand five hundred dollars without reference to children; if no spouse survives, then such burial expenses shall be paid, and each eligible child shall receive a lump sum payment of two thousand five hundred dollars. No other benefits shall be paid or payable under these circumstances.

(5) The benefits established in RCW 51.32.060 as now or hereafter amended for permanent total disability shall be the benefits obtainable under this chapter, and provisions relating to payment contained in that section shall apply under this chapter: PROVIDED, That in the event a victim who is permanently totally disabled was not gainfully employed at the time of his injury, "wages", for the purpose of calculation of benefits, where required, shall be deemed to be the average monthly wage determined pursuant to RCW 51.08.018 as now or hereafter amended.

(6) The benefits established in RCW 51.32.080 as now or hereafter amended for permanent partial disability shall be the benefits obtainable under this chapter, and provisions relating to payment contained in that section shall equally apply under this chapter.

(7) The benefits established in RCW 51.32.090 for temporary total disability shall be the benefits obtainable under this chapter, and provisions relating to payment contained in that section shall apply under this chapter: PROVIDED, That no person shall be eligible for temporary total disability benefits under this chapter unless such person was gainfully employed at the time of his injury.

(8) The benefits established in RCW 51.32.095 as now or hereafter amended for continuation of benefits during vocational rehabilitation shall be benefits obtainable under this chapter, and provisions relating to payment contained in that section shall apply under this chapter.

(9) The provisions for lump sum payment of benefits upon death or permanent total disability as contained in RCW 51.32.130 as now or hereafter amended shall apply under this chapter.

(10) The provisions relating to payment of benefits to, for or on behalf of workmen contained in RCW 51.32.040, 51.32.055, 51.32.100, 51.32.110, 51.32.120, 51.32.135, 51.32.140, 51.32.150, 51.32.160 and 51.32.210 as now or hereafter amended shall be applicable to payment of benefits to, for or on behalf of victims under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. MEDICAL AID. The provisions of chapter 51.36 RCW shall govern the provision of medical aid under this chapter except that:

(1) The provisions contained in RCW 51.36.030 and 51.36.040 as now or hereafter amended shall not apply to this chapter;

(2) The specific provisions of RCW 51.36.020 as now or hereafter amended relating to supplying emergency transportation shall not apply: PROVIDED, That when the injury to any victim is so serious as to require his being taken from the place of injury to a place of treatment, reasonable transportation costs to the nearest place of proper treatment shall be reimbursed from the fund established pursuant to section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. ESTABLISHMENT OF FUNDS. The director shall establish such fund or funds, separate from existing funds, necessary to administer this chapter, and payment to these funds shall be from legislative appropriation, reimbursement and subrogation as provided in this chapter, and from any contributions or grants specifically so directed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. PHYSICIANS' REPORTING. The requirements relating to physicians' reporting contained in RCW 51.36.060 and 51.48.060 as now or hereafter amended shall apply under this chapter. Any funds collected pursuant to RCW 51.48.060 as now or hereafter amended shall be paid into the fund established pursuant to section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. APPEALS. The provisions contained in chapter 51.52 RCW relating to appeals shall govern appeals under this chapter: PROVIDED, That no provision contained in chapter 51.52 RCW concerning employers as parties to any settlement, appeal or other action shall apply to this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That appeals taken from a decision of the board of industrial insurance appeals under this chapter shall be governed by the provisions relating to judicial review of administrative decisions contained in RCW 34.04.130 and 34.04.140 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. REIMBURSEMENT. Any person who has committed a criminal act which resulted in injury compensated under this chapter may be required to make reimbursement to the department as hereinafter provided.

(1) Any payment of benefits to or on behalf of a victim under this chapter creates a debt due and owing to the department by any person found to have committed such criminal act in either a civil or criminal court proceeding in which he is a party: PROVIDED, That where there has been a superior or district court order, or an order of the board of prison terms and paroles or the department of social and health services, as hereinafter provided, the debt shall be limited to the amount provided for in said order. A court order shall prevail over any other order.

(2) Upon being placed on work release pursuant to chapter 72.65 RCW, or upon release from custody of a state correctional facility on parole, any convicted person who owes a debt to the department as a consequence of a criminal act may have the schedule or amount of payments therefor set as a condition of work release or parole by the department of social and health services or board of prison terms and paroles respectively, subject to modification based on change of circumstances. Such action shall be binding on the department.

(3) Any requirement for payment due and owing the department by a convicted person under this chapter may be waived, modified downward or otherwise adjusted by the department in the interest of justice and the rehabilitation of the individual.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. COLLATERAL RESOURCES. Benefits paid pursuant to this chapter shall be reduced by the amount of any other public or private insurance, industrial insurance, or medical health or disability benefits available. Payment by the department under this chapter shall be secondary to such other insurance or benefits, notwithstanding the provision of any contract or coverage to the contrary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. CONFIDENTIALITY. Information contained in the claim files and records of victims, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed confidential and shall not be open to public inspection (other than to public employees in the performance of their official duties), but a representative of a claimant, be it an individual or an organization, may review a claim file or receive specific information therefrom upon the presentation of the signed authorization of the claimant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. All benefits and payments made, and all administrative costs accrued, pursuant to this chapter shall be funded and accounted for separate from the other operations and responsibilities of the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Any person who has been injured as a result of a "criminal act" as herein defined on or after January 1, 1972 up to the effective date of this 1973 act, who would otherwise be eligible for benefits under this 1973 act, may for a period of ninety days from the effective date of this 1973 act, file a claim for benefits with the department on a form provided by the department. The department shall investigate and review such claims, and, within two hundred ten days of the effective date of this 1973 act, shall report to the legislative budget committee and the governor its findings and recommendations as to such claims, along with a statement as to what special legislative relief, if any, the department recommends should be provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. EFFECTIVE DATE. This chapter shall take effect on July 1, 1974.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. REPEALER. Section 1, chapter 72, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 72.66.100 are each hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. NEW CHAPTER. Sections 1 through 18 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 7 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Section captions as used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This bill shall not take effect until the funds necessary for its implementation have been specifically appropriated by the legislature and such appropriation itself has become law. It is the intention of the legislature that if the governor shall veto this section or any item thereof, none of the provisions of this bill shall take effect.

Passed the Senate March 20, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 23, 1973.

CHAPTER 123

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2491]

ADULT PROBATION SERVICES--SPECIAL ADULT SUPERVISION PROGRAMS

AN ACT Relating to adult probation services; authorizing the department of social and health services to make payment of state funds to counties for special adult supervision programs; creating a new chapter in Title 9 RCW; and prescribing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. It is the intention of the legislature in enacting this chapter to increase the protection afforded the citizens of this state, to permit a more even administration of justice in the courts, to rehabilitate adult offenders, and to reduce the necessity for commitment of adults to either state or county institutions for convicted persons by developing, strengthening and improving both public and private resources available in the local communities and counties and the care, treatment and supervision of adults placed in "special adult supervision programs" by the courts of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. From any state moneys made available for such purpose, the state of Washington, through the department of social and health services, shall, in accordance with this chapter, share in the cost of supervising and providing services for persons processed in the courts as nondangerous adults who could otherwise be committed by the superior courts to the custody of the department of social and health services, but who are instead granted probation and placed in "special adult supervision programs".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. AS used in this chapter:

(1) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services.

(2) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(3) "Special adult supervision program" means a program (a) directly operated by the county or (b) provided for by the county by purchase, contract or agreement, or (c) a combination of subsections (a) and (b), which embodies a degree of supervision substantially above or better than the usual, individualized so as to deal with the individual and his family in the context of his total life, or which embodies the use of new techniques in addition to, or instead of, routine supervision techniques or those otherwise or ordinarily available in the applying county, and which meets the standards prescribed pursuant to this chapter. A person may only be placed in a special adult supervision program pursuant to court order. The court is hereby authorized to make such order.

(4) "Deferred prosecution" means a special supervision program, for an individual, ordered for a specified period of time by the court prior to a guilty plea to, or a trial on, a felony charge, pursuant to either:

(a) A written agreement of the prosecuting attorney, defendant, and defense counsel, with concurrence by the court; or

(b) A motion by the prosecuting attorney or defendant, the court being satisfied based upon all appropriate evidence, that a deferred prosecution program for the indicated individual is in the best interests of society and of the individual.

A deferred prosecution program shall provide that at the end of the court ordered specified time, if the defendant has satisfied all the conditions of the program, the charge shall be dismissed; but if the defendant does not meet any of the conditions of the program at any time prior to completion of the specified period, the court may enter an order rescinding the deferred prosecution program and authorizing the prosecution to proceed.

The court is hereby authorized to make such orders as are described in this section.

(5) "County" means one county or two or more counties acting jointly or in combination by agreement.

(6) "Court" means a superior court of the state of Washington for a county or judicial district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of social and health services shall adopt rules prescribing minimum standards for the operation of "special adult supervision programs," including those authorized in section 7 of this act, and such other rules as may be necessary for the administration and implementation of the provisions of this chapter. Such standards shall be sufficiently flexible to foster the development of new and improved supervision or rehabilitative practices. The secretary shall seek advice from appropriate county and local officials as well as concerned and involved private citizens in developing standards and procedures for the content and operation of "special adult supervision programs", but the implementation of all such programs shall first be approved by the secretary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Any county may make application to the department in the manner and form prescribed by the department for financial aid for the cost of "special adult supervision programs". Any such application must include a comprehensive plan or plans developed for providing special adult supervision programs for appropriate persons, and a method of certifying that moneys received are spent only for such "special adult supervision programs".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. No county shall be entitled to receive any state funds provided for the purposes of this chapter until its application is approved, and unless and until the standards prescribed by the department are complied with, and then only on such terms as are set forth in this section.

(1) A base commitment rate for each county and for the state as a whole shall be calculated by the department. The base commitment rate shall be determined by computing the ratio of the number of persons convicted of felonies and committed to state correctional institutions for convicted felons to the number of persons convicted of felonies, such ratio to be expressed as a rate per hundred persons convicted of felonies for each of the calendar years 1966 through 1970: PROVIDED, That deferred prosecution, deferred and suspended sentences pursuant to Chapters 9.95 RCW and 9.92 RCW, as well as other convictions of felonies shall, for purpose of these computations only, be counted as "convictions of felonies". The average of these rates for a county for the five year period, or the average of the last two years of the period, whichever is higher, shall be the base commitment rate, as certified by the secretary: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That a county may elect as its base commitment rate the average of the base commitment rates of all counties in the state over the last two years of the period described in this subsection.

(2) An annual commitment rate shall be calculated by the department at the end of each year for each participating county and for the state as a whole, in a like manner as provided in subsection (1) of this section. In addition, the department shall at the same time determine the number of persons placed in special adult supervision programs in each participating county.

(3) The "commitment reduction number" is the amount obtained by subtracting (a) the product of the most recent annual commitment rate and the number of persons convicted of felonies in the county for the same year, from (b) the product of the base commitment rate and the number of persons convicted of felonies in the county for the same year employed in (a).

(4) Except as provided in this chapter, the amount that may be paid to a county pursuant to this chapter shall not exceed the actual cost of the operation of a special adult supervision program. Reimbursement shall be computed by multiplying the commitment reduction number by actual program cost or four thousand eight hundred dollars, whichever is less; and by adding thereto the product obtained by multiplying (a) the number of persons charged with or convicted of felonies in excess of the commitment reduction number who have been placed in a special adult supervision program, if any, by (b) actual program cost or three thousand dollars, whichever is less: PROVIDED, That reimbursement shall not be authorized when a county exceeds its base commitment rate.

Notwithstanding the limitations set forth in this subsection, there shall be paid to the county on account of each person placed in a deferred prosecution special adult supervision program, one hundred fifteen percent of the amount paid on account of each person placed in a special adult supervision program, but not in a deferred prosecution program.

(5) The secretary shall reimburse a county upon presentation and approval of a valid claim pursuant to the provisions of this chapter based on actual performance in reducing the annual commitment rate from its base commitment rate, and placing appropriate persons in special adult supervision programs. Whenever a claim made by a county pursuant to this chapter, covering a prior year, is found to be in error, an adjustment may be made on a current claim without the necessity of applying the adjustment to the allocation for the prior year.

(6) In the event a participating county earns in a payment period less than one-half of the sum paid in the previous payment period because of extremely unusual circumstances claimed by the county and verified by the secretary, the secretary may pay to the county a sum not to exceed actual program expenditures: PROVIDED, That in subsequent periods the county will be paid only the amount earned.

(7) If the amount received by a county in reimbursement of its expenditures in a calendar year is less than the maximum amount computed under subsection (4) of this section, the difference may be paid to the county as reimbursement of program costs during the next two succeeding years upon receipt of valid claims for reimbursement of program expenses.

(8) Funds received by participating counties pursuant to this chapter shall not be used to replace local funds for existing programs for adults on probation based on either felony or misdemeanor offenses. Such funds may also not be used to develop or build county institutional programs or facilities, except such as qualify pursuant to section 4 of this act.

(9) Any county averaging less than twenty felony commitments annually during either the two year or five year period used to determine the base commitment rate as defined in subsection (1) of this section may:

(a) Apply for subsidies under subsections (1) through (7) of this section; or

(b) As an alternative, elect to receive from the state the salary of one full-time probation officer and related employee benefits; or

(c) Elect to receive from the state the salary and related employee benefits of one full-time additional probation officer, and in addition, reimbursement for certain supporting services other than capital outlay and equipment, the total cost of which will not exceed a maximum limit established by the secretary; or

(d) Elect to receive from the state reimbursement for certain supporting services other than capital outlay and equipment, the total cost of which will not exceed a maximum limit established by the secretary.

(10) In the event a county chooses one of the alternative proposals set forth in subparagraphs (b), (c) or (d) of subsection (9) of this section, it will be eligible for reimbursement only so long as the officer and supporting services are wholly used in the performance of services to provide supervision of persons eligible for state commitment and in special adult supervision programs, and are paid in accordance with a salary schedule adopted by rule of the department, and:

(a) If its base commitment rate is below the state average, its annual commitment rate does not exceed the base commitment rate for the entire state; or

(b) If its base commitment rate is above the state average, its annual commitment rate does not in the year exceed by four its own base commitment rate.

(11) Where any county does not have a probation officer, but obtains such services by agreement with another county or counties, or, where two or more counties by agreement mutually provide special adult supervision program services for such counties, then under such circumstances the secretary may make the computations and payments under this chapter as though the counties served with such services were one geographical unit.

(12) Notwithstanding the limitations imposed by this section, the secretary may make additional reimbursement of not to exceed ten percent of earnings pursuant to sections 1 through 6 of this act to counties operating and providing special adult supervision program services mutually, jointly, or in combination, in accordance with rules and standards adopted by the secretary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In the event a participating county elects to broaden its special adult supervision program to provide services and care for misdemeanor offenders, the county, either itself or acting jointly with another county or city, may receive from any state moneys made available for such purpose an additional reimbursement of program costs not to exceed thirty percent of its earnings pursuant to sections 1 through 6 of this act: PROVIDED, That to receive such additional reimbursement, the county, or combination of counties or county and city, must provide a like sum for the purpose of equally matching the state's payment for misdeemeanant offender special supervision programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The secretary may make pro rata payments to eligible counties for periods of less than one year, but for periods of not less than six months, upon satisfactory demonstration of a reduction in commitments and placement of persons in special adult supervision programs in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the regulations of the department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, for the first twelve month period of a county's participation, the county shall be paid no less than the product obtained by multiplying (a) the number of persons charged with or convicted of felonies who have been placed in a special adult supervision program, by (b) the actual program cost or three thousand dollars, whichever is less.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 9 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The effective date of this act shall be January 1, 1974.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 23, 1973.

[Senate Bill No. 2552]

PUGET SOUND RESERVE ACCOUNT

AN ACT Relating to revenue and taxation; amending section 46.68.100, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 24, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.68.100; amending section 82.36.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 24, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.36.020; and amending section 19, chapter 22, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 82.37.190.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 46.68.100, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 24, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.68.100 are each amended to read as follows:

From the net tax amount in the motor vehicle fund there shall be paid sums as follows:

(1) ((To the cities and towns of the state sums equal to ten and twenty-five hundredths percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues: PROVIDED, That from July 1, 1972 through June 30, 1976)) There shall be paid to the cities and towns of the state sums equal to ten and forty-four hundredths percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues;

(2) ((To the counties of the state sums equal to thirty-two and four hundredths percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues: PROVIDED, That from July 1, 1972 through June 30, 1976)) To the counties of the state there shall be paid sums equal to thirty-two and sixty-one hundredths percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues;

(3) ((To the state to be expended as provided by RCW 46.68.130, sums equal to fifty-six and twenty-eight hundredths percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues: PROVIDED, That from July 1, 1972 through June 30, 1976)) To the state there shall be paid to be expended as provided by RCW 46.68.130, sums equal to fifty-five and five-tenths percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues.

(4) ((To the Puget Sound ferry operations account in the motor vehicle fund sums equal to one and forty-three hundredths percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues: PROVIDED, That from July 1, 1972 through June 30, 1976)) There shall be paid to the Puget Sound ferry operations account sums equal to one and forty-five hundredths percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues.

Nothing in this section or in RCW 46.68.090 or 46.68.130 shall be construed so as to violate any terms or conditions contained in any highway construction bond issues now or hereafter authorized by statute and whose payment is by such statute pledged to be paid from any excise taxes on motor vehicle fuels.

Sec. 2. Section 82.36.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 24, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Every distributor shall pay, in addition to any other taxes provided by law, an excise tax to the director of nine cents for each gallon of motor vehicle fuel sold, distributed, or used by him in the state as well as on each gallon upon which he has assumed liability for payment of the tax under the provisions of RCW 82.36.100: PROVIDED, That under such regulations as the director may prescribe sales or distribution of motor vehicle fuel may be made by one licensed distributor to another licensed distributor free of the tax. In the computation of the tax, one-quarter of one percent of the net gallonage otherwise taxable shall be deducted by the distributor before computing the tax due, on account of the losses sustained through handling. The tax herein imposed shall be collected and paid to the state but once in respect to any motor vehicle fuel. An invoice shall be rendered by a distributor to a purchaser for each distribution of motor vehicle fuel.

The proceeds of the nine cents excise tax collected on the net gallonage after the deduction provided for herein shall be distributed as follows:

(1) ((Seven cents shall be distributed between the state, cities, counties, and Puget Sound ferry operations account in the motor vehicle fund under the provisions of RCW 46.68.090 and 46.68.100 as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That from July 1, 1972 through June 30, 1976;)) Six and seven-eighths cents shall be distributed between the state, cities, counties, and Puget Sound ferry operations account in the motor vehicle fund under the provisions of RCW 46.68.090 and 46.68.100 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) Five-eighths of one cent shall be distributed to the state and expended pursuant to RCW 46.68.150.

(3) Five-eighths of one cent shall be paid into the motor vehicle fund and credited to the urban arterial trust account created by RCW 47.26.080.

(4) ((One-quarter cent shall be paid into the motor vehicle fund and credited to the Puget Sound reserve account created by RCW 47.60.350: PROVIDED, That from July 1, 1972 through June 30, 1976;)) Three-eighths of one cent shall be paid into the motor vehicle fund and credited to the Puget Sound reserve account created by RCW 47.60.350.

(5) One-half cent shall be distributed to the cities and towns directly and allocated between them as provided by RCW 46.68.110, subject to the provisions of RCW 35.76.050: PROVIDED, That the funds allocated to a city or town which are attributable to such one-half cent of the additional tax imposed by this 1961 amendatory act shall be used exclusively for the construction, improvement and repair of arterial highways as that term is defined in RCW 46.04.030, or for the payment of any municipal indebtedness which may be incurred after June 12, 1963 in the construction, improvement and repair of arterial highways as that term is defined in RCW 46.04.030. All such sums shall first be subject to proper deductions for refunds and costs of collection as provided in RCW 46.68.090.

Sec. 3. Section 19, chapter 22, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 82.37.190 are each amended to read as follows:

All moneys collected by the director shall be transmitted forthwith to the state treasurer, together with a statement showing whence the moneys were derived, and shall be by him credited to the motor vehicle fund. A duplicate of such statement shall be sent to the state auditor.

The proceeds of the motor vehicle fuel importer use tax imposed by chapter 82.37 RCW shall be distributed in the manner provided for the distribution of the motor vehicle fuel tax in RCW 82.36.020, as amended in section 2 of ((chapter 83, Laws of 1967 extraordinary session)) this 1973 amendatory act.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1973.

Passed the House April 12, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 23, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 24, 1973.

CHAPTER 126

[Senate Bill No. 2590]

URBAN ARTERIAL TRUST ACCOUNT FUNDS--
PRELIMINARY PROPOSALS--PAYMENT
AUTHORITY

AN ACT Relating to urban arterials; amending section 32, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.260; amending section 25, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 291, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.190; amending section 6, chapter 171, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.450; and adding new sections to chapter 47.26 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 32, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon completion of a preliminary proposal, the county or city submitting said proposal shall submit to the urban arterial board its voucher for payment of the trust account share of the cost. Upon the completion of an approved urban arterial construction project, the county or city constructing the project shall submit to the urban arterial board its voucher for the payment of the trust account share of the cost. The chairman of the urban arterial board or his designated agent shall approve such voucher when proper to do so, for payment from the urban arterial trust account to the county or city submitting the voucher.

(2) The urban arterial board may adopt regulations providing for the approval of payments of funds in the urban arterial trust account to a county or city for costs of preliminary proposal, and costs of construction of an approved project from time to time as work progresses. These payments shall at no time exceed the urban arterial trust account share of the costs of construction incurred to the date of the voucher covering such payment.

Sec. 2. Section 25, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 291, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Once each calendar quarter, the urban arterial board shall apportion funds credited to the urban arterial trust account, including the proceeds from motor vehicle fuel tax revenues, bond sales, anticipatory notes and interfund loans, which are available for the construction and improvement of urban arterials among the five regions defined in RCW 47.26.050 in the manner prescribed in RCW 47.26.060 relating to the apportionment of state urban funds except calculation of needs shall be based upon a projection of needs for the ensuing six year period as determined by the state highway commission.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 171, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.450 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time the urban arterial board reviews the six-year program of each county and city each even-numbered year, it shall consider and shall approve for inclusion in its recommended budget, as required by RCW 47.26.440, the portion of the urban arterial construction program scheduled to be performed during the biennial period beginning the following July 1st. Subject to the appropriations actually approved by the legislature, the board shall as soon as feasible ((finally approve in whole or in part the construction program for each county and city for the expenditure of funds from the urban arterial trust account during the ensuing biennium)) approve urban arterial trust account funds to be spent during the ensuing biennium for preliminary proposals in priority sequence as established pursuant to RCW 47.26.240. The board shall authorize urban arterial trust account funds for the construction project portion of a project previously authorized for a preliminary proposal in the sequence in which the preliminary proposal has been completed and the construction project is to be placed under contract. At such time the board may reserve urban arterial trust account funds for expenditure in future years as may be necessary for completion of preliminary proposals and construction projects to be commenced in the ensuing biennium.

The urban arterial board may, within the constraints of available urban arterial trust funds, consider additional projects for authorization upon a clear and conclusive showing by the submitting local government that the proposed projects is of an emergent nature and that its need was unable to be anticipated at the time the six-year program of the local government was developed. Such proposed projects shall be evaluated on the basis of the priority rating factors specified in RCW 47.26.220.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The term "preliminary proposal" as used in this chapter means the preliminary engineering, right of way appraisal and the data collection, analysis and reporting of the environmental impact of a project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The term "construction project" as used in this chapter shall mean all work and necessities subsequent to the preliminary proposal and through to completion.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 5 and 6 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be added to chapter 47.26 RCW.

Passed the Senate April 8, 1973.

Passed the House April 12, 1973.

INHERITANCE TAX--DEFERRAL REDUCTION-- TRUST CORPUS REDUCTION

AN ACT Relating to taxation; and adding a new section to chapter 83.16 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 83.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When the estate consists of a trust with a life estate in the surviving spouse and a remainder and the surviving spouse has the power to invade the corpus of the trust and where payment of a tax has been deferred on the beneficial interest in a remainder pursuant to RCW 83.16.020, the surviving spouse shall pay tax on the invasion within sixty days of the receipt thereof and shall receive a reduction of the deferred tax and a reduction of the bond or return of security filed to the extent the surviving spouse by exercise of the power to invade the corpus reduces the remainder. The surviving spouse may not file a claim for such reduction with the department more often than once each calendar year. The amount of the reduction shall be determined by applying to the value of the remainder interest at date of death a fraction the numerator of which is the present amount of the reduction of the remainder and denominator of which is the present amount of the remainder.

SNOWMOBILES--DECALS--TAX DISTRIBUTION-- JURISDICTION

AN ACT Relating to snowmobiles; amending section 4, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 20, chapter 153, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.040; amending section 7, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 21, chapter 153, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.070; amending section 8, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 22, chapter 153, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.080; amending section 15, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.150; adding a new section to chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 46.10 RCW; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 4, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 20, chapter 153, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for registration shall be made to the department in such manner and upon such forms as the department shall prescribe, and shall state the name and address of each owner of the snowmobile to be registered, and shall be signed by at least one such owner, and shall be accompanied by a registration fee of five dollars. Upon receipt of the application and the application fee, such snowmobile shall be registered and a registration number assigned, which shall be affixed to the snowmobile in a manner provided in RCW 46.10.070.

The registration provided in this section shall be valid for a period of one year. At the end of such period of registration, every owner of a snowmobile in this state shall renew his registration in such manner as the department shall prescribe, for an additional period of one year, upon payment of a renewal fee of five dollars.

Any person acquiring a snowmobile already validly registered under the provisions of this chapter must, within ten days of the acquisition or purchase of such snowmobile, make application to the department for transfer of such registration, and such application shall be accompanied by a transfer fee of one dollar.

A snowmobile owned by a resident of another state where registration is not required by law may be issued a nonresident registration permit valid for not more than sixty days. Application for such a permit shall state name and address of each owner of the snowmobile to be registered and shall be signed by at least one such owner and shall be accompanied by a registration fee of two dollars. The registration permit shall be carried on the vehicle at all times during its operation in this state.

The registration fees provided in this section shall be in lieu of any personal property or excise tax heretofore imposed on snowmobiles by this state or any political subdivision thereof, and no city, county, or other municipality, and no state agency shall hereafter impose any other registration or license fee on any snowmobile in this state.

The department shall make available a pair of uniform decals consistent with the provisions of RCW 46.10.070 as now or hereafter amended. In addition to the registration fee provided herein the department shall charge each applicant for registration the actual cost of said decal, up to fifty cents per pair of decals. The department shall make available replacement decals for a fee of one dollar and fifty cents per pair.

Sec. 2. Section 7, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 21, chapter 153, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The registration number assigned to each snowmobile shall be permanently affixed to and displayed upon (the right side of the front cowling of said snowmobile on a plate of such size as authorized by the department of motor vehicles) each snowmobile in such manner as provided by rules adopted by the department, and shall be maintained in a legible condition; except dealer number plates as provided for in RCW 46.10.050 may be temporarily affixed.

Sec. 3. Section 8, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 22, chapter 153, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The moneys collected by the department as snowmobile registration fees shall be distributed in the following manner:

(1) Ten percent each year for the first two years after August 9, 1971, and five percent each year for each year thereafter shall be retained by the department to cover expenses incurred in the administration of this chapter.

(2) Twenty-five percent each year shall be distributed to the treasurers of those counties of this state having significant snowmobile use in such sums or upon such a formula as shall be determined by the director after consulting with and obtaining the advice of the Washington state association of counties, and shall be deposited in the county general fund and expended to defray the cost of administering this chapter.

(3) For the first two years after August 9, 1971, fifteen percent each year shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit into the general fund and shall be credited to the commission and shall be expended for snow removal operations at other than developed recreational facilities. Thereafter twenty percent each year shall be so remitted for such purposes; PROVIDED, That the unused portion of the moneys allotted to the commission for snow removal operations at other than developed recreational facilities, as provided for in this section and in section 4 of this 1973 amendatory act, from the registration moneys and the gasoline fuel tax, as of March 1 of the second year of the biennium shall revert to the development and operation fund of the commission.

(4) Fifty percent each year shall be remitted to the state treasurer to be deposited in the general fund, and shall be credited in equal amounts to the commission, the department of natural resources, and the department of game and shall be expended on the development or operation of snowmobile facilities, but not on the acquisition or operation thereof. The commission, the department of natural resources and the department of game shall, not later than March 1st of each year, prepare and submit to the Washington state parks and recreation commission an annual report which shall indicate the purposes for which such amounts were expended.

Sec. 4. Section 15, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.150 are each amended to read as follows:

From time to time, but at least once each biennium, the director shall request the state treasurer to refund from the motor vehicle fund amounts which have been determined to be a tax on snowmobile fuel, and the treasurer shall refund such amounts and place them in the general fund(, and such amounts shall be credited, in equal amounts, to the commission, the department of natural resources, and the department of game, and shall be expended for the development or operation, but not acquisition of snowmobile facilities) twenty-five percent of such amounts shall be credited to the commission and shall be expended by it for snow removal operations at other than developed recreational facilities; seventy-five percent of such amounts shall be credited, in equal amounts, to the commission, department of natural resources, and the department of game, and shall be expended for the development or operation, but not acquisition, of snowmobile facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 46.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

With the exception of the registration and licensing provisions, this chapter shall be administered by the Washington state parks and recreation commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The unused portion of the moneys allotted to the commission for snow removal operations at other than developed recreational facilities as provided for from the registration moneys pursuant to section 3 of this 1973 amendatory act for the current biennium ending June 30, 1973, shall immediately revert to the development and operation fund of the commission, to be expended prior to June 30, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

FEDERAL REVENUE SHARING TRUST FUND

AN ACT Relating to state government; adding a new section to chapter 43.79 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The proceeds from federal revenue sharing shall be deposited in the federal revenue sharing trust fund hereby created in the state treasury and shall be used for purposes as authorized by the legislature and within federal rules and regulations. Interest earnings on said fund shall be determined and distributed in accordance with RCW 43.85.241 as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That the portion deposited into the investment reserve account in accordance with RCW 43.84.090 shall be deposited into the federal revenue sharing trust fund.

In administering the conditions set forth in RCW 43.88.110(2) and 43.88.160, the revenue sharing trust fund shall be treated as a complement to the state's basic general fund.

If any part of this section shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal revenue sharing funds to the state, such conflicting part of this section is declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict: PROVIDED, That all state agencies and each school district shall comply with the provisions of Public Law 92-512, the federal Revenue Sharing Act, and the regulations issued thereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This 1973 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES--BOND
AMORTIZATION--SERVICES, ACTIVITIES FEES APPLICATION

AN ACT Relating to institutions of higher education; amending section 28B.10.300, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.300; amending section 3, chapter 279, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.041; adding a new section to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.10 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 28B.10.300, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of regents of the state universities and the boards of trustees of the state colleges are severally authorized to:

(1) Enter into contracts with persons, firms or corporations for the construction, installation, equipping, repairing, renovating and betterment of buildings and facilities for the following:

- (a) dormitories
- (b) hospitals
- (c) infirmaries
- (d) dining halls
- (e) student activities
- (f) services of every kind for students, including, but not limited to, housing, employment, registration, financial aid, counseling, testing and offices of the dean of students

(g) vehicular parking

(h) student, faculty and employee housing and boarding;

(2) Purchase or lease lands and other appurtenances necessary for the construction and installation of such buildings and facilities and to purchase or lease lands with buildings and facilities constructed or installed thereon suitable for the purposes aforesaid;

(3) Lease to any persons, firms, or corporations such portions of the campus of their respective institutions as may be necessary for the construction and installation of buildings and facilities for the purposes aforesaid and the reasonable use thereof;

(4) Borrow money to pay the cost of the acquisition of such lands and of the construction, installation, equipping, repairing, renovating, and betterment of such buildings and facilities, including interest during construction and other incidental costs, and to issue revenue bonds or other evidence of indebtedness therefor, and to refinance the same before or at maturity and to provide for the amortization of such indebtedness from ((special student)) services and activities fees or from the rentals, fees, charges, and other income derived through the ownership, operation and use of such lands, buildings, and facilities and any other dormitory, hospital, infirmary, dining, student activities, student services, vehicular parking, housing or boarding building or facility at the institution;

(5) Contract to pay as rental or otherwise the cost of the acquisition of such lands and of the construction and installation of such buildings and facilities on the amortization plan; the contract not to run over forty years;

(6) Expend on the amortization plan ((special student)) services and activities fees and/or any part of all of the fees, charges, rentals, and other income derived from any or all revenue-producing lands, buildings, and facilities of their respective institutions, heretofore or hereafter acquired, constructed or installed, including but not limited to income from rooms, dormitories, dining rooms, hospitals, infirmaries, housing or student activity buildings, vehicular parking facilities, land or the appurtenances thereon, and to pledge such ((special student)) services and activities fees and/or the net income derived through the ownership, operation and use of any lands, buildings or facilities of the nature described in subsection (1) hereof for the payment of part or all of the rental, acquisition, construction, and installation, and the betterment, repair, and renovation or other contract charges, bonds or other evidence of indebtedness agreed to be paid on account of the acquisition, construction, installation or rental of, or the betterment, repair or renovation of, lands, buildings, facilities and equipment of the nature authorized by this section.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 279, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.041 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "services and activities fees" as used in this chapter is defined to mean fees, other than general tuition and operating fees, charged to all students registering at the state's colleges and universities. Services and activities fees shall be used as otherwise provided by law or by rule or regulation of the board of trustees or regents of each of the state's colleges or universities for the express purpose of funding student activities and programs of their particular institution. Student activity fees, student use fees, student building use fees, special student fees or other similar fees charged to all full time students, or to all students, as the case may be, registering at the state's colleges or universities and pledged for the payment of bonds heretofore or hereafter issued for, or other indebtedness incurred to pay, all or part of the cost of acquiring, constructing, or installing any lands, buildings, or facilities of the nature described in RCW 28B.10.300 shall be included within and deemed to be services and activities fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All terms, conditions, and covenants, including the pledges of student activity fees, student use fees and student building use fees, special student fees or any similar fees charged to all full time students, or to all students, as the case may be, registering at the state's colleges and universities, contained in all bonds heretofore issued to pay all or part of the cost of acquiring, constructing or installing any lands, buildings, or facilities of the nature described in RCW 28B.10.300 are hereby declared to be lawful and binding in all respects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Post-secondary institutions are strongly encouraged to continue to develop new and innovative programs with faculty and student participation. Implementation of these nontraditional programs should encourage a meaningful individual educational experience, new techniques in instruction, and broader application to institutions of post-secondary education at large. A thorough report of all such programs shall be forwarded to the Legislative Budget Committee, the Interim Committee for Higher Education, the Council on Higher Education, or their successors, and the Governor, prior to any special session of the legislature convening in 1974 and the regular session in 1975.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The council on higher education shall continue its assessment and evaluation of low productivity graduate degree programs at the masters and Ph.D. level, with the requirement that the council submit a report to any session of the Legislature convened in 1974 identifying specific programs which have been eliminated as a result of such evaluation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. General Fund
Appropriation:

The council on higher education may expend up to $40,000 for the purpose of compensating moving costs and salary differentials for faculty members who are transferred among the six senior public institutions of higher education for the purpose of balancing faculty staffing with enrollment levels:
PROVIDED, That any institution whose actual enrollment drops below the budgeted enrollment during 1973-75 shall designate and report excess faculty positions to the council on higher education which in turn will attempt to match these employees with vacancies at the other higher education institutions: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no institution shall be obligated for continuation of the contract of such transferred faculty for more than one year and shall receive the equivalent of that person's salary and fringe benefits paid by the institution from which such person was transferred.....$ 40,000

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Notwithstanding the enrollment levels utilized to establish the amount of funds herein appropriated for the state four year colleges and universities, these schools may enroll 5% in excess of annual budgeted enrollment levels each year of the 1973-75 biennium: PROVIDED, That no state funds shall be used or appropriated to support any enrollments beyond the budgeted levels for 1973-75 provided in this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the staff utilization formula shall be calculated only on the basis of enrollment levels budgeted by this act for any subsequent appropriation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In order to carry out the intent of the Legislature each institution which utilizes funds appropriated in this biennium for salaries of faculty and exempt personnel shall report to the 1975 Legislature the guidelines and criteria on which such funds were disbursed. At the discretion of the institution, the guidelines may or may not include consideration of recognized student evaluation and critiques of said faculty and/or exempt personnel.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The words "institutions of higher education and community colleges" used herein means and includes every institution of higher education granting two year or four year degrees, whether educational, correctional, or other, and division, board and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management with the approval of the governor, may:

(1) Allot all or any portion of the funds herein appropriated or included in this budget, to the institutions of higher education and community colleges for such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve available for subsequent allotment. (a) When necessary to limit total state expenditures to available revenues as required by RCW 43.88.110(2); (b) When the institutions of higher education and community colleges propose the expenditure of a resource not disclosed in the budget request submitted to the Governor and Legislature: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the aggregate of allotments for the institutions of higher education and community colleges shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the institutions of higher education and community colleges. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved allotments or to incur a deficiency and any obligation so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959, shall prevent revision of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues.

(2) Issue rules and regulations to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds.

(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above.

(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1973; for the sole purpose of authorizing the institutions of higher education and community colleges to order goods, supplies, or services for delivery after July 1, 1973: PROVIDED, That no expenditures may be made from the appropriations contained in this act, except as otherwise provided, until after July 1, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Whenever possible, the receipt of federal or other funds which are not anticipated by the governor's budget or in the appropriations enacted by the Legislature shall be used to support regular programs instead of using funds appropriated from state taxes or similar revenue sources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. In the event that receipts shall be less than those estimated in the budget from any source expenditures shall be limited to the amount received and allotments made as provided in section 15. Receipts for purposes of this section shall include amounts realized within one calendar month following the close of a fiscal period and applicable to expenditures of that period. The amount of such payment shall be credited to and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The institutions of higher education and the community colleges are authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency appropriation to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Amounts received by the institutions of higher education and community colleges as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 43.09.210 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor's budget, maximum interagency usage of data processing equipment and services and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. In order to obtain maximum interagency use of aircraft, the Aeronautics Commission, in accordance with RCW 43.09.210 and chapter 39.34 RCW is hereby authorized to lease, purchase or otherwise acquire suitable aircraft which shall be utilized for the purposes of the Aeronautics Commission and also by other state agencies which have a need for an aircraft to carry out agency assigned responsibilities: PROVIDED, That the Aeronautics Commission is further authorized to enter into contractual agreements with other state agencies in order to acquire aircraft, establish rental rates for aircraft under their control, provide pilot services, aircraft maintenance and make such other provisions as necessary to provide aircraft and related services for multi-agency use: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to achieve economy in the use of the appropriations contained within this act the institutions of higher education and the community colleges may not purchase or otherwise acquire an aircraft or enter into a flying service or aircraft rental contract without first seeking such service from the Aeronautics Commission and without prior approval of the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. All contract personal services contracts except those for medical and health care and such other contracts which the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may exempt after consultation with the Legislative Budget Committee shall be filed with the office of program planning and fiscal management and the Legislative Budget Committee prior to obligating any portion of the appropriations approved in this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Within the rules and regulations of the Department of Personnel, as applicable, in the filling of vacant positions and in the filling of new positions of employment in state government, preference shall be given, where necessary, to nonwhite and Mexican-American applicants in order to attain the same minority employment ratio in each agency as obtains in the population of the state at large.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The institutions of higher education and the community colleges are hereby authorized and directed to pay their share of the 1971-73 unemployment compensation costs in accordance with section 19, chapter 3, Laws of 1971, as determined by the Employment Security Department, from their 1973-75 operating appropriations. The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may require the institutions of higher education and the community colleges to place funds in reserve status in order to assure that funds will be available for the purpose of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. It is the intent of the Legislature that to the maximum extent possible, and exclusive of restricted fund activities, the layoff of existing classified staff shall not be in greater proportion than the ratio of classified staff to total employment at the respective institutions as of April 1, 1973. The institutions of higher education may utilize all available revenues and other resources and cost-saving procedures to minimize any adverse impact on institutional programs caused by the reordering of priorities permitted in this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately: PROVIDED, That provisions of this appropriations act shall not take effect until the legislature shall have approved the entire 1973-75 biennial budget for the state of Washington.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.
Passed the House April 12, 1973.
Approved by the Governor April 23, 1973.

(f) The name or names and address or addresses of resident employees or agents to provide service or repairs to vehicles located in the state of Washington only under the terms of any warranty attached to new or unused vehicles manufactured, unless such manufacturer requires warranty service to be performed by all of its dealers pursuant to a current service agreement on file with the department;

(g) Any other information the department may reasonably require.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 74, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.051 are each amended to read as follows:

After the application has been filed ((and)), the fee paid, and bond posted, if required the department shall, if no denial order is in effect and no proceeding is pending under RCW 46.70.180 or 46.70.200, issue the appropriate license, which license, in the case of a vehicle dealer, shall designate the classification of the dealer: PROVIDED, That nothing shall prohibit a vehicle dealer from obtaining licenses for more than one classification, and: PROVIDED

FURTHER, That nothing shall prevent any vehicle dealer from dealing in other classes of vehicles on an isolated basis.

Sec. 7. Section 13, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.061 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((For motor vehicle dealers, the fee as provided in RCW 46.70.060;

{2} For dealers plates, three dollars per set for each additional set over one;

{3} For location change by a motor vehicle dealer within the same county, five dollars. A change to another county shall require a new license;

{4} For each motor vehicle salesman, ten dollars per year and ten dollars for each year for renewal thereof;

{5} For transfer of a motor vehicle salesman from one motor vehicle dealer to another motor vehicle dealer, transfer fee of five dollars;))

The fees for original licenses issued for a calendar year or any portion thereof pursuant to this chapter shall be:

(a) Vehicle dealers, principal place of business for each and every license classification: Fifty dollars;

(b) Vehicle dealers, each and every subagency: Ten dollars;

(c) Vehicle salesman: Ten dollars;

(d) Vehicle manufacturers: Fifty dollars.

(2) The fee for renewal of any license issued pursuant to this chapter shall be:

(a) Vehicle dealers, principal place of business for each and every license classification: Twenty-five dollars;

(b) Vehicle dealer, each and every subagency: Ten dollars;

(c) Vehicle salesman: Ten dollars;

(d) Vehicle manufacturers: Twenty-five dollars.

PROVIDED, That if any licensee shall fail or neglect to apply for such renewal prior to February 1st in each year, his license shall be declared cancelled by the director, in which case the licensee will be required to apply for an original license and pay the fee required for such original license.

(3) The fee for the transfer to another location of any license issued pursuant to this chapter shall be:

(a) Vehicle dealer, principal place of business of each and every license classification, provided that such change is within the same county: Ten dollars;

(b) There shall be no transfer of any vehicle dealer subagency license;

(c) Vehicle salesman, provided that no such fee shall be required in a transfer from one location of any one dealer to any other location: Five dollars.

(4) The fee for vehicle dealer license plates and manufacturer license plates shall be the amount required by law for vehicle license plates exclusive of excise tax, except those specified in RCW 82.44.030, and gross weight and tonnage fees; PROVIDED, That the fee for an original vehicle dealer's license or any renewal thereof shall include one set, or one plate, dependent upon the license classification of the dealer, of vehicle dealer license plates for each classification of the dealer.

PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the maximum number of sets of vehicle dealer plates the department may issue to a dealer shall not exceed the greater of ten sets or a figure which represents four percent of the dealer's total vehicle sales for the previous year, except that the department may issue what it determines to be a reasonable number of sets in those cases where the dealer has not been previously licensed or where he can satisfy the department that the previous year's sale[s] were unnaturally low for reasons beyond his control; PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the department may, in its discretion, issue a reasonable number of additional plates in those cases where a dealer sells motor homes, mobile homes or travel trailers; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no dealer who sold less than twenty passenger cars and/or pickup trucks during the previous year shall be entitled to receive any additional sets, unless he can satisfy the department that additional sets are necessary for the purposes indicated in RCW 46.70.090, excepting subsections (2) (b) and (4) (b).

((6*)) (5) All fees collected under this chapter shall be turned into the state treasury and credited to the motor vehicle fund.

(6) The fees prescribed herein shall be in addition to any excise taxes imposed by chapter 82.44 RCW.

Sec. 8. Section 46.70.070, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 74, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before issuing a vehicle dealer's license, the department shall require the applicant to file with said department a surety bond in the amount of:

((4*)) (a) Ten thousand dollars for ((new and used)) motor vehicle((s)) dealers;

((2) Ten thousand dollars for used motor vehicles;

{3} Ten thousand dollars for the sale of trailers valued at more than two thousand dollars;))

(b) Twenty thousand dollars for mobile home and travel trailer dealers; PROVIDED, That if such dealer does not deal in mobile homes such bond shall be ten thousand dollars;

((4*)) (c) Five thousand dollars for ((the sale of trailers valued at two thousand dollars or less, and motorcycles;))

running to the state, and executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the state. Such bond shall be approved by the attorney general as to form and conditioned that the dealer shall conduct his business in conformity with the provisions of this chapter. Any retail purchaser who shall have suffered any loss or damage by reason of breach of warranty or by any act by a dealer which constitutes a violation of this chapter shall have the right to institute an action for recovery against such dealer and the surety upon such bond. Successive recoveries against said bond shall be permitted but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall in no event exceed the amount of the bond. Upon exhaustion of the penalty of said bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety the vehicle dealer license shall ((be)) automatically ((revoked)) be deemed canceled.

(2) The bond for any vehicle dealer licensed or to be licensed under more than one classification shall be the highest bond required for any such classification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 46.70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Before issuing a manufacturer license to a manufacturer of mobile homes or travel trailers, the department shall require the applicant to file with said department a surety bond in the amount of twenty thousand dollars in the case of a mobile home manufacturer and ten thousand dollars in the case of a travel trailer manufacturer running to the state, and executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the state. Such bond shall be approved by the attorney general as to form and conditioned that the manufacturer shall conduct his business in conformity with the provisions of this chapter and with all standards set by the state of Washington or the federal government pertaining to the construction or safety of such vehicles. Any retail purchaser or vehicle dealer who shall have suffered any loss or damage by reason of breach of warranty or by any act by a manufacturer which constitutes a violation of this chapter or a violation of any standards set by the state of Washington or the federal government pertaining to construction or safety of such vehicles shall have the right to institute an action for recovery against such manufacturer and the surety upon such bond. Successive recoveries against said bond shall be permitted but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall in no event exceed the amount of the bond. Upon exhaustion of the penalty of said bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety the manufacturer license shall be automatically be deemed canceled.

Sec. 10. Section 8, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.081 are each amended to read as follows:

((The license issued to each motor vehicle dealer shall specify the location of the dealership, place of business or office of the agency. In case such location is changed the department shall be notified within ten days. Any change to another county shall require a new licenser.

A motor vehicle dealer maintaining one or more places of business shall be required to obtain and hold a current license for each place of business, including a branch or subagency: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That only one license shall be required for all places of business doing business under the same name within a single county.))

Every vehicle dealer shall advise the department of the location of each and every place of business of the firm and the name or names under which the firm is doing business at such location or locations. In the event that any name or location is changed, the dealer shall notify the department of such change within ten days. The license issued by the department shall reflect the name and location of the firm and shall be posted in a conspicuous place at that location by the dealer.

If a dealer does business in more than one county, separate licenses shall be required for each county.

If a dealer maintains a place of business at more than one location or under more than one name in any one county, he shall designate one location as the principal place of business of the firm, one name as the principal name of the firm, and all other locations or names as subagencies. A subagency license shall be required for each and every subagency.

A ((motor)) vehicle dealer's license shall upon the death, or incapacity of an individual ((motor)) vehicle dealer authorize the personal representative of such dealer, subject to payment of license fees, to continue the business for a period of six months from the date of said death or incapacity.

Sec. 11. Section 9, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 74, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.082 are each amended to read as follows:

The license issued to the ((motor)) vehicle salesman shall be sent to the salesman by the department and shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the premises of the dealer by whom the salesman is employed during the period of the salesman's employment.

When a salesman begins or terminates a connection with a ((motor)) vehicle dealer, the salesman and dealer shall promptly notify the department, in writing, in the form prescribed by the department. In addition to other information required by the department, the ((motor)) vehicle dealer with whom the salesman is beginning a connection shall certify that he has examined the background of the salesman and, to the best of his knowledge, the salesman is of good moral character.

Sec. 12. Section 10, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 74, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.083 are each amended to read as follows:

((Registration of a motor)) The license of a vehicle dealer or a vehicle manufacturer shall be effective until December 31 and may be renewed by filing with the department prior to the expiration thereof an application containing such information as the ((director)) department may require to indicate any material change in the information contained in the original application.

Registration of a ((motor)) vehicle salesman shall be effective until June 30 and may be renewed by filing with the department prior to the expiration thereof an application containing such information as the department may require to indicate any material change in the information contained in the original application.

Sec. 13. Section 46.70.090, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 7, chapter 74, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.090 are each amended to read as follows:

((Dealer license plates shall be used only under the following conditions:

{1} To demonstrate an automobile for sale provided that {a} a dated demonstration permit or purchase order identifying the sale or the potential sale is carried in the vehicle and {b} once the sale is completed the dealer will register and title the vehicle in question no later than the finish of the second business day;

{2} On vehicles assigned permanently to officers of the corporation; partnership or proprietorship; and to the bona fide full time employees of the dealer: PROVIDED, That the department of motor vehicles shall from time to time inspect the records of every licensed dealer to determine that the above conditions have been met;

{3} On vehicles being tested for repair;

{4} On vehicles being transported for resale;

Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall be cause for the suspension or revocation of the dealer license. Dealer license plates shall not be used upon any vehicle for the transportation of any person, produce, freight or commodities, except there shall be permitted the use of such dealer license plates on a vehicle transporting commodities in course of demonstration over a period not to exceed seventy-two consecutive hours from the commencement of such demonstration, if a representative of the dealer is present and accompanies such vehicle during the course of the demonstration: PROVIDED, That nothing herein shall be interpreted in such manner as to prevent a dealer from moving, by vehicle bearing a dealer license plate, another vehicle or vehicles upon which the said dealer might have used his dealer license plate: PROVIDED FURTHER, That transportation of dealer's own tools; parts and equipment; in a vehicle bearing a dealer license plate; to a total net weight not to exceed five hundred pounds shall not be considered a violation of the use of said dealer license.)

(1) The department shall issue vehicle dealer license plates, which are capable of distinguishing the classification of the dealer, to vehicle dealers properly licensed pursuant to this chapter and shall, upon application, issue manufacturer's license plates to manufacturers properly licensed pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Motor vehicle dealer license plates may be used:

(a) To demonstrate motor vehicles held for sale when operated by an individual holding a valid operator's license, provided that a dated demonstration permit, valid for no more than seventy-two hours, is carried in the vehicle at all times it is operated by any such individual.

(b) On motor vehicles owned, held for sale and which are in fact available for sale by the firm when operated by an officer of the corporation, partnership, or proprietorship or by a bona fide full time employee of the firm, provided that a card so identifying any such individual is carried in the vehicle at all times it is operated by him. Any such vehicle so operated may be used to transport the dealer's own tools, parts and equipment to a total weight not to exceed five hundred pounds.

(c) On motor vehicles being tested for repair.

(d) On motor vehicles being moved to or from a motor vehicle dealer's place of business for sale.

(e) On motor vehicles being moved to or from motor vehicle service and repair facilities before sale.

(f) On motor vehicles being moved to or from motor vehicle exhibitions within the state of Washington, provided that any such exhibition does not exceed a period of twenty days.

(3) Mobile home and travel trailer dealer license plates may be used:

(a) On units hauled to or from the place of business of the manufacturer and the place of business of the dealer or to and from places of business of the dealer.

(b) On mobile homes hauled to a customer's location for set-up after sale.

(c) On travel trailers held for sale to demonstrate the towing capability of the vehicle provided that a dated demonstration permit, valid for not more than seventy-two hours, is carried with the vehicle at all times.

(d) On mobile homes being hauled from a customer's location provided that the requirements of RCW 46.16.105 and 46.16.106 are met.

(e) On any motor vehicle owned by the dealer which is used only to move vehicles legally bearing mobile home and travel trailer dealer license plates of the dealer so owning any such motor vehicle.

(f) On vehicles being moved to or from vehicle exhibitions within the state of Washington, provided that any such exhibition does not exceed a period of twenty days.

(4) Miscellaneous vehicle dealer license plates may be used:

(a) To demonstrate any miscellaneous vehicle: PROVIDED, That:

(i) No such vehicle shall be demonstrated on a public highway unless the customer has an appropriate endorsement on his driver's license, if such endorsement is required to operate such vehicle; and

(ii) A dated demonstration permit, valid for no more than seventy-two hours, is carried with the vehicle at all times it is operated by any such individual.

(b) On vehicles owned, held for sale and which are, in fact, available for sale, by the firm when operated by an officer of the corporation, partnership or proprietorship or by a bona fide full time employee of the firm, provided that a card so identifying such individual is carried in the vehicle at all times it is operated by him.

(c) On vehicles being tested for repair.

(d) On vehicles being transported to or from the place of business of the manufacturer and the place of business of the dealer or to and from places of business of the dealer.

(e) On vehicles on which any other item sold or to be sold by the dealer is transported from the place of business of the manufacturer to the place of business of the dealer or to and from places of business of the dealer: PROVIDED, That such vehicle and such item are purchased or sold as one package.

(5) Manufacturers properly licensed pursuant to this chapter may apply for and obtain manufacturer license plates and may be used:

Sec. 15. Section 46.70.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.70.120 are each amended to read as follows:

A dealer shall complete and maintain for a period of at least five years a record of the purchase and sale of all ((motor)) vehicles ((; motorcycles or trailers;)) purchased or sold by him ((and which have been previously licensed in this or another state;)) which records shall consist of:

- (1) The license and title numbers of the state in which the last license was issued;
- (2) A description of the vehicle; and
- (3) The name and address of person from whom purchased; and
- (4) The name of legal owner, if any; and
- (5) The name and address of purchaser; and
- (6) Any additional information the department may require.

Such record shall be maintained separate and apart from all other business records of the dealer and shall at all times be available for inspection by the director or his duly authorized ((member of the state patrol)) agent.

Before the execution of a contract or chattel mortgage or the consummation of the sale of any ((motor)) vehicle, the seller must furnish the buyer an itemization in writing signed by the seller separately disclosing to the buyer the finance charge, insurance costs, taxes, and other charges which are paid or to be paid by the buyer.

Sec. 17. Section 46.70.140, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 8, chapter 74, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW

46.70.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Any vehicle dealer who shall knowingly or with reason to know, buy or receive, sell or dispose of, conceal or have in his possession, any ((motor)) vehicle((; trailer; or motoreycle)) from which the motor or serial number has been removed, defaced, covered, altered, or destroyed, or any dealer, who shall remove from or install in any motor vehicle a new or used motor block without immediately notifying the department of such fact upon a form provided by the department, or any ((motor)) vehicle dealer who shall loan or permit the use of vehicle dealer license plates by any person not entitled to the use thereof, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 18. Section 16, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 112, Laws of 1969 and RCW 46.70.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Each of the following acts or practices is hereby declared unlawful:

(1) To cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, broadcasted, televised, or disseminated in any manner whatsoever, any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a ((motor)) vehicle which is false, deceptive or misleading, including but not limited to the following:

(a) That no down payment is required in connection with the sale of a ((motor)) vehicle when a down payment is in fact required, or that a ((motor)) vehicle may be purchased for less down payment than is actually required;

(b) That a certain percentage of the sale price of a ((motor)) vehicle may be financed when such financing is not offered in a single document evidencing the entire security transaction;

(c) That a certain percentage is the amount of the service charge to be charged for financing, without stating whether this percentage charge is a monthly amount or an amount to be charged per year;

(d) That a new ((motor)) vehicle will be sold for a certain amount above or below cost without computing cost as the exact amount of the factory invoice on the specific ((motor)) vehicle to be sold;

(e) That a ((motor)) vehicle will be sold upon a monthly payment of a certain amount, without including in the statement the number of payments of that same amount which are required to liquidate the unpaid purchase price.

(2) To incorporate within the terms of any purchase and sale agreement any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a ((motor)) vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to terms that include as an added cost to the selling price of a ((motor)) vehicle an amount for licensing or transfer of title of that vehicle which is not actually due to the state, unless such amount has in fact been paid by the dealer prior to such sale.

(3) To set up, promote, or aid in the promotion of a plan by which ((motor)) vehicles are to be sold to a person for a consideration and upon further consideration that the purchaser agrees to secure one or more persons to participate in the plan by respectively making a similar purchase and in turn agreeing to secure one or more persons likewise to join in said plan, each purchaser being given the right to secure money, credits, goods or something of value, depending upon the number of persons joining the plan.

(4) To commit, allow, or ratify any act of "bushing" which is defined as follows: Taking from a prospective buyer of a ((motor)) vehicle a written order or offer to purchase, or a contract document signed by the buyer, which:

(a) Is subject to the dealer's, or his authorized representative's future acceptance, and the dealer fails or refuses within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, and prior to any further negotiations with said buyer, to deliver to the buyer either the dealer's signed acceptance or all copies of the order, offer or contract document together with any initial payment or security made or given by the buyer, including but not limited to money, check, promissory note, vehicle keys, a trade-in or certificate of title to a trade-in; or

(b) Permits the dealer to renegotiate a dollar amount specified as trade-in allowance on a ((motor)) vehicle, delivered or to be delivered by the buyer as part of the purchase price, because of depreciation, obsolescence, or any other reason except substantial and latent mechanical defect that could not have been reasonably discovered at the time of the taking of said order, offer or contract: PROVIDED, That said physical damage or mechanical defect shall have occurred before the dealer took possession of the vehicle; or

(c) Fails to comply with the obligation of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer requiring the furnishing of services or repairs.

(5) To commit any offense relating to odometers, as such offenses are defined in RCW 46.37.540, 46.37.550, 46.37.560 and 46.37.570;

(6) For any ((motor)) vehicle dealer or ((motor)) vehicle salesman to refuse to furnish, upon request of a prospective purchaser, the name and address of the previous registered owner of any used ((car)) vehicle offered for sale.

(7) Being a manufacturer(, distributor, or factory representative or branch) to:

(a) Coerce or attempt to coerce any ((motor)) vehicle dealer to order or accept delivery of any ((motor)) vehicle or vehicles, parts or accessories, or any other commodities which shall not have been voluntarily ordered by the said ((motor)) vehicle dealer: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument shall not be deemed to constitute coercion;

(b) Cancel, or, fail to renew the franchise or selling agreement of any ((motor)) vehicle dealer doing business in this state without fairly compensating the dealer at a fair going business value for his capital investment which shall include but not be limited to tools, equipment, and parts inventory, possessed by the dealer on the day he is notified of such cancellation or termination and which are still within the dealer's possession on the day the cancellation or termination is effective, if: (1) The capital investment shall have been entered into with reasonable and prudent business judgment for the purpose of fulfilling the franchise; and (2) Said cancellation or nonrenewal was not done in good faith. Good faith shall be defined as the duty of each party to any franchise to act in a fair and equitable manner towards each other, so as to guarantee one party freedom from coercion, intimidation, or threats of coercion or intimidation from the other party: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging or argument shall not be deemed to constitute a lack of good faith.

(c) Encourage, aid, abet or teach a ((motor)) vehicle dealer to sell ((motor)) vehicles through any false, deceptive or misleading sales or financing practices including but not limited to those practices declared unlawful in this section;

(d) Coerce or attempt to coerce a ((motor)) vehicle dealer to engage in any practice forbidden in this section by either threats of actual cancellation or failure to renew the dealer's franchise agreement;

(e) Refuse to deliver any ((motor)) vehicle publicly advertised for immediate delivery to any duly licensed ((motor)) vehicle dealer having a franchise or contractual agreement for the retail sale of new and unused ((motor)) vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer (, distributor, or factory representative or branch) within sixty days after such dealer's order shall have been received in writing unless caused by inability to deliver because of shortage or curtailment of material, labor, transportation or utility services, or to any labor or production difficulty, or to any cause beyond the reasonable control of the manufacturer.

(f) To provide under the terms of any warranty that a purchaser of any new or unused vehicle that has been sold, distributed for sale, or transferred into this state for resale by the vehicle manufacturer that any warranty claim on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle may only be made against the manufacturer of that item.

(8) Nothing in this section shall be construed to impair the obligations of a contract or to prevent a manufacturer, distributor, representative or any other person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, from requiring performance of a written contract entered into with any licensee hereunder, nor shall the requirement of such performance constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this section: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, Any such contract, or the terms thereof, requiring performance, shall have been theretofore freely entered into and executed between the contracting parties.

Sec. 19. Section 21, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who is injured in his business or property by a violation of this chapter, or any person so injured because he refuses to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter, may bring a civil action in the superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him together with the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Any person recovering judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice against a manufacturer (~~(7 distributor or factory representative or branch)~~) pursuant to (~~(REW 46.70.180(5) (b))~~) section 18(7)(b) of this 1973 amendatory act and this section shall, upon full payment of said judgment, or upon the dismissal of such claim, execute a waiver in favor of the judgment debtor or defendant of any claim arising prior to the date of said judgment or dismissal under the Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act, 15 United States Code Sections 1221-1225. Any person having recovered full payment for any judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice under said Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act shall have no cause of action under this section for alleged violation of (~~(REW 46.70.180(5) (b))~~) section 18(7)(b) of this 1973 amendatory act, with respect to matters arising prior to the date of said judgment.

A civil action brought in the superior court pursuant to the provisions of this section must be filed no later than one year following the alleged violation of this chapter.

Sec. 20. Section 2, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.900 are each amended to read as follows:

All provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed to the end that deceptive practices or commission of fraud or misrepresentation in the sale, barter, or disposition of (~~(motor)~~) vehicles in this state may be prohibited and prevented, and irresponsible, unreliable, or dishonest persons may be prevented from engaging in the business of selling, bartering, or otherwise dealing in ((motor)) vehicles in this state and reliable persons may be encouraged to engage in the business of selling, bartering and otherwise dealing in ((motor)) vehicles in this state: PROVIDED, That this chapter shall not apply to printers, publishers, or broadcasters who in good faith print, publish or broadcast material without knowledge of its deceptive character.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 46.70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this 1973 amendatory act and the applicability thereof to persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 22. Section 46.16.020, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 14, chapter 32, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any vehicle owned, rented or leased by the state of Washington, or by any county, city, town, school district or other political subdivision of the state of Washington and used exclusively by them, and all vehicles owned or leased with an option to purchase by the United States government, or by the government of foreign countries, or by international bodies to which the United States government is a signatory by treaty, and used exclusively in its or their service shall be exempt from the payment of license fees for the licensing thereof as in this chapter provided: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such vehicles, except those owned and used exclusively by the United States government and which are identified by clearly exhibited registration numbers or license plates assigned by an instrumentality of that government, shall be registered as prescribed for the license registration of other vehicles and shall display upon the vehicles the vehicle license number plates assigned by the director and except in cases of a foreign government or international body shall pay for such number plates a fee of one dollar: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no vehicle license or license number plates shall be issued to any such vehicle under the provisions of this section for the transportation of school children unless and until such vehicle shall have been first personally inspected by the director or his duly authorized representative.

(1) The department in its discretion may grant a temporary permit to operate a vehicle for which application for registration has been made, where such application is accompanied by the proper fee pending action upon said application by the department.

(2) The department may authorize vehicle dealers properly licensed pursuant to chapter 46.70 RCW to issue temporary permits to operate vehicles under such rules and regulations as the department deems appropriate.

(3) The fee for each temporary permit application distributed to an authorized vehicle dealer shall be five dollars which shall be credited to the payment of registration fees at the time application for registration is made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of the amendatory act and the applicability thereof to persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 46.70.060, chapter 12, Laws of 1961, section 77, chapter 32, Laws of 1967, section 26, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. section 3, chapter 74, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 5, chapter 99, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.060; and

(2) Section 29, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 9, chapter 74, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.280.

Passed the Senate March 30, 1973.

STATE CIVIL SERVICE-- EXEMPT POSITIONS

AN ACT Relating to the state civil service law; amending section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.06.070.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.06.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter do not apply to:

(1) The members of the legislature or to any employee of, or position in, the legislative branch of the state government including members, officers, and employees of the legislative council, legislative budget committee, statute law committee, and any interim committee of the legislature;

(2) The justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, judges of the superior courts or of the inferior courts, or to any employee of, or position in the judicial branch of state government;

(3) Officers, academic personnel, and employees of state institutions of higher education, the state board for community college education, and the higher education personnel board;

(4) The officers of the Washington state patrol;

(5) Elective officers of the state;

(6) The chief executive officer of each agency;

(7) In the departments of employment security, fisheries, social and health services, the director and his confidential secretary; in all other departments, the executive head of which is an individual appointed by the governor, the director, his confidential secretary, and his statutory assistant directors;

(8) In the case of a multimember board, commission, or committee, whether the members thereof are elected, appointed by the governor or other authority, serve ex officio, or are otherwise chosen:

(a) All members of such boards, commissions, or committees;

(b) If the members of the board, commission, or committee serve on a part time basis and there is a statutory executive officer: (i) The secretary of the board, commission, or committee; (ii) the chief executive officer of the board, commission, or committee; and (iii) the confidential secretary of the chief executive officer of the board, commission, or committee;

(c) If the members of the board, commission, or committee serve on a full time basis: (i) The chief executive officer or administrative officer as designated by the board, commission, or committee; and (ii) a confidential secretary to the chairman of the board, commission, or committee;

(d) If all members of the board, commission, or committee serve ex officio: (i) The chief executive officer; and (ii) the confidential secretary of such chief executive officer;

(9) The confidential secretaries and administrative assistants in the immediate offices of the elective officers of the state;

(10) Assistant attorneys general;

(11) Commissioned and enlisted personnel in the military service of the state;

(12) Inmate, student, part time, or temporary employees, and part time professional consultants, as defined by the state personnel board or the board having jurisdiction;

(13) The public printer or to any employees of or positions in the state printing plant;

(14) Officers and employees of the Washington state fruit commission;

(15) Officers and employees of the Washington state apple advertising commission;

(16) Officers and employees of the Washington state dairy products commission;

(17) Officers and employees of any commission formed under the provisions of chapter 191, Laws of 1955, and chapter 15.66 RCW;

(18) Officers and employees of the state wheat commission formed under the provisions of chapter 87, Laws of 1961 (chapter 15.63 RCW);

(19) Officers and employees of agricultural commissions formed under the provisions of chapter 256, Laws of 1961 (chapter 15.65 RCW);

(20) Liquor vendors appointed by the Washington state liquor control board pursuant to RCW 66.08.050: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That rules and regulations adopted by the state personnel board pursuant to RCW 41.06.150 regarding the basis for, and procedures to be followed for, the dismissal, suspension, or demotion of an employee, and appeals therefrom shall be fully applicable to liquor vendors except those part time agency vendors employed by the liquor control board when, in addition to the sale of liquor for the state, they sell goods, wares, merchandise, or services as a self-sustaining private retail business((†));

(21) Executive assistants for personnel administration and labor relations in all state agencies employing such executive assistants including but not limited to all departments, offices, commissions, committees, boards, or other bodies subject to the provisions of this chapter and this subsection shall prevail over any provision of law inconsistent herewith unless specific exception is made in such law;

(22) In addition to the exemptions specifically provided by this chapter, the state personnel board may provide for further exemptions pursuant to the following procedures. The governor or other appropriate elected official may submit requests for exemption to the personnel board stating the reasons for requesting such exemptions. The personnel board shall hold a public hearing, after proper notice, on requests submitted pursuant to this subsection. If the board determines that the position for which exemption is requested is one involving substantial responsibility for the formulation of basic agency or executive policy or one involving directing and controlling program operations of an agency or a major administrative division thereof, the personnel board shall grant the request and such determination shall be final. The total number of additional exemptions permitted under this subsection shall not exceed one hundred seventy-five for those agencies not directly under the authority of any elected public official other than the governor, and shall not exceed a total of twenty-five for all agencies under the authority of elected public officials other than the governor. The state personnel board shall report to each regular session of the legislature all exemptions granted pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, together with the reasons for such exemptions.

The salary and fringe benefits of all positions presently or hereafter exempted except for the chief executive officer of each agency, full-time members of boards and commissions, administrative assistants and confidential secretaries in the immediate office of an elected state official, and the personnel listed in subsections (10) through (19) of this section, shall be determined by the state personnel board.

Any person holding a classified position subject to the provisions of this chapter shall, when and if such position is subsequently exempted from the application of this chapter, be afforded the following rights:

If such person previously held permanent status in another classified position, such person shall have a right of reversion to the highest class of position previously held, or to a position of similar nature and salary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall receive or expend no federal funds in excess of those approved in this act unless an equal amount of state dollars are placed in reserve status to be expended only with the approval of the Legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The words "superintendent of public instruction" used herein means and includes every institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and division, board and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management with the approval of the governor, may:

- (1) Allot all of any portion of the funds herein appropriated or included in this budget, to the superintendent for such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve available for subsequent allotment. (a) When necessary to limit total state expenditures to available revenues as required by RCW 43.88.110(2); (b) When the superintendent proposes the expenditure of a resource not disclosed in the budget request submitted to the Governor and Legislature: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the aggregate of allotments for the superintendent shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the superintendent. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved allotments or to incur a deficiency and any obligation so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959, shall prevent revision of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues.

(2) Issue rules and regulations to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds.

(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above.

(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1973; for the sole purpose of authorizing the superintendent to order goods, supplies, or services for delivery after July 1, 1973: PROVIDED, That no expenditures may be made from the appropriations contained in this act, except as otherwise provided, until after July 1, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Whenever possible, the receipt of federal or other funds which are not anticipated by the governor's budget or in the appropriations enacted by the Legislature shall be used to support regular programs instead of using funds appropriated from state taxes or similar revenue sources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In the event that receipts shall be less than those estimated in the budget from any source expenditures shall be limited to the amount received and allotments made as provided in section 5. Receipts for purposes of this section shall include amounts realized within one calendar month following the close of a fiscal period and applicable to expenditures of that period. The amount of such payment shall be credited to and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The superintendent is authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency appropriation to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Amounts received by the superintendent as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 43.09.210 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor's budget, maximum interagency usage of data processing equipment and services and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In order to obtain maximum interagency use of aircraft, the Aeronautics Commission, in accordance with RCW 43.09.210 and chapter 39.34 RCW is hereby authorized to lease, purchase or otherwise acquire suitable aircraft which shall be utilized for the purposes of the Aeronautics Commission and also by other state agencies which have a need for an aircraft to carry out agency assigned responsibilities: PROVIDED, That the Aeronautics Commission is further authorized to enter into contractual agreements with other state agencies in order to acquire aircraft, establish rental rates for aircraft under their control, provide pilot services, aircraft maintenance and make such other provisions as necessary to provide aircraft and related services for multi-agency use: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to achieve economy in the use of the appropriations contained within this act the superintendent may not purchase or otherwise acquire an aircraft or enter into a flying service or aircraft rental contract without first seeking such service from the Aeronautics Commission and without prior approval of the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. All contract personal services contracts except those for medical and health care and such other contracts which the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may exempt after consultation with the Legislative Budget Committee shall be filed with the office of program planning and fiscal management and the Legislative Budget Committee prior to obligating any portion of the appropriations approved in this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Within the rules and regulations of the Department of Personnel, as applicable, in the filling of vacant positions and in the filling of new positions of employment in state government, preference shall be given, where necessary, to nonwhite and Mexican-American applicants in order to attain the same minority employment ratio in each agency as obtains in the population of the state at large.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The superintendent is hereby authorized and directed to pay his share of the 1971-73 unemployment compensation costs in accordance with section 19, chapter 3, Laws of 1971, as determined by the Employment Security Department, from their 1973-75 operating appropriations. The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may require the superintendent to place funds in reserve status in order to assure that funds will be available for the purpose of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately: PROVIDED, That provisions of this appropriations act shall not take effect until the legislature shall have approved the entire 1973-75 biennial budget for the state of Washington.

[Senate Bill No. 2805]
COLLEGES, UNIVERSITIES--CAPITAL
CONSTRUCTION BONDS

AN ACT Relating to the institutions of higher education; providing for the acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing and equipping of state buildings and facilities for said institutions of higher education; providing for the financing thereof by the issuance of bonds; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. For the purpose of providing needed capital improvements consisting of the acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing and equipping of state buildings and facilities for the institutions of higher education, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of thirty-four million three hundred thousand dollars or so much thereof as shall be required to finance the capital projects relating to the institutions of higher education as set forth in the capital appropriations act, chapter ... (S.B. No. 2105), Laws of 1973, to be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the Constitution of the state of Washington.

The state finance committee is authorized to prescribe the form of such bonds, and the time of sale of all or any portion or portions of such bonds, and the conditions of sale and issuance thereof.

The bonds shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest when due. The committee may provide that the bonds, or any of them, may be called prior to the due date thereof under such terms and conditions as it may determine. The state finance committee may authorize the use of facsimile signatures in the issuance of the bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized herein, together with all grants, donations, transferred funds and all other moneys which the state finance committee may direct the state treasurer to deposit therein shall be deposited in the state higher education construction account hereby created in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. At the time the state finance committee determines to issue such bonds or a portion thereof, it may, pending the issuing of such bonds, issue, in the name of the state, temporary notes in anticipation of the money to be derived from the sale of the bonds, which notes shall be designated as "bond anticipation notes". Such portion of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds that may be required for such purpose shall be applied to the payment of the principal of and interest on such anticipation notes which have been issued. The proceeds from the sale of bonds or notes authorized by this 1973 act shall be deposited in the state higher education construction account of the general fund in the state treasury and shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in this 1973 act and for the payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state higher education bond redemption fund of 1973 is hereby created in the state treasury, which fund shall be exclusively devoted to the payment of interest on and retirement of the bonds authorized by this 1973 act. The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to meet bond retirement and interest requirements, and on July 1st of each year the state treasurer shall deposit such amount in the state higher education bond redemption fund of 1973 from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and certified by the state treasurer to be general state revenues.

The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for any of the bonds may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require and compel the transfer and payment of funds as directed herein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The legislature may provide additional means for raising moneys for the payment of the interest and principal of the bonds authorized herein and this 1973 act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for such payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The bonds herein authorized shall be a legal investment for all state funds or for funds under state control and all funds of municipal corporations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this 1973 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This 1973 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate April 8, 1973.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 23, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 24, 1973.

PUBLIC MASS TRANSIT PROGRAMS--

STATE FINANCIAL SUPPORT--

APPROPRIATIONS

AN ACT Relating to the financial support of public mass transit programs; amending section 8, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.273; amending section 14, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.279; amending section 19, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.2791; amending section 20, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.2792; amending section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1972

ex. sess. and RCW 82.44.150; adding new sections to chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 35.58 RCW; repealing section 9, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.274; repealing section 10, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.275; repealing section 11, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 199, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.276; repealing section 12, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.277; repealing section 13, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.278; making an appropriation; prescribing an effective date and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 8, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.273 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((On or after July 1, 1971, any municipality is authorized to levy and collect a special excise tax not exceeding one percent on the fair market value of every motor vehicle owned by a resident of such municipality for the privilege of using such motor vehicle provided that in no event shall the tax be less than one dollar and, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of RCW 82.44.150, the amount of such tax shall be credited against the amount of the excise tax levied by the state under RCW 82.44.020: PROVIDED, That))~~ Before utilization of any ~~((excise tax moneys collected under authorization of this section))~~ of the funds appropriated by the legislature and distributed to a municipality pursuant to section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act for acquisition of right of way or for construction of a mass transit facility on a separate right of way the municipality shall adopt rules affording the public an opportunity for "corridor public hearings" and "design public hearings" as herein defined, which rule shall provide in detail the procedures necessary for public participation in the following instances: (a) prior to adoption of location and design plans having a substantial social, economic or environmental effect upon the locality upon which they are to be constructed or (b) on such mass rapid transit systems operating on a separate right of way whenever a substantial change is proposed relating to location or design in the adopted plan. In adopting rules the municipality shall adhere to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act.

A "corridor public hearing" is a public hearing that: (a) is held before the municipality is committed to a specific mass transit route proposal, and before a route location is established; (b) is held to afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of the need for, and the location of, the mass rapid transit system; (c) provides a public forum that affords a full opportunity for presenting views on the mass rapid transit system route location, and the social, economic and environmental effects on that location and alternate locations: PROVIDED, That such hearing shall not be deemed to be necessary before adoption of an overall mass rapid transit system plan by a vote of the electorate of the municipality.

A "design public hearing" is a public hearing that: (a) is held after the location is established but before the design is adopted; and (b) is held to afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of major design features of the mass rapid transit system; and (c) provides a public forum to afford a full opportunity for presenting views on the mass rapid transit system design, and the social, economic, environmental effects of that design and alternate designs.

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.279 are each amended to read as follows:

All ~~((taxes levied and collected under REW 35.58.273))~~ funds appropriated by the legislature and distributed to municipalities for public mass transit assistance pursuant to section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be credited to a special fund in the treasury of ~~((the))~~ each such municipality ~~((imposing such tax))~~. Such ~~((taxes))~~ funds shall be ~~((levied and))~~ used solely for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of acquiring, constructing, equipping or operating a publicly owned mass transportation system, or contracting for the services thereof, or to pay or secure the payment of all or part of the principal of or interest on any general obligation bonds or revenue bonds issued for public transportation capital purposes and until withdrawn for use, the moneys accumulated in such fund or funds may be invested by the treasurer of such municipality in the manner authorized by the legislative body of the municipality.

~~((If any of the revenue from any such special excise tax shall have been pledged by any municipality to secure the payment of any bonds as herein authorized, then as long as that pledge shall be in effect the legislature shall not withdraw from the municipality the authority to levy and collect the tax. Upon the effective date of this 1969 act any municipality is authorized to pledge that the tax authorized by REW 35.58.273 shall be levied, collected and applied as provided in this 1969 act to pay or secure the payment of any bonds issued by such municipality after such effective date for authorized public transportation purposes.))~~

Sec. 3. Section 19, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.2791 are each amended to read as follows:

No new internal combustion powered equipment shall be acquired with funds ~~((derived from the taxes levied and collected under REW 35.58.273 or with funds derived from general obligation bonds wholly or partially secured by the taxes levied and collected under REW~~ 35-58-273) appropriated by the legislature and distributed to a municipality pursuant to section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act unless they meet the standards for control of pollutants emitted by internal combustion engines as determined by the state air pollution control board, which standards shall not be less than those required by similar federal standards.

Sec. 4. Section 20, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.2792 are each amended to read as follows:

The construction of parking facilities to be wholly or partially financed with funds ((derived from the taxes levied and collected under REW 35-58-273 or with funds derived from general obligation bonds wholly or partially secured by taxes levied and collected under REW 35-58-273)) appropriated by the legislature and distributed to a municipality pursuant to section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be in conjunction with and adjacent to public transportation stations or transfer facilities.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.44.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((The director of motor vehicles shall on the twenty-fifth day of February, May, August and November of each year, commencing with November, 1974, advise the state treasurer of the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department of motor vehicles during the preceding calendar quarter ending on the last day of March, June, September and December, respectively, except for those payable under REW 82-44-030 and REW 82-44-070, from motor vehicle owners residing within each municipality which has levied a tax under REW 35-58-273, which amount of excise taxes shall be determined by the director as follows:

The total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department, except those payable under REW 82-44-030 and 82-44-070, from each county shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the municipality residing in such county, and the denominator of which is the total population of the county in which such municipality or portion thereof is located. The product of this computation shall be the amount of excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing within such municipality or portion thereof. Where the municipality levying a tax under REW 35-58-273 is located in more than one county, the above computation shall be made by county, and the combined products shall provide the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing in the municipality as a whole. Population figures required for these computations shall be supplied to the director by the office of program planning and fiscal management, who shall adjust the fraction annually.

(2)) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer shall make the following apportionment and distribution of all moneys remaining in the motor vehicle excise fund: PROVIDED, That the July apportionment shall be credited to the fiscal year in which the collections are made: A sum equal to seventeen percent thereof shall be paid to cities and towns in the proportions and for the purposes hereinafter set forth; a sum equal to eighty-one and thirty-four one hundredths percent of all motor vehicle excise tax receipts ((including those levied and collected on behalf of a municipality imposing a tax authorized by RCW 35.58.273)) shall be allocable to the state school equalization fund and credited and transferred each year in the following order of priority:

(a) ((The amount, not less than $2,250,000 required and certified by the state finance committee each year as being necessary for payment of principal of and interest on bonds issued pursuant to chapter 234, laws of 1957 in the ensuing twelve months and any additional amount required by the covenants of such bonds shall be transferred to the 1957 public school building bond redemption fund:))

((b)) The amount required and certified by the state finance committee each year as being necessary for payment of principal of and interest on bonds authorized by chapter 26, Laws of 1963 extraordinary session in the ensuing twelve months and any additional amounts required by the covenants of such bonds shall be transferred to the 1963 public school building bond retirement fund.

((c) The amount required to remit to a municipality the proceeds of the tax authorized under RCW 35.58.273 shall be remitted to the municipality levying such tax.

(d)) (b) Any remaining amounts from the motor vehicle excise taxes not required for debt service on the above bond issues ((or to be remitted to a municipality as required under subsection (c) of this subsection)) shall be transferred and credited to the general fund.

((3)) (2) Any amounts remaining in the motor vehicle excise fund after making the distributions provided for in subsection ((2)) (1) of this section shall be transferred to the general fund.

((4)) (3) The amount payable to cities and towns shall be apportioned among the several cities and towns within the state ratably, on the basis of the population as last determined by the board.

((5)) (4) When so apportioned, the amount payable to each such city and town shall be transmitted to the city treasurer thereof, and shall be utilized by such city or town for the purposes of police and fire protection and the preservation of the public health therein, and not otherwise. In case it be adjudged that revenue derived from the excise tax imposed by this chapter cannot lawfully be apportioned or distributed to cities or towns, all moneys directed by this section to be apportioned and distributed to cities and towns shall be credited and transferred to the state general fund.

((16) The amount required under subsection (2)(c) of this section to be remitted by the state treasurer to the treasurer of any municipality levying such tax shall not exceed in any one calendar year the amount of locally generated tax revenues other than the excise tax imposed under RCW 35.58.273, which shall have been budgeted by such municipality to be collected in such year for any public transportation purposes including but not limited to operating costs; capital costs and debt service on general obligation or revenue bonds issued for such purposes.))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 35.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The state treasurer, based on information provided by the department of motor vehicles, shall distribute to each municipality operating a public mass transportation system which requests and qualifies for state financial assistance, such amounts as the legislature appropriates for public mass transit assistance in each fiscal biennium. The amount to be distributed to any municipality for purposes of local public transportation assistance from any legislative appropriation for that purpose shall be an amount equal to the amount budgeted by such municipality to be expended for local public transportation from local tax sources but in no event shall the amount distributed to a municipality in any calendar year be more than the maximum limit established by the dollar amount calculated pursuant to the formula in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The dollar amount of the maximum limit referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall be determined by the following formula: One-half of the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department during the most recent calendar year for which data is available, except those payable under RCW 82.44.030 and 82.44.070, from each county shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the subject municipality residing in such county, and the denominator of which is the total population of the county in which such municipality or portion thereof is located. The product of this computation shall be the maximum amount to be distributed to any municipality from whatever funds may be appropriated by the legislature for purposes of local public transportation assistance. Where the municipality is located in more than one county, separate computations shall be made for each county, and the combined products shall provide the maximum limit.

Population figures required for these computations shall be supplied by the office of program planning and fiscal management to the director of the department of motor vehicles, who shall adjust the fraction annually.

(3) The distribution of funds to municipalities from any legislative appropriation for purposes of mass transit assistance shall be made annually by the state treasurer no later than June 30th of the calendar year to which the distribution applies. For purposes of insuring the equitable distribution of funds appropriated by the legislature, the department of motor vehicles at the beginning of each state fiscal biennium for which funds are appropriated for distribution shall determine the amount of local matching money to be budgeted within maximum limits by each municipality for each municipal fiscal year covered by the state appropriation. In the event the appropriation by the legislature is insufficient to match the amount of locally generated tax revenues budgeted for transportation purposes by municipalities within maximum limits established by this section, the amount distributed to each municipality shall be reduced proportionately.

(4) If after the close of any calendar year the department of motor vehicles should determine that any municipality receiving a grant from the state appropriation for mass transit assistance has not expended or lawfully contracted to expend at least ninety percent of the local matching funds budgeted for mass transit from local taxes, the apportionment for the succeeding calendar year to that municipality from state assistance funds shall be reduced by the dollar amount of the municipality's under-expenditure of budgeted local tax funds less an adjustment factor calculated as five percent of the local matching funds budgeted, or one hundred thousand dollars, whichever is less.

(5) Any federal funds received in excess of those anticipated in annual local transit budgets shall be used in lieu of state funds distributed to municipalities pursuant to this 1973 amendatory act. An amount equal to the excess federal funds received shall be returned to the state treasurer and deposited in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 35.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) During the two fiscal years from July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1975, no municipality as defined in RCW 35.58.272 which has been authorized to levy a special excise tax pursuant to RCW 35.58.273 may levy an amount in each of such fiscal years greater than the maximum amount established pursuant to the following formula:

For each of the fiscal years 1973-74 and 1974-75 the total amount of such special excise taxes levied by all municipalities shall be $6,000,000 per year and each municipality may levy not to exceed the proportion of such total amount for which the municipality qualifies proportionately with all other qualifying municipalities under RCW 35.58.273 and RCW 82.44.150 for local mass transit assistance purposes. Prior to May 1, 1973 and May 1, 1974 each municipality desiring to levy an excise tax during the immediately following fiscal year shall so advise the director of the department of motor vehicles. Necessary data shall be supplied by the office of program planning and fiscal management to the director of the department of motor vehicles, who shall determine the maximum amount of the excise tax levy for each qualifying municipality and shall certify such amount to each such municipality prior to June 1 of each of the years 1973 and 1974.

(2) In addition to any other authority now provided by law, any municipality, including a metropolitan municipal corporation, shall be authorized to issue general obligation bonds for public mass transportation purposes with the principal and interest on said bonds to be paid from such taxes as shall be authorized to be levied by such municipality including motor vehicle excise taxes. Such bonds shall be issued and sold subject to the terms and limitations and in the manner provided in RCW 35.58.450: PROVIDED, That no municipality may issue general obligation bonds secured by or payable from motor vehicle excise taxes which bonds mature later than June 30, 1981.

(3) Any federal funds received in excess of those anticipated in annual local transit budgets shall be used in lieu of state funds distributed to municipalities pursuant to this 1973 amendatory act. An amount equal to the excess federal funds received shall be returned to the state treasurer and deposited in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The following acts or parts of acts are each hereby repealed:

(1) Section 9, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.274;

(2) Section 10, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.275;

(3) Section 11, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 199, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.276;

(4) Section 12, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.277; and

(5) Section 13, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.278.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 6 and section 8 of this 1973 amendatory act shall not take effect until June 30, 1981, and the remainder of this 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) There is hereby appropriated from the state school equalization fund to the state treasurer for the biennium ending June 30, 1975, the sum of $12,000,000 for distribution to municipalities for local mass transit assistance purposes pursuant to RCW 82.44.150.

(2) There is hereby appropriated from the state school equalization fund to the state treasurer for the biennium ending June 30, 1973, the sum of $4,676,100 for distribution to municipalities for local mass transit assistance purposes. This appropriation is in addition to the appropriation of $6,935,900 from the school equalization fund for the mass transit assistance in section 25, chapter 275, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., and in lieu of any funds which otherwise would have been distributable to municipalities for mass transit assistance during the biennium ending June 30, 1973 pursuant to the authorization in section 102, chapter 275, Laws of 1971 ex. sess.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 23, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 24, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 115. There is hereby appropriated to Western Washington State College from the general fund $12,500 to be used in the 1973-75 biennium to cover costs incurred in hosting the Symposium on Canadian-American Relations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 116. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 66.08.180, during the 1973-75 biennium the allocations to the University of Washington and Washington State University shall be reduced by $300,000 and $200,000 respectively and these additional funds transferred to the general fund for use by the division of health, Department of Social and Health Services, to carry out the purposes of RCW 70.96.040 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 117. There is hereby appropriated to the EXPO '74 Commission from the General Fund $1,500,000 or so much thereof as remains unexpended at the end of the 1971-73 biennium from the appropriation provided to the Commission by section 3, chapter 8, Laws of 1973 (SSB 2106).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 118. There is hereby reappropriated to the Department of General Administration for the Division of Savings and Loan from the general fund $28,836, or so much thereof as remains unexpended on the effective date of this act, from the appropriation made to the Department for the Division of Savings and Loan by section 7, chapter 155, Laws of 1972 ex. sess.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 119. The word "agency" used herein means and includes every state government office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and every department, division, board and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

The phrase "agencies headed by elective officials" used herein shall mean those executive offices or departments of the state which are directly supervised, administered, or controlled by the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, or insurance commissioner, but it shall not include those boards, commissions, or committees on which one or more of the above-named officials serve.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 120. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management with the approval of the governor, may:

(1) Allot all of any portion of the funds herein appropriated or included in the state budget, to the various agencies by such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve available for subsequent allotment: PROVIDED, That the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management shall not alter allotment requests filed with him, nor shall he place in reserve any funds, for the following: Washington State Apple Advertising Commission; Washington State Fruit Commission; Washington Dairy Products Commission or any agricultural commodity commission created under the provisions of Chapter 15.66 RCW; the legislative branch of state government including the legislative council, the legislative budget committee, the statute law committee, and any legislative interim committee; or the judicial branch of state government: PROVIDED, That the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may alter the allotment requests of state colleges and universities in the following cases: (a) When necessary to reflect legislative intent as set forth in the executive budget as accepted or modified by the Legislature in the Senate or House Journals or in any formal communication from the Legislative Budget Committee; (b) When necessary to limit total state expenditures to available revenues as required by RCW 43.88.110(2); (c) When an agency proposes the expenditure of a resource not disclosed in the budget request submitted to the Governor and Legislature: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the aggregate of allotments for any agency shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the agency concerned. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved allotments or to incur a deficiency and any obligation so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959, shall prevent revision of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues.

(2) Issue rules and regulations to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds.

(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above.

(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1973; for the sole purpose of authorizing agencies to order goods, supplies, or services for delivery after July 1, 1973: PROVIDED, That no expenditures may be made from the appropriations contained in this act, except as otherwise provided, until after July 1, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 121. The receipt of federal or other funds which are not anticipated by the governor's budget or in the appropriations enacted by the Legislature shall be used to support regular programs instead of using funds appropriated from state taxes or similar revenue sources. Any state funds replaced by federal or other receipts shall be placed in reserve to the credit of the appropriate state fund or account, and shall not be expended, unless authorized by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 122. In the event that receipts shall be less than those estimated in the budget from any source expenditures shall be limited to the amount received and allotments made as provided in section 118. Receipts for purposes of this section shall include amounts realized within one calendar month following the close of a fiscal period and applicable to expenditures of that period. The amount of such payment shall be credited to and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 123. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 144, Laws of 1973, expenditures by state agencies from unanticipated receipts deposited in the contingency receipts fund may be made for obligations incurred prior to June 30, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 124. Agencies are authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 125. If any state funds appropriated in this act for federal program matching purposes are not used for the purposes intended as outlined in the executive budget, such state funds shall not be expended for any other purpose until approved by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 126. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency appropriation to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 127. In addition to the amounts appropriated in this act for revenue for distribution, excluding those funds appropriated for urban mass transit assistance, and bond retirement and interest, and interest on registered warrants, there is also appropriated such further amounts as may be required or available for these purposes under any statutory formula or under any proper bond covenant made in accordance with law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 128. Amounts received by an agency as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 43.09.210 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor's budget, maximum interagency usage of data processing equipment and services and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 129. In order to obtain maximum interagency use of aircraft, the Aeronautics Commission, in accordance with RCW 43.09.210 and chapter 39.34 RCW is hereby authorized to lease, purchase or otherwise acquire suitable aircraft which shall be utilized for the purposes of the Aeronautics Commission and also by other state agencies which have a need for an aircraft to carry out agency assigned responsibilities: PROVIDED, That the Aeronautics Commission is further authorized to enter into contractual agreements with other state agencies in order to acquire aircraft, establish rental rates for aircraft under their control, provide pilot services, aircraft maintenance and make such other provisions as necessary to provide aircraft and related services for multi-agency use: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to achieve economy in the use of the appropriations contained within this act no state agency may purchase or otherwise acquire an aircraft or enter into a flying service or aircraft rental contract without first seeking such service from the Aeronautics Commission and without prior approval of the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 130. All contract personal services contracts except those for medical and health care and such other contracts which the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may exempt after consultation with the Legislative Budget Committee shall be filed with the office of program planning and fiscal management and the Legislative Budget Committee prior to obligating any portion of the appropriations approved in this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 131. Within the rules and regulations of the Department of Personnel, as applicable, in the filling of vacant positions and in the filling of new positions of employment in state government, including the four-year institutions of higher learning and the community colleges and positions in the offices of elective officials, preference shall be given, where necessary, to nonwhite and Mexican-American applicants in order to attain the same minority employment ratio in each agency as obtains in the population of the state at large.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 132. Agencies are hereby authorized and directed to pay their share of the 1971-73 unemployment compensation costs in accordance with section 19, chapter 3, Laws of 1971, as determined by the Employment Security Department, from their 1973-75 operating appropriations. The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may require agencies to place funds in reserve status in order to assure that funds will be available for the purpose of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 133. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 134. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately: PROVIDED, That provisions of this appropriations act shall not take effect until the legislature shall have approved the entire 1973-75 biennial budget for the state of Washington.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973 with the exception of items in section 14, 35, 38, 74 and 86 and all of sections 43 and 116 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 24, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to certain items, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2854, entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Adopting the budget for certain state agencies; making appropriations and authorizing expenditures for the operations of certain state agencies for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1973, and ending June 30, 1975; designating effective dates for certain appropriations; and declaring an emergency."

The specific items which I have vetoed are as follows:

1. Attorney General

On page 4, line 5, and also on page 27, line 24, I have vetoed the word "General."

In making the appropriation to the Attorney General for operation of his office during the 1973-75 biennium in Section 14, and also in appropriating funds for additional state contributions for employee health insurance in Section 86, the Legal Services Revolving Fund has erroneously been referred to as the "General Legal Services Revolving Fund." To correct this reference, I have vetoed the word "General."

2. Horse Racing Commission

On Page 9, line one, I have vetoed the phrase, "at any race meet," and on line three, the phrase, "at such meet."

The purpose of the horse racing commission is to properly regulate and protect the interests of the citizens of this state and I do not believe it would be wise to restrict the amount of funds to do that job below the minimum necessary to assure adequate regulation.

By deleting these two phrases, I have concurred in the Legislature's intent to reduce and place a limit upon the regulatory expenses of the Horse Racing Commission to three-fourths of one percent of the total parimutuel handle. This will allow the commission sufficient funds to effectively regulate racing activity at each individual track throughout the state.

Veto
Message

On page 9, beginning on line 26, I have vetoed the proviso preventing the Horse Racing Commission from employing an Executive Secretary to administer and enforce the laws and regulations governing the conduct of horse racing and parimutuel wagering in this state. The state parimutuel tax, collected and administered by the Horse Racing Commission, amounts to about $4,000,000 per biennium. Regulating horse racing and parimutuel wagering for the public is a great responsibility, requiring several professional and technical skills which are required on a full time basis. The three-member Horse Racing Commission, whose purpose is to enforce the Horse Racing Act of 1933, through adjudicative proceedings, does not serve on a full time basis. A competent full-time administrator, serving at the pleasure of the Commission, is absolutely necessary to assist the Horse Racing Commission to effectively carry out its mission.

3. Utilities and Transportation Commission - Grade Crossing Protection

In Section 38, page 10, lines 11 through 13, I have vetoed the language ": PROVIDED FURTHER, That no expenditures may be made from this appropriation after July 1, 1973...."

During review of the appropriation to the Utilities and Transportation Commission for installation of grade crossing protective devices, the Legislature determined that specific authority should be given to the Commission to make advance orders for protective devices. It appears the Legislature also intended that even though orders for protective devices might be placed prior to the end of the current biennium, actual expenditures should not be made until after July 1, 1973. In adding the restriction on expenditures, however, the Legislature inadvertently included language that prevents the expenditure of any funds appropriated for grade crossing protection devices after July 1, 1973. I am convinced there was no intent to prohibit expenditures for this desirable program during the 1973-75 biennium. The language deleted removes this^{Veto} prohibition against the expenditure of funds during the_{Message} 1973-75 biennium while still permitting the Commission to make advanced orders for protective devices as intended by the Legislature.

4. Superintendent of Public Instruction - Special Levy Relief

I have deleted Section 43 which appears on pages 10 and 11 in its entirety.

This section appropriates $40 million to the Superintendent of Public Instruction to be distributed as prescribed by the Legislature for special levy relief. The Legislature did not prescribe how the funds are to be distributed, however, and lacking that direction, the Department cannot make any distribution from the proposed appropriation. The section is therefore inoperative.

In addition to the defect noted above, I have concluded that the possible budgetary ramifications of providing these funds for special levy relief at this time are offset by the undesirable consequences which might flow from that decision even if the funds could be distributed. Although the Legislature apparently intended to provide funds for special levy relief through reductions made in the appropriations for a number of agencies, this proposed appropriation could place the entire budget in jeopardy and might well leave us in the near future facing the unhappy alternatives of either ratable reductions in Public Assistance or higher taxes. The Public Assistance caseloads projected in the budget that I submitted to the 1973 Legislature reflected a substantial decline in the rate of growth we have experienced over the past several years. These conservative estimates of caseloads were reduced further by the Legislature to a level which appears unrealistic. In spite of the fact that a $10.5 million contingency appropriation was provided in the event that caseloads exceeded those estimated by the Legislature, the appropriation for public assistance recipients remain some $17 million below the conservative needs contained in my budget request.

If the public assistance caseloads exceed those funded by the Legislature, the state might well be faced with either ratable reductions in payments to public assistance recipients or increased taxes to fund the higher caseloads. Veto

Message

Clearly, a tax increase would defeat the very purpose sought by the Legislature in proposing special levy relief. Moreover, I cannot believe that the taxpayers of the state would favor reductions in the payments made to elderly, handicapped, and disadvantaged persons, who have faced great difficulties in living on a fixed income during a period of sharply increasing costs of living.

Although I agree completely with the general intent evidenced by this attempt to reduce special levies for school purposes, the proposed appropriation might not only jeopardize the entire 1973-75 budget, but it is also premature. The Legislature will meet in September of this year and also in January of 1974. The September meeting will afford an opportunity to review revenues and public assistance caseloads to see at that time if relief of this type can be authorized. Because the special levy proposal cannot be implemented in the absence of legislative direction to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on how the funds are to be distributed, action by the Legislature in September will not result in any delay.

In addition, the 1973 Legislature has placed a constitutional amendment for tax reform before the voters. If this proposal is adopted at the 1973 general elections, the 1974 Legislature will have an opportunity to review state expenditures, state revenues, and also special levy relief in the total context of tax reform and with much improved information on the actual level of public assistance and other state operating costs for the 1973-75 biennium.

5. Department of Social and Health Services - Northern State Hospital

In Section 74, on pages 22 and 23, I have vetoed the proposed appropriation of $4,242,807 for the continued operation of Northern State Hospital during the 1973-75 biennium.

Because no capital construction is specifically contemplated by this section, most of the appropriation is clearly intended for operational purposes. Yet the appropriation is made from the proceeds of Referendum 29 bonds authorized by the voters in 1972. Expenditures of bond proceed funds for purposes other than those specified in the issue and approved by the voters is prohibited by Article VIII, Section 3 of the Washington Constitution, and Referendum 29 clearly contemplates that proceeds from the sale of bonds shall be used for "the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of health and social service facilities...." Nowhere does Referendum 29 refer to the use of funds for operational purposes.

Veto
Message

The conclusion that bond proceeds cannot be expended for operational purposes is reinforced by the definition of "social and health service facilities," which appears in Section 5 of Referendum 29 as follows:

As used in this act, the term "social and health service facilities" shall mean real property, and interests therein, equipment, buildings, structures, mobile units, parking facilities, utilities, landscaping, and all incidental improvements and appurtenances, developed as a part of a comprehensive plan for a system of social and health service facilities for the state...."

A further legal problem exists because Referendum 29 creates, as a condition precedent to the expenditure of any moneys, the development of a comprehensive plan for a system of social and health service facilities. While the proposed appropriation contains a legislative finding "that the establishment and development of such a community support center is consistent with and considered an integral part of the comprehensive plan of the Department for a system of social and health service facilities," such a finding would be subject to criticism and challenge as being inconsistent with the intent of Referendum 29.

In addition to these critical legal problems, I would like to point out that the 1973 Legislature appropriated $250,000 to the Department of Social and Health Services to complete a comprehensive plan for the development of a system of social and health services facilities for the state. This planning process will begin almost immediately. It is expected that the Department will present a completed plan to the 1974 Legislature, and any utilization of facilities at Northern State Hospital will be included as a part of that comprehensive plan. Authorization to continue the Hospital at this time might not only needlessly restrict the Department in developing a comprehensive state plan for social and health services, but might also commit a substantial portion of the resources available under Referendum 29 to the detriment of facilities in other areas of the state.

Veto
Message

In addition to continuation of an institution that is not needed, the proposed appropriation appears to contemplate a marked change from the present single program of Northern State Hospital to a multi-service program. This program change would be costly not only because of the unique staffing requirements for a multi-service program, but also because of the high fixed costs of maintaining a large institution such as Northern State Hospital. Although the Legislature has proposed funds to continue the operation of Northern but has not authorized additional staff for this purpose, operation of the hospital would, therefore, require the reassignment of staff to the detriment of other essential programs of the Department of Social and Health Services.

Finally, to ease the transition when major state facilities are closed, I requested that the 1973 Legislature adopt the Economic Impact Act which would have provided assistance to employees displaced and also direct economic assistance to communities affected by institutional closures. This act was not adopted, and I will urge in the strongest possible terms that the Legislature take action on the proposal at its September meeting.

6. Transfer of Funds

I have vetoed Section 116, which appears on pages 41 and 42, in its entirety.

The Legislature was inadvertently advised to include Section 116 which reduces the allocation of Class H Liquor License revenue transferred to the University of Washington and Washington State University during the 1973-75 biennium under the provisions of RCW 66.08.180. If this section is not deleted, the University of Washington will receive $300,000 less than anticipated, Washington State University will receive $200,000 less than anticipated, and the Division of Health-Department of Social and Health Services will receive $500,000 more than anticipated for alcoholism programs authorized by RCW 70.96.040. Veto

Although the language of this section does not contain the word "appropriation," in the absence of any specific language to the contrary, the effect is an appropriation of $500,000 for additional expenditures by the Division of Health. The Alcoholism Program of the Division of Health was funded at the level recommended in my proposed budget for the 1973-75 biennium, and I do not believe the Legislature intended to provide additional funds for that program.

With the exception of the items described above, the remainder of the bill is approved."

COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE--IMPUTED NEGLIGENCE

AN ACT Relating to civil procedure; creating a new chapter in Title 4 RCW; and declaring an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Contributory negligence shall not bar recovery in an action by any person or his legal representative to recover damages caused by negligence resulting in death or in injury to person or property, but any damages allowed shall be diminished in proportion to the percentage of negligence attributable to the party recovering.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The negligence of one marital spouse shall not be imputed to the other spouse to the marriage so as to bar recovery in an action by the other spouse to the marriage, or his or her legal representative, to recover damages from a third party caused by negligence resulting in death or in injury to the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act takes effect as of 12:01 a.m. on April 1, 1974.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held unconstitutional, the remainder of this act and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby, and it shall be conclusively presumed that the legislature would have enacted the remainder of this act without such invalid or unconstitutional provision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 1 through 4 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 4 RCW.

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800]

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES BUDGET

AN ACT Adopting the budget for the department of social and health services and allied agencies; making appropriations and authorizing expenditures for the operations of the department and allied agencies for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1973, and ending June 30, 1975; designating effective dates for certain appropriations; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. That a budget is hereby adopted for the department of social and health services and its allied agencies and subject to the provisions set forth in the following sections, the several amounts specified in the following sections, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to accomplish the purposes designated, are hereby appropriated and authorized to be disbursed for salaries, wages and other expenses and for other specified purposes for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1973, and ending June 30, 1975, except as otherwise provided, out of the several funds of the state hereinafter named.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES

General Fund Appropriation: PROVIDED, That

$594,866,929 is from state funds and

$6,541,168 is from private and local funds and

$417,713,198 is from federal funds: PROVIDED,

That any proposal to expend moneys or man years from an appropriated fund or account in excess of appropriations provided by law, based upon the receipt of unanticipated revenues, shall be submitted to the House Ways and Means Committee and to the Senate Ways and Means Committee, if the state legislature is in session, or to the legislative budget committee during the interim between legislative sessions which may authorize the expenditure of unanticipated receipts during the legislative interim arising from federal sources, gifts or grants, by a majority of the members: PROVIDED, That the Department initiate negotiations with the federal government for federal administration of the state supplementation of the supplemental security income program and also initiate negotiations for the optional federal administration of eligibility for medicaid by the adult recipients: PROVIDED, That a draft negotiated contract shall be submitted to the Legislative Budget Committee or to the House and Senate Ways and Means Committees if the Legislature is in session by Sept. 15, 1973 for their review and such contract shall not be completed without legislative authorization: PROVIDED, That if the claim made by the state to the U. NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that the department shall not expend in excess of 26,320 man-years during the 1973-75 biennium. The department shall allocate these man-years among the various programs in such a manner as to effect the maximum efficiency and effectiveness possible: PROVIDED, That it is the further intent of the Legislature that in making necessary adjustments in man-years the Department of Social and Health Services shall retain those local office personnel officers and staff needed to maintain adequate position control and, to process personnel actions and that reductions necessitated by legislative intent shall reduce state level personnel officers: PROVIDED, That this restriction shall not apply to staff positions funded by one hundred percent federal moneys in the Office of Disability Insurance throughout the 1973-75 biennium: PROVIDED, That this restriction shall not apply to those staff positions directly concerned with the enumeration and conversion of the current old age assistance, aid to blind and disability assistance programs to Supplemental Security Income as these functions are performed through federal contract and funded one hundred percent from federal moneys for the period up to January 1, 1974: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any deviations from the overall man-year limitations because of these three exceptions shall be promptly reported to the House and Senate Ways and Means Committees chairmen if the Legislature is in session or to the Legislative Budget Committee: PROVIDED, That it is the intent of the Legislature that compliance with overall intent expressed through this act shall result in the least disruption of currently filled positions and that every effort shall be made by the Department, within the rules and regulations of the Personnel Board, to comply with the intended man-year adjustments through failing to fill vacancies caused by attrition and other similar means including reclassifications of existing positions as necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. It is the intent of the legislature that the department of social and health services retain a degree of flexibility within the eleven purposes for which funds are herein appropriated to meet unforeseen circumstances and to capitalize upon the potential availability of other funds and sources of funds and to that end the department is authorized to seek allotment amendments reducing appropriated amounts up to a maximum of $5,000,000 and raising other appropriated amounts up to a maximum of $5,000,000 after notifying the Legislative Budget Committee or its successor of the department's intentions to distribute all or any portion of such moneys.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any part of this act shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules and regulations under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, from the total funds reduced as a result of revised caseload and expenditure estimates, a sum of $10,500,000 shall be held as revenue reserve until the Legislature has had an opportunity to determine whether the estimated caseload and expenditure reductions set forth in the Legislative Auditor's memorandum of March 2, 1973 to the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee materialize. The department shall review its caseload and expenditure estimates and submit a report to the chairmen of the House and Senate Ways and Means Committees and the Legislative Budget Committee prior to January 1, 1974. The Legislature shall determine prior to March 1, 1974 whether all or any portion of the amount set out in this section shall be appropriated as a result of revised caseload and expenditure estimates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The words "department and allied agency" used herein means and includes every institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and division, board and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management with the approval of the governor, may:

(1) Allot all of any portion of the funds herein appropriated or included in this budget, to the department for such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve available for subsequent allotment. (a) When necessary to limit total state expenditures to available revenues as required by RCW 43.88.110(2); (b) When the department proposes the expenditure of a resource not disclosed in the budget request submitted to the Governor and Legislature: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the aggregate of allotments for the department shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the department or allied agency. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved allotments or to incur a deficiency and any obligation so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959, shall prevent revision of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues.

(2) Issue rules and regulations to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds.

(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above.

(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1973; for the sole purpose of authorizing the department and its allied agencies to order goods, supplies, or services for delivery after July 1, 1973: PROVIDED, That no expenditures may be made from the appropriations contained in this act, except as otherwise provided, until after July 1, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Whenever possible, the receipt of federal or other funds which are not anticipated by the governor's budget or in the appropriations enacted by the Legislature shall be used to support regular programs instead of using funds appropriated from state taxes or similar revenue sources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In the event that receipts shall be less than those estimated in the budget from any source expenditures shall be limited to the amount received and allotments made as provided in section 8. Receipts for purposes of this section shall include amounts realized within one calendar month following the close of a fiscal period and applicable to expenditures of that period. The amount of such payment shall be credited to and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Agencies are authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency appropriation to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Amounts received by the department or an allied agency as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 43.09.210 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor's budget, maximum interagency usage of data processing equipment and services and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. In order to obtain maximum interagency use of aircraft, the Aeronautics Commission, in accordance with RCW 43.09.210 and chapter 39.34 RCW is hereby authorized to lease, purchase or otherwise acquire suitable aircraft which shall be utilized for the purposes of the Aeronautics Commission and also by other state agencies which have a need for an aircraft to carry out agency assigned responsibilities: PROVIDED, That the Aeronautics Commission is further authorized to enter into contractual agreements with other state agencies in order to acquire aircraft, establish rental rates for aircraft under their control, provide pilot services, aircraft maintenance and make such other provisions as necessary to provide aircraft and related services for multi-agency use: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to achieve economy in the use of the appropriations contained within this act no state agency may purchase or otherwise acquire an aircraft or enter into a flying service or aircraft rental contract without first seeking such service from the Aeronautics Commission and without prior approval of the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. All contract personal services contracts except those for medical and health care and such other contracts which the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may exempt after consultation with the Legislative Budget Committee shall be filed with the office of program planning and fiscal management and the Legislative Budget Committee prior to obligating any portion of the appropriations approved in this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Within the rules and regulations of the Department of Personnel, as applicable, in the filling of vacant positions and in the filling of new positions of employment in state government, preference shall be given, where necessary, to nonwhite and Mexican-American applicants in order to attain the same minority employment ratio in each agency as obtains in the population of the state at large.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The department and its allied agencies are hereby authorized and directed to pay their share of the 1971-73 unemployment compensation costs in accordance with section 19, chapter 3, Laws of 1971, as determined by the Employment Security Department, from their 1973-75 operating appropriations. The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may require agencies to place funds in reserve status in order to assure that funds will be available for the purpose of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately: PROVIDED, That provisions of this appropriations act shall not take effect until the legislature shall have approved the entire 1973-75 biennial budget for the state of Washington.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 23, 1973 with the exception of an item in section 2 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 24, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800, entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Adopting the budget for the Department of Social and Health Services and allied agencies; making appropriations and authorizing expenditures for the operations of the department and allied agencies for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1973, and ending June 30, 1975; designating effective dates for certain appropriations; and declaring an emergency."

The specific item which I have vetoed is the phrase "in combination with the protective services program" which appears in Section 2, page 5, lines 8 and 9. I have vetoed the phrase in order to correct a technical error which would lead to accounting and programming problems. The Child Protective Services Program technically does not exist as a separate and distinct accounting or program entity in the Department but is part of the broad ranged Community Social Services Program. This amendment simply allows the Department to continue the program as part of the Community Services Program.

With the exception of the item described above, the remainder of the bill is approved."

COUNTY TREASURERS--INVESTMENT AUTHORITY

AN ACT Relating to public funds; amending section 36.29.020, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 26, chapter 193, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 36.29.020; amending section 15, chapter 103, Laws of 1959 and RCW 56.16.160; and amending section 16, chapter 108, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.20.160.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 36.29.020, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 26, chapter 193, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 36.29.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The county treasurer shall keep all moneys belonging to the state, or to any county, in his own possession until disbursed according to law. He shall not place the same in the possession of any person to be used for any purpose; nor shall he loan or in any manner use or permit any person to use the same; but it shall be lawful for a county treasurer to deposit any such moneys in any regularly designated qualified public depository. Any municipal corporation may by action of its governing body authorize any of its funds which are not required for immediate expenditure, and which are in the custody of the county treasurer or other municipal corporation treasurer, to be invested by such treasurer in savings or time accounts in banks, trust companies and mutual savings banks which are doing business in this state, up to the amount of insurance afforded such accounts by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or in accounts in savings and loan associations which are doing business in this state, up to the amount of insurance afforded such accounts by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, or in ((any short term United States government securities)) certificates, notes, or bonds of the United States, or other obligations of the United States or its agencies, or of any corporation wholly owned by the government of the United States: in federal home loan bank notes and bonds, federal land bank bonds and federal national mortgage association notes, debentures and guaranteed certificates of participation, or the obligations of any other government sponsored corporation whose obligations are or may become eligible as collateral for advances to member banks as determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or deposit such funds or any portion thereof in investment deposits as defined in RCW 39.58.010 secured by collateral in accordance with the provisions of ((this 1969 act)) chapter 193, Laws of 1969 ex. sess.: PROVIDED, Five percent of the interest or earnings, with an annual minimum of ten dollars or annual maximum of fifty dollars, on any transactions authorized by each resolution of the governing body shall be paid as an investment service fee to the office of the county treasurer or other municipal corporation treasurer when the interest or earnings become available to the governing body.

Whenever the funds of any municipal corporation which are not required for immediate expenditure are in the custody or control of the county treasurer, and the governing body of such municipal corporation has not taken any action pertaining to the investment of any such funds, the county finance committee shall direct the county treasurer to invest, to the maximum prudent extent, such funds or any portion thereof in (~~securities constituting the direct and general obligations of the United States government~~) certificates, notes, or bonds of the United States, or other obligations of the United States or its agencies, or of any corporation wholly owned by the government of the United States, in federal home loan bank notes and bonds, federal land bank bonds and federal national mortgage association notes, debentures and guaranteed certificates of participation, or the obligations of any other government sponsored corporation whose obligations are or may become eligible as collateral for advances to member banks as determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or deposit such funds or any portion thereof in investment deposits as defined in RCW 39.58.010 secured by collateral in accordance with the provisions of (~~this 1969 act~~) chapter 193, Laws of 1969 ex. sess.; PROVIDED, That the county treasurer shall have the power to select the specific qualified financial institution in which said funds may be invested. The interest or other earnings from such investments or deposits shall be deposited in the current expense fund of the county and may be used for general county purposes. The investment or deposit and disposition of the interest or other earnings therefrom authorized by this paragraph shall not apply to such funds as may be prohibited by the state Constitution from being so invested or deposited.

Sec. 2. Section 15, chapter 103, Laws of 1959 and RCW 56.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall have accumulated in any general or special fund of a sewer district moneys, the disbursement of which is not yet due, the board of commissioners may, by resolution, authorize (~~and direct~~) the county treasurer to deposit or invest such moneys in banks, mutual savings banks, or savings and loan associations in an amount in each institution no greater than the amount insured by any department or agency of the United States government, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, or to invest such moneys in direct obligations of the United States government: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer may refuse to invest any district moneys for a period shorter than ninety days, or in an amount less than five thousand dollars, or any moneys the disbursement of which will be required during the period of investment to meet outstanding obligations of the district.

Sec. 3. Section 16, chapter 108, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.20.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall have accumulated in any general or special fund of a water district moneys, the disbursement of which is not yet due, the board of water commissioners may, by resolution, authorize (~~and direct~~) the county treasurer to deposit or invest such moneys in banks, mutual savings banks, or savings and loan associations in an amount in each institution no greater than the amount insured by any department or agency of the United States government, the federal deposit insurance corporation, or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, or to invest such moneys in direct obligations of the United States government: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer may refuse to invest any district moneys for a period shorter than ninety days, or in an amount less than five thousand dollars, or any moneys, the disbursement of which will be required during the period of investment to meet outstanding obligations of the district.

Passed the Senate March 24, 1973.

Passed the House April 10, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

PART I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Section 1. It is the intent of the legislature in the adoption of this 1973 amendatory act to provide adequate revenues for the support of vital services for the people of this state, to promote equity in its tax structure, and to guarantee full funding of a basic program of education, as defined by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of said act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act constitute a single integrated plan for a revision of the tax structure of this state, and therefore in the event either of sections 82A-7 or 82A-8 of this 1973 amendatory act, or both such sections, are held to be invalid, each of such sections shall be deemed nonseverable and this 1973 amendatory act shall be void in its entirety and shall be of no further force and effect.

PART II

PROPERTY TAX LIMITATIONS AND REDUCTIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Business inventories" shall be exempt from property taxes according to the following schedule:

Commencing January 1, 1975 -- Twenty percent of inventory otherwise taxable.

Commencing January 1, 1976 -- Forty percent of inventory otherwise taxable.

Commencing January 1, 1977 -- Sixty percent of inventory otherwise taxable.

Commencing January 1, 1978 -- Eighty percent of inventory otherwise taxable.

Commencing January 1, 1979 and thereafter -- One hundred percent of inventory otherwise taxable.

"Business inventories" means personal property acquired solely for the purpose of sale, or for the purpose of consuming such property in producing for sale a new article of tangible personal property of which such property becomes an ingredient or component.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, commencing upon and after July 1, 1974 no school district shall impose an excess levy on property pursuant to law for maintenance and operation purposes.

PART III

EXCISE TAX LIMITATIONS AND REDUCTIONS

Sec. 5. Section 82.08.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The tax hereby levied shall not apply to the following sales:

(1) Casual and isolated sales of property or service, unless made by a person who is engaged in a business activity taxable under chapters 82.04, 82.16 or 82.28: PROVIDED, That the exemption provided by this paragraph shall not be construed as providing any exemption from the tax imposed by chapter 82.12;

(2) Sales made by persons in the course of business activities with respect to which tax liability is specifically imposed under chapter 82.16, when the gross proceeds from such sales must be included in the measure of the tax imposed under said chapter;

(3) The distribution and newsstand sale of newspapers;

(4) Sales which the state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution of this state or the Constitution or laws of the United States;

(5) Sales of motor vehicle fuel used in aircraft by the manufacturer thereof for research, development, and testing purposes and sales of motor vehicle fuel taxable under chapter 82.36: PROVIDED, That the use of any such fuel upon which a refund of the motor vehicle fuel tax has been obtained shall be subject to the tax imposed by chapter 82.12;

(6) Sales (including transfers of title through decree of appropriation) heretofore or hereafter made of the entire operating property of a publicly or privately owned public utility, or of a complete operating integral section thereof, to the state or a political subdivision thereof for use in conducting any business defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9),

(10) or (11) of RCW 82.16.010;

(7) Auction sales made by or through auctioneers of tangible personal property (including household goods) which have been used in conducting a farm activity, when the seller thereof is a farmer and the sale is held or conducted upon a farm and not otherwise;

(8) Sales to corporations which have been incorporated under any act of the congress of the United States and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same;

(9) Sales of purebred livestock for breeding purposes where the animals are registered in a nationally recognized breed association; sales of cattle and milk cows used on the farm;

(10) Sales of tangible personal property (other than the type referred to in subdivision (11) hereof) for use by the purchaser in connection with the business of operating as a private or common carrier by air, rail, or water in interstate or foreign commerce: PROVIDED, That any actual use of such property in this state shall, at the time of such actual use, be subject to the tax imposed by chapter 82.12;

(11) Sales of airplanes, locomotives, railroad cars, or watercraft for use in conducting interstate or foreign commerce by transporting therein or therewith property and persons for hire or for use in conducting commercial deep sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of the state; also sales of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of such airplanes, locomotives, railroad cars, or watercraft, and of motor vehicles or trailers whether owned by or leased with or without drivers and used by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing transportation by motor vehicle across the boundaries of this state, in the course of constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same; also sales of or charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to such constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving;

(12) Sales of motor vehicles and trailers to be used for the purpose of transporting therein persons or property for hire in interstate or foreign commerce whether such use is by the owner or whether such motor vehicles and trailers are leased to the user with or without drivers: PROVIDED, That the purchaser or user must be the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission and that the vehicles will first move upon the highways of this state from the point of delivery in this state to a point outside of this state under the authority of a one-transit permit issued by the director of motor vehicles pursuant to the provisions of RCW 46.16.100;

(13) Sales of motor vehicles and trailers to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state, even though delivery be made within this state, but only when (a) the vehicles or trailers will be taken from the point of delivery in this state directly to a point outside this state under the authority of a one-transit permit issued by the director of motor vehicles pursuant to the provisions of RCW 46.16.100, or (b) said motor vehicles and trailers will be registered and licensed immediately under the laws of the state of the purchaser's residence, will not be used in this state more than three months, and will not be required to be registered and licensed under the laws of this state;

(14) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any machinery or other article of personal property belonging to such nonresident, in the course of installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same and also sales of or charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to any installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving, of personal property of or for a nonresident, but this subsection (14) shall apply only when the seller agrees to, and does, deliver the property to the purchaser at a point outside this state, or delivers the property to a common or bona fide private carrier consigned to the purchaser at a point outside this state;

(15) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of watercraft requiring coast guard registration or registration by the state of principal use according to the Federal Boating Act of 1958, even though delivery be made within this state, but only when (a) the watercraft will not be used within this state for more than forty-five days and (b) an appropriate exemption certificate supported by identification ascertaining residence as provided by the department of revenue and signed by the purchaser or his agent establishing the fact that the purchaser is a nonresident and that the watercraft is for use outside of this state, one copy to be filed with the department of revenue with the regular report and a duplicate to be retained by the dealer.

(16) Sales of poultry for use in the production for sale of poultry or poultry products.

(17) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of machinery and implements for use in conducting a farming activity, when such machinery and implements will be transported immediately outside the state. As proof of exemption, an affidavit or certification in such form as the department of revenue shall require shall be made for each such sale, to be retained as a business record of the seller.

(18) Sales for use in states, territories and possessions of the United States which are not contiguous to any other state, but only when, as a necessary incident to the contract of sale, the seller delivers the subject matter of the sale to the purchaser or his designated agent at the usual receiving terminal of the carrier selected to transport the goods, under such circumstances that it is reasonably certain that the goods will be transported directly to a destination in such noncontiguous states, territories and possessions.

(19) Sales to municipal corporations, the state, and all political subdivisions thereof of tangible personal property consumed and/or of labor and services rendered in respect to contracts for watershed protection and/or flood prevention. This exemption shall be limited to that portion of the selling price which is reimbursed by the United States government according to the provisions of the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act, Public Laws 566, as amended;

(20) Sales of semen for use in the artificial insemination of livestock;

(21) Sales to nonresidents of this state of tangible personal property for use outside this state when the purchaser has applied for and received from the department of revenue a permit certifying (1) that he is a bona fide resident of a state or possession or Province of Canada other than the state of Washington, (2) that such state, possession, or Province of Canada does not impose a retail sales tax or use tax of three percent or more or, if imposing such a tax, permits Washington residents exemption from otherwise taxable sales by reason of their residence, and (3) that he does agree, when requested, to grant the department of revenue access to such records and other forms of verification at his place of residence to assure that such purchases are not first used substantially in the state of Washington.

Any person claiming exemption from retail sales tax under the provisions of this subsection must display a nonresident permit as herein provided, and any vendor making a sale to a nonresident without collecting the tax must examine such permit, identify the purchaser as the person to whom the nonresident permit was issued, and maintain records which shall show the permit number attributable to each nontaxable sale.

Permits shall be personal and nontransferable, shall be renewable annually, and shall be issued by the department of revenue upon payment of a fee of one dollar. The department may in its discretion designate independent agents for the issuance of permits, according to such standards and qualifications as the department may prescribe. Such agents shall pay over and account to the department for all permit fees collected, after deducting as a collection fee the sum of fifty cents for each permit issued.

Any person making fraudulent statements in order to secure a permit shall be guilty of perjury. Any person making tax exempt purchases by displaying a permit not his own, or a counterfeit permit, with intent to violate the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, in addition, may be subject to a penalty not to exceed the amount of the tax due on such purchases. Any vendor who makes sales without collecting the tax to a person who does not hold a valid permit, and any vendor who fails to maintain records of permit numbers as provided in this section shall be personally liable for the amount of tax due.

(22) Sales of form lumber to any person engaged in the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon or above real property of or for consumers: PROVIDED, That such lumber is used or to be used first by such person for the molding of concrete in a single such contract, project or job and is thereafter incorporated into the product of that same contract, project or job as an ingredient or component thereof.

(23) Sales of, cost of, or charges made for labor and services performed in respect to the mining, sorting, crushing, screening, washing, hauling, and stockpiling of sand, gravel and rock when such sand, gravel, or rock is taken from a pit or quarry which is owned by or leased to a county or a city, and such sand, gravel, or rock is (1) either stockpiled in said pit or quarry for placement or is placed on the street, road, place, or highway of the county or city by the county or city itself, or (2) sold by the county or city to a county, or a city at actual cost for placement on a publicly owned street, road, place, or highway. The exemption provided for in this subsection shall not apply to sales of, cost of, or charges made for such labor and services, if the sand, gravel, or rock is used for other than public road purposes or is sold otherwise than as provided for in this subsection.

(25) Sales of pollen.

(26) Sales to one political subdivision by another political subdivision directly or indirectly arising out of or resulting from the annexation or incorporation of any part of the territory of one political subdivision by another.

(27) The renting or leasing of motor vehicles and trailers to a nonresident of this state for use exclusively in transporting persons or property across the boundaries of this state and in intrastate operations incidental thereto when such motor vehicle or trailer is registered and licensed in a foreign state and for purposes of this exemption the term "nonresident" shall apply to a renter or lessee who has one or more places of business in this state as well as in one or more other states but the exemption for nonresidents shall apply only to those vehicles which are most frequently dispatched, garaged, serviced, maintained and operated from the renter's or lessee's place of business in another state.

(28) Upon and after July 1, 1974, sales of prescription drugs.

(29) Upon and after July 1, 1974, sales of food products for human consumption. "Food products" include cereals and cereal products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products excluding candy and confectionery, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products excluding candy and confectionery, milk and milk products, milkshakes, malted milks and any other similar type beverages which are composed at least in part of milk or a milk product and which require the use of milk or a milk product in their preparation, all fruit juices, vegetable juices, and other beverages except bottled water, spirituous, malt or vinous liquors or carbonated beverages, whether liquor or frozen. "Food products" do not include medicines and preparations in liquid, powdered, granular, tablet, capsule, lozenge, and pill form sold as dietary supplements or adjuncts. The exemption of "food products" provided for in this paragraph shall not apply: (a) when the food products are furnished, prepared, or served for consumption at tables, chairs, or counters or from trays, glasses, dishes, or other tableware whether provided by the retailer or by a person with whom the retailer contracts to furnish, prepare, or serve food products to others, or (b) when the food products are ordinarily sold for immediate consumption on or near a location at which parking facilities are provided primarily for the use of patrons in consuming the products purchased at the location, even though such products are sold on a "takeout" or "to go" order and are actually packaged or wrapped and taken from the premises of the retailer, or (c) when the food products are sold for consumption within a place, the entrance to which is subject to an admission charge, except for national and state parks and monuments.

Sec. 6. Section 82.12.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961, as last amended by section 10, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply:

(1) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property brought into the state by a nonresident thereof for his use or enjoyment while temporarily within the state unless such property is used in conducting a nontransitory business activity within the state; or in respect to the use by a nonresident of this state of a motor vehicle which is registered or licensed under the laws of the state of his residence and is not used in this state more than three months, and which is not required to be registered or licensed under the laws of this state; or in respect to the use of household goods, personal effects and private automobiles by a bona fide resident of this state, if such articles were acquired and used by such person in another state while a bona fide resident thereof and such acquisition and use occurred more than thirty days prior to the time he entered this state;

(2) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property purchased at retail or acquired by lease, gift or bailment if the sale thereof to, or the use thereof by, the present user or his bailor or donor has already been subjected to the tax under chapter 82.08 or 82.12 and such tax has been paid by the present user or by his bailor or donor; or in respect to the use of property acquired by bailment and such tax has once been paid based on reasonable rental as determined by RCW 82.12.060 measured by the value of the article at time of first use multiplied by the tax rate imposed by chapter 82.08 or 82.12 as of the time of first use; or in respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property acquired by bailment, if the property was acquired by a previous bailee from the same bailor for use in the same general activity and such original bailment was prior to June 9, 1961;

(3) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property the sale of which is specifically taxable under chapter 82.16;

(4) In respect to the use of any airplane, locomotive, railroad car, or watercraft used primarily in conducting interstate or foreign commerce by transporting therein or therewith property and persons for hire or used primarily in commercial deep sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of the state, and in respect to use of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any such airplane, locomotive, railroad car, or watercraft, and in respect to the use by a nonresident of this state of any motor vehicle or trailer used exclusively in transporting persons or property across the boundaries of this state and in intrastate operations incidental thereto when such motor vehicle or trailer is registered and licensed in a foreign state and in respect to the use by a nonresident of this state of any motor vehicle or trailer so registered and licensed and used within this state for a period not exceeding fifteen consecutive days under such rules as the department of revenue shall adopt: PROVIDED, That under circumstances determined to be justifiable by the department of revenue a second fifteen day period may be authorized consecutive with the first fifteen day period; and for the purposes of this exemption the term "nonresident" as used herein, shall include a user who has one or more places of business in this state as well as in one or more other states, but the exemption for nonresidents shall apply only to those vehicles which are most frequently dispatched, garaged, serviced, maintained, and operated from the user's place of business in another state; and in respect to the use by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission of any motor vehicle or trailer whether owned by or leased with or without driver to the permit holder and used in substantial part in the normal and ordinary course of the user's business for transporting therein persons or property for hire across the boundaries of this state if the first use of which within this state is actual use in conducting interstate or foreign commerce; and in respect to the use of any motor vehicle or trailer while being operated under the authority of a one-transit permit issued by the director of motor vehicles pursuant to RCW 46.16.100 and moving upon the highways from the point of delivery in this state to a point outside this state; and in respect to the use of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any motor vehicle or trailer used by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing transportation by motor vehicle across the boundaries of this state whether such motor vehicle or trailer is owned by or leased with or without driver to the permit holder;

(5) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property which the state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution of the state or under the Constitution or laws of the United States;

(6) In respect to the use of motor vehicle fuel used in aircraft by the manufacturer thereof for research, development, and testing purposes and motor vehicle fuel taxable under chapter 82.36: PROVIDED, That the use of such fuel upon which a refund of the motor vehicle fuel tax is obtained shall not be exempt, and the director of motor vehicles shall deduct from the amount of such tax to be refunded the amount of tax due under this chapter and remit the same each month to the department of revenue;

(7) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property included within the transfer of the title to the entire operating property of a publicly or privately owned public utility, or of a complete operating integral section thereof, by the state or a political subdivision thereof in conducting any business defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), or

(11) of RCW 82.16.010;

(8) In respect to the use of tangible personal property (including household goods) which have been used in conducting a farm activity, if such property was purchased from a farmer at an auction sale held or conducted by an auctioneer upon a farm and not otherwise;

(9) In respect to the use of tangible personal property by corporations which have been incorporated under any act of the congress of the United States and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of the armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, flood, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same;

(10) In respect to the use of purebred livestock for breeding purposes where said animals are registered in a nationally recognized breed association; sales of cattle and milk cows used on the farm;

(11) In respect to the use of poultry in the production for sale of poultry or poultry products;

(12) In respect to the use of fuel by the extractor or manufacturer thereof when used directly in the operation of the particular extractive operation or manufacturing plant which produced or manufactured the same;

(13) In respect to the use of motor vehicles, equipped with dual controls, which are loaned to and used exclusively by a school in connection with its driver training program: PROVIDED, That this exemption and the term "school" shall apply only to (a) the University of Washington, Washington State University, the state colleges and the state community colleges or (b) any public, private or parochial school accredited by either the state board of education or by the University of Washington (the state accrediting station) or (c) any public vocational school meeting the standards, courses and requirements established and prescribed or approved in accordance with the Community College Act of 1967 (chapter 8, Laws of 1967 first extraordinary session);

(14) In respect to the use by a bailee of any article of tangible personal property which is entirely consumed in the course of research, development, experimental and testing activities conducted by the user, provided the acquisition or use of such articles by the bailor was not subject to the taxes imposed by chapter 82.08 or chapter 82.12;

(15) In respect to the use by residents of this state of motor vehicles and trailers acquired and used while such persons are members of the armed services and are stationed outside this state pursuant to military orders, but this exemption shall not apply to members of the armed services called to active duty for training purposes for periods of less than six months and shall not apply to the use of motor vehicles or trailers acquired less than thirty days prior to the discharge or release from active duty of any person from the armed services;

(16) In respect to the use of semen in the artificial insemination of livestock;

(17) In respect to the use of form lumber by any person engaged in the constructing, repairing, decorating or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon or above real property of or for consumers: PROVIDED, That such lumber is used or to be used first by such person for the molding of concrete in a single such contract, project or job and is thereafter incorporated into the product of that same contract, project or job as an ingredient or component thereof;

(18) In respect to the use of any sand, gravel, or rock to the extent of the cost of or charges made for labor and services performed in respect to the mining, sorting, crushing, screening, washing, hauling, and stockpiling such sand, gravel, or rock, when such sand, gravel, or rock is taken from a pit or quarry which is owned by or leased to a county or a city, and such sand, gravel, or rock is (1) either stockpiled in said pit or quarry for placement or is placed on the street, road, place, or highway of the county or city by the county or city itself, or (2) sold by the county or city to a county, or a city at actual cost for placement on a publicly owned street, road, place, or highway. The exemption provided for in this subsection shall not apply to the use of such material to the extent of the cost of or charge made for such labor and services, if the material is used for other than public road purposes or is sold otherwise than as provided for in this subsection.

(19) In respect to the use of wearing apparel only as a sample for display for the purpose of effecting sales of goods represented by such sample.

(20) In respect to the use of tangible personal property held for sale and displayed in single trade shows for a period not in excess of thirty days, the primary purpose of which is to promote the sale of products or services.

(21) In respect to the use of pollen.

(22) In respect to the use of the personal property of one political subdivision by another political subdivision directly or indirectly arising out of or resulting from the annexation or incorporation of any part of the territory of one political subdivision by another.

(23) Upon and after July 1, 1974, in respect to the use of prescription drugs.

(24) Upon and after July 1, 1974, in respect to the use of food products for human consumption. "Food products" include cereals and cereal products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products excluding candy and confectionery, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products excluding candy and confectionery, milk and milk products, milkshakes, malted milks and any other similar type beverages which are composed at least in part of milk or a milk product and which require the use of milk or a milk product in their preparation, all fruit juices, vegetable juices, and other beverages except bottled water, spirituous, malt or vinous liquors or carbonated beverages, whether liquor or frozen. "Food products" do not include medicines and preparations in liquid, powdered, granular, tablet, capsule, lozenge, and pill form sold as dietary supplements or adjuncts. The exemption of "food products" provided for in this paragraph shall not apply: (a) when the food products are furnished, prepared, or served for consumption at tables, chairs, or counters or from trays, glasses, dishes, or other tableware whether provided by the retailer or by a person with whom the retailer contracts to furnish, prepare, or serve food products to others, or (b) when the food products are ordinarily sold for immediate consumption on or near a location at which parking facilities are provided primarily for the use of patrons in consuming the products purchased at the location, even though such products are sold on a "takeout" or "to go" order and are actually packaged or wrapped and taken from the premises of the retailer, or (c) when the food products are sold for consumption within a place, the entrance to which is subject to an admission charge, except for national and state parks and monuments.

Sec. 7. Section 82.04.230, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 281, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within this state in business as an extractor; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products, including byproducts, extracted for sale or for commercial or industrial use, multiplied by the rate of forty-four one-hundredths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products, including byproducts, extracted for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent;

The measure of the tax is the value of the products, including byproducts, so extracted, regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries may be made to points outside the state.

Sec. 8. Section 82.04.240, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 281, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person except persons taxable under subsections (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), or (8) of RCW 82.04.260 engaging within this state in business as a manufacturer; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products, including byproducts, manufactured, multiplied by the rate of forty-four one-hundredths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products, including byproducts, manufactured, multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent.

The measure of the tax is the value of the products, including byproducts, so manufactured regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries may be made to points outside the state.

Sec. 9. Section 82.04.250, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 281, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person except persons taxable under subsection (9) of RCW 82.04.260 engaging within this state in the business of making sales at retail, as to such persons, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of the business, multiplied by the rate of forty-four one-hundredths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of the business, multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent.

Sec. 10. Section 3, chapter 65, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.255 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within the state as a real estate broker; as to such persons, the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross income of the business, multiplied by the rate of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax in respect to such business shall be equal to the gross income of the business, multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent.

The measure of the tax on real estate commissions earned by the real estate broker shall be the gross commission earned by the particular real estate brokerage office including that portion of the commission paid to salesmen or associate brokers in the same office on a particular transaction: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That where a real estate commission is divided between an originating brokerage office and a cooperating brokerage office on a particular transaction, each brokerage office shall pay the tax only upon their respective shares of said commission: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That where the brokerage office has paid the tax as provided herein, salesmen or associate brokers within the same brokerage office shall not be required to pay a similar tax upon the same transaction.

Sec. 11. Section 82.04.260, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 5, chapter 281, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing wheat into flour; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the flour manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-eighth of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the flour manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-sixteenth of one percent.

(3) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of splitting or processing dried peas; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the peas split or processed, multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the peas split or processed, multiplied by the rate of one-eighth of one percent.

(4) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing seafood products which remain in a raw, raw frozen, or raw salted state at the completion of the manufacturing by that person; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-eighth of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-sixteenth of one percent.

(5) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing by canning, preserving, freezing or dehydrating fresh fruits and vegetables; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products canned, preserved, frozen or dehydrated multiplied by the rate of three-tenths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products canned, preserved, frozen or dehydrated multiplied by the rate of three-twentieths of one percent.

(6) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing aluminum pig, ingot, billet, plate, sheet (flat or coiled), rod, bar, wire, cable or extrusions; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured multiplied by the rate of four-tenths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent.

(7) Upon every nonprofit corporation and nonprofit association engaging within this state in research and development, as to such corporations and associations, the amount of tax with respect to such activities shall be equal to the gross income derived from such activities multiplied by the rate of forty-four one-hundredths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such activities shall be equal to the gross income derived from such activities multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent.

(8) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of slaughtering, breaking and/or processing perishable meat products and/or selling the same at wholesale; as to such persons the tax imposed shall be equal to the gross proceeds derived from such sales multiplied by the rate of thirty-three one-hundredths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, as to such persons the tax imposed shall be equal to the gross proceeds derived from such sales multiplied by the rate of thirty-three two-hundredths of one percent.

(9) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of making sales, at retail or wholesale, of nuclear fuel assemblies manufactured by that person, as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of the assemblies multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax in respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of the assemblies multiplied by the rate of twenty-five two-hundredths of one percent.

(10) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing nuclear fuel assemblies, as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured multiplied by the rate of twenty-five two-hundredths of one percent.

Sec. 12. Section 82.04.270, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 6, chapter 281, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person except persons taxable under subsections (1) or (9) of RCW 82.04.260 engaging within this state in the business of making sales at wholesale; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of such business multiplied by the rate of forty-four one-hundredths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of such business multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent.

(2) The tax imposed by this section is levied and shall be collected from every person engaged in the business of distributing in this state articles of tangible personal property, owned by them from their own warehouse or other central location in this state to two or more of their own retail stores or outlets, where no change of title or ownership occurs, the intent hereof being to impose a tax equal to the wholesaler's tax upon persons performing functions essentially comparable to those of a wholesaler, but not actually making sales: PROVIDED, That the tax designated in this section may not be assessed twice to the same person for the same article. The amount of the tax as to such persons shall be computed by multiplying forty-four one-hundredths of one percent of the value of the article so distributed as of the time of such distribution; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax as to such persons shall be computed by multiplying twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent of the value of the article so distributed as of the time of such distribution: PROVIDED, That persons engaged in the activities described in this subsection shall not be liable for the tax imposed if by proper invoice it can be shown that they have purchased such property from a wholesaler who has paid a business and occupation tax to the state upon the same articles. This proviso shall not apply to purchases from manufacturers as defined in RCW 82.04.110. The department of revenue shall prescribe uniform and equitable rules for the purpose of ascertaining such value, which value shall correspond as nearly as possible to the gross proceeds from sales at wholesale in this state of similar articles of like quality and character, and in similar quantities by other taxpayers: PROVIDED FURTHER, That delivery trucks or vans will not under the purposes of this section be considered to be retail stores or outlets.

Sec. 13. Section 82.04.280, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 5, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.280 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of: (1) Printing, and of publishing newspapers, periodicals or magazines; (2) building, repairing or improving any street, place, road, highway, easement, right of way, mass public transportation terminal or parking facility, bridge, tunnel, or trestle which is owned by a municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state or by the United States and which is used or to be used, primarily for foot or vehicular traffic including mass transportation vehicles of any kind and including any readjustment, reconstruction or relocation of the facilities of any public, private or cooperatively owned utility or railroad in the course of such building, repairing or improving, the cost of which readjustment, reconstruction, or relocation, is the responsibility of the public authority whose street, place, road, highway, easement, right of way, mass public transportation terminal or parking facility, bridge, tunnel, or trestle is being built, repaired or improved; (3) extracting for hire or processing for hire; (4) operating a cold storage warehouse, but not including the rental of cold storage lockers; (5) representing and performing services for fire or casualty insurance companies as an independent resident managing general agent licensed under the provisions of RCW 48.05.310; (6) radio and television broadcasting, excluding network, national and regional advertising computed as a standard deduction based on the national average thereof as annually reported by the Federal Communications Commission, or in lieu thereof by itemization by the individual broadcasting station, and excluding that portion of revenue represented by the out-of-state audience computed as a ratio to the station's total audience as measured by the 100 micro-volt signal strength and delivery by wire, if any; as to such persons, the amount of tax on such business shall be equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by the rate of forty-four one-hundredths of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax on such business shall be equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent.

Sec. 14. Section 82.04.290, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 8, chapter 281, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.290 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within this state in any business activity other than or in addition to those enumerated in RCW

82.04.230, 82.04.240, 82.04.250, 82.04.255, 82.04.260, 82.04.270, 82.04.275 and 82.04.280; as to such persons the amount of tax on account of such activities shall be equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by the rate of one percent; PROVIDED, That upon and after July 1, 1974, the amount of tax on account of such activities shall be equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent. This section includes, among others, and without limiting the scope hereof (whether or not title to materials used in the performance of such business passes to another by accession, confusion or other than by outright sale), persons engaged in the business of rendering any type of service which does not constitute a "sale at retail" or a "sale at wholesale." The value of advertising, demonstration, and promotional supplies and materials furnished to an agent by his principal or supplier to be used for informational, educational and promotional purposes shall not be considered a part of the agent's remuneration or commission and shall not be subject to taxation under this section.

PART IV

NET INCOME TAX

SUBPART A

DEFINITIONS-CONSTRUCTION RULES

NEW SECTION. Section 82A-1. Short Title-Codification. This Title shall be known and may be cited as the "Washington Income Tax Code." Sections 82A-1 through 82A-58 of this act shall be codified as a new Title in the Revised Code of Washington, to be numbered Title 82A.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-2. (1) Construction-Meaning of Terms. Except as otherwise expressly provided or clearly appearing from the context, any term used in this Title shall have the same meaning as when used in a comparable context in the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and amendments thereto or any successor law or laws relating to federal income taxes and other provisions of the statutes of the United States relating to federal income taxes as such Code, laws and statutes are in effect for the taxable year.

(2) General Intent. It is the intention of this Title that the income subject to tax be the same as taxable income as defined and applicable to the subject taxpayer for the same tax year in the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-3. Definitions and Rules of Interpretation. When used in this Title where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) Business Income. The term "business income" means:

(a) in the case of a corporation, its total income from whatever source derived; and

(b) in all other cases income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business, net of the deductions allocable thereto, and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations. Such term does not include compensation or the deductions allocable thereto.

(2) Capital Asset. The term "capital asset" means (i) a capital asset as defined in section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code (ii) property defined in section 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code and (iii) other real property.

(3) Commercial Domicile. The term "commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is directed or managed.

(4) Compensation. The term "compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions and any other form of remuneration paid to employees for personal services, as used in both sections 3401 and 3402 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) Corporation. The term "corporation" means, in addition to an incorporated entity, an association, trust or any unincorporated organization which is defined as a corporation in the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) Department. The term "department" means the department of revenue of this state.

(7) Director. The term "director" means the director of revenue of this state.

(8) Fiduciary. The term "fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, executrix, administratrix, receiver, conservator, or any person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person.

(9) Financial Institution. "Financial institution" means any bank, trust company, building and loan or savings and loan association, bank holding company as defined in section 1841, chapter 17, Title 12 of the laws of the United States, or industrial bank.

(10) Financial Organization. The term "financial organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, bank holding company as defined in section 1841, chapter 17, Title 12 of the laws of the United States, building and loan association, credit union, currency exchange, cooperative bank, small loan company, sales finance company, or investment company, and any other corporation at least 90 percent of whose assets consist of intangible property and at least 90 percent of whose gross income consists of dividends or interest or other charges resulting from the use of money or credit.

(11) Fiscal Year. The term "fiscal year" means an accounting period of twelve months ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(12) Foreign Corporation. The term "foreign corporation" means a corporation organized under the laws of a foreign country or a corporation organized under the laws of any state or the United States which is domiciled in a foreign country.

(13) Includes and Including. The terms "includes" and "including" when used in a definition contained in this Title shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of the term defined.

(14) Internal Revenue Code. The term "Internal Revenue Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or any successor law or laws relating to federal income taxes in effect for the taxable year.

(15) Nonbusiness Income. The term "nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income or compensation.

(16) Nonresident. The term "nonresident" means a person who is not a resident.

(17) Paid, Incurred and Accrued. The terms "paid", "incurred" and "accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the person's taxable income is computed under this Title.

(18) Partnership and Partner. The term "partnership" includes a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture or other unincorporated organization, through or by means of which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of this Title, a trust or estate or a corporation; and the term "partner" includes a member in such syndicate, group, pool, joint venture or organization.

(19) Person or Individual. The term "person or individual" shall be construed to mean and include an individual, a trust, estate, partnership, association, firm, company, corporation or fiduciary or any other group or combination acting as a unit.

(20) Regulations. The term "regulations" includes rules promulgated and forms prescribed by the department.

(21) Resident. The term "resident" means: (a) An individual who is domiciled in this state unless he maintains no permanent place of abode in this state and does maintain a permanent place of abode elsewhere and spends in the aggregate not more than 30 days of the taxable year in this state; or who is not domiciled in this state but maintains a permanent place of abode in this state and spends in the aggregate more than 183 days of the taxable year in this state;

(b) The estate of a decedent who at his death was domiciled in this state;

(c) A trust created by a will of a decedent who at his death was domiciled in this state; and

(d) An irrevocable trust, the grantor of which was domiciled in this state at the time such trust became irrevocable. For purposes of this subparagraph, a trust shall be considered irrevocable to the extent that the grantor is not treated as the owner thereof under sections 671 through 678 of the Internal Revenue Code.

For purpose of the definition of a "resident", a taxable year shall be deemed terminated at the date of death of an individual.

(22) Returns. The term "returns" includes declarations of estimated tax required under this Title.

(23) Sales. The term "sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer not allocated under sections 82A-12 through 82A-15 except as provided in section 82A-22 for sales factor purposes.

(24) State. The term "state" when applied to a jurisdiction other than this state means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any Territory or Possession of the United States, or any political subdivision of any of the foregoing.

(25) Tax includes interest and penalties and includes the tax required to be withheld by an employer on wages, unless the intention to give it a more limited meaning is disclosed by the context.

(26) Taxable Income. "Taxable income" means taxable income or net income properly returned to and ascertained by the United States government for the tax year subject to the modifications and adjustments contained in this Title.

(27) Taxable Year. The term "taxable year" or "tax year" means the calendar year, or the fiscal year ending during such calendar year, upon the basis of which the taxable income is computed under this Title. "Taxable year" or "tax year" means, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year under the provisions of this Title, the period for which such return is made.

(28) Taxpayer. The term "taxpayer" means any person subject to the tax imposed by this Title.

(29) Constructions. Words denoting number, gender, and so forth, when used in this Title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(a) Words importing the singular include and apply to several persons, parties or things;

(b) Words importing the plural include the singular; and

(c) Words importing the masculine gender include the feminine as well.

(30) "Company" or "Association" as Including Successors and Assigns. The word "company" or "association", when used in reference to a corporation, shall be deemed to embrace the words "successors and assigns of such company or association", and in like manner as if these last-named words, or words of similar import, were expressed.

(31) Other terms. Any term used in any section of this Title with respect to the application of, or in connection with, the provisions of any other section of this Title shall have the same meaning as in such other section.

(32) Captions. Section, subsection, part and subpart headings and captions do not constitute any part of the law.

SUBPART B

TAXABLE INCOME

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-4. Taxable Income - Persons Other Than a Corporation, a Financial Institution or an Estate or Trust.

(1) Taxable income of persons other than a corporation, financial institution or an estate or trust means adjusted gross income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code and returned to and ascertained by the federal government for the tax year subject to the following modifications:

(a) Add gross interest income and dividends derived from obligations or securities of states other than Washington state in the same amount which has been excluded from federal adjusted gross income less related expenses not deducted in computing federal adjusted gross income because of section 265(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Add taxes on or measured by income to the extent the taxes have been deducted except the tax imposed by RCW 82.04 (business and occupation tax) in arriving at federal adjusted gross income.

(c) Add an amount equal to all amounts paid or accrued to the taxpayer as interest or dividends to the extent excluded from gross income in the computation of adjusted gross income.

(d) Add the amount of any deduction taken pursuant to section 613(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) Deduct, to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, income derived from obligations of the United States government which this state is prohibited by law from subjecting to a net income tax, reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred in carrying the obligations, and by any expense incurred in the production of such income to the extent that the expenses, including amortizable bond premiums, were deducted in arriving at federal adjusted gross income.

(f) Deduct the amount paid for medical and dental care during the taxable year by the taxpayer, his or her spouse, and dependents and allowable as a deduction for federal income tax purposes under section 213 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) Deduct the amount of one thousand two hundred fifty dollars multiplied by the number of exemptions allowed to the taxpayer for the same taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code.

(h) Deduct in the case of a spouse, alimony, support maintenance payments and principal sums payable in installments to the extent included in the other spouse's adjusted gross income, pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, but only to the extent otherwise deductible by such spouse pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

(i) Deduct the amount paid by a taxpayer during the taxable year for necessary employee employment expenses, other than expenses deducted in arriving at adjusted gross income, including but not limited to union or professional association dues, fees to secure employment, work tools and required uniforms to the extent allowable as an itemized deduction under the Internal Revenue Code.

(j) Any adjustments with respect to estate and trust income as provided in section 82A-6.

(k) Any adjustments resulting from the allocation and apportionment provisions of subpart D.

(l) Any adjustments with respect to income from small business corporations as provided in section 82A-10.

(m) Any adjustments with respect to partnership income as provided in section 82A-11.

(n) Any adjustments with respect to capital assets as provided in section 82A-11.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a person other than a corporation, a financial institution or estate or trust means in addition to a resident or nonresident individual:

(a) A partner in a partnership.

(b) A beneficiary of an estate or a trust.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the taxable income of a nonresident shall be computed in the same manner as in the case of a resident, subject to the allocation and apportionment provisions of subpart D.

(4) A resident beneficiary of a trust whose taxable income includes all or part of an accumulation distribution by a trust, as defined in section 665 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be allowed a credit against the tax otherwise due under this Title. The credit shall be all or a proportionate part of any tax paid by the trust under this Title for any preceding taxable year which would not have been payable if the trust had in fact made distribution to its beneficiaries at the times and in the amounts specified in section 666 of the Internal Revenue Code. The credit shall not reduce the tax otherwise due from the beneficiary to an amount less than would have been due if the accumulation distribution were excluded taxable income.

(5) Taxable income of a nonresident who is a beneficiary of a resident estate or trust shall include the beneficiary's share of estate or trust income.

(6) The taxable income of a resident who is required to include income from a trust in his federal income tax return under the provisions of subpart E of subchapter J of the Internal Revenue Code, sections 671 through 678, shall include items of income and deductions from the trust in taxable income.

(7) It is the intention of this section that the income subject to tax or taxable income be computed in like manner and be the same as provided in the Internal Revenue Code, subject to adjustments specifically provided for in this Title.

(8) An addition or subtraction shall not be allowed under this section which has the effect of duplicating an item of income or deduction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-5. Taxable Income of Corporations Including Financial Institutions. (1) "Taxable income" in the case of a corporation including a financial institution means federal taxable income subject to the following adjustments:

(a) Add gross interest income and dividends derived from obligations or securities of states other than Washington state in the same amount which has been excluded from federal taxable income, less related expenses not deducted in computing federal taxable income because of section 265 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Add taxes on or measured by net income to the extent the taxes have been deducted in arriving at federal taxable income.

(c) Add any net operating loss deductions which have been deducted in arriving at federal taxable income, and deduct any net operating loss deductions as defined in subsection (3).

(d) Add any capital loss carry-over which has been deducted in arriving at federal taxable income, and deduct the capital loss carry-over that would be deductible under the Internal Revenue Code if the Internal Revenue Code had become effective on January 1, 1974.

(e) Add for corporations other than financial institutions, losses on the sale or exchange of obligations of the United States government, the income of which this state is prohibited from subjecting to a net income tax, to the extent that the loss has been deducted in arriving at federal taxable income.

(f) Add the amount of any deduction taken pursuant to section 613(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) Add an amount equal to all amounts paid or accrued to the taxpayer as interest during the taxable year to the extent excluded from gross income in the computation of taxable income.

(h) Add in the case of a cooperative association patronage dividends to the extent deducted in computing federal taxable income.

(i) Add in the case of a Western Hemisphere trade corporation, China Trade Act corporation, or possessions company described in section 931(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, an amount equal to the amount deducted or excluded from gross income in the computation of taxable income for the taxable year on account of the special deductions and exclusions (but in the case of a possessions company, net of the deductions allocable thereto) allowed such corporations under the Internal Revenue Code.

(j) Deduct, for corporations other than financial institutions, to the extent included in federal taxable income, income derived from obligations or sale or exchange of obligations of the United States government, which this state is prohibited by law from subjecting to a net income tax reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred to carry the obligations, and by any expenses incurred in the production of such income to the extent that the expenses including amortizable bond premiums were deducted in arriving at federal taxable income.

(k) Deduct the foreign dividend gross-up included in federal taxable income pursuant to section 78 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(l) Any adjustments resulting from the apportionment provisions of subpart D of this Title and the accounting provisions of section 82A-34.

(m) Any adjustments with respect to capital assets as provided in section 82A-11.

(2) Federal taxable income means "taxable income" as defined in section 63 of the Internal Revenue Code plus any special deductions for corporations for dividends received allowed by sections 241, 243, 244, 245, 246 and 247 of the Internal Revenue Code.

"Taxable income" for purposes of this definition shall mean:

(a) Certain life insurance companies. In the case of a life insurance company subject to the tax imposed by section 802 of the Internal Revenue Code, life insurance company taxable income;

(b) Certain mutual insurance companies. In the case of a mutual insurance company subject to the tax imposed by section 821 (a) or (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, mutual insurance company taxable income or taxable investment income, as the case may be;

(c) Regulated investment companies. In the case of a regulated investment company subject to the tax imposed by section 852 of the Internal Revenue Code, investment company taxable income;

(d) Real estate investment trusts. In the case of a real estate investment trust subject to the tax imposed by section 857 of the Internal Revenue Code, real estate investment trust taxable income;

(e) Cooperatives. In the case of cooperative corporation or association, the taxable income of such organization determined in accordance with the provisions of sections 1381 through 1388 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Net operating loss means the loss that would result from the computation under subsection (1) without deducting the net operating loss deduction permitted by subdivision (c) of subsection (1), and without deducting the capital loss carry-over permitted by subdivision (d) of subsection (1). The net operating loss is first carried back to the earliest of the 3 years preceding the loss year and, if not entirely used up in offsetting taxable income in that year, the unused portion of the loss is first carried back to the second earliest year and the balance, if any, is carried back to the year next preceding the loss year. If the taxable income of the 3 preceding years is not sufficient to be offset by the loss, the unused portion of the loss is first carried over to the year next following the loss year, then successively to the next 4 years following the loss year or until the loss is used up, whichever first occurs, but in no case for more than 5 years after the loss year. A net operating loss shall not be allowed for taxable periods ending before January 1, 1974, and the loss shall not be applied to the income of any taxable periods ending before January 1, 1974.

If for the taxable year of a corporation, there is in effect an election under section 992(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corporation is treated as a domestic international sales corporation as defined in section 992(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, the corporation shall be subject to the tax imposed by this title on its taxable income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code for such corporation subject to the adjustments contained in this section except:

(a) There shall be deducted from taxable income the amount of earnings and profits taxed to the shareholders for the taxable year under section 995 of the Internal Revenue Code which have not in fact been distributed to the shareholders.

(b) In case the corporation is a wholly owned subsidiary corporation of another corporation which is subject to the tax imposed by this title, the corporation shall not be treated as a taxable entity and the taxable income of the parent corporation shall be determined by combining the taxable income and apportionment factors of the wholly owned subsidiary corporation and the parent corporation as provided for in section 82A-34. The corporation shall be considered a wholly owned subsidiary if all of its outstanding shares, except director's qualifying shares, are owned by a single corporation, either directly or indirectly through other corporations all of whose shares, except directors qualifying shares, are owned directly or indirectly by such corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-6. Taxable Income of Trusts or Estates. (1) "Taxable income" in the case of an estate or trust means federal taxable income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code subject to the following adjustments:

(a) Add gross interest income and dividends derived from obligations or securities of states other than Washington state in the same amount which has been excluded from federal taxable income less related expenses not deducted in computing federal taxable income because of section 265 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Add taxes on or measured by income to the extent the taxes have been deducted except the tax imposed by RCW 82.04 (business and occupation tax) in arriving at federal taxable income.

(c) Add the amount of deduction taken pursuant to section 613(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) Deduct, to the extent included in federal taxable income, income derived from obligations of the United States government which this state is prohibited by law from subjecting to a net income tax, reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred in carrying the obligations, and by any expenses incurred in the production of such income to the extent that the expenses, including amortizable bond premiums, were deducted in arriving at federal taxable income.

(e) Add an amount equal to all amounts paid or accrued to the taxpayer as interest or dividends during the taxable year to the extent excluded from gross income in the computation of taxable income.

(f) Deduct any adjustment resulting from the allocation and apportionment provisions of subpart D.

(g) Any adjustments with respect to capital assets as provided in section 82A-11.

(2) The respective shares of an estate or trust and its beneficiaries, including, solely for the purpose of this allocation, nonresident beneficiaries, in the additions and subtractions to taxable income shall be in proportion to their respective shares of distributable net income of the estate or trust as defined in the Internal Revenue Code. If the estate or trust has no distributable net income for the taxable year, the share of each beneficiary in the additions and subtractions shall be in proportion to his share of the estate or trust income for the year, under local law or the terms of the instrument, which is required to be distributed currently and any other amounts of such income distributed in the year. Any balance of the additions and subtractions shall be allocated to the estate or trust.

(3) An addition or subtraction shall not be made under this section which has the effect of duplicating an item of income or deduction.

SUBPART C

IMPOSITION PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-7. Tax Imposed-Persons Other Than Corporations And Financial Institutions. For receiving, earning or otherwise acquiring income from any source whatsoever after the effective date of this Title, there is levied and imposed a tax upon the taxable income of every person, other than a corporation or financial institution, computed in accordance with the following schedules:

Single Returns		Joint Returns
Taxable Income	Marginal Tax Rate	Taxable Income	Marginal Tax Rate
Over	But Not	Over	But Not
	Over		Over
$ 0 - $ 2,000	2.0%	$ 0 - $ 4,000	2.0%
$ 2,000 - $ 3,000	2.5%	$ 4,000 - $ 6,000	2.5%
$ 3,000 - $ 4,000	3.0%	$ 6,000 - $ 8,000	3.0%
$ 4,000 - $ 6,000	3.5%	$ 8,000 - $12,000	3.5%
$ 6,000 - $ 8,000	4.0%	$12,000 - $16,000	4.0%
$ 8,000 - $10,000	4.5%	$16,000 - $20,000	4.5%
$10,000 - $15,000	5.0%	$20,000 - $30,000	5.0%
$15,000 - $20,000	5.5%	$30,000 - $40,000	5.5%
$20,000 - $25,000	6.0%	$40,000 - $50,000	6.0%
$25,000 - Over	6.5%	$50,000 - Over	6.5%

For purposes of this section, "marginal tax rate" shall mean the rate applicable to that portion of taxable income within each of the above rates. An individual who is not otherwise entitled to file a joint return, but who is a parent or step-parent who has supported a child or children who have or has been a member of his household during the taxable year, at his option, may elect to be taxed at the rates herein specified for a person filing a joint return.

On computing tax liability, an individual may average his income for the computation of his tax liability for any tax year subject to the conditions and as provided for in sections 1301 through 1305 of the Internal Revenue Code.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-8. Tax Imposed-Corporations Other Than Financial Institutions. For receiving, earning or otherwise acquiring income from any source whatsoever after the effective date of this Title, there is levied and imposed a tax on every corporation other than a financial institution. The tax shall be the following percentage of the corporation's taxable income, for each of the following taxable years:

Commencing January 1, 1974 -- Eight percent of taxable income.

Commencing January 1, 1976 -- Eight and one-half percent of taxable income.

Commencing January 1, 1977 -- Nine percent of taxable income.

Commencing January 1, 1978 -- Nine and one-half percent of taxable income.

Commencing January 1, 1979 -- Ten percent of taxable income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-9. Tax Imposed-Financial Institutions.

There is hereby imposed and levied a tax on financial institutions on the privilege of carrying on any business activity in this state, in addition to other taxes imposed by law, a tax measured by the taxable income of every financial institution as follows, for each of the following taxable years:

Commencing January 1, 1974 -- Eight percent of taxable income.

Commencing January 1, 1976 -- Eight and one-half percent of taxable income.

Commencing January 1, 1977 -- Nine percent of taxable income.

Commencing January 1, 1978 -- Nine and one-half percent of taxable income.

Commencing January 1, 1979 -- Ten percent of taxable income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-10. Corporate election under subchapter S.

(1) A corporation which has filed a proper election under subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code shall be subject to the tax imposed on corporations by this Title in the same manner as though no such election had been made to the extent that its shares of stock are owned by nonresidents of this state.

(2) A resident stockholder of a subchapter S corporation shall include in his computation of taxable income any income or losses of the subchapter S corporation attributable to him in the computation of his federal income tax for the same tax year.

(3) A nonresident stockholder of a subchapter S corporation shall exclude any income or losses of a subchapter S corporation from taxable income for purposes of this Title.

SUBPART D

APPORTIONMENT AND ALLOCATION

PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-11. Adjustments to Taxable Income--Allocation and Apportionment Rules.

(1) In General. (a) The taxable income of any taxpayer whose income producing activities are confined solely to this state shall be allocated to this state.

(b) Any taxpayer having business income which is taxable both within and without this state, other than the rendering of personal services by a resident individual, shall apportion his income as provided in this Title.

(c) To the extent taxable income is subject to the allocation and apportionment provisions of this Title, only non-business income shall be allocated as provided in sections 82A-12 through 82A-15 and all business income shall be apportioned as provided in sections 82A-16 through 82A-30 of this Title.

(d) Any taxpayer whose taxable income for any tax year is increased or diminished by the sale or exchange of a capital asset after the effective date of this title which the taxpayer owned prior to the effective date of this title shall recompute taxable income for such tax year by excluding therefrom that proportion of the gain or loss on the sale or exchange of a capital asset attributable to the taxpayer's holding period of the capital asset occurring prior to the effective date of this title. The proportion of the gain or loss attributable to the taxpayer's holding period prior to the effective date of this title, at the election of the taxpayer, shall be either:

(i) The ratio that the holding period of the taxpayer expressed in months prior to the effective date of this title bears to the total holding period of the taxpayer expressed in months.

(ii) The difference between the fair market value of the capital asset on the effective date of this title and the amount of gain or loss taken into account in determining taxable income. The method of determining the fair market value of a capital asset on the effective date of this title for the purpose of this election shall be prescribed by the department.

(2) Taxable In Another State. For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this Title, a taxpayer is taxable in another state if that state has jurisdiction to subject the taxpayer to a net income tax whether or not the state has a net income tax.

(3) Resident Individuals, Estates or Trusts. In case of a resident individual, estate or trust all taxable income from any source whatsoever, except that attributable to another state under the apportionment provisions of subpart D and subject to the credit provisions of 82A-33, is allocated to this state.

(4) Nonresident Individuals, Estates or Trusts. In case of a nonresident individual, estate or trust all taxable income is allocated to this state to the extent it is earned, received or acquired:

(a) For the rendition of personal services performed in this state.

(b) As a distributive share of the net profits of an unincorporated business, profession, enterprise, undertaking or other activity as the result of work done, services rendered and other business activities conducted in this state, except as allocated or apportioned to another state pursuant to the provisions of Subpart D and subject to the credit provisions of section 82A-33.

(5) Beneficiaries of Nonresident Estates or Trusts. (a) The respective shares of a nonresident estate or trust and its beneficiaries, including, solely for purposes of allocation, resident and nonresident beneficiaries, in the income attributable to Washington, shall be in proportion to their respective shares of distributable net income under the Internal Revenue Code. If the estate or trust has no distributable net income for the taxable year, the share of each beneficiary in the income attributable to Washington, shall be in proportion to his share of the estate or trust income for such year, under local law or the terms of the instrument, which is required to be distributed currently and other amounts of such income distributed in such year. Any balance of the income attributable to Washington shall be allocated to the estate or trust.

(b) A nonresident estate or trust shall be allowed the credit provided in section 82A-33 (2) except that the limitation shall be computed by reference to the taxable income of the estate or trust.

(6) Rents and royalties from real or tangible personal property, capital gains, interest, dividends or patent or copyright royalties, to the extent that they constitute nonbusiness income together with any item of deduction allocable thereto, shall be allocated as provided in sections 82A-12 through 82A-15.

(7) In the case of a corporation including a financial institution which is taxable in more than one state, all taxable income from whatever source derived shall be apportioned as provided in this Title and the specific allocation rules in sections 82A-12 through 82A-15 shall not apply.

(8) Allocation of Partnership Income by Partnerships and Partners Other Than Residents. (a) Allocation of partnership business income by partners other than residents. The respective shares of partners other than residents in so much of the business income of the partnership as is allocated or apportioned to this state in the hands of the partnership shall be taken into account by such partners pro rata in accordance with their respective distributive shares of such partnership income for the partnership's taxable year and allocated to this state.

(b) Allocation of partnership nonbusiness income by partners other than residents. The respective shares of partners other than residents in the items of partnership income and deduction not taken into account in computing the business income of a partnership shall be taken into account by such partners pro rata in accordance with their respective distributive shares of such partnership income for the partnership's taxable year, and allocated as if such items had been paid, incurred or accrued directly to such partners in their separate capacities.

(c) Allocation or apportionment of business income by partnership. Business income of a partnership shall be apportioned to this state as provided in subpart D.

(9) (a) A partnership shall not be subject to the income tax imposed by this Title. Persons carrying on business as partners shall be liable for income tax only in their separate or individual capacities. The taxable income attributable to a taxpayer's interest in a partnership shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of subchapter K of chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this Title.

(b) Character of Items. Each item of partnership income, gain, loss, or deduction shall have the same character for a partner under this Title as it has for federal income tax purposes. Where an item is not characterized for federal income tax purposes, it shall have the same character for a partner as if realized directly for the source from which realized by the partnership or incurred in the same manner as incurred by the partnership.

(c) Tax Avoidance or Evasion. Where a partner's distributive share of an item of partnership income, gain, loss, or deduction is determined for federal income tax purposes by a special provision in the partnership agreement with respect to such item, and the principal purpose of such provision is the avoidance or evasion of tax under this Title, the partner's distributive share of such item and any modification required with respect thereto shall be determined in accordance with his distributive share of the taxable income or loss of the partnership generally (that is, exclusive of those items requiring separate computation under the provisions of section 702 of the Internal Revenue Code).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-12. Specific Allocation of Income From Tangible Property. (1) Realty Located Within State. Net rents and royalties from real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(2) Tangible Personal Property. Net rents and royalties from tangible personal property are allocable to this state:

(a) If and to the extent that the property is utilized in this state; or

(b) In their entirety if the taxpayer is a resident partnership, estate or trust or individual of this state or has a commercial domicile in this state and the taxpayer is not organized under the laws of or taxable in the state in which the property is utilized.

(3) Extent of Utilization of Tangible Personalty. The extent of utilization of tangible personal property in a state is determined by multiplying the rents and royalties by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in the state during the rental or royalty period in the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the taxable year. If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown or unascertainable by the taxpayer, tangible personal property is utilized in the state in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payer obtained possession.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-13. Specific Allocation of Income From Capital Gains and Losses.

(1) Capital gains and losses from sales or exchanges of real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(2) Capital gains and losses from sales or exchanges of tangible personal property are allocable to this state if:

(a) The property had a situs in this state at the time of the sale; or

(b) The taxpayer is a resident partnership, estate or trust or individual of this state or has a commercial domicile in this state and the taxpayer is not taxable in the state in which the property has a situs.

(3) Capital gains and losses from sales or exchanges of intangible personal property are allocable to this state if the taxpayer is a resident partnership, estate or trust or individual of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-14. Specific Allocation of Interest and Dividend Income. Interest and dividends are allocable to this state if the taxpayer is a resident partnership, estate or trust or individual of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-15. Specific Allocation of Income From Patents and Copyrights. (1) Patent and copyright royalties are allocable to this state:

(a) If and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in this state; or

(b) If and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the taxpayer is a resident partnership, estate or trust or individual of this state.

(2) A patent is utilized in a state to the extent that it is employed in production, fabrication, manufacturing or other processing in the state or to the extent that a patented product is produced in the state. If the basis of receipts from patent royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the patent is utilized in this state if the taxpayer is a resident partnership, estate or trust or individual.

(3) A copyright is utilized in a state to the extent that printing or other publication originates in the state. If the basis of receipts from copyright royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the copyright is utilized in this state if the taxpayer is a resident partnership, estate or trust or individual.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-16. Apportionment of Business Income. All business income, other than income from transportation services, and financial organizations, shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, excluding any negligible factor and the denominator of which is 3 reduced by the number of negligible factors. "Negligible factor" means a factor the denominator of which is less than 10% of 1/3 of the taxpayer's business income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-17. Property Factor. The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned and used or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned and used or rented and used in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-18. Valuation of Property; Rented Property. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals but not less than zero.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-19. Average Value of Property. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the director may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-20. Payroll Factor. The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in the state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-21. Compensation Paid Within State. Compensation is paid in this state if:

(1) The individual's service is performed entirely within the state; or

(2) The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

(3) Some of the service is performed in the state and (a) the base of operations, or if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or

(b) the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-22. Sales Factor. The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax year and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

"Sales", as used in this section means all gross receipts from:

- (1) Sales of tangible personal property;
- (2) Rentals of tangible personal property;
- (3) Sales of real property held for sale in the ordinary course of a taxpayer's trade or business;
- (4) Rentals of real property; and
- (5) Sales of services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-23. Sales of Tangible Personalty, Real Property, Rentals and Services Within State. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

(1) The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

(2) The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory or other place of storage in this state and (a) the purchaser is the United States government or (b) the taxpayer is not taxable in the state of the purchaser.

(3) The sale is made from an office located in this state to a purchaser (including the United States government) in another state in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the property is shipped to the purchaser from a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable.

(4) Sales and rentals of real property are in this state if the property is located in this state.

(5) Rentals of tangible personal property are in this state to the extent that the property is used in this state.

(6) Sales of services are in this state to the extent that the service is performed in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-24. Interstate Transportation

Services. The taxable income of a taxpayer whose income-producing activities consist of transportation services rendered partly within this state and partly within another state shall be determined under the provisions of sections 82A-25 through 82A-28.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-25. Interstate Transportation Other Than Oil or Gas by Pipeline; Apportionment. In the case of such taxable income other than that derived from the transportation service of oil or gas by pipeline or air carriers, the taxable income attributable to Washington sources is that portion of the net income of the taxpayer derived from transportation services wherever performed that the revenue miles of the taxpayer in Washington bear to the revenue miles of the taxpayer in all the states in which the taxpayer is subject to tax on such services. A revenue mile means the transportation for a consideration or one net ton in weight or one passenger the distance of one mile. The taxable income attributable to Washington sources in the case of a taxpayer engaged in the transportation both of property and of individuals shall be that portion of the entire taxable income of the taxpayer which is equal to the average of his passenger miles and ton mile fractions, separately computed and individually weighted by the ratio of gross receipts from passenger transportation to total gross receipts from all transportation, and by the ratio of gross receipts from freight transportation to total gross receipts from all transportation, respectively. If it is shown to the satisfaction of the director that the foregoing information is not available or cannot be obtained without unreasonable expense to the taxpayer, the director may use such other data which may be available and which in the opinion of the director will result in an equitable apportionment of income to this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-26. Interstate Transportation of Oil by Pipeline; Apportionment. In the case of taxable income derived from the transportation of oil by pipeline, that portion of the taxable income of the taxpayer derived from the pipeline transportation of oil that the barrel miles transported in Washington bear to the barrel miles transported by the taxpayer in all the states in which the taxpayer is subject to tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-27. Interstate Transportation of Gas by Pipeline; Apportionment. In the case of taxable income derived from the transportation of gas by pipeline, taxable income attributable to Washington shall be that portion of the taxable income of the taxpayer derived from the pipeline transportation of gas that the thousand cubic feet miles transported in Washington bear to the thousand cubic feet miles transported by the taxpayer in all the states in which the taxpayer is subject to tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-28. Air Carriers. In the case of taxable income derived by a taxpayer as a carrier by aircraft, the portion of taxable income of such carrier attributable to Washington shall be the average of the following two percentages:

(1) The revenue tons handled by such air carrier at airports within this state for the tax year divided by the total revenue tons handled by such carrier at all airports on its entire system for the same tax year;

(2) The air carrier's originating revenue within this state for the tax year divided by the total originating revenue of such carrier from its entire system for the same tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-29. Financial Organizations: Income Attributable to Washington Sources. The taxable income of a financial organization attributable to Washington sources shall be taken to be:

(1) In the case of taxable income of a taxpayer whose income-producing activities are confined solely to this state, the entire taxable income of such taxpayer.

(2) In the case of taxable income of a taxpayer who conducts income-producing activities as a financial organization partially within and partially without this state, that portion of its taxable income as its gross business in this state is to its gross business in all the states in which the taxpayer is subject to tax during the tax year, which portion shall be determined as the sum of:

(a) Fees, commissions or other compensation for financial services rendered within this state;

(b) Gross profits from trading in stocks, bonds or other securities managed within this state;

(c) Interest and dividends received within this state;

(d) Interest charged to customers at places of business maintained within this state for carrying debit balances of margin accounts, without deduction of any costs incurred in carrying such accounts; and

(e) Any other gross income resulting from the operation as a financial organization within this state, divided by the aggregate amount of such items of the taxpayer everywhere.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-30. Exceptions. If the apportionment provisions of this Title do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's income attributable to this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the director may require, if reasonable:

(1) When the taxpayer carries on two or more businesses, a separate apportionment for each business;

(2) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

(3) The inclusion of one or more additional factors or the substitution of one or more factors; or

(4) The employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable apportionment of the taxpayer's income.

SUBPART E

CREDITS AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TAX

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-31. Exemptions. (1) A person who is exempt from federal income tax pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this Title except:

(a) An organization included under sections 501(c) (12) and 501 (c) (16) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) The unrelated taxable business income of an exempt person as determined under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) This Title shall not apply to a regulated investment company or real estate investment trust as defined in the Internal Revenue Code, except to the extent that such company or trust has taxable income for federal tax purposes.

(3) Nothing in this section shall exempt any person from the withholding and information return provisions of this Title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-32. Dual Residence; Reduction of Tax. If an individual taxpayer is regarded as a resident both of this state and another jurisdiction for purposes of the tax imposed by this Title, the director shall reduce the tax on that portion of the taxpayer's income which is subjected to tax in both jurisdictions solely by virtue of dual residence, provided that the other taxing jurisdiction allows a similar reduction. The reduction shall be in an amount equal to that portion of the lower of the two taxes applicable to the income taxed twice which the tax imposed by this state bears to the combined of the two jurisdictions on the income taxed twice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-33. (1) Credit-Individual, Estate or Trust. A resident individual, estate or trust, in the state of Washington shall be allowed a credit against the taxes imposed by this Title for net income taxes imposed by and paid or accrued to another state or to a foreign country or political subdivision thereof on income taxed under this Title, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The credit shall be allowed only for taxes imposed by such other state or country on net income from sources within such state or country and taxed under the laws thereof.

(b) The amount of such tax credit shall be the smaller of the following two amounts:

(i) the amount of tax actually paid; or

(ii) the product of the Washington tax times a fraction, the numerator of which is that portion of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income actually taxed by such other state or country, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's adjusted gross income as modified by the provisions of section 82A-4.

(c) If, in lieu of a credit, the laws of the state of residence contain a provision exempting a resident of this state from liability for the payment of income taxes on income earned for personal services performed in that state, then the director is authorized to enter into a reciprocal agreement with that state providing a similar tax exemption for its residents on income earned for personal services performed in this state.

(2) Credit-Nonresident Individual, Estate or Trust. (a) A nonresident individual, estate or trust shall be allowed a credit against but not in excess of the tax otherwise due under this Title for the amount of any income tax imposed on him for the taxable year by the state of residence on income from sources therein which is also subject to tax under this Title.

(b) The credit allowed by this subsection shall be allowable only if the laws of the state of residence contain a reciprocal provision which allows credits to residents of this state under similar circumstances.

(3) No credit shall be allowed for any income tax paid to another state or on any income which has not been included in taxable income under this Title for the same tax year and in fact subject to an income tax by this state and by another state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-33(a). The amount of any sales tax or use tax which qualifies under RCW 82.04.435 for credit against business and occupation taxes, shall be allowable as a credit against taxes imposed by this Title, but only to the extent such amount has not been taken as a credit under RCW 82.04.435: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the amount of the credit allowable under this section may not exceed for any taxable year one hundred percent of the credit allowable under RCW 82.04.435 for such taxable year.

SUBPART F

ACCOUNTING PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-34. Combined Reporting; Administrative Adjustments. (1) In the case of a corporation liable to report under this Title owning or controlling, either directly or indirectly, another corporation, or other corporations, except foreign corporations and in the case of a corporation liable to report under this Title and owned or controlled, either directly or indirectly, by another corporation, except foreign corporations the department may require a report showing the combined taxable income and apportionment factors of the controlled group except foreign corporations and other facts as it deems necessary. The department is authorized and empowered, in such manner as it may determine, to assess the tax against the corporations which are liable to report under this Title and whose taxable income is involved in the report upon the basis of the combined entire taxable income and apportionment factors of the controlled group except foreign corporations and other information as it may possess; or it may adjust the tax in such other information as it shall determine to be equitable if it determines such adjustment to be necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or to clearly reflect the taxable income earned by said corporations from business done in this state. Direct or indirect ownership or control of more than fifty percent of the voting stock of a corporation shall constitute ownership or control for purposes of this section.

(2) In the case of a corporation subject to the tax imposed under this Title which computes its federal taxable income, as a common parent or as an affiliate, on a consolidated basis with one or more other corporations, the department may require a separate return computing taxable income as if separate returns had been filed for federal income tax returns and restoring intercompany transactions eliminated for purposes of computing federal taxable income.

(3) In the case of two or more organizations, trades, or businesses (whether or not incorporated, whether or not organized in or having income from sources apportionable to this state, and whether or not affiliated) owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the department may distribute, apportion or allocate income, deductions, credits or allowances between or among such organizations, trades, or businesses, if it determines that such distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or to clearly reflect the income of any of such organizations, trades, or businesses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-35. Method of Accounting. (1) For purposes of the tax imposed under this Title, a person's method of accounting shall be the same method of accounting for federal income tax purposes. If no method of accounting has been regularly used by a person for federal income tax purposes, taxable income under this Title shall be computed by a method of accounting which in the opinion of the department fairly reflects income.

(2) If a person's method of accounting is changed for federal income tax purposes, for purposes of this Title it shall be similarly changed.

(3) It is the intent of this Title that taxable income as defined in this Title for the subject taxpayer be ascertained and returned as provided herein on the same accounting method or methods used by the taxpayer in computing his federal income tax liability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-36. Tax Returns for Partial Year. In the event that the first taxable year of any taxpayer with respect to which a tax is imposed by this Title ends prior to December 31st of the calendar year in which this Title becomes effective (hereinafter referred to as a fractional taxable year), the taxable income for such fractional taxable year shall be the taxpayer's taxable income, computed in accordance with the otherwise applicable provisions of this Title, for the entire taxable year, adjusted as follows:

(1) Such taxable income shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the fractional taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire taxable year; or

(2) If the taxpayer so elects, such taxable income shall be adjusted, in accordance with rules of the department, so as to include only such income and be reduced only by such deductions as are attributable to such fractional taxable year, as can be clearly determined from the permanent records of the taxpayer.

SUBPART G

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-37. Joint Return--Federal Election. A joint return may be filed under the same conditions under which a joint return may be filed for purposes of the federal income tax. Where a joint return is made by husband and wife pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, a joint return shall be made pursuant to this Title. In any case in which a joint return is filed pursuant to this section, the liability of the husband and wife shall be joint and several.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-38. Records; Returns. (1) Every person liable for the tax imposed under this Title, or for the collection thereof shall

(a) keep such records, render such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations as the department may from time to time prescribe (and, whenever in the judgment of the department it is necessary, it may require any person, by notice served upon such person or by regulations, to make such returns, render such statements, or keep such records, as the department deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable for tax under this Title), and

(b) include in any return, declaration, statement or other document required to be filed or furnished to the department, such identifying number as may be prescribed by the department for securing proper identification of such person or of any other person with respect to whom such return, declaration, statement or other document may apply.

(2) All books and records and other papers and documents which are required by or pursuant to this Title to be kept shall, at all times during business hours of the day, be subject to inspection by the department.

(3) Every person subject to this Title required to make a return or declaration relating to the federal income tax under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code shall, unless exempted by the department by notice or regulation, at the same time (including any extensions of time granted by the internal revenue service or allowed by the Internal Revenue Code) render to the department a return or declaration setting forth the following:

(a) The amount of tax due, if any, or overpayment of tax, if any, as reported on returns, including declarations of estimated tax, filed with the internal revenue service;

(b) The amount of tax due under this Title, if any, less credits claimed against tax;

(c) Such other information for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Title as may be prescribed by the department.

(4) All of the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code relating to the manner in which returns shall be signed, the verification of returns, presumption of authenticity of signatures, the time when a return is deemed filed, the power of the secretary or his delegate to prepare and execute returns and the power of the secretary or his delegate to prescribe forms shall apply to the taxes imposed under this Title. The department shall, by regulations, prescribe the place for the filing of any return, declaration, statement or other document or copies thereof, required by this Title or by regulations.

The return shall contain a written declaration that it is made under the penalty of perjury, and the department may prescribe forms accordingly, and such statement shall entail the penalties of perjury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-39. Federal Return: Copy. Any taxpayer, may be required by the department to furnish to the department a true and correct copy of any federal tax return which he has filed and any report or other document filed with the internal revenue service or received from the internal revenue service relating to the computation of or adjustment to the taxpayer's federal income tax liability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-40. Time and Manner of Payment. The time and manner of the payment of the tax imposed by this Title shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code (including the provisions relating to installment payments of estimated income tax) and the regulations promulgated thereunder providing for the time and manner of the payment of the federal income tax: PROVIDED, That the department by regulation may make such modifications and exceptions to such provisions as it deems necessary to facilitate the prompt and efficient collection of the tax. All of the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code relating to the assessment of income tax (including the authority to assess and the mode, time and method of assessment), jeopardy assessments, notices and demand for payment and extensions of time for payment shall apply to the tax imposed by this Title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-41. Administration; Overpayments; Credit or Refund; Deficiencies; Penalties; Liens. (1) The department is authorized to credit or refund all overpayments of taxes, all taxes erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, all penalties collected without authority, and all taxes that are found unjustly assessed or excessive in amount, or in any manner wrongfully collected. The department shall by means of rules and regulations specify the manner in which claims for credits or refunds shall be made, prescribe limitations and give notice of allowance or disallowance. These rules and regulations shall be based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to overpayments, including the authority to make credits or refunds, the definition thereof, overpayments of installments, abatement authority, date of allowance, tentative carryback adjustments, refunds of withheld tax, and limitations on refunds or credits or suits therefor, all of which shall apply to the tax imposed by this Title.

(2) All the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code relating to liens for income taxes, including periods of lien, validity and priority against certain persons, release of lien and discharge of property, and all the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code relating to seizure of property for collection of income taxes, including those relating to levy and distraint, surrender of property subject to levy, production of books, property exempt from levy, sale of seized property, sale of perishable goods, redemption of property, legal effect of certificate of sale of personal property and deed of real property, records of sale, expense of levy and sale, application of proceeds of levy, and authority to release levy and return property, shall apply to the taxes imposed under this Title.

(3) Those additions to the tax, additional amounts, and assessable penalties imposed under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code for failure to file a tax return or to pay the tax (other than the fifty percent addition to tax for fraudulent failure to pay the tax and the five percent addition to the tax for negligent underpayments), failure to pay estimated income tax, and failure to make deposit of taxes, shall be imposed with respect to the tax imposed under this Title, at the same rates and computed in the same manner, and with the same exceptions, as are set forth in the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) The powers conferred and duties imposed upon the department and the state treasurer with respect to the administration of chapter 82.04 RCW by RCW 82.32.110, 82.32.120, 82.32.130, 82.32.320, 82.32.340, and 82.32.380 shall be applicable to the administration of the taxes imposed pursuant to this Title.

(5) The department shall, by regulation, establish procedures for administrative conferences with respect to proposed assessments of deficiencies and applications for refunds or credits, which regulations shall conform, so far as practicable, with the provisions of RCW 82.32.160 and 82.32.170.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-42. Period of Limitations. The same period of limitation upon the assessment and collection of taxes imposed under this Title and the same exceptions thereto and suspensions thereof shall apply as are provided in the Internal Revenue Code relating to the federal income tax: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if a taxpayer fails to report pursuant to section 82A-39 of this Title, a change or correction increasing his federal taxable income, or fails to report a change or correction which is treated in the same manner as if it were a deficiency for federal income tax purposes, an assessment may be made at any time within one year of the date on which the department first learned of the correction: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the running of the statute of limitations shall be suspended for the period pending final determination of litigation of or hearing on a taxpayer's federal income tax return and for sixty days thereafter: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the event a report of change or correction increasing federal taxable income is made, the running of the statute of limitations shall be suspended for a period of one year after such report is made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-43. Evasion Penalty. Any person required to collect, truthfully account for, and pay over any tax imposed by this Title who wilfully fails to collect such tax, or truthfully account for and pay over such tax, or wilfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be liable to a penalty equal to the total amount of the tax evaded, or not collected, or not accounted for and paid over.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-44. Interest on Refund and Deficiencies. Interest on underpayments and erroneous refunds shall be paid by the taxpayer, and on overpayments shall be paid by the department, at the rate of six percent per annum, computed in the manner and in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code relating thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-45. Transferee Liability. The provisions of the Internal Revenue Code relating to the liability of transferees of property and of fiduciaries, including those relating to the imposition of liability, the method of collection and the period of limitation, shall apply to the taxes imposed under this Title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-46. Employer Withholding Requirements.

(1) Every employer making a payment of wages or salaries earned in this state shall deduct and withhold a tax in such amount as shall be prescribed in tables promulgated by the department to reasonably reflect the tax liability of the employee under this Title, and which shall be computed by the department in such a manner as to result as closely as possible in annual withholding of the taxpayer's annual tax liability. Every employer making a deduction and withholding as outlined above, shall furnish to the employee a record of the amount of tax withheld from such employee on forms to be prescribed upon request and furnished by the department. Remittance of taxes withheld shall be made at such times and in such manner as are prescribed by regulations to be prescribed by the department, which regulations insofar as practicable shall be in conformity with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations adopted thereunder.

(2) If the employee is a resident of this state and earns income from personal services entirely performed in another state which imposes an income tax on such income and the employer is required by the laws of the state in which such income is earned to withhold state income taxes for such state and does in fact do so, the employer shall not be required to withhold any tax imposed by this Title on such income (provided the laws of the state in which such income is earned allows a similar exemption for its residents who earn such income in this state).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-47. Liability of Employer for Tax Withheld. Every employer or any other person required under any provisions of the Internal Revenue Code to deduct and withhold taxes from wages or salaries making payments of wages or salaries earned in this state, regardless of the place where such payment is made, shall be liable for the payment of the tax required to be deducted and withheld under section 82A-46 of this Title and shall not be liable to any individual for the amount of any such payment. Whenever any person is required to collect or withhold the tax imposed under this Title from any other person and to pay over such tax to the department, the amount of tax so collected or withheld shall be held to be a special fund in trust for this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-48. Withholding by Governmental Entity. If the employer is the United States or this state or any political subdivision thereof, or an agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing, the return of the amount deducted and withheld upon any wages or salaries may be made by any officer of said employer having control of the payment of such wages and salaries or appropriately designated for that purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-49. Credit for Tax Withheld: How Claimed. The amount so deducted and withheld as tax under sections

82A-46 through 82A-48 of this Title during any taxable year shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed for such taxable year by this Title. If the tax liability of any individual shown by the return is less than the total amount of the credit which he is entitled to claim pursuant to this section, such individual shall be entitled to a refund in the amount of the excess of the credit over the net income tax otherwise due. If any individual entitled to claim a credit pursuant to this section is not otherwise required by this Title to file a return, a refund may be obtained in the amount of such credit by filing a return, completed insofar as may be applicable, and claiming such refund. No credit or refund shall be allowed pursuant to this section unless such credit or refund is claimed on a return filed for the taxable year for which such amount was so deducted and withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-50. Closing Agreements and Compromises. The provisions of the Internal Revenue Code relating to closing agreements and compromises shall apply to the taxes imposed under this Title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-51. Service of Process. (1) Any person who incurs tax liability under this Title, and who removes from this state or conceals his whereabouts, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state of this state his agent for service of process or notice in any judicial or administrative proceeding under this Title. Such process or notice shall be served by the department on the secretary of state by leaving, at the office of the secretary of state, at least fifteen days before the return day of such process or notice, a true and certified copy thereof, and by sending to the person by registered or certified mail, a like and true certified copy with an endorsement thereon of the service upon said secretary of state, addressed to such person at his last known address.

(2) Service of process or notice in the manner and under the circumstances provided in this section, shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon the person personally within this state. Proof of such service may be made in such judicial or administrative proceeding by the affidavit of the authorized agent of the department who made such service, with a copy of the process or notice that was so served attached to such affidavit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-52. Deficiency Procedures. All of the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code relating to income tax deficiency procedures, including the provisions thereof relating to notice of deficiency, tax court jurisdiction to review deficiencies, and procedures for invoking such jurisdiction shall apply to the tax imposed under this Title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-53. Board of Tax Appeals Jurisdiction.

Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the state board of tax appeals to review income tax deficiencies. In all cases in which the board has jurisdiction under this section:

(1) The taxpayer or the department may elect either a formal or informal hearing, such election to be made according to rules of practice and procedure to be promulgated by the board; and

(2) The provisions of RCW 82.03.100 through 82.03.120 and RCW 82.03.150 through 82.03.170 shall be applicable with respect to hearings and decisions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-54. Judicial Review on Appeal From Board. Within thirty days after the final decision of the board in a case in which it has jurisdiction and in which a formal hearing has been elected, the taxpayer or the department may appeal to the court of appeals. Such appeal shall be perfected by filing with the clerk of the court of appeals a petition for review and by serving a copy thereof by mail or personally on the opposing party. The petitioner shall pay the costs of preparing the record of the hearing, and thereafter the board shall file with the clerk of the court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review. The provisions of RCW 34.04.130 (6) shall be applicable to such review, and a bond shall be required for such review if requested by the department. The appropriate division of the court of appeals in which the petition for review is to be filed shall be, at the option of the petitioner, either division II or that division containing the district in which there is located the petitioner's residence or principal place of business. The method of judicial review of the Board of Tax Appeals decision provided for herein shall be exclusive: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall be construed to prevent an appeal from the court of appeals to the state supreme court in the same manner as in other civil cases: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing herein shall be construed to allow judicial review of a final decision of the board in which a formal hearing has not been elected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-55. Rules and Regulations. The department shall have the power to make and publish rules and regulations in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW for the administration and enforcement of this Title, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Title. The rules insofar as possible without being inconsistent with the provisions of this Title, shall follow the rulings of the United States internal revenue service with respect to the federal income tax, and the department may adopt as a part of such rules any portions of the Internal Revenue Code or rulings, in whole or in part.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-56. Judicial Review of Claim for Refund. Any person having filed a claim for refund or credit of any tax, penalty, or other sum collected pursuant to this Title may, within the applicable period of limitation provided for in section 82A-41 of this Title, sue for a refund or credit of such tax, penalty or other sum in the superior court of Thurston county. All procedures and rights of appeal governing other civil actions shall be applicable to such proceedings. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any tax payment which has been the subject of an appeal to the state board of tax appeals with respect to which appeal a formal hearing has been held.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-57. Confidential Nature of Tax Information. Except as hereinafter provided it shall be unlawful for the department of revenue or any member, deputy, clerk, agent, employee, or representative thereof or any other person to make known or reveal any facts or information contained in any return filed by any taxpayer or disclosed in any investigation or examination of the taxpayer's books and records made in connection with the administration hereof. The foregoing, however, shall not be construed to prohibit the department of revenue or a member or employee thereof from: (1) Giving such facts or information in evidence in any court action involving tax imposed hereunder or involving a violation of the provisions hereof or involving another state department or agency and the taxpayer; (2) giving such facts and information to the taxpayer or his duly authorized agent; (3) publishing statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns or reports or items thereof; (4) giving any such facts or information to the proper officer of the internal revenue service of the United States or to the proper officer of the tax department of any state, for official purposes, but only if the statutes of the United States or of such other state, as the case may be, grant substantially similar privileges to the proper officers of this state; or (5) giving any such facts or information to the Department of Justice or the army or navy departments of the United States, or any authorized representative thereof, for official purposes; or (6) giving any such facts or information to the Multistate Tax Commission or any authorized representative thereof for any official purposes of the Multistate Tax Commission including the conducting of audits on behalf of this state or any other state.

Any person acquiring knowledge of such facts or information in the course of his employment with the department of revenue and any person acquiring knowledge of such facts and information as provided under subsections (4), (5) and (6) above, who reveals or makes known any such facts or information to another not entitled to knowledge of such facts or information under the provisions of this section, shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars and, if the offender or person guilty of such violation is an officer or employee of the state, he shall forfeit such office or employment and shall be incapable of holding any public office or employment in this state for a period of two years thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82A-58. Tax Compact. To the extent that Article IV of chapter 82.56 RCW (Multistate Tax Compact) is in conflict with the allocation and apportion rules contained herein such Article is hereby superseded.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. An aggregate amount equal to no less than four percent of the collections of the state imposed net income tax (said collections to be computed on the basis of the rates, individual and corporate, contained in the act initially adopting a net income tax) shall be placed in a special account in the state general fund to be used exclusively for distribution, as provided by law to municipal corporations other than school districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. Effective Date. The provisions of this 1973 amendatory act shall take effect on January 1, 1974 if the proposed amendment to Article 7 of the state Constitution authorizing the legislature to impose a tax upon net income and to authorize property tax relief is validly submitted and is approved and ratified by the voters at a general election held in November, 1973. If such proposed amendment is not so submitted and approved and ratified, this 1973 amendatory act shall be null and void in its entirety.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 71.12.560, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.12.560 are each amended to read as follows:

The person in charge of any private institution, hospital, or sanitarium which is conducted for, or includes a department or ward conducted for, the care and treatment of persons who are mentally ill or deranged may receive ((and detain)) therein as a voluntary patient any person suffering from mental illness or derangement who is a suitable person for care and treatment in the institution, hospital, or sanitarium, who voluntarily makes a written application to the person in charge for admission into the institution, hospital or sanitarium, and who is at the time of making the application mentally competent to make the application. Upon the admission of a voluntary patient to a private institution, hospital, or sanitarium, the person in charge shall immediately forward to the office of the department of social and health services a record of the voluntary patient showing the name, residence, age, sex, place of birth, occupation, marital status, date of admission to the institution, hospital, or sanitarium, and such other information as may be required by rule of the department of social and health services. ((No voluntary patient in a private institution, hospital, or sanitarium shall be detained therein for more than ten days after having given notice, in writing, to the person in charge of the institution, hospital, or sanitarium of his desire to leave the institution, hospital, or sanitarium.))

No person in an establishment as defined in this chapter shall be restrained from sending written communications of the fact of his detention in such establishment to a friend, relative, or other person. The physician in charge of such person and the person in charge of such establishment shall send each such communication to the person to whom it is addressed. ((if, however, the person in charge finds it inadvisable to send any such communication because it contains other matter which would do harm to the reputation of, and would later cause mental anguish to the person detained; or if the physician finds it impossible to send any such communication within twenty-four hours; then both the physician in charge of the patient and the person in charge of the establishment shall give notice of the detention of such patient to the prosecuting attorney of the county from which the patient came at the time of admission and the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the establishment is located; and the person to whom such communication was addressed; and to the department of health; giving the name and address of the patient and the names and addresses of the person or persons who arranged for his admission and stating the facts of the attempted communication and the reason for withholding it. Such prosecuting attorney or prosecuting attorneys shall investigate the detention of such patient and advise the patient concerning his legal rights and shall report in full concerning said patient to the department of health. The person in charge of the establishment may detain a patient only when there has been compliance with the provisions of this section.) All persons in an establishment as defined by chapter 71.12 RCW shall have no less than all rights secured to involuntarily detained persons by sections 41 and 42 of this 1973 amendatory act and to voluntarily admitted or committed persons pursuant to sections 10 and 43 of this 1973 amendatory act.

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Mentally ill person" shall mean any person ((found to be suffering from psychosis or other disease impairing his mental health; and the symptoms of such disease are of a suicidal, homicidal; or incendiary nature; or of such nature which would render such person dangerous to his own life or to the lives or property of others)) who, pursuant to the definitions contained in section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act, as a result of a mental disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself or is gravely disabled.

"Patient" shall mean a person under observation, care or treatment in a state hospital, or a person found mentally ill by the court, and not discharged from a state hospital, or other facility, to which such person had been ordered hospitalized.

"Licensed physician" shall mean an individual licensed as a physician under the laws of the state, or a medical officer, similarly qualified, of the government of the United States while in this state in performance of his official duties.

"State hospital" shall mean any hospital operated and maintained by the state of Washington for the care of the mentally ill.

"Superintendent" shall mean the superintendent of a state hospital.

"Court" shall mean the superior court of the state of Washington.

"Resident" shall mean a resident of the state of Washington ((who has maintained his domiciliary residence within this state for a period of two years immediately preceding commitment)).

Wherever used in this chapter, the masculine shall include the feminine and the singular shall include the plural.

Sec. 4. Section 72.23.070, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 50, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 72.23.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to rules and regulations established by the department, ((the superintendent of)) a state hospital may receive ((and detain)) any person who is((; in his opinion)) a suitable person for care and treatment as mentally ill, or for observation as to the existence of mental illness, upon the receipt of a written application of the person, or others on his behalf, in accordance with the following requirements:

(1) In the case of a person eighteen years of age or over, the application shall be voluntarily made by the person, at a time when he is in such condition of mind as to render him aware of the significance of his act;

(2) In the case of a person under eighteen years of age, the application shall be made by his parents, or by the parent, conservator, guardian, or other person entitled to his custody. A person under eighteen years of age received into a state hospital as a voluntary patient shall not be retained after he reaches eighteen years of age, but such person, upon reaching eighteen years of age, may apply for admission into a state hospital as a voluntary patient:

(3) In the case of a person eighteen years of age or over for whom a conservator or guardian of the person has been appointed, such application shall be made by said conservator or guardian, when so authorized by proper court order in the conservatorship or guardianship proceedings.

It shall be the policy of the department to permit liberal use of the foregoing sections for the admission of those cases that can be benefited by treatment and returned to normal life and mental condition, in the opinion of the superintendent, within a period of six months. No person shall be carried as a voluntary patient for a period of more than one year. ((No person shall be admitted as a voluntary patient who has not been a resident of the state of Washington for a period of two years immediately preceding application for admission.))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. The provisions of this chapter are intended by the legislature:

(1) To end inappropriate, indefinite commitment of mentally disordered persons and to eliminate legal disabilities that arise from such commitment;

(2) To provide prompt evaluation and short term treatment of persons with serious mental disorders;

(3) To safeguard individual rights;

(4) To provide continuity of care for persons with serious mental disorders;

(5) To encourage the full use of all existing agencies, professional personnel, and public funds to prevent duplication of services and unnecessary expenditures;

(6) To encourage, whenever appropriate, that services be provided within the community.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. DEFINITIONS. For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Gravely disabled" means a condition in which a person, as a result of a mental disorder is in danger of serious physical harm resulting from a failure to provide for his essential human needs;

(2) "Mental disorder" means any organic, mental, or emotional impairment which has substantial adverse effects on an individual's cognitive or volitional functions;

(3) "Likelihood of serious harm" means either (a) a substantial risk that physical harm will be inflicted by an individual upon his own person, as evidenced by threats or attempts to commit suicide or inflict physical harm on one's self, or (b) a substantial risk that physical harm will be inflicted by an individual upon another, as evidenced by behavior which has caused such harm or which places another person or persons in reasonable fear of sustaining such harm;

(4) "Peace officer" means a law enforcement official of a public agency or governmental unit, and includes persons specifically given peace officer powers by any state law, local ordinance, or judicial order of appointment;

(5) "Judicial commitment" means a commitment by a court pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

(6) "Public agency" means any evaluation and treatment facility of, or operated directly by, federal, state, county, or municipal government, or a combination of such governments;

(7) "Private agency" means any person, partnership, corporation, or association not defined as a public agency, whether or not financed in whole or in part by public funds, which constitutes an evaluation and treatment facility;

(8) "Attending staff" means any person on the staff of a public or private agency having responsibility for the care and treatment of a patient;

(9) "Department" means the department of social and health services of the state of Washington;

(10) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services, or his designee;

(11) "Mental health professional" means a psychiatrist, psychologist, psychiatric nurse, or social worker, and such other mental health professionals as may be defined by rules and regulations adopted by the secretary pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

(12) "Professional person" shall mean a mental health professional, as above defined, and shall also mean a physician, registered nurse, and such others as may be defined by rules and regulations adopted by the secretary pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

(13) "Psychiatrist" means a person having a license as a physician and surgeon in this state who has in addition completed three years of graduate training in psychiatry in a program approved by the American medical association or the American osteopathic association;

(14) "Psychologist" means a person with an earned graduate degree in psychology or a graduate degree deemed its equivalent under rules and regulations adopted by the secretary or who has been licensed as a psychologist pursuant to chapter 18.83 RCW;

(15) "Social worker" means a person with a master's or further advanced degree from an accredited school of social work or a degree from a graduate school deemed equivalent under rules and regulations adopted by the secretary;

(16) "Evaluation and treatment facility" means any facility which can provide directly, or by direct arrangement with other public or private agencies, emergency evaluation and treatment, outpatient care, and short term inpatient care to persons suffering from a mental disorder, and which is certified as such by the department of social and health services: PROVIDED, That a physically separate and separately operated portion of a state hospital may be designated as an evaluation and treatment facility: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a facility which is part of, or operated by, the department of social and health services or any federal agency will not require certification: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no correctional institution or facility, or jail, shall be an evaluation and treatment facility within the meaning of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. COMMITMENT LAW APPLICABLE. (1) Persons suffering from a mental disorder may not be involuntarily committed for treatment of such disorder except pursuant to provisions of this chapter, chapter 10.76 RCW or its successor, chapter 71.06 RCW, transfer pursuant to RCW 72.68.031 through 72.68.037, or pursuant to court ordered evaluation and treatment not to exceed ninety days pending a criminal trial or sentencing. Persons impaired by chronic alcoholism or drug abuse may receive services pursuant to this chapter if they so elect.

(2) No person under the age of eighteen years shall be involuntarily provided with, detained, certified, or committed for evaluation or treatment pursuant to the provisions of this chapter unless written authorization has been obtained from such person's parent, parents, conservator, or legal guardian, or pursuant to proceedings of the juvenile court under chapter 13.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. NO JUDICIAL COMMITMENT--EPILEPTIC --MENTALLY DEFICIENT OR RETARDED--SENILE. Persons who are epileptics, mentally deficient, mentally retarded, or senile shall not be detained for evaluation and treatment or judicially committed solely by reason of that condition unless such condition causes a person to be gravely disabled or constitutes a likelihood of serious harm to others.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. VOLUNTARY APPLICATION FOR MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit the right of any person to apply voluntarily to any public or private agency or practitioner for treatment of a mental disorder, either by direct application or by referral. Any person voluntarily admitted for inpatient treatment to any public or private agency shall be released immediately upon his request. Any person voluntarily admitted for inpatient treatment to any public or private agency shall, orally and in writing, be advised of such right to release and such other rights as are secured to them pursuant to this chapter and their rights of access to attorneys, courts, and other legal redress. Their condition and status shall be reviewed at least once each one hundred eighty days for evaluation as to the need for further treatment and/or possible release, at which time they shall again be advised of their right to release upon request.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. RIGHTS OF PERSONS COMPLAINED AGAINST. A person subject to confinement resulting from any petition or proceeding pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall not forfeit any legal right or suffer any legal disability as a consequence of any actions taken or orders made, other than as specifically provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. PRAYER TREATMENT. The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to deny to any person treatment by spiritual means through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practices of a church or religious denomination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. EFFECT ON PENDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON PERSONS PREVIOUSLY COMMITTED. Except as herein provided, the provisions of this chapter shall not in themselves impair any action taken in any proceeding pending under statutes in effect prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act, nor shall they apply retroactively to terminate the detention of any person previously committed pursuant to statutes in effect prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act. One hundred twenty days after the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act, the provisions of section 37(2) of this 1973 amendatory act shall apply to all persons previously committed pursuant to chapter 71.02 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. CHOICE OF PHYSICIANS. Persons receiving evaluation or treatment under this chapter shall be given a reasonable choice of physician or other professional person providing such services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY. In addition to the responsibility provided for by RCW 71.02.411, any person, or his estate, or his spouse, or the parents of a minor person who is involuntarily detained pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of treatment and evaluation outside of a facility maintained and operated by the department of social and health services shall be responsible for the cost of such care and treatment. In the event that an individual is unable to pay for such treatment or in the event payment would result in a substantial hardship upon the individual or his family, then the county of residence of such person shall be responsible for such costs. If it is not possible to determine the county of residence of the person, the cost shall be borne by the county where the person was originally detained. The county mental health administrative board shall, as part of its annual community mental health program plan, adopt standards as to (1) inability to pay in whole or in part, (2) a definition of substantial hardship, and (3) appropriate payment schedules. Financial responsibility with respect to department services and facilities shall continue to be as provided in chapter 71.02 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. COMPENSATION OF APPOINTED COUNSEL. Attorneys appointed for persons pursuant to this chapter shall be compensated for their services as follows: (1) The person for whom an attorney is appointed shall, if he is financially able pursuant to standards as to financial capability and indigency set by the superior court of the county in which the proceeding is held, bear the costs of such legal services; (2) If such person is indigent pursuant to such standards, the costs of such services shall be borne by the county in which the proceeding is held, subject however to the responsibility for costs provided in section 37(2) of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. EXEMPTIONS FROM LIABILITY. No public or private officer or agency initiating or providing treatment pursuant to this chapter, nor the superintendent, professional person in charge, his professional designee, or attending staff of any such agency, nor peace officer responsible for detaining a person pursuant to this chapter shall be civilly or criminally liable for performing duties prescribed by this chapter or releasing a person at or before the end of the period for which he was admitted or committed for evaluation or treatment: PROVIDED, That such duties were performed in good faith and without negligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. DUTY OF PROSECUTING ATTORNEY. In any judicial proceeding for involuntary commitment or detention, or in any proceeding challenging such commitment or detention, the prosecuting attorney for the county in which the proceeding was initiated shall represent the individuals or agencies petitioning for commitment or detention and shall defend all challenges to such commitment or detention.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. RECORDS MAINTAINED. A record of all applications, petitions, and proceedings under this chapter shall be maintained by the county clerk in which the application, petition, or proceeding was initiated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. DETENTION OF MENTALLY DISORDERED PERSONS FOR EVALUATION AND TREATMENT. (1) (a) When a mental health professional designated by the county receives information alleging that a person, as a result of a mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself, or is gravely disabled, such mental health professional, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged, and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons, if any, providing information to initiate detention, may summon such person to appear at an evaluation and treatment facility for not more than a seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment period. The mental health professional shall also designate, from a list provided by the court, an attorney who will be appointed, if any is to be appointed, and state the name of this attorney in the summons.

(b) The summons shall state a date and time to appear not less than twenty-four hours after the summons, notice of rights, and statement of specific facts required by section 25 of this 1973 amendatory act is served on such person. The summons shall state the address of the evaluation and treatment facility to which such person is to report and the business address and phone number of the mental health professional designated by the county. The summons shall state that if the person named in the summons fails to appear at the evaluation and treatment facility at or before the date and time stated in the summons, such person may be involuntarily taken into custody.

(c) If such mental health professional decides to summon such person for up to a seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment period, the mental health professional must file in court the summons, the petition for initial detention, and all documentary evidence. The mental health professional shall then serve or cause to be served on such person, his guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the summons together with a notice of rights and a statement of specific facts as required by section 25 of this 1973 amendatory act. After service on such person the mental health professional shall file the return of service and statement of specific facts in court and provide copies of all papers in the court file to the evaluation and treatment facility. This shall constitute an application as required by section 21 of this 1973 amendatory act. The mental health professional shall notify the court and the prosecuting attorney that a probable cause hearing will be held within seventy-two hours of the date and time specified on the summons if such person is not released prior to the expiration of such period.

(d) If the person summoned appears on or before the date and time specified, the evaluation and treatment facility shall admit such person as required by section 22 of this 1973 amendatory act. If the person summoned fails to appear on or before the date and time specified, the evaluation and treatment facility shall immediately notify the mental health professional designated by the county who may notify a peace officer to take such person or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility. At the time such person is taken into custody there shall be served on such person, his guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the original summons together with a copy of the notice and statement of specific facts required by section 25 of this 1973 amendatory act.

(2) When a mental health professional designated by the county receives information alleging that a person, as the result of a mental disorder, presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm to himself or others, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing the information if any, the mental health professional may take such person, or cause such person to be taken into emergency custody in an evaluation and treatment facility for not more than seventy-two hours as described in section 23 of this 1973 amendatory act.

(3) A peace officer may take such person or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility pursuant to subsection (1) (d) of this section.

A peace officer may, without prior notice of the proceedings provided for in subsection (1) of this section, take or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility only pursuant to subsections (1) (d) and (2) of this section or when such person is subject to lawful arrest and as a result of mental disorder presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm to others or himself.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. APPLICATION. Any facility receiving a person pursuant to section 20 of this 1973 amendatory act shall require an application in writing stating the circumstances under which the person's condition was made known and stating that such officer or person has evidence, as a result of his personal observation or investigation, that the actions of the person for which application is made constitute a likelihood of serious harm to himself or others, or that he is gravely disabled, and stating the specific facts known to him as a result of his personal observation or investigation, upon which he bases the belief that such person should be detained for the purposes and under the authority of this chapter.

If a person is involuntarily placed in an evaluation and treatment facility pursuant to section 20 of this 1973 amendatory act, not later than seventy-two hours after the initial detention, the professional staff of the facility or the mental health professional designated by the county shall file with the court either the application, a copy of the notice required by section 25 of this 1973 amendatory act, proof of service of notice, and the statement of specific facts, or a copy of the second notice and statement of specific facts served on such person as required by section 20(1)(d) of this 1973 amendatory act and proof of service of the second notice, if proceedings are initiated under section 20(1)(d) of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. ACCEPTANCE OF APPLICATION. Whenever such an application is made for admission of a person whose actions constitute a likelihood of serious harm to himself or others, or who is gravely disabled, the facility providing seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment must immediately accept such application and the person. The facility shall then evaluate the person's condition and admit or release such person in accordance with section 26 of this 1973 amendatory act. The facility shall notify the court of the date and time of the initial detention of each person involuntarily detained in order that a probable cause hearing shall be held no later than seventy-two hours after detention.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. DETENTION FOR EVALUATION--SERVICES

PROVIDED. If the evaluation and treatment facility admits the person, it may detain him for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. PERSONS NOT ADMITTED--TRANSPORTATION. If an application is not approved for admission by a facility providing seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment, the facility shall furnish transportation, if not otherwise available, for the person to his place of residence or other appropriate place.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. NOTICE AND STATEMENT OF RIGHTS--PROBABLE CAUSE HEARING. (1) Whenever any person is detained for evaluation and treatment pursuant to this chapter, both he and, if possible, a responsible member of his immediate family, guardian, and conservator, if any, shall be immediately advised in writing and orally, by the officer or person taking him into custody, if any, and by personnel of the evaluation and treatment facility to which he is taken that unless he is released within seventy-two hours of the initial detention:

(a) That a judicial hearing in a district justice court or in a superior court, either by a judge or court commissioner thereof, shall be held not more than seventy-two hours after the initial detention to determine whether there is probable cause to detain him after the seventy-two hours have expired for up to an additional fourteen days without further automatic hearing for the reason that he is a mentally ill person whose mental disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself or that he is gravely disabled;

(b) That he has a right to communicate immediately with an attorney; he has a right to have an attorney appointed to represent him before and at the probable cause hearing if he is indigent; and he has the right to be told the name and address of the attorney the court has designated pursuant to this chapter;

(c) That he has the right to remain silent and that any statement he makes may be used against him;

(d) That he has the right to present evidence and to cross-examine witnesses who testify against him at the probable cause hearing; and

(e) That he has the right to refuse medication beginning twenty-four hours prior to the probable cause hearing.

(2) When proceedings are initiated under section 20 (2) or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act, no later than twelve hours after such person is admitted to the evaluation and treatment facility the personnel of the evaluation and treatment facility shall serve on such person a statement of specific facts alleged to have caused such person's present detention and possible future detention. This statement of specific facts may be taken directly from the application of the peace officer required by section 21 of this 1973 amendatory act.

(3) The judicial hearing described in subsection (1) of this section is hereby authorized, and shall be held according to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section and rules promulgated by the supreme court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. EVALUATION--TREATMENT AND CARE--RELEASE OR OTHER DISPOSITION. Each person involuntarily admitted to an evaluation and treatment facility shall, within twenty-four hours of his admission, be examined and evaluated by a licensed physician and licensed mental health professional unless a licensed mental health professional is not reasonably available, and shall receive such treatment and care as his condition requires for the period that he is detained, except that, beginning twenty-four hours prior to a court proceeding, the individual may refuse all but emergency life-saving treatment, and the individual shall be informed at an appropriate time of his right to such refusal of treatment. Such person shall be detained up to seventy-two hours, if, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, or his professional designee, the person presents a likelihood of serious harm to himself or others, or is gravely disabled. A person who has been detained for seventy-two hours shall no later than the end of such period be either released, referred for further care on a voluntary basis, or certified for intensive treatment.

An evaluation and treatment center admitting any person pursuant to this chapter whose physical condition reveals the need for hospitalization shall assure that such person is transferred to an appropriate hospital for treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. PROPERTY OF COMMITTED PERSON. At the time a person is involuntarily admitted to an evaluation and treatment facility, the professional person in charge or his designee shall take reasonable precautions to inventory and safeguard the personal property of the person detained. A copy of the inventory, signed by the staff member making it, shall be given to the person detained and shall, in addition, be open to inspection to any responsible relative, subject to limitations, if any, specifically imposed by the detained person. For purposes of this section, "responsible relative" includes the guardian, conservator, attorney, spouse, parent, adult child, or adult brother or sister of the person. The facility shall not disclose the contents of the inventory to any other person without the consent of the patient or order of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. PROCEDURES FOR ADDITIONAL TREATMENT. A person detained for seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment may be detained for not more than fourteen additional days of either involuntary intensive treatment or of a less restrictive alternative to involuntary intensive treatment if the following conditions are met:

(1) The professional staff of the agency or facility providing evaluation services has analyzed the person's condition and finds that said condition is caused by mental disorder and either results in a likelihood of serious harm to the person detained or to others, or results in the detained person being gravely disabled; and

(2) The person has been advised of the need for, but has not accepted, voluntary treatment; and

(3) The facility providing intensive treatment is certified to provide such treatment by the department of social and health services; and

(4) The professional staff of the agency or facility or the mental health professional designated by the county has filed a petition for fourteen day involuntary treatment with the court. The petition must be signed either by two physicians or by one physician and a licensed psychologist who have examined the person, unless one of these persons is not reasonably available, in which case another mental health professional who participated in the examination may sign the notice. If involuntary detention is sought the petition shall state facts that support the finding that such person, as a result of mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself, or is gravely disabled and that there are no less restrictive alternatives to detention in the best interest of such person or others; and

(5) A copy of the petition for fourteen day involuntary treatment has been served on the detained person, his attorney and his guardian or conservator, if any, prior to the probable cause hearing; and

(6) The court at the time the petition was filed and before the probable cause hearing has appointed counsel to represent such person if no other counsel has appeared; and

(7) The court has ordered a fourteen day involuntary treatment after a probable cause hearing has been held pursuant to section 29 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. PROBABLE CAUSE HEARING. If a petition is filed for fourteen day involuntary treatment, the court shall hold a probable cause hearing within seventy-two hours of the initial detention of such person. If requested by the detained person or his attorney, the hearing may be postponed for a period not to exceed twenty-four hours.

At the conclusion of the probable cause hearing, if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that such person, as the result of mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself, or is gravely disabled, and, after considering less restrictive alternatives to involuntary detention and treatment, finds that no such alternatives are in the best interests of such person or others, the court shall order that such person be detained for involuntary treatment not to exceed fourteen days in a facility certified to provide treatment by the department of social and health services. If the court finds that such person, as the result of a mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself, or is gravely disabled, but that treatment in a less restrictive setting than detention is in the best interest of such person or others, the court shall order an appropriate less restrictive course of treatment for not to exceed fourteen days.

The court shall specifically state to such person and give such person notice in writing that if involuntary treatment beyond the fourteen day period is to be sought, such person will have the right to a full hearing or jury trial as required by section 36 of this 1973 amendatory act and that if such person requests release from the evaluation and treatment facility during the fourteen day period he will be brought before a court pursuant to section 53 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. PROBABLE CAUSE HEARING-->DETAINED PERSON'S RIGHTS. At the probable cause hearing the detained person shall have the following rights in addition to the rights previously specified:

- (1) To present evidence on his behalf;
- (2) To cross examine witnesses who testify against him;
- (3) To be proceeded against by the rules of evidence;
- (4) To remain silent;
- (5) To view and copy all petitions and reports in the court file.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. RELEASE--EXCEPTION. (1) Involuntary treatment shall be for no more than fourteen days, and shall terminate sooner when, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility or his professional designee, (a) the person no longer constitutes a likelihood of serious harm to himself or others, or (b) no longer is gravely disabled, or (c) is prepared to accept voluntary treatment upon referral, or (d) is to remain in the facility providing intensive treatment on a voluntary basis.

(2) A person who has been detained for fourteen days of intensive treatment shall be released at the end of the fourteen days unless one of the following applies: (a) Such person agrees to receive further treatment on a voluntary basis; or (b) such person is a patient to whom section 33 of this 1973 amendatory act is applicable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. TEMPORARY RELEASE. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the professional person in charge of a treatment facility, or his professional designee, from permitting a person detained for intensive treatment to leave the facility for prescribed periods during the term of the person's detention, under such conditions as may be appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. ADDITIONAL CONFINEMENT--GROUNDS--DURATION. At the expiration of the fourteen day period of intensive treatment, a person may be confined for further treatment pursuant to section 37 of this 1973 amendatory act for an additional period, not to exceed ninety days if:

(1) Such person has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm upon the person of another after having been taken into custody for evaluation and treatment, and, as a result of mental disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm; or

(2) Such person was taken into custody as a result of conduct in which he attempted or inflicted physical harm upon the person of another, and continues to present, as a result of mental disorder, a likelihood of serious harm.

For the purposes of this chapter "custody" shall mean involuntary detention under the provisions of this chapter, uninterrupted by any period of unconditional release from a facility providing involuntary care and treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. PETITION--AFFIDAVIT. At any time during a person's fourteen day intensive treatment period, the professional person in charge of a treatment facility or his professional designee may petition the superior court for an order requiring such person to undergo an additional period of treatment. Such petition must be based on one or more of the grounds set forth in section 33 of this 1973 amendatory act. The petition shall summarize the facts which support the need for further confinement and shall be supported by affidavits signed by two examining physicians, or by one examining physician and examining licensed psychologist unless one of these persons is not reasonably available, in which case another mental health professional who participated in the examination may sign such affidavits. The affidavits shall describe in detail the behavior of the detained person which supports the petition and shall explain what, if any, less restrictive treatments which are alternatives to detention are available to such person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. FILING OF PETITION--SERVICE--ADVICE OF RIGHTS. A petition for ninety day treatment shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court. At the time of filing such petition, the clerk shall set a time for the person to come before the court on the next judicial day after the day of filing, and shall notify the prosecuting attorney. The person filing the petition shall immediately notify the person detained, his attorney, if any, and his guardian or conservator, if any, and provide a copy of the petition to such persons.

At the time set for appearance the detained person shall be brought before the court and the court shall advise him of his right to be represented by an attorney and of his right to a jury trial. If the detained person is not represented by an attorney, or is indigent or is unwilling to retain an attorney, the court shall immediately appoint an attorney to represent him. The court shall, if requested, appoint a reasonably available licensed physician, psychologist, or psychiatrist, designated by the detained person to examine and testify on behalf of the detained person. The court shall also set a date for a full hearing on the petition as provided in section 36 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. TIME FOR HEARING--DUE PROCESS--JURY TRIAL--CONTINUATION OF TREATMENT. The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition for ninety day treatment within four judicial days of the first court appearance after the probable cause hearing unless the person named in the petition requests a jury trial, in which case trial shall commence within ten judicial days of the filing of the petition for ninety day treatment. The court may continue the hearing upon the written request of the person named in the petition or his attorney, which continuance shall not exceed ten additional judicial days. The burden of proof shall be by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence and shall be upon the petitioning facility. The person shall be present at such proceeding, which shall in all respects accord with the constitutional guarantees of due process of law and the rules of evidence.

During the proceeding, the person named in the petition shall continue to be treated until released by order of the superior court. If no order has been made within thirty days after the filing of the petition, not including extensions of time requested by the detained person or his attorney, the detained person shall be released.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. REMAND FOR ADDITIONAL TREATMENT--DURATION--NEW PETITION. (1) If the court or jury finds that the person named in the petition (a) has threatened, attempted, or actually inflicted physical harm upon the person of another after having been taken into custody for evaluation and treatment, and as a result of mental disorder, presents an imminent threat of serious physical harm to others, and that the best interests of the person or others will not be served by a less restrictive treatment which is an alternative to detention; or (b) was taken into custody as a result of attempting to inflict or inflicting physical harm upon the person of another, and as a result of mental disorder presents an imminent threat of serious physical harm to others, and that the best interests of the person or others will not be served by a less restrictive treatment which is an alternative to detention, the court shall remand him to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a facility certified for ninety day treatment by the department of social and health services for a further period of intensive treatment not to exceed ninety days from the date of judgment.

If the court or jury finds that the respondent has committed acts falling within either subsection (1) (a) or (b) of this section, but finds that treatment less restrictive than detention will be in the best interest of the person or others, then the court shall remand him to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a facility certified for ninety day treatment by the department of social and health services for a further period of less restrictive treatment not to exceed ninety days from the date of judgment.

(2) Said person shall be released from involuntary treatment at the expiration of ninety days unless the superintendent or professional person in charge of the facility in which he is confined files a new petition for involuntary treatment on the grounds that the committed person has attempted or actually inflicted physical harm on another during his period of involuntary treatment, and he is a person who, by reason of mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm, and that the best interests of the person or others will not be served by a less restrictive treatment which is an alternative to detention. Such new petition for involuntary treatment shall be filed and heard either in the superior court of the county of the facility which is filing the new petition for involuntary treatment or in the superior court of the county wherein the original petition for involuntary treatment was filed. The cost of the proceedings shall be borne by the county wherein the original petition for involuntary treatment was filed, when such proceedings are had in a county other than the county wherein the petition for involuntary treatment was filed and arrangements shall be made and agreements reached between involved counties for billing and payment arrangements to meet said responsibility.

The hearing shall be held as provided in section 36 of this 1973 amendatory act, and if the court or jury finds that the grounds for additional confinement as set forth in this subsection are present, the court may order the committed person returned for an additional period of treatment not to exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment. At the end of the one hundred eighty day period of commitment, the committed person shall be released unless a petition for another one hundred eighty day period of continued treatment is filed and heard in the same manner as provided herein above. Successive one hundred eighty day commitments are permissible on the same grounds and pursuant to the same procedures as the original one hundred eighty day commitment. No person committed as herein provided may be detained unless a valid order of commitment is in effect. No order of commitment can exceed one hundred eighty days in length.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. EARLY RELEASE--NOTICE TO COURT. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the superintendent or professional person in charge of the hospital or facility in which the person is being involuntarily treated from releasing him prior to the expiration of the commitment period when, in the opinion of the superintendent or professional person in charge, the person being involuntarily treated no longer presents a likelihood of serious harm to others.

Whenever the superintendent or professional person in charge of a hospital or facility providing involuntary treatment pursuant to this chapter releases a person prior to the expiration of ninety days, the superintendent or professional person in charge shall in writing notify the court which committed the person for treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. OUTPATIENT CARE--CONDITIONAL RELEASE--PROCEDURES FOR REVOCATION. (1) When in the opinion of the superintendent or the professional person in charge of the hospital or facility providing involuntary treatment, the committed person can be appropriately served by outpatient care prior to the expiration of the period of commitment, then such outpatient care may be required as a condition for early release for a period which, when added to the inpatient treatment period, shall not exceed the period of commitment. If the hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient care is other than the facility providing involuntary treatment, the outpatient facility so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility.

(2) The hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient care or the secretary may modify the conditions for continued release when such modification is in the best interest of the person.

(3) If the hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient care or the secretary determines that a conditionally released person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his release, and because of that failure has become a substantial danger to himself or other persons, then, upon notification by the hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient care, or on his own motion, the secretary may order that the conditionally released person be apprehended and taken into custody and temporarily detained in an evaluation and treatment facility in or near the county in which he is receiving outpatient treatment until such time, not exceeding five days, as a hearing can be scheduled to determine whether or not the person should be returned to the hospital or facility from which he had been conditionally released. The secretary may modify or rescind such order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing. The court shall be notified before the close of the next judicial day of a person's detention under the provisions of this section, and the secretary shall file his petition and order of apprehension and detention with the court and serve them upon the person detained, his attorney, if any, and his guardian or conservator, if any. Such person shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for an involuntary treatment proceeding, except as specifically set forth in this section and except that there shall be no right to jury trial. The issues to be determined shall be whether the conditionally released person did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his release; and, if he failed to adhere to such terms and conditions, (a) whether he is likely to injure himself or other persons if not returned for involuntary treatment on an inpatient basis, or (b) whether the conditions of release should be modified. Pursuant to the determination of the court upon such hearing, the conditionally released person shall either continue to be conditionally released on the same or modified conditions or shall be returned for involuntary treatment on an inpatient basis subject to release at the end of the period for which he was committed for involuntary treatment, or otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Such hearing may be waived by the person and his counsel and his guardian or conservator, if any, but shall not be waivable unless all such persons agree to waive, and upon such waiver the person may be returned for involuntary treatment or continued on conditional release on the same or modified conditions.

(4) The proceedings set forth in subsection (3) of this section may be initiated by the secretary on the same basis set forth therein without the secretary requiring or ordering the apprehension and detention of the conditionally released person, in which case the court hearing shall take place in not less than fifteen days from the date of service of the petition upon the conditionally released person.

Upon expiration of the period of commitment, or when the person is released from outpatient care, notice in writing to the court which committed the person for treatment shall be provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. ASSISTANCE TO RELEASED PERSONS. No indigent patient shall be conditionally released or discharged from involuntary treatment without suitable clothing, and the superintendent of a state hospital shall furnish the same, together with such sum of money as he shall deem necessary for the immediate welfare of the patient. Such sum of money shall be the same as the amount required by RCW 72.02.100 to be provided to persons in need being released from correctional institutions. As funds are available, the secretary may provide payment to indigent persons conditionally released pursuant to this chapter consistent with the optional provisions of RCW 72.02.100 and 72.02.110, and may adopt rules and regulations to do so.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. RIGHTS OF INVOLUNTARILY DETAINED PERSONS. (1) Every person involuntarily detained, certified, or committed under the provisions of this chapter shall be entitled to all the rights set forth in this chapter and shall retain all rights not denied him under this chapter and which follow from such denial by necessary implication.

(2) Each person involuntarily detained, certified, or committed pursuant to this chapter shall have the right to adequate care and individualized treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. RIGHTS--POSTING OF LIST. Insofar as imminent danger to the individual or others is not created, each person involuntarily detained, certified, or committed for treatment and evaluation pursuant to this chapter shall have, in addition to other rights not specifically withheld by law, the following rights, a list of which shall be prominently posted in all facilities, institutions, and hospitals providing such services:

(1) To wear his own clothes and to keep and use his own personal possessions, except when deprivation of same is essential to protect the safety of the resident or other persons;

(2) To keep and be allowed to spend a reasonable sum of his own money for canteen expenses and small purchases;

(3) To have access to individual storage space for his private use;

(4) To have visitors at reasonable times;

(5) To have reasonable access to a telephone, both to make and receive confidential calls;

(6) To have ready access to letter writing materials, including stamps, and to send and receive uncensored correspondence through the mails;

(7) Not to consent to the performance of shock treatment or surgery, except emergency life-saving surgery, upon him, and not to have shock treatment or nonemergency surgery in such circumstance unless ordered by a court pursuant to a judicial hearing in which the person is present and represented by counsel, and the court shall appoint a psychiatrist, psychologist, or physician designated by such person or his counsel to testify on behalf of such person;

(8) To dispose of property and sign contracts unless such person has been adjudicated an incompetent in a court proceeding directed to that particular issue;

(9) Not to have a lobotomy performed on him under any circumstances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. RIGHTS OF VOLUNTARILY COMMITTED PERSONS. All persons voluntarily entering or remaining in any facility, institution, or hospital providing evaluation and treatment for mental disorder shall have no less than all rights secured to involuntarily detained persons by sections 41 and 42 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND RECORDS--DISCLOSURE. The fact of admission and all information and records compiled, obtained, or maintained in the course of providing services to either voluntary or involuntary recipients of services at public or private agencies shall be confidential.

Information and records may be disclosed only:

(1) In communications between qualified professional persons in the provision of services or appropriate referrals, or in the course of guardianship proceedings. The consent of the patient, or his guardian, must be obtained before information or records may be disclosed by a professional person employed by a facility to a professional person, not employed by the facility, who does not have the medical responsibility for the patient's care;

(2) When the person receiving services, or his guardian, designates persons to whom information or records may be released, or if the person is a minor, when his parents make such designation;

(3) To the extent necessary for a recipient to make a claim, or for a claim to be made on behalf of a recipient for aid, insurance, or medical assistance to which he may be entitled;

(4) For program evaluation and/or research: PROVIDED, That the secretary of social and health services adopts rules for the conduct of such evaluation and/or research. Such rules shall include, but need not be limited to, the requirement that all evaluators and researchers must sign an oath of confidentiality substantially as follows:

"As a condition of conducting evaluation or research concerning persons who have received services from (fill in the facility, agency, or person) I,, agree not to divulge, publish, or otherwise make known to unauthorized persons or the public any information obtained in the course of such evaluation or research regarding persons who have received services such that the person who received such services is identifiable.

I recognize that unauthorized release of confidential information may subject me to civil liability under the provisions of state law.

(5) To the courts as necessary to the administration of this chapter.

The fact of admission, as well as all records, files, evidence, findings, or orders made, prepared, collected, or maintained pursuant to this chapter shall not be admissible as evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding without the written consent of the person who was the subject of the proceeding. The records and files maintained in any court proceeding pursuant to this chapter shall be confidential and available only to the person who was the subject of the proceeding or his attorney. In addition, the court may order the release or use of such records or files only upon good cause shown if the court finds that appropriate safeguards for strict confidentiality are and will be maintained.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. INFORMATION TO PERSON'S FAMILY. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a public or private agency from releasing to a patient's attorney, his guardian, or conservator, if any, or a member of the patient's family the information that the person is presently a patient in the facility or that the person is seriously physically ill, if the professional person in charge of the facility determines that the release of such information is in the best interest of the person. Upon the death of a patient, his guardian or conservator, if any, and a member of his family shall be notified.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. NOTICE OF DISAPPEARANCE OF PERSON. When a voluntary patient would otherwise be subject to the provisions of section 44 of this 1973 amendatory act, and disclosure is necessary for the protection of the patient or others due to his unauthorized disappearance from the facility, and his whereabouts is unknown, notice of such disappearance, along with relevant information, may be made to relatives and governmental law enforcement agencies designated by the physician in charge of the patient or the professional person in charge of the facility, or his professional designee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. RECORDS OF DISCLOSURE. When any disclosure of information or records is made as authorized by sections 44 through 46 of this 1973 amendatory act, the physician in charge of the patient or the professional person in charge of the facility shall promptly cause to be entered into the patient's medical record the date and circumstances under which said disclosure was made, the names and relationships to the patient, if any, of the persons or agencies to whom such disclosure was made, and the information disclosed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. STATISTICAL DATA. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the compilation and publication of statistical data for use by government or researchers under standards, including standards to assure maintenance of confidentiality, set forth by the secretary of the department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. ACTION FOR UNAUTHORIZED RELEASE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION--LIQUIDATED DAMAGES--TREBLE DAMAGES--INJUNCTION. Any person may bring an action against an individual who has wilfully and knowingly released confidential information or records concerning him in violation of the provisions of this chapter, for the greater of the following amounts:

(1) One thousand dollars; or

(2) Three times the amount of actual damages sustained, if any. It shall not be a prerequisite to recovery under this section that the plaintiff shall have suffered or be threatened with special, as contrasted with general, damages.

Any person may bring an action to enjoin the release of confidential information or records concerning him or his ward, in violation of the provisions of this chapter, and may in the same action seek damages as provided in this section.

The court may award to the plaintiff, should he prevail in an action authorized by this section, reasonable attorney fees in addition to those otherwise provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. COMPETENCY--EFFECT--STATEMENT OF WASHINGTON LAW. Competency shall not be determined or withdrawn by operation of, or under the provisions of this chapter. No person shall be presumed incompetent or lose any civil rights as a consequence of receiving evaluation or treatment for mental disorder, either voluntarily or involuntarily, or certification or commitment pursuant to this chapter or any prior laws of this state dealing with mental illness. Any person who leaves a public or private agency following evaluation or treatment for mental disorder shall be given a written statement setting forth the substance of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. RIGHT TO COUNSEL. Every person involuntarily detained shall immediately be informed of his right to a hearing to review the legality of his detention and of his right to counsel, by the professional person in charge of the facility providing evaluation and treatment, or his designee, and, when appropriate, by the court. If the person so elects, the court shall immediately appoint an attorney to assist him.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. RIGHT TO EXAMINATION. A person challenging his detention or his attorney, shall have the right to designate and have the court appoint a reasonably available independent physician or licensed mental health professional to examine the person detained, the results of which examination may be used in the proceeding. The person shall, if he is financially able, bear the cost of such expert information, otherwise such expert examination shall be at public expense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. REQUEST FOR RELEASE--NOTICE. Any staff person of a facility for evaluation and treatment to whom an objection to detention or a request for release is made, shall promptly provide the person making the request with a copy of the form provided for hereinafter in this section, help him to fill out the form, and deliver the completed form to the professional person in charge of the facility, or his professional designee. Not later than the next judicial day the professional person in charge of the facility, or his designee, shall file with the clerk of the superior court the request for release. Not later than two days after filing such request, the facility shall notify the clerk as to whether or not such person has been released. If no notice is received or the person has not been released, the clerk shall notify a judge of the superior court who shall immediately appoint an attorney to represent the person who has requested release. A form for a request for release shall be provided in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the secretary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. PRESENT RIGHTS. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a person committed on or prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act from exercising a right available to him at or prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act for obtaining release from confinement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. LIABILITY OF APPLICANT. Any person making or filing an application alleging that a person should be involuntarily detained, certified, committed, treated, or evaluated pursuant to this chapter shall not be rendered civilly or criminally liable where the making and filing of such application was in good faith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. DAMAGES FOR EXCESSIVE DETENTION. Any individual who negligently, knowingly, or wilfully, in violation of the provisions of this chapter, detains a person for more than the allowable number of days shall be liable to the person detained in civil damages. It shall not be a prerequisite to an action under this section that the plaintiff shall have suffered or be threatened with special, as contrasted with general damages.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. PROTECTION OF RIGHTS--STAFF. The department of social and health services shall have the responsibility to determine whether all rights of individuals recognized and guaranteed by the provisions of this chapter and the Constitutions of the state of Washington and the United States are in fact protected and effectively secured. To this end, the department shall assign appropriate staff who shall from time to time as may be necessary have authority to examine records, inspect facilities, attend proceedings, and do whatever is necessary to monitor, evaluate, and assure adherence to such rights. Such persons shall also recommend such additional safeguards or procedures as may be appropriate to secure individual rights set forth in this chapter and as guaranteed by the state and federal Constitutions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. FACILITIES PART OF COMPREHENSIVE MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAM. Evaluation and treatment facilities authorized pursuant to this chapter may be part of the comprehensive community mental health services program conducted in counties pursuant to the Community Mental Health Services Act, chapter 71.24 RCW, and may receive funding pursuant to the provisions thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. STANDARDS FOR PUBLIC AND PRIVATE EVALUATION AND TREATMENT FACILITIES, ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES--PENALTIES. (1) The department shall establish standards to be met by a public or private facility to be certified as an evaluation and treatment facility, and shall fix the fees to be paid by such facility to the department for the required inspections.

(2) The department shall periodically inspect certified evaluation and treatment facilities at reasonable times and in a reasonable manner.

(3) The department shall maintain an updated list of certified evaluation and treatment facilities.

(4) Each certified evaluation and treatment facility shall file with the department, on request, such data, statistics, schedules, and information as the department reasonably requires. A certified evaluation and treatment facility which, without good cause, fails to furnish any data, statistics, schedules, or information as requested, or files fraudulent reports thereof, may be removed from the list of certified evaluation and treatment facilities and its certification revoked or suspended.

(5) The department may suspend, revoke, limit, or restrict a certification, or refuse to grant a certification for failure to conform to the law, applicable rules and regulations, or applicable standards.

(6) The superior court may restrain any evaluation and treatment facility from operating without certification or any other violation of this section. The court may also review, pursuant to procedures contained in chapter 34.04 RCW, any denial, suspension, limitation, restriction, or revocation of certification, and grant other relief required to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(7) Upon petition by the department, and after hearing held upon reasonable notice to the facility, the superior court may issue a warrant to an officer or employee of the department authorizing him to enter at reasonable times, and examine the records, books, and accounts of any public or private evaluation and treatment facility refusing to consent to inspection or examination by the department.

(8) The standards for certification of evaluation and treatment facilities shall include standards relating to maintenance of good physical and mental health and other services to be afforded persons pursuant to this chapter, and shall otherwise assure the effectuation of the purposes and intent of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. RECOGNITION OF COUNTY FINANCIAL NECESSITIES. The department of social and health services, in planning and providing funding to counties pursuant to chapter 71.24 RCW, shall recognize the financial necessities imposed upon counties by implementation of this chapter and shall consider needs, if any, for additional community mental health services and facilities and reduction in commitments to state hospitals for the mentally ill accomplished by individual counties, in planning and providing such funding. The state shall provide financial assistance to the counties to enable the counties to meet all increased costs, if any, to the counties resulting from their administration of the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. ADOPTION OF RULES AND REGULATIONS. The department of social and health services shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to effectuate the intent and purposes of this chapter, which shall include but not be limited to evaluation of the quality of the program and facilities operating pursuant to this chapter, evaluation of the effectiveness and cost effectiveness of such programs and facilities, and procedures and standards for certification and other action relevant to evaluation and treatment facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. RULES OF COURT. The supreme court of the state of Washington shall adopt such rules as it shall deem necessary with respect to the court procedures and proceedings provided for by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. Sections 6 through 63 of this 1973 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 71 RCW, and shall be considered the successor to those sections of chapter 71.02 RCW repealed by this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. Section headings as used in sections 6 through 63 of this 1973 amendatory act shall not constitute any part of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

71.02.010;

(2) Section 71.02.020, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW

CHAPTER 143

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2361]

VOTERS' PAMPHLETS--

REBUTTAL STATEMENTS

AN ACT Relating to the voters' pamphlet; amending section 29.81.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.81.010; amending section 29.81.020, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.81.020; amending section 29.81.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.81.030; amending section 29.81.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 145, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.81.040; amending section 29.81.050, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.81.050; and adding new sections to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and chapter 29.81 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 29.81.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.81.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The voters' pamphlet shall contain as to each state measure to be voted upon, the following in the order set forth in this section:

(1) Upon the top portion of the first two opposing pages relating to said measure and not exceeding one-third of the total printing area shall appear:

(a) The legal identification of the measure by serial designation and number;

(b) The official ballot title of the measure;

(c) A brief statement explaining the law as it presently exists;

(d) A brief statement explaining the effect of the proposed measure should it be approved into law;

(e) The total number of votes cast for and against the measure in both the state senate and house of representatives if the measure has been passed by the legislature;

(f) A heavy double ruled line across both pages to clearly set apart the above items from the remaining text.

(2) Upon the lower portion of the left page of the two facing pages shall appear an argument advocating the voters' approval of the measure together with any rebuttal statement of the opposing argument as provided in RCW 29.81.030, 29.81.040, or 29.81.050.

(3) Upon the lower portion of the right hand page of the two facing pages shall appear an argument advocating the voters' rejection of the measure together with any rebuttal statement of the opposing argument as provided in RCW 29.81.030, 29.81.040, or 29.81.050.

(4) Following each argument or rebuttal statement each member of the committee advocating for or against a measure shall be listed by name and address to the end that the public shall be fully apprised of the advocate's identity.

(5) At the conclusion of the pamphlet the full text of each of the measures shall appear. The text of the proposed constitutional amendments shall be set forth in the form provided for in RCW 29.81.080.

(1) The attorney general shall prepare the explanatory statements required to be presented on the top portion of the two facing pages relating to each measure. Such statements shall be prepared in clear and concise language and shall avoid the use of legal and other technical terms insofar as possible. Any person dissatisfied with the explanatory statement so prepared may at any time within ten days from the filing thereof in the office of the secretary of state appeal to the superior court of Thurston county by petition setting forth the measure, the explanatory statement prepared by the attorney general, and his objection thereto and praying for the amendment thereof. A copy of the petition and a notice of such appeal shall be served on the secretary of state and the attorney general. The court shall, upon filing of the petition, examine the measure, the explanatory statement, and the objections thereto and may hear argument thereon and shall, as soon as possible, render its decision and certify to and file with the secretary of state such explanatory statement as it determines will meet the requirements of this chapter. The decision of the superior court shall be final and its explanatory statement shall be the established explanatory statement. Such appeal shall be heard without costs to either party.

(2) Arguments and rebuttal statements advocating the voters' approval or rejection of any measure shall be prepared and submitted for printing by the committees created pursuant to RCW 29.81.030, 29.81.040 and 29.81.050. Such arguments and rebuttal statements shall be the (~~official~~) arguments and rebuttal statements and no other arguments or rebuttal statements shall appear in the pamphlet as to such measure. Arguments may contain graphs and charts, supported by factual statistical data and pictures or other illustrations, but cartoons or caricatures shall not be permitted.

Arguments advocating voters' approval of any proposed constitutional amendment (~~(7)~~) or referendum bill (~~(7 or referendum measure)~~) shall be composed and submitted for printing by a committee created as follows: The presiding officer of the state senate shall appoint one state senator known to favor the measure and the presiding officer of the house of representatives shall appoint one state representative known to favor the measure. The two persons so appointed shall appoint a third member to the committee who may or may not be a member of the legislature. If no member of the legislature can be enlisted to serve on such committee, then a committee composed of the secretary of state, the presiding officer of the senate, and the presiding officer of the house of representatives shall appoint any persons who are, in their judgement, qualified to serve in such capacity.

Sec. 4. Section 29.81.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 145, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.81.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Arguments advocating voters' rejection of any proposed constitutional amendment or referendum bill passed by the legislature and referred to the people for final decision and rebuttal statements of arguments advocating approval of such measures shall be composed and submitted for printing by a committee created as follows: The presiding officer of the state senate shall appoint one state senator and presiding officer of the house of representatives shall appoint one state representative. Whenever possible, the two persons so appointed shall be known to have opposed the measure and they shall appoint a third member to the committee who may or may not be a member of the legislature. If no member of the legislature can be enlisted to serve on such committee, then a committee composed of the secretary of state, the presiding officer of the house and the presiding officer of the senate shall ~~((be empowered to))~~ appoint any persons who are, in their judgment, qualified to serve in such capacity.

Arguments advocating voters' ~~((rejection of any act passed by the legislature and referred to the people by referendum petition and arguments both for and against))~~ approval of any initiative measure or any act passed by the legislature and referred to the people by referendum petition and rebuttal statements of arguments advocating rejection of such measures shall be composed and submitted for printing by ~~((committees))~~ a committee created as follows:

~~((For arguments favoring any such measures,))~~ The presiding officer of the state senate, the presiding officer of the house of representatives, and the secretary of state shall together appoint two persons known to favor the measure to serve on the committee. The two persons so appointed shall appoint a third person to the committee.

Arguments advocating voters' rejection of any initiative measure or any act passed by the legislature and referred to the people by referendum petition and rebuttal statements of arguments advocating approval of such measures shall be composed and submitted for printing by a committee created as follows:

~~((12) For arguments against any such measures,))~~ The presiding officer of the state senate, the presiding officer of the house of representatives, and the secretary of state shall together appoint two persons to serve on the committee. Whenever possible, the two persons so appointed shall be known to have opposed the measure. The two persons so appointed shall appoint a third person to the committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 29.81.RCW a new section to read as follows:

The committees appointed to compose the arguments to appear in the voters' pamphlet pursuant to RCW 29.81.030 and 29.81.040 shall submit such arguments, not to exceed two hundred fifty words in length, to the secretary of state no later than the first day of June preceding the election at which the measures will appear. In the event that a committee appointed pursuant to RCW 29.81.030 or 29.81.040 fails to submit its argument prior to the first day of June preceding the election, the secretary of state, the presiding officer of the house of representatives, and the presiding officer of the state senate shall appoint any persons who are, in their judgment, qualified to compose such an argument. Any additional committee so appointed shall have until the last day of June preceding the election on the measure to compose and submit the appropriate argument.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 29.81 RCW a new section to read as follows:

On or before the first day of July preceding the election, the secretary of state shall transmit each argument submitted advocating approval of a constitutional amendment or referendum bill to the committee appointed to compose the argument against the same measure and transmit each argument submitted advocating rejection of a constitutional amendment or referendum bill to the committee appointed to compose the argument in favor of the same measure. The committees concerned may submit rebuttal arguments, not to exceed seventy-five words in length, addressing statements made by the opposing committee, but interjecting no new issue no later than the fifteenth day of July preceding the election at which the measure is to appear.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 29.81 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The committees appointed to compose the arguments to appear in the voters' pamphlet pursuant to RCW 29.81.050 shall submit such arguments, not to exceed two hundred fifty words in length, no later than the last day of July preceding the election at which the measures will appear.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 29.81 RCW a new section to read as follows:

On or before the first day of August preceding the election, the secretary of state shall transmit each argument submitted advocating approval of an initiative measure or any act passed by the legislature and referred to the people by referendum petition to the committee appointed to compose the argument against the same measure and transmit each argument submitted advocating rejection of an initiative measure or any act passed by the legislature and referred to the people by referendum petition to the committee appointed to compose the argument in favor of the measure. The committees concerned may submit rebuttal arguments not to exceed seventy-five words in length addressing statements made by the opposing committee, but interjecting no new issue no later than the fifteenth day of August preceding the election at which the measure is to appear.

[Senate Bill No. 2452]

UNFIT BUILDINGS--ASSESSMENTS--INTEREST CHARGE--LIEN PRIORITY

AN ACT Relating to housing and unfit dwellings; and amending section 35.80.030, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 127, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.80.030.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 35.80.030, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 127, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.80.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the local governing body of a municipality finds that one or more conditions of the character described in RCW 35.80.010 exist within its territorial limits, said governing body may adopt ordinances relating to such dwellings, buildings, or structures. Such ordinances may provide for the following:

(a) That an "improvement board" or officer be designated or appointed to exercise the powers assigned to such board or officer by the ordinance as specified herein. Said board or officer may be an existing municipal board or officer in the municipality, or may be a separate board or officer appointed solely for the purpose of exercising the powers assigned by said ordinance.

If a board is created, the ordinance shall specify the terms, method of appointment, and type of membership of said board, which may be limited, if the local governing body chooses, to public officers as herein defined.

(b) If a board is created, a public officer, other than a member of the improvement board, may be designated to work with the board and carry out the duties and exercise the powers assigned to said public officer by the ordinance.

(c) That if, after a preliminary investigation of any dwelling, building, or structure, the board or officer finds that it is unfit for human habitation or other use, he shall cause to be served either personally or by certified mail, with return receipt requested, upon all persons having any interest therein, as shown upon the records of the auditor's office of the county in which such property is located, and shall post in a conspicuous place on such property, a complaint stating in what respects such dwelling, building, or structure is unfit for human habitation or other use. If the whereabouts of such persons is unknown and the same cannot be ascertained by the board or officer in the exercise of reasonable diligence, and the board or officer shall make an affidavit to the effect, then the serving of such complaint or order upon such persons may be made by publishing the same once each week for two consecutive weeks in a legal newspaper published in the municipality in which the property is located, or in the absence of such legal newspaper, it shall be posted in three public places in the municipality in which the dwellings, buildings, or structures are located. Such complaint shall contain a notice that a hearing will be held before the board or officer, at a place therein fixed, not less than ten days nor more than thirty days after the serving of said complaint; or in the event of publication or posting, not less than fifteen days nor more than thirty days from the date of the first publication and posting; that all parties in interest shall be given the right to file an answer to the complaint, and to appear in person, or otherwise, and to give testimony at the time and place fixed in the complaint. The rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity shall not be controlling in hearings before the board or officer. A copy of such complaint shall also be filed with the auditor of the county in which the dwelling, building, or structure is located, and such filing of the complaint or order shall have the same force and effect as other lis pendens notices provided by law.

(d) That the board or officer may determine that a dwelling, building, or structure is unfit for human habitation or other use if it finds that conditions exist in such dwelling, building, or structure which are dangerous or injurious to the health or safety of the occupants of such dwelling, building, or structure, the occupants of neighboring dwellings, or other residents of such municipality. Such conditions may include the following, without limitations: Defects therein increasing the hazards of fire or accident; inadequate ventilation, light, or sanitary facilities, dilapidation, disrepair, structural defects, uncleanliness, overcrowding, or inadequate drainage. The ordinance shall state reasonable and minimum standards covering such conditions, including those contained in ordinances adopted in accordance with subdivision (7)(a) herein, to guide the board or the public officer and the agents and employees of either, in determining the fitness of a dwelling for human habitation, or building or structure for other use.

(e) That the determination of whether a dwelling, building, or structure should be repaired or demolished, shall be based on specific stated standards on (i) the degree of structural deterioration of the dwelling, building, or structure, or (ii) the relationship that the estimated cost of repair bears to the value of the dwelling, building, or structure, with the method of determining this value to be specified in the ordinance.

(f) That if, after the required hearing, the board or officer determines that the dwelling is unfit for human habitation, or building or structure is unfit for other use, it shall state in writing its findings of fact in support of such determination, and shall issue and cause to be served upon the owner or party in interest thereof, as is provided in subdivision (1)(c), and shall post in a conspicuous place on said property, an order which (i) requires the owner or party in interest, within the time specified in the order, to repair, alter, or improve such dwelling, building, or structure to render it fit for human habitation, or for other use, or to vacate and close the dwelling, building, or structure, if such course of action is deemed proper on the basis of the standards set forth as required in subdivision (1)(e); or (ii) requires the owner or party in interest, within the time specified on the order, to remove or demolish such dwelling, building, or structure, if this course of action is deemed proper on the basis of said standards. If no appeal is filed, a copy of such order shall be filed with the auditor of the county in which the dwelling, building, or structure is located.

(g) The owner or any party in interest, within thirty days from the date of service upon the owner and posting of an order issued by the board under the provisions of subdivision (c) of this subsection, may file an appeal with the appeals commission.

The local governing body of the municipality shall designate or establish a municipal agency to serve as the appeals commission.

The local governing body shall also establish rules of procedure adequate to assure a prompt and thorough review of matters submitted to the appeals commission, and such rules of procedure shall include the following, without being limited thereto: (i) All matters submitted to the appeals commission must be resolved by the commission within sixty days from the date of filing therewith and (ii) a transcript of the findings of fact of the appeals commission shall be made available to the owner or other party in interest upon demand.

The findings and orders of the appeals commission shall be reported in the same manner and shall bear the same legal consequences as if issued by the board, and shall be subject to review only in the manner and to the extent provided in subdivision (2) of this section.

If the owner or party in interest, following exhaustion of his rights to appeal, fails to comply with the final order to repair, alter, improve, vacate, close, remove, or demolish the dwelling, building, or structure, the board or officer may direct or cause such dwelling, building, or structure to be repaired, altered, improved, vacated, and closed, removed, or demolished.

(h) That the amount of the cost of such repairs, alterations or improvements, or vacating and closing, or removal or demolition by the board or officer, shall be assessed against the real property upon which such cost was incurred unless such amount is previously paid. Upon certification to him by the treasurer of the municipality in cases arising out of the city or town or by the county improvement board or officer, in cases arising out of the county, of the assessment amount being due and owing, the county treasurer shall enter the amount of such assessment upon the tax rolls against the property for the current year and the same shall become a part of the general taxes for that year to be collected at the same time and with ((the same interest {not to exceed six percent} and penalties, and when collected shall be deposited to the credit of the general fund of the municipality: PROVIDED, That if the total assessment due and owing exceeds twenty-five dollars the local governing body shall; upon written request of the owner or party in interest; divide the amount due into ten equal annual installments; subject to earlier payment at the option of owner or party in interest)) interest at such rates and in such manner as provided for in RCW 84.56.020, as now or hereafter amended, for delinquent taxes, and when collected to be deposited to the credit of the general fund of the municipality. If the dwelling, building or structure is removed or demolished by the board or officer, the board or officer shall, if possible, sell the materials of such dwelling, building, or structure in accordance with procedures set forth in said ordinance, and shall credit the proceeds of such sale against the cost of the removal or demolition and if there be any balance remaining, it shall be paid to the parties entitled thereto, as determined by the board or officer, after deducting the cost incident thereto.

The demolition assessment shall constitute a lien against the property of equal rank with state, county and municipal taxes.

(2) Any person affected by an order issued by the appeals commission pursuant to subdivision (1) (f) hereof may, within thirty days after the posting and service of the order, petition to the superior court for an injunction restraining the public officer or members of the board from carrying out the provisions of the order. In all such proceedings the court is authorized to affirm, reverse, or modify the order and such trial shall be heard de novo.

(3) An ordinance adopted by the local governing body of the municipality may authorize the board or officer to exercise such powers as may be necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this section. These powers shall include the following in addition to others herein granted: (a) (i) To determine which dwellings within the municipality are unfit for human habitation; (ii) to determine which buildings or structures are unfit for other use; (b) to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses and receive evidence; and (c) to investigate the dwelling and other use conditions in the municipality or county and to enter upon premises for the purpose of making examinations when the board or officer has reasonable ground for believing they are unfit for human habitation, or for other use: PROVIDED, That such entries shall be made in such manner as to cause the least possible inconvenience to the persons in possession, and to obtain an order for this purpose after submitting evidence in support of an application which is adequate to justify such an order from a court of competent jurisdiction in the event entry is denied or resisted.

(4) The local governing body of any municipality adopting an ordinance pursuant to this chapter may appropriate the necessary funds to administer such ordinance.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to abrogate or impair the powers of the courts or of any department of any municipality to enforce any provisions of its charter or its ordinances or regulations, nor to prevent or punish violations thereof; and the powers conferred by this section shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to impair or limit in any way the power of the municipality to define and declare nuisances and to cause their removal or abatement, by summary proceedings or otherwise.

(7) Any municipality may (by ordinance adopted by its governing body) (a) prescribe minimum standards for the use and occupancy of dwellings throughout the municipality, or county, (b) prescribe minimum standards for the use or occupancy of any building or structure used for any other purpose, (c) prevent the use or occupancy of any dwelling, building, or structure, which is injurious to the public health, safety, morals, or welfare, and (d) prescribe punishment for the violation of any provision of such ordinance.

CHAPTER 145

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2841]

SALES TAX--NON-PROFIT HOSPITAL

LAUNDRY ASSOCIATIONS--EXEMPTION

AN ACT Relating to revenue and taxation; amending section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.050; prescribing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

"Sale at retail" or "retail sale" means every sale of tangible personal property (including articles produced, fabricated, or imprinted) to all persons irrespective of the nature of their business and including, among others, without limiting the scope hereof, persons who install, repair, clean, alter, improve, construct, or decorate real or personal property of or for consumers other than a sale to a person who (a) purchases for the purpose of resale as tangible personal property in the regular course of business without intervening use by such person, or (b) installs, repairs, cleans, alters, imprints, improves, constructs, or decorates real or personal property of or for consumers, if such tangible personal property becomes an ingredient or component of such real or personal property without intervening use by such person, or (c) purchases for the purpose of consuming the property purchased in producing for sale a new article of tangible personal property or substance, of which such property becomes an ingredient or component or is a chemical used in processing, when the primary purpose of such chemical is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of a new article being produced for sale. The term shall include every sale of tangible personal property which is used or consumed or to be used or consumed in the performance of any activity classified as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property is resold or utilized as provided in (a), (b), or (c) above following such use. The term also means every sale of tangible personal property to persons engaged in any business which is taxable under RCW 82.04.280, subsection (2), and 82.04.290.

The term "sale at retail" or "retail sale" shall include the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property consumed and/or for labor and services rendered in respect to the following: (a) The installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, imprinting, or improving of tangible personal property of or for consumers, including charges made for the mere use of facilities in respect thereto, but excluding charges made for the use of coin operated laundry facilities when such facilities are situated in an apartment house, hotel, motel, rooming house, trailer camp or tourist camp for the exclusive use of the tenants thereof, and also excluding sales of laundry service to members by nonprofit associations composed exclusively of nonprofit hospitals, and excluding services rendered in respect to live animals, birds and insects; (b) the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for consumers, including the installing or attaching of any article of tangible personal property therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation, and shall also include the sale of services or charges made for the clearing of land and the moving of earth excepting the mere leveling of land used in commercial farming or agriculture; (c) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the cleaning, fumigating, razing or moving of existing buildings or structures, but shall not include the charge made for janitorial services; and for purposes of this section the term "janitorial services" shall mean those cleaning and caretaking services ordinarily performed by commercial janitor service businesses including, but not limited to, wall and window washing, floor cleaning and waxing, and the cleaning in place of rugs, drapes and upholstery. The term "janitorial services" does not include painting, papering, repairing, furnace or septic tank cleaning, snow removal or sandblasting; (d) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to automobile towing and similar automotive transportation services, but not in respect to those required to report and pay taxes under chapter 82.16; (e) the sale of and charge made for the furnishing of lodging and all other services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, and it shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes a rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same; (f) the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property, labor and services to persons taxable under (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) above when such sales or charges are for property, labor and services which are used or consumed in whole or in part by such persons in the performance of any activity defined as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property, labor and services may be resold after such use or consumption. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to modify the first paragraph of this section and nothing contained in the first paragraph of this section shall be construed to modify this paragraph.

The term "sale at retail" or "retail sale" shall include the sale of or charge made for personal business or professional services, including amounts designated as interest, rents, fees, admission, and other service emoluments however designated, received by persons engaging in the following business activities; (a) amusement and recreation businesses including but not limited to golf, pool, billiards, skating, bowling, ski lifts and tows and others; (b) abstract, title insurance and escrow businesses; (c) credit bureau businesses; (d) automobile parking and storage garage businesses.

The term shall also include the renting or leasing of tangible personal property to consumers.

The term shall not include the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the building, repairing, or improving of any street, place, road, highway, easement, right of way, mass public transportation terminal or parking facility, bridge, tunnel, or trestle which is owned by a municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state or by the United States and which is used or to be used primarily for foot or vehicular traffic including mass transportation vehicles of any kind, nor shall it include sales of feed, seed, fertilizer, and spray materials to persons for the purpose of producing for sale any agricultural product whatsoever, including milk, eggs, wool, fur, meat, honey, or other substances obtained from animals, birds, or insects but only when such production and subsequent sale are exempt from tax under RCW 82.04.330, nor shall it include sales of chemical sprays or washes to persons for the purpose of post-harvest treatment of fruit for the prevention of scald, fungus, mold, or decay.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1973.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.05.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a state employees' insurance board to be composed as follows: The governor or his designee; ~~((the state directors of the department of general administration and the department of personnel; one member representing an association of state employees and one member representing a state employees' union, who shall be appointed by the governor;))~~ one administrative officer representing all of higher education to be appointed by the governor; two higher education faculty members to be appointed by the governor; the director of the department of personnel who shall act as trustee; one representative of an employee association certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees and one representative of an employee union certified as exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, both to be appointed by the governor; one member of the senate who shall be appointed by the president of the senate; and one member of the house of representatives who shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. The senate and house members of the board shall serve in ex officio capacity only. All appointments shall be made effective immediately. The terms of office of the administrative officer representing higher education, the two higher education faculty members, the representative of an employee association, and the representative of an employee union shall be for four years; PROVIDED, That the first term of one faculty member and one employee association or union representative member shall be for three years. The first meeting of the board shall be held as soon as possible thereafter at the call of the director of personnel. The board shall prescribe rules for the conduct of its business and shall elect a chairman and vice chairman at its first meeting and annually thereafter. Members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be paid for their necessary and actual expenses while on official business and legislative members shall receive allowances provided for in RCW 44.04.120.

(2) The board shall study all matters connected with the providing of adequate health care coverage, life insurance, liability insurance, accidental death and dismemberment insurance, and disability income insurance or any one of, or a combination of, the enumerated types of insurance and health care plans for state employees and their dependents on the best basis possible with relation both to the welfare of the employees and to the state; PROVIDED, That liability insurance shall not be made available to dependents. The board shall design benefits, devise specifications, analyze carrier responses to advertisements for bids, determine the terms and conditions of employee participation and coverage, and decide on the award of contracts which shall be signed by the trustee on behalf of the board; PROVIDED, That all contracts for insurance, health care plans or protection applying to employees covered by this 1973 amendatory act shall provide that the beneficiaries of such insurance, health care plans or protection may utilize on an equal participation basis the services of practitioners licensed pursuant to chapters 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, 18.53, 18.57, 18.71, 18.74, 18.83, and 18.88 RCW; PROVIDED FURTHER, That the boards of trustees and boards of regents of the several institutions of higher education shall retain sole authority to provide liability insurance as provided in RCW 28B.10.660. The board shall from time to time review and amend such plans. Contracts for ((health benefit)) all plans shall be rebid and awarded at least every five years.

(3) The board shall develop and provide ((three)) employee health care benefit plans; at least one plan will provide major medical benefits as its primary feature, ((another)) at least one plan will provide basic first-dollar benefits as its primary feature plus major medical, either or ~~((both))~~ all of which may be provided through a contract or contracts with regularly constituted insurance carriers or health care service contractors as defined in chapter 48.44 RCW, and another plan to be provided by a panel medicine plan in its service area only when approved by the board. Except for panel medicine plans, no more than one insurance carrier or health care service contractor shall be contracted with to provide the same plan of benefits: PROVIDED, That employees may choose participation in only one of the ~~((three))~~ health care benefit plans sponsored by the board: PROVIDED FURTHER, That employees of the institutions of higher education shall be retained as a separate actuarial and experience group and the board shall report its recommendation on such retention to the legislative budget committee by November 1, 1974.

(1) The director of the department of personnel shall be trustee and administrator of all health benefit and insurance contracts awarded by the board and shall have power to employ a benefits supervisor and such other assistants and employees as may be necessary subject to the jurisdiction of the state civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW. The director of personnel shall provide any other personnel and facilities necessary for assistance to the board. He may delegate his duties hereunder to the benefits supervisor.

(2) The director of personnel, as trustee, shall transmit contributions ~~((for health care benefits))~~ for health care and other insurance plans in payment of premiums and receive and deposit contributions and dividends or refunds into the state employees insurance revolving fund, which shall be used for payment of premiums, administrative expenses ~~((other than staffing))~~ as provided in RCW 41.05.030(1), to reduce employee contributions or to increase benefits in accordance with instructions of the board.

(3) Every division, department, or separate agency of state government shall fully cooperate in administration of the plans, education of employees, claims administration, and other duties as required by the trustee or the board.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.05.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every department, division, or separate agency of state government shall provide contributions to ~~((hospitalization and medical aid))~~ insurance and health care plans for its employees and their dependents, the content of such plans to be determined by the state employees insurance board. All such contributions will be paid into the state employees insurance fund to be expended by the trustee for the payment of required ~~((health))~~ insurance premiums and health care fees.

(2) The contributions of any department, division, or separate agency of the state government shall be ((limited to ten dollars per month per employee covered; from July 1, 1970 through June, 1971. Thereafter such contribution shall be established by the state personnel board in accordance with the procedure required for the adoption and amendment of salary schedules for employees under its jurisdiction as provided in RCW 41.06.150 and 41.06.160. The contributions for employees not covered by state civil service shall be)) set by the state employees insurance board, subject to the approval of the governor for availability of funds as specifically appropriated by the legislature for that purpose: PROVIDED, That nothing herein shall be a limitation on employees employed under chapter 47.64 RCW: PROVIDED FURTHER, That provision for school district ((and higher education)) personnel shall not be made under this chapter.

(3) The trustee with the assistance of the department of personnel shall annually survey private industry in the state of Washington to determine the maximum average employer contribution for group insurance programs under the jurisdiction of the state employees insurance board. Such survey shall be reported to the board for its use in setting the amount of the contributions to the various insurance programs by departments, divisions, and separate agencies of state government.

Sec. 4. Section 28B.10.660, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 269, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.660 are each amended to read as follows:

The regents or trustees of any of the state's institutions of higher education may make available liability, life, health, health care, accident, disability and salary protection or insurance or any one of, or a combination of, the enumerated types of insurance, or any other type of insurance or protection, for the regents or trustees((r)) and students ((and employees)) of the institution((r)) and their dependents. Whenever funds shall be available for these purposes; the regents or trustees of any of the state's institutions of higher education may contribute all or a part of the cost of such protection or insurance for the employees of their respective institutions and their dependents in an amount not to exceed twenty dollars per month per employee covered. The premiums due on such liability insurance shall be borne by the university or college. The premiums due on such protection or insurance shall be borne by the assenting regent, trustee or student. All contracts for insurance or protection written to take advantage of the provisions of this section shall provide that the beneficiaries of such contracts may utilize on an equal participation basis the services of those practitioners licensed pursuant to chapters 48-22, 48-25, 48-53, 48-57 and 48-74 RCW)). The premiums due on such protection or insurance shall be borne by the assenting regents, trustees, or students. The regents or trustees of any of the state institutions of higher education may make liability insurance available for employees of the institutions. The premiums due on such liability insurance shall be borne by the university or college.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 59, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 11, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Any official of the state authorized to disburse funds in payment of salaries and wages of public officers or employees is authorized, upon written request of the officer or employee, to deduct each month from the salaries or wages of the officers or employees, the amount of money designated by the officer or employee for payment of the following:

(1) Credit union deductions: PROVIDED, That the credit union is organized solely for public employees: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That twenty-five or more employees of a single state agency or a total of one hundred or more state employees of several agencies have authorized such a deduction for payment to the same credit union.

(2) Parking fee deductions: PROVIDED, That payment is made for parking facilities furnished by the agency or by the department of general administration.

(3) U. S. savings bond deductions: PROVIDED, That a person within the particular agency shall be appointed to act as trustee. The trustee will receive all contributions; purchase and deliver all bond certificates; and keep such records and furnish such bond or security as will render full accountability for all bond contributions.

(4) Board, lodging or uniform deductions when such board, lodging and uniforms are furnished by the state, or deductions for academic tuitions or fees or scholarship contributions payable to the employing institution.

(5) Dues and other fees deductions: PROVIDED, That the deduction is for payment of membership dues to any professional organization formed primarily for public employees or college and university professors: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, That twenty-five or more employees of a single state agency, or a total of one hundred or more state employees of several agencies have authorized such a deduction for payment to the same professional organization.

(6) Labor or employee organization dues may be deducted in the event that a payroll deduction is not provided under a collective bargaining agreement under the provisions of RCW 41.06.150: PROVIDED, That twenty-five or more officers or employees of a single agency, or a total of one hundred or more officers or employees of several agencies have authorized such a deduction for payment to the same labor or employee organization: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That labor or employee organizations with five hundred or more members in state government may have payroll deduction for employee benefit programs.

(7) Accident and casualty premiums to a single insurer: PROVIDED, That twenty-five or more officers or employees of a single agency, or a total of one hundred or more officers or employees of several agencies have authorized such a deduction for payment to that insurer.

(8) ((Health care)) Insurance contributions to the trustee of ((health care benefit)) contracts for payment of premiums under contracts authorized by the state employees' insurance board.

Deductions from salaries and wages of public officers and employees other than those enumerated in this section or by other law, may be authorized by the budget director for purposes clearly related to state employment or goals and objectives of the agency.

The authority to make deductions from the salaries and wages of public officers and employees as provided for in this section shall be in addition to such other authority as may be provided by law: PROVIDED, That the state or any department, division, or separate agency of the state shall not be liable to any insurance carrier or contractor for the failure to make or transmit any such deduction.

Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 10, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.04.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Any county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state acting through its principal supervising official or governing body may, whenever funds shall be available for that purpose provide for all or a part of hospitalization and medical aid for its employees and their dependents through contracts with regularly constituted insurance carriers or with health care service contractors as defined in chapter 48.44 RCW, for group hospitalization and medical aid policies or plans: PROVIDED, That any county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state acting through its principal supervising official or governing body shall provide the employees thereof a choice of policies or plans through contracts with not less than two regularly constituted insurance carriers or health care service contractors: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any county may provide such hospitalization and medical aid to county elected officials and their dependents on the same basis as such hospitalization and medical aid is provided to other county employees and their dependents: PROVIDED FURTHER, That provision for school district ((and higher education)) personnel shall not be made under this section but shall be as provided for in RCW ((28.76.440 for sections)) 28A.58.420 ((and 28B.10.660 of the 1969 education code)).

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.05.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Retired or disabled state employees may continue their participation in insurance plans and contracts after retirement or disablement, under the qualifications, terms, conditions, and benefits set by the board: ~~((EXCEPT))~~ PROVIDED, That the rates charged such retired or disabled state employees for health care coverage shall be identical to that charged active participants; PROVIDED FURTHER, That such retired or disabled employees shall bear the full cost of premiums required to provide such coverage. The term "retired state employees" for the purpose of this section shall include but not be limited to members of the legislature whether voluntarily or involuntarily leaving state office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.06.370 are hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This bill shall not take effect until the funds necessary for its implementation have been specifically appropriated by the legislature and such appropriation itself has become law. It is the intention of the legislature that if the governor shall veto this section or any item thereof, none of the provisions of this bill shall take effect.

(1) No contract of life insurance shall hereafter be delivered or issued for delivery in this state insuring the lives of more than one individual unless to one of the groups as provided for in this chapter, and unless in compliance with the other provisions of this chapter.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to contracts of life insurance

(a) insuring only individuals related by marriage, by blood, or by legal adoption; or

(b) insuring only individuals having a common interest through ownership of a business enterprise, or of a substantial legal interest or equity therein, and who are actively engaged in the management thereof; or

(c) insuring the lives of employees and retirees under contracts executed with the state employees insurance board under the provisions of chapter 41.05 RCW.

Sec. 12. Section 1, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.05.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, words used in this chapter have the following meaning:

(1) "Board" means the state employees' insurance board established under the provisions of RCW 41.05.020.

(2) "Employee" shall include all full time and career seasonal employees of the state, whether or not covered by civil service; elected and appointed officials of the executive branch of government, including full time members of boards, commissions or committees; and shall include any or all part time and temporary employees under the terms and conditions established by the board; justices of the supreme court and judges of the court of appeals and the superior courts; and members of the legislature who are elected to office after February 20, 1970.

(3) "Panel medicine plan" means a health care plan which can be offered by a health care service contractor which itself furnishes the health care service contracted for by means of a group practice prepaid medical care plan.

(4) "Trustee" shall mean the director of personnel.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Nothing contained in this 1973 amendatory act shall be deemed to amend, alter or affect the provisions of Chapter 23, Laws of 1972, Extraordinary Session, and RCW 28B.10.840 through 28B.10.844 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is appropriated from the state employees' insurance revolving fund to the state employees' insurance board the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to supplement other funds related to health care coverage and to provide the necessary staff and studies attendant to the investigation and review of other insurance plans for state employees.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 1, chapter 52, Laws of 1957 and RCW 18.15.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any one or any combination of the following practices (when done upon the upper part of the human body for cosmetic purposes and not for the treatment of disease or physical or mental ailments, and when done for payment, either directly or indirectly, or without payment, for the public generally upon male or female) constitutes the practice of barbering: (1) Shaving or trimming the beard or cutting the hair; (2) giving facial and scalp massage or treatments with oils, creams, lotions, or other preparations, either by hand or mechanical appliances; (3) singeing, shampooing or dyeing the hair, or applying tonics; (4) applying cosmetic preparations, antiseptics, powders, oils, clays, or lotions to the scalp, face, neck or upper part of the body: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any person employed in, or engaged in the operation of any beauty shop or hair dressing establishment or to persons engaged in the care or treatment of patients in health facilities or engaged in the care of residents of boarding homes and similar residential care facilities: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That a certified men's hair stylist may perform the following additional practices: (1) Hair analysis, reconditioning, and restoration procedures, as required; (2) the chemical processing of the hair, including temporary or permanent body waving, curl correction, or straightening, as well as the application of other chemicals in the process of barbering; and (3) the fitting and servicing of wigs, wefts, and hair pieces.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 75, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 4, chapter 223, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.15.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Barber examinations shall be held six times in each year in the months of February, April, June, August, October and December; and on such particular dates, within the said times, and in such particular cities and places as the director of (~~licenses~~) motor vehicles shall determine. Every applicant for a license or permit to practice barbering in this state shall be required to take an examination in each branch as follows: (1) sanitation as applied to the practice of barbering, (2) sterilization as applied to the practice of barbering, (3) and as to whether he has sufficient knowledge of the common contagious and infectious diseases of the face, skin, and scalp, to avoid spreading thereof in the practice of barbering; (4) and as to whether he has sufficient knowledge of the use of chemicals, creams, lotions, and solutions as applied in the practice of barbering; (5) and in any other portion of the curriculum as required by this law; and such applicant shall be required to demonstrate to the barber examining committee his professional skill and ability in performing the following barber services; (1) Haircutting, (2) shaving, (3) massaging, (4) shampooing, and (5) conditioning his barber tools.

Any applicant, other than one applying under the provisions of RCW 18.15.040, who secures a passing grade in each branch of not less than seventy-five percent in his examination and who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the barber examining committee that he possesses the required professional skill and ability to properly perform each of the said barber services, not less than sixty-five percent of perfect, and possesses the other particular qualifications provided in this chapter, shall be entitled to receive, and the director of licenses shall issue to him, a permit to practice barbering in this state. Every person receiving such permit shall be required to serve one and one-half years (eighteen months) under the direct supervision of a licensed barber. A year shall be construed to mean a period of not less than fifty-two weeks consisting of forty hours per week of service by the permittee. He must then pass an examination not less than seventy-five percent of perfect, and demonstrate to the satisfaction of the barber examining committee that he possesses the required professional skill and ability to properly perform each of the said barber services, not less than seventy-five percent of perfect, and possess the qualifications required in this chapter, after which the director shall issue to him a license to practice barbering.

Any applicant under the provisions of RCW 18.15.040 who secures a grade in each branch of not less than seventy-five percent in his examination and who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the barber examining committee that he possesses the required professional skill and ability to properly perform each of the said barber services, not less than seventy-five percent of perfect, and possesses the other particular qualifications provided in this chapter, shall be entitled to receive, and the director of licenses shall issue to him a license to practice barbering in this state, until the first day of July next following the issuance of such license. Every applicant for such license shall pay a fee of thirty-five dollars, which fee shall accompany his application. The director upon receipt of such application and fee shall notify the applicant of the particular date, city and place where he is to appear for his examination for a license or permit to practice barbering in this state.

Any unsuccessful applicant for a license or permit to practice barbering in this state shall be entitled to appear at any subsequent barber examination and be reexamined for a license or permit, as the case may be, to practice barbering in this state upon the payment of a reexamination fee of fifteen dollars, and which reexamination fee shall be paid at the time of application for such reexamination, said application and fee to be submitted to the director at least fifteen days prior to an examination date: PROVIDED, That an unsuccessful applicant for a permit shall return to an approved school or college for an additional two hundred fifty hours of instruction before he may be reexamined.

Any person who applies for a license or permit to practice barbering under this chapter, and who does not appear for examination at the time, date, and place as notified by the director, shall forfeit application fees, and must reapply with a fee of fifteen dollars, which fee shall accompany his new application.

Any person holding a current manager-operator license of this state issued under the provisions of chapter 18.18 RCW shall be deemed qualified to apply to the director to be examined for a license to practice barbering, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED, That any such applicant who fails said examination must then enroll in a licensed barber school of this state and complete a course of instruction of not less than two hundred fifty hours before applying to be reexamined for a barber license. The curriculum for such course of instruction shall be determined by the barber examining committee and approved by the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 18.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person with a permit to barber in this state who is indentured as a barber apprentice pursuant to chapter 49.04 RCW and who has successfully completed the related training course as approved by the barber examining committee and the state department of labor and industries, apprenticeship council, and who has served the required number of months under the direct supervision of a licensed barber of this state as provided in this chapter, shall be deemed qualified to receive a license to practice barbering in this state without a final examination. Upon application and payment of a sum equal to the annual license renewal fee, the director shall issue him a license to practice as a barber in this state: PROVIDED, That the applicant meets all of the other requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 75, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 2, chapter 266, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.15.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person licensed as a barber or a permit barber shall pay an annual license fee of not ((more)) less than ((ten)) five dollars nor more than fifteen dollars, ((to be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.005)) for a license or permit renewal certificate on or before the thirtieth day of June each year. The annual license and permit renewal fee shall be determined by the director under the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. Failure to pay the annual license or permit renewal fees before delinquency shall work a forfeiture of the license or permit, but the license or permit may be renewed within three years thereafter without examination upon application therefor by the licentiate or permittee, and payment of a fee of fifteen dollars plus all lapsed fees. Should the licentiate or permittee allow his license or permit to elapse for more than three years, he must be reexamined as for a new license or permit.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 84, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 10, chapter 223, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.15.065 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any firm, corporation, or person to operate a barber shop without a shop location license for each barber shop. Application therefor shall be made to the director of ~~((licenses))~~ motor vehicles. Each application for a license shall be accompanied by a fee of ~~((four))~~ twenty-five dollars.

Upon receipt of the application and fee, the director shall issue a shop location license, if the barber shop meets the requirements of this chapter. Each license shall be issued for the shop and persons named in the application. Application for the transfer or assignment of a shop location license shall be upon such form as the director shall prescribe, and application shall be made within ten days of the sale or transfer. Upon the receipt of the application and a fee of ~~((four))~~ twenty-five dollars, the director shall assign or transfer the shop location license, if the assignee or transferee and the barber shop meets the requirements of this chapter. If the application for transfer or assignment is not made within ten days, ~~((an inspection))~~ a penalty fee of twenty-five dollars will be made, prior to issuance of a license.

All licenses issued under this section shall expire on the first day of July next succeeding the date of issue. Each such license shall be renewable annually on or before the expiration date, and the application for renewal shall be accompanied by a fee of four dollars. Failure to obtain a renewal before delinquency shall work a forfeiture of the shop location license, but the license may be reinstated at any time after forfeiture upon the payment of the annual renewal fee, together with a penalty fee of twenty-five dollars, upon satisfactory inspection.

Sec. 6. Section 14, chapter 75, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 12, chapter 223, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.15.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any firm, corporation or person desiring to conduct or operate a barber school or barber college in this state shall first secure from the director of ~~((licenses))~~ motor vehicles a permit to do so, and shall keep the same prominently displayed. No barber school or college shall be issued a permit by the director of ((licenses)) motor vehicles unless such school or college is financially responsible, and will be able in the judgment of the director ((of licenses)) to carry out and perform any contract made for the instruction of students therein.

Such school or college shall instruct students therein in the practice of barbering, including shaving and cutting of the hair and beard, and the various services incident thereto, preparation and care of tools used, sanitation as applied to barbering, knowledge concerning the common diseases of the face and skin to avoid aggravation and spreading thereof in the practice of barbering, and the use of chemicals, creams, lotions, and solutions as applied in the practice of barbering. Such barber school or college shall be managed and operated by a barber duly licensed as a manager-instructor under the provisions of this chapter, and shall at all times, while open and in operation, be in charge and under the direct supervision of a barber duly licensed as an instructor or manager-instructor under the provisions of this chapter((;)).

Every school or college shall at all times maintain one barber duly licensed as a manager-instructor or instructor, and there shall be at least one such licensed instructor or manager-instructor for each twenty students or fraction thereof, in attendance; and there shall be at least one such instructor or manager-instructor on the floor at all times when the barber school or college is open to serve the public, which said instructor or manager-instructor shall devote his entire time to the instruction of students therein and who shall at no time operate any particular barber's chair in such school or college, or practice any barbering therein except while giving instructions to a student therein. Every such school or college shall at all times maintain on each window therein, facing upon any street, a sign in plain letters at least six inches high composed of the words "barber school" or "barber college," placed as nearly as practicable in the center between top and bottom of any such window, and, if desired by the manager-instructor of such school or college, underneath these words, a sign with letters no greater in size, composed of the words "shaving" and/or "hair cutting," giving the price charged; and such school or college shall not at any time keep or maintain upon any of the windows or doors of such school or college, or use in any advertisement, any sign or words "barber shop," "expert barbering," or other similar words, or display any barber pole or barber pole stripes such as has long been used to designate a barber shop, or barber shop services as distinguished from services performed by student barbers in such school or college. Every such school or college, at all times when open for business, shall place and maintain upon the floor within its premises in front of each entrance a standing floor sign composed of the words "student barbers perform all services herein" painted in three-inch red letters upon a white standing floor sign thirty inches high and twenty inches wide, and designed as prescribed by the director ((of licenses)). The director ((of licenses)) shall revoke the license of any school or college which shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, or which shall fail to impart to each student in such school or college the instructions herein required.

No barber school or college shall be operated unless it is under the control of a barber licensed as a manager-instructor. Each applicant for a manager-instructor's license shall submit an application to the director on such forms as it may prescribe. The qualifications for such a license, ((examinations,)) license fees and license renewal fees shall be the same as those prescribed for an instructor's license. The examination for a manager-instructor's license, shall in addition to the requirements for an instructor's license, include business management as related to barber shops and barber schools, state laws and regulations relating to the operation of barber schools and barbering, and such other subjects relating to the operation of barber schools or colleges as the examining committee may prescribe. The name and designation of the licensee as manager-instructor shall appear on each school or college location license issued by the director. A manager-instructor's license shall stand revoked if not used for a period of two years, after which time licentiate must be reexamined as for a new license.

No person shall engage in teaching or instructing in barber schools or colleges without an instructor's license issued by the director. Each applicant for an instructor's license shall submit an application to the director on such forms as ((it)) he may prescribe, and must comply with the following qualifications: (1) Each applicant must be at least twenty-five years of age; (2) must be of good health; (3) must be of good moral character; (4) must have had at least five years of experience as a licensed barber of this state in a licensed barber shop of this state immediately preceding application; (5) must have a current barber license; (6) must have at least a tenth grade education or be capable of proving an equivalent education as determined by the board for vocational education and local schools; (7) each applicant must take an examination administered by the examining committee. The examination shall cover such subjects as are usually taught in barber schools and colleges in practical and theory work; (8) such applicant shall be required to demonstrate to the barber examining committee his professional skill and ability in performing all of the barbering services as required by this chapter. Applications for an instructor's license must be made before becoming engaged in teaching or instructing, but applicant may be permitted to engage in teaching or instructing for a period of not more than sixty days, at which time he must present himself for examination. The fee for such license and examination shall be ~~((twenty-five))~~ fifty dollars. Each license shall be renewed on or before July 1st; the renewal fee shall be twenty-five dollars. If application for a renewal is not received on or before July 1st, the renewal fee shall be twenty-five dollars plus a penalty of twenty-five dollars. The instructor's license shall stand revoked if not used for a period of two years, and an examination as for a new license will be required before a license will be reissued.

Any person engaged as an instructor or manager-instructor on effective date of this chapter, in a barber school or college of this state, shall be issued a license under this section upon payment of the fees herein prescribed.

Sec. 8. Section 8, chapter 172, Laws of 1901 as last amended by section 15, chapter 223, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.15.100 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to study the practice of barbering in any barber school or barber college authorized under this chapter unless he shall first have obtained and holds a valid student barber certificate issued pursuant to this chapter. Any person of good moral character, free from contagious or infectious disease, at least eighteen years of age, and showing completion of the tenth grade, or has an equivalent education as determined by the director whose determination shall be conclusive, shall be deemed qualified to make an application for and be entitled to obtain a student barber certificate authorizing him to study the practice of barbering in any barber school or barber college in this state. Application therefor shall be made to the director ~~((of licenses))~~. Each application shall have attached thereto the certificate of a licensed physician and surgeon that the said applicant is not afflicted with any contagious or infectious disease, and a certificate signed by two reputable citizens living in the community in which the applicant now resides or has recently resided, that he is of good moral character. Each application shall be accompanied by two signed photographs of the applicant. Every such applicant shall pay a fee of five dollars, which fee shall accompany his application. The director ~~((of licenses))~~ upon the receipt of such application and fee shall issue to each qualified applicant a student barber certificate which shall be valid for one year from the date of its issue, and which shall be subject to one renewal thereafter upon the payment of a fee of five dollars: PROVIDED, That any student barber holding (1) a valid student barber certificate, and (2) a graduation certificate from any barber school or barber college authorized under this chapter shall be deemed qualified to make application for a permit to practice barbering in this state. Application therefor shall be made to the director (~~of licenses~~). Each applicant shall pay a fee of twenty-five dollars plus an amount equal to the annual renewal fee, which fee shall accompany his application. The director of (~~licenses~~) upon the receipt of such application and fee shall notify the applicant of the particular date, city, and place where he is to appear for his examination for a permit to practice barbering in this state. Failure of applicant to appear for said examination will cause a forfeiture of fees.

Sec. 9. Section 7, chapter 209, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 16, chapter 223, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.15.110 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any barber school or barber college authorized under this chapter to grant admission to or instruct any person in the practice of barbering therein unless such person then holds a valid student barber certificate issued under this chapter. Every such barber school or barber college shall require as a prerequisite to graduation therefrom the completion of a course of instruction and practice therein of not less than one thousand two hundred forty-eight hours, to be completed in not less than eight consecutive months' time nor more than sixteen months' time from the date of the admission of such barber student. Such course of instruction and practice shall include, in addition to the subjects and practice hereinbefore prescribed, instruction in the following subjects: (1) Scientific fundamentals of barbering(~~;~~ as set forth with particularity in the latest revised edition of either of the following textbooks: (a) "Standardized Textbook of Barbering", published by the Associated Master Barbers of America, Chicago, Illinois, or (b) "Textbook of Practical and Scientific Barbering", published by the Journeyman Barbers, Educational Department, Indianapolis, Indiana)); (2) histology of the hair, skin and scalp; (3) structure of the head, face and neck; (4) coloring and bleaching the hair; (~~and~~) (5) use of chemicals, creams, lotions and solutions as applied in the practice of barbering.

Any basic textbook, or text books, may be used in barber schools and colleges, however, a specific text book (or text books) as recommended by the barber examining committee and designated by the director in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW shall be used in the preparation of examinations.

A detailed curriculum approved by the barber examining committee and adopted by the director in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW shall be followed by all barber schools and colleges.

Each student barber upon the satisfactory completion of the said prescribed course of instruction and practice shall be issued a graduation certificate from such barber school or barber college. Each such graduate student shall be furnished a certified copy of his graduation certificate by such barber school or barber college for his use in filing his application for a permit to practice barbering in this state as hereinbefore provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 18.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature finds that there is a distinct difference between the practice of barbering and the practice of men's hairstyling.

The legislature further finds that it is necessary to distinguish between the two practices to enable those persons currently within the profession of barbering to advance themselves professionally to become duly certified men's hairstylists and recognized as such. Therefore, it shall be the policy of the state to make laws regulating the practice of men's hairstyling.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 18.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to the practice of barbering any one or any combination of the following practices when done upon the upper part of the human male body for cosmetic purposes and not for the treatment of disease or physical or mental ailments, and when done for payment, either directly or indirectly, or without payment constitutes the practice of men's hairstyling: Straightening, curling, temporary waving, permanent waving, bleaching, or applying chemicals as related to men's hairstyling, or doing similar work thereon by the use of the hands or any method of mechanical application or appliances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 18.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person duly licensed as a barber in this state, and who has satisfactorily completed a course of instruction in the practice of men's hairstyling as approved by the barber examining committee, shall be entitled to make application to be examined for a Washington state men's hairstyling certificate. Fee for such examination and certificate shall be fifty dollars; application and fee to be submitted to the director at least fifteen days prior to an examination date. Any applicant for a certificate under this chapter who secures a grade in each branch of not less than seventy-five percent in his examination and who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the examining committee that he possesses the required professional skill and ability to properly perform each of the said men's hairstyling services, shall be entitled to receive, and the director shall issue to him an official Washington state men's hairstyling certificate, recognizing him as a certified men's hairstylist, and when accompanied by a current barber license of this state, shall entitle him to practice men's hairstyling.

PROVIDED, That persons engaged in the practice of men's hairstyling under this chapter are authorized to perform body waving and permanent waving to the extent necessary to style or arrange the hair on male patrons, but persons engaged in the practice of men's hairstyling under this chapter are not authorized to otherwise engage in the practice of cosmetology unless such person is licensed under chapter 18.18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 18.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The barber examining committee shall prescribe the curriculum and examination for a men's hairstyling certificate in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 18.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The barber examining committee shall adopt such reasonable rules and regulations as necessary to regulate the practice of men's hairstyling under this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 18.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The committee, with the approval of the director, shall meet at least once annually with the manager-instructors and/or instructors of each barber school or barber college in this state to discuss current trends and examinations.

Sec. 16. Section 2, chapter 281, Laws of 1927 as last amended by section 1, chapter 3, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the words used in this chapter have the meaning given in this section:

(1) "Practice of hairdressing" or "hairdressing" means the arranging, dressing, curling, waving, permanent waving, cleansing, bleaching or coloring of the hair, fitting and dressing of wigs and hair pieces on or off the head other than ~~((incident))~~ incidental to ~~((original))~~ retail sales, or doing similar work thereon by use of the hands or any method of mechanical application or appliances or the practice of haircutting ~~((on female persons))~~;

((10)) ((12)) ((12)) An "instructor operator" is a person who gives instruction in the practice of hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology in a school and who has the qualifications of a manager operator and who has passed an instructor examination: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to any person acting as an instructor operator on March 16, 1951. An instructor operator shall not perform in a ((beauty)) cosmetology school, ((beauty culture)) cosmetology services for members of the public except for instructional purposes;

((42)) [14] "Committee" means the ((beauty culture)) cosmetology examining committee;

((43)) [15] "Board" means the hearing board.

Sec. 17. Section 8, chapter 215, Laws of 1937 and RCW 18.18.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of ((licenses)) motor vehicles shall, in addition to other duties imposed by law, adopt rules for carrying out the provisions of this chapter and conducting examinations of applicants for licenses; for governing the recognition of, and the credits to be given to, the study of hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology under a hairdresser and ((beauty culturist)) cosmetologist or any school of hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology licensed under the laws of another state, territory or the District of Columbia, and shall, subject to the approval of the state board of health, promulgate rules for the prevention of infectious or contagious diseases in hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology shops and schools, and shall furnish to each person, firm or corporation licensed under this chapter a copy of such rules; shall hold examinations of all applicants for a license under this chapter, and grant licenses to those qualified. The director of ((licenses)) motor vehicles shall keep all examination papers on file for at least one year, which file shall be open to the inspection of the applicant or his agent.

Sec. 18. Section 1, chapter 215, Laws of 1937, as amended by section 2, chapter 3, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.030 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to engage in the practice of hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology, or the practice of manicuring, for compensation, or hold himself or itself out as qualified to engage in the practice of, or solicit the practice of, hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology, or the practice of manicuring, or to own, manage, conduct, or give instruction in a hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology shop or school unless licensed to do so as in this chapter provided.

Every hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology establishment for the teaching of any branch thereof shall be classified as a school of hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology within the meaning of this chapter, and shall be required to comply with its provisions.

Sec. 19. Section 18, chapter 215, Laws of 1937 and RCW 18.18.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any person authorized under the laws of this state to practice medicine, surgery, or dentistry from engaging in the practice for which they are licensed;

nor require a license under this chapter for any barber from performing any service for which he may be licensed; nor prohibit manicuring in barber shops when performed by a manicurist licensed under the provisions of this chapter; but the provisions hereof shall not be construed to authorize any person other than a student or person licensed under this chapter to do permanent, or temporary waving of the hair.

This chapter shall not apply to persons engaged in the care or treatment of patients in health facilities or engaged in the care of residents of boarding homes and similar residential care facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 18.18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Within ninety days after the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act the examining committee, under the supervision and direction of the director of motor vehicles, shall devise the qualifications necessary for and an examination for the practice of manicuring, for which a separate license shall hereafter be required under this chapter, except for persons holding a valid license in the practice of beauty culture: PROVIDED, That any person engaged in the practice of manicuring for at least one year prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act shall be deemed qualified for such a license without an examination therefor. Applications for licenses shall be made on such form and require such information and certificates, as required by the examining committee and be accompanied by the proper application fee. Examinations shall be held at regular intervals throughout the year as the examining committee deems necessary. The provisions of RCW 18.18.110 shall not be applicable hereto.

Sec. 21. Section 2, chapter 180, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 3, chapter 324, Laws of 1959 and RCW 18.18.050 are each amended to read as follows:

An operator's license shall be issued to a student who: (1) Is of the age of eighteen years or over; (2) is of good moral character and temperate habits; (3) has graduated from an accredited high school or the equivalent thereof as determined by the director whose determination shall be conclusive: PROVIDED, That this subdivision shall not apply to those holding a valid operator's license or attending a recognized ((beauty)) cosmetology school prior to the effective date of this amendatory section but such persons shall be subject to the law in existence prior to the effective date of this amendatory section; (4) is a citizen of the United States or declared his intention to become a citizen; (5) has completed a course of training of not less than two thousand hours in a recognized ((beauty)) cosmetology school, such training not to exceed eight hours in any one day; and (6) who has satisfactorily passed the hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology examination in this state.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to operate a ((beauty)) cosmetology shop or a ((beauty)) cosmetology school without a shop or school location license for each ((beauty)) cosmetology shop or ((beauty)) cosmetology school. Application therefor shall be made on forms furnished by the director and shall contain such information as the director may reasonably require. Upon receipt of such application and the fee required by this chapter, the director shall issue a location license if such shop or school meets the other requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 23. Section 5, chapter 180, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 6, chapter 3, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Each application shall be accompanied by the following fees: Student enrollment, five dollars; manicurist, seven dollars and fifty cents; operator, ten dollars; instructor operator, fifteen dollars; manager operator, five dollars; shop, twenty-five dollars; school, one hundred fifty dollars. Any applicant who fails to pass the examination may take the next succeeding examination with payment of an additional fee of seven dollars and fifty cents.

Sec. 24. Section 7, chapter 215, Laws of 1937 as amended by section 7, chapter 3, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.100 are each amended to read as follows:

All examinations for license shall be conducted and given by the examining committee under the supervision and direction of the director of ((licenses)) motor vehicles, in the manner provided by law. No person shall, however, be appointed as a member of an examining committee for the purpose of conducting examinations and performing other duties imposed by this chapter unless he is an operator and of the age of at least twenty-five years, has the qualifications of an instructor, has been a citizen of the state for at least three years immediately prior to his appointment, has been engaged in actual practice as a hairdresser, ((beauty culturist)) cosmetologist, or instructor for at least five years, is not connected directly or indirectly with any school of hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology, and is not connected directly or indirectly in the business of the manufacturing, renting or selling of hairdressing or ((beauty culture)) cosmetology appliances and supplies at wholesale.

Sec. 25. Section 4, chapter 313, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 9, chapter 3, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.110 are each amended to read as follows:

All examinations for licenses shall be conducted six times a year, an examination to be given once every two months.

The examination shall consist of written and oral questions and answers and practical tests. Written examinations shall cover each of the branches of hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology required in the course of study.

Practical tests shall consist of actual demonstrations in hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology under the direction and supervision of the committee.

Applicants shall also be required to pass an examination in anatomy, physiology, hygiene, sanitation, sterilization and the use of antiseptics in hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology.

Passing grades shall be based upon the standard of one hundred percent.

An applicant who receives a passing grade of not less than seventy-five percent in each branch, and in addition thereto passes the required examination in anatomy, physiology, hygiene, sanitation, sterilization and the use of antiseptics, shall be entitled to a license as an operator.

An instructor's examination shall consist of a lesson plan and a demonstration in the art of teaching at least two subjects of the ((beauty culture)) cosmetology law.

Sec. 26. Section 8, chapter 180, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 12, chapter 3, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The courses of instruction in theory and practical application in every school shall comprise at least the following:

- (1) Shampooing, soap and dry;
- (2) Care of the face and massaging, including make up and care of eyebrows and lashes;
- (3) Care of the scalp and massaging, rinses and packs;
- (4) Hair coloring and bleaching;
- (5) Cold permanent waving;
- (6) Iron curling or waving;
- (7) Finger waving;
- (8) Hair fashioning, shaping and cutting;
- (9) Manicuring;
- (10) Electricity as applied to cosmetology, and the use and application of electrical appliances;
- (11) The study of the law on ((beauty culture)) cosmetology of the state of Washington;
- (12) Shop management, ownership, and business ethics.
- (13) Theory and science of cosmetology.

Sec. 27. Section 7, chapter 180, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 3, chapter 266, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Licenses may be renewed from year to year upon the payment on or before the first day of each July following their issuance, of a renewal fee as follows: Manicurist, not more than five dollars; operator, not more than five dollars; instructor operator, not more than six dollars; manager operator, not more than six dollars; shop, not more than seven dollars; school, not more than one hundred and fifty dollars, all such fees to be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085.

A certificate of health is required with an application for an original license, one must also be filed with a renewal application.

Any manicurist, operator, manager operator, or instructor operator whose license has lapsed may have the same renewed upon payment of all fees which the applicant would have been required to pay to keep such license in effect, and an additional fee of five dollars for each lapsed year: PROVIDED, That any person whose license has lapsed for more than three years shall be reexamined, as in the case of any applicant for an original license.

Sec. 28. Section 15, chapter 215, Laws of 1937 as amended by section 8, chapter 324, Laws of 1959 and RCW 18.18.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Any license issued pursuant to this chapter may be revoked for any of the following causes arising after the issuance thereof:

(1) Conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, in which case the record of conviction shall be conclusive evidence;

(2) Habitual drunkenness or the use of habit forming drugs;

(3) Gross incompetency;

(4) Advertising in any manner by means of knowingly false or deceptive statements;

(5) Performing work authorized by said license in an unsanitary or filthy manner;

(6) Performing either the practice of hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology or the practice of manicuring upon the person of another while knowingly suffering from an infectious or contagious disease;

(7) Wilful violation of any of the provisions of this chapter;

(8) Failure to pay an operator the minimum wage required by law.

Sec. 29. Section 11, chapter 52, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 17, chapter 3, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.260 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall engage in the practice of hairdressing, and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology in any place other than a hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology shop or school, except in case of his own family or in case of a person whose physical condition prevents his presence at a shop or school.

No person shall sleep in, or use for residential purposes, any room used wholly or in part as a hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology shop, nor engage in hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology in any room used for sleeping or residential purposes.

Every hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology shop shall maintain an outside entrance separate from the entrances to rooms used for sleeping or residential purposes.

From and after July 1, 1959 every hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology shop shall provide and maintain for the use of the customers adequate toilet facilities.

No hairdressing or ((beauty)) cosmetology shop shall be operated unless it is under the direct supervision of a manager operator.

No person other than a manicurist limited to the practice of manicuring or an operator in demonstrating, or instructing in the use of any cosmetics or supplies of any kind, shall engage in any of the acts enumerated in RCW 18.18.010 and 18.18.190.

No student shall engage in the practice of hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology except in a school under the direct supervision of an instructor.

Sec. 30. Section 12, chapter 52, Laws of 1957 and RCW 18.18.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor who: (1) Violates any of the provisions of this chapter or any regulation lawfully promulgated by the director; or, (2) permits any person in his employ or under his supervision or control to practice hairdressing and ((beauty culture)) cosmetology without a license where one is required by this chapter; or, (3) attempts to obtain a license by fraudulent means. Each and every day on which such violation occurs shall constitute a separate offense.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 28B.10.400, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 261, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.400 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of regents of the state universities ((and)) the boards of trustees of the state colleges, and the state board for community college education are authorized and empowered:

(1) To assist the faculties and such other employees as ((the boards of regents of the state universities or the boards of trustees of the state colleges)) any such board may designate in the purchase of old age annuities or retirement income plans under such rules and regulations as ((the boards of regents or the boards of trustees of said institutions)) any such board may prescribe. County agricultural agents, home demonstration agents, 4-H club agents, and assistant county agricultural agents paid jointly by the Washington State University and the several counties shall be deemed to be full time employees of the Washington State University for the purposes hereof;

(2) To provide, under such rules and regulations as any such board may prescribe for the ((institution)) faculty members or other employees under its supervision, for the retirement of any such faculty member or other employee on account of age or condition of health, retirement on account of age to be not earlier than the sixty-fifth birthday: PROVIDED, That such faculty member or such other employee may elect to retire at the earliest age specified for retirement by federal social security law: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any supplemental payment authorized by subsection (3) of this section and paid as a result of retirement earlier than age sixty-five shall be at an actuarially reduced rate;

(3) To pay to any such retired person or his surviving spouse, each year after his retirement, an amount which, when added to the amount of such annuity or retirement income plan received by him or his surviving spouse in such year, will not exceed fifty percent of the average annual salary paid to such retired person for his ((last ten)) highest two consecutive years of full time service at ((such)) an institution of higher education; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if such retired person prior to his retirement elected a supplemental payment survivors option, any such supplemental payments to such retired person or his surviving spouse shall be at actuarially reduced rates.

Sec. 2. Section 28B.10.405, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 261, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.405 are each amended to read as follows:

Members of the faculties and such other employees as are designated by the boards of regents of the state universities, ((or)) the boards of trustees of the state colleges, or the state board for community college education shall be required to contribute not less than five percent of their salaries during each year of full time service after the first two years of such service toward the purchase of such annuity or retirement income plan; such contributions may be in addition to federal social security tax contributions, if any.

Sec. 3. Section 28B.10.410, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 261, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.410 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of regents of the state universities, ((or)) the boards of trustees of the state colleges, or the state board for community college education shall pay not more than one-half of the annual premium of any annuity or retirement income plan established under the provisions of RCW 28B.10.400 as amended in section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act. Such contribution shall not exceed ten percent of the salary of the faculty member or other employee on whose behalf the contribution is made. This contribution may be in addition to federal social security tax contributions made by the boards, if any.

Sec. 4. Section 28B.10.415, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 261, Laws of 1971 ex. sess.

and RCW 28B.10.415 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of regents of the state universities, ~~((or))~~ the boards of trustees of state colleges, or the state board for community college education shall not pay any amount to be added to the annuity or retirement income plan of any retired person who has served for less than ten years in one or more of the state ~~((universities or state colleges))~~ institutions of higher education. In the case of persons who have served more than ten years but less than twenty-five years no amount shall be paid in excess of four percent of the amount authorized in subdivision (3) of RCW 28B.10.400 as amended in section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act, multiplied by the number of years of full time service rendered by such person.

Sec. 5. Section 28B.10.420, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.420 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((University teaching))~~ Faculty members or other employees designated by the boards of regents of the state universities, the boards of trustees of the state colleges, or the state board for community college education pursuant to sections 1 through 5 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be retired from ~~((teaching))~~ their employment with their institutions of higher education not later than the end of the academic year next following their seventieth birthday.

Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 83.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The right of a person to a pension, annuity or retirement allowance, any optional benefit, any other right accrued or accruing to any person under ~~((REW))~~ Title 41 RCW or under any retirement or pension system established or in effect for faculty or employees at institutions of higher education, including private institutions of higher education, shall be exempt from inheritance tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 28B.50.570, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.570;

(2) Section 46, chapter 283, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.571;

(3) Section 47, chapter 283, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.572;

(4) Section 48, chapter 283, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.573;

(5) Section 49, chapter 283, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.574; and

(6) Section 50, chapter 283, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 79, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.575.

Such repeals shall not be construed as affecting any existing right acquired under the provisions of the statutes repealed; nor any rule, regulation, or order adopted pursuant thereto, nor as affecting any proceeding instituted thereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. It is the intent of this 1973 amendatory act that the retirement income resulting from the contributions described herein from the state of Washington and the employee shall be projected actuarially so that it shall not exceed sixty percent of the average of the highest two consecutive years salary. Periodic review of the retirement systems established pursuant to this act will be undertaken at such time and in such manner as determined by the committees on ways and means of the Senate and of the House of Representatives and the public pension commission, and joint contribution rates will be adjusted if necessary to accomplish this intent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The sum of $1,611,650 is hereby appropriated from the general fund for the purpose of carrying out this 1973 amendatory act, to be allocated by the governor to the institutions of higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This 1973 amendatory act shall take effect on July 1, 1974.

Passed the Senate April 15, 1973.

Passed the House April 15, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2250]

MOTOR VEHICLES--SIZE--WEIGHT--

LOAD--REVISIONS

AN ACT Relating to motor vehicles; amending section 15, chapter 170, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.115; amending section 46.44.040, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.040; amending section 46.44.047, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 249, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.047; and amending section 46.44.095, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 55, chapter 281, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.095.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 46.44.040, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in RCW 46.44.047 and 46.44.095 it is unlawful to operate any vehicle upon the public highways with a gross weight including load upon any one axle thereof in excess of eighteen thousand pounds: PROVIDED, That a tolerance of two thousand pounds may be allowed on the rear axle of a two axle garbage truck and an additional two thousand pounds may be purchased under the provisions of RCW 46.44.095 for an amount not to exceed thirty dollars per thousand: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this tolerance shall not be valid or permitted on any part of the federal interstate highway system where the maximum single axle load shall not exceed eighteen thousand pounds.

It is unlawful to operate any one axle semitrailer upon the public highways with a gross weight including load upon such one axle in excess of eighteen thousand pounds.

It is unlawful to operate any truck or truck tractor upon the public highways of this state supported upon two axles with a gross weight including load in excess of ((twenty-eight)) thirty-two thousand pounds.

It is unlawful to operate any semitrailer or pole trailer upon the public highway supported upon two axles with a gross weight including load in excess of thirty-two thousand pounds unless such axles are not less than one hundred and two inches apart, in which case, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 46.44.045, the allowable gross weight including load shall be thirty-six thousand pounds. It is unlawful to operate any two axle trailer upon the public highways with a gross weight, including load, in excess of thirty-six thousand pounds.

Except as provided in RCW 46.44.095 it is unlawful to operate any vehicle upon the public highways supported upon three axles or more with a gross weight including load in excess of ((thirty-six)) forty thousand pounds.

(2) The maximum axle and gross weight specified in subsection (1) above are subject to the braking requirements set up for the service brakes upon any motor vehicle or combination of vehicles as provided by law.

(3) It is unlawful to operate any vehicle upon the public highways equipped with two axles spaced less than seven feet apart, unless the two axles are so constructed and mounted in such a manner to provide oscillation between the two axles and that either one of the two axles will not at any one time carry more than the maximum gross weight allowed for one axle or two axles specified in subsection (1) above.

Sec. 2. Section 46.44.047, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 249, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.047 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the limitations of RCW 46.44.040, 46.44.042 and 46.44.044, a three-axle truck tractor and a two-axle pole trailer combination engaged in the operation of hauling logs, shall have an allowable variation in wheelbase length of six feet for the distance between the first and last axle of the vehicle in combination which has a wheelbase overall length of thirty-seven feet or more and upon special permit the gross weight of two axles spaced less than seven feet apart may exceed by not more than sixteen hundred pounds the maximum gross axle weight specified for two axles spaced less than seven feet apart, being thirty-two thousand pounds as provided in RCW 46.44.040, and the ((maximum)) gross weight of the combination of vehicles may exceed by not more than six thousand eight hundred pounds the ((maximum)) legal gross weight of the combination of vehicles, when ((fully)) licensed as permitted by law, ((being)) for sixty-eight thousand pounds.

Such additional allowances shall be permitted by a special permit to be issued by the state highway commission valid only on state primary or secondary highways authorized by the state highway commission and under such rules, regulations, terms and conditions prescribed by the state highway commission. The fee for such special permit shall be fifty dollars for a twelve-month period beginning and ending on April 1st of each calendar year. Permits may be issued at any time but if issued after July 1st of any year the fee shall be thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents. If issued on or after October 1st the fee shall be twenty-five dollars, and if issued on or after January 1st the fee shall be twelve dollars and fifty cents. A copy of such special permit covering the vehicle involved shall be carried in the cab of the vehicle at all times. Upon the third conviction within a calendar year for violation of the terms and conditions of the special permit, the special permit shall be canceled. The vehicle covered by such canceled special permit shall not be eligible for a new special permit until thirty days after the cancellation of the special permit issued to said vehicle. The fee for such renewal shall be at the same rate as set forth in this section which covers the original issuance of such special permit. Each special permit shall be assigned to a three-axle truck tractor in combination with a two-axle pole trailer and may be transferred upon application to the department of highways with payment of a two dollar fee.

All fees collected hereinabove shall be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the motor vehicle fund.

Permits involving city streets or county roads or using city streets or county roads to reach or leave state highways, authorized for permit by the state highway department may be issued by the city or county or counties involved. A fee of five dollars for such city or county permit may be assessed by the city or by the board of county commissioners which shall be deposited in the city or county road fund. The special permit provided for herein shall be known as a "log tolerance permit" and shall designate the route or routes to be used, which shall first be approved by the city or county engineer involved. Authorization of additional route or routes may be made at the discretion of the city or county by amending the original permit or by issuing a new permit. Said permits shall be issued on a yearly basis expiring on March 31st of each calendar year. Any person, firm or corporation who uses any city street or county road for the purpose of transporting logs with weights authorized by state highway log tolerance permits, to reach or leave a state highway route, without first obtaining a city or county permit when required by the city or board of county commissioners shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by RCW 46.44.045. For the purpose of determining gross weight the actual scale weight taken by the officer shall be prima facie evidence of such total gross weight. In the event the gross weight is in excess of the weight permitted by law, the officer may, within his discretion, permit the operator to proceed with his vehicles in combination.

The chief of the state patrol, with the advice of the state highway commission, may make reasonable rules and regulations to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of this section.

Sec. 3. Section 46.44.095, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 55, chapter 281, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.095 are each amended to read as follows:

When fully licensed to the maximum gross weight permitted under RCW 46.44.040, a two-axle truck or a three-axle truck operated as a solo unit and not in combination shall be eligible to carry gross weight in excess of that permitted for such a vehicle in RCW 46.44.040 upon the payment to the state highway commission of a fee of ~~((sixty))~~ thirty dollars for each ~~((two))~~ one thousand pounds of excess weight: PROVIDED, That the axle loads of such vehicles shall not exceed the limits specified in RCW 46.44.040 and the tire limits specified in RCW 46.44.042 or the wheel base requirements specified in RCW 46.44.044.

When fully licensed to ~~((the maximum gross weight permitted under RCW 46.44.040 and when operated in combination with another vehicle;~~ a three or more axle truck-tractor, a three or more axle truck and a three or more axle dromedary truck-tractor may be eligible under a special permit to be issued by the highway commission to carry additional gross loads beyond the limit specified for such vehicles in RCW 46.44.040 upon the payment of a fee of sixty dollars per two thousand pounds in excess weight)) a minimum gross weight of seventy-two thousand pounds a three or more axle truck tractor and a three or more axle dromedary truck tractor, and a three or more axle truck, when operating in combination with another vehicle or vehicles (the licensed gross weight of which, if any, shall be included when computing the minimum gross weights set forth above), shall be eligible under special permits to be issued by the state highway commission to carry additional gross loads beyond the licensed capacity of the combination of vehicles upon the payment of a fee based upon thirty dollars per year for each one thousand pounds of such additional gross weight but not to exceed one hundred and twenty dollars for the total ((excess)) additional weight: PROVIDED, That the axle loads of such vehicles shall not exceed the limits specified in RCW 46.44.040 and the tire limits specified in RCW 46.44.042: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the gross weight of a three or more axle truck operated in combination with a two or three-axle trailer shall not exceed seventy-six thousand pounds, and the gross weight for a three or more axle truck tractor operated in combination with a semitrailer shall not exceed seventy-three thousand two hundred eighty pounds except where the semitrailer is eligible to carry a gross load of thirty-six thousand pounds pursuant to the provisions of RCW 46.44.040, in which event the maximum gross weight of the combination shall not exceed seventy-six thousand pounds. The minimum additional tonnage to be purchased pursuant to this paragraph for a three or more axle tractor to be operated in combination with a semitrailer shall be not less than one thousand two hundred and eighty pounds. The permits provided for in the two preceding paragraphs shall be known as class A additional tonnage permits.

In addition to the gross weight purchased pursuant to RCW 46.16.070, 46.16.115, 46.44.037, and the foregoing provisions of this section and where, in the case of combinations of vehicles, the maximum gross weight permitted by law, including the preceding provisions of this section, has been purchased, a special permit for additional gross weight may be issued by the state highway commission upon the payment of thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents per year for each one thousand pounds of such additional gross weight: PROVIDED, The tire limits specified in RCW 46.44.042 shall apply, and the gross weight on any single axle shall not exceed twenty thousand pounds and the gross load on any group of axles shall not exceed the following table:

Permits issued pursuant to the foregoing paragraph shall be known as class B additional tonnage permits.

The special permits provided for in this section shall be issued under such rules and regulations and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the state highway commission. Such special permits shall entitle the permittee to carry such additional load in such an amount and upon such highways or sections of highways as may be determined by the state highway commission to be capable of withstanding such increased gross load without undue injury to the highway: PROVIDED, That the permits shall not be valid on any highway where the use of such permits would deprive this state of federal funds for highway purposes.

((The fee for such additional gross weight shall be payable for a twelve month period beginning and ending on January 1st of each calendar year. The additional gross weight provided for herein can be purchased at any time and if purchased on or after April 1st of any year, the fee shall be seventy-five percent of the full annual fee and if purchased on or after July 1st the fee shall be fifty percent of the full annual fee and if purchased on or after October 1st the fee shall be twenty-five percent of the full annual fee.))

The annual additional tonnage permits provided for in this section shall commence on the first of January of each year. The permits may be purchased at any time, and if they are purchased for less than a full year, the fee shall be one twelfth of the full fee multiplied by the number of months, including any fraction thereof, covered by the permit. When the department issues a duplicate permit to replace a lost or destroyed permit and where the department transfers a permit from one vehicle to another a fee of five dollars shall be charged for each such duplicate issued or each such transfer. The state highway commission shall issue such special permits on a temporary basis for periods not less ((than five days nor more)) than ten days at a fee of one dollar per day in the case of class A permits and not less than five days at two dollars per day in the case of class B permits.

The fees levied in RCW 46.44.094 and this section shall not apply to any vehicles owned and operated by the state of Washington, any county within the state or any city or town within the state, or by the federal government.

In the case of fleets prorating license fees under the provisions of chapter ((46-84)) 46.85 the fees provided for in RCW 46.44.037 and 46.44.095 shall be computed by the state highway commission by applying the proportion of the Washington mileage of the fleet in question to the total mileage of the fleet as reported pursuant to chapter ((46-84)) 46.85 to the fees that would be required to purchase the additional weight allowance for all eligible vehicles or combinations of vehicles for which the extra weight allowance is requested.

The state highway commission shall prorate the fees provided in RCW 46.44.037 and 46.44.095 only if the name of the operator or owner is submitted on official listings of authorized fleet operators furnished by the department of motor vehicles. Listings furnished shall also include the percentage of mileage operated in Washington, which shall be the same percentage as determined by the department of motor vehicles, for purposes of prorating license fees.

Sec. 4. Section 15, chapter 170, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.115 are each amended to read as follows:

The owner thereof may elect to pay tonnage fees separately on a trailer or semitrailer: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, In order to exercise this option the owner must pay for the maximum permissible gross weight for the vehicle under RCW 46.44.040 and 46.44.042.

The gross weight fee for such trailers and semitrailers shall be as follows:

Gross Weight of	Fee

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section .05.14, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 3, chapter 241, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 48.05.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner may refuse, suspend, or revoke an insurer's certificate of authority, in addition to other grounds therefor in this code, if the insurer:

(1) Fails to comply with any provision of this code other than those for violation of which refusal, suspension, or revocation is mandatory, or fails to comply with any proper order or regulation of the commissioner.

(2) Is found by the commissioner to be in such condition that its further transaction of insurance in this state would be hazardous to policyholders and the people in this state.

(3) Refuses to remove or discharge a director or officer who has been convicted of any crime involving fraud, dishonesty, or like moral turpitude.

(4) Usually compels claimants under policies either to accept less than the amount due them or to bring suit against it to secure full payment of the amount due.

(5) Is affiliated with and under the same general management, or interlocking directorate, or ownership as another insurer which transacts insurance in this state without having a certificate of authority therefor, except as is permitted by this code.

(6) Refuses to be examined, or if its directors, officers, employees or representatives refuse to submit to examination or to produce its accounts, records, and files for examination by the commissioner when required, or refuse to perform any legal obligation relative to the examination.

(7) Fails to pay any final judgment rendered against it in this state upon any policy, bond, recognizance, or undertaking issued or guaranteed by it, within thirty days after the judgment became final or within thirty days after time for taking an appeal has expired, or within thirty days after dismissal of an appeal before final determination, whichever date is the later.

(8) Is found by the commissioner, after investigation or upon receipt of reliable information, to be managed by persons, whether by its directors, officers, or by any other means, who are incompetent or untrustworthy or so lacking in insurance company managerial experience as to make a proposed operation hazardous to the insurance-buying public; or that there is good reason to believe it is affiliated directly or indirectly through ownership, control, reinsurance or other insurance or business relations, with any person or persons whose business operations are or have been marked, to the detriment of policyholders or stockholders or investors or creditors or of the public, by bad faith or by manipulation of assets, or of accounts, or of reinsurance.

(9) Does business through agents or brokers in this state or in any other state who are not properly licensed under applicable laws and duly enacted regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

Sec. 2. Section .17.53, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 11, chapter 241, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 48.17.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner may suspend, revoke, or refuse to issue or renew any license which is issued or may be issued under this chapter or any surplus line broker's license for any cause specified in any other provision of this code, or for any of the following causes:

(a) For any cause for which issuance of the license could have been refused had it then existed and been known to the commissioner.

(b) If the licensee or applicant wilfully violates or knowingly participates in the violation of any provision of this code or any proper order or regulation of the commissioner.

(c) If the licensee or applicant has obtained or attempted to obtain any such license through wilful misrepresentation or fraud, or has failed to pass any examination required under this chapter.

(d) If the licensee or applicant has misappropriated or converted to his own use or has illegally withheld moneys required to be held in a fiduciary capacity.

(e) If the licensee or applicant has, with intent to deceive, materially misrepresented the terms or effect of any insurance contract; or has engaged or is about to engage in any fraudulent transaction.

(f) If the licensee or applicant has been guilty of "twisting," as defined in RCW 48.30.180, or of rebating, as defined in chapter 48.30.

(g) If the licensee or applicant has been convicted, by final judgment, of a felony.

(h) If the licensee or applicant has shown himself to be, and is so deemed by the commissioner, incompetent, or untrustworthy, or a source of injury and loss to the public.

(i) If the licensee has dealt with, or attempted to deal with, insurances, or to exercise powers relative to insurance outside the scope of his licenses.

(2) If any natural person named under a firm or corporate license, or application therefor, commits or has committed any act or fails or has failed to perform any duty which is a ground for the commissioner to revoke, suspend or refuse to issue or renew the license or application for license, the commissioner may revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or refuse to issue:

(a) The license, or application therefor, of the corporation or firm; or

(b) The right of the natural person to act thereunder; or

(c) Any other license held or applied for by the natural person; or

(d) He may take all such steps.

(3) Any conduct of an applicant or licensee which constitutes ground for disciplinary action under this code shall be deemed such ground notwithstanding that such conduct took place in another state.

(4) The holder of any license which has been revoked or suspended shall surrender the license certificate to the commissioner at the commissioner's request.

Sec. 3. Section 20, chapter 241, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 48.18.292 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((No))~~ Each insurer shall be required to renew any contract of insurance subject to RCW 48.18.291 ~~((shall be terminated by refusal to renew by the insurer))~~ unless one of the following situations exists:

(a) The insurer gives the named insured at least twenty days' notice in writing as provided for in RCW 48.18.291(1), that~~((:~~

~~{i})~~ It proposes to refuse to renew the insurance contract upon ~~((such))~~ its expiration date; and sets forth therein the actual reason for refusing to renew; or

~~((ii))~~ Upon receipt of a written request from the named insured, it will forthwith mail to the named insured a written explanation of its actual reason or reasons for refusing to renew; and

~~{iii})~~ The named insured, within ten days after receipt of such notice, may at his option, request the insurer to furnish such written explanation; and)

(b) ~~((If the named insured exercises his option, the insurer shall forthwith, but, in any event, prior to the expiration date of the policy, mail to the named insured a written explanation giving the actual reason or reasons for its refusal to renew the contract.~~

~~{c})~~ This subsection {i} shall not apply in any of the following situations:

~~{i} If))~~ The insurer has communicated its willingness to renew in writing ~~((or orally through a duly authorized agent:))~~ to the named insured, and has included therein a statement of the amount of the premium or portion thereof required to be paid by the insured to renew the policy and the date by which such payment must be made, and the insured fails to discharge when due his obligation in connection with the payment of such premium or portion thereof; or

~~((ii))~~ If the named insured fails to discharge when due any of his obligations in connection with the payment of premium for the policy or any installment thereof, whether payable directly to the insurer or to its agent or indirectly under any premium finance plan or extension of credit;

~~{iii} If))~~ (c) The insured's agent or broker has procured other coverage acceptable to the insured at least twenty days prior to the expiration of the policy period.

(2) Renewal of a policy shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of such renewal.

(3) "Renewal" or "to renew" means the issuance and delivery by an insurer of a policy replacing at the end of the policy period a policy previously issued and delivered by the same insurer, or the issuance and delivery of a certificate or notice extending the term of a policy beyond its policy period or term: PROVIDED, HOWEVER,

That any policy with a policy period or term of six months or less whether or not made continuous for successive terms upon the payment of additional premiums shall for the purpose of RCW 48.18.291 through 48.18.297 be considered as if written for a policy period or term of six months: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any policy written for a term longer than one year or any policy with no fixed expiration date, shall, for the purpose of RCW 48.18.291 through 48.18.297, be considered as if written for successive policy periods or terms of one year.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 229, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 12, chapter 241, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 48.20.052 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a provision as follows:

TIME LIMIT ON CERTAIN DEFENSES: (a) After two years from the date of issue of this policy no misstatements except fraudulent misstatements, made by the applicant in the application for such policy shall be used to void the policy or to deny a claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after the expiration of such two year period.

(The foregoing policy provision shall not be so construed as to affect any legal requirement for avoidance of a policy or denial of a claim during such initial two year period, nor to limit the application of RCW 48.20.172, 48.20.182, 48.20.192, 48.20.202, and 48.20.212 in the event of misstatement with respect to age or occupation or other insurance.)

(A policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premium (1) until at least age 50 or, (2) in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least five years from its date of issue, may contain in lieu of the foregoing the following provision (from which the clause in parentheses may be omitted at the insurer's option) under the caption "INCONTESTABLE":

"After this policy has been in force for a period of two years during the lifetime of the insured (excluding any period during which the insured is disabled), it shall become incontestable as to the statements contained in the application.")

(b) No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after two years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy. [More stringent provisions may be required by the commissioner in connection with individual disability policies sold without any application or with minimal applications] ((and with the approval of prima facie rates for credit insurance in accordance with *section 47 of this 1969 amendatory act)).

Sec. 5. Section .24.06, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 21, chapter 195, Laws of 1963 and RCW 48.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The lives of a group of public employees may be insured under a policy issued to the departmental head or to a trustee, or issued to an association of public employees formed for purposes other than obtaining insurance and having, when the policy is placed in force, a membership in the classes eligible for insurance of not less than seventy-five percent of the number of employees eligible for membership in such classes, which department head or trustee or association shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure such employees for the benefit of persons other than the policyholder or any of its officials, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The persons eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the employees of the department or members of the association, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment, or to membership in the association, or both.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, in whole or in part either from salary deductions authorized by, or charges collected from, the insured employees or members specifically for the insurance, or from the association's own funds, or from both. Any such deductions from salary may be paid by the employer to the association or directly to the insurer. No policy may be placed in force unless and until at least seventy-five percent of the then eligible employees or association members, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, have elected to be covered and have authorized their employer to make any required deductions from salary.

(3) The rate of charges to the insured employees or members specifically for the insurance, and the dues of the association if they include the cost of insurance, shall be determined according to each attained age or in not less than four reasonably spaced attained age groups. In no event shall the rate of such dues or charges be level for all members regardless of attained age.

(4) The policy must cover at least twenty-five persons at date of issue.

(5) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the employees or members or by the association. ((Such amounts shall in no event exceed five thousand dollars of life insurance in the case of any employee or member, and the amount of life insurance shall not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars in the case of retired employees or members and persons over age sixty-five.)

As used herein, "public employees" means employees of the United States government, or of any state, or of any political subdivision or instrumentality of any of them.

Sec. 6. Section .30.01, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 24, chapter 70, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 48.30.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person engaged in the business of insurance shall engage in unfair methods of competition or in unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of such business as such methods, acts, or practices are defined pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(2) In addition to such unfair methods and unfair or deceptive acts or practices as are expressly defined and prohibited by this code, the commissioner may from time to time by regulation ~~((s))~~ promulgated ~~((only after a hearing thereon))~~ pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, define other methods of competition and other acts and practices in the conduct of such business reasonably found by him to be unfair or deceptive.

(3) No such regulation shall be made effective prior to the expiration of thirty days after the date of the order ~~((on hearing))~~ by which it is promulgated.

(4) If the commissioner has cause to believe that any person is violating any such regulation he ~~((shall))~~ may order such person to cease and desist therefrom. The commissioner shall deliver such order to such person direct or mail it to the person by registered mail with return receipt requested. If the person ~~((fails to comply therewith before))~~ violates the order after expiration of ten days after the cease and desist order has been received by him, he ~~((shall forfeit to the people of this state))~~ may be fined by the commissioner a sum not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars for each violation committed thereafter, ~~((such penalty to be recovered by an action prosecuted by the commissioner))~~ or the commissioner may take such other action independently, or in addition, as is permitted under the insurance code for the violation of the regulation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

CONTRACTORS--REGISTRATION, REGULATION--
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRIES

AN ACT Relating to the registration and regulation of contractors; amending section 1, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 118, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.010; amending section 2, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 and RCW 18.27.020; amending section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 and RCW 18.27.030; amending section 4, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 2, chapter 118, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.040; amending section 7, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 126, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.27.070; amending section 9, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 3, chapter 126, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.27.090; amending section 5, chapter 118, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.120; amending section 43.22.010, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 66, Laws of 1971 and RCW 43.22.010; and prescribing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 118, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A "contractor" as used in this chapter is any person, firm or corporation who or which, in the pursuit of an independent business undertakes to, or offers to undertake, or submits a bid to, construct, alter, repair, add to, subtract from, improve, move, wreck or demolish, for another, any building, highway, road, railroad, excavation or other structure, project, development, or improvement attached to real estate or to do any part thereof including the installation of carpeting or other floor covering, the erection of scaffolding or other structures or works in connection therewith or who installs or repairs roofing or siding; or, who, to do similar work upon his own property, employs members of more than one trade upon a single job or project or under a single building permit except as otherwise provided herein. A "general contractor" is a contractor whose business operations require the use of more than two unrelated building trades or crafts whose work the contractor shall superintend or do in whole or in part; the term "general contractor" shall not include an individual who does all work personally without employees or other "specialty contractors" as defined herein. The terms "general contractor" and "builder" are synonymous. A "specialty contractor" is a contractor whose operations as such do not fall within the foregoing definition of "general contractor".

"Department" as used in this chapter means the department of labor and industries.

"Director" as used in this chapter means the director of the department of labor and industries.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 and RCW 18.27.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to submit any bid or do any work as a contractor until such person shall have been issued a certificate of registration by the state department of ((licenses)) labor and industries. A partnership or joint venture shall be deemed registered if any one of the general partners or venturers whose name appears in the name under which the partnership or venture does business shall be registered. A violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor.

(2) In addition to any criminal penalties which may be imposed under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, any person who is found to be in violation of this section by the director at a hearing held in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall be required to pay a late registration penalty of not more than one hundred dollars, such amount to be set by the director, in addition to the registration fee provided in RCW 18.27.070, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 and RCW 18.27.030 are each amended to read as follows:

An applicant for registration as a contractor shall submit an application under oath upon a form to be prescribed by the director ((of licenses)) and which shall include the following information pertaining to the applicant((+)) :

- (1) Employer social security number.
- (2) Industrial insurance number.
- (3) Employment security department number.
- (4) State excise tax registration number.
- (5) Type of contracting activity, whether a general or a specialty contractor and if the latter, the type of specialty.
- (6) The name and address of each partner if the applicant be a firm or partnership, or the name and address of the owner if the applicant be an individual proprietorship, or the name and address of the corporate officers and statutory agent, if any, if the applicant be a corporation. The information contained in such application shall be a matter of public record and open to public inspection.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 2, chapter 118, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for a certificate of registration, file with the department ((of motor vehicles)) a surety bond issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the department ((of motor vehicles)) running to the state of Washington if a general contractor, in the sum of ((two)) two thousand dollars; if a specialty contractor, in the sum of ((one)) one thousand dollars, conditioned that the applicant will pay all persons performing labor, including employee benefits, for the contractor, will pay all taxes and contributions due to the state of Washington, and will pay all persons furnishing labor or material or renting or supplying equipment to the contractor and will pay all amounts that may be adjudged against the contractor by reason of negligent or improper work or breach of contract in the conduct of the contracting business. Any person having a claim against the contractor for any of the items referred to in this section may bring suit upon such bond in the superior court of the county in which the work is done or of any county in which jurisdiction of the contractor may be had. Action upon such bond or deposit shall be commenced by serving and filing of the complaint within one year from the date of expiration of the certificate of registration in force at the time the claimed labor was performed and benefits accrued, taxes and contributions owing the state of Washington became due, materials and equipment were furnished, or the claimed contract work was completed. Three copies of the complaint shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the department ((of motor vehicles)) at the time suit is started and the department shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Such service shall constitute service on the registrant and the surety for suit upon the bond and the department shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the registrant at the address listed in his application and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received. The surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond. The surety upon the bond may, upon notice to the department and the parties, tender to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the action an amount equal to the claims thereunder or the amount of the bond less the amount of judgments, if any, previously satisfied therefrom and to the extent of such tender the surety upon the bond shall be exonerated but if the actions commenced and pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond then unimpaired, claims shall be satisfied from the bond in the following order:

- (1) Labor, including employee benefits;
- (2) Claims for breach of contract by a party to the construction contract;
- (3) Material and equipment;
- (4) Taxes and contributions due the state of Washington;

(5) Any court costs, interest, and attorney's fees plaintiff may be entitled to recover.

In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed in this section, the department shall suspend the registration of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims shall have been furnished.

In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the contractor may file with the department a deposit consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the department.

Any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the registrant for any items referred to in this section may execute upon the security held by the department by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the department within one year of the date of entry of such judgment. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy the department shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the superior court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the department shall be the order of receipt by the department, but the department shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

The director may promulgate rules and regulations necessary for the proper administration of the security.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 126, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.27.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The applicant shall pay to the director ((of licenses)) a registration or renewal fee of, if a general contractor, or if a specialty contractor, fifteen dollars.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 3, chapter 126, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.27.090 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to:

(1) An authorized representative of the United States government, the state of Washington, or any incorporated city, town, county, township, irrigation district, reclamation district, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of this state;

(2) Officers of a court when they are acting within the scope of their office;

(3) Public utilities operating under the regulations of the public service commission in construction, maintenance, or development work incidental to their own business;

(4) Any construction, repair, or operation incidental to the discovering or producing of petroleum or gas, or the drilling, testing, abandoning, or other operation of any petroleum or gas well or any surface or underground mine or mineral deposit when performed by an owner or lessee;

(5) The sale or installation of any finished products, materials, or articles of merchandise which are not actually fabricated into and do not become a permanent fixed part of a structure;

(6) Any construction, alteration, improvement, or repair of personal property;

(7) Any construction, alteration, improvement, or repair carried on within the limits and boundaries of any site or reservation under the legal jurisdiction of the federal government;

(9) Any work or operation on one undertaking or project by one or more contracts, the aggregate contract price of which for labor and materials and all other items is less than two hundred-fifty dollars, such work or operations being considered as of a casual, minor, or inconsequential nature. The exemption prescribed in this subsection does not apply in any instance wherein the work or construction is only a part of a larger or major operation, whether undertaken by the same or a different contractor, or in which a division of the operation is made into contracts of amounts less than two hundred-fifty dollars for the purpose of evasion of this chapter or otherwise. The exemption prescribed in this subsection does not apply to a person who advertises or puts out any sign or card or other device which might indicate to the public that he is a contractor, or that he is qualified to engage in the business of contractor;

(10) Any construction or operation incidental to the construction and repair of irrigation and drainage ditches of regularly constituted irrigation districts or reclamation districts; or to farming, dairying, agriculture, viticulture, horticulture, or stock or poultry raising; or to clearing or other work upon land in rural districts for fire prevention purposes; except when any of the above work is performed by a registered contractor;

(11) An owner who contracts for a project with a registered contractor;

(12) Any person working on his own property, whether occupied by him or not, and any person working on his residence, whether owned by him or not but this exemption shall not apply to any person otherwise covered by this chapter who constructs an improvement on his own property with the intention and for the purpose of selling the improved property;

(13) Owners of commercial properties who use their own employees to do maintenance, repair, and alteration work in or upon their own properties;

(14) A licensed architect or civil or professional engineer acting solely in his professional capacity, an electrician licensed under the laws of the state of Washington, or a plumber licensed under the laws of the state of Washington or licensed by a political subdivision of the state of Washington while operating within the boundaries of such political subdivision. The exemption provided in this subsection is applicable only when the licensee is operating within the scope of his license;

(15) Any person who engages in the activities herein regulated as an employee of a registered contractor with wages as his sole compensation or as an employee with wages as his sole compensation;

(16) Contractors on highway projects who have been prequalified as required by chapter 13 of the Laws of 1961, RCW 47.28.070, with the highway department to perform highway construction, reconstruction, or maintenance work.

Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 118, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The department ((of motor vehicles)) shall annually, starting July 1, 1973, compile a list of all contractors registered pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and update such list at least bimonthly. Such list shall be considered as public record information and shall be available to the public upon request: PROVIDED, That the department may charge a reasonable reproduction fee.

Sec. 8. Section 43.22.010, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 66, Laws of 1971 and RCW 43.22.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of labor and industries shall be organized into six divisions, to be known as, (1) the division of industrial insurance, (2) the division of safety, (3) the division of mining safety, (4) the division of industrial relations, (5) the division of apprenticeship, and (6) the division of building and construction safety inspection services, which ((last mentioned)) division shall have responsibility for electrical inspection, mobile home inspection, elevator inspection, except as otherwise provided in RCW 70.87.030, boiler inspection, and ((hotel inspection)) registration and regulation of contractors. The director may appoint such clerical and other assistants as may be necessary for the general administration of the department.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 229, Laws of 1937 as last amended by section 5, chapter 30, Laws of 1971 and RCW 2.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(Every judge of the) Supreme court, court of appeals, or superior court judges of the state who retire((s)) from office under the provisions of this chapter other than as provided in RCW 2.12.012 shall be entitled to receive monthly during the period of ((his)) their natural life, out of the fund hereinafter created, an amount equal to one-half of the monthly salary ((he was)) they were receiving as a judge at the time of ((his)) their retirement, or at the end of the term immediately prior to ((his)) their retirement if ((his)) their retirement is made after expiration of ((his)) their term. The ((widow)) surviving spouse of any judge who shall have heretofore retired or may hereafter retire, or of a judge who was heretofore or may hereafter be eligible for retirement at the time of ((his)) death, if ((she)) the surviving spouse had been married to ((him)) the judge for three years, if ((she)) the surviving spouse had been ((his wife)) married to the judge prior to ((his)) retirement, shall be paid an amount equal to one-half of the retirement pay ((for her husband)) of the judge, as long as ((she)) such surviving spouse remains unmarried. The retirement pay shall be paid monthly by the state treasurer on or before the tenth day of each month. The provisions of this section shall apply to the ((widow)) the surviving spouse of any judge who dies while holding such office or dies after having retired under the provisions of this chapter and who at the time of ((his)) death had served ten or more years in the aggregate as a judge of the supreme court, court of appeals, or superior court or any of such courts, or had served an aggregate of twelve years in the supreme court, court of appeals, or superior court if such pension rights are based upon RCW 2.12.012.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 123, Laws of 1917 and RCW 4.20.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Every such action shall be for the benefit of the wife, husband, child or children of the person whose death shall have been so caused. If there be no wife or husband or child or children, such action may be maintained for the benefit of the parents, sisters or ((minor)) brothers, who may be dependent upon the deceased person for support, and who are resident within the United States at the time of his death.

In every such action the jury may give such damages as, under all circumstances of the case, may to them seem just.

Sec. 3. Section 495, page 220, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 156, Laws of 1927 and RCW 4.20.060 are each amended to read as follows:

No action for a personal injury to any person occasioning ((his)) death shall abate, nor shall such right of action determine, by reason of such death, if ((he have a wife)) such person has a surviving spouse or child living, or leaving no ((wife)) surviving spouse or issue, if ((he have)) there is dependent upon ((him)) the deceased for support and resident within the United States at the time of ((his)) decedent's death, parents, sisters or ((minor)) brothers; but such action may be prosecuted, or commenced and prosecuted, by the executor or administrator of the deceased, in favor of such ((wife)) surviving spouse, or in favor of the ((wife)) surviving spouse and children, or if no ((wife)) surviving spouse, in favor of such child or children, or if no ((wife)) surviving spouse or child or children, then in favor of ((his)) the decedent's parents, sisters or ((minor)) brothers who may be dependent upon ((him)) such person for support, and resident in the United States at the time of ((his)) decedent's death.

Sec. 4. Section 9, page 4, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 1, chapter 81, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

((A father; or in case of his death or desertion of his family;)) The mother or father or both may maintain an action as plaintiff for the injury or death of a minor child, or a child on whom either ((is)), or both, are dependent for support ((and the mother for the injury or death of an illegitimate minor child; or an illegitimate child on whom she is dependent for support)): PROVIDED, That in the case of an illegitimate child the father cannot maintain or join as a party an action unless paternity has been duly established and the father has regularly contributed to the child's support.

This section creates only one cause of action, but if the parents of the child are not married, are separated, or not married to each other damages may be awarded to each plaintiff separately, as the court finds just and equitable.

If one parent brings an action under this section and the other parent is not named as a plaintiff, notice of the institution of the suit, together with a copy of the complaint, shall be served upon the other parent: PROVIDED, That when the mother of an illegitimate child initiates an action, notice shall be required only if paternity has been duly established and the father has regularly contributed to the child's support.

Such notice shall be in compliance with the statutory requirements for a summons. Such notice shall state that the other parent must join as a party to the suit within twenty days or the right to recover damages under this section shall be barred. Failure of the other parent to timely appear shall bar such parent's action to recover any part of an award made to the party instituting the suit.

In such an action, in addition to damages for medical, hospital, medication expenses, and loss of services and support, damages may be recovered for the loss of love and companionship of the child and for injury to or destruction of the parent-child relationship in such amount as, under all the circumstances of the case, may be just.

Sec. 5. Section 10, page 4, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 10, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A father (~~(or in case of his death or desertion of his family, the)~~) or mother, may maintain an action as plaintiff for the seduction of a (~~(daughter)~~) child, and the guardian for the seduction of a ward, though the (~~(daughter)~~) child or the ward be not living with or in the service of the plaintiff at the time of the seduction or afterwards, and there be no loss of service.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

If the claimant be married the homestead may be selected from the community property, or (~~(the)~~) with the consent of the husband, from his separate property (~~(of the husband)~~), or, with the consent of the wife, from her separate property. When the claimant is not married, but is the head of a family within the meaning of RCW 6.12.290 as now or hereafter amended, the homestead may be selected from any of his or her property.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The homestead cannot be selected from the separate property of the wife without her consent or from the separate property of the husband without his consent, shown by his or her making the declaration of homestead.

Sec. 8. Section 30, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.040 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to select a homestead the husband, wife, or other head of a family (~~(or in case the husband has not made such selection, the wife)~~) must execute and acknowledge, in the same manner as a grant of real property is acknowledged, a declaration of homestead, and file the same for record.

Sec. 9. Section 31, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.060

are each amended to read as follows:

The declaration of homestead must contain--

(1) A statement showing that the person making it is the head of a family (or when the declaration is made by the wife, showing that her husband has not made such declaration, and that she therefore makes the declaration for their joint benefit).

(2) A statement that the person making it is residing on the premises or has purchased the same for a homestead and intends to reside thereon and claims them as a homestead.

(3) A description of the premises.

(4) An estimate of their actual cash value.

Sec. 10. Section 21, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The money paid to the claimant is entitled to the same protection against legal process and the voluntary disposition of the husband or wife which the law gives to the homestead.

Sec. 11. Section 25, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 5, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 6.12.290 are each amended to read as follows:

The phrase "head of the family," as used in this chapter, includes within its meaning--

(1) The husband or wife, when the claimant is a married person; or a widow or widower still residing upon the premises occupied by her or him as a home while married.

(2) Every person who has residing on the premises with him or her, and under his or her care and maintenance, either--

(a) When such child or grandchild be under eighteen years of age, his or her child or grandchild or the child or grandchild of his or her deceased wife or husband.

(b) When such brother or sister or child be under eighteen years of age, a brother or sister, or the child of a deceased brother or sister.

(c) A father, mother, grandmother or grandfather.

(d) The father, mother, grandfather or grandmother of deceased husband or wife.

(e) ((An unmarried sister, or)) Any other of the relatives mentioned in this section who has attained the age of eighteen years, and are unable to take care of or support themselves.

Sec. 12. Section 2, chapter 57, Laws of 1897 as amended by section 6, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 6.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A householder, as designated in all statutes relating to exemptions, is defined to be:

(1) The husband and wife, or either.

(2) Every person who has residing with him or her, and under his or her care and maintenance, either:

(a) When such child be under eighteen years of age, his or her child, or the child of his or her deceased wife or husband.

(b) When such brother or sister or child be under eighteen years of age, a brother or sister, or the child of a deceased brother or sister.

(c) A father, mother, grandfather or grandmother.

(d) The father, mother, grandfather or grandmother of deceased husband or wife.

(e) (~~An unmarried sister, or~~) Any other of the relatives mentioned in this section who has attained the age of eighteen years, and are unable to take care of or support themselves.

Sec. 13. Section 253, page 178, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 89, Laws of 1965 and RCW 6.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The following personal property shall be exempt from execution and attachment, except as hereinafter specially provided:

(1) All wearing apparel of every person and family, but not to exceed five hundred dollars in value in furs, jewelry, and personal ornaments for any person.

(2) All private libraries not to exceed five hundred dollars in value, and all family pictures and keepsakes.

(3) To each householder, (a) his household goods, appliances, furniture and home and yard equipment, not to exceed one thousand dollars in value;

(b) provisions and fuel for the comfortable maintenance of such household and family for three months; and

(c) other property not to exceed four hundred dollars in value, of which not more than one hundred dollars in value may consist of cash, bank accounts, savings and loan accounts, stocks, bonds, or other securities.

(4) To a person not a householder, other property not to exceed two hundred dollars in value, of which not more than one hundred dollars in value may consist of cash, bank accounts, savings and loan accounts, stocks, bonds, or other securities.

(5) To a farmer, farm trucks, farm stock, farm tools, farm equipment, supplies and seed, not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars in value.

(6) To a physician, surgeon, attorney, clergyman, or other professional man, his library, office furniture, office equipment and supplies, not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars in value.

(7) To any other person, the tools and instruments and materials used to carry on his trade for the support of himself or family, not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars in value.

The property referred to in the foregoing subsection (3) shall be selected by the husband or wife if present, (~~if not present it shall be selected by the wife,~~) and in case neither husband nor wife nor other person entitled to the exemption shall be present to make the selection, then the sheriff or the director of public safety shall make a selection equal in value to the applicable exemptions above described and he shall return the same as exempt by inventory. Any selection made as above provided shall be prima facie evidence (a) that the property so selected is exempt from execution and attachment, and (b) that the property so selected is not in excess of the values specified for the exemptions. Except as above provided, the exempt property shall be selected by the person claiming the exemption. No person shall be entitled to more than one exemption under the provisions of the foregoing subsections (5), (6) and (7).

For purposes of this section "value" shall mean the reasonable market value of the article or item at the time of its selection, and shall be of the debtor's interest therein, exclusive of all liens and encumbrances thereon.

Wages, salary, or other compensation regularly paid for personal services rendered by the person claiming the exemption may not be claimed as exempt under the foregoing provisions, but the same may be claimed as exempt in any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding to the same extent as allowed under the statutes relating to garnishments.

No property shall be exempt under this section from an execution issued upon a judgment for all or any part of the purchase price thereof, or for any tax levied upon such property.

Sec. 14. Section 252, page 178, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 341, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.16.070 are each amended to read as follows:

All real and personal estate belonging to any married (~~woman~~) person at the time of his or her marriage, and all which he or she may have acquired subsequently to such marriage, or to which he or she shall hereafter become entitled in his or her own right, and all his or her personal earnings, and all the issues, rents and profits of such real estate, shall be exempt from attachment and execution upon any liability or judgment against the (~~husband~~) other spouse, so long as he or she or any minor heir of his or her body shall be living: PROVIDED, That (~~her~~) the separate property of each spouse shall be liable for debts owing by him or her at the time of (~~her~~) marriage.

Sec. 15. Section 346, page 88, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 349, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.16.090 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this section the masculine shall apply also to the feminine.

When a debtor claims personal property as exempt he shall deliver to the officer making the levy an itemized list of all the personal property owned or claimed by him, including money, bonds, bills, notes, claims and demands, with the residence of the person indebted upon the said bonds, bills, notes, claims and demands, and shall verify such list by affidavit. He shall also deliver to such officer a list by separate items of the property he claims as exempt. ((If the husband be absent or incapable of acting the claim may be made, the list delivered and verified by the wife.)) If the creditor, his agent or attorney demand an appraisal thereof, two disinterested householders of the neighborhood shall be chosen, one by the debtor and the other by the creditor, his agent or attorney, and these two, if they cannot agree, shall select a third; but if either party fail to choose an appraiser, or the two fail to select a third, or if one or more of the appraisers fail to act, the officer shall appoint one. The appraisers shall forthwith proceed to make a list by separate items, of the personal property selected by the debtor as exempt, which they shall decide as exempt, stating the value of each article, and annexing to the list their affidavit to the following effect: "We solemnly swear that to the best of our judgment the above is a fair cash valuation of the property therein described," which affidavit shall be signed by two appraisers at least, and be certified by the officer administering the oaths. The list shall be delivered to the officer holding the execution or other process and be by him annexed to and made part of his return and the property therein specified shall be exempt from levy and sale, and the other personal estate of the debtor shall remain subject thereto. In case no appraisal be required the officer shall return with the process the list of the property claimed as exempt by the debtor. The appraisers shall each be entitled to one dollar, to be paid by the creditor, if all the property claimed by the debtor shall be exempt; otherwise to be paid by the debtor.

Sec. 16. Section 2, page 39, Laws of 1886 as amended by section 1, chapter 159, Laws of 1923 and RCW 7.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The writ of attachment shall be issued by the clerk of the court in which the action is pending; but before any such writ of attachment shall issue, the plaintiff, or someone in his behalf, shall make and file with such clerk an affidavit showing that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff (specifying the amount of such indebtedness over and above all just credits and offsets), and that the attachment is not sought and the action is not prosecuted to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant, and either:

- (1) That the defendant is a foreign corporation; or
- (2) That the defendant is not a resident of this state; or

(3) That the defendant conceals himself so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him; or

(4) That the defendant has absconded or absented himself from his usual place of abode in this state, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him; or

(5) That the defendant has removed or is about to remove any of his property from this state, with intent to delay or defraud his creditors; or

(6) That the defendant has assigned, secreted, or disposed of, or is about to assign, secrete, or dispose of, any of his property, with intent to delay or defraud his creditors; or

(7) That the defendant is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or

(8) That the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought; or

(9) That the damages for which the action is brought are for injuries arising from the commission of some felony ((7 or for the seduction of some female)); or

(10) That the object for which the action is brought is to recover on a contract, express or implied.

Sec. 17. Section 456, page 214, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 688, Code of 1881 and RCW 7.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Writs of habeas corpus shall be granted in favor of parents, guardians, ((masters and husbands)) spouses, and next of kin, and to enforce the rights, and for the protection of infants and insane persons; and the proceedings shall in all cases conform to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 18. Section 13, page 81, Laws of 1875 as amended by section 1247, Code of 1881 and RCW 7.48.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Houses of ill fame, kept for the purpose, ((in which are embraced all squaw dance houses, or squaw brothels, otherwise called mad houses, all houses, rooms, saloons, booths, scows, boats, or other structures used as a place of resort,)) where ((women)) persons are employed ((to draw custom, dance, or)) for purposes of prostitution; all public houses or places of resort where gambling is carried on, or permitted; all houses or places within any city, town, or village, or upon any public road, or highway where drunkenness, gambling, fighting or breaches of the peace are carried on, or permitted; all opium dens, or houses, or places of resort where opium smoking is permitted, are nuisances, and may be abated, and the owners, keepers, or persons in charge thereof, and persons carrying on such unlawful business shall be punished as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 19. Section 38, page 108, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1931, Code of 1881 and RCW 10.16.150 are each amended to read as follows:

When any ((~~married woman or a~~) minor is a material witness, any other person may be allowed to recognize for the appearance of such witness, or the magistrate may, in his discretion, take the recognizance of such ((~~married woman or~~) minor in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars which shall be valid and binding in law, notwithstanding the disability of ((~~coverture or~~) minority.

All such printing contracts provided for in this section and RCW 15.24.085 shall be executed and performed under conditions of employment which shall substantially conform to the laws of this state respecting hours of labor, the minimum wage scale ((~~for women and minors~~)), and the rules and regulations of the industrial welfare committee regarding conditions of employment, hours of labor, and minimum wages, and the violation of such provision of any contract shall be ground for cancellation thereof.

Sec. 21. Section 2, chapter 281, Laws of 1927 as last amended by section 1, chapter 3, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the words used in this chapter have the meaning given in this section:

(1) "Practice of hairdressing" or "hairdressing" means the arranging, dressing, curling, waving, permanent waving, cleansing, bleaching or coloring of the hair, fitting and dressing of wigs and hair pieces on or off the head other than incident to original retail sales, or doing similar work thereon by use of the hands or any method of mechanical application or appliances or the practice of haircutting ((~~on female persons~~));

(2) "Hairdresser" means any person, firm or corporation who engages in the practice of hairdressing;

(3) "Practice of beauty culture" or "beauty culture" means the massaging, cleansing, stimulating, manipulating, exercising or beautifying of the scalp, face, arms, bust or upper part of the body, or doing similar work thereon with the hands or with any mechanical or electrical apparatus or appliances, or by the use of cosmetic preparations, antiseptic tonics, lotions, creams, similar preparations or compounds, and manicuring the nails or removing superfluous hair or the practice of haircutting on ((~~female~~) persons;

(4) "Beauty culturist" means any person, firm, or corporation who engages in the practice of beauty culture;

(5) A "student" is any person of the age of seventeen or over who has graduated from an accredited high school, or has an equivalent education as determined by the director whose determination shall be conclusive, who attends a duly licensed beauty school, and who does not receive any wage or commission: PROVIDED, That the amendments to this subdivision shall not apply to any person attending as a student prior to the effective date of this amendatory section;

(6) An "operator" is a person of the age of eighteen years or over, who has been licensed to practice hairdressing and beauty culture under the direct supervision and direction of a manager operator;

(7) A "manager operator" is any person having practiced as an operator under the supervision of a manager operator for at least one year;

(8) A "shop" is any building or structure, or any part thereof, other than a school, wherein the practice of hairdressing and beauty culture is conducted;

(10) An "instructor operator" is a person who gives instruction in the practice of hairdressing and beauty culture in a school and who has the qualifications of a manager operator and who has passed an instructor examination: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to any person acting as an instructor operator on March 16, 1951. An instructor operator shall not perform in a beauty school, beauty culture services for members of the public except for instructional purposes;

(11) "Director" means the ((state)) director of ((licenses)) the department of motor vehicles;

(12) "Committee" means the beauty culture examining committee;

(13) "Board" means the hearing board.

Sec. 22. Section 2, chapter 162, Laws of 1927 and RCW 19.72.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Each of such sureties shall have separate property worth the amount specified in the bond or recognizance, over and above all debts and liabilities, and exclusive of property exempt from execution, unless ((his wife join with him)) the other spouse joins in the execution of the bond, in which case they must have community property of such required value; but in case such bond or recognizance is given in any action or proceeding commenced or pending in any court the judge, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, on justification, may allow more than two sureties to justify, severally, in amounts less than the amount specified, if the whole justification is equivalent to that of two sufficient sureties.

Sec. 23. Section 34, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.310 are each amended to read as follows:

Certificates of stock and the shares represented thereby standing in the name of a married ((woman)) person may be transferred by ((her, her)) such person, such person's agent or attorney, without the signature of ((her husband, in the same manner as if such married woman were a femme sole)) such person's spouse. All dividends payable upon any shares of a corporation standing in the name of a married ((woman)) person, shall be paid to such married ((woman, her)) person, such person's agent or attorney, in the same manner as if ((she)) such person were unmarried, and it shall not be necessary for ((her husband)) the other spouse to join in a receipt therefor; and any proxy or power given by a married ((woman)) person, touching any shares of any corporation standing in ((her)) such person's name, shall be valid and binding without the signature of ((her husband, the same as if she were unmarried)) the other spouse.

In determining whether a partnership exists, these rules shall apply:

(1) Except as provided by RCW 25.04.160 persons who are not partners as to each other, are not partners as to third persons.

(2) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entireties, joint property, common property, or part ownership does not of itself establish a partnership, whether such co-owners do or do not share any profits made by the use of the property.

(3) The sharing of gross returns does not of itself establish a partnership, whether or not the persons sharing them have a joint or common right or interest in any property from which the returns are derived.

(4) The receipt by a person of a share of the profits of a business is prima facie evidence that he is a partner in the business, but no such inference shall be drawn if such profits were received in payments:

(a) As a debt by installments or otherwise,
 (b) As wages of an employee or rent to a landlord,
 (c) As an annuity to a ((widow)) surviving spouse or representative of a deceased partner,

(d) As interest on a loan, though the amount of payment vary with the profits of the business,

(e) As the consideration for the sale of a good will of a business or other property by installments or otherwise.

Sec. 25. Section 25.04.250, chapter 15, Laws of 1955 and RCW

25.04.250 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A partner is co-owner with his partners of specific partnership property holding as a tenant in partnership.

(2) The incidents of this tenancy are such that:

(a) A partner, subject to the provisions of this chapter and to any agreement between the partners, has an equal right with his partners to possess specific partnership property for partnership purposes; but he has no right to possess such property for any other purpose without the consent of his partners.

(b) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not assignable except in connection with the assignment of rights of all the partners in the same property.

(c) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to attachment or execution, except on a claim against the partnership. When partnership property is attached for a partnership debt, the partners, or any of them, or the representatives of a deceased partner, cannot claim any right under the homestead or exemption laws.

(d) On the death of a partner, his right in specific partnership property vests in the surviving partner or partners, except where the deceased was the last surviving partner, when his right in such property vests in his legal representative. Such surviving partner or partners, or the legal representative of the last surviving partner, has no right to possess the partnership property for any but a partnership purpose.

(e) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to dower, curtesy, or allowances to ~~((widows))~~ a surviving spouse, heirs, or next of kin.

Sec. 26. Sections 1 and 5, page 404, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 2, chapter 17, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 26.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Marriage is a civil contract which may be entered into by persons of the age of eighteen years, who are otherwise capable: PROVIDED, That every marriage entered into in which either party shall not have attained the age of seventeen years shall be void except where this section has been waived by a superior court judge of the county in which ~~((the female))~~ one of the parties resides on a showing of necessity.

Sec. 27. Section 1, chapter 174, Laws of 1909 as last amended by section 1, chapter 149, Laws of 1959 and RCW 26.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((No woman under the age of forty-five years, or man of any age, except he marry a woman over the age of forty-five years, either of whom))~~ No marriage shall take place between two persons in which one or both, is a common drunkard, habitual criminal, imbecile, feeble-minded person, idiot or insane person, or person who has theretofore been afflicted with hereditary insanity, or who is afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis in its advanced stages, or any contagious venereal disease, shall hereafter intermarry or marry any other person within this state unless it is established that procreation is not possible by the couple intending to marry.

Sec. 28. Section 2, chapter 174, Laws of 1909 as last amended by section 2, chapter 149, Laws of 1959 and RCW 26.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No clergyman or other officer authorized by law to solemnize marriages within this state shall hereafter knowingly perform a marriage ceremony uniting persons in matrimony either of whom is an imbecile, feeble-minded person, common drunkard, idiot, insane person, or person who has theretofore been afflicted with hereditary insanity, habitual criminal, or person afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis in its advanced stages, or any contagious venereal disease, unless ((the female party to such marriage is over the age of forty-five years)) it is established that procreation is not possible by the couple intending to marry.

Sec. 29. Sections 13 and 14, page 83, Laws of 1866 as last amended by section 5, chapter 17, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 26.04.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The county auditor, before a marriage license is issued, upon the payment of a license fee as fixed in RCW 36.18.010 shall require each applicant therefor to make and file in his office upon blanks to be provided by the county for that purpose, an affidavit showing that such applicant is not feeble-minded, an imbecile, insane, a common drunkard, or afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis in its advanced stages: PROVIDED, That in addition, the affidavits of ((the male)) both applicants they are for such marriage license shall show that ((such male is)) they are not afflicted with any contagious venereal disease. He shall also require an affidavit of some disinterested credible person showing that neither of said persons is an habitual criminal, and that the applicants are the age of eighteen years or over: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That if the consent in writing is obtained of the father, mother, or legal guardian of the person for whom the license is required, the license may be granted in cases where the female has attained the age of seventeen years or the male has attained the age of seventeen years. Such affidavit may be subscribed and sworn to before any person authorized to administer oaths. Anyone knowingly swearing falsely to any of the statements contained in the affidavits mentioned in this section shall be deemed guilty of perjury and punished as provided by the laws of the state of Washington.

Sec. 30. Section 2, chapter 215, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 1, chapter 15, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 26.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Divorce may be granted by the superior court on application of the party injured for the following reasons:

(1) When the consent to the marriage of the party applying for the divorce was obtained by force or fraud, and there has been no voluntary cohabitation after the discovery of the fraud, or when either party shall be incapable of consenting thereto, for want of legal age or a sufficient understanding.

(2) For adultery on the part of the wife or of the husband, when unforgiven, and the application is made within one year after it shall have come to the knowledge of the party applying for a divorce.

(3) Impotency.

(4) Abandonment for one year.

(5) Cruel treatment of either party by the other, or personal indignities rendering life burdensome.

(6) Habitual drunkenness of either party.

(7) ~~((The neglect or refusal of the husband to make suitable provision for his family~~

~~(8)))~~ Imprisonment in a state or federal penal institution if complaint is filed during the term of such imprisonment.

~~((9)))~~ (8) A divorce may be granted to either or both parties in all cases where they have heretofore lived or shall hereafter live separate and apart for a period of two consecutive years or more, without regard to fault in the separation.

~~((10)))~~ (9) In all cases where the defendant, at the time of commencement of the action, is suffering from chronic mania or dementia, established by competent medical testimony to have existed for at least two years prior to the filing of the complaint, such insanity shall be the sole and exclusive ground upon which the court may, in its discretion, grant a divorce.

Sec. 31. Section 9, chapter 215, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 70, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 26.08.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Pending an action for divorce or annulment the court may make, and by attachment enforce, such orders for the disposition of the persons, property and children of the parties as the court may deem right and proper, and such orders relative to the expenses of such action, including attorneys' fees, as will insure to the ~~((wife))~~ parties an efficient preparation of ~~((her))~~ their case and a fair and impartial trial thereof. Upon the entry of judgment in the superior court, reasonable attorneys' fees may be awarded either party, in addition to statutory costs. Upon any appeal, the supreme court or the court of appeals may in its discretion award reasonable attorneys' fees to either party for services on the appeal, in addition to statutory costs.

Sec. 32. Section 12, chapter 215, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.08.120 are each amended to read as follows:

If the court determines after trial that no divorce or annulment shall be granted, it may enter a decree of separate maintenance in favor of the party entitled thereto, and make all necessary orders required for support, attorneys' fees, costs, and for the care, custody, support, and education of minor children; and may set aside property for the benefit of ((the wife)) either of the spouses and children, if any, and impose a lien on community property to compel obedience to the decree. Such decree may be modified, altered or revised by the court from time to time on a showing that the conditions rendering it necessary have changed or no longer exist. Such final order or decree of separate maintenance shall be appealable.

Sec. 33. Section 13, chapter 215, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.08.130 are each amended to read as follows:

In all actions for a divorce or annulment, the court may, for just and reasonable cause, change the name of ((the woman)) a party, who shall thereafter be known and called by such name as the court shall in its order or decree appoint.

Sec. 34. Section 1, chapter 28, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 2, chapter 207, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 26.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who:

(a) Has a child dependent upon him or her for care, education or support and deserts such child in any manner whatever with intent to abandon it; or

(b) Wilfully omits, without lawful excuse, to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance for his or her child or stepchild or children or stepchildren or ward or wards: PROVIDED, That with regard to stepchildren the obligation shall cease upon termination of the relationship of husband and wife; or

(c) Has sufficient ability to provide for ((his wife's)) support of such person's spouse or is able to earn the means for ((his wife's)) such person's spouse support and wilfully abandons and leaves ((her)) such person's spouse in a destitute condition; or who refuses or neglects to provide ((his wife)) such person's spouse with necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance, unless ((by her misconduct he is justified in abandoning her)) the abandonment is justified by misconduct of the abandoned spouse, shall be guilty of the crime of family desertion or nonsupport.

(2) When children are involved under the age of sixteen years, such act shall be a felony and punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than twenty years or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by both fine and imprisonment.

(3) When there is no child under sixteen years, such act shall be a gross misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 35. Section 2, chapter 28, Laws of 1913 as amended by section 1, chapter 297, Laws of 1927 and RCW 26.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

In any case enumerated in RCW 26.20.030 as now or hereafter amended, the court may render one of the following orders:

(1) Should a fine be imposed it may be directed by the court to be paid in whole or in part to ~~((the wife))~~ the appropriate spouse, or to the guardian, or to the custodian of the child or children, or to an individual appointed by the court as trustee.

(2) The court in its discretion having regard to the circumstances and to the financial ability or earning capacity of the defendant, shall have the power, either before or after trial, conviction, or sentence, to make an order, with the consent of the defendant, which shall be subject to change by it from time to time as circumstances may require, directing the defendant to pay a certain sum weekly during such time as the court may direct, to the ~~((wife))~~ spouse or to the guardian, or custodian of the minor child or children, or to an individual appointed by the court, and to release the defendant from custody or probation during such time as the court may direct, upon his or her entering into a recognizance, with or without sureties, in such sum as the court may direct. The condition of the recognizance to be such that if the defendant shall make his or her appearance in court whenever ordered to do so, and shall further comply with the terms of the order and of any subsequent modification thereof, then the recognizance shall be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

If the court be satisfied that at any time the defendant has violated the terms of such order, it may forthwith proceed with the trial of the defendant under the original indictment, information or complaint, or sentence, or under the original conviction, or enforce the original sentence as the case may be, in addition to declaring a forfeiture of the defendant's recognizance. In case of forfeiture of a recognizance and enforcement thereof by execution, the sum recovered may, in the discretion of the court, be paid in whole or in part to the ~~((wife))~~ spouse or to the guardian or custodian of the minor child or children upon such terms or conditions as may to the court be just and proper.

(3) Where conviction is had and sentence to imprisonment in the county jail is imposed, the court may direct that the person so convicted shall be compelled to work upon the public roads or highways or any other public work, in the county where such conviction is had, during the time of such sentence. And it shall be the duty of the ((beard of county commissioners)) legislative authority of the county where such conviction and sentence is had, and where such work is performed by persons under sentence to the county jail, to allow and order the payment, out of the current fund, to the ((wife)) spouse, or to the guardian, or the custodian of the child or children, or to an individual appointed by the court as trustee, at the end of each calendar month, for the support of such ((wife)) spouse, child, or children, ward or wards, a sum not to exceed one and fifty one-hundredths dollars for each day's work of such person.

(4) Whenever, during the pendency of such proceedings, it shall appear to the court that any moneys are due the defendant from any person, firm, or corporation, or that any person, firm, or corporation has funds or property of the defendant in his or its possession, the court may, upon application of the prosecuting attorney, enter an order requiring such person, firm, or corporation, to appear and answer, under oath, as to such moneys or property and if it appear at such hearing that such moneys or property should be applied to the support of said defendant's family, the court may enter judgment against the said person, firm, or corporation for the amount he or it was indebted to said defendant at the time of service of said order. If it appears that said person, firm, or corporation is not indebted to the defendant but at the time of service of said order upon it or at the time of judgment he or it has or had personal effects of the defendant in his or its possession, the court may make an order requiring said person, firm, or corporation to deliver up to the sheriff or director of public safety on demand such personal property or effects or so much as may be required for the support of the defendant's said family or dependents and said property and effects shall thereupon be sold by the sheriff or director of public safety as other chattels on execution and the proceeds of said sale applied to the support of the said dependents of said defendant. The provisions of this subdivision shall be ancillary to and may be invoked in addition to the remedies provided in subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of this section.

Proof of the abandonment or nonsupport of a ((wife)) spouse, or the desertion of a child or children, ward or wards, or the omission to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance for a child or children, ward or wards, is prima facie evidence that such abandonment or nonsupport, or omission to furnish food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance is wilful. The provisions of RCW 26.20.030 as now or hereafter amended are applicable whether the parents of such child or children are married or divorced and regardless of any decree made in said divorce action relative to alimony or to the support of the ((wife)) spouse or child or children.

V— Sec. 37. Section 19, chapter 203, Laws of 1919 and RCW 26.24.190 are each amended to read as follows:

((If the mother be a suitable person she shall be awarded the custody and control of said child)) Custody shall be granted to whichever parent is best able to serve the welfare and best interests of the child; if ((she be not)) neither is a suitable person, the court may deliver the care and custody of said child to any reputable person, ((including the accused)) charitable or state institution. Such order and judgment may further provide, in the discretion of the court, that the surname of the accused shall henceforth be the lawful surname of such child.

Sec. 38. Section 2, page 407, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 2364, Code of 1881 and RCW 26.28.020 are each amended to read as follows:

All ((females)) minor persons married to a person of full age shall be deemed and taken to be of full age.

Every person who shall employ, and every parent, guardian or other person having the care, custody or control of such child, who shall permit to be employed, by another, any ((male child under the age of fourteen years or any female)) child under the age of ((sixteen)) fourteen years at any labor whatever, in or in connection with any store, shop, factory, mine or any inside employment not connected with farm or house work, without the written permit thereto of a judge of a superior court of the county wherein such child may live, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Written consent to such adoption must be filed prior to a hearing on the petition, as follows:

(1) By the person to be adopted, if such person is fourteen years of age or older, but the filing of such consent shall not obviate the necessity of securing any other consent herein required;

(2) If the person to be adopted is of legitimate birth or legitimized thereafter, and a minor, then by each of his living parents, except as hereinafter provided;

(3) If the person to be adopted is illegitimate and a minor, then by his mother, if living, and his father, if living, if the father's identity has been adjudicated by the court, except as hereinafter provided;

(4) If a legal guardian has been appointed for the person of the child, then by such guardian;

(5) If the person to be adopted is a minor and has been permanently committed upon due notice to his parents by any court of general jurisdiction to an approved agency, then by such approved agency, in which event neither notice to nor consent by its parents in the adoption proceeding shall be necessary: PROVIDED, That if the approved agency refuses to consent to the adoption, the court, in its discretion, may order that such consent be dispensed with.

Sec. 41. Section 4, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 and RCW 26.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No consent for the adoption of a minor shall be required as follows:

(1) From a parent deprived of civil rights when in a hearing for that purpose, as provided in RCW 26.32.050, the court finds that the circumstances surrounding the loss of said parent's civil rights were of such a nature that the welfare of the child would be best served by a permanent deprivation of parental rights;

(2) From a parent who has been deprived of the custody of the child by a court of competent jurisdiction, after notice: PROVIDED, That a decree in an action for divorce, separate maintenance, or annulment, which grants to a parent any right of custody, control, or visitation of a minor child, or requires of such parent the payment of support money for such child, shall not constitute such deprivation of custody;

(3) From a parent who, more than one year prior to filing of a petition hereunder, has been adjudged to be mentally ill or otherwise mentally incompetent, and who has not thereafter been restored to competency by the court making such adjudication, and the court at a hearing called for such purpose, as provided in RCW 26.32.050, finds that the best interests of the child will be served by a permanent deprivation of custody;

(4) From a parent who has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction, upon notice as herein provided to such parent, to have deserted or abandoned such child under circumstances showing a wilful substantial lack of regard for parental obligations;

(5) From a father of an illegitimate child unless he has been adjudicated as the father by the court.

Sec. 42. Section 5, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 and RCW 26.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

If the court in an adoption proceeding, after a hearing for that purpose upon notice thereof as hereinafter provided having been given to a parent, finds any of the conditions set forth in RCW v- 26.32.040 as now or hereafter amended to be a fact as to the parent, the court may decree that consent of such parent shall not be required prior to adoption: PROVIDED, That the father of an illegitimate child shall not be entitled to notice of such hearing unless he has been adjudicated as father by the court.

Sec. 43. Section 8, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 and RCW 26.32.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court shall direct notice of any hearing under RCW 26.32.050 as now or hereafter amended to be given to any nonconsenting parent or guardian, if any, and to any person or association having the actual care, custody, or control of the child: PROVIDED, That where a parent has been deprived of the custody of such child and such child has been set over for adoption by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, after due notice in a proceeding regularly had for such purpose, no notice need be given to the parent so deprived, and the record of such deprivation proceedings shall be deemed prima facie proof of such deprivation;

(2) Such notice shall be given in the following manner: The court shall direct the clerk to issue a notice of such hearing directed to the persons entitled to notice, notifying such persons of the filing of the petition, stating briefly the object of the petition and the purpose of the hearing, and notifying such persons of the date, time and place of the hearing. A copy of the notice shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of the summons upon the persons entitled thereto at least ten days prior to the hearing;

(3) In the event it shall appear by the affidavit of the petitioners that the persons entitled to notice, or either of them, are nonresidents of the state or that they cannot, after diligent search, be found within the state, and that a copy of said notice has been deposited in the post office, postage prepaid, directed to such person or persons at their last known place of residence, unless it is stated in the affidavit that such residence is unknown to petitioners, then the court may order said notice published in a legal newspaper printed in the county, qualified to publish summons, once a week for three consecutive weeks, the first publication of said notice to be at least twenty-five days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. Proof of service of notice shall be filed in the cause as required by law for making proof of the service of summons or summons by publication;

(4) Personal service of the notice out of the state, made twenty-five days or more prior to the date fixed for the hearing, shall be deemed equivalent to service by publication;

(5) If the court is satisfied of the illegitimacy of the child to be adopted, ((and so finds,)) no notice to the father of such child shall be made unless the court has adjudicated the father's parenthood.

(6) A notice in substantially following form will be deemed sufficient:

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON FOR THE COUNTY OF.....

In the Matter of the Adoption of) No.....

Jane Doe) Notice

To John Doe (nonconsenting parent) and to all whom it may concern:

You are hereby notified that there has been filed in this court a petition for the adoption of the above named, praying also that there be first an adjudication that the consent of John Doe to such adoption is not required by law.

A hearing for such purpose will be had on theday of....., 19....., at the hour of 9:30 a.m., at the courtroom of said superior court, at....., or to such other department of the court to which said matter may be then and there transferred, when and where all persons interested shall appear and show cause why such adjudication should not be made, and why, if made, such petition should not be thereafter heard forthwith and the prayer thereof granted.

WITNESS, The Honorable....., Judge of said Superior court, and the seal of said court hereunto affixed this.....day of....., 19....

Sec. 44. Section 2, chapter 49, Laws of 1903 and RCW 26.37.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon complaint of any person in writing other than an officer or agent of such society or corporation to any judge of the superior court giving the names and residences of the parents, guardian (if any) or next of kin of such child, so far as known, and alleging that the father of such minor child is dead, or has abandoned his family or is an habitual drunkard or is a man of notoriously bad character, or is imprisoned for crime, or has grossly abused or neglected such child, and that the mother of such child is an habitual drunkard, or imprisoned for crime, ((or an inmate of a house of ill fame,)) or a woman of notoriously bad character or is dead, or has abandoned her family, or has grossly abused or neglected such child, and alleging that the welfare of such child requires that legal steps be taken to provide for its care and custody, a warrant shall issue directing the proper officer to take such child into custody and care for or dispose of it as such judge shall direct, until a hearing can be had, such proceedings shall have precedence of other causes, of which hearing not less than five days notice shall be given to such parents, guardian or next of kin and such judge shall hear the allegations of the complaint and all testimony offered for or against the same and determine whether in his judgment there is cause for a change in the care and custody of such child. If the judge shall decide to change the care and custody of such child, he may commit the child to the care and custody of any such benevolent society contemplated in this chapter which is willing to receive it, and such commitment shall carry with it the same powers and authority as above provided in case of voluntary surrender, or he may enter such findings and transmit the papers and a transcript of his proceedings to the county commissioners of the county in which the case arises and surrender such child to the care and custody of such commissioners and it may be disposed of without further notice to the parents, guardian or next of kin.

Sec. 45. Section 28A.34.050, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.34.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Every board of directors shall have power to establish, equip and maintain nursery schools and/or provide before-and-after-school care for children of working ((mothers)) parents, in cooperation with the federal government or any of its agencies, when in their judgment the best interests of their district will be subserved thereby.

Sec. 46. Section 28A.60.210, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 37, chapter 48, Laws of 1971 and RCW 28A.60.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Plans of any second or third class district or combination of districts for the carrying out of the powers granted by RCW 28A.60.190 through 28A.60.220 shall be submitted to and approved by a board of supervisors composed of members, as follows: The superintendent of public instruction; the head of the extension department of Washington State University; the head of the extension department of the University of Washington; and the intermediate school district superintendent; these to choose one member from such county in which the facilities are proposed to be located, and two members, ((one of whom shall be a woman)) from the district or districts concerned.

Sec. 47. Section 28B.30.150, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.30.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The regents of Washington State University, in addition to other duties prescribed by law, shall:

(1) Have full control of the university and its property of various kinds.

(2) Employ the president of the university, his assistants, members of the faculty, and employees of the university, who, except as otherwise provided by law, shall hold their positions during the pleasure of said board of regents.

(3) Establish entrance requirements for students seeking admission to the university. Completion of examinations satisfactory to the university may be a prerequisite for entrance by any applicant, at the university's discretion. Evidence of completion of public high schools and other educational institutions whose courses of study meet the approval of the university may be acceptable for entrance.

(4) Establish such colleges, schools or departments necessary to carry out the purpose of the university and not otherwise proscribed by law.

(5) With the assistance of the faculty of the university, prescribe the courses of instruction in the various colleges, schools and departments of the institution and publish the necessary catalogues thereof.

(6) Collect such information as the board deems desirable as to the schemes of technical instruction adopted in other parts of the United States and foreign countries.

(7) Provide for holding agricultural institutes including farm marketing forums.

(8) Provide that instruction given in the university, as far as practicable, be conveyed by means of laboratory work and provide in connection with the university one or more physical, chemical, and biological laboratories, and suitably furnish and equip the same.

(9) Provide training in military tactics for those ((male)) students electing to participate therein.

(10) Establish a department of elementary science and in connection therewith provide instruction in elementary mathematics, including elementary trigonometry, elementary mechanics, elementary and mechanical drawing and land surveying.

(11) Establish a department of agriculture and in connection therewith provide instruction in physics with special application of its principles to agriculture, chemistry with special application of its principles to agriculture, morphology and physiology of plants with special reference to common grown crops and fungus enemies, morphology and physiology of the lower forms of animal life, with special reference to insect pests, morphology and physiology of the higher forms of animal life and in particular of the horse, cow, sheep and swine, agriculture with special reference to the breeding and feeding of livestock and the best mode of cultivation of farm produce, and mining and metallurgy, appointing demonstrators in each of these subjects to superintend the equipment of a laboratory and to give practical instruction therein.

(12) Establish agricultural experiment stations in connection with the department of agriculture, including at least one in the western portion of the state, and appoint the officers and prescribe regulations for their management.

(13) Grant to students such certificates or degrees, as recommended for such students by the faculty.

(14) Confer honorary degrees upon persons other than graduates of the university in recognition of their learning or devotion to literature, art or science when recommended thereto by the faculty: PROVIDED, That no degree shall ever be conferred in consideration of the payment of money or the giving of property of whatsoever kind.

(15) Adopt plans and specifications for university buildings and facilities or improvements thereto and employ skilled architects and engineers to prepare such plans and specifications and supervise the construction of buildings or facilities which the board is authorized to erect, and fix the compensation for such services. The board shall enter into contracts with one or more contractors for such suitable buildings, facilities or improvements as the available funds will warrant, upon the most advantageous terms offered at a public competitive letting, pursuant to public notice under regulations established by the board. The board shall require of all persons with whom they contract for construction and improvements a good and sufficient bond for the faithful performance of the work and full protection against all liens.

(16) Except as otherwise provided by law, direct the disposition of all money appropriated to or belonging to the state university.

(17) Receive and expend the money appropriated under the act of congress approved May 8, 1914, entitled "An Act to provide for cooperative agricultural extension work between the agricultural colleges in the several States receiving the benefits of the Act of Congress approved July 2, 1862, and Acts supplemental thereto and the United States Department of Agriculture" and organize and conduct agricultural extension work in connection with the state university in accordance with the terms and conditions expressed in the acts of congress.

(18) Except as otherwise provided by law, to enter into such contracts as the regents deem essential to university purposes.

(19) Acquire by lease, gift, or otherwise, lands necessary to further the work of the university or for experimental or demonstrational purposes.

(20) Establish and maintain at least one agricultural experiment station in an irrigation district to conduct investigational work upon the principles and practices of irrigational agriculture including the utilization of water and its relation to soil types, crops, climatic conditions, ditch and drain construction, fertility investigations, plant disease, insect pests, marketing, farm management, utilization of fruit byproducts and general development of agriculture under irrigation conditions.

(21) Supervise and control the agricultural experiment station at Puyallup.

(22) Establish and maintain at Wenatchee an agricultural experiment substation for the purpose of conducting investigational work upon the principles and practices of orchard culture, spraying, fertilization, pollenization, new fruit varieties, fruit diseases and pests, byproducts, marketing, management and general horticultural problems.

(23) Accept such gifts, grants, conveyances, devises and bequests, whether real or personal property, in trust or otherwise, for the use or benefit of the university, its colleges, schools or departments; and sell, lease or exchange, invest or expend the same or the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof except as limited by the terms of said gifts, grants, conveyances, bequests and devises; adopt proper rules to govern and protect the receipt and expenditure of the proceeds of all fees, and the proceeds, rents, profits and income of all gifts, grants, conveyances, bequests and devises, and make full report thereof in a biennial report to the governor and members of the legislature.

(24) Construct when the board so determines a new foundry and a mining, physical, technological building and fabrication shop at the university, or add to the present foundry and other buildings, in order that both instruction and research be expanded to include permanent molding and die casting with a section for new fabricating techniques, especially for light metals, including magnesium and aluminum; purchase equipment for the shops and laboratories in mechanical, electrical, and civil engineering; establish a pilot plant for the extraction of alumina from native clays and other possible light metal research; purchase equipment for a research laboratory for technological research generally; and purchase equipment for research in electronics, instrumentation, energy sources, plastics, food technology, mechanics of materials, hydraulics and similar fields.

(25) Make and transmit to the governor and members of the legislature a printed report prior to the first day of January preceding each regular session of the legislature, including information on all receipts and disbursements of university moneys, an estimate of the needs of the institution, and such additional information as will be helpful to the state authorities in providing for the institution.

Upon the issuance of a certificate of authority to a trust company, the persons named in the articles of incorporation and their successors shall thereupon become a corporation and shall have power:

(1) To execute all the powers and possess all the privileges conferred on banks.

(2) To act as fiscal or transfer agent of the United States or of any state, municipality, body politic or corporation and in such capacity to receive and disburse money.

(3) To transfer, register and countersign certificates of stock, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness and to act as attorney in fact or agent of any corporation, foreign or domestic, for any purpose, statutory or otherwise.

(4) To act as trustee under any mortgage, or bonds, issued by any municipality, body politic, or corporation, foreign or domestic, or by any individual, firm, association or partnership, and to accept and execute any municipal or corporate trust.

(5) To receive and manage any sinking fund of any corporation upon such terms as may be agreed upon between such corporation and those dealing with it.

(6) To collect coupons on or interest upon all manner of securities, when authorized so to do, by the parties depositing the same.

(7) To accept trusts from and execute trusts for married ((women)) persons in respect to their separate property and to be their agent in the management of such property and to transact any business in relation thereto.

(8) To act as receiver or trustee of the estate of any person, or to be appointed to any trust by any court, to act as assignee under any assignment for the benefit of creditors of any debtor, whether made pursuant to statute or otherwise, and to be the depository of any moneys paid into court.

(9) To be appointed and to accept the appointment of executor of, or trustee under, the last will and testament, or administrator with or without the will annexed, of the estate of any deceased person and to be appointed and to act as guardian of the estate of lunatics, idiots, persons of unsound mind, minors and habitual drunkards: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the power hereby granted to trust companies to act as guardian or administrator, with or without the will annexed, shall not be construed to deprive parties of the prior right to have issued to them letters of guardianship, or of administration, as such right now exists under the law of this state.

(10) To execute any trust or power of whatever nature or description that may be conferred upon or entrusted or committed to it by any person or by any court or municipality, foreign or domestic corporation and any other trust or power conferred upon or entrusted or committed to it by grant, assignment, transfer, devise, bequest or by any other authority and to receive, take, use, manage, hold and dispose of, according to the terms of such trusts or powers any property or estate, real or personal, which may be the subject of any such trust or power.

(11) Generally to execute trusts of every description not inconsistent with law.

(12) To purchase, invest in and sell promissory notes, bills of exchange, bonds, debentures and mortgages and when moneys are borrowed or received for investment, the bonds or obligations of the company may be given therefor, but no trust company hereafter organized shall issue such bonds: PROVIDED, That no trust company which receives money for investment and issues the bonds of the company therefor shall engage in the business of banking or receiving of either savings or commercial deposits: AND PROVIDED, That it shall not issue any bond covering a period of more than ten years between the date of its issuance and its maturity date: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if for any cause, the holder of any such bond upon which one or more annual rate installments have been paid, shall fail to pay the subsequent annual rate installments provided in said bond such holder shall, on or before the maturity date of said bond, be paid not less than the full sum which he has paid in on account of said bond.

When any deposit has been or shall hereafter be made in any bank or trust company in his or her own name, by any minor, married ((woman)) person or person under disability, such corporation may disregard such disability and pay such money or a check or order of such person, the same as in other cases.

Sec. 50. Section 43, chapter 235, Laws of 1945 and RCW 33.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Married ((women)) persons may become members of an association and all contracts entered into between a married ((woman)) person and an association, with respect to ((her)) such person's membership or ((her)) such person's savings therein, shall be valid and enforceable and, unless notice shall be given to the association that the same are community funds, all savings accounts of a married ((woman)) person shall be held for the exclusive right and benefit of such married ((woman)) person and free from the control or lien of all other persons, except creditors, and shall be paid, together with dividends thereon, to such member, and ((her)) such person's receipt or acquittance shall be a valid discharge of the obligation.

Sec. 51. Section 35.24.370, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 61, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW

35.24.370 are each amended to read as follows:

A third class city may impose upon and collect from every ((male)) inhabitant of the city over the age of eighteen years an annual street poll tax not exceeding two dollars and no other road poll tax shall be collected within the limits of the city.

Sec. 52. Section 35.27.500, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 62, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 35.27.500 are each amended to read as follows:

A town may impose upon and collect from every ((male)) inhabitant of the town over eighteen years of age an annual street poll tax not exceeding two dollars and no other road poll tax shall be collected within the limits of the town.

Sec. 53. Section 35.66.050, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.66.050 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of effecting the main object of this chapter, no ((female)) member of one sex under arrest shall be confined in the same cell or apartment of the city jail or prison, with any ((man)) member of the other sex whatever.

The sheriff or director of public safety shall employ all ((male)) able bodied persons sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail in such manner and at such places within the county as may be directed by the ((board of county commissioners)) legislative authority of the county.

Sec. 55. Section 2, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 as amended by section 1, chapter 74, Laws of 1963 and RCW 38.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The militia of the state of Washington shall consist of all able bodied ((male)) citizens of the United States and all other able bodied ((males)) persons who have or shall have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, residing within this state, who shall be more than eighteen years of age, and shall include all ((females)) persons who are members of the national guard, and said militia shall be divided into two classes, the organized militia and the unorganized militia.

Sec. 56. Section 93, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 as last amended by section 1, chapter 149, Laws of 1963 and RCW 38.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

State owned armories may be used for strictly military purposes: PROVIDED, That one room may be set aside for the exclusive use of bona fide veteran organizations subject to the direction of the officer in charge thereof, together with necessary furniture, heat, light and janitor service, and the members of such veteran organizations and their auxiliaries shall have access to said room and the use thereof at all times: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any bona fide veterans' organization may be permitted the use of any state armory for athletic and social events at such times as any such armory shall not be required for the use of units of the organized militia, without the payment of rent, but the adjutant general may require such veterans' organization to pay the cost of heating, lighting or other miscellaneous expenses incidental to such use: PROVIDED, ALSO, The adjutant general may, during an emergency, permit transient lodging of service ((men)) personnel in armories: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any civilian rifle club affiliated with the National Rifle Association of America shall be permitted to use the rifle range in such armories at least one night each week under regulations prescribed by the adjutant general: PROVIDED, ALSO, That state owned armories shall be available, at the discretion of the adjutant general, for use for casual civic purposes, amateur and professional sports and theatricals upon payment of fixed rental charges and compliance with regulations of the state military department: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That children attending primary and high schools shall have a preferential right to use said armories. The adjutant general shall cause to be prepared a schedule of rental charges for each state owned armory which may not be waived except for activities of units of the organized militia, and no state owned armory shall be rented for a term longer than that which intervenes between regularly authorized formations of units of the organized militia using such armory. The revenue derived from armory rentals shall constitute a special fund from which the state military department shall pay, or cause to be paid, expenses incident to such use or maintenance and operation of armories.

Sec. 57. Section 4, chapter 108, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 4, chapter 134, Laws of 1909 and RCW 38.44.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the commander-in-chief shall deem it necessary, in event of, or imminent danger of war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, resistance to law or process or breach of the peace, he may order an enrollment by counties of all persons subject to military duty, designating the county assessor or some other person for each county to act as county enrolling officer. Each county enrolling officer may appoint such assistant or assistants as may be authorized by the commander-in-chief. In each county the enrollment shall include every sane able bodied ((male)) inhabitant not under sentence for an infamous crime, who is more than eighteen and less than forty-five years of age. The enrollment shall be made in triplicate and shall state the name, residence, age, occupation and previous or existing military or naval service of each person enrolled. When complete the rolls shall be verified under oath by the enrolling officer, who shall immediately thereupon file one copy with the adjutant general of the state and another with the county auditor, retaining the third copy for himself.

Sec. 58. Section 4, chapter 178, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 3, chapter 203, Laws of 1967 and RCW 38.52.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created within the executive branch of the state government a department of ~~((civil defense hereinafter called the civil defense agency))~~ emergency services and a director of ~~((civil defense))~~ emergency services (hereinafter called the director) who shall be the head thereof. The director shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate; ~~((he))~~ the director shall not hold any other state office; ~~((he))~~ the director shall hold office during the pleasure of the governor, and shall be compensated at the rate established by the governor's advisory committee on salaries and wages.

(2) The director may employ such technical, clerical, stenographic, and other personnel and may make such expenditures within the appropriation therefor, or from other funds made available ~~((to him))~~ for purposes of ~~((civil defense))~~ emergency services, as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(3) The director and other personnel of the ~~((civil defense agency))~~ department shall be provided with appropriate office space, furniture, equipment, supplies, stationery, and printing in the same manner as provided for personnel of other state agencies.

(4) The director, subject to the direction and control of the governor, shall be the executive head of the ~~((civil defense agency))~~ department and shall be responsible to the governor for carrying out the program for ~~((civil defense))~~ emergency services of this state. ~~((He))~~ The director shall coordinate the activities of all organizations for ~~((civil defense))~~ emergency services within the state, and shall maintain liaison with and cooperate with ~~((civil defense))~~ emergency services agencies and organizations of other states and of the federal government, and shall have such additional authority, duties, and responsibilities authorized by this chapter, as may be prescribed by the governor.

(5) The director shall appoint a communications coordinating committee consisting of six ~~((men))~~ persons with the director as chairman thereof. Three of the members shall be appointed from qualified, trained and experienced telephone communications administrators or engineers actively engaged in such work within the state of Washington at the time of appointment, and three of the members shall be appointed from qualified, trained and experienced radio communication administrators or engineers actively engaged in such work within the state of Washington at the time of appointment.

This committee shall be given full and complete authority over all plans for the direction and control of any communications facilities or functions to be operated or controlled under the provisions of this chapter by the department of ((civil defense)) emergency services, except supplemental emergency communications facilities under the direction of any local organization for ((civil defense)) emergency services.

(6) The director shall appoint a state coordinator of search and rescue operations, who shall coordinate those state resources, services and facilities (other than those for which the state director of aeronautics is directly responsible) requested by political subdivisions in support of search and rescue operations, and who shall on request maintain liaison with and coordinate the resources, services, and facilities of political subdivisions when more than one political subdivision is engaged in joint search and rescue operations.

Sec. 59. Section 14, chapter 223, Laws of 1953 and RCW 38.52.300 are each amended to read as follows:

If the injury to ((a civil defense)) an emergency services worker is due to the negligence or wrong of another not on ((civil defense)) emergency services duty, the injured worker, or if death results from the injury, ((his widow)) the surviving spouse, children, parents or dependents, as the case may be, shall elect whether to take under this chapter or seek a remedy against such other, such election to be in advance of any suit under this chapter; and if ((he)) the surviving spouse takes under this chapter, the cause of action against such other shall be assigned to the department of ((civil defense)) emergency services; if the other choice is made, the compensation under this chapter shall be only the deficiency, if any, between the amount of recovery against such third person actually collected, and the compensation provided or estimated for such case under authority of this chapter: PROVIDED, That the department of ((civil defense)) emergency services shall prosecute all claims assigned to it and do any and all things necessary to recover on behalf of the state any and all amounts which an employer or insurance carrier might recover under the provisions of the law.

Sec. 60. Section 5, chapter 31, Laws of 1935 and RCW 41.08.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Immediately after appointment the commission shall organize by electing one of its members chairman and hold regular meetings at least once a month, and such additional meetings as may be required for the proper discharge of their duties.

They shall appoint a secretary and chief examiner, who shall keep the records of the commission, preserve all reports made to it, superintend and keep a record of all examinations held under its direction, and perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe.

The secretary and chief examiner shall be appointed as a result of competitive examination which examination may be either original and open to all properly qualified citizens of the city, town or municipality, or promotional and limited to persons already in the service of the fire department or of the fire department and other departments of said city, town or municipality, as the commission may decide. The secretary and chief examiner may be subject to suspension, reduction or discharge in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as are provided in the case of members of the fire department. It shall be the duty of the civil service commission:

(1) To make suitable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. Such rules and regulations shall provide in detail the manner in which examinations may be held, and appointments, promotions, transfers, reinstatements, demotions, suspensions and discharges shall be made, and may also provide for any other matters connected with the general subject of personnel administration, and which may be considered desirable to further carry out the general purposes of this chapter, or which may be found to be in the interest of good personnel administration. Such rules and regulations may be changed from time to time. The rules and regulations and any amendments thereof shall be printed, mimeographed or multigraphed for free public distribution. Such rules and regulations may be changed from time to time.

(2) All tests shall be practical, and shall consist only of subjects which will fairly determine the capacity of persons examined to perform duties of the position to which appointment is to be made, and may include tests of physical fitness and/or of manual skill.

(3) The rules and regulations adopted by the commission shall provide for a credit of ten percent in favor of all applicants for appointment under civil service, who, in time of war, or in any expedition of the armed forces of the United States, have served in and been honorably discharged from the armed forces of the United States, including the army, navy and marine corps and the American Red Cross. These credits apply to entrance examinations only.

(4) The commission shall make investigations concerning and report upon all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the provisions of this chapter, and the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder; inspect all institutions, departments, offices, places, positions and employments affected by this chapter, and ascertain whether this chapter and all such rules and regulations are being obeyed. Such investigations may be made by the commission or by any commissioner designated by the commission for that purpose. Not only must these investigations be made by the commission as aforesaid, but the commission must make like investigation on petition of a citizen, duly verified, stating that irregularities or abuses exist, or setting forth in concise language, in writing, the necessity for such investigation. In the course of such investigation the commission or designated commissioner, or chief examiner, shall have the power to administer oaths, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production by them of books, papers, documents and accounts appertaining to the investigation and also to cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior court; and the oaths administered hereunder and the subpoenas issued hereunder shall have the same force and effect as the oaths administered by a superior court judge in his judicial capacity; and the failure upon the part of any person so subpoenaed to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed a violation of this chapter, and punishable as such.

(5) All hearings and investigations before the commission, or designated commissioner, or chief examiner, shall be governed by this chapter and by rules of practice and procedure to be adopted by the commission, and in the conduct thereof neither the commission, nor designated commissioner shall be bound by the technical rules of evidence. No informality in any proceedings or hearing, or in the manner of taking testimony before the commission or designated commissioner, shall invalidate any order, decision, rule or regulation made, approved or confirmed by the commission: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no order, decision, rule or regulation made by any designated commissioner conducting any hearing or investigation alone shall be of any force or effect whatsoever unless and until concurred in by at least one of the other two members.

(6) To hear and determine appeals or complaints respecting the administrative work of the personnel department; appeals upon the allocation of positions; the rejection of an examination, and such other matters as may be referred to the commission.

(7) Establish and maintain in card or other suitable form a roster of officers and employees.

(8) Provide for, formulate and hold competitive tests to determine the relative qualifications of persons who seek employment in any class or position and as a result thereof establish eligible lists for the various classes of positions, and to provide that ((men)) persons laid off because of curtailment of expenditures, reduction in force, and for like causes, head the list in the order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed.

(9) When a vacant position is to be filled, to certify to the appointing authority, on written request, the name of the person highest on the eligible list for the class. If there are no such lists, to authorize provisional or temporary appointment list of such class. Such temporary or provisional appointment shall not continue for a period longer than four months; nor shall any person receive more than one provisional appointment or serve more than four months as a provisional appointee in any one fiscal year.

(10) Keep such records as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter.

Sec. 61. Section 1, chapter 91, Laws of 1947 and RCW 41.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of this chapter, unless clearly indicated by the context, words and phrases shall have the following meaning:

(1) "Beneficiary" shall mean any person or persons designated by a fireman in a writing filed with the board, and who shall be entitled to receive any benefits of a deceased fireman under this chapter.

(2) "Board" shall mean the municipal firemen's pension board.

(3) "Child or children" shall mean a child or children unmarried and under eighteen years of age.

(4) "Contributions" shall mean and include all sums deducted from the salary of firemen and paid into the fund as hereinafter provided.

(5) "Disability" shall mean and include injuries or sickness sustained as a result of the performance of duty.

(6) "Fireman" shall mean any person regularly or temporarily, or as a substitute, employed and paid as a member of a fire department, who has passed a civil service examination for fireman and who is actively employed as a fireman; and shall include any "prior fireman".

(7) "Fire department" shall mean the regularly organized, full time, paid, and employed force of firemen of the municipality.

(8) "Fund" shall mean the firemen's pension fund created herein.

(9) "Municipality" shall mean every city and town having a regularly organized full time, paid, fire department employing firemen.

(10) "Performance of duty" shall mean the performance of work and labor regularly required of firemen and shall include services of an emergency nature rendered while off regular duty, but shall not include time spent in traveling to work before answering roll call or traveling from work after dismissal at roll call.

(11) "Prior fireman" shall mean a fireman who was actively employed as a fireman of a fire department prior to the first day of January, 1947, and who continues such employment thereafter.

(12) "Retired fireman" shall mean and include a person employed as a fireman and retired under the provisions of chapter 50, Laws of 1909, as amended.

(13) "Widow or widower" means the surviving wife or husband of a retired fireman who was retired on account of length of service and who was lawfully married to such fireman; and whenever that term is used with reference to the wife or former wife or husband or former husband of a retired fireman who was retired because of disability, it shall mean his or her lawfully married wife or husband on the date he or she sustained the injury or contracted the illness that resulted in his or her disability. Said term shall not mean or include a surviving wife or husband who by process of law within one year prior to the retired fireman's death, collected or attempted to collect from him or her funds for the support of herself or himself or for his or her children.

Sec. 62. Section 4, chapter 82, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 4, chapter 5, Laws of 1959 and RCW 41.16.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The widow or widower, child, children or beneficiary of any fireman retired under this chapter shall receive an amount equal to his or her accumulated contributions to the fund, plus earned interest thereon compounded semiannually: PROVIDED, That there shall be deducted from said sum the amount paid to decedent in pensions and the remainder shall be paid to his or her widow or widower, child, children or beneficiary: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the amount paid shall not be less than one thousand dollars.

Sec. 63. Section 6, chapter 82, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 6, chapter 5, Laws of 1959 and RCW 41.16.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any active fireman or fireman retired for disability shall die as the result of an accident or other fortuitous event occurring while in the performance of his or her duty, his widow or her widower may elect to accept a monthly pension equal to one-half the deceased fireman's salary but in no case in excess of one hundred fifty dollars per month, or the sum of five thousand dollars cash. The right of election must be exercised within sixty days of the fireman's death. If not so exercised, the pension benefits shall become fixed and shall be paid from the date of death. Such pension shall cease if, and when, he or she remarries. If there is no widow or widower, then such pension benefits shall be paid to his or her child or children.

Sec. 64. Section 8, chapter 82, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 8, chapter 5, Laws of 1959 and RCW 41.16.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Any fireman who has served more than fifteen years and sustains a disability not in the performance of his or her duty which renders him or her unable to continue his or her service, shall within sixty days exercise his or her choice either to receive his or her contribution to the fund, plus earned interest compounded semiannually, or be retired and paid a monthly pension based on the factor of his or her age shown in RCW 41.16.080, times his or her average monthly salary as a member of the fire department of his or her municipality at the date of his or her retirement, times the number of years of service rendered at the time he or she sustained such disability. If such fireman shall die leaving surviving him a wife or surviving her a husband, or child or children, then such wife or husband, or if he leaves no wife or she leaves no husband, then his or her child or children shall receive the sum of his contributions, plus accumulated compound interest, and such payment shall be reduced in the amount of the payments made to deceased.

Sec. 65. Section 9, chapter 82, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 9, chapter 5, Laws of 1959 and RCW 41.16.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any fireman who has served twenty years or more and who shall resign or be dismissed, shall have the option of receiving all his or her contributions plus earned interest compounded semiannually, or a monthly pension in the amount of his average monthly salary times the number of years of service rendered, times one and one-half percent. Payment of such pension shall commence at the time of severance from the fire department, or at the age of fifty-five years, whichever shall be later. The fireman shall have sixty days from the severance date to elect which option he or she will take. In the event he or she fails to exercise his or her right of election then he or she shall receive the amount of his or her contributions plus accrued compounded interest. In the event he or she elects such pension, but dies before attaining the age of fifty-five, his widow or her widower, or if he leaves no widow or she leaves no widower, then his or her child or children shall receive only his contribution, plus accrued compounded interest. In the event he elects to take a pension and dies after attaining the age of fifty-five, his widow or her widower, or if he leaves no widow or she leaves no widower, then child or children shall receive his or her contributions, plus accrued compounded interest, less the amount of pension payments made to such fireman during his or her lifetime.

(2) Any fireman who shall have served for a period of less than twenty years, and shall resign or be dismissed, shall be paid the amount of his or her contributions, plus accrued compounded interest.

Sec. 66. Section 10, chapter 82, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 10, chapter 5, Laws of 1959 and RCW 41.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any fireman, after four years of service, shall die from natural causes, or from an injury not sustained in the performance of his or her duty and for which no pension is provided in this chapter, and who has not been retired on account of disability, his widow or her widower, if he or she was his wife or her husband at the time he or she was stricken with his or her last illness, or at the time he or she received the injuries from which he or she died; or if there is no such widow, then his or her child or children shall be entitled to the amount of his or her contributions, plus accrued compounded interest, or the sum of one thousand dollars, whichever sum shall be the greater. In case of death as above stated, before the end of four years of service, an amount based on the proportion of the time of service to four years shall be paid such beneficiaries.

Sec. 67. Section 11, chapter 82, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 11, chapter 5, Laws of 1959 and RCW 41.16.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a fireman dies leaving no widow or widower or children, the amount of his or her accumulated contributions, plus accrued compounded interest only, shall be paid his or her beneficiary.

Sec. 68. Section 12, chapter 91, Laws of 1947 and RCW 41.16.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Chapter 50, Laws of 1909; chapter 196, Laws of 1919; chapter 86, Laws of 1929, and chapter 39, Laws of 1935 (secs. 9559 to 9578, incl., Rem. Rev. Stat.; secs. 396-1 to 396-43, incl., PPC) and all other acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed: PROVIDED, That the repeal of said laws shall not affect any "prior fireman", his widow, her widower, child or children, any fireman eligible for retirement but not retired, his widow her widower, child or children, or the rights of any retired fireman, his widow, her widower, child or children, to receive payments and benefits from the firemen's pension fund created under this chapter, in the amount, and in the manner provided by said laws which are hereby repealed and as if said laws had not been repealed.

Sec. 69. Section 1, chapter 382, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 40, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of this chapter, unless clearly indicated otherwise by the context, words and phrases shall have the meaning hereinafter ascribed.

(1) "Beneficiary" shall mean any person or persons designated by a fireman in a writing filed with the board, and who shall be entitled to receive any benefits of a deceased fireman under this

chapter.

(2) "Fireman" means any person hereafter regularly or temporarily, or as a substitute newly employed and paid as a member of a fire department, who has passed a civil service examination for fireman and who is actively employed as a fireman or, if provided by the municipality by appropriate local legislation, as a fire dispatcher: PROVIDED, Nothing in this 1969 amendatory act shall impair or permit the impairment of any vested pension rights of persons who are employed as fire dispatchers at the time this 1969 amendatory act takes effect; and any person heretofore regularly or temporarily, or as a substitute, employed and paid as a member of a fire department, and who has contributed under and been covered by the provisions of chapter 41.16 RCW as now or hereafter amended and who has come under the provisions of this chapter in accordance with RCW 41.18.170 and who is actively engaged as a fireman or as a member of the fire department as a fireman or fire dispatcher.

(3) "Retired fireman" means and includes a person employed as a fireman and retired under the provisions of this chapter.

(4) "Basic salary" means the basic monthly salary, including longevity pay, attached to the rank held by the retired fireman at the date of his retirement, without regard to extra compensation which such fireman may have received for special duties assignments not acquired through civil service examination: PROVIDED, That such basic salary shall not be deemed to exceed the salary of a battalion chief.

(5) "Widow or widower" means the surviving ((wife)) spouse of a fireman and shall include the surviving wife or husband of a fireman, retired on account of length of service, who was lawfully married to him or to her for a period of five years prior to the time of his or her retirement; and the surviving wife or husband of a fireman, retired on account of disability, who was lawfully married to him or her at and prior to the time he or she sustained the injury or contracted the illness resulting in his or her disability. The word shall not mean the divorced wife or husband of an active or retired fireman.

(6) "Child" or "children" means a fireman's child or children under the age of eighteen years, unmarried, and in the legal custody of such fireman at the time of his death or her death.

(7) "Earned interest" means and includes all annual increments to the firemen's pension fund from income earned by investment of the fund. The earned interest payable to any fireman when he leaves the service and accepts his contributions, shall be that portion of the total earned income of the fund which is directly attributable to each individual fireman's contributions. Earnings of the fund for the preceding year attributable to individual contributions shall be allocated to individual firemen's accounts as of January 1st of each year.

(8) "Board" shall mean the municipal firemen's pension board.

(9) "Contributions" shall mean and include all sums deducted from the salary of firemen and paid into the fund as hereinafter provided.

(10) "Disability" shall mean and include injuries or sickness sustained by a fireman.

(11) "Fire department" shall mean the regularly organized, full time, paid, and employed force of firemen of the municipality.

(12) "Fund" shall have the same meaning as in RCW 41.16.010 as now or hereafter amended. Such fund shall be created in the manner and be subject to the provisions specified in chapter 41.16 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

(13) "Municipality" shall mean every city, town and fire protection district having a regularly organized full time, paid, fire department employing firemen.

(14) "Performance of duty" shall mean the performance of work or labor regularly required of firemen and shall include services of an emergency nature normally rendered while off regular duty.

Sec. 70. Section 4, chapter 382, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 29, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.18.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any fireman, at the time of taking effect of this act or thereafter, shall have been appointed under civil service rules and have served for a period of twenty-five years or more as a member in any capacity of the regularly constituted fire department of any city, town or fire protection district which may be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and shall have attained the age of fifty years, he or she shall be eligible for retirement and shall be retired by the board upon his or her written request. Upon his or her retirement such fireman shall be paid a monthly pension which shall be equal to fifty percent of the basic salary now or hereafter attached to the same rank and status held by the said fireman at the date of his or her retirement: PROVIDED, That a fireman hereafter retiring who has served as a member for more than twenty-five years, shall have his pension payable under this section increased by two percent of the basic salary per year for each full year of such additional service to a maximum of five additional years.

Upon the death of any such retired fireman, his or her pension shall be paid to his widow or her widower, at the same monthly rate that the retired fireman would have received had he or she lived, if such widow or widower was his wife or her husband for a period of five years prior to the time of his or her retirement. If there be no widow or widower, then such monthly payments shall be distributed to and divided among his or her children, share and share alike, until they reach the age of eighteen or are married, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 71. Section 25, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.18.045 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the death of a fireman who is eligible to retire under RCW 41.18.040 as now or hereafter amended, but who has not retired, a pension shall be paid to his widow or her widower at the same monthly rate that he or she was eligible to receive at the time of his or her death, if such widow or widower was his wife or her husband for a period of five years prior to his or her death. If there be no widow or widower, then such monthly payments shall be distributed to and divided among his or her children, share and share alike, until they reach the age of eighteen or are married, whichever comes first.

This section shall apply retroactively for the benefit of all widows or widowers and survivors of firemen who died after January 1, 1967, if such firemen were otherwise eligible to retire on the date of death.

Any fireman who has completed his or her probationary period and has been permanently appointed, and sustains a disability not in the performance of his or her duty which renders him or her unable to continue his or her service, may request to be retired by filing a written request with his or her retirement board within sixty days from the date of his or her disability. The board may, upon such request being filed, consult such medical advice as it deems fit and proper. If the board finds the fireman capable of performing his or her duties, it may refuse to recommend retirement and order the fireman back to duty. If no request for retirement has been received after the expiration of sixty days from the date of his or her disability, the board may recommend retirement of the fireman. The board shall give the fireman a thirty day written notice of its recommendation, and he or she shall be retired upon expiration of said notice. Upon retirement he shall receive a pension equal to fifty percent of his or her basic salary. For a period of ninety days following such disability the fireman shall receive an allowance from the fund equal to his or her basic salary. He or she shall during said ninety days be provided with such medical, hospital, and nursing care as the board deems proper. No funds shall be expended for such disability if the board determines that the fireman was gainfully employed or engaged for compensation in other than fire department duty when the disability occurred, or if such disability was the result of dissipation or abuse. Whenever any fireman shall die as a result of a disability sustained not in the line of duty, his widow or her widower shall receive a monthly pension equal to one-third of his or her basic salary until remarried; if such widow or widower has dependent upon her or him for support a child or children of such deceased fireman, he or she shall receive an additional pension as follows: One child, one-eighth of the deceased's basic salary; two children, one-seventh; three or more children, one-sixth. If there be no widow or widower, monthly payments equal to one-third of the deceased fireman's basic salary shall be made to his or her child or children. The widow or widower may elect at any time in writing to receive a cash settlement, and if the board after hearing finds it financially beneficial to the pension fund, he or she may receive the sum of five thousand dollars cash in lieu of all future monthly pension payments, and other benefits, including benefits to any child and/or children.

Sec. 73. Section 8, chapter 382, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 28, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.18.100 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event a fireman is killed in the performance of duty, or in the event a fireman retired on account of service connected disability shall die from any cause, his widow or her widower shall receive a monthly pension under one of the following applicable provisions: (1) If a fireman is killed in the line of duty his widow or her widower shall receive a monthly pension equal to fifty percent of his or her basic salary at the time of his or her death; (2) if a fireman who has retired on account of a service connected disability dies, his widow or her widower shall receive a monthly pension equal to the amount of the monthly pension such retired fireman was receiving at the time of his or her death. If she or he at any time so elects in writing and the board after hearing finds it to be financially beneficial to the pension fund, he or she may receive in lieu of all future monthly pension and other benefits, including benefits to child or children, the sum of five thousand dollars in cash. If there be no widow or widower at the time of such fireman's death or upon the widow's or widower's death the monthly pension benefits hereinabove provided for shall be paid to and divided among his or her child or children share and share alike, until they reach the age of eighteen or are married, whichever occurs first. The widow's or widower's monthly pension benefit, including increased benefits to his or her children shall cease if and when he or she remarries. All pensions payable under the provisions of this section shall be subject to an annual cost of living increase which shall be equal to two percent of the pension granted the widow or widower at the time of the death of the fireman. This increase shall be effective and be paid starting with the January payment of each succeeding year.

Whenever a fireman dies as the result of injuries received, or sickness contracted in consequence or as the result of the performance of his or her duties, the board of trustees shall order and direct the payment of the sum of one thousand dollars to his widow or her widower, or if there be no widow or widower, then to his or her dependent child or children, or if there be no dependent child or children, then to his or her parents or either of them, and the sum of one hundred dollars per month to his widow or her widower during his or her life together with the additional monthly sums of twenty-five dollars for the youngest or only child and twenty dollars for each additional child of the member, unemancipated or under eighteen years of age, dependent upon the member for support at the time of his or her death, to a maximum total of two hundred dollars per month: PROVIDED, That if there is no widow or widower, or the widow or widower dies while there are children, unemancipated or under eighteen years of age, then the amount of one hundred dollars per month shall be paid for the youngest or only child together with an additional twenty dollars per month for each additional of such children to a maximum of two hundred dollars per month until they become emancipated or reach the age of eighteen years; and if there are no widow or widower, child or children entitled thereto, then to his or her parents or either of them the sum of one hundred dollars per month for life, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the board that the parents, or either of them, were dependent on the deceased for their support at the time of his or her death: PROVIDED, That if the widow or widower, child or children, or the parents, or either of them, marry while receiving such pension the person so marrying shall thereafter receive no further pension from the fund.

In the case provided for herein, the monthly payment provided may be converted in whole or in part, into a lump sum payment, not in any case to exceed eight thousand five hundred dollars, equal or proportionate, as the case may be, to the value of the annuity then remaining, to be fixed and certified by the state insurance commissioner, in which event the monthly payments shall cease in whole or in part accordingly or proportionately. Such conversion may be made either upon written application to the state board and shall rest in the discretion of the state board; or the state board is authorized to make, and authority is hereby given it to make, on its own motion, lump sum payments, equal or proportionate, as the case may be, to the value of the annuity then remaining in full satisfaction of claims due to dependents. Within the rule aforesaid the amount and value of the lump sum payment may be agreed upon between the applicant and the state board. Any person receiving a monthly payment hereunder at the time of the effective date of this act may elect, within two years, to convert such payments into a lump sum payment as herein provided.

Sec. 75. Section 18, chapter 261, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 3, chapter 57, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.24.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of trustees of any municipal corporation shall direct payment in lump sums from said fund in the following cases:

(1) To any volunteer fireman, upon attaining the age of sixty-five years, who, for any reason, is not qualified to receive the monthly retirement pension herein provided and who was enrolled in said fund and on whose behalf annual fees for retirement pension were paid, an amount equal to the amount paid by himself or herself: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this provision shall not be construed as depriving any active fireman from completing the requisite number of years of active service after attaining the age of sixty-five years as may be necessary to entitle him or her to the pension as herein provided.

(2) If any fireman dies before attaining the age at which a pension shall be payable to him or her under the provisions of this chapter, there shall be paid to his widow or her widower, or if there be no widow or widower to his or her child or children, or if there be no widow or widower or child or children then to his or her heirs at law as may be determined by the board of trustees or to his or her estate if it be administered and there be no heirs as above determined, an amount equal to the amount paid into said fund by himself or herself.

(3) If any fireman dies after beginning to receive the pension provided for in this chapter, and before receiving an amount equal to the amount paid by himself and the municipality or municipalities in whose department he or she shall have served, there shall be paid to his widow or her widower, or if there be no widow or widower then to his or her child or children, or if there be no widow or widower or child or children then to his or her heirs at law as may be determined by the board of trustees, or to his or her estate if it be administered and there be no heirs as above determined, an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid into said fund by himself or herself and the municipality or municipalities in whose department he or she shall have served and the amount received by him or her as a pensioner.

(4) If any volunteer fireman retires from the fire service before attaining the age of sixty-five years, he or she may make application for the return of the amount paid into said fund by himself or herself.

Sec. 76. Section 52, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 7, chapter 50, Laws of 1967 and RCW 41.32.520 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of proper proofs of death of any member before retirement or before the first installment of his retirement allowance shall become due his accumulated contributions and/or other benefits payable upon his death shall be paid to his estate or to such persons as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the board of trustees. If a member fails to file a new beneficiary designation subsequent to marriage, divorce, or reestablishment of membership following termination by withdrawal, lapsation or retirement, payment of his accumulated contributions and/or other benefits upon death before retirement shall be made to the surviving spouse, if any; otherwise, to his estate. If a member had established five or more years of Washington membership service credit, the beneficiary or the surviving spouse if otherwise eligible may elect, in lieu of a cash refund of the member's accumulated contributions, the following survivor benefit plan:

(1) A widow or ((dependent)) widower, without a child or children under eighteen years of age, may elect a monthly payment of fifty dollars to become effective at age fifty, provided the member had fifteen or more years of Washington membership service credit.

(2) If the member was eligible for retirement the beneficiary, if the surviving spouse or a dependent, may elect to receive a retirement allowance under Option 2. This election shall also be available to the spouse or a dependent of a member who has died while eligible for retirement during the period July 1, 1947, to June 30, 1955, inclusive, upon the repayment to the teachers' retirement fund of the refunded contributions. No benefits may be paid for any months prior to July 1, 1955.

If no qualified beneficiary survives a member, at his death his accumulated contributions shall be paid to his estate, or his dependents may qualify for survivor benefits under benefit plan (2) in lieu of a cash refund of the members accumulated contributions in the following order: Widow or ((dependent)) widower, guardian of a dependent child or children under age eighteen, or dependent parent or parents.

Under survivors' benefit plan (1) the board of trustees shall transfer to the survivors' benefit fund the accumulated contributions of the deceased member together with an amount from the pension fund determined by actuarial tables to be sufficient to fully fund the liability. Benefits shall be paid from the survivors' benefit fund monthly and terminated at the marriage of the beneficiary.

The terms and provisions of the plan are as follows:

(1) Each political subdivision of the state employing members of the teachers' retirement system and the members of the teachers' retirement system, after the approval of this plan by the legislature, and by the eligible employees through a referendum as provided in RCW 41.48.030 (3) and (4), shall be deemed to have accepted and agreed to be bound by the following terms and conditions in consideration of extension of the existing agreement between the secretary of health, education and welfare and the governor to make the protection of the federal old age and survivors insurance program available and applicable to such employees.

(2) As used in this plan the terms quoted below shall have the meanings assigned thereto in this section.

"Political subdivision" means any political subdivision, or instrumentality of one or more subdivisions, or proprietary enterprise acquired, purchased or originated by one or more such subdivisions after December, 1950, which employs members of the teachers' retirement system. The state, its agencies, instrumentalities and institutions of higher learning shall be grouped and considered as a single political subdivision.

"Employee" means any person who is a member of the teachers' retirement system and is employed by a political subdivision.

"Wages" shall have the meaning given in RCW 41.48.020 (1) and section 209 of the social security act (42 U.S.C.A. Sec. 409).

"State" where not otherwise clearly indicated by the context, means the commissioner of employment security or other officer designated by the governor to administer the plan at the state level for all participating political subdivisions.

(3) The terms and conditions of this plan are intended and shall be construed to be in conformity with the requirements of the federal social security act as amended and with the requirements of chapter 41.48 RCW, and particularly RCW 41.48.050, as amended by chapter 4, Laws of 1955 extraordinary session.

(4) The rights and benefits accruing to employees from membership in the teachers' retirement system shall in no way be altered or impaired by this plan or by the additional and supplementary OASI coverage which such employees may receive hereunder, other than the elimination of (1), (2) and (3) of section 52, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 and RCW 41.32.520 as each are amended, with the exception of that part of (1) which permits a widow or ((dependent)) widower without a child or children under age eighteen to receive a monthly payment of fifty dollars at age fifty, provided that the member had fifteen or more years of Washington membership service credit at date of death.

(5) There shall be no additional cost to or involvement of the state or a political subdivision with respect to OASI coverage of members of the teachers' retirement system until this plan has been approved by the legislature.

(6) Each employee to whom OASI coverage is made applicable under this plan pursuant to an extension or modification under RCW 41.48.030 of the existing agreement between the secretary of health, education and welfare and the governor shall be required to pay into the OASI contribution fund established by RCW 41.48.060 during the period of such coverage contributions with respect to his wages in an amount equal to the employee tax imposed by the federal insurance contributions act (section 3101, Internal Revenue Code of 1954), in consideration of the employee's retention in service by the political subdivision. The subdivision shall withhold such contributions from the wages paid to the employee; and shall remit the contributions so withheld in each calendar quarter to the state for deposit in the contribution fund not later than the twentieth calendar day of the month following that quarter.

(7) Each political subdivision shall pay into the contribution fund with respect to the wages of its employees during the period of their OASI coverage pursuant to this plan contributions in an amount equal to the employer tax imposed by the federal insurance contributions act (section 3111, Internal Revenue Code of 1954), from the fund of the subdivision from which such employees' wages are paid. The subdivision shall remit such contributions to the state for deposit in the contribution fund on a quarterly basis, not later than the twentieth calendar day of the month following each calendar quarter.

(8) If any political subdivision other than that comprising the state, its agencies, instrumentalities and institutions of higher learning fails to remit as provided herein employer contributions or employee contributions, or any part of either, such delinquent contributions may be recovered with interest at the rate of six percent per annum by action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the political subdivision; or such delinquent contributions may at the request of the governor be deducted from any moneys payable to such subdivision by the state.

(9) Each political subdivision shall be charged with a share of the cost of administration of this plan by the state, to be computed as that proportion of the overall cost of administration which its total annual contributions bear to the total annual contributions paid by all subdivisions on behalf of employees covered by the plan. The state shall compute the share of cost allocable to each subdivision and bill the subdivision therefor at the end of each fiscal year. The subdivision shall within ninety days thereafter remit its share of the cost to the state for deposit in the general fund of the state.

(10) Each political subdivision shall submit to the state, through the employment security department, P. O. Box 367, Olympia, Washington, or such other officer or agency as the governor may subsequently designate, on forms furnished by the state, not later than the twentieth calendar day of the month following the end of each calendar quarter, the following information:

- A. The social security account number of each employee;
- B. the name of each employee;
- C. the amount of wages subject to contributions as required hereunder paid to each employee during the quarter;
- D. the total amount of wages subject to contributions paid to all employees during the quarter;
- E. the total amount of employee contributions withheld and remitted for the quarter; and
- F. the total amount of employer contributions paid by the subdivision for the quarter.

(11) Each political subdivision shall furnish in the same manner as provided in subsection (10), upon reasonable notice, such other and further reports or information as the governor may from time to time require. Each subdivision shall comply with such requirements as the secretary of health, education and welfare or the governor may from time to time establish with respect to any or all of the reports or information which are or may be provided for under subsection (10) or this subsection in order to assure the correctness and verification thereof.

(12) The governing body of each political subdivision shall designate an officer of the subdivision to administer such accounting, reporting and other functions as will be required for the effective operation of this plan within the subdivision, as provided herein. The commissioner of employment security or such other officer as the governor may designate, shall perform or supervise those functions with respect to employees of the subdivision comprising the state, its agencies, instrumentalities and institutions of higher learning; and shall serve as the representative of the participating political subdivisions in the administration of this plan with the secretary of health, education and welfare.

(13) The legislature shall designate the first day of any month beginning with January, 1956, as the effective date of OASI coverage for such employees, except that after January 1, 1958, the effective date may not be prior to the first day of the current year.

The employer's contribution for any retroactive coverage shall be transferred by the board of trustees from the teachers' retirement pension reserve fund to the official designated by the governor to administer the plan at the state level.

Each employee's contributions for any retroactive coverage shall be transferred by the board of trustees from his accumulated contributions in the teachers' retirement fund, to the official designated above. Each employee, if he so desires, may, within one year from the date of transfer, reimburse his accumulated contributions for the amount so transferred.

(14) The governor may terminate the operation of this plan in its entirety with respect to any political subdivision, in his discretion, if he finds that the subdivision has failed to comply substantially with any requirement or provision of this plan. The plan shall not be so terminated until reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing thereon have been given to the subdivision under such conditions, consistent with the provisions of the social security act, as shall have been established in regulations by the governor.

Sec. 78. Section 17, chapter 71, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 7, chapter 99, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 41.44.170 are each amended to read as follows:

On retirement for permanent and total disability not incurred in line of duty a member shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(1) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated normal contributions; and

(2) A pension provided by the contributions of the city which, together with his annuity provided by his accumulated normal contributions, shall make his retirement allowance equal to thirty percent of his final compensation for the first ten years of service, which allowance shall be increased by one and one-half percent for each year of service in excess of ten years to a maximum of fifty percent of his final compensation; otherwise he shall receive a retirement allowance of forty dollars per month or, except as to a part time employee, such sum, monthly, not in excess of sixty dollars per month, as is equal to six dollars per month for each year of his creditable service, whichever is greater. If the retirement allowance of a part time employee, based upon the pension hereinabove provided, does not exceed forty dollars per month, then such part time employee shall receive a retirement allowance of forty dollars per month and no more.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed in a manner to increase or to decrease any pension being paid or to be paid to a member retired prior to August 6, 1965.

(3) If it appears to the satisfaction of the board that permanent and total disability was incurred in line of duty, a member shall receive in lieu of the retirement allowance provided under subdivisions (1) and (2) of this section full pay from, and be furnished all hospital and medical care by, the city for a period of six months from the date of his disability, and commencing at the expiration of such six month period, shall receive a retirement allowance, regardless of his age or years of service, equal to fifty percent of his final compensation exclusive of any other benefit he may receive.

(4) No disability retirement allowance shall exceed seventy-five percent of final compensation, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, except as provided in subdivision (7) of this section.

(5) Upon the death of a member while in receipt of a disability retirement allowance, his accumulated contributions, as they were at the date of his retirement, less any annuity payments made to him, shall be paid to his estate, or to such persons having an insurable interest in his life as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the board. In the alternative, if there be a surviving ((widow)) spouse, or if no surviving ((widow)) spouse, there are surviving a child or children under the age of eighteen years, upon written notice to the board by such ((widow)) spouse, or if there be no such ((widow)) spouse, by the duly appointed, qualified and acting guardian of such child or children, within sixty days of the date of such member's death, there shall be paid to such ((widow)) spouse during his or her lifetime, or, if there be no such ((widow)) spouse, to such child or children, until they shall reach the age of eighteen years, a monthly pension equal to one-half of the monthly final compensation of such deceased member. If any such ((widow)) spouse or child or children shall marry, then such person so marrying shall thereafter receive no further pension herein provided.

(6) If disability is due to intemperance, wilful misconduct, or violation of law, on the part of the member, the board, in its discretion, may pay to said member, in one lump sum his accumulated contribution, in lieu of a retirement allowance, and such payment shall constitute full satisfaction of all obligations of the city to such member.

(7) In addition to the annuity and pension provided for in subdivisions (1) and (2) of this section, a member shall receive an annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated additional contributions.

Sec. 79. Section 21, chapter 71, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 10, chapter 227, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.44.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the death of any member who dies from injuries or disease arising out of or incurred in the performance of his duty or duties, of which the board of trustees shall be the judge, if death occurs within one year from date of discontinuance of city service caused by such injury, there shall be paid to his estate or to such person or persons having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the board, the sum of one thousand dollars, purchased by the contributions of the cities participating in the retirement system; and in addition thereto there shall be paid to ~~((his widow))~~ the surviving spouse during ~~((her))~~ such spouse's lifetime, or if there be no ~~((widow))~~ surviving spouse, then to his minor child or children until they shall have reached the age of eighteen years, a monthly pension equal to one-half the monthly final compensation of such deceased member. If any such ~~((widow))~~ spouse, or child or children shall marry, then such person so marrying shall thereafter receive no further pension herein provided. Cost of the lump sum benefit above provided shall be determined by actuarial calculation and prorated equitably to each city. The benefits provided in this section shall be exclusive of any other benefits due the member under this chapter.

Applications to the board for examination for chief mine inspector and deputy mine inspector shall be made in writing, accompanied by an affidavit showing that the applicant is a citizen of the United States and of the state, and that ~~((he))~~ the applicant has attained the age of thirty years; has had at least five years' practical experience in and about the mines in the United States, and at least three years' practical experience in and about the mines in the state, and that ~~((he))~~ the applicant has a certificate of competency in mine rescue and first aid work from the United States bureau of mines. ~~((He))~~ The applicant shall also furnish an affidavit from two citizens of the state that ~~((he is a man))~~ the applicant is a person of good repute, temperate habits, in good physical condition, and above thirty years of age.

At such times as may be appointed by the director of labor and industries, the state mining board shall conduct examinations at the state capital. Each examination shall be thoroughly advertised by sending notices to the management of each coal mine, to be posted at the mine at least thirty days before such examination.

The director of labor and industries shall appoint as chief state mine inspector a ~~((man))~~ person who has been given a certificate of competency by the state mining board, or who has otherwise qualified for the position, under the provisions of this act [1917 c 36; 1927 c 306]. The chief state mine inspector shall hold his office for four years, and be at all times subject to removal from office by the director of labor and industries for neglect of duty or for malfeasance in the discharge of his duties.

The chief state mine inspector with the approval of the director of labor and industries shall appoint as deputy state mine inspectors ((men)) persons who are citizens of the United States and of the state of Washington, and who have had five years' practical experience in and about the mines of the United States and three years' practical experience in and about the mines in the state of Washington, and that have mine inspector's certificates of competency given by the board of examiners, or the state mining board after an examination as provided for in this act [1917 c 36; 1927 c 306]. Each deputy state mine inspector shall hold office subject to removal by the chief state mine inspector for cause.

Nothing in this act [1917 c 36; 1927 c 306] shall be construed as preventing the reappointment of any mine inspector or of any deputy mine inspector who has qualified for these positions under the provisions of this act [1917 c 36; 1927 c 306].

The director of labor and industries shall appoint and depute an assistant director, to be known as the supervisor of industrial relations, who shall be the state mediator, and have charge and supervision of the division of industrial relations.

With the approval of the director, he may appoint an assistant to be known as the industrial statistician, ((and a female assistant to be known as the supervisor of women in industry)) and may appoint and employ such assistant mediators, experts, clerks, and other assistants as may be necessary to carry on the work of the division.

The director of labor and industries shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, through and by means of the division of industrial relations:

(1) To promote mediation in, conciliation concerning, and the adjustment of, industrial disputes, in such manner and by such means as may be provided by law;

(2) To study and keep in touch with problems of industrial relations and, from time to time, make public reports and recommendations to the legislature;

(3) To, with the assistance of the industrial statistician, exercise all the powers and perform all the duties in relation to collecting, assorting, and systematizing statistical details relating to labor within the state, now vested in, and required to be performed by, the secretary of state, and to report to, and file with, the secretary of state duly certified copies of the statistical information collected, assorted, systematized, and compiled, and in collecting, assorting, and systematizing such statistical information to, as far as possible, conform to the plans and reports of the United States department of labor;

(4) To, with the assistance of the industrial statistician, make such special investigations and collect such special statistical information as may be needed for use by the department or division of the state government having need of industrial statistics;

(5) To ~~((7 with the assistance of the supervisor of women in industry))~~ supervise the administration and enforcement of all laws respecting the employment and relating to the health, sanitary conditions, surroundings, hours of labor, and wages of ~~((women and))~~ minors;

(6) To exercise all the powers and perform all the duties, not specifically assigned to any other division of the department of labor and industries, now vested in, and required to be performed by, the commissioner of labor;

(7) To exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be provided by law.

The director of labor and industries, the supervisor of industrial insurance, the supervisor of industrial relations, and the industrial statistician~~((7 and the supervisor of women in industry))~~ shall constitute the industrial welfare committee, of which the director shall be chairman, and the supervisor of women in industry shall be executive secretary, which shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as are prescribed by law.

The commission may, by agreement with an individual or company enroll and supervise additional young ~~((men))~~ persons, who shall be furnished compensation, subsistence, quarters, supplies and materials by the cooperating private company or individual, to develop, maintain or improve natural and artificial recreational areas for the health and happiness of the general public. The corps shall not be engaged in the development, improvement or maintenance of a commercial recreational area or resort, and the individual or corporation entering such agreement with the commission shall make such improved areas available to the general public without cost for a period of at least forty years. Private individuals may reserve the right to close the area during periods of fire hazard or during periods when excess damage would be caused by public use.

All contracts for such work to be done outside the state shall require that it be executed under conditions of employment which shall substantially conform to the laws of this state respecting hours of labor, the minimum wage scale ((for women and minors)), and the rules and regulations of the industrial welfare committee regarding conditions of employment, hours of labor, and minimum wages, and shall be favorably comparable to the labor standards and practices of the lowest competent bidder within the state, and the violation of any such provision of any contract shall be ground for cancellation thereof.

Sec. 87. Section 46.20.100, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 71, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of motor vehicles shall not consider the application of any minor under the age of eighteen years for a driver's license unless:

(1) The application is also signed by the father or mother of the applicant ((if the father is living and has custody of the applicant)), otherwise by the ((mother)) parent or guardian having the custody of such minor, or in the event a minor under the age of eighteen has no father, mother, or guardian, then a driver's license shall not be issued to the minor unless his application is also signed by his employer; and

(2) The minor has satisfactorily completed a traffic safety education course as defined in RCW 46.81.010, conducted by a recognized secondary school, that meets the standards established by the office of the state superintendent of public instruction or the minor has satisfactorily completed a traffic safety education course, conducted by a commercial driving instruction enterprise, that meets the standards established by the office of the superintendent of public instruction and is officially approved by that office on an annual basis: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the director may upon a showing that an individual was unable to take or complete a driver education course waive said requirement if the minor shows to the satisfaction of the department that a need exists for him to operate a motor vehicle and he has the ability to operate a motor vehicle in such a manner as not to jeopardize the safety of persons or property, under rules to be promulgated by the department in concert with the supervisor of the traffic safety education section, office of the superintendent of public instruction.

Sec. 88. Section 29, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 167, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.20.322 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the department proposes to suspend or revoke the driving privilege of any person or proposes to impose terms of probation on his driving privilege or proposes to refuse to renew a driver's license, notice and an opportunity for a driver improvement interview shall be given before taking such action, except as provided in RCW 46.20.324 and 46.20.325.

(2) Whenever the department proposes to suspend, revoke, restrict or condition a juvenile driver's driving privilege the department may require the appearance of the juvenile's legal guardian or father ((if the father is living and has custody)) or mother, otherwise the ((mother)) parent or guardian having custody of the minor.

Sec. 89. Section 1, chapter 194, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 1, chapter 144, Laws of 1965 and RCW 49.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person, firm or corporation constructing, building or operating a tunnel, quarry, caisson or subway, excepting in connection with mines, with or without compressed air, shall in the employment of any labor comply with the following safety provisions:

(1) A safety miner shall be selected by the crew on each shift who shall check the conditions necessary to make the working place safe; such as loose rock, faulty timbers, poor rails, lights, ladders, scaffolds, fan pipes and firing lines.

(2) Ventilating fans shall be installed from twenty-five to one hundred feet outside the portal.

(3) No employee shall be allowed to "bar down" without the assistance of another employee.

(4) No employee shall be permitted to return to the heading until at least thirty minutes after blasting.

(5) Whenever persons are employed in wet places, the employer shall furnish such persons with rubbers, boots, coats and hats. All boots if worn previously by an employee shall be sterilized before being furnished to another: PROVIDED, That RCW 49.24.080 through 49.24.380 shall not apply to the operation of a railroad except that new construction of tunnels, caissons or subways in connection therewith shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 49.24.080 through 49.24.380: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That in the event of repair work being done in a railroad tunnel, no ((men)) person shall be compelled to perform labor until the air has been cleared of smoke, gas and fumes.

Sec. 90. Section 4, chapter 194, Laws of 1941 and RCW 49.24.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Exhaust valves shall be provided, having risers extending to the upper part of chamber, if necessary, and shall be operated at such times as may be required and especially after a blast, and ((men)) persons shall not be required to resume work after a blast until the gas and smoke have cleared, for at least thirty minutes.

"Beneficiary" means a husband, wife, child, or dependent of a workman in whom shall vest a right to receive payment under this title: PROVIDED, That a husband or wife of an injured workman, living separate and apart in a state of abandonment, regardless of the party responsible therefor, for more than one year at the time of the injury or subsequently, shall not be a beneficiary. A ((wife)) spouse who has lived separate and apart from ((her husband)) the other spouse for the period of two years and who has not, during that time, received, or attempted by process of law to collect, funds for ((her)) maintenance, shall be deemed living in a state of abandonment.

Inasmuch as it has proved impossible in the case of employees of common carriers by railroad, engaged in maintenance and operation of railways doing interstate, foreign and intrastate commerce, and in maintenance and construction of their equipment, to separate and distinguish the connection of such employees with interstate or foreign commerce from their connection with intrastate commerce, and such employees have, in fact, received no compensation under this title, the provisions of this title shall not apply to work performed by such employees in the maintenance and operation of such railroads or performed in the maintenance or construction of their equipment, or to the employees of such common carriers by railroad engaged therein, but nothing herein shall be construed as excluding from the operation of this title railroad construction work, or the employees engaged thereon: PROVIDED, That common carriers by railroad engaged in such interstate or foreign commerce and in intrastate commerce shall, in all cases where liability does not exist under the laws of the United States, be liable in damages to any person suffering injury while employed by such carrier, or in case of the death of such employee, to ((his)) the surviving ((wife)) spouse and child, or children, and if no surviving ((wife)) spouse or child or children, then to the parents, minor sisters, or minor brothers, residents of the United States at the time of such death, and who were dependent upon such deceased for support, to the same extent and subject to the same limitations as the liability now existing, or hereafter created, by the laws of the United States governing recoveries by railroad employees injured while engaged in interstate commerce: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any interstate common carrier by railroad shall also be engaged in one or more intrastate enterprises or industries (including street railways and power plants) other than its railroad, the foregoing provisions of this section shall not exclude from the operation of the other sections of this title or bring under the foregoing proviso of this section any work of such other enterprise or industry, the payroll of which may be clearly separable and distinguishable from the payroll of the maintenance or operation of such railroad, or of the maintenance or construction of its equipment: PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving an independent contractor engaged through or by his employees in performing work for a common carrier by railroad, from the duty of complying with the terms of this title, nor as depriving any employee of such independent contractor of the benefits of this title.

Sec. 93. Section 51.24.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 37, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

If the injury to a workman is due to negligence or wrong of another not in the same employ, the injured workman or, if death results from the injury, ((his widow)) the surviving spouse, children, or dependents, as the case may be, shall elect whether to take under this title or seek a remedy against such other, such election to be in advance of any suit under this section and, if he takes under this title, the cause of action against such other shall be assigned to the department or self-insurer; if the other choice is made, the department or self-insurer shall contribute only the deficiency, if any, between the amount of recovery against such third person actually collected and the compensation provided or estimated by this title for such case: PROVIDED, That the injured workman or if death results from ((his)) the injury, ((his widow)) the surviving spouse, children or dependents as the case may be, electing to seek a remedy against such other person, shall receive benefits payable under this title as if such election had not been made, and the department or self-insurer to the extent of such payments having been made by the department or self-insurer to the injured workman or if death results from ((his)) the injury, ((his widow)) the surviving spouse, children or dependents as the case may be shall be subrogated to the rights of such person or persons against the recovery had from such third party and shall have a lien thereupon. Any such cause of action assigned to the department or self-insurer may be prosecuted or compromised by the department or self-insurer in its discretion in the name of the workman, beneficiaries, or legal representative. Any compromise by the workman of any such suit, which would leave a deficiency to be made good by the department or self-insurer may be made only with the written approval of the department or self-insurer. If such approval is not obtained, claim for the deficiency will be deemed to have been waived.

Any third party action brought under this title by such workman or beneficiary must be duly prosecuted; if the action is not filed or settled within one year of the notice of election, the cause of action shall be deemed assigned to the department or self-insurer if after thirty days notice the action is neither filed nor settled. If a cause of action which has been filed is not diligently prosecuted, the department or self-insurer shall have the right to petition the court in which the action is pending for an order assigning the cause of action to the department or self-insurer. Upon sufficient showing in the court's discretion of a lack of diligent prosecution, such an order shall issue.

In any action brought under this section wherein recovery is made by compromise and settlement or otherwise, the department or self-insurer, to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title, shall bear its proportionate share of attorney's fees and costs incurred by the injured workman or ((his widow)) surviving spouse, children, or dependents, as the case may be, and the court shall approve the amount of attorney's fees.

If injury or death results to a workman from the deliberate intention of his employer to produce such injury or death, the workman, ((the widow, widower)) surviving spouse, child, or dependent of the workman shall have the privilege to take under this title and also have cause of action against the employer as if this title had not been enacted, for any excess of damages over the amount received or receivable under this title.

No money paid or payable under this title shall, except as provided for in RCW 74.20A.090 and 74.20A.100, prior to the issuance and delivery of the check or warrant therefor, be capable of being assigned, charged, or ever be taken in execution or attached or garnished, nor shall the same pass, or be paid, to any other person by operation of law, or by any form of voluntary assignment, or power of attorney. Any such assignment or charge shall be void: PROVIDED, That if any workman suffers a permanent partial injury, and dies from some other cause than the accident which produced such injury before he shall have received payment of his award for such permanent partial injury, or if any workman suffers any other injury before he shall have received payment of any monthly installment covering any period of time prior to his death, the amount of such permanent partial award, or of such monthly payment or both, shall be paid to ((his widow, if he leaves a widow, or to his child or children and does not leave a widow)) there is no surviving spouse: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, if any workman suffers an injury and dies therefrom before he shall have received payment of any monthly installment covering time loss for any period of time prior to his death, the amount of such monthly payment shall be paid to ((his widow, if he leaves a widow)) the surviving spouse, or to ((his)) the child or children if ((he leaves a child or children and does not leave a widow)) there is no surviving spouse: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any application for compensation under the foregoing provisos of this section shall be filed with the department or self-insuring employer within one year of the date of death: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the injured workman resided in the United States as long as three years prior to the date of injury, such payment shall not be made to any ((widow)) surviving spouse or child who was at the time of the injury a nonresident of the United States: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any workman receiving benefits under this title who is subsequently confined in, or who subsequently becomes eligible therefor while confined in any institution under conviction and sentence shall have all payments of such compensation canceled during the period of confinement but after discharge from the institution payment of benefits thereafter due shall be paid if such workman would, but for the provisions of this proviso, otherwise be entitled thereto: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such incarcerated workman has during such confinement period, any beneficiaries, they shall be paid directly the monthly benefits which would have been paid to him for himself and his beneficiaries had he not been so confined. Any lump sum benefits to which the workman would otherwise be entitled but for the provisions of this proviso shall be paid on a monthly basis to his beneficiaries.

Sec. 96. Section 51.32.050, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 19, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Where death results from the injury the expenses of burial not to exceed eight hundred dollars shall be paid.

(2) A ((widow or invalid widower)) surviving spouse of a deceased workman shall receive monthly throughout his or her life the following sums: (a) If there are no children of the deceased workman, sixty percent of the wages of the deceased workman but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars. (b) If there is one child of the deceased workman, sixty-two percent of the wages of the deceased workman but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars. (c) If there are two children of the deceased workman, sixty-four percent of the wages of the deceased workman but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars. (d) If there are three children of the deceased workman, sixty-six percent of the wages of the deceased workman but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars. (e) If there are four children of the deceased workman, sixty-eight percent of the wages of the deceased workman but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars. (f) If there are five or more children of the deceased workman, seventy percent of the wages of the deceased workman but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars.

Payments to the surviving spouse of the deceased workman shall cease at the end of the month in which remarriage occurs: PROVIDED, That the portion of the monthly payment made for the benefit of the children shall not be affected by such remarriage. In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this subsection exceed seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under RCW 51.08.018.

In addition to the monthly payments above provided for, a surviving ((widow, or invalid widower)) spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving ((widow or invalid widower)) spouse of any such deceased workman shall be forthwith paid the sum of eight hundred dollars.

Upon remarriage ((of a widow she)) the surviving spouse shall receive, once and for all, a lump sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of ((her)) the pension, whichever is the lesser, and the monthly payments to such ((widow)) surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month in which remarriage occurs, but the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as before.

(3) If there is a child or children and no ((widow or widower)) surviving spouse of the deceased workman, a sum equal to thirty-five percent of the average monthly wage of the deceased workman shall be paid monthly for one child and a sum equivalent to fifteen percent of such wage shall be paid monthly for each additional child, the total of such sum to be divided among such children, share and share alike: PROVIDED, That benefits under this subsection or subsection (4) shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the monthly wages of the deceased workman at the time of his death or seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums.

(4) In the event a surviving spouse receiving monthly payments dies, leaving a child or children, each shall receive the same payment as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) If the workman leaves no ((widow, widower)) surviving spouse or child, but leaves a dependent or dependents, a monthly payment shall be made to each dependent equal to fifty percent of the average monthly support actually received by such dependent from the workman during the twelve months next preceding the occurrence of the injury, but the total payment to all dependents in any case shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the monthly wages of the deceased workman at the time of ((his) the death or seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums. If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury; the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-one while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) If the injured workman dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a ((widow, invalid widower)) surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving ((widow or invalid widower)) spouse shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (5) of this section. Upon remarriage the payments on account of the child or children shall continue as before to such child or children.

Sec. 97. Section 51.32.070, chapter 23, Laws of 1961, as last amended by section 9, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, every ((widow or invalid widower)) surviving spouse receiving a pension under this title shall, after July 1, 1971, be paid one hundred eighty-five dollars per month, and every permanently totally disabled workman or temporarily totally disabled workman receiving a pension or compensation for temporary total disability under this title shall, after such date, be paid one hundred eighty-five dollars per month, and one hundred fifteen dollars per month additional in cases requiring the services of an attendant, if unmarried at the time ((his) the injury occurred; two hundred fifteen dollars per month, and one hundred fifteen dollars per month additional in cases requiring the services of an attendant, if ((he or she)) the totally disabled workman has an ((wife or)) invalid ((husband)) spouse; and one hundred seventy-five dollars per month, in addition to any amount now or hereafter allowed in cases requiring the services of an attendant, if ((the husband is not)) neither spouse is an invalid and the husband and wife are living together as such.

No part of such additional payments shall be payable from the accident fund ((or be charged against any class under the industrial insurance law)).

The director shall pay monthly to every such ((widow, invalid widower) surviving spouse, and totally disabled workman from the supplemental pension fund such an amount as will, when added to the pensions or temporary total disability compensation they are presently receiving, exclusive of amounts received for children or dependents or attendants, equal the amounts hereinabove specified.

In cases where money has been or shall be advanced to any such person from the pension reserve, the additional amount to be paid to him or her under this section shall be reduced by the amount of monthly pension which was or is predicated upon such advanced portion of the pension reserve.

In pension cases when a workman or beneficiary closes his claim by full conversion to a lump sum or in any other manner as provided in RCW 51.32.130 and 51.32.150, such action shall be conclusive and effective to bar any subsequent application or claim relative thereto by the workman or any beneficiary which would otherwise exist had such person not elected to close the claim: PROVIDED, The director may require the ((wife)) spouse of such workman to consent in writing as a prerequisite to conversion and/or the closing of such claim.

Sec. 99. Section 1, chapter 137, Laws of 1957 and RCW 54.36.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

"Public utility district" means public utility district or districts or a joint operating agency or agencies.

"Construction project" means the construction of hydroelectric generating facilities by a public utility district. It includes the relocation of highways and railroads, by whomever done, to the extent that it is occasioned by the overflowing of their former locations, or by destruction or burying incident to the construction.

"Base-year enrollment" means the number of pupils enrolled in a school district on the first of May next preceding the date construction was commenced.

"Subsequent-year enrollment" means the number of pupils enrolled in a school district on any first of May after construction was commenced.

"Construction pupils" means pupils ((whose fathers are)) who have a parent who is a full-time employee((s)) on the construction project and who moved into the school district subsequent to the first day of May next preceding the day the construction was commenced.

"Nonconstruction pupils" means other pupils.

Sec. 100. Section 4, page 26, Code 1881, Bagley's Supp. as last amended by section 1, page 124, Laws of 1875 and RCW 67.14.040

are each amended to read as follows:

((Said county commissioners)) The legislative authorities of each county, in their respective counties, shall have the power to grant license to persons to keep drinking houses or saloons therein, at which spirituous, malt, or fermented liquors and wines may be sold ((finj)) in less quantities than one gallon; and such license shall be called a retail license upon the payment, by the person applying for such license, of the sum of three hundred dollars a year into the county treasury, and the execution of a good and sufficient bond, executed to such county in the sum of one thousand dollars, to be approved by such ((county commissioners)) legislative authority or the county auditor of the county in which such license is granted, conditioned that he will keep such drinking saloon or house in a quiet, peaceable, and orderly manner: PROVIDED, The foregoing shall not be so construed as to prevent the ((county commissioners)) legislative authority of any county from granting licenses to drinking saloons or houses therein, when there is but little business doing, for less than three hundred dollars, but in no case for less than one hundred dollars per annum: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That such license shall be used only in the precinct to which it shall be granted; PROVIDED FURTHER, that no license shall be used in more than one place at the same time. AND FURTHER PROVIDED, That no license shall be granted to any person to retail spirituous liquors until he shall furnish to the ((county commissioners)) legislative authority satisfactory proof that he is a ((man)) person of good moral character.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Mental deficiency" is a state of subnormal development of the human organism in consequence of which the individual affected is mentally incapable of assuming those responsibilities expected of the socially adequate person such as self-direction, self-support and social participation.

(2) "Physical deficiency" is a state of physical impairment of the human organism in consequence of which the individual affected is physically incapable of assuming those responsibilities expected of the socially adequate person such as self-direction, self-support and social participation.

(3) "Parent" is the person or persons having the legal right to custody of a child by reason of kinship by birth or adoption.

(4) "State school" shall mean any residential school of the department established, operated and maintained by the state of Washington for the education, guidance, care, treatment and rehabilitation of mentally and/or physically deficient persons as defined herein.

(5) "Resident of a state school" shall mean a person, whose mental and/or physical involvement requires the specialized care, treatment and educational instruction therein provided, and who has been admitted upon parental or guardian's application, or found in need of residential care by proper court and duly received.

(6) "Court" shall mean the superior court of the state of Washington.

(7) "Division" shall mean the division of children and youth services of the department of institutions or its successor.

(8) "Resident of the state of Washington" shall mean a person who has acquired his domicile in this state by continuously residing within the state for a period of not less than one year before application for admission is made: PROVIDED, That the residence of an unemancipated minor shall be imputed from the residence of the ((father)) the parents if they are living together, or from the residence of the parent with whom the child resides, ((if such minor is a legitimate child, otherwise from the residence of the mother)) and if the parental rights and responsibilities regarding a minor have been transferred by the court, then the residence of such minor shall be imputed from the person to whom such have been awarded.

(9) "Superintendent" shall mean the superintendent of Lakeland Village, Rainier school and other like residential schools that may be hereafter established.

(10) "Custody" shall mean the right of immediate physical attendance, retention and supervision.

(11) "Placement" shall mean an extramural status for the resident's best interests granted by the superintendent after reasonable notice and consultation with the parents or guardian of such resident.

(12) "Discharge" shall mean the relinquishment by a state school of all rights and responsibilities it may have acquired by reason of the acceptance for admission of any resident.

Sec. 102. Section 72.36.040, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 1, chapter 235, Laws of 1959 and RCW 72.36.040 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established what shall be known as the "Colony of the State Soldiers' Home." All of the following persons who reside within the limits of Orting precinct and have been actual bona fide citizens of this state for a period of three years at the time of their application and who have personal property of less than one thousand dollars and/or a monthly income insufficient to meet their needs as determined by the standards of the county welfare department, may be admitted to membership in said colony under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the department.

(1) All honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, who have served the United States government in any of its wars, and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, and their ((wives)) spouses, who were married and living with their ((wives)) spouses for five years prior to application to membership in said colony or who, since said date, have married widows of soldiers or widowers of soldiers who were members of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto at the time of death: PROVIDED, That such soldiers, sailors, and marines and members of the state militia shall, while they are members of said colony, be living with their said ((wives)) spouses.

(2) The ((widows)) spouses of all soldiers who were members of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto at the time of death, and the ((widows)) spouses of all soldiers who would have been entitled to admission to a soldiers' home or colony in this state at the time of death but for the fact that they were not indigent and unable to support themselves and families, which ((widows)) spouses have since the death of their said husbands or wives become indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves: PROVIDED, That such ((widows)) spouses are not less than fifty years of age and have not been married since the decease of their said husbands or wives to any person not a member of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto. Any resident of said colony may be admitted to the hospital at the state soldiers' home for temporary care when requiring hospital treatment.

Sec. 103. Section 72.36.050, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 1, chapter 112, Laws of 1967 and RCW 72.36.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The members of the colony established in RCW 72.36.040 as now or hereafter amended shall, to all intents and purposes, be members of the state soldiers' home and subject to all the rules and regulations thereof, except the requirements of fatigue duty, and each member shall, in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the director, be supplied with medical attendance and supplies from the home dispensary and rations not exceeding thirty dollars per month in value, and clothing not exceeding sixty dollars per year in value for a member and ((his wife)) spouse, and thirty-five dollars per year in value for a ((widow)) spouse admitted under RCW 72.36.040 as now or hereafter amended.

All of the following persons who have been actual bona fide residents of this state for a period of three years at the time of their application and who are indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves and families may be admitted to the Washington veterans' home under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the director:

(1) All honorably discharged veterans of the armed forces of the United States who have served the United States in any of its wars, and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, and the spouses of such veterans, and members of the state militia: PROVIDED, That such spouse was married to and living with such veteran on or before three years prior to the date of application for admittance, or, if married to him or her since that date, was also a member of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto.

(2) The ((widows)) spouses of all soldiers, sailors, and marines and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, who were members of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto at the time of death, and ((widows)) spouses of all such soldiers, sailors, and marines and members of the state militia, who would have been entitled to admission to a soldiers' home or colony in this state at the time of death but for the fact that they were not indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves and families, which ((widows)) spouses have since the death of their husbands or wives, become indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves: PROVIDED, That such ((widows)) spouses are not less than fifty years of age and were married and living with their husbands or wives on or before three years prior to the date of their application, and have not been married since the decease of their husbands or wives to any person not a member of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto.

Where a prisoner is employed at any occupation for which pay is allowed or permitted, or at any gainful occupation from which the state derives an income, the department shall credit the prisoner with the total amount of his earnings.

The amount of earnings credited but unpaid to a prisoner may be paid to the prisoner's ((wife)) spouse, children, mother, father, brother, or sister as the inmate may direct upon approval of the superintendent. Upon release, parole, or discharge, all unpaid earnings of the prisoner shall be paid to him.

Sec. 106. Section 1, chapter 14, Laws of 1891 and RCW 73.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

No judge, or clerk of court, county clerk, county auditor, or any other county officer, shall be allowed to charge any honorably discharged soldier or seaman, or the ((widow)) spouse, orphan, or legal representative thereof, any fee for administering any oath, or giving any official certificate for the procuring of any pension, bounty, or back pay, nor for administering any oath or oaths and giving the certificate required upon any voucher for collection of periodical dues from the pension agent, nor any fee for services rendered in perfecting any voucher.

Sec. 107. Section 1, chapter 84, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1951 and RCW 73.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In every public department, and upon all public works of the state, and of any county thereof, honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, and marines who are veterans of any war of the United States, or of any military campaign for which a campaign ribbon shall have been awarded, and their ((widows)) spouses, shall be preferred for appointment and employment. Age, loss of limb, or other physical impairment, which does not in fact incapacitate, shall not be deemed to disqualify them, provided they possess the capacity necessary to discharge the duties of the position involved.

Sec. 108. Section 1, chapter 180, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 1, chapter 13, Laws of 1950 ex. sess. and RCW 73.32.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be paid to each person who was on active federal service as a member of the armed military or naval forces of the United States between the seventh day of December, 1941, and the second day of September, 1945, who at the time of his or her entry upon active federal service and for a period of one year prior thereto was a bona fide citizen or resident of the state of Washington, or who was a member of one of the regular military services on December 7, 1941, and on that date and for one year prior thereto was a bona fide citizen or resident of the state of Washington, for service between said dates, the sum of ten dollars for each and every month or major fraction thereof of such duty performed within the continental limits of the United States, and fifteen dollars for each and every month or major fraction thereof of such duty performed outside the continental limits of the United States: PROVIDED, That persons who have already received extra compensation for such service from any other state or territory shall not be entitled to the compensation under this chapter, unless the amount of compensation so received is less than they would be entitled to hereunder, in which event they shall receive the difference between the compensation payable under this chapter and the extra compensation already received from such other state or territory. In case of the death of any such person prior to June 8, 1949, an equal amount shall be paid to his surviving ((widow)) spouse if not remarried at the time compensation is requested or in case he left no ((widow)) spouse or in case his ((widow)) spouse has remarried and he has left children, then to his surviving children, or in the event he left no ((widow)) spouse eligible for payment hereunder or children surviving on June 8, 1949, then to his surviving parent or parents.

Since the people of the state of Washington have recognized the sacrifices of its sons and daughters in the service of their country during World War II, and having desired to aid them in their return to civil life, did authorize the payment of certain compensation in recognition of such services, and since problems arising out of said conflict threatened to defeat the ideals for which said war was waged and made it necessary for many of our sons to again bear arms for the preservation of justice and peace, it is fitting and proper that we again recognize that service and give that helping hand to those who have given so much to us and have brought so much honor to our great state.

Sec. 110. Section 2, chapter 292, Laws of 1955 and RCW 73.33.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be paid to each person who was on active federal service as a member of the armed military or naval forces of the United States between the twenty-seventh day of June, 1950, and the twenty-sixth day of July, 1953, and who for a period of one year immediately prior to the date of his entry into such service, was a bona fide citizen or resident of the state of Washington, for service between said dates, the sum of one hundred dollars for service in excess of eighty-nine days within the continental United States, the sum of one hundred fifty dollars for service in excess of eighty-nine days and less than three hundred sixty-five days where any part of such service was outside the continental limits of the United States, or the sum of two hundred dollars for service in excess of three hundred sixty-four days where any part of such service was outside the continental limits of the United States: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That persons otherwise eligible who have been continuously in said armed services for a period of five years or more immediately prior to June 27, 1950, shall not be eligible to receive compensation under the terms of this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That persons who have already received extra compensation or other benefits based upon claimed residence at the time of entry into such active service from any other state or territory shall not be entitled to compensation under this chapter.

In case of the death of any such person prior to June 10, 1955, an equal amount shall be paid to his surviving ((widow)) spouse if not remarried at the time compensation is requested, or in case he left no ((widow)) spouse or in case his ((widow)) spouse has remarried and he has left children, then to his surviving children, or in the event he left no ((widow)) spouse eligible for payment hereunder, or children surviving on June 10, 1955, then to his surviving parent or parents: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no such parent who has been deprived of custody of such child or children by a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction shall be entitled to any compensation under this chapter if the husband of the surviving spouse was either killed in action or died as a result of wounds or disabilities incurred in action during the period covered by this chapter, such spouse, if not remarried at the time compensation is requested, shall be entitled to the largest amount payable hereunder.

The department is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations governing the provision of day care as a part of child welfare services when the ((director)) secretary determines that a need exists for such day care and that it is in the best interests of the child ((and the mother)) , the parents, or the custodial parent and in determining the need for such day care priority shall be given to geographical areas having the greatest need for such care and to members of low income groups in the population: PROVIDED, That where the family is financially able to pay part or all of the costs of such care, fees shall be imposed and paid according to the financial ability of the family.

Sec. 112. Section 8 *[7], chapter 206, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 15, chapter 173, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.220 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to carry out its responsibilities imposed under this chapter, the state department of public assistance, through the attorney general, is hereby authorized to:

(1) Represent a dependent child or dependent children on whose behalf public assistance is being provided in obtaining any support order necessary to provide for his or their needs or to enforce any such order previously entered.

(2) Appear as a friend of the court in divorce and separate maintenance suits, or proceedings supplemental thereto, when either or both of the parties thereto are receiving public assistance, for the purpose of advising the court as to the financial interest of the state of Washington therein.

(3) Appear on behalf of the ((mother)) custodial parent of a dependent child or children on whose behalf public assistance is being provided, when so requested by ((her)) such parent, for the purpose of assisting ((her)) such parent in securing a modification of a divorce or separate maintenance decree wherein no support, or inadequate support, was given for such child or children: PROVIDED, That the attorney general shall be authorized to so appear only where it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the ((mother)) parent is without funds to employ private counsel. If the ((mother)) parent does not request such assistance, or refuses it when offered, the attorney general may nevertheless appear as a friend of the court at any supplemental proceeding, and may advise the court of such facts as will show the financial interest of the state of Washington therein; but the attorney general shall not otherwise participate in the proceeding.

(4) If public assistance has been applied for or granted on behalf of a child of parents who are divorced or legally separated, the attorney general may apply to the superior court in such action for an order directing either parent or both to show cause:

(a) Why an order of support for the child should not be entered, or

(b) Why the amount of support previously ordered should not be increased, or

(c) Why the parent should not be held in contempt for his failure to comply with any order of support previously entered.

(5) Initiate any civil proceedings deemed necessary by the department to secure reimbursement from the parent or parents of minor dependent children for all moneys expended by the state in providing assistance or services to said children.

Sec. 113. Section 8, chapter 206, Laws of 1963 and RCW 74.20.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Any married ((woman)) parent with minor children, natural or legally adopted children who ((are)) is receiving public assistance may apply to the superior court of the county in which ((she)) such parent resides or in which ((her husband)) the spouse may be found for an order upon ((her husband)) such spouse, if ((he)) such spouse is the natural or adoptive mother or father of such children, to provide for ((her)) such spouse's support and the support of ((her)) such spouse's minor children by filing in such county a petition setting forth the facts and circumstances upon which ((she)) such spouse relies for such order. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that such ((woman)) parent is without funds to employ counsel, the state department of ((public assistance)) social and health services through the attorney general may file such petition on ((her)) behalf of such parent. If satisfied that a just cause exists, the court shall direct that a citation issue to the ((husband)) other spouse requiring ((him)) such spouse to appear at a time set by the court to show cause why an order of support should not be entered in the matter.

No ((boy)) person under eighteen years of age((~~r~~ and no girl or woman of any age~~r~~)) shall be employed or permitted to be in any mine for the purpose of employment therein. No ((boy)) person under the age of sixteen years((~~r~~ and no girl or woman of any age~~r~~)) shall be employed or permitted to be in or about the surface workings of any mine for the purpose of employment: PROVIDED, That this prohibition shall not affect the employment of boys or girls ((or women)) for clerical or messenger duty about the surface workings as permitted under the state and federal laws.

When an employer is in doubt as to the age of any ((boy)) person applying for employment in or about the mine, he shall demand and receive proof of the age of such ((boy)) person by certificate from the parents or guardian of such ((boy)) person before ((he)) such person shall be employed. Said certificate shall consist of an affidavit, sworn and subscribed to before a justice of the peace or notary public, that ((he; the said boy)) the person making such affidavit, is of the prescribed age for employment.

Any person swearing falsely in regard to the age of a ((boy)) person shall be guilty of perjury and shall be punished as provided in the statutes of the state.

Sec. 115. Section 12, chapter 152, Laws of 1903 as amended by section 55, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 79.48.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any citizen of the United States, or any person having declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States ((~~excepting married women not the heads of families~~)) eighteen years of age or over, may make application under oath, to the commissioner of public lands, to enter any of said lands in any amount not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres for any one person; such application shall set forth that the person desiring to make such entry does so for the purpose of actual reclamation, cultivation and settlement in accordance with the act of congress and the laws of this state relating thereto, and the applicant has never received the benefit of the provisions of this chapter, to an amount greater than one hundred and sixty acres, including the number of acres specified in the application under consideration. Such application must be accompanied by a certified copy of a contract for a perpetual water right, made and entered into by the party making application with the person, company or association of persons, or incorporated company who have been authorized by the commissioner of public lands to furnish water for the reclamation of said land; and if said applicant has at any previous time entered land under the provisions of this chapter, he shall so state in his application, together with the description, date of entry and location of said lands. The commissioner of public lands shall thereupon file in his office the application and papers relating thereto, and, if allowed, issue a certificate of location to the applicant. All applications for entry shall be accompanied by a payment of one dollar per acre, which shall be paid as a partial payment on the land if the application is allowed, and all certificates when issued shall be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose. If the application is not allowed, or the contractor fails to complete the work according to contract the one dollar per acre accompanying the application shall be returned to the applicant. The commissioner of public lands shall dispose of all lands accepted by the state under the provisions of this chapter at a uniform price of not less than ten dollars per acre, one-tenth to be paid at the time of entry and the remainder in nine equal annual installments, with interest at six percent per annum payable annually, provided a settler may make payment in full at any time upon or after making final proof.

No gas company, electrical company or water company shall charge, demand, collect or receive a greater or less or different compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered than the rates and charges applicable to such service as specified in its schedule filed and in effect at the time, nor shall any such company directly or indirectly refund or remit in any manner or by any device any portion of the rates or charges so specified, or furnish its product at free or reduced rates except to its employees and their families, and its officers, attorneys, and agents; to hospitals, charitable and eleemosynary institutions and persons engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work; to indigent and destitute persons; to national homes or state homes for disabled volunteer soldiers and soldiers' and sailors' homes: PROVIDED, That the term "employees" as used in this paragraph shall include furloughed, pensioned and superannuated employees, persons who have become disabled or infirm in the service of any such company; and the term "families," as used in this paragraph, shall include the families of those persons named in this proviso, the families of persons killed or dying in the service, also the families of persons killed, and the ((widows during widowhood)) surviving spouse prior to remarriage, and the minor children during minority of persons who died while in the service of any of the companies named in this paragraph: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, That water companies may furnish free or at reduced rates water for the use of the state, or for any project in which the state is interested.

No gas company, electrical company or water company shall extend to any person or corporation any form of contract or agreement or any rule or regulation or any privilege or facility except such as are regularly and uniformly extended to all persons and corporations under like circumstances.

No common carrier shall charge, demand, collect or receive a greater or less or different compensation for transportation of persons or property, or for any service in connection therewith, than the rates, fares and charges applicable to such transportation as specified in its schedules filed and in effect at the time; nor shall any such carrier refund or remit in any manner or by any device any portion of the rates, fares, or charges so specified excepting upon order of the commission as hereinafter provided, nor extend to any shipper or person any privileges or facilities in the transportation of passengers or property except such as are regularly and uniformly extended to all persons and corporations under like circumstances. No common carrier shall, directly or indirectly, issue or give any free ticket, free pass or free or reduced transportation for passengers between points within this state, except its employees and their families, surgeons and physicians and their families, its officers, agents and attorneys at law; to ministers of religion, traveling secretaries of railroad Young Men's Christian Associations, inmates of hospitals, charitable and eleemosynary institutions and persons exclusively engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work; to indigent, destitute and homeless persons and to such persons when transported by charitable societies or hospitals, and the necessary agents employed in such transportation; to inmates of the national homes or state homes for disabled volunteer soldiers and of soldiers' and sailors' homes, including those about to enter and those returning home after discharge; to necessary caretakers of livestock, poultry, milk and fruit; to employees of sleeping car companies, express companies, and to linemen of telegraph and telephone companies; to railway mail service employees, post office inspectors, customs inspectors and immigration inspectors; to newsboys on trains; baggage agents, witnesses attending any legal investigation in which the common carrier is interested; to persons injured in accidents or wrecks and physicians and nurses attending such persons; to the National Guard of Washington when on official duty, and students going to and returning from state institutions of learning: PROVIDED, That this provision shall not be construed to prohibit the interchange of passes for the officers, attorneys, agents and employees and their families, of railroad companies, steamboat companies, express companies and sleeping car companies with other railroad companies, steamboat companies, express companies and sleeping car companies, nor to prohibit any common carrier from carrying passengers free with the object of providing relief in cases of general epidemic, pestilence, or other calamitous visitation: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, That this provision shall not be construed to prohibit the exchange of passes or franks for the officers, attorneys, agents, employees, and their families of such telegraph, telephone and cable lines, and the officers, attorneys, agents, employees, and their families of other telegraph, telephone or cable lines, or with railroad companies, express companies or sleeping car companies: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the term "employee" as used in this section shall include furloughed, pensioned, and superannuated employees, persons who have become disabled or infirm in the service of any such common carrier, and the remains of a person killed or dying in the employment of a carrier, those entering or leaving its service and ex-employees traveling for the purpose of entering the service of any such common carrier; and the term "families" as used in this section shall include the families of those persons named in this proviso, also the families of persons killed and the (widows during widowhood) surviving spouses prior to remarriage and minor children during minority, of persons who died while in the service of any such common carrier: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, That nothing herein contained shall prevent the issuance of mileage, commutation tickets or excursion passenger tickets: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the issuance of free or reduced transportation by any street railroad company for mail carriers, or policemen or members of fire departments, city officers, and employees when engaged in the performance of their duties as such city employees.

Common carriers subject to the provisions of this title may carry, store or handle, free or at reduced rates, property for the United States, state, county or municipal governments, or for charitable purposes, or to or from fairs and exhibitions for exhibition thereat, and may carry, store or handle, free or at reduced rates, the household goods and personal effects of its employees and those entering or leaving its service and those killed or dying while in its service.

Nothing in this title shall be construed to prohibit the making of a special contract providing for the mutual exchange of service between any railroad company and any telegraph or telephone company, where the line of such telegraph or telephone company is situated upon or along the railroad right of way and used by both of such companies.

No wharfinger or warehouseman shall charge, demand, collect, or receive a greater, less or different compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered, than the rates charged applicable to such service as specified in its schedule filed and in effect at the time. Nor shall any such wharfinger or warehouseman directly or indirectly refund or remit in any manner or by any device, any portion of the rate or charge so specified, or furnish dockage, wharfage or storage or free or reduced rates except to its employees and their families and its officers, attorneys and agents; to hospitals, charitable and eleemosynary institutions and persons engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work; to indigent and destitute persons; to national homes or state homes for disabled volunteer soldiers and soldiers' and sailors' homes: PROVIDED, That the term "employees," as used in this section shall include furloughed, pensioned and superannuated employees, persons who have become disabled or infirm in the service of such wharfinger or warehouseman, and the term "families," as used in this section, shall include the families of those persons named in this proviso, also the families of persons killed or dying in the service, also the families of persons killed, and the (~~widows, during widowhood~~) surviving spouses prior to remarriage, and the minor children during minority of persons who died while in the service of any such wharfinger or warehouseman.

No wharfinger or warehouseman shall extend to any person or corporation any form of contract or agreement, or any rule or regulation or any privilege or facility except as are regularly and uniformly extended to all persons and corporations under like circumstances.

The following property shall be exempt from taxation:

All free public libraries, orphanages, orphan asylums, (~~institutions for the reformation of fallen women~~) homes for the aged and infirm, and hospitals for the care of the sick, when such institutions are supported in whole or in part by public donations or private charity, and all of the income and profits thereof are devoted, after paying the expenses thereof, to the purposes of such institutions; and the grounds, together with all real and personal property owned or used as a part of such institutions, whenever such libraries, orphanages, institutions, homes, and hospitals are built and used exclusively for the purposes herein enumerated.

In order to determine whether such libraries, orphanages, institutions, homes, and hospitals are exempt from taxes within the intent of this chapter, the director of revenue shall have access to their books and the superintendent or manager of the library, orphanage, institution, home, or hospital claiming exemption from taxation shall file, with the assessor on forms furnished by the director, a signed statement that the income and the receipts thereof, including donations to it, have been applied to the actual expenses of maintaining it, and to no other purpose. He shall also, under oath, make annual report to the department of revenue of its receipts and disbursements. Such report shall be made upon a form supplied by the director of revenue on or before the fifteenth day of the fifth calendar month following the close of the accounting period for which the return is required to be filed. The assessor shall remove the tax exemption from the property and assets of any hospital which does not file with the assessor said annual report within forty-five days of the due date. The department of revenue shall make a copy of such report available to other governmental agencies upon request.

A hospital, within the meaning of this section, includes any portion of the hospital building, or other buildings in connection therewith, used as a nurses' home or as a residence for persons engaged or employed in the operation of the hospital, or operated as a portion of the hospital unit.

Sec. 120. Section 84.36.120, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 72, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.120 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of RCW 84.36.110 "head of a family" shall be construed to include a ((widow)) surviving spouse not remarried, any person receiving an old age pension under the laws of this state and any citizen of the United States, over the age of sixty-five years, who has resided in the state of Washington continuously for ten years.

"Personal effects" shall be construed to mean and include such tangible property as usually and ordinarily attends the person such as wearing apparel, jewelry, toilet articles and the like.

"Private motor vehicle" shall be construed to mean and include all motor vehicles used for the convenience or pleasure of the owner and carrying a licensing classification other than motor vehicle for hire, auto stage, auto stage trailer, motor truck, motor truck trailer or dealers' licenses.

"Mobile home" shall be construed to mean and include all trailers of the type designed as facilities for human habitation and which are capable of being moved upon the public streets and highways and which are more than thirty-five feet in length or more than eight feet in width.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 121. The following acts or parts of acts are each hereby repealed:

(3) Section 2406, Code of 1881 and RCW 26.16.170; and

(4) Section 1, chapter 84, Laws of 1951, section 1, chapter 41, Laws of 1965 and RCW 49.28.070.

Sec. 122. Section 33, page 80, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 183, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.79.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Rape is an act of sexual intercourse with a ((female)) person not the wife or husband of the perpetrator committed against ((her)) the person's will and without ((her)) the person's consent. Every ((person who shall perpetrate)) perpetrator of such an act of sexual intercourse with a ((female)) person of the age of ten years or upwards not his wife or husband:

(1) When, through idiocy, imbecility or any unsoundness of mind, either temporary or permanent, ((she)) the person is incapable of giving consent; or

(2) When ((her)) the person's resistance is forcibly overcome; or

(3) When ((her)) the person's resistance is prevented by fear of immediate and great bodily harm which ((she)) the person has reasonable cause to believe will be inflicted upon her or him; or

(4) When ((her)) the person's resistance is prevented by stupor or weakness of mind produced by an intoxicating narcotic or anaesthetic agent administered by or with the privity of the defendant; or

(5) When ((she)) the person is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act, and this is known to the defendant;

Shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not less than five years.

Sec. 123. Section 33, page 80, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 112, Laws of 1943 and RCW 9.79.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Every male person who shall carnally know and abuse any female child under the age of eighteen years, not his wife, and every female person who shall ((have sexual intercourse with)) carnally know and abuse any male child under the age of eighteen years, not her husband, shall be punished as follows:

(1) When such an act is committed upon a child under the age of ten years, by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for life;

(2) When such an act is committed upon a child of ten years and under fifteen years of age, by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than twenty years;

(3) When such act is committed upon a child of fifteen years of age and under eighteen years of age, by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than fifteen years.

Sec. 124. Section 37, page 187, Laws of 1873 as amended by section 185, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.79.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any sexual penetration, however slight, is sufficient to complete sexual intercourse or carnal knowledge. The word prostitution as used in this chapter and title means any sexual conduct engaged in for a fee or agreed or offered to be engaged in for a fee between persons not married to each other. Sexual conduct means either or both sexual intercourse or any conduct involving the sex organs of one person and the mouth or anus of another.

Sec. 125. Section 813, Code of 1881 as amended by section 186, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.79.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person who, by force, menace, or duress, shall compel ((a woman)) another person against his or her will to marry him or her or to marry any other person, or to be defiled, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than twenty years, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both.

Sec. 126. Section 815, Code of 1881 as amended by section 187, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.79.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person who--

(1) Shall take ((a female)) another person who is under the age of eighteen years for the purpose of prostitution or sexual intercourse, or without the consent of his or her father, mother, guardian or other person having legal charge of ((her)) such other person, for the purpose of marriage; or

(2) Shall inveigle or entice an unmarried ((female)) person of previously chaste character into a house of ill fame or assignation, or elsewhere, for the purpose of prostitution; or

(3) Shall take or detain a ((woman)) another person unlawfully against ((her)) such person's will, with intent to compel ((her)) such person by force, menace or duress, to marry him or her or another person, or to be defiled; or

(4) Being the parent, guardian or other person having legal charge of ((the)) a person ((of a female)) under the age of eighteen years, shall consent to ((her)) the taking or detention of such person by any other person for the purpose of prostitution or sexual intercourse or for any obscene, indecent or immoral purpose;

Shall be guilty of abduction and punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than ten years or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both.

Sec. 127. Section 188, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 1, chapter 186, Laws of 1927 and RCW 9.79.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person who--

(1) Shall place a female or male in the charge or custody of another person for immoral purposes, or in a house of prostitution, with intent that he or she shall live a life of prostitution, or who shall compel any female or male to reside with him or her or with any other person for immoral purposes, or for the purpose of prostitution, or shall compel any ~~((such))~~ female or male to reside in a house of prostitution or to live a life of prostitution; or

(2) Shall ask or receive any compensation, gratuity or reward, or promise thereof, for or on account of placing in a house of prostitution or elsewhere any female for the purpose of causing her to cohabit with any male person or persons not her husband, or any male for the purpose of causing him to cohabit with any female person or persons not his wife; or

(3) Shall give, offer, or promise any compensation, gratuity or reward, to procure any ~~((female))~~ person for the purpose of placing ~~((her))~~ such person for immoral purposes in any house of prostitution, or elsewhere; or

(4) Being the ~~((husband))~~ spouse of any ~~((woman))~~ person, or the parent, guardian or other person having legal charge of ~~((the))~~ such person ~~((of a female))~~ shall connive at, consent to or permit ~~((her))~~ such person being or remaining in any house of prostitution or leading a life of prostitution; or

(5) Shall live with or accept any earnings of a common prostitute, or entice or solicit any person to go to a house of prostitution for any immoral purpose;

Shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than five years.

Sec. 128. Section 816, Code of 1881 as last amended by Section 189, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.79.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person who shall seduce and have sexual intercourse with any ~~((female))~~ person of previously chaste character, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than five years or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both fine and imprisonment: PROVIDED, That if at any time before judgment upon an information or indictment, a defendant shall marry such ~~((female))~~ person, the court shall order all further proceedings stayed ~~((; and if at any time within three years from the date of such marriage the defendant shall wrongfully fail to support or~~ provide for or shall wrongfully desert or abandon such wife, said proceeding shall be revived and continued in the same manner as though no marriage had taken place, and in the trial of such cause the wife shall be competent to testify and may testify against her husband).

Sec. 129. Section 2, chapter 74, Laws of 1937 as last amended by section 1, chapter 127, Laws of 1955 and RCW 9.79.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who takes any indecent liberties with, or on the person of any ((female)) other person of chaste character, without ((her)) the other person's consent, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor;

(2) Every person who takes any indecent liberties with or on the person of any child under the age of fifteen years, or makes any indecent or obscene exposure of his person, or of the person of another, whether with or without his or her consent, shall be guilty of a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than twenty years, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 130. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the Senate April 10, 1973.

Passed the House April 9, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973 with the exception of Sections 30, 31, 32, 33, 37, 40, 41, 42 and 43 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval of certain items Senate Bill No. 2502 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to equal rights."

This act amends the laws of our state to bring them into conformity with the requirements of House Joint Resolution 61, approved by the people at the last general election, which provides for equality of rights among men and women. Within this act, amendments found in sections 37, 40, 41, 42 and 43 technically conflict with amendments to the same statutes found in Senate Bill 2459 which I have previously approved. Senate Bill 2459 accomplishes the same intent as this act and also adds language pertinent to the intent of that particular bill. Additionally, amendments are made in sections 30, 31, 32 and 33 of this act to sections of law which are repealed by House Bill 392, an act relating to divorce. Inasmuch as I have approved House Bill 392, it would be inappropriate to leave those sections in this act.

Veto
Message

Accordingly, for the reasons set out above I have determined to veto sections 30, 31, 32, 33, 37, 40, 41, 42 and 43 of Senate Bill No. 2502."

CHAPTER 155
[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2435]
ALCOHOLISM--ADVISORY BOARD-- COUNTY PROGRAM FUNDING

AN ACT Relating to public health; amending section 7, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96A.070; amending section 2, chapter 77, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96.096; amending section 3, chapter 111, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 30, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 71.24.030; adding a new section to chapter 70.96 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 7, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96A.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to the provisions of RCW 43.20A.360, there shall be a citizens advisory council composed of not less than seven nor more than fifteen members, at least two of whom shall be recovered alcoholics and two of whom shall be members of recognized organizations involved with problems of alcoholism. The remaining members shall be broadly representative of the community, shall include representation from business and industry, organized labor, the judiciary, and minority groups, ((concerned)) chosen for their demonstrated concern with alcoholism problems ((; to advise the department; whose)). Members shall be appointed by the secretary. In addition to advising the department in carrying out the purposes of this chapter, the council shall develop and propose to the secretary for his consideration the rules and regulations for the implementation of the alcoholism programs of the department. The secretary shall thereafter adopt such rules and regulations as shall, in his judgment properly implement the alcoholism programs of the department consistent with the welfare of those to be served, the legislative intent and the public good.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Any county or combination of counties acting jointly by agreement, hereinafter referred to as "county", may create an alcoholism administrative board. Such board shall be composed of not less than seven nor more than fifteen members, who shall be representative of the community, shall include at least two recovered alcoholics, and shall include consumer and minority group representation. No more than four elected or appointed city or county officials may serve on such board at the same time. Members of the board shall serve three year terms and until their successors are appointed and qualified. They shall not be compensated for the performance of their duties as members of the board, but may be paid subsistence rates and mileage in the amounts prescribed by RCW 36.17.030 as now or hereafter amended.

The alcoholism administrative board, the county and the department of social and health services shall, in the area of alcoholism prevention, treatment and education, and the administration, planning and funding thereof, have the same duties, responsibilities, powers, liabilities and authorities as are provided by chapter 71.24 RCW with respect to the mental health administrative board, the county and the department of social and health services.

An executive director of the board may be appointed by the county commissioners subject to the approval of the board. Applicants for such position need not be residents of the county, city or state, and may be employed on a full or part time basis.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 77, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96.096 are each amended as follows:

In order to be eligible to receive its share of liquor taxes and profits, each city and county shall be required to devote no less than two percent of such share of liquor taxes and profits to the support of an alcoholism program approved by the alcoholism administrative board authorized by section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act and the secretary of the state department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 70.96 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any appropriation to the state department of social and health services for alcoholism programs shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Not more than ten percent to the department of social and health services for administration;

(b) Not more than twenty percent to the department of social and health services for funding of pilot and state-wide alcoholism programs, if any; and,

(c) The remainder to be provided for alcoholism programs pursuant to section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act, in the ratio of liquor taxes and profits derived from a county or within a county to v the taxes and profits derived from the total sale of liquor statewide.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 111, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 30, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 71.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary is authorized, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated to effectuate its purposes, to make grants to assist counties or combinations of counties in the establishment and operation of community mental health programs to provide one or more of the following services:

(1) Outpatient diagnostic and treatment services.

(2) Inpatient psychiatric services.

(3) Rehabilitation services for patients with psychiatric illnesses.

(4) Informational services to the general public and educational services furnished by qualified mental health personnel to schools, courts, health agencies, welfare agencies, probation departments and other appropriate public or private agencies or groups.

(5) Consultant services to public or private agencies for the promotion and coordination of services that preserve mental health and for the early recognition and management of conditions that might develop into psychiatric illnesses.

(6) Inpatient or outpatient care, treatment or rehabilitation services of (~~alcoholics, persons incapacitated by alcohol and intoxicated persons and~~) persons using controlled substances in violation of chapter 69.50 RCW.

(7) Such services as are set forth in subsection (4) which pertain to the education and information about and prevention of problems of drug (~~and alcohol~~) abuse.

Such inservice training as may be necessary in providing any of the foregoing services shall be proper items of expenditure in connection therewith.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973, with the exception of Section 4 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill No. 2435 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to public health."

This act creates an alcoholism advisory board for the Department of Social and Health Services and also provides a mechanism for program funding at the county level for those counties which desire it. Section four of the bill establishes a distribution formula for the funds appropriated to the department for alcoholism. The formula allows ten percent of the funds for administration, twenty percent for pilot and statewide programs and the balance to be allocated to the counties based on the ratio of liquor taxes and profits derived from a county to the taxes and profits derived from the sale of liquor statewide. This formula is unduly restrictive in that it would not allow for the continued funding of existing statewide and pilot programs. Additionally, the ratio established for county allocation varies widely from period to period, making it very difficult for the counties to do meaningful planning for future needs. With these considerations in mind, it would be appropriate for the legislature to reconsider the formula between now and next September and at that time establish a more viable method for allocating these funds to the counties.

Veto
Message

Accordingly, for the reasons set out above I have determined to veto section four of Senate Bill No. 2435."

SPECIAL FUEL TAX

AN ACT Relating to special fuel tax; amending section 4, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 135, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.030; amending section 5, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.040; amending section 11, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.100; amending section 12, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.110; amending section 13, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.120; amending section 16, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.150; amending section 18, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 138, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.170; and amending section 20, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 138, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.190.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 4, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 135, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby levied and imposed upon special fuel users a tax of nine cents per gallon or each one hundred cubic feet of compressed natural gas measured at standard pressure and temperature on the use (within the meaning of the word use as defined herein) of special fuel in any motor vehicle: PROVIDED, That in order to encourage experimentation with nonpolluting fuels, no tax shall be imposed upon the use of natural gas as herein defined or on liquified petroleum gas, commonly called propane, which is used in ((a fleet of three or more)) any motor vehicle((s)) until July 1, 1975.

(2) Said tax shall be collected by the special fuel dealer and shall be paid over to the department as hereinafter provided: (a) With respect to all special fuel delivered by a special fuel dealer into supply tanks of motor vehicles or into storage facilities used for the fueling of motor vehicles at unbonded service stations in this state; or (b) in all other transactions where the purchaser indicates in writing to the special fuel dealer prior to or at the time of the delivery that the entire quantity of the special fuel covered by the delivery is for use by him for a taxable purpose as a fuel in a motor vehicle.

(3) Said tax shall be paid over to the department by the special fuel user as hereinafter provided: (a) With respect to special fuel upon which the tax has not previously been imposed which was acquired in any manner other than by delivery by a special fuel dealer into a fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle in this state; or (b) in all transactions with a special fuel dealer in this state where a written statement has not been furnished to the special fuel dealer as set forth in subsection (2) (b) of this section.

It is expressly provided that delivery of special fuel may be made without collecting the tax otherwise imposed, when such deliveries are made by a bonded special fuel dealer to special fuel users who are authorized by the department as hereinafter provided, to purchase fuel without payment of tax to the bonded special fuel dealer.

Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The department may issue written authorization to a special fuel user to purchase fuel from a bonded special fuel dealer designated by the special fuel user without payment of the tax to the bonded special fuel dealer when the department finds (1) that the special fuel user consistently is using the fuel in vehicles which are operated partly without this state or off the highways of this state; (2) that to require collection of the tax from the special fuel user by the bonded special fuel dealer would cause consistently recurring overpayments of the tax; and (3) that the revenue of the state with respect to the tax liability of such a special fuel user is adequately secured. Such authorization may be revoked when any one of the above conditions no longer obtains. The delivery of special fuel may be made without collecting the tax otherwise imposed when deliveries are made into vehicle refrigeration units, mixing units, or other equipment powered by separate motors from separate fuel tanks, on invoices showing the vehicle unit or license number and such other information as may be prescribed by the department.

Sec. 3. Section 11, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.100 are each amended to read as follows:

((Any special fuel user operating a motor vehicle in this state in the course of interstate traffic may make application for a single trip special fuel tax permit authorizing operation of such vehicle for a single trip through the state or from a point on the Washington border to a point within the state and return to the border for a fee based on the number of miles to be traveled within the state as follows:

{1} Up to 333 miles	$ 5.00
{2} From 334 miles to 555 miles	$40.00
{3} From 556 miles to 777 miles	$45.00
{4} From 778 miles to 1000 miles	$20.00
{5} More than 1000 miles	$25.00

In addition to the fee based on the miles to be traveled within the state; a fee of one dollar shall be paid for each single trip special fuel tax permit issued which shall be valid for a period of not more than ninety-six hours beginning and ending on the dates and time specified on the face of the permit issued. Such fees shall be in lieu of the special fuel tax otherwise assessable against the permit holder for importing and using special fuel in motor vehicles on the public highways of this state and no reports of mileage shall be required with respect to such vehicles. All such fees collected by the department shall be allocated to the same fund to which the special fuel tax collected hereunder is allocated. The single trip special fuel tax permits may be issued in lieu of special fuel user licenses if the applicant therefor does not operate motor vehicles into or from the state of Washington more than six times during any calendar year.))

(1) Any special fuel user operating a motor vehicle into this state for commercial purposes may make application for a trip permit in lieu of a special fuel user's license required in RCW 82.38.090 which shall be good for a period of not more than twenty consecutive days beginning and ending on the dates specified on the face of the permit issued. An administrative fee of ten dollars shall be required for each permit issued plus one dollar for each consecutive day covered by such permit. Such fees shall be in lieu of the special fuel tax otherwise assessable against the permit holder for importing and using special fuel in a motor vehicle on the public highways of this state and no report of mileage shall be required with respect to such vehicle. Trip permits may be issued if the applicant does not operate motor vehicles into or from the state of Washington more than six times during any calendar year.

(2) Any special fuel user desiring to operate a motor vehicle exclusively within the state of Washington pending the receipt of a special fuel user's license as required in RCW 82.38.090 may make application for a trip permit as provided in subsection (1) of this section: PROVIDED, That only one trip permit shall be issued for the same vehicle. All fees paid for such trip permit shall be in lieu of any special fuel tax otherwise due by the applicant for using special fuel in a motor vehicle on the public highways of this state and no report of mileage shall be required for the operation of the vehicle for the period for which the trip permit was issued.

(3) All fees collected by the department under the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be credited and deposited in the same manner as the special fuel tax collected hereunder and shall not be subject to refund or credit.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for a special fuel dealer's license, special fuel supplier's license or a special fuel user's license, shall be made to the department. The application shall be filed upon a form prepared and furnished by the department and shall contain such information as the department deems necessary.

No special fuel dealer's license or special fuel user's license shall be issued to any person or continued in force unless such person has furnished bond, as defined in RCW 82.38.020, in such form as the department may require, to secure his compliance with this chapter, and the payment of any and all taxes, interest and penalties due and to become due hereunder. The requirement of furnishing a bond shall be waived provided all acquisitions of special fuel by the licensee are on a tax paid or a tax exempt basis.

The total amount of the bond or bonds required of any special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall be equivalent to twice his estimated monthly license tax, determined in such manner as the department may deem proper: PROVIDED, That the total amount of the bond or bonds shall never be less than five hundred dollars nor more than fifty thousand dollars.

Any person who has filed with the department a bond as a motor vehicle fuel distributor under the terms and conditions provided for in RCW 82.36.060, may extend the terms and conditions of said distributor's bond, by an approved rider or bond form, to include coverage of all liabilities and conditions imposed by this chapter upon the special fuel dealer or to the special fuel user to whom said extension is made applicable. The amount of any new bond that may be required of a dealer or user shall not exceed the maximum amount provided by RCW 82.36.060 for a motor vehicle fuel distributor's license.

Sec. 5. Section 13, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt and approval of an application and bond (if required), the department shall issue to the applicant a license to act as a special fuel dealer, a special fuel supplier, or a special fuel user: PROVIDED, That the department may refuse to issue a special fuel dealer's license, special fuel supplier's license, or a special fuel user's license to any person (1) who formerly held either type of license which, prior to the time of filing for application, has been revoked for cause; or (2) who is a subterfuge for the real party in interest whose license prior to the time of filing for application, has been revoked for cause; or (3) upon other sufficient cause being shown. Before such refusal, the department shall grant the applicant a hearing and shall grant him at least five days written notice of the time and place thereof.

The department shall determine from the information shown in the application or other investigation the kind and class of license to be issued.

All licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place or kept available for inspection at the principal place of business of the owner thereof. License holders shall reproduce the license by photostat or other method and keep a copy on display for ready inspection at each additional place of business or other place of storage from which special fuel is sold, delivered or used and in each motor vehicle used by the license holder to transport special fuel purchased by him for resale, delivery or use. Every special fuel user and consumer of special fuel used to propel motor vehicles upon the highways of this state shall reproduce the license and carry a photocopy thereof with each motor vehicle being operated upon the highways of this state. ((In the event a special fuel user license is not displayed, whether through loss, theft, or for any other reason, the operator of such vehicle may be required to purchase a single trip special fuel tax permit pursuant to RCW 82.38.400.))

A special fuel dealer or a special fuel supplier may use special fuel in motor vehicles owned or operated by them without securing a license as a special fuel user but they shall be subject to all other conditions, requirements and liabilities imposed herein upon a special fuel user.

The department shall furnish to each licensed special fuel supplier a list showing the name and address of each bonded special fuel dealer as of the beginning of each fiscal year, and shall thereafter during each year supplement such list monthly.

Each special fuel dealer's license, special fuel supplier's license, and special fuel user's license shall be valid until suspended or revoked for cause or otherwise canceled.

No special fuel dealer's license, special fuel supplier's license, or special fuel user's license shall be transferable.

Sec. 6. Section 16, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.150 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of determining the amount of his liability for the tax herein imposed each special fuel dealer and each special fuel user shall file with the department, on forms prescribed by the department, a monthly tax report. A report shall be filed with the department for each calendar month, even though no special fuel was used, or tax is due, for the calendar month. Such report shall contain a declaration by the person making the same, to the effect that the statements contained therein are true and are made under penalties of perjury, which declaration shall have the same force and effect as a verification of the report and shall be in lieu of such verification. The report shall show such information as the department may reasonably require for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter: PROVIDED, That if a special fuel dealer or special fuel user is also a special fuel supplier at a location where special fuel is delivered into the supply tank of a motor vehicle, and if separate storage is provided thereat from which special fuel is delivered or placed into fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, the monthly report to the department need not include inventory control data covering bulk storage from which wholesale distribution of special fuel is made. The special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall file the report on or before the twenty-fifth day of the next succeeding calendar month following the monthly period to which it relates.

If the final filing date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday the next secular or business day shall be the final filing date. Such reports shall be considered filed or received on the date shown by the post office cancellation mark stamped upon an envelope containing such report properly addressed to the department, or on the date it was mailed if proof satisfactory to the department is available to establish the date it was mailed.

Any person whose sole use of special fuel is for the propulsion of a privately operated passenger automobile is exempt from the filing of a special fuel tax report on the condition that all fuel used in this state, except fuel brought into this state in the fuel tank of the vehicle, is purchased from a special fuel dealer in this state who collects the tax from the user when delivering the fuel into the fuel tank of the user's automobile. For the purposes of this chapter, "privately operated passenger automobile" includes passenger cars as that term is defined in RCW 46.04.382, and such light trucks and other noncommercial vehicles as may be defined as such by rules and regulations adopted by the department. A special fuel user may be relieved of the filing of the tax report even though he operates more than one passenger automobile using special fuel, whether or not such automobiles are used for pleasure or in a business or profession, providing that the user is not also using such fuel in other motor vehicles which are not privately operated passenger automobiles. Notwithstanding that a special fuel user's sole use of such special fuel is in a privately operated automobile, he shall continue to file the tax report if he is using such special fuels from bulk storage of special fuel on which the tax has not been paid at the time of purchase or acquisition.

The department may relieve any holder of a valid special fuel users license from the requirement of filing returns under this section when he has established to its satisfaction (1) that such user's vehicles are operated exclusively within the boundaries of this state; (2) that his purchases of special fuel are made exclusively from special fuel dealers holding valid licenses under this chapter; (3) that he does not acquire special fuel in any manner or for any purpose whereby payment of tax or undertaking therefor is not made to a special fuel dealer at time of purchase; and (4) that he maintains adequate records subject to audit.

((A vehicle identification card to be carried in the motor vehicle shall be issued in such cases and the privilege shall be subject to revocation by the department whenever the vehicle of any licensee so identified is found to be operated in violation of any of the conditions in this section:))

The department, if it deems it necessary in order to insure payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, or to facilitate the administration of this chapter, shall have the authority to require the filing of reports and tax remittances at shorter intervals than one month if, in its opinion, an existing bond has become insufficient.

The department may permit any special fuel user whose sole use of special fuel is in motor vehicles or equipment exempt from tax as provided in section 1(1) of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 82.38.080 (1), (2), (3) and (6), in lieu of the reports required in this section, to submit reports annually or as requested by the department, in such form as the department may require.

Sec. 7. Section 18, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 138, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((If any person affected by this chapter shall fail or refuse to comply with any provision of this chapter or shall violate the same; or shall fail or refuse to comply with any rule or regulation promulgated hereunder by the department or shall violate the same; he shall forfeit to the state of Washington as penalty; the sum of twenty-five dollars;

{2} In case any special fuel dealer or special fuel user refuses or fails to file a return required by this chapter within the time prescribed by RCW 82.38.150; there is hereby imposed the penalty provided in subsection {1} of this section or a sum equal to ten percent of the tax due; whichever is greater; together with interest at the rate of one percent for each calendar month or fraction thereof during which such refusal or failure continues;

{3} Where a special fuel dealer or a special fuel user files a report; but fails to pay in whole or in part the tax due hereunder; there shall be added to the amount due and unpaid; interest at the rate of one percent per month or fraction thereof from the date such tax was due to the date of payment in full thereof;))

If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user fails to pay any taxes collected or due the state of Washington by said dealer or user within the time prescribed by section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act, said dealer or user shall pay in addition to such tax a penalty of ten percent of the amount thereof plus interest at the rate of one percent per month, or fraction thereof, from the date such tax was due until paid.

((4)) {2} If it be determined by the department that the tax reported by any special fuel dealer or special fuel user is deficient it shall proceed to assess the deficiency on the basis of information available to it and there shall be added to this deficiency ((the penalty provided in subsection {2} of this section together with interest at the rate of one percent per month; or fraction thereof; from the date the report was due;)) a penalty of ten percent of the amount of the deficiency together with interest at the rate of one percent per month, or fraction thereof, from the date the report was due until paid.

((5)) {3} If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user, whether or not he is licensed as such, fails, neglects, or refuses to file a special fuel tax report, the department shall, on the basis of information available to it, determine the tax liability of the special fuel dealer or the special fuel user for the period during which no report was filed, and to the tax as thus determined, the department shall add the penalty and interest provided in subsection

~~((4))~~ (2) of this section. An assessment made by the department pursuant to this subsection or to subsection ~~((4))~~ (2) of this section shall be presumed to be correct, and in any case where the validity of the assessment is drawn in question, the burden shall be on the person who challenges the assessment to establish by a fair preponderance of the evidence that it is erroneous or excessive as the case may be.

~~((6))~~ (4) If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall establish by a fair preponderance of evidence that his failure to file a report or pay the proper amount of tax within the time prescribed was due to reasonable cause and was not intentional or wilful, the department may waive the penalty prescribed in subsections (1), (2), ~~((4) and (5))~~ and (3) of this section.

~~((7))~~ (5) If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall file a false or fraudulent report with intent to evade the tax imposed by this chapter, there shall be added to the amount of deficiency determined by the department a penalty equal to twenty-five percent of the deficiency together with interest at one percent per month, or fraction thereof, on such deficiency from the date such tax was due to the date of payment, in addition to the penalty provided in subsection ~~((4))~~ (2) of this section and all other penalties prescribed by law.

~~((8))~~ (6) Except in the case of a fraudulent report or of neglect or refusal to make a report, every deficiency shall be assessed under subsection ~~((4))~~ (2) of this section within three years from the twenty-fifth day of the next succeeding calendar month following the monthly period for which the amount is proposed to be determined or within three years after the return is filed, whichever period expires the later.

~~((9))~~ (7) Any special fuel dealer or special fuel user against whom an assessment is made under the provisions of subsections ~~((4))~~ (2) or ~~((5))~~ (3) of this section may petition for a reassessment thereof within ~~((fifteen))~~ thirty days after service upon the special fuel dealer or special fuel user of notice thereof. If such petition is not filed within such ~~((fifteen))~~ thirty day period, the amount of the assessment becomes final at the expiration thereof.

If a petition for reassessment is filed within the thirty day period, the department shall reconsider the assessment and, if the special fuel dealer or special fuel user has so requested in his petition, shall grant such special fuel dealer or special fuel user an oral hearing and give the special fuel dealer or special fuel user ten days' notice of the time and place thereof. The department may continue the hearing from time to time. The decision of the department upon a petition for reassessment shall become final thirty days after service upon the special fuel dealer or special fuel user of notice thereof.

Every assessment made by the department shall become due and payable at the time it becomes final and if not paid to the department when due and payable, there shall be added thereto a penalty of ten percent of the amount of the tax.

~~((140))~~ (8) Any notice of assessment required by this section shall be served personally or by mail; if by mail, service shall be made by depositing such notice in the United States mail, postage prepaid addressed to the special fuel dealer or special fuel user at his address as the same appears in the records of the department.

Sec. 8. Section 20, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 138, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Claims under RCW 82.38.180 shall be filed with the department on forms prescribed by the department and shall show the date of filing and the period covered in the claim, the number of gallons of special fuel used for purposes subject to tax refund, and such other facts and information as may be required. Every such claim shall be supported by an invoice or invoices issued to or by the claimant, as may be prescribed by the department, and such other information as the department may require.

(2) Any amount determined to be refundable by the department under RCW 82.38.180 shall first be credited on any amounts then due and payable from the special fuel dealer or special fuel user or to any person to whom the refund is due, and the department shall then certify the balance thereof to the state treasurer, who shall thereupon draw his warrant for such certified amount to such special fuel dealer or special fuel user or any person: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the department shall deduct fifty cents from all such refunds as a filing fee, which fee shall be deducted from the warrant issued in payment of such refund to defray expenses in furnishing the claim forms and other forms provided for in this chapter.

(3) No refund or credit shall be approved by the department unless a written claim for refund or credit stating the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded is filed with the department:

(a) Within thirteen months from the date of purchase or from the last day of the month following the close of the monthly period for which the refundable amount or credit is due with respect to refunds or credits allowable under RCW 82.38.180, subsections (1), (2), (4) and (5), and if not filed within this period the right to refund shall be forever barred.

(b) Within three years from the last day of the month following the close of the monthly period for which the overpayment is due with respect to the refunds or credits allowable under RCW

82.38.180(3).

((c) Within six months from the date the assessment becomes final or within six months from the date of collection, whichever period expires the later, with respect to assessments made by the department under REW 82.38.170(4) and (5):)

(4) Within thirty days after disallowing any claim in whole or in part, the department shall serve written notice of its action on the claimant.

(5) Interest shall be paid upon any refundable amount or credit due under RCW 82.38.180(3) at the rate of one percent per month from the last day of the calendar month following the monthly period for which the refundable amount or credit is due.

The interest shall be paid:

(a) In the case of a refund, to the last day of the calendar month following the date upon which the person making the overpayment, if he has not already filed a claim, is notified by the department that a claim may be filed or the date upon which the claim is approved by the department, whichever date is earlier.

(b) In the case of a credit, to the same date as that to which interest is computed on the tax or amount against which the credit is applied.

If the department determines that any overpayment has been made intentionally or by reason of carelessness, it shall not allow any interest thereon.

(6) No injunction or writ of mandate or other legal or equitable process shall issue in any suit, action or proceeding in any court against this state or against any officer of the state to prevent or enjoin the collection under this chapter of any tax or any amount of tax required to be collected.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section. 1. (1) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the practice in civil action shall govern all proceedings under this chapter, except that trial by jury is dispensed with.

(2) A proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation or a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage shall be entitled "In re the marriage of and"

(3) In cases where there has been no prior proceeding in this state involving the marital status of the parties or custody or support obligations, a separate custody or support proceeding shall be entitled "In re the (custody) (support) of"

(4) The initial pleading in all proceedings for dissolution of marriage under this chapter shall be denominated a petition. A responsive pleading shall be denominated a response. Other pleadings, and all pleadings in other matters under this chapter shall be denominated as provided in the civil rules for superior court.

(5) In this chapter, "decree" includes "judgment".

(6) A decree of dissolution, of legal separation, or a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage shall not be awarded to one of the parties, but shall provide that it affects the status previously existing between the parties in the manner decreed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) A petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or for a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage, shall allege the following:

- (a) The last known residence of each party;
 - (b) The date and place of the marriage and the place at which it was registered;
 - (c) If the parties are separated the date on which the separation occurred;
 - (d) The names, ages, and addresses of any child dependent upon either or both spouses and whether the wife is pregnant;
 - (e) Any arrangements as to the custody, visitation and support of the children and the maintenance of a spouse;
 - (f) A statement specifying whether there is community or separate property owned by the parties to be disposed of;
 - (g) The relief sought.
- (2) Either or both parties to the marriage may initiate the proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. When a party who is a resident of this state or who is a member of the armed forces and is stationed in this state, petitions for a dissolution of marriage, and alleges that the marriage is irretrievably broken and when ninety days have elapsed since the petition was filed and from the date when service of summons was made upon the respondent or the first publication of summons was made, the court shall proceed as follows:

(1) If the other party joins in the petition or does not deny that the marriage is irretrievably broken, the court shall enter a decree of dissolution.

(2) If the other party alleges that the petitioner was induced to file the petition by fraud, or coercion, the court shall make a finding as to that allegation and, if it so finds shall dismiss the petition.

(3) If the other party denies that the marriage is irretrievably broken the court shall consider all relevant factors, including the circumstances that gave rise to the filing of the petition and the prospects for reconciliation and shall:

(a) Make a finding that the marriage is irretrievably broken and enter a decree of dissolution of the marriage; or

(b) At the request of either party or on its own motion, transfer the cause to the family court, refer them to another counseling service of their choice, and request a report back from the counseling service within sixty days, or continue the matter for not more than sixty days for hearing. If the cause is returned from the family court or at the adjourned hearing, the court shall:

(i) Find that the parties have agreed to reconciliation and dismiss the petition; or

(ii) Find that the parties have not been reconciled, and that either party continues to allege that the marriage is irretrievably broken. When such facts are found, the court shall enter a decree of dissolution of the marriage.

(4) If the petitioner requests the court to decree legal separation in lieu of dissolution, the court shall enter the decree in that form unless the other party objects and petitions for a decree of dissolution or declaration of invalidity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) While both parties to an alleged marriage are living, and at least one party is resident in this state or a member of the armed service and stationed in the state, a petition to have the marriage declared invalid may be brought by:

(a) Either or both parties, for any cause specified in subsection (4) of this section; or

(b) Either or both parties, the legal spouse, or a child of either party when it is alleged that the marriage is bigamous.

(2) If the validity of a marriage is denied or questioned at any time, either or both parties to the marriage may petition the court for a judicial determination of the validity of such marriage. The petitioner in such action shall be the person or entity denying or questioning the validity of the marriage.

(3) In a proceeding to declare the invalidity of a marriage, the court shall proceed in the manner and shall have the jurisdiction, including the authority to provide for maintenance, custody, visitation, support, and division of the property of the parties, provided by this chapter.

(4) After hearing the evidence concerning the validity of a marriage, the court:

(a) If it finds the marriage to be valid, shall enter a decree of validity;

(b) If it finds that:

(i) The marriage should not have been contracted because of age of one or both of the parties, lack of required parental or court approval, a prior undissolved marriage of one or both of the parties, reasons of consanguinity, or because a party lacked capacity to consent to the marriage, either because of mental incapacity or because of the influence of alcohol or other incapacitating substances, or because a party was induced to enter into the marriage by force or duress, or by fraud involving the essentials of marriage, and that the parties have not ratified their marriage by voluntarily cohabiting after attaining the age of consent, or after attaining capacity to consent, or after cessation of the force or duress or discovery of the fraud, shall declare the marriage invalid as of the date it was purportedly contracted;

(ii) The marriage should not have been contracted because of any reason other than those above, shall upon motion of a party, order any action which may be appropriate to complete or to correct the record and enter a decree declaring such marriage to be valid for all purposes from the date upon which it was purportedly contracted;

(c) If it finds that a marriage contracted in a jurisdiction other than this state, was void or voidable under the law of the place where the marriage was contracted, and in the absence of proof that such marriage was subsequently validated by the laws of the place of contract or of a subsequent domicile of the parties, shall declare the marriage invalid as of the date of the marriage.

(5) Any child of the parties born or conceived during the existence of a marriage of record is legitimate and remains legitimate notwithstanding the entry of a declaration of invalidity of the marriage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. In entering a decree of dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity, the court shall consider, approve, or make provision for child custody and visitation, the support of any child of the marriage entitled to support, the maintenance of either spouse, and the disposition of property and liabilities of the parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) In a proceeding for:

(a) Dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or a declaration of invalidity; or

(b) Disposition of property or liabilities, maintenance, or support following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse; either party may move for temporary maintenance or for temporary support of children entitled to support. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(2) As a part of a motion for temporary maintenance or support or by independent motion accompanied by affidavit, either party may request the court to issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, providing relief proper in the circumstances, and restraining or enjoining any person from:

(a) Transferring, removing, encumbering, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and, if so restrained or enjoined, requiring him to notify the moving party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures made after the order is issued;

(b) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party or of any child;

(c) Entering the family home or the home of the other party upon a showing of the necessity therefor;

(d) Removing a child from the jurisdiction of the court.

(3) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(4) The court may issue a temporary injunction and an order for temporary maintenance or support in such amounts and on such terms as are just and proper in the circumstances.

(5) A temporary order or temporary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding;

(b) May be revoked or modified;

(c) Terminates when the final decree is entered or when the petition for dissolution, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is dismissed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The parties to a marriage, in order to promote the amicable settlement of disputes attendant upon their separation or upon the filing of a petition for dissolution of their marriage, a decree of legal separation, or declaration of invalidity of their marriage, may enter into a written separation contract providing for the maintenance of either of them, the disposition of any property owned by both or either of them, the custody, support, and visitation of their children and for the release of each other from all obligation except that expressed in the contract.

(2) If the parties to such contract elect to live separate and apart without any court decree, they may record such contract and cause notice thereof to be published in a legal newspaper of the county wherein the parties resided prior to their separation. Recording such contract and publishing notice of the making thereof shall constitute notice to all persons of such separation and of the facts contained in the recorded document.

(3) If either or both of the parties to a separation contract shall at the time of the execution thereof, or at a subsequent time, petition the court for dissolution of their marriage, for a decree of legal separation, or for a declaration of invalidity of their marriage, the contract, except for those terms providing for the custody, support, and visitation of children, shall be binding upon the court unless it finds, after considering the economic circumstances of the parties and any other relevant evidence produced by the parties on their own motion or on request of the court, that the separation contract was unfair at the time of its execution.

(4) If the court in an action for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity finds that the separation contract was unfair at the time of its execution, it may make orders for the maintenance of either party, the disposition of their property and the discharge of their obligations.

(5) Unless the separation contract provides to the contrary, the agreement shall be set forth in the decree of dissolution, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity, or filed in the action or made an exhibit and incorporated by reference, except that in all cases the terms for custody, support, and visitation shall be set out in the decree, and the parties shall be ordered to comply with its terms.

(6) Terms of the contract set forth or incorporated by reference in the decree may be enforced by all remedies available for the enforcement of a judgment, including contempt, and are enforceable as contract terms.

(7) When the separation contract so provides, the decree may expressly preclude or limit modification of any provision for maintenance set forth in the decree. Terms of a separation contract pertaining to custody, support, and visitation of children and, in the absence of express provision to the contrary, terms providing for maintenance set forth or incorporated by reference in the decree are automatically modified by modification of the decree.

(8) If at any time the parties to the separation contract by mutual agreement elect to terminate the separation contract they may do so without formality unless the contract was recorded as in subsection (2) of this section, in which case a statement should be filed terminating the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In a proceeding for dissolution of the marriage, legal separation, declaration of invalidity, or in a proceeding for disposition of property following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property, the court shall, without regard to marital misconduct, make such disposition of the property and the liabilities of the parties, either community or separate, as shall appear just and equitable after considering all relevant factors including, but not limited to:

- (1) The nature and extent of the community property;
- (2) The nature and extent of the separate property;
- (3) The duration of the marriage; and
- (4) The economic circumstances of each spouse at the time the division of property is to become effective, including the desirability of awarding the family home or the right to live therein for reasonable periods to a spouse having custody of any children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, declaration of invalidity, or in a proceeding for maintenance following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse, the court may grant a maintenance order for either spouse. The maintenance order shall be in such amounts and for such periods of time as the court deems just, without regard to marital misconduct, after considering all relevant factors including but not limited to:

(a) The financial resources of the party seeking maintenance, including separate or community property apportioned to him, and his ability to meet his needs independently, including the extent to which a provision for support of a child living with the party includes a sum for that party as custodian;

(b) The time necessary to acquire sufficient education or training to enable the party seeking maintenance to find employment appropriate to his skill, interests, style of life, and other attendant circumstances;

(c) The standard of living established during the marriage;

(d) The duration of the marriage;

(e) The age, physical and emotional condition, and financial obligations of the spouse seeking maintenance; and

(f) The ability of the spouse from whom maintenance is sought to meet his needs and financial obligations while meeting those of the spouse seeking maintenance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, declaration of invalidity, maintenance, or child support, after considering all relevant factors but without regard to marital misconduct, the court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to any child of the marriage dependent upon either or both spouses to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for his support.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The court may appoint an attorney to represent the interests of a minor or dependent child with respect to his custody, support, and visitation. The court shall enter an order for costs, fees, and disbursements in favor of the child's attorney. The order shall be made against either or both parents, except that, if both parties are indigent, the costs, fees, and disbursements shall be borne by the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The court may, upon its own motion or upon motion of either party, order support or maintenance payments to be made to:

(a) The person entitled to receive the payments; or

(b) The department of social and health services pursuant to chapters 74.20 and 74.20A RCW; or

(c) The clerk of court as trustee for remittance to the person entitled to receive the payments.

(2) If payments are made to the clerk of court:

(a) The clerk shall maintain records listing the amount of payments, the date when payments are required to be made, and the names and addresses of the parties affected by the order; and

(b) The parties affected by the order shall inform the clerk of the court of any change of address or of other conditions that may affect the administration of the order; and

(c) The clerk of the court shall, if the party fails to make required payment, send by first class mail notice of the arrearage to the obligor. If payment of the sum due is not made to the clerk of the court within ten days after sending notice, the clerk of the court shall certify the amount due to the prosecuting attorney.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The court may order the person obligated to pay support or maintenance to make an assignment of a part of his periodic earnings or trust income to the person or agency entitled to receive the payments: PROVIDED, That the provisions of RCW 7.33.280 in regard to exemptions in garnishment proceedings shall apply to such assignments. The assignment is binding on the employer, trustee or other payor of the funds two weeks after service upon him of notice that it has been made. The payor shall withhold from the earnings or trust income payable to the person obligated to support the amount specified in the assignment and shall transmit the payments to the person specified in the order. The payor may deduct from each payment a sum not exceeding one dollar as reimbursement for costs. An employer shall not discharge or otherwise discipline an employee as a result of a wage or salary assignment authorized by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The court from time to time after considering the financial resources of both parties may order a party to pay a reasonable amount for the cost to the other party of maintaining or defending any proceeding under this chapter and for reasonable attorney's fees or other professional fees in connection therewith, including sums for legal services rendered and costs incurred prior to the commencement of the proceeding or enforcement or modification proceedings after entry of judgment.

Upon any appeal, the appellate court may, in its discretion, order a party to pay for the cost to the other party of maintaining the appeal and attorney's fees in addition to statutory costs.

The court may order that the attorney's fees be paid directly to the attorney who may enforce the order in his name.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A decree of dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is final when entered, subject to the right of appeal. An appeal which does not challenge the finding that the marriage is irretrievably broken or was invalid, does not delay the finality of the dissolution or declaration of invalidity and either party may remarry pending such an appeal.

No earlier than six months after entry of a decree of legal separation, on motion of either party, the court shall convert the decree of legal separation to a decree of dissolution of marriage. The clerk of court shall complete the certificate as provided for in RCW 70.58.200 on the form provided by the department of social and health services. On or before the tenth day of each month, the clerk of the court shall forward to the state registrar of vital statistics the certificate of each decree of divorce, dissolution of marriage, annulment, or separate maintenance granted during the preceding month.

Upon request by a wife whose marriage is dissolved or declared invalid, the court shall order a former name restored and may, on motion of either party, for just and reasonable cause, order the wife to assume a name other than that of the husband.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If a party fails to comply with a provision of a decree or temporary order of injunction, the obligation of the other party to make payments for support or maintenance or to permit visitation is not suspended, but he may move the court to grant an appropriate order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of section 7 of this 1973 act, the provisions of any decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified only as to installments accruing subsequent to the motion for modification and only upon a showing of a substantial change of circumstances. The provisions as to property disposition may not be revoked or modified, unless the court finds the existence of conditions that justify the reopening of a judgment under the laws of this state.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree the obligation to pay future maintenance is terminated upon the death of either party or the remarriage of the party receiving maintenance.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree, provisions for the support of a child are terminated by emancipation of the child or by the death of the parent obligated to support the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) A child custody proceeding is commenced in the superior court:

(a) By a parent:

(i) By filing a petition for dissolution of marriage, legal separation or declaration of invalidity; or

(ii) By filing a petition seeking custody of the child in the county where the child is permanently resident or where he is found; or

(b) By a person other than a parent, by filing a petition seeking custody of the child in the county where the child is permanently resident or where he is found, but only if the child is not in the physical custody of one of its parents or if the petitioner alleges that neither parent is a suitable custodian.

(2) Notice of a child custody proceeding shall be given to the child's parent, guardian and custodian, who may appear and be heard and may file a responsive pleading. The court may, upon a showing of good cause, permit the intervention of other interested parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The court shall determine custody in accordance with the best interests of the child. The court shall consider all relevant factors including:

(1) The wishes of the child's parent or parents as to his custody and as to visitation privileges;

(2) The wishes of the child as to his custodian and as to visitation privileges;

(3) The interaction and interrelationship of the child with his parent or parents, his siblings, and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;

(4) The child's adjustment to his home, school, and community;
and

(5) The mental and physical health of all individuals involved.

The court shall not consider conduct of a proposed guardian that does not affect the welfare of the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A party to a custody proceeding may move for a temporary custody order. The motion must be supported by an affidavit as provided in section 27 of this 1973 act. The court may award temporary custody after a hearing, or, if there is no objection, solely on the basis of the affidavits.

If a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is dismissed, any temporary custody order is vacated unless a parent or the child's custodian moves that the proceeding continue as a custody proceeding and the court finds, after a hearing, that the circumstances of the parents and the best interests of the child require that a custody decree be issued.

If a custody proceeding commenced in the absence of a petition for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity, (subsection (1) of section 18 of this 1973 act) is dismissed, any temporary order is vacated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The court may interview the child in chambers to ascertain the child's wishes as to his custodian and as to visitation privileges. The court may permit counsel to be present at the interview. The court shall cause a record of the interview to be made and to be made part of the record in the case.

The court may seek the advice of professional personnel whether or not they are employed on a regular basis by the court. The advice given shall be in writing and shall be made available by the court to counsel upon request. Counsel may call for cross-examination any professional personnel consulted by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. (1) In contested custody proceedings, and in other custody proceedings if a parent or the child's custodian so requests, the court may order an investigation and report concerning custodian arrangements for the child. The investigation and report may be made by the staff of the juvenile court or other professional social service organization experienced in counseling children and families.

(2) In preparing his report concerning a child, the investigator may consult any person who may have information about the child and his potential custodian arrangements. Upon order of the court, the investigator may refer the child to professional personnel for diagnosis. The investigator may consult with and obtain information from medical, psychiatric, or other expert persons who have served the child in the past without obtaining the consent of the parent or the child's custodian; but the child's consent must be obtained if he has reached the age of twelve, unless the court finds that he lacks mental capacity to consent. If the requirements of subsection (3) of this section are fulfilled, the investigator's report may be received in evidence at the hearing.

(3) The court shall mail the investigator's report to counsel and to any party not represented by counsel at least ten days prior to the hearing unless a shorter time is ordered by the court for good cause shown. The investigator shall make available to counsel and to any party not represented by counsel the investigator's file of underlying data and reports, complete texts of diagnostic reports made to the investigator pursuant to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, and the names and addresses of all persons whom the investigator has consulted. Any party to the proceeding may call the investigator and any person whom he has consulted for cross-examination. A party may not waive his right of cross-examination prior to the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Custody proceedings shall receive priority in being set for hearing.

Either party may petition the court to authorize the payment of necessary travel and other expenses incurred by any witness whose presence at the hearing the court deems necessary to determine the best interests of the child.

The court without a jury shall determine questions of law and fact. If it finds that a public hearing may be detrimental to the child's best interests, the court may exclude the public from a custody hearing, but may admit any person who has a direct and legitimate interest in the work of the court.

If the court finds it necessary to protect the child's welfare that the record of any interview, report, investigation, or testimony in a custody proceeding be kept secret, the court may make an appropriate order sealing the record.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A parent not granted custody of the child is entitled to reasonable visitation rights unless the court finds, after a hearing, that visitation would endanger the child's physical, mental, or emotional health. The court may order visitation rights for any person when visitation may serve the best interest of the child.

The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child but the court shall not restrict a parent's visitation rights unless it finds that the visitation would endanger the child's physical, mental, or emotional health.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Except as otherwise agreed by the parties in writing at the time of the custody decree, the custodian may determine the child's upbringing, including his education, health care, and religious training, unless the court after hearing, finds, upon motion by the noncustodial parent, that in the absence of a specific limitation of the custodian's authority, the child's physical, mental, or emotional health would be endangered.

If both parents or all contestants agree to the order, or if the court finds that in the absence of the order the child's physical, mental, or emotional health would be endangered, the court may order an appropriate agency which regularly deals with children to exercise continuing supervision over the case to assure that the custodial or visitation terms of the decree are carried out. Such order may be modified by the court at any time upon petition by either party.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. (1) The court shall not modify a prior custody decree unless it finds, upon the basis of facts that have arisen since the prior decree or that were unknown to the court at the time of the prior decree, that a change has occurred in the circumstances of the child or his custodian and that the modification is necessary to serve the best interests of the child. In applying these standards the court shall retain the custodian established by the prior decree unless:

- (a) The custodian agrees to the modification;
- (b) The child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with the consent of the custodian; or
- (c) The child's present environment is detrimental to his physical, mental, or emotional health and the harm likely to be caused by a change of environment is outweighed by the advantage of a change to the child.

(2) If the court finds that a motion to modify a prior custody order has been brought in bad faith, the court shall assess the attorney's fees and court costs of the custodian against the petitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. A party seeking a temporary custody order or modification of a custody decree shall submit together with his motion, an affidavit setting forth facts supporting the requested order or modification and shall give notice, together with a copy of his affidavit, to other parties to the proceedings, who may file opposing affidavits. The court shall deny the motion unless it finds that adequate cause for hearing the motion is established by the affidavits, in which case it shall set a date for hearing on an order to show cause why the requested order or modification should not be granted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Hereafter every action or proceeding to change, modify, or enforce any final order, judgment, or decree heretofore or hereafter entered in any dissolution or legal separation or declaration concerning the validity of a marriage in relation to the care, custody, control, support, or maintenance of the minor children of the marriage may be brought in the county where said minor children are then residing, or in the county where the parent or other person who has the care, custody, or control of the said children is then residing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. Whenever either of the parties in a divorce action is, under the law, entitled to a final judgment, but by mistake, negligence, or inadvertence the same has not been signed, filed, or entered, if no appeal has been taken from the interlocutory order or motion for a new trial made, the court, on the motion of either party thereto or upon its own motion, may cause a final judgment to be signed, dated, filed, and entered therein granting the divorce as of the date when the same could have been given or made by the court if applied for. The court may cause such final judgment to be signed, dated, filed, and entered nunc pro tunc as aforesaid, even though a final judgment may have been previously entered where by mistake, negligence or inadvertence the same has not been signed, filed, or entered as soon as such final judgment, the parties to such action shall be deemed to have been restored to the status of single persons as of the date affixed to such judgment, and any marriage of either of such parties subsequent to six months after the granting of the interlocutory order as shown by the minutes of the court, and after the final judgment could have been entered under the law if applied for, shall be valid for all purposes as of the date affixed to such final judgment, upon the filing thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 215, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.08.010;
- (2) Section 2, chapter 215, Laws of 1949, section 1, chapter 15, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 26.08.020;
- (3) Section 3, chapter 215, Laws of 1949, section 1, chapter 28, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 26.08.030;
- (4) Section 4, chapter 215, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.08.040;
- (5) Section 5, chapter 215, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.08.050;
- (6) Section 6, chapter 215, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.08.060;
- (7) Section 7, chapter 215, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.08.070;

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 39, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 9, chapter 215, Laws of 1947 and RCW 50.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There are hereby established in the employment security department two coordinate divisions to be known as the unemployment compensation division, and the Washington state employment service division, each of which shall be administered by a full time salaried supervisor who shall be an assistant to the commissioner and shall be appointed by him. Each division shall be responsible to the commissioner for the dispatch of its distinctive functions. Each division shall be a separate administrative unit with respect to personnel, budget, and duties, except insofar as the commissioner may find that such separation is impracticable. ((The commissioner is authorized to appoint and fix the compensation of such officers, accountants, experts and other personnel as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this title: PROVIDED, That such appointment shall be made on a nonpartisan merit basis in accordance with the provisions of this title relating to the selection of personnel;))

It is hereby further provided that the governor in his discretion may delegate any or all of the organization, administration and functions of the said Washington state employment service division to any federal agency.

Sec. 2. Section 41, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner is authorized to appoint(~~to fix the compensation of, and prescribe the duties of the staff of each of said divisions~~) and fix the compensation of such officers, accountants, experts, and other personnel as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this title: PROVIDED, That such appointment shall be made on a nonpartisan merit basis in accordance with the provisions of this title relating to the selection of personnel. The commissioner may delegate to any person appointed such power and authority as he deems reasonable and proper for the effective administration of this title, including the right to decide matters placed in his discretion under this title, and may in his discretion bond any person handling moneys or signing checks hereunder.

The commissioner shall not appoint or employ any person who is an officer or committee member of any political party organization or who holds or is a candidate for any partisan elective public office.

Sec. 3. Section 43, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.12.040 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((General and special rules may be adopted, amended, or rescinded by the commissioner only after public hearing or opportunity to be heard thereon, of which proper notice has been given. General rules shall become effective ten days after filing with the secretary of state and publication in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the state. Special rules shall become effective ten days after notification to, or mailing to, the last known address of the individuals or concerns affected thereby. Regulations may be adopted, amended, or rescinded by the commissioner and shall become effective in the manner and at the time prescribed by him;))~~ Regular and emergency rules and regulations shall be adopted, amended, or repealed by the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of Title 34 RCW and the rules or regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

Sec. 4. Section 57, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by

The commissioner, through the Washington state employment service division, shall establish and maintain free public employment offices in such places as may be necessary for the proper administration of this title and for the purpose of performing such duties as are within the purview of the act of congress entitled "An Act to provide for the establishment of a national employment system and for other purposes," approved June 6, 1933 (48 Stat. 113; U.S.C. Title 29, Sec. 49(c), as amended).

In the administration of this title the commissioner shall cooperate to the fullest extent consistent with the provisions of this title, with any official or agency of the United States having powers or duties under the provisions of the said act of congress, as amended, and to do and perform all things necessary to secure to this state the benefits of the said act of congress, as amended, in the promotion and maintenance of a system of public employment offices. The provisions of the said act of congress, as amended, are hereby accepted by this state, in conformity with section 4 of said act and there shall be observance of and compliance with the requirements thereof. The commissioner may cooperate with or enter into agreements with the railroad retirement board with respect to the establishment, maintenance, and use of free employment service facilities, and make available to said board the state's records relating to the administration of this title, and furnish such copies thereof, at the expense of the board, as it may deem necessary for its purposes.

The commissioner shall comply with such provisions as the social security board, created by the social security act, approved August 14, 1935, as amended, may from time to time require, regarding reports and the correctness and verification thereof, and shall comply with the regulations of the social security board governing the expenditures of such sums as may be allotted and paid to this state under Title III of the social security act for the purpose of assisting the administration of this title. The commissioner may afford reasonable cooperation with every agency of the United States charged with the administration of any unemployment insurance law.

The governor is authorized to apply for an advance to the state unemployment fund and to accept the responsibility for the repayment of such advance in accordance with the conditions specified in Title XII of the social security act, as amended, in order to secure to this state and its citizens the advantages available under the provisions of such title.

The commissioner is also authorized and empowered to take such steps, not inconsistent with law, as may be necessary for the purpose of procuring for the people of this state all of the benefits and assistance, financial and otherwise, provided, or to be provided for, by or pursuant to any act of congress ((relating to the employment security program)).

Upon request therefor the commissioner shall furnish to any agency of the United States charged with the administration of public works or assistance through public employment, the name, address, ordinary occupation, and employment status of each recipient of benefits and such recipient's rights to further benefits under this title.

Sec. 5. Section 75, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 10, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Irrespective of any other provisions of this title an individual shall be disqualified for benefits for any week with respect to which he has knowingly made a false statement or representation involving a material fact or knowingly failed to report a material fact and has thereby obtained or attempted to obtain any benefits under the provisions of this title, and for an additional twenty-six weeks commencing with the first week for which he completes ((a)) an otherwise compensable claim for waiting period credit or benefits following the date of the delivery or mailing of the determination of disqualification under this section: PROVIDED, That such disqualification shall not be applied after two years have elapsed from the date of the delivery or mailing of the determination of disqualification under this section, but all overpayments established by such determination of disqualification shall be collected as otherwise provided by this title.

Sec. 6. Section 78, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.20.100 are each amended to read as follows:

In determining whether ((or not any such)) work is suitable for an individual or whether ((or not)) an individual has left work voluntarily without good cause, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience and prior earnings, his length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in his customary occupation, the distance of the available work from his residence, and such other factors as the commissioner may deem pertinent, including state and national emergencies.

Sec. 7. Section 87, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 14, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.190 are each amended to read as follows:

((Any person who is paid any amount as benefits under this title to which he is not entitled shall become liable for such amount: PROVIDED, That in the absence of fraud, misrepresentation or wilful nondisclosure, such person shall not be liable for an amount of overpayment received without fault on his part where the recovery thereof would be against equity and good conscience. The amount of the overpayment and the basis thereof shall be assessed to the liable person and following the overpayment assessment such amount, if not collected, shall be deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual: PROVIDED, That in the absence of fraud, misrepresentation, or wilful nondisclosure, every determination of liability shall be mailed or personally served not later than two years after the close of the benefit year in which the purported overpayment was made.) An individual who is paid any amount as benefits under this title to which he is not entitled shall, unless otherwise relieved pursuant to this section, be liable for repayment of the amount overpaid. The department shall issue an overpayment assessment setting forth the reasons for and the amount of the overpayment. The amount assessed, to the extent not collected, shall be deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual.

The commissioner may waive an overpayment if he finds that said overpayment was not the result of fraud, misrepresentation, wilful nondisclosure, or fault attributable to the individual and that the recovery thereof would be against equity and good conscience; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the overpayment so waived shall be charged against the individual's applicable entitlement for the eligibility period containing the weeks to which the overpayment was attributed as though such benefits had been properly paid.

Any assessment herein provided shall constitute a determination of liability from which an appeal may be had in the same manner and to the same extent as provided for appeals relating to determinations in respect to claims for benefits: PROVIDED, That an appeal from any determination covering overpayment only, shall be deemed to be an appeal from the determination which was the basis for establishing the overpayment unless the merits involved in the issue set forth in such determination have already been heard and passed upon by the appeal tribunal. If no such appeal is taken to the appeal tribunal by the individual within ten days of the delivery of the notice of determination of liability, or within ten days of the mailing of the notice of determination, whichever is the earlier, said determination of liability shall be deemed conclusive and final, and the court shall, upon application of the commissioner, enter a judgment in the amount provided by the notice of determination, which judgment shall have and be given the same effect as if entered pursuant to civil action.

On request of any agency which administers an employment security law of another state, the United States or a foreign government and which has found in accordance with the provisions of such law that a claimant is liable to repay benefits received under such law by reason of having knowingly made a false statement or misrepresentation of a material fact with respect to a claim taken in this state as an agent for such agency, the commissioner may collect the amount of such benefits from such claimant to be refunded to such agency. In any case in which under this section a claimant is liable to repay any amount to the agency of another state, the United States or a foreign government, such amounts may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner acting as agent for such agency if the other state, the United States or the foreign government extends such collection rights to the employment security department of the state of Washington, and provided that the court costs be paid by the governmental agency benefiting from such collection.

Sec. 8. Section 92, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 16, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.040 are each amended to read as follows:

If contributions are not paid on the date on which they are due and payable as prescribed by the commissioner, the whole or part thereof remaining unpaid shall bear interest at the rate of one percent per month or fraction thereof from and after such date until payment plus accrued interest is received by him. ((In computing interest from any period less than a full month, the rate shall be one-thirtieth of one percent for each day or fraction thereof.)) Interest shall not accrue in excess of twenty-four percent for delinquent contributions for any one contributions period. The date as of which payment of contributions, if mailed, is deemed to have been received may be determined by such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe. Interest collected pursuant to this section shall be paid into the administrative contingency fund. Interest shall not accrue on contributions from any estate in the hands of a receiver, executor, administrator, trustee in bankruptcy, common law assignee or other liquidating officer subsequent to the date when such receiver, executor, administrator, trustee in bankruptcy, common law assignee or other liquidating officer qualifies as such, but contributions accruing with respect to employment of persons by any receiver, executor, administrator, trustee in bankruptcy, common law assignee or other liquidating officer shall become due and shall draw interest in the same manner as contributions due from other employers. Where adequate information has been furnished the department and the department has failed to act or has advised the employer of no liability or inability to decide the issue, interest may be waived.

Sec. 9. Section 93, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 19, chapter 215, Laws of 1947 and RCW 50.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The claim of the unemployment compensation division for any contributions, including interest thereon, not paid when due, shall be a lien prior to all other liens or claims and on a parity with prior tax liens against all property ((of)) and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to the employer. In order to avail itself of the lien hereby created, the unemployment compensation division shall file with ((the county auditor of the county in which such property is located a statement in writing describing in general terms the specific property upon which the lien is claimed and stating the amount of the lien claimed by the division; The lien shall only attach to the property and be effective from the date of filing of such statement)) any county auditor a statement and claim of lien specifying the amount of delinquent contributions and interest claimed by the division. From the time of filing for record, the amount required to be paid shall constitute a lien upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, in the county, owned by the employer or acquired by him. The lien shall not be valid against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof has been filed with the county auditor. This lien shall be separate and apart from, and in addition to, any other lien or claim created by, or provided for in, this title. When any such notice of lien has been so filed, the commissioner may release the same by filing a certificate of release when it shall appear that the amount of delinquent contributions together with all interest thereon have been paid, or when such assurance of payment shall be made as the commissioner may deem to be adequate. Any lien filed as provided in this section may also be filed in the office of the secretary of state. Filing in the office of the secretary of state shall be of no effect, however, until the lien or copy thereof shall have been filed with the county auditor in the county where the property is located. When a lien is filed in compliance herewith and with the secretary of state, such filing shall have the same effect as if the lien had been duly filed for record in the office of the auditor in each county of this state. Fees for filing and releasing the lien provided herein may be charged to the employer and may be collected from the employer utilizing the remedies provided in this title for the collection of contributions.

Sec. 10. Section 101, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 21, chapter 214, Laws of 1949 and RCW 50.24.130 are each amended to read as follows:

No employing unit which contracts with or has under it any contractor or subcontractor who is an employer under the provisions of this title shall make any payment or advance to, or secure any credit for, such contractor or subcontractor ((for any indebtedness due until after the) or on account of any contract or contracts to which said employing unit is a party unless such contractor or subcontractor has paid contributions, ((or has furnished a good and sufficient bond acceptable to the commissioner for payment of contributions, including interest;)) due or to become due ((in respect to)) for wages paid or to be paid by such contractor or subcontractor for personal services ((which have been)) performed ((by individuals for such contractor or subcontractor)) pursuant to such contract or subcontract, or has furnished a good and sufficient bond acceptable to the commissioner for payment of contributions, including interest. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render said employing unit directly liable for such contributions and interest and the commissioner shall have all of the remedies of collection against said employing unit under the provisions of this title as though the services in question were performed directly for said employing unit.

Sec. 11. Section 10, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.29.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

"Computation date" means July 1st of any year;

"Cut-off date" means ((August 31st)) September 30th next following the computation date;

"Rate year" means the calendar year immediately following the computation date;

"Experience rating year" is the twelve-month period beginning with July 1st of one calendar year and ending on June 30th of the following calendar year;

"Payroll" means all wages (as defined for contribution purposes) paid by an employer to individuals in his employment;

"Acquire" means the right to occupy or use the operating assets formerly in the possession of a predecessor employer whether that acquisition be by purchase, lease, gift, or by any legal process;

"Qualified employer" means: (1) Any employer as of the computation date who had some employment in the twelve-month period immediately preceding April 1st of the first of the three consecutive calendar years immediately preceding the computation date and who had no period of four or more consecutive calendar quarters in such three years for which he reported no employment, except that no employer shall be deemed a qualified employer unless all contributions required under this title from him or his predecessors for the thirty-six month period immediately preceding the computation date have been paid ((prior to)) by the cut-off date or within twenty days of mailing of special delinquency notice as provided in RCW 50.29.070; or (2) Any employer as of the computation date who has not been subject to this title for a period of time sufficient to be classified as a qualified employer under the provision of subdivision (1) of this paragraph but who had some employment in the twelve-month period immediately preceding April 1st of the first of the two consecutive calendar years immediately preceding the computation date and who had no period of four or more consecutive calendar quarters in such two years for which he reported no employment, except that no employer shall be deemed a qualified employer unless all contributions required under this title from him or his predecessors for the twenty-four month period immediately preceding the computation date have been paid ((prior to)) by the cut-off date or within twenty days of mailing of special delinquency notice as provided in RCW 50.29.070; PROVIDED, That for the purpose of this section, unpaid contributions of twenty-five dollars or less or unpaid contributions of one-half of one percent of the employer's total tax reported for the twelve-month period immediately preceding the computation date may be disregarded if showing is made to the satisfaction of the commissioner that an otherwise qualified employer acted in good faith and that forfeiture of qualification for a reduced contribution rate because of such delinquency would be inequitable: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That when an employer or prospective employer has acquired all or substantially all of the operating assets of an employer, or has acquired an operating department, section, division, or any substantial portion of the business or assets of any employer, which is clearly segregable and identifiable for experience rating purposes, the payroll record and benefit charges of the transferring employer shall be divided between the transferring and acquiring employers in proportion to the payrolls for the four preceding completed calendar quarters attributable to the operating assets retained and conveyed. The successor employer shall be liable for contributions on the acquired business from the date the transfer of the business occurred. The separate account of a predecessor or that part thereof which is transferred shall become the separate account or part of separate account as the case may be of the successor employer.

"Surplus" is an amount of moneys in the unemployment compensation fund deemed in excess of the amount needed to insure the solvency of the fund. The "surplus" is determined in the following manner:

(1) For computations prior to January 1, 1974, the total remuneration paid during the calendar year preceding the computation date shall be multiplied by four percent and the product shall be subtracted from the amount in the fund as of the June 30th immediately preceding the computation date. If that balance is at least one-tenth of one percent of the total remuneration paid during the calendar year, that portion of the balance not exceeding forty one-hundredths of one percent of the total remuneration paid during the preceding calendar year shall be deemed "surplus". Total remuneration paid in this computation is limited to remuneration paid during the calendar year preceding the computation date and reported to the department of employment security on or before the March 31st immediately preceding the computation date.

(2) For computations subsequent to January 1, 1974, the allowable "surplus" shall be computed by use of the following table. Column A represents the ratio of the unemployment compensation fund as of the June 30th preceding the computation date to total remuneration for the preceding calendar year. The percentage figures in Column B represent the maximum percentage of total remuneration during the preceding calendar year which may be deemed as "surplus" in view of the corresponding figures in Column A. No amount of the fund shall be declared surplus if the balance in the fund as of the June 30th immediately preceding the computation date is not at least one-tenth of one percent of total remuneration paid during the preceding calendar year in excess of four percent of total remuneration paid during the preceding calendar year. The percentage amount of total remuneration during the preceding calendar year, Column B, may be deemed surplus only to the extent that the balance remaining in the unemployment compensation fund exceeds four percent of the total remuneration paid during the preceding calendar year. Total remuneration paid in this computation is limited to remuneration paid during the calendar year preceding the computation date and reported to the department of employment security on or before the March 31st immediately preceding the computation date.

Column A	Column B
4.1% but less than 4.8%	0.40%
4.8% but less than 5.2%	0.55%
5.2% or more	0.70%

(3) In all computations of "surplus" moneys paid from the fund, based on services performed for employers who make payments in lieu of contributions, which have not been reimbursed to the fund as of any June 30 shall be deemed an asset of the unemployment compensation fund, to the extent that such moneys exceed the amount of payments in lieu of contributions which the commissioner has previously determined to be uncollectible: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the amount attributable to employment with the state shall also include interest as provided for in RCW 50.44.020.

Sec. 12. Section 13, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.29.040 are each amended to read as follows:

For the rate year 1971 and each rate year thereafter an annual decrease quotient factor and a benefit charge-back factor shall be computed for each qualified employer, each to be determined as provided in subsections (1) and (2) hereof respectively:

(1) To determine a qualified employer's average annual decrease quotient his payroll for the three experience rating years immediately preceding the computation date shall be listed in chronological order. The first annual decrease quotient shall be obtained by dividing any decrease in his payroll between the first and second of his experience rating years by the payroll for the first of such years, the division being carried to the fourth decimal place, with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. The second annual decrease quotient shall be obtained by dividing any decrease in his payroll between the second and third of the listed experience rating years by the payroll for the second listed year, the division being carried to the fourth decimal place, with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. The employer's average annual decrease quotient shall be obtained by adding his first and second decrease quotients, if any, and dividing by two. The employer's average annual decrease quotient shall determine the point value to be assigned to such employer as his annual decrease quotient factor in accordance with the following schedule.

The annual decrease quotient of a qualified employer who has payrolls for fewer than three experience rating years shall be obtained by dividing any decrease of the employer's payroll in the experience rating year immediately preceding the computation date from the payroll in the preceding experience rating year by the amount of the payroll in such preceding experience rating year, such division being carried to the fourth decimal place, with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. This annual decrease quotient shall be deemed to be his average annual decrease quotient and shall determine the point value to be assigned to such employer as his annual decrease quotient factor in accordance with the following schedule:

Annual Decrease Quotient	Point Value
0.0000-0.0124	10
0.0125-0.0249	9

(2) The charge-back ratio for a qualified employer shall be the quotient obtained by dividing the total benefits charged to his account during the thirty-six consecutive month period immediately preceding the computation date by his payroll for the same thirty-six month period as reported ((not later than August 31 immediately following the computation)) by the cut-off date, except that the charge-back ratio of any qualified employer whose account has been chargeable for a period of fewer than thirty-six months immediately prior to the computation date shall be the quotient obtained by dividing total benefits charged to his account, prior to the computation date, by his payroll set forth as follows: The payroll shall be that reported by ((August 31 immediately following the computation)) the cut-off date, for the period beginning with the first day of the second calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which he became liable, and through the end of the calendar quarter immediately preceding the computation date. The charge-back ratios shall be extended to four decimal places, with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. The charge-back ratios so obtained shall determine the point value to be assigned each employer as his charge-back factor in accordance with the following schedule:

Sec. 13. Section 15, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.29.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Effective January 1, 1971, predecessor and successor employer contribution rates shall be computed in the following manner:

(1) If the successor is an employer at the time of the transfer, his contribution rate shall remain unchanged for the remainder of the rate year in which the transfer occurs.

(2) The contribution rate on any payroll retained by a predecessor employer shall remain unchanged for the remainder of the rate year in which the transfer occurs.

(3) If the successor is not an employer at the time of the transfer, he shall pay contributions for the remainder of the rate year in which the transfer occurs at the rate assigned to the predecessor employer.

(4) If the successor is not an employer at the time of the transfer and simultaneously acquires the business or a portion of the business of two or more employers in different rate classes, his rate from the date the transfer occurred until the end of the rate year in which such transfer occurred shall be ((the same as the highest rate assigned to one of the predecessors)) a recomputed rate based on the combined experience of his predecessors as of the cut-off date for that rate year.

(5) In all cases, from and after January 1, following the transfer, the successor's contribution rate for each rate year shall be based on his experience with payrolls and benefits combined with the experience of his predecessor or predecessors, as of the regular computation date for that rate year.

(6) In all cases, from and after January 1 following the transfer, the predecessor's contribution rate for each rate year shall be based on his experience with payrolls and benefits, as of the regular computation date for that rate year, excluding therefrom such experience as was credited to the successor or successors under other provisions of this title: PROVIDED, That if all of the predecessor's experience with payrolls and benefits is transferred to a successor or successors the predecessor shall not be a qualified employer within the meaning of RCW 50.29.010 until his account following the date of the transfer has been chargeable with benefits throughout not less than thirty-six consecutive months immediately preceding the computation date.

Sec. 14. Section 16, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.29.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Within a reasonable time after the computation date, each employer shall be notified of the total amount of benefits charged to his account during the twelve-month period immediately preceding the computation date and, upon request, the amount of such charges with respect to each individual receiving unemployment benefits charged to his account.

Within a reasonable time after the computation date each employer shall be notified of his rate of contribution as determined for the succeeding rate year.

At the time of mailing rate notices any employer who, prior to the cut-off date has acquired all or substantially all of the operating assets, or has acquired an operating department, section, division, or any substantial portion of the business or assets, of any employer who was not a qualified employer as defined in RCW 50.29.010 because of having failed to pay all contributions required under this title by the cut-off date, shall be furnished a special delinquency statement showing the amount unpaid and the rate of contribution to which such successor employer will be entitled if the amount is paid within twenty days.

Any employer dissatisfied with the benefit charges made to his account or with his determined rate may file a request for review and redetermination with the commissioner within thirty days of the mailing of the notice to the employer, showing the reason for such request. Should such request for review and redetermination be denied, the employer may, within ten days of the mailing of such notice of denial, file with the appeal tribunal a petition for hearing which shall be heard in the same manner as a petition for denial of refund. The appellate procedure prescribed by this title for further appeal shall apply to all denials of review and redetermination under this section.

Sec. 15. Section 125, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any decision of the commissioner involving a review of an appeal tribunal decision, in the absence of ((an appeal)) a petition therefrom as provided ((by this title)) in RCW 34.04.130, shall become final thirty days after ((the date of mailing written notification thereof and judicial review thereof shall be permitted only after any party claiming to be aggrieved thereby has exhausted his remedies provided in this title for hearing by an appeal tribunal and for review of the appeal tribunal's decision by the commissioner)) service. The commissioner shall be deemed to be a party to any judicial action involving any such decision and shall be represented in any such judicial action by the attorney general.

Sec. 16. Section 128, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 119, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.32.120 are each amended to read as follows:

((Within thirty days after any commissioner's decision, involving review of an appeal tribunal's decision, has been communicated to any interested party, such interested party may appeal to the superior court of the county of his residence, and such appeal shall be heard as a case in equity, but upon such appeal only such issues of law may be raised as were properly included in the hearing before the appeal tribunal. The proceedings of every such appeal shall be informal and summary, but full opportunity to be heard upon the issues of law shall be had before judgment is pronounced. Such appeal shall be perfected by serving a notice of appeal on the commissioner personally, by personal service, or by mailing a copy thereof to the commissioner, and by filing the notice of appeal together with proof of service thereof with the clerk of the court and by complying with the requirements of this title relating to undertakings on appeal. The service and the filing together with proof of service of the notice of appeal and compliance with the provisions of this title relating to undertakings on appeal all within thirty days; shall be jurisdictional. The commissioner shall within twenty days after receipt of such notice of appeal serve and file his notice of appearance upon appellant or his attorney of record and such appeal shall thereupon be deemed at issue. The commissioner shall serve upon the appellant and file with the clerk of the court before hearing; a certified copy of his complete record of the administrative proceedings which shall, upon being so filed, become the record in such case. Appeal shall lie from the judgment of the superior court to the supreme court or the court of appeals as in other civil cases.)

Judicial review of a decision of the commissioner involving the review of an appeals tribunal decision may be had only in accordance with the procedural requirements of RCW 34.04.130.

Sec. 17. Section 129, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 120, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.32.130 are each amended to read as follows:

No bond of any kind shall be required of any individual ((appealing to the superior court or the supreme court or the court of appeals)) seeking judicial review from a commissioner's decision affecting such individual's application for initial determination or claim for waiting period credit or for benefits.

No ((appeal from a)) commissioner's decision ((by any other interested party shall be deemed to be perfected nor shall the court have jurisdiction thereof unless within the thirty day appeal period provided by this title for service and filing of notice of appeal the appellant shall first have deposited with the commissioner the sum theretofore determined by the commissioner to be due from such appellant; if any; together with interest thereon; if any; and in addition thereto shall have filed with the commissioner an undertaking in such amount and with such sureties as the superior court shall approve to the effect that appellant will pay all costs which may be adjudged against him in the prosecution of such appeal. At the option of the appellant such undertaking may be in a sum sufficient to guarantee payment of the amount previously determined by the commissioner to be due from the appellant; if any; together with interest; if any; in addition to an amount approved by the court as sufficient to pay all costs which may be adjudged against appellant in prosecution of such appeal; in which event the appellant shall not be required to deposit any sum with the commissioner as a condition precedent to the taking of an appeal to the superior court. In the event of an appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals; a deposit or undertaking shall be required of the appellant guaranteeing payment of all sums for which appellant may be adjudged liable; including costs. Such deposit or undertaking shall be approved by the superior court and filed with either the clerk of the supreme court or the court of appeals within the time allowed for appeal in civil cases. The jurisdictional requirements of this section are in addition to the provisions of this title relating to the service and filing of a notice of appeal)) shall be stayed by a petition for judicial review unless the petitioning employer shall first deposit an undertaking in an amount theretofore deemed by the commissioner to be due, if any, from the petitioning employer, together with interest thereon, if any, with the commissioner or in the registry of the court; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this section shall not be deemed to authorize a stay in the payment of benefits to an individual when such individual has been held entitled thereto by a decision of the commissioner which decision either affirms, reverses, or modifies a decision of an appeals tribunal.

Sec. 18. Section 130, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.32.140 are each amended to read as follows:

((Appeals)) RCW 34.04.130 to the contrary notwithstanding, petitions to the superior court from decisions of the commissioner dealing with the applications or claims relating to benefit payments which were filed outside of this state with an authorized representative of the commissioner shall be ((taken to)) filed with the superior court of Thurston county which shall have the ((sole jurisdiction)) original venue of such appeals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is hereby added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For the purposes of liability for, collection of, and assessment of contributions, wages shall be deemed paid when such wages are contractually due but are unpaid because of the refusal or inability of the employer to make such payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Section 47.64.050, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.64.050 are each hereby repealed.

Passed the House March 9, 1973.

[Substitute House Bill No. 429]

STATE-WIDE BASE MAPPING--COORDINATED SYSTEM

AN ACT Relating to state-wide base mapping; and adding a new chapter to Title 58 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. It is the intent of the legislature to establish a coordinated system of state base maps to assist all levels of government to more effectively provide the information to meet their responsibilities for resource planning and management.

It is further the legislature's intent to eliminate duplication, to insure compatibility, and to create coordination through a uniform base which all agencies will use.

It is in the interest of all citizens in the state of Washington that a state base mapping system be established to make essential base maps available at cost to all users, both public and private.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The department of natural resources shall establish and maintain a state base mapping system. The standards for the state base mapping system shall be:

(1) A series of fifteen minute United States geological survey quadrangle map separates at a scale of one to 48,000 (one inch equals 4,000 feet) covering the entire state;

(2) A series of seven and one-half minute United States geological survey quadrangle map separates at a scale of one to 24,000 (one inch equals 2,000 feet) for urban areas; including but not limited to those identified as urban by the state highway department for the United States department of commerce, bureau of public roads.

All features and symbols added to the quadrangle separates shall meet as nearly as is practical national map accuracy standards and specifications as defined by the United States geological survey for their fifteen minute and seven and one-half minute quadrangle map separates.

Each quadrangle shall be revised by the department of natural resources as necessary to reflect current conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any state agency purchasing or acquiring United States geological survey quadrangle map separates shall do so through the department of natural resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of natural resources shall be the primary depository of all United States geological survey quadrangle map separates for state agencies: PROVIDED, That any state agency may maintain duplicate copies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) All United States geological survey quadrangle map separates shall be available at cost to all state agencies, local agencies, the federal government, and any private individual or company through duplication and purchase.

The department shall coordinate all requests for the use of United States geological survey quadrangle map separates and shall provide advice on how to best use the system.

(2) The department shall maintain a catalogue showing all United States geological survey quadrangle map separates available. The department shall also catalogue information describing additional separates or products created by users. Copies of maps made for any state or local agency shall be available to any other state or local agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 58 RCW.

It is further the legislature's intent to eliminate duplication, to insure compatibility, and to create coordination through a uniform base which all agencies will use.

Passed the House March 9, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

[House Bill No. 444]

MOTOR VEHICLE FUEL TAX--ALLOCATIONS-- CITY STREET USE

AN ACT Relating to motor vehicle fuel tax; and amending section 82.36.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 24, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.36.020.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 82.36.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 24, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 82.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Every distributor shall pay, in addition to any other taxes provided by law, an excise tax to the director of nine cents for each gallon of motor vehicle fuel sold, distributed, or used by him in the state as well as on each gallon upon which he has assumed liability for payment of the tax under the provisions of RCW 82.36.100: PROVIDED, That under such regulations as the director may prescribe sales or distribution of motor vehicle fuel may be made by one licensed distributor to another licensed distributor free of the tax. In the computation of the tax, one-quarter of one percent of the net gallonage otherwise taxable shall be deducted by the distributor before computing the tax due, on account of the losses sustained through handling. The tax herein imposed shall be collected and paid to the state but once in respect to any motor vehicle fuel. An invoice shall be rendered by a distributor to a purchaser for each distribution of motor vehicle fuel.

The proceeds of the nine cents excise tax collected on the net gallonage after the deduction provided for herein shall be distributed as follows:

(1) Seven cents shall be distributed between the state, cities, counties, and Puget Sound ferry operations account in the motor vehicle fund under the provisions of RCW 46.68.090 and 46.68.100 as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That from July 1, 1972 through June 30, 1976, six and seven-eighths cents shall be distributed between the state, cities, counties, and Puget Sound ferry operations account in the motor vehicle fund under the provisions of RCW 46.68.090 and 46.68.100 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) Five-eighths of one cent shall be distributed to the state and expended pursuant to RCW 46.68.150.

(3) Five-eighths of one cent shall be paid into the motor vehicle fund and credited to the urban arterial trust account created by RCW 47.26.080.

(4) One-quarter cent shall be paid into the motor vehicle fund and credited to the Puget Sound reserve account created by RCW 47.60.350: PROVIDED, That from July 1, 1972 through June 30, 1976, three-eighths of one cent shall be paid into the motor vehicle fund and credited to the Puget Sound reserve account created by RCW 47.60.350.

(5) One-half cent shall be distributed to the cities and towns directly and allocated between them as provided by RCW 46.68.110, subject to the provisions of RCW 35.76.050: PROVIDED, That the funds allocated to a city or town which are attributable to such one-half cent of the additional tax imposed by this 1961 amendatory act shall be used exclusively for the construction, improvement and repair of arterial highways and city streets as ~~((that))~~ those terms ~~((is))~~ are defined in RCW 46.04.030 and 46.04.120, or for the payment of any municipal indebtedness which may be incurred after June 12, 1963 in the construction, improvement and repair of arterial highways and city streets as ~~((that))~~ those terms ~~((is))~~ are defined in RCW 46.04.030 and 46.04.120. All such sums shall first be subject to proper deductions for refunds and costs of collection as provided in

Passed the House March 9, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

CHAPTER 161

[House Bill No. 483]

CONTRACTORS' REGISTRATION--EXEMPTIONS, ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS

AN ACT Relating to registration of contractors; amending section 9, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 3, chapter 126, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.27.090; and adding a new section to chapter 18.27 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 9, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 3, chapter 126, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.27.090 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to:

(1) An authorized representative of the United States government, the state of Washington, or any incorporated city, town, county, township, irrigation district, reclamation district or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of this state;

(2) Officers of a court when they are acting within the scope of their office;

(3) Public utilities operating under the regulations of the public service commission in construction, maintenance or development work incidental to their own business;

(4) Any construction, repair or operation incidental to the discovering or producing of petroleum or gas, or the drilling, testing, abandoning or other operation of any petroleum or gas well or any surface or underground mine or mineral deposit when performed by an owner or lessee;

(5) The sale or installation of any finished products, materials or articles of merchandise which are not actually fabricated into and do not become a permanent fixed part of a structure;

(6) Any construction, alteration, improvement or repair of personal property;

(7) Any construction, alteration, improvement, or repair carried on within the limits and boundaries of any site or reservation under the legal jurisdiction of the federal government;

(9) Any work or operation on one undertaking or project by one or more contracts, the aggregate contract price of which for labor and materials and all other items is less than two hundred-fifty dollars, such work or operations being considered as of a casual, minor, or inconsequential nature. The exemption prescribed in this subsection does not apply in any instance wherein the work or construction is only a part of a larger or major operation, whether undertaken by the same or a different contractor, or in which a division of the operation is made into contracts of amounts less than two hundred-fifty dollars for the purpose of evasion of this chapter or otherwise. The exemption prescribed in this subsection does not apply to a person who advertises or puts out any sign or card or other device which might indicate to the public that he is a contractor, or that he is qualified to engage in the business of contractor;

(10) Any construction or operation incidental to the construction and repair of irrigation and drainage ditches of regularly constituted irrigation districts or reclamation districts; or to farming, dairying, agriculture, viticulture, horticulture, or stock or poultry raising; or to clearing or other work upon land in rural districts for fire prevention purposes; except when any of the above work is performed by a registered contractor;

(11) An owner who contracts for a project with a registered contractor;

(12) Any person working on his own property, whether occupied by him or not, and any person working on his residence, whether owned by him or not but this exemption shall not apply to any person otherwise covered by this chapter who constructs an improvement on his own property with the intention and for the purpose of selling the improved property;

(13) Owners of commercial properties who use their own employees to do maintenance, repair and alteration work in or upon their own properties;

(14) A licensed architect or civil or professional engineer acting solely in his professional capacity, ((an electrician licensed under the laws of the state of Washington, or a plumber licensed under the laws of the state of Washington or licensed by a political subdivision of the state of Washington while operating within the boundaries of such political subdivision)) an electrical contractor as licensed under the laws of the state of Washington and chapter 19.28 RCW. The exemption provided in this subsection is applicable only when the licensee is operating within the scope of his license;

(15) Any person who engages in the activities herein regulated as an employee of a registered contractor with wages as his sole compensation or as an employee with wages as his sole compensation;

(16) Contractors on highway projects who have been prequalified as required by chapter 13 of the Laws of 1961, RCW 47.28.070, with the highway department to perform highway construction, reconstruction or maintenance work.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 18.27 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is the purpose of this chapter to afford protection to the public from unreliable, fraudulent, financially irresponsible, or incompetent contractors.

Passed the House March 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 10, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

CHAPTER 162

INSURANCE

AN ACT Relating to insurance; amending section .12.03, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.12.030; amending section .12.04, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.12.040; amending section .12.06, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.12.060; amending section .12.15, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 13, chapter 195, Laws of 1963 and RCW 48.12.150; amending section .23.35, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 20, chapter 195, Laws of 1963 and RCW 48.23.350; and amending section .23.36, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 1, chapter 190, Laws of 1951 and RCW 48.23.360.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section .12.03, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

In any determination of the financial condition of an insurer, liabilities to be charged against its assets shall include:

- (1) The amount of its capital stock outstanding, if any; and
- (2) The amount, estimated consistent with the provisions of this chapter, necessary to pay all of its unpaid losses and claims incurred on or prior to the date of statement, whether reported or unreported, together with the expense of adjustment or settlement thereof; and

(3) With reference to life and disability insurance, and annuity contracts,

(a) the amount of reserves on life insurance policies and annuity contracts in force (including disability benefits for both active and disabled lives, and accidental death benefits, in or supplementary thereto) and disability insurance, valued according to the tables of mortality, tables of morbidity, rates of interest, and methods adopted pursuant to this chapter which are applicable thereto; and

(b) ~~((reserves for disability benefits; for both active and disabled lives;~~

~~(c) reserves for accidental death benefits; and~~

~~(d)) any additional reserves which may be required by the commissioner, consistent with practice formulated or approved by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, on account of such insurances; and~~

(4) With reference to insurances other than those specified in subdivision (3) of this section, and other than title insurance, the amount of reserves equal to the unearned portions of the gross premiums charged on policies in force, computed in accordance with this chapter; and

(5) Taxes, expenses, and other obligations accrued at the date of the statement; and

(6) Any additional reserve set up by the insurer for a specific liability purpose or required by the commissioner consistent with practices adopted or approved by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

(1) With reference to insurances against loss or damage to property, except as provided in RCW 48.12.050, and with reference to all general casualty insurances, ~~((disability insurance except as provided in RCW 48.12.060))~~ and surety insurances, every insurer shall maintain an unearned premium reserve on all policies in force.

(2) The commissioner may require that such reserve shall be equal to the unearned portions of the gross premiums in force after deducting authorized reinsurance, as computed on each respective risk from the policy's date of issue. If the commissioner does not so require, the portions of the gross premiums in force, less authorized reinsurance, to be held as a premium reserve, shall be computed according to the following table:

Term for which policy was written	Reserve for unearned premium
One year, or less	1/2
Two years	3/4

	Second year	1/4
Three years	First year	5/6
	Second year	1/2
	Third year	1/6
Four years	First year	7/8
	Second year	5/8
	Third year	3/8
	Fourth year	1/8
Five years	First year	9/10
	Second year	7/10
	Third year	1/2
	Fourth year	3/10
	Fifth year	1/10
Over five years.....	Pro rata

(3) In lieu of computation according to such table, all of such reserves may be computed, at the insurer's option, on a monthly pro rata basis.

(4) After adopting any one of the methods for computing such reserve an insurer shall not change methods without the commissioner's approval.

~~((1) The legal minimum standard for computing the active life reserve; including the unearned premium reserve; of noncancellable disability policies shall be based on Conference Modification of Class III Disability Experience with interest at not to exceed three and one-half percent per annum on the full preliminary term basis:~~

~~{2} For policies with a waiting period of less than three months or providing benefits at ages beyond the limits of Conference Modification of Class III Disability Experience; the tables shall be extended to cover the provisions of such policies on such basis as the commissioner may approve:~~

~~{3} The reserve for losses under noncancellable disability policies shall be based on Conference Modification of Class III Disability Experience; except that for claims of less than twenty-seven months duration the reserve may be taken as equivalent to the prospective claim payments for three and one-half times the elapsed period of disability; but in no case shall the reserve be less than the equivalent of seven weeks claim payments:~~

~~{4} The commissioner shall modify the application of the tables and requirements prescribed in this section to policies or to claims arising under policies in accordance with the waiting period contained in such policies and in accordance with any limitation as to the time for which indemnity is payable:)) For all disability insurance policies the insurer shall maintain an active life reserve~~ which shall place a sound value on its liabilities under such policies and be not less than the reserve according to appropriate standards set forth in regulations issued by the commissioner and, in no event, less in the aggregate than the pro rata gross unearned premiums for such policies.

Sec. 4. Section .12.15, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 13, chapter 195, Laws of 1963 and RCW 48.12.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section shall be known as the standard valuation law.

(2) Annual valuation: The commissioner shall annually value, or cause to be valued, the reserve liabilities (hereinafter called reserves) for all outstanding life insurance policies and annuity and pure endowment contracts of every life insurer doing business in this state, except that in the case of an alien insurer such valuation shall be limited to its insurance transactions in the United States, and may certify the amount of any such reserves, specifying the mortality table or tables, rate or rates of interest and methods (net level premium method or others) used in the calculation of such reserves. In calculating such reserves, the commissioner may use group methods and approximate averages for fractions of a year or otherwise. He may accept, in his discretion, the insurer's calculation of such reserves. In lieu of the valuation of the reserves herein required of any foreign or alien insurer, he may accept any valuation made, or caused to be made, by the insurance supervisory official of any state or other jurisdiction when such valuation complies with the minimum standard herein provided and if the official of such state or jurisdiction accepts as sufficient and valid for all legal purposes the certificate of valuation of the commissioner when such certificate states the valuation to have been made in a specified manner according to which the aggregate reserves would be at least as large as if they had been computed in the manner prescribed by the law of that state or jurisdiction.

(3) Minimum valuation standard:

(a) The minimum standard for the valuation of all such policies and contracts issued prior to the operative date of RCW 48.23.350 shall be as follows:

For policies issued prior to the operative date no standard of valuation for ordinary policies, whether on the net level premium, preliminary term, or select and ultimate reserve basis, shall be less than that determined upon such basis according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half percent interest; except, that when the preliminary term basis is used it shall not exceed one year. The commissioner may vary the standard of valuation in particular cases of invalid lives and other extra hazards, provided, that the interest rate used is not greater than three and one-half percent.

Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) (b) (ii) of this section the legal minimum standard for the valuation of annuities issued on or after January 1, 1912, and prior to the operative date of RCW 48.23.350, shall be McClintock's Table of Mortality Among Annuitants, with interest at three and one-half percent per annum, but annuities deferred ten or more years and written in connection with life or term insurance may be valued on the same mortality table from which the consideration or premiums were computed, with interest not higher than three and one-half percent per annum.

The legal minimum standard for the valuation of industrial policies issued on or after the first day of January, 1912, and prior to the operative date of RCW 48.23.350, shall be the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half percent per annum; except, that any life insurer may voluntarily value such industrial policies according to the Standard Industrial Mortality Table or the Substandard Industrial Mortality Table.

The legal minimum standard for the valuation of group life insurance policies under which premium rates are not guaranteed for a period in excess of five years shall be, at the option of the life insurer issuing such policies, either the American Men Ultimate Table of Mortality, the Commissioners 1941 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table, or any other table approved by the commissioner, with interest at three and one-half percent per annum.

(b) (i) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) (b) (ii) of this section the minimum standard for the valuation of all such policies and contracts issued on or after the operative date of RCW 48.23.350 shall be the Commissioners Reserve Valuation Method defined in subsection (4) of this section, three and one-half percent interest or in the case of policies and contracts, other than annuity and pure endowment contracts, issued on or after the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act, four percent interest, and the following tables:

~~((1))~~ (A) For all ordinary policies of life insurance issued on the standard basis, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies,--the Commissioners 1941 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table for such policies issued prior to the operative date of RCW 48.23.350 (5a), and the Commissioners 1958 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table for such policies issued on or after such operative date: PROVIDED, That for any category of such policies issued on female risks on or after July 1, 1957, modified net premiums and present values, referred to in subsection (4) of this section, may be calculated according to an age not more than three years younger than the actual age of the insured.

~~((i+i))~~ (B) For all industrial life insurance policies issued on the standard basis, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies,--the 1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table for such policies issued prior to the operative date of RCW 48.23.350(5b), and the Commissioners 1961 Standard Industrial Mortality Table for such policies issued on or after such operative date.

~~((i+i))~~ (C) For individual annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies,--the 1937 Standard Annuity Mortality Table or, at the option of the insurer, the Annuity Mortality Table for 1949, Ultimate, or any modification of either of these tables approved by the commissioner.

~~((i+v))~~ (D) For group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies,--the Group Annuity Mortality Table for 1951, any modification of such table approved by the commissioner, or, at the option of the insurer, any of the tables or modifications of tables specified for individual annuity and pure endowment contracts.

~~((i+v))~~ (E) For total and permanent disability benefits in or supplementary to ordinary policies or contracts,--for policies or contracts issued on or after January 1, 1966, the tables of Period 2 disablement rates and the 1930 to 1950 termination rates of the 1952 Disability Study of the Society of Actuaries, with due regard to the type of benefit; for policies or contracts issued on or after January 1, 1961, and prior to January 1, 1966, either such tables or, at the option of the insurer, the Class (3) Disability Table (1926); and for policies issued prior to January 1, 1961, the Class (3) Disability Table (1926). Any such table shall, for active lives, be combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves for life insurance policies.

~~((i+v))~~ (F) For accidental death benefits in or supplementary to policies,--for policies issued on or after January 1, 1966, the 1959 Accidental Death Benefits Table; for policies issued on or after January 1, 1961, and prior to January 1, 1966, either such table or, at the option of the insurer, the Inter-Company Double Indemnity Mortality Table; and for policies issued prior to January 1, 1961, the Inter-Company Double Indemnity Mortality Table. Either table shall be combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves for life insurance policies.

~~((i+v))~~ (G) For group life insurance, life insurance issued on the substandard basis and other special benefits,--such tables as may be approved by the commissioner.

(ii) The minimum standard for the valuation of all individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued on or after the operative date of this subsection and for all annuities and pure endowments purchased on or after such operative date under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, shall be the commissioners reserve valuation method defined in subsection (4) of this section and the following tables and interest rates:

(A) For individual annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, the 1971 Individual Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the commissioner, and six percent interest for single premium immediate annuity contracts, and four percent interest for all other individual annuity and pure endowment contracts,

(B) For group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts the 1971 Group Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the commissioner, and six percent interest.

After the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date before January 1, 1979, which shall be the operative date of this subsection for such insurer, provided that an insurer may elect a different operative date for individual annuity and pure endowment contracts from that elected for group annuity and pure endowment contracts. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this subsection for such insurer shall be January 1, 1979.

(4) Commissioners Reserve Valuation Method: Reserves according to the Commissioners Reserve Valuation Method, for the life insurance and endowment benefits of policies providing for a uniform amount of insurance and requiring the payment of uniform premiums shall be the excess, if any, of the present value, at the date of valuation, of such future guaranteed benefits provided for by such policies, over the then present value of any future modified net premiums therefor. The modified net premiums for any such policy shall be such uniform percentage of the respective contract premiums for such benefits (excluding extra premiums on a substandard policy) that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such modified net premiums shall be equal to the sum of the then present value of such benefits provided for by the policy and the excess of (a) over (b) as follows:

(a) A net level annual premium equal to the present value, at the date of issue, of such benefits provided for after the first policy year, divided by the present value, at the date of issue, of an annuity of one per annum payable on the first and each subsequent anniversary of such policy on which a premium falls due; provided, however, that such net level annual premium shall not exceed the net level annual premium on the nineteen-year premium whole life plan for insurance of the same amount at an age one year higher than the age at issue of such policy.

(b) A net one-year term premium for such benefits provided for in the first policy year.

Reserves according to the Commissioners Reserve Valuation Method for (1) life insurance policies providing for a varying amount of insurance or requiring the payment of varying premiums, (2) annuity and pure endowment contracts, (3) disability and accidental death benefits in all policies and contracts, and (4) all other benefits, except life insurance and endowment benefits in life insurance policies, shall be calculated by a method consistent with the principles of this ((paragraph)) subsection.

(5) Minimum aggregate reserves: In no event shall an insurer's aggregate reserves for all life insurance policies, excluding disability and accidental death benefits, issued on or after the operative date of RCW 48.23.350, be less than the aggregate reserves calculated in accordance with the method set forth in subsection (4) and the mortality table or tables and rate or rates of interest used in calculating nonforfeiture benefits for such policies.

(6) Optional reserve bases: Reserves for all policies and contracts issued prior to the operative date of RCW 48.23.350 may be calculated, at the option of the insurer, according to any standards which produce greater aggregate reserves for all such policies and contracts than the minimum reserves required by the laws in effect immediately prior to such date.

For any category of policies, contracts or benefits specified in subsection (3) of this section, issued on or after the operative date of RCW 48.23.350, reserves may be calculated, at the option of the insurer, according to any standard or standards which produce greater aggregate reserves for such category than those calculated according to the minimum standard herein provided, but the rate or rates of interest used shall not be higher than the corresponding rate or rates of interest used in calculating any nonforfeiture benefits provided for therein: PROVIDED, That reserves for participating life insurance policies issued on or after the operative date of RCW 48.23.350 may, with the consent of the commissioner, be calculated according to a rate of interest lower than the rate of interest used in calculating the nonforfeiture benefits in such policies, with the further proviso that if such lower rate differs from the rate used in the calculation of the nonforfeiture benefits by more than one-half percent the insurer issuing such policies shall file with the commissioner a plan providing for such equitable increases, if any, in the cash surrender values and nonforfeiture benefits in such policies as the commissioner shall approve.

Any such insurer which at any time had adopted any standard of valuation producing greater aggregate reserves than those calculated according to the minimum standard herein provided may, with the approval of the commissioner, adopt any lower standard of valuation, but not lower than the minimum herein provided.

(7) Deficiency reserve: If the gross premium charged by any life insurer on any policy or contract is less than the net premium for the policy or contract according to the mortality table, rate of interest and method used in calculating the reserve thereon, there shall be maintained on such policy or contract a deficiency reserve in addition to all other reserves required by law. For each such policy or contract the deficiency reserve shall be the present value, according to such standard, of an annuity of the difference between such net premium and the premium charged for such policy or contract, running for the remainder of the premium-paying period.

Sec. 5. Section .23.35, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 20, chapter 195, Laws of 1963 and RCW 48.23.350 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section shall be known as the standard nonforfeiture law.

(2) Nonforfeiture provisions--Life: In the case of policies issued on or after the operative date of this section as defined in subsection (8), no policy of life insurance, except as stated in subsection (7), shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it shall contain in substance the following provisions, or corresponding provisions which in the opinion of the commissioner are at least as favorable to the defaulting or surrendering policyholder:

(a) That, in the event of default in any premium payment, the insurer will grant, upon proper request not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on a plan stipulated in the policy, effective as of such due date, of such value as may be hereinafter specified.

(b) That, upon surrender of the policy within sixty days after the due date of any premium payment in default after premiums have been paid for at least three full years in the case of ordinary insurance or five full years in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will pay, in lieu of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be hereinafter specified.

(c) That a specified paid-up nonforfeiture benefit shall become effective as specified in the policy unless the person entitled to make such election elects another available option not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default.

(d) That, if the policy shall have become paid-up by completion of all premium payments or if it is continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits which become effective on or after the third policy anniversary in the case of ordinary insurance or the fifth policy anniversary in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will pay, upon surrender of the policy within thirty days after any policy anniversary, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be hereinafter specified.

(e) A statement of the mortality table and interest rate used in calculating the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy, together with a table showing the cash surrender value, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, if any, available under the policy on each policy anniversary either during the first twenty policy years or during the term of the policy, whichever is shorter, such values and benefits to be calculated upon the assumption that there are no dividends or paid-up additions credited to the policy and that there is no indebtedness to the insurer on the policy.

(f) A statement that the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy are not less than the minimum values and benefits required by or pursuant to the insurance law of this state; an explanation of the manner in which the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits are altered by the existence of any paid-up additions credited to the policy or any indebtedness to the insurer on the policy; if a detailed statement of the method of computation of the values and benefits shown in the policy is not stated therein, a statement that such method of computation has been filed with the insurance supervisory official of the state in which the policy is delivered; and a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender value and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy on any policy anniversary beyond the last anniversary for which such values and benefits are consecutively shown in the policy.

Any of the foregoing provisions or portions thereof not applicable by reason of the plan of insurance may, to the extent inapplicable, be omitted from the policy.

The insurer shall reserve the right to defer the payment of any cash surrender value for a period of six months after demand therefor with surrender of the policy.

(3) Cash surrender value--Life: Any cash surrender value available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due on any policy anniversary, whether or not required by subsection (2) of this section, shall be an amount not less than the excess, if any, of the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits which would have been provided for by the policy including any existing paid-up additions, if there had been no default, over the sum of (a) the then present value of the adjusted premiums as defined in subsections (5), (5a) and (5b) of this section corresponding to premiums which would have fallen due on and after such anniversary, and (b) the amount of any indebtedness to the insurer on account of or secured by the policy. Any cash surrender value available within thirty days after any policy anniversary under any policy paid-up by completion of all premium payments or any policy continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits whether or not required by such subsection (2), shall be an amount not less than the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy including any existing paid-up additions, decreased by any indebtedness to the insurer on account of or secured by the policy.

(4) Paid-up nonforfeiture benefit--Life: Any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due on any policy anniversary shall be such that its present value as of such anniversary shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value then provided for by the policy or, if none is provided for, that cash surrender value which would have been required by this section in the absence of the condition that premiums shall have been paid for at least a specified period.

(5) The adjusted premium--Life: Except as provided in the third paragraph of this subsection, the adjusted premiums for any policy shall be calculated on an annual basis and shall be such uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding extra premiums on a substandard policy, that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such adjusted premiums shall be equal to the sum of (a) the then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy; (b) two percent of the amount of insurance, if the insurance be uniform in amount, or of the equivalent uniform amount, as hereinafter defined, if the amount of insurance varies with duration of the policy; (c) forty percent of the adjusted premium for the first policy year; (d) twenty-five percent of either the adjusted premium for the first policy year or the adjusted premium for a whole life policy of the same uniform or equivalent uniform amount with uniform premiums for the whole of life issued at the same age for the same amount of insurance, whichever is less: PROVIDED, That in applying the percentages specified in (c) and (d) above, no adjusted premium shall be deemed to exceed four percent of the amount of insurance or uniform amount equivalent thereto. Whenever the plan or term of a policy has been changed, either by request of the insured or automatically in accordance with the provisions of the policy, the date of inception of the changed policy for the purposes of determining a nonforfeiture benefit or cash surrender value shall be the date as of which the age of the insured is determined for the purpose of the changed policy.

In the case of a policy providing an amount of insurance varying with duration of the policy, the equivalent uniform amount thereof for the purpose of this subsection shall be deemed to be the uniform amount of insurance provided by an otherwise similar policy, containing the same endowment benefit or benefits, if any, issued at the same age and for the same term, the amount of which does not vary with duration and the benefits under which have the same present value at the date of issue as the benefits under the policy, provided, however, that in the case of a policy, providing a varying amount of insurance issued on the life of a child under age ten, the equivalent uniform amount may be computed as though the amount of insurance provided by the policy prior to the attainment of age ten were the amount provided by such policy at age ten.

The adjusted premiums for any policy providing term insurance benefits by rider or supplemental policy provision shall be equal to (i) the adjusted premiums for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such term insurance benefits, increased, during the period for which premiums for such term insurance benefits are payable, by (ii) the adjusted premiums for such term insurance, the foregoing items (i) and (ii) being calculated separately and as specified in the first two paragraphs of this subsection except that, for the purposes of (b), (c) and (d) of the first such paragraph, the amount of insurance or equivalent uniform amount of insurance used in the calculation of the adjusted premiums referred to in (ii) shall be equal to the excess of the corresponding amount determined for the entire policy over the amount used in the calculation of the adjusted premiums in (i).

Except as otherwise provided in subsections (5a) and (5b) of this section, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this section shall for all policies of ordinary insurance be calculated on the basis of the Commissioners 1941 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table: PROVIDED, That for any category of ordinary insurance issued on female risks on or after July 1, 1957, adjusted premiums and present values may be calculated according to an age not more than three years younger than the actual age of the insured, and such calculations for all policies of industrial insurance shall be made on the basis of the 1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table. All calculations shall be made on the basis of the rate of interest, not exceeding three and one-half percent per annum, specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits: PROVIDED, That in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than one hundred and thirty percent of the rates of mortality according to such applicable table: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the insurer and approved by the commissioner.

(5a) In the case of ordinary policies issued on or after the operative date of this subsection (5a) as defined herein, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this section shall be calculated on the basis of the Commissioners 1958 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table and the rate of interest, not exceeding three and one-half percent per annum, specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, provided, that such rate of interest shall not exceed three and one-half percent per annum except that a rate of interest not exceeding four percent per annum may be used for policies issued on or after the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act, and provided that for any category of ordinary insurance issued on female risks, adjusted premiums and present values may be calculated according to an age not more than three years younger than the actual age of the insured. Provided, however, that in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the Commissioners 1958 Extended Term Insurance Table. Provided, further, That for insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the insurer and approved by the commissioner.

On or after June 11, 1959, any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this subsection, either as to designated ordinary policies or as to all ordinary policies issued by it, after a specified date before January 1, 1966. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date of this subsection as to such policies for such insurer), this subsection shall become operative with respect to such policies thereafter issued by such insurer. If an insurer makes no such election, or so elects to have this subsection apply as to certain of its ordinary policies only, the operative date of this subsection as to all of the ordinary policies issued by such insurer (other than those policies as to which the insurer has elected an earlier operative date as hereinabove provided) shall be January 1, 1966.

(5b) In the case of industrial policies issued on or after the operative date of this subsection (5b) as defined herein, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this section shall be calculated on the basis of the Commissioners 1961 Standard Industrial Mortality Table and the rate of interest, not exceeding three and one-half percent per annum, specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits; PROVIDED, That such rate of interest shall not exceed three and one-half percent per annum except that a rate of interest not exceeding four percent per annum may be used for policies on or after the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the Commissioners 1961 Industrial Extended Term Insurance Table: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the insurer and approved by the commissioner.

After the effective date of this amendatory act of 1963, any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this subsection after a specified date before January 1, 1968. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date of this subsection for such insurer), this subsection shall become operative with respect to the industrial policies thereafter issued by such insurer. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this subsection for such insurer shall be January 1, 1968.

(6) Calculation of values--Life: Any cash surrender value and any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due at any time other than on the policy anniversary, shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of fractional premiums beyond the last preceding policy anniversary. All values referred to in subsections (3), (4), (5), (5a) and (5b) of this section may be calculated upon the assumption that any death benefit is payable at the end of the policy year of death. The net value of any paid-up additions, other than paid-up term additions, shall be not less than the dividends used to provide such additions. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, additional benefits payable (a) in the event of death or dismemberment by accident or accidental means, (b) in the event of total and permanent disability, (c) as reversionary annuity or deferred reversionary annuity benefits, (d) as term insurance benefits provided by a rider or supplemental policy provision to which, if issued as a separate policy, this section would not apply, (e) as term insurance on the life of a child or on the lives of children provided in a policy on the life of a parent of the child, if such term insurance expires before the child's age is twenty-six, is uniform in amount after the child's age is one, and has not become paid-up by reason of the death of a parent of the child, and (f) as other policy benefits additional to life insurance and endowment benefits, and premiums for all such additional benefits, shall be disregarded in ascertaining cash surrender values and nonforfeiture benefits required by this section, and no such additional benefits shall be required to be included in any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits.

(7) Exceptions: This section shall not apply to any reinsurance, group insurance, pure endowment, annuity or reversionary annuity contract, nor to any term policy of uniform amount, or renewal thereof, of fifteen years or less expiring before age sixty-six, for which uniform premiums are payable during the entire term of the policy, nor to any term policy of decreasing amount on which each adjusted premium, calculated as specified in subsections (5), (5a) and (5b) of this section, is less than the adjusted premium so calculated, on such fifteen year term policy issued at the same age and for the same initial amount of insurance, nor to any policy which shall be delivered outside this state through an agent or other representative of the insurer issuing the policy.

(8) Operative date: After the effective date of this section, any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date before July 1, 1948. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date for such insurer), this section shall become operative with respect to the policies thereafter issued by such insurer. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such insurer shall be July 1, 1948.

(1) Nonforfeiture benefits: Any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under any annuity or pure endowment contract pursuant to RCW 48.23.200, in the event of default in a consideration due on any contract anniversary shall be such that its present value as of such anniversary shall be not less than the excess, if any, of the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits (excluding any total disability benefits attached to such contracts) which would have been provided for by the contract including any existing paid-up additions, if there had been no default, over the sum of (a) the then present value of the net consideration defined in subsection (2) of this section corresponding to considerations which would have fallen due on and after such anniversary, and (b) the amount of any indebtedness to the company on the contract, including interest due or accrued. In determining the benefits referred to in this section and in calculating the net consideration referred to in such subsection (2), in the case of annuity contracts under which an election may be made to have annuity payments commence at optional dates, the annuity payments shall be deemed to commence at the latest date permitted by the contract for the commencement of such payments and the considerations shall be deemed to be payable until such date, which, however, shall not be later than the contract anniversary nearest the annuitant's seventieth birthday.

(2) Net considerations: The net considerations for any annuity or pure endowment contract referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall be calculated on an annual basis, shall be such that the present value thereof at date of issue of the annuity shall equal the then present value of the future benefits thereunder (excluding any total disability benefits attached to such contracts) and shall be not less than the following percentages of the respective considerations specified in the contracts for the respective contract years:

- First yearfifty percent
- Second and subsequent years ninety percent

PROVIDED, That in the case of participating annuity contracts the percentages hereinbefore specified may be decreased by five.

(3) Basis of calculation: All net considerations and present values for such contracts referred to in this section shall be calculated on the basis of the 1937 Standard Annuity Mortality Table ((for such table with reasonable adjustment of the age of the life or lives on which the contract is based)) OR, at the option of the insurer, the Annuity Mortality Table for 1949, Ultimate, or any modification of either of these tables approved by the commissioner, and the rate of interest, not exceeding three and one-half percent per annum, specified in the contract for calculating cash surrender values, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits; except that with respect to annuity and pure endowment contracts issued on or after the operative date of RCW 48.12.150(3)(b)(ii) for such contracts, such rate of interest may be as high as four percent per annum; PROVIDED, That if such rate of interest exceeds three and one-half percent per annum, all net considerations and present values for such contracts referred to in this section shall be calculated on the 1971 Individual Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the commissioner.

(4) Calculations on default: Any cash surrender value and any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, available under any such contract in the event of default in the payment of any consideration due at any time other than on the contract anniversary, shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of fractional considerations beyond the last preceding contract anniversary. All values herein referred to may be calculated upon the assumption that any death benefit is payable at the end of the contract year of death.

(5) Deferment of payment: If an insurer provides for the payment of a cash surrender value, it shall reserve the right to defer the payment of such value for a period of six months after demand therefor with surrender of the contract.

(6) Lump sum in lieu: Notwithstanding the requirements of this section, any deferred annuity contract may provide that if the annuity allowed under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit would be less than one hundred twenty dollars annually, the insurer may at its option grant a cash surrender value in lieu of such paid-up nonforfeiture benefit of such amount as may be required by subsection (3) of this section.

(7) Operative date: If no election is made by an insurer for an operative date prior to July 1, 1948, such date shall be the operative date for this section.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

CHAPTER 163

ESCROW OFFICER EXAMINEES--INSURANCE

AN ACT Relating to insurance; amending section 10, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.230; amending section .18.02, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 4, chapter 17, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 48.18.020; amending section 2, chapter 104, Laws of 1969 and RCW 48.18A.020; amending section 3, chapter 104, Laws of 1969 and RCW 48.18A.030; amending section 5, chapter 104, Laws of 1969 and RCW 48.18A.050; amending section 6, chapter 104, Laws of 1969 and RCW 48.18A.060; amending section .24.06, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 21, chapter 195, Laws of 1963 and RCW 48.24.060; amending section .24.07, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 86, Laws of 1963 and RCW 48.24.070; adding a new section to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.18 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.36 RCW; and repealing section .18.38, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.18.380.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 10, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.230 are each amended to read as follows:

No examination will be given unless the applicant has one year within the three years immediately preceding application of full time experience in the handling of escrow transactions or in comparable or allied fields, as may be determined from time to time by the escrow commission; and the applicant must be ~~((twenty-one))~~ eighteen years of age or older.

Completion of ~~((college level))~~ post high school educational courses of the nature and extent prescribed by the escrow commission may be substituted for the experience requirement.

Sec. 2. Section .18.02, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 4, chapter 17, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 48.18.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person eighteen years or older shall be considered of full legal age and may contract for or with respect to insurance. Any person seventeen years or younger shall be considered a minor for purposes of Title 48 RCW.

(2) A minor not less than fifteen years of age as at nearest birthday may, notwithstanding such minority, contract for life or disability insurance on his own life or body, for his own benefit or for the benefit of his father, mother, spouse, child, brother, sister, or grandparent, and may exercise all rights and powers with respect to or under the contract as though of full legal age, and may surrender his interest therein and give a valid discharge for any benefit accruing or money payable thereunder. The minor shall not, by reason of his minority, be entitled to rescind, avoid, or repudiate the contract, or any exercise of a right or privilege thereunder, except, that such minor, not otherwise emancipated, shall not be bound by any unperformed agreement to pay, by promissory note or otherwise any premium on any such insurance contract.

A person whose life is insured under a group insurance policy may, subject and pursuant to the terms of the policy, or pursuant to an arrangement between the insured, the group policyholder and the insurer, assign to any or all his spouse, children, parents, or a trust for the benefit of any or all of them, all or any part of his incidents of ownership, rights, title, and interests, both present and future, under such policy including specifically, but not by way of limitation, the right to designate a beneficiary or beneficiaries thereunder and the right to have an individual policy issued to him in case of termination of employment or of said group insurance policy. Such an assignment by the insured, made either before or after the effective date of this section, is valid for the purpose of vesting in the assignee, in accordance with any provisions included therein as to the time at which it is to be effective, all of such incidents of ownership, rights, title, and interests so assigned, but without prejudice to the insurer on account of any payment it may make or individual policy it may issue prior to receipt of notice of the assignment. This section acknowledges, declares, and codifies the existing right of assignment of interests under group insurance policies.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 104, Laws of 1969 and RCW 48.18A.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A domestic life insurer may, by or pursuant to resolution of its board of directors, establish one or more separate accounts, and may allocate thereto amounts ~~((to provide for annuities and other benefits))~~ (including without limitation proceeds applied under optional modes of settlement or under dividend options) to provide for life insurance or annuities (and other benefits incidental thereto), payable in fixed or variable amounts or both, subject to the following:

(1) The income, gains, and losses, realized or unrealized, from assets allocated to a separate account shall be credited to or charged against the account, without regard to other income, gains, or losses of the insurer.

(2) (a) Except as hereinafter provided, amounts allocated to any separate account and accumulations thereon may be invested and reinvested without regard to any requirements or limitations prescribed by the laws of this state governing the investments of life ~~((insurance companies))~~ insurers: PROVIDED, That to the extent that the ~~((company's))~~ insurer's reserve liability with regard to (i) benefits guaranteed as to dollar amount and duration, and (ii) funds guaranteed as to principal amount or stated rate of interest is maintained in any separate account, a portion of the assets of such separate account at least equal to such reserve liability shall be ~~((except as the commissioner may otherwise approve, invested in accordance with the laws of this state governing the investments of life insurance companies))~~ invested under such conditions as the commissioner may prescribe. The investments in such separate account or accounts shall not be taken into account in applying the investment limitations applicable to the investments of the ~~((company))~~ insurer.

(b) With respect to seventy-five percent of the market value of the total assets in a separate account no ~~((company))~~ insurer shall purchase or otherwise acquire the securities of any issuer, other than securities issued or guaranteed as to principal or interest by the United States, if immediately after such purchase or acquisition the market value of such investment, together with prior investments of such separate account in such security taken at market value, would exceed ten percent of the market value of the assets of ((said)) such separate account: PROVIDED, That the commissioner may waive such limitation if, in his opinion, such waiver will not render the operation of such separate account hazardous to the public or the policyholders in this state.

(c) ((No separate account shall be invested in the voting securities of a single issuer if such investment would result in the insurer owning an amount in excess of)) Unless otherwise permitted by law or approved by the commissioner, no insurer shall purchase or otherwise acquire for its separate accounts the voting securities of any issuer if as a result of such acquisition the insurer and its separate accounts, in the aggregate, will own more than ten percent of the total issued and outstanding voting securities of such issuer: PROVIDED, That the foregoing shall not apply with respect to securities held in separate accounts, the voting rights in which are exercisable only in accordance with instructions from persons having interests in such accounts.

(d) The limitations provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection shall not apply to the investment with respect to a separate account in the securities of an investment company registered under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940: PROVIDED, That the investments of such investment company shall comply in substance therewith.

(3) Unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, assets allocated to a separate account shall be valued at their market value on the date of valuation, or if there is no readily available market, then as provided under the terms of the contract or the rules or other written agreement applicable to such separate account: PROVIDED, That unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, ((a)) the portion, if any, of the assets of such separate account equal to the insurer's reserve liability with regard to the guaranteed benefits and funds referred to in subsection (2) of this section ((7 if any)) shall be valued in accordance with the rules otherwise applicable to the insurer's assets.

(4) Amounts allocated to a separate account in the exercise of the power granted by this chapter shall be owned by the insurer and the insurer shall not be, nor hold itself out to be, a trustee with respect to such amounts. If and to the extent so provided under the applicable contracts, that portion of the assets of any such separate account equal to the reserves and other contract liabilities with respect to such account shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the insurer may conduct.

(5) No sale, exchange or other transfer of assets may be made by an insurer between any of its separate accounts or between any other investment account and one or more of its separate accounts unless, in case of a transfer into a separate account, such transfer is made solely to establish the account or to support the operation of the contracts with respect to the separate account to which the transfer is made, and unless such transfer, whether into or from a separate account, is made (a) by a transfer of cash, or (b) by a transfer of securities having a readily determinable market value: PROVIDED, That such transfer of securities is approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may approve other transfers among such accounts, if, in his opinion, such transfers would not be inequitable.

(6) To the extent such insurer deems it necessary to comply with any applicable federal or state law, such insurer, with respect to any separate account, including without limitation any separate account which is a management investment company or a unit investment trust, may provide for persons having interest therein, as may be appropriate, voting and other rights and special procedures for the conduct of the business of such account, including without limitation, special rights and procedures relating to investment policy, investment advisory services, selection of independent public accountants, and the selection of a committee, the members of which need not be otherwise affiliated with such insurer, to manage the business of such account.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 104, Laws of 1969 and RCW 48.18A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every variable contract providing benefits payable in variable amounts delivered or issued for delivery in this state shall contain a statement of the essential features of the procedures to be followed by the insurer in determining the dollar amount of such variable benefits. Any such (~~variable~~) contract under which the benefits vary to reflect investment experience, including a group contract and any certificate in evidence of variable benefits issued thereunder, shall state that such dollar amount will so vary (~~to reflect investment experience~~) and shall contain on its first page a statement to the effect that the benefits thereunder are on a variable basis.

(2) Variable annuity contracts delivered or issued for delivery in this state may include as an incidental benefit provision for payment on death during the deferred period of an amount not in excess of the greater of the sum of the premiums or stipulated payments paid under the contract or the value of the contract at time of death. For this purpose such benefit shall not be deemed to be life insurance and therefore not subject to any statutory provisions governing life insurance contracts. A provision for any other benefits on death during the deferred period will be subject to such insurance law provisions.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 104, Laws of 1969 and RCW 48.18A.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of RCW (~~(48.23.140)~~) 48.23.020, 48.23.030, 48.23.080 through 48.23.120, 48.23.140, 48.23.150, 48.23.200 through 48.23.240, 48.23.310, 48.23.350, and 48.23.360, and the provisions of chapter 48.24 RCW shall be inapplicable to variable contracts; nor shall any provision in the code requiring contracts to be participating be deemed applicable to variable contracts. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all pertinent provisions of the insurance code shall apply to separate accounts and contracts relating thereto. Any individual variable life insurance or individual variable annuity contract delivered or issued for delivery in this state shall contain grace, reinstatement, and nonforfeiture provisions appropriate to such contracts, and any such variable life insurance contract shall provide that the investment experience of the separate account shall in no event operate to reduce the death benefit below an amount equal to the face amount of the contract at the time the contract was issued. Any individual variable life insurance contract may contain a provision for deduction from the death proceeds of amounts of due and unpaid premiums or of indebtedness which are appropriate to such contracts. The reserve liability for variable annuities shall be established in accordance with actuarial procedures that recognize the variable nature of the benefits provided and any mortality guarantees.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 104, Laws of 1969 and RCW 48.18A.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Licensing requirement. No person shall be or act as an agent for the solicitation or sale of (~~such policies or~~) variable contracts except while duly appointed and licensed under the insurance code as a life insurance agent with respect to the insurer, and while duly licensed as a security salesman or securities broker under a license issued by the administrator of securities pursuant to the securities act of this state; except that any person who participates only in the sale or offering for sale of variable contracts which fund corporate plans meeting the requirements for qualification under sections 401 or 403 of the United States internal revenue code need not be licensed pursuant to the securities act of this state.

Sec. 8. Section .24.06, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 21, chapter 195, Laws of 1963 and RCW 48.24.060

are each amended to read as follows:

The lives of a group of public employees may be insured under a policy issued to the departmental head or to a trustee, or issued to an association of public employees formed for purposes other than obtaining insurance and having, when the policy is placed in force, a membership in the classes eligible for insurance of not less than seventy-five percent of the number of employees eligible for membership in such classes, which department head or trustee or association shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure such employees for the benefit of persons other than the policyholder or any of its officials, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The persons eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the employees of the department or members of the association, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment, or to membership in the association, or both.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, in whole or in part either from salary deductions authorized by, or charges collected from, the insured employees or members specifically for the insurance, or from the association's own funds, or from both. Any such deductions from salary may be paid by the employer to the association or directly to the insurer. No policy may be placed in force unless and until at least seventy-five percent of the then eligible employees or association members, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, have elected to be covered and have authorized their employer to make any required deductions from salary.

(3) The rate of charges to the insured employees or members specifically for the insurance, and the dues of the association if they include the cost of insurance, shall be determined according to each attained age or in not less than four reasonably spaced attained age groups. In no event shall the rate of such dues or charges be level for all members regardless of attained age.

(4) The policy must cover at least twenty-five persons at date of issue.

(5) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the employees or members or by the association. Such amounts shall in no event exceed ((five)) fifteen thousand dollars of life insurance in the case of any employee or member, and the amount of life insurance shall not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars in the case of retired employees or members and persons over age sixty-five.

As used herein, "public employees" means employees of the United States government, or of any state, or of any political subdivision or instrumentality of any of them.

Sec. 9. Section .24.07, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 86, Laws of 1963 and RCW 48.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more employers ((in the same industry)) or by two or more employer members of an employers' association, or by one or more labor unions, or by one or more employers ((in the same industry)) and one or more labor unions, or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions whose members are in the same or related occupations or trades, which trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees or members for the benefit of persons other than the employers or the unions, subject to the following requirements:

(1) If the policy is issued to two or more employer members of an employers' association, such policy may be issued only if (a) the association has been in existence for at least five years and was formed for purposes other than obtaining insurance and (b) the participating employers, meaning such employer members whose employees are to be insured, constitute at date of issue at least fifty percent of the total employers eligible to participate, unless the number of persons covered at date of issue exceeds six hundred, in which event such participating employers must constitute at least twenty-five percent of such total employers in either case omitting from consideration any employer whose employees are already covered for group life insurance.

(2) The persons eligible for insurance shall be all of the employees of the employers or all of the members of the unions, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment, or to membership in the unions, or to both. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the individual proprietor or partners if an employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are connected with such trusteeship. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees.

(3) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the trustees wholly from funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured persons, or by the union or unions, or by both, or, partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured persons. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least seventy-five percent of the then eligible persons, excluding any as to whom evidence of insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible persons, or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(4) The policy must cover at least fifty persons at date of issue.

(5) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured persons or by the policyholder, employers, or unions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Chapter 48.18A RCW, as from time to time amended, shall also apply as to domestic fraternal benefit societies operating on the legal reserve basis, and such a society shall be deemed to be a "life insurer" for the purpose of such chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Section .18.38, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.18.380 are each repealed.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 35.02.150, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.02.150 are each amended to read as follows:

After the filing of any petition for incorporation with the county auditor, and pending its final disposition as provided for in this chapter, no other petition for incorporation (~~(or)~~) and no petition or resolution for annexation which embraces any of the territory included therein shall be acted upon by the county auditor or the board of county commissioners, or by any city or town clerk, city or town council, or by any other public official or body that might otherwise be empowered to receive or act upon such a petition: PROVIDED, That any petition for incorporation may be withdrawn, or a new petition embracing other or different boundaries may be substituted therefor, by a majority of the signers thereof, at any time before such petition has been certified by the county auditor to the board of county commissioners, in which case the same proceedings shall be taken as in the case of an original petition.

In addition to the method prescribed by RCW 35.13.020 for the commencement of annexation proceedings, the legislative body of any city or town may, whenever it shall determine by resolution that the best interests and general welfare of such city or town would be served by the annexation of unincorporated territory contiguous to such city or town, file a certified copy of the resolution with the board of county commissioners of the county in which said territory is located. The resolution of the city or town initiating such election shall describe the boundaries of the area to be annexed, as nearly as may be state the number of voters residing therein, pray for the calling of an election to be held among the qualified voters therein upon the question of annexation, and provide that said city or town will pay the cost of the annexation election. The resolution may require that there also be submitted to the electorate of the territory sought to be annexed a proposition that all property within the area annexed shall, upon annexation, be assessed and taxed at the same rate and on the same basis as the property of such annexing city or town is assessed and taxed to pay for all or any portion of the then outstanding indebtedness of the city or town to which said area is annexed, approved by the voters, contracted, or incurred prior to, or existing at, the date of annexation. Whenever a city or town has prepared and filed a comprehensive plan for the area to be annexed as provided for in RCW 35.13.177 and 35.13.178, the resolution initiating the election may also provide for the simultaneous adoption of the comprehensive plan upon approval of annexation by the electorate of the area to be annexed. The resolution initiating the election may also provide for the simultaneous creation of a community municipal corporation and election of community council members as provided for in RCW 35.14.010 through 35.14.060 upon approval of annexation by the electorate of the area to be annexed. In cities under the optional municipal code the resolution initiating the election may also provide for the simultaneous inclusion of the annexed area into a named existing community municipal corporation. The proposition for the creation of a community municipal corporation may be submitted as part of the annexation proposition or may be submitted as a separate proposition. The proposition for inclusion within a named existing community municipal corporation shall be submitted as part of the annexation proposition.

Sec. 3. Section 35.13.020, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 8, chapter 73, Laws of 1967 and RCW 35.13.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A petition for an election to vote upon the annexation of a portion of a county to a contiguous city or town signed by qualified voters resident in the area equal in number to twenty percent of the votes cast at the last election may be filed in the office of the board of county commissioners: PROVIDED, That any such petition shall first be filed with the legislative body of the city or town to which the annexation is proposed, and such legislative body shall, by resolution entered within sixty days from the date of presentation, notify the petitioners, either by mail or by publication in the same manner notice of hearing is required by RCW 35.13.040 to be published, of its approval or rejection of the proposed action. The petition may also provide for the simultaneous creation of a community municipal corporation and election of community council members as provided for in RCW 35.14.010 through 35.14.060. ((The proposition for the creation of a community municipal corporation may be submitted as part of the annexation proposition or may be submitted as a separate proposition.) In approving the proposed action, the legislative body may require that there also be submitted to the electorate of the territory to be annexed, a proposition that all property within the area to be annexed shall, upon annexation be assessed and taxed at the same rate and on the same basis as the property of such annexing city or town is assessed and taxed to pay for all or any portion of the then outstanding indebtedness of the city or town to which said area is annexed, approved by the voters, contracted, or incurred prior to, or existing at, the date of annexation. Whenever the legislative body has prepared and filed a comprehensive plan for the area to be annexed as provided for in RCW 35.13.177 and 35.13.178, the legislative body in approving the proposed action, may require that the comprehensive plan be simultaneously adopted upon approval of annexation by the electorate of the area to be annexed. The approval of the legislative body shall be a condition precedent to the filing of such petition with the board of county commissioners as hereinafter provided. The costs of conducting such election shall be a charge against the city or town concerned. The proposition or questions provided for in this section may be submitted to the voters either separately or as a single proposition.

Upon the filing of approval by the review board of a twenty percent annexation petition under the election method to call an annexation election, the board of county commissioners at its next meeting shall fix a date for hearing thereon to be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks thereafter, of which hearing the petitioners must give notice by publication (~~(for)~~) once each week at least two weeks prior thereto in some newspaper (~~(printed and published in the city or town to which)~~) of general circulation in the area (~~(is)~~) proposed to be annexed. Upon the day fixed, the board shall hear the petition, and if it complies with the requirements of law and has been approved by the review board, shall grant it. The hearing may be continued from time to time for an aggregate period not exceeding two weeks.

After the filing with the board of county commissioners of a petition or resolution pursuant to RCW 35.13.015 to call an annexation election, pending the hearing (~~(thereon)~~) under the twenty percent annexation petition under the election method and pending the election to be called thereunder, the board of county commissioners shall not consider any other petition or resolution involving any portion of the territory embraced therein: PROVIDED, That the petition or resolution may be withdrawn or a new petition or resolution embracing other or different boundaries substituted therefor by a majority of the signers thereof, or in the case of a resolution, by the legislative body of the city or town, and the same proceeding shall be taken as in the case of an original petition or resolution.

Sec. 6. Section 35.13.060, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.13.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon granting the petition under the twenty percent annexation petition under the election method, the board of county commissioners shall fix a date for the annexation election, which must be not less than thirty nor more than sixty days thereafter.

Sec. 7. Section 35.13.080, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 10, chapter 73, Laws of 1967 and RCW 35.13.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Notice of an annexation election shall particularly describe the boundaries of the area proposed to be annexed, describe the boundaries of the proposed service area if the simultaneous creation of a community municipal corporation is provided for, state the objects of the election as prayed in the petition or as stated in the resolution and require the voters to cast ballots which shall contain the words "For annexation" and "Against annexation" or words equivalent thereto, or contain the words "For annexation and adoption of comprehensive plan" and "Against annexation and adoption of comprehensive plan" or words equivalent thereto in case the simultaneous adoption of a comprehensive plan is proposed, and, if appropriate, the words "For creation of community municipal corporation" and "Against creation of community municipal corporation" or words equivalent thereto, or contain the words "For annexation and creation of community municipal corporation" and "Against annexation and creation of community municipal corporation" or words equivalent thereto in case the simultaneous creation of a community municipal corporation is proposed, and which in case the assumption of indebtedness is proposed, shall contain as a separate proposition, the words "For assumption of indebtedness" and "Against assumption of indebtedness" or words equivalent thereto and if only a portion of the indebtedness of the annexing city or town is to be assumed, an appropriate separate proposition for and against the assumption of such portion of the indebtedness shall be submitted to the voters. If the creation of a community municipal corporation and election of community council members is provided for, the notice shall also require the voters within the service area to cast ballots for candidates for positions on such council. The notice shall be posted for at least two weeks prior to the date of election in four public places within the area proposed to be annexed and published ((for at least two weeks)) in accordance with the notice required by RCW 29.27.080 prior to the date of election ((in a newspaper printed and published within the limits of the territory proposed to be annexed, or, if there is no such newspaper, in a newspaper printed and published in the city or town to which the area is proposed to be annexed, or if there is no newspaper published in the city or town;)) in a newspaper of general circulation in the area ((published and printed in the county. Such notice shall be in addition to the notice required by chapter 29.27 RCW)) proposed to be annexed.

Sec. 8. Section 35.13.090, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 11, chapter 73, Laws of 1967 and RCW 35.13.090 are each amended to read as follows:

On the Monday next succeeding the annexation election, the county canvassing board shall proceed to canvass the returns thereof and shall submit the statement of canvass to the board of county commissioners.

The proposition for or against annexation or for or against annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan, or for or against creation of a community municipal corporation, or any combination thereof, as the case may be, shall be deemed approved if a majority of the votes cast on that proposition are cast in favor of annexation or in favor of annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan, or for creation of the community municipal corporation, or any combination thereof, as the case may be. If a proposition for or against assumption of all or any portion of indebtedness was submitted to the electorate, it shall be deemed approved if a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors of the territory proposed to be annexed voting on such proposition vote in favor thereof, and the number of persons voting on such proposition constitutes not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in such territory at the last preceding general election. If either or both propositions were approved by the electors, the board shall enter a finding to that effect on its minutes, a certified copy of which shall be forthwith transmitted to and filed with the clerk of the city or town to which annexation is proposed, together with a certified abstract of the vote showing the whole number who voted at the election, the number of votes cast for annexation and the number cast against annexation or for annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan and the number cast against annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan or for creation of a community municipal corporation and the number cast against creation of a community municipal corporation, or any combination thereof, as the case may be, and if a proposition for assumption of all or of any portion of indebtedness was submitted to the electorate, the abstract shall include the number of votes cast for assumption of indebtedness and the number of votes cast against assumption of indebtedness, together with a statement of the total number of votes cast in such territory at the last preceding general election. If the proposition for creation of a community municipal corporation was submitted and approved, the abstract shall include the number of votes cast for the candidates for community council positions and certificates of election shall be issued to the successful candidates who shall assume office within ten days after the election.

Sec. 9. Section 35.13.100, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 12, chapter 73, Laws of 1967 and RCW 35.13.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon filing of the certified copy of the finding of the board of county commissioners, the clerk shall transmit it to the legislative body of the city or town at the next regular meeting or as soon thereafter as practicable. If a proposition relating to annexation or annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan or creation of a community municipal corporation, or both, as the case may be was submitted to the voters and such proposition was approved, the legislative body shall adopt an ordinance providing for the annexation or adopt ordinances providing for the annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan, or adopt an ordinance providing for the annexation and creation of a community municipal corporation, as the case may be. If a proposition for annexation or annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan or creation of a community municipal corporation, as the case may be, and a proposition for assumption of all or of any portion of indebtedness were both submitted, and were approved, the legislative body shall adopt an ordinance providing for the annexation or annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan or annexation and creation of a community municipal corporation including the assumption of all or of any portion of indebtedness. If the propositions were submitted and only the annexation or annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan or annexation and creation of a community municipal corporation proposition was approved, the legislative body may, if it deems it wise or expedient, adopt an ordinance providing for the annexation or adopt ordinances providing for the annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan, or adopt ordinances providing for the annexation and creation of a community municipal corporation, as the case may be.

Sec. 10. Section 35.13.110, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 13, chapter 73, Laws of 1967 and RCW 35.13.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the date fixed in the ordinance of annexation, the area annexed shall become a part of the city or town. Upon the date fixed in the ordinances of annexation and adoption of the comprehensive plan, the area annexed shall become a part of the city or town and property in the annexed area shall be subject to and a part of the comprehensive plan, as prepared and filed as provided for in RCW 35.13.177 and 35.13.178. Upon the date fixed in the ordinances of annexation and creation of a community municipal corporation, the area annexed shall become a part of the city or town, the community municipal corporation shall be deemed organized, and property in the service area shall be deemed subject to the powers granted to such corporation as provided for in this 1967 amendatory act. All property within the territory hereafter annexed shall, if the proposition approved by the people so provides after June 12, 1957, be assessed and taxed at the same rate and on the same basis as the property of such annexing city is assessed and taxed to pay for all or any portion of the then outstanding indebtedness of the city or town to which said area is annexed, approved by the voters, contracted, or incurred prior to, or existing at, the date of annexation.

Sec. 11. Section 35.13.125, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 69, Laws of 1971 and RCW 35.13.125 are each amended to read as follows:

Proceedings for the annexation of territory pursuant to RCW 35.13.130, 35.13.140, 35.13.150, 35.13.160 and 35.13.170 shall be commenced as provided in this section. Prior to the circulation of a petition for annexation, the initiating party or parties who, except as provided in RCW 28A.58.044, shall be either not less than ten percent of the residents of the area to be annexed or the owners of not less than ten percent in value, according to the assessed valuation for general taxation of the property for which annexation is petitioned, shall notify the legislative body of the city or town in writing of their intention to commence annexation proceedings. The legislative body shall set a date, not later than sixty days after the filing of the request, for a meeting with the initiating parties to determine whether the city or town will accept the proposed annexation, whether it shall require the simultaneous adoption of the comprehensive plan if such plan has been prepared and filed for the area to be annexed as provided for in RCW 35.13.177 and 35.13.178, and whether it shall require the assumption of all or of any portion of existing city or town indebtedness by the area to be annexed. If the legislative body requires the assumption all or of any portion of indebtedness and/or the adoption of a comprehensive plan, it shall record this action in its minutes and the petition for annexation shall be so drawn as to clearly indicate this fact. There shall be no appeal from the decision of the legislative body.

Sec. 12. Section 35.13.130, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 69, Laws of 1971 and RCW 35.13.130 are each amended to read as follows:

A petition for annexation of an area contiguous to a city or town may be made in writing addressed to and filed with the legislative body of the municipality to which annexation is desired. Except where all the property sought to be annexed is property of a school district, and the school directors thereof file the petition for annexation as in RCW 28A.58.044 authorized, the petition must be signed by the owners of not less than seventy-five percent in value, according to the assessed valuation for general taxation of the property for which annexation is petitioned. The petition shall set forth a description of the property according to government legal subdivisions or legal plats and shall be accompanied by a plat which outlines the boundaries of the property sought to be annexed. If the legislative body has required the assumption of all or of any portion of city or town indebtedness by the area annexed, and/or the adoption of a comprehensive plan for the area to be annexed, these facts, together with a quotation of the minute entry of such requirement or requirements shall be set forth in the petition.

Sec. 13. Section 35.13.160, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 12, chapter 88, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 35.13.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the date fixed in the ordinance of annexation the area annexed shall become part of the city or town. All property within the territory hereafter annexed shall, if the annexation petition so provided, be assessed and taxed at the same rate and on the same basis as the property of such annexing city or town is assessed and taxed to pay for all or of any portion of the then outstanding indebtedness of the city or town to which said area is annexed, approved by the voters, contracted, or incurred prior to, or existing at, the date of annexation. If the annexation petition so provided, all property in the annexed area shall be subject to and a part of the comprehensive plan as prepared and filed as provided for in RCW 35.13.177 and 35.13.178.

Within ~~((ten))~~ thirty days after the filing of a city's or town's annexation resolution pursuant to RCW 35.13.015 with the board of county commissioners ~~((7))~~ or within ~~((ten))~~ thirty days after filing with the county commissioners a petition calling for an election on annexation, as provided in RCW 35.13.020, or within ~~((ten))~~ thirty days after approval by the legislative body of a city or town of a petition of property owners calling for annexation, as provided in RCW 35.13.130, the mayor of the city or town concerned that is not subject to the jurisdiction of a boundary review board under chapter 36.93 RCW, shall convene a review board composed of the following persons:

(1) The mayor of the city or town initiating the annexation by resolution, or the mayor in the event of a twenty percent annexation petition pursuant to RCW 35.13.020, or an alternate designated by him;

(2) The chairman of the board of county commissioners of the county wherein the property to be annexed is situated, or an alternate designated by him;

(3) The director of the ((state department of commerce and economic development)) planning and community affairs agency or any agency successor to the community affairs duties of such agency, or an alternate designated by him((?));

~~((4))~~ The chairman or chairmen of the board of school directors of any or all school districts situated in whole or in part of the area to be annexed;

An) Two additional members to be designated by, ((by a majority of the members above designated, who)) one by the mayor of the annexing city, which member shall be a resident property owner of the city, and one by the chairman of the county legislative authority, which member shall be a resident of and a property owner or a resident or a property owner if there be no resident property owner in the area proposed to be annexed, shall be added to the original membership and the full board thereafter convened upon call of the mayor; PROVIDED FURTHER, That three members of the board shall constitute a quorum.

Whenever a petition is filed ((by either of the methods)) as provided in RCW 35.13.020 ((and 35.13.130;)) or a resolution is adopted by the city or town council, as provided in RCW 35.13.015, and the area proposed for annexation is less than ten acres and less than two hundred thousand dollars in assessed valuation, ((the mayor of the city or town to which the area is proposed to be annexed and the chairman of the board of county commissioners and county superintendent of schools can agree by majority that a review proceeding, as provided herein, is not necessary for the protection of the interest of the various parties, in which case)) such review procedures shall be dispensed with.

The review board shall by majority action, within three months, determine whether the property proposed to be annexed is of such character that such annexation would be in the public interest and for the public welfare, and in the best interest of the city, county, and other political subdivisions affected. The governing officials of the city, county, and other political subdivisions of the state shall assist the review board insofar as their offices can, and all relevant information and records shall be furnished by such offices to the review board. In making their determination the review board shall be guided, but not limited, by their findings with respect to the following factors:

(1) The immediate and prospective populations of the area to be annexed;

(2) The assessed valuation of the area to be annexed, and its relationship to population;

(3) The history of and prospects for construction of improvements in the area to be annexed;

(4) The needs and possibilities for geographical expansion of the city;

(5) The present and anticipated need for governmental services in the area proposed to be annexed, including but not limited to water supply, sewage and garbage disposal, zoning, streets and alleys, curbs, sidewalks, police and fire protection, playgrounds, parks, and other municipal services, and transportation and drainage;

(6) The relative capabilities of the city, county, and other political subdivisions to provide governmental services when the need arises;

(7) The existence of (~~school districts and~~) special districts except school districts within the area proposed to be annexed, and the impact of annexation upon such districts;

(8) The elimination of isolated unincorporated areas existing without adequate economical governmental services;

(9) The immediate and potential revenues that would be derived by the city as a result of annexation, and their relation to the cost of providing service to the area.

Whether the review board determines for or against annexation, its reasons therefor, along with its findings on the specified factors and other material considerations shall:

(1) ~~((In the case of a petition signed by property owners calling for an annexation without election, be filed with the legislative body of the city or town concerned;~~

~~(2))~~ In the case of a petition signed by registered voters calling for an election on annexation, be filed with the board of county commissioners;

~~((3))~~ (2) In the case of a resolution of a city or town initiating annexation proceedings pursuant to RCW 35.13.015, be filed with the board of county commissioners.

Such findings need not include specific data on every point listed, but shall indicate that all factors were considered.

A favorable determination by the review board is an essential condition precedent to the annexation of territory to a city or town under either the resolution method pursuant to RCW 35.13.015, or under the twenty percent annexation petition under the election method.

Sec. 17. Section 35.13.174, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.13.174 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt by the board of county commissioners of a determination by a majority of the review board favoring annexation of the proposed area that has been initiated by resolution pursuant to RCW 35.13.015 by the city or town legislative body, the board of county commissioners shall fix a date on which an annexation election shall be held, which date will be not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days thereafter.

After the filing of any petition or resolution for annexation with the board of county commissioners, or city or town council, and pending its final disposition as provided for in this chapter, no other petition or resolution for annexation or petition for incorporation which embraces any of the territory included therein shall be acted upon by the county auditor or the board of county commissioners, or by any city or town clerk, city or town council, or by any other public official or body that might otherwise be empowered to receive or act upon such a petition.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION-- RETIREMENT--PREGNANCY

AN ACT Relating to unemployment compensation; amending section 19, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.323; and amending section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 20, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.030.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 19, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.323 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any payments which an individual has claimed, is receiving or has received under a government and/or a private retirement pension plan, to which a base year employer has contributed on behalf of such individual, shall be deemed remuneration under this title for the purpose of determining eligibility and the amount of weekly benefits to which such an individual is entitled: PROVIDED, That in no event will old age and survivors insurance benefits, under the provisions of Title II of the federal social security act, as amended, serve to reduce an individual's weekly benefit amount; PROVIDED FURTHER, That commencing with benefit years beginning on and after July 1, 1973, retirement pensions which are based in full on wages earned prior to the base year, and which have been applied for and approved, shall not be deemed remuneration for the purposes of this title.

(2) Payments claimed or received under a government and/or a private pension plan shall not be considered wages subject to contributions under this title nor shall such payments be considered in determining base year earnings of the individual.

(3) In the event a retroactive retirement or pension payment covers a period in which an individual received benefits under the provisions of this title, the excess paid over the amount to which he would have been entitled had such retirement or pension payment been considered, as provided in subsection (1) above, shall be recoverable under RCW 50.20.190: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any amounts which have been deducted from the weekly benefit amount by reason of the provisions of this section shall not be available for future benefits: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no payments received on account of temporary or permanent disability rather than on account of age or length of service shall be considered compensation paid for personal services.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 20, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

A woman who voluntarily quits work because of pregnancy shall be disqualified from benefits for the week in which she quits and thereafter through the terminal week of her pregnancy: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in any event a pregnant woman shall be disqualified from receiving benefits for any calendar week ((during the period beginning with the seventeenth calendar week immediately preceding the expected date of confinement, as determined by a doctor, and extending through the sixth calendar week immediately following the week in which childbirth occurs)) either preceding or subsequent to childbirth when she is precluded from engaging in her particular category of employment by reason of a pregnancy related federal or state statute or administrative rule or regulation.

CHAPTER 168

[House Bill No. 105]

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM--
WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEES TRANSFERS

AN ACT Relating to certain transfers of Washington State University classified employees to the Washington public employees' retirement system; adding new sections to chapter 41.40 RCW; making an appropriation; declaring an emergency; making certain effective dates; and creating new sections.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For the purposes of sections 1 through 9 of this 1973 act, unless a different meaning is plainly required by context:

(1) "Classified employees" shall mean all employees of Washington State University: PROVIDED, That the following employees shall not be included as classified employees for the purposes of this 1973 act: The president of the university; employees of Washington State University in the resident instructional staff, consisting of the vice president--academic, the registrar, deans and directors of teaching units, chairmen of teaching departments, and all members of the faculty who hold academic rank and who conduct courses of instruction; the research staff consisting of the administrative officers and professional personnel of the organized research units and other professional personnel engaged in research who are paid at least in part by the university; the library staff consisting of the director of libraries and professional personnel of the library; the extension staff consisting of the administrative officers and professional personnel whose work pertains primarily to extension services and faculty members in responsible charge of instruction and demonstration work for persons who are not officially enrolled on the campus; the student affairs staff consisting of the administrative officers and professional personnel concerned with student affairs; the intercollegiate athletic staff consisting of the administrative officers and coaching personnel; persons employed in a position scheduled for less than twenty hours per week or on an intermittent employment schedule; and persons employed in a position primarily as an incident to and furtherance of their education and training, or the education or training of a spouse.

(2) The "Retirement Plan" shall mean the Washington State University retirement system established by the board of regents pursuant to authority heretofore conferred by law for the purpose of providing retirement income and related benefits to certain employees through private insurers.

(3) "Board" shall mean the retirement board as provided for in RCW 41.40.020, as now or hereafter amended.

(4) "Employer share" shall mean one-half or fifty percent of the total of any employee's accumulation and/or cash value in the contract(s) attributable to contributions made in accordance with the Retirement Plan.

(5) "Applicable income" shall mean that income provided by law and regulations had the person been a member of the Washington public employees' retirement system during each month of Washington State University service and shall include that income earned during the initial six months of Washington State University service irrespective of any provisions of law or regulations promulgated thereunder to the contrary.

(6) "Contributory membership" shall mean that period of time during which an employee was making contributions under the Retirement Plan for purposes of being eligible for a retirement entitlement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) On and after the effective date of this 1973 act and until January 1, 1974, classified employees at Washington State University presently members of the Retirement Plan may irrevocably transfer membership therein to the Washington public employees' retirement system, such transfer being subject to such conditions and limitations as hereinafter set forth in sections 3 through 9 of this 1973 act, including rules and regulations promulgated to effect the purposes of sections 1 through 9 of this 1973 act: PROVIDED, That such irrevocable transfers of membership shall be made at the following stated intervals: June 1, 1973, October 1, 1973, or January 1, 1974.

(2) All classified employees employed by Washington State University on and after the effective date of this 1973 act and otherwise eligible shall become members of the Washington public employees' retirement system to the exclusion of any other retirement benefit system at such institution unless otherwise hereafter provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this 1973 act, upon election by a person to transfer his membership to the Washington public employees' retirement system, as authorized in section 2, subsection (1), of this 1973 act, there shall be transferred from the contract(s) issued under the Retirement Plan to the Washington public employees' retirement system the amount which would have been paid at the rates and on the applicable income (as defined in section 1, subsection (5) of this 1973 act) as provided by law and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto had the person been a member of the Washington public employees' retirement system during each month of service at Washington State University: PROVIDED, That any person so transferring may elect to eliminate from the membership service credit to be transferred the period of service at Washington State University prior to his contributory membership in the Retirement Plan.

(2) The board shall compute separately the employee and employer amounts that would have been paid from the date of membership service credit to be transferred to the Washington public employees' retirement system. The employee share shall be transferred from the accumulation and/or cash value in the contract(s) attributable to employee contributions made in accordance with the Retirement Plan. The employer share shall be transferred from the accumulation and/or cash value in the contract(s) attributable to Washington State University contributions made in accordance with the Retirement Plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any person electing to transfer his membership to the Washington public employees' retirement system shall pay, prior to January 1, 1978, an amount equal to the deficiency, if any, between the employee computed share and the employee accumulation or cash value in the contract(s) required to be transferred as provided for in section 3 of this 1973 act.

(2) As specifically provided for by appropriation and subject to the limitations of section 10 of this 1973 act, Washington State University shall pay to the Washington public employees' retirement system an amount equal to the deficiency, if any, between the employer computed share and the employer accumulation or cash value in the contract(s) required to be transferred as provided for in section 3 of this 1973 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Nothing in this 1973 act shall prevent any classified employee at Washington State University presently a member within the Retirement Plan from electing to join the Washington public employees' retirement system if otherwise eligible not later than January 1, 1974 and from electing to retain his rights and benefits under the Retirement Plan, such person's rights under the Washington public employees' retirement system to begin to accrue from such date of membership transfer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any classified employee at Washington State University electing to transfer membership to the Washington public employees' retirement system from the Retirement Plan and seeking to transfer employee contributions made to the Retirement Plan shall be deemed to have voluntarily relinquished any right to any refund of the amounts transferred to the Washington public employees' retirement system as an employer contribution in accordance with section 3 of this 1973 act except as otherwise provided by chapter 41.40 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any classified employee at Washington State University electing to transfer to the Washington public employees' retirement system from the Retirement Plan and transferring his employee share in the Retirement Plan shall be entitled to a refund of his employee share of the total contributions made in his behalf as determined by the board upon termination from the system prior to his death.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Subject to chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, the board shall make rules and regulations necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 1 through 9 of this 1973 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this 1973 act, any person transferring membership to the Washington public employees' retirement system as authorized in sections 2 through 9 of this 1973 act and who retires on or before January 1, 1978 may elect to make the payments required in section 4 of this 1973 act by a reduction in his or her retirement allowance at such stated intervals as the board shall determine: PROVIDED, That should any such person die before the total of such payments as required in section 4 of this 1973 act have been made, such person having exercised option I, II or III under RCW 41.40.185 or 41.40.190, such payments shall be deducted at the stated intervals from amounts otherwise owing any beneficiary until such time as they become paid in full.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is hereby appropriated to Washington State University from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1975, four hundred fifteen thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, as the employer's share of the retirement plan contribution costs associated and incident to those members of the retirement plan electing to transfer to the Washington public employees' retirement system as provided for in sections 1 through 9 of this 1973 act. Washington State University shall transfer this appropriation or so much thereof as may be necessary, to the Washington public employees' retirement system on or before January 30, 1974. Should this appropriation be insufficient Washington State University shall request in its 1975-77 budget request an amount sufficient to fully reimburse the Washington public employees' retirement system for any costs associated and incident to those members of the retirement plan electing to transfer to the Washington public employees' retirement system as provided for in sections 1 through 9 of this 1973 act. The retirement plan for the purposes of this section shall be as defined in section 1, subsection (2) of this 1973 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This 1973 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this 1973 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House April 12, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 8, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

STATE HIGHWAYS, URBAN ARTERIALS--
STATE GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS

AN ACT Relating to state highways within urban areas and county and city arterials within urban areas, and to general obligation bonds to be issued and sold for the construction thereof; amending section 36, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.400; amending section 37, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.401; amending section 40, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.404; amending section 45, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.420; amending section 46, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.421; amending section 49, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.424; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 36, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.400 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to provide funds necessary to meet the urgent needs for highway construction on state highways within urban areas, there shall be issued and sold (~~limited~~) general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of two hundred million dollars or such amount thereof and at such times as determined to be necessary by the state highway commission. The amount of such bonds issued and sold under the provisions of RCW 47.26.400 through 47.26.407 in any biennium shall not exceed the amount of a specific appropriation therefor from the proceeds of such bonds, for the construction of state highways in urban areas. The issuance, sale and retirement of said bonds shall be under the supervision and control of the state finance committee which, upon request being made by the state highway commission, shall provide for the issuance, sale and retirement of coupon or registered bonds to be dated, issued, and sold from time to time in such amounts as shall be requested by the state highway commission.

Sec. 2. Section 37, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.401 are each amended to read as follows:

Each of such bonds shall be made payable at any time not exceeding (~~twenty-five~~) thirty years from the date of its issuance, with such reserved rights of prior redemption, bearing such interest, and such terms and conditions, as the state finance committee may prescribe to be specified therein. The bonds shall be signed by the governor and the state treasurer under the seal of the state, one of which signatures shall be made manually and the other signature may be in printed facsimile, and any coupons attached to such bonds shall be signed by the same officers whose signatures thereon may be in printed facsimile. Any bonds may be registered in the name of the holder on presentation to the state treasurer or at the fiscal agency of the state of Washington in New York City, as to principal alone, or as to both principal and interest under such regulations as the state treasurer may prescribe. Such bonds shall be payable at such places as the state finance committee may provide. All bonds issued hereunder shall be fully negotiable instruments.

Sec. 3. Section 40, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.404 are each amended to read as follows:

Bonds issued under the provisions of RCW 47.26.400 through 47.26.407 shall distinctly state that they are (~~not~~) a general obligation of the state of Washington, (~~but are~~) shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay such principal and interest as the same shall become due. The principal of and interest on such bonds shall be first payable in the manner provided in RCW 47.26.400 through 47.26.407 from the proceeds of state excise taxes on motor vehicle fuels imposed by chapter 82.36 RCW and chapter 82.40 RCW. The proceeds of such excise taxes are hereby pledged to the payment of any bonds and the interest thereon issued under the provisions of RCW 47.26.400 through 47.26.407, and the legislature hereby agrees to continue to impose the same excise taxes on motor vehicle fuels in amounts sufficient to pay, when due, the principal and interest on all bonds issued under the provisions of RCW 47.26.400 through 47.26.407.

Sec. 4. Section 45, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.420 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to provide funds necessary to meet the urgent construction needs on county and city arterials within urban areas, there shall be issued and sold (~~limited~~) general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of two hundred million dollars or such amount thereof and at such times as determined to be necessary by the state highway commission. The amount of such bonds issued and sold under the provisions of RCW 47.26.420 through 47.26.427 in any biennium shall not exceed the amount of a specific appropriation therefor, from the proceeds of such bonds, for the construction of county and city arterials in urban areas. The issuance, sale and retirement of said bonds shall be under the supervision and control of the state finance committee which, upon request being made by the state highway commission, shall provide for the issuance, sale and retirement of coupon or registered bonds to be dated, issued, and sold from time to time in such amounts as shall be requested by the state highway commission.

Sec. 5. Section 46, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.421 are each amended to read as follows:

Each of such bonds shall be made payable at any time not exceeding (~~twenty-five~~) thirty years from the date of its issuance, with such reserved rights of prior redemption, bearing such interest, and such terms and conditions, as the state finance committee may prescribe to be specified therein. The bonds shall be signed by the governor and the state treasurer under the seal of the state, one of which signatures shall be made manually and the other signature may be in printed facsimile, and any coupons attached to such bonds shall be signed by the same officers whose signatures thereon may be in printed facsimile. Any bonds may be registered in the name of the holder on presentation to the state treasurer or at the fiscal agency of the state of Washington in New York City, as to principal alone, or as to both principal and interest under such regulations as the state treasurer may prescribe. Such bonds shall be payable at such places as the state finance committee may provide. All bonds issued hereunder shall be fully negotiable instruments.

Sec. 6. Section 49, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.424 are each amended to read as follows:

Bonds issued under the provisions of RCW 47.26.420 through 47.26.427 shall distinctly state that they are (~~not~~) a general obligation of the state of Washington, (~~but are~~) shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay such principal and interest as the same shall become due. The principal and interest on such bonds shall be first payable in the manner provided in RCW 47.26.420 through 47.26.427 from the proceeds of state excise taxes on motor vehicle fuels imposed by chapter 82.36 RCW and chapter 82.40 RCW. The proceeds of such excise taxes are hereby pledged to the payment of any bonds and the interest thereon issued under the provisions of RCW 47.26.420 through 47.26.427, and the legislature hereby agrees to continue to impose the same excise taxes on motor vehicle fuels in amounts sufficient to pay, when due, the principal and interest on all bonds issued under the provisions of RCW 47.26.420 through 47.26.427.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 170

[House Bill No. 369]

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN--PENSION BENEFIT

AN ACT Relating to public pensions for volunteer firemen; amending section 3, chapter 261, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 19, chapter 6, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.24.030; amending section 17, chapter 261, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 5, chapter 118, Laws of 1969 and RCW 41.24.170; amending section 18, chapter 261, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 3, chapter 57, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.24.180; amending section 20, chapter 261, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 4, chapter 57, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.24.200; and declaring an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 261, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 19, chapter 6, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There is created in the state treasury a trust fund for the benefit of the firemen of the state covered by this chapter, which shall be designated the volunteer firemen's relief and pension fund and shall consist of:

(1) All bequests, fees, gifts, emoluments, or donations given or paid to the fund.

(2) An annual fee for each member of its fire department to be paid by each municipal corporation for the purpose of affording the members of its fire department with protection from death or disability as herein provided as follows:

(a) three dollars for each volunteer or part-paid member of its fire department;

(b) a sum equal to one-half of one percent of the annual salary attached to the rank of each full-paid member of its fire department, prorated for 1970 on the basis of services prior to March 1, 1970.

(3) Where a municipal corporation has elected to make available to the members of its fire department the retirement provisions as herein provided, an annual fee of ~~((twenty-two))~~ thirty dollars for each of its firemen electing to enroll therein, ten dollars of which shall be paid by the municipality and ~~((twelve))~~ twenty dollars of which shall be paid by the fireman.

(4) Forty percent of all moneys received by the state from its tax on fire insurance premiums shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the fund.

(5) The state finance committee, upon request of the state treasurer shall invest such portion of the amounts credited to the fund as is not, in the judgment of the treasurer, required to meet current withdrawals. Such investments may be made in such bonds, notes or other obligations now or hereafter authorized as an investment for the funds of the state employees' retirement system.

(6) All bonds or other obligations purchased according to subdivision (5) shall be forthwith placed in the custody of the state treasurer, and he shall collect the principal thereof and interest thereon when due.

The state finance committee may sell any of the bonds or obligations so acquired and the proceeds thereof shall be paid to the state treasurer.

The interest and proceeds from the sale and redemption of any bonds or other obligations held by the fund shall be credited to and form a part of the fund.

All amounts credited to the fund shall be available for making the payments required by this chapter.

The state treasurer shall make an annual report showing the condition of the fund.

Sec. 2. Section 17, chapter 261, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 5, chapter 118, Laws of 1969 and RCW 41.24.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any fireman has been a member and served honorably for a period of twenty-five years or more as an active member in any capacity, of any regularly organized volunteer fire department of any municipality in this state, and which municipality and fireman are enrolled under the retirement provisions, and the fireman has reached the age of sixty-five years, the board of trustees ~~((may))~~ shall order and direct that he be retired and be paid a monthly pension ((of twenty-five dollars from the fund)) as provided in this section.

Whenever a fireman has been a member, and served honorably for a period of twenty-five years or more as an active member in any capacity, of any regularly organized volunteer fire department of any municipality in this state, and he has reached the age of sixty-five years, and the annual retirement fee has been paid for a period of twenty-five years, the board of trustees shall order and direct that he be retired and such fireman be paid a monthly pension of ((seventy-five)) one hundred dollars from the fund ((upon his attaining the age of sixty-five years and)) for the balance of his life.

Whenever any fireman has been a member, and served honorably for a period of twenty-five years or more as an active member in any capacity, of any regularly organized volunteer fire department of any municipality in this state, and the fireman has reached the age of sixty-five years, and the annual retirement fee has been paid for a period of less than twenty-five years, the board of trustees shall order and direct that he be retired and that such fireman shall receive ((the twenty-five dollar)) a minimum monthly pension ((herein provided)) of twenty-five dollars increased by the sum of ((two)) three dollars each month for each year the annual fee has been paid, but not to exceed the maximum monthly pension herein provided, ((upon such fireman attaining the age of sixty-five years and)) for the balance of his life.

No pension herein provided shall become payable before the sixty-fifth birthday of the fireman, nor for any service less than twenty-five years: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That:

(1) Any fireman, upon completion of twenty-five years' service and attainment of age sixty, may irrevocably elect, in lieu of the pension to which he would be entitled hereunder at age sixty-five, to receive for the balance of his life a monthly pension equal to sixty percent of such pension.

(2) Any fireman, upon completion of twenty-five years' service and attainment of age sixty-two, may irrevocably elect, in lieu of the pension to which he would be entitled hereunder at age sixty-five, to receive for the balance of his life a monthly pension equal to seventy-five percent of such pension.

Sec. 3. Section 18, chapter 261, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 3, chapter 57, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.24.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of trustees of any municipal corporation shall direct payment in lump sums from said fund in the following cases:

(1) To any volunteer fireman, upon attaining the age of sixty-five years, who, for any reason, is not qualified to receive the monthly retirement pension herein provided and who was enrolled in said fund and on whose behalf annual fees for retirement pension were paid, an amount equal to the amount paid by himself((: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this provision shall not be construed as depriving any active fireman from completing the requisite number of years of active service after attaining the age of sixty-five years as may be necessary to entitle him to the pension as herein provided)).

(2) If any fireman dies before attaining the age at which a pension shall be payable to him under the provisions of this chapter, there shall be paid to his widow, or if there be no widow to his child or children, or if there be no widow or child or children then to his heirs at law as may be determined by the board of trustees or to his estate if it be administered and there be no heirs as above determined, an amount equal to the amount paid into said fund by himself.

(3) If any fireman dies after beginning to receive the pension provided for in this chapter, and before receiving an amount equal to the amount paid by himself and the municipality or municipalities in whose department he shall have served, there shall be paid to his widow, or if there be no widow then to his child or children, or if there be no widow or child or children then to his heirs at law as may be determined by the board of trustees, or to his estate if it be administered and there be no heirs as above determined, an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid into said fund by himself and the municipality or municipalities in whose department he shall have served and the amount received by him as a pensioner.

(4) If any volunteer fireman retires from the fire service before attaining the age of sixty-five years, he may make application for the return of the amount paid into said fund by himself.

The aggregate term of service of any fireman need not be continuous nor need it be confined to a single fire department nor a single municipality in this state to entitle such fireman to a pension: PROVIDED, That he has been duly enrolled in a fire department of a municipality which has elected to make provisions for the retirement of its firemen at the time he becomes eligible for such pension as in this chapter provided, and has paid all fees prescribed. To be eligible to the full pension a fireman must have an aggregate of twenty-five years service, have made twenty-five annual payments into the fund, and be ((at least)) sixty-five years of age at the time he commences drawing the pension provided for by this chapter, all of which twenty-five years service must have been in the fire department of a municipality or municipalities which have elected to make provisions for the retirement of its volunteer firemen: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein contained shall require any fireman having twenty-five years active service to continue as a fireman (but such fireman if he retires by reason of such service prior to reaching the age of fifty-five years shall be required to pay the total annual retirement fee required of firemen and the municipality up to and including the year in which his fifty-fifth birthday shall occur to be eligible for a pension: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the amount of monthly pension shall not be increased by any such payments after retirement from active service but the pension shall be computed as of the date of retirement from active service) and no fireman who has completed twenty-five years of active service for which annual pension fees have been paid and who continues as a fireman shall be required to pay any additional annual pension fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This 1973 amendatory act shall take effect on July 1, 1973.

Passed the House April 12, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 10, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

CHAPTER 171

[House Bill No. 638]

SECURITIES REGULATION--

DEBENTURE COMPANIES

AN ACT Relating to securities regulation; amending section 21, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.210; amending section 37, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.370; amending section 55, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.550; amending section 56, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.560; adding new sections to chapter 21.20 RCW; imposing penalties; and providing effective dates.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 21, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Any security may be registered by qualification. A registration statement under this section shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents, in addition to payment of the registration fee prescribed in RCW 21.20.340, and, if required under RCW 21.20.330, a consent to service of process meeting the requirements of that section:

(1) With respect to the issuer and any significant subsidiary: Its name, address, and form of organization; the state or foreign jurisdiction and date of its organization; the general character and location of its business; and a description of its physical properties and equipment.

(2) With respect to every director and officer of the issuer, or person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions: His name, address, and principal occupation for the past five years; the amount of securities of the issuer held by him as of a specified date within ninety days of the filing of the registration statement; the remuneration paid to all such persons in the aggregate during the past twelve months, and estimated to be paid during the next twelve months, directly or indirectly, by the issuer (together with all predecessors, parents and subsidiaries).

(3) With respect to any person not named in RCW 21.20.210 (2), owning of record, or beneficially if known, ten percent or more of the outstanding shares of any class of equity security of the issuer: The information specified in RCW 21.20.210 (2) other than his occupation.

(4) With respect to every promoter, not named in RCW 21.20.210 (2), if the issuer was organized within the past three years: The information specified in RCW 21.20.210 (2), any amount paid to him by the issuer within that period or intended to be paid to him, and the consideration for any such payment.

(5) The capitalization and long-term debt (on both a current and a pro forma basis) of the issuer and any significant subsidiary, including a description of each security outstanding or being registered or otherwise offered, and a statement of the amount and kind of consideration (whether in the form of cash, physical assets, services, patents, goodwill, or anything else) for which the issuer or any subsidiary has issued any of its securities within the past two years or is obligated to issue any of its securities.

(6) The kind and amount of securities to be offered; the amount to be offered in this state; the proposed offering price and any variation therefrom at which any portion of the offering is to be made to any persons except as underwriting and selling discounts and commissions; the estimated aggregate underwriting and selling discounts or commissions and finders' fees (including separately cash, securities, or anything else of value to accrue to the underwriters in connection with the offering); the estimated amounts of other selling expenses, and legal, engineering, and accounting expenses to be incurred by the issuer in connection with the offering; the name and address of every underwriter and every recipient of a finders' fee; a copy of any underwriting or selling group agreement pursuant to which the distribution is to be made, or the proposed form of any such agreement whose terms have not yet been determined; and a description of the plan of distribution of any securities which are to be offered otherwise than through an underwriter.

(7) The estimated cash proceeds to be received by the issuer from the offering; the purposes for which the proceeds are to be used by the issuer; the amount to be used for each purpose; the order or priority in which the proceeds will be used for the purposes stated; the amounts of any funds to be raised from other sources to achieve the purposes stated, and the sources of any such funds; and, if any part of the proceeds is to be used to acquire any property (including goodwill) otherwise than in the ordinary course of business, the names and addresses of the vendors and the purchase price.

(8) A description of any stock options or other security options outstanding, or to be created in connection with the offering, together with the amount of any such options held or to be held by every person required to be named in RCW 21.20.210 (2), (3), (4), (5) or (7) and by any person who holds or will hold ten percent or more in the aggregate of any such options.

(9) The states in which a registration statement or similar document in connection with the offering has been or is expected to be filed.

(10) Any adverse order, judgment, or decree previously entered in connection with the offering by any court or the securities and exchange commission; a description of any pending litigation or proceeding to which the issuer is a party and which materially affects its business or assets (including any such litigation or proceeding known to be contemplated by governmental authorities).

(11) A copy of any prospectus or circular intended as of the effective date to be used in connection with the offering.

(12) A specimen or copy of the security being registered; a copy of the issuer's articles of incorporation and bylaws, as currently in effect; and a copy of any indenture or other instrument covering the security to be registered.

(13) A signed or conformed copy of an opinion of counsel, if available, as to the legality of the security being registered.

(14) ((A balance sheet of the issuer as of a date within four months prior to the filing of the registration statement; a profit and loss statement and analysis of surplus for each of the three fiscal years preceding the date of the balance sheet and for any period between the close of the last fiscal year and the date of the balance sheet, or for the period of the issuer's and any predecessor's existence if less than three years; and, if any part of the proceeds of the offering is to be applied to the purchase of any business, the same financial statements which would be required if that business were the registrant,)) (a) If the issuer is a commercial, industrial or extractive company in the promotional, exploratory or development stage, the following statements:

(i) Separate statements of (A) assets, (B) liabilities, and (C) capital shares, as of a date within one hundred twenty days prior to the filing of the registration statement.

(ii) A statement of cash receipts and disbursements for each of at least three full fiscal years prior to the date of the statements furnished pursuant to paragraph (i) above, and for the period, if any, between the close of the last full fiscal year and the date of such statements, or for the period of the issuer's existence if less than the period specified above.

(iii) In such statements, dollar amounts shall be extended only for cash transactions and transactions involving amounts receivable or payable in cash.

(b) If paragraph (a) does not apply to the issuer, there shall be furnished:

(i) Financial statements consisting of a balance sheet of the issuer as of a date within four months prior to the filing of the registration statement, and as of the date of the end of the last fiscal year if more than four months prior to such filing.

(ii) Statements of income, shareholders' equity, and changes in financial position for each of the three fiscal years preceding the date of the latest balance sheet and for any period between the close of the last fiscal year and the date of the latest balance sheet, or for the period of the issuer's and any predecessor's existence if less than three years.

(iii) If any part of the proceeds of the offering is to be applied to the purchase of any business whose annual sales or revenues are in excess of fifteen percent of the registrant's sales or revenues or involves acquisition of assets in excess of fifteen percent of the registrant's assets, except as specifically exempted by the director, financial statements shall be filed which would be required if that business were the registrant.

(c) If the estimated proceeds to be received from the offering, together with the proceeds from securities registered under this section during the year preceding the date of the filing of this registration statement, exceed one hundred thousand dollars, the statements described in subsection (14)(a)(i) or (14)(b)(i) of this section as of the date of the close of the last fiscal year and the related financial statements specified in subsections (14)(a)(ii) and (14)(b)(iii) of this section for the last fiscal year shall be audited. For registration statements filed after December 31, 1975, and if such proceeds exceed five hundred thousand dollars, the financial statements specified in subsections (14)(a)(ii) and (14)(b)(iii) of this section for the last two fiscal years shall be audited.

(d) Such financial statements and such other financial information as may be prescribed by the director shall be prepared as to form and content in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the director and shall be audited, as provided in paragraph (c) above, by an independent certified public accountant who is authorized to practice under the laws of the state of Washington and who is not an employee, officer, or member of the board of directors of the issuer or a holder of the securities of the issuer. The report of such independent certified public accountant shall be based upon an audit made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards with no limitations on its scope. The director may also verify such statements by examining the issuer's books and records.

(15) The written consent of any accountant, engineer, appraiser, attorney, or any person whose profession gives authority to a statement made by him, who is named as having prepared or audited any part of the registration statement or is named as having prepared or audited a report or valuation for use in connection with the registration statement,

Sec. 2. Section 37, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.370 are each amended to read as follows:

The director in his discretion (1) may annually, or more frequently, make such public or private investigations within or without this state as he deems necessary to determine whether any registration should be granted, denied or revoked or whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in the prescribing of rules and forms hereunder, (2) may require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the director may determine, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated, and (3) ~~((may))~~ shall publish information concerning any violation of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder.

Sec. 3. Section 55, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.550 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a state advisory committee which shall consist of seven members to be appointed by the ~~((director))~~ governor on the basis of their experience and qualifications. The membership shall be selected, insofar as possible, on the basis of giving both geographic representation and representation to all phases of the securities business including the legal and accounting professions.

Sec. 4. Section 56, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW

21.20.560 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The committee shall select a chairman and a secretary from their group.

(2) Regular meetings may be held quarterly, or semiannually, and special meetings may be called by the ((administrator)) chairman upon at least seven days' written notice to each committee member sent by regular mail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. In addition to the authority conferred in RCW 21.20.370 the director at any time during a public offering whether registered or not, or one year thereafter or at any time that any debt or equity securities which have been sold to the public pursuant to registration under chapter 21.20 RCW are still outstanding obligation of the issuer: (1) May investigate and examine the issuer for the purpose of ascertaining whether there have been violations of chapter 21.20 RCW, regulations thereunder, or conditions expressed in the permit for the public offering; (2) may require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the director may determine, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated; and (3) may publish information concerning any violation of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder. Said examination and investigation, whether conducted within or without this state, shall include the right to reasonably examine the issuer's books, accounts, records, files, papers, feasibility reports, other pertinent information and obtain written permission from the issuer to consult with the independent accountant who audited the financial statements of the issuer. The reasonable costs of such examination shall be paid by the issuer to the director: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, The issuer shall not be liable for the costs of second or subsequent examinations during a calendar year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, "debenture company" means an issuer of any securities which is required to be registered under the provisions of this chapter and which is not exempted from such registration requirements by RCW 21.20.310; which is engaged or proposes to engage in the business of investing, reinvesting, owning, holding, leasing, or trading in real or chattel mortgages, deeds of trust, or land or personal property contracts, or security agreements and financing statements under the uniform commercial code, or land contracts; and which has issued or proposes to issue notes, debentures and other obligations for money used or to be used as capital of the issuer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. No debenture company shall offer for sale any security other than capital stock which would result in the violation of the following paid-in capital requirements:

(1) For outstanding securities other than capital stock totaling $1 to $500,000 there must be at least $50,000 paid-in capital; said paid-in capital must be in the form of cash or comparable liquid assets as defined by rules and regulations; and

(2) For outstanding securities other than capital stock totaling $500,001 to $750,000 there must be at least $75,000 paid-in capital; said paid-in capital must be in the form of cash or comparable liquid assets as defined by rules and regulations; and

(3) For outstanding securities other than capital stock totaling $750,001 to $1,000,000 there must be at least $100,000 paid-in capital; said paid-in capital must be in the form of cash or comparable liquid assets as defined by rules and regulations.

In addition to the requirements set forth in subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, to the extent that a debenture company has outstanding securities other than capital stock totaling in excess of $1,000,000, the debenture company's paid-in capital, equity reserves, and undivided profits shall be at least five percent of the outstanding securities in excess of $1,000,000, but not over $10,000,000, and two and one-half percent additional paid-in capital, equity reserves, and undivided profits for all securities in excess of $10,000,000: PROVIDED, That the director may for good cause in the interest of the existing investors, waive this requirement: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the director waives the minimum requirements set forth in this section, any debenture company taking advantage of this waiver shall set aside into its equity reserves and undivided profits, at least five percent of the net earnings of each year, until such time as they can meet the requirements without waiver from the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Any debenture company offering debt securities to the public shall provide that at least fifty percent of the amount of those securities sold after July 1, 1973, shall have maturity dates of two years or more.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) A director or officer of a debenture company shall not:

(a) Have any interest, direct or indirect, in the gains or profits of the debenture company, except to receive dividends upon the amounts contributed by him, the same as any other depositor or shareholder and under the same regulations and conditions: PROVIDED, That nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit salaries as may be approved by the debenture company's board of directors;

(b) Become a member of the board of directors or a controlling shareholder of another debenture company or a bank, trust company, or national banking association, of which board enough other directors or officers of the debenture company are members so as to constitute with him a majority of the board of directors.

(2) Neither a director nor an officer shall:

(a) For himself or as agent or partner of another, directly or indirectly use any of the funds held by the debenture company, except to make such current and necessary payments as are authorized by the board of directors;

(b) Receive directly or indirectly and retain for his own use any commission on or benefit from any loan made by the debenture company, or any pay or emolument for services rendered to any borrower from the debenture company in connection with such loan;

(c) Become an indorser, surety, or guarantor, or in any manner an obligor, for any loan made from the debenture company and except when approval has been given by the director of the department of motor vehicles or his administrator of securities upon recommendation by the company's board of directors.

(d) For himself or as agent or partner of another, directly or indirectly borrow any of the funds held by the debenture company, or become the owner of real property upon which the debenture company holds a mortgage. A loan to or a purchase by a corporation in which he is a stockholder to the amount of fifteen percent of the total outstanding stock, or in which he and other directors or officers of the debenture company hold stock to the amount of twenty-five percent of the total outstanding stock, shall be deemed a loan to or a purchase by such director or officer within the meaning of this section, except when the loan to or purchase by such corporation occurred without his knowledge or against his protest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Debenture companies shall not issue certificates of debentures in passbook form, or in such other form which suggests to the holder thereof that such moneys may be withdrawn on demand.

(2) Each certificate of debenture or an application for a certificate shall specify on the face of the certificate or application therefor, in twelve point bold face type or larger, that such debenture is not insured by the United States government, the state of Washington, or any agency thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Every issuer which has registered securities under Washington state securities law shall file with the director reports described in subsection (2) of this section. Such reports shall be filed with the director not more than one hundred twenty days (unless extension of time is granted by the director) after the end of the issuer's fiscal year.

(2) The reports required by subsection (1) of this section shall contain such information, statements and documents regarding the financial and business conditions of the issuer and the number and description of securities of the issuer held by its officers, directors and controlling shareholders and shall be in such form and filed at such annual times as the director may require by rule or order. For the purposes of sections 9, 11 and 12 of this 1973 amendatory act, a "controlling shareholder" shall mean a person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial holder of more than ten percent of the outstanding voting securities of an issuer.

(3) (a) The reports described in subsection (2) of this section shall include financial statements corresponding to those required under the provisions of RCW 21.20.210 and to the issuer's fiscal year setting forth in comparative form the corresponding information for the preceding year and such financial statements shall be furnished to all shareholders within one hundred twenty days (unless extension of time is granted by the director) after the end of such year, but at least twenty days prior to the date of the annual meeting of shareholders.

(b) Such financial statements shall be prepared as to form and content in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the director and shall be audited (except that financial statements filed prior to July 1, 1976 need be audited only as to the most recent fiscal year) by an independent certified public accountant who is not an employee, officer or member of the board of directors of the issuer or a holder of securities of the issuer. The report of such independent certified public accountant shall be based upon an audit made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards with no limitations on its scope.

(4) The director may by rule or order exempt any issuer or class of issuers from this section for a period of up to one year if he finds that the filing of any such report by a specific issuer or class of issuers is not necessary for the protection of investors and the public interest.

(5) For the purposes of sections 11 and 12 of this 1973 amendatory act, "issuer" does not include issuers of:

(a) Securities registered by the issuer pursuant to section 12 of the securities and exchange act of 1934 as now or hereafter amended or exempted from registration under that act on a basis other than the number of shareholders and total assets.

(b) Securities which are held of record by less than two hundred persons or whose total assets are less than $500,000 at the close of the issuer's fiscal year.

(6) Any issuer who has been required to file under section 11 of this 1973 amendatory act and who subsequently becomes excluded from the definition of "issuer" by virtue of section 11(5) of this 1973 amendatory act must file a certification setting forth the basis on which they claim to no longer be an issuer within the meaning of this act.

(7) The reports filed under this section shall be filed and maintained by the director for public inspection. Any person is entitled to receive copies thereof from the director upon payment of the reasonable costs of duplication.

(8) Filing of reports pursuant to this section shall not constitute an approval thereof by the director or a finding by the director that the report is true, complete and not misleading. It shall be unlawful to make, or cause to be made, to any prospective purchaser, seller, customer or client, any representation inconsistent with this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) It is unlawful for any person, including the officers and directors of any issuer, to fail to file a report required by section 11 of this 1973 amendatory act or to file any such report which contains an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading unless such person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the failure, untruth or omission. In addition to any other penalties or remedies provided by chapter 21.20 RCW, each officer and director of an issuer which violates this subsection shall be personally liable for damages as provided in subsection (2) of this section if such officer or director:

(a) Had actual notice of the issuer's duty to file reports;

(b) Knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care could have known of the violation; and

(c) Could have prevented the violation.

(2) Any issuer and other person who violate subsection (1) of this section shall be liable jointly and severally for the damages occasioned by such violation, together with reasonable attorney fees and costs to any person who, during the continuation of the violation and without actual notice of the violation, purchases or sells any securities of the issuer within six months following the date the violation commenced.

(3) No suit or action may be commenced under subsection (2) of this section more than one year after the purchase or sale.

(4) Any person held liable under this section shall be entitled to contribution from those jointly and severally liable with him.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In case of a violation of sections 11 and 12 of this 1973 amendatory act, the director may suspend sale or trading by or through a broker-dealer of the securities of the issuer until the failure to file a report or statement or the inaccuracy or omissions in any report or statement are remedied as determined by the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This 1973 amendatory act shall take effect on January 1, 1975: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That debenture companies registered pursuant to chapter 21.20 RCW as of January 1, 1974, and for which there are no stop orders outstanding shall have until January 1, 1975, to comply with the requirements of section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 5 through 14 of this 1973 amendatory act are hereby added to chapter 21.20 RCW.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

[House Bill No. 827]

COUNTY COMPREHENSIVE PLANS-- PORTIONS OF COUNTIES

AN ACT Relating to land planning; and amending section 36.70.320, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.70.320 and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 36.70.320, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.70.320 are each amended to read as follows:

Each planning agency shall prepare a comprehensive plan for the orderly physical development of the county, or any portion thereof, and may include any land outside its boundaries which, in the judgment of the planning agency, relates to planning for the county. The plan shall be referred to as the comprehensive plan, and, after hearings by the commission and approval by motion of the board, shall be certified as the comprehensive plan. Amendments or additions to the comprehensive plan shall be similarly processed and certified.

Any comprehensive plan adopted for a portion of a county shall not be deemed invalid on the ground that the remainder of the county is not yet covered by a comprehensive plan. This 1973 amendatory act shall also apply to comprehensive plans adopted for portions of a county prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House March 17, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 11, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 24, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 25, 1973.

CHAPTER 173
[Senate Bill No. 2918]
HERRING FISHING--COMMERCIAL

AN ACT Relating to food fish and shellfish; conserving the herring resources by validating commercial herring licenses; adding new sections to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature finds that a significant commercial herring fishing industry is presently developing in the state of Washington under the careful guidance of the department of fisheries. The legislature further finds that the stocks of herring within the waters of this state are limited in extent and are in need of strict preservation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition, the legislature finds that the number of commercial fishermen engaged in fishing for herring has steadily increased. This factor, combined with advances made in fishing and marketing techniques, has resulted in strong pressures on the supply of herring, unnecessary waste in one of Washington's valuable resources, and economic loss to the citizens of this state. Therefore, it is the purpose of this act to establish reasonable procedures for controlling the extent of commercial herring fishing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After the effective date of this act, only those persons who have obtained a validated license to fish for herring issued by the department of fisheries of the state of Washington shall engage in the commercial taking or catching of herring. Licenses issued under this section shall be valid for one year, from January 1 through December 31. Any food fish license as stipulated in chapter 75.28 RCW intended for use in fishing for herring in the Puget Sound district must be validated for these species by the department of fisheries after proving compliance with the provisions of section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For the 1973 season and subsequent seasons, the department shall limit the number of licenses validated under section 3 of this act to those individuals who held valid commercial fishing licenses and can prove that they landed herring as documented by a Washington department of fisheries landing ticket for that type of fishing gear during the period January 1, 1971, through April 1, 1973. The validated herring license shall be required for commercial herring fishing in Puget Sound as set forth in the Washington Administrative Code under section 220-16-210. Additional licenses may be granted after the 1976 season by the department only upon a showing that the stocks of herring will not be jeopardized by the granting of such additional licenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If subsequent court action requires that additional validated licenses must be permitted for the 1973 season and if such increases in a particular gear result in placing an excessive strain on herring stocks, the department shall reduce the number of validated licenses for such gear by eliminating units with the shortest history of landings as established and documented by Washington department of fisheries' landing tickets for the herring fishery. If two or more units have a similar history of landings, then such reduction for those vessels shall be by lot.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There is hereby created a board of review to consist of three members: one of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, one of whom shall be appointed by the president of the senate and one of whom shall be appointed by the governor.

The board of review shall hear and pass on applications for commercial herring licenses in each hardship or disputed case. The provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, shall apply to all actions taken by the board of review created by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973, with the exception of Section 6 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill No. 2918 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to food fish and shellfish."

This bill establishes a system of regulation of herring fishing in order to preserve this resource within the waters of the state. A major aspect of this act is the requirement that those who commercially fish for herring have a license issued by the department of fisheries. Further, section six establishes a board of review consisting of three members to hear cases of dispute with regard to licenses. Of the three members on the board, one would be appointed by the Governor, one by the President of the Senate and one by the Speaker of the House. This method of appointment exceeds the traditional limits of the doctrine of separation of powers between executive and legislative branches of government. Should the legislature have specific guidelines or requirements to be followed by a board of review they properly belong in the statute establishing such board, not in a provision giving appointing authority to members of the Legislature.

Accordingly, I have determined to veto that item consisting of section six of Senate Bill No. 2918. With that exception, I have approved the remainder of Senate Bill No. 2918."

[Senate Bill No. 2337]

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION-- APPROPRIATIONS--EXPENDITURES

AN ACT Relating to expenditures by the Washington state highway commission; making an appropriation and authorizing expenditures for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1973, and ending June 30, 1975; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is hereby appropriated to the Washington state highway commission for the biennium ending June 30, 1975..... $39,481,684, or so much thereof as shall be necessary for reimburseable expenditures for the location, design, right of way, and construction on city streets and county roads, and other nonstate highways, including the unexpended balances of the funds from the sale of bonds for Columbia Basin county roads authorized in chapter 121, Laws of 1951, chapter 311, Laws of 1955, and in chapter 121, Laws of 1965; for reimburseable expenditures on cooperative projects authorized by state and/or federal law; for expenditures to be reimbursed through federal emergency relief acts, reimburseable expenditures for maintenance on city streets, county roads and other nonstate highways, reimburseable expenditures for miscellaneous sales and services to others, reimbursement for all of the above expenditures to be substantially contemporaneous with the expenditures.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the Washington state highway commission for the biennium ending June 30, 1975..... $240,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the design, location and construction of the first stage of an ultimate one-way couplet to provide access to the east capitol campus in the city of Olympia, as provided in section 11, chapter 281, Laws of 1969 extraordinary session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the Washington state highway commission for the biennium ending June 30, 1975..... $1,800,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the completion of location, acquisition of right of way, and construction of two lanes plus necessary interchange structures for an ultimate four-lane parkway connection to The Evergreen State College Campus as provided in section 10, chapter 281, Laws of 1969 extraordinary session: PROVIDED, That no moneys may be expended from this appropriation for construction until Thurston county agrees to accept the completed parkway connection as a county road and to preserve the access control established by the Washington state highway commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 144, Laws of 1973, expenditures by state agencies from unanticipated receipts deposited in the contingency receipts fund may be made for obligations incurred prior to June 30, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Agencies are hereby authorized and directed to pay their share of the 1971-73 unemployment compensation costs in accordance with section 19, chapter 3, Laws of 1971, as determined by the Employment Security Department, from their 1973-75 appropriations. The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may require agencies to place funds in reserve status in order to assure that funds will be available for the purpose of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provisions of this act, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Passed the House April 12, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

CHAPTER 175

[Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2101]

PLUMBERS--REGULATION AND LICENSING

AN ACT Relating to the regulation of businesses; providing for the regulation and licensing of plumbers; adding a new chapter to Title 18 RCW; and prescribing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meaning:

(1) "Advisory board" means the state advisory board of plumbers;

(2) "Apprentice plumber" means any person engaged in learning the trade of plumbing and who, under the supervision of a journeyman plumber, performs the actual work necessary to assemble, construct, install, repair, or modify plumbing;

(3) "Department" means the department of labor and industries;

(4) "Director" means the director of department of labor and industries;

(5) "Journeyman plumber" means any person who has been issued a certificate of competency by the department of labor and industries as provided in this chapter;

(6) "Plumbing" means that craft involved in installing, altering, repairing and renovating potable water systems and liquid waste systems within a building: PROVIDED, That installation in a water system of water softening or water treatment equipment shall not be within the meaning of plumbing as used in this chapter;

(7) "Local enforcement agency" shall mean any local governmental agency involved in the enforcement of plumbing codes and the issuance of journeyman plumbers' licenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) No person shall engage in the business or trade of plumbing as a journeyman without having a current certificate of competency issued by the department in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) No person shall engage in the business or trade of plumbing as an apprentice without having a current apprentice permit issued by the department in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any person desiring to be issued a certificate of competency as provided in this chapter shall deliver evidence in a form prescribed by the department affirming that said person has had sufficient experience in as well as demonstrated general competency in the trade of plumbing so as to qualify him to make an application for a certificate of competency as a journeyman plumber: PROVIDED, That completion of a course of study in the plumbing trade in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the Coordinating Council on Occupational Education shall constitute sufficient evidence of experience and competency to enable such person to make application for a certificate of competency.

In addition to supplying the evidence as prescribed in this section, each applicant for a certificate of competency shall submit an application for such certificate on such form and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the director of the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Upon receipt of the application and evidence set forth in section 3 of this act, the director shall review the same and make a determination as to whether the applicant is eligible to take an examination for the certificate of competency. To be eligible to take the examination the applicant must have worked as an apprentice plumber for three years or have completed a course of study in the plumbing trade in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the Coordinating Council on Occupational Education. No other requirement for eligibility may be imposed. The director shall establish reasonable rules and regulations for the examinations to be given applicants for certificates of competency. In establishing said rules, regulations, and criteria, the director shall consult with the state advisory board of plumbers as established in section 11 of this act. Upon determination that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the director shall so notify him, indicating the time and place for taking the same.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department, in coordination with the advisory board, shall prepare a written examination to be administered to applicants for certificates of competency. The examination shall be so constructed to determine:

(1) Whether the applicant possesses varied general knowledge of the technical information and practical procedures that is identified with the status of journeyman plumber; and

(2) Whether the applicant is sufficiently familiar with the applicable plumbing codes and the administrative rules and regulations of the department pertaining to plumbing and plumbers.

The department shall administer the examination to persons eligible to take the same under the provisions of section 4 of this act. All applicants shall, before taking such examination, pay to the department a fifteen dollar fee: PROVIDED, That any applicant taking said examination shall pay only such additional fee as is necessary to cover the costs of administering such additional examination.

The department shall certify the results of said examination, and shall notify the applicant whether he has passed or failed. Any applicant who has failed the examination may petition the department to retake the examination, upon such terms and after such period of time as the director, in cooperation with the advisory board, shall deem necessary and proper.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Any local enforcement agency certified by the state shall hold written examinations for licensing journeyman plumbers and shall retain fifty percent of the fees collected for the administration of such examinations. All such examinations given shall be developed by the state agency and shall be uniform throughout the state. The initial issuance of licenses and renewals shall be made by any certified local enforcement agency or the state, and fifty percent of such fees shall be retained by the certified local issuing agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department shall issue a certificate of competency to all applicants who have passed the examination provided in sections 5 and 6 of this act, and who have otherwise complied with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated thereto. The certificate shall bear the date of issuance, and shall expire on the first of July immediately following the date of issuance. The certificate shall be renewable annually, upon application, on or before the first of July. An annual renewal fee of fifteen dollars shall be assessed for each certificate.

The certificates of competency or permits provided for in this chapter shall grant the holder the right to engage in the work of plumbing as a journeyman plumber in accordance with its provisions throughout the state and within any of its political subdivisions on any job or any employment without additional proof of competency or any other license or permit or fee to engage in such work: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this shall not preclude employees from adhering to a union security clause in any employment where such a requirement exists.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. No examination shall be required of any applicant for a certificate of competency who, on the effective date of this act, was engaged in a bona fide business or trade of plumbing, or on said date held a valid journeyman plumber's license issued by a political subdivision of the state of Washington and whose license is valid at the time of making his application for said certificate. Applicants qualifying under this section shall be issued a certificate by the department upon making an application as provided in section 3 of this act and paying the fee required under section 5 of this act: PROVIDED, That no applicant under this section shall be required to furnish such evidence as required by section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department is authorized to grant and issue temporary permits in lieu of certificates of competency whenever a plumber coming into the state of Washington from another state requests the department for a temporary permit to engage in the business and trade of plumbing as a journeyman during the period of time between filing of an application for a certificate as provided in section 3 of this act and taking the examination provided for in sections 5 and 6 of this act: PROVIDED, That no temporary permit shall be issued to:

(1) Any person who has failed to pass the examination for a certificate of competency;

(2) Any applicant under this section who has not furnished the department with such evidence required under section 3 of this act;

(3) To any apprentice plumber.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The department may revoke any certificate of competency upon the following grounds:

(a) The certificate was obtained through error or fraud;

(b) The holder thereof is judged to be incompetent to carry on the business and trade of plumbing as a journeyman plumber;

(c) The holder thereof has violated any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated thereto.

(2) Before any certificate of competency shall be revoked, the holder thereof shall be given written notice of the department's intention to do so, mailed by registered mail, return receipt requested, to said holder's last known address. Said notice shall enumerate the allegations against such holder, and shall give him the opportunity to request a hearing before the advisory board. At such hearing, the department and the holder shall have opportunity to produce witnesses and give testimony. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall render its decision based upon the testimony and evidence presented, and shall notify the parties immediately upon reaching its decision. A majority of the board shall be necessary to render a decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) There is created a state advisory board of plumbers, to be composed of three members appointed by the governor. One member shall be a journeyman plumber, one member shall be a person conducting a plumbing business, and one member from the general public who is familiar with the business and trade of plumbing.

(2) The initial terms of the members of the advisory board shall be one, two, and three years respectively as set forth in subsection (1) of this section. Upon the expiration of said terms, the governor shall appoint a new member to serve for a period of three years. In the case of any vacancy on the board for any reason, the governor shall appoint a new member to serve out the term of the person whose position has become vacant.

(3) The advisory board shall carry out all the functions and duties enumerated in this chapter, as well as generally advise the department on all matters relative to this chapter.

(4) Each member of the advisory board shall receive compensation and expenses in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for each day in which such member is actually engaged in attendance upon the meetings of the advisory board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Every apprentice shall register with the department.

(2) The department shall issue to such apprentice, upon such form and under such terms as the director and the advisory board shall by agreement deem proper, an apprentice permit to work in the business and trade of plumbing as an apprentice: PROVIDED, That such work shall be done under the supervision of a journeyman plumber.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. All moneys received from certificates, permits, or other sources, shall be paid to the state treasurer as ex officio custodian thereof and by him placed in a special fund designated as the "plumbing certificate fund". He shall pay out upon vouchers duly and regularly issued therefor and approved by the director. The treasurer shall keep an accurate record of payments into said fund, and of all disbursement therefrom. Said fund shall be charged with its pro rata share of the cost of administering said fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The director may promulgate rules, make specific decisions, orders, and rulings, including therein demands and findings, and take other necessary action for the implementation and enforcement of his duties under this chapter: PROVIDED, That in the administration of this act the director shall not enter any controversy arising over work assignments with respect to the trades involved in the construction industry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require that a person obtain a license or a certified plumber in order to do plumbing work at his residence or farm or place of business or on other property owned by him. Any person performing plumbing work on a farm may do so without having a current certificate of competency or apprentice permit: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing in this chapter shall be intended to derogate from or dispense with the requirements of any valid plumbing code enacted by a political subdivision of the state, except that no code shall require the holder of a certificate of competency to demonstrate any additional proof of competency or obtain any other license or pay any fee in order to engage in the trade of plumbing: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That this chapter shall not apply to common carriers subject to Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act, nor to their officers and employees: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to any farm, business, industrial plant, or corporation doing plumbing work on premises it owns or operates: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to restrict the right of any householder to assist or receive assistance from a friend, neighbor, relative or other person when none of the individuals doing such plumbing hold themselves out as engaged in the trade or business of plumbing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Violation of this chapter or of the department rules and regulations provided for in this chapter by a person, firm, or corporation, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than fifty dollars. Each day of such violation constitutes a separate offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 16 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

Passed the Senate March 15, 1973.

Passed the House April 12, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

CLEAN AIR ACT--PENALTIES

AN ACT Relating to health and safety; amending section 61, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 and RCW 70.94.430; amending section 53, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.431; and prescribing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 61, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 and RCW 70.94.430 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or any ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation in force pursuant thereto, other than RCW 70.94.205, shall be guilty of a ((gross)) misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of ((not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars)) not more than two hundred fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for ((a term of not more than one year)) not more than ninety days, or by both fine and imprisonment for each separate violation. Each day upon which such violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation.

Any person who wilfully violates any of the provisions of this chapter or any ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation in force pursuant thereto shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Each day upon which such wilfull violation occurs shall constitute a separate offense. Upon conviction the offender shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars for each offense.

Any person who wilfully violates RCW 70.94.205 or any other provision of this act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year or by both fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 2. Section 53, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.431 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to or as an alternate to any other penalty provided by law, any person who violates any of the provisions of chapter 70.94 RCW or any of the rules and regulations of the ((state board)) department or the board shall incur a penalty in the form of a fine in an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars per day for each violation. Each such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation, each day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation.

Each act of commission or omission which procures, aids or abets in the violation shall be considered a violation under the provisions of this section and subject to the same penalty. The penalty shall become due and payable when the person incurring the same receives a notice in writing from the ((executive)) director ((of the state board)) or his designee or the control officer of the authority or his designee describing the violation with reasonable particularity and advising such person that the penalty is due unless a request is made for a hearing to the ((state board or)) hearings board as provided for in chapter 43.21B RCW. When a request is made for a hearing, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final order affirming the penalty in whole or part. ((The hearing shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW)) If the amount of such penalty is not paid to the ((state board)) department or the board within ((fifteen)) thirty days after ((receipt of notice imposing the same)) it becomes due and payable, and a request for a hearing has not been made, the attorney general, upon the request of the ((executive)) director or his designee, or the attorney for the local authority, upon request of the board or control officer, shall bring an action to recover such penalty in the superior court of the county in which the violation occurred. All penalties recovered under this section by the state board shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund or, if recovered by the authority, shall be paid into the treasury of the authority and credited to its funds.

To secure the penalty incurred under this section, the state or the authority shall have a lien on any vessel used or operated in violation of this chapter which shall be enforced as provided in RCW 60.36.050.

In all actions brought in the superior court for the recovery of penalties hereunder, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as in an ordinary civil action.

Passed the Senate April 11, 1973.

Passed the House April 10, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973.

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS--

PROPERTY SALE PROCEDURE

AN ACT Relating to the sale of public property; amending section 3, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.254; amending section 4, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.255; amending section 47.60.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.130; adding new sections to chapter 47.12 RCW; repealing section 47.12.090, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.090; repealing section 47.12.100, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.100; repealing section 47.12.105, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.105; and repealing section 47.12.110, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.110.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 47.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any real property (including lands, improvements thereon, and any interests or estates) held by the department of highways other than that acquired under RCW 47.12.020 may be sold in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) Determination that the real property is unnecessary for the purposes of the department of highways;

(2) Determination of the fair market value of the real property;

(3) Offering of the real property for sale by auction after notice to the general public of the proposed auction sale in the following manner: By notice of the proposed sale published in a display advertisement of no less than two column by two inch or one column by four inch size in any daily or weekly legal newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the real property to be sold is situated. This advertisement shall appear in the legal notices section and the real estate classified section. This publication shall appear for a period of not less than four weeks prior to the proposed sale and the notice shall particularly describe the property to be sold and the time and place of the proposed sale: PROVIDED, That if there is no legal newspaper published in this county, then such notice shall be published in the legal newspaper published in this state nearest to the place of sale.

(4) Offering of the real property for sale by advertisement and negotiation if the real property was offered, but not sold at auction.

No real property shall be sold for less than the fair market value at the time of the auction if sold at auction or the fair market value at the date of the agreement to sell if sold by advertisement and negotiation. Any offer to purchase real property may be rejected at any time prior to written acceptance of the offer by the department of highways and approval of the terms of the transaction by the highway commission.

The highway commission shall approve the terms of each sale, either individually or by general rule, so that payment is made or safely secured to the state. The highway commission may adopt rules further implementing this section.

All funds received under this section shall be forwarded to the state treasurer and by him credited to the motor vehicle fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 47.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When full payment for real property agreed to be sold as authorized by section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act has been received the director of the department of highways shall certify this fact to the governor with a description of the land and the terms of the sale and the governor may execute and the secretary of state shall attest the deed and deliver it to the grantee.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.254 are each amended to read as follows:

If the authority ~~((is of the opinion))~~ determines that any ~~((land, including improvements thereon;))~~ real property (including lands, improvements thereon, and any interests or estates) held by the authority is no longer required for ~~((toll bridge, toll tunnel, toll road or Washington state ferry system))~~ purposes of the authority, the authority shall offer it for sale ~~((upon notice and bids))~~ as authorized by RCW 47.56.252 or in the manner ((that contracts are let by)) and with the authority authorized to the state highway commission by section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act. The authority may adopt rules further implementing this section as granted to the highway commission by section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.255 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The authority may reject all such bids if the highest bid does not equal the reasonable fair market value of the real property, plus the value of the improvements thereon, computed on the basis of the reproduction value less depreciation.))~~ When full payment for real property agreed to be sold as authorized by RCW 47.56.254 has been received the authority may ((accept the highest and best bid, and)) certify ((the agreement for the sale)) this fact to the governor, with a description of the land and terms of the sale and the governor may execute and the secretary of state shall attest the deed and deliver it to the grantee.

Such ferry system, including any toll bridges, approaches, and roadways incidental thereto, may be financed and operated in combination or separately as one or more units as the authority may determine, and such ferry system together with any toll bridge hereafter constructed by the authority upon or across the waters of Puget Sound or Hood Canal, or any part of either, replacing one or more presently operated ferry routes, is declared to be a continuous project within the meaning of RCW 47.56.070. The authority is empowered to rent, lease, or charter any property acquired under this chapter. ((Whenever the authority shall determine that any land, including improvements thereon is no longer needed for the purposes of the ferry system, it may offer the same for sale upon notice and bids in the manner of letting contracts for state highway improvements: The authority may reject all such bids if the highest bid does not equal the reasonable fair market value of the real property plus the value of the improvements thereon, computed on the basis of the reproduction value, less depreciation: It may accept the highest and best bid and request the attorney general to prepare the necessary instrument of conveyance which shall be executed by the governor:)) If the authority determines that any real property (including lands, improvements thereon, and any interests or estates) held by the authority is no longer required for the purposes of the ferry system, the authority shall offer it for sale in the manner and with the authority authorized to the state highway commission by section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act. The authority may adopt rules further implementing this section as granted to the highway commission by section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act. The proceeds of all such sales shall be paid into the separate trust fund of the state treasury established pursuant to RCW 47.60.150.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Before any such sale involving a sum in excess of ten thousand dollars shall be final, the commission shall cause to be reported in a legal newspaper of the county in which the property is located a legal advertisement, and such other advertisement as the commission shall deem advisable, setting forth the legal description of the property, the commonly known address, the name of the purchaser, the purchase price, the name of the agent, attorney, or real estate broker handling the transaction, the terms of the sale including the price and interest rate on any deferred payments, in three consecutive editions thereof. Any individual may within thirty days after the first publication of such advertisement offer subject to the same terms or conditions a purchase price of ten percent more than the offer advertised and the commission shall make such sale to the second purchaser.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The highway commission may list any available properties with any licensed real estate broker at a commission rate otherwise charged in the geographic area for such services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 47.12.090, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.090;

(2) Section 47.12.100, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.100;

(3) Section 47.12.105, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.105; and

(4) Section 47.12.110, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.110.

Passed the Senate April 11, 1973.

Passed the House April 10, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 28, 1973.

CHAPTER 178

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2504]

STATE BOARD ON GEOGRAPHIC NAMES

AN ACT Relating to state government; establishing a Washington state board on geographic names; adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW; and for the use of geographic names.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The purposes of this chapter are: To establish a procedure for the retention and formal recognition of existing names; to standardize the procedures for naming or renaming geographical features within the state of Washington; to identify one body as the responsible agent to coordinate this important activity between local, state and federal agencies; to identify the responsible agent for the purpose of serving the public interest; to avoid whenever possible the duplication of names for similar features, and so far as possible retain the significance, spelling and color of names associated with the early history of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is hereby created a Washington state board on geographic names. It shall be composed of the:

- (1) State librarian or representative;
- (2) Commissioner of public lands or representative;
- (3) President of the Washington state historical society;
- (4) Chairman of the department of geography, University of Washington or representative;
- (5) Chairman of the department of geography, Washington State University or representative;
- (6) Two members from the general public to be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the commissioner of public lands;
- (7) The commissioner of public lands or his representative shall be chairman of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Washington state board on geographic names and it shall have the power and authority to:

(1) Establish the official names for the lakes, mountains, streams, places, towns, and other geographic features within the state and the spellings thereof except when a name is specified by law. For the purposes of this subsection geographic features do not include manmade features or administrative areas such as parks, game preserves and dams, but shall include manmade lakes;

(2) Assign names to lakes, mountains, streams, places, towns, and other geographic features in the state for which no single generally accepted name has been in use;

(3) Cooperate with county commissioners, state departments and agencies and with the United States board on geographic names to establish, change and/or determine the appropriate names of the lakes, mountains, streams, places, towns, and other geographic features; and for the purpose of eliminating, so far as possible, duplication of place names within the state;

(4) Serve as a state of Washington liaison with the United States board on geographic names;

(5) Issue periodically a list of names approved by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The board is authorized to establish policies to carry out the purposes of this chapter. In determining the names and orthography of geographic place names within the state of Washington, the board's decisions shall be made only after a careful consideration of all available information relating to such names, including the recommendations of the United States board on geographic names to which board it shall give full cooperation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Adoption of names by the board shall take place only after consideration at a previous meeting. All determinations of the board shall be filed with the code reviser and shall be compiled and indexed in the same manner as agency rules pursuant to RCW 34.04.050. Determinations by the board shall not be considered a rule under provisions of RCW 34.04.010. Whenever the state board on geographic names shall have given a name to any lake, stream, place and other geographic feature within the state, such name shall be used in all maps, records, documents and other publications issued by the state or any of its departments and political subdivisions, and such name shall be deemed the official name of such geographic feature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The board shall hold at least two regular meetings each year, and shall hold special meetings as called by the chairman or a majority of the board.

(1) All meetings shall be open to the public;

(2) Public notice of board meetings shall be published in one issue of a local newspaper of general circulation in the counties in which features are being considered at least one week before the meeting is held. This notice will include those names to be considered by the board and those names to be adopted by the board;

(3) Four board members shall constitute a quorum;

(4) The board shall establish rules and regulations for the conduct of its affairs and carrying out the purposes of this chapter;

(5) The department of natural resources shall furnish secretarial and administrative services and shall serve as custodian of the records;

(6) All geographic names adopted by the board shall be published in a local newspaper of general circulation in the county where the geographic name applies within four weeks following the date of their adoption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Each member of the board, not otherwise a public employee, shall receive actual necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties which shall be paid by the agency that each member represents and, for the two members of the general public, by the department of natural resources. In no event shall a member's payments exceed five hundred dollars in any one year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. No person shall in any advertisement or publication attempt to change local usage or name unnamed geographic features without first obtaining approval of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1973.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 20, 1973.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENTS--

REQUIREMENTS DEFINED

AN ACT Relating to environmental policy; adding new sections to chapter 109, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 43.21C RCW; declaring an emergency; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 109, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 43.21C RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of ecology shall, within forty-five days from the effective date of this act, after notice and hearing, promulgate rules and regulations pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW to establish classifications and categories of building permits and acts of governmental agencies concerning an individual single family residence, which classification and category shall be exempt from the "detailed statement" required by RCW 43.21C.030. Building permits and acts not so classified shall not be presumed to either require or not require a "detailed statement".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 109, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 43.21C RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Notice of any action taken by a governmental agency which is "a major action significantly affecting the quality of the environment" pertaining to any private project shall be published by the applicant for such project, in a form approved by the governmental agency, on the same day of each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, city, or general area where the property which is the subject of the action and where such governmental agency has its principal offices.

(2) Any action to set aside, enjoin, review, or otherwise challenge any such action of a governmental agency with respect to any private project on grounds of noncompliance with the provisions of this chapter shall be commenced within sixty days from the final date of publication of notice of such action, or be barred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 109, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 43.21C RCW a new section to read as follows:

In any action involving an attack on a determination by a governmental agency relative to the requirement or the absence of the requirement, or the adequacy of a "detailed statement", the decision of the governmental agency shall be accorded substantial weight.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect on July 1, 1973: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That prior thereto, the department of ecology may take such actions, including the issuing of notices and the conduct of public hearing, as are necessary to insure the implementation of section 1 of this act.

Passed the Senate April 7, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

CHAPTER 180

[Senate Bill No. 2570]

STATE PATROL RETIREMENT SYSTEM

AN ACT Relating to the Washington state patrol retirement system; amending section 43.43.120, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 12, Laws of 1969 and RCW 43.43.120; amending section 43.43.220, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.43.220; amending section 43.43.260, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 278, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 43.43.260; amending section 43.43.270, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 6, chapter 12, Laws of 1969 and RCW 43.43.270; and amending section 43.43.280, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 7, chapter 12, Laws of 1969 and RCW 43.43.280.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 43.43.120, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 12, Laws of 1969 and RCW 43.43.120 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in the following sections:

(1) "Retirement system" means the Washington state patrol retirement system.

(2) "Retirement fund" means the Washington state patrol retirement fund.

(3) "State treasurer" means the treasurer of the state of Washington.

(4) "Member" means any person included in the membership of the retirement fund.

(5) "Employee" means any commissioned employee of the Washington state patrol.

(6) "Beneficiary" means any person in receipt of retirement allowance or any other benefit allowed by this chapter.

(7) "Regular interest" means interest compounded annually at such rates as may be determined by the retirement board.

(8) "Retirement board" means the board provided for in this chapter.

(9) "Insurance commissioner" means the insurance commissioner of the state of Washington.

(10) "Lieutenant governor" means the lieutenant governor of the state of Washington.

(11) "Service" shall mean services rendered to the state of Washington or any political subdivisions thereof for which compensation has been paid. Full time employment for ten days or more in any given calendar month shall constitute one month of service. Only months of service shall be counted in the computation of any retirement allowance or other benefit provided for herein. Years of service shall be determined by dividing the total number of months of service by twelve. Any fraction of a year of service as so determined shall be taken into account in the computation of such retirement allowance or benefit.

(12) "Prior service" shall mean all services rendered by a member to the state of Washington, or any of its political subdivisions prior to August 1, 1947, unless such service has been credited in another public retirement or pension system operating in the state of Washington.

(13) "Current service" shall mean all service as a member rendered on or after August 1, 1947.

(14) "Average final salary" shall mean the average monthly salary received by a member during his last two years of service or any consecutive two year period of service, whichever is the greater, as an employee of the Washington state patrol; or if he has less than two years of service, then the average monthly salary received by him during his total years of service.

(15) "Actuarial equivalent" shall mean a benefit of equal value when computed upon the basis of such mortality table as may be adopted and such interest rate as may be determined by the board.

(16) Unless the context expressly indicates otherwise, words importing the masculine gender shall be extended to include the feminine gender and words importing the feminine gender shall be extended to include the masculine gender.

Sec. 2. Section 43.43.220, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.43.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington state patrol retirement fund shall be the fund from which shall be paid all retirement allowances or benefits in lieu thereof which are payable as provided herein. The expenses of operating the retirement system shall be paid from appropriations made for the operation of the Washington state patrol.

(2) ((The contributions by the state for benefits under the retirement system shall consist of the sum of a percentage of the compensation of members to be known as the current service contribution; and a fixed percentage of the compensation of members to be known as the prior service contribution;

{3} After the completion of each actuarial valuation, the retirement board shall determine or redetermine the current service contribution rate. Such current service contribution rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. Such contribution rate shall be the uniform and constant percentage of the prospective compensation of all members in the retirement system at the date of such valuation required, together with the prospective value of future contributions from members, and all funds (other than funds allocated to prior service benefits) currently standing to the credit of the retirement fund; to provide for the payment of all future benefits for such members (other than prior service benefits);

(4) The prior service contribution shall be two and one-quarter percent of the prospective compensation of all members in the retirement system in each calendar year, and shall continue at such rate until the assets of the retirement fund allocated to prior service benefits are equal to the then outstanding liability for prior service benefits.

(5) The "fundable employer liability" at any date shall be the present value of:

(a) All future pension benefits payable in respect of all members in the retirement system at that date, and

(b) All future benefits in respect of beneficiaries then receiving retirement allowances or pensions.

(3) The contributions by the state for benefits under the retirement system shall consist of the sum of a percentage of the compensation of members to be known as the "normal contribution", and a percentage of such compensation to be known as the "unfunded liability contribution". The rates of such contributions shall be determined by the retirement board on the basis of assets and liabilities as shown by actuarial valuation.

(4) After the completion of each actuarial valuation, the retirement board shall determine or redetermine the normal contribution rate and such contribution rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. Until the unfunded liability contribution shall have been discontinued, such normal contribution rate shall be computed to be sufficient, when applied to the present value of the future compensation of the average new member entering the system, to provide for the payment of all prospective pension benefits in respect of such member. After the unfunded liability contributions have been discontinued, such normal contribution rate shall be determined as the uniform and constant percentage of the prospective compensation of all members in the retirement system at the date of such valuation which is equivalent to the excess of the fundable employer liability over the amount of funds currently standing to the credit of the retirement fund.

(5) After the completion of each actuarial valuation, the retirement board shall determine or redetermine the unfunded liability contribution rate, and such rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. The unfunded liability contribution rate shall not be less than the uniform and constant percentage of the prospective compensation of all members in the retirement system for the forty-year period following the date of such valuation which is equivalent to the unfunded liability. The unfunded liability shall be determined at such date as the excess of the fundable employer liability over the sum of the present value of the future normal contributions payable in respect of all members in the retirement system at that date, and the amount of all funds currently standing to the credit of the retirement fund. The unfunded liability contributions shall continue until there remains no unfunded liability.

(6) The retirement board shall estimate biennially the amount required to maintain the retirement fund for the ensuing biennium.

Sec. 3. Section 43.43.260, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 278, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 43.43.260 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon retirement from service as provided in RCW 43.43.250, a member shall be granted a retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(1) A prior service annuity which shall be equal to two percent of the member's average final salary multiplied by the number of years of prior service rendered by the member.

(2) A current service annuity which shall be equal to two percent of the member's average final salary multiplied by the number of years of service rendered while a member of the retirement system.

(3) Any member with twenty-five years service in the Washington state patrol may have his service in the armed forces credited to him as a member whether or not he left the employ of the Washington state patrol to enter such armed forces: PROVIDED, That in no instance shall military service in excess of five years be credited; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in each instance, a member must restore all withdrawn accumulated contributions, which restoration must be completed on the date of his retirement, or within five years of membership service following his first resumption of employment, whichever occurs first; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section shall not apply to any individual, not a veteran within the meaning of RCW 41.06.150, as now or hereafter amended; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in no instance shall military service be credited to any member who is receiving full military retirement benefits pursuant to Title 10 United States Code, as now or hereafter amended.

(4) In no event shall the total retirement benefits from subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section, of any member exceed seventy-five percent of the member's average final salary.

(5) A yearly increase in retirement allowance which shall amount to two percent of the retirement allowance computed at the time of retirement. This yearly increase shall be added to the retirement allowance on July 1st of each calendar year.

The provisions of this section shall apply to all members presently retired and to all members who shall retire in the future.

The retirement allowance of all members presently retired shall be recomputed and shall in the future be paid in accordance with the benefits provided in this section.

Sec. 4. Section 43.43.270, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 6, chapter 12, Laws of 1969 and RCW 43.43.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The normal form of retirement allowance shall be an annuity which shall continue as long as the member lives.

(2) If a member should die (~~(either while in service or after retirement, his lawful spouse shall be paid an annuity which shall be equal to fifty percent of the average final salary of the member)~~ while in service his lawful spouse shall be paid an annuity which shall be equal to fifty percent of the average final salary of the member. If the member should die after retirement (~~(the average final salary will be the average final salary used in computing his retirement allowance at the time of his retirement)~~ his lawful spouse shall be paid an annuity which shall be equal to the retirement allowance then payable to the member or fifty percent of the final average salary used in computing his retirement allowance, whichever is less. The annuity paid to the lawful spouse shall continue as long as she lives or until she remarries. To be eligible for an annuity the lawful surviving spouse of a retired member shall have been married to the member prior to his retirement and continuously thereafter until the date of his death or shall have been married to the retired member at least two years prior to his death.

(3) If a member should die, either while in service or after retirement, his surviving children under the age of eighteen years shall be provided for in the following manner:

(a) Each unmarried child under eighteen years of age shall be entitled to a benefit equal to five percent of the final average salary of the member or retired member. The combined benefits to the surviving spouse and all children shall not exceed sixty percent of the final average salary of the member or retired member.

(4) The provisions of this section shall apply to members who have been retired on disability as provided in RCW 43.43.040 if the officer was a member of the Washington state patrol retirement system at the time of such disability retirement and if all contributions paid to the retirement fund have been left in the retirement fund. In the event that contributions have been refunded to a member on disability retirement, he may regain eligibility for survivor's benefits by repaying to the retirement fund the total amount refunded to him plus two and one-half percent interest, compounded annually, covering the period during which the refund was held by him.

Sec. 5. Section 43.43.280, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 7, chapter 12, Laws of 1969 and RCW 43.43.280 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a member dies before retirement, and has no surviving spouse or children under the age of eighteen years, all contributions made by him with interest at two and one-half percent compounded annually shall be paid to such person or persons as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board, or if there be no such designated person or persons, then to his legal representative.

(2) If a member should cease to be an employee before attaining age sixty for reasons other than his death, or retirement, he shall thereupon cease to be a member except as provided under RCW 43.43.130(2) and (3) and he may ((request upon a form provided by the retirement board a refund of)) withdraw his contributions to the retirement fund, with interest at two and one-half percent compounded annually, ((and this amount shall be paid to him)) by making application therefor to the retirement board, except that: A member who ceases to be an employee after having completed at least five years of service shall remain a member during the period of his absence from employment for the exclusive purpose only of receiving a retirement allowance to begin at attainment of age sixty, however such a member may upon thirty days written notice to the board elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age fifty-five which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits as of age sixty: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of his accumulated contributions, he shall thereupon cease to be a member and this subsection shall not apply.

POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN--RETIREMENT BENEFITS

AN ACT Relating to firemen and police pension benefits; amending section 3, chapter 82, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 2, chapter 91, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 41.16.090; amending section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 6, chapter 269, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.20.050; amending section 5, chapter 39, Laws of 1909 as last amended by section 2, chapter 219, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.20.060; amending section 7, chapter 39, Laws of 1909 as last amended by section 3, chapter 191, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.20.080; amending section 2, chapter 78, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 26, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.20.085; adding a new section to chapter 41.18 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 82, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 2, chapter 91, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 41.16.090 are each amended to read as follows:

All pensioners receiving a pension under the provisions of this chapter as provided for in section 12, chapter 91, Laws of 1947 and RCW 41.16.230, shall from and after the effective date of this ((1967)) 1973 amendatory act receive a minimum pension of ((one)) three hundred ((fifty)) dollars per month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 41.18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All retirees and survivors receiving a pension under the provisions of this chapter shall from and after the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act receive a minimum pension of three hundred dollars per month.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 6, chapter 269, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a person has been duly appointed, and has served honorably for a period of twenty-five years, as a member, in any capacity, of the regularly constituted police department of a city subject to the provisions of this chapter, the board, after hearing, if one is requested in writing, may order and direct that such person be retired, and the board shall retire any member so entitled, upon his written request therefor. The member so retired hereafter shall be paid from the fund during his lifetime a pension equal to fifty percent of the amount of salary at any time hereafter attached to the position held by the retired member for the year preceding the date of his retirement: PROVIDED, That, except as to a position higher than that of captain held for at least three calendar years prior to date of retirement, no such pension shall exceed an amount equivalent to fifty percent of the salary of captain, and all existing pensions shall be increased to not less than ((one)) three hundred ((fifty)) dollars per month as of ((July 1, 1957)) the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a person hereafter retiring who has served as a member for more than twenty-five years, shall have his pension payable under this section increased by two percent of his salary per year for each full year of such additional service to a maximum of five additional years.

Any person who has served in a position higher than the rank of captain for a minimum of three years may elect to retire at such higher position and receive for his lifetime a pension equal to fifty percent of the amount of the salary at any time hereafter attached to the position held by such retired member for the year preceding his date of retirement: PROVIDED, That such person make the said election to retire at a higher position by September 1, 1969 and at the time of making the said election, pay into the relief and pension fund in addition to the contribution required by RCW 41.20.130: (1) an amount equal to six percent of that portion of all monthly salaries previously received upon which a sum equal to six percent has not been previously deducted and paid into the police relief and pension fund; (2) and such person agrees to continue paying into the police relief and pension fund until the date of retirement, in addition to the contributions required by RCW 41.20.130, an amount equal to six percent of that portion of monthly salary upon which a six percent contribution is not currently deducted pursuant to RCW 41.20.130.

Any person affected by this chapter who at the time of entering the armed services was a member of such police department and is a veteran as defined in RCW 41.04.005, shall have added to his period of employment as computed under this chapter, his period of war service in the armed forces, but such credited service shall not exceed five years and such period of service shall be automatically added to each member's service upon payment by him of his contribution for the period of his absence at the rate provided in RCW 41.20.130.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 39, Laws of 1909 as last amended by section 2, chapter 219, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.20.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any person, while serving as a policeman in any such city becomes physically disabled by reason of any bodily injury received in the immediate or direct performance or discharge of his duties as a policeman, or becomes incapacitated for service, such incapacity not having been caused or brought on by dissipation or abuse, of which the board shall be judge, the board may, upon his written request filed with the secretary, or without such written request, if it deems it to be for the benefit of the public, retire such person from the department, and order and direct that he be paid from the fund during his lifetime, a pension equal to fifty percent of the amount of salary at any time hereafter attached to the position which he held in the department at the date of his retirement, but not to exceed an amount equivalent to fifty percent of the salary of captain except as to a position higher than that of captain held for at least three calendar years prior to the date of retirement in which case as to such position the provisions of RCW 41.20.050 shall apply, and all existing pensions shall be increased to not less than ((one)) three hundred ((fifty)) dollars per month as of ((July 1, 1957)) the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That where, at the time of retirement hereafter for disability under this section, such person has served honorably for a period of more than twenty-five years as a member, in any capacity, of the regularly constituted police department of a city subject to the provisions of this chapter, the foregoing percentage factors to be applied in computing the pension payable under this section shall be increased by two percent of his salary per year for each full year of such additional service to a maximum of five additional years.

Whenever such disability ceases, the pension shall cease, and such person shall be restored to active service at the same rank he held at the time of his retirement, and at the current salary attached to said rank at the time of his return to active service.

Disability benefits provided for by this chapter shall not be paid when the policeman is disabled while he is engaged for compensation in outside work not of a police or special police nature.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 39, Laws of 1909 as last amended by section 3, chapter 191, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41,20.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any member of the police department of any such city loses his life while actually engaged in the performance of duty, or as the proximate result thereof, leaving a surviving spouse or child or children under the age of eighteen years, upon satisfactory proof of such facts made to it, the board shall order and direct that a pension, equal to one-half of the amount of the salary at any time hereafter attached to the position which such member held in the police department at the time of his death, shall be paid to the surviving spouse for life, or if there is no surviving spouse, or if the surviving spouse shall die, then to the child or children until they are eighteen years of age: PROVIDED, That if such spouse or child or children marry, the person so marrying shall thereafter receive no further pension from the fund: PROVIDED FURTHER, That all existing pensions shall be increased to not less than ((one)) three hundred ((fifty)) dollars per month as of ((July 1, 1957)) the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act.

If any member so losing his life, leaves no spouse, or child or children under the age of eighteen years, the board shall pay the sum of two hundred dollars toward the funeral expenses of such member.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 78, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 26, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.20.085 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any member of the police department of any such city shall die, or shall have heretofore died, or whenever any such member who has been heretofore retired or who is hereafter retired for length of service or a disability, shall have died, or shall die, leaving a surviving spouse or child or children under the age of eighteen years, upon satisfactory proof of such facts made to it, the board shall order and direct that a pension equal to one-third of the amount of salary at any time hereafter attached to the position held by such member in the police department at the time of his death or retirement, not to exceed one-third of the salary of captain, shall be paid to the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's life, and in addition, to the child or children, until they are eighteen years of age, as follows: For one child, one-eighth of the salary on which such pension is based; for two children, a total of one-seventh of said salary; and for three or more children, a total of one-sixth of said salary: PROVIDED, If such spouse or child or children marry, the person so marrying shall receive no further pension from the fund. In case there is no surviving spouse, or if the surviving spouse shall die, the child or children shall be entitled to the spouse's share in addition to the share specified herein until they reach eighteen years of age. No spouse shall be entitled to any payments on the death of a retired officer unless such surviving spouse has been married to such officer for a period of at least five years prior to the date of his retirement.

As of (~~July 1, 1967~~) the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act, a surviving spouse not otherwise covered by the provisions of section 2, chapter 78, Laws of 1959, shall be entitled to a pension of (~~one~~) three hundred (~~fifty~~) dollars per month.

"Surviving spouse" as used in this section means surviving female or male spouse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 182
[Senate Bill No. 2790]
FOREST FIRE PROTECTION-- ASSESSMENTS

AN ACT Relating to forest fire protection; amending section 2, chapter 105, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 14, chapter 207, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 76.04.360; adding a new section to chapter 76.04 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 105, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 14, chapter 207, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 76.04.360 are each amended to read as follows:

If any owner of forest land neglects or fails to provide adequate fire protection therefor as required by RCW 76.04.350, the department shall provide such protection therefor, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 76.04.520, at a cost to the owner of not to exceed nine cents an acre per year on lands west of the summit of the Cascade mountains and seven cents an acre per year on lands east of the summit of the Cascade mountains: PROVIDED, That for the calendar years ~~((1971))~~ 1973 and ~~((1972))~~ 1974 the cost to the owner for such protection shall be eighteen cents an acre per year on lands west of the summit of the Cascade mountains and fourteen cents an acre per year on lands east of the summit of the Cascade mountains ~~((after which time said additional assessment shall revert to the 1970 level))~~. During said calendar years the legislative ~~((budget))~~ committees on natural resources shall study the costs of forest fire protection to determine the ratio of financial support to be borne by the state to that of the forest land owner.

The findings of the legislative ~~((budget))~~ committees on natural resources shall be considered when establishing the forest patrol assessment for the ensuing biennium.

For the purpose of this act, the supervisor may divide the forest lands of the state, or any part thereof, into districts, for patrol and assessment purposes, may classify lands according to the character of timber prevailing, and the fire hazard existing, and place unprotected lands under the administration of the proper district. Such cost must be justified by a showing of budgets on demand of twenty-five owners of forest land in the county concerned at public hearing. Any amounts paid or contracted to be paid by the supervisor of natural resources for this purpose from any funds at his disposal shall be a lien upon the property patrolled and protected, and unless reimbursed by the owner within ten days after October 1st of the year in which they were incurred, on which date the supervisor of natural resources shall be prepared to make statement thereof upon request to any forest owner whose own protection has not been previously approved by him as adequate, shall be reported by the supervisor of natural resources to the assessor of the county in which the property is situated who shall extend the amounts upon the tax rolls covering the property, or the county assessor may upon authorization from the supervisor of natural resources levy the forest patrol assessment against the amounts of unimproved land as shown in each ownership on the county assessor's records and the assessor may then segregate on his records to provide that the improved land and improvements thereon carry the millage levy designed to support the rural fire protection districts as provided for in chapter 52.04 RCW.

The amounts assessed shall be collected at the time, in the same manner, by the same procedure, and with the same penalties attached that the next general state and county taxes on the same property are collected, except that errors in assessments may be corrected at any time by the supervisor of natural resources certifying them to the treasurer of the county in which the land involved is situated. Upon the collection of such assessments the county treasurer shall transmit them to the supervisor of natural resources to be applied against expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section.

The supervisor of natural resources shall include in the assessment a sum not to exceed one-half of one cent per acre, to cover the necessary and reasonable cost of office and clerical work incurred in the enforcement of these provisions. He may also expend any sums collected from owners of forest lands or received from any other source for necessary office and clerical expense in connection with the enforcement of RCW 76.04.370.

When land against which fire patrol assessments are outstanding is acquired for delinquent taxes and sold at public auction, the state shall have a prior lien on the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to satisfy the county's delinquent tax judgment, and the county treasurer in case the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the delinquent tax judgment shall forthwith remit to the supervisor of natural resources the amount of the outstanding patrol assessments.

The supervisor of natural resources shall furnish a good and sufficient surety company bond running to the state, in a sum as great as the probable amount of money annually coming into his hands under the provisions of this chapter, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and for a faithful accounting for all sums received and expended thereunder, which bond shall be approved by the attorney general.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT Relating to public assistance; amending section 5, chapter 322, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 213, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.040; amending section 16, chapter 173, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.101; amending section 15, chapter 206, Laws of 1963 and RCW 74.20.300; amending section 3, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.030; amending section 4, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.040; amending section 5, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.050; amending section 6, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.060; amending section 7, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.070; amending section 8, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.080; amending section 9, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.090; amending section 10, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.100; amending section 13, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.130; amending section 14, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.140; amending section 15, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.150; amending section 17, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.170; amending section 18, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.180; amending section 19, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.190; amending section 20, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.200; amending section 21, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.210; amending section 22, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.220; amending section 23, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.230; amending section 24, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex.

sess. and RCW 74.20A.240; amending section 25, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.250; adding new sections to chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 74.20A RCW; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 5, chapter 322, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 213, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the department of ((public assistance)) social and health services receives an application for public assistance on behalf of a child and it shall appear to the satisfaction of the department that said child has been abandoned by its parents or that the child and one parent have been abandoned by the other parent or that the parent or other person who has a responsibility for the care, support, or maintenance of such child has failed or neglected to give proper care or support to such child, the department shall take appropriate action under the provisions of this chapter, the abandonment or nonsupport statutes, or other appropriate statutes of this state to insure that such parent or other person responsible shall pay for the care, support, or maintenance of said dependent child.

((The secretary may accept applications for support enforcement services from custodians of minor children who are not recipients of public assistance and may take action as he deems appropriate to establish or enforce child support obligations against the parent or parents of said children:)) The secretary may accept applications for support enforcement services on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance and may take action as he deems appropriate to establish or enforce support obligations against persons owing a duty to pay support. Action may be taken under the provisions of chapter 74.20 RCW, the abandonment or nonsupport statutes, or other appropriate statutes of this state, including ((administrative)) but not limited to remedies established in chapter 74.20A RCW, to establish and enforce said ((child)) support obligations. The secretary may establish by regulation, such reasonable standards as he deems necessary to limit applications for support enforcement services. Said standards shall take into account the income, property, or other resources already available to support said ((minor children)) person for whom a support obligation exists.

The secretary may charge a fee to compensate the department for services rendered in establishment of or enforcement of support obligations. This fee shall be agreed on in writing with the custodian or guardian of the ((minor children)) person for whom a support obligation is owed, or that person if no custodian or guardian exists and shall be limited to not more than ten percent of any support money collected as a result of action taken by the secretary. The secretary shall by regulation establish reasonable fees for support enforcement services and said schedule of fees shall be made available to all applicants for support enforcement services. The secretary may, on showing of necessity, waive or defer any such fee.

Sec. 2. Section 16, chapter 173, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.101 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever, as a result of any action, support money is paid by the person or persons responsible for support, such payment shall be paid through the support enforcement and collections unit of the state department of ((public assistance)) social and health services upon written notice by the department to the responsible person or to the clerk of the court, if appropriate, that the children for whom ((said support order was issued)) a support obligation exists are receiving public assistance.

Sec. 3. Section 15, chapter 206, Laws of 1963 and RCW 74.20.300 are each amended to read as follows:

No filing or recording fees, court fees, fees for making copies of documents or fees for service of process shall be required from the state department of ((public assistance)) social and health services by any county clerk, county auditor, sheriff or other county officer for the filing of any actions or documents authorized by this chapter, or for the service of any summons or other process in any action or proceeding authorized by this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in this section and in section 27 of this 1973 amendatory act, any payment of public assistance money made to or for the benefit of any dependent child or children creates a debt due and owing to the department by the natural or adoptive parent or parents who are responsible for support of such children in an amount equal to the amount of public assistance money so paid: PROVIDED, That where there has been a superior court order ((or final decree of divorce)), the debt shall be limited to the amount ((of)) provided for by said ((court)) order ((or decree)). The department shall have the right to petition the appropriate superior court for modification of a superior court order on the same grounds as ((either)) a party to said cause. Where a child has been placed in foster care, and a written agreement for payment of support has been entered into by the responsible parent or parents and the department, the debt shall be limited to the amount provided for in said agreement: PROVIDED, That if a court order for support is or has been entered, the provisions of said order shall prevail over the agreement. The department shall adopt rules and regulations, based on ability to pay, with respect to the level of support to be provided for in such agreements, or modifications of such agreements based on changed circumstances.

The department shall be subrogated to the right of said child or children or person having the care, custody, and control of said child or children to prosecute or maintain any support action or execute any administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state of Washington to obtain reimbursement of moneys thus expended. If a superior court order ((or final decree of divorce)) enters judgment for an amount of support to be paid by an obligor parent, the department shall be subrogated to the debt created by such order, and said money judgment shall be deemed to be in favor of the department. This subrogation shall specifically be applicable to temporary spouse support orders, family maintenance orders and alimony orders up to the amount paid by the department in public assistance moneys to or for the benefit of a dependent child or children but allocated to the benefit of said children on the basis of providing necessities for the caretaker of said children.

Debt under this section shall not be incurred by nor at any time be collected from a parent or other person who is the recipient of public assistance moneys for the benefit of minor dependent children for the period such person or persons are in such status.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary may issue a notice of a ((child)) support debt accrued and/or accruing based upon subrogation to or assignment of the judgment created by a superior court order ((or final decree of divorce)). Said notice ((shall)) may be served upon the debtor in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or be mailed to the debtor at his last known address by certified mail, return receipt requested, demanding payment within twenty days of the date of receipt. Said notice of debt shall include a statement of the ((child)) support debt accrued and/or accruing, computable on the amount required to be paid under any superior court order ((or final decree of divorce)) to which the department is subrogated or has an assigned interest; a statement that the property of the debtor is subject to collection action; a statement that the property is subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver; and a statement that the net proceeds will be applied to the satisfaction of the ((child)) support debt. Action to collect said subrogated or assigned ((child)) support debt by lien and foreclosure, or distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver shall be lawful after twenty days from the date of service upon the debtor or twenty days from the receipt or refusal by the debtor of said notice of debt.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and

RCW 74.20A.050 are each amended to read as follows:

In the absence of a superior court order ((or final decree of divorce,)) the secretary may issue a notice of a ((child)) support debt accrued and/or accruing based upon payment of public assistance to or for the benefit of any dependent child or children. Said notice of debt shall be served upon the debtor in the manner prescribed for the service of summons in a civil action, including summons by publication where appropriate and necessary. The notice of debt shall include a statement of the ((child)) support debt accrued and/or accruing, computable on the basis of the amount of public assistance previously paid and to be paid in the future; a statement of the amount of the monthly public assistance payment; a statement of the name of the recipient and the name of the child or children for whom assistance is being paid; a demand for immediate payment of the ((child)) support debt or in the alternative, a demand that the debtor make answer within twenty days of the date of service to the secretary stating defenses to liability under RCW 74.20A.030; a statement that if no answer is made on or before twenty days from the date of the service, the ((child)) support debt shall be assessed and determined subject to computation, and is subject to collection action; a statement that the property of the debtor will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver. If no answer is had by the secretary to the notice of debt on or before twenty days of the date of service, the ((child)) support debt shall be assessed and determined subject to computation and the secretary shall issue a collection warrant authorizing collection action under this chapter. If the debtor, within twenty days of date of service of the notice of debt, makes answer to the secretary alleging defenses to liability under RCW 74.20A.030, said debtor shall have the right to a fair hearing pursuant to RCW 74.08.070 and 74.08.090. The decision of the department in the fair hearing shall establish the liability of the debtor, if any, for repayment of public assistance moneys expended to date as an assessed and determined ((child)) support debt. Action by the secretary under the provisions of this chapter to collect said ((child)) support debt shall be lawful from the date of issuance of the decision in the fair hearing. If the secretary reasonably believes that the debtor is not a resident of this state, or is about to move from this state, or has concealed himself, absconded, absented himself or has removed or is about to remove, secrete, waste, or otherwise dispose of property which could be made subject to collection action to satisfy the ((child)) support debt, the secretary may file and serve liens pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060 and 74.20A.070 during pendency of the fair hearing or thereafter, whether or not appealed: PROVIDED, That no further action under RCW

74.20A.080, 74.20A.130 and 74.20A.140 may be taken on such liens until final determination after fair hearing and/or appeal. The secretary shall in such cases, make and file in the record of the fair hearing an affidavit stating the reasons upon which said belief is founded: PROVIDED, That the debtor may furnish a good and sufficient bond satisfactory to the secretary during pendency of the fair hearing, or thereafter, and in such case liens filed shall be released. If the decision of the fair hearing is in favor of the debtor, all liens filed shall be released.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Twenty-one days after receipt or refusal of notice of debt under provisions of RCW 74.20A.040, or twenty-one days after service of notice of debt, or as otherwise appropriate under the provisions of RCW 74.20A.050, or as appropriate under the provisions of section 27 of this 1973 amendatory act a lien may be asserted by the secretary upon the real or personal property of the debtor. The claim of the department for a ((child)) support debt, not paid when due, shall be a lien against all property of the debtor with priority of a secured creditor. This lien shall be separate and apart from, and in addition to, any other lien created by, or provided for, in this title. The lien shall attach to all real and personal property of the debtor on the date of filing of such statement with the county auditor of the county in which such property is located. A lien against earnings shall attach and be effective subject to service requirements of RCW 74.20A.070 upon filing with the county auditor of the county in which the employer does business or maintains an office or agent for the purpose of doing business.

Whenever a ((child)) support lien has been filed and there is in the possession of any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state having notice of said lien any property which may be subject to the ((child)) support lien, such property shall not be paid over, released, sold, transferred, encumbered or conveyed, except as provided for by the exemptions contained in RCW 74.20A.090 and 74.20A.130, unless a written release or waiver signed by the secretary has been delivered to said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state or unless a determination has been made in a fair hearing pursuant to RCW 74.20A.050 or by a superior court ordering release of said ((child)) support lien on the basis that no debt exists or that the debt has been satisfied.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary may at any time after filing of a ((child)) support lien serve a copy of said lien upon any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state in possession of earnings, or deposits or balances held in any bank account of any nature which are due, owing, or belonging to said debtor. Said ((child)) support lien shall be served upon the person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state either in the manner prescribed for the service of summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested. No lien filed under RCW 74.20A.060 shall have any effect against earnings or bank deposits or balances unless it states the amount of the ((child)) support debt accrued and unless service upon said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state in possession of earnings or bank accounts, deposits or balances is accomplished pursuant to this section.

Sec. 9. Section 8, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.080 are each amended to read as follows:

After service of a notice of debt as provided for in RCW 74.20A.040 stating a ((child)) support debt accrued and/or accruing based upon subrogation to or assignment of the amount required to be paid under any superior court order ((or final decree of divorce)) or whenever a ((child)) support lien has been filed pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060, the secretary is hereby authorized to issue to any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state, an order to withhold and deliver property of any kind including, but not restricted to, earnings which are due, owing, or belonging to the debtor, when the secretary has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state property which is due, owing, or belonging to said debtor. The order to withhold and deliver which shall also be served upon the debtor, shall state the amount of the ((child)) support debt accrued, and shall state in summary the terms of RCW 74.20A.090 and 74.20A.100. The order to withhold and deliver shall be served in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested. Any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state upon whom service has been made is hereby required to answer said order to withhold and deliver within twenty days, exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of therein. In the event there is in the possession of any such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state any property which may be subject to the claim of the department of social and health services, such property shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the order to withhold and deliver and shall after the twenty day period, upon demand, be delivered forthwith to the secretary. The secretary shall hold said property in trust for application on the indebtedness involved or for return, without interest, in accordance with final determination of liability or nonliability. In the alternative, there may be furnished to the secretary a good and sufficient bond, satisfactory to the secretary, conditioned upon final determination of liability. Where money is due and owing under any contract of employment, express or implied, or is held by any person, firm, corporation, or association, political subdivision or department of the state subject to withdrawal by the debtor, such money shall be delivered by remittance payable to the order of the secretary. Delivery to the secretary of the money or other property held or claimed shall satisfy the requirement of the order to withhold and deliver. Delivery to the secretary shall serve as full acquittance and the state warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons delivering money or property to the secretary pursuant to this chapter. The state also warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons withholding money or property pursuant to this chapter. The foregoing is subject to the exemptions contained in RCW 74.20A.090 and 74.20A.130.

Sec. 10. Section 9, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a ((child)) support lien or order to withhold and deliver is served upon any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state asserting a ((child)) support debt against earnings and there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state, any such earnings, RCW 7.33.280 shall not apply, but fifty percent of the disposable earnings shall be exempt and may be disbursed to the debtor whether such earnings are paid, or to be paid weekly, monthly, or at other regular intervals and whether there be due the debtor earnings for one week or for a longer period. The lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state to withhold the nonexempt portion of earnings at each succeeding earnings disbursement interval until the entire amount of the ((child)) support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld. As used in this chapter, the term "earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments by any department or division of the state based upon inability to work or obtain employment.

("Earnings" shall also mean that part of temporary total disability payments and permanent total disability compensation to a workman allocated by REW 54.32.090 and 54.32.060 respectively to the spouse and children of a workman; and shall also include no more than forty percent of the net proceeds of payments to a workman for permanent partial disability under REW 54.32.080.) Earnings shall specifically include all gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both combined, including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets. The term "disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount be required by law to be withheld.

Sec. 11. Section 10, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Should any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state fail to make answer to an order to withhold and deliver within the time prescribed herein; or fail or refuse to deliver property pursuant to said order; or after actual notice of filing of a ((child)) support lien, pay over, release, sell, transfer, or convey real or personal property subject to a ((child)) support lien to or for the benefit of the debtor or any other person; or fail or refuse to surrender upon demand property distrained under RCW 74.20A.130 or fail or refuse to honor an assignment of wages presented by the secretary, said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state shall be liable to the department in an amount equal to one hundred percent of the value of the debt which is the basis of the lien, order to withhold and deliver, distraint, or assignment of wages, together with costs, interest, and reasonable attorney fees.

Sec. 12. Section 13, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a ((child)) support lien has been filed pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060, the secretary may collect the ((child)) support debt stated in said lien by the distraint, seizure, and sale of the property subject to said lien. The secretary shall give notice to the debtor and any person known to have or claim an interest therein of the general description of the property to be sold and the time and place of sale of said property. Said notice shall be given to such persons by certified mail, return receipt requested or by service in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action. A notice specifying the property to be sold shall be posted in at least two public places in the county wherein the distraint has been made. The time of sale shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of posting of such notices. Said sale shall be conducted by the secretary, who shall proceed to sell such property by parcel or by lot at a public auction, and who may set a minimum reasonable price to include the expenses of making a levy and of advertising the sale, and if the amount bid for such property at the sale is not equal to the price so fixed, the secretary may declare such property to be purchased by the department for such price, or may conduct another sale of such property pursuant to the provisions of this section. In the event of sale, the debtor's account shall be credited with the amount for which the property has been sold. Property acquired by the department as herein prescribed may be sold by the secretary at public or private sale, and the amount realized shall be placed in the state general fund to the credit of the department of social and health services. In all cases of sale, as aforesaid, the secretary shall issue a bill of sale or a deed to the purchaser and said bill of sale or deed shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the secretary to make such sale and conclusive evidence of the regularity of his proceeding in making the sale, and shall transfer to the purchaser all right, title, and interest of the debtor in said property. The proceeds of any such sale, except in those cases wherein the property has been acquired by the department, shall be first applied by the secretary to reimbursement of the costs of distraint and sale, and thereafter in satisfaction of the delinquent account. Any excess which shall thereafter remain in the hands of the secretary shall be refunded to the debtor. Sums so refundable to a debtor may be subject to seizure or distraint by any taxing authority of the state or its political subdivisions or by the secretary for new sums due and owing subsequent to the subject proceeding. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, there shall be exempt from ((attachment)) distraint, seizure, ((execution)) and sale under this chapter such property as is exempt therefrom under the laws of this state.

Sec. 13. Section 14, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a ((child)) support lien has been filed, an action in foreclosure of lien upon real or personal property may be brought in the superior court of the county where real or personal property is or was located and the lien was filed and judgment shall be rendered in favor of the department for the amount due, with costs, and the court shall allow, as part of the costs, the moneys paid for making and filing the claim of lien, and a reasonable attorney's fee, and the court shall order any property upon which any lien provided for by this chapter is established, to be sold by the sheriff of the proper county to satisfy the lien and costs. The payment of the lien debt, costs and reasonable attorney fees, at any time before sale, shall satisfy the judgment of foreclosure. Where the net proceeds of sale upon application to the debt claimed do not satisfy the debt in full, the department shall have judgment over for any deficiency remaining unsatisfied and further levy and sales upon other property of the judgment debtor may be made under the same execution. In all sales contemplated under this section, advertising of notice shall only be necessary for two weeks in a newspaper published in the county where said property is located, and if there be no newspaper therein, then in the most convenient newspaper having a circulation in such county. Remedies provided for herein are alternatives to remedies provided for in other sections of this chapter.

Sec. 14. Section 15, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person owning real property, or any interest in real property, against which a ((child)) support lien has been filed and foreclosure instituted, shall have the right to pay the amount due, together with expenses of the proceedings and reasonable attorney fees to the secretary and upon such payment the secretary shall restore said property to him and all further proceedings in the said foreclosure action shall cease. Said person shall also have the right within two hundred forty days after sale of property foreclosed under RCW 74.20A.140 to redeem said property by making payment to the purchaser in the amount paid by the purchaser plus interest thereon at the rate of six percent per annum.

Sec. 15. Section 17, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.170 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary may at any time release a ((child)) support lien, or order to withhold and deliver, on all or part of the property of the debtor, or return seized property without liability, if assurance of payment is deemed adequate by the secretary, or if said action will facilitate the collection of the debt, but said release or return shall not operate to prevent future action to collect from the same or other property.

Sec. 16. Section 18, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.180 are each amended to read as follows:

If the secretary finds that the collection of any ((child)) support debt based upon subrogation to or assignment of the amount of support ordered by any superior court order ((or final decree of divorce)) is in jeopardy, he may make demand under RCW 74.20A.040 for immediate payment of the ((child)) support debt, and upon failure or refusal immediately to pay said ((child)) support debt, he may file and serve liens pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060 and 74.20A.070, without regard to the twenty day period provided for in RCW 74.20A.040: PROVIDED, That no further action under RCW 74.20A.080, 74.20A.130 and 74.20A.140 may be taken until the notice requirements of RCW 74.20A.040 are met.

Sec. 17. Section 19, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Interest of six percent per annum on any ((child)) support debt due and owing to the department under RCW 74.20A.030 may be collected by the secretary. No provision of this chapter shall be construed to require the secretary to maintain interest balance due accounts and said interest may be waived by the secretary, if said waiver would facilitate the collection of the debt.

Sec. 18. Section 20, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person against whose property a ((child)) support lien has been filed or an order to withhold and deliver has been served pursuant to this chapter may apply for relief to the superior court of the county wherein the property is located on the basis that no ((child)) support debt is due and owing; PROVIDED, That judicial relief shall not be granted except as provided for in RCW 74.08.080 whenever a fair hearing has been requested pursuant to RCW 74.20A.050. Liens filed during pendency of fair hearing or court review shall be reviewed pursuant to RCW 74.08.080. It is the intent of this chapter that jurisdictional and constitutional issues, if any, shall be subject to review, but that administrative remedies be exhausted prior to judicial review.

Sec. 19. Section 21, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.210 are each amended to read as follows:

All moneys collected in fees, costs, attorney fees, interest payments, or other funds received by the secretary which are unidentifiable as to the ((child)) support account against which they should be credited, shall be held in a special fund from which the secretary may make disbursement for any costs or expenses incurred in the administration or enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 20. Section 22, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ((child)) support debt due the department from a responsible parent which the secretary deems uncollectible may be transferred from accounts receivable to a suspense account and cease to be accounted as an asset: PROVIDED, That at any time after six years from the date a ((child)) support debt was incurred, the secretary may charge off as uncollectible any ((child)) support debt upon which the secretary finds there is no available, practical, or lawful means by which said debt may be collected: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no proceedings or action under the provisions of this chapter may be begun after expiration of said six year period to institute collection of a ((child)) support debt. Nothing herein shall be construed to render invalid or nonactionable a ((child)) support lien filed prior to the expiration of said six year period or an assignment of earnings or order to withhold and deliver executed prior to the expiration of said six year period.

Sec. 21. Section 23, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.230 are each amended to read as follows:

No employer shall discharge an employee for reason that an assignment of earnings has been presented in settlement of a support debt or that a ((child)) support lien or order to withhold and deliver has been served against said employee's earnings: PROVIDED, That this provision shall not apply if more than three ((child)) support liens or orders to withhold and deliver are served upon the same employer within any period of twelve consecutive months.

Sec. 22. Section 24, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state employing a person owing a ((child)) support debt or obligation, shall honor, according to its terms, a duly executed assignment of earnings presented by the secretary as a plan to satisfy or retire a ((child)) support debt or obligation. This requirement to honor the assignment of earnings and the assignment of earnings itself shall be applicable whether said earnings are to be paid presently or in the future and shall continue in force and effect until released in writing by the secretary. Payment of moneys pursuant to an assignment of earnings presented by the secretary shall serve as full acquittance under any contract of employment, and the state warrants and represents it shall defend and hold harmless such action taken pursuant to said assignment of earnings. The secretary shall be released from liability for improper receipt of moneys under an assignment of earnings upon return of any moneys so received.

Sec. 23. Section 25, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.250 are each amended to read as follows:

By accepting public assistance for or on behalf of a child or children, the recipient shall be deemed to have made assignment to the department of any and all right, title, and interest in any ((child)) support obligation owed to or for said child or children up to the amount of public assistance money paid for or on behalf of said child or children for such term of time as such public assistance moneys are paid. The recipient shall also be deemed, without the necessity of signing any document, to have appointed the secretary as his or her true and lawful attorney in fact to act in his or her name, place, and stead to perform the specific act of endorsing any and all drafts, checks, money orders or other negotiable instruments representing ((child)) support payments which are received on behalf of said child or children as reimbursement for the public assistance moneys previously paid to said recipient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is added to chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 74.20A RCW a new section to read as follows:

One hundred percent of the temporary total disability payments and permanent total disability compensation to a workman allocated by RCW 51.32.090 and 51.32.060 respectively to the spouse and children of a workman, and forty percent of the net proceeds of payments to a workman for permanent partial disability under RCW 51.32.080 shall not be classified as "earnings" but shall be subject to lien or order to withhold and deliver and said lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require any political subdivision or department of the state to withhold the above stated portions at each subsequent disbursement or receipt interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is added to chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 74.20A RCW a new section to read as follows:

As an alternative to the hearing and appeal procedures provided in RCW 74.20A.050, the secretary may, in the absence of a superior court order, serve on the responsible parent a notice and finding of financial responsibility requiring a responsible parent to appear and show cause in a hearing held by the department why the finding of responsibility and/or the amount thereof is incorrect, should not be finally ordered, but should be rescinded or modified. This notice and finding shall relate to the support debt accrued and/or accruing under this chapter and/or RCW 26.16.205, including periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of said responsible parent are in need. Said hearing shall be held pursuant to this 1973 amendatory act, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules and regulations of the department, which shall provide for a fair hearing.

The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be served in the same manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action. Any responsible parent who objects to all or any part of the notice and finding shall have the right for not more than twenty days from the date of service to request in writing a hearing, which request shall be served upon the secretary or his designee by registered or certified mail or personally. If no such request is made, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final. If a request is made, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the decision on such hearing, or any direct appeal to the courts from that decision. Hearings may be held in the county of residence or other place convenient to the responsible parent. Any such hearing shall be a "contested case" as defined in RCW 34.04.010. The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall set forth the amount the department has determined the responsible parent owes, the support debt accrued and/or accruing, and, as appropriate, the amount to be paid thereon each month, all computable on the basis of the amount of the monthly public assistance payment previously paid, or need alleged, and the ability of the responsible parent to pay all, or any portion of the amount so paid and/or being paid and/or to be paid. The notice and finding shall also include a statement of the name of the recipient or custodian and the name of the child or children for whom assistance is being paid or need is alleged; and/or a statement of the amount of periodic future support payments as to which financial responsibility is found.

The notice and finding shall include a statement that the responsible parent may object to all or any part of the notice and finding, request a hearing to show cause why said responsible parent should not be determined to be liable for any or all of the debt, past and future, determined, and the amount to be paid thereon.

The notice and finding shall also include a statement that if the responsible parent fails to request a hearing that the support debt and payments stated in the notice and finding, including periodic support payments in the future, shall be assessed and determined and ordered by the department and that this debt shall be subject to collection action; a statement that the property of the debtor, without further advance notice or hearing, will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver to satisfy the debt.

If a hearing is requested, it shall be promptly scheduled, in no more than thirty days. The hearing examiner shall determine the liability and responsibility, if any, of the alleged responsible parent under RCW 74.20A.030, and shall also determine the amount of periodic payments to be made to satisfy past, present or future liability under RCW 74.20A.030 and/or 26.16.205. In making these determinations, the hearing examiner shall include in his considerations (1) the necessities and requirements of the child or children, exclusive of any income of the custodian of said child or children, (2) the amount of support debt claimed, (3) the public policy and intent of the legislature to require that children be maintained from the resources of responsible parents thereby relieving to the greatest extent possible the burden borne by the general citizenry through welfare programs, and (4) the abilities and resources of the responsible parent.

If the responsible parent fails to appear at the hearing, upon a showing of valid service, the hearing examiner shall enter a decision and order declaring the support debt and payment provisions stated in the notice and finding of financial responsibility to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within fifteen days of entry of said decision and order, the responsible parent may petition the department to vacate said decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010.

The hearing examiner shall, within twenty days of the hearing, enter findings, conclusions and a final decision determining liability and responsibility and/or future periodic support payments. The determination of the hearing examiner entered pursuant to this section shall be entered as a decision and order and shall limit the support debt under RCW 74.20A.030 to the amounts stated in said decision: PROVIDED, That said decision establishing liability and/or future periodic support payments shall be superseded upon entry of a superior court order for support to the extent the superior court order is inconsistent with the hearing order or decision: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the absence of a superior court order either the responsible parent or the department may petition the secretary or his designee for issuance of an order to appear and show cause based on a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances, to require the other party to appear and show cause why the decision previously entered should not be prospectively modified. Said order to appear and show cause together with a copy of the affidavit upon which the order is based shall be served in the manner of a summons in a civil action on the other party by the petitioning party. A hearing shall be set not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of service, unless extended for good cause shown. Prospective modification may be ordered, but only upon a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances.

The department, in its original determinations, and the hearing examiner in making determinations based on objections to original determinations or on petitions to modify, shall consider the standards promulgated pursuant to RCW 74.20.270 and any standards for determination of support payments used by the superior court of the county of residence of the responsible parent.

Debts determined pursuant to this section, accrued and not paid, are subject to collection action under this chapter without further necessity of action by the hearing examiner.

"Need" as used in this section shall mean the necessary costs of food, clothing, shelter and medical attendance for the support of a dependent child or children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government, and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

V NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. The provisions of this 1973 amendatory act shall expire and become null and void July 1, 1975.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973, with the exception of Section 27 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one item House Bill No. 305 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to public assistance."

This act makes various amendments to the law establishing procedures for collection of support for dependent children supported by public assistance grants. This program is responsible for several million dollars in collections annually which are deposited in the state general fund.

Section 27 of this bill, which was not included in the original bill requested by the department of social and health services, would terminate the whole act, first adopted in 1971, on July 1, 1975. This act provides the whole basis for the very successful program in collection of delinquent support payments. It is neither necessary nor appropriate to terminate it in the foreseeable future.

Accordingly, I have determined to veto that item consisting of section 27. With that exception, House Bill No. 305 is approved."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 187, Laws of 1939 as amended by section 1, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.005 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall be known and cited as the ((~~soil~~ and ~~water~~)) conservation districts law.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 187, Laws of 1939 and RCW 89.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is hereby declared, as a matter of legislative determination:

(1) That the ((farm and grazing)) lands of the state of Washington are among the basic assets of the state and that the preservation of these lands is necessary to protect and promote the health, safety, and general welfare of its people; that improper land-use practices have caused and have contributed to, and are now causing and contributing to, a progressively more serious erosion of the ((farm and grazing)) lands of this state by wind and water; that the breaking of natural grass, plant and forest cover have interfered with the natural factors of soil stabilization, causing loosening of soil and exhaustion of humus, and developing a soil condition that favors erosion; that the topsoil is being blown and washed ((out of fields and pastures)) off of lands; that there has been an accelerated washing of sloping ((fields)) lands; that these processes of erosion by wind and water speed up with removal of absorptive topsoil, causing exposure of less absorptive and less protective but more erosive subsoil; that failure by any ((landowner)) land occupier to conserve the soil and control erosion upon his lands may cause((s)) a washing and blowing of soil ((and water)) from his lands onto other lands and makes the conservation of soil and control of erosion on such other lands difficult or impossible, and that extensive denuding of land for development creates critical erosion areas that are difficult to effectively regenerate and the resulting sediment causes extensive pollution of streams, ponds, lakes and other waters.

(2) That the consequences of such soil erosion in the form of soil blowing and soil washing are the silting and sedimentation of stream channels, reservoirs, dams, ditches, and harbors, and loading the air with soil particles; the loss of fertile soil material in dust storms; the piling up of soil on lower slopes and its deposit over alluvial plains; the reduction in productivity or outright ruin of rich bottom lands by overwash of poor subsoil material, sand, and gravel swept out of the hills; deterioration of soil and its fertility, deterioration of crops grown thereon, and declining acre yields despite development of scientific processes for increasing such yields; loss of soil and water which causes destruction of food and cover for wildlife; a blowing and washing of soil into streams which silts over spawning beds, and destroys water plants, diminishing the food supply of fish; a diminishing of the underground water reserve, which causes water shortages, intensifies periods of drought, and causes crop failures; an increase in the speed and volume of rainfall run-off, causing severe and increasing floods, which bring suffering, disease, and death; impoverishment of families attempting to farm eroding and eroded lands; damage to roads, highways, railways, ((farm)) buildings, and other property from floods and from dust storms; and losses in navigation, hydroelectric power, municipal water supply, irrigation developments, farming and grazing.

(3) That to conserve soil resources and control and prevent soil erosion and prevent flood water and sediment damages, and further agricultural and nonagricultural phases of the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water, it is necessary that land-use practices contributing to soil wastage and soil erosion be discouraged and discontinued, and appropriate soil-conserving land-use practices, and works of improvement for flood prevention of agricultural and nonagricultural phases of the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water be adopted and carried out; that among the procedures necessary for widespread adoption, are the carrying on of engineering operations such as the construction of terraces, terrace outlets, check-dams, desilting basins, flood water retarding structures, channel floodways, dikes, ponds, ditches, and the like; the utilization of strip cropping, contour cultivating, and contour furrowing; land irrigation; seeding and planting of waste, sloping, abandoned, or eroded lands to water-conserving and erosion-preventing plants, trees, and grasses; forestation and reforestation; rotation of crops; soil stabilizations with trees, grasses, legumes, and other thick-growing, soil-holding crops, retardation of run-off by increasing absorption of rainfall; and retirement from cultivation of steep, highly erosive areas and areas now badly gullied or otherwise eroded.

(4) Whereas, there is a pressing need for the conservation of renewable resources in all areas of the state, whether urban, suburban, or rural, and that the benefits of resource practices, programs, and projects, as carried out by the state conservation commission and by the conservation districts, should be available to all such areas; therefore, it is hereby declared to be the policy of the legislature to provide for the conservation of the ((soil and soil)) renewable resources of this state, and for the control and prevention of soil erosion, and for the prevention of flood water and sediment damages, and for furthering agricultural and nonagricultural phases of conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water, and thereby to preserve natural resources, control floods, prevent impairment of dams and reservoirs, assist in maintaining the navigability of rivers and harbors, preserve wildlife, protect the tax base, protect public lands, and protect and promote the health, safety, and general welfare of the people of this state. To this end all incorporated cities and towns heretofore excluded from the boundaries of a conservation district established pursuant to the provisions of the state conservation district law, as amended, may be approved by the conservation commission as being included in and deemed a part of the district upon receiving a petition for annexation signed by the governing authority of the city or town and the conservation district within the exterior boundaries of which it lies in whole or in part or to which it lies closest.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 187, Laws of 1939 as last amended by section 2, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, as used in this chapter:

"~~((Committee))~~ Commission" and "~~((conservation committee))~~ state conservation commission" mean the ~~((state soil and water conservation committee))~~ agency created hereunder. All former references to "state soil and water conservation committee", "state committee" or "committee" shall be deemed to be references to the "state conservation commission";

"District", or "conservation district" means a ~~((soil and water conservation district created hereunder))~~ governmental subdivision of this state and a public body corporate and politic, organized in accordance with the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act, for the purposes, with the powers, and subject to the restrictions set forth in this chapter. All districts created under this 1973 amendatory act shall be known as conservation districts and shall have all the powers and duties set out in this 1973 amendatory act. All references in this 1973 amendatory act to "districts", or "soil and water conservation districts" shall be deemed to be reference to "conservation districts";

"Board" and "supervisors" mean the board of supervisors of a ~~((soil and water))~~ conservation district;

~~(("Land owner" or "owner of land" means the holder of legal or equitable title to land in a district~~;

"Tenant" means person or persons who operate a farm under a lease, crop share or similar arrangement;)

"Land occupier" or "occupier of land" includes any person, firm, political subdivision, government agency, municipality, public or private corporation, copartnership, association, or any other entity whatsoever which holds title to, or is in possession of, any lands lying within a district organized under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act, whether as owner, lessee, renter, tenant, or otherwise;

"District elector" means a qualified county elector occupying land within the district boundary;

"Due notice" means a notice published at least twice, with at least six days between publications, in a publication of general circulation within the affected area, or if there is no such publication, by posting at a reasonable number of public places within the area, where it is customary to post notices concerning county and municipal affairs. Any hearing held pursuant to due notice may be postponed from time to time without a new notice;

"Renewable natural resources", "natural resources" or "resources" includes land, air, water, vegetation, fish, wildlife, wild rivers, wilderness, natural beauty, scenery and open space;

"Conservation" includes conservation, development, improvement, maintenance, preservation, protection and use, and alleviation of floodwater and sediment damages, and the disposal of excess surface waters.

"Farm and agricultural land" means either (a) land in any contiguous ownership of twenty or more acres devoted primarily to agricultural uses; (b) any parcel of land five acres or more but less than twenty acres devoted primarily to agricultural uses, which has produced a gross income from agricultural uses equivalent to one hundred dollars or more per acre per year for three of the five calendar years preceding the date of application for classification under this chapter; or (c) any parcel of land of less than five acres devoted primarily to agricultural uses which has produced a gross income of one thousand dollars or more per year for three of the five calendar years preceding the date of application for classification under this chapter. Agricultural lands shall also include farm woodlots of less than twenty and more than five acres and the land on which appurtenances necessary to production, preparation or sale of the agricultural products exist in conjunction with the lands producing such products. Agricultural lands shall also include any parcel of land of one to five acres, which is not contiguous, but which otherwise constitutes an integral part of farming operations being conducted on land qualifying under this section as "farm and agricultural lands".

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 1, chapter 217, Laws of 1967 and RCW 89.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby ~~((created))~~ established to serve as an agency of the state and to perform the functions conferred upon it in this 1973 amendatory act, the state ~~((soil and water))~~ conservation ((committee)) commission, which shall succeed to all powers, duties and property of the state soil and water conservation committee.

The ~~((committee))~~ commission shall consist of seven members, two of whom are ex officio. Two members shall be appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be a landowner or operator of a farm. At least two of the three elected members shall be landowners or operators of a farm and shall be elected as herein provided. The appointed members shall serve for a term of four years.

The three elected members shall be elected for three-year terms, one shall be elected each year by the district supervisors at their annual statewide meeting. One of the members shall reside in eastern Washington, one in central Washington and one in western Washington, the specific boundaries to be determined by district supervisors. At the first such election, the term of the member from western Washington shall be one year, central Washington two years and eastern Washington three years, and successors shall be elected for three years.

Unexpired term vacancies in the office of appointed ((committee)) commission members shall be filled by appointment by the governor in the same manner as full-term appointments. Unexpired terms of elected ((committee)) commission members shall be filled by the regional vice president of the Washington association of ((soil and water)) conservation districts who is serving that part of the state where the vacancy occurs, such term to continue only until district supervisors can fill the unexpired term by electing the ((committee)) commission member.

The director of the department of ((conservation)) ecology and the dean of the college of agriculture at Washington State University shall be ex officio members of the ((committee)) commission. An ex officio member of the ((committee)) commission shall hold office so long as he retains the office by virtue of which he is a member of the ((committee)) commission. Ex officio members may delegate their authority.

The commission may invite appropriate officers of cooperating organizations, state and federal agencies to serve as advisers to the conservation commission.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 4, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.040 are each amended to read as follows:

((The committee shall designate its chairman from time to time)) Members shall receive no compensation, but shall be entitled to expenses, including traveling expenses, necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties.

The ((committee)) commission shall keep a record of ((all)) its official actions, ((proceedings, resolutions, regulations, and orders, provide for an annual audit of its accounts)) shall adopt a seal, which shall be judicially noticed, ((adopt and promulgate rules)) and may perform such acts, hold such public hearings, and ((do all things necessary to carry out its functions)) promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the execution of its functions under this 1973 amendatory act. The state department of ((conservation)) ecology is empowered to pay the necessary per diem and travel expenses of the ((farmer)) elected and appointed members of the state ((soil and water)) conservation ((committee)) commission, and the salaries, wages and other expenses of such administrative officers or other employees as may be required under the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 5, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((committee)) commission may employ an administrative officer, and such technical experts and such other agents and employees, permanent and temporary as it may require((s)), and shall determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation((, and)). The commission may call upon the attorney general for such legal services as it may require.

It ((may)) shall have authority to delegate to its chairman ((or)), to one or more of its members, to one or more agents or employees such duties and powers as it deems proper. ((It shall provide for surety bonds for its officers and employees entrusted with funds or property.)) It shall be supplied with suitable office accommodations at the central office of the department of ecology, and shall be furnished the necessary supplies and equipment.

The commission shall organize annually and select a chairman from among its members, who shall serve for one year from the date of his selection. A majority of the ((committee)) commission shall constitute a quorum((, and a majority must concur in any matter calling for committee action)) and all actions of the commission shall be by a majority vote of the members present and voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.060 are each amended to read as follows:

((The committee may request)) Upon request of the commission, for the purpose of carrying out any of its functions, the supervising officer of any state agency or state institution of learning ((to make studies, surveys, and reports on any matter relating to its functions, and may request that a member of the personnel of such agency or institution be assigned to it as assistant, and such requests shall be complied with so far as possible and practicable)) may, insofar as may be possible under available appropriations and having due regard to the needs of the agency to which the request is directed, assign or detail to the commission, members of the staff or personnel of such agency or institution of learning, and make such special reports, surveys, or studies as the commission may request.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 6, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the duties and ((responsibilities)) powers hereinafter conferred upon the ((committee)) commission, it shall have the following duties and ((responsibilities)) powers:

(1) To offer such assistance as may be appropriate to the supervisors of (~~soil and water~~) conservation districts organized under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act, in the carrying out of any of their powers and programs;

(a) to assist and guide districts in the preparation and carrying out of programs for resource conservation authorized under this act;

(b) to review district programs;

(c) to coordinate the programs of the several districts and resolve any conflicts in such programs;

(d) to facilitate, promote, assist, harmonize, coordinate, and guide the resource conservation programs and activities of districts as they relate to other special purpose districts, counties, and other public agencies.

(2) To keep the supervisors of each of the several (~~soil and water~~) conservation districts organized under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act informed of the activities and experience of all other (~~such~~) districts organized hereunder, and to facilitate an interchange of advice and experience between such districts and cooperation between them.

(3) (~~To coordinate the programs of the several soil and water conservation districts so far as this may be done by advice and consultation;~~) To review agreements, or forms of agreements, proposed to be entered into by districts with other districts or with any state, federal, interstate, or other public or private agency, organization, or individual, and advise the districts concerning such agreements or forms of agreements.

(4) To secure the cooperation and assistance of the United States and any of its agencies, and of agencies of this state in the work of such districts.

(5) To recommend the inclusion in annual and longer term budgets and appropriation legislation of the state of Washington of funds necessary for appropriation by the legislature to finance the activities of the commission and the conservation districts; to administer the provisions of any law hereinafter enacted by the legislature appropriating funds for expenditure in connection with the activities of conservation districts; to distribute to conservation districts funds, equipment, supplies and services received by the commission for that purpose from any source, subject to such conditions as shall be made applicable thereto in any state or federal statute or local ordinance making available such funds, property or services; to issue regulations establishing guidelines and suitable controls to govern the use by conservation districts of such funds, property and services; and to review all budgets, administrative procedures and operations of such districts and advise the districts concerning their conformance with applicable laws and regulations.

(6) To encourage the cooperation and collaboration of state, federal, regional, interstate and local public and private agencies with the conservation districts, and facilitate arrangements under which the conservation districts may serve county governing bodies and other agencies as their local operating agencies in the administration of any activity concerned with the conservation of renewable natural resources.

(7) To disseminate information throughout the state concerning the activities and programs of the ((soil and water)) conservation districts organized hereunder, and to encourage the formation of such districts in areas where their organization is desirable; to make available information concerning the needs and the work of the conservation district and the commission to the governor, the legislature, executive agencies of the government of this state, political subdivisions of this state, cooperating federal agencies, and the general public.

((6) To establish policies for utilization of state appropriations by the committee and by districts and to decide on distribution and use of such funds within the state; also to manage any other funds which may become available for use by districts or by the committee;))

(8) Pursuant to procedures developed mutually by the commission and other state and local agencies that are authorized to plan or administer activities significantly affecting the conservation of renewable natural resources, to receive from such agencies for review and comment suitable descriptions of their plans, programs and activities for purposes of coordination with district conservation programs; to arrange for and participate in conferences necessary to avoid conflict among such plans and programs, to call attention to omissions, and to avoid duplication of effort.

(9) To compile information and make studies, summaries and analysis of district programs in relation to each other and to other resource conservation programs on a state-wide basis.

(10) To assist conservation districts in obtaining legal services from state and local legal officers.

(11) To require annual reports from conservation districts, the form and content of which shall be developed by the commission.

(12) To establish by regulations, with the assistance and advice of the state auditor's office, adequate and reasonably uniform accounting and auditing procedures which shall be used by conservation districts.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 17, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 7, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.080 are each amended to read as follows:

To form a ((soil and water)) conservation district, twenty-five or more persons ((owning)) occupying land within the area to be affected may file a petition with the ((committee)) commission asking that the area be organized into a district.

The petition shall give the name of the proposed district, state that it is needed in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare, give a general description of the area proposed to be organized and request that the ((committee)) commission determine that it be created, and that it define the boundaries thereof and call an election on the question of creating the district.

If more than one petition is filed covering parts of the same area, the ((committee)) commission may consolidate all or any of them.

Sec. 10. Section 9, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Within thirty days after a petition is filed, the ((committee)) commission shall give due notice of the time and place of a public hearing thereon. At the hearing all interested persons shall be heard.

If it appears to the ((committee)) commission that additional land should be included in the district, the hearing shall be adjourned and a new notice given covering the entire area and a new date fixed for further hearing, unless waiver of notice by the owners of the additional land is filed with the ((committee)) commission.

No district shall include any portion of a railroad right of way, or another similar district. The lands included in a district need not be contiguous.

Sec. 11. Section 10, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.100 are each amended to read as follows:

After the hearing, if the ((committee)) commission finds that the public health, safety, and welfare warrant the creation of the district, it shall enter an order to that effect and define the boundaries thereof by metes and bounds or by legal subdivisions.

In making its findings the ((committee)) commission shall consider the topography of the particular area and of the state generally; the composition of the soil; the distribution of erosion; the prevailing land use practices; the effects upon and benefits to the land proposed to be included; the relation of the area to existing watersheds and agricultural regions and to other similar districts organized or proposed; and consider such other physical, geographical, and economic factors as are relevant.

If the ((committee)) commission finds there is no need for the district, it shall enter an order denying the petition, and no petition covering the same or substantially the same area may be filed within six months thereafter.

Sec. 12. Section 11, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.110 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ((committee)) commission finds that the district is needed, it shall then determine whether it is practicable. To assist the ((committee)) commission in determining this question, it shall, within a reasonable time, submit the proposition to a vote of the ((landowners and tenants)) land occupiers in the proposed district.

The ((committee)) commission shall fix the date of the election, ((establish the voting precincts,)) designate the polling places, fix the hours for opening and closing the polls, and appoint the election officials. The election shall be conducted, the vote counted and returns canvassed and the results published by the ((committee in the same manner as is done in general county elections)) commission.

Sec. 13. Section 12, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 8, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((committee)) commission shall provide the ballots for the election which shall contain the words

"n For creation of a ((soil and water)) conservation district of the lands below described and lying in the county or counties of,, and, " and

"n Against creation of a ((soil and water)) conservation district of the lands below described and lying in the county or counties of,, and, ."

The ballot shall set forth the boundaries of the proposed district, and contain a direction to insert an X in the square of the voter's choice.

Sec. 14. Section 13, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((committee)) commission shall give due notice of the election, which shall state generally the purpose of the election, the date thereof, the place and hours of voting, and set forth the boundaries of the proposed district.

Only ((owners of land and tenants)) qualified electors within the proposed district as determined by the ((committee)) commission may vote at the election. Each voter shall vote in the ((precinct of)) polling place nearest his residence. If he resides outside the district, he shall vote at the nearest polling place ((in)) of the district.

Sec. 15. Section 14, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((committee)) commission shall bear all expense of giving the notices and conducting the hearings and election, and shall issue regulations governing all hearings and elections and supervise the conduct thereof. It shall provide for registration of eligible voters or prescribe the procedure to determine the eligible voters. No informality in connection with the election shall invalidate the results, if the notice thereof was substantially given, and the election fairly conducted.

Sec. 16. Section 15, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.150 are each amended to read as follows:

If a majority of the votes cast at the election are against the creation of the district, the ~~((committee))~~ commission shall deny the petition. If a majority favor the district, the ~~((committee))~~ commission shall determine the practicability of the project.

In making such determination, the ~~((committee))~~ commission shall consider the attitude of the ~~((landowners))~~ land occupiers of the district; the number of eligible voters who voted at the election; the size of the majority vote; the wealth and income of the ~~((landowners))~~ land occupiers; the probable expense of carrying out the project; and any other economic factors relevant thereto.

If the ~~((committee))~~ commission finds that the project is impracticable it shall enter an order to that effect and deny the petition. When the petition has been denied, no new petition covering the same or substantially the same area may be filed within six months therefrom.

Sec. 17. Section 16, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.160 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ~~((committee))~~ commission finds the project practicable, it shall appoint two supervisors, one of whom shall be a landowner or operator of a farm, who shall be qualified by training and experience to perform the specialized skilled services required of them. They, with the three elected supervisors, two of whom shall be landowners or operators of a farm, shall constitute the governing board of the district.

The two appointed supervisors shall file with the secretary of state a sworn application, reciting that a petition was filed with the ~~((committee))~~ commission for the creation of the district; that all required proceedings were had thereon; that they were appointed by the ~~((committee))~~ commission as such supervisors; and that the application is being filed to complete the organization of the district. It shall contain the names and residences of the applicants, a certified copy of their appointments, the name of the district, the location of the office of the supervisors and the term of office of each applicant.

The application shall be accompanied by a statement of the ~~((committee))~~ commission, reciting that a petition was filed, notice issued, and hearing held thereon as required; that it determined the need for the district and defined the boundaries thereof; that notice was given and an election held on the question of creating the district; that a majority vote favored the district, and that the ((committee)) commission had determined the district practicable; and shall set forth the boundaries of the district.

Sec. 18. Section 17, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 9, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.170 are each amended to read as follows:

If the secretary of state finds that the name of the proposed district is such as will not be confused with that of any other district, he shall enter the application and statement in his records. If he finds the name may be confusing, he shall certify that fact to the ((committee)) commission, which shall submit a new name free from such objections, and he shall enter the application and statement as modified, in his records. Thereupon the district shall be considered organized into a body corporate.

The secretary of state shall then issue to the supervisors a certificate of organization of the district under the seal of the state, and shall record the certificate in his office. Proof of the issuance of the certificate shall be evidence of the establishment of the district, and a certified copy of the certificate shall be admissible as evidence and shall be proof of the filing and contents thereof. The name of a ((soil and water)) conservation district may be changed upon recommendation by the supervisors of a district and approval by the state ((soil and water)) conservation ((committee)) commission and the secretary of state. The new name shall be recorded by the secretary of state following the same general procedure as for the previous name.

Sec. 19. Section 18, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 10, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Territory may be added to an existing district upon filing a petition as in the case of formation with the ((committee)) commission by ((owners and tenants)) occupiers of the lands to be included. The same procedure shall be followed as for the creation of the district.

As an alternate procedure, the ((committee)) commission may upon the petition of a majority of the ((owners of land and tenants)) land occupiers in any one or more districts or in unorganized territory adjoining a conservation district change the boundaries of a district, or districts, if such action will promote the practical and feasible administration of such district or districts.

Upon petition of the boards of supervisors of two or more districts, the ((committee)) commission may approve the combining of all or parts of such districts and name the district, or districts, with the approval of the name by the secretary of state. A public hearing and/or a referendum may be held if deemed necessary or desirable by the ((committee)) commission in order to determine the wishes of ((landowners and tenants)) land occupiers.

When districts are combined, the joint boards of supervisors will first select a chairman, secretary and other necessary officers and select a regular date for meetings. All elected supervisors will continue to serve as members of the board until the expiration of their current term of office, and/or until the election date nearest their expiration date. ((One supervisor shall be elected each year*)) All appointed supervisors will continue to serve until the expiration of their current term of office, at which time the ((committee)) commission will make the necessary appointments. In the event that more than two districts are combined, a similar procedure will be set up and administered by the ((committee)) commission.

When districts are combined or territory is moved from one district to another, the property, records and accounts of the districts involved shall be distributed to the remaining district or districts as approved by the ((committee)) commission. A new certificate of organization, naming and describing the new district or districts, shall be issued by the secretary of state.

Sec. 20. Section 6, chapter 187, Laws of 1939 as last amended by section 2, chapter 217, Laws of 1967 and RCW 89.08.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Within thirty days after the issuance of the certificate of organization, unless the time is extended by the ((committee)) commission, petitions shall be filed with the ((committee)) commission to nominate candidates for the three elected supervisors. The petition shall be signed by not less than twenty-five district ((voters)) electors, and a ((voter)) district elector may sign petitions nominating more than one person.

In the case of a new district, the ((committee)) commission shall give due notice to elect the three supervisors. All provisions pertaining to elections on the creation of a district shall govern this election so far as applicable. The names of all nominees shall appear on the ballot in alphabetical order, together with instructions to vote for three. The three candidates receiving the most votes shall be declared elected supervisors, the one receiving the most being elected for a three-year term, the next for two and the last for one year. An alternate method of dividing the district into three zones may be used when requested by the board of supervisors and approved by the ((committee)) commission. In such case, instructions will be to vote for one in each zone. The candidate receiving the most votes in a zone shall be declared elected.

Each year after the creation of the first board of supervisors, the board shall by resolution and by giving due notice, set a date during the first quarter of each calendar year (~~for an annual meeting of the voters in the district;~~) at which time it shall conduct an election(~~;~~ ~~present an annual report and a financial statement~~). Names of candidates nominated by petition shall appear in alphabetical order on the ballots, together with an extra line wherein may be written in the name of any other candidate. The ~~(committee)~~ commission shall establish procedures for elections, canvass the returns and announce the official results thereof. Election results may be announced by polling officials (~~during the annual meeting;~~) at the close of the election subject to official canvass of ballots by the ~~(committee)~~ commission. Supervisors elected shall take office at the first board meeting (~~which shall be held within thirty days~~) following the election.

Sec. 21. Section 21, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 12, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.200 are each amended to read as follows:

The term of office of each supervisor shall be three years and until his successor is appointed or elected and qualified, except that the supervisors first appointed shall serve for one and two years respectively from the date of their appointments, as designated in their appointments.

In the case of elected supervisors, the term of office of each supervisor shall be three years and until his successor is elected and qualified, except that for the first election, the one receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected for three years; the next largest two years; and the third largest one year. Successors shall be elected for three-year terms.

Vacancies in the office of appointed supervisors shall be filled by the state ~~(soil and water)~~ conservation ~~(committee)~~ commission. Vacancies in the office of elected supervisors shall be filled by appointment made by the remaining supervisors for the unexpired term.

A majority of the supervisors shall constitute a quorum and the concurrence of a majority is required for any official action or determination.

Supervisors shall serve without compensation, but they shall be entitled to expenses, including traveling expenses, necessarily incurred in discharge of their duties. A supervisor may be removed by the state ~~(soil and water)~~ conservation ~~(committee)~~ commission upon notice and hearing, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, but for no other reason.

The governing board shall designate a chairman from time to time.

Sec. 22. Section 22, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((board)) supervisors may employ ((all necessary clerical and)) a secretary, technical ((assistants) experts, and such other officers, agents, and employees, permanent and temporary, as they may require, and determine ((the)) their qualifications, duties, and compensation ((of its employees)). It may call upon the attorney general for legal services, or may employ its own counsel and legal staff. ((It)) The supervisors may delegate to ((its)) their chairman, to one or more supervisors, or to one or more agents or employees such powers and duties as it deems proper. The supervisors shall furnish to the commission, upon request, copies of such internal rules, regulations, orders, contracts, forms, and other documents as they shall adopt or employ, and such other information concerning their activities as the commission may require in the performance of its duties under this 1973 amendatory act. ((It)) The supervisors shall provide for the execution of surety bonds for ((the)) officers and all employees who shall be entrusted with funds or property.

The ((board)) supervisors shall ((keep a)) provide for the keeping of a full and accurate record of all ((its)) proceedings, resolutions, ((rules,)) regulations, and orders((, and ordinances, which shall be open to public inspection and remain in the custody and control of its chairman)) issued or adopted. ((It)) The supervisors shall provide for an annual audit of ((its)) the accounts of receipts and disbursements in accordance with procedures prescribed by regulations of the commission. ((It shall furnish the committee, upon request, copies of its rules, regulations, orders, documents and instruments used by it, and any other information concerning its activities;))

The board may invite the legislative body of any municipality or county near or within the district, to designate a representative to advise and consult with it on all questions of program and policy which may affect the property, water supply, or other interests of such municipality or county. The governing body of a district shall appoint such advisory committees as may be needed to assure the availability of appropriate channels of communication to the board of supervisors, to persons affected by district operations, and to local, regional, state and interstate special-purpose districts and agencies responsible for community planning, zoning, or other resource development activities. The district shall keep such committees informed of its work, and such advisory committees shall submit recommendations from time to time to the board of supervisors.

Sec. 23. Section 23, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 1, chapter 110, Laws of 1963 and RCW 89.08.220 are each amended to read as follows:

A conservation district organized under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act shall constitute a governmental subdivision of this state, and a public body corporate and politic exercising public powers, but shall not levy taxes or issue bonds((+)) and such district, and the supervisors thereof, shall have the following powers, in addition to others granted in other sections of this 1973 amendatory act:

((A district may:))

(1) ((Conduct, in cooperation with the Washington State University and any state or federal agency; surveys relating to water and to the character of soil erosion and control measures needed within the district; publish the results thereof; and disseminate the information concerning such measures)) To conduct surveys, investigations, and research relating to the conservation of renewable natural resources and the preventive and control measures and works of improvement needed, to publish the results of such surveys, investigations, or research, and to disseminate information concerning such preventive and control measures and works of improvement: PROVIDED, That in order to avoid duplication of research activities, no district shall initiate any research program except in cooperation with the government of this state or any of its agencies, or with the United States or any of its agencies;

(2) ((Conduct demonstrational projects within the district on lands or waters controlled by any state agency in cooperation with such agency and on other lands or waters within the district with the consent of the owner thereof; in order to demonstrate how soil or water and soil and water resources may be conserved and soil erosion prevented and controlled)) To conduct educational and demonstrational projects on any lands within the district upon obtaining the consent of the occupier of such lands and such necessary rights or interests in such lands as may be required in order to demonstrate by example the means, methods, measures, and works of improvement by which the conservation of renewable natural resources may be carried out;

(3) To carry out preventative and control measures and works of improvement for the conservation of renewable natural resources, ((such as engineering operations, methods of cultivation, growing of vegetation or changes in water use or land use on land or water)) within the district((; with the consent and cooperation of the person or agency owning it or in control thereof)) including, but not limited to, engineering operations, methods of cultivation, the growing of vegetation, changes in use of lands, and the measures listed in section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act, on any lands within the district upon obtaining the consent of the occupier of such lands and such necessary rights or interests in such lands as may be required;

(4) To cooperate or enter into agreements with, and within the limits of appropriations duly made available to it by law, to furnish financial or other aid to any agency ((or landowner or tenant and furnish financial or other aid)), governmental or otherwise, or any occupier of lands within the district in the carrying on ((erosion control and preventive operations)) of preventive and control measures and works of improvement for the conservation of renewable natural resources within the district, ((as the board)) subject to such conditions as the supervisors may deem((s)) necessary to ((carry out)) advance the purposes of this ((chapter)) 1973 amendatory act;

(5) To obtain options upon and to acquire in any manner, except by condemnation, ((any property or rights therein necessary or proper to further the purposes for which it was created, and manage, lease, and dispose of such property for such purposes, and use the income therefrom for district purposes)) by purchase, exchange, lease, gift, bequest, devise, or otherwise, any property, real or personal, or rights or interests therein; to maintain, administer, and improve any properties acquired, to receive income from such properties and to expend such income in carrying out the purposes and provisions of this 1973 amendatory act; and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any of its property or interests therein in furtherance of the purposes and the provisions of this act;

(6) To make available ((to landowners and tenants in)), on such terms, as it shall prescribe, to land occupiers within the district, agricultural and engineering machinery and equipment, fertilizer, seeds, seedlings, and such other equipment and material as will assist them ((to conserve their water and soil resources and prevent and control soil erosion)) to carry on operations upon their lands for the conservation of renewable natural resources;

(7) ((Develop detailed comprehensive plans for the conservation of water and soil resources and prevention and control of soil erosion and publish such plans and spread the information thereon throughout the district;)) To prepare and keep current a comprehensive long-range program recommending the conservation of all the renewable natural resources of the district. Such programs shall be directed toward the best use of renewable natural resources and in a manner that will best meet the needs of the district and the state, taking into consideration, where appropriate, such uses as farming, grazing, timber supply, forest, parks, outdoor recreation, potable water supplies for urban and rural areas, water for agriculture, minimal flow, and industrial uses, watershed stabilization, control of soil erosion, retardation of water run-off, flood prevention and control, reservoirs and other water storage, restriction of developments of flood plains, protection of open space and scenery, preservation of natural beauty, protection of fish and wildlife, preservation of wilderness areas and wild rivers, the prevention or reduction of sedimentation and other pollution in rivers and other waters, and such location of highways, schools, housing developments, industries, airports and other facilities and structures as will fit the needs of the state and be consistent with the best uses of the renewable natural resources of the state. The program shall include an inventory of all renewable natural resources in the district, a compilation of current resource needs, projections of future resource requirements, priorities for various resource activities, projected timetables, descriptions of available alternatives, and provisions for coordination with other resource programs.

The district shall also prepare an annual work plan, which shall describe the action programs, services, facilities, materials, working arrangements and estimated funds needed to carry out the parts of the long-range programs that are of the highest priorities.

The districts shall hold public hearings at appropriate times in connection with the preparation of programs and plans, shall give careful consideration to the views expressed and problems revealed in hearings, and shall keep the public informed concerning their programs, plans, and activities. Occupiers of land shall be invited to submit proposals for consideration to such hearings. The districts may supplement such hearings with meetings, referenda and other suitable means to determine the wishes of interested parties and the general public in regard to current and proposed plans and programs of a district. They shall confer with public and private agencies, individually and in groups, to give and obtain information and understanding of the impact of district operations upon agriculture, forestry, water supply and quality, flood control, particular industries, commercial concerns and other public and private interests, both rural and urban.

Each district shall submit to the commission its proposed long-range program and annual work plans for review and comment.

The long-range renewable natural resource program, together with the supplemental annual work plans, developed by each district under the foregoing procedures shall have official status as the authorized program of the district, and it shall be published by the districts as its "renewable resources program". Copies shall be made available by the districts to the appropriate counties, municipalities, special purpose districts and state agencies, and shall be made available in convenient places for examination by public land occupier or private interest concerned. Summaries of the program and selected material therefrom shall be distributed as widely as feasible for public information;

(8) ((Acquire or lease and operate any water or soil conservation, erosion control, or prevention project in the district undertaken by any state or federal agency; act as agent for the agency in acquiring, constructing, or operating the project; and accept contributions from the agency and use them to carry out its operations;)) To administer any project or program concerned with the conservation of renewable natural resources located within its boundaries undertaken by any federal, state, or other public agency by entering into a contract or other appropriate administrative arrangement with any agency administering such project or program;

(9) Cooperate with other districts organized under this ((chapter)) 1973 amendatory act in the exercise of any of its powers;

(10) ((Construct, improve, and maintain structures necessary or convenient for its purposes and borrow moneys from any agency of the United States or from other lending agencies for the purpose of carrying out said activities; and)) To accept donations, gifts, and contributions in money, services, materials, or otherwise, from the United States or any of its agencies, from this state or any of its agencies, or from any other source, and to use or expend such moneys, services, materials, or any contributions in carrying out the purposes of this act;

(11) To sue and be sued in ((its)) the name of the district; ((adopt)) to have a seal which shall be judicially noticed; have perpetual ((existence, subject to termination provided herein)) succession unless terminated as hereinafter provided; ((execute all instruments necessary for its purposes;)) to make and execute contracts and other instruments, necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers; to borrow money and to pledge, mortgage and assign the income of the district and its real or personal property therefor; and to make ((and)), amend rules and regulations not inconsistent with this 1973 amendatory act and to carry ((out)) into effect its purposes((+));

(12) Any two or more districts may engage in joint activities by agreement between or among them in planning, financing, constructing, operating, maintaining, and administering any program or project concerned with the conservation of renewable natural resources. The districts concerned may make available for purposes of the agreement any funds, property, personnel, equipment, or services available to them under this 1973 amendatory act;

Any district may enter into such agreements with a district or districts in adjoining states to carry out such purposes if the law in such other states permits the districts in such states to enter into such agreements.

The commission shall have authority to propose, guide, and facilitate the establishment and carrying out of any such agreement;

(13) Every district shall, through public hearings, annual meetings, publications, or other means, keep the general public, agencies and occupiers of land within the district, informed of the works and activities planned and administered by the district, of the purposes these will serve, of the income and expenditures of the district, of the funds borrowed by the district and the purposes for which such funds are expended, and of the results achieved annually by the district; and

(14) The supervisors of conservation districts may designate an area, state, and national association of conservation districts as a coordinating agency in the execution of the duties imposed by this chapter, and to make gifts in the form of dues, quotas, or otherwise to such associations for costs of services rendered, and may support and attend such meetings as may be required to promote and perfect the organization and to effect its purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is added to chapter 89.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any agency of the government of this state and any local political subdivision of this state is hereby authorized to make such arrangements with any district, through contract, regulation or other appropriate means, wherever it believes that such arrangements will promote administrative efficiency or economy.

In connection with any such arrangements, any state or local agency or political subdivision of this state is authorized, within the limits of funds available to it, to contribute funds, equipment, property or services to any district; and to collaborate with a district in jointly planning, constructing, financing or operating any work or activity provided for in such arrangements and in the joint acquisition, maintenance and operation of equipment or facilities in connection therewith.

State agencies, the districts, and other local agencies are authorized to make available to each other maps, reports and data in their possession that are useful in the preparation of their respective programs and plans for resource conservation. The districts shall keep the state and local agencies fully informed concerning the status and progress of the preparation of their resource conservation programs and plans.

The state conservation commission and the counties of the state may provide respective conservation districts such administrative funds as will be necessary to carry out the purpose of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 25. Section 25, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.350 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time after five years from the organization of a district, ((fifteen owners and tenants of land)) one hundred land occupiers in the district may file with the ((committee)) commission a petition, praying that the district be dissolved. The ((committee)) commission may hold public hearings thereon, and within sixty days from receipt of the petition, shall give due notice of an election on the question of dissolution. It shall provide appropriate ballots, conduct the election, canvass the returns, and declare the results in the same manner as for elections to create a district.

All ((owners and tenants of land in the district)) district electors may vote at the election. No informality relating to the election shall invalidate it if notice is substantially given and the election is fairly conducted.

Sec. 26. Section 26, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.360 are each amended to read as follows:

If a majority of the votes cast at the election are for dissolution, the district shall be dissolved. If two-thirds of the votes are against dissolution, the ((committee)) commission shall determine whether the continuance of the district is practicable. In making the determination it shall consider all the factors considered by it in determining that the district was practicable originally. If it finds that further operation of the district is impracticable it shall order it dissolved and certify its determination to the supervisors.

Sec. 27. Section 27, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.370 are each amended to read as follows:

If the district is ordered dissolved, the supervisors shall forthwith terminate the affairs of the district and dispose of all district property at public auction, and pay the proceeds therefrom to the state treasurer.

They shall then file a verified application with the secretary of state for the dissolution of the district, accompanied by a certificate of the ((committee)) commission reciting the determination that further operation of the district is impracticable. The application shall recite that the property of the district has been disposed of, that the proceeds therefrom have been paid to the treasurer, and contain a full accounting of the property and proceeds. Thereupon the secretary shall issue to the supervisors a certificate of dissolution and file a copy thereof in his records.

Sec. 28. Section 28, chapter 304, Laws of 1955 and RCW 89.08.380 are each amended to read as follows:

A dissolution of a district shall not affect any contracts or obligations of the district. Upon the issuance of the certificate of dissolution, the ((committee)) commission shall be substituted for the supervisors and it shall assume all the duties, liabilities, and powers of the supervisors.

When a petition for the dissolution of a district is rejected, no new petition may be filed for a period of five years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. Section 14, chapter 187, Laws of 1939, section 14, chapter 240, Laws of 1961 and RCW 89.08.340 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. Insofar as any of the provisions of this chapter are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this chapter shall be controlling: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That none of the provisions of this chapter shall be construed so as to impair water rights appurtenant to lands within or without the boundaries of any district or districts organized hereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. If any provision of this chapter, or the application of any provision to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Passed the House March 20, 1973.

CHAPTER 185
[Substitute House Bill No. 306]
ENVIRONMENTAL COORDINATION PROCEDURES
ACT OF 1973

AN ACT Relating to coordination of procedures in relation to projects which contemplate use of the state's natural resources; adding a new chapter to Title 90 RCW; and making an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) It is the sense of the legislature that the heavy burdens placed upon persons proposing to undertake certain types of projects in this state through requirements to obtain numerous permits and related documents from various state and local agencies are undesirable and should be alleviated. The legislature further finds that present methods for obtaining public views in relation to applications to state and local agencies pertaining to these projects are cumbersome and place undue hardships on members of the public thereby thwarting the public's ability to present such views.

(2) The purposes of this chapter are to:

(a) Provide for an optional procedure to assist those who, in the course of satisfying the requirements of state government prior to undertaking a project which contemplates the use of the state's air, land, or water resources, must obtain a number of permits, from the department of ecology and one or more state or local agencies by establishing a mechanism in state government which will coordinate administrative decision-making procedures, and related quasi judicial and judicial review, pertaining to such documents.

(b) Provide to members of the public a better and easier opportunity to present their views comprehensively on proposed uses of natural resource and related environmental matters prior to the making of decisions on such uses by state or local agencies.

(c) Provide to members of the public who desire to carry out the aforementioned projects within the state of Washington a greater degree of certainty in terms of permit requirements of state and local government.

(d) Provide better coordination and understanding between state and local agencies in the administration of the various programs relating to air, water, and land resources.

(e) Establish the opportunity for members of the public to obtain information pertaining to requirements of federal and state law which must be satisfied prior to undertaking a project in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of this chapter the following words mean, unless the context clearly dictates otherwise:

(1) "Board" means the pollution control hearings board.

(2) "Department" means the department of ecology.

(3) "Local government" means a county, city or town.

(4) "Permit" means any license, permit, certificate, certification, approval, compliance schedule, or other similar document pertaining to any regulatory or management program related to the protection, conservation, or use of, or interference with, the natural resources of land, air or water in the state, which is required to be obtained from a state agency prior to constructing or operating a project in the state of Washington. Permit shall also mean a substantial development permit under RCW 90.58.140. Nothing in this chapter shall relate to a permit issued by the department of labor and industries or by the utilities and transportation commission; nor to the granting of proprietary interests in publicly owned property such as sales, leases, easements, use permits and licenses.

(5) "Person" means any individual, municipal, public, or private corporation, or other entity however denominated, including a state agency and county.

(6) "Processing" and "processing of applications" mean the entire process to be followed in relation to the making of decisions on an application for a permit and review thereof as provided in sections 4 through 8 of this 1973 act.

(7) "Project" means any new activity or any expansion of or addition to an existing activity, fixed in location, for which permits are required from the department of ecology and one or more other state agencies prior to construction or operation, including, but not limited to industrial and commercial operations and developments.

(8) "State agency" means any state department, commission, board or other agency of the state however titled. For the limited purposes of this chapter only "state agency" shall also mean (a) any local or regional air pollution control authority established under chapter 70.94 RCW and (b) any local government when said government is acting in its capacity as a decision maker on an application for a permit pursuant to RCW 90.58.140.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Nothing in this chapter shall apply to a plant or project which is required to be the subject of a certification by the governor pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Any person proposing a project may submit a master application to the department requesting the issuance of all permits necessary prior to the construction and operation of the project in the state of Washington. The master application shall be on a form furnished by the department and shall contain precise information as to the location of the project, and shall describe the nature of the project including any discharges of wastes proposed therefrom and any uses of, or interferences with, natural resources contemplated. No master application shall be accepted for processing by the department of ecology pursuant to this chapter unless it is accompanied by the certification of local government provided for in section 10 of this 1973 act.

(2) Upon receipt of a properly completed master application, the department shall immediately notify in writing each state agency having a possible interest in the master application arising from requirements pertaining to a permit program under its jurisdiction. The notification from the department shall be accompanied by a copy of the master application together with the date by which the agency shall respond to the notice. Each notified agency shall respond in writing to the department within the specified date, not exceeding fifteen days from receipt, as determined by the department, advising (a) (i) whether the agency does or does not have an interest in the master application, and (a) (ii) if the response to (a) (i) of this subsection is affirmative, the permit program or programs under the agency's jurisdiction to which the project described in the master application is pertinent, and whether, in relation to the master application, a public hearing as provided in sections 5 and 6 of this 1973 act would or would not be of value taking into consideration the overall public interest. Each notified agency which (b) (i) responds within the specified date that it does not have an interest in the master application or (b) (ii) does not respond as required above within the specified date, shall not subsequently require a permit of the applicant for the project described in the master application; provided the bar to requiring a permit subsequently shall not be applicable if the master application provided the notified agency contained false, misleading, or deceptive information, or other information, or lack thereof, which would reasonably lead an agency to misjudge its interest in a master application.

(3) The department shall submit application forms relating to permit programs identified in affirmative responses under subsection (2) of this section to the applicant with a direction to complete and return them to the department within a reasonable time as specified by the department.

(4) When such applications, properly completed, have been returned to the department, each of the applications shall be transmitted to the appropriate state agency for the performance of its responsibilities of decision making in accordance with the procedures of this chapter.

(5) For the purpose of establishing priority dates upon water right permits and certificates issued pursuant to rulings on applications under chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW and processed under this chapter, the priority date shall be the date of submitting the master application to the department or the county office as provided in section 12(2) of this 1973 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The department, within a reasonable time after transmittal under section 4(4) of this 1973 act, shall cause a notice to be published at the applicant's expense once each week on the same day of the week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within each county in which the project is proposed to be constructed or operated. The notice shall describe the nature of the master application including, with reasonable specificity, the project proposed, its location, the various permits applied for, and the state agency having jurisdiction over each such permit. Except as provided in section 5(2) of this 1973 act, the notice shall also state the time and place of the public hearing (to be held not less than twenty days after the date of last publication of the notice). It shall further state that a copy of the master application and a copy of all permit applications for the project are available for public inspection in the office for environmental permit applications of each county in which the project is proposed to be constructed or operated, as well as at the Olympia office and appropriate regional office of the department, together with such other locations as the department may designate.

(2) If the responses received by the department from state agencies under section 4(2) of this 1973 act unanimously state the position that a public hearing in relation to a master application would not be of value taking into consideration the overall public interest, and the department, after a careful evaluation, taking into consideration all interests involved, including the opportunities for members of the public to present views, concludes likewise, the provisions of subsection (1) of this section pertaining to the time and place of a public hearing shall not be included in the notice. In place thereof the notice shall state that members of the public may present relevant views and supporting materials in writing to the department in relation to any of the permits applied for within thirty days after the last date of publication of the notice in a newspaper.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Except as provided in section 5(2) of this 1973 act, prior to any final decision on any permit applications relating to a project subject to the procedures of this chapter, a public hearing shall be held in the county in which all or a major part of the proposed project is to be constructed or operated, such hearing to be held pursuant to notice made under section 5(1) of this 1973 act. At any such hearing the applicant may submit any relevant information and material in support of his applications, and members of the public may present relevant views and supporting materials in relation to any or all of the applications being considered.

(2) Each state agency having an application for a permit before it as described in the notice in section 5(1) of this 1973 act shall be represented at the public hearing by its chief administrative officer or his designee. The director of the department, or a hearing officer duly appointed by him, shall chair the hearing; however, the representative of any state agency (other than the department) within whose jurisdiction a specific application lies shall conduct the portion of the hearing pertaining to submission of information, views, and supporting materials which are relevant to that application. The chairman may, when appropriate, continue a hearing from time to time and place to place. The hearing shall be recorded in any manner suitable for transcription as determined by the department.

(3) No provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW shall apply to the hearing provided for by this section. Said hearing shall be conducted for the purpose of obtaining information for the assistance of state agencies but shall not be considered a trial or adversary proceeding.

(4) Upon completion of the public hearing the chairman, after consultation with the state agency representatives, shall establish the date by which all state agencies shall forward their final decisions on applications before them to the department: PROVIDED, That this date may be extended by the chairman for reasonable cause. Every final decision shall set forth the basis for the conclusion reached together with a final order denying the application for a permit or granting it, subject to such conditions of approval as the deciding agency may have power to impose.

(5) In situations where a notice is provided pursuant to section 5(2) of this 1973 act and no public hearing is conducted, the department shall, after thirty days after the last notice publication in the newspaper, submit a copy of all views and supporting material received by it to each agency having an application for a permit before it as described in the notice. Concurrently therewith, the department shall notify each state agency, in writing, of the date by which final decisions on applications shall be forwarded to the department: PROVIDED, That this date may be extended by the department for reasonable cause. Each such final decision shall consist of the same contents as provided for final decisions in section 6(4) of this 1973 act.

(6) As soon as all final decisions are received by the department from the various participating state agencies, as provided in section 6 (4) and (5) of this 1973 act, the department shall incorporate them, without modification, into one document and transmit the same to the applicant either personally or by registered mail.

(7) Each state agency having jurisdiction to approve or deny an application for a permit shall have continuing power as vested in it prior to enactment of this 1973 act to make such determinations. Nothing in sections 3 through 6 of this 1973 act shall lessen or reduce such powers, and such sections shall modify only the procedures to be followed in the carrying out of such powers.

(8) A state agency may in the performance of its responsibilities of decision making under this chapter, request or receive additional information from an applicant and others prior or subsequent to a public hearing as necessary to the performance thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A state agency responding affirmatively as provided in section 4(2) of this 1973 act may withdraw from further participation in the processing provided in sections 4, 5, and 6 of this 1973 act at any time, by written notification to the director, if it subsequently appears to such state agency that it has no permit programs under its jurisdiction applicable to the project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Any person aggrieved by any final decision contained in the document issued by the department pursuant to section 6(6) of this 1973 act may obtain review thereof by filing a request, with the board, within thirty days of the transmittal under section 6(6) by the department of ecology of the document, for all final decisions other than a final decision relating to the granting or denial of a substantial development permit pursuant to RCW 90.58.140 in which case the filing of such request shall be with the shorelines hearings board. The board shall review all final decisions other than a final decision on a substantial development permit which shall be reviewed by the shorelines hearings board. In the event a request for review includes a final decision involving a substantial development permit and other permits, there shall be single staged hearing of the permits by the boards. The board shall be authorized to adopt rules and regulations implementing such staged hearings and the filing of requests so as to eliminate all unnecessary duplication. The scope of review by the boards and the standards of reviews used by the boards for determining the validity of any final decision shall be those contained in RCW 34.04.130.

(2) Judicial review of decisions of the actions of boards shall be controlled by RCW 43.21B.180 through 43.21B.200 except as they relate to decisions pertaining to substantial development permits under RCW 90.58.140 which shall be controlled by RCW 90.58.180.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Notwithstanding any other statutes relating to the processing of application for permits, the procedures, including timing requirements and approval requirements related thereto, set forth in this chapter shall be exclusive in relation to applications for permits filed pursuant to section 4 of this 1973 act. The procedures of this chapter shall be in lieu of any procedures otherwise provided by statute, existing or hereafter enacted, to be followed by a state agency in ruling upon an application for a permit for a project under this chapter.

(2) The procedures of this chapter are applicable only to projects as defined in section 2(7) of this 1973 act and only through the completion of final decisions under section 6 of this 1973 act and of review proceedings of section 8 of this 1973 act and any ancillary proceedings. This chapter shall have no applicability to any applications for permit renewals, amendments, extensions, or other similar documents, or for replacing permits which are required subsequent to the completion of the decisions and proceedings under sections 6 and 8 of this 1973 act and any ancillary proceedings. For purposes of this section "ancillary proceedings" shall mean all proceedings, quasi judicial and judicial, held pursuant to any order of remand or similar order by the board or a court in relation to a final decision of a state agency made hereunder and held in response to the order of remand or similar order.

(3) Fee schedules previously and expressly established or authorized by statute in relation to any application for a permit shall continue to be applicable even though processed under this chapter. The department shall collect such fees and forward them to the appropriate state agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) No master application pertaining to a project filed under section 4 of this 1973 act shall be processed under this chapter unless it is accompanied by a certification from the pertinent local government that the project is in compliance with all zoning ordinances, and associated comprehensive plans, administered by said local government relating to the location of the project: PROVIDED, That if the local government has no such ordinances or plans the certification from local government shall so state and issue. For purposes of this section master programs of chapter 90.58 RCW are not zoning ordinances administered by local government. Local governments are authorized to accept applications for certifications as provided in this section and are directed to rule upon the same expeditiously to insure the purposes of this chapter are accomplished fully. Upon certification, the local government may not change such zoning ordinances so as to affect the proposed project until the procedures of this chapter, including any board or court reviews, are completed. The provisions of the state environmental policy act relating to the preparation of detailed impact statements shall not be applicable to the action approving or denying certifications authorized in this section.

(2) Nothing in this chapter shall modify in any manner whatsoever the applicability or inapplicability of any land use regulation statutes or local zoning ordinances to lands of any state agency.

(3) Approval of an application for certification as provided in this section shall not eliminate any requirements of the Shoreline Management Act of 1971 or any other statutes administered by a local government. A ruling by local government denying an application for certification shall not be appealable under this act: PROVIDED, That the denial of an application for certification pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall not preclude the applicant from filing a permit application under any other available statute or procedure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The department shall adopt such rules as are appropriate to carry out the provisions of this chapter. This authority includes, but is not limited to, the following subjects and sections or subsections of this chapter:

(a) Master application procedures under section 4(1) and (2) of this 1973 act.

(b) Application procedures under section 4(3) of this 1973 act.

(c) Notice procedures under section 5 of this 1973 act.

(d) Public hearing and final decision procedures under section 6(1), (2), and (3) of this 1973 act.

(e) A program, and procedures, including time requirements relating thereto, to guide local governments in the implementation of section 10(1) of this 1973 act.

(f) A listing of the various types of permits covered by this chapter together with the state agency issuing each such permit, and the statutory authority providing for such issuance.

(2) State agencies and local governments shall cooperate fully in the preparation implementation of rules authorized under this section and in otherwise carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

(3) Consistent with the procedural concepts for the processing of applications for permits established in sections 4 through 6 of this 1973 act, the department of ecology may, by rule, establish a permit application processing procedure which may be used, at the request of an applicant, in relation to two or more permit programs administered solely by the department of ecology.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The department shall establish permit requirements information centers in its office at Olympia and in all of its regional offices which shall provide information to the public, in readily understandable form, pertaining to the requirements of federal, state, and local governments for permits which must be acquired before initiating various types of activities and projects proposed in the state with special emphasis being given to those permits which apply to the use of land, air, and water resources.

(2) There shall be designated by each county, in a place convenient to members of the general public an office or offices for environmental permit applications. It shall be the responsibility of said office to provide a master application as provided in this chapter to any person requesting the same. It shall further be the responsibility of the office to provide reasonable assistance in preparation of an application to any person requesting the same and to accept for transmission to the department completed master applications. All completed master applications received by the county office shall be submitted to the department for processing as provided in sections 4 through 6 of this 1973 act. Filing of a master application with the county office shall constitute a submission to the department of ecology within the meaning of section 4(1) of this 1973 act. The department shall provide full information, forms, instructions, and other assistance relating to master applications and the other features of the program of this chapter to each county office to insure the provisions of this section are made fully effective in serving those desiring to file master applications under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The department, after consultation with other state agencies and local governments, shall submit to the legislature by January 1, 1975, a report setting forth the results of the experience under this chapter together with any recommendations and views pertaining to ways and means of improving the procedures and otherwise satisfying the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) If any part of this chapter shall be found in conflict with federal requirements which are a condition precedent to the allocation of federal funds authorized to the state, such conflicting part of this chapter is declared to be inoperative to the limited extent of such conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such findings or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter in its application to the agencies concerned.

(2) The department of ecology, to the limited extent necessary to comply with procedural requirements of federal statutes relating to permit systems operated by the state, may modify the notice, timing, hearing and related procedural matters provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The rule of strict construction shall have no application to this 1973 act and it shall be liberally construed in order to carry out its purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This 1973 act shall be known as the Environmental Coordination Procedures Act of 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to Title 90 RCW a new chapter to read as set forth in sections 1 through 15 of this 1973 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This 1973 act shall take effect on January 1, 1974, except that the department, state agencies, and local governments are authorized to take such steps as are necessary prior to that date to insure that this 1973 act is properly implemented on its effective date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If any provision of this 1973 act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The department of ecology shall determine the amount of moneys necessary to implement the responsibilities vested in it under the provisions of this chapter, including amounts to assist local governments under section 12(2) of this 1973 act, and report said determination to the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives not later than

June 30, 1973.

Passed the House April 12, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 10, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

CHAPTER 186

[House Bill No. 766]

LEGEND DRUGS--

REGULATION

AN ACT Relating to legend drugs; creating a new chapter in Title 69 RCW; repealing section 22, chapter 38, Laws of 1963, section 3, chapter 71, Laws of 1967 and RCW 69.40.064; repealing section 2, chapter 33, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 69.40.065; and prescribing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Administer" means the direct application of a legend drug whether by injection, inhalation, ingestion, or any other means, to the body of a patient or research subject by:

(a) A practitioner; or

(b) The patient or research subject at the direction of the practitioner.

(2) "Deliver" or "delivery" means the actual, constructive, or attempted transfer from one person to another of a legend drug, whether or not there is an agency relationship.

(3) "Dispense" means to deliver a legend drug to an ultimate user or research subject by or pursuant to the lawful order of a practitioner, including the prescribing, administering, packaging, labeling, or compounding necessary to prepare the substance for that delivery.

(4) "Dispenser" means a practitioner who dispenses.

(5) "Distribute" means to deliver other than by administering or dispensing a legend drug.

(6) "Distributor" means a person who distributes.

(7) "Drug" means:

(a) Substances recognized as drugs in the official United States pharmacopoeia, official homeopathic pharmacopoeia of the United States, or official national formulary, or any supplement to any of them;

(b) Substances intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease in man or animals;

(c) Substances (other than food) intended to affect the structure or any function of the body of man or animals; and

(d) Substances intended for use as a component of any article specified in clause (a), (b), or (c) of this subsection. It does not include devices or their components, parts, or accessories.

(8) "Legend drugs" means any drugs which are required by any applicable federal or state law or regulation to be dispensed on prescription only or are restricted to use by practitioners only.

(9) "Person" means individual, corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, or any other legal entity.

(10) "Practitioner" means:

(a) A physician under chapter 18.71 RCW, an osteopathic physician and surgeon under chapter 18.57 RCW, a dentist under chapter 18.32 RCW, a podiatrist under chapter 18.22 RCW, a veterinarian under chapter 18.92 RCW, a registered nurse under chapter 18.88 RCW, a licensed practical nurse under chapter 18.78 RCW, or a pharmacist under chapter 18.64 RCW.

(b) A pharmacy, hospital or other institution licensed, registered, or otherwise permitted to distribute, dispense, conduct research with respect to or to administer a legend drug in the course of professional practice or research in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Legend drugs shall not be sold, delivered, dispensed or administered except in accordance with this chapter.

(1) No person shall obtain or attempt to obtain a legend drug, or procure or attempt to procure the administration of a legend drug:

(a) By fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, or subterfuge; or

(b) By the forgery or alteration of a prescription or of any written order; or

(c) By the concealment of a material fact; or

(d) By the use of a false name or the giving of a false address.

(2) Information communicated to a practitioner in an effort unlawfully to procure a legend drug, or unlawfully to procure the administration of any such drug, shall not be deemed a privileged communication.

(3) No person shall wilfully make a false statement in any prescription, order, report, or record, required by this chapter.

(4) No person shall, for the purpose of obtaining a legend drug, falsely assume the title of, or represent himself to be, a manufacturer, wholesaler, or any practitioner.

(5) No person shall make or utter any false or forged prescription or other written order for legend drugs.

(6) No person shall affix any false or forged label to a package or receptacle containing legend drugs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, deliver or possess any legend drug except upon the order or prescription of a physician under chapter 18.71 RCW, an osteopathic physician and surgeon under chapter 18.57 RCW, a dentist under chapter 18.32 RCW, a podiatrist under chapter 18.22 RCW, or a veterinarian under chapter 18.92 RCW: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the above provisions shall not apply to sale, delivery, or possession by drug wholesalers or drug manufacturers, or their agents or employees, or to any practitioner acting within the scope of his license, or to a common or contract carrier or warehouseman, or any employee thereof, whose possession of any legend drug is in the usual course of business or employment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A prescription, in order to be effective in legalizing the possession of legend drugs, must be issued for a legitimate medical purpose by one authorized to prescribe the use of such legend drugs. An order purporting to be a prescription issued to a drug abuser or habitual user of legend drugs, not in the course of professional treatment, is not a prescription within the meaning and intent of this section; and the person who knows or should know that he is filling such an order, as well as the person issuing it, may be charged with violation of this chapter. A legitimate medical purpose shall include use in the course of a bona fide research program in conjunction with a hospital or university.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. To every box, bottle, jar, tube or other container of a legend drug, which is dispensed by a practitioner authorized to prescribe legend drugs, there shall be affixed a label bearing the name of the prescriber, complete directions for use, the name of the drug and strength per unit dose, name of patient and date: PROVIDED, That the practitioner may omit the name and dosage of the drug if he determines that his patient should not have this information and that, if the drug dispensed is a trial sample in its original package and which is labeled in accordance with federal law or regulation, there need be set forth additionally only the name of the issuing practitioner and the name of the patient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If, upon the sworn complaint of any person, it shall be made to appear to any judge of the superior court or justice of the peace that there is probable cause to believe that any legend drug is being used, manufactured, sold, bartered, exchanged, given away, furnished or otherwise disposed of or kept in violation of the provisions of this chapter, such justice of the peace or judge shall, with or without the approval of the prosecuting attorney, issue a warrant directed to any peace officer in the county, commanding him to search the premises designated and described in such complaint and warrant, and to seize all legend drugs there found, together with the vessels in which they are contained, and all implements, furniture and fixtures used or kept for the illegal manufacture, sale, barter, exchange, giving away, furnishing or otherwise disposing of such legend drugs and to safely keep the same, and to make a return of said warrant within three days, showing all acts and things done thereunder, with a particular statement of all articles seized and the name of the person or persons in whose possession the same were found, if any, and if no person be found in the possession of said articles, the returns shall so state. A copy of said warrant shall be served upon the person or persons found in possession of any such legend drugs, furniture or fixtures so seized, and if no person be found in the possession thereof, a copy of said warrant shall be posted on the door of the building or room wherein the same are found, or, if there be no door, then in any conspicuous place upon the premises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Whoever violates any provision of this chapter shall, upon conviction, be fined and imprisoned as herein provided:

(1) For a violation of section 2 of this act, the offender shall be guilty of a felony.

(2) For a violation of section 3 of this act involving the sale, delivery or possession with intent to sell or deliver, the offender shall be guilty of a felony.

(3) For a violation of section 3 of this act involving possession, the offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(4) For a violation of section 4 of this act, the offender shall be guilty of a felony.

(5) For a violation of section 5 of this act, the offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(6) Any offense which is a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW shall not be charged under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 69 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 22, chapter 38, Laws of 1963, section 3, chapter 71, Laws of 1967 and RCW 69.40.064; and

(2) Section 2, chapter 33, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 69.40.065.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

CHAPTER 187
[Substitute House Bill No. 52]
LEASEHOLDS--TAXATION--IN LIEU EXCISE TAX

AN ACT Relating to revenue and taxation; exempting certain leasehold estates from property taxation; imposing a leasehold in lieu excise tax; amending section 84.40.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 125, Laws of 1972 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.030; adding new sections to Title 82 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 84.36 RCW; and creating a new section.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 84.40.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 125, Laws of 1972 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All property shall be assessed fifty percent of its true and fair value in money.

Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued at such price as they would bring at a fair, voluntary sale for cash without any deductions for any indebtedness owed including rentals to be paid. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section or of any other statute, when the value of any taxable leasehold estate created prior to January 1, 1971 is being determined for assessment years prior to the assessment year 1973, there shall be deducted from what would otherwise be the value thereof the present worth of the rentals and other consideration which may be required of the lessee by the lessor for the unexpired term thereof: PROVIDED, That the foregoing provisions of this sentence shall not apply to any extension or renewal, made after December 31, 1970 of the term of any such estate, or to any such estate after the date, if any, provided for in the agreement for rental renegotiation.

The true and fair value of real property for taxation purposes (including property upon which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry) shall be based upon the following criteria:

(1) (a) Any sales of the property being appraised or similar property with respect to sales made within the past five years ((~~less a percentage equal to the average, ordinary and usual direct costs of sale of that type of property; including but not limited to costs of title insurance, legal services, recording fees and taxes levied against such sales that are borne by the seller, and an amount equal to the customary fees payable to a licensed real estate broker for handling such a sale; such percentage to be determined by studies~~ conducted by the department of revenue)). The appraisal shall take into consideration political restrictions such as zoning as well as physical and environmental influences. The appraisal shall also take into account, (i) in the use of sales by real estate contract as similar sales, the extent, if any, to which the stated selling price has been increased by reason of the down payment, interest rate, or other financing terms; and (ii) the extent to which the sale of a similar property actually represents the general effective market demand for property of such type, in the geographical area in which such property is located. Sales involving deed releases or similar seller-developer financing arrangements shall not be used as sales of similar property.

(b) In addition to sales as defined in subsection (1) (a), consideration may be given to cost, cost less depreciation, reconstruction cost less depreciation, or capitalization of income that would be derived from prudent use of the property. In the case of property of a complex nature, or being used under terms of a franchise from a public agency, or operating as a public utility, or property not having a record of sale within five years and not having a significant number of sales of similar property in the general area, the provisions of this subsection (1) (b) shall be the dominant factors in valuation. When provisions of this subsection (1) (b) are relied upon for establishing values the property owner shall be advised upon request of the factors used in arriving at such value.

(c) In valuing any tract or parcel of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures thereon shall be determined; also the value of structures thereon, but the valuation shall not exceed the value of the total property as it exists. In valuing agricultural land, growing crops shall be excluded.

PROVIDED, That the provisions of this subsection (1) shall be applicable to all values for use in computing property taxes for the assessment year 1972 for taxes payable in 1973 and subsequent years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature hereby recognizes that properties of the state of Washington, counties, school districts, and other municipal corporations are exempted by Article 7, section 1 of the state Constitution from property tax obligations, but that such public properties when under lease to private lessees receive substantial benefits from governmental services provided by the units of local government.

The legislature further recognizes that leases of such property entered into prior to July 1, 1970, are often at a full and fair market rental predicated upon a tax obligation which was considerably less than established by the state supreme court in May of 1970 when the lessee is a nonexempt person or entity.

The legislature therefore recognizes that equity requires that provision be made to alleviate the impact of added tax obligations upon the lessee of public properties and does hereby provide certain property tax exemptions for leasehold estates contracted prior to July 1, 1970, where the lessee is paying a contract rent equal to or at least ninety percent of economic rent as defined in section 3 of this 1973 amendatory act and the legislature does hereby provide for a leasehold in lieu tax to fairly compensate local governmental units for services rendered to such properties and does hereby provide authorization for payment thereof. The legislature finds that public properties subject to leasehold estate taxation or to in lieu taxation are entitled to those same governmental services provided comparable property in private ownership.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. As used in this 1973 amendatory act, the following terms shall be defined as follows, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Economic rent" means the rental warranted to be paid in the open real estate market based on rentals being paid for comparable leases. In the determination of "economic rent" the private rate of return and normal costs to be private sector shall be considered.

(2) "Contract rent" means the amount of consideration conveyed according to the leasehold instrument: PROVIDED, That any prepaid rent shall be considered to have been paid in the year due and not the year when paid.

(3) "Renegotiation" or "renegotiated" means the process occasioned by any situation or circumstance which results in a change in the consideration to be paid by the lessee to the lessor for any extension or renewal of a lease.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is hereby levied and shall be collected an in lieu excise tax in 1974 and in each year thereafter from each lessor of a leasehold estate which is exempted from ad valorem property taxation pursuant to section 11 (1) of this 1973 amendatory act. The tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to the value of the annual leasehold rent collected the previous year multiplied by the rate of fourteen percent: PROVIDED, That the tax hereby levied shall not apply to leases of lands owned in fee or held in trust by the government of the United States: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the tax hereby levied shall not apply to (1) the lessor of a leasehold estate where the lessee is a body which were it to own the property in fee, said property would be exempt, (2) lessors on those leasehold estates exempted from property taxation pursuant to subsection (2) through subsection (9) of section 11 of this act, and (3) all leasehold estates of lands owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribe where the fee ownership of such property is vested in the United States; and (5) all leasehold estates held by enrolled Indians of lands owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribe where the fee ownership of such property is vested in or held in trust by the United States.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Each state department, agency, and political subdivision shall on or before the fifteenth day of January of each year supply an accounting of outstanding leasehold estates upon its property to the county assessor of the county in which such property is located. Such accounting shall include information describing the location, legal description, and address, if any, of the property, the name of the lessee, the amount of the leasehold rent, the date when the lease was entered, the expiration date of the lease, restrictions, if any, which detract from the value of the leasehold interest, renegotiation dates, if any, options to renew, and information about reversion of improvements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The county assessor shall determine and identify those properties which are subject to the leasehold in lieu tax imposed by section 4 of this 1973 amendatory act and shall furnish and deliver to the county treasurer by the fifteenth day of February a listing of such properties with information describing the location, legal description, and address, if any, of the property, the name of the lessee, the amount of the leasehold rent, the amount of the true and fair economic rent, the expiration date of the lease, renegotiations dates, if any, and options to renew. In addition, the assessor shall provide information indicating that the situs of such property is within the unincorporated area of the county or within a particular city or town and/or within a particular school district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. On or before the last day of February of each calendar year, each county treasurer shall cause to be mailed to the director of the department of revenue and to the lessors of leasehold estates subject to the in lieu tax in that county, notice of the amount of tax payable for that year which shall be due and payable to the director of the department of revenue on or before the thirtieth day of April.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Leasehold in lieu tax revenues received by the director of the department of revenue pursuant to section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, together with such information required to make the proper disbursements to counties pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, and placed in the leasehold in lieu tax fund which is hereby created.

(2) Moneys in the leasehold in lieu tax fund shall be disbursed by the state treasurer to the counties on or before the first of June of each year. Each county shall receive an amount equal to the total moneys appropriated to the leasehold in lieu tax fund for that year multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount of in lieu excise tax collected within that county pursuant to section 4 of this 1973 amendatory act during that year, and the denominator of which is the total amount of leasehold in lieu tax collected throughout the state pursuant to section 4 of this 1973 amendatory act during that year.

(3) From the amount received by each county pursuant to subsection (2) of this section there shall be paid sums as follows:

(a) Sixty percent to the school districts within the county ratably, on the basis of the amount of in lieu excise tax collected pursuant to section 4 of this 1973 amendatory act from leased property situated in each school district: PROVIDED, That only one-half of such amount shall be considered as local revenues where local revenues are a factor in any formula for the determination of state aid to schools under chapter 28A.41 RCW.

(b) Twenty-five percent to each city and town within the county ratably, on the basis of the amount of in lieu excise tax collected pursuant to section 4 of this 1973 amendatory act from leased property situated in each city or town.

(c) Forty percent to the county current expense fund less any amount paid to a city or town pursuant to subsection (3) (b) of this section which shall be considered a credit against the amount due the county pursuant to this subsection: PROVIDED, That the county legislative authority may allocate and deposit funds received pursuant to this subsection to the credit of the taxing districts in the county in the manner it deems most equitable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. All leasehold estates in operating properties vested in any company assessed and taxed as a public utility pursuant to chapter 84.12 RCW shall be valued by the department of revenue according to the valuation procedures set forth by the provisions of chapter 84.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The department of revenue shall adopt and amend reasonable rules and regulations necessary for the administration, collection, and enforcement of the leasehold in lieu tax imposed by section 4 of this 1973 amendatory act and such reasonable rules and regulations necessary to assure the uniform valuation of leasehold estates and the subsequent tax levy thereon according to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW (the administrative procedure act). To ensure such uniformity, the department of revenue shall prescribe the forms and methods for the determination of the assessed value of the leasehold assets which shall be the sole process of such determination: PROVIDED, That lessors subject to the tax imposed pursuant to section 4 of this act shall be entitled to those remedies provided in Title 84.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The following property shall be exempt from taxation:

(1) All leasehold estates in property owned in fee or held in trust by the government of the United States, or of the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof, negotiated prior to July 1, 1970, which have not been renegotiated, extended, or renewed since July 1, 1970, and which have a contract rent equal to at least ninety percent of economic rent: PROVIDED, That this exemption shall not apply to leasehold estates in operating properties vested in any company which is assessed and taxed as a public utility pursuant to chapter 84.12 RCW.

(2) All leasehold estates which have a total economic rent of less than one hundred dollars per year.

(3) All leasehold estates in facilities owned or used by a school, college, or university which leaseholds provide housing for students and which are otherwise exempt from taxation under the provisions of RCW 84.36.010 and 84.36.050.

(4) All leasehold estates of subsidized housing where the fee ownership of such property is vested in the government of the United States or the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof and where an income qualification exists for such housing.

(5) All leasehold estates used for fair purposes of a nonprofit fair association that sponsors or conducts a fair or fairs which receive support from revenues collected pursuant to RCW 67.16.100 and allocated by the director of the department of agriculture where the fee ownership of such property is vested in the government of the United States or the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof: PROVIDED, That this exemption shall not apply to the leasehold estate of any sublessee of such nonprofit fair association.

(6) All leasehold estates of state forest lands as defined in chapter 76.12 RCW.

(7) All leasehold estates in state property used as a residence by state employees who are required as a condition of employment to live at a state facility or station.

(8) All leasehold estates on any real property of any Indian or Indian tribe, band, or community that is held in trust by the United States or is subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States.

(9) All leasehold estates held by enrolled Indians of lands owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribe where the fee ownership of such property is vested in or held in trust by the United States and which are not subleased to other than to a lessee which would qualify pursuant to this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 2 through 10 and section 16 of this 1973 amendatory act are hereby added to Title 82 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this 1973 amendatory act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected: PROVIDED, That if the leasehold in lieu excise tax imposed by section 4 of this 1973 amendatory act is held invalid, the entirety of the act, except for section 3 and section 15, shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act relative to leasehold in lieu excise taxes are held invalid, the following property shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation:

(1) All leasehold estates in property of the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof, negotiated prior to July 1, 1970, which have not been renegotiated, extended or renewed since July 1, 1970, and which have a contract rent equal to at least ninety percent of economic rent, and where the lessor has been authorized to make in lieu payments to political subdivisions other than that of the lessor.

(2) All leasehold estates which have a total economic rent of less than one hundred dollars per year.

(3) All facilities owned or used by a school, college, or university which facilities provide housing for students and which are otherwise exempt from taxation under the provisions of RCW 84.36.010 and 84.36.050.

(4) All leasehold estates of subsidized housing where the fee ownership of such property is vested in the government of the United States or the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof and where an income qualification exists for such housing.

(5) All leasehold estates of a nonprofit fair association that sponsors or conducts a fair or fairs which receive support from revenues collected pursuant to RCW 67.16.100 and allocated by the director of the department of agriculture where the fee ownership of such property is vested in the government of the United States or the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof: PROVIDED, That this exemption shall not apply to the leasehold estate of any sublessee of such nonprofit fair association.

(6) All leasehold estates of state forest lands as defined in chapter 76.12 RCW.

(7) All leasehold estates in state property used as a residence by state employees who are required as a condition of employment to live at a state facility or station.

(8) All leasehold estates on any real property of any Indian or Indian tribe, band, or community that is held in trust by the United States or is subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States.

(9) All leasehold estates held by enrolled Indians of lands owned as held by any Indian or Indian tribe where the fee ownership of such property is vested in or held in trust by the United States and which are not subleased to other than to a lessee which would qualify pursuant to this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Notwithstanding any other provision of this 1973 amendatory act, improvements owned or being acquired by contract purchase or otherwise by any sublessee shall be taxable to such sublessee.

CHAPTER 188
[House Bill No. 76]
DISABILITY INSURANCE

AN ACT Relating to insurance; adding new sections to chapter 48.18 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 48.20 RCW, and adding a new section to chapter 48.21 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 48.18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No insurer shall refuse to renew any policy of individual disability insurance issued after July 1, 1973 because of a change in the physical or mental condition or health of any person covered thereunder: PROVIDED, That after approval of the insurance commissioner, an insurer may discharge its obligation to renew the contract by obtaining for the insured coverage with another insurer which is comparable in terms of premiums and benefits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 48.18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No contract of insurance enumerated in section 1 of this 1973 act shall be terminated by cancellation by the insurer during the period of contract except for nonpayment of premium. This section shall not be deemed to affect the right of the insurer to rescind the policy as limited and defined in RCW 48.18.090.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 48.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any provision of any disability insurance contract as provided for in this chapter, benefits shall not be denied thereunder for any health care service performed by a holder of a license issued pursuant to chapter 18.88 RCW if (1) the service performed was within the lawful scope of such person's license, and (2) such contract would have provided benefits if such service had been performed by a holder of a license issued pursuant to chapter 18.71 RCW: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no provision of chapter 18.71 RCW shall be asserted to deny benefits under this section.

The provisions of this section are intended to be remedial and procedural to the extent they do not impair the obligation of any existing contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 48.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any provision of any group disability insurance contract or blanket disability insurance contract as provided for in this chapter, benefits shall not be denied thereunder for any health service performed by a holder of a license issued pursuant to chapter 18.88 RCW if (1) the service performed was within the lawful scope of such person's license, and (2) such contract would have provided benefits if such service had been performed by a holder of a license issued pursuant to chapter 18.71 RCW: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no provision of chapter 18.71 RCW shall be asserted to deny benefits under this section.

The provisions of this section are intended to be remedial and procedural to the extent they do not impair the obligation of any existing contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House April 4, 1973.

TEACHERS' RETIREMENT SYSTEM

AN ACT Relating to the Washington state teachers' retirement system; amending section 26, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 271, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.260; amending section 16, chapter 14, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 35, Laws of 1970

ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.497; amending section 35, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 7, chapter 14, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.350; amending section 19, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 5, chapter 274, Laws of 1955 and RCW 41.32.190; amending section 12, chapter 150, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.405; adding new sections to chapter 41.32 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 26, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 271, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.260 are each amended to read as follows:

Any member whose public school service is interrupted by active service to the United States as a member of its military, naval or air service, or to the state of Washington, as a member of the legislature, may upon becoming reemployed in the public schools, receive credit for such service upon presenting satisfactory proof, and contributing to the annuity fund, either in a lump sum or installments, such amounts as shall be determined by the board of trustees: PROVIDED, That no such military service credit in excess of five years shall be established or reestablished after July 1, 1961, unless the service was actually rendered during time of war: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a member of the retirement system who is a member of the state legislature (may request that retirement) or a state official eligible for the combined pension and annuity provided by RCW 41.32.497, or section 3 of this 1973 amendatory act, as now or hereafter amended shall have deductions ((be)) taken from his salary ((as a legislator)) in the amount of seven and one-half percent of compensation and that service credit shall be established with the retirement system while such deductions are reported to the retirement system, unless he has by reason of his employment become a contributing member of another public retirement system in the state of Washington: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That a member of the retirement system who had previous service as ((a member of the state legislature)) an elected or appointed official, for which he did not contribute to the retirement system, may receive credit for such legislative service unless he has received credit for that service in another state retirement system, upon making contributions in such amounts as shall be determined by the board of trustees.

Sec. 2. Section 16, chapter 14, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 35, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.497 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who became a member ((who)) on or before the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act and who qualifies for a retirement allowance ((which is effective on or after July 1, 1970)) shall, at time of retirement, make an irrevocable election to receive either the retirement allowance by section 3 of this 1973 amendatory act or to receive a retirement allowance pursuant to this section consisting of: (1) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at his age of retirement, (2) A basic service pension of one hundred dollars per annum, and (3) A service pension which shall be equal to one one-hundredth of his average earnable compensation for his two highest compensated consecutive years of service times the total years of creditable service established with the retirement system: PROVIDED, That no ((member)) beneficiary now receiving benefits or who receives benefits in the future, except those beneficiaries receiving reduced benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.520(1), options 2 and 3 provided in RCW 41.32.530, or options 2 or 3 of section 3 of this 1973 amendatory act, shall receive a pension of less than ((five)) six dollars and fifty cents per month for each year of creditable service established with the retirement system. Pension benefits payable under the provisions of this section shall be prorated on a monthly basis and paid at the end of each month: PROVIDED FURTHER, That notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) through (3) of this section, the retirement allowance payable for service where a member was elected or appointed to the office of state senator, state representative or superintendent of public instruction shall be equal to three percent of the average earnable compensation of his two highest consecutive years of service, whether or not elected or appointed service, for each year of such elected or appointed service. However, the initial retirement allowance of a member retiring only under the provisions of this proviso shall not exceed the average final compensation upon which the retirement allowance is based. In addition, the member shall be allowed to have the pension provided by this proviso adjusted and paid pursuant to the options provided in RCW 41.32.530, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person who becomes a member subsequent to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act or who has made the election, provided by RCW 41.32.497, to receive the benefit provided by this section, shall receive a retirement allowance consisting of:

(1) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his additional contributions on full salary as provided by chapter 274, Laws of 1955 and his lump sum payment in excess of the required contribution rate made at date of retirement, pursuant to RCW 41.32.350, if any; and

(2) A combined pension and annuity service retirement allowance which shall be equal to two percent of his average earnable compensation for his two highest compensated consecutive years of service times the total years of creditable service established with the retirement system, to a maximum of sixty percent of such average earnable compensation: PROVIDED, That any member may irrevocably elect, at time of retirement, to withdraw all or a part of his accumulated contributions and to receive, in lieu of the full retirement allowance provided by this subsection, a reduction in the standard two percent allowance, of the actuarially determined amount of monthly annuity which would have been purchased by said contributions: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no member may withdraw an amount of accumulated contributions which would lower his retirement allowance below the minimum allowance provided by RCW 41.32.497 as now or hereafter amended: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That said reduced amount may be reduced even further pursuant to the options provided in subsection (4) below;

(3) Any member covered by this subsection who upon retirement has served ten or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; such member who has served fifteen or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; and such member who has served twenty or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least two thousand four hundred dollars per annum. However, the initial retirement allowance of a member retiring only under the provisions of this subsection shall not exceed the average final compensation upon which the retirement allowance is based. The minimum benefits provided in this subsection shall apply to all retired members or to the surviving spouse of deceased members who were elected to the office of state senator or state representative. Accumulated contributions for elected or appointed service may only be withdrawn if the member elects to waive the pension provided by this subsection. In addition, the member shall be allowed to have the pension provided by this subsection adjusted and paid pursuant to the options provided in subsection (4) below.

(4) Upon an application for retirement approved by the board of trustees every member shall receive the maximum retirement allowance available to him throughout life unless prior to the time the first installment thereof becomes due he has elected to receive the reduced amount provided in subsection (2) and/or has elected by executing the proper application therefor, to receive the actuarial equivalent of his retirement allowance in reduced payments throughout his life, with the options listed below:

Option 1. If he dies before he has received the present value of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement by virtue of the annuity portion of his retirement allowance, the unpaid balance shall be paid to his estate or to such person as he shall have nominated by written designation executed and filed with the board of trustees.

Option 2. Upon his death his adjusted retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the board of trustees at the time of his retirement.

Option 3. Upon his death one-half of his adjusted retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person as he shall have nominated by written designation executed and filed with the board of trustees at the time of his retirement.

NEW SECTION. Sec 4. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Subsection (3) of section 3 of this 1973 amendatory act and the equivalent language contained in the last proviso in section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act, relating to elected and appointed officials, shall be retroactive to January 1, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The board of trustees shall determine the amount of employer contribution rate necessary to properly fund the increased benefits granted elected and appointed officials by sections 2 and 3 of this 1973 amendatory act. Upon determining the amount of employer contribution necessary, the board shall inform, bill and collect from the employer of those elected or appointed officials the amount so determined in the same manner and to the same extent as the public employees' retirement system pursuant to RCW 41.40.370.

Sec. 6. Section 35, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 7, chapter 14, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Each year during which he is employed each member shall contribute five percent of his earnable compensation. These contributions shall be placed in the annuity fund, the disability reserve fund and the death benefit fund. A member may make an additional lump sum payment at date of retirement, not to exceed his accumulated contributions, to purchase additional annuity; PROVIDED, That effective July 1, 1974, the amount of contribution required from each member by this section shall be increased to six percent of his earnable compensation.

Sec. 7. Section 19, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 5, chapter 274, Laws of 1955 and RCW 41.32.190 are each amended to read as follows:

From interest and other earnings on the moneys of the retirement system, and except as otherwise provided in sections 8 and 9 of this 1973 amendatory act, at the close of each fiscal year the board of trustees shall make such allowance of regular interest on the balance which was on hand at the beginning of the fiscal year in each of the funds as they may deem advisable; however, no interest shall be credited to the expense fund or the pension fund.

Sec. 8. Section 12, chapter 150, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.405 are each amended to read as follows:

An income fund is hereby created for the purpose of crediting regular interest and such other income as may be derived from the deposits and investments of the various funds of the teachers' retirement fund. All accumulated contributions in the account of a terminated member which remain unclaimed after the expiration of ten years from the date of termination shall thereafter be transferred to the income fund as provided in RCW 41.32.510. Any moneys that may come into the possession of the retirement system in the form of gifts or bequests which are not allocated to a specific fund, or any other moneys the disposition of which is not otherwise provided herein, shall be credited to the income fund. The moneys accumulated in the income fund shall be available for transfer, upon board authorization, to the expense fund toward payment of the members' share of the operating costs of the system as provided in RCW 41.32.410, and for regular interest allowance to the various funds of the teachers' retirement fund as provided in RCW 41.32.190 and 41.32.460; PROVIDED, That from such accumulated moneys the board shall have sole discretion to determine an amount thereof to be credited to the annuity fund which will thereupon be credited as regular interest to the individual members' accounts; PROVIDED FURTHER, That from interest and other earnings on the moneys in the annuity fund the board may specifically allocate up to one percent per annum of such interest and other earnings for the purpose of making sufficient funds available to facilitate the adjustment in the retirement allowance provided in section 9 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) "Index" for the purposes of this section shall mean, for any calendar year, that year's annual average consumer price index for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items (1957-1959 equal one hundred)--compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor;

(2) "Cost-of-living factor" for the purposes of this section for any year shall mean the ratio of the index for the previous year to the index for the year preceding the initial date of payment of the retirement allowance, except that, in no event, shall the cost-of-living factor, for any year subsequent to 1971, be

(a) less than 1.000;

(b) more than one hundred three percent or less than ninety-seven percent of the previous year's cost-of-living factor; or

(c) such as to yield a retirement allowance, for any individual, less than that which was in effect July 1, 1972;

(3) The "initial date of payment" for the purposes of adjusting the annuity portion of a retirement allowance for the purposes of this section shall mean the date of retirement of a member.

(4) The "initial date of payment" for the purposes of adjusting the pension portion of a retirement allowance for the purposes of this section shall mean the date of retirement of a member or June 30, 1970, whichever is later.

(5) Each service retirement allowance payable from July 1, 1973 until any subsequent adjustment pursuant to subsection (6) of this section shall be adjusted so as to equal the product of the cost-of-living factor for 1973 and the amount of said retirement allowance on the initial date of payment.

(6) Each service retirement allowance payable from July 1st of any year after 1973 until any subsequent adjustment pursuant to this subsection shall be adjusted so as to equal the product of the cost-of-living factor for such year and the amount of said retirement allowance on the initial date of payment: PROVIDED, That the board finds, at its sole discretion, that the cost of such adjustments shall have been met by the excess of the growth in the assets of the system over that required for meeting the actuarial liabilities of the system at that time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, moneys necessary to pay the combined pension and annuity service retirement allowance provided for in section 3(2) of this 1973 amendatory act shall be payable for the 1973-1975 biennium from interest earnings on the pension reserve fund as provided for in RCW 41.32.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 41.32.240, any person who has left employment within the state for any reason at least fifteen years prior to the effective date of this section with at least fifteen years of service credit at the time of such withdrawal and who because of physical incapacibilities is no longer employable as a teacher within this state may be admitted into the system upon acceptance by the board and making such reasonable payments as the board shall determine necessary therefor. Said application to be submitted before January 1, 1974.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any member of the teachers' retirement system who decides to retire after the effective date of this act shall be entitled as a matter of contractual right to receive any new or increased benefits resulting from the enactment of legislation creating a new retirement system through a merger of the public employees' retirement system and the teachers' retirement system or from benefit liberalizations of the teachers' retirement system until June 30, 1974.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1) "Retirement system" means the ((state)) public employees' retirement system provided for in this chapter.

(2) "Retirement board" means the board provided for in this chapter and chapter 41.26 RCW to administer said retirement system.

(3) "State treasurer" means the treasurer of the state of Washington.

(4) "Employer" means every branch, department, agency, commission, board, and office of the state ((and)), any political subdivision or association of political subdivisions of the state admitted into the retirement system, and legal entities authorized by RCW 36.70.060 and 35.63.070 or chapter 39.34 RCW as now or hereafter amended; and the term shall also include any labor guild, association, or organization the membership of a local lodge or division of which is comprised of at least forty percent employees of an employer (other than such labor guild, association, or organization) within this chapter. The term may also include any city of the first class that has its own retirement system.

(5) "Member" means any employee included in the membership of the retirement system, as provided for in RCW 41.40.120.

(6) "Original member" of this retirement system means:

(a) Any person who became a member of the system prior to April 1, 1949;

(b) Any person who becomes a member through the admission of an employer into the retirement system on and after April 1, 1949, and prior to April 1, 1951;

(c) Any person who first becomes a member by securing employment with an employer prior to April 1, 1951, provided he has rendered at least one or more years of service to any employer prior to October 1, 1947;

(d) Any person who first becomes a member through the admission of an employer into the retirement system on or after April 1, 1951, provided, such person has been in the regular employ of the employer for at least six months of the twelve-month period preceding the said admission date;

(e) Any member who has restored all his contributions that may have been withdrawn by him as provided by RCW 41.40.150 and who on the effective date of his retirement becomes entitled to be credited with ten years or more of membership service except that the provisions relating to the minimum amount of retirement allowance for the member upon retirement at age seventy as found in RCW 41.40.190(4) shall not apply to the member;

(f) Any member who has been a contributor under the system for two or more years and who has restored all his contributions that may have been withdrawn by him as provided by RCW 41.40.150 and who on the effective date of his retirement has rendered five or more years of service for the state or any political subdivision prior to the time of the admission of the employer into the system; except that the provisions relating to the minimum amount of retirement allowance for the member upon retirement at age seventy as found in RCW 41.40.190(4) shall not apply to the member.

(7) "New member" means a person who becomes a member on or after April 1, 1949, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(8) "Compensation earnable" means salaries or wages earned during a payroll period for personal services and where the compensation is not all paid in money maintenance compensation shall be included upon the basis of the schedules established by the member's employer; PROVIDED, That if a leave of absence is taken by an individual for the purpose of serving in the state legislature, the salary which would have been received for the position from which the leave of absence was taken, shall be considered as compensation earnable if the employee's contribution is paid by the employee and the employer's contribution is paid by the employer or employee.

(9) "Service" means periods of employment rendered to any employer for which compensation is paid, and includes time spent in office as an elected or appointed official of an employer. Full time work for ten days or more or an equivalent period of work in any given calendar month shall constitute one month of service. Only months of service shall be counted in the computation of any retirement allowance or other benefit provided for in this chapter. Years of service shall be determined by dividing the total number of months of service by twelve. Any fraction of a year of service as so determined shall be taken into account in the computation of such retirement allowance or benefits. Service by a state employee officially assigned by the state on a temporary basis to assist another public agency, shall be considered as service as a state employee: PROVIDED, That service to any other public agency shall not be considered service as a state employee if such service has been used to establish benefits in any other public retirement system; PROVIDED FURTHER, That where an individual is employed by two employers he shall only receive a total of twelve months of service credit during any calendar year.

(10) "Prior service" means all service of an original member rendered to any employer prior to October 1, 1947.

(11) "Membership service" means:

(a) ((In the case of any person who first becomes a member through the admission of an employer into the retirement system on and after April 1, 1949; all service rendered after October 1, 1947; including all)) All service rendered, as a member, after October 1, 1947;

(b) All service after October 1, 1947, to any ((municipal corporation of the state of Washington)) employer prior to the time of its admission into the retirement system: PROVIDED, That an amount equal to the employer and employee contributions which would have been paid to the retirement system on account of such service ((by an employer admitted to the retirement system,)) shall have been paid to the retirement system with interest (as computed by the retirement board) on the employee's portion prior to retirement of such person, by the employee or his employer, except as qualified by RCW 41.40.120;

~~((b) In the case of all other members, all service as a member, and any additional service to the employer if the employer has paid the employer contributions for such service;))~~

(c) Service not to exceed six consecutive months of probationary service rendered after April 1, 1949, and prior to becoming a member, in the case of any member, upon payment in full by such member, prior to July 1, ((1972)) 1974 of the total amount of the employer's contribution to the retirement fund which would have been required under the law in effect when such probationary service was rendered if the member had been a member during such period.

(d) Service not to exceed six consecutive months of probationary service, rendered after October 1, 1947, and before April 1, 1949, and prior to becoming a member, in the case of any member, upon payment in full by such member prior to July 1, ((1972)) 1974, of five percent of such member's salary during said period of probationary service.

(12) "Beneficiary" means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance, pension or other benefit provided by this chapter.

(13) "Regular interest" means such rate as the retirement board may determine.

(14) "Accumulated contributions" means the sum of all contributions standing to the credit of a member in his individual account together with the regular interest thereon.

(15) "Average final compensation" means the annual average of the greatest compensation earnable by a member during any consecutive two year period of service for which service credit is allowed; or if he has less than two years of service then the annual average compensation earnable during his total years of service for which service credit is allowed.

(16) "Final compensation" means the annual rate of compensation earnable by a member at the time of termination of his employment.

(17) "Annuity" means payments for life derived from accumulated contributions of a member. All annuities shall be paid in monthly installments.

(18) "Pension" means payments for life derived from contributions made by the employer. All pensions shall be paid in monthly installments.

(19) "Retirement allowance" means the sum of the annuity and the pension.

(20) "Employee" means any person who may become eligible for membership under this chapter, as set forth in RCW 41.40.120.

(21) "Actuarial equivalent" means a benefit of equal value when computed upon the basis of such mortality and other tables as may be adopted by the retirement board.

(22) "Retirement" means withdrawal from active service with a retirement allowance as provided by this chapter.

(23) "Eligible position" means:

(a) Any position which normally requires five or more uninterrupted months of service a year for which regular compensation is paid to the occupant thereof;

(b) Any position occupied by an elected official or person appointed directly by the governor for which compensation is paid.

(24) "Ineligible position" means any position which does not conform with the requirements set forth in subdivision (23).

(25) "Leave of absence" means the period of time a member is authorized by the employer to be absent from service without being separated from membership.

(26) "Totally incapacitated for duty" means total inability to perform the duties of a member's employment or office or any other work for which the member is qualified by training or experience.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 3, chapter 271, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The retirement board shall consist of ~~((seven))~~ eleven members, as follows: The insurance commissioner, the attorney general, the state treasurer, the state auditor, the members provided by RCW 41.26.050, and three employee representatives who shall have been members of the retirement system for at least five years, and each of whom shall be elected by members in their classification of employment for a term of three years: PROVIDED, That the term of office of any employee representative serving as a member of the retirement board by appointment prior to March 21, 1961 shall continue until the expiration of the period of time for which such employee representative was appointed, except those board members provided by RCW 41.26.050. The members of the system shall be divided into three classifications of employment for purposes of board representation as follows: Classification A shall consist of all employees of the state government; classification B shall consist of all employees of counties; and classification C shall consist of all members not included in classification A or B. Each member shall have the right to vote only for an employee representative from his respective classification.

The first election will be held to elect a representative from classification C whose term shall begin July 1, 1961; the second election will be held to elect a representative from classification B whose term shall begin July 1, 1962; the third election will be held to elect a representative from classification A whose term shall begin July 1, 1963.

Any employee desiring to become a candidate to represent employees in his classification may during the first two weeks of April of the year in which the vacancy in the classification occurs, file with the director of the system a typewritten statement that he desires to be a candidate for the board. The letter supporting his candidacy must be signed by at least twenty active members of the retirement system in his classification. The election shall be conducted under the supervision of the retirement board pursuant to such rules as the board shall prescribe, but shall be so conducted that the voting shall be secret and the ballots may be returned by mail. Ballots in order to be counted shall be received by the director not later than the second Monday in June. The board shall thereupon proceed to count the ballots and shall certify to the secretary of state the candidate receiving the highest number of votes.

The terms of all employee representatives shall commence on the first day of July following their election.

Sec. 4. Section 11, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 2, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.100 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of the internal accounting record of the retirement board and not the segregation of moneys on deposit with the state treasurer there are hereby created the employees' savings fund, the benefit account fund, the income fund and such other funds as may from time to time be required.

(1) The employees' savings fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated the contributions from the compensation of members ((for the purchase of annuities)). The retirement board shall provide for the maintenance of an individual account with each member of the retirement system showing the amount of the member's contributions together with interest accumulations thereon. The contributions of a member returned to him upon his withdrawal from service, or paid in event of his death, as provided in this chapter, shall be paid from the employees' saving fund. Any accumulated contributions forfeited by failure of a member, or his estate, to claim the same as provided for in this chapter shall be transferred from the employees' savings fund to the income fund. The accumulated contributions of a member, upon the commencement of his retirement, shall be transferred from the employees' savings fund to the benefit account fund.

(2) The benefit account fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated the reserves for the payment of all retirement allowances and death benefits, if any, in respect of any beneficiary. The amounts contributed by the employer to provide pension benefits shall be credited to the benefit account fund. The benefit account fund shall be the fund from which shall be paid all retirement allowances, or benefits in lieu thereof because of which reserves have been transferred from the employees' savings fund to the benefit account fund. At the time a recipient of a retirement allowance again becomes a member there shall be transferred from the benefit account fund to the employees' savings fund and credited to the individual account of such a member a sum that shall be equal to the excess, if any, of his individual account at the date of his retirement over any service retirement allowance received since that date.

(3) An income fund is hereby created for the purpose of crediting ((regular)) interest on the amounts in the various other funds with the exception of the retirement system expense fund, and to provide a contingent fund out of which special requirements of any of the other funds may be covered. Transfers for such special requirements shall be made only when the amount in the income fund exceeds the ordinary requirements of such fund as evidenced by a resolution of the retirement board recorded in its minutes. The retirement board shall quarterly allow ((regular)) interest to each of the funds enumerated in subdivisions (1) and (2) of this section, and the amount so allowed shall be due and payable to said funds and shall be quarterly credited on the previous quarterly balance by the retirement board and paid from the income fund.

All accumulated contributions standing to the account of a terminated member and unclaimed after the expiration of fifteen years from the date of such termination except as provided in RCW 41.40.150(3) and 41.40.170, shall thereafter become an integral part of the income fund. All income, interest, and dividends derived from the deposits and investments authorized by this chapter shall be paid into the income fund with the exception of interest derived from sums deposited in the retirement system expense fund. The retirement board is hereby authorized to accept gifts and bequests. Any funds that may come into the possession of the retirement system in such manner, or any funds which may be transferred from the employees' savings fund by reason of lack of claimant, or because of a surplus in any fund created by this chapter, or any other moneys the disposition of which is not otherwise provided for herein, shall be credited to the income fund.

The board shall have sole discretion to determine the amount of interest to be credited to the employees' savings fund which will thereupon be credited as regular interest to the individual members' accounts. The board may specifically allocate not more than one percent per annum of the investment earnings for the purpose of making sufficient funds available to facilitate the adjustment in service retirement allowances provided by RCW 41.40.195 as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 5. Section 13, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 4, chapter 271, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Membership in the retirement system shall consist of all regularly compensated employees and appointive and elective officials of employers as defined in this chapter who have served at least six months without interruption or who are employed, appointed or elected on or after July 1, 1965, with the following exceptions:

(1) Persons in ineligible positions;

(2) Employees of the legislature except the officers thereof elected by the members of the senate and the house and legislative committees, unless membership of such employees be authorized by the said committee;

(3) Persons holding elective offices or persons appointed directly by the governor: PROVIDED, That such persons shall have the option of applying for membership and to be accepted by the action of the retirement board, such application for those taking elective office for the first time after May 21, 1971 shall be submitted within eight years of the beginning of their initial term of office: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any such persons previously denied service credit because of any prior laws excluding membership which have subsequently been repealed, shall nevertheless be allowed to recover or regain such service credit denied or lost because of the previous lack of authority: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any persons holding elective offices or persons appointed by the governor who are members in the retirement system and who have, prior to becoming such members, previously held an elective office, and did not at the start of such initial or successive terms of office exercise their option to become members, may apply for membership and be accepted by action of the retirement board, to be effective during such term or terms of office, and shall be allowed to recover or regain the service credit applicable to such term or terms of office upon payment of the employee contributions therefor by the employee and employer contributions therefor by the employer or employee: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any person who was an elected official eligible to apply for membership pursuant to this subsection, who failed to exercise that option while holding such elected office and who is now a member of the retirement system, shall have the option to recover service credit for such elected service upon payment to the retirement system of the employee and employer contributions which would have been made had the person been a member during the period of such elective service:

(4) Employees holding membership in, or receiving pension benefits under, any retirement plan operated wholly or in part by an agency of the state or political subdivision thereof, or who are by reason of their current employment contributing to or otherwise establishing the right to receive benefits from any such retirement plan: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, In any case where the state employees' retirement system has in existence an agreement with another retirement system in connection with exchange of service credit or an agreement whereby members can retain service credit in more than one system, such an employee shall be allowed membership rights should the agreement so provide: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That an employee shall be allowed membership if otherwise eligible while receiving survivor's benefits as secondary payee under the optional retirement allowances as provided by RCW 41.40.190 or 41.40.185:

(5) Patient and inmate help in state charitable, penal and correctional institutions;

(6) "Members" of a state veterans' home or state soldiers' home;

(7) Persons employed by an institution of higher learning or community college (operated by an employer), primarily as an incident to and in furtherance of their education or training, or the education or training of a spouse;

(8) Employees of an institution of higher learning or community college ((operated by an employer)) during the period of service necessary to establish eligibility for membership in the retirement plans operated by such institutions:

(9) Persons rendering professional services to an employer on a fee, retainer or contract basis or as an incident to the private practice of a profession;

(10) Persons appointed after April 1, 1963 by the liquor control board as agency vendors.

(11) Employees of a labor guild, association, or organization: PROVIDED, That elective officials and employees of a labor guild, association, or organization which qualifies as an employer within this chapter shall have the option of applying for membership and to be accepted by the action of the retirement board.

(12) Persons hired in eligible positions on a temporary basis for a period not to exceed six months: PROVIDED, That if such employees are employed for more than six months in an eligible position they shall become members of the system.

(13) Persons employed by or appointed or elected as an official of a first class city that has its own retirement system: PROVIDED, That ((if a member is elected to an office in such city, the member)) any member elected or appointed to an elective office on or after April 1, 1971 shall have the option of continuing his membership in this system in lieu of becoming a member of the city system. A member who so elects to maintain his membership shall make his contributions and the city shall pay the employer contributions at the rates prescribed by this chapter. The city shall also transfer to this system all of such member's accumulated contributions together with such further amounts as necessary to equal all employee and employer contributions which would have been paid into this system on account of such service with the city and thereupon the member shall be granted credit for all such service. Any city that becomes an employer as defined in RCW 41.40.010 (4) as the result of an individual's election under the first proviso of this subsection shall not be required to have all employees covered for retirement under the provisions of this chapter. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a city of the first class with its own retirement system from transferring all of its current employees to the retirement system established under this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 16, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 6, chapter 128, Laws of 1969 and RCW 41.40.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Should any member die, or should he separate or be separated from service without leave of absence before attaining age sixty years, or should he become a beneficiary, except a beneficiary of an optional retirement allowance as provided by RCW 41.40.190, he shall thereupon cease to be a member except;

(1) As provided in RCW 41.40.170.

(2) An employee who reenters ((or has reentered)) service ((within ten years from the date of his separation)) shall upon completion of ((six months)) two years of continuous service and upon the restoration of all withdrawn contributions with interest as computed by the retirement board, which restoration must be completed within a total period of five years of membership service following his first resumption of employment, be returned to the status, either as an original member or new member which he held at time of separation: PROVIDED, That any member who reentered service outside the ten-year period formerly provided by this subsection, and by reason of the former language of this section was not allowed to restore withdrawn contributions, shall have two years from the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act to restore said contributions: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any member who reentered service within the ten-year period formerly provided by this section, and who failed to restore withdrawn contributions within the three or five years previously allowed, shall now have two years from the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act to restore said contributions, with interest as determined by the retirement board.

(3) A member who separates or has separated after having completed at least five years of service shall remain a member during the period of his absence from service for the exclusive purpose only of receiving a retirement allowance to begin at attainment of age sixty-five, however, such a member may upon thirty days written notice to the board elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits as of age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of his accumulated contributions, he shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

(4) (a) The recipient of a retirement allowance who has not yet reached the compulsory retirement age of seventy and who shall be employed in an eligible position shall be considered to have terminated his retirement status and he shall immediately become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership he had as of the date of his retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended during the period of his eligible employment and he shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered ((six)) two uninterrupted ((months)) years of service the type of retirement allowance he had at the time of his previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be available;

(b) The recipient of a retirement allowance who has not yet reached the compulsory retirement age of seventy, following his election to office or appointment to office directly by the governor, and who shall apply for and be accepted in membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120 (3) shall be considered to have terminated his retirement status and he shall become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership he had as of the date of his retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended from the date of his return to membership until the date when he again retires and he shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered six uninterrupted months of service the type of retirement allowance he had at the time of his previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be available: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such a recipient of a retirement allowance does not elect to apply for reentry into membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120 (3), or should he have reached the age of seventy and be ineligible to apply as provided in RCW 41.40.125, he shall be considered to remain in a retirement status and his retirement benefits shall continue without interruption.

(5) Subject to the provisions of RCW 41.04.070, 41.04.080 and 41.04.100, any member who leaves the employment of an employer and enters the employ of a public agency or agencies of the state of Washington, other than those within the jurisdiction of the state employees' retirement system, and who establishes membership in a retirement system or a pension fund operated by such agency or agencies and who shall continue his membership therein until attaining age sixty, shall remain a member for the exclusive purpose only of receiving a retirement allowance without the limitation found in ((RCW 41.40.190 (5))) RCW 41.40.180 (1) to begin on attainment of age sixty-five, however, such a member may upon thirty days written notice to the retirement board elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits commencing at age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of his accumulated contributions, he shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

Sec. 7. Section 19, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 4, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On and after April 1, 1949, any member with five years of creditable service who has attained age sixty and any original member who has attained age sixty may retire upon his written application to the retirement board, setting forth at what time, not less than thirty days, nor more than ninety days subsequent to the execution and filing thereof, he desires to be retired: PROVIDED, That in the national interest, during time of war engaged in by the United States, the retirement board may extend beyond age sixty, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, the age at which any member may be eligible to retire.

(2) On and after April 1, 1949, any member who has attained age seventy shall be retired forthwith on the first day of the calendar month next succeeding that in which the said member shall have attained the age of seventy: PROVIDED, That a member who has attained the age of seventy is possessed of special skill in the performance of particular duties, the retirement board shall continue such member in service for such period or periods as may be applied for by the governing body of the political subdivision where the member is employed or the head of the department, agency, commission, board and offices of the state: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any member holding elective office, having a fixed term to which he has been elected(†), who has attained age seventy may(‡ at any time thereafter while still in office, apply for and receive a retirement allowance under REW 41.40.190 and REW 41.40.290, if otherwise eligible therefor, while continuing to serve as an elective official but such person shall no longer be a member of the retirement system after his retirement as provided for in this subsection) continue to serve as an elective official and to receive retirement credit for such service.

(3) On and after April 1, 1953, any member who has completed thirty years of service may retire on his written application to the retirement board setting forth at what time, not less than thirty days, nor more than ninety days subsequent to the execution and filing thereof, he desires to be retired, subject to war measures.

(4) On and after May 21, 1971 any member who has completed twenty-five years of service and attained age fifty-five may retire on his written application to the retirement board setting forth at which time, not less than thirty days, nor more than ninety days subsequent to the execution and filing thereof, he desires to be retired, subject to war measures.

(5) Any individual who is eligible to retire pursuant to subsections (1) through (4) of this section shall be allowed to retire while on any authorized leave of absence not in excess of one hundred and twenty days.

(6) The retirement board is authorized to waive advance notice of retirement upon good cause shown.

Sec. 8. Section 5, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.185 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon retirement from service, as provided for in RCW 41.40.180 or 41.40.210, a member shall be eligible for a service retirement allowance computed on the basis of the law in effect at the time of retirement, together with such post-retirement pension increases as may from time to time be expressly authorized by the legislature. The service retirement allowance payable to members retiring on and after February 25, 1972 shall consist of:

(1) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2).

(2) A membership service pension, subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, which shall be equal to two percent of his average final compensation for each year or fraction of a year of membership service.

(3) A prior service pension which shall be equal to one-seventeenth of his average final compensation for each year or fraction of a year of prior service not to exceed thirty years credited to his service accounts. In no event, except as provided in this 1972 amendatory act, shall any member receive a retirement allowance pursuant to subsections (2) ~~((or))~~ and (3) of this section of more than sixty percent of his average final compensation: PROVIDED, That no member shall receive a pension under this section of less than nine hundred dollars per annum if such member has twelve or more years of service credit, or less than one thousand and two hundred dollars per annum if such member has sixteen or more years of service credit, or less than one thousand five hundred and sixty dollars per annum if such member has twenty or more years of service credit.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) through (3) of this section, the retirement allowance payable for service where a member was elected or appointed pursuant to Articles II or III of the Constitution of the state of Washington or RCW 48.02.010 and the implementing statutes shall be a combined pension and annuity. Said retirement allowance shall be equal to three percent of the average final compensation for each year of such service. Any member covered by this subsection who upon retirement has served ten or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; such member who has served fifteen or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; and such member who has served twenty or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least two thousand four hundred dollars per annum; PROVIDED, That the initial retirement allowance of a member retiring only under the provisions of this subsection shall not exceed the average final compensation upon which the retirement allowance is based. The minimum benefits provided in this subsection shall apply to all retired members or to the surviving spouse of deceased members who were elected to the office of state senator or state representative.

(5) Upon making application for a service retirement allowance under RCW 41.40.180, a member who is eligible therefor shall make an election as to the manner in which such service retirement shall be paid from among the following designated options, calculated so as to be actuarially equivalent to each other:

(a) Standard Allowance. A member selecting this option shall receive a retirement allowance, which shall be computed as provided in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section. The retirement allowance shall be payable throughout his life. However, if he dies before the total of the retirement allowance paid to him equals the amount of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement, then the balance shall be paid to such person or persons having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board, or if there be no such designated person or persons, still living at the time of his death, then to his surviving spouse, or if there be neither such designated person or persons still living at the time of his death nor a surviving spouse, then to his legal representative.

(b) Option II. A member who selects this option shall receive a reduced retirement allowance which upon his death shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board at the time of his retirement.

(c) Option III. A member who selects this option shall receive a reduced retirement allowance and upon his death, one-half of his reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board at the time of his retirement.

Sec. 9. Section 20, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 6, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.190 are each amended to read as follows:

In lieu of the retirement allowance provided in RCW 41.40.185, an individual employed on or before the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act may, after complying with RCW 41.40.180 or 41.40.210, make an irrevocable election to receive the retirement allowance provided by this section which shall consist of:

(1) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement; and

(2) A basic service pension of one hundred dollars per annum; and

(3) A membership service pension, subject to the provisions of subdivision (4) of this section, which shall be equal to one one-hundredth of his average final compensation for each year or fraction of a year of membership service credited to his service account; and

(4) A prior service pension which shall be equal to one-seventieth of his average final compensation for each year or fraction of a year of prior service not to exceed thirty years credited to his service accounts. In no event shall any original member upon retirement at age seventy with ten or more years of service credit receive less than nine hundred dollars per annum as a retirement allowance, nor shall any member upon retirement at any age receive a retirement allowance of less than nine hundred dollars per annum if such member has twelve or more years of service credit, or less than one thousand and two hundred dollars per annum if such member has sixteen or more years of service credit, or less than one thousand five hundred and sixty dollars per annum if such member has twenty or more years of service credit. In the event that the retirement allowance as to such member provided by subdivisions (1), (2), (3), and (4) hereof shall amount to less than the aforesaid minimum retirement allowance, the basic service pension of the member shall be increased from one hundred dollars to a sum sufficient to make a retirement allowance of the applicable minimum amount.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) through (4) of this section, the retirement allowance payable for service where a member was elected or appointed pursuant to Articles II or III of the Constitution of the state of Washington or RCW 48.02.010 and the implementing statutes shall be a combined pension and annuity. Said retirement allowance shall be equal to three percent of the average final compensation for each year of such service. Any member covered by this subsection who upon retirement has served ten or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; such member who has served fifteen or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; and such member who has served twenty or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least two thousand four hundred dollars per annum: PROVIDED, That the initial retirement allowance of a member retiring only under the provisions of this subsection shall not exceed the average final compensation upon which the retirement allowance is based. The minimum benefits provided in this subsection shall apply to all retired members or to the surviving spouse of deceased members who were elected under the provisions of Article II of the Washington state Constitution.

(6) Upon making application for a service retirement allowance under RCW 41.40.180, a member who is eligible therefor shall make an election as to the manner in which such service retirement shall be paid from among the following designated options, calculated so as to be actuarially equivalent to each other:

Option IA. A member electing this option shall receive a retirement allowance payable throughout his life only with termination at death, which shall be computed as provided for in subsections (1) through (4) or (5) of this section.

Option I. If he dies before the total of the annuity portions of the retirement allowance paid to him equals the amount of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement, then the balance shall be paid to such person or persons having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board, or if there be no such designated person or persons, still living at the time of his death, then to his surviving spouse, or if there be neither such designated person or persons still living at the time of his death nor a surviving spouse, then to his legal representative; or

Option II. Upon his death his reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board at the time of his retirement. Unless payment shall be made under RCW 41.40.270, option II shall automatically be given effect as if selected for the benefit of the surviving spouse upon the death in service, or while on authorized leave of absence for a period not to exceed one hundred and twenty days from the date of payroll separation, of any member who is qualified for a service retirement allowance or has completed ten years of service at the time of death, except that if the member is not then qualified for a service retirement allowance, such option II benefit shall be based upon the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay the accrued regular retirement allowance commencing when the deceased member would have first qualified for a service retirement allowance; or Option III. Upon his death, one-half of his reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board at the time of his retirement.

Sec. 10. Section 7, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.193 are each amended to read as follows:

Retirement allowances paid to members eligible to retire under the provisions of RCW 41.40.180, 41.40.200, 41.40.210, 41.40.220, ((41.40.230)) 41.40.230, 41.40.240 and 41.40.250 shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following the calendar month during which the member is separated from service. Retirement allowance paid to members eligible to retire under any other provisions of this 1972 amendatory act shall accrue from the first day of a calendar month but in no event earlier than the first day of the calendar month immediately following the calendar month during which the member is separated from service.

Sec. 11. Section 1, chapter 68, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 271, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.195 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Index" for the purposes of this section, shall mean, for any calendar year, that year's annual average consumer price index for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items (1957-1959 equal one hundred)--compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor;

(2) ("Prior pension" shall mean the pension portion of any service retirement allowance as computed and payable at the time of retirement to any beneficiary based upon an effective retirement date which is prior to December 31, 1970) "Cost-of-living factor", for any year shall mean the ratio of the index for the previous year to the index for the year preceding the initial date of payment of the retirement allowance, except that, in no event, shall the cost-of-living factor, for any year subsequent to 1971, be

(a) less than 1.000;

(b) more than one hundred three percent or less than ninety-seven percent of the previous year's cost-of-living factor; or

(c) such as to yield a retirement allowance, for any individual, less than that which was in effect July 1, 1971;

(3) ((Effective July 1, 1974, every prior pension which is then being paid to any retired member or his designated beneficiary shall be adjusted to that dollar amount which bears the ratio to its original dollar amount which the retirement board finds to exist between the index for 1970 and the index for the calendar year prior to the effective retirement date of the person to whom, or on behalf of whom, such retirement allowance is being paid) "Initial date of payment" shall mean:

(a) The date of retirement of a member, or

(b) In the case of beneficiary receiving an allowance pursuant to the automatic application of option II pursuant to RCW 41.40.270(2), the first day of the month following the date of death;

(4) Each service retirement allowance payable from July 1, 1973 until any subsequent adjustment pursuant to subsection (5) of this section shall be adjusted so as to equal the product of the cost-of-living factor for 1973 and the amount of said retirement allowance on the initial date of payment.

(5) Each service retirement allowance payable from July 1st of any year after 1973 until any subsequent adjustment pursuant to this subsection shall be adjusted so as to equal the product of the cost-of-living factor for such year and the amount of said retirement allowance on the initial date of payment: PROVIDED, That the board finds, at its sole discretion, that the cost of such adjustments shall have been met by the excess of the growth in the assets of the system over that required for meeting the actuarial liabilities of the system at that time.

Sec. 12. Section 34, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 13, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each employee who is a member of the retirement system shall contribute five percent of his total compensation earnable: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a retirement system expense fund contribution of two dollars and fifty cents per annum shall be transferred in semiannual payments of one dollar and twenty-five cents from each employee account balance in the employees' savings fund to the retirement expense fund account, as set forth in this section. On and after July 1, 1973, each employee who is a member of the retirement system shall contribute six percent of his total compensation earnable. The officer responsible for making up the payroll shall deduct from the compensation of each member, on each and every payroll of such member for each and every payroll period subsequent to the date on which he became a member of the retirement system the contribution as provided by this section.

(2) Any member may, pursuant to regulations formulated from time to time by the board, provide for himself, by means of an increased rate of contribution to his account in the employees' savings fund, an increased prospective retirement allowance pursuant to RCW 41.40.190 and 41.40.185.

(3) The officer responsible for making up the payroll shall deduct from the compensation of each member covered by the provisions of RCW 41.40.190 (5) and 41.40.185(4) on each and every payroll of such member for each and every payroll period subsequent to the date on which he thereafter becomes a member of the retirement system, an amount equal to seven and one-half percent of such member's compensation earnable.

Sec. 13. Section 4, Chapter 231, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 14, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.361 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of this section, the "fundable employer liability" at any date shall be the present value of

(a) all future pension benefits payable in respect of all members in the retirement system at that date, and

(b) all future benefits in respect of beneficiaries then receiving retirement allowances or pensions.

(2) The contributions by the employer for benefits under the retirement system shall consist of the sum of a percentage of the compensation of members to be known as the "normal contribution", a percentage of such compensation to be known as the "unfunded liability contribution" and in the case of employers admitted to the retirement system after April 1, 1949, a percentage of such compensation to be known as the "additional contribution". The rates of such contributions shall be determined by the retirement board on the basis of assets and liabilities as shown by actuarial valuation: PROVIDED, That as to state employers effective July 1, 1973 the total combined contributions of the normal contribution and unfunded liability contribution shall not exceed a total combined percentage rate of seven percent for each employer unless authorized by the legislature.

(3) After the completion of each actuarial valuation subsequent to the first actuarial valuation of June 30, 1953, the retirement board shall determine the normal contribution rate and such contribution rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. In addition the board shall determine the additional employer contribution rate necessary to fund the benefits granted officials holding office pursuant to Articles II and III of the Constitution of the state of Washington and RCW 48.02.010. Said additional employer contribution rate shall be paid in the same manner as the normal contribution and the unfunded liability contribution. Until the unfunded liability contribution shall have been discontinued, such normal contribution rate shall be computed to be sufficient, when applied to the present value of the future compensation of the average new member entering the system, to provide for the payment of all prospective pension benefits in respect of such member. After the unfunded liability contributions have been discontinued, such normal contribution rate shall be determined as the uniform and constant percentage of the prospective compensation of all members of the retirement system at the date of such valuation which is equivalent to the excess of the fundable employer liability over the amount of funds currently standing to the credit of the benefit account fund.

(4) After the completion of each actuarial valuation subsequent to the first actuarial valuation of June 30, 1953, the retirement board shall determine the unfunded liability contribution, and such rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. The unfunded liability contribution rate shall not be less than the uniform and constant percentage of the prospective compensation of all members of the retirement system for the forty-year period following the date of such valuation which is equivalent to the unfunded liability. The unfunded liability shall be determined at such date as the excess of the fundable employer liability over the sum of the present value of the future normal contributions payable in respect of all members in the retirement system at that date, and the amount of all funds currently standing to the credit of the benefit account fund. The unfunded liability contributions shall continue until there remains no unfunded liability.

(5) Any employer admitted to the retirement system after April 1, 1949, shall make an additional contribution until such time as the sum of such additional contributions equals the amount of contributions which such employer and employee would have been required to contribute between April 1, 1949, and the date of such employer's admission to the retirement system: PROVIDED, That either the employee or employer may make the contributions the employee would have made during the same period of time; PROVIDED FURTHER, That all additional contributions hereunder and under the provisions of RCW 41.40.160(2) must be completed within fifteen years from the date of the employer's admission. Employee contributions for these periods must be made before the member will receive credit for those periods of service, pursuant to such regulations as the retirement board may adopt.

(6) For the biennium beginning July 1, 1971, and ending June 30, 1973, only, and notwithstanding any other provision of the chapter, the rate determined by the board for state employer contributions shall be only the percentage of compensation for members equal to the "normal contribution" computed to be four and thirty-six one-hundredths percent of compensation.

Sec. 14. Section 18, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 3, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A member who has served or shall serve on active federal service in the military or naval forces of the United States and who left or shall leave an employer to enter such service shall be deemed to be on military leave of absence if he has resumed or shall resume employment as an employee within one year from termination thereof.

(2) If he has applied or shall apply for reinstatement of employment, within one year from termination of the military service, and is refused employment for reasons beyond his control, he shall, upon resumption of service within ten years have such service credited to him.

(3) In any event, after completing twenty-five years of creditable service, any member may have his service in the armed forces credited to him as a member whether or not he left the employ of an employer to enter such armed service: PROVIDED, That in no instance, described in subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, shall military service in excess of five years be credited: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in each instance the member must restore all withdrawn accumulated contributions, which restoration must be completed within five years of membership service following his first resumption of employment: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section will not apply to any individual, not a veteran within the meaning of RCW ((47-06-450)) 41.04.005, as now or hereafter amended: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in no instance, described in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section, shall military service be credited to any member who is receiving full military retirement benefits pursuant to Title 10 ((RSE 3944 or 3944, as now or hereafter amended)) United States Code.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The amendments contained in subsections 11(a) and (b) of section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act and subsection 5 of section 13 of this 1973 amendatory act shall take effect January 1, 1974.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any provision of this 1973 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973.

[House Bill No. 442]

POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN--LINE OF DUTY--DEATH, DISABILITY--CHILDREN--FREE
COLLEGE TUITION

AN ACT Relating to higher education; providing free tuition fees for children of law enforcement officers or fire fighters disabled or killed in line of duty; amending section 28B.15.380, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 279, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.380; amending section 29, chapter 261, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 279, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.520; amending section 9, chapter 269, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 279, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.40.361; and declaring an emergency and making an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 28B.15.380, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 279, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.380 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other exemptions as may be provided by law, the board of regents at the universities may exempt the following classes of persons from the payment of general tuition fees, operating fees, or services and activities fees except for individual instruction fees: (1) All veterans as defined in RCW 41.04.005: PROVIDED, That such persons are no longer entitled to federal vocational or educational benefits conferred by virtue of their military service: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any such veterans have not resided in this state for one year prior to registration said board may exempt them up to one half of the tuition payable by other nonresident students. (2) Members of the staffs of the University of Washington and Washington State University. (3) Teachers in the public schools of the state who supervise the cadet teachers from the University of Washington. (4) Children after the age of 19 years of any law enforcement officer or fire fighter who lost his life or became totally disabled in the line of duty while employed by any public law enforcement agency or full time or volunteer fire department in this state.

Section 2. Section 29, chapter 261, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 279, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.520 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter or chapter 28B.50 RCW as now or hereafter amended the college board shall be authorized to permit the boards of trustees of the various community colleges to waive general tuition fees, operating fees, services and activities fees, and any other fees for needy students who are enrolled in a course of study or program which will enable them to finish their high school education and obtain a high school diploma or certificate, and for children after the age of 19 years of any law enforcement officer or fire fighter who lost his life or became totally disabled in the line of duty while employed by any public law enforcement agency or full time or volunteer fire department in this state.

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 269, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 279, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW

28B.40.361 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of trustees may exempt from the payment of general tuition, operating fees, or services and activities fees, except for individual instruction fees, all veterans who served in the armed forces of the United States who have served the United States during any period of war as defined in RCW 41.04.005 and who shall have served with evidence of conduct other than undesirable, bad conduct or dishonorable upon release from active service: PROVIDED, That such person is no longer entitled to federal vocational or educational benefits conferred by virtue of his military service, and all children after the age of 19 years of any law enforcement officer or fire fighter who lost his life or became totally disabled in the line of duty while employed by any public law enforcement agency or full time or volunteer fire department in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. For the purposes of this 1973 amendatory act the phrase "totally disabled" as used in sections 1, 2 and 3 shall mean a person who has become totally and permanently disabled for life by bodily injury or disease, and is thereby prevented from performing any occupation or gainful pursuit.

CHAPTER 193

[Substitute House Bill No. 862]

AIR POLLUTION CONTROL

AN ACT Relating to air pollution; amending section 1, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 1, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.011; amending section 29, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 20, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.152; amending section 33, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 23, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.205; amending section 49, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 35, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.334; adding new sections to chapter 70.94 RCW; creating a new section; repealing section 5, chapter 232, Laws of 1957 and RCW 70.94.050; repealing section 47, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.520; repealing section 48, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.530; repealing section 49, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.540; repealing section 50, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.550; and repealing section 51, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.560.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 1, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.011 are each amended to read as follows:

It is declared to be the public policy of the state to secure and maintain such levels of air quality as will protect human health and safety and comply with the requirements of the federal clean air act, and, to the greatest degree practicable, prevent injury to plant and animal life and property, foster the comfort and convenience of its inhabitants, promote the economic and social development of the state, and facilitate the enjoyment of the natural attractions of the state. The problems and effects of air pollution are frequently regional and interjurisdictional in nature, and are dependent upon the existence of urbanization and industrialization in areas having common topography and recurring weather conditions conducive to the buildup of air contaminants.

It is also declared as public policy that regional air pollution control programs are to be encouraged and supported to the extent practicable as essential instruments for the securing and maintenance of appropriate levels of air quality.

It is also declared to be the public policy of the state to provide for the people of the populous metropolitan regions in the state the means of obtaining air pollution control not adequately provided by existing agencies of local government. For reasons of the present and potential dramatic growth in population, urbanization, and industrialization, the special problem of air resource management, encompassing both corrective and preventive measures for the control of air pollution cannot be adequately met by the individual towns, cities, and counties of many metropolitan regions.

In addition, the state is divided into two major areas, each having unique characteristics as to natural climatic and topographic features which may result in the different potentials for the accumulation and buildup of air contaminant concentrations. These two major areas are the area lying west of the Cascade Mountain crest and the area lying east of the Cascade Mountain crest. Within each of these major areas are regions which, because of the climate and topography and present and potential urbanization and industrial development may, through definitive evaluation be classed as regional air pollution areas.

To these ends it is the purpose of this chapter to provide for a coordinated state-wide program of air pollution prevention and control, for an appropriate distribution of responsibilities between the state, regional, and local units of government, and for cooperation across jurisdictional lines in dealing with problems of air pollution.

Sec. 2. Section 29, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 20, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.152 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The ((state board)) department of ecology or board of any authority may require notice of the construction, installation, or establishment of any new air contaminant sources except single family and duplex dwellings ((specified by class or classes in its ordinances; resolutions; rules or regulations relating to air pollution)). The ((state board)) department of ecology or board may require such notice to be accompanied by a fee and determine the amount of such fee ((for such class or classes)): PROVIDED, That the amount of the fee may not exceed the cost of reviewing the plans, specifications, and other information and administering such notice: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any such notice given to either the board or to the ((state board)) department of ecology shall preclude a further notice to be given to any other board or to the ((state board)) department of ecology. Within thirty days of its receipt of such notice, the ((state board)) department of ecology or board may require, as a condition precedent to the construction, installation, or establishment of the air contaminant source or sources covered thereby, the submission of plans, specifications, and such other information as it deems necessary in order to determine whether the proposed construction, installation, or establishment will be in accord with applicable rules and regulations in force pursuant to this chapter, and will provide all known available and reasonable methods of emission control. If ((within thirty days of the receipt)) on the basis of plans, specifications, or other information required pursuant to this section the ((state board)) department of ecology or board determines that the proposed construction, installation, or establishment will not be in accord with this chapter or the applicable ordinances, resolutions, rules, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, or will not provide all known available and reasonable means of emission control, it shall issue an order for the prevention of the construction, installation, or establishment of the air contaminant source or sources. ((Failure of such order to issue within the time prescribed herein shall be deemed a determination that the construction, installation or establishment may proceed: PROVIDED, That it is in accordance with the plans, specifications or other information, if any, required to be submitted:)) If on the basis of plans, specifications, or other information required pursuant to this section, the department of ecology or board determines that the proposed construction, installation, or establishment will be in accord with this chapter, and the applicable ordinances, resolutions, rules, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto and will provide all known available and reasonable methods of emission control, it shall issue an order of approval of the construction, installation, and establishment of the air contaminant source or sources, which order may provide such conditions of operation as are reasonably necessary to assure the maintenance of compliance with this chapter and the applicable ordinances, resolutions, rules, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter, addition to or enlargement or replacement of an air contaminant source, or any major alteration therein, shall be construed as construction or installation or establishment of a new air contaminant source. The determination, under subsection (1) of this section, of whether a proposed construction, installation, or establishment will be in accord with this chapter and the applicable ordinances, resolutions, rules, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall include a determination of whether the operation of the new air contaminant source at the location proposed will cause any ambient air quality standard to be exceeded.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the ((state board)) department of ecology or board to require the use of emission control equipment or other equipment, machinery, or devices of any particular type, from any particular supplier, or produced by any particular manufacturer.

(4) Any features, machines, and devices constituting parts of or called for by plans, specifications, or other information submitted pursuant to subsection (1) hereof shall be maintained in good working order.

(5) The absence of an ordinance, resolution, rule, or regulation, or the failure to issue an order pursuant to this section shall not relieve any person from his obligation to comply with any emission control requirements or with any other provision of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 70.94 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever any regulation relating to emission standards or other requirements for the control of emissions is adopted which provides for compliance with such standards or requirements no later than a specified time after the date of adoption of the regulation, the appropriate activated air pollution control authority or, if there be none, the department of ecology shall, by regulatory order, issue to air contaminant sources subject to the standards or requirements, schedules of compliance setting forth timetables for the achievement of compliance as expeditiously as practicable but in no case later than the time specified in the regulation. Interim dates in such schedules for the completion of steps of progress toward compliance shall be as enforceable as the final date for full compliance therein.

Sec. 4. Section 33, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 23, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.205 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any records or other information, other than ambient air quality data or emission data, furnished to or obtained by the ((state board)) department of ecology or the board of any authority pursuant to any sections in chapter 70.94 RCW, relate to processes or production unique to the owner or operator, or is likely to affect adversely the competitive position of such owner or operator if released to the public or to a competitor, and the owner or operator of such processes or production so certifies, such records or information shall be only for the confidential use of the ((state board)) department of ecology or board. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the use of records or information by the ((state board)) department of ecology or board in compiling or publishing analyses or summaries relating to the general condition of the outdoor atmosphere: PROVIDED, That such analyses or summaries do not reveal any information otherwise confidential under the provisions of this section; PROVIDED FURTHER, That emission data furnished to or obtained by the department of ecology or board shall be correlated with applicable emission limitations and other control measures and shall be available for public inspection during normal business hours at offices of the department of ecology or board.

Sec. 5. Section 49, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 35, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.334 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In all instances where the ((state board)) department of ecology or board of any authority is permitted or required to hold hearings under the provisions of this chapter, such hearings shall be held before the ((state board)) department of ecology or board of any authority, or the state board or board of any authority may appoint a hearing officer((; who shall have an attorney admitted to practice in the state)).

(2) A duly appointed hearing officer shall have all the powers, rights, and duties of the ((state board)) department of ecology or board of any authority relating to the conduct of hearings.

((3) At the conclusion of a hearing at which he has presided, the hearing officer shall prepare written findings of fact and conclusions of law, and a recommended decision. Parties to the proceeding shall be notified of the proposed decision as provided in RCW 34.04.110 through 34.04.120, as now or hereafter amended.))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 70.94 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever the department of ecology shall find that any county which is outside the jurisdictional boundaries of an activated air pollution control authority is capable of effectively administering the issuance and enforcement of permits for any or all of the kinds of burning identified in RCW 70.94.650(1) and (3) and desirous of doing so, the department of ecology may delegate all powers necessary for the issuance and enforcement of permits for any or all of the kinds of burning to the county: PROVIDED, That such delegation may be withdrawn by the department of ecology upon a finding that the county is not effectively administering the permit program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 70.94 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is hereby declared to be the policy of this state that strong efforts should be made to minimize adverse effects on air quality from the open burning of field and turf grasses grown for seed. To such end this section is intended to promote the development of economical and practical alternate agricultural practices to such burning, and to provide for interim regulation of such burning until practical alternates are found.

(1) The department shall approve of a study or studies for the exploration and identification of economical and practical alternate agricultural practices to the open burning of field and turf grasses grown for seed. Prior to the issuance of any permit for such burning under RCW 70.94.650, there shall be collected a fee not to exceed fifty cents per acre of crop to be burned. Any such fees received by any authority shall be transferred to the department of ecology. The department of ecology shall deposit all such acreage fees in a special grass seed burning research account, hereby created, in the general fund. The department shall allocate moneys annually from this account for the support of any approved study or studies as provided for in this subsection. For the conduct of any such study or studies, the department may contract with public or private entities: PROVIDED, That whenever the department of ecology shall conclude that sufficient reasonably available alternates to open burning have been developed, and at such time as all costs of any studies have been paid, the grass seed burning research account shall be dissolved, and any money remaining therein shall revert to the general fund.

(2) Whenever on the basis of information available to it, the department after public hearings have been conducted wherein testimony will be received and considered from interested parties wishing to testify shall conclude that any procedure, program, technique, or device constitutes a practical alternate agricultural practice to the open burning of field or turf grasses grown for seed, the department shall, by order, certify approval of such alternate. Thereafter, in any case which any such approved alternate is reasonably available, the open burning of field and turf grasses grown for seed shall be disallowed and no permit shall issue therefor.

(3) Until approved alternates become available, the department or the authority may limit the number of acres on a pro rata basis among those affected for which permits to burn will be issued in order to effectively control emissions from this source.

(4) Permits issued for burning of field and turf grasses may be conditioned to minimize emissions insofar as practical, including denial of permission to burn during periods of adverse meteorological conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 70.94 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Except as provided in sections 9 and 10 of this 1973 amendatory act, nothing in this chapter or in regulations implementing this chapter shall prevent a resident of a single family residence from burning wood, so long as it has not been treated by an application of prohibitive material or substances, and natural vegetation in the course of maintaining or improving the grounds of such residence: PROVIDED, That the department of ecology or board of any authority may set conditions for such burning so as to reduce the impact on air quality.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 70.94 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No person shall cause or allow any outdoor fire:

(1) Containing garbage, dead animals, asphalt, petroleum products, paints, rubber products, plastics, or any substance other than natural vegetation which normally emits dense smoke or obnoxious odors except as provided in RCW 70.94.650: PROVIDED, That agricultural heating devices which otherwise meet the requirements of this chapter shall not be considered outdoor fires under this section.

(2) During a forecast, alert, warning or emergency condition as defined in RCW 70.94.715;

(3) In any area which has been designated by the department of ecology or board of an activated authority as an area exceeding or threatening to exceed state or federal ambient air quality standards or, after July 1, 1976, state ambient air quality goals for particulates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 70.94 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers granted to them by law, the fire protection agency authorized to issue burning permits may regulate or prohibit outdoor burning in order to prevent or abate the nuisances caused by such burning.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Notwithstanding any provision of the law to the contrary, except RCW 70.94.660 through 70.94.690, the department of ecology, upon its approval of any plan (or part thereof) required or permitted under the federal clean air act, shall have the authority to enforce all regulatory provisions within such plan (or part thereof): PROVIDED, That departmental enforcement of any such provision which is within the power of an activated authority to enforce shall be initiated only, when with respect to any source, the authority is not enforcing the provisions and then only after written notice is given the authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The following acts or parts of acts are each hereby repealed:

- (1) Section 5, chapter 232, Laws of 1957 and RCW 70.94.050;
- (2) Section 47, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.520;
- (3) Section 48, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.530;
- (4) Section 49, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.540;
- (5) Section 50, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.550; and
- (6) Section 51, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.560.

[Substitute House Bill No. 1060]

PROPERTY TAX LEVY LIMITATION--

ONE PER CENT OF VALUE--

PORT, UTILITY DISTRICTS EXCLUDED

AN ACT Relating to revenue and taxation; amending section 4, chapter 8, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 2, Laws of 1973 (Initiative Measure No. 44) and RCW 84.52.050; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 4, chapter 8, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 2, Laws of 1973 (Initiative Measure No. 44) and RCW 84.52.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as hereinafter provided, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state((, municipal corporations)) and all taxing districts ((and governmental agencies)), now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed ((twenty mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, which assessed valuation shall be fifty percent)) one percentum of the true and fair value of such property in money; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only as authorized by law and in conformity with the provisions of Article VII, section 2 (a), (b), or (c) of the Constitution of the state of Washington.

Nothing herein contained shall prohibit the legislature from allocating or reallocating ((up to twenty mills)) the authority to levy taxes between the taxing districts of the state and its political subdivisions ((and nothing herein contained shall prevent levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or power district)) in a manner which complies with the aggregate tax limitation set forth in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 12, chapter 182, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 1, chapter 194, Laws of 1949 and RCW 14.08.290 are each amended to read as follows:

The establishment of county airport districts is hereby authorized. Written application for the formation of such a district signed by at least one hundred registered voters, who reside and own real estate in the proposed districts, shall be filed with the board of county commissioners. The board shall immediately transmit the application to the proper registrar of voters for the proposed district who shall check the names, residence and registration of the signers with the records of his office and shall, as soon as possible, certify to said board the number of qualified signers. If the requisite number of signers is so certified, the board shall thereupon place the proposition: "Shall a county airport district be established in the following area: (describing the proposed district)?," upon the ballot for vote of the people of the proposed district at the next election, general or special. If a majority of the voters on such proposition shall vote in favor of the proposition, the board, shall, by resolution, declare the district established. If the requisite number of qualified persons have not signed the application, further signatures may be added and certified until the requisite number have signed and the above procedure shall be thereafter followed.

The area of such district may be the area of the county including incorporated cities and towns, or such portion or portions thereof as the board may determine to be the most feasible for establishing an airport. When established, an airport district shall be a municipality as defined in this chapter and entitled to all the powers conferred by this chapter and exercised by municipal corporations in this state. The airport district is hereby empowered to levy not more than ~~((three mills against the assessed valuation))~~ seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of the property lying within the said airport district: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, Such levy shall not be made unless first approved at any election called for the purpose of voting on such levy.

Sec. 2. Section 10, chapter 153, Laws of 1957 and RCW 17.28.100 are each amended to read as follows:

At the same election there shall be submitted to the voters residing within the district, for their approval or rejection, a proposition authorizing the mosquito control district, if formed, to levy at the earliest time permitted by law on all taxable property located within the mosquito control district a general tax, for one year, of ~~((one mill))~~ twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in excess of any constitutional or statutory limitation for authorized purposes of the mosquito control district. The proposition shall be expressed on the ballots in substantially the following form:

"ONE YEAR ~~((ONE MILL))~~

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER THOUSAND DOLLARS OF ASSESSED VALUE LEVY

"Shall the mosquito control district, if formed, levy a general tax of ~~((one mill))~~ twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for one year upon all the taxable property within said district in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ constitutional and/or statutory tax limits for authorized purposes of the district?

YES..... □

NO..... □"

Such proposition to be effective must be approved by a majority of at least three-fifths of the persons voting on the proposition to levy such tax ~~((and the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in the area of the proposed mosquito control district at the last preceding county or state general election))~~ in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 64, Laws of 1959 and RCW 17.28.252 are each amended to read as follows:

A mosquito control district shall have the power to levy additional taxes in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ constitutional and/or statutory limitations for any of the authorized purposes of such district, not in excess of ~~((two mills a))~~ fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value per year when authorized so to do by the electors of such district by a three-fifths majority of those voting on the proposition ~~((at a special election, to be held in the year in which the levy is made, and not oftener than twice in such year, in the manner provided by law for holding general elections))~~ in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended at such time as may be fixed by the board of trustees for the district, which special election may be called by the board of trustees of the district, at which special election the proposition of authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote

"Yes" and those opposing thereto to vote "No" (?: PROVIDED, That the total number of persons voting at such special election must constitute not less than forty percent of the voters in said mosquito control district who voted in the last preceding general state or county election)). Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent holding the foregoing special election at the same time as that fixed for a general election.

Sec. 4. Section 26, chapter 153, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 5, chapter 56, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 17.28.260 are each amended to read as follows:

A mosquito control district shall have the power to issue general obligation bonds and to pledge the full faith and credit of the district to the payment thereof, for any authorized purpose or purposes of the mosquito control district: PROVIDED, That a proposition authorizing the issuance of such bonds shall have been submitted to the electors of the mosquito control district at a special or general election and assented to by three-fifths of the persons voting on said proposition at said election at which such election the total number of persons voting on such bond proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast within the area of said mosquito control district at the last preceding county or state general election.

General obligation bonds shall bear interest at a rate or rates as authorized by the board of trustees. The various annual maturities shall commence not more than two years from the date of issue of the bonds and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds of such issue, be met by equal annual tax levies.

Such bonds shall never be issued to run for a longer period than ten years from the date of issue.

The bonds shall be signed by the presiding officer of the board of trustees of the district and shall be attested by the secretary of the board, one of which signatures may be a facsimile signature and the seal of the mosquito control district shall be impressed thereon. Each of the interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officials. General obligation bonds shall be sold at public sale as provided by law for sale of general obligation bonds of cities of the first class and at a price not less than par and accrued interest.

There shall be levied by the officers or governing body now or hereafter charged by law with the duty of levying taxes in the manner provided by law an annual levy in excess of the ((~~forty mill~~)) constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations sufficient to meet the annual or semiannual payments of the principal and interest on the said bonds maturing as herein provided upon all taxable property within the mosquito control district.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 59, Laws of 1955 and RCW 27.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

After the board of county commissioners has declared a rural county library district established, it shall appoint a board of library trustees and provide funds for the establishment and maintenance of library service for the district by making a tax levy on the property in the district of not more than ~~((two mills a))~~ fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value per year sufficient for the library service as shown to be required by the budget submitted to the board of county commissioners by the board of library trustees, and by making a tax levy in such further amount as shall be authorized pursuant to RCW 27.12.222 or RCW 84.52.052 or 84.52.056. Such levies shall be a part of the general tax roll and shall be collected as a part of the general taxes against the property in the district.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 59, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 2, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 27.12.070 are each amended to read as follows:

At no time shall the total indebtedness of the district exceed an amount that could be raised by a ~~((one mill))~~ one dollar per thousand dollars of assessed value levy on the then existing value of the taxable property of the district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, except as provided in RCW 27.12.222 or RCW 84.52.052 or 84.52.056. The county treasurer of the county in which any rural county library district is created shall receive and disburse all district revenues and collect all taxes levied under this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 75, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 8, chapter 59, Laws of 1955 and RCW 27.12.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds for the establishment and maintenance of the library service of the district shall be provided by the boards of county commissioners of the respective counties by means of an annual tax levy on the property in the district of not more than ~~((two mills a))~~ fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value per year. The tax levy in the several counties shall be at a uniform rate and shall be based on a budget to be compiled by the board of trustees of the intercounty rural library district who shall determine the uniform tax rate necessary and certify their determination to the respective boards of county commissioners.

Excess levies authorized pursuant to RCW 27.12.222 and RCW 84.52.052 or 84.52.056 shall be at a uniform rate which uniform rate shall be determined by the board of trustees of the intercounty rural library district and certified to the respective boards of county commissioners.

Sec. 8. Section 28, chapter 104, Laws of 1903 as last amended by section 26, chapter 176, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 27.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Each board of county commissioners may levy a tax not exceeding ~~((one tenth of a mill))~~ two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for the support of the circulating library in its intermediate school district. The proceeds of the tax collected shall constitute the circulating school library fund for the payment of all bills created by the intermediate school district for the purchase of books and instructional materials and fixtures. The fund shall be deposited in the office of the county treasurer in which other intermediate school district funds are deposited, and shall be payable on order of the intermediate school district board of education.

Sec. 9. Section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28A.41.130 are each amended to read as follows:

From those funds made available by the legislature for the current use of the common schools, ~~((other than the proceeds of the state property tax,))~~ the superintendent of public instruction shall distribute annually as provided in RCW 28A.48.010 to each school district of the state operating a program approved by the state board of education an amount which, when combined with the following revenues, will constitute an equal guarantee in dollars for each weighted pupil enrolled, based upon one full school year of one hundred eighty days, except that for kindergartens one full school year may be ninety days as provided by RCW 28A.58.180:

(1) ~~((Eighty-five percent of the amount of revenues which would be produced by a levy of fourteen mills on the assessed valuation of taxable property within the school district adjusted to twenty-five percent of true and fair value thereof as determined by the state department of revenue's indicated county ratio: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district for any year shall be reduced by the difference between the proceeds from the actual school district tax levy in the district and the amount the maximum levy permissible for the district under RCW 84.52.050 as now or hereafter amended would produce irrespective of any delinquencies; and~~

~~{2})~~) The receipts from the one percent tax on real estate transactions which may be imposed pursuant to chapter 28A.45 RCW: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district in any county which does not impose a tax in the full amount authorized by chapter 28A.45 RCW shall be reduced by five percent; and

~~((3))~~ (2) ~~((Eighty-five))~~ One hundred percent of the receipts from public utility district funds distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 54.28.090; and

~~((4))~~ (3) ~~((Eighty-five))~~ One hundred percent of the receipts from federal forest revenues distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 36.33.110; and

~~((5))~~ Eighty-five percent of the proportion of the receipts from the tax imposed pursuant to RCW 82.04.294 upon harvesters of timber equal to the proportion that the millage rate for the regular property tax levy for such school district pursuant to RCW 84.52.050 as now or hereafter amended bears to the aggregate millage rate for all property tax levies for such school district; both regular and excess; and

~~((6))~~ Eighty-five) (4) One hundred percent of such other available revenues as the superintendent of public instruction may deem appropriate for consideration in computing state equalization support.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, allocation of moneys to school districts per enrolled student shall be an amount, not less than ninety-five percent of the amount, excluding special levies, which any such district realized from state and local funds during the immediately preceding school year.

Sec. 10. Section 28B.20.394, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 107, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.20.394 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the powers conferred upon the board of regents of the University of Washington by RCW 28B.20.392 and 28B.20.380, said board is authorized and shall have the power to enter into an agreement or agreements with the city of Seattle and the county of King, Washington, to pay to said city and said county such sums as shall be mutually agreed upon for governmental services rendered to said university tract, as defined in RCW 28B.20.390 which sums shall not exceed the amounts that would be received pursuant to limitations imposed by ~~((RCW 84:52:050))~~ section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act by the said city of Seattle and county of King respectively from real and personal property taxes paid on the university tract or any leaseholds thereon if such taxes could lawfully be levied; and any such sums so agreed upon shall be paid from the proceeds and other income from said tract as an item of expense of operation and upkeep thereof: PROVIDED, That in the event that it is determined by a court of final jurisdiction that the provisions of chapter 43, Laws of 1971 first ex. sess., insofar as they affect taxes due and payable in 1972 and 1973 by any lessee of the university tract, are held unconstitutional, the sums paid pursuant to this section in such years shall be refunded in accordance with the provisions of chapter 84.69 RCW; and any provision of RCW 28B.20.392 in conflict herewith is superseded.

In the same manner and to the same extent as the proper authorities of the former city or town could have done had it not been disincorporated, the receiver shall be authorized to levy taxes on all taxable property, to receive the taxes when collected and to apply them together with the proceeds arising from sales to the extinguishment of the obligations of the former city or town.

After all the lawful claims against the former city or town have been paid excepting bonds not yet due, no levy greater than ((two mills on the dollar)) fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value shall be made; nor shall the levy be greater than sufficient to meet the accruing interest until the bonds mature.

Sec. 12. Section 35.10.240, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 7, chapter 89, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.10.240 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases of consolidation or annexation, the county canvassing board or boards shall canvass the votes cast thereat.

In an election on the question of consolidation the votes cast in each of such corporations shall be canvassed separately, and a statement shall be prepared showing the whole number of votes cast, the number of votes cast for consolidation and the number of votes cast against consolidation, the number of votes cast for creation of a community municipal corporation and the number of votes cast against creation of a community municipal corporation, or both, as the case may be, in each of such corporations. In case the question of the form of government of the new corporation shall have been submitted at such election, the votes thereon and on the name of the new corporation shall be canvassed, and the result of such canvass shall be included in the statement, showing the total number of votes cast in all of the corporations for each form of government submitted. A certified copy of such statement shall be filed with the legislative body of each of the corporations affected.

If it shall appear upon such statement of canvass that a majority of the votes cast in each of such corporations were in favor of consolidation or consolidation and creation of a community municipal corporation, the legislative bodies of each of such corporations shall meet in joint convention at the usual place of meeting of the legislative body of that one of the corporations having the largest population as shown by the last United States census or the determination of the planning and community affairs agency on or before the second Monday next succeeding the receipt of the statement of canvass to prepare a statement of votes cast and declaring the consolidation adopted or consolidation adopted and a community municipal corporation created, and if such issue were submitted, declaring the form of government to be that form for which a majority of all the votes on that issue were cast and the name of the consolidated city to be that name for which the greatest number of votes were cast.

In an election on the question of the annexation of all or a part of a city or town to another city or town, the votes cast in the city or town or portion thereof to be annexed shall be canvassed, and if a majority of the votes cast be in favor of annexation, the results shall be included in a statement indicating the total number of votes cast.

Both with respect to consolidation and annexation, a proposition for the assumption of indebtedness outside the (~~forty mill~~) constitutional and/or statutory limits by the other corporation(s) in which the indebtedness did not originate shall be deemed approved if a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors of the corporation in which the indebtedness did not originate votes in favor thereof, and the number of persons voting on such proposition constitutes not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in such corporations in which indebtedness did not originate at the last preceding general election: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if general obligation bond indebtedness was incurred by action by the city legislative body, a proposition for the assumption of such indebtedness by the other corporation(s) in which such indebtedness did not originate shall be deemed approved if a majority of the electors of the corporation in which such indebtedness did not originate votes in favor thereof.

A duly certified copy of such statement of either a consolidation or annexation election shall be filed with the legislative body of each of the corporations affected and recorded upon its minutes, and it shall be the duty of the clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, of each of such legislative bodies, to transmit to the secretary of state and the planning and community affairs agency a duly certified copy of the record of such statement.

Sec. 13. Section 14, chapter 89, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.10.315 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the consolidation of two or more corporations, or the annexation of any city or town after March 1st and prior to the date of adopting the final budget and levying the property tax (~~millage~~) dollar rate on the first Monday in October for the next calendar year, the legislative body of the consolidated city or the annexing city is authorized to adopt the final budget and to levy the property tax (~~millage~~) dollar rate for the consolidated cities or towns and any city or town annexed.

Sec. 14. Section 35.13.172, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.13.172 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a petition is filed by either of the methods provided in RCW 35.13.020 and 35.13.130, or a resolution is adopted by the city council, as provided in RCW 35.13.015, and the area proposed for annexation is less than ten acres and less than ~~((two))~~ eight hundred thousand dollars in assessed valuation, the mayor of the city or town to which the area is proposed to be annexed and the chairman of the board of county commissioners and county superintendent of schools can agree by majority that a review proceeding, as provided herein, is not necessary for the protection of the interest of the various parties, in which case such review procedures shall be dispensed with.

Sec. 15. Section 35.21.430, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.430 are each amended to read as follows:

On and after January 1, 1951, whenever a city or town shall acquire electric generation, transmission and/or distribution properties which at the time of acquisition were in private ownership, the legislative body thereof may each year order payments made to all taxing districts within which any part of the acquired properties are located, in amounts not greater than the taxes, exclusive of excess levies voted by the people and/or levies made for the payment of bonded indebtedness pursuant to the provisions of ~~((the forty-third tax law))~~ Article VII, section 2 of the Constitution of this state, as now or hereafter amended, and/or by statutory provision, imposed on such properties in the last tax year in which said properties were in private ownership.

Sec. 16. Section 35.23.470, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.23.470 are each amended to read as follows:

Every city of the second class having less than eighteen thousand inhabitants may create a publicity fund to be used exclusively for exploiting and advertising the general advantages and opportunities of the city and its vicinity. After providing by ordinance for a publicity fund the city council may ~~((levy))~~ use therefor an annual ~~((special tax))~~ amount not exceeding ~~((two and one-half mills on each dollar of the))~~ sixty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation of the taxable property in the city.

~~((All money derived from this special tax levy shall be paid into the publicity fund and paid out only upon warrants drawn against it and signed by at least two members of the publicity board.))~~

If by unanimous vote the city council so decides, every city of the third class may use ~~((two mills))~~ fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of its regular levy for the purpose of creating a fund for any special improvement or purpose authorized by law. The resolution creating the fund must specifically designate its purpose, and the fund so created shall not be used for any purpose other than that designated in the resolution creating it except by unanimous vote of the city council.

Sec. 18. Section 35.30.020, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.30.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The city council of all unclassified cities in this state are authorized to construct a sewer or system of sewers and to keep the same in repair; the cost of such sewer or sewers shall be paid from a special fund to be known as the "sewer fund" to be provided by the city council, which fund shall be created by a tax on all the property within the limits of such city: PROVIDED, That such tax shall not exceed ((fifty cents on each one hundred)) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property within such city for any one year. Whenever it shall become necessary for the city to take or damage private property for the purpose of making or repairing sewers, and the city council cannot agree with the owner as to the price to be paid, the city council may direct proceedings to be taken by law for the condemnation of such property for such purpose.

Sec. 19. Section 35.31.060, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.31.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The city or town council after the drawing of warrants against the accident fund shall estimate the amount necessary to pay the warrants with accrued interest thereon, and shall levy a tax sufficient to pay that amount not exceeding ((three mills on the dollar)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value. If a single levy of ((three mills)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value is not sufficient, an annual levy of ((three mills)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value shall be made until the warrants and interest are fully paid.

Sec. 20. Section 8, chapter 7, Laws of 1967 and RCW 35.32A.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Every city having a population of over three hundred thousand may maintain an emergency fund, which fund balance shall not exceed ((one and one-half mills on each dollar of assessed valuation)) thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value. Such fund shall be maintained by an annual budget allowance. When the necessity therefor arises transfers may be made to the emergency fund from any tax-supported fund except bond interest and redemption funds.

The city council by an ordinance approved by two-thirds of all of its members may authorize the expenditure of sufficient money from the emergency fund to meet the expenses or obligations:

(1) Caused by fire, flood, explosion, storm, earthquake, epidemic, riot, insurrection, act of God, act of the public enemy or any other such happening that could not have been anticipated; or

(2) For the immediate preservation of order or public health or for the restoration to a condition of usefulness of public property the usefulness of which has been destroyed by accident; or

(3) In settlement of approved claims for personal injuries or property damages, exclusive of claims arising from the operation of a public utility owned by the city; or

(4) To meet mandatory expenditures required by laws enacted since the last budget was adopted.

The city council by an ordinance approved by three-fourths of all its members may appropriate from the emergency fund, an amount sufficient to meet the actual necessary expenditures of the city for which insufficient or no appropriations have been made due to causes which could not reasonably have been foreseen at the time of the making of the budget.

An ordinance authorizing an emergency expenditure shall become effective immediately upon being approved by the mayor or upon being passed over his veto as provided by the city charter.

Sec. 21. Section 22, chapter 95, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.33.145 are each amended to read as follows:

Every city or town may create and maintain a contingency fund to provide moneys with which to meet any municipal expense, the necessity or extent of which could not have been foreseen or reasonably evaluated at the time of adopting the annual budget, or from which to provide moneys for those emergencies described in RCW 35.33.081 and 35.33.091. Such fund may be supported by a budget appropriation from any tax or other revenue source not restricted in use by law, or also may be supported by a transfer from other unexpended or decreased funds made available by ordinance as set forth in RCW 35.33.121: PROVIDED, That the total amount accumulated in such fund at any time shall not exceed the equivalent of ~~((one and one-half mills on each))~~ thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation of property within the city or town at such time. Any moneys in the contingency fund at the end of the fiscal year shall not lapse except upon reappropriation by the council to another fund in the adoption of a subsequent budget.

Sec. 22. Section 35.56.190, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.56.190 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of raising revenues to carry on any project under this chapter including funds for the payment for the lands taken, purchased, acquired or condemned and the expenses incident to the acquiring thereof, or any other cost or expenses incurred by the city under the provisions of this chapter but not including the cost of actually filling the lands for which the local improvement district was created, a city may levy an annual tax of not exceeding ((three mills on each dollar)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation of all property within the city. The city council or commission may create a fund into which all moneys so derived from taxation and moneys derived from rents and issues of the lands shall be paid and against which special fund warrants may be drawn or negotiable bonds issued to meet expenditures under this chapter.

Sec. 23. Section 35.58.090, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.58.09C are each amended to read as follows:

The election on the formation of the metropolitan municipal corporation shall be conducted by the auditor of the central county in accordance with the general election laws of the state and the results thereof shall be canvassed by the county canvassing board of the central county, which shall certify the result of the election to the board of county commissioners of the central county, and shall cause a certified copy of such canvass to be filed in the office of the secretary of state. Notice of the election shall be published in one or more newspapers of general circulation in each component county in the manner provided in the general election laws. No person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he is a qualified voter under the laws of the state in effect at the time of such election and has resided within the metropolitan area for at least thirty days preceding the date of the election. The ballot proposition shall be in substantially the following form:

"FORMATION OF METROPOLITAN MUNICIPAL CORPORATION
((#)) Shall a metropolitan municipal corporation be established for the area described in a resolution of the board of commissioners of..... county adopted on theday of....., 19....., to perform the metropolitan functions of (here insert the title of each of the functions to be authorized as set forth in the petition or initial resolution).

YES.....□

NO□"

If a majority of the persons voting on the proposition residing within the central city shall vote in favor thereof and a majority of the persons voting on the proposition residing in the metropolitan area outside of the central city shall vote in favor thereof, the metropolitan municipal corporation shall thereupon be established and the board of commissioners of the central county shall adopt a resolution setting a time and place for the first meeting of the metropolitan council which shall be held not later than thirty days after the date of such election. A copy of such resolution shall be transmitted to the legislative body of each component city and county and of each special district which shall be affected by the particular metropolitan functions authorized.

At the same election there shall be submitted to the voters residing within the metropolitan area, for their approval or rejection, a proposition authorizing the metropolitan municipal corporation, if formed, to levy at the earliest time permitted by law on all taxable property located within the metropolitan municipal corporation a general tax, for one year, of ~~((one mill))~~ twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in excess of any constitutional or statutory limitation for authorized purposes of the metropolitan municipal corporation. The proposition shall be expressed on the ballots in substantially the following form:

"ONE YEAR (~~ONE MILL~~)

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER THOUSAND DOLLARS OF ASSESSED VALUE LEVY

~~((~~"~~))~~ Shall the metropolitan municipal corporation, if formed, levy a general tax of ~~((one mill))~~ twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for one year upon all the taxable property within said corporation in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ constitutional and/or statutory tax limits for authorized purposes of the corporation?

YES.....□

NO□"

Such proposition to be effective must be approved by a majority of at least three-fifths of the persons voting on the proposition to levy such tax ~~((and the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in the area of the proposed metropolitan municipal corporation at the last preceding county or state general election))~~ in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended.

Sec. 24. Section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 303, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.450 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the limitations of chapter 39.36 RCW and any other statutory limitations otherwise applicable and limiting municipal debt, a metropolitan municipal corporation shall have the power to authorize and to issue general obligation bonds and to pledge the full faith and credit of the corporation to the payment thereof, for any authorized capital purpose of the metropolitan municipal corporation: PROVIDED, That a proposition authorizing the issuance of any such bonds to be issued in excess of three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property therein, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, shall have been submitted to the electors of the metropolitan municipal corporation at a special election and assented to by three-fifths of the persons voting on said proposition at said election at which such election the total number of persons voting on such bond proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast within the area of said metropolitan municipal corporation at the last preceding state general election. Such general obligation bonds may be authorized in any total amount in one or more propositions and the amount of such authorization may exceed the amount of bonds which could then lawfully be issued. Such bonds may be issued in one or more series from time to time out of such authorization but at no time shall the total general indebtedness of the metropolitan municipal corporation exceed five percent of the value of the taxable property therein, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. Both principal of and interest on such general obligation bonds may be made payable from annual tax levies to be made upon all the taxable property within the metropolitan municipal corporation in excess of the (~~forty mill~~) constitutional and/or statutory tax limit or may be made payable from any other taxes or any special assessments which the metropolitan municipal corporation may be authorized to levy or from any otherwise unpledged revenue which may be derived from the ownership or operation of properties or facilities incident to the performance of the authorized function for which such bonds are issued or may be made payable from any combination of the foregoing sources. The metropolitan council may include in the principal amount of such bond issue an amount for engineering, architectural, planning, financial, legal, urban design and other services incident to acquisition or construction solely for authorized capital purposes and may include an amount to establish a guaranty fund for revenue bonds issued solely for capital purposes.

General obligation bonds shall be sold as provided in RCW 39.44.030 and shall mature in not to exceed forty years from the date of issue. The various annual maturities shall commence not more than five years from the date of issue of the bonds and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds of such issue, be met by equal annual tax levies.

Such bonds shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the metropolitan council, one of which signatures may be a facsimile signature and the seal of the metropolitan corporation shall be impressed or imprinted thereon. Each of the interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officials. General obligation bonds shall be sold at public sale as provided by law for sale of general obligation bonds of cities of the first class at a price not less than par and accrued interest.

Sec. 25. Section 35.61.210, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.61.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of park commissioners may levy or cause to be levied a general tax on all the property located in said park district each year not to exceed ((three mills on the assessed valuation)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of the property in such park district: PROVIDED, That notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 84.52.050, and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act the board is hereby authorized to levy a general tax in excess of ((three mills)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value when authorized so to do at a special election conducted in accordance with and subject to all the requirements of the Constitution and laws of the state now in force or hereafter enacted governing the limitation of tax levies ((commonly known as the forty mill tax limitation)). The board is hereby authorized to call a special election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the park district a proposition to levy a tax in excess of the ((three mills)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value herein specifically authorized. The manner of submitting any such proposition, of certifying the same, and of giving or publishing notice thereof, shall be as provided by law for the submission of propositions by cities or towns. The board shall include in its general tax levy for each year a sufficient sum to pay the interest on all outstanding bonds and may include a sufficient amount to create a sinking fund for the redemption of all outstanding bonds. The levy shall be certified to the proper county officials for collection the same as other general taxes and when collected, the general tax shall be placed in a separate fund in the office of the county treasurer to be known as the "metropolitan park district fund" and paid out on warrants.

Sec. 26. Section 35A.14.220, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.14.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Annexations under the provisions of RCW 35A.14.295, 35A.14.297, 35A.14.300, and 35A.14.310 shall not be subject to review by the annexation review board: PROVIDED, That in class AA, class A and first class counties in which a boundary review board is established under chapter ((189, Laws of 1967 [chapter 36.93 RCW])) 36.93 RCW all annexations shall be subject to review except as provided for in ((section 44 of chapter 189, Laws of 1967 [RCW 36.93.440])) RCW 36.93.110. When the area proposed for annexation in a petition or resolution, initiated and filed under any of the methods of initiating annexation authorized by this chapter, is less than fifty acres or less than ((five hundred thousand)) two million dollars in assessed valuation, review procedures shall not be required as to such annexation proposal, except as provided in chapter ((189, Laws of 1967 [chapter 36.93 RCW])) 36.93 RCW in those counties with a review board established pursuant to chapter ((189, Laws of 1967 [chapter 36.93 RCW])) 36.93 RCW: PROVIDED, That when an annexation proposal is initiated by the direct petition method authorized by section 35A.14.120, review procedures shall not be required without regard to acreage or assessed valuation, except as provided in chapter ((189, Laws of 1967 [chapter 36.93 RCW])) 36.93 RCW in those counties with a boundary review board established pursuant to chapter ((189, Laws of 1967 [chapter 36.93 RCW])) 36.93 RCW.

Sec. 27. Section 35A.31.070, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.31.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative body of the code city, after the drawing of warrants against the accident fund, shall estimate the amount necessary to pay the warrant with accrued interest thereon and may appropriate and transfer money from the contingency fund sufficient therefor, or if there is not sufficient money in the contingency fund the legislative body shall levy a tax sufficient to pay all or such unpaid portion of any judgment not exceeding ((three mills on the dollar)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value. If a single levy of ((three mills)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value is not sufficient, and if other moneys are not available therefor, an annual levy of ((three mills)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value shall be made until the warrants and interest are fully paid.

Sec. 28. Section 35A.33.145, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.33.145 are each amended to read as follows:

Every code city may create and maintain a contingency fund to provide moneys with which to meet any municipal expense, the necessity or extent of which could not have been foreseen or reasonably evaluated at the time of adopting the annual budget, or from which to provide moneys for those emergencies described in RCW 35A.33.080 and 35A.33.090. Such fund may be supported by a budget appropriation from any tax or other revenue source not restricted in use by law, or also may be supported by a transfer from other unexpended or decreased funds made available by ordinance as set forth in RCW 35A.33.120: PROVIDED, That the total amount accumulated in such fund at any time shall not exceed the equivalent of ((one and one-half mills on each dollar)) thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation of property within the city at such time. Any moneys in the contingency fund at the end of the fiscal year shall not lapse except upon reappropriation by the council to another fund in the adoption of a subsequent budget.

Sec. 29. Section 35A.40.090, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.40.090 are each amended to read as follows:

No code city shall incur an indebtedness exceeding three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in such city without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose nor, with such assent, to exceed two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property therein except as otherwise provided in chapter 39.36 RCW and subject to the provisions of this chapter and shall have the authority and be subject to the constitutional and/or statutory limitations ((provided in RCW 84.52.050)) relating to levy of taxes ((within the forty mill limit)). The term "value of the taxable property" shall have the meaning set forth in RCW 39.36.015.

Sec. 30. Section 36.32.350, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 3, chapter 85, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.32.350 are each amended to read as follows:

County commissioners may designate the Washington state association of counties as a coordinating agency in the execution of duties imposed by RCW 36.32.335 through 36.32.360 and reimburse the association from county current expense funds in the county commissioners' budget for the costs of any such services rendered: PROVIDED, That the total of such reimbursements from any county in any calendar year shall not exceed a sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of ((one two-hundredths of a mill)) one-half of one cent per thousand dollars of assessed value against ((the actual value of)) the taxable property of the county. Such reimbursement shall be paid on vouchers submitted to the county auditor and approved by the board of county commissioners in the manner provided for the disbursement of other current expense funds and the vouchers shall set forth the nature of the service rendered, supported by affidavit that the service has actually been performed.

Sec. 31. Section 36.33.140, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.33.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The amount of the levy in any year for the county lands assessment fund shall not exceed the estimated amount needed over and above all moneys on hand in the fund, to pay the aggregate amount of such assessments falling due against the lands in the ensuing year; and in no event shall the levy exceed ((one-half of one mill)) twelve and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value upon all taxable property in the county.

Sec. 32. Section 1, chapter 25, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.33.220 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of any county may budget, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 36.40 RCW, and expend any portion of the county road ((millage)) property tax revenues for any service to be provided in the unincorporated area of the county notwithstanding any other provision of law, including chapter 36.82 RCW and RCW 84.52.050 and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 33. Section 36.40.090, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.40.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of county commissioners shall then fix the amount of the levies necessary to raise the amount of the estimated expenditures as finally determined, less the total of the estimated revenues from sources other than taxation, including such portion of any available surplus as in the discretion of the board it shall be advisable to so use, and such expenditures as are to be met from bond or warrant issues: PROVIDED, That no county shall retain an unbudgeted cash balance in the current expense fund in excess of a sum equal to the proceeds of a ((five mill)) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value levy against the assessed valuation of the county. All taxes shall be levied in specific sums and shall not exceed the amount specified in the preliminary budget.

Sec. 34. Section 1, chapter 102, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 36.40.300 are each amended to read as follows:

In each year that the state provides financial aid to the counties for a county revaluation program, the county-assumed portion of the costs of such revaluation program including administrative costs, but excluding any costs pertaining to the development of new data processing programs, shall be shared by all local taxing districts within the county authorized to make levies pursuant to RCW 84.52.050. Such sharing shall be for those costs incurred during 1972 and 1973 only. For the years 1972 and 1973 during which, such state financial aid is received, the county treasurer shall compute the proportionate amount of the county-assumed portion of the costs of revaluation in direct proportion to the ratio of basic property tax as authorized by RCW 84.52.050 and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act levied on behalf of each local taxing district each year, and he shall, on December 31 of those years, bill each local taxing district the amount so computed. The treasurer shall collect said bill by deducting said amount from the next year's tax receipts and place the deducted sums in a special fund to be used solely for the expenses and costs of the administration of the revaluation program: PROVIDED, That the sum deducted from the basic ((millage)) dollar rate for common schools shall be excluded and not considered as revenue in the computation of the school equalization formula pursuant to RCW 28A.41.130. A copy of the assessor's portion of the preliminary county budget shall be sent to each local taxing district affected by the provisions of this section at the time such budget is prepared.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1974.

Sec. 35. Section 36.47.040, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 2, chapter 47, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 36.47.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Each county which designates the Washington state association of county officials as the agency through which the duties imposed by RCW 36.47.020 may be executed is authorized to reimburse the association from the county current expense fund for the cost of any such services rendered: PROVIDED, That no reimbursement shall be made to the association for any expenses incurred under RCW 36.47.050 for travel, meals, or lodging of such county officials, or their representatives at such meetings, but such expenses may be paid by such official's respective county as other expenses are paid for county business. Such reimbursement shall be paid only on vouchers submitted to the county auditor and approved by the board of county commissioners of each county in the manner provided for the disbursement of other current expense funds. Each such voucher shall set forth the nature of the services rendered by the association, supported by affidavit that the services were actually performed. The total of such reimbursements for any county in any calendar year shall not exceed a sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of ~~((one fourth-hundredth of a mill))~~ one-quarter of a cent per thousand dollars of assessed value against ~~((the actual value of))~~ the taxable property in such county.

The establishment of a ferry district is hereby authorized. Written application for the formation of such a district signed by at least twenty-five percent of the registered voters, who reside and own real estate in the proposed district, shall be filed with the board of county commissioners. The board shall immediately transmit the application to the proper registrar of voters for the proposed district who shall check the names, residence, and registration of the signers with the records of his office and shall, as soon as possible, certify to said board the number of qualified signers. If the requisite number of signers is so certified, the board shall thereupon place the proposition, "Shall a ferry district be established in the following area to operate ferries between the following termini: (describing the proposed district and ferry routes)?" upon the ballot for vote of the people of the proposed district at the next election, general or special. If sixty percent of the voters on such proposition vote in favor of the proposition, the board shall, by resolution, declare the district established. If the requisite number of qualified persons have not signed the application, further signatures may be added and certified until the requisite number have signed and the above procedure shall be thereafter followed.

The area of such district shall be the area within any island or group of islands outside incorporated cities and towns, or such portion or portions thereof as specifically defined in the application.

When established, a ferry district shall be a municipality as defined by the statutes of the state and entitled to all the powers conferred by law and exercised by municipal corporations in this state. A ferry district is hereby empowered to levy not more than ((five mills)) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against the assessed valuation of the property lying within the district.

A ferry district shall have the right of eminent domain according to the laws of the state.

A ferry district is exempt and excepted from the provisions of the public service laws and is not subject to the control, rules and regulations of the Washington utilities and transportation commission; and it shall not be necessary for a ferry district to apply for or obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity.

A ferry district may operate any vessel over its authorized routes upon any of the waters of the state that touch any of the area of the district.

Sec. 37. Section 36.62.090, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.62.090 are each amended to read as follows:

If the hospital is established, the board of county commissioners, at the time of levying general taxes, shall levy a tax at the rate voted, not to exceed ((two mills)) fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in any one year, for the maintenance of the hospital.

Sec. 38. Section 9, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.68.480 are each amended to read as follows:

If the petition or resolution initiating the formation of the proposed service area proposes that the initial improvements of services are to be financed by a special levy, a special election for that purpose shall be conducted within the boundaries of the service area. All registered voters within the service area shall be eligible to vote on the proposition. The county auditor, for the purpose of the special election, may combine or divide precincts in order to provide the greatest convenience to voters of the service area.

The county auditor, in submitting the issue to the voters for their approval or rejection, shall submit and express two propositions on the ballot in substantially the following form:

(1) FORMATION OF LOCAL SERVICE AREA

Shall a county service area be established for the area described in a resolution of the board of commissioners of..... county, adopted on the.....day of 19...., to provide financing for neighborhood park facilities, improvements and services?

Yes..... No.....

(2) SPECIAL LEVY (SPECIAL BOND ISSUE)

Shall the county commissioners, for the purposes of"..... local service area No....." or "(name of district) local service area of.....county", levy a general tax of..... ((~~mill~~)) dollars per thousand dollars of assessed value for one year upon taxable property within said service area in excess of the ((~~forty mill~~)) constitutional and/or statutory tax limits for authorized purposes of the service area?

OR shall the county commissioners for the purposes of..... local park service area NO. issue.....dollars of general obligation bonds for a period of not to exceed twenty years and levy a tax of approximately ((~~mill~~)) dollars per thousand dollars of assessed value upon all taxable property in said service area to pay the interest on and to retire said bonds; said levy to be excess of the ((~~forty mill~~)) constitutional and/or statutory tax limits?

Yes..... No.....

Sec. 39. Section 13, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 19, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 36.68.520 are each amended to read as follows:

A service area shall not have power to levy an annual authorized levy, but it shall have the power to levy a tax upon the property included within the service district in the manner prescribed for cities for the purpose of exceeding the limitations established by section 2, Article 7 ((as amended by Amendment 47)) of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052.

The special voted levy may be either for operating fund or for capital outlay, or for a cumulative reserve fund.

A service area may issue general obligations bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any out-standing general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, and may provide for the retirement thereof by levies in excess of ((~~millage~~)) dollar rate in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.52.056: PROVIDED, That such districts may issue bonds equal to two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, when such bonds are approved by the voters of the district at a special election called for the purpose.

Sec. 40. Section 36.69.140, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 20, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 36.69.140 are each amended to read as follows:

A park and recreation district shall not have power to levy an annual authorized levy, but it shall have the power to levy a tax upon the property included within the district, in the manner prescribed for cities for the purpose of exceeding the limitations established by Article VII, section 2, ((as amended by Amendment 47,)) of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052. Such special, voted levy may be either for operating funds or for capital outlay, or for a cumulative reserve fund. A park and recreation district may issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within such district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, and may provide for the retirement thereof by levies in excess of ((millage)) dollar rate limitations in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.52.056.

Sec. 41. Section 36.82.040, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 25, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.82.040 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of raising revenue for establishing, laying out, constructing, altering, repairing, improving, and maintaining county roads, bridges, and wharves necessary for vehicle ferriage and for other proper county purposes, the board shall annually at the time of making the levy for general purposes make a uniform tax levy throughout the county, or any road district thereof, of not to exceed ((ten mills on the dollar)) two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of the last assessed valuation of the taxable property in the county, or road district thereof, unless other law of the state requires a lower maximum levy, in which event such lower maximum levy shall control. All funds accruing from such levy shall be credited to and deposited in the county road fund except that revenue diverted under RCW 36.33.220 shall be placed in a separate and identifiable account within the county current expense fund.

Sec. 42. Section 11, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.93.110 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of annexation to a city or a town, where the area proposed for annexation is less than ten acres and less than ((two)) eight hundred thousand dollars in assessed valuation, the chairman of the review board may by written statement declare that review by the board is not necessary for the protection of the interest of the various parties, in which case the board shall not review such annexation.

Sec. 43. Section 6, chapter 91, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 2, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the legislative authority of each municipality, each year as a part of its annual tax levy, to levy and place in the fund a tax of ~~((one-half of one mill on))~~ twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against all the taxable property of such municipality: PROVIDED, That if a report by a qualified actuary on the condition of the fund establishes that the whole or any part of said ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate is not necessary to maintain the actuarial soundness of the fund, the levy of said ~~((one-half of one mill))~~ twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value may be omitted, or the whole or any part of said ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate may be levied and used for any other municipal purpose.

It shall be the duty of the legislative authority of each municipality, each year as a part of its annual tax levy and in addition to the city levy limit set forth in RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, to levy and place in the fund an additional tax of ~~((one-half of one mill on))~~ twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against all taxable property of such municipality: PROVIDED, That if a report by a qualified actuary establishes that all or any part of the additional ~~((one-half of one mill))~~ twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value levy is unnecessary to meet the estimated demands on the fund under this chapter for the ensuing budget year, the levy of said additional ~~((one-half of one mill))~~ twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value may be omitted, or the whole or any part of such ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate may be levied and used for any other municipal purpose.

Sec. 44. Section 4, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 6, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system is hereby created for fire fighters and law enforcement officers.

(1) All fire fighters and law enforcement officers employed as such on or after March 1, 1970, on a full time fully compensated basis in this state shall be members of the retirement system established by this chapter with respect to all periods of service as such, to the exclusion of any pension system existing under any prior act except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Any employee serving as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter on March 1, 1970, who is then making retirement contributions under any prior act shall have his membership transferred to the system established by this chapter as of such date. Upon retirement for service or for disability, or death, of any such employee, his retirement benefits earned under this chapter shall be computed and paid. In addition, his benefits under the prior retirement act to which he was making contributions at the time of this transfer shall be computed as if he had not transferred. For the purpose of such computations, the employee's creditability of service and eligibility for service or disability retirement and survivor and all other benefits shall continue to be as provided in such prior retirement act, as if transfer of membership had not occurred. The excess, if any, of the benefits so computed, giving full value to survivor benefits, over the benefits payable under this chapter shall be paid. If the employee's prior retirement system was the Washington public employees' retirement system, payment of such excess shall be made by that system; if the employee's prior retirement system was the state-wide city employees' retirement system, payment of such excess shall be made by the employer which was the member's employer when his transfer of membership occurred: PROVIDED, That any death in line of duty lump sum benefit payment shall continue to be the obligation of that system as provided in RCW 41.44.210; in the case of all other prior retirement systems, payment of such excess shall be made by the employer which was the member's employer when his transfer of membership occurred.

(3) All funds held by any firemen's or policemen's relief and pension fund shall remain in that fund for the purpose of paying the obligations of the fund. The municipality shall continue to levy the ((millage)) dollar rate as provided in RCW 41.16.060, and this ((millage)) dollar rate shall be used for the purpose of paying the benefits provided in chapters 41.16 and 41.18 RCW. The obligations of chapter 41.20 RCW shall continue to be paid from whatever financial sources the city has been using for this purpose.

(4) Any member transferring from the Washington public employees' retirement system or the state-wide city employees' retirement system shall have transferred from the appropriate fund of the prior system of membership, a sum sufficient to pay into the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system fund the amount of the employees' and employers' contributions plus credited interest in the prior system for all service, as defined in this chapter, from the date of the employee's entrance therein until March 1, 1970. Except as provided for in subsection

(2), such transfer of funds shall discharge said state retirement systems from any further obligation to pay benefits to such transferring members with respect to such service.

(5) All unfunded liabilities created by this or any other section of this chapter shall be computed by the actuary in his biennial evaluation. Such computation shall provide for amortization of the unfunded liabilities over a period of not more than forty years from March 1, 1970. The amount thus computed as necessary shall be reported to the governor by the board of the retirement system for inclusion in the budget. The legislature shall make the necessary appropriation to fund the unfunded liability from the state general fund beginning with the 1971-1973 biennium.

Sec. 45. Section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1911 and RCW 45.72.050 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be levied annually at the same time the levy for general county taxes is made, and by the officers levying the said county tax, a tax of not more than (~~five mills on the dollar~~) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value on all taxable property within the territorial limits of every such road district as the same existed at the time of the adoption of such township organization for the payment of and until the full amount of all indebtedness, together with all accrued and accruing interest thereon, existing against any such road district, shall have been paid in full.

Sec. 46. Section 3, chapter 243, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 45.82.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any township which at the time that this 1969 amendatory act takes effect has outstanding obligations in excess of anticipated receipts from sources other than general tax levies for the next ensuing year may certify the same to the board of county commissioners and the board shall levy taxes on the property within the township at the rates which the township would have been permitted to levy except for this 1969 amendatory act until such obligations have been extinguished, and until such time such (~~millage~~) dollar rate levy will take precedence over any additional (~~millage~~) dollar rates of fire protection districts under this 1969 amendatory act.

Sec. 47. Section 46.68.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 103, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.68.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds to be paid to the counties of the state shall be subject to deduction and distribution as follows:

(1) Three-fourths of one percent of such sums shall be deducted monthly as such sums accrue and set aside for the use of the state highway commission and the county road administration board for the supervision of work and expenditures of such counties on the county roads thereof: PROVIDED, That any moneys so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the counties in proportion to deductions herein made;

(2) All sums required to be repaid to counties composed entirely of islands shall be deducted;

(3) The balance remaining to the credit of counties after such deductions shall be paid to the several counties monthly, as such funds accrue, upon the basis of the following formula:

(a) Ten percent of such sum shall be divided equally among the several counties.

(b) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the sum of the total number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in unincorporated areas and seven percent of the number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in incorporated areas within each county bears to the total of such sums for all counties. The number of registered vehicles so used shall be as certified by the director of the department of motor vehicles for the year next preceding the date of calculation of the allocation amounts. The director of the department shall first supply such information not later than the fifteenth day of February, 1956, and on the fifteenth of February each two years thereafter.

(c) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the product of the county's trunk highway mileage and its prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile as provided in subsection (e) is to the sum of such products for all counties. County trunk highways are defined as county roads regularly used by school buses and/or rural free delivery mail carriers of the United States post office department, but not foot carriers. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by school buses shall be based solely upon information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction who shall on October 1, 1955 and on October 1st of each odd-numbered year thereafter furnish the state highway commission with a map of each county upon which is indicated the county roads used by school buses at the close of the preceding school year, together with a detailed statement showing the total number of miles of county highway over which school buses operated in each county during such year. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by rural mail carriers on routes serviced by vehicles during the year shall be based solely upon information supplied by the United States postal department as of January 1st of the even-numbered years.

(d) Thirty percent of such sum shall be paid to each of the several counties in the direct proportion that the product of the trunk highway mileage of the county and its "money need factor" as defined in subsection (f) is to the total of such products for all counties.

(e) Every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation, the highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall reexamine or cause to be reexamined all the factors on which the estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties have been based and shall make such adjustments as may be necessary. The following formula shall be used: One twenty-fifth of the estimated total county road replacement cost, plus the total annual maintenance cost, divided by the total miles of county road in such county, and multiplied by the result obtained from dividing the total miles of county road in said county by the total trunk road mileage in said county. For the purpose of allocating funds from the motor vehicle fund, a county road shall be defined as one established as such by resolution or order of establishment of the board of county commissioners. The first allocation of funds shall be based on the following prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties as follows:

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile in this subsection shall be adjusted every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation by the highway commission on the basis of changes in the trunk and total county road mileage based on information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction, the United States postal department and the annual reports of the county road departments.

(f) The "money need factor" for each of the several counties shall be the difference between the prorated estimated annual costs as listed above and the sum of the following three amounts divided by the county trunk highway mileage:

(1) The equivalent of a ~~((ten mill))~~ two dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax levy on the valuation, as equalized by the state department of revenue for state purposes, of all taxable property in the county road districts;

(2) One-fourth the sum of all funds received by the county from the federal forest reserve fund during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as certified by the state treasurer; and

(3) One-half the sum of motor vehicle license fees and motor vehicle fuel tax refunded to the county during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as provided in RCW 46.68.080. These shall be as supplied to the highway commission by the state treasurer for that purpose. The department of revenue and the state treasurer shall supply the information herein requested on or before January 1, 1956 and on said date each two years thereafter.

The following formula shall be used for the purpose of obtaining the "money need factor" of the several counties: The prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile multiplied by the trunk miles will equal the total need of the individual county. The total need minus the sum of the three resources set forth in subsection (f) shall equal the net need. The net need of the individual county divided by the total net needs for all counties shall equal the "money need factor" for that county.

(g) The state highway commission shall adjust the allocations of the several counties on March 1st of every even-numbered year based solely upon the sources of information hereinbefore required; PROVIDED, That the total allocation factor composed of the sum of the four factors defined in subsections (a), (b), (c) and (d) shall be held to a level not more than five percent above or five percent below the total allocation factor in use during the previous two year period.

(h) The highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall relog or cause to be relogged the total road mileages upon which the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile are based and shall recalculate such costs on the basis of such relogging and shall report their findings and recommendations to the legislature at its next regular session.

(i) The highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall study and report their findings and recommendations to the legislature concerning the following problems as they affect the allocation of "motor vehicle fund" funds to counties:

(1) Comparative costs per trunk mile based on federal aid contracts versus those herein advocated.

(2) Average costs per trunk mile.

(3) The advisability of using either "trunk mileage" or "county road" mileage exclusively as the criterion instead of both as in this plan adopted.

(4) Reassessment of bridge costs based on current information and relogging of bridges.

(5) The items in the list of resources used in determining the "need factor".

(6) The development of a uniform accounting system for counties with regard to road and bridge construction and maintenance costs.

(7) A redefinition of rural and urban vehicles which better reflects the use of said vehicles on county roads.

Sec. 48. Section 20, chapter 34, Laws of 1939 as last amended by section 1, chapter 101, Laws of 1963 and RCW 52.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any fire protection district organized under this act shall have authority:

(1) To lease, own, maintain, operate and provide fire engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus, facilities, machinery and equipment for the prevention and extinguishment of fires, and protection of life and property;

(2) To lease, own, maintain and operate real property, improvements and fixtures thereon suitable and convenient for housing, repairing and caring for fire fighting equipment;

(3) To enter into contract with any incorporated city or town whereby such city or town shall furnish fire prevention and fire extinguishment service to the districts and the inhabitants thereof under the provisions of this act upon such terms as the board of directors of the district shall determine. To contract with another county fire protection district, or with any town, city or municipal corporation or governmental agency or private person or persons to consolidate or cooperate for mutual fire fighting protection and prevention purposes. Any city, town, municipal corporation or governmental agency may contract with a county fire protection district established and maintained under the provisions of this act for the purpose of affording such district fire fighting and protection equipment and service or fire prevention facilities, and in so contracting the district, city, town, municipal corporation or other governmental agency shall be deemed for all purposes to act within its governmental capacity. Any county fire protection district established and maintained under the provisions of this act, or any city, town, municipal corporation or other governmental agency is hereby authorized to contract with any person, firm or corporation for the purpose of affording fire fighting, protection or fire prevention facilities to such person, firm or corporation and such contractual relation shall be deemed for all purposes to be within the governmental power of such rural fire protection district, city, town, municipal corporation or other governmental agency;

(4) Fire protection districts situated in different counties may contract to operate jointly in carrying out the objects of their creation. Contracts for joint operation may provide for joint ownership of property and equipment, and may authorize a joint board of fire commissioners of the contracting districts to manage the affairs of the joint operations; to employ and discharge the necessary agents and employees and fix their respective wages and salaries; to provide and designate a suitable place in any county in which any of the contracting districts is situated, as a regular meeting place for the joint board; to incur the necessary expenses and direct the payment therefor from the funds of the contracting districts in such proportion as the joint boards shall determine; and to do all things as may in the judgment of the joint board be required to carry out the joint operations of the contracting districts.

The joint board shall consist of the members of the boards of the contracting districts and a majority of the membership of each district board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the joint board. The members of the boards of fire commissioners of the contracting districts shall organize as a joint board annually in January after the second Monday thereof, elect a chairman and appoint a secretary for the ensuing year. Any member of the board of any contracting district may act as secretary of the joint board or the joint board may appoint such other person as the joint board may determine. The joint board shall prepare the annual budget for the joint operation of the contracting districts and shall determine the share of revenues for the joint operation to be raised by each district and the share of the expense of joint operation to be paid by each district in the ensuing year, and the secretary of the joint board shall certify and deliver within the time required by law, to the county auditor of each county involved, the part of the budget to be raised by the district in that county and the tax officials of that county shall levy and collect the tax, and the county treasurer shall pay vouchers drawn by the joint board on the funds of the district in that county upon warrants issued by the county auditor of that county.

Contracts for joint operation of fire districts, as herein authorized shall run from year to year and as of January 1st may be terminated by written notice of the board of fire commissioners of any contracting district to the other contracting district or districts on or before July 1st and the contract for joint operations shall terminate on January 1st following: PROVIDED, That all obligations of the joint operations must be paid or definitely arranged for before contract termination and no notice of termination shall relieve any contracting district of its unpaid obligation incurred under the contract for joint operation;

(5) To encourage uniformity and coordination of fire protection district operation programs, the fire commissioners of two or more fire protection districts, may form an association thereof, for the purpose of securing data and information of value in fighting and in preventing fires; hold and attend meetings thereof; and promote more economical and efficient operation of the associated fire protection districts. The directors of fire protection districts so associated shall adopt articles of association, select a chairman and secretary, and such other officers as they may determine, and may employ and discharge such agents and employees as the officers deem convenient to carry out the purposes of the association. The expenses of the association may be paid from fire protection district expense funds upon vouchers of the respective associated districts: PROVIDED, That the aggregate contributions made to the association by any district in any calendar year shall not exceed ((one-tenth of one mill of the tax valuation of the district)) two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation:

(6) Two or more fire protection districts may contract with each other and such a district may contract with a city or county or the state supervisor of forestry or any association approved by him for the joint leasing, ownership, maintenance and operation of all necessary and proper apparatus, facilities, machinery, and equipment for the elimination of fire hazards and for the protection of life and property within the contracting districts, and of real property, improvements and fixtures thereon suitable and convenient for the housing, repairing, and caring for such apparatus, facilities, machinery, and equipment, and may contribute their agreed proportion of the cost and expense thereof:

Such contracts shall be executed by the commissioners of the contracting districts and, when the contract is between such districts, the terms and conditions thereof shall be carried out by the boards of commissioners acting jointly;

(7) To do all things and perform all acts not otherwise prohibited by law.

(8) May enter into contract to provide group life insurance for the benefit of the personnel of the fire districts, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars coverage per covered employee, and not more than fifty percent of the cost of such insurance shall be borne by the employer fire district.

Sec. 49. Section 3, chapter 70, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 1, chapter 18, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 52.08.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Any territory contiguous to a fire protection district and not within the boundaries of a city or town or other fire protection district may be annexed to such fire protection district, for the purpose of obtaining fire fighting protection or prevention facilities, by petition of fifteen percent of the qualified registered electors residing within the territory proposed to be annexed. Such petition shall be filed with the fire commissioners of the fire protection district and if the said fire commissioners shall concur in the said petition they shall then file such petition with the county auditor who shall within thirty days from the date of filing such petition examine the signatures thereof and certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof. After the county auditor shall have certified to the sufficiency of the petition, the proceedings thereafter by the board of county commissioners and the rights and powers and duties of the board of county commissioners, petitioners and objectors and the election and canvas thereof shall be the same as in the original proceedings to form a fire protection district: PROVIDED, That the board of county commissioners shall have authority and it shall be its duty to determine on an equitable basis, the amount of obligation which the territory to be annexed to the district shall assume, if any, to place the taxpayers of the existing district on a fair and equitable relationship with the taxpayers of the territory to be annexed by reason of the benefits of coming into a going district previously supported by the taxpayers of the existing district, and such obligation may be paid to the district in yearly installments to be fixed by the county board if within the (~~four mill~~) one dollar per thousand dollars of assessed value annual tax limit and included in the annual tax levies against the property in such annexed territory until fully paid. The amount of the obligation and the plan of payment thereof fixed by the county board shall be set out in general terms in the notice of election for annexation: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the special election shall be held only within the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed to said fire protection district. Upon the entry of the order of the board of county commissioners incorporating such contiguous territory with such existing fire protection districts, said territory shall become subject to the indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, of said existing district in like manner as the territory of said district. Should such petition be signed by sixty percent of the qualified registered electors residing within the territory proposed to be annexed, and should the fire commissioners concur therein, an election in such territory and a hearing on such petition shall be dispensed with and the board of county commissioners shall enter its order incorporating such territory within the said existing fire protection district.

Sec. 50. Section 3, chapter 24, Laws of 1951 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 30, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 52.16.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Fire protection districts are hereby authorized to incur general indebtedness for capital purposes which shall include replacements of equipment which may be damaged or lost and for the purpose of refunding outstanding coupon warrants issued for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within such district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, and to issue general obligation bonds evidencing such indebtedness on the terms and provisions hereinafter set forth, the principal and interest thereof to be payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the (~~forty mill~~) constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations.

Sec. 51. Section 7, chapter 24, Laws of 1951 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 52.16.120 are each amended to read as follows:

An annual levy in excess of the (~~forty mill~~) constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations shall be made upon all the taxable property within such district, except those lands within the district which are now or will hereafter be required to pay forest protection assessment, by the officers or governing body thereof now or hereafter charged by law with the duty of levying taxes for such district sufficient to meet the annual and semiannual payments of principal and interest due on said bonds.

Sec. 52. Section 8, chapter 24, Laws of 1951 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 105, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 52.16.130 are each amended to read as follows:

To carry out the purposes for which fire protection districts are created, the board of fire commissioners of any such district is hereby authorized to levy each year, in addition to the levy or levies provided in this act for the payment of the principal and interest of any outstanding general obligation bonds and the levies necessary to pay the principal and interest of any coupon warrants heretofore issued and outstanding, an ad valorem tax on all taxable property located in such district not to exceed ~~((two mills))~~ fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value: PROVIDED, That in no case may the total general levy for all purposes, except retirement of general obligation bonds, exceed ~~((four mills))~~ one dollar per thousand dollars of assessed value. Levies in excess of ~~((four mills))~~ one dollar per thousand dollars of assessed value or in excess of aggregate ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate limitations or both may be made for any district purpose when so authorized at a special election under the provisions of RCW 84.52.052. Any such tax when so levied shall be certified to the proper county officials for the collection of the same as for other general taxes. Such taxes when collected shall be placed in the appropriate district fund or funds as provided by law, and shall be paid out on warrants of the auditor of the county in which the district is situated, upon authorization of the board of fire commissioners of such district.

Sec. 53. Section 9, chapter 24, Laws of 1951 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 52.16.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the limitation of ~~((millage))~~ dollar rates contained in RCW 52.16.130, the board of fire commissioners of any such district is hereby authorized to levy, in addition to any levy for the payment of the principal and interest of any outstanding general obligation bonds and levies necessary to pay the principal and interest of any coupon warrants heretofore issued and outstanding, an ad valorem tax on all property located in such district of not to exceed ~~((two mills))~~ fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value when such levy will not take ~~((millage))~~ dollar rates which other taxing districts may lawfully claim and which will not cause the combined levies to exceed the ~~((forty mill))~~ constitutional and/or statutory limitations, and such additional levy, or any portion thereof, may also be made when ((millage)) dollar rates of other taxing units is released therefor by agreement with the other taxing units from their authorized levies.

Sec. 54. Section 9, chapter 53, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 243, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 52.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the limitation of ((millage)) dollar rates contained in RCW 52.16.130, and in addition to any levy for the payment of the principal and interest of any outstanding general obligation bonds and levies necessary to pay the principal and interest of any coupon warrants heretofore issued and outstanding and in addition to any levy authorized by RCW 52.16.130, 52.16.140 or any other statute, if in any county where there are one or more townships in existence making annual tax levies and such township or townships are disorganized as a result of a county-wide disorganization procedure prescribed by statute and is no longer making any tax levy, or any township or townships for any other reason no longer makes any tax levy, the board of fire commissioners of any fire protection district within such county is hereby authorized to levy each year an ad valorem tax on all taxable property within such district of not to exceed ((two mills)) fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value, which levy may be made only if it will not cause the combined levies to exceed the ((forty mill)) constitutional and/or statutory limitations.

Sec. 55. Section 4, chapter 31, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 47, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 53.06.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Each port district which designates the Washington public ports association as the agency through which the duties imposed by RCW 53.06.020 may be executed is authorized to pay dues and/or assessments to said association from port district funds in any calendar year in an amount not exceeding a sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of ((one-hundredth of a mill)) one cent per thousand dollars of assessed value against ((the actual value of)) the taxable property within the port district.

Sec. 56. Section 11, chapter 65, Laws of 1955 and RCW 53.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A district may raise revenue by levy of an annual tax not to exceed ((two mills on each dollar of)) forty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against the assessed valuation of the taxable property in such port district for general port purposes, including the establishment of a capital improvement fund for future capital improvements, except that any levy for the payment of the principal and interest of the general bonded indebtedness of the port district shall be in excess of any levy made by the port district under the ~~((two-mill))~~ forty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value limitation. The levy shall be made and taxes collected in the manner provided for the levy and collection of taxes in school districts of the first class.

Sec. 57. Section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1925 as amended by section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 53.36.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Any port district organized under the laws of this state shall, in addition to the powers otherwise provided by law, have the power to raise revenue by the levy and collection of an annual tax on all taxable property within such port district of not to exceed ~~((two mills on each dollar of))~~ forty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against the assessed valuation of the taxable property in such port district, for dredging, canal construction, or land leveling or filling purposes, the proceeds of any such levy to be used exclusively for such dredging, canal construction, or land leveling and filling purposes: PROVIDED, That no such levy for dredging, canal construction, or land leveling or filling purposes under the provisions of RCW 53.36.070 and 53.36.080 shall be made unless and until the question of authorizing the making of such additional levy shall have been submitted to a vote of the electors of the district in the manner provided by law for the submission of the question of making additional levies in school districts of the first class at an election held under the provisions of RCW 29.13.030 and shall have been authorized by a majority of the electors voting thereon.

Sec. 58. Section 1, chapter 265, Laws of 1957 and RCW 53.36.100 are each amended to read as follows:

A port district having adopted a comprehensive scheme of harbor improvements and industrial developments may thereafter raise revenue, for six successive years only, in addition to all other revenues now authorized by law, by an annual levy not to exceed ~~((two mills on each dollar of))~~ forty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against the assessed valuation of the taxable property in such port district. Said levy shall be used exclusively for the exercise of the powers granted to port districts under chapter 53.25 except as provided in RCW 53.36.110. The levy of such taxes is herein authorized notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 84.52.050 and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act. The revenues derived from levies made under RCW 53.36.100 and 53.36.110 not expended in the year in which the levies are made may be paid into a fund for future use in carrying out the powers granted under chapter 53.25, which fund may be accumulated and carried over from year to year, with the right to continue to levy the taxes provided for in RCW 53.36.100 and 53.36.110 for the purposes herein authorized.

Sec. 59. Section 4, chapter 162, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 53.47.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The superior court, upon the filing of such petition, shall set such petition for hearing not less than one hundred twenty days and not more than one hundred eighty days after the date of filing said petition. Further, the court shall order the clerk of said court to give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing by publication of notice in a newspaper of general circulation within such district, such publication to be once each week for three consecutive weeks, the date of first publication to be not less than thirty nor more than seventy days prior to the date fixed for the hearing upon such petition. Said notice shall further provide that all creditors of said district, including holders of revenue or general obligation bonds issued by said district, if any, shall present their claims to the clerk of said court within ninety days from the date of first publication of said notice, and that upon failure to do so all such claims will be forever barred. The clerk shall also mail a copy by ordinary mail of such notice to all creditors of said district, including holders of revenue or general obligation bonds issued by said district, if any, such mailing to be mailed not later than thirty days after the hearing date has been set. No other or further notices shall be required at any stage of the proceedings for dissolution of an inactive port district pursuant to this chapter.

The clerk, ten days prior to the date set for the hearing, shall deliver to the court the following:

- (1) A list of the liabilities of the port district in detail with the names and addresses of creditors as then known; and
- (2) A list of the assets of the port district in detail as then known.

The court upon hearing the petition shall fix and determine all such claims subject to proof being properly filed as provided in this section; shall fix and determine the financial condition of the district as to its assets and liabilities, and if it finds the port district to be inactive in respect of any standard of inactivity set forth by this chapter, shall order the port district to be dissolved upon the following terms and conditions:

- (1) If there be no outstanding debts, or if the debts be less than the existing assets, the court shall appoint the auditor of the county in which the port district is located to be trustee of the port's assets and shall empower such person to wind up and liquidate the affairs of such district in such manner as the court shall provide and to file his accounting with the court within ninety days from the date of his appointment. Upon the filing of such account, the court shall fix a date for hearing upon the same and upon approval thereof, if such accounting be the final accounting, shall enter its order approving the same and declaring the port district dissolved.

At the request of the trustee the county sheriff may sell, at public auction, all real and personal property of the port district. The county sheriff shall cause a notice of such sale fixing the time and place thereof which shall be at a suitable place, which will be noted in the advertisement for sale. Such notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold and shall be signed by the sheriff or his deputy. Such notice shall be published at least once in an official newspaper in said county at least ten days prior to the date fixed for said sale. The sheriff or his deputy shall conduct said sale and sell the property described in the notice at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash, and upon payment of the amount of such bid shall deliver the said property to such bidder. The moneys arising from such sale shall be turned over to the county auditor acting as trustee: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the sheriff shall first deduct the costs and expenses of the sale from the moneys and shall apply such moneys to pay said costs and expenses.

The court order shall provide that the assets remaining in the hands of the trustee shall be transferred to any school district, districts, or portions of districts, lying within the dissolved port district boundaries. The transfer of assets shall be prorated to the districts based on the assessed valuation of said districts.

(2) If the debts exceed the assets of the port district, then the court shall appoint the auditor of the county in which a port district is located to be trustee of the port's assets for the purpose of conserving the same and of paying liability of the port district as funds become available therefor. The trustee shall be empowered to generally manage, wind up, and liquidate the affairs of such district in such manner as the court shall provide and to file his accounting with the court within ninety days from the date of his appointment and as often thereafter as the court shall provide. The board of county commissioners, acting as pro tempore port district commissioners under the authority of RCW 53.36.020 shall levy an annual tax not exceeding ~~((one mill))~~ forty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value or such lesser amount as may previously have been voted by the taxpayers within said district, together with an amount deemed necessary for payment of the costs and expenses attendant upon the dissolution of said district, upon all the taxable property within said district, the amount of such levy to be determined from time to time by the court. When, as shown by the final accounting of the trustee, all of the indebtedness of the district shall have been satisfied, the cost and expense of the proceeding paid or provided for, and the affairs of the district wound up, the court shall declare the district dissolved: PROVIDED, That if the indebtedness be composed in whole or in part of bonded debt for which a regular program of retirement has been provided, then the board of county commissioners shall be directed by the court to continue to make such annual levies as are required for the purpose of debt service upon said bonded debt.

Sec. 60. Section 9, chapter 390, Laws of 1955 and RCW 54.16.080 are each amended to read as follows:

A district may raise revenue by the levy of an annual tax on all taxable property within the district, not exceeding ~~((two mills))~~ forty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in any one year, exclusive of interest and redemption for general obligation bonds. The commission shall prepare a proposed budget of the contemplated financial transactions for the ensuing year and file it in its records, on or before the first Monday in September. Notice of the filing of the proposed budget and the date and place of hearing thereon shall be published for at least two consecutive weeks in a newspaper printed and of general circulation in the county. On the first Monday in October, the commission shall hold a public hearing on the proposed budget at which any taxpayer may appear and be heard against the whole or any part thereof. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the commission shall, by resolution, adopt the budget as finally determined, and fix the final amount of expenditures for the ensuing year. Taxes levied by the commission shall be certified to and collected by the proper officer of the county in which the district is located in the same manner as provided for the certification and collection of port district taxes. The commission may, prior to the receipt of taxes raised by levy, borrow money or issue warrants of the district in anticipation of the revenue to be derived from the levy or taxes for district purposes, and the warrants shall be redeemed from the first money available from such taxes. The warrants shall not exceed the anticipated revenue of one year, and shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed six percent per annum.

Sec. 61. Section 4, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 1, chapter 250, Laws of 1953 and RCW 56.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon entry of the findings of the final hearing on the petition, if the commissioners find the proposed sewer system will be conducive to the public health, welfare, and convenience and be of special benefit to the land within the boundaries of the said proposed or reorganized district, they shall by resolution call a special election to be held not less than thirty days and not more than sixty days from the date thereof, and shall cause to be published a notice of such election at least once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, setting forth the hours during which the polls will be open, the boundaries of the proposed or reorganized district as finally adopted, and the object of the election, and the notice shall also be posted for ten days in ten public places in the proposed or reorganized district. The proposition shall be expressed on the ballots in the following terms:

Sewer District..... YES

or in the reorganization of a district, the proposition shall be expressed on the ballot in the following terms:

Sewer District Reorganization..... YES

Sewer District Reorganization..... NO

giving in each instance the name of the district as decided by the board.

At the same election the county commissioners shall submit a proposition to the voters, for their approval or rejection, authorizing the sewer district, if formed, to levy at the earliest time permitted by law on all property located in the district a general tax for one year, in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ tax limitations provided by law, of not to exceed ~~((five mills))~~ one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value, for general preliminary expenses of the district, said proposition to be expressed on the ballots in the following terms:

One year ~~((5 mill))~~ one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax..... YES

One year ~~((5 mill))~~ one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax..... NO

Such proposition to be effective must be approved by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition ~~((and the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in the area encompassed by the proposed district at the last preceding general state election))~~ in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended.

Sec. 62. Section 1, chapter 267, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 47, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 56.08.110 are each amended to read as follows:

To improve the organization and operation of sewer districts, the commissioners of two or more such districts may form an association thereof, for the purpose of securing and disseminating information of value to the members of the association and for the purpose of promoting the more economical and efficient operation of the comprehensive plans of sewer systems in their respective districts. The commissioners of sewer districts so associated shall adopt articles of association, select such officers as they may determine, and employ and discharge such agents and employees as shall be deemed convenient to carry out the purposes of the association. Sewer district commissioners and their employees are authorized to attend meetings of the association. The expense of the association may be paid from the maintenance or general funds of the associated districts in such manner as shall be provided in the articles of association: PROVIDED, That the aggregate contributions made to the association by the district in any calendar year shall not exceed the amount which would be raised by a levy (~~on one-fortieth of a mill~~) of two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against (~~the actual value of~~) the taxable property of the district. The financial records of such association shall be subject to audit by the Washington state division of municipal corporations of the state auditor.

Sec. 63. Section 14, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 10, chapter 250, Laws of 1953 and RCW 56.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The sewer commissioners may submit at any general or special election, a proposition that said sewer district incur a general indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the (~~forty mill~~) constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for the construction of any part or all of the comprehensive plan for the district. If such general indebtedness is to be incurred, the amount of such indebtedness and the terms thereof shall be included in the proposition submitted to the qualified voters as aforesaid, and such proposition, to be effective, shall be adopted and assented to by three-fifths of the qualified voters of the said sewer district voting on said proposition at said election (~~at which such election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in said sewer district at the last preceding general state election~~) in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended.

Sec. 64. Section 17, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 6, chapter 103, Laws of 1959 and RCW 56.16.030 are each amended to read as follows:

In the same manner as herein provided for the adoption of the general comprehensive plan, and after the adoption of the general comprehensive plan, a plan providing for additions and betterments to the general comprehensive plan, or reorganized district may be adopted. Without limiting its generality "additions and betterments" shall include any necessary change in, amendment of, or addition to the comprehensive plan. The sewer district may incur a general indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for the construction of the additions and betterments in the same way the general indebtedness may be incurred for the construction of the general comprehensive plan. Upon ratification by the voters of the entire district, of the proposition to incur such indebtedness, the additions and betterments may be carried out by the sewer commissioners to the extent specified in the proposition to incur such general indebtedness. The sewer district may issue revenue bonds to pay for the construction of the additions and betterments by resolution of the board of sewer commissioners without submitting a proposition therefor to the voters.

Sec. 65. Section 18, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 80, chapter 56, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any such sewer district shall hereafter adopt a plan for a sewer system as herein provided, or any additions and betterments thereto, or whenever any reorganized sewer district shall hereafter adopt a plan for any additions or betterments thereto, and the qualified voters of any such sewer district or reorganized sewer district shall hereafter authorize a general indebtedness for all the said plan, or any part thereof, or any additions and betterments thereto or for refunding in whole or in part bonds theretofore issued, general obligation bonds for the payment thereof may be issued as hereinafter provided. The bonds shall be serial in form and maturity and numbered from one up consecutively. The bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the board of sewer commissioners, payable semiannually from date of said bonds until principal thereof is paid, with interest coupons, evidencing such interest to maturity, attached. The various annual maturities shall commence with the second year after the date of issue of the bonds, and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds, be met by an equal annual tax levy for the payment of said bonds and interest: PROVIDED, That only the bond numbered one of any issue shall be of a denomination other than a multiple of one hundred dollars.

Such bonds shall never be issued to run for a longer period than thirty years from the date of the issue and shall as nearly as practicable be issued for a period which will be equivalent to the life of the improvement to be acquired by the issue of the bonds.

The bonds shall be signed by the presiding officer of the board of sewer commissioners and shall be attested by the secretary of such board under the seal of the sewer district, and the interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signature of the presiding officer of the board of sewer commissioners and shall be attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary of such board.

There shall be levied by the officers or governing body now or hereafter charged by law with the duty of levying taxes in the manner provided by law an annual levy in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations sufficient to meet the annual or semiannual payments of principal and interest on the said bonds maturing as herein provided upon all taxable property within such sewer district.

Said bonds shall be sold in such manner as the sewer commissioners shall deem for the best interest of the sewer district, and at a price not less than par and accrued interest.

Sec. 66. Section 16, chapter 250, Laws of 1953 as amended by section 12, chapter 103, Laws of 1959 and RCW 56.16.115 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of sewer commissioners may by resolution, without submitting the matter to the voters of the district, authorize the issuance of refunding general obligation bonds to refund any outstanding general obligation bonds, or any part thereof, at maturity thereof, or before the maturity thereof, if they are subject to call for prior redemption, or if all of the holders thereof consent thereto. The total cost to the district over the life of the refunding bonds shall not exceed the total cost, which the district would have incurred but for such refunding, over the remainder of the life of the bonds being refunded. The provisions of RCW 56.16.040 specifying the form and maturities of general obligation bonds and providing for annual tax levies in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations shall apply to the refunding general obligation bonds issued under this title.

The board of sewer commissioners may by resolution, without submitting the matter to the voters of the district, provide for the issuance of refunding revenue bonds to refund outstanding general obligation bonds and/or revenue bonds, or any part thereof, at maturity thereof, or before maturity thereof, if they are subject to call for prior redemption, or if all of the holders thereof consent thereto. The total cost to the district over the life of said refunding revenue bonds shall not exceed the total cost, which the district would have incurred but for such refunding, over the remainder of the life of the bonds being refunded. Uncollected assessments originally payable into the revenue bond fund of a refunded revenue bond issue shall be paid into the revenue bond fund of the refunding issue. The provisions of RCW 56.16.060 specifying the form and maturities of revenue bonds shall apply to the refunding revenue bonds issued under this title.

Refunding general obligation bonds or refunding revenue bonds may be exchanged for the bonds being refunded or may be sold in such manner as the sewer commissioners shall deem for the best interest of the sewer district.

Sec. 67. Section 3, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 1, chapter 251, Laws of 1953 and RCW 57.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon entry of the findings of the final hearing on the petition if the commissioners find the proposed district will be conducive to the public health, welfare, and convenience and be of special benefit to the land therein, they shall by resolution call a special election to be held not less than thirty days from the date of the resolution, and cause to be published a notice of the election for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the proposed district is located, which notice shall state the hours during which the polls will be open, the boundaries of the district as finally adopted and the object of the election, and the notice shall also be posted ten days in ten public places in the proposed district. In submitting the proposition to the voters, it shall be expressed on the ballots in the following terms:

- Water District..... YES
- Water District..... NO

giving the name of the district as may be decided by the board.

At the same election the county commissioners shall submit a proposition to the voters, for their approval or rejection, authorizing the water district, if formed, to levy at the earliest time permitted by law on all property located in the district a general tax for one year, in excess of the ((~~forty mill~~)) limitations provided by law, of not to exceed ((~~five mills~~)) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value, for general preliminary expenses of the district, said proposition to be expressed on the ballots in the following terms:

- One year ((~~5 mill~~)) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax..... YES
- One year ((~~5 mill~~)) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax..... NO

Such proposition to be effective must be approved by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition ((and the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in the area encompassed by the proposed district at the last preceding general state election held therein)) in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended.

Sec. 68. Section 1, chapter 242, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 47, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 57.08.110 are each amended to read as follows:

To improve the organization and operation of water districts, the commissioners of two or more such districts may form an association thereof, for the purpose of securing and disseminating information of value to the members of the association and for the purpose of promoting the more economical and efficient operation of the comprehensive plans of water supply in their respective districts. The commissioners of water districts so associated shall adopt articles of association, select such officers as they may determine, and employ and discharge such agents and employees as shall be deemed convenient to carry out the purposes of the association. Water district commissioners and employees are authorized to attend meetings of the association. The expense of the association may be paid from the maintenance or general funds of the associated districts in such manner as shall be provided in the articles of association: PROVIDED, That the aggregate contributions made to the association by the district in any calendar year shall not exceed the amount which would be raised by a levy of ((one-fortieth of a mill)) two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against ((the actual value of)) the taxable property of the district. The financial records of such association shall be subject to audit by the Washington state division of municipal corporations of the state auditor.

Sec. 69. Section 7, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 7, chapter 108, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioners may submit to the voters of the district at any general or special election, a proposition that the district incur a general indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the ((forty mill)) constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for the construction of any part or all of the general comprehensive plan. The amount of the indebtedness and the terms thereof shall be included in the proposition submitted to the voters, and the proposition shall be adopted by three-fifths of the voters voting thereon((; at which such election the total number of persons voting shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in said water district at the last preceding general state election)) in the manner set forth in Article

VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended. has been adopted the commissioners shall carry it out to the extent specified in the proposition to incur general indebtedness.

Sec. 70. Section 9, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 9, chapter 108, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

In the same manner as provided for the adoption of the original general comprehensive plan, a plan providing for additions and betterments to the original general plan may be adopted. Without limiting its generality "additions and betterments" shall include any necessary change in, amendment of or addition to the general comprehensive plan.

The district may incur a general indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for the construction of the additions and betterments in the same way that general indebtedness may be incurred for the construction of the original general plan after submission to the voters of the entire district in the manner the original proposition to incur indebtedness was submitted. Upon ratification the additions and betterments may be carried out by the commissioners to the extent specified in the proposition to incur the general indebtedness.

The district may issue revenue bonds to pay for the construction of the additions and the betterments pursuant to resolution of the board of water commissioners without submitting a proposition therefor to the voters of the district.

Sec. 71. Section 11, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 83, chapter 56, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 57.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

When general district indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations has been authorized, the district may issue its general obligation bonds in payment thereof. The bonds shall be serial in form and maturity and numbered from one up consecutively and shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the board of water commissioners payable semiannually, with interest coupons attached. The various annual maturities shall commence with the second year after the date of the issue, and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds, be met by an equal annual tax levy for the payment of the bonds and interest. Only the bond numbered one of any issue shall be of a denomination other than a multiple of one hundred dollars.

Bonds shall not be issued to run for a longer period than twenty years from the date of issue and shall as nearly as practicable be issued for a period which will be equivalent to the life of the improvement to be acquired by the issuance of the bonds.

The bonds shall be signed by the president of the board and attested by the secretary, under the seal of the district. The interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signature of the president and attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary.

There shall be levied by the officers or governing body charged with the duty of levying taxes, an annual levy in excess of the (~~forty mill~~) constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations sufficient to meet the annual or semiannual payments of principal and interest on the bonds upon all taxable property within the district.

The bonds shall be sold in such manner as the commissioners deem for the best interest of the district, and at a price not less than par and accrued interest.

Sec. 72. Section 16, chapter 251, Laws of 1953 and RCW 57.20.015 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of water commissioners of any water district may by resolution, without submitting the matter to the voters of the district, provide for the issuance of refunding general obligation bonds to refund any outstanding general obligation bonds, or any part thereof, at maturity thereof, or before the maturity thereof if they are subject to call for prior redemption or all of the holders thereof consent thereto. The total cost to the district over the life of the refunding bonds shall not exceed the total cost to the district which the district would have incurred but for such refunding over the remainder of the life of the bonds to be refunded thereby. The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded thereby, or may be sold in such manner as the board of water commissioners deems to be for the best interest of the district, and the proceeds of such sale used exclusively for the purpose of paying, retiring, and canceling the bonds to be refunded and interest thereon.

The provisions of RCW 57.20.010, specifying the form and maturities of general obligation bonds and providing for annual tax levies in excess of the (~~forty mill~~) constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations shall apply to the refunding general obligation bonds issued under this section.

Sec. 73. Section 18, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 4, chapter 25, Laws of 1951 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 57.20.100 are each amended to read as follows:

A district may, in addition to the levies mentioned in RCW 57.16.020, 57.16.040 and 57.20.010, levy a general tax on all property located in the district each year not to exceed (~~two mill~~ ~~on~~) fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against the assessed valuation of the property where such water district maintains a fire department as authorized by RCW 57.16.010 to 57.16.040, inclusive, but such levy shall not be made where any property within such water district lies within the boundaries of any fire protection district created under RCW 52.04.010 to 52.04.160, inclusive. The taxes so levied shall be certified for collection as other general taxes, and the proceeds, when collected, shall be placed in such water district funds as the commissioners may direct and paid out on warrants issued for water district purposes.

Sec. 74. Section 2, chapter 129, Laws of 1893 as last amended by section 34, chapter 271, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 58.08.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person filing a plat subsequent to May 31st in any year and prior to the date of the collection of taxes, shall deposit with the county treasurer a sum equal to the product of the county assessor's latest valuation on the unimproved property in such subdivision multiplied by the current year's ((~~millage~~) dollar) rate increased by twenty-five percent on the property platted. The treasurer's receipt for said amount shall be taken by the auditor as evidence of the payment of the tax. The treasurer shall appropriate so much of said deposit as will pay the taxes on the said property when the tax rolls are placed in his hands for collection, and in case the sum deposited is in excess of the amount necessary for the payment of the said taxes, the treasurer shall return, to the party depositing, the amount of said excess, taking his receipt therefor, which receipt shall be accepted for its face value on the treasurer's quarterly settlement with the county auditor.

Sec. 75. Section 82, chapter 250, Laws of 1907 and RCW 65.12.660 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the original registration of land under this chapter, and also upon the entry of the certificate showing title as registered owners in heirs or devisees, there shall be paid to the registrar of titles, ((~~one-tenth~~) one-fortieth) of one percent of the assessed value of the real estate on the basis of the last assessment for general taxation, as an assurance fund.

Sec. 76. Section 95, chapter 250, Laws of 1907 as amended by section 2, chapter 121, Laws of 1973 and RCW 65.12.790 are each amended to read as follows:

The fees to be paid to the registrar of titles shall be as follows:

(1) At or before the time of filing of the certified copy of the application with the registrar, the applicant shall pay, to the registrar, on all land having an assessed value, exclusive of improvements, of one thousand dollars or less, ((~~one dollar, and twenty-five~~) thirty-one and one-quarter) cents on each one thousand dollars, or major fraction thereof, of the assessed value of said land, additional.

(2) For granting certificates of title, upon each applicant, and registering the same, two dollars.

(3) For registering each transfer, including the filing of all instruments connected therewith, and the issuance and registration of the instruments connected therewith, and the issuance and registration of the new certificate of title, ten dollars.

(4) When the land transferred is held upon any trust, condition, or limitation, an additional fee of three dollars.

(5) For entry of each memorial on the register, including the filing of all instruments and papers connected therewith, and endorsements upon duplicate certificates, three dollars.

(6) For issuing each additional owner's duplicate certificate, mortgagee's duplicate certificate, or lessee's duplicate certificate, three dollars.

(7) For filing copy of will, with letters testamentary, or filing copy of letters of administration, and entering memorial thereof, two dollars and fifty cents.

(8) For the cancellation of each memorial, or charge, one dollar.

(9) For each certificate showing the condition of the register, one dollar.

(10) For any certified copy of any instrument or writing on file in his office, the same fees now allowed by law to county clerks and county auditors for like service.

(11) For any other service required, or necessary to carry out this chapter, and not hereinbefore itemized, such fee or fees as the court shall determine and establish.

(12) For registration of each mortgage and issuance of duplicate of title a fee of five dollars; for each deed of trust and issuance of duplicate of title a fee of eight dollars.

Sec. 77. Section 23, chapter 6, Laws of 1947 and RCW 68.16.230 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of cemetery commissioners shall have no authority to contract indebtedness in any year in excess of the aggregate amount of the currently levied taxes, which annual tax levy for cemetery district purposes shall not exceed (~~one-half mill on the dollar~~) eleven and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

Sec. 78. Section 1, chapter 191, Laws of 1939 as last amended by section 6, chapter 47, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 70.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Each board of county commissioners shall annually budget and levy as a tax for public health work in its county a sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of ~~((one-tenth of a mill))~~ five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against ~~((the actual value of))~~ the taxable property in the county, but nothing herein contained shall prohibit a county from obtaining said public health funds from any other source of county revenue or from budgeting additional sums for public health work.

Sec. 79. Section 1, chapter 162, Laws of 1943 as last amended by section 21, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Tuberculosis is a communicable disease and tuberculosis control, case finding, prevention and follow up of known cases of tuberculosis represents the basic step in the conquest of this major health problem. In order to carry on such work effectively, the legislative authority of each county enumerated in RCW 70.33.040 shall budget and shall levy annually a tax in a sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of ~~((one-sixteenth of a mill))~~ six and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against the ~~((actual value of the))~~ taxable property in any county enumerated in RCW 70.33.040, to be used for the control of tuberculosis, including case finding, prevention and follow up of known cases of tuberculosis: PROVIDED, That upon certification of the secretary that any such county has an unexpended balance from such levy, ever and above the amount required for adequate tuberculosis control, including case finding, prevention and follow up of known cases of tuberculosis within such county, the legislative authority may budget and reappropriate the same for such tuberculosis control for the ensuing year, or it may allocate from time to time such unexpended balance, or any portion thereof, to the county health department for use in furtherance of other communicable disease prevention or control, or as provided in RCW 70.32.090 as now or hereafter amended. The sum herein provided for, and any income that may accrue from miscellaneous receipts in connection with the tuberculosis control program of such county, shall be placed in the county treasury in a special fund to be known as the tuberculosis fund, and obligations incurred for the tuberculosis control program shall be paid from said fund by the county treasurer in the same manner as general county obligations are paid. The county auditor shall furnish to the legislative authority and the department a monthly report of receipts and disbursements in the tuberculosis fund, which report shall also show balances of cash on hand.

Sec. 80. Section 3, chapter 117, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 24, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

In any county enumerated in RCW 70.33.040 where the secretary has certified that the proceeds of the ~~((one-sixteenth mill))~~ six and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax levy is more than adequate to provide for tuberculosis control, including case finding, prevention, and follow-up of known cases of tuberculosis in the county, the legislative authority, after a special public hearing conducted in accordance with the procedures established for hearings on budgetary matters as delineated in RCW 36.40.060 and 36.40.070 and upon making a finding that an adequate general public health program is being carried out in the county, may budget and reappropriate such surplus funds from the (~~one-sixteenth mill~~) six and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax levy for the ensuing year to the county treasury for general purposes of the county, as authorized by law, or the legislative authority in its discretion may budget, reappropriate and transfer such surplus fund to any public hospital district within the county.

Sec. 81. Section 18, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.33.040 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to maintain adequate tuberculosis hospital facilities for the residents of the state of Washington and to assure their proper care pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70.32.010, 70.32.050, 70.32.060 and 70.32.090, the legislative authority of Clallam, Jefferson, Kitsap, Mason, Grays Harbor, Thurston, Pacific, Lewis, Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clark, Skamania, Klickitat, Pierce, King, Snohomish, Skagit, Whatcom, San Juan and Island counties shall, levy annually a tax in the sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of (~~one-sixteenth mill~~) six and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against (~~the actual value of~~) the taxable property in the county. Upon collection such sum shall be paid to the state to be used for the cost of maintaining and operating tuberculosis hospital facilities operated pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70.32.010, 70.32.050, 70.32.060 and 70.32.090. All other sources of revenue in tuberculosis hospital facilities operated pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70.32.010, 70.32.050, 70.32.060 and 70.32.090 shall be collected by such tuberculosis hospital facilities.

There is hereby appropriated to the department such revenue as is collected resulting from the (~~one-sixteenth mill~~) six and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed value levy provided for herein, and the collections made by the tuberculosis hospital facilities. Such appropriations to the department shall be used for the cost of maintaining and operating tuberculosis hospital facilities pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70.32.010, 70.32.050, 70.32.060 and 70.32.090: PROVIDED, That in the event that the revenues collected under this section exceed the cost of hospitalization, surplus revenues will be returned to the counties in proportion to the property taxes collected from those counties.

Sec. 82. Section 11, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 143, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.35.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Tuberculosis is a communicable disease and tuberculosis control, including hospitalization, case finding, prevention and follow-up of known cases of tuberculosis represent the basic step in the conquest of this major health problem. In order to carry on work effectively in these fields there shall be levied for tuberculosis hospital district purposes in the district annually a tax in a sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of (~~one-eighth of a mill~~) twelve and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against (~~the actual value of~~) the taxable property in the district, or the equivalent thereof, such levy to be made by the board of county commissioners in each county constituting the district, fifty percent of the receipts therefrom to be forwarded quarterly in January, April, July and October of each year by the treasurers of such county, other than the headquarters county where tuberculosis control activities will be carried out by the hospital, to the treasurer of the headquarters district county, who shall be treasurer for the district. The retained fifty percent of the funds are to be used by the chief health officers to carry out tuberculosis control on a local county level pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the district commission. The sum herein provided for, and any income that may occur from miscellaneous receipts in connection with the aforesaid programs shall be placed in a special fund in the treasury of the headquarters county and obligations incurred for such programs shall be paid from such fund upon order of the district commissioners by the treasurer in the same manner as general county obligations are paid.

Sec. 83. Section 6, chapter 264, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 2, chapter 218, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:

All public hospital districts organized under the provisions of this chapter shall have power:

(1) To make a survey of existing hospital facilities within and without such district.

(2) To construct, condemn and purchase, purchase, acquire, lease, add to, maintain, operate, develop and regulate, sell and convey all lands, property, property rights, equipment, hospital facilities and systems for the maintenance of hospitals, buildings, structures and any and all other facilities, and to exercise the right of eminent domain to effectuate the foregoing purposes or for the acquisition and damaging of the same or property of any kind appurtenant thereto, and such right of eminent domain shall be exercised and instituted pursuant to a resolution of the commission and conducted in the same manner and by the same procedure as in or may be provided by law for the exercise of the power of eminent domain by incorporated cities and towns of the state of Washington in the acquisition of property rights: PROVIDED, That no public hospital district shall have the right of eminent domain and the power of condemnation against any hospital clinic or sanatorium operated as a charitable, nonprofit establishment or against a hospital clinic or sanatorium operated by a religious group or organization: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no hospital district organized and existing in districts having more than twenty-five thousand population have any of the rights herein enumerated without the prior written consent of all existing hospital facilities within the boundaries of such hospital district.

(3) To lease existing hospital and equipment and/or other property used in connection therewith, and to pay such rental therefor as the commissioners shall deem proper; to provide hospital service for residents of said district in hospitals located outside the boundaries of said district, by contract or in any other manner said commissioners may deem expedient or necessary under the existing conditions; and said hospital district shall have the power to contract with other communities, corporations or individuals for the services provided by said hospital district; and they may further receive in said hospital and furnish proper and adequate services to all persons not residents of said district at such reasonable and fair compensation as may be considered proper: PROVIDED, That it must at all times make adequate provision for the needs of the district and residents of said district shall have prior rights to the available facilities of said hospitals, at rates set by the district commissioners.

(4) For the purpose aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any district so organized to take, condemn and purchase, lease, or acquire, any and all property, and property rights, including state and county lands, for any of the purposes aforesaid, and any and all other facilities necessary or convenient, and in connection with the construction, maintenance, and operation of any such hospital.

(5) To contract indebtedness or borrow money for corporate purposes on the credit of the corporation or the revenues of the hospitals thereof, and to issue (a) revenue bonds therefor payable solely out of a special fund or funds into which the district may pledge such amount of the revenues of the hospitals thereof to pay the same as the commissioners of the district may determine, such revenue bonds, to be issued in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as provided for the issuance of revenue bonds by cities or towns under the Municipal Revenue Bond Act, chapter 35.41

RCW, as may hereafter be amended or (b) general obligation bonds therefor in the manner and form as provided in RCW 70.44.110 to 70.44.130, inclusive, as may hereafter be amended; and to assign or sell hospital accounts receivable for collection with or without recourse.

(6) To raise revenue by the levy of an annual tax on all taxable property within such public hospital district not to exceed ((three mills)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value or such further amount as has been or shall be authorized by a vote of the people: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the public hospital districts are hereby authorized to levy such a general tax in excess of said ((three mills)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value when authorized so to do at a special election conducted in accordance with and subject to all of the requirements of the Constitution and the laws of the state of Washington now in force or hereafter enacted governing the limitation of tax levies ((commonly known as the forty mill tax limitation)). The said board of district commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to call a special election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the hospital district a proposition to levy a tax in excess of the ((three mills)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value herein specifically authorized. The commissioner shall prepare a proposed budget of the contemplated financial transactions for the ensuing year and file the same in the records of the commission on or before the first Monday in September. Notice of the filing of said proposed budget and the date and place of hearing on the same shall be published for at least two consecutive weeks in a newspaper printed and of general circulation in said county. On the first Monday in October the commission shall hold a public hearing on said proposed budget at which any taxpayer may appear and be heard against the whole or any part of the proposed budget. Upon the conclusion of said hearing, the commission shall, by resolution, adopt the budget as finally determined and fix the final amount of expenditures for the ensuing year. Taxes levied by the commission shall be certified to and collected by the proper county officer of the county in which such public hospital district is located in the same manner as is or may be provided by law for the certification and collection of port district taxes. The commission is authorized, prior to the receipt of taxes raised by levy, to borrow money or issue warrants of the district in anticipation of the revenue to be derived by such district from the levy of taxes for the purpose of such district, and such warrants shall be redeemed from the first money available from such taxes when collected, and such warrants shall not exceed the anticipated revenues of one year, and shall bear interest at a rate or rates as authorized by the commission.

(7) To enter into any contract with the United States government or any state, municipality or other hospital district, or any department of those governing bodies, for carrying out any of the powers authorized by this chapter.

(8) To sue and be sued in any court of competent jurisdiction: PROVIDED, That all suits against the public hospital district shall be brought in the county in which the public hospital district is located.

(9) To make contracts, employ superintendents, attorneys, and other technical or professional assistants and all other employees; to make contracts with private or public institutions for employee retirement programs; to print and publish information or literature and to do all other things necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 84. Section 15, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 7, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.091 are each amended to read as follows:

An activated authority shall have the power to levy additional taxes in excess of the ~~((forty-thi))~~ constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for any of the authorized purposes of such activated authority, not in excess of ~~((one mil))~~ twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value a year when authorized so to do by the electors of such authority by a three-fifths majority of those voting on the proposition at a special election, to be held in the year in which the levy is made, ~~((and not more often than twice in such year; in the manner provided by law for holding general elections; at such time as may be fixed by the board; which special election may be called by the board; at which special election the proposition of authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "Yes" and those opposing thereto to vote "No":~~ PROVIDED: That the total number of persons voting at such special election must constitute not less than forty percent of the voters in said authority who voted in the last preceding general election)) in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 39 and as thereafter amended. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent holding the foregoing special election at the same time as that fixed for a general election. The expense of all special elections held pursuant to this section shall be paid by the authority.

Sec. 85. Section 16, chapter 110, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 84, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 71.20.110 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to provide additional funds for the coordination of community mental retardation services and to provide community mental retardation or mental health services, the board of county commissioners of each county in the state shall budget and levy annually a tax in a sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of ~~((one-fortieth of a mill))~~ two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against ~~((the actual value of))~~ the taxable property in the county to be used for such purposes: PROVIDED, That all or part of the funds collected from the tax levied for the purposes of this section may be transferred to the state of Washington, department of social and health services, for the purpose of obtaining federal matching funds to provide and coordinate community mental retardation and mental health services. In the event a county elects to transfer such tax funds to the state for this purpose, the state shall grant these moneys and the additional funds received as matching funds to service-providing community agencies in the county which has made such transfer, pursuant to the plan approved by the county, as provided by chapters 71.16, 71.20, 71.24, and 71.28 RCW.

Sec. 86. Section 7, page 210, Laws of 1888 as last amended by section 9, chapter 47, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 73.08.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of county commissioners of the several counties in this state shall levy, in addition to the taxes now levied by law, a tax in a sum equal to the amount which would be raised by not less than ~~((one-eightieth of one mill))~~ one and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed value, and not greater than ~~((three-tenths of a mill))~~ thirty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against ~~((the actual value of))~~ the taxable property of their respective counties, to be levied and collected as now prescribed by law for the assessment and collection of taxes, for the purpose of creating the veteran's relief fund for the relief of honorably discharged veterans who served in the armed forces of the United States in the Civil War, in the war of Mexico or in any of the Indian wars, or the Spanish-American war or the Philippine insurrection, in the First World War, or Second World War or Korean conflict, or Viet Nam conflict, and the indigent wives, husbands, widows, widowers and minor children of such indigent or deceased veterans, to be disbursed for such relief by such board of county commissioners: PROVIDED, That if the funds on deposit, less outstanding warrants, residing in the veteran's relief fund on the first Tuesday in September exceed the expected yield of ~~((one-eightieth of one mill))~~ one and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed value ~~((on the actual value of))~~ against the taxable property of the county, the county commissioners may levy a lesser amount: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the costs incurred in the administration of said veteran's relief fund shall be computed by the county treasurer not less than annually and such amount may then be transferred from the veteran's relief fund as herein provided for to the county current expense fund.

Sec. 87. Section 2, chapter 105, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 14, chapter 207, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 76.04.360 are each amended to read as follows:

If any owner of forest land neglects or fails to provide adequate fire protection therefor as required by RCW 76.04.350, the department shall provide such protection therefor, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 76.04.520, at a cost to the owner of not to exceed ((nine)) eighteen cents an acre per year on lands west of the summit of the Cascade mountains and ((seven)) fourteen cents an acre per year on lands east of the summit of the Cascade mountains((: PROVIDED; That for the calendar years 1971 and 1972 the cost to the owner for such protection shall be eighteen cents an acre per year on lands west of the summit of the Cascade mountains and fourteen cents an acre per year on lands east of the summit of the Cascade mountains after which time said additional assessment shall revert to the 1970 level; During said calendar years the legislative budget committee shall study the costs of forest fire protection to determine the ratio of financial support to be borne by the state to that of the forest land owner;

The findings of the legislative budget committee shall be considered when establishing the forest patrol assessment for the ensuing biennium)).

For the purpose of *this act, the supervisor may divide the forest lands of the state, or any part thereof, into districts, for patrol and assessment purposes, may classify lands according to the character of timber prevailing, and the fire hazard existing, and place unprotected lands under the administration of the proper district. Such cost must be justified by a showing of budgets on demand of twenty-five owners of forest land in the county concerned at public hearing. Any amounts paid or contracted to be paid by the supervisor of natural resources for this purpose from any funds at his disposal shall be a lien upon the property patrolled and protected, and unless reimbursed by the owner within ten days after October 1st of the year in which they were incurred, on which date the supervisor of natural resources shall be prepared to make statement thereof upon request to any forest owner whose own protection has not been previously approved by him as adequate, shall be reported by the supervisor of natural resources to the assessor of the county in which the property is situated who shall extend the amounts upon the tax rolls covering the property, or the county assessor may upon authorization from the supervisor of natural resources levy the forest patrol assessment against the amounts of unimproved land as shown in each ownership on the county assessor's records and the assessor may then segregate on his records to provide that the improved land and improvements thereon carry the ((millage)) dollar rate levy designed to support the rural fire protection districts as provided for in chapter 52.04 RCW.

The amounts assessed shall be collected at the time, in the same manner, by the same procedure, and with the same penalties attached that the next general state and county taxes on the same property are collected, except that errors in assessments may be corrected at any time by the supervisor of natural resources certifying them to the treasurer of the county in which the land involved is situated. Upon the collection of such assessments the county treasurer shall transmit them to the supervisor of natural resources to be applied against expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section.

The supervisor of natural resources shall include in the assessment a sum not to exceed one-half of one cent per acre, to cover the necessary and reasonable cost of office and clerical work incurred in the enforcement of these provisions. He may also expend any sums collected from owners of forest lands or received from any other source for necessary office and clerical expense in connection with the enforcement of RCW 76.04.370.

When land against which fire patrol assessments are outstanding is acquired for delinquent taxes and sold at public auction, the state shall have a prior lien on the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to satisfy the county's delinquent tax judgment, and the county treasurer in case the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the delinquent tax judgment shall forthwith remit to the supervisor of natural resources the amount of the outstanding patrol assessments.

The supervisor of natural resources shall furnish a good and sufficient surety company bond running to the state, in a sum as great as the probable amount of money annually coming into his hands under the provisions of this chapter, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and for a faithful accounting for all sums received and expended thereunder, which bond shall be approved by the attorney general.

Sec. 88. Section 13, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "regular property taxes" and the term "regular property tax levy" shall mean a property tax levy by or for a taxing district which levy is subject to the aggregate limitation set forth in section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, or which is imposed by or for a port district or a public utility district.

Sec. 89. Section 84.28.090, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 33, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.28.090 are each amended to read as follows:

All lands classified as reforestation lands as provided in this chapter and lying west of the summit of the Cascade range of mountains in the state of Washington shall, after the date of such classification, be assessed for purposes of taxation at ~~((eight))~~ sixteen dollars per acre, which is hereby declared to be the assessed value thereof; and all lands so classified lying east of the summit of the Cascade range of mountains shall be assessed for purposes of taxation at ~~((four))~~ eight dollars per acre, which is hereby declared to be the assessed value thereof. The above values shall apply as the actual basis for taxation of such lands, without regard to any percentages of value which may apply for taxation of other classes of property; and the taxation of such lands on the basis herein provided shall be separate and distinct from and in addition to the cost of protecting such lands from fire as provided under the laws of Washington.

Sec. 90. Section 5, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In preparing the assessment roll as of January 1, 1971 for taxes payable in 1972, the assessor of each timber county shall list all timber within such county on January 1, 1971 at the 1970 timber value. For each year commencing with 1972, the assessor of each timber county shall prepare a timber roll, which shall be separate and apart from the assessment roll, listing all timber within such county on January 1, 1972 at values determined as follows:

(a) For the five years commencing with 1972, the value shall be the 1970 timber value;

(b) For each succeeding five year period, the first of which commences on January 1, 1977, the value shall be such 1970 timber value increased or decreased in proportion to the percentage change, if any, which has occurred between the last year of the preceding five year period and 1973 in the average stumpage value per unit of measure of all timber harvested in such county. Such percentage change shall be determined by the department of revenue on the basis of information contained in the excise tax returns filed pursuant to RCW 82.04.291.

(2) As used in subsection (1) of this section, "1970 timber value" means the value for timber calculated in the same manner and using the same values and valuation factors actually used by such assessor in determining the value of timber for the January 1, 1970 assessment roll, except that if a revised schedule of such values and valuation factors was applied to some but not all timber in a county for the January 1, 1970 assessment roll, such revised schedule shall be used by the assessor for any timber revalued for the 1971 or 1972 assessment rolls, and except that if the value of timber in any county on January 1, 1970 was not separately determined and shown on such assessment roll, 1970 timber value shall mean the value reconstructed from available records and information in accordance with rules to be prescribed by the department of revenue.

(3) The assessor of each timber county shall add to the assessment roll showing values of property as of January 1 of the years listed below, an "assessed valuation" of the portion, indicated below opposite each such year, of the value of timber as shown on the timber roll for such year. Such assessed valuation shall be calculated by multiplying such portion of the timber roll by the assessment ratio applied generally by such assessor in computing the assessed valuation of other property in his county. The ((millage)) dollar rates, calculated pursuant to RCW 84.33.060 for each taxing district within which there was timber on January 1 of such year, shall be extended against such "assessed valuation" of timber within such district as well as against the assessed value of all other property within such district as shown on such assessment roll.

Year	Portion of Timber Roll
1972	75%
1973	45%
1974 and thereafter	None

(4) Timber may be added to the timber roll, at the value specified in subsection (1) of this section, commencing as of January 1 following the designation of the land upon which such timber stands pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.120 or 84.33.130, but only if the value of such timber was not separately determined and shown on the assessment roll as of either January 1, 1970 or January 1, 1972;

(5) Timber may be added to the timber roll, at the value specified in subsection (1) of this section, commencing as of January 1st following the sale or transfer of the land upon which such timber stands from an ownership in which such land was exempt from ad valorem taxation to an ownership in which such land is no longer exempt.

(6) The value of timber shall be deleted from the timber roll upon the sale or transfer of the land upon which such timber stands to an ownership in which such land is exempt from ad valorem taxation.

Sec. 91. Section 6, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In each year commencing with 1972 and ending with 1980, solely for the purpose of determining, calculating and fixing, pursuant to chapter 84.52 RCW, the ((millage)) dollar rates for all regular and excess levies for the state and each timber county and taxing district lying wholly or partially in such county within which there was timber on January 1 of such year, the assessor of such timber county shall, for each such district, add to the amount of the "assessed valuation of the property" of all property other than timber the product of:

(a) The portion indicated below for each year of the value of timber therein as shown on the timber roll prepared in accordance with RCW 84.33.050 for such year; and

(b) The assessment ratio applied generally by such assessor in computing the assessed value of other property in his county:

Year	Portion of Timber Roll
1972 through 1977	100%
1978	75%
1979	50%
1980	25%
1981 and thereafter	None

Sec. 92. Section 8, chapter 294, chapter 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On or before December 15 of each year commencing with 1972 and ending with 1980, the assessor of each timber county shall deliver to the treasurer of such county and to the department of revenue a schedule setting forth for each taxing district or portion thereof lying within such county:

(a) The value of timber as shown on the timber roll for such year;

(b) The aggregate ((millage)) dollar rate calculated pursuant to RCW 84.33.060 and actually utilized the immediately preceding October in extending property taxes upon the tax rolls for collection in the following year;

(c) A "timber factor" which is the product of such aggregate ((millage)) dollar rate, the assessment ratio applied generally by such assessor in computing the assessed value of other property in his county and the appropriate portion listed below of the timber roll for such year ((a) above):

Year	Portion of Timber Roll
1972	25%
1973	55%
1974 through 1977	100%
1978	75%
1979	50%
1980	25%

On or before December 31 of each year commencing with 1972 and ending with 1980, the department of revenue shall determine the proportion that each taxing district's timber factor bears to the sum of the timber factors for all taxing districts in the state, and shall deliver a list to the assessor and the treasurer of each timber county and to the state treasurer showing the factor and proportion for each taxing district.

(2) On the tenth day of the second month of each calendar quarter, commencing February 10, 1973 and ending November 10, 1981, the state treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of each timber county for the account of each taxing district such district's proportion (determined in December of the preceding year pursuant to subsection (1) of this section) of the amount in state timber tax fund A collected upon timber harvested in the preceding calendar quarter, but in no event shall any quarterly payment to a taxing district, when added to the payments made to such district the previous quarters of the same year, exceed the timber factor for such district determined in December of the preceding year. The balance in state timber tax fund A, if any, after the distribution to taxing districts on November 10 each year commencing with 1973 and ending with 1981, shall be transferred to the state timber reserve fund.

(3) If the balance in state timber tax fund A immediately prior to such November 10 distribution to taxing districts is not sufficient to permit a payment which, when added to the payments made to any taxing district the previous quarters of the same year, will equal the timber factor for such district determined in December of the preceding year, the necessary additional amount shall be transferred from the state timber reserve fund to state timber tax fund A.

(4) The balance, if any, in the state timber reserve fund after the final transfer, if any, to or from state timber tax fund A in November of 1981, shall be transferred to state timber tax fund B on December 31, 1981, and one-fourth of such balance shall be distributed in each quarter of 1982 in the manner set forth in subsection (6) of this section.

(5) On or before December 31 of each year commencing with 1978, the department of revenue shall deliver to the treasurer of each timber county a schedule setting forth for each taxing district or portion thereof lying within such county:

(a) The average of the aggregate value of all timber harvested within such district in each of the immediately preceding five years as determined from the excise tax returns filed with the department of revenue;

(b) The aggregate ((millage)) dollar rate calculated pursuant to RCW 84.33.060 and chapter 84.52 RCW and actually utilized the immediately preceding October in extending property taxes upon the tax rolls for collection the following year;

(c) A "harvest factor" which is the product of such five year average and such aggregate ((millage)) dollar rate;

(d) The proportion that each taxing district's harvest factor bears to the sum of the harvest factors for all taxing districts in the state.

(6) On the tenth day of the second month of each calendar quarter commencing February 10, 1979, the state treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of each timber county for the account of each taxing district such district's proportion (determined in December of the preceding year pursuant to subsection (5) of this section) of the amount in state timber tax fund B collected upon timber harvested in the preceding calendar quarter.

Sec. 93. Section 14, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When land has been designated as forest land pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.120 or 84.33.130, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls, a copy of the notice of approval together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for such land shall, at the expense of the applicant, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and such land shall be graded and valued pursuant to RCW 84.33.110 and 84.33.120 until removal of such designation by the assessor upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove such designation;

(b) Passage of sixty days following the sale or transfer of such land to a new owner without receipt of an application pursuant to RCW 84.33.130 from the new owner;

(c) Sale or transfer to an ownership making such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber.

Removal of designation upon occurrence of any of subsections (a) through (c) above shall apply only to the land affected, and upon occurrence of subsection (d) shall apply only to the actual area of land no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber, without regard to other land that may have been included in the same application and approval for designation.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of designation of forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal a copy of the notice of removal with notation of the action, if any, upon appeal, together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for the land removed from designation shall, at the expense of the applicant, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and commencing on January 1 of the year following the year in which the assessor mailed such notice, such land shall be assessed on the same basis as real property is assessed generally in that county. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, a compensating tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer on or before April 30 of the following year. On or before May 31 following such assessment date, the assessor shall compute the amount of such compensating tax and mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such compensating tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land multiplied by the ((~~millage~~)) dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by

(b) A number, in no event greater than ten, equal to the number of years for which such land was designated as forest land.

(4) Any compensating tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent and together with applicable interest thereon, shall as of said date become a lien on such land which shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(5) The compensating tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other forest land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land.

Sec. 94. Section 4, chapter 243, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.230 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of acquiring conservation futures as well as other rights and interests in real property pursuant to RCW 84.34.210 and 84.34.220, a county may levy an amount not to exceed ~~((one-eighth of one mill on))~~ six and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation against the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the county, which levy shall be in addition to that authorized by RCW 84.52.050 and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 95. Section 1, chapter 117, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in RCW 84.36.280, whenever the owner of any real property dedicates the perpetual right to use the air space over his property to any county, city or other political subdivision of this state for the construction, operation and maintenance of stadium facilities, or for any parking facilities to be used in connection therewith, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 67.28 RCW, such property shall be exempt from general property taxation to such extent and as to such ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate as shall be determined by the county, city or other political subdivision, and subject to being used by a public body for a public purpose and only so long as the owner allows the use by the public body of the dedicated air rights free of rents or other charges.

Sec. 96. Section 84.40.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 125, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All property shall be ~~((assessed fifty))~~ valued at one hundred percent of its true and fair value in money and assessed on the same basis unless specifically provided otherwise by law.

Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued at such price as they would bring at a fair, voluntary sale for cash without any deductions for any indebtedness owed including rentals to be paid. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section or of any other statute, when the value of any taxable leasehold estate created prior to January 1, 1971 is being determined for assessment years prior to the assessment year 1973, there shall be deducted from what would otherwise be the value thereof the present worth of the rentals and other consideration which may be required of the lessee by the lessor for the unexpired term thereof: PROVIDED, That the foregoing provisions of this sentence shall not apply to any extension or renewal, made after December 31, 1970 of the term of any such estate, or to any such estate after the date, if any, provided for in the agreement for rental renegotiation.

The true and fair value of real property for taxation purposes (including property upon which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry) shall be based upon the following criteria:

(1) (a) Any sales of the property being appraised or similar property with respect to sales made within the past five years ((less a percentage equal to the average; ordinary and usual direct costs of sale of that type of property; including but not limited to costs of title insurance; legal services; recording fees and taxes levied against such sales that are borne by the seller; and an amount equal to the customary fees payable to a licensed real estate broker for handling such a sale; such percentage to be determined by studies conducted by the department of revenue)). The appraisal shall take into consideration political restrictions such as zoning as well as physical and environmental influences. The appraisal shall also take into account, (i) in the use of sales by real estate contract as similar sales, the extent, if any, to which the stated selling price has been increased by reason of the down payment, interest rate, or other financing terms; and (ii) the extent to which the sale of a similar property actually represents the general effective market demand for property of such type, in the geographical area in which such property is located. Sales involving deed releases or similar seller-developer financing arrangements shall not be used as sales of similar property.

(b) In addition to sales as defined in subsection (1) (a), consideration may be given to cost, cost less depreciation, reconstruction cost less depreciation, or capitalization of income that would be derived from prudent use of the property. In the case of property of a complex nature, or being used under terms of a franchise from a public agency, or operating as a public utility, or property not having a record of sale within five years and not having a significant number of sales of similar property in the general area, the provisions of this subsection (1) (b) shall be the dominant factors in valuation. When provisions of this subsection (1) (b) are relied upon for establishing values the property owner shall be advised upon request of the factors used in arriving at such value.

(c) In valuing any tract or parcel of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures thereon shall be determined; also the value of structures thereon, but the valuation shall not exceed the value of the total property as it exists. In valuing agricultural land, growing crops shall be excluded.

PROVIDED, That the provisions of this subsection (1) shall be applicable to all values for use in computing property taxes for the assessment year 1972 for taxes payable in 1973 and subsequent years.

Sec. 97. Section 84.40.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 36, chapter 149, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The assessor shall begin the preliminary work for each assessment not later than the first day of December of each year in all counties in the state. He shall also complete the duties of listing and placing valuations on all property by May 31st of each year, and in the following manner, to wit:

He shall actually determine as nearly as practicable the true and fair value of each tract or lot of land listed for taxation and of each improvement located thereon and shall enter ~~((fifty))~~ one hundred percent of the value of such land and of the total value of such improvements, together with the total of such ~~((fifty))~~ one hundred percent valuations, opposite each description of property on his assessment list and tax roll.

He shall make an alphabetical list of the names of all persons in his county liable to assessment of personal property, and require each person to make a correct list and statement of such property according to the standard form prescribed by the department of revenue, which statement and list shall include, if required by the form, the year of acquisition and total original cost of personal property in each category of the prescribed form, and shall be signed and verified under penalty of perjury by the person listing the property. Such list and statement shall be filed on or before the last day of March, but the assessor, upon written request filed on or before such date and for good cause shown therein, shall allow a reasonable extension of time for filing. The assessor shall on or before the 1st day of January of each year mail a notice to all such persons at their last known address that such statement and list is required, such notice to be accompanied by the form on which the statement or list is to be made: PROVIDED, That ~~((for the years 1968 and 1969 a second notice shall be mailed on or before the 15th day of March: PROVIDED FURTHER, That))~~ the notice mailed by the assessor to each taxpayer each year shall, if practicable, include the statement and list of personal property of the taxpayer for the preceding year. Upon receipt of such statement and list the assessor shall thereupon determine the true and fair value of the property included in such statement and enter ~~((fifty))~~ one hundred percent of the same in the assessment books opposite the name of the party assessed; and in making such entry in his assessment list, he shall give the name and post office address of the party listing the property, and if the party resides in a city the assessor shall give the street and number or other brief description of his residence or place of business. The assessor may, after giving written notice of his action to the person to be assessed, add to the assessment list any taxable property which, in his judgment, should be included in such list.

The assessor shall add up and note the amount of each column in his detail and assessment lists, which he shall have bound in book form in such manner, to be prescribed or approved by the state tax commission, as will provide a convenient and permanent record of assessment. He shall also make, under proper headings, a tabular statement showing the footings of the several columns upon each page, and shall add and set down under the respective headings the total amounts of each column, which he shall attach to the highest numbered assessment book, and on the first Monday of July he shall file the same, properly indexed, with the clerk of the county board of equalization for the purpose of equalization by the said board. Such returns shall be verified by his affidavit, substantially in the following form:

State of Washington,.....County, ss.

I,....., Assessor....., do solemnly swear that the books No. 1 to No., to the last of which this is attached, contain a correct and full list of all the real property (or personal property, as the case may be) subject to taxation in county, so far as I have been able to ascertain the same; and that the assessed value set down in the proper column, opposite the several kinds and descriptions of property, is in each case ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of such property, to the best of my knowledge and belief, and that the footings of the several columns in said books, and the tabular statement returned herewith, are correct, as I verily believe.

....., Assessor.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this..... day of , 19..... .

(L. S.) , Auditor of..... county.

PROVIDED, That the failure of the assessor to attach his certificate shall in nowise invalidate the assessment. After the same has been duly equalized by the county and state board of equalization, the same shall be delivered to the county assessor, who shall then extend the amount as levied by the state and county boards upon the said detail and assessment lists as by law provided.

Sec. 99. Section 84.48.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 9, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.48.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Annually during the month of August, the department of revenue shall examine and compare the returns of the assessment of the property in the several counties of the state, and the assessment of the property of railroad and other companies assessed by the department, and proceed to equalize the same, so that each county in the state shall pay its due and just proportion of the taxes for state purposes for such assessment year, according to the ratio the valuation of the property in each county bears to the total valuation of all property in the state.

First. The department shall classify all property, real and personal, and shall raise and lower the valuation of any class of property in any county to a value that shall be equal, so far as possible, to the true and fair value of such class as of January 1st of the current year for the purpose of ascertaining the just amount of tax due from each county for state purposes. Such classification may be on the basis of types of property, geographical areas, or both.

Second. The department shall keep a full record of its proceedings and the same shall be published annually by the department.

Third. The department shall have authority to adopt rules and regulations to enforce obedience to its orders in all matters in relation to the returns of county assessments, and the equalization of values by the department.

The department shall levy the state taxes authorized by law: PROVIDED, That the amount levied in any one year for general state purposes shall not exceed the lawful ((~~millage~~)) dollar rate on the dollar of the assessed value of the property of the entire state, which assessed value shall be ((~~fifty~~)) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of such property in money; and shall apportion the amount of tax for state purposes levied by the department, among the several counties, in proportion to the valuation of the taxable property of the county for the year as equalized by the department.

After the completion of the duties hereinabove prescribed, the director of the department shall certify the record of the proceedings of the department under this section, the tax levies made for state purposes and the apportionment thereof among the counties, to the state auditor.

Sec. 100. Section 8, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.48.085 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of equalization shall reconvene on the first Monday of August for the purpose of equalizing valuations of real property within the county. Such equalization shall be accomplished in the following manner:

(1) The department of revenue shall certify to the board the ratio of the assessed valuation of locally assessed property in the county to the true and fair value of such property, based upon assessed values established without regard to equalization accomplished pursuant to this section (hereinafter referred to as the "tentative county indicated ratio"). The department shall also certify the ratio of the assessed valuation of locally assessed property in those geographical areas in the county which have been revalued ((~~pursuant to a cyclical revaluation program approved by the~~ department of revenue) during the year ending May 31st prior to the convening of the board to the true and fair value of such property (hereinafter referred to as the "revaluation ratio"). If, pursuant to the ~~((cyclical))~~ revaluation program, land alone or improvements alone have been revalued for any assessment year, the revaluation ratio shall be for land alone, or improvements alone, as appropriate, or such combination thereof as is appropriate. The board shall review the revaluation ratio so certified, and may accept, reject, or modify the ratio.

(2) If the revaluation ratio, as determined by the board, exceeds one hundred and ~~((ten))~~ fifteen percent of the tentative county indicated ratio, the board shall order the assessor, in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.41.040, to reduce by a uniform percentage the true and fair values of land, improvements, or both as appropriate, within the geographical areas covered by the revaluation ratio by a uniform percentage such that the revaluation ratio shall equal the tentative county indicated ratio. The board shall also order the assessor to make appropriate similar adjustments to properties valued in the same year. For the purpose of administrative convenience, such reductions may be accomplished, in lieu of actual changes in the assessment rolls, by the assessor certifying to the treasurer the percentage adjustment for the geographical areas involved, on the basis of which the treasurer shall adjust the amount of taxes otherwise payable.

Sec. 101. Section 84.52.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 6, chapter 243, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All taxes shall be levied or voted in specific amounts, and the rate percent of all taxes for state and county purposes, and purposes of taxing districts coextensive with the county, shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the county, as shown by the completed tax rolls of the county, and the rate percent of all taxes levied for purposes of taxing districts within any county shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the taxing districts respectively: PROVIDED, That when any such county assessor shall find that the aggregate rate of levy on any property will exceed the limitation set forth in section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050 as now or hereafter amended, he shall recompute and establish a consolidated levy in the following manner:

(1) He shall include for extension on the tax rolls the full rates of levy certified to him for state, county, county road districts, city and school district purposes in amounts not exceeding the limitations established by law: PROVIDED, That in the event of a levy made pursuant to ((section 5 of this 1974 amendatory act)) RCW 84.34.230, the rates of levy for county, county road district, and school district purposes shall be reduced in such uniform percentages as will result in a consolidated levy by such taxing districts which will be no greater on any property than a consolidated levy by such taxing districts would be if the levy had not been made pursuant to ((section 5 of this 1974 amendatory act)) RCW 84.34.230, and

(2) He shall include for extension on the tax rolls the rates percent of the tax levies certified to him by all other taxing districts imposing taxes on such property, other than port districts and public utility districts, reduced by him in such uniform percentages as will bring the consolidated tax levy on such property within the provisions of such limitation.

Sec. 102. Section 84.52.052, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 3, Laws of 1973 and RCW 84.52.052 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes((; not in excess of five mills a year and without anticipation of delinquencies in payment of taxes; in an amount equal to the interest and principal payable in the next succeeding year on general obligation bonds; outstanding on December 6, 1934; issued by or through the agency of the state; or any county; city; town; or school district; or the levy of additional taxes to pay interest on or toward the reduction; at the rates provided by statute; of the principal of county; city; town; or school district warrants outstanding December 6, 1932; but this millage limitation with respect to general obligation bonds shall not apply to)) by any taxing district in which a larger levy is necessary in order to prevent the impairment of the obligation of contracts. Any county, school district, metropolitan park district, park and recreation district in class AA counties and counties of the second, eighth and ninth class, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town may levy taxes at a rate in excess of the rate specified in RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act, or RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.050, when authorized so to do by the electors of such county, school district, metropolitan park district, park and recreation district in class AA counties and counties of the second, eighth and ninth class, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended, at a special election to be held in the year in which the levy is made.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the board of county commissioners or other county legislative authority, board of school directors, or council, board of commissioners, or other governing body of any metropolitan park district, park and recreation district in class AA counties and counties of the second, eighth and ninth class, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess ((levies)) levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "yes" and those opposed thereto to vote "no".

The additional tax provided for in subparagraph (a) of the seventeenth amendment to the state Constitution as amended by Amendment 59 and specifically authorized by RCW 84.52.052 shall be set forth in terms of dollars on the ballot of the proposition to be submitted to the voters, together with an estimate of the ((millage)) dollar rate of tax levy that will be required to produce the dollar amount; and the county assessor, in spreading this tax upon the rolls, shall determine the eventual ((millage)) dollar rate required to produce the amount of dollars so voted upon, regardless of the estimate of ((millage)) dollar rate of tax levy carried in said proposition.

Sec. 104. Section 84.52.056, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.52.056 are each amended to read as follows:

Any municipal corporation otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes may, at an election duly held after giving notice thereof as required by law, authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, which shall not include the replacement of equipment, and provide for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds by annual levies in excess of the tax limitations contained in RCW 84.52.050 to 84.52.056, inclusive and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act. Such an election shall not be held oftener than twice a calendar year, and the proposition to issue any such bonds and to exceed said tax limitation must receive the affirmative vote of a three-fifths majority of those voting on the proposition and the total number of persons voting at such election must constitute not less than forty percent of the voters in said municipal corporation who voted at the last preceding general state election.

Any taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitations provided for in RCW 84.51.050 to 84.52.056, inclusive and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 105. Section 9, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.063 are each amended to read as follows:

A rural library district may impose (~~(; notwithstanding the millage limitations provided for in RCW 84.52.056 and 84.54.020;~~) a regular property tax levy in an amount equal to that which would be produced by a levy of (~~(two mills)~~) fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value multiplied by an assessed valuation equal to (~~(twenty-five)~~) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of the taxable property in the rural library district, as determined by the department of revenue's indicated county ratio; PROVIDED, That when any county assessor shall find that the aggregate rate of levy on any property will exceed the limitation set forth in section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, before recomputing and establishing a consolidated levy in the manner set forth in RCW 84.52.010, the assessor shall first reduce the levy of any rural library district, by such amount as may be necessary, but the levy of any rural library district shall not be reduced to less than fifty cents per thousand dollars against the value of the taxable property, as determined by the county, prior to any further adjustments pursuant to RCW 84.52.010. For purposes of this section "regular property tax levy" shall mean a levy subject to the (~~(forty mill)~~) limitations provided for in Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution and/or by statute.

Sec. 106. Section 1, chapter 33, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 25, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.065 are each amended to read as follows:

In each (~~(of the years 1967 and 1968 and 1969 and 1970 and 1971 and 1972)~~) year the state shall levy for collection in (~~(1968 and 1969 and 1970 and 1971 and 1972 and 1973 respectively)~~) the following year for the support of common schools of the state a tax of (~~(two mills)~~) three dollars and sixty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the state adjusted (~~(to fifty percent of true and fair value of such property in money)~~) to the state equalized value in accordance with the indicated ratio fixed by the state department of revenue. (~~(Such levy shall be in addition to the levy for public~~ assistance purposes as provided in RCW 74.04.450 and 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended.)

Sec. 107. Section 22, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For the first levy for a taxing district following annexation of additional property, the limitation set forth in RCW 84.55.010 shall be increased by an amount equal to (1) the aggregate assessed valuation of the newly annexed property as shown by the current completed and balanced tax rolls of the county or counties within which such property lies, multiplied by (2) the ((millage)) dollar rate that would have been used by the annexing unit in the absence of such annexation, plus (3) the additional dollar amount calculated by multiplying the increase in assessed value in the annexing district resulting from new constructions and improvements to property by the regular property tax levy rate of that annexing taxing district for the preceding year.

Sec. 108. Section 23, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.040 are each amended to read as follows:

If by reason of the operation of section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended the statutory ((millage)) dollar rate limitation applicable to the levy by a taxing district has been increased over the statutory millage limitation applicable to such taxing district's levy in the preceding year, the limitation on the dollar rate amount of a levy provided for in this chapter shall be increased by multiplying the otherwise dollar limitation by a fraction, the numerator of which is the increased ((millage)) dollar limitation and the denominator of which is the ((millage)) dollar limitation for the prior year.

Sec. 109. Section 24, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to any otherwise applicable statutory ((millage)) dollar rate limitations, regular property taxes may be levied by or for a taxing district in an amount exceeding the limitations provided for in RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.040 if such levy is authorized by a proposition approved by a majority of the voters of the taxing district voting on the proposition at a general election held within the district or at a special election within the taxing district called by the district for the purpose of submitting such proposition to the voters. Any election held pursuant to this section shall be held not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made. The ballot of the proposition shall state the ((millage)) dollar rate proposed. After a levy authorized pursuant to this section is made, the dollar amount of such levy shall be used for the purpose of computing the limitations for subsequent levies provided for in this chapter.

Sec. 110. Section 84.56.180, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 124, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 84.56.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any person, firm or corporation, shall, subsequent to the first day of January of any year, bring or send into any county from outside the state any stock of goods or merchandise to be sold or disposed of in a place of business temporarily occupied for their sale, without the intention of engaging in permanent trade in such place, the owner, consignee or person in charge of the said goods or merchandise shall immediately notify the county assessor, and thereupon the assessor shall at once proceed to value the said stock of goods and merchandise at its true value, and upon ~~((fifty))~~ one hundred percent of such valuation the said owner, consignee or person in charge shall pay to the collector of taxes a tax at the rate assessed for state, county and local purposes in the taxing district in the year then current. And it shall not be lawful to sell or dispose of any such goods or merchandise as aforesaid in such taxing district until the assessor shall have been so notified as aforesaid and the tax assessed thereon paid to the collector. Every person, firm or corporation bringing into any county of this state from outside the state any goods or merchandise after the first day of January shall be deemed subject to the provisions of this section.

This section shall not apply to goods or merchandise consigned to a person for sale at such person's permanent place of business within this state, if such person is required to list such goods or merchandise pursuant to RCW 84.40.185.

Sec. 111. Section 4, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.030 are each amended to read as follows:

To operate under this chapter, the board of commissioners of the improvement district shall cause to be prepared and filed with the board of county commissioners a property roll. The roll shall contain: (1) A description of all properties benefited and improvements thereon which receive protection and service from the systems of the district with the name of the owner or the reputed owner thereof and his address as shown on the tax rolls of the assessor or treasurer of the county where in the property is located and (2) the determined value of such land and improvements thereon as last assessed and equalized by the assessor of such county or counties. Such assessed and equalized values shall be deemed prima facie to be just, fair and correct valuations against which annual ~~((millage))~~ taxes shall be levied for the operation of the district and the maintenance and expansion of its facilities.

If property outside of the limits of the original district are upon the roll as adopted ultimately, and the original district has outstanding bonds or long-term warrants, the board of county commissioners shall set up separate ((millage)) dollar rate levies for the full retirement thereof.

Sec. 112. Section 7, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of county commissioners may at any time reexamine the properties on any roll, and upon receipt of a petition from the board of supervisors of the district or the written request of a property owner shall do so. If it is found that the condition of such property or properties has changed so that such property should be eliminated from any rolls on file, or the valuation against which ((millage)) dollar rate is levied should be lowered, it shall so determine and enter an order adjusting the valuation as to such properties and shall certify and file a copy thereof with the treasurer of the county wherein the property is situated, and the treasurer shall alter and change the existing rolls accordingly. Valuations may be revised periodically to reflect changes in real property valuations by the county assessor.

Sec. 113. Section 8, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The roll approved and certified to the county officers by the board of county commissioners as in this chapter provided shall constitute the valuations of land, buildings and improvements furnished protection and services by the systems of the district against which valuation ((millage)) taxes shall be levied and collected annually in the same manner as general taxes for the continuing operations of the district and its systems. The valuations on said roll shall be subject to adjustment from time to time in the manner provided in RCW 85.15.060.

The board of county commissioners shall hold a hearing on such adjustments at the county seat at the time of equalization of real property assessments for the purpose of considering written objections to any revision of valuations filed at least ten days prior to the hearing and shall give published notice only of such hearing as provided in RCW 85.15.040.

Sec. 114. Section 15, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((millage)) dollar rate levies collected from time to time under this chapter are solely assessments for benefits received continuously by the protected properties, calculated in the manner specified in this chapter as a just and equitable way for all protected property to share the expense of such required protection and services.

Sec. 115. Section 2, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

When any diking district has been organized and the improvements made afford protection to land and buildings within such district against damage or destruction from overflow waters in that the level of the land and of the foundational structures of buildings thereon is below the water level at flood or high tide stages of the waters, fresh or salt, against which such district improvements furnished protection, the board of diking commissioners of such district may, under the procedure established in this chapter, determine such fact and by resolution so declare; and may provide that the cost of continued functioning of the district shall be paid through levies of ((millage)) dollar rates made and collected according to this chapter against the land and buildings thus protected, based upon the determined base benefits received by such land and buildings.

Sec. 116. Section 4, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.030 are each amended to read as follows:

After the roll is prepared the board shall give notice of a time and place at which the board will hold a public hearing to determine whether the facts and conditions heretofore recited in this chapter as a prerequisite to its application do or do not exist, and if so found to exist by said board at said hearing, then the board shall by resolution so declare. The notice shall also state that at said hearing, or any continuance thereof, the board will sit to consider said roll and to determine the continuous base benefits which each of the properties thereon are receiving and will receive from the continued operation and functioning of such district, which shall in no instance exceed ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of such property in money, will consider all objections made thereto or to any part thereof, and will correct, revise, lower, change, or modify such roll as shall appear just and equitable; that when correct benefits are fixed upon said roll by said board, it will adopt said roll by resolution as establishing, until modified as hereinafter provided, the continuous base benefit to said protected lands and buildings against which will be levied and collected ((millage)) dollar rates to provide funds for the continuous functioning of said district.

Sec. 117. Section 9, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Until further modified, amended, or changed by an additional or supplemental roll certified to the county auditor after the foregoing procedure is had, the original roll, as modified or supplemented, if the same is done, shall serve as the base of benefits to the land and buildings protected by the improvement system of said district against which ((millage)) dollar rate is levied and collected from time to time for the continued functioning of said diking district.

Sec. 118. Section 16, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((~~millage~~)) dollar rate levy returns collected from time to time under this chapter are solely assessments for benefits received continuously by the protected properties, calculated in the manner specified in this chapter as a just and equitable way for all protected property to share the expense of such required protection.

Sec. 119. Section 19, chapter 225, Laws of 1909 and RCW 85.24.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever it shall appear to the city council of any incorporated city or town not included or not wholly included within the limits of any diking or drainage district established hereunder, which incorporated city or town may be within a county in which a portion of such district is located that the construction and maintenance of such diking and drainage system will be beneficial to the health of the inhabitants of said incorporated city and to the general welfare of the said city, then the city council of said city is hereby empowered and authorized to appropriate such amount of money out of the general funds of the city as may to the city council seem proper and just to such diking and drainage system, or the city council may for such purpose levy an assessment upon all the property in said city subject to taxation by said city, which shall not exceed ((~~one-half mill for each dollar~~)) twelve and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of property.

Sec. 120. Section 4, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The board may: (1) Make initial determination that the district's facilities furnish benefit to improvements upon land as well as land alone within the district in protecting against and furnishing run-off for surface and/or flood waters; (2) Make initial determination that lands and improvements thereon outside of the territorial limits of the district are receiving a service from the facilities of the district, and are benefited thereby in that waters from such lands through ditches, drains, or other artificial methods, other than by natural flow or seepage, are so cast as to have outlet through the district's facilities; (3) Determine that properties so found to be served should pay a just proportion of the operational and maintenance costs of the district; (4) In connection with so finding, cause a roll of property thus served and benefited by the district's facilities to be prepared and filed with it, and give notice of a hearing thereon as provided in this chapter; (5) Hold public hearings to determine the ultimate facts and approve an ultimate roll of properties served and benefited by the facilities of the district and valuations thereof to serve as a basis against which annual ((~~millage~~)) dollar rate levy may be assessed for continuous benefits furnished such properties; make revision thereof as the facts warrant from time to time; provide for the levying of such ((millage)) dollar rate levy; and make return of such roll finally adopted by certifying and filing a copy thereof with the auditor, assessor and treasurer of the county wherein the properties involved are located.

Sec. 121. Section 5, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

In the initial instance, when the board of any district, desires to use the method and procedure provided in this chapter, and in order that uniformity may be had, it may cause a roll of all properties within the district claimed to be benefited by its drainage system, and in addition or as a part thereof, a roll of all properties outside of the territorial limits of said district claimed to be served and benefited by the drainage systems of said district, to be prepared and filed with it. Thereupon, the board shall by resolution declare:

(1) That it has made initial determination that the district's facilities are furnishing and will furnish service and benefit to the properties, including improvements thereon, described in such roll;

(2) That such roll has been filed with it and will remain so filed and open to inspection by any party interested therein at all reasonable times;

(3) That a public hearing will be held by the board at a time and place stated to give consideration to the facts and make ultimate determination of the same and to said roll;

(4) That when said roll is finally adopted, annual ((millage)) dollar rate levies will be made by the district against said properties based upon the valuation thereof as shown on said roll when ultimately adopted to raise money based on benefit and service for the continuous operation and maintenance of said district;

(5) That at the time of hearing, it will hear all objections filed and will review, adopt, modify, or revise said roll consistent with existing facts to the end that property receiving service and benefit from the facilities of the district shall pay justly and equitably therefor in proportion to benefit received and;

(6) That upon said hearing or adjournments thereof, the board will determine the ultimate facts concerning service and benefit received by all properties ultimately contained in said roll and as to such properties it will adopt the roll in final form and proceed as in this chapter provided.

Sec. 122. Section 6, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The roll of properties referred to in this chapter shall contain (1) a description of all properties and improvements thereon, with the name of the owner or the reputed owner thereof and his address as shown on the tax rolls of the assessor or treasurer of the county wherein the property is located, and (2) the determined value of such land and improvements thereon as last assessed and equalized by the taxing agencies of such county. Such assessed and equalized values shall be deemed prima facie as a just, fair and correct base of value for consideration by the board in its determination ultimately of the just and correct base of value in each instance against which annual ((millage)) dollar rates shall be levied by the district for the operation of the district and the expansion and maintenance of its facilities.

If property outside of the territorial limits of the district are upon the roll as adopted ultimately, and the district has prior indebtedness existing, the board shall set up separate ((millage)) dollar rate levies for the retirement thereof until it is extinguished, which levies shall be applied solely against the properties within the territorial limits of the district. Adjustments of the roll shall be made before final adoption in such a manner that the money raised through annual ((millage)) dollar rate levies for maintenance, expansion and operational costs of the district in no instance shall exceed the value of the service rendered or to be rendered and the benefit received and to be received by the property involved.

Sec. 123. Section 7, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When the board causes a property roll to be filed with it and a hearing to be held thereon as provided in this chapter, it shall give notice of such hearing in the following manner:

The notice shall be published at least three times in consecutive issues in a weekly newspaper, or once a week for three consecutive weeks in a daily newspaper, published in or near said district, and if there is more than one such paper, then in some paper chosen by the board having general circulation in the area involved. The last publication shall be more than fifteen days prior to date of hearing. The board also shall cause a copy of such notice to be mailed in regular course of the federal mail at least thirty days prior to the date of such hearing to the owner or reputed owner of such property at his address, all as shown on the tax rolls or records of the county taxing agencies of the county wherein the property is situated, such notice being deemed adequate and sufficient. The sworn affidavit of the one doing such mailing shall be deemed conclusive of the fact that such notice was mailed.

Such notice shall state the following:

(1) That the board has tentatively determined that the property of the owner or reputed owner named is receiving and will receive service and benefit from the facilities of the district;

(2) That the board has caused a tentative roll of such properties with any improvements thereon which are receiving and will receive such service and benefit to be filed with it; and that such roll shows a base of valuation thereon for said properties against which annual ((millage)) dollar rates will be levied and collected in the same manner as general taxes to pay the fair value of the benefit and service received and to be received by such property through use of the facilities of the district, and to pay the annual cost of operation, development and maintenance of the district and its facilities;

(3) That on a date, time and place stated, the board will give consideration to the facts and the roll, will hear all objections filed, will review said roll and alter, modify, or change the same consistent with facts established and with equity and fair dealing concerning the properties involved to the end that just levies will be made for service and benefits received and to be received against each property for the purposes mentioned; and at the hearing or continuance thereof, it will adopt the roll in final form and certify and file a copy thereof with the assessor and treasurer of the county wherein the property is located; and will cause annual millage to be levied against such established valuations for the purposes stated;

(4) That all persons desiring to object to the proceedings, to the proposed base valuations, or to any other thing or matter in connection with the proceedings, must file written objections with the board stating clearly the basis of such objection before the time of the hearing, or all objections will be deemed waived.

The board may at any time reexamine the properties on any roll, and upon request of an owner shall do so, and if it is found that the condition of such property or properties has changed so that justly such property should be eliminated from any rolls on file, or the base against which ((millage)) dollar rate is levied should be lowered, it shall so determine and make a supplemental roll with reference to such property or properties. When adopted by it, the board shall certify and file a copy thereof with the auditor, assessor and treasurer of the county wherein the property is situated, and such officer shall alter and change the existing rolls accordingly.

Sec. 125. Section 12, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The roll certified to the county officers as in this chapter provided, and any modification thereof as provided, shall serve as the base of benefits as to land, buildings and improvements furnished service and benefit by the systems of the district against which valuations ((millage)) dollar rates shall be levied and collected in the same manner as general taxes from time to time for the continuing functioning of the district and its systems. The ((millage)) dollar rate shall be levied in the manner required by law for ((millage)) dollar rate levies by drainage districts.

If any property outside of the territorial limits of the district is placed upon a roll as finally adopted, and at the time such property becomes subject to charge for service and benefit from the district's system, there is an existing outstanding indebtedness owing by the district, the board shall make a separate estimate of the revenue required to be raised to pay or apply upon such indebtedness until it is extinguished, and it shall proceed and certify the same as hereinabove provided, and no ((millage)) dollar rate for raising revenue to extinguish such indebtedness shall be included in the levies made against any properties lying outside of the territorial limits of said district.

When thus levied, the amount of assessment produced thereby shall be added by the general taxing authorities to the general taxes against said lands and collected therewith as a part thereof. If unpaid, any delinquencies in such assessments shall bear interest at the same rate and in the same manner as general taxes and they shall be included in and be made a part of any general tax foreclosure proceedings according to the provisions of law with relation to such foreclosures. As assessment collections are made, the county treasurer shall credit same to the funds of such district.

The ((millage)) dollar rate levy returns collected from time to time under this chapter are solely assessments for benefits received continuously by the benefited properties, calculated in the manner specified in this chapter as a just and equitable way for all benefited property to share the expense of such required service.

Sec. 128. Section 4, chapter 154, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of proportionately assessing the benefits of any project constructed, maintained, or operated by any diking district or drainage district, benefit assessments proportioned in a direct relationship to the assessed valuation as last equalized for general tax purposes of the lands benefited shall be deemed prima facie to be fair and correct valuations against which annual ((millage)) dollar rates shall be levied.

Sec. 129. Section 1, chapter 66, Laws of 1907 as amended by section 8, chapter 204, Laws of 1941 and RCW 86.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The county commissioners of any county may annually levy a tax, beginning with the year 1907, in such amount as, in their judgment they may deem necessary or advisable, but not to exceed ~~((one mill))~~ twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value upon all taxable property in such county, for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as "river improvement fund." There is hereby created in each such river improvement fund an account to be known as the "flood control maintenance account."

Sec. 130. Section 1, chapter 54, Laws of 1913 and RCW 86.13.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Wherever and whenever a river is or shall be the boundary line or part of the boundary line between two counties, or it, or its tributaries or outlet or part thereof, flows through parts of two counties, and the waters thereof have in the past been the cause of damage, by inundation or otherwise, to the roads, bridges or other public property situate in or to other public interests of both such counties, or the flow of such waters shall have alternated between the said counties so at one time or times such waters shall have caused damage to one county and at another time or times to the other county, and it shall be deemed by the boards of county commissioners of both counties to be for the public interests of their respective counties that the flow of such waters be definitely confined to a particular channel, situate in whole or in part in either county, in a manner calculated to prevent such alternation or to prevent or lessen damage in the future, it shall be lawful for the two counties, and their boards of county commissioners are hereby empowered, pursuant to resolution, to enter into a contract in writing in the names of the respective counties for the purpose of settling all disputes in relation to any such situation, and providing ways and means for the control and disposition of such waters. Any such contract may provide:

(1) That it shall be operative in perpetuity, or only for a term of years or other measure of time to be specified therein.

(2) The amount of money to be expended by each county during each year of the life of said contract, or such other method of determining the amount of expenditure or dividing the financial burden as may be agreed upon.

(3) That an annual tax shall be levied, at the same time and in the same manner as other county taxes are levied, each year during the life of the contract, by the county commissioners of each county. The annual tax herein provided for need not be levied at the same rate for each county, but shall be at such rate in each county as will produce annually the amount of money for each county as is required for the fulfillment of the contract on its part: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in no event shall any such tax levy by either county exceed ((one mill on the dollar)) twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for any one year.

(4) That the general scheme for the improvement of such river shall be as stated in such contract, but by consent of the contracting parties, pursuant to resolution of each board of county commissioners, such scheme may be modified from time to time during the life of the contract. The contract may but need not provide the details of such scheme, but must designate the general purpose to be accomplished. So far as details are not specified in the contract, same shall be for future determination by joint action of the two boards of county commissioners. Any such contract may be subsequently modified or abrogated by mutual consent evidenced by separate resolution of both boards of county commissioners.

For the purposes of this chapter the board may authorize:

(1) A special annual ad valorem levy within any zone or participating zones when authorized by the voters of such zone or participating zones pursuant to the provisions of RCW 84.52.052 and RCW 84.52.054; and

(2) An assessment upon property specially benefited by an improvement made pursuant to the provisions of chapter 86.09; and

(3) Within any zone or participating zones an annual levy of not to exceed ((two mills)) fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value when such levy will not take ((millage)) dollar rates which other taxing districts may lawfully claim and which will not cause the combined levies to exceed the ((forty mill)) constitutional and/or statutory limitations, and such additional levy, or any portion thereof, may also be made when ((millage)) dollar rates of other taxing units is released therefor by agreement with the other taxing units from their authorized levies.

Sec. 132. Section 8, chapter 226, Laws of 1961 and RCW 87.84.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The directors shall be empowered to specially assess land located in the district for benefits thereto taking as a basis the last equalized assessment for county purposes: PROVIDED, That such assessment shall not exceed ((one mill)) twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value upon such assessed valuation without securing authorization by vote of the electors of the district at an election called for that purpose.

The board shall give notice of such an election, for the time and in the manner and form provided for irrigation district elections. The manner of conducting and voting at such an election, opening and closing polls, canvassing the votes, certifying the returns, and declaring the result shall be nearly as practicable the same as in irrigation district elections.

The special assessment provided for herein shall be due and payable at such times and in such amounts as designated by the district directors, which designation shall be made to the county auditor in writing, and the amount so designated shall be added to the general taxes, and entered upon the assessment rolls in his office, and collected therewith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 133. The following acts or parts of acts are each hereby repealed:

- (1) Section 7, chapter 152, Laws of 1919 and RCW 17.12.070;
- (2) Section 6, chapter 140, Laws of 1921 and RCW 17.16.120;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 134. There is added to chapter 84.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Within and subject to the limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 as amended, the regular ad valorem tax levies upon real and personal property by the taxing districts hereafter named shall be as follows: The levy by the state shall not exceed three dollars and sixty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value adjusted to the state equalized value in accordance with the indicated ratio fixed by the state department of revenue to be used exclusively for the support of the common schools; the levy by any county shall not exceed one dollar and eighty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value; the levy for any road district shall not exceed two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value; and the levy by or for any city or town shall not exceed three dollars and thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value: PROVIDED FURTHER, That counties of the fifth class and under are hereby authorized to levy from one dollar and eighty cents to two dollars and forty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for general county purposes and from one dollar and fifty-seven and one-half cents to two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for county road purposes if the total levy for both purposes does not exceed four dollars and five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value: PROVIDED FURTHER, That counties of the fourth and the ninth class are hereby authorized to levy two dollars and two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value until such time as the junior taxing agencies are utilizing all the dollar rates available to them: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the total property tax levy authorized by law without a vote of the people shall not exceed nine dollars and fifteen cents per thousand dollars of assessed value. Levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or public utility district shall not be included in the limitation set forth by this proviso.

Nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or power district.

It is the intent of the legislature that the provisions of this section shall supersede all conflicting provisions of law including section 24, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and section 8, chapter 124, Laws of 1972 ex. sess.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 135. There is added to chapter 84.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Within and subject to the limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 the regular ad valorem tax levies by the taxing districts hereinafter named upon real and personal property shall be as follows: The levy by any county shall not exceed four mills; the levy by or for any school district shall not exceed eight mills; the levy for any road district shall not exceed five mills; and the levy by or for any city or town shall not exceed seven and one-half mills: PROVIDED FURTHER, That counties of the fifth class and under are hereby authorized to levy from four to five and one-half mills for general county purposes and from three and one-half to five mills for county road purposes if the total levy for both purposes does not exceed nine mills: PROVIDED FURTHER, That counties of the fourth and the ninth class are hereby authorized to levy four and one-half mills until such time as the junior taxing agencies are utilizing all the millage available to them.

Nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or power district.

It is the intent of the legislature that the provisions of this section shall supersede all conflicting provisions of law including section 24, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and section 8, chapter 124, Laws of 1972 ex. sess.

Sec. 136. Section 28A.41.130, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 19, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41.130 are each amended to read as follows:

From those funds made available by the legislature for the current use of the common schools, other than the proceeds of the state property tax, the state superintendent of public instruction shall distribute annually as provided in RCW 28A.48.010 to each school district of the state operating a program approved by the state board of education, an amount which, when combined with the following revenues, will constitute an equal guarantee in dollars for each weighted student enrolled, based upon one full school year of one hundred eighty days:

(1) Eighty-five percent of the amount of revenues which would be produced by a levy of fourteen mills on the assessed valuation of taxable property within the school district adjusted to twenty-five percent of true and fair value thereof as determined by the state department of revenue's indicated county ratio: PROVIDED, That in each of the calendar years 1968 and 1969 the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district which is collecting property taxes based upon a levy of less than five-sixths of the maximum levy permissible for the district for such year under RCW 84.52.050 shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between the proceeds of the actual school district tax levy in the district and the proceeds which five-sixths of such maximum permissible levy for the district would produce irrespective of any delinquencies: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district for any year other than the calendar years 1968 and 1969 shall be reduced by the difference between the proceeds from the actual school district tax levy in the district and the amount the maximum levy permissible for the district under ((~~RCW 84.52.050~~) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act) would produce irrespective of any delinquencies; and

(2) The receipts from the one percent tax on real estate transactions which may be imposed pursuant to chapter 28A.45 RCW: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district in any county which does not impose a tax in the full amount authorized by chapter 28A.45 RCW shall be reduced by five percent; and

(3) Eighty-five percent of the maximum receipts collectible from the high school district fund pursuant to chapter 28A.44 RCW; and

(4) Eighty-five percent of the receipts from public utility district funds distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 54.28.090; and

(5) Eighty-five percent of the receipts from federal forest revenues distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 36.33.110; and

(6) Eighty-five percent of the proportion of the receipts from the tax imposed pursuant to RCW 82.04.291 upon harvesters of timber equal to the proportion that the millage rate for the regular property tax levy for such school district pursuant to ((REW 84:52:050)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act bears to the aggregate millage rate for all property tax levies for such school district, both regular and excess; and

(7) Eighty-five percent of such other available revenues as the superintendent of public instruction may deem appropriate for consideration in computing state equalization support.

Sec. 137. Section 28A.41.130, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28A.41.130 are each amended to read as follows:

From those funds made available by the legislature for the current use of the common schools, other than the proceeds of the state property tax, the superintendent of public instruction shall distribute annually as provided in RCW 28A.48.010 to each school district of the state operating a program approved by the state board of education an amount which, when combined with the following revenues, will constitute an equal guarantee in dollars for each weighted pupil enrolled, based upon one full school year of one hundred eighty days, except that for kindergartens one full school year may be ninety days as provided by RCW 28A.58.180:

(1) Eighty-five percent of the amount of revenues which would be produced by a levy of ((fourteen)) seven mills on the assessed valuation of taxable property within the school district adjusted to ((twenty-five)) fifty percent of true and fair value thereof as determined by the state department of revenue's indicated county ratio: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district for any year shall be reduced by the difference between the proceeds from the actual school district tax levy in the district and the amount the maximum levy permissible for the district under ((REW 84:52:650)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act as now or hereafter amended would produce irrespective of any delinquencies; and

(2) The receipts from the one percent tax on real estate transactions which may be imposed pursuant to chapter 28A.45 RCW: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district in any county which does not impose a tax in the full amount authorized by chapter 28A.45 RCW shall be reduced by five percent; and

(3) Eighty-five percent of the receipts from public utility district funds distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 54.28.090; and

(4) Eighty-five percent of the receipts from federal forest revenues distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 36.33.110; and

(5) Eighty-five percent of the proportion of the receipts from the tax imposed pursuant to RCW 82.04.291 upon harvesters of timber equal to the proportion that the millage rate for the regular property tax levy for such school district pursuant to ((REW 84-52-050)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act as now or hereafter amended bears to the aggregate millage rate for all property tax levies for such school district, both regular and excess; and

(6) Eighty-five percent of such other available revenues as the superintendent of public instruction may deem appropriate for consideration in computing state equalization support.

Sec. 138. Section 28A.41.130, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28A.41.130 are each amended to read as follows:

From those funds made available by the legislature for the current use of the common schools, other than the proceeds of the state property tax, the superintendent of public instruction shall distribute annually as provided in RCW 28A.48.010 to each school district of the state operating a program approved by the state board of education an amount which, when combined with the following revenues, will constitute an equal guarantee in dollars for each weighted pupil enrolled, based upon one full school year of one hundred eighty days, except that for kindergartens one full school year may be ninety days as provided by RCW 28A.58.180:

(1) Eighty-five percent of the amount of revenues which would be produced by a levy of ((fourteen)) eight mills on the assessed valuation of taxable property within the school district adjusted to ((twenty-five)) fifty percent of true and fair value thereof as determined by the state department of revenue's indicated county ratio: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district for any year shall be reduced by the difference between the proceeds from the actual school district tax levy in the district and the amount the maximum levy permissible for the district under ((REW 84-52-050)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act as now or hereafter amended would produce irrespective of any delinquencies; and

(2) The receipts from the one percent tax on real estate transactions which may be imposed pursuant to chapter 28A.45 RCW: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district in any county which does not impose a tax in the full amount authorized by chapter 28A.45 RCW shall be reduced by five percent; and

(3) Eighty-five percent of the receipts from public utility district funds distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 54.28.090; and

(4) Eighty-five percent of the receipts from federal forest revenues distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 36.33.110; and

(5) Eighty-five percent of the proportion of the receipts from the tax imposed pursuant to RCW 82.04.291 upon harvesters of timber equal to the proportion that the millage rate for the regular property tax levy for such school district pursuant to ((REW 84:52-050)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act as now or hereafter amended bears to the aggregate millage rate for all property tax levies for such school district, both regular and excess; and

(6) Eighty-five percent of such other available revenues as the superintendent of public instruction may deem appropriate for consideration in computing state equalization support.

Sec. 139. Section 28A.41.130, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28A.41.130 are each amended to read as follows:

From those funds made available by the legislature for the current use of the common schools, ((~~other than the proceeds of the state property tax;~~)) the superintendent of public instruction shall distribute annually as provided in RCW 28A.48.010 to each school district of the state operating a program approved by the state board of education an amount which, when combined with the following revenues, will constitute an equal guarantee in dollars for each weighted pupil enrolled, based upon one full school year of one hundred eighty days, except that for kindergartens one full school year may be ninety days as provided by RCW 28A.58.180:

(1) ((~~Eighty-five~~)) Ninety percent of the amount of revenues which would be produced by a levy of ((~~fourteen~~)) eight mills on the assessed valuation of taxable property within the school district adjusted to ((~~twenty-five~~)) fifty percent of true and fair value thereof as determined by the state department of revenue's indicated county ratio: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district for any year shall be reduced by the difference between the proceeds from the actual school district tax levy in the district and the amount the maximum levy permissible for the district under ((REW 84:52:050)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act as now or hereafter amended would produce irrespective of any delinquencies; and

(2) The receipts from the one percent tax on real estate transactions which may be imposed pursuant to chapter 28A.45 RCW: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district in any county which does not impose a tax in the full amount authorized by chapter 28A.45 RCW shall be reduced by five percent; and

(3) ((~~Eighty-five~~)) Ninety percent of the receipts from public utility district funds distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 54.28.090; and

(4) ((~~Eighty-five~~)) Ninety percent of the receipts from federal forest revenues distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 36.33.110; and

(5) ((~~Eighty-five~~)) Ninety percent of the proportion of the receipts from the tax imposed pursuant to RCW 82.04.291 upon harvesters of timber equal to the proportion that the millage rate for the regular property tax levy for such school district pursuant to ((~~REW 84-52-050~~)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act as now or hereafter amended bears to the aggregate millage rate for all property tax levies for such school district, both regular and excess; and

(6) ((~~Eighty-five~~)) Ninety percent of such other available revenues as the superintendent of public instruction may deem appropriate for consideration in computing state equalization support.

Sec. 140. Section 28B.20.394, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 107, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.20.394 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the powers conferred upon the board of regents of the University of Washington by RCW 28B.20.392 and 28B.20.380, said board is authorized and shall have the power to enter into an agreement or agreements with the city of Seattle and the county of King, Washington, to pay to said city and said county such sums as shall be mutually agreed upon for governmental services rendered to said university tract, as defined in RCW 28B.20.390 which sums shall not exceed the amounts that would be received pursuant to limitations imposed by ((~~REW 84-52-050~~)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act by the said city of Seattle and county of King respectively from real and personal property taxes paid on the university tract or any leaseholds thereon if such taxes could lawfully be levied; and any such sums so agreed upon shall be paid from the proceeds and other income from said tract as an item of expense of operation and upkeep thereof: PROVIDED, That in the event that it is determined by a court of final jurisdiction that the provisions of chapter 43, Laws of 1971 first ex. sess., insofar as they affect taxes due and payable in 1972 and 1973 by any lessee of the university tract, are held unconstitutional, the sums paid pursuant to this section in such years shall be refunded in accordance with the provisions of chapter 84.69 RCW; and any provision of RCW 28B.20.392 in conflict herewith is superseded.

Sec. 141. Section 35A.40.090, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess.

and RCW 35A.40.090 are each amended to read as follows:

No code city shall incur an indebtedness exceeding three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in such city without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose nor, with such assent, to exceed two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property therein except as otherwise provided in chapter 39.36 RCW and subject to the provisions of this chapter and shall have the authority and be subject to the limitations provided in RCW 84.52.050 and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act relating to levy of taxes within the ((~~forty~~)) twenty mill limit. The term "value of the taxable property" shall have the meaning set forth in RCW 39.36.015.

Sec. 142. Section 1, chapter 25, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.33.220 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of any county may budget, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 36.40 RCW, and expend any portion of the county road millage for any service to be provided in the unincorporated area of the county notwithstanding any other provision of law, including chapter 36.82 RCW and ((~~REW 84-52-050~~)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 143. Section 1, chapter 102, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 36.40.300 are each amended to read as follows:

In each year that the state provides financial aid to the counties for a county revaluation program, the county-assumed portion of the costs of such revaluation program including administrative costs, but excluding any costs pertaining to the development of new data processing programs, shall be shared by all local taxing districts within the county authorized to make levies pursuant to RCW 84.52.050 and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act. Such sharing shall be for those costs incurred during 1972 and 1973 only. For the years 1972 and 1973 during which, such state financial aid is received, the county treasurer shall compute the proportionate amount of the county-assumed portion of the costs of revaluation in direct proportion to the ratio of basic property tax as authorized by RCW 84.52.050 and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act levied on behalf of each local taxing district each year, and he shall, on December 31 of those years, bill each local taxing district the amount so computed. The treasurer shall collect said bill by deducting said amount from the next year's tax receipts and place the deducted sums in a special fund to be used solely for the expenses and costs of the administration of the revaluation program: PROVIDED, That the sum deducted from the basic millage for common schools shall be excluded and not considered as revenue in the computation of the school equalization formula pursuant to RCW

28A.41.130. A copy of the assessor's portion of the preliminary county budget shall be sent to each local taxing district affected by the provisions of this section at the time such budget is prepared.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1974.

Sec. 144. Section 6, chapter 91, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 2, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the legislative authority of each municipality, each year as a part of its annual tax levy, to levy and place in the fund a tax of one-half of one mill on all the taxable property of such municipality: PROVIDED, That if a report by a qualified actuary on the condition of the fund establishes that the whole or any part of said millage is not necessary to maintain the actuarial soundness of the fund, the levy of said one-half of one mill may be omitted, or the whole or any part of said millage may be levied and used for any other municipal purpose.

It shall be the duty of the legislative authority of each municipality, each year as a part of its annual tax levy and in addition to the city levy limit set forth in ((REW 84-52-050)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act, as now or hereafter amended, to levy and place in the fund an additional tax of one-half of one mill on all taxable property of such municipality: PROVIDED, That if a report by a qualified actuary establishes that all or any part of the additional one-half of one mill levy is unnecessary to meet the estimated demands on the fund under this chapter for the ensuing budget year, the levy of said additional one-half of one mill may be omitted, or the whole or any part of such millage may be levied and used for any other municipal purpose.

Sec. 145. Section 4, chapter 243, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.230 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of acquiring conservation futures as well as other rights and interests in real property pursuant to RCW 84.34.210 and 84.34.220, a county may levy an amount not to exceed one-eighth of one mill on the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the county, which levy shall be in addition to that authorized by ((REW 84-52-050)) section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 146. Section 84.52.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 6, chapter 243, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All taxes shall be levied or voted in specific amounts, and the rate percent of all taxes for state and county purposes, and purposes of taxing districts coextensive with the county, shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the county, as shown by the completed tax rolls of the county, and the rate percent of all taxes levied for purposes of taxing districts within any county shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the taxing districts respectively: PROVIDED, That when any such county assessor shall find that the aggregate rate of levy on any property will exceed the limitation set forth in RCW 84.52.050 as now or hereafter amended, he shall recompute and establish a consolidated levy in the following manner:

(1) He shall include for extension on the tax rolls the full rates of levy certified to him for state, county, county road districts, city and school district purposes in amounts not exceeding the limitations established by law: PROVIDED, That in the event of a levy made pursuant to ((section 5 of this 1971 amendatory act)) RCW 84.34.230, the rates of levy for county, county road district, and school district purposes shall be reduced in such uniform percentages as will result in a consolidated levy by such taxing districts which will be no greater on any property than a consolidated levy by such taxing districts would be if the levy had not been made pursuant to ((section 5 of this 1971 amendatory act)) RCW 84.34.230, and

(2) He shall include for extension on the tax rolls the rates percent of the tax levies certified to him by all other taxing districts imposing taxes on such property, other than port districts and public utility districts, reduced by him in such uniform percentages as will bring the consolidated tax levy on such property within the provisions of such limitation.

Sec. 147. Section 84.52.052, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 3, Laws of 1973 and RCW 84.52.052 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act, shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes((; not in excess of five mills a year and without anticipation of delinquencies in payment of taxes; in an amount equal to the interest and principal payable in the next succeeding year on general obligation bonds; outstanding on December 6, 1934; issued by or through the agency of the state; or any county; city; town; or school district; or the levy of additional taxes to pay interest on or toward the redemption; at the rates provided by statute; of the principal of county; city; town; or school district warrants outstanding December 6, 1932; but this millage limitation with respect to general obligation bonds shall not apply to)) by any taxing district in which a larger levy is necessary in order to prevent the impairment of the obligation of contracts. Any county, school district, metropolitan park district, park and recreation district in class AA counties and counties of the second, eighth and ninth class, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town may levy taxes at a rate in excess of the rate specified in RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act, or RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.050, when authorized so to do by the electors of such county, school district, metropolitan park district, park and recreation district in class AA counties and counties of the second, eighth and ninth class, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended, at a special election to be held in the year in which the levy is made.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the board of county commissioners or other county legislative authority, board of school directors, or council, board of commissioners, or other governing body of any metropolitan park district, park and recreation district in class AA counties and counties of the second, eighth and ninth class, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess (~~levies~~) levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "yes" and those opposed thereto to vote "no".

Any municipal corporation otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes may, at an election duly held after giving notice thereof as required by law, authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, which shall not include the replacement of equipment, and provide for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds by annual levies in excess of the tax limitations contained in RCW 84.52.050 to 84.52.056, inclusive and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act. Such an election shall not be held oftener than twice a calendar year, and the proposition to issue any such bonds and to exceed said tax limitation must receive the affirmative vote of a three-fifths majority of those voting on the proposition and the total number of persons voting at such election must constitute not less than forty percent of the voters in said municipal corporation who voted at the last preceding general state election.

Any taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitations provided for in RCW 84.51.050 to 84.52.056, inclusive and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 149. Section 8, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.061 are each amended to read as follows:

Any taxing district, as defined in RCW 84.04.120, authorized by provisions of law other than RCW 84.52.052 to levy taxes in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ limitation provided for in Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution, as amended ~~((by Amendment 47))~~, or in excess of a statutory millage limitation specifically applicable to such district, is hereby authorized to levy taxes in any year in excess of the applicable general limitation contained in RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, or in excess of one-half of such specific statutory millage limitation, under the same conditions applicable to a levy by such district in excess of the ~~((forty mill))~~ limitation or in excess of such specific statutory millage limitation.

Sec. 150. Section 9, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.063 are each amended to read as follows:

A rural library district may impose ~~((notwithstanding the millage limitations provided for in RCW 84.52.050 and 84.54.026,))~~ a regular property tax levy in an amount equal to that which would be produced by a levy of ~~((two))~~ one mill ~~((s))~~ multiplied by an assessed valuation equal to ~~((twenty-five))~~ fifty percent of the true and fair value of the taxable property in the rural library district, as determined by the department of revenue's indicated county ratio; PROVIDED, That when any county assessor shall find that the aggregate rate of levy on any property will exceed the limitation set forth in RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, before recomputing and establishing a consolidated levy in the manner set forth in RCW 84.52.010, the assessor shall first reduce the levy of any rural library district, by such amount as may be necessary, but the levy of any rural library district shall not be reduced to less than one mill against the value of the taxable property, as determined by the county, prior to any further adjustments pursuant to RCW 84.52.010. For purposes of this section "regular property tax levy" shall mean a levy subject to the ~~((forty mill))~~ one percentum limitation provided for in Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution.

Sec. 151. Section 23, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.040 are each amended to read as follows:

If by reason of the operation of RCW 84.52.050 and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act, as now or hereafter amended the statutory millage limitation applicable to the levy by a taxing district has been increased over the statutory millage limitation applicable to such taxing district's levy in the preceding year, the limitation on the dollar amount of a levy provided for in this chapter shall be increased by multiplying the otherwise dollar limitation by a fraction, the numerator of which is the increased millage limitation and the denominator of which is the millage limitation for the prior year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 152. There is added to chapter 28A.41 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, allocation of moneys to school districts per enrolled student shall be an amount, not less than ninety-five percent of the amount, excluding special levies, which any such district realized from state and local funds during the immediately preceding school year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 153. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 154. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately: PROVIDED, That section 9 shall take effect January 1, 1975, and section 133 (3) shall take effect on January 31, 1974: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That section 137 of this 1973 amendatory act shall not be effective until July 1, 1973, at which time section 136 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be void and of no effect: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That section 138 of this 1973 amendatory act shall not be effective until January 1, 1974, at which time section 137 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be void and of no effect: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That section 139 of this 1973 amendatory act shall not be effective until July 1, 1974 at which time section 138 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be void and of no effect, and section 139 shall be null and void and of no further effect on and after January 1, 1975: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That sections 1 through 8, sections 10 through 132, section 133 (1), (2), (4), and (5), and section 134 shall not take effect until January 1, 1974, at which time sections 135, 136, and sections 140 through 152 shall be void and of no effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 155. Sections 135 through 152 of this 1973 amendatory act shall apply to tax levies made in 1973 for collection in 1974, and sections 1 through 134 shall apply to tax levies made in 1974 and each year thereafter for collection in 1975 and each year thereafter.

COUNTIES--PROPERTY MANAGEMENT
AUTHORITY

AN ACT Relating to counties; and creating a new section.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Pursuant to public notice and hearing, any county may establish comprehensive procedures for the management of county property consistent with the public interest and counties establishing such procedures shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 36.34 RCW: PROVIDED, That all counties shall retain all powers now or hereafter granted by chapter 36.34 RCW.

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET COMMITTEE--
PERFORMANCE AUDIT AUTHORITY--
LEGISLATORS' PER DIEM ALLOWANCE

AN ACT Relating to state government; amending section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1959 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 112, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 44.04.120; and adding new sections to Title 44 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislative budget committee authority for management surveys contained in RCW 44.28.085 shall include reviews of program goals and objectives of public bodies, officers or employees to determine conformity with legislative intent and shall include comprehensive performance audits to ensure that agency programs are being conducted in accordance with legislative intent and program goals and objectives.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. All agency reports concerning program performance, including administrative review, quality control, and other internal audit or performance reports, as requested by the legislative budget committee, shall be furnished by the agency requested to provide such report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 are each added to Title 44 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In view of the decreased purchasing power of the dollar and the concomitant increase in the cost of living during the past several years, the members of the legislature declare that the twenty-five dollar per diem allowance provided during the past several interims between sessions in lieu of subsistence and lodging is inadequate to cover necessary expenses incurred while serving on official legislative business during the interim. The legislature further finds and declares that forty dollars per day is a fair and adequate allowance to cover such reimbursement.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1959 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 112, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 44.04.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the senate or house of representatives when serving on official legislative business during the interim between legislative sessions, or while serving on the legislative council, the legislative budget committee, or any other permanent or interim committee, commission, or council of the legislature shall be entitled to receive, in lieu of per diem or any other payment, for each day or major portion thereof in which he is actually engaged in legislative business or business of the committee, commission, or council, notwithstanding any laws to the contrary, ~~((twenty-five))~~ forty dollars per day, plus mileage allowance at the rate of ten cents per mile when authorized by the house, committee, commission, or council of which he is a member and on the business of which he is engaged.

CHAPTER 198

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2256]

JUVENILE PROBATION SERVICES--ALTERNATIVE SUBSIDY PROGRAMS--HOUSING AUTHORITIES, GROUP HOMES OR HALFWAY HOUSES

AN ACT Relating to juvenile probation services; amending section 5, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 165, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 13.06.050; adding a new section to chapter 35.82 RCW; and declaring an emergency and making an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 5, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 165, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 13.06.050 are each amended to read as follows:

No county shall be entitled to receive any state funds provided by this chapter until its application is approved, and unless and until the minimum standards prescribed by the department of social and health services are complied with and then only on such terms as are set forth hereafter in this section.

(1) A base commitment rate for each county and for the state as a whole shall be calculated by the department of social and health services. The base commitment rate shall be determined by computing the ratio of the number of juveniles committed to state juvenile correctional institutions plus the number of juveniles who have been convicted of felonies and committed to state correctional institutions after a juvenile court has declined jurisdiction of their cases and remanded them for prosecution in the superior courts, to the county population, such ratio to be expressed in a rate per hundred thousand population, for each of the calendar years 1964 through 1968. The average of these rates for a county for the five year period or the average of the last two years of the period, whichever is higher, shall be the base commitment rate, as certified by the (~~director~~) secretary: PROVIDED, That, a county may elect as its base commitment rate the average of the base commitment rates of all counties in the state over the last two years of the period described above. The county and state population shall be that certified as of April 1st of each year by the office of program planning and fiscal management, such population figures to be provided to the secretary of social and health services not later than June 30th of each year.

(2) An annual commitment rate shall be calculated by the department at the end of each year for each participating county and for the state as a whole, in a like manner as provided in subsection (1).

(3) The amount that may be paid to a county pursuant to this chapter shall be the actual cost of the operation of a special supervision program or four thousand dollars multiplied by the "commitment reduction number", whichever is the lesser. The "commitment reduction number" is obtained by subtracting (a) the product of the most recent annual commitment rate and population of the county for the same year from (b) the product of the base commitment rate and population of the county for the same year employed in (a).

(4) The secretary of social and health services will reimburse a county upon presentation and approval of a valid claim pursuant to the provisions of this chapter based on actual performance in reducing the annual commitment rate from its base commitment rate. Whenever a claim made by a county pursuant to this chapter, covering a prior year, is found to be in error, an adjustment may be made on a current claim without the necessity of applying the adjustment to the allocation for the prior year.

(5) In the event a participating county earns in a payment period less than one-half of the sum paid in the previous payment period because of extremely unusual circumstances claimed by the county and verified by the secretary of the department of social and health services, the secretary may pay to the county a sum not to exceed actual program expenditures, provided, however, that in subsequent periods the county will be paid only the amount earned: PROVIDED, That *the amendatory provisions of subsection (5) of this act may be applied to payment periods prior to May 20, 1971.

(6) If the amount received by a county in reimbursement of its expenditures in a calendar year is less than the maximum amount computed under subsection (3) above, the difference may be paid to the county as reimbursement of program costs during the next two succeeding years upon receipt of valid claims for reimbursement of program expenses.

~~((16))~~ (7) Funds received by participating counties under this chapter shall not be used to replace local funds for existing programs for delinquent juveniles or to develop county institutional programs.

~~((17))~~ (8) Any county averaging less than thirty commitments annually during either the two year or five year period used to determine the base commitment rate as defined in subsection (1) above may:

(a) apply for subsidies under subsection (1); or

(b) as an alternative, elect to receive from the state the salary of one full-time additional probation officer ~~((unless the total number of juveniles placed on probation annually is twenty or fewer in which case the county may receive from the state one-half~~ the salary of a full-time officer)) and related employee benefits.

(c) elect to receive from the state the salary and related employee benefits of one full-time additional probation officer and in addition, reimbursement for certain supporting services other than capital outlay and equipment whose total will not exceed a maximum limit established by the secretary of the department of social and health services; or

(d) elect to receive from the state reimbursement for certain supporting services other than capital outlay and equipment whose total cost will not exceed a maximum limit established by the secretary of the department of social and health services.

((8)) (9) In the event a county chooses one of the alternative proposals in subsection ((7)) (8), it will be eligible for reimbursement only so long as the officer ((devotes all of his time)) and supporting services are wholly used in the performance of probation services to supervision of persons eligible for state commitment and ((is)) are paid the salary referred to in this section in accordance with a salary schedule adopted by rule of the department and:

(a) if its base commitment rate is below the state average, its annual commitment rate does not exceed the base commitment rate for the entire state; or

(b) if its base commitment rate is above the state average, its annual commitment rate does not in the year exceed by ((five)) two ((percent)) its own base commitment rate.

((9)) (10) Where any county does not have a juvenile probation officer, but obtains such services by agreement with another county or counties, or, where two or more counties mutually provide probation services by agreement for such counties, then under such circumstances the ((director)) secretary may make the computations and payments under this chapter as though the counties served with probation services were one geographical unit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 35.82 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Housing authorities of first class counties created under this chapter may establish and operate group homes or halfway houses to serve juveniles released from state juvenile or correctional institutions, or to serve the developmentally disabled as defined in 42 U.S.C. 2670, 85 Stat. 1316. Such authorities may contract for the operation of facilities so established, with qualified nonprofit organizations as agent of the authority.

Action under this section shall be taken by the authority only after a public hearing as provided by chapter 42.30 RCW. In exercising this power the authority shall not be empowered to acquire property by eminent domain, and the facilities established shall comply with all zoning, building, fire, and health regulations and procedures applicable in the locality. Any facilities in which medical care is given shall comply with federal standards for skilled nursing care facilities and any facilities in which no medical care is given shall comply with federal standards for intermediate care facilities. The authorization contained in this section shall permit such action by housing authorities only during the period from July 1, 1973 through February 15, 1974, unless extended by a subsequent act of the legislature: PROVIDED, That any projects commenced during that period shall continue and shall be valid and the housing authorities may complete, operate, or contract for the operation of such facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973, with the exception of one item in Section 2 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill No. 2256 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to juvenile services."

Section one of this act was requested by the department of social and health services to clarify some of the provisions relating to the juvenile probation subsidy program.

Section two, which was not part of the departmental request, would allow housing authorities to use their funds to establish and operate group homes for juvenile parolees and the developmentally disabled. While this provision is indeed a laudable effort to provide varied settings for rehabilitation and care of juveniles and the handicapped, an item in that section would require that if medical care were provided in the homes, the homes would have to meet standards of a skilled nursing home. Additionally, the item would terminate the authority granted by this section on February 15, 1974.

The language relating to medical care and requiring standards of a skilled nursing home is both inappropriate and irrelevant. "Medical care" could mean a doctor's house call, administration of a shot, or treatment of a sore throat. Obviously, the medical standards required of nursing homes are not necessary to the kind of treatment likely to be given in a group home. Group homes are not and would not be medically oriented nor provided for a medical purpose. Additionally, there seems to be no justifiable purpose to grant this authority in this act and then terminate it on February 15, 1974. If provision of group homes is a worthy idea, which it is, then there is no justification for this language.

Veto
Message

Accordingly, for the reasons set out above, I have determined to veto that item in section two of Senate Bill No. 2256. With that exception, the remainder of the bill is approved."

CHAPTER 199
[Substitute House Bill No. 894]
VOTER REGISTRATION--PRECINCT
COMMITTEEMEN--REGISTRATION AUTHORITY

AN ACT Relating to elections, voting, and voter registration; amending section 29.07.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.07.010; adding a new section to chapter 29.07 RCW; repealing section 29.07.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965, section 6, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.07.040; and providing for a referendum.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 29.07 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The purpose of this 1973 amendatory act is to make registration to vote readily available to Washington's citizens and to recognize that voting under the democratic system is a right, not a privilege; that the present voting registration laws serve to effectively defeat this right by making it extremely difficult, and even impossible, for many citizens to vote, particularly the aged, the sick, and the poor who do not normally have easy access to places of registration.

Sec. 2. Section 29.07.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.07.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In all counties the county auditor shall be the chief registrar of voters for every precinct within the county. He shall appoint a deputy registrar for each precinct or for any number of precincts and shall appoint city or town clerks as deputy registrars to assist in registering voters residing in cities, towns, and rural precincts within the county. In addition, he shall appoint the precinct committeemen elected or appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 29.42.050 as deputy registrars to assist in registering voters if the precinct committeemen so request.

A deputy registrar shall be a registered voter and, except for city and town clerks and precinct committeemen, shall hold office at the pleasure of the county auditor.

The county auditor shall be the custodian of the official registration records of each precinct within that county. The expenses of registration shall be apportioned between the county and cities or towns therein in the same manner as provided in RCW 29.07.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 29.07.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965, section 6, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.07.040 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This 1973 amendatory act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at the next general election to be held in this state on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, 1973, in accordance with the provisions of section 1, Article II of the state Constitution, as amended, and laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof.

Passed the House April 7, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 15, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

CHAPTER 200
[House BILL No. 1108]
PERSONALIZED LICENSE PLATES--
REVENUE--STATE GAME FUND

AN ACT Relating to state government; amending section 77.12.170, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 33, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 77.12.170; adding new sections to chapter 46.16 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 77.12 RCW; repealing section 4, chapter 114, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.355; and providing for submission of this act to a vote of the people.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 36, Laws of 1955, and to chapter 77.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is declared to be the public policy of the state of Washington to direct financial resources of this state toward the support and aid of the wildlife resources existing within the state of Washington in order that the general welfare of these inhabitants of the state be served. For the purposes of this chapter, wildlife resources are understood to be those species of wildlife other than that managed by the department of fisheries under their existing jurisdiction as well as all unclassified marine fish, shellfish, and marine invertebrates which shall remain under the jurisdiction of the director of fisheries. The legislature further finds that the preservation, protection, perpetuation, and enhancement of such wildlife resources of the state is of major concern to it, and that aid for a satisfactory environment and ecological balance in this state for such wildlife resources serves a public interest, purpose, and desire.

It is further declared that such preservation, protection, perpetuation, and enhancement can be fostered through financial support derived on a voluntary basis from those citizens of the state of Washington who wish to assist in such objectives; that a desirable manner of accomplishing this is through offering personalized license plates for motor vehicles, the fees for which are to be directed to the state treasury to the credit of the state game fund for the furtherance of the programs, policies, and activities of the state game department in preservation, protection, perpetuation, and enhancement of the wildlife resources that abound within the geographical limits of the state of Washington.

In particular, the legislature recognizes the benefit of this program to be specifically directed toward those species of wildlife including but not limited to songbirds, protected wildlife, rare and endangered wildlife, aquatic life, and specialized-habitat types, both terrestrial and aquatic, as well as all unclassified marine fish, shellfish, and marine invertebrates which shall remain under the jurisdiction of the director of fisheries that exist within the limits of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Personalized license plates, as used in this chapter, means license plates that have displayed upon them the registration number assigned to the passenger motor vehicle for which such registration number was issued in a combination of letters or numbers, or both, requested by the owner of the vehicle.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person who is the registered owner of a passenger motor vehicle registered with the department or who makes application for an original registration of a passenger motor vehicle or renewal registration of a passenger motor vehicle may, upon payment of the fee prescribed in section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act, apply to the department for personalized license plates, in the manner described in section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act, which plates shall be affixed to the passenger motor vehicle for which registration is sought in lieu of the regular license plates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The personalized license plates shall be the same design as regular passenger motor vehicle license plates, and shall consist of numbers or letters, or any combination thereof not exceeding six positions and not less than two positions: PROVIDED, That there are no conflicts with existing passenger, commercial, trailer, motorcycle, or special license plates series or with the provisions of RCW 46.16.230 or 46.16.235.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Personalized license plates shall be issued only to the registered owner of a vehicle on which they are to be displayed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An applicant for issuance of personalized license plates or renewal of such plates in the subsequent year pursuant to this chapter shall file an application therefor in such form and by such date as the department may require, indicating thereon the combination of letters or numbers, or both, requested as a vehicle license plate number. There shall be no duplication or conflict with existing or projected vehicle license plate series or other numbering systems for records kept by the department, and the department may refuse to issue any combination of letters or numbers, or both, that may carry connotations offensive to good taste and decency or which would be misleading or a duplication of license plates provided for in chapter 46.16 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to the regular registration fee, and any other fees and taxes required to be paid upon registration, the applicant shall be charged a fee of thirty dollars. In addition to the regular renewal fee, and in addition to any other fees and taxes required to be paid, the applicant for a renewal of such plates shall be charged an additional fee of twenty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever any person who has been issued personalized license plates applies to the department for transfer of such plates to a subsequently acquired passenger motor vehicle, a transfer fee of five dollars shall be charged in addition to all other appropriate fees. Such transfer fees shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When any person who has been issued personalized license plates sells, trades, or otherwise releases ownership of the vehicle upon which the personalized license plates have been displayed, he shall immediately report the transfer of such plates to an acquired passenger motor vehicle pursuant to section 8 of this 1973 amendatory act, or he shall surrender such plates to the department forthwith and release his priority to the letters or numbers, or combination thereof, displayed on the personalized license plates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director of motor vehicles may establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 2 through 9 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All revenue derived from the fees provided for in section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be forwarded to the state treasurer accompanied by a proper identifying detailed report and by him deposited to the credit of the state game fund.

Administrative costs incurred by the department of motor vehicles as a direct result of this 1973 amendatory act shall be appropriated by the legislature from the state game fund from those funds deposited therein resulting from the sale of personalized license plates. If the actual costs incurred by the department of motor vehicles are less than that which has been appropriated by the legislature the remainder shall revert to the state game fund.

Sec. 12. Section 77.12.170, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 33, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 77.12.170 are each amended to read as follows:

There is established in the state treasury a fund to be known as the state game fund which shall consist of all moneys received from fees for the sale of licenses and permits provided in this title, from the personalized vehicle license plate fees provided in chapter 46.16 RCW, and from fines, forfeitures, and costs collected for violations of this title, or any other statute for the protection of wild animals and birds and game fish, or any rule or regulation of the commission relating thereto: PROVIDED, That fifty percent of all fines and bail forfeitures shall not become part of the state game fund and shall be retained by the county in which collected: PROVIDED FURTHER, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

All state and county officers receiving any moneys in payment of fees for licenses under this title or from fees for the personalized vehicle license plates provided in chapter 46.16 RCW, or in payment of fines, penalties, or costs imposed for violations of this title, or any other statute for the protection of wild animals and birds and game fish, or any rule or regulation of the commission; from rentals or concessions, and from the sale of real or personal property held for game department purposes, shall pay them into the state treasury to be placed to the credit of the state game fund: PROVIDED, That county officers shall remit only fifty percent of all fines and bail forfeitures: PROVIDED FURTHER, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Section 4, chapter 114, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.355 are each hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This 1973 amendatory act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at the next general election to be held in this state in accordance with the provisions of section 1, Article II of the Constitution of the state of Washington, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof.

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2311]
STATE TRANSPORTATION AGENCIES--SIX YEAR COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAM-- BIENNIAL BUDGET

AN ACT Relating to transportation; specifying planning, programing, and budgeting responsibilities; and adding new sections to chapter 44.40 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Prior to October 1 of each even-numbered year all state agencies whose major programs consist of transportation activities, including the state highway commission, the toll bridge authority, the urban arterial board, the Washington state patrol, the department of motor vehicles, the traffic safety commission, the county road administration board, and the aeronautics commission, shall adopt or revise after consultation with the legislative transportation committee, and/or senate and house transportation and utilities committees, a long range plan of not less than six years and comprehensive six-year program and financial plan for all transportation activities under each agency's jurisdiction.

The long range plan shall state the general objectives and needs of each agency's major transportation programs.

The comprehensive six-year program and financial plan shall be prepared in consonance with the long range plan and shall identify that portion of the long range plan to be accomplished within the succeeding six-year period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, state transportation agencies shall prepare and present to the governor and to the legislature prior to its convening a recommended budget for the ensuing biennium. The biennial budget shall include details of expenditures, and performance and public service criteria for the transportation programs and activities of each agency in consonance with said agency's adopted six-year comprehensive program and financial plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this 1973 act shall be added to chapter 44.40 RCW.

Passed the Senate April 11, 1973.

Passed the House April 10, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 2717]
STATE PATROL--ORGANIZED CRIME
INTELLIGENCE UNIT

AN ACT Relating to a crime intelligence unit; adding new sections to chapter 43.43 RCW; defining crimes; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is hereby created in the Washington state patrol an organized crime intelligence unit which shall be under the direction of the chief of the Washington state patrol.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the purposes of sections 1 through 8 of this act "organized crime" means those activities which are conducted and carried on by members of an organized, disciplined association, engaged in supplying illegal goods and services and/or engaged in criminal activities in contravention of the laws of this state or of the United States.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The organized crime intelligence unit shall collect, evaluate, collate, and analyze data and specific investigative information concerning the existence, structure, activities and operations of organized crime and the participants involved therein; coordinate such intelligence data into a centralized system of intelligence information; furnish and exchange pertinent intelligence data with law enforcement agencies and prosecutors with such security and confidentiality as the chief of the Washington state patrol may determine; develop intelligence data concerning the infiltration of organized crime into legitimate businesses within the state of Washington and furnish pertinent intelligence information thereon to law enforcement agencies and prosecutors in affected jurisdictions; and may assist law enforcement agencies and prosecutors in developing evidence for purposes of criminal prosecution of organized crime activities upon request.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) On and after the effective date of sections 1 through 8 of this act it shall be unlawful for any person to divulge specific investigative information pertaining to activities related to organized crime which he has obtained by reason of public employment with the state of Washington or its political subdivisions unless such person is authorized or required to do so by operation of state or federal law. Any person violating this subsection shall be guilty of a felony.

(2) Except as provided in section 3 of this act, or pursuant to the rules of the supreme court of Washington, all of the information and data collected and processed by the organized crime intelligence unit shall be confidential and not subject to examination or publication pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW (Initiative Measure No. 276).

(3) The chief of the Washington state patrol shall prescribe such standards and procedures relating to the security of the records and files of the organized crime intelligence unit, as he deems to be in the public interest with the advice of the governor and the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is hereby created the organized crime intelligence advisory board of the legislature of the state of Washington. The board shall consist of eight members.

The lieutenant governor shall appoint four members of the senate to the board. Two members shall be from the senate ways and means committee. Two members shall be from the senate judiciary committee. The appointments shall include one member of each major political party represented on each committee.

The speaker of the house shall appoint four members of the house to the board. Two members shall be from the house ways and means committee. Two members shall be from the house judiciary committee. The appointments shall include one member of each major political party represented on each committee.

The members of the board shall be qualified on the basis of knowledge and experience in matters relating to crime prevention and security or with such other abilities as may be expected to contribute to the effective performance of the board's duties. The members of the board shall meet with the chief of the Washington state patrol at least twice a year to perform the duties enumerated in section 7 of this act and to discuss any other matters related to organized crime. Members shall receive twenty-five dollars per diem for each day or major portion thereof plus reimbursement for actual travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in the same manner as provided for state officials generally in chapter 43.03 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The term of each member shall be two years and shall be conditioned upon such member retaining membership on the committee on which he was serving at the time of appointment and retaining membership in the same political party of which he was a member at the time of appointment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The board shall:

(1) Advise the governor on the objectives, conduct, management, and coordination of the various activities encompassing the overall state-wide organized crime intelligence effort;

(2) Conduct a continuing review and assessment of organized crime and related activities in which the organized crime intelligence unit of the Washington state patrol is engaged;

(3) Receive, consider and take appropriate action with respect to matters related to the board by the organized crime intelligence unit of the Washington state patrol in which the support of the board will further the effectiveness of the state-wide organized crime intelligence effort; and

(4) Report to the governor concerning the board's findings and appraisals, and make appropriate recommendations for actions to achieve increased effectiveness of the state's organized crime intelligence effort in meeting state and national organized crime intelligence needs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In order to facilitate performance of the board's functions, the chief of the Washington state patrol shall make available to the board all information with respect to organized crime and related matters which the board may require for the purpose of carrying out its responsibilities to the governor in accordance with the provisions of sections 1 through 8 of this act. Such information made available to the board shall be given all necessary security protection in accordance with the terms and provisions of applicable laws and regulations and shall not be revealed or divulged publicly or privately by members of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall be added to chapter 43.43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate April 11, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

CHAPTER 203

[Senate Bill No. 2833]

SHORELINE MANAGEMENT--RESIDENTIAL DOCKS-- ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

AN ACT Relating to shoreline management; amending section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.030; amending section 18, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.180; and adding a new section to chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 90.58 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.030 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions and concepts apply:

(1) Administration:

(a) "Department" means the department of ecology;

(b) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology;

(c) "Local government" means any county, incorporated city, or town which contains within its boundaries any lands or waters subject to this chapter;

(d) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, organization, cooperative, public or municipal corporation, or agency of the state or local governmental unit however designated;

(e) "Hearing board" means the shoreline hearings board established by this chapter.

(2) Geographical:

(a) "Extreme low tide" means the lowest line on the land reached by a receding tide;

(b) "Ordinary high water mark" on all lakes, streams, and tidal water is that mark that will be found by examining the bed and banks and ascertaining where the presence and action of waters are so common and usual, and so long continued in all ordinary years, as to mark upon the soil a character distinct from that of the abutting upland, in respect to vegetation as that condition exists on June 1, 1971 or as it may naturally change thereafter: PROVIDED, That in any area where the ordinary high water mark cannot be found, the ordinary high water mark adjoining salt water shall be the line of mean higher high tide and the ordinary high water mark adjoining fresh water shall be the line of mean high water;

(c) "Shorelines of the state" are the total of all "shorelines" and "shorelines of state-wide significance" within the state;

(d) "Shorelines" means all of the water areas of the state, including reservoirs, and their associated wetlands, together with the lands underlying them; except (i) shorelines of state-wide significance; (ii) shorelines on segments of streams upstream of a point where the mean annual flow is twenty cubic feet per second or less and the wetlands associated with such upstream segments; and (iii) shorelines on lakes less than twenty acres in size and wetlands associated with such small lakes;

(e) "Shorelines of state-wide significance" means the following shorelines of the state:

(i) The area between the ordinary high water mark and the western boundary of the state from Cape Disappointment on the south to Cape Flattery on the north, including harbors, bays, estuaries, and inlets;

(ii) Those areas of Puget Sound and adjacent salt waters and the Strait of Juan de Fuca between the ordinary high water mark and the line of extreme low tide as follows:

(A) Nisqually Delta--from DeWolf Bight to Tatsolo Point,

(B) Birch Bay--from Point Whitehorn to Birch Point,

(C) Hood Canal--from Tala Point to Foulweather Bluff,

(D) Skagit Bay and adjacent area--from Brown Point to Yokeko Point, and

(E) Padilla Bay--from March Point to William Point;

(iii) Those areas of Puget Sound and the Strait of Juan de Fuca and adjacent salt waters north to the Canadian line and lying seaward from the line of extreme low tide;

(iv) Those lakes, whether natural, artificial or a combination thereof, with a surface acreage of one thousand acres or more measured at the ordinary high water mark;

(v) Those natural rivers or segments thereof as follows:

(A) Any west of the crest of the Cascade range downstream of a point where the mean annual flow is measured at one thousand cubic feet per second or more,

(B) Any east of the crest of the Cascade range downstream of a point where the annual flow is measured at two hundred cubic feet per second or more, or those portions of rivers east of the crest of the Cascade range downstream from the first three hundred square miles of drainage area, whichever is longer;

(vi) Those wetlands associated with (i), (ii), (iv), and (v) of this subsection (2) (e);

(f) "Wetlands" or "wetland areas" means those lands extending landward for two hundred feet in all directions as measured on a horizontal plane from the ordinary high water mark; and all marshes, bogs, swamps, floodways, river deltas, and flood plains associated with the streams, lakes and tidal waters which are subject to the provisions of this chapter; the same to be designated as to location by the department of ecology.

(3) Procedural terms:

(a) "Guidelines" means those standards adopted to implement the policy of this chapter for regulation of use of the shorelines of the state prior to adoption of master programs. Such standards shall also provide criteria to local governments and the department in developing master programs;

(b) "Master program" shall mean the comprehensive use plan for a described area, and the use regulations together with maps, diagrams, charts or other descriptive material and text, a statement of desired goals and standards developed in accordance with the policies enunciated in RCW 90.58.020;

(c) "State master program" is the cumulative total of all master programs approved or adopted by the department of ecology;

(d) "Development" means a use consisting of the construction or exterior alteration of structures; dredging; drilling; dumping; filling; removal of any sand, gravel or minerals; bulkheading; driving of piling; placing of obstructions; or any project of a permanent or temporary nature which interferes with the normal public use of the surface of the waters overlying lands subject to this chapter at any state of water level;

(e) "Substantial development" shall mean any development of which the total cost or fair market value exceeds one thousand dollars, or any development which materially interferes with the normal public use of the water or shorelines of the state; except that the following shall not be considered substantial developments for the purpose of this chapter:

(i) Normal maintenance or repair of existing structures or developments, including damage by accident, fire or elements;

(ii) Construction of the normal protective bulkhead common to single family residences;

(iii) Emergency construction necessary to protect property from damage by the elements;

(iv) Construction of a barn or similar agricultural structure on wetlands;

(v) Construction or modification of navigational aids such as channel markers and anchor buoys;

(vi) Construction on wetlands by an owner, lessee or contract purchaser of a single family residence for his own use or for the use of his family, which residence does not exceed a height of thirty-five feet above average grade level and which meets all requirements of the state agency or local government having jurisdiction thereof, other than requirements imposed pursuant to this chapter;

(vii) Construction of a dock, designed for pleasure craft only, for the private noncommercial use of the owner, lessee or contract purchaser of a single family residence, the cost of which does not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars.

Sec. 2. Section 18, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by the granting or denying of a permit on shorelines of the state, or rescinding a permit pursuant to RCW 90.58.150 may seek review from the shorelines hearings board by filing a request for the same within thirty days of receipt of the final order. Concurrently with the filing of any request for review with the board as provided in this section pertaining to a final order of a local government, the requestor shall file a copy of his request with the department and the attorney general. If it appears to the department or the attorney general that the requestor has valid reasons to seek review, either the department or the attorney general may certify the request within thirty days after its receipt to the shorelines hearings board following which the board shall then, but not otherwise, review the matter covered by the requestor: PROVIDED, That the failure to obtain such certification shall not preclude the requestor from obtaining a review in the superior court under any right to review otherwise available to the requestor. The department and the attorney general may intervene to protect the public interest and insure that the provisions of this chapter are complied with at any time within forty-five days from the date of the filing of said copies by the requestor.

(2) The department or the attorney general may obtain review of any final order granting a permit, or granting or denying an application for a permit issued by a local government by filing a written request with the shorelines appeals board and the appropriate local government within forty-five days from the date the final order was filed as provided in subsection (5) of RCW 90.58.140.

(3) The review proceedings authorized in subsections (1) and (2) of this section are subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW pertaining to procedures in contested cases. ((The provisions of chapter 43.24B RCW and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto by the pollution control hearings board, insofar as they are not inconsistent with chapter 34.04 RCW, relating to the procedures for the conduct of hearings and judicial review thereof, shall be applicable to all requests for review as provided for in subsections (1) and (2) of this section:)) Judicial review of such proceedings of the shorelines hearings board may be had as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(4) Local government may appeal to the shorelines hearings board any rules, regulations, guidelines, designations, or master programs for shorelines of the state adopted or approved by the department within thirty days of the date of the adoption or approval. The board shall make a final decision within sixty days following the hearing held thereon.

(a) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines, the board, after full consideration of the positions of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the master program. If the board determines that said program:

(i) is clearly erroneous in light of the policy of this chapter; or

(ii) constitutes an implementation of this chapter in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions; or

(iii) is arbitrary and capricious; or

(iv) was developed without fully considering and evaluating all proposed master programs submitted to the department by the local government; or

(v) was not adopted in accordance with required procedures; the board shall enter a final decision declaring the program invalid, remanding the master program to the department with a statement of the reasons in support of the determination, and directing the department to adopt, after a thorough consultation with the affected local government, a new master program. Unless the board makes one or more of the determinations as hereinbefore provided, the board shall find the master program to be valid and enter a final decision to that effect.

(b) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines of state-wide significance the board shall approve the master program adopted by the department unless a local government shall, by clear and convincing evidence and argument, persuade the board that the master program approved by the department is inconsistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines.

(c) In an appeal relating to rules, regulations, guidelines, master programs of state-wide significance, and designations, the standard of review provided in RCW 34.04.070 shall apply.

(5) Rules, regulations, designations, master programs, and guidelines shall be subject to review in superior court, if authorized pursuant to RCW 34.04.070: PROVIDED, That no review shall be granted by a superior court on petition from a local government unless the local government shall first have obtained review under subsection (4) of this section and the petition for court review is filed within three months after the date of final decision by the shorelines hearings board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The shorelines hearings board may adopt rules and regulations governing the administrative practice and procedure in and before the board.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973.

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866]

WINE TAX

AN ACT Relating to revenue and taxation, particularly to the taxation of liquor; amending section 82.08.150, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 9, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.150; amending section 24A added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. by section 3, chapter 158, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 3, chapter 21, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.210; adding a new section to chapter 66.24 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 82.08.150, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 9, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and shall be collected a tax upon each retail sale of spirits, ~~((wine;))~~ or strong beer in the original package at the rate of ten percent of the selling price, and the term "retail sale" as used herein shall include, in addition to the meaning ascribed thereto in chapter 82.04, any sale for resale to the holder of a class C, class F, class H or combined class C and class F license issued by the Washington state liquor control board(~~PROVIDED, That from and after July 1, 1969 the tax upon each retail sale of wine under this subsection (4) shall be at the rate of twenty-six percent of the selling price)~~). The tax imposed in this section shall apply to all sales of spirits, ~~((wine;))~~ or strong beer by the Washington state liquor stores and agencies, including sales to licensees(~~but shall not apply to sales of wine in the unopened bottle by licensees who have paid the tax imposed by this subsection (4) to their vendors on the acquisition of such wine)~~). The tax imposed in RCW 82.08.020 as now or hereafter amended shall not apply to sales by the Washington state liquor control board stores and agencies of products subject to the tax imposed by this section.

(2) There is levied and shall be collected from and after the first day of April, 1959, an additional tax upon each retail sale of spirits, or strong beer in the original package at the rate of five percent of the selling price, and the term "retail sale" as used herein shall include the meaning ascribed thereto in chapter 82.04. The additional tax imposed in this paragraph shall apply to the sale of spirits, or strong beer by the Washington state liquor stores and agencies, excluding sales to class H licensees. The tax imposed in RCW 82.08.020 as now or hereafter amended shall not apply to sales by the Washington state liquor control board stores and agencies of products subject to the tax imposed by this paragraph.

(3) There is levied and shall be collected from and after the first day of July, 1971, an additional tax upon each retail sale of spirits in the original package at the rate of four cents per fluid ounce or fraction thereof contained in such original package, and the term "retail sale" as used herein shall include the meaning ascribed thereto in chapter 82.04. The additional tax imposed in this paragraph shall apply to the sale of spirits by the Washington state liquor stores and agencies, including sales to class H licensees. The tax imposed in RCW 82.08.020 as now or hereafter amended shall not apply to sales subject to the tax imposed by this paragraph. On or before the twenty-fifth day of each month beginning with the month of July, 1961, the Washington state liquor control board shall remit to the state department of revenue, to be deposited with the state treasurer, all moneys collected by it under this paragraph during the preceding month on sales made and subject to this paragraph. Upon receipt of such moneys the state treasurer shall deposit them in the state general fund and the provisions of RCW 82.08.160 and 82.08.170, and the provisions of chapter 66.08 relating to deposits, apportionment and distribution, shall have no application to the collections under this paragraph.

(4) As used in this section, the terms, "spirits," "wine," "strong beer," and "package" shall have the meaning ascribed to them in chapter 66.04.

Sec. 2. Section 24A added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. by section 3, chapter 158, Laws of 1935, as last amended by section 3, chapter 21, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.210 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby imposed upon all wines sold to ~~((retail licensees))~~ wine wholesalers and the Washington state liquor control board, within the state a tax of ~~((ten))~~ seventy-five cents per wine gallon: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That wine sold or shipped in bulk from one ~~((domestic))~~ winery to another ~~((domestic))~~ winery shall not be subject to such gallonage tax. The tax herein provided for may, if so prescribed by the board, be collected by means of stamps to be furnished by the board, or by direct payments based on gallonage ~~((sales))~~ purchased by wine wholesalers. Every person ~~((selling))~~ purchasing wine under the provisions of this section shall report all sales to the board in such manner, at such times and upon such forms as may be prescribed by the board ~~((in accordance with RCW 66.24.230))~~, and with such report shall pay the tax due from the ~~((sales))~~ purchases covered by such report unless the same has previously been paid. If this tax be collected by means of stamps, every such person shall procure from the board revenue stamps representing the tax in such form as the board shall prescribe and shall affix the same to the package or container in such manner and in such denomination as required by the board and shall cancel the same prior to the delivery of the package or container containing the wine to the purchaser. If the tax is not collected by means of stamps, the board may require that every such person shall execute to and file with the board a bond to be approved by the board, in such amount as the board may fix, securing the payment of the tax. If any such person fails to pay the tax when due, the board may forthwith suspend or cancel his license until all taxes are paid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby added to chapter 66.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There is hereby imposed upon every licensed wine wholesaler who possesses wine for resale upon which the tax has not been paid under section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act, a floor stocks tax of sixty-five cents per wine gallon on wine in his possession or under his control on June 30, 1973. Each such wholesaler shall within twenty days after June 30, 1973, file a report with the Washington State liquor control board in such form as the board may prescribe, showing the wine products on hand July 1, 1973, converted to gallons thereof and the amount of tax due thereon. The tax imposed by this section shall be due and payable within twenty days after July 1, 1973, and thereafter bear interest at the rate of one percent per month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect the first day of July, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 15, 1973.

Passed the House April 15, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

CHAPTER 205

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2153]

COMMUNITY COLLEGES--PROFESSIONAL NEGOTIATIONS

AN ACT Relating to community college districts; amending section 2, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.020; amending section 3, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.030; amending section 5, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.060; amending section 7, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.080; adding a new section to chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.52 RCW; and creating a new section; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

"Employee organization" means any organization which includes as members the academic employees of a community college district and which has as one of its purposes the representation of the employees in their employment relations with the community college district.

"Academic employee" means any teacher, counselor, librarian, or department head, (~~division head, or administrator,~~) who is employed by any community college district, with the exception of the chief administrative officer of, and any administrator in, each community college district.

"Administrator" means any person employed either full or part time by the community college district and who performs administrative functions as at least fifty percent or more of his assignments, and has responsibilities to hire, dismiss, or discipline other employees. Administrators shall not be members of the bargaining unit unless a majority of such administrators and a majority of the bargaining unit elect by secret ballot for such inclusion pursuant to rules and regulations as adopted in accordance with section 5 of the 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Representatives of an employee organization, which organization shall by secret ballot have won a majority in an election to represent the academic employees within its community college district, shall have the right, after using established administrative channels, to meet, confer and negotiate with the board of trustees of the community college district (~~or a committee thereof~~) or its delegated representative(s) to communicate the considered professional judgment of the academic staff prior to the final adoption by the board of proposed community college district policies relating to, but not limited to, curriculum, textbook selection, in-service training, student teaching programs, personnel, hiring and assignment practices, leaves of absence, salaries and salary schedules and noninstructional duties.

V It is further determined that any agreement involving union security including an all-union agreement or agency agreement must safeguard the rights of nonassociation of employees, based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member. And unless other arrangements are agreed upon between the labor organization and the employee, such employee must pay an amount of money equivalent to regular dues and initiation fees and assessments, if any, to a nonreligious charity or to another charitable organization mutually agreed upon by the employee affected and the representative of the labor organization to which such employee would otherwise pay dues. The employee shall furnish written proof that this has been done. If the employee and representative of the labor organization do not reach agreement on the matter, the board shall designate such organization.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the authority to convene an impasse committee, the director of the state system of community colleges is authorized to conduct fact-finding and mediation activities upon the consent of both parties as a means of assisting in the settlement of unresolved matters considered under this chapter.

In the event that any matter being jointly considered by the employee organization and the board of trustees of the community college district is not settled by the means provided in this chapter, either party, twenty-four hours after serving written notice of its intended action to the other party, may, with the concurrence of the director, request the assistance and advice of a committee ((composed of educators and community college district trustees)) appointed by the director ((of the state system of community colleges)). This committee ((shall)) may make a written report with recommendations to both parties within twenty calendar days of receipt of the request for assistance. Any recommendations of the committee shall be advisory only and not binding upon the board of trustees or the employee organization.

The state board for community college education is authorized to make rules governing the operations of impasse committees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

At the conclusion of any negotiation processes as provided for in section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act, any matter upon which the parties have reached agreement shall be reduced to writing and acted upon in a regular or special meeting of the boards of trustees, and become part of the official proceedings of said board meeting. The length of terms within any such agreement shall be for not more than three fiscal years. These agreements will not be binding upon future actions of the legislature.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Boards of trustees of community college districts shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the administration of employer-employee relations under this chapter. The boards may request the services of the department of labor and industries to assist in the conduction of certification elections as provided for in section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and chapter 28B.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Nothing in chapter 28B.52 RCW as now or hereafter amended shall compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession, nor shall any provision in chapter 28B.52 as now or hereafter amended be construed as limiting or precluding the exercise by each community college board of trustees of any powers or duties authorized or provided to it by law unless such exercise is contrary to the terms and conditions of any lawful negotiated agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec 8. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 27, 1973.

Passed the House April 9, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973, with the exception of an item in section 2 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2153, entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to community college districts."

Senate Bill No. 2153 amends the Community College Professional Negotiations Act and it represents the extensive efforts of the Joint Committee on Higher Education in conjunction with faculty organizations and administrators to develop needed procedural amendments to that act. This is desirable legislation which I fully support.

A floor amendment to section 2 of the bill was added ^{Veto} _{Message} in the Senate which provides that:

"It is further determined that any agreement involving union security including an all-union agreement or agency agreement must safeguard the rights of nonassociation of employees, based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member."

This amendment then provides that such an employee must pay an amount of money equivalent to regular dues and initiation fees and assessments, if any, to a charitable organization.

The floor amendment added in the Senate is relatively standard language inserted where legislation authorizes an agency or union shop provision. However, Chapter 28B.52 RCW, of which this section will become a part, does not specifically authorize an agency or union shop. In fact, a section contained in that Chapter specifically states that there shall be no discrimination against academic employees or applicants for such positions because of their membership or non-membership in employee organizations.

The addition of this paragraph in section 2 could be interpreted as enlarging the scope of negotiations by allowing academic employees to negotiate an agency or union shop clause in collective bargaining agreements. I do not believe such a consequence should be allowed to occur as a result of an inference from language intended for an entirely different purpose.

If an agency or union shop clause could be negotiated under current law this language assuring religious freedom would be highly desirable. But, since there is not currently legal authorization for an agency or union shop, I have determined to veto the item contained within lines 20 through 33 of page 2 of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2153.

With the exception of that item, the remainder of the bill is approved."

CHAPTER 206
[Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2183]
ELECTRICIANS--REGULATION AND LICENSING

AN ACT Relating to business and professions; adding a new chapter to Title 18 RCW; prescribing penalties; and creating a new section.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meaning:

(1) "Advisory board" means the state advisory board of electricians;

(2) "Apprentice electrician" means any person engaged in learning the trade of electrical and who, under the supervision of a journeyman electrician, performs the actual work necessary to assemble, construct, install, repair, or modify electrical installations;

(3) "Department" means the department of labor and industries;

(4) "Director" means director of department of labor and industries;

(5) "Journeyman electrician" means any person who has been issued a certificate of competency by the department of labor and industries as provided in this chapter for the installation of electrical equipment for light, heat, or power.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) No person shall engage in the business or trade as a journeyman electrician without having a current certificate of competency issued by the department in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) No person shall engage in the business or trade as an electrical apprentice without having a current apprentice permit issued by the department in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(3) The business or trade of electrician, as herein used, shall encompass all acts involving installation or maintenance of the distribution of electricity, except as is hereinafter specifically excluded.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any person desiring to be issued a certificate of competency as provided in this chapter shall deliver evidence in a form prescribed by the department affirming that said person has had sufficient experience in as well as demonstrated general competency in the electrical trade so as to qualify him to make an application for a certificate of competency as a journeyman electrician: PROVIDED, That successful completion of a course of study in the electrical trade as defined by this 1973 act in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the coordinating council on occupational education shall constitute sufficient evidence of experience and competency to enable such person to make application for a certificate of competency: PROVIDED FURTHER, That completion of such a course of study shall be substitutable for the practical experience required by section 4 of this 1973 act only according to the duration of the course.

In addition to supplying the evidence as prescribed in this section, each applicant for a certificate of competency shall submit an application for such certificate on such form and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the director of the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Upon receipt of the application and evidence set forth in section 3 of this act, the director shall review the same and make a determination as to whether the applicant is eligible to take an examination for the certificate of competency. To be eligible to take the examination the applicant must have worked as an apprentice electrician, as defined in section 1 of this 1973 act, for four years, or have satisfactorily attended for up to a maximum of two years and successfully completed an accredited vocational or technical school program related to the electrical trade or shall furnish written evidence that he has had at least four years practical experience in the wiring for the installation of electrical equipment of light, heat, and power. No other requirement for eligibility may be imposed. The director shall establish reasonable rules and regulations for the examinations to be given applicants for certificates of competency. In establishing said rules, regulations, and criteria, the director shall consult with the state advisory board of electricians as established in section 10 of this 1973 act. Upon determination that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the director shall so notify him, indicating the time and place for taking the same.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department, in coordination with the advisory board, shall prepare a written examination to be administered to applicants for certificates of competency. The examination shall be so constructed to determine:

(1) Whether the applicant possesses varied general knowledge of the technical information and practical procedures that is identified with the status of journeyman electrician; and

(2) Whether the applicant is sufficiently familiar with the applicable electrical codes and the administrative rules and regulations of the department pertaining to electrical installations and electricians.

The department shall administer at least twice annually the examination to persons eligible to take the same under the provisions of section 4 of this 1973 act. All applicants shall, before taking such examination, pay to the department a fifteen dollar fee: PROVIDED, That any applicant taking said examination shall pay only such additional fee as is necessary to cover the costs of administering such additional examination.

The department shall certify the results of said examination, upon such terms and after such period of time as the director, in cooperation with the advisory board, shall deem necessary and proper.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department shall issue a certificate of competency to all applicants who have passed the examination provided in section 5 of this 1973 act, and who have otherwise complied with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated thereto. The certificate shall bear the date of issuance, and shall expire on the first of July immediately following the date of issuance. The certificate shall be renewable annually, upon application, on or before the first of July. An annual renewal fee of fifteen dollars shall be assessed for each certificate: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any person, firm or corporation, licensed and bonded pursuant to the provisions of RCW 19.28.120 shall not be assessed and shall not be required to pay the annual renewal fee for certification of competency.

The certificates of competency or permits provided for in this chapter shall grant the holder the right to engage in the work of electrical installation as a journeyman electrician in accordance with its provisions throughout the state and within any of its political subdivisions without additional proof of competency or any other license or permit or fee to engage in such work.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. No examination shall be required of any applicant for a certificate of competency who, on the effective date of this 1973 act, was engaged in a bona fide business or trade as a journeyman electrician in the state of Washington. Applicants qualifying under this section shall be issued a certificate by the department upon making an application as provided in section 3 of this 1973 act and paying the fee required under section 5 of this 1973 act: PROVIDED, That no applicant under this section shall be required to furnish such evidence as required by section 3 of this 1973 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department is authorized to grant and issue temporary permits in lieu of certificates of competency whenever an electrician coming into the state of Washington from another state requests the department for a temporary permit to engage in the business and trade of electrical installation as a journeyman during the period of time between filing of an application for a certificate as provided in section 3 of this 1973 act and taking the examination provided for in section 5 of this 1973 act:

PROVIDED, That the department is authorized to enter into reciprocal agreements with other states' providing for the acceptance of such states' journeyman certificate of competency or its equivalent when such states requirements are equal to the standards set by this act: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no temporary permit shall be issued to:

(1) Any person who has failed to pass the examination for a certificate of competency;

(2) Any applicant under this section who has not furnished the department with such evidence required under section 3 of this 1973 act;

(3) To any apprentice electrician.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The department may revoke any certificate of competency upon the following grounds:

(a) The certificate was obtained through error or fraud;

(b) The holder thereof is judged to be incompetent to carry on the business and trade of electrical installations as a journeyman electrician;

(c) The holder thereof has violated any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated thereto.

(2) Before any certificate of competency shall be revoked, the holder thereof shall be given written notice of the department's intention to do so, mailed by registered mail, return receipt requested, to said holder's last known address. Said notice shall enumerate the allegations against such holder, and shall give him the opportunity to request a hearing before the advisory board. At such hearing, the department and the holder shall have opportunity to produce witnesses and give testimony. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall render its decision based upon the testimony and evidence presented, and shall notify the parties immediately upon reaching its decision. A majority of the board shall be necessary to render a decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) There is created a state advisory board of electricians, to be composed of three members appointed by the governor. One member shall be a journeyman electrician, one member shall be a person conducting an electrical installation business, and one member from the general public who is familiar with the business and trade of electrical installations.

(2) The initial terms of the members of the advisory board shall be one, two, and three years respectively as set forth in subsection (1) of this section. Upon the expiration of said terms, the governor shall appoint a new member to serve for a period of three years. In the case of any vacancy on the board for any reason, the governor shall appoint a new member to serve out the term of the person whose position has become vacant. This shall not be construed to mean the governor cannot reappoint a member.

(3) The advisory board shall carry out all the functions and duties enumerated in this chapter, as well as generally advise the department on all matters relative to this chapter.

(4) Each member of the advisory board shall receive compensation and expenses in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for each day in which such member is actually engaged in attendance upon the meetings of the advisory board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Every apprentice shall register with the department.

(2) The department shall issue to such apprentice, upon such form and under such terms as the director and the advisory board shall by agreement deem proper, an apprentice permit to work in the business and trade of electrical installations as an apprentice: PROVIDED, That such work shall be done under the supervision of a journeyman electrician.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. All moneys received from certificates, permits, or other sources, shall be paid to the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The director may promulgate rules, make specific decisions, orders, and rulings, including therein demands and findings, and take other necessary action for the implementation and enforcement of his duties under this chapter: PROVIDED, That in the administration of this act the director shall not enter any controversy arising over work assignments with respect to the trades involved in the construction industry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require that a person obtain a license or a certified electrician in order to do electrical work at his residence or farm or place of business or on other property owned by him: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing in this chapter shall be intended to derogate from or dispense with the requirements of any valid electrical code enacted by a political subdivision of the state, except that no code shall require the holder of a certificate of competency to demonstrate any additional proof of competency or obtain any other license or pay any fee in order to engage in the trade of electrical installation: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That this chapter shall not apply to common carriers subject to Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act, nor to their officers and employees: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to apply to the installation or maintenance of communications or electronic circuits, wires and apparatus, radio or television stations; nor to any electrical public utility or its employees, in the installations and maintenance of electrical wiring, circuits, apparatus, and equipment by or for such public utility, or comprising a part of its plants, lines or systems. The licensing provisions of this act shall not apply to persons making electrical installations on their own property or to regularly employed employees working on the premises of their employer: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to restrict the right of any householder to assist or receive assistance from a friend, neighbor, relative or other person when none of the individuals doing such electrical installation hold themselves out as engaged in the trade or business of electrical installations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Violation of this chapter or of the department rules and regulations provided for in this chapter by a person, firm, or corporation, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than fifty dollars. Each day of such violation constitutes a separate offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 1 through 15 of this 1973 act are added as a new chapter to Title 18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. This bill shall not take effect until the funds necessary for its implementation have been specifically appropriated by the legislature and such appropriation itself has become law. It is the intention of the legislature that if the governor shall veto this section or any item thereof, none of the provisions of this bill shall take effect.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Passed the House April 12, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973, with the exception of Section 17 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill No. 2183 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to business and professions."

This act will provide a system of certification of electricians and their apprentices at the state level, administered by the department of labor and industries. Section 17 of this act provides that it will not take effect until funds have been appropriated to implement its provisions. However, section 17 further provides that should the Governor veto section 17, or any item in section 17, then none of the provisions of the bill will take effect.

The language in section 17, prohibiting the act from taking effect if section 17 is vetoed, is patently unconstitutional and irrelevant. If given weight, such a provision would have the effect of prohibiting the use of the veto power wherever such language appeared. The veto power of the Governor is based in, and authorized by, the State Constitution. To suggest that this language, adopted by a majority vote, could prohibit the exercise of a constitutionally granted power is to suggest that the legislature can amend the Constitution by a majority vote, rather than two-thirds vote, and without referring such amendment to the people. Inasmuch as section 17 is so clearly unconstitutional, and as such is superfluous and constitutes only extra verbiage, I have determined to veto it.

Veto
Message

With the exception of section 17, which I have vetoed for the reasons set out above, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 2183 is approved."

CHAPTER 207

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2226]

RESIDENTIAL LANDLORD-TENANT

ACT OF 1973

AN ACT Relating to the lease and rental of property; creating a new chapter in Title 59 RCW; and creating new sections.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Sections 1 through 42 and 46 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be known and may be cited as the "Residential Landlord-Tenant Act of 1973", and shall constitute a new chapter in Title 59 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Every duty under this chapter and every act which must be performed as a condition precedent to the exercise of a right or remedy under this chapter imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Dwelling unit" is a structure or that part of a structure which is used as a home, residence, or sleeping place by one person or by two or more persons maintaining a common household, including but not limited to single family residences and units of multiplexes, apartment buildings, and mobile homes.

(2) "Landlord" means the owner, lessor, or sublessor of the dwelling unit or the property of which it is a part, and in addition means any person designated as representative of the landlord.

(3) "Person" means an individual, group of individuals, corporation, government, or governmental agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(4) "Owner" means one or more persons, jointly or severally, in whom is vested:

(a) All or any part of the legal title to property; or

(b) All or part of the beneficial ownership, and a right to present use and enjoyment of the property.

(5) "Premises" means a dwelling unit, appurtenances thereto, grounds, and facilities held out for the use of tenants generally and any other area or facility which is held out for use by the tenant.

(6) "Rental agreement" means all agreements which establish or modify the terms, conditions, rules, regulations, or any other provisions concerning the use and occupancy of a dwelling unit.

(7) A "single family residence" is a structure maintained and used as a single dwelling unit. Notwithstanding that a dwelling unit shares one or more walls with another dwelling unit, it shall be deemed a single family residence if it has direct access to a street and shares neither heating facilities nor hot water equipment, nor any other essential facility or service, with any other dwelling unit.

(8) A "tenant" is any person who is entitled to occupy a dwelling unit primarily for living or dwelling purposes under a rental agreement.

(9) "Reasonable attorney's fees", where authorized in this chapter, means an amount to be determined including the following factors: The time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly, the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services, the amount involved and the results obtained, and the experience, reputation and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The following living arrangements are not intended to be governed by the provisions of this chapter, unless established primarily to avoid its application, in which event the provisions of this chapter shall control:

(1) Residence at an institution, whether public or private, where residence is merely incidental to detention or the provision of medical, religious, educational, recreational, or similar services, including but not limited to correctional facilities, licensed nursing homes, monasteries and convents, and hospitals;

(2) Occupancy under a bona fide earnest money agreement to purchase, bona fide option to purchase, or contract of sale of the dwelling unit or the property of which it is a part, where the tenant is, or stands in the place of, the purchaser;

(3) Residence in a hotel, motel, or other transient lodging whose operation is defined in RCW 19.48.010;

(4) Rental agreements entered into pursuant to the provisions of chapter 47.12 RCW where occupancy is by an owner-condemnee and where such agreement does not violate the public policy of this state of ensuring decent, safe, and sanitary housing and is so certified by the consumer protection division of the attorney general's office;

(5) Rental agreements for the use of any single family residence which are incidental to leases or rentals entered into in connection with a lease of land to be used primarily for agricultural purposes;

(6) Rental agreements providing housing for seasonal agricultural employees while provided in conjunction with such employment;

(7) Rental agreements with the state of Washington, department of natural resources, on public lands governed by Title 79 RCW;

(8) Occupancy by an employee of a landlord whose right to occupy is conditioned upon employment in or about the premises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The district or superior courts of this state may exercise jurisdiction over any landlord or tenant with respect to any conduct in this state governed by this chapter or with respect to any claim arising from a transaction subject to this chapter within the respective jurisdictions of the district or superior courts as provided in Article IV, section 6 of the constitution of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The landlord will at all times during the tenancy keep the premises fit for human habitation, and shall in particular:

(1) Maintain the premises to substantially comply with any applicable code, statute, ordinance, or regulation governing their maintenance or operation, which the legislative body enacting the applicable code, statute, ordinance or regulation could enforce as to the premises rented if such condition substantially endangers or V- [impairs the health or safety of the tenant];

(2) Maintain the roofs, floors, walls, chimneys, fireplaces, foundations, and all other structural components in reasonably good repair so as to be usable and capable of resisting any and all normal forces and loads to which they may be subjected;

(3) Keep any shared or common areas reasonably clean, sanitary, and safe from defects increasing the hazards of fire or accident;

(4) Provide a reasonable program for the control of infestation by insects, rodents, and other pests at the initiation of the tenancy and, except in the case of a single family residence, control infestation during tenancy except where such infestation is caused by the tenant;

(5) Except where the condition is attributable to normal wear and tear, make repairs and arrangements necessary to put and keep the premises in as good condition as it by law or rental agreement should have been, at the commencement of the tenancy;

(6) Provide reasonably adequate locks and furnish keys to the tenant;

(7) Maintain all electrical, plumbing, heating, and other facilities and appliances supplied by him in reasonably good working order;

(8) Maintain the dwelling unit in reasonably weathertight condition;

(9) Except in the case of a single family residence, provide and maintain appropriate receptacles in common areas for the removal of ashes, rubbish, and garbage, incidental to the occupancy and arrange for the reasonable and regular removal of such waste;

(10) Except where the building is not equipped for the purpose, provide facilities adequate to supply heat and water and hot water as reasonably required by the tenant;

(11) Designate to the tenant the name and address of the person who is the landlord by a statement on the rental agreement or by a notice conspicuously posted on the premises. The tenant shall be notified immediately of any changes by certified mail or by an updated posting. If the person designated in this section does not reside in the state where the premises are located, there shall also be designated a person who resides in the county who is authorized to act as an agent for the purposes of service of notices and process, and if no designation is made of a person to act as agent, then the person to whom rental payments are to be made shall be considered such agent.

No duty shall devolve upon the landlord to repair a defective condition under this section, nor shall any defense or remedy be available to the tenant under this chapter, where the defective condition complained of was caused by the conduct of such tenant, his family, invitee, or other person acting under his control, or where a tenant unreasonably fails to allow the landlord access to the property for purposes of repair. When the duty imposed by subsection (1) of this section is incompatible with and greater than the duty imposed by any other provisions of this section, the landlord's duty shall be determined pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If at any time during the tenancy the landlord fails to carry out the duties required by section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act, the tenant may, in addition to pursuit of remedies otherwise provided him by law, deliver written notice to the person designated in subsection (11) of section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act, or to the person who collects the rent, which notice shall specify the premises involved, the name of the owner, if known, and the nature of the defective condition. For the purposes of this chapter, a reasonable time for the landlord to commence remedial action after receipt of such notice by the tenant shall be, except where circumstances are beyond the landlord's control;

(1) Not more than twenty-four hours, where the defective condition deprives the tenant of water or heat or is imminently hazardous to life;

(2) Not more than forty-eight hours, where the landlord fails to provide hot water or electricity;

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, not more than seven days in the case of a repair under section 10 (3) of this 1973 amendatory act;

(4) Not more than thirty days in all other cases.

In each instance the burden shall be on the landlord to see that remedial work under this section is completed with reasonable promptness.

V- [Where circumstances beyond the landlord's control, including the availability of financing, prevent him from complying with the time limitations set forth in this section, he shall endeavor to remedy the defective condition with all reasonable speed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The tenant shall be current in the payment of rent [including all utilities which the tenant has agreed

V- [in the rental agreement to pay] before exercising any of the remedies accorded him under the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED, That this section shall not be construed as limiting the tenant's civil remedies for negligent or intentional damages: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section shall not be construed as limiting the tenant's right in an unlawful detainer proceeding to raise the defense that there is no rent due and owing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If, after receipt of written notice, and expiration of the applicable period of time, as provided in section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act, the landlord fails to remedy the defective condition within a reasonable time the tenant may:

(1) Terminate the rental agreement and quit the premises upon written notice to the landlord without further obligation under the rental agreement, in which case he shall be discharged from payment of rent for any period following the quitting date, and shall be entitled to a pro rata refund of any prepaid rent, and shall receive a full and specific statement of the basis for retaining any of the deposit together with any refund due in accordance with section 28 of this 1973 amendatory act;

(2) Bring an action in an appropriate court, or at arbitration if so agreed, for any remedy provided under this chapter or otherwise provided by law; or

(3) Pursue other remedies available under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) If at any time during the tenancy, the landlord fails to carry out any of the duties imposed by section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act, and notice of the defect is given to the landlord pursuant to section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act, the tenant may submit to the landlord or his designated agent by certified mail or in person at least two bids to perform the repairs necessary to correct the defective condition from licensed or registered persons, or if no licensing or registration requirement applies to the type of work to be performed, from responsible persons capable of performing such repairs. Such bids may be submitted to the landlord at the same time as notice is given pursuant to section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That the remedy provided in this section shall not be available for a landlord's failure to carry out the duties in subsections (6), (9), and (11) of section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act.

(2) If the landlord fails to commence repair of the defective condition within a reasonable time after receipt of notice from the tenant, the tenant may contract with the person submitting the lowest bid to make the repair, and upon the completion of the repair and an opportunity for inspection by the landlord or his designated agent, the tenant may deduct the cost of repair from the rent in an amount not to exceed the sum expressed in dollars representing one month's rental of the tenant's unit in any twelve-month period: PROVIDED, That when the landlord must commence to remedy the defective condition within thirty days as provided in subsection (4) of section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act, the tenant cannot contract for repairs for at least fifteen days following receipt of said bids by the landlord: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the total costs of repairs deducted in any twelve-month period under this subsection shall not exceed the sum expressed in dollars representing one month's rental of the tenant's unit.

(3) If the landlord fails to carry out the duties imposed by section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act within a reasonable time, and if the cost of repair does not exceed one-half month's rent, including the cost of materials and labor, which shall be computed at the prevailing rate in the community for the performance of such work, and if repair of the condition need not by law be performed only by licensed or registered persons, the tenant may repair the defective condition in a workmanlike manner and upon completion of the repair and an opportunity for inspection, the tenant may deduct the cost of repair from the rent: PROVIDED, That repairs under this subsection are limited to defects within the leased premises: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the total costs of repairs deducted in any twelve-month period under this subsection shall not exceed one-half month's rent of the unit or seventy-five dollars in any twelve-month period, whichever is the lesser.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not:

(a) Create a relationship of employer and employee between landlord and tenant; or

(b) Create liability under the workmen's compensation act; or

(c) Constitute the tenant as an agent of the landlord for the purposes of RCW 60.04.010 and 60.04.040.

(5) Any repair work performed under the provisions of this section shall comply with the requirements imposed by any applicable code, statute, ordinance, or regulation. A landlord whose property is damaged because of repairs performed in a negligent manner may recover the actual damages in an action against the tenant.

(6) Nothing in this section shall prevent the tenant from agreeing with the landlord to undertake the repairs himself in return for cash payment or a reasonable reduction in rent, the agreement thereof to be agreed upon between the parties, and such agreement does not alter the landlord's obligations under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) If a court or an arbitrator determines that:

(a) A landlord has failed to carry out a duty or duties imposed by section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act; and

(b) A reasonable time has passed for the landlord to remedy the defective condition following notice to the landlord in accordance with section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act or such other time as may be allotted by the court or arbitrator; the court or arbitrator may determine the diminution in rental value of the premises due to the defective condition and shall render judgment against the landlord for the rent paid in excess of such diminished rental value from the time of notice of such defect to the time of decision and any costs of repair done pursuant to section 10 of this 1973 amendatory act for which no deduction has been previously made. Such decisions may be enforced as other judgments at law and shall be available to the tenant as a set-off against any existing or subsequent claims of the landlord.

The court or arbitrator may also authorize the tenant to make or contract to make further corrective repairs: PROVIDED, That the court specifies a time period in which the landlord may make such repairs before the tenant may commence or contract for such repairs:

PROVIDED FURTHER, That such repairs shall not exceed the sum expressed in dollars representing one month's rental of the tenant's unit in any one calendar year.

(2) The tenant shall not be obligated to pay rent in excess of the diminished rental value of the premises until such defect or defects are corrected by the landlord or until the court or arbitrator determines otherwise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If a court or arbitrator determines a defective condition as described in section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act to be so substantial that it is unfeasible for the landlord to remedy the defect within the time allotted by section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act, and that the tenant should not remain in the dwelling unit in its defective condition, the court or arbitrator may authorize the termination of the tenancy: PROVIDED, That the court or arbitrator shall set a reasonable time for the tenant to vacate the premises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Each tenant shall pay the rental amount at such times and in such amounts as provided for in the rental agreement or as otherwise provided by law and comply with all obligations imposed upon tenants by applicable provisions of all municipal, county, and state codes, statutes, ordinances, and regulations, and in addition shall:

(1) Keep that part of the premises which he occupies and uses as clean and sanitary as the conditions of the premises permit;

(2) Properly dispose from his dwelling unit all rubbish, garbage, and other organic or flammable waste, in a clean and sanitary manner at reasonable and regular intervals, and assume all costs of extermination and fumigation for infestation caused by the tenant;

(3) Properly use and operate all electrical, gas, heating, plumbing and other fixtures and appliances supplied by the landlord;

(4) Not intentionally or negligently destroy, deface, damage, impair, or remove any part of the structure or dwelling, with the appurtenances thereto, including the facilities, equipment, furniture, furnishings, and appliances, or permit any member of his family, invitee, licensee, or any person acting under his control to do so;

(5) Not permit a nuisance or common waste; and

(6) Upon termination and vacation, restore the premises to their initial condition except for reasonable wear and tear or conditions caused by failure of the landlord to comply with his obligations under this chapter: PROVIDED, That the tenant shall not be charged for normal cleaning if he has paid a nonrefundable cleaning fee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The tenant shall conform to all reasonable obligations or restrictions, whether denominated by the landlord as rules, rental agreement, rent, or otherwise, concerning the use, occupation, and maintenance of his dwelling unit, appurtenances thereto, and the property of which the dwelling unit is a part if such obligations and restrictions are not in violation of any of the terms of this chapter and are not otherwise contrary to law, and if such obligations and restrictions are brought to the attention of the tenant at the time of his initial occupancy of the dwelling unit and thus become part of the rental agreement. Except for termination of tenancy, after thirty days written notice to each tenant, a new rule of tenancy may become effective upon completion of the term of the rental agreement or sooner upon mutual consent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The tenant shall not unreasonably withhold consent to the landlord to enter into the dwelling unit in order to inspect the premises, make necessary or agreed repairs, alterations, or improvements, supply necessary or agreed services, or exhibit the dwelling unit to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workmen, or contractors.

(2) The landlord may enter the dwelling unit without consent of the tenant in case of emergency or abandonment.

(3) The landlord shall not abuse the right of access or use it to harass the tenant. Except in the case of emergency or if it is impracticable to do so, the landlord shall give the tenant at least two days' notice of his intent to enter and shall enter only at reasonable times.

(4) The landlord has no other right of access except by court order, arbitrator or by consent of the tenant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If, after receipt of written notice, as provided in section 17 of this 1973 amendatory act, the tenant fails to remedy the defective condition within a reasonable time, the landlord may:

(1) Bring an action in an appropriate court, or at arbitration if so agreed for any remedy provided under this chapter or otherwise provided by law; or

(2) Pursue other remedies available under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If at any time during the tenancy the tenant fails to carry out the duties required by sections 13 or 14 of this 1973 amendatory act, the landlord may, in addition to pursuit of remedies otherwise provided by law, give written notice to the tenant of said failure, which notice shall specify the nature of the failure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If the tenant fails to comply with any portion of sections 13 or 14 of this 1973 amendatory act, and such noncompliance can substantially affect the health and safety of the tenant or other tenants, or substantially increase the hazards of fire or accident that can be remedied by repair, replacement of a damaged item, or cleaning, the tenant shall comply within thirty days after written notice by the landlord specifying the noncompliance, or, in the case of emergency as promptly as conditions require. If the tenant fails to remedy the noncompliance within that period the landlord may enter the dwelling unit and cause the work to be done and submit an itemized bill of the actual and reasonable cost of repair, to be payable on the next date when periodic rent is due, or on terms mutually agreed to by the landlord and tenant, or immediately if the rental agreement has terminated. Any substantial noncompliance by the tenant of sections 13 and 14 of this 1973 amendatory act shall constitute a ground for commencing an action in unlawful detainer in accordance with the provisions of chapter 59.12 RCW, and a landlord may commence such action at any time after written notice pursuant to such chapter. The tenant shall have a defense to an unlawful detainer action filed solely on this ground if it is determined at the hearing authorized under the provisions of chapter 59.12 RCW that the tenant is in substantial compliance with the provisions of this section, or if the tenant remedies the noncomplying condition within the thirty day period provided for above or any shorter period determined at the hearing to have been required because of an emergency: PROVIDED, That if the defective condition is remedied after the commencement of an unlawful detainer action, the tenant may be liable to the landlord for statutory costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Whenever the landlord learns of a breach of section 13 of this 1973 amendatory act or has accepted performance by the tenant which is at variance with the terms of the rental agreement or rules enforceable after the commencement of the tenancy, he may immediately give notice to the tenant to remedy the nonconformance. Said notice shall expire after sixty days unless the landlord pursues any remedy under this act. V

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. When premises are rented for an indefinite time, with monthly or other periodic rent reserved, such tenancy shall be construed to be a tenancy from month to month, or from period to period on which rent is payable, and shall be terminated by written notice of twenty days or more, preceding the end of any of said months or periods, given by either party to the other.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Tenancies from year to year are hereby abolished except when the same are created by express written contract. Leases may be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and shall be legal and valid for any term or period not exceeding one year, without acknowledgment, witnesses or seals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. In all cases where premises are rented for a specified time, by express or implied contract, the tenancy shall be deemed terminated at the end of such specified time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. (1) Any provision of a lease or other agreement, whether oral or written, whereby any section or subsection of this chapter is waived except as provided in section 36 of this 1973 amendatory act and shall be deemed against public policy and shall be unenforceable. Such unenforceability shall not affect other provisions of the agreement which can be given effect without them.

(2) No rental agreement may provide that the tenant:

(a) Agrees to waive or to forego rights or remedies under this chapter; or

(b) Authorizes any person to confess judgment on a claim arising out of the rental agreement; or

(c) Agrees to pay the landlord's attorney's fees, except as authorized in this chapter; or

(d) Agrees to the exculpation or limitation of any liability of the landlord arising under law or to indemnify the landlord for that liability or the costs connected therewith; or

(e) And landlord have agreed to a particular arbitrator at the time the rental agreement is entered into.

(3) A provision prohibited by subsection (2) of this section included in a rental agreement is unenforceable. If a landlord deliberately uses a rental agreement containing provisions known by him to be prohibited, the tenant may recover actual damages sustained by him and reasonable attorney's fees.

(4) The common law right of the landlord of distress for rent is hereby abolished for property covered by this chapter. Any provision in a rental agreement creating a lien upon the personal property of the tenant or authorizing a distress for rent is null and void and of no force and effect. Any landlord who takes or detains the personal property of a tenant

V [without the specific consent of the tenant to such incident of taking or detention], unless the property has been abandoned as described in section 31 of this 1973 amendatory act, and who, after written demand by the tenant for the return of V [his personal property, refuses or neglects to return the same promptly] shall be liable to the tenant for the value of the property retained, and the prevailing party may recover his costs of suit and a reasonable attorney's fee.

In any action, including actions pursuant to chapters 7.64 or 12.28 RCW, brought by a tenant or other person to recover possession of his personal property taken or detained by a landlord in violation of this section, the court, upon motion and after notice to the opposing parties, may waive or reduce any bond requirements where it appears to be to the satisfaction of the court that the moving party is proceeding in good faith and has, prima facie, a meritorious claim for immediate delivery or redelivery of said property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. So long as the tenant is in compliance with this chapter, the landlord shall not take or threaten to take reprisals or retaliatory action against the tenant because of any good faith and lawful:

(1) Complaints or reports by the tenant to a governmental authority concerning the failure of the landlord to substantially comply with any code, statute, ordinance, or regulation governing the maintenance or operation of the premises, if such condition may endanger or impair the health or safety of the tenant;

(2) Assertions or enforcement by the tenant of his rights and remedies under this chapter.

"Reprisal or retaliatory action" shall mean and include but not be limited to any of the following actions by the landlord when such actions are intended primarily to retaliate against a tenant because of the tenant's good faith and lawful act:

(1) Eviction of the tenant other than giving a notice to terminate tenancy as provided in section 20 of this 1973 amendatory act;

(2) Increasing the rent required of the tenant;

(3) Reduction of services to the tenant;

(4) Increasing the obligations of the tenant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Initiation by the landlord of any action listed in section 24 of this 1973 amendatory act within ninety days after a good faith and lawful act by the tenant as enumerated in section 24 of this 1973 amendatory act, or within ninety days after any inspection or proceeding of a governmental agency resulting from such act, shall create a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof, that the action is a reprisal or retaliatory action against the tenant: PROVIDED, That if the court finds that the tenant made a complaint or report to a governmental authority within ninety days after notice of a proposed increase in rent or other action in good faith by the landlord, there is a rebuttable presumption that the complaint or report was not made in good faith: PROVIDED FURTHER,

That no presumption against the landlord shall arise under this section, with respect to an increase in rent, if the landlord, in a notice to the tenant of increase in rent, specifies reasonable grounds for said increase, which grounds may include a substantial increase in market value due to remedial action under this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the presumption of retaliation, with respect to an eviction, may be rebutted by evidence that it is not practical to make necessary repairs while the tenant remains in occupancy. In any action or eviction proceeding where the tenant prevails upon his claim or defense that the landlord has violated this section, the tenant shall be entitled to recover his costs of suit or arbitration, including a reasonable attorney's fee, and where the landlord prevails upon his claim he shall be entitled to recover his costs of suit or arbitration, including a reasonable attorney's fee: PROVIDED FURTHER, That neither party may recover attorney's fees to the extent that their legal services are provided at no cost to them.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If any moneys are paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit or as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a lease or rental agreement, such lease or rental agreement shall include the terms and conditions under which the deposit or portion thereof may be withheld by the landlord upon termination of the lease or rental agreement. If all or part of the deposit may be withheld to indemnify the landlord for damages to the premises for which the tenant is responsible, or if all or part thereof may be retained by the landlord as a non-returnable cleaning fee, the rental agreement shall so specify. No such deposit shall be withheld on account of normal wear and tear resulting from ordinary use of the premises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. All moneys paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a lease or rental agreement shall promptly be deposited by the landlord in a trust account in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington. The landlord shall provide the tenant with a written receipt for the deposit and shall provide written notice of the name and address and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. The tenant's claim to any moneys paid under this section shall be prior to that of any creditor of the landlord, including a trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, even if such moneys are commingled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Within fourteen days after the termination of the rental agreement and vacation of the premises the landlord shall give a full and specific statement of the basis for retaining any of the deposit together with the payment of any refund due the tenant under the terms and conditions of the rental agreement. No portion of any deposit shall be withheld on account of wear resulting from ordinary use of the premises.

The notice shall be delivered to the tenant personally or by mail to his last known address. If the landlord fails to give such statement together with any refund due the tenant within the time limits specified above he shall be liable to the tenant for the amount of refund due. In any action brought by the tenant to recover the deposit, the prevailing party shall additionally be entitled to the cost of suit or arbitration including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the landlord from proceeding against, and the landlord shall have the right to proceed against a tenant to recover sums exceeding the amount of the tenant's damage or security deposit for damage to the property for which the tenant is responsible together with reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. (1) It shall be unlawful for the landlord to remove or exclude from the premises the tenant thereof except under a court order so authorizing. Any tenant so removed or excluded in violation of this section may recover possession of the property or terminate the rental agreement and, in either case, may recover the actual damages sustained. The prevailing party may recover the costs of suit or arbitration and reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) It shall be unlawful for the tenant to hold over in the premises or exclude the landlord therefrom after the termination of the rental agreement except under a valid court order so authorizing. Any landlord so deprived of possession of premises in violation of this section may recover possession of the property and damages sustained by him, and the prevailing party may recover his costs of suit or arbitration and reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. It shall be unlawful for a landlord to intentionally cause termination of any of his tenant's utility services, including water, heat, electricity, or gas, except for an interruption of utility services for a reasonable time in order to make necessary repairs. Any landlord who violates this section may be liable to such tenant for his actual damages sustained by him, and up to one hundred dollars for each day or part thereof the tenant is thereby deprived of any utility service, and the prevailing party may recover his costs of suit or arbitration and a reasonable attorney's fee. It shall be unlawful for a tenant to intentionally cause the loss of utility services provided by the landlord, including water, heat, electricity or gas, excepting as resulting from the normal occupancy of the premises.

NEW SECTION. Sec 31. If the tenant defaults in the payment of rent and reasonably indicates by words or actions his intention not to resume tenancy, he shall be liable for the following for such abandonment: PROVIDED, That upon learning of such abandonment of the premises the landlord shall make a reasonable effort to mitigate the damages resulting from such abandonment:

(1) When the tenancy is month-to-month, the tenant shall be liable for the rent for the thirty days following either the date the landlord learns of the abandonment, or the date the next regular rental payment would have become due, whichever first occurs.

(2) When the tenancy is for a term greater than month-to-month, the tenant shall be liable for the lesser of the following:

- (a) The entire rent due for the remainder of the term; or
- (b) All rent accrued during the period reasonably necessary to rerent the premises at a fair rental, plus the difference between such fair rental and the rent agreed to in the prior agreement, plus actual costs incurred by the landlord in rerenting the premises together with statutory court costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

In the event of such abandonment of tenancy and an accompanying default in the payment of rent by the tenant, the landlord may immediately enter and take possession of any property of the tenant found on the premises and may store the same in a secure place. A notice containing the name and address of landlord and the place where the property is stored must be mailed promptly by the landlord to the last known address of the tenant. After sixty days from the date of default in rent, and after prior notice of such sale is mailed to the last known address of the tenant, the landlord may sell such property and may apply any income derived therefrom against moneys due the landlord, including drayage and storage. Any excess income derived from the sale of such property shall be held by the landlord for the benefit of the tenant for a period of one year from the date of sale, and if no claim is made or action commenced by the tenant for the recovery thereof prior to the expiration of that period of time, the balance shall be the property of the landlord.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. (1) The landlord and tenant may agree, in writing, except as provided in section 23 (2) (e) of this 1973 amendatory act, to submit to arbitration, in conformity with the provisions of this section, any controversy arising under the provisions of this chapter, except the following:

(a) Controversies regarding the existence of defects covered in subsections (1) and (2) of section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That this exception shall apply only before the implementation of any remedy by the tenant;

(b) Any situation where court action has been started by either landlord or tenant to enforce rights under this chapter; when the court action substantially affects the controversy, including but not limited to:

(i) Court action pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of section 9 and subsections (1) and (2) of section 16 of this 1973 amendatory act; and

(ii) Any unlawful detainer action filed by the landlord pursuant to chapter 59.12 RCW.

(2) The party initiating arbitration under subsection (1) of this section shall give reasonable notice to the other party or parties.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the arbitration process shall be administered by any arbitrator agreed upon by the parties at the time the dispute arises: PROVIDED, That the procedures shall comply with the requirements of chapter 7.04 RCW (relating to arbitration) and of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. (1) Unless otherwise mutually agreed to, in the event a controversy arises under section 32 of this 1973 amendatory act the landlord or tenant, or both, shall complete an Application for Arbitration and deliver it to the selected arbitrator.

(2) The arbitrator so designated shall schedule a hearing to be held no later than ten days following receipt of notice of the controversy, except as provided in section 35 of this 1973 amendatory act.

(3) The arbitrator shall conduct public or private hearings. Reasonable notice of such hearings shall be given to the parties, who shall appear and be heard either in person or by counsel or other representative. Hearings shall be informal and the rules of evidence prevailing in judicial proceedings shall not be binding. A recording of the proceedings may be taken. Any oral or documentary evidence and other data deemed relevant by the arbitrator may be received in evidence. The arbitrator shall have the power to administer oaths, to issue subpoenas, to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents as may be deemed by the arbitrator material to a just determination of the issues in dispute. If any person refuses to obey such subpoena or refuses to be sworn to testify, or any witness, party, or attorney is guilty of any contempt while in attendance at any hearing held hereunder, the arbitrator may invoke the jurisdiction of any superior court, and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order. A failure to obey such order may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

(4) Within five days after conclusion of the hearing, the arbitrator shall make a written decision upon the issues presented, a copy of which shall be mailed by certified mail or otherwise delivered to the parties or their designated representatives. The determination of the dispute made by the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both parties.

(5) If a defective condition exists which affects more than one dwelling unit in a similar manner, the arbitrator may consolidate the issues of fact common to those dwelling units in a single proceeding.

(6) Decisions of the arbitrator shall be enforced or appealed according to the provisions of chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. The administrative fee for this arbitration procedure shall be seventy dollars, and, unless otherwise allocated by the arbitrator, shall be shared equally by the parties: PROVIDED, That upon either party signing an affidavit to the effect that he is unable to pay his share of the fee, that portion of the fee may be waived or deferred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. When a party gives notice pursuant to subsection (2) of section 32, he must, at the same time, arrange for arbitration of the grievance in the manner provided for in this chapter. The arbitration shall be completed before the rental due date next occurring after the giving of notice pursuant to section 32 of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That in no event shall the arbitrator have less than ten days to complete the arbitration process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A landlord and tenant may agree, in writing, to exempt themselves from the provisions of sections 6, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 19 of this 1973 amendatory act if the following conditions have been met:

(1) The agreement may not appear in a standard form lease or rental agreement;

(2) There is no substantial inequality in the bargaining position of the two parties;

(3) The exemption does not violate the public policy of this state in favor of the ensuring safe, and sanitary housing; and

(4) Either the local county prosecutor's office or the consumer protection division of the attorney general's office or the attorney for the tenant has approved in writing the application for exemption as complying with subsection (1) through (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. If any provision of this chapter, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or its application to other persons or circumstances, is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. The plaintiff, at the time of commencing an action of forcible entry or detainer or unlawful detainer, or at any time afterwards, upon filing the complaint, may apply to the superior court in which the action is pending for an order directing the defendant to appear and show cause, if any he has, why a writ of restitution should not issue restoring to the plaintiff possession of the property in the complaint described, and the judge shall by order fix a time and place for a hearing of said motion, which shall not be less than six nor more than twelve days from the date of service of said order upon defendant. A copy of said order, together with a copy of the summons and complaint if not previously served upon the defendant, shall be served upon the defendant. Said order shall notify the defendant that if he fails to appear and show cause at the time and place specified by the order the court may order the sheriff to restore possession of the property to the plaintiff and may grant such other relief as may be prayed for in the complaint and provided by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. At the time and place fixed for the hearing of plaintiff's motion for a writ of restitution, the defendant, or any person in possession or claiming possession of the property, may answer, orally or in writing, and assert any legal or equitable defense or set-off arising out of the tenancy. If the answer is oral the substance thereof shall be endorsed on the complaint by the court. The court shall examine the parties and witnesses orally to ascertain the merits of the complaint and answer, and if it shall appear that the plaintiff has the right to be restored to possession of the property, the court shall enter an order directing the issuance of a writ of restitution, returnable ten days after its date, restoring to the plaintiff possession of the property and if it shall appear to the court that there is no substantial issue of material fact of the right of the plaintiff to be granted other relief as prayed for in the complaint and provided for in this chapter, the court may enter an order and judgment granting so much of such relief as may be sustained by the proof, and the court may grant such other relief as may be prayed for in the plaintiff's complaint and provided for in this chapter, then the court shall enter an order denying any relief sought by the plaintiff for which the court has determined that the plaintiff has no right as a matter of law: PROVIDED, That within three days after the service of the writ of restitution the defendant, or person in possession of the property, may, in any action for the recovery of possession of the property for failure to pay rent, stay the execution of the writ pending final judgment by paying into court or to the plaintiff, as the court directs, all rent found to be due and all the costs of the action, and in addition by paying, on a monthly basis pending final judgment, an amount equal to the monthly rent called for by the lease or rental agreement at the time the complaint was filed: PROVIDED FURTHER, That before any writ shall issue prior to final judgment the plaintiff shall execute to the defendant and file in the court a bond in such sum as the court may order, with sufficient surety to be approved by the clerk, conditioned that the plaintiff will prosecute his action without delay, and will pay all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the writ of restitution having been issued, should the same be wrongfully sued out. The court shall also enter an order directing the parties to proceed to trial on the complaint and answer in the usual manner.

If it appears to the court that the plaintiff should not be restored to possession of the property, the court shall deny plaintiff's motion for a writ of restitution and enter an order directing the parties to proceed to trial within thirty days on the complaint and answer. If it appears to the court that there is a substantial issue of material fact as to whether or not the plaintiff is entitled to other relief as is prayed for in plaintiff's complaint and provided for in this chapter, or that there is a genuine issue of a material fact pertaining to a legal or equitable defense or set-off raised in the defendant's answer, the court shall grant or deny so much of plaintiff's other relief sought and so much of defendant's defenses or set-off claimed, as may be proper.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. The sheriff shall, upon receiving the writ of restitution, forthwith serve a copy thereof upon the defendant, his agent, or attorney, or a person in possession of the premises, and shall not execute the same for three days thereafter, and the defendant, or person in possession of the premises within three days after the service of the writ of restitution may execute to the plaintiff a bond to be filed with and approved by the clerk of the court in such sum as may be fixed by the judge, with sufficient surety to be approved by the clerk of said court, conditioned that they will pay to the plaintiff such sum as the plaintiff may recover for the use and occupation of the said premises, or any rent found due, together with all damages the plaintiff may sustain by reason of the defendant occupying or keeping possession of said premises, together with all damages which the court theretofore has awarded to the plaintiff as provided in this 1973 amendatory act, and also all the costs of the action. The plaintiff, his agent or attorneys, shall have notice of the time and place where the court or judge thereof shall fix the amount of the defendant's bond, and shall have notice and a reasonable opportunity to examine into the qualification and sufficiency of the sureties upon said bond before said bond shall be approved by the clerk. The writ may be served by the sheriff, in the event he shall be unable to find the defendant, an agent or attorney, or a person in possession of the premises, by affixing a copy of said writ in a conspicuous place upon the premises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. On or before the day fixed for his appearance the defendant may appear and answer. The defendant in his answer may assert any legal or equitable defense or set-off arising out of the tenancy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. If upon the trial the verdict of the jury or, if the case be tried without a jury, the finding of the court be in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, judgment shall be entered for the restitution of the premises; and if the proceeding be for unlawful detainer after neglect or failure to perform any condition or covenant of a lease or agreement under which the property is held, or after default in the payment of rent, the judgment shall also declare the forfeiture of the lease, agreement or tenancy. The jury, or the court, if the proceedings be tried without a jury, shall also assess the damages arising out of the tenancy occasioned to the plaintiff by any forcible entry, or by any forcible or unlawful detainer, alleged in the complaint and proved on the trial, and, if the alleged unlawful detainer be after default in the payment of rent, find the amount of any rent due, and the judgment shall be rendered against the defendant guilty of the forcible entry, forcible detainer or unlawful detainer for the amount of damages thus assessed and for the rent, if any, found due, and the court may award statutory costs and reasonable attorney's fees. When the proceeding is for an unlawful detainer after default in the payment of rent, and the lease or agreement under which the rent is payable has not by its terms expired, execution upon the judgment shall not be issued until the expiration of five days after the entry of the judgment, within which time the tenant or any subtenant, or any mortgagee of the term, or other party interested in the continuance of the tenancy, may pay into court for the landlord the amount of the judgment and costs, and thereupon the judgment shall be satisfied and the tenant restored to his tenancy; but if payment, as herein provided, be not made within five days the judgment may be enforced for its full amount and for the possession of the premises. In all other cases the judgment may be enforced immediately. If writ of restitution shall have been executed prior to judgment no further writ or execution for the premises shall be required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. The provisions of this 1973 amendatory act shall not apply to any lease of a single family dwelling for a period of a year or more or to any lease of a single family dwelling containing a bona fide purchase by the tenant: PROVIDED, That an attorney for the tenant must approve on the face of the agreement any lease exempted from the provisions of this act as provided for in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. The provisions of RCW 59.12.090, 59.12.100, 59.12.121, and 59.12.170 shall not apply to any rental agreement included under the provisions of Chapter... (SSB No. 2226).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. There is added to chapter 59.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This chapter does not apply to any rental agreement included under the provisions of chapter ... (SSB No. 2226), Laws of 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. There is added to chapter 59.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This chapter does not apply to any rental agreement included under the provisions of chapter ... (SSB No. 2226), Laws of 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. Sections 1 through 37 of this 1973 amendatory act shall not apply to any lease entered into prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act. All provisions of this 1973 amendatory act shall apply to any lease or periodic tenancy entered into on or subsequent to the effective date of this 1973

V—amendatory act.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Passed the House April 9, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973, with the exception of certain items in Sections 6, 7, 11, 19, 23, 24, 25 and 31 and all of Sections 43 and 47 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to certain items, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2226, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the lease and rental of property."

This act establishes an elaborate set of contractual relationships between landlords and tenants in residential dwellings. The provisions include regulation of security and damage deposits, conditions under which a tenant may be evicted, dispute settlement between landlords and tenant with regard to the conditions of the premises, and other general responsibilities of tenants and landlords.

Section 6 of the bill sets out obligations. Subsection one requires the landlord to maintain the premises in compliance with applicable codes, statutes or ordinances, but only if such conditions substantially endanger or impair the health or safety of the tenant. This creates a difficult burden of proof for any tenant and would not only deter tenants from using these codes, but could also deprive them of a remedy in many cases of code violation. In subsection four, the landlord is required to provide a reasonable program for control of infestation by insects, rodents and other pests, but exempts single family residences. Since the provision does not require the landlord to control infestation caused by the tenant, there is no reason for exempting single family residences from this provision, and consequently I have vetoed it.

In section 7 the landlord is required to commence remedial action to keep the premises of a tenancy fit for human habitation. This section is designed to meet the problem of landlords who repeatedly promise repairs but fail to meet those promises. The item consisting of the final four lines in this section provides that the time limitation set forth for remedial action will not be applicable where the landlord fails to meet specified deadlines because of circumstances beyond his control. This has the effect of exempting the landlord from the requirements previously set forth without adequate justification, and I have determined to veto it.

In section 8 the tenant is required to be current in the payment of rent, including all utilities he has agreed to pay in the rental agreement, before he may exercise any remedies under this act. In an act which is designed to regulate the relationship between landlords and tenants it is inappropriate that there should also be a requirement that the tenant pay his bills to third parties in order to exercise his rights. Consequently I have vetoed that provision.

In section 11 the court or arbitrator may authorize further corrective repairs for a defective condition if the landlord has not corrected them within a specified time. However, the section limits the court or arbitrator's authority to set the actual value of repairs needed. Decisions will vary with individual circumstances and arbitrary restrictions should not be set upon the court or arbitrator in this regard, when the requirements are clearly otherwise. Accordingly, that item establishing that restriction is vetoed.

In section 19 the landlord is required to give notice to the tenant of any tenant-caused defect which the landlord want remedied. The language as it reads implies that where a landlord has accepted performance by the tenant, even though at variance with the terms of the rental agreement, he may nevertheless serve notice that he is instituting steps to require compliance with the rental agreement. This allows landlords to repudiate their own agreements, and is without justification. Consequently, I have vetoed this item.

In section 23 a landlord is prohibited from taking or detaining the personal property of a tenant unless the tenant has given specific consent to such taking or detention. Such provision may well encourage landlords to coerce tenants into allowing their possessions to be taken as security for overdue rent. In another portion of the same section there is a requirement that the tenant give a written demand to the landlord for the return of his personal property before he may be granted relief. The effect of such language is to allow a landlord to seize the tenants personal property without penalty if the property is returned after receipt of a written notice. These items are unjustified and I have vetoed them. Veto

Message

In section 24 the landlord is prohibited from taking retaliatory action against the tenant because of any good faith and lawful complaint to a governmental authority concerning the landlord's failure to comply with applicable codes, statutes or ordinances; but only if such failure would endanger or impair the health or safety of the tenant. Since it is in the interest of regulatory authorities to receive such complaints, this limitation violates public policy. A tenant should be free to make any good faith report of any violation. In addition this section provides that reprisal and retaliatory action, as defined, excludes eviction of the tenant when the landlord has given 20-days notice to terminate such tenancy. This provision clearly renders the prohibition on retaliatory action meaningless. Therefore, both items are vetoed.

Section 25 further defines retaliatory action by the landlord and creates certain presumptions. One presumption is raised against the tenant if the tenant makes a complaint to a government agency within 90 days of an increase in rent. Thus, for 90 days after an increase in rent a tenant would be deterred from making a good faith complaint of any violation of law for fear a landlord might retaliate. Obviously, this would unduly discourage such complaints and is against public policy. Accordingly, I have vetoed this item.

Section 31 establishes the landlords rights where the tenant has abandoned the premises. One item would allow costs incurred in rerenting the premises, together with statutory court costs and reasonable attorneys fees, to be charged back against the tenant. Such a provision goes far beyond even the common law and cannot be justified. I have therefore vetoed it.

Section 43 establishes a procedure for exempting those who rent a single family dwelling from the requirements of the act. Section 36 already establishes such a procedure, and there is no need for this additional provision. Consequently, I have vetoed section 43.

Veto
Message

Section 47 provides that this act shall not apply to any lease or periodic tenancy entered into prior to the effective date of the act. Many tenancies are entered on a periodic basis and there is no sufficient reason to exempt existing tenancies from the provisions of this act. Accordingly, I have vetoed this section.

With the exceptions noted above, I have approved the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2226."

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2365]

EMERGENCY MEDICAL CARE AND HEALTH SERVICES

AN ACT Relating to emergency medical care and health services; creating a new chapter in Title 18 RCW; prescribing penalties; and establishing effective dates.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that a state-wide program of emergency medical care is necessary to promote the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of this state. The intent of the legislature is that the secretary of the department of social and health services develop and implement a program to promote immediate prehospital treatment for victims of motor vehicle accidents, suspected coronary illnesses, and other acute illness or trauma.

The legislature further recognizes that emergency medical care and transportation methods are constantly changing and conditions in the various regions of the state vary markedly. The legislature, therefore, seeks to establish a flexible method of implementation and regulation to meet those conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature further declares its intention to supersede all ordinances, regulations, and requirements promulgated by counties, cities and other political subdivisions of the state of Washington, insofar as they may provide for the regulation of emergency medical care, first aid, and ambulance services which do not exceed the provisions of this chapter; except that (1) license fees established in this chapter shall supersede all license fees of counties, cities and other political subdivisions of this state; and, (2) nothing in this chapter shall alter the provisions of RCW 18.71.020, 18.71.200, 18.71.210 and 18.71.220.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services.

(2) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(3) "Committee" means the emergency medical and ambulance review committee.

(4) "Ambulance" means an emergency vehicle designed and used to transport the ill and injured and to provide facilities and equipment to treat patients before and during transportation.

(5) "First aid vehicle" means a vehicle primarily designed and used to carry first aid equipment and individuals trained in first aid or emergency medical procedure.

(6) "Emergency medical technician" means a person who has successfully completed a prescribed course of instruction and who has achieved a demonstrable level of performance and competence to treat victims of severe injury or other emergent condition.

(7) "Ambulance operator" means a person who owns one or more ambulances and operates them as a private business.

(8) "Ambulance director" means a person who is a director of a service which operates one or more ambulances provided by a volunteer organization or governmental agency.

(9) "First aid vehicle operator" means a person who owns one or more first aid vehicles and operates them as a private business.

(10) "First aid director" means a person who is a director of a service which operates one or more first aid vehicles provided by a volunteer organization or governmental agency.

(11) "Emergency medical care" or "emergency medical service" means such medical treatment and care which may be rendered to persons injured, sick, or incapacitated at the scene of such injury, sickness, or incapacitation or in the ambulance.

(12) "Medical equipment" means such facilities and equipment to be used in the treatment of persons injured, sick or incapacitated carried by ambulance or first aid vehicle.

(13) "Communications system" means a radio or landline network connected with a dispatch center which makes possible the alerting and coordination of personnel, equipment, and facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is created an emergency medical and ambulance review committee of nine members to be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. Members of the committee shall be persons knowledgeable in specific and general aspects of emergency medical services.

There shall be two members from fire departments providing ambulance or first aid service, one of whom shall represent a fire district and one of whom shall represent a fully paid municipal fire department; two persons representing private ambulance operators, one of whom shall provide service in a metropolitan area and one of whom shall provide service in a nonmetropolitan area; two who are licensed physicians; two who shall represent the consuming public, one of whom shall reside east of the crest of the Cascade mountain range and one of whom shall reside west of the crest of the Cascade mountain range; and, one member who is a hospital administrator.

Members shall be chosen from lists of nominees provided by interested associations in the fields to be represented. Members shall be appointed for a period of three years; except, that the first appointees shall serve for terms as follows: Five for three years, two for two years, and two for one year. Further, the terms of those members representing the same field shall not expire at the same time.

The committee shall elect a chairman and a vice-chairman whose terms of office shall be for one year each. The chairman shall be ineligible for reelection after serving two consecutive terms.

The committee shall meet on call by the governor, the secretary or the chairman.

All appointive members of the committee, in the performance of their duties, may be entitled to receive per diem as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The committee shall advise and assist the secretary on the identification of the requirements for prehospital emergency medical and ambulance services and practices and the formulation of implementation planning.

The secretary shall submit in writing to each member of the committee all the rules and regulations, other than procedural matters, proposed by him for adoption in accordance with the procedures of chapter 34.04 RCW. Unless, within thirty days of such notification, five of the members of the committee notify the secretary in writing of their disapproval of such proposed rules and regulations and their reasons therefore, such rules and regulations shall be adopted by the secretary in accordance with the procedures of chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The secretary shall designate at least eight planning and service areas so that all parts of the state are within such an area. These designations are to be made on the basis of convenience and efficiency of delivery of needed emergency medical services.

(2) The secretary shall conduct a public hearing in a major city of each planning and service area at least sixty days prior to the formulation of a comprehensive plan for prehospital emergency medical services. Such hearing shall (a) afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of the need for, and the location of ambulances and first aid vehicles and (b) provide a public forum that affords a full opportunity for presenting views on any relevant aspect of prehospital emergency medical services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The secretary shall prepare and adopt a comprehensive plan for prehospital emergency medical services in the state for persons injured as a result of motor vehicle accidents, suspected coronary victims, or persons suffering other acute illnesses or trauma. This plan shall include, but not be limited to the following: (1) The training of individuals in cardiopulmonary resuscitation, basic and advanced first aid, emergency medical technician, paramedic, and other programs for the development of prehospital emergency medical services personnel in the major city of each planning and service area; (2) the future development of rules and regulations for certification and licensure of prehospital emergency medical services personnel; and, (3) the study of prehospital emergency medical services needs, such as facilities, vehicles, equipment, communications and personnel in the state.

The secretary shall encourage communities to support the care and services required to meet the provisions of this plan or to develop such care and service. If any community is unable to provide the facilities, vehicles, equipment and personnel required, the secretary shall inform the committee thereof and the committee shall take such further action as it deems advisable consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) It shall be the duty of the secretary, pursuant to the policy set forth in this chapter, to prescribe minimum requirements for:

- (a) Ambulances;
- (b) First aid vehicles; and
- (c) Communication equipment.

These requirements shall be reviewed regularly.

(2) The secretary shall also prescribe, pursuant to the policy set forth in this chapter, minimum requirements for training of all first aid and ambulance personnel rendering emergency medical care or first aid.

(3) The secretary shall also cooperate with and assist the other agencies of state government and political subdivisions of the state of Washington who provide first aid and emergency medical training to ensure that this training is available in each planning and service area of the state pursuant to the policy set forth in this 1973 act.

(4) The secretary shall also prescribe minimum requirements for liability insurance to be carried by ambulance operators except that this requirement shall not apply to self-insured public bodies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The secretary shall establish standards for emergency medical communications for use in connection with the delivery of emergency medical services. He shall, in conjunction with other agencies of state government and political subdivisions of the state of Washington, encourage establishment of a state-wide communication system utilizing presently available facilities and such additional facilities as they become available; except, that each ambulance and first aid vehicle licensed under provisions of this chapter shall be equipped with transmitting and receiving equipment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Upon the establishment of this chapter, the secretary may grant variance from standards only when compliance can be expected to create prohibitive costs or cause substantial reduction or loss of existing service. Variance may be granted for a period of not more than one year. The variance may be renewed upon approval of the committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The secretary shall specify the level of knowledge required to qualify as an emergency medical technician and shall issue a certificate of qualification to those applicants who pass a written and practical examination given under the secretary's direction, or who provide proof of having graduated, with satisfactory performance, from a course of instruction, of not less than eighty hours, approved by the secretary. Reciprocity may be arranged, in granting emergency medical technician certificates, with a national certifying organization whose standards are at least equal to those established by the secretary.

A fee shall be established; except, that no fee shall be required of active volunteer fire fighters or volunteer ambulance personnel for such certificate. —V

The certificate shall be valid for a period of three years and may be renewed at expiration upon proof that the holder has attended a refresher course recognized by the department, or upon passing an examination such as given to new applicants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The secretary shall issue a certificate of advanced first aid qualification to those applicants who provide proof of advanced Red Cross training or its equivalent. The certificate shall be valid for a period of three years, and may be renewed at expiration upon proof that the holder has received a recognized Red Cross refresher course or its equivalent, or upon passing an examination such as that given new applicants.

A fee shall be established for such certificate; except, that law enforcement officers, fire fighting personnel, or other governmental personnel required to have advanced first aid qualification as a qualification for employment shall be exempt from this fee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. An ambulance operator, ambulance director, first aid vehicle operator or first aid director may not operate a service in the state of Washington without holding a license for such operation, issued by the secretary when such operation is consistent with the comprehensive plan established pursuant to section 7 of this 1973 act, indicating the general area to be served and the number of vehicles to be used, with the following exceptions:

- (1) The United States government;
- (2) Ambulance operators and ambulance directors providing service in other states when bringing patients into this state;
- (3) Owners of businesses in which ambulance or first aid vehicles are used exclusively on company property but occasionally in emergencies may bring patients to hospitals not on company property;
- (4) Operators of vehicles pressed into service for transportation of patients in emergencies when licensed ambulances are not available or cannot meet overwhelming demand.

The license shall be valid for a period of three years and shall be renewed on request provided the holder has consistently complied with the regulations of the department and the department of motor vehicles and provided also that the needs of the area served have been met satisfactorily. The license shall not be transferable.

A license fee shall be required for ambulance operators and first aid operators.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The secretary shall approve the issuance of an ambulance license for each vehicle so designated. The license shall be for a period of one year and may be reissued on expiration if the vehicle and its operation meet requirements in force at the time of expiration of the license period. The license may be revoked if the ambulance is found to be operating in violation of the regulations promulgated by the department or without required equipment. The license shall be terminated automatically if the vehicle is sold or transferred to the control of anyone not currently licensed as an ambulance operator or ambulance director. The ambulance license number shall be prominently displayed on each vehicle.

A fee shall be established for vehicles operated by an ambulance operator.

Licensed ambulances shall be inspected periodically by the secretary at the location of the ambulance station. Inspection shall include adequacy and maintenance of medical equipment and supplies and the mechanical condition of the vehicle including its mechanical and electrical equipment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Any ambulance operated as such shall operate with sufficient personnel for adequate patient care, at least one of whom shall be an emergency medical technician under standards promulgated by the secretary. The emergency medical technician shall have responsibility for its operation and for the care of patients both before they are placed aboard the vehicle and during transit. If there are two or more emergency medical technicians operating the ambulance, a nondriving medical technician shall be in command of the vehicle. The emergency medical technician in command of the vehicle shall be in the patient compartment and in attendance to the patient.

The driver of the ambulance shall have at least a certificate of advance first aid qualification issued by the secretary pursuant to section 12 of this 1973 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The secretary shall approve the issuance of a first aid vehicle license for each vehicle so designated. The license shall be for a period of one year and may be reissued on expiration if the vehicle meets requirements in force at the time of expiration of the license period. The license may be revoked if the vehicle is found to be operating in violation of regulations promulgated by the department or without required equipment. The license shall be terminated automatically if the vehicle is sold or transferred to the control of anyone not currently licensed as a first aid vehicle operator or first aid director. The first aid vehicle license number shall be prominently displayed on each vehicle.

A fee shall be established for vehicles operated by a first aid vehicle operator.

Licensed first aid vehicles shall be inspected periodically by the secretary at the location of the first aid vehicle station. Inspection shall include adequacy and maintenance of medical equipment and supplies and the mechanical condition of the vehicle, including mechanical and electrical equipment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The first aid vehicle shall be operated by at least one person certificated pursuant to section 12 of this 1973 act and under standards promulgated by the secretary.

The first aid vehicle may be used for transportation of patients only when it is impossible or impractical to obtain an ambulance or when a wait for arrival of an ambulance would place the life of the patient in jeopardy; except, that the vehicle shall be under the command of a person certificated pursuant to section 12 of this 1973 act other than the driver and shall be in attendance to the patient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Other vehicles not herein defined by this 1973 act shall not be used commercially or by public services for transportation of patients who must be carried on a stretcher and who required attention en route, except that such transportation may be used when directed by a physician, or when a disaster creates casualties in numbers that cannot be served by ambulances, or when any casual transportation of the infirm from his home or a health facility for routine medical treatment or care or for recreational and social purposes is desired.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter and for which a penalty is not provided shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or may be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this 1973 act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, this invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall wherever applicable govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The provisions of sections 1 through 8, inclusive, 11, 12, 20, 21, 22, and 23 of this 1973 act shall take effect on July 1, 1973. The provisions of sections 9, 10, and 13 through 19, inclusive, shall take effect on January 1, 1976.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new chapter as set forth in sections 1 through 21 of this 1973 act.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1973.

Passed the House April 9, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973, with the exception of one item each in Section 4 and Section 11 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to two items, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2365 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to emergency medical care and health services."

This act will provide that the citizens of our state will be able to receive standardized higher quality emergency medical services. Section four of the act establishes an emergency medical and ambulance review committee consisting of nine members appointed by the Governor. Section four also provides that, of the nine members on the committee, two must be from fire departments, two must be private ambulance owners, two must be licensed physicians, two must be from the consuming public and one must be a hospital administrator. While representation on the committee from such groups is both worthwhile and needed, the requirement that only such members may be appointed could well work to the disadvantage of the public should it prove worthwhile to appoint individuals from other interested areas in the future.

Section eleven of the act provides for the granting of a certificate of qualification as an emergency medical technician and requires a fee to be established, paid by the applicant, for the certificate. The section exempts volunteer fire fighters and volunteer ambulance personnel from the requirement of paying the fee. Such exemption is both laudable and in the public interest; however, it does not take into account the numerous other types of volunteer personnel which would desire and need the certificate of qualification and should be equally exempt from the payment of a fee. Deletion of the item referring to fire fighters and ambulance personnel will allow all volunteer personnel to be exempt from the fee.

Accordingly, for the reasons set out above, I have determined to veto the two items in sections four and eleven of this act. With those exceptions, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2365 is approved."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 67, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. and RCW 66.08.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every order for the purchase of liquor shall be authorized by the board, and no order for liquor shall be valid or binding unless it is so authorized and signed by ((any two members of)) the board or its authorized designee.

(2) A duplicate of every such order shall be kept on file in the office of the board.

(3) All cancellations of such orders made by the board shall be signed in the same manner and duplicates thereof kept on file in the office of the board. Nothing in this title shall be construed as preventing the board from accepting liquor on consignment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The board shall not hire any person who is receiving a pension in the amount of four hundred dollars or more per month.

Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 15, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 66.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided by law, an employee in a state liquor store or agency may sell liquor to any person ((over the age of twenty-one years for beverage purposes)) of legal age to purchase alcoholic beverages as provided in chapter 100, Laws of 1973 and may also sell to holders of permits such liquor as may be purchased under such permits.

Where there may be a question of a person's right to purchase liquor by reason of his age, such person shall be required to present any one of the following officially issued cards of identification which shows his correct age and bears his signature and photograph:

- (1) Liquor control authority card of identification of any state.
- (2) Driver's license of any state or "identocard" issued by the Washington state department of motor vehicles pursuant to RCW 46.20.117.
- (3) United States active duty military identification.
- (4) Passport.

The board may adopt such regulations as it deems proper covering the acceptance of such cards of identification.

No liquor sold under this section shall be delivered until the purchaser has paid for the liquor in cash.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 67, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 2, chapter 15, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 66.20.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Words and phrases as used in RCW 66.20.160 to 66.20.210, inclusive, shall have the following meaning:

"Card of identification" means any one of those cards described in RCW 66.16.040.

"Licensee" means the holder of a retail liquor license issued by the board, and includes any employee or agent of the licensee.

"Store employee" means a person employed in a state liquor store or agency to sell liquor.

Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 67, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 3, chapter 15, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 66.20.170 are each amended to read as follows:

A card of identification may for the purpose of this title and for the purpose of procuring liquor, be accepted as an identification card by any licensee or store employee and as evidence of legal age of the person presenting such card, provided the licensee or store employee complies with the conditions and procedures prescribed herein and such regulations as may be made by the board.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 67, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 4, chapter 15, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 66.20.180 are each amended to read as follows:

A card of identification shall be presented by the holder thereof upon request of any licensee, store employee, peace officer, or enforcement officer of the board for the purpose of aiding the licensee, store employee, peace officer, or enforcement officer of the board to determine whether or not such person is ((at least twenty-one years)) of legal age to purchase liquor when such person desires to procure liquor from a licensed establishment or state liquor store or agency.

Sec. 7. Section 4, chapter 67, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 5, chapter 15, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 66.20.190 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the presentation by the holder and verification by the licensee or store employee of such card of identification, the licensee or store employee shall require the person whose age may be in question to sign a certification card and record an accurate description and serial number of his card of identification thereon. Such statement shall be upon a five-inch by eight-inch file card, which card shall be filed alphabetically by the licensee or store employee at or before the close of business on the day on which the statement is executed, in the file box containing a suitable alphabetical index and the card shall be subject to examination by any peace officer or agent or employee of the board at all times.

Sec. 8. Section 5, chapter 67, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 6, chapter 15, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 66.20.200 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for the owner of a card of identification to transfer the card to any other person for the purpose of aiding such person to procure alcoholic beverages from any licensee or store employee. Any person who shall permit his card of identification to be used by another or transfer such card to another for the purpose of aiding such transferee to obtain alcoholic beverages from a licensee or store employee, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or imprisonment for not more than thirty days or both. Any person not entitled thereto who unlawfully procures or has issued or transferred to him a card of identification, and any person who possesses a card of identification not issued to him, and any person who makes any false statement on any certification card required by RCW 66.20.190, as now or hereafter amended, to be signed by him, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or imprisonment for not more than thirty days or both.

Sec. 9. Section 6, chapter 67, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 7, chapter 15, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 66.20.210 are each amended to read as follows:

No licensee or the agent or employee of the licensee, or store employee, shall be prosecuted criminally or be sued in any civil action for serving liquor to a person under ((twenty-one years of)) legal age to purchase liquor if such person has presented a card of identification in accordance with RCW 66.20.180, and has signed a certification card as provided in RCW 66.20.190.

Such card in the possession of a licensee may be offered as a defense in any hearing held by the board for serving liquor to the person who signed the card and may be considered by the board as evidence that the licensee acted in good faith.

Sec. 10. Section 27, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 70, Laws of 1971 and RCW 66.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every license shall be issued in the name of the applicant and the holder thereof shall not allow any other person to use the license.

(2) For the purpose of considering any application for a license, the board may cause an inspection of the premises to be made, and may inquire into all matters in connection with the construction and operation of the premises. The board may, in its discretion, grant or refuse the license applied for. No retail license of any kind shall be issued to:

(a) A person who is not a citizen of the United States, except when the privilege is granted by treaty;

(b) A person who has not resided in the state for at least one month prior to making application, except in cases of licenses issued to dining places on railroads, boats, or aircraft;

(c) A person who has been convicted of a felony within five years prior to filing his application;

(d) A copartnership, unless all of the members thereof are qualified to obtain a license, as provided in this section;

(e) A person whose place of business is conducted by a manager or agent, unless such manager or agent possesses the same qualifications required of the licensee;

(f) A corporation, unless all of the officers thereof are citizens of the United States.

(3) The board may, in its discretion, subject to the provisions of RCW 66.08.150, suspend or cancel any license; and all rights of the licensee to keep or sell liquor thereunder shall be suspended or terminated, as the case may be. The board may appoint examiners who shall have power to administer oaths, issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, accounts, documents, and testimony, examine witnesses, and to receive testimony in any inquiry, investigation, hearing, or proceeding in any part of the state, under such rules and regulations as the board may adopt.

Witnesses shall be allowed fees at the rate of four dollars per day, plus ten cents per mile each way. Fees need not be paid in advance of appearance of witnesses to testify or to produce books, records, or other legal evidence.

In case of disobedience of any person to comply with the order of the board or a subpoena issued by the board, or any of its members, or examiners, or on the refusal of a witness to testify to any matter regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, the judge of the superior court of the county in which the person resides, on application of any member of the board or examiner, shall compel obedience by contempt proceedings, as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from said court or a refusal to testify therein.

(4) Upon receipt of notice of the suspension or cancellation of a license, the licensee shall forthwith deliver up the license to the board. Where the license has been suspended only, the board shall return the license to the licensee at the expiration or termination of the period of suspension, with a memorandum of the suspension written or stamped upon the face thereof in red ink. The board shall notify all vendors in the city or place where the licensee has its premises of the suspension or cancellation of the license; and no employee shall allow or cause any liquor to be delivered to or for any person at the premises of that licensee.

(5) Unless sooner canceled, every license issued by the board shall expire at midnight of the thirtieth day of June of the fiscal year for which it was issued.

(6) Every license issued under this section shall be subject to all conditions and restrictions imposed by this title or by the regulations in force from time to time.

(7) Every licensee shall post and keep posted its license, or licenses, in a conspicuous place on the premises.

(8) Before the board shall issue a license to an applicant it shall give notice of such application to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town, if the application be for a license within an incorporated city or town, or to the board of county commissioners, if the application be for a license outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns; and such incorporated city or town, through the official or employee selected by it, or the board of county commissioners or the official or employee, selected by it, shall have the right to file with the board within ~~((ten))~~ twenty days after date of transmittal of such notice, written objections against the applicant or against the premises for which the license is asked, and shall include with such objections a statement of all facts upon which such objections are based, and in case written objections are filed, may ~~((make oral argument in support of such objections at the time fixed by the board; after the board shall have given to the applicant written notice of such oral argument at least five days prior thereto))~~ request and the liquor control board may in its discretion hold a formal hearing subject to the applicable provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. Upon the granting of a license under this title the board shall cause a duplicate of the license to be transmitted to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town in which the license is granted, or to the board of county commissioners if the license is granted outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns.

(9) Before the board issues any license to any applicant, it shall give due consideration to the location of the business to be conducted under such license with respect to the proximity of churches, schools and public institutions: PROVIDED, That on and after the effective date of this act, the board shall issue no beer retailer license class A, B, or D or wine retailer license class C covering any premises not now licensed, if such premises are within five hundred feet of the premises of any church, parochial or tax-supported public elementary or secondary school measured along the most direct route over or across established public walks, streets or other public passageway from the outer property line of the church or school grounds to the nearest public entrance of the premises proposed for license, unless the board shall receive written notice from an official representative or representatives of the schools and/or churches within five hundred feet of said proposed licensed premises, indicating to the board that there is no objection to the issuance of such license because of proximity to a school or church. For the purpose of this section, church shall mean a building erected for and used exclusively for religious worship and schooling or other activity in connection therewith.

(10) The restrictions set forth in the preceding subsection shall not prohibit the board from authorizing the transfer of existing licenses now located within the restricted area to other persons or locations within the restricted area: PROVIDED, Such transfer shall in no case result in establishing the licensed premises closer to a church or school than it was before the transfer.

Sec. 11. Section 23-U added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. by section 1, chapter 217, Laws of 1937 as amended by section 2, chapter 70, Laws of 1971 and RCW 66.24.025 are each amended to read as follows:

The holder of one or more licenses may assign and transfer the same to any qualified person under such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no such assignment and transfer shall be made which will result in both a change of licensee and change of location; the fee for such assignment and transfer shall be thirty-five dollars: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no fee will be charged for transfer to the surviving spouse only of a deceased licensee if the parties were maintaining a marital community and the license was issued in the names of one or both of the parties.

Sec. 12. Section 27-C added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. by section 7, chapter 172, Laws of 1939 and RCW 66.24.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The board in suspending any license may further provide in the order of suspension that such suspension shall be vacated upon payment to the board by the licensee of a monetary penalty in an amount then fixed by the board ~~((; not exceeding a sum equal to the aggregate annual license fees of all licenses then held by such licensee))~~.

Sec. 13. Section 10, chapter 21, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.206 are each amended to read as follows:

No wine wholesaler nor wine importer shall purchase any wine not manufactured within the state of Washington by a winery holding a license as a manufacturer of wine from the state of Washington, and/or transport or cause the same to be transported into the state of Washington for resale therein, unless the winery or manufacturer of such wine, or the licensed importer of wine produced outside the United States, has obtained from the Washington state liquor control board a certificate of approval, as hereinafter provided. The certificate of approval herein provided for shall not be granted unless and until such winery, manufacturer, or licensed importer of wine produced outside the United States, shall have made a written agreement with the board to furnish to the board, on or before the tenth day of each month, a report under oath, on a form to be prescribed by the board, showing the quantity of wine sold or delivered to each licensed wine importer, or imported by the licensed importer of wine produced outside the United States, during the preceding month, and shall further have agreed with the board, that such wineries, manufacturers, or licensed importers of wine produced outside the United States, and all general sales corporations or agencies maintained by them, and all of their trade representatives and agents, shall and will faithfully comply with all laws of the state of Washington pertaining to the sale of intoxicating liquors and all rules and regulations of the Washington state liquor control board. If any such winery, manufacturer, or licensed importer of wine produced outside the United States, shall, after obtaining such certificate, fail to submit such report, or if such winery, manufacturer, or licensed importer of wine produced outside the United States, or general sales corporations or agencies maintained by them, or their trade representatives or agents, shall violate the terms of such agreement, the board shall, in its discretion, suspend or revoke such certificate: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such certificates of approval shall be issued only for specifically named designated and identified types of wine. The Washington state liquor control board shall not certify wines labeled with names which may be confused with other nonalcoholic beverages, whether manufactured or produced from a domestic winery or imported, nor wines which fail to meet quality standards established by the board.

The fee for the certificate of approval, issued pursuant to the provisions of this title, shall be fifty dollars per annum, which sum shall accompany the application for such certificate.

Sec. 14. Section 23-F added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. by section 1, chapter 217, Laws of 1937 as amended by section 4, chapter 178, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person, firm or corporation, holding a license to manufacture malt liquors within the state of Washington, shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, furnish to the Washington state liquor control board, on a form to be prescribed by the board, a statement showing the quantity of malt liquors sold for resale during the preceding calendar month to each beer wholesaler within the state of Washington;

(2) No beer wholesaler nor beer importer shall purchase any beer not manufactured within the state of Washington by a brewer holding a license as a manufacturer of malt liquors from the state of Washington, and/or transport or cause the same to be transported into the state of Washington for resale therein, unless the brewer or manufacturer of such beer or the licensed importer of beer produced outside the United States has obtained from the Washington state liquor control board a certificate of approval, as hereinafter provided. The certificate of approval herein provided for shall not be granted unless and until such brewer or manufacturer of malt liquors or the licensed importer of beer produced outside the United States shall have made a written agreement with the board to furnish to the board, on or before the tenth day of each month, a report under oath, on a form to be prescribed by the board, showing the quantity of beer sold or delivered to each licensed beer importer or imported by the licensed importer of beer produced outside the United States during the preceding month, and shall further have agreed with the board, that such brewer or manufacturer of malt liquors or the licensed importer of beer produced outside the United States and all general sales corporations or agencies maintained by such brewers or manufacturers or importers, and all trade representatives or agents of such brewer or manufacturer of malt liquors or the licensed importer of beer produced outside the United States, and of such general sales corporations and agencies, shall and will faithfully comply with all laws of the state of Washington pertaining to the sale of intoxicating liquors and all rules and regulations of the Washington state liquor control board. If any such brewer or manufacturer of malt liquors or the licensed importer of beer produced outside the United States shall, after obtaining such certificate, fail to submit such report, or if such brewer or manufacturer of malt liquors or the licensed importer of beer produced outside the United States or general sales corporation or agency maintained by such brewers or manufacturers or importers, or any representative or agent thereof, shall violate the terms of such agreement, the board shall, in its discretion, suspend or revoke such certificate;

(3) The fee for the certificate of approval, issued pursuant to the provisions of this title, shall be fifty dollars per annum, which sum shall accompany the application for such certificate.

Sec. 15. Section 23-N added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. by section 1, chapter 217, Laws of 1937 as last amended by section 3, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.330 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a beer retailer's license to be designated as a class B license to sell beer by the individual glass or opened bottle at retail, for consumption on the premises and to sell unpasteurized beer for consumption off the premises: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That unpasteurized beer so sold must be in original sealed packages of the manufacturer or bottler of not less than seven and three-fourths gallons: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That unpasteurized beer may be sold to a purchaser in a sanitary container brought to the premises by the purchaser and filled at the tap by the retailer at the time of sale;

such license to be issued only to a person operating a tavern. The annual fee for said license, if issued in cities and towns, shall be graduated according to the population thereof as follows:

Cities and towns of less than 10,000; fee $62.50;

Cities and towns of 10,000 and less than 100,000; fee $125.00;

Cities and towns of 100,000 or over; fee $187.50;

The annual fee for such license, if issued outside of cities and towns, shall be sixty-two dollars and fifty cents: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That where dancing is permitted on the premises, the fee shall be one hundred eighty-seven dollars and fifty cents.

Sec. 16. Section 23-R added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. by section 1, chapter 217, Laws of 1937 as amended by section 7, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.370 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a wine retailer's license to be designated as class F license to sell wine in bottles and original packages, not to be consumed on the premises where sold, at any store other than the state liquor stores: PROVIDED, Such licensee shall pay to the state liquor stores for ~~((such))~~ wines purchased from such stores the current retail price; fee forty-three dollars and seventy-five cents per annum: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That a holder of a class A or class B license shall be entitled to the privileges permitted in this section by paying an annual fee of twelve dollars and fifty cents for each store.

Sec. 17. Section 23-S added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. by section 1, chapter 217, Laws of 1937 as amended by section 5, chapter 178, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.380 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a beer retailer's license to be designated as class G; a special license to a society or organization to sell beer at picnics or other special occasions at a specified date and place; fee ten dollars per day. Sale, service, and consumption of beer is to be confined to specified premises or designated areas only.

Sec. 18. Section 9, chapter 178, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.500 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a wine retailer's license to be designated as class J; a special license to a society or organization to sell wine at special occasions at a specified date and place; fee ten dollars per day. Sale, service, and consumption of wine is to be confined to specified premises or designated areas only.

Sec. 19. Section 1, chapter 200, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 1, chapter 2, Laws of 1933 and RCW 66.44.320 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person who shall sell any intoxicating liquor to any minor shall be guilty of a ~~((felony))~~ violation of Title 66 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Section 437, chapter 249, Laws of 1909, section 2, chapter 27, Laws of 1909 ex. sess. and RCW 66.44.230 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any phrase, clause, subsection or section of this 1973 amendatory act shall be declared unconstitutional or invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, it shall be conclusively presumed that the legislature would have enacted this 1973 amendatory act without the phrase, clause, subsection or section so held unconstitutional or invalid and the remainder of the act shall not be affected as a result of said part being held unconstitutional or invalid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1973.

Passed the Senate March 27, 1973.

Passed the House April 15, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973, with the exception of Section 2 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2600 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to intoxicating liquor."

This bill was requested by the liquor control board and has the effect of modernizing and clarifying many of the statutes relating to their operation. Section two of the bill, which was not originally in the bill, would prohibit the board from employing any person who is receiving a pension in the amount of four hundred dollars or more. This restriction, if valid at all, should be applied to all state employees if it is to be adopted, not just liquor control board employees. Consequently, such a provision belongs in the laws relating to the personnel board rather than this act.

Accordingly, I have determined to veto that item consisting of section two for the reasons set out above. With that exception, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2600 is approved."

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2748]

TRANSPORTATION AGENCIES-- POWERS AND DUTIES--STUDIES--
APPROPRIATION

AN ACT Relating to transportation; describing powers and duties of transportation agencies; providing for transportation studies; adding new sections to chapter 44.40 RCW; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 44.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislative transportation committee and/or the senate and house transportation and utilities committees is or are hereby authorized to consider the following subjects of study and such other related subjects as it or they deem appropriate, and report its or their findings and recommendations in connection therewith not later than the convening of the 1975 regular legislative session:

(1) Establishing organizational and policy guidelines for the review of state-wide transportation needs, the interrelationship of all transportation needs and the development and implementation of a state-wide transportation plan;

(2) A review of the energy crisis problem and its implication with respect to long range transportation planning, and utility planning related to transportation;

(3) The relationship between the environment and transportation improvements including an analysis of land use patterns and the costs and benefits of environmental impact statements;

(4) A reevaluation of priority programming criteria including the feasibility of adding short and long-term social, economic, and environmental cost/benefit considerations.

(5) Feasibility of integrating the Puget Sound reserve, capital construction and ferry operations accounts into a single account or integrating ferry system needs and funding with that of highways;

(6) An analysis of alternative state funding methods with respect to providing for a balanced and adequate transportation system taking into consideration the direction of federal funding;

(7) Development of a simplified fee structure for the highway safety fund or consolidation of said fund with the motor vehicle fund;

(8) A review of the purposes, policies, procedures, and utilization of the highway equipment fund;

(9) Analysis of alternative financing methods for railroad grade crossing protection;

(10) Develop methods for determining priorities among high accident locations including railroad grade crossings in cooperation with the state highway commissioners, and utilities and transportation commissioners;

(11) Develop a pilot project in planning, programming, and budgeting improvement through the development of an interagency traffic safety program in cooperation with transportation agencies and the office of program planning and fiscal management;

(12) The concept of a scenic and recreational highway system considering the provisions of section 8, chapter 195, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and senate bill 2539 (1973 legislative session);

(13) A continuing analysis of methods to recover for transportation purposes a portion of the increased land values resulting from transportation improvements;

(14) A continuing analysis of the relationship between traffic patrol manpower levels and accidents on state highways and county roads;

(15) An evaluation of alternatives to court adjudication of traffic violations such that the quality and timeliness of both traffic and nontraffic violation judgments may be improved and accelerated;

(16) A continuing review of traffic safety activities and state compliance with federal standards, in general, and effective methods and procedures of implementing and operating a state-wide annual vehicle safety and emission control inspection program;

(17) An investigation to determine a feasible and acceptable procedure for mandatory physician reporting of diagnosed disabilities and conditions tending to create a threat or hazard to the individual and/or the motoring public if unrestricted licensing for motor vehicle operation is granted;

(18) A cost/benefit analysis relating to the acquisition, installation, and operation of on line video display terminals for high density courts which would permit direct and immediate driver record and status look-up capability via the department of motor vehicles driver records computer;

(19) Through stratified representative sampling procedures establish just and equitable customer service guidelines (i.e., time and travel distance) for the examination of license applicants and issuance of vehicle operators licenses;

(20) Feasibility and desirability of establishing a separate assistant directorship for right of way activities in cooperation with the department of highways;

(21) Establish policies and guidelines for biennial highway commission review of highway, street and road sections with respect to whether such sections should be added to or deleted from the state highway system;

(22) Review procedures now required to dispose of surplus real property and possible improvements in such procedures;

(23) Comparison of compensation practices of the state patrol for commissioned personnel with those of other law enforcement agencies;

(24) The desirability and feasibility of regulating signing adjacent to public highways taking into consideration the provisions of senate bills 2209 and 2434 and house bill 289 (1973 legislative session);

(25) Analysis of highway conditions which may justify raising or lowering traffic speeds taking traffic safety and existing studies into consideration, and the feasibility of utilizing electronic variable speed control devices in heavy traffic corridors;

(26) Review of traffic offense penal system, including attitudes and effectiveness;

(27) Feasibility and desirability of installation of emergency public telephone service along public highways in cooperation with the state highway commission;

(28) An evaluation of the need for additional regulation of the visibility of bicycles for safety purposes;

(29) A reevaluation of the functional classification criteria including the feasibility of classifying by function by assessment of percentages of each of the following types of trips:

(a) home-to-work;

(b) commodities movement (including farm to market);

(c) defense, military, emergency;

(d) recreation; and a reevaluation of the criteria for selection of specific projects for priority of construction within each functional class;

(30) Analysis of equity of aviation fuel excise tax provisions, particularly as they relate to third level air carriers and air travel clubs.

(31) Alternative courses of action to reduce and control air pollution resulting from transportation sources, an analysis of their relative effectiveness and cost, and assessment of their relative acceptability by the public;

(32) Alternative courses of action to reduce and control noise pollution resulting from transportation sources, an analysis of their relative effectiveness and cost, and assessment of their relative acceptability by the public;

(33) Desirability and feasibility of establishing a transportation research center taking into consideration costs and benefits, such centers in other states, and state and federal funding sources;

(34) An analysis of the transportation planning process used by cities and counties, including the effects of state requirements thereon, and the adequacy of local planning procedures in meeting the objectives of state planning requirements;

(35) A feasibility study of providing water transportation for commuter foot passengers within the Lake Washington-Lake Union area, including the provision of appropriate terminal facilities and coordination with land transportation facilities;

(36) Evaluation of state highway landscaping practices with respect to safety and beautification purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 3, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. and chapter 44.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Powers and duties enumerated by this chapter shall be delegated to the senate and house transportation and utilities committees during periods when the legislative transportation committee is not appointed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 3, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. and chapter 44.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislative transportation committee and/or the senate and house transportation and utilities committees may enter into contracts on behalf of the state to carry out the purposes of this 1973 act;

V- it or they may act for the state in the initiation of or participation in any multigovernmental agency program relative to transportation planning, programming, or budgeting, or other purposes of this chapter; and it or they may enter into contracts to receive federal or other fund grants or gifts. When federal or other funds are received, they shall be deposited with the state treasurer and thereafter expended only upon approval by the committee or committees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 44.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The senate and house transportation and utilities committees are authorized to undertake a review of the total taxing structure for transportation programs and activities including:

(1) Alternative methods of taxing fuels and establishing license and road use fees;

(2) And the equity of the taxing structure, including but not limited to motor vehicle tonnage and excise taxes, between various classes of vehicles and users.

Said study shall be divided into two phases, a preliminary phase for the purpose of specifically defining the scope and guidelines of the study, and the major study phase for the conduct of the detailed study work.

The committees are authorized to employ a consultant to conduct the study and cooperate with state and federal government agencies in the conduct of said study.

The findings and recommendations of the study shall be submitted to the legislature prior to the convening of the 1975 regular legislative session.

There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund the sum of five hundred thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary to conduct the study. The committees are directed to seek federal participation and are authorized to receive federal funds for said purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The legislative transportation committee and/or the senate and house transportation and utilities committees and the state highway commission may jointly consider the following proposed highway additions or improvements by undertaking appropriate studies and surveys as may be necessary to evaluate their merits, said studies to be completed prior to September 1, 1974:

(1) A realignment of state route 104 east of Interstate 5 generally along the Snohomish-King county line;

(2) Traffic and safety improvements required on highways adjacent to ports of entry along the Canadian border as provided in Senate Resolution 1972-42;

(3) Alternative corridors to proposed north-south Spokane freeway including social impact and cost/benefit analysis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department of motor vehicles in cooperation with the legislative transportation committee and/or the senate and house transportation and utilities committees is or are hereby directed to study the feasibility and desirability, both departmental and public, of implementing a staggered vehicle licensing system. A report including recommendations shall be made to the legislature not later than the convening of the 1975 regular legislative session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislative transportation committee or the standing transportation and utilities committees of the senate and house are hereby authorized to make available $20,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary to the western conference of the council of state governments. Such funds will be made available for use by its subcommittee on short haul air transportation only in the event that the subcommittee is continued by at least seven participating states and that it is evident that federal funds have been secured through the department of transportation for continuation of the short haul air transportation study under the auspices of the western conference of the council of state governments. In the event that the said conference obtains sufficient state and federal funds for continuation of the short haul air transportation study, the state of Washington will be the administrator of the funds for the participating states according to the procedures prescribed by the office of the attorney general.

There is hereby appropriated from the aeronautics account of the general fund the sum of $20,000 to carry out the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department of highways, in cooperation with the legislative transportation committee and/or the senate and house transportation and utilities committees, is directed to communicate with all appropriate state agencies and other governmental officials concerning the development of a quad-city airport to serve the cities of Pullman and Clarkston, Washington, and Lewiston and Moscow, Idaho, and to determine the effect such development may have on the priority for construction of SR 193 from Clarkston to Colton.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The legislative transportation committee and/or the senate and house transportation and utilities committees, in conjunction with the department of highways, are authorized to consult with the transportation agencies of the states, counties and cities affected, as well as the Columbia Region Association of Governments, and private transportation companies, with respect to the interstate transportation needs of the Vancouver/Portland area and alternative solutions thereto. The committee(s) are further authorized to apply for and receive federal funding and support of said study, and to negotiate with affected governmental units to obtain such matching funds as may be required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This 1973 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973, with the exception of one item in Section 3 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2748, entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to transportation; describing powers and duties of transportation agencies; providing for transportation studies; adding new sections to Chapter 44.40 RCW; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency." Veto

Message

This bill authorizes interim studies of various transportation related issues by the Legislative Transportation Committee and/or the Senate and House Transportation and Utilities Committees.

Section 3 of the bill authorizes these committees to enter into contracts on behalf of the state to carry out the purposes of the act. In addition, section 3 provides that the committees "may act for the state in the initiation of or participation in any multi-governmental agency program relative to transportation planning, programming or budgeting, or other purposes of this chapter."

I have determined to veto that item in section 3 quoted above. There are both policy and, in some circumstances, constitutional objections to a legislative committee having the authorization to act for the state in multi-governmental programs. Such federal-state-local governmental arrangements clearly involve executive functions and for a legislative committee to be contracting for the state in such matters would clearly violate the traditional limits of the separation of powers between the legislative and executive branches of government.

With the exception of the described item in section 3, the remainder of the bill is approved."

CHAPTER 211

[Substitute House Bill No. 993]

FLAMMABLE FABRICS ACT

AN ACT Relating to flammable fabrics; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; defining crimes; and prescribing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. This chapter may be known and cited as the "Flammable Fabrics Act".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature hereby finds and declares that fabric related burns from children's sleepwear present an immediate and serious danger to the infants and children of this state. The legislature therefor declares it to be in the public interest, and for the protection of the health, property, and welfare of the residents of this state to herein provide for flammability standards for children's sleepwear.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. As used in this chapter the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other form of business enterprise, and every officer thereof.

(2) "Children's sleepwear" means any product of wearing apparel from infant size up to and including size fourteen which is sold or intended for sale for the primary use of sleeping or activities related to sleeping, such as nightgowns, pajamas, and similar or related items such as robes, but excluding diapers and underwear.

(3) "Fabric" means any material (except fiber, filament, or yarn for other than retail sale) woven, knitted, felted, or otherwise produced from or in combination with any material or synthetic fiber, film, or substitute therefor which is intended for use, or which may reasonably be expected to be used, in children's sleepwear.

(4) The term "infant size up to and including size six-x" means the sizes defined as infant through and including six-x in Department of Commerce Voluntary Standards, Commercial Standard 151-50, "Body Measurements for the Sizing of Apparel for Infants, Babies, Toddlers, and Children", Commercial Standard 153, "Body Measurements for the Sizing of Apparel for Girls", and Commercial Standard 155, "Body Measurements for the Sizing of Boys' Apparel".

(5) "Fabric related burns" means burns that would not have been incurred but for the fact that sleepwear worn at the time of the burns did not comply with commercial standards promulgated by the secretary of commerce of the United States in March, 1971, identified as Standard for the Flammability of Children's Sleepwear (DOC FF 3-71) 36 F.R. 14062 and by the Flammable Fabrics Act 15 U.S.C. 1193.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. It shall be unlawful to manufacture for sale, sell, or offer for sale any new and unused article of children's sleepwear which does not comply with the standards established in the Standard for the Flammability of Children's Sleepwear (DOC FF 3-71), 36 F.R. 14062 and the Flammable Fabrics Act, 15 U.S.C. 1191-1204.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of any county within the state may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent any violation of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Any violation of this chapter is punishable, upon conviction, by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or by confinement in the county jail for not exceeding one year, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Any person who violates section 4 of this act shall be strictly liable for fabric-related burns.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Personal service of any process in an action under this chapter may be made upon any person outside the state if such person has violated any provision of this chapter. Such person shall be deemed to have thereby submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state within the meaning of RCW 4.28.180 and 4.28.185, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The provisions of this chapter shall be in addition to and not a substitution for or limitation of any other law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this chapter, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid the remainder of the chapter, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

CHAPTER 212

[Substitute House Bill No. 53]

PROPERTY TAXES--OPEN SPACE, FARM, AND TIMBER LANDS

AN ACT Relating to the taxation of property; amending section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.010; amending section 2, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.020; amending section 3, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.030; amending section 5, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.050; amending section 6, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.060; amending section 7, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.070; amending section 8, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.080; adding new sections to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW; repealing section 4, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW

84.34.040; repealing section 11, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.110; repealing section 12, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.120; repealing section 13, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.130; and repealing section 14, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.140.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature hereby declares that it is in the best interest of the state to maintain, preserve, conserve and otherwise continue in existence adequate open space lands for the production of food, fiber and forest crops, and to assure the use and enjoyment of natural resources and scenic beauty for the economic and social well-being of the state and its citizens. The legislature further declares that assessment practices must be so designed as to permit the continued availability of open space lands for these purposes, and it is the intent of this chapter so to provide. The legislature further declares its intent that farm and agricultural lands shall be valued on the basis of their value for use as authorized by section 11 of Article VII of the Constitution of the state of Washington.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is required by the context:

(1) "Open space land" means (a) any land area so designated by an official comprehensive land use plan adopted by any city or county and zoned accordingly or (b) any land area, the preservation of which in its present use would (i) conserve and enhance natural or scenic resources, or (ii) protect streams or water supply, (iii) promote conservation of soils, wetlands, beaches or tidal marshes, or (iv) enhance the value to the public of abutting or neighboring parks, forests, wildlife preserves, nature reservations or sanctuaries or other open space, or (v) enhance recreation opportunities, or (vi) preserve historic sites, or (vii) retain in its natural state tracts of land not less than five acres situated in an urban area and open to public use on such conditions as may be reasonably required by the legislative body granting the open space classification.

(2) "Farm and agricultural land" means either (a) land in any contiguous ownership of twenty or more acres devoted primarily to ((agricultural uses)) the production of livestock or agricultural commodities for commercial purposes; (b) any parcel of land five acres or more but less than twenty acres devoted primarily to agricultural uses, which has produced a gross income from agricultural uses equivalent to one hundred dollars or more per acre per year for three of the five calendar years preceding the date of application for classification under this chapter; or (c) any parcel of land of less than five acres devoted primarily to agricultural uses which has produced a gross income of one thousand dollars or more per year for three of the five calendar years preceding the date of application for classification under this chapter. Agricultural lands shall also include farm woodlots of less than twenty and more than five acres and the land on which appurtenances necessary to the production, preparation or sale of the agricultural products exist in conjunction with the lands producing such products. Agricultural lands shall also include any parcel of land of one to five acres, which is not contiguous, but which otherwise constitutes an integral part of farming operations being conducted on land qualifying under this section as "farm and agricultural lands".

(3) "Timber land" means land in any contiguous ownership of ~~((twenty))~~ five or more acres which is devoted primarily to the growth and harvest of forest crops and which is not classified as reforestation land pursuant to chapter 84.28 RCW, or as land classified for deferred taxation under chapter 84.32 RCW. Timber land means the land only.

(4) "Current" or "currently" means as of the date on which property is to be listed and valued by the county assessor.

(5) "Owner" means the party or parties having the fee interest in land, except that where land is subject to real estate contract "owner" shall mean the contract vendee.

(6) "Contiguous" means land adjoining and touching other property held by the same ownership. Land divided by a public road, but otherwise an integral part of a farming operation, shall be considered contiguous.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.030 are each amended to read as follows:

An owner of agricultural land desiring current use ~~((assessment))~~ classification under subsection (2) of section 2 of this ((chapter)) 1973 amendatory act shall make application to the county assessor upon forms prepared by the state department of revenue and supplied by the county assessor. An owner of open space or timber land desiring current use classification under subsections (1) and (3) of section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act shall make application to the county legislative authority upon forms prepared by the state department of revenue and supplied by the county assessor. The application shall be accompanied by a reasonable processing fee if such processing fee is established by the city or county legislative authority but that such fee may not exceed thirty dollars for each application: PROVIDED, That if the application is not approved, then the application fee shall be returned to the applicant. Said application shall require only such information reasonably necessary to properly classify an area of land under this ((chapter)) 1973 amendatory act with a notarized verification of the truth thereof and shall include a statement that the applicant is aware of the potential tax liability involved when such land ceases to be designated as open space, farm and agricultural or timber land. Applications must be made ((prior to December 31, 1970 for classification to begin in the assessment year commencing January 1, 1971, and thereafter applications to the county assessor shall be made)) during the ((first four calendar months of the)) calendar year preceding that in which such classification is to begin((: PROVIDED, That no application may be made under RCW 84.34.020(1)(a) until after December 31, 1971)). The assessor shall make necessary information, including copies of this chapter and applicable regulations, readily available to interested parties, and shall render reasonable assistance to such parties upon request.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The assessor shall act upon the application for current use classification of farm and agricultural lands under subsection (2) of section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act, with due regard to all relevant evidence. The application shall be deemed to have been approved unless, prior to the first day of May of the year after such application was mailed or delivered to the assessor, he shall notify the applicant in writing of the extent to which the application is denied. An owner who receives notice that his application has been denied may appeal such denial to the county legislative authority. Within ten days following approval of the application, the assessor shall submit notification of such approval to the county auditor for recording in the place and manner provided for the public recording of state tax liens on real property.

The assessor shall, as to any such land, make a notation each year on the assessment list and the tax roll of the assessed value of such land for the use for which it is classified in addition to the assessed value of such land were it not so classified.

The assessor shall also file notice of both such values with the county treasurer, who shall record such notice in the place and manner provided for recording delinquent taxes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Applications for classification under section 2 subsection (1) or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act shall be made to the county legislative authority. An application made for classification of land under section 2 subsection (1) (b), or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act which is in an area subject to a comprehensive plan shall be acted upon in the same manner in which an amendment to the comprehensive plan is processed. Application made for classification of land which is in an area not subject to a comprehensive plan shall be acted upon after a public hearing and after notice of the hearing shall have been given by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the area at least ten days before the hearing: PROVIDED, That applications for classification of land in an incorporated area shall be acted upon by a determining authority composed of three members of the county legislative body and three members of the city legislative body in which the land is located.

In determining whether an application made for classification under section 2, subsection (1) (b), or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act should be approved or disapproved, the granting authority may take cognizance of the benefits to the general welfare of preserving the current use of the property which is the subject of application, and may consider whether or not preservation of current use of the land will (1) conserve or enhance natural or scenic resources, (2) protect streams or water supplies, (3) promote conservation of soils, wetlands, beaches or tidal marshes, (4) enhance the value of abutting or neighboring parks, forests, wildlife preserves, nature reservations, sanctuaries, or other open spaces, (5) enhance recreation opportunities, (6) preserve historic sites, (7) affect any other factors relevant in weighing benefits to the general welfare of preserving the current use of the property against the potential loss in revenue which may result from granting the application: PROVIDED, That the granting authority may approve the application with respect to only part of the land which is the subject of the application: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any part of the application is denied, the applicant may withdraw the entire application: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the granting authority in approving in part or whole an application for land classified pursuant to section 2 (1) or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act may also require that certain conditions be met, including but not limited to the granting of easements: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the granting or denial of the application for current use classification is a legislative determination and shall be reviewable only for arbitrary and capricious actions.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The granting authority shall immediately notify the county assessor and the applicant of its approval or disapproval which shall in no event be more than six months from the receipt of said application. No land other than farm and agricultural land shall be considered qualified under this chapter until an application in regard thereto has been approved by the appropriate legislative authority.

(2) When the granting authority finds that land qualifies under this chapter, it shall file notice of the same with the assessor within ten days. The assessor shall, as to any such land, make a notation each year on the assessment list and the tax roll of the assessed value of such land for the use for which it is classified in addition to the assessed value of such land were it not so classified.

(3) Within ten days following receipt of the notice from the granting authority that such land qualifies under this chapter, the assessor shall submit such notice to the county auditor for recording in the place and manner provided for the public recording of state tax liens on real property.

(4) The assessor shall also file notice of both such value with the county treasurer, who shall record such notice in the place and manner provided for recording delinquent taxes.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In determining the true and fair value of open space land (~~(, farm and agriculture land,)~~) and timber land, which has been classified as such under the provisions of this chapter, the assessor shall consider only the use to which such property and improvements is currently applied and shall not consider potential uses of such property. The assessor shall compute the assessed value of such property by using the same assessment ratio which he applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property: PROVIDED, That the assessed valuation of open space land with no current use shall not be less than that which would result if it were to be assessed for agricultural uses.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.070 are each amended to read as follows:

When land has once been classified under this chapter, it shall remain under such classification and shall not be applied to other use for at least ten years from the date of classification and shall continue under such classification until and unless withdrawn from classification after notice of request for withdrawal shall be made by the owner. During any year after ~~((seven))~~ eight years of the initial ten-year classification period have elapsed, notice of request for withdrawal of all or a portion of the land, which shall be irrevocable, may be given by the owner to the county assessor or assessors of the county or counties in which such land is situated. In the event that a portion of a parcel is removed from classification, the remaining portion must meet the same requirements as did the entire parcel when such land was originally granted classification pursuant to this chapter. Within seven days the county assessor shall transmit one copy of such notice to the legislative body which originally approved the application. The county assessor or assessors, as the case may be, shall, when ((three)) two assessment years have elapsed following the date of receipt of such notice, withdraw such land from such classification((: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer shall impose and collect upon the property for the seven years last past an amount which would be the difference between the property tax paid as "open space land", "farm and agricultural land", or "timber land" and the amount of property tax otherwise due and payable had the land not been so classified, and the owner shall be liable therefor, and the same may be collected, as in the case of any other property taxes levied against the land: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the county treasurer shall impose and collect interest upon the amounts of such additional tax paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty each year if the land had been assessed at a value computed without regard to this chapter)) and the land shall be subject to the additional tax due under section 12 of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That agreement to tax according to use shall not be considered to be a contract and can be abrogated at any time by the ((state)) legislature in which event no additional tax or penalty shall be imposed.

Sec. 9. Section 8, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.080 are each amended to read as follows:

When land which has been ((assessed)) classified under this chapter as open space land, farm and agricultural land, or timber land is applied to some other use, except through compliance with RCW 84.34.070, or except as a result ((of the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or except as a result of a sale to a public body)) solely from any one of the conditions listed in section 12 (5) of this 1973 amendatory act, the owner shall within sixty days notify the county assessor of such change in use and additional real property tax shall be imposed upon such land in an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) The total amount((; if any, which would be the difference between the property tax paid as "open space land", "farm and agricultural land", or "timber land", and the property tax otherwise due and payable had the land not been so classified during a maximum of twenty years for timber land, or fourteen years for other land preceding the year in which the assessor extends such additional tax on the tax roll)) of the additional tax due under section 12 of this 1973 amendatory act; plus

(2) A penalty amounting to twenty percent of the amount determined in subsection (1) of this section((; plus)).

((3) Interest upon the amounts of such additional tax and penalty until paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty each year if the land had been assessed at a value computed without regard to this chapter:

(4) The provisions of subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section shall not apply in the event that the change in use results from the sale of land classified under this chapter within two years after the death of the owner of at least fifty percent of such land:))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The true and fair value of farm and agricultural land shall be determined by consideration of the earning or productive capacity of comparable lands from crops grown most typically in the area averaged over not less than five years, capitalized at indicative rates. The earning or productive capacity of farm and agricultural lands shall be the "net cash rental", capitalized at a "rate of interest" charged on long term loans secured by a mortgage on farm or agricultural land plus a component for property taxes.

For the purposes of the above computation:

(1) The term "net cash rental" shall mean the average rental paid on an annual basis, in cash or its equivalent, for the land being appraised and other farm and agricultural land of similar quality and similarly situated that is available for lease for a period of at least three years to any reliable person without unreasonable restrictions on its use for production of agricultural crops. There shall be allowed as a deduction from the rental received or computed any costs of crop production charged against the landlord if the costs are such as are customarily paid by a landlord. If "net cash rental" data is not available, the earning or productive capacity of farm and agricultural lands shall be determined by the cash value of typical or usual crops grown on land of similar quality and similarly situated averaged over not less than five years. Standard costs of production shall be allowed as a deduction from the cash value of the crops.

The current "net cash rental" or "earning capacity" shall be determined by the assessor with the advice of the advisory committee as provided in section 11 of this 1973 amendatory act, and through a continuing study within his office, assisted by studies of the department of revenue. This net cash rental figure as it applies to any farm and agricultural land may be challenged before the same boards or authorities as would be the case with regard to assessed values on general property.

(2) The term "rate of interest" shall mean the rate of interest charged by the farm credit administration and other large financial institutions regularly making loans secured by farm and agricultural lands through mortgages or similar legal instruments, averaged over the immediate past five years.

The "rate of interest" shall be determined annually by the revenue department of the state of Washington with the advice of the state advisory committee as provided in section 11 of this 1973 amendatory act, and such determination shall be published not later than January 1 of each year for use in that assessment year. The determination of the revenue department may be appealed to the state board of tax appeals by any owner of farm or agricultural land or the assessor of any county containing farm and agricultural land.

(3) The "component for property taxes" shall be a percentage equal to the estimated millage rate times the legal assessment ratio.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The county legislative authority shall appoint a five member committee representing the active farming community within the county to serve in an advisory capacity to the county assessor in implementing assessment guidelines as established by the department of revenue for the assessment of open space, farms and agricultural lands, and timber lands classified pursuant to this 1973 amendatory act.

A state advisory committee consisting of the director of the department of revenue or his designated representative, one member of the senate appointed by the president of the senate, and one member of the house appointed by the speaker of the house, and three members from the agricultural business community appointed by the agriculture commodity council shall serve in an advisory capacity to the state department of revenue as provided in sections 10 and 17 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) When land has once been classified under this 1973 amendatory act, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls and such land shall be valued pursuant to sections 7 or 10 of this 1973 amendatory act until removal of all or a portion of such designation by the assessor upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove all or a portion of such designation;

(b) Passage of sixty days following the sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner without receipt of a notice of compliance from the new owner. Notice of compliance forms shall be prepared by the state department of revenue and supplied by the county assessor. Said notice shall contain a statement that the new owner is aware of the use classification of the land and of the potential tax liability involved when such land ceases to be designated as open space, farm and agricultural or timber land;

(c) Sale or transfer to an ownership making all or a portion of such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that all or a portion of such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for the purposes under which it was granted classification.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of all or a portion of such land from current use classification, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal, the assessor shall revalue the affected land with reference to full market value on the date of removal from classification. Both the assessed valuation before and after the removal of classification shall be listed and taxes shall be allocated according to that part of the year to which each assessed valuation applies. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, an additional tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer on or before April 30 of the following year. The assessor shall compute the amount of such an additional tax and the treasurer shall mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such additional tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference between the property tax paid as "open space land", "farm and agricultural land", or "timber land" and the amount of property tax otherwise due and payable for the seven years last past had the land not been so classified; plus

(b) Interest upon the amounts of such additional tax paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty if the land had been assessed at a value without regard to this chapter.

(4) Any additional tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent and together with applicable interest thereon, shall as of said date become a lien on such land which shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050 now or as hereafter amended. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(5) The additional tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land.

(d) A natural disaster such as a flood, windstorm, earthquake, or other such calamity rather than by virtue of the act of the landowner changing the use of such property.

(e) Official action by an agency of the state of Washington or by the county or city within which the land is located which disallows the present use of such land.

(f) Transfer to a church and such land would qualify for property tax exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.020.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The owner of any land as to which additional tax is imposed as provided in this 1973 amendatory act shall have with respect to valuation of the land and imposition of the additional tax all remedies provided by Title 84 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The assessor may require owners of land classified under this chapter to submit pertinent data regarding the use of the land, productivity of typical crops, and such similar information pertinent to continued classification and appraisal of the land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Land classified under the provisions of chapter 84.34 RCW prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act which meets the definition of farm and agricultural land under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act, upon request for such change made by the owner to the county assessor, shall be reclassified by the county assessor under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act. This change in classification shall be made without additional tax, penalty, or other requirements: PROVIDED, That subsequent to such reclassification, the land shall be fully subject to the provisions of chapter 84.34 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Nothing in this 1973 amendatory act shall be construed as in any manner affecting the method for valuation of timber standing on timber land which has been classified under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of revenue of the state of Washington shall make such rules and regulations with the advice of the state advisory committee as provided in section 11 of this 1973 amendatory act consistent with the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act as shall be necessary or desirable to permit its effective administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of revenue and each local assessor is hereby directed to publicize the qualifications and manner of making applications for current use classification. Whenever possible notice of the qualifications, method of making applications, and availability of further information on current use classification shall be included with the second half property tax statements for 1973, and thereafter, shall be included with every notice of change in valuation of unplatted lands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Land classified under the provisions of chapter 84.34 RCW as timber land which meets the definition of forest land under the provisions of chapter 84.33 RCW, upon request for such change made by the owner to the county assessor, shall be reclassified by the county assessor under the provisions of chapter 84.33 RCW. This change in classification shall be made without additional tax, penalty, or other requirements set forth in chapter 84.34 RCW: PROVIDED, That subsequent to such reclassification, the land shall be fully subject to the provisions of chapter 84.33 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The following acts or parts of acts are each hereby repealed:

- (1) Section 4, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.040;
- (2) Section 11, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 83.34.110;
- (3) Section 12, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.120;
- (4) Section 13, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.130; and
- (5) Section 14, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.140.

Passed the House April 15, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 15, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973, with the exception of an item in Sections 10, 11 and 17 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, ^{Veto} _{Message} without my approval as to certain items, Substitute House Bill No. 53, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the taxation of property."

Substitute House Bill No. 53 enacts desirable amendments to the Open Space Law. In section 11 of the bill, a State Advisory Committee is created to assist the Department of Revenue in the determination of the annual rate of interest and in the promulgation of rules and regulations under the act. Half of this six-member committee are to be representatives of the agricultural business community and are appointed by the "Agricultural Commodity Council." However, there exists no such council having legal standing. As a result the agricultural representatives cannot be effectively appointed.

While I have no substantive disagreement with the concept of a State Advisory Committee, I have determined to veto that item in section 11 creating the State Advisory Committee. I have also vetoed related references to that committee in sections 10 and 17. When the Legislature returns in September, it may wish to recreate a State Advisory Committee having substantial representation from agricultural business and to provide a viable means for appointing such members.

With the exception of the items described above, the remainder of the bill is approved." Veto

CHAPTER 213
[Substitute House Bill No. 340]
TUBERCULOSIS--HOSPITALIZATION AND CONTROL

AN ACT Relating to tuberculosis hospitalization and control; amending section 2, chapter 143, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.30.061; amending section 16, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.33.020; amending section 17, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.33.030; amending section 18, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.33.040; and amending section 8, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.35.040.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 143, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.30.061 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person residing in the state and needing treatment for tuberculosis, may apply in person to the local health officer or to any licensed physician for examination and if such physician has reasonable cause to believe that said person is suffering from tuberculosis in any form he may apply to the local health officer or tuberculosis hospital director for admission of said person to ((the)) an appropriate ((tuberculosis)) facility for the care and treatment of tuberculosis.

Sec. 2. Section 16, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.33.020 are each amended to read as follows:

V From and after ((August 9, 1974)) January 1, 1974, the secretary shall have responsibility for establishing standards for the control, prevention and treatment of tuberculosis and shall have ((sete)) administrative responsibility and control for all tuberculosis hospital facilities in the state operated pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70.32.010, 70.32.050, 70.32.060 and 70.32.090 and for providing, either directly or through agreement, contract or purchase, hospital, nursing home and other appropriate facilities and services including laboratory services for persons who are, or may be suffering from tuberculosis except as otherwise provided by this 1973 amendatory act.

Pursuant to that responsibility, the secretary shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To develop and enter into such agreements, contracts or purchase arrangements with counties and public and private agencies or institutions to provide for hospitalization, nursing home or other appropriate facilities and services for persons who are or may be suffering from tuberculosis, or to provide for and maintain any tuberculosis hospital facility which the secretary determines is necessary to meet the needs of the state, to determine where such hospitals shall be located and to adequately staff such hospitals to meet patient care needs;

(2) To appoint a medical director for each tuberculosis hospital facility operated pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70.32.010, 70.32.050, 70.32.060 and 70.32.090;

(3) Adopt such rules and regulations as are necessary to assure effective patient care and treatment, and to provide for the general administration of ~~((the))~~ tuberculosis hospital facilities operated pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70.32.010, 70.32.050, 70.32.060 and 70.32.090.

Sec. 3. Section 17, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.33.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The medical director of any tuberculosis hospital facility operated pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70.32.010, 70.32.050, 70.32.060 and 70.32.090 and this 1973 amendatory act shall be a qualified and licensed practitioner of medicine and shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To provide for the administration of the hospital according to the rules and regulations adopted by the department;

(2) To adopt and publish such rules and regulations governing the administration of the hospital as are deemed necessary: PROVIDED, That such rules and regulations are not in conflict with those adopted by the department and have the written approval of the secretary.

Sec. 4. Section 18, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.33.040 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to maintain adequate tuberculosis hospital facilities and to provide for adequate hospitalization, nursing home and other appropriate facilities and services for the residents of the state of Washington who are or may be suffering from tuberculosis and to assure their proper care pursuant to this chapter, the standards set by the secretary pursuant to section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 70.32.010, 70.32.050, 70.32.060 and 70.32.090, the legislative authority of Clallam, Jefferson, Kitsap, Mason, Grays Harbor, Thurston, Pacific, Lewis, Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clark, Skamania, Klickitat, Pierce, King, Snohomish, Skagit, Whatcom, San Juan and Island counties shall ~~((7))~~ levy annually a tax in the sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of one-sixteenth mill against the actual value of the taxable property in the county. ((Upon collection such sum shall be paid to the state to be used for the cost of maintaining and operating tuberculosis hospital facilities operated pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70:32:040, 70:32:050, 70:32:060 and 70:32:090. All other sources of revenue in tuberculosis hospital facilities operated pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70:32:040, 70:32:050, 70:32:060 and 70:32:090 shall be collected by such tuberculosis hospital facilities:

There is hereby appropriated to the department such revenue as is collected resulting from the one-sixteenth mill levy provided for herein, and the collections made by the tuberculosis hospital facilities. Such appropriations to the department shall be used for the cost of maintaining and operating tuberculosis hospital facilities pursuant to this chapter and RCW 70:32:040, 70:32:050, 70:32:060 and 70:32:090: PROVIDED, That in the event that the revenues collected under this section exceed the cost of hospitalization, surplus revenues will be returned to the counties in proportion to the property taxes collected from those counties.)

If such counties desire to receive state services, they may elect to utilize funds collected pursuant to this section for the purpose of contracting with the state upon agreement by the state for the cost of providing tuberculosis hospitalization and/or outpatient treatment including laboratory services, or such funds may be retained by the county for operating its own services for the prevention and treatment of tuberculosis or any other community health purposes authorized by law. None of such counties shall be required to make any payments to the state or any other agency from these funds except upon the express consent of the county legislative authority: PROVIDED, That if the counties do not comply with the promulgated standards of the department the secretary shall take action to provide such required services and to charge the affected county directly for the provision of these services by the state.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 277, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.35.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The district commission shall appoint and determine the compensation of a hospital superintendent for the district who shall serve at the pleasure of the commission and be a physician duly licensed in this state and qualified in public health and/or specializing in the care of tuberculosis. Such superintendent shall act as administrative officer for the commission, shall be the tuberculosis control officer for the district, and shall be empowered to employ such technical and other personnel as approved by such commission.

V. Said superintendent shall have the same powers, duties and responsibilities, throughout the district, as local health officers for the control, prevention, casefinding and treatment of persons who have or may have tuberculosis.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973, with the exception of one item each in Section 2 and Section 5 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to two items Substitute House Bill No. 340 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to tuberculosis hospitalization and control."

This bill generally revises the laws relating to tuberculosis treatment under the jurisdiction of the department of social and health services. In revising the bill as it passed through the legislative process, the effective date carried in section two was inadvertently allowed to remain in the bill. As originally drafted the bill would have become effective January 1, 1974, but that provision was deleted. However, the similar language in section two was not equally deleted. In order to maintain consistency, I have determined to veto this item in section two.

Section five of the bill, which does not relate to the department of social and health services, amends existing law to give the superintendent of the tuberculosis hospital in the Eastern Washington Tuberculosis Hospital District the same powers and duties as a local health officer. Currently, local health officers are responsible for carrying out programs to control tuberculosis and to identify and provide treatment for those persons determined to have tuberculosis. It is clear that such programs can best be carried out by those who are closest to the problem. To provide for overlapping or concurrent jurisdiction in this key area of disease control will add nothing to the continuing efforts to fight tuberculosis.

Accordingly, for the reasons set out above, I have determined to veto that item in section two and that item consisting of section five in Substitute House Bill No. 340. With those exceptions, the remainder of the bill is approved."

[Substitute House Bill No. 445]

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAW--SEX--

HANDICAPPED PERSONS

AN ACT Relating to the law against discrimination; amending section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 1, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.010; amending section 12, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 2, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.020; amending section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 3, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.030; amending section 15, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 16, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.230; amending section 8, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 7, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.120; amending section 9, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 8, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.130; amending section 9, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 10, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.180; amending section 10, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 11, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.190; and amending section 11, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 12, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.200.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 1, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.010 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall be known as the "law against discrimination". It is an exercise of the police power of the state for the protection of the public welfare, health, and peace of the people of this state, and in fulfillment of the provisions of the Constitution of this state concerning civil rights. The legislature hereby finds and declares that practices of discrimination against any of its inhabitants because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status ((or)), age, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap are a matter of state concern, that such discrimination threatens not only the rights and proper privileges of its inhabitants but menaces the institutions and foundation of a free democratic state. A state agency is herein created with powers with respect to elimination and prevention of discrimination in employment, in credit and insurance transactions, in places of public resort, accommodation, or amusement, and in real property transactions because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status ((or)), age, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap; and the board established hereunder is hereby given general jurisdiction and power for such purposes.

Sec. 2. Section 12, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 2, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall be construed liberally for the accomplishment of the purposes thereof. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed to repeal any of the provisions of any other law of this state relating to discrimination because of race, color, creed, national origin, sex, marital status ((or)), age, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, other than a law which purports to require or permit doing any act which is an unfair practice under this chapter. Nor shall anything herein contained be construed to deny the right to any person to institute any action or pursue any civil or criminal remedy based upon an alleged violation of his civil rights.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 3, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The right to be free from discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, ((or)) sex, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap is recognized as and declared to be a civil right. This right shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) The right to obtain and hold employment without discrimination;

(b) The right to the full enjoyment of any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, or privileges of any place of public resort, accommodation, assemblage, or amusement;

(c) The right to engage in real estate transactions without discrimination;

(d) The right to engage in credit or insurance transactions without discrimination((?)).

(2) Any person deeming himself injured by any act in violation of this chapter shall have a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him, or both, together with the cost of suit including a reasonable attorney's fees or any other remedy authorized by this chapter or the United States Civil Rights Act of 1964; and

(3) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, any act prohibited by this chapter related to sex discrimination which is committed in the course of trade or commerce in the state of Washington as defined in the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86

RCW, shall be deemed an unfair practice within the meaning of RCW 19.86.020 and subject to all the provisions of chapter 19.86 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 4. Section 8, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 7, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall have the functions, powers and duties:

(1) To appoint an executive secretary and chief examiner, and such investigators, examiners, clerks, and other employees and agents as it may deem necessary, fix their compensation within the limitations provided by law, and prescribe their duties.

(2) To obtain upon request and utilize the services of all governmental departments and agencies.

(3) To adopt, promulgate, amend, and rescind suitable rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and the policies and practices of the board in connection therewith.

(4) To receive, investigate, and pass upon complaints alleging unfair practices as defined in this chapter because of sex, race, creed, color, ~~((or))~~ national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(5) To issue such publications and such results of investigations and research as in its judgment will tend to promote good will and minimize or eliminate discrimination because of sex, race, creed, color, national origin, ~~((sex))~~ marital status, ~~((or))~~ age, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(6) To make such technical studies as are appropriate to effectuate the purposes and policies of this chapter and to publish and distribute the reports of such studies.

Sec. 5. Section 9, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 8, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The board has power to create such advisory agencies and conciliation councils, local, regional, or state-wide, as in its judgment will aid in effectuating the purposes of this chapter. The board may empower them to study the problems of discrimination in all or specific fields of human relationships or in specific instances of discrimination because of sex, race, creed, color, national origin, ~~((or))~~ marital status, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap; to foster through community effort or otherwise good will, cooperation, and conciliation among the groups and elements of the population of the state, and to make recommendations to the board for the development of policies and procedures in general and in specific instances, and for programs of formal and informal education which the board may recommend to the appropriate state agency.

Such advisory agencies and conciliation councils shall be composed of representative citizens, serving without pay, but with reimbursement for actual and necessary traveling expenses, and the board may make provision for technical and clerical assistance to such agencies and councils and for the expenses of such assistance. The board may use organizations specifically experienced in dealing with questions of discrimination.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 10, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.180 are each amended to read as follows:

It is an unfair practice for any employer:

(1) To refuse to hire any person because of such person's age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, ~~((or))~~ national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification; PROVIDED, That the prohibition against discrimination because of such handicap shall not apply if the particular disability prevents the proper performance of the particular worker involved.

(2) To discharge or bar any person from employment because of such person's age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, ~~((or))~~ national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(3) To discriminate against any person in compensation or in other terms or conditions of employment because of such person's age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, ~~((or))~~ national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap: PROVIDED, That it shall not be an unfair practice for an employer to segregate washrooms or locker facilities on the basis of sex, or to base other terms and conditions of employment on the sex of employees where the board by regulation or ruling in a particular instance has found the employment practice to be appropriate for the practical realization of equality of opportunity between the sexes; PROVIDED, FURTHER,

That it shall not be an unfair practice for an employer to reasonably exclude or restrict participation of handicapped employees from, or reasonably restrict their participation in, life insurance, medical or disability benefits programs.

(4) To print, or circulate, or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement, or publication, or to use any form of application for employment, or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses any limitation, specification, or discrimination as to age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, ~~((or))~~ national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification: PROVIDED, Nothing contained herein shall prohibit advertising in a foreign language.

V Sec. 7. Section 15, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 16, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Who may file a complaint:

(1) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an alleged unfair practice may, by himself or his attorney, make, sign, and file with the board a complaint in writing under oath. The complaint shall state the name and address of the person alleged to have committed the unfair practice and the particulars thereof, and contain such other information as may be required by the board.

(2) Whenever it has reason to believe that any person has been engaged or is engaging in an unfair practice, the board may issue a complaint.

(3) Any employer or principal whose employees, or agents, or any of them, refuse or threaten to refuse to comply with the provisions of this chapter may file with the board a written complaint under oath asking for assistance by conciliation or other remedial action.

Any complaint filed pursuant to this section must be so filed within six months after the alleged act of discrimination: PROVIDED FURTHER, Any person filing a complaint of an alleged unfair labor practice based upon a handicap shall, if requested by the commission or one of its duly authorized employees, submit himself for medical and/or psychiatric examination as provided by the commission before further action on the complaint is taken by the commission.

Sec. 8. Section 10, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 11, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.190 are each amended to read as follows:

It is an unfair practice for any labor union or labor organization:

(1) To deny membership and full membership rights and privileges to any person because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, ((or)) nation origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(2) To expel from membership any person because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, ((or)) national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(3) To discriminate against any member, employer, or employee because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, ((or)) national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

Sec. 9. Section 11, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 12, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.200 are each amended to read as follows:

It is an unfair practice for any employment agency to fail or refuse to classify properly or refer for employment, or otherwise to discriminate against, an individual because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, ~~((or))~~ national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, or to print or circulate, or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement, or publication, or to use any form of application for employment, or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses any limitation, specification or discrimination as to age, sex, race, creed, color, or national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification: PROVIDED, Nothing contained herein shall prohibit advertising in a foreign language.

Passed the House April 15, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 15, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973, with the exception of one item in Section 6 and all of Section 7, which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one section and one item, Substitute House Bill No. 445, entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to the law against discrimination."

This act provides that discrimination as a result of any sensory, physical or mental handicap, is a matter of state concern and one in which the Board Against Discrimination is empowered to investigate and to act. It is made an unfair labor practice for an employer to discriminate in hiring such an individual as a result of these factors, unless the factor involved would prevent the proper performance of the work to be performed.

In section 6 an employer is allowed to exclude or restrict participation of handicapped persons in certain insurance benefit programs. There is no definition of handicap and consequently this provision could be applied to many persons and not just to those persons to whom the bill was primarily directed. In addition, group policies ordinarily include handicapped persons and merely exclude the pre-existing conditions, and the premiums are little, if at all, higher. For these reasons I have determined to veto this item in section 6.

Veto
Message

In section 7 the Commission is authorized to require a person filing a complaint of an alleged unfair labor practice based on a handicap to submit to medical or psychiatric examination before action on the complaint is taken. If needed, the Commission can adopt by rule and regulation procedures for examination of those filing complaints alleging an unfair labor practice based on a handicap. To suggest, as this provision would, that only the handicapped need be submitted to such examinations is unnecessary and inappropriate in his act.

With the exception of this one item in section 6 and section 7, I have approved the remainder of Substitute House Bill No. 445."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House April 15, 1973.
Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.
Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973, with the exception of Section 3 which is vetoed.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.
Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Veto Message one item, Substitute House Bill No. 498 entitled:

"AN ACT Adopting the supplemental budget."

This act, with the exception of one section, provides appropriations to reimburse belated claims and provide special relief. However, section three would require that within six weeks prior to the election in November, a copy of Substitute Senate Bill 2247 be mailed to each individual place of residence in the state. Substitute Senate Bill 2247 is the act which would implement a state income tax if the voters approve the required constitutional amendment at the next election. The appropriation provided for the mailing required in section three is $110,000.

For a number of years now the Secretary of State, pursuant to law, has mailed out a voter's pamphlet discussing the issues to be voted on at general elections. Just recently, I approved a bill passed by the legislature which would substantially expand the scope of the arguments for and against issues on the ballot. The voter's pamphlet is a more appropriate place to discuss the issues submitted to the people, and I am sure that extensive discussion of both the constitutional amendment and the implementing act will be provided in the pamphlet.

It should also be noted that the legislature, in its session in September, intends to undertake a full review of Substitute Senate Bill 2247. Consequently, any amendments made in September would not appear in copies of the bill mailed to the voters. Additionally, should any person desire a copy of the bill for review, it is readily available from the office of the Secretary of State between now and the November election.

Veto
Message

Accordingly, for the reasons set out above, I have determined to veto section three. With that exception, the remainder of Substitute House Bill No. 498 is approved."

[House Bill No. 590]

HORSE RACING--COMMISSION--EMPLOYEES--
POWERS--DUTIES--FUNDING

AN ACT Relating to horse racing; amending section 2, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as as amended by section 1, chapter 233, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 67.16.012; amending section 9, chapter 55, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 7, chapter 148, Laws of 1965 and RCW 67.16.100; and adding new sections to chapter 67.16 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as amended by section 1, chapter 233, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 67.16.012 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the Washington horse racing commission, to consist of three commissioners, who shall be citizens, residents, and qualified electors of the state of Washington, and one of whom shall be a breeder of ((thoroughbred and/or standard bred)) race horses and he shall be of at least one year's standing. The first members of said commission shall be appointed by the governor within thirty days after March 3, 1933, one for a term to expire on the Thursday following the second Monday in January of 1935, one for a term to expire on the Thursday following the second Monday in January of 1937, and one for a term to expire on the Thursday following the second Monday in January of 1939, upon which expiration of the term of any member, the governor shall appoint a successor for a term of six years. Each member shall hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified. Vacancies in the office of commissioner shall be filled by appointment to be made by the governor for the unexpired term; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in the event that an appointment has not been made to fill a vacancy as required by RCW 43.06.030 the member whose term has been vacated or expired shall not be permitted to serve on the commission. Any commissioner may be removed at any time at the pleasure of the governor: PROVIDED, That any member or successor that is appointed or reappointed by the governor after August 11, 1969, shall be confirmed by the senate. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each commissioner shall enter into a surety company bond, to be approved by the governor and attorney general, payable to the state of Washington, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties and the correct accounting and payment of all sums received and coming within his control under this chapter, and in addition thereto each commissioner shall take and subscribe to an oath of office of the same form as that prescribed by law for elective state officers.

V NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 67.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:
No member of the horse racing commission nor any member of their immediate families shall be employed by or accept any compensation, direct or indirect, from any association, corporation or other employer, including breeding associations and concessionaires at racing meets, or any other group or association having a direct financial interest in any racing meet in the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 67.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:
No employee of the horse racing commission shall serve as an employee of any track at which that individual will also serve as an employ e of the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 67.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:
No employee nor any commissioner of the horse racing commission shall have any financial interest whatsoever, other than an ownership interest in a community venture, in any track at which said employee serves as an agent or employee of the commission or at any track with respect to a commissioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. No later than 90 days after the effective date of this act the horse racing commission shall promulgate, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, reasonable rules and regulations implementing to the extent applicable to the circumstances of the horse racing commission the conflict of interest laws of the state of Washington as set forth in chapters 42.18, 42.21 and 42.22 RCW.

V NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 55, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 7, chapter 148, Laws of 1965 and RCW 67.16.100 are each amended to read as follows:
(All sums paid to the commission, together with all sums collected for license fees under the provisions of this chapter, shall be disposed of by the commission as follows: Twenty percent thereof shall be retained by the commission for the payment of the salaries of its members, secretary, clerical, office, and other help and all expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. No salary, wages, expenses, or compensation of any kind shall be paid by the state in connection with the work of the commission. Of the remaining eighty percent, forty-seven percent shall, on the next business day following the receipt thereof, be paid to the state treasurer to be deposited in the general fund; and three percent shall, on the next business day following the receipt thereof, be paid to the state treasurer, who is hereby made ex officio treasurer of a fund to be known as the "state trade fair fund" which shall be maintained as a separate and independent fund; and made available to the director of commerce and economic development for the sole purpose of assisting state trade fairs. The remaining thirty percent shall be paid to the state treasurer, who is hereby made ex officio treasurer of a fund to be known as the "fair fund," which shall be maintained as a separate and independent fund outside of the state treasury; and made available to the director of agriculture for the sole purpose of assisting fairs in the manner provided in Title 45 RCW. Any moneys collected or paid to the commission under the terms of this chapter and not expended at the time of making its report to the legislature, shall be paid to the state treasurer and be placed in the general fund.)

There shall be a fund, known as the "Horse Racing Commission Revolving Fund," which shall consist of all fees, penalties, forfeitures, and all other moneys, income, or revenue received by the commission except those held pursuant to RCW 67.16.102. The state treasurer shall be custodian of the fund. All moneys received by the commission or any employee thereof, except for change funds in an amount of petty cash as fixed by the commission within the authority of law and except those received and held pursuant to RCW 67.16.102 shall be deposited each day in a depository approved by the state treasurer and transferred to the state treasurer to be credited to the horse racing commission revolving fund. Disbursements from the revolving fund shall be on authorization of the commission or duly authorized representative thereof. In order to maintain an effective expenditure of revenue control system the revolving fund shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW and legislative appropriation shall be required to permit expenditures in payment of obligations from such fund. When excess funds are distributed all moneys subject to distribution shall go to the state general fund. Excess funds in the revolving fund shall be distributed by the commission quarterly.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 67.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

V. Moneys in the revolving fund shall be distributed as follows: Twenty percent thereof shall be retained by the commission for the payment of the salaries of its members, secretary, clerical, office, and other help and all expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. No salary, wages, expenses, or compensation of any kind shall be paid by the state in connection with the work of the commission from any state fund other than the horse racing commission revolving fund. Of the remaining eighty percent, forty-seven percent shall, on the next business day following the receipt thereof, be paid to the state treasurer to be deposited in the general fund, and three percent shall, on the next business day following the receipt thereof, be paid to the state treasurer, who is hereby made ex officio treasurer of a fund to be known as the "state trade fair fund" which shall be maintained as a separate and independent fund, and made available to the director of commerce and economic development for the sole purpose of assisting state trade fairs. The remaining thirty percent shall be paid to the state treasurer, who is hereby made ex officio treasurer of a fund to be known as the "fair fund," which shall be maintained as a separate and independent fund outside of the state treasury, and made available to the director of agriculture for the sole purpose of assisting fairs in the manner provided in Title 15 RCW: PROVIDED, That the commission shall not expend for regulatory purpose at any race meet a sum greater than three-fourths of one percent of the total parimutuel handle at such meet. Regulatory purposes within the meaning of this provision shall include but not be limited to the salaries of all officials and personnel at the meet, the cost of services and equipment for the film patrol, the photo finish and the laboratory work, but shall exclude amounts paid to commissioners pursuant to RCW 67.16.017, per diem and travel expenses of employees, the cost of equipment and supplies used in connection with the licensing of personnel, and shall also exclude the cost of personnel and operating expense of the office of the commission at Olympia, Washington: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the foregoing limitation on expenditures shall not apply to those race meets nonprofit in nature which are licensed pursuant to RCW 67.16.130 nor shall the limitation prevent the commission from spending up to $800.00 per day for regulatory purposes at any race meet.

Passed the House April 16, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 14, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973, with the exception of four items found in Section 1 and all of Sections 2, 6 and 7 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to four items, House Bill No. 590, entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to horse racing."

This act would make several changes in the laws relating to the Horse Racing Commission. Section 1 includes amendatory language which could be construed to mean that if an appointment is made to the Commission during the time the Legislature is not in session, so that appointment could be acted upon by the Senate, then such appointee cannot exercise his duties until the Legislature next convenes and the Senate confirms the appointment. Such a limitation would without question deter and inhibit the Commission's performance of its statutory duties. Consequently I have vetoed that item in section 1 creating that limitation.

Section 2 of this act would prohibit members of the Horse Racing Commission, among other things, from accepting breeder's awards from breeding associations. Such a restriction is unfounded and has no purpose or merit. The Commission has advised me that they will immediately adopt, by rule and regulation, the substance of this section with the exception of the prohibition on breeder's awards. I have therefore determined to veto that item consisting of section 2.

Section 6 and 7 of this act would delete existing language regarding the Commission's responsibilities regarding funds received and creates a new "Horse Racing Commission Revolving Fund." Creation of this fund and the procedures prescribed for its usage would seriously delay payment by the Commission to part-time employees hired for one two-day racing meet. More importantly, the budget act previously approved, makes an appropriation to the "Racing Commission Fund" which would no longer be available to the Commission under terms of section 7. It should also be noted that much of the language in section 7 is also in the budget act.

I am not opposed to the considerations that led to the enactment of sections 6 and 7, but to allow them to stand would effectively deprive the Commission of funding under existing mechanisms. Veto

Message

Accordingly, I have determined to veto those four items found in section 1, and consisting of sections 2, 6 and 7."

STATE BUILDINGS AND FACILITIES CONSTRUCTION--
GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS

AN ACT Relating to state government; providing for the acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing, and equipping of state buildings and facilities; providing for the financing thereof by the issuance of bonds; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. For the purpose of acquiring land, funding and providing the planning, acquisition, construction, remodeling, and furnishing, together with all improvements, enhancements, fixed equipment, and facilities, of capitol office buildings, parking facilities, governor's mansion, and such other buildings and facilities as are determined by the state capitol

V—committee to be necessary to provide space for the legislature by way of offices, committee rooms, hearing rooms, and work rooms, and to provide executive office and housing for the governor, and to provide executive office space for other elective officials and such other state agencies as may be necessary, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of twenty-seven million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required, to finance the projects defined in this 1973 act and all costs incidental thereto. Such bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The issuance, sale and retirement of said bonds shall be under the supervision and control of the state finance committee. The committee is authorized to prescribe the form, terms, conditions, and covenants of the bonds, the time or times of sale of all or any portion of them, and the conditions and manner of their sale, issuance and redemption. None of the bonds herein authorized shall be sold for less than the par value thereof.

The committee may provide that the bonds, or any of them, may be called prior to the maturity date thereof under such terms, conditions, and provisions as it may determine and may authorize the use of facsimile signatures in the issuance of such bonds and notes, if any. Such bonds shall be payable at such places as the committee may provide.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. At the time the state finance committee determines to issue such bonds or a portion thereof, it may, pending the issuing of such bonds, issue, in the name of the state, temporary notes in anticipation of the money to be derived from the sale of the bonds, which notes shall be designated as "anticipation notes". Such portion of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds that may be required for such purpose shall be applied to the payment of the principal of and interest on such anticipation notes which have been issued. The proceeds from the sale of bonds authorized by this 1973 act shall be deposited in the state building construction account of the general fund in the state treasury and shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in this 1973 act and for the payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The principal proceeds from the sale of the bonds or notes deposited in the state building construction account of the general fund shall be administered by the state department of general administration subject to the approval of the V state capitol committee. V

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The state building bond redemption fund is hereby created in the state treasury, which fund shall be exclusively devoted to the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized by this 1973 act. The state finance committee, shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to meet such bond retirement and interest requirements and on July 1st of each year the state treasurer shall deposit such amount in the state building bond redemption fund from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and certified by the state treasurer to be general state revenues. Bonds issued under the provisions of this 1973 act shall state that they are a general obligation of the state of Washington, shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay such principal and interest as the same shall become due. The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for the owner and holder of any of the bonds may by a mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require the transfer and payment of funds as directed herein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In addition to any other charges authorized by law and to assist in reimbursing the state general fund for expenditures from the general state revenues in paying the principal and interest on the bonds and notes herein authorized, the director of general administration shall assess a charge against each state board, commission, agency, office, department, activity, or other occupant or user for payment of a proportion of costs for each square foot of floor space assigned to or occupied by it. Payment of the amount so billed to the entity for such occupancy shall be made annually and in advance at the beginning of each fiscal year. The director of general administration shall cause the same to be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislature may provide additional means for raising moneys for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized herein, and this 1973 act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for such payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The bonds herein authorized shall be a legal investment for all state funds or funds under state control and for all funds of any other public body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this 1973 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This 1973 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973, with the exception of two items in Section 1 and Section 4 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to two items, Engrossed House Bill No. 704, entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to state government; providing for the acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing and equipping of state buildings and facilities; providing for the financing thereof by the issuance of bonds; and declaring an emergency."

This bill authorizes the State Finance Committee to issue general obligation bonds in the amount of $27 million for the purposes of acquiring land and the planning, construction and remodeling of capital office buildings, parking facilities, Governor's Mansion, legislative facilities, and executive office space for elective officials and other state agencies. This is desirable legislation which is required in order to allow the development of needed facilities for the executive and legislative branches of government.

Veto
Message

As initially filed and pursuant to existing law the bill would have provided for administration of these planning, construction and remodeling funds by the Department of General Administration. However, as amended in the Senate, section 1 of the bill now provides that any planning, acquisition, construction, remodeling or furnishing of space for the Legislature by way of offices, committee rooms, hearing rooms and workrooms would have to be approved by the State Capitol Committee while the other non-legislative projects would not be similarly controlled. This would mean that even the most minor of remodeling requirements for the Legislature would necessitate the prior approval of the State Capitol Committee. I find such a requirement unreasonable and probably not really intended by the drafters of this amendment.

Under existing law the Department of General Administration has express responsibility to supervise the construction, repair and betterment of all capitol buildings. On the other hand, the State Capitol Committee is a policy-making body for capitol campus development which has not heretofore functioned as an administrative mechanism for the actual construction and remodeling of capitol facilities.

Accordingly, I have vetoed those items in section 1 and section 4 of Engrossed House Bill No. 704 which would unnecessarily involve the State Capitol Committee in the administration of the capital funding authorized by this bill.

With these exceptions, the remainder of Engrossed House Bill No. 704 is approved."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the legislature, recognizing the close relationship between professional gambling and organized crime, to restrain all persons from seeking profit from professional gambling activities in this state; to restrain all persons from patronizing such professional gambling activities; to safeguard the public against the evils induced by common gamblers and common gambling houses engaged in professional gambling; and at the same time, both to preserve the freedom of the press and to avoid restricting participation by individuals in activities and social pastimes, which activities and social pastimes are more for amusement rather than for profit, do not maliciously affect the public, and do not breach the peace.

The legislature further declares that the raising of funds for the promotion of bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations is in the public interest as is participation in such activities and social pastimes as are hereinafter in this chapter authorized.

The legislature further declares that the conducting of bingo, raffles, and amusement games and the operation of punch boards, pull tabs, card rooms, Mah Jongg, social card games, and other social pastimes, when conducted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, are hereby authorized, as are only such lotteries for which no valuable consideration has been paid or agreed to be paid as hereinafter in this chapter provided.

All factors incident to the activities authorized in this chapter shall be closely controlled, and the provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed to achieve such end.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) "Amusement game" means a game played for entertainment in which:

- (a) The contestant actively participates;
- (b) The outcome depends in a material degree upon the skill of the contestant;
- (c) Only merchandise prizes are awarded;
- (d) The outcome is not in the control of the operator;
- (e) The wagers are placed, the winners are determined, and a distribution of prizes or property is made in the presence of all persons placing wagers at such game; and
- (f) Said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization, no person other than a bona fide member of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, including the furnishing of equipment, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting such game or said game is conducted as part of any agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW or said game is conducted on any property of a city of the first class devoted to uses incident to a civic center, worlds fair or similar exposition.

(2) "Bingo" means a game in which prizes are awarded on the basis of designated numbers or symbols on a card conforming to numbers or symbols selected at random and in which no cards are sold except at the time and place of said game, when said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization which does not conduct or allow its premises to be used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week and which does not conduct bingo in any location which is used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week, or if an agricultural fair authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, which does not conduct bingo on more than twelve consecutive days in any calendar year, and except in the case of any agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, no person other than a bona fide member or an employee of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, and no person who takes any part in the management or operation of said game takes any part in the management or operation of any game conducted by any other organization or any other branch of the same organization and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting said game.

(3) "Bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization" means any organization duly existing under the provisions of chapters 24.12, 24.20, or 24.28 RCW, any agricultural fair authorized under the provisions of chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW, or any nonprofit corporation duly existing under the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, civic, patriotic, political, social, fraternal, athletic or agricultural purposes only, all of which in the opinion of the commission have been organized and are operated primarily for purposes other than the operation of gambling activities authorized under this chapter. The fact that contributions to an organization do not qualify for charitable contribution deduction purposes or that the organization is not otherwise exempt from payment of federal income taxes pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, shall constitute prima facie evidence that the organization is not a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this section.

Any person, association or organization which pays its employees, including members, compensation other than is reasonable therefor under the local prevailing wage scale shall be deemed paying compensation based in part or whole upon receipts relating to gambling activities authorized under this chapter and shall not be a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this chapter.

(4) "Bookmaking" means accepting bets as a business, rather than in a casual or personal fashion, upon the outcome of future contingent events.

(5) "Cardroom" means any room in a private or public place with not to exceed eight tables wherein persons may engage in card games of skill, each having a monetary limit to be established by the commission on each wager by a participant therein, in which the success depends upon the knowledge, attention, experience and skill of the player whereby the elements of chance in any such card game are overcome, improved or turned to the advantage of said player: PROVIDED, That such cardroom may only be located within premises for which a permit or license has been granted to serve alcoholic beverages by the individual glass or open bottle under authority of Title 66 RCW. Authorization to operate cardrooms under section 3 of this act includes operating or conducting, or permitting to be operated or conducted, or participation in the operation thereof. Operators of a cardroom may charge an hourly fee for the rental of any table or chair thereat or may derive a profit through the sale of chips or other ducats later redeemable in money for the exclusive use in such card games on the premises.

(6) "Commission" means the Washington state gambling commission created in section 4 of this act.

(7) "Contest of chance" means any contest, game, gaming scheme, or gaming device in which the outcome depends in a material degree upon an element of chance, notwithstanding that skill of the contestants may also be a factor therein.

(8) "Gambling". A person engages in gambling if he stakes or risks something of value upon the outcome of a contest of chance or a future contingent event not under his control or influence, upon an agreement or understanding that he or someone else will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome. Gambling does not include parimutuel betting as authorized by chapter 67.16 RCW, bona fide business transactions valid under the law of contracts, including, but not limited to, contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or commodities, and agreements to compensate for loss caused by the happening of chance, including, but not limited to, contracts of indemnity or guarantee and life, health or accident insurance.

(9) "Gambling device" other than for the purposes of subsection (18) of this section means: (a) Any device or mechanism

V [] used for professional gambling by the operation of which a right to money, credits, deposits or other things of value may be created, in return for a consideration, as the result of the operation of an element of chance; (b) any device or mechanism [] used for professional gambling which, when operated for a consideration, does not return the same value or thing of value for the same consideration upon each operation thereof; (c) any device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation designed primarily for use in connection with professional gambling; and (d) any subassembly or essential part designed or intended for use in connection with any such device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation [] used in professional gambling. But in the application of this definition, a pinball machine or similar mechanical amusement device which confers only an immediate and unrecorded right of replay on players thereof, which does not contain any mechanism which varies the chance of winning free games or the number of free games which may be won or a mechanism or a chute for dispensing coins or a facsimile thereof, and which prohibits multiple winnings depending upon the number of coins inserted and requires the playing of five balls individually upon the insertion of a nickel or dime, as the case may be, to complete any one operation thereof, shall not be deemed a gambling device: PROVIDED FURTHER, That owning, possessing, buying, selling, renting, leasing, financing, holding a security interest in, storing, repairing and transporting such pinball machines or similar mechanical amusement devices shall not be deemed engaging in professional gambling for the purposes of this chapter and shall not be a violation of this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any fee for the purchase or rental of any such pinball machines or similar amusement devices shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put but be based only upon the market value of any such machine, regardless of the location of or type of premises where used, and any fee for the storing, repairing and transporting thereof shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put, but be commensurate with the cost of labor and other expenses incurred in any such storing, repairing and transporting.

(10) "Gambling information" means any wager made in the course of and any information intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition information as to wagers, betting odds and changes in betting odds shall be presumed to be intended for use in professional gambling: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall not apply to newspapers of general circulation or commercial radio and television stations licensed by the federal communications commission.

(11) "Gambling premises" means any building, room, enclosure, vehicle, vessel or other place used or intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition, any place where a gambling device is found, shall be presumed to be intended to be used for professional gambling.

(12) "Gambling record" means any record, receipt, ticket, certificate, token, slip or notation given, made, used or intended to be used in connection with professional gambling.

(13) "Lottery" means a scheme for the distribution of money or property by chance, among persons who have paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for the chance.

For the purpose of this chapter, the following activities do not constitute "valuable consideration" as an element of a lottery:

(a) Listening to or watching a television or radio program or subscribing to a cable television service;

(b) Filling out a coupon or entry blank or facsimile which is published in a bona fide newspaper, or magazine, or in a program sold in conjunction with and at a regularly scheduled sporting event, or the purchase of such a newspaper, magazine or program.

(c) Sending a coupon or entry blank by United States mail to a designated address in connection with a promotion conducted in this state not more than once a year over a period of not more than 90 days;

(d) Visitation to any business establishment to obtain a coupon, entry blank, or proof of purchase;

(e) Mere registration without purchase of goods or services;

(f) Expenditure of time, thought, attention and energy in perusing promotional material; or

(g) Placing or answering a telephone call in a prescribed manner or otherwise making a prescribed response or answer: PROVIDED, That where any drawing is held by or on behalf of in-state retail outlets in connection with business promotions authorized under subsections (d) and (e) hereof, no such in-state retail outlet may conduct more than one such drawing during each calendar year and the period of the drawing and its promotion shall not extend for more than seven consecutive days: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the sponsoring organization has more than one outlet in the state such drawings must be held in all such outlets at the same time except that a sponsoring organization with more than one outlet may conduct a separate drawing in connection with the initial opening of any such outlet.

For purposes of this chapter, radio and television broadcasting is hereby declared to be preempted by applicable federal statutes and the rules applicable thereto by the federal communications commission. Broadcast programming, including advertising and promotion, that complies with said federal statutes and regulations is hereby authorized.

(14) "Player" means a natural person who engages, on equal terms with the other participants, and solely as a contestant or bettor, in any form of gambling in which no person may receive or become entitled to receive any profit therefrom other than personal gambling winnings, and without otherwise rendering any material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation of a particular gambling activity. A natural person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with the other participants therein does not otherwise render material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation thereof by performing, without fee or remuneration, acts directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game, such as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor, and supplying cards or other equipment used therein. A person who engages in "bookmaking" as defined in this section is not a "player".

(15) A person is engaged in "professional gambling" when:

(a) Acting other than as a player or in the manner set forth in section 3 of this act, he knowingly engages in conduct which materially aids any other form of gambling activity, or

(b) Acting other than as a player, or in the manner set forth in section 3 of this act, he knowingly accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he participates or is to participate in the proceeds of gambling activity;

(c) He engages in bookmaking; or

(d) He conducts a lottery as defined in subsection (13) of this section.

Conduct under subparagraph (a), except as exempted under section 3 of this act, includes but is not limited to conduct directed toward the creation or establishment of the particular game, contest, scheme, device or activity involved, toward the acquisition or maintenance of premises, paraphernalia, equipment or apparatus therefor, toward the solicitation or inducement of persons to participate therein, toward the actual conduct of the playing phases thereof, toward the arrangement of any of its financial or recording phases, or toward any other phase of its operation. If a person having substantial proprietary or other authoritative control over any premises shall permit said premises to be used with the person's knowledge for the purpose of conducting gambling activity other than gambling activities as set forth in section 3 of this act, and acting other than as a player, and said person permits such to occur or continue or makes no effort to prevent its occurrence or continuation, he shall be considered as being engaged in professional gambling: PROVIDED, That the proprietor of a bowling establishment who awards prizes obtained from player contributions, to players successfully knocking down pins upon the contingency of identifiable pins being placed in a specified position or combination of positions, as designated by the posted rules of the bowling establishment, where the proprietor does not participate in the proceeds of the "prize fund" shall not be construed to be engaging in "professional gambling" within the meaning of this act: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the books and records of the game shall be open to public inspection.

(16) "Punch boards" and "pull-tabs" shall be given their usual and ordinary meaning as of the effective date of this chapter, except that such definition may be revised by the commission pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

(17) "Raffle" means a game in which tickets bearing an individual number are sold for not more than one dollar each and in which a prize or prizes are awarded on the basis of a drawing from said tickets by the person or persons conducting the game, when said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization, no person other than a bona fide member of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting said game.

(18) "Social card game" shall mean any card game in which success depends upon the knowledge, attention, experience, and skill of the player whereby the elements of chance in any such card game are overcome, improved, or turned to the advantage of said player, and in which no percentage of the money is returned to any individual or organization other than the participants.

(19) "Thing of value" means any money or property, any token, object or article exchangeable for money or property, or any form of credit or promise, directly or indirectly, contemplating transfer of money or property or of any interest therein, or involving extension of a service, entertainment or a privilege of playing at a game or scheme without charge.

(20) "Whoever" and "person" include natural persons, corporations and partnerships and associations of persons; and when any corporate officer, director or stockholder or any partner authorizes, participates in, or knowingly accepts benefits from any violation of this chapter committed by his corporation or partnership, he shall be punishable for such violation as if it had been directly committed by him.

(21) "Mah Jongg" means a game of Chinese origin played, usually by four persons, with one hundred thirty-six or one hundred forty-four pieces marked in suits and called "tiles" which by drawing, discarding and exchanging are built into combinations or sets.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The legislature hereby authorizes

V bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations to conduct bingo games, raffles, amusement games, and social card games, including Mah Jongg, to utilize punch boards and pull-tabs, and to operate cardrooms when licensed and conducted or operated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(2) The legislature hereby authorizes any person, association or organization to utilize punch boards and pull-tabs as a commercial stimulant and to operate cardrooms, including those where Mah Jongg may be played, when licensed and utilized or operated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(3) The legislature hereby authorizes the management of any agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW to conduct amusement games when licensed and operated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto as well as authorizing said amusement games as so licensed and operated to be conducted upon any property of a city of the first class devoted to uses incident to a civic center, worlds fair or similar exposition.

V The penalties provided for professional gambling in this chapter, shall not apply to bingo games, raffles, punch boards, pull-tabs, amusement games, or social card games when conducted in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There shall be a commission, known as the "Washington state gambling commission", consisting of five members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. The members of the commission shall be appointed within thirty days of the effective date of this chapter for terms beginning July 1, 1973, and expiring as follows: One member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1975; one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1976; one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1977; one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1978; and one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1979; each as the governor so determines. Their successors, all of whom shall be citizen members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, upon being appointed and qualified, shall serve six year terms: PROVIDED, That no member of the commission who has served a full six year term shall be eligible for reappointment. In case of a vacancy, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor for the unexpired portion of the term in which said vacancy occurs. No vacancy in the membership of the commission shall impair the right of the remaining member or members to act, except as in section 5 (2) of this act provided.

In addition to the members of the commission there shall initially be four ex officio members without vote from the legislature consisting of: (1) Two members of the senate, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party, both to be appointed by the president of the senate; (2) two members of the house of representatives, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party, both to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; all of whose terms shall end December 31, 1974; appointments shall be made within thirty days of the effective date of this chapter. Such ex officio members who shall collect data deemed essential to future legislative proposals and exchange information with the board shall be deemed engaged in legislative business while in attendance upon the business of the board and shall be limited to such allowances therefor as otherwise provided in RCW 44.04.120, the same to be paid from the "gambling revolving fund" as being expenses relative to commission business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Upon appointment of the initial membership the commission shall meet at a time and place designated by the governor and proceed to organize, electing one of such members as chairman of the commission who shall serve until July 1, 1974; thereafter a chairman shall be elected annually.

(2) A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum of the commission: PROVIDED, That all actions of the commission relating to the regulation of licensing under this act shall require an affirmative vote by three or more members of the commission.

(3) The principal office of the commission shall be at the state capitol and meetings shall be held at least quarterly and at such other times as may be called by the chairman or upon written request to the chairman of a majority of the commission.

(4) Members shall receive fifty dollars per diem for each day or major portion thereof spent in performance of their duties plus reimbursement for actual travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in the same manner as provided for state officials generally in chapter 43.03 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

(5) Before entering upon the duties of his office, each of said members of the commission shall enter into a surety bond executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, payable to the state of Washington, to be approved by the governor, in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and shall take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed for elective state officers, which oath and bond shall be filed with the secretary of state. The premium for said bond shall be paid by the commission.

(6) Any member of the commission may be removed for inefficiency, malfeasance or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges filed by the governor, who shall transmit such written charges to the member accused and to the chief justice of the supreme court. The chief justice shall thereupon designate a tribunal composed of three judges of the superior court to hear and adjudicate the charges. Such tribunal shall fix the time of the hearing, which shall be public, and the procedure for the hearing, and the decision of such tribunal shall be final. Removal of any member of the commission by the tribunal shall disqualify such member for reappointment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The attorney general shall be general counsel for the state gambling commission and shall assign such assistants as may be necessary in carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter, which shall include instituting and prosecuting any actions and proceedings necessary thereto.

(2) The state auditor shall audit the books, records, and affairs of the commission annually. The commission shall pay to the state treasurer for the credit of the state auditor such funds as may be necessary to defray the costs of such audits. The commission may provide for additional audits by certified public accountants. All such audits shall be public records of the state.

The payment for legal services and audits as authorized in this section shall be paid upon authorization of the commission from moneys in the gambling revolving fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To authorize and issue licenses for a period not to exceed one year to bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations approved by the commission meeting the requirements of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto permitting said organizations to conduct bingo games, raffles, amusement games, and social card games, including Mah Jongg, to utilize punch board and pull-tabs, and to operate cardrooms in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto and to revoke or suspend said licenses for violation of any provisions of this chapter or any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto: PROVIDED, That any license issued under authority of this section shall be legal authority to engage in the gambling activity for which issued throughout the incorporated and unincorporated areas of any county, unless a county, or any first class city located therein with respect to such city, shall prohibit such gambling activity: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the commission shall not deny a license to an otherwise qualified applicant in an effort to limit the number of licenses to be issued: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission or director shall not issue, suspend or revoke any license because of considerations of race, creed, color or national origin: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission may authorize the director to temporarily issue or suspend licenses subject to final action by the commission;

(2) To authorize and issue licenses for a period not to exceed one year to any person, association or organization approved by the commission meeting the requirements of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto permitting said person, association or organization to utilize punch boards and pull-tabs as a commercial stimulant and to operate cardrooms, including those where Mah Jongg may be played, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto and to revoke or suspend said licenses for violation of any provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto: PROVIDED, That the commission shall not deny a license to an otherwise qualified applicant in an effort to limit the number of licenses to be issued: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the commission may authorize the director to temporarily issue or suspend licenses subject to final action by the commission;

(3) To establish a schedule of annual license fees for carrying on specific gambling activities upon the premises which shall provide to the commission not less than an amount of money adequate to cover all costs incurred by the commission relative to licensing under this chapter and the enforcement by the commission of the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto: PROVIDED, That all licensing fees shall be submitted with an application therefor and not less than fifty percent of any such license fee shall be retained by the commission upon the denial of any such license as its reasonable expense for investigation into the granting thereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, raffles may be conducted by any bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization not more than once each year without payment of a license fee if such organization shall not receive in gross receipts therefrom an amount over five thousand dollars.

(4) To require that applications for all licenses contain such information as may be required by the commission: PROVIDED, That all persons having an interest in any gambling activity, or the building in which any gambling activity occurs, or the equipment to be used for any gambling activity, or participating as an employee in the operation of any gambling activity, shall be listed on the application for the license and the applicant shall certify on the application, under oath, that the persons named on the application are all of the persons known to have an interest in any gambling activity, building, or equipment by the person making such application: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission may require fingerprinting and background checks on any persons seeking licenses under this chapter or of any person holding an interest in any gambling activity, building or equipment to be used therefor, or of any person participating as an employee in the operation of any gambling activity;

(5) To require that any license holder maintain records as directed by the commission and submit such reports as the commission may deem necessary;

(6) To require that all income from bingo games, raffles, and amusement games be receipted for at the time the income is received from each individual player and that all prizes be receipted for at the time the prize is distributed to each individual player and to require that all raffle tickets be consecutively numbered and accounted for: PROVIDED, That in lieu of the requirements of this subsection, agricultural fairs as defined herein shall report such income not later than thirty days after the termination of said fair.

(7) To regulate and establish maximum limitations on income derived from bingo: PROVIDED, That in establishing limitations pursuant to this subsection the commission shall take into account (i) the nature, character and scope of the activities of the licensee; (ii) the source of all other income of the licensee; (iii) the percentage or extent to which income derived from bingo is used for charitable, as distinguished from nonprofit, purposes;

(8) To cooperate with and secure the cooperation of county, city and other local or state agencies in investigating any matter within the scope of its duties and responsibilities;

(9) In accordance with section 8 of this act, to adopt such rules and regulations as are deemed necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter. All rules and regulations shall be adopted pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW;

(10) To set forth for the perusal of counties, city-counties, cities and towns, model ordinances by which any legislative authority thereof may enter into the taxing of any gambling activity authorized in section 3 of this act; and

(11) To perform all other matters and things necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department of motor vehicles, subject to the approval of the commission, shall employ a full time employee as director respecting gambling activities, who shall be the administrator for the commission in carrying out its powers and duties and who, with the advice and approval of the commission shall issue rules and regulations governing the activities authorized hereunder and shall supervise departmental employees in carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter. In addition the department shall make available to the commission such of its administrative services and staff as are necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter. Neither the director nor any departmental employee working therefor shall be an officer or manager of any charitable or nonprofit organization, or of any organization which conducts gambling activity in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The commission shall, from time to time, make reports to the governor covering such matters in connection with this chapter as he may require, and in addition shall prepare and forward to the governor, to be laid before the legislature, a report for the period ending on the thirty-first day of December of 1973, and a report annually thereafter on the thirtieth day of June of each year, which report shall be a public document, and contain a detailed statement and balance sheet showing in general the fiscal condition of the commission and commission expenditures and receipts for the preceding interval, together with such general information and remarks as the commission deems pertinent thereto and any information requested by either the governor or members of the legislature: PROVIDED, That the first commission appointed pursuant to section 4 of this act shall conduct a thorough study of the types of gambling activity permitted and the types of gambling activity prohibited by this act and shall submit to the session of the legislature convened in September, 1973, if there be one, or, if not, to the session of the legislature convened in January, 1974, a report making specific recommendations as to: (1) Gambling activity that ought to be permitted; (2) gambling activity that ought to be prohibited; (3) the types of licenses and permits that ought to be required; (4) the appropriate fee for each type of license and permit; and (5) the type and amount of tax that ought to be applied to each type of permitted gambling activity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is hereby created a fund to be known as the "gambling revolving fund" which shall consist of all moneys receivable for licensing, penalties, forfeitures, and all other moneys, income, or revenue received by the commission. The state treasurer shall be custodian of the fund. All moneys received by the commission or any employee thereof, except for change funds and an amount of petty cash as fixed by rule or regulation of the commission, shall be deposited each day in a depository approved by the state treasurer and transferred to the state treasurer to be credited to the gambling revolving fund. Disbursements from the revolving fund shall be on authorization of the commission or a duly authorized representative thereof. In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control the gambling revolving fund shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW but no appropriation shall be required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from such fund. All expenses relative to commission business, including but not limited to salaries and expenses of the director and such employees of the department of motor vehicles as are working therefor, shall be paid from the gambling revolving fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The legislative authority of any county, city-county, city, or town, by local law and ordinance, and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, may provide for the taxing of any gambling activity authorized in section 3 of this act within its jurisdiction, the tax receipts to go to the county, city-county, city, or town so taxing the same: PROVIDED, That the tax rate established by any county, except for any first class city located therein with respect to such city, shall constitute the tax rate throughout such county including both incorporated and unincorporated areas; FURTHER, That (1) punch boards and pull-tabs, chances on which shall only be sold to adults, which shall have a twenty-five cent limit on a single chance thereon, shall be taxed on a basis which shall reflect the gross income of the business in which the punch boards and pull-tabs are displayed; and (2) no punch board or pull-tab may award as a prize upon a winning number or symbol being drawn the opportunity of taking a chance upon any other punch board or pull-tab; and (3) all prizes for punch boards and pull-tabs must be on display within the immediate area of the premises wherein any such punch board or pull-tab is located and upon a winning number or symbol being drawn, such prize must be immediately removed therefrom, or such omission shall be deemed a fraud for the purposes of this chapter; and (4) when any person shall win over five dollars in money or merchandise from any punch board or pull-tab, every licensee hereunder shall keep a public record thereof for at least ninety days thereafter containing such information as the commission shall deem necessary: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That taxation of bingo, raffles and amusement games shall never be in an amount greater than ten percent of the gross revenue received therefrom.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Except in the case of an agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, no person other than a member of a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization (and their employees) or any other person, association or organization (and their employees) approved by the commission, shall take any part in the management or operation of any gambling activity authorized under section 3 of this act, and no person who takes any part in the management or operation of any such gambling activity shall take any part in the management or operation of any gambling activity conducted by any other organization or any other branch of the same organization, unless approved by the commission, and no part of the proceeds thereof shall inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting such gambling activities or if such gambling activities be for the charitable benefit of any specific persons designated in the application for a license, then only for such specific persons as so designated.

(2) No bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization or any other person, association or organization shall conduct any gambling activity authorized under section 3 of this act in any leased premises if rental for such premises is unreasonable or to be paid, wholly or partly, on the basis of a percentage of the receipts or profits derived from such gambling activity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The premises and paraphernalia, and all the books and records of any person, association or organization conducting gambling activities authorized under section 3 of this act and any person, association or organization receiving profits therefrom or having any interest therein shall be subject to inspection and audit at any reasonable time, with or without notice, upon demand, by the commission or its designee, the attorney general or his designee, the chief of the Washington state patrol or his designee or the prosecuting attorney, sheriff or director of public safety or their designees of the county wherein located, or the chief of police or his designee of any city or town in which said organization is located, for the purpose of determining compliance or noncompliance with the provisions of this chapter and any rules or regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

The department of revenue shall be provided at such reasonable intervals as the department shall determine with a report, under oath, detailing all receipts and disbursements in connection with such gambling activities together with such other reasonable information as required in order to determine whether such activities comply with the purposes of this chapter or any local ordinances relating thereto. Upon request, copies of such reports shall be provided by the department of revenue to any law enforcement agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. For the purpose of obtaining information concerning any matter relating to the administration or enforcement of this chapter, the commission, or any person appointed by it in writing for the purpose, may inspect the books, documents and records of any person lending money to or in any manner financing any license holder or applicant for a license or receiving any income or profits from the use of such license for the purpose of determining compliance or noncompliance with the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. The commission, or its designee, may conduct hearings, administer oaths, take depositions, compel the attendance of witnesses and issue subpoenas pursuant to RCW 34.04.105.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) Any activity conducted in violation of any provision of this chapter may be enjoined in an action commenced by the commission through the attorney general or by the prosecuting attorney or legal counsel of any city or town in which the prohibited activity may occur.

(2) When a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant hereto has occurred on any property or premises for which one or more licenses, permits, or certificates issued by this state, or any political subdivision or public agency thereof are in effect, all such licenses, permits and certificates may be voided and no license, permit, or certificate so voided shall be issued or reissued for such property or premises for a period of up to sixty days thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Any person who conducts gambling activities without a license issued by the commission shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years or by a fine of not more than one hundred thousand dollars, or both. If any corporation conducts any gambling activity without a license issued by the commission, it may be punished by forfeiture of its corporate charter, in addition to the other penalties set forth in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Whoever, in any application for a license or in any book or record required to be maintained by the commission or in any report required to be submitted to the commission, shall make any false or misleading statement, or make any false or misleading entry or wilfully fail to maintain or make any entry required to be maintained or made, or who wilfully refuses to produce for inspection by the commission, or its designee, any book, record, or document required to be maintained or made by federal or state law, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Any person who knowingly causes, aids, abets, or conspires with another to cause any association or organization to violate any provision of this chapter or of any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than one hundred thousand dollars, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Any person or association or organization operating any gambling activity authorized under section 3 of this act, who or which, directly or indirectly, shall in the course of such operation:

- (1) Employ any device, scheme or artifice to defraud; or

(2) Make any untrue statement of a material fact, or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made not misleading, in the light of the circumstances under which said statement is made; or

(3) Engage in any act, practice or course of operation as would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person;

Shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. In addition to any other penalty provided for in this chapter, every person, directly or indirectly controlling the operation of any gambling activity authorized in section 3 of this act including a director, officer, and/or manager of any association, organization or corporation conducting the same, whether charitable, nonprofit, or profit, shall be liable, jointly and severally, for money damages suffered by any person because of any violation of this chapter, together with interest on any such amount of money damages at six percent per annum from the date of the loss, and reasonable attorneys' fees: PROVIDED, That if any such director, officer, and/or manager did not know any such violation was taking place and had taken all reasonable care to prevent any such violation from taking place, the burden of proof thereof shall be on such director, officer, and/or manager, and if such director, officer and/or manager shall sustain the burden of proof he shall not be liable hereunder. Any civil action under this section may be considered a class action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. It shall be the duty of and all peace officers or law enforcement officers or law enforcement agencies within this state are hereby empowered to investigate, and enforce and prosecute all violations of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Whoever engages in professional gambling, or knowingly causes, aids, abets, or conspires with another to engage in professional gambling, shall be guilty of a felony and fined not more than one hundred thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than five years or both: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this section shall not apply to those activities enumerated in section 3 of this act or to any act or acts in furtherance thereof when conducted in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. (1) All gambling devices as defined in section 2 (9) of this act are common nuisances and shall be subject to seizure, immediately upon detection by any peace officer, and to confiscation and destruction by order of a superior or district justice court, except when in the possession of officers enforcing this chapter.

(2) No property right in any gambling device as defined in section 2 (9) of this act shall exist or be recognized in any person, except the possessory right of officers enforcing this chapter.

Passed the House April 15, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 15, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973 with the exception of certain items in Sections 1, 2, 3 and 7 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to certain items, Substitute House Bill No. 711 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to gambling."

This bill, the first enactment pursuant to the authority of the Constitutional amendment approved at the last election, would provide for a gambling commission to approve and license, through the department of motor vehicles, activities permitted under this act. Counties, and cities of the first class, would have the authority to tax such activities and to prohibit them if they so choose. Activities allowed under this act include bingo and raffles conducted by charitable and non-profit organizations, punch boards and pull-tabs, pin-ball machines which do not provide for a pay off and card rooms and social card games.

Veto
Message

I have determined to veto the items of this bill relating to card rooms and social card games. It is clear from the last election that the people desire bingo and raffles. However, I believe that we should proceed to establish the gambling commission and allow it to gain experience in this area before moving further in the direction of allowing other activities.

Additionally, in the definition of gambling device there is included in several places the item "used in professional gambling." This could cause substantial enforcement problems in determining whether the devices prohibited are actually being used in professional gambling or not. Sufficient enforcement problems could result from allowing these items to remain such that I have determined they should be vetoed.

The definition of what constitutes a lottery includes certain exemptions from the definition of "valuable consideration." One of the exemptions is visitation to a place of business to obtain a coupon, entry blank or proof of purchase. The item referring to proof of purchase could insert into the exemption the additional condition of purchasing an item or several items with no limit on the amount. Clearly, this goes beyond the concept of defining a visit to a place of business as not being valuable consideration. Accordingly, I have determined to veto that item.

With the exceptions noted above, I have approved the remainder of Substitute House Bill No. 711."

CHAPTER 219
[House Bill No. 720]
STATE DATA PROCESSING AUTHORITY

AN ACT Relating to state government; amending section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.010; amending section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.020; amending section 6, chapter 115, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.060; adding new sections to chapter 43.105 RCW; creating a new section; repealing section 3, chapter 212, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.015; repealing section 1, chapter 212, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.031; repealing section 4, chapter 115, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 212, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.040; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the purpose of this chapter to provide, through the ((central budget agency)) Washington state data processing authority, for the efficient and coordinated utilization of data processing equipment, techniques, and personnel to achieve optimum effectiveness and economy in collection, storage, interchange, retrieval, processing, and transmission of information; to authorize development, implementation, and maintenance of a coordinated state-wide plan for data processing and data communications systems; to achieve consolidation of automated data processing resources and centralization of control over automated data processing; and to ensure that ((such)) automated data processing systems shall serve the management and other needs of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of state and local government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is the intention of the legislature that this chapter shall form the basis for the formulation of a long range state automated data processing plan to satisfy the requirements of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of state government. Each legislative, executive, and judicial agency of state government shall study and define its automated data processing requirements in order that the plan allow for the unique requirements of each branch. All agencies of state government are required to cooperate with and support the development and implementation of this plan. To effectuate this intention, the state data processing authority shall have the authority to direct and require the submittal of data from all state agencies, including data from the state auditor, concerning local government agencies. In addition, the state auditor shall conduct a fiscal-legal audit of the completion of the tasks for the authority specified by section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act, and the legislative budget committee, or its successor, shall conduct a performance audit of such tasks.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Authority" means the Washington state data processing authority created by section 5 of this 1973 amendatory act:

(2) "Automatic data processing" means that method of processing information using punch card (EAM) and/or electronic (EDP) equipment and includes data communication devices used in connection with automatic data processing equipment for the transmission of data(†):

(("Committee", unless otherwise indicated in the context, means the data processing advisory committee created by this chapter:))

(3) "Local government agencies" includes all municipal and quasi municipal corporations and political subdivisions, and all agencies of such corporations and subdivisions authorized to contract separately(†):

(4) "Director" means the executive director of the authority:

(5) "State agency" means all offices, departments, agencies, institutions, and commissions of state government(†):

(6) "System" means an organized collection of men, machines, and methods to accomplish a specific objective:

(7) "Applications system" means a computerized system which accomplishes a specific objective (i.e., a payroll system or an inventory system).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 43.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The data processing advisory committee created by section 1, chapter 212, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. is hereby abolished. The staff of such committee and the data processing coordinator and his staff from the office of program planning and fiscal management shall be transferred to the authority, along with such records, files, data, materials, equipment, and supplies as they may possess, within ninety days of the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 43.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There is hereby created the Washington state data processing authority consisting of eleven members appointed by the governor, and serving at his pleasure, as follows: Two members who are directors or agency supervisors in state government; the lieutenant governor; the state commissioner of public lands; the state auditor; the state superintendent of public instruction; the code reviser; one member representing higher education; and three members representing the private sector. The governor shall make such appointments within thirty days after the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act.

Members of the authority shall not be compensated for service on the authority but shall be reimbursed for subsistence, lodging, and travel expenses as provided in chapter 43.03 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

The authority shall elect a chairman from among its members and shall appoint an executive director within sixty days after the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act, subject to confirmation by a majority vote of the senate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 43.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The authority shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To study, organize, and/or develop automated data processing systems to serve interagency and intraagency needs of state agencies, to provide services of said nature, and to require the development of interagency automated data processing systems;

(2) To examine the desirability of removing common application systems, such as the payroll application system, from the individual agencies and assigning such functions to a single state agency;

(3) To make contracts, and to hire employees and consultants necessary or convenient for the purposes of this chapter, and fix their compensation; to enter into appropriate agreements for the utilization of state agencies and, where deemed feasible by the state data processing authority, of local government agencies, and their facilities, services, and personnel in developing and coordinating plans and systems, or other purposes of this chapter; to contract with any and all other governmental agencies for any purpose of this chapter including but not limited to mutual furnishing or utilization of facilities and services or for interagency, intergovernmental, or interstate cooperation in the field of data processing and communications;

(4) To develop and publish standards to implement the purposes of this chapter, including but not limited to standards for the coordinated acquisition and maintenance of data processing equipment and services, requirements for the furnishing of information and data concerning existing data processing systems by state offices, departments, and agencies and local government agencies, where deemed feasible by the state data processing authority, and standards and regulations to establish and maintain the confidential nature of information insofar as such confidentiality may be necessary for individual privacy and the protection of private rights in connection with data processing and communications;

(5) To purchase, lease, rent, or otherwise acquire and maintain automatic data processing equipment, or to delegate to other agencies and institutions of state government, under appropriate standards, the authority to purchase, lease, rent, or otherwise acquire and maintain automatic data processing equipment: PROVIDED, That in exercising such authority due consideration and effect shall be given to the overall purpose of this chapter and the statutory obligations, total management, and needs of each agency: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That, agencies and institutions of state government are expressly prohibited from acquiring data processing equipment without such delegation of authority. The acquisition of automatic data processing equipment is exempt, as provided in RCW 43.19.1901, from the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.210;

(6) To require the consolidation of computing resources into central data processing service center or to establish central data processing service centers;

(7) To develop and maintain all state-wide or interagency data processing policies, standards, and procedures;

(8) To delegate to a single agency the responsibility for maintaining interagency applications systems;

(9) To provide to state agencies such automatic data processing technical training as is necessary or convenient to implement standardization of automatic data processing techniques;

(10) To carry out the tasks assigned in section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act and to report periodically and as requested by the legislature to the legislature on its progress;

(11) To enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 43.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The authority shall complete the following tasks within the number of days after the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act allotted for each task contingent upon the funding of the authority:

(1) Task 1: Preparation of an organization and staffing plan; to be accomplished within one hundred five days;

(2) Task 2: Staffing of the authority; consisting of the transfer of the data processing advisory committee's staff and the data processing coordinator and his staff to the authority within ninety days; and additional staffing to be accomplished within one hundred fifty days;

(3) Task 3: Formulation, publication, and implementation of automatic data processing language standards; to be accomplished within two hundred forty days;

(4) Task 4: Formulation and implementation of standards for resources utilization reporting, including hardware, software, and personnel; to be accomplished within two hundred seventy days;

(5) Task 5: Formulation and implementation of system development standards; to be accomplished within two hundred seventy days;

(6) Task 6: Evaluation of (a) the regional educational computer network study authorized by the council of presidents of the institutions of higher education and (b) the comprehensive plan for computing in the community colleges adopted by the board of community college education; both to be accomplished within three hundred days;

(7) Task 7: Development of a short range resource plan, including a supplemental budget request; to be accomplished within three hundred days;

(8) Task 8: Formulation of agency requirements reporting standards; to be accomplished within three hundred thirty days;

(9) Task 9: Taking inventory of local government automated data processing resources; to be accomplished within three hundred thirty days;

(10) Task 10: Presentation of a preliminary report on the status of automated data processing of the institutions of higher education and of Olympia based state agencies with recommendations for consolidation of such resources of the Olympia based state agencies; to be accomplished within three hundred thirty days;

(11) Task 11: Presentation of a progress report on the definition of standard common business identifiers; to be accomplished within three hundred sixty days;

(12) Task 12: Presentation of a report on policies and procedures for confidentiality and privacy of data; to be accomplished within three hundred sixty days;

(13) Task 13: Presentation of a preliminary progress report to the governor and to the legislature; to be accomplished within three hundred sixty days;

(14) Task 14: Summarization of consolidated agencies and institutions automated data processing requirements; to be accomplished within three hundred ninety days;

(15) Task 15: Presentation of a budget plan and request for the 1975-1977 fiscal biennium; to be accomplished within four hundred eighty days;

(16) Task 16: Development of an internal performance measurement and auditing system; to be accomplished within five hundred ten days;

(17) Task 17: Development of a standard plan for data center operation; to be accomplished within five hundred forty days;

(18) Task 18: Definition of common application systems; to be accomplished within five hundred forty days; and

(19) Task 19: Transmittal to the governor and to the legislature, a Washington state comprehensive data processing plan, which includes the recommended organization of all data processing related functions, a recommendation whether the authority should be phased out and all state data processing functions transferred to a single state agency, and development of an orderly plan for implementation of such recommendations; to the governor to be accomplished within five hundred seventy-five days. The legislative budget committee shall report to the legislature ten days prior to the first legislative session in 1974 and yearly thereafter regarding the progress being made by the authority in fulfilling the mandates and directives of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 43.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The executive director of the authority shall be responsible for carrying into effect the authority's orders and rules and regulations. The director shall also be authorized to employ such staff as is necessary, including but not limited to two assistant executive directors and a confidential secretary. The director shall be paid such salary as shall be deemed reasonable by the state committee on salaries.

Sec. 9. Section 6, chapter 115, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.060 are each amended to read as follows:

State and local government agencies are authorized to enter into any contracts with the (~~budget director, as representative of the governor~~) authority or its successor which may be necessary or desirable to effectuate the purposes and policies of this chapter or for maximum utilization of facilities and services which are the subject of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The following acts or parts of acts are each hereby repealed:

(1) Section 3, chapter 212, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.015;

(2) Section 1, chapter 212, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.031; and

(3) Section 4, chapter 115, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 212, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.040.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973, with the exception of an item in section 5 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item, House Bill 720, entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to state government."

House Bill 720 provides for the creation of the Washington State Data Processing Authority. It is the purpose of this act to provide for the coordinated utilization of data processing equipment within state government. I am prepared to support this measure as part of the continuing efforts of the Legislature and the Executive to address the issues of effective and efficient use of data processing equipment.

Section 5 of House Bill 720 creates an eleven-member Data Processing Authority appointed by the Governor and to serve at his pleasure. However, that section then proceeds to describe who some of the members of the authority shall be. Not only is this language ambiguous, but the four state elected officials designated as members of the Data Processing Authority do not effectively represent these state agencies having the major data processing workloads. Accordingly, I have vetoed that item in section 5 which specifically designates the members to be appointed to the authority.

In recognition of the concerns and interests of elected officials, I intend to appoint the Lieutenant Governor to the Data Processing Authority. In addition, I intend to appoint the Code Reviser to represent legislative data processing activities and a representative for higher education. The remaining positions on the authority will be assigned to five representatives of state government and three representatives from the private sector.

With the exception of this item, the remainder of the bill is approved."

[House Bill No. 901]

DIRECTOR, DEPARTMENT OF FISHERIES-- POWERS AND DUTIES

AN ACT Relating to food fish and shellfish; and amending section 75.12.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 13, chapter 283, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 75.12.010.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The preservation of the fishing industry and food fish and shellfish resources of the state of Washington is vital to the state's economy, and effective measures and remedies are necessary to prevent the depletion of these resources.

Sec. 2. Section 75.12.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 13, chapter 283, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 75.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful to fish for, catch, or take any species of salmon for commercial purposes, except as hereinafter provided, within the waters of the Straits of Juan de Fuca, Puget Sound and waters connected therewith within the state of Washington described as lying to the southerly, easterly and southeasterly of a line described as follows:

Commencing at a concrete monument on Angeles Point in Clallam county, state of Washington, near the mouth of the Elwha River on which is inscribed "Angeles Point Monument" in the latitude 48° 9'3" [north, longitude 123° 33'01" west of Greenwich Meridian; thence running east on a line 81°] 30' true from said point across the flashlight and bell buoy off Partridge Point and thence continued to where said line intersects longitude 122° 40' west; thence north on said line to where said line intersects the southerly shore of Sinclair Island at high tide; thence along the southerly shore of said island to the most easterly point thereof; thence north 46° east true to the line of high tide at Carter Point, the most southerly point of Lummi Island; thence northwesterly along the westerly shore line at high tide of said Lummi Island to where said shore line at high tide intersects line of longitude 122° 40' west; thence north on said line to where said line intersects the mainland at the line of high tide; including within said area the southerly portion of Hale Passage, Bellingham Bay, Padilla Bay, Fidalgo Bay, Guemes Channel, Skagit Bay, Similk Bay, Saratoga Passage, Holmes Harbor, Possession Sound, Admiralty Inlet, Hood Canal, Puget Sound, and all inlets, passages, waters, waterways, and the tributaries thereof: PROVIDED,

That, subject to such seasons and regulations as may be established from time to time by the director, ((fishing for salmon for commercial purposes within the above described waters with gill nets, round haul nets, and troll lines with not to exceed six hooks per boat shall be lawful, and subject to such regulations and to such shorter seasons as the director may establish from time to time:)) it shall be lawful to fish for ((salmon for)) commercial purposes within the above described waters with any lawful gear for sockeye salmon during the period extending from the tenth day of June to the twenty-fifth day of the following July and for other legal salmon from the ((fifth day)) second Monday of ((October)) September to and including the thirtieth day of the following November, except during the hours beginning 4:00 o'clock p.m. of Friday and ending at 4:00 o'clock ((a.m.)) p.m. of the Sunday following; AND PROVIDED, That it shall be lawful to fish for salmon for commercial purposes with gill net gear subject to such regulations and to such shorter seasons as the director may establish from time to time prior to the second Monday in September within the waters of Hale Passage, Bellingham Bay, Samish Bay, Padilla Bay, Fidalgo Bay, Guemes Channel, Skagit Bay, and Similk Bay, to wit: Those waters northerly and easterly of a line commencing at Stanwood, thence along the south shore of Skagit Bay to Rocky Point on Camano Island; thence northerly to Polnell Point on Whidbey Island.

((AND PROVIDED, That for the privilege of purse seining in said waters during the lawful periods a seiner's permit from the director of fisheries shall be required, which permit shall issue on application and payment of a fee of ten dollars:))

AND PROVIDED, That whenever the director determines that a stock or run of salmon cannot be feasibly and properly harvested in the usual manner, and that such stock or run of salmon may be in danger of being wasted and surplus to natural or artificial spawning requirements, the director ((may)) shall maneuver units of lawful gill net gear until the second Monday in September, and thereafter, both lawful gill net and purse seine gear in any number or equivalents at his discretion, by time and area, to fully utilize such harvestable portions of these salmon runs for the economic well being of the citizens of this state, except that gill net and purse seine gear other than emergency and test gear authorized by the fisheries department shall not be used in Lake Washington.

AND PROVIDED, That subject to such regulations and to such shorter seasons as the director may establish from time to time, it shall be lawful to fish for pink salmon for commercial purposes with any lawful gear in each odd year during the period running from the first day of August to the first day of September, both dates inclusive, in the waters lying inside of the following described line: A line commencing at a red wooden monument located on the most easterly point of Dungeness Spit and thence projected to a similar monument located at Point Partridge on Whidbey Island and a line commencing at a red wooden monument located on Olele Point and thence projected easterly to a similar monument located at Bush Point on Whidbey Island.

Passed the House April 12, 1973.
Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.
Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973, with the exception of one item in Section 2 which is vetoed.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item, House Bill No. 901, entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to food fish and shellfish."

Section 2 of House Bill No. 901 contains multiple amendments to RCW section 75.12.010 which pertains to commercial fishing activities. Under present law the Director of the Department of Fisheries has the discretionary authority to authorize commercial fishing in lower Puget Sound when he determines that a run of salmon cannot be feasibly and properly harvested in the usual manner and that such run of salmon may be in danger of being wasted. House Bill No. 901 would apparently mandate the Director whenever a surplus occurs to allow units of lawful gill net gear in the fishing areas south of the Initiative 77 line until the second Monday in September and thereafter both gill net and purse seine gear would be allowed at the Director's discretion.

The consequences of this amendment are unclear since the change in wording can be interpreted to mean that the Director is under a mandate to permit commercial fishing when there is a surplus run of salmon in all legal waters of Puget Sound south of the Initiative 77 line. Or, it can be interpreted to mean that the Director continues to have the discretion to authorize commercial fishing when a surplus run occurs but only in terminal areas, such as Carr Inlet.

Because of the ambiguity in the intent of this amendment and the certain controversy which it would create when the Director sought to meet the requirements of this section, I have determined to veto that item in lines 6 through 17 of page 3 of House Bill No. 901. As a result, the Director's present discretionary authority to act in this area will be maintained.

Veto
Message

With the exemption of that one item, the remainder of House Bill No. 901 is approved."

CHAPTER 221

[Substitute House Bill No. 1005]

INHERITANCE TAXES--EXEMPTIONS--

PENSION BENEFITS

AN ACT Relating to inheritance taxes; amending section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 83.20.030; and adding a new section to chapter 83.20 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 83.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The right of a person to a pension, annuity or retirement allowance, any optional benefit, any other right accrued or accruing to any person under ((RCW)) Title 41 RCW or under any retirement or pension system established or in effect at the state board for community college education, the community colleges, the state colleges, the state universities or established by city ordinance, or established pursuant to RCW 54.04.050(2) shall be exempt from inheritance tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 83.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The right of a person (other than executor) to a pension, annuity or retirement allowance, any optional benefit, or any other right accrued or accruing to any person under any pension plan, annuity, retirement allowance or benefit where such pension plan, annuity, retirement allowance or benefit would qualify for exemption from federal estate taxes pursuant to section 2039(c) or 2039(d) of the internal revenue code of 1954 shall be exempt from inheritance tax.

Passed the House April 14, 1973.

Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973, with the exception of one item in Section 1 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I return herewith, without my approval as to one Veto item, Substitute House Bill No. 1005 entitled: Message

"AN ACT Relating to inheritance taxes."

This act would exempt from inheritance taxes certain pension benefits available, among others, to those employed in higher education. Senate Bill No. 2119 also makes provision for such exemptions but, in so doing, uses different language to amend the same section of law. In order to avoid the necessity of further amendment in the future to reconcile the conflicting language, an item in section one of Substitute House Bill No. 1005 must be deleted. Deleting this item will have no substantive effect in light of the provisions in Senate Bill 2119, which I have approved.

Accordingly, for the reasons set out above, I have determined to veto the one item in section one of Substitute House Bill No. 1005."

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2328]

HIGHWAYS BUDGET

AN ACT Relating to highways; making appropriations for the operations and capital improvements of the state highway commission, the urban arterial board, and the Washington toll bridge authority; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The budget of the Washington state highway commission is hereby adopted and, subject to the provisions hereinafter set forth, the several amounts hereinafter specified, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to accomplish the purposes designated, are hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the state highway commission and are authorized to be disbursed for salaries, wages, and other state highway commission expenses for obligations incurred and not paid as of July 1, 1973, for capital projects and for other specified purposes for the biennium ending June 30, 1975:

PROGRAM C, CONSTRUCTION

For the location, design, right of way, and construction of state highways, including state highways in urban areas in accordance with RCW 47.26.040 through 47.26.070, and for the improvement and construction of buildings, other highway plant structures and ferry and toll facilities, and for associated supervision and direct support $388,531,497: PROVIDED, That the Washington state highway commission may transfer any funds authorized within this appropriation to Program P, "General Supervision, Planning and Research" to meet the terms of the Vernita Toll Bridge bond covenants and RCW 47.56.702, or Program M, "Physical Maintenance and Operations" for expenditure: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the appropriation contained in this section for Program C, "Construction" shall include the proceeds of bonds authorized by RCW 47.26.400 through 47.26.407 remaining unsold on July 1, 1973 but not to exceed $35,000,000: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a deviation of not more than 5% of the $13,254,046 programmed for Program C-1 shall be spent: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission shall expend approximately $1,900,000 for SR 90, 136th Place S.E. undercrossing. Said structure shall be designed with singular columns at each bent with the northerly terminus at the Southwest corner of Bellevue Community College, together with the required frontage road connections taking into consideration accessibility for Metro Transit as to ingress and egress:

PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend $4,000,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary and available, for construction of the four lane facility on State Route 16 between milepost 18.93 near Olympic Drive and milepost 26.78 near Tremont Road if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend $100,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for design of the required number of snowsheds and approach roadways on State Route 20 between Newhalem and the vicinity of Diablo; and that the highway commission is further authorized and directed to expend $1,500,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary and available, for construction of the required number of snowsheds and approach roadways on State Route 20 between Newhalem and the vicinity of Diablo if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the Highway Commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend $731,500 or so much thereof as shall be necessary and available for overlays and other construction improvements on SR 27 from the south city limits of Tekoa to the north city limits of Fairfield, if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided

v in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, in view of the imminent plans of the city of Seattle for construction of the West Seattle freeway, the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend not to exceed $1,000,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary and available for preliminary engineering and design of that portion of the West Seattle freeway interchange with SR 99 which the highway commission finds to be a state responsibility if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, in view of the fact that traffic on SR 20 between SR 5 and Sedro Woolley exceeds capacity by ten percent and with the opening of the North Cascades highway is expected to exceed capacity by eighty-five percent in 1973, the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend not to exceed $900,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary and available for preliminary engineering, design and acquisition of right of way for SR 20 from a junction with SR 5 to Sedro Woolley if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend $140,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for construction of an additional lane to make a three lane off-ramp for northbound traffic on SR 5 in south Snohomish county at northeast 205th street at Swamp Creek if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend approximately $2,000,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for design, right of way acquisition and construction of a connecting roadway between SR 164 in the vicinity of the Auburn Academy and connecting with SR 18 by the most direct route if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to designate that portion of SR 395 between Pasco and Connell to its proper priority within its functional class in order to substantially complete programmed construction improvements for the 1973-79 period no later than July 1, 1975, if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED

FURTHER, That no moneys as appropriated herein shall be expended during the 1973-75 biennium on the Mottman Interchange on Highway 101, being Project No. 132C of PROGRAM C, CONSTRUCTION and moneys appropriated herein for such Mottman Interchange as foresaid shall be expended for location, design, right of way and construction of the Randall Road Interchange on Highway 101, being Project No. 132A: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any moneys herein appropriated are expended for the location, design, or construction of an additional lane or lanes to state route number 522 between N. E. 110th Street and 68th Avenue N. E. then such location, design, or construction shall permit and encourage the exclusive use of such lane or lanes during peak traffic periods by motor vehicles which are a part of an urban mass transit system.

It is the intent of the legislature that the highway commission expedite completion of the manpower utilization study and development of appropriate nonexpenditure workload performance criteria, in coordination with the legislative transportation committee or standing transportation and utilities committees of the senate and house and the office of program planning and fiscal management for early implementation in the 1973-75 biennium; and to complete the manpower utilization study and development of appropriate nonexpenditure workload performance criteria by June 1, 1974; and to prepare the 1975-77 biennium budget request based on such developed nonexpenditure workload performance criteria in order to support budgeted man-years at the district level for preliminary engineering, right of way and construction engineering activities on projects to be included in the 1975-77 biennium construction program. A progress report on the results of such development and implementation shall be presented to the next session of the legislature convening after December 31, 1973.

PROGRAM M, PHYSICAL MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS

For Program M maintenance and operation of state highways, maintenance and operation of highway plant, and associated supervision and direct support $69,050,809: PROVIDED, That the Washington state highway commission may transfer any funds authorized within this appropriation to Program C, "Construction" for expenditure: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a deviation of not more than 5% of the $5,702,482 programmed for Program M-1 shall be spent: PROVIDED FURTHER, That all funds included in this appropriation for deferred maintenance shall be expended during the 1973-75 biennium.

PROGRAM P, GENERAL SUPERVISION, PLANNING AND RESEARCH

For the operations of the Washington state highway commission, department of highways, including programs for executive management and general support, highway planning surveys and research by the Washington state highway commission and for research and studies approved by the Washington state highway commission and the legislative transportation committee or the standing transportation committees of the senate and house. Also, for the supervision and operation of the toll facilities section; any necessary increase in stores; for necessary pit and stockpile sites and write-off of obsolete pits and stockpiles $24,029,203: PROVIDED, That if necessary to meet the terms of the Vernita Toll Bridge bond covenants and RCW 47.56.702, the highway commission shall make available from this appropriation up to $100,000 for each of the Fiscal Years 1974 and 1975: Such allocation shall constitute a loan repayable from extended bridge toll revenues: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the Washington state highway commission may transfer any funds authorized within this appropriation to Program C, "Construction" or Program M, "Physical Maintenance and Operations" for expenditure: PROVIDED FURTHER, That not to exceed $13,509,530 will be expended for Program P-1, Executive Management and General Support.

It is the intent of the legislature that the highway commission devote special attention to the development of appropriate procedures for support and implementation of the comprehensive study activities of the legislative transportation committee, or the standing committees on transportation and utilities of the senate and house during the interim between legislative sessions in the 1973-75 biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The budget for the urban arterial board is hereby adopted and there is hereby appropriated from the urban arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund to the urban arterial board for the biennium ending June 30, 1975 $68,180,687 or so much thereof as may be necessary for implementing and administering the program of financial assistance to cities and counties in urban areas for urban arterial highways, roads and streets: PROVIDED, That said appropriation shall include $49,000,000 proceeds from the sale of bonds authorized by RCW 47.26.420 through 47.26.427: PROVIDED FURTHER, That during the 1973-1975 biennium the urban arterial board shall not authorize any additional projects which in the board's judgment cannot be placed under contract for construction within eighteen months from date of authorization: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in event proceeds of motor vehicle fuel tax revenue distributed in accordance with RCW 82.36.020 are insufficient to meet the debt service requirements on bonds sold in accordance with RCW 47.26.420, funds for such debt service deficits shall be provided in accordance with RCW 47.26.425 and 47.26.426: PROVIDED FURTHER, That not to exceed $573,687 will be expended for administrative expenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby appropriated to the Washington toll bridge authority for the biennium ending June 30, 1975, from the Puget Sound Reserve account in the motor vehicle fund $4,032,114 or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of RCW 47.60.420, and from the Puget Sound capital construction account in the motor vehicle fund $4,158,834 or so much thereof as may be necessary to design and construct new, or modify existing, ferry vessels and terminals, and to plan and improve transportation facilities for the crossing of Puget Sound and any of its tributary waters:

PROVIDED, That only expenditures up to $1,000,000 shall be made from funds authorized by this appropriation from the Puget Sound capital construction account until all funds expended by the state highway commission in accordance with section 4, chapter 290, Laws of 1971 extraordinary session have been repaid to the motor vehicle fund to be used for state highway purposes:

PROVIDED FURTHER, That $2,838,315, or so much thereof as may be necessary, of the funds authorized by this appropriation shall be utilized for the acquisition of two high-speed all-weather advanced marine vessels capable of sustained speeds in excess of 40 knots while meeting high ride quality standards in Puget Sound waters. The vessels may be used for ferry service demonstration purposes: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, The ferry service existing at the time of the adoption of this 1973 Act serving Bremerton and Seattle and Winslow and Seattle shall not be diminished without the approval of the toll bridge authority, the legislative transportation committee, and the standing committees on transportation and utilities of the House and Senate: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the $2,838,315 shall be expended only upon approval of capital grant assistance applications submitted by the toll bridge authority to the urban mass transportation administration for capital facilities and equipment necessary to develop an integrated intermodal land and high-speed over-the-water walk-on transportation system: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the intermodal demonstration project will be targeted for initial demonstration service during the 1973-75 biennium, and following one year of operational service by the high-speed vessels, a recommendation as to the overall capital equipment requirements of the ferry system shall be prepared by the toll bridge authority with the cooperation and approval of the legislative transportation committee and the standing committees on transportation and utilities of the House and Senate, which recommendation shall be submitted to the next following session of the legislature: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a program plan for this project, including objectives, tasks, participants, responsibilities, cost estimates and a summary schedule will be presented by July 1, 1973 to the legislative transportation committee and the standing committees on transportation and utilities of the house and senate for review and approval, and from the Puget Sound ferry operations account in the motor vehicle fund$1,118,000 so much thereof as may be necessary for the operation and maintenance of the ferry system to supplement ferry tolls; PROVIDED FURTHER, That any moneys

V- accruing to the Puget Sound ferry operations account in excess of this appropriation and any part of this appropriation that will be unexpended pursuant to certification by the toll bridge authority or highway commission to the office of program planning and fiscal management shall forthwith be transferred from said account and the total of such moneys shall be distributed as follows:

- (a) ten percent to the cities and towns of the state;
- (b) thirty-three percent to the counties of the state; and
- (c) fifty-seven percent to the state to be expended as provided by RCW 46.68.130:

PROVIDED FURTHER, That there is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the toll bridge authority the sum of ninety thousand dollars for the purchase prior to September 1, 1973 of the assets of Olympic Ferries, Inc., such assets to include all ramps, docks, piers, loading and unloading facilities and real property or real property interests used therewith and further to include the certificate of convenience and necessity for ferry service between Port Townsend and Keystone and further to include any other assets but not to include a warehouse or storage facility located in the vicinity of Port Townsend: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the toll bridge authority and the highway commission are hereby directed to prepare a 6-year program of capital construction improvements in consultation with the legislative transportation committee or standing transportation and utilities committees of the senate and house for submission to the 1975 legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the Washington state highway commission for the biennium ending June 30, 1975, the sum of $2,840 to pay the unsatisfied portion of a judgment against the state of Washington, department of highways in Thurston county cause number 37973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund to the Washington state highway commission $111,144 for supportive services to off-the-job training programs for highway construction workers: PROVIDED, That this appropriation or so much thereof as shall be necessary shall be expended on or before June 30, 1975 and shall be fully reimbursable from federal funds authorized by P.L. 91-605, Title 1.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The state highway commission is hereby authorized to undertake the following study in cooperation with the interested local jurisdictions and to report its findings and recommendations in connection therewith to the legislative transportation committee and to the standing committees of the legislature on transportation and utilities by August, 1974:

(1) The highway commission with the cooperation of the legislative transportation committee and the standing committees on transportation and utilities of the House and Senate shall conduct a study of the most feasible method to allow the general public, through the state, to regain and share a portion of the private economic benefits which are conferred on adjacent property owners by the expenditures of public moneys for the construction and improvement of public transportation facilities including highways, roads, and streets and to expedite the construction of such transportation improvements. The following proposals shall be considered and included in the findings and recommendations.

(a) That the ad valorem taxes levied by the state or by any taxing district be segregated so that the taxes levied against any increase in the true and fair value of real property, which increase is attributable to the construction or planned construction of a public transportation facility, shall be used to reimburse prior public expenditures or to pay any indebtedness incurred for that project.

(b) That subsequent to the first official public announcement that a public transportation facility is to be developed, an excise tax be levied upon all real estate transactions involving properties lying within a specified distance of any point of access to such transportation facility. A fixed percentage of the increased valuation of such a land parcel being transferred within a specified period of time following such announcement shall be paid to the public transportation agency. In the event no real estate transaction has occurred within that specified period of time, other methods of recouping a reasonable part of the unrealized gains shall be developed.

(c) That a local improvement district be formed to assist in the financing of the development of a proposed public transportation facility within a specified distance of the access points of such facility. Varying rates could be applied as the distance from the access points increases.

(d) That a public transportation agency be allowed, within appropriate limitations and safeguards, to acquire rights of way beyond the limits of the proposed transportation facility itself in anticipation of a later resale of such properties to aid in the financing of the transportation facility.

(e) That upon the first public announcement of a proposed public transportation facility, the fair market value of all lands, or parts thereof, within a specified distance of the proposed facility, shall be discounted for any subsequent increases in value attributable to the transportation improvement when the necessary rights of way are acquired.

(2) Based on the findings and recommendations of the results of the study outlined under subsection (1) of this section the department of highways, in cooperation with the interested local jurisdictions, shall study methods by which the design, acquisition of rights of way, and construction of an interchange at state route number 5 and state route number 525 from the Swamp Creek interchange at state route number 5 to 164th Street, southwest, in south Snohomish county can be financed.

(3) There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the Washington state highway commission and the legislative transportation committee and the standing committees on transportation and utilities of the House and Senate the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary to conduct the studies outlined under subsections (1) and (2) of this section: PROVIDED, That the study under subsection (2) of this section shall be undertaken only if the interested local jurisdictions agree to pay fifty percent of the cost thereof, up to a maximum amount not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 144, Laws of 1973, expenditures by state agencies from unanticipated receipts deposited in the contingency receipts fund may be made for obligations incurred prior to June 30, 1973.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Agencies are hereby authorized and directed to pay their share of the 1971-73 unemployment compensation costs in accordance with section 19, chapter 3, Laws of 1971, as determined by the Employment Security Department, from their 1973-75 appropriations. The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may require agencies to place funds in reserve status in order to assure that funds will be available for the purpose of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provisions of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate April 15, 1973.

Passed the House April 15, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1973, with the exception of several items in Section 1 and Section 3 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to several items, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2328, entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to highways."

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 2328, as passed by the Legislature, provided operating and capital appropriations for the Department of Highways, the Toll Bridge Authority, and the Urban Arterial Board for the biennial period fiscal 1974 and 1975.

I have signed Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 2328 with the following exceptions:

"PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend $4,000,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary and available, for construction of the four lane facility on State Route 16 between milepost 18.93 near Olympic Drive and milepost 26.78 near Tremont Road if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act:

PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend $100,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for design of the required number of snowsheds and approach roadways on State Route 20 between Newhalem and the vicinity of Diablo; and that the highway commission is further authorized and directed to expend $1,500,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary and available, for construction of the required number of snowsheds and approach roadways on State Route 20 between Newhalem and the vicinity of Diablo if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the Highway Commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend $731,500 or so much thereof as shall be necessary and available for overlays and other construction improvements on SR 27 from the south city limits of Tekoa to the north city limits of Fairfield, if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, in view of the imminent plans of the city of Seattle for construction of the West Seattle freeway, the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend not to exceed $1,000,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary and available for preliminary engineering and design of that portion of the West Seattle freeway interchange with SR 99 which the highway commission finds to be a state responsibility if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, in view of the fact that traffic on SR 20 between SR 5 and Sedro Woolley exceeds capacity by ten percent and with the opening of the North Cascades highway is expected to exceed capacity by eighty-five percent in 1973, the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend not to exceed $900,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary and available for preliminary engineering, design and acquisition of right of way for SR 20 from a junction with SR 5 to Sedro Woolley if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend $140,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for construction of an additional lane to make a three lane off-ramp for northbound traffic on SR 5 in south Snohomish county at northeast 205th street at Swamp Creek if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to expend approximately $2,000,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for design, right of way acquisition and construction of a connecting roadway between SR 164 in the vicinity of the Auburn Academy and connecting with SR 18 by the most direct route if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to designate that portion of SR 395 between Pasco and Connell to its proper priority within its functional class in order to substantially complete programmed construction improvements for the 1973-79 period no later than July 1, 1975, if the highway commission encounters unavoidable delays in designing, acquiring right of way, or constructing state highway improvements as provided in the budget of the highway commission adopted by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no moneys as appropriated herein shall be expended during the 1973-75 biennium on the Mottman Interchange on Highway 101, being Project No. 132C of PROGRAM C, CONSTRUCTION and moneys appropriated herein for such Mottman Interchange as foresaid shall be expended for location, design, right of way and construction of the Randall Road Interchange on Highway 101, being Project No. 132A; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any moneys herein appropriated are expended for the location, design, or construction of an additional lane or lanes to state route number 522 between N.E. 110th Street and 68th Avenue N.E. then such location, design, or construction shall permit and encourage the exclusive use of such lane or lanes during peak traffic periods by motor vehicles which are a part of an urban mass transit system."

On page 7, Section 3, lines 15 through 20, I have vetoed the following item: following the word "waters": "PROVIDED, That only expenditures up to $1,000,000 shall be made from funds authorized by this appropriation from the Puget Sound capital construction account until all funds expended by the State Highway Commission in accordance with Section 4, Chapter 290, Laws of 1971 extraordinary session have been repaid to the Motor Vehicle Fund to be used for state highway purposes."

On page 8, Section 3, Lines 21 through 31, following

"tolls", delete:

Veto
Message

"PROVIDED FURTHER, That any moneys accruing to the Puget Sound ferry operations account in excess of this appropriation and any part of this appropriation that will be unexpended pursuant to certification by the toll bridge authority or highway commission to the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management shall forthwith be transferred from said account and the total of such moneys shall be distributed as follows:

- (a) ten percent to the cities and towns of the state;
- (b) thirty-three percent to the counties of the state; and
- (c) fifty-seven percent to the state to be expended as provided by RCW 46.68.130:"

On pages 8 and 9, Section 3, lines 32 through 33 on page 8 and lines 1 through 8 on page 9; beginning with "PROVIDED" and ending with "Townsend":

"PROVIDED FURTHER, That there is hereby appropriated from the Motor Vehicle Fund to the toll bridge authority the sum of ninety thousand dollars to purchase prior to September 1, 1973, of the assets of Olympia Ferries, Inc., such assets to include all ramps, docks, piers, loading and unloading facilities and real property interests used therewith and further to include the certificate of convenience and necessity for ferry service between Port Townsend and Keystone and further to include any other assets but not to include a warehouse or storage facility located in the vicinity of Port Townsend."

I have stricken the first item for the purpose of maintaining the integrity of the legislatively-mandated priority program system. The legislative declaration of purpose expressed intent very succinctly as to the requirement for such a system.

RCW 47.05.010 "The legislature finds that anticipated revenues available for state highways for the foreseeable future will fall substantially short of the amount required to satisfy all of the state highway needs. It is the purpose of this chapter to establish a policy of priority programming for highway development having as its basis the rational selection of projects according to factual need, systematically scheduled to carry out defined objectives within limits of money and manpower, and fixed in advance with reasonable flexibility to meet changed conditions." Veto

Message

I find that with such scarcity of funds as cited above becoming even more pressing, and the requirements for evaluation correspondingly more essential, I have stricken these provisions that relate to specific projects in order to preserve the methodology of systematic planning in the state process. Therefore, it is recognized that these projects will be specifically evaluated in the on-going highway planning process. I am confident that as a result of such review a number of these projects will be initiated or accomplished in the next biennium.

In recent years there has been concern expressed regarding the potential influence of the Governor should he be in a position to appoint the Secretary of a Department of Transportation. I find it difficult to reconcile this concern with the large number of special interest projects that I have just deleted from this portion of SSB 2328.

The second item, detailing as priority the repayment of the 1971 ferry construction loan, has been stricken. After consultation with the affected agency, I have stricken this to enable the state to acquire federal funds, if available, and thus to achieve a significant experiment in cross-sound transportation. The loaned funds are secure to the highway system of the state; and at the same time, a major advance in citizen facilities and convenience is made possible.

Item three provided for redistribution of excess to appropriation or required Puget Sound ferry operations account funds. After review of the entire budget, I have stricken this provision for the following reasons. First, the fast passenger boat experiment is an unknown cost factor. Until such time as the operational cost estimates have been compiled, such a redistribution would constitute a hazard to the effort. Second, the ferry operation, in its entirety, is under review. Finally, I note that the transportation study bill, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 2748 calls for a study of the total funding system for transportation as well as the requirement for a separate study of the various ferry funding mechanisms. Such a redistribution would thus be premature.

The fourth item stricken is that of mandating the terms and conditions of acquisition of a portion of the assets of Olympic Ferries, Inc., Chapter 44, Laws of 1972, Second Extraordinary Session, authorized the Toll Bridge Authority and the Highway Commission to operate a ferry service between Port Townsend and Keystone in the event that the present privately owned corporation operating the service discontinued service and surrendered its certificate of convenience and necessity. This has not occurred. The terms of purchase listed in the subject proviso include purchase of the said certificate, which constitutes essentially purchase of a privilege which is given by the state on the condition that requirements of the public are met. Until such time as the subject private operator determines that he no longer wishes to provide the service, the terms of Chapter 44, Laws of 1972 (2nd Ex. Sess.) should prevail. At that point, the citizens of the State of Washington should not be required to purchase a privilege which they have granted but which is no longer desired by the holder. In summary, the possible purchase by the state of this operation should be determined by existing statutes and negotiation as to the value of assets.

With the exception of the items described above, the remainder of the bill is approved."

general ruled that provisions of the 30th amendment to the state constitution approved by the voters at the 1956 state general election applied at the time signatures were presented. This amendment provided that the number of signatures necessary to validate an initiative must be equal to at least 8% of the votes cast on the position of governor at the last preceding gubernatorial election. This computation set the necessary number as 90,319 valid signatures. Sponsors appealed to the State Supreme Court which held that the attorney general was correct. For this reason the Secretary of State did not check signature petitions and the initiative was not certified to the 1957 Legislature.

- INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 25 (Dam Construction and Water Diversion)-- Measure filed April 3, 1958. Signature petitions filed January 2, 1959 and upon completion of canvass found sufficient. The 1959 Legislature failed to take final action and as provided by the state constitution the measure was submitted to the voters for final decision at the November 8, 1960 state general election. Measure was approved by the following vote: For--526,130 Against--483,449. Act is now identified as Chapter 4, Laws of 1961.

INITIATIVES TO THE LEGISLATURE

- INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 33 (No caption written)—Filed July 1, 1966 by George A. Guilmet of Edmonds. This was a proposed memorial to Congress concerning “the ending of the war now being waged by the United States Government and its armed forces in Vietnam and Southeast Asia.” However, the office of the attorney general reversed its position in that a similar measure was filed in 1952 (Initiative to the Legislature No. 18) and declined to issue a ballot title on the grounds that the subject matter was not a proper subject to fall within the scope of the initiative procedure. As a consequence, the secretary of state returned the measure and filing fee to the sponsor.
- INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 34 (“Personal Effects” Tax Exemption)—Filed March 20, 1968 by the Committee Against Unfair Personal Property Tax. No signatures presented for checking.
- INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 35 (State Citizens—War and Taxes)—Filed April 28, 1970 by the Seattle Liberation Front—William Edward Kononen, Initiative Circulation Chairman. No signatures presented for checking.
- INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 36 (Licensing Dog Racing—Parimutuel Betting)—Filed July 3, 1970 by Donald Nicholson of Kirkland. Because of technical errors, measure was refiled August 18, 1970 as Initiative to the Legislature No. 39.
- INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 37 (Transportation Revenues—Use and Distribution)—Filed July 9, 1970 by William L. McCord and William L. Harrington, Co-sponsors. No signatures presented for checking.
- INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 38 (Certain Cities—Greyhound Racing Franchises)—Filed July 31, 1970 by Herbert B. Shannon of Medina. Signatures (121,077) filed December 31, 1970. Checking revealed insufficient valid signatures submitted and the initiative was not certified to the 1971 Legislature.
- INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 39 (Licensing Dog Racing—Parimutuel Betting)—Filed August 18, 1970 by Donald Nicholson and Dr. Lawrence Pirkle, Co-sponsors. Signatures (124,394) filed December 31, 1970. Checking revealed insufficient valid signatures submitted and the initiative was not certified to the 1971 Legislature.
- INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 40 (Litter Control Act)—Filed August 20, 1970 by the Washington Committee to Stop Litter—Irving B. Stimpson, Secretary. Signatures (141,228) filed December 30, 1970 and found sufficient and the measure was certified to the Legislature as of January 29, 1971. The Legislature took no action insofar as Initiative Measure No. 40 but did pass an alternative measure No. 40B now identified as Chapter 307, Laws of 1971, 1st Ex. Session, which contained an emergency clause and became effective law upon approval of the Governor on May 21, 1971. However, as required by the state constitution, both measures were submitted to the voters for final decision at the November 7, 1972 state general election. The votes cast on the original measure and the alternative proposal were as follows:

INITIATIVES TO THE LEGISLATURE

For Either	Against Both	Prefer No. 40	Prefer No. 40B
788,151	418,764	194,128	798,931

As a consequence, Alternative Measure No. 40B prevailed which sustained Chapter 307, Laws of 1971, 1st Ex. Session, as law.

INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 41 (Public Schools—Certain Courses Curtailed)—Filed September 4, 1970 by the Schools Belong to You Committee of the State of Washington—Dale R. Dorman, Chairman. No signatures presented for checking.

INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 42—Filed September 21, 1970 by the Washington Environmental Council. Refiled September 25, 1970 as Initiative to the Legislature No. 43.

INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 43 (Regulating Shoreline Use and Development)—Filed September 25, 1970 by the Washington Environmental Council. Signatures (160,421) filed December 31, 1970 and found sufficient and the measure was certified to the Legislature as of January 29, 1971. The Legislature took no action insofar as Initiative No. 43 but did pass an alternative measure No. 43B now identified as Chapter 286, Laws of 1971, 1st Ex. Session, which became effective law as of June 1, 1971. However, as required by the state constitution both measures were submitted to the November 7, 1972 state general election. The votes cast on the original measure and the alternative proposal were as follows:

For Either	Against Both	Prefer No. 43	Prefer No. 43B
603,167	551,132	285,721	611,748

As a consequence, Alternative Measure No. 43B prevailed which sustained Chapter 286, Laws of 1971, 1st Ex. Session, as law.

INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 44 (Statutory Tax Limitation—20 Mills)—Filed October 15, 1970 by the 40-Mill Tax Limit Committee—Lester P. Jenkins, Secretary. Signatures (229,785) filed December 30, 1970 and found sufficient and the measure was certified to the Legislature as of January 29, 1971. The Legislature took no action and, as provided by the state constitution, the initiative was submitted to the voters for final decision at the November 7, 1972 state general election and approved by the following vote: For—930,275 Against—301,238. Act is now identified as Chapter 2, Laws of 1973.

REFERENDUM MEASURES

following vote: For—163,923 Against—467,574. As a consequence, only sections 1 through 5, inclusive, became law.

REFERENDUM MEASURE NO. 29 (Portion of Chapter 190, Laws of 1949, Amending State Insurance Code)—Filed April 2, 1949. No signature petitions presented for canvassing.

REFERENDUM MEASURE NO. 30 (Chapter 280, Laws of 1957, Inheritance Tax on Insurance Proceeds)—Filed April 12, 1957. Signature petitions filed June 17, 1957, and found sufficient. Measure submitted to the voters at the state general election held on November 4, 1958. Failed to pass by the following vote: For—52,223 Against—811,539. As a consequence, Chapter 280, Laws of 1957 did not become law.

REFERENDUM MEASURE NO. 31 (Portion of Chapter 297, Laws of 1959, Authorizing corporations and joint stock associations to practice engineering)—Filed March 31, 1959. Signature petition sheets presented for canvassing June 10, 1959. Results of canvassing revealed that sponsors missed obtaining necessary number of valid signatures by 1,124 signatures. As a result attempt to refer law to voters failed.

REFERENDUM MEASURE NO. 32 (Chapter 298, Laws of 1961, Washington State Milk Marketing Act)—Filed March 22, 1961 by the Washington State Milk Consumers' League. Supporting signature petition sheets filed June 14, 1961, and as of July 26, 1961, it was determined that the necessary number of valid signatures had been obtained to certify measure for final decision by the voters at the state general election held on November 6, 1962. Failed to pass by the following vote: For—153,419 Against—677,530. As a consequence, Chapter 298, Laws of 1961 did not become law.

REFERENDUM MEASURE NO. 33 (Chapter 275, Laws of 1961, Private Auditors of Municipal Accounts)—Filed April 3, 1961 by Cliff Yelle, State Auditor. Supporting signature petition sheets filed June 6, 1961, and as of July 18, 1961, it was determined that the necessary number of valid signatures had been obtained to certify measure for final decision by the voters at the state general election held on November 6, 1962. Failed to pass by the following vote: For—242,189 Against—563,475. As a consequence, Chapter 275, Laws of 1961 did not become law.

REFERENDUM MEASURE NO. 34 (Chapter 37, Laws of 1963, Mechanical Devices, Salesboards, Cardrooms, Bingo)—Filed April 11, 1963 by Dr. Homer W. Humiston of Tacoma, Washington. Since said act contained an emergency clause making the law effective upon the approval of the Governor it was necessary for Dr. Humiston to initiate court action to determine whether or not emergency clause was valid. As of April 11, 1963 the State Supreme Court setting en banc ruled that the emergency clause was not valid and directed the Secretary of State to accept and file papers relative to the referendum (Case No. 36998).

Dr. Humiston, as sponsor of Referendum Measure No. 34, filed signature petition sheets containing a total of 82,995 signatures supporting Referendum Measure No. 34, during the period June 3 through June 12, 1963.

*Term "Failed to pass" indicates sponsor of Referendum was successful in attempt to prevent measure from becoming effective law.

REFERENDUM MEASURES

As of June 24, 1963, it was discovered that all such signature petition sheets had been stolen. However, two days later (June 26, 1963), Secretary of State Victor A. Meyers certified Referendum Measure No. 34 to the respective county auditors with direction that said measure appear upon the November 3, 1964 state general election ballot in spite of the fact that the signatures had been stolen. Such action was justified upon the grounds that the sponsor of said referendum had filed 82,995 signatures when only 48,630 valid signatures were needed. On July 22, 1963 the Amusement Association of Washington brought court action against the Secretary of State challenging the certification of Referendum Measure No. 34.

On July 22, 1963, the Thurston County Superior Court ruled that the Secretary of State had acted properly under the circumstances. On March 26, 1964, the State Supreme Court sustained the Thurston County Superior Court by likewise ruling that the Secretary of State's certification was valid.

Measure then submitted to the voters at the state general election held on November 3, 1964. Failed to pass by the following vote: For—505,633 Against—622,987. As a consequence, Chapter 37, Laws of 1963 did not become law.

REFERENDUM MEASURE NO. 35 (Non-Discrimination by Realty Brokers, Salesmen)—Filed March 22, 1967 by the AD-HOC (Advisory Home Owners Committee). Signatures (81,146) filed June 6, 1967 and found sufficient. Measure submitted to the voters for decision at the November 5, 1968 state general election. Measure passed by the following vote: For—580,578 Against—276,161. Consequently, the attempt by the sponsors of this referendum to negate the open housing provision of Chapter 22, Laws of 1967 was unsuccessful.

* Term "Failed to pass" indicates sponsor of Referendum was successful in attempt to prevent measure from becoming effective law.

TEXT OF CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS APPROVED AT 1972 GENERAL ELECTION

AMENDMENT 55

Art. VII § 2 LIMITATION ON LEVIES. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed one per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, And Provided Further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort. [1971 Senate Joint Resolution No. 1. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Note: Art. 7 § 2 was also amended at the November 7, 1972 general election by Amendment 59. (HJR 47.)

Prior amendment of Art. 7 § 2, see Amendment 17.

AMENDMENT 56

Art. II § 24 LOTTERIES AND DIVORCE. The legislature shall never grant any divorce. Lotteries shall be prohibited except as specifically authorized upon the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the members of each house of the legislature or, notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, by referendum or initiative approved by a sixty percent affirmative vote of the electors voting thereon. [1971 Senate Joint Resolution No. 5. Approved November 7, 1972.]

AMENDMENT 57

Art. XI § 5 COUNTY GOVERNMENT. The legislature, by general and uniform laws, shall provide for the election in the several counties of boards of county commissioners, sheriffs, county clerks, treasurers, prosecuting attorneys and other county, township or precinct and district officers, as public convenience may require, and shall prescribe their duties, and fix their terms of office: Provided, That the legislature may, by general laws, classify the counties by population and provide for the election in certain classes of counties certain officers who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of two or more officers. It shall regulate the compensation of all such officers, in proportion to their duties, and for that purpose may classify the counties by population: Provided, That it may delegate to the legislative authority of the counties the right to prescribe the salaries of its own members and the salaries of other county officers. And it shall provide for the strict accountability of such officers for all fees which may be collected by them and for all public moneys which may be paid to them, or officially come into their possession.

Art. XI § 8 SALARIES AND LIMITATIONS AFFECTING. The salary of any county, city, town, or municipal officers shall not be increased except as provided in section 1 of Article XXX or diminished after his election, or during his term of office; nor shall the term of any such officer be extended beyond the period for which he is elected or appointed. [1971 Senate Joint Resolution No. 38. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Prior amendment of Art. 11 § 5, see Amendment 12.

AMENDMENT 58

Art. XI § 16 COMBINED CITY-COUNTY. Any county may frame a "Home Rule" charter subject to the Constitution and laws of this state to provide for the formation and government of combined city and county municipal corporations, each of which shall be known as "city-county". Registered voters equal in number to ten (10) percent of the voters of any such county voting at the last preceding general election may at any time propose by a petition the calling of an election of freeholders. The provisions of section 4 of this Article with respect to a petition calling for an election of freeholders to frame a county home rule charter, the election of freeholders, and the framing and adoption of a county home rule charter pursuant to such petition shall apply to a petition proposed under this section for the election of freeholders to frame a city-county charter, the election of freeholders, and to the framing and adoption of such city-county charter pursuant to such petition. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of section 4 applicable to a county home rule charter shall apply to a city-county charter. If there are not sufficient legal newspapers published in the county to meet the requirements for publication of a proposed charter under section 4 of this Article, publication in a legal newspaper circulated in the county may be substituted for publication in a legal newspaper published in the county. No such "city-county" shall be formed except by a majority vote of the qualified electors voting thereon in the county. The charter shall designate the respective officers of such city-county who shall perform the duties imposed by law upon county officers. Every such city-county shall have and enjoy all rights, powers and privileges asserted in its charter, and in addition thereto, such rights, powers and privileges as may be granted to it, or to any city or county or class or classes of cities and counties. In the event of a conflict in the constitutional provisions applying to cities and those applying to counties or of a conflict in the general laws applying to cities and those applying to counties, a city-county shall be authorized to exercise any powers that are granted to either the cities or the counties.

No legislative enactment which is a prohibition or restriction shall apply to the rights, powers and privileges of a city-county unless such prohibition or restriction shall apply equally to every other city, county, and city-county.

The provisions of sections 2, 3, 5, 6, and 8 and of the first paragraph of section 4 of this Article shall not apply to any such city-county.

Municipal corporations may be retained or otherwise provided for within the city-county. The formation, powers and duties of such municipal corporations shall be prescribed by the charter.

No city-county shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding three per centum of the taxable property in such city-county without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed ten per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for city-county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness: Provided, That no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly city-county or other municipal purposes: Provided further, That any city-county, with such assent may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding five per centum additional for supplying such city-county with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the city-county.

No municipal corporation which is retained or otherwise provided for within the city-county shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding one and one-half per centum of the taxable property in such municipal corporation without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed five per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for city-county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness: Provided, That no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly municipal purposes: Provided further, That any such municipal corporation, with such assent, may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding five per centum additional for supplying such municipal corporation with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the municipal corporation. All taxes which are levied and collected within a municipal corporation for a specific purpose shall be expended within that municipal corporation.

The authority conferred on the city-county government shall not be restricted by the second sentence of Article 7, section 1, or by Article 8, section 6 of this Constitution. [1971 House Joint Resolution No. 21. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Prior amendment of Art. 11 § 16, see Amendment 23.

AMENDMENT 59

Art. VII § 2 LIMITATION ON LEVIES. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed forty mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, which assessed valuation shall be fifty per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort. [1971 House Joint Resolution No. 47. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Note: Art. 7 § 2 was also amended at the November 7, 1972 general election by Amendment 55 (SJR 1). 1971 HJR No. 47 contained the following paragraph:

"Be It Further Resolved, That the foregoing amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state in such a manner that they may vote for or against it separately from the proposed amendment to Article VII, section 2, (Amendment 17) of the Constitution of the State of Washington contained in Senate Joint Resolution No. 1. Provided, That if both proposed amendments are approved and ratified, both shall become part of the Constitution."

Prior amendment of Art. 7 § 2, see Amendment 17.

AMENDMENT 60

Art. VIII § 1 STATE DEBT. (a) The state may contract debt, the principal of which shall be paid and discharged within thirty years from the time of contracting thereof, in the manner set forth herein.

(b) The aggregate debt contracted by the state shall not exceed that amount for which payments of principal and interest in any fiscal year would require the state to expend more than nine percent of the arithmetic mean of its general state revenues for the three immediately preceding fiscal years as certified by the treasurer. The term "fiscal year" means that period of time commencing July 1 of any year and ending on June 30 of the following year.

(c) The term "general state revenues" when used in this section, shall include all state money received in the treasury from each and every source whatsoever except: (1) Fees and revenues derived from the ownership or operation of any undertaking, facility, or project; (2) Moneys received as gifts, grants, donations, aid, or assistance or otherwise from the United States or any department, bureau, or corporation thereof, or any person, firm, or corporation, public or private, when the terms and conditions of such gift, grant, donation, aid, or assistance require the application and disbursement of such moneys otherwise than for the general purposes of the state of Washington; (3) Moneys to be paid into and received from retirement system funds, and performance bonds and deposits; (4) Moneys to be paid into and received from trust funds including but not limited to moneys received from taxes levied for specific purposes and the several permanent and irreducible funds of the state and the moneys derived therefrom but excluding bond redemption funds; (5) Proceeds received from the sale of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness.

(d) In computing the amount required for payment of principal and interest on outstanding debt under this section, debt shall be construed to mean borrowed money represented by bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness which are secured by the full faith and credit of the state or are required to be repaid, directly or indirectly, from general state revenues and which are incurred by the state, any department, authority, public corporation, or quasi public corporation of the state, any state university or college, or any other public agency created by the state but not by counties, cities, towns, school districts, or other municipal corporations, but shall not include obligations for the payment of current expenses of state government, nor shall it include debt hereafter incurred pursuant to section 3 of this Article, obligations guaranteed as provided for in subsection (f) of this section, principal of bond anticipation notes or obligations issued to fund or refund the indebtedness of the Washington state building authority.

(e) The state may, without limitation, fund or refund, at or prior to maturity, the whole or any part of any existing debt or of any debt hereafter contracted pursuant to section 1, section 2, or section 3 of this Article, including any premium payable with respect thereto and interest thereon, or fund or refund, at or prior to maturity, the whole or any part of any indebtedness incurred or authorized prior to the effective date of this amendment by any entity of the type described in subsection (g) of this section, including any premium payable with respect thereto and any interest thereon. Such funding or refunding shall not be deemed to be contracting debt by the state.

(f) Notwithstanding the limitation contained in subsection (b) of this section, the state may pledge its full faith, credit, and taxing power to guarantee the payment of any obligation payable from revenues received from any of the following sources: (1) Fees collected by the state as license fees for motor vehicles; (2) Excise taxes collected by the state on the sale, distribution or use of motor vehicle fuel; and (3) Interest on the permanent common school fund: Provided, That the legislature shall, at all times, provide sufficient revenues from such sources to pay the principal and interest due on all obligations for which said source of revenue is pledged.

(g) No money shall be paid from funds in custody of the treasurer with respect to any debt contracted after the effective date of this amendment by the Washington state building authority, the capitol committee, or any similar entity existing or operating for similar purposes pursuant to which such entity undertakes to finance or provide a facility for use or occupancy by the state or any agency, department, or instrumentality thereof.

(h) The legislature shall prescribe all matters relating to the contracting, funding or refunding of debt pursuant to this section, including: The purposes for which debt may be contracted; by a favorable vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the amount of debt which may be contracted for any class of such purposes; the kinds of notes, bonds, or other evidences of debt which may be issued by the state; and the manner by which the treasurer shall determine and advise the legislature, any appropriate agency, officer, or instrumentality of the state as to the available debt capacity within the limitation set forth in this section. The legislature may delegate to any state officer, agency, or instrumentality any of its powers relating to the contracting, funding or refunding of debt pursuant to this section except its power to determine the amount and purposes for which debt may be contracted.

(i) The full faith, credit, and taxing power of the state of Washington are pledged to the payment of the debt created on behalf of the state pursuant to this section and the legislature shall provide by appropriation for the payment of the interest upon and installments of principal of all such debt as the same falls due, but in any event, any court of record may compel such payment.

(j) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection (b) of this section, the state may issue certificates of indebtedness in such sum or sums as may be necessary to meet temporary deficiencies of the treasury, to preserve the best interests of the state in the conduct of the various state institutions, departments, bureaus, and agencies during each fiscal year; such certificates may be issued only to provide for appropriations already made by the legislature and such certificates must be retired and the debt discharged other than by refunding within twelve months after the date of incurrence.

(k) Bonds, notes, or other obligations issued and sold by the state of Washington pursuant to and in conformity with this Article shall not be invalid for any irregularity or defect in the proceedings of the issuance or sale thereof and shall be incontestable in the hands of a bona fide purchaser or holder thereof.

Art. VIII § 3 SPECIAL INDEBTEDNESS. HOW AUTHORIZED. Except the debt specified in sections one and two of this Article, no debts shall hereafter be contracted by, or on behalf of this state, unless such debt shall be authorized by law for some single work or object to be distinctly specified therein. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, or a special election called for that purpose, have been submitted to the people and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election. [House Joint Resolution No. 52. Approved November 7, 1972.]

Prior amendment of Art. 8 § 3, see Amendment 48.

LEGISLATIVE JOINT RESOLUTION TO CONGRESS

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 10

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

WHEREAS, Both Houses at the second session of the Ninety-second Congress of the United States of America by a constitutional majority of two-thirds thereof proposed an amendment to the Constitution of the United States which is in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

"JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to equal rights for men and women.

"RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED (TWO-THIRDS OF EACH HOUSE CONCURRING THEREIN), That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

"ARTICLE --

"SECTION 1. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

"SECTION 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

"SECTION 3. This amendment shall take effect two years after the date of ratification."

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That said proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America be, and the same is hereby ratified by the legislature of the State of Washington.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That certified copies of this joint resolution be forwarded by the Governor of the State of Washington to the Administrator of General Services, Washington, D.C., and the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

Passed the House March 9, 1973.

Passed the Senate March 22, 1973.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ADOPTED AT 1973
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION FOR SUBMISSION TO THE VOTERS AT THE
STATE GENERAL ELECTION, NOVEMBER 1973

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 22

BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE
STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the state of Washington by adding a new section to be known as section 12, such new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Article VII, section 12. The legislature may, notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, provide that the ad valorem taxes levied by the state or by any taxing district in which there is located all or a part of an area included in an urban development or redevelopment project, as those two terms shall be defined by the legislature, may be divided so that the taxes levied against any increase in the true and fair value, as defined by law, which may be reasonably construed to have arisen from an associated project, of property in such area obtaining after the effective date of the ordinance or resolution approving the project, or obtaining after the date of the acquisition of the property for urban development or redevelopment purposes, as determined by the legislature, shall be used to pay any indebtedness incurred for the project. The legislature may enact such laws as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ADOPTED AT 1973
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION FOR SUBMISSION TO THE VOTERS AT THE
STATE GENERAL ELECTION, NOVEMBER 1973

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 37

BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE
STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Washington by adding a new Section 12 thereto to read as follows:

Article VII, Section 12. (1) Income shall not be deemed property within the meaning of this Article, and a tax imposed upon or measured by income shall not be deemed a tax on property.

(2) The legislature shall have the power to impose a tax upon, or to measure a tax by, net income as defined by the legislature in accordance with the following condition:

(a) The highest rate of any tax imposed upon or measured by the net income of individuals shall not exceed eight percent and the highest rate of any tax imposed upon or measured by the net income of corporations shall not exceed twelve percent.

(b) The rate schedule for a tax imposed upon or measured by the net income of individuals shall be at rates progressively higher on income amounts over specified levels and shall contain no less than six different rates, the difference between each of which shall be equal and shall be no less than one-half of one percent.

(c) In the first statute implementing this amendment the highest rate of the rate schedule for a net income tax imposed upon individuals shall not exceed six and one-half percent and the highest rate of the rate schedule for a net income tax imposed upon corporations shall not exceed ten percent. The rate limitations prescribed in this subsection may be exceeded only if those sections of an act which change such rates are enacted by a majority of the members of each of the two houses of the legislature and are referred to the people and approved by a majority vote thereon at a general election.

(d) From and after the initial adoption of an act by the legislature imposing a tax upon or measured by net income no amendment to such act which changes: (i) the definition of taxable income, (ii) a rate or rates, within the limitations set forth in (a), (b) or (c) above or (iii) an amount or amounts of taxable income in the rate schedule, shall be valid unless such amendment is enacted by a majority of the members of each of the two houses of the legislature, and is subject to referendum petition.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, not later than twelve months after a tax imposed upon or measured by net income takes effect, and during the time such tax is in effect thereafter:

(a) No school district in any year shall, for maintenance and operations purposes, impose a tax upon property pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of section 2, as now or hereafter amended, of this Article VII.

(b) The state shall guarantee full funding of a basic program of education, as defined by the legislature.

(c) No sale or use tax shall be imposed on the sale or use of the following articles as defined by the legislature: (i) food products for off-premises human consumption, and (ii) prescription drugs.

(d) The aggregate rate of any general retail sales or use tax as imposed by the state and political subdivisions thereof may not exceed five and three-tenths percent.

(e) The state shall not impose any general business and occupation tax at a greater rate than one-quarter of one percent of gross income where such tax is imposed as of January 1, 1973 by session laws sections 82.04.010 through 82.04.290, chapter 15, Laws of 1961, as amended and where such income is also subject to a tax imposed upon or measured by net income derived from such business or occupation.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Constitution:

(a) Upon and after December 31, 1979, business inventories held for sale shall be exempt from ad valorem taxes.

(b) In the case of capital property as defined by the legislature held by a taxpayer on the effective date of a state income tax act and disposed of after such effective date, such taxpayer shall be allowed to exclude from the computation of taxable income the amount of any gain attributable to a difference in value of such property occurring between the time of acquisition by the taxpayer and the effective date of such act.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the legislature may by law:

(a) Provide for direct payments to an individual to the extent that (i) insufficient income tax liability exists for full application of an otherwise applicable credit, and (ii) such credit is granted for the purpose of providing direct or indirect relief from other state or local taxes.

(b) Coordinate the administration and collection of state income taxes with the income tax laws and procedures of the United States. The legislature may adopt by reference any federal statutes relating to federal income taxes, as existing at time of adoption and as amended from time to time.

(c) Define terms used in this Section 12 to the extent necessary to facilitate the operation thereof.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the foregoing amendment shall be construed as a single amendment within the meaning of Article XXIII, Section 1 (Amendment 27) of this Constitution.

The legislature finds that the changes contained in the foregoing amendment constitute a single integrated plan for a balanced revision of the tax structure for state and local government. In the event the foregoing amendment is held to be separate amendments, this joint resolution shall be void in its entirety and shall be of no further force and effect.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ADOPTED AT 1973
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION FOR SUBMISSION TO THE VOTERS AT THE
STATE GENERAL ELECTION, NOVEMBER 1973

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 40

BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate and the House of Representatives of the State of Washington, in Legislative Session Assembled:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the state of Washington by amending section 2 (Amendments 55 and 59) thereof to read as follows:

Article VII, section 2. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed one per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting ~~((on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election))~~ "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election: PROVIDED, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.
