CHAPTER 112.

[H. B. 213.]

INVENTORY AND APPRAISEMENT OF PROPERTY OF DECEASED PERSONS.

AN ACT relating to the inventory and appraisement of the property of the estates of deceased persons and amending Section 95 of Chapter 156 of the Laws of 1917.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 95 of chapter 156 of the Laws of 1917, page 668 (section 1465 of Remington's Compiled Statutes), be amended to read as follows:

Section 95. Every executor or administrator shall make and return, upon oath, into the court, within one month after his appointment, a true inventory of all of the property of the estate which shall have come into his hands, and within thirty days after filing such inventory he shall make application to the court to appoint three disinterested persons to appraise the property so inventoried, and it shall be the duty of the court to appoint such appraisers. Such appraisers shall receive as compensations for their services each such an amount as to the court shall seem just and reasonable not to exceed $5.00 per day for the time spent in making such appraisement: Provided, That in all estates where an inheritance tax is payable, the court may fix the compensation of each appraiser at such an amount as the court may deem just and reasonable. If any part of the estate shall be in another county
