SPECIAL PRIMARY FOR UNITED STATES SENATE VACANCY

AN ACT Relating to a special primary and general election for the United States Senate; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A special primary election for nominating candidates to be elected in the November 8, 1983, general election to fill the vacancy in the representation of this state in the Senate of the United States shall be held October 11, 1983. A special three-day filing period for the elective office shall begin during normal business hours on September 14, 1983. Candidates nominated by minor party conventions shall also file during that period and the notice requirements of said minor party conventions are hereby waived for this nomination. Withdrawals may be made until 5:00 p.m. on September 19, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The general election laws and laws relating to primaries shall apply to the filing period and special primary election under section 1 of this act insofar as they are not inconsistent therewith, and shall be construed with and as a part thereof for the purpose of carrying out the spirit and intent thereof. Any statutory time deadlines relating to the advanced availability of absentee ballots, certification, and canvassing, which cannot be met in a timely fashion may be modified for the purposes of this special primary only by the Secretary of State, through emergency rules adopted pursuant to RCW 29.04.080. No candidates' pamphlet authorized by chapter 29.80 RCW shall be published for the November 8, 1983, general election. Nothing under section 1 of this act shall be construed to be inconsistent with the writ of election executed by the Governor on September 8, 1983, except the shortening of time permitted for the filing by minor party candidates, and withdrawals of candidacy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate September 10, 1983.

Passed the House September 10, 1983.

(7) "Contract" means any agreement for service and compensation between a member and an employer.

In all cases where compensation includes maintenance the employer shall fix the value of that part of the compensation not paid in money: PROVIDED, That retroactive payments to an individual by an employer on reinstatement of the employee in a position, or payments by an employer to an individual in lieu of reinstatement in a position which are awarded or granted as the equivalent of the salary or wages which the individual would have earned during a payroll period shall be considered earnable compensation and the individual shall receive the equivalent service credit: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if a leave of absence, without pay, is taken by a member for the purpose of serving as a member of the state legislature, and such member has served in the legislature five or more years, the salary which would have been received for the position from which the leave of absence was taken shall be considered as compensation earnable if the employee's contribution thereon is paid by the employee. In addition, where a member has been a member of the state legislature for five or more years, earnable compensation for the member's two highest compensated consecutive years of service shall include a sum not to exceed thirty-six hundred dollars for each of such two consecutive years, regardless of whether or not legislative service was rendered during those two years.

(ii) For members employed less than full time under written contract with a school district in an instructional position, for which the member receives service credit of less than one year in both of the years used to determine the earnable compensation used for computing benefits due under RCW 41.32.497, 41.32.498, and 41.32.520, earnable compensation means the compensation the member would have received in the same position if employed on a regular full-time basis for the same contract period. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "instructional position" means a position in which more than seventy-five percent of the member's time is spent in preparation for and in classroom instruction. year in which a member serves in the legislature the member shall have the option of having such member's earnable compensation be the greater of:

(i) the earnable compensation the member would have received had such member not served in the legislature; or shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before September 30, 1977.

(ii) such member's actual earnable compensation received for teaching and legislative service combined. Any additional contributions to the retirement system required because compensation earnable under subparagraph (i) of this subsection is greater than compensation earnable under subparagraph (ii) of this subsection shall be paid by the member for both member and employer contributions.

Members shall receive twelve months of service for each contract year or school year of employment.

Any person who is a member of the teachers' retirement system and who is elected or appointed to a state elective position may continue to be a member of the retirement system and continue to receive service credit for the time spent in a state elective position by making the required member contributions.

When an individual is employed by two or more employers the individual shall only receive one month's service credit during any calendar month in which multiple service for ninety or more hours is rendered.

Notwithstanding RCW 41.32.240, teachers covered by RCW 41.32-.755 through 41.32.825, who render service need not serve for ninety days to obtain membership so long as the required contribution is submitted for such ninety-day period. Where a member did not receive service credit under RCW 41.32.775 through 41.32.825 due to the ninety-day period in RCW 41.32.240 the member may receive service credit for that period so long as the required contribution is submitted for the period. ## OVER-INSURANCE—MODIFICATIONS

AN ACT Relating to property insurance; amending section .27.01, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.27.010; and amending section 20, chapter 193, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 1, chapter 61, Laws of 1977 and RCW 48.30.260.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section .27.01, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.27.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Over-insurance shall be deemed to exist if property or an insurable interest therein is insured by one or more insurance contracts against the same hazard in any amount in excess of the fair value of the property or of such interest, as determined as of the effective date of the insurance or of any renewal thereof, or in those instances when insured value is for improvements and land.

(2) For the purposes of this section only the term "fair value" means the cost of replacement less such depreciation as is properly applicable to the subject insured.

(3) No person shall knowingly require, request, issue, place, procure, or accept any insurance contract which would result in over-insurance of the property or interest therein proposed to be insured, except as is provided in RCW 48.27.020.

(4) No person shall compel an insured or applicant for insurance to procure property insurance in an amount in excess of the amount which could reasonably be expected to be paid under the policy (or combination of policies) in the event of a loss, whether such insurance is required in connection with a loan or otherwise.

(5) Each violation of this section shall subject the violator to the penalties provided by this code.

Sec. 2. Section 20, chapter 193, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 1, chapter 61, Laws of 1977 and RCW 48.30.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every debtor or borrower, when property insurance of any kind is required in connection with the debt or loan, shall have reasonable opportunity and choice in the selection of the agent, broker, and insurer through whom such insurance is to be placed; but only if the insurance is properly provided for the protection of the creditor or lender not later than at commencement of risk as to such property as respects such creditor or lender, and in the case of renewal of insurance, only if the renewal policy, or a proper binder therefor containing a brief description of the coverage bound and the identity of the insurer in which the coverage is bound, is delivered to the creditor or lender not later than thirty days prior to the renewal date.

(2) Every person who lends money or extends credit and who solicits insurance on real and personal property must explain to the borrower in prominently displayed writing that the insurance related to such loan or credit extension may be purchased from an insurer or agent of the borrower's choice, subject only to the lender's right to reject a given insurer or agent as provided in subsection (3)(b) of this section.

(3) No person who lends money or extends credit may:

(a) Solicit insurance for the protection of real property, after a person indicates interest in securing a real estate loan or credit extension, until such person has received a commitment from the lender as to a loan or credit extension;

(b) Unreasonably reject a contract of insurance furnished by the borrower for the protection of the property securing the credit or lien. A rejection shall not be deemed unreasonable if it is based on reasonable standards, uniformly applied, relating to the extent of coverage required and the financial soundness and the services of an insurer. Such standards shall not discriminate against any particular type of insurer, nor shall such standards call for rejection of an insurance contract because the contract contains coverage in addition to that required in the credit transaction;

(c) Require that any borrower, mortgagor, purchaser, insurer, broker, or agent pay a separate charge, in connection with the handling of any contract of insurance required as security for a loan on real estate, or pay a separate charge to substitute the insurance policy of one insurer for that of another. This subsection does not include the interest which may be charged on premium loans or premium advancements in accordance with the terms of the loan or credit document;

(d) Use or disclose, without the prior written consent of the borrower, mortgagor, or purchaser taken at a time other than the making of the loan or extension of credit, information relative to a contract of insurance which is required by the credit transaction, for the purpose of replacing such insurance; ((or))

(e) Require any procedures or conditions of duly licensed agents, brokers, or insurers not customarily required of those agents, brokers, or insurers affiliated or in any way connected with the person who lends money or extends credit; or

(f) Require property insurance in an amount in excess of the amount which could reasonably be expected to be paid under the policy, or combination of policies, in the event of a loss.

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall prevent a person who lends money or extends credit from placing insurance on real or personal property in the event the mortgagor, borrower, or purchaser has failed to provide required insurance in accordance with the terms of the loan or credit document.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to credit life or credit disability insurance.

Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26-.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the acquisition of real property for a program or project undertaken by the state or a local public body will result in the displacement of any person on or after July 1, 1971, the acquiring agency shall make a payment to any displaced person, upon proper application as approved by the agency, for((=));

(a) Actual, reasonable expenses in moving himself, his family, business, farm operation, or other personal property;

(b) Actual direct losses of tangible personal property as a result of moving or discontinuing a business or farm operation, but not to exceed an amount equal to the reasonable expenses that would have been required to relocate such property, as determined by the acquiring agency; and

(c) Actual reasonable expenses in searching for a replacement business or farm.

(2) Any displaced person eligible for payments under subsection (1) of this section who is displaced from a dwelling and who elects to accept the payments authorized by this subsection in lieu of the payments authorized by subsection (1) of this section may receive a moving expense allowance, determined according to a schedule established by the state (~~(highway commission)~~) department of transportation, not to exceed three hundred dollars(~~(:)~~), and a dislocation allowance of two hundred dollars.

(3) Any displaced person eligible for payments under subsection (1) of this section who is displaced from his place of business or from his farm operation and who elects to accept the payment authorized by this subsection in lieu of the payment authorized by subsection (1) of this section, may receive a fixed payment in an amount equal to the average annual net earnings of the business or farm operation, except that such payment shall be not less than two thousand five hundred dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars. In the case of a business, no payment (~~(staff)~~) may be made under this subsection unless the acquiring agency is satisfied that the business:

(a) Cannot be relocated without a substantial loss of its existing patronage(~~(:)~~); and

(b) Is not a part of a commercial enterprise having at least one other establishment not being acquired, which is engaged in the same or similar business. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "average annual net earnings" means one-half of any net earnings of the business or farm operation, before federal or local income taxes, during the two taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year in which (~~(such)~~) the business or farm operation moves from the real property acquired for (~~(such)~~) the project, or during such other period as the acquiring agency determines to be more equitable for establishing such earnings, and includes any compensation paid by the business or farm operation to the owner, his spouse, or his dependents during such period.

Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26-.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to payments otherwise authorized by this chapter, the state or local public body shall make an additional payment not in excess of fifteen thousand dollars to any displaced person who is displaced from a dwelling actually owned and occupied by (~~(such)~~) the displaced person for not less than one hundred eighty days (~~(prior to)~~) before the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the property. (~~(Such)~~) The additional payment shall include the following elements:

(a) The amount, if any, which when added to the acquisition costs of the dwelling acquired, equals the reasonable cost of a dwelling adequate to accommodate ~~((such))~~ the displaced person, reasonably accessible to public services and places of employment and available on the private market. All determinations required to carry out this subsection shall be made in accordance with standards established by the state ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation.

(b) The amount, if any, which will compensate ~~((such))~~ the displaced person for any increased interest costs which ~~((such))~~ the person is required to pay for financing the acquisition of any ~~((such))~~ comparable replacement dwelling. ~~((Such))~~ This amount shall be paid only if the dwelling acquired was encumbered by a bona fide mortgage which was a valid lien on ~~((such))~~ the dwelling for not less than one hundred eighty days ~~((prior to))~~ before the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of ~~((such))~~ the dwelling. ~~((Such))~~ This amount shall be equal to the excess in the aggregate interest and other debt service costs of that amount of the principal of the mortgage on the replacement dwelling which is equal to the unpaid balance of the mortgage on the acquired dwelling, over the remainder of the term of the mortgage on the acquired dwelling, reduced to discounted present value. The discount rate shall be determined by regulations issued pursuant to RCW 8.26.110.

(c) Reasonable expenses incurred by ~~((such))~~ the displaced person for evidence of title, recording fees, and other closing costs incident to the purchase of the replacement dwelling, but not including prepaid expenses.

(2) The additional payment authorized by this section shall be made only to such a displaced person who purchases and occupies a replacement dwelling which is decent, safe, and sanitary not later than the end of the one-year period beginning on the date on which he receives from the acquiring agency final payment of all costs of the acquired dwelling, or on the date on which he moves from the acquired dwelling, whichever is the later date.

(c) That any person aggrieved by a determination as to eligibility for payment authorized by this chapter, or the amount of a payment, may have his application reviewed by the executive head of the state agency or local public body.

(2) The ~~((director of the planning and community affairs agency))~~ state secretary of transportation after full consultation with the ~~((department of highways and))~~ department of general administration may prescribe such other regulations and procedures, consistent with the provisions of this chapter, as ~~((he deems))~~ deemed necessary or appropriate to carry out this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 182, Laws of 1945 and RCW 14.08.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 182, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 182, Laws of 1967 and RCW 14.08.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All powers, rights, and authority granted to any municipality in this chapter may be exercised and enjoyed by two or more municipalities, or by this state and one or more municipalities therein, acting jointly, either within or ~~((without))~~ outside the territorial limits of either or any of ~~((said))~~ the municipalities and within or ~~((without))~~ outside this state, or by this state or any municipality therein acting jointly with any other state or municipality therein, either within or ~~((without))~~ outside this state~~((:-PROVIDED;))~~ if the laws of ~~((such))~~ the other state permit such joint action.

(2) For the purposes of this section only, unless another intention clearly appears or the context ~~((otherwise))~~ requires otherwise, this state ~~((shall be))~~ is included in the term "municipality," and all the powers conferred upon municipalities in this chapter, if not otherwise conferred by law, are ~~((hereby))~~ conferred upon this state when acting jointly with any municipality or municipalities. Where reference is made to the "governing body" of a municipality, that term ~~((shall))~~ means, as to the state, its ~~((director of aeronautics))~~ secretary of transportation.

(3) Any two or more municipalities may enter into agreements with each other, duly authorized by ordinances or resolution, as may be appropriate, for joint action ~~((pursuant to the provisions of))~~ under this section. Concurrent action by the governing bodies of the municipalities involved ~~((shall))~~ constitutes joint action.

(4) Each such agreement shall specify its terms; the proportionate interest which each municipality shall have in the property, facilities, and privileges involved, and the proportion of preliminary costs, cost of acquisition, establishment, construction, enlargement, improvement, and equipment, and of expenses of maintenance, operation, and regulation to be borne by each, and make such other provisions as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. It shall provide for amendments thereof and for conditions and methods of termination; for the disposition of all or any part of the property, facilities, and privileges jointly owned if ~~((said))~~ the property, facilities, and privileges, or any part thereof, ~~((staff))~~ cease to be used for the purposes ~~((herein))~~ provided in this section or if the agreement ~~((staff-be))~~ is terminated, and for the distribution of the proceeds received upon any such disposition, and of any funds or other property jointly owned and undisposed of, and the assumption or payment of any indebtedness arising from the joint venture which remains unpaid, upon any such disposition or upon a termination of the agreement.

(5) Municipalities acting jointly as ~~((herein))~~ authorized in this section shall create a board from the inhabitants of ~~((such))~~ the municipalities for the purpose of acquiring property for, establishing, constructing, enlarging, improving, maintaining, equipping, operating, and regulating the airports and other air navigation facilities and airport protection privileges to be jointly acquired, controlled, and operated. ~~((Such))~~ The board shall consist of members to be appointed by the governing body of each municipality involved, the number to be appointed by each to be provided for by the agreement for the joint venture. Each member shall serve for such time and upon such terms as to compensation, if any, as may be provided for in the agreement.

(6) Each such board shall organize, select officers for terms to be fixed by the agreement, and adopt and from time to time amend rules of procedure.

(7) Such board may exercise, on behalf of the municipalities acting jointly by which it is appointed, all the powers of each of ~~((such))~~ the municipalities granted by this chapter, except as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this section. Real property, airports, restricted landing areas, air protection privileges, or personal property costing in excess of a sum to be fixed by the joint agreement, may be acquired, and condemnation proceedings may be instituted, only by approval of the governing bodies of each of the municipalities involved~~((;))~~. Upon the approval of the governing body, or if no approval ~~((be))~~ is necessary then upon the board's own determination, such property may be acquired by private negotiation under such terms and conditions as ~~((to the board may))~~ seem just and proper to the board. The total amount of expenditures to be made by the board for any purpose in any calendar year shall be determined by the municipalities involved by the approval by each on or before the preceding December 1st, of a budget for the ensuing calendar year, which budget may be amended or supplemented by joint resolution of the municipalities involved during the calendar year for which the original budget was approved. Rules and regulations provided for by RCW 14.08.120(2) ~~((shall))~~ become effective only upon approval of each of the appointing governing bodies. No real property and no airport, other navigation facility, or air protection privilege, owned jointly, ~~((shall))~~ may be disposed of by the board by sale except by authority of all the appointing governing bodies, but the board may lease space, land area, or improvements and grant concessions on airports for aeronautical purposes, or other purposes which will not interfere with the aeronautical purposes of such airport, air navigation facility, or air protection privilege by private negotiation under such terms and conditions as ~~((to the board may))~~ seem just and proper to the board, subject to the provisions of RCW 14.08.120(4). Subject to the provisions of the agreement for the joint venture, and when it ~~((shall))~~ appears to the board to be in the best interests of the municipalities involved, the board may sell any personal property by private negotiations under such terms and conditions as ~~((to the board may))~~ seem just and proper to the board.

(8) Each municipality, acting jointly with another~~(;)~~ pursuant to the provisions of this section, is authorized and empowered to enact, concurrently with the other municipalities involved, such ordinances as are provided for by RCW 14.08.120(2), and to fix by such ordinances penalties for the violation thereof~~(, which ordinances)~~. When so ~~((concurrently))~~ adopted, ~~((shall))~~ the ordinances have the same force and effect within the municipalities and on any property jointly controlled by them or adjacent thereto, whether within or ~~((without))~~ outside the territorial limits of either or any of them, as ordinances of each municipality involved, and may be enforced in any one of ~~((said))~~ the municipalities in ~~((like))~~ the same manner as are its individual ordinances. The consent of the state ~~((director of aeronautics))~~ secretary of transportation to any such ordinance, where the state is a party to the joint venture, ~~((shall be))~~ is equivalent to the enactment of the ordinance by a municipality. The publication provided for in RCW 14.08.120(2)~~(, aforesaid;)~~ shall be made in each municipality involved in the manner provided by law or charter for publication of its individual ordinances.

(9) Condemnation proceedings shall be instituted, in the names of the municipalities jointly, and the property acquired shall be held by the municipalities as tenants in common. The provisions of RCW 14.08.030(2) ~~((shall))~~ apply to such proceedings.

(10) For the purpose of providing funds for necessary expenditures in carrying out the provisions of this section, a joint fund shall be created and maintained, into which each of the municipalities involved shall deposit its proportionate share as provided by the joint agreement~~(;)~~. Such funds ~~((to))~~ shall be provided for by bond issues, tax levies, and appropriations made by each municipality in the same manner as though it were acting separately under the authority of this chapter~~(, and into which shall be~~ paid)). The revenues obtained from the ownership, control, and operation of the airports and other air navigation facilities jointly controlled shall be paid into the fund, to be expended as provided in this chapter((:)). Revenues in excess of cost of maintenance and operating expenses of the joint properties ((to)) shall be divided or allowed to accumulate for future anticipated expenditures as may be provided in the original agreement, or amendments thereto, for the joint venture. The action of municipalities involved in heretofore permitting such revenues to so accumulate is declared to be legal and valid.

(11) All disbursements from ~~((such))~~ the joint fund shall be made by order of the board in accordance with such rules and regulations and for such purposes as the appointing governing bodies, acting jointly, shall prescribe.

(12) Specific performance of the provisions of any joint agreement entered into as provided for in this section may be enforced as against any party thereto by the other party or parties thereto.

(2) No tire on a vehicle moved on a highway ~~((shall))~~ may have on its periphery any block, flange, cleat, or spike or any other protuberance of any material other than rubber which projects beyond the tread of the traction surface of the tire, except that it ~~((shall be))~~ is permissible to use farm machinery with tires having protuberances ~~((which))~~ that will not injure the highway, and except also that it ~~((shall be))~~ is permissible to use tire chains or metal studs imbedded within the tire of reasonable proportions and of a type approved by the state commission on equipment, upon any vehicle when required for safety because of snow, ice, or other conditions tending to cause a vehicle to skid~~((: PROVIDED, That))~~. It ~~((shall be))~~ is unlawful to use metal studs imbedded within the tire between April 1st and November 1st~~((: PROVIDED FURTHER, That))~~. The state ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation may, from time to time, determine additional periods in which the use of tires with metal studs imbedded therein ~~((shall be))~~ is lawful.

(3) The state ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may ~~((in their discretion))~~ issue special permits authorizing the operation upon a highway of traction engines or tractors having movable tracks with transverse corrugations upon the periphery of ~~((such))~~ the movable tracks or farm tractors or other farm machinery, the operation of which upon a highway would otherwise be prohibited under this section.

(4) Tires with metal studs imbedded therein may be used between November 1st and April 1st upon school buses and fire department vehicles, any law or regulation to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 51. Section 2, chapter 88, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.39.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington state commissioners to the western states school bus safety commission shall be the ~~((director of highways))~~ secretary of transportation, the superintendent of public instruction, and the chief of the Washington state patrol or their respective designees. Annually the Washington commissioners shall elect a chairman from their own membership who shall serve for one year commencing July 1st. Election as chairman shall not interfere with the member's right to vote on all matters before the Washington commissioners. The Washington commissioners may by majority vote designate one of their members to represent the state on any matter coming before the Western states school bus safety commission.

Sec. 52. Section 46.44.020, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 81, Laws of 1977 and RCW 46.44.020 are each amended to read as follows:

It ~~((shall be))~~ is unlawful for any vehicle unladen or with load to exceed a height of fourteen feet above the level surface upon which the vehicle stands ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. This height limitation ~~((shall))~~ does not apply to authorized emergency vehicles or repair equipment of a public utility engaged in reasonably necessary operation. The provisions of this section ~~((shall))~~ do not relieve the owner or operator of a vehicle or combination of vehicles from the exercise of due care in determining that sufficient vertical clearance is provided upon the public highways where ~~((such))~~ the vehicle or combination of vehicles is being operated; and no liability ~~((shall))~~ may attach to the state or to any county, city, town, or other political subdivision by reason of any damage or injury to persons or property by reason of the existence of any structure over or across any public highway where the vertical clearance above the roadway is fourteen feet or more; or, where ~~((such))~~ the vertical clearance is less than fourteen feet, if impaired clearance signs of a design approved by the ~~((Washington))~~ state ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation are erected and maintained on the right side of any such public highway in accordance with the manual of uniform traffic control devices for streets and highways as adopted by the ~~((Washington))~~ state ~~((highway commission pursuant to))~~ department of transportation under chapter 47.36 RCW. If any structure over or across any public highway is not owned by the state or by a county, city, town, or other political subdivision, it ~~((shall be))~~ is the duty of the owner thereof when billed therefor to reimburse the ~~((Washington))~~ state ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation or the county, city, town, or other political subdivision having jurisdiction over ~~((such))~~ the highway for the actual cost of erecting and maintaining ~~((such))~~ the impaired clearance signs, but no liability ~~((shall))~~ may attach to ~~((such))~~ the owner by reason of any damage or injury to persons or property caused by impaired vertical clearance above the roadway.

Sec. 53. Section 46.44.037, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 149, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.037 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 46.44.036 and subject to such rules and regulations governing their operation as may be adopted by the state (~~(highway commission)~~) department of transportation, operation of the following combinations (~~(shall be)~~) is lawful:

(1) A combination consisting of a truck tractor, a semitrailer, and another semitrailer or a full trailer. In this connection a converter gear used to convert a semitrailer into a full trailer shall be considered to be a part of the full trailer and not a separate vehicle. A converter gear being pulled without load and not used to convert a semitrailer into a full trailer may be substituted in lieu of a full trailer or a semitrailer in any lawful combination;

(2) A combination consisting of three trucks or truck tractors used in driveaway service where two of the vehicles are towed by the third in double saddle-mount position.

Sec. 54. Section 46.44.049, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46-44.049 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~(highway commission is authorized to)~~) department of transportation may make and enter into agreements with the federal government or any state or group of states or agencies thereof, or any nonprofit association, on a joint or cooperative basis, to study, analyze, or test the effects of weight on highway construction. (~~(Such)~~) The studies or tests may be made either by designating existing highways or the construction of test strips including natural resource roads to the end that a proper solution of the many problems connected with the imposition on highways of motor vehicle weights may be determined.

(~~(Such)~~) The studies may include the determination of values to be assigned various highway-user groups according to their gross weight or use.

Sec. 55. Section 46.44.093, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46-44.093 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~(highway commission)~~) department of transportation or the local authority is authorized to issue or withhold such special permit at (~~(his or)~~) its discretion; or, if (~~(such)~~) the permit is issued, to limit the number of trips, or to establish seasonal or other time limitations within which the vehicle described may be operated on the public highways indicated, or otherwise to limit or prescribe conditions of operation of (~~(such)~~) the vehicle or vehicles when necessary to assure against undue damage to the road foundation, surfaces, or structures or safety of traffic and may require such undertaking or other security as may be deemed necessary to compensate for injury to any roadway or road structure.

Sec. 56. Section 46.44.096, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 18, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44-.096 are each amended to read as follows:

In determining fees according to RCW 46.44.0941, mileage on state primary and secondary highways shall be determined from the planning survey records of the department of (~~(highways)~~) transportation, and the gross weight of the vehicle or vehicles, including load, shall be declared by the applicant. Overweight on which fees shall be paid will be gross loadings in excess of loadings authorized by law or axle loadings in excess of loadings authorized by law, whichever is the greater. Loads which are overweight and oversize shall be charged the fee for the overweight permit without additional fees being assessed for the oversize features.

Fees established in RCW 46.44.0941 shall be paid to the political body issuing the permit if the entire movement is to be confined to roads, streets, or highways for which that political body is responsible((:)). When a movement involves a combination of state highways, county roads, and/or city streets the fee shall be paid to the state ((highway commission)) department of transportation. When a movement is confined within the city limits of a city or town upon city streets, including routes of state highways on city streets, all fees shall be paid to the city or town involved. A permit will not be required from city or town authorities for a move involving a combination of city or town streets and state highways when the move through a city or town is being confined to the route of the state highway. When a move involves a combination of county roads and city streets the fee shall be paid to the county authorities, but the fee shall not be collected nor the county permit issued until valid permits are presented showing the city or town authorities approve of the move in question. When the movement involves only county roads the fees collected shall be paid to the county involved. Fees established shall be paid to the political body issuing the permit if the entire use of the vehicle during the period covered by the permit shall be confined to the roads, streets, or highways for which that political body is responsible.

If, pursuant to RCW 46.44.090, cities or counties issue additional tonnage permits similar to those provided for issuance by the state ((highway commission)) department of transportation in RCW 46.44.095, the state ((highway commission)) department of transportation shall authorize the use of ((such)) the additional tonnage permits on state highways subject to the following conditions:

(1) The owner of the vehicle covered by such permit shall establish to the satisfaction of the state ((highway)) department of transportation that the primary use of the vehicle is on the streets or roads of the city or county issuing the additional tonnage permit;

(2) That the fees paid for ((such)) the additional tonnage are not less than those established in RCW 46.44.095;

(3) That the city or county issuing ((such)) the permit shall allow the use of permits issued by the state pursuant to RCW 46.44.095 on the streets or roads under its jurisdiction;

(4) That all of the provisions of RCW 46.44.042 and 46.44.041 shall be observed.

When the department of (~~(highways)~~) transportation is satisfied that the above conditions have been (~~(complied with)~~) met, the (~~(state highway)~~) department of transportation, by suitable endorsement on the permit, shall authorize its use on such highways as the (~~(state highway commission)~~) department has authorized for such permits pursuant to RCW 46.44.095, and all such use of such highways (~~(shall be)~~) is subject to whatever rules and regulations the state (~~(highway commission)~~) department of transportation has adopted for (~~(such)~~) the permits.

Sec. 57. Section 1, chapter 38, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 19, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.098 are each amended to read as follows:

(~~In the event~~) If the congress of the United States further amends section 127, Title 23 of the United States Code, authorizing increased sizes and weights, the Washington state (~~(highway commission)~~) department of transportation may authorize the operation of vehicles and combinations of vehicles upon completed portions of the interstate highway system and other designated state highways (~~(as the commission may authorize)~~) if determined to be capable of accommodating the increased sizes and weights in excess of those prescribed in RCW 46.44.041, or as provided in RCW 46.44.010 and 46.44.037. (~~(Such)~~) The permitted increases shall not in any way exceed the federal limits which would jeopardize the state's allotment of federal funds.

Sec. 58. Section 23, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 75, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Violation of any of the provisions of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, and 46.44.041, or failure to obtain a permit as provided by RCW 46.44.090 and 46.44.095, or misrepresentation of the size or weight of any load or failure to follow the requirements and conditions of a permit issued hereunder is a traffic infraction, and upon the first finding thereof shall be assessed a basic penalty of not less than fifty dollars; and upon a second finding thereof shall be assessed a basic penalty of not less than seventy-five dollars; and upon a third or subsequent finding shall be assessed a basic penalty of not less than one hundred dollars.

(2) In addition to the penalties imposed in subsection (1) of this section, any person violating RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 shall be assessed three cents for each pound of excess weight(~~(-PROVIDED, That)~~). Upon a first violation in any calendar year, the court may suspend the penalty for five hundred pounds of excess weight for each axle on any vehicle or combination of vehicles, not to exceed a two thousand pound suspension. In no case (~~(shall)~~) may the basic penalty assessed in subsection (1) of this section be suspended.

(3) Whenever any vehicle or combination of vehicles is involved in two violations of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 during any twelve-month period, the court may suspend the certificate of license registration of the vehicle or combination of vehicles for not less than thirty days. Upon a third or succeeding violation in any twelve-month period, the court shall suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days. Whenever the certificate of license registration is suspended, the court shall secure such certificate and immediately forward the same to the director with information concerning the suspension.

(4) Any person found to have violated any posted limitations of a highway or section of highway shall be assessed a monetary penalty of not less than one hundred and fifty dollars, and the court shall in addition thereto upon second violation within a twelve-month period involving the same power unit, suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days.

(5) Any police officer is authorized to require the driver of any vehicle or combination of vehicles to stop and submit to a weighing either by means of a portable or stationary scale and may require that ~~((such))~~ the vehicle be driven to the nearest public scale. Whenever a police officer, upon weighing a vehicle and load, determines that the weight is unlawful, ~~((such))~~ the officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable location and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of the vehicle to ~~((such))~~ the limit ~~((as))~~ permitted by law.

Any vehicle whose driver or owner represents that the vehicle is disabled or otherwise unable to proceed to a weighing location shall have its load scaled or otherwise marked by any police officer. The owner or driver shall be directed that upon completion of repairs, the vehicle shall submit to weighing with the load and markings and/or seal intact and undisturbed. Failure to report for weighing, appearing for weighing with the seal broken or the markings disturbed, or removal of any cargo prior to weighing ~~((shall be))~~ is unlawful. Any person so convicted shall be fined five hundred dollars, and in addition the certificate of license registration shall be suspended for not less than thirty days.

(6) Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, justice courts having venue ~~((shall))~~ have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior courts for the imposition of any penalties authorized under this section.

(7) For the purpose of determining additional penalties as provided by subsection (2) of this section, "excess weight" ~~((shall))~~ means the poundage in excess of the maximum gross weight prescribed by RCW 46.44.042 and 46.44.041 plus the weights allowed by RCW 46.44.047, 46.44.091, and 46.44.095.

(8) The basic penalty provided in subsection (1) of this section shall be distributed as prescribed in RCW 46.68.050(~~(-PROVIDED, That)~~). However, all fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW (~~(as it now exists or is later amended)~~). For the purpose of computing the basic penalties and additional penalties to be imposed under the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section the convictions shall be on the same vehicle or combination of vehicles within a twelve-month period under the same ownership.

(9) The additional penalty for excess poundage provided in subsection (2) of this section shall be transmitted by the court to the county treasurer and transmitted by him (~~(transmitted)~~) to the state treasurer for deposit in the motor vehicle fund(~~(-PROVIDED, That)~~). However, all fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW (~~(as it now exists or is later amended)~~). It shall then be allocated annually on or before June 30th of each year in the amounts prescribed in RCW 46.68.100 (~~(as now or hereafter amended)~~).

(10) Any state patrol officer or any weight control officer who (~~(shall)~~) finds any person operating a vehicle or a combination of vehicles in violation of the conditions of a permit issued under RCW 46.44.037, 46.44.090, and 46.44.095 may confiscate (~~(such)~~) the permit and forward (~~(the same)~~) it to the state (~~(highway commission)~~) department of transportation which may return it to the permittee or revoke, cancel, or suspend it without refund. The (~~(state highway commission)~~) department of transportation shall keep a record of all action taken upon permits so confiscated, and if a permit (~~(shall be)~~) is returned to the permittee the action taken by the (~~(commission)~~) department of transportation shall be endorsed thereon. Any permittee whose permit is suspended or revoked may upon request receive a hearing before the (~~(commission)~~) department of transportation or person designated by (~~(the commission)~~) that department. (~~(The commission)~~) After (~~(such)~~) the hearing the department of transportation may reinstate any permit or revise its previous action.

Every permit issued as provided for in this chapter shall be carried in the vehicle or combination of vehicles to which it refers and shall be open to inspection by any law enforcement officer or authorized agent of any authority granting such a permit.

Upon the third finding within a calendar year of a violation of the requirements and conditions of a permit issued under RCW 46.44.095 as now or hereafter amended, the permit shall be canceled, and the canceled permit shall be immediately transmitted by the court or the arresting officer to the department of transportation. The vehicle covered by (~~(such)~~) the canceled permit (~~(shall)~~) is not (~~(be)~~) eligible for a new permit for a period of thirty days.

(11) For the purposes of determining gross weights the actual scale weight taken by the arresting officer ~~((shall be))~~ is prima facie evidence of ~~((such))~~ the total gross weight.

The chief of the state patrol, with the advice of the department, may adopt reasonable rules to aid in the enforcement of ~~((the provisions of))~~ this section.

Sec. 59. Section 46.44.110, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.44.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person operating any vehicle or moving any object or conveyance upon any public highway in this state or upon any bridge or elevated structure ~~((which))~~ that is a part of any such public highway ~~((shall be))~~ is liable for all damages ~~((which said))~~ that the public highway, bridge, or elevated structure may sustain as a result of any illegal operation of ~~((such))~~ the vehicle or the moving of any such object or conveyance or as a result of the operation or moving of any vehicle, object, or conveyance weighing in excess of the legal weight limits allowed by law. This section ~~((shall apply))~~ applies to any person operating any vehicle or moving any object or contrivance in any illegal or negligent manner or without a special permit as provided by law ~~((provided))~~ for vehicles, objects, or contrivances ~~((of))~~ that are overweight, overwidth, overheight, or overlength. Any person operating any vehicle ~~((shall be))~~ is liable for any damage to any public highway, bridge, or elevated structure sustained as the result of any negligent operation thereof. When ~~((such))~~ the operator is not the owner of ~~((such))~~ the vehicle, object, or contrivance but is ~~((so))~~ operating or moving ~~((the same))~~ it with the express or implied permission of the owner ~~((thereof)), ((then said))~~ the owner and the operator ~~((shall be))~~ are jointly and severally liable for any such damage. Such damage to any state highway or structure may be recovered in a civil action instituted in the name of the state of Washington by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation. Any measure of damage to any public highway determined by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation by reason of this section ~~((shall be))~~ is prima facie the amount of damage caused thereby and ~~((shall be))~~ is presumed to be the amount recoverable in any civil action therefor.

Sec. 60. Section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 77, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.140 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other special permits authorized by law, special permits may be issued by the department of transportation for a quarterly or annual period upon such terms and conditions as it ~~((shall))~~ finds proper for the movement of (1) farm implements used for the cutting or threshing of mature crops; or (2) other farm implements ~~((as))~~ that may be identified by rule of the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation. Any farm implement moved under this section must have a gross weight less than forty-five thousand pounds and a total outside width of less than twenty feet while being moved, and such movement must be patrolled, flagged, lighted, signed, at a time of day, and otherwise in accordance with rules hereby authorized to be adopted by the department of transportation for the control of such movements.

Applications for and permits issued under this section shall provide for a description of the farm implements to be moved, the approximate dates of movement, and the routes of movement so far as they are reasonably known to the applicant at the time of application, but the permit shall not be limited to these circumstances but shall be general in its application except as limited by the statutes and rules adopted by the department of transportation.

A copy of the governing permit shall be carried on the farm implement being moved during the period of its movement. The department shall collect a fee as provided in RCW 46.44.0941.

Violation of a term or condition under which a permit was issued, ~~((or))~~ of a rule adopted by the department of transportation as authorized by this section, or of a term of this section is a traffic infraction.

Sec. 61. Section 3, chapter 22, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.173 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon validation of a special permit as provided in RCW 46.44.170, the county treasurer shall forward notice of movement of the mobile home to the treasurer's own county assessor and to the county assessor of the county in which the mobile home will be located.

(2) When a single trip special permit not requiring tax certification is issued, the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation or the local authority shall notify the assessor of the county in which the mobile home is to be located ~~((and))~~. When a continuous trip special permit is used to transport a mobile home not requiring tax certification, the transporter shall notify the assessor of the county in which the mobile home is to be located ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. Notification ~~((shall))~~ is not ~~((be))~~ necessary when the destination of a mobile home is a manufacturer, distributor, retailer, or location outside the state.

(3) A notification under this section shall state the specific, residential destination of the mobile home.

Sec. 62. Section 14, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.085 are each amended to read as follows:

No traffic control signal or device ~~((shall))~~ may be erected or maintained upon any city street designated as forming a part of the route of a primary state highway or secondary state highway unless first approved by the state ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation.

Sec. 63. Section 21, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 33, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state (~~((highway commission))~~) department of transportation and the local authorities are (~~((hereby))~~) authorized to determine those portions of any highway under their respective jurisdictions where overtaking and passing or driving to the left of the roadway would be especially hazardous and may by appropriate signs or markings on the roadway indicate the beginning and end of such zones (~~((and))~~). When such signs or markings are in place and clearly visible to an ordinarily observant person every driver of a vehicle shall obey the directions thereof.

(2) Where signs or markings are in place to define a no-passing zone as set forth in subsection (1) (~~((above))~~) of this section, no driver (~~((shall))~~) may at any time drive on the left side of the roadway within (~~((such))~~) the no-passing zone or on the left side of any pavement striping designed to mark (~~((such))~~) the no-passing zone throughout its length.

(3) This section does not apply under the conditions described in RCW 46.61.100(1)(b), nor to the driver of a vehicle turning left into or from an alley, private road, or driveway.

Sec. 64. Section 22, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 24, chapter 62, Laws of 1975 and RCW 46.61.135 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state (~~((highway commission))~~) department of transportation and the local authorities with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions may designate any highway, roadway, part of a roadway, or specific lanes upon which vehicular traffic shall proceed in one direction at all or such times as shall be indicated by official traffic control devices.

(2) Upon a roadway so designated for one-way traffic, a vehicle shall be driven only in the direction designated at all or such times as shall be indicated by official traffic control devices.

(3) A vehicle passing around a rotary traffic island shall be driven only to the right of such island.

Sec. 65. Section 2, chapter 133, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.165 are each amended to read as follows:

The state (~~((highway commission))~~) department of transportation and the local authorities are authorized to reserve all or any portion of any highway under their respective jurisdictions, including any designated lane or ramp, for the exclusive or preferential use of public transportation vehicles or private motor vehicles carrying (~~((not less))~~) no fewer than a specified number of passengers when such limitation will increase the efficient utilization of the highway or will aid in the conservation of energy resources. Regulations authorizing such exclusive or preferential use of a highway facility may be declared to be effective at all times or at specified times of day or on specified days.

Sec. 66. Section 46.60.330, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 48, chapter 3, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.195 are each amended to read as follows:

All state highways are hereby declared to be arterial highways as respects all other public highways or private ways, except that the ~~((Washington))~~ state ~~((highway commission shall have))~~ department of transportation has the authority to designate any county road or city street as an arterial having preference over the traffic on the state highway if traffic conditions will be improved by such action.

Those city streets designated by the ~~((Washington))~~ state ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation as forming a part of the routes of state highways through incorporated cities and towns are ~~((hereby))~~ declared to be arterial highways as respects all other city streets or private ways.

The governing authorities of incorporated cities and towns may designate any street as an arterial having preference over the traffic on a state highway if ~~((such))~~ the change is first approved in writing by the ~~((Washington))~~ state ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation. The local authorities making such a change in arterial designation shall do so by proper ordinance or resolution and shall erect or cause to be erected and maintained standard stop signs, or "Yield" signs, to accomplish this change in arterial designation.

The operator of any vehicle entering upon any arterial highway from any other public highway or private way shall come to a complete stop before entering ~~((such))~~ the arterial highway when stop signs are erected as provided by law.

Sec. 67. Section 46.60.340, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.61.200 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the points of intersection of any public highway with any arterial public highway ~~((which))~~ that is constituted by law or by any proper authorities of this state or any city or town of this state, the state ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation with respect to state highways, and the proper authorities with respect to any other public highways, ~~((shall))~~ have the power to determine and designate any particular intersection, or any particular highways, roads, or streets or portions thereof, at any intersection with which vehicles shall be required to stop before entering such intersection~~((; and))~~. Upon the determination and designation of such points at which vehicles will be required to come to a stop before entering ~~((such))~~ the intersection, the proper authorities so determining and designating shall cause to be posted and maintained proper signs of the standard design adopted by the state ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation indicating that ~~((such))~~ the intersection has been so determined and designated and that vehicles entering ~~((the same))~~ it are required to stop. It ~~((shall be))~~ is unlawful for any person operating any vehicle when entering any intersection determined, designated, and bearing the required sign (~~(aforesaid;)~~) to fail and neglect to bring (~~(such)~~) the vehicle to a complete stop before entering (~~(such)~~) the intersection.

Sec. 68. Section 40, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 28, chapter 62, Laws of 1975 and RCW 46.61.290 are each amended to read as follows:

The driver of a vehicle intending to turn shall do so as follows:

(1) Right turns. Both the approach for a right turn and a right turn shall be made as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway.

(2) Left turns. The driver of a vehicle intending to turn left shall approach the turn in the extreme left-hand lane lawfully available to traffic moving in the direction of travel of (~~(such)~~) the vehicle. Whenever practicable the left turn shall be made to the left of the center of the intersection and so as to leave the intersection or other location in the extreme left-hand lane lawfully available to traffic moving in the same direction as (~~(such)~~) the vehicle on the roadway being entered.

(3) Two-way left turn lanes.

(a) The department of (~~(highways)~~) transportation and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may designate a two-way left turn lane on a roadway. A two-way left turn lane is near the center of the roadway set aside for use by vehicles making left turns in both directions from or into the roadway.

(b) Two-way left turn lanes shall be designated by distinctive uniform roadway markings. The department of (~~(highways)~~) transportation shall determine and prescribe standards and specifications governing type, length, width, and positioning of the distinctive permanent markings. The standards and specifications developed shall be filed with the code reviser in accordance with the procedures set forth in the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. On and after July 1, 1971, permanent markings designating a two-way left turn lane shall conform to such standards and specifications.

(c) Upon a roadway where a center lane has been provided by distinctive pavement markings for the use of vehicles turning left from both directions, no vehicles (~~(shall)~~) may turn left from any other lane. A vehicle shall not be driven in this center lane for the purpose of overtaking or passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction. A signal, either electric or manual, for indicating a left turn movement, shall be made at least one hundred feet before the actual left turn movement is made. (1) Except as provided in RCW 47.12.026 and 47.12.029, whenever it is necessary to secure any lands or interests in lands for any highway purpose mentioned in RCW 47.12.010, or for the construction of any toll facility or ferry terminal or docking facility, the title to which is in the state of Washington and under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources, the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation may acquire jurisdiction over ~~((such))~~ the lands or interests in lands, or acquire rights to remove materials from ~~((such))~~ the lands in the manner set forth in this section.

(2) At any time after the final adoption of a right of way plan or other plan requiring the acquisition of lands or interests in lands for any purpose as authorized in subsection (1) of this section, the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation may file with the department of natural resources a notice setting forth its intent to acquire jurisdiction of the lands or interests in lands under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources required for right of way or other highway purposes related to the construction or improvement of such state highway, toll facility, or ferry terminal or docking facility.

(3) The department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation at the time of filing its notice of intent as provided in subsection (2) of this section shall file therewith a written statement showing the total amount of just compensation to be paid for the property in the event of settlement. ~~((Such))~~ The offer shall be based upon the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation approved appraisal of the fair market value of the property to be acquired. (4) Just compensation and/or fair market value for the purposes of this section shall be determined in accordance with applicable federal and state constitutional, statutory, and case law relating to the condemnation of private and public property for public purposes.

(5) ~~((In the event))~~ If the department of natural resources does not accept the offer of the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation, the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation may nonetheless pay to the department of natural resources the amount of its offer and obtain immediate possession and use of the property pending the determination of just compensation in the manner hereinafter provided.

(6) If the amount of just compensation is not agreed to, either the department of natural resources or the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation may request in writing the appointment of an arbitrator for the purpose of determining the amount of compensation to be paid by the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation for the acquisition of jurisdiction over ~~((such))~~ the lands or interests in lands or rights therein. In ~~((such))~~ that event the department of natural resources and the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation may jointly agree on an arbitrator to determine ~~((such))~~ the compensation, and his determination shall be final and conclusive upon both departments. The costs of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties. If the department of natural resources and the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation are unable to agree on the selection of an arbitrator within thirty days after a request therefor is made, either the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation or the department of natural resources may file a petition with the superior court for Thurston county for the purpose of determining the amount of just compensation to be paid. The matter shall be tried by the court pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 8.04.080.

(7) Whenever the department of ~~((highways shall have))~~ transportation has acquired immediate possession and use of property by payment of the amount of its offer to the department of natural resources, and the arbitration award or judgment of the court for ~~((such))~~ the acquisition exceeds the payment for immediate possession and use, the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation shall forthwith pay the amount of such excess to the department of natural resources with interest thereon from the date it obtained immediate possession. ~~((In the event))~~ If the arbitration or court award is less than the amount previously paid by the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation for immediate possession and use, the department of natural resources shall forthwith pay the amount of the difference to the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation.

(8) Upon the payment of just compensation, as agreed to by the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation and the department of natural resources, or as determined by arbitration or by judgment of the court, and other costs or fees as provided by statute, the department of natural resources shall cause to be executed and delivered to the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation an instrument transferring jurisdiction over ~~((such))~~ the lands or interests in lands, or rights to remove material from ~~((such))~~ the lands, to the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation.

(9) Except as provided in RCW 47.12.026, whenever the department of ~~((highways shall))~~ transportation ceases to use any lands or interests in lands acquired in the manner set forth in this section for the purposes mentioned herein, the department of natural resources may reacquire jurisdiction over ~~((such))~~ the lands or interests in land by paying the fair market

If the two departments are unable to agree on the fair market value of ~~((such))~~ the lands or interests in lands, ~~((such))~~ the market value shall be determined and the interests therein shall be transferred in accordance with the provisions and procedures set forth in subsections (4) through (8) of this section.

No charge ~~((shall))~~ may be made to the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation for such an easement.

(3) Upon the selection by the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation of an easement for highway or toll facilities right of way or for ferry terminal or docking facilities, as authorized in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the department of natural resources shall cause to be executed and delivered to the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation an instrument transferring ~~((such))~~ the easement. Whenever the state ~~((shall))~~ no longer requires ~~((such))~~ the easement for highway or toll facilities right of way or for ferry terminal or docking facilities, the easement shall automatically terminate and the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation shall, upon request, cause to be executed an instrument relinquishing to the department of natural resources all of its interest in ~~((such))~~ the lands.

(4) The department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation, pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 47.12.023, may remove sand and gravel and borrow materials and stone from the beds of navigable waters under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources which lie below the line of ordinary high water upon the payment of fair market value per cubic yard for such materials to be determined in the manner set forth in RCW 47.12.023.

(5) The department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation may acquire full jurisdiction over lands under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources including the beds of navigable waters ~~((which))~~ that are required for the relocation of the operating tracks of any railroad (~~((which))~~) that will be displaced by the acquisition of such railroad property for state highway purposes. The department of (~~((highways))~~) transportation may exchange lands so acquired in consideration or partial consideration for the land or property rights needed for highway purposes and may cause to be executed a conveyance of (~~((such))~~) the lands in the manner prescribed in RCW 47.12.150. In (~~((such))~~) that event the department of (~~((highways))~~) transportation shall pay to the department of natural resources, as just compensation for (~~((such))~~) the acquisition, the fair market value of (~~((such))~~) the property, including the beds of any navigable waters, to be determined in accordance with procedures set forth in RCW 47.12.023.

The (~~((board of))~~) county (~~((commissioners))~~) legislative authority or the directors or governing body of any political or municipal subdivision are empowered to execute a deed or other proper instrument to (~~((such))~~) the land, passing title to the state of Washington, and (~~((such))~~) the instrument need not require consideration other than the benefit which may be derived by the grantor on account of the use thereof. Whenever any state highway is established by legislative enactment and (~~((such))~~) the state highway is upon the former route of (~~((any))~~) a county road, the (~~((board of))~~) county (~~((commissioners))~~) legislative authority shall cause the title to the existing right of way or so much thereof as the (~~((highway commission shall))~~) department requires to be transferred to the state of Washington by proper instrument.

Sec. 120. Section 2, chapter 78, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47-12.066 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department ~~((of highways))~~ may sell at fair market value, or lease at rental value (economic rent), materials or other personal property to any United States agency or to any municipal corporation, political subdivision, or another agency of the state and may provide services to any United States agency or to any municipal corporation, political subdivision, or another agency of the state at actual cost, including a reasonable amount for indirect costs.

(2) The department may sell at fair market value materials or other personal property to any private utility company regulated by the utilities and transportation commission for the purpose of making emergency repairs to utility facilities or to protect such facilities from imminent damage upon a finding in writing by the ~~((director of highways))~~ secretary that an emergency exists.

(3) The proceeds of all sales and leases under this section shall be placed in the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 121. Section 47.12.080, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 5, chapter 78, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and by section 49, chapter 151, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.080 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The ~~((highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation may transfer and convey to the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities to any other state agency, to any county or city or port district of this state, or to any public utility company, any unused state-owned real property under the jurisdiction of the ~~((highway commission;))~~ department of transportation when, in the judgment of the secretary of transportation and the attorney general, ~~((such))~~ the transfer and conveyance is consistent with public interest. Whenever the secretary ~~((shall))~~ makes an agreement for any such transfer or conveyance, and the attorney general concurs therein, the secretary shall execute and deliver unto the grantee a deed of conveyance, easement, or other instrument, duly acknowledged, as shall be necessary to fulfill the terms of the aforesaid agreement. All moneys paid to the state of Washington under any of the provisions hereof shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 122. Section 47.12.160, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a part of a parcel of land is to be acquired for state highway purposes and the remainder lying outside of the right of way is to be left in such shape or condition as to be of little value to its owner or to give rise to claims or litigation concerning severance or other damage, and its value does not exceed the probable amount of ~~((such))~~ the severance claims or damages, the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department may acquire by gift, purchase, or condemnation the whole parcel and may sell that portion lying outside of the highway right of way or may exchange the same for other property needed for highway purposes ~~(-PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That))~~. The provisions of this section ~~((shall))~~ do not apply if the taking of that portion of the land lying outside of the highway right of way would deprive any adjacent owner of an existing right of ingress and egress to his property.

Sec. 123. Section 1, chapter 281, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 197, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.180 are each amended to read as follows:

It is ~~((hereby))~~ declared to be the public policy of the state of Washington to provide for the acquisition of real property and engineering costs necessary for the improvement of the state highway system, in advance of actual construction, for the purposes of eliminating costly delays in construction, reducing hardship to owners of ~~((such))~~ the property, and eliminating economic waste occasioned by the improvement of such property immediately prior to its acquisition for highway uses.

The legislature therefore finds and declares that purchase and condemnation of real property necessary for the state highway system and engineering costs, reasonably in advance of programmed construction, is a public use and purpose and a highway purpose.

The ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department is hereby authorized to purchase or condemn any real property or property rights therein which it deems will be necessary for the improvement of routes on the state highway system by the method provided in RCW 47.12.180 through 47.12.240 ~~((, as now or later amended,))~~ or alternatively by the method provided in RCW 47.12.242 through 47.12.246. Neither method ~~((shall))~~ may be used to condemn property or property rights in advance of programmed construction until the ~~((highway commission))~~ department has complied with hearing procedures required for the location or relocation of the type of highway for which ~~((such))~~ the property is to be condemned.

Sec. 124. Section 7, chapter 281, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 149. Section 1, chapter 272, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.20.645 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the ~~((Washington))~~ department ~~((of highways))~~ initiated route studies for the location of that segment of the national system of interstate and defense highways (interstate system) between south Bellevue and state route No. 5 in Seattle in 1957 culminating in a corridor public hearing and adoption of a corridor in 1963; that thereafter the department, utilizing a multidisciplinary design team and soliciting the broadest public participation, developed a series of designs culminating in a public design hearing in 1970, a public limited access hearing in 1971, and adoption of a design and limited access plan for the facility in 1971; that commencing in 1970 the proposed facility has been the subject of numerous lawsuits and administrative proceedings ~~((which))~~ that have prevented advancement of the project to construction; that since further development of the project was enjoined by federal courts in 1971 the cost of constructing the project has increased by more than one hundred million dollars; that the traffic congestion and traffic hazards existing in the existing highway corridor between south Bellevue, Mercer Island, and the city of Seattle are no longer tolerable; that after more than seventeen years of studies the public interest now requires that final decisions regarding the appropriate system for meeting the transportation requirements between south Bellevue and the city of Seattle be made promptly and in accordance with a prescribed schedule.

It is therefore the sense of the legislature that further protracted delay in establishing the transportation system to be constructed between south Bellevue and state route No. 5 in the city of Seattle is contrary to the interest of the people of this state and can no longer be tolerated as acceptable public administration. Accordingly the schedule for finally determining the character of transportation modes between south Bellevue and state route No. 5 in the city of Seattle as set forth in RCW 47.20.645 through 47.20.653(;) and 47.20.900 is adopted as the public policy of this state.

Sec. 150. Section 47.24.020, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 7, chapter 78, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The jurisdiction, control, and duty of the state and city or town with respect to such streets shall be as follows:

(1) The ~~((state highway commission shall have))~~ department has no authority to change or establish any grade of any such street without approval of the governing body of such city or town, except with respect to limited access facilities established by the ~~((state highway))~~ commission;

(2) The city or town shall exercise full responsibility for and control over any such street beyond the curbs and if no curb is installed, beyond that portion of the highway used for highway purposes~~((: PROVIDED; That))~~. However, within incorporated cities and towns the title to a state limited access highway ~~((shall))~~ vests in the state, and, notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department shall exercise full jurisdiction, responsibility, and control to~~((:))~~ and over~~((:))~~ such facility as provided in chapter 47.52 RCW~~((, as amended))~~;

(3) The ~~((state highway commission shall have))~~ department has authority to prohibit the suspension of signs, banners, or decorations above the portion of such street between the curbs or portion used for highway purposes up to a vertical height of twenty feet above the surface of the roadway;

(4) The city or town shall at its own expense maintain all underground facilities in such streets, and ~~((shall have))~~ has the right to construct such additional underground facilities as may be necessary in such streets;

(5) The city or town ~~((shall have))~~ has the right to grant the privilege to open the surface of any such street, but all damage occasioned thereby shall promptly be repaired either by the city or town itself or at its direction;

(6) The city or town at its own expense shall provide street illumination and shall clean all such streets, including storm sewer inlets and catch basins, and remove all snow, except that the state shall when necessary plow the snow on the roadway(~~(-PROVIDED, That)~~). In cities and towns having a population of fifteen thousand or less according to the latest determination of population by the ((state census board)) office of financial management, the state, when necessary for public safety, shall assume, at its expense, responsibility(;) for the stability of the slopes of cuts and fills and the embankments within the right of way to protect the roadway itself(:(PROVIDED FURTHER, That)). The state shall install, maintain, and operate all illuminating facilities on any limited access facility, together with ((their)) its interchanges, located within the corporate limits of any city or town, and shall assume and pay the costs of all such installation, maintenance, and operation incurred after November 1, 1954;

(7) The ((state highway commission shall have)) department has the right to ((utilize)) use all storm sewers on such highways without cost; and if new storm sewer facilities are necessary in construction of new streets by the ((state highway commission)) department, the cost of ((such)) the facilities shall be borne by the state and/or city as may be mutually agreed upon between the ((state highway commission)) department and the governing body of the city or town;

(8) Cities and towns ((shall)) have exclusive right to grant franchises(;) not in conflict with state laws, over, beneath, and upon such streets, but the ((state highway commission shall be)) department is authorized to enforce in an action brought in the name of the state any condition of any franchise which a city or town ((shall have)) has granted on such street(:(PROVIDED, That)). No franchise for transportation of passengers in motor vehicles ((shall)) may be granted on such streets without the approval of the ((state highway commission)) department, but the ((state highway commission)) department shall not refuse to approve such franchise unless another street conveniently located and of strength of construction to sustain travel of such vehicles is accessible;

(9) Every franchise or permit granted any person by a city or town for use of any portion of such street by a public utility shall require the grantee or permittee to restore, repair, and replace to its original condition any portion of the street damaged or injured by it;

(10) The city or town ((shall have)) has the right to issue overload or overwidth permits for vehicles to operate on such streets or roads subject to regulations printed and distributed to the cities and towns by the ((state highway commission)) department;

(11) Cities and towns shall regulate and enforce all traffic and parking restrictions on such streets, but all regulations adopted by a city or town relating to speed, parking, and traffic control devices on such streets not identical to state law relating thereto (~~shall be~~) are subject to the approval of the (~~state highway commission~~) department before becoming effective. All regulations pertaining to speed, parking, and traffic control devices relating to such streets heretofore adopted by a city or town not identical with state laws shall become null and void unless approved by the (~~state highway commission~~) department heretofore or within one year after March 21, 1963;

(12) The (~~state highway commission~~) department shall erect, control, and maintain at state expense all route markers(;) and directional signs, except street signs, on such streets;

(13) The (~~state highway commission~~) department shall install, operate, maintain, and control at state expense all traffic control signals, signs, and traffic control devices for the purpose of regulating both pedestrian and motor vehicular traffic on, entering upon, or leaving state highways in cities and towns having a population of fifteen thousand or less according to the latest determination of population by the (~~state census board. PROVIDED, That~~) office of financial management. Such cities and towns may submit to the (~~state highway commission~~) department a plan for traffic control signals, signs, and traffic control devices desired by them, indicating the location, nature of installation, or type thereof, or a proposed amendment to such an existing plan or installation, and the (~~state highway commission~~) department shall consult with the cities or towns concerning the (~~same prior to~~) plan before installing such signals, signs, or devices. Cities and towns having a population in excess of fifteen thousand according to the latest determination of population by the (~~state census board~~) office of financial management shall install, maintain, operate, and control such signals, signs, and devices at their own expense, subject to approval of the (~~state highway commission~~) department for the installation and type only. For the purpose of this (~~subdivision~~) subsection, striping, lane marking, and channelization are considered traffic control devices;

(14) All revenue from parking meters placed on such streets (~~shall~~) belongs to the city or town;

(15) Rights of way for such streets shall be acquired by either the city or town or by the state as shall be mutually agreed upon. Costs of acquiring rights of way may be at the sole expense of the state or at the expense of the city or town or at the expense of the state and the city or town as may be mutually agreed upon. Title to all such rights of way acquired by a city or town (~~shall~~) immediately vests in the city or town. Title to all rights of way acquired by the state (~~shall~~) remains in the state until actually used for construction or other street purpose. Upon completion of (~~such~~) the construction, the rights of way actually used for street purposes shall be conveyed to the city or town by deed executed by the (~~director of highways~~) secretary and duly acknowledged. No vacation, sale, or rental of any unused portion of any such street (~~(shall)~~) may be made by the city or town without the approval of the (~~(state-highway-commission))~~ department; and all revenue derived from sale, vacation, or rental of such rights of way shall be shared by the city or town and the state in the same proportion as the purchase costs were shared;

(16) If any city or town (~~(shall)~~) fails to perform any of its obligations as set forth in this section or in any cooperative agreement entered into with the (~~(state-highway-commission))~~ department for the maintenance of a city or town street forming part of the route of a state highway, the (~~(state-highway-commission))~~ department may notify the mayor of (~~(such))~~ the city or town to perform (~~(such))~~ the necessary maintenance within thirty days. If the city or town within (~~(such))~~ the thirty days (~~(shall)~~) fails to perform (~~(such))~~ the maintenance or fails to authorize the (~~(state-highway-commission))~~ department to perform (~~(such))~~ the maintenance as provided by RCW 47.24.050, the (~~(state-highway-commission))~~ department may perform (~~(such))~~ the maintenance, the cost of which is to be deducted from any sums in the motor vehicle fund credited or to be credited to (~~(such))~~ the city or town.

The (~~(highway-commission))~~ department is authorized to acquire rights of way, by purchase, gift, or condemnation for any such streets, highways, bridges, and wharves. Sec. 152. Section 47.24.050, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47-24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

If a city or town, whether or not any of its streets are designated as forming a part of a state highway, is unable to construct, repair, or maintain its streets for good cause, or if it is in need of engineering assistance to construct, repair, or maintain any of its streets, it may authorize the (~~(highway-commission))~~ department to perform such construction, repair, or maintenance, or it may secure necessary engineering assistance from the (~~(highway-commission))~~ department, to the extent of the funds credited or to be credited in the motor vehicle fund for payment to the city or town. Any sums due from a city or town for such purposes shall be paid on vouchers approved and submitted by the (~~(highway-commission))~~ department from moneys credited to the city or town in the motor vehicle fund, and the amount of the payments shall be deducted from funds which would otherwise be paid to the city or town from the motor vehicle fund. The (~~(highway-commission))~~ department may in certain special cases, in its discretion, enter into an agreement with the governing officials of (~~(such))~~ the city or town for the performance of such work or services, the terms of which shall provide for reimbursement of the motor vehicle fund for the benefit of the state's share of ~~((such))~~ the fund by ~~((such))~~ the city or town of the cost thereof from any funds ~~((on-hand-of-such))~~ of the city or town on hand and legally available for ~~((such))~~ the work or services. The city or town may, by resolution, authorize the ~~((board-of-commissioners))~~ legislative authority of the county in which it is located, to perform any such construction, repair, or maintenance, and the ~~((same))~~ work shall be paid for by the city or town at the actual cost thereof as provided for payment for work performed on city streets, and any payment received therefor by a county shall be deposited in the county road fund to be expended under the same provisions as are imposed upon the funds used to perform ~~((such))~~ the construction, repair, or maintenance.

Whenever an urban arterial connects with and will be substantially affected by a programmed construction project on a state highway, the proper county or city officials shall jointly plan the development of ~~((such))~~ the connecting arterial with the ~~((state-highway))~~ appropriate department of transportation district ~~((engineer))~~ administrator. The urban arterial board shall adopt ~~((regulations))~~ rules providing for the system development of county-city arterials and urban arterials with state highways.

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 47.26.060, the (~~state-highway-commission~~) department is authorized in any biennium, subject to proper appropriations, to expend from funds available pursuant to RCW 46.68.150, for urban state highway construction projects within a region, an amount including bond proceeds which may exceed the amount apportionable during the biennium to the region. The total amounts apportioned to each region through 1985 shall meet the apportionment requirements of RCW 47.26.060 for such period.

The budget shall contain an estimate of the revenues to be credited to the urban arterial trust account and the amount, if any, of bond proceeds which the board determines should be made available to the urban arterial trust account through the sale of bonds in the ensuing biennium.

The (~~state-highway~~) commission shall review the budget as recommended, revise the (~~same~~) budget as it deems proper, and include the budget for the urban arterial board as revised as a separate section of the

From and after April 1, 1937, the width of one hundred feet is the necessary and proper right of way width for state highways unless the ~~((highway commission))~~ department, for good cause, ~~((may))~~ adopts and designates a different width. This section shall not be construed to require the ~~((highway commission))~~ department to acquire increased right of way for any state highway in existence on such date.

Sec. 165. Section 47.28.025, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 225, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47.28.025 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the ~~((state highway commission shall))~~ department establishes the location, width, and lines of any new highway, or declares any such new highway as a limited access facility and schedules the acquisition of the right of way for the highway or facility within the ensuing two years, it may cause the description and plan of any such highway to be made, showing the center line of ~~((said))~~ the highway and the established width thereof, and attach thereto a certified copy of the resolution~~((, and thereupon))~~. Such description, plan, and resolution shall then be recorded in the office of the county auditor of the proper county in a separate book kept for such purposes, which shall be furnished to the county auditor of ~~((such))~~ the county by the ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department at the expense of the state.

Sec. 166. Section 47.28.026, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 225, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47.28.026 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No owner or occupier of lands, buildings, or improvements ~~((shall))~~ may erect any buildings or make any improvements within the limits of any such highway, the location, width, and lines of which have been established and recorded~~((;))~~ as provided in RCW 47.28.025~~((, and))~~. If any such erection and improvements ~~((shall be))~~ are made, no allowances ~~((shall))~~ may be had therefor by the assessment of damages. No permits for improvements within ~~((said))~~ the limits ~~((shall))~~ may be issued by any authority~~((: PROVIDED, That))~~. The establishment of any highway location as set forth in RCW 47.28.025 ~~((shall be))~~ is ineffective after one year from the filing thereof if no action to condemn or acquire the property within ~~((said))~~ the limits has been commenced within ~~((said))~~ that time.

(2) Unless and until the ~~((state highway commission shall))~~ department causes a plan of a proposed new highway or limited access facility to be recorded in the office of the county auditor as authorized in RCW 47.28.025, nothing contained in RCW 47.28.025 or 47.28.026 ~~((shall))~~ may be deemed to restrict or restrain in any manner the improvement, development, or other use by owners or occupiers of lands, buildings, or improvements within the limits of any proposed new or limited access highway or any proposed relocated or widened highway. Because of the uncertainties of federal aid and the state level of funding of proposed construction or improvement of state highways, plans for such improvements approved by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department shall be deemed tentative until filed with the county auditor as authorized in RCW 47.28.025 or until the department ~~((of highways))~~ commences action to condemn or otherwise acquire the right of way for ~~((such))~~ the highway improvements.

Sec. 167. Section 47.28.040, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.28.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Before entering into any contract for the construction, alteration, repair, or improvement of any state highway the ~~((highway commission))~~ department shall cause the ~~((same))~~ highway to be surveyed throughout the entire length of ~~((such))~~ the proposed construction, alteration, repair, or improvement and cause to be prepared maps, plans, and specifications, together with an estimate of the cost of ~~((such))~~ the proposed work, and such information and directions as will enable a contractor to carry them out. The maps, plans, specifications, and directions shall be approved by the ~~((highway commission))~~ department and a copy thereof filed permanently in the department's office ~~((of the highway commission))~~.

Sec. 168. Section 47.28.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1971 and RCW 47.28.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, firm, or corporation ~~((shall be))~~ is entitled to receive copies of the maps, plans, specifications, and directions for any work upon which call for bids has been published, upon written request therefor and payment to the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of a reasonable sum as required by the ~~((highway commission))~~ department in the call for bids for each copy of such maps, plans, and specifications. Any money so received shall be certified by the ~~((highway commission))~~ department to the state treasurer and deposited to the credit of the motor vehicle fund ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. The ~~((highway commission))~~ department may deliver with or without charge informational copies of maps, plans, specifications, and directions at such places as it may from time to time designate.

Sec. 169. Section 47.28.070, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 39, chapter 145, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 47.28.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Bid proposals upon any construction or improvement of any state highway shall be made upon contract proposal form supplied by the ~~((highway commission,))~~ department and in no other manner. The ~~((highway~~ ~~commission~~) department shall, before furnishing any person, firm, or corporation desiring to bid upon any work for which a call for bid proposals has been published with a contract proposal form, require from ~~(such)~~ the person, firm, or corporation, answers to questions contained in a standard form of questionnaire and financial statement, including a complete statement of the financial ability and experience of ~~(such)~~ the person, firm, or corporation in performing state highway, road, or other public work. ~~(Such)~~ The questionnaire and financial statement shall be sworn to before a notary public or other person authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds, and shall be submitted once a year and at such other times as the ~~(highway commission)~~ department may require. Whenever the ~~(highway commission)~~ department is not satisfied with the sufficiency of the answers contained in ~~(such)~~ the questionnaire and financial statement or whenever the ~~(highway commission)~~ department determines that ~~(such)~~ the person, firm, or corporation does not meet all of the requirements ~~(hereinafter)~~ set forth in this section it may refuse to furnish ~~(such)~~ the person, firm, or corporation with a contract proposal form, and any bid proposal of ~~(such)~~ the person, firm, or corporation must be disregarded. In order to obtain a contract proposal form, a person, firm, or corporation shall have all of the following requirements:

- (1) Adequate financial resources or the ability to secure such resources;
- (2) The necessary experience, organization, and technical qualifications to perform the proposed contract;
- (3) The ability to comply with the required performance schedule taking into consideration all of its existing business commitments;
- (4) A satisfactory record of performance, integrity, judgment, and skills; and
- (5) Be otherwise qualified and eligible to receive an award under applicable laws and regulations.

~~(Such)~~ The refusal ~~(shall be)~~ is conclusive unless appeal therefrom to the superior court of Thurston county ~~(be)~~ is taken within five days, which appeal shall be heard summarily within ten days after ~~(the same)~~ it is taken and on five days' notice thereof to the ~~(highway commission)~~ department.

Sec. 170. Section 47.28.080, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.28.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, firm, or corporation proposing a bid for the construction or improvement of any state highway in response to a call for bids published therefor may withdraw ~~(such)~~ the bid proposal without forfeiture and without prejudice to the right of ~~(such)~~ the bidder to file a new bid proposal before the time fixed for the opening of ~~(such)~~ the bid proposals ~~(: PROVIDED, That)~~. The request for ~~(such)~~ the withdrawal shall ~~(have been)~~ be made in writing, signed by the person proposing ~~(such)~~ the bid or his duly authorized agent, and filed with the ~~((highway commission))~~ department before the time fixed for the opening of ~~((such))~~ the bid proposals. No bid proposal ~~((shall))~~ may be considered ~~((which))~~ that has not been filed with the ~~((highway commission))~~ department before the time fixed for the opening of bid proposals. In any provisions regarding the filing or withdrawing of bid proposals the time fixed for the opening of bid proposals in the call for bid proposals as published shall control without regard for the time when ~~((such))~~ the bid proposals are actually opened.

Sec. 171. Section 47.28.100, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.28.100 are each amended to read as follows:

If the successful bidder fails to enter into the contract and furnish satisfactory bond as provided by law ~~((provided))~~ within twenty days from the award, exclusive of the day of the award, his deposit shall be forfeited to the state and ~~((be))~~ deposited by the state treasurer to the credit of the motor vehicle fund, and the ~~((highway commission))~~ department may award the contract to the second lowest responsible bidder. If the second lowest responsible bidder fails to enter into the contract and furnish bond within twenty days after award to him, forfeiture of his deposit shall also be made, and the contract may be awarded to the third lowest responsible bidder, and in like manner until the contract and bond are executed by a responsible bidder to whom award is made, or further bid proposals are rejected, or the number of bid proposals are exhausted~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. If the contract is not executed or no contractor's bond provided within the time required, and there appear circumstances ~~((which))~~ that are deemed to warrant an extension of time, the ~~((commission))~~ department may extend the time for execution of the contract or furnishing bond for not to exceed twenty additional days. After awarding the contract the deposits of unsuccessful bidders shall be returned~~((PROVIDED, That))~~, but the ~~((commission))~~ department may retain the deposit of the next lowest responsible bidder or bidders as it desires until such time as the contract is entered into and satisfactory bond is ~~provided~~ by the bidder to whom the award ~~((was))~~ is ultimately made.

If in the opinion of the ~~((commission))~~ department the acceptance of the bid of the lowest responsible bidder or bidders, or on prior failure of the lowest responsible bidder or bidders~~((;))~~ the acceptance of the bid of the remaining lowest responsible bidder or bidders, will not be for the best interest of the state, it may reject all bids or all remaining bids and republish a call for bids in the same manner as for an original publication thereof.

Sec. 172. Section 47.28.110, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.28.110 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time and as often as it may be deemed necessary, the ~~((highway commission))~~ department may require any or all sureties or any surety company to appear and qualify themselves upon any contractor's bond.

Whenever ~~((such))~~ the surety or sureties upon any contractor's bond become insufficient or ~~((may be))~~ are deemed by the ~~((highway commission))~~ department to have become insufficient, the ~~((highway commission))~~ department may demand in writing that the contracting person, firm, or corporation furnish such further contractor's bond or bonds or additional surety in an amount not exceeding that originally required as may be deemed necessary considering the extent of the work remaining to be done upon ~~((such))~~ the contract. No further payments ~~((shall))~~ may be made on ~~((such))~~ the contract until such additional surety as is required is furnished.

Sec. 173. Section 47.28.120, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.28.120 are each amended to read as follows:

In the case of some special benefit or improvement to a state highway derived from the construction of any public works project, including any urban public transportation system, the department ~~((of highways))~~ may contribute to the cost thereof by making direct payment to the particular state department, agency, instrumentality, municipal corporation, or political subdivision on the basis of benefits received, but such payment shall be made only after a cooperative agreement has been entered into for a specified amount or on an actual cost basis prior to the commencement of ~~((said))~~ the particular public works project.

Sec. 175. Section 1, chapter 89, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 47.28.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the ~~((state-highway))~~ commission finds that as a consequence of accident, natural disaster, or other emergency, an existing state highway is in jeopardy or is rendered impassible in one or both directions and the commission further finds that prompt reconstruction, repair, or other work is needed to preserve or restore the highway for public travel, the ~~((highway))~~ commission may authorize the department ~~((of-highways))~~ to obtain at least three written bids for the work without publishing a call for bids and ~~((to))~~ award a contract forthwith to the lowest responsible bidder.

The department ~~((of-highways))~~ shall notify any association or organization of contractors filing a request to regularly receive notification. Notification to an association or organization of contractors shall include: (a) The location of the work to be done; (b) the general anticipated nature of the work to be done; and (c) the date determined by the department as reasonable in view of the nature of the work and emergent nature of the problem after which the department will not receive bids.

(2) Whenever the ~~((state-highway))~~ commission finds it necessary to protect a highway facility from imminent damage or to perform emergency work to reopen a highway facility, the ~~((highway))~~ commission may authorize the department ~~((of-highways))~~ to contract for such work on a negotiated basis not to exceed force account rates for a period not to exceed thirty working days.

(3) When the engineer's estimate of the cost of work authorized in either subsections (1) or (2) of this section is less than one hundred thousand dollars, the ~~((director-of-highways))~~ secretary may make findings as provided hereinabove, and pursuant thereto the department ~~((of-highways))~~ may award contracts as authorized by this section.

(4) Any person, firm, or corporation awarded a contract for work must be prequalified pursuant to RCW 47.28.070 and may be required to furnish a bid deposit or performance bond.

The ((commission)) department is authorized to enter into agreements (and such supplementary agreements as may be necessary) consistent with this chapter, with the secretary of commerce or the secretary of transportation authorized under section 131(b) of title 23, United States Code, as codified and enacted by Public Law 85-767 and amended only by section 106, Public Law 86-342, in order that the state may become eligible for increased federal aid as provided for in section 131 of title 23, United States Code, as codified and enacted by Public Law 85-767 and amended only by section 106, Public Law 86-342.

Sec. 232. Section 12, chapter 96, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 17, chapter 62, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 47.42.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, no sign except a sign of type 1 or 2 or those type 3 signs ((which)) that advertise activities conducted upon the properties where ((such)) the signs are located, ((shall)) may be erected or maintained without a permit issued by the ((commission)) department. Application for a permit shall be made to the ((commission)) department on forms furnished by it((, which)). The forms shall contain a statement that the owner or lessee of the land in question has consented thereto ((and)). The application shall be accompanied by a fee of ten dollars to be deposited with the state treasurer to the credit of the motor vehicle fund. Permits shall be for the calendar year and shall be renewed annually upon payment of ~~((said))~~ this fee for the new year without the filing of a new application. Fees shall not be prorated for fractions of the year. Advertising copy may be changed at any time without the payment of an additional fee. Assignment of permits in good standing ~~((shall be))~~ is effective only upon receipt of written notice of assignment by the ~~((highway commission))~~ department. A permit may be revoked after hearing if the ~~((commission))~~ department finds that any statement made in the application ~~((therefor))~~ was false or misleading, or that the sign covered ~~((thereby))~~ is not in good general condition and in a reasonable state of repair, or is otherwise in violation of this chapter, ~~((provided that such))~~ if the false or misleading information has not been corrected and ~~((that))~~ the sign has not been brought into compliance with this chapter within thirty days after written notification ~~((thereof))~~.

Sec. 233. Section 13, chapter 96, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.42.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Every permit issued by the ~~((commission))~~ department shall be assigned a separate identification number, and ~~((it shall be the duty of))~~ each permittee ~~((to))~~ shall fasten to each sign a weatherproof label, not larger than six square inches, ~~((which))~~ that shall be furnished by the ~~((commission))~~ department and on which shall be plainly visible the ~~((said))~~ permit number. The permittee shall also place his or her name in a conspicuous position on the front or back of each sign. The failure of a sign to have ~~((affixed thereto))~~ such a label ~~((shall be))~~ affixed to it is prima facie evidence that ~~((the same))~~ it is not in compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 234. Section 47.44.030, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.44.030 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ~~((highway commission))~~ department deems it necessary that ~~((such))~~ a facility be removed from the highway for the safety of persons traveling thereon or for construction, alteration, improvement, or maintenance purposes, it shall give notice to the franchise holder to remove the facility at his or her expense and as the ~~((highway commission))~~ department orders ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. However, notwithstanding any contrary provision of law or of any existing or future franchise held by a public utility, the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department shall pay or reimburse the owner for relocation or removal of any publicly, privately, or cooperatively owned public utility facilities when necessitated by the construction, reconstruction, relocation, or improvement of a highway ~~((which))~~ that is part of the national system of interstate and defense highways for each item of cost for which the state ~~((shall be))~~ is entitled to be reimbursed by the United States in an amount equal to at least ninety percent thereof under the provisions of section 123(~~(;)~~) of the federal aid highway act of 1958(~~(;)~~) and any other subsequent act of congress under which the state ~~((shall be))~~ is entitled to be reimbursed by the United States in an amount equal to at least ninety percent of the cost of relocation of utility facilities on ~~((said))~~ the national system of interstate and defense highways.

Sec. 235. Section 47.44.031, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47-44.031 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of RCW 47.44.030 authorizing the ~~((state-highway commission))~~ department to pay or reimburse the owner of a utility ~~((staff))~~ apply only to relocation or removal of utility facilities required by state construction contracts which are advertised for bids by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department after June 30, 1959.

Sec. 236. Section 47.44.040, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 8, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 and RCW 47.44.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any bridge ~~((shall exist))~~ exists on the route of any state highway and crosses any stream, body of water, gulch, navigable water, swamp, or other topographical formation constituting the boundary of this state or the boundary of a county, city, or town of this state ~~((or the boundary of this state))~~ and the ~~((same))~~ bridge is owned or operated by this state jointly with any such county, city, or town, or with any municipal corporation of this state, or with such other state or with any county, city, or town of such other state, the ~~((highway commission))~~ department is empowered to join with the proper officials of ~~((such))~~ the county, city, or town, or ~~((such))~~ the municipal corporation of this state or of such other state or of such county, city, or town of such other state in granting franchises to persons or private or municipal corporations for the construction and maintenance ~~((thereon))~~ on the bridge of water pipes, flumes, gas pipes, telephone, telegraph, and electric light and power lines and conduits, trams and railways, and any structures or facilities ~~((which))~~ that are part of an urban public transportation system owned or operated by a municipal corporation, agency, or department of the state of Washington other than the ~~((highway commission))~~ department, or any other such facilities. All such franchises shall be granted in the same manner as provided for the granting of like franchises on state highways. Any revenue accruing to the state of Washington from ~~((such))~~ the franchises shall be paid to the state treasurer and ~~((by him))~~ deposited to the credit of the fund from which this state's share of the cost of joint operation of ~~((such))~~ the bridge is paid.

Sec. 237. Section 47.44.050, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47-44.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((highway commission))~~ department is empowered to grant a permit to construct or maintain on, over, across, or along any state highway any water, gas, telephone, telegraph, light, power, or other such facilities when ~~((the same does))~~ they do not extend along ~~((such))~~ the state highway for a distance greater than three hundred feet. The ~~((highway commission))~~ department may require such information as it deems necessary in the application for any such permit, and may grant or withhold the permit within its discretion. Any permit granted may be canceled at any time, and any facilities remaining upon the right of way of ~~((such))~~ the state highway after thirty days written notice of ~~((such))~~ the cancellation ~~((shall be))~~ is an unlawful obstruction and may be removed in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 238. Section 47.48.010, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 216, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47.48.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the condition of any state highway, county road, or city street, either newly or previously constructed, altered, repaired, or improved, or any part thereof is such that for any reason its unrestricted use or continued use by vehicles or by any class of vehicles will greatly damage ~~((such))~~ that state highway, county road, or city street, or will be dangerous to traffic ~~((thereon))~~, or ~~((the same))~~ it is being constructed, altered, repaired, improved, or maintained in such a manner as to require that use of ~~((such))~~ the state highway, county road, or city street, or any portion thereof be closed or restricted as to all vehicles or any class of vehicles for any period of time, the ~~((director of highways))~~ secretary, if it ~~((be))~~ is a state highway, the county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority, if it ~~((be))~~ is a county road, or the governing body of any city or town, if it ~~((be))~~ is a city street, is authorized to close ~~((such))~~ the state highway, county road, or city street, as the case may be, to travel by all vehicles or by any class of vehicles, or may declare a lower maximum speed ~~((thereon))~~ for any class of vehicles, for such a definite period as ~~((they))~~ it shall determine ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. Nothing in the law of this state ~~((shall))~~ prevents the ~~((director of highways))~~ secretary, county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority, or governing body of any city or town from classifying vehicles according to gross weight, axle weight, height, width, length, braking area, performance, vehicle combinations, or tire equipment for the purposes of this section, or from restricting the use of any portion of any state highway, county road, or city street, as the case may be, to its use by an urban public transportation system.

Sec. 239. Section 47.52.020, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.52.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The highway authorities of the state, counties, and incorporated cities and towns, acting alone or in cooperation with each other, or with any federal, state, or local agency, or any other state having authority to participate in the construction and maintenance of highways, may plan, designate, establish, regulate, vacate, alter, improve, construct, maintain, and provide limited access facilities for public use wherever ~~((such))~~ the authority or authorities are of the opinion that traffic conditions, present or future, will justify ~~((such))~~ the special facilities ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. However, upon county roads within counties, ~~((such))~~ the state or county authorities ~~((shall~~ be) are subject to the consent of the (~~(board of county commissioners)~~) county legislative authority, except that where a state limited access facility crosses a county road the (~~(state highway commission)~~) department may, without the consent of the (~~(board of county commissioners)~~) county legislative authority, close off (~~(such)~~) the county road so that it will not intersect such limited access facility.

The (~~(state highway commission)~~) department may, in constructing or relocating any state highway, cross any county road at grade without obtaining the consent of the (~~(board of county commissioners)~~) county legislative authority, and in so doing may revise the alignment of (~~(such)~~) the county road to the extent that the (~~(state highway commission)~~) department finds necessary for reasons of traffic safety or practical engineering considerations.

Sec. 240. Section 3, chapter 133, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 47.52.026 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The (~~(state highway commission)~~) department may adopt (~~(regulations)~~) rules for the control of vehicles entering any state limited access highway as it deems necessary (a) for the efficient or safe flow of traffic traveling upon any part of the highway or connections (~~(therewith)~~) with it or (b) to avoid exceeding federal, state, or regional air pollution standards either along the highway corridor or within an urban area served by the highway.

(2) (~~(Regulations)~~) Rules adopted by the (~~(highway commission)~~) department pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may provide for the closure of highway ramps or the metering of vehicles entering highway ramps or the restriction of certain classes of vehicles entering highway ramps (including vehicles with less than a specified number of passengers), and any such restrictions may vary at different times as necessary to achieve the purposes mentioned in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) (~~(Restrictions of vehicles)~~) Vehicle restrictions authorized by (~~(regulations)~~) rules adopted pursuant to this section (~~(shall be)~~) are effective when proper notice (~~(thereof)~~) is given by any police officer, or by appropriate signals, signs, or other traffic control devices.

Sec. 241. Section 47.52.090, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 8, chapter 78, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47.52.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The highway authorities of the state, counties, incorporated cities and towns, and municipal corporations owning or operating an urban public transportation system are authorized to enter into agreements with each other, or with the federal government, respecting the financing, planning, establishment, improvement, construction, maintenance, use, regulation, or vacation of limited access facilities in their respective jurisdictions to facilitate the purposes of this chapter. Any such agreement may provide for the exclusive or nonexclusive use of a portion of (~~(such)~~) the facility by street cars, trains, or other vehicles forming a part of an urban public transportation system and for the erection, construction, and maintenance (~~(thereon)~~) of structures and facilities of such a system including facilities for the receipt and discharge of passengers(~~(: PROVIDED, That)~~). Within incorporated cities and towns the title to every state limited access highway (~~(shall vest)~~) vests in the state, and, notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the (~~Washington state highway commission~~) department shall exercise full jurisdiction, responsibility, and control to(~~;~~) and over(~~(, such)~~) the highway from the time it is declared to be operational as a limited access facility by the (~~(state highway commission: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That)~~) department, subject to the following provisions:

(1) Cities and towns shall regulate all traffic restrictions on such facilities except as provided in RCW 46.61.430, and all regulations adopted (~~(shall be)~~) are subject to approval of the (~~(state highway commission)~~) department before becoming effective. Nothing herein (~~(shall)~~) precludes the state patrol(~~(;)~~) or any county, (~~(or)~~) city, or town from enforcing any traffic regulations and restrictions prescribed by state law, county resolution, or municipal ordinance.

(2) The city (~~(or)~~), town, or franchise holder shall at its own expense maintain its underground facilities beneath the surface across the highway and (~~(shall have)~~) has the right to construct (~~(such)~~) additional facilities underground or beneath the surface of the facility or necessary overcrossings of power lines and other utilities as may be necessary insofar as (~~(such)~~) the facilities do not interfere with the use of the right of way for limited access highway purposes(~~(, and)~~). The city or town (~~(shall have)~~) has the right to maintain any municipal utility and the right to open the surface of (~~(such)~~) the highway(~~(, and)~~). The construction, maintenance until permanent repair is made, and permanent repair of (~~(such)~~) these facilities shall be done in a time and manner authorized by permit to be issued by the (~~(state highway commission)~~) department or its authorized representative, except to meet emergency conditions for which no permit will be required, but any damage occasioned thereby shall promptly be repaired by the city or town itself, or at its direction. Where a city or town is required to relocate overhead facilities within the corporate limits of a city or town as a result of the construction of a limited access facility, the cost of (~~(such)~~) the relocation shall be paid by the state.

(3) Cities and towns (~~(shall)~~) have the right to grant utility franchises crossing the facility underground and beneath its surface insofar as (~~(such)~~) the franchises are not inconsistent with the use of the right of way for limited access facility purposes(~~(: PROVIDED, That such)~~) and the franchises are not in conflict with state laws(~~(: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state highway commission shall be)~~). The department is authorized to enforce, in an action brought in the name of the state, any condition of any franchise (~~(which)~~) that a city or town (~~(shall have)~~) has granted(~~(, AND~~ ~~PROVIDED FURTHER, That~~). No franchise for transportation of passengers in motor vehicles ~~((shall))~~ may be granted on such highways without the approval of the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department, except cities and towns ~~((shall))~~ are not ~~((be))~~ required to obtain a franchise for the operation of municipal vehicles or vehicles operating under franchises from the city or town operating within the corporate limits of a city or town and within a radius not ~~((to exceed))~~ exceeding eight miles outside ~~((of such))~~ the corporate limits for public transportation on such facilities, but ~~((such))~~ these vehicles may not stop on the limited access portion of ~~((such))~~ the facility to receive or to discharge passengers unless appropriate special lanes or deceleration, stopping, and acceleration space is provided for ~~((such))~~ the vehicles.

Every franchise or permit granted any person by a city or town for use of any portion of a limited access facility shall require the grantee or permittee to restore, permanently repair, and replace to its original condition any portion of the highway damaged or injured by it. Except to meet emergency conditions, the construction and permanent repair of any limited access facility by the grantee of a franchise shall be in a time and manner authorized by a permit to be issued by the ~~((state highway commission,))~~ department or its authorized representative.

(4) The ~~((state highway commission shall have))~~ department has the right to ~~((utilize))~~ use all storm sewers ~~((which))~~ that are adequate and available for the additional quantity of run-off proposed to be passed through such storm sewers.

(5) The construction and maintenance of city streets over and under crossings and surface intersections of the limited access facility shall be in accordance with the governing policy entered into between the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department and the association of Washington cities on June 21, 1956, or as such policy may be amended by agreement between the ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department and the association of Washington cities.

Sec. 242. Section 47.52.105, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 117, Laws of 1967 and RCW 47.52.105 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever, in the opinion of the ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department, frontage or service roads in connection with limited access facilities~~((;))~~ are not feasible either from an engineering or economic standpoint, the ~~((highway commission))~~ department may acquire private or public property by purchase or condemnation and construct any road, street, or highway ~~((thereon))~~ connecting to or leading into any other road, street, or highway, when by so doing, it will preserve a limited access facility or reduce compensation required to be paid to an owner by reason of reduction in or loss of access. The ~~((commission))~~ department shall provide by agreement with a majority of the ~~((board of county commissioners or city~~ ~~governing body~~) legislative authority of the county or city concerned as to location, future maintenance, and control of any road, street, or highway to be so constructed. ~~((Such))~~ The road, street, or highway need not be made a part of ~~((said))~~ the state highway system or connected thereto, but may upon completion by the state be turned over to the county or city ~~((as the case may be;))~~ for location, maintenance, and control pursuant to the agreement as part of ~~((said))~~ the system of ~~((such))~~ county roads or city streets.

Sec. 243. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 47-52.131 are each amended to read as follows:

When the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department is planning a limited access facility through a county or an incorporated city or town, the ~~((commission;))~~ department or its staff, ~~((prior to))~~ before any hearing ~~((hereinafter provided))~~, shall give careful consideration to available data as to the county or city's comprehensive plan, land use pattern, present and potential traffic volume of county roads and city streets crossing the proposed facility, origin and destination traffic surveys, existing utilities, the physical appearance the facility will present, and other pertinent surveys, and shall submit to the county and city officials for study a report showing how these factors have been taken into account and how the proposed plan for a limited access facility will serve public convenience and necessity, together with the locations and access and egress plans, and over and under crossings that are under consideration. ~~((Such))~~ This report shall show the proposed approximate right of way limits and profile of the facility with relation to the existing grade, and shall discuss in a general manner plans for landscaping treatment, fencing, and illumination, and shall include sketches of typical roadway sections for the roadway itself and any necessary structures such as viaducts or bridges, subways, or tunnels.

Conferences shall be held on the merits of this state report and plans~~((;))~~ and any proposed modification or alternate proposal of the county, city, or town in order to attempt to reach an agreement between the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department and the county or city officials. As a result of the conference, the proposed plan, together with any modifications ~~((thereof))~~, shall be prepared by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department and presented to the county or city for inspection and study.

Sec. 244. Section 47.52.160, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 103, Laws of 1963 and RCW 47.52.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall fix a reasonable time not more than thirty days after the date of ~~((their))~~ its appointment and shall indicate the time and place for the hearing, and shall give notice ~~((thereof))~~ to the county, city, or town and to the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department. At the time and place fixed for the hearing, the state and the county, ~~((the))~~ city, or town shall present all of their evidence with respect to the objections set forth in the request for the hearing before the board, and if either the state, the county, or the city or town fails to do so, the board may determine the issues upon such evidence as may be presented to it at ~~((said))~~ the hearing.

Sec. 245. Section 47.52.190, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 103, Laws of 1963 and RCW 47.52.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall employ such assistance and clerical help as is necessary ~~((in the performance of))~~ to perform its duties. The costs thereby incurred and incident to the conduct of the hearing, necessary expenses, and fees, if any, of members of the board shall be borne equally by the county, city, or town requesting the hearing and the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department. When oral testimony is stenographically reported, the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department shall provide a reporter at its expense.

The (~~Washington toll bridge authority~~) department is empowered, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, to provide for the (~~establishing~~) establishment and (~~constructing~~) construction of toll bridges upon any public highways of this state together with approaches thereto wherever (~~the same~~) it is considered necessary or advantageous and practicable for crossing any stream, body of water, gulch, navigable water, swamp, or other topographical formation whether (~~the same~~) that formation is within this state or constitutes a boundary between this state and an adjoining state or country. The necessity or advantage and practicability of any such toll bridge shall be determined by the (~~Washington toll bridge authority~~) department, and the feasibility of financing any toll bridge in the manner provided by this chapter shall be a primary consideration and determined according to the best judgment of the (~~Washington toll bridge authority~~) department. For the purpose of obtaining information for the consideration of the (~~authority~~) department upon the construction of any toll bridge or any other matters pertaining thereto (~~it shall be the duty of~~), any cognizant officer or employee of the state shall, upon the request of the (~~authority to~~) department, make reasonable examination, investigation, survey, or reconnaissance for the determination of material facts pertaining thereto and report (~~the same~~) this to the (~~authority~~) department. The (~~authority~~) department may use funds (~~from its revolving fund~~) available to it to carry out the purposes of this section. (~~Such~~) These agreements may provide that (~~in the event~~) if any such project is determined to be feasible and is adopted, any advancement of funds by any state or county may be reimbursed out of any proceeds derived from the sale of bonds or out of tolls and revenues to be derived from ~~((such))~~ the project.

Sec. 250. Section 47.56.050, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 25, chapter 106, Laws of 1973 and RCW 47.56.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 254. Section 47.56.100, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 103, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47.56.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The right of way is hereby given, dedicated, and set apart upon which to locate, construct, and maintain bridges or approaches thereto or other highway crossings, and transportation facilities thereof or thereto, through, over, or across any state highways, and through, over, or across the streets, alleys, lanes, and roads within any city, county, or other political subdivision of the state. If any property belonging to any city, county, or other political subdivision of the state is required to be taken for the construction of any ~~((such))~~ bridge or approach thereto, or ~~((should))~~ if any such property ~~((be))~~ is injured or damaged by such construction, ~~((such))~~ compensation therefor as may be proper or necessary and as ~~((shall be))~~ agreed upon may be paid by the (~~(Washington toll bridge authority)~~) department to the particular county, city, or other political subdivision of the state owning (~~(such)~~) the property, or condemnation proceedings may be brought for the determination of (~~(such)~~) the compensation.

Sec. 255. Section 47.56.110, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before the (~~(highway commission shall)~~) department proceeds with any action to secure a right of way or with construction of any toll bridge under the provisions of this chapter, the (~~(Washington toll bridge authority)~~) commission shall (~~(have)~~) first (~~(passed)~~) pass a resolution that public interest and necessity require the acquisition of right of way for and the construction of (~~(such)~~) the toll bridge. (~~(Such)~~) The resolution (~~(shall be)~~) is conclusive evidence (1) of the public necessity of such construction; (2) that (~~(such)~~) the property is necessary therefor; and(;) (3) that (~~(such)~~) the proposed construction is planned or located in a manner which will be most compatible with the greatest public good and the least private injury. When it becomes necessary for the (~~(highway commission)~~) department to condemn any real estate to be used in connection with any such bridge, the attorney general of the state shall represent the (~~(highway commission)~~) department. In eminent domain proceedings to acquire property for any of the purposes of this chapter, any toll bridge, real property, personal property, franchises, rights, easements, or other property or privileges appurtenant thereto appropriated or dedicated to a public use or purpose by any person, firm, private, public, or municipal corporation, county, city, town, district, or any political subdivision of the state, may be condemned and taken, and the acquisition and use (~~(thereof)~~) as (~~(herein)~~) provided in this chapter for the same public use or purpose to which (~~(such)~~) the property has been so appropriated or dedicated, or for any other public use or purpose, (~~(shall be deemed)~~) is a superior and permanent right and necessity, and a more necessary use and purpose than the public use or purpose to which (~~(such)~~) the property has already been appropriated or dedicated. It (~~(shall)~~) is not (~~(be)~~) necessary in any eminent domain proceedings (~~(hereunder)~~) under this chapter to plead or prove any acts or proceedings preliminary or prior to the adoption of the resolution hereinbefore referred to describing the property sought to be taken and directing such proceedings.

Sec. 256. Section 47.56.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~(Washington toll bridge authority)~~) department is hereby empowered to issue bonds for the construction of any toll bridge or toll bridges authorized under the provisions of this chapter. Any and all bonds issued for the construction of any toll bridge or toll bridges under the authority of the (~~(Washington toll bridge authority,)~~) department shall be issued in the name of the (~~(Washington toll bridge authority and)~~) department, shall constitute obligations only of (~~(said Washington toll bridge authority and)~~) the department, shall be identified as . . . . . toll bridge bonds, and shall contain a recital on the face thereof that the payment or redemption of ((said)) the bonds and the payment of the interest thereon is secured by a direct and exclusive charge and lien upon the tolls and other revenues of any nature whatever received from the operation of the particular toll bridge or bridges for the construction of which the bonds are issued and that neither the payment of the principal or any part thereof nor of the interest thereon or any part thereof constitutes a debt, liability, or obligation of the state of Washington. The ((Washington toll bridge authority)) department is empowered to receive and accept funds from the state of Washington or the federal government upon a cooperative or other basis for the construction of any toll bridge authorized under this chapter and is empowered to enter into such agreements with the state of Washington or the federal government as may be required for the securing of such funds.

The proceeds from the sale of all bonds authorized under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid to the state treasurer for the credit of the ((Washington toll bridge authority)) department and be deposited as demand deposits forthwith in such depository or depositories as may be authorized by law to receive deposits of state funds to the credit of a fund to be designated as the construction fund of the particular toll bridge or toll bridges for which such bonds were issued and sold, which fund shall not be a state fund and shall at all times be kept segregated and set apart from all other funds and in trust for the purposes herein set out. Such proceeds shall be paid out or disbursed solely for the construction of such toll bridge or toll bridges, the acquisition of the necessary lands and easements therefor and the payment of interest on such bonds during the period of actual construction and for a period of six months thereafter, only as the need therefor shall arise ((and the Washington toll bridge authority)). The department may agree with the purchaser of ((said)) the bonds upon any conditions or limitations restricting the disbursement of such funds that may be deemed advisable, for the purpose of assuring the proper application of such funds. All moneys in such fund and not required to meet current construction costs of the toll bridge or toll bridges for which such bonds were issued and sold, and all funds constituting surplus revenues ((which)) that are not immediately needed for the particular object or purpose to which they must be applied or are pledged shall be invested in bonds and obligations of the nature eligible for investment of surplus state moneys: PROVIDED, That the ((Washington toll bridge authority)) department may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of ((said)) these bonds that the investment of such moneys shall be made only in particular bonds and obligations within the classifications eligible for such investment, and such provisions shall thereupon be binding upon the ((said authority)) department and all officials having anything to do with ~~((such))~~ the investment. Any surplus which may exist in ~~((said))~~ the construction fund shall be applied to the retirement of bonds issued for the construction of such toll bridge or toll bridges by purchase or call ~~((and in the event such))~~. If these bonds cannot be purchased at a price satisfactory to the ~~((Washington toll bridge authority))~~ department and are not by their terms callable prior to maturity ~~((such))~~, the surplus shall be paid into the fund applicable to the payment of principal and interest of ~~((said))~~ the bonds and shall be used for that purpose. The proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds may provide limitations and conditions upon the time and manner of applying ~~((such))~~ the surplus to the purchase and call of outstanding bonds and the terms upon which they shall be purchased or called ~~((and))~~. Such limitations and conditions shall be followed and observed in the application and use of ~~((such))~~ the surplus. All bonds so retired by purchase or call shall be immediately canceled.

Sec. 258. Section 47.56.160, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.160 are each amended to read as follows:

All tolls or other revenues received from the operation of any toll bridge or toll bridges constructed with the proceeds of bonds issued and sold hereunder shall be paid over by the ~~((highway commission))~~ department to the state treasurer ~~((who))~~. The treasurer shall deposit ~~((the same))~~ them forthwith as demand deposits in ~~((such))~~ a depository or depositories ~~((as may be))~~ authorized by law to receive deposits of state funds. The deposit shall be made to the credit of a special trust fund ~~((to be))~~ designated as the toll revenue fund of the particular toll bridge or toll bridges producing ~~((such))~~ the tolls or revenue, which fund shall be a trust fund and shall at all times be kept segregated and set apart from all other funds.

Sec. 259. Section 47.56.170, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.170 are each amended to read as follows:

From the money ~~((so))~~ deposited in each separate construction fund ~~((as hereinabove provided))~~ under RCW 47.56.160, the state treasurer shall transfer to the place or places of payment named in ~~((said))~~ the bonds such sums as may be required to pay the interest as it becomes due on all bonds sold and outstanding for the construction of ~~((such))~~ a particular toll bridge or toll bridges during the period of actual construction and during the period of six months immediately thereafter. The state treasurer shall thereafter transfer from each separate toll revenue fund to the place or places of payment named in ~~((said))~~ the bonds such sums as may be required to pay the interest on ~~((said))~~ the bonds and redeem the principal thereof as ~~((such))~~ the interest payments and bond redemption become due for all bonds issued and sold for the construction of the particular toll bridge or toll bridges producing the tolls or revenues so deposited in ~~((said))~~ the toll revenue fund. All funds so transferred for the payment of principal or interest on bonds issued for any particular toll bridge shall be segregated and applied solely for the payment of ~~((said))~~ that principal or interest. The proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds may provide for ~~((the))~~ setting up ~~((of))~~ a reserve fund or funds out of the tolls and other revenues not needed for the payment of principal and interest, as the same currently matures and for the preservation and continuance of ~~((such))~~ the fund in a manner to be provided therein~~((, and such))~~. The proceedings may also require the immediate application of all surplus moneys in ~~((such))~~ the toll revenue fund to the retirement of ~~((such))~~ the bonds prior to maturity, by call or purchase, in such manner and upon such terms and the payment of such premiums as may be deemed advisable in the judgment of ~~((said Washington toll bridge authority))~~ the department.

The moneys remaining in each separate toll revenue fund after providing the amount required for interest and redemption of bonds as ~~((hereina-bove))~~ provided~~((;))~~ in this section shall be held and applied as provided in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of ~~((said))~~ the bonds. ~~((In the event))~~ If the proceedings authorizing the issuance of ~~((said))~~ the bonds do not require surplus revenues to be held or applied in any particular manner, they shall be allocated and used for such other purposes incidental to the construction, operation, and maintenance of ~~((such))~~ the toll bridge or bridges as the ~~((Washington toll bridge authority))~~ department may determine.

Sec. 260. Section 47.56.180, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 26, chapter 106, Laws of 1973 and RCW 47.56.180 are each amended to read as follows:

All interest received or earned on money deposited in each and every fund ~~((herein))~~ provided for in this chapter shall be credited to and become a part of the particular fund upon which ~~((said))~~ the interest accrues.

Sec. 261. Section 47.56.190, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((Washington toll bridge authority))~~ department may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds or may otherwise agree with the purchasers of bonds regarding the deposit of all moneys constituting the construction fund and the toll revenue fund and provide for the deposit of ~~((such))~~ the money at such times and with such depositaries or paying agents and upon the furnishing of ~~((such))~~ security as ~~((may))~~ meets with the approval of the purchasers of ~~((such))~~ the bonds~~((:PROVIDED, That))~~ so long as the depositaries and security ~~((so))~~ provided for or agreed upon ~~((shall be))~~ are qualified and eligible in accordance with the requirements of law.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this chapter, the proceeds received from the sale of bonds and the tolls or other revenues received from the operation of any toll bridge or toll bridges may be used to defray any expenses incurred by the ~~((Washington toll bridge authority))~~ department in connection with and incidental to the issuance and sale of bonds for the construction of ~~((such))~~ the toll bridge or toll bridges including expenses for the preparation of surveys and estimates and ~~((the))~~ making ~~((of))~~ inspections and examinations ~~((as may be))~~ required by the purchasers of ~~((such))~~ the bonds~~((:PROVIDED, That))~~. In addition, the proceedings authorizing the issuance of ~~((such))~~ the bonds may contain appropriate provisions governing the use and application of ~~((said))~~ the bond proceeds and toll or other revenues for the purposes herein specified.

Sec. 263. Section 47.56.210, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.210 are each amended to read as follows:

While any bonds issued by ~~((said Washington toll bridge authority))~~ the department under this chapter remain outstanding, the powers, duties, or existence of the ~~((said Washington toll bridge authority or of the highway commission))~~ department or of any other official or agency of the state shall not be diminished or impaired in any manner that will affect adversely the interests and rights of the holders of such bonds. The holder of any bond may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require and compel the performance of any of the duties imposed upon any state department, official, or employee, or imposed upon the ~~((authority))~~ department or its officers, agents, and employees in connection with the construction, maintenance, operation, and insurance of any bridge, and in connection with the collection, deposit, investment, application, and disbursement of all tolls and other revenues derived from the operation and use of any bridge and in connection with the deposit, investment, and disbursement of the proceeds received from the sale of bonds~~((:PROVIDED, That))~~. The enumeration of ~~((such))~~ rights and remedies ~~((herein))~~ in this section shall not be deemed to exclude the exercise or prosecution of any other rights or remedies by the holders of ~~((such))~~ the bonds.

The ((~~Washington toll bridge authority~~)) department is hereby further empowered to carry such an amount of insurance to cover any accident or destruction in part or in whole to any toll bridge or toll bridges until all bonds sold for the construction of ((~~such~~)) the toll bridge or toll bridges and interest accrued thereon have been fully redeemed and paid. All moneys collected on any indemnity bond or insurance policy as the result of any damage or injury to ((~~any such~~)) the toll bridge or toll bridges shall be used for the purpose of repairing or rebuilding ((~~of any such~~)) the toll bridge or toll bridges as long as there are revenue bonds against any such structure outstanding and unredeemed. The ((~~Washington toll bridge authority~~)) department is also empowered to carry insurance or indemnity bonds insuring against the loss of tolls or other revenues to be derived from any such toll bridge or bridges by reason of any interruption in the use of ((~~such~~)) the toll bridge or toll bridges from any cause whatever, and the proceeds of ((~~such~~)) the insurance or indemnity bonds shall be paid into the fund into which the tolls and other revenues of the bridge thus insured are required to be paid and shall be applied to the same purposes and in the same manner as other moneys in the ((~~said~~)) fund. The ((~~Washington toll bridge authority~~)) commission is hereby empowered to fix the rates of toll and other charges for all toll bridges built under the terms of this chapter. Toll charges so fixed may be changed from time to time as conditions ((~~may~~)) warrant. The ((~~said authority~~)) commission, in establishing toll charges, shall give due consideration to the cost of operating and maintaining such toll bridge or toll bridges including the cost of insurance, and to the amount required annually to meet the redemption of bonds and interest payments ((~~thereon~~)) on them. The tolls and charges shall be at all times fixed at rates to yield annual revenue equal to annual operating and maintenance expenses including insurance costs and all redemption payments and interest charges of the bonds issued for any particular toll bridge or toll bridges as the ~~((same))~~ bonds become due ~~((and))~~. The bond redemption and interest payments ~~((shall))~~ constitute a first direct and exclusive charge and lien on all such tolls and other revenues and interest thereon ~~((and))~~. Sinking funds created therefrom received from the use and operation of ~~((said))~~ the toll bridge or toll bridges, and such tolls and revenues together with the interest earned thereon shall constitute a trust fund for the security and payment of such bonds and shall not be used or pledged for any other purpose as long as ~~((such))~~ any of these bonds ~~((or any of them))~~ are outstanding and unpaid.

Sec. 285. Section 1, chapter 254, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1977 and RCW 47.56.720 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature finds that the ferry operated by Wahkiakum county between Puget Island and Westport on the Columbia river provides service which is primarily local in nature with secondary benefits to the state highway system in providing a bypass for state route 4 and providing the only crossing of the Columbia river between the Astoria-Megler bridge and the Longview bridge.

(2) The (~~(Washington state highway commission))~~ department is hereby authorized to enter into a continuing agreement with Wahkiakum county pursuant to which the (~~(state highway commission))~~ department shall pay to Wahkiakum county from moneys appropriated for such purpose the sum of one thousand dollars per month to be used in the operation and maintenance of the Puget Island ferry, commencing July 1, 1971.

Subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, the (~~(Washington state highway commission))~~ department is authorized to include in the continuing agreement a provision to reimburse Wahkiakum county for sixty percent of the deficit incurred during each previous fiscal year in the operation and maintenance of the ferry, commencing with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1972. The state's sixty percent share of the annual operating and maintenance deficit shall include the one thousand dollars per month authorized in this subsection.

(3) The annual deficit, if any, incurred in the operation and maintenance of the ferry shall be determined by Wahkiakum county subject to the approval of the (~~(Washington state highway commission))~~ department. If sixty percent of the deficit for the preceding fiscal year exceeds the total amount paid to the county for that year, the additional amount shall be paid to the county by the (~~(Washington state highway commission))~~ department upon the receipt of a properly executed voucher: PROVIDED, That the total of all payments to the county in any biennium shall not exceed the amount appropriated for that biennium.

(4) Whenever, subsequent to June 9, 1977, state route 4 between Cathlamet and Longview is closed to traffic pursuant to chapter 47.48

RCW due to actual or potential slide conditions and there is no suitable, reasonably short alternate state route provided, Wahkiakum county is authorized to operate the Puget Island ferry on a toll-free basis during the entire period of such closure. The state's share of the ferry operations and maintenance deficit during such period shall be one hundred percent.

(5) Whenever state route 4 between Cathlamet and Longview is closed to traffic, as mentioned in subsection (4) hereof, the state of Washington shall provide temporary rest room facilities at the Washington ferry landing terminal.

Sec. 286. Section 1, chapter 21, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 51, Laws of 1977 and RCW 47.56.725 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) The (~~Washington state highway commission~~) department is authorized to include in each such continuing agreement a provision for the distribution to each such county funds to reimburse the county for fifty percent of the deficit incurred during each previous fiscal year in the operation and maintenance of the ferry system owned and operated by (~~such~~) the county, commencing with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976(~~PROVIDED, That~~). The total amount to be reimbursed to Pierce, Skagit, and Whatcom counties collectively shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars in any biennium(~~PROVIDED FURTHER, That~~). Each county agreement shall contain a requirement that the county shall maintain tolls on its ferries at levels sufficient to produce aggregate annual revenues at least equal to the annual revenue of the county's ferry system in calendar year 1975.

(3) The annual fiscal year deficit, if any, shall be determined by Pierce, Skagit, and Whatcom counties subject to review and approval of the (~~Washington state highway commission~~) department. The annual fiscal year deficit is defined as the total of operations and maintenance expenditures less the sum of ferry toll revenues and that portion of fuel tax revenue distributions which are attributable to the county ferry as determined by the (~~Washington state highway commission~~) department. Distribution of the amounts authorized by subsection (2) of this section by the state treasurer shall be directed by the (~~Washington state highway commission~~) department upon the receipt of properly executed vouchers from each county.

Whenever the legislature ((shall)) specifically authorizes, as a single project, the construction of an additional toll bridge, including approaches, and the reconstruction of an existing adjacent bridge, including approaches, and the imposition of tolls on both bridges, the ((state highway commission and the Washington toll bridge authority are each hereby)) department is authorized to enter into appropriate agreements whereunder the existing bridge or its approaches will be reconstructed and improved and an additional bridge, including approaches and connecting highways will be constructed as a part of the same project to be located adjacent to or within two miles of ((such)) the existing bridge and will be financed through the issuance of revenue bonds of the same series. The ((authority shall have)) department has the right to impose tolls for traffic over the existing bridge as well as the additional bridge for the purpose of paying the cost of operation and maintenance of ((said)) the bridge or bridges and the interest on and creating a sinking fund for retirement of revenue bonds issued for account of such project, all in the manner permitted and provided by this chapter.

Any person or corporation may acquire the right to overflow as against the owner of the fee in any such highway, road, street, or alley by making the owner of ~~((such))~~ the fee~~(;)~~ or of any part thereof~~(;)~~ a party defendant in the condemnation suit provided for herein~~(;)~~; The damages sustained by any such owner as a result of the overflow of any such highway, road, street, or alley ~~((to))~~ shall be determined as in other condemnation cases, separate and apart from any damage sustained by the state, county, city, or town.

Sec. 386. Section 14, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 358, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((No))~~ A development shall not be undertaken on the shorelines of the state ~~((except those which are))~~ unless it is consistent with the policy of this chapter and, after adoption or approval, as appropriate, the applicable guidelines, ~~((regulations))~~ rules, or master program.

(2) ~~((No))~~ A substantial development shall not be undertaken on shorelines of the state without first obtaining a permit from the government entity having administrative jurisdiction under this chapter.

A permit shall be granted:

(a) From June 1, 1971, until such time as an applicable master program has become effective, only when the development proposed is consistent with: (i) The policy of RCW 90.58.020; and (ii) after their adoption, the guidelines and ~~((regulations))~~ rules of the department; and (iii) so far as can be ascertained, the master program being developed for the area;

(b) After adoption or approval, as appropriate, by the department of an applicable master program, only when the development proposed is consistent with the applicable master program and the provisions of chapter 90.58 RCW.

(3) The local government shall establish a program, consistent with rules adopted by the department, for the administration and enforcement of the permit system provided in this section. The administration of the system so established shall be performed exclusively by the local government.

(4) The local government shall require notification of the public of all applications for permits governed by any permit system established pursuant to subsection (3) of this section by ensuring that:

(a) A notice of such an application is published at least once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks in a legal newspaper of general circulation within the area in which the development is proposed; and

(b) Additional notice of such an application is given by at least one of the following methods:

(i) Mailing of the notice to the latest recorded real property owners as shown by the records of the county assessor within at least three hundred feet of the boundary of the property upon which the substantial development is proposed;

(ii) Posting of the notice in a conspicuous manner on the property upon which the project is to be constructed; or

(iii) Any other manner deemed appropriate by local authorities to accomplish the objectives of reasonable notice to adjacent landowners and the public.

~~((Such))~~ The notices shall include a statement that any person desiring to submit written comments concerning an application, or desiring to receive a copy of the final order concerning an application as expeditiously as possible after the issuance of the order, may submit ~~((such))~~ the comments or ~~((such))~~ requests for orders to the local government within thirty days of the last date the notice is to be published pursuant to subsection (a) of this subsection. The local government shall forward, in a timely manner following the issuance of an order, a copy of the order to each person who submits a request for ~~((such))~~ the order.

If a hearing is to be held on an application, notices of such a hearing shall include a statement that any person may submit oral or written comments on an application at ~~((such))~~ the hearing.

(5) ~~((Such))~~ The system shall include provisions to assure that construction pursuant to a permit will not begin or be authorized until thirty days from the date the final order was filed as provided in subsection (6) of this section; or until all review proceedings are terminated if ~~((such))~~ the proceedings were initiated within thirty days from the date of filing as defined in subsection (6) of this section except as follows:

(a) In the case of any permit issued to the state of Washington, department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation, for the construction and modification of the SR 90 (1-90) bridges across Lake Washington, ~~((such))~~ the construction may begin after thirty days from the date of filing;

(b) If a permit is granted by the local government and (i) the granting of the permit is appealed to the shorelines hearings board within thirty days of the date of filing, (ii) the hearings board approves the granting of the permit by the local government or approves a portion of the substantial development for which the local government issued the permit, and (iii) an appeal for judicial review of the hearings board decision is filed pursuant to ~~((the provisions of))~~ chapter 34.04 RCW, the permittee may request, within ten days of the filing of the appeal with the court, a hearing before the court to determine whether construction may begin pursuant to the permit approved by the hearings board or to a revised permit issued pursuant to the order of the hearings board. If, at the conclusion of the hearing, the court finds that construction pursuant to such a permit would not involve a significant, irreversible damaging of the environment, the court may allow the permittee to begin ~~((such))~~ the construction pursuant to the approved or revised permit as the court deems appropriate. The court may require the permittee to post bonds, in the name of the local government that issued the permit, sufficient to remove the substantial development or to restore the environment if the permit is ultimately disapproved by the courts, or to alter the substantial development if ~~((such))~~ the alteration is ultimately ordered by the courts~~((:PROVIDED, That))~~. Construction pursuant to a permit revised at the direction of the hearings board may begin only on that portion of the substantial development for which the local government had originally issued the permit, and construction pursuant to such a revised permit on other portions of the substantial development may not begin until after all review proceedings are terminated. In such a hearing before the court, the burden of proving whether ~~((such))~~ the construction may involve significant irreversible damage to the environment and demonstrating whether such construction would or would not be appropriate ~~((shall be))~~ is on the appellant;

(c) If a permit is granted by the local government and the granting of the permit is appealed directly to the superior court for judicial review pursuant to the proviso in RCW 90.58.180(1) ~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~, the permittee may request the court to remand the appeal to the shorelines hearings board, in which case the appeal shall be so remanded and construction pursuant to such a permit shall be governed by the provisions of subsection (b) of this subsection or may otherwise begin after review proceedings before the hearings board are terminated if judicial review is not thereafter requested pursuant to ~~((the provisions of))~~ chapter 34.04 RCW;

If a permittee begins construction pursuant to subsections (a), (b), or (c) of this subsection, ~~((such))~~ the construction ~~((shall begin))~~ is begun at the permittee's own risk. If, as a result of judicial review, the courts order the removal of any portion of the construction or the restoration of any portion of the environment involved or require the alteration of any portion of a substantial development constructed pursuant to a permit, the permittee ~~((shall be))~~ is barred from recovering damages or costs involved in adhering to such requirements from the local government that granted the permit, the hearings board, or any appellant or intervener.

(6) Any ruling on an application for a permit under the authority of this section, whether it ~~((be))~~ is an approval or a denial, shall, concurrently with the transmittal of the ruling to the applicant, be filed with the department and the attorney general. With regard to a permit other than a permit governed by subsection (12) of this section, "date of filing" as used herein ~~((shall))~~ means the date of actual receipt by the department. With regard to a permit for a variance or a conditional use, "date of filing" ~~((shall))~~ means the date a decision of the department rendered on the permit pursuant to subsection (12) of this section is transmitted by the department to the local government. The department shall notify in writing the local government and the applicant of the date of filing.

(7) Applicants for permits under this section (~~shall~~) have the burden of proving that a proposed substantial development is consistent with the criteria (~~which~~) that must be met before a permit is granted. In any review of the granting or denial of an application for a permit as provided in RCW 90.58.180 (1) and (2) (~~as now or hereafter amended~~), the person requesting the review (~~shall have~~) has the burden of proof.

(8) Any permit may, after a hearing with adequate notice to the permittee and the public, be rescinded by the issuing authority upon the finding that a permittee has not complied with conditions of a permit. (~~In the event~~) If the department is of the opinion that (~~such~~) noncompliance exists, the department shall provide written notice to the local government and the permittee. If the department is of the opinion that (~~such~~) the noncompliance continues to exist thirty days after the date of the notice, and the local government has taken no action to rescind the permit, the department may petition the hearings board for a rescission of (~~such~~) the permit upon written notice of (~~such~~) the petition to the local government and the permittee (~~:- PROVIDED, That~~) if the request by the department is made to the hearings board within fifteen days of the termination of the thirty-day notice to the local government.

(9) The holder of a certification from the governor pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW shall not be required to obtain a permit under this section.

(10) (~~No~~) A permit shall not be required for any development on shorelines of the state included within a preliminary or final plat approved by the applicable state agency or local government (~~prior to~~) before April 1, 1971, if:

(a) The final plat was approved after April 13, 1961, or the preliminary plat was approved after April 30, 1969; and

(b) The development is completed within two years after (~~the effective date of this chapter~~) June 1, 1971.

(11) The applicable state agency or local government is authorized to approve a final plat with respect to shorelines of the state included within a preliminary plat approved after April 30, 1969, and (~~prior to~~) before April 1, 1971: PROVIDED, That any substantial development within the platted shorelines of the state is authorized by a permit granted pursuant to this section, or does not require a permit as provided in subsection (10) of this section, or does not require a permit because of substantial development occurred (~~prior to~~) before June 1, 1971.

(12) Any permit for a variance or a conditional use by local government under approved master programs must be submitted to the department for its approval or disapproval.

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1435]

CONSOLIDATION OF TWO NONCHARTER CODE CITIES AND ONE FIRST CLASS CITY—PETITION AND ELECTION PROVISIONS—GOVERNMENT FORMATION

AN ACT Relating to consolidation of cities; amending section 2, chapter 89, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.10.211; adding a new section to chapter 35A.05 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 35A.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A consolidation of two noncharter code cities and one first class city, where each of the three cities has a council-manager plan or form of government, shall conform with the provisions of this section.

(1) Such a consolidated city shall have a council-manager plan of government with the number of council members as provided in this section. The interim council members shall not be elected as provided in RCW

35A.05.060 through 35A.05.110 or 35.10.250, but shall be composed of the council members of each of the consolidating cities. These interim city council members shall hold office until the next general municipal election. At least one hundred days before the next general municipal election after the consolidation, at which election their successors shall be elected, the interim council shall determine the number of council positions which shall be seven, nine, or eleven, and shall divide the consolidated city into districts or wards equal in number to the number of council positions. Each district or ward shall have approximately the same population, and as few as possible district or ward boundaries shall cross the previous boundary lines of the consolidated cities. The interim city council shall hire a city manager and shall elect a mayor from among their membership, who shall chair council meetings.

(2) One council member shall be elected from each of these districts or wards at the next general municipal election. The terms of these newly elected members shall be staggered so that the minimum majority shall be elected to four-year terms and the remainder shall be elected to two-year terms. Those newly elected council members receiving the greatest number of votes shall receive the four-year terms. Thereafter, their successors shall be elected for four-year terms. These initially elected council members shall take office immediately after the results of their elections have been certified even though their terms are calculated from the first day of January in the year after their election.

(3) No proposal for assumption of indebtedness may be presented to the voters at the election where the question of consolidation is presented to the voters.

(4) No proposal to select a name for the consolidated corporation may be presented to the voters at the election where the consolidation question is presented to the voters. If the consolidation is approved, the consolidated city shall be temporarily named the consolidated city of ..... (naming the previous cities in alphabetical order). At the next general municipal election, the city council shall submit two names to the city voters from which to choose, and the name receiving the greater number of votes shall become the name of the consolidated city.

(5) The initially elected city council shall hire a city manager and shall elect a mayor from among their membership, who shall chair council meetings.

(6) The consolidation of the three cities shall occur if the propositions authorizing the consolidation are approved by a simple majority vote in each of the three cities. The consolidation shall be effective at noon on the day after the election results are certified.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 89, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.10-.211 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislative body of either of such contiguous corporations, upon receiving such petition signed by the qualified electors of either of such contiguous corporations equal in number to at least one-fifth of the votes cast at the last municipal general election held in such corporation requesting that a proposition with respect to the consolidation of two or more contiguous corporations be submitted to the voters, shall, within ninety days after receiving it, or the legislative bodies of any contiguous municipal corporations meeting in joint session upon their own initiative by joint resolution, cause to be submitted to the electors of each of such corporations, at a special election to be held for that purpose, the proposition of whether such corporations shall be consolidated into one corporation. The petition or joint resolution may provide that the consolidation proposition may include ~~((1))~~ (a) the form of government, ~~((2))~~ (b) provision in regard to the assumption of indebtedness, ~~((3))~~ (c) the name of the proposed corporation, and ~~((4))~~ (d) whether a community municipal corporation shall be created for the smaller city or town as provided in RCW 35.14.010 through 35.14.060, or that any one or more of these items may be submitted to the voters as a separate proposition.

(2) Whenever it is proposed that a first class city and two noncharter code cities, all three with council-manager forms or plans of government, consolidate under this section, the consolidation shall proceed under chapter 35A.05 RCW. A petition, otherwise valid, that proposes such a consolidation under this section, shall validly authorize the effort to consolidate as provided in this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 9

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3074]

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPISTS

AN ACT Relating to occupational therapists; amending section 2, chapter 168, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.120.020; adding a new chapter to Title 18 RCW; prescribing penalties; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the occupational therapy practice act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. In order to safeguard the public health, safety, and welfare; to protect the public from being misled by incompetent, unethical, and unauthorized persons; to assure the highest degree of professional conduct on the part of occupational therapists and occupational therapy assistants; and to assure the availability of occupational therapy services of high quality to persons in need of such services, it is the purpose of this chapter to provide for the regulation of persons offering occupational therapy services to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the board of occupational therapy practice.

(2) "Occupational therapy" is the scientifically based use of purposeful activity with individuals who are limited by physical injury or illness, psychosocial dysfunction, developmental or learning disabilities, or the aging process in order to maximize independence, prevent disability, and maintain health. The practice encompasses evaluation, treatment, and consultation. Specific occupational therapy services include but are not limited to: Using specifically designed activities and exercises to enhance neurodevelopmental, cognitive, perceptual motor, sensory integrative, and psychomotor functioning; administering and interpreting tests such as manual muscle and sensory integration; teaching daily living skills; developing prevocational skills and play and avocational capabilities; designing, fabricating, or applying selected orthotic and prosthetic devices or selected adaptive equipment; and adapting environments for the handicapped. These services are provided individually, in groups, or through social systems.

(3) "Occupational therapist" means a person licensed to practice occupational therapy under this chapter.

(4) "Occupational therapy assistant" means a person licensed to assist in the practice of occupational therapy under the supervision or with the regular consultation of an occupational therapist.

(5) "Occupational therapy aide" means a person who is trained to perform specific occupational therapy techniques under professional supervision as defined by the board but who does not perform activities that require advanced training in the sciences or practices involved in the profession of occupational therapy.

(6) "Person" means any individual, partnership, unincorporated organization, or corporate body, except that only an individual may be licensed under this chapter.

(7) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(8) "Director" means the director of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. No person may practice occupational therapy or hold oneself out as an occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant, or as being able to practice occupational therapy, or to render occupational therapy services in this state unless the person is licensed in accordance with, or is in compliance with, this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This chapter shall not be construed as preventing or restricting the practice, services, or activities of:

(1) A person licensed in this state under any other law from engaging in the profession or occupation for which the person is licensed;

(2) A person employed as an occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant by the government of the United States, if the person provides occupational therapy solely under the directions or control of the organization by which the person is employed;

(3) A person pursuing a course of study leading to a degree or certificate in occupational therapy in an accredited or approved educational program if the activities and services constitute a part of a supervised course of study, if the person is designated by a title which clearly indicated the person's status as a student or trainee;

(4) A person fulfilling the supervised fieldwork experience requirements of section 6 of this act, if the activities and services constitute a part of the experience necessary to meet the requirements of section 6 of this act;

(5) A person performing occupational therapy services in the state, if the services are performed for no more than ninety working days and if:

(a) The person is licensed under the laws of another state which has licensure requirements at least as stringent as the requirements of this chapter, as determined by the board; or

(b) The person has met commonly accepted standards for the practice of occupational therapy as specifically defined by the board;

(6) A person employed by or supervised by an occupational therapist as an occupational therapy aide; or

(7) A person with a limited permit. A limited permit may be granted to persons who have completed the education and experience requirements of this chapter, or education and experience requirements which the board deems equivalent to those specified as requirements for licensure. The limited permit allows the applicant to practice in association with an occupational therapist. The limited permit is valid until the results of the next examination have been made public. One extension of this permit may be granted if the applicant has failed the examination, but during this period the person shall be under the direct supervision of an occupational therapist.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) An applicant applying for a license as an occupational therapist or as an occupational therapy assistant shall file a written application on forms provided by the department showing to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant meets the requirements specified in this subsection.

(a) The applicant shall be of good moral character.

(b) The applicant shall present evidence satisfactory to the board of having successfully completed the academic requirements of an educational program in occupational therapy recognized by the board, with concentration in biological or physical science, psychology, sociology, and with education in selected manual skills.

(i) For an occupational therapist, such a program shall be nationally accredited and approved by rules of the board.

(ii) For an occupational therapy assistant, such a program shall be nationally accredited and approved by rules of the board.

(c) The applicant shall submit to the board evidence of having successfully completed a period of supervised fieldwork experience at a recognized educational institution or a training program approved by the educational institution at which the applicant met the academic requirements.

(i) For an occupational therapist, a minimum of six months of supervised fieldwork experience is required.

(ii) For an occupational therapy assistant, a minimum of two months of supervised fieldwork experience is required.

(d) An applicant for licensure as an occupational therapist or as an occupational therapy assistant shall pass an examination as provided in section 7 of this act.

(2) The board may waive the educational requirements specified under subsection (1)(b)(ii) of this section for an occupational therapy assistant who has met the experience and any other requirements established by the board. Upon successful completion of the examination required of the occupational therapist, the individual shall be granted a license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A person applying for licensure shall demonstrate eligibility in accordance with section 6 of this act and shall apply for examination upon a form and in such a manner as the department prescribes. The application shall be accompanied by the fee prescribed by section 12 of this act, which fee shall not be refunded. A person who fails an examination may apply for reexamination. The application shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(2) An applicant for licensure under this chapter shall be given a written examination to test the applicant's knowledge of the basic and clinical sciences relating to occupational therapy and occupational therapy theory and practice, including the applicant's professional skills of occupational therapy techniques and methods, and such other subjects as the board deems useful to determine the applicant's fitness to practice. The board shall approve the examination and establish standards for acceptable performance.

(3) Applicants for licensure shall be examined at a time and place and under such supervision as the board may determine. The examination shall be given at least twice each year at such places as the board determines, and the board shall give reasonable public notice of the examinations in accordance with its rules at least sixty days prior to the administration of the examination.

(4) Applicants may obtain their examination scores and may review their papers in accordance with such rules as the board establishes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The board shall waive the examination and grant a license to a person engaged in the profession of an occupational therapist or an occupational therapy assistant on the effective date of this act if the board determines that the person meets commonly accepted standards for the profession, as established by rule of the board. The board may waive the examination, education, or experience requirements and grant a license to any person meeting the standards adopted by the board under this section after the effective date of this act if the board considers the requirements for licensure in this chapter as having been met.

(2) The board may grant a license to any applicant who presents proof of current licensure as an occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant in another state, the District of Columbia, or a territory of the United States, which requires standards for licensure considered by the board to be equivalent to the requirements for licensure under this chapter.

(3) The board shall waive the education and experience requirements for licensure in section 6(1) (c) and (d) of this act for applicants for licensure who present evidence to the board that they have been engaged in the practice of occupational therapy for the three years immediately prior to the effective date of this act. The proof of actual practice shall be presented to the board in such a manner as the board prescribes by rule. To obtain the waiver, an applicant shall file an application for examination no later than six months from the effective date of this act. An applicant who has filed for examination under this subsection shall be excluded from the licensure requirement until the date the results of the examination are made public, and may conduct the appropriate activities under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The director shall issue a license to a person who meets the licensing requirements of this chapter upon payment of the prescribed license fee. The license shall be posted in a conspicuous location at the person's work site.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Licenses under this chapter shall be renewed at the time and in the manner determined by the director and with the payment of a renewal fee. The board may establish requirements for license renewal which provide evidence of continued competency. The director may provide for the late renewal of a license upon the payment of a late fee in accordance with its rules which may include additional continuing education or examination requirements.

(2) A suspended license is subject to expiration and may be renewed as provided in this section, but the renewal does not entitle the licensee, while the license remains suspended and until it is reinstated, to engage in the licensed activity, or in any other conduct or activity in violation of the order or judgment by which the license was suspended. If a license revoked on disciplinary grounds is reinstated, the licensee, as a condition of reinstatement, shall pay the renewal fee and any applicable late fee.

(3) Any occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant licensed under this chapter not practicing occupational therapy or providing services may place his or her license in an inactive status. The director may prescribe requirements for maintaining an inactive status and converting from an inactive or active status.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The board may deny or refuse to renew a license, may suspend or revoke a license, or may impose probationary conditions if the licensee or applicant for a license has been guilty of conduct which has endangered the health, welfare, or safety of the public. Such conduct includes:

(a) Obtaining a license by means of fraud or misrepresentation or concealment of material facts;

(b) Being guilty of unprofessional conduct or gross incompetence as defined by the rules of the board, or violating the code of ethics adopted and published by the board, which shall require that an occupational therapist shall, after evaluating a patient and if the case is a medical one, refer the case to a physician for appropriate medical direction if such direction is lacking. Treatment by an occupational therapist of such a medical case may take place only upon the referral of a physician or podiatrist licensed to practice medicine in this state;

(c) Being convicted of a crime of moral turpitude or a felony which relates to the profession of occupational therapy;

(d) Violating an order or rule of the board; or

(e) Violating any provision of this chapter.

(2) Such denial, refusal to renew, suspension, revocation, or imposition of probationary conditions on a licensee may be ordered by the board in compliance with chapter 34.04 RCW. One year from the date of revocation of a license, application may be made to the board for reinstatement. The board has discretion to accept or reject an application for reinstatement and may, but is not required to, hold a hearing to consider the reinstatement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The director shall prescribe and publish fees in amounts determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 for the following purposes:

(1) Application for examination;

(2) Initial license fee;

(3) Renewal of license fee;

(4) Late renewal fee; and

(5) Limited permit fee.

The fees shall be set in such an amount as to reimburse the state, to the extent feasible, for the cost of the services rendered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) There is established a board of occupational therapy practice. The board shall consist of five members appointed by the governor, who may consider the persons who are recommended for appointment by occupational therapy associations of the state. The members of the board shall be residents of the state. Four of the members shall have been engaged in rendering services to the public, teaching, or research in occupational therapy for at least five years immediately preceding their appointment. Three of these four board members shall be occupational therapists who shall at all times be holders of licenses for the practice of occupational therapy in the state, except for the initial members of the board, all of whom shall fulfill the requirements for licensure under this chapter. At least one member of the board shall be an occupational therapy assistant licensed to assist in the practice of occupational therapy, except for the initial member appointed to this position, who shall fulfill the requirements for licensure as a occupational therapy assistant under this chapter. The remaining member of the board shall be a member of the public with an interest in the rights of consumers of health services.

(2) The governor shall, within sixty days after the effective date of this act, appoint one member for a term of one year, two members for a term of two years, and two members for a term of three years. Appointments made thereafter shall be for three-year terms, but no person shall be appointed to serve more than two consecutive full terms. Terms shall begin on the first day of the calendar year and end on the last day of the calendar year or until successors are appointed, except for the initial appointed members, who shall serve through the last calendar day of the year in which they are appointed before commencing the terms prescribed by this section. The governor shall make appointments for vacancies in unexpired terms within ninety days after the vacancies occur.

(3) The board shall meet during the first month of each calendar year to select a chairman and for other purposes. At least one additional meeting shall be held before the end of each calendar year. Further meetings may be convened at the call of the chairman or the written request of any two board members. A majority of members of the board constitutes a quorum for all purposes. All meetings of the board shall be open to the public, except that the board may hold closed sessions to prepare, approve, grade, or administer examinations or, upon request of an applicant who fails an examination, to prepare a response indicating the reasons for the applicant's failure.

(4) Members of the board shall receive compensation in the amount of fifty dollars for each day's attendance at proper meetings of the committee.

Approved by the Governor February 21, 1984, with the exception of section 22, which was vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State February 21, 1984.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 22 Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3074, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to occupational therapists."

This bill would forbid the practice of occupational therapy in this state without state licensure. The bill contains an emergency clause.

I have vetoed the emergency clause. The Department of Licensing will have a difficult time implementing this law properly with an immediate effective date. Indeed, even without an emergency clause implementation will be rushed.

With the exception of section 22, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3074 is approved.

(2) Applicants shall submit the bylaws in duplicate to the supervisor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) When articles of incorporation and bylaws complying with the requirements of sections 7 and 8 of this act have been filed with the supervisor, the supervisor shall:

(a) Determine whether the articles of incorporation and bylaws are consistent with the purposes and requirements of this chapter; and

(b) Determine the feasibility of the credit union, taking into account surrounding facts and circumstances pertaining to a successful operation of a credit union.

The supervisor may establish by rule, as a prerequisite to approval of a proposed credit union, specific criteria consistent with the purposes and policies of this chapter.

(2) If the supervisor is satisfied with the determinations made under subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section, the supervisor shall endorse each of the articles of incorporation "approved" and indicate the date the approval is granted, and return two sets of articles and one set of bylaws to the applicants.

(3) If the supervisor is not satisfied with the determinations made under subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section, the supervisor shall endorse each of the articles of incorporation "refused," indicate the date of and reasons for the refusal, and return two copies of the articles of incorporation with one copy of the bylaws to the person from whom they were received. The supervisor shall at the time of returning the copies of the articles of incorporation and bylaws also provide notice to the applicant of the applicant's right to appeal the refusal under chapter 34.04 RCW. The refusal is conclusive unless the applicant requests a hearing under chapter 34.04 RCW.

(4) The supervisor shall accept or refuse the articles of incorporation within sixty days of receipt.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Upon the approval of the supervisor under section 9(2) of this act, the applicants shall file a copy of the articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The applicants shall in writing promptly notify the supervisor of the exact date of the filing.

(2) Upon the filing and recording of the approved articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, the persons named in the articles of incorporation and their successors may operate as a credit union, which shall have the powers and be subject to the duties and obligations of this chapter. A credit union shall not conduct business until the articles have been recorded by the secretary of state.

(3) A credit union shall organize and begin business within six months of the date that its articles of incorporation are filed and recorded with the secretary of state or its charter shall become void, unless the supervisor for cause grants an extension of the six-month period. The supervisor shall not grant a single extension exceeding three months, but may grant as many extensions to a credit union as circumstances require.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In order to simplify the organization of credit unions the supervisor shall cause to be prepared forms of articles of incorporation and bylaws consistent with this chapter and, upon written application of seven residents of this state, shall supply to the applicants, at no cost, blank forms of the suggested articles of incorporation and bylaws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The articles of incorporation of a credit union may be amended, with the approval of the supervisor, by a resolution of the board. Amendments to the articles of incorporation shall be filed with the supervisor and the secretary of state.

An amendment of the bylaws requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the total members of the board. At least seven days before a meeting at which an amendment to the bylaws is to be voted upon, a copy of the proposed amendment, together with a written notice of the meeting as provided in the bylaws, shall be served upon each member of the board either personally or by mail to the director's last known post office address.

(6) Acquire, lease, hold, assign, pledge, hypothecate, sell, or otherwise dispose of a possessory interest in personal property and, with the prior written permission of the supervisor, in real property, so long as the property is necessary or incidental to the operation of the credit union. (14) Exercise such incidental powers as are necessary or requisite to enable it to carry on effectively the business for which it is incorporated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a credit union may exercise any of the powers or authority conferred as of the effective date of this act upon a federal credit union doing business in this state.

(2) In addition to the powers conferred under subsection (1) of this section, the supervisor may by rule authorize credit unions to exercise any of the powers conferred at the time of the adoption of the rule upon a federal credit union doing business in this state if the supervisor finds that the exercise of power serves the convenience and advantage of depositors and borrowers of state-chartered credit unions, and maintains the fairness of competition and parity between state-chartered credit unions and federal-chartered credit unions.

(3) Before exercising a power under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the board of a credit union shall adopt a resolution identifying and formally adopting that power.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A credit union may admit to membership those persons qualified for membership as set forth in its bylaws upon the payment of a membership fee, if any, or the purchase of one or more shares, as provided in the bylaws. A fraternal organization, partnership, or corporation having a usual place of business in this state and comprised principally of persons who are eligible for membership in the credit union may become a member of the credit union.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Shares may be issued in the name of a minor and the shares may, in the discretion of the board, be withdrawn by the minor or by the minor's parent or guardian. A minor under age eighteen does not have the right to vote as a member.

(3) No member may have more than one vote regardless of the number of shares held by the member. A fraternal organization, voluntary association, partnership, or corporation having a membership in a credit union may cast one vote by its authorized agent, who shall be an officer of the organization, association, partnership, or corporation. Voting by mail ballot may be authorized by the board as prescribed in the bylaws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. (1) A special meeting of a credit union may be called by a majority of the board, a majority vote of the supervisory committee, or upon written application of at least ten percent or two thousand, whichever is less, of the voting members of a credit union. A request for a special meeting of a credit union shall be in writing and shall state specifically the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. If the special meeting is being called for the removal of a director the notice shall state the name of the director whose removal is sought.

(2) Upon receipt of a request for a special meeting, the secretary of the credit union shall designate the time and place at which the special meeting will be held. The designated place of the meeting shall be a reasonable location within the county in which the principal office of the credit union is located. The designated time of the meeting shall be no sooner than twenty nor later than thirty days after the request is received by the secretary. The secretary shall within ten days of receipt of the request give notice of the meeting, including the purpose for which the meeting is called, as provided in the bylaws. A wilful violation of this section constitutes a violation of this chapter and constitutes grounds sufficient for the suspension and removal of the secretary under section 59 of this act.

(3) Except as provided in this subsection, the chairman or president of the board shall preside over special meetings. If the purpose of the special meeting includes the proposed removal of the chairman or president from the board, the next highest ranking officer of the board whose removal is not sought shall preside over the special meeting. If the removal of all of the officers of the board is sought, the chairman of the supervisory committee shall preside over the special meeting. After every special meeting, the chairman of the supervisory committee shall report to the supervisor the results of the special meeting and whether the special meeting was conducted in a fair manner in accordance with the bylaws of the credit union and with customary rules of parliamentary procedure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Members of a credit union who are calling for a special meeting, the purpose of which is to remove a majority of the board, may file a petition with the supervisor setting forth the reasons for which removal is sought and seeking the issuance of a cease and desist order. The supervisor may, after reviewing the merits of the petition, issue a cease and desist order prohibiting the directors and employees of the credit union from conducting any credit union business outside the scope of the usual daily affairs of the credit union. The cease and desist order shall remain in effect until revoked or modified by the supervisor or until the conclusion of the special meeting.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A credit union desiring to establish a branch shall submit to the supervisor a notice of intent to establish a branch on a form provided by the supervisor at least thirty days before conducting business at the branch.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The business and affairs of a credit union shall be managed by a board of not less than five nor greater than fifteen directors. The directors shall be elected at the annual meetings. The directors, as well as the principal operating officer and committee members of the credit union, shall be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties. The directors shall hold their offices, unless sooner removed as provided in this chapter, until their successors are qualified under section 25 of this act. Directors shall be elected to terms of between one and three years, as provided in the bylaws. If the terms are longer than one year, the terms shall be divided into classes, and an equal number of terms, as near as possible, shall be elected each year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) A director shall be a member of the credit union. If a director ceases to be a member of the credit union, the director shall no longer serve as director.

(2) A director shall no longer serve as director if the director in any twelve-month period is absent from more than thirty-three percent of the regular board meetings required by this chapter.

(3) The remainder of the term of a director's office that becomes vacant under subsection (1) or (2) or this section shall be served by an interim director appointed by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The members of a credit union may remove a director of the credit union at a special meeting called for that purpose. If the members remove a director, the members may at the same special meeting elect an interim director to complete the remainder of the director's term of office or may elect to authorize the board to appoint an interim director as provided in section 25 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. The board shall have the general direction of the affairs of the credit union. The board shall meet as often as necessary, but not less than once each month. The board shall:

(13) Perform such other acts as are required by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The board at its first meeting after the annual meeting of the members shall elect from its own members a chairman or president, and one or more vice chairmen or vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and other officers that may be necessary for transacting the business of the board of the credit union. The officers of the board of the credit union shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified, unless sooner removed as provided by this chapter. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by the same person. The treasurer need not be an elected member of the board. The board may designate such employees, including a principal operating officer who shall not share the title chosen for the chairman or president of the board and who need not be a member of the board, as are necessary for the operation of the credit union.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. The board may for cause remove an officer from office or a committee member from a committee, other than the supervisory committee. For the purpose of this section "cause" includes demonstrated financial irresponsibility or activities which, in the judgment of the board, are detrimental to the credit union.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. The board may, by a two-thirds vote, suspend for cause a member of the board or a member of the supervisory committee until a membership meeting is held. The board shall, upon request of the expelled member, allow the member to challenge the expulsion and seek reinstatement as a member.

(2) The amounts paid in on shares or deposited by a member who has been expelled shall be paid to the member after deducting amounts due from the member(s) to the credit union. Expulsion shall not operate to relieve a member from outstanding liabilities owed to the credit union.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. (1) Each director, committee member, and employee of a credit union shall be bonded in an amount and with surety and conditions established by the supervisor.

(2) When the bond coverage under subsection (1) of this section is suspended or terminated, the board of the affected credit union shall notify the supervisor in writing within five days of having received notice of the suspension or termination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. A credit committee or loan officer, as the bylaws may provide, shall act upon all applications for loans and lines of credit under the terms and conditions prescribed by the board. All applications for loans or lines of credit shall be in writing and shall state the purpose for which the loan or line of credit is desired and the security, if any, offered. Approval of loans and lines of credit shall be in writing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. A supervisory committee of at least three members shall be elected at the annual meeting of the credit union. A member of the supervisory committee shall serve a term of three years, unless sooner removed under this chapter or until a successor commences the performance of the member's duties. The members of the supervisory committee shall be divided into classes so that as equal a number as is possible is elected each year. If a member of the supervisory committee ceases to be a member of the credit union, the member's office shall become vacant. The supervisory committee shall fill vacancies in its membership until successors are elected, except that if all positions on the committee are vacant at the same time the board may fill the vacancies until the next annual meeting. No officer or employee of a credit union may serve on the supervisory committee of that credit union. No more than one director may be a member of the supervisory committee at the same time. No member of the supervisory committee may serve on the credit committee or investment committee of the credit union while serving on the supervisory committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. By unanimous vote the supervisory committee of a credit union may suspend for cause an officer of the credit union, a member of a committee, or a member of the board until a membership meeting is held. The meeting shall be held within thirty days after the suspension. The members attending that meeting shall vote whether to remove the suspended party.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. Within forty-five days after the end of the fiscal year of a credit union, the supervisory committee of a credit union shall make a report to the supervisor on a form provided by the supervisor. A credit union that fails to submit the report within the time prescribed, or that fails to submit other reports within thirty days of a written request by the supervisor, shall pay to the state five dollars for each day until the report is submitted. The penalty for any single delinquency shall not exceed one hundred dollars and may be waived by the supervisor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. The powers of supervision and examination of credit unions are vested in the supervisor. (f) The credit union submits to the supervisor an annual audit or examination report of its most recently completed fiscal year; and

(g) The credit union complies with all other provisions of this chapter and rules adopted by the supervisor.

(2) The supervisor shall disapprove an application filed under this section or, upon reasonable notice and an opportunity for hearing, suspend or revoke the approval of an application, if the supervisor finds that the standards of organization, operation, and regulation of the credit union do not reasonably conform with the standards under this chapter or that at least fifty percent of the members of the credit union are, or are reasonably expected to be, residents of this state. In considering the standards of organization, operation, and regulation of the credit union, the supervisor may consider the laws and regulations of the state in which the credit union is organized. A decision under this subsection may be appealed under chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) In implementing this section, the supervisor may cooperate with the administrators of the credit union laws in other states and may share with the administrators the information received in the administration of this chapter.

(4) The supervisor shall adopt rules for the periodic examination and investigation of the affairs of an out-of-state credit union operating in this state. The costs of examination and supervision shall be fully borne by the out-of-state credit union.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. The supervisor may adopt such rules as are reasonable or necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Chapter 34.04 RCW shall wherever applicable govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. (1) The supervisor shall make an examination and full investigation into the affairs of each credit union at least once every eighteen months, unless the supervisor determines with respect to a credit union that a less frequent examination schedule will satisfactorily protect the financial stability of the credit union and will satisfactorily assure compliance with the provisions of this chapter. The actual cost of examination and supervision shall be paid by the credit union examined. The supervisor may waive all or a portion of the examination costs payable by the credit union, in light of the time and expense of the examination and the ability of the credit union to pay the costs. The examination costs with respect to the first examination of a credit union with assets under two hundred thousand dollars shall not be payable by that credit union.

(2) The supervisor may accept in lieu of an examination under subsection (1) of this section the report of an examiner authorized to examine a credit union under the laws of the United States or another state or the report of an accountant, satisfactory to the supervisor, who has made and submitted a report of the condition of the affairs of a credit union and, if approved, the report shall have the same force and effect as an examination under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Communications from the supervisor to the board of a credit union regarding an examination or report shall be read before the board at its first meeting following the receipt of the communication and the fact that the communication was read before the board shall be noted in the minutes of the meeting. The board shall promptly respond to the supervisor either by stating that steps have been taken to comply with the communication or by stating that the board objects to the communication and stating the reasons for the objection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. The supervisor may investigate the affairs of a credit union service organization in which a credit union has an interest. A person or an entity that is not a credit union that has an interest in a credit union service organization in which a credit union has an interest is deemed to have consented to the investigation. For the purposes of this section and section 58 of this act, a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation that is primarily in the business of managing one or more credit unions shall be considered to be a credit union service organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. (1) Examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations of credit unions and credit union service organizations are confidential and privileged information and not subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the supervisor may furnish examination reports prepared by the supervisor's office to:

(a) Federal agencies empowered to examine state-chartered credit unions;

(b) Officials empowered to investigate criminal charges. The supervisor may furnish only that part of the report which is necessary and pertinent to the investigation, and only after notifying the affected credit union and members of the credit union who are named in that part of the examination report that the report is being furnished to the officials, unless the officials requesting the report obtain a waiver of the notice requirement for good cause from a court of competent jurisdiction;

(c) The examined credit union, solely for its confidential use;

(d) The attorney general in his role as legal advisor to the supervisor;

(e) Prospective merger partners or liquidating agents of a distressed credit union;

(f) Credit union administrators in other states regarding an out-of-state chartered credit union doing business in this state under this chapter, or regarding a credit union chartered under this chapter doing business in another state;

(g) Accounting firms under contract with the credit union;

(h) Companies that have bonded the credit union to the extent that information is relevant to the renewal of the bond coverage or to a claim under the bond coverage; or

(i) Companies, associations, or agencies insuring or guaranteeing the shares of or deposits in the credit union.

(3) Examination reports furnished under subsection (2) of this section remain the property of the supervisor's office and no person, agency, or authority to whom reports are furnished or any officer, director, or employee thereof may disclose or make public the reports or information contained in the reports except in published statistical information that does not disclose the affairs of an individual or corporation, except that nothing prevents the use in a criminal prosecution of reports furnished under subsection (2)(b) of this section.

(4) In a civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, a party upon notice to the supervisor, may petition the court for an in-camera review of the reports. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection does not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor.

(5) This section does not apply to investigation reports prepared by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff concerning an application for a new credit union or a notice of intent to establish a branch of a credit union, except that the supervisor may adopt rules making confidential portions of the reports if in the supervisor's opinion the public disclosure of that portion of the report would impair the ability to obtain information the supervisor considers necessary to fully evaluate the application.

(6) Any person who knowingly violates a provision of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. (1) The supervisor may suspend a director or the principal operating officer of a credit union if, in the opinion of the supervisor, the director or principal operating officer is dishonest, inefficient, incompetent, is wilfully disobeying orders of the supervisor, or is in any way violating this chapter or the bylaws of the credit union. The supervisor shall give prompt notice of and the reasons for the suspension to the board of the affected credit union.

(2) Unless the supervisor specifically provides otherwise in the order of suspension, an order of suspension shall take effect immediately. The suspended person shall be prohibited from all aspects of the operation of the credit union. The suspended person shall be barred from the credit union premises and shall surrender the possession of all property and records of the credit union. A person who knowingly violates an order of suspension or who knowingly aids in the violation of an order of suspension shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(3) Upon receipt of the notice of suspension, the board shall within twenty days call a meeting of its members to consider the causes of the suspension. The board shall give at least seven days' notice of the time and place of the meeting to the supervisor unless the supervisor agrees to accept shorter notice. If the board finds the supervisor's objection to be well-founded, the board shall remove the suspended person immediately.

(4) If the board fails to remove the suspended person as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the supervisor may remove that person after reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard under chapter 34.04 RCW. The suspension shall remain in effect for twenty days after the board meeting at which the board considers the suspension, during which time the supervisor may call a hearing under this subsection. If the supervisor calls a hearing, the suspension shall remain in effect until the time of the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. (1) The supervisor may issue and serve upon a credit union a notice of charges if in the opinion of the supervisor the credit union:

(a) Is engaging or has engaged in an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the business of the credit union;

(b) Is violating or has violated a material provision of any law, rule, or any condition imposed in writing by the supervisor in connection with the granting of any application or other request by the credit union or any written agreement made with the supervisor; or

(c) Is about to do the acts prohibited in (a) or (b) of this subsection if the opinion that the threat exists is based upon reasonable cause.

(2) The notice shall contain a statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation or the practice and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held to determine whether an order to cease and desist should issue against the credit union. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than thirty days after service of the notice unless a later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the credit union.

Unless the credit union appears at the hearing by a duly authorized representative, it shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of the cease and desist order. In the event of this consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any violation or practice specified in the notice of charges has been established, the supervisor may issue and serve upon the credit union an order to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order may require the credit union and its directors, officers, employees, and agents to cease and desist from the violation or practice and may require the credit union to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from the violation or practice.

(3) A cease and desist order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after the service of the order upon the credit union concerned except that a cease and desist order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order and shall remain effective as provided therein unless it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the supervisor or a reviewing court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. If the supervisor determines that the act specified in section 60 of this act is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings of the credit union or to otherwise seriously prejudice the interests of its depositors, members, or shareholders, the supervisor may issue a temporary order requiring the credit union to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order shall become effective upon service on the credit union and shall remain effective unless set aside, limited, or suspended by a court in proceedings under section 62 of this act pending the completion of the administrative proceedings under the notice and until the supervisor dismisses the charges specified in the notice or until the effective date of a cease and desist order issued against the credit union under section 60 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. Within ten days after a credit union has been served with a temporary cease and desist order, the credit union may apply to the superior court in the county of its principal place of business for an injunction setting aside, limiting, or suspending the order pending the completion of the administrative proceedings under section 60 of this act. The superior court shall have jurisdiction to issue the injunction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. In the case of a violation or threatened violation of a temporary cease and desist order issued under section 61 of this act, the supervisor may apply to the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the credit union for an injunction to enforce the order, and the court shall issue an injunction if it determines that there has been a violation or threatened violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. (1) An administrative hearing provided in section 60 of this act shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The hearing shall be private unless the supervisor determines that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest after fully considering the views of the party afforded the hearing.

(2) Within sixty days after the hearing, the supervisor shall render a decision which shall include findings of fact upon which the decision is based and the supervisor shall issue and serve upon each party to the proceeding an order or orders consistent with section 60 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. (1) It is unlawful for a person to perform any of the following acts:

(a) To knowingly subscribe to, make, or cause to be made a false statement or entry in the books of a credit union;

(b) To knowingly make a false statement or entry in a report required to be made to the supervisor; or

(c) To knowingly exhibit a false or fictitious paper, instrument, or security to a person authorized to examine a credit union.

(2) A violation of this section is a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. Unless otherwise provided by law, it is a misdemeanor for an officer, director, agent, or employee of a credit union to knowingly violate or consent to the violation of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. The supervisor may request a special meeting of the board of a credit union if the supervisor believes that a special meeting is necessary for the welfare of the credit union or the purposes of this chapter. The supervisor's request for a special meeting shall be made in writing to the secretary of the board and the request shall be handled in the same manner as a call for a special meeting under section 21 of this act. The supervisor may require the attendance of all of the directors of the board at the special meeting, and an absence of a director unexcused by the supervisor constitutes a violation of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. (1) The supervisor may attend a regular or special meeting of the board of a credit union if the supervisor believes that attendance at the meeting is necessary for the welfare of the credit union or the purposes of this chapter or if the board has requested the supervisor's attendance. The supervisor shall provide reasonable notice to the board before attending a meeting.

(2) A communication from the supervisor to the board shall upon the request of the supervisor be read to the board at its next meeting and the fact that the communication was read shall be noted in the minutes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. (1) The articles of incorporation of a credit union may be suspended or revoked, the credit union placed in involuntary liquidation, and a liquidating agent appointed upon a finding by the supervisor that the credit union is insolvent.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the supervisor, before suspending or revoking the articles of incorporation of a credit union and placing the credit union in liquidation, shall issue and serve notice on the credit union concerned of the intention to suspend or revoke the articles and an order directing the credit union to show cause why its articles of incorporation should not be suspended or revoked, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) If the supervisor finds that the credit union is insolvent and the credit union fails to adequately show cause, the articles of incorporation shall be suspended or revoked and the credit union placed in involuntary liquidation. The supervisor shall serve on the credit union an order directing the suspension or revocation and an order directing the involuntary liquidation and appointment of a liquidating agent under section 70 of this act, and a statement of the findings on which the order is based.

(4) The suspension or revocation shall be immediate and complete. Once the articles of incorporation are suspended or revoked, the credit union shall cease conducting business. The credit union may not accept any payment on shares or deposits, may not grant or pay out any new or previously approved loans, may not invest any of its assets, and may not declare or pay out any previously declared dividends. The liquidating agent of a credit union whose articles have been suspended or revoked may accept payments on loans previously paid out and may accept income from investments already made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. (1) The supervisor shall designate the liquidating agent in the order directing the involuntary liquidation of the credit union under section 69 of this act. On receipt of the order placing the credit union in involuntary liquidation, the officers and directors of the credit union concerned shall deliver to the liquidating agent possession and control of all books, records, assets, and property of the credit union.

(2) The liquidating agent shall proceed to convert the assets to cash, collect all debts due to the credit union and wind up its affairs in accordance with the instructions and procedures issued by the supervisor. If a liquidating agent agrees to absorb and serve the membership of a distressed credit union the supervisor may approve a pooling of assets and liabilities rather than a distribution of assets.

(3) The liquidating agent shall cause to be published notice of liquidation once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal place of business of the liquidating credit union is located. The notice of liquidation shall inform creditors of the liquidating credit union how to make a claim upon the liquidating agent and that if a claim is not made upon the liquidating agent within thirty days of the last date of publication the creditor's claim shall be barred. The liquidating agent shall provide personal notice of liquidation to the creditors of record informing them that if they fail to make a claim upon the liquidating agent within thirty days of the service of the notice, the creditor's claim shall be barred. If a creditor fails to make a claim upon the liquidating agent within the times required to be specified in the notices of liquidation the creditor's claim shall be barred. All contingent liabilities of the liquidated credit union shall be discharged upon the supervisor's order to liquidate the credit union. The liquidating agent shall, upon completion, certify to the supervisor that the distribution or pooling of assets of the credit union is complete.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. (1) For purposes of this section the merging credit union is the credit union whose charter ceases to exist upon merging with the continuing credit union. The continuing credit union is the credit union whose charter continues upon merging with the merging credit union.

(2) A credit union may be merged with another credit union with the approval of the supervisor and in accordance with requirements the supervisor may prescribe. The merger shall be approved by two-thirds majority vote of the board of each credit union and two-thirds majority vote of the members of the merging credit union present at a special membership meeting called by the merging credit union board. The requirement of approval by the members of the merging credit union may be waived if in the supervisor's opinion the merging credit union is in imminent danger of insolvency.

(3) The property, rights, and interests of the merging credit union transfer to and vest in the continuing credit union without deed, endorsement, or instrument of transfer, although instruments of transfer may be used if their use is deemed appropriate. The debts and obligations of the merging credit union that are known or reasonably should be known are assumed by the continuing credit union. The continuing credit union shall cause to be published notice of merger once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal place of business of the merging credit union is located. The notice of merger shall inform creditors of the merging credit union how to make a claim on the continuing credit union and that if a claim is not made upon the continuing credit union within thirty days of the last date of publication creditors' claims that are not known by the continuing credit union may be barred. Unless a claim is filed as requested by the notice, or unless the debt or obligation is known or reasonably should be known by the continuing credit union, the debts and obligations of the merging credit union are discharged. Upon merger the charter of the merging credit union ceases to exist.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. (1) A credit union chartered under the laws of this state may convert itself into a federal credit union chartered under the laws of the United States as authorized by the federal credit union act. The conversion shall be approved by two-thirds majority vote of the members present at any regular or special membership meeting called for that purpose by the board. The meeting shall be held within thirty days of being called and the secretary shall notify the members and the supervisor of the meeting and its purpose as provided by the bylaws at least twenty days prior to the meeting.

(2) If the conversion is approved by the members a copy of the resolution certified by the board shall be filed with the supervisor within ten days of approval. The board may effect the conversion from a state-chartered credit union to a federal-chartered credit union upon terms agreed by the board and the proper federal authorities as provided by federal laws, rules, and regulations.

(3) A certified copy of the federal credit union charter or authorization issued to the credit union by the proper federal authority shall be filed in the supervisor's office and thereupon the state-chartered credit union ceases to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs and prosecuting or defending any litigation by or against the state-chartered credit union. For all other purposes the credit union is converted into a federal-chartered credit union and the state-chartered credit union may execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the successor federal credit union the instruments of transfer, conveyance, and assignment that are necessary or desirable to complete the conversion, and the property, tangible or intangible, and all rights, titles, and interests that are agreed to by the board and the proper federal authorities.

(4) Procedures, similar to those contained in subsections (1) through (3) of this section, prescribed by the supervisor shall be followed when a credit union chartered under the laws of this state merges with or converts to a credit union chartered under the laws of another state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. (1) A federal credit union located and conducting business in this state which becomes inoperative because of a change in the laws under which it is chartered or which is authorized to dissolve or convert to a state-chartered credit union in accordance with federal law may convert into a state-chartered credit union.

(2) The board of the federal credit union shall file with the supervisor proposed articles of incorporation and proposed bylaws, as provided by this chapter for organizing a new state-chartered credit union. If approved by the supervisor the federal-chartered credit union shall become a state-chartered credit union under the laws of this state and the assets and liabilities of the credit union vest in and become the property of the successor state-chartered credit union subject to all existing liabilities against the federal-chartered credit union. Shareholders and members of the federal credit union may become shareholders and members of the successor state-chartered credit union.

(3) Procedures, similar to those contained in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, prescribed by the supervisor shall be followed when a credit union chartered under the laws of another state wishes to merge with or convert to a credit union chartered under the laws of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. (1) At a meeting specially called for the purpose of liquidation, upon the recommendation of at least two-thirds of the total members of the board of a credit union, the members of a credit union may by a two-thirds vote of the members present elect to liquidate the credit union.

(2) Upon a vote to liquidate under subsection (1) of this section, a committee of three shall be elected to liquidate the assets of the credit union. The committee shall act under the direction of the supervisor and may be reasonably compensated by the board of the credit union. Each share of the credit union shall be entitled to its proportionate part of the assets in liquidation after all deposits and debts have been paid. The assets of the liquidating credit union shall not be subject to contingent liabilities. Upon distribution of the assets, the credit union shall cease to exist except for the purpose of discharging existing liabilities and obligations.

(3) Funds representing unclaimed dividends in liquidation and remaining in the hands of the liquidating committee for six months after the date of the final dividend shall be deposited, together with all the books and papers of the credit union, with the supervisor. The supervisor may one year after receipt destroy such records, books, and papers as, in the supervisor's judgment, are obsolete or unnecessary for future reference. The funds may be deposited in one or more trust companies, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, or national or state banks to the credit of the supervisor in trust for the members of the liquidating credit union entitled to the funds. The supervisor may pay to a person entitled to it that person's portion of the funds upon the receipt of satisfactory evidence that the person is entitled to a portion of the funds. In case of doubt or of conflicting claims, the supervisor may require an order of the superior court of the county in which the credit union was located authorizing and directing the payment of the funds. The supervisor may apply the interest earned by the funds toward defraying the expenses incurred in the holding and paying of the funds. Five years after the receipt of the funds, the funds still remaining with the supervisor shall be escheated to the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 75. Neither a credit union nor its members may be taxed upon its shares and deposits as property. A credit union shall be taxable upon its real property and tangible personal property, and every credit union shall be termed a mutual institution for savings and neither it nor its property may be taxable under any law which exempts savings banks or institutions for savings from taxation. For all purposes of taxation, the assets represented by the regular reserve and other reserves, other than reserves for expenses and losses of a credit union, shall be deemed its only permanent capital, and in computing any tax, whether it be property, income, or excise, appropriate adjustment shall be made to give effect to the mutual nature of such credit union.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. This chapter may be known and cited as the "Washington State Credit Union Act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. Credit unions organized and operating under the laws of this state as of the effective date of this act may continue to operate after the effective date of this act and need not comply with the requirements of organization under sections 7 through 10 of this act. The activities of such credit unions conducted after the effective date of this act shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. Sections 2 through 77 of this act shall be added to chapter 31.12 RCW.

Sec. 79. Section 5, chapter 207, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 31.13.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The terms used in this chapter shall have the following meanings unless the context in which they are used clearly indicates otherwise.

(1) "Members" shall mean any (~~individual or~~) organization which meets the requirements of (~~RCW 31.12.010 and 31.12.080~~) chapter 31.12 RCW.

(2) "Member credit union" shall mean any credit union which has been elected to membership and subscribed for at least one share in the central credit union and paid the initial installment thereon.

(3) "Credit union" shall mean a corporation organized under chapter 31.12 RCW or chartered to do business as a credit union by the administrator of the national credit union administration or the successor or successors of him.

(4) "Funds" shall mean deposits and shares of the central credit union members.

(5) For the purpose of establishing required reserves all assets except the following are "risk assets":

(a) Cash on hand;

(b) Deposits and shares in banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, mutual savings banks or credit unions;

(c) Assets which are insured or guaranteed by, or due from, the federal government or any agency or instrumentalities thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1984. The supervisor of savings and loans may immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this act is implemented on its effective date.

It is an unfair practice for any person whether acting for himself or another in connection with an insurance transaction or transaction with a health maintenance organization to cancel or fail or refuse to issue or renew insurance or a health maintenance agreement to any person because of sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap: PROVIDED, That a practice which is not unlawful under RCW 48.30.300 ((or)), 48.44.220, or 48.46.370 does not constitute an unfair practice for the purposes of this section. The fact that such unfair practice may also be a violation of chapter 48.30 ((or)), 48.44, or 48.46 RCW does not constitute a defense to an action brought under this section.

The insurance commissioner, under RCW 48.30.300, and the human rights commission, under chapter 49.60 RCW, shall have concurrent jurisdiction under this section and shall enter into a working agreement as to procedure to be followed in complaints under this section.

(1) Because of the existing and increasing possibility of the occurrence of disasters of unprecedented size and destructiveness (~~resulting from enemy attack, sabotage or other hostile action, or from fire, flood, storm, earthquake, or other natural causes~~) as defined in RCW 38.52.010(6), and in order to insure that preparations of this state will be adequate to deal with such disasters, to insure the administration of state and federal programs providing disaster relief to individuals, and further to insure adequate support for search and rescue operations, and generally to ~~(provide for the common defense and to)~~ protect the public peace, health, and safety, and to preserve the lives and property of the people of the state, it is hereby found and declared to be necessary:

(2) It is further declared to be the purpose of this chapter and the policy of the state that all emergency ~~((services))~~ management functions of this state and its political subdivisions be coordinated to the maximum extent with the comparable functions of the federal government including its various departments and agencies of other states and localities, and of private agencies of every type, to the end that the most effective preparation and use may be made of the nation's manpower, resources, and facilities for dealing with any disaster that may occur.

(3) The legislature also recognizes that the possibility of surviving a nuclear attack is extremely remote, and believes that planning for an emergency response in the event of a nuclear attack instills a false sense of security in our citizens that they will be protected if a nuclear attack occurs. It is the policy of the state that the emergency management functions of this state, and its political subdivisions, be used for dealing with disasters that may occur other than nuclear attack.

*Sec. 3 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

This plan shall be known as the comprehensive emergency management plan.

(5) In accordance with the comprehensive emergency management plans and the programs for the emergency management of this state, the director shall procure supplies and equipment, institute training programs and public information programs, and shall take all other preparatory steps, including the partial or full mobilization of emergency management organizations in advance of actual disaster, to insure the furnishing of adequately trained and equipped forces of emergency management personnel in time of need.

(6) The director shall make such studies and surveys of the industries, resources, and facilities in this state as may be necessary to ascertain the capabilities of the state for emergency management, and shall plan for the most efficient emergency use thereof.

Further, such program may include, but shall not be limited to, grants, loans, or gifts of services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds of the state, or any political subdivision thereof, to individuals who, as a result of a disaster, are in need of assistance and who meet standards of eligibility for disaster assistance established by the department of social and health services: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall be construed in any manner inconsistent with the provisions of Article VIII, section 5 or section 7 of the Washington state Constitution.

(1) Each political subdivision of this state is hereby authorized and directed to establish a local organization for emergency ~~((services))~~ management in accordance with the state emergency ~~((services))~~ management plan and program: PROVIDED, That a political subdivision proposing such establishment shall submit its plan and program for emergency ~~((services))~~ management to the state director of emergency ~~((services))~~ management and secure his recommendations thereon, and certification for consistency with the state comprehensive emergency management plan, in order that the plan of the local organization for emergency ((services)) management may be coordinated with the plan and program of the state. No political subdivision may be required to include in its plan provisions for the emergency evacuation or relocation of residents in anticipation of nuclear attack. If the director's recommendations are adverse to the plan as submitted, and, if the local organization does not agree to the director's recommendations for modification to the proposal, the matter shall be referred to the council for final action. The director of emergency ~~((services))~~ management may authorize two or more political subdivisions to join in the establishment and operation of a local organization for emergency ((services)) management as circumstances may warrant, in which case each political subdivision shall contribute to the cost of emergency ((services)) management upon such fair and equitable basis as may be determined upon by the executive heads of the constituent subdivisions. If in any case the executive heads cannot agree upon the proper division of cost the matter shall be referred to the council for arbitration and its decision shall be final. When two or more political subdivisions join in the establishment and operation of a local organization for emergency ((services)) management each shall pay its share of the cost into a special pooled fund to be administered by the treasurer of the most populous subdivision, which fund shall be known as the . . . . . emergency ((services)) management fund. Each local organization for emergency ((services)) management shall have a director who shall be appointed by the executive head of the political subdivision, and who shall have direct responsibility for the organization, administration, and operation of such local organization for emergency ((services)) management, subject to the direction and control of such executive officer or officers. In the case of a jointly established and operated organization for emergency ((services)) management, the director shall be appointed by the joint action of the executive heads of the constituent political subdivisions. (~~As used in this chapter, the term "executive head" and "executive heads" mean, in the case of counties, the board of county commissioners and, in the case of cities and towns, the mayor.~~) Each local organization for emergency ((services)) management shall perform emergency ((services)) management functions within the territorial limits of the political subdivision within which it is organized, and, in addition, shall conduct such functions outside of such territorial limits as may be required pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) In carrying out the provisions of this chapter each political subdivision, in which any disaster as described in RCW 38.52.020 occurs, shall have the power to enter into contracts and incur obligations necessary to combat such disaster, protecting the health and safety of persons and property, and providing emergency assistance to the victims of such disaster. Each political subdivision is authorized to exercise the powers vested under this section in the light of the exigencies of an extreme emergency situation without regard to time-consuming procedures and formalities prescribed by law (excepting mandatory constitutional requirements), including, but not limited to, budget law limitations, requirements of competitive bidding and publication of notices, provisions pertaining to the performance of public work, entering into contracts, the incurring of obligations, the employment of temporary workers, the rental of equipment, the purchase of supplies and materials, the levying of taxes, and the appropriation and expenditures of public funds.

Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 178, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 10, chapter 171, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 38.52.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the employees of any political subdivision are rendering outside aid pursuant to the authority contained in RCW 38.52.070 such employees shall have the same powers, duties, rights, privileges, and immunities as if they were performing their duties in the political subdivisions in which they are normally employed.

(2) The political subdivision in which any equipment is used pursuant to this section shall be liable for any loss or damage thereto and shall pay any expense incurred in the operation and maintenance thereof. No claim for such loss, damage, or expense shall be allowed unless, within sixty days after the same is sustained or incurred, an itemized notice of such claim under oath is served by mail or otherwise upon the executive head of such political subdivision where the equipment was used. The term "employee" as used in this section shall mean, and the provisions of this section shall apply with equal effect to, volunteer auxiliary employees, and emergency ((services)) workers.

(3) The foregoing rights, privileges, and obligations shall also apply in the event such aid is rendered outside the state, provided that payment or reimbursement in such case shall or may be made by the state or political subdivision receiving such aid pursuant to a reciprocal mutual aid agreement or compact with such state or by the federal government.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 178, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 11, chapter 171, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 38.52.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of each local organization for emergency ((services)) management may, in collaboration with other public and private agencies within this state, develop or cause to be developed mutual aid arrangements for reciprocal emergency ((services)) management aid and assistance in case of disaster too great to be dealt with unassisted. Such arrangements shall be consistent with the state emergency ((services)) management plan and program, and in time of emergency it shall be the duty of each local organization for emergency ((services)) management to render assistance in accordance with the provisions of such mutual aid arrangements. The director of the department of emergency management shall adopt and distribute a standard form of contract for use by local organizations in understanding and carrying out said mutual aid arrangements.

(2) The director of the department of emergency management and the director of each local organization for emergency ((services)) management may, subject to the approval of the governor, enter into mutual aid arrangements with emergency ((services)) management agencies or organizations in other states for reciprocal emergency ((services)) management aid and assistance in case of disaster too great to be dealt with unassisted(~~, and~~

~~in furtherance thereof the following interstate civil defense and disaster compact is hereby approved, ratified, adopted, entered into, and enacted by the state of Washington:)). All such arrangements shall be pursuant to either of the compacts contained in subsection (2) (a) or (b) of this section.~~

(a) The legislature recognizes that the compact language contained in this subsection is inadequate to meet many forms of emergencies. For this reason, after the effective date of this 1984 act, the state may not enter into any additional compacts under this subsection (2)(a).

INTERSTATE CIVIL DEFENSE AND DISASTER COMPACT

The contracting States solemnly agree:

Article 1. The purpose of this compact is to provide mutual aid among the States in meeting any emergency or disaster from enemy attack or other cause (natural or otherwise) including sabotage and subversive acts and direct attacks by bombs, shellfire, and atomic, radiological, chemical, bacteriological means, and other weapons. The prompt, full and effective utilization of the resources of the respective States, including such resources as may be available from the United States Government or any other source, are essential to the safety, care and welfare of the people thereof in the event of enemy action or other emergency, and any other resources, including personnel, equipment or supplies, shall be incorporated into a plan or plans of mutual aid to be developed among the civil defense agencies or similar bodies of the States that are parties hereto. The Directors of Civil Defense (Emergency Services) of all party States shall constitute a committee to formulate plans and take all necessary steps for the implementation of this compact.

Article 2. It shall be the duty of each party State to formulate civil defense plans and programs for application within such State. There shall be frequent consultation between the representatives of the States and with the United States Government and the free exchange of information and plans, including inventories of any materials and equipment available for civil defense. In carrying out such civil defense plans and programs the party States shall so far as possible provide and follow uniform standards, practices and rules and regulations including:

(a) Insignia, arm bands and any other distinctive articles to designate and distinguish the different civil defense services;

(b) Blackouts and practice blackouts, air raid drills, mobilization of civil defense forces and other tests and exercises;

(c) Warnings and signals for drills or attacks and the mechanical devices to be used in connection therewith;

(d) The effective screening or extinguishing of all lights and lighting devices and appliances;

(e) Shutting off water mains, gas mains, electric power connections and the suspension of all other utility services;

(f) All materials or equipment used or to be used for civil defense purposes in order to assure that such materials and equipment will be easily and freely interchangeable when used in or by any other party State;

(g) The conduct of civilians and the movement and cessation of movement of pedestrians and vehicular traffic, prior, during, and subsequent to drills or attacks;

(h) The safety of public meetings or gatherings; and

(i) Mobile support units.

Article 3. Any party State requested to render mutual aid shall take such action as is necessary to provide and make available the resources covered by this compact in accordance with the terms hereof; provided that it is understood that the State rendering aid may withhold resources to the extent necessary to provide reasonable protection for such State. Each party State shall extend to the civil defense forces of any other party State, while operating within its State limits under the terms and conditions of this compact, the same powers (except that of arrest unless specifically authorized by the receiving State), duties, rights, privileges and immunities as if they were performing their duties in the State in which normally employed or rendering services. Civil defense forces will continue under the command and control of their regular leaders but the organizational units will come under the operational control of the civil defense authorities of the State receiving assistance.

Article 4. Whenever any person holds a license, certificate or other permit issued by any State evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical or other skills, such person may render aid involving such skill in any party State to meet an emergency or disaster and such State shall give due recognition to such license, certificate or other permit as if issued in the State in which aid is rendered.

Article 5. No party State or its officers or employees rendering aid in another State pursuant to this compact shall be liable on account of any act or omission in good faith on the part of such forces while so engaged, or on account of the maintenance or use of any equipment or supplies in connection therewith.

Article 6. Inasmuch as it is probable that the pattern and detail of the machinery for mutual aid among two or more states may differ from that appropriate among other States party hereto, this instrument contains elements of a broad base common to all States, and nothing herein contained shall preclude any State from entering into supplementary agreements with another State or States. Such supplementary agreements may comprehend, but shall not be limited to, provisions for evacuation and reception of injured and other persons, and the exchange of medical, fire, police, public utility, reconnaissance, welfare, transportation and communications personnel, equipment and supplies.

Article 7. Each party State shall provide for the payment of compensation and death benefits to injured members of the civil defense forces of that State and the representatives of deceased members of such forces in case such members sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this compact, in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within such State.

Article 8. Any party State rendering aid in another State pursuant to this compact shall be reimbursed by the party State receiving such aid for any loss or damage to, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment answering a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such requests; provided, that any aiding State may assume in whole or in part such loss, damage, expense, or other cost, or may loan such equipment or donate such services to the receiving party State without charge or cost; and provided further that any two or more party States may enter into supplementary agreements establishing a different allocation of costs as among those States. The United States Government may relieve the party State receiving aid from any liability and reimburse the party State supplying civil defense forces for the compensation paid to and the transportation, subsistence and maintenance expenses of such forces during the time of the rendition of such aid or assistance outside the State and may also pay fair and reasonable compensation for the use or utilization of the supplies, materials, equipment or facilities so utilized or consumed.

Article 9. Plans for the orderly evacuation and reception of the civilian population as the result of an emergency or disaster shall be worked out from time to time between representatives of the party States and the various local civil defense areas thereof. Such plans shall include the manner of transporting such evacuees, the number of evacuees to be received in different areas, the manner in which food, clothing, housing, and medical care will be provided, the registration of the evacuees, the providing of facilities for the notification of relatives or friends and the forwarding of such evacuees to other areas or the bringing in of additional materials, supplies, and all other relevant factors. Such plans shall provide that the party State receiving evacuees shall be reimbursed generally for the out-of-pocket expenses incurred in receiving and caring for such evacuees, for expenditures for transportation, food, clothing, medicines and medical care and like items. Such expenditures shall be reimbursed by the party State of which the evacuees are residents, or by the United States Government under plans approved by it. After the termination of the emergency or disaster the party State of which the evacuees are resident shall assume the responsibility for the ultimate support or repatriation of such evacuees.

Article 10. This compact shall be available to any State, territory or possession of the United States, and the District of Columbia. The term "State" may also include any neighboring foreign country or province or state thereof.

Article 11. The committee established pursuant to Article 1 of this compact may request the Civil Defense Agency of the United States Government to act as an informational and coordinating body under this compact, and representatives of such agency of the United States Government may attend meetings of such committee.

Article 12. This compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any State as between it and any other State or States so ratifying and shall be subject to approval by Congress unless prior Congressional approval has been given. Duly authenticated copies of this compact and of such supplementary agreements as may be entered into shall, at the time of their approval, be deposited with each of the party States and with the Civil Defense Agency and other appropriate agencies of the United States Government.

Article 13. This compact shall continue in force and remain binding on each party State until the legislature or the Governor of such party State takes action to withdraw therefrom. Such action shall not be effective until 30 days after notice thereof has been sent by the Governor of the party State desiring to withdraw to the Governors of all other party States.

Article 14. This compact shall be construed to effectuate the purposes stated in Article 1 hereof. If any provision of this compact is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be effected thereby.

Article 15. (a) This Article shall be in effect only as among those states which have enacted it into law or in which the Governors have adopted it pursuant to constitutional or statutory authority sufficient to give it the force of law as part of this compact. Nothing contained in this Article or in any supplementary agreement made in implementation thereof shall be construed to abridge, impair or supersede any other provision of this compact or any obligation undertaken by a State pursuant thereto, except that if its terms so provide, a supplementary agreement in implementation of this Article may modify, expand or add to any such obligation as among the parties to the supplementary agreement.

(b) In addition to the occurrences, circumstances and subject matters to which preceding articles of this compact make it applicable, this compact and the authorizations, entitlements and procedures thereof shall apply to:

1. Searches for and rescue of person who are lost, marooned, or otherwise in danger.

2. Action useful in coping with disasters arising from any cause or designed to increase the capability to cope with any such disasters.

3. Incidents, or the imminence thereof, which endanger the health or safety of the public and which require the use of special equipment, trained personnel or personnel in larger numbers than are locally available in order to reduce, counteract or remove the danger.

4. The giving and receiving of aid by subdivisions of party States.

5. Exercises, drills or other training or practice activities designed to aid personnel to prepare for, cope with or prevent any disaster or other emergency to which this compact applies.

(c) Except as expressly limited by this compact or a supplementary agreement in force pursuant thereto, any aid authorized by this compact or such supplementary agreement may be furnished by any agency of a party State, a subdivision of such State, or by a joint agency providing such aid shall be entitled to reimbursement therefor to the same extent and in the same manner as a State. The personnel of such a joint agency, when rendering aid pursuant to this compact shall have the same rights, authority and immunity as personnel of party States.

(d) Nothing in this Article shall be construed to exclude from the coverage of Articles 1-15 of this compact any matter which, in the absence of this Article, could reasonably be construed to be covered thereby.

(b) The compact language contained in this subsection (2)(b) is intended to deal comprehensively with emergencies requiring assistance from other states.

INTERSTATE MUTUAL AID COMPACT

Purpose

The purpose of this Compact is to provide voluntary assistance among participating states in responding to any disaster or imminent disaster, that overextends the ability of local and state governments to reduce, counteract or remove the danger. Assistance may include, but not be limited to, rescue, fire, police, medical, communication, transportation services and facilities to cope with problems which require use of special equipment, trained personnel or personnel in large numbers not locally available.

Authorization

Article I, Section 10 of the Constitution of the United States permits a state to enter into an agreement or compact with another state, subject to the consent of Congress. Congress, through enactment of Title 50 U.S.C. Sections 2281(g), 2283 and the Executive Department, by issuance of Executive Orders No. 10186 of December 1, 1950, encourages the states to enter into emergency, disaster and civil defense mutual aid agreements or pacts.

Implementation

It is agreed by participating states that the following conditions will guide implementation of the Compact:

1. Participating states through their designated officials are authorized to request and to receive assistance from a participating state. Requests will be granted only if the requesting state is committed to the mitigation of the emergency, and other resources are not immediately available.

2. Requests for assistance may be verbal or in writing. If the request is made by other than written communication, it shall be confirmed in writing as soon as practical after the request. A written request shall provide an itemization of equipment and operators, types of expertise, personnel or other resources needed. Each request must be signed by an authorized official.

3. Personnel and equipment of the aiding party made available to the requesting party shall, whenever possible, remain under the control and direction of the aiding party. The activities of personnel and equipment of the aiding party must be coordinated by the requesting party.

4. An aiding state shall have the right to withdraw some or all of their personnel and/or equipment whenever the personnel or equipment are needed by that state. Notice of intention to withdraw should be communicated to the requesting party as soon as possible.

General Fiscal Provisions

The state government of the requesting party shall reimburse the state government of the aiding party. It is understood that reimbursement shall be made as soon as possible after the receipt by the requesting party of an itemized voucher requesting reimbursement of costs.

1. Any party rendering aid pursuant to this Agreement shall be reimbursed by the state receiving such aid for any damage to, loss of, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment used in responding to a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such requests.

2. Any state rendering aid pursuant to this Agreement shall be reimbursed by the state receiving such aid for the cost of payment of compensation and death benefits to injured officers, agents, or employees and their dependents or representatives in the event such officers, agents, or employees sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this arrangement, provided that such payments are made in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within such state.

Privileges and Immunities

1. All privileges and immunities from liability, exemptions from law, ordinances, rules, all pension, relief disability, workmen's compensation, and other benefits which apply to the activity of officers, agents, or employees when performing their respective functions within the territorial limits of their respective political subdivisions, shall apply to them to the same degree and extent while engaged in the performance of any of their functions and duties extra-territorially under the provisions of this Agreement.

2. All privileges and immunities from liability, exemptions from law, ordinances, and rules, workmen's compensation and other benefits which apply to duly enrolled or registered volunteers when performing their respective functions at the request of their state and within its territorial limits, shall apply to the same degree and extent while performing their functions extra-territorially under the provisions of this Agreement. Volunteers may include, but not be limited to, physicians, surgeons, nurses, dentists, structural engineers, and trained search and rescue volunteers.

3. The signatory states, their political subdivisions, municipal corporations and other public agencies shall hold harmless the corresponding entities and personnel thereof from the other state with respect to the acts and omissions of its own agents and employees that occur while providing assistance pursuant to the common plan.

4. Nothing in this arrangement shall be construed as repealing or impairing any existing Interstate Mutual Aid Agreements.

5. Upon enactment of this Agreement by two or more states, and by January 1, annually thereafter, the participating states will exchange with each other the names of officials designated to request and/or provide services under this arrangement. In accordance with the cooperative nature of this arrangement, it shall be permissible and desirable for the parties to exchange operational procedures to be followed in requesting assistance and reimbursing expenses.

6. This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state.

7. This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate official of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until the thirtieth consecutive day after the notice provided in the statute has been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

Sec. 10. Section 12, chapter 178, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 12, chapter 171, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 38.52.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each political subdivision shall have the power to make appropriations in the manner provided by law for making appropriations for the ordinary expenses of such political subdivision for the payment of expenses of its local organization for emergency ((services)) management.

(2) Whenever the federal government or any agency or officer thereof shall offer to the state, or through the state to any political subdivision thereof, services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds by way of gift, grant, or loan, for purposes of emergency ((services)) management, the state, acting through the governor, or such political subdivision, acting with the consent of the governor and through its executive head, may accept such offer and upon such acceptance the governor of the state or executive head of such political subdivision may authorize any officer of the state or of the political subdivision, as the case may be, to receive such services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds on behalf of the state or such political subdivision, and subject to the terms of the offer and the rules and regulations, if any, of the agency making the offer.

(3) Whenever any person, firm, or corporation shall offer to the state or to any political subdivision thereof, services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds by way of gift, grant, or loan, for the purposes of emergency ((services)) management, the state, acting through the governor, or such political subdivision, acting through its executive head, may accept such offer and upon such acceptance the governor of the state or executive head of such political subdivision may authorize any officer of the state or of the political subdivision, as the case may be, to receive such services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds on behalf of the state or such political subdivision, and subject to the terms of the offer.

Sec. 11. Section 13, chapter 178, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 13, chapter 171, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 38.52.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the governor and the executive heads of the political subdivisions of the state are directed to utilize the services, equipment, supplies, and facilities of existing departments, offices, and agencies of the state, political subdivisions, and all other municipal corporations thereof including but not limited to districts and quasi municipal corporations organized under the laws of the state of Washington to the maximum extent practicable, and the officers and personnel of all such departments, offices, and agencies are directed to cooperate with and extend such services and facilities to the governor and to the emergency ((services)) management organizations of the state upon request notwithstanding any other provision of law.

(2) The governor, the chief executive of counties, cities and towns and the emergency ((services)) management directors of local political subdivisions appointed in accordance with this chapter, in the event of a disaster, after proclamation by the governor of the existence of such disaster, shall have the power to command the service and equipment of as many citizens as considered necessary in the light of the disaster proclaimed: PROVIDED, That citizens so commandeered shall be entitled during the period of such service to all privileges, benefits and immunities as are provided by this chapter and federal and state emergency ((services)) management regulations for registered emergency ((services)) workers.

Approved by the Governor February 23, 1984, with the exception of section 3(3), which was vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State February 23, 1984.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section Substitute Senate Bill No. 4561, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to emergency management."

Subsection 3 of section 3 ostensibly is intended as a broad policy statement in opposition to planning for emergency response in the event of nuclear attack. Unfortunately, as drafted, the subsection could be construed to prohibit the use of emergency management functions in response to a nuclear attack as distinct from merely planning for one.

The state of Washington is responsible for the protection of the lives and property of its citizens. This responsibility is expressed in our state and national Constitutions and outlined in state and Federal laws. Although a nuclear attack would be a nightmare, one which would make all other calamities man has suffered seem small, state government is obligated to save as many lives as possible, and it is immoral to prevent government from doing all that it can to save lives and reduce suffering. The section which I am vetoing would shackle the hands of state agencies in responding to the massive human suffering following an attack. Although there may be little that government can do, it cannot stand by and watch citizens suffer if there are state resources that can be used to provide them some relief.

Although possible scenarios for a nuclear war can be debated, the fact remains that no one can guarantee that our entire population will be lost in an attack. As long as any of our citizens remain alive, they are entitled to the protection and services of the state. If at all possible, food, water, relief from pain, and shelter must be provided to those in need.

Therefore, I have vetoed section 3(3). The remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4561 is approved.

(1) When he has made proper endorsement and delivery of the certificate of ownership and has delivered the certificate of registration as provided in this chapter;

(2) When he has delivered to the department either the notice as provided in RCW 46.12.101(1) or appropriate documents for registration of the vehicle pursuant to the sale or transfer.

AN ACT Relating to juvenile records; and amending section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 19, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.50.050.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 19, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (11) of this section.

(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

(5) Information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.

(7) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

(8) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(9) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding (~~(may)~~) shall be released upon request to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system (~~(may)~~) shall be released upon request to the adult corrections system.

(10) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(11) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed from the later of: (i) Final discharge of the person from the supervision of any agency charged with supervising juvenile offenders; or (ii) from the entry of a court order relating to the commission of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense; and

(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person.

(12) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (10) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(13) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section, it shall order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(14) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8).

(15) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order.

(16) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person who is the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the destruction of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(17) The court may grant the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section if it finds:

(a) The person making the motion is at least twenty-three years of age;

(b) The person has not subsequently been convicted of a felony;

(c) No proceeding is pending against that person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense; and

(d) The person has never been found guilty of a serious offense.

(18) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(19) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section, it shall order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

(20) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

(21) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(22) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(23) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

Sec. 1. Section 9A.52.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The following definitions apply in this chapter:

(2) "Enter". The word "enter" when constituting an element or part of a crime, shall include the entrance of the person, or the insertion of any part of his body, or any instrument or weapon held in his hand and used or intended to be used to threaten or intimidate a person or to detach or remove property;

(3) "Enters or remains unlawfully". A person "enters or remains unlawfully" in or upon premises when he is not then licensed, invited, or otherwise privileged to so enter or remain.

A license or privilege to enter or remain in a building which is only partly open to the public is not a license or privilege to enter or remain in that part of a building which is not open to the public. A person who enters or remains upon unimproved and apparently unused land, which is neither fenced nor otherwise enclosed in a manner designed to exclude intruders, does so with license and privilege unless notice against trespass is personally communicated to him by the owner of the land or some other authorized person, or unless notice is given by posting in a conspicuous manner. Land that is used for growing an agricultural crop or crops, other than timber, is not unimproved and apparently unused land if a crop or any other sign of cultivation is clearly visible. Similarly, a field fenced in any manner is not unimproved and apparently unused land.

[Substitute House Bill No. 1179]

MANDATED HEALTH BENEFITS—REPORT TO ACCOMPANY LEGISLATIVE PROPOSALS

AN ACT Relating to mandated benefits; and adding new sections to chapter 48.42 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature takes notice of the increasing number of proposals for the mandating of certain health coverages or offering of health coverages by insurance carriers, health care service contractors, and health maintenance organizations as a component of individual or group policies. Improved access to these health care services to segments of the population which desire them can provide beneficial social and health consequences which may be in the public interest.

However, the cost ramifications of expanding health coverages is resulting in a growing concern. The way that such coverages are structured and the steps taken to create incentives to provide cost-effective services or to take advantage of cost off-setting features of services can significantly influence the cost impact of mandating particular coverages.

The merits of a particular coverage mandate must be balanced against a variety of consequences which may go far beyond the immediate impact upon the cost of insurance coverage. The legislature hereby finds and declares that a systematic review of proposed mandated or mandatorily offered health coverage, which explores all the ramifications of such proposed legislation, will assist the legislature in determining whether mandating a particular coverage or offering is in the public interest. This chapter provides for a set of guidelines which should be addressed in the consideration of all such mandated coverage proposals coming before the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Every person or organization which seeks sponsorship of a legislative proposal which would mandate a health coverage or offering of a health coverage by an insurance carrier, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization as a component of individual or group policies, shall submit a report to the legislative committees having jurisdiction, assessing both the social and financial impacts of such coverage, including the efficacy of the treatment or service proposed, according to the guidelines enumerated in section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Guidelines for assessing the impact of proposed mandated or mandatorily offered health coverage to the extent that information is available, shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) The Social impact: (a) To what extent is the treatment or service generally utilized by a significant portion of the population? (b) To what extent is the insurance coverage already generally available? (c) If coverage is not generally available, to what extent does the lack of coverage result in persons avoiding necessary health care treatments? (d) If the coverage is not generally available, to what extent does the lack of coverage result in unreasonable financial hardship? (e) What is the level of public demand for the treatment or service? (f) What is the level of public demand for insurance coverage of treatment or service? (g) What is the level of interest of collective bargaining agents in negotiating privately for inclusion of this coverage in group contracts?

(2) The Financial impact: (a) To what extent will the coverage increase or decrease the cost of treatment or service? (b) To what extent will the coverage increase the appropriate use of the treatment or service? (c) To what extent will the mandated treatment or service be a substitute for more expensive treatment or service? (d) To what extent will the coverage increase or decrease the administrative expenses of insurance companies and the premium and administrative expenses of policyholders? (e) What will be the impact of this coverage on the total cost of health care?

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 4 of this act are each added to chapter 48.42 RCW.

Passed the House January 17, 1984.

Passed the Senate February 22, 1984.

Approved by the Governor March 1, 1984.

designation is made of a person to act as agent, then the person to whom rental payments are to be made shall be considered the agent;

(e) The terms and conditions under which any deposit or portion thereof may be withheld by the landlord upon termination of the rental agreement if any moneys are paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit or as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a rental agreement;

(f) A listing of ~~((those))~~ the utilities ((and)), services, and facilities which will be ~~((provided at the time the rental agreement is executed and will continue to be offered for the term of))~~ available to the tenant during the tenancy and the nature of the fees, if any, to be charged; ((and))

(g) A description of the boundaries of a mobile home ~~((tot))~~ space sufficient to inform the tenant of the exact location of his ~~((tot))~~ space in relation to other tenants' ~~((tots))~~ spaces; and

(h) A statement of the current zoning of the land on which the mobile home park is located.

(2) Any rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant shall not contain any provision:

(a) ~~((Any provision))~~ Which allows the landlord to charge a fee for guest parking unless a violation of the rules for guest parking occurs: PROVIDED, That a fee may be charged for guest parking which covers an extended period of time as defined in the rental agreement;

(b) ~~((Any provision))~~ Which authorizes the towing or impounding of a vehicle except upon notice to the owner thereof or the tenant whose guest is the owner of said vehicle;

(c) ~~((Any provision))~~ Which allows the landlord to alter the due date for rent payment or increase the rent: (i) During the term of the rental agreement if the term is less than one year, or (ii) more frequently than annually if the term is for one year or more: PROVIDED, That a rental agreement may include an escalation clause for a pro rata share of any increase in the mobile home park's real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, over the base taxes or utility assessments or charges of the year in which the rental agreement took effect, if the clause also provides for a pro rata reduction in rent or other charges in the event of a reduction in real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, below the base year: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a rental agreement for a term exceeding one year may provide for annual increases in rent in specified amounts or by a formula specified in such agreement;

This subsection shall not prohibit such waiver after a default in rent so long as such waiver is in writing signed by the husband and wife or by an unmarried claimant and in consideration of the landlord's agreement not to terminate the tenancy for a period of time specified in the waiver if the landlord would be otherwise entitled to terminate the tenancy under this chapter; or

(h) By which, at the time the rental agreement is entered into, the landlord and tenant agree to the selection of a particular arbitrator.

Sec. 2. Section 7, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 19, chapter 304, Laws of 1981 and RCW 59.20.070 are each amended to read as follows:

A landlord shall not:

(1) Deny any tenant the right to sell such tenant's mobile home within a park or require the removal of the mobile home from the park because of the sale thereof. Requirements for the transfer of the rental agreement are in RCW 59.20.073;

(2) Restrict the tenant's freedom of choice in purchasing goods or services but may reserve the right to approve or disapprove any exterior structural improvements on a mobile home ~~((lot))~~ space: PROVIDED, That door-to-door solicitation in the mobile home park may be restricted in the rental agreement;

(3) Prohibit meetings by tenants of the mobile home park to discuss mobile home living and affairs, conducted at reasonable times and in an orderly manner on the premises, nor penalize any tenant for participation in such activities;

(4) Evict a tenant, terminate a rental agreement, decline to renew a rental agreement, increase rental or other tenant obligations, decrease services, or modify park rules in retaliation for any of the following actions on the part of a tenant taken in good faith:

(a) Filing a complaint with any state, county, or municipal governmental authority relating to any alleged violation by the landlord of an applicable statute, regulation, or ordinance;

(b) Requesting the landlord to comply with the provision of this chapter or other applicable statute, regulation, or ordinance of the state, county, or municipality;

(c) Filing suit against the landlord for any reason;

(d) Participation or membership in any homeowners association or group; ((or))

(5) Charge to any tenant a utility fee in excess of actual utility costs or intentionally cause termination or interruption of any tenant's utility services, including water, heat, electricity, or gas, except when an interruption of a reasonable duration is required to make necessary repairs; or

(6) Remove or exclude a tenant from the premises unless this chapter is complied with or the exclusion or removal is under an appropriate court order.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 152, Laws of 1980 and RCW 59.20.075 are each amended to read as follows:

Initiation by the landlord of any action listed in RCW 59.20.070(4) within one hundred twenty days after a good faith and lawful act by the tenant or within one hundred twenty days after any inspection or proceeding of a governmental agency resulting from such act, shall create a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof, that the action is a reprisal or retaliatory action against the tenant: PROVIDED, That if the court finds that the tenant made a complaint or report to a governmental authority within one hundred twenty days after notice of a proposed increase in rent or other action in good faith by the landlord, there is a rebuttable presumption that the complaint or report was not made in good faith: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no presumption against the landlord shall arise under this section, with respect to an increase in rent, if the landlord, in a notice to the tenant of increase in rent, specifies reasonable grounds for said increase, which grounds may include a substantial increase in market value due to remedial action under this chapter. (~~In any action or eviction proceeding where the tenant prevails upon his claim or defense that the landlord has violated this section, the tenant shall be entitled to recover his costs of suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee, and where the landlord prevails upon his claim he shall be entitled to recover his costs of suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee. PROVIDED FURTHER, That neither party may recover attorney's fees to the extent that their legal services are provided at no cost to them.~~)

Sec. 4. Section 8, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 21, chapter 304, Laws of 1981 and RCW 59.20.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the landlord shall not terminate a tenancy, of whatever duration except for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) Substantial violation, or repeated or periodic violations of the rules of the mobile home park as established by the landlord at the inception of the tenancy or as assumed subsequently with the consent of the tenant or for violation of the tenant's duties as provided in RCW 59.20.140 (~~as now or hereafter amended. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to comply or vacate~~). The tenant shall be given written notice to cease the rule violation immediately. The notice shall state that failure to cease the violation of the rule or any subsequent violation of that or any other rule shall result in termination of the tenancy, and that the tenant shall vacate the premises within fifteen days: PROVIDED, That for a periodic violation the notice shall also specify that repetition of the same violation shall result in termination: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the case of a violation of a "material change" in park rules with respect to pets, tenants with minor children living with them, or recreational facilities, the tenant shall be given written notice under this chapter of a six month period in which to comply or vacate(~~In the case of periodic rather than continuous violation, said notice shall specify that the same violation repeated shall result in termination~~));

(b) Nonpayment of rent or other charges specified in the rental agreement, upon five days written notice to pay rent and/or other charges or to vacate;

(c) Conviction of the tenant of a crime, commission of which threatens the health, safety, or welfare of the other mobile home park tenants. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to vacate;

(d) Failure of the tenant to comply with local ordinances and state laws and regulations relating to mobile homes or mobile home living within a reasonable time after the tenant's receipt of notice of such noncompliance from the appropriate governmental agency;

(e) Change of land use of the mobile home park including, but not limited to, conversion to a use other than for mobile homes or conversion of the mobile home park to a mobile home park cooperative or mobile home park subdivision: PROVIDED, That the landlord shall give the tenants twelve months' notice in advance of the proposed effective date of such change.

(2) A landlord may terminate any tenancy without cause. Such termination shall be effective (~~six~~) twelve months from the date the landlord serves notice of termination upon the tenant or at the end of the current tenancy, whichever is later: PROVIDED, That a landlord (~~may~~) shall not terminate a tenancy for any reason or basis which is prohibited under RCW 59.20.070 (3) or (4)(~~as now or hereafter amended~~;) or is intended to circumvent the provisions of (1)(e) of this section.

(3) Within five days of a notice of eviction as required by subsection (1)(a) or (2) of this section, the landlord and tenant shall submit any dispute, including the decision to terminate the tenancy without cause, to mediation. The parties may agree in writing to mediation by an independent third party or through industry mediation procedures. If the parties cannot agree, then mediation shall be through industry mediation procedures. A duty is imposed upon both parties to participate in the mediation process in good faith for a period of ten days for an eviction under subsection (1)(a) of this section, or for a period of thirty days for an eviction under subsection

(2) of this section. It is a defense to an eviction under subsection (1)(a) or (2) of this section that a landlord did not participate in the mediation process in good faith.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 186, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 59-20.130 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the landlord to:

(1) Comply with codes, statutes, ordinances, and administrative rules applicable to the mobile home park;

(2) Maintain the common premises and prevent the accumulation of stagnant water and to prevent the detrimental effects of moving water when such condition is not the fault of the tenant;

~~((2))~~ (3) Keep any shared or common premises reasonably clean, sanitary, and safe from defects to reduce the hazards of fire or accident;

~~((3))~~ (4) Keep all common premises of the mobile home park, not in the possession of tenants, free of weeds or plant growth noxious and detrimental to the health of the tenants and free from potentially injurious or unsightly objects and condition;

~~((4))~~ (5) Exterminate or make a reasonable effort to exterminate rodents, vermin, or other pests dangerous to the health and safety of the tenant whenever infestation exists on the common premises or whenever infestation occurs in the interior of a mobile home as a result of infestation existing on the common premises;

~~((5))~~ (6) Maintain and protect all utilities provided to the mobile home in good working condition. Maintenance responsibility shall be determined at that point where the normal mobile home utilities "hook-ups" connect to those provided by the landlord or utility company;

~~((6))~~ (7) Respect the privacy of the tenants and shall have no right of entry to a mobile home without the prior written consent of the occupant, except in case of emergency or when the occupant has abandoned the mobile home. Such consent may be revoked in writing by the occupant at any time. The ownership or management shall have a right of entry upon the land upon which a mobile home is situated for maintenance of utilities and protection of the mobile home park at any reasonable time or in an emergency, but not in a manner or at a time which would interfere with the occupant's quiet enjoyment;

~~((7))~~ (8) Allow tenants freedom of choice in the purchase of goods and services, and not unreasonably restrict access to the mobile home park for such purposes; ~~and~~

~~((8))~~ (9) Maintain roads within the mobile home park in good condition; and

(10) Notify each tenant within five days after a petition has been filed by the landlord for a change in the zoning of the land where the mobile home park is located and make a description of the change available to the tenant.

A landlord shall not have a duty to repair a defective condition under this section, nor shall any defense or remedy be available to the tenant under this chapter, if the defective condition complained of was caused by the conduct of the tenant, the tenant's family, invitee, or other person acting under the tenant's control, or if a tenant unreasonably fails to allow the landlord access to the property for purposes of repair.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 59.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If at any time during the tenancy the landlord fails to carry out the duties required by RCW 59.20.130, the tenant may, in addition to pursuit of remedies otherwise provided the tenant by law, deliver written notice to the landlord, which notice shall specify the property involved, the name of the owner, if known, and the nature of the defective condition. For the purposes of this chapter, a reasonable time for the landlord to commence remedial action after receipt of such notice by the tenant shall be, except where circumstances are beyond the landlord's control;

(1) Not more than twenty-four hours, where the defective condition is imminently hazardous to life;

(2) Not more than forty-eight hours, where the landlord fails to provide water or heat;

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, not more than seven days in the case of a repair under section 5(3) of this act;

(4) Not more than thirty days in all other cases.

In each instance the burden shall be on the landlord to see that remedial work under this section is completed with reasonable promptness.

Where circumstances beyond the landlord's control, including the availability of financing, prevent the landlord from complying with the time limitations set forth in this section, the landlord shall endeavor to remedy the defective condition with all reasonable speed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 59.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The tenant shall be current in the payment of rent including all utilities which the tenant has agreed in the rental agreement to pay before exercising any of the remedies accorded the tenant under the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED, That this section shall not be construed as limiting the tenant's civil remedies for negligent or intentional damages: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section shall not be construed as limiting the tenant's right in an unlawful detainer proceeding to raise the defense that there is no rent due and owing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 59.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) If at any time during the tenancy, the landlord fails to carry out any of the duties imposed by RCW 59.20.130, and notice of the defect is given to the landlord pursuant to section 6 of this act, the tenant may submit to the landlord or the landlord's designated agent by certified mail or in person at least two bids to perform the repairs necessary to correct the defective condition from licensed or registered persons, or if no licensing or registration requirement applies to the type of work to be performed, from responsible persons capable of performing such repairs. Such bids may be submitted to the landlord at the same time as notice is given pursuant to section 6 of this act.

(2) If the landlord fails to commence repair of the defective condition within a reasonable time after receipt of notice from the tenant, the tenant may contract with the person submitting the lowest bid to make the repair, and upon the completion of the repair and an opportunity for inspection by the landlord or the landlord's designated agent, the tenant may deduct the cost of repair from the rent in an amount not to exceed the sum expressed in dollars representing one month's rental of the tenant's mobile home space in any calendar year. When, however, the landlord is required to begin remedying the defective condition within thirty days under section 6 of this act, the tenant cannot contract for repairs for at least fifteen days following receipt of bids by the landlord. The total costs of repairs deducted by the tenant in any calendar year under this subsection shall not exceed the sum expressed in dollars representing one month's rental of the tenant's mobile home space.

(3) Two or more tenants shall not collectively initiate remedies under this section. Remedial action under this section shall not be initiated for conditions in the design or construction existing in a mobile home park before the effective date of this act.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not:

(a) Create a relationship of employer and employee between landlord and tenant; or

(b) Create liability under the worker's compensation act; or

(c) Constitute the tenant as an agent of the landlord for the purposes of RCW 60.04.010 and 60.04.040.

(5) Any repair work performed under this section shall comply with the requirements imposed by any applicable code, statute, ordinance, or rule. A landlord whose property is damaged because of repairs performed in a negligent manner may recover the actual damages in an action against the tenant.

(6) Nothing in this section shall prevent the tenant from agreeing with the landlord to undertake the repairs in return for cash payment or a reasonable reduction in rent, the agreement to be between the parties, and this agreement does not alter the landlord's obligations under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 59.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) If a court or an arbitrator determines that:

(a) A landlord has failed to carry out a duty or duties imposed by RCW 59.20.130; and

(b) A reasonable time has passed for the landlord to remedy the defective condition following notice to the landlord under section 6 of this act or such other time as may be allotted by the court or arbitrator; the court or arbitrator may determine the diminution in rental value of the property due to the defective condition and shall render judgment against the landlord for the rent paid in excess of such diminished rental value from the time of notice of such defect to the time of decision and any costs of repair done pursuant to section 4 of this act for which no deduction has been previously made. Such decisions may be enforced as other judgments at law and shall be available to the tenant as a set-off against any existing or subsequent claims of the landlord.

The court or arbitrator may also authorize the tenant to contract to make further corrective repairs. The court or arbitrator shall specify a time period in which the landlord may make such repairs before the tenant may contract for such repairs. Such repairs shall not exceed the sum expressed in dollars representing one month's rental of the tenant's mobile home space in any one calendar year.

(2) The tenant shall not be obligated to pay rent in excess of the diminished rental value of the mobile home space until such defect or defects are corrected by the landlord or until the court or arbitrator determines otherwise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 59.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If a court or arbitrator determines a defective condition as described in RCW 59.20.130 to be so substantial that it is unfeasible for the landlord to remedy the defect within the time allotted by section 6 of this act, and that the tenant should not remain on the mobile home space in its defective condition, the court or arbitrator may authorize the termination of the tenancy. The court or arbitrator shall set a reasonable time for the tenant to vacate the premises.

Sec. 11. Section 13, chapter 186, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Within fourteen days after the termination of the rental agreement and vacation of the mobile home (~~tot~~) space, the landlord shall give a full and specific statement of the basis for retaining any of the deposit together with the payment of any refund due the tenant under the terms and conditions of the rental agreement. No portion of any deposit shall be withheld on account of wear resulting from ordinary use of the mobile home (~~tot~~) space.

The statement shall be delivered to the tenant personally or by mail to the last known address. If the landlord fails to give such statement together with any refund due the tenant within the time limits specified above such landlord shall be liable to the tenant for the full amount of the refund due. ~~((In any action brought by the tenant to recover the deposit, the prevailing party shall be entitled to the cost of suit or arbitration including a reasonable attorney's fee.))~~

Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the landlord from proceeding against, and the landlord shall have the right to proceed against a tenant to recover sums exceeding the amount of the tenant's damage or security deposit for damage to the property for which the tenant is responsible ~~((together with reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit))~~.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 59.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The landlord and tenant may agree in writing to submit any dispute arising under this chapter or under the terms, conditions, or performance of the rental agreement to mediation by an independent third party or to settle the dispute through industry mediation procedures. The parties may agree to submit any dispute to mediation before exercising their right to arbitration under section 13 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 59.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The landlord and tenant may agree in writing to submit a controversy arising under this chapter to arbitration. The agreement shall contain the name of the arbitrator agreed upon by the parties or the process for selecting the arbitrator.

(2) The arbitration shall be administered under this chapter and chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 59.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) If the landlord and tenant agree to submit the matter to arbitration, the parties shall complete an application for arbitration and deliver it to the selected arbitrator.

(2) The arbitrator shall schedule a hearing to be held no later than ten days following receipt of the application.

(3) Reasonable notice of the hearings shall be given to the parties, who shall appear and be heard either in person, by counsel, or by other representative. Hearings shall be informal and the rules of evidence prevailing in judicial proceedings shall not be binding. Hearings may be public or private. The proceedings may be recorded. Any oral or documentary evidence and other data deemed relevant by the arbitrator may be received in evidence.

The arbitrator may administer oaths, issue subpoenas, and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents deemed by the arbitrator to be material to a just determination of the issues in dispute. If a person refuses to obey a subpoena or refuses to be sworn to testify, or any witness, party, or attorney is guilty of any contempt while in attendance at any hearing held under this section, the arbitrator may invoke the jurisdiction of any district or superior court, and the court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order. Failure to obey the order may be punished by the court as contempt.

(4) Within five days after the hearing, the arbitrator shall make a written decision upon the issues presented. A copy of the decision shall be mailed by certified mail or otherwise delivered to the parties or their designated representatives. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon all parties.

(5) If a dispute exists affecting more than one tenant in a similar manner, the arbitrator may with the consent of the parties consolidate the cases into a single proceeding.

(6) Decisions of the arbitrator shall be enforced or appealed under chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 59.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The administrative fee for this arbitration procedure shall be established by agreement of the parties and the arbitrator and, unless otherwise allocated by the arbitrator, shall be shared equally by the parties. However, upon either party signing an affidavit to the effect that the party is unable to pay the share of the fee, that portion of the fee may be waived or deferred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 59.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When a party gives notice of intent to arbitrate by giving reasonable notice to the other party, that party shall, at the same time, arrange for arbitration of the grievance in the manner provided for in this chapter. The arbitration shall be completed before the rental due date next occurring after the giving of notice under this section, but in no event shall the arbitrator have less than ten days to complete the arbitration process:

Sec. 17. Section 11, chapter 186, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20.160 are each amended to read as follows:

If any moneys are paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit or as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a written rental agreement, such rental agreement shall include the terms and conditions under which the deposit or portion thereof may be withheld by the landlord upon termination of the rental agreement. If all or part of the deposit may be withheld to indemnify the landlord for damages to the mobile home ((tot)) space for which the tenant is responsible, the rental agreement shall so specify. It is unlawful to charge or collect a deposit or security for performance if the parties have not entered into a written rental agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

LOW-INCOME RESIDENTIAL CUSTOMERS OF PUBLIC UTILITY DISTRICTS— ENERGY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM—VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS BY CUSTOMERS

AN ACT Relating to voluntary contributions to assist low-income utility customers; and adding a new chapter to Title 54 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A public utility district may include along with, or as part of its regular customer billings, a request for voluntary contributions to assist qualified low-income residential customers of the district in paying their electricity bills. All funds received by the district in response to such requests shall be transmitted to the grantee of the planning and community affairs agency which administers federally funded energy assistance programs for the state in the district's service area or to a charitable organization within the district's service area. All such funds shall be used solely to supplement assistance to low-income residential customers of the district in paying their electricity bills. The grantee or charitable organization shall be responsible to determine which of the district's customers are qualified for low-income assistance and the amount of assistance to be provided to those who are qualified.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. All assistance provided under this chapter shall be disbursed by the grantee or charitable organization. Where possible the public utility district will be paid on behalf of the customer by the grantee or the charitable organization. When direct vendor payment is not feasible, a check will be issued jointly payable to the customer and the public utility district. The availability of funds for assistance to a district's low-income customers as a result of voluntary contributions shall not reduce the amount of assistance for which the district's customers are eligible under the federally funded energy assistance programs administered by the grantee of the planning and community affairs agency within the district's service area. The grantee or charitable organization shall provide the district with a quarterly report on January 15th, April 15th, July 15th, and October 15th which includes information concerning the total amount of funds received from the district, the names of all recipients of assistance from these funds, the amount received by each recipient, and the amount of funds received from the district currently on hand and available for future low-income assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Contributions received under a program implemented by a public utility district in compliance with this chapter shall not be considered a commingling of funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 3 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 54 RCW.

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4367]

VOLUNTEER COOPERATIVE FISH AND WILDLIFE ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM

AN ACT Relating to volunteer cooperative fish and game enhancement and conservation; and adding a new chapter to Title 75 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The fish and game resources of the state benefit by the contribution of volunteer recreational and commercial fishing organizations, schools, and other volunteer groups in cooperative projects under agreement with the department of fisheries or the department of game. These projects provide educational opportunities, improve the communication between the natural resources agencies and the public, and increase the fish and game resources of the state. In an effort to increase these benefits and realize the full potential of cooperative projects, the department of fisheries and the department of game each shall administer a cooperative fish and wildlife enhancement program and enter agreements with volunteer groups relating to the operation of cooperative projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Volunteer group" means any person or group of persons interested in or party to an agreement with the department of fisheries or the department of game relating to a cooperative fish or game project.

(2) "Cooperative project" means a project conducted by a volunteer group that will benefit the fish, shellfish, game bird, nongame wildlife, or game animal resources of the state and for which the benefits of the project, including fish and game reared and released, are available to all citizens of the state. Indian tribes may elect to participate in cooperative fish and wildlife projects with the department.

(3) "Department" means either the department of fisheries or the department of game, whichever is responsible for managing the species of fish or game most affected by the cooperative project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall encourage and support the development and operation of cooperative projects of the following types:

(1) Cooperative food fish and game fish rearing projects, including but not limited to egg planting, egg boxes, juvenile planting, pen rearing, pond rearing, raceway rearing, and egg taking;

(2) Cooperative fish habitat improvement projects, including but not limited to fish migration improvement, spawning bed rehabilitation, habitat restoration, reef construction, lake fertilization, pond construction, pollution abatement, and endangered stock protection;

(3) Cooperative fish or game research projects if the project is clearly of a research nature and if the results are readily available to the public;

(4) Cooperative game bird and game animal projects, including but not limited to habitat improvement and restoration, replanting and transplanting, nest box installation, pen rearing, game protection, and supplemental feeding;

(5) Cooperative nongame wildlife projects, including but not limited to habitat improvement and restoration, nest box installation, establishment of wildlife interpretive areas or facilities, pollution abatement, supplemental feeding, and endangered species preservation and enhancement; and

(6) Cooperative information and education projects, including but not limited to landowner relations, outdoor ethics, natural history of Washington's fish, shellfish, and wildlife, and outdoor survival.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The department shall:

(a) Encourage and support the establishment of cooperative agreements for the development and operation of cooperative food fish, shellfish, game fish, game bird, game animal, and nongame wildlife projects, and projects which provide an opportunity for volunteer groups to become involved in resource and habitat-oriented activities. All cooperative projects shall be fairly considered in the approval of cooperative agreements;

(b) Identify regions and species or activities that would be particularly suitable for cooperative projects providing benefits compatible with department goals;

(c) Determine the availability of rearing space at operating facilities or of net pens, egg boxes, portable rearing containers, incubators, and any other rearing facilities for use in cooperative projects, and allocate them to volunteer groups as fairly as possible;

(d) Exempt volunteer groups from payment of fees to the department for activities related to the project;

(e) Annually report to the legislature on accepted and rejected cooperative agreements, production, costs, and benefits of the cooperative program;

(f) Publicize the cooperative program;

(g) Not substitute a new cooperative project for any part of the department's program unless mutually agreeable to the department and volunteer group;

(h) Not approve agreements that are incompatible with legally existing land, water, or property rights.

(2) The department may, when requested, provide to volunteer groups its available professional expertise and assist the volunteer group to evaluate its project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The director of each department shall establish by rule:

(1) The procedure for entering a cooperative agreement and the application forms for a permit to release fish or wildlife required by RCW 75.08.295 or 77.16.150. The procedure shall indicate the information required from the volunteer group as well as the process of review by the department. The process of review shall include the means to coordinate with other agencies and Indian tribes when appropriate and to coordinate the review of any necessary hydraulic permit approval applications.

(2) The procedure for providing within forty-five days of receipt of a proposal a written response to the volunteer group indicating the date by which an acceptance or rejection of the proposal can be expected, the reason why the date was selected, and a written summary of the process of review. The response should also include any suggested modifications to the proposal which would increase its likelihood of approval and the date by which such modified proposal could be expected to be accepted. If the proposal is rejected, the department must provide in writing the reasons for rejection. The volunteer group may request the director or the director's designee to review information provided in the response.

(3) The priority of the uses to which eggs, seed, juveniles, or brood stock are put. Use by cooperative projects shall be second in priority only to the needs of programs of the department or of other public agencies within the territorial boundaries of the state. Sales of eggs, seed, juveniles, or brood stock have a lower priority than use for cooperative projects.

(4) The procedure for notice in writing to a volunteer group of cause to revoke the agreement for the project and the procedure for revocation. Revocation shall be documented in writing to the volunteer group. Cause for revocation may include: (a) The unavailability of adequate biological or financial resources; (b) the development of unacceptable biological or resource management conflicts; or (c) a violation of agreement provisions. Notice of cause to revoke for a violation of agreement provisions may specify a reasonable period of time within which the volunteer group must comply with any violated provisions of the agreement.

(5) An appropriate method of distributing among volunteer groups fish, bird, or animal food or other supplies available for the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Agreements under this chapter may be for up to five years, with the department attempting to maximize the duration of each cooperative agreement. The duration of the agreement should reflect the financial and volunteer commitment and the stability of the volunteer group as well as the department's expectation of resource availability and project contributions to the resource.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The volunteer group shall:

(a) Provide care and diligence in conducting the cooperative project; and

(b) Maintain accurately the required records of the project on forms provided by the department.

(2) The volunteer group shall acknowledge that fish and game reared in cooperative projects are public property and must be handled and released for the benefit of all citizens of the state. The fish and game are to remain public property until reduced to private ownership under rules of the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This chapter applies to cooperative projects which were in existence on the effective date of this act or which require no further funding. Implementation of this chapter for new projects requiring funding shall be to the extent that funds are available from the aquatic land enhancement account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 75 RCW.

~~(2) If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of shares upon acquisition thereof by the corporation, the corporation shall, not later than the time it files its next annual report under this title with the secretary of state, file a statement of cancellation:~~

Sec. 4. Section 15, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 8, chapter 16, Laws of 1979 and RCW 23A.08.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Each corporation shall have power to create and issue the number of shares stated in its articles of incorporation. Such shares may be divided into one or more classes, any or all of which classes may consist of shares with par value or shares without par value, with such designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights as shall be stated in the articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation may limit or deny the voting rights of or provide special voting rights for the shares of any class to the extent not inconsistent with the provisions of this title.

Without limiting the authority herein contained, a corporation, when so provided in its articles of incorporation, may issue shares of preferred or special classes:

(1) Subject to the right of the corporation to redeem any of such shares at the price fixed by the articles of incorporation for the redemption thereof.

(2) Entitling the holders thereof to cumulative, noncumulative or partially cumulative dividends.

Sec. 5. Section 16, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 9, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 23A.08.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the articles of incorporation so provide, the shares of any preferred or special class may be divided into and issued in series. If the shares of any such class are to be issued in series, then each series shall be so designated as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of all other series and classes. Any or all of the series of any such class and the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between different series may be fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation(~~(, but all shares of the same class shall be identical except as to the following relative rights and preferences, as to which there may be variations between different series:~~

(a) ~~The rate of dividend.~~

(b) ~~Whether shares may be redeemed and, if so, the redemption price and the terms and conditions of redemption.~~

(c) ~~The amount payable upon shares in event of voluntary and involuntary liquidation.~~

(d) ~~Sinking fund provisions, if any, for the redemption or purchase of shares.~~

(e) ~~The terms and conditions, if any, on which shares may be converted.~~

(f) ~~Voting rights, if any~~)).

(2) If the articles of incorporation shall expressly vest authority in the board of directors, then, to the extent that the articles of incorporation shall not have established series and fixed and determined the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series, the board of directors shall have authority to divide any or all of such classes into series and, within the limitations set forth in this section and in the articles of incorporation, to fix and determine or to amend the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series ((so)) that is wholly unissued or to be established. Within the limits stated in the articles of incorporation or the resolution of the board of directors establishing the series, the board of directors may, after the issue of shares of a series whose number it is authorized to designate, amend the resolution establishing the series to decrease (but not below the number of shares of such series then outstanding) the number of shares of that series, and the number of shares constituting the decrease shall resume the status which they had before the adoption of the resolution establishing the series.

(3) In order for the board of directors to establish or amend a series, where authority so to do is contained in the articles of incorporation, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the designation or amendment of the series and fixing and determining or amending the relative rights and preferences thereof, or so much thereof as shall not be fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation.

(4) (~~Prior to the issue of any shares of a~~) For any series established or amended by resolution adopted by the board of directors, the corporation shall file and execute in the manner hereinafter provided a statement setting forth:

(b) File one of such originals.

(c) Return the other original to the corporation or its representative.

(6) Upon the filing of such statement by the secretary of state, the resolution amending, or establishing and designating, the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof shall become effective and shall constitute an amendment of the articles of incorporation.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 38, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 23A-.08.135 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to any provisions in respect thereof set forth in its articles of incorporation, a corporation may create and issue, whether or not in connection with the issuance and sale of any of its shares or other securities, rights or options entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation shares of any class or classes. Such rights or options shall be evidenced in such manner as the board of directors shall approve and, subject to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, shall set forth the terms upon which, the time or times within which and the price or prices at which such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of any such right or option. If such rights or options are to be issued to directors, officers or employees as such of the corporation or of any subsidiary thereof, and not to the shareholders generally, their issuance shall be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon or shall be authorized by and consistent with a plan approved or ratified by such a vote of shareholders. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors as to the adequacy of the consideration received for such rights or options shall be conclusive. ~~((The price or prices to be received for any shares having a par value, other than treasury shares to be issued upon the exercise of such rights or options, shall not be less than the par value thereof:))~~

Subject to any restrictions in the articles of incorporation:

(1) Shares ((without par value)) may be issued for such consideration ((expressed in dollars as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation reserve to the shareholders the right to fix the consideration. ~~Treasury shares may be disposed of by the corporation for such consideration expressed in dollars as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors:~~

~~That part of the surplus of a corporation which is transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares as a share dividend shall be deemed to be the consideration for the issuance of such shares:~~

~~In the event of the issuance of shares upon the conversion or exchange of indebtedness or shares, the consideration for the shares so issued shall be (1) the principal sum of, and accrued interest on, the indebtedness so exchanged or converted, or the stated capital then represented by the shares so exchanged or converted, and (2) that part of surplus, if any, transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares for the shares so exchanged or converted, and (3) any additional consideration paid to the corporation upon the issuance of shares for the indebtedness or the shares so exchanged or converted)) as shall be authorized by the board of directors establishing a price (in money or other consideration) or a minimum price or general formula or method by which the price will be determined; and~~

(2) Upon authorization by the board of directors, the corporation may issue its own shares in exchange for or in conversion of its outstanding shares, or distribute its own shares, pro rata to its shareholders or the shareholders of one or more classes or series, to effectuate stock dividends or splits, and any such transaction shall not require consideration. However, such issuance of shares of any class or series shall not be made to the holders of shares of any other class or series unless it is either expressly provided for in the articles of incorporation, or is authorized by an affirmative vote or the written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the class or series in which the distribution is to be made.

Sec. 8. Section 19, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The consideration for the issuance of shares may be paid in whole or in part, in money, in other property, tangible or intangible, or in labor or services actually performed for the corporation. When payment of the consideration for which shares are to be issued shall have been received by the corporation, such shares shall be ~~((deemed to be fully paid and))~~ nonassessable.

Neither promissory notes nor future services shall constitute payment or part payment, for shares of a corporation.

In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for shares shall be conclusive.

Sec. 9. Section 21, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The reasonable charges and expenses of organization or reorganization of a corporation, and the reasonable expenses of and compensation for the sale or underwriting of its shares, may be paid or allowed by such corporation out of the consideration received by it in payment for its shares without thereby rendering such shares ~~((not fully paid or))~~ assessable.

A certificate for a fractional share shall, but scrip shall not unless otherwise provided therein, entitle the holder to exercise voting rights, to receive dividends thereon, and to participate in any of the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation. The board of directors may cause such scrip to be issued subject to the condition that it shall become void if not exchanged for certificates representing full shares before a specified date, or subject to the condition that the shares for which such scrip is exchangeable may be sold by the corporation and the proceeds thereof distributed to the holders of such scrip, or subject to any other conditions which the board of directors may deem advisable.

Sec. 12. Section 33, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 17, chapter 16, Laws of 1979 and RCW 23A.08.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, except as may be otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation. ~~((The board of directors of a corporation may, from time to time, declare and the corporation may pay dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares, except when the corporation is insolvent or when the payment thereof would render the corporation insolvent or when the declaration or payment thereof would be contrary to any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, subject to the following provisions:~~

~~(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, dividends may be declared and paid in cash or property only out of:~~

No dividend out of unreserved and unrestricted net earnings so computed shall be paid which would reduce the net assets of the corporation below the aggregate preferential amount payable in event of voluntary liquidation to the holders of shares having preferential rights to the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation.~~

~~(2) If the articles of incorporation of a corporation engaged in the business of exploiting natural resources so provide, dividends may be declared and paid in cash out of the depletion reserves, but each such dividend shall be identified as a distribution of such reserves and the amount per share paid from such reserves shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same concurrently with the distribution thereof.~~

If a corporation fails to provide the financial statements to any shareholder requesting them pursuant to this section, in any action to compel a corporation to provide such statements, the costs and expenses of any such proceeding (including reasonable fees and expenses for counsel for any such shareholder) shall be determined by the court and may be assessed by the court in its discretion on any corporation which fails to provide such statements or on one or more officers of the corporation. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 184, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 297, Laws of 1983 and by section 116, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.116 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The owner of a commercial salmon fishing vessel which is not qualified for a license or permit under RCW 75.30.120 is required to obtain a salmon single delivery permit in order to make one landing of salmon taken in off-shore waters. The director shall not issue a salmon single delivery permit unless, as determined by the director, a bona fide emergency exists. The permit fee is one hundred dollars for residents and nonresidents.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 253, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 193, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and by section 85, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.24.100 are each reenacted to read as follows:

(1) The director may issue licenses, with the approval of the commissioner of public lands, for the commercial harvesting of geoduck clams from specific tracts of beds of navigable waters for which harvest rights have been granted by the department of natural resources. The director shall not authorize commercial harvesting on bottoms which are shallower than eighteen feet below mean lower low water (0.0 ft.), or which lie in an area bounded by the line of ordinary high tide (mean high tide) and a line two hundred yards seaward from and parallel to the line of ordinary high tide. If the director determines that the number of units of gear is sufficient to harvest the known available crop and that additional units of gear might prove damaging to the resource or its habitat, the director may suspend the issuance of additional licenses until the director determines there is need for additional units of gear to achieve a sustained harvest.

(2) Commercial geoduck harvesting shall be done with a hand-held, manually operated water jet or suction device guided and controlled from under water by a diver. Periodically, the director shall determine the effect of each type or unit of gear upon the geoduck population or the substrate they inhabit. The director may require modification of the gear or stop its use if it is being operated in a wasteful or destructive manner or if its operation may cause permanent damage to the bottom or adjacent shellfish populations.

(3) A person, including the person's agents or representatives, who holds a license under subsection (1) of this section shall comply with all applicable commercial diving safety regulations adopted by the federal occupational safety and health administration established under the federal occupational safety and health act of 1970 as such law exists on May 8, 1979 (84 Stat. 1590 et seq.; 29 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.). A violation of these regulations is a violation of this subsection. For the purposes of this section, persons who dive for geoducks are "employees" as defined by the federal occupational safety and health act. A violation of this subsection is grounds for suspension or revocation of the license following a hearing as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW. A license shall not be suspended or revoked if the violation has been corrected within ten days of receipt of written notice of the violation. If there is a substantial probability that a violation of the commercial diving standards could result in death or serious physical harm to a person engaged in harvesting geoduck clams, the department shall suspend the license immediately until the violation has been corrected. If the licensee is the holder of a tract license and contracts with another person for the harvesting of geoducks, the license shall not be suspended or canceled if the licensee terminates its business relationship with such entity until compliance with this subsection is secured.

Sec. 3. Section 8, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 77, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.20.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature intends to expedite flood-control and dredging operations in those rivers affected by the May 1980 eruption of Mt. St. Helens, while continuing to protect the fish resources of these rivers.

(2) The director of fisheries and director of game shall process hydraulic project applications submitted under RCW 75.20.100 within fifteen working days of receipt of the application. This requirement is only applicable to flood control and dredging projects located in the Toutle river, in the Cowlitz river from River Mile 22 to the confluence with the Columbia, and the volcano-affected tributaries of the Cowlitz and Toutle river and volcano-affected areas of the Columbia river.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the emergency provisions of RCW 75.20.100(~~(2)~~) may be initiated by the county legislative authority if the project is necessary to protect human life or property from flood hazards, including:

(a) Flood fight measures necessary to provide protection during a flood event; or

(b) Measures necessary to reduce or eliminate a potential flood threat when other alternative measures are not available or cannot be completed prior to the expected flood threat season; or

(c) Measures which must be initiated and completed within an immediate period of time and for which processing of the request through normal methods would cause a delay to the project and such delay would significantly increase the potential for damages from a flood event.

This section expires on June 30, 1988.

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 45, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.10.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to the penalties prescribed in RCW 75.10.110 and 75.10.120, the director may revoke geoduck diver licenses or geoduck tract licenses held by a person if:

(a) Within a five-year period that person is convicted or has an unvacated bail forfeiture for two or more violations of this title or rules of the director relating to geoduck licensing or harvesting; or

(b) The department of natural resources suspended or canceled the lease or harvesting agreement under RCW ((79.01.570)) 79.96.080.

(2) When a geoduck tract licensee permits a person to harvest geoducks on that tract, each violation by that person of this title or rules of the director relating to geoduck licensing or harvesting resulting in: (a) Conviction or unvacated forfeiture of bail; or (b) suspension or cancellation of the lease or harvesting agreement by the department of natural resources under RCW ((79.01.570)) 79.96.080; shall be imputed to the tract licensee for the purpose of computing the number of violations by the tract licensee under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the director shall not issue a geoduck diver license or geoduck tract license to a person who has had a license revoked. This prohibition is effective for one year after the revocation.

(4) Appeals of revocations under this section may be taken under the judicial review provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. If the license revocation is determined to be invalid, the director shall reissue the license to that person.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 245, Laws of 1983 and RCW 75.12.132 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful to fish for or take salmon commercially with a net within the waters of the tributaries and sloughs described in subsection (2) of this section which flow into or are connected with the Columbia river.

(2) The director shall adopt rules defining geographical boundaries of the following Columbia river tributaries and sloughs:

- (a) Washougal river;
- (b) Camas slough;
- (c) Lewis river;
- (d) Kalama river;
- (e) Cowlitz river;
- (f) Elokomín river;
- (g) Elokomín sloughs;
- (h) Skamokawa sloughs;
- (i) Grays river;
- (j) Deep river;
- (k) Grays bay.

(3) The director may authorize commercial net fishing for salmon in the tributaries and sloughs from September 1 to November 30(~~(-PROVIDED, That)~~) if the time, areas and level of effort are regulated in order to maximize the recreational fishing opportunity while minimizing excess returns of fish to hatcheries. The director shall not authorize commercial net fishing if a significant catch of steelhead would occur.

Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 31, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75-.25.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A Hood Canal shrimp license is required to take or possess shrimp taken for personal use from that portion of Hood Canal lying south of the Hood Canal floating bridge.

(2) The annual fees for Hood Canal shrimp licenses are:

(a) For a resident license, five dollars, except that a person seventy years of age or older may pay a one-time fee of five dollars;

(b) For a nonresident license, fifteen dollars.

~~((3) Hood Canal shrimp licenses shall be issued only under authority of the director. The director may authorize license dealers to issue the licenses and collect the license fees. In addition to the license fee, license dealers may charge a dealer's fee of fifty cents. The dealer's fee may be retained by the license dealer.~~

~~(4) The director shall adopt rules for the issuance of Hood Canal shrimp licenses and for the collection, payment, and handling of license fees and dealer's fees.~~

~~(5) Notwithstanding RCW 75.04.090, for the purposes of this section, "resident" means a person who for at least ninety days immediately preceding application for a license has maintained a permanent place of abode within this state and has established by formal evidence an intent to continue residence within this state. All other persons are nonresidents.~~

~~(6) Hood Canal shrimp licenses are not transferable.~~

~~(7) Upon request of a fisheries patrol officer or ex officio fisheries patrol officer, a person taking or possessing shrimp for personal use in that portion of Hood Canal south of the Hood Canal floating bridge shall exhibit the required license and write his or her signature for comparison with the signature on the license. Failure to comply with the request is prima facie evidence that the person does not have a license or is not the person named on the license.~~

~~(8) A person who violates a provision of this section or who knowingly falsifies information required for the issuance of a Hood Canal shrimp license is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to the penalties provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.))~~

Sec. 7. Section 12, chapter 327, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 97, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.25.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Salmon angling licenses, Hood Canal shrimp licenses, and razor clam licenses shall be issued only under authority of the director. The director may authorize license dealers to issue the licenses and collect the license fees. The dealer's fee may be retained by the license dealer.

The director shall adopt rules for the issuance of salmon angling licenses, Hood Canal shrimp licenses, and razor clam licenses and for the collection, payment, and handling of license fees and dealers fees.

Failure to comply with the request is prima facie evidence that the person does not have a license or is not the person named on the license.

(2) The razor clam license shall be visible on the licensee while digging for razor clams.

Sec. 9. Section 99, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.25.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 43.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any lands owned by the state parks and recreation commission, which are determined to be surplus to the needs of the state for development for state park purposes and which the commission proposes to deed to a local government or other entity, shall be accompanied by a clause requiring that if the land is not used for outdoor recreation purposes, ownership of the land shall revert to the state parks and recreation commission.

(2) The state parks and recreation commission, in cases where land subject to such a reversionary clause is proposed for use or disposal for purposes other than recreation, shall require that, if the land is surplus to the needs of the commission for park purposes at the time the commission becomes aware of its proposed use for nonrecreation purposes, the holder of the land or property shall reimburse the commission for the release of the reversionary interest in the land. The reimbursement shall be in the amount of the fair market value of the reversionary interest as determined by a qualified appraiser agreeable to the commission. Appraisal costs shall be borne by the local entity which holds title to the land.

(3) Any funds generated under a reimbursement under this section shall be deposited in the parkland acquisition account in the state general fund, which is hereby created. Moneys in this account are to be used solely for the purchase or acquisition of property for use as state park property by the commission, as directed by the legislature; all such funds shall be subject to legislative appropriation.

Sec. 2. Section 43.51.210, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 246, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 43.51.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the state parks and recreation commission finds that any land under its control cannot advantageously be used for park purposes, it is authorized to dispose of such land. If such lands are school or other grant lands, control thereof shall be relinquished by resolution of the commission to the proper state officials. If such lands were acquired under restrictive conveyances by which the state may hold them only so long as they are used for park purposes, they may be returned to the donor or grantors by the commission. All other such lands may be either sold by the commission to the highest bidder or exchanged for other lands of equal value by the commission, and all conveyance documents shall be executed by the governor. All such exchanges shall be accompanied by a transfer fee, to be set by the commission and paid by the other party to the transfer; such fee shall be paid into the parkland acquisition account established under section 1 of this 1984 act. Sealed bids on all sales shall be solicited at least twenty days in advance of the sale date by an advertisement appearing at least in three consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the land to be sold is located. If the commission feels that no bid received adequately reflects the fair value of the land to be sold, it may reject all bids, and may call for new bids. All proceeds derived from the sale of such park property shall be paid into the state general fund. All land considered for exchange shall be evaluated by the commission to determine its adaptability to park usage. The equal value of all lands exchanged shall first be determined by the appraisals to the satisfaction of the commission: PROVIDED, That no sale or exchange of state park lands shall be made without the unanimous consent of the commission.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) Department means the department of labor and industries.

(2) Theatrical enterprise means the production of any circus, vaudeville, carnival, revue, variety show, musical comedy, operetta, opera, drama, endurance contest, marathon, walkathon, or any other entertainment event where persons are a part of the enterprise's presentation. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Any person engaged in the business of promoting a theatrical enterprise in this state shall deposit with the department the cash or a bond issued by a surety company authorized to do business in this state in an amount determined sufficient by the department to pay the wages of every person involved in the production of the theatrical enterprise for the period for which a single payment of wages is made, but not to exceed one week.

(2) The deposit required under subsection (1) of this section shall be on file with the department seven calendar days before the commencement of the theatrical enterprise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. ### AGRICULTURAL MARKET DEVELOPMENT TASK FORCE

AN ACT Relating to the creation of an agricultural market development task force; creating new sections; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) The export of agricultural commodities produced in Washington state contributes substantial benefits to the economic base of the state, provides a large number of jobs and sizeable tax revenues to state and local governments, and provides an important stabilizing effect on prices received by agricultural producers;

(2) The gross state farm income recently experienced its first drop in over twenty years which is creating hardship and concern for many agricultural producers and related industries;

(3) Several state agricultural commodities have been restricted from markets in foreign countries as a result of trade barriers and tariffs;

(4) Efforts by agricultural commodity commissions, the department of agriculture, the department of commerce and economic development, and Washington state university to expand markets<sup>1</sup> for state-produced agricultural commodities have been frustrated by the erection of trade barriers and tariffs by foreign countries; and

(5) Concentrated support of all sectors of agriculture and state government together with support by the state's congressional delegation may be necessary to resist the erection of additional trade barriers and to assist in the removal of existing trade barriers.

The legislature further finds that state agencies and institutions and the agricultural industry possess considerable expertise in agricultural commodity marketing and that their present activities in this area are being funded by a combination of self-imposed farmer assessments, private funds, and state funds. The legislature finds that, in addition to the need to expand markets to stabilize prices, the long-term growth of the state is heavily reliant on development of new export markets and that pooling existing resources to develop strategies for the expansion of markets for agricultural products will provide an incentive to the people of the state to review present policies and develop new approaches to spur expansion in this important area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is hereby created the agricultural market development task force. The task force shall consist of the director of agriculture, the director of commerce and economic development, the commissioner of public lands, the chairman and ranking minority member of the senate agriculture committee, the chairman and ranking minority member of the house agriculture committee, and fourteen members appointed by the governor including at least one member from each of the following groups: The commodity commissions, food producers and processors, fresh food shippers, cooperatives, Washington state university, port districts, agricultural financiers, commodity brokers, and other persons who have expertise in agricultural trade and marketing matters. Task force members shall include at least one member from each congressional district in the state. The task force shall invite representation from the offices of the state congressional delegation. Appointments under this section shall be made within twenty-one days after the effective date of this act. Task force members shall be entitled to reimbursement under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their task force duties. Legislative members shall be entitled to reimbursement under RCW 44.04.120.

The task force shall elect a chairperson from among its private citizen members. The task force shall be staffed by existing market development personnel of the department of agriculture, the department of natural resources, and the department of commerce and economic development. The task force may hold meetings at least once per month or when determined advisable by the committee. The initial meeting of the task force shall be held within forty-five days after the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The purposes of the agricultural market development task force are:

- (1) To identify foreign and domestic trade and market-related problems affecting the state of Washington's agricultural industry;
- (2) To identify strategies that could be employed which would strengthen the state's agricultural industries' bargaining position on foreign and domestic trade issues;
- (3) To take actions to combat trade barriers and tariffs imposed on the sale of agricultural commodities produced in Washington state which have been or are proposed to be erected by foreign countries;
- (4) To provide coordination of present efforts by state agencies, institutions, and the agricultural industry to concentrate support to counter foreign trade barriers and to minimize domestic marketing and transportation-related problems;
- (5) To develop a strategy for a Washington state based multi-commodity trading company or similar organization with special emphasis on cooperatives;
- (6) To consult with the United States international trade commission and the state's congressional delegation regarding international trade negotiations affecting Washington state's agricultural products; and
- (7) To identify and prioritize areas in which additional research is needed and to provide recommendations on the funding of high-priority programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The agricultural market development task force shall:

- (1) Issue a preliminary report by December 1, 1984, to the state legislature and to the state's congressional delegation which shall include recommendations for state and federal legislation, strategies, and a report on the trade status of agricultural products produced in the state; and
- (2) Issue a final report by June 1, 1985, to the state legislature and the state's congressional delegation with any additional recommendations and an outline of the activities and accomplishments of the task force. The task force shall terminate on June 30, 1985, unless reactivated by the legislature after a determination of the task force's effectiveness.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of agriculture for the activities of the agricultural market development task force for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds (1) that a locality's natural environment is an important factor in determining where new businesses will locate, (2) that environmental regulations that preserve the

No child may be held longer than seventy-two hours, excluding Sundays and holidays, after such child is taken into custody unless a court order has been entered for continued shelter care. The child and his or her parent, guardian, or custodian shall be informed that they have a right to a shelter care hearing. The court shall hold a shelter care hearing if one is requested.

(2) The juvenile court counselor assigned to the matter shall make all reasonable efforts to advise the parents, guardian, or legal custodian of the time and place of any shelter care hearing, request that they be present, and inform them of their basic rights as provided in RCW 13.34.090.

(3) At the commencement of the shelter care hearing the court shall advise the parties of their basic rights as provided in RCW 13.34.090 and shall appoint counsel pursuant to RCW 13.34.090 if counsel has not been retained by the parent or guardian and if the parent or guardian is indigent, unless the court finds that the right to counsel has been expressly and voluntarily waived.

(4) The court shall examine the need for shelter care. All parties have the right to present testimony to the court regarding the need or lack of need for shelter care.

(5) The juvenile court probation counselor shall submit a recommendation to the court as to the further need for shelter care, except that such recommendation shall be submitted by the department of social and health services in cases where the petition alleging dependency has been filed by the department of social and health services, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(6) The court shall release a child alleged to be dependent to the care, custody, and control of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian unless the court finds there is reasonable cause to believe that:

(a) The child has no parent, guardian, or legal custodian to provide supervision and care for such child; ((or))

(b) The release of such child would present a serious threat of substantial harm to such child; or

(c) The parent, guardian, or custodian to whom the child could be released is alleged to have violated section 1 or 2 of this 1984 act.

If the court does not release the child to his or her parent, guardian, or legal custodian, the court shall order continued shelter care or order placement with another suitable person, and the court shall set forth its reasons for the order.

(7) An order releasing the child on any conditions specified in this section may at any time be amended, with notice and hearing thereon, so as to return the child to shelter care for failure of the parties to conform to the conditions originally imposed.

(8) A shelter care order issued pursuant to this section may be amended at any time with notice and hearing thereon. The shelter care decision of placement shall be modified only upon a showing of change in circumstances. No child may be detained for longer than thirty days without an order, signed by the judge, authorizing continued shelter care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 26.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A relative, as defined in RCW 9A.40.010, may bring civil action against any other relative who, with intent to deny access to a child by another relative of the child who has a right to physical custody of the child, takes, entices, or conceals the child from that relative. The plaintiff may be awarded, in addition to any damages awarded by the court, the reasonable expenses incurred by the plaintiff in locating the child, including, but not limited to, investigative services and reasonable attorneys' fees.

(1) The agency shall provide by rule or regulation for general or specific licensing of byproduct, source, special nuclear materials, or devices or equipment utilizing such materials, or other radioactive material occurring naturally or produced artificially. Such rule or regulation shall provide for amendment, suspension, or revocation of licenses. Such rule or regulation shall provide that:

(a) Each application for a specific license shall be in writing and shall state such information as the agency, by rule or regulation, may determine to be necessary to decide the technical, insurance, and financial qualifications, or any other qualification of the applicant as the agency may deem reasonable and necessary to protect the occupational and public health and safety. The agency may at any time after the filing of the application, and before the expiration of the license, require further written statements and shall make such inspections as the agency deems necessary in order to determine whether the license should be granted or denied or whether the license should be modified, suspended, or revoked. In no event shall the agency grant a specific license to any applicant who has never possessed a specific license issued by a recognized state or federal authority until the agency has conducted an inspection which insures that the applicant can meet the rules, regulations and standards adopted pursuant to this chapter. All applications and statements shall be signed by the applicant or licensee. The agency may require any applications or statements to be made under oath or affirmation;

(b) Each license shall be in such form and contain such terms and conditions as the agency may by rule or regulation prescribe;

(c) No license issued under the authority of this chapter and no right to possess or utilize sources of ionizing radiation granted by any license shall be assigned or in any manner disposed of; and

(d) The terms and conditions of all licenses shall be subject to amendment, revision, or modification by rules, regulations or orders issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Before the agency issues a license to an applicant under this section, it shall give notice of such application to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town, if the application is for a license within an incorporated city or town, or to the county legislative authority, if the application is for a license outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns. The incorporated city or town, through the official or employee selected by it, or the county legislative authority or the official or employee selected by it, shall have the right to file with the agency within twenty days after date of transmittal of such notice, written objections against the applicant or against the activity for which the license is sought, and shall include with such objections a statement of all facts upon which such objections are based, and in case written objections are filed, may request and the agency may in its discretion hold a formal hearing under chapter 34.04 RCW. Upon the granting of a license under this section the agency shall send a duplicate of the license or written notification to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town in which the license is granted, or to the county legislative authority if the license is granted outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns.

This subsection shall not apply to activities conducted within the boundaries of the Hanford reservation.

(3) The agency may require registration of all sources of ionizing radiation.

~~((3))~~ (4) The agency may exempt certain sources of ionizing radiation or kinds of uses or users from the registration or licensing requirements set forth in this section when the agency makes a finding after approval of the technical advisory board that the exemption of such sources of ionizing radiation or kinds of uses or users will not constitute a significant risk to the health and safety of the public.

~~((4))~~ (5) In promulgating rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter the agency shall, insofar as practical, strive to avoid requiring dual licensing, and shall provide for such recognition of other state or federal licenses as the agency shall deem desirable, subject to such registration requirements as the agency may prescribe.

The Washington state legislature finds and declares: The bond between a child and his or her parent, custodian, or guardian is of paramount importance, and any intervention into the life of a child is also an intervention into the life of the parent, custodian, or guardian; however, instances of nonaccidental injury, neglect, death, sexual abuse and cruelty to children by their parents, custodians or guardians have occurred, and in the instance where a child is deprived of his or her right to conditions of minimal nurture, health, and safety, the state is justified in emergency intervention based upon verified information; and therefore the Washington state legislature hereby provides for the reporting of such cases to the appropriate public authorities. It is the intent of the legislature that, as a result of such reports, protective services shall be made available in an effort to prevent further abuses, and to safeguard the general welfare of such children: PROVIDED, That such reports shall be maintained and disseminated with strictest regard for the privacy of the subjects of such reports and so as to safeguard against arbitrary, malicious or erroneous information or actions: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this chapter shall not be construed to authorize interference with child-raising practices, including reasonable parental discipline, which are not proved to be injurious to the child's health, welfare and safety.

Adult (~~(developmentally disabled)~~) dependent persons not able to provide for their own protection through the criminal justice system shall also be afforded the protection offered children through the reporting and investigation requirements mandated in this chapter.

department of social and health services to investigate and provide the protective services section with a report in accordance with the provision of chapter 74.13 RCW, and where necessary to refer such report to the court.

A law enforcement officer may take, or cause to be taken, a child into custody without a court order if there is probable cause to believe that the child is abused or neglected and that the child would be injured or could not be taken into custody if it were necessary to first obtain a court order pursuant to RCW 13.34.050. The department shall maintain a central registry of reported cases of child abuse or abuse of an adult (~~((developmentally disabled))~~) dependent person and shall adopt such rules and regulations as necessary in carrying out the provisions of this section. name appears on the registry shall have access to his own records. Those persons or agencies exempted by this section from the confidentiality of the records of the registry shall not further disseminate or release such information so provided to them and shall respect the confidentiality of such information, and any violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislature finds that there are a number of adults sixty years of age or older who lack the ability to perform or obtain those services necessary to maintain or establish their well-being. It is the intent of the legislature to prevent or remedy the abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment of persons sixty years of age or older who have a functional, mental, or physical inability to care for or protect themselves by providing these persons with the least-restrictive services such as home care and preventing or reducing inappropriate institutional care. The legislature finds that it is in the interests of the public health, safety, and welfare of the people of the state to provide a procedure for identifying these persons and providing the services necessary for their well-being.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Abandonment" means leaving a vulnerable adult without the means or ability to obtain food, clothing, shelter, or health care.

(2) "Abuse" means an act of physical or mental mistreatment or injury which harms or threatens a person through action or inaction by another individual.

(5) "Exploitation" means the illegal or improper use of a vulnerable adult or that adult's resources for another person's profit or advantage.

(6) "Neglect" means a pattern of conduct resulting in deprivation of care necessary to maintain minimum physical and mental health.

(8) "Vulnerable adult" means a person sixty years of age or older who has the functional, mental, or physical inability to care for himself or herself.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. When a social worker, employee of the department, or health care practitioner licensed under Title 18 RCW, including but not limited to doctors, nurses, psychologists, and pharmacists, has reasonable cause to believe that a vulnerable adult has suffered abuse, exploitation, neglect, or abandonment, the person shall report the incident, or cause a report to be made, to the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A person making a report under section 9 of this act shall make an immediate oral report to the department and shall also make a written report as soon as practicable. Unless there is a judicial proceeding or the person consents, the identity of the person making the report is confidential. The reports shall contain the following information if known:

- (1) Identification of the vulnerable adult;
- (2) The nature and extent of the suspected abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment;
- (3) Evidence of previous abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment;
- (4) The name and address of the person making the report; and
- (5) Any other helpful information.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A person participating in good faith in making a report under this chapter or testifying about the abuse, neglect, abandonment, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult in a judicial proceeding under this chapter is immune from liability resulting from the report or testimony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The department shall insure that all reports made under this chapter are responded to. If the department finds that an incident of abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment has occurred, the department shall insure that appropriate protective services are provided to the vulnerable adult with the consent of the vulnerable adult. The services shall not be provided if the vulnerable adult withdraws or refuses consent. If the department determines that the vulnerable adult lacks the ability or capacity to consent, the department may bring an action under chapter 11.88 RCW as an interested person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In responding to reports of abuse, exploitation, neglect, or abandonment under this chapter, the department shall provide information to the elderly person on protective services available to the person and inform the person of the right to refuse such services. The department shall develop cooperative agreements with community-based agencies servicing the abused elderly. The agreements shall cover such subjects as the appropriate roles and responsibilities of the department and community-based agencies in identifying and responding to reports of elderly abuse, the provision of case-management services, standardized data collection procedures, and related coordination activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If access is denied to an employee of the department seeking to investigate an allegation of abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment of a vulnerable adult by an individual, the department may seek an injunction to prevent interference with the investigation. The court shall issue the injunction if the department shows that:

- (1) There is reasonable cause to believe that the person is a vulnerable adult and is or has been abused, neglected, exploited, or abandoned; and
- (2) The employee of the department seeking to investigate the report has been denied access.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The department shall maintain a system for statistical data collection, accessible for bona fide research only as the department by rule prescribes. The identity of any person is strictly confidential.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 9 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 7 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

As used in this section, an "associated student body" means the formal organization of the students of a school formed with the approval of and regulation by the board of directors of the school district in conformity to the rules and regulations promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction; PROVIDED, That the board of directors of a school district may act or delegate the authority to an employee of the district to act as the associated student body for any school plant facility within the district containing no grade higher than the sixth grade.

The superintendent of public instruction, after consultation with appropriate school organizations and students, shall promulgate rules and regulations to designate the powers and responsibilities of the boards of directors of the school districts of the state of Washington in developing efficient administration, management, and control of moneys, records, and reports of the associated student bodies organized in the public schools of the state.

~~((The application of the provisions of this section is suspended until July 1, 1976:))~~

To facilitate the payment of obligations, an imprest bank account or accounts may be created and replenished from the associated student body program fund.

The associated student body program fund shall be budgeted by the associated student body, subject to approval by the board of directors of the school district. All disbursements from the associated student body program fund or any imprest bank account established thereunder shall have the prior approval of the appropriate governing body representing the associated student body. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 43.09.210, it shall not be mandatory that expenditures from the district's general fund in support of associated student body programs and activities be reimbursed by payments from the associated student body program fund.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the emergency purchasing provisions of state law are being more liberally construed than the legislature originally intended. The legislative budget committee shall review these notifications for compliance with legislative intent.

Sec. 3. Section 43.19.1906, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 141, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.19.1906 are each amended to read as follows:

Insofar as practicable, all purchases and sales shall be based on competitive bids, and a formal sealed bid procedure shall be used as standard procedure for all purchases and contracts for purchases and sales executed by the state purchasing and material control director and under the powers granted by RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939, as now or hereafter amended. state agencies, including purchases of specialized equipment, instructional, and research materials by colleges and universities, if considered necessary to maintain full disclosure of competitive procurement or otherwise to achieve overall state efficiency and economy in purchasing and material control. Quotations from four hundred dollars to twenty-five hundred dollars shall be secured from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price. A record of competition for all such purchases from four hundred dollars to twenty-five hundred dollars shall be documented for audit purposes on a standard state form approved by the forms management center under the provisions of RCW 43.19.510. Purchases up to four hundred dollars may be made without competitive bids based on buyer experience and knowledge of the market in achieving maximum quality at minimum cost: PROVIDED, That this four hundred dollar direct buy limit without competitive bids may be increased incrementally as required to a maximum of eight hundred dollars with the approval of at least ten of the members of the state supply management advisory board, if warranted by increases in purchasing costs due to inflationary trends;

(4) Purchases of insurance and bonds by the risk management office under RCW 43.19.1935 as now or hereafter amended;

(5) Purchases and contracts for vocational rehabilitation clients of the department of social and health services: PROVIDED, That this exemption is effective only when the state purchasing and material control director, after consultation with the director of the division of vocational rehabilitation and appropriate department of social and health services procurement personnel, declares that such purchases may be best executed through direct negotiation with one or more suppliers in order to expeditiously meet the special needs of the state's vocational rehabilitation clients; and

DRIVING WHILE INTOXICATED—ENFORCEMENT FUNDING—OFM TO DISTRIBUTE GRANTS

AN ACT Relating to funding for enforcement of laws against driving while intoxicated; creating new sections; making an appropriation; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that county and city governments affected by the 1982 supreme court decision in Seattle v. Crumrine, by speedy trial rules, and by municipal withdrawal from prosecution and adjudication of serious traffic offenses are in need of transitional funding to offset the initial cost impact as it relates to the enforcement of laws prohibiting driving while intoxicated. It is the intent of the legislature that funds be made available in the form of state grants through the end of the current biennium to allow time for local governments to assess the cost impact and review finance options for costs related to the enforcement of these laws, including the use of any local unused taxing authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) From the funds appropriated in section 8 of this act, the office of financial management shall distribute grants to cities and counties to enhance the prosecution and adjudication of serious traffic offenses. "Serious traffic offenses," as used in this act, means driving or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs.

(2) Applications from cities and counties for grants under this section shall be evaluated and prioritized by the office of financial management with the advice of a committee consisting of:

(a) Two prosecuting attorneys appointed by the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys;

(b) One municipal attorney and one elected municipal official appointed by the association of Washington cities;

(c) One elected county official appointed by the Washington state association of counties;

(d) Two district court judges and one municipal court judge appointed by the Washington state magistrates association; and

(e) The administrator for the courts, or the administrator's designee.

(3) Members of the advisory committee shall be appointed within thirty days of the effective date of this act.

(4) Members of the advisory committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The office of financial management shall use the following criteria in establishing priorities for grant applications under section 2 of this act:

(1) The extent to which municipalities within a county have formally or informally withdrawn from the prosecution and adjudication of serious traffic offenses as of January 1, 1984;

(2) The extent to which counties and cities have increased local expenditures for the prosecution and adjudication of serious traffic offenses in 1983 as compared to 1982;

(3) The extent to which counties and cities have maintained their level of local expenditures for the prosecution and adjudication of serious traffic offenses in 1983 as compared to 1982; and

(4) The extent to which counties and cities have exceeded their overall capacity to handle court caseloads.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The office of financial management shall establish guidelines for grant applications consistent with the criteria set forth in section 3 of this act and shall transmit the guidelines and grant application forms to all cities and counties by June 15, 1984.

(2) Grant applications shall contain:

(a) Certification as to the number of employees prosecuting and adjudicating serious traffic offenses in 1982 and 1983, and the time commitment of those employees to that purpose;

(b) Quantification of filings, dismissals, pleas to reduced charges, jury trials demanded and conducted, and deferred prosecutions. This information shall be grouped by serious traffic offenses filings and total filings and shall be based on the best available data for 1982 and 1983, including statistics from the administrator for the courts, uniform crime reports, department of licensing reports, locally maintained records, and any other information deemed relevant by the office of financial management;

(c) Information on the county's or city's overall capacity to handle court caseloads, including jury and bench trials disposed of per judge, use of pro tem judges, and other techniques for handling caseloads;

(d) The use to which the grant moneys will be put and the anticipated results; and

(e) A certified statement that the grant moneys will not be used to supplant local funds.

(3) Grant applications shall be made to the office of financial management by August 1, 1984.

(4) Counties and cities may submit joint grant applications.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The office of financial management may award grants in whole or in part based on priority, evaluation of need, and available revenues as appropriated by section 8 of this act.

(2) Cities and counties receiving grants under section 2 of this act shall ensure that local funds are not supplanted by the grant moneys and shall report by November 1, 1985, to the office of financial management the manner in which grant funds were expended and the results obtained from the grant. If the grant moneys are used to supplant local funds, the local government shall repay to the state the total amount of the grant moneys received under this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The legislative budget committee shall conduct a study of local revenues and expenses for activities related to the prosecution and adjudication of serious traffic offenses. The study shall include a history of the distribution of revenues from liquor profits, liquor taxes, and court fees and fines and shall contain recommendations for changes in the distribution of these revenues based on changed circumstances. The legislative budget committee shall report the results of this study to the legislature by December 15, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In determining whether an application made for classification under RCW 84.34.020, subsection (1)(b), or (3) should be approved or disapproved, the granting authority may take cognizance of the benefits to the general welfare of preserving the current use of the property which is the subject of application, and may consider whether or not preservation of current use of the land will (1) conserve or enhance natural or scenic resources, (2) protect streams or water supplies, (3) promote conservation of soils, wetlands, beaches or tidal marshes, (4) enhance the value of abutting or neighboring parks, forests, wildlife preserves, nature reservations, sanctuaries, or other open spaces, (5) enhance recreation opportunities, (6) preserve historic sites, (7) affect any other factors relevant in weighing benefits to the general welfare of preserving the current use of the property against the potential loss in revenue which may result from granting the application: PROVIDED, That the granting authority may approve the application with respect to only part of the land which is the subject of the application: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any part of the application is denied, the applicant may withdraw the entire application: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the granting authority in approving in part or whole an application for land classified pursuant to RCW 84.34.020(1) or (3) may also require that certain conditions be met, including but not limited to the granting of easements: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the granting or denial of the application for current use classification is a legislative determination and shall be reviewable only for arbitrary and capricious actions. During any year after eight years of the initial ten-year classification period have elapsed, notice

In the event that a portion of a parcel is removed from classification, the remaining portion must meet the same requirements as did the entire parcel when such land was originally granted classification pursuant to this chapter. Within seven days the county assessor shall transmit one copy of such notice to the legislative body which originally approved the application. The county assessor or assessors, as the case may be, shall, when two assessment years have elapsed following the date of receipt of such notice, withdraw such land from such classification and the land shall be subject to the additional tax due under RCW 84.34.108: PROVIDED, That agreement to tax according to use shall not be considered to be a contract and can be abrogated at any time by the legislature in which event no additional tax or penalty shall be imposed.

Approved by the Governor March 5, 1984, with the exception of sections 3, 4, and 7, which were vetoed.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 3, 4, and 7, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1511, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to tourism development."

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1511 creates the Washington State Tourism Development Commission to advise the Governor and the legislature on tourism development.

The concept of a commission to study the tourism program in this state and to report back to the Governor and the legislature is acceptable and should prove beneficial. However, the method of appointment of the commission and its make-up as designated in this legislation clearly circumvent the executive branch of state government. The work envisioned by this legislation can be accomplished in a more efficient and responsible manner consistent with constitutional principles regarding the separation of powers if that work is undertaken in the manner established in the *Executive Order 84-03, a copy of which I have attached to this message. For these reasons, I have vetoed sections 3, 4, and 7 of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1511.

The remaining sections of the bill are approved.

*Reviser's note: Executive Order 84-03 is published in the Washington State Register.

CHAPTER 123

SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT—PRIORITIES—CITIES AND COUNTIES— SITE REVIEW—PLANS—RECOVERY AND RECYCLING

AN ACT Relating to solid waste management; amending section 1, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 41, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.010; amending section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 41, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.030; amending section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.060; amending section 9, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 293, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.090; amending section 10, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.100; amending section 11, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.110; amending section 19, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.190; adding new sections to chapter 70.95 RCW; and repealing section 12, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.120.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 41, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds:

(1) Continuing technological changes in methods of manufacture, packaging, and marketing of consumer products, together with the economic and population growth of this state, the rising affluence of its citizens, and its expanding industrial activity have created new and ever-mounting problems involving disposal of garbage, refuse, and solid waste materials resulting from domestic, agricultural, and industrial activities.

(2) Traditional methods of disposing of solid wastes in this state are no longer adequate to meet the ever-increasing problem. Improper methods and practices of handling and disposal of solid wastes pollute our land, air and water resources, blight our countryside, adversely affect land values, and damage the overall quality of our environment.

(3) Considerations of natural resource limitations, energy shortages, economics and the environment make necessary the development and implementation of solid waste recovery and/or recycling plans and programs.

(4) The following priorities in the management of solid waste are necessary and should be followed in order of descending priority as applicable:

- (a) Waste reduction;
- (b) Waste recycling;
- (c) Energy recovery or incineration; and
- (d) Landfill.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 41, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.95-.030 are each amended to read as follows:

- (6) "Functional standards" means criteria for solid waste handling expressed in terms of expected performance or solid waste handling functions.
- (7) "Jurisdictional health department" means city, county, city-county, or district public health department.
- (8) "Person" means individual, firm, association, copartnership, political subdivision, government agency, municipality, industry, public or private corporation, or any other entity whatsoever.

- (11) "Waste reduction" means reducing the amount or type of waste generated.
- (12) "Waste recycling" means reusing waste materials and extracting valuable materials from a waste stream.
- (13) "Energy recovery or incineration" means reducing the volume of wastes by use of an enclosed device using controlled flame combustion.
- (14) "Landfill" means a disposal facility or part of a facility at which waste is placed in or on land and which is not a land treatment facility.

*Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70-95.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The department in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, ((may)) shall adopt ((such)) minimum functional standards for solid waste handling ((as it deems appropriate)). These standards shall be designed to use the best available technology to protect the environment and human health, and shall be revised periodically to reflect new technology and information. Any such standards shall be reviewed and approved by the solid waste advisory committee established pursuant to RCW 70.95.040 during their promulgation and prior to their adoption. The department in adopting such standards may classify areas of the state with respect to population density, climate, geology, and other relevant factors bearing on solid waste ((disposal)) handling standards.

*Sec. 3. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 70.95 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Each county or city siting a solid waste disposal facility shall review each potential site for conformance with the standards as set by the department for:

- (a) Geology;

Sec. 5. Section 9, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 293, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Each county and city solid waste management plan shall include the following:

(1) A detailed inventory and description of all existing solid waste handling facilities including an inventory of any deficiencies in meeting current solid waste handling needs.

(2) The estimated long-range needs for solid waste handling facilities projected twenty years into the future.

(3) A program for the orderly development of solid waste handling facilities in a manner consistent with the plans for the entire county which shall:

Upon each review such plans shall be extended to show long-range needs for solid waste handling facilities for twenty years in the future, and a revised construction and capital acquisition program for six years in the future. Each revised solid waste (~~((handling))~~) management plan shall be submitted to the department (~~((of environmental quality))~~).

Every permit issued by a jurisdictional health department under RCW 70.95.180 shall be reviewed by the department to ensure that the proposed site or facility conforms with:

- (1) All applicable laws and regulations including the minimal functional standards for solid waste handling; and

The department shall review the permit within thirty days after the issuance of the permit by the jurisdictional health department. Every permit for a solid waste disposal site shall be renewed annually on a date to be established by the jurisdictional health department having jurisdiction of the site. Prior to renewing a permit, the health department shall conduct such inspections as it deems necessary to assure that the solid waste disposal site and facilities located on the site meet minimum functional standards of the department (~~of environmental quality and~~), applicable local regulations, and are not in conflict with the approved solid waste management plan. The department shall review and may appeal the renewal as set forth for the approval of permits in section 8 of this 1984 act.

A renewal issued under this section shall not be considered valid unless it has been reviewed by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 70.95 RCW a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.120 are each repealed.

Passed the House February 28, 1984.

Passed the Senate February 23, 1984.

Approved by the Governor March 7, 1984, with the exception of section 3, which was vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 7, 1984.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section, Substitute House Bill No. 1164, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to solid waste management; . . ."

This act lists priorities for solid waste management and requires the Department of Ecology to adopt functional standards for the handling of solid waste which utilize technology to protect the environment and human health. The purpose of the bill is laudable, and I fully support its execution. Therefore, I approved the entire bill with the exception of Section 3 which I vetoed.

Section 3 amends existing language in RCW 70.95.060 which already gave the Department of Ecology permissive authority to adopt minimum functional standards for solid waste handling. The amendments require the Department of Ecology to adopt these standards, but also require that the standards be reviewed and approved by the Solid Waste Advisory Committee prior to adoption.

I support the use of advisory committees for review and comment as is specified in Section 4(3) for the local solid waste advisory committee on plan preparation and revisions. However, it is not appropriate to give an advisory committee approval or veto of standards adoption. This constitutes delegation of rule-making authority to an advisory committee which is not accountable to the electorate for its actions.

There are sufficient opportunities through the rule-making process for both the advisory committee and the general public to be heard.

I believe that my veto of Section 3, for the reasons outlined above, has not harmed the spirit and intent of Substitute House Bill 1164. Please be assured that the Department of Ecology will proceed with adoption of functional standards for solid waste management while utilizing its advisory committee on solid waste management for review and comment.

The remaining sections of the bill are approved.*

RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 shall be known and cited as "The Transitional Bilingual Instruction Act (~~of 1979~~)". The legislature finds that there are large numbers of children who come from homes where the primary language is other than English. (~~Experience has shown that classes which are taught in English are inadequate to meet the needs of these children.~~) The legislature finds that a transitional bilingual education program can meet the needs of these children. Pursuant to the policy of this state to insure equal educational opportunity to every child in this state, it is the purpose of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 to provide for the implementation of transitional bilingual education programs in the public schools, and to provide supplemental financial assistance to (~~help local~~) school districts to meet the extra costs of these programs.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.802 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810, unless the context thereof indicates to the contrary:

(1) "Transitional bilingual instruction" means :

(a) A system of instruction which uses two languages, one of which is English, as a means of instruction to build upon and expand language skills to enable the pupil to achieve competency in English. Concepts and information are introduced in the primary language and reinforced in the second language: PROVIDED, That the program shall include testing in the subject matter in English(~~:~~); or

(b) In those cases in which the use of two languages is not practicable as established by the superintendent of public instruction and unless otherwise prohibited by law, an alternative system of instruction which may include English as a second language and is designed to enable the pupil to achieve competency in English.

(2) "Primary language" means the language most often used by the student for communication in his/her home.

(3) "Eligible pupil" means any enrollee of the school district whose primary language is other than English and whose English language skills are sufficiently deficient or absent to impair learning ~~((when taught only in English, but shall not include pupils who are equally or almost equally competent in English and other languages)).~~

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.804 are each amended to read as follows:

Every school district board of directors shall:

(1) Make available to each eligible pupil transitional bilingual instruction to achieve competency in English, in accord with rules of the superintendent of public instruction ~~((: PROVIDED, That such rules shall provide that any school district with a limited number of pupils of the same non-English dominant language shall not be required to activate a new bilingual program but may carry on an alternative instructional program utilizing resources available to the district)).~~

(2) Wherever feasible, ensure that communications to parents emanating from the schools shall be appropriately bilingual for those parents of pupils in the bilingual instruction program.

(3) ~~((Annually))~~ Determine, by administration of ~~((α))~~ an English test approved by the superintendent of public instruction the number of eligible pupils enrolled in the school district at the beginning of a school year and thereafter during the year as necessary in individual cases. If, however, a preliminary interview indicates little or no English speaking ability, eligibility testing shall not be necessary.

(4) Before the conclusion of each school year, measure each eligible pupil's improvement in learning the English language by means of a test approved by the superintendent of public instruction.

~~((4))~~ (5) Provide in-service training for ~~((att))~~ teachers, counselors, and other staff, who are involved in the district's transitional bilingual ~~((education within the district))~~ program. Such training shall include appropriate instructional strategies for children of culturally different backgrounds, use of curriculum materials, and ~~((bilingual))~~ program models.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.806 are each amended to read as follows:

Every school district board of directors may appoint, maintain, and receive recommendations from an advisory committee ~~((of persons including))~~ which includes parents whose children are in the transitional bilingual instruction program (~~(and bilingual)~~), teachers, and other staff members.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.808 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall ~~((prepare and))~~:

(1) Promulgate and issue (~~((prior to September, 1979;))~~) program development guidelines to assist school districts in preparing their programs~~((:))~~;

(2) Promulgate rules for implementation of (~~((this bilingual instruction act shall be promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction))~~) RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW (~~((no later than May 15, 1980))~~). The rules shall be designed to maximize the role of school districts in selecting programs appropriate to meet the needs of eligible students. The rules shall identify the process and criteria to be used to determine when a student is no longer eligible for transitional bilingual instruction pursuant to RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to be codified between RCW 28A.58.800 and 28A.58.810 to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare and submit biennially to the governor and the legislature a budget request for transitional bilingual instruction programs. Moneys appropriated by the legislature for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 shall be allocated by the superintendent of public instruction to school districts for the sole purpose of operating an approved transitional bilingual instruction program(~~;; priorities for funding shall exist for the early elementary grades. No moneys shall be allocated pursuant to this section to fund more than three school years of bilingual instruction for each eligible pupil within a district. PROVIDED, That such moneys may be allocated to fund more than three school years of bilingual instruction for any pupil who fails to demonstrate improvement in English language skills adequate to remove impairment of learning when taught only in English. The superintendent of public instruction shall set standards and approve a test for the measurement of such English language skills~~)).

An eligible student may receive no more than three school years of transitional bilingual instruction as defined in RCW 28A.58.802(1)(a).

School districts are hereby empowered to accept grants, gifts, donations, devices and other gratuities from private and public sources to aid in accomplishing the purposes of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810.

*Sec. 7. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall review annually the transitional bilingual instruction program and shall submit a report of such review to the legislature on or before January 1 of each year.

Passed the House February 28, 1984.

Passed the Senate February 25, 1984.

Approved by the Governor March 7, 1984, with the exception of section 7, which was vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 7, 1984.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 7, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1456, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to transitional bilingual instruction."

Section 7 of this bill prohibits the provision of transitional bilingual instruction to an individual student for more than three years. Federal and state courts have found that children with limited ability to speak English have a constitutional right to an appropriate program of special instruction. This right is based on the individual student's need for assistance in order to participate in the basic public education program offered in English for all children. Both the existing statutory provisions and the language I proposed in my Special Needs bill provide an opportunity for districts to provide transitional bilingual education for longer periods of time if termination of services would inhibit the child's access to a basic education.

With the exception of section 7, which I have vetoed, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1456 is approved."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 84.56.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 322, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.56.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The county treasurer shall be the receiver and collector of all taxes extended upon the tax rolls of the county, whether levied for state, county, school, bridge, road, municipal or other purposes, and also of all fines, forfeitures or penalties received by any person or officer for the use of his or her county. All taxes upon real and personal property made payable by the provisions of this title shall be due and payable to the treasurer as aforesaid on or before the thirtieth day of April and shall be delinquent after that date: PROVIDED, That when the total amount of tax on personal property or on any lot, block or tract of real property payable by one person is ten dollars or more, and if one-half of such tax be paid on or before the said thirtieth day of April, the remainder of such tax shall be due and payable on or before the thirty-first day of October following and shall be delinquent after that date: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when the total amount of tax on any lot, block or tract of real property payable by one person is ten dollars or more, and if one-half of such tax be paid after the thirtieth day of April but before the thirty-first day of October, together with the applicable interest and penalty on the full amount of such tax, the remainder of such tax shall be due and payable on or before the thirty-first day of October following and shall be delinquent after that date.

Delinquent taxes under this section are subject to interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum computed on a monthly basis from the date of delinquency until paid. Interest shall be calculated at the rate in effect at the time of payment of the tax, regardless of when the taxes were first delinquent. In addition, delinquent taxes under this section are subject to penalties as follows:

(1) A penalty of three percent shall be assessed on the amount of tax delinquent on May 31st of the year in which the tax is due.

(2) An additional penalty of eight percent shall be assessed on the total amount of tax delinquent on November 30th of the year in which the tax is due.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The purpose of sections 3 through 6 of this act is to clarify requirements necessary for voters to authorize certain local governments to impose regular property tax levies for a series of years. Sections 3 through 9 of this act only clarify the existing law to avoid credence being given to an erroneous opinion that has been rendered by the attorney general. As cogently expressed in Attorney General Opinion, Number 14, Addendum, opinions rendered by the attorney general are advisory only and are merely a "prediction of the outcome if the matter were to be litigated." Nevertheless, confusion has arisen from this erroneous opinion.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 29.30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The ballot proposition authorizing a taxing district to impose the regular property tax levies authorized in RCW 36.69.145, 67.38.130, or 84.52-.069 shall contain in substance the following:

(1) ~~((A))~~ Regular ad valorem property tax ((levy)) levies in an amount equal to twenty-five cents or less per thousand dollars of the assessed value of property in the district in each year for six consecutive years ~~((This six year levy must be approved))~~ when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof ((voting on the)) approving a proposition authorizing the levies submitted at a general or special election, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty percentum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition ((to levy)) when the number of electors voting yes on the proposition exceeds forty percentum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election. Ballot propositions shall conform with section 3 of this 1984 act.

In the event a cultural arts, stadium and convention ((districts are)) district is levying property taxes, which in combination with property taxes levied by other taxing districts ((result in taxes in excess of)) subject to the one percent limitation provided for in Article VII, section 2, of our state Constitution result in taxes in excess of the limitation provided for in RCW 84.52.043, the cultural arts, stadium and convention district property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated before the property tax levies of other taxing districts are reduced: PROVIDED, That no cultural arts, stadium, and convention district may pledge anticipated revenues derived from the property tax herein authorized as security for payments of bonds issued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That such limitation shall not apply to property taxes approved pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

The limitation in RCW 84.55.010 shall apply to levies after the first levy authorized under this section following the approval of such levy by voters pursuant to this section.

(3) Multi-year excess ad valorem property tax levies used to retire general obligation bond issues when authorized by the district voters in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.056.

The district shall include in its regular property tax levy for each year a sum sufficient to pay the interest and principal on all outstanding general obligation bonds issued without voter approval pursuant to RCW 67.38.110 and may include a sum sufficient to create a sinking fund for the redemption of all outstanding bonds.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 200, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.069 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "taxing district" means a county, emergency medical service district, city or town, public hospital district, or fire protection district.

(2) A taxing district may impose ~~((an))~~ additional regular property tax ~~((levy))~~ levies in an amount equal to twenty-five cents or less per thousand dollars of the assessed value of property in the taxing district in each year for six consecutive years ~~((This six-year levy must be approved))~~ when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof ~~((voting on the))~~ approving a proposition authorizing the levies submitted at a general or special election, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition ~~((to levy))~~ when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election. Ballot propositions shall conform with section 3 of this 1984 act.

(3) Any tax imposed under this section shall be used only for the provision of emergency medical care or emergency medical services, including related personnel costs, training for such personnel, and related equipment, supplies, vehicles and structures needed for the provision of emergency medical care or emergency medical services.

(4) If a county levies a tax under this section, no taxing district within the county may levy a tax under this section. No other taxing district may levy a tax under this section if another taxing district has levied a tax under this section within its boundaries: PROVIDED, That if a taxing district within a county levies this tax, and the voters of the county subsequently approve a levying of this tax, then the tax levy for emergency medical services shall cease being levied in the taxing district originally levying it and shall be replaced with the county-wide levy. Whenever a tax is levied county-wide, the service shall, insofar as is feasible, be provided throughout the county: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no county-wide levy proposal may be placed on the ballot without the approval of the legislative authority of each city exceeding fifty thousand population within the county: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section and RCW 36.32.480 shall not prohibit any city or town from levying an annual excess levy to fund emergency medical services.

A proposition authorizing the tax levies shall not be submitted by a park and recreation district more than twice in any twelve-month period. Ballot propositions shall conform with section 3 of this 1984 act. In the event a park and recreation ~~((districts are))~~ district is levying property taxes, which in combination with property taxes levied by other taxing districts ~~((result in taxes in excess of))~~ subject to the one percent limitation provided for in Article 7, section ~~((+2))~~ 2, of our state Constitution result in taxes in excess of the limitation provided for in RCW 84.52.043, the park and recreation district property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated before the property tax levies of other taxing districts are reduced.

MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

AN ACT Relating to malicious prosecution; amending section 1, chapter 158, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.350; and creating new sections.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that a growing number of unfounded lawsuits, claims, and liens are filed against law enforcement officers, prosecuting authorities, and judges, and against their property, having the purpose and effect of deterring those officers in the exercise of their discretion and inhibiting the performance of their public duties.

The legislature also finds that the cost of defending against such unfounded suits, claims and liens is severely burdensome to such officers, and also to the state and the various cities and counties of the state. The purpose of section 2 of this 1984 act is to provide a remedy to those public officers and to the public.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 158, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24-.350 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In any action for damages, whether based on tort or contract or otherwise, a claim or counterclaim for damages may be litigated in the principal action for malicious prosecution on the ground that the action was instituted with knowledge that the same was false, and unfounded, malicious and without probable cause in the filing of such action, or that the same was filed as a part of a conspiracy to misuse judicial process by filing an action known to be false and unfounded.

(2) In any action, claim, or counterclaim brought by a judicial officer, prosecuting authority, or law enforcement officer for malicious prosecution arising out of the performance or purported performance of the public duty of such officer, an arrest or seizure of property need not be an element of the claim, nor do special damages need to be proved. A judicial officer, prosecuting authority, or law enforcement officer prevailing in such an action may be allowed an amount up to one thousand dollars as liquidated damages, together with a reasonable attorneys' fee, and other costs of suit. A government entity which has provided legal services to the prevailing judicial officer, prosecuting authority, or law enforcement officer has reimbursement rights to any award for reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs, but shall have no such rights to any liquidated damages allowed.

(3) No action may be brought against an attorney under this section solely because of that attorney's representation of a party in a lawsuit.

(4) As used in this section:

(a) "Judicial officer" means a justice, judge, magistrate, or other judicial officer of the state or a city, town, or county.

(b) "Prosecuting authority" means any officer or employee of the state or a city, town, or county who is authorized by law to initiate a criminal or civil proceeding on behalf of the public.

(c) "Law enforcement officer" means a member of the state patrol, a sheriff or deputy sheriff, or a member of the police force of a city, town, university, or state college, or a "wildlife agent" or "ex officio wildlife agent" as defined in RCW 77.08.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The provisions of section 2 of this 1984 act are remedial and shall be liberally construed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

The commissioner shall prescribe regulations applicable to unemployed individuals making such distinctions in the procedures as to such types of unemployment as the commissioner deems necessary.

(2) An individual shall be deemed not to be "unemployed" during any week which falls totally within a period during which the individual, pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement or individual employment contract, is employed full time in accordance with a definition of full time contained in the agreement or contract, and for which compensation for full time work is payable. This subsection may not be applied retroactively to an individual who had no guarantee of work at the start of such period and subsequently is provided additional work by the employer.

Sec. 2. Section 33, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 6, chapter 23, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.320 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of payment of contributions, "wages" means the remuneration paid by one employer during any calendar year to an individual in its employment under this title or the unemployment compensation law of any other state in the amount specified in RCW 50.24.010. If an employer

For the purpose of payment of benefits, "wages" means the remuneration paid by one or more employers to an individual for employment under this title during his base year: PROVIDED, That at the request of a claimant, wages may be calculated on the basis of remuneration payable. The department shall notify each claimant that wages are calculated on the basis of remuneration paid, but at the claimant's request a redetermination may be performed and based on remuneration payable.

"Remuneration" means all compensation paid for personal services including commissions and bonuses and the cash value of all compensation paid in any medium other than cash. The reasonable cash value of compensation paid in any medium other than cash and the reasonable value of gratuities shall be estimated and determined in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner. Remuneration does not include payments to members of a reserve component of the armed forces of the United States, including the organized militia of the state of Washington, for the performance of duty for periods not exceeding seventy-two hours at a time.

Previously accrued compensation, other than severance pay or payments received pursuant to plant closure agreements, when assigned to a specific period of time by virtue of a collective bargaining agreement, individual employment contract, customary trade practice, or request of the individual compensated, shall be considered remuneration for the period to which it is assigned. Assignment clearly occurs when the compensation serves to make the individual eligible for all regular fringe benefits for the period to which the compensation is assigned.

The provisions of this section pertaining to the assignment of previously accrued compensation shall not apply to individuals subject to RCW 50.44.050.

No expenditures shall be made from any portion of an appropriation which has been assigned to a reserve status except as provided in this section.

(3) It is expressly provided that all agencies shall be required to maintain accounting records and to report thereon in the manner prescribed in this chapter and under the regulations issued pursuant to this chapter. A copy of such collection reports(~~(;)~~) and revenue estimates(~~(, and waivers)~~) shall be simultaneously submitted to the (~~(legislative budget committee and the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives)~~) economic and revenue forecast work group.

The superior court shall review the determination of the chief of the Washington state patrol in a summary manner, based upon the record of the hearing before the trial board, and shall render its decision within ninety days, either affirming or reversing the order of the chief, or remanding the matter to ((him)) the chief for further action. A transcript of the trial board hearing shall be provided to the court by the state patrol after being paid for by the officer subjected to disciplinary action. However, if the officer

~~((During his one year probationary period any newly appointed officer may be removed, or any officer promoted through examinations may be demoted to his previous rank by the chief without charges being preferred and without benefit of a hearing, as might otherwise be required under this chapter:))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 34.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The chief administrative law judge shall designate an administrative law judge to serve, as the need arises, as presiding officer in state patrol disciplinary hearings conducted under RCW 43.43.090.

However, this section does not apply to a state patrol disciplinary hearing conducted under RCW 43.43.090.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 81.04.130, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.04.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any public service company (~~(shall)~~), other than a railroad company, files with the commission any schedule, classification, rule, or regulation, the effect of which is to change any rate, fare, charge, rental, or toll (~~(theretofore)~~) previously charged, the commission (~~(shall have)~~) has power, either upon its own motion or upon complaint, upon notice, to (~~(enter upon)~~) hold a hearing concerning (~~(such)~~) the proposed change and the reasonableness and justness (~~(thereof, and)~~) of it. Pending (~~(such)~~) the hearing and the decision (~~(thereon)~~) the commission may suspend the operation of (~~(such)~~) the rate, fare, charge, rental, or toll, if (~~(such)~~) the change is proposed by a common carrier subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, for a period not exceeding seven months, and, if proposed by a public service company other than such a common carrier, for a period not exceeding ten months from the time the (~~(same)~~) change would otherwise go into effect (~~(, and)~~). After a full hearing the commission may make such order in reference ((thereto) to the change as would be provided in a hearing initiated after the ((same) change had become effective.

At any hearing involving any change in any schedule, classification, rule, or regulation the effect of which is to increase any rate, fare, charge, rental, or toll theretofore charged, the burden of proof to show that such increase is just and reasonable ~~((shall be))~~ is upon the public service company ~~((: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That))~~. When any common carrier subject to the jurisdiction of the commission ~~((shall))~~ files any tariff, classification, rule, or regulation the effect of which is to decrease any rate, fare, or charge, the burden of proof to show that such decrease is just and reasonable ~~((shall be))~~ is upon ~~((such))~~ the common carrier.

Sec. 2. Section 81.04.150, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.04-.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the commission ~~((shall))~~ finds, after hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this chapter, that any rate, toll, rental, or charge ~~((which))~~ that has been the subject of complaint and inquiry is sufficiently remunerative to the public service company, other than a railroad company, affected ~~((thereby:))~~ by it, the commission may order that ~~((such))~~ the rate, toll, rental, or charge shall not be changed, altered, abrogated, or discontinued, nor shall there be any change in the classification ~~((which))~~ that will change or alter ~~((such))~~ the rate, toll, rental, or charge without first obtaining the consent of the commission authorizing ~~((such))~~ the change to be made.

Sec. 3. Section 81.04.250, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.04-.250 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission ~~((shall have))~~ has the power upon complaint or upon its own motion to prescribe and authorize just and reasonable rates for the transportation of persons or property by carriers other than railroad companies, and shall exercise ~~((such))~~ that power whenever and as often as it ~~((shall))~~ deems necessary or proper. The commission shall, before any hearing is had upon ~~((such))~~ the complaint or motion, notify the complainants and the carrier concerned of the time and place of ~~((such))~~ the hearing by giving at least ten days' written notice thereof, specifying that at the time and place designated a hearing will be held for the purpose of prescribing and authorizing ~~((such))~~ the rates ~~((, which))~~. The notice ~~((shall be))~~ is sufficient to authorize the commission to inquire into and pass upon the matters designated in this section.

In exercising ~~((its aforesaid))~~ this power the commission may use any standard, formula, method, or theory of valuation reasonably calculated to arrive at the objective of prescribing and authorizing just and reasonable rates.

In the exercise of ~~((said))~~ this power the commission may ~~((in its discretion))~~ give consideration, in ~~((in lieu of))~~ addition to other factors, to the following:

(1) To the effect of ~~((such))~~ the rates upon movement of traffic by ~~((such))~~ the carriers;

(2) To the public need for adequate transportation facilities, equipment, and service at the lowest level of charges consistent with the provision, maintenance, and renewal of ~~((such))~~ the facilities, equipment and service; and

(3) To the carrier need for revenue of a level ~~((which))~~ that under honest, efficient, and economical management is sufficient to cover the cost (including all operating expenses, depreciation accruals, rents, and taxes of every kind) of providing adequate transportation service, plus an amount equal to ~~((such))~~ the percentage of ~~((said))~~ that cost as ~~((shall be))~~ is reasonably necessary for the provision, maintenance, and renewal of ~~((said))~~ the transportation facilities or equipment and a reasonable profit to the carrier. The relation of carrier expenses to carrier revenues may be deemed the proper test of a reasonable profit.

This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

Sec. 4. Section 81.28.040, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28-.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Every common carrier shall file with the commission and shall print and keep open ~~((to the))~~ for public inspection, schedules showing the rates, fares, charges, and classification for the transportation of persons and property within the state between each point upon ~~((its))~~ the carrier's route and all other points thereon; and between each point upon its route and all points upon every route leased, operated, or controlled by it; and between each point on its route or upon any route leased, operated, or controlled by it and all points upon the route of any other common carrier, whenever a through route and joint rate ~~((shall))~~ have been established or ordered between any two such points. If no joint rate over a through route has been established, the several carriers participating in ~~((such))~~ the through route shall file, print, and keep open ~~((to the))~~ for public inspection, ~~((as aforesaid;))~~ the separately established rates, fares, charges, and classifications ~~((; applied))~~ that apply to the through transportation. The schedules printed ~~((as aforesaid;))~~ shall plainly state the places between which property and persons will be carried, ~~((and))~~ shall also contain classification of passengers or property in force, and shall also state separately all terminal charges, storage charges, icing charges, and all other charges ~~((which))~~ that the commission may require to be stated, all privileges or facilities granted or allowed, and any rules or regulations ~~((which))~~ that may in ~~((anywise))~~ any way change, affect, or determine any part, or the aggregate of, such ~~((aforesaid))~~ rates, fares, and charges, or the value of the service rendered to the passenger, shipper, or consignee. ~~((Such))~~ The schedule shall be plainly printed in large type, and a copy ~~((thereof))~~ of it shall be kept by every ~~((such))~~ carrier readily accessible to ~~((and for))~~ inspection by the public in every station or office of ~~((such))~~ the carrier where passengers or property are respectively received for transportation, when ~~((such)) the station or office is in charge of any agent~~~~((; and in every station or office of such carrier where passenger tickets for transportation or tickets covering sleeping or parlor car or other train accommodation are sold or bills of lading or receipts for property are issued))~~. All or any of ~~((such)) the~~ schedules kept as ~~((aforesaid)) provided in this section~~ shall be immediately produced by ~~((such)) the~~ carrier for inspection upon the demand of any person. A notice printed in bold type and stating that ~~((such)) the~~ schedules are on file with the agent and open to inspection by any person and that the agent will assist any ~~((such)) person~~ to determine from ~~((such)) the~~ schedules any transportation rates or fares or rules or regulations ~~((which)) that~~ are in force shall be kept posted by the carrier in two public and conspicuous places in every such station or office. The form of ~~((every such)) each~~ schedule shall be prescribed by the commission ~~((and shall conform in the case of railroad companies as nearly as may be to the form of schedules required by the interstate commerce commission under the act of congress entitled "An act to regulate commerce," approved February 4, 1887, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto))~~.

The commission ~~((shall have)) has~~ power, from time to time, ~~((in its discretion;))~~ to determine and prescribe by order such changes in the form of ~~((such)) the~~ schedules as may be found expedient, and to modify the requirements of this section in respect to publishing, posting, and filing of schedules either in particular instances or by general rule or order applicable to special or peculiar circumstances or conditions.

The commission may, in its discretion, suspend the operation of this section in whole or in part as applied to vessels engaged in jobbing business not operating on regular routes. This section does not apply to rail transportation contracts regulated by section 16 of this act or to railroad services or transactions exempted under section 20 of this act.

Sec. 5. Section 81.28.050, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 116, Laws of 1981 and RCW 81.28.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the commission otherwise orders, no change ~~((shall)) may~~ be made in any classification, rate, fare, charge, rule, or regulation filed and published by a common carrier other than a rail carrier, except after thirty days' notice to the commission and to the public. The notice shall be published as provided in RCW 81.28.040 ~~((which)) and~~ shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedule then in force~~((;))~~ and the time when the changed rate, classification, fare, or charge will go into effect~~((; and))~~. All proposed changes shall be shown by printing, filing, and publishing new schedules or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time and kept open to public inspection. In the case of a change proposed by a rail carrier, except for changes to rail contracts between a rail carrier and a shipper authorized under section 16 of this act, which changes become effective in accordance with that section, a proposal resulting in a rate increase or a new rate shall not become effective for twenty days after the notice is published, and a proposal resulting in a rate decrease shall not become effective for ten days after the notice is published. The commission, for good cause shown, may by order allow changes in rates without requiring the notice and the publication time periods specified in this section. When any change is made in any rate, fare, charge, classification, rule, or regulation, attention shall be directed to ~~((such))~~ the change by some character on the schedule ~~((such))~~. The character and its placement ((to)) shall be designated by the commission. The commission may, by order, for good cause shown, allow changes in any rate, fare, charge, classification, rule, or regulation without requiring any character to indicate each and every change to be made.

Sec. 6. Section 81.28.180, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28.180 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((No))~~ A common carrier shall not, directly or indirectly, by any special rate, rebate, drawback, or other device or method, charge, demand, collect, or receive from any person or corporation a greater or lesser compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered in the transportation of persons or property, except as authorized in this title, than it charges, demands, collects, or receives from any person or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic under the same or substantially similar circumstances and conditions. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

Sec. 7. Section 81.28.190, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28.190 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((No))~~ A common carrier shall not make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any person or corporation or to any locality or to any particular description of traffic in any respect whatsoever, or subject any particular person or corporation or locality or any particular description of traffic, to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

Sec. 8. Section 81.28.200, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28.200 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((No))~~ A common carrier ~~((;))~~ subject to the provisions of this title ~~((;))~~ shall not charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of persons or of a like kind of property, for a shorter than for a longer distance over the same line in the same direction, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or to charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the intermediate rates, subject to the provisions of this title~~((, but))~~. This shall not be construed as authorizing any such common carrier to charge and receive as great a compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance or haul. Upon application of a common carrier the commission may by order authorize it to charge less for a longer than for a shorter distance for the transportation of persons or property in special cases after investigation by the commission, but the order must specify and prescribe the extent to which the common carrier making ~~((such))~~ the application is relieved from the operation of this section~~((, and))~~. Only to the extent so specified and prescribed ~~((shall))~~ is any common carrier ~~((be))~~ relieved from the operation and requirements of this section. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

Sec. 9. Section 81.28.230, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28-.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the commission ~~((shall))~~ finds, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this chapter, that the rates, fares, or charges demanded, exacted, charged, or collected by any common carrier for the transportation of persons or property within the state or in connection therewith, or that the regulations or practices of ~~((such))~~ the common carrier affecting ~~((such))~~ those rates are unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or in ~~((anywise))~~ any way are in violation of the provisions of law, or that ~~((such))~~ the rates, fares, or charges are insufficient to yield a reasonable compensation for the service rendered, the commission shall determine and fix by order the just, reasonable, or sufficient rates, fares, or charges, or the regulations or practices to be thereafter observed and enforced ~~((and shall fix the same by order))~~. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In determining whether a rate established by a railroad company is reasonable for purposes of this title, the commission shall follow the Interstate Commerce Commission policy, which provides that railroad companies shall earn adequate revenues. Further, in regulating railroad company rates under this title, the commission has no jurisdiction over general rate increases, inflation-based rate adjustments, or fuel adjustment surcharges approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The commission shall exercise the authority granted under this chapter to regulate railroads in a manner consistent with the Interstate Commerce Act and in a manner that allows the state of Washington to continue to regulate railroad rates to the maximum extent allowable under federal law and to be certified, in accordance with 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10501 by the federal government to continue such regulation. In compliance with this chapter, the commission, in addition to such other procedures as it may establish, shall administer and follow the provisions of this chapter as nearly as practicable in accordance with the statutes, regulations, and decisions construing federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The commission shall use the standards and procedures established in this chapter to determine reasonableness when acting upon any complaint or protest or in any proceeding concerning any railroad's rate or a classification, rule, or practice related to a rate subject to regulation under this chapter. The commission shall adopt rules relating to the determination of market dominance. The rules shall allow rate increases, not subject to suspension, if the rail carrier proposing the increase is found by the commission not to have market dominance. Market dominance is defined as an absence of effective competition from other carriers or modes of transportation for the transportation to which a rate applies.

When a rate for transportation by a rail carrier is challenged as being unreasonably high, the commission shall not make such a finding until it has determined that there is market dominance and that the rate exceeds a maximum reasonable level for the transportation to which the rate applies. A finding of market dominance does not presumptively establish that the proposed rate exceeds a reasonable maximum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) A railroad company subject to the jurisdiction of the commission may not charge or receive from a person a different compensation by using a special rate, rebate, drawback, or other means, for a service rendered, or to be rendered, than it charges or receives from another person for performing a like or contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic under substantially similar circumstances. A railroad company that charges or receives such a different compensation for that service engages in unreasonable discrimination.

(2) A railroad company providing transportation or service subject to the jurisdiction of the commission may not subject a person, place, port, or type of traffic to unreasonable discrimination.

(3) Differences of rates, classifications, rules, and practices of railroad companies subject to the jurisdiction of the commission do not constitute a violation of this section if the differences result from different services provided by rail carriers.

(4) This section does not apply to: (a) Contracts approved under sections 16 and 17 of this act; (b) surcharges or cancellations authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission; (c) separate rates for distinct rail services; (d) rail rates applicable to different routes; or (e) expenses authorized under 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10751 by the Interstate Commerce Commission, except that with respect to rates described in (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection, nothing in this subsection affects the commission's authority under this section with respect to rate relationships between ports or within the same port.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The commission may suspend the filing of a schedule, classification, rule, or regulation by a railroad company only upon complaint and only when it is determined that: (1) It is substantially likely that the protesting party will prevail on the merits; (2) without suspension the proposed change will cause substantial injury to the protesting party; (3) and because of the peculiar economic circumstances of the protesting party the provisions requiring refund of moneys in excess of amounts found to be reasonable do not protect the protesting party.

The suspension period for a proceeding to determine the reasonableness of a filing by a railroad company shall not exceed five months. If the commission has not reached a final decision at the end of the fifth month after the schedule, classification, rule, or regulation was to become effective, it shall, if suspended take effect, and if in effect, remain in effect and not be subject to suspension. If a suspension is not ordered, but an investigation is instituted, the commission shall require the railroad to account for all amounts received under the increase until final determination is made and the proceeding is completed. The accounting shall specify by whom and for whom the amounts are paid. When the commission makes its final determination, it shall require the carrier to refund to the person for whom the amounts were paid that part of the increased rate found to be unreasonable, plus interest. If a rate is suspended and any portion of the rate is later found to be reasonable, the carrier shall collect from each person using the transportation to which the rate applies the difference between the original rate and the portion of the suspended rate found to be reasonable for any services during the period of suspension, plus interest. Interest, if required, shall be paid at a rate equal to the average yield, on the date the statement is filed, of marketable securities of the federal government having a duration of ninety days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The commission shall adopt rules in conformance with 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10707a allowing: (a) Rate increases not subject to suspension based upon an adjusted base rate of rail carriers in this state, including a cost-adjustment factor; (b) rate increases that do not exceed a specified percentage of the adjusted base rate.

(2) A rate increase under subsection (1)(b) of this section is not subject to suspension except: (a) Upon complaint by an interested party alleging that the rate increase violates the provisions of this chapter; or (b) if the rate increase is equal to or greater than revenue-variable cost percentage limits specified in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10707a(e).

(3) For the purposes of this chapter "adjusted base rate" has the same meaning with respect to rail carriers in this state as in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10707a(a).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A railroad company providing transportation of property may enter into a contract with one or more purchasers of that transportation to provide specified services under specified rates and conditions. Contracts, together with summaries of them, shall be filed with the commission under special rules adopted by the commission relating to contents of contracts, summaries of contracts, and other rules relating thereto. Contents of summaries shall contain nonconfidential information and shall be available for public inspection.

Contracts filed under this section shall be approved by the commission to be effective at any date determined by the commission within sixty days after the filing of the contract or if not disapproved in a proceeding under this section, sixty days after filing.

A contract may, after hearing, be disapproved if the commission determines that the contract does any of the following:

(1) As to contracts other than contracts for the transportation of agricultural products, forest products, and paper: (a) Upon complaint filed by a shipper, that the contract unduly impairs the ability of the contracting railroad company or railroad companies to meet their common carrier obligations; (b) upon complaint filed by a port, that the contract harms or causes unjust discrimination against such port.

(2) As to contracts for the transportation of agricultural products, including forest products and paper, upon showing of a shipper: (a) That the railroad company unjustly discriminates against the shipper by refusing to enter into a contract with the shipper for rates and services for transportation of the same type of commodity under similar conditions to the contract at issue, and that the shipper is ready, willing, and able to enter into the contract at a time essentially contemporaneous with the period during which the contract at issue was offered; or (b) that the railroad company provides rates, services, or other practices that constitute destructive competition. For the purpose of making a determination of what constitutes destructive competition, the commission shall consider the difference between contract rates and published single car rates.

(3) As to contracts that apply only to the transportation of agricultural commodities (including forest products but not including wood pulp, woodchips, pulpwood, or paper) the contract may be disapproved if it requires the use of more than forty percent of the capacity of the railroad's owned or leased equipment, by major car type, in the performance of the terms of the contract. On request of a railroad or other party or on its own initiative, the commission may grant relief from the limitation, as it considers appropriate, if it determines that the additional equipment may be made available without harming the railroad company's ability to meet its carrier obligations.

A contract that is approved under this section and transportation under the contract may not be subsequently challenged before the commission or in any court on the grounds that the contract violates a provision of this section. The exclusive remedy for any alleged breach of a contract entered into under this section is in an appropriate state or federal court, unless the parties otherwise agree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The commission may hold a proceeding to review contracts filed under section 16 of this act under the following conditions:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the proceedings must begin no later than thirty days after the filing of the contract;

(2) A proceeding may be initiated by the commission, or:

(a) By a shipper to determine whether a contract violates section 16(1)(a) or 16(2)(a) or (b) of this act, but only upon a showing of harm to the shipper;

(b) By a port to determine violation of section 16(1)(b) of this act, but only upon a showing of harm to the port;

(c) By any person the commission finds has an interest under section 16(3) of this act.

If a proceeding is initiated under this section the commission must determine whether the contract is in violation of section 16 of this act within thirty days after commencement of the proceeding. If the commission finds that the contract is not in violation of section 16 of this act, the contract shall become effective. If the commission finds that the contract violates section 16 of this act, the commission shall disapprove the contract, unless the contract unjustly discriminates against a shipper as stated in section 16(2)(a) of this act, in which case the carrier shall be ordered, subject to section 16 of this act, to provide rates and services substantially similar to the contract at issue with such differentials in terms and conditions as are justified by the evidence at the proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. In addition to the liability limitations and exceptions allowed under RCW 81.29.020, a railroad company providing transportation or service subject to jurisdiction of the commission may establish rates for transportation of property under which the liability of the carrier for the property is limited to a value established by written declaration of the shipper or by a written agreement between the shipper and the carrier, and may provide in the written declaration or agreement for specified amounts to be deducted from any claim against the carrier for loss or damage to the property or for delay in the transportation of the property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all railroad companies providing transportation subject to the commission's jurisdiction shall maintain rates for the transportation of recyclable or recycled materials, other than recyclable or recycled iron or steel, at revenue-to-variable-cost ratios that are equal to or less than the average revenue-to-variable-cost ratio that rail carriers would be required to realize, under honest, economical, and efficient management, in order to cover total operating expenses, including depreciation and obsolescence, plus a reasonable and economic profit or return, or both, on capital employed in the business sufficient to attract and retain capital in adequate amounts to provide a sound transportation system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. In a matter related to a railroad company providing transportation, the commission shall, upon its own motion or the motion of any interested person, exempt persons, classes of persons, transactions, or service from the provisions of this chapter as the commission determines are appropriate and in the public interest. The commission may begin a proceeding either upon its own motion or upon the motion of any interested person. Exemptions established under this section may be temporary, may be subject to revocation, or may be subject to any other conditions that the commission determines are required in the public interest.

Sec. 21. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 10, chapter 133, Laws of 1983 and RCW 42.17.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under section 16 of this act, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(2) The exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 64.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Railroad properties, including but not limited to rights-of-way, land held in fee and used for railroad operations, bridges, tunnels, and other facilities, are declared to be suitable for public use upon cessation of railroad operations on the properties. It is in the public interest of the state of Washington that such properties retain their character as public utility and transportation corridors, and that they may be made available for public uses including highways, other forms of mass transportation, conservation, energy production or transmission, or recreation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 64.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Public utility and transportation corridors are railroad properties (a) on which railroad operations have ceased; (b) that have been found suitable for public use by an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission of the United States; and (c) that have been acquired by purchase, lease, donation, exchange, or other agreement by the state, one of its political subdivisions, or a public utility.

(2) A public utility and transportation corridor retains its public use character as long as it is owned by a public agency or utility. A public utility and transportation corridor is not subject to reversion, taking by adverse possession, or any similar property interests ripening on the cessation of railroad operations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 10 through 20 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 81 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

CHAPTER 144

UNDERGROUND UTILITIES

AN ACT Relating to underground utilities; adding a new chapter to Title 19 RCW; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature in enacting this chapter to assign responsibilities for locating and keeping accurate records of utility locations, protecting and repairing damage to existing underground facilities, and protecting the public health and safety from interruption in utility services caused by damage to existing underground utility facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Business day" means any day other than Saturday, Sunday, or a legal local, state, or federal holiday.

(2) "Damage" includes the substantial weakening of structural or lateral support of an underground facility, penetration, impairment, or destruction of any underground protective coating, housing, or other protective device, or the severance, partial or complete, of any underground facility to the extent that the project owner or the affected utility owner determines that repairs are required.

(3) "Emergency" means any condition constituting a clear and present danger to life or property, or a customer service outage.

(4) "Excavation" means any operation in which earth, rock, or other material on or below the ground is moved or otherwise displaced by any means, except the tilling of soil less than twelve inches in depth for agricultural purposes, or road and ditch maintenance that does not change the original road grade or ditch flowline.

(5) "Excavator" means any person who engages directly in excavation.

(6) "Identified facility" means any underground facility which is indicated in the project plans as being located within the area of proposed excavation.

(7) "Identified but unlocatable underground facility" means an underground facility which has been identified but cannot be located with reasonable accuracy.

(8) "Locatable underground facility" means an underground facility which can be field-marked with reasonable accuracy.

(9) "Marking" means the use of stakes, paint, or other clearly identifiable materials to show the field location of underground facilities, in accordance with the current color code standard of the American public works association. Markings shall include identification letters indicating the specific type of the underground facility.

(10) "Person" means an individual, partnership, franchise holder, association, corporation, a state, a city, a county, or any subdivision or instrumentality of a state, and its employees, agents, or legal representatives.

(11) "Reasonable accuracy" means location within twenty-four inches of the outside dimensions of both sides of an underground facility.

(12) "Underground facility" means any item buried or placed below ground for use in connection with the storage or conveyance of water, sewage, electronic, telephonic or telegraphic communications, cablevision, electric energy, petroleum products, gas, gaseous vapors, hazardous liquids, or other substances and including but not limited to pipes, sewers, conduits, cables, valves, lines, wires, manholes, attachments, and those parts of poles or anchors below ground.

(13) "One-number locator service" means a service through which a person can notify utilities and request field-marking of underground facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Before commencing any excavation, the excavator shall provide notice of the scheduled commencement of excavation to all owners of underground facilities through a one-number locator service. If no one-number locator service is available, notice shall be provided individually to those owners of underground facilities known to or suspected of having underground facilities within the area of proposed excavation. The notice shall be communicated to the owners of underground facilities not less than two business days or more than ten business days before the scheduled date for commencement of excavation, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

Upon receipt of the notice provided for in this section, the owner of the underground facility shall provide the excavator with reasonably accurate information as to its locatable underground facilities by surface-marking the location of the facilities. If there are identified but unlocatable underground facilities, the owner of such facilities shall provide the excavator with the best available information as to their locations. The owner of the underground facility providing the information shall respond no later than two business days after the receipt of the notice or before the excavation time, at the option of the owner, unless otherwise agreed by the parties. Excavators shall not excavate until all known facilities have been marked. Once marked by the owner of the underground facility, the excavator is responsible for maintaining the markings. Excavators shall have the right to receive compensation from the owner of the underground facility for costs incurred if the owner of the underground facility does not locate its facilities in accordance with this section.

The owner of the underground facility shall have the right to receive compensation for costs incurred in responding to excavation notices given less than two business days prior to the excavation from the excavator.

An owner of underground facilities is not required to indicate the presence of existing service laterals or appurtenances if the presence of existing service laterals or appurtenances on the site of the construction project can be determined from the presence of other visible facilities, such as buildings, manholes, or meter and junction boxes on or adjacent to the construction site.

Emergency excavations are exempt from the time requirements for notification provided in this section.

If the excavator, while performing the contract, discovers underground facilities which are not identified, the excavator shall cease excavating in the vicinity of the facility and immediately notify the owner or operator of such facilities, or the one-number locator service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Project owners shall indicate in bid or contract documents the existence of underground facilities known by the project owner to be located within the proposed area of excavation. The following shall be deemed changed or differing site conditions:

(a) An underground facility not identified as required by this chapter or other provision of law; and

(b) An underground facility not located, as required by this chapter or other provision of law, by the project owner or excavator if the project owner or excavator is also a utility.

(2) An excavator shall use reasonable care to avoid damaging underground facilities. An excavator shall:

(a) Determine the precise location of underground facilities which have been marked;

(b) Plan the excavation to avoid damage to or minimize interference with underground facilities in and near the excavation area; and

(c) Provide such support for underground facilities in and near the construction area, including during backfill operations, as may be reasonably necessary for the protection of such facilities.

(3) If an underground facility is damaged and such damage is the consequence of the failure to fulfill an obligation under this chapter, the party failing to perform that obligation shall be liable for any damages. Any clause in an excavation contract which attempts to allocate liability, or requires indemnification to shift the economic consequences of liability, different from the provisions of this chapter is against public policy and unenforceable. Nothing in this chapter prevents the parties to an excavation contract from contracting with respect to the allocation of risk for changed or differing site conditions.

(4) In any action brought under this section, the prevailing party is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) An excavator who, in the course of excavation, contacts or damages an underground facility shall notify the utility owning or operating such facility and the one-number locator service. If the damage causes an emergency condition, the excavator causing the damage shall also alert the appropriate local public safety agencies and take all appropriate steps to ensure the public safety. No damaged underground facility may be buried until it is repaired or relocated.

(2) The owner of the underground facilities damaged shall arrange for repairs or relocation as soon as is practical or may permit the excavator to do necessary repairs or relocation at a mutually acceptable price.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. An excavation of less than twelve inches in vertical depth on private noncommercial property shall be exempt from the requirements of section 3 of this act, if the excavation is being performed by the person or an employee of the person who owns or occupies the property on which the excavation is being performed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Any person who violates any provision of this chapter, and which violation results in damage to underground facilities, is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each violation. All penalties recovered in such actions shall be deposited in the general fund.

(2) Any excavator who wilfully or maliciously damages a field-marked underground facility shall be liable for treble the costs incurred in repairing or relocating the facility. In those cases in which an excavator fails to notify known underground facility owners or the one-number locator service, any damage to the underground facility shall be deemed wilful and malicious and shall be subject to treble damages for costs incurred in repairing or relocating the facility.

(3) This chapter does not affect any civil remedies for personal injury or for property damage, including that to underground facilities, nor does this chapter create any new civil remedies for such damage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The notification and marking provisions of this chapter may be waived for one or more designated persons by an underground facility owner with respect to all or part of that underground facility owner's own underground facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 237, Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.37.467 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every automobile, truck, motorcycle, motor home, or off-road vehicle that is fueled by ~~((propane gas))~~ an alternative fuel source shall bear a reflective placard issued by the national fire protection association indicating that the vehicle is so fueled. ## CHAPTER 146

[House Bill No. 217]

PUBLIC WORKS PROJECTS—TRUST FUND FOR MECHANIC OR MATERIALMAN LIENS—FHA GRANT OR LOAN CONDITIONS

AN ACT Relating to public works; and amending section 14, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1982 and RCW 60.28.010.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 14, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1982 and RCW 60.28.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Contracts for public improvements or work, other than for professional services, by the state, or any county, city, town, district, board, or other public body, herein referred to as "public body", shall provide, and there shall be reserved by the public body from the moneys earned by the contractor on estimates during the progress of the improvement or work, a sum not to exceed five percent, said sum to be retained by the state, county, city, town, district, board, or other public body, as a trust fund for the protection and payment of any person or persons, mechanic, subcontractor or materialman who shall perform any labor upon such contract or the doing of said work, and all persons who shall supply such person or persons or subcontractors with provisions and supplies for the carrying on of such work, and the state with respect to taxes imposed pursuant to Title 82 RCW which may be due from such contractor. Every person performing labor or furnishing supplies toward the completion of said improvement or work shall have a lien upon said moneys so reserved: PROVIDED, That such notice of the lien of such claimant shall be given in the manner and within the time provided in RCW 39.08.030 as now existing and in accordance with any amendments that may hereafter be made thereto: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the board, council, commission, trustees, officer or body acting for the state, county or municipality or other public body; (a) at any time after fifty percent of the original contract work has been completed, if it finds that satisfactory progress is being made, may make any of the partial payments which would otherwise be subsequently made in full; but in no event shall the amount to be retained be reduced to less than five percent of the amount of the moneys earned by the contractor: PROVIDED, That the contractor may request that retainage be reduced to one hundred percent of the value of the work remaining on the project; and (b) thirty days after completion and acceptance of all contract work other than landscaping, may release and pay in full the amounts retained during the performance of the contract (other than continuing retention of five percent of the moneys earned for landscaping) subject to the provisions of RCW 60.28.020.

(2) The moneys reserved under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, at the option of the contractor, shall be:

(a) Retained in a fund by the public body until thirty days following the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed;

(b) Deposited by the public body in an interest bearing account in a bank, mutual savings bank, or savings and loan association, not subject to withdrawal until after the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed, or until agreed to by both parties: PROVIDED, That interest on such account shall be paid to the contractor;

(c) Placed in escrow with a bank or trust company by the public body until thirty days following the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed. When the moneys reserved are to be placed in escrow, the public body shall issue a check representing the sum of the moneys reserved payable to the bank or trust company and the contractor jointly. Such check shall be converted into bonds and securities chosen by the contractor and approved by the public body and such bonds and securities shall be held in escrow. Interest on such bonds and securities shall be paid to the contractor as the said interest accrues.

(3) The contractor or subcontractor may withhold payment of not more than five percent from the moneys earned by any subcontractor or sub-subcontractor or supplier contracted with by the contractor to provide labor, materials, or equipment to the public project. Whenever the contractor or subcontractor reserves funds earned by a subcontractor or sub-subcontractor or supplier, the contractor or subcontractor shall pay interest to the subcontractor or sub-subcontractor or supplier at a rate equal to that received by the contractor or subcontractor from reserved funds.

(4) With the consent of the public body the contractor may submit a bond for all or any portion of the amount of funds retained by the public body in a form acceptable to the public body. Such bond and any proceeds therefrom shall be made subject to all claims and liens and in the same manner and priority as set forth for retained percentages in this chapter. The public body shall release the bonded portion of the retained funds to the contractor within thirty days of accepting the bond from the contractor. Whenever a public body accepts a bond in lieu of retained funds from a contractor, the contractor shall accept like bonds from any subcontractors or suppliers from which the contractor has retained funds. The contractor shall then release the funds retained from the subcontractor or supplier to the subcontractor or supplier within thirty days of accepting the bond from the subcontractor or supplier.

(5) If the public body administering a contract, after a substantial portion of the work has been completed, finds that an unreasonable delay will occur in the completion of the remaining portion of the contract for any reason not the result of a breach thereof, it may, if the contractor agrees, delete from the contract the remaining work and accept as final the improvement at the stage of completion then attained and make payment in proportion to the amount of the work accomplished and in such case any amounts retained and accumulated under this section shall be held for a period of thirty days following such acceptance. In the event that the work shall have been terminated before final completion as provided in this section, the public body may thereafter enter into a new contract with the same contractor to perform the remaining work or improvement for an amount equal to or less than the cost of the remaining work as was provided for in the original contract without advertisement or bid. The provisions of this chapter 60.28 RCW shall be deemed exclusive and shall supersede all provisions and regulations in conflict herewith.

(6) Whenever the department of transportation has contracted for the construction of two or more ferry vessels, thirty days after completion and final acceptance of each ferry vessel, the department may release and pay in full the amounts retained in connection with the construction of such vessel subject to the provisions of RCW 60.28.020: PROVIDED, That the department of transportation may at its discretion condition the release of funds retained in connection with the completed ferry upon the contractor delivering a good and sufficient bond with two or more sureties, or with a surety company, in the amount of the retained funds to be released to the contractor, conditioned that no taxes shall be certified or claims filed for work on such ferry after a period of thirty days following final acceptance of such ferry; and if such taxes are certified or claims filed, recovery may be had on such bond by the department of revenue and the materialmen and laborers filing claims.

(7) On projects commenced after the effective date of this 1984 act, the trust fund established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may be reserved for the protection of the owner or owners of such public improvements when specifically required by regulations of the farmers home administration for the provision of grant or loan funds administered by that agency.

The enumeration in RCW 7.24.020(~~;~~) and 7.24.030 (~~(and 7.24.040)~~) does not limit or restrict the exercise of the general powers conferred in RCW 7.24.010, in any proceeding where declaratory relief is sought, in which a judgment or decree will terminate the controversy or remove an uncertainty.

Sec. 4. Section 11.02.005, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 14, chapter 80, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 11.02.005 are each amended to read as follows:

When used in this title, unless otherwise required from the context:

(1) "Personal representative" includes executor, administrator, special administrator, and guardian or limited guardian and special representative.

(2) "Net estate" refers to the real and personal property of a decedent exclusive of homestead rights, exempt property, the family allowance and enforceable claims against, and debts of, the estate.

(3) "Representation" refers to a method of determining distribution in which the takers are in unequal degrees of kinship with respect to the intestate, and is accomplished as follows: After first determining who, of those entitled to share in the estate, are in the nearest degree of kinship, the estate is divided into equal shares, the number of shares being the sum of the number of persons who survive the intestate who are in the nearest degree of kinship and the number of persons in the same degree of kinship who died before the intestate but who left issue surviving the intestate; each share of a deceased person in the nearest degree shall be divided among those of (~~his~~) the intestate's issue who survive the intestate and have no ancestor then living who is in the line of relationship between them and the intestate, those more remote in degree taking together the share which their ancestor would have taken had he or she survived the intestate. Posthumous children are considered as living at the death of their parent.

(4) "Issue" includes all the lawful lineal descendants of the ancestor and all lawfully adopted children.

(5) "Degree of kinship" (~~shall~~) means the degree of kinship as computed according to the rules of the civil law; that is, by counting upward from the intestate to the nearest common ancestor and then downward to the relative, the degree of kinship being the sum of these two counts.

(6) "Heirs" denotes those persons, including the surviving spouse, who are entitled under the statutes of intestate succession to the real and personal property of a decedent on ~~((his))~~ the decedent's death intestate.

(7) "Real estate" includes, except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and all rights thereto, and all interest therein possessed and claimed in fee simple, or for the life of a third person.

(8) "Will~~((s))~~" means an instrument validly executed as required by RCW 11.12.020 and includes all codicils.

(9) "Codicil" ~~((shall))~~ means an instrument that is validly executed in the manner provided by this title for ~~((wills, which))~~ a will and that refers to an existing will for the purpose of altering or changing the same, and which need not be attached thereto.

(10) "Guardian" or "limited guardian" means a personal representative of the person or estate of an incompetent or disabled person as defined in RCW 11.88.010 and the term may be used in lieu of "personal representative" wherever required by context.

(11) "Administrator" means a personal representative of the estate of a decedent and the term may be used in lieu of "personal representative" wherever required by context.

(12) "Executor" means a personal representative of the estate of a decedent appointed by will and the term may be used in lieu of "personal representative" wherever required by context.

(13) "Special administrator" means a personal representative of the estate of a decedent appointed for limited purposes and the term may be used in lieu of "personal representative" wherever required by context.

(14) "Trustee" means an original, added, or successor trustee and includes the state, or any agency thereof, when it is acting as the trustee of a trust to which chapter 11.98 RCW applies.

(15) Words that import the singular number ~~((only;))~~ may also be applied to the plural of persons and things.

~~((+5))~~ (16) Words importing the masculine gender only may be extended to females also.

Sec. 5. Section 11.12.250, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.12.250 are each amended to read as follows:

A ~~((devise or bequest))~~ gift may be made by a will to a trustee ~~((or trustees))~~ of a trust ~~((created))~~ executed by ~~((the testator and/or some other person or persons))~~ any trustor or testator (including a funded or unfunded life insurance trust, although the trustor has reserved any or all rights of ownership of the insurance contracts) ~~((established by written instrument executed before or concurrently with the execution of such will))~~ if (1) the trust is identified in the testator's will and (2) its terms are evidenced either (a) in a written instrument other than a will, executed by the trustor prior to or concurrently with the execution of the testator's will or

(b) in the will of a person who has predeceased the testator, regardless of when executed. The existence, size, or character of the corpus of the trust is immaterial to the validity of the gift. Such ~~((devise or bequest))~~ gift shall not be invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or both, or because the trust was amended after the execution of the testator's will or after the testator's death. Unless the will provides otherwise, the property so ~~((devised or bequeathed))~~ given shall not be deemed to be held under a testamentary trust of the testator but shall become a part of the trust to which it is given to be administered and disposed of in accordance with the ~~((provisions))~~ terms of the instrument establishing ~~((such))~~ the trust, including any amendments ~~((thereto))~~, made prior to the death of the testator, and regardless of whether made before or after the execution of the will. ~~((An entire))~~ Unless the will provides otherwise, an express revocation of the trust prior to the testator's death ~~((shall))~~ invalidate~~s~~ the ~~((devise or bequest))~~ gift. Any termination of the trust other than by express revocation does not invalidate the gift. For purposes of this section, the term "gift" includes the exercise of any testamentary power of appointment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 11.12 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.12.255 to read as follows:

INCORPORATION BY REFERENCE. A will may incorporate by reference any writing in existence when the will is executed if the will itself manifests the testator's intent to incorporate the writing and describes the writing sufficiently to permit its identification. In the case of any inconsistency between the writing and the will, the will controls.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 11.12 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.12.260 to read as follows:

SEPARATE WRITING IDENTIFIES BEQUEST OF TANGIBLE PERSONALTY. (1) A will may refer to a writing that directs disposition of tangible personal property not otherwise specifically disposed of by the will other than property used primarily in trade or business. Such a writing shall not be effective unless: (a) An unrevoked will refers to the writing, (b) the writing is either in the handwriting of, or signed by, the testator, and (c) the writing describes the items and the recipients of the property with reasonable certainty.

(2) The writing may be written or signed before or after the execution of the will and need not have significance apart from its effect upon the dispositions of property made by the will. A writing that meets the requirements of this section shall be given effect as if it were actually contained in the will itself, except that if any person designated to receive property in the writing dies before the testator, the property shall pass as further directed in the writing and in the absence of any further directions, the disposition shall lapse and RCW 11.12.110 shall not apply to such lapse.

(3) The testator may make subsequent handwritten or signed changes to any writing. If there is an inconsistent disposition of tangible personal property as between writings, the most recent writing controls.

(4) As used in this section "tangible personal property" means articles of personal or household use or ornament, for example, furniture, furnishings, automobiles, boats, airplanes, and jewelry, as well as precious metals in any tangible form, for example, bullion or coins. The term includes articles even if held for investment purposes and encompasses tangible property that is not real property. The term does not include mobile homes or intangible property, for example, money that is normal currency or normal legal tender, evidences of indebtedness, bank accounts or other monetary deposits, documents of title, or securities.

Sec. 8. Section 11.28.240, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.28.240 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time after the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration or certificate of qualification upon the estate of any decedent, any person interested in ~~((said))~~ the estate as an heir, devisee, distributee, legatee or creditor whose claim has been duly served and filed, or ~~((attorney))~~ the lawyer for ~~((such))~~ the heir, devisee, distributee, legatee, or creditor may serve upon the personal representative ~~((f))~~ or upon the ~~((attorney))~~ lawyer for ~~((such))~~ the personal representative ~~((f))~~, and file with the clerk of the court wherein the administration of ~~((such))~~ the estate is pending, a written request stating that ~~((he))~~ the person desires special notice of any or all of the following named matters, steps or proceedings in the administration of ~~((said))~~ the estate, to wit:

- (1) Filing of petitions for sales, leases, exchanges or mortgages of any property of the estate.
- (2) Petitions for any order of solvency or for nonintervention powers.
- (3) Filing of accounts.
- (4) Filing of petitions for distribution.

- (8) Notice of presentation of personal representative's claim against the estate.
- (9) Petition to continue a going business.
- (10) Petition to borrow upon the general credit of the estate.
- (11) Petition for judicial proceeding under chapter 11.96 RCW.
- (12) Petition to reopen an estate.
- (13) Intent to distribute estate assets, other than distributions in satisfaction of specific bequests or legacies of specific dollar amounts.
- (14) Intent to pay attorney's or personal representative's fees.

~~((Such))~~ The requests shall state the post office address of ~~((such))~~ the heir, devisee, distributee, legatee or creditor, or his ~~((attorney))~~ or her lawyer, and thereafter a brief notice of the filing of any of ~~((such))~~ the petitions, accounts, declaration, inventory or claim, except petitions for sale of perishable property, or other tangible personal property which will incur expense or loss by keeping, shall be addressed to ~~((such))~~ the heir, devisee, distributee, legatee or creditor, or his ~~((attorney))~~ or her lawyer, at ~~((his stated))~~ the post office address stated in the request, and deposited in the United States post office, with ~~((the))~~ prepaid postage ~~((thereon-prepaid))~~, at least ten days before the hearing of ~~((such))~~ the petition, account or claim or of the proposed distribution or payment of fees; or personal service of ~~((such))~~ the notices may be made on ~~((such))~~ the heir, devisee, distributee, legatee, ~~((or))~~ creditor, or ~~((attorney))~~ lawyer, not less than five days before ~~((such))~~ the hearing, and ~~((such))~~ the personal service shall ~~((be equivalent to such))~~ have the same effect as deposit in the post office, and proof of mailing or of personal service must be filed with the clerk before the hearing of ~~((such))~~ the petition, account or claim or of the proposed distribution or payment of fees. If ~~((upon the hearing it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the said))~~ the notice has been regularly given, ~~((the court shall so find in its))~~ any distribution or payment of fees and any order or judgment, ~~((and such judgment shall be))~~ made in accord therewith is final and conclusive.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 11.36 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.36.021 to read as follows:

Sec. 10. Section 21, chapter 117, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 11.68.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any personal representative acting under nonintervention powers(;) may borrow money on the general credit of the estate and may mortgage, encumber, lease, sell, exchange, ((and)) convey ((the real and personal property of the decedent, and borrow money on the general credit of the estate)), and otherwise do anything a trustee may do under chapters 11.98, 11.100, and 11.102 RCW with regard to the assets of the estate, both real and personal, all without an order of court ((for that purpose)) and without notice, approval, or confirmation, and in all other respects administer and settle the estate of the decedent without intervention of court. Any ((other)) party to any such transaction and his or her successors in interest shall be entitled to have it conclusively presumed that ((such)) the transaction is necessary for the administration of the decedent's estate.

Sec. 11. Section 23, chapter 117, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 26, chapter 234, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 11.68.110 are each amended to read as follows:

If a personal representative who has acquired nonintervention powers ((shall)) does not apply to the court for either of the final decrees provided for in RCW 11.68.100 as now or hereafter amended, the personal representative shall, when the administration of the estate has been completed, file a declaration to that effect, which declaration shall state as follows:

(1) The date of the decedent's death, and ((his)) the decedent's residence at the time of death, whether or not the decedent died testate or intestate, and if testate, the date of ((his)) the decedent's last will and testament and the date of the order admitting ((said)) the will to probate;

(3) The personal representative has completed the administration of the decedent's estate without court intervention, and the estate is ready to be closed;

(4) If the decedent died intestate, the names, addresses (if known), and relationship of each heir of the decedent, together with the distributive share of each ((said)) heir; and

(5) The amount of fees paid or to be paid to each of the following: (a) Personal representative or representatives, (b) ((attorney or attorneys)) lawyer or lawyers, (c) appraiser or appraisers, and (d) accountant or accountants; and that the personal representative believes ((said)) the fees to be reasonable and does not intend to obtain court approval of the amount of ((said)) the fees or to submit an estate accounting to the court for approval.

Subject to the requirement of notice as provided in this section, unless an heir, devisee, or legatee of a decedent ((shall)) petitions the court either for an order requiring the personal representative to obtain court approval of the amount of fees paid or to be paid to the personal representative, ~~((his attorneys))~~ lawyers, appraisers, or accountants, or for an order requiring an accounting, or both, within thirty days from the date of filing a declaration of completion of probate, the personal representative will be automatically discharged without further order of the court and ~~((his))~~ the representative's powers will cease thirty days after the filing of ((said)) the declaration of completion of probate, and ((said)) the declaration of completion of probate shall, at ((said)) that time, be the equivalent of the entry of a decree of distribution in accordance with ((the provisions of)) chapter 11.76 RCW for all legal intents and purposes.

Within five days of the date of the filing of the declaration of completion, the personal representative or ~~((his attorney))~~ the representative's lawyer shall mail a copy of ~~((said))~~ the declaration of completion to each heir, legatee, or devisee of the decedent (who has not waived notice of said filing, in writing, filed in the cause) together with a notice which shall be substantially as follows:

Sec. 12. Section 11.92.040, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 32, Laws of 1979 and RCW 11.92.040 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the guardian or limited guardian:

(1) To make out and file within three months after his or her appointment a verified inventory of all the property of the incompetent or disabled person which ~~((staff))~~ comes to his or her possession or knowledge, including a statement of all encumbrances, liens, and other secured charges on any item;

(2) To file annually, within thirty days after the anniversary date of ~~((his))~~ the guardian's or limited guardian's appointment, and also within thirty days after termination of ~~((his))~~ the appointment, a written verified account of ~~((his))~~ the administration: PROVIDED, That the court in its discretion may allow ~~((such))~~ reports at intervals of up to thirty-six months, with instruction to the guardian or limited guardian that any substantial increase in income or assets or substantial change in the incompetent's or disabled person's condition shall be reported within thirty days of ~~((such))~~ the substantial increase or change;

(3) Consistent with the powers granted by the court, if he or she is a guardian or limited guardian of the person, to care for and maintain the incompetent or disabled person, assert his or her rights and best interests, and provide timely, informed consent to necessary medical procedures, and if the incompetent or disabled person is a minor, to see that the incompetent or disabled person is properly trained and educated and that the incompetent or disabled person has the opportunity to learn a trade, occupation, or profession. As provided in RCW 11.88.125 as now or hereafter amended, the standby guardian may provide timely, informed consent to necessary medical procedures if the guardian or limited guardian cannot be located within four hours after the need for such consent arises. The guardian or limited guardian of the person may be required to report the condition of his or her incompetent or disabled person to the court, at regular intervals or otherwise as the court may direct: PROVIDED, That no guardian, limited guardian, or standby guardian may involuntarily commit for mental health treatment, observation, or evaluation an alleged incompetent or disabled person who is, himself or herself, unable or unwilling to give informed consent to such commitment unless the procedures for involuntary commitment set forth in chapters 71.05 or 72.23 RCW are followed: PROVIDED

FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be construed to allow a guardian, limited guardian, or standby guardian to consent to:

- (a) Therapy or other procedure which induces convulsion;
- (b) Surgery solely for the purpose of psychosurgery;
- (c) Amputation;

(d) Other psychiatric or mental health procedures which are intrusive on the person's body integrity, physical freedom of movement, or the rights set forth in RCW 71.05.370.

A guardian, limited guardian, or standby guardian who believes such procedures to be necessary for the proper care and maintenance of the incompetent or disabled person shall petition the court for an order unless the court has previously approved ((such)) that procedure within thirty days immediately past. The court may make such order only after an attorney is appointed in accordance with RCW 11.88.045, as now or hereafter amended, if none has heretofore appeared, notice is given, and a hearing is held in accordance with RCW 11.88.040, as now or hereafter amended;

(4) If he or she is a guardian or limited guardian of the estate, to protect and preserve it, to apply it as provided in this chapter, to account for it faithfully, to perform all of the duties required ((of him)) by law, and at the termination of the guardianship or limited guardianship, to deliver the assets of the incompetent or disabled person to the persons entitled thereto. Except as provided to the contrary herein, the court may authorize a guardian or limited guardian to do anything that a trustee can do under the provisions of RCW ((30.99.070)) 11.98.070 for a period not exceeding one year from the date of the order or for a period corresponding to the interval in which the guardian's or limited guardian's report is required to be filed by the court pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, whichever period is longer;

(5) To invest and reinvest the property of the incompetent or disabled person in accordance with the rules applicable to investment of trust estates by trustees as provided in chapter ((30.24)) 11.100 RCW, except that:

(a) No investments shall be made without prior order of the court in any property other than unconditional interest bearing obligations of this state or of the United States and in obligations the interest and principal of which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States, and in share accounts or deposits which are insured by an agency of the United States government. Such prior order of the court may authorize specific investments, or, in the discretion of the court, may authorize the guardian or limited guardian during a period not exceeding one year following the date of the order or for a period corresponding to the interval in which the guardian's or limited guardian's report is required to be filed by the court pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, whichever period is longer, to invest and reinvest as provided in chapter ((30.24)) 11.100 RCW without further order of the court;

(b) If it is for the best interests of the incompetent or disabled person that a specific property be used by the incompetent or disabled person rather than sold and the proceeds invested, the court may so order;

(6) To apply to the court for an order authorizing any disbursement on behalf of the incompetent or disabled person: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the guardian or limited guardian of the estate, or the person, department, bureau, agency, or charitable organization having the care and custody of an incompetent or disabled person, may apply to the court for an order directing the guardian or limited guardian of the estate to pay to the person, department, bureau, agency, or charitable organization having the care and custody of an incompetent or disabled person, or if the guardian or limited guardian of the estate has the care and custody of the incompetent or disabled person, directing the guardian or limited guardian of the estate to apply an amount weekly, monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, as the court may direct, to be expended in the care, maintenance, and education of the incompetent or disabled person and of his or her dependents. In proper cases, the court may order payment of amounts directly to the incompetent or disabled person for his or her maintenance or incidental expenses. The amounts authorized under this section may be decreased or increased from time to time by direction of the court. If payments are made to another under ((such)) an order of the court, the guardian or limited guardian of the estate is not bound to see to the application thereof.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 11.92 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.92.140 to read as follows:

GIFTS FROM GUARDIANSHIP FUNDS. The court, upon the petition of a guardian of the estate of an incompetent or disabled person (collectively hereafter referred to in this section as "incompetent"), other than the guardian of a minor, and after such notice as the court directs and other notice to all persons interested as required by chapter 11.96 RCW, may authorize the guardian to take any action, or to apply funds not required for the incompetent's own maintenance and support, in any fashion the court approves as being in keeping with the incompetent's wishes so far as they can be ascertained and as designed to minimize insofar as possible current or prospective state or federal income and estate taxes, and to provide for gifts to such charities, relatives, and friends as would be likely recipients of donations from the incompetent.

The action or application of funds may include but shall not be limited to the making of gifts, to the conveyance or release of the incompetent's contingent and expectant interests in property including marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety, to the exercise or release of the incompetent's powers as donee of a power of appointment, the making of contracts, the creation of revocable or irrevocable trusts of property of the incompetent's estate which may extend beyond the incompetent's disability or life, the exercise of options of the incompetent to purchase securities or other property, the exercise of the incompetent's right to elect options and to change beneficiaries under insurance and annuity policies and the surrendering of policies for their cash value, the exercise of the incompetent's right to any elective share in the estate of the incompetent's deceased spouse, and the renunciation or disclaimer of any interest acquired by testate or intestate succession or by inter vivos transfer.

The guardian in the petition shall briefly outline the action or application of funds for which approval is sought, the results expected to be accomplished thereby and the tax savings expected to accrue. The proposed action or application of funds may include gifts of the incompetent's personal or real property. Gifts may be for the benefit of prospective legatees, devisees, or heirs apparent of the incompetent, or may be made to individuals or charities in which the incompetent is believed to have an interest. Gifts may or may not, in the discretion of the court, be treated as advancements to donees who would otherwise inherit property from the incompetent under the incompetent's will or under the laws of descent and distribution. The guardian shall also indicate in the petition that any planned disposition is consistent with the intentions of the incompetent insofar as the intentions can be ascertained, and if the incompetent's intentions cannot be ascertained, the incompetent will be presumed to favor reduction in the incidence of the various forms of taxation and the partial distribution of the incompetent's estate as provided in this section. The guardian shall not, however, be required to include as a beneficiary any person whom there is reason to believe would be excluded by the incompetent. No guardian may be required to file a petition as provided in this section, and a failure or refusal to so petition the court does not constitute a breach of the guardian's fiduciary duties.

Sec. 14. Section 11.92.150, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 30, chapter 95, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 11.92.150 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time after the issuance of letters of guardianship in the estate of any incompetent or disabled person, any person interested in ~~((said))~~ the estate, or in ~~((such))~~ the incompetent or disabled person, or any relative of ~~((such))~~ the incompetent or disabled person, or any authorized representative of any agency, bureau, or department of the United States government from or through which any compensation, insurance, pension or other benefit is being paid, or is payable, may serve upon ~~((such))~~ the guardian or limited guardian, or upon the attorney for ~~((such))~~ the guardian or limited guardian, and file with the clerk of the court ~~((wherein))~~ where the administration of ~~((such))~~ the guardianship or limited guardianship estate is pending, a written request stating that special written notice is desired of any or all of the following matters, steps or proceedings in the administration of ~~((such))~~ the estate:

(1) Filing of petition for sales, exchanges, leases, mortgages, or grants of easements, licenses, or similar interests in any property of the estate.

(2) Filing of all intermediate or final accountings or accountings of any nature whatsoever.

(3) Petitions by the guardian or limited guardian for family allowances or allowances for the incompetent or disabled person or any other allowance of every nature from the funds of the estate.

(4) Petitions for the investment of the funds of the estate.

(5) Petition to terminate guardianship or limited guardianship or petition for adjudication of competency.

(6) Petition for judicial proceedings under chapter 11.96 RCW.

~~((Such))~~ The request for special written notice shall designate the name, address and post office address of the person upon whom ~~((such))~~ the notice is to be served and no service shall be required under this section and RCW 11.92.160 as now or hereafter amended other than in accordance with ~~((such))~~ the designation unless and until a new designation ~~((shall have))~~ has been made.

When any account, petition, or proceeding is filed in ~~((such))~~ the estate of which special written notice is requested ~~((as herein provided))~~, the court shall fix a time for hearing ~~((thereon))~~ which shall allow at least ten days for service of ~~((such))~~ the notice before ~~((such))~~ the hearing; and notice of ~~((such))~~ the hearing shall be served upon the person designated in ~~((such))~~ the written request at least ten days before the date fixed for ~~((such))~~ the hearing. The service may be made by leaving a copy with the person designated, or ~~((his))~~ that person's authorized representative, or by mailing through the United States mail, with postage prepaid to the person and place designated.

Sec. 17. Section 2, chapter 202, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 2, chapter 88, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 21.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((An adult))~~ A person who is eighteen years or older may, outright or by a trust agreement executed during his or her lifetime(;) or by ~~((testamentary disposition))~~ will, make or provide for a gift of ~~((a security, a life insurance policy or annuity contract or money))~~ tangible or intangible personal property, including securities, money, life insurance policies, annuity contracts, or real property interests to a person who is a minor on the date of the gift or distribution:

(a) If the subject of the gift is a security in registered form, by registering it in the name of the donor, another ~~((adult))~~ person who is eighteen years or older, or a trust company, followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the Washington uniform gifts to minors act"((-));

(b) If the subject of the gift is a security not in registered form, by delivering it to ((an adult)) a person who is eighteen years or older other than the donor or a trust company accompanied by a statement of gift in the following form, in substance, signed by the donor and the person designated as custodian:

"GIFT UNDER THE WASHINGTON UNIFORM GIFTS TO MINORS ACT

I, (name of donor), hereby deliver to (name of custodian) as custodian for (name of minor) under the Washington uniform gifts to minors act, the following ((security(ies))) property: (Insert an appropriate description of the ((security or securities)) tangible or intangible property delivered sufficient to identify it or them) ..... (signature of donor) (name of custodian) hereby acknowledges receipt of the above described ((security(ies))) property as custodian for the above minor under the Washington uniform gifts to minors act.

Dated: ..... (signature of custodian)";

(c) If the subject of the gift is money, by paying or delivering it to a broker or a financial institution for credit to an account in the name of the donor, another ((adult)) person who is eighteen years or older, or a trust company, followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the Washington uniform gifts to minors act((-));

(d) If the subject of the gift is a real property interest and constitutes a recordable interest or charge in or against real property in the records of the county auditor or recorder, by registering it in the name of the donor, another person who is eighteen years or older, or a trust company, followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the Washington uniform gifts to minors act";

(e) If the subject of the gift is a life insurance policy or annuity contract, by causing the ownership of the policy or contract to be registered with the issuing insurance company in the name of the donor, another ((adult)) person who is eighteen years or older, or a trust company, followed, in substance, by the words: "as custodian for (name of minor) under the Washington uniform gifts to minors act"((-);

(f) If the gift is by will or as a distribution under a trust agreement, by the legal representative or trustee delivering the subject of the gift to the person, who is eighteen years or older, or a trust company designated by the decedent or settlor to serve as custodian for the minor under the Washington uniform gifts to minors act or similar uniform act of the domicile of the designated custodian and causing the subject of the gift to be registered in the name of that custodian, followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the Washington (or, alternatively, state of the custodian's domicile) uniform gifts to minor's act." If the decedent or settlor fails to designate a specific custodian or if the designated custodian dies or is unable or unwilling to serve, the legal representative, with the approval of the court having jurisdiction over the decedent's estate, or the trustee may designate a member of the minor's family who is eighteen years or older, a guardian of the minor, or a trust company as custodian. The legal representative or trustee may designate himself or herself as custodian, provided he or she falls within the class of persons or entities permitted in this subsection. The custodian's receipt constitutes a sufficient release and discharge of further accountability by the legal representative or trustee for the gift and acceptance of the custodianship by the custodian.

(2) ~~(Any)~~ Each gift made in a manner prescribed in subsection (1) of this section may be made to only one minor and only one person may be the custodian.

(3) A donor who makes a gift to a minor in a manner prescribed in subsection (1) of this section shall promptly do all things within his or her power to put the subject of the gift in the possession and control of the custodian, but neither the donor's failure to comply with this subsection, nor his or her designation of an ineligible person as custodian, nor renunciation by the person designated as custodian affects the consummation of the gift.

(4) The legal representative of an estate to whom a certificate of qualification, or letters testamentary or of administration are issued may, with the approval of the court having jurisdiction over the decedent's estate, or the trustee of a trust of which a minor is a distributee or beneficiary may pay or transfer to a custodian for the minor under this chapter or a similar uniform act of the jurisdiction in which the minor may be domiciled, in the form and manner prescribed in subsection (1) (a) through (e) of this section or comparable provisions of the uniform act of the other jurisdiction, any money, security, or other property qualifying for custodial gifts which is distributable to the minor. The legal representative or trustee may make distribution in this manner if the legal representative or the trustee deems it to be in the best interests of the minor, except where the decedent, settlor, or court authorizing the distribution has expressly directed that distribution of the property due that minor shall not be made in the manner provided for in this subsection. The legal representative, with the approval of the court having jurisdiction over the decedent's estate, or the trustee shall designate a member of the minor's family who is eighteen years or older, a guardian of the minor, or a trust company as custodian. The legal representative or trustee may designate himself or herself as custodian, provided he or she falls within the class of persons or entities permitted in this subsection. This chapter governs the custodianship in the same manner as though the legal representative or trustee were the donor. The custodian's receipt constitutes a sufficient release of the transferor and discharge of further accountability by the legal representative or trustee for the property distributed and acceptance of the custodianship by the custodian.

(5) Only property that could be the subject of a lifetime gift under this chapter may be distributed under subsections (1)(f) and (4) of this section.

(6) This section is applicable to gifts made before or after the effective date of this 1984 act and regardless of whether the persons who made the gifts are alive on that date.

Sec. 18. Section 3, chapter 202, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 3, chapter 88, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 21.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A gift made in a manner prescribed in this chapter is irrevocable and conveys to the minor indefeasibly vested legal title to the security, real property, life insurance policy, annuity contract or money given, but no guardian of the minor has any right, power, duty, or authority with respect to the custodial property except as provided in this chapter.

(2) By making a gift in a manner prescribed in this chapter, the donor incorporates in ~~((his))~~ the gift all the provisions of this chapter and grants to the custodian, and to any issuer, transfer agent, bank, financial institution, life insurance company, broker or third person dealing with a person designated as custodian, the respective powers, rights, and immunities provided in this chapter.

Sec. 19. Section 4, chapter 202, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 31, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 21.24.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The custodian shall collect, hold, manage, invest and reinvest the custodial property.

(2) The custodian shall pay over to the minor for expenditure by ~~((him))~~ the minor, or expend for the minor's benefit, so much of or all the custodial property as the custodian deems advisable for the support, maintenance, education, and benefit of the minor in the manner, at the time or times, and to the extent that the custodian in ~~((his))~~ the custodian's discretion deems suitable and proper, with or without court order, with or without regard to the duty of ~~((himself))~~ the custodian or of any other person to support the minor or his or her ability to do so, and with or without regard to any other income or property of the minor which may be applicable or available for any such purpose.

(3) The court, on the petition of a parent or guardian of the minor or of the minor, if ~~((he))~~ the minor has attained the age of fourteen years, may order the custodian to pay over to the minor for expenditure by ~~((him))~~ the minor or to expend so much of or all the custodial property as is necessary for the minor's support, maintenance or education.

(4) To the extent that the custodial property is not so expended, the custodian shall deliver or pay it over to the minor on ~~((his))~~ attaining the age of ~~((eighteen))~~ twenty-one years, or, if the minor dies before attaining the age of ~~((eighteen))~~ twenty-one years, ~~((he))~~ the custodian shall thereupon deliver or pay it over to the estate of the minor.

(5) The custodian, notwithstanding statutes restricting investments by fiduciaries, shall invest and reinvest the custodial property as would a prudent ~~((man))~~ person of discretion and intelligence who is seeking a reasonable income and the preservation of ~~((his))~~ capital, except that ~~((he))~~ the custodian may, in his or her discretion and without liability to the minor or ~~((his))~~ the minor's estate, retain a security given to the minor in a manner prescribed in this chapter or hold money so given in an account in a financial institution to which it was paid or delivered by the donor.

(6) The custodian may sell, exchange, convert, surrender or otherwise dispose of custodial property in the manner, at the time or times, for the price or prices and upon the terms ~~((he))~~ the custodian deems advisable. ~~((He))~~ The custodian may vote in person or by general or limited proxy a security which is custodial property. ~~((He))~~ The custodian may consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution or liquidation of an issuer, a security which is custodial property, and to the sale, lease, pledge, or mortgage of any property by or to such an issuer, and to any other action by such an issuer. ~~((He))~~ The custodian may execute and deliver any and all instruments in writing which ~~((he))~~ the custodian deems advisable to carry out any ~~((of his powers))~~ power as custodian.

(7) The custodian shall register each security which is custodial property and in registered form in the name of the custodian, followed, in substance, by the words: "as custodian for (name of minor) under the Washington uniform gifts to minors act". The custodian shall hold all money which is custodial property in an account with a broker or in an insured financial institution in the name of the custodian, followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the Washington uniform gifts to minors act". The custodian shall keep all other custodial property separate and distinct from ~~((his))~~ the custodian's own property in a manner to identify it clearly as custodial property.

(8) The custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to the custodial property and make them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by a parent or legal representative of the minor or by the minor, if ~~((he))~~ the minor has attained the age of fourteen years.

(9) A custodian has, with respect to the custodial property, in addition to the rights and powers provided in this chapter, all the rights and powers which a guardian has with respect to property not held as custodial property, and all the rights and powers of a trustee under RCW 11.98.070.

(10) If the subject of the gift is a life insurance policy or annuity contract, the custodian:

(a) In ~~((his))~~ the capacity as custodian, has all the incidents of ownership in the policy or contract to the same extent as if ~~((he))~~ the custodian were the owner, except that the designated beneficiary of any policy or contract on the life of the minor shall be the minor's estate and the designated beneficiary of any policy or contract on the life of a person other than the minor shall be the custodian as custodian for the minor for whom ~~((he))~~ the custodian is acting; and

(b) May pay premiums on the policy or contract out of the custodial property.

Sec. 20. Section 5, chapter 202, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A custodian is entitled to reimbursement from the custodial property for ~~((his))~~ reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of ~~((his))~~ custodial duties.

(2) A custodian may act without compensation for ~~((his))~~ services.

(3) Unless he or she is a donor, a custodian may receive from the custodial property reasonable compensation for his or her services determined by one of the following standards in the order stated:

(a) A direction by the donor when the gift is made; or

(b) An order of the court.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a custodian shall not be required to give a bond for the performance of his or her duties.

(5) A custodian not compensated for ~~((his))~~ services is not liable for losses to the custodial property unless they result from ~~((his))~~ bad faith, intentional wrongdoing, or gross negligence, or from ~~((his))~~ failure to maintain the standard of prudence in investing the custodial property provided in this chapter.

Sec. 21. Section 6, chapter 202, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 5, chapter 88, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 21.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

No issuer, transfer agent, bank, life insurance company, broker or other person or financial institution acting on the instructions of or otherwise dealing with any person purporting to act as a donor or in the capacity of a custodian is responsible for determining whether the person designated as custodian by the purported donor or by the custodian or purporting to act as a custodian has been duly designated or whether any purchase, sale or transfer to or by or any other act of any person purporting to act in the capacity of custodian is in accordance with or authorized by this chapter, or is obliged to inquire into the validity or propriety under this chapter of any instrument of instructions executed or given by a person purporting to act as a donor or in the capacity of a custodian, or is bound to see to the application by any person purporting to act in the capacity of a custodian of any money or other property paid or delivered to ~~((him))~~ the custodian. No issuer, transfer agent, bank, life insurance company, broker or other person or financial institution acting on any instrument of designation of a successor custodian, executed as provided in subsection (1) of RCW (~~(21.24.070, as now or hereafter amended,)~~) 11.93.070 by a minor to whom a gift has been made in a manner prescribed in this chapter, and who has attained the age of fourteen years, is responsible for determining whether the person designated by the minor as successor custodian has been duly designated, or is obliged to inquire into the validity or propriety under this chapter of the instrument of designation.

Sec. 22. Section 7, chapter 202, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 32, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 21.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Only ~~((an adult))~~ a member of the minor's family who is eighteen years or older, a guardian of the minor, or a trust company is eligible to become successor custodian. A custodian may designate ~~((his))~~ a successor by executing and dating an instrument of designation before a subscribing witness other than the successor; the instrument of designation may but need not contain the resignation of the custodian. If the custodian does not so designate ~~((his))~~ a successor before ~~((he))~~ the custodian dies or becomes legally incapacitated~~((;))~~ and the minor has attained the age of fourteen years, the minor may designate a successor custodian by executing an instrument of designation before a subscribing witness other than the successor. A successor custodian has all the rights, powers, duties, and immunities of a custodian designated in a manner prescribed by this chapter.

(2) The designation of a successor custodian as provided in subsection (1) takes effect as to each item of the custodial property when the custodian resigns, dies, or becomes legally incapacitated and the custodian or his or her legal representative:

(a) Causes the item if it is a security in registered form or a life insurance policy or annuity contract, to be registered, with the issuing insurance company in the case of a life insurance policy or annuity contract, in the name of the successor custodian followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the Washington uniform gifts to minors act"; and

(b) Delivers or causes to be delivered to the successor custodian any other item of the custodial property, together with the instrument of designation of the successor custodian or a true copy thereof and any additional instruments required for the transfer thereof to the successor custodian.

(3) A custodian who executes an instrument of designation of ~~((his))~~ a successor containing the custodian's resignation as provided in subsection (1) of this section shall promptly do all things within his or her power to put each item of the custodial property in the possession and control of the successor custodian named in the instrument. The legal representative of a custodian who dies or becomes legally incapacitated shall promptly do all things within his or her power to put each item of the custodial property in the possession and control of the successor custodian named in an instrument of designation executed as provided in subsection (1) of this section by the custodian or, if none, by the minor if ~~((he))~~ the minor has no guardian and has attained the age of fourteen years, or in the possession and control of the guardian of the minor if ~~((he))~~ the minor has a guardian. If the custodian has executed as provided in subsection (1) of this section more than one instrument of designation, ~~((his))~~ the custodian's legal representative shall treat the instrument dated on an earlier date as having been revoked by the instrument dated on a later date.

(4) If a person designated as custodian or as successor custodian by the custodian as provided in subsection (1) of this section is not eligible, dies, or becomes legally incapacitated before the minor attains the age of ~~((eighteen))~~ twenty-one years and if the minor has a guardian, the guardian of the minor shall be successor custodian. If the minor has no guardian and if no successor custodian who is eligible and has not died or become legally incapacitated has been designated as provided in subsection (1) of this section, a donor, his or her legal representative, the legal representative of the custodian, or an adult member of the minor's family may petition the court for the designation of a successor custodian.

(5) A donor, the legal representative of a donor, a successor custodian, ~~((an adult))~~ a member of the minor's family who is eighteen years or older, or a guardian of the minor or the minor~~(-)~~ if ~~((he))~~ the minor has attained the age of fourteen years, may petition the court that, for cause shown in the petition, the custodian be removed and a successor custodian be designated or, in the alternative, that the custodian be required to give bond for the performance of his or her duties.

(6) Upon the filing of a petition as provided in this section, the court shall grant an order, directed to the persons and returnable on such notice as the court may require, to show cause why the relief prayed for in the petition should not be granted and, in due course, grant such relief as the court finds to be in the best interests of the minor.

Sec. 23. Section 8, chapter 202, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The minor, if ~~((he))~~ the minor has attained the age of fourteen years, or the legal representative of the minor, ~~((an adult))~~ a member of the minor's family who is eighteen years or older, or a donor or his or her legal representative may petition the court for an accounting by the custodian or ~~((his))~~ the custodian's legal representative.

(2) The court, in a proceeding under this chapter or otherwise, may require or permit the custodian or ~~((his))~~ the custodian's legal representative to account and, if the custodian is removed, shall so require and order delivery of all custodial property to the successor custodian and the execution of all instruments required for the transfer thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. RCW 21.24.090, 21.24.091, 21.24.100, and 21.24.900 are each decodified and recodified as RCW 11.93.910, 11.93.911, 11.93.900, and 11.93.920, respectively.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is added to chapter 11.93 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.93.912 to read as follows:

CONSTRUCTION. All custodianships established prior to the effective date of this 1984 act that have not been fully distributed as of that date shall not terminate upon the minor attaining the age of eighteen, but these custodianships shall remain operative until the minor reaches the age of twenty-one or sooner dies, except that, as to any custodianship established after August 9, 1971, but before the effective date of this 1984 act, a minor has the right after attaining the age of eighteen to demand delivery of all or any portion of the custodianship property.

Sec. 26. Section 52, chapter 117, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 11.94.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a principal designates another ((his)) the attorney in fact or agent by a power of attorney in writing and the writing contains the words "This power of attorney shall not be affected by disability of the principal," or "This power of attorney shall become effective upon the disability of the principal," or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding ((his)) the principal's disability, the authority of the attorney in fact or agent is exercisable by ((him as provided)) the principal in the power on behalf of the principal notwithstanding later disability or incapacity of the principal at law or later uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive. All acts done by the attorney in fact or agent pursuant to the power during any period of disability or incompetence or uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal or ((his)) the principal's guardian or heirs, devisees, and personal representative as if the principal were alive, competent, and not disabled. A principal may nominate, by a durable power of attorney, the guardian or limited guardian of his or her estate or person for consideration by the court if protective proceedings for the principal's person or estate are thereafter commenced. The court shall make its appointment in accordance with the principal's most recent nomination in a durable power of attorney except for good cause or disqualification. If a guardian thereafter is appointed for the principal, the attorney in fact or agent, during the continuance of the appointment, shall account to the guardian rather than the principal. The guardian has the same power the principal would have had if ((he)) the principal were not disabled or incompetent, to revoke, suspend or terminate all or any part of the power of attorney or agency.

Sec. 27. Section 53, chapter 117, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 27, chapter 234, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 11.94.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The death, disability, or incompetence of any principal who has executed a power of attorney in writing other than a power as described by RCW 11.94.010, does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney in fact, agent, or other person who, without actual knowledge of the death, disability, or incompetence of the principal, acts in good faith under the power of attorney or agency. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and ~~((his))~~ the principal's heirs, devisees, and personal representatives.

(2) An affidavit, executed by the attorney in fact, or agent, stating that ~~((he))~~ the attorney did not have, at the time of doing an act pursuant to the power of attorney, actual knowledge of the revocation or termination of the power of attorney by death, disability, or incompetence, is, in the absence of a showing of fraud or bad faith, conclusive proof of the nonrevocation or nontermination of the power at that time. If the exercise of the power requires execution and delivery of any instrument which is recordable, the affidavit when authenticated for record is likewise recordable.

(3) This section shall not be construed to alter or affect any provision for revocation or termination contained in the power of attorney.

(4) Any person may place reasonable reliance on any determination of disability or incompetence as provided in the instrument which specifies the time and the circumstances under which the power of attorney document becomes effective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. There is added to chapter 11.94 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.94.030 to read as follows:

BANKING TRANSACTIONS. If a principal, pursuant to RCW 11.94.010, has given a designated attorney in fact or agent all the principal's powers of absolute ownership or has used language to indicate that the attorney in fact or agent has all the powers the principal would have if alive and competent, then that language, notwithstanding chapter 30.22 RCW, includes the authority (1) to deposit and to make payments from any account in a financial institution, as defined in RCW 30.22.040, in the name of the principal, and (2) to enter any safe deposit box to which the principal has a right of access, subject to any contrary provision in any agreement governing the safe deposit box.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. There is added to chapter 11.94 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.94.040 to read as follows:

RELEASE FROM LIABILITY. Any person acting without negligence and in good faith in reasonable reliance on a power of attorney shall not incur any liability thereby. Unless the document contains a time limit, the length of time which has elapsed from its date of execution shall not prevent a party from reasonably relying on the document. Unless the document contains a requirement that it be filed for record to be effective, a person may place reasonable reliance on it regardless of whether it is so filed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. There is added to chapter 11.94 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.94.050 to read as follows:

EXEMPTED MATTERS. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, even though a designated attorney in fact or agent has all powers of absolute ownership of the principal, or the document has language to indicate that the attorney in fact or agent shall have all the powers the principal would have if alive and competent, the attorney in fact or agent shall not have the power, unless specifically provided otherwise in the document: To make, amend, alter, or revoke any of the principal's wills, codicils, life insurance beneficiary designations, trust agreements, community property agreements; to make any gifts of property owned by the principal; to make transfers of property to any trust (whether or not created by the principal) unless the trust benefits the principal alone and does not have dispositive provisions which are different from those which would have governed the property had it not been transferred into the trust, or to disclaim property.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section prohibits a spouse of a principal from acting as an attorney in fact or as an agent to make any transfer of resources not prohibited under RCW 74.09.532 when the transfer is for the purpose of qualifying the principal for medical assistance or the limited casualty program for the medically needy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. There is added to chapter 11.94 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.94.060 to read as follows:

HOMESTEADS. If a principal, pursuant to RCW 11.94.010, has given a designated attorney in fact or agent all the principal's powers of absolute ownership or has used language to indicate that the attorney in fact or agent has all the powers the principal would have if alive and competent, then these powers include the right to convey or encumber the principal's homestead.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. RCW 64.24.010, 64.24.020, 64.24.030, and 64.24.040, each as amended by this 1984 act, are each decodified and re-codified as a new chapter in Title 11 RCW, to be codified as RCW 11.95.010, 11.95.020, 11.95.030, and 11.95.040, respectively.

Sec. 35. Section 3, chapter 160, Laws of 1955 and RCW 64.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The enactment of RCW ~~((64.24.040))~~ 11.95.010 through ~~((64.24.050))~~ 11.95.050 shall not be construed to impair the validity of any release heretofore made which was otherwise valid when executed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. RCW 64.24.050 is decodified and recodified as RCW 11.95.050.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. There is added to chapter 11.95 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.95.060 to read as follows:

EXERCISE OF POWERS OF APPOINTMENT. (1) The holder of a testamentary or lifetime power of appointment may exercise the power by appointing property outright or in trust and may grant further powers to appoint. The powerholder may designate the trustee, powers, situs, and governing law for property appointed in trust.

(2) The holder of a testamentary power may exercise the power only by the powerholder's last will, signed before or after the effective date of the instrument granting the power, that manifests an intent to exercise the power and that identifies the instrument granting the power and its date. Unless the person holding the property subject to the power has within six months after the holder's death received written notice that the powerholder's last will has been admitted to probate or an adjudication of testacy has been entered with respect to the powerholder's last will in some jurisdiction, the person may, until the time the notice is received, transfer the property subject to appointment on the basis that the power has not been effectively exercised. The person holding the property shall not incur liability to anyone for transfers so made. A testamentary residuary clause is not deemed the exercise of a testamentary power.

(3) The holder of a lifetime power of appointment shall exercise that power only by delivering a written instrument, signed by the holder, to the person holding the property subject to the power. If the holder conditions the distribution of the appointed property on a future event, the written instrument may be made revocable until the event specified has occurred and shall specify the method of its revocation. If the written instrument is revoked, the holder of the power may reappoint the property that was appointed in the instrument. In the absence of signing and delivery of such a written instrument, a lifetime power is not deemed exercised.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. There is added to chapter 11.95 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.95.070 to read as follows:

APPLICATION. This chapter does not apply to any power as trustee described in and subject to RCW 11.98.019.

If the provisions of this title with reference to the administration and settlement of such estates or trusts should in any cases and under any circumstances be inapplicable or insufficient or doubtful, the court shall nevertheless have full power and authority to proceed with such administration and settlement in any manner and way which to the court seems right and proper, all to the end that such estates or trusts may be by the court administered upon and settled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. RCW 11.02.030 is decodified and recodified as RCW 11.96.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. SITUS OF TRUST. Unless otherwise provided in the instrument creating the trust, the situs of a trust is the place where the principal place of administration of the trust is located. As used in this section, the "principal place of administration of the trust" is the trustee's usual place of business where the day-to-day records pertaining to the trust are kept or the trustee's residence if the trustee has no such place of business.

(b) In the county in which the decedent died, or in which any part of the estate may be, if the decedent was not a resident of this state; or

(c) In the county in which any part of the estate may be, the decedent having died of out-of-state, and not having been resident in this state at the time of death.

(3) No action undertaken is defective or invalid because of improper venue if the court has jurisdiction of the matter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. STATUTES OF LIMITATIONS—PROCEEDINGS INVOLVING TRUSTS AND ESTATES. (1) Any action against the trustee of an express trust, excluding those trusts excluded from the definition of express trusts under RCW 11.98.009, but including all express trusts, whenever executed, for any breach of fiduciary duty, must be brought within three years from the earlier of (a) the time the alleged breach was discovered or reasonably should have been discovered, or (b) the time of termination of the trust or the trustee's repudiation of the trust.

(2) Any action by an heir, legatee, or other interested party, to whom proper notice was given if required, against a personal representative for alleged breach of fiduciary duty must be brought prior to discharge of the personal representative.

(3) The tolling provisions of RCW 4.16.190 apply to this chapter, except that the running of the statute of limitations stated in subsection (2) of this section is not tolled if the minor, incompetent, or disabled person had a guardian ad litem or a limited or general guardian of the estate to represent the person during the probate proceeding.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3) of this section, any cause of action against a trustee of an express trust, as provided for in subsection (1) of this section is not barred by the statute of limitations if it is brought within three years from the effective date of this 1984 act. In addition, any action as specified in subsection (2) of this section against the personal representative is not barred by this statute of limitations if it is brought within one year of the effective date of this 1984 act.

(1) To ascertain any class of creditors, devisees, legatees, heirs, next of kin, or others;

(2) To direct the personal representatives or trustees to do or abstain from doing any particular act in their fiduciary capacity;

(3) To determine any question arising in the administration of the estate or trust, including questions of construction of wills and other writings;

(4) To confer upon the personal representatives or trustees any necessary or desirable powers not otherwise granted in the instrument or given by law that the court determines are not inconsistent with the provisions or purposes of the will or trust;

(5) To amend or conform the will or the trust instrument in the manner required to qualify the gift thereunder for the charitable estate tax deduction permitted by federal law, including the addition of mandatory governing instrument requirements for a charitable remainder trust as required by final regulations and rulings of the United States internal revenue service, in any case in which all parties interested in the trust have submitted written agreements to the proposed changes or written disclaimer of interest; or

(6) To resolve any other matter in this title referencing this judicial proceedings section.

The provisions of this chapter apply to disputes arising in connection with estates of incompetents or disabled persons unless otherwise covered by chapters 11.88 and 11.92 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. HEARING AND FORM OF NOTICE. The court shall make an order fixing the time and place for hearing the petition. The court shall approve the form and content of the notice. Notice of hearing shall be signed by the clerk of the court.

The clerk of each of the superior courts is authorized to fix the time of hearing of all applications, petitions and reports in probate and guardianship proceedings, except the time for hearings upon show cause orders and citations and except for the time of hearings set under RCW 11.96.080. The authority herein granted is in addition to the authority vested in the superior courts and superior court commissioners.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. Sections 53 through 57 of this act are each added to chapter 11.96 RCW to be codified as RCW 11.96.100, 11.96.110, 11.96.120, 11.96.130, and 11.96.140, respectively.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. NOTICE FOR JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS. Subject to RCW 11.96.110, in all proceedings under Title 11 RCW notice shall be personally served or mailed to each trustee, personal representative, heir, beneficiary including devisees, legatees, and heirs, guardian ad litem, and person having an interest in the trust or estate whose name and address are known to the petitioner at least twenty days prior to the hearing on the petition, unless otherwise ordered by the court under RCW

11.96.080. Proof of such service or mailing shall be made by affidavit filed at or before the hearing. In addition, notice shall also be given to the attorney general if required under RCW 11.110.120.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. CONSTRUCTIVE NOTICE. Notwithstanding provisions of this chapter to the contrary, there is compliance with the notice requirements of Title 11 RCW for notice to the beneficiaries of, or persons interested in an estate or a trust, or to beneficiaries or remaindermen, including all living persons who may participate in the corpus or income of the trust or estate, if notice is given as follows:

(1) If an interest in an estate or trust has been given to persons who compose a certain class upon the happening of a certain event, notice shall be given to the living persons who would constitute the class if the event had happened immediately before the commencement of the proceeding requiring notice.

(2) If an interest in an estate or trust has been given to a living person, and the same interest, or a share in it, is to pass to the surviving spouse or to persons who are, or may be, the distributees, heirs, issue, or other kindred of that living person upon the happening of a future event, notice shall be given to that living person.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, if an interest in an estate or trust has been given to a person, a class of persons, or both upon the happening of any future event, and the same interest or a share of such interest is to pass to another person, class of persons, or both, upon the happening of an additional future event, notice shall be given to the living person or persons who would take the interest upon the happening of the first event.

(4) Notice shall be given to persons who would not otherwise be entitled to notice by law if a conflict of interest involving the subject matter of the trust or estate proceeding exists between a person to whom notice is given and a person to whom notice need not be given under Title 11 RCW.

Any action taken by the court is conclusive and binding upon each person receiving actual or constructive notice in the manner provided in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. SPECIAL NOTICE. Nothing in this chapter eliminates the requirement to give notice to a person who has requested special notice under RCW 11.28.240 or 11.92.150.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. TRIAL RULES—JUDGMENTS. All issues of fact joined in probate or trust proceedings shall be tried in conformity with the requirements of the rules of practice in civil actions. The probate or trust proceeding may be commenced as a new action or as an action incidental to an existing probate or trust proceeding. Once commenced, the action may be consolidated with an existing probate or trust proceeding or converted to a separate action upon the motion of any party for good cause shown, or by the court on its own motion. If the action is incidental to an existing proceeding, all pleadings shall set forth the caption of the existing proceeding followed by an appropriate caption designating the parties to the new proceeding. The party affirming is plaintiff, and the one denying or avoiding is defendant. If a party is entitled to a trial by jury and a jury is demanded, and the issues are not sufficiently made up by the written pleadings on file, the court, on due notice, shall settle and frame the issues to be tried. If no jury is demanded, the court shall try the issues joined, and sign and file its findings and decision in writing, as provided for in civil actions. Judgment on the issue joined, as well as for costs, may be entered and enforced by execution or otherwise by the court as in civil actions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. COSTS. Either the superior court or the court on appeal, may, in its discretion, order costs, including attorneys fees, to be paid by any party to the proceedings or out of the assets of the estate, as justice may require.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. RCW 30.30.120 is decodified and recodified as RCW 11.96.150.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. RCW 11.96.010 is decodified and recodified as RCW 11.96.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. Sections 61 and 62 of this act are each added to chapter 11.96 RCW and shall be codified as RCW 11.96.170 and 11.96.180, respectively.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. NONJUDICIAL RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES. (1) If the persons listed in RCW 11.96.070 and those entitled to notice under RCW 11.96.100 and 11.96.110 agree on any matter listed in RCW 11.96.070 or any other matter in Title 11 RCW referencing this nonjudicial resolution procedure, then the agreement shall be evidenced by a written agreement executed by all necessary persons as provided in this section.

(2) If necessary, the personal representative or trustee may petition the court for the appointment of a special representative to represent a person interested in the estate or trust who is a minor, incompetent, disabled, or who is yet unborn or unascertained, or a person whose identity or address is unknown. The special representative has authority to enter into a binding agreement on behalf of the person or beneficiary. The special representative may be appointed for more than one person or class of persons if the interests of such persons or class are not in conflict. Those entitled to receive notice for persons or beneficiaries described in RCW 11.96.110 may enter into a binding agreement on behalf of such persons or beneficiaries.

(3) The special representative shall be a lawyer licensed to practice before the courts of this state or an individual with special skill or training in the administration of estates or trusts. The special representative shall have no interest in any affected estate or trust, and shall not be related to any personal representative, trustee, beneficiary, or other person interested in the estate or trust. The special representative is entitled to reasonable compensation for services which shall be paid from the principal of the estate or trust whose beneficiaries are represented. Upon execution of the written agreement, the special representative shall be discharged of any further responsibility with respect to the estate or trust.

(4) The written agreement or a memorandum summarizing the provisions of the written agreement may, at the option of any person interested in the estate or trust, be filed with the court having jurisdiction over the estate or trust. The person filing the agreement or memorandum shall within five days thereof mail a copy of the agreement and a notice of the filing to each person interested in the estate or trust whose address is known. Notice shall be in substantially the following form:

CAPTION

OR MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

Notice is hereby given that the attached document was filed by the undersigned in the above entitled court on the ..... day of ....., 19... Unless you file a petition objecting to the agreement within 30 days of the above specified date the agreement will be deemed approved and will be equivalent to a final order binding on all persons interested in the estate or trust.

If you file and serve a petition within the period specified, you should ask the court to fix a time and place for the hearing on the petition and provide for at least a ten days' notice to all persons interested in the estate or trust.

DATED this ..... day of ....., 19...

(Party to the agreement)

(5) Unless a person interested in the estate or trust files a petition objecting to the agreement within thirty days of the filing of the agreement or the memorandum, the agreement will be deemed approved and will be equivalent to a final order binding on all persons interested in the estate or trust. If all persons interested in the estate or trust waive the notice required by this section, the agreement will be deemed approved and will be equivalent to a final order binding on all persons interested in the estate or trust effective upon the date of filing[.]

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIANS AD LITEM. (1) The court, upon its own motion or on request of a person interested in the trust or estate, at any stage of a judicial proceeding or at any time in a nonjudicial resolution procedure, may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the interests of a minor, incapacitated, unborn, or unascertained person, or person whose identity and address are unknown, or a designated class of persons who are not ascertained or are not in being. When not precluded by a conflict of interest, a guardian ad litem may be appointed to represent several persons or interests.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a trustee is a person interested in the trust and a personal representative is a person interested in an estate.

(3) The court appointed guardian ad litem supersedes the special representative if so provided in the court order.

(4) The court may appoint the guardian ad litem at an ex parte hearing, or the court may order a hearing as provided in RCW 11.96.070 with notice as provided in RCW 11.96.080, 11.96.100, and 11.96.110.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 63. RCW 30.99.020, as amended by this 1984 act, is decodified and recodified in a new chapter in Title 11 RCW, to be codified as RCW 11.97.010.

Sec. 64. Section 2, chapter 124, Laws of 1959 and RCW 30.99.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The trustor of a trust may by the provisions ((thereof)) of the trust relieve the trustee from any or all of the duties, restrictions, and liabilities which would otherwise be imposed by ((this chapter)) chapters 11.95, 11.98, 11.100, and 11.104 RCW and RCW 11.106.020, or may alter or deny any or all of the privileges and powers conferred by ((this chapter)) those provisions; or may add duties, restrictions, liabilities, privileges, or powers to those imposed or granted by ((this chapter)) those provisions. If any specific provision of ((this)) those chapters is in conflict with ((or inconsistent with)) the provisions of a trust, the provisions of the trust ((shall)) control whether or not specific reference is made ((therein)) in the trust to ((this)) any of those chapters. In no event may a trustee be relieved of the duty to act in good faith and with honest judgment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 65. There is added to chapter 11.97 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.97.900 to read as follows:

This chapter applies to the provisions of chapters 11.95, 11.98, 11.100, and 11.104 RCW and to RCW 11.106.020.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 66. RCW 30.99.010, 30.99.030, each as amended by this 1984 act, are each decodified and recodified as RCW 11.98.009 and 11.98.016, respectively.

Sec. 67. Section 1, chapter 124, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 49, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 30.99.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in this section, this chapter ((shall apply)) applies to express trusts ((; except as hereinafter limited, which are)) executed by the trustor after June 10, 1959((-This chapter shall)), and does not apply to resulting trusts, constructive trusts, business trusts where certificates of beneficial interest are issued to the beneficiary, investment trusts, voting trusts, trusts in the nature of mortgages or pledges, trusts created by the judgment or decree of a court not sitting in probate, liquidation trusts, or trusts for the sole purpose of paying dividends, interest, interest coupons, salaries, wages, pensions or profits, trusts created in deposits in any (~~banking institution~~) financial institution pursuant to chapter 30.22 RCW (~~or in accounts in savings and loan associations pursuant to chapter 30.22 RCW~~), unless any such trust which is created in writing incorporates this chapter in whole or in part.

Sec. 68. Section 3, chapter 124, Laws of 1959 and RCW 30.99.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any power vested in three or more trustees jointly may be exercised by a majority of such trustees; but no trustee who has not joined in exercising a power (~~shall be~~) is liable to the beneficiaries or to others for the consequences of such exercise; nor (~~shall~~) is a dissenting trustee (~~be~~) liable for the consequences of an act in which (~~he~~) that trustee joins at the direction of the majority of the trustees, if (~~he~~) that trustee expressed his or her dissent in writing to each of (~~his~~) the co-trustees at or before the time of such joinder.

(2) Where two or more trustees are appointed to execute a trust and one or more of them for any reason does not accept the appointment or having accepted ceases to be a trustee, the survivor or survivors shall execute the trust and shall succeed to all the powers, duties and discretionary authority given to the trustees jointly.

(3) An individual trustee, with a co-trustee's consent, may, by a signed, written instrument, delegate any power, duty, or authority as trustee to that co-trustee. This delegation is effective upon delivery of the instrument to that co-trustee and may be revoked at any time by delivery of a similar signed, written instrument to that co-trustee. However, if a power, duty, or authority is expressly conferred upon only one trustee, it shall not be delegated to a co-trustee. If that power, duty, or authority is expressly excluded from exercise by a trustee, it shall not be delegated to the excluded trustee.

(4) If one trustee gives written notice to all other co-trustees of an action that the trustee proposes be taken, then the failure of any co-trustee to deliver a written objection to the proposal to the trustee, at the trustee's then address of record and within fifteen days from the date the co-trustee actually receives the notice, constitutes formal approval by the co-trustee, unless the co-trustee had previously given written notice that was unrevoked at the time of the trustee's notice, to that trustee that this fifteen-day notice provision is inoperative.

(5) As to any effective delegation made under subsection (3) of this section, a co-trustee has no liability for failure to participate in the administration of the trust.

Nothing in this section (~~shall~~), however, otherwise excuses a co-trustee from liability for failure (~~either~~) to participate in the administration of the trust (~~or~~) and nothing in this section, including subsection (3) of this section, excuses a co-trustee from liability for the failure to attempt to prevent a breach of trust.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. There is added to chapter 11.98 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 11.98.019 to read as follows:

RELEASE OF POWERS BY CO-TRUSTEE. Any individual co-trustee may, by written instrument delivered to a then acting co-trustee and to the current adult income beneficiaries of the trust, relinquish to any extent and upon any terms any or all of the trustee's powers, rights, authorities, or discretions that are or may be tax sensitive in that they cause or may cause adverse tax consequences to the trustee or the trust. Any trustee not relinquishing such a power, right, authority, or discretion and upon whom it is conferred continues to have full power to exercise it.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. RCW 30.99.040 is decodified and recodified as RCW 11.98.029.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. RCW 30.99.050, as amended by this 1984 act, is decodified and recodified as RCW 11.98.039.

Sec. 72. Section 5, chapter 124, Laws of 1959 and RCW 30.99.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The beneficiaries and trustee of a trust may agree for the nonjudicial change of the trustee under RCW 11.96.170 if the governing instrument does not name a successor trustee who is willing to serve. The trustee shall give written notice of the proposed change in trustee to every beneficiary or special representative, and to the trustor if alive. The notice shall: (a) State the name and mailing address of the trustee; (b) include a copy of the governing instrument; and (c) state the name and mailing address of the successor trustee. The notice shall advise the recipient of the right to petition for the judicial determination of the proposed change in trustee as provided in subsection (2) of this section. The notice shall include a form on which consent or objection to the proposed change in trustee may be indicated.

(2) Any beneficiary of a trust, the trustor if alive, or the trustee may (~~in writing~~) petition the superior court having jurisdiction for the appointment (~~of a successor trustee~~) or change of a trustee under the procedures provided in chapter 11.96 RCW (a) whenever the office of trustee becomes vacant (~~or~~), (b) upon filing of a petition of resignation by a trustee, or (c) for any other reasonable cause. (~~The court shall make an order fixing the time and place for hearing the petition and the notice thereof shall be signed by the clerk of said court. Petitioner shall cause a copy of the notice to be mailed to each beneficiary, the trustor if alive, and to the incumbent trustee, if any, whose names and addresses are known to him,~~

~~not less than ten days before the date of the hearing. Proof of the mailing of such notice shall be made by affidavit which shall be filed at or before the hearing. All those whose names or addresses are not known or are not legally competent and any beneficiary who is not ascertained shall be represented at the hearing by a guardian ad litem appointed by the court when it sets the time of hearing. (3) For purposes of this section, the term fiduciary includes both trustee and personal representative.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the governing instrument, a successor fiduciary, absent actual knowledge of a breach of fiduciary duty: (i) Is not liable for any act or omission of a predecessor fiduciary and is not obligated to inquire into the validity or propriety of any such act or omission; (ii) is authorized to accept as conclusively accurate any accounting or statement of assets tendered to the successor fiduciary by a predecessor fiduciary; and (iii) is authorized to receipt only for assets actually delivered and has no duty to make further inquiry as to undisclosed assets of the trust or estate.

Any person dealing with the trustee is entitled to rely on the authority of the trustee to act and is not obliged to inquire into the validity or propriety of the transfer.
