CHAPTER 54

[House Bill No. 86]

PUBLIC RECORDS--EMERGENCY PROTECTION PROCEDURES

AN ACT Relating to the protection and maintenance of public documents and records; amending section 1, chapter 241, Laws of 1963 and RCW 40.10.010; amending section 2, chapter 241, Laws of 1963 and RCW 40.10.020; amending section 4, chapter 246, Laws of 1957 and RCW 40.14.040; amending section 6, chapter 246, Laws of 1957 and RCW 40.14.060; and amending section 7, chapter 246, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 40.14.070.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 241, Laws of 1963 and RCW 40.10.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to provide for the continuity and preservation of civil government, each elected and appointed officer of the state shall designate those public documents which are essential records of his office and ((shall transmit the original or a copy of such document to the state archivist for reproduction by microfilm or other miniature photographic process)) needed in an emergency and for the reestablishment of normal operations after any such emergency. A list of such records shall be forwarded to the state archivist and director of the department of emergency services on forms prescribed by the state archivist. This list shall be reviewed at least annually by the elected or appointed officer to insure its completeness. Any changes or revisions following this review shall be forwarded to the state archivist and the director of the department of emergency services. Each such elected and appointed officer of state government shall insure that the security of essential records of his office is by the most economical means commensurate with adequate protection. Protection of essential records may be by vaulting, planned or natural dispersal of copies, or any other method approved by the state archivist and the director of the department of emergency services. Reproductions of essential records may be by photo copy, magnetic tape, microfilm or other
