APPENDIX, HISTORY OF BILLS, INDEX.

SEVENTIETH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Thursday, May 19, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bottiger, Cunningham and Herr. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Herr was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Laura Hennessey and David Sienko, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Loyer, pastor of Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ETERNAL GOD AND FATHER, BECAUSE WE CANNOT SEE THE END FROM THE BEGINNING, WE ARE WARY OF INSTITUTING CHANGES IN LIFE. WE PREFER TO ABIDE BY THE DECISIONS OF THE PAST BECAUSE WE ARE FAMILIAR WITH THEIR CONSEQUENCES AND HAVE LEARNED TO LIVE WITH THEM. AND YET IDEAS TOO HAVE THEIR DAY. PROGRAMS BECOME INEFFECTIVE WITH THE PASSING OF TIME. TO TRULY LIVE IS TO CHOOSE. GIVE US THEN THE WISDOM TO RECOGNIZE WHAT SHOULD BE PRESERVED OF THE PAST AND TO IMPROVE UPON THOSE PATTERNS OF THE PAST THAT HAVE OUTLIVED THEIR USEFULNESS. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Office of the Governor, May 18, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:

Loren Calvin Davidson, appointed May 17, 1977, for a term ending July 1, 1977, succeeding John B. Troup as a member of the Higher Education Personnel Board.

Sincerely,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 18, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has granted the request of the Senate for a conference on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 68, and the Senate amendments thereto, and the Speaker has appointed as members of the conference committee thereon: Representatives Ehlers, Nelson (Gary) and Charette.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 29, 1977.

Mr. President: The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 960, and requests a conference thereon. The Speaker has appointed as members of the conference committee: Representatives Clemente, Heck and Barnes.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the request of the House for a conference on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 960 and the Senate amendments thereto was granted.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 960, and the Senate amendments thereto: Senators McDermott, Gould and Mardesich.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 18, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2104, with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 22, after "Sec. 2." insert "For the purposes of sections 1 through 6 of this act, the term "charter boat" shall refer only to those charter boats from which salmon are taken."

On page 3, beginning with the colon on line 29, strike all the material down to and including "act" on line 32.

On page 3, line 29, after "transferable" insert ": PROVIDED, That in order to qualify for licenses in calendar years 1979 and 1980, a vessel must prove by means of a valid fish receiving document that food fish were caught and landed by such vessel in this state or in another state during the previous calendar year, or during the last calendar year in which the vessel was legally eligible for licenses if the vessel's licenses were suspended or revoked during the calendar year or years previous to the year for which the licenses are being sought"

On page 4, beginning on line 17, strike all of section 12. Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 6, of the title, strike "making an appropriation;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Peterson moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2104.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Would Senator Peterson yield? Senator Peterson, the first two amendments no problem, the third amendment, would you elaborate please, on the meaning—what happens, actually, under these words in which the licenses are granted again to those who, during the last calendar year in which the vessel was legally eligible for licenses, if the vessel's licenses were suspended or revoked during the calendar year or years previous to the year for which the licenses are being sought. It appears that the licenses having been revoked in the past are now being reinstated, and we don't know what those causes of revocation were and I wonder if you could enlighten us a bit, please."

Senator Peterson: "Well, I don't think this really changes it that much, Senator Lewis. It goes back to the language that was in the original act on the procurement, you know, and what it does, it clarifies it to the extent that if they were legally eligible for licenses in that period of time, it isn't going to affect them any more now than it would then. New vessel owners or those that are under construction and that part, if that is your fear, I don't think that enters into it at all."

Senator Lewis: "The concern that has been expressed to me is that it appears that there have been some licenses revoked for cause, and that now this amendment is it wiping out any past actions and is it just saying 'OK, those people can now have their licenses renewed.'?"

Senator Peterson: "Well, if they had been revoked for due cause, I suspect that that now would be true that they wouldn't be entitled to come under the program, and I think that is probably rightfully so."

The motion by Senator Peterson carried. The Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2104.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2104, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—46.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bottiger, Cunningham—2.

Excused: Senator Herr—1.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2104, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 16, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2435, with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 29, after "in the" strike the remainder of the section through line 15, page 2, and insert "state general fund: PROVIDED, That required matching moneys for federal and state financial aid programs may be exempt from such deposit with approval of the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management."

On page 2, after line 15, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this 1977 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Remember the remaining section consecutively, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Peterson was excused.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2435, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Cunningham was excused.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:

SENATE BILL NO. 2069,

SENATE BILL NO. 2166,

SENATE BILL NO. 2286.

MOTION

At 10:20 a.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 12:12 p.m.

NOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 12:12 p.m.

The appropriations contained in this section, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be expended exclusively for the purposes designated herein and shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Not more than $67,054,000 of general fund moneys (including $16,911,000 in federal funds) shall be expended to effect salary increases for state classified employees and for state employees exempt from the classified service. Not more than $50,530,000 of this amount (including $12,744,000 in federal funds) shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1977, an average of 10.1% salary increases for state classified employees and for comparable salary increases for state employees exempt from the classified service. Not more than $16,524,000 of this amount (including $4,167,000 of federal funds) shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1978, an average 6% salary increase for state classified employees and for comparable salary increases for state employees exempt from the classified service.

(2) Not more than $24,409,075 of general fund moneys shall be expended to effect salary increases for state higher education classified employees excluding student employees not under the jurisdiction of the State Personnel Board or Higher Education Personnel Board. Not more than $18,033,093 of this amount shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1977, an average 9.35% salary increase for state higher education classified employees. Not more than $6,375,982 of this amount shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1978, an average 6% salary increase for state higher education classified employees.

(3) Not more than $29,542,000 of general fund moneys shall be expended to effect salary increases including increments or their equivalents for faculty and exempt employees of the four-year units of higher education. Not more than $12,899,000 of this amount shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1977, an average 5% salary increase including increments or their equivalents for faculty and exempt employees of the four-year units of higher education. Not more than $4,197,000 of this amount shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1978, an average 3% salary increase including increments or their equivalents for faculty and exempt employees of the four-year units of higher education. It is the intent of the Legislature to strive for equity in faculty and exempt salaries for the four-year units of higher education. To this end, not more than $8,871,000 of this amount shall be expended to effect additional salary increases for faculty and exempt employees, effective July 1, 1977, averaging 4% for the University of Washington, Washington State University, and Western Washington State College, and averaging 2% for Eastern Washington State College and not more than $3,575,000 of this amount shall be expended to effect salary increases for faculty and exempt employees, effective July 1, 1978, averaging 3% for the University of Washington, Washington State University, and Western Washington State College, and averaging 1% for Eastern Washington State College: PROVIDED, That no four-year unit of higher education may grant from any fund source any additional salary increase greater than that provided in this act for faculty and exempt employees.

(4) Not more than $20,236,196 of general fund moneys shall be expended to effect salary increases including increments or their equivalents for faculty and exempt employees of the community college system. Not more than $14,771,140 of this amount shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1977, an average 9% salary increase including increments or their equivalents for faculty and exempt employees of each community college district: PROVIDED, That no district may grant from any fund source any additional salary increase greater than that provided in this act for faculty and exempt employees except that in addition to the increase provided herein, those districts whose actual average faculty salary for 1976-77 is less than that earned from the system's 1976-77 hypothetical schedule may increase the average salary of the faculty and exempt employees in 1977-78 up to the average earned by the district from the hypothetical schedule or 5% whichever is less, as determined from rules and regulations promulgated by the State Board for Community College Education: PROVIDED FURTHER, That collective bargaining negotiations will be completed before individual negotiations take place.

Not more than $5,465,056 of this amount shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1978, an average 6% salary increase including increments or their equivalents for faculty and exempt employees of each community college district: PROVIDED, That no district may grant from any fund source any additional salary increase greater than that provided in this act for faculty and exempt employees: PROVIDED FURTHER, That collective bargaining negotiations will be completed before individual negotiations take place.

(5) Not more than $225,000 of general fund moneys (including $36,000 in federal funds) shall be expended to effect salary increases for commissioned members of the Washington State Patrol. Not more than $163,000 of this amount (including $31,000 in federal funds) shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1977, an average 10% salary increase for commissioned members of the Washington State Patrol. Not more than $62,000 of this amount (including $11,000 in federal funds) shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1978, an average 7% salary increase for commissioned members of the Washington State Patrol: PROVIDED, That no additional salary increases may be granted from any fund source greater than those authorized by this act: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the Department of Personnel shall conduct a comprehensive survey for providing salary rates for positions similar (both in-state and out-of-state) to commissioned members of the Washington State Patrol and report back to the Legislature no later than January 15, 1978.

(6) Not more than $31,573,000 of general fund moneys (including $4,472,000 in federal funds) shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1977, an increase in the state's maximum contribution for employee insurance benefits from $35 per month to $72.50 per month per eligible employee.

(7) Not more than $44,595,000 of Special Fund Salary and Insurance Contribution Increase Revolving Fund moneys shall be expended to provide salary increases for state classified employees and state employees exempt for the classified service. Not more than $33,605,000 of this amount shall be expended to effect beginning July 1, 1977, an average of 10.1% salary increases. Not more than $10,990,000 of this amount shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1978, an average of 6.0% salary increases.

(8) Not more than $91,000 of Special Fund Salary and Insurance Contribution Increase Revolving Fund moneys shall be expended to provide salary increases for Higher Education classified employees. Not more than $67,000 of this amount shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1977, an average of 9.35% salary increases. Not more than $24,000 of this amount shall be expended to effect, beginning July 1, 1978, an average of 6% salary increases.

(1) Home aid respite care shall be provided. Such care shall not include regular or continuous day care. "Respite care" as used herein means an interval of temporary relief or rest not to exceed a total of 21 days for any one client in any fiscal year. Up to $1,100,000 may be expended for this activity.

(2) Home aid therapeutic services shall be provided. Up to $202,000 may be expended for this activity.

(3) Extended home aid day care services shall be provided. Up to $145,000 may be expended for this activity.

(4) Vendor rates for group homes shall be increased by up to 5.5% in each year of the biennium based on allocations according to the department's cost reimbursement system for such vendors.

(5) The available beds in group homes shall be increased by up to 106, phased-in by the addition of up to 43 in the first year of the biennium and up to an additional 63 in the second year of the biennium. Up to $306,000 may be expended for this increase.

(6) Up to $250,000 shall be expended exclusively to increase salaries for Group Home resident care nonprofessional employees.

(7) Vendor rates for developmental centers shall be increased by up to 5.5% in each year of the biennium.

(8) Up to three state residential training centers may be opened. Up to 101.4 FTE staff years and $1,808,000 may be expended in total.

(9) The department shall develop a schedule of contribution payments that may be charged to parents of developmentally disabled children. The schedule shall set forth amounts chargeable on the basis of parental financial ability to pay, measured by income, number of dependents, and other factors deemed relevant by the department including the federal poverty level. No amount may be charged which exceeds the actual average cost of providing domiciliary care services to a child in residential placement, but different schedules may be developed for the various institutions or group home programs to reflect differing costs of care.

The schedule developed under this subsection shall be submitted no later than January, 1978, to the legislature: PROVIDED, That no schedule shall be implemented until approved by the legislature.

In making allotments for expenditures from the appropriations contained in this section the office of program planning and fiscal management shall require the department to make provision for the following:

(1) A cost reimbursement rate setting system for private group care facilities shall be established. Up to $1,598,000 including $98,000 from federal funds may be expended.

(2) Foster care rates shall be increased up to 5.5% in each year of the biennium. Up to $270,000 including $52,000 from federal funds may be expended.

(3) Vendor rates shall be increased up to 5.5% in each year of the biennium. Up to $5,294,000 including $1,572,000 from federal funds may be expended.

(4) A maximum effort toward shortening foster care length of stay and increasing adoptive placements shall be made.

(5) Up to $24,761,000, including $20,950,000 from federal funds, shall be expended for day care services. Day care services shall be expanded to provide assistance to non-AFDC recipient families in meeting their day care costs. Day care expenses for single working parents, two parent working families, and two parent families where one parent is disabled and the other parent employed shall be subsidized in proportion to their ability to pay. Parents shall participate and share in paying for day care such that 50 percent of all earned income in excess of grant standards plus work expenses be applied toward the cost of day care. Up to $7,850,000, including $5,887,000 from federal funds, shall be expended exclusively for this program expansion subject to continuation of special federal funding for day care now provided under PL 94-401.

(6) An expanded crisis intervention program based on keeping families together at the point at which they are about to break up and have one or more members institutionalized shall be funded. Up to $400,000 may be expended to expand this program.

(7) Senior citizen services shall be continued as authorized by chapter 131, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. on the effective date of this act. In addition those other senior citizen programs operating in fiscal year 1977 may continue. Up to 43 FTE staff years and $28,990,000 including $18,416,000 from federal funds may be expended.

(8) Specialized foster care rates for disturbed adolescents and children shall be increased to equal the rates for the grossly retarded or severely handicapped. Up to $451,000 in state funds may be expended.

(9) Up to $56,000 including $11,000 from federal funds may be expended to fund catch-up grant increases recommended by the department's study of public assistance standards.

(10) The department shall complete the development of work load standards for the community social services program and begin the implementation of such standards. Not later than December 1, 1977, the department shall report the results of such development and implementation to the house appropriations committee and senate ways and means committee for their review.

(11) Up to 55 FTE staff years and $881,000 shall be expended exclusively to increase foster care services.

(12) Child protective services shall be considered a priority service within community social services. When workload problems occur caseworkers shall be diverted from lower priority service areas, except foster care.

(13) Work incentive program staffing may be increased. Up to 12 FTE staff years and $201,000 including $181,000 from federal funds shall be expended.

(14) Up to $950,000 may be expended for the maintenance and operation of rape crisis centers which provide services to victims of rape and sexual assault. $450,000 shall be held in the general fund account and may be expended only upon approval and receipt of federal funds.

It is the intent of the legislature to equalize the state dollar support per FTE student by the 1982-83 program year. To this end the legislature intends to improve the support per FTE student to $1,811 in the 1982-83 program year in each school district.

Not more than $6,700,000 of the appropriation contained in this section shall be expended for districts which experience an enrollment decline in the 1978-79 school year from the 1977-78 base enrollment level for certificated staff. The superintendent of public instruction in ascertaining the full-time equivalent enrollment under this section for any school district declining in enrollment at a rate of at least four percent, or 300 full-time equivalent students, whichever is less, from the immediately preceding year, shall increase the enrollment as otherwise herein computed by fifty percent of the full-time equivalent pupil enrollment loss from the previous year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 97. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION - SMALL DISTRICT ADJUSTMENT FOR FISCAL YEAR 1979

General Fund Appropriation	$	2,056,696
Total Appropriation	$	2,056,696

The schedule used by the superintendent of public instruction during the 1978-79 fiscal year in computing the distribution of these funds for each school district shall be based on the following:

(1) A school district with an average annual FTE enrollment of 40 students or less in grades K-6 shall receive an entitlement equal to the FTE value of 40 students as provided in section 96 of this act.

(2) A school district with an average annual FTE enrollment of 20 students or less in grades 7-8 shall receive an entitlement equal to the FTE value of 20 students as provided in section 96 of this act.

(3) A school district with an average annual FTE enrollment of 100 students or less in grades 9-12 shall receive an entitlement equal to the FTE value of 100 students as provided in section 96 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 98. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION - SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS FOR CATEGORICAL PROGRAM STAFF FOR FISCAL YEAR 1979

General Fund Appropriation	$	27,269,189
Total Appropriation	$	27,269,189

The schedule used by the superintendent of public instruction during the 1978-79 fiscal year in computing the distribution of these funds for each school district shall be based on the following:

(1) Funds provided in this section shall be distributed to ensure that districts receive $870 for each certificated and classified categorical staff unit and an additional amount for payroll benefits equal to 6.23 percent of each district's certificated average salary and 13.90 percent of each district's classified average salary.

(2) The balance of funds provided in this subsection shall be used to grant salary increases in the 1978-79 program year to categorical staff.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 99. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR: APPROVED VOCATIONAL EDUCATION IN GRADES 9-12; SCHOOL DISTRICTS ENROLLING NOT MORE THAN 250 STUDENTS IN GRADES 9-12; REMOTE AND NECESSARY SCHOOL DISTRICTS AND SMALL SCHOOL PLANTS WITHIN SCHOOL DISTRICTS; STUDENTS RESIDING ON TAX EXEMPT PROPERTY; AND INTERDISTRICT COOPERATIVE PROGRAMS

Total Appropriation	$	40,307,580

The schedule used by the superintendent of public instruction during the 1977-79 biennium in the distribution of the appropriation contained in this section shall be based on the weighting factors set forth in section 149(6), chapter 269, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) multiplied by the projected 1977-78 full time equivalent student enrollment level in the programs enumerated herein multiplied by $578 for each of the following:

- (1) Approved vocational education in grades 9-12;
- (2) School districts enrolling not more than 250 students in grades 9-12;
- (3) Remote and necessary school districts and small school plants within school districts;
- (4) Students residing on tax exempt property;
- (5) Interdistrict cooperative programs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 100. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR HANDICAPPED EXCESS COSTS

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	87,285,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	12,594,000
Total Appropriation	$	99,879,000

(1) The number of students receiving special education for learning language disabilities shall not exceed 1.75 percent of the total student enrollment during the 1977-78 school year, and 2.0 percent of the total student enrollment during the 1978-79 school year.

(2) The superintendent shall distribute sufficient funds to provide for an increase in approved aide hours from 2.6 to 3.0 aide hours per day.

(3) The superintendent shall distribute sufficient funds to provide for a 535 student increase in preschool handicapped enrollment.

(4) The superintendent shall distribute not more than $75,000 for implementation of the eye safety program.

(5) The superintendent shall distribute not more than $36,000 for continuation of the program to instruct teachers and school nurses in techniques for recognizing and caring for epileptic students.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 101. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR GIFTED SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Total Appropriation	$	2,250,000

(1) The enrollment supported by this appropriation shall increase from 1,300 students in 1976-77 to 6,000 students in 1977-78 and to 7,000 students in 1978-79 in special programs approved by the superintendent.

(2) The superintendent shall distribute an amount not to exceed $225 per student to support the approved additional costs of special programs for gifted students.

(3) The superintendent shall reimburse districts in an amount not to exceed $25 per student in approved programs for purposes of screening and assessment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR STUDENT TRANSPORTATION

General Fund Appropriation	$	92,641,108
Total Appropriation	$	92,641,108

(1) The appropriation contained in this section shall be expended exclusively for transportation of students "to and from" public schools and/or to approved learning centers and shall be expended in accordance with the provisions of chapter 392-141 WAC as such chapter exists on the effective date of this act. Sufficient funds are provided to reimburse school districts at a rate not to exceed 80 percent during the first year of the biennium and at a rate not to exceed 100 percent during the second year of the biennium: PROVIDED, That the superintendent shall make such reimbursements only to the extent necessary to reach the funding levels herein provided. Any portion of this appropriation not required to fund the respective reimbursement levels shall be placed in reserve and revert to the general fund at the end of each respective fiscal year.

(2) The appropriate reports required by chapter 392-141 WAC in existence on the effective date of this act shall be certified by the respective school district as being in compliance with the said chapter of the WAC.

(3) The superintendent shall distribute not more than $415,544 for regional transportation coordinators.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 114. COMMUNITY COLLEGE EDUCATION.

The appropriations contained in sections 115 through 120 of this act shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in this section and the conditions and limitations set forth in the section making such appropriations. Such conditions and limitations shall be strictly construed.

(1) The program funding levels for the community college system for each fiscal year of the biennium are based in part on special nonformula items and in part on the following formula entitlements:

- (a) Student services program—65% of formula entitlement;
- (b) Plant operations and maintenance program:
 - (i) 60% of formula entitlement for variable costs; and
 - (ii) 100% of formula entitlement for fixed costs;
- (c) Instruction and departmental research—General program:
 - (i) 81.55% of formula entitlement for faculty staffing; and
 - (ii) 64% of formula entitlement for faculty support;
- (d) Libraries program:
 - (i) 55% of formula entitlement for staffing;
 - (ii) 54% for collections.

(2) In accordance with the provisions of this subsection the office of program planning and fiscal management shall use the allotment process during the 1977-79 biennium to control the funding of the formula portion of the instructional services program of all community colleges. Controls shall be applied to the community college education system as a total entity. For the purpose of the controls outlined in this section, full time equivalent student enrollment shall be the controlling factors. The "contract level" is defined as the average annual full time equivalent enrollment projection upon which the budget is based. The "base level" is defined as the prior year's actual average annual full time equivalent enrollment level. "Growth funding" is defined as that portion of the state general fund appropriation by which the contract level exceeds the base level. Growth funds shall be allotted at the beginning of each fiscal year. All unearned growth funds shall revert to the state general fund at the end of the fiscal year in which such enrollment fails to materialize.

Reversions are not required when the actual annual average full time equivalent student enrollment is within a set range of the contracted level. The allowable tolerance for the community college system as a single entity is three percent.

Contract enrollments for the second year of the biennium shall be revised by the office of program planning and fiscal management in the event the first year's actual average annual full time equivalent enrollment falls below the base level of the first year.

(3) The state board for community college education shall not transfer more than five percent of the funds generated by the formula entitlements set forth in subsection (1) of this section between programs. Such transfers are subject to review and approval by the office of program planning and fiscal management. If any transfers between programs, up to the limit authorized by this subsection, are made the state board shall report the amounts and purposes of such transfers to the senate ways and means committee and house appropriations committee at the beginning of each session of the legislature.

(4) The aggregate cost of remunerated professional leaves awarded at any institution during any year, including the cost of replacement personnel, shall not exceed the cost of salaries which otherwise would have been paid to personnel on leaves.

(5) The office of program planning and fiscal management, upon the failure of SSB 2435 (or a similar measure) to become law, shall reduce the allotments of state general funds for each fiscal year in amounts equal to the revenues which would have otherwise been available in the state general fund.

(6) The legislature directs that Olympia Technical Community College shall not become a comprehensive community college and shall offer only those courses essential to vocational education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 114A. The state board for community college education and the boards of trustees for community college districts thirteen and fourteen may waive the payment of nonresident fees by residents of Clatsop, Columbia, Washington, Multnomah, and Hood River counties, Oregon, for the duration of the 1977-79 biennium, contingent upon evidence that similar waivers are made for residents of Cowlitz, Clark, Pacific, or Wahkiakum counties, Washington, to attend any of the following Oregon institutions: Clatsop, Portland, or Mount Hood community colleges, or Portland state university.

The council for postsecondary education, in cooperation with the state board for community college education, shall undertake a study of the effects on costs and participation rates of such reciprocity arrangements, as well as the feasibility of other reciprocity agreements involving the states of Idaho and Oregon. The council for postsecondary education shall work with the above referenced Oregon institutions and their governing bodies to secure maximum participation by the state of Oregon. The council shall, to the extent possible, involve interested legislators, groups, and institutions in such efforts. The council for postsecondary education shall present its report with recommendations to the 46th regular session of the Washington state legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 115. FOR THE STATE BOARD FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGE EDUCATION—FOR THE ADMINISTRATION AND GENERAL EXPENSE PROGRAM

General Fund Appropriation	$	2,772,297
1975 Community College Capital Construction Fund
Appropriation	$	47,000
Total Appropriation	$	2,819,297

$306,430 from the general fund appropriation shall be expended exclusively for the development and installation of a comprehensive payroll/personnel system for community colleges which will become the model for a future common higher education payroll/personnel system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 116. FOR THE STATE BOARD FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGE EDUCATION—FOR THE INSTRUCTIONAL SERVICES PROGRAM

General Fund Appropriation	$	169,746,099
Total Appropriation	$	169,746,099

An amount not to exceed $159,432,244 from this appropriation shall be expended for instruction. An amount not to exceed $10,313,855 from this appropriation shall be expended for primary support.

$1,818,000 shall be expended for the small school adjustment to Whatcom, Olympia Technical, Big Bend, Peninsula, Grays Harbor, Wenatchee Valley, Centralia, Lower Columbia, and Skagit Valley Community Colleges. The distribution of such funds shall be based on a percent of formula entitlement for faculty staffing which shall be increased at the rate of one percentage point above the 81.55% base level for each 100 full time equivalent students below the 2,500 enrollment level, except that no college shall be funded in excess of 98.54% of formula.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 117. FOR THE STATE BOARD FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGE EDUCATION—FOR THE LIBRARY SERVICES PROGRAM

General Fund Appropriation	$	14,637,439
Total Appropriation	$	14,637,439

General Fund Appropriation	$	33,042,071
Total Appropriation	$	33,042,071

NEW SECTION. Sec. 121. HIGHER EDUCATION.

The appropriations contained in sections 122 through 152 of this act shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in this section and the conditions and limitations set forth in the section making such appropriations. Such conditions and limitations shall be strictly construed.

(1) The program funding levels for each four year institution of higher education for each fiscal year of the biennium are based in part on special nonformula items and in part on the following formula entitlements:

- (a) Student services program—75% of formula entitlement;
- (b) Plant operations and maintenance program:
 - (i) 60% of formula entitlement for variable costs; and
 - (ii) 100% of formula entitlement for fixed costs;
- (c) Instruction and departmental research—General program:
 - (i) 80% of formula entitlement for faculty staffing at Western Washington State College, 81.2% of formula entitlement for faculty staffing at Central Washington State College; 80% of formula entitlement for faculty staffing at The Evergreen State College and Washington State University; 82.8% of formula entitlement for faculty staffing at Eastern Washington State College; and 85.2% of formula entitlement at the University of Washington; and
 - (ii) 64% of formula entitlement for faculty support;
- (d) Libraries program:
 - (i) 55% of formula entitlement for staffing at the state colleges, 60% at Washington State University, and 75% at the University of Washington;
 - (ii) Formula entitlement for collections as follows: 80% at the University of Washington, 70% at Washington State University, 85% at Eastern Washington State College, 90% at Central Washington State College, 97% at The Evergreen State College, and 89% at Western Washington State College.

(2) In accordance with the provisions of this subsection the office of program planning and fiscal management shall use the allotment process during the 1977-79 biennium to control the funding of the formula portion of the instructional services program of all the four year institutions of higher education. Controls shall be applied to each four year institution separately. For the purpose of the controls outlined in this section, formula faculty entitlements shall be the controlling factors. The "contract level" is defined as the average annual full time equivalent enrollment projection upon which the budget is based. The "base level" is defined as the prior year's actual average annual full time equivalent enrollment level. "Growth funding" is defined as that portion of the state general fund appropriation by which the contract level exceeds the base level. Growth funds shall be allotted at the beginning of each fiscal year. All unearned growth funds shall revert to the state general fund at the end of the fiscal year in which such enrollment fails to materialize.

(3) The four year institutions of higher education are hereby authorized to request the approval of the office of program planning and fiscal management to transfer up to five percent of the amount of state general funds appropriated for any specific program to other programs. The office of program planning and fiscal management shall not approve any transfer request which would result in an expenditure of state general funds in any program in excess of 105% of the appropriation for such program. The office of program planning and fiscal management shall not approve any transfer request which would result in the operation of the instructional services program at any institution in excess of 80 percent of staffing formula entitlement. The office of program planning and fiscal management shall immediately report the amount and purpose of each such transfer to the senate ways and means committee and the house appropriations committee.

(4) No funds appropriated by sections 122 through 152 of this act shall be used for the inauguration or operation of any new degree program until such program has been reviewed and recommended by the council for postsecondary education.

(5) The aggregate cost of remunerated professional leaves awarded at any institution during any year, including the cost of replacement personnel, shall not exceed the cost of salaries which otherwise would have been paid to personnel on leaves.

(6) The office of program planning and fiscal management, upon the failure of SSB 2435 (or a similar measure) to become law, shall reduce the allotments of state general funds for each fiscal year in amounts equal to the revenues which would have otherwise been available in the state general fund.

(7) The average full time faculty direct classroom contact hours shall be at least 12 hours per week for the two universities and 14 hours per week for the four state colleges. Faculty direct classroom contact hours are defined as the actual number of hours of weekly instructional contact between the full time faculty member and the class in the case of scheduled classes and between the full time faculty member and the student enrolled in individual instruction courses. Office hours and informal student/faculty contact shall not be included except where specifically related to individual instruction courses. The council for postsecondary education shall develop uniform guidelines and reporting requirements to carry out the provisions of this subsection and shall monitor, each quarter or semester, institutional conformance to the provisions and guidelines. The council for postsecondary education shall provide a report to the house appropriations committee and the senate ways and means committee by February 1, 1978, on the fall quarter 1978 experience and a similar report by October 1, 1979, on the 1978-79 average annual experience.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 164. The office of program planning and fiscal management is hereby requested to cooperate fully with the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee in the areas of appropriation schedules, allotments, and estimated expenditure schedules as such items relate to the monitoring and evaluation by the LEAP data processing system of funds appropriated in this act. It is the intent of the legislature to cooperate with the governor in the implementation of RCW 43.88.070 which provides in part: "Appropriations shall be deemed maximum authorizations to incur expenditures... to ensure that expenditure rates are such that program objectives are realized within these maximums".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 165. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 82, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. the house of representatives, the senate, and the permanent statutory committees shall pay expenses quarterly to the department of general administration facilities and services revolving fund for services rendered by the department for operations, maintenance, and supplies relating to buildings, structures, and facilities utilized by the legislature for the biennium beginning July 1, 1977. The provisions of this section shall be null and void if HB 54 (or a similar measure) becomes law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 166. The word "agency" used herein means and includes every state government office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and every department, division, board, and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

The phrase "agencies headed by elective officials" used herein shall mean those executive offices or departments of the state which are directly supervised, administered, or controlled by the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, or insurance commissioner, but it shall not include those boards, commissions, or committees on which one or more of the above mentioned officials serve.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 167. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management with the approval of the governor, shall:

(1) Allot all or any portion of the funds herein appropriated or included in the state budget, to the various agencies by such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve: PROVIDED, That the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management shall not alter allotment requests filed with him, nor shall he place in reserve any funds, for the following: Washington State Apple Advertising Commission; Washington State Fruit Commission; Washington Dairy Products Commission or any agricultural commodity commission created under the provisions of chapter 15.66 RCW; the legislative branch of state government including the legislative budget committee, the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee, the state actuary, the statute law committee, and any legislative committee; or the judicial branch of state government: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the aggregate of allotments for any agency shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the agency concerned. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved appropriations or to incur a deficiency and any obligations so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959, shall prevent revisions of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues.

(2) Issue rules to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds.

(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above.

(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1977: PROVIDED, That no expenditures may be made from the appropriations contained in this act, except as otherwise provided, until after July 1, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 168. Unless prohibited by federal law the receipt of federal or other funds which are not anticipated in the appropriation bill enacted by the legislature shall be used to support regular programs instead of using funds appropriated from state taxes or similar revenue sources. Any state funds replaced by federal or other receipts shall be placed in reserve at the end of the respective fiscal year to the credit of the appropriate state fund or account, and shall not be expended, unless authorized by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 169. In the event that receipts shall be less than those estimated in the budget from any source, expenditures shall be limited to the amount received. Receipts for purposes of this section shall include amounts realized within one calendar month following the close of a fiscal period and applicable to expenditures of that period. The amount of such payment shall be credited to and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 170. State funds appropriated for the specific purpose of matching federal funds and which are not required wholly or in part to qualify for such federal funds shall be placed in reserve and shall revert to the general fund at the end of the respective fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 171. In the event that federal funds received for a program or activity are less than the amount of federal funds appropriated for such program or activity, the total expenditure for such program or activity shall be reduced by an equal amount and no state funds shall be used to replace the federal funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 172. If a scheduled program or project funded by the appropriations contained in this act has not been fully implemented during any quarter of the respective fiscal year, then the office of program planning and fiscal management shall withhold the equivalent amount of the appropriation and full time equivalent staff years from such program or project and shall place the same in reserve at the end of the respective fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 173. Agencies are authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 174. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency appropriation to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management shall direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 175. In addition to the amounts appropriated in this act for revenue for distribution, bond retirement and interest, transfers, and interest on registered warrants, there is also appropriated such further amounts as may be required or available for these purposes under any statutory formula or under any proper bond covenant made in accordance with law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 176. Amounts received by an agency as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 39.34.130 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor's budget, maximum interagency usage of data processing equipment and services, and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 177. It is the expressed intention of the legislature that agency operational activity shall be regularly monitored by the office of program planning and fiscal management, under their statutory authority relating to the allotment control function, in order to limit fluctuations in the respective fiscal year spending patterns which tend to inflate the expenditures in the second fiscal year of the biennium. Particular control emphasis shall be placed on those instances in which the full time equivalent staff years authorization is deliberately delayed in order to increase the agency's full time equivalent staff years as substantiation for the second fiscal year or the ensuing biennial request. Unanticipated receipts, which are authorized by the governor and expended by any state agency, shall be allotted, monitored, controlled, and reported separately at the end of the respective fiscal year and at the end of the biennium to the governor and the house appropriations committee and the senate ways and means committee. Such report shall identify the full time equivalent staff years and the program and/or activity for which such funds were expended.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 178. To obtain maximum interagency use of aircraft, the Aeronautics Commission in accordance with chapter 39.34 RCW is hereby authorized to lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire suitable aircraft which shall be utilized for the purposes of the Aeronautics Commission and also by other state agencies which have a need for an aircraft to carry out agency assigned responsibilities: PROVIDED, That the Aeronautics Commission is further authorized to enter into contractual agreements with other state agencies in order to acquire aircraft, establish rental rates for aircraft under their control, provide pilot services, aircraft maintenance, and make such other provisions as necessary to provide aircraft and related services for multi-agency use: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to achieve economy in the use of the appropriations contained within this act no state agency may purchase or otherwise acquire an aircraft or enter into a flying service or aircraft rental contract without first seeking such service from the Aeronautics Commission and without prior approval of the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 179. If any part of this act shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act; the rules and regulations under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 180. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 181. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 183, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 298.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 298, by Representatives Martinis, Moreau and Wilson (by Department of Natural Resources request):

Extending forest patrol assessments to public bodies.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Talley, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 298 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Talley yield? Senator Talley, there is a provision in the digest. I am looking for it in the bill here, that provides that the investigation and litigation and costs incurred by the department will be repaid. Now is there any provision that at least the costs of the attorney general's office, actually be repaid to the general fund or where do they go, into the revolving fund?"

Senator Talley: "They have a fund that is a revolving fund now, Senator Woody, that the association pays into and certain amounts—and I think the sales go into this fund, too. It is a revolving fund and they have an attorney assigned to them for any criminal charges or anything like that that might be applicable."

Senator Woody: "Is that the same treatment of their revolving fund as all agencies have with the attorney general's costs and expenses that are recovered?"

Senator Talley: "As far as the attorneys—Senator Woody, I can't answer you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 298, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 9.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—39.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bausch—1.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Buffington, Cunningham, Lewis, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Peterson, Wanamaker—9.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 298, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Jones, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 440 was ordered held for consideration later today.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 293.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 293, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Valle, Chandler, Thompson and Fischer):

Clarifying and changing sewer district finance law.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 5, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 293, clarifying and changing sewer district finance law (reported by Committee on Ecology):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 8, line 20, strike "~~((two))~~ four" and insert "two"

On page 8, line 22, after "least" strike "~~((fifteen))~~ twenty-nine" and insert "fifteen"

On page 8, line 27, after "least" strike "~~((fifteen))~~ twenty-nine" and insert "fifteen"

Signed by: Senators Washington, Chairman; Goltz, Guess, Murray, North, Ridder.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, I haven't had an opportunity to really take a look at this bill. As I read the analysis here, does that mean now that rather than having to be a couple that a single person who is left with a piece of property under certain circumstances could file a homestead?"

Senator Washington: "This has nothing to do with that. This relates to sewer districts."

Senator Day: "Oh, I'm sorry. I thought it was 440."

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 3, line 23, after the period insert:

"The amount of the revenue bonds to be issued shall be included in the resolution submitted."

On page 4, line 1, at the end of the section, add:

"The resolution shall include the amount of the bonds to be issued."

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, after line 18, insert the following additional sections:

"Sec. 11. Section 23, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 10, chapter 96, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.94.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Utility local improvement districts to carry out all or any portion of the general plan, or additions and betterments thereof, may be initiated either by resolution of the board of county commissioners or by petition signed by ~~((the owners according to the records of the office of the county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of land))~~ twenty-five percent of the qualified electors residing within the limits of the utility local improvement district to be created.

In case the board shall desire to initiate the formation of a utility local improvement district by resolution, it shall first pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, designating the number of the proposed utility local improvement district, describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed district, and fixing a date, time and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

In case any such utility local improvement district shall be initiated by petition, such petition shall set forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement and the fact that the signers thereof ~~((are the owners according to the records of the county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of land))~~ constitute twenty-five percent of the qualified electors residing within the limits of the utility local improvement district to be created. Upon the filing of such petition with the clerk of the board of county commissioners, the board shall determine whether the same shall be sufficient, and the board's determination thereof shall be conclusive upon all persons. No person shall withdraw his name from said petition after the filing thereof with the clerk of the board of county commissioners. If the board shall find the petition to be sufficient, it shall proceed to adopt a resolution declaring its intention to order the improvement petitioned for, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of said improvement, designating the number of the proposed local district, describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed local district, and fixing a date, time and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention, whether adopted on the initiative of the board or pursuant to a petition of the ~~((property owners))~~ qualified electors, shall be published in at least two consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the proposed local district, the date of the first publication to be at least fifteen days prior to the date fixed by such resolution for hearing before the board of county commissioners. Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention shall also be given each owner or reputed owner of any lot, tract, parcel of land or other property within the proposed improvement district by mailing said notice at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the public hearing to the owner or reputed owner of the property as shown on the tax rolls of the county treasurer at the address shown thereon. The notice shall refer to the resolution of intention and designate the proposed improvement district by number. Said notice shall also set forth the nature of the proposed improvement, the total estimated cost, the proportion of total cost to be borne by assessments, the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by the particular lot, tract or parcel, and the date, time and place of the hearing before the board of county commissioners~~((; and in the case of improvements initiated by resolution, said notice shall also state that all persons desiring to object to the formation of the proposed district must file their written protests with the clerk of the board of county commissioners before the time fixed for said public hearing))~~.

Whether the improvement is initiated by petition or resolution, the board shall conduct a public hearing at the time and place designated in the notice (~~to the property owners~~). At this hearing the board shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation of the local district and may make such changes in the boundaries of the district or such modifications in plans for the proposed improvement as shall be deemed necessary: PROVIDED, That the board may not change the boundaries of the district to include property not previously included therein without first passing a new resolution of intention and giving a new notice (~~to property owners~~) in the manner and form and within the time herein provided for the original notice.

~~((After said hearing the commissioners shall have jurisdiction to overrule protests and proceed with any such improvement initiated by petition or resolution: PROVIDED, That the jurisdiction of the commissioners to proceed with any improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by protests filed with the clerk of the board prior to said public hearing signed by the owners, according to the records of the county auditor, of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed local district. No action whatsoever may be maintained challenging the jurisdiction or authority of the county to proceed with the improvement and creating the utility local improvement district or in any way challenging the validity thereof or any proceedings relating thereto unless that action is served and filed no later than thirty days after the date of passage of the resolution ordering the improvement and creating the local district.))~~

If the commissioners find that the district should be formed, they shall by resolution call a special election to be held not less than sixty nor more than one hundred twenty days from the date of the resolution and cause to be published a notice of the election for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the proposed district is to be located. If a majority of the electors voting thereon approve the formation of the district the commissioners shall order the improvement, adopt detailed plans of the utility local improvement district and declare the estimated cost thereof, acquire all necessary land therefor, pay all damages caused thereby, and commence in the name of the county such eminent domain proceedings and supplemental assessment or reassessment proceedings to pay all eminent domain awards as may be necessary to entitle the county to proceed with the work. The board of county commissioners shall proceed with the work and file with the county treasurer its roll levying special assessments in the amount to be paid by special assessment against the property situated within the local utility improvement district in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by the property therein from the improvement."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington: "Point of parliamentary inquiry. I intend to raise the issue of scope and object of this amendment, and I think it might be well to raise it now so that you have that matter before you to determine before we come back.

"Raising the question of scope and object, and that this amendment does change the scope and object of the bill. The present bill relates only to sewer districts and relates to chapter 56.08. The amendment by Senator Rasmussen relates to chapter 36.94 which relates to counties. The bill relates only to sewer districts, relates only to sewers. The Rasmussen amendment relates to counties and it relates to the methods, not only for setting up an LID for a sewer system, but also a water system and a drainage system.

"So it expands and changes the scope in that it relates to counties, and not sewer districts. It relates to water systems and drainage systems in addition to sewer systems and makes a very substantial change in the method of setting up an LID, changing the number from twenty-five percent of the electors. At the present time it is fifty-one percent of the area of the land. He is changing it from a matter relating to land and making an amendment that provides that electors who may not own land in the district or a number of very small ones who would be able to establish an LID against the wishes of a substantial acreage of the property. So, it clearly expands the scope and object of the bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, in opposing Senator Washington's challenge on the scope and object, I would refer him to the recent supreme court case in which all qualified electors are entitled to vote. You no longer may restrict by being a property holder. The same thing has been ruled on in the case of a freeholder, and that should take care of his question of the electors.

"Other than that, the amendment as proposed, provides for any improvements that the residents of the area desire to form a local improvement district that they may petition by twenty-five percent of the qualified electors and that they also then would go to a vote of the people in the proposed urban local improvement district.

"I think it is wholly within the scope of the proposal that is before us in House Bill 293, and I would urge that the President so rule."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 293, as amended, together with the pending amendment by Senator Rasmussen and the Point of Order raised by Senator Washington, was ordered held for consideration on May 20, 1977.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Fleming served notice that he would, later today, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 292, as amended by the Senate, passed the Senate today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 440.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 440, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Smith, Winsley and Knowles) (by Judicial Council request):

Modifying the homestead exemption.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Jones moved the following amendments by Senators Jones, Hayner and Woody be adopted and considered simultaneously:

On page 1, line 26, after "married" strike "~~((, but is the head of a family within the meaning of RCW 6.12.298 as now or hereafter amended;))~~" and insert ", but is the head of a family within the meaning of RCW 6.12.290 as now or hereafter amended,"

On page 2, line 3, after "the" strike all material through "claimant" on line 4 and insert "husband, wife, or other head of a family"

On page 2, line 21, after "(1)" strike all material through the period on line 22 and insert "A statement showing that the person making it is the head of a family."

Renumber remaining subsections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, would Senator Jones yield to a question? Senator Jones, as I understand it, then, we would go back to the old law that would say that a single person is not entitled to the protection of a homestead even though they are living there in the home and they simply are single and they are not then within the definition of 6.12.290?"

Senator Jones: "Senator Bottiger, it is my understanding that the original concept was for the head of the family, and right, we would go back to what is the cornerstone, I believe, of our way of life, the head of a family."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Jones failed and the amendments were not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 440 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 440, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—46.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, McDermott, Peterson—3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 440, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 675, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Fischer, Adams, Sherman, Erickson, North, Clemente, Hughes, Salatino, Nelson (Dick), Vrooman, Burns, Keller, Pearsall, Grier, Owen, Hanna, Gruger, Gallagher, Bauer, Bender, Charnley, Knowles, Williams, Gaines, McCormick, Maxie, Grimm, Hurley (George), Douthwaite, Lux, Martinis, Sommers and Walk):

Abolishing pay toilets and requiring certain places of public accommodation to have free public toilet facilities.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 675 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Henry: "Will Senator Day yield to a question? Would you say that the philosophy is behind this that makes Mother Nature call, she shouldn't have to call collect?"

Senator Day: "That is correct."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 675, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 18; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Marsh, Monohon, Murray, North, Odegaard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—27.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Matson, Morrison, Newschwander, Pullen, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker—18.

Absent or not voting: Senator Benitz—1.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, McDermott, Peterson—3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 675, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Substitute House Bill No. 675 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 927, by Representatives Flanagan, Hansen and Oliver:

Exempting community college district employees working outside states' boundaries from higher education personnel law.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 927 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Odegaard yield to a question? Senator Odegaard, how do they handle the transfer personnel, for instance, employed by Big Bend, I would like to have this open spot over there in the community college branch in West Germany. Are they then allowed to take that spot?"

Senator Odegaard: "I imagine, if they qualify and they go through the regular procedures that they would be. Senator Washington is probably more familiar with that particular program than I would be."

Senator Rasmussen: "My question is that if they then are on the system here, transfer over there, this bill would take them out from under the protection?"

Senator Odegaard: "As I understand it, it would, Senator Rasmussen, but of course that would be their choice if they chose to be transferred over there."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, that is my question. I think it would rather inhibit those people that would probably be very well qualified and want to go teach in the foreign branch from accepting that transfer, when they are knowing that they would lose their protection, and if this leaves them without any protection."

Senator Odegaard: "Actually I think they would wind up with more protection because the way it has been handled because of cost involved, the state has been hesitant to fly, for example, a hearing officer or someone from the HEP-Board overseas to work on the problem so they probably sometimes are left without anybody to correct the problem. So this would allow the federal government personnel officer to work with that employee and hear the appeal and it would probably be better protection for the employee than presently."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Senator Odegaard, Senator Rasmussen, I think, has really stated the point, question of a hearing. The employee may have a grievance, have a problem. At the present time with only the HEP-Board being able to do it, he isn't able to perhaps get the protection that he should be able to get, so this way, you at least have an outside source, the federal personnel officer, to act as the hearing officer and make the determination."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 927, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—46.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, McDermott, Peterson—3.

HOUSE BILL NO. 927, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 444, by Representatives Conner, Charnley, Lux and Grier: Increasing parents' liability for property damage caused by their children to $3,000.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Bottiger moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 10, after "mixed," insert "or who shall wilfully or maliciously inflict personal injury on another person,"

On page 1, line 11, after "property" insert "or to the person injured"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Hayner yield to a question? Senator Hayner, a long time ago, I was going to school too and we used to have a habit of punching each other in the nose when we didn't like them or their actions. We probably loved them the next day, but at the moment we didn't like them. I am concerned about this. What would you call 'maliciously', if you hit the guy once in the nose or if you hit him twice? Would that be malicious?"

Senator Hayner: "Well, I think that is something that has to be determined, but certainly willful and malicious are very clear words that the court understands, and if you have a child who is going to school and punching people in the nose, I think you as a parent, owe a duty to society to try and prevent that."

Senator Rasmussen: "I was the one that usually got punched in the nose. My concern is, Senator Hayner, that by putting this in the law that many, many parents would unknowingly become involved. They don't have a particularly malicious child, but inflicts personal injury on another person. When you get through with that fight, and there are many of them on the school grounds, even today, or in the halls. In fact, they are more prevalent, I think. But here is a parent that is doing all they can but they have no way of knowing what is going on when their child is out of their sight. But, if by putting this in the law, it leaves them subject to suit, that is the big problem, not the fact that we don't want it stopped. It is the fact that here you say in the law 'inflict personal injury.' For instance, Senator Hayner or Senator Bottiger, who are attorneys, could find it very easy to file a suit against somebody and it may not be their fault that their child, in effect, maliciously hit the person twice. That is my whole concern is it just leaves them wide open to a suit that they probably do not deserve and will cost them—you well know the cost of a suit nowadays is. Just to answer a suit costs you two or three hundred dollars to get another attorney to write a letter."

Senator Hayner: "Well, on the other hand, the youngster who has been injured, his parents certainly are going to have to bear the cost, and it seems to me that the one who has inflicted the injury certainly should be responsible, and that parent more than the one who has been standing there and has been picked on."

Senator Rasmussen: "Maybe the other person started it, but he didn't get hurt. I think that we all should take a look at how much we want to open this up to parents being sued and it is a grave question."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, would Senator Hayner yield to another question? I had five children in my troop, and they were all male boys, all four of them, and one female girl. I was delighted for that. They did do a little street fighting. In fact, I recall one instance when one of them got into a fight with a kid and it broke up and the kid's dad brought him back and took him back behind the school and said to his kid, 'O.K., now whip him.' Well, in the process he lost a tooth, the other kid. Even with the touting he was getting, he still couldn't win the fight. Now, I did pay for the tooth, but I also had a talk with the father and I just wonder now, what was my liability there in that instance if we put this amendment on. You know, I couldn't say that was a case of bullying, but it was certainly a case where the kid stood up for what he thought he had to."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I just wonder why you are all picking on Senator Hayner when it is Senator Bottiger's amendment, and he is just itching to get up and explain it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Senator Bottiger, then."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Day, in your example, there would be the default—the defense of either self defense or, what is that old thing about—it's part of the game. There is a defense to that, and that isn't what we are talking about on malicious—read the language. It says, 'who wilfully or maliciously inflicts personal injury.' We are not talking about the fight they both engaged in of their own free will. But the thing I think we are talking about in Senator Rasmussen's example or Senator Day, you would be surprised what a letter will do.

"We are talking about little claims and lawyers are not going to run around looking for chances to file on little claims like this where there is no insurance and where the likelihood of collecting is pretty remote. But write a letter to somebody and say, 'My client brings me his son who has his two front teeth knocked out, and it is apparently the third time your kid has beat up on him, I just send you a copy of the statute that says the next time it happens you can expect a lawsuit, and you are going to pay for the personal injury,' and see the change of attitude in that kid after his dad took him out behind the woodshed."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Is it your contemplation that the parents of the offending child would be responsible only for the direct medical and repair expenses, or would they also be responsible for pain, anguish, sobbing and other emotional ramifications of the incident?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, Senator Wilson, in response to your question, if you, let's say, put an eye out. If the kid came up and poked another kid in the eye or shot him with a BB gun and put an eye out, you had an emotional trauma and that child now needed psychiatric care and had an emotional damage that that would be collectible under this language of personal injury. So also would it be if they, let's say, one of the guys in the school started a rumor about one of the girls, how free and easy she was and that caused an emotional trauma and she needed psychiatric help, you could recover for that, too."

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Bottiger was adopted:

On line 2 of the amendment to page 1, line 10, after "wilfully" strike "or" and insert "and"

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendments, as amended, were adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 444, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 444, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—45.

Voting nay: Senator Bausch—1.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, McDermott, Peterson—3.

HOUSE BILL NO. 444, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 446, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representatives Warnke, Polk and Knowles) (by Department of Motor Vehicles request):

Changing the requirements for real estate licenses.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Van Hollebeke moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Van Hollebeke, Day, Walgren, Mardesich and Woody:

On page 2, line 11, after "exchange," strike "lease, or rental"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Would Senator Wojahn yield? Senator Wojahn, in some circumstances I believe an owner of an apartment might have a person who is the maintenance manager, shall we say, for the building actually show the apartments that might be available and, in effect, be what amounts to a rental agent for that. Unless this amendment passes that would not be possible, would it?"

Senator Wojahn: "Yes, it is being done all the time, Senator Lewis."

Senator Lewis: "Is it being done legally?"

Senator Wojahn: "Legally all the time because they are not in a property management position. They have never been forced to become a real estate broker or a licensed salesman, and the fact is, I have a letter here that I requested from the department of motor vehicles that states clearly that they have never been required to do this, that they do not come under the licensing provisions of the act, and will never be required to because they are not really—they collect only in behalf of an owner, but they are not turning over substantial amounts. The owner is equally responsible and under that provision they do not have to become licensed because he is the responsible agent. They are simply the resident collector of rent, and they do not, with the permission of the Senate I will find this and read it.

"Our main concern is having a person who handles rentals or real estate covered is to insure some monitoring of the funds the agent receives. In the instance of a resident manager of apartment complexes we have not required the individual to obtain a license where he does not have the authority to expend the funds."

"You see, the difference is in a property management. They also are expending funds to maintain that business because it is usually an absentee landlord, so they are maintaining the property. They are expending funds at the same time that they are collecting the rent. In that instance—and they could even have a resident manager who would not have to be licensed.

"There has been a lot of misinformation on this, and the person who is simply collecting the rent really does not expend the funds unless he is under the direct control of the owner, and I really don't think this amendment is necessary."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Van Hollebeke failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Van Hollebeke moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Van Hollebeke, Buffington, Day and Lewis:

On page 9, line 22, after "RCW 18.85.010" insert "; nor, (5) any owner or manager of rental or lease property which rental or lease is intended solely for residential purposes"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "I would like to ask someone a question now. Senator Woody, if you want to answer this question—it says 'solely for residential purposes' now, is exempted from here. What about somebody that owns a commercial building, and I am gone and I say to my son, 'go over when that client comes and show him the place and rent it to him.'? Senator Mardesich says he has another amendment that cures the problem."

(No reply.)

The motion by Senator Van Hollebeke carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 9, line 14, after "account," insert "or that of a group of which he is a member"

On page 9, line 15, after "owner" insert "or part owner"

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, I do have the answer here that is an existing code on page 9, line 16 when it talks about any duly authorized attorney in fact or attorney at law. Senator Day, your son could be designated by you as your attorney in fact, other or general or a special or an oral assignment of duties."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 446, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 446, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—40.

Voting nay: Senators Fleming, Grant, Herr, Rasmussen—4.

Absent or not voting: Senators Henry, Matson—2.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, McDermott, Peterson—3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 446, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 32.

SECOND READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 32, by Representatives King and Berentson:

Adopting joint rules of the forty-fifth legislature.

The Senate resumed consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 32. On May 18, 1977, the resolution was amended by Senator Mardesich.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Mardesich was adopted on May 18, 1977.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the following amendment by Senator Mardesich, on reconsideration:

On page 8, line 16, Rule 7, after "report)" and before the period insert "PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in the event five members of a conference committee cannot agree on a request for a free conference report a majority of the committee may report that the committee cannot agree, and request the appointment of another committee: PROVIDED FURTHER, That members of a conference committee may be discharged by a majority of the members present of their respective house"

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On line 8 of the amendment to page 8, line 16, after "committee" strike the balance of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, would it be your understanding then if the amendment that you have provided striking the last proviso is adopted that the members of this body could not, by a majority vote, remove or discharge their conference committee?"

Senator Mardesich: "No, as a matter of fact, then, this body would do what it might please to do because there being no direction in the joint rules, the body would be free to do whatever they desired to do."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, your last PROVIDED FURTHER, 'The members of the conference committee may be discharged by a majority of the members present of their respective House?'"

Senator Mardesich: "That is all that we are striking."

Senator Rasmussen: "No, this is on the new amendment. It is your new wording."

Senator Mardesich: "The first 'PROVIDED HOWEVER' would remain, and all I am striking, then, is the 'PROVIDED FURTHER, That members of a conference committee may be discharged by a majority of the members present of their respective House'."

Senator Rasmussen: "You are striking that—"

Senator Mardesich: "That portion, right, not the balance of it."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, was adopted.

Senator Clarke moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 8, amend Rule 9 as follows:

On line 33, after "resolution" and before the period insert "and such report must have the signatures of five of the six members of the committee"

On page 9, strike Rule ((9)) 10 and insert:

"FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RULE ((9)) 10. ((In case of failure of the conferees to agree on matters directly at issue between the two houses, a report of the items of such disagreement including new proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill in conference shall be made and)) Upon request for free conference the power of free conference may be granted ((to)) by the two houses ((either)) to the ((same)) committee, or the committee may be discharged and a new committee appointed with the power of ((free)) conference, as defined in Joint Rule 7 ((to whom only items of disagreement or new items approved by one house in the disputed bill or resolution may be committed ((, and)). The report of the committee of free conference ((may report by new bill or resolution, or otherwise, and bills or resolution so reported)) shall be acted upon in the same manner as provided for reports of conference committees (~~(: PROVIDED, That the house and senate shall have thirty-six hours from the time of receipt in the house originating the conference request to consider reports from a free conference committee and shall not vote thereon until the thirty-six hour period shall have elapsed except that with respect to budget and appropriations and revenue and tax measures, the required interval shall be twenty-four hours. PROVIDED FURTHER, That irrespective of any rule herein or any rule of either the senate or the house of representatives, the foregoing provisions relating to thirty six and twenty-four hour intervals will not be suspended unless the legislature shall otherwise direct by a two-thirds vote of all of the members elected to each house. Simultaneously with receipt of the report a copy of said report shall be placed upon the desk of each member of the legislature)). The report of a free conference committee must have the signatures of five of the six members of the committee: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in the event five members of a free conference committee cannot agree on the bill or measure referred to the committee, a majority of the committee may report that the committee cannot agree, and request the appointment of another committee."~~

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, I don't see that the explanation you gave for the rules change as proposed here is really an explanation for the change. Your first proposed change would indicate that reports must have five signatures of the six members of the committee."

Senator Clarke: "That is the present situation."

Senator Grant: "So if that is the present situation, why is it necessary to have that language?"

Then on page 9 where you strike the old rule 9 and insert a new rule 10 on free conference committee, it would appear that you are striking a lot of language with regard to how long the committee report should be on the desks of the members. Is that what is occurring here? I just can't see what the object is of the amendment."

Senator Clarke: "It is my understanding that the time provision is not in effect abrogated, but is still contained in another portion of the rules, and the reason for the readjustment of the paragraph numbers is to, in effect, you have got to a certain extent mixed up the question of conference and free conference because on things, for instance, such as the budget when you appoint a conference committee you know they are going into free conference. So, then you have to, in effect, provide first for the conference committee and then the free conference committee."

Senator Grant: "Senator Clarke, then would it be fair to say that their are no substantive changes proposed but it is just a rearrangement and clarification of the responsibilities of the free conference committee and the conference committee by your amendment?"

Senator Clarke: "In substance, I think that is correct because what I am trying to take care of is the inconsistency of the proposition that if the body does not like a report of a free conference committee, it discharges that committee and appoints a new free conference committee. That, of course, you don't do. What you would do is appoint a new conference committee, and that committee would go out and then attempt to have another free conference report. They would come back and request the power of free conference, at which time the body would then have the opportunity of either accepting or rejecting the free conference. It is not the intent to change in any way the time elements or things of that nature."

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendment to the last line of the Clarke amendment to Rule 10, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the amendments were adopted.
 On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendments were adopted:
 On page 10, line 12, after "~~deletions~~)" strike ";" and insert "((;), and"
 On page 11, beginning on line 3, amend Rule 12 as follows: Strike "The report shall be read in full in each house before a vote is taken on the report."

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved the rules be suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 32, as amended by the Senate, be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution be placed on final passage.

MOTION

Senator Washington moved the motion by Senator Walgren to advance House Concurrent Resolution No. 32, as amended by the Senate, to third reading and further consideration of the resolution be held to May 20, 1977.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: "Would Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington is it your proposal that you prepare an amendment to correct this error, or do you want to check to see whether there is an error so you can propose an amendment, and that is why you want to have this done?"

Senator Washington: "Yes, that is right."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Washington carried. House Concurrent Resolution No. 32, as amended by the Senate, together with the motion by Senator Walgren to advance the bill to third reading, was ordered held for further consideration May 20, 1977.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

May 18, 1977.

Mr. Speaker:

Mr. President:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2156, permitting certain corporations of health care professionals to act as self-insurers against liability, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree. We recommend that the House amendment to page 1, line 16, be not adopted and respectfully request the powers of free conference, in order to amend the bill as follows:

On page 1, line 16, after "code." strike the balance of the section and insert "An association or other entity composed of five hundred or more health care professionals licensed pursuant to chapters 18.71 or 18.88 RCW, or an association or other entity composed of at least one-third of the health care professionals licensed pursuant to any of the following chapters: 18.22, 18.25, 19.32, or 18.57 RCW, and, if composed of more than five hundred members, meeting capital and surplus requirements set forth in RCW 48.05.340(1), or, if composed of less than five hundred members, meeting one-third of the capital and surplus requirements set forth in RCW 48.05.340(1), after a written determination by the insurance commissioner that insurance for claims brought under chapter 7.70 RCW is either unavailable or cost-prohibitive from a licensed insurance carrier, may join and organize as a mutual corporation pursuant to chapter 24.06 RCW for the purpose of insuring or self-insuring against claims brought under chapter 7.70 RCW through a contributing trust fund and shall not be deemed an "insurer" under this code: PROVIDED, That each health professional mutual corporation shall submit a financial and operational report annually to the legislative budget committee and the insurance commissioner."

Signed by: Senators Day and Woody; Representatives Douthwaite, Haley and Grier.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, the report of the Conference Committee was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 19, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has receded from its amendments to page 3, line 10; and page 1, line 1 of the title to SENATE BILL NO. 2196, and has passed the bill without the amendments, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 165.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 165, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Valle, Zimmerman and Thompson):

Enacting the "Public Water System Coordination Act of 1977".

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 21, 1977.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 165, enacting the "Public Water System Coordination Act of 1977" (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike lines 10 through 17.

On page 1, line 28, after ";" strike "and"

On page 1, line 30, after "systems" strike "." and insert "; and

(4) To assist public water systems to meet reasonable standards of quality, quantity and pressure."

On page 2, line 18, after ";" and before "other" strike "or" and insert "and"

On page 4, line 16, after "developed" strike "." and insert ": PROVIDED, That non-municipally owned public water systems are exempt from the planning requirements of this act, except for the establishment of service area boundaries if they: (a) were in existence as of the effective date of this act; and (b) have no plans for water service beyond their existing service area, and (c) meet minimum quality and pressure design criteria established by the State Board of Health: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the county legislative authority permits a change in development that will increase the demand for water service of such a system beyond the existing system's ability to provide minimum water service, the purveyor shall develop a water system plan in accordance with this section."

On page 4, line 25, after "of" and before "facilities" insert "public water system"

On page 5, line 5, after "programs," and before "developmental" strike "and" and insert "and/or"

On page 5, line 29, after "the" and before "find" strike "reviewing agencies" and insert "legislative authorities"

On page 6, line 1, after "the" and before "within" strike "reviewing agencies" and insert "legislative authorities"

On page 6, line 25, after "of" and before "critical" strike "a" and insert "the"

Signed by: Senators McDermott, North, Sellar, Talley.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Sellar moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, striking lines 10 through 17.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Sellar carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Sellar, the committee amendments to page 1, lines 28 and 30; page 2, line 18; page 4, line 16 and line 25; and page 5, line 5; were adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Sellar yield to a question? Senator Sellar, it says that they are to review, 'are reviewed by local appropriate governmental agencies to ensure that the plan is not consistent with the land use plan—'"

Senator Sellar: "Inconsistent."

Senator Guess: "What I want to know is, why a water district would be—what has it got to do with land use plans and the shoreline master programs?"

Senator Sellar: "Senator, it doesn't say that it should be consistent. It says it is going to be not inconsistent with the shoreline. It is saying that basically that there should be some review made, that they are not violating that shoreline plan."

Senator Guess: "Thank you."

On motion of Senator Sellar, the committee amendments to page 5, line 29; page 6, line 1 and line 25 were adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Sellar yield? Senator Sellar, before we get too far into the bill, I would like to ask you, on page 1, line 23 'that the purposes of the chapter are, sub (1), to provide for the establishment of critical water supply service areas related to water utility planning and development.' What is the function or is the department itself going to establish these water service districts or water service areas?"

Senator Sellar: "No, they are not. The department would come into an area and say, 'We think we have a problem of water supply in this area.' There then would be a board set up of county legislative people. The county commissioners, basically then, would go out and either agree or disagree, and they would say, 'Yes, we have a problem.' Then they would set the boundaries of that critical water area. Then the providers of water in that area would then get together and meet, and they would further divide that area inside those boundaries and say, the water district is responsible for this or the taxing district or the city or the county or whatever. This would become a critical water supply area, but this is done by local legislative facility, not by the department of social and health services."

Senator Guess: "The thing that I wanted to make sure that the legislative intent was established that we do not intend for the department to go around establishing their own water supply areas."

Senator Sellar: "They would make a recommendation, but the area itself would be designated by local authorities."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator."

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 28, after "treatment" insert "for purifying purposes only"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Day yield? Are you against adding—what is it that keeps your teeth good—is that what you are aiming at?"

Senator Day: "Well, that, or any other substance that might be used in the treatment of water other than for the purposes of purifying it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator North: "Will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, is the intent and purpose of this amendment to prohibit any fluoridation in a water system?"

Senator Day: "The intent, in this is under the purposes of this act and without any other authority to prohibit, not only fluoridation, but anything else that they might decide to put in water for purposes of treatment."

Senator North: "Are you indicating that in order to fluoridate a water system, it would have to be submitted to a vote of the people?"

Senator Day: "Well, I would certainly hope that it would, but that isn't inherent in this amendment. I think that is already in the statutes somewhere, but this doesn't mandate anything except that when they talk about treatment in this definitions section, we are talking about the purification of water, not the adding of all kinds of things to it."

The motion by Senator Day carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Sellar, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 165, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Sellar yield to a question? Senator Sellar, this spells out critical water areas, and are there any provisions in the bill that would restrict population growth or land use because of being designated a critical area?"

Senator Sellar: I am not denying that that could happen, however the critical water area would have to—the local authorities would have to say, 'Yes, we do have a critical water problem in this area', and then the local authorities would have to designate this area. There is a mechanism for hearings, for public input into the area, and at that time they might say there is not sufficient safe drinking water available in this area for future development. That is a possibility, but that is only after a great deal of hearing and discussion among local authorities. It would not give, for instance, the department of social and health services the authority to come in and say, 'We are going to stop building up here because you haven't got enough water.'"

Senator Rasmussen: "As I understand then, the designation will be by the local authorities, and any necessary action would require local action by either the county commissioners or the city council and so forth."

Senator Sellar: "That is correct. I would not anticipate a great number of these areas being designated in the state."

Senator Rasmussen: "We do have them, quite a few of them. Thank you, Senator."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 165, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 17; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Marsh, Monohon, Murray, Newschwander, North, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wojahn—28.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Day, Donohue, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Matson, Morrison, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Scott, Van Hollebeke, Wilson, Woody—17.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Francis, McDermott, Peterson—4.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 165, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 318, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Hansen, Fortson, Fancher, Gaines, Kilbury, Boldt, Charnley, Amen and Knedlik):

Permitting owners of property subject to condemnation proceedings to give the property to governmental unit involved.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 12, after "agency" strike "may" and insert "shall"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Guess:

On page 3, after line 13, insert new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Private property shall not be taken for public, quasi-public, or private use without proof of the necessity of taking and just compensation having first been made, or paid to a court for the private land owner: PROVIDED, That this section and section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act shall not be construed to alter or amend the doctrine and statutes relating to "open range" except as such statutes may be modified by chapter 16.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Just compensation shall be paid in accordance with the laws and Constitution of this state to the appropriate private land owners whenever the use and enjoyment of private property is modified or eliminated by the operation of the doctrine of public trust: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this section shall be inapplicable to the acquisition of prescriptive rights and easements, the right of access necessitating ways of necessity when no access otherwise exists, the rights established by adverse possession pursuant to court precedents and in accordance with the applicable statutes of the state of Washington, the right of the public to establish by law, resolution, or ordinance of the legislature and of subordinate political subdivisions of the state, zoning and similar regulations, and the right of the public to declare in accordance with the established court precedents and the statutes of the state, nuisances relative to the use of property under particular circumstances and in particular locations. For the purpose of this section and section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act amortization shall not be considered to be just compensation."

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I hate to do this. The bill has passed. It is over in the House now, and we are cluttering up another little bill that is trying to save a few dollars and making it controversial. Therefore, I must raise the point of scope and object."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Substitute House Bill No. 318, as amended, together with the pending amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Guess and the Point of Order raised by Senator Bottiger, was ordered held as a special order of business immediately following the noon recess.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2877, by Committee on Constitution and Elections) (originally sponsored by Senators Goltz, Bailey, Sellar and Newschwander) (by Joint Board of Legislative Ethics request):

Revising laws on ethics and disclosure:

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877. On May 18, 1977, the bill was amended by Senator Goltz. On that day, the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen, Clarke and Lewis was moved for adoption and a point of order was raised by Senator Grant:

On page 7, after line 26, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 42.17.242 to read as follows:

Every elected official and every chief executive state officer who is subject to the provisions of RCW 42.17.240, who holds or whose immediate family member holds any office, directorship, general partnership interest, or an ownership interest of ten percent or more in any corporation, partnership, joint venture, or other business entity, shall be exempt from complying with the provisions of RCW 42.17.240(1)(g)(ii), if such official or chief executive state officer requests from the commission such exemption and proves that the furnishing of such information might substantially and adversely affect the competitive position of such corporation, partnership, joint venture, or other business entity.

Any elected official or chief executive officer granted an exemption under this section shall include in the written statement required by RCW 42.17.240 the names of those governmental units and business or commercial entities from which the business entity of such official or officer (or of the immediate family member of such official or officer) has received during the preceding year two thousand five hundred dollars or more as a result of any contract between those governmental units or business or commercial entities and the governmental entity of such official or officer. The official or officer to whom such exemption has been granted shall also be disqualified from participating in any negotiations for or the making of any contract between such governmental units or business or commercial entities and the governmental entity of such official or officer."

Renumber the remaining section.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Grant, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill 2877 is a measure which applies to all elected and appointed public officials and alters the present public disclosure reporting requirements with which these officials must comply. The measure contains several specific references to the contents of financial disclosure reports required to be filed under the public disclosure law.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Rasmussen also governs the circumstances under which public officials must report certain financial data under the public disclosure law.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the measure and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment was ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

On the fifth line from the bottom of the amendment, strike "agency" and insert "governmental entity" and on the last line of the amendment after "and" strike the remainder of the sentence and insert "the governmental entity of such official or officer."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Grant demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Rasmussen, Washington, von Reichbauer, Ridder, Sellar, Wilson, Goltz, Monohon and Gaspard.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Rasmussen, Clarke and Lewis, as amended.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment, as amended, was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 19; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Newschwander, Pullen, Rasmussen, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Woody—25.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Beck, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Herr, Monohon, North, Odegaard, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—19.

Absent or not voting: Senator Murray—1.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Francis, McDermott, Peterson—4.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Murray was excused.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, line 30, insert a new section 3:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No employer, public or private, or officer, director, manager, or official of any company, union, or association of any kind, or any other person acting on behalf of such individual or organization, shall solicit or collect contributions as defined in RCW 42.17.020(10) from any employee or member for purposes of contributing to political candidates or political committees."

Re-number remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of order that the amendment by Senator Mardesich expands the scope and object of the bill.

"Mr. President and members of the Senate, the bill originally dealt, I think, with the disposition of surplus campaign funds, and the amendment adopted by Senator Rasmussen, although I felt that expanded the scope, at least dealt with the reporting requirements of the public disclosure commission, reporting requirements to the public disclosure commission.

"The amendment by Senator Mardesich now goes even beyond that considerably by limiting those people who may contribute to campaigns, and it goes so far, I think, as to probably prohibit any kind of solicitation for campaign contributions. It is so broadly drafted and so imperfectly drafted, I might add, that about the only contributions that one might be able to receive would be those that came voluntarily without any solicitation or a candidate's own funds."

"I think it is far beyond the scope and object of this measure and one that should not be permitted for consideration at this time."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, this is in fact a measure dealing with campaign contributions in many areas in the bill. It speaks to the disposition of those contributions, reporting as to contributions and what my amendment does is simply clarify further the collection, disposal and reporting with respect to campaign contributions.

"I would also disagree with Senator Grant as to the poor drafting in the amendment."

MOTION

At 11:20 a.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate recessed until 12:18 p.m.

NOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 12:18 p.m.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2877, by Committee on Constitution and Elections (originally sponsored by Senators Goltz, Bailey, Sellar and Newschwander) (by Joint Board of Legislative Ethics request):

Revising laws on ethics and disclosure.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877 from earlier today and the following amendment by Senator Mardesich moved for adoption and the Point of Order raised by Senator Grant:

On page 4, line 30, insert a new section 3:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No employer, public or private, or officer, director, manager, or official of any company, union, or association of any kind, or any other person acting on behalf of such individual or organization shall solicit or collect contributions as defined in RCW 42.17.020(10) from any employee or member for purposes of contributing to political candidates or political committees."

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Grant, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill 2877 is a measure which applies to elected and appointed public officials and alters the present public disclosure reporting requirements with which these officials must comply.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Mardesich does not deal with the reporting requirements of the public disclosure law, but rather with the solicitation of campaign contributions for political candidates.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment expands the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order raised by Senator Grant is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Mardesich was ruled out of order.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, line 30 insert a new section 3.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Every political committee or candidate shall, upon receipt of contributions as defined in RCW 42.17.020(10) which would appear to have been contributed by an employer, manager or official of any company, union, or association of any kind; or any other person acting on behalf of such individual or organization shall request of such individual or organization an affidavit that such individual or organization has not solicited or collected contributions from any employee or member for the purpose of contributing to political candidates or political committees.

Copies of affidavits shall be provided to the Public Disclosure Commission at the same time as reports as to the contributions are required or a statement that such affidavit has been requested from the donor and that the contribution will not be expended until an affidavit has been provided. If an affidavit has not been provided as requested within 20 days of receipt of the contribution, the contribution shall then be returned to the donor."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of order that this amendment also expands the scope and object of the measure. It would appear that the amendment now offered by Senator Mardesich requires an affidavit of a political committee and it also requires affidavits of contributors to the effect that the contributions have not been solicited for political purposes. It is not too dissimilar from the previous amendment which, in fact, prohibits contributions by any association of any kind or manager or official or employer or anyone else. It is a different way, albeit a very clever one, and not as imperfect as the previous amendment. It is a different way of prohibiting the contributions and I think for the same reasons as the President offered before, this amendment should also be ruled beyond the scope and object of this measure."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, the amendment very specifically relates to the main subject of the bill. The main subject of the bill is the question of reporting those contributions, reporting with respect to contributions and the disposition thereof.

"This is an amendment which requires report as to contributions, and it seems to me that if you were to take the position that this were not within the scope and object, then it would be literally impossible to change the type of reports which would be required of a candidate with respect to contributions."

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Grant, the Point of Order was withdrawn.

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

At 12:33 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 318, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Hansen, Fortson, Fancher, Gaines, Kilbury, Boldt, Charnley, Amen and Knedlik):

Permitting owners of property subject to condemnation proceedings to give the property to governmental unit involved.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 318. Earlier today, the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Guess had been moved for adoption. Senator Bottiger raised a Point of Order on the amendment:

On page 3, after line 13, insert new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Private property shall not be taken for public, quasi-public, or private use without proof of the necessity of taking and just compensation having first been made, or paid to a court for the private land owner: PROVIDED, That this section and section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act shall not be construed to alter or amend the doctrine and statutes relating to "open range" except as such statutes may be modified by chapter 16.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Just compensation shall be paid in accordance with the laws and Constitution of this state to the appropriate private land owners whenever the use and enjoyment of private property is modified or eliminated by the operation of the doctrine of public trust: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this section shall be inapplicable to the acquisition of prescriptive rights and easements, the right of access necessitating ways of necessity when no access otherwise exists, the rights established by adverse possession pursuant to court precedents and in accordance with the applicable statutes of the state of Washington, the right of the public to establish by law, resolution, or ordinance of the legislature and of subordinate political subdivisions of the state, zoning and similar regulations, and the right of the public to declare in accordance with the established court precedents and the statutes of the state, nuisances relative to the use of property under particular circumstances and in particular locations. For the purpose of this section and section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act amortization shall not be considered to be just compensation."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Bottiger, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 318 relates to the acquisition of private property by all state agencies and local public bodies.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Rasmussen also deals with the circumstances under which private property can be acquired for public use.

"Therefore, the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Guess was ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen, Donohue, Matson and Woody was adopted:

On page 3, after line 13, insert new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to Title 58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The owner of any real property in the state of Washington may transfer by deed not less than one nor more than five acres of such property to a parent, spouse, or child for the exclusive purpose of permitting said parent, spouse, or child to construct thereon one single family residence and necessary out buildings thereto. The deed shall contain a restrictive covenant running with the property reflecting the provisions of this section. Any conveyance of real property meeting the conditions imposed by this section shall be exempt from the provisions of this title.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 271, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 58.17.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to:

- (1) Cemeteries and other burial plots while used for that purpose;
- (2) Divisions of land into lots or tracts each of which is one-one hundred twenty-eighth of a section of land or larger, or five acres or larger if the land is not capable of description as a fraction of a section of land (~~(, unless the governing authority of the city, town, or county in which the land is situated shall have~~ adopted a subdivision ordinance requiring plat approval of such divisions)): PROVIDED, That for purposes of computing the size of any lot under this item which borders on a street or road, the lot size shall be expanded to include that area which would be bounded by the center line of the road or street and the side lot lines of the lot running perpendicular to such center line;

(3) Divisions made by testamentary provisions, or the laws of descent;

((5)) (4) A division for the purpose of lease when no residential structure other than mobile homes or travel trailers are permitted to be placed upon the land and a local government has approved a binding site plan for the use of the land in accordance with local regulations. The term "site plan" means a drawing to a scale specified by local ordinance and which: (a) Identifies and shows the areas and locations of all streets, roads, improvements, utilities, open spaces, and any other matters specified by local regulations; and (b) contains inscriptions or attachments setting forth such appropriate limitations and conditions for the use of the land as are established by the local government body having authority to approve the site plan. A site plan approved by a local government body shall not be "binding" under this subsection unless development in conformity to the site plan is enforceable under a local ordinance."

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In the title, strike everything after "AN ACT" and insert "Relating to real property; amending section 18, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26-.180; amending section 4, chapter 271, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 58.17.040; creating new sections; and adding a new section to Title 58 RCW."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Goltz, Substitute House Bill No. 318, as amended by the Senate, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for May 23, 1977.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2877, by Committee on Constitution and Elections (originally sponsored by Senators Goltz, Bailey, Sellar and Newschwander) (by Joint Board of Legislative Ethics request):

Revising laws on ethics and disclosure.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877 from earlier today. The bill had been amended and the following amendment by Senator Mardesich had been moved for adoption:

On page 4, line 30 insert a new section 3:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Every political committee or candidate shall, upon receipt of contributions as defined in RCW 42.17.020(10) which would appear to have been contributed by an employer, manager or official of any company, union, or association of any kind, or any other person acting on behalf of such individual or organization shall request of such individual or organization an affidavit that such individual or organization has not solicited or collected contributions from any employee or member for the purpose of contributing to political candidates or political committees."

Copies of affidavits shall be provided to the Public Disclosure Commission at the same time as reports as to the contributions are required or a statement that such affidavit has been requested from the donor and that the contribution will not be expended until an affidavit has been provided. If an affidavit has not been provided as requested within 20 days of receipt of the contribution, the contribution shall then be returned to the donor."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, as I read this proposed amendment, what you are trying to do, of course, is to provide for individual campaign contributions, just persons, not entities or agencies and so on. I think you and I and perhaps others on the floor here have had occasion to receive campaign contributions from individuals, individuals whose names really are unknown to us, and they have come in a single envelope forwarded with a single letter signed by an officer or representative of a single corporation.

"Would this amendment that you propose here prohibit that?"

Senator Mardesich: "Yes, I believe it would. There is a staff individual who is collecting the funds, is working on the behalf of a corporation or organization, then he falls directly under this law. If he is working as an individual, then he is free to go out and collect money and raise money for me. Raise money for me he is allowed to do as an individual if he is not doing it in the employment of an association, a corporation or as an employer."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following amendments to the amendment by Senator Mardesich were adopted:

On line 8 of the first paragraph of the Mardesich amendment to page 4, line 30, strike "an affidavit" and insert "a statement"

On line 1 of the second paragraph strike "affidavits" and insert "statements"

On line 4 of the second paragraph strike "affidavit" and insert "statement"

On line 6 of the second paragraph strike "an affidavit" and insert "a statement"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator Grant, as I read this proposed amendment, it would seem to me to be in line with what my conversations with Common Cause, and I am sure you have had many conversations with people in a common cause, that this is a step in the direction that Common Cause is desiring to go in that it would be a voluntary contribution financed by the public, such as you put the statement on your federal income tax that you may take one dollar of this and use it for political purposes, and we could also provide that that be refunded. A dollar or so will come back to the state for political purposes. This would make all contributions voluntary, and that is the way we do it under our federal income tax, is that not true? You don't have to contribute, but if you do desire to elect the president by public financing why you make that check on your income tax form."

Senator Grant: "Senator Rasmussen, I am sure that this hasn't been considered by Common Cause or anybody else that has been concerned with public financing. It has nothing to do with public financing."

Senator Rasmussen: "No, I said this was one small—"

Senator Grant: "It has nothing to do with checking off a box in your income tax return. All this amendment does—"

Senator Rasmussen: "You are trying to put me in a box, now and this is a serious question—"

Senator Grant: "No, I wouldn't do that, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "—in relation to Common Cause, and I am sure Jolene realizes the importance of it even if you don't, that we should go to public financing."

Senator Grant: "I think we all realize the importance of it, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Grant."

Senator Grant: "Thank you, Senator Rasmussen. I will respond now."

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, he doesn't have the floor as yet. He has answered the question as far as I wanted to go."

Senator Grant: "He asked me a question, I would like to respond to it."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Rasmussen has the floor, Senator Grant. The President will recognize you when Senator Rasmussen has concluded his remarks."

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, we did hold a meeting on this subject and I am sincere about public financing and about limitations, Senator Mardesich. There was a move by one of our members in the committee to indefinitely postpone your bill. I asked that that motion not be put so that you would have an opportunity to present your changes in the current financing methods of campaigns. I think you are impugning my motives, and I really resent that."

The motion by Senator Mardesich failed and the amendment, as amended, was not adopted on a rising vote.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendment adding NEW SECTION 4. on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Marsh, Senator Bottiger was excused.

On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Benitz and Hayner were excused.

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "As I understand it, with the adoption of the Rasmussen amendment which by our rules can be adopted by a majority vote, we now have added to a bill really a change in referendum 36, which I believe, under the time requirements of that referendum require more than a majority vote of this body and my inquiry is, what will the vote be necessary to pass this bill as amended?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Under amendment 26 to the state Constitution, two-thirds majority of the members elected is required to pass Substitute Senate Bill 2877."

On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 7; excused, 8.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Wojahn, Woody—34.

Voting nay: Senators Fleming, Grant, Lewis, Mardesich, von Reichbauer, Washington, Wilson—7.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Bottiger, Cunningham, Francis, Hayner, McDermott, Murray, Peterson—8.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2877, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 32.

SECOND READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 32, by Representatives King and Berentson:

Adopting joint rules for the Forty-fifth legislature.

The Senate resumed consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 32. The bill was amended on May 18, 1977 and May 19, 1977.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Clarke to page 9, striking Rule ~~((9))~~ 10 was adopted.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Clarke, the amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following amendment by Senators Clarke and Washington was adopted:

On page 9, strike Rule ~~((9))~~ 10 and insert:

RULE ((9)) 10. ~~((In case of failure of the conferees to agree on matters directly at issue between the two houses, a report of the items of such disagreement including new proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill in conference shall be made and))~~ Upon request for free conference the power of free conference may be granted ~~((to))~~ by the two houses ~~((either))~~ to the same committee, ~~((or the committee may be discharged and a new committee appointed with the power of free conference;))~~ to whom only ~~((items of disagreement or new items approved by one house in the disputed bill or resolution))~~ the proposed free conference report may be committed, or the committee may be discharged and a new committee appointed with the power of conference, as defined in Joint Rule 7 ((; and)). The report of the committee of free conference ((may report by new bill or resolution, or otherwise, and bills or resolutions so reported)) shall be acted upon in the same manner as provided for reports of conference committees ~~((: PROVIDED; That the house and senate shall have thirty-six hours from the time of receipt in the house originating the conference request to consider reports from a free conference committee and shall not vote thereon until the thirty-six hour period shall have elapsed except that with respect to budget and appropriations and revenue and tax measures, the required interval shall be twenty-four hours: PROVIDED FURTHER, That irrespective of any rule herein or any rule of either the senate or the house of representatives, the foregoing provisions relating to thirty-six and twenty-four hour intervals will not be suspended unless the legislature shall otherwise direct~~

~~by a two-thirds vote of all of the members elected to each house. Simultaneously with receipt of the report a copy of said report shall be placed upon the desk of each member of the legislature)). The report of a free conference committee must have the signatures of five of the six members of the committee."~~

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 17, line 19, strike "undertaken" and insert "~~((undertaken))~~ initiated by resolution"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Senator Day, would you yield to a question? Does this mean that a standing committee cannot move into any field of endeavor, investigation or legislation unless it has been authorized by resolution?"

Senator Day: "No, it means that with reference to studies and investigations to be undertaken each standing committee—that has been referred a special study or investigation by the rules committee—now this is what we have been doing. Let me go over it again so I can straighten out what I am saying here.

"You do have a lot of subjects before you. Under the old rules you were entitled to study any of them. The way this amendment read before my amendment, there would be a conflict here because the statement in this section in this paragraph beginning on line 18 says that they may only study such subjects, areas and problems assigned by the rules committee.

"Now, my intent is to straighten the language out so it does not conflict with the section on the preceding page which gives you the authority to study that which is before you and then make this particular paragraph apply to those resolutions which pass on the floor and are referred to rules. You will recall the practice has been now that we refer those special studies to rules and then they are assigned to committees.

"The insertion of my language 'initiated by resolution' then would say that they can only study those initiated by resolution as they are assigned by the rules committee. I believe that that more conforms with the practice and that does do away with the conflict that would be—if we did not adopt this amendment there is a direct conflict between this section and what we have been authorized to do as committees and committee chairmen on the preceding page."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, is it the intent then of these rules as amended that during the interim the chairmen of the various standing committees will have substantially unlimited authority to proceed in any type of inquiry that they so desire?"

Senator Walgren: "To answer Senator Clarke's question, certainly the chairmen will be able to designate studies and activities of the committee subject, of course, to the question of finances that will be determined by the facilities and operations committee. Any particular hearings that they may desire to have, either here in Olympia or outside of this city, would have to be approved by facilities and operations but the general subject matter within the confines of the committee can be determined by the chairman."

Senator Clarke: "This would mean then that subject only to financial restrictions as determined by the facilities committee that a standing committee could at the discretion of the chairman hold meetings at any time at any place within the state for the purpose of considering any particular subject that would fall within the general scope of his committee?"

Senator Walgren: "(Off microphone 'Yes'.)"

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Day:

On the last line of the Day amendment, after "resolution" add "and adopted by the respective houses"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Day carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 8, line 20, Rule 8, after "represent" insert "as far as possible"

On page 8, line 21, Rule 8, after "minority" insert "and those in favor and those opposed"

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "I am inclined to agree with you, but the President has often taken the position that it refers, I believe, Mr. President you may correct me if I am wrong. . . . I believe the President has in the past interpreted that to mean 'the majority party' and 'minority party.'"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator Mardesich."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, House Concurrent Resolution No. 32, as amended by the Senate, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for May 23, 1977.

FURTHER REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President should like to have the privilege of amplifying his reply to Senator Mardesich. The President believes that the minority and majority refers both to the party and to the opinions as to the differences between the two Houses, and that the final vote on a bill would not necessarily mean that the Senator's vote indicated his feeling as pertaining to the differences.

"The President would like to further remark, and may be presumptuous in doing so, by saying that the President believes that the Senators are on the right track and that perhaps this matter could be clarified so everyone will understand it."

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 19, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2189, with the following amendments:

On page 1, after line 4 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 3, chapter 106, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 137, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.85.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The reciprocity commission, hereby created, shall consist of the director of motor vehicles, the chief of the Washington state patrol, a designee of the state highway commission and, ex officio, the chairman and vice chairman of the legislative transportation committee, or their duly designated representatives. Members of the western interstate highway policy committee from the state of Washington shall be advisory members of the reciprocity commission, and may attend meetings and conferences of the commission in such capacity, but shall not vote as members thereof. The department shall provide such assistance and facilities to the commission as it may require. The members of the commission shall receive no additional compensation for their services except that they shall be allowed reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended to be paid from funds made available for the use of the commission. The commission shall have the authority to execute agreements, arrangements or declarations to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The reciprocity commission may enter into a multistate proportional registration agreement which prescribes a different definition of any terms defined in chapter 46.85 RCW. The agreement definition shall control unless appropriate exception is taken thereto.

If the reciprocity commission enters into a multistate proportional registration agreement which prescribes a different procedure for vehicle identification, the agreement procedures shall control.

If the reciprocity commission enters into a multistate proportional registration agreement which requires this state to perform acts in a quasi agency relationship, the reciprocity commission may collect and forward applicable registration fees and applications to other jurisdictions on behalf of the applicant or on behalf of another jurisdiction and may take such other action as will facilitate the administration of such agreement.

If the reciprocity commission enters into a multistate proportional registration agreement which prescribes procedures applicable to vehicles not specifically described in chapter 46.85 RCW, such as but not limited to "owner-operator" or "rental" vehicles, it shall promulgate rules accomplishing the procedures prescribed in such agreement.

If the reciprocity commission enters into a multistate proportional registration agreement which prohibits the collection of minimum fees provided for in this chapter or elsewhere for the ownership or operation of motor vehicles, the prohibitions contained in the agreement shall control.

It is the purpose and intent of this subsection to facilitate the membership in the International Registration Plan and at the same time allow the reciprocity commission to continue to participate in such agreements and compacts as may be necessary and desirable in addition to the International Registration Plan: PROVIDED, That prior to the reciprocity commission entering into the International Registration Plan, the commission, with the assistance of the department of motor vehicles, shall conduct a fiscal impact study and report the findings of the study to the legislative transportation committee by October 15, 1977."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title after "vehicles;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending section 3, chapter 106, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 137, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.85.030.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 503, by Representatives Sommers and Knedlik (by Department of Revenue request):

Providing for the collection of use taxes on aircraft by the department of motor vehicles.

March 3, 1977.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 3, 1977.

HOUSE BILL NO. 503, providing for the collection of use taxes on aircraft by the Department of Motor Vehicles (reported by Committee on Transportation):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

The tax hereby levied shall not apply to the following sales:

(1) Casual and isolated sales of property or service, unless made by a person who is engaged in a business activity taxable under chapters 82.04, 82.16 or 82.28 RCW: PROVIDED, That the exemption provided by this paragraph shall not be construed as providing any exemption from the tax imposed by chapter 82.12 RCW;

(2) Sales made by persons in the course of business activities with respect to which tax liability is specifically imposed under chapter 82.16 RCW, when the gross proceeds from such sales must be included in the measure of the tax imposed under said chapter;

(3) The distribution and newsstand sale of newspapers;

(4) Sales which the state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution of this state or the Constitution or laws of the United States;

(5) Sales of motor vehicle fuel used in aircraft by the manufacturer thereof for research, development, and testing purposes and sales of motor vehicle fuel taxable under chapter 82.36 RCW: PROVIDED, That the use of any such fuel upon which a refund of the motor vehicle fuel tax has been obtained shall be subject to the tax imposed by chapter 82.12 RCW;

(6) Sales (including transfers of title through decree of appropriation) heretofore or hereafter made of the entire operating property of a publicly or privately owned public utility, or of a complete operating integral section thereof, to the state or a political subdivision thereof for use in conducting any business defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10) or (11) of RCW 82.16.010;

(7) Auction sales made by or through auctioneers of tangible personal property (including household goods) which have been used in conducting a farm activity, when the seller thereof is a farmer and the sale is held or conducted upon a farm and not otherwise;

(8) Sales to corporations which have been incorporated under any act of the congress of the United States and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same;

(9) Sales of purebred livestock for breeding purposes where the animals are registered in a nationally recognized breed association; sales of cattle and milk cows used on the farm;

(10) Sales of tangible personal property (other than the type referred to in subdivision (11) hereof) for use by the purchaser in connection with the business of operating as a private or common carrier by air, rail, or water in interstate or foreign commerce: PROVIDED, That any actual use of such property in this state shall, at the time of such actual use, be subject to the tax imposed by chapter 82.12 RCW;

(11) Sales of airplanes, locomotives, railroad cars, or watercraft for use in conducting interstate or foreign commerce by transporting therein or therewith property and persons for hire or for use in conducting commercial deep sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of the state; also sales of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of such airplanes, locomotives, railroad cars, or watercraft, and of motor vehicles or trailers whether owned by or leased with or without drivers and used by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing transportation by motor vehicle across the boundaries of this state, in the course of constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same; also sales of or charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to such constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving;

(14) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any machinery or other article of personal property belonging to such nonresident, in the course of installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same and also sales of or charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to any installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving, of personal property of or for a nonresident, but this subsection (14) shall apply only when the seller agrees to, and does, deliver the property to the purchaser at a point outside this state, or delivers the property to a common or bona fide private carrier consigned to the purchaser at a point outside this state;

(15) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of watercraft requiring coast guard registration or registration by the state of principal use according to the Federal Boating Act of 1958, even though delivery be made within this state, but only when (a) the watercraft will not be used within this state for more than forty-five days and (b) an appropriate exemption certificate supported by identification ascertaining residence as provided by the department of revenue and signed by the purchaser or his agent establishing the fact that the purchaser is a nonresident and that the watercraft is for use outside of this state, one copy to be filed with the department of revenue with the regular report and a duplicate to be retained by the dealer.

(16) Sales of poultry for use in the production for sale of poultry or poultry products.

(17) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of machinery and implements for use in conducting a farming activity, when such machinery and implements will be transported immediately outside the state. As proof of exemption, an affidavit or certification in such form as the department of revenue shall require shall be made for each such sale, to be retained as a business record of the seller.

(19) Sales to municipal corporations, the state, and all political subdivisions thereof of tangible personal property consumed and/or of labor and services rendered in respect to contracts for watershed protection and/or flood prevention. This exemption shall be limited to that portion of the selling price which is reimbursed by the United States government according to the provisions of the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act, Public Laws 566, as amended;

(20) Sales of semen for use in the artificial insemination of livestock;

(21) Sales to nonresidents of this state of tangible personal property for use outside this state or for use at an airport owned by a public port district of an adjoining state when the purchaser has applied for and received from the department of revenue a permit certifying (1) that he is a bona fide resident of a state or possession or Province of Canada other than the state of Washington, (2) that such state, possession, or Province of Canada does not impose a retail sales tax or use tax of three percent or more or, if imposing such a tax, permits Washington residents exemption from otherwise taxable sales by reason of their residence, and (3) that he does agree, when requested, to grant the department of revenue access to such records and other forms of verification at his place of residence to assure that such purchases are not first used substantially in the state of Washington.

Any person claiming exemption from retail sales tax under the provisions of this subsection must display a nonresident permit as herein provided, and any vendor making a sale to a nonresident without collecting the tax must examine such permit, identify the purchaser as the person to whom the nonresident permit was issued, and maintain records which shall show the permit number attributable to each nontaxable sale.

Permits shall be personal and nontransferable, shall be renewable annually, and shall be issued by the department of revenue upon payment of a fee of one dollar. The department may in its discretion designate independent agents for the issuance of permits, according to such standards and qualifications as the department may prescribe. Such agents shall pay over and account to the department for all permit fees collected, after deducting as a collection fee the sum of fifty cents for each permit issued.

Any person making fraudulent statements in order to secure a permit shall be guilty of perjury. Any person making tax exempt purchases by displaying a permit not his own, or a counterfeit permit, with intent to violate the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, in addition, may be subject to a penalty not to exceed the amount of the tax due on such purchases. Any vendor who makes sales without collecting the tax to a person who does not hold a valid permit, and any vendor who fails to maintain records of permit numbers as provided in this section shall be personally liable for the amount of tax due.

(22) Sales of form lumber to any person engaged in the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon or above real property of or for consumers: PROVIDED, That such lumber is used or to be used first by such person for the molding of concrete in a single such contract, project or job and is thereafter incorporated into the product of that same contract, project or job as an ingredient or component thereof.

(23) Sales of, cost of, or charges made for labor and services performed in respect to the mining, sorting, crushing, screening, washing, hauling, and stockpiling of sand, gravel and rock when such sand, gravel, or rock is taken from a pit or quarry which is owned by or leased to a county or a city, and such sand, gravel, or rock is (1) either stockpiled in said pit or quarry for placement or is placed on the street, road, place, or highway of the county or city by the county or city itself, or (2) sold by the county or city to a county, or a city at actual cost for placement on a publicly owned street, road, place, or highway. The exemption provided for in this subsection shall not apply to sales of, cost of, or charges made for such labor and services, if the sand, gravel, or rock is used for other than public road purposes or is sold otherwise than as provided for in this subsection.

(25) Sales of pollen.

(26) Sales to one political subdivision by another political subdivision directly or indirectly arising out of or resulting from the annexation or incorporation of any part of the territory of one political subdivision by another.

(28) Sales of prescription drugs. The term "prescription drugs" shall include any medicine, drug, prescription lens, or other substance other than food for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease or other ailment in humans ordered by (a) the written prescription to a pharmacist by a practitioner authorized by law of this state or laws of another jurisdiction to issue prescriptions, or (b) upon an oral prescription of such practitioner which is reduced promptly to writing and filed by a duly licensed pharmacist, or (c) by refilling any such written or oral prescription if such refilling is authorized by the prescriber either in the original prescription or by oral order which is reduced promptly to writing and filed by the pharmacist, or (d) physicians or optometrists by way of written directions and specifications for the preparation, grinding, and fabrication of lenses intended to aid or correct visual defects or anomalies of humans.

(29) Sales of returnable containers for beverages and foods, including but not limited to soft drinks, milk, beer, and mixers.

(30) Sales of insulin, prosthetic devices, and medically prescribed oxygen."

On line 1 of the title after "taxes;" and before "providing" insert "amending section 82.08.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 10, chapter 291, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.030;"

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 662, by Committee on Higher Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Erickson, Grimm, Chandler, Knowles, Oliver, Owen, Grier, Salatino, Bender, Gilleland, Haley, Fuller, Taller, Bond, Hawkins, Bauer, Charette, Enbody, Tilly, Sanders, Clayton, Winsley, Paris and Monohon):

Regulating the granting of remunerated professional leaves.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 26, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 662, regulating the granting of remunerated professional leaves (reported by Committee on Higher Education):

Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Beginning on line 8 strike all of section 1 and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 28B.10.650, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.650 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that when the state universities, state colleges, and community colleges grant professional leaves to faculty and exempt staff, such leaves be for the purpose of providing opportunities for study, research, and creative activities for the enhancement of the institution's instructional and research programs.

The boards of regents of the state universities ((and)), the boards of trustees of the state colleges and the board of trustees of each community college district may grant ((sabbatical and other)) remunerated professional leaves to faculty members and exempt staff, as defined in RCW 28B.16.040, in accordance with regulations adopted by the respective governing boards ((and with such remunerations as the respective boards may prescribe)) for periods not to exceed twelve consecutive months in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) The remuneration from state general funds and general local funds for any such leave granted for any academic year shall not exceed the average of the highest quartile of a rank order of salaries of all full time teaching faculty holding academic year contracts or appointments at the institution or in the district.

(2) Remunerated professional leaves for a period of more or less than an academic year shall be compensated at rates not to exceed a proportional amount of the average salary as otherwise calculated for the purposes of subsection (1) hereof.

(3) The grant of any such professional leave shall be contingent upon a signed contractual agreement between the respective governing board and the recipient providing that the recipient shall return to the granting institution or district following his or her completion of such leave and serve in a professional status for a period commensurate with the amount of leave so granted. Failure to comply with the provisions of such signed agreement shall constitute an obligation of the recipient to repay to the institution any remuneration received from the institution during the leave.

(4) The aggregate cost of remunerated professional leaves awarded at the institution or district during any year, including the cost of replacement personnel, shall not exceed the cost of salaries which otherwise would have been paid to personnel on leaves.

(5) The average number of annual remunerated professional leaves awarded at any such institution or district shall not exceed four percent of the total number of full time equivalent faculty, as defined by the office of program planning and fiscal management, who are engaged in instruction, and exempt staff as defined in RCW 28B.16.040.

(6) Negotiated agreements made in accordance with chapter 28B.52 RCW and entered into after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act shall be in conformance with the provisions of this section.

(7) The respective institutions and districts shall annually report to the council for postsecondary education such information as the council deems necessary to determine compliance with the provisions of this section and the council for postsecondary education shall periodically report such information to the legislature."

In line 6 of the title before "and making" insert "providing penalties;"

Signed by: Senators Odegaard, Chairman; Benitz, Donohue, Goltz, Guess, Sandison, Scott.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Odegaard moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the following amendment by Senators Odegaard, Sandison, Benitz, Guess, Goltz, Donohue and Scott to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 18 of the amendment, after "leaves" insert "": PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply to any community college district with fewer than seventy-five full-time faculty members and granting fewer than three individuals such leaves in any given year""

The motion by Senator Odegaard carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

MOTIONS

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 662, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 11.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson—37.

Absent or not voting: Senator Talley—1.

Excused: Senators Bluechel, Cunningham, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Grant, McDermott, Peterson, Rasmussen, Wojahn, Woody—11.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 662, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Guess, House Bill No. 779 was ordered held on the second reading calendar for May 24, 1977.

On motion of Senator Sandison, Senator Talley was excused.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 797, by Representatives Charette, Vrooman, Knowles, Smith and Enbody:

Giving jurisdiction to the court of the county wherein an habitual traffic offender is arrested for subsequently driving without a license.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 797 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 797, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; excused, 11.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson—38.

Excused: Senators Bluechel, Cunningham, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, McDermott, Peterson, Rasmussen, Talley, Wojahn, Woody—11.

HOUSE BILL NO. 797, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 821.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 821, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Fortson, Adams, Pearsall, Pruitt, Lux, Thompson, Kreidler, Burns, Gruger and Salatino):

Requiring crosswalk curb ramps for handicapped persons.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Wilson, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 821 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Wilson yield? Senator Wilson, I was trying to do a quick reading here on this, and I notice that there is an emergency clause on this, and I am just wondering if that is practical to have it be mandatory immediately with contracts out and so forth?"

Senator Wilson: "Senator Van Hollebeke, I don't know offhand of any particular reason why an emergency clause is needed other than because sidewalks and curbs are continually being rebuilt and inclusion of this clause would mean a few more will be built to accommodate people in wheelchairs."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Buffington: "I just wanted to know if Senator Wilson would yield to a question, please? Senator Wilson, on page 2, on line 7, you will notice it says that the general administration shall consult with handicapped persons and blind persons. Is that going to be through their associations or is that going to be through two or more individuals who fall under that category?"

Senator Wilson: "I can't answer that specifically, however there has been a group of people concerned with the problems of people in wheelchairs who have been most active in developing the original legislation and this amendatory legislation. I assume the department will consult with that group who essentially represent the handicapped victims, but also will be consulting with elements of local government who are going to be faced with the cost of building ramps when they rebuild their curbs."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 821, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson—42.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Peterson, Wojahn, Woody—7.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 821, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, just so that our Chief Clerk wouldn't get accused of anything, in our books there is a line 21 and 22 which do not appear in the original bill."

President Cherberg: "Thank you, Senator Mardesich."

SECOND READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 874, by Committee on Institutions (originally sponsored by Representatives Salatino, Becker, Hanna, Hurley (George), Barr and Struthers):

Modifying the conditions for receiving state funds for probation services.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 9, 1977.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 874, modifying the conditions for receiving state funds for probation services (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Section 5, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 198, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 13.06.050 are each amended to read as follows:

No county shall be entitled to receive any state funds provided by this chapter until its application is approved, and unless and until the minimum standards prescribed by the department of social and health services are complied with and then only on such terms as are set forth hereafter in this section.

(1) A base commitment rate for each county and for the state as a whole shall be calculated by the department of social and health services. The base commitment rate shall be determined by computing the ratio of the number of juveniles committed to state juvenile correctional institutions plus the number of juveniles who have been convicted of felonies and committed to state correctional institutions after a juvenile court has declined jurisdiction of their cases and remanded them for prosecution in the superior courts, to the county population, such ratio to be expressed in a rate per hundred thousand population, for each of the calendar years 1964 through 1968. The average of these rates for a county for the five year period or the average of the last two years of the period, whichever is higher, shall be the base commitment rate, as certified by the secretary: PROVIDED, That, a county may elect as its base commitment rate the average of the base commitment rates of all counties in the state over the last two years of the period described above. The county and state population shall be that certified as of April 1st of each year by the office of program planning and fiscal management, such population figures to be provided to the secretary of social and health services not later than June 30th of each year.

(2) An annual commitment rate shall be calculated by the department at the end of each year for each participating county and for the state as a whole, in a like manner as provided in subsection (1). The annual commitment rate shall exclude commitments that fall within the high risk categories as defined by the department.

(4) The secretary ~~((of social and health services))~~ will reimburse a county upon presentation and approval of a valid claim pursuant to the provisions of this chapter based on actual performance in reducing the annual commitment rate from its base commitment rate. Whenever a claim made by a county pursuant to this chapter, covering a prior year, is found to be in error, an adjustment may be made on a current claim without the necessity of applying the adjustment to the allocation for the prior year.

(5) In the event a participating county earns in a payment period less than one-half of the sum paid in the previous payment period because of extremely unusual circumstances claimed by the county and verified by the secretary of the department of social and health services, the secretary may pay to the county a sum not to exceed actual program expenditures, provided, however, that in subsequent periods the county will be paid only the amount earned: PROVIDED, That the amendatory provisions of subsection (5) of this act may be applied to payment periods prior to May 20, 1971.

(6) If the amount received by a county in reimbursement of its expenditures in a calendar year is less than the maximum amount computed under subsection (3) above, the difference may be paid to the county as reimbursement of program costs during the next two succeeding years upon receipt of valid claims for reimbursement of program expenses.

(7) Funds received by participating counties under this chapter shall not be used to replace local funds for existing programs for delinquent juveniles or to develop county institutional programs.

(8) Any county averaging less than thirty commitments annually during either the two year or five year period used to determine the base commitment rate as defined in subsection (1) above may:

(a) apply for subsidies under subsection (1); or

(b) as an alternative, elect to receive from the state the salary of one full time additional probation officer and related employee benefits~~((:));~~ or

(d) elect to receive from the state reimbursement for certain supporting services other than capital outlay and equipment whose total cost will not exceed a maximum limit established by the secretary of the department of social and health services.

(9) In the event a county chooses one of the alternative proposals in subsection (8), it will be eligible for reimbursement only so long as the officer and supporting services are wholly used in the performance of probation services to supervision of persons eligible for state commitment and are paid the salary referred to in this section in accordance with a salary schedule adopted by rule of the department and:

(a) if its base commitment rate is below the state average, its annual commitment rate does not exceed the base commitment rate for the entire state; or

(b) if its base commitment rate is above the state average, its annual commitment rate does not in the year exceed by two its own base commitment rate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. By January 1, 1978, the department of social and health services shall provide to the standing committees on ways and means and on social and health services of the state senate and to the standing committees on appropriations and on institutions of the house of representatives a report on the juvenile probation services in the state. Such report shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) A disposition of all juvenile probation officers by county;

(2) The number of juvenile probation officers provided with juvenile probation subsidy funds by county;

(3) A description of the full range of services provided under the juvenile probation subsidy program by county;

(4) The cost per child served by the program by county;

(5) An evaluation of the program by county; and

(6) An analysis of the application and impact of the "banking" provision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1977."

In the title, strike everything after "juveniles;" and insert "providing probation and other services; amending section 5, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 198, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 13.06.050; creating a new section; declaring an emergency; and providing an effective date."

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Grant, Jones, Mardesich, Morrison, Murray, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute House Bill No. 874, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 874, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 1; excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson—41.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen—1.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Peterson, Wojahn, Woody—7.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 874, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 623.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 623, by Representatives Bauer and Zimmerman:

Exempting capital expenditures of nonprofit water associations from gross income for public utility tax purposes.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander:

On page 2, after line 34, insert the following additional sections:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares that the existing drought conditions and shortage of hydroelectric power have caused severe economic impact on electric utilities and their customers in obtaining sufficient quantities of electric power and energy from other sources, which has or will necessitate the imposition of purchased power surcharge or cost adjustments in addition to the existing rate schedules of such utilities. Because of the drought conditions and shortage of hydroelectric power, which has caused severe economic impact on electric utilities and their customers in obtaining sufficient quantities of electric power and energy from other sources, the legislature further finds that such cost adjustments or surcharge arising out of the increased cost of purchasing necessary power to meet the needs of the electrical utilities and their customers, should not be taxed by the state or any local subdivision thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if an economic condition exists as provided in section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act which does necessitate the imposition of purchased power surcharge or cost adjustments in addition to the existing rate schedules charged such utilities, neither the state or any local subdivision thereof shall impose a tax or fee thereon.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to the deductions provided for in RCW 82.16.050 as now or hereafter amended, in computing tax there may be deducted from gross income by persons in the light and power business, the following item: Amounts derived from the sale of electrical energy other than for resale equal to the cost of electrical energy purchased from others, but excluding electrical energy generated by the United States, which for any reporting period under RCW 82.16.070 exceeds the average of the total cost of such purchased electrical energy for the same period in the prior two years, but not to exceed the amount of total additional charge to customers, or other authorized temporary increase in total charge for electrical energy to customers, on account of such purchased electrical energy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 2 through 4 of this 1977 amendatory act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The provisions of sections 2 through 4 of this 1977 amendatory act shall expire on July 1, 1978, and thereafter shall be null and void and of no further force and effect whatsoever."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order of scope and object. The bill pertains to the capital expenditures and non-profit water associations. Senator Rasmussen seeks to include Seattle, Tacoma public utility districts on their electrical charges. It is obviously substantially above capital expenditure of water districts."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Bottiger, the President finds that House Bill 623 is a measure which amends a provision in the public utility tax law governing the calculation of tax liability of all public service businesses.

"The proposed amendment also relates to the taxation of public utilities and allows deductions from amounts taxable as does House Bill 623.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander was ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Bottiger, would you yield? Senator Bottiger, it appears to me that this is a windfall profit for the city of Tacoma. Is that right?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, since the city of Tacoma is paying a drought incurred expense, I wouldn't call it a windfall profit. There is some excess money in their estimates but that is only based on a nebulous question of how much conservation will occur."

Senator Guess: "The problem that bothers me about the bill is that we face the same situation in Eastern Washington. The oil that we are having to buy to generate the electricity from the plant that was in mothballs in Montana is costing approximately twice as much as the power was being sold for at retail. Now, since we don't have a city owned utilities distributing that fuel, that electricity, the people of Eastern Washington that are on private power won't pay this tax, and yet those in the Tacoma and the PUD's will pay a tax. Is this right?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, when the committee finished the hearings on this bill, we were informed that some of the private utilities would also be applying to the utilities and transportation committee for emergency rate increases for these power questions, but my whole point to you, sir, and to the Senate is, if you ask me how many dollars are involved, I have no idea how many, what will be the loss to the state in revenue. What will be the gain to the state in revenue, we can only guess.

"What will be the state's extra power bill, because we are a large consumer of electricity ourselves, I again have no idea."

Senator Guess: "Senator Bottiger, we in Eastern Washington will pay just what the surcharge is, not a city tax. Is this—"

Senator Bottiger: "Well, sir, you have, as I understand it, the city of Spokane charges the private utility a tax for the easement rights, the rights to run power lines down the street, and that that tax goes into your Spokane city coffers. Your Spokane city council can pass an emergency resolution reducing that revenue if they so desire."

Senator Guess: "Based on the amount of power they run down those lines."

Senator Bottiger: "My understanding is, it is. It is a gross business tax—it is a gross business tax against the utility in return for a license fee to use the city right-of-way."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator Bottiger."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, is the burden of the tax going to fall equally on the citizens of Spokane as on the citizens of Tacoma, actually you would stop the tax from being levied?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes. The three point six which is the state utility tax—"

Senator Guess: "And that would be forgiven by the bill?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Not forgiven, no. Only not assessed on the additional cost of this power, this additional generation that they have to buy because of the drought."

Senator Guess: "And what would be the local tax?"

Senator Rasmussen: "The local taxes vary city by city. In the particular city of Tacoma, I think it is eight percent, and in the city of Seattle, I think it is eight percent also. This would merely say that on that excess power and the cost of that that they will not be assessing the tax. It amounts to about eleven point six."

Senator Guess: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander:

On page 1, line 25 of the amendment, after "thereof" insert "and such increased costs should be apportioned at an equal cost per KWH to every customer"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, House Bill No. 623, together with the pending amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander and the amendment by Senator Mardesich to the amendment, was made a special order of business immediately following the noon recess.

MOTION

At 12:03 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate returned to the second order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 17, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2241, with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 70.54 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that passage of this act shall not constitute any endorsement whatever of the efficacy of amygdalin (Laetrile) in the treatment of cancer, but represents only the legislature's endorsement of a patient's freedom of choice, so long as the patient has been given sufficient information in writing to make an informed decision regarding his/her treatment and the substance is not proven to be directly detrimental to health.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 70.54 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No hospital or health facility may interfere with the physician/patient relationship by restricting or forbidding the use of amygdalin (Laetrile) when prescribed or administered by a physician licensed pursuant to chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW and requested by a patient under his/her care who has requested the substance after having been given sufficient information in writing to make an informed decision.

For the purposes of this act, the state board of pharmacy shall provide for the certification as to the identity of amygdalin (Laetrile) by random sample testing or other testing procedures, and shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement and enforce its authority under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 70.54 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No physician may be subject to disciplinary action by any entity of either the state of Washington or a professional association for prescribing or administering amygdalin (Laetrile) to a patient under his/her care who has requested the substance after having been given sufficient information in writing to make an informed decision.

It is not the intent of this section to shield a physician from acts or omissions which otherwise would constitute unprofessional conduct as defined in RCW 18.57-.170 and 18.72.030.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2241.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 19, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2244, with the following amendments:

On page 1, after line 10, insert an additional section as follows:

"Section 1. Section 3, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.011 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Vehicle" means and includes every device capable of being moved upon a public highway and in, upon, or by which any persons or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a public highway, excepting devices moved by human or animal power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

(2) "Motor vehicle" shall mean every vehicle which is self-propelled and every vehicle which is propelled by electric power obtained from overhead trolley wires, but not operated upon rails, and which is required to be registered and titled under Title 46 RCW, Motor Vehicles.

(3) "Vehicle dealer" means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, not excluded by subsection (4) of this section, engaged in the business of buying, selling, exchanging, offering, brokering, leasing with an option to purchase, auctioning, soliciting, or advertising the sale of new(;) or used vehicles, or providing or licensing for use facilities and/or services for compensation of any kind which bring together potential buyers and sellers: PROVIDED, That vehicle dealers shall be classified as follows:

(a) A "motor vehicle dealer" shall be a vehicle dealer that deals in new and used motor vehicles;

(b) A "mobile home and travel trailer dealer" shall be a vehicle dealer that deals in mobile homes or travel trailers, or both;

(c) A "miscellaneous vehicle dealer" shall be a vehicle dealer that deals in motorcycles and/or vehicles other than motor vehicles or mobile homes and travel trailers.

(4) The term "vehicle dealer" does not include:

(a) Receivers, trustees, administrators, executors, guardians, or other persons appointed by, or acting under a judgment or order of any court; or

(b) Public officers while performing their official duties; or

(c) Employees of vehicle dealers who are engaged in the specific performance of their duties as such employees; or

(d) Any person engaged in an isolated sale of a vehicle in which he is the registered or legal owner, or both, thereof.

(e) Any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, engaged in the selling of equipment other than vehicles, used for agricultural or industrial purposes.

(5) "Vehicle salesman" means any person who for any form of compensation sells, auctions, leases with an option to purchase, or offers to sell or to so lease vehicles on behalf of a vehicle dealer.

(6) The term "department" means the department of motor vehicles which shall administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(7) "Director" means the director of the department of motor vehicles.

(8) "Manufacturer" means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, resident or nonresident, who manufactures or assembles new and unused vehicles and shall further include the terms:

(a) "Distributor" which means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, resident or nonresident, who in whole or in part offers for sale, sells, or distributes any new and unused vehicle to vehicle dealers or who maintains factory representatives.

(b) "Factory branch" which means a branch office maintained by a manufacturer for the purpose of selling or offering for sale, vehicles to a distributor, wholesaler, or vehicle dealer, or for directing or supervising in whole or in part factory or distributor representatives, and shall further include any sales promotion organization, whether the same be a person, firm, or corporation, which is engaged in promoting the sale of new and unused vehicles in this state of a particular brand or make to vehicle dealers.

(c) "Factory representative" which means a representative employed by a manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch for the purpose of making or promoting for the sale of his, its, or their vehicles or for supervising or contracting with his, its, or their dealers or prospective dealers.

(9) "Established place of business" means a permanent, enclosed commercial building located within the state of Washington easily accessible and open to the public, at all reasonable times, with an improved display area of not less than three thousand square feet in or immediately adjoining said building, and at which the business of a vehicle dealer, including the display and repair of vehicles, may be lawfully carried on in accordance with the terms of all applicable building code, zoning, and other land-use regulatory ordinances and in which such building the public may contact the vehicle dealer or his vehicle salesman, at all reasonable times and at which place of business shall be kept and maintained the books, records, and files necessary to conduct the business at such place. The established place of business shall display an exterior sign permanently affixed to the land or building, with letters clearly visible to the major avenue of traffic. A dealer operating a listing service who does not physically maintain any vehicles for display, or a vehicle dealer who merely rents or leases or licenses for use any space on a temporary basis not to exceed two days to private persons to sell their own vehicles, need not operate in a commercial building nor have such a display area.

(10) "Subagency" means any place of business of a vehicle dealer within the same county as the principal place of business of the firm which is physically and geographically separated from the principal place of business of the firm or any place of business of a vehicle dealer within the same county as the principal place of business of the firm under which he does business under a name other than the principal name of the firm, or both."

MOTION

Senator Marsh moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2244.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator Marsh, I gather what you were saying was that if these people rented space—I brought my car, and they charged me ten dollars. They maybe rented it to a hundred people and each one of us paid ten dollars for the day of service on the lot. That is all they would be required—be registered for that purpose and they pay a B and O tax, either city or state, whatever was required."

Senator Marsh: "That is correct, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "And they still can operate and the public is generally free to bring their cars in there. They won't be paying the tax for being in business."

Senator Marsh: "That is correct, Senator Rasmussen. It will not affect third parties bringing their cars to these markets. They won't pay any additional tax. It is just the rentor of the space that will be paying the tax and having to get the dealer's license."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Marsh."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bausch: "Would Senator Marsh yield? Senator, it is a little confusing when you speak about the flea markets concerning automobiles. In the interests of antiques where swap meets have the situation where they have only motors, only fenders, only this and that and parts of automobiles, what is an automobile? Is that total, complete and running or would this prohibit those swap meets under the present program from operating the way they do?"

Senator Marsh: "The way I read this particular bill, Senator Bausch, swap meets are not covered because that is an occasional sort of thing. It is not a regular business. This only protects and affects those businesses that do it on a regular basis and provide space and rent space on a regular basis."

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. Matter of personal privilege. I heard my name used rather repetitiously around here, and if I have the reputation on the floor of this Senate for doing some of the things that were suggested I might do, I certainly have been wasting my time."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Marsh carried on a rising vote and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2244.

MOTION

Senator Day moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2638.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Day a question. Senator Day, when it says 'with the advice of the secretary of the—' It did say 'with the consent—with the approval of the secretary', and now it says 'with the advice'. Do you feel that that makes a substantial amount of difference in the—"

Senator Day: "No. They did change secretary to the department as well, but I think that 'with the advice', 'with the consent' gives the secretary more control maybe than they thought he ought to have. 'With the advice' it means that the department will certify alternatives and that is the advice that we were looking for was the certification of viable alternatives to septic tanks when they fail, and I think that the way the language is, it is all right."

Senator Guess: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Day carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2638.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk:

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2143, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 20, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2924, with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature hereby recognizes the following imperative needs within the state: To create a state-wide transportation development plan which identifies present status and sets goals for the future; to coordinate transportation modes; to promote and protect land use programs required in local, state and federal law; to coordinate transportation with the economic development of the state; to supply a broad framework in which regional, metropolitan, and local transportation needs can be related; to facilitate the supply of federal and state aid to those areas which will most benefit the state as a whole; to provide for public involvement in the transportation planning and development process; to administer programs within the jurisdiction of this title relating to the safety of the state's transportation systems; and to coordinate and implement national transportation policy with the state transportation planning program.

The legislature finds and declares that placing all elements of transportation in a single department is fully consistent with and shall in no way impair the use of moneys in the motor vehicle fund exclusively for highway purposes.

Through this chapter, a unified department of transportation is created. To the jurisdiction of this department will be transferred the present powers, duties, and functions of the department of highways, the highway commission, the toll bridge authority, the aeronautics commission, and the canal commission, and the transportation related powers, duties, and functions of the planning and community affairs agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As used in this title unless the context indicates otherwise:

(1) "Department" means the department of transportation created in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act;

(2) "Commission" means the transportation commission created in section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act;

(3) "Secretary" means the secretary of transportation as provided for in section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) There is created a department of state government to be known as the department of transportation.

(2) All powers, duties, and functions vested by law in the department of highways, the state highway commission, the director of highways, the Washington toll bridge authority, the aeronautics commission, the director of aeronautics, and the canal commission, and the transportation related powers, duties, and functions of the planning and community affairs agency, are transferred to the jurisdiction of the department, except those powers, duties, and functions which are expressly directed elsewhere in this or in any other act of the 1977 legislature.

(3) The urban arterial board and the board of pilotage commissioners are transferred to the jurisdiction of the department for their staff support and administration: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall be construed as transferring any policy making powers of the urban arterial board or the board of pilotage commissioners to the transportation commission or the department of transportation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The executive head of the department of transportation shall be the secretary of transportation, who shall be appointed by the transportation commission, and shall be paid a salary to be fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040. The secretary shall be an ex officio member of the commission without a vote. The secretary shall be the chief executive officer of the commission responsible only to it, and shall be guided by policies established by it. The secretary shall serve until removed by the commission, but only for incapacity, incompetence, neglect of duty, malfeasance in office, or failure to carry out the commission's policies. Before a motion for dismissal shall be acted on by the commission, the secretary shall be granted a hearing on formal written charges before the full commission. An action by the commission to remove the secretary shall be final.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 47.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There is hereby created a transportation commission, which shall consist of seven members appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate. The present five members of the highway commission shall serve as five initial members of the transportation commission until their terms of office as highway commission members would have expired. The additional two members provided herein for the transportation commission shall be appointed for initial terms to expire on June 30, 1982, and June 30, 1983. Thereafter all terms shall be for six years. No elective state official or state officer or state employee shall be a member of the commission, and not more than four members of the commission shall at the time of appointment or thereafter during their respective terms of office be members of the same major political party. At the time of appointment or thereafter during their respective terms of office, four members of the commission shall reside in the western part of the state and three members shall reside in the eastern part of the state as divided north and south by the summit of the Cascade mountains. No more than two members of the commission shall reside in the same county. Commissioners shall not be removed from office by the governor before the expiration of their terms unless for a disqualifying change of residence or for cause based upon a determination of incapacity, incompetence, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office by the superior court of the state of Washington in and for Thurston county upon petition and show cause proceedings duly brought therefor in said court and directed to the commissioner in question. No member shall be appointed for more than two consecutive terms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 47.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The commission shall meet at such times as it deems advisable but at least once every month. It may adopt its own rules and regulations and may establish its own procedure. It shall act collectively in harmony with recorded resolutions or motions adopted by majority vote of at least four members. The commission may appoint an administrative secretary, and shall elect one of its members chairman for a term of one year. The chairman shall be able to vote on all matters before the commission.

Each member of the commission shall receive compensation of sixty dollars per day for each day actually spent in the performance of duties, and actual necessary traveling and other expenses in going to, attending, and returning from meetings of the commission, and actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the discharge of such duties as may be requested by a majority vote of the commission or by the secretary of transportation, but in no event shall a commissioner be compensated in any year for more than one hundred twenty days, except the chairman of the commission who may be paid compensation for not more than one hundred fifty days. Service on the commission shall not be considered as service credit for the purposes of any public retirement system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 47.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The transportation commission shall have the following functions, powers, and duties:

(1) To propose policies to be adopted by the legislature designed to assure the development and maintenance of a comprehensive and balanced state-wide transportation system which will meet the needs of the people of this state for safe and efficient transportation services. Wherever appropriate the policies shall provide for the use of integrated, intermodal transportation systems to implement the social, economic, and environmental policies, goals, and objectives of the people of the state, and especially to conserve nonrenewable natural resources including land and energy. To this end the commission shall:

(a) Develop transportation policies which are based on the policies, goals, and objectives expressed and inherent in existing state laws;

(b) Inventory the adopted policies, goals, and objectives of the local and area-wide governmental bodies of the state and define the role of the state, regional, and local governments in determining transportation policies, in transportation planning, and in implementing the state transportation plan;

(c) Propose a transportation policy for the state, and after notice and public hearings, submit the proposal to the legislative transportation committee and the senate and house transportation committees by January 1, 1978, for consideration in the next legislative session;

(d) Establish a procedure for review and revision of the state transportation policy and for submission of proposed changes to the legislature;

(e) To integrate the state-wide transportation plan with the needs of the elderly and handicapped, and to coordinate federal and state programs directed at assisting local governments to answer such needs;

(2) To establish the policy of the department to be followed by the secretary on each of the following items:

(a) To provide for the effective coordination of state transportation planning with national transportation policy, state and local land use policies, and local and regional transportation plans and programs;

(b) To provide for public involvement in transportation designed to elicit the public's views both with respect to adequate transportation services and appropriate means of minimizing adverse social, economic, environmental, and energy impact of transportation programs;

(c) To provide for the administration of grants in aid and other financial assistance to counties and municipal corporations for transportation purposes;

(d) To provide for the management, sale, and lease of property or property rights owned by the department which are not required for transportation purposes;

(3) To direct the secretary to prepare and submit to the commission a comprehensive and balanced state-wide transportation plan which shall be based on the transportation policy adopted by the legislature and applicable state and federal laws. After public notice and hearings, the commission shall adopt the plan and submit it to the legislative transportation committee and to the house and senate standing committees on transportation before January 1, 1980, for consideration in the next legislative session. The plan shall be reviewed and revised at the next regular session of the legislature and biennially thereafter. A preliminary plan shall be submitted to such committees by January 1, 1979.

The plan shall take into account federal law and regulations relating to the planning, construction, and operation of transportation facilities;

(4) To approve and propose to the governor and to the legislature prior to the convening of each regular session a recommended budget for the operation of the department and for carrying out the program of the department for the ensuing biennium. The proposed budget shall separately state the appropriations to be made from the motor vehicle fund for highway purposes in accordance with constitutional limitations and appropriations and expenditures to be made from the general fund, or accounts thereof, and other available sources for other operations and programs of the department;

(5) To review and authorize all departmental requests for legislation;

(6) To approve the issuance and sale of all bonds authorized by the legislature for capital construction of state highways, toll facilities, Columbia Basin county roads (for which reimbursement to the motor vehicle fund has been provided), urban arterial projects, and aviation facilities;

(7) To adopt such rules, regulations, and policy directives as may be necessary to carry out reasonably and properly those functions expressly vested in the commission by statute;

(8) To delegate any of its powers to the secretary of transportation whenever it deems it desirable for the efficient administration of the department and consistent with the purposes of this title;

(9) To exercise such other specific powers and duties as may be vested in the transportation commission by this or any other provision of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Initially the department shall be organized into divisions, including the division of highways, the division of public transportation, the division of aeronautics, the division of marine transportation, and the division of transportation planning and budget.

(2) The secretary may reorganize divisions in order to attain the maximum possible efficiency in the operation of the department. Each division shall be headed by an assistant secretary to be appointed by the secretary. The secretary may also appoint a deputy secretary as may be needed for the performance of the duties and functions vested in the department. The secretary may delegate to officers within the several divisions of the department authority to employ personnel necessary to discharge the responsibilities of the department.

(3) The officers appointed under this section shall be exempt from the provisions of the state civil service law and shall be paid salaries to be fixed by the governor in accordance with the procedure established by law for the fixing of salaries for officers exempt from the operation of the state civil service law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The secretary shall establish such advisory councils as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this 1977 amendatory act, and to insure adequate public participation in the planning and development of transportation facilities. Members of such councils shall serve at the pleasure of the secretary and may receive per diem and necessary expenses, in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The secretary shall have the authority and it shall be his or her duty, subject to policy guidance from the commission:

(1) To serve as chief executive officer of the department with full administrative authority to direct all its activities;

(2) To organize the department as he or she may deem necessary to carry out the work and responsibilities of the department effectively;

(3) To designate and establish such transportation district or branch offices as may be necessary or convenient, and to appoint assistants and delegate any powers, duties, and functions to them or any officer or employee of the department as deemed necessary to administer the department efficiently;

(4) To direct and coordinate the programs of the various divisions of the department to assure that they achieve the greatest possible mutual benefit, produce a balanced overall effort, and eliminate unnecessary duplication of activity;

(5) To adopt all department rules which are subject to the adoption procedures contained in the state administrative procedure act except rules subject to adoption by the commission pursuant to statute;

(6) To maintain and safeguard the official records of the department, including the commission's recorded resolutions and orders;

(7) To provide full staff support to the commission to assist it in carrying out its functions, powers, and duties and to execute the policy established by the commission pursuant to its legislative authority;

(8) To exercise all other powers and perform all other duties as are now or hereafter provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) All employees and personnel of the department of highways, the highway commission, the toll bridge authority, the aeronautics commission, and the canal commission, and personnel in the planning and community affairs agency whose primary duties relate to transportation, shall, on July 1, 1977, be transferred to the jurisdiction of the department of transportation. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, shall be assigned to the department to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with bargaining agreements and the laws and rules governing the state merit system: PROVIDED, That the executive secretary appointed by the urban arterial board shall not be transferred to the department and shall remain subject to the control of the urban arterial board.

(2) Any officer or employee of any of the agencies mentioned hereinabove who holds an exempt position with such agency and who previously held permanent status in a classified position shall on or after July 1, 1977, have a right of reversion to the highest class of position previously held, and may continue employment in the department of transportation at such class of position subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing the state merit system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The lawfully adopted rules and regulations of the Washington state highway commission, the Washington toll bridge authority, the aeronautics commission, the canal commission, and those of the planning and community affairs agency which relate to transportation, in effect on June 30, 1977, shall continue to have full force and effect and be applicable until superseded by, or repealed by, rules and regulations lawfully adopted by the secretary of transportation or the transportation commission as provided in sections 6 and 10 of this 1977 amendatory act. Rules and regulations lawfully adopted by the board of pilotage commissioners pursuant to RCW 88.16.030 in effect on June 30, 1977, shall continue to have full force and effect and be applicable until suspended by, or repealed by, rules and regulations lawfully adopted by the newly constituted board of pilotage commissioners as provided for in RCW 88.16.010 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 41.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to the exemptions set forth in RCW 41.06.070, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply in the department of transportation to the secretary, a deputy secretary, an administrative assistant to the secretary, if any, one assistant secretary for each division designated pursuant to section 8 of this 1977 amendatory act, and one confidential secretary for each of the above-named officers. The individuals appointed under this section shall be exempt from the provisions of the state civil service law, and shall be paid salaries to be fixed by the governor in accordance with the procedure established by law for the fixing of salaries for individuals exempt from the operation of the state civil service law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If on the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, any exempt position designated hereinabove has not been filled by appointment, the person serving in the comparable exempt position, if any, in an agency whose functions are by section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act transferred to the department of transportation shall fill such exempt position until a permanent appointment thereto has been made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Nothing in this 1977 amendatory act shall be construed to affect any existing rights acquired under the sections amended or repealed herein except as to the governmental agencies referred to and their officials and employees, nor as affecting any actions, activities, or proceedings validated thereunder, nor as affecting any civil or criminal proceedings instituted thereunder, nor any rule, regulation, resolution, or order promulgated thereunder, nor any administrative action taken thereunder; and neither the abolition of any agency nor any transfer of powers, duties, and functions as provided herein, shall affect the validity of any act performed by such agency or any officer thereof prior to the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Nothing contained in this 1977 amendatory act shall be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until any such agreement has expired.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or other writings in the possession of the department of highways, the highway commission, the toll bridge authority, the aeronautics commission, the canal commission, the board of pilotage commissioners, and such material in possession of the planning and community affairs agency which relates to transportation, shall be delivered on the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, to the custody of the department of transportation.

All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed in carrying out the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the department of transportation by section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be made available on the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, to the department. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the functions so transferred shall by such time be assigned to the department of transportation.

Any appropriations heretofore made to the department of highways, the highway commission, the toll bridge authority, the aeronautics commission, the canal commission, and the planning and community affairs agency for the purpose of carrying out the powers, duties, and functions transferred in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, shall on the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, be so transferred and credited to the department of transportation for the purpose of carrying out such transferred powers, duties, and functions. Appropriations to the planning and community affairs agency hereby transferred to the department of transportation, including funds for administration of advanced planning moneys for local public transportation agencies, that are available for administration and state level planning functions may be expended during the period July 1, 1977, through March 31, 1978, to pay that share of the administration and planning activities of the department of transportation relating to nonhighway functions of the department, pending adoption of the department's supplemental budget as provided in section 25 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any funds including unexpended balances within any accounts, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or any other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred under section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. All state officials required to maintain contact with or provide services for any of the departments or agencies whose functions are transferred by section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act shall continue to perform such services for the department of transportation unless otherwise directed by this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. While any bonds, whether definitive, temporary, or interim, or warrants, certificates, or receipts of any denomination, with or without coupons attached heretofore issued by the state aeronautics commission, the toll bridge authority, the highway commission, or any of the other agencies whose functions are transferred to the department of transportation by section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, remain outstanding, the powers and duties relating thereto of such agencies or of any official or employee thereof transferred by section 11 of this 1977 amendatory act to the department of transportation, or any powers and duties of any other state official or state agency with respect to such bonds, warrants, certificates, or receipts shall not be diminished or impaired in any manner that will adversely affect the interests and rights of the holders of such bonds, warrants, certificates, or receipts. The holder of any such bond, warrant, certificate, or receipt may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require the performance by the department of transportation, or other appropriate state official or agency, of any of the duties heretofore imposed upon any state department, official, or employee under the terms of any such prior bond, warrant, certificate, or receipt agreement or sale: PROVIDED, That the enumeration of such rights and remedies herein shall not be deemed to exclude the exercise or prosecution of any other rights or remedies by the holders of such bonds, warrants, certificates, or receipts.

Sec. 20. Section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.17.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be departments of the state government which shall be known as (1) the department of social and health services, (2) the department of ecology, (3) the department of labor and industries, (4) the department of agriculture, (5) the department of fisheries, (6) the department of game, (7) the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation, (8) the department of motor vehicles, (9) the department of general administration, (10) the department of commerce and economic development, (11) the department of veterans affairs, (12) the department of revenue, and (13) the department of retirement systems, which shall be charged with the execution, enforcement, and administration of such laws, and invested with such powers and required to perform such duties, as the legislature may provide.

Sec. 21. Section 2, chapter 7, Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.17.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a chief executive officer of each department to be known as: (1) The secretary of social and health services, (2) the director of ecology, (3) the director of labor and industries, (4) the director of agriculture, (5) the director of fisheries, (6) the director of game, (7) the ~~((director of highways))~~ secretary of transportation, (8) the director of motor vehicles, (9) the director of general administration, (10) the director of commerce and economic development, (11) the director of veterans affairs, (12) the director of revenue, and (13) the director of retirement systems.

Such officers, except the ~~((director of highways))~~ secretary of transportation and the director of game, shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and hold office at the pleasure of the governor. If a vacancy occurs while the senate is not in session, the governor shall make a temporary appointment until the next meeting of the senate ~~((when he shall present to that body his nomination for the office))~~. The ~~((director of highways))~~ secretary of transportation shall be appointed by the ~~((state highway))~~ transportation commission as prescribed by section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act, and the director of game shall be appointed by the game commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 14.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Unless the language specifically indicates otherwise, or unless the context plainly requires a different interpretation:

Wherever in any provision in the Revised Code of Washington the term "Washington state aeronautics commission", "the state aeronautics commission", "the aeronautics commission of the state", "the aeronautics commission", or "the commission" (when referring to the Washington state aeronautics commission) is used, it shall mean the department of transportation created in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Wherever in any provision in the Revised Code of Washington the term "state director of aeronautics", "director of aeronautics", or "director" (when referring to the state director of aeronautics) is used, it shall mean the secretary of transportation whose office is created in section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Unless the language specifically indicates otherwise, or unless the context plainly requires a different interpretation:

Wherever in Title 47 RCW or in any provision in the Revised Code of Washington the term "Washington state highway commission", "the state highway commission", "the highway commission", "the commission" (when referring to the Washington state highway commission), "the department of highways", "Washington toll bridge authority", or "the authority" (when referring to the Washington toll bridge authority) is used, it shall mean the department of transportation created in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Wherever in Title 47 RCW or in any provision in the Revised Code of Washington the term "director of highways" is used, it shall mean the secretary of transportation, whose office is created in section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is added to chapter 1.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For purposes of harmonizing and clarifying the provisions of the statute sections published in the revised code of Washington, the code reviser may substitute words designating the department of transportation or the secretary of transportation, as appropriate, whenever necessary to effect the changes in meaning provided for in sections 22 and 23 of this 1977 amendatory act or any other act of the 1977 legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) The transportation commission through the secretary of transportation, and in conjunction with the legislative transportation committee and the house and senate transportation committees, shall immediately undertake a study of the proper funding of the department of transportation, the state transportation systems and the functions vested in the department. The study shall encompass alternative sources of funding of both highway and nonhighway functions of the department.

(2) The transportation commission through the secretary of transportation shall prepare a proposed budget for the operations of the department of transportation for the biennium ending June 30, 1979, and in connection therewith shall obtain such data relating to the needs of the state transportation systems and functions as may be necessary. The preliminary budget including proposed alternative sources of funding for the department of transportation for the remainder of the biennium ending June 30, 1979, shall be submitted to the house and senate transportation committees for review by November 15, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The chief of the Washington state patrol, the director of the traffic safety commission, the administration engineer of the county road administration board, and the director of the department of motor vehicles are designated as official consultants to the transportation commission so that the goals and activities of their respective agencies which relate to transportation are fully coordinated with other related responsibilities of the department of transportation. In this capacity, the chief of the Washington state patrol, the director of the traffic safety commission, the administration engineer of the county road administration board, and the director of motor vehicles shall consult with the transportation commission and the secretary of transportation on the implications and impacts on the transportation related functions and duties of their respective agencies of any proposed comprehensive transportation plan, program, or policy.

In order to develop fully integrated, balanced, and coordinated transportation plans, programs, and budgets the chief of the Washington state patrol, the director of the traffic safety commission, the administration engineer of the county road administration board, and the director of motor vehicles shall consult with the secretary of transportation on the matter of relative priorities during the development of their respective agencies' plans, programs, and budgets as they pertain to transportation activities. The secretary of transportation shall provide written comments to the governor and the legislature on the extent to which the state patrol's, the traffic safety commission's, the county road administration board's, and the department of motor vehicle's final plans, programs, and budgets are compatible with the priorities established in the department of transportation's final plans, programs, and budgets.

Sec. 27. Section 47.01.070, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In all situations wherein the director of highways, the director of aeronautics or any one of their designees, or any member of the highway commission, the toll bridge authority, the aeronautics commission, or the canal commission or any one of their designees was on ((July 1, 1951)) the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, designated or serving as a member of any board, commission, committee, or authority, the ((state highway commission)) the chairman of the transportation commission or the chairman's designee who shall be an employee of the department of transportation, shall hereafter determine who shall serve as such member.

Sec. 28. Section 7, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 and RCW 43.63A.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The planning and community affairs agency shall have the following planning functions and responsibilities:

(1) Provide technical assistance to the governor and the legislature in identifying long range goals for the state((-));

(2) Prepare a state comprehensive plan as the state's long range public declaration of intent in developmental policy, for programming its facilities and services and for guidance of private activities and public programs at all levels of government. Plan elements may include but shall not be limited to transportation, scenic highways, public facilities, recreation, open spaces, natural resources, patterns of urban and rural development, and quality of the natural and man-made environment((-)); PROVIDED, That plan elements relating to transportation shall be in accord with the state-wide transportation policies and plans developed by the transportation commission pursuant to section 7 of this 1977 amendatory act;

(3) Provide assistance and coordination to other state agencies for preparation of agency plans and programs((-);

(4) Provide general coordination and review of plans in functional areas of state government as may be necessary for receipt of federal or state funds((-);

(5) Participate with other states or subdivisions thereof in interstate planning, and assist cities, counties, municipal corporations, governmental conferences or councils, and regional planning commissions to participate with other states or their subdivisions in planning((-);

(6) Assist the ((central budget agency)) office of program planning and fiscal management in capital improvement programming and other programming activities((-);

(7) Encourage educational and research programs that further planning and community development, and provide administrative and technical services therefor.

Sec. 29. Section 46.44.080, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 15, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Local authorities with respect to public highways under their jurisdiction may prohibit the operation thereon of motor trucks or other vehicles or may impose limits as to the weight thereof, or any other restrictions as may be deemed necessary, whenever any such public highway by reason of rain, snow, climatic or other conditions, will be seriously damaged or destroyed unless the operation of vehicles thereon be prohibited or restricted or the permissible weights thereof reduced: PROVIDED, That whenever a highway has been closed generally to vehicles or specified classes of vehicles, local authorities shall by general rule or by special permit authorize the operation thereon of school buses, emergency vehicles, and motor trucks transporting perishable commodities or commodities necessary for the health and welfare of local residents under such weight and speed restrictions as the local authorities deem necessary to protect the highway from undue damage: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the governing authorities of incorporated cities and towns shall not prohibit the use of any city street designated by the ~~((state highway))~~ transportation commission as forming a part of the route of any primary state highway through any such incorporated city or town by vehicles or any class of vehicles or impose any restrictions or reductions in permissible weights unless such restriction, limitation, or prohibition, or reduction in permissible weights be first approved in writing by the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation.

The local authorities imposing any such restrictions or limitations, or prohibiting any use or reducing the permissible weights shall do so by proper ordinance or resolution and shall erect or cause to be erected and maintained signs designating the provisions of the ordinance or resolution in each end of the portion of any public highway affected thereby, and no such ordinance or resolution shall be effective unless and until such signs are erected and maintained.

The ~~((highway commission))~~ department shall have the same authority as hereinabove granted to local authorities to prohibit or restrict the operation of vehicles upon state highways ~~(; which rules shall be administered by the department of highways)~~. The department ~~((of highways))~~ shall give public notice of closure or restriction. The ~~((highway commission))~~ department may ~~((further authorize the department of highways to))~~ issue special permits for the operation of school buses and motor trucks transporting perishable commodities or commodities necessary for the health and welfare of local residents under specified weight and speed restrictions as may be necessary to protect any state highway from undue damage.

Sec. 30. Section 46.44.090, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 13, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state highway))~~ department of transportation, pursuant to rules adopted by the transportation commission with respect to ~~((primary and secondary))~~ state highways and local authorities with respect to public highways under their jurisdiction may, upon application in writing and good cause being shown therefor, issue a special permit in writing authorizing the applicant to operate or move a vehicle or combination of vehicles of a size, weight of vehicle, or load exceeding the maximum specified in this chapter or otherwise not in conformity with the provisions of this chapter upon any public highway under the jurisdiction of the authority granting such permit and for the maintenance of which such authority is responsible.

Sec. 31. Section 46.44.091, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 14, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.091 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, no special permit shall be issued for movement on any state highway or route of a state highway within the limits of any city or town where the gross weight, including load, exceeds the following limits:

(a) Twenty-two thousand pounds on a single axle or on dual axles with a wheelbase between the first and second axles of less than three feet six inches;

(b) Forty-three thousand pounds on dual axles having a wheelbase between the first and second axles of not less than three feet six inches but less than seven feet;

(c) On any group of axles or in the case of a vehicle employing two single axles with a wheel base between the first and last axle of not less than seven feet but less than ten feet, a weight in pounds determined by multiplying six thousand five hundred times the distance in feet between the center of the first axle and the center of the last axle of the group;

(d) On any group of axles with a wheel base between the first and last axle of not less than ten feet but less than thirty feet, a weight in pounds determined by multiplying two thousand two hundred times the sum of twenty and the distance in feet between the center of the first axle and the center of the last axle of the group;

(e) On any group of axles with a wheel base between the first and last axle of thirty feet or greater, a weight in pounds determined by multiplying one thousand six hundred times the sum of forty and the distance in feet between the center of the first axle and the center of the last axle of the group.

(2) The total weight of a vehicle or combination of vehicles allowable by special permit under subsection (1) of this section shall be governed by the lesser of the weights obtained by using the total number of axles as a group or any combination of axles as a group.

(3) The weight limitations pertaining to single axles may be exceeded to permit the movement of equipment operating upon single pneumatic tires having a rim width of twenty inches or more and a rim diameter of twenty-four inches or more or dual pneumatic tires having a rim width of sixteen inches or more and a rim diameter of twenty-four inches or more and specially designed vehicles manufactured and certified for special permits prior to July 1, 1975.

(4) Permits may be issued for weights in excess of the limitations contained in subsection (1) of this section on highways or sections of highways which have been designed and constructed for weights in excess of such limitations, or for any shipment duly certified as necessary by military officials, or by officials of public or private power facilities, or when in the opinion of the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation the movement or action is a necessary movement or action: PROVIDED, That in the judgment of the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation the structures and highway surfaces on the routes involved are capable of sustaining weights in excess of such limitations and it is not reasonable for economic or operational considerations to transport such excess weights by rail or water for any substantial distance of the total mileage applied for.

Sec. 32. Section 46.44.092, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 15, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.092 are each amended to read as follows:

No special permit shall be issued for movement on any two lane state highway outside the limits of any city or town where the overall width of load exceeds fourteen feet, or on any multiple lane state highway where the overall width of load exceeds thirty-two feet; except that on multiple lane state highways where a physical barrier serving as a median divider separates the oncoming and opposing traffic lanes, no special permit shall be issued for width in excess of twenty feet: PROVIDED, That (1) in the case of buildings, the limitations referred to in this section for movement on any two lane state highway other than the national system of interstate and defense highways may be exceeded under the following conditions: (a) Controlled vehicular traffic shall be maintained in one direction at all times; (b) maximum distance of movement shall not exceed five miles; additional contiguous permits shall not be issued to exceed the five-mile limit: PROVIDED, That when ~~((in the opinion of the highway commission))~~ the department of transportation, pursuant to general rules adopted by the transportation commission, determines a hardship would result, this limitation may be exceeded upon approval of the ~~((commission))~~ department of transportation; (c) prior to issuing a permit a qualified ~~((highway))~~ transportation department employee shall make a visual inspection of the building and route involved determining that the conditions listed herein shall be complied with and that structures or overhead obstructions may be cleared or moved in order to maintain a constant and uninterrupted movement of the building; (d) special escort or other precautions may be imposed to assure movement is made under the safest possible conditions, and the Washington state patrol shall be advised when and where the movement is to be made; (2) permits may be issued for widths of vehicles in excess of the preceding limitations on highways or sections of highways which have been designed and constructed for width in excess of such limitations; (3) these limitations may be rescinded when certification is made by military officials, or by officials of public or private power facilities, or when in the opinion of the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation the movement or action is a necessary movement or action: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the judgment of the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation the structures and highway surfaces on the routes involved are capable of sustaining widths in excess of such limitation; (4) these limitations shall not apply to movement during daylight hours on any two lane state highway where the gross weight, including load, does not exceed forty-five thousand pounds and the overall width of load does not exceed sixteen feet: PROVIDED, That the minimum and maximum speed of such movements, prescribed routes of such movements, the times of such movements, limitation upon frequency of trips (which limitation shall be not less than one per week), and conditions to assure safety of traffic may be prescribed by the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation or local authority issuing such special permit.

The applicant for any special permit shall specifically describe the vehicle or vehicles and load to be operated or moved and the particular state highways for which permit to operate is requested and whether such permit is requested for a single trip or for continuous operation.

Sec. 33. Section 46.44.095, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 17, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.095 are each amended to read as follows:

Until December 31, 1976, a combination of vehicles lawfully licensed to a total gross weight of seventy-two thousand pounds, and a three or more axle single unit vehicle lawfully licensed to a total gross weight of forty thousand pounds, and on January 1, 1977, and thereafter, when a combination of vehicles has been lawfully licensed to a total gross weight of eighty thousand pounds and when a three or more axle single unit vehicle has been lawfully licensed to a total gross weight of forty thousand pounds pursuant to provisions of RCW 46.44.041, a permit for additional gross weight may be issued by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation upon the payment of thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents per year for each one thousand pounds or fraction thereof of such additional gross weight: PROVIDED, That the tire limits specified in RCW 46.44.042 shall apply, and the gross weight on any single axle shall not exceed twenty thousand pounds, and the gross load on any group of axles shall not exceed the limits set forth in RCW 46.44.041: PROVIDED FURTHER, That an additional two thousand pounds may be purchased for an amount not to exceed thirty dollars per thousand for the rear axle of a two-axle garbage truck. Such additional weight shall not be valid or permitted on any part of the federal interstate highway system where the maximum single axle load shall not exceed twenty thousand pounds.

The annual additional tonnage permits provided for in this section shall be issued ~~((under such rules and regulations and))~~ upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the ~~((state highway))~~ department pursuant to general rules adopted by the transportation commission. Such permits shall entitle the permittee to carry such additional load in such an amount and upon such highways or sections of highways as may be determined by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation to be capable of withstanding such increased gross load without undue injury to the highway: PROVIDED, That the permits shall not be valid on any highway where the use of such permits would deprive this state of federal funds for highway purposes.

The annual additional tonnage permits provided for in this section shall commence on the first of January of each year. The permits may be purchased at any time, and if they are purchased for less than a full year, the fee shall be one-twelfth of the full fee multiplied by the number of months, including any fraction thereof, covered by the permit. When the department issues a duplicate permit to replace a lost or destroyed permit and where the department transfers a permit from one vehicle to another a fee of five dollars shall be charged for each such duplicate issued or each such transfer. The ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation shall issue such permits on a temporary basis for periods not less than five days at one dollar per day for each two thousands pounds or fraction thereof.

The fees levied in RCW 46.44.0941 and this section shall not apply to any vehicles owned and operated by the state of Washington, any county within the state or any city or town or metropolitan municipal corporation within the state, or by the federal government.

In the case of fleets prorating license fees under the provisions of chapter 46.85 RCW the fees provided for in this section shall be computed by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation by applying the proportion of the Washington mileage of the fleet in question to the total mileage of the fleet as reported pursuant to chapter 46.85 RCW to the fees that would be required to purchase the additional weight allowance for all eligible vehicles or combinations of vehicles for which the extra weight allowance is requested.

The ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation shall prorate the fees provided in this section only if the name of the operator or owner is submitted on official listings of authorized fleet operators furnished by the department of motor vehicles. Listings furnished shall also include the percentage of mileage operated in Washington which shall be the same percentage as determined by the department of motor vehicles, for purposes of prorating license fees.

Sec. 34. Section 2, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.405 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation shall determine upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that any maximum speed hereinbefore set forth is greater than is reasonable or safe with respect to a state highway under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or upon any other part of the state highway system or at state ferry terminals, or that a general reduction of any maximum speed hereinbefore set forth would aid in the conservation of energy resources, ~~((said commission))~~ the secretary may determine and declare a reasonable and safe lower maximum limit or a lower maximum limit which will reasonably conserve energy resources, for any state highway, the entire state highway system, or any portion thereof, which shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected. The ~~((commission))~~ secretary may also fix and regulate the speed of vehicles on any state highway within the maximum speed limit allowed by this chapter for special occasions including, but not limited to, local parades and other special events. Any such maximum speed limit may be declared to be effective at all times or at such times as are indicated upon the said signs; and differing limits may be established for different times of day, ~~different~~ types of vehicles, varying weather conditions, and other factors bearing on safe speeds, which shall be effective (a) when posted upon appropriate fixed or variable signs or (b) if a maximum limit is established for auto stages which is lower than the limit for automobiles, the auto stage speed limit shall become effective thirty days after written notice thereof is mailed in the manner provided in subsection (4) of RCW 46.61.410, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 35. Section 3, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 2, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.410 are each amended to read as follows:

Such maximum speed limit may be declared to be effective at all times or at such times as are indicated upon said signs or in the case of auto stages, as indicated in said written notice; and differing limits may be established for different times of day, different types of vehicles, varying weather conditions, and other factors bearing on safe speeds, which shall be effective when posted upon appropriate fixed or variable signs or if a maximum limit is established for auto stages which is lower than the limit for automobiles, the auto stage speed limit shall become effective thirty days after written notice thereof is mailed in the manner provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(2) The maximum speed limit for vehicles over ten thousand pounds gross weight and vehicles in combination except auto stages shall not exceed sixty miles per hour and may be established at a lower limit by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary as provided in RCW 46.61.405, as now or hereafter amended.

(3) The word "trucks" used by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department on signs giving notice of maximum speed limits shall mean vehicles over ten thousand pounds gross weight and all vehicles in combination except auto stages.

(4) Whenever the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary shall establish maximum speed limits for auto stages lower than the maximum limits for automobiles, the secretary ~~((of the state highway commission))~~ shall ~~((mail))~~ cause to be mailed notice thereof to each auto transportation company holding a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by the Washington utilities and transportation commission. The notice shall be mailed to the chief place of business within the state of Washington of each auto transportation company or if none then its chief place of business without the state of Washington.

Sec. 36. Section 4, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 3, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.415 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever local authorities in their respective jurisdictions determine on the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that the maximum speed permitted under ~~((this act))~~ RCW 46.61.400 or 46.61.440 is greater or less than is reasonable and safe under the conditions found to exist upon a highway or part of a highway, the local authority may determine and declare a reasonable and safe maximum limit thereon which

- (a) Decreases the limit at intersections; or
- (b) Increases the limit but not to more than sixty miles per hour; or
- (c) Decreases the limit but not to less than twenty miles per hour.

(2) Local authorities in their respective jurisdictions shall determine by an engineering and traffic investigation the proper maximum speed for all arterial streets and shall declare a reasonable and safe maximum limit thereon which may be greater or less than the maximum speed permitted under RCW 46.61.400(2) but shall not exceed sixty miles per hour.

(3) The ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation is authorized to establish speed limits on county roads and city and town streets as shall be necessary to conform with any federal requirements which are a prescribed condition for the allocation of federal funds to the state.

(4) Any altered limit established as hereinbefore authorized shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected. Such maximum speed limit may be declared to be effective at all times or at such times as are indicated upon such signs; and differing limits may be established for different times of day, different types of vehicles, varying weather conditions, and other factors bearing on safe speeds, which shall be effective when posted upon appropriate fixed or variable signs.

(5) Any alteration of maximum limits on state highways within incorporated cities or towns by local authorities shall not be effective until such alteration has been approved by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation.

Sec. 37. Section 6, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 135, Laws of 1969 and RCW 46.61.425 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at such a slow speed as to impede the normal and reasonable movement of traffic except when reduced speed is necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law: PROVIDED, That a person following a vehicle driving at less than the legal maximum speed and desiring to pass such vehicle may exceed the speed limit, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.120 on highways having only one lane of traffic in each direction, at only such a speed and for only such a distance as is necessary to complete the pass with a reasonable margin of safety.

(2) Whenever the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation or local authorities within their respective jurisdictions determine on the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that slow speeds on any part of a highway unreasonably impede the normal movement of traffic, the ~~((commission))~~ secretary or such local authority may determine and declare a minimum speed limit thereat which shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected. No person shall drive a vehicle slower than such minimum speed limit except when necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law.

Sec. 38. Section 46.48.041, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.430 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary or inconsistent herewith, the (~~Washington state highway commission~~) secretary of transportation shall have the power and the duty to fix and regulate the speed of vehicles within the maximum speed limit allowed by law for state highways, designated as limited access facilities, regardless of whether a portion of said highway is within the corporate limits of a city or town. No governing body or authority of such city or town or other political subdivision may have the power to pass or enforce any ordinance, rule, or regulation requiring a different rate of speed, and all such ordinances, rules, and regulations contrary to or inconsistent therewith now in force are void and of no effect.

Sec. 39. Section 46.48.080, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.61.450 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a vehicle or any combination of vehicles over any bridge or other elevated structure or through any tunnel or underpass constituting a part of any public highway at a rate of speed or with a gross weight or of a size which is greater at any time than the maximum speed or maximum weight or size which can be maintained or carried with safety over any such bridge or structure or through any such tunnel or underpass when such bridge, structure, tunnel, or underpass is sign posted as hereinafter provided. The (~~state highway commission~~) secretary of transportation, if it be a bridge, structure, tunnel, or underpass upon a state highway, or the governing body or authorities of any county, city, or town, if it be upon roads or streets under their jurisdiction, may restrict the speed which may be maintained or the gross weight or size which may be operated upon or over any such bridge or elevated structure or through any such tunnel or underpass with safety thereto. The (~~state highway commission~~) secretary or the governing body or authorities of any county, city, or town having jurisdiction shall determine and declare the maximum speed or maximum gross weight or size which such bridge, elevated structure, tunnel, or underpass can withstand or accommodate and shall cause suitable signs stating such maximum speed or maximum gross weight, or size, or either, to be erected and maintained on the right hand side of such highway, road, or street and at a distance of not less than one hundred feet from each end of such bridge, structure, tunnel, or underpass and on the approach thereto: PROVIDED, That in the event that any such bridge, elevated structure, tunnel, or underpass is upon a city street designated by the (~~state highway~~) transportation commission as forming a part of the route of any state highway through any such incorporated city or town the determination of any maximum speed or maximum gross weight or size which such bridge, elevated structure, tunnel, or underpass can withstand or accommodate shall not be enforceable at any speed, weight, or size less than the maximum allowed by law, unless with the approval in writing of the (~~state highway commission~~) secretary. Upon the trial of any person charged with a violation of this section, proof of either violation of maximum speed or maximum weight, or size, or either, and the distance and location of such signs as are required, shall constitute conclusive evidence of the maximum speed or maximum weight, or size, or either, which can be maintained or carried with safety over such bridge or elevated structure or through such tunnel or underpass.

Sec. 40. Section 66, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 35, chapter 62, Laws of 1975 and RCW 46.61.570 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except when necessary to avoid conflict with other traffic, or in compliance with law or the directions of a police officer or official traffic control device, no person shall:

(a) Stop, stand, or park a vehicle:

(i) On the roadway side of any vehicle stopped or parked at the edge or curb of a street;

(ii) On a sidewalk or street planting strip;

(iii) Within an intersection;

(iv) On a crosswalk;

(v) Between a safety zone and the adjacent curb or within thirty feet of points on the curb immediately opposite the ends of a safety zone, unless official signs or markings indicate a different no-parking area opposite the ends of a safety zone;

(vi) Alongside or opposite any street excavation or obstruction when stopping, standing, or parking would obstruct traffic;

(vii) Upon any bridge or other elevated structure upon a highway or within a highway tunnel;

(viii) On any railroad tracks;

(ix) In the area between roadways of a divided highway including crossovers; or

(x) At any place where official signs prohibit stopping.

(b) Stand or park a vehicle, whether occupied or not, except momentarily to pick up or discharge a passenger or passengers:

(i) In front of a public or private driveway or within five feet of the end of the curb radius leading thereto;

(ii) Within fifteen feet of a fire hydrant;

(iii) Within twenty feet of a crosswalk;

(iv) Within thirty feet upon the approach to any flashing signal, stop sign, yield sign, or traffic control signal located at the side of a roadway;

(v) Within twenty feet of the driveway entrance to any fire station and on the side of a street opposite the entrance to any fire station within seventy-five feet of said entrance when properly signposted; or

(vi) At any place where official signs prohibit standing.

(c) Park a vehicle, whether occupied or not, except temporarily for the purpose of and while actually engaged in loading or unloading property or passengers:

(i) Within fifty feet of the nearest rail of a railroad crossing; or

(ii) At any place where official signs prohibit parking.

(2) Parking or standing shall be permitted in the manner provided by law at all other places except a time limit may be imposed or parking restricted at other places but such limitation and restriction shall be by city ordinance or county resolution or order of the (~~state highway commission~~) secretary of transportation upon highways under their respective jurisdictions.

(3) No person shall move a vehicle not lawfully under his or her control into any such prohibited area or away from a curb such a distance as is unlawful.

(4) It shall be unlawful for any person to reserve or attempt to reserve any portion of a highway for the purpose of stopping, standing, or parking to the exclusion of any other like person, nor shall any person be granted such right.

Sec. 41. Section 67, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 36, chapter 62, Laws of 1975 and RCW 46.61.575 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, every vehicle stopped or parked upon a two-way roadway shall be so stopped or parked with the right-hand wheels parallel to and within twelve inches of the right-hand curb or as close as practicable to the right edge of the right-hand shoulder.

(2) Except when otherwise provided by local ordinance, every vehicle stopped or parked upon a one-way roadway shall be so stopped or parked parallel to the curb or edge of the roadway, in the direction of authorized traffic movement, with its right-hand wheels within twelve inches of the right-hand curb or as close as practicable to the right edge of the right-hand shoulder, or with its left-hand wheels

(3) Local authorities may by ordinance or resolution permit angle parking on any roadway, except that angle parking shall not be permitted on any federal-aid or state highway unless the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation has determined by ~~((resolution or))~~ order that the roadway is of sufficient width to permit angle parking without interfering with the free movement of traffic.

(4) The ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary with respect to highways under ~~((its))~~ his or her jurisdiction may place official traffic control devices prohibiting, limiting, or restricting the stopping, standing, or parking of vehicles on any highway where ~~((in its opinion, as evidenced by resolution or))~~ the secretary has determined by order, such stopping, standing, or parking is dangerous to those using the highway or where the stopping, standing, or parking of vehicles would unduly interfere with the free movement of traffic thereon. No person shall stop, stand, or park any vehicle in violation of the restrictions indicated by such devices.

Sec. 42. Section 46.68.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 100, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.68.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds to be paid to the counties of the state shall be subject to deduction and distribution as follows:

(1) One and one-half percent of such sums shall be deducted monthly as such sums accrue and set aside for the use of the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation and the county road administration board for the supervision of work and expenditures of such counties on the county roads thereof, including the supervision and administration of federal-aid programs for which the ~~((highway))~~ transportation commission has responsibility: PROVIDED, That any moneys so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the counties in proportion to deductions herein made;

(2) All sums required to be repaid to counties composed entirely of islands shall be deducted;

(3) The balance remaining to the credit of counties after such deductions shall be paid to the several counties monthly, as such funds accrue, upon the basis of the following formula:

(a) Ten percent of such sum shall be divided equally among the several counties.

(b) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the sum of the total number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in unincorporated areas and seven percent of the number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in incorporated areas within each county bears to the total of such sums for all counties. The number of registered vehicles so used shall be as certified by the director of the department of motor vehicles for the year next preceding the date of calculation of the allocation amounts. The director of the department shall first supply such information not later than the fifteenth day of February, 1956, and on the fifteenth of February each two years thereafter.

(c) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the product of the county's trunk highway mileage and its prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile as provided in subsection (e) is to the sum of such products for all counties. County trunk highways are defined as county roads regularly used by school buses and/or rural free delivery mail carriers of the United States post office department, but not foot carriers. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by school buses shall be based solely upon information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction who shall on October 1, 1955, and on October 1st of each odd-numbered year thereafter furnish the ((state highway)) transportation commission with a map of each county upon which is indicated the county roads used by school buses at the close of the preceding school year, together with a detailed statement showing the total number of miles of county highway over which school buses operated in each county during such year. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by rural mail carriers on routes serviced by vehicles during the year shall be based solely upon information supplied by the United States postal department as of January 1st of the even-numbered years.

(d) Thirty percent of such sum shall be paid to each of the several counties in the direct proportion that the product of the trunk highway mileage of the county and its "money need factor" as defined in subsection (f) is to the total of such products for all counties.

(e) Every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation, the ((highway)) transportation commission and the legislative transportation committee shall reexamine or cause to be reexamined all the factors on which the estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties have been based and shall make such adjustments as may be necessary. The following formula shall be used: One twenty-fifth of the estimated total county road replacement cost, plus the total annual maintenance cost, divided by the total miles of county road in such county, and multiplied by the result obtained from dividing the total miles of county road in said county by the total trunk road mileage in said county. For the purpose of allocating funds from the motor vehicle fund, a county road shall be defined as one established as such by resolution or order of establishment of the ((board of)) county ((commissioners)) legislative authority. ((The first allocation of funds shall be based on the following prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties as follows:

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile in this subsection shall be adjusted every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation by the highway commission on the basis of changes in the trunk and total county road mileage based on information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction, the United States postal department, and the annual reports of the county road departments:))

(f) The "money need factor" for each of the several counties shall be the difference between the prorated estimated annual costs as ~~((listed above))~~ provided for in subsection (e) of this subsection and the sum of the following three amounts divided by the county trunk highway mileage:

(1) The equivalent of a two dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax levy on the valuation, as equalized by the state department of revenue for state purposes, of all taxable property in the county road districts;

(2) One-fourth the sum of all funds received by the county from the federal forest reserve fund during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as certified by the state treasurer; and

(3) One-half the sum of motor vehicle license fees and motor vehicle fuel tax refunded to the county during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as provided in RCW 46.68.080. These shall be as supplied to the ~~((highway))~~ transportation commission by the state treasurer for that purpose. The department of revenue and the state treasurer shall supply the information herein requested on or before January 1, 1956, and on said date each two years thereafter.

The following formula shall be used for the purpose of obtaining the "money need factor" of the several counties: The prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile multiplied by the trunk miles will equal the total need of the individual county. The total need minus the sum of the three resources set forth in subsection (f) shall equal the net need. The net need of the individual county divided by the total net needs for all counties shall equal the "money need factor" for that county.

(g) The ~~((state highway))~~ transportation commission shall adjust the allocations of the several counties on March 1st of every even-numbered year based solely upon the sources of information hereinbefore required: PROVIDED, That the total allocation factor composed of the sum of the four factors defined in subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) shall be held to a level not more than five percent above or five percent below the total allocation factor in use during the previous two year period.

(h) The ~~((highway))~~ transportation commission and the legislative transportation committee shall relog or cause to be relogged the total road mileages upon which the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile are based and shall recalculate such costs on the basis of such relogging and shall report their findings and recommendations to the legislature at its next regular session.

(i) The ~~((highway))~~ transportation commission and the legislative transportation committee shall study and report their findings and recommendations to the legislature concerning the following problems as they affect the allocation of "motor vehicle fund" funds to counties:

- (1) Comparative costs per trunk mile based on federal aid contracts versus those herein advocated((-));
- (2) Average costs per trunk mile((-);
- (3) The advisability of using either "trunk mileage" or "county road" mileage exclusively as the criterion instead of both as in this plan adopted((-);
- (4) Reassessment of bridge costs based on current information and relogging of bridges((-);
- (5) The items in the list of resources used in determining the "need factor"((-);
- (6) The development of a uniform accounting system for counties with regard to road and bridge construction and maintenance costs((-);
- (7) A redefinition of rural and urban vehicles which better reflects the use of said vehicles on county roads.

Sec. 43. Section 2, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 39, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation is hereby directed to conduct periodic analyses of the entire state highway system, and based thereon, to subdivide and classify according to their function and importance all designated state highways and those added from time to time other than the national system of interstate and defense highways and periodically review and revise the classifications, into the following additional four functional classes:

- (1) The "principal state highway system" which shall comprise not to exceed twenty percent of the total state highway mileage other than the interstate system((-);
- (2) The "major state highway system" which shall comprise not to exceed thirty-five percent of the total state highway mileage other than the interstate system((-);
- (3) The "collector state highway system" which shall comprise not to exceed thirty-five percent of the total state highway mileage other than the interstate system((-);
- (4) The "other state highway system".

In making such functional classification the ~~((highway commission))~~ department shall be governed by reasonable ~~((rules and regulations))~~ policies adopted by the commission, and give consideration to the following criteria:

- (a) Urban population centers within and without the state stratified and ranked according to size;
- (b) Important traffic generating economic activities, including but not limited to recreation, agriculture, government, business, and industry;
- (c) Feasibility of route, including availability of alternate routes within and without the state;
- (d) Directness of travel and distance between points of economic importance;
- (e) Length of trips;
- (f) Character and volume of traffic;
- (g) Preferential consideration for multiple service;
- (h) Reasonable spacing depending upon population density; and
- (i) System continuity, except for the "other" system.

Sec. 44. Section 3, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 143, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation shall adopt and periodically revise in accordance with policies established by the transportation commission and after consultation with the legislative transportation committee and senate and house transportation ~~((and utilities))~~ committees a long range plan for highway improvements, specifying highway planning objectives for each of the highway categories, "A", "B", and "C", defined in this section, based upon needs for the ensuing fourteen year advance planning period, and within the framework of revenue estimates for such period. The plan shall be based upon the improvement needs for state highways as determined by the ~~((highway commission))~~ department from time to time.

With such reasonable deviations as may be required to effectively utilize the available funds and to adjust to unanticipated delays in programmed projects, the ~~((highway commission))~~ department shall allocate the estimated available funds among the following described categories of highway improvements, so as to carry out the ~~((commission's))~~ department's highway planning objectives within a fourteen year advance planning period:

(1) Category A shall consist of those improvements necessary to sustain the structural, safety, and operational integrity of the existing state highway system (other than improvements to the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations).

(2) Category B shall consist of improvements for the continued development of the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations.

(3) Category C shall consist of the development of major transportation improvements (other than improvements to the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations) including designated but unconstructed highways which are vital to the state-wide transportation network.

Sec. 45. Section 7, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 7, chapter 12, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state highway))~~ transportation commission, with the assistance of the department, shall ((prepare)) approve and present to the governor and to the legislature ~~((at the time of))~~ prior to its convening, a recommended budget for the ensuing biennium. The biennial budget shall include details of proposed expenditures, performance and public service criteria for construction, maintenance, and planning activities in consonance with the six-year comprehensive program and financial plan adopted under provisions of RCW 47.05.040.

Sec. 46. Section 47.12.010, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 and RCW 47.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever it is necessary to secure any lands or interests in land for a right of way for any state highway, or for the drainage thereof or construction of a protection therefor or so as to afford unobstructed vision therefor toward any railroad crossing or another public highway crossing or any point of danger to public travel or to provide a visual or sound buffer between highways and adjacent properties or for the purpose of acquiring sand pits, gravel pits, borrow pits, stone quarries, or any other land for the extraction of materials for construction or maintenance or both, or for any site for the erection upon and use as a maintenance camp, of any state highway, or any site for other necessary structures or for structures for the health and accommodation of persons traveling or stopping upon the state highways of this state, or any site for the construction and maintenance of structures and facilities adjacent to, under, upon, within, or above the right of way of any state highway for exclusive or nonexclusive use by an urban public transportation system, or for any other highway purpose, together with right of way to reach such property and gain access thereto, the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation is authorized to acquire such lands or interests in land in behalf of the state by gift, purchase, or condemnation. In case of condemnation to secure such lands or interests in land, the action shall be brought in the name of the state of Washington in the manner provided for the acquiring of property for the public uses of the state, and in such action the selection of the lands or interests in land by the ~~((highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation shall, in the absence of bad faith, arbitrary, capricious, or fraudulent action, be conclusive upon the court and judge before which the action is brought that said lands or interests in land are necessary for public use for the purposes sought. The cost and expense of such lands or interests in land may be paid as a part of the cost of the state highway for which such right of way, drainage, unobstructed vision, sand pits, gravel pits, borrow pits, stone quarries, maintenance camp sites, and structure sites or other lands are acquired.

Sec. 47. Section 47.12.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When a state highway is relocated and the old route is abandoned, and the new route crosses land owned by a person who owns land abutting on the old route, the ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department may agree with the owner to convey to ~~((him))~~ that person title to the old route or a part thereof as all or part consideration for ~~((his))~~ such land to be taken for the new route.

Whenever the state has abandoned any highway rights of way, pit sites, or stock pile sites or owns land not needed for highway purposes, the ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department may sell same to abutting owners for the fair market value or exchange with any person as a consideration or part consideration for lands or property rights needed by the state, or may sell same by public auction whenever it is deemed in the public interest to do so.

The ~~((Washington state highway commission shall certify the agreement to the governor with a description of the property to be conveyed, and the governor may execute and the secretary of state shall attest))~~ secretary of transportation shall execute the deed, which shall be duly acknowledged, and deliver it to the grantee.

Sec. 48. Section 47.12.070, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.070 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department deems that any land is no longer required for state highway purposes and that it is in the public interest so to do, ~~((said highway commission))~~ the department may negotiate for the sale of the land to a city or county of the state. ~~((The state highway commission shall certify the agreement for the sale to the director of highways, with a description of the land and the terms of the sale, and the director of highways))~~ If a sale is agreed to, the secretary of transportation shall execute the deed, which shall be duly acknowledged, and deliver it to the grantee.

Any moneys received pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 49. Section 47.12.080, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever in the construction, reconstruction, location, or improvement of any state highway it may become necessary to transfer and convey to the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, to any municipal subdivision of this state, or to any public utility company, any unused state highway right of way or real property, and in the judgment of the ~~((highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation and the attorney general, such transfer and conveyance is consistent with public interest, the ~~((highway commission))~~ secretary may enter into agreements accordingly. Whenever the ~~((highway commission))~~ secretary shall make any such agreement for any such transfer or conveyance, and ~~((together with))~~ the attorney general concurs therein, ~~((certifies to the director of highways that such agreement has been made setting forth in such certification a description of the lands or premises involved, the~~ ~~director of highways~~) the secretary shall execute and deliver unto the United States government, or its agencies or instrumentalities, unto any municipal subdivision of this state, or unto any public utility company, a deed of conveyance, easement, or other instrument, duly acknowledged, as shall be necessary to fulfill the terms of the aforesaid agreement. All moneys paid to the state of Washington under any of the provisions hereof shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 50. Section 47.12.120, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 91, Laws of 1969 and RCW 47.12.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((highway commission))~~ department is authorized, subject to the provisions and requirements of zoning ordinances of political subdivisions of government, to rent or lease any lands, improvements, or air space above or below any lands, including those used or to be used for both limited access and conventional highways which are held for highway purposes but are not presently needed, upon such terms and conditions as the ~~((highway commission))~~ department may determine.

Sec. 51. Section 47.12.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the ~~((state))~~ department ~~((of highways))~~ shall have title to any parcel of land acquired for highway purposes which the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation shall determine is not necessary for highway purposes, the ~~((commission))~~ secretary of transportation is authorized to ~~((cause))~~ deed such land ~~((to be deeded))~~ to the owner of land abutting upon such parcel in consideration, or partial consideration, for other lands owned by such property owner which the ~~((highway commission))~~ department deems to be necessary for highway purposes. ~~((The director of highways shall execute the conveyances, which shall be duly acknowledged, necessary to carry out such exchange.))~~

Sec. 52. Section 47.12.140, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the ~~((state highway))~~ department shall have acquired any lands for highway purposes, except state granted lands, upon which are located any structures, timber, or other thing of value attached to the land, which the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department shall deem it best to sever from the land and sell as personal property, the same may be sold by the department ~~((of highways))~~ at public auction after due notice thereof shall have been given in accordance with general regulations ~~((prescribed))~~ adopted by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary. The ~~((state highway commission))~~ department may set minimum prices that will be accepted for any item offered for sale at public auction as herein provided and may prescribe terms or conditions of sale and, in the event that any item shall be offered for sale at such auction and for which no satisfactory bids shall be received or for which the amount bid shall be less than the minimum set by the ~~((commission))~~ department, it shall be lawful for the ~~((commission))~~ department to sell such item at private sale for the best price which it deems obtainable but at not less than the highest price bid at the public auction. The proceeds of all sales under this section shall be placed in the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 53. Section 47.12.150, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the ~~((highway commission))~~ department shall need for highway purposes land or property rights belonging to the United States government or any municipality or political subdivision of the state, or which shall be a part of the right of way of any public utility having authority to exercise powers of eminent domain, when the acquisition of such property by the state will result in the displacement of any existing right of way or facility, the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department is authorized to acquire by condemnation or otherwise such lands and property rights as shall be needed to relocate such right of way or facilities so displaced and to exchange lands or property rights so acquired in consideration or partial consideration for the land or property rights needed for highway purposes. The (~~director of highways, at the request of the state highway commission;~~) secretary of transportation shall execute each conveyance, which shall be duly acknowledged, necessary to accomplish such exchange.

Sec. 54. Section 2, chapter 281, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~Washington state highway commission~~) department, in addition to its other powers and duties as provided by law, is authorized to purchase or condemn any real property or property rights therein which it deems will be necessary for the improvements of routes on the state highway system by the method provided in RCW 47.12.180 through 47.12.240. Condemnation actions brought hereunder shall be brought in the name of the state as provided for acquiring property for the public uses of the state, and in such actions selection of the property and property rights by the (~~highway commission~~) secretary of transportation is conclusive that they are necessary for the purposes sought, in the absence of bad faith, or arbitrary, capricious, or fraudulent action.

Sec. 55. Section 3, chapter 281, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 197, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.200 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~highway~~) transportation commission may enter into agreements with the state finance committee for financing the acquisition, by purchase or condemnation, of real property together with engineering costs that the (~~highway~~) transportation commission deems will be necessary for the improvement of the state highway system. Such agreements may provide for the acquisition of an individual parcel or for the acquisition of any number of parcels within the limits of a contemplated highway project.

Sec. 56. Section 5, chapter 281, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 197, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Each such agreement shall include, but shall not be limited to the following:

(1) A provision stating the term of the agreement which shall not extend more than seven years from the effective date of the agreement((-);

(2) A designation of the specific fund or funds to be used to carry out such agreement((-);

(3) A provision that the (~~highway commission~~) department of transportation may redeem warrants purchased by the state finance committee at any time prior to the letting of a highway improvement contract utilizing the property; and further, during the effective period of each such agreement the (~~highway commission~~) department of transportation shall redeem such warrants whenever such a highway improvement contract is let, or upon the expiration of such agreement, whichever date is earlier((-);

(4) A provision stating the rate of interest such warrants shall bear commencing at the time of purchase by the state finance committee((-);

(5) Any additional provisions agreed upon by the (~~highway~~) transportation commission and the state finance committee which are necessary to carry out the purposes of such agreement as indicated by RCW 47.12.180 through 47.12.240, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 57. Section 47.24.010, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 95, Laws of 1973 and RCW 47.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~state highway~~) transportation commission shall determine what streets, together with bridges thereon and wharves necessary for use for ferriage of motor vehicle traffic in connection with such streets, if any, in any incorporated cities and towns shall form a part of the route of state highways and between the first and fifteenth days of July of any year the (~~state highway commission~~) department of transportation shall certify to the clerk of each city or town, by brief description, the streets, together with the bridges thereon and wharves, if any, in such city or town which are designated as forming a part of the route of any state highway; and all such streets, including curbs and gutters and street intersections and such bridges and wharves, shall thereafter be a part of the state highway system and as such shall be constructed and maintained by the (~~state highway commission~~) department of transportation from any state funds available therefor: PROVIDED, That the responsibility for the construction and maintenance of any such street together with its appurtenances may be returned to a city or a town upon certification by the (~~state highway commission~~) department of transportation to the state auditor and to the clerk of any city or town that such street, or portion thereof, is no longer required as a part of the state highway system: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any such certification that a street, or portion thereof, is no longer required as a part of the state highway system shall be made between the first and fifteenth of July following the determination by the (~~state highway commission~~) department that such street or portion thereof is no longer required as a part of the state highway system, but this shall not prevent the (~~state highway commission~~) department and any city or town from entering into an agreement that a city or town will accept responsibility for such a street or portion thereof at some time other than between the first and fifteenth of July of any year.

Sec. 58. Section 20, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 140, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~assistant director of highways for state aid~~) department of transportation shall furnish necessary staff services and facilities required by the urban arterial board. The cost of such services, together with travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended, of the members and all other lawful expenses of the board, shall be paid from the urban arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund. The urban arterial board may appoint an executive secretary who shall serve at its pleasure and whose salary shall be set by the board and paid from the urban arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 59. Section 47.28.010, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.28.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the general route of any state highway shall be designated and laid out as running to or by way of certain designated points, without specifying the particular route to be followed to or by way of such points, the (~~highway~~) transportation commission shall determine the particular route to be followed by said state highway to or by way of said designated points, and shall be at liberty to select and adopt as a part of such state highway, the whole or any part of any existing public highway previously designated as a county road, primary road, or secondary road or now or hereafter classified as a county road. The (~~highway~~) commission need not select and adopt the entire routes for such state highways at one time, but may select and adopt parts of such routes from time to time as it deems advisable. Where a state highway is designated as passing by way of a certain point, this shall not require the (~~highway~~) commission to cause such state highway to pass through or touch such point but such designation is directional only and may be complied with by location in the general vicinity. The (~~highway commission~~) department of transportation is empowered to construct as a part of any state highway as designated and in addition to any portion meeting the limits of any incorporated city or town a bypass section either through or around any such incorporated city or town.

Sec. 60. Section 47.36.020, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~highway commission~~) secretary of transportation shall adopt specifications for a uniform system of traffic control signals consistent with the provisions of this title for use upon public highways within this state. Such uniform system shall correlate with and so far as possible conform to the system current as approved by the American Association of State Highway Officials and as set out in the manual of uniform traffic control devices for streets and highways.

Sec. 61. Section 47.36.030, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~highway commission~~) secretary of transportation shall have the power and it shall be its duty to adopt and designate a uniform state standard for the manufacture, display, erection, and location of all signs, signals, signboards, guideposts, and other traffic devices erected or to be erected upon the state highways of the state of Washington for the purpose of furnishing information to persons traveling upon such state highways regarding traffic regulations, directions, distances, points of danger, and conditions requiring caution, and for the purpose of imposing restrictions upon persons operating vehicles thereon. Such signs shall conform as nearly as practicable to the manual of specifications for the manufacture, display, and erection of uniform traffic control devices for streets and highways and all amendments, corrections, and additions thereto. The (~~highway commission~~) department of transportation shall prepare plans and specifications of the uniform state standard of traffic devices so adopted and designated, showing the materials, colors, and designs thereof, and shall upon the issuance of any such plans and specifications or revisions thereof and upon request, furnish to the boards of county commissioners and the governing body of any incorporated city or town, a copy thereof. Signs, signals, signboards, guideposts, and other traffic devices erected on county roads shall conform in all respects to the specifications of color, design, and location (~~devised~~) approved by the (~~highway commission~~) secretary. Traffic devices hereafter erected within incorporated cities and towns shall conform to such uniform state standard of traffic devices so far as is practicable.

Sec. 62. Section 47.52.027, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.52.027 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~state highway commission~~) secretary of transportation may adopt design standards, rules, and regulations relating to construction, maintenance, and control of access of the national system of interstate and defense highways within this state as it deems advisable to properly control access thereto, to preserve the traffic-carrying capacity of such highways, and to provide the maximum degree of safety to users thereof. In adopting such standards, rules, and regulations the (~~commission~~) secretary shall take into account the policies, rules, and regulations of the United States secretary of commerce and the (~~bureau of public roads~~) federal highway administration relating to the construction, maintenance, and operation of the system of interstate and defense highways. The standards, rules, and regulations so adopted by the (~~commission~~) secretary shall constitute the public policy of this state and shall have the force and effect of law.

Sec. 63. Section 5, chapter 75, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 47.52.139 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of the findings and order adopting a plan, the county, city, or town may notify the (~~state highway commission~~) department of transportation of its approval of such plan in writing, in which event such plan shall be final.

In the event that a county, city, or town does not approve the plan, the county, city, or town shall file its disapproval in writing with the (~~state highway commission~~) secretary of transportation within thirty days after the mailing thereof to such mayor or county commissioner. Along with the written disapproval shall be filed a written request for a hearing before a board of review, hereinafter referred to as the board. The request for hearing shall set forth the portions of the plan of the (~~state~~ ~~highway commission~~) department to which the county, city, or town objects, and shall include every issue to be considered by the board. The hearing before a board of review shall be governed by RCW 47.52.150 through 47.52.190, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 64. Section 47.52.150, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 103, Laws of 1963 and RCW 47.52.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon request for a hearing before the board by any county, city, or town, a board consisting of five members shall be appointed as follows: The mayor or the county commissioners, as the case may be shall appoint two members of the board, of which one shall be a duly elected official of the city, county, or legislative district, except that of the legislative body of the county, city, or town requesting the hearing, subject to confirmation by the legislative body of the city or town; the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation shall appoint two members of the board ~~((who shall not be members of such commission))~~; and one member shall be selected by the four members thus appointed. Such fifth member shall be a licensed civil engineer or a recognized professional city or town planner, who shall be chairman of the board. In the case both the county and an included city or town request a hearing, the board shall consist of nine members appointed as follows: The mayor and the county commission shall each appoint two members from the elective officials of their respective jurisdictions, and of the four thus selected no more than two thereof may be members of a legislative body of the county, city, or town. The ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation shall appoint four members of the board ~~((who shall not be members of such commission))~~. One member shall be selected by the members thus selected, and such ninth member shall be a licensed civil engineer or a recognized city or town planner, who shall be chairman of the board. Such boards as are provided by this section shall be appointed within thirty days after ~~((the next meeting of the state highway commission immediately following))~~ the receipt of such a request by the ~~((commission))~~ secretary. In the event the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary or a county, city, or town shall not appoint members of the board or members thus appointed fail to appoint a fifth or ninth member of the board, as the case may be, either the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary or the county, city, or town may apply to the superior court of the county in which the county, city, or town is situated to appoint the member or members of the board in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 65. Section 47.52.180, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1977 and RCW 47.52.180 are each amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion of such hearing, the board shall consider the evidence taken and shall make specific findings with respect to the objections and issues within thirty days after the hearing, which findings shall approve, disapprove, or modify the proposed plan of the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation. Such findings shall be final and binding upon both parties. Any modification of the proposed plan of the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation made by the board of review may thereafter be modified by stipulation of the parties.

Sec. 66. Section 47.56.030, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 180, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.56.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation shall have full charge of the construction of all toll bridges and other toll facilities including the Washington state ferries ~~((that may be authorized by the Washington toll bridge authority))~~, and the operation and maintenance thereof ~~((and the collection of tolls and charges thereon))~~. The transportation commission shall determine and establish the tolls and charges thereon, and shall perform all duties and exercise all powers relating to the financing, refinancing, and fiscal management of all toll bridges and other toll facilities including the Washington state ferries, and bonded indebtedness in the manner provided by law. The ((commission)) department shall have full charge of design of all toll facilities. The ((commission)) department shall proceed with the construction of such toll bridges and other facilities and the approaches thereto by contract in the manner of state highway construction immediately upon there being made available funds for such work and shall prosecute such work to completion as rapidly as practicable. The ((highway commission)) department is authorized to negotiate contracts for any amount without bid in order to make repairs to ferries or ferry terminal facilities or removal of such facilities whenever continued use of ferries or ferry terminal facilities constitutes a real or immediate danger to the traveling public or precludes prudent use of such ferries or facilities.

Sec. 67. Section 47.56.070, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((authority)) department of transportation may, with the approval of the transportation commission, provide for the establishment, construction, and operation of toll tunnels, toll roads, and other facilities necessary for their construction and connection with public highways of the state. It may cause surveys to be made to determine the propriety of their establishment, construction, and operation, and may acquire rights of way and other facilities necessary to carry out the provisions hereof; and may issue, sell, and redeem bonds, and deposit and expend them; secure and remit financial and other assistance in the construction thereof; carry insurance thereon; and handle any other matters pertaining thereto, all of which shall be conducted in the same manner and under the same procedure as provided for the establishing, constructing, operating, and maintaining of toll bridges by the ((authority)) department, insofar as reasonably consistent and applicable. No toll facility, toll bridge, toll road, or toll tunnel, shall be combined with any other toll facility for the purpose of financing unless such facilities form a continuous project, to the end that each such facility or project be self-liquidating and self-sustaining ((-PROVIDED; That no toll road shall be constructed, obligations for the construction thereof entered into, or right of way acquired without prior approval of the location, plans and specifications by the Washington state highway commission)).

Sec. 68. Section 47.56.080, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever in the judgment of the ((highway)) transportation commission it is considered in the best interest of the public highways of the state that any new toll bridge or bridges be constructed upon any public highway and across any stream, body of water, gulch, navigable water, swamp, or other topographical formation and operated by the state the ((highway)) commission shall ((submit its recommendation to that effect to the Washington toll bridge authority together with preliminary estimates of the cost of such construction and an estimate of the amount necessary to be raised for such purpose by the issuance of revenue bonds, and a statement of the probable amount of money, property, materials or labor to be contributed from other sources in aid of any such construction. If the Washington toll bridge authority concurs in the recommendation of the highway commission or on its own motion determines to construct any toll bridge or toll bridges, the Washington toll bridge authority shall)) adopt a resolution declaring that public interest and necessity require the construction of such toll bridge or bridges and authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds for the purpose of obtaining funds in an amount not in excess of that estimated to be required for such construction. The issuance of bonds as provided in this chapter for the construction of more than one toll bridge may at the discretion of the ((Washington toll bridge authority)) commission be included in the same authority and issue of bonds.

Sec. 69. Section 47.56.090, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.090 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Whenever the Washington toll bridge authority shall authorize and direct the highway commission to construct a toll bridge the highway commission))~~ The department of transportation is empowered to secure right of way ((therefor)) for toll bridges and for approaches thereto by gift or purchase, or by condemnation in the manner provided by law for the taking of private property for public highway purposes.

Sec. 70. Section 47.56.120, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.120 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event that the ~~((Washington toll bridge authority))~~ transportation commission should determine that any toll bridge should be constructed ((under its authority it shall authorize and direct the highway commission to construct such toll bridge. In the event the highway commission is authorized and directed to construct such toll bridge)), all cost thereof including right of way, survey, and engineering shall be paid out of any funds available for payment of the cost of such toll bridge under this chapter.

Sec. 71. Section 47.56.250, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a proposed toll bridge, toll road, toll tunnel, or any other toll facility of any sort is to be constructed, any city, county, or other political subdivision located in relation to such facility so as to benefit directly or indirectly thereby, may, either jointly or separately, at the request of the ~~((Washington state highway commission or the authority))~~ transportation commission advance or contribute money, or bonds, rights of way, labor, materials, and other property toward the expense of building the toll facility, and for preliminary surveys and the preparation of plans and estimates of cost therefor and other preliminary expenses. Any such city, county, or other political subdivision may, either jointly or separately, at the request of the transportation commission ~~((or the authority))~~ advance or contribute money or bonds for the purpose of guaranteeing the payment of interest or principal on the bonds issued by the ~~((authority))~~ commission to finance the toll facility. Appropriations for such purposes may be made from any funds available, including county road funds received from or credited by the state, or funds obtained by excess tax levies made pursuant to law or the issuance of general obligation bonds for this purpose. General obligation bonds issued by a city, county, or political subdivision may with the consent of the ~~((state highway))~~ commission ~~((or the authority))~~ be placed with the ~~((Washington toll bridge authority))~~ department of transportation to be sold by the ~~((authority))~~ department to provide funds for such purpose. Money, or bonds, or property so advanced or contributed may be immediately transferred or delivered to the ~~((authority))~~ department to be used for the purpose for which contribution was made. The ~~((authority))~~ commission may enter into an agreement with a city, county, or other political subdivision to repay any money, or bonds or the value of a right of way, labor, materials, or other property so advanced or contributed. The ~~((authority))~~ commission may make such repayment to a city, county, or other political subdivision and reimburse the state for any expenditures made by it in connection with the toll facility out of tolls and other revenues for the use of the toll facility.

Sec. 72. Section 3, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 177, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.56.254 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ~~((authority))~~ secretary of transportation determines that any real property (including lands, improvements thereon, and any interests or estates) held by the ~~((authority))~~ department is no longer required for purposes of the ~~((authority))~~ department, the ~~((authority))~~ department shall offer it for sale as authorized by RCW 47.56.252 or ~~((in the manner and with the authority authorized to the state highway commission by))~~ RCW 47.12.280. The ~~((authority))~~ department may adopt rules further implementing this section (~~(as granted to the highway commission by RCW 47.12.280)~~).

Sec. 73. Section 1, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 58, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of pilotage commissioners of the state of Washington is hereby created and shall consist of (~~(the director of labor and industries of the state of Washington, ex officio, who shall be chairman of the board, and of four)~~) six members appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate, and the secretary of the state department of transportation, or the secretary's designee who shall be an employee of the department of transportation, who shall be chairperson. Each of said appointed members shall be appointed for a term of four years from the date of (~~(his)~~) said member's commission. No person shall be eligible for appointment to said board unless (~~(he)~~) such person be at the time of (~~(his)~~) appointment eighteen years of age or over and a citizen of the United States and of the state of Washington. Two of said appointed commissioners shall be pilots licensed under this chapter and actively engaged in piloting upon the waters covered by this chapter for at least three years immediately preceding the time of their appointment. Two of said appointive commissioners shall be actively engaged in the ownership, operation (~~(or)~~), and management of deep sea cargo and/or passenger carrying vessels for at least three years immediately preceding the time of their appointment. One of said (~~(shipping men)~~) commissioners shall be a representative of American and one of (~~(them for)~~) foreign shipping. The remaining appointed commissioners shall be persons interested in and concerned with pilotage, maritime safety, and marine affairs, with broad experience related to the maritime industry exclusive of experience as either a state licensed pilot or as a shipping representative.

(2) Pilotage commissioners holding commissions on July 1, 1977, shall continue to hold their office subject to reappointment by the governor and confirmation by the senate. The appointive commissioners shall hold office for the period for which they are appointed and until their successors are appointed and qualified, (~~(and)~~) except that the governor when first appointing commissioners after July 1, 1977, shall appoint the pilot representatives to terms of two and three years respectively, the shipping representatives to terms of two and three years respectively, and the remaining commissioners to terms of three and four years respectively. Any vacancy in an appointive position on the board shall be filled by the governor for a term of four years, subject to confirmation by the senate.

(3) Five members of the board shall constitute a quorum and five votes for or against any measure shall be needed to transact business. All commissioners and the chairperson shall have a vote.

Sec. 74. Section 2, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 178, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The office of the department of (~~(labor and industries)~~) transportation of the state of Washington shall be the office of the board and all records of the board shall be kept in said office. Each pilotage commissioner other than the secretary or the secretary's designee shall receive the sum of (~~(twenty-five)~~) forty dollars per day for each day actually engaged in the conduct of the business of the board, together with travel expenses, in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended, to be paid out of the pilotage account on vouchers approved by the chairman of said board.

Sec. 75. Section 5, chapter 123, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 91.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(The commission) In its capacity as successor to the canal commission, the department of transportation may:

(1) ~~((Shall))~~ Adopt rules and regulations necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) ~~((Shall meet not less than once every three months, and keep a complete record of all its proceedings. Special meetings may be called by the chairman of the commission, or by three members of the commission, by personal delivery of written notice thereof, or by delivery to their place of residence or business. Three members of the commission shall constitute a quorum to transact the business of the commission at either special or regular meetings.~~

(3) ~~Shall employ a director and such other employees as are necessary to carry out functions of the commission. The attorney general shall be legal adviser for the commission.~~

(4) ~~Shall))~~ Make such investigations, surveys, and studies it deems necessary to determine the feasibility of the development of a navigation canal, or systems of navigation canals within the state of Washington.

~~((5) May))~~ (3) Construct, maintain, and/or operate any navigation canal, or navigation canal systems deemed feasible by the ~~((commission))~~ department of transportation.

~~((6) May))~~ (4) Acquire by gift, purchase, or condemnation from any person, municipal, public, or private corporation, or the state of Washington, or lease from the United States of America, any lands, rights of way, easements, or property rights in, over, or across lands or waters necessary for the construction, operation, or maintenance of any navigation canal, or navigation canal system. The acquisition of such rights is for a public use. The exercise of the right of eminent domain shall be in the manner provided by chapter 8.04 RCW, and all actions initiated thereunder shall be brought in the name of the ~~((canal commission))~~ department of transportation.

~~((7) May))~~ (5) Hold public hearings. Prior to a determination of feasibility for any proposed project, the ~~((commission))~~ department shall hold a public hearing so that members of the public may present their views thereon.

~~((8) May))~~ (6) Accept and expend moneys appropriated by the legislature or received from any public or private source, including the federal government, in carrying out the purposes of this chapter.

~~((9) May))~~ (7) Negotiate and cooperate with the United States of America for the purpose of inducing the United States to undertake the construction, operation, or maintenance of any navigation canal, or navigation canal system provided for in this chapter.

~~((10) Is authorized))~~ (8) As a local sponsor ~~((to))~~ cooperate, contract, and otherwise fully participate on behalf of the state of Washington with the United States of America, in any study relating to a determination of feasibility of a navigation canal or navigation canal system, and in any project relating to the construction, operation, or maintenance of a navigation canal, or navigation canal system to be undertaken by the United States of America.

The authority granted herein includes, but is not limited to, contributing such moneys to the United States of America as may be required and appropriated for that purpose by the legislature and furnishing without cost to the United States of America all lands, easements, and rights of way ~~((and perform))~~, performing all necessary alterations to utilities arising from any project, and holding the United States of America free from any claims for damages arising out of the construction of any project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If any part of this title or any section of this 1977 amendatory act is ruled to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition of the allocation of federal funds to the state, or to any department or agencies thereof, such conflicting part or section is declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict. No such ruling shall affect the operation of the remainder of the act. Any internal reorganization carried out under the terms of this title or any section of this 1977 amendatory act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. The rule of strict construction shall have no application to this title, and it shall be liberally construed in order to carry out the objectives for which it is designed. Any ambiguities arising from its interpretation should be resolved consistently with the broad purposes set forth in section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. Title 47 RCW, presently titled "Public Highways" shall, upon the implementation of this 1977 amendatory act, be known and referred to as "Public Highways and Transportation". Chapters 14.04 and 91.12 RCW shall be recodified as part of Title 47 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 3, chapter 165, Laws of 1947, section 1, chapter 68, Laws of 1967, section 9, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 14.04.030;

(2) Section 4, chapter 165, Laws of 1947, section 1, chapter 289, Laws of 1961, section 2, chapter 68, Laws of 1967, section 10, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 14.04.040;

(3) Section 5, chapter 165, Laws of 1947, section 5, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 14.04.050;

(4) Section 47.01.010, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.010;

(5) Section 47.01.020, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.020;

(6) Section 47.01.030, chapter 13, Laws of 1961, section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 47.01.030;

(7) Section 47.01.040, chapter 13, Laws of 1961, section 31, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 ex. sess., section 138, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 47.01.040;

(8) Section 47.01.050, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.050;

(9) Section 47.01.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.060;

(10) Section 47.01.080, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.080;

(11) Section 47.01.090, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.090;

(12) Section 47.01.100, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.100;

(13) Section 47.01.110, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.110;

(14) Section 47.01.120, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.120;

(15) Section 47.01.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961, section 10, chapter 307, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.130;

(16) Section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 47.01.160;

(17) Section 10, chapter 278, Laws of 1961, section 30, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 47.56.034;

(18) Section 2, chapter 123, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 91.12.020;

(19) Section 3, chapter 123, Laws of 1965 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1967, section 181, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 91.12.030; and

(20) Section 4, chapter 123, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 91.12.040.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect on July 1, 1977."

In line 1 of the title, after "transportation;" strike the remainder of the title, and insert "creating a department of transportation and prescribing its general structure, personnel, powers, duties, and functions; transferring to the jurisdiction of the department of transportation and/or the secretary of transportation certain powers, duties, and functions of the department of highways, the highway commission, the toll bridge authority, the aeronautics commission, the planning and community affairs agency, and the canal commission; transferring to the jurisdiction of the secretary of transportation certain powers, duties, and functions of certain state officials, boards, and commissions; providing the procedure for the aforesaid transfers; saving certain rights; abolishing certain state agencies and offices; renaming Title 47 RCW and adding certain code chapters thereto; amending section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.17.010; amending section 2, chapter 7, Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.17.020; amending section 47.01.070, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.070; amending section 7, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 and RCW 43.63A.070; amending section 46.44.080, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 15, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.080; amending section 46.44.090, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 13, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.090; amending section 46.44.091, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 14, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.091; amending section 46.44.092, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 15, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.092; amending section 46.44.095, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 17, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.095; amending section 2, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.405; amending section 3, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 2, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.410; amending section 4, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 3, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.415; amending section 6, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 135, Laws of 1969 and RCW 46.61.425; amending section 46.48.041, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.430; amending section 46.48.080, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.61.450; amending section 66, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 35, chapter 62, Laws of 1975 and RCW 46.61.570; amending section 67, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 36, chapter 62, Laws of 1975 and RCW 46.61.575; amending section 46.68.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 100, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.68.120; amending section 2, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 39, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.020; amending section 3, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 143, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.030; amending section 7, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 7, chapter 12, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.070; amending section 47.12.010, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 and RCW 47.12.010; amending section 47.12.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.060; amending section 47.12.070, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.070; amending section 47.12.080, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.080; amending section 47.12.120, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 91, Laws of 1969 and RCW 47.12.120; amending section 47.12.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.130; amending section 47.12.140, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.140; amending section 47.12.150, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.150; amending

Senator Henry moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2924.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Henry yield to a question? Senator Henry, I noted you mentioned that the per diem for the highway commission members was increased from forty dollars to sixty dollars."

Senator Henry: "It will have no effect on the pensions any more than the existing forty dollars. Is that your question?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No, that is not my question. That is Senator Mardesich's question."

Senator Henry: "Well, I will answer his before he asks it. Now go ahead with yours."

Senator Rasmussen: "He was not listening. My question was, does that affect those people that are now in office or do they get the sixty dollars upon reappointment—a new term."

Senator Henry: "No, it is not like it affects elected officials, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "No, I am talking about the highway commission, not—"

Senator Henry: "I am talking about the highway commission—. It is my understanding, unless there is some legal reason I don't know anything about, that the existing commissioners will serve out their terms. There will be two more appointed, and they will all receive the sixty dollars per diem."

Senator Rasmussen: "Upon the new—reappointment."

Senator Henry: "Right. Well, as of now"

The motion by Senator Henry carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2924.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Buffington, Gould and Hayner were excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 20, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2975, with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following: "NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) The operator of any ski area shall maintain a sign system.

All signs for instruction of the public shall be bold in design with wording short, simple, and to the point. All such signs shall be prominently placed.

Entrances to all machinery, operators', and attendants' rooms shall be posted to the effect that unauthorized persons are not permitted therein.

The sign "Men Working on Lift" or a similar warning sign shall be hung on the main disconnect switch and at control points for starting the auxiliary or prime mover when men are working on the passenger tramway.

(2) The interior of each reversible aerial tramway and gondola lift shall be prominently posted to show:

(a) The maximum capacity of each reversible aerial tramway and gondola lift in pounds and number of passengers (which shall also be posted at each loading area); and

(b) Instructions for procedure in emergencies.

(3) The following signs shall be posted at all aerial lifts except gondola lifts:

(a) "Prepare to Unload" (not less than fifty feet ahead of unloading area);

(b) "Keep Ski Tips Up" (ahead of any point where skis may come in contact with a platform or the snow surface);

(c) "Unload Here";

(d) "Safety Gate" (if applicable);

(e) "Remove Pole Straps from Wrists" (at loading area); and

(f) Sign visible at all points of downhill loading, listing downhill capacity of lift.

(4) The following signs shall be posted at all surface lifts:

(a) "Prepare to Unload" (not less than fifty feet ahead of unloading area);

(b) "Stay in Track";

(c) "Unload Here";

(d) "Safety Gate"; and

(e) "Remove Pole Straps from Wrists" (at loading area).

(5) The following signs shall be posted at all tows:

(a) "No Loose Scarves

No Loose Clothing

No Long Hair Exposed"

(at loading area);

(b) "Stay in Track";

(c) "Unload Here"; and

(d) "Safety Gate".

(6) All signs required for normal daytime operation shall be in place, and those pertaining to the tramway, lift, or tow operations shall be adequately lighted for night skiing.

(7) If a particular trail or slope has been closed to the public by an operator, the operator shall place a notice thereof at the top of the trail or slope involved, and no person shall ski on a slope or trail which has been designated "Closed".

(8) An operator shall place a notice at the embarking terminal or terminals of a lift or tow which has been closed that the lift or tow has been closed and that a person embarking on such a lift or tow shall be considered to be a trespasser.

(9) An operator shall prominently place a notice containing the substance of section 3 of this act in such places as are necessary to notify the public.

(10) Any snow making machines or equipment shall be clearly visible and clearly marked.

(11) The operator of any ski area shall maintain a readily visible sign on each rope tow, wire rope tow, j-bar, t-bar, ski lift, or other similar device, advising the users of the device that:

(a) Any person not familiar with the operation of the lift shall ask the operator thereof for assistance and/or instruction; and

(b) The skiing-ability level recommended for users of the lift and the slopes served by the device shall be classified "easiest", "more difficult", and "most difficult".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) In addition to the specific requirements of this section, all skiers shall conduct themselves within the limits of their individual ability and shall not act in a manner that may contribute to the injury of themselves or any other person.

(2) No person shall:

(a) Embark or disembark upon a ski lift except at a designated area;

(b) Throw or expel any object from any tramway, ski lift, commercial skimobile, or other similar device while riding on the device;

(c) Act in any manner while riding on a rope tow, wire rope tow, j-bar, t-bar, ski lift, or similar device that may interfere with the proper or safe operation of the lift or tow;

(d) Wilfully engage in any type of conduct which may injure any person, or place any object in the uphill ski track which may cause another to fall, while traveling uphill on a ski lift; or

(e) Cross the uphill track of a j-bar, t-bar, rope tow, wire rope tow, or other similar device except at designated locations.

(3) Every person shall maintain control of his or her speed and course at all times, and shall stay clear of any snowgrooming equipment, any vehicle, any lift tower, and any other equipment on the mountain. Snow grooming equipment or any other vehicles shall be equipped with a flashing yellow light at any time the vehicle is moving on or in the vicinity of a ski run.

(4) A person shall be the sole judge of his or her ability to negotiate any trail, slope, or uphill track and no action shall be maintained against any operator by reason of the condition of the track, trail, or slope unless the condition results from the negligence of the operator.

(5) Any person who boards a rope tow, wire rope tow, j-bar, t-bar, ski lift, or other similar device shall be presumed to have sufficient abilities to use the lift. No liability shall attach to any operator or attendant for failure to instruct the person on the use of the device, but a person shall follow any written or verbal instructions that are given regarding the use.

(6) Because of the inherent risk in the sport of skiing all persons using the ski hill shall exercise reasonable care for their own safety. However, the primary duty shall be on the person skiing downhill to avoid any collision with any person or object below him or her.

(7) Subsection (6) of this section notwithstanding, any person skiing on other than improved trails or slopes within the area shall be responsible for any injuries or losses resulting from his or her action.

(8) Subsections (6) and (7) of this section notwithstanding, any person on foot or on any type of sliding device shall be responsible for any collision whether the collision is with another person or with an object.

(9) A person embarking on a lift or tow without authority shall be considered to be a trespasser.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any person who is involved in a skiing accident and who departs from the scene of the accident without leaving personal identification or otherwise clearly identifying himself or herself before notifying the proper authorities or obtaining assistance, knowing that any other person involved in the accident is in need of medical or other assistance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Every tramway, ski lift, or commercial skimobile operator shall maintain liability insurance of not less than one hundred thousand dollars per person per accident and of not less than two hundred thousand dollars per accident.

(2) Every operator of a rope tow, wire rope tow, j-bar, t-bar, or similar device shall maintain liability insurance of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars per person per accident and of not less than fifty thousand dollars per accident.

(3) This section shall not apply to operators of tramways that are not open to the general public and that are operated without charge, except that this section shall apply to operators of tramways that are operated by schools, ski clubs, or similar organizations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 1 through 4 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW."

On page 1, on line 1 of the title, after "Relating to", strike "the liability of ski resort operators" and insert "skiing and commercial ski activity", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Bluechel moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2975.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Bluechel yield to a question, please? Senator Bluechel, the prior bill, the original bill, provided that ski operators were not responsible for ordinary negligence, gross negligence only. What is the status in the amendment?"

Senator Bluechel: "All reference to gross negligence is deleted from the bill, just straight negligence now, and this was in concurrence with the trial lawyers."

The motion by Senator Bluechel carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2975.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Bluechel yield to a question? Senator Bluechel, I want to say that the rewrite is much better than the original."

Senator Bluechel: "I agree."

Senator Rasmussen: "Further than that, I note here on page 2 of the amendment, 'The following signs shall be posted. . . : "No loose scarves, No loose clothing, No Long Hair Exposed,"'. What is the violation if I come up there in my normal skiing clothes rather than my skin-tights?"

Senator Bluechel: "You are liable to lose your hair. No, Senator Rasmussen, this is for rope tows and it is quite dangerous to go up a rope tow with any loose scarves, with long hair. They can get tangled in the tow, and it is something you watch very carefully. That is the reason for posting the signs. Incidentally, that is standard practice right now. This is no different from what is being done right now."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I always admire those people that are up there in close fitting clothes, but I didn't know that we were going to require—"

Senator Bluechel: "The area operator will tell anybody with a loose scarf, with something like that, to please take it off or wrap it around tight before letting them up the tow."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, it sounds like a good bill, Mr. President."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2975, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Woody—44.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Francis, Gould, Peterson, Wojahn—5.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2975, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the Act.

May 20, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2273, with the following amendment:

On page 1, beginning on line 9, strike the remainder of the section, and insert:

"Where students at any of the four year state colleges or universities participate in a joint program undertaken by two or more of such institutions, and which leads to a degree, the tuition and fees assessed each student participating in such joint program shall be equal.

The governing board at each state four year institution shall, where the tuition and fees which it charges resident students participating in a joint program falling within the scope of this 1977 act would be less than those charged to any such students from any other state four year institution who participates in such joint program, impose a supplemental fee upon its resident students so participating in order to make the tuition and fees charged to them equal to the highest amount charged to any other resident student from a state four year institution who participates in the program. Such governing board shall, where the tuition and fees which it charges nonresident students participating in a joint program falling within the scope of this 1977 act would be less than those charged to any such students participating from any other state four year institution who participates in such joint program, impose a supplemental fee upon its nonresident students so participating in order to make the tuition and fees charged to them equal to the highest amount charged to any other nonresident student from a state four year institution who participates in the program.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the fifth order of business.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 121, by Senators Walgren, Sandison, Matson and Newschwander:
Amending Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 113.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 121 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 121 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

At 4:02 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, May 24, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

SEVENTY-FIFTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Tuesday, May 24, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bottiger, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Lewis, McDermott, Sellar, Walgren, Wojahn and Woody. On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Lewis and Sellar were excused. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Bottiger, Donohue, Francis, McDermott and Wojahn were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Marjorie Bennett and Timothy Devenney, presented the Colors. Reverend David Kratz, pastor of United Church of Christ of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"O GOD, WHO HOLDS THE MYSTERY OF CREATION IN YOUR WISDOM, WE COME AS PARTIAL PEOPLE. AT ONCE MARVELING AT THE MYSTERY OF LIFE AND RELATIONSHIPS, AT THE GROWTH OF FLOWERS AND THE DEPTH OF A PERSON, YET AT THE SAME TIME, UNCERTAIN ABOUT WHO WE ARE, LESS SURE OF WHERE WE ARE GOING AND WHAT THE MEANING OF IT ALL WILL BE. WE CONFESS THAT WE HAVE NOT ALWAYS LIVED UP TO THE BEST THAT WE KNOW. WE HAVE OFTEN CHOSEN THE PATHS OF WEAKNESS AND RESIGNATION OR TRIED TO HOLD TOO TIGHTLY TO THE REIGNS OF OUR OWN DESTINY. AND SO WE PAUSE BEFORE THE CHALLENGES OF THIS DAY TO SENSE ONCE AGAIN THE LARGER PURPOSES OF LIFE, TO BREATHE ONCE AGAIN THE SPIRIT OF LIFE WHICH GIVES CONFIDENCE TO COURAGE AND BE TOUCHED ONCE AGAIN BY THE HOPE WHICH YOU HAVE FOR HUMAN LIFE. MAY THE FRUITS OF OUR WORK BE AN ACCEPTABLE OFFERING TO YOU AND TO THE FUTURE OF OUR PEOPLE, WE PRAY. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 23, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2451, with the following amendments:

On page 1, after line 20, add a new section as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 84.48.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.48.010 as amended by section 2, chapter 55, Laws of 1970 ex. sess., are each amended as follows:

Prior to July 1st, the county commissioners shall form a board for the equalization of the assessment of the property of the county. The members of said board may receive twenty-five dollars per day for each day of actual attendance of the meeting of the board of equalization to be paid out of the current expense fund of the county: PROVIDED, That when the county commissioners constitute the board they shall not receive the per diem allowance. The board of equalization shall meet in open session for this purpose annually on the first Monday in July and, having each taken an oath fairly and impartially to perform their duties as members of such board, they shall examine and compare the returns of the assessment of the property of the county and proceed to equalize the same, so that each tract or lot of real property and each article or class of personal property shall be entered on the assessment list at its true and fair value, according to the measure of value used by the county assessor in such assessment year, and subject to the following rules:

(First.) They shall raise the valuation of each tract or lot or item of real property which in their opinion is returned below its true and fair value to such price or sum as they believe to be the true and fair value thereof, after at least five days' notice shall have been given in writing to the owner or agent.

(Second.) They shall reduce the valuation of each tract or lot or item which in their opinion is returned above its true and fair value to such price or sum as they believe to be the true and fair value thereof.

(Third.) They shall raise the valuation of each class of personal property which in their opinion is returned below its true and fair value to such price or sum as they believe to be the true and fair value thereof, and they shall raise the aggregate value of the personal property of each individual whenever they believe that such aggregate value is less than the true valuation of the taxable personal property possessed by such individual, to such sum or amount as they believe to be the true value thereof, after at least five days' notice shall have been given in writing to the owner or agent thereof.

(Fourth.) They shall, upon complaint in writing of any party aggrieved, reduce the valuation of each class of personal property enumerated on the detail and assessment list of the current year, which in their opinion is returned above its true and fair value, to such price or sum as they believe to be the true and fair value thereof; and, upon like complaint, they shall reduce the aggregate valuation of the personal property of such individual who, in their opinion, has been assessed at too large a sum, to such sum or amount as they believe was the true and fair value of his personal property.

(Fifth.) The board may review all claims for either real or personal property tax exemption, and shall consider any taxpayer appeals from the decision of the assessor thereon to determine (1) if the taxpayer is entitled to an exemption, and (2) if so, the amount thereof.

The clerk of the board shall keep an accurate journal or record of the proceedings and orders of said board in a book kept for that purpose, showing the facts and evidence upon which their action is based, and the said record shall be published the same as other proceedings of county commissioners, and shall make a true record of the changes of the descriptions and assessed values ordered by the county board of equalization. The assessor shall correct the real and personal assessment rolls in accordance with the changes made by the said county board of equalization, and he shall make duplicate abstracts of such corrected values, one copy of which shall be retained in his office, and one copy forwarded to the state board of equalization on or before the fifth day of August next following the meeting of the county board of equalization.

The county board of equalization shall meet on the first Monday in July and may continue in session and adjourn from time to time during a period not to exceed four weeks, but shall remain in session not less than three days: PROVIDED, That, in addition to the several times fixed by statute, any county board of equalization may be reconvened for special or general purposes, but not later than three years after the date of adjournment of its regularly convened session by order of the department of revenue; PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the county board of equalization may convene at any time when petitions filed exceed 25, or 10 percent of the number of appeals filed in the preceding year.

No taxes, except special taxes, shall be extended upon the tax rolls until the property valuations are equalized by the state board of equalization for the purpose of raising the state revenue.

Boards of county commissioners as such shall at no time have any authority to change the valuation of the property of any person or to release or commute in whole or in part the taxes due on the property of any person."

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "RCW 84.08.130" strike "." and add ", amending section 84.48.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.48.010, as amended by section 2, chapter 55, Laws of 1970 ex. sess., and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 779, by Representatives Vrooman, Knowles, Lux, Keller, Martinis, Burns, Wilson, Toller and Berentson:

Authorizing group filing for certain labor liens.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, House Bill No. 779 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for May 25, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 873.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 873, by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Representatives Vrooman, Martinis, Moreau, Schmitt and Hanna):

Regulating the harvesting of specialized forest products.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Peterson moved the rules be suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 873 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Peterson yield before we advance the bill? Senator Peterson, the other day while you were absent there was some discussion with respect to this measure. We were told that the bill prohibited a person from cutting more than—was it five—cedar trees on his own property without making application to a sheriff or some kind of a permit. Is it that restrictive with respect to what a person can do on his own property, or is that information incorrect?"

Senator Peterson: "Yes, to a degree it is, Senator Mardesich. The proposed amendment that you are speaking to would broaden the language of the existing bill. We have to revert back a little bit. This is the 'Christmas tree bill' that we passed through here preventing the theft of Christmas trees from private land. It has been very well demonstrated that the step (sic) is cedar, today cedar bringing somewhat over two hundred dollars a cord for blank blocks that they haul into the various cedar processors. That is a pretty lucrative business. I mean, that is a pick-up load for two hundred dollars, and the theft has become so prevalent that something had to be done, and what we are doing here is putting the same type of regulation into the cedar processors that—and it does restrict them.

"With the proposed amendment that Senator Odegaard was going to offer if, in fact, we open it up to that extent, it would include Weyerhaeuser, Rainier, Scott Paper and everyone in the state, and it would just gut the bill and defeat the entire purpose of it. So, I hope I am answering your question, but that is the way it is, and we feel that it is necessary.

"There is no particular objection from the processors or from the land owners. We haven't had any objections in committee at all, and we think it is a good bill, and we would like to pass it the way it is."

The motion by Senator Peterson carried and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 873 was advanced to third reading and final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Gaspard, von Reichbauer and Woody were excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 873, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 10.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson—35.

Voting nay: Senators Fleming, Grant—2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Rasmussen—1.

Excused: Senators Bottiger, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Lewis, McDermott, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Wojahn, Woody—10.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 873, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 697.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson—42.

Excused: Senators Bottiger, Francis, Lewis, McDermott, Wojahn, Woody—6.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1229, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 798.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 798, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representatives O'Brien):

Expanding the right to be free from discrimination.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 9, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 798, expanding the right to be free from discrimination (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Section 43.01.100, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.01.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The inclusion of any question relative to an applicant's race or religion in any application blank or form for employment or license required to be filled in and submitted by an applicant to any department, board, commission, officer, agent, or employee of this state or the disclosure on any license of the race or religion of the licensee is hereby prohibited: PROVIDED, That nothing herein shall prohibit ascertaining and recording the race or religion of applicants for employment or of applicants for the services of any state agency, when the ascertaining or recording is not an unfair practice because of the operation of section 35 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 1, chapter 214, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.010 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall be known as the "~~((law against discrimination))~~ human rights law". It is an exercise of the police power of the state for the protection of the public welfare, health, and peace of the people of this state, and in fulfillment of the provisions of the Constitution of this state concerning civil rights. The legislature hereby finds and declares that practices of discrimination against any of its inhabitants because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status, age, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap are a matter of state concern, that such discrimination threatens not only the rights and proper privileges of its inhabitants but menaces the institutions and foundation of a free democratic state. A state agency is herein created with powers with respect to elimination and prevention of discrimination in employment, in credit and insurance transactions, in places of public resort, accommodation, or amusement, and in real property transactions because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status, age, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap; and the ~~((board))~~ commission established hereunder is hereby given general jurisdiction and power for such purposes.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 1, chapter 32, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The right to be free from discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap is recognized as and declared to be a civil right. This right shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) The right to obtain and hold employment without discrimination;
 (b) The right to the full enjoyment of any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, or privileges of any place of public resort, accommodation, assemblage, or amusement;

(c) The right to engage in real estate transactions without discrimination;

(d) The right to engage in credit transactions without discrimination;

(e) The right to engage in insurance transactions without discrimination: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That different insurance rates may be continued and/or applied on the basis of sex when bona fide statistical differences in risk or exposure are substantiated; and

(f) The right to engage in commerce free from any discriminatory boycotts or blacklists. Discriminatory boycotts or blacklists for purposes of this section shall be defined as the formation or execution of any express or implied agreement, understanding, policy, or contractual arrangement for economic benefit between any persons which is not specifically authorized by the laws of the United States and which is required or imposed, either directly or indirectly, overtly or covertly, by a foreign government or foreign person in order to restrict, condition, prohibit, or interfere with, or in order to exclude any person or persons from, any business relationship on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, or lawful business relationship: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the use of boycotts as authorized by law pertaining to labor disputes and unfair labor practices.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, any act prohibited by this chapter related to sex discrimination or discriminatory boycotts or blacklists which is committed in the course of trade or commerce in the state of Washington as defined in the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW, shall be deemed an unfair practice within the meaning of RCW 19.86.020 and 19.86.030 and subject to all the provisions of chapter 19.86 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 4, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.060 are each amended to read as follows:

One of the original members of the ((~~board~~)) commission shall be appointed for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, one for a term of five years, but their successors shall be appointed for terms of five years each, except that any individual chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he succeeds.

A member shall be eligible for reappointment.

A vacancy in the ((~~board~~)) commission shall be filled within thirty days, the remaining members to exercise all powers of the board.

Any member of the ((~~board~~)) commission may be removed by the governor for inefficiency, neglect of duty, misconduct or malfeasance in office, after being given a written statement of the charges and an opportunity to be heard thereon.

Sec. 6. Section 4, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 145, chapter 34, Laws of 1975 '76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the ((~~board~~)) commission while in session or on official business shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred during such time in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((board))~~ commission shall adopt an official seal, which shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 8. Section 6, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 6, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The principal office of the ~~((board))~~ commission shall be in the city of Olympia, but it may meet and exercise any or all of its powers at any other place in the state, and may establish such district offices as it deems necessary.

Sec. 9. Section 7, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 74, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 49.60.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((board))~~ commission, at the close of each fiscal year, shall report to the governor, describing the investigations, proceedings, and hearings it has conducted and their outcome, the decisions it has rendered, the recommendations it has issued, and the other work performed by it, and shall make such recommendations for further legislation as may appear desirable. The ~~((board))~~ commission may present its reports to the legislature; the ~~((board's))~~ commission's reports shall be made available upon request.

Sec. 10. Section 5, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 and RCW 49.60.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((board))~~ commission shall formulate policies to effectuate the purposes of this chapter and may make recommendations to agencies and officers of the state or local subdivisions of government in aid of such policies and purposes.

Sec. 11. Section 8, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 4, chapter 214, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((board))~~ commission shall have the functions, powers and duties:

(1) To appoint an executive secretary and chief examiner, and such investigators, examiners, clerks, and other employees and agents as it may deem necessary, fix their compensation within the limitations provided by law, and prescribe their duties.

(2) To obtain upon request and utilize the services of all governmental departments and agencies.

(3) To adopt, promulgate, amend, and rescind suitable rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and the policies and practices of the board in connection therewith.

(4) To receive, investigate, and pass upon complaints alleging unfair practices as defined in this chapter ~~((because of sex, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap))~~.

(5) To issue such publications and such results of investigations and research as in its judgment will tend to promote good will and minimize or eliminate discrimination because of sex, race, creed, color, national origin, marital status, age, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(6) To make such technical studies as are appropriate to effectuate the purposes and policies of this chapter and to publish and distribute the reports of such studies.

(7) To cooperate and act jointly or by division of labor with the United States, other states, and political subdivisions of the state of Washington and their respective human rights agencies to carry out the purposes of this human rights law. The commission may perform services for such agencies and be reimbursed therefor.

(8) To accept gifts, bequests, grants or other payments, public or private, to help finance its activities, and to expend the same pursuant to the terms of the gift, grant, or payment, within the limitations of chapter 49.60 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

(9) To foster good relations between minority and majority groups and elements of the population of the state of Washington, through seminars, conferences, educational programs, and other intergroup relations activities.

Sec. 12. Section 9, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 146, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((board)) commission has power to create such advisory agencies and conciliation councils, local, regional, or state-wide, as in its judgment will aid in effectuating the purposes of this chapter. The ((board)) commission may empower them to study the problems of discrimination in all or specific fields of human relationships or in specific instances of discrimination because of age, sex, race, creed, color, national origin, marital status, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap; to foster through community effort or otherwise good will, cooperation, and conciliation among the groups and elements of the population of the state, and to make recommendations to the ((board)) commission for the development of policies and procedures in general and in specific instances, and for programs of formal and informal education which the board may recommend to the appropriate state agency.

Such advisory agencies and conciliation councils shall be composed of representative citizens, serving without pay, but with reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended, and the ((board)) commission may make provision for technical and clerical assistance to such agencies and councils and for the expenses of such assistance. The ((board)) commission may use organizations specifically experienced in dealing with questions of discrimination.

Sec. 13. Section 10, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((board)) commission has power to hold hearings, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, administer oaths, take the testimony of any person under oath, and in connection therewith, to require the production for examination of any books or papers relating to any matter under investigation or in question before the ((board)) commission. The ((board)) commission may make rules as to the issuance of subpoenas by individual members, as to service of complaints, decisions, orders, recommendations and other process or papers of the ((board)) commission, its member, agent, or agency, either personally or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or by leaving a copy thereof at the principal office or place of business of the person required to be served. The return post office receipt, when service is by registered or certified mail, shall be proof of service of the same.

Sec. 14. Section 11, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing records, correspondence, documents or other evidence in obedience to the subpoena of the ((board)) commission or of any individual member, on the ground that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, except that such person so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying. The immunity herein provided shall extend only to natural persons so compelled to testify.

Sec. 15. Section 12, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.160 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the superior court of any county within the jurisdiction of which the investigation, proceeding, or hearing is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which the person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the ((~~board~~)) commission shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the ((~~board~~)) commission, its member, agent, or agency, there to produce evidence if so ordered, or there to give testimony touching the matter under investigation or in question. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

Sec. 16. Section 13, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Witnesses before the ((~~board~~)) commission, its member, agent, or agency, shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of this state. Witnesses whose depositions are taken and the person taking the same shall be entitled to same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the state.

Sec. 17. Section 9, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 6, chapter 214, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.180 are each amended to read as follows:

It is an unfair practice for any employer:

(1) To refuse to hire any person because of ((~~such person's~~)) age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification: PROVIDED, That the prohibition against discrimination because of such handicap shall not apply if the particular disability prevents the proper performance of the particular worker involved: PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require any employer to hire any person for the purpose of meeting a requirement to employ a specified percentage of any category of persons.

(2) To discharge or bar any person from employment because of ((~~such person's~~)) age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(3) To discriminate against any person in compensation or in other terms or conditions of employment because of ((~~such person's~~)) age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap: PROVIDED, That it shall not be an unfair practice for an employer to segregate washrooms or locker facilities on the basis of sex, or to base other terms and conditions of employment on the sex of employees where the board by regulation or ruling in a particular instance has found the employment practice to be appropriate for the practical realization of equality of opportunity between the sexes.

(4) To print, or circulate, or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement, or publication, or to use any form of application for employment, or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses any limitation, specification, or discrimination as to age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification: PROVIDED, Nothing contained herein shall prohibit advertising in a foreign language.

Sec. 18. Section 10, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 8, chapter 214, Laws 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.190 are each amended to read as follows:

It is an unfair practice for any labor union or labor organization:

(1) To deny membership and full membership rights and privileges to any person because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(2) To expel from membership any person because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(3) To discriminate against any member, employer, ~~((or))~~ employee, or other person, because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

Sec. 19. Section 11, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 9, chapter 214, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.200 are each amended to read as follows:

It is an unfair practice for any employment agency to fail or refuse to classify properly or refer for employment, or otherwise to discriminate against, an individual because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, or to print or circulate, or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement, or publication, or to use any form of application for employment, or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses any limitation, specification or discrimination as to age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, or national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification: PROVIDED, Nothing contained herein shall prohibit advertising in a foreign language.

Sec. 20. Section 12, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.210 are each amended to read as follows:

It is an unfair practice for any employer, employment agency, ~~((or))~~ labor union, or other person to discharge, expel, or otherwise discriminate against any person because he has opposed any practices forbidden by this chapter, or because he has filed a charge, testified, or assisted in any proceeding under this chapter.

Sec. 21. Section 14, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.215 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be an unfair practice for any person or his agent or employee to commit an act which directly or indirectly results in any distinction, restriction, or discrimination or the requiring of any person to pay a larger sum than the uniform rates charged other persons, or the refusing or withholding from any person the admission, patronage, custom, presence, frequenting, dwelling, staying, or lodging in any place of public resort, accommodation, assemblage, or amusement except for conditions and limitations established by law and applicable to all persons, regardless of race, creed, color, or national origin: PROVIDED, That it is not an unfair practice for an educational facility, columbarium, crematory, mausoleum, or cemetery operated or maintained by a bona fide religious or sectarian institution to so act on the basis of creed.

Sec. 22. Section 7, chapter 167, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 14, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.225 are each amended to read as follows:

When a determination has been made under RCW 49.60.250 that an unfair practice involving real property has been committed, the ~~((board or its successor))~~ commission may, in addition to other relief authorized by RCW 49.60.250, award the complainant up to one thousand dollars for loss of the right secured by RCW 49.60.010, 49.60.030, 49.60.040 and 49.60.222 through 49.60.226 as now or hereafter amended to be free from discrimination in real property transactions because of sex, marital status, race, creed, color or national origin. Enforcement of the order and appeal therefrom by the complainant or respondent shall be made as provided in RCW 49.60.260 and 49.60.270.

Sec. 23. Section 8, chapter 167, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.226 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~board against discrimination or its successor~~) commission and units of local government administering ordinances with provisions similar to the real estate provisions of the human rights law (~~against discrimination~~) are authorized and directed to enter into cooperative agreements or arrangements for receiving and processing complaints so that duplication of functions shall be minimized and multiple hearings avoided. No complainant may secure relief from more than one instrumentality of state, or local government, nor shall any relief be granted by any state or local instrumentality if relief has been granted or proceedings are continuing in any federal agency, court, or instrumentality, unless such proceedings have been deferred pending state action.

Who may file a complaint:

(1) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an alleged unfair practice may, by himself or his attorney, make, sign, and file with the (~~board~~) commission a complaint in writing under oath. The complaint shall state the name and address of the person alleged to have committed the unfair practice and the particulars thereof, and contain such other information as may be required by the (~~board~~) commission.

(2) Whenever it has reason to believe that any person has been engaged or is engaging in an unfair practice, the (~~board~~) commission may issue a complaint.

(3) Any employer or principal whose employees, or agents, or any of them, refuse or threaten to refuse to comply with the provisions of this chapter may file with the (~~board~~) commission a written complaint under oath asking for assistance by conciliation or other remedial action.

Any complaint filed pursuant to this section must be so filed within six months after the alleged act of discrimination.

Sec. 25. Section 16, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 17, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.240 are each amended to read as follows:

After the filing of any complaint, the chairman of the (~~board~~) commission shall refer it to the appropriate section of the (~~board's~~) commission's staff for prompt investigation and ascertainment of the facts. The results of the investigation shall be reduced to written findings of fact, and a finding shall be made that there is or that there is not reasonable cause for believing that an unfair practice has been or is being committed. A copy of said findings shall be furnished to the complainant and to the person named in such complaint, hereinafter referred to as the respondent.

If the finding is made that there is reasonable cause for believing that an unfair practice has been or is being committed, the (~~board's~~) commission's staff shall immediately endeavor to eliminate the unfair practice by conference, conciliation and persuasion.

If an agreement is reached for the elimination of such unfair practice as a result of such conference, conciliation and persuasion, the agreement shall be reduced to writing and signed by the respondent, and an order shall be entered by the (~~board~~) commission setting forth the terms of said agreement. No order shall be entered by the (~~board~~) commission at this stage of the proceedings except upon such written agreement.

If no such agreement can be reached, a finding to that effect shall be made and reduced to writing, with a copy thereof furnished to the complainant and the respondent.

Sec. 26. Section 17, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 18, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.250 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In case of failure to reach an agreement for the elimination of such unfair practice, and upon the entry of findings to that effect, the (~~entire file, including the~~

(2) The administrative law judge shall be either a person employed by the commission or other state agency as a hearing examiner or a person not regularly employed by the state but who has the qualifications established pursuant to chapter 41.06 RCW for service as a hearing examiner or administrative law judge. In carrying out duties of a judicial nature the administrative law judge shall be free from control by the executive secretary and all other employees of the commission, and by its legal counsel, and shall consult with commissioners and agency personnel only to the extent permitted by RCW 34.04.115.

(4) The place of any such hearing may be the office of the ((board)) commission or another place designated by it. The case in support of the complaint shall be presented at the hearing by counsel for the ((board)) commission: PROVIDED, That the complainant may retain independent counsel and submit testimony and be fully heard. No member or employee of the ((board)) commission who previously made the investigation or caused the notice to be issued shall participate in the hearing except as a witness, nor shall he participate in the deliberations of the ((tribunal)) administrative law judge in such case, except as provided in RCW 34.04-.115. Any endeavors or negotiations for conciliation shall not be received in evidence.

(5) The respondent may file a written answer to the complaint and appear at the hearing in person or otherwise, with or without counsel, and submit testimony and be fully heard.

(6) The parties to the hearing shall be the commission, through its counsel presenting the case in support of the complaint, the complainant if he or she submits testimony or otherwise participates as a party as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the respondent or respondents, and any other person who is permitted to intervene or is brought into the hearing under the rules of practice of the commission.

(7) The ((tribunal)) administrative law judge conducting any hearing may permit reasonable amendment to any complaint or answer. Testimony taken at the hearing shall be under oath and recorded.

(8) If, upon all the evidence, the ((tribunal)) administrative law judge finds that the respondent has engaged in any unfair practice ((it)) said judge shall state ((its)) the findings of fact and shall issue and file with the ((board)) commission and cause to be served on such respondent an order requiring such respondent to cease and desist from such unfair practice and to take such affirmative action, including, (but not limited to) hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of employees, with or without back pay, an admission or restoration to full membership rights in any respondent organization, or to take such other action as, in the judgment of the ((tribunal)) administrative law judge, guided by policies and precedents of the commission, will effectuate the purposes of this chapter, and including a requirement for report of the matter on compliance.

(9) If, upon all the evidence, the ~~((tribunal))~~ administrative law judge finds that the respondent has not engaged in any alleged unfair practice, ~~((it))~~ said judge shall state ~~((its))~~ the findings of fact and shall similarly issue and file an order dismissing the complaint.

(10) The order of the administrative law judge is the final decision of the commission unless a petition for review by the commission is served and filed as provided in section 33 of this 1977 amendatory act. It shall not be necessary to first petition for review by the commission in order to obtain review by the court under RCW 34.04.130, but if a petition for review by the commission is filed the time for commencing judicial review under RCW 34.04.130 shall begin to run from the time of the decision of the panel of the commission on review, unless the panel remands the case to the administrative law judge, in which event the agency's decision will be final when the administrative law judge issues a new order, or, if commission review of that order is petitioned for, when a decision of the panel other than to remand is issued.

(11) The ~~((board))~~ commission shall establish rules of practice to govern, expedite and effectuate the foregoing procedure.

Sec. 27. Section 19, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.255 are each amended to read as follows:

If the complainant is dissatisfied with the agreement reached as provided in RCW 49.60.240, or if the finding is made as provided for in this chapter, that there is no reasonable cause for believing that an unfair practice has been or is being committed, the complainant may within thirty days of approval by the ~~((board))~~ commission of such agreement or from receipt of a copy of said finding file a petition for reconsideration by the ~~((board))~~ commission and he shall have the right to appear before the ~~((board))~~ commission at its next regular meeting in person or by counsel and present such facts, evidence and affidavits of witnesses as may support the complaint.

The ~~((board))~~ commission shall establish rules of practice to govern, expedite, and effectuate the foregoing procedure.

Sec. 28. Section 21, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 118, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 49.60.260 are each amended to read as follows:

((2) The findings of the hearing tribunal as to the facts, if supported by substantial and competent evidence shall be conclusive. The court, upon its own motion or upon motion of either of the parties to the proceeding, may permit each party to introduce such additional evidence as the court may believe necessary to a proper decision of the cause.))

(3) If the petition and supporting affidavits show that there is a final order issued by the commission or administrative law judge under section 33 of this 1977 amendatory act or RCW 49.60.250 as now or hereafter amended and that the order has not been complied with, in whole or in part, the court shall issue an order directing the person who is alleged to have not complied with the order (hereinafter, the "respondent") to appear in court at a time designated in the order, not less than ten days from the date thereof, and show cause why the administrative order should not be enforced according to its terms. The commission shall immediately serve a copy of the order, petition and supporting affidavits, if any, on the respondent. The case shall thereafter proceed in the manner provided for summary judgments in superior court civil rule 56, as adopted May 5, 1967, and the court shall have every power it would have if the proceeding were for summary judgment under superior court civil rule 56 as adopted May 5, 1967.

(4) The respondent may show cause by answer denying the facts stated in the petition. No answering statement shall be sufficient unless it is supported by affidavits that meet the requirements of superior court civil rule 56(e) as adopted May 5, 1967.

(5) If, on the return date, the court finds that there are genuine issues of material fact, the court shall set an early date on which additional affidavits or depositions may be received, or trial shall be had.

(6) The administrative order shall be enforced by the court if the respondent does not appear, or if the respondent appears and the court finds:

(a) That the order is regular on its face;

(b) That the order has not been complied with; and

(c) That the respondent's answer discloses no valid reason why the order should not be enforced, or that the reasons given in the respondent's answer could have been raised by review under RCW 34.04.130, and the respondent has shown no valid excuse for not using that remedy.

(7) The jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its judgment and decree shall be final, except that the same shall be subject to a review by the supreme court or the court of appeals, on appeal, by either party, irrespective of the nature of the decree or judgment. Such appeal shall be taken and prosecuted in the same manner and form and with the same effect as is provided in other cases of appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals((, and the record so certified shall contain all that was before the lower court)).

Sec. 29. Section 22, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ((respondent or complainant)) party aggrieved by a final order of ((a hearing tribunal)) an administrative law judge or the commission may obtain a review of such order ((in the superior court for the county where the unfair practice is alleged to have occurred or in the county wherein such person resides or transacts business by filing with the clerk of the court, within two weeks from the date of receipt of such order, a written petition in duplicate praying that such order be modified or set aside. The clerk shall thereupon mail the duplicate copy to the board. The board shall then cause to be filed in the court a certified transcript of the entire record in the proceedings, including the pleadings, testimony and order. Upon such filing)) under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. From the time when a petition for review is filed, the court shall ((proceed in the same manner as in the case of a petition by the board and shall)) have ~~((the same exclusive))~~ jurisdiction to grant to any party such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and suitable ~~((, and in like manner to make and enter a decree enforcing or modifying and enforcing as so modified or setting aside, in whole or in part, the order sought to be reviewed))~~.

~~((Unless otherwise directed by the court, commencement of review proceedings under this section shall operate as a stay of any order.))~~ If the court affirms the order of the commission, it shall further enter a judgment and decree enforcing the order as affirmed.

Sec. 30. Section 24, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.290 are each amended to read as follows:

No court of this state shall have jurisdiction to issue any restraining order or temporary or permanent injunction preventing the ~~((board))~~ commission from performing any function vested in it by this chapter.

Sec. 31. Section 10, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 4, chapter 100, Laws of 1961 and RCW 49.60.310 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person that wilfully resists, prevents, impedes, or interferes with the ~~((board))~~ commission or any of its members or representatives in the performance of duty under this chapter, or that wilfully violates an order of the ~~((board))~~ commission, is guilty of a misdemeanor; but procedure for the review of the order shall not be deemed to be such wilful conduct.

Sec. 32. Section 11, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 and RCW 49.60.320 are each amended to read as follows:

In any case in which the ~~((board))~~ commission shall issue an order against any political or civil subdivision of the state, or any agency, or instrumentality of the state or of the foregoing, or any officer or employee thereof, the ~~((board))~~ commission shall transmit a copy of such order to the governor of the state who shall take such action as he deems appropriate to secure compliance with such order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. There is added to chapter 49.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any party that is dissatisfied with an order of the administrative law judge under RCW 49.60.250 may, within fifteen days after receipt of a copy of the order, file and serve on all other parties a petition for review by the commission of the order. The petition shall specify the points to be reviewed, and shall, either in its text or in a supporting brief to be submitted with the petition or at such later time as the commission shall provide by rule, identify specifically the portions of the record which need to be examined in order to rule on the points to be reviewed. Within ten days after being served with a petition for commission review, any other party may file and serve on all other parties a cross-petition for review, in like form.

(2) The chairperson of the commission shall designate a panel of three or more members of the commission, which may include the chairperson, to conduct the review, and shall designate one of the panel members as chairperson of the panel.

(3) The panel shall examine the parts of the record specifically cited by petitioning parties. It may meet to deliberate, or members may consult with one another by telephone or in writing. The panel in its discretion may order that oral arguments be heard, but it need not do so.

(4) The panel shall issue a written order affirming or modifying the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order of the administrative law judge, or remanding the case, in whole or in part, to the administrative law judge, with directions. The concurrence of three commissioners shall be necessary to modify or remand. If the panel is composed of less than all of the commissioners and three commissioners do not agree to affirm, modify, or remand, the chairperson of the panel shall so report to the chairperson of the commission, and to the parties, and thereupon the panel shall be expanded to include all of the commissioners, and after the additional commissioners have likewise reviewed the case, a new vote shall be taken. If three commissioners then do not agree on a particular point, the action of the administrative law judge stands as the final action of the commission on that point.

(5) Finality of the panel's decision for purposes of the time for commencing judicial review is covered by RCW 49.60.250(10) as now or hereafter amended.

(6) The commission shall establish rules of practice to govern, expedite, and effectuate the foregoing procedure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. There is added to chapter 49.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Unfair practices of an employer, employment agency, or labor union or organization because of creed shall include failure to make reasonable accommodation to the religious observances or practices of an employee or prospective employee, where such accommodation can be made without undue hardship on the conduct of the business of the employer, employment agency, or labor union or organization. The burden shall be on the employer, employment agency, or labor union or organization to demonstrate that the required accommodation is or will be an undue hardship on its business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. There is added to chapter 49.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, it shall not be an unfair practice or denial of civil rights:

(1) For a person to ascertain or record age, sex, race, creed, color, national origin, marital status or sensory, mental or physical handicap for the purpose of making reports required by agencies of the federal, state or local governments, or for the purpose of carrying out affirmative action plans required or authorized by agencies of the federal, state or local governments, if in either case the data are obtained and the records are kept in a manner required by the federal government or approved by the commission individually or by general regulation.

(2) For a person to carry out a corrective employment program, approved by the commission or its designated representative, to increase or continue the employment of members of a class of persons protected by the human rights law which has a state-wide unemployment rate that is disproportionately high in comparison with the state-wide unemployment rate of the general population, or which is underrepresented in the particular industry, occupation, or place of work affected by the plan because of discriminatory practices, customs or usages. A corrective employment program may include the kind of practices ordered by courts to remedy patterns of discrimination, but any practice which would otherwise be contrary to this chapter shall be approved only for such period of time as is necessary to correct the conditions which justify the program. Approval of a program shall be in writing and may be revoked at any time by the commission. No corrective employment program shall permit the discharge of any existing employee for purposes of implementing the program. No corrective program shall permit hiring or retaining only persons of the underrepresented class so that others are excluded from the employer's total hiring process. A corrective employment program may provide for recruiting or hiring only persons of the underrepresented class from a particular source, or at a particular time, if other applicants have access to the employer from another source, or are considered at another time, pursuant to the terms of the program.

(3) For a religious or sectarian organization which is not organized for private profit to limit hiring to or give preference to persons of the same religion or sect, or to make such selection of personnel as is calculated by the organization to promote the religious principles for which it is established or maintained, so long as the selection is made without discrimination because of age, sex, marital status, race, color, or national origin, except to the extent required by the religious doctrine of the organization, as defined by the organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. There is added to chapter 49.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) It is the policy of the legislature:

(a) to assure that persons have full access to all federal, state, and local laws and ordinances for the protection of civil rights;

(b) to eliminate duplication of public effort in enforcing such laws and ordinances, as much as possible; and

(c) to avoid requiring persons to defend the same charge by the same person in more than one forum at one time, where this is avoidable.

(2) The courts, officers, and administrative agencies of the state of Washington and its political or civil subdivisions (all hereinafter referred to as "state forums"), are directed to observe the above policy in the conduct of their respective duties, and are specifically directed to comply with the following rules:

(a) Any state forum may take jurisdiction of any case within its subject-matter jurisdiction even though the same claim is before another state forum or federal forum, but in exercising its jurisdiction to thereafter process the case, the state forum shall apply the policy and rules of this section.

(b) If the state forum learns that the same civil rights issue, including one under a different but parallel statute, is pending in an action between the same parties in a United States court, the state forum shall thereafter stop processing the case until the United States court action is concluded as to that issue. If the United States court disposes of the civil rights issue on the merits, the state forum shall close its case. If the United States court closes its case without disposing of the civil rights issue on its merits, then the state forum may then proceed to dispose of it.

(d) Among state forums, the one that first has obtained jurisdiction shall proceed with the case, and other forums, upon learning of the prior assumption of jurisdiction, shall suspend action until the first forum has concluded its action. If the first forum disposes of the civil rights issue on the merits under the same statute or ordinance or a parallel statute or ordinance, then the remaining forums shall close their cases. If the first forum closes its case without disposing of a civil rights issue on the merits under the same statute or ordinance, or a parallel statute or ordinance, then the second and following forums may proceed, one at a time, in like manner.

(e) Nothing in this section shall prevent state forums from processing cases jointly or cooperatively with each other or with United States officers or administrative agencies, so long as the policy of this section is observed. State forums may decline to exercise jurisdiction in order to let another forum act.

(f) A person who has complaints pending in more than one forum shall have the right to withdraw such complaint in any forum in order to have another forum exercise jurisdiction.

(g) An administrative finding of "no reasonable cause" under RCW 49.60.240 or comparable statute or ordinance shall not be considered to be a disposition of the case on the merits for purposes of this section. An agreed order under RCW 49.60.240 or comparable statute or ordinance shall be a disposition of the case on the merits for those who have signed the agreement, but shall not be a disposition of the case on the merits for the complainant unless the complainant has signed the agreement or has accepted the benefits of the agreement or order."

In the title, strike everything after "discrimination" and insert "; amending section 43.01.100, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.01.100; amending section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 1, chapter 214, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.010; amending section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 1, chapter 32, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.030; amending section 3, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 4, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.040; amending section 3, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.060; amending section 4, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 145, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.070; amending section 5, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.080; amending section 6, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 6, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.090; amending section 7, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 74, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 49.60.100; amending section 5, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 and RCW 49.60.110; amending section 8, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 4, chapter 214, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.120; amending section 9, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 146, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.130; amending section 10, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.140; amending section 11, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.150; amending section 12, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.160; amending section 13, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 and RCW 49.60.170; amending section 9, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 6, chapter 214, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.180; amending section 10, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 8, chapter 214, Laws 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.190; amending section 11, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 9, chapter 214, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.200; amending section 12, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.210; amending section 14, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.215; amending section 7, chapter 167, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 14, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.60.225; amending section 8, chapter 167, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.226; amending section 15, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 16, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.230; amending section 16, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 17, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.240; amending section 17, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 18, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.250; amending section 19, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.255; amending section 21, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 118, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 49.60.260; amending section 22, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.270; amending section 24, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.290; amending section 10, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 4, chapter 100, Laws of 1961 and RCW 49.60.310; amending section 11, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 and RCW 49.60.320; and adding new sections to chapter 49.60 RCW."

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Marsh, Vice Chairman; Buffington, Van Hollebeke, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 33, after "discrimination" insert "including the utilization on an equal participation basis of the services of practitioners licensed pursuant to chapters 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, 18.53, 18.57, 18.71, 18.74, 18.83, and 18.88 RCW, except for prepaid group practice plans"

Senator Day served notice that he would demand a roll call at the proper time on the amendment by Senator Day to the committee amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object on this amendment. Mr. President and members of the Senate, the bill that we have before us is one relating directly to a question of discrimination as it relates to commerce, relates to entirely different sections. As Senator Day has already explained, his amendment is concerning a question of health care contractors, an entirely different subject than what is contemplated in the bill that is before us, totally beyond the object of this particular measure by trying to bring in the question of health care contractors."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Substitute House Bill No. 798, together with the pending committee amendment and the amendment by Senator Day to the committee amendment and the Point of Order raised by Senator Walgren, was made a special order of business for 1:45 p.m. today.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 20, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2383, with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 15, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.06.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall adopt (~~and promulgate~~) rules (~~and regulations~~), consistent with the purposes and provisions of this chapter and with the best standards of personnel administration, regarding the basis (~~for~~) and procedures to be followed for(~~:~~):

(1) The dismissal, suspension, or demotion of an employee, and appeals therefrom;

(2) Certification of names for vacancies, including departmental promotions, with the number of names equal to two more names than there are vacancies to be filled, such names representing applicants rated highest on eligibility lists;

(3) Examinations for all positions in the competitive and noncompetitive service;

(4) Appointments;

(5) Probationary periods of six months and rejections therein;

(6) Transfers;

(7) Sick leaves and vacations;

(8) Hours of work;

(9) Layoffs when necessary and subsequent reemployment, both according to seniority;

(10) Determination of appropriate bargaining units within any agency: PROVIDED, That in making such determination the board shall consider the duties, skills, and working conditions of the employees, the history of collective bargaining by the employees and their bargaining representatives, the extent of organization among the employees, and the desires of the employees;

(11) Certification and decertification of exclusive bargaining representatives(~~:~~): PROVIDED, That after certification of an exclusive bargaining representative and upon said representative's request, the director shall hold an election among employees in a bargaining unit to determine by a majority whether to require as a condition of employment membership in the certified exclusive bargaining representative on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of employment or the date of such election, whichever is the later, and the failure of an employee to comply with such a condition of employment shall constitute cause for dismissal: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no more often than once in each twelve month period after expiration of twelve months following the date of the original election in a bargaining unit and upon petition of thirty percent of the members of a bargaining unit the director shall hold an election to determine whether a majority wish to rescind such condition of employment: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for purposes of this clause membership in the certified exclusive bargaining representative shall be satisfied by the payment of monthly or other periodic dues and shall not require payment of initiation, reinstatement, or any other fees or fines and shall include full and complete membership rights: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to safeguard the right of nonassociation of public employees, based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such public employee is a member, such public employee shall pay to the union, for purposes within the program of the union as designated by such employee that would be in harmony with his individual conscience, an amount of money equivalent to regular union dues minus any included monthly premiums for union sponsored insurance programs, and such employee shall not be a member of the union but shall be entitled to all the representation rights of a union member;

(12) Agreements between agencies and certified exclusive bargaining representatives providing for grievance procedures and collective negotiations on all personnel matters over which the appointing authority of the appropriate bargaining unit of such agency may lawfully exercise discretion;

(13) Written agreements may contain provisions for payroll deductions of employee organization dues upon authorization by the employee member and for the cancellation of such payroll deduction by the filing of a proper prior notice by the employee with the appointing authority and the employee organization: PROVIDED, That nothing contained herein shall permit or grant to any employee the right to strike or refuse to perform his official duties;

(14) Adoption and revision of a comprehensive classification plan for all positions in the classified service, based on investigation and analysis of the duties and responsibilities of each such position;

(15) Allocation and reallocation of positions within the classification plan;

(16) Adoption and revision of a state salary schedule to reflect ((not less than)) the prevailing rates in Washington state private industries and other governmental units ((for positions of a similar nature)), such adoption and revision subject to approval by the ((state budget)) director of the office of program planning and fiscal management in accordance with the provisions of chapter 43.88 RCW;

(17) Training programs, including in-service, promotional and supervisory;

(18) ((regular)) Increment increases within the series of steps for each pay grade(;) based on length of service for all employees whose standards of performance are such as to permit them to retain job status in the classified service; and

(19) Providing for veteran's preference as required by existing statutes, with recognition of preference in regard to layoffs and subsequent reemployment for veterans and their widows by giving such eligible veterans and their widows additional credit in computing their seniority by adding to their unbroken state service, as defined by the board, the veteran's service in the military not to exceed five years. For the purposes of this section, "veteran" means any person who has one or more years of active military service in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or who has less than one year's service and is discharged with a disability incurred in the line of duty or is discharged at the convenience of the government and who, upon termination of such service has received an honorable discharge, a discharge for physical reasons with an honorable record, or a release from active military service with evidence of service other than that for which an undesirable, bad conduct, or dishonorable discharge shall be given: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the widow of a veteran shall be entitled to the benefits of this section regardless of the veteran's length of active military service: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the purposes of this section "veteran" shall not include any person who has voluntarily retired with twenty or more years of active military service and whose military retirement pay is in excess of five hundred dollars per month.

Sec. 2. Section 16, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.06.160 are each amended to read as follows:

In ((adopting or revising)) preparing classification and salary schedules as set forth in RCW 41.06.150 as now or hereafter amended the ((board)) department of personnel shall give full consideration to prevailing rates in other public employment and in private employment in this state ((and)). For this purpose the department shall ((have made periodic wage)) undertake salary and fringe benefit surveys to be planned and conducted on a joint basis with the higher education personnel board, with one such survey to be conducted each year prior to the convening of each regular session of the state legislature(;). The results of ((such wage)) each salary and fringe benefit survey ((to)) shall be forwarded with a recommended state salary schedule to the governor and ((state budget)) director of the office of program planning and fiscal management for their use in preparing budgets to be submitted to the succeeding legislature. A copy of the data and supporting documentation shall be furnished by the department of personnel to the standing committees for appropriations of the senate and house of representatives.

The department shall furnish the following supplementary data in support of its recommended salary schedule:

(1) A total dollar figure which reflects the recommended increase or decrease in state salaries as a direct result of the specific salary and fringe benefit survey that has been conducted and which is categorized to indicate what portion of the increase or decrease is represented by salary survey data and what portion is represented by fringe benefit survey data;

(2) An additional total dollar figure which reflects the impact of recommended increases or decreases to state salaries based on other factors rather than directly on prevailing rate data obtained through the survey process and which is categorized to indicate the sources of the requests for deviation from prevailing rates and the reasons for the changes;

(3) A list of class codes and titles indicating recommended monthly salary ranges for all state classes under the control of the department of personnel with:

(a) Those salary ranges which do not substantially conform to the prevailing rates developed from the salary and fringe benefit survey distinctly marked and an explanation of the reason for the deviation included; and

(b) Those department of personnel classes which are substantially the same as classes being used by the higher education personnel board clearly marked to show the commonality of the classes between the two jurisdictions;

(4) A supplemental salary schedule which indicates the additional salary to be paid state employees for hazardous duties or other considerations requiring extra compensation under specific circumstances. Additional compensation for these circumstances shall not be included in the basic salary schedule but shall be maintained as a separate pay schedule for purposes of full disclosure and visibility; and

(5) A supplemental salary schedule which indicates those cases where the board determines that prevailing rates do not provide similar salaries for positions that require or impose similar responsibilities, judgment, knowledge, skills, and working conditions. This supplementary salary schedule shall contain proposed salary adjustments necessary to eliminate any such dissimilarities in compensation. Additional compensation needed to eliminate such salary dissimilarities shall not be included in the basic salary schedule but shall be maintained as a separate salary schedule for purposes of full disclosure and visibility.

It is the intention of the legislature that requests for funds to support recommendations for salary deviations from the prevailing rate survey data shall be kept to a minimum, and that the requests be fully documented when forwarded by the department of personnel. Further, it is the intention of the legislature that the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board jointly determine job classes which are substantially common to both jurisdictions and that basic salaries for these job classes shall be equal based on salary and fringe benefit survey findings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 41.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In the conduct of salary and fringe benefit surveys under RCW 41.06.160 as now or hereafter amended, it is the intention of the legislature that the surveys be undertaken in a manner consistent with statistically accurate sampling techniques. For this purpose, a comprehensive salary and fringe benefit survey plan shall be submitted to the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management, employee organizations, the standing committees for appropriations of the senate and house of representatives, and to the legislative budget committee six months before the beginning of each periodic survey required before regular legislative sessions. This comprehensive plan shall include but not be limited to the following:

(a) A complete explanation of the technical, statistical process to be used in the salary and fringe benefit survey including the percentage of accuracy expected from the planned statistical sample chosen for the survey and a definition of the term "prevailing rates" which is to be used in the planned survey;

(b) A comprehensive salary and fringe benefit survey model based on scientific statistical principles which:

(i) Encompasses the interrelationships among the various elements of the survey sample including sources of salary and fringe benefit data by organization type, size, and regional location;

(ii) Is representative of private and public employment in this state;

(iii) Ensures that, wherever practical, data from smaller, private firms are included and proportionally weighted in the survey sample; and

(iv) Indicates the methodology to be used in application of survey data to job classes used by state government;

(c) A prediction of the increase or decrease in total funding requirements expected to result from the pending salary and fringe benefit survey based on consumer price index information and other available trend data pertaining to Washington state salaries and fringe benefits.

(2) Every comprehensive survey plan shall fully consider fringe benefits as an element of compensation in addition to basic salary data. The plans prepared under this section shall be developed jointly by the department of personnel in conjunction with the higher education personnel board established under chapter 28B.16 RCW. All comprehensive salary and fringe benefit survey plans shall be submitted on a joint signature basis by the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board. The legislative budget committee shall review and evaluate all survey plans before final implementation.

(3) Interim or special surveys conducted under RCW 41.06.160 as now or hereafter amended shall conform when possible to the statistical techniques and principles developed for regular periodic surveys under this section.

(4) The term "fringe benefits" as used in this section and in conjunction with salary surveys shall include but not be limited to compensation for:

(a) Leave time, including vacation, holiday, civil, and personal leave;

(b) Employer retirement contributions;

(c) Health and insurance payments, including life, accident, and health insurance, workmen's compensation, and sick leave; and

(d) Stock options, bonuses, and purchase discounts where appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 41.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Salary surveys shall be conducted according to the following criteria in addition to any other provisions under this chapter:

(1) Adjustments of state salaries to prevailing rates in Washington state private industries and other governmental units shall be determined by comparisons of weighted averages of salaries, including weighted averages of salaries from out-of-state sources when necessary to obtain statistically valid salary surveys; and

(2) Determination of state salary changes from prevailing rate data collected in salary surveys shall be based on occupational group averages containing related job classes where appropriate rather than on comparisons of survey data to individual state job classes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 41.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of personnel shall undertake salary and fringe benefit surveys for officers of the Washington state patrol, with one survey to be conducted each year prior to the convening of each regular session of the state legislature. The results of each such survey shall be forwarded, after review and concurrence by the chief of the Washington state patrol, to the governor and director of the office of program planning and fiscal management for their use in preparing budgets to be submitted to the succeeding legislature. A copy of the data and supporting documentation shall be furnished by the department of personnel to the legislative budget committee and the standing committees for appropriations of the senate and house of representatives. The office of program planning and fiscal management shall analyze the survey results and conduct investigations which may be necessary to arbitrate differences between interested parties regarding the accuracy of collected survey data and the use of such data for salary adjustment.

Surveys conducted by the department of personnel for the Washington state patrol shall be undertaken in a manner consistent with statistically accurate sampling techniques, including comparisons of weighted averages of salaries. This service performed by the department of personnel shall be on a reimbursable basis in accordance with the provisions of RCW 41.06.080 as now existing or hereafter amended.

A comprehensive salary and fringe benefits survey plan shall be submitted jointly by the department of personnel and the Washington state patrol to the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management, the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives and to the legislative budget committee six months before the beginning of each periodic survey. The legislative budget committee shall review and evaluate the survey plan before final implementation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 41.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After consultation with state agency heads, employee organizations, and other interested parties, the state personnel director shall develop standardized employee performance evaluation procedures and forms which shall be used by state agencies for the appraisal of employee job performance at least annually. These procedures shall include means whereby individual agencies may supplement the standardized evaluation process with special performance factors peculiar to specific organizational needs. Performance evaluation procedures shall place primary emphasis on recording how well the employee has contributed to efficiency, effectiveness, and economy in fulfilling state agency and job objectives. A standardized performance evaluation procedure shall be instituted not later than July 1, 1978, for all employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 9, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.06.090 are each repealed.

Sec. 8. Section 10, chapter 36, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 122, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.16.100 are each amended to read as follows:

((+)) The higher education personnel board shall adopt ((and promulgate)) rules ((and regulations)), consistent with the purposes and provisions of this chapter and with the best standards of personnel administration, regarding the basis ((for;)) and procedures to be followed for((-));

(1) The dismissal, suspension, or demotion of an employee, and appeals therefrom;

(2) Certification of names for vacancies, including promotions, with the number of names equal to two more names than there are vacancies to be filled, such names representing applicants rated highest on eligibility lists;

(3) Examination for all positions in the competitive and noncompetitive service;

(4) Appointments;

(5) Probationary periods of six months and rejections therein;

(6) Transfers(:-);

(7) Sick leaves and vacations;

(8) Hours of work;

(9) Layoffs when necessary and subsequent reemployment, both according to seniority;

(10) Determination of appropriate bargaining units within any institution or related boards: PROVIDED, That in making such determination the board shall consider the duties, skills, and working conditions of the employees, the history of collective bargaining by the employees and their bargaining representatives, the extent of organization among the employees, and the desires of the employees;

(11) Certification and decertification of exclusive bargaining representatives(:-): PROVIDED, That after certification of an exclusive bargaining representative and upon said representative's request, the director shall hold an election among employees in a bargaining unit to determine by a majority whether to require as a condition of employment membership in the certified exclusive bargaining representative on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of employment or the date of such election, whichever is the later, and the failure of an employee to comply with such condition of employment shall constitute cause for dismissal: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no more often than once in each twelve month period after expiration of twelve months following the date of the original election in a bargaining unit and upon petition of thirty percent of the members of a bargaining unit the director shall hold an election to determine whether a majority wish to rescind such condition of employment: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for purposes of this clause membership in the certified exclusive bargaining representative shall be satisfied by the payment of monthly or other periodic dues and shall not require payment of initiation, reinstatement or any other fees or fines and shall include full and complete membership rights: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to safeguard the right of nonassociation of public employees, based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such public employee is a member, such public employee shall pay to the union, for purposes within the program of the union as designated by such employee that would be in harmony with his individual conscience, an amount of money equivalent to regular union dues minus any included monthly premiums for union-sponsored insurance programs, and such employee shall not be a member of the union but shall be entitled to all the representation rights of a union member;

(12) Agreements between institutions or related boards and certified exclusive bargaining representatives providing for grievance procedures and collective negotiations on all personnel matters over which the institution or the related board may lawfully exercise discretion;

(13) Written agreements may contain provisions for payroll deductions of employee organization dues upon authorization by the employee member and for the cancellation of such payroll deduction by the filing of a proper prior notice by the employee with the institution and the employee organization: PROVIDED, That nothing contained herein shall permit or grant to any employee the right to strike or refuse to perform his official duties;

(14) Adoption and revision of comprehensive classification plans for all positions in the classified service, based on investigation and analysis of the duties and responsibilities of each such position;

(15) Allocation and reallocation of positions within the classification plan; ((training programs including in-service, promotional, and supervisory; regular increment increases within the series of steps for each pay grade, based on length of service for all employees whose standards of performance are such as to permit them to retain job status in the classified service; and))

(16) Adoption and revision of salary schedules and compensation plans which reflect ((not less than)) the prevailing rates in Washington state private industries and other governmental units for positions of a similar nature and which shall be competitive in the state or the locality in which the institution or related boards are located, such adoption, revision, and implementation subject to approval as to availability of funds by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management in accordance with the provisions of chapter 43.88 RCW, and after consultation with the chief financial officer of each institution or related board for that institution or board, or in the case of community colleges, by the chief financial officer of the state board for community college education for the various community colleges;

(17) Training programs including in-service, promotional, and supervisory;

(18) Increment increases within the series of steps for each pay grade based on length of service for all employees whose standards of performance are such as to permit them to retain job status in the classified service; and

(19) Providing for veteran's preference as provided by existing statutes, with recognition of preference in regard to layoffs and subsequent reemployment for veterans and their widows by giving such eligible veterans and their widows additional credit in computing their seniority by adding to their unbroken higher education service, as defined by the board, the veteran's service in the military not to exceed five years of such service. For the purposes of this section, "veteran" means any person who has one or more years of active military service in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or who has less than one year's service and is discharged with a disability incurred in the line of duty or is discharged at the convenience of the government and who, upon termination of such service, has received an honorable discharge, a discharge for physical reasons with an honorable record, or a release from active military service with evidence of service other than that for which an undesirable, bad conduct, or dishonorable discharge shall be given: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the widow of a veteran shall be entitled to the benefits of this section regardless of the veteran's length of active military service: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the purposes of this section "veteran" shall not include any person who has voluntarily retired with twenty or more years of active military service and whose military retirement pay is in excess of five hundred dollars per month.

~~((2) Rules and regulations adopted and promulgated by the higher education personnel board shall provide for local administration and management by the institutions of higher education and related boards, subject to periodic audit and review by the board, of the following:~~

- ~~(a) Appointment, promotion, and transfer of employees;~~
- ~~(b) Dismissal, suspension, or demotion of an employee;~~

- (6) Hours of work;
- (7) Layoffs when necessary and subsequent reemployment;
- (8) Allocation and reallocation of positions within the classification plans;
- (9) Training programs; and
- (10) Maintenance of personnel records.

Sec. 10. Section 11, chapter 36, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 122, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.16.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The salary schedules and compensation plans, adopted and revised as provided in RCW 28B.16.100 as now or hereafter amended, shall reflect ((not less than)) prevailing rates in other public employment and in private ((industries and other governmental units for positions of a similar nature)) employment in this state or in the locality in which the institution or related board is located. For this purpose ((periodic wage)) salary and fringe benefit surveys shall be undertaken by the board with the assistance of the various personnel officers of the institutions of higher education and on a joint basis with the department of personnel, with one such survey to be conducted each year prior to the convening of each regular session of the state legislature. The results of such ((wage)) salary and fringe benefit survey shall be forwarded with recommended salary adjustments, which recommendations shall be advisory only, to the governor and the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management for their use in preparing budgets to be submitted to the succeeding legislature. A copy of the data and supporting documentation shall be furnished by the board to the standing committees for appropriations of the senate and house of representatives.

The board shall furnish the following supplementary data in support of its recommended salary schedule:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Odegaard moved the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2383.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "I wonder if Senator Odegaard would yield to a question? Is there anything in this bill that provides for any merit increases or anything like that?"

Senator Odegaard: "No, that was in the original bill that had been introduced in both Houses, but that was taken out by committee action even before it passed either House, so that is not in this bill."

Senator Talley: "Thank you."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the House Message on Substitute Senate Bill No. 2383, together with the motion by Senator Odegaard that the Senate do concur in the House amendment, was ordered held for May 25, 1977.

The Senate resumed consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2451, and the House amendments thereto.

Earlier today, Senator Rasmussen moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Rasmussen, the motion to concur was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2451, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 153, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Gallagher, Pearsall, Grier and Wilson):

Revising the law on public works contracts.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 7, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 153, revising the law on public works contracts (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 19, after "to" strike everything down to and including "personnel" on line 20 and insert "that portion of any contract in which a manufacturer's warranty on equipment is contingent upon the manufacturer's use of his own factory-trained personnel for installation or repair which places such equipment under warranty"

Signed by: Senators Wilson, Chairman; North, Sellar, Talley.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 153, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 798, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representative O'Brien):

Expanding the right to be free from discrimination.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 798. Earlier today, a committee amendment had been moved for adoption. Senator Day had moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment and a Point of Order had been raised by Senator Walgren on the amendment to the committee amendment by Senator Day:

On page 2, line 33, after "discrimination" insert "including the utilization on an equal participation basis of the services of practitioners licensed pursuant to chapters 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, 18.53, 18.57, 18.71, 18.74, 18.83, and 18.88 RCW, except for prepaid group practice plans"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Walgren, the President believes that your point of order relates directly to Substitute House Bill 798. Therefore, the President further believes it is untimely to rule upon your point of order until such time as the amendment to the committee amendment is adopted and the committee amendment as amended is before the Senate for consideration—or not adopted."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "This time I would like to raise the point of order that the entire committee amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill as originally introduced.

"Substitute House Bill 798 is titled 'An Act Relating to freedom from discrimination in commerce'. The subject matter of the bill is to add discriminatory boycotts by foreign governments to the list of prohibited acts constituting civil rights violation under RCW 49.60. The committee amendment would add on Senate Bill 2482 which is entitled, 'An Act Relating to civil rights law,' and constitutes a substantial rewrite of the human rights law.

"The subject matter of Senate Bill 2482 is far beyond that covered in Substitute House Bill 798 and includes the addition of new functions of the human rights commission, allowance for additional holidays and establishment of a new hearing system.

"The committee attempts to solve the scope and object problem by amending the title to strike 'in commerce'. This clearly indicates the committee felt the amendment was beyond the scope and object of the title of the original discriminatory boycott bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order as raised by Senator Clarke, the President finds that Substitute House Bill 798 is a measure which expands the right to be free from discrimination in commerce and relates specifically to discriminatory boycotts or blacklists.

"The amendment proposed by the committee on judiciary is, in effect, an omnibus measure which makes a wide variety of alterations in the law against discrimination as well as a number of procedural changes affecting the human rights commission."

"The President believes therefore that the remarks of Senator Clarke are well taken, that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill, and the point of order is well taken."

The committee amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

Senator Walgren moved that Substitute House Bill No. 798 hold its place on the second reading calendar for May 25, 1977.

On motion of Senator Day, Substitute House Bill No. 798 was made a special order of business for May 25, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Second Substitute House Bill No. 24.

SECOND READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 24, by Committee on Revenue (originally sponsored by Representatives Gaines, Greengo, Warnke, Valle, Leckenby, Dunlap and Sanders):

Authorizing a deduction for value of certain products added by minor final assembly from the business and occupation tax.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute House Bill No. 24 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 24, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson—40.

Voting nay: Senator Woody—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bausch, Bottiger, Mardesich, Talley—4.

Excused: Senators Francis, Lewis, Wojahn—3.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 24, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 32.

SECOND READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 32, by Representatives King and Berentson:

Adopting joint rules for the Forty-fifth legislature.

The Senate resumed consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 32, as amended on May 18, 1977, also on May 20, 1977. At that time, two amendments by Senator Mardesich to page 8, lines 20 and 21, had been moved for adoption.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendments were withdrawn.

Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Mardesich and Clarke:

On page 8, beginning on line 18, strike Rule 8 and insert:

"RULE 8. The presiding officer of each house shall appoint on ((such)) each conference committee three members, selecting them so as to represent, in each case,

~~((the attitude of))~~ the majority and minority political parties and to the extent possible the majority and minority positions as relates to the subject matter, upon the differences between the houses."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I think this is an important amendment, and I think it is one that we should look at carefully because it does, in fact, define for a conference committee, or it clarifies a question but it clarifies it improperly, I think.

"It says that a conference committee, if I read it correctly, shall be made up of members of the majority and minority political parties first of all, representatives of the majority and minority political parties, first of all. Secondly then the majority and minority position. I think it has been traditional, and I think rightly so, that the positions with regard to a particular item be given primary consideration. As I read the amendment, you are changing that.

"You are saying, as I read it, that the majority party will have two members of a conference committee and a minority party will have one. In almost every instance that will be the situation without regard, without regard to how members may have voted on that subject.

"The second consideration is the consideration of the position on the issue. I should think the primary consideration would be how a member felt upon an issue rather than the political concern or the political party identification that oftentimes becomes somewhat blurred.

"If I am reading this incorrectly I would like someone to explain to me otherwise, but it seems to me you have prioritized a method for selection of conference committees and given the priorities, as I have described them here. I should think that the members would want to read this very carefully before acting on it."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, the other day when we were considering this matter, you commented from the podium, and I believe if I am not mistaken, you said that this was the interpretation which you had placed on the rule in the past and were trying to incorporate into the rule the historical interpretation of that rule. If I am correct or incorrect would you straighten me out?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes you are correct, Senator Mardesich."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Mardesich and Clarke:

On line 3 of the amendment to Page 8, line 18, after "case," insert "to the extent possible" and on line 4, after "parties and" strike "to the extent possible"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 8, beginning on line 18, strike Rule 8 and insert:

"RULE 8. The presiding officer of each house shall appoint on ~~((such))~~ each conference committee three members, selecting them so as to represent, in each case,

((the attitude of)) the majority and minority positions as relates to the subject matter and to the extent possible the majority and minority political parties, upon the differences between the houses."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "It is in substance exactly the proposed amendment that the body just rejected."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your amendment is still before the body, Senator Clarke."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I appreciate that. My point was however, that if, in substance, the proposed amendment whether it be an amendment or amendment to the amendment has exactly the same result as what the body has just acted upon, then it is not in order. I am told that there is a slight difference and perhaps Senator Grant can point that out to me."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes in order to settle this particular situation that the Senate should act upon Senator Mardesich and Senator Clarke's amendment first, and depending on the outcome of that action, then will determine whether or not Senator Grant's amendment will be considered."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the amendment by Senators Mardesich and Clarke.

The motion by Senator Clarke failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 8, line 17, strike "HOW MADE UP" and insert "CONFERENCE COMMITTEE APPOINTEES"

On motion of Senator Marsh, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 32, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was adopted.

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Day was excused.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 1133.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1133, by Representatives Conner, Kilbury, Gallagher, Knowles, McCormick, Hanna, Grier, Struthers, Fuller and Gaines:
Authorizing certain golfing sweepstakes under gambling acts.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 5, 1977.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1133, authorizing certain golfing sweepstakes under gambling act (reported by Committee on Commerce):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 2, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 87, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Amusement game" means a game played for entertainment in which:

(a) The contestant actively participates;

(b) The outcome depends in a material degree upon the skill of the contestant;

(c) Only merchandise prizes are awarded;

(d) The outcome is not in the control of the operator;

(e) The wagers are placed, the winners are determined, and a distribution of prizes or property is made in the presence of all persons placing wagers at such game; and

(f) Said game is conducted or operated by any agricultural fair, person, association, or organization in such manner and at such locations as may be authorized by rules and regulations adopted by the commission pursuant to this chapter as now or hereafter amended.

Cake walks as commonly known and fish ponds as commonly known shall be treated as amusement games for all purposes under this chapter.

(2) "Bingo" means a game in which prizes are awarded on the basis of designated numbers or symbols on a card conforming to numbers or symbols selected at random and in which no cards are sold except at the time and place of said game, when said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization which does not conduct or allow its premises to be used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week and which does not conduct bingo in any location which is used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week, or if an agricultural fair authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, which does not conduct bingo on more than twelve consecutive days in any calendar year, and except in the case of any agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, no person other than a bona fide member or an employee of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, and no person who takes any part in the management or operation of said game takes any part in the management or operation of any game conducted by any other organization or any other branch of the same organization, unless approved by the commission, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting said game.

(3) "Bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization" means: (a) any organization duly existing under the provisions of chapters 24.12, 24.20, or 24.28 RCW, any agricultural fair authorized under the provisions of chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW, or any nonprofit corporation duly existing under the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, civic, patriotic, political, social, fraternal, athletic or agricultural purposes only, or any nonprofit organization, whether incorporated or otherwise, when found by the commission to be organized and operating for one or more of the aforesaid purposes only, all of which in the opinion of the commission have been organized and are operated primarily for purposes other than the operation of gambling activities authorized under this chapter; or (b) any corporation which has been incorporated under Title 36 U.S.C. and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of the armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same. The fact that contributions to an organization do not qualify for charitable contribution deduction purposes or that the organization is not otherwise exempt from payment of federal income taxes pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, shall constitute prima facie evidence that the organization is not a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this section.

Any person, association or organization which pays its employees, including members, compensation other than is reasonable therefor under the local prevailing wage scale shall be deemed paying compensation based in part or whole upon receipts relating to gambling activities authorized under this chapter and shall not be a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this chapter.

(4) "Bookmaking" means accepting bets as a business, rather than in a casual or personal fashion, upon the outcome of future contingent events.

(5) "Commercial stimulant". An activity is operated as a commercial stimulant, for the purposes of this chapter, only when it is an incidental activity operated in connection with, and incidental to, an established business, with the primary purpose of increasing the volume of sales of food or drink for consumption on that business premises. The commission may by rule establish guidelines and criteria for applying this definition to its applicants and licensees for gambling activities authorized by this chapter as commercial stimulants.

(6) "Commission" means the Washington state gambling commission created in RCW 9.46.040.

~~((6))~~ (7) "Contest of chance" means any contest, game, gaming scheme, or gaming device in which the outcome depends in a material degree upon an element of chance, notwithstanding that skill of the contestants may also be a factor therein.

~~((7))~~ (8) "Fishing derby" means a fishing contest, with or without the payment or giving of an entry fee or other consideration by some or all of the contestants wherein prizes are awarded for the species, size, weight, or quality of fish caught in a bona fide fishing or recreational event.

~~((8))~~ (9) "Gambling". A person engages in gambling if he stakes or risks something of value upon the outcome of a contest of chance or a future contingent event not under his control or influence, upon an agreement or understanding that he or someone else will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome. Gambling does not include fishing derbies as defined by this chapter, parimutuel betting as authorized by chapter 67.16 RCW, bona fide business transactions valid under the law of contracts, including, but not limited to, contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or commodities, and agreements to compensate for loss caused by the happening of chance, including, but not limited to, contracts of indemnity or guarantee and life, health or accident insurance. In addition, a contest of chance which is specifically excluded from the definition of lottery under subsection ~~((13))~~ (14) of this section shall not constitute gambling.

~~((9))~~ (10) "Gambling device" means: (a) Any device or mechanism the operation of which a right to money, credits, deposits or other things of value may be created, in return for a consideration, as the result of the operation of an element of chance; (b) any device or mechanism which, when operated for a consideration, does not return the same value or thing of value for the same consideration upon each operation thereof; (c) any device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation designed primarily for use in connection with professional gambling; and (d) any subassembly or essential part designed or intended for use in connection with any such device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation. But in the application of this definition, a pinball machine or similar mechanical amusement device which confers only an immediate and unrecorded right of replay on players thereof, which does not contain any mechanism which varies the chance of winning free games or the number of free games which may be won or a mechanism or a chute for dispensing coins or a facsimile thereof, and which prohibits multiple winnings depending upon the number of coins inserted and requires the playing of five balls individually upon the insertion of a nickel or dime, as the case may be, to complete any one operation thereof, shall not be deemed a gambling device: PROVIDED FURTHER, That owning, possessing, buying, selling, renting, leasing, financing, holding a security interest in, storing, repairing and transporting such pinball machines or similar mechanical amusement devices shall not be deemed engaging in professional gambling for the purposes of this chapter and shall not be a violation of this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any fee for the purchase or rental of any such pinball machines or similar amusement devices shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put but be based only upon the market value of any such machine, regardless of the location of or type of premises where used, and any fee for the storing, repairing and transporting thereof shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put, but be commensurate with the cost of labor and other expenses incurred in any such storing, repairing and transporting.

((+0)) (11) "Gambling information" means any wager made in the course of and any information intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition information as to wagers, betting odds and changes in betting odds shall be presumed to be intended for use in professional gambling: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall not apply to newspapers of general circulation or commercial radio and television stations licensed by the federal communications commission.

((+1)) (12) "Gambling premises" means any building, room, enclosure, vehicle, vessel or other place used or intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition, any place where a gambling device is found, shall be presumed to be intended to be used for professional gambling.

((+2)) (13) "Gambling record" means any record, receipt, ticket, certificate, token, slip or notation given, made, used or intended to be used in connection with professional gambling.

((+3)) (14) "Lottery" means a scheme for the distribution of money or property by chance, among persons who have paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for the chance.

For the purpose of this chapter, the following activities do not constitute "valuable consideration" as an element of a lottery:

(a) Listening to or watching a television or radio program or subscribing to a cable television service;

(b) Filling out and returning a coupon or entry blank or facsimile which is received through the mail or published in a bona fide newspaper or magazine, or in a program sold in conjunction with and at a regularly scheduled sporting event, or the purchase of such a newspaper, magazine or program;

(c) Sending a coupon or entry blank by United States mail to a designated address in connection with a promotion conducted in this state;

(d) Visitation to any business establishment to obtain a coupon, or entry blank;

(e) Mere registration without purchase of goods or services;

(f) Expenditure of time, thought, attention and energy in perusing promotional material;

(g) Placing or answering a telephone call in a prescribed manner or otherwise making a prescribed response or answer;

(h) Furnishing the container of any product as packaged by the manufacturer, or a particular portion thereof but only if furnishing a plain piece of paper or card with the name of the manufacturer or product handwritten on it is acceptable in lieu thereof: PROVIDED, That where any drawing is held by or on behalf of in-state

retail outlets in connection with business promotions authorized under subsections (d) and (e) hereof, no such in-state retail outlet may conduct more than one such drawing during each calendar year and the period of the drawing and its promotion shall not extend for more than seven consecutive days: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the sponsoring organization has more than one outlet in the state such drawings must be held in all such outlets at the same time except that a sponsoring organization with more than one outlet may conduct a separate drawing in connection with the initial opening of any such outlet; or

(i) The payment of an admission fee to gain admission to any agricultural fair authorized under chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW where (i) the scheme is conducted for promotional or advertising purposes, not including the promotion or advertisement of the scheme itself; and (ii) the person or organization conducting the scheme receives no portion of the admission fee either directly or indirectly and receives no other money for conducting the scheme either directly or indirectly, other than what might be received indirectly as a result of the success of the promotional or advertising aspect of the scheme.

For purposes of this chapter, radio and television broadcasting is hereby declared to be preempted by applicable federal statutes and the rules applicable thereto by the federal communications commission. Broadcast programming, including advertising and promotion, that complies with said federal statutes and regulations is hereby authorized.

(15) "Member". As used in this chapter, member means a member of an organization eligible to be licensed by the commission under this chapter, or a member of an organization which is an auxiliary of such an eligible organization, or a member of an organization of which the eligible organization is an auxiliary, or a member of an organization which is affiliated with the eligible organization by being with it auxiliary to another organization.

No person shall be a member of any organization if that person's primary purpose for membership is to become, or continue to be, a participant in, or an operator or manager of, any gambling activity or activities.

~~((+4))~~ (16) "Player" means a natural person who engages, on equal terms with the other participants, and solely as a contestant or bettor, in any form of gambling in which no person may receive or become entitled to receive any profit therefrom other than personal gambling winnings, and without otherwise rendering any material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation of a particular gambling activity. A natural person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with the other participants therein does not otherwise render material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation thereof by performing, without fee or remuneration, acts directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game, such as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor, and supplying cards or other equipment used therein. A person who engages in "book-making" as defined in this section is not a "player".

~~((+5))~~ (17) A person is engaged in "professional gambling" when:

(a) Acting other than as a player or in the manner set forth in RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended, he knowingly engages in conduct which materially aids any other form of gambling activity; or

(b) Acting other than as a player, or in the manner set forth in RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended, he knowingly accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he participates or is to participate in the proceeds of gambling activity;

(c) He engages in bookmaking; or

(d) He conducts a lottery as defined in subsection ~~((+3))~~ (14) of this section.

Conduct under subparagraph (a), except as exempted under RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended, includes but is not limited to conduct directed toward the creation or establishment of the particular game, contest, scheme, device or activity involved, toward the acquisition or maintenance of premises, paraphernalia, equipment or apparatus therefor, toward the solicitation or inducement of persons to participate therein, toward the actual conduct of the playing phases thereof, toward the arrangement of any of its financial or recording phases, or toward any other phase of its operation. If a person having substantial proprietary or other authoritative control over any premises shall permit said premises to be used with the person's knowledge for the purpose of conducting gambling activity other than gambling activities as set forth in RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended, and acting other than as a player, and said person permits such to occur or continue or makes no effort to prevent its occurrence or continuation, he shall be considered as being engaged in professional gambling: PROVIDED, That the proprietor of a bowling establishment who awards prizes obtained from player contributions, to players successfully knocking down pins upon the contingency of identifiable pins being placed in a specified position or combination of positions, as designated by the posted rules of the bowling establishment, where the proprietor does not participate in the proceeds of the "prize fund" shall not be construed to be engaging in "professional gambling" within the meaning of this chapter: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the books and records of the games shall be open to public inspection.

((+6)) (18) "Punch boards" and "pull-tabs" shall be given their usual and ordinary meaning as of July 16, 1973, except that such definition may be revised by the commission pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

((+7)) (19) "Raffle" means a game in which tickets bearing an individual number are sold for not more than one dollar each and in which a prize or prizes are awarded on the basis of a drawing from said tickets by the person or persons conducting the game, when said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or non-profit organization, no person other than a bona fide member of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting said game.

((+8)) (20) "Social card game" means a card game, including but not limited to the game commonly known as "Mah Jongg", which constitutes gambling and contains each of the following characteristics:

(a) There are two or more participants and each of them are players; and

(b) A player's success at winning money or other thing of value by overcoming chance is in the long run largely determined by the skill of the player; and

(c) No organization, corporation or person collects or obtains or charges any percentage of or collects or obtains any portion of the money or thing of value wagered or won by any of the players: PROVIDED, That this item (c) shall not preclude a player from collecting or obtaining his winnings; and

(d) No organization or corporation, or person collects or obtains any money or thing of value from, or charges or imposes any fee upon, any person which either enables him to play or results in or from his playing: PROVIDED, That this item (d) shall not apply to the membership fee in any bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization or to an admission fee allowed by the commission pursuant to RCW 9.46.070; and

(e) The type of card game is one specifically approved by the commission pursuant to RCW 9.46.070; and

(f) The extent of wagers, money or other thing of value which may be wagered or contributed by any player does not exceed the amount or value specified by the commission pursuant to RCW 9.46.070.

((+9)) (21) "Thing of value" means any money or property, any token, object or article exchangeable for money or property, or any form of credit or promise, directly or indirectly, contemplating transfer of money or property or of any interest therein, or involving extension of a service, entertainment or a privilege of playing at a game or scheme without charge.

~~((20))~~ (22) "Whoever" and "person" include natural persons, corporations and partnerships and associations of persons; and when any corporate officer, director or stockholder or any partner authorizes, participates in, or knowingly accepts benefits from any violation of this chapter committed by his corporation or partnership, he shall be punishable for such violation as if it had been directly committed by him.

(23) "Fund raising event" means a fund raising event conducted during any three consecutive days and not more than once in any calendar year or a fund raising event conducted not more than twice each calendar year for not more than one calendar day by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization as defined in subsection (3) of this section other than any agricultural fair referred to thereunder, upon authorization therefor by the commission, which the legislature hereby authorizes to issue a license therefor, with or without fee, permitting the following activities, or any of them, during such event: Bingo, amusement games, contests of chance, lotteries and raffles: PROVIDED, That (a) gross wagers and bets received by the organization less the amount of money paid by the organization as winnings and for the purchase cost of prizes given as winnings do not exceed five thousand dollars during the total calendar days of such fund raising event in the calendar year; (b) such activities shall not include any mechanical gambling or lottery device activated by the insertion of a coin or by the insertion of any object purchased by any person taking a chance by gambling in respect to the device; (c) only bona fide members of the organization who are not paid for such service shall participate in the management or operation of the activities, and all income therefrom, after deducting the cost of prizes and other expenses, shall be devoted solely to the lawful purposes of the organization; and (d) such organization shall notify the appropriate local law enforcement agency of the time and place where such activities shall be conducted. The commission shall require an annual information report setting forth in detail the expenses incurred and the revenue received relative to the activities permitted.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 87, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations organized primarily for purposes other than the conduct of raffles, are hereby authorized to conduct raffles without obtaining a license to do so from the commission when such raffles are held in accordance with all other requirements of chapter 9.46 RCW, other applicable laws, and rules of the commission; when gross revenues from all such raffles held by the organization during the calendar year do not exceed five thousand dollars; and when tickets to such raffles are sold only to, and winners are determined only from among, the regular members of the organization conducting the raffle: PROVIDED, That the term members for this purpose shall mean only those persons who have become members prior to the commencement of the raffle and whose qualification for membership was not dependent upon, or in any way related to, the purchase of a ticket, or tickets, for such raffles.

(3) Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations organized primarily for purposes other than the conduct of such activities are hereby authorized to conduct bingo, raffles, and amusement games, without obtaining a license to do so from the commission but only when:

(a) Such activities are held in accordance with all other requirements of chapter 9.46 RCW as now or hereafter amended, other applicable laws, and rules of the commission; and

(b) Said activities are, alone or in any combination, conducted no more than twice each calendar year and over a period of no more than twelve consecutive days each time, notwithstanding the limitations of RCW 9.46.020(2) as now or hereafter amended; PROVIDED, That a raffle conducted under this subsection may be conducted for a period longer than twelve days; and

(c) Only bona fide members of that organization, who are not paid for such services, participate in the management or operation of the activities; and

(d) Gross revenues to the organization from all the activities together does not exceed five thousand dollars during any calendar year; and

(e) All revenue therefrom, after deducting the cost of prizes and other expenses of the activity, is devoted solely to the purposes for which the organization qualifies as a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization; and

(f) The organization gives notice at least five days in advance of the conduct of any of the activities to the local police agency of the jurisdiction within which the activities are to be conducted of the organization's intent to conduct the activities, the location of the activities, and the date or dates they will be conducted; and

(g) The organization conducting the activities maintains records for a period of one year from the date of the event which accurately show at a minimum the gross revenue from each activity, details of the expenses of conducting the activities, and details of the uses to which the gross revenue therefrom is put.

(4) The legislature hereby authorizes any person, association, or organization operating an established business primarily engaged in the selling of food or drink for consumption on the premises to conduct social card games and to utilize punch boards and pull-tabs as a commercial stimulant to such business when licensed and utilized or operated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(5) The legislature hereby authorizes any person to conduct or operate amusement games when licensed and operated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted by the commission at such locations as the commission may authorize.

(6) The legislature hereby authorizes bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations to conduct, without the necessity of obtaining a permit or license to do so from the commission, golfing sweepstakes permitting wagers of money, and the same shall not constitute such gambling or lottery as otherwise in this chapter prohibited, or be subject to civil or criminal penalties thereunder, but this only when the outcome of such golfing sweepstakes is dependent upon the score, or scores, or the playing ability, or abilities, of a golfing contest between individual players or teams of such players, conducted in the following manner:

(a) Wagers are placed by buying tickets on any players in a golfing contest to "win", "place" or "show" and those holding tickets on the three winners may receive a pay-off similar to the system of betting identified as parimutuel, such moneys placed as wagers to be used primarily as winners proceeds, except moneys used to defray the expenses of such golfing sweepstakes or otherwise used to carry out the purposes of such organization; or

(b) Participants in any golfing contest(s) pay a like sum of money into a common fund on the basis of attaining a stated number of points ascertainable from the score of such participants, and those participants attaining such stated number of points share equally in the moneys in the common fund, without any percentage of such moneys going to the sponsoring organization; and

(c) Participation is limited to members of the sponsoring organization and their bona fide guests.

(7) The legislature hereby authorizes any person, association, or organization to conduct sports pools without a license to do so from the commission but only when the outcome of which is dependent upon the score, or scores, of a certain athletic contest and which is conducted only in the following manner:

(a) A board or piece of paper is divided into one hundred equal squares, each of which constitutes a chance to win in the sports pool and each of which is offered directly to prospective contestants at one dollar or less; and

(b) The purchaser of each chance or square signs his or her name on the face of each square or chance he or she purchases; and

(c) At some time not later than prior to the start of the subject athletic contest the pool is closed and no further chances in the pool are sold; and

(d) After the pool is closed a prospective score is assigned by random drawing to each square; and

(e) All money paid by entrants to enter the pool less taxes is paid out as the prize or prizes to those persons holding squares assigned the winning score or scores from the subject athletic contest; and

(f) The sports pool board is available for inspection by any person purchasing a chance thereon, the commission, or by any law enforcement agency upon demand at all times prior to the payment of the prize; and

(g) The person or organization conducting the pool is conducting no other sports pool on the same athletic event; and

(h) The sports pool conforms to any rules and regulations of the commission applicable thereto.

(8) The legislature hereby authorizes the wagering on the outcome of the roll of dice or the flipping or matching of coins on the premises of an establishment in the business of selling food or beverage for consumption on the premises to determine who will pay for certain items of food, beverage, or music served or provided on that day by that establishment. Such establishments are hereby authorized to possess dice and dice cups on their premises but only for use in such limited wagering.

(9) (a) The legislature hereby authorizes any bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization which is licensed pursuant to RCW 66.24.400, and its officers and employees, to allow the use of the premises, furnishings, and other facilities not gambling devices of such organization by members of the organization who engage as players in the following types of gambling activities only:

(i) Social card games as defined in RCW 9.46.020(18)(a), (b), (c), and (d); and

(ii) Social dice games, which shall be limited to contests of chance, the outcome of which are determined by one or more rolls of dice.

(b) Bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations shall not be required to be licensed by the commission in order to allow use of their premises in accordance with this subsection; however, the following conditions must be met:

(i) No organization, corporation, or person shall collect or obtain or charge any percentage of or shall collect or obtain any portion of the money or thing of value wagered or won by any of the players: PROVIDED, That a player may collect his or her winnings; and

(10) The legislature hereby authorizes bowling establishments to conduct, without the necessity of obtaining a permit or license to do so, as a trade stimulus a bowling activity which permits bowlers to purchase tickets from the establishment for a predetermined and posted amount of money and which tickets are then selected by the luck of the draw and the holder of the matching ticket so drawn has an opportunity to bowl a strike and if successful receives a predetermined and posted monetary prize: PROVIDED, That any and all sums collected by the establishment from the sale of the tickets shall be returned to purchasers of tickets and no part of the proceeds shall inure to the benefit of the establishment.

The penalties provided for professional gambling in this chapter shall not apply to sports pools as described in ~~((this))~~ subsection (7) of this section, the wagering described in subsection (8) of this section, social card games, bingo games, raffles, fund raising events, punch boards, pull-tabs, ~~((or))~~ amusement games, or to the use of facilities of a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for social card games or dice games, when conducted in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the commission.

Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 87, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To authorize and issue licenses for a period not to exceed one year to bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations approved by the commission meeting the requirements of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto permitting said organizations to conduct bingo games, raffles, amusement games, and social card games~~((+))~~, to utilize punch boards and pull-tabs in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto and to revoke or suspend said licenses for violation of any provisions of this chapter or any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto: PROVIDED, That the commission shall not deny a license to an otherwise qualified applicant in an effort to limit the number of licenses to be issued: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission or director shall not issue, deny, suspend or revoke any license because of considerations of race, sex, creed, color, or national origin: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission may authorize the director to temporarily issue or suspend licenses subject to final action by the commission;

(2) To authorize and issue licenses for a period not to exceed one year to any person, association, or organization operating a business primarily engaged in the selling of items of food or drink for consumption on the premises, approved by the commission meeting the requirements of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto permitting said person, association, or organization to utilize punch boards and pull-tabs and to conduct social card games as a commercial stimulant in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto and to revoke or suspend said licenses for violation of any provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto: PROVIDED, That the commission shall not deny a license to an otherwise qualified applicant in an effort to limit the number of licenses to be issued: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission may authorize the director to temporarily issue or suspend licenses subject to final action by the commission;

(3) To authorize and issue licenses for a period not to exceed one year to any person, association, or organization approved by the commission meeting the requirements of this chapter and meeting the requirements of any rules and regulations adopted by the commission pursuant to this chapter as now or hereafter amended, permitting said person, association, or organization to conduct or operate amusement games in such manner and at such locations as the commission may determine;

(5) To establish a schedule of annual license fees for carrying on specific gambling activities upon the premises, and for such other activities as may be licensed by the commission, which shall provide to the commission not less than an amount of money adequate to cover all costs incurred by the commission relative to licensing under this chapter and the enforcement by the commission of the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto: PROVIDED, That all licensing fees shall be submitted with an application therefor and such portion of said fee as the commission may determine, based upon its cost of processing and investigation, shall be retained by the commission upon the withdrawal or denial of any such license application as its reasonable expense for processing the application and investigation into the granting thereof: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if in a particular case the basic license fee established by the commission for a particular class of license is less than the commission's actual expenses to investigate that particular application, the commission may at any time charge to that applicant such additional fees as are necessary to pay the commission for those costs. The commission may decline to proceed with its investigation and no license shall be issued until the commission has been fully paid therefor by the applicant: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission may establish fees for the furnishing by it to licensees of identification stamps to be affixed to such devices and equipment as required by the commission and for such other special services or programs required or offered by the commission, the amount of each of these fees to be not less than is adequate to offset the cost to the commission of the stamps and of administering their dispersal to licensees or the cost of administering such other special services, requirements or programs;

(6) To require that applications for all licenses contain such information as may be required by the commission: PROVIDED, That all persons having a managerial or ownership interest in any gambling activity, or the building in which any gambling activity occurs, or the equipment to be used for any gambling activity, or participating as an employee in the operation of any gambling activity, shall be listed on the application for the license and the applicant shall certify on the application, under oath, that the persons named on the application are all of the persons known to have an interest in any gambling activity, building, or equipment by the person making such application: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission may require fingerprinting and background checks on any persons seeking licenses under this chapter or of any person holding an interest in any gambling activity, building, or equipment to be used therefor, or of any person participating as an employee in the operation of any gambling activity;

(7) To require that any license holder maintain records as directed by the commission and submit such reports as the commission may deem necessary;

(8) To require that all income from bingo games, raffles, and amusement games be recorded and reported as established by rule or regulation of the commission to the extent deemed necessary by considering the scope and character of the gambling activity in such a manner that will disclose gross income from any gambling activity, amounts received from each player, the nature and value of prizes, and the fact of distributions of such prizes to the winners thereof;

(9) To regulate and establish maximum limitations on income derived from bingo: PROVIDED, That in establishing limitations pursuant to this subsection the commission shall take into account (i) the nature, character, and scope of the activities of the licensee; (ii) the source of all other income of the licensee; and (iii) the percentage or extent to which income derived from bingo is used for charitable, as distinguished from nonprofit, purposes;

(10) To regulate and establish the type and scope of and manner of conducting ((social card games permitted to be played, and)) the gambling activities authorized by RCW 9.46.030, including but not limited to, the extent of wager, money, or other thing of value which may be wagered or contributed or won by a player in ((a social card game)) any such activities;

(11) To regulate and establish a reasonable admission fee which may be imposed by an organization, corporation or person licensed to conduct a social card game on a person desiring to become a player in a social card game. A "reasonable admission fee" under this item shall be limited to a fee which would defray or help to defray the expenses of the game and which would not be contrary to the purposes of this chapter;

(12) To cooperate with and secure the cooperation of county, city, and other local or state agencies in investigating any matter within the scope of its duties and responsibilities;

(13) In accordance with RCW 9.46.080, to adopt such rules and regulations as are deemed necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter. All rules and regulations shall be adopted pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW;

(14) To set forth for the perusal of counties, city-counties, cities and towns, model ordinances by which any legislative authority thereof may enter into the taxing of any gambling activity authorized in RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended;

In establishing these maximum limits the commission shall take into account the amount of income received, or expected to be received, from the class of activities to which the limits will apply and the amount of money the games could generate for authorized charitable or nonprofit purposes absent such expenses. The commission may also take into account, in its discretion, other factors, including but not limited to, the local prevailing wage scale and whether charitable purposes are benefited by the activities;

(16) To authorize, require, and issue for a period not to exceed one year such licenses or permits, for which the commission may by rule provide, to any person to work for any operator of any gambling activity authorized by this chapter in connection with that activity, or any manufacturer, supplier, or distributor of devices for those activities in connection with such business. The commission shall not require that persons working solely as volunteers in an authorized activity conducted by a bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organization, who receive no compensation of any kind for any purpose from that organization, and who have no managerial or supervisory responsibility in connection with that activity, be licensed to do such work. The commission may require that licensees employing such unlicensed volunteers submit to the commission periodically a list of the names, addresses, and dates of birth of the volunteers. If any volunteer is not approved by the commission, the commission may require that the licensee not allow that person to work in connection with the licensed activity;

(17) To publish and make available at the office of the commission or elsewhere to anyone requesting it a list of the commission licensees, including the name, address, type of license, and license number of each licensee; ~~((and))~~

(18) To establish guidelines for determining what constitutes active membership in bona fide nonprofit or charitable organizations for the purposes of this chapter; and

~~((+6))~~ (19) To perform all other matters and things necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 8, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 155, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((department of motor vehicles, subject to the approval of the))~~ commission~~((:))~~ shall employ a full time ~~((employee as))~~ director ~~((respecting gambling activities))~~, who shall be the administrator for the commission in carrying out its powers and duties and who~~((, with the advice and approval of the commission))~~ shall issue rules and regulations adopted by the commission governing the activities authorized hereunder and shall supervise ~~((departmental))~~ commission employees in carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter. In addition, the ~~((department))~~ director shall ~~((furnish))~~ employ two assistant directors, together with such investigators and enforcement officers and ~~((with))~~ such ~~((of its administrative services and))~~ staff as ~~((are))~~ the commission determines is necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter. The director, both assistant directors, and personnel occupying positions requiring the performing of undercover investigative work shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, as now law or hereafter amended. Neither the director nor any ~~((departmental))~~ commission employee working therefor shall be an officer or manager of any bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organization, or of any organization which conducts gambling activity in this state.

The director, subject to the approval of the commission, is authorized to enter into agreements on behalf of the commission for mutual assistance and services, based upon actual costs, with any state or federal agency or with any city, town, or county, and such state or local agency is authorized to enter into such an agreement with the commission. If a needed service is not available from another agency of state government within a reasonable time, the director may obtain that service from private industry.

Sec. 5. Section 10, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.100 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a fund to be known as the "gambling revolving fund" which shall consist of all moneys receivable for licensing, penalties, forfeitures, and all other moneys, income, or revenue received by the commission. The state treasurer shall be custodian of the fund. All moneys received by the commission or any employee thereof, except for change funds and an amount of petty cash as fixed by rule or regulation of the commission, shall be deposited each day in a depository approved by the state treasurer and transferred to the state treasurer to be credited to the gambling revolving fund. Disbursements from the revolving fund shall be on authorization of the commission or a duly authorized representative thereof. In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control the gambling revolving fund shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW but no appropriation shall be required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from such fund. All expenses relative to commission business, including but not limited to salaries and expenses of the director and ~~((such employees of the department of motor vehicles as are working therefor,))~~ other commission employees shall be paid from the gambling revolving fund.

Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1975--76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.115 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to any other fees and taxes imposed by this chapter, or by commission rule, there is hereby imposed a special tax to be paid by every person who maintains for use or permits the use of, on any place or premises occupied by him a coin-operated gaming device which is subject to the federal tax on coin-operated devices imposed by section 4461 of the Internal Revenue Code (79 Stat. 148; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 4461), as amended and in effect on March 11, 1976 and any subsequent amendments thereto. The amount of such tax shall be equal to eighty percent of the amount of the tax required to be paid to the federal government pursuant to section 4461 of the Internal Revenue Code (79 Stat. 148; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 4461), as amended and in effect on March 11, 1976 and any subsequent amendments thereto: PROVIDED, That such tax shall not exceed the amount of the credit for state taxes allowed by section 4464 of the Internal Revenue Code (85 Stat. 534, 26 U.S.C. Sec. 4464), as amended and in effect on March 11, 1976 and any subsequent amendments thereto.

This tax shall be imposed on any coin-operated gaming device as defined in section 4462 of the Internal Revenue Code (79 Stat. 149; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 4462), as amended and in effect on March 11, 1976 and any amendments thereto.

(2) The tax established in subsection (1) of this section shall be payable to the commission on or before June 20 of each year in advance of the following fiscal year, July 1 through June 30, pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the commission. Payment of any tax due shall be a condition precedent to the issuance or renewal of any license of any nature by the commission to the taxpayer. The tax shall apply to each such device so maintained or permitted at any time during the year and no such device shall be placed out for public play unless and until the tax due respecting it has first been paid: PROVIDED, That a replacement for such a device removed from play shall not be deemed an additional device for that year. Proceeds from the tax shall be deposited in the gambling revolving fund and used by the commission for its expenses of administering this chapter.

The commission shall ~~((issue a stamp showing that the tax has been paid which shall be affixed to the coin-operated gaming device prior to being placed out for public play))~~ adopt rules setting out the procedure for collection of the tax and for the administration of this section.

(3) The tax imposed by subsection (1) of this section shall be in addition to any tax imposed upon such coin-operated gaming devices, or the income therefrom, by any municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state.

(4) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 7. Section 14, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 166, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.140 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((For the purpose of obtaining information concerning any matter relating to the administration or enforcement of this chapter, the commission, or any person appointed by it in writing for the purpose, may))~~ (1) The commission or its authorized representative may:

(a) Make necessary public or private investigations within or outside of this state to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in the prescribing of rules and forms hereunder; and

(b) Inspect the books, documents, and records of any person lending money to or in any manner financing any license holder or applicant for a license or receiving any income or profits from the use of such license for the purpose of determining compliance or noncompliance with the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. ~~((The commission, or its designee, may conduct hearings, administer oaths, take depositions, compel the attendance of witnesses and issue subpoenas pursuant to RCW 34.04.105.))~~

(2) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the commission or any officer designated by rule may conduct hearings, administer oaths or affirmations, or upon the commission's or officer's motion or upon request of any party may subpoena witnesses, compel attendance, take depositions, take evidence, or require the production of any matter which is relevant to the investigation or proceeding, including but not limited to the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, or location of any books, documents, or other tangible things, or the identity or location of persons having knowledge or relevant facts, or any other matter reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of material evidence.

(3) Upon failure to obey a subpoena or to answer questions propounded by the investigating officer and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the director may apply to the superior court for an order compelling compliance.

(4) The commission may appoint hearing officers to conduct hearings respecting the suspension, revocation, or denial of licenses, who may administer oaths, admit or deny admission of evidence, compel the attendance of witnesses, issue subpoenas, issue orders, and exercise all other powers and perform all other functions set out in RCW 34.04.090 (6) and (8), 34.04.100 and 34.04.105. The salaries and expenses of such hearing officers may be paid from any revenues available to the commission.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all proceedings under this chapter shall be in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 8. Section 18, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who knowingly causes, aids, abets, or conspires with another to cause any ~~((association or organization))~~ person to violate any provision of this chapter ~~((or of any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter))~~ shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than one hundred thousand dollars, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and to chapter 9.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person who knowingly causes, aids, abets, or conspires with another to cause any person to violate any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or both.

Sec. 10. Section 19, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person or association or organization operating any gambling activity ~~((authorized under RCW 9.46.030.))~~ who or which, directly or indirectly, shall in the course of such operation:

- (1) Employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud; or
- (2) Make any untrue statement of a material fact, or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made not misleading, in the light of the circumstances under which said statement is made; or
- (3) Engage in any act, practice or course of operation as would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person;

Shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and to chapter 9.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every city or town is authorized to enact as an ordinance of that city or town any or all of the sections of this chapter the violation of which constitutes a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor. The city or town may not modify the language of any section of this chapter in enacting such section except as necessary to put the section in the proper form of an ordinance or to provide for a sentence to be served in the appropriate detention facility. The ordinance must provide for the same maximum penalty for its violation as may be imposed under the section in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and to chapter 9.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

District courts operating under the provisions of chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW, except municipal departments of such courts operating under chapter 3.46 RCW and municipal courts operating under chapter 3.50 RCW, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior court to hear, try, and determine misdemeanor and gross misdemeanor violations of this chapter and violations of any ordinance passed under authority of this chapter by any city or town.

Municipal courts operating under chapters 35.20 or 3.50 RCW and municipal departments of the district court operating under chapter 3.46 RCW, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior court to hear, try, and determine violations of any ordinance passed under authority of this chapter by the city or town in which the court is located.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, each of these courts shall have the jurisdiction and power to impose up to the maximum penalties provided for the violation of the ordinances adopted under the authority of this chapter. Review of the judgments of these courts shall be as provided in other criminal actions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and to chapter 9.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No person participating in a gambling activity shall in the course of such participation, directly or indirectly:

(1) Employ or attempt to employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud any other participant or any operator;

(2) Engage in any act, practice, or course of operation as would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any other participant or any operator;

(3) Engage in any act, practice, or course of operation while participating in a gambling activity with the intent of cheating any other participant or the operator to gain an advantage in the game over the other participant or operator; or

(4) Cause, aid, abet, or conspire with another person to cause any other person to violate subsections (1) through (3) of this section.

Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and to chapter 9.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person who works as an employee or agent or in a similar capacity for another person in connection with the operation of an activity for which a license is required under this chapter or by commission rule without having obtained the applicable license required by the commission under section 3(16) of this 1977 amendatory act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be punished by not more than one year in the county jail or a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or both.

Sec. 15. Section 21, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 166, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.210 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((2))~~ (3) In addition to its other powers and duties, the commission shall have the power to enforce the penal provisions of chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and as it may be amended, and the penal laws of this state relating to the conduct of or participation in gambling activities and the manufacturing, importation, transportation, distribution, possession, and sale of equipment or paraphernalia used or for use in connection therewith. The director, both assistant directors, and each of the commission's investigators, enforcement officers, and inspectors (~~(assigned by the department of motor vehicles to the commission)~~) shall have the power, under the supervision of the commission, to enforce the penal provisions of chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and as it may be amended, and the penal laws of this state relating to the conduct of or participation in gambling activities and the manufacturing, importation, transportation, distribution, possession, and sale of equipment or paraphernalia used or for use in connection therewith. They shall have the power and authority to apply for and execute all warrants and serve process of law issued by the courts in enforcing the penal provisions of chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and as it may be amended, and the penal laws of this state relating to the conduct of or participation in gambling activities and the manufacturing, importation, transportation, distribution, possession, and sale of equipment or paraphernalia used or for use in connection therewith. They shall have the power to arrest without a warrant, any person or persons found in the act of violating any of the penal provisions of chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and as it may be amended, and the penal laws of this state relating to the conduct of or participation in gambling activities and the manufacturing, importation, transportation, distribution, possession, and sale of equipment or paraphernalia used or for use in connection therewith. To the extent set forth above, the commission shall be a law enforcement agency of this state with the power to investigate for violations of and to enforce the provisions of this chapter, as now law or hereafter amended, and to obtain information from and provide information to all other law enforcement agencies.

Sec. 16. Section 23, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 155, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All gambling devices as defined in RCW (~~(9.46.020(9))~~) 9.46.020(10) are common nuisances and shall be subject to seizure, immediately upon detection by any peace officer, and to confiscation and destruction by order of a superior or district justice court, except when in the possession of officers enforcing this chapter.

(2) No property right in any gambling device as defined in RCW (~~(9.46.020(9))~~) 9.46.020(10) shall exist or be recognized in any person, except the possessory right of officers enforcing this chapter.

(3) All furnishings, fixtures, equipment, and stock, including without limitation furnishings and fixtures adaptable to nongambling uses and equipment and stock for printing, recording, computing, transporting, or safekeeping, used in connection with professional gambling or maintaining a gambling premises, and all money or other things of value at stake or displayed in or in connection with professional gambling or any gambling device used therein, shall be subject to seizure, immediately upon detection, by any peace officer, and unless good cause is shown to the contrary by the owner, shall be forfeited to the state or political subdivision by which seized by order of a court having jurisdiction, for disposition by public auction or as otherwise provided by law. Bona fide liens against property so forfeited, on good cause shown by the lienor, shall be transferred from the property to the proceeds of the sale of the property. Forfeit moneys and other proceeds realized from the enforcement of this subsection shall be paid into the general fund of the state if the property was seized by officers thereof or to the political subdivision or other public agency, if any, whose officers made the seizure, except as otherwise provided by law. This subsection shall not apply to such items utilized in activities enumerated in RCW 9.46.030, as now or hereafter amended ((~~or~~)), when the items are of the type and kind traditionally and usually employed in connection with the particular activity. Nor shall this subsection apply to any act or acts in furtherance ((~~thereof~~)) of such activities when conducted in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(4) Whoever knowingly owns, manufactures, possesses, buys, sells, rents, leases, finances, holds a security interest in, stores, repairs, or transports any gambling device as defined in RCW 9.46.020 as now or hereafter amended or offers or solicits any interest therein, whether through an agent or employee or otherwise, shall be guilty of a felony and fined not more than one hundred thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than five years or both: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall not apply to devices used in those activities enumerated in RCW 9.46.030, as now or hereafter amended, ((~~or~~)) when the devices are of the type and kind traditionally and usually employed in connection with the particular activity. Nor shall this subsection apply to any act or acts in furtherance ((~~thereof~~)) of such activities when conducted in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. Subsection (2) of this section shall have no application in the enforcement of this subsection. In the enforcement of this subsection direct possession of any such gambling device shall be presumed to be knowing possession thereof.

(5) Whoever knowingly prints, makes, possesses, stores, or transports any gambling record, or buys, sells, offers, or solicits any interest therein, whether through an agent or employee or otherwise, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall not apply to records relating to and kept for activities enumerated in RCW 9.46.030, as now or hereafter amended ((~~or~~)), when the records are of the type and kind traditionally and usually employed in connection with the particular activity. Nor shall this subsection apply to any act or acts in furtherance ((~~thereof~~)) of such activities when conducted in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. In the enforcement of this subsection direct possession of any such gambling record shall be presumed to be knowing possession thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and to chapter 9.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All applications for licenses made to the commission, with the exception of any portions of the applications describing the arrest or conviction record of any person, and all reports required by the commission to be filed by its licensees on a periodic basis concerning the operation of the licensed activity or concerning any organization, association, or business in connection with which a licensed activity is operated, in the commission files, shall be open to public inspection at the commission's offices upon a prior written request of the commission. The staff of the commission may decline to allow an inspection until such time as the inspection will not unduly interfere with the other duties of the staff. The commission may charge the person making a request for an inspection an amount necessary to offset the costs to the commission of providing the inspection and copies of any requested documents.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and to chapter 9.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) For purposes of a prosecution under RCW 9.46.230(4) or a seizure, confiscation, or destruction order under RCW 9.46.230(1), it shall be a defense that the gambling device involved is an antique slot machine and that the antique slot machine was not operated for gambling purposes while in the owner's or defendant's possession. No slot machine, having been seized under this chapter, may be altered, destroyed, or disposed of without affording the owner thereof an opportunity to present a defense under this section. If the defense is applicable, the antique slot machine shall be returned to the owner or defendant, as the court may direct.

(2) RCW 9.46.230(2) shall have no application to any antique slot machine that has not been operated for gambling purposes while in the owner's possession.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a slot machine shall be conclusively presumed to be an antique slot machine if it was manufactured prior to January 1, 1941. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent a person from establishing that a slot machine manufactured on or after January 1, 1941, is an antique slot machine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 623, by Representatives Bauer and Zimmerman:

Exempting capital expenditures of nonprofit water associations from gross income for public utility tax purposes.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 623. On May 23, 1977, an amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander was moved for adoption. On page 1, line 9, after "their" insert "commercial"

On page 1, line 17, after "their" insert "commercial"

On page 1, line 23, after "their" insert "commercial"

Senator Gaspard: "Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, my memory of the committee hearing on this particular issue is, as yours, dealing with the residential home owner. However, when you get up to the higher magnitude of the energy users, there is some concern as to what this type of language that Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander are presenting, what type of a firm that they would be helping, and I am wondering if you or your staff has been able to do any research to find out what industries we are talking about, what magnitude of savings would we be giving them?"

Senator Bottiger: "Yes, Senator Gaspard, I asked the Tacoma City Light for their five biggest customers and what effect this bill would have on those customers. For Hooker Chemical Company we are providing in the eight months that the city surcharge applies a hundred and seventy-four thousand dollars worth of tax relief; Boise Cascade Mill, a hundred and sixteen thousand; St. Regis, eighty-seven thousand; Pennwalt, seventy-one thousand; and Fort Lewis, our military neighbors, fifty-seven thousand dollars in tax relief."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendments to the amendment were not adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander:

On page 1, line 19, strike "energy from other sources"

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, House Bill No. 623, together with the pending amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander and the amendment by Senator Bottiger to the amendment, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for May 25, 1977.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 24, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has adopted SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 121, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 121.

MOTION

At 3:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, May 25, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

SEVENTY-SIXTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wednesday, May 25, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Day, Fleming and Newschwander. On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Newschwander was excused. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Day and Fleming were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Mark Fromong and Lisa Alderin, presented the Colors. Reverend David Kratz, pastor of United Church of Christ of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, IN WHOSE LOVE, ALONE, OUR LIVES ARE HELD SECURE, WE GATHER IN THE MIDST OF DIFFICULT DECISIONS AND CONFLICTING CHALLENGES TO OPEN OURSELVES TO THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF YOUR SPIRIT. THE DEMANDS OFTEN SEEM OVERWHELMING, THE CONFLICTS SEEM NEARLY UNRESOLVABLE, YET WE KNOW THAT ONLY IN THE TURMOIL OF FACING THE HUMAN CHALLENGE DO WE GLIMPSE THE DIVINE REALITY OF OUR LIVES. AND SO WITH HUMILITY THAT COMES FROM AN APPRECIATION OF OUR ULTIMATE DESTINY, WE OFFER THIS DAY AND ITS LABOR TO YOU. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

May 25, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE,
THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON,
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON.

MR. PRESIDENT:

We herewith respectfully transmit for your consideration of several sections vetoed by the governor SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2872, the remainder of which has been designated Chapter 80, Laws of 1977, First Extraordinary Session, together with a copy of the official veto message of the governor setting forth her objections to the section as provided by Article III, Section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and affixed the seal of the State of Washington, at Olympia on the 25th day of May, 1977.

DUANE C. WOODS
Assistant Secretary of State.

PARTIAL VETO
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2872

Office of the Governor, May 24, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to several sections, SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2872 entitled:

An Act Relating to social and health services.

In making much needed revisions in the law to eliminate language offensive to certain of our citizens, the legislature has inadvertently made substantial changes in the law relating to marriage by repealing, in sections 17, 18, 19 and 20 of this bill, the basic prohibitions to be set forth by affidavit of persons desiring to marry. These alterations go far beyond the intent of this bill and should be given close attention by the legislature at some future date.

For the foregoing reasons, I have determined to veto sections 17, 18, 19, and 20. With the exception of those sections, I have approved the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2872.

Sincerely,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

May 24, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2731, and the same is herewith transmitted.

May 24, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has concurred in the Senate amendments to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 165, and has passed the bill as amended by the Senate.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

May 24, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has concurred in the Senate amendments to HOUSE BILL NO. 444, and has passed the bill as amended by the Senate.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2956,
SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 113.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
HOUSE BILL NO. 797,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 821.

MOTION

At 10:15 a.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate recessed until 11:55 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:55 a.m.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 318.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 318, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Hansen, Fortson, Fancher, Gaines, Kilbury, Boldt, Charnley, Amen and Knedlik):

Permitting owners of property subject to condemnation proceedings to give the property to governmental unit involved.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 318, as amended by the Senate on May 20, 1977.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, may I inquire as to the status of this bill and as to whether any amendments have been considered or adopted?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Several amendments have been adopted, Senator Francis, an amendment by Senator Woody on page 1, line 12; another amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Guess."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, if it is not too late to raise scope and object after an amendment has been adopted, I would raise scope and object at this time on any amendments to this bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, it is very unusual to raise scope and object after the body has adopted amendments. All the amendments were adopted. The bill was held over at the request of somebody. Senator Francis has been absent for a week, and the legislation is in a position to be passed, so I would urge that the body go ahead and pass the legislation, be done with it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, Senator Rasmussen is as inaccurate about his amendments as he is about my absence. This is only Wednesday, and he is accurate that I was not here yesterday or I would have raised scope and object then. But if the President will consider that question I do now raise it."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Francis, in reply to your question, the Senate has acted upon these amendments, and therefore raising a point of order as to scope and object would be untimely."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President should offer a word of explanation that if you wish to raise the point of scope and object, that it would be necessary to reconsider the vote by which the amendments were adopted."

MOTION

Senator Francis moved Substitute House Bill No. 318, as amended by the Senate, be rereferred to the Judiciary Committee.
Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Substitute House Bill No. 318, as amended by the Senate, together with the motion by Senator Francis that the bill be rereferred to the Judiciary Committee, was ordered held for May 26, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 470.

SECOND READING

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 4, after "instruction" insert ": PROVIDED FURTHER, That the task force in each district shall be appointed by the school board in each district from residents of the district, and that no less than sixty percent of the members thereof shall be public members not employed by the school district"

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 470, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 470, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Blucchel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—44.

Absent or not voting: Senator Benitz—1.

Excused: Senators Day, Fleming, Newschwander—3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 470, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 559, by Representatives Ehlers, Berentson, Taller, Whiteside, Grim and Gaines:

Adding a retired person to the state employees' insurance board.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 30, 1977.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 559, adding a retired person to the state employees' insurance board (reported by Committee on State Government):

Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike all of section 1 and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1977 and section 34, chapter ... (ESB 2133), Laws of 1977 and RCW 41.05.020 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a state employees' insurance board to be composed as follows: The governor or ~~(his)~~ the governor's designee; one administrative officer representing all of higher education to be appointed by the governor; two higher education faculty members to be appointed by the governor; the director of the department of personnel who shall act as trustee; one representative of an employee association certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees and one representative of an employee union certified as exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, both to be appointed by the governor; one person who is retired and is covered by a program under the jurisdiction of the board, to be appointed by the governor; one member of the senate who shall be appointed by the president of the senate; and one member of the house of representatives who shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. The senate and house members of the board shall serve in ex officio capacity only. All appointments shall be made effective immediately. The terms of office of the administrative officer representing higher education, the two higher education faculty members, the representative of an employee association, the retired person, and the representative of an employee union shall be for four years: PROVIDED, That the first term of one faculty member and one employee association or union representative member shall be for three years. The first meeting of the board shall be held as soon as possible thereafter at the call of the director of personnel. The board shall prescribe rules for the conduct of its business and shall elect a chairman and vice chairman at its first meeting and annually thereafter. Members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be paid for their travel expenses while on official business in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended, and legislative members shall receive allowances provided for in RCW 44.04.120.

(2) The board shall study all matters connected with the providing of adequate health care coverage, life insurance, liability insurance, accidental death and dismemberment insurance, and disability income insurance or any one of, or a combination of, the enumerated types of insurance and health care plans for state employees, employees of county, municipal, or other political subdivisions of the state, and their dependents on the best basis possible with relation both to the welfare of the employees and to the state: PROVIDED, That liability insurance shall not be made available to dependents. The board shall design benefits, devise specifications, analyze carrier responses to advertisements for bids, determine the terms and conditions of employee participation and coverage, and decide on the award of contracts which shall be signed by the trustee on behalf of the board: PROVIDED, That all contracts for insurance, health care plans, or protection applying to employees covered by RCW 28B.10.660 and 48.24.010 and chapters 41.04 and 41.05 RCW shall provide that the beneficiaries of such insurance, health care plans, or protection may utilize on an equal participation basis the services of practitioners licensed pursuant to chapters 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, 18.53, 18.57, 18.71, 18.74, 18.83, and 18.88 RCW: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the boards of trustees and boards of regents of the several institutions of higher education shall retain sole authority to provide liability insurance as provided in RCW 28B.10.660. The board shall from time to time review and amend such plans. Contracts for all plans shall be rebid and awarded at least every five years.

(3) The board shall develop and provide employee health care benefit plans; at least one plan will provide major medical benefits as its primary feature, at least one plan will provide basic first-dollar benefits as its primary feature plus major medical, either or all of which may be provided through a contract or contracts with regularly constituted insurance carriers or health care service contractors as defined in chapter 48.44 RCW, and another plan to be provided by a panel medicine plan in its service area only when approved by the board. Except for panel medicine plans, no more than one insurance carrier or health care service contractor shall be contracted with to provide the same plan of benefits: PROVIDED, That employees may choose participation in only one of the health care benefit plans sponsored by the board: PROVIDED FURTHER, That employees of the institutions of higher education shall be retained as a separate actuarial and experience group."

On line 2 of the title, strike "section 1, chapter ... (HB 173)" and insert "and amending section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1977 and section 34, chapter ... (ESB 2133)"

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Bausch, Buffington, Cunningham, Day, Gould, Henry.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Marsh, Rasmussen and Odegaard to the committee amendment:

On page 1, following line 6, insert a new section 1 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 41.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature, recognizing the desirability of maintaining a healthy work force in order to promote the efficiency and productivity of the employees and officials working for the state, declares it to be in the best interest of the state to provide comprehensive health care to state employees and officials and their dependents."

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, would Senator Marsh yield? Senator Marsh, what is the fiscal impact of this little jewel?"

Senator Marsh: "As far as I know it will be negligible. It will be whatever is placed in the budget for health care benefits. I believe this matter is under consideration by the conferees at the present time. I believe the proposal is to raise the contribution monthly from thirty-five dollars a month to seventy dollars or seventy-two dollars and fifty cents a month, whatever is put into the budget will be the impact of this particular amendment."

Senator Guess: "Senator Marsh, the cost of health care at the level that they contemplate exceeds the price of seventy-two fifty. Does this, by a back door approach, mandate the legislature into picking up the total cost?"

Senator Marsh: "No, it does not."

Senator Guess: "Senator Marsh, would this amendment consider that the health care cost be a part of the salary? In other words, the seventy-two fifty now has to be taken into consideration when you compute the pension?"

Senator Marsh: "No, it would not be a part of the salary."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Donohue, would you yield? Senator Donohue, I know that this is not your amendment. It seems to me that I feel that this has a considerable fiscal impact upon the legislature. We too often mandate ourselves into certain positions, and when you say, 'recognizes the desirability of maintaining a healthy work force, that it be in the best interests of the state to provide comprehensive health care to the—' Does this mean now that we have got to go pick up an additional amount of money other than the seventy-two fifty?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator, I don't think so. The only money that is in the budget at the present time is reflected in the bill that is still in the House which raises the funding level from thirty-five to seventy-two fifty. That is the total amount, and I don't think that this would have any further implication."

Senator Guess: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: "Would Senator Marsh yield? Senator Marsh, if it has no impact, what is the purpose of the amendment?"

Senator Marsh: "I think the purpose of the amendment is, as Senator Guess suggested in his line of questioning, is to clarify that the legislative intent is not to consider the insurance provided to government employees as part of salary."

Senator Scott: "That isn't what the amendment says. Perhaps we had better have you define the meaning of the word 'comprehensive' as it is included in the amendment."

Senator Marsh: "Senator Scott, I would suggest that you make an oral motion to strike the word 'comprehensive'. I would have no objection to your striking that word from the amendment."

On motion of Senator Scott, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Marsh, Rasmussen and Odegaard was adopted:

On line 11 of the amendment, after "provide" and before "health" strike "comprehensive"

The motion by Senator Marsh carried and the amendment, as amended, to the committee amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 559, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 559, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wälgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—44.

Absent or not voting: Senator Benitz—1.

Excused: Senators Day, Fleming, Newschwander—3.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 559, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I want to apologize to Senator Francis for hitting at him so hard for being absent. I realize that due to the long session there are cases that have to be set that they cannot get out of in the courts, and there are other reasons that people have to be absent. It all points up the fact that we have been here too long. I am getting a little snappish, and I hope that doesn't infect the rest of the people here. But the session—the length of the session, of course, makes it necessary for some people to be absent. I hope Senator Francis will accept my apology."

MOTION

At 12:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Wälgren, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 125, by Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Ehlers, Hawkins, Erickson, Hanna and Salatino):

Revising laws affecting residents of soldiers' and veterans' homes.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 20, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 125, revising laws affecting residents of soldiers' and veterans' homes (reported by Committee on State Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 72.36.030, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 1, chapter 13, Laws of 1975 and RCW 72.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All honorably discharged (~~soldiers, sailors and marines~~) veterans who have served the United States government in any of its wars, and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, may be admitted to the state soldiers' home at Orting under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the department: PROVIDED, That such applicants have been actual bona fide (~~citizens~~) residents of this state at the time of their application, and are indigent and unable to support themselves: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the surviving spouses of all veterans and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, who were members of a soldiers' home or colony or veterans' home in this state or entitled to admission thereto at the time of death, and surviving spouses of all such veterans and members of the state militia, who would have been entitled to admission to a soldiers' home or colony or veterans' home in this state at the time of death, but for the fact that they were not indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves and families, which spouses have since the death of their husbands or wives, become indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves shall be admitted to such home: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That such spouses are not less than fifty years of age and were married and living with their husbands or wives on or before three years prior to the date of their application, and have not been married since the decease of their husbands or wives to any person not a member of a soldiers' home or colony or veterans' home in this state or entitled to admission thereto: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, That sufficient facilities and resources are available to accommodate such applicant.

Sec. 2. Section 72.36.040, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 101, Laws of 1973 and section 102, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 72.36.040 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established what shall be known as the "Colony of the State Soldiers' Home." All of the following persons who reside within the limits of Orting school district and have been actual bona fide (~~(citizens)~~) residents of this state (~~(for a period of three years)~~) at the time of their application and who have personal property of less than one thousand five hundred dollars and/or a monthly income insufficient to meet their needs outside of residence in such colony and soldiers' home as determined by ((the)) standards of the ((county welfare)) department of veterans' affairs, may be admitted to membership in said colony under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the department.

(1) All honorably discharged (~~(soldiers, sailors and marines,)~~) veterans who have served in the armed forces of the United States during wartime, members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, and their respective spouses with whom they have lived for three years prior to application for membership in said colony. Also, the spouse of any such veteran or disabled member of the state militia is eligible for membership in said colony, if such spouse is the widow or widower of a veteran who was a member of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto at the time of death: PROVIDED, That such veterans and members of the state militia shall, while they are members of said colony, be living with their said spouses.

(2) The spouses of all veterans who were members of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto at the time of death, and the spouses of all veterans who would have been entitled to admission to a soldiers' home or colony in this state at the time of death but for the fact that they were not indigent and unable to support themselves and families, which spouses have since the death of their said husbands or wives become indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves: PROVIDED, That such spouses are not less than fifty years of age and have not been married since the decease of their said husbands or wives to any person not a member of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto. Any resident of said colony may be admitted to the (~~(hospital at the)) state soldiers' home for temporary care when requiring ((hospital)) treatment.~~

Sec. 3. Section 72.36.060, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 and RCW 72.36.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The state treasurer is authorized to receive any and all moneys appropriated or paid by the United States under the act of congress entitled "An Act to provide aid to state or territorial homes for disabled soldiers and sailors of the United States," approved August 27, 1888, or under any other act or acts of congress for the benefit of such homes. Such moneys shall be deposited in the general fund and shall be expended for the maintenance of the soldiers' home and veterans' home.

Sec. 4. Section 72.36.070, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 and RCW 72.36.070 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be established and maintained in this state a branch of the state soldiers' home, under the name of the "Washington veterans' home," which branch shall be a home for honorably discharged (~~(soldiers, sailors and marines))~~ veterans who have served the United States government in any of its wars, members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, and who are bona fide citizens of the state, and also the (~~(wives))~~ spouses of such (~~(soldiers, sailors and marines))~~ veterans.

Sec. 5. Section 72.36.080, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1975 and RCW 72.36.080 are each amended to read as follows:

All of the following persons who have been actual bona fide residents of this state at the time of their application, and who are indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves and families may be admitted to the Washington veterans' home under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the director: PROVIDED, That sufficient facilities and resources are available to accommodate such person:

(1) All honorably discharged veterans of the armed forces of the United States who have served the United States in any of its wars, and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, and the spouses of such veterans, and members of the state militia: PROVIDED, That such spouse was married to and living with such veteran on or before three years prior to the date of application for admittance, or, if married to him or her since that date, was also a member of a soldiers' home or colony or veterans' home in this state or entitled to admission thereto.

(2) The spouses of all soldiers, sailors, and marines and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, who were members of a soldiers' home or colony or veterans' home in this state or entitled to admission thereto at the time of death, and spouses of all such soldiers, sailors, and marines and members of the state militia, who would have been entitled to admission to a soldiers' home or colony or veterans' home in this state at the time of death but for the fact that they were not indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves and families, which spouses have since the death of their husbands or wives, become indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves: PROVIDED, That such spouses are not less than fifty years of age and were married and living with their husbands or wives on or before three years prior to the date of their application, and have not been married since the decease of their husbands or wives to any person not a member of a soldiers' home or colony or veterans' home in this state or entitled to admission thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 28, Laws of 1959 and to chapter 72.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The soldiers' home and colony at Orting and the Washington veterans' home at Retsil shall provide both domiciliary and nursing care. The level of domiciliary members shall remain consistent with the facilities available to accommodate those members: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall preclude the department from moving residents between nursing and domiciliary care in order to better utilize facilities and maintain the appropriate care for the members.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 28, Laws of 1959 and to chapter 72.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All income of members of the soldiers' home in excess of allowable income shall be deposited in the soldiers' home revolving fund as established in section 55, chapter 269, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (uncodified, and herein continued and reenacted).

(1) Allowable income shall be defined by the rules and regulations adopted by the department: PROVIDED, That the allowable income of members accepted for membership shall not be decreased below one hundred sixty dollars per month during periods that such members are resident thereat.

(2) Disbursements from the soldiers' home revolving fund shall be for the benefit and welfare of all members of the soldiers' home and such disbursements shall be on the authorization of the superintendent or his authorized representative after approval has been received from a duly constituted body representative of the members.

(3) In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control, the soldiers' home revolving fund shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation shall be required to permit expenditures from such funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 28, Laws of 1959 and to chapter 72.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All income of members of the veterans' home in excess of allowable income shall be deposited in the veterans' home revolving fund as established in section 55, chapter 269, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (uncodified, and herein continued and reenacted).

(1) Allowable income shall be defined by the rules and regulations adopted by the department. However, the allowable income of members accepted for membership shall not be decreased below one hundred sixty dollars per month during periods that such members are resident thereat.

(2) Disbursements from the veterans' home revolving fund shall be for the benefit and welfare of all members of the Washington veterans' home and such disbursements shall be on the authorization of the superintendent of the home or his duly authorized representative after approval has been received from a duly constituted body representative of the members.

(3) In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control, the veterans' home revolving fund shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation shall be required to permit expenditures from such funds.

Sec. 9. Section 72.36.090, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 and RCW 72.36.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendents of the state soldiers' home and colony ((is)) and the state veterans' home are hereby authorized to:

(1) Institute programs of (~~occupational therapy and~~) hobby promotion designed to improve the general welfare and mental condition of the persons under (~~his~~) their supervision;

(2) Provide for the financing of these programs by (~~loans~~) grants from funds in the superintendent's custody through operation of canteens and exchanges at such institutions;

(3) Limit the hobbies (~~and occupational therapy~~) sponsored to projects which will, in (~~his~~) their judgment, be self-liquidating or self-sustaining.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 28, Laws of 1959 and to chapter 72.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In the maintenance of the Washington soldiers' home and colony and the Washington veterans' home by the state through the department of veterans' affairs, such maintenance shall include, but not be limited to, the provision of members' room and board, medical and dental care, physical and occupational therapy, and recreational activities, with the necessary implementing transportation, equipment, and personnel therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 28, Laws of 1959 and to chapter 72.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, "actual bona fide residents of this state" shall mean persons who have a domicile in the state of Washington immediately prior to application for membership in the soldiers' home or colony or veterans' home. The term "domicile" shall mean a person's true, fixed, and permanent home and place of habitation, and shall be the place where the person intends to remain, and to which the person expects to return when the person leaves without intending to establish a new domicile elsewhere.

Sec. 12. Section 14, chapter 115, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.60A.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a state veterans affairs advisory committee which shall serve in an advisory capacity to the governor and the director of the department of veterans affairs. The committee shall be composed of (~~nine~~) eleven members to be appointed by the governor, and shall consist of two veterans at large, one of whom shall be a Viet Nam era veteran(~~;~~); one representative of the Washington soldiers' home and colony at Orting; one representative of the Washington veterans' home at Retsil; and one representative of each of the following congressionally chartered veterans organizations: American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Veterans of World War II, Korea and Vietnam, Disabled American Veterans, Military Order of the Purple Heart, Marine Corps League, and Veterans of World War I. The seven members representing the foregoing organizations shall be chosen from a list of twenty-one nominees consisting of three names submitted to the governor by each of the named organizations. (~~The first members of the committee shall hold office as follows: Three members to serve two years, three members to serve three years, and three members to serve four years. Upon expiration of said original terms.~~) Immediately after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, all positions on the committee shall become vacant, and the governor shall appoint four members to serve two years, four members to serve three years, and three members to serve four years. Subsequent appointments shall be for four years except in the case of a vacancy, in which event appointment shall be only for the remainder of the unexpired term for which the vacancy occurs. No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms.

(2) The state advisory committee shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To serve in an advisory capacity to the (~~director and the~~) governor and the director on all matters pertaining to the department of veterans affairs;

(b) To acquaint themselves fully with the operations of the department and recommend such changes to the governor and the director as they deem advisable.

(3) Members of the state advisory committee shall receive no compensation for the performance of their duties but shall receive a per diem allowance and mileage expense according to the provisions of chapter 43.03 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, on line 1 of the title, after "institutions;" and before "amending" insert "amending section 14, chapter 115, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.60A.080;"

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Bausch, Buffington, Day, Henry.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Senator Rasmussen, I have carefully read both the original bill as it came from the House together with your amendment. As I understand it, your amendment strikes the entire original bill, but then reenacts the entire original bill and adds on to the provision about the commission membership. Is that correct? We could not adopt the committee amendment and have the House bill and your bill with that exception intact."

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, this would put it all in one bill, Senator Bottiger."

Debate ensued.

Senator Lewis demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Bottiger, Guess, Clarke, Wanamaker, Sellar, North, Rasmussen, Wojahn and Ridder.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 6; nays, 32; absent or not voting, 8; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Day, Mardesich, Peterson, Rasmussen, Talley, Van Hollebeke—6.

Absent or not voting: Senators Donohue, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Odegaard, Sandison, Walgren, Woody—8.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Newschwander—2.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 125 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 125, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—41.

Absent or not voting: Senators Donohue, Herr, Odegaard, Sandison, Walgren—5.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Newschwander—2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 125, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the following bill passed the Senate:

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 559, by Representatives Ehlers, Berentson, Taller, Whiteside, Grimm and Gaines:

Adding a retired person to the state employees' insurance board.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 559 was returned to second reading.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Marsh yield? Senator Marsh, in your taking the amendment off, will that also take off all the remarks that were on the floor?"

Senator Marsh: "I will ask the presiding officer if that could be done, and if possible, I would move that those remarks be stricken from the record."

MOTIONS FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate moved to reconsider adoption of the committee amendment.

Having voted on the prevailing side, on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate moved to reconsider adoption of the amendment by Senators Marsh, Rasmussen and Odegaard to the committee amendment.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Marsh, the amendment to the committee amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the committee amendment, on reconsideration, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 559, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Absent or not voting: Senators Benitz, Bottiger, Donohue, Odegaard, Sandison, Walgren—6.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Newschwander—2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 559, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, on reconsideration, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 798, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representative O'Brien):

Expanding the right to be free from discrimination.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 798. On May 24, 1977, the committee amendment was ruled out of order. At that time, Senator Walgren moved the bill be held for further consideration on May 25, 1977. On motion of Senator Day, the bill was made a special order of business for 2:30 p.m., May 25, 1977.

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 23, after "discrimination" insert "including the utilization on an equal participation basis of the services of practitioners licensed pursuant to chapters 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, 18.53, 18.57, 18.71, 18.74, 18.83, and 18.88 RCW, except for prepaid group practice plans"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Sellar: "Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. I would like to raise the point of scope and object on this particular amendment. I believe the bill deals with Chapter 49 of the RCW, and the bill specifically deals with foreign trade and boycotts and embargoes. The amendment deals with an entirely different chapter which deals with medical health providers, and I would like to challenge the scope and object to that amendment."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Substitute House Bill No. 798, together with the amendment by Senator Day and the Point of Order raised by Senator Sellar, was ordered held for further consideration following Engrossed House Bill No. 150.

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 150.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 150, by Representatives May, Grier and Wilson:

Revising the definition of "public work" for government contracts.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 24, after "maintenance" and before "shall" strike ", performed by private contractors" and insert "when performed by contract"

Signed by: Senators Wilson, Chairman; North, Sellar, Talley.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Wilson moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Wilson carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 150, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Mandating certain public agencies to make surplus books, equipment, etc. available at depreciated cost to private schools.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 26, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 656, mandating certain public agencies to make surplus books, equipment, etc. available at depreciated cost to private schools (reported by Committee on Education):

Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 11, after "writing" strike all of the material down to and including "HOWEVER," on page 1, line 14 and insert "that the same is available for sale to private schools at depreciated cost, or fair market value, whichever is higher, prior to other disposal thereof, if requested in writing by the private schools within one year: PROVIDED, That"

Signed by: Senators McDermott, Chairman; Francis, Gaspard, Gould, Hayner, Murray, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 656, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 656, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yeas: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Francis, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebecke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—44.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 417.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 417, by Representatives Sherman, Warnke, Ehlers and Lysen:

Restricting taxes on bingo, raffles, or amusement games only under specified conditions.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 5, 1977.

HOUSE BILL NO. 417, restricting taxes on bingo, raffles, or amusement games only under specified conditions (reported by Committee on Commerce):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, beginning on line 7, after "bingo" strike ", raffles and amusement games" and insert "((;)) and raffles (~~and amusement games~~)"

On page 2, beginning on line 10, after "prizes" strike all of the material down to and including "year" on line 18 and insert "Taxation of amusement games shall only be in an amount sufficient to pay the actual costs of enforcement of the provisions of this chapter by the county, city or town law enforcement agency and in no event shall such taxation exceed two percent of the gross revenue therefrom less the amount paid for as prizes: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no tax shall be imposed under the authority of this chapter on bingo, raffles or amusement games when such activities or any combination thereof are conducted by any bona fide charitable or non-profit organization as defined in RCW 9.46.020(3), which organization has no paid operating or management personnel and has gross income from bingo, raffles or amusement games, or any combination thereof, not exceeding five thousand dollars per year less the amount paid for as prizes"

Signed by: Senators Van Hollebeke, Chairman; Bausch, Morrison.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Van Hollebeke moved the two committee amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Will Senator Morrison yield? Senator Morrison, as I read the committee amendment, the only place where the charitable organization is included is with the 'PROVIDED FURTHER' section. If you start at the beginning of the committee amendment, it talks about taxation of amusement games which it appears to me could be taxation of amusement games in commercial establishments as well as for the non-profit or charitable organization. So, it seems to me that the first part of the committee amendment speaks to commercial establishments, not simply to non-profit or charitable organizations. Is that correct?"

Senator Morrison: "I believe that is correct, Senator Goltz, and I can't answer your question fully, so maybe this could be held over until we can get the correct answer for you."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, House Bill No. 417, together with the committee amendments, was ordered held for further consideration following House Bill No. 694.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 694, by Representatives Boldt and Kilbury:

Authorizing the state patrol to dispose of certain real property.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 828, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 1.

Voting yeas: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Odgaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—47.

Excused: Senator Newschwander—1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 828, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 842, by Representatives Thompson and Whiteside (by Secretary of State request):

Removing county auditor filing requirements for business corporations.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 842 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 842, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—43.

Voting nay: Senator Woody—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Matson, McDermott, Woody—3.

Excused: Senator Newschwander—1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 842, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 417, by Representatives Sherman, Warnke, Ehlers and Lysen:

Restricting taxes on bingo, raffles, or amusement games only under specified conditions.

The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 417. The two committee amendments had been moved for adoption by Senator Van Hollebeke earlier today.

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORRISON

Senator Morrison: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, the provisions referred to by Senator Wojahn, we find that one of the reasons that the gambling commission is supporting this particular language in the committee amendment is the fact that very few cities or counties actually collect this tax at all, now. They look at the groups, see that they are non-profitable or charitable, and they are raising a rather limited amount through these raffles or bingos, and just don't bother to collect the tax at all. So, the commission has asked for this particular amendment in the form that it is in, and so I think it is worthy of our support."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Van Hollebeke carried and the committee amendments were adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 417, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 417, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 13; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Grant, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Woody—32.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, North, Pullen, Scott, von Reichbauer, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—13.

Absent or not voting: Senators Matson, McDermott—2.

Excused: Senator Newschwander—1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 417, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional sixty percent majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Morrison was excused.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator McDermott was excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 798.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 798, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representative O'Brien):

Expanding the right to be free from discrimination.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 798. Earlier today, Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment and a Point of Order was raised by Senator Sellar:

On page 1, line 23, after "discrimination" insert "including the utilization on an equal participation basis of the services of practitioners licensed pursuant to chapters 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, 18.53, 18.57, 18.71, 18.74, 18.83, and 18.88 RCW, except for prepaid group practice plans"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Sellar, the President finds that Substitute House Bill 798 is a measure which expands the right to be free from discrimination in commerce and relates specifically to discriminatory boycotts or blacklists. Discriminatory boycotts or blacklists are defined in the bill as arrangements which are imposed by 'a foreign government or foreign person.'

"The amendment proposed by Senator Day deals with podiatrists, chiropractors, dentists, optometrists, osteopaths, physicians, physical therapists, psychologists and registered nurses, and with the right of such health care providers to be free from insurance related discrimination, except that which may be imposed by prepaid group practice plans.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Day was ruled out of order.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Day: "Point of personal privilege. I bow to the superior knowledge of the President and also to the four hundred and ninety-five million in annual premium of Washington Physician's Service."

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment by Senators Francis and Wojahn was adopted:

On page 2, line 19, after "to" strike "~~(sex discrimination)~~" and insert "sex discrimination or"

There being no objection, on motion of Senator North, an amendment to page 1, line 24, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 798, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 798, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 4.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 798, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2480.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 19, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2480, with the following amendments:

Beginning on page 3, line 35, delete the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Service performed in agricultural labor on and after January 1, 1978, for a farm operator or crew leader will be deemed services in employment if the farm operator or crew leader:

(a) Paid twenty thousand dollars or more as remuneration to individuals employed in agricultural labor during any calendar quarter in the current or preceding calendar year; or

(b) Employed ten or more individuals in agricultural labor for some portion of the day in each of twenty different calendar weeks in either the current or preceding calendar year regardless of whether they were employed at the same moment of time or whether or not the weeks were consecutive.

(2) A farm operator is the owner or tenant of the farmlands who stands to gain or lose economically from the operations of the farm. Employment will be considered employment by the farm operator unless it is established to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the services were performed in the employ of a crew leader. The risk of nonpersuasion is upon the farm operator. The operator will nonetheless be liable for contributions under RCW 50.24.130 even though services performed on the operator's farmlands would not be sufficient to bring the services under the term employment if services performed on the operator's land in the employ of a crew leader would be covered and the crew leader has failed to pay contributions on the services. For the purposes of the preceding sentence and RCW 50.24.130, all moneys paid or payable to the crew leader by the farm operator shall be deemed paid for services unless there is a written contract clearly specifying the amounts of money to be attributed to items other than services of the crew leader or the crew leader's employees.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a crew leader is a person who furnishes individuals to perform services in agricultural labor for the benefit of any other person, who pays for the services performed in agricultural labor (either on his or her own behalf or on behalf of the other person), and who has not made a written agreement making himself or herself an employee of the other person: PROVIDED, That no person shall be deemed a crew leader unless he or she is established independently of the person for whom the services are performed and either has a valid certificate of registration under the farm labor contractor registration act of 1963 or substantially all the members of his or her crew operate or maintain tractors, mechanized harvesting or crop dusting equipment, or any other mechanized equipment which is provided by the crew leader.

Sec. 4. Section 17, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 4, chapter 215, Laws of 1947 and RCW 50.04.160 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The term "employment" shall not include domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That)~~ Services performed in domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority shall not be considered services in employment unless the services are performed after December 31, 1977, for a person who paid remuneration of one thousand dollars or more to individuals employed in this domestic service in any calendar quarter in the current or the preceding calendar year. The terms local college club and local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority shall not be deemed to include alumni clubs or chapters.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Services performed by aliens legally or illegally admitted to the United States shall be considered services in employment subject to the payment of contributions to the extent that services by citizens are covered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Benefits shall not be paid to any individual on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during the period between two successive sport seasons (or similar periods) if the individual performed the services in the first of the seasons (or similar periods) and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform the services in the latter of the seasons (or similar periods).

Sec. 7. Section 28, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "employment" shall not include casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business (labor which does not promote or advance the trade or business of the employer). Temporary labor in the usual course of an employer's trade or business or domestic services as defined in RCW 50.04.160 shall not be deemed to be casual labor.

Sec. 8. Section 31, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 10, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.04.300 are each amended to read as follows:

"State" includes, in addition to the states of the United States of America, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Sec. 9. Section 44, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 11, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this section the terms "other state" and "another state" shall be deemed to include any state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and any foreign government and, where applicable, shall also be deemed to include the federal government or provisions of a law of the federal government, as the case may be.

As used in this section the term "claim" shall be deemed to include whichever of the following terms is applicable, to wit: "Application for initial determination", "claim for waiting period credit", or "claim for benefits".

The commissioner shall enter into an agreement with any other state whereby in the event an individual files a claim in another state against wages earned in employment in this state, or against wage credits earned in this state and in any other state or who files a claim in this state against wage credits earned in employment in any other state, or against wages earned in this state and in any other state, the claim will be paid by this state or another state as designated by the agreement in accordance with a determination on the claim as provided by the agreement and pursuant to the qualification and disqualification provisions of this title or under the provisions of the law of the designated paying state (including another state) or under such a combination of the provisions of both laws as shall be determined by the commissioner as being fair and reasonable to all affected interests, and whereby the wages of such individual, if earned in two or more states (including another state) may be combined, and further, whereby this state or another state shall reimburse the paying state in an amount which shall bear the same ratio to the amount of benefits already paid as the amount of wage credits transferred by this state or another state, and used in the determination, bear to the total wage credits used in computing the claimant's maximum amount of benefits potentially payable.

Whenever any claim is filed by an individual involving the combination of wages or a reciprocal arrangement for the payment of benefits, which is governed by the provisions of this section, the employment security department of this state, when not designated as the paying state, shall promptly make a report to the other state making the determination, showing wages earned in employment in this state.

The commissioner is hereby authorized to make to another state and to receive from another state reimbursements from or to the unemployment compensation fund in accordance with arrangements made pursuant to the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Benefits shall not be paid on the basis of services performed by an alien unless the alien is an individual who has been lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise is permanently residing in the United States under color of law (including an alien who is lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1153(a)(7) or 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1182(d)(5): PROVIDED, That any modifications to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3304(a)(14) as provided by PL 94-566 which specify other conditions or other effective date than stated herein for the denial of benefits based on services performed by aliens and which modifications are required to be implemented under state law as a condition for full tax credit against the tax imposed by 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3301 shall be deemed applicable under this section.

(2) Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits.

(3) In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to the individual are not payable because of his or her alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence.

Sec. 11. Section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 7, chapter 73, Laws of 1973 and RCW 50.22.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Extended benefit period" means a period which:

(a) Begins with the third week after whichever of the following weeks occurs first:

(i) A week for which there is a national "on" indicator((:)); or

(ii) A week for which there is a state "on" indicator(~~(: -PROVIDED, That, as there was a state "on" indicator for the week which was three weeks prior to October 11, 1970, an extended benefit period began on that date:); and~~

(b) Ends with the third week after the first week for which there is both a national "off" indicator and a state "off" indicator: PROVIDED, That no extended benefit period shall last for a period of less than thirteen consecutive weeks, and further that no extended benefit period may begin by reason of a state "on" indicator before the fourteenth week after the close of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state(~~(: -AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That prior to January 1, 1972, an extended benefit period may become effective and be terminated in this state solely by reason of a state "on" and a state "off" indicator, respectively)).~~

(2) There is a "national 'on' indicator" for a week if the United States secretary of labor determines that ((for each of the three most recent calendar months ending before such week, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states equaled or exceeded four and five-tenths percent)) for the period consisting of such week and the twelve weeks immediately preceding it, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states equaled or exceeded four and five-tenths percent (determined by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first four of the most recent six calendar quarters ending before the close of the period).

(3) There is a "national 'off' indicator" for a week if the United States secretary of labor determines that ((for each of the three most recent calendar months ending before such week, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than four and five-tenths percent)) for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than four and five-tenths percent (determined by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first four of the most recent six calendar quarters ending before the close of the period).

(4) There is a "state 'on' indicator" for this state for a week if the commissioner determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States secretary of labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) ((as determined under the provisions of subsection (6) of this section)) either:

(a) Equalled or exceeded one hundred twenty percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding thirteen-week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years(;) and equalled or exceeded four percent; or

(b) Equalled or exceeded ((four)) five percent.

(5) There is a "state 'off' indicator" for this state for a week if the commissioner determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States secretary of labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) ((as determined under the provisions of subsection (6) of this section)) was either:

(a) Less than ((one hundred twenty percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding thirteen-week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years)) four percent; or

(b) ((Less than)) Four percent or more but less than five percent and the rate of insured unemployment was less than one hundred twenty percent of the average of the rates for the corresponding thirteen week period ending in each of the two preceding calendar years.

(6) ((Rate of insured unemployment", for purposes of subsections (4) and (5) of this section, means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals filing claims in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent thirteen consecutive week period, as determined by the commissioner on the basis of his reports to the United States secretary of labor, by the average monthly employment covered under this title for the first four of the most recent six completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such thirteen-week period.

((7)) "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this title or(;) under any state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) other than extended benefits or additional benefits.

((8)) (7) "Extended benefits" means benefits payable for weeks of unemployment beginning in an extended benefit period to an individual under this title or under any state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) other than ((emergency benefits payable to an individual under the provisions of this chapter for weeks of unemployment in his eligibility period)) regular or additional benefits.

((9)) (8) "Additional benefits" are benefits ((other than regular benefits or extended benefits)) totally financed by the state and payable under this title to exhaustees by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors.

((10)) (9) "Eligibility period" of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in his benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period that is in effect in this state and, if his benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such period.

((+)) (10) "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in his eligibility period:

(b) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this title or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and regular benefits available to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) in his current benefit year that includes such week, after the cancellation of some or all of his wage credits or the total or partial reduction of his rights to regular benefits: PROVIDED, That, for the purposes of (a) and (b), an individual shall be deemed to have received in his current benefit year all of the regular benefits that were payable to him, or available to him, as the case may be, even though:

(i) As a result of a pending appeal with respect to wages or employment, or both, that were not included in the original monetary determination with respect to his current benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to more regular benefits; or

(ii) By reason of the seasonal provisions of another state law, he is not entitled to regular benefits with respect to such week of unemployment (although he may be entitled to regular benefits with respect to future weeks of unemployment in the next season, as the case may be, in his current benefit year), and he is otherwise an exhaustee within the meaning of this section with respect to his right to regular benefits under such state law seasonal provisions during the season or off season in which that week of unemployment occurs; or

(iii) Having established a benefit year, no regular benefits are payable to him during such year because his wage credits were canceled or his right to regular benefits was totally reduced as the result of the application of a disqualification; or

(c) His benefit year having ended prior to such week, he has insufficient wages or employment, or both, on the basis of which he could establish in any state a new benefit year that would include such week, or having established a new benefit year that includes such week, he is precluded from receiving regular benefits by reason of the provision in RCW 50.04.030 which meets the requirement of section 3304(a)(7) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, or the similar provision in any other state law; and

(d) (i) Has no right for such week to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, and such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the United States secretary of labor; and

(ii) Has not received and is not seeking for such week unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of the Virgin Islands or Canada, unless the appropriate agency finally determines that he is not entitled to unemployment benefits under such law for such week.

((+)) (11) "State law" means the unemployment insurance law of any state, approved by the United States secretary of labor under section 3304 of the internal revenue code of 1954.

Sec. 12. Section 104, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Any employing unit for which services that do not constitute employment as defined in this title are performed may file with the commissioner a written election that all such services performed by any distinct class or group of individuals or by all individuals in its employ in one or more distinct establishments or places of business shall be deemed to constitute employment for all the purposes of this title for not less than two calendar years. Upon the written approval of such election by the commissioner, such services shall be deemed to constitute employment subject to this title from and after the date stated in such approval(~~(- PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any political subdivision of this state or any instrumentality of a political subdivision may elect coverage in accordance with the provisions of RCW 50.44.030 as a matter of right)~~). Services covered pursuant to this section shall cease to be deemed employment subject hereto as of January 1st of any calendar year subsequent to such two calendar years, only if the employing unit files with the commissioner prior to the fifteenth day of January of such year a written application for termination of coverage(~~(- PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the provisions of RCW 50.04.200 to the contrary notwithstanding, public port districts may elect to cover the services of all or any distinct class or group of individuals in its employ on a contribution basis; such election shall preclude said port districts from covering contemporaneous services of any other class or group of employees under the provisions of RCW 50.44.030)~~).

Sec. 13. Section 19, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.44.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Commencing with benefit years beginning on or after January 28, 1971, services performed subsequent to September 30, 1969 in the employ of this state or any of its wholly owned instrumentalities or jointly owned instrumentalities of this state and another state or this state and one or more of its political subdivisions shall be deemed services in employment unless such services are excluded from the term employment by RCW 50.44.040.

The state shall make payments in lieu of contributions with respect to benefits attributable to such employment as provided with respect to nonprofit organizations in subsections (2) and (3) of RCW 50.44.060: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That for weeks of unemployment beginning after January 1, 1979, the state shall pay in addition to the full amount of regular and additional benefits so attributable the full amount of extended benefits so attributable: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no payment will be required from the state until the expiration of the twelve-month period following the end of the biennium in which the benefits attributable to such employment were paid. The amount of this payment shall include an amount equal to the amount of interest that would have been realized for the benefit of the unemployment compensation trust fund had such payments been received within thirty days after the day of the quarterly billing provided for in RCW 50.44.060(2)(a).

Sec. 14. Section 20, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 2, chapter 35, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 50.44.030 are each amended to read as follows:

~~For the purposes of this chapter the term "hospital" means any institution primarily engaged in the treatment of emotional or physical disability which provides, on a regular basis, twenty-four hour per day bed care under the supervision of licensed medical personnel and those components, of other institutions, which are primarily engaged in the treatment of emotional or physical disability and which~~ provide, on a regular basis, twenty-four hour per day bed care under the supervision of licensed medical personnel:

For the purposes of this chapter, the term "institution of higher education" means an educational institution in this state which

(1) Admits as regular students only individuals having a certificate of graduation from a high school, or the recognized equivalent of such a certificate;

(2) Is legally authorized within this state to provide a program of education beyond high school;

(3) Provides an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's or higher degree, or provides a program which is acceptable for full credit toward such a degree, or offers a program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation; and

(4) Is a public or other nonprofit institution;

(5) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing subsections, all colleges and universities in this state are "institutions of higher education".

Services covered by the election performed subsequent to the date of such election shall be deemed services in employment unless such services are excluded from the term "employment" by RCW 50.44.040.

Any political subdivision or instrumentality electing coverage under this section shall make payments in lieu of contributions with respect to benefits attributable to such employment as provided with respect to nonprofit organizations in subsections (2) and (3) of RCW 50.44.060.

An election under the provisions of this section shall be for no less than two calendar years. A political subdivision or instrumentality of a political subdivision desiring to terminate coverage may do so by filing a written application for termination of coverage no later than the December fifteenth preceding the calendar year with respect to which such termination is to be effective. Termination of coverage will not relieve the political subdivision or instrumentality of a political subdivision of the obligation to reimburse the unemployment compensation fund for all benefits paid attributable to service performed during the covered period in the employ of such political subdivision or instrumentality of a political subdivision.))

(1) All services performed for each political subdivision or instrumentality of one or more political subdivisions of this state or one or more political subdivisions of this state and any other state after December 31, 1977, will be deemed to be services in employment to the extent coverage is not exempted under RCW 50.44.040.

(2) All such units of government shall file, before December 15, 1977, a written registration with the commissioner of the employment security department. Such registration shall specify the manner in which the unit of government will finance the payment of benefits. The elections available to counties, cities and towns are the local government tax, provided for in section 15 of this 1977 amendatory act, or payments in lieu of contributions, as described in RCW 50.44.060. The elections available to other units of government are the contributions plan in chapters 50.24 and 50.29 RCW, or payments in lieu of contributions, described in RCW 50.44.060. Under any election the governmental unit will be charged the full amount of regular and additional benefits attributable to its account plus one-half the amount of extended benefits so attributable: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That beginning with weeks of unemployment commencing after January 1, 1979, the unit of government which is financing the payment of benefits under the payment in lieu of contributions option shall, in addition to paying the full amount of regular and additional benefits attributable to its account, pay the full amount of extended benefits so attributable.

(3) Any political subdivision or instrumentality of more than one political subdivision of this state is hereby authorized to enter into agreements with other political subdivisions or instrumentalities of more than one political subdivision of this state to form pool accounts for the purpose of making payments in lieu of contributions. These accounts shall be formed and administered in accordance with applicable regulations. The formation of such accounts shall not relieve the governmental unit of the responsibility for making required payments in the event that the pool account does not make the payments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and to chapter 50.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any county, city or town not electing to make payments in lieu of contributions shall pay a "local government tax." Taxes paid under this section shall be paid into an administratively identifiable account in the unemployment compensation fund. This account shall be self-sustaining. For calendar years 1978 and 1979 all such employers shall pay local government tax at the rate of one and one-quarter percent of all remuneration paid by the governmental unit for services in its employment. For each year after 1979 each such employer's rate of tax shall be determined in accordance with this section: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That whenever it appears to the commissioner that the anticipated benefit payments from the account would jeopardize reasonable reserves in this identifiable account the commissioner may at the commencement of any calendar quarter, impose an emergency excess tax of not more than one percent of remuneration paid by the participating governmental units which "excess tax" shall be paid in addition to the applicable rate computed pursuant to this section until the calendar year following the next September 1.

(2) A reserve account shall be established for each such employer.

(a) The "reserve account" of each such employer shall be credited with tax amounts paid and shall be charged with benefit amounts charged in accordance with the formula set forth in RCW 50.44.060 as now or hereafter amended except that such employer's account shall be charged for the full amount of extended benefits so attributable for weeks of unemployment commencing after January 1, 1979. Such credits and charges shall be cumulative from January 1, 1978.

(b) After the cutoff date, the "reserve ratio" of each such employer shall be computed by dividing its reserve account balance as of the computation date by the total remuneration paid during the preceding calendar year for services in its employment. This division shall be carried to four decimal places, with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded.

(3) A "benefit cost ratio" for each such employer shall be computed by dividing its total benefit charges during the thirty-six months ending on June 30 by its total remuneration during the three preceding calendar years: PROVIDED, That after August 31 in 1979 each employer's total benefit charges for the twelve months ending on June 30 shall be divided by its total remuneration paid in the last three quarters of calendar year 1978; and after August 31 in 1980 each employer's total benefit charges for the twenty-four months ending June 30 shall be divided by its total remuneration paid in the last three calendar quarters of 1978 and the four calendar quarters of 1979. Such computations shall be carried to four decimal places, with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded.

(4) For each such employer its benefit cost ratio shall be subtracted from its reserve ratio. One-third of the resulting amount shall be subtracted from its benefit cost ratio. The resulting figure, expressed as a percentage and rounded to the nearest tenth of one percent, shall become its local government tax rate for the following rate year. For the rate year 1980 no tax rate shall be less than 0.6 percent nor more than 2.2 percent. For 1981 no tax rate shall be less than 0.4 percent nor more than 2.6 percent. For years after 1981 no tax rate shall be less than 0.2 percent or more than 3.0 percent. No individual rate shall be increased any more than 1.0 percent from one rate year to the next.

(5) Any county, city or town electing participation under this section at any time after December 15, 1977, shall be assigned a tax rate of one and one-quarter percent of total remuneration for the first eight quarters of the participation.

(6) Each year after 1980 the commissioner shall review the local government tax system and make recommendations to the legislature for changes in said system.

(7) "Local government tax" shall be deemed to be "contributions" to the extent that such usage is consistent with the purposes of this title. Such construction shall include but not be limited to those portions of this title and the rules and regulations enacted pursuant thereto dealing with assessments, interest, liens, collection procedures and remedies, administrative and judicial review, and the imposition of administrative, civil and criminal sanctions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and to chapter 50.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, the term "institution of higher education" means an educational institution in this state which:

(1) Admits as regular students only individuals having a certificate of graduation from a high school, or the recognized equivalent of such a certificate;

(2) Is legally authorized within this state to provide a program of education beyond high school;

(3) Provides an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's or higher degree, or provides a program which is acceptable for full credit toward such a degree, or offers a program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation; and

(4) Is a public or other nonprofit institution.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing subsections, all colleges and universities in this state are "institutions of higher education".

Sec. 17. Section 21, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 1, chapter 67, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.44.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "employment" as used in RCW 50.44.010, 50.44.020, and 50.44.030 shall not include service performed:

(1) In the employ of (a) a church or convention or association of churches, or (b) an organization which is operated primarily for religious purposes and which is operated, supervised, controlled, or principally supported by a church or convention or association of churches; or

(2) By a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church in the exercise of his ministry or by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order; or

(3) Before January 1, 1978, in the employ of a nongovernmental educational institution, approved or accredited by the state board of education, which is not an "institution of higher education" (; ~~or in the employ of a nongovernmental pre-school. A pre-school is an organization devoted exclusively to the area of child development training of preschool-age children through an established curriculum of formal classroom and/or laboratory instruction);~~ or

(4) In a facility conducted for the purpose of carrying out a program of (a) rehabilitation for individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury, or (b) providing remunerative work for individuals who because of their impaired physical or mental capacity cannot be readily absorbed in the competitive labor market, by an individual receiving such rehabilitation or remunerative work; or

(5) As part of an unemployment work-relief or work-training program assisted or financed in whole or in part by a federal agency or an agency of a state or political subdivision thereof, by an individual receiving such work-relief or work-training; or

(6) For a ~~((hospital in a state prison or other state correctional institution by an inmate of the prison or correctional institution))~~ custodial or penal institution by an inmate of the custodial or penal institution; or

(7) In the employ of a hospital, if such service is performed by a patient of such hospital; or

(9) By an individual under the age of twenty-two who is enrolled at a nonprofit or public educational institution which normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly organized body of students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are carried on as a student in a full time program, taken for credit at such institution, which combines academic instruction with work experience, if such service is an integral part of such program, and such institution has so certified to the employee, except that this subsection shall not apply to service performed in a program established for or on behalf of an employer or group of employers; or

(10) Before January 1, 1978, in the employ of the state or one of its instrumentalities or a political subdivision or one of its instrumentalities by an individual who is (a) occupying an elective office, or (b) who is compensated solely on a fee or per diem basis; or

(11) Before January 1, 1978, in the employ of the legislature of the state of Washington by an individual who is compensated pursuant to an agreement which provides for a guaranteed rate of compensation for irregular hours worked; or

(12) In the employ of a nongovernmental preschool which is devoted exclusively to the area of child development training of preschool age children through an established curriculum of formal classroom or laboratory instruction which did not employ four or more individuals on each of some twenty days during the calendar year or the preceding calendar year, each day being in a different calendar week; or

(13) After December 31, 1977, in the employ of the state or any of its instrumentalities or political subdivisions of this state in any of its instrumentalities by an individual in the exercise of duties:

(a) As an elected official;

(b) As a member of the national guard or air national guard; or

(c) In a policymaking position the performance of the duties of which ordinarily do not require more than eight hours per week.

Sec. 18. Section 22, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 17, chapter 288, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.44.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Benefits based on services in employment covered by or pursuant to this chapter shall be payable on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as compensation payable on the basis of other service subject to this title: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That benefits based on service in an instructional, research or principal administrative capacity in an ~~((institution of higher education shall not be paid to an individual for any week of unemployment which begins during the period between two successive academic years, or during a similar period between two regular terms, whether or not successive, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, if the individual has a contract or contracts to perform services in any such capacity for an institution or institutions of higher~~ education for both such academic years or both such terms; or during any nonwork period occurring during a term that does not diminish the individual's salary for the term: ~~PROVIDED FURTHER, That benefits based on service in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity in an educational institution other than an institution of higher education shall not be paid to an individual for any week of unemployment which begins during the period between two successive academic years, or during a similar period between two regular terms, whether or not successive, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, if the individual has a contract or contracts to perform services in any such capacity in an educational institution or institutions other than an institution of higher education for both such academic years or both such terms; or during any nonwork period occurring during a term that does not diminish the individual's salary for the term: PROVIDED FURTHER, That~~) educational institution shall not be paid to an individual for any week of unemployment suffered after December 31, 1977, which commences during the period between two successive academic years or during the period between two terms, successive or otherwise, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided in the individual's contract if the individual performs the services in the first of the academic years or terms and there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform services in the capacity for any educational institution in the second of the academic years or terms; or during any nonwork period occurring during a term that does not diminish the individual's salary for the term. Any employee of a common school district who is (~~conclusively~~) presumed to (~~have been~~) be reemployed pursuant to RCW 28A.67.070 shall be deemed to have a contract for the ensuing term.

Benefits shall not be paid based on services in any other capacity for an educational institution (other than an institution of higher education as defined in section 15 of this amendatory act) for any week of unemployment suffered after December 31, 1977, which commences during the period between two successive academic years or during the period between two terms, successive or otherwise, if the individual performs these services in the first of such academic years or terms and there is an individual contract or an individual written notice to the employee that the individual will perform services for an educational institution (other than an institution of higher education as defined in section 15 of this amendatory act) in the second of the academic years or terms; or during any nonwork period occurring during a term that does not diminish the individual's salary for the term.

Sec. 19. Section 23, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Benefits paid to employees of "nonprofit organizations" shall be financed in accordance with the provisions of this section. For the purpose of this section and RCW 50.44.070, the term "nonprofit organization" is limited to those organizations described in RCW 50.44.010, and joint accounts composed exclusively of such organizations.

(1) Any nonprofit organization which is, or becomes subject to this title on or after January 1, 1972 shall pay contributions under the provisions of RCW 50.24.010, unless it elects, in accordance with this subsection, to pay to the commissioner for the unemployment compensation fund an amount equal to the full amount of regular and additional benefits and one-half of the amount of extended benefits paid to individuals for weeks of unemployment which begin during the effective period of such election to the extent that such payments are attributable to service in the employ of such nonprofit organization.

(a) (~~Any nonprofit organization which is, or becomes, subject to this title on January 1, 1972 may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for~~ a period of not less than one taxable year beginning with January 1, 1972: PROVIDED, That it files with the commissioner a written notice of its election within the thirty-day period immediately following such date.

~~(b))~~ Any nonprofit organization which becomes subject to this title after January 1, 1972 may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for a period of not less than twelve months beginning with the date on which such subjectivity begins by filing a written notice of its election with the commissioner not later than thirty days immediately following the date of the determination of such subjectivity.

~~((e))~~ ~~(b)~~ Any nonprofit organization which makes an election in accordance with paragraph~~(s)~~ ~~(a)~~ ~~((or(b)))~~ of this subsection will continue to be liable for payments in lieu of contributions until it files with the commissioner a written notice terminating its election not later than thirty days prior to the beginning of the taxable year for which such termination shall first be effective.

~~((d))~~ ~~(c)~~ Any nonprofit organization which has been paying contributions under this title for a period subsequent to January 1, 1972 may change to a reimbursable basis by filing with the commissioner not later than thirty days prior to the beginning of any taxable year a written notice of election to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions. Such election shall not be terminable by the organization for that and the next year.

~~((e))~~ ~~(d)~~ The commissioner may for good cause extend the period within which a notice of election, or a notice of termination, must be filed and may permit an election to be retroactive but not any earlier than with respect to benefits paid after December 31, 1969.

~~((f))~~ ~~(c)~~ The commissioner, in accordance with such regulations as he may prescribe, shall notify each nonprofit organization of any determination which he may make of its status as an employer and of the effective date of any election which it makes and of any termination of such election. Any nonprofit organization subject to such determination and dissatisfied with such determination may file a request for review and redetermination with the commissioner within thirty days of the mailing of the determination to the organization. Should such request for review and redetermination be denied, the organization may, within ten days of the mailing of such notice of denial, file with the appeal tribunal a petition for hearing which shall be heard in the same manner as a petition for denial of refund. The appellate procedure prescribed by this title for further appeal shall apply to all denials of review and redetermination under this paragraph.

(2) Payments in lieu of contributions shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this section including either paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection.

(a) At the end of each calendar quarter, the commissioner shall bill each nonprofit organization or group of such organizations which has elected to make payments in lieu of contributions for an amount equal to the full amount of regular and additional benefits plus one-half of the amount of extended benefits paid during such quarter that is attributable to service in the employ of such organization.

(b) (i) Each nonprofit organization that has elected payments in lieu of contributions may request permission to make such payments as provided in this paragraph. Such method of payment shall become effective upon approval by the commissioner.

(ii) At the end of each calendar quarter, or at the end of such other period as determined by the commissioner, the commissioner shall bill each nonprofit organization for an amount representing one of the following:

(A) ~~((For 1972, six-tenths of one percent of its total payroll for 1971.~~

~~(B) For years after 1972, such))~~ The percentage of its total payroll for the immediately preceding calendar year as the commissioner shall determine. Such determination shall be based each year on the average benefit costs attributable to service in the employ of nonprofit organizations during the preceding calendar year.

~~((C))~~ (B) For any organization which did not pay wages throughout the four calendar quarters of the preceding calendar year, such percentage of its payroll during such year as the commissioner shall determine.

(iii) At the end of each taxable year, the commissioner may modify the quarterly percentage of payroll thereafter payable by the nonprofit organization in order to minimize excess or insufficient payments.

(iv) At the end of each taxable year, the commissioner shall determine whether the total of payments for such year made by a nonprofit organization is less than, or in excess of, the total amount of regular and additional benefits plus one-half of the amount of extended benefits paid to individuals during such taxable year based on wages attributable to service in the employ of such organization. Each nonprofit organization whose total payments for such year are less than the amount so determined shall be liable for payment of the unpaid balance to the fund in accordance with paragraph (c). If the total payments exceed the amount so determined for the taxable year, all of the excess payments will be retained in the fund as part of the payments which may be required for the next taxable year, or a part of the excess may, at the discretion of the commissioner, be refunded from the fund or retained in the fund as part of the payments which may be required for the next taxable year.

(c) Payment of any bill rendered under paragraph (a) or (b) shall be made not later than thirty days after such bill was mailed to the last known address of the nonprofit organization or was otherwise delivered to it, and if not paid within such thirty days, the reimbursement payments itemized in the bill shall be deemed to be delinquent and the whole or part thereof remaining unpaid shall bear interest from and after the end of such thirty days at the rate and in the manner set forth in RCW 50.24.040.

(d) Payments made by any nonprofit organization under the provisions of this section shall not be deducted or deductible, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in the employ of the organization. Any deduction in violation of the provisions of this paragraph shall be unlawful.

(3) Each employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions shall pay to the commissioner for the fund the total amount of regular and additional benefits plus the amount of one-half of extended benefits paid that are attributable to service in the employ of such employer. If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by more than one employer and one or more of such employers are liable for payments in lieu of contributions, the amount ~~((payable))~~ payable to the fund by each employer that is liable for such payments shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) ~~((or (b)))~~ through (d) of this subsection.

(b) If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by two or more employers that are liable for payments in lieu of contributions, the amount of benefits payable by each such employer shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base-period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total base-period wages paid to the individual by all of his base-period employers.

~~((4) Notwithstanding any other provisions in this section, any nonprofit organization which prior to January 1, 1969, paid contributions into the unemployment~~ compensation fund, and pursuant to this section, elects, within thirty days after January 1, 1972 to make payments in lieu of contributions, shall not be required to make any such payment on account of any regular, additional, or extended benefits paid, on the basis of wages paid by such organization to individuals for weeks of unemployment which begin on or after the effective date of such election until the total amount of such benefits equals the amount of the positive balance in the experience rating account of such organization:))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.98 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Effective with benefit years beginning on and after January 1, 1978, base year wages shall include remuneration paid for previously uncovered services: PROVIDED, That the maximum benefits payable to an individual as computed for the benefit year will be reduced to the extent that benefits were paid on the basis of identical calendar quarters of the previously uncovered services with respect to a claim filed by the individual under Title II of the Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974. Benefits will be paid, subject to the provisions of this title, based upon the previously uncovered services to the extent that the unemployment compensation trust fund will be reimbursed for the cost thereof by the federal government under section 121 of PL 94-566 and regulations published by the secretary of labor relating thereto.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the term "previously uncovered services" means services performed before January 1, 1978, which are not employment as defined in Title 50 RCW at any time during the one year period ending December 31, 1975, and which:

(a) Is agricultural labor as defined in RCW 50.04.150 and covered by section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act or domestic services as defined in and covered by RCW 50.04.160; or

(b) Is service performed by an employee of this state or a political subdivision of this state newly covered by this 1977 amendatory act or by an employee of a nonprofit educational institution which is not an institution of higher education as provided in RCW 50.44.040(3).

(3) Any nonprofit organization or governmental entity electing to make payments in lieu of contributions shall not be liable to make payments with respect to benefits paid any individual whose base year wages include wages for previously uncovered services as defined in subsection (2) (a) and (b) of this section to the extent that the unemployment compensation fund is reimbursed for the benefits under section 121 of PL 94-566.

(4) Benefits paid any individual whose base year wages include wages for previously uncovered services as defined in subsection (2) (a) and (b) of this section shall not be charged to the experience rating account of any contribution paying employer to the extent that the unemployment compensation fund is reimbursed for the benefits under section 121 of PL 94-566.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.98 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This 1977 amendatory act has been enacted to meet the requirements imposed by the federal unemployment tax act as amended by PL 94-566. Internal references in any section of this 1977 amendatory act to the provisions of that act are intended only to apply to those provisions as they existed as of the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act.

In view of the importance of compliance of this 1977 amendatory act with the federal unemployment tax act, any ambiguities contained herein should be resolved in a manner consistent with the provisions of that act. Considerable weight has been given to the commentary contained in that document entitled "Draft Language and Commentary to Implement the Unemployment Compensation Amendments of 1976

PL. 94-566", published by the United States department of labor, employment and training administration, and that commentary should be referred to when interpreting the provisions of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is appropriated to the employment security department from the general fund for the portion of the 1977-1979 biennium ending June 30, 1978, the sum of 1,044,800 dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purpose of operating a quality control program similar to the pilot quality program project which ended in 1976, in local employment security offices, and for increased audits and investigations of employers subject to Title 50 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The commissioner is authorized, with the approval of the governor, to collect from the three-tenths of one percent increase in employer contributions provided in section 10 of chapter — (REHB 563), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess., for the period July 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979, nine and one-tenth of one percent of the additional revenue generated by the three-tenths of one percent increase, or so much thereof as may be deemed appropriate by the commissioner, to be deposited in the administrative contingency fund, one-half of such deposit to be expended for the quality control program funded in section 21 of this amendatory act and one-half for increased audits and investigations of employers subject to Title 50 RCW. In determining the amount of the deposit, if any, authorized by this section, the commissioner and the governor shall consider the impact any such deposit would have on employer contributions required by the federal government for the repayment of a loan from the federal unemployment trust fund.

Sec. 24. Section 60, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 4, chapter 73, Laws of 1973 and RCW 50.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be maintained as special funds, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this state an unemployment compensation fund and an administrative contingency fund, which shall be administered by the commissioner exclusively for the purposes of this title, and to which RCW 43.01.050 shall not be applicable. The unemployment compensation fund shall consist of

(1) all contributions and payments in lieu of contributions collected pursuant to the provisions of this title,

(2) interest earned upon any moneys in the fund,

(3) any property or securities acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund,

(4) all earnings of such property or securities,

(5) any moneys received from the federal unemployment account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the social security act, as amended,

(6) all money recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund,

(7) all money credited to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund pursuant to section 903 of the social security act, as amended,

(8) all money received from the federal government as reimbursement pursuant to section 204 of the federal-state extended compensation act of 1970 (84 Stat. 708-712; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3304), and

(9) all moneys received for the fund from any other source.

All moneys in the unemployment compensation fund shall be commingled and undivided.

The administrative contingency fund shall consist of all interest on delinquent contributions collected pursuant to this title after June 20, 1953, all fines and penalties collected pursuant to the provisions of this title, and all sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund and sums collected pursuant to section 23 of this amendatory act: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended. The amount in this fund (~~in excess of~~) that exceeds the amount deposited pursuant to section 23 of this amendatory act by one hundred thousand dollars on the close of business of the last day of each calendar quarter shall be immediately transferred to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund. Moneys available in the administrative contingency fund shall be expended upon the direction of the commissioner, with the approval of the governor, whenever it appears to him or her that such expenditure is necessary for:

(a) The proper administration of this title and no federal funds are available for the specific purpose to which such expenditure is to be made, provided, the moneys are not substituted for appropriations from federal funds which, in the absence of such moneys, would be made available.

(b) The proper administration of this title for which purpose appropriations from federal funds have been requested but not yet received, provided, the administrative contingency fund will be reimbursed upon receipt of the requested federal appropriation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Section 21, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, section 7, chapter 265, Laws of 1951, section 1, chapter 276, Laws of 1953, section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 ex. sess., section 9, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.04.200 are each repealed on January 1, 1978.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 26, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.250; and

(2) Section 27, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, section 1, chapter 265, Laws of 1951 and RCW 50.04.260.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately: PROVIDED, That sections 6, 12, 14, 15, 16, and 18 of this 1977 amendatory act shall take effect on January 1, 1978."

On page 1, line 9 of the title, after "RCW 50.04.300;" and before "amending" insert "amending section 44, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 11, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.12.050; amending section 60, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 4, chapter 73, Laws of 1973 and RCW 50.16.010:"

On page 2, line 3 of the title after "RCW 50.04.260;" delete the remainder of the title and insert "making an appropriation; providing effective dates; and declaring an emergency.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Ridder moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments with the exception of Sections 22 and 23 and the new language on pages 30 and 31.

Debate ensued.

Senator Grant demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Washington, Walgren, Day, Jones, Wojahn, Bottiger, Ridder, Francis and Wojahn.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Matter of parliamentary inquiry. I am still somewhat confused. What will the effect of a vote 'yes' or 'no' on this particular motion have on subsequent motions of like character?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Senate would also request of the House that it recede from its position on sections 22 and 23 and the new language on pages 30 and 31."

FURTHER PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "In other words, a vote on this particular amendment would not preclude such a subsequent motion by Senator Mardesich."

FURTHER REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "If Senator Ridder's motion receives a negative response, then the President would assume that the Senate has not concurred in the House amendment to the Senate measure."

FURTHER PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Yes, but that would be to the entire proposal, then the question would automatically go to the problem of requesting a conference?"

FURTHER REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Eventually, the President believes so, Senator Clarke."
Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Ridder that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2480, with the exception of Sections 22 and 23 and the new language on pages 30 and 31.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 22; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Herr, Keefe, Odegaard, Peterson, Ridder, Talley, Van Hollebecke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—21.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Newschwander, North, Pullen, Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker, Woody—22.

Absent or not voting: Senators Henry, Monohon—2.

Excused: Senators McDermott, Morrison, Murray—3.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2480, and asks the House for a conference thereon.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 23, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 2493, with the following amendments:

On page 1 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The district board of trustees of any community college district currently operating an educational program with funds provided by another state agency, including federal funds, which program has been in existence for five or more years under the administration of one or more community college districts, shall provide for the award or denial of tenure to anyone who holds a special faculty appointment in such curricular program and for as long as the program continues to be funded in such manner, utilizing the prescribed probationary processes and procedures set forth in this chapter with the exception that no student representative shall be required to serve on the review committee defined in RCW 28B.50.851: PROVIDED, That such review processes and procedures shall not be applicable to faculty members whose contracts are renewed after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act and who have completed at least three consecutive years of satisfactory full time service in such program, who shall be granted tenure by the community college district: PROVIDED FURTHER, That faculty members who have completed one year or more of satisfactory full time service in such program shall be credited with such service for the purposes of this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That provisions relating to tenure for faculty under the provisions of this section shall be distinct from provisions relating to tenure for other faculty of the community college district and faculty appointed to such special curricular program shall be treated as a separate unit as respects selection, retention, reduction in force or dismissal hereunder: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of this section shall only be applicable to faculty holding a special faculty appointment in an educational program operated in a state correctional institution pursuant to a written contract with a community college district.

Sec. 2. Section 28B.50.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 17, chapter 62, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28B.50.100 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a community college board of trustees for each community college district as set forth in this chapter. Each community college board of trustees shall be composed of five trustees, who shall be appointed by the governor for terms commencing October 1st of the year in which appointed. In making such appointments the governor shall give consideration to geographical exigencies, and the interests of labor, industry, agriculture, the professions and ethnic groups.

The successors of the trustees initially appointed shall be appointed by the governor to serve for a term of five years except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of the term.

Every trustee shall be a resident and qualified elector of his community college district. No trustee may be an employee of the community college system, a member of the board of directors of any school district, a member of the governing board of any public or private educational institution, or an elected officer or member of the legislative authority of any municipal corporation.

Each board of trustees shall organize itself by electing a chairman from its members. The board shall adopt a seal and may adopt such bylaws, rules and regulations as it deems necessary for its own government. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner as prescribed in its bylaws, rules, or regulations. The district president, or if there be none, the president of the community college, shall serve as, or may designate another person to serve as, the secretary of the board, who shall not be deemed to be a member of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the terms for present members of the community college boards of trustees shall be extended for a period of six months, or not later than October 1st of the year of expiration, to carry out the purposes of section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Sec. 4. Section 28B.50.090, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 16, chapter 62, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28B.50.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The college board shall have general supervision and control over the state system of community colleges. In addition to the other powers and duties imposed upon the college board by this chapter, the college board shall be charged with the following powers, duties and responsibilities:

(1) Review the budgets prepared by the community college boards of trustees, prepare a single budget for the support of the state system of community colleges and adult education, and submit this budget to the governor as provided in RCW 43.88.090; the coordinating council shall assist with the preparation of the community college budget that has to do with vocational education programs;

(2) Establish guidelines for the disbursement of funds; and receive and disburse such funds for adult education and maintenance and operation and capital support of the community college districts in conformance with the state and district budgets, and in conformance with chapter 43.88 RCW;

(3) Ensure, through the full use of its authority:

(a) that each community college district shall offer thoroughly comprehensive educational, training and service programs to meet the needs of both the communities and students served by combining, with equal emphasis, high standards of excellence in academic transfer courses; realistic and practical courses in occupational education, both graded and ungraded; and community services of an educational, cultural, and recreational nature; and adult education: PROVIDED, That notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, a community college shall not be required to offer a program of vocational-technical training, when such a program as approved by the coordinating council for occupational education is already operating in the district;

(b) that each community college district shall maintain an open-door policy, to the end that no student will be denied admission because of the location of his residence or because of his educational background or ability; that, insofar as is practical in the judgment of the college board, curriculum offerings will be provided to meet the educational and training needs of the community generally and the students thereof; and that all students, regardless of their differing courses of study, will be considered, known and recognized equally as members of the student body: PROVIDED, That the administrative officers of a community college may deny admission to a prospective student or attendance to an enrolled student if, in their judgment, he would not be competent to profit from the curriculum offerings of the community college, or would, by his presence or conduct, create a disruptive atmosphere within the community college not consistent with the purposes of the institution;

(4) Prepare a comprehensive master plan for the development of community college education and training in the state; and assist the office of program planning and fiscal management in the preparation of enrollment projections to support plans for providing adequate community college facilities in all areas of the state;

(5) Define and administer criteria and guidelines for the establishment of new community colleges or campuses within the existing districts;

(6) Establish criteria and procedures for modifying district boundary lines consistent with the purposes set forth in RCW 28B.50.020 as now or hereafter amended and in accordance therewith make such changes as it deems advisable;

(7) Establish minimum standards to govern the operation of the community colleges with respect to:

- (a) qualifications and credentials of instructional and key administrative personnel, except as otherwise provided in the state plan for vocational education,
- (b) internal budgeting, accounting, auditing, and financial procedures as necessary to supplement the general requirements prescribed pursuant to chapter 43.88 RCW,
- (c) the content of the curriculums and other educational and training programs, and the requirements, degrees and diplomas awarded by the colleges,
- (d) standard admission policies;
- (8) Establish and administer criteria and procedures for all capital construction including the establishment, installation, and expansion of facilities within the various community college districts;
- (9) Encourage innovation in the development of new educational and training programs and instructional methods; coordinate research efforts to this end; and disseminate the findings thereof;
- (10) Exercise any other powers, duties and responsibilities necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter;
- (11) Authorize the various community colleges to offer programs and courses in other districts when it determines that such action is consistent with the purposes set forth in RCW 28B.50.020 as now or hereafter amended;
- (12) Notwithstanding any other law or statute regarding the sale of state property, sell or exchange and convey any or all interest in any community college real and personal property, except such property as is received by a community college district in accordance with RCW 28B.50.140(8), when it determines that such property is surplus or that such a sale or exchange is in the best interests of the community college system;
- (13) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (12) of this section, may receive such gifts, grants, conveyances, devises, and bequests of real or personal property from private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, whenever the terms and conditions thereof will aid in carrying out the community college programs and may sell, lease or exchange, invest or expend the same or the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof according to the terms and conditions thereof; and adopt regulations to govern the receipt and expenditure of the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof.

The college board shall have the power of eminent domain.

Sec. 5. Section 17, chapter 15, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 19, chapter 62, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28B.50.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Each community college board of trustees:

- (1) Shall operate all existing community colleges and vocational-technical institutes in its district;
- (2) Shall create comprehensive programs of community college education and training and maintain an open-door policy in accordance with the provisions of RCW 28B.50.090(3);
- (3) Shall employ for a period to be fixed by the board a college president for each community college, a director for each vocational-technical institute or school operated by a community college, a district president, if deemed necessary by the board, in the event there is more than one college and/or separated institute or school located in the district, members of the faculty and such other administrative officers and other employees as may be necessary or appropriate and fix their salaries and duties;
- (4) May establish, under the approval and direction of the college board, new facilities as community needs and interests demand;

(5) May establish or lease, operate, equip and maintain dormitories, food service facilities, bookstores and other self-supporting facilities connected with the operation of the community college;

(6) May, with the approval of the college board, borrow money and issue and sell revenue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping with permanent fixtures, demolition and major alteration of buildings or other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements or appurtenances, for dormitories, food service facilities, and other self-supporting facilities connected with the operation of the community college in accordance with the provisions of RCW 28B.10.300 through 28B.10.330 where applicable;

(7) May establish fees and charges for the facilities authorized hereunder, including reasonable rules and regulations for the government thereof, not inconsistent with the rules and regulations of the college board; each board of trustees operating a community college may enter into agreements, subject to rules and regulations of the college board, with owners of facilities to be used for housing regarding the management, operation, and government of such facilities, and any board entering into such an agreement may:

(a) Make rules and regulations for the government, management and operation of such housing facilities deemed necessary or advisable; and

(b) Employ necessary employees to govern, manage and operate the same;

(9) May establish and maintain night schools whenever in the discretion of the board of trustees it is deemed advisable, and authorize classrooms and other facilities to be used for summer or night schools, or for public meetings and for any other uses consistent with the use of such classrooms or facilities for community college purposes;

(10) May make rules and regulations for pedestrian and vehicular traffic on property owned, operated, or maintained by the community college district;

(11) Shall prescribe, with the assistance of the faculty, the course of study in the various departments of the community college or colleges under its control, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, publish such catalogues and bulletins as may become necessary;

(12) May grant to every student, upon graduation or completion of a course of study, a suitable diploma, nonbaccalaureate degree or certificate;

(13) Shall enforce the rules and regulations prescribed by the state board for community college education for the government of community colleges, students and teachers, and promulgate such rules and regulations and perform all other acts not inconsistent with law or rules and regulations of the state board for community college education as the board of trustees may in its discretion deem necessary or appropriate to the administration of community college districts: PROVIDED, That such rules and regulations shall include, but not be limited to, rules and regulations relating to housing, scholarships, conduct at the various community college facilities, and discipline: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the board of trustees may suspend or expel from community colleges students who refuse to obey any of the duly promulgated rules and regulations;

(14) May, by written order filed in its office, delegate to the president or district president any of the powers and duties vested in or imposed upon it by this chapter. Such delegated powers and duties may be exercised in the name of the district board;

(15) May perform such other activities consistent with this chapter and not in conflict with the directives of the college board;

(16) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, may offer educational services on a contractual basis other than the tuition and fee basis set forth in chapter 28B-15 RCW for a special fee to private or governmental entities, consistent with rules and regulations adopted by the state board for community college education: PROVIDED, That the whole of such special fee shall go to the college district and be not less than the full instructional costs of such services: PROVIDED FURTHER, That enrollments generated hereunder shall not be counted toward the official enrollment level of the college district for state funding purposes.

(17) Shall be authorized to pay dues to any association of trustees that may be formed by the various boards of trustees; such association may expend any or all of such funds to submit biennially, or more often if necessary, to the governor and to the legislature, the recommendations of the association regarding changes which would affect the efficiency of such association; and

~~((+7))~~ (18) Shall perform any other duties and responsibilities imposed by law or rule and regulation of the state board.

Sec. 6. Section 28B.50.300, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 73, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 28B.50.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Title to or all interest in real estate, choses in action and all other assets, including but not limited to assignable contracts, cash, deposits in county funds (including any interest or premiums thereon), equipment, buildings, facilities, and appurtenances thereto held as of the date of passage of this act by or for a school district and obtained identifiably with federal, state or local funds appropriated for community college purposes or post-high school vocational educational purposes, or used or obtained with funds budgeted for community college purposes or post-high school vocational educational purposes, or used or obtained primarily for community college or vocational educational purposes, shall, on the date on which the first board of trustees of each district takes office, vest in or be assigned to the state board for community college education: PROVIDED, That cash, funds, accounts or other deposits obtained or raised by a school district to pay for indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, contracted on or before April 3, 1967 for community college purposes shall remain with and continue to be, after April 3, 1967, an asset of the school district: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any option acquired by the school district to purchase real property which in the judgment of the school district will be used in the common school program may remain with the school district notwithstanding that such option was obtained in consideration of the purchase by such school district of other property for community college purposes: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That unexpended funds of a common school district derived from the sale, prior to July 1, 1967, of bonds authorized for any purpose which includes community college purposes and not committed for any existing construction contract, shall remain with and continue to be an asset of such common school district, unless within thirty days after said date such common school district determines to transfer such funds to the board of trustees.

((For the purposes of this section and to facilitate the process of allocating the assets, the board of directors of each school district in which a community college is located, and the president of each community college, shall each submit to the state board of education, and the state board for community college education within sixty days of April 3, 1967, an inventory listing all real estate, personal property; ~~choses in action, and other assets, held by a school district, which under the criteria of this section, will become the assets of the state board for community college education: PROVIDED, That assets used "primarily" for community college purposes shall include, but not be limited to, all assets currently held by school districts which have been used on an average of at least seventy-five percent of the time during the school year 1965-1966, or if acquired subsequent to July 1, 1966, since its time of acquisition, for community college purposes: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the ultimate decision and approval with respect to the allocation and disposition of the assets under this section shall be made by the governor, or an advisory committee appointed by him for that purpose. The decision of the governor or his advisory committee may be appealed within sixty days after such decision is issued by appealing to the district court of Thurston county. The decision of the superior court may be appealed to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state in accordance with the provision of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW.))~~

Sec. 7. Section 38, chapter 283, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.860 are each amended to read as follows:

A tenured faculty member, upon appointment to an administrative appointment ~~((except that of president;))~~ shall be allowed to retain his tenure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The following acts or parts thereof are hereby repealed:

(1) Section 28B.50.570, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 23, chapter 62, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28B.50.570;

(2) Section 28B.50.590, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.590;

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 2493, with the exception beginning on line 24 commencing with the proviso through line 35, ending with "section", and asks the House for a conference thereon.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 24, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2268, with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
 "Section 1. Section 43.03.050, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 94, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.03.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management shall prescribe ((for all state agencies per diem rates of allowance, not exceeding twenty-five dollars in lieu of)) reasonable allowances to cover reasonable and necessary subsistence and lodging ((to)) expenses for elective and appointive officials and state employees while engaged on official business away from their designated posts of duty ((, but within the state of Washington, and not exceeding thirty-five dollars per day while engaged on official business elsewhere)). The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may ((within the limits established herein)) prescribe and regulate the ((per diem rates to be allowed)) allowances provided in lieu of subsistence and lodging expenses and may prescribe the conditions under which reimbursement for subsistence and lodging may be allowed. The schedule of allowances adopted by the office of program planning and fiscal management may include special allowances for foreign travel and other travel involving higher than usual costs for subsistence and lodging.

(2) Those persons appointed to serve without compensation on any state board, commission, or committee, if entitled to ((reimbursement)) payment of travel expenses, shall be ((reimbursed)) paid pursuant to ((a)) special ((schedule at the daily)) per diem rates prescribed in accordance with subsection (1) of this section by the office of program planning and fiscal management ((, for each day or portion thereof spent on official business of the board, commission, or committee)).

(3) The initial schedule of allowances prescribed by the director under the terms of this section and any subsequent increases in any maximum allowance or special allowances for areas of higher than usual costs shall be subject to legislative approval.

Sec. 2. Section 43.03.060, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 95, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.03.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever it becomes necessary for an elective or appointive official or employee of the state to travel away from his designated post of duty while engaged on official business, and it is found to be more advantageous and economical to the state that travel be by a privately-owned vehicle rather than a common carrier or a state-owned or operated vehicle, a mileage rate not to exceed ((thirteen cents a mile shall be allowed)) the rate established by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management shall be allowed. The maximum rate established by the director shall be based on the estimated cost of using a privately-owned vehicle on state business.

(2) The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management may ((within the limits established in this section)) prescribe and regulate the specific mileage rate or other allowance for the use of privately-owned vehicles or common carriers on official business and the conditions under which reimbursement of transportation costs may be allowed: PROVIDED, That reimbursement or other payment for transportation expenses of any employee or appointive official of the state shall be based on the method deemed most advantageous and economical to the state.

(3) The initial maximum mileage rate established by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management pursuant to this section and any subsequent changes thereto shall be subject to legislative approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Legislative approval" for purposes of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 both as now or hereafter amended and sections 3 and 4 of this 1977 amendatory act shall consist of either a favorable vote by the senate ways and means committee and the house of representatives appropriations committee during times when the legislature is in session or a favorable vote by the legislative budget committee during periods when the legislature is not in session or has been in recess for three or more days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 43.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The allowances prescribed pursuant to RCW 43.03.050 as now or hereafter amended may be paid as reimbursements to individuals for subsistence and lodging expenses during official travel. Alternatively, amounts not exceeding those allowances may be paid directly to appropriate suppliers of subsistence and lodging, when more economical and advantageous to the state, under general rules and regulations adopted by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management with the advice of the state auditor. Payments to suppliers for subsistence and lodging expenses of individuals in travel status shall not result in a cost to the state in excess of what would be payable by way of reimbursements to the individuals involved.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately except that any new schedule of allowances under either RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now or hereafter amended shall not be effective until July 1, 1977 or later."

On page 1, on line 1 of the title, after "government;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 43.03.050, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 94, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.03.050; amending section 43.03.060, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 95, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.03.060; adding new sections to chapter 43.03 RCW; and declaring an emergency.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SEVENTY-SEVENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Thursday, May 26, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bottiger, Donohue, Fleming, Mardesich, McDermott and Woody. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Bottiger, Donohue, Fleming, Mardesich, McDermott and Woody were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Karen Worthington and Ted Bowden, presented the Colors. Reverend David Kratz, pastor of United Church of Christ of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, WHO CALLS THE WORLDS INTO BEING, CREATES US IN YOUR OWN IMAGE AND SETS BEFORE US THE WAYS OF LIFE AND DEATH, WE STAND BEFORE YOU IN HUMBLENESS. OUR SPIRITS SOAR IN GRATITUDE FOR THIS LIFE WE DID NOT FASHION WHICH COMES TO US AS A GIFT, FOR THE BEAUTY OF NATURE AND FOR THE MYSTERIOUS DEPTH OF HUMAN NEIGHBORS, FOR THE POSSIBILITIES OF LIFE WHICH SEEM LIMITLESS. YET IN THE MIDST OF OUR SOARING, WE FIND OURSELVES CONFRONTED WITH PROBLEMS WHICH FRUSTRATE US, PETTINESS WHICH DEMEANS US AND CONFLICTS WHICH TEAR AT OUR VERY HEARTS. WE SENSE THAT WE ARE MEANT TO FLY, BUT FIND THAT THE BURDENS OF OUR DAILY ROUNDS KEEP US FIRMLY GROUNDED ON THE LAND. AND SO WE PAUSE THIS DAY TO ASK THAT YOU WILL PROVIDE THE STRENGTH AND THE COURAGE TO TAKE THESE PROBLEMS, THIS PETTINESS, THESE CONFLICTS AND BURDENS AND TURN THEM INTO VEHICLES FOR NOBILITY. MAY OUR WORK AND OUR LIVES FIND A HELPFUL PLACE IN YOUR MYSTERIOUS DESIGN OF HISTORY AND LIFE. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 23, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2156, and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and said report together with the bill are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

May 18, 1977.

Mr. Speaker:

Mr. President:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2156, permitting certain corporations of health care professionals to act as self-insurers against liability, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the House amendment to page 1, line 16, be not adopted and recommend that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 16, after "code." strike the balance of the section and insert "An association or other entity composed of five hundred or more health care professionals licensed pursuant to chapters 18.71 or 18.88 RCW, or an association or other entity composed of at least one-third of the health care professionals licensed pursuant to any of the following chapters: 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, or 18.57 RCW, and, if composed of more than five hundred members, meeting capital and surplus requirements set forth in RCW 48.05.340(1), or, if composed of less than five hundred members, meeting one-third of the capital and surplus requirements set forth in RCW 48.05.340(1), after a written determination by the insurance commissioner that insurance for claims brought under chapter 7.70 RCW is either unavailable or cost-prohibitive from a licensed insurance carrier, may join and organize as a mutual corporation pursuant to chapter 24.06 RCW for the purpose of insuring or self-insuring against claims brought under chapter 7.70 RCW through a contributing trust fund and shall not be deemed an "insurer" under this code: PROVIDED, That each health professional mutual corporation shall submit a financial and operational report annually to the legislative budget committee and the insurance commissioner."

Signed by: Senators Day and Woody; Representatives Douthwaite, Haley and Grier.

MOTION

Senator Day moved the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2156 be adopted.

Debate ensued.

Senator Clarke demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Day, Jones, Herr, Washington, Talley, Ridder, Wojahn, Bullington and Wanamaker.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 120.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 120, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representatives Warnke, Greengo, Paris, Gaines, Dunlap, Bond, Fancher, Knedlik, Leckenby, Salatino and Struthers):

Establishing a business license center.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 5, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 120, establishing a business license center (reported by Committee on Commerce):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 5, line 1, after "including" strike "detail" and insert "general".

On page 5, line 34, insert a new subsection as follows:

"(h) Chairman, liquor board;"

Reletter remaining subsections consecutively.

Signed by: Senators Van Hollebeke, Chairman; Wojahn, Vice Chairman; Bausch, Morrison.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 7, beginning on line 32, strike all matter down through "18.04.220;" on line 34, and insert:

"(7) Section 22, chapter 226, Laws of 1949, section 26, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 18.04.230;"

On page 8, beginning on line 34, strike all of section 10.

Senator Van Hollebeke moved adoption of the following amendment to the title:

On page 1, line 11 of the title, after "18.04.210;" strike all matter down through "18.04.220;" on line 14 and insert "repealing section 22, chapter 226, Laws of 1949, section 26, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 18.04.230;"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Van Hollebeke yield? Before we advance the bill, I would like to have a clear understanding as to why in the technical amendment where we strike 'RCW 18.04.230' which is the public accountant's registration committee. That seems to me to be more than a technical amendment. Why are we eliminating that committee?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I don't think there is any licensing required there that would be pertinent to this statute, and it wasn't intended to be in there originally. It happened by mistake."

The motion by Senator Van Hollebeke carried and the amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 2, line 17 of the title, after "78.40.145;" insert "and" and on line 17, strike "making an appropriation;"

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 120, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 120, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—43.

Excused: Senators Bottiger, Donohue, Fleming, McDermott, Woody—5.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 120, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 459.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 459, by Representatives Conner, Pearsall, Kilbury, Thompson, Moreau, Nelson (Dick) and Lux:

Affecting workmen's compensation where a change of circumstances has occurred.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 15, 1977.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 459, affecting workmen's compensation where a change of circumstances has occurred (reported by Committee on Labor):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 9, after "therefor))" strike all the matter down to and including "circumstances" on line 13 and insert "Where the application has been granted, compensation and other benefits if in order shall be allowed for periods of time up to sixty days prior to the receipt of such application"

Signed by: Senators Ridder, Chairman; Grant, Mardesich, Morrison, Peterson, Sellar.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Ridder moved the rules be suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 459, as amended by the Senate, be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President; I would like to ask Senator Ridder to explain the bill before it is advanced so we can decide whether or not we need more amendments on it. I can't tell from the calendar here in what way it affects present existing law, and I would like to hear that before we advance it."

Senator Ridder: "OK, the existing law simply says that there shall be no increase or rearrangement operative prior to the time the application was received, and in cases of second injury frequently a worker may be in the hospital for a period of time and not able to submit that application. So the original intent of the bill was to allow that the benefits be payable from the time the medical certification was established rather than the formal time that the claim was received.

"With the committee amendments it simply allows the latitude to the department to make it retroactive up to a period of sixty days, so it does allow for a little more flexibility on the department's behalf."

The motion by Senator Ridder carried. Engrossed House Bill No. 459, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Senator Mardesich was excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 459, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Talley, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—41.

Absent or not voting: Senators Peterson, Sandison, Van Hollebecke, Walgren—4.

Excused: Senators Donohue, Mardesich, Woody—3.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 459, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 286.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 286, by Representatives Nelson (Gary), North, Fortson and Shinoda:

Authorizing humane societies to purchase, possess, and administer sodium pentobarbital for the sole purpose of euthanizing injured, sick, homeless, or unwanted domestic pets and animals.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 15, 1977.

HOUSE BILL NO. 286, authorizing humane societies to purchase, possess, and administer sodium pentobarbital for the sole purpose of euthanizing injured, sick, homeless, or unwanted domestic pets and animals (reported by Committee on Agriculture):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On line 11 after the period following "animals" insert "Any agency so registered shall not permit a person to administer sodium pentobarbital unless such person has demonstrated adequate knowledge of the potential hazards and proper techniques to be used in administering this drug."

On line 14, strike "purpose" and insert "provisions"

On line 15 after the period following "section" insert "The board may suspend or revoke registration upon determination that the person administering sodium pentobarbital has not demonstrated adequate knowledge as herein provided. This authority is granted in addition to any other power to suspend or revoke registration as provided by law."

Signed by: Senators Gaspard, Chairman; Benitz, Day, Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 286, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 70, by Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives O'Brien, Nelson (Gary), Ehlers, Burns, Greengo, Knedlik and Lysen):

Providing for an office and advisory council on archaeology and historic preservation.

The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 70.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 12, 1977.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 70, providing for an office and advisory council on archaeology and historic preservation (reported by Committee on Ecology):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 27 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature hereby finds that the promotion, enhancement, perpetuation, and use of structures, sites, districts, buildings, and objects of historic, archaeological, architectural, and cultural significance is desirable in the interest of the public pride and general welfare of the people of the state; and the legislature further finds that the economic, cultural, and aesthetic standing of the state can be maintained and enhanced by protecting the heritage of the state and by preventing the destruction or defacement of these assets; therefore, it is hereby declared by the legislature to be the public policy and in the public interest of the state to designate, preserve, protect, enhance, and perpetuate those structures, sites, districts, buildings, and objects which reflect outstanding elements of the state's historic, archaeological, architectural, or cultural heritage, for the inspiration and enrichment of the citizens of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Project" means programs leading to the preservation for public benefit of historical properties, whether by state and local governments or other public bodies, or private organizations or individuals, including the acquisition of title or interests in, and the development of, any district, site, building, structure, or object that is significant in American and Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, or culture, and property used in connection therewith, or for its development.

(2) "Historic preservation" includes the protection, rehabilitation, restoration, identification, scientific excavation, and reconstruction of districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects significant in American and Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, or culture.

(3) "Preservation officer" means the state historic preservation officer as provided for in section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act, as now or hereafter amended.

(4) "Office" means the office of archaeology and historic preservation as created in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, as now or hereafter amended.

(5) "Department" means the department of parks and recreation.

(6) "Federal act" means the national historic preservation act of 1966 (Public Law 89-655; 80 Stat. 915).

(7) "Council" means the advisory council on historic preservation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby established the office of archaeology and historic preservation. All powers, duties, and functions relating to the office vested in the parks and recreation commission and the director of parks and recreation are transferred to the office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The governor shall appoint the preservation officer and set the salary for the position. The preservation officer shall have a background in program administration, an active involvement in historic preservation, and a knowledge of the national, state, and local preservation programs as they affect the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The preservation officer shall employ such personnel and prescribe their duties as may be necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter. In addition to the preservation officer, there shall be a chief of archaeology and historic preservation, and a minimum professional staff consisting of an architect, archaeologist, historian, and architectural historian shall be employed to meet the federal requirements for funding of the preservation program. The preservation officer shall delegate to the professional staff such functions, powers, and duties necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter. All employees presently employed exclusively or principally in the office shall remain employees subject to the discretion of the preservation officer. All employees shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The preservation officer shall supervise and administer the activities of the office. The preservation officer is authorized:

(1) To promulgate and maintain a state register of districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects significant in American or Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, and culture, and to prepare comprehensive state-wide historic surveys and plans and research and evaluation of surveyed resources for the preparation of nominations to the state and national registers of historic places, in accordance with criteria approved by the advisory council established pursuant to section 9 of this 1977 amendatory act. The nominations shall comply with any standards and regulations promulgated by the United States secretary of the interior for the preservation, acquisition, and development of such properties.

(2) To establish a program of matching grants-in-aid to public agencies, public or private organizations, or individuals for projects having as their purpose the preservation for public benefit of properties that are significant in American or Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, and culture.

(3) To promote historic preservation efforts throughout the state state, including private efforts and those of city, county, and state agencies.

(4) To enhance the effectiveness of the state preservation program through the initiation of legislation, the use of varied funding sources, the creation of special purpose programs, and contact with state, county, and city officials, civic groups, and professionals.

(5) To consult with the governor and the legislature on issues relating to the conservation of the man-made environment and their impact on the well-being of the state and its citizens. The office shall submit periodic reports of its activities to the governor and the legislature.

(6) To adopt such rules, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The preservation officer is empowered to (1) maintain and administer all funds appropriated by the legislature to the office for the purpose of carrying out the duties, functions, and responsibilities of the office under both state and federal law, and (2) to receive, administer, and disburse such gifts, grants, and endowments from private sources as may be made from time to time in trust or otherwise for the purposes of this 1977 amendatory act or the federal act, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The amounts made available for grants to the public agencies, public or private organizations, or individuals for projects for each fiscal year shall be apportioned among program applicants by the preservation officer in accordance with needs as contained in state-wide archaeology and historic preservation plans developed by the office and approved by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) There is hereby established an advisory council on historic preservation, which shall be composed of nine members appointed by the governor as follows:

(a) The director of a state historical society or the director's designee to be selected from (i) the director of the Washington state historical society, (ii) the director of the Eastern Washington state historical society, and (iii) the director of the state capitol historical society, to each serve on the council for one year on a rotating basis, the order of rotation to be determined by the governor;

(b) Six members of the public who are interested and experienced in matters to be considered by the council including the fields of history, architecture, and archaeology;

(c) The director of the Washington archaeological research center or the director's designee; and

(d) A native American.

(2) Each member of the council appointed under subsection (1)(b) and (d) of this section shall serve a four year term: PROVIDED, That those members first appointed shall serve for terms of from one to four years as designated by the governor at the time of appointment, it being the purpose of this subsection to assure staggered terms of office.

(3) A vacancy in the council shall not affect its powers, but shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment for the balance of the unexpired term.

(4) The chairperson of the council shall be designated by the governor.

(5) Five members of the council shall constitute a quorum.

(6) The council shall cease to exist on June 30, 1982, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

(7) The office shall provide administrative and financial service to the council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The council shall:

(1) Advise the governor and the office on matters relating to historic preservation; recommend measures to coordinate activities of state and local agencies, private institutions, and individuals relating to historic preservation; and advise on the dissemination of information pertaining to such activities;

(2) Review and recommend nominations for the state and national registers of historic places to the preservation officer;

(3) Encourage public interest and participation in historic preservation;

(4) Provide advice and assistance to local governments in drafting ordinances relating to historic preservation;

(5) Encourage, in cooperation with appropriate public and private agencies and institutions, training and education in the field of historic preservation; and

(6) Perform the duties of the state review body as may be required by law so long as those duties do not exceed the limitations established by this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The directors of the state historical societies shall serve as members of the council without additional compensation. All other members of the council shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of the council in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, as now existing or hereafter amended.

Sec. 12. Section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((location))~~ discovery, identification, excavation, and study of the state's archaeological resources, the providing of information on archaeological sites for their nomination to the state and national registers of historic places, the maintaining of a complete inventory of archaeological sites and collections, and the providing of information to state, federal, and private construction agencies regarding the possible impact of construction activities on the state's archaeological resources, are proper public functions; and the Washington archaeological research center, created under the authority of chapter 39.34 RCW as now existing or hereafter amended, is hereby designated as an appropriate agency to carry out these functions. The ~~((director of the state parks and recreation commission))~~ preservation officer, in consultation with the Washington archaeological research center, shall provide guidelines for the selection of depositories designated by the state for archaeological resources. The legislature directs that there shall be full cooperation amongst the office ~~((of archaeology and historic preservation))~~, the Washington archaeological research center, and other agencies of the state.

Sec. 13. Section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Archaeology" means systematic, scientific study of man's past through his material remains.

(2) "Historic" means peoples and cultures who are known through written documents in their own or other languages.

(3) "Prehistoric" means peoples and cultures who are unknown through contemporaneous written documents in any language.

(4) "Professional archaeologist" means a person who has ~~((extensive formal training and experience in systematic, scientific archaeology as defined in subsection (1) of this section, and who makes his or her living primarily through research in, teaching of, and/or publication on archaeology, and who is so recognized by members of the profession of archaeology through his or her participation in the activities of professional organizations of archaeologists))~~ met the educational, training, and experience requirements of the society of professional archaeologists.

(5) "Qualified archaeologist" means a person who has had formal training and/or experience in archaeology over a period of at least three years, and has been certified in writing to be a qualified archaeologist by two professional archaeologists.

(6) "Amateur society" means any organization composed primarily of persons who are not professional archaeologists, whose primary interest is in the archaeological resources of the state, and which has been certified in writing by two professional archaeologists.

(7) "Preservation officer" means the state historic preservation officer as provided for in section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(8) "Office" means the office of archaeology and historic preservation.

Sec. 14. Section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 82, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.060 are each amended to read as follows:

On the private and public lands of this state it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, or any agency or institution of the state or a political subdivision thereof to ~~((wifutly))~~ knowingly alter, dig into, or excavate by use of any mechanical, hydraulic, or other means, or to damage, deface, or destroy any historic or prehistoric archaeological resource or site, American Indian or aboriginal camp site, dwelling site, rock shelter, cave dwelling site, storage site, grave, burial site, or skeletal remains and grave goods, cairn, or tool making site, or to remove from any such land, site, or area, grave, burial site, cave, rock shelter, or cairn, any skeletal remains, artifact or implement of stone, bone, wood, or any other material, including, but not limited to, projectile points, arrowheads, knives, awls, scrapers, beads or ornaments, basketry, matting, mauls, pestles, grinding stones, rock carvings or paintings, or any other artifacts or implements, or portions or fragments thereof without having obtained written permission from the ~~((director of the state parks and recreation commission))~~ preservation officer for such activities on public property or from the private landowner for such activities on private land. A private landowner may request the ~~((director of the state parks and recreation commission))~~ preservation officer to assume the duty of issuing such permits. The ~~((director))~~ preservation officer must obtain the consent of the public property owner or agency responsible for the management thereof, prior to issuance of the permit. The ~~((director of the state parks and recreation commission))~~ preservation officer, in consultation with the Washington state archaeological research center, shall develop guidelines for the issuance and processing of such permits. Such written permission shall be physically present while any such activity is being conducted. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the removal of artifacts found exposed on the surface of the ground nor to the excavation and removal of artifacts from state owned shorelands below the line of ordinary high water ~~((and from state owned tidelands below the line of ordinary high tide.))~~ or within the intertidal zone.

Sec. 15. Section 8, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Qualified or professional archaeologists, in performance of their duties, are hereby authorized to enter upon public lands of the state of Washington and its political subdivisions, at such times and in such manner as not to interfere with the normal management thereof, for the purposes of doing archaeological resource location and evaluation studies, including site sampling activities. Scientific excavations are to be carried out only after appropriate agreement has been made between ~~((the))~~ a professional archaeologist or an institution of higher education and the agency or political subdivision responsible for such lands. Notice of such agreement shall be filed with the Washington archaeological research center and by them to the office ~~((of archaeological and historic preservation))~~. Amateur societies may engage in such activities by submitting and having approved by the responsible agency or political subdivision a written proposal detailing the scope and duration of the activity. Before approval, a proposal from an amateur society shall be submitted to the Washington archaeological research center for review and recommendation.

Sec. 16. Section 9, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 82, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Each day of continued violation of any provision of this chapter shall constitute a distinct and separate offense. ~~((Violations))~~ Offenses shall be reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency or to the ~~((director of the state parks and recreation commission))~~ preservation officer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Prior to July 1, 1977:

(1) All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, and papers or other writings in the possession of the Washington state parks and recreation commission and pertaining to the functions affected by this 1977 amendatory act, shall be delivered to the custody of the preservation officer; and

(2) All funds, credits, appropriations, or other assets held in connection with the functions affected and transferred by this 1977 amendatory act shall be transferred to or assigned to the office: PROVIDED, That whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any funds, including unexpended balances within any accounts, the director of program planning and fiscal management, or the director's designee, shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the concerned state agencies. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers authorized, the director of program planning and fiscal management shall certify such apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each agency shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts in accordance with such certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Nothing in this 1977 amendatory act shall affect any existing rights acquired under the sections amended herein except as to the governmental agencies referred to and their officials and employees; nor shall any actions, activities, or proceedings validated thereunder, any civil or criminal proceedings instituted thereunder, or any rule, regulation, or order promulgated thereunder be affected. The transfer of powers, duties, and functions as provided herein shall not affect the validity of any act performed by the Washington state parks and recreation commission or any officer or employee thereof prior to the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act. Any action pending before the Washington state parks and recreation commission at the time of transfer and pertaining to matters transferred and affected by this 1977 amendatory act shall be continued to be acted upon by the office. All existing contracts and obligations pertaining to the functions herein transferred shall remain in full force and effect and shall be performed by the office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The office shall utilize the facilities and administrative support of the office of the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 1 through 11 and 19 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be added to Title 43 RCW as a new chapter thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The following acts or parts of acts are hereby repealed:

- (1) Section 5, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.050;
- (2) Section 1, chapter 19, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.51.750;
- (3) Section 2, chapter 19, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.51.760;
- (4) Section 3, chapter 19, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.51.770;
- (5) Section 4, chapter 19, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.51.780;
- (6) Section 5, chapter 19, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.51.790;
- (7) Section 6, chapter 19, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 58, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.51.800;
- (8) Section 7, chapter 19, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 117, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.51.810; and
- (9) Section 8, chapter 19, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 43.51.820."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title after "government;" delete remainder of the title and insert "amending section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.020; amending section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.030; amending section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended Signed by: Senators Washington, Chairman; Goltz, Guess, North.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Washington moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 30, after "officer" and before "and" insert ", with the consent of the Senate."

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 70, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Thank you, Senator Washington. As I listened to your explanation, you said that if a person knowingly alters a historic or archeological resource, then that person is in violation of the law."

Senator Washington: "Right."

Senator Pullen: "What is the penalty for violating the law in that way?"

Senator Washington: "It is a misdemeanor."

Senator Pullen: "What if the person doesn't know that it is a historic or archeological site?"

Senator Washington: "You would have to be knowingly—that is the point. You would have to knowingly recognize that you are on an archeological site."

Senator Pullen: "In other words, the 'knowingly' would apply to knowledge that it is an archeological or historic site rather than to the act of altering it."

Senator Washington: "That would be an essential ingredient. If you altered it knowing that it was an archeological site."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "Thank you, Mr. President. I wonder if Senator Odegaard would yield to a question? Senator Donohue doesn't seem to be around, but is the provision in the budget now to fund this so-called new agency?"

Senator Odegaard: "We would have to take care of that, Senator Newschwander, in the conference committee to transfer it from the parks commission into this new office, but as the budget bill passed the Senate, of course, it was within the parks commission and not this new office."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, on page 9, line 209 on the amendment. I thought you had that pink copy in your hand."

Senator Guess: "I do."

Senator Rasmussen: "OK. Is now extending this or within the intertidal zone where you may not remove any artifact that you find."

Senator Guess: "That is right."

Senator Rasmussen: "And that is an extension to the land that is normally exposed. Before that it was below the line of ordinary high water. That I am not too much concerned with. I was going to ask if you would see any problems there, but this other section down below on section 9, it would actually be line 229. 'Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.' I can see a construction project for a high rise building going down maybe forty, fifty feet for a foundation, coming on archeological find, a mastodon or something like that, or some old Indian artifacts. They must immediately stop work even though they tie up all of their equipment or be subject to a misdemeanor which can be up to a year in jail or two hundred and fifty dollars fine, or five hundred. I don't know which. Maybe it is a thousand dollars. Is this true?"

Senator Guess: "This is true. The job will have to shut down and they will have to bring the archeologist in, Senator, to examine the site. Hopefully, however, that when a company builds in the state of Washington today, under the present laws, they now have to—and this is old language, except we have added 'firm or corporation' to it—any person who would go in and dig into a site preparatory to the construction of a building, the engineer in making the borings and making the findings of fact on the site will assess whether or not the site has any archeological value. And if it does, then he immediately recommends to the agency that is doing the construction that they bring in the people and make sure that the remains can be removed so whatever the value of the diggings would be there, that it would then be preserved."

Senator Rasmussen: "My concern would be that you would stop a project with thousands of dollars per day cost until some of these people come in with their whisk brooms and brush the bones off to see whether they are worth saving, and if I am that contractor, Senator Guess, I would be very unhappy with that delay and with the fact that it might even be determined that it is a site that must be preserved forever, and where I have a forty story building in the process of construction that would irritate me. Now, you know the contractors, and I am very glad that you have examined this bill as carefully as you have."

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Again, further answering Senator Rasmussen, the few times that you run into archeology, it is very generally a remote possibility. The highway department at the present time in going across country does occasionally run into an archeological site, and there has been no real hold up in attempting to go ahead with the work. There are other areas that you can work on, and again, most archeological sites are very close to the surface. We don't have deep archeological sites like you do in Europe. They are usually the type of sites that can be worked on very quickly. Usually they are not too large and generally your construction project can go on in an area that wouldn't be covered by the archeological site.

"This has been in effect for some years, and we have really run into no problems to date. Again, this is the existing law. I do want to point out that we are not establishing a new position. We are not providing a new office. It is an office that presently exists in the parks department. The people who are employed, their functions are set out by the federal act. We utilize mostly federal money, and those people who are functioning now in the parks commission will be transferred in toto. They are not doing work at the present time for the parks department. They are financed out of additional funds, and it is not proper for them to be doing work for the parks department under the present set up"

"I would also like to point out to Senator Odegaard that at the present time the parks commission, the office under the parks department, does allocate funds, and one of the complaints has been that more than perhaps their share, and of course that is debatable, but other people have made the charge, that this money should not be utilized to such an extent by the parks department, but also should be utilized in the private sector. It should be utilized by counties, it should be utilized by cities. But again, once the funds are turned over, they can be turned over to the parks department, and the parks department can continue to do as it does at the present time.

"This doesn't take away the responsibility for managing the historic sites. It only says that they have to go to an independent agency to get federal funds to set up a historic archeological site."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 23, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed:

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3002, with the following amendments:

On page 3, line 30, after "propagation," strike all material down through and including "enterprises." on line 1, page 4

On page 7, beginning with "or to" on line 15, strike all the material down to and including "resources" on line 17 and insert:

"nor shall anything in this act be construed to interfere with the powers, duties, and authority of the department of fisheries or the department of game to regulate, manage, conserve, and provide for the harvest of fish or wildlife within any area designated as being in the state's scenic river system: PROVIDED, That no hunting shall be permitted in any state park", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Bluechel moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3002.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "I wonder if Senator Bluechel would yield? This in no way adds any more rivers to this bill?"

Senator Bluechel: "It doesn't do a thing, in fact, not a thing."

The motion by Senator Bluechel carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3002.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3002, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 15; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Mardesich, Woody—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3002, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

Senator Marsh moved the Senate now consider Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 615.

On motion of Senator Pullen, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 615 will be considered following Substitute House Bill No. 1278.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 318.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 318, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Hansen, Fortson, Fancher, Gaines, Kilbury, Boldt, Charnley, Amen and Knedlik):

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 318 on second reading. The bill had been amended on May 20, 1977. On May 25, 1977, Senator Francis had moved the bill, as amended, be rereferred to the Judiciary Committee.

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Francis was withdrawn.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

On motion of Senator Wilson, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen, Donohue, Matson, and Woody was adopted on May 20, 1977:

On page 3, after line 13, insert new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. There is added to Title 58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The owner of any real property in the state of Washington may transfer by deed not less than one nor more than five acres of such property to a parent, spouse, or child for the exclusive purpose of permitting said parent, spouse, or child to construct thereon one single family residence and necessary out buildings thereto. The deed shall contain a restrictive covenant running with the property reflecting the provisions of this section. Any conveyance of real property meeting the conditions imposed by this section shall be exempt from the provisions of this title.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 271, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 58.17.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to:

- (1) Cemeteries and other burial plots while used for that purpose;
- (2) Divisions of land into lots or tracts each of which is one-one hundred twenty-eighth of a section of land or larger, or five acres or larger if the land is not capable of description as a fraction of a section of land(~~(, unless the governing authority of the city, town, or county in which the land is situated shall have adopted a subdivision ordinance requiring plat approval of such divisions)~~): PROVIDED, That for purposes of computing the size of any lot under this item which borders on a street or road, the lot size shall be expanded to include that area which would be bounded by the center line of the road or street and the side lot lines of the lot running perpendicular to such center line;

(3) Divisions made by testamentary provisions, or the laws of descent;

~~((5))~~ (4) A division for the purpose of lease when no residential structure other than mobile homes or travel trailers are permitted to be placed upon the land and a local government has approved a binding site plan for the use of the land in accordance with local regulations. The term "site plan" means a drawing to a scale specified by local ordinance and which: (a) Identifies and shows the areas and locations of all streets, roads, improvements, utilities, open spaces, and any other matters specified by local regulations; and (b) contains inscriptions or attachments setting forth such appropriate limitations and conditions for the use of the land as are established by the local government body having authority to approve the site plan. A site plan approved by a local government body shall not be "binding" under this subsection unless development in conformity to the site plan is enforceable under a local ordinance."

On motion of Senator Wilson, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rasmussen, Donohue, Matson and Woody was adopted:

Amend the amendment as follows:

On line 3, after "insert" insert "a" and strike "sections" and insert "section", and beginning on line 19 strike all of the section amending RCW 58.17.040, through and including line 21 on page 3.

The motion by Senator Wilson carried and the amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, was adopted.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

On motion of Senator Wilson, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the following amendment by Senator Rasmussen to the title was adopted:

In the title, strike everything after "AN ACT" and insert "Relating to real property; amending Section 18, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.180; amending section 4, chapter 271, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 58.17.040; creating new sections; and adding a new section to Title 58 RCW."

On motion of Senator Wilson, the following amendment to the amendment to the title was adopted:

In the fourth line of the title amendment, after "8.26.180;" strike all the matter down through "58.17.040;" on line 7.

The motion by Senator Wilson carried and the amendment to the title, as amended, on reconsideration, was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, will Senator Wilson yield to a question? Senator Wilson, I don't like this procedure because I have to be relying on questioning you because I don't have the amendment that we have just amended in my book, and I don't have it in front of me, the Donohue amendment that we adopted several days ago.

"What is the effect now of what we have done? Have we completely taken off the Donohue amendments or have we somehow or other tuned them up, and if so, what have we done now to county platting authority and to the requirements that were affected by that amendment when we adopted it the other day?"

Senator Wilson: "Senator Francis, the amendment that we have been dealing with today actually consisted of two parts. The first was an amendment advocated by Senator Donohue which would permit a farmer, for example, to give his sons or his spouse, or one of his other children or parents, title to a tract on his farm between one and five acres in size for the specific purpose of permitting this fellow to build a single family residence thereon.

"The second part of the amendment pertained to the general subdivision authority of the counties, and it is the second part of the amendment which we have now deleted, leaving behind the proposition that Senator Donohue outlined on the floor a couple of days ago."

Senator Francis: "In other words, Senator, you are saying that we now, after having made these amendments here today, still have a provision in there that regardless of the county requirements a farmer can leave to a relative or can deed to a relative certain small tracts of land for the purpose of building a single family residence?"

Senator Wilson: "That is correct."

On motion of Senator Wilson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 318, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 318, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 14; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bottiger, Bullington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Goltz, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollenbeck, Wanamaker—31.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Gould, Grant, McDermott, North, Scott, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—14.

Absent or not voting: Senator Sandison—1.

Excused: Senators Mardesich, Woody—2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 318, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 779.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 779, by Representatives Vrooman, Knowles, Lux, Keller, Martinis, Burns, Wilson, Taller and Berentson:

Authorizing group filing for certain labor liens.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 779 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, if they file on the same document, how do you establish your priority amongst those lien claimants? Would they then be ranked all together, and if there is insufficient funds be paid proration?"

Senator Ridder: "I don't know how they are paid now, Senator Bottiger. This does not speak to the question of priority, simply to the fact that—I assume they have a joint priority. This does not change the priority."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, House Bill No. 779 was held on third reading following consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 340.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 615.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 615, by Judiciary Committee (originally sponsored by Representatives Enbody, Knowles and McKibbin):

Enacting the "Comprehensive Sentencing Act of 1977".

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Marsh, Vice Chairman; Buffington, Hayner, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendments were not adopted.

Senator Hayner moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Francis and Hayner:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. When a defendant is charged with the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in RCW 9A.32.030(1)(a), the prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's designee shall file a written notice of intention to request a proceeding to determine whether or not the death penalty should be imposed when the prosecution has reason to believe that one or more aggravating circumstances, as set forth in RCW 9A.32.045 as now or hereafter amended, was present and the prosecution intends to prove the presence of such circumstance or circumstances in a special sentencing proceeding under section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act.

The notice of intention to request the death penalty must be served on the defendant or the defendant's attorney and filed with the court within thirty days of the defendant's arraignment in superior court on the charge of murder in the first degree under RCW 9A.32.030(1)(a). The notice shall specify the aggravating circumstance or circumstances upon which the prosecuting attorney bases the request for the death penalty. The court may, within the thirty day period upon good cause being shown, extend the period for the service and filing of notice.

If the prosecution does not serve and file written notice of intent to request the death penalty within the specified time the prosecuting attorney may not request the death penalty.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) If notice of intention to request the death penalty has been served and filed by the prosecution in accordance with section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act, then a special sentencing proceeding shall be held in the event the defendant is found guilty of murder in the first degree under RCW 9A.32.030(1)(a).

(2) If the prosecution has filed a request for the death penalty in accordance with section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act, and the trial jury returns a verdict of murder in the first degree under RCW 9A.32.030(1)(a), then, at such time as the verdict is returned, the trial judge shall reconvene the same trial jury to determine in a separate special sentencing proceeding whether there are one or more aggravating circumstances and whether there are mitigating circumstances sufficient to merit leniency, as provided in RCW 9A.32.045 as now or hereafter amended, and to answer special questions pursuant to subsection (10) of this section. The special sentencing proceeding shall be held as soon as possible following the return of the jury verdict.

(3) At the commencement of the special sentencing proceeding the judge shall instruct the jury as to the nature and purpose of the proceeding and as to the consequences of its findings as provided in RCW 9A.32.040 as now or hereafter amended.

(4) In the special sentencing proceeding, evidence may be presented relating to the presence of any aggravating or mitigating circumstances as enumerated in RCW 9A.32.045 as now or hereafter amended. Evidence of aggravating circumstances shall be limited to evidence relevant to those aggravating circumstances specified in the notice required by section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(5) Any relevant evidence which the court deems to have probative value may be received regardless of its admissibility under usual rules of evidence: PROVIDED, That the defendant is accorded a fair opportunity to rebut any hearsay statements: PROVIDED FURTHER, That evidence secured in violation of the Constitutions of the United States or the state of Washington shall not be admissible.

(6) Upon the conclusion of the evidence, the judge shall give the jury appropriate instructions and the prosecution and the defendant or defendant's counsel shall be permitted to present argument. The prosecution shall open and conclude the argument to the jury.

(7) The jury shall then retire to deliberate. Upon reaching a decision, the jury shall specify each aggravating circumstance that it unanimously determines to have been established beyond a reasonable doubt. In the event the jury finds no aggravating circumstances the defendant shall be sentenced pursuant to RCW 9A.32.040(3) as now or hereafter amended.

(8) If the jury finds there are one or more aggravating circumstances it must then decide whether it is also unanimously convinced beyond a reasonable doubt there are not sufficient mitigating circumstances to merit leniency. If the jury makes such a finding, it shall proceed to answer the special questions submitted pursuant to subsection (10) of this section.

(9) If the jury finds there are one or more aggravating circumstances but fails to be convinced beyond a reasonable doubt there are not sufficient mitigating circumstances to merit leniency the defendant shall be sentenced pursuant to RCW 9A.32.040(2) as now or hereafter amended.

(10) If the jury finds that there are one or more aggravating circumstances and is unanimously convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that there are not sufficient mitigating circumstances to merit leniency, the jury shall answer the following questions:

(a) Did the evidence presented at trial establish the guilt of the defendant with clear certainty?

(b) Are you convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that there is a probability that the defendant would commit additional criminal acts of violence that would constitute a continuing threat to society?

The state shall have the burden of proving each question and the court shall instruct the jury that it may not answer either question in the affirmative unless it agrees unanimously.

If the jury answers both questions in the affirmative, the defendant shall be sentenced pursuant to RCW 9A.32.040(1) as now or hereafter amended.

If the jury answers either question in the negative the defendant shall be sentenced pursuant to RCW 9A.32.040(2) as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 3. Section 9A.32.040, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding RCW 9A.32.030(2), any person convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced ~~((to life imprisonment))~~ as follows:

(1) If, pursuant to a special sentencing proceeding held under section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, the jury finds that there are one or more aggravating circumstances and that there are not sufficient mitigating circumstances to merit leniency, and makes an affirmative finding on both of the special questions submitted to the jury pursuant to section 2(10) of this 1977 amendatory act, the sentence shall be death;

(2) If, pursuant to a special sentencing proceeding held under section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, the jury finds that there are one or more aggravating circumstances but fails to find that there are not sufficient mitigating circumstances to merit leniency, or the jury answers in the negative either of the special questions submitted pursuant to section 2(10) of this 1977 amendatory act, the sentence shall be life imprisonment without possibility of release or parole. A person sentenced to life imprisonment under this subsection shall not have that sentence suspended, deferred, or commuted by any judicial officer, and the board of prison terms and paroles shall never parole a prisoner or reduce the period of confinement nor release the convicted person as a result of any automatic good time calculation nor shall the department of social and health services permit the convicted person to participate in any temporary release or furlough program; and

(3) In all other convictions for first degree murder, the sentence shall be life imprisonment.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 9, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. (Initiative Measure No. 316, section 1) and RCW 9A.32.045 are each amended to read as follows:

((A person is guilty of aggravated murder in the first degree when he commits murder in the first degree as defined in RCW 9A.32.030 under or accompanied by any of)) (1) In a special sentencing proceeding under section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, the following shall constitute aggravating circumstances:

((+)) (a) The victim was a law enforcement officer or fire fighter and was performing his or her official duties at the time of the killing and the victim was known or reasonably should have been known to be such at the time of the killing.

((2)) (b) At the time of the act resulting in the death, the defendant was serving a term of imprisonment in a state correctional institution or had escaped or was on authorized or unauthorized leave from a state correctional institution, or was in custody in a local jail and subject to commitment to a state correctional institution.

((3)) (c) The defendant committed the murder pursuant to an agreement that ((he)) the defendant receive money or other thing of value for committing the murder.

((4)) (d) The defendant had solicited another to commit the murder and had paid or agreed to pay such person money or other thing of value for committing the murder.

((5) The defendant committed the murder with intent to conceal the commission of a crime, or to protect or conceal the identity of any person committing the same, or with intent to delay, hinder or obstruct the administration of justice by preventing any person from being a witness or producing evidence in any investigation or proceeding authorized by law or by influencing any person's official action as a juror)) (e) The murder was of a judge, juror, witness, prosecuting attorney, a deputy prosecuting attorney, or defense attorney because of the exercise of his or her official duty in relation to the defendant.

((6)) (f) There was more than one victim and the said murders were part of a common scheme or plan, or the result of a single act of the defendant.

((7)) (g) The defendant committed the murder in the course of ((or)), in furtherance of ((the crime of rape or kidnaping or in immediate flight therefrom:)), or in immediate flight from the crimes of either (i) robbery in the first or second degree, (ii) rape in the first or second degree, (iii) burglary in the first degree, (iv) arson in the first degree, or (v) kidnaping in which the defendant intentionally abducted another person with intent to hold the person for ransom or reward, or as a shield or hostage, and the killing was committed with the reasonable expectation that the death of the deceased or another would result.

(h) The defendant was previously convicted in this or another jurisdiction of a crime equivalent to nonvehicular homicide amounting to a class A felony, or was previously twice convicted in this or another jurisdiction of a felony equivalent to a class A felony.

(i) The murder was committed to obstruct or hinder the investigative, research, or reporting activities of anyone regularly employed as a newsreporter, including anyone self-employed in such capacity.

(2) In deciding whether there are mitigating circumstances sufficient to merit leniency, the jury may consider any relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) The defendant has no significant history of prior criminal activity;

(b) The murder was committed while the defendant was under the influence of extreme mental disturbance;

(c) The victim consented to the homicidal act;

(d) The defendant was an accomplice in a murder committed by another person and the defendant's participation in the homicidal act was relatively minor;

(e) The defendant acted under duress or under the domination of another person;

(f) At the time of the murder, the capacity of the defendant to appreciate the criminality (wrongfulness) of his or her conduct or to conform his or her conduct to the requirements of law was substantially impaired as a result of mental disease or defect; and

(g) The age of the defendant at the time of the crime calls for leniency.

Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 9, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. (Initiative Measure No. 316, section 2) and RCW 9A.32.046 are each amended to read as follows:

((A person found guilty of aggravated murder in the first degree as defined in RCW 9A.32.045, shall be punished by the mandatory sentence of death:)) Once a person is found guilty of ((aggravated)) murder in the first degree ((as defined in RCW 9A.32.045)) under RCW 9A.32.030(1)(a) with one or more aggravating circumstances and without sufficient mitigating circumstances to merit leniency and the jury has made affirmative findings on both of the special questions submitted pursuant to section 2(10) of this 1977 amendatory act, neither the court nor the jury shall have the discretion to suspend or defer the imposition or execution of the sentence of death. ((Such sentence shall be automatic upon any conviction of aggravated first degree murder. The death sentence shall take place at the state penitentiary under the direction of and pursuant to arrangements made by the superintendent thereof. PROVIDED, That)) The time of such execution shall be set by the trial judge at the time of imposing sentence and as a part thereof.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 9, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. (Initiative Measure No. 316, section 3) and RCW 9A.32.047 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event that the governor commutes a death sentence or in the event that the death penalty is held to be unconstitutional by the United States supreme court or the supreme court of the state of Washington ((in any of the circumstances specified in RCW 9A.32.045:)) the penalty ((for aggravated murder in the first degree in those circumstances)) shall be imprisonment in the state penitentiary for life without possibility of release or parole. A person sentenced to life imprisonment under this section shall not have that sentence suspended, deferred, or commuted by any judicial officer, and the board of prison terms and paroles shall never parole a prisoner or reduce the period of confinement nor release the convicted person as a result of any automatic good time calculation nor shall the department of social and health services permit the convicted person to participate in any work release or furlough program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Whenever the death penalty is imposed, and upon the judgment becoming final in the trial court, the sentence shall be reviewed on the record by the supreme court of Washington. The clerk of the trial court within ten days after receiving the transcript, shall transmit the entire record and transcript to the supreme court of Washington together with a notice prepared by the clerk and a report prepared by the trial judge. The notice shall set forth the title and docket number of the case, the name of the defendant and the name and address of the defendant's attorney, a narrative statement of the judgment, the offense, and the punishment prescribed. The report shall be in the form of a standard questionnaire prepared and supplied by the supreme court of Washington.

(2) The supreme court of Washington shall consider the punishment as well as any errors enumerated by way of appeal.

(3) With regard to the sentence, the court shall determine:

(a) Whether the evidence supports the jury's findings; and

(b) Whether the sentence of death is excessive or disproportionate to the penalty imposed in similar cases, considering both the crime and the defendant.

(4) Both the defendant and the state shall have the right to submit briefs within the time provided by the court, and to present oral argument to the court.

(5) The court shall include in its decision a reference to those similar cases which it took into consideration. In addition to its authority regarding correction of errors, the court, with regard to review of death sentences, shall be authorized to:

(a) Affirm the sentence of death; or

(b) Set the sentence aside and remand the case for resentencing by the trial judge based on the record and argument of counsel. The records of those similar cases referred to by the supreme court of Washington in its decision and the extracts prepared therefor shall be provided to the resentencing judge for the judge's consideration.

(6) The sentence review shall be in addition to direct appeal, if taken, and the review and appeal shall be consolidated for consideration. The court shall render its decision on legal errors enumerated, the factual substantiation of the verdict, and the validity of the sentence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1, 2, and 7 of this 1977 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 10 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Francis and Hayner:

On page 9, following line 23, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 10.64 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Following the effective date of this act, there shall be affixed to the original of every judgment and sentence of a felony conviction in every court of this state and notwithstanding 13.04.130 RCW every order adjudicating a juvenile to have committed an act which would be a felony if committed by an adult, a fingerprint of the defendant or juvenile who is the subject of the order.

The clerk of the court shall attest that the fingerprint appearing on the judgment in sentence, order of adjudication of delinquency, or docket, is that of the individual who is the subject of the judgment or conviction, order, or docket entry."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment expands the scope and object. Mr. President, and members of the Senate, the measure before us is an act relating to the death penalty. The calendar, of course, has a different title. The amendment as proposed by Senator Clarke deals with certain procedures of felons and the requirement that certain fingerprints be taken and so forth. I really think that has no place in the so-called death penalty act."

Debate ensued.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes it would be necessary for the amendment to the amendment to be attached to the amendment and then pose your scope and object objection, Senator."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I don't quite follow—."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The amendment is an amendment to this proposed amendment by Senator Francis and Senator Hayner."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: "I have not raised the point of order with regard to the amendment by Senator Francis and Senator Hayner. That provides different procedures with regard to the death penalty, and I am not—"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Senator Francis and Senator Hayner amendment is to the bill. Your amendment is to the amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: "My objection is to the amendment to the amendment."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that this amendment should be voted up or down and then if it is voted up then you may offer your objections."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, speaking to that, the other amendments that are being presented, amendments to the amendment, I also would intend to raise the question of scope and object to those other amendments, but I do feel that the original amendment as proposed by Senators Francis and Hayner is within the scope and object of the measure. It deals with the death penalty and that is what this bill is about. The amendments to the amendment, as far as I can determine in reading them, have nothing to do with the death penalty, and that is why I am raising the question."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 615, together with the pending amendment by Senators Francis and Hayner, the amendment to the amendment by Senator Clarke and the Point of Order raised by Senator Grant on the amendment to the amendment by Senator Clarke, was ordered held pending a Ruling by the President.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Mr. President, would Senator Bluechel yield? Senator Bluechel, my question is, whether this will make it any more difficult for smaller municipalities in particular to achieve a successful issuance of bond issues."

Senator Bluechel: "It really won't. What this is--just to insure that when there is a secure redemption of the bonds. There has been in certain cases in certain local communities where bonds have been put out to build certain items where the risk has not been justified and they have been done without serious thought. This will require that they go through the regular routine where the only redemption is from the private end of the scale, not through the government."

Implementing law relating to cosmetology.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 3, 1977.

HOUSE BILL NO. 649, implementing law relating to cosmetology (reported by Committee on Commerce):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 7, chapter 180, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 3, chapter 266, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Licenses may be renewed from year to year upon the payment on or before the first day of July following their issuance, of a renewal fee as follows: Manicurist, not more than five dollars; operator, not more than five dollars; instructor, operator, not more than six dollars; manager operator, not more than six dollars; shop, not more than seven dollars; school, not more than one hundred and fifty dollars, all such fees to be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085.

~~((A certificate of health is required with an application for an original license; one must also be filed with a renewal application.))~~

Any manicurist, operator, manager operator, or instructor operator whose license has lapsed may have the same renewed upon payment of all fees which the applicant would have been required to pay to keep such license in effect, and an additional fee of five dollars for each lapsed year: PROVIDED, That any person whose license has lapsed for more than three years shall be re-examined, as in the case of any applicant for an original license."

On line 1 of the title after the semicolon strike "and"; and on line 3 of the title, after "18.18.260" and before the period insert "; and amending section 7, chapter 180, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 3, chapter 266, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.18.140"

Signed by: Senators Van Hollebeke, Chairman; Wojahn, Vice Chairman; Bausch, Morrison.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 615.

President Cherberg assumed the Chair.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 615, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Enbody, Knowles and McKibbin):

Enacting the "Comprehensive Sentencing Act of 1977".

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 615. Earlier today, an amendment by Senators Francis and Hayner had been moved for adoption. Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment and Senator Grant had raised a Point of Order on the amendment by Senator Clarke:

On page 9, following line 23, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 10.64 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Following the effective date of this act, there shall be affixed to the original of every judgment and sentence of a felony conviction in every court of this state and notwithstanding 13.04.130 RCW every order adjudicating a juvenile to have committed an act which would be a felony if committed by an adult, a fingerprint of the defendant or juvenile who is the subject of the order.

The clerk of the court shall attest that the fingerprint appearing on the judgment in sentence, order of adjudication of delinquency, or docket, is that of the individual who is the subject of the judgment or conviction, order, or docket entry."

Remember the remaining sections consecutively.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Grant, the President finds that because the floor amendment proposed by Senators Francis and Hayner is, in effect, synonymous with the scope and object of Engrossed Substitute House Bill 615 as before the body, and because the President feels that in the interest of fairness to the Senate, the Senate should be given information necessary to make its legislative determinations. The President should rule upon the point of order as if the amendment proposed by Senator Clarke were to the bill itself.

"The President finds that the amendment relates to fingerprinting of juveniles while the bill relates to the circumstances under which the death penalty may be imposed. Therefore, the amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order raised by Senator Grant is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Clarke to the amendment by Senators Francis and Hayner was ruled out of order.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On page 3, lines 30 and 31, at the end of line 30 and the beginning of line 31, strike "with clear certainty" and insert "beyond a reasonable doubt"

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Pullen, the amendment to the amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendments to the amendment were adopted:

On page 4, line 33, after "prisoner" strike "or" and insert "nor"

On page 4, line 34, after "confinement" strike "nor release the" and insert "The"

On page 4, line 35, after "person" insert "shall not be released"

On page 4, line 35, after "any" strike "automatic" and insert "type of"

On motion of Senator Van Hollebecke, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

On page 6, beginning on line 18, strike all of subsection (h).

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On page 6, line 9, after the comma, insert "(ii) assault in the first degree," and reletter remaining subsections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, in thinking through Senator Pullen's remarks, I can't conceive of a murder that isn't an assault in the first degree. By the very nature of the act it is an assault, so we would, in effect, then be making all murders aggravated murder if we include assault."

Senator Francis: "Senator Bottiger, I think you are probably correct there that that would, in effect, be like a felony murder rule that would bring in the death penalty. I think that that is a good point."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On page 6, line 14, after "hostage" strike all the material down to the period on line 17.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On page 6, following line 17, insert:

"(h) The defendant committed the murder while driving a motor vehicle and while he was under the influence of alcohol or drugs."

Relletter remaining subsections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Will Senator Goltz yield to a question? Senator Goltz, if we moved all of the students out of all of the four-year colleges, how many dormitory rooms do you think we would have?"

Senator Goltz: "I haven't that count, but I would be glad to give you that information."

Senator Bottiger: "I would imagine five, six thousand dormitory rooms? Because that is about what we would need if your amendment is adopted. I am sure there would be mitigating them for the rest of their lives without possibility of parole, and the portion that we would spend would be gigantic."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Goltz failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On page 7, beginning on line 8, strike all of subsection (g).

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

On page 8, line 1, after "penalty" insert "under RCW 9A.32.046"

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendments to the amendment were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 8, line 9, after "prisoner" strike "or" and insert "~~((or))~~ nor"

On page 8, line 10, after "confinement" strike "nor release the" and insert "~~((nor release the))~~ . The"

On page 8, line 10, after "person" insert "shall not be released"

On page 8, line 11, after "any" strike "automatic" and insert "~~((automatic))~~ type of"

On page 8, line 14, strike "work" and insert "~~((work))~~ temporary"

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen, Bausch and Henry to the amendment:

On page 9, on line 24, insert:

"Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 141, Laws of 1959 and RCW 9.61.160 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to threaten to bomb or otherwise injure any public or private school building, any place of worship or public assembly, any governmental building, or any other building, common carrier, structure, or place used for human occupancy; or to communicate or repeat any information concerning such a threatened bombing or injury, knowing such information to be false and with intent to alarm the person or persons to whom the information is communicated or repeated.

Sec. 10. Section 3, chapter 141, Laws of 1959 and RCW 9.61.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Any violation of RCW 9.61.160 through 9.61.180 shall be a ~~((gross misdemeanor))~~ felony."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and change internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I would raise a point of order. Yes, that this amendment expands the scope and object. It changes the penalty for bomb threats to a felony, and I don't really feel that it has any place in the death penalty bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that the point of order presented by Senator Grant is well taken in line with the previous ruling on a similar point of order."

The amendment by Senators Rasmussen, Bausch and Henry to the amendment by Senators Francis and Hayner was ruled out of order.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On page 9, after line 23, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 9.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No person in the state shall be placed in legal jeopardy of any kind whatsoever for protecting by any means necessary, himself, his family, or his real or personal property, or for coming to the aid of another who is in imminent danger of or the victim of aggravated assault, armed robbery, holdup, rape, murder, or any other heinous crime.

When a substantial question of self defense in such a case shall exist which needs legal investigation or court action for the full determination of the facts, and the defendant's actions are subsequently found justified under the intent of this section, the state of Washington shall indemnify or reimburse such defendant for all loss of time, legal fees, or other expenses involved in his defense."

Remember the remaining sections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Rasmussen was adopted:

On line 6 of the amendment after "by any" insert "reasonable"

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment, as amended, to the amendment, was adopted.

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Hayner moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hayner and Francis to the title:

On page 1, on line 1 of the title after "death penalty;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 9A.32.040, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.32.040; amending section 1, chapter 9, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. (Initiative Measure No. 316, section 1) and RCW 9A.32.045; amending section 2, chapter 9, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. (Initiative Measure No. 316, section 2) and RCW 9A.32.046; amending section 3, chapter 9, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. (Initiative Measure No. 316, section 3) and RCW 9A.32.047; adding a new chapter to Title 10 RCW; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 14 of the title amendment, after "Title 10 RCW;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 9.01 RCW;"

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the amendment to the title, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 615, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 615, as amended by the Senate, was ordered placed on the third reading calendar for May 31, 1977.

SEVENTY-EIGHTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Friday, May 27, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Francis, Herr, Jones, Mardesich, Matson and McDermott. On motion of Senator Sellar, Senators Jones and Matson were excused. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Francis, Herr, Mardesich and McDermott were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Ed Clarke and Kathleen Knott, presented the Colors. Reverend David Kratz, pastor of United Church of Christ of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"FAITHFUL GOD, AS WE PREPARE TO GET AWAY FROM IT ALL, AS WE LOOK FORWARD TO A BRIEF RESPITE FROM THE CHALLENGES OF LIFE ON THIS MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND, HELP US BE MINDFUL OF ITS DEEPER MEANINGS. DRAW INTO OUR AWARENESS THE MEMORIES OF THOSE WHO HAVE DIED THAT WE MIGHT LIVE, WHO HAVE GIVEN OF THEMSELVES SO THAT WE MIGHT KNOW SOMETHING OF THE PURPOSE AND MEANING OF OUR DAYS, SO THAT WE MIGHT GRASP SOMETHING OF THE COURAGE NEEDED TO SUSTAIN LIFE. MOST OF ALL, KEEP US MINDFUL THAT WE DID NOT MAKE OUR LIVES, BUT THAT LIFE IS A GIFT TO US AND WE, A GIFT TO LIFE. SAVE US FROM POMPOUS SELF RIGHTEOUSNESS AND THE HARDNESS WHICH COMES FROM TAKING LIFE AND PEOPLE FOR GRANTED, AND LET OUR DAYS BE A GRATEFUL SONG AND A GLAD OFFERING FOR THOSE WHO SOME DAY WILL REMEMBER AND FIND INSPIRATION FROM US. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 25, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2282, with the following amendments:

On page 1, after line 4, delete everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 2, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Agency" includes all state agencies and all local agencies. "State agency" includes every state office, ~~((public official,))~~ department, division, bureau, board, commission, or other state agency. "Local agency" includes every county, city, ~~((city and county, school district))~~ town, municipal corporation, quasi municipal corporation, or special purpose district, ((political subdivision,)) or any office, department, division, bureau, board, commission, or agency thereof, or other local public agency.

(2) "Ballot proposition" means any "measure" as defined by RCW 29.01.110, or any initiative, recall, or referendum proposition proposed to be submitted to the voters of the state or any municipal corporation, political subdivision or other voting constituency from and after the time when such proposition has been initially filed with the appropriate election officer of that constituency prior to its circulation for signatures.

(3) "Campaign depository" means a bank designated by a candidate or political committee pursuant to RCW 42.17.050.

(4) "Campaign treasurer" and "deputy campaign treasurer" mean the individuals appointed by a candidate or political committee, pursuant to RCW 42.17.050, to perform the duties specified in that section.

(5) "Candidate" means any individual who seeks election to public office. An individual shall be deemed to seek election when he first:

(a) Receives contributions or makes expenditures or reserves space or facilities with intent to promote his candidacy for office; or

(b) Announces publicly or files for office.

(6) "Commercial advertiser" means any person who sells the service of communicating messages or producing printed material for broadcast or distribution to the general public or segments of the general public whether through the use of newspapers, magazines, television and radio stations, billboard companies, direct mail advertising companies, printing companies, or otherwise.

(7) "Commission" means the agency established under RCW 42.17.350.

(8) "Compensation" unless the context requires a narrower meaning, includes payment in any form for real or personal property or services of any kind: PROVIDED, That for the purpose of compliance with RCW 42.17.240, as now or hereafter amended, the term "compensation" shall not include per diem allowances or other payments made by a governmental entity to reimburse a public official for expenses incurred while such official is engaged in the official business of such governmental entity.

(9) "Continuing political committee" means a political committee which is an organization of continuing existence not established in anticipation of any particular election.

(10) "Contribution" includes a loan, gift, deposit, subscription, forgiveness of indebtedness, donation, advance, pledge, payment, transfer of funds between political committees, or transfer of anything of value, including personal and professional services for less than full consideration, but does not include interest on moneys deposited in a political committee's account, ordinary home hospitality and the rendering of "part time" personal services of the sort commonly performed by volunteer campaign workers or incidental expenses personally incurred by volunteer campaign workers not in excess of twenty-five dollars personally paid for by such worker. "Part time" services, for the purposes of this chapter, means services in addition to regular full time employment, or, in the case of an unemployed person, services not in excess of twenty hours per week, excluding weekends. For the purposes of this chapter, contributions other than money or its equivalents shall be deemed to have a money value equivalent to the fair market value of the contribution. Sums paid for tickets to fund-raising events such as dinners and parties are contributions; however, the amount of any such contribution may be reduced for the purpose of complying with the reporting requirements of this chapter, by the actual cost of consumables furnished in connection with the purchase of such tickets, and only the excess over actual cost of such consumables shall be deemed a contribution.

(11) "Elected official" means any person elected at a general or special election to any public office, and any person appointed to fill a vacancy in any such office.

(12) "Election" includes any primary, general, or special election for public office and any election in which a ballot proposition is submitted to the voters: PROVIDED, That an election in which the qualifications for voting include other than those requirements set forth in Article VI, section 1 (Amendment 63) of the Constitution of the state of Washington shall not be considered an election for purposes of this chapter.

(13) "Election campaign" means any campaign in support of or in opposition to a candidate for election to public office and any campaign in support of, or in opposition to, a ballot proposition.

loan has been properly reported, or payment of service charges against a political committee's campaign account.

(15) "Final report" means the report described as a final report in RCW 42.17.080(2).

(16) "Immediate family" includes the spouse, dependent children, and other dependent relatives, if living in the household.

(17) "Legislation" means bills, resolutions, motions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either house of the state legislature, and includes any other matter which may be the subject of action by either house, or any committee of the legislature and all bills and resolutions which having passed both houses, are pending approval by the governor.

(18) "Lobby" and "lobbying" each mean attempting to influence the passage or defeat of any legislation by the legislature of the state of Washington, or the adoption or rejection of any rule, standard, rate, or other legislative enactment of any state agency under the state administrative procedure acts, chapter 34.04 RCW and chapter 28B.19 RCW.

(19) "Lobbyist" includes any person who shall lobby either in his own or another's behalf.

(20) "Lobbyist's employer" means the person or persons by whom a lobbyist is employed and all persons by whom he is compensated for acting as a lobbyist.

(21) "Person" includes an individual, partnership, joint venture, public or private corporation, association, federal, state, or local governmental entity or agency however constituted, candidate, committee, political committee, political party, executive committee thereof, or any other organization or group of persons, however organized.

(22) "Person in interest" means the person who is the subject of a record or any representative designated by said person, except that if such person be under a legal disability, the term "person in interest" shall mean and include the parent or duly appointed legal representative.

(23) "Political advertising" includes any advertising displays, newspaper ads, billboards, signs, brochures, articles, tabloids, flyers, letters, radio or television presentations, or other means of mass communication, used for the purpose of appealing, directly or indirectly, for votes or for financial or other support in any election campaign.

(24) "Political committee" means any person (except a candidate or an individual dealing with his own funds or property) having the expectation of receiving contributions or making expenditures in support of, or opposition to, any candidate or any ballot proposition.

(25) "Public office" means any federal, state, county, city, town, school district, port district, special district, or other state political subdivision elective office.

(26) "Public record" includes any writing containing information relating to the conduct of government or the performance of any governmental or proprietary function prepared, owned, used, or retained by any state or local agency regardless of physical form or characteristics.

(27) "Writing" means handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, and every other means of recording any form of communication or representation, including letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combination thereof, and all papers, maps, magnetic or paper tapes, photographic films and prints, magnetic or punched cards, discs, drums, and other documents.

As used in this chapter, the singular shall take the plural and any gender, the other, as the context requires.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and RCW 42.17.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter relating to the financing of election campaigns shall apply in all election campaigns other than (a) for precinct committeeman; (b) for ~~((the president and vice president of the United States))~~ a federal elective office; and (c) ~~for an office the constituency of which does not encompass a whole county and which contains less than five thousand registered voters as of the date of the most recent general election in such district.~~

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 4, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All monetary contributions received by a candidate or political committee shall be deposited by the campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer in a campaign depository in an account designated, "Campaign Fund of" (name of candidate or political committee).

~~((All deposits made by a campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer shall be accompanied by))~~ At the time each deposit is made, the campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer shall prepare and file with the commission a statement containing the name of each person contributing the funds so deposited and the amount contributed by each person: PROVIDED, That contributions not exceeding ten dollars from any one person may be deposited without identifying the contributor. ((The statement shall be in triplicate, upon a form prescribed by the commission, one copy to be retained by the campaign depository for its records for the minimum term of three years, one copy to be filed by the campaign treasurer with the commission, and one)) A duplicate copy ((to)) of the statement shall be retained by the campaign treasurer for his records. In the event of deposits made by a deputy campaign treasurer, the ((third)) duplicate copy shall be forwarded to the campaign treasurer to be retained by him for his records. Each statement shall be certified as correct by the campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer making the deposit.

(3) Political committees which support or oppose more than one candidate or ballot proposition, or exist for more than one purpose, may maintain multiple separate bank accounts within the same designated depository for such purpose: PROVIDED, That each such account shall bear the same name followed by an appropriate designation which accurately identifies its separate purpose: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That transfers of funds which must be reported under RCW 42.17.090(1)(d), as now or hereafter amended, may not be made from more than one such account.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a candidate or political committee from investing funds on hand in a campaign depository in bonds, certificates, or savings accounts or other similar savings instruments in financial institutions other than the campaign depository: PROVIDED, That the commission is notified in writing of the initiation and the termination of the investment: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the principal of such investment when terminated together with all interest, dividends, and income derived from the investment are deposited in the campaign depository in the account from which the investment was made and properly reported to the commission prior to any further disposition or expenditure thereof.

(5) Accumulated unidentified contributions, other than those made by persons whose names must be maintained on a separate and private list by a political committee's campaign treasurer pursuant to RCW 42.17.090(1)(b), which total in excess of one percent of the total accumulated contributions received in the current calendar year or three hundred dollars (whichever is more), shall not be deposited, used, or expended, but shall be returned to the donor, if his identity can be ascertained. If the donor cannot be ascertained, the contribution shall escheat to the state, and shall be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the state general fund.

Sec. 4. Section 16, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 9, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The following persons and activities shall be exempt from registration and reporting under RCW 42.17.150, 42.17.170, (~~42.17.190~~) and 42.17.200:

(1) Persons who limit their lobbying activities to appearance before public sessions of committees of the legislature, or public hearings of state agencies~~(:);~~;

(2) News or feature reporting activities and editorial comment by working members of the press, radio, or television and the publication or dissemination thereof by a newspaper, book publisher, regularly published periodical, radio station, or television station~~(:);~~;

(3) Persons who lobby without compensation or other consideration for acting as a lobbyist: PROVIDED, Such person makes no expenditure for or on behalf of any member of the legislature or elected official or public officer or employee of the state of Washington in connection with such lobbying. Any person exempt under this subsection (3) may at his option register and report under this chapter~~(:);~~;

(4) Persons who restrict their lobbying activities to no more than four days or parts thereof during any three-month period and whose total expenditures during such three-month period for or on behalf of any one or more members of the legislature or state elected officials or public officers or employees of the state of Washington in connection with such lobbying do not exceed fifteen dollars: PROVIDED, That the commission shall promulgate regulations to require disclosure by persons exempt under this subsection or their employers or entities which sponsor or coordinate the lobbying activities of such persons if it determines that such regulations are necessary to prevent frustration of the purposes of this chapter. Any person exempt under this subsection (4) may at his option register and report under this chapter~~(:);~~;

(5) The governor~~(:);~~;

(6) The lieutenant governor~~(:);~~;

(7) Except as provided by RCW 42.17.190(1), members of the legislature~~(:);~~;

(8) Except as provided by RCW 42.17.190(1), persons employed by the legislature for the purpose of aiding in the preparation or enactment of legislation or the performance of legislative duties~~(:);~~;

(9) Except as provided by RCW 42.17.190, elected ~~((state))~~ officials, and officers ~~(; state officers appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate;)~~ and employees of any ~~((state))~~ agency.

Sec. 5. Section 17, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 10, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any lobbyist registered under RCW 42.17.150 and any person who lobbies shall file with the commission periodic reports of his activities signed by ~~((both))~~ the lobbyist ~~((and the lobbyist's employers))~~. The reports shall be made in the form and manner prescribed by the commission. They shall be due ~~((quarterly))~~ monthly and shall be filed within ~~((thirty))~~ fifteen days after the ~~((end))~~ last day of the calendar ~~((quarter))~~ month covered by the report. ~~((In addition to the quarterly reports; while the legislature is in session, any lobbyist who lobbies with respect to any legislation shall file interim weekly periodic reports for each week that the legislature is in session, which reports need be signed only by the lobbyist and which shall be filed on each Tuesday for the activities of the week ending on the preceding Saturday: PROVIDED, That it shall not be necessary to file any such interim weekly periodic reports for any week during which no expenditure reportable under subsection (2) hereof was made by the reporting person.))~~

(2) Each such ~~((quarterly and weekly))~~ monthly periodic report shall contain:

(a) The totals of all expenditures made or incurred by such lobbyist or on behalf of such lobbyist by the lobbyist's employer during the period covered by the report, which totals shall be segregated according to financial category, including food and refreshments; living accommodations; advertising; travel; telephone; contributions; office expenses, including rent and the salaries and wages paid for staff and secretarial assistance, or the proportionate amount thereof, paid or incurred for lobbying activities; and other expenses or services: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That unreimbursed personal living and travel expenses of a lobbyist not incurred directly or indirectly for any lobbying purpose need not be reported (~~(-- AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the interim weekly reports of legislative lobbyists for the legislative session need show only the expenditures for food and refreshments, living accommodations, travel, contributions, and such other categories as the commission shall prescribe by rule)).~~ Each individual expenditure of more than ((fifteen)) twenty-five dollars for entertainment shall be identified by date, place, amount, and the names of all persons in the group partaking in or of such entertainment including any portion thereof attributable to the lobbyist's participation therein but without allocating any portion of such expenditure to individual participants.

(b) In the case of a lobbyist employed by more than one employer, the proportionate amount of such expenditures in each category incurred on behalf of each of his employers.

(c) An itemized listing of each such expenditure in the nature of a contribution of money or of tangible or intangible personal property to any ((legislator)) candidate, elected official, or officer or employee of any agency, or any political committee supporting or opposing any ballot proposition, or for or on behalf of any ((legislator)) candidate, elected official, or officer or employee of any agency, or any political committee supporting or opposing any ballot proposition. All contributions made to, or for the benefit of, any ((legislator)) candidate, elected official, or officer or employee of any agency, or any political committee supporting or opposing any ballot proposition shall be identified by date, amount, and the name of the ((legislator)) candidate, elected official, or officer or employee of any agency, or any political committee supporting or opposing any ballot proposition receiving, or to be benefited by each such contribution.

(d) The subject matter of proposed legislation or rulemaking; the proposed rules, standards, rates, or other legislative enactments under chapter 34.04 RCW and chapter 28B.19 RCW (the state administrative procedure acts) and the state agency considering the same; and the number of each senate or house bill, resolution, or other legislative activity which the lobbyist has been engaged in supporting or opposing during the reporting period: PROVIDED, That in the case of appropriations bills the lobbyist shall enumerate the specific section or sections which he supported or opposed.

Sec. 6. Section 19, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 12, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every legislator and every committee of the legislature shall file with the commission quarterly reports listing the names, addresses, and salaries of all persons employed by the person or committee making the filing for the purpose of aiding in the preparation or enactment of legislation or the performance of legislative duties of such legislator or committee during the preceding quarter. The reports shall be made in the form and the manner prescribed by the commission and shall be filed between the first and tenth days of each calendar quarter: PROVIDED, That the information required by this subsection may be supplied, insofar as it is available, by the chief clerk of the house of representatives or by the secretary of the senate on a form prepared by the commission.

(2) ~~((Unless expressly authorized by law, no state funds shall be used directly or indirectly for lobbying: PROVIDED, This shall not prevent state officers or employees from communicating with a member of the legislature on the request of that member; or communicating to the legislature, through the proper official channels, requests for legislative action or appropriations which are deemed necessary for the efficient conduct of the public business or actually made in the proper performance of their official duties: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this subsection shall not apply to the legislative branch:))~~ Any agency may expend public funds to compensate its officers or employees for services rendered on behalf of the agency in connection with lobbying only to the extent that such officers or employees are advocating the official position or interests of the agency, or providing information to or communicating with any elected official or officer or employee of any agency on matters pertaining to official agency business: PROVIDED, That public funds shall not be expended as a direct or indirect gift or campaign contribution provided to any elected official or officer or employee of any agency. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "gift" shall mean a voluntary transfer of real or personal property of any kind without consideration of equal or greater value, but shall not include informational material such as books, reports, pamphlets, calendars, or periodicals. No payment for travel or reimbursement for any expenses shall be deemed "informational material".

(3) Each ~~((state))~~ agency which expends ~~((state))~~ public funds for any lobbying ~~((pursuant to an express authorization by law or whose officers or employees communicate on legislation directly affecting the agency to members of the legislature on request of any member or communicate to the legislature requests for legislation))~~ activities for which the expenditure of public funds is authorized under subsection (2) of this section shall file with the commission quarterly statements providing the following information for the quarter just completed:

(a) The name of the agency filing the statement;

(b) The name, title, and job description and salary of each employee engaged in such ~~((legislative activity))~~ activities, a general description of the nature of ~~((his legislative))~~ the activities, and the proportionate amount of ~~((his))~~ time spent on ~~((such))~~ the activities;

(c) An itemized listing of any expenditures incurred by the agency in connection with lobbying activities.

The statements shall be in the form and the manner prescribed by the commission and shall be filed within thirty days after the end of the quarter covered by the report.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not relieve any ~~((state))~~ elected official or officer or ~~((any))~~ employee of ~~((a state))~~ an agency from complying with other provisions of this chapter, if such elected official, officer, or employee is not otherwise exempted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Nothing contained in the 1977 amendment of RCW 42.17.350 shall impair any property of or appropriations made to the commission, nor shall any rules of the commission adopted prior to January 1, 1978, be affected or impaired by the reorganization of the commission by such amendment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 14, chapter 112, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.195 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This 1977 amendatory act shall take effect on January 1, 1978."

On page 1, on line 1 of the title, after "state government;" delete the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 2, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.020; amending section 3, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and RCW 42.17.030; amending section 6, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 4, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.060; amending section 16, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 9, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.160; amending section 17, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 10, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.170; amending section 19, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 12, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.190; repealing section 14, chapter 112, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.195; and providing an effective date.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Grant moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2282.

Debate ensued.

Senator Clarke moved that further consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2282, and the motion by Senator Grant that the Senate do concur in the House amendments be held until the afternoon session today.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, would Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator Grant, as I listened to your explanation, it just didn't seem to me that all of these subjects were in dispute, and I—"

Senator Grant: "I am suggesting that we concur with the House amendments. This is not a conference committee report."

Senator Rasmussen: "This is not a conference committee report?"

Senator Grant: "No, it is not."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, Mr. President, I agree with Senator Clarke that these are far-reaching changes. We are opening the door to lobbying unlimited by public agencies and—"

Senator Grant: "Senator Rasmussen, you know I wouldn't want to do that."

Senator Rasmussen: "—Senator Grant, it would seem to me that you are letting the whole camel under the tent and destroying the public disclosure and we must take a good look at this, and I would like to consult with Jolene before we go any further."

Senator Grant: "Perhaps we can invite her to our caucus."

The motion by Senator Clarke carried. The House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2282 and the motion by Senator Grant that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2282 will be considered this afternoon.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 438.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 438, by Representatives Sommers and Flanagan:

Changing notice requirements for property appraisals made between December 1 and February 15.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 438 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 438, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 10; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Bullington, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Hayner, Henry, Keefe, Marsh, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, North, Odegaard, Sandison, Scott, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—32.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Guess, Lewis, Murray, Newschwander, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sellar, Wanamaker—10.

Absent or not voting: Senator Peterson—1.

Excused: Senators Francis, Herr, Jones, Mardesich, Matson—5.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 438, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 727, by Representatives Conner, Gallagher, Gilleland and Vrooman:

Changing laws on reporting of vehicle accidents.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 18, 1977.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 727, changing laws on reporting of vehicle accidents (reported by Committee on Transportation):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 16, after "~~((two))~~", strike "one" and insert "three"

Signed by: Senators Henry, Chairman; Peterson, Sellar, Talley, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, if one driver of a vehicle has a vehicle which is worth less than three hundred dollars, if this amendment now passes—previously a hundred dollars, and his car is totaled, is it my understanding that he has no recourse because it isn't even reportable? There have been some problems with people who if the car is over fifteen years old, is that it? And three hundred dollars, less than three hundred dollars, he is just without any recourse? I had a constituent call me with that kind of a story, and I haven't had time to check it out."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Lewis, the way the bill is written if all of the property damage involved in the accident is less than three hundred dollars, both cars, the tree, the telephone pole, everything involved is less than three hundred dollars, then you do not have to file an accident report and you do not have to, if this bill passes, post a bond if you are charged with a negligence. You are doing the guy a favor by adopting this bill."

Senator Lewis: "Not if I am the guy that owns the car less than three hundred dollars and I get totaled out. I am just without any recourse then, aren't I?"

Senator Bottiger: "Well, no, the driver of the other car could continue to operate his vehicle without the requirement of posting the bond. In that sense you are taking away from protection that we all have now. On the other hand, the little fenderbender, the scratched bumper at today's prices can go over three hundred dollars and we are absorbing a lot of paper work. But it is true, if a person has a very old car and somebody runs into him, he is going to have to collect from them without the assistance of the financial responsibility act. In that sense you are right, but I have another amendment coming that will help."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 26, add the following sections:

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 3, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No policy or bond shall be effective under RCW 46.29.080 unless issued by an insurance company or surety company authorized to do business in this state, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, nor unless such policy or bond is subject, if the accident has resulted in bodily injury or death, to a limit, exclusive of interest and costs, of not less than ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, to a limit of not less than ~~((thirty))~~ fifty thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and if the accident has resulted in injury to, or destruction of, property to a limit of not less than ~~((five))~~ ten thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

(2) No policy or bond shall be effective under RCW 46.29.080 with respect to any vehicle which was not registered in this state or was a vehicle which was registered elsewhere than in this state at the effective date of the policy or bond or the most recent renewal thereof, unless the insurance company or surety company issuing such policy or bond is authorized to do business in this state, or if said company is not authorized to do business in this state, unless it shall execute a power of attorney authorizing the director of motor vehicles to accept service on its behalf of notice or process in any action upon such policy or bond arising out of such accident.

(3) The department may rely upon the accuracy of the information in a required report of an accident as to the existence of insurance or a bond unless and until the department has reason to believe that the information is erroneous.

Sec. 4. Section 26, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 3, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "proof of financial responsibility for the future" as used in this chapter shall mean: Proof of ability to respond in damages for liability, on account of accidents occurring subsequent to the effective date of said proof, arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of a vehicle of a type subject to registration under the laws of this state, in the amount of ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident, and, subject to said limit for one person, in the amount of ~~((thirty))~~ five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and in the amount of ~~((five))~~ ten thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident. Wherever used in this chapter the terms "proof of financial responsibility" or "proof" shall be synonymous with the term "proof of financial responsibility for the future".

Sec. 5. Section 39, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 3, chapter 3, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.390 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Judgments herein referred to shall, for the purpose of this chapter only, be deemed satisfied:

(a) When ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount because of bodily injury to or death of one person as the result of any one accident; or

(b) When, subject to such limit of ~~((ten))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person, the sum of ~~((thirty))~~ five thousand dollars has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons as the result of any one accident; or

(c) When ~~((five))~~ ten thousand dollars has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount because of injury to or destruction of property of others as a result of any one accident;

(2) Provided, however, payments made in settlements of any claims because of bodily injury, death or property damage arising from such accident shall be credited in reduction of the amounts provided for in this section.

Sec. 6. Section 49, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 4, chapter 3, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.490 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certification. A "motor vehicle liability policy" as said term is used in this chapter shall mean an "owner's policy" or an "operator's policy" of liability insurance, certified as provided in RCW 46.29.460 or 46.29.470 as proof of financial responsibility for the future, and issued, except as otherwise provided in RCW 46.29.470, by an insurance carrier duly authorized to transact business in this state, to or for the benefit of the person named therein as insured.

(2) Owner's policy. Such owner's policy of liability insurance:

(a) Shall designate by explicit description or by appropriate reference all vehicles with respect to which coverage is thereby to be granted; and

(b) Shall insure the person named therein and any other person, as insured, using any such vehicle or vehicles with the express or implied permission of such named insured, against loss from the liability imposed by law for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of such vehicle or vehicles within the United States of America or the Dominion of Canada, subject to limits exclusive of interest and costs, with respect to each such vehicle as follows: ~~((Fifteen))~~ Twenty-five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, ~~((thirty))~~ five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and ~~((five))~~ ten thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

(3) Operator's policy. Such operator's policy of liability insurance shall insure the person named as insured therein against loss from the liability imposed upon him by law for damages arising out of the use by him of any motor vehicle not owned by him, within the same territorial limits and subject to the same limits of liability as are set forth above with respect to an owner's policy of liability insurance.

(4) Required statements in policies. Such motor vehicle liability policy shall state the name and address of the named insured, the coverage afforded by the policy, the premium charged therefor, the policy period and the limits of liability, and shall contain an agreement or be endorsed that insurance is provided thereunder in accordance with the coverage defined in this chapter as respects bodily injury and death or property damage, or both, and is subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

(5) Policy need not insure workmen's compensation, etc. Such motor vehicle liability policy need not insure any liability under any workmen's compensation law nor any liability on account of bodily injury or death of an employee of the insured while engaged in the employment, other than domestic, of the insured, or while engaged in the operation, maintenance or repair of any such vehicle nor any liability for damage to property owned by, rented to, in charge of or transported by the insured.

(6) Provisions incorporated in policy. Every motor vehicle liability policy shall be subject to the following provisions which need not be contained therein:

(a) The liability of the insurance carrier with respect to the insurance required by this chapter shall become absolute whenever injury or damage covered by said motor vehicle liability policy occurs; said policy may not be canceled or annulled as to such liability by any agreement between the insurance carrier and the insured after the occurrence of the injury or damage; no statement made by the insured or on his behalf and no violation of said policy shall defeat or void said policy.

(b) The satisfaction by the insured of a judgment for such injury or damage shall not be a condition precedent to the right or duty of the insurance carrier to make payment on account of such injury or damage.

(c) The insurance carrier shall have the right to settle any claim covered by the policy, and if such settlement is made in good faith, the amount thereof shall be deductible from the limits of liability specified in subdivision (b) of subsection (2) of this section.

(d) The policy, the written application therefor, if any, and any rider or endorsement which does not conflict with the provisions of this chapter shall constitute the entire contract between the parties.

(7) Excess or additional coverage. Any policy which grants the coverage required for a motor vehicle liability policy may also grant any lawful coverage in excess of or in addition to the coverage specified for a motor vehicle liability policy and such excess or additional coverage shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter. With respect to a policy which grants such excess or additional coverage the term "motor vehicle liability policy" shall apply only to that part of the coverage which is required by this section.

(8) Reimbursement provision permitted. Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide that the insured shall reimburse the insurance carrier for any payment the insurance carrier would not have been obligated to make under the terms of the policy except for the provisions of this chapter.

(9) Proration of insurance permitted. Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide for the prorating of the insurance thereunder with other valid and collectible insurance.

(10) Multiple policies. The requirements for a motor vehicle liability policy may be fulfilled by the policies of one or more insurance carrier which policies together meet such requirements.

(11) Binders. Any binder issued pending the issuance of a motor vehicle liability policy shall be deemed to fulfill the requirements for such a policy.

Sec. 7. Section 55, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 5, chapter 3, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.550 are each amended to read as follows:

Proof of financial responsibility may be evidenced by the certificate of the state treasurer that the person named therein has deposited with him (~~((thirty-five))~~ sixty thousand dollars in cash, or securities such as may legally be purchased by savings banks or for trust funds of a market value of (~~((thirty-five))~~ sixty thousand dollars.

The state treasurer shall not accept any such deposit and issue a certificate therefor and the department shall not accept such certificate unless accompanied by evidence that there are no unsatisfied judgments of any character against the depositor in the county where the depositor resides."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator, on the last page, section 7, where they are raising the amount of cash bond, what is that related to, raising it from thirty-five thousand to sixty thousand dollars deposit with the state treasurer?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, there is a provision in the law that allows you to be self-insured, that you do not have to buy your insurance policy from an insurance company. This is after you have been in an accident, and before you can get your driver's license back, and you don't want to buy the insurance, you can go down and be certified that you are self-insured, the same consistency of going from thirty-five to sixty thousand on these types of self insured policy. Some—I might add—some business communities use that self-insurance as a method of avoiding the cost liability insurance policies, for example, taxi cab companies."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then my question would be, are they filing a cash bond or are they filing the actual, like some of these contractors do, they will file their savings account as a bond?"

Senator Bottiger: "They can do either, file cash account or file any kind of a security including a time deposit. We wrote this in for taxi cabs as I recall, to allow them to avoid the expense of insurance."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, it would seem to me that doubling that amount of the cash bond is probably a little bit out of line. If you can furnish thirty-five thousand dollars cash, that should be sufficient for any one accident."

Senator Bottiger: "It is just consistent with the rest of the provisions of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I should like to ask Senator Bottiger a question. It is my understanding, correct me if I am wrong on this, I am not well acquainted with the automobile insurance requirements of law in this state, that there is no requirement currently for coverage under state law, not mandatory coverage."

Senator Bottiger: "That is correct, Senator Grant, in the sense you get the first bite. If you get into an accident, you don't have insurance and you don't pay for the damage you did, then you lose your driver's license. To get it back, you have to go out and buy insurance."

Senator Grant: "I would think that then Senator Clarke's observation is one that might prove to be the case, that in fact, there will be in all likelihood a lot less people obtaining insurance coverage as a result of the increased premiums and as a result of the increased coverages of this particular enactment. I would think that perhaps we should look at the providing in law for mandatory insurance coverage of limited amounts, rather than raising the amount for those that are currently being covered."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Grant, Engrossed House Bill No. 727, as amended, together with the pending amendment by Senator Bottiger, was ordered held on the second reading calendar for May 28, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Guess, Senator Benitz was excused.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 768, by Representatives Moreau and Erickson:

Implementing the law relating to granting of degrees at certain state colleges including financial impact review.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 6, 1977.

HOUSE BILL NO. 768, implementing the law relating to granting of degrees at certain state colleges including financial impact review (reported by Committee on Higher Education):

Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 19, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2197, with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex sess. and RCW 18.44.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context otherwise requires terms used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Department" means the department of motor vehicles.

(2) "Director" means the director of the department of motor vehicles, or his duly authorized representative.

(3) "Escrow" means any transaction wherein any person or persons, for the purpose of effecting and closing the sale, purchase, exchange, transfer, encumbrance, or lease of real or personal property to another person or persons, delivers any written instrument, money, evidence of title to real or personal property, or other thing of value to a third person to be held by such third person until the happening of a specified event or the performance of a prescribed condition or conditions, when it is then to be delivered by such third person, in compliance with instructions under which he is to act, to a grantee, grantor, promisee, promisor, obligee, obligor, lessee, lessor, bailee, bailor, or any agent or employee thereof.

(4) "Escrow agent" means any (~~person~~) sole proprietorship, firm, association, partnership, or corporation engaged in the business of performing for compensation the duties of the third person referred to in RCW 18.44.010(3) above.

(5) "Certificated escrow agent" means any (~~person~~) sole proprietorship, firm, association, partnership, or corporation holding a certificate of registration as an escrow agent under the provisions of this chapter (~~, including corporations, firms, copartnerships and sole proprietors~~).

(6) "Person" unless a different meaning appears from the context, includes an individual, a firm, association, partnership or corporation, or the plural thereof, whether resident, nonresident, citizen or not.

(7) "Escrow officer" means any natural person handling escrow transactions and licensed as such by the director.

(8) "Escrow commission" means the escrow commission of the state of Washington created by RCW 18.44.210.

(9) "Controlling person" is any person who owns or controls ten percent or more of the beneficial ownership of any escrow agent, regardless of the form of business organization employed and regardless of whether such interest stands in such person's true name or in the name of a nominee.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.020 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in business as an escrow agent within this state unless such person (~~(has been registered with the department and issued a)~~) possesses a valid certificate of registration issued by the director pursuant to this chapter: PROVIDED, That the registration and licensing requirements of this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) Any person doing business under the law of this state or the United States relating to banks, trust companies, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, insurance companies, title insurance companies, the duly authorized agents of title insurance companies the business of which agents is exclusively devoted to the title insurance business, or any federally approved agency or lending institution under the National Housing Act.

(2) Any person licensed to practice law in this state while engaged in the performance of his professional duties.

(3) Any company, broker, or agent subject to the jurisdiction of the director while performing acts in the course of or incidental to sales or purchases of real or personal property handled or negotiated by such company, broker, or agent: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no compensation is received for escrow services.

(4) Any transaction in which money or other property is paid to, deposited with, or transferred to a joint control agent for disbursement or use in payment of the cost of labor, material, services, permits, fees, or other items of expense incurred in the construction of improvements upon real property.

(5) Any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, executor, administrator, guardian, or other person acting under the supervision or order of any superior court of this state or of any federal court.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.030 are each amended to read as follows:

An application for registration as an escrow agent shall be in writing in such form as is prescribed by the director, and shall be verified on oath by the applicant. If the applicant is a corporation, the application shall include a list of the officers and directors of such corporation, and their addresses; if the applicant is a firm or (~~(copartnership))~~ partnership, the application shall include a list of the names and addresses of the partners. The application shall include a consent to service of process, in such form as the director shall prescribe, and payment of the fee required by RCW 18.44.080.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 3, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for registration, file with the director:

(1) (~~(Affidavits by any three persons listed in subsections (1) through (3) of RCW 18.44.020, stating that they are acquainted with the applicant or its principal officers and that they believe him to be of good character and reputation:))~~ The applicant's business form and place of organization.

(2) In the event the applicant is doing business under an assumed name, a certified copy of the certificate of assumed name as filed with the county clerk in the county or counties in which the applicant does business or proposes to do business, as provided in chapter 19.80 RCW.

(3) The qualification and business history including a commercial type credit and character report from a recognized credit reporting bureau satisfactory to the director on the applicant, principal officers, controlling person, or partners.

(4) Such proof as the director may require concerning the honesty, veracity, and good reputation, as well as the identity of the applicant, principal officers, controlling person, or partners. Identification of the applicant, principal officers, or partners shall include but not be limited to fingerprints.

(5) Whether the applicant, principal officers, or partners have been convicted of any crime within the preceding ten years which relate directly to the business or duties of escrow agents, or have suffered a judgment within the preceding five years in any civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, or conversion.

(6) The identity of the natural person designated as the escrow officer to supervise the agent's escrow activity.

(7) Any other information the director may reasonably require.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.050 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time of filing an application as an escrow agent, or any renewal or reinstatement thereof, the applicant shall satisfy the director that it has obtained ((a fidelity bond providing fidelity coverage on the applicant and on each officer and employee of the applicant engaged in escrow transactions. Such applicant shall keep said bond in effect at all times while his certificate of registration is in effect. Such bond shall be a primary commercial blanket bond or its equivalent as required by the director and written by an insurer authorized to transact surety insurance business in the state of Washington. Such bond shall provide fidelity coverage in the amount of two hundred thousand dollars and may be canceled by the surety upon delivering thirty days written notice to the director and the principal:)) the following as evidence of financial responsibility:

(1) A fidelity bond providing coverage in the amount of two hundred thousand dollars on each officer and employee of the applicant engaged in escrow transactions; and

(2) An errors and omissions policy issued to the escrow agent providing coverage in the minimum amount of fifty thousand dollars per loss.

For the purposes of this section, a "fidelity bond" shall mean a primary commercial blanket bond or its equivalent satisfactory to the director and written by an insurer authorized to transact surety business in the state of Washington. Such bond shall provide fidelity coverage for any fraudulent or dishonest acts committed by any one or more of the employees or officers as defined in the bond, acting alone or in collusion with others. Said bond shall be for the sole benefit of the escrow agent and under no circumstances whatsoever shall the bonding company be liable under the bond to any other party. The bond shall name the escrow agent as obligee and shall protect the obligee against the loss of money or other real or personal property belonging to the obligee, or in which the obligee has a pecuniary interest, or for which the obligee is legally liable or held by the obligee in any capacity, whether the obligee is legally liable therefor or not. The bond may be canceled by the insurer upon delivery of thirty days' written notice to the director and to the escrow agent.

For the purposes of this section, an "errors and omissions policy" shall mean a group or individual insurance policy satisfactory to the director and issued by an insurer authorized to transact insurance business in the state of Washington. Such policy shall provide coverage for unintentional errors and omissions of the escrow agent and its employees, and may be canceled by the insurer upon delivery of thirty days' written notice to the director and to the escrow agent.

Except as provided in section 30 of this 1977 amendatory act, the fidelity bond and the errors and omissions policy required by this section shall be kept in full force and effect as a condition precedent to the escrow agent's authority to transact escrow business in this state, and the escrow agent shall supply the director with satisfactory evidence thereof upon request.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Every certificated escrow agent shall keep adequate records of all transactions handled by or through him including itemization of all receipts and disbursements of each transaction, which records shall be open to inspection by the director or his authorized representatives.

Every certificated agent shall keep a separate escrow fund account in a recognized Washington state depository authorized to receive funds, in which shall be kept separate and apart and segregated from the agent's own funds, all funds or moneys of clients which are being held by the agent pending the closing of a transaction and such funds shall be deposited not later than the first banking day following receipt thereof.

Violation of this section shall constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of the registration ~~((and the certificate thereof))~~ or license of any person under this chapter and such additional penalties as may be prescribed in Title 9A RCW.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall charge and collect the following fees:

(1) For filing an original or a renewal application for registration as an escrow agent, an annual fee of one hundred dollars for the first office or location and ~~((five))~~ twenty-five dollars for each additional office or location.

(2) For filing an ~~((original or a renewal application for registration as an escrow officer, an annual fee of fifty dollars))~~ application for a change of address, ten dollars for each certificate of registration and for each escrow officer license being so changed.

(3) For filing an application for a duplicate of a certificate of registration or of an escrow officer license lost, stolen, destroyed, or for replacement, ~~((five))~~ ten dollars.

(4) All fees received by the director under this chapter shall be paid by him into the state treasury to the credit of the general fund.

Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of the application for registration as an escrow agent ~~((, the affidavits of character, the certificate of assumed name, if appropriate, the acceptance of the bond or other indemnity insurance, and the payment of the filing fee))~~ on a form provided by the director and satisfying the requirements as set forth in this chapter, the director shall issue and deliver to the applicant a certificate of registration to engage in the business of an escrow agent at the location ~~((or locations))~~ set forth in the certificate ~~((or certificates))~~.

Sec. 9. Section 13, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The revocation, suspension, surrender or expiration of an escrow agent's certificate shall not impair or affect preexisting escrows accepted by the agent prior to such revocation, suspension, surrender or expiration: PROVIDED, That the escrow agent shall within five work days provide written notice to all principals of such pre-existing escrows of the agent's loss of registration. The notice shall include as a minimum the reason for the loss of registration, the estimated date for completing the escrow, and the condition of the agent's bond and whether it is in effect or whether notice of cancellation has been given. The notice shall afford the principals the right to withdraw the escrow without monetary loss.

Sec. 10. Section 17, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever it shall appear that any person, required by this chapter to register with the department, is conducting business as an escrow agent without having applied for and obtained a certificate of registration, or that any certificated escrow agent is conducting business in a manner deemed unsafe or injurious to the public or any party having business relations with such escrow agent as a contracting party to an escrow agreement as defined in RCW 18.44.010, or in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the appropriate county may, after such investigation as may be necessary, apply to the appropriate court for an order enjoining the person from engaging in or continuing to engage in the activity violative of this chapter, and upon a showing that such person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any such activity, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other appropriate order may be issued by the court.

~~((Alternatively or in addition, the attorney general or prosecuting attorney of the appropriate county may bring an action in the superior court to revoke or suspend the registration of any person under this chapter for violation of any provision thereof.))~~

Sec. 11. Section 7, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.200 are each amended to read as follows:

No escrow agent shall engage in the business of handling escrow transactions unless such transactions are ~~((handled by an agent))~~ supervised by a licensed ((as an)) "escrow officer": PROVIDED, That (1) in the case of a partnership, one licensed partner ~~((may))~~ shall act on behalf of the partnership; (2) in the case of a corporation, one licensed officer thereof ~~((may))~~ shall act on behalf of the corporation; and (3) each branch office shall be required to have at least one licensed escrow officer designated by the escrow agent. Responsibility for the conduct of any escrow agent, escrow officers, or branch escrow officers covered by this chapter shall rest with the escrow officer having direct supervision of such person's escrow activities. The branch escrow officer shall bear responsibility for persons operating under each branch escrow officer's supervision at a branch escrow office.

Sec. 12. Section 8, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.210 are each amended to read as follows:

There is established an escrow commission of the state of Washington, consisting of the director, who shall be chairman, and four commission members who shall act in an advisory capacity to the director. The commission ~~((shall consist of five members, which shall consist of the director who shall be chairman, and the remaining))~~ members shall be appointed by the governor for a term of four years each: PROVIDED, That one of such appointees shall be selected from persons designated by the governing authority of the escrow association of Washington, and one shall be selected from designees of the governing authority of the Washington state bar association, and the remaining two members shall be selected from persons engaged in the business of handling escrow transactions ~~((: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the first term of office, the two members selected at the governor's discretion shall serve for a term of two years each))~~.

Sec. 13. Section 9, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person desiring to be an escrow officer ~~((shall meet the requirement of RCW 18.44.040 and))~~ must successfully pass an examination ~~((: be a resident of the state of Washington and furnish such other proof as the director may require concerning his honesty, truthfulness, and good reputation))~~. The person shall make application for an escrow officer examination on a form provided by the director and pay an examination fee of twenty-five dollars. The applicant shall satisfy the director that the applicant is at least eighteen years old and is a resident of the state of Washington.

Sec. 14. Section 11, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.240 are each amended to read as follows:

The escrow officer examination ((given)) shall encompass the following:

- (1) Appropriate knowledge of the English language, including reading, writing, and arithmetic((-));
- (2) An understanding of the principles of real estate conveyancing, the general purposes and legal effects of deeds, mortgages, deeds of trust, contracts of sale, exchanges, rental and optional agreements, leases, earnest money agreements, personal property transfers, and encumbrances((-));
- (3) An understanding of the obligations between principal and agent((-)); and
- (4) An understanding of the meaning and nature of encumbrances upon real property.

The examination shall be in such form as prescribed by the director and approved by the commission, and shall be given at least annually.

~~((Upon successful completion of the examination the director shall issue an "escrow officer" license to the applicant which license shall be renewable annually.))~~

Sec. 15. Section 12, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.250 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((commission)) director shall have the authority to hold educational conferences for the benefit of the industry and shall conduct examinations for licenses as an escrow officer.

Sec. 16. Section 13, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may, ~~((upon his own motion, and shall, upon verified complaint in writing by any person, investigate the actions of any licensed escrow officer and may temporarily))~~ upon notice to the escrow agent and to the insurer providing coverage under RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended, by order deny, suspend, or ((permanently)) revoke ((or deny such license for any holder who)) the certificate of registration or license of any escrow agent or escrow officer if he finds that the applicant or any partner, officer, director, controlling person, or employee is guilty of the following:

- (1) Obtaining a license or registration by means of fraud, misrepresentation, concealment, or through the mistake or inadvertence of the director.
- (2) Violating any of the provisions of this chapter or any lawful rules or regulations made by the director pursuant thereto.
- (3) The commission of a crime against the laws of this or any other state or government, involving moral turpitude or dishonest dealings.
- (4) Knowingly committing or being a party to, any material fraud, misrepresentation, concealment, conspiracy, collusion, trick, scheme, or device whereby any other person lawfully relying upon the word, representation, or conduct of the licensee or agent or any partner, officer, director, controlling person, or employee acts to his injury or damage.

(5) Conversion of any money, contract, deed, note, mortgage, or abstract or other evidence of title to his own use or to the use of his principal or of any other person, when delivered to him in trust or on condition, in violation of the trust or before the happening of the condition; and failure to return any money or contract, deed, note, mortgage, abstract or other evidence of title within thirty days after the owner thereof is entitled thereto, and makes demand therefor, shall be prima facie evidence of such conversion.

(6) Failing, upon demand, to disclose any information within his knowledge to, or to produce any document, book, or record in his possession for inspection of, the director or his authorized representatives (~~(acting by authority of law)~~).

(7) Committing any act of fraudulent or dishonest dealing, and a certified copy of the final holding of any court of competent jurisdiction in such matter shall be conclusive evidence in any hearing under this chapter.

(8) Accepting, taking or charging any undisclosed commission, rebate or direct profit on expenditures made for the principal.

Sec. 17. Section 14, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The proceedings for revocation (~~(or)~~), suspension (~~(of a license)~~), or refusal to renew (~~(a license)~~) or accept an application for renewal of an escrow agent's registration or escrow officer license, and any appeal therefrom or review thereof shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No escrow agent, officer, or employee shall publish or otherwise place before the public any advertisement, announcement, or statement which uses or makes reference to the existence of the financial responsibility requirements of this chapter, including but not limited to references to "bonded" or "insured".

No firm or organization engaged in escrow transactions, whether or not such firm is doing business in a corporate form, shall use in the name of such firm any reference to the financial responsibility requirements of this chapter, including but not limited to "bonded" or "insured".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notice in writing shall be given to the director and to the insurer providing coverage under RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended of any change of business location or of branch office location. Upon the surrender of the original registration for the agent or the registration applicable to a branch office and a payment of a fee, the director shall issue a new certificate covering the new location.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the director determines after notice and hearing that a person has:

(1) Violated any provision of this chapter; or
 (2) Directly, or through an agent or employee, engaged in any false, deceptive, or misleading

(a) advertising or promotional activity, or

(b) business practices; or

(3) Violated any lawful order, rule, or regulation of the director; the director may issue an order requiring the person to cease and desist from the unlawful practice and to take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the director will carry out the purposes of this chapter.

If the director makes a finding of fact in writing that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the director may issue a temporary cease and desist order. Prior to issuing the temporary cease and desist order, the director, whenever possible by telephone or otherwise, shall give notice of the proposal to issue a temporary cease and desist order to the person. Every temporary cease and desist order shall include in its terms a provision that upon request a hearing will be held to determine whether or not the order becomes permanent.

If it appears that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a violation of a provision of this chapter, or a rule or order under this chapter, the director, with or without prior administrative proceedings, may bring an action in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule, regulation, or order under this chapter. Upon proper showing, injunctive relief or temporary restraining orders shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed. The director shall not be required to post a bond in any court proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director may:

(2) Require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the director determines, as to all facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated.

For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the director or any officer designated by him may administer oaths or affirmations, and upon his own motion or upon request of any party, may subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any matter which is relevant to the investigation, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge or relevant facts, or any other matter reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of material evidence.

Upon failure to obey a subpoena or to answer questions propounded by the investigating officer and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the director may apply to the superior court for an order compelling compliance.

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all proceedings under this chapter shall be in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person desiring to be an escrow officer shall meet the requirements of RCW 18.44.220 as provided in this chapter. The applicant shall make application endorsed by a certificated escrow agent to the director on a form to be prescribed and furnished by the director. Such application must be received by the director within one year of passing the escrow officer examination. With this application the applicant shall:

(1) Pay a license fee as set forth in this chapter; and

(2) Furnish such proof as the director may require concerning his honesty, truthfulness, good reputation, and identity, including but not limited to fingerprints.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person desiring to be an escrow officer must include with the application a license fee of fifty dollars. Every escrow officer license issued under the provisions of this chapter expires on the date one year from the date of issue which date will henceforth be the renewal date. An annual license renewal fee in the same amount must be paid on or before each renewal date: PROVIDED, That licenses issued or renewed prior to the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act shall use the existing renewal date as the date of issue. If the application for a renewal license is not received by the director on or before the renewal date such license is expired. The license may be reinstated at any time prior to the next succeeding renewal date following its expiration upon the payment to the director of the annual renewal fee then in default. Acceptance by the director of an application for renewal after the renewal date shall not be a waiver of the delinquency. Licenses not renewed within one year of the renewal date then in default shall be cancelled. A new license may be obtained by satisfying the procedures and qualifications for initial licensing, including where applicable successful completion of examinations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The license of an escrow officer shall be retained and displayed at all times by the certificated escrow agent, and when the officer ceases to represent the agent, the license shall cease to be in force. Notice of such termination shall be given by the next regular business day by the escrow agent to the director and such notice shall be accompanied by and include the surrender of the escrow officer's license. Failure to notify the director of such termination after demand by the affected escrow officer shall work a forfeiture of the escrow agent's certificate of registration.

The director may hold the escrow officer's license inactive for a period not exceeding three consecutive years upon application of the escrow officer: PROVIDED, That the escrow officer shall pay the annual renewal fee. Such license may be activated upon application of a certificated escrow agent on a form provided by the director, endorsement by an escrow officer, and the payment of a ten dollar fee. The director shall thereupon issue a new license for the unexpired term if such escrow officer is otherwise entitled thereto. An escrow officer's first license shall not be issued inactive.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director may issue rules and regulations to govern the activities of certificated escrow agents and escrow officers. The director shall enforce all laws, rules, and regulations relative to the registration of escrow agents and licensing of escrow officers. The director may hold hearings and suspend or revoke the registration or licenses of violators and may deny, suspend, or revoke the authority of an escrow officer to act as the designated escrow officer of a person who commits violations of this chapter or of the rules and regulations.

Except as specifically provided in this chapter, the rules adopted and the hearings conducted shall be in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An escrow agent shall not operate an escrow business in a location other than the location set forth on the agent's certificate of registration issued by the director. The escrow agent may apply to the director for authority to establish one or more branch offices under the same name as the main office.

Any person desiring to operate a branch escrow office shall make application on a form provided by the director and pay a fee as set forth in this chapter. Such application shall identify the natural person designated as the escrow officer to supervise the agent's escrow activity at the escrow agent branch office.

No escrow agent branch office certificate of registration shall be issued until the applicant has satisfied the director that the escrow activity of said branch meets all financial responsibility requirements governing the conduct of escrow activity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Upon the filing of the application for an escrow agent branch office and satisfying the requirements of this chapter, the director shall issue and deliver to the applicant a certificate of registration to engage in the business of an escrow agent at the branch location set forth on the certificate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each escrow agent and escrow agent branch office certificate of registration and each escrow officer license, when issued, shall be in the form and size prescribed by the director and shall state in addition to any other matter required by the director:

- (1) The name of the licensee or registrant;
- (2) The name under which the applicant will do business;
- (3) The address at which the applicant will do business;
- (4) The expiration date of the license or registration; and
- (5) In the case of a corporation, partnership, or branch office, the name of the natural person who is designated to act as the escrow officer on behalf thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The four escrow commission members shall each receive fifty dollars per day for each day engaged in official business of the commission, plus travel expenses as provided for state officials and employees in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, when called into session by the director or when otherwise engaged in the business of the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director shall, within thirty days after the written request of the escrow commission, hold a public hearing to determine whether the fidelity bond and/or the errors and omissions policy specified in RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended is reasonably available to a substantial number of certificated escrow agents. If the director determines and the insurance commissioner concurs that such bond and/or policy is not reasonably available, the director shall waive the requirements for such bond and/or policy for a fixed period of time not to exceed ninety days after the next regular session of the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After a written determination by the director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, that the fidelity bond and/or the errors and omissions policy required under RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended is cost-prohibitive, or after a determination as provided in section 30 of this 1977 amendatory act that such bond or policy is not reasonably available, upon the request of an association comprised of certificated escrow agents, the director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may authorize such association to organize a mutual corporation pursuant to chapter 24.06 RCW, exempt from the provisions of Title 48 RCW, for the purpose of insuring or self-insuring against claims arising out of escrow transactions, if, in the director's judgment, there is a substantial likelihood that the corporation will operate for the benefit of the public and if the corporation shall have established rules, procedures, and reserves which satisfy the director that it will operate in a financially responsible manner which provides a substantial probability that it shall be able to pay any claims made against the corporation, up to the limits of financial responsibility as provided in RCW 18.44.050, as now or hereafter amended. The director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may limit the authority of the corporation to the insuring or self-insuring of claims which would be within the coverage specified in RCW 18.44.050. The director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may revoke the authority of the corporation to transact insurance or self-insurance if he determines, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, that the corporation is not acting in a financially responsible manner or for the benefit of the public. Any corporation established pursuant to this section shall cease to exist, except for the payment of incurred claims, ninety days after the next regular session of the legislature unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. Section 10, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.230 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on June 15, 1977."

In the title, line 1, strike everything after "escrow;" and insert "amending section 1, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.010; amending section 2, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.020; amending section 3, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.030; amending section 4, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 3, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.040; amending section 5, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.050; amending section 7, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.070; amending section 8, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.080; amending section 9, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.090; amending section 13, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.130; amending section 17, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.160; amending section 7, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.200; amending section 8, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.210; amending section 9, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.220; amending section 11, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.240; amending section 12, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.250; amending section 13, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.260; amending section 14, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.270; adding new sections to chapter 18.44 RCW; repealing section 6, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.060; repealing section 10, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.230; declaring an emergency; and prescribing an effective date.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2197, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 20, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2210, with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 48.40.080, a funeral establishment licensed pursuant to chapter 18.39 RCW may enter into prearrangement funeral service contracts, subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter:

(a) "Prearrangement funeral service contract" means any contract, other than a contract entered into by an insurance company, under which, for a specified consideration paid in advance in a lump sum or by installments, a funeral establishment promises, upon the death of a beneficiary named or implied in the contract, to furnish funeral merchandise or services.

(b) "Funeral merchandise or services" shall mean those services normally performed and merchandise normally provided by funeral establishments including the sale of burial supplies and equipment, but excluding the sale by a cemetery of lands or interests therein, services incidental thereto, markers, memorials, monuments, equipment, crypts, niches, or vaults.

(c) "Qualified public depository" means a depository defined by RCW 39.58-.010, a credit union as governed by chapter 31.12 RCW, a mutual savings bank as governed by Title 32 RCW, a savings and loan association as governed by Title 33 RCW, or a federal credit union or a federal savings and loan association organized, operated, and governed by any act of congress, in which prearrangement funeral service contract funds are deposited by any funeral establishment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Any funeral establishment selling by prearrangement funeral service contract any funeral merchandise or services shall establish and maintain one or more prearrangement funeral service trust funds for the benefit of the beneficiary of the prearrangement funeral service contract.

(2) Fifteen percent of the cash purchase price of each prearrangement funeral service contract, excluding sales tax, may be retained by the funeral establishment. Deposits to the prearrangement funeral service trust fund shall be made not later than the twentieth day of the month following the receipt of each payment made on the last eighty-five percent of each prearrangement funeral service contract, excluding sales tax.

(3) All prearrangement funeral service trust funds shall be deposited in a qualified public depository. The account shall be designated as the prearrangement funeral service trust fund of the particular funeral establishment for the benefit of the beneficiaries named in the prearrangement funeral service contract.

(4) All interest, dividends, increases, or accretions of whatever nature earned by a trust fund shall be kept unimpaired and shall become a part of the trust fund, and adequate records shall be maintained to allocate the share thereof to each contract.

(5) A depository designated as the depository of a prearrangement funeral service trust fund shall permit withdrawal of all funds deposited under a prearrangement funeral service contract, plus accruals thereon, under the following circumstances and conditions:

(a) If the funeral establishment files a verified statement with the depository that the prearrangement funeral merchandise and services covered by the contract have been furnished and delivered in accordance therewith; or

(b) If the funeral establishment files a verified statement with the depository that the prearrangement funeral merchandise and services covered by the contract have been canceled in accordance with its terms.

(6) Any purchaser or beneficiary who has procured a prearrangement funeral service contract shall have the right to demand a refund of the entire amount paid on the contract, together with all interest, dividends, increases, or accretions to the funds.

(7) Prearrangement funeral service contracts shall automatically terminate if the funeral establishment goes out of business, becomes insolvent or bankrupt, makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or for any other reason is unable to fulfill the obligations under the contract. In such event, and upon demand by the purchaser or beneficiary of the prearrangement funeral service contract, the depository of the prearrangement funeral service contract funds shall refund to the purchaser or beneficiary all funds deposited under the said contract, unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) Prearrangement funeral service trust funds shall not be used, directly or indirectly, for the benefit of the funeral establishment or any director, officer, agent, or employee of the funeral establishment including, but not limited to, any encumbrance, pledge, or other use of prearrangement funeral service trust funds as collateral or other security.

(9) Every prearrangement funeral service contract shall contain language which informs the purchaser of the prearrangement funeral service trust fund and the amount to be deposited in the trust fund, which may not be less than eighty-five percent of the cash purchase price of the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. No funeral establishment shall enter into prearrangement funeral service contracts in this state unless the funeral establishment has obtained a certificate of registration issued by the commissioner and such certificate is then in force.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. To qualify for and hold a certificate of registration a funeral establishment must:

(1) Be licensed pursuant to chapter 18.39 RCW; and

(2) Fully comply with and qualify according to the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The commissioner may refuse to renew or may revoke or suspend a funeral establishment's certificate of registration, if the funeral establishment:

(1) Fails to comply with any provisions of this chapter or any proper order or regulation of the commissioner;

(2) Is found by the commissioner to be in such condition that further execution of prearrangement contracts could be hazardous to purchasers or beneficiaries and the people of this state;

(3) Refuses to be examined, or refuses to submit to examination or to produce its accounts, records and files for examination by the commissioner when required; or

(4) Is found by the commissioner after investigation or receipt of reliable information to be managed by persons who are incompetent or untrustworthy or so lacking in managerial experience as to make the proposed or continued operation hazardous to purchasers, beneficiaries, or to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. To apply for an original certificate of registration, a funeral establishment must:

(1) File with the commissioner its request showing:

(a) Its name, location, and organization date;

- (b) The kinds of funeral business it proposes to transact;
 - (c) A statement of its financial condition, management, and affairs on a form satisfactory to or furnished by the commissioner; and
 - (d) Such other documents, stipulations, or information as the commissioner may reasonably require to evidence compliance with the provisions of this chapter.
- (2) Deposit with the commissioner the fees required by this chapter to be paid for filing the accompanying documents, and for the certificate of registration, if granted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. All certificates of registration issued pursuant to this chapter shall continue in force until suspended, revoked, or renewed. A certificate shall be subject to renewal annually on the first day of July upon application by the funeral establishment and payment of the required fees.

The commissioner shall collect in advance the following fees:

- (1) Certificate of registration:
 - (a) Issuance – thirty-five dollars;
 - (b) Renewal – fifteen dollars;
 - (2) Annual statement of financial condition – ten dollars.

All fees so collected shall be remitted by the commissioner to the state treasurer not later than the first business day following receipt of such funds and the funds shall be credited to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The commissioner shall give a funeral establishment notice of his intention to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the establishment's certificate of registration not less than ten days before the order of suspension, revocation or refusal is to become effective.

No funeral establishment whose certificate of registration has been suspended, revoked, or refused shall subsequently be authorized to enter into prearrangement contracts unless the grounds for such suspension, revocation, or refusal in the opinion of the commissioner no longer exist and the funeral establishment is otherwise fully qualified.

Upon the suspension, revocation or refusal of a funeral establishment's certificate of registration, the commissioner shall give written notice of such action to the director of the department of motor vehicles.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Each authorized funeral establishment shall annually, before the first day of March, file with the commissioner a true and accurate statement of its financial condition, transactions, and affairs for the preceding calendar year. The statement shall be on such forms and shall contain such information as required by this chapter and by the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner shall suspend or revoke the certificate of registration of any funeral establishment which fails to file its annual statement when due or after any extension of time which the commissioner has, for good cause, granted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. No prearrangement funeral contract forms shall be used without the prior approval of the commissioner.

The commissioner shall disapprove any such contract form, or withdraw prior approval when such form:

- (1) Violates or does not comply with this chapter;
- (2) Contains or incorporates by reference any inconsistent, ambiguous or misleading clauses, or exceptions and conditions which unreasonably or deceptively affect the merchandise or service purported to be provided in the general coverage of the contract;
- (3) Has any title, heading, or other part of its provisions which is misleading; or
- (4) Is being solicited by deceptive advertising.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The commissioner shall have the authority expressly conferred upon him by or reasonably implied from the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The commissioner may:

(a) Make reasonable rules and regulations for effectuating any provision of this chapter in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW;

(b) Conduct investigations to determine whether any person has violated any provision of this chapter; and

(c) Conduct examinations, investigations, and hearings, in addition to those specifically provided for, useful and proper for the efficient administration of any provision of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any person who shall violate or fail to comply with, or aid or abet any person in the violation of, or failure to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor pursuant to chapter 9A.20 RCW. Any such violation shall constitute an unfair practice under chapters 19.86 and 48.30 RCW and conviction thereunder shall be grounds for license revocation under chapter 18.39 RCW. Retail installment transactions under this chapter shall be governed by chapter 63.14 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 12 are each added to chapter 48.40 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On line 2 of the title, beginning with "amending" strike all the material through "68.46.110" on line 22 and insert "adding new sections to chapter 48.40 RCW"; and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1277, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives McKibbin, Clemente, Barnes, Bauer, Dunlap, Erickson, Shipoch and Haley) (by Governor Ray request):

Providing for a Washington state commission on educational structure and management.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 11, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1277, providing for a Washington state commission on educational structure and management (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is hereby created the Temporary Committee on Educational Policies, Structure and Management which shall consist of nine citizen members, appointed by the governor, one member from each political party of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house, and one member from each political party of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate. The nine citizen members shall be selected so as to assure representation for the geographical regions of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The educational complex in Washington consists of several components: Preschool; the common school system, which includes kindergarten through high school; the various delivery systems of vocational education; the community college system; the state colleges and universities; the independent and/or private institutions; educational instruction within other state institutions; and the supporting elements of each. Generally these components are organized into these sectors: Preschool-12th grade, vocational, and postsecondary.

While there have been important reports on one or the other of these sectors, or on individual components, there has not been a comprehensive review of their interrelationships for at least three decades.

A review of the educational complex is merited so that the legislative and administrative branches of government and the public may consider these and other questions: Coordination; needs of students and response to those needs; the role and missions of the components; educational diversity and independence; obstacles to orderly student progression; open access; efficiency; duplication; accreditation; graduation and entrance requirements from high school to postsecondary; efficient uses of public dollars; ways to improve the system possibly through managerial reorganization or combining of components; accountability of the various levels; student achievement; and a determination of what constitutes good instruction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The Temporary Committee on Educational Policies, Structure and Management shall undertake a general review of Washington education, its strengths and areas needed for improvement, and make a report on its findings to the governor, the legislature and the citizens of the state.

This review shall include an examination of those questions raised in section 2 of this act and:

- (1) An emphasis on the education of the student;
- (2) An examination of the current general practices in the sectors and their components with particular attention directed to their interrelationships, obstacles to student mobility and progression, and how the system or its components might be improved;
- (3) Examination of the educational goals of the sectors and a determination of their intended or proposed interrelationships and the extent to which they are consistent with each other;
- (4) Determination of the extent of duplication of educational services in both the vocational and academic areas, the extent to which such duplication may be unwarranted, and proposed corrections; and
- (5) Consideration of the nature and extent of any benefits, including those pertaining to student access, progression, and learning, improved information, and cost reduction, as well as any disadvantages, that might accrue from structural reorganization in Washington education.

The committee shall submit its report not later than February 15, 1979, and it shall cease its existence not later than June 30, 1979.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The Temporary Committee on Educational Policies, Structure and Management may accept and expend funds in accordance with chapter 43.88 RCW from private sources and grants from public agencies for the purposes of fulfilling its duties: PROVIDED, That the acceptance and expenditure of such funds first must be approved by the governor.

The committee may establish advisory committees and task forces, as it may deem necessary, to assist it in the fulfillment of its duties.

The educational institutions, delivery systems, and support systems of the state shall fully cooperate with the committee in its investigations and deliberations.

The committee may employ such staff or consultants that it may deem necessary to fulfill its duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is hereby appropriated the sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars, or so much of it as may be necessary, from the state general fund, to be used by the committee for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of sections 1 through 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Beginning on line 1 of the title after "education;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "providing for a Temporary Committee on Educational Policies, Structure and Management; describing its powers and duties; providing for its expiration; and making an appropriation."

Signed by: Senators McDermott, Chairman; Gaspard, Gould, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Murray moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment.:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. No money shall be expended or meetings of appointees to the Temporary Advisory Committee on Educational Policies and Management shall be held until the chairman and a majority of the appointed members have signed affidavits that they have read the complete Special Levy Study Commission Report of 1971.

The staff of the Senate Education Committee shall make available the report of the last Washington state committee review of education prior to the first meeting of the Temporary Advisory Committee on Educational Policies and Management committee.

The staff of the Senate Education Committee shall make available all reports submitted in the past five years by groups in other states to the members of the Temporary Advisory Committee on Educational Policies and Management prior to the first meeting of the Temporary Advisory Committee on Educational Policies and Management.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Gould yield to a question? Senator Gould, have you read the Strayer report?"

Senator Gould: "I am sorry, no, I haven't. I don't even know what the Strayer report is, at least by that name I do not."

Senator Rasmussen: "A very prominent educator has made a very prominent report, and it is very good reading, and also there is the Canwell report, and it is very good reading, and there are numerous other reports, but of course, times are changing and that is why it is necessary to review. They have a new report. I hope they make it brief, Senator Murray. I can't support your amendment."

Senator Gould: "In response, Senator, if I may offer—if I were ever appointed to any committee where those were necessary to read, I certainly would be glad to, thank you."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Murray failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1277, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1277, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 22; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 3.

"(1) Upon cessation of a use under which an exemption has been granted pursuant to RCW 84.36.030, 84.36.040, (~~84.36.050~~) and 84.36.060, the county treasurer shall collect all taxes which would have been paid had the property not been exempt during the seven years preceding, or the life of such exemption, if such be less, together with the interest at the same rate and computed in the same way as that upon delinquent property taxes (~~-PROVIDED, That~~).

(2) Upon cessation of a use under which an exemption has been granted pursuant to RCW 84.36.050 to a school or college, the county treasurer shall collect all taxes which would have been paid had the property not been exempt during the three years preceding, or the life of such exemption, if such be less, together with the interest at the same rate and computed in the same way as that upon delinquent property taxes, plus a tax, at the same rate as the property tax rate for that year, on the amount of profit from the sale of property (the difference between the sales price and the purchase price plus improvements): PROVIDED, That where the school or college has operated for more than ten years, no penalty shall be assessed.

~~((3))~~ If the cessation of use under subsections (1) or (2) of this section involves a portion of the total property exemptions the provisions of ~~((this section))~~ those subsections shall apply only to that portion: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such additional tax shall not be imposed if the cessation of use resulted solely from:

~~((4))~~ (a) Transfer to an organization, association, or corporation for a use which also qualifies and is granted exemption under the provisions of chapter 84.36 RCW;

~~((2))~~ (b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

~~((3))~~ (c) Official action by an agency of the state of Washington or by the county or city within which the property is located which disallows the present use of such property;

~~((4))~~ (d) A natural disaster such as a flood, windstorm, earthquake, or other such calamity rather than by virtue of the act of the organization, association, or corporation changing the use of such property;

~~((5))~~ (e) Relocation of the activity and use of another location or site except for undeveloped properties of camp facilities exempted under RCW 84.36.030."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 23, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2990, with the following amendments:

On page 1, after line 21, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 87, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature hereby authorizes bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations to conduct bingo games, raffles, amusement games, to utilize punch boards and pull-tabs and to allow their premises and facilities to be used by members and guests only to play social card games authorized by the commission, when licensed, conducted or operated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(2) Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations organized primarily for purposes other than the conduct of raffles, are hereby authorized to conduct raffles without obtaining a license to do so from the commission when such raffles are held in accordance with all other requirements of chapter 9.46 RCW, other applicable laws, and rules of the commission; when gross revenues from all such raffles held by the organization during the calendar year do not exceed five thousand dollars; and when tickets to such raffles are sold only to, and winners are determined only from among, the regular members of the organization conducting the raffle: PROVIDED, That the term members for this purpose shall mean only those persons who have become members prior to the commencement of the raffle and whose qualification for membership was not dependent upon, or in any way related to, the purchase of a ticket, or tickets, for such raffles.

(3) Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations organized primarily for purposes other than the conduct of such activities are hereby authorized to conduct bingo, raffles, and amusement games, without obtaining a license to do so from the commission but only when:

(a) Such activities are held in accordance with all other requirements of chapter 9.46 RCW as now or hereafter amended, other applicable laws, and rules of the commission; and

(b) Said activities are conducted no more than twice each calendar year over a period of no more than twelve consecutive days each time, notwithstanding the limitations of RCW 9.46.020(2) as now or hereafter amended; and

(c) Only bona fide members of that organization, who are not paid for such services, participate in the management or operation of the activities; and

(d) Gross revenues to the organization from all the activities together does not exceed five thousand dollars during any calendar year; and

(e) All revenue therefrom, after deducting the cost of prizes and other expenses of the activity, is devoted solely to the purposes for which the organization qualifies as a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization; and

(f) The organization gives notice at least five days in advance of the conduct of any of the activities to the local police agency of the jurisdiction within which the activities are to be conducted of the organization's intent to conduct the activities, the location of the activities, and the date or dates they will be conducted; and

(g) The organization conducting the activities maintains records for a period of one year from the date of the event which accurately show at a minimum the gross revenue from each activity, details of the expenses of conducting the activities, and details of the uses to which the gross revenue therefrom is put.

(4) The legislature hereby authorizes any person, association or organization to conduct social card games and to utilize punch boards and pull-tabs as a commercial stimulant when licensed and utilized or operated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(5) The legislature hereby authorizes any person to conduct or operate amusement games when licensed and operated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted by the commission at such locations as the commission may authorize.

(6) The legislature hereby authorizes bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations to conduct, without the necessity of obtaining a permit or license to do so from the commission, golfing sweepstakes permitting wagers of money, and the same shall not constitute such gambling or lottery as otherwise in this chapter prohibited, or be subject to civil or criminal penalties thereunder, but this only when the outcome of such golfing sweepstakes is dependent upon the score, or scores, or the playing ability, or abilities, of a golfing contest between individual players or teams of such players, conducted in the following manner:

(a) Wagers are placed by buying tickets on any players in a golfing contest to "win", "place" or "show" and those holding tickets on the three winners may receive a pay-off similar to the system of betting identified as parimutuel, such moneys placed as wagers to be used primarily as winners proceeds, except moneys used to defray the expenses of such golfing sweepstakes or otherwise used to carry out the purposes of such organization; or

(b) Participants in any golfing contest(s) pay a like sum of money into a common fund on the basis of attaining a stated number of points ascertainable from the score of such participants, and those participants attaining such stated number of points share equally in the moneys in the common fund, without any percentage of such moneys going to the sponsoring organization; and

(c) Participation is limited to members of the sponsoring organization and their bona fide guests.

(7) The legislature hereby authorizes bowling establishments to conduct, without the necessity of obtaining a permit or license to do so, as a commercial stimulant, a bowling activity which permits bowlers to purchase tickets from the establishment for a predetermined and posted amount of money which tickets are then selected by the luck of the draw and the holder of the matching ticket so drawn has an opportunity to bowl a strike and if successful receives a predetermined and posted monetary prize: PROVIDED, That all sums collected by the establishment from the sale of tickets shall be returned to purchasers of tickets and no part of the proceeds shall inure to any person other than the participants winning in the game or a recognized charity. The tickets shall be sold, and accounted for, separately from all other sales of the establishment. The price of any single ticket shall not exceed one dollar. Accounting records shall be available for inspection during business hours by any person purchasing a chance thereon, by the commission or its representatives, or by any law enforcement agency.

(8) The legislature hereby authorizes any person, association, or organization to conduct sports pools without a license to do so from the commission but only when the outcome of which is dependent upon the score, or scores, of a certain athletic contest and which is conducted only in the following manner:

(a) A board or piece of paper is divided into one hundred equal squares, each of which constitutes a chance to win in the sports pool and each of which is offered directly to prospective contestants at one dollar or less; and

(b) The purchaser of each chance or square signs his or her name on the face of each square or chance he or she purchases; and

(c) At some time not later than prior to the start of the subject athletic contest the pool is closed and no further chances in the pool are sold; and

(d) After the pool is closed a prospective score is assigned by random drawing to each square; and

(e) All money paid by entrants to enter the pool less taxes is paid out as the prize or prizes to those persons holding squares assigned the winning score or scores from the subject athletic contest; and

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2421.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 27, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2421, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference, and the report of the Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

May 24, 1977.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2421, as amended by the House, authorizing local governments to employ hearing examiners to hear applications for amending zoning ordinances, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we cannot agree and request the powers of Free Conference in order to recommend the following:

That the House amendment striking everything after the enacting clause not be adopted, and the following be adopted:

"AN ACT Relating to local government hearing examiners; adding a new section to chapter 35.63 RCW; creating new sections; adding a new section to chapter 35A.63 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.70 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 58.17 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 35.63 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As an alternative to those provisions of this chapter relating to powers or duties of the planning commission to hear and report on any proposal to amend a zoning ordinance, the legislative body of a city or county may adopt a hearing examiner system under which a hearing examiner or hearing examiners may hear and decide applications for amending the zoning ordinance when the amendment which is applied for is not of general applicability. In addition, the legislative body may vest in a hearing examiner the power to hear and decide applications for conditional uses, variances, or any other class of applications for or pertaining to land uses which the legislative body believes should be reviewed and decided by a hearing examiner. The legislative body shall prescribe procedures to be followed by the hearing examiner.

Each city or county legislative body electing to use a hearing examiner pursuant to this section shall by ordinance specify the legal effect of the decisions made by the examiner. The legal effect of such decisions may vary for the different classes of applications decided by the examiner but shall include one of the following:

(1) The decision may be given the effect of a recommendation to the legislative body;

(2) The decision may be given the effect of an administrative decision appealable within a specified time limit to the legislative body.

Each final decision of a hearing examiner shall be in writing and shall include findings and conclusions, based on the record, to support the decision. Such findings and conclusions shall also set forth the manner in which the decision would carry out and conform to the city's or county's comprehensive plan and the city's or county's development regulations. Each final decision of a hearing examiner, unless a longer period is mutually agreed to in writing by the applicant and the hearing examiner, shall be rendered within ten working days following conclusion of all testimony and hearings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 35A.63 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As an alternative to those provisions of this chapter relating to powers or duties of the planning commission to hear and report on any proposal to amend a zoning ordinance, the legislative body of a city may adopt a hearing examiner system under which a hearing examiner or hearing examiners may hear and decide applications for amending the zoning ordinance when the amendment which is applied for is not of general applicability. In addition, the legislative body may vest in a hearing examiner the power to hear and decide applications for conditional uses, variances or any other class of applications for or pertaining to land uses which the legislative body believes should be reviewed and decided by a hearing examiner. The legislative body shall prescribe procedures to be followed by a hearing examiner. If the legislative authority vests in a hearing examiner the authority to hear and decide variances, then the provisions of RCW 35A.63.110 shall not apply to the city.

Each city legislative body electing to use a hearing examiner pursuant to this section shall by ordinance specify the legal effect of the decisions made by the examiner. The legal effect of such decisions may vary for the different classes of applications decided by the examiner but shall include one of the following:

(1) The decision may be given the effect of a recommendation to the legislative body;

(2) The decision may be given the effect of an administrative decision appealable within a specified time limit to the legislative body.

Each final decision of a hearing examiner shall be in writing and shall include findings and conclusions, based on the record, to support the decision. Such findings and conclusions shall also set forth the manner in which the decision would carry out and conform to the city's comprehensive plan and the city's development regulations. Each final decision of a hearing examiner, unless a longer period is mutually agreed to in writing by the applicant and the hearing examiner, shall be rendered within ten working days following conclusion of all testimony and hearings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 36.70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As an alternative to those provisions of this chapter relating to powers or duties of the planning commission to hear and issue recommendations on applications for plat approval and applications for amendments to the zoning ordinance, the county legislative authority may adopt a hearing examiner system under which a hearing examiner or hearing examiners may hear and issue decisions on proposals for plat approval and for amendments to the zoning ordinance when the amendment which is applied for is not of general applicability. In addition, the legislative authority may vest in a hearing examiner the power to hear and decide conditional use applications, variance applications, applications for shoreline permits or any other class of applications for or pertaining to land uses. The legislative authority shall prescribe procedures to be followed by a hearing examiner.

Any county which vests in a hearing examiner the authority to hear and decide conditional uses and variances shall not be required to have a zoning adjuster or board of adjustment.

Each county legislative authority electing to use a hearing examiner pursuant to this section shall by ordinance specify the legal effect of the decisions made by the examiner. Such legal effect may vary for the different classes of applications decided by the examiner but shall include one of the following:

(1) The decision may be given the effect of a recommendation to the legislative authority;

(2) The decision may be given the effect of an administrative decision appealable within a specified time limit to the legislative authority.

Each final decision of a hearing examiner shall be in writing and shall include findings and conclusions, based on the record, to support the decision. Such findings and conclusions shall also set forth the manner in which the decision would carry out and conform to the county's comprehensive plan and the county's development regulations. Each final decision of a hearing examiner, unless a longer period is mutually agreed to in writing by the applicant and the hearing examiner, shall be rendered within ten working days following conclusion of all testimony and hearings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 58.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As an alternative to those provisions of this chapter requiring a planning commission to hear and issue recommendations for plat approval, the county or city legislative body may adopt a hearing examiner system and shall specify by ordinance the legal effect of the decisions made by the examiner. The legal effect of such decisions shall include one of the following:

(1) The decision may be given the effect of a recommendation to the legislative body;

(2) The decision may be given the effect of an administrative decision appealable within a specified time limit to the legislative body.

The legislative authority shall prescribe procedures to be followed by a hearing examiner.

Each final decision of a hearing examiner shall be in writing and shall include findings and conclusions, based on the record, to support the decision. Each final decision of a hearing examiner, unless a longer period is mutually agreed to by the applicant and the hearing examiner, shall be rendered within ten working days following conclusion of all testimony and hearings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Signed by: Senators Goltz, Sellars and Van Hollebeke; Representatives Eng, Lee and Owen.

RESIGNATION OF SENATOR JOHN E. (JACK) CUNNINGHAM

Mr. Sid Snyder, Secretary
Washington State Senate
Olympia, WA 98504

Dear Secretary Snyder:

This is to formally tender my resignation from the Washington State Senate, effective upon the certification of the results of the election for the Seventh Congressional District of Washington, held May 17, 1977.

The friendships formed during the five years I had the pleasure and opportunity of serving as a member of the Washington State Legislature will remain with me always.

I sincerely trust that I will have the opportunity to continue working with all members of the Washington State Legislature for the betterment of all persons.

Cordially,
JACK CUNNINGHAM
Member of Congress

Received May 27, 1977.

MOTION

At 4:15 p.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Saturday, May 28, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

SEVENTY-NINTH DAYMORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Saturday, May 28, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 9:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Benitz, Donohue, Hayner, Herr, Lewis and Woody. On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Benitz, Hayner and Lewis were excused. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Donohue and Woody were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Patricia Oliver and Volney Spalding, presented the Colors. Reverend David Kratz, pastor of United Churches of Christ of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, LORD OF THE TRANSITORY AND THE ETERNAL, WE COME IN HUMILITY THIS MORNING FOR WE KNOW THAT THE SCOPE OF YOUR FAITHFULNESS AND TRUTH FAR EXCEEDS THE GRASP OF OUR CONSCIOUS KNOWLEDGE. WE ARE MERE BEGGARS AT THE ABUNDANT FEAST OF LIFE WITH COCKINESS OR BUFFOONERY OR DESPERATION WE STRIVE FOR SOME CRUMBS THAT WILL SATISFY US. BUT SOMEWHERE DEEP WITHIN US, BENEATH THE APPEARANCES, BENEATH THE BUSYNESS, BENEATH OUR ROUTINE AWARENESS, WE SENSE THAT LIFE IS MORE THAN WE KNOW, OUR DESTINY IS MORE THAN WE CAN IMAGINE. ESPECIALLY, O GOD, ON THIS MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND AS WE REMEMBER THE RICH HERITAGE OF TRUTH WHICH HAS COME TO US FROM THOSE WHO HAVE LIVED AND DIED THAT WE MIGHT LIVE, WE ARE HUMBLY GRATEFUL FOR WE KNOW THAT SO MUCH OF WHO WE ARE, SO MUCH OF WHAT WE VALUE AND DO IS NOT OUR OWN BUT GIVEN TO US BY THE SUFFERING AND EFFORT OF SO MANY BEFORE US. BUT WE REMEMBER ALSO THAT WE HAVE FORGOTTEN SO MUCH AND WE KNOW TOO THAT SO MUCH WHAT WE ARE IN OUR INNERMOST BEINGS WILL BE FORGOTTEN BY THOSE WHO FOLLOW US.

"SO WE PAUSE THIS DAY AS TEMPORARY HUMAN CREATURES, WHO LONG FOR AN ACCEPTANCE AND A VALIDATION THAT NO HUMAN CAN GIVE, WE PAUSE SIMPLY TO ASK THAT YOU WHO CREATED US, WILL ALSO REMEMBER AND IN REMEMBERING, ACCEPT US, AND IN ACCEPTING, YOU WILL DISCERN THE VALUE AND MEANING IN WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO. TO YOU BE THE GLORY FOREVER AND EVER. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION

Senator Goltz moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2873.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the House Message on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2873, together with the motion by Senator Goltz that the Senate do concur in the House amendments, was ordered held for later today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the fifth order of business.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 122, by Senators Walgren, Sandison, Matson and Newschwander:

Amending Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 113.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 122 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 122 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 340.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 340, by Committee on Financial Institutions (originally sponsored by Representatives Polk and O'Brien):

Exempting securities issued by nonprofit recognized religious denominations from state securities regulation laws.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 340 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, as you well know, there are numerous charitable non-profit groups, pseudo religious organizations. What protection is there in this? As I read the digest, it says they may sell it to contributors, participants, or relatives of the members, contributors, participants and so forth. It is a pretty wide open deal, and how would any one of these people recognize this as a reputable organization that would possibly be—if they are selling these bonds or notes or anything that they would be able to pay it back?"

Senator Clarke: "Senator, I think in substance, that you have to rely upon the supervisor in the director of licenses, because if you will note, the organization is to pay a fifty dollar filing fee to obtain the exemptions. The supervisor of securities is authorized to deny, revoke or condition any exemptions. So, the feeling in the committee was that the supervisor could, in effect, screen out the sheep from the goats and protect the public against those that were in the fly-by-night capacity that you are talking to, and yet there are some very substantial and worthwhile organizations that should not be required, in effect, to go through all of the red tape for general security sales."

Senator Rasmussen: "The supervisor then retains the right to deny?"

Senator Clarke: "That is my understanding. I can't refer you at this instance to the specific provision of the bill, but the supervisor before the committee felt that he had ample authority to properly police the situation."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 340, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Marsh, Matson, Moñohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—39.

Absent or not voting: Senators Mardesich, McDermott, Peterson, Sandison—4.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Donohue, Hayner, Lewis, Woody—5.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 340, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 46, by Representatives Clemente, Lux and Fischer:
Authorizing adjustments of workmen's compensation payments.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 14, 1977.

HOUSE BILL NO. 46, authorizing adjustments of workmen's compensation payments (reported by Committee on Labor):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 10, after "payable" strike "in the fiscal year ending June 30, ((+1975)) 1977" and insert "~~((in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1975))~~ on the effective date of this act"

On page 2, line 23, after "payable" strike "in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1977." and insert "on the effective date of this act."

On page 2, line 35, after "year" strike all the matter down to and including "1977" on page 3, line 11.

Signed by: Senators Ridder, Chairman; Grant, Mardesich, Peterson.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved the following amendments by Senators Mardesich and Morrison be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 10, after "1977" strike all the matter down through "adjustment" on line 15.

On page 2, line 23, after "1977." strike all the matter down through "made." on page 3, line 4.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Morrison yield? Senator Morrison, how is the social security offset handled now in reference to workmen's compensation benefits? If we increase the benefits, will they just be subtracted in the end in their checks because of the social security offset, or do you know?"

Senator Morrison: "The amounts of social security are deducted as the first deduction from this, so if we escalate these amounts the total increase should end up being reflected to the individual pensioner, so these increases will go to the individuals for whom we intend them."

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Walgren, Francis, Grant, Fleming, Ridder, Matson, Talley, Monohon and Bausch.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 17; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Gould, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jones, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Peterson, Pullen, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Wanamaker, Wilson—24.

Voting nay: Senators Beck, Bottiger, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Keefe, McDermott, Monohon, Odegaard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington—17.

Absent or not voting: Senators Sandison, Wojahn—2.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Donohue, Hayner, Lewis, Woody—5.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 46, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 46, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—41.

Voting nay: Senator Grant—1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Sandison—1.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Donohue, Hayner, Lewis, Woody—5.

HOUSE BILL NO. 46, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 49, by Representatives Clemente, Lux, King, Gruger and Knedlik:

Changing the term "workman" to "worker" throughout the state industrial insurance laws.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Keefe moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Keefe and Morrison:

On page 12, line 20, after "employment" insert:

" : PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a jockey while participating in or preparing horses for race meets licensed by the Washington Horse Racing Commission pursuant to Chapter 67.16 RCW shall not be considered a worker for the purposes of Title 51 RCW"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I believe the amendment does change the scope and object of the bill. The bill is a very simple bill, it only changes references from 'workman' to 'worker', and changes the sexual references throughout the bill.

"Although the amendment by Senator Keefe and Senator Morrison may be a very worthwhile amendment, it is a provision that is entirely different with regard to exempting from coverage a certain class of employees, and they may well be worthy of that exemption, but I should think that the matter should be considered by the labor committee through the committee process during this session rather than being offered as a floor amendment to a very simple measure."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORRISON

Senator Morrison: "Mr. President, only to add to your deliberations between now and Tuesday, the measure before us is sixty-six pages long. It covers the full RCW 51. All of the industrial insurance laws are open before us. They are amendments specifically to the section in which this particular amendment deals. I think it is an opportunity for members of the Senate to take a look at any of those RCW provisions, so therefore I would hope that the body would have the opportunity to perfect these laws at this time."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, following Senator Morrison's argument then, over the long weekend, we can all start preparing exemptions for legal secretaries and everything else that we would like to exempt, and I think that argument clearly points out that this amendment increases the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, House Bill No. 49, together with the pending amendment by Senators Keefe and Morrison and the Point of Order raised by Senator Grant, was ordered held on the second reading calendar for May 31, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of House Joint Resolution No. 7.

SECOND READING

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 7, by Representatives King, Fortson, Charnley, Grier, Hughes, Knowles, Lee, Lux and McCormick:

Permitting constitutional amendments to include several sections within a single article, or several sections relating to one subject.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 3, 1977.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 7, permitting constitutional amendments to contain several sections on one subject (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 25, after "amendment" insert "embracing one subject"

On page 2, line 1, after "matters" insert "directly related and"

Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Gaspard, Hayner, Lewis, von Reichbauer, Wojahn.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Grant, the committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 9, after "proposed" strike "in" and insert "((m)) by the people or"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, House Joint Resolution No. 7, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Joint Resolution No. 7, as amended by the Senate, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 8; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wojahn—35.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Beck, Gould, Guess, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Wilson—8.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Donohue, Hayner, Lewis, Woody—5.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 7, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 28, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 3105, relating to state government (reported by Committee on State Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: That Substitute Senate Bill No. 3105 be substituted therefor and the substitute bill do pass.

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Bausch, Buffington, Day, Gould, Henry.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 3105 was advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar for today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-42

By Senators Day and Guess:

WHEREAS, Joseph M. Smith of Spokane, Washington, is nationally recognized for his support of political candidates and issues; and

WHEREAS, His support has been given unselfishly and ranges from the Presidency to the grass roots level; and

WHEREAS, Joseph M. Smith, although never an elected official, has made outstanding contributions to our political system as a private citizen; and

WHEREAS, In his home town of Spokane, Joseph M. Smith has a record of civic achievement equaled by few, as exemplified by his work for schools, the YWCA, and a leading part in bringing EXPO '74 to the Northwest; and

WHEREAS, His work in the political field emphasizes and encourages participation by the private citizen in our form of government;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, that its appreciation be extended to Joseph M. Smith, for his long and honorable service as a private citizen to the citizens of the State of Washington and that best wishes for success and well being go with him for a continued active future; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to present a suitably inscribed copy of this resolution to Joseph M. Smith.

REMARKS BY SENATOR DAY

Senator Day: "Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, Joseph M. Smith is well known in Spokane for his civic endeavors relative to Expo 74, YWCA and a lot of other things including active political participation on a high level.

"This man has recently had some very serious eye situations. He has had some laser treatments. He is losing his vision, and I would like to pass this resolution to show him our appreciation so that he can read it for himself."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Murray, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-49

By John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate; and Senators Woody, Day, Buffington, Sellar, Mardesich, Sandison, Goltz and Murray:

WHEREAS, The Department of the Army has announced plans to reduce the number of Army Reserve Civil Affairs Brigades nationally from ten to six, and one of the units scheduled to be disbanded is the 365th Civil Affairs Brigade of Washington State with the result that the nearest such unit would then be stationed in Portland, Oregon; and

WHEREAS, Fort Lawton is the home base of the 365th Civil Affairs Brigade, which includes among its 133 members, reservists from Eastern as well as Western Washington areas with a supporting Civil Affairs Company located in Bellingham and a detachment in Wenatchee; and

WHEREAS, The 365th Civil Affairs Brigade was the first such unit in the United States to conduct a local government emergency resource survey, which was done for the purpose of aiding Cowlitz, King and Pierce counties with planning for disaster relief; and

WHEREAS, The geographical location of the 365th Civil Affairs Brigade facilitates close coordination with the military installations of Fort Lewis and McChord Air Force Base thus permitting the unit to fulfill its mission of providing direct and constant support to both civil and military elements in the event of disaster; and

WHEREAS, The 365th Civil Affairs Brigade has consistently displayed the high quality of its expertise, dedication and exceptional performance as reflected in annual general and logistics evaluations and by earning the Army Reserve "Superior Unit" award for sixteen of the last seventeen years; and

WHEREAS, An additional $400,000 per year is added to the disposable income of the state's economy from the personnel assigned to the 365th Civil Affairs Brigade;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate respectfully petitions the Washington State members of Congress to request from the Department of Defense and the Department of the Army a full response concerning the reasons and justifications for reduction in Reserve Civil Affairs activities, and particularly the specifics of the decision to disband the 365th Civil Affairs Brigade; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate shall cause copies of this Resolution to be transmitted immediately to the Washington State members of Congress, the Department of Defense and the Department of the Army.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the motion for reconsideration by Senator McDermott of the failure of Substitute House Bill No. 1277, as amended by the Senate, to pass the Senate on May 27, 1977, was ordered held for May 31, 1977.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, there being no objection, Senator Bottiger was replaced by Senator Francis on the Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 183.

On motion of Senator Walgren, there being no objection, Senator Fleming was replaced by Senator Francis on the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 353.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the conferees were confirmed.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 3105.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3105, by Senator Rasmussen:

Relating to state government.

Earlier today, the rules were suspended and Senate Bill No. 3105 was advanced to second reading.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3105 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3105, and the substitute bill was read the second time in full.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Clarke, Rasmussen and Day:

On page 1, line 19, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Senator Rasmussen, before we take this off second reading, shouldn't we attach an emergency clause thereto?"

(No reply.)

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Herr was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, I am looking at the proposed Substitute Senate Bill 3105, and specifically to lines 11 through 14. That says, 'It shall be unlawful to communicate or repeat any information concerning such a threatened bombing or injury knowing such information to be false and was intended to alarm the person or persons to whom the information is communicated or repeated.' I know what that is intended to do. That is intended to prevent someone going around repeating what they heard or passing such rumors around. However, although it is not mandatory now, wouldn't that language prevent someone from informing the authorities of such—and I am just wondering whether that technically couldn't even prevent someone from reporting to the authorities, and as happens, where if they don't happen to like the way you part your hair, they might just decide—you know. They have done it. Someone is protecting his own property, the criminal gets let off and they put the man who was protecting his own property in jail."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Mardesich, to answer your question, the person knowing such information to be false, if I was to come up to you and say, and I didn't want you to vote on a bill on the floor, and I would tell you that there is a bomb—somebody has told me there is a bomb under your desk, that of course, would be with intent to alarm you and frighten you off. But if the person would say that to the state patrol, 'so and so told me that there is a bomb there,' that would just be imparting information to the proper officials. This is old law. I don't think there is any problem there. I think the main problem is concerned with the fact that it is just a misdemeanor now, and it would make it a felony, bring it to the attention of the people that are inclined to do that.

"We didn't change the old law, and the request from the state patrol was that it be made a felony. There has been a terrific rash of bomb threats."

Senator Mardesich: "All I am wondering is, perhaps on line 11, after 'repeat' we couldn't insert just to clarify that, 'other than to law enforcement officials.'"

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't see—"

Senator Mardesich: "I may be stretching a point quite finely, but—"

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 10, after "carrier," insert "or" and after "structure₂ or" insert "any"

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following amendment to the title by Senators Clarke, Rasmussen and Day was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title, before "prescribing" strike "and" and after "penalties" and before the period insert "; and declaring an emergency"

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3105 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3105, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 6.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—39.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Goltz moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877.

Debate ensued.

Senator Grant demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Ridder, Wilson, Francis, Washington, Talley, Wojahn, Bottiger, Buffington, Pullen and Gould.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Goltz that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 21; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, McDermott, Monohon, Odegaard, Ridder, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—19.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Guess, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Pullen, Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker—21.

Absent or not voting: Senator Peterson—1.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Donohue, Hayner, Herr, Lewis, North, Woody—7.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved the Senate refuse to concur and ask the House to recede from the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877.

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved the Senate refuse to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877, and asks the House for a conference thereon.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Point of order. My understanding is that in a vote of this kind, the negative vote automatically carries the other motion so that, in substance, as the Chair has announced, the effect of the rejection of the vote to concur automatically was a vote not to concur."

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "That is correct. It asks them to recede therefrom. However, another motion is in order, if Senator Mardesich wishes to place that motion that we do not concur and request a conference thereon."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the motion by Senator Mardesich was amended and the Senate concurred in the House amendments on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2877, except the House amendment to page 8, line 2, and asks the House for a conference thereon.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Parliamentary inquiry. We could vote to adopt all of these and ask the House to recede from that amendment, could we not?"

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "We could, but that was not the motion, Senator Rasmussen. The motion as passed asks for a conference thereon."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOLTZ

Senator Goltz: "For the record, Mr. President, I think the record should show that the reference to the seventeenth amendment is to section 7 of the bill. There is no other reference to amendment seventeen."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 27, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3036, with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 6, after the enacting clause, insert a new section to read as follows:

"SECTION 1, Sec. 3, chapter 208, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 66.04.011 are each amended to read as follows:

"Public place" as defined in this title shall not include (a) Any of those parks under the control of the state parks and recreation commission, nor (b) parks and picnic areas adjacent to and held by the same ownership as licensed brewers and domestic wineries for the consumption of beer and wine produced by the respective brewery or winery, as prescribed by regulation adopted by the board pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW."

On page 2, strike lines 2 through 6 and insert:

"PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall prohibit a licensed brewer or domestic winery, or a lessee of a licensed brewer or domestic winery, from being licensed as a class H restaurant pursuant to chapter 66.24 RCW for the purpose of selling liquor at a class H premises on the property on which the primary manufacturing facility of the licensed brewer or domestic winery is located or on contiguous property owned by the licensed brewer or domestic winery as prescribed by regulations adopted by the board pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

On page 3, after section 2, add a new section as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 245, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.420 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The class H license shall be issued in accordance with the following schedule of annual fees:

(a) The annual fee for said license, if issued to a club, whether inside or outside of incorporated cities and towns, shall be three hundred thirty dollars.

(b) The annual fee for said license, if issued to any other class H licensee in incorporated cities and towns, shall be graduated according to the population thereof as follows:

Incorporated cities and towns of less than 10,000 population; fee $550.00;

Incorporated cities and towns of 10,000 and less than 100,000 population; fee $825.00;

Incorporated cities and towns of 100,000 population and over; fee $1,100.00.

(c) The annual fee for said license when issued to any other class H licensee outside of incorporated cities and towns shall be: one thousand one hundred dollars; this fee shall be prorated according to the calendar months, or major portion thereof, during which the licensee is open for business, except in case of suspension or revocation of the license.

(d) Where the license shall be issued to any corporation, association or person operating a bona fide restaurant in an airport terminal facility providing service to transient passengers with more than one place where liquor is to be dispensed and sold, such license shall be issued upon the payment of the annual fee, which shall be a master license and shall permit such sale within and from one such place. Such license may be extended to additional places on the premises at the discretion of the board and a duplicate license may be issued for each such additional place: PROVIDED, That the holder of a master license for a restaurant in an airport terminal facility shall be required to maintain in a substantial manner at least one place on the premises for preparing, cooking and serving of complete meals, and such food service shall be available on request in other licensed places on the premises: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That an additional license fee of twenty-five percent of the annual master license fee shall be required for such duplicate licenses.

(e) Where the license shall be issued to any corporation, association, or person operating dining places at publicly owned civic centers with facilities for sports, entertainment, and conventions, with more than one place where liquor is to be dispensed and sold, such license shall be issued upon the payment of the annual fee, which shall be a master license and shall permit such sale within and from one such place. Such license may be extended to additional places on the premises at the discretion of the board and a duplicate license may be issued for each such additional place: PROVIDED, That the holder of a master license for a dining place at such a publicly owned civic center shall be required to maintain in a substantial manner at least one place on the premises for preparing, cooking and serving of complete meals, and food service shall be available on request in other licensed places on the premises: PROVIDED FURTHER, That an additional license fee of ten dollars shall be required for such duplicate licenses.

(f) Where the license shall be issued to any corporation, association or person operating more than one building containing dining places at privately owned facilities which are open to the public and where there is a continuity of ownership of all adjacent property, such license shall be issued upon the payment of an annual fee which shall be a master license and shall permit such sale within and from one such place. Such license may be extended to the additional dining places on the property at the discretion of the board and a duplicate license may be issued for each additional place: PROVIDED, That the holder of the master license for the dining place shall not offer alcoholic beverages for sale, service, and consumption at the additional place unless food service is available at both the location of the master license and the duplicate license: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That an additional license fee of twenty dollars shall be required for such duplicate licenses.

(2) The board, so far as in its judgment is reasonably possible, shall confine class H licenses to the business districts of cities and towns and other communities, and not grant such licenses in residential districts, nor within the immediate vicinity of schools, without being limited in the administration of this subsection to any specific distance requirements.

(3) The board shall have discretion to issue class H licenses outside of cities and towns in the state of Washington. The purpose of this subsection is to enable the board, in its discretion, to license in areas outside of cities and towns and other communities, establishments which are operated and maintained primarily for the benefit of tourists, vacationers and travelers, and also golf and country clubs, and common carriers operating dining, club and buffet cars, or boats.

(4) The total number of class H licenses issued in the state of Washington by the board shall not in the aggregate at any time exceed one license for each fifteen hundred of population in the state, determined according to the last available federal census.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, the board shall refuse a class H license to any applicant if in the opinion of the board the class H licenses already granted for the particular locality are adequate for the reasonable needs of the community."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "control;" insert the following:

"amending section 3, chapter 208, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 66.04.011;"

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "66.28.010;" strike "and" and after "66.44-.310" on line 5, insert "; and amending section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 245, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.420", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

Mr. President: The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1133, and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the Senate refused to recede from the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 1133, and asks the House for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

President Pro Tempore Henry appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 1133, and the Senate amendments thereto: Senators Van Hollebeke, Morrison and Bausch.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

MOTION

At 1:22 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, May 31, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

EIGHTY-SECOND DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Tuesday, May 31, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m., by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bottiger, Day, Fleming, Herr, McDermott, Morrison, North, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Talley, Walgren and Woody. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Fleming, Herr, McDermott, Ridder and Woody were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Kelley Gage and Richard Jefferson, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul J. Beeman, pastor of First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"WITH ALL THE RAIN OVER THIS MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND, AND THE DISAPPOINTMENT SO MANY OF US FELT OVER THE FAIRLY STEADY DRIZZLE, I WANT THIS MORNING TO SHARE A LITTLE PRAYER BY THE AMERICAN POET, WILLIAM L. STIDGER, WHO LIKENS THE RAIN TO SOMETHING BEAUTIFUL. HIS POEM GOES LIKE THIS:

I SAW GOD WASH THE WORLD LAST NIGHT
WITH HIS SWEET SHOWERS ON HIGH;
AND THEN WHEN MORNING CAME
I SAW HIM HANG IT OUT TO DRY.

HE WASHED EACH SLENDER BLADE OF GRASS, AND EVERY TREMBLING TREE;
HE FLUNG HIS SHOWERS AGAINST THE HILLS,
AND SWEEPED THE ROLLING SEA.

THE WHITE ROSE WAS A DEEPER WHITE;
THE RED, A RICHER RED
SINCE GOD WASHED EVERY FRAGRANT FACE AND PUT THEM ALL TO BED.

THERE'S NOT A BIRD, THERE'S NOT A BEE
THAT WINGS ALONG THE WAY,
BUT 'TIS A CLEANER BIRD AND BEE
THAN IT WAS YESTERDAY.

I SAW GOD WASH THE WORLD LAST NIGHT;
AH, WOULD HE HAD WASHED ME
AS CLEAN OF ALL MY DUST AND DIRT
AS THAT OLD WHITE BIRCH TREE.

"LET US PRAY: OUR FATHER, THANK YOU FOR THE CLEAN START OF THIS NEW DAY. MAY THE ACTIONS OF THIS DAY BE, FOR EACH OF US, HIGHLY PRODUCTIVE, JUST AND LOVING. IN THE MASTER'S NAME. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 28, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2512, with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 5, after "Section 1." strike the remainder of the bill and insert "There is added to chapter 43.82 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Before the director of the department of general administration shall purchase, lease, or rent any real estate, improved or unimproved, for any offices, warehouses or similar purposes as may be required within a defined geographic area by any state official, department, commission, institution or other state agency, the director shall request that, within thirty days, the state conservator identify in writing any existing buildings or structures within such geographic area that are designated or eligible for designation on the state or national registers of historic places as historic, architectural, or cultural landmarks and that would be suitable, whether or not in need of repair or alteration, for use therefor. The director shall give preference to the purchase, lease, or rent of such historic, architectural, or cultural landmarks, or portion thereof, which meet the specifications needed for the particular state purpose unless use of such space would not be feasible and prudent compared with available alternatives. Whenever the director shall purchase, lease, or rent a building or structure, or portion thereof, other than buildings or structures identified by the conservator as historic, architectural, or cultural landmarks suitable for state use, the director shall notify the conservator in writing of the economic and other justifications for not purchasing, leasing, or renting such buildings or structures or portions thereof. Nothing in this section shall preclude the director from purchasing, leasing, or renting any improved or unimproved real estate which the director deems suitable for state use. "State conservator" for the purposes of this section is the state official or agency responsible for the historic preservation program of the state of Washington."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "RCW" strike all the material down through "section" on line 3, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2512.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2512, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 11; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson, Sandison, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—31.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bottiger, Day, Francis, Keefe, Morrison, North, Rasmussen, Scott, Talley, Walgren, Wanamaker—11.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Herr, McDermott, Ridder, Woody—5.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2512, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Jones, Senators North and Scott were excused.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2232.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2232, by Senators Mardesich, von Reichbauer, Grant, Murray, Herr, Matson, Day, Odegaard, Fleming and Hayner:

Providing for educational clinics and authorizing state aid for students enrolled therein.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2232 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2232, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2232 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question, please? Senator Mardesich, section 2 on page 2 reads that only eligible common school dropouts shall be entitled to enter. Then it further states that no person shall be considered a common school dropout if they have completed high school past their eighteenth birthday, and or until three months after they have dropped out, but it says, 'unless such clinic has been requested to admit such person by written communication of board of directors or the superintendent of that common school,' and then further, 'unless someone is unable to attend a particular common school because of disciplinary reasons,' and so forth. I am not so sure I am against this, but I want to find out really what the bill does and how far the door is open.

"That seems to say that if the school district directors or superintendent requests, anybody could be admitted to the school. Is that the way you read it?"

Senator Mardesich: "Well, except that could be interpreted that way except that I wouldn't see any reason why the school district would be asking for a person's admission to this type of a school if he didn't fit the classification of one who would ordinarily be attending school, high school, or junior high school."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2232, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Francis, Goltz, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Odégaard, Peterson, Pullen, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—34.

Voting nay: Senators Gould, Newschwander, Rasmussen, Walgren—4.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bottiger, Day, Gaspard—3.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Herr, McDermott, North, Ridder, Scott, Woody—7.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2232, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 113.

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Pullen was excused.

On motion of Senator Marsh, Senators Bottiger and Day were excused.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 113, by Representatives Warnke, King, Paris, Valle, Greengo and Gaines:

Authorizing the establishment of foreign trade zones.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 113 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 113, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; excused, 10.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—38.

Excused: Senators Bottiger, Day, Fleming, Herr, McDermott, North, Pullen, Ridder, Scott, Woody—10.

HOUSE BILL NO. 113, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of the House Message on Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2418.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 19, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed REENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2418, with the following amendment:

On page 2, immediately following line 8, strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following new language:

"(1) All law enforcement personnel, except volunteers, and reserve officers whether paid or unpaid, initially employed on or after January 1, 1978, shall engage in basic law enforcement training which complies with standards adopted by the Commission pursuant to RCW 43.101.080 and 43.101.160. Such training shall be successfully completed during the first fifteen (15) months of employment of such personnel unless otherwise extended or waived by the Commission and shall be requisite to the continuation of such employment.

(2) The Commission shall provide the aforementioned training together with necessary facilities, supplies, materials, and the board and room of non-commuting attendees for seven days per week. Additionally, the Commission shall reimburse to participating law enforcement agencies with ten or less full-time commissioned patrol officers, the cost of temporary replacement of each officer who is enrolled in basic law enforcement training: PROVIDED; That such reimbursement shall include only the actual cost of temporary replacement not to exceed the total amount of salary and benefits received by the replaced officer during his training period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.101 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Costs of criminal justice training shall be borne in part by those who necessitate the establishment and maintenance of the criminal justice system.

(2) In each instance of bail forfeiture attendant to any violation of a law of this state or an ordinance of a city or county except an ordinance relating to vehicles unlawfully left or parked, an assessment which shall be in addition to such bail forfeited shall be collected and forwarded within thirty days of receipt of such assessment by the clerk of the court, or the county treasurer, to the state treasurer to be deposited in an account within the state general fund to be known as the criminal justice training account, hereby created, funds from which shall be appropriated by law to the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission as established by chapter 43.101 RCW. The amount of the assessment shall be as follows:

(a) When forfeiture is ten dollars to nineteen dollars and ninety-nine cents, three dollars;

(b) When forfeiture is twenty dollars to thirty-nine dollars and ninety-nine cents, five dollars;

(c) When forfeiture is forty dollars to fifty-nine dollars and ninety-nine cents, seven dollars;

(d) When forfeiture is sixty dollars to ninety-nine dollars and ninety-nine cents, twelve dollars; and

(e) When forfeiture is one hundred dollars or more, fifteen dollars.

(3) When any deposit of bail is made for a violation to which this section applies, the person making such deposit shall also deposit a sufficient amount to include the assessment prescribed in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) When bail is forfeited, the assessment prescribed in this section shall be forwarded to the state treasurer pursuant to this section. If bail is returned, the assessment made thereon shall also be returned.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

"(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section the court shall grant a petition by a personal representative to reject a claim in whole or in part at any time prior to the termination of probate proceedings, but only after notice and hearing, and only upon a finding that to deny such petition would effectuate a manifest injustice."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "probate;" strike all material down to and including "11.12.050;" on line 2, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2215, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 23, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2419, with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 93, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 9.73.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, it shall be unlawful for any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or the state of Washington, its agencies, and political subdivisions to intercept, ~~((record or divulge))~~ or record any:

~~((+))~~ (a) Private communication transmitted by telephone, telegraph, radio, or other device between two or more individuals between points within or without the state by any device electronic or otherwise designed to record and/or transmit said communication regardless how such device is powered or actuated, without first obtaining the consent of all the participants in the communication;

~~((2))~~ (b) Private conversation, by any device electronic or otherwise designed to record or transmit such conversation regardless how the device is powered or actuated without first obtaining the consent of all the persons engaged in the conversation.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, wire communications or conversations (a) of an emergency nature, such as the reporting of a fire, crime, or other disaster, or (b) which convey threats of extortion, blackmail, bodily harm, or other unlawful requests or demands, or (c) which use primarily lewd, lascivious, profane, indecent, or obscene words or language, or (d) which occur anonymously or repeatedly or at an extremely inconvenient hour, whether or not conversation ensues without the purpose of legitimate conversation, may be recorded with the consent of one party to the conversation.

(3) Consent shall be considered obtained whenever one party has announced to all other parties engaged in the communication or conversation, in any reasonably effective manner, that such communication or conversation is about to be recorded or transmitted: PROVIDED, That if the conversation is to be recorded that said announcement shall also be recorded.

(4) An employee of any regularly published newspaper, magazine, wire service, radio station, or television station acting in the course of bona fide news gathering duties on a full time or contractual or part time basis, shall be deemed to have consent to record and divulge communications or conversations otherwise prohibited by this chapter if the consent is expressly given or if the recording or transmitting device is readily apparent or obvious to the speakers. Withdrawal of the consent after the communication has been made shall not prohibit any such employee of a newspaper, magazine, wire service, radio or television station from divulging the communication or conversation.

Sec. 2. Chapter 93 Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 9.73.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who, directly or by means of a detective agency or any other agent, violates the provisions of ~~((RCW 9.73.030))~~ this chapter shall be subject to legal action for damages, to be brought by any other person claiming that a violation of this statute has injured his business, his person, or his reputation. A person so injured shall be entitled ~~((in addition to other injuries,))~~ to recover for (1) actual damages, (2) mental pain and suffering endured by him on account of violation of the provisions of this chapter ~~((RCW 9.73.030.))~~ or (3) to liquidated damages computed at the rate of $100.00 a day for each day of violation, or $1,000, whichever is higher, and to a reasonable attorney's fee and other costs of litigation.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 48, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 9.73.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The provisions of RCW 9.73.030 through 9.73.080 shall not apply to police and fire personnel in the following instances:

~~((+))~~ (a) Recording incoming telephone calls to police and fire stations ~~((for the purpose and only for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of reception of emergency calls));~~

~~((2))~~ (b) Video and/or sound recordings may be made of arrested persons by police officers responsible for making arrests or holding persons in custody before their first appearance in court. Such video and/or sound recordings shall conform strictly to the following:

~~((a))~~ (i) The arrested person shall be informed that such recording is being made and the statement so informing him shall be included in the recording~~((:));~~

~~((b))~~ (ii) The recording shall commence with an indication of the time of the beginning thereof and terminate with an indication of the time thereof~~((:));~~

~~((c))~~ (iii) At the commencement of the recording the arrested person shall be fully informed of his constitutional rights, and such statements informing him shall be included in the recording(,);

~~((d))~~ (iv) The recordings shall only be used for valid police or court activities.

(2) It shall not be unlawful for a law enforcement officer acting in the performance of the officer's official duties to intercept, record, or disclose an oral communication or conversation where the officer is a party to the communication or conversation or one of the parties to the communication or conversation has given prior consent to the interception, recording, or disclosure: PROVIDED, That prior to the interception, transmission, or recording the officer shall obtain written or telephonic authorization from a judge or magistrate, who shall approve the interception, recording, or disclosure of communications or conversations with a nonconsenting party for a reasonable and specified period of time, if there is probable cause to believe that the nonconsenting party has committed, is engaged in, or is about to commit a felony: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That if such authorization is given by telephone the authorization and officer's statement justifying such authorization must be electronically recorded by the judge or magistrate on a recording device in the custody of the judge or magistrate at the time transmitted and the recording shall be retained in the court records and reduced to writing as soon as possible thereafter.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, when a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the nonconsenting party has committed, is about to commit, or is engaged in controlled substance trafficking or buying, selling, or possessing stolen property and one of the parties to the communication or conversation has given prior consent to the interception, recording or disclosure then the officer may intercept, record, or disclose such communications or conversations when they occur within a defined location and determined period of time, if authorization is obtained in writing or by telephone by the county prosecuting attorney or deputy prosecuting attorney: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That if authorization is by telephone the authorization and statement of the officer justifying such authorization shall be recorded by the prosecuting attorney or deputy prosecuting attorney on a recording device in the custody of the prosecuting attorney or deputy prosecuting attorney at the time transmitted and the recording shall be retained and reduced to writing as soon as possible thereafter.

Any recording or interception of a communication or conversation incident to a lawfully recorded or intercepted communication or conversation pursuant to subsections 2 and 3 of section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be lawful and may be divulged.

All recordings of communications or conversations made pursuant to this subsection shall be retained by the prosecuting attorney for as long as any crime may be charged based on the events or communications or conversations recorded.

Recordings of communications or conversations made pursuant to this subsection shall only be admissible in trials arising from indictments or informations for violations of chapter 69.50 RCW and RCW 9A.56.140 through 9A.56.170.

(4) Communications or conversations authorized to be intercepted, recorded, or disclosed by this section shall not be inadmissible under RCW 9.73.050.

(5) Authorizations issued under this section shall be effective for seven days, after which period the issuing authority may upon application of the officer who secured the original authorization renew or continue the authorization for an additional period not to exceed seven days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 9.73 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the facilities from which a communication is to be intercepted are public, no order shall be issued unless the court determines that there is a special need to intercept communications over such facilities.

If the facilities from which, or the place where, the wire or oral communications are to be intercepted are being used, or are about to be used, or are leased to, listed in the name of, or commonly used by a licensed physician, licensed practicing psychologist, a newsreporter, an attorney-at-law, or practicing clergyman, or is a place used primarily for habitation by a husband and wife, no order shall be issued unless the issuing authority, in addition to the matters provided in section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, determines that there is a special need to record wire or oral communications over such facilities or in such places. "Special need" as used in this section shall require, in addition to other matters required in applications for authorizations required by this chapter, a showing that there is probable cause to believe that the licensed physician, licensed practicing psychologist, a newsreporter, an attorney-at-law, or practicing clergyman is personally engaging in or was engaged in over a period of time as a part of a continuing criminal activity or is committing, has committed or is about to commit a violation of chapter 69.50 or RCW 9A.56.140 through 9A.56.170, or that the public facilities are being regularly used by someone who is committing, has committed, or is about to commit such an offense. No otherwise privileged wire or oral communication intercepted in accordance with or in violation of, the provisions of this act, shall lose its privileged character.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 9.73 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It shall not be unlawful for the owner or person entitled to use and possession of a building, as defined in RCW 9A.04.110(5), or the agent of such person, to intercept, record, or disclose communications or conversations which occur within such building if the persons engaged in such communication or conversation are engaged in a criminal act at the time of such communication or conversation by virtue of unlawful entry or remaining unlawfully in such building.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 9.73 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Within 30 days after the expiration of an authorization or an extension or renewal thereof issued pursuant to subsection (2) of section 1 (RCW 9.73.090(2)) of this act, the issuing or denying judge shall make a report to the administrator for the courts stating that:

- (a) An authorization, extension or renewal was applied for;
- (b) The kind of authorization applied for;
- (c) The authorization was granted as applied for, was modified, or was denied;
- (d) The period of recording authorized by the authorization and the number and duration of any extensions or renewals of the authorization;
- (e) The offense specified in the authorization or extension or renewal of authorization;
- (f) The identity of the person authorizing the application and of the investigative or law enforcement officer and agency for whom it was made; and
- (g) The character of the facilities from which or the place where the communications were to be recorded.

(2) In addition to reports required to be made by applicants pursuant to federal law, all judges of the superior court authorized to issue authority pursuant to this act shall make annual reports on the operation of this act to the administrator for the courts. The reports by the judges shall contain (a) the number of applications made; (b) the number of authorizations issued; (c) the respective periods of such authorizations; (d) the number and duration of any renewals thereof; (e) the crimes in connection with which the conversations were sought; (f) the names of the applicants; and (g) such other and further particulars as the administrator for the courts may require.

The chief justice of the supreme court shall annually report to the governor and the legislature on such aspects of the operation of this act as he deems appropriate including any recommendations he may care to make as to legislative changes or improvements to effectuate the purposes of this act and to assure and protect individual rights.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Each application for an authorization to record communications or conversations pursuant to section 1 (RCW 9.73.090) of this act shall be made in writing upon oath or affirmation and shall state:

- (1) The authority of the applicant to make such application;
- (2) The identity and qualifications of the investigative or law enforcement officers or agency for whom the authority to record a communication or conversation is sought and the identity of whoever authorized the application;
- (3) A particular statement of the facts relied upon by the applicant to justify his belief that an authorization should be issued, including:
 - (a) The identity of the particular person, if known, committing the offense and whose communications or conversations are to be recorded;
 - (b) The details as to the particular offense that has been, is being, or is about to be committed;
 - (c) The particular type of communication or conversation to be recorded and a showing that there is probable cause to believe such communication will be communicated on the wire communication facility involved or at the particular place where the oral communication is to be recorded;
 - (d) The character and location of the particular wire communication facilities involved or the particular place where the oral communication is to be recorded;
 - (e) A statement of the period of time for which the recording is required to be maintained, if the character of the investigation is such that the authorization for recording should not automatically terminate when the described type of communication or conversation has been first obtained, a particular statement of facts establishing probable cause to believe that additional communications of the same type will occur thereafter;
 - (f) A particular statement of facts showing that other normal investigative procedures with respect to the offense have been tried and have failed or reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed if tried or to be too dangerous to employ.

(4) Where the application is for the renewal or extension of an authorization, a particular statement of facts showing the results thus far obtained from the recording, or a reasonable explanation of the failure to obtain such results;

(5) A complete statement of the facts concerning all previous applications, known to the individual authorizing and to the individual making the application, made to any court or prosecuting attorney for authorization to record a wire or oral communication involving any of the same facilities or places specified in the application or involving any person whose communication is to be intercepted, and the action taken by the court on each application; and

(6) Such additional testimony or documentary evidence in support of the application as the judge may require.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Within a reasonable time but not later than thirty days after the termination of the period of the authorization or of extensions or renewals thereof, or the date of the denial of an authorization applied for under section 1 (RCW 9.73.090) of this act, the issuing authority shall cause to be served on the person named in the authorization or application for an authorization, and such other parties to the recorded communications as the judge may in his discretion determine to be in the interest of justice, an inventory which shall include:

- (1) Notice of the entry of the authorization or the application for an authorization which has been denied under section 1 (RCW 9.73.090) of this act;
- (2) The date of the entry of the authorization or the denial of an authorization applied for under section 1 (RCW 9.73.090) of this act;
- (3) The period of authorized or disapproved recording; and
- (4) The fact that during the period wire or oral communications were or were not recorded.

The issuing authority, upon the filing of a motion, may in its discretion make available to such person or his attorney for inspection such portions of the recorded communications, applications and orders as the court determines to be in the interest of justice. On an ex parte showing of good cause to the court the serving of the inventory required by this section may be postponed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 9.73 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to reports and records otherwise required by law, the prosecuting attorney for each county shall maintain records of all recordings authorized by them pursuant to section 1(3) of this 1977 amendatory act (RCW 9.73.090(3)). Such records shall include the name of the person requesting and the reasons for the request and the informations, indictments, or other results of any authorized recording. Copies of such records shall be filed annually with the attorney general, who shall then report annually to the legislature on this phase of the operation of chapter 9.73 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The provisions of this act shall expire on June 20, 1979 unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time."

In line 1 of the title, after "privacy;" strike "and"

In line 2 of the title, after "9.73.030" insert "; amending section 1, chapter 48, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 9.73.090; adding a new section to chapter 9.73 RCW; amending chapter 93, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 9.73.060; and prescribing an expiration date.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Francis moved the Senate refuse to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 2419, and asks the House for a conference thereon.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, from your remarks, the only problems that you pointed out are perhaps some internal cross references. You indicated there were substantive changes, but you didn't elaborate as to what those changes were, or why we should not concur in them. I would like a little further explanation before I vote not to concur."

Senator Francis: "All right, Senator Grant. I am sure that Senator Clarke will also have something to add to this. I am not suggesting that we don't want to concur with any of the changes they made. I think some of the changes, frankly, improve the bill, and by saying that, I think they have a little more control over the use that law enforcement makes of these one party consents and so forth. They introduce a warrant procedure into there and so forth.

"I was tempted to just go along with it myself and say all right, but the fact is that it is technically just not in shape to do it. Rather than asking them to recede from the amendments, I would rather try to keep some of what they have done, if not most of what they have done, but to put it together well technically."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Francis carried. The Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 2419, and asks the House for a conference thereon.

MOTION

At 10:45 a.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate recessed until 12:06 p.m.

NOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 12:06 p.m.

MOTION

At 12:06 p.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate recessed until 1:15 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:15 p.m.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 3080.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3080, by Senator Bottiger (by Washington State Energy Office request):

Creating an energy advisory council and revising other energy related laws.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3080 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3080, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3080 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3080, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Talley, Van Hollebecke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—42.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bausch, Benitz, Grant, Morrison, Sellar—5.

Excused: Senator Pullen—1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3080, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 3015.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3015, by Senators Talley, Goltz, Peterson, Murray and Rasmussen:

Providing for a liquefied natural gas hazards management study.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 19, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 3015, providing for a liquefied natural gas hazards management study (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments by Committee on Energy and Utilities:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds and declares that the safe and prompt delivery of energy producing fuels is of paramount importance to the economy of the state. Recognizing the complex problems to be solved and the hazards to be averted as well as the potential for the substantial benefits to be achieved makes apparent the need for a study to determine the safety and jurisdictional problems of typical liquefied natural gas ports, liquefied petroleum gas ports, and liquefied natural gas regasification sites on the waters of the state of Washington. It is, therefore, the declared policy and intent of this legislation to fund an initial study of the matter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The oceanographic commission shall conduct a liquefied natural gas and liquefied petroleum gas hazards management study to determine:

(a) The nature of typical transport and port facilities used to receive marine shipments of liquefied natural gas and liquefied petroleum gas and facilities for subsequent regasification of liquefied natural gas;

(b) Representative sites for liquefied natural gas and liquefied petroleum gas port facilities based upon the size of vessels and harbor facilities and in terms of safely dealing with the hazardous properties of liquefied natural gas and liquefied petroleum gas;

(c) The hazardous properties of liquefied natural gas and liquefied petroleum gas and subsequent safeguards which the state may require in liquefied natural gas and liquefied petroleum gas port facilities;

(d) The responsibilities of federal, state, and local governments in siting and operating liquefied natural gas liquefied petroleum gas port facilities and liquefied natural gas regasification facilities;

(e) Whether at the representative locations for the facility the state and local governments have the resources to effectively manage the hazards by such means as fire protection and security; and

(f) Any other areas of importance which the oceanographic commission feels would have an impact on a liquefied natural gas or a liquefied petroleum gas port facility or a liquefied natural gas regasification facility.

(2) After conducting a search for studies, reports, or other literature relating to liquefied natural gas and liquefied petroleum gas hazards management, the commission shall submit a report to the house and senate energy and utilities committees concerning the material available and the reasons for the commission's decision whether or not to proceed with the remainder of the study.

(3) The findings of this study shall be reported to the legislature by the second Monday in January, 1979.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is appropriated to the oceanographic commission of Washington from the general fund the sum of seventy-six thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Grant, Marsh, Morrison, Murray, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, I believe that the oceanographic commission made a study about the pipeline across Puget Sound from Port Angeles over to Cherry Point. Could you tell us the results of that study?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I don't believe they made any such study. They made a study of a crossing of Admiralty Inlet."

Senator Guess: "Right."

Senator Bottiger: "They determined that it was feasible, but did not go into the cost or the mechanical complication. They found that it was feasible to do it, but that is all, to my knowledge, they studied about any pipeline across the Sound."

Senator Guess: "Senator Bottiger, they said that it was feasible in the face of the fact that it was going to go down on the bed of the Sound in a very fast water area where it is now scoured bare, he was going to put oil—it has a pour point of about ninety degrees—into a thirty-four or thirty-five degree environment which makes the oil totally solid, and yet they said it was feasible. Does anything that they have done so far give you any encouragement that they have got the expertise to make a decent study?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, they did a study on—and I am sorry, I can't remember the exact name of the place, in Alaska which received national acclaim as to its ability. I think you are concentrating on one small portion of the Admiralty Bay study, and I don't believe they got down to the pour point of oil."

Senator Guess: "Senator Bottiger, the hearing that we had at the Seattle Center they did talk about the pour point of oil, and they defended themselves by saying that you could actually insulate or they could wrap heating coils around the pipe. That is the stupidest thing I have ever heard of in my life. After that study and after that hearing I came away from there completely disenchanted with the ability, the expertise, the intelligence, the lack of engineering ability on the part of the oceanographic commission, and here we are going to give them seventy-six thousand dollars. I don't think that the Senate is well advised to give the oceanographic commission a dime."

Senator Bottiger: "Perhaps, Senator Talley or Senator Murray are better able to defend past actions. The industry and local government both supported this bill to identify the hazards of these two kinds of gases."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "Mr. President, in answer to Senator Guess, Sam, I usually agree with you, but I think you are completely wrong on your statements, and I think you owe the oceanographic commission an apology. We studied that thing, and you know what that thick oil is? That is the oil that comes out of Indonesia that is almost as thick as vaseline. I don't care where you put it, you are going to have trouble with it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Isn't the pour point of the oil coming out of Alaska less than ninety?"

Senator Talley: "The what?"

Senator Guess: "The pour point of the oil, the crude, coming out of Alaska less than ninety degrees?"

Senator Talley: "Sam, I don't know. You have become an oil expert for the Senate. Maybe you can tell me."

Senator Guess: "I was at the hearing where it was stated, and you were there too, Senator."

Senator Talley: "That is right."

Senator Guess: "And the testimony was that it would become a congealed solid when it got into an environment on the bottom of the Sound with thirty-five or thirty-six degrees of temperature down there, and the only way they could keep the thing flowing was to either plug it and run a plumber's friend through there to keep the oil going or they would have to put a heating coil on it. Now, when they said it was feasible, they should have taken into consideration every facet of the thing, and since they said it was not—I mean they said it was feasible, and it totally wasn't possible for oil to flow at that degree of temperature on the bottom of the Sound, I think that they have lost all credibility as far as I am concerned, and I want to tell it here on the floor like it was, Senator. They don't have the expertise to make another study for us."

Senator Talley: "Do you think anybody in our state has the credibility to do it, then?"

Senator Guess: "Senator, the pipes should not have ever been studied to go across Admiralty Bay or Admiralty Inlet."

"In the first place, when you put a pipe—"

Senator Talley: "Now you are getting into something that is clear off the subject. You say it should never have been in the first place."

Senator Guess: "That's right."

Senator Talley: "I mean, it was hard to do and they did their best with it."

Senator Guess: "Well, we gave them the thing, and I tried to fight it at the time and yet, we went ahead and rammed through a study for them."

Senator Talley: "I don't think we rammed through anything."

Senator Guess: "This body did. They voted it over my protests. I protested then, and I am going to protest more vehemently today over a bill to give them seventy-six thousand dollars to waste, and that is what I want to get the body of this Senate alerted to."

REMARKS BY SENATORS BOTTIGER AND GUESS

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, Senator Guess, I don't mean to contradict you, but the pour point of the oil from Indonesia, the very heavy oil, which one of our refineries uses, is ninety-eight degrees. The pour point of the oil from Alaska is about forty. We have a pipeline going across Alaska, Senator, from the Arctic Circle down that is apparently working all right, and I suggest that is a little bit colder than the bottom of the Sound. I think your figures are wrong, Sam, on Alaskan oil."

Senator Guess: "Senator, the oil comes out of the ground at North Slope. I was there, I have been at the Discovery well and the Confirmation well both. The temperature is a hundred and sixty degrees, and they heat it. Every time it goes down in temperature, they have the capability of heating it to bring it back up, besides the fact that when they put it under eight hundred pounds of pressure, moving through the pipeline it picks up the skin friction, and the skin friction heats the oil. So, the oil will not come out of the pipeline colder than when it went in."

"Yes, this is true. There was some of the oil from Indonesia that did have a different pour point. The Alaska still will congeal at the temperatures you find on the bottom of the Sound, and they said it was feasible."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President and Senator Guess, I think you are probably right. That was one of the questions that was raised at the hearing, that if for any reason at all, a break some place in the pipeline would congeal and they would build a new pipeline."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, in answer to Senator Rasmussen, we have standing committees of the Senate of the state of Washington. They hold hearings, and I don't see why we have got to pay the oceanographic commission seventy-six thousand dollars to hold hearings that the committee can hold for the normal salary and the per diem that we have. I think that you are going to get an answer you are not going to like, and frankly, I haven't seen anything that we have used that they have produced yet. They had four hundred thousand dollars out of the '73 session, and what did they produce then? I think this is a waste of money."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, the pipeline, actually whether the gas comes down from All America, as it is called, down through Alaska, do we have anything to do with that? Does the state of Washington have anything to do with whether or not the federal power commission gives the franchise or gives the right for the gas to come from the north shore, the north slope, down to Valdez?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, Senator, we don't, but we also have applications at Cottonwood Island on the Columbia River and at Ferndale to handle liquid natural gas from other sources."

Senator Guess: "All right. If the federal power commission says that the line is going down through Canada, will then we have to have this study?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, we don't have to have the study. The problem that you run into is whether, and I have got here before me a copy of the Daily News, Longview, Washington, indicates an interest by people to bring liquefied natural gas from Indonesia. When we go into these hearings, what are the hazards? What kind of fire fighting equipment should the county have? What should be the location? What kind of SO₂ water pollutants or discharge from the air from some source that isn't interested in the application? Now that is what we are asking them to do, to identify the hazards, identify the problems, come up as you read the bill, come up with some examples of what ought to be looked at."

"It isn't just Alaskan natural gas, it is other sources around the world."

Senator Guess: "But what happens, and if the gas goes down through Canada and picks up the Mackenzie Delta area, then do you think that the feasibility is there that enough gas will be coming in by tanker to create the demand for a port in the state of Washington?"

Senator Bottiger: "We have one application one expression of interest for Cottonwood Island on the Columbia, and one ship has already come in, from its source I don't know, to Ferndale, and that is the Dewey Soriano ship, so there is already traffic in this area at this time."

Senator Guess: "How did they unload it, the ship that came in at Ferndale?"

Senator Bottiger: "I am not sure I know."

Senator Guess: "Well, aren't we projecting ourselves out ahead and appropriating money here prior to the real need for it?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, we are so far behind now, you can't believe it. If we could have settled what we are going to do of transshipment of oil two years ago instead of maybe this year, maybe next year, we would be much better off. Why do we always wait until we are too late before we start?"

Senator Guess: "Oil is one thing and gas is another, Senator."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "I assure Senator Guess this application on the Columbia River is very sound. Dedicated people are behind it, and I don't think that we should put all our eggs in one basket and trust Canada again. They cut us off once before. We had better have some alternate sources. We ought to know where we are going."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3015 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3015, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—45.

Voting nay: Senators Guess, Sandison—2.

Excused: Senator Pullen—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3015, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill No. 371.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED THIRD SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 371, by Committee on Institutions (originally sponsored by Representatives Becker, Hanna, Deccio, Knowles, Fischer, Salatino, Nelson (Dick) and Maxie):

Revising the juvenile justice and care system.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 6, 1977.

ENGROSSED THIRD SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 371, revising the juvenile justice and care system (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, beginning on line 13 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART A

NEW SECTION. Section 1. This chapter shall be known as the "basic juvenile court act".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Juvenile", "youth", and "child" shall mean any individual who is under the chronological age of eighteen years;

(2) "Juvenile offender" and "juvenile offense" shall have the meaning ascribed in sections 51 through 73 of this 1977 amendatory act; and

(3) "Court" when used without further qualification shall mean the juvenile court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The juvenile court shall be a division of the superior court. In judicial districts having more than one judge of the superior court, the judges of such court shall annually, in the month of January, assign one or more of their number to the juvenile court division. In any judicial district having a court commissioner, the court commissioner shall have the power, authority, and jurisdiction, concurrent with a juvenile court judge, to hear all cases under this chapter and to enter judgment and make orders with the same power, force, and effect as any judge of the juvenile court, subject to motion or demand by any party within ten days from the entry of the order or judgment by the court commissioner as provided in RCW 2.24.050.

(2) Cases in the juvenile court shall be tried without a jury.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 1, chapter 65, Laws of 1937 and RCW 13.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((superior))~~ juvenile courts in the several counties of this state, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction ~~((in all cases coming within the terms of this chapter))~~ over all proceedings:

(1) Under the interstate compact on placement of children as provided in chapter 26.34 RCW;

(2) Relating to children alleged or found to be dependent as provided in chapter 26.44 RCW and in sections 30 through 43 of this 1977 amendatory act;

(3) Relating to the termination of a parent and child relationship as provided in sections 44 through 47 of this 1977 amendatory act;

(4) To approve or disapprove alternative residential placement as provided in sections 24 through 27 of this 1977 amendatory act;

(5) Relating to children alleged to be or found to be in need of involuntary civil commitment as provided in chapter 72.23 RCW;

(6) Relating to youth alleged or found to be a juvenile offender as provided in sections 52 through 73 of this 1977 amendatory act, unless:

(a) The juvenile court transfers jurisdiction to adult criminal court; or

(b) The period of limitations of actions applicable to adult prosecution for the offense alleged in the petition has expired; or

(c) The alleged offense involves a nonfelony violation of the traffic laws by juveniles over fifteen years of age; and

(7) Under the interstate compact on juveniles as provided in chapter 13.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Any person aggrieved by a final order of the juvenile court may appeal said order as provided by this section. All appeals in matters other than those related to commission of a juvenile offense shall be taken in the same manner as in other civil cases. Except as otherwise provided in this title, all appeals in matters related to the commission of a juvenile offense shall be taken in the same manner as criminal cases and the right to collateral relief shall be the same as in criminal cases. The order of the juvenile court shall stand pending the disposition of the appeal: PROVIDED, That the juvenile court or the appellate court may upon application stay said order.

If the final order from which an appeal is taken grants the custody of the child to, or withholds it from, any of the parties, or if the child is committed as provided under this chapter, the appeal shall be given priority in hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Juvenile court, probation counselor, and detention services shall be administered by the superior court, except that by local court rule and agreement with the legislative authority of the county they may be administered by the legislative authority of the county in the manner prescribed by RCW 13.20-.060: PROVIDED, That in any class AA county such services shall be administered in accordance with chapter 13.20 RCW. The administrative body shall appoint an administrator of juvenile court, probation counselor, and detention services who shall be responsible for day-to-day administration of such services, and who may also serve in the capacity of a probation counselor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The administrator shall after consultation with the state planning agency established under Title II of the federal juvenile justice and delinquency prevention act of 1974 (P.L. No. 93-415; 42 U.S.C. 5611 et seq.) following a public hearing, and after approval of the body responsible for administering the juvenile court, and no later than one hundred eighty days after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, adopt standards for the regulation and government of detention facilities for juveniles. Such standards may be revised from time to time, according to the procedure outlined in this section. Each detention facility shall keep a copy of such standards available for inspection at all times. Such standards shall be reviewed and the detention facilities shall be inspected annually by the administrator.

Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 9, chapter 331, Laws of 1959 and RCW 13.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((court))~~ administrator shall, in any county or judicial district in the state, appoint or designate one or more persons of good character to serve as probation counselors during the pleasure of the ~~((court))~~ administrator. ~~((In case a probation counselor shall be appointed by any court, the clerk of the court, if practicable, shall notify him in advance when a child is to be brought before said court.))~~ The probation counselor shall ~~((make such investigations as may be required by the court. The probation counselor shall inquire into the antecedents, character, family history, environments and cause of dependency or delinquency of every alleged dependent or delinquent child brought before the juvenile court and shall make his report in writing to the judge thereof. He shall be present in order to represent the interests of the child when the case is heard; he shall furnish the court such information and assistance as it may require, and shall take charge of the child before and after the trial as may be directed by the court))~~:

(1) Receive and examine referrals to the juvenile court for the purpose of considering the filing of a petition pursuant to sections 24, 31, 44, and 57 of this 1977 amendatory act;

(2) Make recommendations to the court regarding the need for continued detention or shelter care of a child unless otherwise provided in this title;

(3) Arrange and supervise diversion agreements as provided in section 58 of this 1977 amendatory act and ensure that the requirements of such agreements are met except as otherwise provided in this title;

(4) Prepare predisposition studies as required in section 39 of this 1977 amendatory act and be present at the disposition hearing to respond to questions regarding the predisposition study: PROVIDED, That such duties shall be performed by the department of social and health services for cases relating to dependency or to the termination of a parent and child relationship in any class A or AA county; and

(5) Supervise court orders of disposition to ensure that all requirements of the order are met.

All probation counselors shall possess all the powers conferred upon sheriffs and police officers to serve process and make arrests of juveniles under their supervision for the violation of any state law or county or city ordinance(~~(, relative to the care, custody, and control of delinquent and dependent children)~~).

The (~~court~~) administrator may, in any county or judicial district in the state, appoint one or more persons who shall have charge of detention rooms or house of detention.

The probation counselors and persons appointed to have charge of detention facilities shall each receive compensation which shall be fixed by the board of county commissioners, or (~~fm~~) in cases of joint counties, judicial districts of more than one county, or joint judicial districts such sums as shall be agreed upon by the boards of county commissioners of the counties affected, and such persons shall be paid as other county officers are paid.

The administrator is hereby authorized, and to the extent possible is encouraged to, contract with private agencies existing within the community for the provision of services to youthful offenders and youth who have entered into diversion agreements pursuant to section 58 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's deputy to present the evidence supporting any petition where the facts are contested, except in petitions to approve or disapprove alternative residential placement: PROVIDED, That it shall be the duty of the attorney general or the attorney general's assistant to present the evidence supporting any petition alleging dependency, or any petition seeking the termination of a parent and child relationship, which is filed in a class A or AA county, where the facts are contested: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the responsibility of the prosecuting attorney for proceedings relating to the commission of a juvenile offense shall be as provided in sections 57 and 59 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The following records shall be confidential and shall be released only pursuant to this chapter:

(a) The official juvenile court file: PROVIDED, That the official juvenile court file shall be open to public inspection in cases involving the commission of a juvenile offense;

(b) The social file;

(c) The records of public agencies, private agencies, or persons with respect to children committed to their custody; and

(d) All records pertaining to juveniles produced or retained by any juvenile justice or care agency which shall include the following: Police, diversion units, court, prosecuting attorney, defense attorney, detention center, or the department of social and health services and its contracting agencies.

(2) The official juvenile court file for a proceeding shall include the petition or information, motions, memorandums, briefs, findings of the court, court orders, and other reports and papers filed in juvenile court.

(3) The social file is the records and reports of the probation counselor and shall be filed separate from the official juvenile court file.

(4) Each petition or information filed with the court shall include only one child and each petition or information shall be filed under a separate docket number.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Where a specific provision of this chapter controls the use of information, then that specific provision governs; and in all other cases release and use of information will be governed by the provisions set forth in this section and section 12 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) It shall be the duty of any juvenile justice or care agency providing information to insure the accuracy of that information. To this end:

(a) An agency shall never knowingly record or provide inaccurate information;

(b) An agency shall take steps to insure the security of its records and to prevent tampering therewith; and

(c) An agency shall not supply any record which is not complete, i.e., does not contain information as to all action taken to date with respect to any incident, even if that action has been taken by another agency.

(3) Records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by such other participant or when such other participant is assigned the responsibility of supervising the juvenile. This section shall permit, in accordance with the laws on discovery of evidence applicable in adult criminal cases, counsel for the prosecution and defense and an accused juvenile full access to the records of other juveniles alleged to have committed offenses connected with the offense with which the accused juvenile is charged, and any juvenile witnesses involved in the case. The juvenile court and prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court, except as limited by subsection (2) of this section. The central record keeping system may be computerized and shall have adequate safeguards to protect against improper disclosure of information.

(4) Information concerning a juvenile shall be released to such juvenile, or to such juvenile's parents or attorney, for purposes of checking its accuracy.

(5) Except as provided in section 10 of this 1977 amendatory act, information which could not reasonably be expected to identify the youth or the youth's family may be released to the public.

(6) The identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender and his or her parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstances of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(7) Information which is necessary to the preparation of an accused juvenile's defense or to protect a juvenile's interests in a dependency proceeding shall be released to such juvenile or to such juvenile's parents or attorney.

(8) Information which has not been destroyed pursuant to section 12 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be released to participants in the adult criminal justice and corrections system including prosecutors, defendants, defense counsel, and probation or parole officers, concerning the juvenile record of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding after a charge has actually been filed in court.

(9) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as preventing a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the juvenile offender or the juvenile's family where necessary in a civil proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Any person who believes that he or she may be the subject of any juvenile justice or care record keeping shall have the right, in person or through a parent or attorney, to inquire as to whether a record exists and to be shown such record if it exists. If that record is properly in the possession of the agency maintaining it, the subject shall have the right to challenge the information therein and to have it corrected if it is in error. If that record is not properly in the possession of the agency maintaining it, the subject shall have the right to have it destroyed. Any agency maintaining such records shall promulgate administrative procedures to facilitate such inquiries, and the subject of any record shall have the right to enforce the provisions of this section by equitable or legal proceedings in the superior court.

(2) On motion on the part of a person who has been the subject of an information alleging a juvenile offense or the subject of a dependency petition, or on the court's own motion, the court shall vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the legal and social files and records of the court and of any other agency in the case if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed since the final discharge of the person from legal custody or since the entry of any other court order not involving custody; and

(b) The person has not entered into a diversion agreement nor has been found to have committed a crime prior to the filing of the motion, and no proceeding is pending seeking such conviction or adjudication. The motion and the order may include the files and records specified in subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

(3) Reasonable notice of the motion shall be given to:

(a) The prosecutor;

(b) Defense counsel of record;

(c) The department of social and health services, if custody of the child has ever been transferred to the department; and

(d) The law enforcement officers, department, and central depository having custody of the files and records if the files and records specified in section 11 of this 1977 amendatory act are included in the motion.

(4) Upon the entry of the order, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the court and law enforcement officers and departments shall reply and the subject person may reply to any inquiry that juvenile records are confidential.

Inspection of the files and records included in the order may thereafter be permitted by the court only upon motion of the person who is the subject of such records or the prosecuting attorney, and only by those persons named in such motion. However, the court in its discretion may by special order in an individual case permit inspection by or release of information in the records to any clinic, hospital, or agency which has the subject person under care or treatment, or individuals or agencies engaged in research.

(5) Any adjudication of the commission of a crime subsequent to sealing shall have the effect of nullifying the sealing order.

(6) A person who has been the subject of an information alleging a juvenile offense and has met the conditions stipulated in subsection (2)(b) of this section may, five years after reaching the age of majority, file a motion requesting the destruction of all records pertaining to his or her case. If the court grants the motion, copies of the order shall be sent to all offices or agencies that are repositories of such records and all such offices and agencies shall comply with the order.

(7) A person who has been the subject of an information alleging a juvenile offense shall be notified of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her final discharge.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the expungement of any juvenile record ordered expunged by a court to preserve the due process rights of its subject.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, whenever a child is arrested for a violation of any law, including municipal ordinances, regulating the operation of vehicles on the public highways, a copy of the traffic citation and a record of the action taken by the juvenile court shall be forwarded by the court to the director of licenses in the same manner as provided in RCW 46.20.280.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, and 9 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be added to chapter 13.04 RCW.

PART B

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This chapter shall be known as the "Runaway Youth Act".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A law enforcement officer may take a juvenile into limited custody subject to the limitations of this chapter if (1) a law enforcement agency has been contacted by the parent, guardian, or custodian of the child that their child is absent from home without their consent, or (2) if the officer reasonably believes that a juvenile is in circumstances which constitute a substantial and immediate danger to the juvenile's physical safety. In no event shall limited custody extend more than twelve hours from the time of the juvenile's initial contact with the law enforcement officer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) An officer taking a juvenile into limited custody shall inform the juvenile of the reason for such custody and shall, if the juvenile consents, transport the juvenile to his or her home or to a relative or other responsible person, or arrange for such transportation.

(2) The officer so releasing a juvenile from limited custody shall inform the parent, custodian, relative, or other responsible person of the reason for taking the juvenile into limited custody and shall, if he or she believes further services may be needed, inform the juvenile and the person to whom the juvenile is released of the nature and location of appropriate services and shall offer to assist in establishing contact between the family and the service agency.

(3) Where a parent or custodian cannot be reached and release is made to a relative or other responsible person, the officer shall notify the parent or custodian as soon as practicable of the fact and circumstances of the limited custody, the release of the juvenile, and any information given respecting further services.

(4) Where a juvenile is released from limited custody to a person other than a parent or custodian, such person shall reasonably establish that he or she is willing and able to be responsible for the safety of the juvenile.

(5) If the law enforcement officer is unable by all reasonable efforts to contact a parent, custodian, relative, or other responsible person; or if the person contacted lives at an unreasonable distance; or if the juvenile refuses to be taken to his or her home or other appropriate residence; or if the officer is otherwise unable despite all reasonable efforts to make arrangements for the safe release of the juvenile taken into limited custody, the law enforcement officer shall take the juvenile to a designated temporary nonsecure residential facility licensed by the department of social and health services and established pursuant to chapter 74.13 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A law enforcement officer acting reasonably and in good faith pursuant to this chapter in releasing a juvenile to a person other than a parent or custodian of such juvenile shall be immune from civil or criminal liability for such action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Sections 16 through 19 of this 1977 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 13 RCW.

Sec. 21. Section 3, chapter 30, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 71, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 74.13.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in Title 74 RCW, child welfare services shall be defined as public social services including adoption services which strengthen, supplement, or substitute for, parental care and supervision for the purpose of:

(1) Preventing or remedying, or assisting in the solution of problems which may result in the neglect, abuse, exploitation, or delinquency of children;

(2) Protecting and caring for homeless, dependent, ~~((incorrigible as defined in RCW 13.04.010(7)))~~ or neglected children;

(3) Assisting children who are in conflict with their parents, and assisting parents who are in conflict with their children with services designed to resolve such conflicts;

(4) Protecting and promoting the welfare of children, including the strengthening of their own homes where possible, or, where needed;

~~((4))~~ (5) Providing adequate care of children away from their homes in foster family homes or day care or other child care agencies or facilities.

As used in this chapter, child means a person less than eighteen years of age.

Sec. 22. Section 17, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 4, chapter 71, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 74.13.031 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall have the duty to provide child welfare services as defined in RCW 74.13.020, and shall:

(1) Develop, administer, and supervise a plan that establishes, extends aid to, and strengthens services for the protection and care of homeless, dependent children, ~~((incorrigible children as defined by RCW 13.04.010(7),))~~ neglected children, or ~~((children in danger of becoming delinquent))~~ juvenile offenders.

(2) Investigate complaints of neglect, abuse, or abandonment of children by parents, guardians, custodians, or persons serving in loco parentis, and on the basis of the findings of such investigation, offer child welfare services in relation to the problem to such parents, guardians, custodians or persons serving in loco parentis, and/or bring the situation to the attention of an appropriate court, or another community agency. If the investigation reveals that a crime may have been committed, notify the appropriate law enforcement agency.

(3) Offer, on a voluntary basis, crisis intervention to families who are in conflict.

Crisis intervention services (a) shall consist of an interview or series of interviews with the child or his or her family, as needed, conducted within a brief period of time by qualified professional persons, and designed to alleviate personal or family situations which present a serious and imminent threat to the health or stability of the child or the family; and (b) may include, but are not limited to, the provision of or referral to services for suicide prevention, psychiatric or other medical care, or psychological, welfare, legal, educational, or other social services, as appropriate to the needs of the child and the family.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit an officer of the child welfare services from referring any child who, as a result of a mental or emotional disorder, or intoxication by alcohol or other drugs, is suicidal, seriously assaultive or seriously destructive towards others, or otherwise similarly evidences an immediate need for emergency medical evaluation and possible care, to a community mental health center pursuant to RCW 72.23.070.

(4) Have authority to accept for temporary residential care in a foster family home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW a child who has been taken into limited custody pursuant to section 17 of this 1977 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That a juvenile shall in no event remain in temporary residential care for a period longer than seventy-two hours from the time of the juvenile's initial contact with the law enforcement officer except as otherwise provided in this section. Upon accepting the child, the staff of the facility shall notify the child's parents or custodian of his or her whereabouts, physical and emotional condition, and the circumstances surrounding his or her placement and shall undertake to make arrangements for the child's return home.

In every case crisis intervention services shall be provided as needed and the staff of the temporary facility shall seek to effect the child's return home or alternative living arrangement agreeable to the child and the parent or custodian as soon as practicable.

(a) If, after his or her admission to a temporary residential facility, a child who is absent from home without permission and his or her parent or custodian agrees to the child's return home, the staff of the facility shall arrange transportation for the juvenile, as soon as practicable, to the county of residence of the parent or custodian, at the latter's expense to the extent of his or her ability to pay.

(b) If the child refuses to return home and if no other living arrangements agreeable to the child and the parent or custodian can be made, the staff of the facility shall arrange transportation for the child to a temporary nonsecure residential facility in the county of residence of the parent or custodian, at the expense of the latter to the extent of his or her ability to pay. If there is no such facility in the county of that residence, the nearest such facility to that residence shall be used.

(c) If a child's legal residence is outside the state of Washington and such child refuses to return home, the provisions of RCW 13.24.010 shall apply.

(d) If the parent or custodian refuses to permit the child to return home, and no other living arrangement agreeable to the child and the parent or custodian can be made, staff of the child welfare services section shall notify the juvenile court to appoint legal counsel for the child and shall file a dependency petition in the juvenile court in the jurisdiction of the residence of the parent or custodian.

(e) If a child and his or her parent or guardian agree to an arrangement for alternative residential placement, such placement may continue as long as there is agreement. During any alternative residential placement, there shall be provided to the child and to his or her family such services as may be appropriate to the particular case, to the end that the child may be reunited with the family as soon as practicable.

(f) If such child and his or her parent or custodian cannot agree to an arrangement for alternative residential placement in the first instance, or cannot agree to the continuation of such placement, the child or his or her parent or custodian may file with the juvenile court a petition to approve alternative residential placement pursuant to section 24 of this 1977 amendatory act. The child shall remain in the placement where he or she is located at the time a petition to approve alternative residential placement is filed until a placement decision is made pursuant to section 26 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(g) In no event shall alternative residential placement for a child in conflict with his or her family be arranged in a secure detention facility or in a secure institution except as provided in this subsection. A child in conflict with his or her parents may be detained in a secure detention facility operated by a county for a maximum of seventy-two hours if:

(i) The staff of the child welfare services section find that the child taken into limited custody has previously been placed in alternative residential care and has run away from such placement and that it is likely that the child will run away from another and different residential placement; or

(ii) The child refuses to return home and refuses to be placed in alternative residential care.

During such detention, efforts shall be continued to the end that the child may be returned home or other living arrangements agreeable to the child and his or her parent, guardian, or custodian are made. If an agreement concerning living arrangements for the child cannot be reached a petition shall be filed within forty-eight hours after initial detention of the child, pursuant to subsection (4)(g) of this section. The hearing on the petition shall be held within seventy-two hours of the initial detention of the child. If the hearing on the petition is not held within these time limits the child shall be released from detention.

(5) Cooperate with other public and voluntary agencies and organizations in the development and coordination of programs and activities in behalf of children including but not limited to contracting with private and public entities to provide basic education and vocational training and crisis intervention services.

~~((4))~~ (6) Have authority to accept custody of children from parents, guardians, and/or juvenile courts, to provide child welfare services including placement for adoption, and to provide for the physical care of such children and to make payment of maintenance costs if needed. ~~((A child in need of detention, whether alleged to be dependent or delinquent, shall, prior to findings and disposition by the court pursuant to RCW 13.04.095 as now or hereafter amended, be the responsibility of and provided for by the juvenile court.))~~

~~((5))~~ (7) Have authority to purchase care for children and shall follow in general the policy of using properly approved private agency services for the actual care and supervision of such children insofar as they are available, paying for care of such children as are accepted by the department as eligible for support at reasonable rates established by the department.

~~((6))~~ (8) Establish a child welfare and day care advisory committee who shall act as an advisory committee to the state advisory committee and to the secretary in the development of policy on all matters pertaining to child welfare, day care, licensing of child care agencies, and services related thereto.

(9) Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 16 through 19, 21, and 22 of this 1977 amendatory act, all services to be provided by the department of social and health services under subsections (3) and (4) of this section, subject to the limitations of these subsections, may be provided by any program offering such services funded pursuant to Title II of the federal juvenile justice and delinquency prevention act of 1974 (P.L. No. 93-415; 42 U.S.C. 5634 et seq.).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. This chapter shall be known as the "Juvenile Court Procedure for Families In Conflict".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A child or a child's parent or custodian may file with the juvenile court a petition to approve alternative residential placement as provided in RCW 74.13.031(4)(g) as now or hereafter amended. The filing of a petition to approve such placement is not dependent upon the court's having obtained any prior jurisdiction over the child or his or her parent or custodian, and confers upon the court a special jurisdiction to approve or disapprove alternative residential placement or its continuation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. The juvenile court shall promptly appoint legal counsel for the child whether or not the child is the moving party, schedule a hearing date, and notify the child and his or her parent or custodian of the hearing date, the legal consequences of an approval or disapproval of alternative residential placement, the right of both parties to present evidence at the hearing, and the right of the parent or custodian to be represented by legal counsel at the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The hearing shall be upon the question of the child's placement only and no other issue shall be considered in the case unless other factors are present indicating child neglect, child abuse, or the child's violation of the criminal law. In such case, a petition shall be filed alleging dependency or the commission of a juvenile offense. In ruling on a petition to approve alternative residential placement, the court shall approve or disapprove the placement and shall make no other order extending court jurisdiction over the child except as provided in this section.

(1) At the hearing on the motion to approve alternative residential placement, the court shall approve the placement in which the child resides or wishes to reside, unless the court finds upon a preponderance of the evidence that the placement imperils or will imperil the child, and that it is probable that his or her conditions of living will be improved by available alternative residential placements.

(2) Before disapproving a placement, the court shall give such reasonable opportunity for correction of the defects of the placement in which the child resides or wishes to reside, as may be appropriate under the circumstances of the particular case.

If the court finds that the placement where the child resides imperils him or her, notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, the court shall take such steps as may be required to remove the child therefrom and place the child in an alternative placement pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. If an opportunity for correction of the defects of the placement in which the child resides or wishes to reside is provided the court shall set a date certain for return of the child to this placement.

(3) The court may direct that another alternative residential placement be arranged, subject to the agreement of the child and his or her parent or custodian and the approval of the court. If an agreement cannot be reached the court shall designate a placement taking into account the child's preferences.

For the purposes of this section, a placement is deemed to imperil a child when it fails to provide physical protection, adequate shelter, or adequate nutrition; or seriously and unconscionably obstructs the child's medical care, education, or physical and emotional development, as determined according to the needs of the child in the particular case; or exposes the child to unconscionable exploitation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Upon approving an alternative residential placement pursuant to this section, the court shall schedule the matter on the calendar for review in six months, advise the parties of the date thereof, appoint legal counsel to represent the child at the review hearing, and notify the parties of their rights to present evidence at the review hearing and of the right of the parent or custodian to be represented by legal counsel. At each review hearing, the juvenile court: (1) Shall approve or disapprove the continuation of the alternative residential placement according to the same standards and limitations as governed the initial approval; (2) shall determine that such interim services as may be appropriate have been offered the child and his or her family, pursuant to RCW 74.13.031 as now or hereafter amended; and (3) shall again set the matter on the calendar for further review in six months, notifying the parties as before.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Sections 23 through 27 of this 1977 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 13 RCW.

PART C

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. This chapter shall be known as the "Juvenile Court Act in Cases Relating to Dependency of a Child and the Termination of a Parent and Child Relationship".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. For purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Child" and "juvenile" shall mean any individual under the age of eighteen years;

(2) "Dependent child" shall mean any child:

(a) Who has been abandoned; that is, left by his or her parents, guardian, or other custodian without parental care and support; or

(b) Who is abused or neglected as defined in chapter 26.44 RCW; or

(c) Who has no parent, guardian, or custodian.

Sec. 31. Section 5, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 and RCW 13.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person may file with the clerk of the superior court a petition showing that there is within the county, or residing within the county, a dependent (~~(or delinquent)~~) child and praying that the superior court deal with such child as provided in this chapter: PROVIDED, That in counties having paid probation officers, such officers shall, as far as possible, first determine if such petition is reasonably justifiable. Such petition shall be verified and shall contain a statement of facts constituting such dependency (~~(or delinquency)~~), as defined in (~~(RCW 13.04.010)~~) this chapter, and the names and residence, if known to the petitioner, of the parents, guardian, or custodian of such dependent (~~(or delinquent)~~) child. There shall be no fee for filing such petitions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. The juvenile court may enter an order directing a law enforcement officer, probation counselor, or child protective services official to take a child into custody if a petition is filed with the juvenile court alleging that the child is dependent and the court finds reasonable grounds to believe the child is dependent and that the child's health, safety, and welfare will be seriously endangered if not taken into custody.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. (1) A child taken into custody pursuant to section 32 or 49 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be immediately placed in shelter care. "Shelter care" means temporary physical care in a foster family home or receiving home licensed pursuant to RCW 74.15.030. In no case shall a child who is taken into custody pursuant to section 32 or 49 of this 1977 amendatory act be detained in a secure detention facility. No child may be held longer than seventy-two hours, excluding Sundays and holidays, after such child is taken into custody unless a court order has been entered for continued shelter care. The child and his or her parent, guardian, or custodian shall be informed that they have a right to a preliminary shelter care hearing. The court shall hold a preliminary shelter care hearing if one is requested.

(2) The juvenile court counselor assigned to the matter shall advise the parents, guardian, or legal custodian of the time and place of any shelter care hearing, request that they be present, and inform them of their basic rights as provided in section 36 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(3) At the commencement of the shelter care hearing the court shall advise the parties of their basic rights as provided in section 36 of this 1977 amendatory act and shall appoint counsel pursuant to section 36 of this 1977 amendatory act if counsel has not been retained by the parent or guardian or if the parent or guardian is indigent, unless the court finds that the right to counsel has been expressly and voluntarily waived.

(4) The court shall take testimony concerning the circumstances for taking the child into custody and the need for shelter care. The court shall give the child and the child's parent or guardian and the parent's or guardian's counsel an opportunity to introduce evidence, to be heard in their own behalf, and to examine witnesses.

(5) In class A and AA counties the department of social and health services (and in all other counties the juvenile court probation counselor) shall submit a recommendation to the court as to the further need for shelter care.

(6) The court shall release a child alleged to be dependent to the care, custody, and control of the child's parent, guardian, or custodian or other suitable person able and willing to provide supervision and care for such child unless the court finds there is reasonable cause to believe that:

(a) The child has no parent, guardian, custodian, or other suitable person to provide supervision and care for such child; or

(b) The release of such child would present a serious threat of substantial harm to such child.

If continued shelter care is ordered, the court shall set forth its reasons for continued shelter care.

(7) An order releasing the child on any conditions specified in this section may at any time be amended, with notice and hearing thereon, so as to return the child to shelter care for failure of the parties to conform to the conditions originally imposed.

(8) A shelter care order issued pursuant to this section may be amended at any time with notice and hearing thereon. No child shall be detained for longer than thirty days without an order, signed by the judge, authorizing continued shelter care.

Sec. 34. Section 6, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 and RCW 13.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the filing of ((an information, or)) the petition, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons ((requiring the person having custody or control of the child, or with whom the child may be, to appear with the child at a place and time stated in the summons, which time shall not be less than twenty-four hours after service. The parents of the child, if living, and their residence is known, or its legal guardian, if there be one or if there is neither parent nor guardian, or if his or her residence is not known, then some relative, if there be one, and his residence is known, shall be notified of the proceedings; and in any case the judge shall appoint some suitable person or association to act in behalf of the child)), one directed to the child, if the child is twelve or more years of age, and another to the parents, guardian, or custodian, and such other persons as appear to the court to be proper or necessary parties to the proceedings, requiring them to appear personally before the court at the time fixed to hear the petition. Where the custodian is summoned, the parent or guardian or both shall also be served with a summons.

(2) A copy of the petition shall be attached to each summons.

(3) The summons shall advise the parties of the right to counsel.

(4) The judge may endorse upon the summons an order directing any parent, guardian, or custodian having the custody or control of the child to bring the child to the hearing.

(5) If it appears from affidavit or sworn statement presented to the judge that there is probable cause for the issuance of a warrant of arrest or that the child needs to be taken into custody pursuant to section 32 of this 1977 amendatory act, the judge may endorse upon the summons an order that an officer serving the summons shall at once take the child into custody and take him to the place of shelter designated by the court.

(6) If a party to be served with a summons can be found within the state, the summons shall be served upon the party personally at least five court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court. If the party is within the state and cannot be personally served, but the party's address is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, the summons may be served upon the party by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail at least ten court days before the hearing, or such time as set by the court. If a party other than the child is without the state but can be found or the address is known, or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, service of the summons may be made either by delivering a copy thereof to the party personally or by mailing a copy thereof to the party by certified mail at least ten court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court.

(7) Service of summons may be made under the direction of the court by any law enforcement officer or probation counselor.

(8) If the person summoned as herein provided, shall fail without reasonable cause to appear and abide the order of the court, ((or bring the child;)) he ((shall)) may be proceeded against as for contempt of court. ((In case the summons cannot be served or the parties served fail to obey [the] same, and in any case when it shall be made to appear to the court that said summons will be ineffectual, a warrant may issue on the order of the court, either against the parent or guardian or the person having custody of the child, or with whom the child may be, or against the child itself. On return of the summons or other process, or as soon thereafter as may be, the court shall proceed to hear and dispose of the case in a summary manner. Pending the final disposition of the case, the child may be retained in the possession of the person having charge of same, or may be kept in some suitable place provided by the city or county authorities, or by any association having for one of its objects the care of delinquent and dependent children:))

Sec. 35. Section 7, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as amended by section 4, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

In ((any)) a dependency case where it shall appear by the petition or verified statement, that the person standing in the position of natural or legal guardian of the person of any child, is a nonresident of this state, or that the name or place of residence or whereabouts of such person is unknown, as well as in all cases where, after due diligence, the officer has been unable to make service of the summons or notice provided for in ((RCW 13.04.070)) section 34 of this 1977 amendatory act, and a copy of said notice has been deposited in the post office, postage prepaid, directed to such person at his last known place of residence, the court may order said notice published in a legal newspaper printed in the county, qualified to publish summons, once a week for three consecutive weeks, the first publication of said notice to be at least twenty-five days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. Such notice shall be directed to the parent, parents, or other person claiming the right to the custody of the child, if their names are known, or if unknown, the phrase "To whom it may concern" shall be used and apply to, and be binding upon, any such persons whose names are unknown. The name of the court, the name of the child (or children if of one family), the date of the filing of the petition and the date of hearing and the object of the proceeding in general terms, shall be set forth and the whole shall be subscribed by the clerk. There shall be filed with the clerk an affidavit showing due publication of the notice and the cost of publication shall be paid by the county at not to exceed the rate paid by the county for other legal notices. The publication of notice shall be deemed equivalent to personal service upon all persons, known or unknown, who have been designated as provided in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. Any party has a right to be represented by an attorney of his or her own choosing in all proceedings under this chapter, to introduce evidence, to be heard in his or her own behalf, to examine witnesses, to receive a decision based solely on the evidence adduced at the hearing, and to an unbiased fact-finder.

At all stages of a proceeding in which a child is alleged to be dependent pursuant to section 30 of this 1977 amendatory act, the child's parent or guardian shall have the right to be represented by counsel, and if indigent, to have counsel appointed for him or her by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. The court, at any stage of a proceeding under this chapter, may appoint a guardian ad litem for a child who is a party to the proceedings. A party to the proceeding or the party's employee or representative shall not be so appointed. Such guardian ad litem shall receive all notice contemplated for a parent in all proceedings under this chapter.

Sec. 38. Section 5, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.091 are each amended to read as follows:

The court shall hold a fact-finding hearing on the petition and, unless the court dismisses the petition, shall make written findings of fact, stating the reasons therefore, and after it has announced its findings of fact shall hold a hearing to consider disposition of the case immediately following the fact-finding hearing or at a continued hearing within fourteen days. No social file or social study shall be considered by the court in connection with the fact-finding hearing or prior to factual determination. Notice of the time and place of the continued hearing may be given in open court. If notice in open court is not given to a party, that party shall be notified by mail of the time and place of any continued hearing.

All hearings may be conducted at any time or place within the limits of the county, and such cases shall not be heard in conjunction with other business of any other division of the superior court. The general public shall be excluded and only such persons shall be admitted who are found by the judge to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court.

Stenographic notes or any device which accurately records the proceedings may be required as provided in other civil cases pursuant to RCW 2.32.200.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 39. (1) To aid the court in its decision on disposition, a social study, consisting of a written evaluation of matters relevant to the disposition of the case, shall be made. The study shall include all social records and shall be made available to the court. The court shall consider the social file and social study at the disposition hearing in addition to evidence produced at the fact-finding hearing.

(2) In addition to the requirements set forth in subsection (1) of this section, a predisposition study to the court in cases of dependency alleged pursuant to section 30(2)(b) of this 1977 amendatory act shall contain the following information:

(a) A statement of the specific harm or harms to the child that intervention is designed to alleviate;

(b) A description of the specific programs, for both the parents and child, that are needed in order to prevent further harm to the child; the reasons why such programs are likely to be useful; the availability of any proposed services; and the agency's overall plan for ensuring that the services will be delivered;

(c) If removal is recommended, a full description of the reasons why the child cannot be protected adequately in the home, including a description of any previous efforts to work with the parents and the child in the home; the in-home treatment programs which have been considered and rejected; and the parents' attitude toward placement of the child;

(d) A statement of the likely harms the child will suffer as a result of removal. This section should include an exploration of the nature of the parent-child attachment and the meaning of separation and loss to both the parents and the child;

(e) A description of the steps that will be taken to minimize harm to the child that may result if separation occurs; and

(f) Behavior that will be expected before determination that supervision of the family or placement is no longer necessary.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 40. If, after a fact-finding hearing pursuant to section 38 of this 1977 amendatory act, it has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is dependent within the meaning of section 30(2) (a), (b), or (c) of this 1977 amendatory act; after consideration of the predisposition report prepared pursuant to section 38 of this 1977 amendatory act and after a disposition hearing has been held pursuant to section 38 of this 1977 amendatory act, the court shall enter an order of disposition pursuant to this section.

(1) The court shall order one of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Order a disposition other than removal of the child from his or her home, which shall provide a program designed to alleviate the immediate danger to the child, to mitigate or cure any damage the child has already suffered, and to aid the parents so that the child will not be endangered in the future. In selecting a program, the court should choose those services that least interfere with family autonomy, provided that the services are adequate to protect the child.

(b) Order that the child be placed in foster care. Such an order may be made only if:

(i) There is no parent or guardian available to care for such child; or

(ii) The child is unwilling to reside in the custody of the child's parent or guardian; or

(iii) The parent or guardian is not willing to take custody of the child; or

(iv) A manifest danger would exist that the child will suffer further abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the home.

(2) Whenever a child is ordered removed from the child's home, the agency charged with his or her care shall provide the court with a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to return the child home, and what actions the agency will take to maintain parent-child ties.

(a) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will receive in order to enable them to resume custody and what actions the parents must take in order to resume custody.

(b) The agency shall be required to encourage the maximum parent-child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement.

(c) A child shall be placed as close to the child's home as possible, preferably in the child's own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child's well-being.

(d) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall be responsible for assuming that all services are provided. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services.

(3) The status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue.

(a) A child shall be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in this section still exists. When a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.

(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall establish in writing:

(i) What services have been provided to or offered to the parents to facilitate reunion;

(ii) The extent to which the parents have visited the child and any reasons why visitation has not occurred or has been infrequent;

(iii) Whether the agency is satisfied with the cooperation given to it by the parents;

(iv) Whether additional services are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child's parents; if so, the court shall order such services; and

(v) When return of the child can be expected.

(c) If a child is not returned to the child's home, at such review hearing the court shall advise the parents that a petition to seek termination of parental rights may be ordered at the next review hearing.

(d) The court at the review hearing may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.

Sec. 41. Section 15, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 and RCW 13.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Any order made by the court in the case of a dependent (~~or delinquent~~) child may at any time be changed, modified or set aside, as to the judge may seem meet and proper.

Sec. 42. Section 8, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 13.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

((or delinquent)), it may in the same or subsequent proceeding upon the parent or parents, guardian, or other person having custody of said child, being duly summoned or voluntarily appearing, proceed to inquire into the ability of such persons or person to support the child or contribute to its support, and if the court shall find such person or persons able to support the child or contribute thereto, the court may enter such order or decree as shall be according to equity in the premises, and may enforce the same by execution, or in any way in which a court of equity may enforce its decrees.

Sec. 43. Section 1, chapter 188, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 8, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.105 are each amended to read as follows:

In any case in which an order or decree of the juvenile court requiring a parent or parents, guardian, or other person having custody of a child to pay for ((detention)) shelter care and/or support of such child is not complied with, the court may, upon such person or persons being duly summoned or voluntarily appearing, proceed to inquire into the amount due upon said order or decree and enter judgment for such amount against the defaulting party or parties, and such judgment shall be docketed as are other judgments for the payment of money.

In such judgments, the county in which the same are entered shall be denominated the judgment creditor, or the state may be the judgment creditor where the child is in the custody of a state agency and said judgments may be enforced by the prosecuting attorney of such county, or the attorney general where the state is the judgment creditor and any moneys recovered thereon shall be paid into the registry of the juvenile court and shall be disbursed to such person, persons, agency, or governmental department as the court shall find to be entitled thereto.

Such judgments shall remain as valid and enforceable judgments for a period of six years subsequent to the entry thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. A petition seeking termination of a parent and child relationship may be filed in juvenile court. Such petition shall conform to the requirements of RCW 13.04.060 as now or hereafter amended and shall allege:

- (1) That the child has been removed from the custody of the parent for a period of at least six months pursuant to a finding of dependency under section 30(2)(a) or (b) of this 1977 amendatory act; and
- (2) That the conditions which led to the removal still persist; and
- (3) That there is little likelihood that those conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future; and
- (4) That continuation of the parent and child relationship clearly diminishes the child's prospects for early integration into a stable and permanent home; and
- (5) That, if the finding of dependency has been pursuant to section 30(2)(b) of this 1977 amendatory act, necessary services have been provided or offered to the parent to facilitate a reunion; and
- (6) That the parent has substantially failed to accept such services; and
- (7) That if the parent is subject to an order of disposition pursuant to the finding of dependency, the parent has substantially failed to comply with the order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. After hearings pursuant to RCW 13.04.091, the court may enter an order terminating all parental rights to a child if the court finds that:

- (1) The allegations contained in the petition as provided in section 44 of this 1977 amendatory act are established by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence; and
- (2) Such an order is in the best interests of the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. (1) Upon the termination of parental rights pursuant to section 44 of this 1977 amendatory act, all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations, including any rights to custody, control, visitation, or support existing between the child and parent shall be severed and terminated and the parent shall have no standing to appear at any further legal proceedings concerning the child: PROVIDED, That any support obligation existing prior to the effective date of the order terminating parental rights shall not be severed or terminated. The rights of one parent may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent and the order shall so state.

(2) An order terminating the parent and child relationship shall not disentitle a child to any benefit due the child from any third person, agency, state, or the United States, nor shall any action under this chapter be deemed to affect any rights and benefits that a native American child derives from the child's descent from a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. If, upon entering an order terminating the parental rights of a parent, there remains no parent having parental rights, the court shall commit the child to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a licensed child-placing agency willing to accept custody for the purpose of placing the child for adoption, or in the absence thereof in a licensed foster home, or take other suitable measures for the care and welfare of the child. The custodian shall have authority to consent to the adoption of the child, the marriage of the child, the enlistment of the child in the armed forces of the United States, necessary surgical and other medical treatment for the child, and to consent to such other matters as might normally be required of the parent of the child.

If a child has not been adopted within two years after the date of the order and a general guardian of the child has not been appointed by the court, the child shall be returned to the court for entry of further orders for his or her care, custody, and control.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. Sections 29, 30, 32, 33, 36, 37, 39, 40, and 44 through 47 of this 1977 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 13 RCW. The following sections of the Revised Code of Washington, as now or hereafter amended, are hereby decodified and shall be recodified as part of said new chapter: RCW 13.04.060, 13.04.070, 13.04.080, 13.04.091, 13.04.100, 13.04.105, and 13.04.150.

Sec. 49. Section 5, chapter 13, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 5, chapter 217, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.44.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the receipt of a report concerning the possible occurrence of child abuse or neglect, it shall be the duty of the law enforcement agency or the department of social and health services to investigate and provide the child protective services section with a report in accordance with the provision of chapter 74.13 RCW, and where necessary to refer such report to the court.

A law enforcement officer may take, or cause to be taken, a child into custody without a court order if there is probable cause to believe that the child is abused or neglected and that the child would be injured or could not be taken into custody if it were necessary to first obtain a court order pursuant to section 32 of this 1977 amendatory act. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 13.04.130 as now or hereafter amended, the law enforcement agency or the department of social and health services investigating such a report is hereby authorized to photograph such a child for the purpose of providing documentary evidence of the physical condition of the child at the time the child was taken into custody.

Sec. 50. Section 28A.27.070, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.27.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Any attendance officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, policeman, or any other officer authorized to make arrests, shall take into custody without a warrant a child who is required under the provisions of RCW 28A.27.010 through 28A.27.130 to attend school, such child then being a truant from instruction at the school which he is lawfully required to attend, and shall forthwith deliver a child so detained either

~~(1) to the custody of a person in parental relation to the child or (2) to the ((teacher from whom)) school from which the child is then a truant((, or, if after consulting the teacher or other school officials it appears such child be an habitual or incorrigible truant, shall deliver such child into the hands of a juvenile probation officer as provided for in chapter 13.04 RCW for such further action thereon as such officer shall determine under chapter 13.04 RCW)). A designated school official may inform an habitual truant and such child's parents, and shall inform any student who has been expelled from school in accordance with procedures provided by law and such child's parents, of the nature and location of services provided for in RCW 74.13.020(3) if such services may be appropriate to the needs of the child, and shall offer to assist in establishing contact between such family and such services. An habitual ((or incorrigible)) truant for the purposes of this section is one who absents himself with frequency from the school he is required to attend(, or is guilty of wilful and continued disobedience to the school rules and regulations or laws, or whose conduct is pernicious and injurious to the school)).~~

PART D

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. (1) This chapter shall be known and cited as the Juvenile Justice Act of 1977.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that a system capable of having primary responsibility for, being accountable for, and responding to the needs of youthful offenders, as defined by this chapter, be established. It is the further intent of the legislature that youth, in turn, be held accountable for their offenses and that both communities and the juvenile courts carry out their functions consistent with this intent. To effectuate these policies, it shall be the purpose of this chapter to:

- (a) Protect the citizenry from criminal behavior;
- (b) Provide for determining whether accused juveniles have committed offenses as defined by this chapter;
- (c) Make the juvenile offender accountable for his or her criminal behavior;
- (d) Provide for punishment commensurate with the age, crime, and criminal history of the juvenile offender;
- (e) Provide due process for juveniles alleged to have committed an offense;
- (f) Provide necessary treatment, supervision, and custody for juvenile offenders;
- (g) Provide for the handling of juvenile offenders by communities whenever consistent with public safety;
- (h) Provide for restitution to victims of crime;
- (i) Develop effective standards and goals for the operation, funding, and evaluation of all components of the juvenile justice system and related services at the state and local levels; and
- (j) Provide for a clear policy to determine what types of offenders shall receive punishment, treatment, or both, and to determine the jurisdictional limitations of the courts, institutions, and community services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Serious offender" means a person fifteen years of age or older who has committed an offense which if committed by an adult would be:

- (a) A class A felony, or an attempt to commit a class A felony;
- (b) Manslaughter in the first degree, rape in the first degree, or rape in the second degree; or
- (c) Assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, indecent liberties, kidnaping in the second degree, robbery in the second degree, burglary in the second degree, statutory rape in the first degree, or statutory rape in the second degree, where such offenses include the infliction of grievous bodily harm upon another or where during the commission of or immediate withdrawal from such an offense the perpetrator uses a deadly weapon or firearm as defined in RCW 9A.04.110;

(2) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed by the offender as punishment for committing an offense;

(3) "Community supervision" means an order of disposition by the court of an adjudicated youth for a period of time not to exceed one year. Such an order may include one or more of the following:

(a) A fine, not to exceed one hundred dollars;

(b) Community service not to exceed one hundred fifty hours of service;

(c) Attendance of information classes;

(d) Counseling; or

(e) Such other services to the extent funds are available for such services, conditions, or limitations as the court may require which may not include partial confinement or confinement.

(4) "Confinement" means any commitment to a facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with the state, or by or pursuant to a contract with any county;

(5) "Court", when used without further qualification, means the juvenile department of the superior court;

(6) "Criminal history" shall include all criminal complaints against the respondent where:

(a) The allegations were found correct by a juvenile court. In any judgment where a respondent is convicted of two or more charges arising out of the same course of conduct, where one charge is included within the other, then only the highest charge from among these shall count as an offense for the purposes of this chapter; or

(b) The criminal complaint was diverted by a prosecutor pursuant to the provisions of this chapter on agreement of the respondent and after an advisement to the respondent that the criminal complaint would be considered as part of the respondent's criminal history;

(7) "Department" means the department of social and health services;

(8) "Diversion unit" means any probation counselor who enters into a diversion agreement with an alleged youthful offender or any other person or entity with whom the juvenile court administrator has contracted to arrange and supervise such agreements pursuant to section 8 of this 1977 amendatory act or any person or entity specially funded by the legislature to arrange and supervise diversion agreements in accordance with the requirements of this chapter;

(9) "Institution" means a juvenile facility established pursuant to chapters 72.05 and 72.16 through 72.20 RCW;

(10) "Juvenile", "youth", and "child" shall mean any individual who is under the chronological age of eighteen years and who has not been previously transferred to adult court, or who is over the age of eighteen years but remaining under the jurisdiction of the court as provided in RCW 13.04.260 as recodified by this 1977 amendatory act;

(11) "Juvenile offender" means any juvenile who has been found by the juvenile court to have committed an offense;

(12) "Manifest injustice" means a disposition that would impose an excessive penalty on the juvenile or a clear danger to society in light of the purposes of this chapter;

(13) "Minor or first offender" means a person sixteen years of age or younger who has committed an offense which if committed by an adult would be either a class B or C felony (except for any felony which is listed in subsections (1) (a), (b), or (c) of this section), a gross misdemeanor, or a misdemeanor, and whose prior criminal history, if any, does not include any class A or B felony, more than two class C felonies, or more than one class C felony plus any series of misdemeanors and/or gross misdemeanors totalling three or more, or any series of misdemeanors and/or gross misdemeanors totalling four or more;

(14) "Offense" means an act designated a crime if committed by an adult under the law of this state, under any ordinance of any city or county of this state, under any federal law, or under the law of another state if the act occurred in that state;

(15) "Partial confinement" means confinement in a facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with the state of Washington or any city or county for a portion of each day or for a certain number of days each week with the balance of the days of the week spent under community supervision;

(16) "Respondent" means a juvenile who is alleged or proven to have committed an offense;

(17) "Restitution" means financial reimbursement by the offender to the victim, and shall be limited to easily ascertainable damages for injury to or loss of property, actual expenses incurred for medical treatment for physical injury to persons, and lost wages resulting from physical injury. Restitution shall not include reimbursement for damages for mental anguish, pain and suffering, or other intangible losses. Nothing in this chapter shall limit or replace civil remedies or defenses available to the victim or offender;

(18) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services;

(19) "Services" mean services which provide alternatives to incarceration for those juveniles who have pleaded or been adjudicated guilty of an offense or have signed a diversion agreement pursuant to this chapter; and

(20) "Shelter care" means temporary physical care in a foster family home or group care facility as defined in RCW 74.15.020 and licensed by the department, or other legally authorized care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. (1) The secretary shall propose to the legislature no later than November 1st of each even-numbered year disposition standards for all offenses. The standards shall establish, in accordance with the purposes of this chapter, ranges which may include terms of confinement and/or partial confinement and/or community supervision established on the basis of a youth's age, the instant offense, and the history and seriousness of previous offenses, but in no case shall the period of confinement and supervision exceed that to which an adult may be subjected for the same offense(s). Standards proposed for offenders listed in section 52(1) of this 1977 amendatory act shall include a range of confinement which shall not be less than thirty days. No standard range may include a period of confinement which includes both more than thirty, and thirty or less, days. Disposition standards proposed by the department shall provide that in all cases where a youth is sentenced to a term of confinement in excess of thirty days the department may impose an additional period of parole not to exceed eighteen months. Standards of confinement which may be proposed shall relate only to the length of the proposed terms and not to the nature of the security to be imposed. The secretary shall also submit guidelines pertaining to the nature of the security to be imposed on youth placed in his or her custody based on the age, offense(s), and criminal history of the juvenile offender. Such guidelines shall be submitted to the legislature for its review at the same time the department proposes its disposition standards.

(2) The legislature may adopt the proposed standards or refer the proposed standards to the secretary for modification. If the legislature fails to adopt or refer the proposed standards to the secretary by February 15th of the following year, the proposed standards shall take effect without legislative approval on July 1st of that year.

(3) If the legislature refers the proposed standards to the secretary for modification on or before February 15th, the secretary shall resubmit the proposed modifications to the legislature no later than March 1st. The legislature may adopt or modify the resubmitted proposed standards. If the legislature fails to adopt or modify the resubmitted proposed standards by April 1st, the resubmitted proposed standards shall take effect without legislative approval on July 1st of that year.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the secretary shall propose standards and submit guidelines to the legislature no later than November 1, 1977. The legislature shall consider the proposed standards and submitted guidelines during the following year in the manner prescribed by subsections (2) and (3) of this section. Such standards shall be in effect for the period July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979.

(5) Any term of confinement in excess of thirty days shall be served at a facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with the state of Washington.

(6) In developing and promulgating the permissible ranges of confinement under this section the secretary shall be subject to the following limitations:

(a) Where the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than fifty percent of the maximum term in the range;

(b) Where the maximum term in the range is greater than ninety days but not greater than one year, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

(c) Where the maximum term in the range is more than one year, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than eighty percent of the maximum term in the range.

(7) In developing and promulgating the permissible ranges of partial confinement under this section, the secretary shall be subject to the following limitations:

(a) Where the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than fifty percent of the maximum term in the range; and

(b) Where the maximum term in the range is greater than ninety days but not greater than one year, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. (1) A youth may be taken into custody:

(a) Pursuant to a court order if a complaint is filed with the court alleging, and the court finds probable cause to believe, that the youth has committed an offense or has violated terms of community supervision;

(b) Without a court order, by a law enforcement officer if grounds exist for the arrest of an adult in identical circumstances. Admission to, and continued custody in, a court detention facility shall be governed by subsection (2) of this section;

(c) Pursuant to a court order that the youth be held as a material witness; or

(d) Where the secretary or the secretary's designee has suspended the parole of a juvenile offender.

(2) A youth shall not be held in detention unless:

(a) The youth has been taken into custody and referred to the court for allegedly committing an offense or when the youth has allegedly failed, or has been found to have failed, to meet the terms of his or her community supervision, and that the youth's past conduct or statements give reason to believe that:

(i) The youth will likely fail to appear for further proceedings; or

(ii) Detention is required to protect a youth who is dangerous to himself or herself;

(b) The court has ordered detention as a material witness;

(c) The youth is a fugitive from justice;

(d) The secretary or the secretary's designee has suspended the early release of a juvenile offender;

(e) There is clear and convincing evidence that the youth is dangerous to others; or

(f) The youth will seek to intimidate witnesses or otherwise unlawfully interfere with the administration of justice.

(3) Upon a finding that members of the community have threatened the health of a youth taken into custody, at the youth's request the court may order continued detention pending further order of the court.

(4) A youth detained under this section may be released upon posting bond set by the court. A court authorizing such a release shall issue an order containing a statement of conditions imposed upon the youth and shall set the date of his or her next court appearance. The court shall advise the youth of any conditions specified in the order and may at any time amend such an order in order to impose additional or different conditions of release upon the youth or to return the youth to custody for failing to conform to the conditions imposed. Failure to appear on the date scheduled by the court pursuant to this section shall constitute the crime of bail jumping.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. (1) When a youth taken into custody is held in detention:

(a) An information shall be filed within seventy-two hours, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays excluded, or the youth shall be released; and

(b) A detention hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays excluded, from the time of filing the information, to determine whether continued detention is necessary under section 54 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) Written notice of the detention hearing, stating the time, place, and purpose of the hearing, and stating the right to counsel, shall be given to the parent, guardian, or custodian if such person can be found and shall also be given to the youth if over twelve years of age.

(3) At the commencement of the detention hearing, the court shall advise the parties of their rights under this chapter and shall appoint counsel as specified in this chapter.

(4) The court shall, based upon the allegations in the information, determine whether the case is properly before it or whether the case should be treated as a diversion case under section 58 of this 1977 amendatory act. If the case is not properly before the court the juvenile shall be ordered released.

(5) Notwithstanding a determination that the case is properly before the court and that probable cause exists, a child shall at the detention hearing be ordered released on the child's personal recognizance pending further hearing unless the court finds detention is necessary under section 54 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(6) If detention is not necessary under section 54 of this 1977 amendatory act the court shall impose the most appropriate of the following conditions or, if necessary, any combination of the following conditions:

(a) Place the child in the custody of a designated person agreeing to supervise such child;

(b) Place restrictions on the travel of the child during the period of release;

(c) Require the child to report regularly to and remain under the supervision of the juvenile court;

(d) Impose any condition other than detention deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required; or

(e) Require that the child return to detention during specified hours.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. (1) Proceedings under this chapter shall be commenced in the county where the child resides. However, proceedings may be commenced in the county where an element of the alleged criminal offense occurred if so requested by the child or by the prosecuting attorney of the county where the incident occurred.

(2) If the hearing takes place in the county where an element of the alleged criminal offense occurred, the case and copies of all legal and social documents pertaining thereto shall be transferred to the county where the child resides for a disposition hearing. All costs and arrangements for care and transportation of the child in custody shall be the responsibility of the receiving county as of the date of the transfer, unless the counties otherwise agree.

(3) The court upon motion of any party or upon its own motion may, at any time, transfer a proceeding to another juvenile court when:

(a) There is reason to believe that an impartial proceeding cannot be held in the county in which the proceeding was begun; or

(b) It appears that venue is incorrect under this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 57. (1) Complaints referred to the court alleging the commission of an offense shall be referred directly to the prosecutor. The prosecutor, upon receipt of a complaint, shall screen the complaint for legal sufficiency. The purpose of such screening shall be to determine whether:

(a) The alleged facts bring the case within the jurisdiction of the court; and

(b) On a basis of available evidence there is probable cause to believe that the youth did commit the offense.

(2) An information shall be a plain, concise, and definite written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and conform to chapter 10.37 RCW.

(3) If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed by a youth, the prosecutor shall file an information with the juvenile court if the alleged offender is one or more of the following:

(a) An alleged offender accused of a class A felony, an attempt to commit a class A felony, a class B felony, an attempt to commit a class B felony, assault in the third degree, rape in the third degree, or any other offense listed in section 52(1)(b) or (c) of this 1977 amendatory act; or

(b) An alleged offender with a criminal history of at least a class A or class B felony, or two class C felony offenses, or at least one class C felony offense and at least one misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, or at least two gross misdemeanors, or at least one gross misdemeanor and two misdemeanors, or at least three misdemeanors; or

(c) An alleged offender accused of violating his or her diversion agreement or who wishes to be prosecuted rather than enter into a diversion agreement or who has been referred by the diversion unit for prosecution.

(4) Whenever the alleged offender is an alleged offender listed in subsection (3) of this section, the prosecutor may file an information on any other criminal complaint regardless of whether or not the other offense is listed in subsection (3)(a) of this section. In lieu of filing an information, the prosecutor may file a motion to modify or revoke community supervision if a criminal complaint alleges a violation of a condition of community supervision.

(5) If an alleged offender does not fall within subsection (3) of this section, the prosecutor shall refer the complaint to the diversionary unit for the formation of a diversion agreement pursuant to section 58 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(6) Whenever a juvenile is placed in custody or, where not placed in custody, referred to a diversionary interview, the parent or legal guardian of the juvenile shall be notified as soon as possible concerning the allegation made against the juvenile and the current status of the juvenile.

(7) The responsibilities of the prosecutor under subsections (1) through (6) of this section may be performed by a juvenile court probation counselor for any complaint referred to the court alleging the commission of an offense which would not be a felony if committed by an adult, if the prosecutor has given sufficient written notice to the juvenile court that the prosecutor will not review such complaints.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. (1) A diversion agreement shall be a contract between a youth accused of an offense and a diversionary unit whereby the youth agrees to fulfill certain conditions in lieu of prosecution. Such agreements may be entered into only after the prosecutor has determined that probable cause exists to believe that a crime has been committed and that the juvenile committed it.

(2) A diversion agreement shall be limited to:

(a) Periods of community service not to exceed one hundred fifty hours, but if the youth is attending school, no community service shall be required during normal school hours;

(b) Restitution limited to the amount of actual loss incurred by the victim, and the youth shall be required to make restitution to the victim unless the youth does not have the means and could not acquire the means to do so;

(c) In assessing periods of community service to be performed and restitution to be paid by a youth who has entered into a diversion agreement, the court officer to whom this task is assigned shall to the extent possible involve members of the community. Such members of the community shall meet with the youth and advise the court officer as to the terms of the diversion agreement and shall supervise the youth in carrying out its terms; and

(d) A diversion agreement shall not exceed a period of six months for a misdemeanor or one year for a felony. Any restitution assessed during its term shall not exceed an amount which the youth could be reasonably expected to pay during this period. If additional time is necessary for the youth to complete restitution to the victim, the time period limitations of this subsection may be extended by an additional six months.

(3) The youth shall retain the right to be referred to the court at any time prior to the signing of the diversion agreement.

(4) Divertees and potential divertees shall be afforded due process in all contacts with a diversionary unit regardless of whether said youths are accepted for diversion or whether the diversion program is successfully completed. Such due process shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) A written diversion agreement shall be executed stating all conditions in clearly understandable language;

(b) Violation of the terms of the agreement shall be the only grounds for termination;

(c) No youth shall be terminated from a diversion program without being given a court hearing, which hearing shall be preceded by:

(i) Written notice of alleged violations of the conditions of the diversion program; and

(ii) Disclosure of all evidence to be offered against the youth;

(d) The hearing shall include:

(i) Opportunity to be heard in person and to present evidence;

(ii) The right to confront and cross-examine all adverse witnesses;

(iii) A written statement by the court as to the evidence relied on and the reasons for termination, should that be the decision; and

(iv) Demonstration by evidence that the diverted youth has substantially violated the terms of his or her diversion agreement.

(5) The diversion unit shall be responsible for advising a youth of his or her rights as provided in this chapter.

(6) The right to counsel shall inure prior to the initial interview for purposes of advising the youth as to whether he or she desires to participate in the diversion process or to appear in the juvenile court. The youth may be represented by counsel at any critical stage of the diversion process, including intake interviews and termination hearings. The youth shall be fully advised at the intake of his or her right to an attorney and of the relevant services an attorney can provide. For the purpose of this section, intake interviews shall mean all interviews regarding the diversion agreement process.

The youth shall be advised that a diversion agreement shall constitute a part of the youth's criminal history as defined by section 52(6) of this 1977 amendatory act. A signed acknowledgement of such advisement shall be obtained from the youth, and the document shall be maintained by the diversionary unit together with the diversion agreement, and a copy of both documents shall be delivered to the prosecutor if requested by the prosecutor. The supreme court shall promulgate rules setting forth the content of such advisement in simple language.

(7) When a youth enters into a diversion agreement, the juvenile court may receive only the following information for dispositional purposes:

- (a) The fact that a charge or charges were made;
- (b) The fact that a diversion agreement was entered into;
- (c) The youth's obligations under such agreement;
- (d) Whether the alleged offender performed his or her obligations under such agreement; and
- (e) The facts of the alleged offense.

(8) A diversionary unit may refuse to enter into a diversion agreement with a youth. It shall immediately refer such youth to the court for action and shall forward to the court the criminal complaint and a detailed statement of its reasons for refusing to enter into a diversion agreement. The diversionary unit shall also immediately refer the case to the prosecuting attorney for action if such youth fails to make restitution or perform community service as required by the diversion agreement.

(9) A diversionary unit may, in instances where it determines that the act or omission of an act for which a youth has been referred to it involved no victim, or where it determines that the youth referred to it has no prior criminal history and is alleged to have committed an illegal act involving no threat of or instance of actual physical harm and involving not more than fifty dollars in property loss or damage and that there is no loss outstanding to the person or firm suffering such damage or loss, counsel and release or release such a youth without entering into a diversion agreement: PROVIDED, That any youth so handled shall be advised that the act or omission of any act for which he or she had been referred shall constitute a part of the youth's criminal history as defined by section 52(6) of this 1977 amendatory act. A signed acknowledgment of such advisement shall be obtained from the youth and the document shall be maintained by the unit and a copy of the document shall be delivered to the prosecutor if requested by the prosecutor. The supreme court shall promulgate rules setting forth the content of such advisement in simple language: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a youth determined to be eligible by a diversionary unit for such release shall retain the same right to counsel and right to have his or her case referred to the court for formal action as any other youth referred to the unit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. The county prosecuting attorney shall be a party to all juvenile court proceedings involving juvenile offenders or alleged juvenile offenders.

The prosecuting attorney may, after giving appropriate notice to the juvenile court, decline to represent the state of Washington in juvenile court matters except felonies unless requested by the court on an individual basis to represent the state at an adjudicatory hearing in which case he or she shall participate. When the prosecutor declines to represent the state, then such function may be performed by the juvenile court probation counselor authorized by the court or local court rule to serve as the prosecuting authority.

If the prosecuting attorney elects not to participate, the prosecuting attorney shall file with the county clerk each year by the first Monday in July notice of intent not to participate. In a county wherein the prosecuting attorney has elected not to participate in juvenile court, he or she shall not thereafter until the next filing date participate in juvenile court proceedings unless so requested by the court on an individual basis, in which case the prosecuting attorney shall participate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. (1) Upon the filing of an information, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons directed to the child, if the child is twelve or more years of age, and another to the parents, guardian, or custodian, and such other persons as appear to the court to be proper or necessary parties to the proceedings, requiring them to appear personally before the court at the time fixed to hear the petition. Where the custodian is summoned, the parent or guardian or both shall also be served with a summons.

(2) A copy of the information shall be attached to each summons.

(3) The summons shall advise the parties of the right to counsel.

(4) The judge may endorse upon the summons an order directing the parents, guardian, or custodian having the custody or control of the child to bring the child to the hearing.

(5) If it appears from affidavit or sworn statement presented to the judge that there is probable cause for the issuance of a warrant of arrest or that the child needs to be taken into custody pursuant to section 32 of this 1977 amendatory act the judge may endorse upon the summons an order that an officer serving the summons shall at once take the child into custody and take the child to the place of detention or shelter designated by the court.

(6) If a party to be served with a summons can be found within the state, the summons shall be served upon the party personally at least five court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court. If the party is within the state and cannot be personally served, but the party's address is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, the summons may be served upon the party by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail at least ten court days before the hearing, or such time as set by the court. If a party other than the child is without the state but can be found or the party's address is known, or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, service of the summons may be made either by delivering a copy thereof to the party personally or by mailing a copy thereof to the party by certified mail at least ten court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court.

(7) Service of summons may be made under the direction of the court by any law enforcement officer or probation counselor.

(8) If the person summoned as herein provided shall fail without reasonable cause to appear and abide the order of the court, the person may be proceeded against as for contempt of court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. (1) The prosecutor, respondent, or the court on its own motion may, before a hearing on the information on its merits, file a motion requesting the court to transfer the respondent for adult criminal prosecution and the matter shall be set for a hearing on the question of declining jurisdiction. Unless waived by the court, the parties, and their counsel, a decline hearing shall be held where:

(a) The respondent is sixteen or seventeen years of age and the petition alleges a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony; or

(b) The respondent is seventeen years of age and the petition alleges assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, indecent liberties, kidnaping in the second degree, rape in the second degree, or robbery in the second degree.

(2) The court after a decline hearing may order the case transferred for adult criminal prosecution upon a finding that the declination would be in the best interest of the juvenile or the public. The court shall consider the relevant reports, facts, opinions, and arguments presented by the parties and their counsel.

(3) When the respondent is transferred for criminal prosecution or retained for prosecution in juvenile court, the court shall set forth in writing its finding which shall be supported by relevant facts and opinions produced at the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. The court shall hold an adjudicatory hearing on the information, and, after it has announced its findings of fact and its verdict, shall hold a hearing to consider disposition of the case pursuant to sections 65 and 66 of this 1977 amendatory act immediately following the adjudicatory hearing or at a continued hearing within fourteen days unless good cause is shown for a further continuance. Notice of the time and place of the continued hearing may be given in open court. If notice is not given in open court to a party, that party shall be notified by mail of the time and place of any continued hearing.

All hearings may be conducted at any time or place within the limits of the county, and such cases shall not be heard in conjunction with other business of any other division of the superior court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. (1) The respondent shall be advised of the allegations in the information and shall be required to plead guilty or not guilty to the allegation(s). The state or the respondent may make preliminary motions up to the time of the plea.

(2) If the respondent pleads guilty, the court may proceed with disposition or may continue the case for a dispositional hearing. If the respondent denies guilt, a hearing date shall be set.

(3) At the adjudicatory hearing it shall be the burden of the prosecution to prove the allegations of the information beyond a reasonable doubt.

(4) The court shall record its findings of fact and shall enter its verdict upon the record. Such findings shall set forth the evidence relied upon by the court in reaching its verdict.

(5) If the respondent is found not guilty he or she shall be released from detention.

(6) If the respondent is found guilty the court may immediately proceed to disposition or may continue the case for a dispositional hearing.

(7) In sentencing an offender, the court shall use the disposition standards in effect on the date of the offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. (1) A youth shall be advised of his or her rights when appearing before the court.

(2) A youth and his or her parent, guardian, or custodian shall be advised by the court or its representative that the youth has a right to be represented by counsel at all critical stages of the proceedings. Unless waived, counsel shall be provided to a youth, who is financially unable to obtain counsel without causing substantial hardship to himself or herself or the youth's family, in any proceeding where the youth may be subject to transfer for criminal prosecution, or in any proceeding where the youth may be in danger of confinement or partial confinement. The ability to pay part of the cost of counsel shall not preclude assignment. In no case shall a youth be deprived of counsel because of a parent, guardian, or custodian refusing to pay therefor. The youth shall be fully advised of his or her right to an attorney and of the relevant services an attorney can provide.

(3) The right to counsel shall include the right to the appointment of experts necessary and the experts shall be required pursuant to the procedures and requirements established by the supreme court.

(4) Upon application of a party, the clerk of the court shall issue, and the court on its own motion may issue, subpoenas requiring attendance and testimony of witnesses and production of records, documents, or other tangible objects at any hearing, or such subpoenas may be issued by an attorney of record.

(5) All proceedings shall be transcribed verbatim by means which will provide an accurate record.

(6) The general public and press shall be permitted to attend any hearing unless the court, for good cause, orders a particular hearing to be closed. The presumption shall be that all such hearings will be open.

(7) In all adjudicatory proceedings before the court, all parties shall have the right to adequate notice, discovery as provided in criminal cases, opportunity to be heard, confrontation of witnesses except in such cases as this chapter expressly permits the use of hearsay testimony, findings based solely upon the evidence adduced at the hearing, and an unbiased fact-finder.

(8) A juvenile shall be accorded the privilege against self-incrimination. An extra judicial statement which would be constitutionally inadmissible in a criminal proceeding shall not be received in evidence at an adjudicatory hearing over objection. Evidence illegally seized or obtained shall not be received in evidence over objection at an adjudicatory hearing to prove the allegations against the child. An extra judicial admission or confession made by the child out of court is insufficient to support a finding that the child committed the acts alleged in the information unless a corpus delicti is first established.

(9) Waiver of any right which a child has under this chapter must be an express waiver intelligently made by the child after the child has been fully informed of the right being waived.

(10) Whenever this chapter refers to waiver or objection by a child, the word child shall be construed to refer to a child who is at least twelve years of age. If a child is under twelve years of age, the child's parent, guardian, or custodian shall give any waiver or offer any objection contemplated by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. (1) In disposition hearings all relevant and material evidence, including oral and written reports, may be received by the court and may be relied upon to the extent of its probative value, even though such evidence may not be admissible in a hearing on the information. The youth or the youth's counsel shall be afforded an opportunity to examine and controvert written reports so received and to cross-examine individuals making reports when such individuals are reasonably available, but sources of confidential information need not be disclosed. The prosecutor and counsel for the juvenile may submit recommendations for disposition.

(2) Before entering a dispositional order as to a respondent found to have committed an offense, the court shall hold a disposition hearing, at which the court shall:

(a) Consider the facts supporting the allegations of criminal conduct by the respondent;

(b) Consider information and arguments offered by parties and their counsel;

(c) Consider any predisposition reports;

(d) Afford the respondent and the respondent's parent, guardian, or custodian an opportunity to speak in the respondent's behalf;

(e) Allow the victim or a representative of the victim and an investigative law enforcement officer to speak;

(f) Determine the amount of restitution owing to the victim, if any;

(g) Determine whether the respondent is a serious offender or a minor or first offender;

(h) Consider whether or not any of the following mitigating factors exist:

(i) The respondent's conduct neither caused nor threatened serious bodily injury or the respondent did not contemplate that his or her conduct would cause or threaten serious bodily injury;

(ii) The respondent acted under strong and immediate provocation;

(iii) The respondent was suffering from a mental or physical condition that significantly reduced his or her culpability for the offense though failing to establish a defense;

(iv) Prior to his or her detection, the respondent compensated or made a good faith attempt to compensate the victim for the injury or loss sustained; and

(v) There has been at least one year between the respondent's current offense and any prior criminal offense;

(i) Consider whether or not any of the following aggravating factors exist:

(i) In the commission of the offense, or in flight therefrom, the respondent inflicted or attempted to inflict serious bodily injury to another;

(ii) The offense was committed in an especially heinous, cruel, or depraved manner;

(iii) The victim or victims were particularly vulnerable;

(iv) The respondent has a recent criminal history or has failed to comply with conditions of a recent dispositional order or diversion agreement; and

(v) The respondent was the leader of a criminal enterprise involving several persons;

(j) A court shall not commit a youth to a state institution solely because of the lack of facilities, including treatment facilities, existing in the community.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. (1) When the respondent is found to be a serious offender, the court shall commit the offender to the department for a determinate sentence consisting of the standard range of disposition for the offense.

If the court finds that a disposition within the standard range would effectuate a manifest injustice, the court may impose a disposition outside the range but only after it enters reasons upon which it bases its conclusion that disposition within the standard range would effectuate a manifest injustice. A disposition imposed outside a standard range is appealable under section 72 of this 1977 amendatory act by the state or the respondent. A disposition within the standard range is not appealable under section 72 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) Where the respondent is found to be a minor or first offender, the court shall order that the respondent serve a term of community supervision. If the court determines that a disposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice the court may impose another disposition. A disposition other than a community supervision shall be imposed only after the court enters reasons upon which it bases its conclusions that imposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice. Any disposition other than community supervision may be appealed as provided in section 72 of this 1977 amendatory act by the state or the respondent. A disposition of community supervision may not be appealed under section 72 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(3) A juvenile appearing before the court for formal disposition who has declined to enter into a diversion agreement and who would otherwise be so entitled shall, if determined to be a first or minor offender, be referred to a diversionary unit under the supervision of which such youth may only be required to perform the term of community service and, where there is a victim, shall be required to make restitution under the limits specified in this chapter.

(4) Where the respondent is found to have committed an offense and is neither a serious offender nor a minor or first offender, consistent with the purposes of this chapter the court shall: (a)(i) Where the appropriate standard range includes a period of confinement exceeding thirty days, sentence the offender to the department for a term consisting of the appropriate standard range, or (ii) where the appropriate standard range does not include a period of confinement exceeding thirty days, sentence the offender to a determinate term within the appropriate standard range in which case the court shall consider only those aggravating and mitigating factors set forth in section 65 of this 1977 amendatory act and shall state its reasons for selecting the particular punishment imposed, or (b) shall impose a term of community supervision. If the court sentencing pursuant to subsection (a)(i) or (ii) of this section finds that a disposition within the standard range would effectuate a manifest injustice, it may impose a disposition other than community supervision outside the range but only after it enters reasons upon which it bases its conclusion that disposition within the standard range would effectuate a manifest injustice. A disposition so imposed outside the standard range may be appealed as provided in section 72 of this 1977 amendatory act by the state or the respondent. A disposition within the standard range or of community supervision shall not be appealable under section 72 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(5) A court may require a juvenile offender to serve a period of partial confinement not to exceed thirty days or a period of confinement not to exceed the minimum period of confinement included within the standard range for the offense(s) for which he or she was found guilty, but in no case to exceed thirty days: PROVIDED, That such periods of partial confinement and confinement may be required only of youthful offenders who are: (a) Not sentenced to a sentence within a range established by the legislature; (b) not committed to the department; (c) not first and minor offenders; and (d) are serving terms of community supervision: PROVIDED FURTHER, That all such terms of partial confinement and confinement shall be served in a facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with a county or city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. Where a disposition is imposed on a youth for two or more offenses, the terms shall run consecutively, subject to the following limitations: (1) Where the offenses were committed through a single act or omission, or through an act or omission which in itself constituted one of the offenses and also was an element of the other, the aggregate of all the terms shall not exceed one hundred fifty percent of the term imposed for the most serious offense; and (2) in all other cases, the aggregate of all consecutive terms shall not exceed three hundred percent of the term imposed for the most serious offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. (1) In its dispositional order, the court shall require the respondent to make restitution to any persons who have suffered loss or damage as a result of the offense committed by the respondent. The payment of restitution shall be in addition to any punishment which is imposed pursuant to the other provisions of this chapter. The court may determine the amount, terms, and conditions of the restitution. If the respondent participated in the crime with another person or other persons, all such participants shall be jointly and severally responsible for the payment of restitution: PROVIDED, That the court shall not require the respondent to pay full or partial restitution if the respondent reasonably satisfies the court that he or she does not have the means to make full or partial restitution and could not reasonably acquire the means to pay such restitution.

(2) When a respondent who has been ordered by a court to pay a fine or restitution, or to perform service for the public good fails to fulfill that order, the court upon the motion of the prosecutor or upon its own motion, shall require the respondent to show cause why the respondent should not be confined in a detention facility for nonfulfillment. The court may issue a summons or a warrant for arrest to compel the respondent's appearance.

(3) The respondent shall have the burden of showing that the nonpayment or nonfulfillment was not a wilful refusal and that he or she did not have the means and could not reasonably acquire the means to pay the fine or restitution or to perform the service for the public good. If the court finds that the default was wilful, it may order the youth detained in a county facility for one day for each twenty-five dollars of restitution on which the youth wilfully defaulted or may order the youth detained in a county facility for one day for each eight hours of community service on which the youth wilfully defaulted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. Consistent with the purposes of this chapter, if the respondent violates a condition of his or her community supervision, community supervision may be revoked or modified and further permissible punishment imposed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. Such punishment may include a period of confinement and/or partial confinement in a county facility not to exceed thirty days. Community supervision may only be revoked or modified upon the same due process as would be afforded an adult alleged probation violator. Except as provided in section 68 of this 1977 amendatory act, however, a youth found to be a minor or first offender and sentenced to a term of community supervision may not be committed to a term of confinement or partial confinement on the basis of violating a term of his or her community supervision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. (1) The secretary shall, except in the case of a youth committed by a court to a term of confinement in a state institution outside the appropriate standard range for the offense(s) for which the youth was found to be guilty established pursuant to section 53 of this 1977 amendatory act, set a release or discharge date for each youth committed to its custody which shall be within the prescribed range to which a youth has been committed. Such dates shall be determined prior to the expiration of sixty percent of a youth's minimum term of confinement included within the prescribed range to which the youth has been committed.

(2) Following the youth's release pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the secretary may require the youth to comply with a program of parole to be administered by the department in his or her community which shall last no longer than eighteen months. The secretary shall, for the period of parole, facilitate the youth's reintegration into his or her community and to further this goal may require the youth to: (a) Undergo available medical or psychiatric treatment; (b) report as directed to a parole officer; (c) pursue a course of study or vocational training; (d) remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the department of any change in his or her address; and (e) refrain from committing new offenses. After termination of the parole period, the youth shall be discharged from the department's supervision.

(3) The department may also revoke or modify parole for violation thereof. If, after affording a youth all of the due process rights to which he or she would be entitled if the youth were an adult, the secretary finds that a youth has violated a condition of his or her parole, the secretary shall order one of the following which is reasonably likely to effectuate the purpose of the parole and to protect the public: (a) Continued supervision under the same conditions previously imposed; (b) intensified supervision with increased reporting requirements; (c) additional conditions of supervision authorized by this chapter; and (d) imposition of a period of partial confinement not to exceed thirty days.

(4) A parole officer of the department of social and health services shall have the power to arrest a juvenile under his or her supervision on the same grounds as a law enforcement officer would be authorized to arrest such person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. Whenever legal custody of a child is vested in someone other than his or her parents, after due notice to the parents or other persons legally obligated to care for and support the child, and after a hearing, the court may order and decree that the parent or other legally obligated person shall pay in such a manner as the court may direct a reasonable sum representing in whole or in part the costs of support, treatment, and confinement of the child after the decree is entered. If the parent or other legally obligated person wilfully fails or refuses to pay such sum, the court may proceed against such person for contempt.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. (1) Dispositions reviewed pursuant to section 66 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be reviewed in the appropriate division of the court of appeals.

An appeal under this section shall be heard solely upon the record that was before the disposition court. No written briefs shall be required and the appeal shall be heard within thirty days following the date of sentencing and a decision rendered within fifteen days following the argument. The supreme court shall promulgate any necessary rules to effectuate the purposes of this section.

(2) To uphold a disposition outside the standard range, or which imposes confinement for a minor or first offender, the court of appeals must find (a) that the reasons supplied by the disposition judge are supported by the record which was before the judge and that those reasons clearly and convincingly support the conclusion that a disposition within the range, or nonconfinement for a minor or first offender, would constitute a manifest injustice, and (b) that the sentence imposed was neither clearly excessive nor clearly too lenient.

(3) If the court does not find subsection 2(a) of this section it shall remand the case for disposition within the standard range or for community supervision without confinement as would otherwise be appropriate pursuant to this chapter.

(4) If the court finds subsection 2(a) but not subsection 2(b) of this section it shall remand the case with instructions for further proceedings consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(5) Pending appeal, a respondent shall not be committed or detained for a period of time in excess of the standard range for the offense(s) committed and shall not be detained if a first or minor offender: PROVIDED, That if the order of the disposition court is below the standard range, the respondent shall be committed or detained for no longer than the term set by the disposition court.

(6) Dispositions imposed by the disposition court shall not be final until either the deadline for appeal pursuant to state law or supreme court rule has passed without an appeal being taken, or the court of appeals has issued its decision on the appeal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. All references to juvenile delinquents or juvenile delinquency in other chapters of the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed as meaning juvenile offenders or the commitment of an offense by juveniles as defined by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. (1) There is appropriated for the period July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979, from the general fund nine hundred eighty-three thousand six hundred dollars to be allocated to counties for the cost of operating diversion units as required by this chapter.

(2) The secretary shall administer the funds and shall promulgate, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, rules establishing a planning process and standards which meet the intent of this chapter. The secretary shall also monitor and evaluate, against established standards, all programs and services funded by this appropriation.

(3) The total sum shall be allocated by the secretary to the counties. Diversion units funded by this section shall be administered and operated separately from the court: PROVIDED, That counties of classes other than AA and A may request for an exemption from this requirement. The secretary may grant such exemption if it is clearly demonstrated that resources do not exist nor can be established in such county to operate diversion units separately from the court.

(4) In meeting the requirements of this chapter, there shall be a maintenance of effort whereby counties shall exhaust existing resources prior to the utilization of funds appropriated by this section.

(5) It is the intent of the legislature that these funds shall be the maximum amount necessary to meet the requirement of this chapter for the stated period. Courts shall be required to provide diversion programs and services to the extent made possible by available sources. In addressing diverted youths, a resource priority continuum shall be developed whereby the highest priority in resource allocation shall be given to diverted youths who have inflicted bodily harm while the lowest priority shall be given to diverting youths who have committed victimless crimes or minor property offenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 75. Sections 51 through 73 of this 1977 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 13 RCW. RCW 13.04.260 is hereby decodified and shall be recodified as part of that new chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 160, Laws of 1913, section 1, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.010;
- (2) Section 2, chapter 302, Laws of 1961, section 1, chapter 101, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 13.04.053;
- (3) Section 3, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.056;
- (4) Section 6, chapter 302, Laws of 1961, section 1, chapter 137, Laws of 1967, section 2, chapter 71, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 13.04.095;
- (5) Section 9, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 and RCW 13.04.110;
- (6) Section 12, chapter 160, Laws of 1913, section 1, chapter 132, Laws of 1945, section 1, chapter 58, Laws of 1959 and RCW 13.04.120;
- (7) Section 14, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 and RCW 13.04.140;
- (8) Section 1, chapter 116, Laws of 1953 and RCW 13.04.170;
- (9) Section 10, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.190;
- (10) Section 4, chapter 297, Laws of 1957, section 2, chapter 251, Laws of 1959, section 12, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.200;
- (11) Section 13, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.210;
- (12) Section 14, chapter 302, Laws of 1961, section 54, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 13.04.220;
- (13) Section 15, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.230; and
- (14) Section 1, chapter 93, Laws of 1967 and RCW 13.04.250.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. Section 53 of this 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1977. The remainder of this 1977 amendatory act shall take effect on July 1, 1978."

On page 1, on line 1 of the title after "juveniles;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 2, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 1, chapter 65, Laws of 1937 and RCW 13.04.030; amending section 3, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 9, chapter 331, Laws of 1959 and RCW 13.04.040; amending section 3, chapter 30, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 71, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 74.13.020; amending section 17, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 4, chapter 71, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 74.13.031; amending section 5, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 and RCW 13.04.060; amending section 6, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 and RCW 13.04.070; amending section 7, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as amended by section 4, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.080; amending section 5, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.091; amending section 15, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 and RCW 13.04.150; amending section 8, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 13.04.100; amending section 1, chapter 188, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 8, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.105; amending section 5, chapter 13, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 5, chapter 217, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.44.050; amending section 28A.27.070, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.27.070; adding new chapters to Title 13 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 13.04 RCW; creating new sections; repealing section 1, chapter 160, Laws of 1913, section 1, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 and RCW 13.04.010; repealing section 2, chapter 302, Laws of 1961, section 1, chapter

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Marsh, Vice Chairman; Buffington, Hayner, Jones, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Rasmussen moved Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill No. 371, together with the committee amendment moved for adoption by Senator Francis, be held on the second reading calendar for June 1, 1977.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, if we are going to hold this to tomorrow, I would like to raise the question of scope and object as well. The bill that came over from the House was just a bill dealing with delinquency. The Senate amendment changed that substantially and hung on provisions dealing generally with children—or juveniles. It also deals with abused and neglected children. It deals with families in conflict. It deals with the press, whether or not the press can be at these trials. There are a lot of questions in there, and I do not believe that that bill is sufficiently broad to include all of these things. As a matter of fact, there is even a provision at the end of it to change the title amendment, so I would raise the question of scope and object."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Mr. Chairman, in response to the issue of scope and object, number one, since this is a complicated area, I would not mind at all if you reserve your decision upon that objection until tomorrow.

"I would also state however, that the entire amendment deals with children and both as to whether they are dependents or delinquents, and in juvenile court they do not treat these people at the present time differently. They house them the same place. They deal with them in the same manner so far as due process and trial. There is absolutely no difference at the present time nor under the amendment that we have right now in a sense of how the court handles children."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried. Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill No. 371 was ordered held for the second reading calendar on June 1, 1977.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 866.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Murray was excused.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 866, by Committee on Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Sommers, Blair, Shinpoch, Wilson, Patterson, Hansen, Gilleland and Charnley):

Establishing a revised teachers' retirement system.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 16, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 866, establishing a revised teachers' retirement system (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. APPLICATION TO CERTAIN PERSONS. Sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act shall, on or after July 1, 1977, apply only to:

- (1) Those persons who are initially employed by an employer; or
- (2) Those members who have transferred pursuant to section 15 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. COMPUTATION OF THE RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE. A member of the retirement system shall receive a retirement allowance equal to one and one-half percent of such member's average final compensation for each year of service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. RETIREMENT FOR SERVICE. (1) NORMAL RETIREMENT. Any member with five or more years of service who has attained at least age sixty-five shall be eligible to retire and to receive a retirement allowance computed according to the provisions of section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) EARLY RETIREMENT. Any member who has completed at least five years of service and attained age sixty-two shall be eligible to retire and to receive a retirement allowance computed according to the provisions of section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, except that a member retiring pursuant to this subsection shall have the retirement allowance actuarially reduced to reflect the difference in the number of years between age at retirement and the attainment of age sixty-five.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. POST-RETIREMENT COST-OF-LIVING. Beginning July 1, 1979, and every year thereafter, the department shall determine the following information for each retired member or beneficiary whose retirement allowance has been in effect for at least one year:

- (1) The original dollar amount of the retirement allowance;
- (2) The index for the calendar year prior to the effective date of the retirement allowance, to be known as "index A";
- (3) The index for the calendar year prior to the date of determination, to be known as "index B"; and
- (4) The percentage amount when index B is divided by index A.

The percentage obtained, if any, shall be the annual adjustment to the original retirement allowance and shall be applied beginning with the July payment. In no event, however, shall the annual adjustment:

- (a) Produce a retirement allowance which is lower than the original retirement allowance;
- (b) Exceed six percent in the initial annual adjustment; or
- (c) Differ from the previous year's annual adjustment by more than six percent.

For the purposes of this section, "index" means, for any calendar year, that year's average consumer price index—Seattle, Washington area for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items, compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. EMPLOYER AND MEMBER CONTRIBUTIONS. The required contribution rates to the retirement system for both members and employers shall be established by the director from time to time as may be necessary upon the advice of the state actuary; PROVIDED, That the employer contribution shall be contributed as provided in RCW 41.32.401.

Contribution rates required to fund the costs of the retirement system shall always be equal for members and employers, except as herein provided. Any adjustments in contribution rates required from time to time for future costs shall likewise be shared equally by the members and employers: PROVIDED, That the cost of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of that portion of the retirement system, as in effect on June 30, 1977, shall be borne in full by the employers.

The director shall notify the retirement board of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate and such increase shall be announced at a board meeting held at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.

Members contributions required by this section shall be deducted from the members earnable compensation each payroll period. The members contribution and the employers contribution shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends.

Until such time as the director shall establish other rates, members and employers of such members shall each contribute four and eight-tenths percent of earnable compensation: PROVIDED, That employers shall initially contribute an additional five and eight-tenths percent of earnable compensation per member to fund the cost of amortizing that portion of the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system as in effect on June 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. OPTIONS FOR PAYMENT OF RETIREMENT ALLOWANCES. Upon retirement for service as prescribed in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, a member shall elect to have the retirement allowance paid pursuant to Option 1, 2, or 3 with Options 2 and 3 calculated so as to be actuarially equivalent to Option 1.

(1) OPTION 1. A member electing this option shall receive a retirement allowance payable throughout such member's life. However, if the retiree dies before the total of the retirement allowance paid to such retiree equals the amount of such retiree's accumulated contributions at the time of retirement, then the balance shall be paid to such person or persons having an insurable interest in the retiree's life as the retiree shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department; or if there be no such designated person or persons still living at the time of the retiree's death, then to the surviving spouse; or if there be neither such designated person or persons still living at the time of death nor a surviving spouse, then to the retiree's legal representative.

(2) OPTION 2. A member who elects this option shall receive a reduced retirement allowance, which upon the member's death shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person having an insurable interest in the retiree's life as the retiree shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department at the time of the retiree's retirement.

(3) OPTION 3. A member who elects this option shall receive a reduced retirement allowance, and upon the member's death one-half of the retiree's reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person having an insurable interest in the retiree's life as the retiree shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department at the time of the retiree's retirement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. DISABILITY. Members of the retirement system shall receive disability benefits pursuant to Title 51 RCW and insurance benefits provided in whole or in part by employers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. APPLICATION FOR AND EFFECTIVE DATE OF RETIREMENT ALLOWANCES. Any member or beneficiary eligible to receive a retirement allowance under the provisions of sections 3 or 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be eligible to commence receiving a retirement allowance after having filed written application with the department.

(1) Retirement allowances paid to members under the provisions of section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following such member's separation from employment.

(2) Retirement allowances paid to vested members no longer in service, but qualifying for such an allowance pursuant to section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following such qualification.

(3) Retirement allowances paid as death benefits under the provisions of section 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following the member's death.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. SUSPENSION OF RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE UPON EMPLOYMENT. No retiree under the provisions of sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be eligible to receive such retiree's monthly retirement allowance if such retiree enters service for any nonfederal public employer in this state.

Upon cessation of service for any nonfederal public employer in this state such retiree shall have benefits actuarially recomputed pursuant to the rules adopted by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. DEATH BENEFITS. (1) Upon the death of a member who is not eligible for a retirement allowance pursuant to section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, the amount of the accumulated contributions standing to such member's credit in the retirement system at the time of such member's death shall be paid to such person or persons having an insurable interest in such member's life as the member shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department. If there be no such designated person or persons still living at the time of the member's death, such member's accumulated contributions standing to such member's credit in the retirement system shall be paid to the member's surviving spouse as if in fact such spouse had been nominated by written designation, or if there be no such surviving spouse, then to such member's legal representatives.

(2) Upon the death of a member who is eligible for retirement the surviving spouse or eligible child or children shall elect to receive either:

(a) A retirement allowance computed as provided for in section 3(1) of this 1977 amendatory act actuarially adjusted to reflect Option 2 of section 6 of this 1977 amendatory act and if the member was not eligible for normal retirement at the date of death a further reduction as described in section 3(2) of this 1977 amendatory act. If a surviving spouse who is receiving a retirement allowance dies leaving a child or children of the member under the age of majority, then such child or children shall continue to receive an allowance in an amount equal to that which was being received by the surviving spouse, share and share alike, until such child or children reach the age of majority. If there is no surviving spouse eligible to receive an allowance at the time of the member's death, such member's child or children under the age of majority shall receive an allowance, share and share, alike calculated as herein provided making the assumption that the ages of the spouse and member were equal at the time of the member's death; or

(b) The member's accumulated contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. SERVICE CREDIT FOR AUTHORIZED LEAVE OF ABSENCE. A member who is on a paid leave of absence authorized by a member's employer shall continue to receive service credit as provided for under the provisions of sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act.

A member shall be eligible to receive a maximum of two years service credit during a member's entire working career for those periods when a member is on an unpaid leave of absence authorized by an employer. Such credit may be obtained only if the member makes both the employer and member contributions plus interest as determined by the department for the period of the authorized leave of absence within five years of resumption of service or prior to retirement whichever comes sooner. The contributions required shall be based on the average of the member's compensation earnable at both the time the authorized leave of absence was granted and the time the member resumed employment.

A member who is inducted into the armed forces of the United States shall be deemed to be on an unpaid authorized leave of absence and may receive up to two years of service credit upon compliance with the conditions imposed by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. VESTED MEMBERSHIP. A member who separates or has separated after having completed at least five years of service may remain a member during the period of such member's absence from service for the exclusive purpose only of receiving a retirement allowance under the provisions of section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act if such member maintains the member's accumulated contributions intact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. REFUND OF CONTRIBUTIONS. A member who ceases to be an employee of an employer may request a refund of the member's accumulated contributions. The refund shall be made within ninety days following the receipt of the request and notification of termination by the employer; except that in the case of death, initial payment shall be made within thirty days of receipt of request for such payment. A member who files a request for refund and subsequently enters into employment with another employer prior to the refund being made shall not be eligible for a refund. The refund of accumulated contributions shall terminate all rights to benefits under the provisions of sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. REENTRY. A member, who as a previous member had left service and withdrawn the member's accumulated contributions, shall receive service credit for such prior service if the member restores the lesser of:

(1) All withdrawn accumulated contributions together with interest since the time of withdrawal as determined by the department; or

(2) The contributions which would have been required for such service pursuant to section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act plus interest thereon as determined by the department.

The restoration of such funds must be completed within five years of the resumption of service or prior to retirement, whichever occurs first.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. TRANSFER. (1) Members of the system who established membership on or before June 30, 1977, may irrevocably elect to be covered by sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act. Such election shall be held pursuant to rules adopted by the department.

(2) Upon electing to be governed by sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act, the member shall:

(a) Be subject to the membership provisions and benefit accrual provided for in sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act; and

(b) Receive a refund of that portion of accumulated member contributions that represents the difference between the contribution required by section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act and RCW 41.32.350.

(3) The department shall provide each member eligible to make the election under this section with information which:

(a) Notifies the member of the election provision;

(b) Provides a comparison of system benefits; and

(c) Describes the potential refund available.

(4) The provisions of this section shall terminate on June 30, 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. DUTIES OF PAYROLL OFFICER. The person responsible for making up the payroll shall transmit promptly to the department at the end of each and every payroll period, or other period designated by the director, a copy of the original payroll voucher or such other payroll report as the department may require showing thereon all deductions for contributions for the teachers' retirement system made from the earnable compensation of a member of the teachers' retirement system. Warrants or checks covering the total of such deductions shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends. The department shall place such moneys into the proper funds established in this chapter.

Sec. 17. Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 149, chapter 275, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1) (a) "Accumulated contributions" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means the sum of all regular annuity contributions with regular interest thereon less cost of operation.

(b) "Accumulated contributions" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means the sum of all contributions standing to the credit of a member in the member's individual account together with the regular interest thereon.

(2) "Actuarial equivalent" means a benefit of equal value when computed upon the basis of such mortality tables and regulations as shall be adopted by the board of trustees and regular interest.

(3) "Annuity" means the moneys payable per year during life by reason of accumulated contributions of a member.

(4) "Annuity fund" means the fund in which all of the accumulated contributions of members are held.

(5) "Annuity reserve fund" means the fund to which all accumulated contributions are transferred upon retirement.

(6) (a) "Beneficiary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided for by the teachers' retirement law.

(b) "Beneficiary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided by this chapter resulting from service rendered to an employer by another person.

(7) "Contract" means any agreement for service and compensation between a member and an employer.

(8) "Creditable service" means membership service plus prior service for which credit is allowable. This subsection shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

(9) "Dependent" means receiving one-half or more of support from a member.

(10) "Disability allowance" means monthly payments during disability. This subsection shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

(11) (a) "Earnable compensation" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means all salaries and wages paid by an employer to an employee member of the retirement system for personal services rendered (~~during a fiscal year~~). In all cases where compensation includes maintenance the (~~board of trustees~~) director shall fix the value of that part of the compensation not paid in money: PROVIDED, That if a leave of absence, without pay, is taken by a member for the purpose of serving as a member of the state legislature, and such member has served in the legislature five or more years, the salary which would have been received for the position from which the leave of absence was taken shall be considered as compensation earnable if the employee's contribution thereon is paid by the employee. In addition, where a member has been a member of the state legislature for five or more years, earnable compensation for his two highest compensated consecutive years of service shall include a sum not to exceed thirty-six hundred dollars for each of such two consecutive years, regardless of whether or not legislative service was rendered during those two years.

(b) "Earnable compensation" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means salaries or wages earned by a member during a payroll period for personal services, including overtime payments, but shall exclude payments for deferred annual sick leave, unused accumulated vacation, unused accumulated annual leave, or any form of severance pay, as reported by the employer on the wage and tax statement submitted to the federal internal revenue service: PROVIDED, That in any year in which a member serves in the legislature such member's earnable compensation shall be the greater of:

(i) The earnable compensation the member would have received had such member not served in the legislature; or

(ii) Such member's actual earnable compensation received for teaching and legislative service combined; any additional contributions to the retirement system required because compensation earnable under subparagraph (i) of this subsection is greater than compensation earnable under subparagraph (ii) of this subsection shall be paid by the member for both member and employer contributions.

(12) "Employer" means the state of Washington, the school district, or any agency of the state of Washington by which the member is paid.

(13) "Fiscal year" means a year which begins July 1st and ends June 30th of the following year.

(14) "Former state fund" means the state retirement fund in operation for teachers under chapter 187, Laws of 1923, as amended.

(15) "Local fund" means any of the local retirement funds for teachers operated in any school district in accordance with the provisions of chapter 163, Laws of 1917 as amended.

(16) "Member" means any teacher included in the membership of the retirement system. Also, any other employee of the public schools who, on July 1, 1947, had not elected to exempt himself from membership and who, prior to that date, had by an authorized payroll deduction, contributed to the annuity fund. This subsection shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 20, 1977.

(17) "Member" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means any teacher who becomes employed by an employer on or after July 1, 1977.

(18) "Membership service" means service rendered subsequent to the first day of eligibility of a person to membership in the retirement system: PROVIDED, That where a member is employed by two or more employers during any calendar year he shall not receive more than a total of twelve months of service credit during any such calendar year. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

~~((+8))~~ (19) "Pension" means the moneys payable per year during life from the pension fund.

~~((+9))~~ (20) "Pension fund" means a fund from which all pension obligations are to be paid.

~~((+20))~~ (21) "Pension reserve fund" is a fund in the state treasury in which shall be accumulated an actuarial reserve adequate to meet present and future pension liabilities of the system.

~~((+21))~~ (22) "Prior service" means service rendered prior to the first date of eligibility to membership in the retirement system for which credit is allowable. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

~~((22))~~ (23) "Prior service contributions" means contributions made by a member to secure credit for prior service. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

~~((23))~~ (24) "Public school" means any institution or activity operated by the state of Washington or any instrumentality or political subdivision thereof employing teachers, except the University of Washington and Washington State University.

~~((24))~~ (25) "Regular contributions" means the amounts required to be deducted from the compensation of a member and credited to his individual account in the annuity fund. This subsection shall apply only to persons establishing membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

~~((25))~~ (26) "Regular interest" means ~~((the interest on funds of the retirement system for the current school year and such other earnings as may be applied thereon by the board of trustees))~~ such rate as the department may determine.

~~((26))~~ (27) (a) "Retirement allowance" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means the sum of annuity and pension or any optional benefits payable in lieu thereof.

(b) "Retirement allowance" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means monthly payments to a retiree or beneficiary as provided in this chapter.

~~((27))~~ (28) "Retirement system" means the Washington state teachers' retirement system.

~~((28))~~ (29) (a) "Service" means the time during which a member has been employed by an employer for compensation: PROVIDED, That where a member is employed by two or more employers during any calendar year he shall not receive more than a total of twelve months of service credit during any such calendar year.

(b) "Service" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means periods of employment by a member for one or more employers for which earnable compensation is earned for seventy or more hours per calendar month. Years of service shall be determined by dividing the total number of months of service by twelve. Any fraction of a year of service as so determined shall be taken into account in the computation of such retirement allowance or benefits. Members shall receive twelve months of service for each contract year or school year of employment.

Any person who is a member of the teachers' retirement system and who is elected or appointed to a state elective position may continue to be a member of the retirement system and continue to receive service credit for the time spent in a state elective position by making the required member contributions.

If a member receives earnable compensation from two or more employers during any year such member shall receive a total of not more than twelve months of service for such year.

~~((29))~~ (30) "Survivors' benefit fund" means the fund from which survivor benefits are paid to dependents of deceased members. This subsection shall apply only to persons establishing membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

~~((30))~~ (31) "Teacher" means any person qualified to teach who is engaged by a public school in an instructional, administrative, or supervisory capacity, including state, educational service district, city superintendents and their assistants and certificated employees; and in addition thereto any qualified school librarian, any registered nurse or any full time school doctor who is employed by a public school and renders service of an instructional or educational nature.

(32) "Average final compensation" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means the member's average earnable compensation of the highest sixty consecutive contract or school months of service prior to such member's retirement, termination, or death. Periods constituting authorized leaves of absence may not be used in the calculation of average final compensation.

(33) "Retiree" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means any member in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided by this chapter resulting from service rendered to an employer by such member.

(34) "Department" means the department of retirement systems created in chapter 41.50 RCW.

(35) "Director" means the director of the department.

(36) "State elective position" means any position held by any person elected or appointed to state-wide office or elected or appointed as a member of the legislature.

(37) "State actuary" means the person appointed pursuant to RCW 44.44.010(2).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of the following sections of this chapter shall apply only to those persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977: RCW 41.32.250, 41.32.260, 41.32.270, 41.32.280, 41.32.290, 41.32.300, 41.32.310, 41.32.320, 41.32.330, 41.32.340, 41.32.350, 41.32.360, 41.32.365, 41.32.366, 41.32.380, 41.32.390, 41.32.430, 41.32.440, 41.32.470, 41.32.480, 41.32.491, 41.32.492, 41.32.493, 41.32.4931, 41.32.4932, 41.32.494, 41.32.4943, 41.32.4944, 41.32.4945, 41.32.497, 41.32.498, 41.32.4982, 41.32.4983, 41.32.499 except as provided in section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act, 41.32.500, 41.32.510, 41.32.520, 41.32.522, 41.32.523, 41.32.530, 41.32.540, 41.32.550, 41.32.560, 41.32.561, 41.32.565, 41.32.567, 41.32.570, and 41.32.583.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Section headings used in this 1977 amendatory act shall not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Sections 1 through 16 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be added to chapter 41.32 RCW and shall be codified as consecutive sections of the Revised Code of Washington within such chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1977."

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Jones, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Newschwander, Sandison, Scott.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 1, following line 5, insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. LEGISLATIVE FINDING. It is the legislative finding that those employees who are presently members of the teachers' retirement system may retain membership in this retirement system or may transfer into the parallel retirement system created by this act but in no instance shall there be any diminishment or loss of benefits or rights, whether current or prospective, of those employees who retain their membership in the teachers' retirement system and who were first employed on or before June 30, 1977."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 7, strike "2 through 14" and insert "3 through 15"

On page 1, line 13, strike "15" and insert "16"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator, I understand the intent of your amendment, and just to avoid any possible misunderstanding, it is not contemplated that anyone currently within the present system may voluntarily shift to the new system and still retain the benefits of the old system?"

Senator Mardesich: "I think that is clarified under the section that you can shift if when you do, you give up your rights under the present system."

Senator Clarke: "I assumed so, but I just wanted to be certain that that was the intent."

Senator Mardesich: "That is correct. That is the intent."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendments to the committee amendment were adopted.

The motion by Senator Marsh carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved the rules be suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 866, as amended by the Senate, be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Grant moved the Senate reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment, as amended, to Substitute House Bill No. 866 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the committee amendment, as amended, on reconsideration.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Marsh yield? You are talking about people at sixty-five, or fifty-two, being tired? Is that what you said?"

Senator Marsh: "Senator Grant and Senator Ridder and some others have referred to 'tired teachers' at age fifty-two."

Senator Woody: "Tired?"

Senator Marsh: "Tired."

Senator Woody: "I wish that had happened to my mother. She is a retired teacher, and sixty-nine, and she is driving down between here and California in that Volkswagen bus, and I hope she tires a little bit, now that she is retired. That would keep her at home."

Senator Marsh: "I personally believe, Senator Woody, that most teachers at age fifty-two, to use the words of Senator Ridder, are quite vigorous and quite capable and able to teach much longer."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator Marsh, I too, didn't hear any remarks about fifty-two here. The remark was that the House version was much more acceptable with retiring at age sixty with thirty years of service, leaving it optional if they wanted to leave the service, and what my question is, this provides for a flexible cost on the contributions, 'members contributions required by this section shall be thus and so forth. Objectors shall notify the retirement board of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate. Such increase shall be announced at a board meeting held at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.' Is it your understanding that there will be no reduction of benefits, but that the cost may be apportioned upwards or downwards?"

Senator Marsh: "It is my understanding that if the systems require additional contribution, and the bill so provides, that the contribution rate will be adjusted upward and that that upward adjustment will bear equally on the employer and among the employees."

Senator Rasmussen: "What about benefits? A person starting in July 1, '77 could be assured that he would receive the benefits as stated in the policy that he gets the day he goes to work, but it may cost him more?"

Senator Marsh: "He will get at least the same level of benefits. It may cost him more. The contract that we propose to enter into with the employees after July 1 of '77 would be to require the employee and the employer to equally finance those benefits. We will guarantee the level of benefits, but will say if the cost increases the increased cost will be shared by both."

Senator Rasmussen: "Another question. You are proposing 5.80, or 4.80, and the House is proposing six point percent deductions. What percentage of the 4.80 is related to the 6 percent cost of living? What percentage does it take to finance that out of the total deductions?"

Senator Marsh: "I frankly do not know the answer to that. I do know that if we did not provide for a six percent cost of living we would have a saving of five hundred sixty-two million dollars over a twenty year period. With the six percent cost of living, we have a saving of three hundred fifty-four million dollars, so I could tell you in terms of dollars over a twenty year period. It is going to cost us a little more than one third of a billion dollars to provide up to six percent cost of living. I do not have the percentage figures adjusted. I have just been furnished with the actuary's figures. The employee rate that is required without a six percent cost of living is 3.331 percent. That is 3.31 percent. With a six percent cost of living, the employee rate must be 4.8, so it is a difference between 4.8 and 3.31, roughly one and one-half percent."

Senator Rasmussen: "Is that the new actuary's figures?"

Senator Marsh: "Yes, it is."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you. I still think that the House version of the bill is better. It is wrapped in there, of course, when you speak about unfunded liability. It is wrapped in there the four years out of state credit that they have been granting all these years which is eliminated in the new bill. I further think that to guarantee a six percent cost of living increase is nebulous because you do not need that much. Along with the social security a three percent would handle it, and you could cut the one and one-half percent figure in half and apply that to the early retirement which many people will not make use of, but they would like to have that option there."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Walgren, Guess, Talley, Washington, Herr, Jones, Sellar, Ridder and Hayner.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the committee amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, to Substitute House Bill No. 866.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the committee amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 19; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Peterson, Pullen, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Woody—27.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Beck, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Grant, Herr, Keefe, McDermott, Monohon, Odegaard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—19.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bottiger—1.

Excused: Senator Murray—1.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and Substitute House Bill No. 866, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading and final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 866, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 19; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Peterson, Pullen, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Woody—27.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Beck, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Grant, Herr, Keefe, McDermott, Monohon, Odegaard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—19.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bottiger—1.

Excused: Senator Murray—1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 866, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Substitute House Bill No. 866, as amended by the Senate, was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

MOTION

At 4:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, June 1, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

EIGHTY-THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wednesday, June 1, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m., by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Francis, McDermott and Woody. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Francis, McDermott and Woody were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Michael Cummings and Susan Hall, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul J. Beeman, pastor of First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"THE FOLLOWING PRAYER IS BY AN AUTHOR UNKNOWN:

"VAST GOD, AS WITH EACH BREATH WE HAVE NEED OF THEE, REMIND US THAT WE HAVE NEED OF ONE ANOTHER; THAT WE HAVE NEED OF A GREAT VISION WHEREBY THIS MARVELOUS, CHAOTIC, DREAMING STATE OF WASHINGTON COMES TRUE IN OUR FLESH, WE CONFESS THAT WE HAVE FORGOTTEN OUR CREATOR, GOD. WE HAVE BECOME SELF-CENTERED AND COMPLACENT ABOUT THE RIGHTS, THE NEEDS, AND THE JUSTICE OF OUR NEIGHBORS AND WE HAVE LOST THE ABILITY TO DREAM THE GREAT DREAM FOR AMERICA, AND TO HOPE THE GREAT HOPE IN OUR LORD. WE ASK YOUR FORGIVENESS. TEACH US AGAIN TO FORGIVE ONE ANOTHER, FOR WE ARE HUMAN BEINGS, NOT GODS. TEACH US ANEW THAT IT MEANS TO HONOR ALL PEOPLE. BROOD AMONG US DAILY AND HOURLY, AND AMONG THE VARIOUS PEOPLE OF THIS STATE. CONTINUE IN US THE UNITY WHICH ARISES OUT OF PATIENCE WITH ONE ANOTHER'S DIFFERENCES. INSTRUCT US IN THE GENEROUS IMPULSES WHICH ADVANCE THE COMMON GOOD. UNTO YOU, OUR CREATOR, AND OUR SAVIOR, WE WILL GIVE PRAISE AND HONOR AND JOY, FOR OUR PERSONAL FAITH AND FOR THE LIFE OF OUR STATE. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "I wonder if Senator Fleming or Senator Wilson would yield to a question? I note that the measure provides that the bonds issued by the authority may be sold at public or private sale, and of course, private sale indicates that the sale without bids is a negotiated sale. What is the necessity of that?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator Mardesich, maybe Senator Wilson can answer that question."

(No reply.)

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, Substitute House Bill No. 1213, as amended by the Senate, was ordered held for further consideration later today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 619.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute House Bill No. 1278 was ordered placed at the end of today's second reading calendar.

MOTION

At 10:35 a.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate recessed until 12:20 p.m.

NOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 12:20 p.m.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:

SENATE BILL NO. 2418,

SENATE BILL NO. 2512,

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2873,

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3036.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2040.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 27, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2040, with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 14, strike "assist in providing" and insert "provide"

On page 3, line 4, after "means" insert "preventive,"

On page 3, beginning on line 21, strike "prescribed by the commission" and insert "adopted pursuant to Section 5(1)(a) and Section 7(1) of this 1977 amendatory act"

On page 3, line 22, strike "and approved by the legislature"

On page 5, beginning on line 6, strike ", which shall be adopted on or before December 31, 1978"

On page 7, line 19, after "shall be" beginning with "adopted" strike the remainder of the subsection and insert "proposed by the commission to the legislature no later than December 31, 1978. If the legislature fails to adopt or modify such standards by April 1, 1979, they shall take effect on July 1, 1979 without legislative approval and shall be complied with no later than October 1, 1979. Subsequent standards shall be prescribed by the commission and submitted to the Legislative Budget Committee for review. If the Legislative Budget Committee disapproves such standards, they shall not have effect."

On page 7, line 22, after "section 5" strike "(7)" and insert "(5)"

On page 7, line 24, strike "funds seventy-five percent of" and insert "fully funds"

On page 10, line 29, after "receive" insert "full"

On page 10, line 30, strike "seventy-five percent of"

On page 10, line 33, strike "legislature" and insert "commission"

On page 11, beginning on line 4, strike all of section 12, and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 11, line 20, after "government" strike the remainder of the section and insert ", subject to biennial legislative appropriation, at the direction of the commission."

On page 36, line 3, strike "fifty" and insert "five-hundred and fifty-one", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Wilson moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to page 2, line 14; page 7, line 24; page 10, line 29 and line 30.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Would Senator Wilson yield to a question, please? Senator Wilson, there has been some concern expressed by some who favored the seventy-five percent originally, some concern that the share of local government in the jail system will have a bearing on the kind of plans they would submit, the kind of jails that might, you know, we mandate certain standards, but if the ratio were 90/10, there is an argument that has been discussed in our caucus at least that there might be a little better handling, a little more concern on the part of local government about what kind of jails we operate, because they have operating costs, as you say, anyway on this, right? In other words, they are going to pay the operating costs, increased operating costs?"

Senator Wilson: "All operating costs."

Senator Lewis: "All operating costs. But, do you feel that a 90/10 would have any bearing on what kind of jails might be designed and proposed by local government under the state mandate?"

Senator Wilson: "In my opinion, Senator Lewis, the mandated aspects of the jail construction designs mandated by the state are going to be sufficiently significant that local government rarely is going to, on itself, wish to go beyond them because it is going to have plenty of expense of its own involved in the construction or substantial remodeling of any local jail. Beyond that I would suggest that if we begin to deviate from this balanced concept, the state, on construction and local government on operation, it would be fair and reasonable then, to begin to suggest that the state might wish to pick up ten percent or more of the increased operating cost which will be substantially attributable to state mandated performances."

Debate ensued.

Senators Talley, Walgren and Bluechel demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Wilson that the Senate concur in the House amendments to page 2, line 14; page 7, line 24; page 10, line 29 and line 30 to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2040.

Senator Wilson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Talley, Walgren, Day, North, Wojahn, Scott, Goltz, Marsh and von Reichbauer.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion carried by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 16; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Day, Fleming, Gaspard, Gould, Grant, Henry, Keefe, Lewis, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Ridder, Sellar, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—28.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Donohue, Goltz, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Woody—16.

Absent or not voting: Senators Benitz, Herr, Newschwander—3.

Excused: Senator Francis—1.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Benitz and Newschwander were excused.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the remaining House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2040, with the exception of the amendment to page 36, line 3 were adopted.

Senator Wilson moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to page 36, line 3.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Would Senator Wilson yield? What was the rationale for the increase of five hundred thousand dollars above what was agreed upon previously?"

Senator Wilson: "Senator Donohue, I was not a party to the decision which led to injecting fifty thousand dollars into the bill, although I have learned since then that it was put in, partly at least, to keep this as an appropriation bill so that it wouldn't be eliminated by the cutoff. Now, the five hundred and fifty-one thousand dollars is based on a fiscal note related to the anticipated cost of operating the jail commission for a biennium."

Senator Donohue: "Do you have any breakdown data as it pertains to the cost of the five hundred thousand? I know why the fifty was put there, but I want to know why the five hundred thousand was put there."

Senator Wilson: "I have a four-page fiscal note here, Senator Donohue, which contains a rather elaborate breakdown, and I would be glad to supply it to you."

Senator Donohue: "Well, that is normal. They usually break it down so that it comes out even, so that they can justify it."

The motion by Senator Wilson failed and the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to page 36, line 3, to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2040, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

At 1:03 p.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 623.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 623, by Representatives Bauer and Zimmerman:

Exempting capital expenditures of nonprofit water associations from gross income for public utility tax purposes.

The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 623. On May 23, 1977, the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander was moved for adoption by Senator Rasmussen:

On page 2, after line 34, insert the following additional sections:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares that the existing drought conditions and shortage of hydroelectric power have caused severe economic impact on electric utilities and their customers in obtaining sufficient quantities of electric power and energy from other sources, which has or will necessitate the imposition of purchased power surcharge or cost adjustments in addition to the existing rate schedules of such utilities. Because of the drought conditions and shortage of hydroelectric power, which has caused severe economic impact on electric utilities and their customers in obtaining sufficient quantities of electric power and energy from other sources, the legislature further finds that such cost adjustments or surcharge arising out of the increased cost of purchasing necessary power to meet the needs of the electrical utilities and their customers, should not be taxed by the state or any local subdivision thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if an economic condition exists as provided in section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act which does necessitate the imposition of purchased power surcharge or cost adjustments in addition to the existing rate schedules charged such utilities, neither the state or any local subdivision thereof shall impose a tax or fee thereon.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to the deductions provided for in RCW 82.16.050 as now or hereafter amended, in computing tax there may be deducted from gross income by persons in the light and power business, the following item: Amounts derived from the sale of electrical energy other than for resale equal to the cost of electrical energy purchased from others, but excluding electrical energy generated by the United States, which for any reporting period under RCW 82.16.070 exceeds the average of the total cost of such purchased electrical energy for the same period in the prior two years, but not to exceed the amount of total additional charge to customers, or other authorized temporary increase in total charge for electrical energy to customers, on account of such purchased electrical energy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 2 through 4 of this 1977 amendatory act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The provisions of sections 2 through 4 of this 1977 amendatory act shall expire on July 1, 1978, and thereafter shall be null and void and of no further force and effect whatsoever."

On May 24, 1977, the following amendment by Senator Bottiger to the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander was moved for adoption by Senator Bottiger:

On page 1, line 19, strike "energy from other sources"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

There being no objection, the remaining amendments by Senator Bottiger, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, to the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander, were withdrawn.

There being no objection, the amendments by Senator Mardesich, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, to the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander, were withdrawn.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander:

On page 1, section 3, line 26, after "3." strike all of the section and insert:

"It is the intent of this section to maintain the level of anticipated state revenues derived from the tax imposed by RCW 88.16, while not allowing tax revenues far in excess of normal revenues due to surcharges or cost adjustments by electric utilities.

In addition to the deductions provided for in RCW 82.16.050, in computing tax there may be deducted from gross income by persons in the light and power business, the following item: amounts derived from the sale of electrical energy other than for resale equal to the cost of electrical energy purchased from others, but excluding electrical energy generated by the United States: PROVIDED, That such deduction shall not cause the tax computed for any reporting period under RCW 82.16.070 to be less than one hundred seventeen percent of the average of the tax computed for the same period in the prior two years."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Newschwander was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendments to the title were adopted:

In line 1 of the title, after "taxation;" strike "and"

In line 3 of the title, after "82.16.050" insert "; adding a new section to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.16 RCW; creating new sections; declaring an emergency; and prescribing an expiration date"

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 623, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 623, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker—31.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bluechel—1.

Excused: Senator Francis—1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 623, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 2:45 p.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate recessed until 3:50 p.m.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 3:50 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 865.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 865, by Committee on Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Sommers, Blair, Shinpoch, Wilson, Patterson, Hansen, Gilleland and Charnley):

Establishing a revised public employees' retirement system.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 16, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 865, establishing a revised public employees' retirement system (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. APPLICATION TO CERTAIN PERSONS.

Sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act shall, on or after July 1, 1977, apply only to:

(1) Those persons who are initially employed by an employer; or

(2) Those members who have transferred pursuant to section 15 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. COMPUTATION OF THE RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE. A member of the retirement system shall receive a retirement allowance equal to one and one-half percent of such member's average final compensation for each year of service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. RETIREMENT FOR SERVICE. (1) NORMAL RETIREMENT. Any member with five or more years of service who has attained at least age sixty-five shall be eligible to retire and to receive a retirement allowance computed according to the provisions of section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) EARLY RETIREMENT. Any member who has completed at least five years of service and has attained age sixty-two shall be eligible to retire and to receive a retirement allowance computed according to the provisions of section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, except that a member retiring pursuant to this subsection shall have the retirement allowance actuarially reduced to reflect the difference in the number of years between age at retirement and the attainment of age sixty-five.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. POST-RETIREMENT COST-OF-LIVING. Beginning July 1, 1979, and every year thereafter, the department shall determine the following information for each retired member or beneficiary whose retirement allowance has been in effect for at least one year:

- (1) The original dollar amount of the retirement allowance;
- (2) The index for the calendar year prior to the effective date of the retirement allowance, to be known as "index A";
- (3) The index for the calendar year prior to the date of determination, to be known as "index B"; and
- (4) The percentage amount when index B is divided by index A.

The percentage obtained, if any, shall be the annual adjustment to the original retirement allowance and shall be applied beginning with the July payment. In no event, however, shall the annual adjustment:

- (a) Produce a retirement allowance which is lower than the original retirement allowance;
- (b) Exceed six percent in the initial annual adjustment; or
- (c) Differ from the previous year's annual adjustment by more than six percent.

For the purposes of this section, "index" means, for any calendar year, that year's average consumer price index—Seattle, Washington area for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items, compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. EMPLOYER AND MEMBER CONTRIBUTIONS. The required contribution rates to the retirement system for both members and employers shall be established by the director from time to time as may be necessary upon the advice of the state actuary.

Contribution rates required to fund the costs of the retirement system shall always be equal for members and employers, except as herein provided. Any adjustments in contribution rates required from time to time for future costs shall likewise be shared equally by the members and employers: PROVIDED, That the cost of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of that portion of the retirement system as in effect on June 30, 1977, shall be borne in full by the employers.

The director shall notify the retirement board of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate and such increase shall be announced at a board meeting held at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.

Members contributions required by this section shall be deducted from the members compensation earnable each payroll period. The members contribution and the employers contribution shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends.

Until such time as the director shall establish other rates, members and employers of such members shall each contribute four and three-fourths percent of compensation earnable: PROVIDED, That employers shall initially contribute an additional one and one-half percent of compensation earnable per member to fund the cost of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system as in effect on June 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. OPTIONS FOR PAYMENT OF RETIREMENT ALLOWANCES. Upon retirement for service as prescribed in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, a member shall elect to have the retirement allowance paid pursuant to Option 1, 2, or 3 with Options 2 and 3 calculated so as to be actuarially equivalent to Option 1.

(1) OPTION 1. A member electing this option shall receive a retirement allowance payable throughout such member's life. However, if the retiree dies before the total of the retirement allowance paid to such retiree equals the amount of such retiree's accumulated contributions at the time of retirement, then the balance shall be paid to such person or persons having an insurable interest in the retiree's life as the retiree shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department; or if there be no such designated person or persons still living at the time of the retiree's death, then to the surviving spouse; or if there be neither such designated person or persons still living at the time of death nor a surviving spouse, then to the retiree's legal representative.

(2) OPTION 2. A member who elects this option shall receive a reduced retirement allowance, which upon the member's death shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person having an insurable interest in the retiree's life as the retiree shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department at the time of the retiree's retirement.

(3) OPTION 3. A member who elects this option shall receive a reduced retirement allowance, and upon the member's death one-half of the retiree's reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person having an insurable interest in the retiree's life as the retiree shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department at the time of the retiree's retirement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. DISABILITY. Members of the retirement system shall receive disability benefits pursuant to Title 51 RCW and insurance benefits provided in whole or in part by employers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. APPLICATION FOR AND EFFECTIVE DATE OF RETIREMENT ALLOWANCES. Any member or beneficiary eligible to receive a retirement allowance under the provisions of sections 3 or 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be eligible to commence receiving a retirement allowance after having filed written application with the department.

(1) Retirement allowances paid to members under the provisions of section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following such member's separation from employment.

(2) Retirement allowances paid to vested members no longer in service, but qualifying for such an allowance pursuant to section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following such qualification.

(3) Retirement allowances paid as death benefits under the provisions of section 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following the member's death.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. SUSPENSION OF RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE UPON EMPLOYMENT. No retiree under the provisions of sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be eligible to receive such retiree's monthly retirement allowance if such retiree enters service for any nonfederal public employer in this state.

Upon cessation of service for any nonfederal public employer in this state such retiree shall have benefits actuarially recomputed pursuant to the rules adopted by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. DEATH BENEFITS. (1) Upon the death of a member who is not eligible for a retirement allowance pursuant to section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act the amount of the accumulated contributions standing to such member's credit in the retirement system at the time of such member's death shall be paid to such person or persons having an insurable interest in such member's life as the member shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department. If there be no such designated person or persons still living at the time of the member's death, such member's accumulated contributions standing to such member's credit in the retirement system shall be paid to the member's surviving spouse as if in fact such spouse had been nominated by written designation, or if there be no such surviving spouse, then to such member's legal representatives.

(2) Upon the death of a member who is eligible for retirement, the surviving spouse or eligible child or children shall elect to receive either:

(a) A retirement allowance computed as provided for in section 3(1) of this 1977 amendatory act actuarially adjusted to reflect Option 2 of section 6 of this 1977 amendatory act and if the member was not eligible for normal retirement at the date of death a further reduction as described in section 3(2) of this 1977 amendatory act. If a surviving spouse who is receiving a retirement allowance dies leaving a child or children of the member under the age of majority, then such child or children shall continue to receive an allowance in an amount equal to that which was being received by the surviving spouse, share and share alike, until such child or children reach the age of majority. If there is no surviving spouse eligible to receive an allowance at the time of the member's death, such member's child or children under the age of majority shall receive an allowance, share and share alike, calculated as herein provided making the assumption that the ages of the spouse and member were equal at the time of the member's death; or

(b) The member's accumulated contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. SERVICE CREDIT FOR AUTHORIZED LEAVE OF ABSENCE. A member who is on a paid leave of absence authorized by a member's employer shall continue to receive service credit as provided for under the provisions of sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act.

A member shall be eligible to receive a maximum of two years service credit during a member's entire working career for those periods when a member is on an unpaid leave of absence authorized by an employer. Such credit may be obtained only if the member makes both the employer and member contributions plus interest as determined by the director for the period of the authorized leave of absence within five years of resumption of service or prior to retirement whichever comes sooner. The contributions required shall be based on the average of the member's compensation earnable at both the time the authorized leave of absence was granted and the time the member resumed employment.

A member who is inducted into the armed forces of the United States shall be deemed to be on an unpaid authorized leave of absence and may receive up to two years of service credit upon compliance with the conditions imposed by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. VESTED MEMBERSHIP. A member who separates or has separated after having completed at least five years of service may remain a member during the period of such member's absence from service for the exclusive purpose only of receiving a retirement allowance under the provisions of section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act if such member maintains the member's accumulated contributions intact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. REFUND OF CONTRIBUTIONS. A member who ceases to be an employee of an employer may request a refund of the member's accumulated contributions. The refund shall be made within ninety days following the receipt of the request and notification of termination by the employer; except that in the case of death, initial payment shall be made within thirty days of receipt of request for such payment. A member who files a request for refund and subsequently enters into employment with another employer prior to the refund being made shall not be eligible for a refund. The refund of accumulated contributions shall terminate all rights to benefits under sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. REENTRY. A member, who as a previous member had left service and withdrawn the member's accumulated contributions, shall receive service credit for such prior service if the member restores the lesser of:

(1) All withdrawn accumulated contributions together with interest since the time of withdrawal as determined by the department; or

(2) The contributions which would have been required for such service pursuant to section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act plus interest thereon as determined by the department.

The restoration of such funds must be completed within five years of the resumption of service or prior to retirement, whichever occurs first.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. TRANSFER. (1) Members of the system who established membership on or before June 30, 1977, may irrevocably elect to be covered by sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act. Such election shall be held pursuant to rules adopted by the department.

(2) Upon electing to be governed by sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act, the member shall:

(a) Be subject to the membership provisions and benefit accrual provided for in sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act; and

(b) Receive a refund of that portion of accumulated member contributions that represents the difference between the contribution required by section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act and RCW 41.40.330.

(3) The department shall provide each member eligible to make the election under this section with information which:

(a) Notifies the member of the election provision;

(b) Provides a comparison of system benefits; and

(c) Describes the potential refund available.

(4) The provisions of this section shall terminate on June 30, 1982.

Sec. 16. Section 1, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 2, chapter 190, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.010 are each amended to read as follows:

TERMS DEFINED. As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1) "Retirement system" means the public employees' retirement system provided for in this chapter.

(2) "Retirement board" means the board provided for in this chapter and chapter 41.26 RCW to administer said retirement system.

(3) "State treasurer" means the treasurer of the state of Washington.

(4) (a) "Employer" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means every branch, department, agency, commission, board, and office of the state, any political subdivision or association of political subdivisions of the state admitted into the retirement system, and legal entities authorized by RCW 36.70.060 and 35.63.070 or chapter 39.34 RCW as now or hereafter amended; and the term shall also include any labor guild, association, or organization the membership of a local lodge or division of which is comprised of at least forty percent employees of an employer (other than such labor guild, association, or organization) within this chapter. The term may also include any city of the first class that has its own retirement system.

(b) "Employer" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means every branch, department, agency, commission, board, and office of the state, and any political subdivision and municipal corporation of the state admitted into the retirement system, including public agencies created pursuant to RCW 36.70.060, 35.63.070, and 39.34.030.

(5) "Member" means any employee included in the membership of the retirement system, as provided for in RCW 41.40.120.

(6) "Original member" of this retirement system means:

(a) Any person who became a member of the system prior to April 1, 1949;

(b) Any person who becomes a member through the admission of an employer into the retirement system on and after April 1, 1949, and prior to April 1, 1951;

(c) Any person who first becomes a member by securing employment with an employer prior to April 1, 1951, provided he has rendered at least one or more years of service to any employer prior to October 1, 1947;

(d) Any person who first becomes a member through the admission of an employer into the retirement system on or after April 1, 1951, provided, such person has been in the regular employ of the employer for at least six months of the twelve-month period preceding the said admission date;

(e) Any member who has restored all his contributions that may have been withdrawn by him as provided by RCW 41.40.150 and who on the effective date of his retirement becomes entitled to be credited with ten years or more of membership service except that the provisions relating to the minimum amount of retirement allowance for the member upon retirement at age seventy as found in RCW 41.40.190(4) shall not apply to the member;

(f) Any member who has been a contributor under the system for two or more years and who has restored all his contributions that may have been withdrawn by him as provided by RCW 41.40.150 and who on the effective date of his retirement has rendered five or more years of service for the state or any political subdivision prior to the time of the admission of the employer into the system; except that the provisions relating to the minimum amount of retirement allowance for the member upon retirement at age seventy as found in RCW 41.40.190(4) shall not apply to the member.

(7) "New member" means a person who becomes a member on or after April 1, 1949, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(8) (a) "Compensation earnable" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means salaries or wages earned during a payroll period for personal services and where the compensation is not all paid in money maintenance compensation shall be included upon the basis of the schedules established by the member's employer: PROVIDED, That if a leave of absence is taken by an individual for the purpose of serving in the state legislature, the salary which would have been received for the position from which the leave of absence was taken, shall be considered as compensation earnable if the employee's contribution is paid by the employee and the employer's contribution is paid by the employer or employee.

(b) "Compensation earnable" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means salaries or wages earned by a member during a payroll period for personal services, including overtime payments, but shall exclude payments for deferred annual sick leave, unused accumulated vacation, unused accumulated annual leave, or any form of severance pay, as reported by the employer on the wage and tax statement submitted to the federal internal revenue service: PROVIDED, That in any year in which a member serves in the legislature such member's compensation earnable shall be the greater of:

(i) the compensation earnable the member would have received had such member not served in the legislature; or

(ii) such member's actual compensation earnable received for nonlegislative public employment and legislative service combined; any additional contributions to the retirement system required because compensation earnable under subparagraph (i) of this subsection is greater than compensation earnable under subparagraph (ii) of this subsection shall be paid by the member for both member and employer contributions.

(9) (a) "Service" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means periods of employment rendered to any employer for which compensation is paid, and includes time spent in office as an elected or appointed official of an employer. Full time work for ten days or more or an equivalent period of work in any given calendar month shall constitute one month of service. Only months of service shall be counted in the computation of any retirement allowance or other benefit provided for in this chapter. Years of service shall be determined by dividing the total number of months of service by twelve. Any fraction of a year of service as so determined shall be taken into account in the computation of such retirement allowance or benefits. Service by a state employee officially assigned by the state on a temporary basis to assist another public agency, shall be considered as service as a state employee: PROVIDED, That service to any other public agency shall not be considered service as a state employee if such service has been used to establish benefits in any other public retirement system: PROVIDED FURTHER, That where an individual is employed by two employers he shall only receive a total of twelve months of service credit during any calendar year.

(b) "Service" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means periods of employment by a member for one or more employers for which compensation earnable is earned for seventy or more hours per calendar month.

Years of service shall be determined by dividing the total number of months of service by twelve. Any fraction of a year of service as so determined shall be taken into account in the computation of such retirement allowance or benefits.

Members employed by school districts, the state school for the blind, the state school for the deaf, institutions of higher education, or community colleges shall receive twelve months of service for each contract year or school year of employment.

Service in any state elective position shall be deemed to be full time service, except that persons serving in state elective positions who are members of the teachers' retirement system or law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system at the time of election or appointment to such position may elect to continue membership in the teachers' retirement system or law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system.

If a member receives compensation earnable from two or more employers during any calendar year such member shall receive a total of not more than twelve months of service for such calendar year.

(10) "Prior service" means all service of an original member rendered to any employer prior to October 1, 1947.

(11) "Membership service" means:

(a) All service rendered, as a member, after October 1, 1947;

(b) All service after October 1, 1947, to any employer prior to the time of its admission into the retirement system: PROVIDED, That an amount equal to the employer and employee contributions which would have been paid to the retirement system on account of such service shall have been paid to the retirement system with interest (as computed by the retirement board) on the employee's portion prior to retirement of such person, by the employee or his employer, except as qualified by RCW 41.40.120;

(c) Service not to exceed six consecutive months of probationary service rendered after April 1, 1949, and prior to becoming a member, in the case of any member, upon payment in full by such member, prior to July 1, 1974 of the total amount of the employer's contribution to the retirement fund which would have been required under the law in effect when such probationary service was rendered if the member had been a member during such period.

(d) Service not to exceed six consecutive months of probationary service, rendered after October 1, 1947, and before April 1, 1949, and prior to becoming a member, in the case of any member, upon payment in full by such member prior to July 1, 1974, of five percent of such member's salary during said period of probationary service.

(12) (a) "Beneficiary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance, pension or other benefit provided by this chapter.

(b) "Beneficiary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided by this chapter resulting from service rendered to an employer by another person.

(13) "Regular interest" means such rate as the ((retirement board)) department may determine.

(14) "Accumulated contributions" means the sum of all contributions standing to the credit of a member in his individual account together with the regular interest thereon.

(15) (a) "Average final compensation" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means the annual average of the greatest compensation earnable by a member during any consecutive two year period of service for which service credit is allowed; or if he has less than two years of service then the annual average compensation earnable during his total years of service for which service credit is allowed.

(b) "Average final compensation" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means the member's average compensation earnable of the highest consecutive sixty months of service prior to such member's retirement, termination, or death. Periods constituting authorized leaves of absence may not be used in the calculation of average final compensation.

(16) "Final compensation" means the annual rate of compensation earnable by a member at the time of termination of his employment.

(17) "Annuity" means payments for life derived from accumulated contributions of a member. All annuities shall be paid in monthly installments.

(18) "Pension" means payments for life derived from contributions made by the employer. All pensions shall be paid in monthly installments.

(19) "Retirement allowance" means the sum of the annuity and the pension.

(20) "Employee" means any person who may become eligible for membership under this chapter, as set forth in RCW 41.40.120.

(21) "Actuarial equivalent" means a benefit of equal value when computed upon the basis of such mortality and other tables as may be adopted by the retirement board.

(22) "Retirement" means withdrawal from active service with a retirement allowance as provided by this chapter.

(23) "Eligible position" means:

(a) Any position which normally requires five or more uninterrupted months of service a year for which regular compensation is paid to the occupant thereof;

(b) Any position occupied by an elected official or person appointed directly by the governor for which compensation is paid.

(24) "Ineligible position" means any position which does not conform with the requirements set forth in subdivision (23).

(25) "Leave of absence" means the period of time a member is authorized by the employer to be absent from service without being separated from membership.

This subsection shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

(26) "Totally incapacitated for duty" means total inability to perform the duties of a member's employment or office or any other work for which the member is qualified by training or experience.

(27) "Retiree" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means any member in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided by this chapter resulting from service rendered to an employer by such member.

(28) "Department" means the department of retirement systems created in chapter 41.50 RCW.

(29) "Director" means the director of the department.

(30) "State elective position" means any position held by any person elected or appointed to state-wide office or elected or appointed as a member of the legislature.

(31) "State actuary" means the person appointed pursuant to RCW 44.44.010(2).

Sec. 17. Section 4, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.165 are each amended to read as follows:

No person appointed to membership on any committee, board, or commission on or after July 1, 1976, who is compensated for service on such committee, board, or commission for less than ten days or seventy hours in any month, whichever amount is less, shall receive service credit for such service for that month: PROVIDED, That on and after July 1, 1977, appointive and elective officials who receive monthly compensation earnable from an employer in an amount equal to or less than seventy times the state minimum hourly wage shall not receive any service credit for such employment.

Sec. 18. Section 35, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 and RCW 41.40.340 are each amended to read as follows:

The deductions from the compensation of members, provided for in RCW 41.40.330 or section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act, shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided for by law for any member shall be reduced thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made and provided for in this chapter and shall receipt in full for his salary or compensation, and payment less said deductions shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by such person during the period covered by such payment, except as to benefits provided for under this chapter.

Sec. 19. Section 36, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 and RCW 41.40.350 are each amended to read as follows:

The officer responsible for making up the payroll shall transmit promptly to the retirement board at the end of each and every payroll period a copy of the original payroll voucher or such other payroll report as the retirement board may require showing thereon all deductions for the retirement system made from the ((salary)) compensation earnable of each member, together with warrants or checks covering the total of such deductions. The retirement board after making a record of all such receipts shall pay them to the state treasurer for use according to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 20. Section 38, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 126, Laws of 1963 and RCW 41.40.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The retirement board shall ascertain and report to each employer the amount it shall provide for pension benefits for the ensuing biennium or fiscal year whichever is applicable to the said employer's operations. The amount to be so provided shall be computed by applying the rates of contribution as established by

RCW 41.40.361 or section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act to an estimate of the total compensation earnable of all the said employer's members during the period for which provision is to be made.

(2) Beginning April 1, 1949, or July 1, 1977, as the case may be, the amount to be collected as the employer's contribution for pension benefits shall be computed by applying the applicable rates established by RCW 41.40.361 or section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act to the total compensation earnable of employer's members as shown on the current payrolls of the said employer. The retirement board shall bill each said employer at the end of each month for the amount due for that month and the same shall be paid as are its other obligations: PROVIDED, That the retirement board may, at its discretion, establish a system of billing based upon calendar year quarters in which event the said billing shall be at the end of each such quarter and shall be based upon the employer's payrolls for that quarter.

(3) In the event of failure, for any reason, of an employer other than a political subdivision of the state to have remitted amounts due for membership service of any of the employer's members rendered during a prior biennium, the retirement board shall bill such employer through the ((budget)) director of the office of program planning and fiscal management for such employer's contribution. Such billing shall be paid by the employer as, and the same shall be, a proper charge against any moneys available or appropriated to such employer for payment of current biennial payrolls. If any such employer shall fail or refuse to honor such a billing, the ((budget)) director of the office of program planning and fiscal management shall cause the same to be paid from any funds appropriated to the ((budget)) director of the office of program planning and fiscal management for such purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of the following sections of this chapter shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977: RCW 41.40.150, 41.40.160, 41.40.170, 41.40.180, 41.40.185, 41.40.190, 41.40.193, 41.40.195 except as provided in section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act, 41.40.200, 41.40.210, 41.40.220, 41.40.230, 41.40.235, 41.40.250, 41.40.260, 41.40.280, 41.40.300, 41.40.310, 41.40.320, and 41.40.330.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Section headings used in this 1977 amendatory act shall not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Sections 1 through 15 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be added to chapter 41.40 RCW and shall be codified as consecutive sections of the Revised Code of Washington within such chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1977."

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Jones, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Newschwander, Sandison, Scott.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment by Senators Mardesich and Jones to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 1, following line 5, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. LEGISLATIVE FINDING. It is the legislative finding that those employees who are presently members of the public employees' retirement system may retain membership in this retirement system or may transfer into the parallel retirement system created by this act but in no instance shall there be any diminishment or loss of benefits or rights, whether current or prospective, of those employees who retain their membership in the public employees' retirement system and who were first employed on or before June 30, 1977."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 13 of the amendment, beginning on line 19 after "member," strike the material through "1974" and insert "~~((prior to July 1, 1974))~~"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Thank you. Will Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator, are you talking about those who are currently under the present system?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes."

Senator Clarke: "Well, is not this enactment a new system and relates to employees that will come on in the future?"

Senator Rasmussen: "This part that I am amending is not related. This bill, 865, contains both the old and the new, so that is written in one law that covers both employees that are now working and then those employees that will be coming on after July 1, 1977. The part that I am amending is the old law which would allow—"

Senator Clarke: "If I understand it correctly, this amendment you are proposing is an amendment to the old law which, under your arguments would be justifiable regardless of whether or not we adopted a new pension system."

Senator Rasmussen: "This is correct."

Senator Clarke: "So, in reality, it has nothing in substance to do with the enactment of the new system, but is simply an attempt to partially clean up part of the old system."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is correct."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved the following amendments to the committee amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 13 of the amendment beginning on line 19, after "member" strike all the material down to and including "period" on line 24 and insert "~~((prior to July 1, 1974 of the total amount of the employer's contribution to the retirement fund which would have been required under the law in effect when such probationary service was rendered if the member had been a member during such period)) of both member and employer contributions for such period of service based on the compensation earnable when the payment is made"~~"

On page 13, of the amendment beginning on line 29, after "member" strike the material down to and including "service" on line 31 and insert "~~((prior to July 1, 1974, of five percent of such member's salary during said period of probationary service)) of both member and employer contributions for such period of service based on the compensation earnable when the payment is made"~~"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendments to the committee amendment were adopted.

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Goltz and Pullen to the committee amendment:

On page 1 of the printed Senate Committee Amendment, strike everything after line 5 and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 274, Laws of 1947, as last amended by section 2, chapter 190, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1) "Retirement system" means the public employees' retirement system provided for in this chapter.

(2) "Retirement board" means the board provided for in this chapter and chapter 41.26 RCW to administer said retirement system.

(3) "State treasurer" means the treasurer of the state of Washington.

(4) "Employer" means every branch, department, agency, commission, board, and office of the state, any political subdivision or association of political subdivisions of the state admitted into the retirement system, and legal entities authorized by RCW 36.70.060 and 35.63.070 or chapter 39.34 RCW as now or hereafter amended; and the term shall also include any labor guild, association, or organization the membership of a local lodge or division of which is comprised of at least forty percent employees of an employer (other than such labor guild, association, or organization) within this chapter. The term may also include any city of the first class that has its own retirement system.

(5) "Member" means any employee included in the membership of the retirement system, as provided for in RCW 41.40.120.

(6) "Original member" of this retirement system means:

(a) Any person who became a member of the system prior to April 1, 1949;

(b) Any person who becomes a member through the admission of an employer into the retirement system on and after April 1, 1949, and prior to April 1, 1951;

(c) Any person who first becomes a member by securing employment with an employer prior to April 1, 1951, provided he has rendered at least one or more years of service to any employer prior to October 1, 1947;

(d) Any person who first becomes a member through the admission of an employer into the retirement system on or after April 1, 1951, provided, such person has been in the regular employ of the employer for at least six months of the twelve-month period preceding the said admission date;

(e) Any member who has restored all his contributions that may have been withdrawn by him as provided by RCW 41.40.150 and who on the effective date of his retirement becomes entitled to be credited with ten years or more of membership service except that the provisions relating to the minimum amount of retirement allowance for the member upon retirement at age seventy as found in RCW 41.40.190(4) shall not apply to the member;

(f) Any member who has been a contributor under the system for two or more years and who has restored all his contributions that may have been withdrawn by him as provided by RCW 41.40.150 and who on the effective date of his retirement has rendered five or more years of service for the state or any political subdivision prior to the time of the admission of the employer into the system; except that the provisions relating to the minimum amount of retirement allowance for the member upon retirement at age seventy as found in RCW 41.40.190(4) shall not apply to the member.

(7) "New member" means a person who becomes a member on or after April 1, 1949, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(8) "Compensation earnable" means salaries or wages earned during a payroll period for personal services and where the compensation is not all paid in money maintenance compensation shall be included upon the basis of the schedules established by the member's employer: PROVIDED, That if a leave of absence is taken by an individual for the purpose of serving in the state legislature, and the total of the legislative salary and the salary which is received for the position from which the leave of absence is taken is less than the salary which would have been received for the position from which the leave of absence was taken, the difference shall be considered as compensation earnable if the employee's contribution ((is paid by the employee)) and the employer's contribution is paid by the ((employer or)) employee.

(9) "Service" means periods of employment rendered to any employer for which compensation is paid, and includes time spent in office as an elected or appointed official of an employer. Full time work for ten days or more or an equivalent period of work in any given calendar month shall constitute one month of service. Only months of service shall be counted in the computation of any retirement allowance or other benefit provided for in this chapter. Years of service shall be determined by dividing the total number of months of service by twelve. Any fraction of a year of service as so determined shall be taken into account in the computation of such retirement allowance or benefits. Service by a state employee officially assigned by the state on a temporary basis to assist another public agency, shall be considered as service as a state employee: PROVIDED, That service to any other public agency shall not be considered service as a state employee if such service has been used to establish benefits in any other public retirement system: PROVIDED FURTHER, That where an individual is employed by two employers he shall only receive a total of twelve months of service credit during any calendar year.

(10) "Prior service" means all service of an original member rendered to any employer prior to October 1, 1947.

(11) "Membership service" means:

(a) All service rendered, as a member, after October 1, 1947;

(b) All service after October 1, 1947, to any employer prior to the time of its admission into the retirement system: PROVIDED, That an amount equal to the employer and employee contributions which would have been paid to the retirement system on account of such service shall have been paid to the retirement system with interest (as computed by the retirement board) on the employee's portion prior to retirement of such person, by the employee or his employer, except as qualified by RCW 41.40.120;

(c) ~~((Service not to exceed six consecutive months of probationary service rendered after April 1, 1949, and prior to becoming a member, in the case of any member, upon payment in full by such member, prior to July 1, 1974 of the total amount of the employer's contribution to the retirement fund which would have been required under the law in effect when such probationary service was rendered if the member had been a member during such period.~~

(d)) Probationary service not to exceed six ((consecutive)) months ((of probationary service)), rendered after October 1, 1947, ((and before April 1, 1949,)) and prior to becoming a member, in the case of any member, upon payment in full by such member ((prior to July 1, 1974,)) to the benefit account fund of ((five)) six percent of such member's salary during said period of probationary service plus interest as computed by the director of the department of retirement systems.

(12) "Beneficiary" means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance, pension or other benefit provided by this chapter.

(13) "Regular interest" means such rate as the retirement board may determine.

(14) "Accumulated contributions" means the sum of all contributions standing to the credit of a member in his individual account together with the regular interest thereon.

(15) (a) "Average final compensation" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system prior to the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, means the annual average of the greatest compensation earnable by a member during any consecutive two year period of service for which service credit is allowed; or if he has less than two years of service then the annual average compensation earnable during his total years of service for which service credit is allowed.

(b) "Average final compensation" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, means the annual average of the greatest compensation earnable by a member during any consecutive twenty-four month period of service for which service credit is allowed; or if the member has less than twenty-four months of service then the annual average compensation earnable during the member's total years of service for which service credit is allowed.

Average final compensation for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act shall not include any of the following:

(i) Payments for deferred compensation or unused sick leave;

(ii) Any form of termination or severance pay;

(iii) Any additional compensation paid in anticipation of retirement; or

(iv) Payments for accrued annual leave.

(16) "Final compensation" means the annual rate of compensation earnable by a member at the time of termination of his employment.

(17) "Annuity" means payments for life derived from accumulated contributions of a member. All annuities shall be paid in monthly installments.

(18) "Pension" means payments for life derived from contributions made by the employer. All pensions shall be paid in monthly installments.

(19) "Retirement allowance" means the sum of the annuity and the pension.

(20) "Employee" means any person who may become eligible for membership under this chapter, as set forth in RCW 41.40.120.

(21) "Actuarial equivalent" means a benefit of equal value when computed upon the basis of such mortality and other tables as may be adopted by the retirement board.

(22) "Retirement" means withdrawal from active service with a retirement allowance as provided by this chapter.

(23) "Eligible position" means:

(a) Any position which normally requires five or more uninterrupted months of service a year for which regular compensation is paid to the occupant thereof;

(b) Any position occupied by an elected official or person appointed directly by the governor for which compensation is paid.

(24) "Ineligible position" means any position which does not conform with the requirements set forth in subdivision (23).

(25) "Leave of absence" means the period of time a member is authorized by the employer to be absent from service without being separated from membership.

(26) "Totally incapacitated for duty" means total inability to perform the duties of a member's employment or office or any other work for which the member is qualified by training or experience.

Sec. 2. Section 13, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 6, chapter 33, Laws of 1975 and RCW 41.40.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Membership in the retirement system shall consist of all regularly compensated employees and appointive and elective officials of employers as defined in this chapter who have served at least six months without interruption or who are employed, appointed or elected on or after July 1, 1965, with the following exceptions:

(1) Persons in ineligible positions and, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, on and after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, appointive and elective officials who receive monthly compensation from an employer in an amount equal to or less than seventy times the state minimum hourly wage;

(2) Employees of the legislature except the officers thereof elected by the members of the senate and the house and legislative committees, unless membership of such employees be authorized by the said committee;

(3) Persons holding elective offices or persons appointed directly by the governor: PROVIDED, That such persons shall have the option of applying for membership and to be accepted by the action of the retirement board, such application for those taking elective office for the first time after May 21, 1971 shall be submitted within eight years of the beginning of their initial term of office: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any such persons previously denied service credit because of any prior laws excluding membership which have subsequently been repealed, shall nevertheless be allowed to recover or regain such service credit denied or lost because of the previous lack of authority: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any persons holding elective offices or persons appointed by the governor who are members in the retirement system and who have, prior to becoming such members, previously held an elective office, and did not at the start of such initial or successive terms of office exercise their option to become members, may apply for membership and be accepted by action of the retirement board, to be effective during such term or terms of office, and shall be allowed to recover or regain the service credit applicable to such term or terms of office upon payment of the employee contributions therefor by the employee and employer contributions therefor by the employer or employee: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any person who was an elected official eligible to apply for membership pursuant to this subsection, who failed to exercise that option while holding such elected office and who is now a member of the retirement system, shall have the option to recover service credit for such elected service upon payment to the retirement system of the employee and employer contributions which would have been made had the person been a member during the period of such elective service;

(4) Employees holding membership in, or receiving pension benefits under, any retirement plan operated wholly or in part by an agency of the state or political subdivision thereof, or who are by reason of their current employment contributing to or otherwise establishing the right to receive benefits from any such retirement plan: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, In any case where the state employees' retirement system has in existence an agreement with another retirement system in connection with exchange of service credit or an agreement whereby members can retain service credit in more than one system, such an employee shall be allowed membership rights should the agreement so provide: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That an employee shall be allowed membership if otherwise eligible while receiving survivor's benefits as secondary payee under the optional retirement allowances as provided by RCW 41.40.190 or 41.40.185;

(5) Patient and inmate help in state charitable, penal and correctional institutions;

(6) "Members" of a state veterans' home or state soldiers' home;

(7) Persons employed by an institution of higher learning or community college, primarily as an incident to and in furtherance of their education or training, or the education or training of a spouse;

(8) Employees of an institution of higher learning or community college during the period of service necessary to establish eligibility for membership in the retirement plans operated by such institutions;

(9) Persons rendering professional services to an employer on a fee, retainer or contract basis or as an incident to the private practice of a profession;

(10) Persons appointed after April 1, 1963 by the liquor control board as agency vendors.

(11) Employees of a labor guild, association, or organization: PROVIDED, That elective officials and employees of a labor guild, association, or organization which qualifies as an employer within this chapter shall have the option of applying for membership and to be accepted by the action of the retirement board.

(12) Persons hired in eligible positions on a temporary basis for a period not to exceed six months: PROVIDED, That if such employees are employed for more than six months in an eligible position they shall become members of the system.

(13) Persons employed by or appointed or elected as an official of a first class city that has its own retirement system: PROVIDED, That any member elected or appointed to an elective office on or after April 1, 1971 shall have the option of continuing his membership in this system in lieu of becoming a member of the city system. A member who so elects to maintain his membership shall make his contributions and the city shall pay the employer contributions at the rates prescribed by this chapter. The city shall also transfer to this system all of such member's accumulated contributions together with such further amounts as necessary to equal all employee and employer contributions which would have been paid into this system on account of such service with the city and thereupon the member shall be granted credit for all such service. Any city that becomes an employer as defined in RCW 41.40.010(4) as the result of an individual's election under the first proviso of this subsection shall not be required to have all employees covered for retirement under the provisions of this chapter. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a city of the first class with its own retirement system from transferring all of its current employees to the retirement system established under this chapter.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, persons transferring from employment with a first class city of over four hundred thousand population that has its own retirement system to employment with the state department of agriculture may elect to remain within the retirement system of such city and the state shall pay the employer contributions for such persons at like rates as prescribed for employers of other members of such system.

Sec. 3. Section 19, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 7, chapter 190, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On and after April 1, 1949, any member with five years of creditable service who has attained age sixty and any original member who has attained age sixty may retire upon his written application to the retirement board, setting forth at what time(~~(, not less than thirty days, nor more than ninety days subsequent to the execution and filing thereof,)~~) he desires to be retired: PROVIDED, That in the national interest, during time of war engaged in by the United States, the retirement board may extend beyond age sixty, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, the age at which any member may be eligible to retire.

(2) On and after April 1, 1949, any member who has attained age seventy shall be retired forthwith on the first day of the calendar month next succeeding that in which the said member shall have attained the age of seventy: PROVIDED, That a member who has attained the age of seventy is possessed of special skill in the performance of particular duties, the retirement board shall continue such member in service for such period or periods as may be applied for by the governing body of the political subdivision where the member is employed or the head of the department, agency, commission, board and offices of the state: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any member holding elective office, having a fixed term to which he has been elected, who has attained age seventy may continue to serve as an elective official and to receive retirement credit for such service.

(3) On and after April 1, 1953, any member who has completed thirty years of service may retire on his written application to the retirement board setting forth at what time(~~(, not less than thirty days, nor more than ninety days subsequent to the execution and filing thereof,)~~) he desires to be retired, subject to war measures.

(4) On and after May 21, 1971 any member who has completed twenty-five years of service and attained age fifty-five may retire on his written application to the retirement board setting forth at which time(~~(, not less than thirty days, nor more than ninety days subsequent to the execution and filing thereof,))~~) he desires to be retired, subject to war measures.

(5) Any individual who is eligible to retire pursuant to subsections (1) through (4) of this section shall be allowed to retire while on any authorized leave of absence not in excess of one hundred and twenty days.

(6) (~~The retirement board is authorized to waive advance notice of retirement upon good cause shown:)~~) No regular application for benefits pursuant to this section shall entitle a member to benefits retroactive to the date of separation from service unless filed within one year of such separation. No vested member's application for benefits shall entitle such a member to benefits retroactive to the first date of eligibility unless filed within one year of such eligibility. Applications received after the one year limitation established by this subsection shall entitle the member to benefits commencing the first of the month following the month in which the application was received.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 190, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.185 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon retirement from service, as provided for in RCW 41.40.180 or 41.40.210, a member shall be eligible for a service retirement allowance computed on the basis of the law in effect at the time of retirement, together with such post-retirement pension increases as may from time to time be expressly authorized by the legislature. The service retirement allowance payable to members retiring on and after February 25, 1972 shall consist of:

(1) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2).

(2) A membership service pension, subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, which shall be equal to two percent of his average final compensation for each year or fraction of a year of membership service.

(3) A prior service pension which shall be equal to one-seventieth of his average final compensation for each year or fraction of a year of prior service not to exceed thirty years credited to his service accounts. In no event, except as provided in this 1972 amendatory act, shall any member receive a retirement allowance pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section of more than sixty percent of his average final compensation: PROVIDED, That no member shall receive a pension under this section of less than nine hundred dollars per annum if such member has twelve or more years of service credit, or less than one thousand and two hundred dollars per annum if such member has sixteen or more years of service credit, or less than one thousand five hundred and sixty dollars per annum if such member has twenty or more years of service credit.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) through (3) of this section, the retirement allowance payable for service where a member was elected or appointed pursuant to Articles II or III of the Constitution of the state of Washington or RCW 48.02.010 and the implementing statutes shall be a combined pension and annuity. Said retirement allowance shall be equal to three percent of the average final compensation for each year of such service. Any member covered by this subsection who upon retirement has served ten or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; such member who has served fifteen or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; and such member who has served twenty or more years shall receive a retirement allowance of at least two thousand four hundred dollars per annum: PROVIDED, That the initial retirement allowance of a member retiring only under the provisions of this subsection shall not exceed the average final compensation upon which the retirement allowance is based. The minimum benefits provided in this subsection shall apply to all retired members or to the surviving spouse of deceased members who were elected to the office of state senator or state representative. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any person subject to the provisions of section 10 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(5) Upon making application for a service retirement allowance under RCW 41.40.180, a member who is eligible therefor shall make an election as to the manner in which such service retirement shall be paid from among the following designated options, calculated so as to be actuarially equivalent to each other:

(a) Standard Allowance. A member selecting this option shall receive a retirement allowance, which shall be computed as provided in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section. The retirement allowance shall be payable throughout his life. However, if he dies before the total of the retirement allowance paid to him equals the amount of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement, then the balance shall be paid to such person or persons having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board, or if there be no such designated person or persons, still living at the time of his death, then to his surviving spouse, or if there be neither such designated person or persons still living at the time of his death nor a surviving spouse, then to his legal representative.

(b) Option II. A member who selects this option shall receive a reduced retirement allowance which upon his death shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board at the time of his retirement.

(c) Option III. A member who selects this option shall receive a reduced retirement allowance and upon his death, one-half of his reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board at the time of his retirement.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 190, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.193 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in RCW 41.40.180(6) as now or hereafter amended, retirement allowances paid to members eligible to retire under the provisions of RCW 41.40.180, 41.40.200, 41.40.210, 41.40.220, 41.40.230, 41.40.240 and 41.40.250 shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following the calendar month during which the member is separated from service. Retirement allowance paid to members eligible to retire under any other provisions of this 1972 amendatory act shall accrue from the first day of a calendar month but in no event earlier than the first day of the calendar month immediately following the calendar month during which the member is separated from service.

Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 68, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 14, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.195 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Index" for the purposes of this section, shall mean, for any calendar year, that year's annual average consumer price index for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items (~~((+1957=1959 equal one hundred))~~)—compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor;

(2) "Cost-of-living factor", for any year shall mean the ratio of the index for the previous year to the index for the year preceding the initial date of payment of the retirement allowance, except that, in no event, shall the cost-of-living factor, for any year subsequent to 1971, be

(a) less than 1.000;

(b) more than one hundred three percent or less than ninety-seven percent of the previous year's cost-of-living factor; or

(c) such as to yield a retirement allowance, for any individual, less than that which was in effect July 1, 1971;

(3) "Initial date of payment" shall mean:

(a) The date of retirement of a member, or

(b) In the case of beneficiary receiving an allowance pursuant to the automatic application of option II pursuant to RCW 41.40.270(2), the first day of the month following the date of death;

(4) Each service retirement allowance payable from July 1, 1973 until any subsequent adjustment pursuant to subsection (5) of this section shall be adjusted so as to equal the product of the cost-of-living factor for 1973 and the amount of said retirement allowance on the initial date of payment.

(5) Each service retirement allowance payable from July 1st of any year after 1973 until any subsequent adjustment pursuant to this subsection shall be adjusted so as to equal the product of the cost-of-living factor for such year and the amount of said retirement allowance on the initial date of payment: PROVIDED, That the board finds, at its sole discretion, that the cost of such adjustments shall have been met by the excess of the growth in the assets of the system over that required for meeting the actuarial liabilities of the system at that time.

(6) The cost-of-living increases provided by this section shall be applicable to those individuals receiving benefits calculated pursuant to chapter 41.44 RCW and paid by the public employees' retirement system pursuant to RCW 41.40.407.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to persons who first establish membership in the retirement system prior to the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, and to the beneficiaries of such persons.

Sec. 7. Section 21, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 5, chapter 277, Laws of 1955 and RCW 41.40.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the provisions of RCW 41.40.310 and 41.40.320, upon application of a member, or his employer, a member who becomes totally incapacitated for duty as the natural and proximate result of an accident occurring in the actual performance of duty, while in the service of an employer, without wilful negligence on his part, shall be retired: PROVIDED, The medical adviser after a medical examination of such member made by or under the direction of the said medical adviser shall certify in writing that such member is mentally or physically totally incapacitated for the further performance of his duty to his employer and that such member should be retired: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the retirement board concurs in the recommendation of the medical adviser: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, No application shall be valid or a claim thereunder enforceable unless filed within two years after the date upon which the (~~injury occurred~~) member became totally incapacitated for duty.

Sec. 8. Section 24, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 9, chapter 128, Laws of 1969 and RCW 41.40.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the provisions of RCW 41.40.310 and 41.40.320, upon application of a member, or his employer, a member who has been an employee at least five years, and who becomes totally and permanently incapacitated for duty as the result of causes occurring not in the performance of his duty, but arising while the member was employed by an employer may be retired by the retirement board: PROVIDED, The medical adviser, after a medical examination of such member, made by or under the direction of the said medical adviser shall certify in writing that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty, and such incapacity is likely to be permanent and that such member should be retired: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the retirement board concurs in the recommendation of the medical adviser; and PROVIDED FURTHER, That no application for nonduty disability benefits shall be valid or a claim thereunder enforceable unless received within two years of the date when the member became totally incapacitated for duty.

Sec. 9. Section 28, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 12, chapter 151, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Should a member die before the date of his retirement the amount of the accumulated contributions standing to his credit in the employees' savings fund, at the time of his death, shall be paid to such person or persons, having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement board. If there be no such designated person or persons still living at the time of the member's death, or if a member fails to file a new beneficiary designation subsequent to marriage, dissolution of marriage, divorce, or reestablishment of membership following termination by withdrawal or retirement, his accumulated contributions standing to his credit in the employees' savings fund shall be paid to his surviving spouse as if in fact such spouse had been nominated by written designation as aforesaid, or if there be no such surviving spouse, then to his legal representatives; (2) Upon the death in service, or while on authorized leave of absence for a period not to exceed one hundred and twenty days from the date of payroll separation, of any member who is qualified but has not applied for a service retirement allowance or has completed ten years of service at the time of death, ((and who has designated a beneficiary,)) the designated beneficiary, if a surviving spouse or a dependent as the term "dependent" is used in computing the dependent exemption for internal revenue purposes, may elect to waive the payment provided by subsection (1) of this section and option II of RCW 41.40.190(6) shall automatically be given effect as if selected for the benefit of the surviving spouse or dependent who is the designated beneficiary, except that if the member is not then qualified for a service retirement allowance, such option II benefit shall be based upon the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay the accrued regular retirement allowance commencing when the deceased member would have first qualified for a service retirement allowance; (3) PROVIDED FURTHER, That subsection (1) of this section, unless elected, shall not apply to any member who has applied for service retirement in RCW 41.40.180 as now or hereafter amended and thereafter dies between the date of his separation from service and his effective retirement date, where the member has selected either options II or III in RCW 41.40.190 or 41.40.185 as now or hereafter amended. In those cases, the beneficiary named in the member's final application for service retirement may elect to receive either a cash refund or monthly payments according to the option selected by the member.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

On and after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act persons elected or appointed pursuant to Articles II and III of the Washington state Constitution or RCW 48.02.010 and the implementing statutes who were not previous members of the retirement system shall be eligible for a retirement allowance equal to two percent of the average final compensation for each year of service up to a maximum of sixty percent of average final compensation.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the persons governed by this section shall be subject to the same eligibility standards, receive the same benefits, and such persons and their employers shall contribute at the same rates as for any other person first establishing membership in the retirement system on or after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Periodic adjustment of retirement allowances payable under the provisions of this chapter to persons first establishing membership in the retirement system on or after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, and to the beneficiaries of such persons, shall be made only in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(1) "Index" shall mean for any calendar year that year's annual average consumer price index for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items—compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor.

(2) "Cost-of-living factor" for any year shall mean the ratio of the index for the previous year to the index for the year preceding the initial date of payment of the retirement allowance, except that in no event shall the cost-of-living factor be

(a) less than 1.000;

(b) more than one hundred three percent or less than ninety-seven percent of the previous year's cost-of-living factor.

(3) "Retirement allowance" shall mean any retirement allowance, disability allowance, or survivorship benefit payable under the provisions of this chapter.

(4) Pursuant to this subsection every retirement allowance which is payable to a beneficiary and which has been in effect for more than one year shall be adjusted so as to equal the product of the cost-of-living factor for such year and the amount of such retirement allowance on the initial date of payment.

The board must find that the cost of adjustments herein provided for shall have been met by the excess of the growth in the assets of such retirement system over that required for meeting the actuarial liabilities of the system before paying any benefits pursuant to this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Section 31, chapter 274, Laws of 1947, section 21, chapter 240, Laws of 1949 and RCW 41.40.300 are each hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1977."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Scott: "Mr. President, I challenge the amendment, and raise the question of scope and object on this amendment in that on pages 20 and 21 there are a lot of titles cited there that aren't in the original amendment."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Members of the Senate, the President, in ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Scott, finds that Substitute House Bill number 865 is a bill establishing a completely revised public employees retirement system. The amendment by Senator Goltz and Senator Pullen addresses the same area, and therefore, the President believes that the point of order is not well taken and that the amendment does not change the scope and object of the measure."

The amendment by Senators Goltz and Pullen to the committee amendment was ruled in order.

Further debate ensued.

Senator Goltz demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Talley, Pullen, Grant, von Reichbauer, Keefe, Murray, Ridder, Monohon and Gaspard.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Goltz and Pullen to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 17; nays, 29; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Herr, Keefe, McDermott, Monohon, Murray, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wilson—17.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Washington, Wojahn, Woody—29.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bausch—1.

Excused: Senator Francis—1.

The motion by Senator Marsh carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Marsh moved the rules be suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 865 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill be placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Marsh carried on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Talley moved that Substitute House Bill No. 865 and Substitute House Bill No. 867 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talley failed on a rising vote.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 865, as amended by the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Will Senator Marsh yield to a question? Yesterday when we talked about the teacher system, we talked about the value of keeping teachers on the job for a more prolonged period in order to protect the pension system, and in the revision, today proposed within the PERS system we are also talking about extending the working life of employees. For the same percentage an employee will be working fifteen years longer? No, not quite, but at any rate, at thirty years they would earn forty-five percent rather than sixty percent of their salary. Do you have anything that indicates, Senator Marsh, what the impact on the general fund is as the result of keeping older, more highly paid employees on the job rather than opening those positions to younger employees?"

Senator Marsh: "Senator Ridder, I have in front of me a comparison of state actuary's projections, and the state actuary's projections point out that this committee amendment will save the state a hundred sixty-two point one million dollars in twenty years."

Senator Ridder: "In the general fund or in the pension fund?"

Senator Marsh: "In the general fund. We appropriate from the general fund to the pension fund, so that will save us a hundred sixty-two million dollars from our general fund appropriations to pensions.

"In addition, Senator Ridder, if we keep those experienced people on the job we will have the benefit of their services, and you know experienced help is much better than greener help, and I am sure they would be more productive than a brand new employee. I think there is a real advantage to that.

"In addition to that, I would point out that all the experts tell us that by 1990 we are going to have more people retired than working, and if we don't do something by keeping people on the job longer we are going to have a revolt among the working people who will be in the minority and they are going to be saying, 'we don't want to support the majority who are retired,' so I think we are just going for equity here. When we try to keep people on the job longer we get the benefit of their experience and we save the general fund millions and millions of dollars, and I hope that you will support this amendment."

Senator Ridder: "I would say that, of course, when you are having people on the job longer you are going to have not as many retired people to support, but you are not going to have the younger people working in order to support the other ones. I think it is kind of a circle that we aren't going to be able to absolve.

"Can you give me guarantees that that saving you talk about in the general fund encompasses the effect of older employees staying on the job longer at maximum salaries?"

Senator Marsh: "Senator Ridder, as you know, salaries are not necessarily dependent on-age. They are dependent on skill levels and responsibilities that are assigned to the employce, so you have asked an impossible question to answer."

Senator Ridder: "Well, I think not if you take it you are referring to step increases and so on. If you take it in the teaching profession in which there are lots of Indians, and not all that many chiefs, and I think the salary schedule is based generally on a factor of within ten years, twelve years to reach the maximum of your salary schedule, is that figured in the general fund, the saving that you are talking about? In other words, instead of hiring a teacher at ten or eleven thousand, and you are retaining a teacher at twenty thousand—?"

Senator Marsh: "Senator Ridder, I would point out we are not talking about the teachers retirement—"

Senator Ridder: "I realize that, except that is a more predictable—you said the other was not that readily accessible, and I am using the teachers as an example. I would assume that an employee who has started out at seventy-six hundred, and has had six percent increases, by the time they reach ten years with a department will be receiving approximately twice their original salary, and will be retained at that point for the succeeding thirty years of your prospective employment."

Senator Marsh: "Senator Ridder, I would like to think that salary increases are generally made on the basis of productivity, and that if our state employees are receiving higher and higher wages it is because they are becoming more and more productive because of experience and time on the job."

Senator Ridder: "Well, it is nice of you to say you would like to think that, but in a point of reality we give automatic increases and we are granting that in this subject bill."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 865, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 22; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Peterson, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Woody—25.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Herr, Keefe, McDermott, Monohon, Murray, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—22.

Excused: Senator Francis—1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 865, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Substitute House Bill No. 865, as amended by the Senate, was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

MOTION

At 5:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Thursday, June 2, 1977.

JOHN R. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

EIGHTY-FOURTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Thursday, June 2, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Buffington, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Herr, Lewis, Murray and North. On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Buffington, Lewis, Murray and North were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Theresa Grenfell and Gary Timm, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul J. Beeman, pastor of First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"O GOD, OUR FATHER, DURING THESE LATE DAYS OF THIS SESSION, WE PRAY FOR ALL MEMBERS OF THE SENATE. BE WITH THEM AS THEY PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER. HELP THEM TO ACKNOWLEDGE NOT ONLY THE DIFFERENCES THAT DIVIDE THEM AND THE RESENTMENTS THAT SEPARATE THEM, BUT HELP THEM ALSO TO CELEBRATE THE COMMON TASKS WHICH HAVE DRAWN THEM TOGETHER, AND THE LOVE FOR EACH OTHER WHICH HAS GROWN DURING THESE DAYS TOGETHER. LET THEM BE SLOW TO CRITICIZE, AND QUICK TO APPRECIATE; SLOW TO JUSTIFY THEMSELVES, AND QUICK TO EXCUSE ONE ANOTHER. WHEN THEY DISAGREE, HELP THEM TO LISTEN TO EACH OTHER, AND TO STRUGGLE TOWARD A COMMON TRUTH. SET THEM FREE FROM WORDS AND DEEDS THAT WOULD DEVASTATE OTHERS OR CRIPPLE THEMSELVES. BE WITH THOSE WHO MUST PICK UP THE PIECES OF BROKEN PROMISES. HEAL THOSE WHO MUST TRY TO PUT THEMSELVES TOGETHER AGAIN. DON'T LET ANY WALLOW IN ANGRY PAIN, BUT HELP THEM ALL TO THE FORGIVENESS WHICH LEADS TO RECONCILIATION. GRANT, OUR FATHER, THAT THE SATISFACTION OF WORK CAREFULLY PLANNED, STRUGGLED FOR AND COMPLETED, MAY SO FILL THESE SENATORS THAT THEY MAY EXPERIENCE THE UNITING SPIRIT OF YOUR LOVE, AND OF THEIR LOVE FOR EACH OTHER. IN THE BRIGHT SPIRIT OF OUR MASTER, WE PRAY. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 16, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 2080, with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 7, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature hereby recognizes that there does currently exist many opportunities whereby the citizenry of the state may volunteer their labor services to local governmental bodies or agencies and that such voluntary services provide an opportunity for such volunteers to assist in reducing the cost of governmental services and also provide a public service. The legislature also recognizes that traditionally the recipient unit of government compensates such volunteers for nominal out-of-pocket expenses associated with travel to and from the place where such services are rendered, clothing costs, laundry costs, and other similar costs by paying to such volunteers a uniform nominal amount per unit of voluntary service rendered. The legislature also recognizes that the receipt of such compensation does not normally constitute an income element to the recipient.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 294, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 289, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.46.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Director" means the director of labor and industries;

(2) "Wage" means compensation due to an employee by reason of his employment, payable in legal tender of the United States or checks on banks convertible into cash on demand at full face value, subject to such deductions, charges, or allowances as may be permitted by regulations of the director under RCW 49.46.050;

(3) "Employ" includes to suffer or to permit to work;

(4) "Employer" includes any individual, partnership, association, corporation, business trust, or any person or group of persons acting directly or indirectly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employee;

(5) "Employee" includes any individual employed by an employer but shall not include:

(a) Any individual employed (i) on a farm, in the employ of any person, in connection with the cultivation of the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and furbearing animals and wildlife, or in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of such farm and its tools and equipment; or (ii) in packing, packaging, grading, storing or delivering to storage, or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, any agricultural or horticultural commodity; and the exclusions from the term "employee" provided in this item shall not be deemed applicable with respect to commercial canning, commercial freezing, or any other commercial processing, or with respect to services performed in connection with the cultivation, raising, harvesting, and processing of oysters or in connection with any agricultural or horticultural commodity after its delivery to a terminal market for distribution for consumption;

(b) Any individual employed in domestic service in or about a private home;

(c) Any individual employed in a bona fide executive, administrative, or professional capacity or in the capacity of outside salesman (as such terms are defined and delimited by regulations of the director: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That such terms shall be defined and delimited by the state personnel board pursuant to chapter 41.06 RCW and the higher education personnel board pursuant to chapter 28B.16 RCW for employees employed under their respective jurisdictions);

(d) Any individual engaged in the activities of an educational, charitable, religious, governmental agency or nonprofit organization where the employer-employee relationship does not in fact exist or where the services are rendered to such organizations gratuitously;

(i) Any individual whose duties require that he reside or sleep at the place of his employment or who otherwise spends a substantial portion of his work time subject to call, and not engaged in the performance of active duties;

(j) Any resident, inmate, or patient of a state, county, or municipal correctional, detention, treatment or rehabilitative institution.

(k) Any individual who holds a public elective or appointive office of the state, any county, city, town, municipal corporation or quasi municipal corporation, political subdivision, or any instrumentality thereof, or any employee of the state legislature.

(l) All vessel operating crews of the Washington state ferries operated by the state highway commission.

(m) Any individual employed as a seaman on a vessel other than an American vessel.

(n) Any individual who volunteers to perform activities on a part time basis and as a public service for a local governmental body or agency and who may receive reimbursement in lieu of compensation for normally incurred out-of-pocket expenses or receives a nominal amount of compensation per unit of voluntary service rendered.

(o) Any individual employed full time by any local governmental body or agency who provides voluntary services as a public service but only with regard to the provision of such voluntary services.

(p) Any volunteer fireman enrolled under the provisions of chapter 41.24 RCW.

(6) "Occupation" means any occupation, service, trade, business, industry, or branch or group of industries or employment or class of employment in which employees are gainfully employed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 49.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When an individual volunteers his labor to a local governmental body or agency on a part time basis as a public service and receives pursuant to an ordinance or resolution adopted by such political subdivision an in lieu reimbursement at a nominal rate for normally incurred expenses such reimbursement shall not be deemed a salary for the rendering of services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. It is the intent of the legislature that if this bill and chapter ... (EHB 104), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess., which is also being considered by this legislature, are enacted into law the provisions of both are to be given full force and effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On line 1 of the title after "government" and before "voluntary" delete "public safety"

On line 5 of the title before "; and" delete "a new section" and insert "new sections", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senate Bill No. 2080 was rereferred to the Committee on Rules.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

June 1, 1977.

Mr. President: The House insists on its position regarding HOUSE BILL NO. 503, and refuses the Senate request for a conference thereon.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Henry, the Senate adheres to its position on House Bill No. 503, and insists that the House grant a conference.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 604, by Committee on Labor (originally sponsored by Representatives Lux, Pearsall, Fischer and Pruitt) (by Department of Labor and Industries request):

Revising the state industrial insurance laws.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Marsh and Jones:

On page 5, following line 21, add a section to read as follows: "Sec. ____ Chapter 23, section 51.12.050, Laws of 1961 as last amended by Chapter 43, section 8, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the state, county, any municipal corporation, or other taxing district shall engage in any work, or let a contract therefor, in which workmen are employed for wages, this title shall be applicable thereto. The employer's payments into the accident fund shall be made from the treasury of the state, county, municipality, or other taxing district. If the work is being done by contract, the payroll of the contractor and the subcontractor shall be the basis of computation and, in the case of contract work consuming less than one year in performance, the required payment into the accident fund shall be based upon the total payroll. The contractor and any subcontractor shall be subject to the provisions of this title, and the state for its general fund, the county, municipal corporation, or other taxing district shall be entitled to collect from the contractor the full amount payable to the accident fund and the contractor, in turn, shall be entitled to collect from the subcontractor his proportionate amount of the payment.

Whenever and so long as, by state law, city charter, or municipal ordinance, provision is made for employees or peace officers injured in the course of employment, such employees shall not be included in the payroll of the municipality under this title: PROVIDED, That whenever any state law, city charter, or municipal ordinance only provides for payment to the employee of the difference between his actual wages and that received under this title and may be included in the payroll of the municipality.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, nothing in this section shall be construed to annul, modify, or preclude the continuation of any existing contracts for providing disability and medical benefits pursuant to chapter 41.26 RCW. Upon the expiration date of such contracts, employers shall be required to cover all such employees as required pursuant to chapter _____, Laws of 1977 (SHB 867) under the provisions of Title 51 RCW."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I raise a point of order in regard to scope and object on this amendment. Mr. President, the amendment by Senator Marsh opens a brand new area with regard to this particular bill. It is primarily a housekeeping measure. It was introduced at the request of the department of labor and industries primarily to clean up some language problems and clarify some doubtful legalities.

"I think that the amendment by Senator Marsh deals with the LEOFF system which really has no relationship, currently at least, to worker's compensation and therefore should be ruled as expanding scope and object."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "I have no objection, Mr. President. Would it be appropriate at this time to raise the question of scope and object on another amendment which is on our desks?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That would not be in order at this time, Senator Ridder. However, in the interest of expediting the business of the Senate, the President will review all of the amendments and perhaps be prepared when the bill comes up once again."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Grant, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 604, together with the pending amendment by Senators Marsh and Jones and the Point of Order raised by Senator Grant, was ordered held at the end of today's calendar.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 538.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 538, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Hanna, Becker, King, Maxie, Gruger, Douthwaite, Nelson (Gary) and Whiteside):
Regulating social workers.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 9, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 538, regulating social workers (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Section 1. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The purpose of this chapter is to protect the public as regards the profession of social work by promoting high standards of professional performance, by requiring professional accountability, by setting standards of qualification, education, training, and experience for those persons who seek to engage in the practice of professional social work through agencies and as private practitioners, and by requiring licensing for persons using the title "social worker" in any manner.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Wherever used in this chapter, terms defined in this section shall have the meanings specified unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

(1) "Social work" and "social work practice":

(a) Mean the professional activity, using the title of social worker, of helping individuals, groups, or communities enhance or restore their capacity for social functioning and creating societal conditions favorable to this goal in the areas of clinical social work, social case work, social group work, and community social work; and

(b) Consist of the professional application of social work values, principles, and techniques which use the knowledge of human development and behavior and of social, economic, and cultural institutions.

(2) "Professional activity" means work which:

(a) Is predominately intellectual and varied in nature;

(b) Involves the consistent exercise of discretion and judgment in its performance; and

(c) Requires knowledge of an advanced type in a field of learning acquired by a prolonged course of specialized instruction.

(3) "Board" means the state board of social work examiners.

(4) "Department" means the department of motor vehicles.

(5) "Director" means the director of the department of motor vehicles.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There shall be appointed by the governor a state board of social work examiners which shall consist of five members, one of whom shall be initially appointed for a term of one year, two for a term of two years, and two for a term of three years. Thereafter, all appointments shall be for terms of three years. No person shall serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms.

The governor may remove any member from the board for neglect of a duty required by law, or for incompetency, or for unprofessional or dishonorable conduct. Vacancies in the membership of the board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each member of the board shall be a resident of the state of Washington. The board shall include three certified social workers and one social worker qualified pursuant to section 13 of this act or sections 10 through 12 of this act. Among the foregoing, one shall be a private practitioner and one shall represent the major employee groups. In addition to the foregoing, there shall be one public member who is a consumer of social work services.

Except as to the public member, initial members comprising this board shall be presumed to be eligible for licensing and, after licensing is established, shall be licensed under the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department shall have the following powers:

(1) With the advice of the board, to adopt, amend, or repeal such rules as deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter;

(2) To investigate all complaints and charges of grounds for disciplinary action against any holder of a license and to hold hearings to determine the validity of the charges;

(3) To employ necessary staff;

(4) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or proceeding;

(5) To take depositions or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding;

(6) To investigate complaints and charges of improper or unprofessional conduct, to analyze training and procedures in such cases, and to direct corrective action.

The department shall furnish to the board an executive secretary and such secretarial, clerical, and other assistance as may be necessary to effectively administer the provisions of this chapter. Each member of the board shall, in addition to travel expenses while away from home pursuant to RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, receive such compensation as is determined by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.03.040 for each day the member is engaged in the discharge of his or her duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The board shall meet at times and places designated by the director and shall hold meetings during the year as may be deemed necessary to transact its business. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At its organizational meeting, the board shall elect from among its members a chairperson and a secretary. All meetings of the board shall be open to the public except that the board may hold executive sessions to the extent permitted by RCW 42.30.110.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to the other duties set forth in this chapter, the department with the advice of the board shall promulgate rules under chapter 34.04 RCW that set sound ethical and professional standards for practice of those licensed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The initial appointee as executive secretary shall be qualified for licensing as a certified social worker as defined in this chapter. Subsequent appointees must be licensed as a certified social worker under the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Any person who engages in the practice of social work and who holds himself out as a social worker by using the title "social worker" shall be licensed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An applicant for a license to practice under this chapter shall submit to the department a written application on a form to be determined by the director with the approval of the board, together with such documentary evidence as shall be required to establish his or her educational attainment, and such other documentation as the board shall, from time to time, determine. The board, by rule, shall establish criteria for evaluating the applicant's ability to perform social work practice, and to that end shall require the applicant to pass a written examination. The examination shall be given at least annually in such subjects as the board shall determine. The board may supplement such examination by an oral or demonstration presentation. The standards for passing shall be prescribed and established by the board: PROVIDED, That the qualifications for application for licensure shall not exceed those established under section 11 of this act.

Every applicant for a license under this chapter shall pay to the state treasurer a fee determined by the director under RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended.

Licenses shall be issued under the categories of certified social worker, social worker, and social service technician.

The department shall not permit access to or use of its mailing list of licensees for commercial purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1)(a) Except as provided under section 13 of this act, qualifications for the license of a certified social worker shall be a minimum of a master's degree from a school of social work approved as of January 1, 1977, by the state board of social work examiners, or a combination of education and experience measurably equivalent to the master's degree as determined by the board.

(b) The board shall have a certificate of qualification for independent practice stating area or areas of specialty certification, such as clinical social work, community organization, and others as determined by the board. Applicants for specialty certification shall meet the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection and shall have completed two years of supervised experience in that specialty as approved by the board. This certification shall be displayed with or affixed to the license so issued.

(2) Qualifications for the license of social worker shall be a minimum of a baccalaureate degree in a social work program as approved by the state board of social work examiners as of January 1, 1977, or a combination of education and experience measurably equivalent to the baccalaureate degree as determined by the board.

(3) Qualification for the license of a social service technician shall consist of a minimum of an associate of arts degree from a board approved social or human services program and two years of board approved experience or measurably equivalent education and experience as approved by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Upon receiving a written application, evidence of qualification, and the required fee, the director, with the approval of the board, may issue a license to practice at the appropriate level without examination to an applicant who is currently duly licensed as a certified social worker or social worker or equivalent under the laws of another state, territory, or foreign country, so long as the requirements of such state, territory, or foreign country are substantially similar to those provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

From and after the effective date of this act, an applicant shall be exempt from the examination provisions of this chapter, with the exception of applicants wishing to be licensed under section 18 of this act, under the following conditions so long as application for exemption is made within eighteen months of the effective date of this act:

(1) The applicant shall establish to the satisfaction of the department that such applicant has been engaged in the practice of professional social work for two of the previous four years; and

(2) The applicant has the following academic qualifications:

(a) For certified social worker, a graduate degree from a board-approved school, or has successfully completed two years of professional education in a graduate school of social work without receiving a Master's degree and subsequently has ten or more years of full time social work experience acceptable to the board;

(b) For social worker, a baccalaureate or an associate degree in social work from a board approved school.

After eighteen months from the effective date of this act, the director, with the approval of the board, shall issue certificates of licensure only as provided in sections 10 through 12 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director may, by injunctive proceedings instituted by the attorney general, prevent the practice of social work by any person holding himself out as a social worker but not validly licensed pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Reported violations of this chapter shall be investigated by the department, and, if it finds that a violation has occurred, it shall immediately report the same to the prosecuting attorney in the county in which the violation occurred for prosecution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every license issued under this chapter shall be renewed annually in the month of the licensee's date of birth in the manner provided in this section. At least thirty days prior to expiration, the department shall mail a notice for license renewal to each person licensed for the current licensing period. The applicant must return the notice properly completed to the department with the renewal fee as determined by the director prior to the expiration date, upon receipt of which a license will be issued and forwarded to the applicant which shall render the holder thereof a legal practitioner of social work for the period stated on the license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any licensee who allows his or her license to lapse by failing to renew prior to expiration as provided in section 16 of this act, shall, upon application for renewal, pay a penalty of five dollars. If the applicant fails to renew the license before the end of the next licensing period following expiration, the license shall be issued thereafter by the department upon written application and penalty of twenty dollars. No one shall hold oneself out as a social worker without a current license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A person licensed under this chapter who desires to retire temporarily from the practice of social work in this state must send written notice thereof to the director.

Upon receipt of such notice the name of such person shall be placed upon the nonpracticing list. While on such list the person shall not be subject to payment of renewal fees, and shall not hold oneself out as a social worker in the state during such period. In order to resume practice under this chapter, application for renewal shall be made in ordinary course with the renewal fee for the current period. Persons on a nonpracticing status for a period in excess of five years must provide evidence of current knowledge and skill as may be required by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the department to issue or renew any license provided for in this chapter, or by the revocation or suspension of a license issued under this chapter, shall have a right of appeal in the manner provided by chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Where an applicant for licensing plans to or has come into this state from a jurisdiction which has no licensing or has dissimilar qualifications, and the applicant may have qualifications for licensing under this chapter, the director is authorized, upon examination by the board of an application for licensing submitted under this section, to issue a permit to allow temporary privileges for a period not to exceed ninety days, upon payment of a fee set by the director, pending completion of licensing procedures as specified in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The license of any person to practice social work under this chapter may be revoked or suspended for any of the following causes when found by the department that the person:

- (1) Procured or attempted to procure the license by fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation; or
- (2) Whose ability to perform the functions for which he or she is licensed is substantially impaired by reason of physical or mental disability; or
- (3) Has been grossly negligent in the practice of social work; or
- (4) Has been convicted of a felony; or
- (5) Has wilfully violated any of the provisions of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter.

The department shall, upon recommendation of the board, reissue a license previously revoked or suspended under the provisions of this section. Application for reissuance shall be made in such manner and under such conditions as the board may provide.

The private activities of persons licensed under this chapter shall not furnish grounds for disciplinary action unless they materially affect the licensee's professional services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It shall be a misdemeanor for any person to:

- (1) Fraudulently obtain a diploma, license, or record of graduation as a social worker or certified social worker;
- (2) Hold oneself out to be a social worker after January 1, 1978, without a license issued under the provisions of this chapter;
- (3) Knowingly make a false statement in connection with any applicant under this chapter;
- (4) Use in connection with his or her name any designation or initials tending to imply that he or she is licensed as a social worker unless the same is true;
- (5) Practice as a licensed social worker during the time of license suspension or revocation; or
- (6) Otherwise violate the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This chapter shall not be construed to prohibit:

- (1) The practice of social work by students attending a school of social work approved by the board of social work examiners during an internship approved by that school, or other training approved by the board. Students enrolled in recognized programs of study leading to social work degrees may practice only under the consultation of a certified social worker or a social worker licensed under this chapter.
- (2) Practice by trainees in agency programs approved by the board for a period not to exceed two years without board approved extension.
- (3) The practice by a person employed by the United States government.
- (4) The performance of teaching by qualified persons.

Any other profession licensed under state law shall be exempt from the licensing, regulatory, and disciplinary provisions of this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting any individual or group of individuals from offering counseling or guidance provided the individual or group of individuals do not hold themselves out as social workers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is added to Title 18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A social worker shall not, without the consent of his client, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in communication with his client which is necessary to enable him to assist his client, provided that for purposes of this section the client shall be considered the hiring agency or employer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. Sections 1 through 24 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW."

Signed by: Senators Goltz, Vice Chairman; Buffington, Cunningham, Francis, Gould, McDermott, Monohon, Wojahn.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Day moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Day yield? That word 'tightening up' covers a lot of ground. Just exactly what did you do?"

Senator Day: "Well, what we did was to better define the term 'social worker' so that it did not apply to literally even legislators, maybe, and that way, make the bill have stricter interpretation so that people who are actually social workers and need to be licensed would be the ones that did come under the purview of the licensing act."

Senator Talley: "Will you yield to this other question? I had a call from the county commissioners at home, and they were afraid that with this amendment that their employees who do this social work would not be able to belong to the association."

Senator Day: "No, that is not the intent of the act at all. It would be my opinion that they would be licensed and then they would be able to continue."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Substitute House Bill No. 538, together with the pending committee amendment, was ordered held for further consideration during the afternoon session today.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 619, by Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Sommers, Ehlers and Shinpoch) (by State Treasurer request):

Modifying investment authority of the state finance committee.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 619. On June 1, 1977, an amendment to page 4 had been moved for adoption by Senator Guess.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Guess the pending amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Bluechel:

On page 1, beginning on line 5, add sections as follows:

"Section 1. Section 7, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall:

(1) Have the authority to organize the department into not more than two divisions, each headed by an assistant director;

(2) Have free access to all files and records of various funds assigned to the department (~~((for investment purposes))~~) and inspect and audit the files and records as deemed necessary;

(3) With the assistance of the state finance committee, prepare written reports at least quarterly summarizing the investment (~~((and bond management))~~) activities of the department, which reports shall be sent to the governor, to the senate ways and means committee(~~(s of)~~), the house (~~((and senate, to members of the finance advisory))~~) appropriations committee, to all agencies having a direct financial interest in the investment of funds (~~((or issuance and sale of bonds by the director))~~), and to other persons on request;

(4) Employ personnel to carry out the general administration of the department;

(5) Submit an annual written report of the activities of the department to the governor and the legislature, including recommendations for statutory changes the director believes to be desirable;

(6) Adopt such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the powers, duties, and functions of the department pursuant to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 10, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.50.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The director and the state finance committee, with the approval of the respective boards, shall provide for the investment of all funds of the Washington public employees' retirement system, the teachers' retirement system, the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system, the Washington state patrol retirement system, the Washington judicial retirement system, and the judges' retirement fund, pursuant to RCW 43.84.150, and ~~((shall authorize))~~ may sell or exchange investments acquired in the exercise of that authority: PROVIDED, That the method of granting approval shall be determined by each board, respectively, in its sole discretion. The state finance committee ~~((to))~~ shall execute all such transactions. Nothing in this section or any other provision of law shall be construed to grant the director any investment powers other than as to funds of those retirement systems designated in this section.

Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 103, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 112, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.33.050 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the investment advisory committee to consist of ~~((seven))~~ eight members to be appointed as hereinafter provided:

(1) One person shall be appointed annually by the Washington public employees' retirement board. One person shall be appointed annually by the board of trustees of the Washington state teachers' retirement system. The original members appointed pursuant to this subsection shall serve for one year, measured from July 1 of the year in which the appointment is made.

(2) ~~((Four))~~ Five persons shall be appointed by the state finance committee, who shall be considered experienced and qualified in the field of investments ~~((and shall not during the term of their appointment have a financial interest in or be employed by any investment brokerage or mortgage servicing firm doing business with the state finance committee or retirement board))~~. The original members appointed by the state finance committee shall serve as follows: One member shall serve a one-year term; one member shall serve for a term of two years; one member shall serve for a term of three years; and one member shall serve for a term of four years. All subsequent state finance committee appointees shall serve for terms of four years. All such appointive terms shall commence on July 1 of the year in which appointment is made.

(3) ~~((One member of the public pension commission or its successor who shall be one of the members appointed by the governor and who shall be appointed to the investment advisory committee by the members of the public pension commission for a two-year term from July 1 of each odd-numbered year))~~ The state actuary appointed under RCW 44.44.010 who shall serve for the period while holding the office of the state actuary.

No member during the term of his or her appointment or for two years thereafter shall have a financial interest in or be employed by any investment brokerage or mortgage servicing firm doing business with the state finance committee.

All vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term. Each member shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and any member may be reappointed for additional terms.

The investment advisory committee shall meet at least quarterly at such times as it may fix.

Each member shall receive fifty dollars for each day or portion thereof spent discharging his official duties as a member of the advisory committee and travel expenses as provided, in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

Sec. 4. Section 9, chapter 103, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 26, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.33.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to its other powers and duties as may be prescribed by law, the investment advisory committee shall:

(1) Make recommendations as to general investment policies, practices, and procedures to the state finance committee and the director of retirement systems regarding those retirement funds for which the various retirement boards are designated trustees;

(2) Make recommendations as to general investment policies, practices, and procedures regarding all other investment funds to the state finance committee.

The director of retirement systems and the state finance committee shall make the final decision regarding the advice and recommendations submitted by the investment advisory committee."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 6, after line 27, add sections as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 41.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any investments under RCW 43.84.150 shall be made with the exercise of that degree of judgment and care, under circumstances then prevailing, which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not for speculation but for investment, considering the probable safety of their capital as well as the probable income to be derived.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any investments under RCW 43.84.150 shall be made with the exercise of that degree of judgment and care, under circumstances then prevailing, which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not for speculation but for investment, considering the probable safety of their capital as well as the probable income to be derived.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any investments under RCW 43.84.150 shall be made with the exercise of that degree of judgment and care, under circumstances then prevailing, which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not for speculation but for investment, considering the probable safety of their capital as well as the probable income to be derived.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 43.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The state finance committee shall prepare written reports at least quarterly summarizing the investment and bond management activities of the finance committee, which reports shall be sent to the governor, to the senate ways and means committee, the house appropriations committee, to members of the investment advisory committee, to all retirement boards, and other agencies having a direct financial interest in the investment of funds or issuance and sale of bonds by the committee, and to other persons on written request.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 43.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any investments made by the state finance committee shall be made with the exercise of that degree of judgment and care, under circumstances then prevailing, which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not for speculation but for investment, considering the probable safety of their capital as well as the probable income to be derived."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Beck: "Senator Rasmussen, would you yield to a question? Senator, both House Bill 619 and 620 are very urgently needed bills by the state treasurer. Does this meet with the approval of the state treasurer? This is not endangering either one of those bills is it?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No way."

Senator Beck: "Well, thank you very much. I hope we are not losing a good bill here by trying to put both of them on it."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Woody was excused.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendments by Senators Rasmussen and Bluechel to the title were adopted:

On line 1 of the title, after "investments;" and before "amending" insert "amending section 7, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.50-.050; amending section 10, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.50.080; amending section 7, chapter 103, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 112, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.33.050; amending section 9, chapter 103, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 26, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.33.070;"

Beginning on line 2 of the title after "RCW 43.84.150;" delete the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 41.26 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 41.50 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 41.40 RCW; and adding new sections to chapter 43.33 RCW."

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 619, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, I can recall from a point in time a few years ago when the retirees involved in these various systems had representation on the board or committee or whatever, and in effect, had some voice in the nature of the investments being made with their funds. My question is, do they still have this voice and would these two bills change that aspect of the retirement procedures at all?"

Senator Rasmussen: "In no way. The advisory committee members are made up the same as they are now."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 619, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 6.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

June 2, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE,
THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

MR. PRESIDENT:

We herewith respectfully transmit for your consideration, of a section vetoed by the governor of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2956, the remainder of which has been designated Chapter 141, Laws of 1977, First Extraordinary Session, together with a copy of the official veto message of the governor setting forth her objections to the section as provided by Article III, Section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and affixed the seal of the State of Washington, at Olympia on the 2nd day of June, 1977.

by DONALD F. WHITING
Deputy Secretary of State.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

PARTIAL VETO SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2956

Office of the Governor, June 1, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am returning to you herewith without my approval as to one section, SUBSTITUTION SENATE BILL NO. 2956, entitled:

"An Act Relating to outdoor advertising; and adding a new section to chapter 47.42 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

Section 3 of the bill declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect immediately. Under the Constitution, Article II, Sections 1(b) and 41, the use of an emergency clause should be restricted to those instances where the use is clearly warranted due to the urgency of the situation.

Although the intent of this bill requires compensation to be paid in those situations where signs are removed, there is no true emergency involved. For these reasons, I have vetoed this section.

With the exception of section 3, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2956 is approved.

Sincerely,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2472.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2472, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 615, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Enbody, Knowles and McKibbin):

Enacting the "Comprehensive Sentencing Act of 1977".

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 615, as amended by the Senate, on reconsideration.

Debate ensued.

Senator Fleming moved the rules be suspended and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 615 be returned to second reading.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Henry: "Will Senator Fleming yield to a question? Would you mind reading the amendment before we go back to second reading?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator, Senator Grant is working on a very technical amendment, and I don't know what the full text of that amendment might be at this point in time."

Senator Henry: "It looks to me like he is resting on it."

The motion by Senator Fleming failed.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Buffington: "Thank you, Mr. President. I wondered if Senator Francis would yield to a question? Senator Francis, would you mind explaining to us, please, the committee's intent for the use of the term 'clear certainty' throughout the bill?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Buffington, the term 'clear certainty' is a standard that is higher than one of 'beyond a reasonable doubt', and it is used only if the jury has already found that the person has committed first degree murder under those circumstances in which they then have to go to the question of whether or not to impose the death penalty or whether it will merely be a term of life without possibility of parole.

"At that point they must determine if they are going to impose the death penalty that the person would commit other violent acts if released, and that that is probable.

"Then they also have to then go over what they have already decided beyond reasonable doubt, and they have to decide that the person did those acts convicted of, and that they are convinced of that with a clear certainty. The idea of that and the reason that the House members used that term was that if there was only a conviction 'beyond a reasonable doubt', but not a 'clear certainty' that the person had done what I would refer to as aggravated first degree murder, then they would just have to decide that they would not impose the death penalty.

"So, that is their standard. It is a much higher standard than one of simply 'beyond a reasonable doubt'. They have to be 'clearly certain' that the person is guilty and that these aggravating circumstances have taken place, and that there are no mitigating circumstances sufficient to determine that it is not aggravated murder in the first degree."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of 615, as amended by the Senate, on reconsideration.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 615, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate, on reconsideration, by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 11; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Woody—35.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Fleming, Goltz, Gould, Grant, McDermott, Odegaard, Van Hollebeke, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—11.

Excused: Senators Herr, Murray—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 615, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, on reconsideration, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 867.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 867, by Committee on Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Sommers, Blair, Shinpoch, Wilson, Patterson, Hansen, Gilleland, Charnley and Barr):

Creating a revised LEOFF retirement system.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 16, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 867, creating a revised LEOFF retirement system (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. APPLICATION TO CERTAIN PERSONS. Sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act shall, on or after July 1, 1977, apply only to:

- (1) Those persons who are initially employed by an employer; or
- (2) Those members who have transferred pursuant to section 15 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. COMPUTATION OF THE RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE. A member of the retirement system shall receive a retirement allowance equal to one and one-half percent of such member's final average salary for each year of service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. RETIREMENT FOR SERVICE. (1) NORMAL RETIREMENT. Any member with five or more years of service who has attained at least age sixty-five shall be eligible to retire and to receive a retirement allowance computed according to the provisions of section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) EARLY RETIREMENT. Any member who has completed at least five years of service and attained age sixty-two shall be eligible to retire and to receive a retirement allowance computed according to the provisions of section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, except that a member retiring pursuant to this subsection shall have the retirement allowance actuarially reduced to reflect the difference in the number of years between age at retirement and the attainment of age sixty-five.

(3) TRANSITION ALLOWANCE. (a) Any member who has completed at least twenty years of service and has not attained the age of fifty-six, shall be eligible to receive, once only, for a period not to exceed two consecutive years a transition allowance equivalent to sixty percent of the basic salary.

(b) In addition, the member shall receive a grant, upon proof of registration and in accordance with rules adopted by the department, for the tuition or fee at an accredited postsecondary, vocational, or technical school. This grant shall not be given for more than two consecutive academic years and shall not exceed the biennial tuition required for a resident student at a state university.

(c) Upon attainment of the appropriate age, the member shall be eligible for the retirement allowance provided in subsections (1) or (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. POST-RETIREMENT COST-OF-LIVING. Beginning July 1, 1979, and every year thereafter, the department shall determine the following information for each retired member or beneficiary whose retirement allowance has been in effect for at least one year:

(1) The original dollar amount of retirement allowance;

(2) The index for the calendar year prior to the effective date of the retirement allowance, to be known as "index A";

(3) The index for the calendar year prior to the date of determination, to be known as "index B"; and

(4) The percentage amount when index B is divided by index A.

The percentage obtained, if any, shall be the annual adjustment to the original retirement allowance and shall be applied beginning with the July payment. In no event, however, shall the annual adjustment:

(a) Produce a retirement allowance which is lower than the original retirement allowance;

(b) Exceed six percent in the initial annual adjustment; or

(c) Differ from the previous year's annual adjustment by more than six percent.

For the purposes of this section, "index" means, for any calendar year, that year's average consumer price index—Seattle, Washington area for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items, compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. EMPLOYER, MEMBER, AND STATE CONTRIBUTIONS. The required contribution rates to the retirement system for members and employers shall be established by the director from time to time as may be necessary upon the advice of the state actuary.

Contribution rates required to fund the costs of the retirement system shall always be equal for members and employers, except as herein provided. Any adjustments in contribution rates required from time to time for future costs shall likewise be shared equally by the members and employers: PROVIDED, That the cost of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of that portion of the retirement system, as in effect on June 30, 1977, shall be borne in full by the state.

The director shall notify the retirement board of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate and such increase shall be announced at a board meeting held at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.

Members' contributions required by this section shall be deducted from the members basic salary each payroll period. The members contribution and the employers contribution shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends.

Until such time as the director shall establish other rates, members and employers of such members shall each contribute five and one-half percent of basic salary: PROVIDED, That the state shall initially contribute an additional twenty percent of basic salary per member to fund the cost of amortizing that portion of the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system as in effect on June 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. OPTIONS FOR PAYMENT OF RETIREMENT ALLOWANCES. Upon retirement for service as prescribed in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, a member shall elect to have the retirement allowance paid pursuant to Option 1, 2, or 3 with Options 2 and 3 calculated so as to be actuarially equivalent to Option 1.

(1) OPTION 1. A member electing this option shall receive a retirement allowance payable throughout such member's life. However, if the retiree dies before the total of the retirement allowance paid to such retiree equals the amount of such retiree's accumulated contributions at the time of retirement, then the balance shall be paid to such person or persons having an insurable interest in the retiree's life as the retiree shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department; or if there be no such designated person or persons still living at the time of the retiree's death, then to the surviving spouse; or if there be neither such designated person or persons still living at the time of death nor a surviving spouse, then to the retiree's legal representative.

(2) OPTION 2. A member who elects this option shall receive a reduced retirement allowance, which upon the member's death shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person having an insurable interest in the retiree's life as the retiree shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department at the time of the retiree's retirement.

(3) OPTION 3. A member who elects this option shall receive a reduced retirement allowance, and upon the member's death one-half of the retiree's reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person having an insurable interest in the retiree's life as the retiree shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department at the time of the retiree's retirement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. DISABILITY. Members of the retirement system shall receive disability benefits pursuant to Title 51 RCW and insurance benefits provided in whole or in part by employers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. APPLICATION FOR AND EFFECTIVE DATE OF RETIREMENT ALLOWANCES. Any member or beneficiary eligible to receive a retirement allowance under the provisions of sections 3 or 10 of this 1977 amendatory act, or a member eligible to receive a transition allowance under section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, shall be eligible to commence receiving such allowance after having filed written application with the department.

(1) Retirement allowances paid to members under the provisions of section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following such member's separation from employment.

(2) Retirement allowances paid to vested members no longer in service, but qualifying for such an allowance pursuant to section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following such qualification.

(3) Retirement allowances paid as death benefits under the provisions of section 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall accrue from the first day of the calendar month immediately following the member's death.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. SUSPENSION OF RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE UPON EMPLOYMENT. No retiree under the provisions of sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be eligible to receive such retiree's monthly retirement allowance pursuant to section 3(1) and 3(2) of this 1977 amendatory act if such retiree enters service for any nonfederal public employer in this state.

Upon cessation of service for any nonfederal public employer in this state such retiree shall have benefits actuarially recomputed pursuant to the rules adopted by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. DEATH BENEFITS. (1) Upon the death of a member who is not eligible for a retirement allowance pursuant to section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, the amount of the accumulated contributions standing to such member's credit in the retirement system at the time of such member's death shall be paid to such person or persons having an insurable interest in such member's life as the member shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the department. If there be no such designated person or persons still living at the time of the member's death, such member's accumulated contributions standing to such member's credit in the retirement system shall be paid to the member's surviving spouse as if in fact such spouse had been nominated by written designation, or if there be no such surviving spouse, then to such member's legal representatives.

(2) Upon the death of a member who is eligible for retirement, the surviving spouse or eligible child or children shall elect to receive either:

(a) A retirement allowance computed as provided for in section 3(1) of this 1977 amendatory act actuarially adjusted to reflect Option 2 of section 6 of this 1977 amendatory act and if the member was not eligible for normal retirement at the date of death a further reduction as described in section 3(2) of this 1977 amendatory act. If a surviving spouse who is receiving a retirement allowance dies leaving a child or children of the member under the age of majority, then such child or children shall continue to receive an allowance in an amount equal to that which was being received by the surviving spouse, share and share alike, until such child or children reach the age of majority. If there is no surviving spouse eligible to receive an allowance at the time of the member's death, such member's child or children under the age of majority shall receive an allowance, share and share alike, calculated as herein provided making the assumption that the ages of the spouse and member were equal at the time of the member's death; or

(b) The member's accumulated contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. SERVICE CREDIT FOR AUTHORIZED LEAVE OF ABSENCE. (1) A member who is on a paid leave of absence authorized by a member's employer shall continue to receive service credit as provided for under the provisions of sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) A member shall be eligible to receive a maximum of two years service credit during a member's entire working career for those periods when a member is on an unpaid leave of absence authorized by an employer. Such credit may be obtained only if the member makes the employer and member contributions plus interest as determined by the department for the period of the authorized leave of absence within five years of resumption of service or prior to retirement whichever comes sooner. The contributions required shall be based on the average of the member's basic salary at both the time the authorized leave of absence was granted and the time the member resumed employment.

A member who is inducted into the armed forces of the United States shall be deemed to be on an unpaid authorized leave of absence and may receive up to two years of service credit upon compliance with the conditions imposed by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. VESTED MEMBERSHIP. A member who separates or has separated after having completed at least five years of service may remain a member during the period of such member's absence from service for the exclusive purpose only of receiving a retirement allowance under the provisions of section 3(1) or 3(2) of this 1977 amendatory act if such member maintains the member's accumulated contributions intact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. REFUND OF CONTRIBUTIONS. A member who ceases to be an employee of an employer may request a refund of the member's accumulated contributions. The refund shall be made within ninety days following the receipt of the request and notification of termination by the employer; except that in the case of death, initial payment shall be made within thirty days of receipt of request for such payment. A member who files a request for refund and subsequently enters into employment with another employer prior to the refund being made shall not be eligible for a refund. The refund of accumulated contributions shall terminate all rights to benefits under sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. REENTRY. A member, who as a previous member had left service and withdrawn the member's accumulated contributions, shall receive service credit for such prior service if the member restores the lesser of:

(1) All withdrawn accumulated contributions together with interest since the time of withdrawal as determined by the department; or

(2) The contributions which would have been required for such service pursuant to section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act plus interest thereon as determined by the department.

The restoration of such funds must be completed within five years of the resumption of service or prior to retirement, whichever occurs first.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. TRANSFER. (1) Members of the system who established membership on or before June 30, 1977, may irrevocably elect to be covered by sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act. Such election shall be held pursuant to rules adopted by the department.

(2) Upon electing to be governed by sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act, the member shall:

(a) Be subject to the membership provisions and benefit accrual provided for in sections 2 through 14 of this 1977 amendatory act; and

(b) Receive a refund of that portion of accumulated member contributions that represents the difference between the contribution required by section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act and RCW 41.26.080.

(3) The department shall provide each member eligible to make the election under this section with information which:

(a) Notifies the member of the election provision;

(b) Provides a comparison of system benefits; and

(c) Describes the potential refund available.

(4) The provisions of this section shall terminate on June 30, 1982.

Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.030 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1) "Retirement system" means the "Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system" provided herein.

(2) (a) "Employer" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means the legislative authority of any city, town, county or district or the elected officials of any municipal corporation that employs any law enforcement officer and/or fire fighter, any authorized association of such municipalities, and, except for the purposes of RCW 41.26.150, any labor guild, association, or organization, which represents the fire fighters or law enforcement officers of at least seven cities of over 20,000 population and the membership of each local lodge or division of which is composed of at least sixty percent law enforcement officers or fire fighters as defined in this chapter.

(b) "Employer" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means the legislative authority of any city, town, county, or district or the elected officials of any municipal corporation that employs any law enforcement officer and/or fire fighter.

(3) "Law enforcement officer" means any person who is serving on a full time, fully compensated basis as a county sheriff or deputy sheriff, including sheriffs or deputy sheriffs serving under a different title pursuant to a county charter, city police officer, or town marshal or deputy marshal, with the following qualifications:

(a) No person who is serving in a position that is basically clerical or secretarial in nature, and who is not commissioned shall be considered a law enforcement officer;

(b) Only those deputy sheriffs, including those serving under a different title pursuant to county charter, who have successfully completed a civil service examination for deputy sheriff or the equivalent position, where a different title is used, and those persons serving in unclassified positions authorized by RCW 41.14.070 except a private secretary will be considered law enforcement officers;

(c) Only such full time commissioned law enforcement personnel as have been appointed to offices, positions, or ranks in the police department which have been specifically created or otherwise expressly provided for and designated by city charter provision or by ordinance enacted by the legislative body of the city shall be considered city police officers; and

(d) The term "law enforcement officer" also includes the executive secretary of a labor guild, association or organization (which is an employer under RCW 41.26.030(2) as now or hereafter amended) if such individual has five years previous membership in the retirement system established in chapter 41.20 RCW: PROVIDED, That for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, the provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply.

(4) "Fire fighter" means:

(a) any person who is serving on a full time, fully compensated basis as a member of a fire department of an employer and who is serving in a position which requires passing a civil service examination for fire fighter, or fireman if this title is used by the department, and who is actively employed as such;

(b) anyone who is actively employed as a full time fire fighter where the fire department does not have a civil service examination;

(c) supervisory fire fighter personnel;

(d) any full time executive secretary of an association of fire protection districts authorized under chapter 52.08 RCW: PROVIDED, That for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, the provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply;

(e) the executive secretary of a labor guild, association or organization (which is an employer under RCW 41.26.030(2) as now or hereafter amended), if such individual has five years previous membership in a retirement system established in chapter 41.16 or 41.18 RCW: PROVIDED, That for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, the provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply;

(f) any person who is serving on a full time, fully compensated basis for an employer, as a fire dispatcher, in a department in which, on March 1, 1970, a dispatcher was required to have passed a civil service examination for fireman or fire fighter; and

(g) any person who on March 1, 1970, was employed on a full time, fully compensated basis by an employer, and who on May 21, 1971 was making retirement contributions under the provisions of chapter 41.16 or 41.18 RCW.

(5) "Retirement board" means the Washington public employees' retirement system board established in chapter 41.40 RCW, including two members of the retirement system and two employer representatives as provided for in RCW 41.26-.050. The retirement board shall be called the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement board and may enter in legal relationships in that name. Any legal relationships entered into in that name prior to the adoption of this 1972 amendatory act are hereby ratified.

(6) "Surviving spouse" means the surviving widow or widower of a member. The word shall not include the divorced spouse of a member.

(7) "Child" or "children" whenever used in this chapter means every natural born child and stepchild where that relationship was in existence prior to the date benefits are payable under this chapter, posthumous child, child legally adopted or made a legal ward of a member prior to the date benefits are payable under this chapter, ((stepchild)) and illegitimate child legitimized prior to the date any benefits are payable under this chapter, all while unmarried, and either under the age of eighteen years or mentally or physically handicapped as determined by the retirement board except a handicapped person in the full time care of a state institution. A person shall also be deemed to be a child up to and including the age of twenty years and eleven months while attending any high school, college, or vocational or other educational institution accredited, licensed, or approved by the state, in which it is located, including the summer vacation months and all other normal and regular vacation periods at the particular educational institution after which the child returns to school.

(8) "Member" means any fire fighter, law enforcement officer, or other person as would apply under subsections (3) or (4) of this section whose membership is transferred to the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system on or after March 1, 1970, and every law enforcement officer and fire fighter who is employed in that capacity on or after such date.

(9) "Retirement fund" means the "Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system fund" as provided for herein.

(10) "Employee" means any law enforcement officer or fire fighter as defined in subsections (3) and (4) above.

(11) (a) "Beneficiary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance, disability allowance, death benefit, or any other benefit described herein.

(b) "Beneficiary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided by this chapter resulting from service rendered to an employer by another person.

(12) (a) "Final average salary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means ((~~(a)~~)) (i) for a member holding the same position or rank for a minimum of twelve months preceding the date of retirement, the basic salary attached to such same position or rank at time of retirement; ((~~(b)~~)) (ii) for any other member, including a civil service member who has not served a minimum of twelve months in the same position or rank preceding the date of retirement, the average of the greatest basic salaries payable to such member during any consecutive twenty-four month period within such member's last ten years of service for which service credit is allowed, computed by dividing the total basic salaries payable to such member during the selected twenty-four month period by twenty-four; ~~((c))~~ (iii) in the case of disability of any member, the basic salary payable to such member at the time of disability retirement; ~~((d))~~ (iv) in the case of a member who hereafter vests pursuant to RCW 41.26.090, the basic salary payable to such member at the time of vesting.

(b) "Final average salary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means the monthly average of the member's basic salary for the highest consecutive sixty months of service prior to such member's retirement, termination, or death. Periods constituting authorized unpaid leaves of absence may not be used in the calculation of final average salary.

(13) (a) "Basic salary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means the basic monthly rate of salary or wages, including longevity pay but not including overtime earnings or special salary or wages, upon which pension or retirement benefits will be computed and upon which employer contributions and salary deductions will be based.

(b) "Basic salary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means salaries or wages earned by a member during a payroll period for personal services, including overtime payments, but shall exclude payments for deferred unused sick leave, unused accumulated vacation, unused accumulated annual leave, or any form of severance pay, as reported by the employer on the wage and tax statement submitted to the federal internal revenue service: PROVIDED, That in any year in which a member serves in the legislature such member's basic salary shall be the greater of: (i) The basic salary the member would have received had such member not served in the legislature; or (ii) such member's actual basic salary received for law enforcement or fire fighting work and legislative service combined; any additional contributions to the retirement system required because basic salary under subparagraph (i) of this subsection is greater than basic salary under subparagraph (ii) of this subsection shall be paid by the member for both member and employer contributions.

(14) (a) "Service" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means all periods of employment for an employer as a fire fighter or law enforcement officer, for which compensation is paid, together with periods of suspension not exceeding thirty days in duration. For the purposes of this chapter service shall also include service in the armed forces of the United States as provided in RCW 41.26.190. Credit shall be allowed for all months of service rendered by a member from and after his initial commencement of employment as a fire fighter or law enforcement officer, during which he worked for ten days or more, or the equivalent thereof, or was on disability leave or disability retirement. Only months of service shall be counted in the computation of any retirement allowance or other benefit provided for in this chapter. In addition to the foregoing, for members retiring after May 21, 1971 who were employed under the coverage of a prior pension act before March 1, 1970, "service" shall include ~~((a))~~ (i) such military service not exceeding five years as was creditable to the member as of March 1, 1970, under his particular prior pension act, and ~~((b))~~ (ii) such other periods of service as were then creditable to a particular member under the provisions of RCW 41.18.165, 41.20.160 or 41.20.170. However, in no event shall credit be allowed for any service rendered prior to March 1, 1970, where the member at the time of rendition of such service was employed in a position covered by a prior pension act, unless such service, at the time credit is claimed therefor, is also creditable under the provisions of such prior act: PROVIDED, That if such member's prior service is not creditable due to the withdrawal of his contributions plus accrued interest thereon from a prior pension system, such member shall be credited with such prior service, as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter, by paying to the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system, on or before March 1, 1975, an amount which is equal to that which was withdrawn from the prior system by such member, as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such member's prior service is not creditable because, although employed in a position covered by a prior pension act, such member had not yet become a member of the pension system governed by such act, such member shall be credited with such prior service as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter, by paying to the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system, on or before March 1, 1975, an amount which is equal to the employer's contributions which would have been required under the prior act when such service was rendered if the member had been a member of such system during such period: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That where a member is employed by two employers at the same time, he shall only be credited with service to one such employer for any month during which he rendered such dual service.

(b) "Service" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means periods of employment by a member for one or more employers for which basic salary is earned for seventy or more hours per calendar month.

Years of service shall be determined by dividing the total number of months of service by twelve. Any fraction of a year of service as so determined shall be taken into account in the computation of such retirement allowance or benefits.

Any person who is a member of the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system and who is elected or appointed to a state elective position may continue to be a member of the retirement system and continue to receive service credit for the time spent in a state elective position by making the required member contributions.

If a member receives basic salary from two or more employers during any calendar year such member shall receive a total of not more than twelve months of service for such calendar year.

(15) "Accumulated contributions" means the employee's contributions made by a member plus accrued interest credited thereon.

(16) "Actuarial reserve" means a method of financing a pension or retirement plan wherein reserves are accumulated as the liabilities for benefit payments are incurred in order that sufficient funds will be available on the date of retirement of each member to pay his future benefits during the period of his retirement.

(17) "Actuarial valuation" means a mathematical determination of the financial condition of a retirement plan. It includes the computation of the present monetary value of benefits payable to present members, and the present monetary value of future employer and employee contributions, giving effect to mortality among active and retired members and also to the rates of disability, retirement, withdrawal from service, salary and interest earned on investments.

(18) "Disability board" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means either the county disability board or the city disability board established in RCW 41.26.110.

(19) "Disability leave" means the period of six months or any portion thereof during which a member is on leave at an allowance equal to his full salary prior to the commencement of disability retirement. The definition contained in this subsection shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

(20) "Disability retirement" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means the period following termination of a member's disability leave, during which the member is in receipt of a disability retirement allowance.

(21) "Position" means the employment held at any particular time, which may or may not be the same as civil service rank.

(22) "Medical services" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, shall include the following as minimum services to be provided. Reasonable charges for these services shall be paid in accordance with RCW 41.26.150.

(a) Hospital expenses: These are the charges made by a hospital, in its own behalf, for

(i) Board and room not to exceed semiprivate room rate unless private room is required by the attending physician due to the condition of the patient.

(ii) Necessary hospital services, other than board and room, furnished by the hospital.

(b) Other medical expenses: The following charges are considered "other medical expenses", provided that they have not been considered as "hospital expenses".

(i) The fees of the following:

(A) A physician or surgeon licensed under the provisions of chapter 18.71 RCW;

(B) An osteopath licensed under the provisions of chapter 18.57 RCW;

(C) A chiropractor licensed under the provisions of chapter 18.25 RCW.

(ii) The charges of a registered graduate nurse other than a nurse who ordinarily resides in the member's home, or is a member of the family of either the member or the member's spouse.

(iii) The charges for the following medical services and supplies:

(A) Drugs and medicines upon a physician's prescription;

(B) Diagnostic x-ray and laboratory examinations;

(C) X-ray, radium, and radioactive isotopes therapy;

(D) Anesthesia and oxygen;

(E) Rental of iron lung and other durable medical and surgical equipment;

(F) Artificial limbs and eyes, and casts, splints, and trusses;

(G) Professional ambulance service when used to transport the member to or from a hospital when he is injured by an accident or stricken by a disease;

(H) Dental charges incurred by a member who sustains an accidental injury to his teeth and who commences treatment by a legally licensed dentist within ninety days after the accident;

(I) Nursing home confinement or hospital extended care facility;

(J) Physical therapy by a registered physical therapist;

(K) Blood transfusions, including the cost of blood and blood plasma not replaced by voluntary donors;

(L) An optometrist licensed under the provisions of chapter 18.53 RCW.

(23) "Regular interest" means such rate as the department may determine.

(24) "Retiree" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means any member in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided by this chapter resulting from service rendered to an employer by such member.

(25) "Department" means the department of retirement systems created in chapter 41.50 RCW.

(26) "Director" means the director of the department.

(27) "State actuary" means the person appointed pursuant to RCW 44.44.010(2).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of the following sections of this chapter shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977: RCW 41.26.080, 41.26.090, 41.26.100, 41.26.110, 41.26.120, 41.26.130, 41.26.140, 41.26.150, 41.26.160, 41.26.190, 41.26.200, 41.26.240, 41.26.250 except as otherwise provided in section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act, RCW 41.26.260 and 41.26.270.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Section headings used in this 1977 amendatory act shall not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 1 through 15 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be added to chapter 41.26 RCW and shall be codified as consecutive sections of the Revised Code of Washington within such chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1977."

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Jones, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Newschwander, Sandison, Scott, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 1, after line 5, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. LEGISLATIVE FINDING. It is the legislative finding that those employees who are presently members of the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system may retain membership in this retirement system or may transfer into the parallel retirement system created by this act but in no instance shall there be any diminishment or loss of benefits or rights, whether current or prospective, of those employees, other than the provisions of disability, who retain their membership in the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system and who were first employed on or before June 30, 1977."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

On motion of Senator Jones, the following amendment by Senators Mardesich and Jones to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 19, following line 2, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. ____ A select committee shall be appointed for the purpose of presenting findings and recommendations to the legislature not later than January 1, 1978 on potential revenue needs of counties, cities and towns relative to any increased cost to such political subdivisions for retirement systems resulting from the passage of this 1977 amendatory act. Such potential revenue needs shall be presented in a manner reflecting the incremental costs of such system corresponding to the incremental growth in membership subsequent to the enactment of this 1977 amendatory act.

The select committee shall consist of six members of the legislature: three members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house from the house of representatives, one of whom shall be the chairman of the standing committee on revenue; three members shall be appointed by the president of the senate from the senate, one of whom shall be the chairman of the standing committee on ways and means."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendments by Senators Goltz and Marsh to the committee amendment were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 19, following line 2, add a new section to read:

"Section ____ Section 3, chapter 257, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by Section 8, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.045 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law after February 19, 1974 no law enforcement officer or fire fighter, may become eligible for coverage in the pension system established by this chapter, until he has met and has been certified as having met minimum medical and health standards: PROVIDED, That an elected sheriff or an appointed chief of police or fire chief, shall not be required to meet the age standard: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in cities and towns having not more than two law enforcement officers and/or not more than two fire fighters and if one or more of such persons do not meet the minimum medical and health standards as required by the provision of this chapter, then such person or persons may join any other pension system that the city has available for its other employees: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That for one year after February 19, 1974 any such medical or health standard now existing or hereinafter adopted, insofar as it establishes a maximum age beyond which an applicant is to be deemed ineligible for coverage, shall be waived as to any applicant for employment or reemployment who is otherwise eligible except for his age, who has been a member of any one or more of the retirement systems created by chapter 41.20 of the Revised Code of Washington and who has restored all contributions which he has previously withdrawn for any such system or systems."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

On page 19, following line 2, add a new section as follows:

"Section ____ Chapter 131, Section 2, Laws of 1971 Ex. Sess. as amended by chapter 120, Section 12, Laws of 1974 and RCW 41.26.046 are each amended to read as follows:

By July 31, 1971, the retirement board shall adopt minimum medical and health standards for membership coverage into the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system act. In adopting such standards the retirement board shall consider existing standards recommended by the international association of chiefs of police and the international association of fire fighters, and shall adopt equal or higher standards, together with appropriate standards and procedures to insure uniform compliance with this chapter. The standards when adopted shall be published and distributed to each employer, and each employer shall adopt certification procedures and such other procedures as are required to insure that no law enforcement officer or fire fighter receives membership coverage unless and until he has actually met minimum medical and health standards: PROVIDED, That an elected sheriff or an appointed chief of police or fire chief shall not be required to meet the age standard. The retirement board may amend the minimum medical and health standards as experience indicates, even if the standards as so amended are lower or less rigid than those recommended by the international associations mentioned above. The cost of the medical examination contemplated by this section is to be paid by the employer."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following amendment by Senators Marsh and Scott to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 19, following line 2, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. ____ There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the employer shall provide such information as required by the state actuary regarding the award of the disability leave allowance. Such information shall include, but shall not be limited to:

1. The number of persons receiving disability leaves;
2. The certified reason for disability; when the disability was initially incurred; and, if it was duty related;
3. The disability leave allowance paid and for how long;

4. The number of replacement personnel required to cover the loss of personnel on disability leave allowance and the resulting cost incurred; and,

5. The age of the employee and the length of service at the time of the disability leave.

The employer shall also provide such information as required by the state actuary regarding disability and medical benefit costs including, but not limited to, those required under provisions of this chapter.

The information required by this section shall be from March 1, 1970 forward." Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

On motion of Senator Scott, the following amendment by Senators Marsh, Scott, Mardesich and Buffington to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 19, following line 2, add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. ____ Chapter 209, section 17, Laws of 1969 as last amended by chapter 120, section 5, Laws of 1974 and RCW 41.26.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the event of the death of any member who is in active service, or who has vested under the provisions of RCW 41.26.090 with twenty or more years of service, or who is on disability leave or retired, whether for disability or service, his surviving spouse shall become entitled to receive a monthly allowance equal to fifty percent of his final average salary at the date of death if active, or the amount of retirement allowance the vested member would have received at age fifty, or the amount of the retirement allowance such retired member was receiving at the time of his death if retired for service or disability. The amount of this allowance will be increased five percent of final average salary for each child as defined in RCW 41.26.030(7), as now or hereafter amended, subject to a maximum combined allowance of sixty percent of final average salary: PROVIDED, That if the child or children is or are in the care of a legal guardian, payment of the increase attributable to each child will be made to the child's legal guardian.

(2) If at the time of the death of a vested member with twenty or more years service as provided above or a member retired for service or disability, the surviving spouse has not been lawfully married to such member for one year prior to his retirement or separation from service if a vested member, the surviving spouse shall not be eligible to receive the benefits under this section: PROVIDED, That if a member dies as a result of a disability incurred in the line of duty, then if he was married at the time he was disabled, his surviving spouse shall be eligible to receive the benefits under this section.

(3) If there be no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits at the time of such member's death, then the child or children of such member shall receive a monthly allowance equal to thirty percent of final average salary for one child and an additional ten percent for each additional child subject to a maximum combined payment, under this subsection, of sixty percent of final average salary. When there cease to be any eligible children as defined in RCW 41.26.030(7), as now or hereafter amended, there shall be paid to the legal heirs of said member the excess, if any, of accumulated contributions of said member at the time of his death over all payments made to his survivors on his behalf under this chapter: PROVIDED, That payments under this subsection to children shall be prorated equally among the children, if more than one.

(4) In the event that there is no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits under this section, and that there be no child or children eligible to receive benefits under this section, then the accumulated contributions shall be paid to the estate of said member.

(5) If a surviving spouse receiving benefits under the provisions of this section thereafter dies ((or remarries)) and there are children as defined in RCW

41.26.030(7), as now or hereafter amended, payment to the spouse shall cease and the child or children shall receive the benefits as provided in subsection (3) above.

(6) The payment provided by this section shall become due the day following the date of death and payments shall be retroactive to that date."

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 19, following line 2, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. _____. A select committee shall be appointed for the purpose of presenting findings and recommendations to the legislature not later than January 1, 1978, on the on-going employment of law enforcement and fire fighting personnel in state and local government. The findings and recommendations of such select committee shall include, but not be limited to, the development of an inter-governmental personnel training program, in-service training, and preferential hiring.

The committee shall consist of six members of the legislature: three members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives from the house of representatives, one of whom shall be the chairman of the standing committee on local government and one of whom shall be the chairman of the standing committee on state government; three members shall be appointed by the president of the senate from the senate, one of whom shall be the chairman of the standing committee on local government and one of whom shall be the chairman of the standing committee on state government."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Talley: "Mr. Chairman, could I ask a question on personal privilege? I voted on the prevailing side on House Bill 867. I would like to move to reconsider, and I will tell you why I would like to move to reconsider and get your opinion on it. I would like to go back—"

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Talley, the President does not wish to interrupt you, but there hasn't been a final vote on Substitute House Bill number 867."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "What number was the death penalty bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The death penalty bill was 615."
Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE (CONTINUED)

Senator Talley: "Well, I am not on 615, I am sorry. On 615, would it be in order to move to reconsider? I would like to put it back to second reading and hang this bill on it. I think it needs the death penalty bad."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Talley: "Personal privilege. I would like to say to Senator Marsh and to Senator Clarke, you keep referring to longshoremens and their retirement. Well, I am not a longshoreman, but I work for a port district, and the longshoremen under Harry Bridges' leadership have one of the best retirement systems in the world.

"Another question to you sir. I have an amendment being prepared and it will have to wait for some time from the pollution control commission and are there very many more amendments to be considered?"

President Cherberg: "Several more, Senator Talley."

Senator Talley: "I have an amendment being prepared that we will furnish to these policemen when they reach the age of fifty-five a motorized skateboard because I don't think they are going to be able to catch these young fellows and their runners unless they say, 'you run a hundred yards and stop and we will breathe awhile, and then we will run again,' but as soon as the pollution control can assure me that my skateboard will pass the test then mine will be ready."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 1, beginning on line 38, strike all the matter down through page 2, line 15.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: I wonder if Senator Marsh would yield? Senator Marsh, you have talked about degrees, and I don't think I clearly understood you. I know my hearing is not the best. Did you say they would get a BA degree or a BS degree?"

Senator Marsh: "I bet you that they would probably get either a BA or BS which you know, Senator Talley, stands for Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Will Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator, we are presuming that under the transition allowance a fire fighter or policeman may very possibly be fitted for some other public employment, and in fact, the fourth bill would implement that, the theory of portability. I am wondering what the pension would be based upon if they were to enter the PERS system. Fire fighters and policemen are paid fairly well these days, but many of our public employees in general are not paid nearly as well. On what salary would the pension be based then presuming that a retired fire fighter enters the PERS system for ten years?"

Senator Marsh: "The pension benefit of such an individual with ten years service in the PERS system after having completed the LEOFF system, and assuming that the portability bill does pass, would be based on the highest five years."

Senator Ridder: "That is different from what is in this bill, then."

Senator Marsh: "No, it is not. The pension here is based on the highest five years."

Senator Ridder: "Then perhaps I misunderstood where it says 'such member's final average salary.'"

Senator Marsh: "We are talking about, as far as the transition allowance, is highest salary. Are you referring to section 3, subsection 3, Senator?"

Senator Ridder: "I am referring to section 2, line 18."

Senator Marsh: "Line 18 merely sets out the computation of the credit that is earned for years of service, one and a half percent a year for each year of service, so that if a member had ten years service, he would have a fifteen percent pension. With twenty years, he would have a thirty percent pension, thirty years, forty-five percent pension, and so on."

Senator Ridder: "My concern is, and Senator Mardesich is looking through the bill for me, as to whether the definition says, 'the five final years' or 'the five highest', because it is conceivable that the final years, the final ten years still might not come up to the average of a final LEOFF system salary."

Senator Marsh: "Senator Ridder, that particular definition of 'final average salary' is set out towards the end of the bill, and it is on page 13, and it reads as follows: 'final average salary for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977 means the monthly average of the member's basic salary for the highest consecutive sixty years of service'"

Senator Ridder: "Sixty months, I hope."

Senator Marsh: "Sixty months of service prior to such member's retirement, termination or death. Periods constituting authorized unpaid leaves of absence may not be used in the calculation of final average salary."

Senator Ridder: "I would contend that unless some correction is made, you are subjecting these people to a retirement that would be a greater percentage but a smaller total final average salary."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SCOTT

Senator Scott: "Senator Ridder, there are two reasons why that probably would not be the case. It conceivably could be the case that there were very low salaries taken in the second profession, but the individual continues to earn service credit which is going to increase the multiplier on the salary paid so that the second thing is that the second income, the second job, is going to be at a later date and inflation itself will move the retirement into a higher bracket unless that second salary is drastically lower."

REMARKS BY SENATOR JONES

Senator Jones: "Mr. President, in partial response to Senator Ridder, the portability bill, I think if you would take a look at that answer is that it is somewhat in detail, and it is an average of the two and will tend to flow to the highest figure, and if they would take a look at the portability bill I believe it answers that specifically, which we hope to pass after this measure."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Jones yield to a question? Senator Jones, you inferred to Senator Ridder that the portability was the answer. It is my understanding that if this policeman or fireman takes the transition, gets educated and gets the BS degree that Senator Marsh was throwing around here, then goes to work on the other job and achieves four years at the other job and then has to retire. He has not qualified for another retirement system, so he gets the return of his benefits and is thrown out on the scrap heap. Is this correct? He gets the return of what he paid in."

Senator Jones: "You lost me somewhere after that 'BS degree', I think, and—"

Senator Rasmussen: "It requires five years to vest, Senator, and he has not been able—he is transitional now. He has gone—"

Senator Jones: "He goes into another system, right?"

Senator Rasmussen: "He does not get in five years, so then—"

Senator Jones: "There is no necessity for another five years. It is cumulative. It adds on. There is no necessity, it vests for five years in the other system. It is a direct add on—"

Senator Rasmussen: "Then I didn't read it right, and I would suggest that you reread it also."

Senator Jones: "I have checked with the people who wrote it, and I read it correctly, I believe."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 11, after "university" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That the state shall guarantee reemployment to the member until age sixty-five at a salary no less than that paid to the position held at time of termination"

Debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Talley, Washington, Fleming, Ridder, Grant, Pullen and Goltz.

MOTIONS

Senator Odegaard moved that Senator Sandison be excused.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the motion by Senator Odegaard was amended and Senator Sandison was excused for the roll call on the amendment by Senator Rasmussen to the committee amendment only.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Rasmussen to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 7; nays, 37; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Fleming, Francis, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley—7.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Peterson, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—37.

Absent or not voting: Senator Woody—1.

Excused: Senators Herr, Murray, Sandison—3.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Rasmussen, the amendment to page 3, line 35 to the committee amendment, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

Senator Wojahn moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Wojahn and Goltz to the committee amendment:

On page 1, line 26 after the period add the following:

"PROVIDED, That members attaining age seventy-five must retire from the police or fire service."

Debate ensued.

The motion failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Jones moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Jones and Marsh to the committee amendment.

On page 4, line 43, strike all of line 43 and down through "benefits" on line 44, and insert "coverage pursuant to Title 51 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, and insurance coverage"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Jones carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 5, line 41, after "the" and before "death" insert "non-duty related"
Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Grant failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 6, line 43 after the period add the following: "(3) upon the death of a member from duty-related causes, his surviving spouse shall receive a monthly retirement allowance equal to sixty percent of salary at the date of death."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Grant yield to a question, please? Senator Grant, I don't see any provision in here regarding the marriage of the spouse. If the spouse were to remarry the day after the funeral and marry a millionaire, the law should still be that he or she would receive a sixty percent pension?"

Senator Grant: "Senator, I would have no problem with rewriting this to provide for the remarriage situation you have talked about. It has taken me quite a bit of time to work this one up, but I will spend some time on that."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Grant, the amendment to the committee amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Talley moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 19, beginning on line 29, strike all of section 21, and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This 1977 amendatory act shall take effect July 1, 1980.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talley failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Further debate ensued.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 18, line 33 after the period insert, "for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, every employer shall provide a medical insurance program to provide coverage for medical costs.

Any officer receiving disability benefits under the provisions of section 7 of this act shall be eligible to receive benefits covering all medical expenses incurred which relate directly to the condition giving rise to the duty disability.

"Medical expenses" means hospital expenses for board and room not to exceed a semiprivate room rate unless a private room is required by the attending physician and other necessary hospital services; fees for licensed physicians, surgeons, osteopaths, chiropractors, dentists, registered nurses, optometrists, and physical therapists; charges for drugs and medicines upon a physician's prescription, diagnostic x-ray and laboratory examinations, x-ray, radium, and radioactive isotopes therapy, anesthesia and oxygen, rental of iron lung and other durable medical and surgical equipment, artificial limbs and eyes, and casts, splints, and trusses; professional ambulance services, blood transfusions, including the cost of blood and blood plasma not replaced by voluntary donors; and nursing home confinement or hospital extended care facility."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Grant failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Talley moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Talley, Grant, Pullen, Murray, Rasmussen, Walgren, Wojahn, Keefe and Henry to the committee amendment:

Beginning on page 1, after line 5, of the Senate Committee Amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 867, strike the remainder of the amendment and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 3, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.030 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1) "Retirement system" means the "Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system" provided herein.

(2) (a) "Employer" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means the legislative authority of any city, town, county or district or the elected officials of any municipal corporation that employs any law enforcement officer and/or fire fighter, any authorized association of such municipalities, and, except for the purposes of RCW 41.26.150, any labor guild, association, or organization, which represents the fire fighters or law enforcement officers of at least seven cities of over 20,000 population and the membership of each local lodge or division of which is composed of at least sixty percent law enforcement officers or fire fighters as defined in this chapter.

(b) "Employer" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means the legislative authority of any city, town, county or district or the elected officials of any municipal corporation that employs any law enforcement officer and/or fire fighter.

(3) (a) "Law enforcement officer" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means any person who is serving on a full time, fully compensated basis as a county sheriff or deputy sheriff, including sheriffs or deputy sheriffs serving under a different title pursuant to a county charter, city police officer, or town marshal or deputy marshal, with the following qualifications:

((~~a~~)) (i) No person who is serving in a position that is basically clerical or secretarial in nature, and who is not commissioned shall be considered a law enforcement officer;

((~~b~~)) (ii) Only those deputy sheriffs, including those serving under a different title pursuant to county charter, who have successfully completed a civil service examination for deputy sheriff or the equivalent position, where a different title is used, and those persons serving in unclassified positions authorized by RCW 41.14-.070 except a private secretary will be considered law enforcement officers;

((~~c~~)) (iii) Only such full time commissioned law enforcement personnel as have been appointed to offices, positions, or ranks in the police department which have been specifically created or otherwise expressly provided for and designated by city charter provision or by ordinance enacted by the legislative body of the city shall be considered city police officers; and

((~~d~~)) (iv) The term "law enforcement officer" also includes the executive secretary of a labor guild, association or organization (which is an employer under RCW 41.26.030(2) as now or hereafter amended) if such individual has five years previous membership in the retirement system established in chapter 41.20 RCW.

(b) "Law enforcement officer" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means any person who is serving on a full time, fully compensated basis as a county sheriff or deputy sheriff, including sheriffs or deputy sheriffs serving under a different title pursuant to a county charter, city police officer, or town marshal or deputy marshal, with the following qualifications:

(i) No person who is serving in a position that is basically clerical or secretarial in nature, and who is not commissioned shall be considered a law enforcement officer;

(ii) Only those deputy sheriffs, including those serving under a different title pursuant to a county charter, who have successfully completed a civil service examination for deputy sheriff or the equivalent position, where a different title is used, and those persons serving in unclassified positions authorized by RCW 41.14.070 except a private secretary will be considered law enforcement officers;

(iii) Only such full time commissioned law enforcement personnel as have been appointed to offices, positions, or ranks in the police department which have been specifically created or otherwise expressly provided for and designated by city charter provision or by ordinance enacted by the legislative body of the city shall be considered city police officers.

(4) (a) "Fire fighter" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means:

((fa)) (i) any person who is serving on a full time, fully compensated basis as a member of a fire department of an employer and who is serving in a position which requires passing a civil service examination for fire fighter, or fireman if this title is used by the department, and who is actively employed as such;

((fb)) (ii) anyone who is actively employed as a full time fire fighter where the fire department does not have a civil service examination;

((fc)) (iii) supervisory fire fighter personnel;

((fd)) (iv) any full time executive secretary of an association of fire protection districts authorized under chapter 52.08 RCW;

((fe)) (v) the executive secretary of a labor guild, association or organization (which is an employer under RCW 41.26.030(2) as now or hereafter amended), if such individual has five years previous membership in a retirement system established in chapter 41.16 or 41.18 RCW;

((ff)) (vi) any person who is serving on a full time, fully compensated basis for an employer, as a fire dispatcher, in a department in which, on March 1, 1970, a dispatcher was required to have passed a civil service examination for fireman or fire fighter; and ((fg)) (vii) any person who on March 1, 1970, was employed on a full time, fully compensated basis by an employer, and who on May 21, 1971 was making retirement contributions under the provisions of chapter 41.16 or 41.18 RCW.

(b) "Fire fighter" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means:

(i) any person who is serving on a full time, fully compensated basis as a member of a fire department of an employer and who is serving in a position which requires passing a civil service examination for fire fighter, or fireman if this title is used by the department, and who is actively employed as such;

(ii) anyone who is actively employed as a full time fire fighter where the fire department does not have a civil service examination; and

(iii) supervisory fire fighter personnel;

(iv) any person who is serving on a full time, fully compensated basis for an employer, as a fire dispatcher, in a department in which a dispatcher was required to have passed a civil service examination for fireman or fire fighter.

(5) "Retirement board" means the Washington public employees' retirement system board established in chapter 41.40 RCW, including two members of the retirement system and two employer representatives as provided for in RCW 41.26-.050. The retirement board shall be called the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement board and may enter in legal relationships in that name. Any legal relationships entered into in that name prior to the adoption of this 1972 amendatory act are hereby ratified.

(6) "Surviving spouse" means the surviving widow or widower of a member. The word shall not include the divorced spouse of a member.

(7) "Child" or "children" whenever used in this chapter means every natural born child and stepchild where that relationship was in existence prior to the date benefits are payable under this chapter, posthumous child, child legally adopted or made a legal ward of a member prior to the date benefits are payable under this chapter, ~~((stepchild))~~ and illegitimate child legitimized prior to the date any benefits are payable under this chapter, all while unmarried, and either under the age of eighteen years or mentally or physically handicapped as determined by the retirement board except a handicapped person in the full time care of a state institution. A person shall also be deemed to be a child up to and including the age of twenty years and eleven months while attending any high school, college, or vocational or other educational institution accredited, licensed, or approved by the state, in which it is located, including the summer vacation months and all other normal and regular vacation periods at the particular educational institution after which the child returns to school.

(8) "Member" means any fire fighter, law enforcement officer, any individual serving as a chief of police or fire chief for two or more employers pursuant to an agreement entered into by and between two or more employers, or other person as would apply under subsections (3) or (4) of this section whose membership is transferred to the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system on or after March 1, 1970, and every law enforcement officer and fire fighter who is employed in that capacity on or after such date who meets the minimum medical and health standards required in RCW 41.26.045 as now or hereafter amended.

(9) "Retirement fund" means the "Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system fund" as provided for herein.

(10) "Employee" means any law enforcement officer or fire fighter as defined in subsections (3) and (4) above.

(11) "Beneficiary" means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance, disability allowance, death benefit, or any other benefit described herein.

(12) (a) "Final average salary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means ~~((a))~~ (i) for a member holding the same position or rank for a minimum of twelve months preceding the date of retirement, the basic salary attached to such same position or rank at time of retirement; ~~((b))~~ (ii) for any other member, including a civil service member who has not served a minimum of twelve months in the same position or rank preceding the date of retirement, the average of the greatest basic salaries payable to such member during any consecutive twenty-four month period within such member's last ten years of service for which service credit is allowed, computed by dividing the total basic salaries payable to such member during the selected twenty-four month period by twenty-four; ~~((c))~~ (iii) in the case of disability of any member, the basic salary payable to such member at the time of disability retirement; ~~((d))~~ (iv) in the case of a member who hereafter vests pursuant to RCW 41.26.090, the basic salary payable to such member at the time of vesting.

(b) "Final average salary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means (i) the annual average of the greatest basic salaries payable to a member during any three year period of service in the last ten years of service for which service credit is allowed, computed by dividing the total basic salaries payable to such member during the selected thirty-six month period by thirty-six; (ii) in the case of disability of any member, the basic salary payable to such member at the time of disability retirement. The term "final average salary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, shall not include any of the following:

(A) Payments for deferred compensation, unused sick leave, accumulated vacation or annual leave, or other credits for personal services not rendered;

(B) Any form of termination or severance pay;

(C) Any additional compensation paid in anticipation of retirement.

(13) (a) "Basic salary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means the basic monthly rate of salary or wages, including longevity pay but not including overtime earnings or special salary or wages, upon which pension or retirement benefits will be computed and upon which employer contributions and salary deductions will be based.

(b) "Basic salary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means the basic monthly rate of salary or wages, including longevity pay and disability leave allowances but not including overtime earnings or special salary or wages, upon which pension or retirement benefits will be computed and upon which employer contributions and salary deductions will be based.

(14) "Service" means all periods of employment for an employer as a fire fighter or law enforcement officer, for which compensation is paid, together with periods of suspension not exceeding thirty days in duration. For the purposes of this chapter service shall also include service in the armed forces of the United States as provided in RCW 41.26.190. Credit shall be allowed for all months of service rendered by a member from and after his initial commencement of employment as a fire fighter or law enforcement officer, during which he worked for ten days or more, or the equivalent thereof, or was on disability leave or disability retirement. Only months of service shall be counted in the computation of any retirement allowance or other benefit provided for in this chapter. In addition to the foregoing, for members retiring after May 21, 1971 who were employed under the coverage of a prior pension act before March 1, 1970, "service" shall include (a) such military service not exceeding five years as was creditable to the member as of March 1, 1970, under his particular prior pension act, and (b) such other periods of service as were then creditable to a particular member under the provisions of RCW 41.18.165, 41.20.160 or 41.20.170. However, in no event shall credit be allowed for any service rendered prior to March 1, 1970, where the member at the time of rendition of such service was employed in a position covered by a prior pension act, unless such service, at the time credit is claimed therefor, is also creditable under the provisions of such prior act: PROVIDED, That if such member's prior service is not creditable due to the withdrawal of his contributions plus accrued interest thereon from a prior pension system, such member shall be credited with such prior service, as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter, by paying to the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system, on or before March 1, 1975, an amount which is equal to that which was withdrawn from the prior system by such member, as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such member's prior service is not creditable because, although employed in a position covered by a prior pension act, such member had not yet become a member of the pension system governed by such act, such member shall be credited with such prior service as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter, by paying to the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system, on or before March 1, 1975, an amount which is equal to the employer's contributions which would have been required under the prior act when such service was rendered if the member had been a member of such system during such period: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That where a member is employed by two employers at the same time, he shall only be credited with service to one such employer for any month during which he rendered such dual service.

(15) "Accumulated contributions" means the employee's contributions made by a member plus accrued interest credited thereon.

(16) "Actuarial reserve" means a method of financing a pension or retirement plan wherein reserves are accumulated as the liabilities for benefit payments are incurred in order that sufficient funds will be available on the date of retirement of each member to pay his future benefits during the period of his retirement.

(17) "Actuarial valuation" means a mathematical determination of the financial condition of a retirement plan. It includes the computation of the present monetary value of benefits payable to present members, and the present monetary value of future employer and employee contributions, giving effect to mortality among active and retired members and also to the rates of disability, retirement, withdrawal from service, salary and interest earned on investments.

(18) "Disability board" means either the county disability board or the city disability board established in RCW 41.26.110.

(19) (a) "Disability leave" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, means the period of six months or any portion thereof during which a member is on leave at an allowance equal to his full salary prior to the commencement of disability retirement.

(b) "Disability leave" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, means: (i) For a disability incurred in line of duty, the period of six months or any portion thereof during which a member is on leave at an allowance equal to his full salary prior to the commencement of disability retirement; and (ii) for a disability not incurred in line of duty the period of two months or any portion thereof during which a member is on leave at an allowance equal to his full salary prior to the commencement of disability retirement.

(20) "Disability retirement" means the period following termination of a member's disability leave, during which the member is in receipt of a disability retirement allowance.

(21) "Position" means the employment held at any particular time, which may or may not be the same as civil service rank.

(22) "Medical services" shall include the following as minimum services to be provided. Reasonable charges for these services shall be paid in accordance with RCW 41.26.150.

(a) Hospital expenses: These are the charges made by a hospital, in its own behalf, for

(i) Board and room not to exceed semiprivate room rate unless private room is required by the attending physician due to the condition of the patient.

(ii) Necessary hospital services, other than board and room, furnished by the hospital.

(b) Other medical expenses: The following charges are considered "other medical expenses", provided that they have not been considered as "hospital expenses".

(i) The fees of the following:

(A) A physician or surgeon licensed under the provisions of chapter 18.71 RCW;

(B) An osteopath licensed under the provisions of chapter 18.57 RCW;

(C) A chiropractor licensed under the provisions of chapter 18.25 RCW.

(ii) The charges of a registered graduate nurse other than a nurse who ordinarily resides in the member's home, or is a member of the family of either the member or the member's spouse.

(iii) The charges for the following medical services and supplies:

(A) Drugs and medicines upon a physician's prescription;

(B) Diagnostic x-ray and laboratory examinations;

- (C) X-ray, radium, and radioactive isotopes therapy;
- (D) Anesthesia and oxygen;
- (E) Rental of iron lung and other durable medical and surgical equipment;
- (F) Artificial limbs and eyes and casts, splints, and trusses;
- (G) Professional ambulance service when used to transport the member to or from a hospital when he is injured by an accident or stricken by a disease;
- (H) Dental charges incurred by a member who sustains an accidental injury to his teeth and who commences treatment by a legally licensed dentist within ninety days after the accident;
- (I) Nursing home confinement or hospital extended care facility;
- (J) Physical therapy by a registered physical therapist;
- (K) Blood transfusions, including the cost of blood and blood plasma not replaced by voluntary donors;

(L) An optometrist licensed under the provisions of chapter 18.53 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this section shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977.

Contributions from members, employers, and the state of Washington shall be in accordance with the provisions of this section.

The total liability of this system shall be funded as follows:

(1) Every member shall have deducted from each payroll a sum equal to seven percent of his basic salary, including payments received while on disability leave, for each pay period.

(2) Every employer shall contribute monthly a sum equal to seven percent of the basic salary, including payments received while on disability leave, of each employee who is a member of the retirement system. The employer shall transmit the employee and employer contributions with a copy of the payroll to the retirement system monthly.

(3) The actuarial valuation required by RCW 41.26.060(2) shall establish the total liability for the retirement system. The total liability shall be divided into current service liability and prior service liability. The contributions of the members and employers required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be applied toward the current service liability with the balance of the current service liability to be the responsibility of the state of Washington. The prior service liability shall be amortized over a period of not more than forty years from March 1, 1970. The amount thus computed for prior service liability shall be added to that amount of current service liability which is the responsibility of the state and the total amount shall be appropriated from the state general fund.

The total amount required for each biennium shall be reported to the governor by the director of the retirement system, upon approval of the board, for inclusion in the biennial budget. The legislature shall make the necessary state general fund appropriation for the total amount to the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement fund. The transfer of funds from the state general fund to the retirement system shall be at a rate determined by the board of trustees on the basis of the latest actuarial valuation. The amount of such transfers for a biennium shall not exceed the total amount appropriated by law.

(4) Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the contribution made and required by this section, and shall receipt in full for his basic salary. Payment less said contributions shall be a complete discharge of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by such person during the period covered by such payments, except for his claim to the benefits to which he may be entitled under the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 24, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.240 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this section of this chapter:

(1) "Index" shall mean, for any calendar year, that year's average Consumer Price Index—Seattle, Washington area for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items (1957-1959=100), compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor;

(2) "Retirement allowance" shall mean the retirement allowance provided for in RCW 41.26.100 and 41.26.130, and the monthly allowance provided for in RCW 41.26.160.

Effective April 1 of 1971, and of each succeeding year, every retirement allowance which has been in effect for more than one year shall be adjusted to that dollar amount which exceeds its original dollar amount by the percentage difference which the board finds to exist between the index for the previous calendar year and the index for the calendar year prior to the effective retirement date of the person to whom, or on behalf of whom, such retirement allowance is being paid.

For the purposes of this section, basic allowance shall mean that portion of a total retirement allowance, and any cost of living adjustment thereon, attributable to a member (individually) and shall not include the increased amounts attributable to the existence of a child or children. In those cases where a child ceases to be qualified as an eligible child, so as to lessen the total allowance, the allowance shall, at that time, be reduced to the basic allowance plus the amount attributable for the appropriate number of eligible children. In those cases where a child qualifies as an eligible child subsequent to the retirement of a member so as to increase the total allowance payable, such increased allowance shall at the time of the next and appropriate subsequent cost of living adjustments, be considered the original dollar amount of the allowance.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to those persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, and to the beneficiaries of such persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Periodic adjustment of retirement allowances payable under the provisions of this chapter to persons first establishing membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, and to the beneficiaries of such persons, shall be made only in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(1) "Index" shall mean, for any calendar year, that year's average Consumer Price Index—Seattle, Washington area for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items—compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor.

(2) "Cost-of-living factor" for any year shall mean the ratio of the index for the previous year to the index for the year preceding the initial date of payment of the retirement allowance, except that in no event shall the cost-of-living factor be

(a) less than 1.000;

(b) more than one hundred three percent or less than ninety-seven percent of the previous year's cost-of-living factor.

(3) "Retirement allowance" shall mean any retirement allowance, disability allowance, or survivorship benefit payable under the provisions of this chapter.

(4) Effective April 1, 1978, and on April 1st of each succeeding year, every retirement allowance which has been in effect for more than one year shall be adjusted to that dollar amount which exceeds its original dollar amount by the percentage difference which the board finds to exist between the index for the previous calendar year and the index for the calendar year prior to the effective retirement date of the person to whom, or on behalf of whom, such retirement allowance is being paid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of retirement systems shall provide the state actuary:

(1) A quarterly balance sheet which clearly shows the value of all securities and/or other assets held in the investment portfolio of the retirement system. The report shall show the value of the securities at cost, as of date of purchase, and at market as of the date of the report. For comparative purposes such report shall contain like information for the same quarter in the previous year.

(2) An annual report based on the quarterly data required by subsection (1) of this section which shall contain a comparison with quarterly data of the previous five years. The annual report shall include the total benefit payments made for the previous year as compared with the total benefit payments made for each of the previous five years. The annual report shall contain an estimate of what the total benefit payments might be over the next succeeding five year period if the experiences for the year under consideration were to remain constant.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 257, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.045 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law after February 19, 1974 no law enforcement officer or fire fighter, may become eligible for coverage in the pension system established by this chapter, until he has met and has been certified as having met minimum medical and health standards: PROVIDED, That an elected sheriff or appointed police or fire chief shall not be required to meet the age standard: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in cities and towns having not more than two law enforcement officers and/or not more than two fire fighters and if one or more of such persons do not meet the minimum medical and health standards as required by the provisions of this chapter, then such person or persons may join any other pension system that the city has available for its other employees: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That for one year after February 19, 1974 any such medical or health standard now existing or hereinafter adopted, insofar as it establishes a maximum age beyond which an applicant is to be deemed ineligible for coverage, shall be waived as to any applicant for employment or reemployment who is otherwise eligible except for his age, who has been a member of any one or more of the retirement systems created by chapter 41.20 of the Revised Code of Washington and who has restored all contributions which he has previously withdrawn from any such system or systems: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That application of the minimum medical and health standards as required by this section shall not constitute a violation of chapter 49.60 RCW.

Sec. 7. Section 12, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Any member, regardless of his age or years of service may be retired by the disability board, subject to approval by the retirement board as hereinafter provided, for any disability which has been continuous since his discontinuance of active service and which renders him unable to continue his service, whether incurred in the line of duty or not. No disability retirement allowance shall be paid until the expiration of a period of six months after the disability is incurred during which period the member, if found to be physically or mentally unfit for duty by the disability board following receipt of his application for disability retirement, shall be granted a disability leave by the disability board and shall receive an allowance equal to his full monthly salary and shall continue to receive all other benefits provided to active employees from his employer for such period. However, if, at any time during the initial six-month period, the disability board finds the beneficiary is no longer disabled, his disability leave allowance shall be canceled and he shall be restored to duty in the same rank or position, if any, held by the beneficiary at the time he became disabled. Applications for disability retirement shall be processed in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) Any member who believes he is or is believed to be physically or mentally disabled shall be examined by such medical authority as the disability board shall employ, upon application of said member, or a person acting in his behalf, stating that said member is disabled, either physically or mentally: PROVIDED, That no such application shall be considered unless said member or someone in his behalf, in case of the incapacity of a member, shall have filed the application within a period of one year from and after the discontinuance of service of said member.

(2) If the examination shows, to the satisfaction of the disability board, that the member is physically or mentally disabled from the further performance of duty, and that such disability has been continuous from the discontinuance of active service, the disability board shall enter its written decision and order, accompanied by appropriate findings of fact and by conclusions evidencing compliance with this chapter as now or hereafter amended, granting the member a disability retirement allowance; otherwise, if the member is not found by the disability board to be so disabled, the application shall be denied pursuant to a similar written decision and order, subject to appeal to the retirement board in accordance with RCW 41.26.200: PROVIDED, That the disability board shall make a finding of whether or not the disability was incurred in line of duty.

(3) Every order of a disability board granting a disability retirement allowance shall forthwith be reviewed by the retirement board for the purposes of determining (a) whether the facts as found by the disability board are supported by substantial evidence in the record, except the finding of whether or not the disability was incurred in line of duty; and (b) whether the order is in accordance with law on the basis of such facts. If an affirmative determination is made by the retirement board on both of the aspects of the decision and order, it shall be affirmed; otherwise, it shall be reversed and remanded to the disability board for such further proceedings as the retirement board may direct.

(4) Every member who can establish, to the disability board, that he is physically or mentally disabled from the further performance of duty and that such disability will be in existence for a period of at least six months may waive the six-month period of disability leave and be immediately granted a disability retirement allowance, subject to the approval of the state board as provided in subsection (3) above.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to those persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any member, regardless of his age or years of service may be retired by the disability board, subject to approval by the retirement board as hereinafter provided, for any disability which has been continuous since his discontinuance of active service and which renders him unable to continue his service, whether incurred in the line of duty or not. No disability retirement allowance shall be paid until the expiration of the applicable disability leave period during which period the member, if found to be physically or mentally unfit for duty by the disability board following receipt of the application for disability retirement, shall be granted the applicable disability leave by the disability board and shall receive an allowance equal to his full monthly salary and shall continue to receive all other benefits provided to active employees from his employer for such period. However, if, at any time during the initial applicable disability leave period, the disability board finds the beneficiary is no longer disabled, his disability leave allowance shall be canceled and he shall be restored to duty in the same rank or position, if any, held by the beneficiary at the time he became disabled. Applications for disability retirement shall be processed in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) Any member who believes he is or is believed to be physically or mentally disabled shall be examined by such medical authority as the disability board shall employ, upon application of said member's employer, of said member, or a person acting in his behalf, stating that said member is disabled, either physically or mentally: PROVIDED, That no such application shall be considered unless said member's employer, said member or someone in his behalf, in case of the incapacity of a member, shall have filed the application within a period of one year from and after the discontinuance of service of said member: PROVIDED FURTHER, That where a member terminates employment by retirement and subsequently develops a disabling cardiovascular or respiratory condition, he shall be allowed to apply, within five years of the termination of employment, and shall receive a duty disability retirement allowance commencing as of the date the duty disability retirement allowance is granted and he shall thereafter be entitled to those medical services granted by RCW 41.26.150 to duty disability retirees.

(2) If the examination shows, to the satisfaction of the disability board, that the member is physically or mentally disabled from the further performance of duty, and that such disability has been continuous from the discontinuance of active service, the disability board shall enter its written decision and order, accompanied by appropriate findings of fact and by conclusions evidencing compliance with this chapter as now or hereafter amended, granting the member a disability retirement allowance; otherwise, if the member is not found by the disability board to be so disabled, the application shall be denied pursuant to a similar written decision and order, subject to appeal to the retirement board in accordance with RCW 41.26.200: PROVIDED, That the disability board shall make a finding of whether or not the disability was incurred in line of duty: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any disability which results from a cardiovascular or respiratory condition shall be conclusively presumed to have been incurred in the line of duty.

(3) Every order of a disability board granting a disability retirement allowance shall forthwith be reviewed by the retirement board for the purposes of determining (a) whether the facts as found by the disability board are supported by substantial evidence in the record, except the finding of whether or not the disability was incurred in line of duty; and (b) whether the order is in accordance with law on the basis of such facts. If an affirmative determination is made by the retirement board on both of the aspects of the decision and order, it shall be affirmed; otherwise, it shall be reversed and remanded to the disability board for such further proceedings as the retirement board may direct.

(4) Every member who can establish, to the disability board, that he is physically or mentally disabled from the further performance of duty may waive the applicable period of disability leave and be immediately granted a disability retirement allowance, subject to the approval of the state board as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to those persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Beginning January 1, 1978, and each January 1st thereafter, an employer shall grant fifteen working days of sick leave to each member employed on that date. The use of such sick leave days shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the employer granting the leave. Sick leave shall not accumulate from year to year.

Members employed after January 1st during any year shall be granted sick leave on a pro rata basis of one and one-fourth days per calendar month for that portion of the year remaining at the time they are employed. Members employed between July 1, 1977, and December 31, 1977, shall be granted sick leave on a pro rata basis as herein provided.

Disability leave payments provided for in RCW 41.26.120 as now or hereafter amended, will commence only after such a member has used three consecutive days or all of his accumulated sick leave, whichever is less.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to affect the rights of members and employers to collectively bargain for sick leave in excess of that provided for in this section.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to those persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977.

Sec. 10. Section 13, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 6, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon retirement for disability a member shall be entitled to receive a monthly retirement allowance computed as follows: (a) A basic amount of fifty percent of final average salary at time of disability retirement, and (b) an additional five percent of final average salary for each child as defined in RCW 41.26.030(7), (c) the combined total of subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) of this section shall not exceed a maximum of sixty percent of final average salary.

(2) A disabled member shall begin receiving his disability retirement allowance as of the expiration of his six month period of disability leave or, if his application was filed after the sixth month of disability but prior to the one year time limit, the member's disability retirement allowance shall be retroactive to the end of the sixth month.

(3) Benefits under this section will be payable until the member recovers from the disability or dies. If at the time that the disability ceases the member is over the age of fifty, he shall then receive either his disability retirement allowance or his retirement for service allowance, whichever is greater.

(4) Benefits under this section for a disability that is incurred while in other employment will be reduced by any amount the member receives or is entitled to receive from workmen's compensation, social security, group insurance, other pension plan, or any other similar source provided by another employer on account of the same disability.

(5) A member retired for disability shall, at the discretion of the disability board, be subject to a semiannual medical examination by a physician approved by the disability board prior to his attainment of age fifty.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Upon retirement for disability incurred in line of duty a member shall be entitled to receive a monthly retirement allowance computed as follows: (a) A basic amount of fifty percent of final average salary at time of disability retirement, and (b) an additional five percent of final average salary for each child, (c) the combined total of subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) of this section shall not exceed a maximum of sixty percent of final average salary.

(2) Upon retirement for a disability not incurred in line of duty a member shall be entitled to receive a monthly retirement allowance in an amount equal to forty percent of final average salary.

(3) A disabled member shall begin receiving his disability retirement allowance as of the expiration of the applicable period of disability leave or, if his application was filed after the applicable period of disability leave but prior to the one year time limit, the member's disability retirement allowance shall be retroactive to the end of the applicable period of disability leave.

(4) Benefits under this section will be payable until the member recovers from the disability or dies. If at the time that the disability ceases the member is over the age of fifty, he shall then receive either his disability retirement allowance or his retirement for service allowance, whichever is greater.

(5) Benefits under this section for a disability that is incurred while in other employment will be reduced by any amount the member receives or is entitled to receive from workmen's compensation, social security, group insurance, other pension plan, or any other similar source provided by another employer on account of the same disability.

(6) A member retired for disability shall, at the discretion of the disability board, be subject to a semiannual medical examination by a physician approved by the disability board prior to his attainment of age fifty.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977.

Sec. 12. Section 14, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the basis of a semiannual reexamination of members on disability retirement, the disability board shall determine whether such disability beneficiary is still unable to perform his duties either physically or mentally for service in the department where he was employed.

(2) If the disability board shall determine that the beneficiary is not so incapacitated his retirement allowance shall be canceled and he shall be restored to duty in the same civil service rank, if any, held by the beneficiary at the time of his retirement or if unable to perform the duties of said rank, then, at his request, in such other like or lesser rank as may be or become open and available, the duties of which he is then able to perform. In no event, shall a beneficiary previously drawing a disability allowance be returned or be restored to duty at a salary or rate of pay less than the current salary attached to the rank or position held by the said beneficiary at the date of his retirement for disability. If the disability board determines that the beneficiary is able to return to service he shall be entitled to notice and a hearing, both the notice and the hearing shall comply with the requirements of chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

(3) Should a disability beneficiary reenter service and be eligible for membership in the retirement system, his retirement allowance shall be canceled and he shall immediately become a member of the retirement system.

(4) Should any disability beneficiary under age fifty refuse to submit to medical examination, his retirement allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should such refusal continue for one year or more, his retirement allowance shall be canceled.

(5) Should the disability retirement allowance of any disability beneficiary be canceled for any cause other than reentrance into service or retirement for service, he shall be paid the excess, if any, of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement over all payments made on his behalf under this chapter.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Upon the basis of a semiannual reexamination of members on disability retirement, the disability board shall determine whether such disability beneficiary is still unable to perform his duties either physically or mentally for service in the department where he was employed.

(2) If the disability board shall determine that the beneficiary is not so incapacitated his retirement allowance shall be canceled and he shall be restored to duty in the same civil service rank, if any, held by the beneficiary at the time of his retirement or if unable to perform the duties of said rank, then, at his request, in such other like or lesser rank as may be or become open and available, the duties of which he is then able to perform. In no event, shall a beneficiary previously drawing a disability allowance be returned or be restored to duty at a salary or rate of pay less than the current salary attached to the rank or position held by the said beneficiary at the date of his retirement for disability. If the disability board determines that the beneficiary is able to return to service he shall be entitled to notice and a hearing, both the notice and the hearing shall comply with the requirements of chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

(3) Should a disability beneficiary reenter service and be eligible for membership in the retirement system, his retirement allowance shall be canceled and he shall immediately become a member of the retirement system.

(4) Should any disability beneficiary under age fifty refuse to submit to medical examination, his retirement allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should such refusal continue for one year or more, his retirement allowance shall be canceled.

(5) Should a disability beneficiary prior to attaining age fifty engage in a gainful occupation, the retirement system shall upon notification of such employment, reduce the amount of his future monthly retirement allowances to an amount which is equal to the difference between the monthly compensation previously earned by him in such occupation and one hundred percent of the monthly basic salary which was then being paid for the position or rank the retired member held at the time he was disabled. All such disability beneficiaries under age fifty shall file with the disability board every six months a signed and sworn statement of earnings and any person who shall knowingly swear falsely on such statement shall be subject to prosecution for perjury. Should the earning capacity of such beneficiary be further altered, the retirement system may further alter his retirement allowance as indicated above. The failure of any member to file the required statement of earnings shall be cause for cancellation of retirement benefits.

(6) Should the disability retirement allowance of any disability beneficiary be canceled for any cause other than reentrance into service or retirement for service, he shall be paid the excess, if any, of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement over all payments made on his behalf under this chapter.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977.

Sec. 14. Section 15, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any active member, or any member hereafter retired, on account of service, sickness or disability, not caused or brought on by dissipation or abuse, of which the disability board shall be judge, is confined in any hospital or in his home, and whether or not so confined, requires medical services, the employer shall pay for such active or retired member the necessary medical services not payable from some other source as provided for in subsection (2). In the case of active or retired fire fighters the employer may make the payments provided for in this section from the firemen's pension fund established pursuant to RCW 41.16.050 where such fund had been established prior to March 1, 1970: PROVIDED, That in the event the pension fund is depleted, the employer shall have the obligation to pay all benefits payable under chapters 41.16 and 41.18 RCW: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the disability board in all cases may have the active or retired member suffering from such sickness or disability examined at any time by a licensed physician or physicians, to be appointed by the disability board, for the purpose of ascertaining the nature and extent of the sickness or disability, the physician or physicians to report to the disability board the result of the examination within three days thereafter. Any active or retired member who refuses to submit to such examination or examinations shall forfeit all his rights to benefits under this section for the period of such refusal: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the disability board shall designate the medical services available to any sick or disabled member.

(2) The medical services payable under this section will be reduced by any amount received or eligible to be received by the member under workmen's compensation, social security including the changes incorporated under Public Law 89-97 as now or hereafter amended, insurance provided by another employer, other pension plan, or any other similar source. Failure to apply for coverage if otherwise eligible under the provisions of Public Law 89-97 as now or hereafter amended shall not be deemed a refusal of payment of benefits thereby enabling collection of charges under the provisions of this chapter.

(3) Upon making such payments as are provided for in subsection (1), the employer shall be subrogated to all rights of the member against any third party who may be held liable for the member's injuries or for the payment of the cost of medical services in connection with a member's sickness or disability to the extent necessary to recover the amount of payments made by the employer.

(4) Any employer under this chapter, either singly, or jointly with any other such employer or employers through an association thereof as provided for in chapter 48.21 RCW, may provide for all or part of one or more plans of group hospitalization and medical aid insurance to cover any of its employees who are members of the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system, and/or retired former employees who were, before retirement, members of said retirement system, through contracts with regularly constituted insurance carriers or with health care service contractors as defined in chapter 48.44 RCW. Benefits payable under any such plan or plans shall be deemed to be amounts received or eligible to be received by the active or retired member under subsection (2) of this section.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to those persons establishing membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Whenever: (a) Any active member as a result of duty related causes, or (b) any member hereafter retired, on account of a disability incurred in line of duty (not caused or brought on by dissipation or abuse, of which the disability board shall be judge) is confined in any hospital or in his home, and whether or not so confined, requires medical services, the employer shall pay for such active or retired member the necessary medical services not payable from some other source as provided for in subsection (2) of this section. The disability board in all cases may have the active or retired member suffering from such disability examined at any time by a licensed physician or physicians, to be appointed by the disability board, for the purpose of ascertaining the nature and extent of the disability, the physician or physicians to report to the disability board the result of the examination within three days thereafter. Any active or retired member who refuses to submit to such examination or examinations shall forfeit all his rights to benefits under this section for the period of such refusal: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That when an active member requires medical services for the treatment of conditions relating to the cardiovascular or respiratory system, such required medical service shall be conclusively presumed to by the result of duty related causes: AND, PROVIDED FURTHER, That the disability board shall designate the medical services available to such sick or disabled member.

(2) The medical services payable under this section will be reduced by any amount received or eligible to be received by the member under workmen's compensation, social security including the changes incorporated under Public Law 89-97 as now or hereafter amended, insurance provided by another employer, other pension plan, or any other similar source. Failure to apply for coverage if otherwise eligible under the provisions of Public Law 89-97 as now or hereafter amended shall not be deemed a refusal of payment of benefits thereby enabling collection of charges under the provisions of this chapter.

(3) Upon making such payments as are provided for in subsection (1), the employer shall be subrogated to all rights of the member against any third party who may be held liable for the member's injuries or for the payment of the cost of medical services in connection with a member's sickness or disability to the extent necessary to recover the amount of payments made by the employer.

(4) Any employer under this chapter, either singly, or jointly with any other such employer or employers through an association thereof as provided for in chapter 48.21 RCW, may provide for all or part of one or more plans of group hospitalization and medical aid insurance to cover any of its employees who are members of the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system, and/or retired former employees who were, before retirement, members of said retirement system, through contracts with regularly constituted insurance carriers or with health care service contractors as defined in chapter 48.44 RCW. Benefits payable under any such plan or plans shall be deemed to be amounts received or eligible to be received by the active or retired member under subsection (2) of this section.

(5) Every employer shall establish for its members a medical insurance program to provide coverage for those medical costs arising from nonduty related causes. The provisions of such program and the terms and conditions under which it is offered shall be at least equal to such coverage as is provided to the general employees of the employer.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977.

Sec. 16. Section 17, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the event of the death of any member who is in active service, or who has vested under the provisions of RCW 41.26.090 with twenty or more years of service, or who is on disability leave or retired, whether for disability or service, his surviving spouse shall become entitled to receive a monthly allowance equal to fifty percent of his final average salary at the date of death if active, or the amount of retirement allowance the vested member would have received at age fifty, or the amount of the retirement allowance such retired member was receiving at the time of his death if retired for service or disability. The amount of this allowance will be increased five percent of final average salary for each child as defined in RCW 41.26.030(7), as now or hereafter amended, subject to a maximum combined allowance of sixty percent of final average salary: PROVIDED, That if the child or children is or are in the care of a legal guardian, payment of the increase attributable to each child will be made to the child's legal guardian: PROVIDED FURTHER, That payments under this subsection to children shall be prorated equally among the children, if more than one.

(2) If at the time of the death of a vested member with twenty or more years service as provided above or a member retired for service or disability, the surviving spouse has not been lawfully married to such member for one year prior to his retirement or separation from service if a vested member, the surviving spouse shall not be eligible to receive the benefits under this section: PROVIDED, That if a member dies as a result of a disability incurred in the line of duty, then if he was married at the time he was disabled, his surviving spouse shall be eligible to receive the benefits under this section.

(3) If there be no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits at the time of such member's death, then the child or children of such member shall receive a monthly allowance equal to thirty percent of final average salary for one child and an additional ten percent for each additional child subject to a maximum combined payment, under this subsection, of sixty percent of final average salary. When there cease to be any eligible children as defined in RCW 41.26.030(7), as now or hereafter amended, there shall be paid to the legal heirs of said member the excess, if any, of accumulated contributions of said member at the time of his death over all payments made to his survivors on his behalf under this chapter: PROVIDED, That payments under this subsection to children shall be prorated equally among the children, if more than one.

(4) In the event that there is no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits under this section, and that there be no child or children eligible to receive benefits under this section, then the accumulated contributions shall be paid to the estate of said member.

(5) If a surviving spouse receiving benefits under the provisions of this section thereafter dies or remarries and there are children as defined in RCW 41.26.030(7), as now or hereafter amended, payment to the spouse shall cease and the child or children shall receive the benefits as provided in subsection (3) above.

(6) The payment provided by this section shall become due the day following the date of death and payments shall be retroactive to that date.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to those persons who established membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In the event of the death of any member who is in active service, or who has vested under the provisions of RCW 41.26.090 with twenty or more years of service, or who is on disability leave or retired, whether for disability or service, his surviving spouse shall become entitled to receive a monthly allowance equal to fifty percent of his final average salary at the date of death if active, or eighty percent of the amount of retirement allowance the vested member would have received at age fifty, or eighty percent of the amount of the retirement allowance such retired member was receiving at the time of his death if retired for service or disability. The amount of the allowance paid the surviving spouse of an active member will be increased five percent of final average salary for each child, subject to a maximum combined allowance of sixty percent of final average salary: PROVIDED, That if the child or children is or are in the care of a legal guardian, payment of the increase attributable to each child will be made to the child's legal guardian: PROVIDED FURTHER, That payments under this subsection to children shall be prorated equally among the children, if more than one.

(2) If at the time of the death of a vested member with twenty or more years service as provided above or a member retired for service or disability, the surviving spouse has not been lawfully married to such member for one year prior to his retirement or separation from service if a vested member, the surviving spouse shall not be eligible to receive the benefits under this section: PROVIDED, That if a member dies as a result of a disability incurred in the line of duty, then if he was married at the time he was disabled, his surviving spouse shall be eligible to receive the benefits under this section.

(3) If there be no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits at the time of an active member's death, then the child or children of such member shall receive a monthly allowance equal to thirty percent of final average salary for one child and an additional ten percent for each additional child subject to a maximum combined payment, under this subsection, of sixty percent of final average salary. If there be no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits at the time of the death of a member who was vested with more than twenty years of service or who was retired for service or disability, the child or children shall receive an amount equal to that which would have been paid the surviving spouse. When there cease to be any eligible children, there shall be paid to the legal heirs of said member the excess, if any, of accumulated contributions of said member at the time of his death over all payments made to his survivors on his behalf under this chapter: PROVIDED, That payments under this subsection to children shall be prorated equally among the children, if more than one.

(4) In the event that there is no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits under this section, and that there be no child or children eligible to receive benefits under this section, then the accumulated contributions shall be paid to the estate of said member.

(5) If a surviving spouse receiving benefits under the provisions of this section thereafter dies or remarries and there are children payment to the spouse shall cease and the child or children shall receive the benefits as provided in subsection (3) above.

(6) The payment provided by this section shall become due the day following the date of death and payments shall be retroactive to that date.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to those persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The retirement board, on or before January 1, 1978, shall select and designate individual medical authorities or professional associations, corporations, group health organizations, or clinics of medical authorities to examine and make recommendations concerning disability retirements to local disability boards. Such selection and designation shall be made upon the basis of bids made by those who desire to provide such services. The retirement board shall designate a sufficient number of such individuals, professional associations, corporations, or organizations so as to provide state-wide geographic distribution of such services. The retirement board may select or designate such additional medical authority or authorities as it deems appropriate. No disability retirement or cancellation of disability retirement shall be approved by a local disability board except upon the recommendation of a medical authority or authorities selected and designated pursuant to this section. No recommendation of a medical practitioner shall be accepted if he or she is the personal medical authority of the member involved.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to those persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that differences in total compensation, created by the enactment of this 1977 amendatory act, between those persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before June 30, 1977, and for those persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after July 1, 1977, shall not be subject to collective bargaining or arbitration between employers and members, except as provided in section 9 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The effective date of this 1977 amendatory act shall be July 1, 1977."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Grant: "Point of order, Mr. President. I am not sure whether Senator Mardesich is discussing the amendment as proposed by Senator Talley and Senator Pullen and others. He, I think, is discussing the merits of general pension reform, and I think he should be entitled to do that at the proper order of business."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Talley demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Walgren, Rasmussen, Keefe, Henry, Day, Ridder, Wojahn and Pullen.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Sandison was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators Talley, Grant, Pullen, Murray, Rasmussen, Walgren, Wojahn, Keefe and Henry to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 24; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Henry, Keefe, Monohon, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wojahn—21.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Woody—24.

Excused: Senators Herr, Murray, Sandison—3.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the committee amendment, as amended.

Debate ensued.

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Rasmussen, Talley, Fleming, Donohue, Odegaard, Henry, Ridder, Pullen and von Reichbauer.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the committee amendment, as amended.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the committee amendment, as amended, was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 22; nays, 23; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Woody—22.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Henry, Keefe, Monohon, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—23.

Excused: Senators Herr, Murray, Sandison—3.

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved the rules be suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 867 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

MOTION

Senator Marsh moved that Substitute House Bill No. 867 be held for further consideration on the second reading calendar for June 3, 1977.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Marsh yield? Could you give us your reasons for wanting to hold it over?"

Senator Marsh: "Certainly, Senator Talley. Senator Gordon Sandison is absent, and there are others that are absent. Senator Gordon Herr is absent. Senator Murray is absent. There are others who are absent. If we have an opportunity overnight to consider what we have done, to have the other Senators present, I think there is an opportunity that we can work out something in the way of pension reform. I think if you want to force a vote here tonight, then I think you are going to kill pension reform for this session, so I would hope that you would agree. I hope that you would agree to set this over one day. We have done this on every other measure that I know of in this session of the legislature on request."

Senator Talley: "Senator Marsh, will you yield to another question? I think there were several times during debate that there was a motion made to hold this bill and to set it down, and you objected strenuously to that. I don't quite understand your action now."

Senator Marsh: "Well, the facts are that some of the Senators have left due to the lateness of the hour, and they will be here tomorrow."

Senator Talley: "I can't see any that have left. Oh, has Gordon Sandison left?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Walgren yield? Did I understand you to indicate that you were in favor of setting this measure over?"

Senator Walgren: "I said I had no objection to setting the measure over, no."

Senator Mardesich: "And you would vote that way if it were put to a roll call?"

Senator Walgren: "I don't think you even have to have a roll call vote. I said that the measure can be set over, and I don't think anybody is going to object to doing that, Senator Mardesich, and I pointed out before that we have done everything conceivable to let this measure come up, and it should come up, and it should be heard, and I think everybody should have an opportunity of being here and voting on it, their own convictions."

Senator Mardesich: "That is what I thought you told me earlier, and I just wanted to hear you say it again."

Senator Walgren: "That is right."

The motion by Senator Marsh carried and concurred in by Senator Walgren. Substitute House Bill No. 867 will be held for further consideration on the second reading calendar for June 3, 1977.

MOTION

At 4:37 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Friday, June 3, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

EIGHTY-FIFTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Friday, June 3, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bausch, Bottiger and Woody. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Bausch, Bottiger and Woody were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Sonja Silver and Bill von Reichbauer, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul J. Beeman, pastor of First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"IN ANCIENT ROME STOOD THE ROYAL CITY OF POMPEII. THE ROYAL RESIDENCE THERE WAS UNDER THE CONSTANT PROTECTION OF GUARDS, WHO STOOD FAITHFULLY AT THE DOORS. WHEN MOUNT VESUVIUS ERUPTED IN 79 A.D., THE ENTIRE CITY WAS INUNDATED BY MOLTEN LAVA. ONLY AT ITS EXCAVATION WAS IT DISCOVERED THAT TWO GUARDS NEVER LEFT THEIR POST.

"ONE OF YOUR COLLEAGUES REMINDS ME OF THOSE GUARDS. YOU ARE OPERATING ONE MAN SHORT TODAY, AND WHAT A MAN HE IS.

"THIS MORNING FRANK J. WOODY FINALLY WENT HOME; HOME TO HIS THIRTY-NINTH DISTRICT, HOME TO HIS COMMUNITY OF WOODINVILLE, HOME TO HIS WIFE, DIANNE; HOME TO HIS CHILDREN, ELIZABETH AND PATRICK.

"FOR THE PAST WEEKS, SENATOR WOODY HAS BEEN CRITICALLY ILL. BUT HE HAS BEEN FAITHFUL TO HIS TASKS. HE HAS ATTENDED THE SESSIONS OF THE SENATE, HIS COMMITTEE MEETINGS, PARTY CAUCUSES, AND HE HAS MAINTAINED HIS OFFICE AS A SENATOR. FOR THE PAST DAYS HE HAS BEEN EXTREMELY WEAK, AND MOST RECENTLY IN PAIN. BARELY ABLE TO GET UP AND DRESSED OR MOVE ABOUT. FOR THE PAST FEW DAYS HE HAS PARTICIPATED FROM HIS HOSPITAL BED, LOCATED IN THE SENATE LOUNGE. BUT HE HAS BEEN ON DECK FOR THE ARGUMENTS AND DEBATES AND HE HAS TAKEN PART IN CRITICAL VOTES IMPORTANT TO HIM, TO HIS CONSTITUENCY, AND TO THE STATE OF WASHINGTON. I AM PROUD OF THAT MAN. AREN'T YOU?

"LET US JOIN IN SILENT PRAYER FOR SENATOR WOODY, FOR DIANNE, ELIZABETH AND PATRICK. AND LET US GIVE THANKS FOR HIS FAITHFULNESS.

(SILENT PRAYER)

"HEAR US, O LORD, FOR YOUR SERVANT AND OUR COLLEAGUE, FRANK J. WOODY. GRANT TO HIM COMFORT OF BODY, TO MATCH HIS STALWART DETERMINATION, AND PEACE OF MIND TO MATCH HIS FAITHFUL SERVICE. BLESS HIS FAMILY AND ALL IN HIS DISTRICT. HELP THE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE TO DO THEIR WORK TODAY WITH PERSEVERANCE, DIGNITY AND HONOR, TO MATCH HIS. IN THE MASTER'S NAME. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

On page 1, following line 9, add a section to read as follows:

"Section 1. Section 2, chapter 184, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 106, Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.455 are each amended to read as follows:

On and after May 6, 1974, the department of fisheries of the state of Washington shall initiate a program to limit the number of commercial salmon vessels for each type of fishing gear and area by issuing licenses and vessel delivery permits to fish for salmon only to those vessels holding such licenses or permits in any year between January 1, 1970 and May 6, 1974: PROVIDED, That only those vessels which held commercial gear fishing licenses or vessel delivery permits valid for salmon during such period and can prove by means of a valid fish receiving document that salmon were caught and landed during such period shall be entitled to a valid commercial fishing license or vessel delivery permit to fish for or possess salmon for the same type of gear and area for each year of a period extending from January 1, 1975 through December 31, 1980: PROVIDED FURTHER, That except for vessels coming under the provisions of RCW 75.28.460, no commercial salmon fishing license or vessel delivery permit shall be issued to a vessel for calendar years 1979 and 1980 unless that vessel (1) was issued or had transferred to it a valid Washington state commercial salmon fishing license or vessel delivery permit during the previous calendar year, or during the last calendar year in which the vessel was legally eligible for licenses if the vessel's licenses were suspended or revoked during the calendar year or years previous to the year for which the licenses are being sought; and (2) can prove by means of a valid fish receiving document that food fish were caught and landed by such vessel in this state or in another state during the previous calendar year, or during the last calendar year in which the vessel was legally eligible for licenses if the vessel's licenses were suspended or revoked during the calendar year or years previous to the year for which the licenses are being sought; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall be construed to be contrary to the provisions of Title 75 RCW or any regulation promulgated thereunder. All such licenses or vessel delivery permits shall be transferable ((-PROVIDED, That in order to qualify for licenses in calendar years 1979 and 1980, a vessel must prove by means of a valid fish receiving document that food fish were caught and landed by such vessel in this state or in another state during the previous calendar year, or during the last calendar year in which the vessel was legally eligible for licenses if the vessel's licenses were suspended or revoked during the calendar year or years previous to the year for which the licenses are being sought))."

Renumber the following sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "permits;" insert "amending section 2, chapter 184, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 106, Laws of 1977 1st. ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.455;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Peterson moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3071.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Peterson yield? Senator Peterson, on this buy back program which we put through originally, and this is extension, we did not require that they buy all the licenses of these fishermen, so some of them sold part of their licenses and came back and went to fishing again. This is under the new bill. This says a man who sells his boat and gear and does not have a license will get out of the fishing business completely. Is that right?"

Senator Peterson: "I don't quite follow you, Senator Talley."

Senator Talley: "Well, the intent of the buy back program is to cut down the number of fishermen."

Senator Peterson: "That is right."

Senator Talley: "On the old bill, we bought one license sometimes and a boat, but a man still had another license in another area so he acquired another boat and went right on fishing. All he did was sell his junk boat. Now does this bill take care of that?"

Senator Peterson: "Yes, we have, Senator Talley."

The motion by Senator Peterson carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3071.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3071, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—40.

Voting nay: Senator Lewis—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Fleming, Jones, Murray, Sellar—4.

Excused: Senators Bausch, Bottiger, Woody—3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3071, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 384.

SECOND READING

.SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 384, by Committee on Financial Institutions (originally sponsored by Representatives Eng, Fischer and Vrooman):

Providing for the confidentiality of examination reports of financial institutions.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 25, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 384, providing for the confidentiality of examination reports of financial institutions (reported by Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 26 after "RCW" strike all of the material down to and including "supervisor" on line 29

On page 2, following line 29 insert a new subsection as follows:

"(6) In any civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor, petition the court for an in camera review of the report. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection shall not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor."

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

Signed by: Senators Bluechel, Herr, Jones, Mardesich, Walgren.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Clarke moved adoption of the committee amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, would Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, you just described what you meant by an 'in camera' review, but I want to make sure that is in the record. Would you explain what an 'in camera' review of the report would be for purposes of this bill?"

Senator Clarke: "'In camera' means that the court, or the judge, reviews it himself, and he is the only one who is given access to the report and then he makes the determination as to whether or not the information sought is sufficiently relevant to the civil action so that it overcomes the desirability of confidentiality and should be made available to the litigants, and if he so finds, he can then order that it be made available. It is only upon the court making that determination that the data becomes available."

The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following amendments by Senators Clarke and Woody were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 4, line 13 after "RCW" strike all of the material down to and including "supervisor" on line 16.

On page 4, following line 16, insert a new subsection as follows:

"(6) In any civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor, petition the court for an in camera review of the report. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection shall not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor."

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

On page 5, line 36 after "RCW" strike all of the material down to and including "supervisor" on line 3.

On page 6, following line 3 insert a new subsection as follows:

"(6) In any civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor, petition the court for an in camera review of the report. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection shall not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor."

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

On page 7, line 21 after "RCW" strike all of the material down to and including "supervisor" on line 24.

On page 7, following line 24 insert a new subsection as follows:

"(6) In any civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor, petition the court for an in camera review of the report. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection shall not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor."

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 384, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 448, by Representatives Warnke, Greengo and Polk (by Department of Motor Vehicles request):

Authorizing the director of motor vehicles to issue cease and desist orders to real estate salesmen and making the order violation a ground for license suspension or revocation.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Morrison, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, after line 34, add the following:

"At the time the temporary cease and desist order is served, the licensee shall be notified that he is entitled to request a hearing for the sole purpose of determining whether or not the public interest imperatively requires that the temporary cease and desist order be continued or modified pending the outcome of the hearing to determine whether or not the order will become permanent. The hearing shall be held within thirty days after the department receives the request for hearing, unless the licensee requests a later hearing. A licensee may secure review of any decision rendered at a temporary cease and desist order review hearing in the same manner as a contested case."

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 448, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 448, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 538, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Hanna, Becker, King, Maxie, Gruger, Douthwaite, Nelson (Gary) and Whiteside):

Regulating social workers.

MOTION

Senator Day moved that Substitute House Bill No. 538 be rereferred to the Committee on Social and Health Services.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, would Senator Day yield to a question? Does this motion mean if you send that bill back to committee without a specific recommendation of reporting back to the floor it means that if it goes back through rules we have passed that cutoff, and this does not fit under the cutoff and this bill is dead for this—"

Senator Day: "That means that we will consider the bill in January, Senator. I don't think that the definition is in shape to consider now."

Senator Fleming: "Couldn't staff work with the definition of the bill while the bill is still on the calendar and try to do something with it between now and the end of the session?"

Senator Day: "Well, they could but there are some real serious problems, and writing a definition in this area is not easy. It is not something that I think can be done in a day. We have been working with it, but we haven't come up with a solution yet."

Senator Fleming: "Didn't you have the opportunity while this bill was in—"

Senator Day: "Yes, we did and we did rewrite it, but we find now that we have rewritten it but we still haven't done the job well enough, we don't believe."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Day carried and Substitute House Bill No. 538 was rereferred to the Committee on Social and Health Services on a rising vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 727.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 727, by Representatives Conner, Gallagher, Gilleland and Vrooman:

Changing laws on reporting of vehicle accidents.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 727. On May 27, 1977, the committee amendment was adopted. On that day, Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 26, add the following sections:

"Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 3, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No policy or bond shall be effective under RCW 46.29.080 unless issued by an insurance company or surety company authorized to do business in this state, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, nor unless such policy or bond is subject, if the accident has resulted in bodily injury or death, to a limit, exclusive of interest and costs, of not less than ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, to a limit of not less than ~~((thirty))~~ fifty thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and if the accident has resulted in injury to, or destruction of, property to a limit of not less than ~~((five))~~ ten thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

(2) No policy or bond shall be effective under RCW 46.29.080 with respect to any vehicle which was not registered in this state or was a vehicle which was registered elsewhere than in this state at the effective date of the policy or bond or the most recent renewal thereof, unless the insurance company or surety company issuing such policy or bond is authorized to do business in this state, or if said company is not authorized to do business in this state, unless it shall execute a power of attorney authorizing the director of motor vehicles to accept service on its behalf of notice or process in any action upon such policy or bond arising out of such accident.

(3) The department may rely upon the accuracy of the information in a required report of an accident as to the existence of insurance or a bond unless and until the department has reason to believe that the information is erroneous.

Sec. 4. Section 26, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 3, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "proof of financial responsibility for the future" as used in this chapter shall mean: Proof of ability to respond in damages for liability, on account of accidents occurring subsequent to the effective date of said proof, arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of a vehicle of a type subject to registration under the laws of this state, in the amount of (~~(fifteen)~~) twenty-five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident, and, subject to said limit for one person, in the amount of (~~(thirty)~~) fifty thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident and in the amount of (~~(five)~~) ten thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident. Wherever used in this chapter the terms "proof of financial responsibility" or "proof" shall be synonymous with the term "proof of financial responsibility for the future".

Sec. 5. Section 39, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 3, chapter 3, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.390 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Judgments herein referred to shall, for the purpose of this chapter only, be deemed satisfied:

(a) When (~~(fifteen)~~) twenty-five thousand dollars has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount because of bodily injury to or death of one person as the result of any one accident; or

(b) When, subject to such limit of (~~(ten)~~) twenty-five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person, the sum of (~~(thirty)~~) fifty thousand dollars has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons as the result of any one accident; or

(c) When (~~(five)~~) ten thousand dollars has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount because of injury to or destruction of property of others as a result of any one accident;

(2) Provided, however, payments made in settlements of any claims because of bodily injury, death or property damage arising from such accident shall be credited in reduction of the amounts provided for in this section.

Sec. 6. Section 49, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 4, chapter 3, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.490 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certification. A "motor vehicle liability policy" as said term is used in this chapter shall mean an "owner's policy" or an "operator's policy" of liability insurance, certified as provided in RCW 46.29.460 or 46.29.470 as proof of financial responsibility for the future, and issued, except as otherwise provided in RCW 46.29.470, by an insurance carrier duly authorized to transact business in this state, to or for the benefit of the person named therein as insured.

(2) Owner's policy. Such owner's policy of liability insurance:

(a) Shall designate by explicit description or by appropriate reference all vehicles with respect to which coverage is thereby to be granted; and

(b) Shall insure the person named therein and any other person, as insured, using any such vehicle or vehicles with the express or implied permission of such named insured, against loss from the liability imposed by law for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of such vehicle or vehicles within the United States of America or the Dominion of Canada, subject to limits exclusive of interest and costs, with respect to each such vehicle as follows: (~~Fifteen~~) Twenty-five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, (~~thirty~~) fifty thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and (~~five~~) ten thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

(3) Operator's policy. Such operator's policy of liability insurance shall insure the person named as insured therein against loss from the liability imposed upon him by law for damages arising out of the use by him of any motor vehicle not owned by him, within the same territorial limits and subject to the same limits of liability as are set forth above with respect to an owner's policy of liability insurance.

(4) Required statements in policies. Such motor vehicle liability policy shall state the name and address of the named insured, the coverage afforded by the policy, the premium charged therefor, the policy period and the limits of liability, and shall contain an agreement or be endorsed that insurance is provided thereunder in accordance with the coverage defined in this chapter as respects bodily injury and death or property damage, or both, and is subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

(5) Policy need not insure workmen's compensation, etc. Such motor vehicle liability policy need not insure any liability under any workmen's compensation law nor any liability on account of bodily injury or death of an employee of the insured while engaged in the employment, other than domestic, of the insured, or while engaged in the operation, maintenance or repair of any such vehicle nor any liability for damage to property owned by, rented to, in charge of or transported by the insured.

(6) Provisions incorporated in policy. Every motor vehicle liability policy shall be subject to the following provisions which need not be contained therein:

(a) The liability of the insurance carrier with respect to the insurance required by this chapter shall become absolute whenever injury or damage covered by said motor vehicle liability policy occurs; said policy may not be canceled or annulled as to such liability by any agreement between the insurance carrier and the insured after the occurrence of the injury or damage; no statement made by the insured or on his behalf and no violation of said policy shall defeat or void said policy.

(b) The satisfaction by the insured of a judgment for such injury or damage shall not be a condition precedent to the right or duty of the insurance carrier to make payment on account of such injury or damage.

(c) The insurance carrier shall have the right to settle any claim covered by the policy, and if such settlement is made in good faith, the amount thereof shall be deductible from the limits of liability specified in subdivision (b) of subsection (2) of this section.

(d) The policy, the written application therefor, if any, and any rider or endorsement which does not conflict with the provisions of this chapter shall constitute the entire contract between the parties.

(7) Excess or additional coverage. Any policy which grants the coverage required for a motor vehicle liability policy may also grant any lawful coverage in excess of or in addition to the coverage specified for a motor vehicle liability policy and such excess or additional coverage shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter. With respect to a policy which grants such excess or additional coverage the term "motor vehicle liability policy" shall apply only to that part of the coverage which is required by this section.

(8) Reimbursement provision permitted. Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide that the insured shall reimburse the insurance carrier for any payment the insurance carrier would not have been obligated to make under the terms of the policy except for the provisions of this chapter.

(9) Proration of insurance permitted. Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide for the prorating of the insurance thereunder with other valid and collectible insurance.

(10) Multiple policies. The requirements for a motor vehicle liability policy may be fulfilled by the policies of one or more insurance carrier which policies together meet such requirements.

(11) Binders. Any binder issued pending the issuance of a motor vehicle liability policy shall be deemed to fulfill the requirements for such a policy.

Sec. 7. Section 55, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 5, chapter 3, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.550 are each amended to read as follows:

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I raise a point of scope and object on the amendment to the bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Guess, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill 727 is a measure dealing with security deposit requirements for uninsured motorists and accident reporting. The amendment proposed by Senator Bottiger deals with the monetary insurance limits of personal injury liability and property coverage. The President therefore finds the amendment expands the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Bottiger was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Engrossed House Bill No. 727, as amended by the Senate, was ordered held for further consideration following the noon recess.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 746.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Peterson moved the Senate reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment, as amended, was not adopted by the Senate on June 2, 1977.

Senator Walgren demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Herr, Wojahn, Gaspard, von Reichbauer, Rasmussen, Talley, Jones, Sellar and Lewis.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Peterson that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment, as amended, to Substitute House Bill No. 867 was not adopted by the Senate on June 2, 1977.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion for reconsideration carried by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 22; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Peterson, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker—24.

Voting nay: Senators Beck, Bottiger, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Herr, Keefe, Monohon, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—2.

Excused: Senators Bausch, Woody—2.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the committee amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, to Substitute House Bill No. 867.

On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendment by Senators Goltz, Mardesich and Jones to the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted:

On page 3, line 41, after "1977" insert ": PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the 1977-1979 biennium the employer rate of contribution shall be borne by the state."

The motion by Senator Peterson carried and the committee amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendments to the title were adopted:

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "RCW 41.26.030;" insert "amending section 3, chapter 257, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.045; amending section 4, chapter 257, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.046; amending section 9, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 131, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.090; amending section 17, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.160;"

On page 1, line 5 of the title, after "chapter 41.26 RCW;" insert "creating new sections;"

Senator Mardesich moved the rules be suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 867, as amended by the Senate, be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried on a rising vote.

Substitute House Bill No. 867, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading and final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 867, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 22; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Peterson, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker—24.

Voting nay: Senators Beck, Bottiger, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Herr, Keefe, Monohon, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—2.

Excused: Senators Bausch, Woody—2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 867, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

MOTION

At 1:15 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 2:15 p.m.

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 2:30 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate proceeded subject to roll call.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Washington moved the Senate now reconsider the vote by which Substitute House Bill No. 867, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, did you do anything with the four and a half percent?"

Senator Washington: "No, the one and a half percent, at least in this bill, would remain alive and, of course, it would be subject to negotiation in the conference committee."

Senator Rasmussen: "So you are not amending this in the hopes we can pass the bill and sustain it, then?"

Senator Washington: "I would hope that we get a bill from the conference committee that will be a compromise between these two bills."

Senator Rasmussen: "I could go for that if you will put Senator Henry and I on the conference committee."

Senator Washington: "Well, I am not going to be appointing the conference committee."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I wonder if Senator Washington would yield? Senator Washington, I believe that the House version of pension reform may be a good measure. I would like you to explain to me why you feel that it is necessary to compromise further than the House version which does provide for pension reform."

Senator Washington: "One of the major points, I think, is the early retirement provisions. I have mentioned this before. I think the House retirement provision at the age of fifty-five and also with the lower retirement age of fifty-three is too low. I feel that they can and should be able to remain active longer than that period. I don't think the age of fifty-three or the age of fifty-five necessarily means that they should retire. I did feel very strongly that the Senate bill that came before us before with the age of sixty-five and sixty-two was too high."

Senator Grant: "Senator Washington, I would agree with that, but the real difference or a real difference is the difference between a two percent per year computation on the retirement benefits and a one and a half percent. Now, with regard to the LEOFF system as you know, there is no social security in most police and fire pension systems throughout the state of Washington. So, if you reduce the benefits as is contemplated by the Senate in the amendment of the committee as you likely will vote for, you look at thirty years and a forty-five percent benefit. Now do you feel that that is justifiable considering the fact that there is no social security involved?"

Senator Washington: "I believe that very possibly in the conference that there possibly will be some adjustments made. My own feeling however, I don't claim to be an expert, but my own basic feeling is, and the one that I felt the most strongly about relates to the age of retirement."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Point of parliamentary inquiry. If the motion to reconsider fails, is House Bill 867 then dead as far as any further action on it is concerned by this body?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator Goltz."

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which Substitute House Bill No. 867, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended and Substitute House Bill No. 867, as amended by the Senate, was returned to second reading.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Day: "I believe that the point of order should be made that you can't reconsider the amendment twice, and it has already been reconsidered once."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "If my memory serves me correctly, we adopted the committee amendment with the Goltz amendment on it, and it is now part of the bill, so this amendment should be in order. We reconsidered the amendment and passed it by a vote of twenty-four to twenty-two."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, does the President have a ruling? All I was going to do is point out that—"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Senate would be amending the Senate committee amendment, not the bill."

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I would point out that the same end can be accomplished by rejecting that amendment and offering an entirely new one, and all we are doing is taking time, because it can be done."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would suggest that when a bill is perfected and presented to the body for final form, it is then a bill. The method by which it arrived at that form then becomes completely inconsequential. The body acted upon a bill and rejected it. That is the thing that then was before the Senate and is again before the Senate by the way of reconsideration. The Senate has now decided to reconsider. The thing it is reconsidering is the bill in its form as it was presented to the Senate for vote. Now when it reconsiders, that is what is before it, and the amendment, any amendment, must of necessity be presented to that particular bill because how it arrived at that condition when it came before the body becomes inconsequential. So, I submit that as a point of order the amendment is properly presented to the bill on reconsideration."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DAY

Senator Day: "Speaking to the point of order, Rule 204, 'Whenever the main question has been decided in the affirmative, the motion to reconsider an amendment previously adopted would not be in order. It would be necessary first to reconsider the vote by which the main question was passed, and if the reconsideration prevailed, then the motion to reconsider the amendment would be in order.

"In general it may be said that if the assembly desires to reconsider an act, it must retract in regular order all subsequent action which affects the act to be reconsidered.

"A question can be reconsidered but once. . ."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, you might try to see if I follow the right track. Let's assume that the position were taken that this could not be reconsidered, and had to start anew. Then certainly there would be no problem with reconsidering an amendment which was adopted because that is not reconsideration of amendment which was once passed. It was amended subsequently by Senator Goltz so that is a new amendment. Having reached that point and a new amendment, we could reconsider the new amendment. Do you bear with me so far? All right. Having a new amendment before us, we could then reconsider the question if we want to drop the amendment as amended by Senator Goltz. Having arrived at that conclusion, we could reconsider that, reject and start again with a new amendment, and we could avoid that indirect action by taking the direct action. That also is the rule of Reed's, that you may do directly what you can do indirectly."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARSH

Senator Marsh: "Mr. President, I call further attention to Rule 204 which Senator Day cited. He didn't read far enough. On page 132 it does state, 'a question can be reconsidered but once but if on reconsideration an amendment has been made making a substantial change a second reconsideration can be had,' and I submit we made a substantial change when we took away the financing from the cities for a two year period that has a cost impact of one point seven million dollars on the state. That is a substantial amendment, so I think we could reconsider at this time."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that the remarks by Senator Marsh and Senator Mardesich are well taken."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, on motion of Senator Henry, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved the following amendments by Senators Mardesich, Scott, Washington, Marsh and Jones to the committee amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 23, after "age" delete "sixty-five" and insert "sixty"

On page 1, line 29, after "age" delete "sixty-two" and insert "fifty-seven"

On page 1, line 37, after "age" delete "sixty-five" and insert "sixty"

President Pro Tempore Henry in the Chair.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator, we are also stripping the transition amendment that was placed on the bill. Was that considered in the fiscal impact?"

Senator Mardesich: "Yes, it was."

Senator Day: "It should be a reduction."

Senator Mardesich: "That is right. These figures reflect both the transition reduction and the Washington approach increase. It amounts to a point six increase, roughly."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Senator Marsh, would you yield to a question? Senator Marsh, I expect you will be a member of the conference committee. Will it be your intent to work out something that is between this language and the language of the original House bill in this regard?"

Senator Marsh: "Senator Odegaard, I would like to keep my options open at this time. I certainly am going to consider any approach in conference, and I would like to have an opportunity to consult with our state actuary before I make any commitments on any amendment whatsoever."

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, I am given a little concern. Does that mean then that we might have something before us—I realize you have some restriction in conference, but in what is presented to us in preconference that could be more towards the original Senate committee amendment than this amendment is? If that is true, then I have some real concern. I was hoping maybe we could work out something, a compromise, between this language which isn't—I think is a good proposal that Senators Washington, Mardesich and Scott and Jones and yourself have put together, and we certainly need pension reform. I sure don't argue that at all, but I do have concern that you are going to go beyond this amendment in conference, and if that were the case, I would have to vote 'no' on this amendment. Maybe if you give us a little more assurance—"

Senator Marsh: "Senator Odegaard, you know the rules perfectly well. It is not possible to go beyond the Senate position unless we go into free conference, and frankly, I do not anticipate that will occur—that we go beyond the Senate position. We may go into free conference, but I do not anticipate the Senate or the conference committee would go beyond today's position in terms of retirement age for fire fighters and policemen."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendments to the committee amendment were adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Mardesich, Scott, Washington, Marsh and Jones to the committee amendment:

On page 1, delete subsection (3)

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment by Senators Mardesich, Scott, Washington, Marsh and Jones to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 3, beginning on line 35, after "contribute" delete "five and one-half" and insert "six and fifteen one hundredths"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator Marsh, I note on page 5, 'Retirement allowance upon employment. No retiree under provisions of this section shall receive a retiree's monthly retirement allowance pursuant to sections so and so if such retiree enters the service for any nonfederal public employer in this state.' What does that mean?"

Senator Marsh: "That means that if a member of the LEOFF system who is retired from either the fire fighters or the police officers services goes to work for the state of Washington in the PERS system or goes to work for some county or municipal governmental unit that is covered by the PERS system, then the retirement allowance that would otherwise possibly be payable under the LEOFF system would be suspended."

Senator Rasmussen: "That then, Senator Marsh, would cover also that person in the LEOFF system that ran for the legislature, he is in his transition period. He runs for the legislature and gets elected, and then he must suspend the retirement that he would receive—"

Senator Marsh: "That is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "—even though he is serving at three hundred dollars a month as some people are here."

Senator Marsh: "That is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "Is that reasonably defensible that somebody should run for the legislature and, even though retired, he would suspend his pension payments, not receive enough from the legislature to support his family on, would that be understood as taken his constitutional rights?"

Senator Marsh: "I think it is reasonably defensible, and I do not see it as taken of any constitutional rights. When a person runs for the legislature, he or she knows what the conditions are if they have reviewed the statutes."

Senator Rasmussen: "The same thing would probably apply to lawyers practicing law while in the legislature that they shall be prohibited also from receiving any means of support other than their legislative salaries."

Senator Marsh: "This amendment does not go that far. This bill does not go that far."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is what I was raising the class question on, their right. I am only raising it this time. I understand what you are doing, and this bill is going to go to conference, but somebody take a look at that and see if that is a fair proposition. We have been trying to enlighten you people who have been working on these pension bills. I hope our efforts have been of some use to you, and I am still willing to serve on the conference committee."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, you have repeatedly voted against this bill, now you move to reconsider on the basis that you say your amendment will bring it to conference. Now, are you standing here and telling me for sure that this bill will go to conference? We don't know how it is going to vote—they may accept this so-called beautiful bill."

Senator Washington: "Well, I have a very strong feeling that the House is going to not concur. I don't think anyone here believes that it will concur, and on that basis I don't have anything, any assurance, but I think we can rely on judgment and my judgment is that they will not concur in the Senate amendment and that it will go to conference."

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Washington yield again? You and I have been here for over twenty years, and we have had strong feelings about what the House is going to do and they didn't do it. So, I don't think that is a good argument that you are amending this thing so you are sure it will go to conference."

Senator Washington: "I feel, at least on this one—there are some things that are predictable, and I feel that this is one of the predictable things in the House, and that they are not going to accept the Senate amendment. They will send it back, ask us to recede. If we don't recede, we will then go to conference."

Senator Talley: "You have more confidence in the House than I have, sir."

The motion by Senator Henry carried and the committee amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 867, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 867, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate, on reconsideration, by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 21; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker, Washington—26.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Herr, Keefe, Monohon, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren; Wilson, Wojahn—21.

Excused: Senator Woody—1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 867, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, on reconsideration, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute House Bill No. 867, as amended by the Senate, was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill No. 371.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED THIRD SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 371, by Committee on Institutions (originally sponsored by Representatives Becker, Hanna, Deccio, Knowles, Fischer, Salatino, Nelson (Dick) and Maxie):

Revising the juvenile justice and care system.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill No. 371. On May 31, 1977, Senator Francis had moved adoption of the committee amendment. At that time, Senator Hayner had raised a Point of Order and the bill was held by Senator Rasmussen for later consideration.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill No. 371 be rereferred to the Judiciary Committee.

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Rasmussen, the motion was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that further consideration of Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill No. 371 be delayed until June 6, 1977.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Rasmussen, the motion was withdrawn.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling on the point of order presented by Senator Hayner, the President finds that Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill Number 371 is a comprehensive measure which reforms this state's juvenile justice system.

"The bill covers such subjects as dependent children, confidentiality of the juvenile's record, disposition standards for juvenile offenders and due process guaranteed for juveniles. The amendment proposed by the Senate committee on judiciary is also a comprehensive measure which reforms this state's juvenile justice system. The President therefore finds that the amendment does not expand the scope and object of Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill Number 371, and the point of order is not well taken."

The committee amendment was ruled in order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Benitz, Bluechel and Scott were excused.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill No. 371 be rereferred to the Judiciary Committee.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, a point of information. Is this a motion to send it back to judiciary?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, by Senator Rasmussen."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator McDermott: "Would it be your impression that if it went back to judiciary it would be then dead?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "No, Senator, it would not be dead. It would still be alive and could be returned to the Senate. Two additional exemptions were included in the cutoff resolution, Senator McDermott, one of them dealing with juveniles."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed on a rising vote.

Senator Hayner moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 31, after "a" strike "nonfelony"

On page 2, line 32, after "laws" insert ", which is not a misdemeanor,"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the amendments to the committee amendment were adopted.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 2 of the printed Senate Committee amendment, on line 33 after "over" delete "fifteen" and insert "sixteen"

On page 2 of the printed Senate Committee amendment, on line 33 after "age" and before the semicolon insert ", excepting negligent homicide"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendments to the committee amendment were not adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

Beginning on page 2, section 4, line 35, after "13.24 RCW" strike the period and insert the following, including the addition of new sections hereto:

"(8) In addition to the exclusive original jurisdiction provided above, juvenile courts may refer children to educational clinics.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) As used in sections 5 through 9 of this 1977 amendatory act, unless the context thereof shall clearly indicate to the contrary:

Educational clinic means any private school operated on a profit or nonprofit basis which does the following:

(a) Is devoted to the teaching of basic academic skills, including specific attention to improvement of student motivation for achieving, and employment orientation.

(b) Operates on a clinical, client centered basis. This shall include, but not be limited to, performing diagnosis of individual educational abilities, determination and setting of individual goals, prescribing and providing individual courses of instruction therefor, and evaluation of each individual client's progress in his or her educational program.

(c) Conducts courses of instruction by professionally trained personnel certified by the state board of education according to rules and regulations promulgated for the purposes of sections 5 through 9 of this 1977 amendatory act and providing, for certification purposes, that a year's teaching experience in an educational clinic shall be deemed equal to a year's teaching experience in a common or private school.

(2) For purposes of sections 5 through 9 of this 1977 amendatory act, basic academic skills shall include the study of mathematics, speech, language, reading and composition, science, history, literature and political science or civics; it shall not include courses of a vocational training nature and shall not include courses deemed nonessential to the accrediting of the common schools or the approval of private schools under RCW 28A.04.120.

(3) The state board of education shall certify an education clinic only upon application and (1) determination that such school comes within the definition thereof as set forth in subsection (1) above and (2) demonstration on the basis of actual educational performance of such applicants' students which shows after consideration of their students' backgrounds, educational gains that are a direct result of the applicants' educational program. Such certification may be withdrawn if the board finds that a clinic fails to provide adequate instruction in basic academic skills. No educational clinic certified by the state board of education pursuant to this section shall be deemed a common school under RCW 28A.01.060 or a private school for the purposes of RCW 28A.02.201 through 28A.02.250.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Only eligible common school dropouts shall be enrolled in a certified educational clinic for reimbursement by the superintendent of public instruction as provided in section 8 of this 1977 amendatory act. No person shall be considered an eligible common school dropout who (1) has completed high school, (2) has passed his eighteenth birthday, or (3) until three months has passed after he or she has dropped out of any common school, unless such clinic has been requested to admit such person by written communication of the board of directors or the superintendent of that common school or unless such person is unable to attend a particular common school because of disciplinary reasons, including suspension and/or expulsion therefrom.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt, by rules, policies and procedures to permit a prior common school dropout to reenter at the grade level appropriate to such individual's ability: PROVIDED, That such individual shall be placed with the class he would be in had he not dropped out and graduate with that class, if his ability so permits notwithstanding any loss of credits prior to reentry and if such student earns credits at the normal rate subsequent to reentry.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any certified educational clinic student, upon completion of an individual student program and irrespective of age, shall be eligible to take the general educational development test as given throughout the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. From funds appropriated for that purpose, the superintendent of public instruction shall pay to a certified clinic on a monthly basis for each student enrolled in compliance with section 6 of this 1977 amendatory act, fees in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) (a) The fee for the initial diagnostic procedure shall be fifty dollars per student, and hourly fees for each student shall be sixteen dollars if the class size is no greater than one, ten dollars if the class size is at least two and no greater than five, and five dollars if the class size is at least six: PROVIDED, That revisions in such fees proposed by an education clinic shall become effective after thirty days notice unless the superintendent finds such a revision is unreasonable in which case the revision shall not take effect: PROVIDED FURTHER, That an education clinic may, within fifteen days after such a finding by the superintendent, file notification of appeal with the state board of education which shall, no later than its second regularly scheduled meeting following notification of such appeal, either grant or deny the proposed revision.

(b) Absences will be paid for, but after three consecutive absences or two unexcused absences in any one week, the student's enrollment will be terminated and no further fees will be payable: PROVIDED, That students may be re-enrolled at any time.

(c) No clinic shall make any charge to any student, or his parent, guardian or custodian, for whom a fee is being received under the provisions of this section.

(2) Payments shall be made from available funds first to those clinic(s) which have in the judgment of the superintendent demonstrated superior performance based upon consideration of students' educational gains taking into account such students' backgrounds, and upon consideration of cost effectiveness. In considering the cost effectiveness of nonprofit clinics the superintendent shall take into account not only payments made under this section but also factors such as tax exemptions, direct and indirect subsidies or any other cost to taxpayers at any level of government which result from such nonprofit status.

(3) To be eligible for such payment, every such clinic, without prior notice, shall permit a review of its accounting records by personnel of the state auditor during normal business hours.

(4) If total funds for this purpose approach depletion, the superintendent shall notify the clinics of the date after which further funds for reimbursement of the clinics' services will be exhausted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. In accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, the state board of education with respect to the matter of certification, and the superintendent of public instruction with respect to all other matters, shall have the power and duty to make the necessary rules and regulations to carry out the purpose and intent of sections 5 through 9 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Criteria as promulgated by the state board of education or superintendent of public instruction for determining if any educational clinic is providing adequate instruction in basic academic skills or demonstrating superior performance in student educational gains for funding under section 8 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be subject to review by four members of the legislature, one from each caucus of each house, including the chairpersons of the respective education committees."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and make necessary section internal reference changes throughout as necessary.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, I wish to raise the question of scope and object on the amendment, and if I may speak to it, Mr. President? Mr. President, I think, as Senator Mardesich said, this was a bill that was passed recently on the floor of the Senate. It was a bill that was titled 'An Act Relating to Education' which purported to add new sections to chapter 223 Laws of 1969 Extraordinary Session, and is titled 28A, The Common School Statutory Provision. House Bill 371, as amended by the committee, deals strictly with Title 13 RCW, and I could go into a little bit about the differences, but this amendment as it is drawn is word for word of Senate Bill 2232. It defines an educational clinic. It defines even basic academic skills, clearly outside of jurisdiction of dependent and delinquent children. It talks about school drop outs, not delinquents or dependents, and it discusses their reentry into the common school system, and a variety of other things dealing strictly with education.

"House Bill 371 is a bill, the amendment attempts to join these two measures by means of adding a new subsection, and this subsection—through subsection 4, and the amendment itself has nothing to do with this section. Section 4 relates to subject matter jurisdiction such as exclusive original jurisdiction, residential placement of these children in voluntary civil commitments and several other areas dealing completely with juvenile court jurisdiction, or court jurisdiction."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President respectfully suggests that in order to give this question a thorough study, that the Senate proceed with the further amendments, and in the meantime, the President will be taking a look at this."

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3 of the printed Senate Committee amendment, on line 10 after "hearing." insert "A final order as used in this section shall not include a decision of the court to decline its jurisdiction."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill No. 371 be held on the second reading calendar for June 6, 1977.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, would you like to have me ask for a Call of the Senate?"

Senator Rasmussen: "That would be a good idea, Senator Talley. I would think that we should all be here working or none should be here working."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Point of order. I think Senator Francis is straying from the point of my motion. I didn't rape anybody or anything at any time, and he is talking a lot about this subject, and I only said, and Senator Pullen reinforced it, that we should put this over until Monday until we could have a chance to look at the amendments. They are coming here faster on the desk than I can make room for them, and we would like to coordinate them a little bit."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen to hold Engrossed Third Substitute House Bill No. 371 on the second reading calendar for June 6, 1977 failed on a rising vote.

Senator Hayner moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3, line 26, strike all of section 7.

Renumber remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, who is the administrator that it is talking about on line 26? Is that a county administrator or state administrator or who appoints that administrator?"

Senator Francis: "That refers to the administrator of juvenile court which is a local administrator of juvenile court. I am not sure that that is the appropriate person to do it, but that is the person that we have had planned to do it here."

Senator Odegaard: "Then the local administrator would adopt the standards?"

Senator Francis: "Yes."

Senator Odegaard: "How are you going to have uniformity that Senator Clarke spoke about if you have the local administrator of thirty-nine different counties?"

Senator Francis: "Because they will be consulting with the state planning agency established under Title 2 of the Federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency and Prevention Act, and that is who we are going to work it out with. It may be that a more appropriate term than the administrator could be used there."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, in reading this a little further, I am becoming concerned about all these standards for detention facilities imposed by, I guess the state, and tied in with federal regulations under Title 2. This reminds me a little bit of the jail standards bill that we have been discussing so much here, the cost that will be imposed. This might be laudable, and a good thing to do, but where is the money supposed to come from to do all of these good things, Senator Francis? This has become more of concern now as I read this a little more closely. Is this going to be another bond issue we are going to have to look at to provide these facilities for the counties? I would hate to impose more standards on counties than we already do without providing funding for them."

Senator Francis: "Senator Odegaard, in response to your question, there is nothing in this section that requires any expenditure of funds. It says that they will consult with the state planning agency, and that following a public hearing and after approval of the body responsible for administering the juvenile court they shall adopt standards. Now, adopting standards doesn't mean that you have to spend money. It does mean that there are certain standards going to be adopted in connection with your detention facilities and, in your own county, and that is all it means, and as I say, if I felt that going along with Senator Hayner's amendment made this bill more acceptable to a vast number of people here, why I would say 'fine' because I don't think this is essential to the bill one way or the other. I do think it is a very desirable section, but I don't regard it as essential."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Pullen yield to a question? Senator Pullen, you mention technical deficiencies which have been pointed out relating to this section. What technical deficiencies are you referring to?"

Senator Pullen: "The whole question surrounding what the administrator is and what his functions are at the local level or at any other level."

Senator Francis: "That is the technical deficiency you were referring to?"

Senator Pullen: "That is right. From the basis ensued so far, I don't think it has been clarified to my satisfaction exactly what the administrator is or the role of the administrator is or whether, in fact, the administrator as it is now defined in section 7 can give us the sort of uniform standards that section 7 is trying to seek."

Senator Francis: "Senator Pullen, I do seriously object to your referring to technical deficiencies just because you don't understand the language in there. It might be more appropriate if you just simply say that it is something that is not understood by you. The term 'administrator' is defined in the preceding section where it says, 'the administrative body' and they are referring there to the county counsel or county commissioners, 'shall appoint an administrator of juvenile court, and that is the person who shall be responsible for day to day administration of such services, etc.', and that is the administrator that is referred to. If you need a more elaborate answer to the answer that I gave to Senator Odegaard, and the only reason I am bringing this up now is that if we are going to work through this bill, let's not be loose in our language and refer to technical deficiencies that don't exist."

The motion by Senator Hayner failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following amendments to the committee amendment were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 4, line 39, strike "section 39" and insert "sections 39 and 63"

On page 53 of the Committee amendment, after line 6, and following subsection (6) add a new subsection (7) to read as follows:

"(7) The court following an adjudicatory hearing may request that a predisposition study be prepared to aid the court in its evaluation of the matters relevant to disposition of the case."

Renumber the remaining subsection consecutively.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 6 of the printed Senate Committee amendment, on line 10 beginning with ": PROVIDED" delete down to and including "offense" on line 12.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, does this language mean then that these files would be open to the press of any child of any age?"

Senator Francis: "There is no limit here as to age, only as to whether or not they have been convicted of what would constitute a crime. Files relating to dependency, neglect and other things would not be open to the press, but anything that is open to the public would be open to the press, and we are talking about records of having committed a crime."

Senator Odegaard: "At any age?"

Senator Francis: "There is no limitation here on age."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Murray, the following amendment by Senators Murray and Wilson to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 6, line 17, after "to" insert "and in any way identifying"

Senator Murray moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Murray and Wilson to the committee amendment:

On page 6, line 17, after "juveniles" insert "subject to dependency, delinquency or juvenile offender proceedings, such records having been"

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Murray and Wilson:

On line 2 of the amendment to page 6, line 17, after "dependency" strike ", delinquency"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senators Murray and Wilson was adopted.

The motion by Senator Murray carried and the amendment, as amended, to the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Murray moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 6, line 23, after "agencies" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That information regarding juvenile offenses, including identification of the juvenile, may be disclosed by police or the prosecuting attorney"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Murray failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 7, line 38, after "(4)" strike all the matter down to "juvenile" on line 39, and insert "Upon request of a juvenile or such juvenile's parents or attorney, information concerning such juvenile shall be released to the"

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 7, line 42, after "(5)" strike all the matter down to "which" on line 43, and insert "Information"

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Murray, the amendment to page 7, line 42, to the committee amendment, on the desk of the secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 8, line 2, after "(6)" strike "The" and insert "upon request of the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family, the"

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 8 of the printed Senate Committee amendment, on line 5 after "released" and before "to" insert ", if requested,"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved the following amendments to the committee amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 16, line 1, after "subsection" and before the period insert "and section 41 of this 1977 amendatory act".

On page 20, line 14 after "custodian" and before the period insert "; or (d) Any child:

- (i) Who is in conflict with his or her parent, guardian, or custodian;
- (ii) Who refuses to remain in any nonsecure residential placement ordered by a court pursuant to section 26 of this 1977 amendatory act;
- (iii) Whose conduct evidences a substantial likelihood of degenerating into serious delinquent behavior if not corrected; and
- (iv) Who is in need of custodial treatment in a diagnostic and treatment facility"

On page 25, line 38 after "section 30" and before "of this" insert "(a), (b), or (c)"

On page 25, following line 42 add a new paragraph to read as follows:

"A child alleged to be dependent pursuant to section 30(d) of this 1977 amendatory act shall have the right to appointed counsel."

On page 29, following section 40 add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. If after a fact-finding hearing it has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt that a child is dependent within the meaning of section 30(d) of this 1977 amendatory act, and after consideration of the predisposition report and after a disposition hearing, the court may order one of the following dispositions of the child:

(a) Placement of the child in an alternative nonsecure residential facility pursuant to section 26 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(b) Commitment to the department of social and health services for placement in a custodial diagnostic and treatment facility for not more than thirty days only if other less restrictive alternatives have failed, if such a treatment facility is available, and if the diagnosis and treatment is reasonably expected to prevent degeneration of the child's conduct into serious delinquent behavior: PROVIDED, That such housing and treatment shall be entirely separate from that of youth who have been found guilty of committing a felony or misdemeanor."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, will Senator Francis yield to a question? Last year we passed a bill; the number escapes me at the moment. I think it was 3116, which made it illegal, or made it nonlegal to put somebody who is not delinquent in a juvenile institution. This bill was passed by this body. I think by this particular amendment you are reversing the position of the Senate exactly one year or so ago. Am I correct?"

Senator Francis: "I think that is certainly arguably true when it says 'commitment to DSHS for placement in a custodial, diagnostic and treatment facility.' I don't know exactly what our words were one year ago. I think that at least the policy behind what we did a year ago would be reversed by adopting this amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, Senator McDermott did not ask me, but I would like to respond to his question. Under that act we had a definition of delinquent children, and under that act, I think anybody who would fall under this section would have been delinquent so they would have been placed with other delinquent children, so I don't think we are changing that.

"In fact, we have established a high standard of care, Senator Lewis, partially on purpose, because I agree that if you are going to treat somebody like a criminal, the child on the street, the kids, no, but the tests are, they learn about this probably quicker than most lawyers in the state. If you are going to treat them with confinement, they ought to know that it is by the same standard everybody else got there.

"In perhaps closing debate, hopefully closing debate, on this amendment, my problem is this: that if, and again I say the kids know probably quicker than most of the attorneys, if in fact, all you have to do is say, 'no, I am not going to and nobody is going to do anything about it,' then the temptation of living with the boyfriend or smoking the pot or doing something like that is so much there, and there is no penalty for telling the judge, 'no, I won't go live in that house,' or 'I won't cooperate with the psychiatrist. I know where I am going just as soon as I run through this Mickey Mouse maze you put up for me.' This way there is a threat. The kid also will know that if he is belligerent, if he is acting out, and if it is pretty obvious he is going to continue to, he might get thirty days at Cascadia.

"I think that is what I was looking for is some way to have a penalty for not belonging to the program."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would like to correct one thing I said, and I think this is consistent with what Senator Odegaard said. I answered you, Senator McDermott, about last year's Senate Bill 3116 incorrectly, because I am advised that we did provide for an up to thirty days commitment for diagnostic purposes and so forth, but in a secure facility. So, this is not inconsistent with that."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendments to the committee amendment were adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 16, line 23, after "subsection" strike "(4) (g)" and insert "(4) (f)"

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following amendment by Senators Woody and Marsh to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 16, line 25, after "hours" insert ", excluding Sundays and holidays,"

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 17, line 35, strike "74.13.031 (4) (g)" and insert "74.13.031 (4) (f)"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, would Senator Hayner yield to a question? Senator Hayner, I have an amendment to that same section. Have you had an opportunity to read that?"

Senator Hayner: "I am a little confused because I don't find that amendment right now. I know it is in this pile somewhere."

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Pullen and Hayner to the committee amendment:

On page 18, line 10, after "placement" strike "only" and insert "and it shall be incumbent upon the child to overcome the presumption that the child should remain with its family"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Pullen yield? The language which you use in your amendment says that it shall be incumbent upon the child to overcome the presumption, and my question is, how does the child make that overcoming of presumption?"

Senator Pullen: "I discussed this with Senator Hayner and I was informed that it is understood that if the child is not capable of doing that himself by reason of age, the child will be represented by appropriate counsel. That was my understanding of the normal legal system applicable to such cases."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendments to the committee amendment were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 19, line 14, after "care" strike the comma and insert "or"

On page 19, line 15, after "or" strike "physical and emotional development" and insert "seriously and unconscionably endangers the child's physical or mental health"

On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 19, line 14, after "child's" insert "health"

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 18 of the printed Senate Committee amendment, on line 9 after "Sec. 26." delete the remainder of the section and insert "The hearing shall be upon the question of the child's placement. Prior to approving an alternative residential placement, the court shall find by a preponderance of the evidence that the reasons for request of alternative residential placement are not capricious and have resulted in a conflict between the parent and the child that cannot be remedied by counseling, crisis intervention, or continued placement in the parental home."

After making such a finding the court may approve the placement in which the child resides or wishes to reside or the court may place the child in such nonsecure licensed care as is deemed appropriate taking into account the interests of the parents and the best interests of the child."

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Rasmussen was adopted:

Amend the amendment to page 18, line 9, as follows:

On line 9 of the amendment, strike "have resulted in" and insert "that there is"

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment, as amended, to the committee amendment was adopted.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Rasmussen, the amendment to page 19 to the committee amendment, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

On page 19 of the printed Senate Committee amendment, on line 22, delete "in six months" and insert "as is deemed appropriate"

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 19, line 22, after "review" strike "in" and insert "within"

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Woody to the committee amendment:

On page 19 of the committee amendment, following section 28, add a section to read as follows:

"Sec. ____ Section 6, chapter 302, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 71, Laws of 1975-76 ex. sess. are each amended to read as follows:

When any child shall be found to be delinquent or dependent, within the meaning of this chapter, the court shall make such order for the care, custody, or commitment of the child as the child's welfare in the interest of the state require. Subject to further order, the court may commit the child:

(1) To the care of such child's parents, subject to supervision of the probation officer; or

(2) To the custody of a probation officer, subject to such conditions as the judge may impose; or

(3) To a reputable citizen or association able and willing to receive and care for such child; or

(4) To an appropriate private agency authorized to care for children; or

(5) To the department of social and health services: PROVIDED, That only a child found to be delinquent may be placed in a facility established pursuant to chapter 72.05 RCW or chapters 72.16 through 72.20 RCW (~~except that a dependent child whose dependency arises from incorrigibility as defined by RCW 13.04.010 (7) may be committed to a diagnostic and treatment facility for not more than thirty days if the court finds that (a) the conduct of the child evidences a substantial likelihood of degenerating into serious delinquent or criminal behavior if not corrected, and (b) other, less restrictive alternatives have failed, and (c) custodial treatment in a diagnostic and treatment facility is available and is reasonably expected to correct such degeneration. PROVIDED, That such housing and treatment shall be entirely separate from that of delinquents~~)).

In no case shall a child be committed beyond the age of twenty-one years. A child committed to the department of institutions shall be subject to the supervision and control thereof and the department shall have the power to parole such child under such conditions as may be prescribed.

The department of social and health services shall have the power to discharge such child from custody, and the court shall rescind the commitment of any dependent child who was, prior to March 21, 1967, committed to the department of institutions unless such child is incorrigible or delinquent within the meaning of this chapter and the department of institutions shall return the child forthwith to the committing court for such action: PROVIDED, That the court may commit such dependent child as otherwise provided in this chapter."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Francis, the amendment by Senator Woody to the committee amendment was withdrawn.

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment by Senator Rasmussen to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 24 of the printed Senate Committee amendment, beginning on line 6 delete "by any law enforcement officer or probation counselor" and insert "by any person twenty-one years of age or older who is not a party to the proceedings or by any law enforcement officer, probation counselor, or department of social and health services social worker"

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 28, line 29, strike "Whenever" and insert "Before"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 29, line 4, after "child's" insert "or parents'"

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 30, line 28, after "decrees" insert ": PROVIDED, That no support payments shall be required of parents requesting the return of their children"

Debate ensued.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Pullen:

After "children" on the last line of the Pullen amendment to page 30, line 28, add ", unless such parent has been found to have abused or neglected such children"

MOTION

At 6:08 p.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Saturday, June 4, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

EIGHTY-SIXTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Saturday, June 4, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Henry. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President Pro Tempore that all Senators were present except Senators Benitz, Buffington, Donohue, Fleming, Gould, Hayner, McDermott, Newschwander, Peterson, Sellar and Woody. On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Benitz, Buffington, Gould, Hayner, Newschwander and Sellar were excused. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Donohue, Fleming, McDermott, Peterson and Woody were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Linda Rogers and Bill Aegerter, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul J. Beeman, pastor of First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR FATHER, WE MEET THIS MORNING WITH OUR SPIRITS YEARNING FOR QUIET TIME ALONE, OR WITH LOVED ONES OR FAMILIES. AND YET THE WEIGHT OF DEMANDING LEGISLATION IS HEAVY ON OUR MINDS. WHEN WE CANNOT FIND PEACE AND HAPPINESS AROUND US, HELP US TO TURN WITHIN, TO THE SILENT RESOURCES OF YOUR SPIRIT. WE REMEMBER THOSE SOURCES OF INNER JOY WHICH JESUS ADVOCATED WHEN HE SAID: 'HAPPY ARE THE POOR IN SPIRIT FOR THEIRS IS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN. HAPPY ARE THE MEEK, FOR THEY SHALL INHERIT THE EARTH. HAPPY ARE THE PURE IN HEART FOR THEY SHALL SEE GOD.' GRANT, OUR FATHER, THAT THESE SOURCES OF HAPPINESS MAY BE EXPERIENCED BY EACH OF US TODAY, AND GRANT TO US THE MIND OF OUR MASTER, IN WHOSE NAME WE PRAY. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

June 3, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2668, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference, and the report of the Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

June 4, 1977.

Mr. Speaker:

Mr. President:

We, of Your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2668, enacting a landlord-tenant act for mobile home lots, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following: "NEW SECTION, Section 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Mobile Home Landlord-Tenant Act".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Every duty under this chapter and every act which must be performed as a condition precedent to the exercise of a right or remedy under this chapter imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. For purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Landlord" means the owner of a mobile home park and includes the agents of a landlord;

(2) "Mobile home lot" means a portion of a mobile home park designated as the location of one mobile home and its accessory buildings, and intended for the exclusive use of the occupants of that mobile home;

(3) "Mobile home park" means any real property which is rented or held out for rent to others for the placement of two or more mobile homes for the primary purpose of production of income;

(4) "Tenant" means any person, except a transient, who rents a mobile home lot;

(5) "Transient" means a person who rents a mobile home lot for a period of less than one month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This chapter shall regulate and determine legal rights, remedies, and obligations arising from any rental agreement between a landlord and a tenant regarding a mobile home lot. All such rental agreements shall be unenforceable to the extent of any conflict with any provision of this chapter. Chapter 59.12 RCW shall be applicable only in implementation of the provisions of this chapter and not as an alternative remedy to this chapter which shall be exclusive where applicable: PROVIDED, That the provision of RCW 59.12.090, 59.12.100, and 59.12.170 shall not apply to any rental agreement included under the provisions of this chapter. RCW 59.18.370 through 59.18.410 shall be applicable to any action of forcible entry or detainer or unlawful detainer arising from a tenancy under the provisions of this chapter. Rentals of mobile homes themselves are governed by the Residential Landlord-Tenant Act, chapter 59.18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) On and after the effective date of this act, no landlord may offer a mobile home lot for rent without offering to a prospective tenant a written rental agreement for a term of one year or more. A prospective tenant who desires to occupy a mobile home lot for other than a term of one year or more may have the option to be on a month to month basis but must waive, in writing, the right to such one year or more term. Except pursuant to such waiver, no landlord shall allow a mobile home to be moved into a mobile home park in this state until a written rental agreement has been signed by the landlord and the tenant and a copy provided for the tenant;

(2) The requirements of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply if:

- (a) The mobile home park or part thereof has been acquired or is under imminent threat of condemnation for a public works project, or
- (b) An employer-employee relationship exists between a landlord and tenant;
- (3) The provisions of this section shall apply to any tenancy in existence prior to the effective date of this act, upon expiration of the term of any oral or written rental agreement governing such tenancy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Any rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant shall contain:

(a) The terms for the payment of rent, including time and place, and any additional charges to be paid by the tenant. Additional charges that occur less frequently than monthly shall be itemized in a billing to the tenant;

(b) Reasonable rules for guest parking which shall be clearly stated;

(c) The rules and regulations of the park;

(d) The name and address of the person who is the landlord, and if such person does not reside in the state where the mobile home park is located there shall also be designated by name and address a person who resides in the county where the mobile home park is located who is authorized to act as agent for the purposes of service of notices and process. If no designation is made of a person to act as agent, then the person to whom rental payments are to be made shall be considered the agent; and

(e) The terms and conditions under which any deposit or portion thereof may be withheld by the landlord upon termination of the rental agreement if any moneys are paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit or as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a rental agreement.

(2) Any rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant shall not contain:

(a) Any provision which allows the landlord to charge a fee for guest parking unless a violation of the rules for guest parking occurs: PROVIDED, That a fee may be charged for guest parking which covers an extended period of time as defined in the rental agreement;

(b) Any provision which authorizes the towing or impounding of a vehicle except upon notice to the owner thereof or the tenant whose guest is the owner of said vehicle;

(c) Any provision which allows the landlord to increase the rent or alter the due date for rent payment during the term of the rental agreement: PROVIDED, That a rental agreement may include an escalation clause for a pro rata share of any increase in the mobile home park's real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, over the base taxes or utility assessments or charges of the year in which the rental agreement took effect, if the clause also provides for a pro rata reduction in rent or other charges in the event of a reduction in real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, below the base year;

(d) Any provision by which the tenant agrees to waive or forego rights or remedies under this chapter; or

(e) Any provision allowing the landlord to charge an "entrance fee" or an "exit fee".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A landlord shall not:

(1) Deny any tenant the right to sell such tenant's mobile home within a park or require the removal of the mobile home from the park solely because of the sale thereof: PROVIDED, That:

(a) A rental agreement for a fixed term shall be assignable by the tenant to any person to whom he sells or transfers title to the mobile home, subject to the approval of the landlord after fifteen days' written notice of such intended assignment;

(b) The assignee of the rental agreement shall assume all the duties and obligations of his assignor for the remainder of the term of the rental agreement unless, by mutual agreement, a new rental agreement is entered into with the landlord; and

(c) The landlord shall approve or disapprove of the assignment of a rental agreement on the same basis that the landlord approves or disapproves of any new tenant; or

(2) Restrict the tenant's freedom of choice in purchasing goods or services but may reserve the right to approve or disapprove any exterior structural improvements on a mobile home lot: PROVIDED, That door-to-door solicitation in the mobile home park may be restricted in the rental agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Tenancy during the term of a rental agreement may be terminated by the landlord only for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Substantial or repeated violation of the rules of the mobile home park as established by the landlord at the inception of the tenancy or as assumed subsequently with the consent of the tenant. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to comply or vacate. In the case of periodic rather than continuous violation, said notice shall specify that the same violation repeated shall result in termination;

(2) Nonpayment of rent or other charges specified in the rental agreement, upon five days written notice to pay rent and/or other charges or to vacate;

(3) Conviction of the tenant of a crime, commission of which threatens the health, safety, or welfare of the other mobile home park tenants. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to vacate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Unless otherwise agreed, rental agreements shall be for a term of one year. Any rental agreement for a term of one year and any rental agreement renewed for a six-month term shall be automatically renewed for an additional six-month term unless:

(a) Otherwise specified in the original written rental agreement; or

(b) The landlord notifies the tenant in writing three months prior to the expiration of the rental agreement that it will not be renewed or will be renewed only with the changes contained in such notice.

A tenant shall notify the landlord in writing one month prior to the expiration of a rental agreement of an intention not to renew.

(2) The tenant may terminate the rental agreement upon thirty days written notice whenever a change in the location of the tenant's employment requires a change in his residence, and shall not be liable for rental following such termination unless after due diligence and reasonable effort the landlord is not able to rent the mobile home lot at a fair rental. If the landlord is not able to rent the lot, the tenant shall remain liable for the rental specified in the rental agreement until the lot is rented or the original term ends;

(3) Any tenant who is a member of the armed forces may terminate a rental agreement with less than thirty days notice if he receives reassignment orders which do not allow greater notice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Improvements, except a natural lawn, purchased and installed by a tenant on a mobile home lot shall remain the property of the tenant even though affixed to or in the ground and may be removed or disposed of by the tenant prior to the termination of the tenancy: PROVIDED, That a tenant shall leave the mobile home lot in substantially the same or better condition than upon taking possession.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In any action arising out of this chapter, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Venue for any action arising under this chapter shall be in the district or superior court of the county in which the mobile home lot is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 59 RCW."

Signed by: Senators Hayner, Marsh and Van Hollebeke; Representatives Ehlers, Smith (Rick) and Tilly.

Relaxing income limitations for retired persons' property tax exemption.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

May 17, 1977.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 355, relaxing income limitations for retired persons' property tax exemption (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Beginning on page 1, after the enacting clause delete the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 182, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 14, chapter 291, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.381 are each amended to read as follows:

A person shall be exempt from any legal obligation to pay all or a portion of the amount of excess and regular real property taxes due and payable in the year following the year in which a claim is filed in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) The property taxes must have been imposed upon a residence which has been regularly occupied by the person claiming the exemption during the two calendar years preceding the year in which the exemption claim is filed; or the property taxes must have been imposed upon a residence which was occupied by the person claiming the exemption as a principal place of residence as of January 1st of the year for which the claim is filed and the person claiming the exemption must also have been a resident of the state of Washington for the last three calendar years preceding the year in which the claim is filed: PROVIDED, That any person who sells, transfers, or is displaced from his or her residence may transfer his or her exemption status to a replacement residence, but no claimant shall receive an exemption on more than one residence in any year;

(2) The person claiming the exemption must have owned, at the time of filing, in fee, or by contract purchase, the residence on which the property taxes have been imposed or if the person claiming the exemption lives in a cooperative housing association, corporation, or partnership, such person must own a share therein representing the unit or portion of the structure in which he or she resides. For purposes of this subsection, a residence owned by a marital community shall be deemed to be owned by each spouse;
