[Substitute House Bill No. 794.]

CLASS I LIQUOR LICENSE.

AN ACT relating to intoxicating liquors; adding a new section to chapter 66.24 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

New section.

Section 1. There is added to chapter 66.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Alcoholic beverage control.
Class I licenses.

There shall be a retailer's license to be designated as a class I license; this shall be a special occasion license to be issued to the holder of a class H license to extend his privilege of selling and serving beer, wine and spirituous liquor by the individual glass, and beer and wine by the opened bottle, at retail, for consumption on the premises, to persons attending a national, or state, or regional (out-of-state) convention or meeting when events of such groups are held on premises other than a class H licensed premises and for consumption on the premises of such outside location. The holder of such special occasion license shall be allowed to remove from his liquor stocks at his licensed class H premises, liquor for sale and service at such convention or meeting locations: Provided, That such special license shall be issued only when the facilities of class H licensees in the particular city or county are not suitable and adequate to accommodate the number of persons attending such conventions or meetings: And provided further, That the Washington state liquor control board may issue banquet permits when such groups prefer to provide their own liquor under such a permit rather than avail themselves of sale and service of liquor by the holder of a class I license. Such special class I license shall be issued for a specified date and place and upon payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars per day.

Sec. 2. This 1967 amendatory act is necessary for Emergency. the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.
