

CHAPTER 16.

[H. B. 12.]

PUBLIC PRINTING.

An Act relating to public printing; and amending section 1, chapter 124, Laws of 1943 and RCW 43.78.080.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Section 1, chapter 124, Laws of 1943 and RCW 43.78.080 are each amended to read as follows: Amendment.

All printing, ruling, binding, and other work done or supplies furnished by the state printing plant for the various state departments, commissions, institutions, boards, and officers shall be paid for on an actual cost basis as determined from a standard cost finding system to be maintained by the state printing plant. In no event shall the price charged the various state departments, commissions, institutions, boards, and officers exceed those established by the Porte Publishing Company's Franklin Printing Catalogue for similar and comparable work. All bills for printing, ruling, binding, and other work done or for supplies furnished by the state printing plant shall be certified and sworn to by the public printer. State printing on cost basis.

The public printing shall be divided into the following classes: Classes of printing:

FIRST CLASS. The bills, resolutions, and other matters that may be ordered by the legislature, or either branch thereof, in bill form, shall constitute the first class, and shall be printed in such form as the legislature shall provide. Legislative.

SECOND CLASS. The second class shall consist of printing and binding of journals of the senate and house of representatives, and the annual and biennial reports of the several state officers, state commissions, boards, and institutions, with the exception of Journals and reports.

Exceptions.

the reports of the attorney general and the governor's message to the legislature, which shall be printed and bound in the same style as heretofore. Said journals and reports shall be printed on what is known as machine finish book paper weighing not less than fifty pounds to the ream of 25 x 38 inches, and set in brier, or what is known as eight point type, with a six to pica lead between each line, and without unnecessary blanks, broken pages, or paragraphs. All communications, resolutions, reports of committees, messages, and similar documents making up a part of said journals shall be set in nonpareil or what is known as six point type, with a six to pica lead between each line. All tabular matter shall be set in nonpareil or what is known as six point type; the type matter for a page to be 4½ x 7½ inches, which is to include all running heads and footnotes. All reports shall be 6 x 9 inches when trimmed. The general style of all reports shall be the same as those printed in 1918, and the general style of the journals of the house and senate of the session of 1917 shall be followed in the printing and binding of the journals hereafter. There shall be no duplicates of reports or parts of reports printed except by permission of the governor.
