(5) "Disturbed area" means any place where activities clearly in preparation for, or during, surface mining have physically disrupted, covered, compacted, moved, or otherwise altered the characteristics of soil, bedrock, vegetation, or topography that existed prior to such activity. Disturbed areas may include but are not limited to: Working faces, water bodies created by mine-related excavation, pit floors, the land beneath processing plant and stock pile sites, spoil pile sites, and equipment staging areas.

Disturbed areas do not include:

(a) Surface mine access roads unless these have characteristics of topography, drainage, slope stability, or ownership that, in the opinion of the department, make reclamation necessary; and

(b) Lands that have been reclaimed to all standards outlined in this chapter, rules of the department, any applicable SEPA document, and the approved reclamation plan.

(6) "Miner" means any person or persons, any partnership, limited partnership, or corporation, or any association of persons, including every public or governmental agency engaged in mining from the surface.

(7) "Minerals" means clay, coal, gravel, industrial minerals, metallic substances, peat, sand, stone, topsoil, and any other similar solid material or substance to be excavated from natural deposits on or in the earth for commercial, industrial, or construction use.

(8) "Operations" means all mine-related activities, exclusive of reclamation, that include, but are not limited to activities that affect noise generation, air quality, surface and ground water quality, quantity, and flow, glare, pollution, traffic safety, ground vibrations, and/or significant or substantial impacts commonly regulated under provisions of land use or other permits of local government and local ordinances, or other state laws.

Operations specifically include:

(a) The mining or extraction of rock, stone, gravel, sand, earth, and other minerals;

(b) Blasting, equipment maintenance, sorting, crushing, and loading;

(c) On-site mineral processing including asphalt or concrete batching, concrete recycling, and other aggregate recycling;
(d) Transporting minerals to and from the mine, on site road maintenance, road maintenance for roads used extensively for surface mining activities, traffic safety, and traffic control.

(9) "Overburden" means the earth, rock, soil, and topsoil that lie above mineral deposits.

(10) "Permit holder" means any person or persons, any partnership, limited partnership, or corporation, or any association of persons, either natural or artificial, including every public or governmental agency engaged in surface mining and/or the operation of surface mines, whether individually, jointly, or through subsidiaries, agents, employees, operators, or contractors who holds a state reclamation permit.

(11) "Reclamation" means rehabilitation for the appropriate future use of disturbed areas resulting from surface mining including areas under associated mineral processing equipment and areas under stockpiled materials. Although both the need for and the practicability of reclamation will control the type and degree of reclamation in any specific surface mine, the basic objective shall be to reestablish on a perpetual basis the vegetative cover, soil stability, and water conditions appropriate to the approved subsequent use of the surface mine and to prevent or mitigate future environmental degradation.

(12) "Reclamation setbacks" include those lands along the margins of surface mines wherein minerals and overburden shall be preserved in sufficient volumes to accomplish reclamation according to the approved plan and the minimum reclamation standards. Maintenance of reclamation setbacks may not preclude other mine-related activities within the reclamation setback.

(13) "Recycling" means the reuse of minerals or rock products.

(14) "Screening" consists of vegetation, berms or other topography, fencing, and/or other screens that may be required to mitigate impacts of surface mining on adjacent properties and/or the environment.

(15) "Segment" means any portion of the surface mine that, in the opinion of the department:

(a) Has characteristics of topography, drainage, slope stability, ownership, mining development, or mineral distribution, that make reclamation necessary;

(b) Is not in use as part of surface mining and/or related activities; and

(c) Is larger than seven acres and has more than five hundred linear feet of working face except as provided in a segmental reclamation agreement approved by the department.

(16) "SEPA" means the state environmental policy act, chapter 43.21C RCW and rules adopted thereunder.

(17)(a) "Surface mine" means any area or areas in close proximity to each other, as determined by the department, where extraction of minerals from the surface results in:

(i) More than three acres of disturbed area;

(ii) Mined slopes greater than thirty feet high and steeper than 1.0 foot horizontal to 1.0 foot vertical; or

(iii) More than one acre of disturbed area within an eight acre area, when the disturbed area results from mineral prospecting or exploration activities.

(b) Surface mines include areas where mineral extraction from the surface occurs by the auger method or by reworking mine refuse or tailings, when these activities exceed the size or height thresholds listed in (a) of this subsection.

(c) Surface mining shall exclude excavations or grading used:

(i) Primarily for on-site construction, on-site road maintenance, or on-site landfill construction;

(ii) For the purpose of public safety or restoring the land following a natural disaster;

(iii) For the purpose of removing stockpiles;

(iv) For forest or farm road construction or maintenance on-site or on contiguous lands;

(v) For sand authorized by RCW 43.51.685; and

(vi) For underground mines.

(18) "Topsoil" means the naturally occurring upper part of a soil profile, including the soil horizon that is rich in humus and capable of supporting vegetation together with other sediments within four vertical feet of the ground surface.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. SEGMENTAL RECLAMATION. The permit holder shall reclaim each segment of the mine within two years of completion of surface mining on that segment except as provided in a segmental reclamation agreement approved in writing by the department. The primary objective of a segmental reclamation agreement should be to enhance final reclamation.

Sec. 6. RCW 78.44.040 and 1984 c 215 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of natural resources is charged with the administration of reclamation under this chapter. In order to implement ~~((the chapter's terms and provisions))~~ and enforce this chapter, the department, under the ~~((provisions of the))~~ administrative procedure act (chapter 34.05 RCW), ~~((as now or hereafter amended,))~~ may from time to time ~~((promulgate))~~ adopt those rules ~~((and regulations))~~ necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 7. RCW 78.44.050 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall have the exclusive authority to regulate surface mine reclamation. All counties, cities, or towns shall have the authority to zone surface mines and adopt ordinances regulating operations pursuant to section 16 of this act, except that county, city, or town operations ordinances may be preempted by the department during the emergencies outlined in section 27 of this act and related rules.

This chapter shall not ~~((affect))~~ alter or preempt any ~~((of the))~~ provisions of the state fisheries laws (Title 75 RCW), the state water allocation and use laws (chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW), the state water pollution control laws ~~((Title 90))~~ chapter 90.48 RCW, the state ~~((game))~~ wildlife laws (Title 77 RCW), ~~((or any other state laws, and shall be cumulative and nonexclusive))~~ state noise laws or air quality laws (Title 70 RCW), shoreline management (chapter 90.58 RCW), the state environmental policy act (chapter 43.21C RCW), state growth management (chapter 36.70A RCW), state drinking water laws (chapters 43.20 and 70.119A RCW), or any other state statutes.

Sec. 8. RCW 78.44.060 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall have the authority to conduct ~~((or))~~, authorize, and/or participate in investigations, research, experiments, and demonstrations, and to collect and disseminate information relating to surface mining and reclamation of surface mined lands.

Sec. 9. RCW 78.44.070 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The department may cooperate with other governmental and private agencies ~~((in this state and other states))~~ and agencies of the federal government, and may reasonably reimburse them for any services the department requests that they provide. The department may also receive any federal funds, state funds and any other funds and expend them for reclamation of land affected by surface mining and for purposes enumerated in RCW 78.44.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. SURFACE MINING RECLAMATION ACCOUNT. The surface mining reclamation account is created in the state treasury. Annual mining fees, funds received by the department from state, local, or federal agencies for research purposes, as well as other mine-related funds and fines received by the department shall be deposited into this account. The surface mine reclamation account may be used by the department only to:

- (1) Administer its regulatory program pursuant to this chapter;
- (2) Undertake research relating to surface mine regulation, reclamation of surface mine lands, and related issues; and
- (3) Cover costs arising from appeals from determinations made under this chapter.

Fines, interest, and other penalties collected by the department under the provisions of this chapter shall be used to reclaim surface mines abandoned prior to 1971.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. RECLAMATION PERMITS REQUIRED--APPLICATIONS. After July 1, 1993, no miner or permit holder may engage in surface mining without having first obtained a reclamation permit from the department. Operating permits issued by the department between January 1, 1971, and June 30, 1993, shall be considered reclamation permits provided such permits substantially meet the protections, mitigations, and reclamation goals of sections 12 and 20 of this act within five years after the effective date of this section. State agencies and local government shall be exempt from this time limit for inactive sites. Prior to the use of an inactive site, the reclamation plan must be brought up to current standards. A separate permit shall be required for each noncontiguous surface mine. The reclamation permit shall consist of the permit forms and any exhibits attached thereto. The permit holder shall comply with the provisions of the reclamation permit unless waived and explained in writing by the department.

Prior to receiving a reclamation permit, an applicant must submit an application on forms provided by the department that shall contain the following information and shall be considered part of the reclamation permit:

- (1) Name and address of the legal landowner, or purchaser of the land under a real estate contract;
- (2) The name of the applicant and, if the applicants are corporations or other business entities, the names and addresses of their principal officers and resident agent for service of process;
- (3) A reasonably accurate description of the minerals to be surface mined;
- (4) Type of surface mining to be performed;
- (5) Estimated starting date, date of completion, and date of completed reclamation of surface mining;
- (6) Size and legal description of the permit area and maximum lateral and vertical extent of the disturbed area;
- (7) Expected area to be disturbed by surface mining during (a) the next twelve months, and (b) the following twenty-four months;
- (8) Any applicable SEPA documents; and
- (9) Other pertinent data as required by the department.

The reclamation permit shall be granted for the period required to deplete essentially all minerals identified in the reclamation permit on the land covered by the reclamation plan. The reclamation permit shall be valid until the reclamation is complete unless the permit is canceled by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. RECLAMATION PLANS. An applicant shall provide a reclamation plan and copies acceptable to the department prior to obtaining a reclamation permit. The department shall have the sole authority to approve reclamation plans. Reclamation plans or modified reclamation plans submitted to the department after June 30, 1993, shall meet or exceed the minimum reclamation standards set forth in this chapter and by the department in rule. Each applicant shall also supply copies of the proposed plans and final reclamation plan approved by the department to the county, city, or town in which the mine will be located. The department shall solicit comment from local government prior to approving a reclamation plan. The reclamation plan shall include:

- (1) A written narrative describing the proposed mining and reclamation scheme with:
 - (a) A statement of a proposed subsequent use of the land after reclamation that is consistent with the local land use designation. Approval of the reclamation plan shall not vest the proposed subsequent use of the land;
 - (b) If the permit holder is not the sole landowner, a copy of the conveyance or a written statement that expressly grants or reserves the right to extract minerals by surface mining methods;
 - (c) A simple and accurate legal description of the permit area and disturbed areas;
 - (d) The maximum depth of mining;
 - (e) A reasonably accurate description of the minerals to be mined;
 - (f) A description of the method of mining;
 - (g) A description of the sequence of mining that will provide, within limits of normal procedures of the industry, for completion of surface mining and associated disturbance on each portion of the permit area so that reclamation can be initiated at the earliest possible time on each segment of the mine;
 - (h) A schedule for progressive reclamation of each segment of the mine;
 - (i) Where mining on flood plains or in river or stream channels is contemplated, a thoroughly documented hydrogeologic evaluation that will outline measures that would protect against or would mitigate avulsion and erosion as determined by the department;
 - (j) Where mining is contemplated within critical aquifer recharge areas, special protection areas as defined by chapter 90.48 RCW and implementing rules, public water supply watersheds, sole source aquifers, wellhead protection areas, and designated aquifer protection areas as set forth in chapter 36.36 RCW, a thoroughly documented hydrogeologic analysis of the reclamation plan may be required; and
 - (k) Additional information as required by the department including but not limited to: The positions of reclamation setbacks and screening, conservation of topsoil, interim reclamation, revegetation, postmining erosion control, drainage control, slope stability, disposal of mine wastes, control of fill material, development of wetlands, ponds, lakes, and impoundments, and rehabilitation of topography.
- (2) Maps of the surface mine showing:
 - (a) All applicable data required in the narrative portion of the reclamation plan;
 - (b) Existing topographic contours;
 - (c) Contours depicting specifications for surface gradient restoration appropriate to the proposed subsequent use of the land and meeting the minimum reclamation standards;
 - (d) Locations and names of all roads, railroads, and utility lines on or adjacent to the area;
 - (e) Locations and types of proposed access roads to be built in conjunction with the surface mining;
 - (f) Detailed and accurate boundaries of the permit area, screening, reclamation setbacks, and maximum extent of the disturbed area; and
 - (g) Estimated depth to ground water and the locations of surface water bodies and wetlands both prior to and after mining.
- (3) At least two cross sections of the mine including all applicable data required in the narrative and map portions of the reclamation plan.
- (4) Evidence that the proposed surface mine has been approved under local zoning and land use regulations.
- (5) Written approval of the reclamation plan by the landowner for mines permitted after June 30, 1993.
- (6) Other supporting data and documents regarding the surface mine as reasonably required by the department.

If the department refuses to approve a reclamation plan in the form submitted by an applicant or permit holder, it shall notify the applicant or permit holder stating the reasons for its determination and describe such additional requirements to the applicant or permit holder's reclamation plan as are necessary for the approval of the plan by the department. If the department refuses to approve a complete reclamation plan within one hundred twenty days, the miner or permit holder may appeal this determination under the provisions of this chapter.

Only insignificant deviations may occur from the approved reclamation plan without prior written approval by the department for the proposed change.

The department retains the authority to require that the reclamation plan be updated to the satisfaction of the department at least every ten years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. JOINT RECLAMATION PLANS. Where two or more surface mines join along a common boundary, the department may require submission of a joint reclamation plan in order to provide for optimum reclamation or to avoid waste of mineral resources. Such joint reclamation plans may be in the form of a single collaborative plan submitted by all affected permit holders or as individual reclamation plans in which the schedule of reclamation, finished contours, and revegetation match reclamation plans of adjacent permit holders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. FEES. (1) An applicant for a public or private reclamation permit shall pay an application fee to the department before being granted a surface mining permit. The amount of the application fee shall be six hundred fifty dollars.

(2) After June 30, 1993, each public or private permit holder shall pay an annual permit fee of six hundred fifty dollars. The annual permit fee shall be payable to the department on the first anniversary of the permit date and each year thereafter. Annual fees paid by a county for small mines used exclusively for public works projects shall be paid on those small mines from which the county elects to extract minerals in the next calendar year and shall not exceed two thousand dollars.

(3) After July 1, 1995, the department may modify annual permit fees by rule if:

(a) The total annual permit fees are reasonably related to the approximate costs of administering the department's surface mining regulatory program;

(b) The annual fee does not exceed five thousand dollars; and

(c) The mines are small mines in remote areas that are used primarily for public service, then lower annual permit fees may be established.

(4) Appeals from any determination of the department shall not stay the requirement to pay any annual permit fee. Failure to pay the annual fee may constitute grounds for an order to suspend surface mining or cancellation of the reclamation permit as provided in this chapter.

(5) All fees collected by the department shall be deposited into the surface mining reclamation account.

(6) If the department delegates enforcement responsibilities to a county, city, or town, the department may allocate funds collected under this section to such county, city, or town.

(7) Mining of minerals on federal land is exempt from this chapter provided that such mining substantially meets or exceeds the provisions of this chapter that are not preempted by federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. PERFORMANCE SECURITY. The department shall not issue a reclamation permit until the applicant has deposited with the department an acceptable performance security on forms prescribed and furnished by the department. A public or governmental agency shall not be required to post performance security nor shall a permit holder be required to post surface mining performance security with more than one state, local, or federal agency.

This performance security may be:

(1) Bank letters of credit acceptable to the department;

(2) A cash deposit;

(3) Negotiable securities acceptable to the department;

(4) An assignment of a savings account;

(5) A savings certificate in a Washington bank on an assignment form prescribed by the department;

(6) Assignments of interests in real property within the state of Washington; or

(7) A corporate surety bond executed in favor of the department by a corporation authorized to do business in the state of Washington under Title 48 RCW and authorized by the department.

The performance security shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of the requirements set forth in this chapter and of the rules adopted under it.

The department shall have the authority to determine the amount of the performance security using a standardized performance security formula developed by the department. The amount of the security shall be determined by the department and based on the estimated costs of completing reclamation according to the approved reclamation plan or minimum standards and related administrative overhead for the area to be surface mined during (a) the next twelve-month period, (b) the following twenty-four months, and (c) any previously disturbed areas on which the reclamation has not been satisfactorily completed and approved.

The department may increase or decrease the amount of the performance security at any time to compensate for a change in the disturbed area, the depth of excavation, a modification of the reclamation plan, or any other alteration in the conditions of the mine that affects the cost of reclamation. The department may, for any reason, refuse any performance security not deemed adequate.

Liability under the performance security shall be maintained until reclamation is completed according to the approved reclamation plan to the satisfaction of the department unless released as hereinafter provided. Liability under the performance security may be released only upon written notification by the department. Notification shall be given upon completion of compliance or acceptance by the department of a substitute performance security. The liability of the surety shall not exceed the amount of security required by this section and the department's reasonable legal fees to recover the security.

Any interest or appreciation on the performance security shall be held by the department until reclamation is completed to its satisfaction. At such time, the interest shall be remitted to the permit holder; except that such interest or appreciation may be used by the department to effect reclamation in the event that the permit holder fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter and the costs of reclamation exceed the face value of the performance security.

No other state agency or local government shall require performance security for the purposes of surface mine reclamation and only one agency of government shall require and hold the performance security. The department may enter into written agreements with federal agencies in order to avoid redundant bonding of surface mines straddling boundaries between federally controlled and other lands within Washington state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 36.70A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Where the county has classified mineral lands pursuant to RCW 36.70A.050 and mineral resource lands of long-term commercial significance exist, a county, city, or town shall designate sufficient mineral resource lands in the comprehensive plans to meet the projected thirty-year, county-wide need. Once designated, mineral resource uses, including operations as defined in section 4 of this act, shall be established as an allowed use in local development regulations subject to the permit process described in this section.

The county, city, or town shall designate mineral resource deposits, both active and inactive, in economically viable proximity to locations where the deposits are likely to be used.

Through its comprehensive plan and development regulations, as defined in RCW 36.70A.030, the county, city, or town shall discourage the siting of incompatible uses adjacent to mineral resource industries, deposits, and holdings.

For purposes of this section, "long-term commercial significance" includes the mineral composition of the land for long-term economically viable commercial production, in consideration with the mineral resource land's proximity to population areas, product markets, and the possibility of more intense uses of the land.

(2)(a) Counties, cities, and towns may only regulate surface mining operations by ordinance and only in accordance with the requirements and limitations of this subsection.

(b) Local surface mining operating standards shall:

(i) Address only:

(A) Traffic;

(B) Light emission;

(C) Visual screening;

(D) Noise emission; and

(E) Other significant or substantial mining impacts that are not covered by a subject area of regulation embodied in any other state or federal law, including among others the subject areas pertaining to water allocation, use, and control and fisheries and wildlife habitat set forth in section 19 of this act.

(ii) Be performance-based, objective standards that:

(A) Are directly and proportionately related to limiting surface mining impacts;

(B) Are reasonable and generally capable of being achieved;

(C) Take into account existing and available technologies; and

(D) May be met by any lawful means selected by the applicant or operator that, in the judgment of the county, city, or town, achieve compliance with the standard.

(iii) Limit application and monitoring fees to the amount necessary to pay the costs of administering, processing, monitoring, and enforcing the regulation of surface mining in accordance with this section.

(iv) Except as otherwise provided in this section, implement the ordinance through an operating plan review and approval process. Such approval process shall:

(A) Require submittal of sufficient, complete, and accurate information, as specified by the local ordinance, to allow the decision maker to review the plan for compliance with local standards;

(B) At the option of the county, city, or town, provide for administrative approval subject to appeal or for initial consideration through a public hearing process; and

(C) Require that project-specific conditions or restrictions be based upon written findings of facts demonstrating their need to achieve compliance with local standards.

(v) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, provide that approvals issued will be valid through completion of surface mining.

(3) Operating regulations and amendments thereto adopted pursuant to this section may be applied to lawfully preexisting mining operations only if the local ordinance:

(a) Limits application of subsection (2)(b)(i)(A) of this section relating to traffic to the designation of approved haul routes;
(b) Exempts such preexisting operations from any operating plan review and approval process;
(c) Provides reasonable time periods for compliance with new or amended local operating standards that in no event may be less than one year; and

(d) Includes a variance procedure to allow continuation of existing operations for a nonconforming surface mining operation where strict adherence to a local operating standard would be economically or operationally impractical due to conditions relating to site configuration, topography, or the nature of historic operations.

(4) Nothing in this section precludes a county, city, or town from exercising the express authority delegated to it by a state agency under state law, or from complying with state law when required as a regulated entity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A surface mining model ordinance advisory committee is hereby created. The committee shall be composed of representatives of local government, state agencies, surface mining interests, and the environmental community. The department of natural resources shall appoint the members of the committee and the department shall staff the committee. This temporary advisory committee shall draft model ordinances for different surface-mining settings and shall assist counties, cities, and towns in developing ordinances. The committee shall complete its work and shall expire by December 31, 1994. Participants on the committee shall pay their own expenses, and the department of natural resources shall fund the department's involvement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. RECLAMATION SETBACKS. Reclamation setbacks shall be as follows unless waived by the department:

(1) The reclamation setback for unconsolidated deposits within mines permitted after June 30, 1993, shall be equal to the maximum anticipated height of the adjacent working face or as determined by the department. Setbacks and buffers may be destroyed as part of final reclamation of each segment if approved by the department.

(2) The minimum reclamation setback for consolidated materials within mines permitted after June 30, 1993, shall be thirty feet or as determined by the department.

(3) An exemption from this section may be granted by the department following a written request. The department may consider submission of a plan for backfilling acceptable to the department, a geotechnical slope-stability study, proof of a dedicated source of fill materials, written approval of contiguous landowners, and other information before granting an exemption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. WATER CONTROL. (1) Water control as regulated by the department shall be limited to those provisions necessary to effect surface mine reclamation and to protect ground and surface water resources after reclamation is complete and shall be consistent with existing water control laws. The department shall solicit recommendations from all agencies with expertise in relevant water control laws when evaluating reclamation plans for surface mines in or near water.

(2) As to surface mining projects, control of surface mine water shall be pursuant to chapter 90.48 RCW; water availability, hydraulic continuity, allocation, and use shall be pursuant to chapters 90.03, 90.44, and 90.54 RCW; regulation of drinking water shall be pursuant to Titles 43 and 70 RCW; and protection of fisheries and wildlife shall be regulated pursuant to Title 75 RCW (fisheries laws) and Title 77 RCW (wildlife laws) as well as chapters 90.03, 90.44, 90.48, and 90.54 RCW, federal storm water regulations, and/or national pollutant discharge elimination system regulations. The department of ecology upon request by a county, city, or town, may consult with the affected parties and incorporate additional site-specific requirements into individual surface mine national pollutant discharge elimination system permits where such requirements are appropriate.

A county, city, or town may regulate the impacts on water through local ordinances and regulations that:

(a) Cover significant or substantial impacts that are not covered by a subject area of regulation embodied in any other state or federal law; or

(b) Implement regulatory and/or enforcement authority that has been expressly authorized to it by a state agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. RECLAMATION. The need for, and the practicability of, reclamation shall control the type and degree of reclamation in any specific instance. However, the basic objective of reclamation is to reestablish on a continuing basis the vegetative cover, slope stability, water conditions, and safety conditions suitable to the proposed subsequent use consistent with local land use plans for the surface mine site.

Each permit holder shall comply with the minimum reclamation standards in effect on the date the permit was issued and any additional reclamation standards set forth in the approved reclamation plan.

Reclamation activities, particularly those relating to control of erosion and mitigation of impacts of mining to adjacent areas, shall, to the extent feasible, be conducted simultaneously with surface mining, and in any case shall be initiated at the earliest possible time after completion of surface mining on any segment of the permit area.

All reclamation activities shall be completed not more than two years after completion or abandonment of surface mining on each segment of the area for which a reclamation permit is in force.

The department may by contract delegate enforcement of provisions of reclamation plans to counties, cities, and towns. A county, city, or town performing enforcement functions may not impose any additional fees on permit holders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. MINIMUM RECLAMATION STANDARDS. Reclamation of surface mines permitted after June 30, 1993, and reclamation of surface mine segments addressed by reclamation plans modified after June 30, 1994, shall meet the following minimum standards except as waived in writing by the department.

(1) Prior to surface mining, permit holders shall carefully stockpile all topsoil on the site for use in reclamation, or immediately move topsoil to reclaim adjacent segments, except when the approved subsequent use does not require replacing the topsoil. Topsoil needed for reclamation shall not be sold as a mineral nor mixed with sterile soils. Stockpiled materials used as screening shall not be used for reclamation until such time as the appropriate county or municipal government has given its approval.

(2) The department may require that clearly visible, permanent monuments delineating the permit boundaries and maximum extent of the disturbed area be set at appropriate places around the mine site. The permit holder shall maintain the monuments until termination of the reclamation permit.

(3) All minimum reclamation standards may be waived in writing by the department in order to accommodate unique and beneficial reclamation schemes such as parks, swimming facilities, buildings, and wildlife reserves. Such waivers shall be granted only after written approval by the department of a reclamation plan describing the variances to the minimum reclamation standards, receipt of documentation of SEPA compliance, and written approvals from the landowner and by the local land use authority.

(4) All surface-mined slopes shall be reclaimed to the following minimum standards:

(a) In surface mines in soil, sand, gravel, and other unconsolidated materials, all reclaimed slopes shall:

(i) Have varied steepness;

(ii) Have a sinuous appearance in both profile and plan view;

(iii) Have no large rectilinear topographic elements;

(iv) Generally have slopes of between 2.0 and 3.0 feet horizontal to 1.0 foot vertical or flatter except in limited areas where steeper slopes are necessary in order to create sinuous topography and to control drainage;

(v) Not exceed 1.5 feet horizontal to 1.0 foot vertical except as necessary to blend with adjacent natural slopes;

(vi) Be compacted if significant backfilling is required to produce the final reclaimed slopes and if the department determines that compaction is necessary.

(b) Slopes in consolidated materials shall have no prescribed slope angle or height, but where a severely hazardous condition is created by mining and that is not indigenous to the immediate area, the slopes shall not exceed 2.0 feet horizontal to 1.0 foot vertical. Steeper slopes shall be acceptable in areas where evidence is submitted that demonstrates that the geologic or topographic characteristics of the site preclude reclamation of slopes to such angle or height or that such slopes constitute an acceptable subsequent use under local land use regulations.

(c) Surface mines in which the seasonal or permanent water tables have been penetrated, thereby creating swamps, ponds, or lakes useful for recreational, wildlife habitat, water quality control, or other beneficial wetland purposes shall be reclaimed in the following manner:

(i) For slopes that are below the permanent water table in soil, sand, gravel, and other unconsolidated materials, the slope angle shall be no steeper than 1.5 feet horizontal to 1.0 foot vertical;

(ii) Generally, solid rock banks shall be shaped so that a person can escape from the water, however steeper slopes and lack of water egress shall be acceptable in rural, forest, or mountainous areas or where evidence is provided that such slopes would constitute an acceptable subsequent use under local land use regulations;

(iii) Both standpipes and armored spillways or other measures to prevent undesirable overflow or seepage shall be provided to stabilize all such water bodies within the disturbed area; and

(iv) Where lakes, ponds, or swamps are created, the permit holder shall provide measures to establish a beneficial wetland by developing natural wildlife habitat and incorporating such measures as irregular shoreline configurations, sinuous bathymetry and shorelines, varied water depths, peninsulas, islands, and subaqueous areas less than 1.5 foot deep during summer low-water levels. Clay-bearing material placed below water level may be required to avoid creating sterile wetlands.

(d) Final topography shall generally comprise sinuous contours, chutes and buttresses, spurs, and rolling mounds and hills, all of which shall blend with adjacent topography to a reasonable extent. Straight planar slopes and right angles should be avoided.

(e) The floors of mines shall generally grade gently into postmining drainages to preclude sheet-wash erosion during intense precipitation, except where backgrading is appropriate for drainage control, to establish wetlands, or to trap sediment.

(f) Topsoil shall be restored as necessary to promote effective revegetation and to stabilize slopes and mine floors. Where limited topsoil is available, topsoil shall be placed and revegetated in such a way as to ensure that little topsoil is lost to erosion.

(g) Where surface mining has exposed natural materials that may create polluting conditions, including but not limited to acid-forming coals and metalliferous rock or soil, such conditions shall be addressed according to a method approved by the department. The final ground surface shall be graded so that surface water drains away from these materials.

(h) All grading and backfilling shall be made with nonnoxious, noncombustible, and relatively incompactible solids unless the permit holder provides:

(i) Written approval from all appropriate solid waste regulatory agencies; and

(ii) Any and all revisions to such written approval during the entire time the reclamation permit is in force.

(i) Final reclaimed slopes should be left roughly graded, preserving equipment tracks, depressions, and small mounds to trap clay-bearing soil and promote natural revegetation. Where reasonable, final equipment tracks should be oriented in order to trap soil and seeds and to inhibit erosion.

(j) Pit floors should be bulldozed or ripped to foster revegetation.

(5) Drainages shall be graded and contain adequate energy dissipation devices so that essentially natural conditions of water velocity, volume, and turbidity are reestablished within six months of reclamation of each segment of the mine. Ditches and other artificial drainages shall be constructed on each reclaimed segment to control surface water, erosion, and siltation and to direct runoff to a safe outlet. Diversion ditches including but not limited to channels, flumes, tightlines and retention ponds shall be capable of carrying the peak flow at the mine site that has the probable recurrence frequency of once in twenty-five years as determined from data for the twenty-five year, twenty-four hour precipitation event published by the national oceanic and atmospheric administration. The grade of such ditches and channels shall be constructed to limit erosion and siltation. Natural and other drainage channels shall be kept free of equipment, wastes, stockpiles, and overburden.

(6) Impoundment of water shall be an acceptable reclamation technique provided that approvals of other agencies with jurisdiction are obtained and:

(a) Proper measures are taken to prevent undesirable seepage that could cause flooding outside the permitted area or adversely affect the stability of impoundment dikes or adjacent slopes;

(b) Both standpipes and armored spillways or other measures necessary to control overflow are provided.

(7) Revegetation shall be required as appropriate to stabilize slopes, generate new topsoil, reduce erosion and turbidity, mask rectilinear contours, and restore the scenic value of the land to the extent feasible as appropriate to the approved subsequent use. Although the scope of and necessity for revegetation will vary according to the geography, precipitation, and approved subsequent use of the site, the objective of segmental revegetation is to reestablish self-sustaining vegetation and conditions of slope stability, surface water quality, and appearance before release of the reclamation permit. Revegetation shall normally meet the following standards:

(a) Revegetation shall commence during the first proper growing season following restoration of slopes on each segment unless the department has granted the permit holder a written time extension.

(b) In eastern Washington, the permit holder may not be able to achieve continuous ground cover owing to arid conditions or sparse topsoil. However, revegetation shall be as continuous as reasonably possible as determined by the department.

(c) Revegetation generally shall include but not be limited to diverse evergreen and deciduous trees, shrubs, grasses, and deep-rooted ground cover.

(i) For western Washington, nitrogen-fixing species including but not limited to alder, white clover, and lupine should be included in dry areas. In wet areas, tubers, sedges, wetland grasses, willow, cottonwood, cedar, and alder are appropriate.

(ii) In eastern Washington, lupine, white clover, Russian olive, black locust, junipers, and pines are among appropriate plants. In wet areas, cottonwood, tubers, and sedges are appropriate.

(d) The requirements for revegetation may be reduced or waived by the department where erosion will not be a problem in rural areas where precipitation exceeds thirty inches per annum, or where revegetation is inappropriate for the approved subsequent use of the surface mine.

(e) In areas where revegetation is critical and conditions are harsh, the department may require irrigation, fertilization, and importation of clay or humus-bearing soils to establish effective vegetation.

(f) The department may refuse to release a reclamation permit or performance security until it deems that effective revegetation has commenced.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. PERMIT TRANSFERS. Reclamation permits shall be transferred to a subsequent permit holder and the department shall release the former permit holder from the duties imposed by this chapter if:

(1) Both permit holders comply with all rules of the department addressing requirements for transferring a permit; and

(2) Unless waived by the department, the mine and all others operated by both the former and subsequent permit holders and their principal officers or owners are in compliance with this chapter and rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. MODIFICATION OF RECLAMATION PLANS. The department and the permit holder may modify the reclamation plan at any time during the term of the permit for any of the following reasons:

- (1) To modify the requirements so that they do not conflict with existing or new laws;
- (2) If the department determines that the previously adopted reclamation plan is impossible or impracticable to implement and maintain; or
- (3) The previously approved reclamation plan is not accomplishing the intent of this chapter as determined by the department.

Modified reclamation plans shall be reviewed by the department as lead agency under SEPA. Such SEPA analyses shall consider only those impacts relating directly to the proposed modifications. Copies of proposed and approved modifications shall be sent to the appropriate county, city, or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. REPORTS. On the anniversary date of the reclamation permit and each year thereafter until reclamation is completed and approved, the permit holder shall file a report of activities completed during the preceding year. The report shall be on a form prescribed by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. INSPECTION OF PERMIT AREA. The department may order at any time an inspection of the disturbed area to determine if the miner or permit holder has complied with the reclamation permit, rules, and this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. ORDER TO RECTIFY DEFICIENCIES. The department may issue an order to rectify deficiencies when a miner or permit holder is conducting surface mining in any manner not authorized by:

- (1) This chapter;
- (2) The rules adopted by the department;
- (3) The authorized reclamation plan; or
- (4) The reclamation permit.

The order shall describe the deficiencies and shall require that the miner or permit holder correct all deficiencies no later than sixty days from issuance of the order. The department may extend the period for correction for delays clearly beyond the miner or permit holder's control, but only when the miner or permit holder is, in the opinion of the department, making every reasonable effort to comply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. EMERGENCY NOTICE AND ORDER TO RECTIFY DEFICIENCIES--EMERGENCY ORDER TO SUSPEND SURFACE MINING. When the department finds that a permit holder is conducting surface mining in any manner not authorized by:

- (1) This chapter;
- (2) The rules adopted by the department;
- (3) The approved reclamation plan; or
- (4) The reclamation permit;

and that activity has created a situation involving an immediate danger to the public health, safety, welfare, or environment requiring immediate action, the department may issue an emergency notice and order to rectify deficiencies, and/or an emergency order to suspend surface mining. These orders shall be effective when entered. The department may take such action as is necessary to prevent or avoid the danger to the public health, safety, welfare, or environment that justifies use of emergency adjudication. The department shall give such notice as is practicable to the permit holder or miner who is required to comply with the order. The order shall comply with the requirements of the administrative procedure act.

Regulations of surface mining operations administered by other state and local agencies shall be preempted by this section to the extent that the time schedule and procedures necessary to rectify the emergency situation, as determined by the department, conflict with such local regulation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. ORDER TO SUSPEND SURFACE MINING. Upon the failure of a miner or permit holder to comply with a department order to rectify deficiencies, the department may issue an order to suspend surface mining when a miner or permit holder is conducting surface mining in any manner not authorized by:

- (1) This chapter;
- (2) The rules adopted by the department;
- (3) The approved reclamation plan;
- (4) The reclamation permit; or
- (5) If the miner or permit holder fails to comply with any final order of the department.

The order to suspend surface mining shall require the miner or permit holder to suspend part or all of the miner's or permit holder's mining operations until the conditions resulting in the issuance of the order have been mitigated to the satisfaction of the department.

The attorney general may take the necessary legal action to enjoin, or otherwise cause to be stopped, surface mining in violation of an order to suspend surface mining.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. DECLARATION OF ABANDONMENT. The department may issue a declaration of abandonment when it determines that all surface mining has ceased for a period of one hundred eighty consecutive days not set forth in the permit holder's reclamation plan or when, by reason of inspection of the permit area, or by any other means, the department determines that the mine has in fact been abandoned by the permit holder except that abandonment shall not include normal interruptions of surface mining resulting from labor disputes, economic conditions associated with lack of smelting capacity or availability of appropriate transportation, war, social unrest, demand for minerals, maintenance and repairs, and acts of God.

Following a declaration of abandonment, the department shall require the permit holder to complete reclamation in accordance with this chapter. If the permit holder fails to do so, the department shall proceed to do the necessary reclamation work pursuant to section 31 of this act.

If another miner applies for a permit on a site that has been declared abandoned, the department may, in its discretion, cancel the reclamation permit of the permit holder and issue a new reclamation permit to the applicant. The department shall not issue a new permit unless it determines that such issuance will be an effective means of assuring that the site will ultimately be reclaimed. The applicant must agree to assume the reclamation responsibilities left unfinished by the first miner, in addition to meeting all requirements for issuance of a new permit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. CANCELLATION OF THE RECLAMATION PERMIT. When the department determines that a surface mine has been abandoned, it may cancel the reclamation permit. The permit holder shall be informed of such actions by a department notification of illegal abandonment and cancellation of the reclamation permit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. ORDER TO SUBMIT PERFORMANCE SECURITY--RECLAMATION BY THE DEPARTMENT. The department may, with the staff, equipment, and material under its control, or by contract with others, reclaim the disturbed areas when it finds that reclamation has not occurred in any segment of a surface mine within two years of completion of mining or of declaration of abandonment and the permit holder is not actively pursuing reclamation.

If the department intends to undertake the reclamation, the department shall issue an order to submit performance security requiring the permit holder or surety to submit to the department the amount of moneys posted pursuant to section 15 of this act. If the amount specified in the order to submit performance security is not paid within twenty days after issuance of the notice, the attorney general upon request of the department shall bring an action on behalf of the state in a superior court to recover the amount specified and associated legal fees.

The department may proceed at any time after issuing the order to submit performance security with reclamation of the site according to the approved reclamation plan or according to a plan developed by the department that meets the minimum reclamation standards.

The department shall keep a record of all expenses incurred in carrying out any reclamation project or activity authorized under this section, including:

- (1) Reclamation;
- (2) A reasonable charge for the services performed by the state's personnel and the state's equipment and materials utilized; and
- (3) Administrative and legal expenses related to reclamation of the surface mine.

The department shall refund to the surety or permit holder all amounts received in excess of the amount of expenses incurred. If the amount received is less than the expenses incurred, the attorney general, upon request of the department, may bring an action against the permit holder on behalf of the state in the superior court to recover the remaining costs listed in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. FINES. Each order of the department may impose a fine or fines in the event that a miner or permit holder fails to obey the order of the department. When a miner or permit holder fails to comply with an order of the department, the miner or permit holder shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not more than ten thousand dollars for each violation plus interest based upon a schedule of fines set forth by the department in rule. Procedures for imposing a penalty and setting the amount of the penalty shall be as provided in RCW 90.48.144. Each day on which a miner or permit holder continues to disobey any order of the department shall constitute a separate violation. If the penalty and interest is not paid to the department after it becomes due and payable, the attorney general, upon the request of the department, may bring an action in the name of the state of Washington to recover the penalty, interest, mitigation for environmental damages, and associated legal fees. Decisions of the department are subject to review by the pollution control hearings board.

All fines, interest, penalties, and other damage recovery costs from mines regulated by the department shall be credited to the surface mining reclamation account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. REFUSAL TO ISSUE PERMITS. The department shall refuse to issue a reclamation permit if it is determined during the SEPA process that the impacts of a proposed surface mine cannot be adequately mitigated.

The department or county, city, or town may refuse to issue any other permit at any other location to any miner or permit holder who fails to rectify deficiencies set forth in an order of the department within the requisite time schedule. However, the department or county, city, or town shall issue all appropriate permits when all deficiencies are corrected at each surface mining site.

Sec. 34. RCW 78.44.150 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 16 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ~~((operator))~~ miner or permit holder conducting surface mining within the state of Washington without a valid ~~((operating))~~ reclamation permit shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Surface mining outside of the permitted area shall constitute illegal mining without a valid reclamation permit. Each day of ~~((operation))~~ mining without a valid reclamation permit shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 35. RCW 78.44.170 and 1989 c 175 s 166 are each amended to read as follows:

Appeals from department determinations under this chapter shall be made as follows:

Appeals from department determinations made under this chapter shall be made under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (chapter 34.05 RCW), and shall be considered an adjudicative proceeding within the meaning of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW. Only a person aggrieved within the meaning of RCW 34.05.530 has standing and can file an appeal.

Sec. 36. RCW 78.44.910 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((This act shall not direct itself to the reclamation of land mined))~~ Miners and permit holders shall not be required to reclaim any segment where all surface mining was completed prior to January 1, 1971. However, the department shall make an effort to reclaim previously abandoned or completed surface mining segments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. RECLAMATION AWARDS ESTABLISHED. The department shall create reclamation awards in recognition of excellence in reclamation or reclamation research. Such awards shall be presented to individuals, miners, operators, companies, or government agencies performing exemplary surface mining reclamation in the state of Washington. The department shall designate a percent of the state annual fees as funding of the awards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. RECLAMATION SERVICE ESTABLISHED. The department may establish a no-cost consulting service within the department to assist miners, permit holders, local government, and the public in technical matters related to mine regulation, mine operations, and reclamation. The department may prepare concise, printed information for the public explaining surface mining activities, timelines for permits and reviews, laws, and the role of governmental agencies involved in surface mining, including how to contact all regulators. The department shall not be held liable for any negligent advice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 78.44.030 and 1987 c 258 s 1, 1984 c 215 s 1, & 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 4;
- (2) RCW 78.44.035 and 1987 c 258 s 3;
- (3) RCW 78.44.080 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 9;
- (4) RCW 78.44.090 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 10;
- (5) RCW 78.44.100 and 1984 c 215 s 3 & 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 11;
- (6) RCW 78.44.110 and 1987 c 258 s 2, 1984 c 215 s 4, & 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 12;
- (7) RCW 78.44.120 and 1984 c 215 s 5, 1977 c 66 s 1, & 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 13;
- (8) RCW 78.44.130 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 14;
- (9) RCW 78.44.140 and 1989 c 230 s 1, 1984 c 215 s 6, & 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 15;
- (10) RCW 78.44.160 and 1984 c 215 s 7 & 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 17; and
- (11) RCW 78.44.180 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 20.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. The code reviser may recodify, as necessary, RCW 78.44.150, 78.44.170, 78.44.175, and 78.44.910 within chapter 78.44 RCW to accomplish the reorganization of chapter 78.44 RCW as intended in this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. Captions used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. Sections 4, 5, 10 through 15, 18 through 33, 37, and 38 of this act are each added to chapter 78.44 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sutherland, the following amendment by Senators Sutherland and Drew to the striking amendment by Senators Sutherland, Hargrove, McCaslin, Spanel, Barr, Amondson and Owen was adopted:

On page 6, line 11 of the amendment, after "reclamation" insert "except that, by contractual agreement, the department may delegate some or all of its enforcement authority to a county, city, or town"

MOTION

Senator Fraser moved that the following amendments to the striking amendment by Senators Sutherland, Hargrove, McCaslin, Spanel, Barr, Amondson and Owen be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 12, beginning on line 1 of the amendment, strike all of subsection (7)

Correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 12, after line 3 of the amendment, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Mining of minerals on federal land is exempt from this chapter provided that such mining substantially meets or exceeds the provisions of this chapter that are not preempted by federal law."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senator Fraser on page 12, beginning on line 1, and page 12 after line 3, to the striking amendment by Senators Sutherland, Hargrove, McCaslin, Spanel, Barr, Amondson and Owen to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5502.

The motion by Senator Fraser failed and the amendments to the striking amendment to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5502 were not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Sutherland moved that the following amendment to the striking amendment by Senators Sutherland, Hargrove, McCaslin, Spanel, Barr, Amondson and Owen be adopted:

On page 13, after line 26 of the amendment, insert the following:

"Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, nothing shall preclude the department of ecology from requiring a separate performance security for metallic minerals or uranium surface mines under any authority if any that may be presently vested in the department of ecology relating to such mines."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Sutherland on page 13, after line 26, to the striking amendment by Senators Sutherland, Hargrove, McCaslin, Spanel, Barr, Amondson and Owen to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5502.

The motion by Senator Sutherland carried and the amendment to the striking amendment to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5502 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senators Sutherland, Hargrove, McCaslin, Spanel, Barr, Amondson and Owen, as amended, to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5502.

Debate ensued.

The striking amendment by Senators Sutherland, Hargrove, McCaslin, Spanel, Barr, Amondson and Owen, as amended, to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5502 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Sutherland, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "mining;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 78.44.010, 78.44.020, 78.44.040, 78.44.050, 78.44.060, 78.44.070, 78.44.150, 78.44.170, and 78.44.910; adding a new section to chapter 36.70A RCW; adding new sections to chapter 78.44 RCW; creating new sections; recodifying RCW 78.44.150, 78.44.170, 78.44.175, and 78.44.910; repealing RCW 78.44.030, 78.44.035, 78.44.080, 78.44.090, 78.44.100, 78.44.110, 78.44.120, 78.44.130, 78.44.140, 78.44.160, and 78.44.180; prescribing penalties; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Owen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5502 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5502.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5502 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; Nays, 5; Absent, 2; Excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Owen, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognilid, von Reichbauer, West, Williams and Winsley - 40.

Voting nay: Senators Haugen, Quigley, Snyder, Spanel and Wojahn - 5.

Absent: Senators Bauer and Niemi - 2.

Excused: Senators Cantu and McCaslin - 2.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5502, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 6:45 p.m., on motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate recessed until 7:45 p.m.

The Senate was called to order at 8:00 p.m. by President Pritchard.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Spanel, Senators Owen and Talmadge were excused.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5966, by Senators Rinehart, Haugen and M. Rasmussen (by request of Department of Veterans Affairs)

Concerning the state veterans' homes.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rinehart, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5966 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5966 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5966 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5966.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5966 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; Nays, 9; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Niemi, Pelz, Prentice, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognilid, von Reichbauer, West, Williams and Wojahn - 36.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Hochstatter, Newhouse, Oke, Prince, Roach, Sellar, Smith, L. and Winsley - 9.

Excused: Senators Cantu, McCaslin, Owen and Talmadge - 4.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5966, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5984, by Senators Sheldon and Rinehart

Using the business enterprises revolving account.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sheldon, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 5984 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5984.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5984 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; Nays, 0; Absent, 1; Excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 44.

Absent: Senator Pelz - 1.

Excused: Senators Cantu, McCaslin, Owen and Talmadge - 4.

SENATE BILL NO. 5984, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5605, by Senators Fraser, Prentice and Prince

Funding roadside improvements.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5605 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5605 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted:

On page 2, beginning on line 31, strike all of section 3

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "amending" strike "RCW 47.36.310 and 47.42.120" and insert "RCW 47.36.310"

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5605 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Oke, Senators Anderson and West were excused.

On motion of Senator Spanel, Senator Pelz was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5605.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5605 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; Nays, 5; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Niemi, Oke, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 37.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Hochstatter, Nelson, Newhouse and Smith, L. - 5.

Excused: Senators Anderson, Cantu, McCaslin, Owen, Pelz, Talmadge and West - 7.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5605, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2036, by House Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Representatives R. Fisher, Locke and Johanson)

Providing multimodal transportation funding.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following Committee on Transportation amendments were considered simultaneously and were adopted:

On page 2, beginning on line 30, strike all material through line 37.

On page 5, line 30, after "transportation account;" insert "and the"

On page 5, line 32, after "competitive" strike "; and the multimodal account"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1907, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1907, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 42.

Excused: Senators Anderson, Cantu, McCaslin, Owen, Pelz, Talmadge and West - 7.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1907, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1128, by House Committee on Revenue (originally sponsored by Representatives G. Fisher, Holm, Silver, Vance, Edmondson, Heavey, Foreman, Ballard, Brough, Long, Miller and Brumsickle) (by request of Washington State Patrol)

Funding blood and breath alcohol testing programs.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 46.61.515 and 1985 c 352 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who is convicted of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than twenty-four consecutive hours nor more than one year, and by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not more than one thousand dollars. Unless the judge finds the person to be indigent, two hundred fifty dollars of the fine shall not be suspended or deferred. Twenty-four consecutive hours of the jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. The court may impose conditions of probation that may include nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The convicted person shall, in addition, be required to complete a course in an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services or more intensive treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services, as determined by the court. A diagnostic evaluation and treatment recommendation shall be prepared under the direction of the court by an alcoholism agency approved by the department of social and health services or a qualified probation department approved by the department of social and health services. A copy of the report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. Based on the diagnostic evaluation, the court shall determine whether the convicted person shall be required to complete a course in an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services or more intensive treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services. Standards for approval for alcohol treatment programs shall be prescribed by rule under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW. The courts shall periodically review the costs of alcohol information schools and treatment programs within their jurisdictions.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction for driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs within a five-year period a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than seven days nor more than one year and by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars and not more than two thousand dollars. District courts and courts organized under chapter 35.20 RCW are authorized to impose such fine. Unless the judge finds the person to be indigent, five hundred dollars of the fine shall not be suspended or deferred. The jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. If, at the time of a second or subsequent conviction, the driver is without a license or permit because of a previous suspension or revocation, the minimum mandatory sentence shall be ninety days in jail and a two hundred dollar fine. The penalty so imposed shall not be suspended or deferred. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete a diagnostic evaluation by an alcoholism agency approved by the department of social and health services or a qualified probation department approved by the department of social and health services. The report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. If the person is found to have an alcohol or drug problem requiring treatment, the person shall complete treatment at an approved alcoholism treatment ((facility)) program or approved drug treatment center.

In addition to any nonsuspendable and nondeferrable jail sentence required by this subsection, the court shall sentence a person to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one hundred eighty days and shall suspend but shall not defer the sentence for a period not exceeding two years. The suspension of the sentence may be conditioned upon nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The sentence may be imposed in whole or in part upon violation of a condition of suspension during the suspension period.

(3) The license or permit to drive or any nonresident privilege of any person convicted of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs shall:

(a) On the first conviction under either offense, be suspended by the department until the person reaches age nineteen or for ninety days, whichever is longer. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the designated alcoholism agency or probation department and shall deny reinstatement until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(b) On a second conviction under either offense within a five-year period, be revoked by the department for one year. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the designated alcoholism agency or probation department and shall deny reinstatement until satisfactory progress in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(c) On a third or subsequent conviction of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, vehicular homicide, or vehicular assault, or any combination thereof within a five-year period, be revoked by the department for two years.

(4) In any case provided for in this section, where a driver's license is to be revoked or suspended, the revocation or suspension shall be stayed and shall not take effect until after the determination of any appeal from the conviction which may lawfully be taken, but in case the conviction is sustained on appeal the revocation or suspension takes effect as of the date that the conviction becomes effective for other purposes.

(5)(a) In addition to penalties set forth in this section, a one hundred twenty-five dollar fee shall be assessed to a person who is either convicted, sentenced to a lesser charge, or given deferred prosecution, as a result of an arrest for violating RCW 46.61.502, 46.61.504, 46.61.520, or 46.61.522. This fee is for the purpose of funding the Washington state toxicology laboratory and the Washington state patrol breath test program.

(b) Upon a verified petition by the person assessed the fee, the court may suspend payment of all or part of the fee if it finds that the person does not have the ability to pay.

(c) When a minor has been adjudicated a juvenile offender for an offense which, if committed by an adult, would constitute a violation of RCW 46.61.502, 46.61.504, 46.61.520, or 46.61.522, the court shall assess the one hundred twenty-five dollar fee under (a) of this subsection. Upon a verified petition by a minor assessed the fee, the court may suspend payment of all or part of the fee if it finds that the minor does not have the ability to pay the fee.

(6) The fee assessed under subsection (5) of this section shall be collected by the clerk of the court and distributed as follows:

(a) Forty percent shall be subject to distribution under RCW 3.62.020, 3.62.040, or 10.82.040.

(b) If the case involves a blood test by the state toxicology laboratory, the remainder of the fee shall be forwarded to the state treasurer for deposit in the death investigations account to be used solely for funding the state toxicology laboratory blood testing program.

(c) Otherwise, the remainder of the fee shall be forwarded to the state treasurer for deposit in the state patrol highway account to be used solely for funding the Washington state patrol breath test program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington state patrol in conjunction with the traffic safety commission shall use a small percentage of the revenues generated under the 1993 amendments to RCW 46.61.515 contained in section 1, chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (section 1 of this act), to perform a study to determine a mechanism for evaluating the best practice for increasing the conviction rate for persons driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs. The study must be completed and a report made to the appropriate committees of the legislature by June 30, 1995.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The 1993 amendments to section 1 of this act expire June 30, 1995.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "testing;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 46.61.515; creating a new section; prescribing penalties; providing an effective date; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1128, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1128, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1128, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; Nays, 1; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 41.

Voting nay: Senator Amondson - 1.

Excused: Senators Anderson, Cantu, McCaslin, Owen, Pelz, Talmadge and West - 7.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1128, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1236, by House Committee on Natural Resources and Parks (originally sponsored by Representatives Rust, Pruitt and Sheldon) (by request of Department of Ecology)

Establishing fees for certain water rights.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Rinehart moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that a water right confers significant economic benefits to the water right holder. The fees associated with acquiring a water right have not changed significantly since 1917. Water rights applicants pay less than two percent of the costs of the administration of the water rights program. The legislature finds that, since water rights are of significant value, water rights applicants should contribute more to the cost of administration of the water rights program.

The legislature also finds that an abrupt increase in water rights fees could be disruptive to water rights holders and applicants. The legislature further finds that water rights applicants have a right to know that the water rights program is being administered efficiently and that the fees charged for various services relate directly to the cost of providing those services.

Therefore, the legislature creates a task force to review the water rights program, to make recommendations for streamlining the application process and increasing the overall efficiency and accountability of the administration of the program, and to return to the legislature with a proposal for a fee schedule where the fee levels relate clearly to the cost of services provided.

Sec. 2. RCW 90.03.470 and 1987 c 109 s 98 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in subsection (15) of this section, the following fees shall be collected by the department in advance:

(1) For the examination of an application for permit to appropriate water or on application to change point of diversion, withdrawal, purpose or place of use, a minimum of ten dollars, to be paid with the application. For each second foot between one and five hundred second feet, two dollars per second foot; for each second foot between five hundred and two thousand second feet, fifty cents per second foot; and for each second foot in excess thereof, twenty cents per second foot. For each acre foot of storage up to and including one hundred thousand acre feet, one cent per acre foot, and for each acre foot in excess thereof, one-fifth cent per acre foot. The ten dollar fee payable with the application shall be a credit to that amount whenever the fee for direct diversion or storage totals more than ten dollars under the above schedule and in such case the further fee due shall be the total computed amount less ten dollars.

Within five days from receipt of an application the department shall notify the applicant by registered mail of any additional fees due under the above schedule and any additional fees shall be paid to and received by the department within thirty days from the date of filing the application, or the application shall be rejected.

(2) For filing and recording a permit to appropriate water for irrigation purposes, forty cents per acre for each acre to be irrigated up to and including one hundred acres, and twenty cents per acre for each acre in excess of one hundred acres up to and including one thousand acres, and ten cents for each acre in excess of one thousand acres; and also twenty cents for each theoretical horsepower up to and including one thousand horsepower, and four cents for each theoretical horsepower in excess of one thousand horsepower, but in no instance shall the minimum fee for filing and recording a permit to appropriate water be less than five dollars. For all other beneficial purposes the fee shall be twice the amount of the examination fee except that for individual household and domestic use, which may include water for irrigation of a family garden, the fee shall be five dollars.

(3) For filing and recording any other water right instrument, four dollars for the first hundred words and forty cents for each additional hundred words or fraction thereof.

(4) For making a copy of any document recorded or filed in his office, forty cents for each hundred words or fraction thereof, but when the amount exceeds twenty dollars, only the actual cost in excess of that amount shall be charged.

(5) For certifying to copies, documents, records or maps, two dollars for each certification.

(6) For blueprint copies of a map or drawing, or, for such other work of a similar nature as may be required of the department, at actual cost of the work.

(7) For granting each extension of time for beginning construction work under a permit to appropriate water, an amount equal to one-half of the filing and recording fee, except that the minimum fee shall be not less than five dollars for each year that an extension is granted, and for granting an extension of time for completion of construction work or for completing application of water to a beneficial use, five dollars for each year that an extension is granted.

(8) For the inspection of any hydraulic works to insure safety to life and property, the actual cost of the inspection, including the expense incident thereto.

(9) For the examination of plans and specifications as to safety of controlling works for storage of ten acre feet or more of water, a minimum fee of ten dollars, or the actual cost.

(10) For recording an assignment either of a permit to appropriate water or of an application for such a permit, a fee of five dollars.

(11) For preparing and issuing all water right certificates, five dollars.

(12) For filing and recording a protest against granting any application, two dollars.

(13) The department shall provide timely notification by certified mail with return receipt requested to applicants that fees are due. No action may be taken until the fee is paid in full. Failure to remit fees within sixty days of the department's notification shall be grounds for rejecting the application or canceling the permit. Cash shall not be accepted. Fees must be paid by check or money order and are nonrefundable.

(14) For purposes of calculating fees for ground water filings, one cubic foot per second shall be regarded as equivalent to four hundred fifty gallons per minute.

(15) For the period beginning July 1, 1993, and ending June 30, 1994, there is imposed and the department shall collect a fifty dollar surcharge on all water rights applications or changes filed under this section, and upon all water rights applications or changes pending as of July 1, 1993. This charge shall be in addition to any other fees imposed under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) There is created a water rights fees task force. The task force shall be comprised of fourteen members, who are appointed as follows:

(a) Two members of the Washington state house of representatives, one from each major caucus, to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives;

(b) Two members of the Washington state senate, one from each major caucus, to be appointed by the president of the senate;

(c) Ten members, to be appointed jointly by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate, to represent the following interests: Agriculture, aquaculture, business, cities, counties, the state department of ecology, environmentalists, water recreation interests, water utilities, and hydropower interests. The task force may establish technical advisory committees as necessary to complete its tasks.

(2) The task force shall conduct a comprehensive review of water rights fees. The task force's tasks shall include but not be limited to:

(a) Identification of the costs associated with the various activities and services provided by the water rights program and examination of how these costs compare with the fees charged for these activities and services;

(b) Identification of appropriate accountability measures for the department of ecology to employ in administration of the water rights program. Recommendations of accountability requirements and measurements shall take into account the distinctive characteristics of the water rights program, that is, that the department receives a large number of applications on a one-time basis and that the department of ecology must meet its legal obligations under the doctrine of prior appropriation;

(c) Identification of which program activities should be eligible for cost recovery from fees, as well as which direct and indirect costs of program administration;

(d) Review of the application, examination, and water rights permit requirements for marine water users to determine if these users should receive special fee consideration;

(e) Review of the definition and treatment of nonconsumptive water uses to determine if special fee consideration should be given to these users;

(f) Review of the fees and accounting methods for the dam safety program;

(g) Identification of the appropriate distribution of responsibility between the applicant and the department of ecology for provision of technical information and analysis; and

(h) Establishment of a reasonable time framework for completion of new and pending water rights applications, and an analysis of the staff and funding levels required to meet the established time framework.

(3) Before December 1, 1993, the task force shall:

(a) Provide recommendations to the department of ecology on ways to improve the efficiency and accountability of the water rights program;

(b) Provide recommendations to the legislature on statutory changes necessary to make these efficiency and accountability improvements; and

(c) Propose a new fee schedule for the water rights program which incorporates the results of the task force's work and which funds through fees fifty percent of the cost of the activities and services provided by the program.

(4) The department of ecology and the legislature shall jointly provide for the staff support of the task force.

(5) The task force shall convene as soon as possible upon the appointment of its members. Task force members shall elect a chair and adopt rules for conducting the business of the task force. The task force shall expire on June 30, 1994.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Senator McDonald moved that the following amendments by Senators McDonald, Rasmussen, Barr, Sutherland, Sellar and Rinehart to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 5, after line 21 of the amendment, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature finds that there is a significant number of high-value orchard and vineyard crops that can be grown utilizing highly water-efficient trickle irrigation systems. The legislature finds that over a period of several years, existing orchard plantings will be revitalized and replaced with new plantings, and that additional orchards will be planted which provide opportunities for improved water efficiency.

The legislature finds that significant water savings could be realized through the installation of trickle irrigation systems where climatically and economically suitable. The legislature also finds that positive economic incentives, establishment of necessary legal procedures, and removal of legal barriers are needed to stimulate the development of workable technologies and farming systems that rely on lesser quantities of water.

The purpose of this act is to stimulate the use of trickle irrigation systems by allowing the saved water to be voluntarily transferred by the water right holder to other uses. Additionally, the purpose is to establish incentives through enabling self-funded, private capital or public funds to provide improved market-based incentives for adopting water saving technologies and to allow the benefits of the conserved water to be fully realized. It is the intent of this act that sufficient protections be provided to assure that existing water users are not adversely affected by transfers approved under sections 5 through 12 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Contract" means a written legal instrument that provides for the transfer of a portion of a water right from an existing water right holder to another person for consideration.

(2) "Department" means the department of ecology.

(3) "Net water savings" has the same meaning as defined in RCW 90.42.020.

(4) "Person" means a person, corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, municipal corporation, state, or federal agency.

(5) "Reduction in evaporative loss" means the amount of water that was needed to grow an orchard or other crops using conventional irrigation systems minus the quantity of water needed to grow the crops with the use of a trickle irrigation system. "Reduction in evaporative loss" includes the reduction in the amount of water used through transpiration by nonproductive plants such as cover crops.

(6) "Trickle irrigation system" means those types of systems which qualify, as determined by the department, that apply water at the base of a plant producing food or fiber with minimal evaporation, or transpiration loss to nonproductive vegetation.

(7) "Trust water right" means a water right transferred to and managed by the department for the benefit of instream flows or for the allocation to new uses as provided in chapter 90.38 or 90.42 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A person holding a valid water right may enter into a contract with another person for the transfer of water saved through installation of a qualifying trickle irrigation system. In determining the amount that is transferrable, the department shall allow the transfer of an amount equal to the reduction in the evaporative loss. The reduction in evaporative loss is a readily transferrable component of net water savings.

In addition, the department shall evaluate whether there are additional net water savings as defined in RCW 90.42.020 that could be transferred to the purchaser without detriment to other existing water users. The department may not delay because of decisions on the determination of additional net water savings the approval of the transfer of the water that constitutes the reduction in evaporative loss.

A person wishing to make application for a transfer of a water right under this chapter shall comply with RCW 90.03.380. A contract may allow for a permanent transfer of a portion of the original water right, or for lease agreements with set expiration dates. The applicant shall state that the contract is not permanent in the application if the contract is not permanent.

The transferred portion has the same date of priority as the water right from which it originated, but between them the transferred portion of the right is inferior in priority unless otherwise provided by the parties in the contract.

The department shall maintain a record of contracts with the certificate of water right for the transferred water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department shall adopt rules, in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW and by July 1, 1994, for procedures to be used to facilitate the processing of requests for water right transfers made under this chapter and to establish a streamlined procedure to quantify the reduction in the evaporative loss. In developing streamlined procedures, the department may use data from the United States soil conservation service or the Washington state cooperative extension service to base calculations of reduction in evaporative loss in various regions of the state.

The rules may establish procedures for the department to make preliminary findings that can be used as an initial basis for developing contracts by applicants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. An applicant shall accompany an application for a water right transfer under this chapter with a fee of six hundred twenty-five dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. In processing applications for transfers of portions of water rights under this chapter, if the department is unable to conclusively determine the validity of the original water right, the department may include a presumption of validity in the certificate of water rights. The presumption must provide to the contract purchaser the same right to the use of water as the holder of the original water right.

The presumption of validity may not be used as evidence as to the existence or nonexistence in a water right adjudication conducted under chapter 90.03 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A holder of a water right may voluntarily enter into a contract with the department. The department may utilize funds available from chapter 43.99E RCW to purchase water savings made available under this chapter. The department shall utilize the same methods of calculating water that is transferrable to another party under this chapter in determining the amount of water that is transferrable to the state. If additional net water saved is available for the benefit of only a stream segment, the calculations may be made on a case-by-case basis while assuring no detriment to existing water users occurs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A holder of a valid water right who installs a trickle irrigation system may apply for a transfer of the reduction in evaporative loss, plus any additional net water savings, for the irrigation of an additional parcel of previously unirrigated land, to land with less senior water rights, or that lacks a full and sufficient supply. The application must be processed based upon the same criteria as if the transfer were to be made to another person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This chapter may be known and cited as the agricultural water conservation incentives act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 5 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 90 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If specific funding for the purposes of sections 5 through 12 of this act, referencing this act by bill and section numbers, is not provided by June 30, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act, sections 5 through 12 of this act shall be null and void."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 5, line 22 of the amendment, after "Sec. 4." strike "This act is" and insert "Sections 1 through 3 of this act are"
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rinehart: "Senator McDonald, is this identical to the bill that passed out of the Ways and Means committee?"

Senator McDonald: "It is, Senator Rinehart."

Senator Rinehart: "And the fee requirement in the bill that was passed out of Ways and Means was--"

Senator McDonald: It is on page three, line nineteen, Section 8, which is six hundred and twenty-five dollars."

Senator Rinehart: "This is a six hundred and twenty-five dollar fee?"

Senator McDonald: "Yes."

Senator Rinehart: "This is something that couldn't be salvaged by the four hundred and eighty-four million dollar proposal to make--"

Senator McDonald: "It could only get out of your committee with a six hundred and twenty-five dollar fee, Senator Rinehart."

Senator Rinehart: "Just checking, Senator McDonald."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senators McDonald, Rasmussen, Barr, Sutherland, Sellar and Rinehart on page 5, after line 21, and page 5, line 22, to the Committee on Ways and Means striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1236.

The amendments by Senators McDonald, Rasmussen, Barr, Sutherland, Sellar and Rinehart on page 5, after line 21, and page 5, line 22, to the Committee on Ways and Means striking amendment were adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means striking amendment, as amended, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1236.

The Committee on Ways and Means striking amendment, as amended, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1236 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Sutherland, the following title amendments were considered simultaneously and were adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "approvals;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 90.03.470; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency."

On page 6, line 2 of the title amendment, after "90.03.470;" insert "adding a new chapter to Title 90 RCW;"

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1236, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1236, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1236, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; Nays, 4; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Niemi, Oke, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 38.

Voting nay: Senators Amondson, Nelson, Newhouse and Smith, L. - 4.

Excused: Senators Anderson, Cantu, McCaslin, Owen, Pelz, Talmadge and West - 7.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1236, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 8:44 p.m., on motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate adjourned until 8:30 a.m., Thursday, April 15, 1993.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment was adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the limitations of this section, any alien offender committed to the custody of the department under the sentencing reform act of 1981, chapter 9.94A RCW, who has been found by the United States attorney general to be subject to a final order of deportation or exclusion, may be placed on conditional release status and released to the immigration and naturalization service for deportation at any time prior to the expiration of the offender's term of confinement. Conditional release shall continue until the expiration of the statutory maximum sentence provided by law for the crime or crimes of which the offender was convicted. If the offender has multiple current convictions, the statutory maximum sentence allowed by law for each crime shall run concurrently.

(2) No offender may be released under this section unless the secretary or the secretary's designee find that such release is in the best interests of the state of Washington. Further, releases under this section may occur only with the approval of the sentencing court and the prosecuting attorney of the county of conviction.

(3) No offender may be released under this section who is serving a sentence for a violent offense or sex offense, as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, or any other offense that is a crime against a person.

(4) The unserved portion of the term of confinement of any offender released under this section shall be tolled at the time the offender is released to the immigration and naturalization service for deportation. Upon the release of an offender to the immigration and naturalization service, the department shall issue a warrant for the offender's arrest within the United States. This warrant shall remain in effect until the expiration of the offender's conditional release.

(5) Upon arrest of an offender, the department shall seek extradition as necessary and the offender shall be returned to the department for completion of the unserved portion of the offender's term of total confinement. The offender shall also be required to fully comply with all the terms and conditions of the sentence.

(6) Alien offenders released to the immigration and naturalization service for deportation under this section are not thereby relieved of their obligation to pay restitution or other legal financial obligations ordered by the sentencing court.

(7) Any offender released pursuant to this section who returns illegally to the United States may not thereafter be released again pursuant to this section.

(8) The secretary is authorized to take all reasonable actions to implement this section and shall assist federal authorities in prosecuting alien offenders who may illegally reenter the United States and enter the state of Washington."

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "offenders;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 9.94A RCW; and prescribing penalties."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1727, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Spanel, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1993-8632

By Senators Spanel and Haugen

WHEREAS, The beautiful Skagit Valley is the tulip capital of the Northwest; and WHEREAS, Every April the tulips are in bloom, celebrating the beginning of spring; and
WHEREAS, The Skagit Valley begins the festival season in Washington State with the Skagit Valley Tulip Festival; and
WHEREAS, This year's tenth annual event will run from April 2 through April 18, focusing on the communities of Sedro-Woolley, Burlington, Anacortes, La Conner, and Mount Vernon; and
WHEREAS, Nearly half a million people visited the Skagit Valley Tulip Festival last year, participating in the joy and excitement of this annual event and contributing to the economy of the Skagit Valley; and
WHEREAS, This year's visitors will be overwhelmed by more than one thousand five hundred acres of tulips reflecting all the colors of the rainbow and by the fullness of life in the valley and its wonderful people; and
WHEREAS, Highlights of the event include the Mount Vernon Street Fair, a Sousa concert, an International Volkswalk, the Tulip Pedal bicycle ride, the Paccar Open House, a 10K Slug Run, and the Great Skagit Duck Race;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate salute the five communities of the Skagit Valley and their chambers of commerce for their Skagit Valley Tulip Festival; and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we commend the community leaders and corporate sponsors responsible for the success of this important event and encourage citizens from across Washington State to take the time to enjoy this spectacular display; and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate issue this resolution in recognition of the Skagit Valley Tulip Festival, April 2 through 18, 1993.

Senators Spanel, Haugen and McDonald spoke to Senate Resolution 1993-8632.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President introduced the Skagit Valley Tulip Festival 'Tulip Girls,' Kecia Doolittle, in the age five to seven age group, and Gail Varney, in the eight to ten age group, who were seated in the gallery.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1370, by House Committee on Commerce and Labor (originally sponsored by Representatives Ludwig, Heavey, Orr, Bray, Veloria, King and G. Cole)

Restricting bid shopping.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1370 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: "Senator Moore, in this measure, it requires the contractor, at the time the bid is made, to submit the names of all the subcontractors that are going to be doing--as I understand it--greater than ten percent of the total bid of the contractor to fulfill the bid. Is that correct?"

Senator Moore: "That is absolutely right."

Senator Nelson: "It is just not ten percent of a portion of the bid?"

Senator Moore: "No, it is ten percent of the total. If the bid is one hundred thousand, anybody that does ten thousand or more falls in this bracket."

Senator Nelson: "OK, thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1370.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1370 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; Nays, 9; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Bauer, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Niemi, Owen, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 39.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, Bluechel, McCaslin, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Roach and Sellar - 9.

Excused: Senator Cantu - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1370, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1318, by House Committee on Natural Resources and Parks (originally sponsored by Representatives Pruitt, Ballard, Morton, Sheldon, Wolfe, Schoesler, R. Johnson and Jones)

Changing boating safety provisions.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fraser, the following Committee on Ecology and Parks amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature that the boating safety laws administered by the state parks and recreation commission provide Washington's citizens with clear and reasonable boating safety regulations and penalties. Therefore, the legislature intends to recodify, clarify, and partially decriminalize the state-wide boating safety laws in order to help the boating community understand and comply with these laws.

It is also the intent of the legislature to increase boat registration fees in order to provide additional funds to local governments for boating safety enforcement and education programs. The funds are to be used for enforcement, education, training, and equipment, including vessel noise measurement equipment. The legislature encourages programs that provide boating safety education in the primary and secondary school system for boat users and potential future boat users. The legislature also encourages boating safety programs that use volunteer and private sector efforts to enhance boating safety and education.

Sec. 2. RCW 7.84.010 and 1987 c 380 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature declares that decriminalizing certain offenses contained in Titles 75, 76, 77, and 79 RCW and chapters 43.30 ~~((and))~~, 43.51, and 88.12 RCW and any rules adopted pursuant to those titles and chapters would promote the more efficient administration of those titles and chapters. The purpose of this chapter is to provide a just, uniform, and efficient procedure for adjudicating those violations which, in any of these titles and chapters or rules adopted under these chapters or titles, are declared not to be criminal offenses. The legislature respectfully requests the supreme court to prescribe any rules of procedure necessary to implement this chapter.

Sec. 3. RCW 7.84.020 and 1987 c 380 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definition in this section applies throughout this chapter.

"Infraction" means an offense which, by the terms of Title 75, 76, 77, or 79 RCW or chapter 43.30 ~~((or))~~, 43.51, or 88.12 RCW and rules adopted under these titles and chapters, is declared not to be a criminal offense and is subject to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 4. RCW 88.02.110 and 1987 c 149 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a violation of this chapter ~~((, RCW 43.51.400,))~~ and the rules adopted by the department ~~((and the state parks and recreation commission))~~ pursuant to these statutes is a misdemeanor punishable only by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars per vessel for the first violation. Subsequent violations in the same year are subject to the following fines:

(a) For the second violation, a fine of two hundred dollars per vessel;

(b) For the third and successive violations, a fine of four hundred dollars per vessel.

(2) After subtraction of court costs and administrative collection fees, moneys collected under this section shall be credited to the current expense fund of the arresting jurisdiction.

(3) All law enforcement officers shall have the authority to enforce this chapter (~~(, RCW 43.51.400)~~), and the rules adopted by the department (~~(and the state parks and recreation commission)~~) pursuant to these statutes within their respective jurisdictions: PROVIDED, That a city, town, or county may contract with a fire protection district for such enforcement and fire protection districts are authorized to engage in such activities.

Sec. 5. RCW 88.12.010 and 1933 c 72 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Boat wastes" includes, but is not limited to, sewage, garbage, marine debris, plastics, contaminated bilge water, cleaning solvents, paint scrapings, or discarded petroleum products associated with the use of vessels.

(2) "Boater" means any person on a vessel on waters of the state of Washington.

(3) "Carrying passengers for hire" means carrying passengers in a vessel on waters of the state for valuable consideration, whether given directly or indirectly or received by the owner, agent, operator, or other person having an interest in the vessel. This shall not include trips where expenses for food, transportation, or incidentals are shared by participants on an even basis. Anyone receiving compensation for skills or money for amortization of equipment and carrying passengers shall be considered to be carrying passengers for hire on waters of the state.

(4) "Commission" means the state parks and recreation commission.

(5) "Darkness" ((is herein defined to be)) means that period between ((one-half hour after)) sunset and ((one-half hour before)) sunrise.

(("Waters", as used herein, are defined as any lake, pond or other body of water.))

(6) "Environmentally sensitive area" means a restricted body of water where discharge of untreated sewage from boats is especially detrimental because of limited flushing, shallow water, commercial or recreational shellfish, swimming areas, diversity of species, the absence of other pollution sources, or other characteristics.

(7) "Marina" means a facility providing boat moorage space, fuel, or commercial services. Commercial services include but are not limited to overnight or live-aboard boating accommodations.

(8) "Motor driven boats and vessels" ((are defined herein as)) means all boats and vessels which are self propelled.

(9) "Muffler" or "muffler system" means a sound suppression device or system, including an underwater exhaust system, designed and installed to abate the sound of exhaust gases emitted from an internal combustion engine and that prevents excessive or unusual noise.

(10) "Operate" means to steer, direct, or otherwise have physical control of a vessel that is underway.

(11) "Operator" means an individual who steers, directs, or otherwise has physical control of a vessel that is underway or exercises actual authority to control the person at the helm.

(12) "Observer" means the individual riding in a vessel who is responsible for observing a water skier at all times.

(13) "Owner" means a person who has a lawful right to possession of a vessel by purchase, exchange, gift, lease, inheritance, or legal action whether or not the vessel is subject to a security interest.

(14) "Personal flotation device" means a buoyancy device, life preserver, buoyant vest, ring buoy, or buoy cushion that is designed to float a person in the water and that is approved by the commission.

(15) "Personal watercraft" means a vessel of less than sixteen feet that uses a motor powering a water jet pump, as its primary source of motive power and that is designed to be operated by a person sitting, standing, or kneeling on, or being towed behind the vessel, rather than in the conventional manner of sitting or standing inside the vessel.

(16) "Polluted area" means a body of water used by boaters that is contaminated by boat wastes at unacceptable levels, based on applicable water quality and shellfish standards.

(17) "Public entities" means all elected or appointed bodies, including tribal governments, responsible for collecting and spending public funds.

(18) "Reckless" or "recklessly" means acting carelessly and heedlessly in a willful and wanton disregard of the rights, safety, or property of another.

(19) "Sewage pumpout or dump unit" means:

(a) A receiving chamber or tank designed to receive vessel sewage from a "porta-potty" or a portable container; and

(b) A stationary or portable mechanical device on land, a dock, pier, float, barge, vessel, or other location convenient to boaters, designed to remove sewage waste from holding tanks on vessels.

(20) "Underway" means that a vessel is not at anchor, or made fast to the shore, or aground.

(21) "Vessel" includes every description of watercraft on the water, other than a seaplane, used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on the water. However, it does not include inner tubes, air mattresses, and small rafts or flotation devices or toys customarily used by swimmers.

(22) "Water skiing" means the physical act of being towed behind a vessel on, but not limited to, any skis, aquaplane, kneeboard, tube, or any other similar device.

(23) "Waters of the state" means any waters within the territorial limits of Washington state.

(24) "Whitewater rivers of the state" means those rivers and streams, or parts thereof, within the boundaries of the state as listed in RCW 88.12.300.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 88.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) It is a misdemeanor, punishable under RCW 9.92.030, for any person to commit a violation designated as an infraction under this chapter, if during a period of three hundred sixty-five days the person has previously committed two infractions for violating the same provision under this chapter and if the violation is also committed during such period and is of the same provision as the previous violations.

(2) A violation designated in this chapter as a civil infraction shall constitute a misdemeanor until the violation is included in a civil infraction monetary schedule adopted by rule by the state supreme court pursuant to chapter 7.84 RCW.

Sec. 7. RCW 88.12.020 and 1933 c 72 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

((Every person operating or driving a motor propelled boat or vessel on any waters in the state, shall drive the same in a careful and prudent manner at a)) A person shall not operate a vessel in a negligent manner. For the purposes of this section, to "operate in a negligent manner" means operating a vessel in disregard of careful and prudent operation, or in disregard of careful and prudent rates of speed that are no greater than is reasonable and proper under the conditions existing at the point of operation, taking into account the amount and character of traffic, size of the lake or body of water, freedom from obstruction to view ahead, effects of vessel wake, and so as not to unduly or unreasonably endanger life, limb, property or other rights of any person entitled to the use of such waters. Except as provided in section 6 of this act, a violation of this section is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW.

Sec. 8. RCW 88.12.100 and 1990 c 231 s 3 and 1990 c 31 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a vessel in a ~~((negligent))~~ reckless manner. ~~((For the purpose of this section, to "operate in a negligent manner" shall be construed to mean the operation of a vessel in such manner as to endanger or be likely to endanger any persons or property or to operate at a rate of speed greater than will permit the operator in the exercise of reasonable care to bring the vessel to a safe stop.))~~

(2) ~~((A person is guilty of operating a vessel while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if the person operates a vessel within this state while))~~ It shall be a violation for a person to operate a vessel while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug. A person is considered to be under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if:

(a) The person has 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, as shown by analysis of the person's breath made under RCW 46.61.506; or

(b) The person has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood, as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506; or

(c) The person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or

(d) The person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section. A person cited under this subsection may upon request be given a breath test for breath alcohol or may request to have a blood sample taken for blood alcohol analysis. An arresting officer shall administer field sobriety tests when circumstances permit.

(3) ~~((For the purposes of this section, "vessel" means any watercraft used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on the water, other than a seaplane.~~

~~(4) For the purpose of this section, "vessel operator" means a person who is in actual physical control of a vessel.~~

~~(5))~~ A violation of this section is a misdemeanor, punishable ~~((by up to ninety days in jail and by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars))~~ as provided under RCW 9.92.030. In addition, the court may order the defendant to pay restitution for any damages or injuries resulting from the offense.

Sec. 9. RCW 88.12.330 and 1988 c 36 s 73 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every ~~((peace))~~ law enforcement officer of this state and its political subdivisions has the authority to enforce this chapter. Law enforcement officers may enforce recreational boating rules adopted by the commission. Such law enforcement officers include, but are not limited to, county sheriffs, officers of other local law enforcement entities, wildlife agents of the department of wildlife and fisheries patrol officers of the department of fisheries, through their directors, the state patrol, through its chief, ((county sheriffs, and other local law enforcement bodies, shall assist in the enforcement)) and state park rangers. In the exercise of this responsibility, all such officers may stop and board any ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel and direct it to a suitable pier or anchorage ~~((for boarding))~~ to enforce this chapter.

(2) ~~((A person, while operating a watercraft on any waters of this state, shall not knowingly flee or attempt to elude a law enforcement officer after having received a signal from the law enforcement officer to bring the boat to a stop.~~

~~(3))~~ This chapter shall be construed to supplement federal laws and regulations. To the extent this chapter is inconsistent with federal laws and regulations, the federal laws and regulations shall control.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 88.12 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the equipment standards prescribed under this chapter, the commission shall adopt rules specifying equipment standards for vessels. Except where the violation is classified as a misdemeanor under this chapter, violation of any equipment standard adopted by the commission is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 88.12 RCW to read as follows:

An operator or owner who endangers a vessel, or the persons on board the vessel, by showing, masking, extinguishing, altering, or removing any light or signal or by exhibiting any false light or signal, is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable as provided in RCW 9.92.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 88.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The commission shall adopt rules providing for its inspection and approval of the personal flotation devices that may be used to satisfy the requirements of this chapter and governing the manner in which such devices shall be used. The commission shall prescribe the different types of devices that are appropriate for the different uses, such as water skiing or operation of a personal watercraft. In adopting its rules the commission shall consider the United States coast guard rules or regulations. The commission may approve devices inspected and approved by the coast guard without conducting any inspection of the devices itself.

(2) In situations where personal flotation devices are required under provisions of this chapter, the devices shall be in good and serviceable condition and of appropriate size. If they are not, then they shall not be considered as personal flotation devices under such provisions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 88.12 RCW to read as follows:

If an infraction is issued under this chapter because a vessel does not contain the required equipment and if the operator is not the owner of the vessel, but is operating the vessel with the express or implied permission of the owner, then either or both operator or owner may be cited for the infraction.

Sec. 14. RCW 88.12.050 and 1933 c 72 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Every motor driven boat operating on any such waters and carrying passengers for hire or leased for hire, shall have a life preserver or life float for each passenger said boat or vessel has capacity to carry, placed or attached in such manner as to be convenient for use.))~~

(1) No person may operate or permit the operation of a vessel on the waters of the state without a personal flotation device on board for each person on the vessel. Each personal flotation device shall be in serviceable condition, of an appropriate size, and readily accessible.

(2) Except as provided in section 6 of this act, a violation of subsection (1) of this section is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW if the vessel is not carrying passengers for hire.

(3) A violation of subsection (1) of this section is a misdemeanor punishable under RCW 9.92.030, if the vessel is carrying passengers for hire.

Sec. 15. RCW 88.12.080 and 1990 c 231 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The purpose of this section is to promote safety in water skiing on the waters of Washington state, provide a means of ensuring safe water skiing and promote the enjoyment of water skiing.

(2) ~~(When used in this section, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings designated in this section unless a different meaning is expressly provided or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.~~

~~(a) "Operator" means the individual in physical control of a vessel. The operator of a personal watercraft shall be at least fourteen years of age.~~

~~(b) "Observer" means the individual riding in a vessel who shall be responsible for observing the water skier at all times. The observer and the operator shall not be the same person. The observer shall be an individual who meets the minimum qualifications for an observer established by rules of the state parks and recreation commission.~~

~~(c) "Personal watercraft" means a vessel of less than sixteen feet which uses a motor powering a water jet pump, as its primary source of motive power and which is designed to be operated by a person sitting, standing, or kneeling on, or being towed behind the vessel, rather than in the conventional manner of sitting or standing inside the vessel.~~

~~(d) "Vessel" means every watercraft used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on the water, other than a seaplane.~~

~~(e) "Waters of Washington state" means any waters within the territorial limits of Washington state.~~

~~(3)) No vessel ((which has in tow a person or persons on water skis, or similar contrivance shall be operated)) operator may tow or attempt to tow a water skier on any waters of Washington state unless such craft shall be occupied by at least an operator and an observer. The observer shall continuously observe the person or persons being towed and shall display a flag immediately after the towed person or persons fall into the water, and during the time preparatory to skiing while the person or persons are still in the water. Such flag shall be a bright red or brilliant orange color, measuring at least twelve inches square, mounted on a pole not less than twenty-four inches long and displayed as to be visible from every direction. This subsection does not apply to a personal watercraft, the design of which makes no provision for carrying an operator or any other person on board, and that is actually operated by the person or persons being towed. Every remote-operated personal watercraft shall have a flag attached which meets the requirements of this subsection. Except as provided under section 6 of this act, a violation of this subsection is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW.~~

(3) The observer and the operator shall not be the same person. The observer shall be an individual who meets the minimum qualifications for an observer established by rules of the commission. Except as provided under section 6 of this act, a violation of this subsection is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW.

~~(4) No person shall engage or attempt to engage in water skiing((, or operate or ride on a personal watercraft,)) without wearing ((an adequate and effective United States coast guard approved type I, II, III, or V personal flotation device in good and serviceable condition and of appropriate size, or a wet suit which is approved for personal flotation by the United States coast guard. A person operating a personal watercraft equipped by the manufacturer with a lanyard type engine cutoff switch must attach the lanyard to his or her person, clothing, or personal flotation device as is appropriate for the specific vessel. It is unlawful for any person to remove or disable a cutoff switch which was installed by the manufacturer)) a personal flotation device. Except as provided under section 6 of this act, a violation of this subsection is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW.~~

~~(5) No person shall engage or attempt to engage in water skiing, or operate any vessel to tow a water skier, on the waters of Washington state during the period from one hour after sunset until one hour prior to sunrise. A violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor, punishable as provided under RCW 9.92.030.~~

~~(6) ((No person shall operate a personal watercraft on the waters of Washington state during the period from sunset until sunrise.~~

~~(7)) No person engaged in water skiing((, or the operation of a personal watercraft,)) either as operator, observer, or skier, shall conduct himself or herself in a ((negligent)) reckless manner that willfully or wantonly endangers, or is likely to endanger, any person or property. A violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor as provided under RCW 9.92.030.~~

~~((8)) (7) The requirements of subsections (2), (3), (4), and (5) of this section shall not apply to persons engaged in tournaments, competitions, or exhibitions that have been authorized or otherwise permitted by the appropriate agency having jurisdiction and authority to authorize such events.~~

~~((9) It shall be unlawful for a person to lease, hire, or rent a personal watercraft to any person who is under sixteen years of age.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 88.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person shall not load or permit to be loaded a vessel with passengers or cargo beyond its safe carrying ability or carry passengers or cargo in an unsafe manner taking into consideration weather and other existing operating conditions.

(2) A person shall not operate or permit to be operated a vessel equipped with a motor or other propulsion machinery of a power beyond the vessel's ability to operate safely, taking into consideration the vessel's type, use, and construction, the weather conditions, and other existing operating conditions.

(3) A violation of subsection (1) or (2) of this section is an infraction punishable as provided under chapter 7.84 RCW except as provided under section 6 of this act or where the overloading or overpowering is reasonably advisable to effect a rescue or for some similar emergency purpose.

(4) If it appears reasonably certain to any law enforcement officer that a person is operating a vessel clearly loaded or powered beyond its safe operating ability and in the judgment of that officer the operation creates an especially hazardous condition, the officer may direct the operator to take immediate and reasonable steps necessary for the safety of the individuals on board the vessel, including directing the operator to return to shore or a mooring and to remain there until the situation creating the hazard is corrected or ended. Failure to follow the direction of an officer under this subsection is a misdemeanor punishable as provided under RCW 9.92.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 88.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person shall not operate a personal watercraft unless each person aboard the personal watercraft is wearing a personal flotation device approved by the commission. Except as provided for in section 6 of this act, a violation of this subsection is a civil infraction punishable under RCW 7.84.100.

(2) A person operating a personal watercraft equipped by the manufacturer with a lanyard-type engine cutoff switch shall attach the lanyard to his or her person, clothing, or personal flotation device as appropriate for the specific vessel. It is unlawful for any person to remove or disable a cutoff switch that was installed by the manufacturer.

(3) A person shall not operate a personal watercraft during darkness.

(4) A person under the age of fourteen shall not operate a personal watercraft on the waters of this state.

(5) A person shall not operate a personal watercraft in a reckless manner, including recklessly weaving through congested vessel traffic, recklessly jumping the wake of another vessel unreasonably or unnecessarily close to the vessel or when visibility around the vessel is obstructed, or recklessly swerving at the last possible moment to avoid collision.

(6) A person shall not lease, hire, or rent a personal watercraft to a person under the age of sixteen.

(7) Subsections (1) through (6) of this section shall not apply to a performer engaged in a professional exhibition or a person participating in a regatta, race, marine parade, tournament, or exhibition authorized or otherwise permitted by the appropriate agency having jurisdiction and authority to authorize such events.

(8) Violations of subsections (2) through (6) of this section constitute a misdemeanor under RCW 9.92.030.

Sec. 18. RCW 88.12.130 and 1984 c 183 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The operator of a vessel involved in a collision, accident, or other casualty, to the extent the operator can do so without serious danger to the operator's own vessel or persons aboard, shall render all practical and necessary assistance to persons affected by the collision, accident, or casualty to save them from danger caused by the incident. Under no circumstances may the rendering of assistance or other compliance with this section be evidence of the liability of such operator for the collision, accident, or casualty. ~~((The operator shall also give his or her name, address, and the identification of the operator's vessel to the state parks and recreation commission and any person injured and to the owner of any property damaged))~~ The operator shall also give all pertinent accident information, as specified by rule by the commission, to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction: PROVIDED, That this requirement shall not apply to operators of vessels when they are participating in an organized competitive event ~~((covered by a permit issued by the United States coast guard))~~ authorized or otherwise permitted by the appropriate agency having jurisdiction and authority to authorize such events. These duties are in addition to any duties otherwise imposed by law. Except as provided for in section 6 of this act, a violation of this subsection is a civil infraction punishable under RCW 7.84.100.

(2) Any person who complies with subsection (1) of this section or who gratuitously and in good faith renders assistance at the scene of a vessel collision, accident, or other casualty, without objection of the person assisted, shall not be held liable for any civil damages as a result of the rendering of assistance or for any act or omission in providing or arranging salvage, towage, medical treatment, or other assistance, where the assisting person acts as any reasonably prudent person would have acted under the same or similar circumstances.

Sec. 19. RCW 88.12.160 and Code 1881 s 3242 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person taking up any ~~((scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft,))~~ vessel found adrift, and out of the custody of the owner, in ~~((any stream or body of water, within, or bordering upon))~~ waters of this state, shall forthwith notify the owner thereof, if to him or her known, or if upon reasonable inquiry he or she can ascertain the name and residence of the owner, and request such owner to pay all reasonable charges, and take such ~~((water craft))~~ vessel away.

Sec. 20. RCW 88.12.170 and Code 1881 s 3243 are each amended to read as follows:

Such notice shall be given personally, or in writing; if in writing, it shall be served upon the owner, or may be sent by mail to the post office where such owner usually receives his or her letters. Such notice shall inform the party where the ~~((scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft))~~ vessel was taken up, and where it may be found, and what amount the taker-up or finder demands for his or her charges.

Sec. 21. RCW 88.12.180 and Code 1881 s 3244 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases where notice is not given personally, it shall be the duty of the taker-up to post up at the post office nearest the place where such ~~((scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft))~~ vessel may be taken up, a written notice of the taking up of such ~~((water craft))~~ vessel, which shall contain a description of the same, with the name, if any is painted thereon, also the place where taken up, the place where the property may be found, and the charge for taking the same up. If the taker-up is traveling upon ~~((such stream or body of))~~ waters of the state, such notice shall be posted up at the first post office he or she shall pass after the taking up; and in all cases, he or she shall at the time when, and place where, he or she posts up such notice, also mail a copy of such notice, directed to the postmaster of each post office on ~~((said stream or body of))~~ waters of the state, and within fifty miles of the place where such ~~((water craft))~~ vessel is taken up.

Sec. 22. RCW 88.12.190 and Code 1881 s 3245 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person taking up any ~~((scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft,))~~ vessel so found adrift, and giving the notice herein required, shall be entitled to receive from the owner claiming the property, a reasonable compensation for his or her time, services, expenses, and risk in taking up said property, and take notice of the same, to be settled by agreement between the parties. In case ~~((he))~~ the person has not, within ten days after the taking up, substantially complied with the provisions of this chapter in giving the notice, ~~((he))~~ the person shall be entitled to no compensation, but he or she shall be liable to all damages the owner may have suffered, and be also liable to the owner for the value of the use of ~~((said water craft))~~ the vessel, from the time of taking it up until the same is delivered to the owner.

Sec. 23. RCW 88.12.200 and 1987 c 202 s 248 are each amended to read as follows:

In case the parties cannot agree on the amount to be paid the taker-up, or the ownership, and the sum claimed is less than one ~~((hundred))~~ thousand dollars, the owner may file a complaint, setting out the facts, and the judge, on hearing, shall decide the same with a jury, or not, and in the same manner as is provided in ordinary civil actions before a district judge. If the amount claimed by the taker-up is more than one ~~((hundred))~~ thousand dollars, the owner shall file his or her complaint in the superior court of the county where the property is, and trial shall be had as in other civil actions; but if the taker-up claims more than one ~~((hundred))~~ thousand dollars, and a less amount is awarded him or her, he or she shall be liable for all the costs in the superior court; and in all cases where the taker-up shall recover a less amount than has been tendered him or her by the owner or claimant, previous to filing his or her complaint, he or she shall pay the costs before the district judge or in the superior court: PROVIDED, That in all cases the owner, after filing his or her complaint before a district judge, shall be entitled to the possession of ~~((such water craft))~~ the vessel, upon giving bond, with security to the satisfaction of the judge, in double the amount claimed by the taker-up. When the complaint is filed in the superior court, the clerk thereof shall approve the security of the bond. The bond shall be conditioned to pay such costs as shall be awarded to the finder or taker-up of such ~~((scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft))~~ vessel.

Sec. 24. RCW 88.12.210 and Code 1881 s 3247 are each amended to read as follows:

In case the taker-up shall use the ~~((scow, boat, skiff, canoe or other water craft))~~ vessel, more than is necessary to put it into a place of safety, he or she shall be liable to the owner for such use, and for all damage; and in case it shall suffer injury from his or her neglect to take suitable care of it, he or she shall be liable to the owner for all damage.

Sec. 25. RCW 88.12.220 and 1987 c 202 s 249 are each amended to read as follows:

In case such ~~((water craft))~~ vessel is of less value than one hundred dollars, and is not claimed within three months, the taker-up may apply to a district judge of the district where the property is, who, upon being satisfied that due notice has been given, and that the owner cannot, with reasonable diligence be found, shall order the ~~((scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft))~~ vessel to be sold, and after paying the taker-up such sum as he or she shall be entitled to, and the costs, the balance shall be paid the county treasurer as is provided in the case of the sale of estrays. In case the ~~((scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft,))~~ vessel exceeds one hundred dollars, and is not claimed within six months, application shall be made to the superior court of the county, and the same proceeding shall be thereupon had. All sales made under this section shall be conducted as sales of personal property on execution.

Sec. 26. RCW 88.12.230 and 1986 c 217 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The purpose of ~~((this chapter))~~ RCW 88.12.250 through 88.12.320 is to further the public interest, welfare, and safety by providing for the protection and promotion of safety in the operation of ~~((watercraft))~~ vessels carrying passengers for hire on the whitewater rivers of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. A new section is added to chapter 88.12 RCW to read as follows:

Except as provided in RCW 88.12.320(3), the commission of a prohibited act under RCW 88.12.250 through 88.12.320 constitutes a misdemeanor, punishable as provided under RCW 9.92.030.

Sec. 28. RCW 88.12.250 and 1986 c 217 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may operate any ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel carrying passengers for hire on whitewater rivers in a manner that interferes with other ~~((watercraft))~~ vessels or with the free and proper navigation of the rivers of this state.

(2) Every operator of a ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel carrying passengers for hire on whitewater rivers shall at all times operate the ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel in a careful and prudent manner and at such a speed as to not endanger the life, limb, or property of any person.

(3) No ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel carrying passengers for hire on whitewater rivers may be loaded with passengers or cargo beyond its safe carrying capacity taking into consideration the type and construction of the ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel and other existing operating conditions. In the case of inflatable ~~((rafts))~~ vessels, safe carrying capacity in whitewater shall be considered as less than the United States Coast Guard capacity rating for each ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel. This subsection shall not apply in cases of an unexpected emergency on the river.

(4) Individuals licensed under chapter 77.32 RCW and acting as fishing guides are exempt from section 27 of this act and RCW 88.12.260 through 88.12.320.

Sec. 29. RCW 88.12.260 and 1986 c 217 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, ~~((watercraft))~~ vessels on whitewater rivers proceeding downstream have the right of way over ~~((watercraft))~~ vessels proceeding upstream.

(2) In all cases, ~~((watercraft))~~ vessels not under power proceeding downstream on whitewater rivers have the right of way over motorized craft underway.

Sec. 30. RCW 88.12.280 and 1986 c 217 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) While carrying passengers for hire on whitewater rivers ~~((sections))~~ in this state, the operator and owner of the vessel shall:

~~((1))~~ (a) If using inflatable ~~((watercraft))~~ vessels, use only ~~((watercraft))~~ vessels with three or more separate air chambers;

~~((2))~~ (b) Ensure that all passengers and operators are wearing a securely fastened ~~((United States Coast Guard approved type III or type V life jacket in good condition))~~ personal flotation device;

~~((3))~~ (c) Ensure that each ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel has accessible a spare United States coast guard-approved type III or type V ((life jacket)) personal flotation device in good repair;

~~((4))~~ (d) Ensure that each ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel has on it a bagged throwable line with a floating line and bag;

~~((5))~~ (e) Ensure that each ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel has accessible an adequate first-aid kit;

~~((6))~~ (f) Ensure that each ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel has a spare propelling device;

~~((7))~~ (g) Ensure that a repair kit and air pump are accessible to inflatable ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel; and

~~((8))~~ (h) Ensure that equipment to prevent and treat hypothermia is accessible to all ~~((watercraft))~~ vessels on a trip.

(2) No person may operate on the whitewater rivers of this state a vessel carrying passengers for hire unless the person has successfully completed a lifesaving training course meeting standards adopted by the commission.

Sec. 31. RCW 88.12.290 and 1986 c 217 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((Watercraft))~~ Vessel operators and passengers on any trip carrying passengers for hire on whitewater rivers of the state shall not allow the use of alcohol during the course of a trip on a whitewater river section in this state.

(2) Any ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel carrying passengers for hire on any whitewater river section in this state must be accompanied by at least one other ~~((watercraft))~~ vessel under the supervision of the same operator or owner or being operated by a person registered under RCW 88.12.320 or an operator under the direction or control of a person registered under RCW 88.12.320.

Sec. 32. RCW 88.12.390 and 1989 c 393 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A marina which meets one or more of the following criteria shall be designated by the commission as appropriate for installation of a sewage pumpout or ~~((sewage))~~ dump ((station)) unit:

(a) The marina is located in an environmentally sensitive or polluted area; or

(b) The marina has one hundred twenty-five slips or more and there is a lack of sewage pumpout~~((s))~~ or dump units within a reasonable distance.

(2) In addition to subsection (1) of this section, the commission may at its discretion designate a marina as appropriate for installation of a sewage pumpout or ~~((sewage))~~ dump ((station)) unit if there is a demonstrated need for a sewage pumpout or

((sewage)) dump ((station)) unit at the marina based on professionally conducted studies undertaken by federal, state, or local government, or the private sector; and it meets the following criteria:

(a) The marina provides commercial services, such as sales of food, fuel or supplies, or overnight or live-aboard moorage opportunities;

(b) The marina is located at a heavily used boating destination or on a heavily traveled route, as determined by the commission; or

(c) There is a lack of adequate sewage pumpout ((station)) or dump unit capacity within a reasonable distance.

(3) Exceptions to the designation made under this section may be made by the commission if no sewer, septic, water, or electrical services are available at the marina.

(4) In addition to marinas, the commission may designate boat launches or boater destinations as appropriate for installation of a sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((station)) unit based on the criteria found in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

Sec. 33. RCW 88.12.400 and 1989 c 393 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Marinas and boat launches designated as appropriate for installation of a sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((station)) unit under RCW 88.12.390 shall be eligible for funding support for installation of such facilities from funds specified in RCW 88.12.450. The commission shall notify owners or operators of all designated marinas and boat launches of the designation, and of the availability of funding to support installation of appropriate sewage disposal facilities. The commission shall encourage the owners and operators to apply for available funding.

(2) The commission shall seek to provide the most cost-efficient and accessible facilities possible for reducing the amount of boat waste entering the state's waters. The commission shall consider providing funding support for portable pumpout facilities in this effort.

(3) The commission shall contract with, or enter into an interagency agreement with another state agency to contract with, applicants based on the criteria specified below:

(a)(i) Contracts may be awarded to publicly owned, tribal, or privately owned marinas or boat launches.

(ii) Contracts may provide for state reimbursement to cover eligible costs as deemed reasonable by commission rule. Eligible costs include purchase, installation, or major renovation of the sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((stations)) units, including sewer, water, electrical connections, and those costs attendant to the purchase, installation, and other necessary appurtenances, such as required pier space, as determined by the commission.

(iii) Ownership of the sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((station)) unit will be retained by the state through the commission in privately owned marinas. Ownership of the sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((station)) unit in publicly owned marinas will be held by the public entity.

(iv) Operation, normal and expected maintenance, and ongoing utility costs will be the responsibility of the ((marina or boat launch operator)) contract recipient. The sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((station must)) unit shall be kept in operating condition and available for public use at all times during operating hours of the facility, excluding necessary maintenance periods.

(v) The ((marina owner)) contract recipient agrees to allow the installation, existence and use of the sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((station)) unit by granting an ((easement)) irrevocable license for a minimum of ten years at no cost ((for such purposes)) to the commission.

(b) Contracts awarded pursuant to (a) of this subsection shall be subject, for a period of at least ten years, to the following conditions:

(i) Any ((facility)) contract recipient entering into a contract under this section must allow the boating public access to the sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((station)) unit during operating hours.

(ii) The ((applicant)) contract recipient must agree to monitor and encourage the use of the sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((station)) unit, and to cooperate in any related boater environmental education program administered or approved by the commission.

(iii) The ((applicant)) contract recipient must agree not to charge a fee for the use of the sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((station)) unit.

(iv) The ((applicant)) contract recipient must agree to arrange and pay a reasonable fee for a periodic inspection of the sewage pumpout ((facility)) or dump unit by the local health department or appropriate authority.

(v) Use of a free sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((station)) unit by the boating public shall be deemed to be included in the term "outdoor recreation" for the purposes of chapter 4.24 RCW.

Sec. 34. RCW 88.12.410 and 1989 c 393 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology, in consultation with the commission, shall, for initiation of the state-wide program only, develop criteria for the design, installation, and operation of sewage pumpout and ((sewage)) dump ((stations)) units, taking into consideration the ease of access to the ((station)) unit by the boating public. The department of ecology may adopt rules to administer the provisions of this section.

Sec. 35. RCW 88.12.420 and 1989 c 393 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall undertake a state-wide boater environmental education program concerning the effects of boat wastes. The boater environmental education program shall provide informational materials on proper boat waste disposal methods, environmentally safe boat maintenance practices, locations of sewage pumpout and ((sewage)) dump ((stations)) units, and boat oil recycling facilities.

Sec. 36. RCW 88.12.440 and 1989 c 393 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall, in consultation with interested parties, review progress on installation of sewage pumpout and ((sewage)) dump ((stations)) units, the boater environmental education program, and the boating safety program. The commission shall report its findings to the legislature by December 1994.

Sec. 37. RCW 88.12.450 and 1989 c 393 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

The amounts allocated in accordance with RCW 82.49.030(3) shall be expended upon appropriation in accordance with the following limitations:

(1) Thirty percent of the funds shall be appropriated to the interagency committee for outdoor recreation and be expended for use by state and local government for public recreational waterway boater access and boater destination sites. Priority shall be given to critical site acquisition. The interagency committee for outdoor recreation shall administer such funds as a competitive grants program. The amounts provided for in this subsection shall be evenly divided between state and local governments.

(2) Thirty percent of the funds shall be expended by the commission exclusively for sewage pumpout or ((sewage)) dump ((stations)) units at publicly and privately owned marinas as provided for in RCW 88.12.390 and 88.12.400.

(3) Twenty-five percent of the funds shall be expended for grants to state agencies and other public entities to enforce boating safety and registration laws and to carry out boating safety programs. The commission shall administer such grant program.

(4) Fifteen percent shall be expended for instructional materials, programs or grants to the public school system, public entities, or other nonprofit community organizations to support boating safety and boater environmental education or boat waste management planning. The commission shall administer this program.

Sec. 38. RCW 88.02.050 and 1989 c 17 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for a vessel registration shall be made to the department or its authorized agent in the manner and upon forms prescribed by the department. The application shall state the name and address of each owner of the vessel and such other information as may be required by the department, shall be signed by at least one owner, and shall be accompanied by a vessel registration fee of ((six)) ten dollars and fifty cents per year and the excise tax imposed under chapter 82.49 RCW. Any fees required for licensing agents under RCW 46.01.140 shall be in addition to the ((six-dollar)) ten dollar and fifty cent annual registration fee.

Upon receipt of the application and the registration fee, the department shall assign a registration number and issue a decal for each vessel. The registration number and decal shall be issued and affixed to the vessel in a manner prescribed by the department consistent with the standard numbering system for vessels set forth in volume 33, part 174, of the code of federal regulations. A valid decal affixed as prescribed shall indicate compliance with the annual registration requirements of this chapter.

The vessel registrations and decals are valid for a period of one year, except that the director of licensing may extend or diminish vessel registration periods, and the decals therefor, for the purpose of staggered renewal periods. For registration periods of more or less than one year, the department may collect prorated annual registration fees and excise taxes based upon the number of months in the registration period. Vessel registrations are renewable every year in a manner prescribed by the department upon payment of the vessel registration fee and excise tax. Upon renewing a vessel registration, the department shall issue a new decal to be affixed as prescribed by the department.

When the department issues either a notice to renew a vessel registration or a decal for a new or renewed vessel registration, it shall also provide information on the location of marine oil recycling tanks and sewage holding tank pumping stations. This information will be provided to the department by the state parks and recreation commission in a form ready for distribution. The form will be developed and prepared by the state parks and recreation commission with the cooperation of the department of ecology. The department, the state parks and recreation commission, and the department of ecology shall enter into a memorandum of agreement to implement this process.

A person acquiring a vessel from a dealer or a vessel already validly registered under this chapter shall, within fifteen days of the acquisition or purchase of the vessel, apply to the department or its authorized agent for transfer of the vessel registration, and the application shall be accompanied by a transfer fee of one dollar.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. A new section is added to chapter 88.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) All motor-propelled vessels shall be equipped and maintained with an effective muffler that is in good working order and in constant use. For the purpose of this section, an effective muffler or underwater exhaust system does not produce sound levels in excess of ninety decibels when subjected to a stationary sound level test that shall be prescribed by rules adopted by the commission, as of the effective date of this section, and for engines manufactured on or after January 1, 1994, a noise level of eighty-eight decibels when subjected to a stationary sound level test that shall be prescribed by rules adopted by the commission.

(2) A vessel that does not meet the requirements of subsection (1) of this section shall not be operated on the waters of this state.

(3) No person may operate a vessel on waters of the state in such a manner as to exceed a noise level of seventy-five decibels measured from any point on the shoreline of the body of water on which the vessel is being operated that shall be specified by rules adopted by the commission, as of the effective date of this section. Such measurement shall not preclude a stationary sound level test that shall be prescribed by rules adopted by the commission.

(4) This section does not apply to: (a) A vessel tuning up, testing for, or participating in official trials for speed records or a sanctioned race conducted pursuant to a permit issued by an appropriate governmental agency; or (b) a vessel being operated by a vessel or marine engine manufacturer for the purpose of testing or development. Nothing in this subsection prevents local governments from adopting ordinances to control the frequency, duration, and location of vessel testing, tune-up, and racing.

(5) Any officer authorized to enforce this section who has reason to believe that a vessel is not in compliance with the noise levels established in this section may direct the operator of the vessel to submit the vessel to an on-site test to measure noise level, with the officer on board if the officer chooses, and the operator shall comply with such request. If the vessel exceeds the decibel levels established in this section, the officer may direct the operator to take immediate and reasonable measures to correct the violation.

(6) Any officer who conducts vessel sound level tests as provided in this section shall be qualified in vessel noise testing. Qualifications shall include but may not be limited to the ability to select the appropriate measurement site and the calibration and use of noise testing equipment.

(7) A person shall not remove, alter, or otherwise modify in any way a muffler or muffler system in a manner that will prevent it from being operated in accordance with this chapter.

(8) A person shall not manufacture, sell, or offer for sale any vessel that is not equipped with a muffler or muffler system that does not comply with this chapter. This subsection shall not apply to power vessels designed, manufactured, and sold for the sole purpose of competing in racing events and for no other purpose. Any such exemption or exception shall be documented in any and every sale agreement and shall be formally acknowledged by signature on the part of both the buyer and the seller. Copies of the agreement shall be maintained by both parties. A copy shall be kept on board whenever the vessel is operated.

(9) Except as provided in section 6 of this act, a violation of this section is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW.

(10) Vessels that are equipped with an engine modified to increase performance beyond the engine manufacturer's stock configuration shall have an exhaust system that complies with the standards in this section after January 1, 1994. Until that date, operators or owners, or both, of such vessels with engines that are out of compliance shall be issued a warning and be given educational materials about types of muffling systems available to muffle noise from such high performance engines.

(11) Nothing in this section preempts a local government from exercising any power that it possesses under the laws or Constitution of the state of Washington to adopt more stringent regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. A new section is added to chapter 88.02 RCW to read as follows:

Jurisdictions receiving funds under RCW 88.02.040 shall deposit such funds into an account dedicated solely for supporting the jurisdiction's boating safety programs. These funds shall not supplant existing local funds used for boating safety programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. RCW 82.49.070 and 1988 c 261 s 1, 1985 c 7 s 155, 1984 c 250 s 4, & 1983 2nd ex.s. c 3 s 49 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. Section 41 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1994.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. Section 38 of this act applies to registrations expiring June 30, 1995, and thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 88.12.030 and 1933 c 72 s 3;
- (2) RCW 88.12.040 and 1990 c 231 s 2 & 1933 c 72 s 4;
- (3) RCW 88.12.090 and 1933 c 72 s 6;
- (4) RCW 88.12.240 and 1986 c 217 s 2;
- (5) RCW 88.12.270 and 1986 c 217 s 5;
- (6) RCW 88.12.310 and 1986 c 217 s 9;
- (7) RCW 88.12.340 and 1986 c 217 s 12; and
- (8) RCW 88.12.480 and 1992 c 100 s 8.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. (1) The code reviser shall correct all statutory references to sections recodified by this section.

(2) The following sections shall be codified or recodified in the following order in chapter 88.12 RCW:

MOTIONS

Senator Adam Smith moved that the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 13.40.020 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 12 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Serious offender" means a person fifteen years of age or older who has committed an offense which if committed by an adult would be:

(a) A class A felony, or an attempt to commit a class A felony;

(b) Manslaughter in the first degree; or

(c) Assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, child molestation in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, robbery in the second degree, residential burglary, or burglary in the second degree, where such offenses include the infliction of bodily harm upon another or where during the commission of or immediate withdrawal from such an offense the perpetrator is armed with a deadly weapon or firearm as defined in RCW 9A.04.110;

(2) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender as punishment for committing an offense. Community service may be performed through public or private organizations or through work crews;

(3) "Community supervision" means an order of disposition by the court of an adjudicated youth not committed to the department. A community supervision order for a single offense may be for a period of up to two years for a sex offense as defined by RCW 9.94A.030 and up to one year for other offenses ((and)). Community supervision is an individualized program comprised of one or more of the following:

(a) Community-based sanctions;

(b) Community-based rehabilitation;

(c) Monitoring and reporting requirements;

(4) Community-based sanctions may include one or more of the following:

(a) A fine, not to exceed one hundred dollars;

(b) Community service not to exceed one hundred fifty hours of service;

((e)) (5) "Community-based rehabilitation" means one or more of the following: Attendance of information classes;

((d)) Counseling; or

(e) Such other services to the extent funds are available for such services,) counseling, outpatient substance abuse treatment programs, outpatient mental health programs, anger management classes, or other services; or attendance at school or other educational programs appropriate for the juvenile as determined by the school district. Placement in community-based rehabilitation programs is subject to available funds;

(6) "Monitoring and reporting requirements" means one or more of the following: Curfews; requirements to remain at home, school, work, or court-ordered treatment programs during specified hours; restrictions from leaving or entering specified geographical areas; requirements to report to the probation officer as directed and to remain under the probation officer's supervision; and other conditions((;)) or limitations as the court may require which may not include confinement;

((4)) (7) "Confinement" means physical custody by the department of social and health services in a detention facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with the state, or physical custody in a detention facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with any county. The county may operate or contract with vendors to operate county detention facilities. The department may operate or contract to operate detention facilities for juveniles committed to the department. Pretrial confinement or confinement of less than thirty-one days imposed as part of a disposition or modification order may be served consecutively or intermittently, in the discretion of the court and may be served in a detention group home, detention foster home, or with electronic monitoring. Detention group homes and detention foster homes used for confinement shall not also be used for the placement of dependent children. Confinement in detention group homes and detention foster homes and electronic monitoring are subject to available funds;

((5)) (8) "Court", when used without further qualification, means the juvenile court judge(s) or commissioner(s);

((6)) (9) "Criminal history" includes all criminal complaints against the respondent for which, prior to the commission of a current offense:

(a) The allegations were found correct by a court. If a respondent is convicted of two or more charges arising out of the same course of conduct, only the highest charge from among these shall count as an offense for the purposes of this chapter; or

(b) The criminal complaint was diverted by a prosecutor pursuant to the provisions of this chapter on agreement of the respondent and after an advisement to the respondent that the criminal complaint would be considered as part of the respondent's criminal history;

((7)) (10) "Department" means the department of social and health services;

((8)) (11) "Detention facility" means a facility for the physical confinement of a juvenile alleged to have committed an offense or an adjudicated offender subject to a disposition or modification order;

(12) "Diversion unit" means any probation counselor who enters into a diversion agreement with an alleged youthful offender, or any other person or entity except a law enforcement official or entity, with whom the juvenile court administrator has contracted to arrange and supervise such agreements pursuant to RCW ((43.04.040, as now or hereafter amended,)) 13.40.080, or any person or entity specially funded by the legislature to arrange and supervise diversion agreements in accordance with the requirements of this chapter;

((9)) (13) "Institution" means a juvenile facility established pursuant to chapters 72.05 and 72.16 through 72.20 RCW;

((10)) (14) "Juvenile," "youth," and "child" mean any individual who is under the chronological age of eighteen years and who has not been previously transferred to adult court;

((11)) (15) "Juvenile offender" means any juvenile who has been found by the juvenile court to have committed an offense, including a person eighteen years of age or older over whom jurisdiction has been extended under RCW 13.40.300;

((12)) (16) "Manifest injustice" means a disposition that would either impose an excessive penalty on the juvenile or would impose a serious, and clear danger to society in light of the purposes of this chapter;

((13)) (17) "Middle offender" means a person who has committed an offense and who is neither a minor or first offender nor a serious offender;

((14)) (18) "Minor or first offender" means a person sixteen years of age or younger whose current offense(s) and criminal history fall entirely within one of the following categories:

(a) Four misdemeanors;

(b) Two misdemeanors and one gross misdemeanor;

(c) One misdemeanor and two gross misdemeanors;

(d) Three gross misdemeanors;

(e) One class C felony except manslaughter in the second degree and one misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor;

(f) One class B felony except: Any felony which constitutes an attempt to commit a class A felony; manslaughter in the first degree; assault in the second degree; extortion in the first degree; indecent liberties; kidnapping in the second degree; robbery in the second degree; burglary in the second degree; residential burglary; vehicular homicide; or arson in the second degree.

For purposes of this definition, current violations shall be counted as misdemeanors;

((15)) (19) "Offense" means an act designated a violation or a crime if committed by an adult under the law of this state, under any ordinance of any city or county of this state, under any federal law, or under the law of another state if the act occurred in that state;

((16)) (20) "Respondent" means a juvenile who is alleged or proven to have committed an offense;

((17)) (21) "Restitution" means financial reimbursement by the offender to the victim, and shall be limited to easily ascertainable damages for injury to or loss of property, actual expenses incurred for medical treatment for physical injury to persons, lost wages resulting from physical injury, and costs of the victim's counseling reasonably related to the offense if the offense is a sex offense. Restitution shall not include reimbursement for damages for mental anguish, pain and suffering, or other intangible losses. Nothing in this chapter shall limit or replace civil remedies or defenses available to the victim or offender;

((18)) (22) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services;

((19)) (23) "Services" mean services which provide alternatives to incarceration for those juveniles who have pleaded or been adjudicated guilty of an offense or have signed a diversion agreement pursuant to this chapter;

((20)) (24) "Sex offense" means an offense defined as a sex offense in RCW 9.94A.030;

((21)) (25) "Sexual motivation" means that one of the purposes for which the respondent committed the offense was for the purpose of his or her sexual gratification;

((22)) (26) "Foster care" means temporary physical care in a foster family home or group care facility as defined in RCW 74.15.020 and licensed by the department, or other legally authorized care;

((23)) (27) "Violation" means an act or omission, which if committed by an adult, must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt, and is punishable by sanctions which do not include incarceration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever a county-designated mental health professional makes a determination under RCW 71.34.050 that a minor, thirteen years or older, does not meet the criteria for an involuntary detention at an evaluation and treatment facility, the county-designated mental health professional shall:

(1) Provide written notice to the minor's parent of the parent's right to file petitions and obtain services available under chapter 13.32A RCW;

(2) Provide a written evaluation to the minor's parent detailing the county-designated mental health professional's reasons for not detaining the minor at an evaluation and treatment facility. The evaluation shall include the specific facts investigated, the credibility of the person or persons providing the information, and the criteria for an involuntary detention; and

(3) Refer the minor and the parents to other available services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.96A RCW to read as follows:

Whenever a county-designated chemical dependency specialist makes a determination under RCW 70.96A.140 that a minor does not meet the criteria for a commitment to a chemical dependency program, the county-designated chemical dependency specialist shall:

(1) Provide written notice to the minor's parent of the parent's right to file petitions and obtain services available under chapter 13.32A RCW; and

(2) Refer the minor and the parents to other available services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 13.40 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall within existing funds collect such data as may be necessary to monitor any disparity in processing or disposing of cases involving juvenile offenders due to economic, gender, geographic, or racial factors that may result from implementation of section 1, chapter . . . , Laws of 1993 (section 1 of this act). Beginning December 1, 1993, the department shall report annually to the legislature on economic, gender, geographic, or racial disproportionality in the rates of arrest, detention, trial, treatment, and disposition in the state's juvenile justice system. The report shall cover the preceding calendar year. The annual report shall identify the causes of such disproportionality and shall specifically point out any economic, gender, geographic, or racial disproportionality resulting from implementation of section 1, chapter . . . , Laws of 1993 (section 1 of this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 2 and 3 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1994."

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1966, by House Committee on Human Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Wineberry, Leonard, Appelwick, Foreman, Riley, Cooke, H. Myers, Lemmon, Basich, Kessler, Holm, J. Kohl and Anderson)

Implementing juvenile justice racial disproportionality study recommendations.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Adam Smith moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Pursuant to the work of the juvenile justice task force created by the 1991 legislature to undertake a study of Washington state's juvenile justice system, the department of social and health services and the commission on African-American affairs commissioned an independent study of racial disproportionality in the state's juvenile justice system. The study team, which documented evidence of disparity in the treatment of juvenile offenders of color throughout the system, provided recommendations to the legislature on December 15, 1992. The study recommends cultural diversity training for juvenile court and law enforcement personnel, expanded data collection on juvenile offenders throughout the system, development of uniform prosecutorial standards for juvenile offenders, changes to the consolidated juvenile services program and funding formula, dissemination of information to families and communities regarding juvenile court procedures, and examination of juvenile disposition standards for racial and/or ethnic bias.

It is the intent of the legislature to implement the recommendations of this study in an effort to discourage differential treatment of youth of color and their families who come in contact with the juvenile courts in this state, and to promote racial and ethnic sensitivity and awareness throughout the juvenile court system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The administrator for the courts shall develop a plan to improve the collection and reporting of information on juvenile offenders by all juvenile courts in the state. The information related to juvenile offenders shall include, but is not limited to, social, demographic, education, and economic data on juvenile offenders and where possible, their families. Development and implementation of the plan shall be accomplished in consultation with the human rights commission, the governor's juvenile justice advisory committee, superior court judges, juvenile justice administrators, and interested juvenile justice practitioners and researchers. The plan shall include a schedule and budget for implementation and shall be provided to the office of financial management by September 15, 1993.

Sec. 3. RCW 2.56.030 and 1992 c 205 s 115 are each amended to read as follows:

The administrator for the courts shall, under the supervision and direction of the chief justice:

- (1) Examine the administrative methods and systems employed in the offices of the judges, clerks, stenographers, and employees of the courts and make recommendations, through the chief justice, for the improvement of the same;
- (2) Examine the state of the dockets of the courts and determine the need for assistance by any court;
- (3) Make recommendations to the chief justice relating to the assignment of judges where courts are in need of assistance and carry out the direction of the chief justice as to the assignments of judges to counties and districts where the courts are in need of assistance;
- (4) Collect and compile statistical and other data and make reports of the business transacted by the courts and transmit the same to the chief justice to the end that proper action may be taken in respect thereto;
- (5) Prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system and make recommendations in respect thereto;
- (6) Collect statistical and other data and make reports relating to the expenditure of public moneys, state and local, for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system and the offices connected therewith;
- (7) Obtain reports from clerks of courts in accordance with law or rules adopted by the supreme court of this state on cases and other judicial business in which action has been delayed beyond periods of time specified by law or rules of court and make report thereof to supreme court of this state;
- (8) Act as secretary of the judicial conference referred to in RCW 2.56.060;
- (9) Formulate and submit to the judicial council of this state recommendations of policies for the improvement of the judicial system;
- (10) Submit annually, as of February 1st, to the chief justice and the judicial council, a report of the activities of the administrator's office for the preceding calendar year;
- (11) Administer programs and standards for the training and education of judicial personnel;
- (12) Examine the need for new superior court and district judge positions under a weighted caseload analysis that takes into account the time required to hear all the cases in a particular court and the amount of time existing judges have available to hear cases in that court. The results of the weighted caseload analysis shall be reviewed by the board for judicial administration and the judicial council, both of which shall make recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1989. It is the intent of the legislature that weighted caseload analysis become the basis for creating additional district court positions, and recommendations should address that objective;
- (13) Provide staff to the judicial retirement account plan under chapter 2.14 RCW;
- (14) Attend to such other matters as may be assigned by the supreme court of this state;
- (15) Within available funds, develop a curriculum for a general understanding of child development, placement, and treatment resources, as well as specific legal skills and knowledge of relevant statutes including chapters 13.32A, 13.34, and 13.40 RCW, cases, court rules, interviewing skills, and special needs of the abused or neglected child. This curriculum shall be completed and made available to all juvenile court judges, court personnel, and service providers by July 1, 1988. The curriculum shall be updated yearly to reflect changes in statutes, court rules, or case law;
- (16) Develop a curriculum for a general understanding of crimes of malicious harassment, as well as specific legal skills and knowledge of RCW 9A.36.080, relevant cases, court rules, and the special needs of malicious harassment victims. This curriculum shall be completed and made available to all superior court and court of appeals judges and to all justices of the supreme court by July 1, 1989;
- (17) Develop, in consultation with the criminal justice training commission and the commissions established under chapters 43.113, 43.115, and 43.117 RCW, a curriculum for a general understanding of ethnic and cultural diversity and its implications for working with youth of color and their families. The curriculum shall be completed and made available to all superior court judges and court commissioners assigned to juvenile court, and other court personnel by October 1, 1993. Ethnic and cultural diversity training shall be provided annually so as to incorporate cultural sensitivity and awareness into the daily operation of juvenile courts state-wide.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.101 RCW to read as follows:

The criminal justice training commission shall develop, in consultation with the administrator for the courts and the commissions established under chapters 43.113, 43.115, and 43.117 RCW, a curriculum for a general understanding of ethnic and cultural diversity and its implications for working with youth of color and their families. The curriculum shall be developed by October 1, 1993. The commission shall ensure that ethnic and diversity training becomes an integral part of the training of law enforcement personnel so as to incorporate cultural sensitivity and awareness into the daily activities of law enforcement personnel.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 2.56 RCW to read as follows:

The administrator for the courts shall, in cooperation with juvenile courts, develop informational materials describing juvenile laws and juvenile court processes and procedures related to such laws, and make such information available to the public. Similar information shall also be made available for the non-English speaking youth and their families.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 13.04 RCW to read as follows:

The administrator of juvenile court shall obtain interpreters as needed, to enable non-English speaking youth and their families to fully participate in detention, probation, or court proceedings and programs.

Sec. 7. RCW 13.06.050 and 1983 c 191 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

No county shall be entitled to receive any state funds provided by this chapter until its application and plan are approved, and unless and until the minimum standards prescribed by the department of social and health services are complied with and then only on such terms as are set forth in this section. In addition, any county making application for state funds under this chapter that also operates a juvenile detention facility must have standards of operations in place that include: Intake and admissions, medical and health care, communication, correspondence, visiting and telephone use, security and control, sanitation and hygiene, juvenile rights, rules and discipline, property, juvenile records, safety and emergency procedures, programming, release and transfer, training and staff development, and food service.

(1) The distribution of funds to a county or a group of counties shall be based on criteria including but not limited to the county's per capita income, regional or county at-risk populations, juvenile crime or arrest rates, rates of poverty, size of racial minority populations, existing programs, and the effectiveness and efficiency of consolidating local programs towards reducing commitments to state correctional facilities for offenders whose standard range disposition does not include commitment of the offender to the department and reducing reliance on other traditional departmental services.

(2) The secretary will reimburse a county upon presentation and approval of a valid claim pursuant to the provisions of this chapter based on actual performance in meeting the terms and conditions of the approved plan and contract. Funds received by participating counties under this chapter shall not be used to replace local funds for existing programs.

(3) The secretary, in conjunction with the human rights commission, shall evaluate the effectiveness of programs funded under this chapter in reducing racial disproportionality. The secretary shall investigate whether implementation of such programs has reduced disproportionality in counties with initially high levels of disproportionality. The analysis shall indicate which programs are cost-effective in reducing disproportionality in such areas as alternatives to detention, intake and risk assessment standards pursuant to RCW 13.40.038, alternatives to incarceration, and in the prosecution and adjudication of juveniles. The secretary shall report his or her findings to the legislature by December 1, 1994, and December 1 of each year thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The administrator for the courts shall convene a working group to develop standards and guidelines for the prosecution of juvenile offenders under Title 13 RCW, review any racial disproportionality in diversion, and review the use of detention facilities in a way to reduce racial disproportionality. The administrator shall appoint:

- (1) One defense attorney familiar with juvenile justice, and three prosecuting attorneys familiar with juvenile justice;
- (2) One superior court judge;
- (3) One court commissioner;
- (4) One juvenile court administrator;
- (5) One representative of the juvenile disposition standards board;
- (6) One representative of the department of social and health services;
- (7) One social researcher with expertise in juvenile or criminal justice;
- (8) Two representatives of child advocacy groups recommended by the governor; and
- (9) Two persons recommended jointly by the Washington state minority commissions.

The work group shall develop and submit its recommended standards and guidelines to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 1994.

Sec. 9. RCW 13.40.027 and 1992 c 205 s 103 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is the responsibility of the commission to: (a)(i) Evaluate the effectiveness of existing disposition standards and related statutes in implementing policies set forth in RCW 13.40.010 generally ~~((and))~~, (ii) specifically review the guidelines relating to the confinement of minor and first offenders as well as the use of diversion, and (iii) review the application of current and proposed juvenile sentencing standards and guidelines for potential adverse impacts on the sentencing outcomes of racial and ethnic minority youth; (b) solicit the comments and suggestions of the juvenile justice community concerning disposition standards; and (c) make recommendations to the legislature regarding revisions or modifications of the disposition standards in accordance with RCW 13.40.030. The evaluations shall be submitted to the legislature ~~((by December 1, 1992, and))~~ on December 1 of each even-numbered year thereafter.

(2) It is the responsibility of the department to: (a) Provide the commission with available data concerning the implementation of the disposition standards and related statutes and their effect on the performance of the department's responsibilities relating to juvenile offenders; (b) at the request of the commission, provide technical and administrative assistance to the commission in the performance of its responsibilities; and (c) provide the commission and legislature with recommendations for modification of the disposition standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act shall be null and void."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Talmadge and Newhouse to the Committee on Law and Justice striking amendment was adopted:

On page 4, beginning on line 29 of the amendment, after "needed" strike all material through "fully" on line 30, and insert "consistent with the intent and practice of chapter 2.43 RCW, to enable non-English speaking youth and their families to"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Law and Justice striking amendment, as amended, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1966.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1966, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate will now consider Senate Bill No. 5981 and Senate Bill No. 5983.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5981, by Senators Owen, Spanel and Rinehart (by request of Office of Financial Management)

Regulating forest lands to maintain a viable forest products industry.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rinehart, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5981 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5981 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Spanel moved that the following amendment by Senators Spanel, Hargrove and Rinehart be adopted:

On page 11, beginning on line 17, strike all material down to and including line 3 on page 13.

Renumber the sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Spanel, Hargrove and Rinehart to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5981.

The motion by Senator Spanel carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, strike "76.09.060, and 76.09.220;" and insert "and 76.09.060;"

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5981 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sutherland: "Senator Owen, in the bill, there is a five hundred dollar fee for those forest land owners that would convert their properties to other than forest properties. There have been a number of permits that have gone through the process the last few years where land owners said they were not going to convert, then harvested the properties, but then shortly thereafter converted the properties. Would those that did the process that I just explained that said they weren't going to convert and then converted, still have to pay this five hundred dollars, after they converted?"

Senator Owen: "Yes, if they knew they were going to convert. Of course, that would be a little fraudulent. We increased the penalties this year. As a matter of fact, if a person did that, knowingly, that they were going to convert the land--out of forestry land--they could actually get a ten thousand dollar fine and have a lien put against their property. So, we've increased the penalties, but, yes, if a person files in the wrong classification and then converts, the state can go back and get the actual fee from them."

Senator Sutherland: "Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5981.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5981 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; Nays, 22; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Drew, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Owen, Pelz, Prentice, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild and Wojahn - 26.

Voting nay: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bluechel, Deccio, Erwin, Hochstatter, McCaslin, McDonald, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Prince, Roach, Sellar, Smith, L., von Reichbauer, West, Williams and Winsley - 22.

Excused: Senator Cantu - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5981, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5983, by Senators M. Rasmussen and Loveland (by request of Department of Agriculture)

Altering fees related to agriculture.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following Committee of Ways and Means amendment was adopted:
On page 12, line 17, strike "sixty" and insert "~~((sixty))~~ one hundred two"

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 11, strike "six-tenths" and insert "fifty-four one-hundredths"

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that the following amendment be adopted:
On page 17, line 11, strike "five" and insert "three"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Rasmussen, what was the purpose of doing this?"

Senator Rasmussen: "What this amendment does is lower it from five mills to three mills. Currently, for every dozen eggs at the wholesale level, there is two and a half mills of fees. Those go to the Department of Agriculture for egg inspection programs in the grocery stores. What the Department of Ag did was first, they thought they needed to raise it from two and half mills to five mills. After checking, they found out that three mills would be sufficient, so that is only a half of one percent of a mill. That is all the fee raises."

Senator Barr: "Thank you, I understand now what we are doing. We are reducing the part for the egg industry and my question is I wonder why we couldn't do that for the feedlot industry, the beef industry, the dairy industry. It is kind of a mystery, but I guess we should support reducing a proposal which was tremendously high. I would encourage adoption of this to bring it down a little bit, at least, for one industry."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Rasmussen on page 17, line 11, to Senate Bill No. 5983.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

MOTION

Senator Hochstatter moved that the following amendment by Senators Hochstatter, Vognild, Bauer, Owen, McCaslin and Hargrove be adopted:

On page 17, after line 13, insert the following:

Sec. 15. RCW 26.09.225 and 1991 sp.s. c 28 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each parent shall have full and equal access to the education and health care records of the child absent a court order to the contrary. Neither parent may veto the access requested by the other parent.

(2) Educational records are limited to academic, attendance, and disciplinary records of public and private schools in all grades kindergarten through twelve and any form of alternative school for all periods for which child support is paid or the child is the dependent in fact of the parent requesting access to the records.

(3) Educational records of postsecondary educational institutions are limited to enrollment and academic records necessary to determine, establish, or continue support ordered pursuant to RCW 26.19.090 before the effective date of this act.

Sec. 16. RCW 26.18.210 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The administrator for the courts shall develop a child support order summary report form to provide for the reporting of summary information in every case in which a child support order is entered or modified either judicially or administratively. The administrator for the courts shall attempt to the greatest extent possible to make the form simple and understandable by the parties. The form shall indicate the following:

(a) The county in which the order was entered and the cause number;

- (b) Whether it was a judicial or administrative order;
 - (c) Whether the order is an original order or from a modification;
 - (d) The number of children of the parties and the children's ages;
 - (e) The combined monthly net income of parties;
 - (f) The monthly net income of the father as determined by the court;
 - (g) The monthly net income of the mother as determined by the court;
 - (h) The basic child support obligation for each child as determined from the economic table;
 - (i) Whether or not the court deviated from the child support for each child;
 - (j) The reason or reasons stated by the court for the deviation;
 - (k) The amount of child support after the deviation;
 - (l) Any amount awarded for day care;
 - (m) Any other extraordinary amounts in the order;
 - (n) ~~(Any amount ordered for postsecondary education;~~
 - ~~(o))~~ The total amount of support ordered;
 - ~~((p))~~ (o) In the case of a modification, the amount of support in the previous order;
 - ~~((q))~~ (p) If the change in support was in excess of thirty percent, whether the change was phased in;
 - ~~((r))~~ (q) The amount of the transfer payment ordered;
 - ~~((s))~~ (r) Which parent was ordered to make the transfer payment; and
 - ~~((t))~~ (s) The date of the entry of the order.
- (2) The administrator for the courts shall make the form available to the parties.

Sec. 17. RCW 26.19.035 and 1992 c 229 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Application of the child support schedule. The child support schedule shall be applied:

- (a) In each county of the state;
- (b) In judicial and administrative proceedings under this title or Title 13 or 74 RCW;
- (c) In all proceedings in which child support is determined or modified;
- (d) In setting temporary and permanent support;
- (e) In automatic modification provisions or decrees entered pursuant to RCW 26.09.100; and
- (f) In addition to proceedings in which child support is determined for minors, to adult children who are dependent on their parents and for whom support is ordered pursuant to RCW 26.09.100. However, child support shall not be made mandatory for postsecondary education of a child over eighteen years of age.

The provisions of this chapter for determining child support and reasons for deviation from the standard calculation shall be applied in the same manner by the court, presiding officers, and reviewing officers.

(2) Written findings of fact supported by the evidence. An order for child support shall be supported by written findings of fact upon which the support determination is based and shall include reasons for any deviation from the standard calculation and reasons for denial of a party's request for deviation from the standard calculation. The court shall enter written findings of fact in all cases whether or not the court: (a) Sets the support at the presumptive amount, for combined monthly net incomes below five thousand dollars; (b) sets the support at an advisory amount, for combined monthly net incomes between five thousand and seven thousand dollars; or (c) deviates from the presumptive or advisory amounts.

(3) Completion of worksheets. Worksheets in the form developed by the office of the administrator for the courts shall be completed under penalty of perjury and filed in every proceeding in which child support is determined. The court shall not accept incomplete worksheets or worksheets that vary from the worksheets developed by the office of the administrator for the courts.

(4) Court review of the worksheets and order. The court shall review the worksheets and the order setting support for the adequacy of the reasons set forth for any deviation or denial of any request for deviation and for the adequacy of the amount of support ordered. Each order shall state the amount of child support calculated using the standard calculation and the amount of child support actually ordered. Worksheets shall be attached to the decree or order or if filed separately shall be initialed or signed by the judge and filed with the order.

Sec. 18. RCW 26.19.075 and 1991 sp.s. c 28 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Reasons for deviation from the standard calculation include but are not limited to the following:

(a) Sources of income and tax planning. The court may deviate from the standard calculation after consideration of the following:

- (i) Income of a new spouse if the parent who is married to the new spouse is asking for a deviation based on any other reason. Income of a new spouse is not, by itself, a sufficient reason for deviation;
- (ii) Income of other adults in the household if the parent who is living with the other adult is asking for a deviation based on any other reason. Income of the other adults in the household is not, by itself, a sufficient reason for deviation;
- (iii) Child support actually received from other relationships;
- (iv) Gifts;
- (v) Prizes;
- (vi) Possession of wealth, including but not limited to savings, investments, real estate holdings and business interests, vehicles, boats, pensions, bank accounts, insurance plans, or other assets;
- (vii) Extraordinary income of a child; or
- (viii) Tax planning considerations. A deviation for tax planning may be granted only if the child would not receive a lesser economic benefit due to the tax planning.

(b) Nonrecurring income. The court may deviate from the standard calculation based on a finding that a particular source of income included in the calculation of the basic support obligation is not a recurring source of income. Depending on the circumstances, nonrecurring income may include overtime, contract-related benefits, bonuses, or income from second jobs. Deviations for nonrecurring income shall be based on a review of the nonrecurring income received in the previous two calendar years.

(c) Debt and high expenses. The court may deviate from the standard calculation after consideration of the following expenses:

- (i) Extraordinary debt not voluntarily incurred;

(ii) A significant disparity in the living costs of the parents due to conditions beyond their control;

(iii) Special needs of disabled children; or

(iv) Special medical, educational, or psychological needs of the children. Special educational needs do not include postsecondary education of a child over eighteen years of age.

(d) Residential schedule. The court may deviate from the standard calculation if the child spends a significant amount of time with the parent who is obligated to make a support transfer payment. The court may not deviate on that basis if the deviation will result in insufficient funds in the household receiving the support to meet the basic needs of the child or if the child is receiving aid to families with dependent children. When determining the amount of the deviation, the court shall consider evidence concerning the increased expenses to a parent making support transfer payments resulting from the significant amount of time spent with that parent and shall consider the decreased expenses, if any, to the party receiving the support resulting from the significant amount of time the child spends with the parent making the support transfer payment.

(e) Children from other relationships. The court may deviate from the standard calculation when either or both of the parents before the court have children from other relationships to whom the parent owes a duty of support.

(i) The child support schedule shall be applied to the mother, father, and children of the family before the court to determine the presumptive amount of support.

(ii) Children from other relationships shall not be counted in the number of children for purposes of determining the basic support obligation and the standard calculation.

(iii) When considering a deviation from the standard calculation for children from other relationships, the court may consider only other children to whom the parent owes a duty of support. The court may consider court-ordered payments of child support for children from other relationships only to the extent that the support is actually paid.

(iv) When the court has determined that either or both parents have children from other relationships, deviations under this section shall be based on consideration of the total circumstances of both households. All child support obligations paid, received, and owed for all children shall be disclosed and considered.

(2) All income and resources of the parties before the court, new spouses, and other adults in the households shall be disclosed and considered as provided in this section. The presumptive amount of support shall be determined according to the child support schedule. Unless specific reasons for deviation are set forth in the written findings of fact and are supported by the evidence, the court shall order each parent to pay the amount of support determined by using the standard calculation.

(3) The court shall enter findings that specify reasons for any deviation or any denial of a party's request for any deviation from the standard calculation made by the court. The court shall not consider reasons for deviation until the court determines the standard calculation for each parent.

(4) When reasons exist for deviation, the court shall exercise discretion in considering the extent to which the factors would affect the support obligation.

(5) Agreement of the parties is not by itself adequate reason for any deviations from the standard calculation.

Sec. 19. RCW 26.19.090 and 1991 sp.s. c 28 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((4))~~ The child support schedule shall ~~((be advisory and not mandatory))~~ not be used for postsecondary educational support of a child over eighteen years of age.

~~((2))~~ When considering whether to order support for postsecondary educational expenses, the court shall determine whether the child is in fact dependent and is relying upon the parents for the reasonable necessities of life. The court shall exercise its discretion when determining whether and for how long to award postsecondary educational support based upon consideration of factors that include but are not limited to the following: Age of the child; the child's needs; the expectations of the parties for their children when the parents were together; the child's prospects, desires, aptitudes, abilities or disabilities; the nature of the postsecondary education sought; and the parents' level of education, standard of living, and current and future resources. Also to be considered are the amount and type of support that the child would have been afforded if the parents had stayed together.

(3) The child must enroll in an accredited academic or vocational school, must be actively pursuing a course of study commensurate with the child's vocational goals, and must be in good academic standing as defined by the institution. The court-ordered postsecondary educational support shall be automatically suspended during the period or periods the child fails to comply with these conditions.

(4) The child shall also make available all academic records and grades to both parents as a condition of receiving postsecondary educational support. Each parent shall have full and equal access to the postsecondary education records as provided in RCW 26.09.225.

(5) The court shall not order the payment of postsecondary educational expenses beyond the child's twenty-third birthday, except for exceptional circumstances, such as mental, physical, or emotional disabilities.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Spanel: "A point of order, Mr. President. I would request a scope and object of this amendment. ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. NO. 1496, by House Committee on Commerce and Labor (originally sponsored by Representative Dellwo)

Regulating employment agencies.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Moore moved that the following Committee on Labor and Commerce amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 19.31.020 and 1990 c 70 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless a different meaning is clearly required by the context, the following words and phrases, as hereinafter used in this chapter, shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Employment agency" is synonymous with "agency" and shall mean any business in which any part of the business gross or net income is derived from a fee received from applicants, and in which any of the following activities are engaged in:

(a) The offering, promising, procuring, or attempting to procure employment for applicants; ~~((or))~~

(b) The giving of information regarding where and from whom employment may be obtained; or

(c) The sale of a list of jobs or a list of names of persons or companies accepting applications for specific positions, in any form.

In addition the term "employment agency" shall mean and include any person, bureau, employment listing (~~((or employment referral))~~) service, employment directory, organization, or school which for profit, by advertisement or otherwise, offers, as one of its main objects or purposes, to procure employment for any person who pays for its services, or which collects tuition, or charges for service of any nature, where the main object of the person paying the same is to secure employment. It also includes any business that provides a resume to an individual and provides that person with a list of names to whom the resume may be sent or provides that person with preaddressed envelopes to be mailed by the individual or by the business itself, if the list of names or the preaddressed envelopes have been compiled and are represented by the business as having job openings. The term "employment agency" shall not include labor union organizations, temporary service contractors, proprietary schools, nonprofit schools and colleges, career guidance and counseling services, employment directories that are sold in a manner that allows the applicant to examine the directory before purchase, theatrical agencies, farm labor contractors, or the Washington state employment agency.

(2) "Temporary service contractors" shall mean any person, firm, association, or corporation conducting a business which consists of employing individuals directly for the purpose of furnishing such individuals on a part time or temporary help basis to others.

(3) "Theatrical agency" means any person who, for a fee or commission, procures or attempts to procure on behalf of an individual or individuals, employment or engagements for circus, vaudeville, the variety field, the legitimate theater, motion pictures, radio, television, phonograph recordings, transcriptions, opera, concert, ballet, modeling, or other entertainments, exhibitions, or performances.

(4) "Farm labor contractor" means any person, or his agent, who, for a fee, employs workers to render personal services in connection with the production of any farm products, to, for, or under the direction of an employer engaged in the growing, producing, or harvesting of farm products, or who recruits, solicits, supplies, or hires workers on behalf of an employer engaged in the growing, producing, or harvesting of farm products or who provides in connection with recruiting, soliciting, supplying, or hiring workers engaged in the growing, producing, or harvesting of farm products, one or more of the following services: Furnishes board, lodging, or transportation for such workers, supervises, times, checks, counts, sizes, or otherwise directs or measures their work; or disburses wage payments to such persons.

(5) "Employer" means any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or association employing or seeking to enter into an arrangement to employ a person through the medium or service of an employment agency.

(6) "Applicant", except when used to describe an applicant for an employment agency license, means any person, whether employed or unemployed, seeking or entering into any arrangement for his employment or change of his employment through the medium or service of an employment agency.

(7) "Person" includes any individual, firm, corporation, partnership, association, company, society, manager, contractor, subcontractor, bureau, agency, service, office, or an agent or employee of any of the foregoing.

(8) "Director" shall mean the director of licensing.

(9) "Resume" means a document of the applicant's employment history that is approved, received, and paid for by the applicant.

(10) "Fee" means anything of value. The term includes money or other valuable consideration or services or the promise of money or other valuable consideration or services, received directly or indirectly by an employment agency from a person seeking employment, in payment for the service.

(11) "Employment listing service" means any business operated by any person that provides in any form, including written or verbal, lists of specified positions of employment available with any employer other than itself or that holds itself out to applicants as able to provide information about specific positions of employment available with any employer other than itself, and that charges a fee to the applicant for its services and does not set up interviews or otherwise intercede between employer and applicant.

(12) "Employment directory" means any business operated by any person that provides in any form, including written or verbal, lists of employers, does not provide lists of specified positions of employment, that holds itself out to applicants as able to provide information on employment in specific industries or geographical areas, and that charges a fee to the applicant for its services.

(13) "Career guidance and counseling service" means any person, firm, association, or corporation conducting a business that engages in any of the following activities:

(a) Career assessment, planning, or testing through individual counseling or group seminars, classes, or workshops;

(b) Skills analysis, resume writing, and preparation through individual counseling or group seminars, classes, or workshops;

(c) Training in job search or interviewing skills through individual counseling or group seminars, classes, or workshops;

PROVIDED, That the career guidance and counseling service does not engage in any of the following activities:

(i) Contacts employers on behalf of an applicant or in any way intercedes between employer and applicant;

(ii) Provides information on specific job openings;

(iii) Holds itself out as able to provide referrals to specific companies or individuals who have specific job openings.

Sec. 2. RCW 19.31.030 and 1969 ex.s. c 228 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Each employment agency shall keep records of all services rendered employers and applicants. These records shall contain the name and address of the employer by whom the services were solicited; the name and address of the applicant; kind of position ordered by the employer; dates job orders or job listings are obtained; subsequent dates job orders or job listings are verified as still being current; kind of position accepted by the applicant; probable duration of the employment, if known; rate of wage or salary to be paid the applicant; amount of the employment agency's fee; dates and amounts of refund if any, and reason for such refund; and the contract agreed to between the agency and applicant. An employment listing service need not keep records pertaining to the kind of position accepted by applicant and probable duration of employment.

An employment directory shall keep records of all services rendered to applicants. These records shall contain: The name and address of the applicant; amount of the employment directory's fee; dates and amounts of refund if any, and reason for the refund; the contract agreed to between the employment directory and applicant; and the dates of contact with employers made pursuant to RCW 19.31.190(11).

The director shall have authority to demand and to examine, at the employment agency's regular place of business, all books, documents, and records in its possession for inspection. Unless otherwise provided by rules or regulation adopted by the director, such records shall be maintained for a period of three years from the date in which they are made.

Sec. 3. RCW 19.31.040 and 1985 c 7 s 83 are each amended to read as follows:

An employment agency shall provide each applicant with a copy of the contract between the applicant and employment agency which shall have printed on it or attached to it a copy of RCW 19.31.170 as now or hereafter amended. Such contract shall contain the following:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the employment agency;

(2) Trade name if any;

(3) The date of the contract;

(4) The name of the applicant;

(5) The amount of the fee to be charged the applicant, or the method of computation of the fee, and the time and method of payments: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if the provisions of the contract come within the definition of a "retail installment transaction", as defined in RCW 63.14.010, the contract shall conform to the requirements of chapter 63.14 RCW, as now or hereafter amended;

(6) A notice in eight-point bold face type or larger directly above the space reserved in the contract for the signature of the buyer. The caption, "NOTICE TO APPLICANT--READ BEFORE SIGNING" shall precede the body of the notice and shall be in ten-point bold face type or larger. The notice shall read as follows:

"This is a contract. If you accept employment with any employer through [name of employment agency] you will be liable for the payment of the fee as set out above. Do not sign this contract before you read it or if any spaces intended for the agreed terms are left blank. You must be given a copy of this contract at the time you sign it."

The notice for an employment listing service shall read as follows:

"This is a contract. You understand (the employment listing service) provides information on bona fide job listings but does not guarantee you will be offered a job. You also understand you are liable for the payment of the fee when you receive the list or referral. Do not sign this contract before you read it or if any spaces intended for the agreed terms are left blank. You must be given a copy of this contract at the time you sign it.

The notice for an employment directory shall read as follows if the directory is sold in person:

"This is a contract. You understand [the employment directory] provides information on possible employers along with general employment, industry, and geographical information to assist you, but does not list actual job openings or guarantee you will obtain employment through its services. You also understand you are liable for the payment of the fee when you receive the directory. Do not sign this contract before you read it or if any spaces intended for the agreed terms are left blank. You must be given a copy of this contract at the time you sign it."

A verbal notice for an employment directory shall be as follows before accepting a fee if the directory is sold over the telephone:

"You understand [the employment directory] provides information on possible employers along with general employment, industry, and geographical information to assist you, but does not list actual job openings or guarantee you will obtain employment through its services. You also understand you are liable for the payment of the fee when you order the directory."

A copy of the contract must be sent to all applicants ordering by telephone and must specify the following information:

(a) Name, address, and phone number of employment directory;

(b) Name, address, and phone number of applicant;

(c) Date of order;

(d) Date verbal notice was read to applicant along with a printed statement to read as follows:

"On [date verbal notice was read] and prior to placing this order the following statement was read to you: "You understand [the employment directory] provides information on possible employers along with general employment, industry, and geographical information to assist you, but does not list actual job openings or guarantee you will be offered a job. You also understand you are liable for the payment of the fee when you order the directory."; and

(e) Signature of employment directory representative.

Sec. 4. RCW 19.31.100 and 1982 c 227 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every applicant for an employment agency's license or a renewal thereof shall file with the director a written application stating the name and address of the applicant; the street and number of the building in which the business of the employment agency is to be conducted; the name of the person who is to have the general management of the office; the name under which the business of the office is to be carried on; whether or not the applicant is pecuniarily interested in the business to be carried on under the license; shall be signed by the applicant and sworn to before a notary public; and shall identify anyone holding over twenty percent interest in the agency. If the applicant is a corporation, the application shall state the names and addresses of the officers and directors of the corporation, and shall be signed and sworn to by the president and secretary thereof. If the applicant is a partnership, the application shall also state the names and addresses of all partners therein, and shall be signed and sworn to by all of them. The application shall also state whether or not the applicant is, at the time of making the application, or has at any previous time been engaged in or interested in or employed by anyone engaged in the business of an employment agency.

(2) The application shall require a certification that no officer or holder of more than twenty percent interest in the business has been convicted of a felony within ten years of the application which directly relates to the business for which the license is sought, or had any judgment entered against such person in any civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, or conversion.

(3) All applications for employment agency licenses shall be accompanied by a copy of the form of contract and fee schedule to be used between the employment agency and the applicant.

(4) No license to operate an employment agency in this state shall be issued, transferred, renewed, or remain in effect, unless the person who has or is to have the general management of the office has qualified pursuant to this section. The director may, for good cause shown, waive the requirement imposed by this section for a period not to exceed one hundred and twenty days. Persons who have been previously licensed or who have operated to the satisfaction of the director for at least one year prior to September 21, 1977 as a general manager shall be entitled to operate for up to one year from such date before being required to qualify under this section. In order to qualify, such person shall, through testing procedures developed by the director, show that such person has a knowledge of this law, pertinent labor laws, and laws against discrimination in employment in this state and of the United States. Said examination shall be given at least once each quarter and a fee for such examination shall be established by the director. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to preclude any one natural person from being designated as the person who is to have the general management of up to three offices operated by any one licensee.

While employment directories may at the director's discretion be required to show that the person has a knowledge of this chapter, employment directories are exempt from testing on pertinent labor laws, and laws against discrimination in employment in this state and of the United States.

(5) Employment directories shall register with the department and meet all applicable requirements of this chapter but shall not be required to be licensed by the department or pay a licensing fee.

Sec. 5. RCW 19.31.150 and 1969 ex.s. c 228 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, no employment agency shall charge or accept a fee or other consideration from an applicant without complying with the terms of a written contract as specified in RCW 19.31.040, and then only after such agency has been responsible for referring such job applicant to an employer or such employer to a job applicant and where as a result thereof such job applicant has been employed by such employer.

(2) Employment listing services may charge or accept a fee when they provide the applicant with the job listing or the referral.

(3) An employment directory may charge or accept a fee when it provides the applicant with the directory.

Sec. 6. RCW 19.31.170 and 1977 ex.s. c 51 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If an applicant accepts employment by agreement with an employer and thereafter never reports for work, the gross fee charged to the applicant shall not exceed: (a) Ten percent of what the first month's gross salary or wages would be, if known; or (b) ten percent of the first month's drawing account. If the employment was to have been on a commission basis without any drawing account, then no fee may be charged in the event that the applicant never reports for work.

(2) If an applicant accepts employment on a commission basis without any drawing account, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall be a percentage of commissions actually earned.

(3) If an applicant accepts employment and if within sixty days of his reporting for work the employment is terminated, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall not exceed twenty percent of the gross salary, wages or commission received by him.

(4) If an applicant accepts temporary employment as a domestic, household employee, baby sitter, agricultural worker, or day laborer, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall not be in excess of twenty-five percent of the first full month's gross salary or wages: PROVIDED, That where an applicant accepts employment as a domestic or household employee for a period of less than one month, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the gross salary or wages paid.

(5) Any applicant requesting a refund of a fee paid to an employment agency in accordance with the terms of the approved fee schedule of the employment agency pursuant to this section shall file with the employment agency a form requesting such refund on which shall be set forth information reasonably needed and requested by the employment agency, including but not limited to the following: Circumstances under which employment was terminated, dates of employment, and gross earnings of the applicant.

(6) Refund requests which are not in dispute shall be made by the employment agency within thirty days of receipt.

(7) Subsections (1) through (6) of this section do not apply to employment listing services or employment directories.

Sec. 7. RCW 19.31.190 and 1977 ex.s. c 51 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the other provisions of this chapter the following rules shall govern each and every employment agency:

(1) Every license or a verified copy thereof shall be displayed in a conspicuous place in each office of the employment agency;

(2) No fee shall be solicited or accepted as an application or registration fee by any employment agency solely for the purpose of being registered as an applicant for employment;

(3) No licensee or agent of the licensee shall solicit, persuade, or induce an employee to leave any employment in which the licensee or agent of the licensee has placed the employee; nor shall any licensee or agent of the licensee persuade or induce or solicit any employer to discharge any employee;

(4) No employment agency shall knowingly cause to be printed or published a false or fraudulent notice or advertisement for obtaining work or employment. All advertising by a licensee shall signify that it is an employment agency solicitation except an employment listing service shall advertise it is an employment listing service;

(5) An employment directory shall include the following on all advertisements:

"Directory provides information on possible employers and general employment information but does not list actual job openings."

(6) No licensee shall fail to state in any advertisement, proposal or contract for employment that there is a strike or lockout at the place of proposed employment, if he has knowledge that such condition exists;

~~((6))~~ (7) No licensee or agent of a licensee shall directly or indirectly split, divide, or share with an employer any fee, charge, or compensation received from any applicant who has obtained employment with such employer or with any other person connected with the business of such employer;

~~((7))~~ (8) When an applicant is referred to the same employer by two licensees, the fee shall be paid to the licensee who first contacted the applicant concerning the position for that applicant: PROVIDED, That the licensee has given the name of the employer to the applicant and has within five working days arranged an interview with the employer and the applicant was hired as the result of that interview;

~~((8))~~ (9) No licensee shall require in any manner that a potential employee or an employee of an employer make any contract with any lending agency for the purpose of fulfilling a financial obligation to the licensee;

~~((9))~~ (10) All job listings must be bona fide job listings. To qualify as a bona fide job listing the following conditions must be met:

(a) A bona fide job listing must be obtained from a representative of the employer that reflects an actual current job opening;

(b) A representative of the employer must be aware of the fact that the job listing will be made available to applicants by the employment listing service and that applicants will be applying for the job listing;

(c) All job listings and referrals must be current. To qualify as a current job listing the employment listing service shall contact the employer and verify the availability of the job listing no less than once per week;

(11) All listings for employers listed in employment directories shall be current. To qualify as a current employer, the employment directory must contact the employer at least once per month and verify that the employer is currently hiring;

(12) Any aggrieved person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the director charging the holder of an employment agency license with violation of this chapter and/or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 8. RCW 19.31.245 and 1990 c 70 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No employment agency may bring or maintain a cause of action in any court of this state for compensation for, or seeking equitable relief in regard to, services rendered employers and applicants, unless such agency shall allege and prove that at the time of rendering the services in question, or making the contract therefor, it was the holder of a valid license issued under this chapter.

(2) Any person who shall give consideration of any kind to any employment agency for the performance of employment services in this state when said employment agency shall not be the holder of a valid license issued under this chapter shall have a cause of action against the employment agency. Any court having jurisdiction may enter judgment therein for treble the amount of such consideration so paid, plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

(3) A person performing the services of an employment agency ~~((or))~~, employment listing ~~((or employment referral))~~ service, or employment directory without holding a valid license shall cease operations or immediately apply for ~~((and obtain))~~ a valid license. If the person continues to operate in violation of this chapter the director or the attorney general has a cause of action in any court having jurisdiction for the return of any consideration paid by any person to the agency. The court may enter judgment in the action for treble the amount of the consideration so paid, plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

On motion of Senator Moore, the following amendments to the Committee on Labor and Commerce striking amendment were considered simultaneously and were adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 79.96.010 and 1982 1st ex.s. c 21 s 134 are each amended to read as follows:

The beds of all navigable tidal waters in the state lying below extreme low tide, except as prohibited by section 1, Article XV, of the Washington state Constitution shall be subject to lease for the purposes of planting and cultivating oyster beds, or for the purpose of cultivating clams or other edible shellfish, or for other aquaculture use, for periods not to exceed ~~((ten))~~ thirty years.

~~((Where the lands are used for the cultivation and harvesting of oysters, the parcels leased shall not exceed forty acres. Where the lands are used for the cultivation and harvesting of clams or other aquaculture use, the department of natural resources may, in its discretion, grant leases for larger parcels.))~~

Nothing in this section shall prevent any person from leasing more than one parcel, as offered by the department.

Sec. 2. RCW 79.96.050 and 1982 1st ex.s. c 21 s 138 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of natural resources may, upon the filing of an application for a renewal lease, cause the tidelands or beds of navigable waters to be inspected, and if he deem[s] it in the best interests of the state to re-lease said lands, he shall issue to the applicant a renewal lease for such further period not exceeding ((ten)) thirty years and under such terms and conditions as may be determined by the department: PROVIDED, That in the case of an application for a renewal lease it shall not be necessary for the lands to be inspected and reported upon by the director of fisheries."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Spanel, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1760 is a measure which allows use of wage assignments for collection of spousal maintenance regardless of whether child support is also ordered, clarifies court jurisdiction and venue in actions related to support and maintenance, and allows certain medical expenses to be collected through wage assignment orders.

"The amendment by Senators Hochstatter, Vognild, Bauer, Owen, McCaslin and Hargrove would provide that child support for children over eighteen years of age for postsecondary education is not mandated and will not be a factor in determining an appropriate child support schedule.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Hochstatter, Vognild, Bauer, Owen, McCaslin and Hargrove on page 17, after line 13, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1760 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1760 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Fisher, L. Johnson, Romero, Lemmon, Ogden, Karahalios, Eide and H. Myers) (by request of Productivity Board)

Clarifying productivity awards programs.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Drew, the following Committee on Government Operations amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 41.60.010 and 1987 c 387 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Board" means the productivity board.

(2) "Employee suggestion program" means the program developed by the board under RCW 41.60.020.

(3) "Teamwork incentive program" means the program developed by the board under RCW 41.60.100 through 41.60.120.

(4) "State employees" means present employees in state agencies and institutions of higher education except for elected officials, directors of such agencies and institutions, and their confidential secretaries and administrative assistants and others specifically ruled ineligible by the rules of the productivity board.

Sec. 2. RCW 41.60.015 and 1987 c 387 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created the productivity board. The board shall administer the employee suggestion program and the teamwork incentive program under this chapter (~~and shall review applications for teamwork incentive pay for state employees under RCW 41.60.100, 41.60.110, and 41.60.120~~).

(2) The board shall be composed of:

(a) The secretary of state who shall act as chairperson;

(b) The director of personnel appointed under the provisions of RCW 41.06.130 or the director's designee;

(c) The director of financial management or the director's designee;

(d) The personnel director appointed under the provisions of RCW 28B.16.060 or the director's designee;

(e) The director of general administration or the director's designee;

(f) Three persons with experience in administering incentives such as those used by industry, with the governor, lieutenant governor, and speaker of the house of representatives each appointing one person. The governor's appointee shall be a representative of an employee organization certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, but no one organization may be represented for two consecutive terms;

(g) One person representing state agencies and institutions with employees subject to chapter 41.06 RCW, and one person representing those subject to chapter 28B.16 RCW, both to be appointed by the governor; and

(h) In addition, the governor and board chairperson may jointly appoint persons to the board on an ad hoc basis. Ad hoc members shall serve in an advisory capacity and shall not have the right to vote.

Members under subsection (2) (f) and (g) of this section shall be appointed to serve three-year terms.

Members of the board appointed pursuant to subsection (2)(f) of this section may be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240. Any board member who is not a state employee may be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 3. RCW 41.60.020 and 1982 c 167 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall formulate, establish, and maintain an employee suggestion program to encourage and reward meritorious suggestions by state employees that will promote efficiency and economy in the performance of any function of state government: PROVIDED, That the program shall include provisions for the processing of suggestions having multi-agency impact and post-implementation auditing of suggestions for fiscal accountability.

(2) The board shall prepare, at least annually, a topical list of all the productivity awards granted and disseminate this information to all the state government agencies that may be able to adapt them to their procedures.

(3) The board shall adopt rules and regulations necessary or appropriate for the proper administration and for the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 4. RCW 41.60.100 and 1989 c 56 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

With the exception of agencies of the legislative and judicial branches, any organizational unit composed of employees in any agency or group of agencies of state government ~~((having an identifiable budget or having its financial records maintained according to an accounting system which identifies the expenditures and receipts properly attributable to that unit))~~ with the ability to identify costs, revenues, or both may apply to the board ~~((for selection as a candidate for the award of))~~ to participate in the teamwork incentive ((pay-to-its-employees)) program. The application shall ~~((be submitted prior to the beginning of any year and shall))~~ have the approval of the heads of the agency or agencies within which the unit is located.

Applications shall be in the form specified by the board and contain such information as the board requires. This may include, but is not limited to, quantitative measures which establish a data base of program output or performance expectations, or both. This data base is used to evaluate savings in accordance with RCW 41.60.110(1).

The board shall evaluate the applications submitted. From those proposals which are considered to be reasonable and practical and which are found to include developed performance indicators which lend themselves to a judgment of success or failure, the board shall select the units to participate in the teamwork incentive ~~((pay))~~ program.

Sec. 5. RCW 41.60.110 and 1989 c 56 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To qualify for ~~((the award of))~~ a teamwork incentive ((pay-to)) program award for its employees, a unit selected shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the board that it has operated during the ~~((year))~~ period of participation at a lower cost or with an increase in revenue with ~~((either an increase in the level of services rendered or with))~~ no decrease in the level of services rendered.

(a) A unit completing its ~~((first year))~~ period of participation shall compare costs or revenues during that ~~((year))~~ period of participation to (i) the ~~((fiscal year))~~ expenditures or revenues for ~~((the year))~~ a comparable span of time immediately preceding the first ~~((year))~~ period of participation, or (ii) an average derived from the unit's historical data, or (iii) engineered standards used in conjunction with an average derived from the unit's historical data, or (iv) anticipated revenue as based on statistical projections or historical data;

(b) A unit participating in the teamwork incentive ~~((pay))~~ program for two or more consecutive ~~((years))~~ times may choose to compare its costs during the current ~~((year))~~ period of participation with (i) its costs or revenues for the immediately preceding ~~((year))~~ period, or (ii) ~~((a yearly))~~ an average of its costs or revenues for the preceding two or three ~~((years))~~ comparable spans of time in the teamwork incentive program;

(c) For the purposes of (a) of this subsection, a unit's historical data shall be restricted to data generated during the period of three years or less immediately preceding the unit's first ~~((year of))~~ participation in the teamwork incentive ~~((pay))~~ program; and

(d) For the purposes of (b) of this subsection, a unit's costs or revenues for preceding ~~((years))~~ periods of time may include the costs or revenues calculated under (a) (i), (ii), or (iii) of this subsection for ~~((years))~~ the periods of time the unit participated in the teamwork incentive ~~((pay))~~ program.

(2) The board shall satisfy itself from documentation submitted by the organizational unit that the claimed cost of operation or level of higher revenue is real and not merely apparent and that it is not, in whole or in part, the result of:

(a) Chance;

(b) A lowering of the quality of the service rendered;

(c) Nonrecurrence of expenditures which were single outlay, or one-time expenditures, in the preceding ~~((year))~~ comparable period of time;

(d) Stockpiling inventories in the immediately preceding ~~((year))~~ period so as to reduce requirements in the eligible ~~((year))~~ time period;

(e) Substitution of federal funds, other receipts, or nonstate funds for programs currently receiving state appropriations;

(f) Unreasonable postponement of payments of accounts payable until the ~~((year))~~ period immediately following the eligible ~~((year))~~ period of participation;

(g) Shifting of expenses to another unit of government; or

(h) Any other practice, event, or device which the board decides has caused a distortion which makes it falsely appear that a savings or increase in revenue gains or an increase in level of services has occurred.

(3) The board shall consider as legitimate ~~((savings))~~ efficiencies those reductions in expenditures or increases in revenue made possible by such items as the following:

(a) Reductions in overtime;

(b) Elimination of consultant fees;

(c) Less temporary help;

(d) Improved systems and procedures;

(e) Better deployment and utilization of personnel;

(f) Elimination of unnecessary travel;

(g) Elimination of unnecessary printing and mailing;

(h) Elimination of unnecessary payments for items such as advertising;

(i) Elimination of waste, duplication, and operations of doubtful value;

(j) Improved space utilization; ~~((and))~~

(k) Improved methods of collecting revenue or recovering money owed to the state; and

(l) Any other items determined by the board to represent cost savings or increased revenue.

Sec. 6. RCW 41.60.120 and 1989 c 56 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion of the eligible ~~((year))~~ period, the board shall compare the expenditures or revenues for that ~~((year))~~ period of each unit selected against the expenditures or revenues of that unit for the immediately preceding ~~((year))~~ period or expenditures or revenues determined in accordance with RCW 41.60.110(1) (a) and (b) and, after making such adjustments as in the board's judgment are required to eliminate distortions, shall determine the amount, if any, that the unit has reduced the unit's cost of operations or increased its level of services or generated additional revenues to the state in the eligible ~~((year))~~ period. Adjustments to eliminate distortions may include any legislative increases in employee compensation and inflationary increases in the cost of services, materials, and supplies. Adjustments to additional revenue may include changes in client populations and the effects of legal changes. If the board also determines that ~~((in the board's judgment))~~ a unit qualifies for an award, the board shall award to the employees of that unit a sum ~~((equal))~~ up to twenty-five percent of the amount determined to be the savings or revenue increases to the state for the level of services rendered. The amount awarded shall be divided and distributed in ~~((equal shares))~~ accordance with board rules to the employees of the unit, except that employees who worked for that unit less than the ~~((twelve~~ months of the year)) full period during which the unit conducted a teamwork incentive program shall receive only a pro rata share based on the fraction of the ((year)) period worked for that unit. No individual share of the unit award may exceed the maximum award established by rule adopted by the board. Funds for this teamwork incentive ((pay)) award shall be drawn from the ((agency)) agencies in which the unit is located or from the benefiting fund or account without appropriation when additional revenue is generated to the fund or account.

Awards may be paid to teams for process changes which generate new or additional money for the general fund or any other funds of the state. The director of the office of financial management shall distribute moneys appropriated for this purpose with the concurrence of the productivity board. Transfers shall be made from other funds of the state to the general fund in amounts equal to award payments made by the general fund, for innovations generating new or additional money for those other funds.

Sec. 7. RCW 41.60.160 and 1987 c 387 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

No award may be made under this chapter to any elected state official or state agency director. ~~((No monetary award may be made to persons exempt from the state civil service law under RCW 41.06.070 (5) or (9).))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1509, by House Committee on Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Locke, Sommers, Silver, Jacobsen, Ludwig and Bray)

Increasing flexibility of institutions of higher education.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bauer, the following Committee on Higher Education amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature acknowledges the academic freedom of institutions of higher education, and seeks to improve their efficiency and effectiveness in carrying out their missions. By this act, the legislature intends to increase the flexibility of institutions of higher education to manage personnel, construction, purchasing, printing, and tuition.

PART I PURCHASING, PRINTING, AND CONSTRUCTION AUTHORITY

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An institution of higher education may exercise independently those powers otherwise granted to the director of general administration in chapter 43.19 RCW in connection with the purchase and disposition of all material, supplies, services, and equipment needed for the support, maintenance, and use of the respective institution of higher education. Property disposition policies followed by institutions of higher education shall be consistent with policies followed by the department of general administration. Purchasing policies and procedures followed by institutions of higher education shall be in compliance with chapters 39.19, 39.29, and 43.03 RCW, and RCW 43.19.1901, 43.19.1906, 43.19.1911, 43.19.1917, 43.19.1937, 43.19.534, 43.19.685, 43.19.700 through 43.19.704, and 43.19.550 through 43.19.637. The community and technical colleges shall comply with RCW

43.19.450. Except for the University of Washington, institutions of higher education shall comply with RCW 43.19.1935, 43.19.19363, and 43.19.19368. If an institution of higher education can satisfactorily demonstrate to the director of the office of financial management that the cost of compliance is greater than the value of benefits from any of the following statutes, then it shall be exempt from them: RCW 43.19.685; 43.19.534; and 43.19.637. Any institution of higher education that chooses to exercise independent purchasing authority for a commodity or group of commodities shall notify the director of general administration. Thereafter the director of general administration shall not be required to provide those services for that institution for the duration of the general administration contract term for that commodity or group of commodities.

(2) An institution of higher education may exercise independently those powers otherwise granted to the public printer in chapter 43.78 RCW in connection with the production or purchase of any printing and binding needed by the respective institution of higher education. Purchasing policies and procedures followed by institutions of higher education shall be in compliance with chapter 39.19 RCW. Any institution of higher education that chooses to exercise independent printing production or purchasing authority shall notify the public printer. Thereafter the public printer shall not be required to provide those services for that institution.

Sec. 102. RCW 43.19.190 and 1991 c 238 s 135 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of general administration, through the state purchasing and material control director, shall:

(1) Establish and staff such administrative organizational units within the division of purchasing as may be necessary for effective administration of the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939;

(2) Purchase all material, supplies, services, and equipment needed for the support, maintenance, and use of all state institutions, colleges, community colleges, technical colleges, college districts, and universities, the offices of the elective state officers, the supreme court, the court of appeals, the administrative and other departments of state government, and the offices of all appointive officers of the state: PROVIDED, That the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1937 do not apply in any manner to the operation of the state legislature except as requested by said legislature: PROVIDED, That primary authority for the purchase of specialized equipment, instructional, and research material for their own use shall rest with the colleges, community colleges, and universities: PROVIDED FURTHER, That universities operating hospitals and the state purchasing and material control director, as the agent for state hospitals as defined in RCW 72.23.010, and for health care programs provided in state correctional institutions as defined in RCW 72.65.010(3) and veterans' institutions as defined in RCW 72.36.010 and 72.36.070, may make purchases for hospital operation by participating in contracts for materials, supplies, and equipment entered into by nonprofit cooperative hospital ((service)) group purchasing organizations ((as defined in section 501(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor)): PROVIDED FURTHER, That primary authority for the purchase of materials, supplies, and equipment for resale to other than public agencies shall rest with the state agency concerned: PROVIDED FURTHER, That authority to purchase services as included herein does not apply to personal services as defined in chapter 39.29 RCW, unless such organization specifically requests assistance from the division of purchasing in obtaining personal services and resources are available within the division to provide such assistance: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the authority for the purchase of insurance and bonds shall rest with the risk manager under RCW 43.19.1935 ~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, except for the authority of the risk manager to purchase insurance and bonds, the director is not required to provide purchasing services for institutions of higher education that choose to exercise independent purchasing authority under section 101 of this act:

(3) Provide the required staff assistance for the state supply management advisory board through the division of purchasing;

(4) Have authority to delegate to state agencies authorization to purchase or sell, which authorization shall specify restrictions as to dollar amount or to specific types of material, equipment, services, and supplies: PROVIDED, That acceptance of the purchasing authorization by a state agency does not relieve such agency from conformance with other sections of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939, ~~((as now or hereafter amended.))~~ or from policies established by the director after consultation with the state supply management advisory board: PROVIDED FURTHER, That delegation of such authorization to a state agency, including an educational institution to which this section applies, to purchase or sell material, equipment, services, and supplies shall not be granted, or otherwise continued under a previous authorization, if such agency is not in substantial compliance with overall state purchasing and material control policies as established herein;

(5) Contract for the testing of material, supplies, and equipment with public and private agencies as necessary and advisable to protect the interests of the state;

(6) Prescribe the manner of inspecting all deliveries of supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division;

(7) Prescribe the manner in which supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division shall be delivered, stored, and distributed;

(8) Provide for the maintenance of a catalogue library, manufacturers' and wholesalers' lists, and current market information;

(9) Provide for a commodity classification system and may, in addition, provide for the adoption of standard specifications after receiving the recommendation of the supply management advisory board;

(10) Provide for the maintenance of inventory records of supplies, materials, and other property;

(11) Prepare rules and regulations governing the relationship and procedures between the division of purchasing and state agencies and vendors;

(12) Publish procedures and guidelines for compliance by all state agencies, including those educational institutions to which this section applies, which implement overall state purchasing and material control policies;

(13) Conduct periodic visits to state agencies, including those educational institutions to which this section applies, to determine if statutory provisions and supporting purchasing and material control policies are being fully implemented, and based upon such visits, take corrective action to achieve compliance with established purchasing and material control policies under existing statutes when required.

Sec. 103. RCW 43.19.1906 and 1992 c 85 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Insofar as practicable, all purchases and sales shall be based on competitive bids, and a formal sealed bid procedure shall be used as standard procedure for all purchases and contracts for purchases and sales executed by the state purchasing and material control director and under the powers granted by RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939 ~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~. This requirement also applies to purchases and contracts for purchases and sales executed by agencies, including educational institutions, under delegated authority granted in accordance with provisions of RCW 43.19.190 ~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~ or under section 101 of this act. However, formal sealed bidding is not necessary for:

(2) Purchases not exceeding five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management: PROVIDED, That the state director of general administration shall establish procedures to assure that purchases made by or on behalf of the various state agencies shall not be made so as to avoid the five thousand dollar bid limitation, or subsequent bid limitations as calculated by the office of financial management: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state purchasing and material control director is authorized to reduce the formal sealed bid limits of five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management, to a lower dollar amount for purchases by individual state agencies (~~(including purchases of specialized equipment, instructional, and research equipment and materials by colleges and universities,)~~) if considered necessary to maintain full disclosure of competitive procurement or otherwise to achieve overall state efficiency and economy in purchasing and material control. Quotations from four hundred dollars to five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management, shall be secured from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and may be obtained by telephone or written quotations, or both. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry. A record of competition for all such purchases from four hundred dollars to five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management, shall be documented for audit purposes on a standard state form approved by the forms management center under the provisions of RCW 43.19.510. Purchases up to four hundred dollars may be made without competitive bids based on buyer experience and knowledge of the market in achieving maximum quality at minimum cost: PROVIDED, That this four hundred dollar direct buy limit without competitive bids may be increased incrementally as required to a maximum of eight hundred dollars with the approval of at least ten of the members of the state supply management advisory board, if warranted by increases in purchasing costs due to inflationary trends;

(3) Purchases which are clearly and legitimately limited to a single source of supply and purchases involving special facilities, services, or market conditions, in which instances the purchase price may be best established by direct negotiation;

(4) Purchases of insurance and bonds by the risk management office under RCW 43.19.1935 (~~(as now or hereafter amended)~~);

(5) Purchases and contracts for vocational rehabilitation clients of the department of social and health services: PROVIDED, That this exemption is effective only when the state purchasing and material control director, after consultation with the director of the division of vocational rehabilitation and appropriate department of social and health services procurement personnel, declares that such purchases may be best executed through direct negotiation with one or more suppliers in order to expeditiously meet the special needs of the state's vocational rehabilitation clients;

(6) Purchases by universities for hospital operation or biomedical teaching or research purposes and by the state purchasing and material control director, as the agent for state hospitals as defined in RCW 72.23.010, and for health care programs provided in state correctional institutions as defined in RCW 72.65.010(3) and veterans' institutions as defined in RCW 72.36.010 and 72.36.070, made by participating in contracts for materials, supplies, and equipment entered into by nonprofit cooperative hospital (~~(service)~~) group purchasing organizations (~~(as defined in section 501(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor)~~);

(7) Purchases by institutions of higher education not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars (~~(that are funded by research grant or contract funds, or other nonstate appropriated funds)~~): PROVIDED, That for purchases between two thousand five hundred dollars and fifteen thousand dollars quotations shall be secured from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and may be obtained by telephone or written quotations, or both. A record of competition for all such purchases made from two thousand five hundred to fifteen thousand dollars shall be documented for audit purposes (~~(on a standard state form approved by the forms management center under provisions of RCW 43.19.510)~~); and

(8) Beginning on July 1, (~~(1989)~~) 1995, and on July 1 of each succeeding odd-numbered year, the (~~(five thousand)~~) dollar limits specified in (~~(subsection (2) of)~~) this section shall be adjusted as follows: The office of financial management shall calculate such limits by adjusting the previous biennium's limits by the appropriate federal inflationary index reflecting the rate of inflation for the previous biennium. Such amounts shall be rounded to the nearest one hundred dollars.

Sec. 104. RCW 43.78.030 and 1988 c 102 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The public printer shall print and bind the session laws, the journals of the two houses of the legislature, all bills, resolutions, documents, and other printing and binding of either the senate or house, as the same may be ordered by the legislature; and such forms, blanks, record books, and printing and binding of every description as may be ordered by all state officers, boards, commissions, and institutions, and the supreme court, and the court of appeals and officers thereof, as the same may be ordered on requisition, from time to time, by the proper authorities. This section shall not apply to the printing of the supreme court and the court of appeals reports, (~~(or)~~) to the printing of bond certificates or bond offering disclosure documents, or to any printing done or contracted for by institutions of higher education: PROVIDED, That institutions of higher education, in consultation with the public printer, develop vendor selection procedures comparable to those used by the public printer for contracted printing jobs. Where any institution or institution of higher learning of the state is or may become equipped with facilities for doing such work, it may do any printing: (1) For itself, or (2) for any other state institution when such printing is done as part of a course of study relative to the profession of printer. Any printing and binding of whatever description as may be needed by any (~~(institution of higher learning,)~~) institution or agency of the state department of social and health services not at Olympia, or the supreme court or the court of appeals or any officer thereof, the estimated cost of which shall not exceed one thousand dollars, may be done by any private printing company in the general vicinity within the state of Washington so ordering, if in the judgment of the officer of the agency so ordering, the saving in time and processing justifies the award to such local private printing concern. (~~(Further, where any printing or binding needed by an institution of higher education is to be paid for from research grant or contract funds, short course revenues, or other nonstate appropriated funding source, such printing or binding may be done by any private printing company in the state of Washington, irrespective of the dollar limit specified in this section, when in the judgment of the officer of the institution so ordering, the saving in time or cost justifies the award to such local private printing concern.)~~)

Beginning on July 1, 1989, and on July 1 of each succeeding odd-numbered year, the dollar limit specified in this section shall be adjusted as follows: The office of financial management shall calculate such limit by adjusting the previous biennium's limit by an appropriate federal inflationary index reflecting the rate of inflation for the previous biennium. Such amounts shall be rounded to the nearest fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. A new section is added to chapter 43.78 RCW to read as follows:

The public printer may use the state printing plant for the purposes of printing or furnishing materials under RCW 43.78.100 if an interlocal agreement under chapter 39.34 RCW has been executed between an institution of higher education and the public printer.

Sec. 106. RCW 43.78.100 and 1965 c 8 s 43.78.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The public printer shall furnish all paper, stock, and binding materials required in all public work, and shall charge the same to the state, as it is actually used, at the actual price at which it was purchased plus five percent for waste, insurance, storage, and handling. This section does not apply to institutions of higher education.

Sec. 107. RCW 43.78.110 and 1982 c 164 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever in the judgment of the public printer certain printing, ruling, binding, or supplies can be secured from private sources more economically than by doing the work or preparing the supplies in the state printing plant, ~~((he)) the public printer~~ may obtain such work or supplies from such private sources. ~~((The public printer shall notify day training centers, group training homes, and sheltered workshops providing printing and related trade services under RCW 43.19.532 of the opportunity to bid on the provision of such work or supplies under this section.))~~

In event any work or supplies are secured on behalf of the state under this section the state printing plant shall be entitled to add up to five percent to the cost thereof to cover the handling of the orders which shall be added to the bills and charged to the respective authorities ordering the work or supplies. The five percent handling charge shall not apply to contracts with institutions of higher education.

Sec. 108. RCW 28B.50.330 and 1991 c 238 s 48 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of trustees of college districts are empowered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter to provide for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, demolition, and major alterations of buildings and other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements, or appurtenances for the use of the aforementioned colleges as authorized by the college board in accordance with RCW 28B.50.140; to be financed by bonds payable out of special funds from revenues hereafter derived from income received from such facilities, gifts, bequests, or grants, and such additional funds as the legislature may provide, and payable out of a bond retirement fund to be established by the respective district boards in accordance with rules and regulations of the state board. With respect to building, improvements, or repairs, or other work, where the estimated cost exceeds ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars, complete plans and specifications for such work shall be prepared ~~((and such work shall be prepared))~~ and such work shall be put out for public bids and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder if in accordance with the bid specifications: PROVIDED, That when such building, construction, renovation, remodeling, or demolition involves one trade or craft area and the estimated cost exceeds ten thousand dollars, complete plans and specifications for such work shall be prepared and such work shall be put out for public bids, and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder if in accordance with the bid specifications. This subsection shall not apply when a contract is awarded by the small works procedure authorized in RCW 39.04.150: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any project regardless of dollar amount may be put to public bid.

Where the estimated cost to any college of any building, improvements, or repairs, or other work, is less than ~~((five))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars, the publication requirements of RCW 39.04.020 ~~((and 39.04.070))~~ shall be inapplicable.

Sec. 109. RCW 28B.10.350 and 1985 c 152 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the cost to The Evergreen State College, any regional university, or state university, of any building, construction, renovation, remodeling, or demolition other than maintenance or repairs will equal or exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, complete plans and specifications for such work shall be prepared and such work shall be put out for public bids and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder if in accordance with the bid specifications: PROVIDED, That when the estimated cost of such building, construction, renovation, remodeling, or demolition equals or exceeds the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, such project shall be deemed a public works and "the prevailing rate of wage," under chapter 39.12 RCW shall be applicable thereto: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when such building, construction, renovation, remodeling, or demolition involves one trade or craft area and the estimated cost exceeds ten thousand dollars, complete plans and specifications for such work shall be prepared and such work shall be put out for public bids, and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder if in accordance with the bid specifications. This subsection shall not apply when a contract is awarded by the small works procedure authorized in RCW 28B.10.355.

(2) The Evergreen State College, any regional university, or state university may require a project to be put to public bid even when it is not required to do so under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Where the estimated cost to The Evergreen State College, any regional university, or state university of any building, construction, renovation, remodeling, or demolition is less than twenty-five thousand dollars or the contract is awarded by the small works procedure authorized in RCW 28B.10.355, the publication requirements of RCW 39.04.020 ~~((and 39.04.090))~~ shall be inapplicable.

(4) In the event of any emergency when the public interest or property of The Evergreen State College, regional university, or state university would suffer material injury or damage by delay, the president of such college or university may declare the existence of such an emergency and reciting the facts constituting the same may waive the requirements of this section with reference to any contract in order to correct the condition causing the emergency: PROVIDED, That an "emergency," for the purposes of this section, means a condition likely to result in immediate physical injury to persons or to property of such college or university in the absence of prompt remedial action or a condition which immediately impairs the institution's ability to perform its educational obligations.

Sec. 110. RCW 28B.10.355 and 1985 c 152 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Each board of regents of the state universities and each board of trustees of the regional universities and The Evergreen State College may establish a small works roster. The small works roster authorized by this section may be used for any public works project for which the estimated cost is less than ~~((fifty))~~ one hundred thousand dollars. Each board shall adopt rules to implement this section.

The roster shall be composed of all responsible contractors who have requested to be on the list. Each board shall establish a procedure for securing telephone or written quotations from the contractors on the small works roster to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding contracts to the lowest responsible bidder. This procedure shall require either that a good faith effort be made to request quotations from all contractors on the small works roster who have indicated the capability of performing the kind of public works being contracted or that the board shall solicit quotations from at least five contractors in a manner that will equitably distribute the opportunity among contractors on the roster. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection and available by telephone inquiry. Each board may adopt a procedure to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. No board may be required to make available for public inspection or copying under chapter 42.17 RCW financial information required to be provided by the prequalification procedure.

The small works roster shall be revised at least once each year by publishing notice of such opportunity in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the state. Responsible contractors shall be added to the list at any time they submit a written request.

Sec. 111. RCW 39.04.020 and 1986 c 282 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the state((;)) or any municipality shall determine that any public work is necessary to be done, it shall cause plans, specifications, or both thereof and an estimate of the cost of such work to be made and filed in the office of the director, supervisor, commissioner, trustee, board, or agency having by law the authority to require such work to be done. The plans, specifications, and estimates of cost shall be approved by the director, supervisor, commissioner, trustee, board, or agency and the original draft or a certified copy filed in such office before further action is taken.

If the state((;)) or such municipality shall determine that it is necessary or advisable that such work shall be executed by any means or method other than by contract or by a small works roster process, and it shall appear by such estimate that the probable cost of executing such work will exceed the sum of fifteen thousand dollars or the amounts specified in RCW 28B.10.350 or 28B.10.355 for colleges and universities, or the amounts specified in RCW 28B.50.330 or 39.04.150 for community colleges and technical colleges, then the state or such municipality shall at least fifteen days before beginning work cause such estimate, together with a description of the work, to be published at least once in a legal newspaper of general circulation published in or as near as possible to that part of the county in which such work is to be done: PROVIDED, That when any emergency shall require the immediate execution of such public work, upon a finding of the existence of such emergency by the authority having power to direct such public work to be done and duly entered of record, publication of description and estimate may be made within seven days after the commencement of the work.

Sec. 112. RCW 39.04.150 and 1988 c 36 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "agency" means the department of general administration, the department of fisheries, the department of wildlife, and the state parks and recreation commission.

(2) In addition to any other power or authority that an agency may have, each agency, alone or in concert, may establish a small works roster consisting of all qualified contractors who have requested to be included on the roster.

(3) The small works roster may make distinctions between contractors based on the geographic areas served and the nature of the work the contractor is qualified to perform. At least once every year, the agency shall advertise in a newspaper of general circulation the existence of the small works roster and shall add to the roster those contractors who request to be included on the roster.

(4) Construction, repair, or alteration projects estimated to cost less than fifty thousand dollars, or less than one hundred thousand dollars for projects managed by the department of general administration for community colleges and technical colleges, as defined under chapter 28B.50 RCW, are exempt from the requirement that the contracts be awarded after advertisement and competitive bid as defined by RCW 39.04.010. In lieu of advertisement and competitive bid, the agency shall solicit at least five quotations, confirmed in writing, from contractors chosen by random number generated by computer from the contractors on the small works roster for the category of job type involved and shall award the work to the party with the lowest quotation or reject all quotations. If the agency is unable to solicit quotations from five qualified contractors on the small works roster for a particular project, then the project shall be advertised and competitively bid. The agency shall solicit quotations randomly from contractors on the small works roster in a manner which will equitably distribute the opportunity for these contracts among contractors on the roster: PROVIDED, That whenever possible, the agency shall invite at least one proposal from a minority contractor who shall otherwise qualify to perform such work. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available by telephone request.

(5) The breaking down of any public work or improvement into units or accomplishing any public work or improvement by phases for the purpose of avoiding the minimum dollar amount for bidding is contrary to public policy and is prohibited.

(6) The director of general administration shall adopt by rule a procedure to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. Each agency shall follow the procedure adopted by the director of general administration. No agency shall be required to make available for public inspection or copying under chapter 42.17 RCW financial information required to be provided by the prequalification procedure.

(7) An agency may adopt by rule procedures to implement this section which shall not be inconsistent with the procedures adopted by the director of the department of general administration pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

PART II LOCAL TUITION AUTHORITY

Sec. 201. RCW 28B.15.031 and 1987 c 15 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "operating fees" as used in this chapter shall include the fees, other than building fees, charged all students registering at the state's colleges and universities but shall not include fees for short courses, self-supporting degree credit programs and courses, marine station work, experimental station work, correspondence or extension courses, and individual instruction and student deposits or rentals, disciplinary and library fines, which colleges and universities shall have the right to impose, laboratory, gymnasium, health, and student activity fees, or fees, charges, rentals, and other income derived from any or all revenue producing lands, buildings and facilities of the colleges or universities heretofore or hereafter acquired, constructed or installed, including but not limited to income from rooms, dormitories, dining rooms, hospitals, infirmaries, housing or student activity buildings, vehicular parking facilities, land, or the appurtenances thereon, or such other special fees as may be established by any college or university board of trustees or regents from time to time. All moneys received as operating fees at any institution of higher education shall be ~~((transmitted to the state treasurer within thirty-five days of receipt to be deposited in the state general fund))~~ deposited in a local account containing only operating fees revenue and related interest: PROVIDED, That two and one-half percent of ~~((moneys~~ received as)) operating fees ((be exempt from such deposit and)) shall be retained by the institutions, except the technical colleges, for the purposes of RCW 28B.15.820(~~PROVIDED FURTHER, That money received by institutions of higher education from the periodic payment plan authorized by RCW 28B.15.411 shall be transmitted to the state treasurer within five days following the close of registration of the appropriate quarter or semester~~)).

Sec. 202. RCW 28B.15.202 and 1992 c 231 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

Tuition fees and maximum services and activities fees at the University of Washington and at Washington State University for other than the summer term shall be as follows:

(1) For full time resident undergraduate students and all other full time resident students not in graduate study programs or enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, and doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be thirty-three percent of the per student undergraduate educational costs at the state universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be one hundred and twenty dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(2) For full time resident graduate and law students not enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, and doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be twenty-three percent of the per student graduate educational costs at the state universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be one hundred and twenty dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(3) For full time resident students enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, and doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be one hundred sixty-seven percent of such fees charged in subsection (2) of this section: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be three hundred and forty-two dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(4) For full time nonresident undergraduate students and such other full time nonresident students not in graduate study programs or enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, or doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be one hundred percent of the per student undergraduate educational costs at the state universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be three hundred and fifty-four dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(5) For full time nonresident graduate and law students not enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, and doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be sixty percent of the per student graduate educational costs at the state universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be three hundred and fifty-four dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(6) For full time nonresident students enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, and doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be one hundred sixty-seven percent of such fees charged in subsection (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be five hundred and fifty-five dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(7) The governing boards of the state universities shall charge to and collect from each student, a services and activities fee. The governing board may increase the existing fee annually, consistent with budgeting procedures set forth in RCW 28B.15.045, by a percentage not to exceed the annual percentage increase in resident undergraduate tuition fees: PROVIDED, That such percentage increase shall not apply to that portion of the services and activities fee previously committed to the repayment of bonded debt. The services and activities fee committee provided for in RCW 28B.15.045 may initiate a request to the governing board for a fee increase.

Sec. 203. RCW 28B.15.402 and 1992 c 231 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

Tuition fees and maximum services and activities fees at the regional universities and The Evergreen State College for other than the summer term shall be as follows:

(1) For full time resident undergraduate students and all other full time resident students not in graduate study programs, the total tuition fees shall be twenty-five percent of the per student undergraduate educational costs at the regional universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be seventy-six dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(2) For full time resident graduate students, the total tuition fees shall be twenty-three percent of the per student graduate educational costs at the regional universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be seventy-six dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(3) For full time nonresident undergraduate students and all other full time nonresident students not in graduate study programs, the total tuition fees shall be one hundred percent of the per student undergraduate educational costs at the regional universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be two hundred and ninety-five dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(4) For full time nonresident graduate students, the total tuition fees shall be seventy-five percent of the per student graduate educational costs at the regional universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be two hundred and ninety-five dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(5) The governing boards of each of the regional universities and The Evergreen State College shall charge to and collect from each student, a services and activities fee. The governing board may increase the existing fee annually, consistent with budgeting procedures set forth in RCW 28B.15.045, by a percentage not to exceed the annual percentage increase in resident undergraduate tuition fees: PROVIDED, That such percentage increase shall not apply to that portion of the services and activities fee previously committed to the repayment of bonded debt. The services and activities fee committee provided for in RCW 28B.15.045 may initiate a request to the governing board for a fee increase.

Sec. 204. RCW 28B.15.502 and 1992 c 231 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

Tuition fees and maximum services and activities fees at each community college for other than the summer term shall be set by the state board for community and technical colleges as follows:

(1) For full time resident students, the total tuition fees shall be twenty-three percent of the per student educational costs at the community colleges computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be one hundred and twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(2) For full time nonresident students, the total tuition fees shall be one hundred percent of the per student educational costs at the community colleges computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be four hundred and three dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(3) The governing boards of each of the state community colleges shall charge to and collect from each student a services and activities fee. Each governing board may increase the existing fee annually, consistent with budgeting procedures set forth in RCW 28B.15.045, by a percentage not to exceed the annual percentage increase in resident student tuition fees: PROVIDED, That such percentage increase shall not apply to that portion of the services and activities fee previously committed to the repayment of bonded debt. The services and activities fee committee provided for in RCW 28B.15.045 may initiate a request to the governing board for a fee increase.

(4) Tuition and services and activities fees consistent with subsection (3) of this section shall be set by the state board for community and technical colleges for summer school students unless the community college charges fees in accordance with RCW 28B.15.515.

Subject to the limitations of RCW 28B.15.910, each governing board may charge such fees for ungraded courses, noncredit courses, community services courses, and self-supporting courses as it, in its discretion, may determine, consistent with the rules and regulations of the state board for community and technical colleges.

Before June 30, 1995, no individual waiver program under this section may be reduced by more than twice the percentage reduction required in operating fee foregone revenue from tuition waivers in the biennial state appropriations act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. A new section is added to chapter 28B.15 RCW to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that:

In making appropriations from the state's general fund to institutions of higher education, each appropriation shall conform to the following:

(1) The appropriation shall be reduced by the amount of operating fees revenue estimated to be collected from students enrolled at the state-funded enrollment level specified in the omnibus biennial operating appropriations act and the estimated interest on operating fees revenue, minus obligations under RCW 28B.15.820 and 43.991.040 and minus the amount of waived operating fees authorized under RCW 28B.15.910;

(2) The appropriation shall not be reduced by the amount of operating fees revenue collected from students enrolled above the state-funded level, but within the over-enrollment limitations, specified in the omnibus biennial operating appropriations act; and

(3) The general fund state appropriation shall not be reduced by the amount of operating fees revenue collected as a result of waiving less operating fees revenue than the amounts authorized under RCW 28B.15.910.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. RCW 28B.15.824 and 1992 c 231 s 36 are each repealed.

PART III EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. A new section is added to chapter 41.56 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the entities listed in RCW 41.56.020, this chapter shall apply to institutions of higher education with respect to the employees classified under chapter 28B.16 RCW or covered by a bargaining agreement under section 304(3) of this act.

Sec. 302. RCW 41.56.030 and 1992 c 36 s 2 and 1991 c 363 s 119 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:
As used in this chapter:

(1) "Public employer" means any officer, board, commission, council, or other person or body acting on behalf of any public body governed by this chapter (~~as designated by RCW 41.56.020~~), or any subdivision of such public body. For the purposes of this section, the public employer of district court or superior court employees for wage-related matters is the respective county legislative authority, or person or body acting on behalf of the legislative authority, and the public employer for nonwage-related matters is the judge or judge's designee of the respective district court or superior court.

(2) "Public employee" means any employee of a public employer except any person (a) elected by popular vote, or (b) appointed to office pursuant to statute, ordinance or resolution for a specified term of office by the executive head or body of the public employer, or (c) whose duties as deputy, administrative assistant or secretary necessarily imply a confidential relationship to the executive head or body of the applicable bargaining unit, or any person elected by popular vote or appointed to office pursuant to statute, ordinance or resolution for a specified term of office by the executive head or body of the public employer, or (d) who is a personal assistant to a district court judge, superior court judge, or court commissioner. For the purpose of (d) of this subsection, no more than one assistant for each judge or commissioner may be excluded from a bargaining unit.

(3) "Bargaining representative" means any lawful organization which has as one of its primary purposes the representation of employees in their employment relations with employers.

(4) "Collective bargaining" means the performance of the mutual obligations of the public employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times, to confer and negotiate in good faith, and to execute a written agreement with respect to grievance procedures and collective negotiations on personnel matters, including wages, hours and working conditions, which may be peculiar to an appropriate bargaining unit of such public employer, except that by such obligation neither party shall be compelled to agree to a proposal or be required to make a concession unless otherwise provided in this chapter. In the case of the Washington state patrol, "collective bargaining" shall not include wages and wage-related matters.

(5) "Commission" means the public employment relations commission.

(6) "Executive director" means the executive director of the commission.

(7) "Uniformed personnel" means (a) law enforcement officers as defined in RCW 41.26.030 as now or hereafter amended, of cities with a population of fifteen thousand or more or law enforcement officers employed by the governing body of any county with a population of seventy thousand or more, or (b) fire fighters as that term is defined in RCW 41.26.030, as now or hereafter amended.

(8) "Institution of higher education" means the same as the definition in RCW 28B.10.016.

Sec. 303. RCW 41.58.020 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 296 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be the duty of the commission, in order to prevent or minimize interruptions growing out of labor disputes, to assist employers and employees to settle such disputes through mediation and fact-finding.

(2) The commission, through the director, may proffer its services in any labor dispute (~~(involving a political subdivision, municipal corporation, or the community college system of the state)~~) arising under a collective bargaining statute administered by the commission, either upon its own motion or upon the request of one or more of the parties to the dispute, whenever in its judgment such dispute threatens to cause a substantial disruption to the public welfare.

(3) If the director is not able to bring the parties to agreement by mediation within a reasonable time, he shall seek to induce the parties to voluntarily seek other means of settling the dispute without resort to strike or other coercion, including submission to the employees in the bargaining unit of the employer's last offer of settlement for approval or rejection in a secret ballot. The failure or refusal of either party to agree to any procedure suggested by the director shall not be deemed a violation of any duty or obligation imposed by this chapter.

(4) Final adjustment by a method agreed upon by the parties is declared to be the desirable method for settlement of grievance disputes arising over the application or interpretation of an existing collective bargaining agreement. The commission is directed to make its mediation and fact-finding services available in the settlement of such grievance disputes only as a last resort.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 304. A new section is added to chapter 41.56 RCW to read as follows:

On the effective date of this section, all collective bargaining rights and obligations concerning relations between the institutions of higher education and their employees classified under chapter 28B.16 RCW shall be transferred to this chapter, subject to the following:

(1) The commission shall recognize, in their current form, all bargaining units certified by the higher education personnel board as of the effective date of this section.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section:

(a) Collective bargaining under this section is limited to negotiation of grievance procedures and personnel matters over which the institution of higher education or related board may lawfully exercise discretion; and

(b) Terms of a collective bargaining agreement negotiated under this section, if in conflict with rules or policies by the higher education personnel board under chapter 28B.16 RCW are void and unenforceable to the extent of the conflict.

(3) At any time after the effective date of this section, an institution of higher education and the exclusive bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of employees classified under chapter 28B.16 RCW may exercise their option to have their relationship and corresponding obligations governed entirely by the provisions of this chapter, by filing notice of the parties' intent to be so governed, subject to the mutual adoption of a collective bargaining agreement recognizing the notice of intent. The parties shall provide the notice to the higher education personnel board and the commission. On the first day of the month following the month during which a collective bargaining agreement is executed by the parties recognizing the notice of intent and notice of the execution of the agreement and a copy of the agreement are received by the higher education personnel board and commission, chapter 28B.16 RCW shall cease to apply to all employees in the bargaining unit covered by the agreement, and the limitations on collective bargaining contained in RCW 41.56.100 and subsection (2) of this section shall cease to apply to that bargaining unit.

(4) If an institution of higher education and the exclusive bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of its employees agree to exercise the option to have their relationship and corresponding obligations governed entirely by this chapter, salary increases negotiated thereafter for the employees in the bargaining unit shall be subject to the following:

(a) Salary increases shall continue to be appropriated by the legislature. The exclusive bargaining representative shall meet before a legislative session with the governor or governor's designee and the representative of the institution of higher education concerning the total dollar amount for salary increases and health care contributions that will be contained in the appropriations proposed by the governor under RCW 43.88.060;

(b) The collective bargaining agreements may provide for salary increases that are different from or that exceed the amount or percentage for salary increases provided by the legislature in the omnibus appropriations act for the institution of higher education or allocated to the board of trustees by the state board for community and technical colleges, but the base for salary increases provided by the legislature under (a) of this subsection shall include only those amounts appropriated by the legislature, and the base shall not include any additional salary increases provided under this subsection (4)(b);

(c) Any provisions of the collective bargaining agreements pertaining to salary increases provided under (a) of this subsection shall be subject to modification by the legislature. If any provision of a salary increase provided under (a) of this subsection is changed by subsequent modification of the appropriations act by the legislature, both parties shall immediately enter into collective bargaining for the sole purpose of arriving at a mutually agreed upon replacement for the modified provision.

(5) Nothing in this section may be construed to require any institution of higher education to bargain collectively with any exclusive bargaining representative concerning any matter covered by chapter 41.05 RCW, except for the related cost or dollar contributions, or chapter 41.32 or 41.40 RCW.

Sec. 305. RCW 28B.16.040 and 1990 c 60 s 201 are each amended to read as follows:

The following classifications, positions, and employees of institutions of higher education and related boards are hereby exempted from coverage of this chapter:

(1) Members of the governing board of each institution and related boards, all presidents, vice presidents and their confidential secretaries, administrative and personal assistants; deans, directors, and ~~((chairmen))~~ chairpersons; academic personnel; and executive heads of major administrative or academic divisions employed by institutions of higher education; principal assistants to executive heads of major administrative or academic divisions; other managerial or professional employees in an institution or related board having substantial responsibility for directing or controlling program operations and accountable for allocation of resources and program results, or for the formulation of institutional policy, or for carrying out personnel administration or labor relations functions, legislative relations, public information, development, senior computer systems and network programming, or internal audits and investigations; and any employee of a community college district whose place of work is one which is physically located outside the state of Washington and who is employed pursuant to RCW 28B.50.092 and assigned to an educational program operating outside of the state of Washington.

(2) Student, part time, or temporary employees, and part time professional consultants, as defined by the higher education personnel board, employed by institutions of higher education and related boards.

(3) The director, ~~((his))~~ the director's confidential secretary, assistant directors, and professional education employees of the state board for community and technical colleges ~~((education))~~.

(4) The personnel director of the higher education personnel board and ~~((his))~~ the director's confidential secretary.

(5) The governing board of each institution, and related boards, may also exempt from this chapter, subject to the employees right of appeal to the higher education personnel board, classifications involving research activities, counseling of students, extension or continuing education activities, graphic arts or publications activities requiring prescribed academic preparation or special training, ~~((and principal assistants to executive heads of major administrative or academic divisions,))~~ as determined by the higher education personnel board: PROVIDED, That no nonacademic employee engaged in office, clerical, maintenance, or food and trade services may be exempted by the higher education personnel board under this provision.

Any classified employee having civil service status in a classified position who accepts an appointment in an exempt position shall have the right of reversion to the highest class of position previously held, or to a position of similar nature and salary.

A person occupying an exempt position who is terminated from the position for gross misconduct or malfeasance does not have the right of reversion to a classified position as provided for in this section.

Sec. 306. RCW 28B.16.100 and 1990 c 60 s 202 are each amended to read as follows:

The higher education personnel board shall adopt rules, consistent with the purposes and provisions of this chapter and with the best standards of personnel administration, regarding the basis and procedures to be followed for:

(1) The dismissal, suspension, or demotion of an employee, and appeals therefrom;

(2) Certification of names for vacancies, including promotions, with the number of names equal to four more names than there are vacancies to be filled, such names representing applicants rated highest on eligibility lists: PROVIDED, That when other applicants have scores equal to the lowest score among the names certified, their names shall also be certified;

(3) Examination for all positions in the competitive and noncompetitive service;

(4) Appointments;

(5) Probationary periods of six to twelve months and rejections therein, depending on the job requirements of the class;

(6) Transfers;

(7) Sick leaves and vacations;

(8) Hours of work;

(9) Layoffs when necessary and subsequent reemployment, both according to seniority;

(10) ~~((Determination of appropriate bargaining units within any institution or related boards: PROVIDED, That in making such determination the board shall consider the duties, skills, and working conditions of the employees, the history of collective bargaining by the employees and their bargaining representatives, the extent of organization among the employees, and the desires of the employees;~~

~~((11) Certification and decertification of exclusive bargaining representatives: PROVIDED, That after certification of an exclusive bargaining representative and upon the representative's request, the director shall hold an election among employees in a bargaining unit to determine by a majority whether to require as a condition of employment membership in the certified exclusive bargaining representative on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of employment or the date of such election, whichever is the later, and the failure of an employee to comply with such condition of employment constitutes cause for dismissal: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no more often than once in each twelve-month period after expiration of twelve months following the date of the original election in a bargaining unit and upon petition of thirty percent of the members of a bargaining unit the director shall hold an election to determine whether a majority wish to rescind such condition of employment: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for purposes of this clause, membership in the certified exclusive bargaining representative is satisfied by the payment of monthly or other periodic dues and does not require payment of initiation, reinstatement, or any other fees or fines and includes full and~~

complete membership rights: ~~AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to safeguard the right of nonassociation of public employees, based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such public employee is a member, such public employee shall pay to the union, for purposes within the program of the union as designated by such employee that would be in harmony with his individual conscience, an amount of money equivalent to regular union dues minus any included monthly premiums for union-sponsored insurance programs, and such employee shall not be a member of the union but is entitled to all the representation rights of a union member;~~

~~(12) Agreements between institutions or related boards and certified exclusive bargaining representatives providing for grievance procedures and collective negotiations on all personnel matters over which the institution or the related board may lawfully exercise discretion;~~

~~(13) Written agreements may contain provisions for payroll deductions of employee organization dues upon authorization by the employee member and for the cancellation of such payroll deduction by the filing of a proper prior notice by the employee with the institution and the employee organization: PROVIDED, That nothing contained herein permits or grants to any employee the right to strike or refuse to perform his official duties;~~

~~(14)) Adoption and revision of comprehensive classification plans for all positions in the classified service, based on investigation and analysis of the duties and responsibilities of each such position;~~

~~((15)) (11) Allocation and reallocation of positions within the classification plan;~~

~~((16)) (12) Adoption and revision of salary schedules and compensation plans which reflect the prevailing rates in Washington state private industries and other governmental units for positions of a similar nature but the rates in the salary schedules or plans shall be increased if necessary to attain comparable worth under an implementation plan under RCW 28B.16.116 and which shall be competitive in the state or the locality in which the institution or related boards are located, such adoption, revision, and implementation subject to approval as to availability of funds by the director of financial management in accordance with the provisions of chapter 43.88 RCW, and after consultation with the chief financial officer of each institution or related board for that institution or board, or in the case of community colleges, by the chief financial officer of the state board for community and technical colleges ~~((education))~~ for the various community colleges;~~

~~((17)) (13) Training programs including in-service, promotional, and supervisory;~~

~~((18)) (14) Increment increases within the series of steps for each pay grade based on length of service for all employees whose standards of performance are such as to permit them to retain job status in the classified service;~~

~~((19)) (15) Providing for veteran's preference as provided by existing statutes, with recognition of preference in regard to layoffs and subsequent reemployment for veterans and their ~~((widows)) surviving spouses~~ by giving such eligible veterans and their ~~((widows)) surviving spouses~~ additional credit in computing their seniority by adding to their unbroken higher education service, as defined by the board, the veteran's service in the military not to exceed five years of such service. For the purposes of this section, "veteran" means any person who has one or more years of active military service in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or who has less than one year's service and is discharged with a disability incurred in the line of duty or is discharged at the convenience of the government and who, upon termination of such service, has received an honorable discharge, a discharge for physical reasons with an honorable record, or a release from active military service with evidence of service other than that for which an undesirable, bad conduct, or dishonorable discharge shall be given: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the ~~((widow)) surviving spouse~~ of a veteran is entitled to the benefits of this section regardless of the veteran's length of active military service: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the purposes of this section "veteran" does not include any person who has voluntarily retired with twenty or more years of active military service and whose military retirement pay is in excess of five hundred dollars per month;~~

~~((20)) (16) Assuring that persons who are or have been employed in classified positions under chapter 41.06 RCW will be eligible for employment, reemployment, transfer, and promotion in respect to classified positions covered by this chapter; ~~((and~~~~

~~(21)) (17) Assuring that any person who is or has been employed in a classified position under this chapter will be eligible for employment, reemployment, transfer, and promotion in respect to classified positions at any other institution of higher education or related board~~(-); and~~~~

~~((22)) (18) Affirmative action in appointment, promotion, transfer, recruitment, training, and career development; development and implementation of affirmative action goals and timetables; and monitoring of progress against those goals and timetables.~~

The board shall consult with the human rights commission in the development of rules consistent with federal guidelines pertaining to affirmative action. The board shall transmit a report annually to the human rights commission which states the progress each institution of higher education has made in meeting affirmative action goals and timetables.

Sec. 307. RCW 28B.16.200 and 1979 c 151 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a fund within the state treasury, designated as the "higher education personnel board service fund," to be used by the board as a revolving fund for the payment of salaries, wages, and operations required for the administration of the provisions of this chapter, the budget for which shall be subject to review and approval and appropriation by the legislature. Subject to the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, an amount not to exceed one-half of one percent of the salaries and wages for all positions in the classified service shall be contributed from the operations appropriations of each institution and the state board for community and technical colleges ~~((education))~~ and credited to the higher education personnel board service fund as such allotments are approved pursuant to chapter 43.88 RCW. Subject to the above limitations, such amount shall be charged against the allotments pro rata, at a rate to be fixed by the director of financial management from time to time, which will provide the board with funds to meet its anticipated expenditures during the allotment period.

(2) If employees cease to be classified under this chapter pursuant to an agreement authorized by section 304 of this act, each institution of higher education and the state board for community and technical colleges shall continue, for six months after the effective date of the agreement, to make contributions to the higher education personnel board service fund based on employee salaries and wages that includes the employees under the agreement. At the expiration of the six-month period, the director of financial management shall make across-the-board reductions in allotments of the higher education personnel board service fund for the remainder of the biennium so that the charge to the institutions of higher education and state board based on the salaries and wages of the remaining employees classified under this chapter does not increase during the biennium, unless an increase is authorized by the legislature. The director of financial management shall report the amount and impact of any across-the-board reductions made under this section to the appropriations committee of the house of representatives and the ways and means committee of the senate, or appropriate successor committees, within thirty days of making the reductions.

(3) Moneys from the higher education personnel board service fund shall be disbursed by the state treasurer by warrants on vouchers duly authorized by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 308. A new section is added to chapter 28B.16 RCW to read as follows:

At any time after the effective date of this section, an institution of higher education and the exclusive bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of employees classified under this chapter may exercise their option to have their relationship and corresponding obligations governed entirely by the provisions of chapter 41.56 RCW, by filing notice of the parties' intent to be so governed, subject to the mutual adoption of a collective bargaining agreement recognizing the notice of intent. The parties shall provide the notice to the board and the public employment relations commission. On the first day of the month following the month during which a collective bargaining agreement is executed by the parties recognizing the notice of intent and notice of the execution of the agreement and a copy of the agreement are received by the board and the public employment relations commission, this chapter shall cease to apply to all employees in the bargaining unit covered by the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 309. (1) On the effective date of this section, the labor relations functions of the higher education personnel board set forth in chapter 36, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. shall be transferred to the commission.

(2) On the effective date of this section, all business pending before the higher education personnel board that pertains to the functions transferred to the commission by this section shall be continued and acted upon by the commission. All existing contracts and obligations pertaining to such functions shall remain in full force and effect, but shall be performed by the commission in lieu of the higher education personnel board. The transfer of any functions shall not affect the validity of any act performed by the higher education personnel board or any officer or employee thereof before the effective date of the transferral of such functions.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, contracts or agreements are authorized between the commission and the higher education personnel board with respect to functions transferred by this section. Such contract or agreement may provide for an employee or employees of the higher education personnel board or other person or persons to continue to provide services relating to pending business that is transferred to the commission as of the effective date of this section, until such pending business is completed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 310. (1) All employees of the higher education personnel board classified under the provisions of chapter 28B.16 RCW, the higher education personnel law, whose positions are entirely concerned with functions transferred to the commission by section 309 of this act, shall be transferred to the jurisdiction of the commission.

(2) All funds, reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or other writings in the possession of the higher education personnel board pertaining to the functions transferred to the commission by section 309 of this act shall by the effective date of this section, be delivered to the custody of the commission. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed in carrying out the functions transferred by section 309 of this act shall by the effective date of this section be transferred to the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 311. RCW 28B.16.230 and 1973 c 62 s 6 & 1969 ex.s. c 215 s 14 are each repealed.

PART IV MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. The sum of . . . dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1995, from each public four-year institution's and the community colleges' operating fees account established in RCW 28B.15.824 to the respective institution's local account for the purposes of sections 201 through 205 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 403. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."

MOTION

Senator Bauer moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature acknowledges the academic freedom of institutions of higher education, and seeks to improve their efficiency and effectiveness in carrying out their missions. By this act, the legislature intends to increase the flexibility of institutions of higher education to manage personnel, construction, purchasing, printing, and tuition.

PART I PURCHASING, PRINTING, AND CONSTRUCTION AUTHORITY

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An institution of higher education may exercise independently those powers otherwise granted to the director of general administration in chapter 43.19 RCW in connection with the purchase and disposition of all material, supplies, services, and equipment needed for the support, maintenance, and use of the respective institution of higher education. Property disposition policies followed by institutions of higher education shall be consistent with policies followed by the department of general administration. Purchasing policies and procedures followed by institutions of higher education shall be in compliance with chapters 39.19, 39.29, and 43.03 RCW, and RCW 43.19.1901, 43.19.1906, 43.19.1911, 43.19.1917, 43.19.1937, 43.19.534, 43.19.685, 43.19.700 through 43.19.704, and 43.19.550 through 43.19.637. The community and technical colleges shall comply with RCW 43.19.450. Except for the University of Washington, institutions of higher education shall comply with RCW 43.19.1935, 43.19.19363, and 43.19.19368. If an institution of higher education can satisfactorily demonstrate to the director of the office of financial management that the cost of compliance is greater than the value of benefits from any of the following statutes, then it shall be exempt from them: RCW 43.19.685; 43.19.534; and 43.19.637. Any institution of higher education that chooses to exercise independent purchasing authority for a commodity or group of commodities shall notify the director of general administration.

Thereafter the director of general administration shall not be required to provide those services for that institution for the duration of the general administration contract term for that commodity or group of commodities.

(2) An institution of higher education may exercise independently those powers otherwise granted to the public printer in chapter 43.78 RCW in connection with the production or purchase of any printing and binding needed by the respective institution of higher education. Purchasing policies and procedures followed by institutions of higher education shall be in compliance with chapter 39.19 RCW. Any institution of higher education that chooses to exercise independent printing production or purchasing authority shall notify the public printer. Thereafter the public printer shall not be required to provide those services for that institution.

Sec. 102. RCW 43.19.190 and 1991 c 238 s 135 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of general administration, through the state purchasing and material control director, shall:

(1) Establish and staff such administrative organizational units within the division of purchasing as may be necessary for effective administration of the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939;

(2) Purchase all material, supplies, services, and equipment needed for the support, maintenance, and use of all state institutions, colleges, community colleges, technical colleges, college districts, and universities, the offices of the elective state officers, the supreme court, the court of appeals, the administrative and other departments of state government, and the offices of all appointive officers of the state: PROVIDED, That the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1937 do not apply in any manner to the operation of the state legislature except as requested by said legislature: PROVIDED, That primary authority for the purchase of specialized equipment, instructional, and research material for their own use shall rest with the colleges, community colleges, and universities: PROVIDED FURTHER, That universities operating hospitals and the state purchasing and material control director, as the agent for state hospitals as defined in RCW 72.23.010, and for health care programs provided in state correctional institutions as defined in RCW 72.65.010(3) and veterans' institutions as defined in RCW 72.36.010 and 72.36.070, may make purchases for hospital operation by participating in contracts for materials, supplies, and equipment entered into by nonprofit cooperative hospital ((service)) group purchasing organizations ((as defined in section 501(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor)): PROVIDED FURTHER, That primary authority for the purchase of materials, supplies, and equipment for resale to other than public agencies shall rest with the state agency concerned: PROVIDED FURTHER, That authority to purchase services as included herein does not apply to personal services as defined in chapter 39.29 RCW, unless such organization specifically requests assistance from the division of purchasing in obtaining personal services and resources are available within the division to provide such assistance: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the authority for the purchase of insurance and bonds shall rest with the risk manager under RCW 43.19.1935 ((as now or hereafter amended)): PROVIDED FURTHER, That, except for the authority of the risk manager to purchase insurance and bonds, the director is not required to provide purchasing services for institutions of higher education that choose to exercise independent purchasing authority under section 101 of this act;

(3) Provide the required staff assistance for the state supply management advisory board through the division of purchasing;

(4) Have authority to delegate to state agencies authorization to purchase or sell, which authorization shall specify restrictions as to dollar amount or to specific types of material, equipment, services, and supplies: PROVIDED, That acceptance of the purchasing authorization by a state agency does not relieve such agency from conformance with other sections of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939, ((as now or hereafter amended,)) or from policies established by the director after consultation with the state supply management advisory board: PROVIDED FURTHER, That delegation of such authorization to a state agency, including an educational institution to which this section applies, to purchase or sell material, equipment, services, and supplies shall not be granted, or otherwise continued under a previous authorization, if such agency is not in substantial compliance with overall state purchasing and material control policies as established herein;

(5) Contract for the testing of material, supplies, and equipment with public and private agencies as necessary and advisable to protect the interests of the state;

(6) Prescribe the manner of inspecting all deliveries of supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division;

(7) Prescribe the manner in which supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division shall be delivered, stored, and distributed;

(8) Provide for the maintenance of a catalogue library, manufacturers' and wholesalers' lists, and current market information;

(9) Provide for a commodity classification system and may, in addition, provide for the adoption of standard specifications after receiving the recommendation of the supply management advisory board;

(10) Provide for the maintenance of inventory records of supplies, materials, and other property;

(11) Prepare rules and regulations governing the relationship and procedures between the division of purchasing and state agencies and vendors;

(12) Publish procedures and guidelines for compliance by all state agencies, including those educational institutions to which this section applies, which implement overall state purchasing and material control policies;

(13) Conduct periodic visits to state agencies, including those educational institutions to which this section applies, to determine if statutory provisions and supporting purchasing and material control policies are being fully implemented, and based upon such visits, take corrective action to achieve compliance with established purchasing and material control policies under existing statutes when required.

Sec. 103. RCW 43.19.1906 and 1992 c 85 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Insofar as practicable, all purchases and sales shall be based on competitive bids, and a formal sealed bid procedure shall be used as standard procedure for all purchases and contracts for purchases and sales executed by the state purchasing and material control director and under the powers granted by RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939 ((, as now or hereafter amended)). This requirement also applies to purchases and contracts for purchases and sales executed by agencies, including educational institutions, under delegated authority granted in accordance with provisions of RCW 43.19.190 ((as now or hereafter amended)) or under section 101 of this act. However, formal sealed bidding is not necessary for:

(1) Emergency purchases made pursuant to RCW 43.19.200 if the sealed bidding procedure would prevent or hinder the emergency from being met appropriately;

(2) Purchases not exceeding five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management: PROVIDED, That the state director of general administration shall establish procedures to assure that purchases made by or on behalf of the various state agencies shall not be made so as to avoid the five thousand dollar bid limitation, or subsequent bid limitations as calculated by the office of financial management: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state purchasing and material control director is authorized to reduce the formal sealed bid limits of five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management, to a lower dollar amount for purchases by individual state agencies (~~(including purchases of specialized equipment, instructional, and research equipment and materials by colleges and universities;)~~) if considered necessary to maintain full disclosure of competitive procurement or otherwise to achieve overall state efficiency and economy in purchasing and material control. Quotations from four hundred dollars to five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management, shall be secured from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and may be obtained by telephone or written quotations, or both. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry. A record of competition for all such purchases from four hundred dollars to five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management, shall be documented for audit purposes on a standard state form approved by the forms management center under the provisions of RCW 43.19.510. Purchases up to four hundred dollars may be made without competitive bids based on buyer experience and knowledge of the market in achieving maximum quality at minimum cost: PROVIDED, That this four hundred dollar direct buy limit without competitive bids may be increased incrementally as required to a maximum of eight hundred dollars with the approval of at least ten of the members of the state supply management advisory board, if warranted by increases in purchasing costs due to inflationary trends;

(3) Purchases which are clearly and legitimately limited to a single source of supply and purchases involving special facilities, services, or market conditions, in which instances the purchase price may be best established by direct negotiation;

(4) Purchases of insurance and bonds by the risk management office under RCW 43.19.1935 (~~(as now or hereafter amended)~~);

(5) Purchases and contracts for vocational rehabilitation clients of the department of social and health services:

PROVIDED, That this exemption is effective only when the state purchasing and material control director, after consultation with the director of the division of vocational rehabilitation and appropriate department of social and health services procurement personnel, declares that such purchases may be best executed through direct negotiation with one or more suppliers in order to expeditiously meet the special needs of the state's vocational rehabilitation clients;

(6) Purchases by universities for hospital operation or biomedical teaching or research purposes and by the state purchasing and material control director, as the agent for state hospitals as defined in RCW 72.23.010, and for health care programs provided in state correctional institutions as defined in RCW 72.65.010(3) and veterans' institutions as defined in RCW 72.36.010 and 72.36.070, made by participating in contracts for materials, supplies, and equipment entered into by nonprofit cooperative hospital (~~(service)~~) group purchasing organizations (~~(as defined in section 504(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor)~~);

(7) Purchases by institutions of higher education not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars (~~(that are funded by research grant or contract funds, or other nonstate appropriated funds)~~): PROVIDED, That for purchases between two thousand five hundred dollars and fifteen thousand dollars quotations shall be secured from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and may be obtained by telephone or written quotations, or both. A record of competition for all such purchases made from two thousand five hundred to fifteen thousand dollars shall be documented for audit purposes (~~(on a standard state form approved by the forms management center under provisions of RCW 43.19.540)~~); and

(8) Beginning on July 1, (~~(1989)~~) 1995, and on July 1 of each succeeding odd-numbered year, the (~~(five thousand)~~) dollar limits specified in (~~(subsection (2) of)~~) this section shall be adjusted as follows: The office of financial management shall calculate such limits by adjusting the previous biennium's limits by the appropriate federal inflationary index reflecting the rate of inflation for the previous biennium. Such amounts shall be rounded to the nearest one hundred dollars.

Sec. 104. RCW 43.78.030 and 1988 c 102 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The public printer shall print and bind the session laws, the journals of the legislature, all bills, resolutions, documents, and other printing and binding of either the senate or house, as the same may be ordered by the legislature; and such forms, blanks, record books, and printing and binding of every description as may be ordered by all state officers, boards, commissions, and institutions, and the supreme court, and the court of appeals and officers thereof, as the same may be ordered on requisition, from time to time, by the proper authorities. This section shall not apply to the printing of the supreme court and the court of appeals reports, (~~(or)~~) to the printing of bond certificates or bond offering disclosure documents, or to any printing done or contracted for by institutions of higher education: PROVIDED, That institutions of higher education, in consultation with the public printer, develop vendor selection procedures comparable to those used by the public printer for contracted printing jobs. Where any institution or institution of higher learning of the state is or may become equipped with facilities for doing such work, it may do any printing: (1) For itself, or (2) for any other state institution when such printing is done as part of a course of study relative to the profession of printer. Any printing and binding of whatever description as may be needed by any (~~(institution of higher learning,)~~) institution or agency of the state department of social and health services not at Olympia, or the supreme court or the court of appeals or any officer thereof, the estimated cost of which shall not exceed one thousand dollars, may be done by any private printing company in the general vicinity within the state of Washington so ordering, if in the judgment of the officer of the agency so ordering, the saving in time and processing justifies the award to such local private printing concern. (~~(Further, where any printing or binding needed by an institution of higher education is to be paid for from research grant or contract funds, short course revenues, or other nonstate appropriated funding source, such printing or binding may be done by any private printing company in the state of Washington, irrespective of the dollar limit specified in this section, when in the judgment of the officer of the institution so ordering, the saving in time or cost justifies the award to such local private printing concern.)~~)

Beginning on July 1, 1989, and on July 1 of each succeeding odd-numbered year, the dollar limit specified in this section shall be adjusted as follows: The office of financial management shall calculate such limit by adjusting the previous biennium's limit by an appropriate federal inflationary index reflecting the rate of inflation for the previous biennium. Such amounts shall be rounded to the nearest fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. A new section is added to chapter 43.78 RCW to read as follows:

The public printer may use the state printing plant for the purposes of printing or furnishing materials under RCW 43.78.100 if an interlocal agreement under chapter 39.34 RCW has been executed between an institution of higher education and the public printer.

Sec. 106. RCW 43.78.100 and 1965 c 8 s 43.78.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The public printer shall furnish all paper, stock, and binding materials required in all public work, and shall charge the same to the state, as it is actually used, at the actual price at which it was purchased plus five percent for waste, insurance, storage, and handling. This section does not apply to institutions of higher education.

Sec. 107. RCW 43.78.110 and 1982 c 164 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever in the judgment of the public printer certain printing, ruling, binding, or supplies can be secured from private sources more economically than by doing the work or preparing the supplies in the state printing plant, ~~((he)) the public printer~~ may obtain such work or supplies from such private sources. ~~((The public printer shall notify day training centers, group training homes, and sheltered workshops providing printing and related trade services under RCW 43.19.532 of the opportunity to bid on the provision of such work or supplies under this section.))~~

In event any work or supplies are secured on behalf of the state under this section the state printing plant shall be entitled to add up to five percent to the cost thereof to cover the handling of the orders which shall be added to the bills and charged to the respective authorities ordering the work or supplies. The five percent handling charge shall not apply to contracts with institutions of higher education.

Sec. 108. RCW 28B.50.330 and 1991 c 238 s 48 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of trustees of college districts are empowered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter to provide for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, demolition, and major alterations of buildings and other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements, or appurtenances for the use of the aforementioned colleges as authorized by the college board in accordance with RCW 28B.50.140; to be financed by bonds payable out of special funds from revenues hereafter derived from income received from such facilities, gifts, bequests, or grants, and such additional funds as the legislature may provide, and payable out of a bond retirement fund to be established by the respective district boards in accordance with rules and regulations of the state board. With respect to building, improvements, or repairs, or other work, where the estimated cost exceeds ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars, complete plans and specifications for such work shall be prepared ~~((and such work shall be prepared))~~ and such work shall be put out for public bids and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder if in accordance with the bid specifications: PROVIDED, That when such building, construction, renovation, remodeling, or demolition involves one trade or craft area and the estimated cost exceeds ten thousand dollars, complete plans and specifications for such work shall be prepared and such work shall be put out for public bids, and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder if in accordance with the bid specifications. This subsection shall not apply when a contract is awarded by the small works procedure authorized in RCW 39.04.150: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any project regardless of dollar amount may be put to public bid.

Where the estimated cost to any college of any building, improvements, or repairs, or other work, is less than ~~((five))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars, the publication requirements of RCW 39.04.020 ~~((and 39.04.070))~~ shall be inapplicable.

Sec. 109. RCW 28B.10.350 and 1985 c 152 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the cost to The Evergreen State College, any regional university, or state university, of any building, construction, renovation, remodeling, or demolition other than maintenance or repairs will equal or exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, complete plans and specifications for such work shall be prepared and such work shall be put out for public bids and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder if in accordance with the bid specifications: PROVIDED, That when the estimated cost of such building, construction, renovation, remodeling, or demolition equals or exceeds the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, such project shall be deemed a public works and "the prevailing rate of wage," under chapter 39.12 RCW shall be applicable thereto: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when such building, construction, renovation, remodeling, or demolition involves one trade or craft area and the estimated cost exceeds ten thousand dollars, complete plans and specifications for such work shall be prepared and such work shall be put out for public bids, and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder if in accordance with the bid specifications. This subsection shall not apply when a contract is awarded by the small works procedure authorized in RCW 28B.10.355.

(2) The Evergreen State College, any regional university, or state university may require a project to be put to public bid even when it is not required to do so under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Where the estimated cost to The Evergreen State College, any regional university, or state university of any building, construction, renovation, remodeling, or demolition is less than twenty-five thousand dollars or the contract is awarded by the small works procedure authorized in RCW 28B.10.355, the publication requirements of RCW 39.04.020 ~~((and 39.04.090))~~ shall be inapplicable.

(4) In the event of any emergency when the public interest or property of The Evergreen State College, regional university, or state university would suffer material injury or damage by delay, the president of such college or university may declare the existence of such an emergency and reciting the facts constituting the same may waive the requirements of this section with reference to any contract in order to correct the condition causing the emergency: PROVIDED, That an "emergency," for the purposes of this section, means a condition likely to result in immediate physical injury to persons or to property of such college or university in the absence of prompt remedial action or a condition which immediately impairs the institution's ability to perform its educational obligations.

Sec. 110. RCW 28B.10.355 and 1985 c 152 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Each board of regents of the state universities and each board of trustees of the regional universities and The Evergreen State College may establish a small works roster. The small works roster authorized by this section may be used for any public works project for which the estimated cost is less than ~~((fifty))~~ one hundred thousand dollars. Each board shall adopt rules to implement this section.

The roster shall be composed of all responsible contractors who have requested to be on the list. Each board shall establish a procedure for securing telephone or written quotations from the contractors on the small works roster to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding contracts to the lowest responsible bidder. This procedure shall require either that a good faith effort be made to request quotations from all contractors on the small works roster who have indicated the capability of performing the kind of public works being contracted or that the board shall solicit quotations from at least five contractors in a manner that will equitably distribute the opportunity among contractors on the roster. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection and available by telephone inquiry. Each board may adopt a procedure to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. No board may be required to make available for public inspection or copying under chapter 42.17 RCW financial information required to be provided by the prequalification procedure.

The small works roster shall be revised at least once each year by publishing notice of such opportunity in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the state. Responsible contractors shall be added to the list at any time they submit a written request.

Sec. 111. RCW 39.04.020 and 1986 c 282 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the state(,) or any municipality shall determine that any public work is necessary to be done, it shall cause plans, specifications, or both thereof and an estimate of the cost of such work to be made and filed in the office of the director, supervisor, commissioner, trustee, board, or agency having by law the authority to require such work to be done. The plans, specifications, and estimates of cost shall be approved by the director, supervisor, commissioner, trustee, board, or agency and the original draft or a certified copy filed in such office before further action is taken.

If the state(,) or such municipality shall determine that it is necessary or advisable that such work shall be executed by any means or method other than by contract or by a small works roster process, and it shall appear by such estimate that the probable cost of executing such work will exceed the sum of fifteen thousand dollars or the amounts specified in RCW 28B.10.350 or 28B.10.355 for colleges and universities, or the amounts specified in RCW 28B.50.330 or 39.04.150 for community colleges and technical colleges, then the state or such municipality shall at least fifteen days before beginning work cause such estimate, together with a description of the work, to be published at least once in a legal newspaper of general circulation published in or as near as possible to that part of the county in which such work is to be done: PROVIDED, That when any emergency shall require the immediate execution of such public work, upon a finding of the existence of such emergency by the authority having power to direct such public work to be done and duly entered of record, publication of description and estimate may be made within seven days after the commencement of the work.

Sec. 112. RCW 39.04.150 and 1988 c 36 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "agency" means the department of general administration, the department of fisheries, the department of wildlife, and the state parks and recreation commission.

(2) In addition to any other power or authority that an agency may have, each agency, alone or in concert, may establish a small works roster consisting of all qualified contractors who have requested to be included on the roster.

(3) The small works roster may make distinctions between contractors based on the geographic areas served and the nature of the work the contractor is qualified to perform. At least once every year, the agency shall advertise in a newspaper of general circulation the existence of the small works roster and shall add to the roster those contractors who request to be included on the roster.

(4) Construction, repair, or alteration projects estimated to cost less than fifty thousand dollars, or less than one hundred thousand dollars for projects managed by the department of general administration for community colleges and technical colleges, as defined under chapter 28B.50 RCW, are exempt from the requirement that the contracts be awarded after advertisement and competitive bid as defined by RCW 39.04.010. In lieu of advertisement and competitive bid, the agency shall solicit at least five quotations, confirmed in writing, from contractors chosen by random number generated by computer from the contractors on the small works roster for the category of job type involved and shall award the work to the party with the lowest quotation or reject all quotations. If the agency is unable to solicit quotations from five qualified contractors on the small works roster for a particular project, then the project shall be advertised and competitively bid. The agency shall solicit quotations randomly from contractors on the small works roster in a manner which will equitably distribute the opportunity for these contracts among contractors on the roster: PROVIDED, That whenever possible, the agency shall invite at least one proposal from a minority contractor who shall otherwise qualify to perform such work. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available by telephone request.

(5) The breaking down of any public work or improvement into units or accomplishing any public work or improvement by phases for the purpose of avoiding the minimum dollar amount for bidding is contrary to public policy and is prohibited.

(6) The director of general administration shall adopt by rule a procedure to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. Each agency shall follow the procedure adopted by the director of general administration. No agency shall be required to make available for public inspection or copying under chapter 42.17 RCW financial information required to be provided by the prequalification procedure.

(7) An agency may adopt by rule procedures to implement this section which shall not be inconsistent with the procedures adopted by the director of the department of general administration pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

PART II LOCAL TUITION AUTHORITY

Sec. 201. RCW 28B.15.031 and 1987 c 15 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "operating fees" as used in this chapter shall include the fees, other than building fees, charged all students registering at the state's colleges and universities but shall not include fees for short courses, self-supporting degree credit programs and courses, marine station work, experimental station work, correspondence or extension courses, and individual instruction and student deposits or rentals, disciplinary and library fines, which colleges and universities shall have the right to impose, laboratory, gymnasium, health, and student activity fees, or fees, charges, rentals, and other income derived from any or all revenue producing lands, buildings and facilities of the colleges or universities heretofore or hereafter acquired, constructed or installed, including but not limited to income from rooms, dormitories, dining rooms, hospitals, infirmaries, housing or student activity buildings, vehicular parking facilities, land, or the appurtenances thereon, or such other special fees as may be established by any college or university board of trustees or regents from time to time. All moneys received as operating fees at any institution of higher education shall be ~~((transmitted to the state treasurer within thirty-five days of receipt to be deposited in the state general fund))~~ deposited in a local account containing only operating fees revenue and related interest: PROVIDED, That two and one-half percent of ~~((moneys received as))~~ operating fees ~~((be exempt from such deposit and))~~ shall be retained by the institutions, except the technical colleges, for the purposes of RCW 28B.15.820 ~~((PROVIDED FURTHER, That money received by institutions of higher education from the~~ periodic payment plan authorized by RCW 28B.15.411 shall be transmitted to the state treasurer within five days following the close of registration of the appropriate quarter or semester).

Sec. 202. RCW 28B.15.202 and 1992 c 231 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

Tuition fees and maximum services and activities fees at the University of Washington and at Washington State University for other than the summer term shall be as follows:

(1) For full time resident undergraduate students and all other full time resident students not in graduate study programs or enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, and doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be thirty-three percent of the per student undergraduate educational costs at the state universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be one hundred and twenty dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(2) For full time resident graduate and law students not enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, and doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be twenty-three percent of the per student graduate educational costs at the state universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be one hundred and twenty dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(3) For full time resident students enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, and doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be one hundred sixty-seven percent of such fees charged in subsection (2) of this section: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be three hundred and forty-two dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(4) For full time nonresident undergraduate students and such other full time nonresident students not in graduate study programs or enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, or doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be one hundred percent of the per student undergraduate educational costs at the state universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be three hundred and fifty-four dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(5) For full time nonresident graduate and law students not enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, and doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be sixty percent of the per student graduate educational costs at the state universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be three hundred and fifty-four dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(6) For full time nonresident students enrolled in programs leading to the degrees of doctor of medicine, doctor of dental surgery, and doctor of veterinary medicine, the total tuition fees shall be one hundred sixty-seven percent of such fees charged in subsection (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be five hundred and fifty-five dollars. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(7) The governing boards of the state universities shall charge to and collect from each student, a services and activities fee. The governing board may increase the existing fee annually, consistent with budgeting procedures set forth in RCW 28B.15.045, by a percentage not to exceed the annual percentage increase in resident undergraduate tuition fees: PROVIDED, That such percentage increase shall not apply to that portion of the services and activities fee previously committed to the repayment of bonded debt. The services and activities fee committee provided for in RCW 28B.15.045 may initiate a request to the governing board for a fee increase.

Sec. 203. RCW 28B.15.402 and 1992 c 231 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

Tuition fees and maximum services and activities fees at the regional universities and The Evergreen State College for other than the summer term shall be as follows:

(1) For full time resident undergraduate students and all other full time resident students not in graduate study programs, the total tuition fees shall be twenty-five percent of the per student undergraduate educational costs at the regional universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be seventy-six dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(2) For full time resident graduate students, the total tuition fees shall be twenty-three percent of the per student graduate educational costs at the regional universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be seventy-six dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(3) For full time nonresident undergraduate students and all other full time nonresident students not in graduate study programs, the total tuition fees shall be one hundred percent of the per student undergraduate educational costs at the regional universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be two hundred and ninety-five dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(4) For full time nonresident graduate students, the total tuition fees shall be seventy-five percent of the per student graduate educational costs at the regional universities computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be two hundred and ninety-five dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(5) The governing boards of each of the regional universities and The Evergreen State College shall charge to and collect from each student, a services and activities fee. The governing board may increase the existing fee annually, consistent with budgeting procedures set forth in RCW 28B.15.045, by a percentage not to exceed the annual percentage increase in resident undergraduate tuition fees: PROVIDED, That such percentage increase shall not apply to that portion of the services and activities fee previously committed to the repayment of bonded debt. The services and activities fee committee provided for in RCW 28B.15.045 may initiate a request to the governing board for a fee increase.

Sec. 204. RCW 28B.15.502 and 1992 c 231 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

Tuition fees and maximum services and activities fees at each community college for other than the summer term shall be set by the state board for community and technical colleges as follows:

(1) For full time resident students, the total tuition fees shall be twenty-three percent of the per student educational costs at the community colleges computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be one hundred and twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(2) For full time nonresident students, the total tuition fees shall be one hundred percent of the per student educational costs at the community colleges computed as provided in RCW 28B.15.067 and 28B.15.070: PROVIDED, That the building fees for each academic year shall be four hundred and three dollars and fifty cents. Beginning with the 1995-96 academic year the building fee for each academic year shall be a percentage of total tuition fees. This percentage shall be calculated by the higher education coordinating board and be based on the actual percentage the building fee is of total tuition in the 1994-95 academic year, rounded up to the nearest half percent.

(3) The governing boards of each of the state community colleges shall charge to and collect from each student a services and activities fee. Each governing board may increase the existing fee annually, consistent with budgeting procedures set forth in RCW 28B.15.045, by a percentage not to exceed the annual percentage increase in resident student tuition fees: PROVIDED, That such percentage increase shall not apply to that portion of the services and activities fee previously committed to the repayment of bonded debt. The services and activities fee committee provided for in RCW 28B.15.045 may initiate a request to the governing board for a fee increase.

(4) Tuition and services and activities fees consistent with subsection (3) of this section shall be set by the state board for community and technical colleges for summer school students unless the community college charges fees in accordance with RCW 28B.15.515.

Subject to the limitations of RCW 28B.15.910, each governing board may charge such fees for ungraded courses, noncredit courses, community services courses, and self-supporting courses as it, in its discretion, may determine, consistent with the rules and regulations of the state board for community and technical colleges.

Before June 30, 1995, no individual waiver program under this section may be reduced by more than twice the percentage reduction required in operating fee foregone revenue from tuition waivers in the biennial state appropriations act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. A new section is added to chapter 28B.15 RCW to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that:

In making appropriations from the state's general fund to institutions of higher education, each appropriation shall conform to the following:

(1) The appropriation shall be reduced by the amount of operating fees revenue estimated to be collected from students enrolled at the state-funded enrollment level specified in the omnibus biennial operating appropriations act and the estimated interest on operating fees revenue, minus obligations under RCW 28B.15.820 and 43.991.040 and minus the amount of waived operating fees authorized under RCW 28B.15.910;

(2) The appropriation shall not be reduced by the amount of operating fees revenue collected from students enrolled above the state-funded level, but within the over-enrollment limitations, specified in the omnibus biennial operating appropriations act; and

(3) The general fund state appropriation shall not be reduced by the amount of operating fees revenue collected as a result of waiving less operating fees revenue than the amounts authorized under RCW 28B.15.910.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. RCW 28B.15.824 and 1992 c 231 s 36 are each repealed.

PART III EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. A new section is added to chapter 41.56 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the entities listed in RCW 41.56.020, this chapter shall apply to institutions of higher education with respect to the employees included in a bargaining unit that has exercised the option specified in section 304 of this act.

Sec. 302. RCW 41.56.030 and 1992 c 36 s 2 and 1991 c 363 s 119 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:
As used in this chapter:

(1) "Public employer" means any officer, board, commission, council, or other person or body acting on behalf of any public body governed by this chapter (~~as designated by RCW 41.56.020~~), or any subdivision of such public body. For the purposes of this section, the public employer of district court or superior court employees for wage-related matters is the respective county legislative authority, or person or body acting on behalf of the legislative authority, and the public employer for nonwage-related matters is the judge or judge's designee of the respective district court or superior court.

(2) "Public employee" means any employee of a public employer except any person (a) elected by popular vote, or (b) appointed to office pursuant to statute, ordinance or resolution for a specified term of office by the executive head or body of the public employer, or (c) whose duties as deputy, administrative assistant or secretary necessarily imply a confidential relationship to the executive head or body of the applicable bargaining unit, or any person elected by popular vote or appointed to office pursuant to statute, ordinance or resolution for a specified term of office by the executive head or body of the public employer, or (d) who is a personal assistant to a district court judge, superior court judge, or court commissioner. For the purpose of (d) of this subsection, no more than one assistant for each judge or commissioner may be excluded from a bargaining unit.

(3) "Bargaining representative" means any lawful organization which has as one of its primary purposes the representation of employees in their employment relations with employers.

(4) "Collective bargaining" means the performance of the mutual obligations of the public employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times, to confer and negotiate in good faith, and to execute a written agreement with respect to grievance procedures and collective negotiations on personnel matters, including wages, hours and working conditions, which may be peculiar to an appropriate bargaining unit of such public employer, except that by such obligation neither party shall be compelled to agree to a proposal or be required to make a concession unless otherwise provided in this chapter. In the case of the Washington state patrol, "collective bargaining" shall not include wages and wage-related matters.

(5) "Commission" means the public employment relations commission.

(6) "Executive director" means the executive director of the commission.

(7) "Uniformed personnel" means (a) law enforcement officers as defined in RCW 41.26.030 as now or hereafter amended, of cities with a population of fifteen thousand or more or law enforcement officers employed by the governing body of any county with a population of seventy thousand or more, or (b) fire fighters as that term is defined in RCW 41.26.030, as now or hereafter amended.

(8) "Institution of higher education" means the University of Washington, Washington State University, Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, Western Washington University, The Evergreen State College, and the various state community colleges.

Sec. 303. RCW 41.58.020 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 296 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be the duty of the commission, in order to prevent or minimize interruptions growing out of labor disputes, to assist employers and employees to settle such disputes through mediation and fact-finding.

(2) The commission, through the director, may proffer its services in any labor dispute (~~(involving a political subdivision, municipal corporation, or the community college system of the state)~~) arising under a collective bargaining statute administered by the commission, either upon its own motion or upon the request of one or more of the parties to the dispute, whenever in its judgment such dispute threatens to cause a substantial disruption to the public welfare.

(3) If the director is not able to bring the parties to agreement by mediation within a reasonable time, (~~he~~) the director shall seek to induce the parties to voluntarily seek other means of settling the dispute without resort to strike or other coercion, including submission to the employees in the bargaining unit of the employer's last offer of settlement for approval or rejection in a secret ballot. The failure or refusal of either party to agree to any procedure suggested by the director shall not be deemed a violation of any duty or obligation imposed by this chapter.

(4) Final adjustment by a method agreed upon by the parties is declared to be the desirable method for settlement of grievance disputes arising over the application or interpretation of an existing collective bargaining agreement. The commission is directed to make its mediation and fact-finding services available in the settlement of such grievance disputes only as a last resort.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 304. A new section is added to chapter 41.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) At any time after July 1, 1993, an institution of higher education and the exclusive bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of employees classified under chapter 28B.16 or 41.06 RCW as appropriate may exercise their option to have their relationship and corresponding obligations governed entirely by the provisions of this chapter by complying with the following:

(a) The parties will file notice of the parties' intent to be so governed, subject to the mutual adoption of a collective bargaining agreement permitted by this section recognizing the notice of intent. The parties shall provide the notice to the higher education personnel board or its successor and the commission;

(b) During the negotiation of an initial contract between the parties under this chapter, the parties' scope of bargaining shall be governed by this chapter and any disputes arising out of the collective bargaining rights and obligations under this subsection shall be determined by the commission. If the commission finds that the parties are at impasse, the notice filed under (a) of this subsection shall be void and have no effect; and

(c) On the first day of the month following the month during which the institution of higher education and the exclusive bargaining representative provide notice to the higher education personnel board or its successor and the commission that they have executed an initial collective bargaining agreement recognizing the notice of intent filed under (a) of this subsection, chapter 28B.16 or 41.06 RCW as appropriate shall cease to apply to all employees in the bargaining unit covered by the agreement.

(2) All collective bargaining rights and obligations concerning relations between an institution of higher education and the exclusive bargaining representative of its employees who have agreed to exercise the option permitted by this section shall be determined under this chapter, subject to the following:

(a) The commission shall recognize, in its current form, the bargaining unit as certified by the higher education personnel board or its successor and the limitations on collective bargaining contained in RCW 41.56.100 shall not apply to that bargaining unit.

(b) If, on the date of filing the notice under subsection (1)(a) of this section, there is a union shop authorized for the bargaining unit under rules adopted by the higher education personnel board or its successor, the union shop requirement shall continue in effect for the bargaining unit and shall be deemed incorporated into the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the bargaining unit.

(c) Salary increases negotiated for the employees in the bargaining unit shall be subject to the following:

(i) Salary increases shall continue to be appropriated by the legislature. The exclusive bargaining representative shall meet before a legislative session with the governor or governor's designee and the representative of the institution of higher education concerning the total dollar amount for salary increases and health care contributions that will be contained in the appropriations proposed by the governor under RCW 43.88.060;

(ii) The collective bargaining agreements may provide for salary increases that are different from or that exceed the amount or percentage for salary increases provided by the legislature in the omnibus appropriations act for the institution of higher education or allocated to the board of trustees by the state board for community and technical colleges, but the base for salary increases provided by the legislature under (c)(i) of this subsection shall include only those amounts appropriated by the legislature, and the base shall not include any additional salary increases provided under this subsection (2)(c)(ii);

(iii) Any provisions of the collective bargaining agreements pertaining to salary increases provided under (c)(i) of this subsection shall be subject to modification by the legislature. If any provision of a salary increase provided under (c)(i) of this subsection is changed by subsequent modification of the appropriations act by the legislature, both parties shall immediately enter into collective bargaining for the sole purpose of arriving at a mutually agreed upon replacement for the modified provision.

(3) Nothing in this section may be construed to permit an institution of higher education to bargain collectively with an exclusive bargaining representative concerning any matter covered by: (a) Chapter 41.05 RCW, except for the related cost or dollar contributions or additional or supplemental benefits as permitted by chapter (Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5304), Laws of 1993; or (b) chapter 41.32 or 41.40 RCW.

Sec. 305. RCW 28B.16.040 and 1990 c 60 s 201 are each amended to read as follows:

The following classifications, positions, and employees of institutions of higher education and related boards are hereby exempted from coverage of this chapter:

(1) Members of the governing board of each institution and related boards, all presidents, vice presidents and their confidential secretaries, administrative and personal assistants; deans, directors, and ~~((chairmen))~~ chairpersons; academic personnel; and executive heads of major administrative or academic divisions employed by institutions of higher education; principal assistants to executive heads of major administrative or academic divisions; other managerial or professional employees in an institution or related board having substantial responsibility for directing or controlling program operations and accountable for allocation of resources and program results, or for the formulation of institutional policy, or for carrying out personnel administration or labor relations functions, legislative relations, public information, development, senior computer systems and network programming, or internal audits and investigations; and any employee of a community college district whose place of work is one which is physically located outside the state of Washington and who is employed pursuant to RCW 28B.50.092 and assigned to an educational program operating outside of the state of Washington.

(2) Student, part time, or temporary employees, and part time professional consultants, as defined by the higher education personnel board, employed by institutions of higher education and related boards.

(3) The director, ~~((his))~~ the director's confidential secretary, assistant directors, and professional education employees of the state board for community and technical colleges ~~((education))~~.

(4) The personnel director of the higher education personnel board and ~~((his))~~ the director's confidential secretary.

(5) The governing board of each institution, and related boards, may also exempt from this chapter, subject to the employees right of appeal to the higher education personnel board, classifications involving research activities, counseling of students, extension or continuing education activities, graphic arts or publications activities requiring prescribed academic preparation or special training, ~~((and principal assistants to executive heads of major administrative or academic divisions;))~~ as determined by the higher education personnel board: PROVIDED, That no nonacademic employee engaged in office, clerical, maintenance, or food and trade services may be exempted by the higher education personnel board under this provision.

Any classified employee having civil service status in a classified position who accepts an appointment in an exempt position shall have the right of reversion to the highest class of position previously held, or to a position of similar nature and salary.

A person occupying an exempt position who is terminated from the position for gross misconduct or malfeasance does not have the right of reversion to a classified position as provided for in this section.

Sec. 306. RCW 28B.16.200 and 1979 c 151 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a fund within the state treasury, designated as the "higher education personnel board service fund," to be used by the board as a revolving fund for the payment of salaries, wages, and operations required for the administration of the provisions of this chapter, the budget for which shall be subject to review and approval and appropriation by the legislature. Subject to the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, an amount not to exceed one-half of one percent of the salaries and wages for all positions in the classified service shall be contributed from the operations appropriations of each institution and the state board for community and technical colleges ((education)) and credited to the higher education personnel board service fund as such allotments are approved pursuant to chapter 43.88 RCW. Subject to the above limitations, such amount shall be charged against the allotments pro rata, at a rate to be fixed by the director of financial management from time to time, which will provide the board with funds to meet its anticipated expenditures during the allotment period.

(2) If employees cease to be classified under this chapter pursuant to an agreement authorized by section 304 of this act, each institution of higher education and the state board for community and technical colleges shall continue, for six months after the effective date of the agreement, to make contributions to the higher education personnel board service fund based on employee salaries and wages that includes the employees under the agreement. At the expiration of the six-month period, the director of financial management shall make across-the-board reductions in allotments of the higher education personnel board service fund for the remainder of the biennium so that the charge to the institutions of higher education and state board based on the salaries and wages of the remaining employees classified under this chapter does not increase during the biennium, unless an increase is authorized by the legislature. The director of financial management shall report the amount and impact of any across-the-board reductions made under this section to the appropriations committee of the house of representatives and the ways and means committee of the senate, or appropriate successor committees, within thirty days of making the reductions.

(3) Moneys from the higher education personnel board service fund shall be disbursed by the state treasurer by warrants on vouchers duly authorized by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. A new section is added to chapter 28B.16 RCW to read as follows:

At any time after July 1, 1993, an institution of higher education and the exclusive bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of employees classified under this chapter or chapter 41.06 RCW as appropriate may exercise their option to have their relationship and corresponding obligations governed entirely by the provisions of chapter 41.56 RCW, by filing notice of the parties' intent to be so governed, subject to the mutual adoption of a collective bargaining agreement recognizing the notice of intent. The parties shall provide the notice to the board or its successor and the public employment relations commission. On the first day of the month following the month during which the institution of higher education and the exclusive bargaining representative provide notice to the board or its successor and the public employment relations commission that they have executed an initial collective bargaining agreement recognizing the notice of intent, this chapter shall cease to apply to all employees in the bargaining unit covered by the agreement, and all labor relations functions of the board or its successor with respect to these employees shall be transferred to the public employment relations commission.

PART IV MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. The sum of . . . dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1995, from each public four-year institution's and the community colleges' operating fees account established in RCW 28B.15.824 to the respective institution's local account for the purposes of sections 201 through 205 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 403. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Bauer, does this allow collective bargaining for the faculty if they choose at the institutions?"

Senator Bauer: "It deals with non-faculty."

Senator Bluechel: "This only deals with non-faculty?"

Senator Bauer: "Right."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Bauer, as you know, I came to you on Senate Bills--I had a Senate Bill that asked for increased flexibility for four years for the community college system, the technical colleges, and I have been following this bill throughout the process. I'm very distressed to see an amendment of this magnitude on the desk at the last minute. I have not had a chance to talk to my four-year university--Western--my community college at Whatcom nor my technical college about this, so I am assuming that you got the OKs from the community colleges, the technical colleges and all of the four-year institutions before you would put this out on the desk."

Senator Bauer: "The testimony that we got in the committee was that all six of the four-year regionals or researchers agreed to this. We are not dealing with the community colleges."

Senator Anderson: "So, the language contained in this striking amendment, since we did not adopt the committee amendment, is language that they have seen before--the language in your striking amendment since we are not adopting the committee amendment, this language in the striking amendment is language they have seen before?"

Senator Bauer: "Surely, we in the committee, had adopted an amendment that would have taken everybody out from under the HEC Board and put them under the PERC Board and this language just takes it back to where it was as it came from the House. So, whatever they had understood in the House, is now understood here."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Bauer, could you go over the differences in Section 3 of the bill, as the original striking amendment to this striking amendment?"

Senator Bauer: "The difference, and I'll read it to you, so I won't make an error here. The difference between the striker and the committee amendment--in this amendment, bargaining units which do not opt out of civil service will continue to have their labor relations activities governed by the Higher Education Personnel Board or any successor to that agency. Only those bargaining units which opt out of civil service will have their labor relations governed by the Public Employment Relations Commission or PERC. This amendment also retains the union-shop provisions that have been established as a result of employee elections throughout the higher education system. So, whatever conditions of employment that were agreed upon by bargaining, while they are under the HEC Board, just moves over under the PERC Board."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1509 was deferred.

SECOND READING

MOTION

Senator Haugen moved that the following Committee on Government Operations amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 29.36.120 and 1983 1st ex.s. c 71 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

At any primary or election, general or special, the county auditor may, in any precinct having fewer than ~~((one))~~ two hundred registered voters at the time of closing of voter registration as provided in RCW 29.07.160, conduct the voting in that precinct by mail ballot. For any precinct having fewer than ~~((one))~~ two hundred registered voters where voting at a primary or a general election is conducted by mail ballot, the county auditor shall, not less than fifteen days prior to the date of that primary or general election, mail or deliver to each registered voter within that precinct a notice that the voting in that precinct will be by mail ballot, an application form for a mail ballot, and a postage prepaid envelope, preaddressed to the issuing officer. A mail ballot shall be issued to each voter who returns a properly executed application to the county auditor no later than the day of that primary or general election. Such application is valid for all subsequent mail ballot elections in that precinct so long as the voter remains qualified to vote.

~~((At any nonpartisan special election not being held in conjunction with a state primary or general election, the county, city, town, or district requesting the election pursuant to RCW 29.13.010 or 29.13.020 may also request that the election be conducted by mail ballot. The county auditor may honor the request or may determine that the election is not to be conducted by mail ballot. The decision of the county auditor in this regard is final.~~

~~In no instance shall any special election be conducted by mail ballot in any precinct with more than one hundred registered voters if candidates for partisan office are to be voted upon.))~~

For all special elections not being held in conjunction with a state primary or state general election where voting is conducted by mail ballot, the county auditor shall, not less than fifteen days prior to the date of such election, mail or deliver to each registered voter a mail ballot and an envelope, preaddressed to the issuing officer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 29.36 RCW to read as follows:

(1) At any nonpartisan special election not being held in conjunction with a state primary or general election, the county, city, town, or district requesting the election pursuant to RCW 29.13.010 or 29.13.020 may also request that the election be conducted by mail ballot. The county auditor may honor the request or may determine that the election is not to be conducted by mail ballot. The decision of the county auditor in this regard is final.

In no instance shall any special election be conducted by mail ballot in any precinct with two hundred or more registered voters if candidates for partisan office are to be voted upon.

(2) In an odd-numbered year, the county auditor may conduct by mail ballot a primary or a special election concurrently with the primary:

(a) For any office or ballot measure of a special purpose district which is entirely within the county;

(b) For any office or ballot measure of a special purpose district which lies in the county and one or more other counties if the auditor first secures the concurrence of the county auditors of those other counties to conduct the primary in this manner district-wide; and

(c) For any ballot measure or nonpartisan office of a county, city, or town if the auditor first secures the concurrence of the legislative authority of the county, city, or town involved.

A primary in an odd-numbered year may not be conducted by mail ballot in any precinct with two hundred or more registered voters if a partisan office or state office or state ballot measure is to be voted upon at that primary in the precinct.

(3) For all special elections not being held in conjunction with a state primary or state general election where voting is conducted by mail ballot, the county auditor shall, not less than fifteen days before the date of such election, mail or deliver to each registered voter a mail ballot and an envelope, preaddressed to the issuing officer. The county auditor shall notify an election jurisdiction for which a primary is to be held that the primary will be conducted by mail ballot.

(4) To the extent they are not inconsistent with subsections (1) through (3) of this section, the laws governing the conduct of mail ballot special elections apply to nonpartisan primaries conducted by mail ballot.

Sec. 3. RCW 29.36.122 and 1983 1st ex.s. c 71 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

For any special election conducted by mail, the county auditor shall send a mail ballot with a return identification envelope to each registered voter of the district in which the special election is being conducted not sooner than the twenty-fifth day before the date of the election and not later than the fifteenth day before the date of the election. The envelope in which the ballot is mailed ~~((shall be clearly marked "Do Not Forward - Return to Sender - Return Postage Guaranteed."))~~ must clearly indicate that the ballot is not to be forwarded and is to be returned to the sender with return postage guaranteed.

Sec. 4. RCW 29.36.126 and 1983 1st ex.s. c 71 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of the mail ballot, the voter shall mark it, sign the return identification envelope supplied with the ballot, and comply with the instructions provided with the ballot. The voter may return the marked ballot to the county auditor ~~((by United States mail or to any other place of deposit designated by the county auditor))~~. The ballot must be returned in the return identification envelope. If mailed, a ballot must be postmarked not later than the date of the election. Otherwise, the ballot must be deposited at the office of the county auditor or the designated place of deposit not later than 8:00 p.m. on the date of the election.

Sec. 5. RCW 29.36.130 and 1990 c 59 s 76 are each amended to read as follows:

All mail ballots authorized by RCW 29.36.120 ~~or section 2 of this act~~ shall contain the same offices, names of candidates, and propositions to be voted upon, including precinct offices, as if the ballot had been voted in person at the polling place. Except as otherwise provided in ~~((RCW 29.36.120 and 29.36.122 through 29.36.126 and 29.36.130, such))~~ this chapter, mail ballots shall be issued and canvassed in the same manner as absentee ballots issued pursuant to the request of the voter. The county canvassing board, at the request of the county auditor, may direct that mail ballots be counted on the day of the election. If such count is made, it must be done in secrecy in the presence of ~~((at least three election officials))~~ the canvassing board or their authorized representatives and the results not revealed to any unauthorized person until ~~((the polls have closed))~~ 8:00 p.m. or later if the auditor so directs. If electronic vote tallying devices are used, political party observers shall be afforded the opportunity to be present, and a test of the equipment must be performed as required by RCW 29.33.350 prior to the count of ballots. Political party observers ~~((shall be allowed to count by hand ballots from up to ten precincts selected by the observers))~~ may select at random ballots to be counted manually as provided by RCW 29.54.025. Any violation of the secrecy of such count shall be subject to the same penalties as provided for in RCW 29.85.225.

Sec. 6. RCW 29.36.139 and 1983 1st ex.s. c 71 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A mail ballot shall be counted only if it is returned in the return identification envelope, if the envelope is signed by the registered voter to whom the ballot is issued, and if the signature is verified as provided in this subsection. The county auditor shall verify the signature of each voter on the return identification envelope with the signature on the voter's registration record. ~~((If the county auditor determines that a registered voter to whom a replacement ballot has been issued has voted more than once, the county auditor shall not count any ballot cast by that voter. The county auditor must notify both the county prosecuting attorney and the state attorney general of every instance in which a voter has voted more than once.))~~ A person who votes or attempts to vote more than once in a mail ballot election is subject to the penalties provided in chapter 29.85 RCW.

(2) Any mail ballot may be challenged in the same manner as an absentee ballot.

Sec. 7. RCW 29.36.150 and 1987 c 346 s 19 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary of state shall adopt rules ~~((not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter))~~ to:

- (1) Establish standards and procedures to prevent fraud and to facilitate the accurate processing and canvassing of absentee ballots and mail ballots;
- (2) Establish standards and procedures to guarantee the secrecy of absentee ballots and mail ballots;
- (3) Provide uniformity among the counties of the state in the conduct of absentee voting and mail ballot elections; and
- (4) Facilitate the operation of the provisions of this chapter regarding out-of-state voters, overseas voters, and service voters.

The secretary of state shall produce and furnish envelopes and instructions for out-of-state voters, overseas voters, and service voters to the county auditors.

Sec. 8. RCW 29.10.180 and 1991 c 363 s 31 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The county auditor may enter one or more contracts with the United States postal service, or its licensee, which permit the auditor to use postal service change-of-address information. If the auditor finds that information received under such a contract gives the appearance that a voter has changed his or her residence address, the auditor shall notify the voter concerning the requirements of state and federal laws governing voter registration and residence.

(2) Whenever any vote-by-mail ballot, notification to voters following reprecincting of the county, notification to voters of selection to serve on jury duty, notification under subsection (1) of this section, or initial voter identification card is returned by the postal service as undeliverable, the county auditor shall, in every instance, inquire into the validity of the registration of that voter.

(3) The county auditor shall initiate his or her inquiry by sending, by first-class mail, a written notice to the challenged voter at the address indicated on the voter's permanent registration record and to any other address at which the county auditor could reasonably expect mail to be received by the voter. The county auditor shall not request any restriction on the forwarding of such notice by the postal service. The notice shall contain the nature of the inquiry and provide a suitable form for reply. The notice shall also contain a warning that the county auditor must receive a response within ninety days from the date of mailing the notice of inquiry in a case resulting from a returned vote-by-mail ballot or forty-five days from the date of mailing in all other cases or the individual's voter registration will be canceled.

(4) The voter, in person or in writing, may state that the information on the permanent voter registration record is correct or may request a change in the address information on the permanent registration record no later than the ninetieth day or forty-fifth day, as appropriate, after the date of mailing the inquiry.

(5) Upon the timely receipt of a response signed by the voter, the county auditor shall consider the inquiry satisfied and will make any address corrections requested by the voter on the permanent registration record. The county auditor shall cancel the registration of a voter who fails to respond to the notice of inquiry within ninety days after the date of mailing the notice in a case resulting from a returned vote-by-mail ballot, or, in all other cases, within forty-five days after the date of mailing.

(6) The county auditor shall notify any voter whose registration has been canceled by sending, by first class mail, a written notice to the address indicated on the voter's permanent registration record and to any other address to which the original inquiry was sent. Upon receipt of a satisfactory voter response, the auditor shall reinstate the voter.

(7) A voter whose registration has been canceled under this section and who offers to vote at the next ensuing election shall be issued a questioned ballot. Upon receipt of such a questioned ballot the auditor shall investigate the circumstances surrounding the original cancellation. If he or she determines that the cancellation was in error, the voter's registration shall be immediately reinstated, and the voter's questioned ballot shall be counted. If the original cancellation was not in error, the voter shall be afforded the opportunity to reregister at his or her correct address, and the voter's questioned ballot shall not be counted."

HOUSE BILL NO. 2066, by Representatives J. Kohl, Wang, G. Cole, Silver, Leonard, R. Fisher, Patterson, Peery, Locke, Pruitt, Brough, Cothorn, Appelwick and Eide

Changing school levy provisions.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following Committee on Education amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 84.52.0531 and 1992 c 49 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of RCW 84.52.053 shall be determined as follows:

(1) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1992, the maximum dollar amount shall be calculated pursuant to the laws and rules in effect in November 1991.

(2) For the purpose of this section, the basic education allocation shall be determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350: PROVIDED, That when determining the basic education allocation under subsection (4) of this section, nonresident full time equivalent pupils who are participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.545 RCW or in any other program pursuant to an interdistrict agreement shall be included in the enrollment of the resident district and excluded from the enrollment of the serving district.

(3) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, the maximum dollar amount shall be the sum of (a) and (b) of this subsection minus (c) of this subsection:

(a) The district's levy base as defined in subsection (4) of this section multiplied by the district's maximum levy percentage as defined in subsection (5) of this section;

(b) In the case of nonhigh school districts only, an amount equal to the total estimated amount due by the nonhigh school district to high school districts pursuant to chapter 28A.545 RCW for the school year during which collection of the levy is to commence, less the increase in the nonhigh school district's basic education allocation as computed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section due to the inclusion of pupils participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.545 RCW in such computation;

(c) The maximum amount of state matching funds under RCW 28A.500.010 for which the district is eligible in that tax collection year.

(4) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, a district's levy base shall be the sum of allocations in (a) through (c) of this subsection received by the district for the prior school year, including allocations for compensation increases, plus the sum of such allocations multiplied by the percent increase per full time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year and divided by fifty-five percent. A district's levy base shall not include local school district property tax levies or other local revenues, or state and federal allocations not identified in (a) through (c) of this subsection.

(a) The district's basic education allocation as determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350;

(b) State and federal categorical allocations for the following programs:

(i) Pupil transportation;

(ii) Handicapped education;

(iii) Education of highly capable students;

(iv) Compensatory education, including but not limited to learning assistance, migrant education, Indian education, refugee programs, and bilingual education;

(v) Food services; and

(vi) State-wide block grant programs; and

(c) Any other federal allocations for elementary and secondary school programs, including direct grants, other than federal impact aid funds and allocations in lieu of taxes.

(5) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, a district's maximum levy percentage shall be determined as follows:

(a) Multiply the district's maximum levy percentage for the prior year by the district's levy base as determined in subsection (4) of this section;

(b) Reduce the amount in (a) of this subsection by the total estimated amount of any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (6) of this section which are to be allocated to the district for the current school year;

(c) Divide the amount in (b) of this subsection by the district's levy base to compute a new percentage; and

(d) The percentage in (c) of this subsection or twenty percent, whichever is greater, shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for levies collected in that calendar year.

(e) For levies to be collected in calendar years 1994, 1995, 1996, and 1997, the maximum levy rate shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for 1993 plus five percent reduced by any levy reduction funds. For levies collected in 1998, the prior year shall mean 1993.

(6) "Levy reduction funds" shall mean increases in state funds from the prior school year for programs included under subsection (4) of this section: (a) That are not attributable to enrollment changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments; and (b) that are or were specifically identified as levy reduction funds in the appropriations act. If levy reduction funds are dependent on formula factors which would not be finalized until after the start of the current school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall estimate the total amount of levy reduction funds by using prior school year data in place of current school year data. Levy reduction funds shall not include moneys received by school districts from cities or counties.

(7) For the purposes of this section, "prior school year" shall mean the most recent school year completed prior to the year in which the levies are to be collected.

(8) For the purposes of this section, "current school year" shall mean the year immediately following the prior school year.

(9) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and regulations and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 2. RCW 28A.500.010 and 1992 c 49 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Commencing with taxes assessed in ~~((1988))~~ 1993 to be collected in calendar year ~~((1989))~~ 1994 and thereafter, in addition to a school district's other general fund allocations, each eligible district shall be provided local effort assistance funds as provided in this section. Such funds are not part of the district's basic education allocation. ~~((For the first distribution of local effort assistance funds provided under this section in calendar year 1989, state funds may be prorated according to the formula in this section.))~~

(2)(a) "Prior tax collection year" shall mean the year immediately preceding the year in which the local effort assistance shall be allocated.

(b) The "state-wide average ~~((ten))~~ thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate" shall mean ~~((ten))~~ thirteen and three-tenths percent of the total levy bases as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(4) summed for all school districts, and divided by the total assessed valuation for excess levy purposes in the prior tax collection year for all districts as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio established in RCW 84.48.075.

(c) The "~~((ten))~~ thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate" of a district shall mean:

(i) ~~((Ten))~~ Thirteen and three-tenths percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(4), plus one-half of any amount computed under RCW 84.52.0531(3)(b) in the case of nonhigh school districts; divided by

(ii) The district's assessed valuation for excess levy purposes for the prior tax collection year as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio.

(d) "Eligible districts" shall mean those districts with a ~~((ten))~~ thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate which exceeds the state-wide average ~~((ten))~~ thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate.

(3) Allocation of state matching funds to eligible districts for local effort assistance shall be determined as follows:

(a) Funds raised by the district through maintenance and operation levies during that tax collection year shall be matched with state funds using the following ratio of state funds to levy funds: (i) The difference between the district's ~~((ten))~~ thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate and the state-wide average ~~((ten))~~ thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate; to (ii) the state-wide average ~~((ten))~~ thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate.

(b) The maximum amount of state matching funds for which a district may be eligible in any tax collection year shall be ~~((ten)) thirteen and three-tenths~~ percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(4), multiplied by the following percentage: (i) The difference between the district's ~~((ten)) thirteen and three-tenths~~ percent levy rate and the state-wide average ~~((ten)) thirteen and three-tenths~~ percent levy rate; divided by (ii) the district's ~~((ten)) thirteen and three-tenths~~ percent levy rate.

~~(4)((a) Through tax collection year 1992, fifty-five percent of local effort assistance funds shall be distributed to qualifying districts during the applicable tax collection year on or before June 30 and forty-five percent shall be distributed on or before December 31 of any year.~~

~~(b))~~ In tax collection year 1993 and thereafter, local effort assistance funds shall be distributed to qualifying districts as follows:

- ~~((i))~~ (a) Thirty percent in April;
- ~~((ii))~~ (b) Twenty-three percent in May;
- ~~((iii))~~ (c) Two percent in June;
- ~~((iv) Twenty-six)~~ (d) Seventeen percent in August;
- (e) Nine percent in October;
- ~~((v))~~ (f) Seventeen percent in November; and
- ~~((vi))~~ (g) Two percent in December.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 2 of this act shall expire December 31, 1997."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following amendment by Senators Pelz, Anderson, Gaspard, Rinehart and McDonald was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 84.52.0531 and 1992 c 49 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of RCW 84.52.053 shall be determined as follows:

(1) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1992, the maximum dollar amount shall be calculated pursuant to the laws and rules in effect in November 1991.

(2) For the purpose of this section, the basic education allocation shall be determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350: PROVIDED, That when determining the basic education allocation under subsection (4) of this section, nonresident full time equivalent pupils who are participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.545 RCW or in any other program pursuant to an interdistrict agreement shall be included in the enrollment of the resident district and excluded from the enrollment of the serving district.

(3) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, the maximum dollar amount shall be the sum of (a) and (b) of this subsection minus (c) of this subsection:

(a) The district's levy base as defined in subsection (4) of this section multiplied by the district's maximum levy percentage as defined in subsection (5) of this section;

(b) In the case of nonhigh school districts only, an amount equal to the total estimated amount due by the nonhigh school district to high school districts pursuant to chapter 28A.545 RCW for the school year during which collection of the levy is to commence, less the increase in the nonhigh school district's basic education allocation as computed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section due to the inclusion of pupils participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.545 RCW in such computation;

(c) The maximum amount of state matching funds under RCW 28A.500.010 for which the district is eligible in that tax collection year.

(4) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, a district's levy base shall be the sum of allocations in (a) through (c) of this subsection received by the district for the prior school year, including allocations for compensation increases, plus the sum of such allocations multiplied by the percent increase per full time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year and divided by fifty-five percent. A district's levy base shall not include local school district property tax levies or other local revenues, or state and federal allocations not identified in (a) through (c) of this subsection.

(a) The district's basic education allocation as determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350;

(b) State and federal categorical allocations for the following programs:

(i) Pupil transportation;

(ii) Handicapped education;

(iii) Education of highly capable students;

(iv) Compensatory education, including but not limited to learning assistance, migrant education, Indian education, refugee programs, and bilingual education;

(v) Food services; and

(vi) State-wide block grant programs; and

(c) Any other federal allocations for elementary and secondary school programs, including direct grants, other than federal impact aid funds and allocations in lieu of taxes.

(5) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, a district's maximum levy percentage shall be determined as follows:

(a) Multiply the district's maximum levy percentage for the prior year by the district's levy base as determined in subsection (4) of this section;

(b) Reduce the amount in (a) of this subsection by the total estimated amount of any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (6) of this section which are to be allocated to the district for the current school year;

(c) Divide the amount in (b) of this subsection by the district's levy base to compute a new percentage; and

(d) The percentage in (c) of this subsection or twenty percent, whichever is greater, shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for levies collected in that calendar year.

(e) For levies to be collected in calendar years 1994 and 1995 the maximum levy rate shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for 1993 plus four percent reduced by any levy reduction funds. For levies collected in 1996, the prior year shall mean 1993.

(6) "Levy reduction funds" shall mean increases in state funds from the prior school year for programs included under subsection (4) of this section: (a) That are not attributable to enrollment changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments; and (b) that are or were specifically identified as levy reduction funds in the appropriations act. If levy reduction funds are dependent on formula factors which would not be finalized until after the start of the current school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall estimate the total amount of levy reduction funds by using prior school year data in place of current school year data. Levy reduction funds shall not include moneys received by school districts from cities or counties.

(7) For the purposes of this section, "prior school year" shall mean the most recent school year completed prior to the year in which the levies are to be collected.

(8) For the purposes of this section, "current school year" shall mean the year immediately following the prior school year.

(9) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and regulations and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 2. RCW 28A.500.010 and 1992 c 49 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Commencing with taxes assessed in ~~((1988))~~ 1993 to be collected in calendar year ~~((1989))~~ 1994 and thereafter, in addition to a school district's other general fund allocations, each eligible district shall be provided local effort assistance funds as provided in this section. Such funds are not part of the district's basic education allocation. For ~~((the first))~~ distribution of local effort assistance funds provided under this section in calendar years ~~((1989))~~ 1994 and 1995, state funds may be prorated ~~((according to the formula in this section))~~ as provided in the omnibus appropriations act.

(2)(a) "Prior tax collection year" shall mean the year immediately preceding the year in which the local effort assistance shall be allocated.

(b) The "state-wide average ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent levy rate" shall mean ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent of the total levy bases as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(4) summed for all school districts, and divided by the total assessed valuation for excess levy purposes in the prior tax collection year for all districts as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio established in RCW 84.48.075.

(c) The "~~((ten))~~ twelve percent levy rate" of a district shall mean:

(i) ~~((Ten))~~ twelve percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(4), plus one-half of any amount computed under RCW 84.52.0531(3)(b) in the case of nonhigh school districts; divided by

(ii) The district's assessed valuation for excess levy purposes for the prior tax collection year as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio.

(d) "Eligible districts" shall mean those districts with a ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent levy rate which exceeds the state-wide average ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent levy rate.

(3) Allocation of state matching funds to eligible districts for local effort assistance shall be determined as follows:

(a) Funds raised by the district through maintenance and operation levies during that tax collection year shall be matched with state funds using the following ratio of state funds to levy funds: (i) The difference between the district's ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent levy rate and the state-wide average ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent levy rate; to (ii) the state-wide average ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent levy rate.

(b) The maximum amount of state matching funds for which a district may be eligible in any tax collection year shall be ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(4), multiplied by the following percentage: (i) The difference between the district's ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent levy rate and the state-wide average ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent levy rate; divided by (ii) the district's ~~((ten))~~ twelve percent levy rate.

~~((4))((a) Through tax collection year 1992, fifty-five percent of local effort assistance funds shall be distributed to qualifying districts during the applicable tax collection year on or before June 30 and forty-five percent shall be distributed on or before December 31 of any year.~~

~~((b))~~ In tax collection year 1993 and thereafter, local effort assistance funds shall be distributed to qualifying districts as follows:

~~((i))~~ (a) Thirty percent in April;

~~((ii))~~ (b) Twenty-three percent in May;

~~((iii))~~ (c) Two percent in June;

~~((iv) Twenty-six)~~ (d) Seventeen percent in August;

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Spanel, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendments were considered simultaneously and were adopted:

On page 1, at the beginning of line 7, insert "(1)"

On page 1, after line 14, insert the following:

"(2) Neither this section nor any other provision in this chapter or chapter 41.26, 41.32, 41.40, 41.54, or 43.43 RCW authorize the extension of statutory restore deadlines for members who do not receive notice of their eligibility to restore withdrawn contributions. This subsection applies retroactively to restoration periods which expired prior to the effective date of this act."

On motion of Senator Spanel, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 1, after line 14, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. RCW 41.40.058 and 1987 c 417 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who was a member of the state-wide city employees' retirement system governed by chapter 41.44 RCW and who also became a member of the public employees' retirement system on or before July 26, 1987, may, in a writing filed with the director, elect to:

(a) Transfer to the public employees' retirement system all service currently credited under chapter 41.44 RCW;

(b) Reestablish and transfer to the public employees' retirement system all service which was previously credited under chapter 41.44 RCW but which was canceled by discontinuance of service and withdrawal of accumulated contributions as provided in RCW 41.44.190. The service may be reestablished and transferred only upon payment by the member to the employees' savings fund of the public employees' retirement system of the amount withdrawn plus interest thereon from the date of withdrawal until the date of payment at a rate determined by the director. No additional payments are required for service credit described in this subsection if already established under this chapter; and

(c) Establish service credit for the initial period of employment not to exceed six months, prior to establishing membership under chapter 41.44 RCW, upon payment in full by the member of the total employer's contribution to the benefit account fund of the public employees' retirement system that would have been made under this chapter when the initial service was rendered. The payment shall be based on the first month's compensation earnable as a member of the state-wide city employees' retirement system and as defined in RCW 41.44.030(13). However, a person who has established service credit under RCW 41.40.010(~~((14))~~)(13) (c) or (d) shall not establish additional credit under this subsection nor may anyone who establishes credit under this subsection establish any additional credit under RCW 41.40.010(~~((14))~~)(13) (c) or (d). No additional payments are required for service credit described in this subsection if already established under this chapter.

(2)(a) In the case of a member of the public employees' retirement system who is employed by an employer on July 26, 1987, the written election required by subsection (1) of this section must be filed and the payments required by subsection (1)(b) and (c) of this section must be completed (~~(in full within one year after July 26, 1987)~~) by December 31, 1993.

(b) In the case of a former member of the public employees' retirement system who is not employed by an employer on July 26, 1987, the written election must be filed and the payments must be completed in full within one year after reemployment by an employer.

(c) In the case of a retiree receiving a retirement allowance from the public employees' retirement system on July 26, 1987, or any person having vested rights as described in RCW 41.40.150 (~~((3) or (5))~~) (4), the written election may be filed and the payments may be completed at any time.

(3) Upon receipt of the written election and payments required by subsection (1) of this section from any retiree described in subsection (2)(c) of this section, the department shall recompute the retiree's allowance in accordance with this section and shall pay any additional benefit resulting from such recomputation retroactively to the date of retirement from the system governed by this chapter."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Spanel, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 1, after line 14, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW, under the subchapter heading "plan I," to read as follows:

Any active member or separated member who was not eligible to restore contributions under section 3, chapter 317, Laws of 1986, solely because he or she was an elected official, other than an elected official under Articles II or III of the Constitution of the state of Washington, shall be permitted to restore withdrawn contributions for periods of nonelected service no later than June 30, 1994, with interest as determined by the director."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2071, by House Committee on Health Care (originally sponsored by Representatives L. Johnson, Dellwo, Quall, Campbell and Karahalios)

Regulating access to tobacco.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Health and Human Services amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that while present state law prohibits the sale and distribution of tobacco to minors, youth obtain tobacco products with ease. Availability and lack of enforcement put tobacco products in the hands of youth.

Federal law requires states to enforce laws prohibiting sale and distribution of tobacco products to minors in a manner that can reasonably be expected to reduce the extent to which the products are available to minors. It is imperative to effectively reduce the sale, distribution, and availability of tobacco products to minors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions set forth in RCW 82.24.010 shall apply to sections 3 through 14 of this act. In addition, for the purposes of this chapter, unless otherwise required by the context:

(1) "Board" means the Washington state liquor control board.
(2) "Minor" refers to an individual who is less than eighteen years old.
(3) "Public place" means a public street, sidewalk, or park, or any area open to the public in a publicly owned and operated building.
(4) "Sample" means a tobacco product distributed to members of the general public at no cost or at nominal cost for product promotion purposes.

(5) "Sampler" means a person engaged in the business of sampling other than a retailer.

(6) "Sampling" means the distribution of samples to members of the general public in a public place.

(7) "Tobacco product" means a product that contains tobacco and is intended for human consumption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A person who holds a license issued under RCW 82.24.520 or 82.24.530 shall:

(1) Display the license or a copy in a prominent location at the outlet for which the license is issued; and

(2) Display a sign concerning the prohibition of tobacco sales to minors.

Such sign shall:

(a) Be posted so that it is clearly visible to anyone purchasing tobacco products from the licensee;

(b) Be designed and produced by the department of health to read: "THE SALE OF TOBACCO PRODUCTS TO PERSONS UNDER AGE 18 IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED BY STATE LAW. IF YOU ARE UNDER 18, YOU COULD BE PENALIZED FOR PURCHASING A TOBACCO PRODUCT; PHOTO ID REQUIRED"; and

(c) Be provided free of charge by the liquor control board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. No person shall sell or permit to be sold any tobacco product through any device that mechanically dispenses tobacco products unless the device is located fully within premises from which minors are prohibited or in industrial worksites where minors are not employed and not less than ten feet from all entrance or exit ways to and from each premises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. No person shall sell or permit to be sold cigarettes not in the original unopened package or container to which the stamps required by RCW 82.24.060 have been affixed.

This section does not apply to the sale of loose leaf tobacco by a retail business that generates a minimum of sixty percent of annual gross sales from the sale of tobacco products.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) No person may engage in the business of sampling within the state unless licensed to do so by the board. If a firm contracts with a manufacturer to distribute samples of the manufacturer's products, that firm is deemed to be the person engaged in the business of sampling.

(2) The board shall issue a license to a sampler not otherwise disqualified by section 11 of this act upon application and payment of the fee.

(3) A sampler's license expires on the thirtieth day of June of each year and must be renewed annually upon payment of the appropriate fee.

(4) The board shall annually determine the fee for a sampler's license and each renewal. However, the fee for a manufacturer whose employees distribute samples within the state is five hundred dollars per annum, and the fee for all other samplers must be not less than fifty dollars per annum.

(5) A sampler's license entitles the licensee, and employees or agents of the licensee, to distribute samples at any lawful location in the state during the term of the license. A person engaged in sampling under the license shall carry the license or a copy at all times.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) No person may distribute or offer to distribute samples in a public place. This prohibition does not apply to sampling (a) in an area to which persons under the age of eighteen are denied admission, (b) in or at a store or concession to which a retailer's license has been issued, or (c) at or adjacent to a production, repair, or outdoor construction site or facility.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, no person may distribute or offer to distribute samples in or on a public street, sidewalk, or park that is within five hundred feet of a playground, school, or other facility when that facility is being used primarily by persons under the age of eighteen for recreational, educational, or other purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. No person shall give or distribute cigarettes or other tobacco products to a person by a coupon if such coupon is redeemed in any manner that does not require an in-person transaction in a retail store.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A person under the age of eighteen who purchases or attempts to purchase or obtains or attempts to obtain cigarettes or tobacco products commits a class 3 civil infraction under chapter 7.80 RCW and is subject to a fine as set out in chapter 7.80 RCW or participation in a smoking cessation program, or both. This provision does not apply if a person under the age of eighteen, with parental authorization, is participating in a controlled purchase as part of a liquor control board, law enforcement, or local health department activity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Where there may be a question of a person's right to purchase or obtain tobacco products by reason of age, the retailer, sampler, or agent thereof, shall require the purchaser to present any one of the following officially issued identification that shows the purchaser's age and bears his or her signature and photograph: Liquor control authority card of identification of a state or province of Canada; driver's license, instruction permit, or identification card of a state or province of Canada; "identocard" issued by the Washington state department of licensing under chapter 46.20 RCW; United States military identification; passport; or merchant marine identification card issued by the United States coast guard.

(2) It is a defense to a prosecution under RCW 26.28.080(4) that the person making a sale reasonably relied on any of the officially issued identification as defined in subsection (1) of this section. The liquor control board shall waive the suspension or revocation of a license if the licensee clearly establishes that he or she acted in good faith to prevent violations and a violation occurred despite the licensee's exercise of due diligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The liquor control board may suspend or revoke a retailer's license held by a business at any location, or may impose a monetary penalty as set forth in subsection (2) of this section, if the liquor control board finds that the licensee has violated RCW 26.28.080(4), or section 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, or 10 of this act.

(2) The sanctions that the liquor control board may impose against a person licensed under RCW 82.24.530 and sections 6 and 7 of this act based upon one or more findings under subsection (1) of this section may not exceed the following:

(a) For violation of RCW 26.28.080(4) or section 3 of this act:

(i) A monetary penalty of one hundred dollars for the first violation within any two-year period;

- (ii) A monetary penalty of three hundred dollars for the second violation within any two-year period;
 - (iii) A monetary penalty of one thousand dollars and suspension of the license for a period of six months for the third violation within any two-year period;
 - (iv) A monetary penalty of one thousand five hundred dollars and suspension of the license for a period of twelve months for the fourth violation within any two-year period;
 - (v) Revocation of the license with no possibility of reinstatement for a period of five years for the fifth or more violation within any two-year period;
 - (b) For violations of section 4 of this act, a monetary penalty in the amount of one hundred dollars for each day upon which such violation occurred;
 - (c) For violations of section 5 of this act occurring on the licensed premises:
 - (i) A monetary penalty of one hundred dollars for the first violation within any two-year period;
 - (ii) A monetary penalty of three hundred dollars for the second violation within any two-year period;
 - (iii) A monetary penalty of one thousand dollars and suspension of the license for a period of six months for the third violation within any two-year period;
 - (iv) A monetary penalty of one thousand five hundred dollars and suspension of the license for a period of twelve months for the fourth violation within any two-year period;
 - (v) Revocation of the license with no possibility of reinstatement for a period of five years for the fifth or more violation within any two-year period;
 - (d) For violations of sections 6 and 7 of this act, a monetary penalty in the amount of three hundred dollars for each violation;
 - (e) For violations of section 8 of this act, a monetary penalty in the amount of one thousand dollars for each violation.
- (3) The liquor control board may impose a monetary penalty upon any person other than a licensed cigarette retailer or licensed sampler if the liquor control board finds that the person has violated RCW 26.28.080(4), or section 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, or 10 of this act.
- (4) The monetary penalty that the liquor control board may impose based upon one or more findings under subsection (3) of this section may not exceed the following:
- (a) For violation of RCW 26.28.080(4) or section 3 of this act, fifty dollars for the first violation and one hundred dollars for each subsequent violation;
 - (b) For violations of section 4 of this act, one hundred dollars for each day upon which such violation occurred;
 - (c) For violations of section 5 of this act, one hundred dollars for each violation;
 - (d) For violations of sections 6 and 7 of this act, three hundred dollars for each violation;
 - (e) For violations of section 8 of this act, one thousand dollars for each violation.
- (5) The liquor control board may develop and offer a class for retail clerks and use this class in lieu of a monetary penalty for the clerk's first violation.
- (6) The liquor control board may issue a cease and desist order to any person who is found by the liquor control board to have violated or intending to violate the provisions of this chapter, RCW 26.28.080(4) or 82.24.500, requiring such person to cease specified conduct that is in violation. The issuance of a cease and desist order shall not preclude the imposition of other sanctions authorized by this statute or any other provision of law.
- (7) The liquor control board may seek injunctive relief to enforce the provisions of RCW 26.28.080(4) or 82.24.500 or this chapter. The liquor control board may initiate legal action to collect civil penalties imposed under this chapter if the same have not been paid within thirty days after imposition of such penalties. In any action filed by the liquor control board under this chapter, the court may, in addition to any other relief, award the liquor control board reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
- (8) All proceedings under subsections (1) through (6) of this section shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The liquor control board shall, in addition to the board's other powers and authorities, have the authority to enforce the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and 82.24.500. The liquor control board shall have full power to revoke or suspend the license of any retailer or wholesaler in accordance with the provisions of section 11 of this act.

(2) The liquor control board and the board's authorized agents or employees shall have full power and authority to enter any place of business where tobacco products are sold for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter.

(3) For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and 82.24.500, a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board who has reasonable grounds to believe a person observed by the officer purchasing, attempting to purchase, or in possession of tobacco products is under the age of eighteen years of age, may detain such person for a reasonable period of time and in such a reasonable manner as is necessary to determine the person's true identity and date of birth. Further, tobacco products possessed by persons under the age of eighteen years of age are considered contraband and may be seized by a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board.

(4) The liquor control board may work with local county health departments or districts and local law enforcement agencies to conduct random, unannounced, inspections to assure compliance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The youth tobacco prevention account is created in the state treasury. All fees collected pursuant to RCW 82.24.520 and 82.24.530 and funds collected by the liquor control board from the imposition of monetary penalties and samplers' fees shall be deposited into this account, except that ten percent of all such fees and penalties shall be deposited in the state general fund.

(2) Moneys appropriated from the youth tobacco prevention account to the department of health shall be used by the department of health for implementation of this chapter, including collection and reporting of data regarding enforcement and the extent to which access to tobacco products by youth has been reduced.

(3) The department of health shall enter into interagency agreements with the liquor control board to pay the costs incurred, up to thirty percent of available funds, in carrying out its enforcement responsibilities under this chapter. Such agreements shall set forth standards of enforcement, consistent with the funding available, so as to reduce the extent to which tobacco products are available to individuals under the age of eighteen. The agreements shall also set forth requirements for data reporting by the liquor control board regarding its enforcement activities.

(4) The department of health and the department of revenue shall enter into an interagency agreement for payment of the cost of administering the tobacco retailer licensing system and for the provision of quarterly documentation of tobacco wholesaler, retailer, and vending machine names and locations.

(5) The department of health shall, within up to seventy percent of available funds, provide grants to local health departments or other local community agencies to develop and implement coordinated tobacco intervention strategies to prevent and reduce tobacco use by youth.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This chapter preempts political subdivisions from adopting or enforcing requirements for the licensure and regulation of tobacco product promotions and sales within retail stores, except that political subdivisions that have adopted ordinances prohibiting sampling by January 1, 1993, may continue to enforce these ordinances. No political subdivision may: (1) Impose fees or license requirements on retail businesses for possessing or selling cigarettes or tobacco products, other than general business taxes or license fees not primarily levied on tobacco products; or (2) regulate or prohibit activities covered by sections 3 through 9 of this act. This chapter does not otherwise preempt political subdivisions from adopting ordinances regulating the sale, purchase, use, or promotion of tobacco products not inconsistent with chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act).

Sec. 15. RCW 82.24.530 and 1986 c 321 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

A fee of ~~((ten))~~ ninety-three dollars shall accompany each retailer's license application or license renewal application. A separate license is required for each separate location at which the retailer operates. A fee of ~~((one))~~ thirty additional dollars for each vending machine shall accompany each application or renewal for a license issued to a retail dealer operating a cigarette vending machine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The department of health shall report to the house of representatives and senate committees with jurisdiction for health issues no later than February 1, 1995, on the effectiveness of enforcement and education activities as specified in this act. This study shall include information concerning the adequacy of revenue to support enforcement and education activities.

Sec. 17. RCW 82.24.550 and 1986 c 321 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of revenue shall enforce the provisions of this chapter except RCW 82.24.500, which will be enforced by the liquor control board. The department of revenue may adopt, amend, and repeal rules necessary to enforce and administer the provisions of this chapter. The department of revenue has full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license or permit of any wholesale or retail cigarette dealer in the state upon sufficient cause appearing of the violation of this chapter or upon the failure of such licensee to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter.

(2) A license shall not be suspended or revoked except upon notice to the licensee and after a hearing as prescribed by the department of revenue. The department of revenue, upon a finding by same, that the licensee has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or any rule promulgated thereunder, shall, in the case of the first offender, suspend the license or licenses of the licensee for a period of not less than thirty consecutive business days, and, in the case of a second or plural offender, shall suspend the license or licenses for a period of not less than ninety consecutive business days nor more than twelve months, and, in the event the department of revenue finds the offender has been guilty of willful and persistent violations, it may revoke the license or licenses.

(3) Any person whose license or licenses have been so revoked may apply to the department of revenue at the expiration of one year for a reinstatement of the license or licenses. The license or licenses may be reinstated by the department of revenue if it appears to the satisfaction of the department of revenue that the licensee will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules promulgated thereunder.

(4) A person whose license has been suspended or revoked shall not sell cigarettes or permit cigarettes to be sold during the period of such suspension or revocation on the premises occupied by the person or upon other premises controlled by the person or others or in any other manner or form whatever.

(5) Any determination and order by the department of revenue, and any order of suspension or revocation by the department of revenue of the license or licenses, or refusal to reinstate a license or licenses after revocation shall be reviewable by an appeal to the superior court of Thurston county. The superior court shall review the order or ruling of the department of revenue and may hear the matter de novo, having due regard to the provisions of this chapter and the duties imposed upon the department of revenue.

Sec. 18. RCW 82.24.560 and 1986 c 321 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as specified in section 13 of this act, all fees and penalties received or collected by the department of revenue pursuant to this chapter shall be paid to the state treasurer, to be credited to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 2 through 14 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Sec. 1. RCW 66.28.090 and 1981 1st ex.s. c 5 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All licensed premises used in the manufacture, storage, or sale of liquor, or any premises or parts of premises used or in any way connected, physically or otherwise, with the licensed business, and/or any premises where a banquet permit has been granted, shall at all times be open to inspection by any liquor and tobacco enforcement officer, inspector₁ or peace officer.

(2) Every person, being on any such premises and having charge thereof, who refuses or fails to admit a liquor and tobacco enforcement officer, inspector₁ or peace officer demanding to enter therein in pursuance of this section in the execution of ~~((his/her))~~ his or her duty, or who obstructs or attempts to obstruct the entry of such liquor and tobacco enforcement officer, inspector₁ or officer of the peace, or who refuses to allow a liquor and tobacco enforcement officer, and/or an inspector to examine the books of the licensee, or who refuses or neglects to make any return required by this title or the ~~((regulations))~~ rules, shall be guilty of a violation of this title.

Sec. 2. RCW 66.44.010 and 1987 c 202 s 224 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All county and municipal peace officers are hereby charged with the duty of investigating and prosecuting all violations of this title, and the penal laws of this state relating to the manufacture, importation, transportation, possession, distribution, and sale of liquor, and all fines imposed for violations of this title and the penal laws of this state relating to the manufacture, importation, transportation, possession, distribution, and sale of liquor shall belong to the county, city, or town wherein the court imposing the fine is located, and shall be placed in the general fund for payment of the salaries of those engaged in the enforcement of the provisions of this title and the penal laws of this state relating to the manufacture, importation, transportation, possession, distribution, and sale of liquor: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a district court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

(2) In addition to any and all other powers granted, the board shall have the power to enforce the penal provisions of this title and the penal laws of this state relating to the manufacture, importation, transportation, possession, distribution, and sale of liquor.

(3) In addition to the other duties under this section, the board shall enforce chapters 82.24 and 82.26 RCW and RCW 26.28.080(4).

(4) The board may appoint and employ, assign to duty and fix the compensation of, officers to be designated as liquor and tobacco enforcement officers. Such enforcement officers shall have the power, under the supervision of the board, to enforce the penal provisions of this title and the penal laws of this state relating to the manufacture, importation, transportation, possession, distribution, and sale of liquor, and the provisions of chapters 82.24 and 82.26 RCW and RCW 26.28.080(4) relating to cigarettes and tobacco. They shall have the power and authority to serve and execute all warrants and process of law issued by the courts in enforcing the penal provisions of this title or of any penal law of this state relating to the manufacture, importation, transportation, possession, distribution, and sale of liquor, and the provisions of chapters 82.24 and 82.26 RCW and RCW 26.28.080(4) relating to cigarettes and tobacco. They shall have the power to arrest without a warrant any person or persons found in the act of violating any of the penal provisions of this title or of any penal law of this state relating to the manufacture, importation, transportation, possession, distribution, and sale of liquor, and the provisions of chapters 82.24 and 82.26 RCW and RCW 26.28.080(4) relating to cigarettes and tobacco.

(5) The board shall make a special effort to enforce laws that protect children and young adults from the harmful effects of tobacco and alcohol consumption.

Sec. 3. RCW 66.44.370 and 1981 1st ex.s. c 5 s 27 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall knowingly or willfully resist or oppose any state, county, or municipal peace officer, or liquor and tobacco enforcement officer, in the discharge of his or her duties under Title 66 RCW, or aid and abet such resistance or opposition. Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a violation of this title and subject to arrest by any such officer.

Sec. 4. RCW 82.24.010 and 1961 c 15 s 82.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, unless otherwise required by the context:

(1) "Wholesaler" means every person who purchases, sells, or distributes any one or more of the articles taxed herein to retailers for the purpose of resale only;

(2) "Retailer" means every person, other than a wholesaler, who purchases, sells, offers for sale, or distributes any one or more of the articles taxed herein, irrespective of quantity or amount, or the number of sales, and all persons operating under a retailer's registration certificate;

(3) ("Retail selling price" means the ordinary, customary or usual price paid by the consumer for each package of cigarettes, the tax levied by this chapter and tax levied by this state;

(4)) "Cigarette" means any roll for smoking made wholly or in part of tobacco, irrespective of size or shape and irrespective of the tobacco being flavored, adulterated, or mixed with any other ingredient, where such roll has a wrapper or cover made of paper or any material, except where such wrapper is wholly or in the greater part made of natural leaf tobacco in its natural state;

((5)) (4) "Stamp" means the stamp or stamps or meter impressions by use of which the tax levy under this chapter is paid;

(5) "Board" means the liquor control board;

(6) The meaning attributed, in chapter 82.04 RCW, to the words "person," "sale," "business," and "successor" shall apply equally in the provisions of this chapter;

(7) "Minor" refers to an individual who is less than eighteen years old;

(8) "Public place" means a public street, sidewalk, or park, or any area open to the public in a publicly owned and operated building;

(9) "Sample" means a tobacco product distributed to members of the general public at no cost or at nominal cost for product promotion purposes;

(10) "Sampler" means a person engaged in the business of sampling other than a retailer;

(11) "Sampling" means the distribution of samples to members of the general public in a public place;

(12) "Tobacco product" means a product that contains tobacco and is intended for human consumption.

Sec. 5. RCW 82.24.027 and 1986 c 3 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby levied and there shall be collected by the (department of revenue) board from the persons mentioned in and in the manner provided by this chapter, an additional tax upon the sale, use, consumption, handling, possession, or distribution of cigarettes in an amount equal to the rate of four mills per cigarette.

The moneys collected under this section shall be deposited in the water quality account under RCW 70.146.030 through June 30, 2021, and in the general fund thereafter.

Sec. 6. RCW 82.24.030 and 1990 c 216 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to enforce collection of the tax hereby levied, the (department of revenue) board shall design and have printed stamps of such size and denominations as may be determined by the (department) board, such stamps to be affixed on the smallest container or package that will be handled, sold, used, consumed, or distributed, to permit the (department) board to readily ascertain by inspection, whether or not such tax has been paid. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, every person shall cause to be affixed on every package of cigarettes, stamps of an amount equaling the tax due thereon before he or she sells, offers for sale, uses, consumes, handles, removes, or otherwise disturbs and distributes the same: PROVIDED, That where it is established to the satisfaction of the (department) board that it is impractical to affix such stamps to the smallest container or package, the ((department)) board may authorize the affixing of stamps of appropriate denomination to a large container or package.

The ((department)) board may authorize the use of meter stamping machines for imprinting stamps, which imprinted stamps shall be in lieu of those otherwise provided for under this chapter, and if such use is authorized, shall provide reasonable rules ((and regulations)) with respect thereto.

Sec. 7. RCW 82.24.040 and 1990 c 216 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

No wholesaler in this state may possess within this state unstamped cigarettes except that:

(1) Every wholesaler in the state who is licensed under Washington state law may possess within this state unstamped cigarettes for such period of time after receipt as is reasonably necessary to affix the stamps as required; and

(2) Any wholesaler in the state who is licensed under Washington state law and who furnishes a surety bond in a sum satisfactory to the ((department)) board, shall be permitted to set aside, without affixing the stamps required by this chapter, such part of ((his)) the wholesaler's stock as may be necessary for the conduct of ((his)) the wholesaler's business in making sales to persons in another state or foreign country, to instrumentalities of the federal government, or to the established governing bodies of any Indian tribe, recognized as such by the United States Department of the Interior. Such unstamped stock shall be kept separate and apart from stamped stock.

(3) Every wholesaler licensed under Washington state law shall, at the time of shipping or delivering any of the articles taxed herein to a point outside of this state, or to a federal instrumentality, or to an Indian tribal organization, make a true duplicate invoice of the same which shall show full and complete details of the sale or delivery, whether or not stamps were affixed thereto, and shall transmit such true duplicate invoice to the main office of the ((department)) board, at Olympia, not later than the fifteenth day of the following calendar month, and for failure to comply with the requirements of this section the ((department)) board may revoke the permission granted to the taxpayer to maintain a stock of goods to which the stamps required by this chapter have not been affixed. The ((department)) board may also revoke this permission to maintain a stock of unstamped goods for sale to a specific Indian tribal organization when it appears that sales of unstamped cigarettes to persons who are not enrolled members of a recognized Indian tribe are taking place, or have taken place, within the exterior boundaries of the reservation occupied by that tribe.

Sec. 8. RCW 82.24.050 and 1990 c 216 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((No)) Every retailer ((in this state may possess unstamped cigarettes within this state unless the retailer is licensed under Washington state law and, within a period of time after receipt of any of the articles taxed herein as is reasonably necessary for the purpose, causes the same to have the requisite denomination and amount of stamps affixed to represent the tax imposed herein: PROVIDED, That those articles to which stamps have been properly affixed by a wholesaler or another retailer, licensed under Washington state law, may be retained by any retailer, and that those articles intended for sale to qualified purchasers may, under rules adopted by the department of revenue, be retained by federal instrumentalities and Indian tribal organizations, without affixing the stamps required by this chapter)) shall purchase cigarettes with the stamps affixed.~~

Sec. 9. RCW 82.24.070 and 1987 c 496 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

Wholesalers ((and retailers)) subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be allowed compensation for their services in affixing the stamps herein required a sum computed at the rate of four dollars per one thousand stamps purchased or affixed by them.

Sec. 10. RCW 82.24.090 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 62 are each amended to read as follows:

Every wholesaler or retailer subject to the provisions of this chapter shall keep and preserve for a period of five years an accurate set of records, showing all transactions had with reference to the purchase and sale of any of the articles taxed herein and such persons shall also keep separately all invoices, and shall keep a record of all stamps purchased, and all such records and all stock of taxable articles on hand shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by the ((department of revenue)) board or its duly authorized agent.

All wholesalers shall within fifteen days after the first day of each month file with the ((department of revenue)) board a report of all drop shipment sales made by them to retailers within this state during the preceding month, which report shall show the name and address of the retailer to whom the cigarettes were sold, the kind and quantity, and the date of delivery thereof.

Sec. 11. RCW 82.24.110 and 1990 c 216 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each of the following acts is a gross misdemeanor and punishable as such:

(a) To sell, except as a licensed wholesaler or licensed retailer engaged in interstate commerce as to the article being taxed herein, without the stamp first being affixed;

(b) To use or have in possession knowingly or intentionally any forged or counterfeit stamps;

(c) For any person other than the ((department of revenue)) board or its duly authorized agent to sell any stamps not affixed to any of the articles taxed herein whether such stamps are genuine or counterfeit;

(d) To violate any of the provisions of this chapter;

(e) To violate any lawful rule ((or regulation)) made and published by the ((department of revenue)) board;

(f) To use any stamps more than once;

(g) To refuse to allow the ((department of revenue)) board or any duly authorized agent thereof, on demand, to make full inspection of any place of business where any of the articles herein taxed are sold or otherwise hinder or prevent such inspection;

(h) For any retailer((- except one permitted to maintain an unstamped stock to engage in interstate business as provided herein,)) to have in possession in any place of business any of the articles herein taxed, unless the same have the proper stamps attached;

(i) For any person to make, use, or present or exhibit to the ((department of revenue)) board or any duly authorized agent thereof, any invoice for any of the articles herein taxed which bears an untrue date or falsely states the nature or quantity of the goods therein invoiced;

(j) For any wholesaler or retailer or ((his or her)) its agents or employees to fail to produce on demand of the ((department of revenue)) board all invoices of all the articles herein taxed or stamps bought ((by him or her)) or received in ((his or her)) its place of business within five years prior to such demand unless ((he or she)) the wholesaler or retailer can show by satisfactory proof that the nonproduction of the invoices was due to causes beyond ((his)) its control;

(k) For any person to receive in this state any shipment of any of the articles taxed herein, when the same are not stamped, are untaxed, or are untaxed and stamped for the purpose of avoiding payment of tax. It is presumed that persons other than dealers who purchase or receive shipments of unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes do so to avoid payment of the tax imposed herein;

(1) For any person to possess or transport upon the public highways, roads, or streets of this state a quantity of sixty thousand cigarettes or less (~~(unless the proper stamps required by this chapter have been affixed)~~ that are unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes unless the person transporting the cigarettes has in actual possession invoices or delivery tickets therefor which show the true name and address of the consignor or seller, the true name of the consignee or purchaser, and the quantity and brands of the cigarettes so transported and unless the cigarettes are consigned to or purchased by any person in this state who is a purchaser or consignee authorized by this chapter to possess unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes in this state.

(2) It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess or to transport upon the public highways, roads, or streets of this state a quantity in excess of sixty thousand cigarettes (~~(unless the proper stamps required by this chapter are affixed thereto or)~~ that are unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes unless the person transporting the cigarettes actually possesses invoices or delivery tickets showing the true name and address of the consignor or seller, the true name of the consignee or purchaser, and the quantity and brands of the cigarettes so transported. Violation of this section shall be punished as a class C felony under Title 9A RCW.

(3) All agents, employees, and others who aid, abet, or otherwise participate in any way in the violation of the provisions of this chapter or in any of the offenses described in this chapter shall be guilty and punishable as principals, to the same extent as any wholesaler or retailer or any other person violating the provisions thereof.

Sec. 12. RCW 82.24.120 and 1990 c 267 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

If any person, subject to the provisions of this chapter or any rules (~~(and regulations promulgated)~~ adopted by the (~~(department of revenue)~~ board under authority hereof, is found to have failed to affix the stamps required, or to have them affixed as herein provided, or to pay any tax due hereunder, or to have violated any of the provisions of this chapter or rules (~~(and regulations promulgated)~~ adopted by the (~~(department of revenue)~~ board in the administration hereof, there shall be assessed and collected from such person, in addition to any tax that may be found due, a penalty equal to the greater of ten dollars per package of unstamped cigarettes or two hundred fifty dollars, plus interest thereon at the rate of one percent for each thirty days or portions thereof from the date the tax became due, and upon notice mailed to the last known address of the person said amount shall become due and payable in ten days, at which time the (~~(department)~~ board or its duly authorized agent may make immediate demand upon such person for the payment of all such taxes and penalties. The (~~(department)~~ board, for good reason shown, may remit all or any part of penalties imposed, but the taxpayer must pay all taxes due and interest thereon, at the rate of one percent for each thirty days or portion thereof. The keeping of any unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped articles coming within the provisions of this chapter shall be prima facie evidence of intent to violate the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 13. RCW 82.24.130 and 1990 c 216 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are subject to seizure and forfeiture:

(a) Subject to RCW 82.24.250, any articles taxed in this chapter that are found at any point within this state, which articles are held, owned, or possessed by any person, and that (~~(do not have the stamps affixed to the packages or containers))~~ are unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed and stamped.

(b) All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, or vessels, which are used, or intended for use, to transport, or in any manner to facilitate the transportation, for the purpose of sale or receipt of property described in (a) of this subsection, except:

(i) A conveyance used by any person as a common or contract carrier having in actual possession invoices or delivery tickets showing the true name and address of the consignor or seller, the true name of the consignee or purchaser, and the quantity and brands of the cigarettes transported, unless it appears that the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this chapter;

(ii) A conveyance subject to forfeiture under this section by reason of any act or omission of which the owner thereof establishes to have been committed or omitted without his or her knowledge or consent;

(iii) A conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission.

(c) Any vending machine used for the purpose of violating the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any agent of the (~~(department)~~ board authorized to collect taxes or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court or district court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure without process may be made if:

(a) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant; or

(b) The (~~(department)~~ board or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter and exigent circumstances exist making procurement of a search warrant impracticable.

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, articles taxed in this chapter which are in the possession of a wholesaler (~~(or retailer)~~), licensed under Washington state law, for a period of time necessary to affix the stamps after receipt of the articles, shall not be considered contraband.

Sec. 14. RCW 82.24.135 and 1987 c 496 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases of seizure of any property made subject to forfeiture under this chapter the (~~(department)~~ board shall proceed as follows:

(1) Forfeiture shall be deemed to have commenced by the seizure. Notice of seizure shall be given to the (~~(department)~~ board immediately if the seizure is made by someone other than an agent of the (~~(department)~~ board authorized to collect taxes.

(2) Upon notification or seizure by the (~~(department)~~ board or upon receipt of property subject to forfeiture under this chapter from any other person, the (~~(department)~~ board shall list and particularly describe the property seized in duplicate and have the property appraised by a qualified person not employed by the (~~(department)~~ board or acting as its agent. Listing and appraisal of the property shall be properly attested by the (~~(department)~~ board and the appraiser, who shall be allowed a reasonable appraisal fee. No appraisal is required if the property seized is judged by the (~~(department)~~ board to be less than one hundred dollars in value.

(3) The ((department)) board shall cause notice to be served within five days following the seizure or notification to the ((department)) board of the seizure on the owner of the property seized, if known, on the person in charge thereof, and on any other person having any known right or interest therein, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. The notice may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by mail. If service is by mail it shall be by both certified mail with return receipt requested and regular mail. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the five-day period following the seizure or notification of the seizure to the ((department)) board.

(4) If no person notifies the ((department)) board in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of the items seized within fifteen days of the date of the notice of seizure, the item seized shall be considered forfeited.

(5) If any person notifies the ((department)) board, in writing, of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of the items seized within fifteen days of the date of the notice of seizure, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the ((director)) board or the ((director's)) board's designee, except that any person asserting a claim or right may bring an action for return of the seized items in the superior court of the county in which such property was seized, if the aggregate value of the article or articles involved is more than five hundred dollars. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW. The burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of the items seized. The ((department)) board shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of the items seized.

Sec. 15. RCW 82.24.145 and 1987 c 496 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

When property is forfeited under this chapter the ((department)) board may:

(1) Retain the property or any part thereof for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state, another state, or the District of Columbia, or of the United States for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter or the laws of any other state or the District of Columbia or of the United States.

(2) Sell the property at public auction to the highest bidder after due advertisement, but the ((department)) board before delivering any of the goods so seized shall require the person to whom the property is sold to affix the proper amount of stamps. The proceeds of the sale and all moneys forfeited under this chapter shall be first applied to the payment of all proper expenses of any investigation leading to the seizure and of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, and court costs. The balance of the proceeds and all moneys shall be deposited in the general fund of the state. Proper expenses of investigation includes costs incurred by any law enforcement agency or any federal, state, or local agency.

Sec. 16. RCW 82.24.180 and 1990 c 267 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((department of revenue)) board may return any property seized under the provisions of this chapter when it is shown that there was no intention to violate the provisions thereof.

When any property is returned under this section, the ((department)) board may return such goods to the parties from whom they were seized if and when such parties affix the proper amount of stamps thereto, and pay to the ((department)) board as penalty an amount equal to the greater of ten dollars per package of unstamped cigarettes or two hundred fifty dollars, and interest thereon at the rate of one percent for each thirty days or portion thereof from the date the tax became due, and in such cases, no advertisement shall be made or notices posted in connection with said seizure.

When the ((department of revenue)) board has good reason to believe that any of the articles taxed herein are being kept, sold, offered for sale, or given away in violation of the provisions of this chapter or ((regulations)) rules issued under authority hereof, it may make affidavit of such fact, describing the place or thing to be searched, before any judge of any court in this state, and such judge shall issue a search warrant directed to the sheriff, any deputy, police officer, or duly authorized agent of the ((department of revenue)) board commanding him or her diligently to search any building, room in a building, place, or vehicle as may be designated in the affidavit and search warrant, and to seize such tobacco so possessed and to hold the same until disposed of by law, and to arrest the person in possession or control thereof. If upon the return of such warrant, it shall appear that any of the articles taxed herein, unlawfully possessed, were seized, the same shall be sold as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 18. RCW 82.24.210 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 68 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((department of revenue)) board may ((promulgate)) adopt rules ((and regulations)) providing for the refund to dealers for the cost of stamps affixed to articles taxed herein, which by reason of damage become unfit for sale and are destroyed by the dealer or returned to the manufacturer or jobber. In the case of any articles to which stamps have been affixed, and which articles have been sold and shipped to a regular dealer in such articles in another state, the seller in this state shall be entitled to a refund of the actual amount of the stamps so affixed, less the affixing discount, upon condition that the seller in this state makes affidavit that the articles were sold and shipped outside of the state and that ((he)) the seller has received from the purchaser outside the state a written acknowledgment that ((he)) the purchaser has received such articles with the amount of stamps affixed thereto, together with the name and address of such purchaser. The ((department of revenue)) board may redeem any unused stamps purchased from it at the face value thereof less the affixing discount.

Sec. 19. RCW 82.24.230 and 1961 c 15 s 82.24.230 are each amended to read as follows:

All of the provisions contained in chapter 82.32 RCW except RCW 82.32.050, 82.32.060, 82.32.070, 82.32.100, and 82.32.270 shall have full force and application with respect to taxes imposed under the provisions of this chapter (, except the following sections thereof: RCW 82.32.050, 82.32.060, 82.32.070, 82.32.100 and 82.32.270); except that "department of revenue" or "department" means the liquor control board.

No person other than (1) a licensed wholesaler in its own vehicle, or (2) a person who has given notice to the ((department)) board in advance of the commencement of transportation shall transport or cause to be transported unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes (not having the stamps affixed to the packages or containers), upon the public highways, roads, or streets of this state. In the case of transportation of unstamped cigarettes such persons shall have in their actual possession invoices or delivery tickets for such cigarettes, which shall show the true name and address of the consignor or seller, the true name of the consignee or purchaser, and the quantity and brands of the cigarettes so transported. If the cigarettes are consigned to or purchased by any person in this state such purchaser or consignee must be a person who is authorized by chapter

82.24 RCW to possess unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes in this state. In the absence of such invoices or delivery tickets, or, if the name or address of the consignee or purchaser is falsified or if the purchaser or consignee is not authorized by chapter 82.24 RCW to possess unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes, the cigarettes so transported shall be deemed contraband subject to seizure and sale under the provisions of RCW 82.24.130.

Transportation of cigarettes from a point outside this state to a point in some other state will not be considered a violation of this section provided that the person so transporting such cigarettes has in his or her possession adequate invoices or delivery tickets which give the true name and address of such out-of-state seller or consignor and such out-of-state purchaser or consignee.

In any case where the ((department)) board or its duly authorized agent, or any peace officer of the state, has knowledge or reasonable grounds to believe that any vehicle is transporting cigarettes in violation of this section, the ((department)) board, such agent, or such police officer, is authorized to stop such vehicle and to inspect the same for contraband cigarettes.

For purposes of this section, the term "person authorized by chapter 82.24 RCW to possess unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes" shall mean a wholesaler (~~or retailer,~~) licensed under Washington state law, the United States or an agency thereof, and any Indian tribal organization authorized under rules adopted by the ((department of revenue)) board to possess ((~~unstamped cigarettes~~)) these articles.

Sec. 21. RCW 82.24.510 and 1986 c 321 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The licenses issuable under this chapter are as follows:

(a) A wholesaler's license.

(b) A retailer's license.

(c) A vending machine license.

(2) Application for the licenses shall be made through the master license system under chapter 19.02 RCW. The ((department of revenue)) board shall adopt rules regarding the regulation of the licenses. The ((department of revenue)) board may refrain from the issuance of any license under this chapter if the ((department)) board has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant has willfully withheld information requested for the purpose of determining the eligibility of the applicant to receive a license, or if the ((department)) board has reasonable cause to believe that information submitted in the application is false or misleading or is not made in good faith. Each such license shall expire on the master license expiration date, and each such license shall be continued annually if the licensee has paid the required fee and complied with all the provisions of this chapter and the rules of the ((department of revenue)) board made pursuant thereto.

Sec. 22. RCW 82.24.520 and 1986 c 321 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

A fee of six hundred fifty dollars shall accompany each wholesaler's license application or license renewal application. If a wholesaler sells or intends to sell cigarettes at two or more places of business, whether established or temporary, a separate license with a license fee of one hundred fifteen dollars shall be required for each additional place of business. Each license, or certificate thereof, and such other evidence of license as the ((department of revenue)) board requires, shall be exhibited in the place of business for which it is issued and in such manner as is prescribed for the display of a master license. The ((department of revenue)) board shall require each licensed wholesaler to file with the ((department)) board a bond in an amount not less than ((~~one~~)) five thousand dollars to guarantee the proper performance of the duties and the discharge of the liabilities under this chapter. The bond shall be executed by such licensed wholesaler as principal, and by a corporation approved by the ((department of revenue)) board and authorized to engage in business as a surety company in this state, as surety. The bond shall run concurrently with the wholesaler's license.

Sec. 23. RCW 82.24.530 and 1986 c 321 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

A fee of ((~~ten~~)) ninety-three dollars shall accompany each retailer's license application or license renewal application. A separate license is required for each separate location at which the retailer operates. A fee of ((~~one~~)) thirty additional dollars for each vending machine shall accompany each application or renewal for a license issued to a retail dealer operating a cigarette vending machine.

Sec. 24. RCW 82.24.550 and 1986 c 321 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The ((department of revenue)) board shall enforce the provisions of this chapter. The ((department of revenue)) board may adopt, amend, and repeal rules necessary to enforce and administer the provisions of this chapter. The ((department of revenue)) board has full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license or permit of any wholesale or retail cigarette dealer in the state upon sufficient cause appearing of the violation of this chapter or upon the failure of such licensee to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter.

(2) A license shall not be suspended or revoked except upon notice to the licensee and after a hearing as prescribed by the ((department of revenue)) board. The ((department of revenue)) board, upon a finding by same, that the licensee has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or any rule ((~~promulgated thereunder~~)) adopted under this chapter, shall, in the case of the first offender, suspend the license or licenses of the licensee for a period of not less than thirty consecutive business days, and, in the case of a second or plural offender, shall suspend the license or licenses for a period of not less than ninety consecutive business days nor more than twelve months, and, in the event the ((department of revenue)) board finds the offender has been guilty of willful and persistent violations, it may revoke the license or licenses.

(3) Any person whose license or licenses have been so revoked may apply to the ((department of revenue)) board at the expiration of one year for a reinstatement of the license or licenses. The license or licenses may be reinstated by the ((department of revenue)) board if it appears to the satisfaction of the ((department of revenue)) board that the licensee will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules ((~~promulgated thereunder~~)) adopted under this chapter.

(4) A person whose license has been suspended or revoked shall not sell cigarettes or permit cigarettes to be sold during the period of such suspension or revocation on the premises occupied by the person or upon other premises controlled by the person or others or in any other manner or form whatever.

(5) Any determination and order by the ((department of revenue)) board, and any order of suspension or revocation by the ((department of revenue)) board of the license or licenses, or refusal to reinstate a license or licenses after revocation shall be reviewable by an appeal to the superior court of Thurston county. The superior court shall review the order or ruling of the ((department of revenue)) board and may hear the matter de novo, having due regard to the provisions of this chapter and the duties imposed upon the ((department of revenue)) board.

Sec. 25. RCW 82.24.560 and 1986 c 321 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

Except under section 55 of this act, all fees and penalties received or collected by the ((department of revenue)) board pursuant to this chapter shall be paid to the state treasurer, to be credited to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 82.24 RCW to read as follows:

The board may adopt rules to implement this chapter.

Sec. 27. RCW 82.26.010 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 70 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Tobacco products" means cigars, cheroots, stogies, periques, granulated, plug cut, crimp cut, ready rubbed, and other smoking tobacco, snuff, snuff flour, cavendish, plug and twist tobacco, fine-cut and other chewing tobaccos, shorts, refuse scraps, clippings, cuttings, and sweepings of tobacco, and other kinds and forms of tobacco, prepared in such manner as to be suitable for chewing or smoking in a pipe or otherwise, or both for chewing and smoking, but shall not include cigarettes as defined in RCW 82.24.010((4));

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person who manufactures and sells tobacco products;

(3) "Distributor" means (a) any person engaged in the business of selling tobacco products in this state who brings, or causes to be brought, into this state from without the state any tobacco products for sale, (b) any person who makes, manufactures, or fabricates tobacco products in this state for sale in this state, (c) any person engaged in the business of selling tobacco products without this state who ships or transports tobacco products to retailers in this state, to be sold by those retailers;

(4) "Subjobber" means any person, other than a manufacturer or distributor, who buys tobacco products from a distributor and sells them to persons other than the ultimate consumers;

(5) "Retailer" means any person engaged in the business of selling tobacco products to ultimate consumers;

(6) "Sale" means any transfer, exchange, or barter, in any manner or by any means whatsoever, for a consideration, and includes and means all sales made by any person. It includes a gift by a person engaged in the business of selling tobacco products, for advertising, as a means of evading the provisions of this chapter, or for any other purposes whatsoever.

(7) "Wholesale sales price" means the established price for which a manufacturer sells a tobacco product to a distributor, exclusive of any discount or other reduction;

(8) "Business" means any trade, occupation, activity, or enterprise engaged in for the purpose of selling or distributing tobacco products in this state;

(9) "Place of business" means any place where tobacco products are sold or where tobacco products are manufactured, stored, or kept for the purpose of sale or consumption, including any vessel, vehicle, airplane, train, or vending machine;

(10) "Retail outlet" means each place of business from which tobacco products are sold to consumers;

(11) ("Department" means the state department of revenue) "Board" means the liquor control board.

Sec. 28. RCW 82.26.050 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 72 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((From and after July 1, 1959))~~ No person shall engage in the business of a distributor or subjobber of tobacco products at any place of business without first having received from the ((department of revenue)) board a certificate of registration ((as provided in RCW 82.32.030)).

Sec. 29. RCW 82.26.060 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 73 are each amended to read as follows:

Every distributor shall keep at each registered place of business complete and accurate records for that place of business, including itemized invoices, of tobacco products held, purchased, manufactured, brought in or caused to be brought in from without the state, or shipped or transported to retailers in this state, and of all sales of tobacco products made, except sales to the ultimate consumer.

These records shall show the names and addresses of purchasers ~~((, the inventory of all tobacco products on hand on July 1, 1959,))~~ and other pertinent papers and documents relating to the purchase, sale, or disposition of tobacco products.

When a registered distributor sells tobacco products exclusively to the ultimate consumer at the address given in the certificate, no invoice of those sales shall be required, but itemized invoices shall be made of all tobacco products transferred to other retail outlets owned or controlled by that registered distributor. All books, records, and other papers and documents required by this section to be kept shall be preserved for a period of at least five years after the date of the documents, as aforesaid, or the date of the entries thereof appearing in the records, unless the ((department of revenue)) board, in writing, authorizes their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours the ((department)) board, or its duly authorized agents or employees, may enter any place of business of a distributor, without a search warrant, and inspect the premises, the records required to be kept under this chapter, and the tobacco products contained therein, to determine whether or not all the provisions of this chapter are being fully complied with. If the ((department)) board, or any of its agents or employees, are denied free access or are hindered or interfered with in making such examination, the registration certificate of the distributor at such premises shall be subject to revocation by the ((department)) board.

Sec. 30. RCW 82.26.080 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 74 are each amended to read as follows:

Every retailer and subjobber shall procure itemized invoices of all tobacco products purchased. The invoices shall show the name and address of the seller and the date of purchase. The retailer and subjobber shall preserve a legible copy of each such invoice for five years from the date of purchase. Invoices shall be available for inspection by the ((department of revenue)) board or its authorized agents or employees at the retailer's or subjobber's place of business.

Sec. 31. RCW 82.26.090 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 75 are each amended to read as follows:

Records of all deliveries or shipments of tobacco products from any public warehouse of first destination in this state shall be kept by the warehouse and be available to the ((department of revenue)) board for inspection. They shall show the name and address of the consignee, the date, the quantity of tobacco products delivered, and such other information as the ((department)) board may require. These records shall be preserved for five years from the date of delivery of the tobacco products.

Sec. 32. RCW 82.26.110 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 76 are each amended to read as follows:

Where tobacco products upon which the tax imposed by this chapter has been reported and paid, are shipped or transported by the distributor to retailers without the state, to be sold by those retailers, or are returned to the manufacturer by the distributor or destroyed by the distributor, credit of such tax may be made to the distributor in accordance with ((regulations)) rules prescribed by the ((department of revenue)) board.

Sec. 33. RCW 82.26.120 and 1963 ex.s. c 28 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

All of the provisions contained in chapter 82.32 RCW shall have full force and application with respect to taxes imposed under the provisions of this chapter; except that "department of revenue" or "department" means the liquor control board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. A new section is added to chapter 82.26 RCW to read as follows:

The board may adopt rules to implement this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. A new section is added to chapter 82.32 RCW to read as follows:

The liquor control board may contract with the department for the collection of taxes, penalties, and interest, and the making of refunds, related to the administration and enforcement of chapters 82.24 and 82.26 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. All powers, duties, and functions of the department of revenue pertaining to chapters 82.24 and 82.26 RCW are transferred to the liquor control board. All references to the director or department of revenue in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the liquor control board when referring to the functions transferred in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the department of revenue pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the liquor control board. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the department of revenue in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the liquor control board. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the liquor control board.

Any appropriations made to the department of revenue for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the liquor control board.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. All employees of the department of revenue engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred are transferred to the jurisdiction of the liquor control board. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the liquor control board to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. All rules and all pending business before the department of revenue pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be continued and acted upon by the liquor control board. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the liquor control board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the department of revenue shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 36 through 39 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. Nothing contained in sections 37 through 42 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. The legislature finds that while present state law prohibits the sale and distribution of tobacco to minors, youth obtain tobacco products with ease. Availability and lack of enforcement put tobacco products in the hands of youth.

Federal law requires states to enforce laws prohibiting sale and distribution of tobacco products to minors in a manner that can reasonably be expected to reduce the extent to which the products are available to minors. It is imperative to effectively reduce the sale, distribution, and availability of tobacco products to minors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. A person who holds a license issued under RCW 82.24.520 or 82.24.530 shall:

- (1) Display the license or a copy in a prominent location at the outlet for which the license is issued; and
- (2) Display a sign concerning the prohibition of tobacco sales to minors.

Such sign shall:

(a) Be posted so that it is clearly visible to anyone purchasing tobacco products from the licensee;

(b) Be designed and produced by the department of health to read: "THE SALE OF TOBACCO PRODUCTS TO PERSONS UNDER AGE 18 IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED BY STATE LAW. IF YOU ARE UNDER 18, YOU COULD BE PENALIZED FOR PURCHASING A TOBACCO PRODUCT; PHOTO ID REQUIRED"; and

(c) Be provided free of charge by the liquor control board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. No person shall sell or permit to be sold any tobacco product through any device that mechanically dispenses tobacco products unless the device is located fully within premises from which minors are prohibited or in industrial worksites where minors are not employed and not less than ten feet from all entrance or exit ways to and from each premises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. No person shall sell or permit to be sold cigarettes not in the original unopened package or container to which the stamps required by RCW 82.24.060 have been affixed.

This section does not apply to the sale of loose leaf tobacco by a retail business that generates a minimum of sixty percent of annual gross sales from the sale of tobacco products.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. (1) No person may engage in the business of sampling within the state unless licensed to do so by the board. If a firm contracts with a manufacturer to distribute samples of the manufacturer's products, that firm is deemed to be the person engaged in the business of sampling.

(2) The board shall issue a license to a sampler not otherwise disqualified by section 52 of this act upon application and payment of the fee.

(3) A sampler's license expires on the thirtieth day of June of each year and must be renewed annually upon payment of the appropriate fee.

(4) The board shall annually determine the fee for a sampler's license and each renewal. However, the fee for a manufacturer whose employees distribute samples within the state is five hundred dollars per annum, and the fee for all other samplers must be not less than fifty dollars per annum.

(5) A sampler's license entitles the licensee, and employees or agents of the licensee, to distribute samples at any lawful location in the state during the term of the license. A person engaged in sampling under the license shall carry the license or a copy at all times.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. (1) No person may distribute or offer to distribute samples in a public place. This prohibition does not apply to sampling (a) in an area to which persons under the age of eighteen are denied admission, (b) in or at a store or concession to which a retailer's license has been issued, or (c) at or adjacent to a production, repair, or outdoor construction site or facility.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, no person may distribute or offer to distribute samples in or on a public street, sidewalk, or park that is within five hundred feet of a playground, school, or other facility when that facility is being used primarily by persons under the age of eighteen for recreational, educational, or other purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. No person shall give or distribute cigarettes or other tobacco products to a person by a coupon if such coupon is redeemed in any manner that does not require an in-person transaction in a retail store.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. A person under the age of eighteen who purchases or attempts to purchase or obtains or attempts to obtain cigarettes or tobacco products commits a class 3 civil infraction under chapter 7.80 RCW and is subject to a fine as set out in chapter 7.80 RCW or participation in a smoking cessation program, or both. This provision does not apply if a person under the age of eighteen, with parental authorization, is participating in a controlled purchase as part of a liquor control board, law enforcement, or local health department activity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. (1) Where there may be a question of a person's right to purchase or obtain tobacco products by reason of age, the retailer, sampler, or agent thereof, shall require the purchaser or recipient to present any one of the following officially issued identification that shows the purchaser's age and bears his or her signature and photograph: Liquor control authority card of identification of a state or province of Canada; driver's license, instruction permit, or identification card of a state or province of Canada; "identocard" issued by the Washington state department of licensing under chapter 46.20 RCW; United States military identification; passport; or merchant marine identification card issued by the United States coast guard.

(2) It is a defense to a prosecution under RCW 26.28.080(4) that the person making a sale reasonably relied on any of the officially issued identification as defined in subsection (1) of this section. The liquor control board shall waive the suspension or revocation of a license if the licensee clearly establishes that he or she acted in good faith to prevent violations and a violation occurred despite the licensee's exercise of due diligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. (1) The liquor control board may suspend or revoke a retailer's license held by a business at any location, or may impose a monetary penalty as set forth in subsection (2) of this section, if the liquor control board finds that the licensee has violated RCW 26.28.080(4), or section 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, or 51 of this act.

(2) The sanctions that the liquor control board may impose against a person licensed under RCW 82.24.530 and sections 47 and 48 of this act based upon one or more findings under subsection (1) of this section may not exceed the following:

(a) For violation of RCW 26.28.080(4), or section 44 or 51 of this act:

(i) A monetary penalty of one hundred dollars for the first violation within any two-year period;

(ii) A monetary penalty of three hundred dollars for the second violation within any two-year period;

(iii) A monetary penalty of one thousand dollars and suspension of the license for a period of six months for the third violation within any two-year period;

(iv) A monetary penalty of one thousand five hundred dollars and suspension of the license for a period of twelve months for the fourth violation within any two-year period;

(v) Revocation of the license with no possibility of reinstatement for a period of five years for the fifth or more violation within any two-year period;

(b) For violations of section 45 of this act, a monetary penalty in the amount of one hundred dollars for each day upon which such violation occurred;

(c) For violations of section 46 of this act occurring on the licensed premises:

(i) A monetary penalty of one hundred dollars for the first violation within any two-year period;

(ii) A monetary penalty of three hundred dollars for the second violation within any two-year period;

(iii) A monetary penalty of one thousand dollars and suspension of the license for a period of six months for the third violation within any two-year period;

(iv) A monetary penalty of one thousand five hundred dollars and suspension of the license for a period of twelve months for the fourth violation within any two-year period;

(v) Revocation of the license with no possibility of reinstatement for a period of five years for the fifth or more violation within any two-year period;

(d) For violations of sections 47 and 48 of this act, a monetary penalty in the amount of three hundred dollars for each violation;

(e) For violations of section 49 of this act, a monetary penalty in the amount of one thousand dollars for each violation.

(3) The liquor control board may impose a monetary penalty upon any person other than a licensed cigarette retailer or licensed sampler if the liquor control board finds that the person has violated RCW 26.28.080(4), or section 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, or 51 of this act.

(4) The monetary penalty that the liquor control board may impose based upon one or more findings under subsection (3) of this section may not exceed the following:

(a) For violation of RCW 26.28.080(4), or section 44 or 51 of this act, fifty dollars for the first violation and one hundred dollars for each subsequent violation;

(b) For violations of section 45 of this act, one hundred dollars for each day upon which such violation occurred;

(c) For violations of section 46 of this act, one hundred dollars for each violation;

(d) For violations of sections 47 and 48 of this act, three hundred dollars for each violation;

(e) For violations of section 49 of this act, one thousand dollars for each violation.

(5) The liquor control board may develop and offer a class for retail clerks and use this class in lieu of a monetary penalty for the clerk's first violation.

(6) The liquor control board may issue a cease and desist order to any person who is found by the liquor control board to have violated or intending to violate the provisions of this chapter, RCW 26.28.080(4) or chapter 82.24 or 82.26 RCW, requiring such person to cease specified conduct that is in violation. The issuance of a cease and desist order shall not preclude the imposition of other sanctions authorized by this statute or any other provision of law.

(7) The liquor control board may seek injunctive relief to enforce the provisions of RCW 26.28.080(4) or chapter 82.24 or 82.26 RCW or this chapter. The liquor control board may initiate legal action to collect civil penalties imposed under this chapter if the same have not been paid within thirty days after imposition of such penalties. In any action filed by the liquor control board under this chapter, the court may, in addition to any other relief, award the liquor control board reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

(8) All proceedings under subsections (1) through (6) of this section shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. (1) The liquor control board shall, in addition to the board's other powers and authorities, have the authority to enforce the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and chapter 82.24 or 82.26 RCW. The liquor control board shall have full power to revoke or suspend the license of any retailer or wholesaler in accordance with the provisions of section 52 of this act.

(2) The liquor control board and the board's authorized agents or employees shall have full power and authority to enter any place of business where tobacco products are sold for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of chapter 82.24 or 82.26 RCW or this chapter.

(3) For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and 82.24.500, a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board who has reasonable grounds to believe a person observed by the officer purchasing, attempting to purchase, or in possession of tobacco products is under the age of eighteen years of age, may detain such person for a reasonable period of time and in such a reasonable manner as is necessary to determine the person's true identity and date of birth. Further, tobacco products possessed by persons under the age of eighteen years of age are considered contraband and may be seized by a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board.

(4) The liquor control board may work with local county health departments or districts and local law enforcement agencies to conduct random, unannounced, inspections to assure compliance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. This chapter preempts political subdivisions from adopting or enforcing requirements for the licensure and regulation of tobacco product promotions and sales within retail stores, except that political subdivisions that have adopted ordinances prohibiting sampling by January 1, 1993, may continue to enforce these ordinances. No political subdivision may: (1) Impose fees or license requirements on retail businesses for possessing or selling cigarettes or tobacco products, other than general business taxes or license fees not primarily levied on tobacco products; or (2) regulate or prohibit activities covered by sections 44 through 50 of this act. This chapter does not otherwise preempt political subdivisions from adopting ordinances regulating the sale, purchase, use, or promotion of tobacco products not inconsistent with chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The youth tobacco prevention account is created in the state treasury. All fees collected pursuant to RCW 82.24.520 and 82.24.530 and funds collected by the liquor control board from the imposition of monetary penalties and samplers' fees shall be deposited into this account, except that ten percent of all such fees and penalties shall be deposited in the state general fund.

(2) Thirty percent of the moneys in the youth tobacco prevention account shall be appropriated to the liquor control board to be used for implementation of sections 44 through 54 of this act, including collection and reporting of data regarding enforcement and the extent to which access to tobacco products by youth has been reduced.

(3) The department of health shall, within up to seventy percent of available funds, provide grants to local health departments or other local community agencies to develop and implement coordinated tobacco intervention strategies to prevent and reduce tobacco use by youth.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

The department of health shall report to the house of representatives and senate committees with jurisdiction for health issues no later than February 1, 1995, on the effectiveness of enforcement and education activities as specified in chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act). This study shall include information concerning the adequacy of revenue to support enforcement and education activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. Sections 44 through 54 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 66 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. RCW 82.24.260 and 1987 c 80 s 3 & 1986 c 3 s 13 are each repealed.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "A point of order, Mr. President. I believe that the amendment by Senator McDonald expands the scope and object of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071. I think Senator McDonald was very candid in describing this amendment. Basically, it is a change in the collection of cigarette and other tobacco taxation, transferring that responsibility from the Department of Revenue to the Liquor Control Board. The basic objective of the bill that is before us, however, is a bill relating to minor access to tobacco products. It deals with the enforcement of laws relating to minors access to tobacco and, therefore, the amendment by Senator McDonald which deals with the question of who collects the cigarette and other tobacco taxes expands the scope and object of a bill that is designed to deal solely with the access of minors to tobacco products."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1435, by House Committee on Capital Budget (originally sponsored by Representatives Wang and Ogden) (by request of Office of Financial Management)

Adopting the supplemental capital budget.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1435 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1435.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1435 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; Nays, 6; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Newhouse, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vogndild, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 39.

Voting nay: Senators Amondson, Barr, Nelson, Roach, Sellar and von Reichbauer - 6.

Excused: Senators Cantu, McCaslin, Niemi and Owen - 4.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1435, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1524, by House Committee on Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Locke, Silver and Valle) (by request of Office of Financial Management)

Making supplemental appropriations.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Rinehart moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I GENERAL GOVERNMENT

Sec. 101. 1992 c 232 s 112 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

General Fund Appropriation $ ((955,000))

1,000,000

Sec. 102. 1992 c 232 s 113 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

Revolving Fund Appropriation $ 20,749,000
TOTAL APPROPRIATION $ ((42,004,000))

42,762,514

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $22,000 of the motor transport account appropriation and $111,000 of the air pollution control account appropriation are provided solely to implement the department's responsibilities under chapter 199, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1028, air quality).

(2) $((2,850,000)) 2,176,000 of the motor transport account appropriation is provided solely for replacement of motor vehicles through the state treasurer's financing contract program under chapter 39.94 RCW. The department may acquire new motor vehicles only to replace and not to increase the number of motor vehicles within the department's fleet.

(3) $3,965,000 of the central stores revolving fund appropriation is provided solely for the purchasing and contract administration activities of the office of state procurement, division of purchasing, as provided in RCW 43.19.1923. Of this amount $155,000 is provided solely to implement chapter 297, Laws of 1991 (Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5143, purchasing recycled goods).

(4) $117,000 of the general administration facilities and services revolving fund appropriation is provided solely to assist state agencies in processing asbestos claims.

(5) The department shall develop a consolidated mail service to handle all incoming mail in the 98504 zip code area, as well as all outgoing mail of executive branch agencies in the Olympia, Tumwater, and Lacey area, as determined by the director of general administration. Upon request, the department shall also provide outgoing mail services to legislative and judicial agencies in the Olympia, Tumwater, and Lacey area. For purposes of administering the consolidated mail service, the director shall:

(a) Determine the nature and extent of agency participation in the service, including the phasing of participation;

(b) Subject to the approval of the director of financial management and in compliance with applicable personnel laws, transfer employees and equipment from other agencies to the department when the director determines that such transfers will further the efficiency of the consolidated mail service. The director of financial management shall ensure that there are no net increases in state-wide staffing levels as a result of providing services currently being performed by state agencies through the consolidated mail service;

(c) Periodically assess charges on participating agencies to recover the cost of providing consolidated mail services;

(d) Accurately account for all costs incurred in implementation of the consolidated mail operation, and document any cost savings or avoidances; and

(e) By September 1, 1992, report to the appropriate committees of the legislature on the implementation of the service, including documentation of cost savings or avoidances achieved from the consolidation of mail services during fiscal year 1992.

PART II HUMAN SERVICES

Sec. 201. 1991 sp.s. c 16 s 201 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES

(1) ~~((Appropriations made in this act to the department of social and health services shall initially be allotted as required by this act. Subsequent allotment modifications shall not include transfers of moneys between sections of this act except as expressly provided in this act, nor shall allotment modifications permit moneys that are provided solely for a specified purpose to be used for other than that purpose))~~ The appropriations in sections 201 through 218 of chapter 16, Laws of 1991 1st sp. sess., as amended, shall be expended for the programs and in the amounts listed in those sections. However, after May 1, 1993, unless specifically prohibited by this act, the department may transfer moneys among programs and among amounts provided under conditions and limitations after approval by the director of financial management. The director of financial management shall notify the appropriate fiscal committees of the senate and house of representatives in writing prior to approving any deviation from the appropriation levels and any deviation from conditions and limitations.

(2) The department of social and health services shall not initiate any services that will require expenditure of state general fund moneys unless expressly authorized in this act or other law, or unless the services were provided on March 1, 1991. The department may seek, receive, and spend, under RCW 43.79.260 through 43.79.282, federal moneys not anticipated in this act as long as the federal funding does not require expenditure of state moneys for the program in excess of amounts anticipated in this act. If the department receives unanticipated unrestricted federal moneys, those moneys shall be spent for services authorized in this act, and an equal amount of appropriated state general fund moneys shall lapse. As used in this subsection, "unrestricted federal moneys" includes block grants and other funds that federal law does not require to be spent on specifically defined projects or matched on a formula basis by state funds.

(3) Appropriations in this act derived from the $31,600,000 federal child care block grant and the Title IV-A grant are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) $13,290,000 is provided solely for vendor rate increases for child care facilities. Increases by cluster shall result in rates set at a uniform percentile of child care provider rates across clusters. Rates set by other methods shall result in the same percentage increase as the state-wide average increase for rates set by cluster. The department shall transfer rate increase funds among child care programs as necessary to maintain a uniform rate policy.

(b) $1,000,000 is provided solely to contract with eligible providers for specialized child care and respite care for children of homeless parents. Providers shall demonstrate that licensed child-care facilities are available to provide specialized child care for children under six years of age. Respite child-care providers shall demonstrate that respite child care is available for children under six years of age and shall submit to a felony background check through the state patrol. Child-care services provided by shelters shall be subject to department of community development rules on applicant eligibility criteria. The total allocation to providers within a county shall be not less than twenty-five thousand dollars per fiscal year in counties that had at least one hundred children under the age of five served in emergency shelters for the preceding year as reported by the department of community development and not less than ten thousand dollars for all other counties. If Substitute Senate Bill No. 5653 (homeless child care) is enacted by July 31, 1991, the amount provided in this subsection is provided solely to implement the bill.

(c) $450,000 of this amount shall be deposited in the child care facility revolving fund for loans or grants to assist persons, businesses, or organizations to start or operate a licensed child care facility to the extent permitted by federal law, pursuant to chapter 248, Laws of 1991 (Substitute Senate Bill No. 5583, child care facility fund).

(d) $100,000 is provided solely for licensing and regulation activities of the department of social and health services.

(e) $100,000 is provided solely for data collection, evaluation, and reporting activities of the department of social and health services.

(f) $4,609,000 is provided solely to increase child care slots for low-income families.

(g) $100,000 is provided solely for transfer through interagency agreement to the department of health to fund increased child care licensing workload.

Sec. 202. 1992 c 232 s 201 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES--CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES PROGRAM

General Fund--State Appropriation $ ((277,041,000))

Account Appropriation $ 2,418,000

TOTAL APPROPRIATION $ ((454,932,000))

462,203,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $607,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 364, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, youth and family services) subject to the following conditions and limitations.

(a) $94,000 of this amount is provided solely for an evaluation of family reconciliation services pursuant to section 1, chapter 364, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, youth and family services).

(b) $513,000 is provided solely to expand family reconciliation services.

(2) $2,949,000 of the general fund--state appropriation and $691,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation are provided solely for vendor rate increases of two percent on July 1, 1992, and five percent on January 1, 1993, for children's out-of-home residential providers except interim care, including but not limited to foster parents and child placement agencies, and ((3-4)) two percent on July 1, 1992, and three percent on January 1, 1993, for other providers, except child care providers.

(3) $1,150,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement a therapeutic home program under section 2 of chapter 326, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1608, children's services).

(4) $500,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 283, Laws of 1991 (Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5341, foster parent liability insurance).

(5) $110,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for volunteers of America of Spokane's crosswalk project.

(6) $3,300,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for direct services provided by four existing continuum of care projects.

(7) $900,000 of the drug enforcement and education account appropriation and $300,000 of the general fund--state appropriation are provided solely to contract for the operation of one pediatric interim care facility. The facility shall provide residential care for up to twelve children through two years of age. Seventy-five percent of the children served by the facility must be in need of special care as a result of substance abuse by their mothers. The facility also shall provide on-site training to biological, adoptive, or foster parents. The facility shall provide at least three months of consultation and support to parents accepting placement of children from the facility. The facility may recruit new and current foster and adoptive parents for infants served by the facility. The department shall not require case management as a condition of the contract. The department shall solicit proposals from current pediatric interim care providers. The department shall select a provider from among the current pediatric interim care providers through an accelerated selection process by August 15, 1991. The contract shall be awarded by August 15, 1991.

(8) $700,000 of the general fund--state appropriation and $299,000 of the drug enforcement and education account appropriation are provided solely for up to three nonfacility based programs for the training, consultation, support, and recruitment of biological, foster, and adoptive parents of children through age three in need of special care as a result of substance abuse by their mothers, except that each program may serve up to three medically fragile nonsubstance-abuse-affected children. In selecting nonfacility based programs, preference shall be given to programs whose federal or private funding sources have expired or have successfully performed under the existing pediatric interim care program. The department shall select providers under this subsection using an accelerated selection process, to be completed no later than August 15, 1991.

(9) The amounts in subsections (7) and (8) of this section may be used to continue the existing pediatric interim care programs through August 15, 1991.

(10) $100,000 of the public safety and education account is provided solely to implement sections 11 and 12, chapter 301, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1884, domestic violence programs).

(11) Up to $25,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided to implement section 7 of chapter 301, Laws of 1991 (Substitute House Bill No. 1884, domestic violence programs).

(12) $1,500,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for increased funding for domestic violence programs.

(13) $480,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for purchase of service and for grants to nonprofit child placement agencies licensed under chapter 74.15 RCW to recruit potential adoptive parents for, and place for adoption, children with physical, mental, or emotional disabilities, children who are part of a sibling group, children over age 10, and minority or limited English-speaking children.

(14) $1,000,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for the transfer of children who are inappropriately housed in crisis residential centers to residential services designed to meet their specific needs.

(15) $30,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to fund follow-up research on the Childhaven therapeutic childcare study.

(3) The department shall adopt measures to realize savings of $7,500,000 in general fund--state expenditures for optional medicaid services or coverages as estimated in the March 1991 forecast estimate by the office of financial management. These limits or measures shall be effective no later than September 1, 1991, and shall be reported to the appropriate committees of the legislature by that date.

(4) The department shall establish standards for the use and frequency of use of reimbursable chiropractic services. The standards shall recognize the medical or therapeutic value of such services.

(5) The department shall continue disproportionate share payments and vendor payment advances to Harborview medical center. It is the intent of the legislature that Harborview medical center continue to be an economically viable component of the health care system and that the state's financial interest in Harborview medical center be recognized. To this end, the legislature requests that the chair of Harborview medical center board of trustees convene a work group consisting of state legislators and county elected officials, with representation from the University of Washington board of regents and administration, to discuss alternative governance strategies. The legislature requests that by December 1, 1991, the work group submit to appropriate legislative committees recommendations to improve the structure and governance process of Harborview medical center. It is the intent of the legislature that Harborview medical center maintain its high standards of care through active participation in health research. Therefore, the legislature expects Harborview medical center to proceed with the renovation of Harborview hall.

(6) The department is authorized under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1396b(a)(1) to pay third-party health insurance premiums for categorically needy medical assistance recipients upon a determination that payment of the health insurance premium is cost effective. In determining cost effectiveness, the department shall compare the amount, duration, and scope of coverage offered under the medical assistance program.

(7) The department shall continue variable ratable reductions for the medically indigent and general assistance--unemployable programs in effect November 1, 1988.

(8) $14,473,000 of the general fund--state appropriation and $17,566,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation are provided solely for the adult dental program for Title XIX categorically eligible and medically needy persons.

(9) $125,000 of the general fund--state appropriation and $150,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation are provided solely for a prenatal care project. The project shall be designed to triage low-income pregnant women according to health needs and to refer them through an equitable client distribution system to appropriate maternity care providers. The project shall be located in an urban county designated as a maternity care distressed area, with a high need for such services, as evidenced by the number of women unable otherwise to obtain care and by the rate of infant mortality and similar factors. The department shall give preference to existing programs that are at risk of termination due to lack of funding.

(10) Not more than $261,000 from the appropriations in this section may be expended to implement chapter 233, Laws of 1991 (Substitute Senate Bill No. 5010, occupational therapy), subject to the adoption of savings measures by the department under subsection (3) of this section.

(11) $435,000, of which $217,500 is appropriated from the general fund--federal appropriation, is provided solely for transfer by interagency agreement to the University of Washington for the continuation of the first steps evaluation. The legislative budget committee shall review the evaluation progress and deliverables. Overhead on the research contract shall continue at the 1989-91 level.

(12) $49,000,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation and $40,000,000 of the general fund--private/local appropriation are provided solely to establish a hospital assistance program through the disproportionate share mechanism. The program shall assist Harborview Medical Center, University of Washington Medical Center, small and rural hospitals as determined by the department.

(13) $341,000 of the general fund--state appropriation and $427,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation are provided solely to restore foot care services by podiatric physicians and surgeons beginning July 1, 1992.

(4) ~~$(1,000,000)~~ 847,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for expanding the high priority infant tracking program.

(5) ~~$(2,410,000)~~ 2,251,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to continue implementation of the trauma system plan.

(6) ~~$(2,400,000)~~ 2,394,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for expansion of migrant health clinic services.

(7) $1,100,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for expanding by 1000 the number of women funded through the state-only prenatal program.

(8) The entire safe drinking water account appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 304, Laws of 1991 (Substitute House Bill No. 1709, water system operating permit).

(9) $450,000 of the general fund--state appropriation provided solely for implementation of chapter 332, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1960, health professions practice).

(10) ~~$(1,000,000)~~ 983,800 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for a grant to a nonprofit agency whose major goal is AIDS prevention and education.

(11) $40,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6069 (bone marrow donor program). If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1992, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

(12) $40,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2337 (malpractice insurance/retired). If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1992, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

(13) The department of health, in consultation with the current poison center network, shall prepare a plan to consolidate the network into one center. The plan shall include proposed funding methods that minimize the need for increased general fund--state support. The plan shall take maximum advantage of efficiencies realized through consolidation. The plan shall include a proposed site or host institution. Any proposed increases in the quantity or quality of service shall be separately identified as potential additions to the plan. The plan shall be delivered to the fiscal and health committees of the house of representatives and senate by December 1, 1992.

(14) By October 1, 1992, each regional AIDS network shall enter a written collaborative agreement with each mental health regional support network in its catchment area. The agreement shall define specific actions each party will take to reduce state and local psychiatric hospitalizations of persons with AIDS-related dementia. By November 1, 1992, the department of health shall report to the human services and appropriations committees of the house of representatives and to the health and long-term care and ways and means committees of the senate on the actions each regional AIDS network will take to reduce hospitalization of persons with AIDS-related dementia.

Sec. 222. 1992 c 232 s 230 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

The appropriations in this section shall be expended for the programs and in the amounts listed in this section. However, after May 1, 1993, unless specifically prohibited by this act, the department may transfer moneys among programs and among amounts provided under conditions and limitations after approval by the director of financial management. (2) The entire master licensing account appropriation is contingent on enactment of Senate Bill No. 6461 (master license fees). If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1992, the appropriation is null and void.

PART V EDUCATION

Sec. 501. 1992 c 232 s 502 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR GENERAL APPORTIONMENT (BASIC EDUCATION)

General Fund Appropriation $ ((5,183,846,000))

5,229,704,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $((499,307,000)) 499,786,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.

(2) Allocations for certificated staff salaries for the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years shall be determined using formula-generated staff units calculated pursuant to this subsection. Small school enrollments in kindergarten through grade six shall generate funding under (a) of this subsection, and shall not generate allocations under (d) and (e) of this subsection, if the staffing allocations generated under (a) of this subsection exceed those generated under (d) and (e) of this subsection. The certificated staffing allocations shall be as follows:

(a) On the basis of average annual full time equivalent enrollments, excluding full time equivalent enrollment otherwise recognized for certificated staff unit allocations under (c) through (f) of this subsection:

- (i) Four certificated administrative staff units for each one thousand full time equivalent kindergarten through twelfth grade students excluding full time equivalent handicapped enrollment as recognized for funding purposes under section 509 of this act;
- (ii) 54.3 certificated instructional staff units for each one thousand full time equivalent students in kindergarten through third grade, excluding full time equivalent handicapped students ages six through eight; and
- (iii) Forty-six certificated instructional staff units for each one thousand full time equivalent students, excluding full time equivalent handicapped students ages nine and above;

(b) For school districts with a minimum enrollment of 250 full time equivalent students, whose full time equivalent student enrollment count in a given month exceeds the first of the month full time equivalent enrollment count by 5 percent, an additional state allocation of 110 percent of the share that such increased enrollment would have generated had such additional full time equivalent students been included in the normal enrollment count for that particular month;

(c) On the basis of full time equivalent enrollment in vocational education programs and skill center programs approved by the superintendent of public instruction, 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units for each 16.67 full time equivalent vocational students;

(d) For districts enrolling not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade eight, and for small school plants within any school district which have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education and enroll not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade eight:

(i) For those enrolling no students in grades seven and eight, 1.76 certificated instructional staff units and 0.24 certificated administrative staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-twentieth of a certificated instructional staff unit for each additional student enrolled; and

(ii) For those enrolling students in grades seven or eight, 1.68 certificated instructional staff units and 0.32 certificated administrative staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-tenth of a certificated instructional staff unit for each additional student enrolled.

(e) For specified enrollments in districts enrolling more than twenty-five but not more than one hundred average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade eight, and for small school plants within any school district which enroll more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent kindergarten through eighth grade students and have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education:

(i) For enrollment of up to sixty annual average full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade six, 2.76 certificated instructional staff units and 0.24 certificated administrative staff units; and

(ii) For enrollment of up to twenty annual average full time equivalent students in grades seven and eight, 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units.

(f) For districts operating no more than two high schools with enrollments of less than three hundred average annual full time equivalent students, for enrollment in grades nine through twelve in each such school, other than alternative schools:

(i) For remote and necessary schools enrolling students in any grades nine through twelve but no more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent kindergarten through twelfth grade students, four and one-half certificated instructional staff units and one-quarter of a certificated administrative staff unit;

(ii) For all other small high schools under this subsection, nine certificated instructional staff units and one-half of a certificated administrative staff unit for the first sixty average annual full time equivalent students, and additional staff units based on a ratio of 0.8732 certificated instructional staff units and 0.1268 certificated administrative staff units per each additional forty-three and one-half average annual full time equivalent students.

Units calculated under (f)(ii) of this subsection shall be reduced by certificated staff units at the rate of forty-six certificated instructional staff units and four certificated administrative staff units per thousand vocational and handicapped full time equivalent students.

(g) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than seventy annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-8 program or a grades 1-8 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit;

(h) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-6 program or a grades 1-6 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit.

(3) Allocations for classified salaries for the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years shall be calculated using formula-generated classified staff units determined as follows:

(a) For enrollments generating certificated staff unit allocations under subsection (2) (d) through (h) of this section, one classified staff unit for each three certificated staff units allocated under such subsections.

(b) For all other enrollment in grades kindergarten through twelve, including vocational but excluding handicapped full time equivalent enrollments, one classified staff unit for each sixty average annual full time equivalent students.

(c) For each nonhigh school district with an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, an additional one-half of a classified staff unit.

(4) Fringe benefit allocations shall be calculated at a rate of ~~((21.44))~~ 21.25 percent in the 1991-92 school year and ~~((20.30))~~ 20.75 percent in the 1992-93 school year of certificated salary allocations provided under subsection (2) of this section, and a rate of ~~((18.84))~~ 19.09 percent in the 1991-92 school year and ~~((18.53))~~ 18.66 percent in the 1992-93 school year of classified salary allocations provided under subsection (3) of this section.

(5) Insurance benefit allocations shall be calculated at the rates specified in section 505 of this act, based on:

(a) The number of certificated staff units determined in subsection (2) of this section; and

(b) The number of classified staff units determined in subsection (3) of this section multiplied by 1.152. This factor is intended to adjust allocations so that, for the purposes of distributing insurance benefits, full time equivalent classified employees may be calculated on the basis of 1440 hours of work per year, with no individual employee counted as more than one full time equivalent.

(6)(a) For nonemployee-related costs associated with each certificated staff unit allocated under subsection (2) (a), (b), and (d) through (h) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $6,848 per certificated staff unit in the 1991-92 school year and a maximum of $7,060 per certificated staff unit in the 1992-93 school year.

(b) For nonemployee-related costs associated with each certificated staff unit allocated under subsection (2)(c) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $13,049 per certificated staff unit in the 1991-92 school year and a maximum of $13,454 per certificated staff unit in the 1992-93 school year.

(7) Allocations for substitute costs for classroom teachers shall be distributed at a maximum rate of $318 for the 1991-92 school year and $318 per year for the 1992-93 school year for allocated classroom teachers. Solely for the purposes of this subsection, allocated classroom teachers shall be equal to the number of certificated instructional staff units allocated under subsection (2) of this section, multiplied by the ratio between the number of actual basic education certificated teachers and the number of actual basic education certificated instructional staff reported state-wide for the 1990-91 school year.

(8) The superintendent may distribute a maximum of $4,690,000 outside the basic education formula during fiscal years 1992 and 1993 as follows:

(a) For fire protection for school districts located in a fire protection district as now or hereafter established pursuant to chapter 52.04 RCW, a maximum of $386,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1992 and a maximum of $398,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1993.

(b) For summer vocational programs at skills centers, a maximum of $1,766,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1992 and a maximum of $1,856,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1993.

(c) A maximum of $284,000 may be expended for school district emergencies.

(9) For the purposes of RCW 84.52.0531, the increase per full time equivalent student in state basic education appropriations provided under this act, including appropriations for salary and benefits increases, is 5.6 percent from the 1990-91 school year to the 1991-92 school year, and 5.0 percent from the 1991-92 school year to the 1992-93 school year.

(10) A maximum of $2,450,000 may be expended in the 1991-92 fiscal year and a maximum of $2,450,000 may be expended in the 1992-93 fiscal year for high technology vocational equipment for secondary vocational education programs and skill centers.

(11)(a) Funds provided under subsection (2)(a)(ii) of this section in excess of the amount required to maintain the statutory minimum ratio established under RCW 28A.150.260(2)(c), shall be allocated only if the district documents an actual ratio equal to or greater than 54.3 certificated instructional staff per thousand full time equivalent students in grades K-3. For any school district documenting a lower certificated instructional staff ratio, the allocation shall be based on the district's actual K-3 certificated instructional staff ratio achieved in that school year, or the statutory minimum ratio established under RCW 28A.150.260(2)(c), if greater.

(b) Districts at or above 51.0 certificated instructional staff per one thousand full time equivalent students in grades K-3 may dedicate up to 1.3 of the 54.3 funding ratio to employ additional classified instructional assistants assigned to basic education classrooms in grades K-3. For purposes of documenting a district's staff ratio under subsection (11)(a) and (c) of this section, funds used by the district to employ additional classified instructional assistants shall be converted to a certificated staff equivalent and added to the district's actual certificated instructional staff ratio. Additional classified instructional assistants, for the purposes of this subsection, shall be determined using the 1989-90 school year as the base year.

(c) Any district maintaining a ratio equal to or greater than 54.3 certificated instructional staff per thousand full time equivalent students in grades K-3 may use allocations generated under subsection (2)(a)(ii) in excess of that required to maintain the minimum ratio established under RCW 28A.150.260(2)(c) to employ additional basic education certificated instructional staff or classified instructional assistants in grades 4-6. Funds allocated under this section shall only be expended to reduce class size in grades K-6. No more than 1.3 of the certificated instructional funding ratio amount may be expended for provision of classified instructional assistants.

(12) The superintendent of public instruction shall study the rate of staff per student if current levels of certificated instructional staffing and paraprofessionals are counted together as "classroom resources." A report identifying "classroom resource" per pupil rates shall be provided to the appropriate fiscal and policy committees of the house of representatives and senate by January 10, 1992.

Sec. 502. 1992 c 232 s 503 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--BASIC EDUCATION EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION INCREASES

General Fund Appropriation $ ((206,433,000))

208,927,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The following calculations determine the salaries used in the general fund allocations for certificated instructional, certificated administrative, and classified staff units under section 502 of this act:

(b) Salary allocations for certificated administrative staff units and classified staff units for each district shall be based on the district's certificated administrative and classified salary allocation amounts shown on LEAP Document 12A.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Basic education certificated instructional staff" is defined as provided in RCW 28A.150.100.

(b) "LEAP Document 1A" means the computerized tabulation establishing staff mix factors for basic education certificated instructional staff according to education and years of experience, as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on April 8, 1991, at 13:35 hours.

(c) "LEAP Document 12A" means the computerized tabulation of 1990-91, 1991-92, and 1992-93 school year salary allocations for basic education certificated administrative staff and basic education classified staff and derived base salaries for basic education certificated instructional staff as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on January 15, 1992, at 12:00 hours.

(3) Incremental fringe benefits factors shall be applied to salary increases at a rate of ((4.2047)) 1.2061 for certificated salaries and ((4.4534)) 1.1559 for classified salaries for the 1991-92 school year. For the 1992-93 school year, the rate for certificated salaries shall be ((4.4966)) 1.2011 and the rate for classified salaries shall be ((4.4503)) 1.1516.

(5) The increase for each classified staff unit provided under section 502 of this act shall be the 1990-91 state-wide average classified salary increased by 4.0 percent for the 1991-92 school year and further increased by 3.0 percent for the 1992-93 school year, as shown on LEAP Document 12A.

(6) Increases for certificated instructional staff units provided under section 502 of this act shall be the difference between the salary allocation specified in subsection (1)(a) of this section and the salary allocation specified as follows:

(7)(a) Pursuant to RCW 28A.150.410, the following state-wide salary allocation schedules for certificated instructional staff are established for basic education salary allocations for the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years:

(b) As used in this subsection, the column headings "BA+(N)" refer to the number of credits earned since receiving the baccalaureate degree.

(c) For credits earned after the baccalaureate degree but before the masters degree, any credits in excess of forty-five credits may be counted after the masters degree. Thus, as used in this subsection, the column headings "MA+(N)" refer to the total of:

(i) Credits earned since receiving the masters degree; and
 (ii) Any credits in excess of forty-five credits that were earned after the baccalaureate degree but before the masters degree.

(8) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "BA" means a baccalaureate degree.

(b) "MA" means a masters degree.

(c) "PHD" means a doctorate degree.

(d) "Years of service" shall be calculated under the same rules used by the superintendent of public instruction for salary allocations in the 1990-91 school year.

(e) "Credits" means college quarter hour credits and equivalent inservice credits computed in accordance with RCW 28A.415.020.

(9) The salary allocation schedules established in subsection (7) of this section are for allocation purposes only except as provided in RCW 28A.400.200(2).

(10) The superintendent of public instruction, in cooperation with the legislative budget committee, shall conduct a study to verify the accuracy of education credits reported by school districts to the superintendent for purposes of calculating staff-mix ratios used in the 1991-93 biennial operating budget process. The study shall be presented to the fiscal committees of the senate and house of representatives by November 1, 1992.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 503. 1992 c 239 s 5 (uncodified) is repealed.

Sec. 504. 1992 c 232 s 504 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--CATEGORICAL PROGRAM SALARY INCREASES

General Fund Appropriation $ ((42,885,000))

42,986,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The incremental fringe benefits factors applied to salary increases in subsection (3) of this section shall be the same as those specified in section 503(3) of this act.

(2) Salary increases for each school year for state-supported formula units in the following categorical programs include costs of incremental fringe benefits and shall be distributed by increasing allocation rates for each school year by the amounts specified below:

(a) Transitional bilingual instruction: The rates specified in section 519 of this act shall be increased by $((48.66)) 18.68 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and by $((32.99)) 33.11 per pupil for the 1992-93 school year.

(b) Learning assistance: The rates specified in section 520 of this act shall be increased by $((44.45)) 14.18 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and by $((25.42)) 25.15 per pupil for the 1992-93 school year.

(c) Education of highly capable students: The rates specified in section 515 of this act shall be increased by $((44.05)) 11.06 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and by $((47.59)) 17.65 per pupil for the 1992-93 school year.

(d) Pupil transportation: The rates provided under section 506 of this act shall be increased by $.72 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1991-92 school year, and by $1.28 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1992-93 school year.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute salary increases and incremental fringe benefits for state-supported staff unit allocations in the handicapped program (section 509 of this act), in the educational service districts (section 511 of this act), and in the institutional education program (section 514 of this act), in the same manner as salary increases are provided for basic education staff.

Sec. 505. 1992 c 232 s 505 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR SCHOOL EMPLOYEE INSURANCE BENEFIT

INCREASES

General Fund Appropriation $ ((84,890,000))

84,866,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Allocations for insurance benefits from general fund appropriations provided under section 502 of this act shall be calculated at a rate of $246.24 per month for each certificated staff unit, and for each classified staff unit adjusted pursuant to section 502(5)(b) of this act.

(2) The appropriation in this section is provided solely to increase insurance benefit allocations for state-funded certificated and classified staff for the 1991-92 school year, effective October 1, 1991, to a rate of $289.95 per month, and for the 1992-93 school year, effective October 1, 1992, to a rate of $317.79 as distributed pursuant to this section.

(3) The increase in insurance benefit allocations for basic education staff units under section 502(5) of this act, for handicapped program staff units as calculated under section 509 of this act, for state-funded staff in educational service districts, and for institutional education programs is $43.71 per month for the 1991-92 school year and an additional $27.84 per month in the 1992-93 school year.

(4) The increases in insurance benefit allocations for the following categorical programs shall be calculated by increasing the annual state funding rates by the amounts specified in this subsection. Effective October 1 of each school year, the maximum rate adjustments provided on an annual basis under this section are:

(a) For pupil transportation, an increase of $.40 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1991-92 school year and an additional $.25 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1992-93 school year;

(b) For learning assistance, an increase of $10.92 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and an additional $6.96 for the 1992-93 school year;

(c) For education of highly capable students, an increase of $3.72 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and an additional $2.13 per pupil for the 1992-93 school year;

(d) For transitional bilingual education, an increase of $7.08 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and an additional $4.51 per pupil for the 1992-93 school year.

Sec. 506. 1992 c 232 s 506 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR PUPIL TRANSPORTATION

General Fund Appropriation $ ((299,292,000))

303,484,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $26,183,000 is provided solely for distribution to school districts for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.

(2) A maximum of $873,000 may be expended for regional transportation coordinators.

(3) A maximum of $65,000 may be expended for bus driver training.

(4) For eligible school districts, the small-fleet maintenance factor shall be funded at a rate of $1.65 in the 1991-92 school year and $1.70 in the 1992-93 school year per weighted pupil-mile.

(5) The superintendent shall ensure that, by the 1992-93 school year, school districts in accordance with RCW 28A.160.160(4) are making good faith efforts to alleviate the problem of hazardous walking conditions for students.

(6) $755,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 166, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5114, school bus safety crossing arms). Moneys provided in this subsection may be expended to reimburse school districts that purchased school bus safety crossing arms during the 1990-91 school year, subject to criteria and rules adopted by the superintendent.

(7) $90,000 is provided solely for the 1992-93 school year for transportation of students enrolled in "choice" programs. Transportation shall be limited to low-income students who are transferring to "choice" programs solely for educational reasons. The superintendent shall provide a report to the legislature concerning the use of these moneys by November 1, 1993.

Sec. 507. 1992 c 232 s 508 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR HANDICAPPED EDUCATION PROGRAMS

General Fund--State Appropriation $ ((694,264,000))

691,418,000

General Fund--Federal Appropriation $ 83,900,000

TOTAL APPROPRIATION $ ((775,164,000))

775,318,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $62,792,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute state funds for the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years in accordance with districts' actual handicapped enrollments and the allocation model established in LEAP Document 13 as developed on June 26, 1991, at 13:02 hours.

(3) A maximum of $614,000 may be expended from the general fund--state appropriation to fund 5.43 full time equivalent teachers and 2.1 full time equivalent aides at Children's Orthopedic Hospital and Medical Center. This amount is in lieu of money provided through the home and hospital allocation and the handicapped program.

(4) $192,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for the early childhood home instruction program for hearing impaired infants and their families.

(5) $1,000,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation is provided solely for projects to provide handicapped students with appropriate job and independent living skills, including work experience where possible, to facilitate their successful transition out of the public school system. The funds provided by this subsection shall be from federal discretionary grants.

(6) $300,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation is provided solely for inservice training, technical assistance, and evaluation of the special services demonstration projects authorized in chapter 265, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1329, special services demonstration projects).

(7) Project funding for special services demonstration projects shall be allocated and disbursed under chapter 265, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1329, special services demonstration projects).

Sec. 508. 1992 c 232 s 509 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR TRAFFIC SAFETY EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Public Safety and Education

Account Appropriation $ 8,358,000

General Fund--State Appropriation $ ((2,203,000))

2,002,000

TOTAL APPROPRIATION $ ((10,564,000))

10,360,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $1,086,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.

(2) Not more than $596,000 may be expended for regional traffic safety education coordinators.

(3) A maximum of $2,300,000 may be expended in the 1991-92 fiscal year and $2,425,000 in the 1992-93 fiscal year to provide tuition assistance for traffic safety education for students from low-income families.

(4) The remainder of the appropriation shall be expended to provide up to $137.16 for other students completing the program. School districts receiving moneys from this appropriation may make refunds to traffic safety students for program fee increases implemented during the 1991-92 school year as a result of funding reductions under section 510, chapter 16, Laws of 1991 sp. sess.

Sec. 509. 1992 c 232 s 510 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR EDUCATIONAL SERVICE DISTRICTS

General Fund Appropriation $ ((40,466,000))

10,478,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The educational service districts shall continue to furnish financial services required by the superintendent of public instruction and RCW 28A.310.190 (3) and (4).

(2) $475,000 is provided solely to implement chapter 285, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1813, E.S.D. teacher recruitment coordination).

Sec. 510. 1992 c 232 s 511 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR LOCAL EFFORT ASSISTANCE

General Fund Appropriation $ ((149,244,000))

149,578,000

The appropriation in this section is provided for state matching funds pursuant to RCW 28A.500.010.

Sec. 511. 1992 c 232 s 513 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR INSTITUTIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS

General Fund--State Appropriation $ ((24,906,000))

25,036,000

General Fund--Federal Appropriation $ 7,700,000

TOTAL APPROPRIATION $ ((32,606,000))

32,736,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $4,071,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.

(2) A maximum of $950,000 of the general fund--state appropriation may be expended for juvenile parole learning centers in the 1991-92 school year and $950,000 in the 1992-93 school year at a rate not to exceed $2,351 per full time equivalent student.

(3) State funding provided under this section is based on salaries and other expenditures for a 220-day school year. The superintendent of public instruction shall monitor school district expenditure plans for institutional education programs to ensure that districts plan for a full-time summer program.

(4) Average staffing ratios for each category of institution, excluding juvenile parole learning centers, shall not exceed the rates specified in the legislative budget notes.

(5) The superintendent of public instruction shall:

(a) Define what constitutes a full time equivalent student;

(b) In cooperation with the secretary of social and health services, define responsibility for the variety of services offered through the common schools and the department of social and health services;

(c) Convene meetings of the parties responsible for the well-being of children in the institutional education programs for purpose of identifying and resolving problems associated with service delivery; and

(d) Report to the appropriate fiscal and policy committees of the legislature on (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection by January 10, 1992.

Sec. 512. 1992 c 232 s 514 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR PROGRAMS FOR HIGHLY CAPABLE STUDENTS

General Fund Appropriation $ ((9,926,000))

9,966,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Up to $975,000 is for distribution to school districts for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.

(2) Allocations for school district programs for highly capable students during the 1991-92 school year shall be distributed at a maximum rate of $((397.16)) 397.48 per student and for the 1992-93 school year shall be distributed at a maximum rate of $((355.77)) 356.70 per student for up to one and one-half percent of each district's full time equivalent enrollment.

(3) A maximum of $494,000 is provided to contract for gifted programs to be conducted at Fort Worden state park.

Sec. 513. 1992 c 232 s 517 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR TRANSITIONAL BILINGUAL PROGRAMS

General Fund Appropriation $ ((29,687,000))

29,808,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $2,395,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.

(2) The superintendent shall distribute funds for the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years at the rates of $((508.82)) 509.37 and $((505.69)) 507.43, respectively, per eligible student.

(3) For a student served more than twenty-five percent of the school day in a transitional bilingual program, the superintendent of public instruction shall ensure that state basic education funds generated by the student are expended, to the greatest extent practical, in the instruction of that student.

(4) Project funding for special services demonstration projects shall be allocated and disbursed under chapter 265, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1329, special services demonstration projects).

Sec. 514. 1992 c 232 s 518 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR THE LEARNING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

General Fund Appropriation $ ((92,442,000))

93,529,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $8,817,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.

(2) Funding for school district learning assistance programs serving kindergarten through grade nine shall be distributed during the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years at a maximum rate of $((426)) 426.77 and $425 per unit, respectively, as calculated pursuant to this subsection. The number of units for each school district in each school year shall be the sum of: (a) The number of full time equivalent students enrolled in kindergarten through grade six in the district multiplied by the percentage of the district's students taking the fourth grade basic skills test who scored in the lowest quartile as compared to national norms, and then reduced by the number of students ages eleven and below in the district who are identified as specific learning disabled and are served through programs established pursuant to chapter 28A.155 RCW; and (b) the number of full time equivalent students enrolled in grades seven through nine in the district multiplied by the percentage of the district's students taking the eighth grade basic skills test who scored in the lowest quartile as compared to national norms, and then reduced by the number of students ages twelve through fourteen in the district who are identified as specific learning disabled and are served through programs established pursuant to chapter 28A.155 RCW. In determining these allocations, the superintendent shall use the most recent prior five-year average scores on the fourth grade and eighth grade state-wide basic skills tests.

(3) Project funding for special services demonstration projects shall be allocated and disbursed under chapter 265, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1329, special services demonstration projects).

Sec. 515. 1992 c 232 s 520 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--LOCAL EDUCATION PROGRAM ENHANCEMENT

FUNDS

General Fund Appropriation $ ((57,710,000))

57,745,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $5,605,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.

(2) School districts receiving moneys pursuant to this section shall expend such moneys to meet educational needs identified by the district within the following program areas:

- (a) Prevention and intervention services in the elementary grades;
- (b) Reduction of class size;
- (c) Early childhood education;
- (d) Student-at-risk programs, including dropout prevention and retrieval, and substance abuse awareness and prevention;
- (e) Staff development and in-service programs;
- (f) Student logical reasoning and analytical skill development;
- (g) Programs for highly capable students;
- (h) Programs involving students in community services;
- (i) Senior citizen volunteer programs; and
- (j) Other purposes that enhance a school district's basic education program including purchase of instructional materials and supplies and other nonemployee-related costs.

Program enhancements funded pursuant to this section do not fall within the definition of basic education for purposes of Article IX of the state Constitution and the state's funding duty thereunder, nor shall such funding as now or hereafter appropriated and allocated constitute levy reduction funds for purposes of RCW 84.52.0531.

(3)(a) Allocation to eligible school districts for the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years shall be calculated on the basis of average annual full time equivalent enrollment, at an annual rate of up to $35.26 per pupil. For school districts enrolling not more than one hundred average annual full time equivalent students, and for small school plants within any school district designated as remote and necessary schools, the allocations shall be determined as follows:

(i) Enrollment of not more than sixty average annual full time equivalent students in grades kindergarten through six shall generate funding based on sixty full time equivalent students;

(ii) Enrollment of not more than twenty average annual full time equivalent students in grades seven and eight shall generate funding based on twenty full time equivalent students; and

(iii) Enrollment of sixty or fewer average annual full time equivalent students in grades nine through twelve shall generate funding based on sixty full time equivalent students.

(b) Allocations shall be distributed on a school-year basis pursuant to RCW 28A.510.250.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 516. The appropriations in sections 501, 502, 504, 506, 507, 509, and 511 through 514 of this act include amounts sufficient for state retirement system contributions by school districts and educational service districts to implement the following:

(1) In addition to any cost-of-living adjustments provided under RCW 41.32.575, 41.32.487, 41.40.325, or 41.40.1981, on February 1, 1992, the department of retirement systems shall also pay an additional adjustment to any retiree of plan I of the public employees' retirement system or plan I of the teachers' retirement system whose state retirement benefit has a purchasing power of less than 60 percent of the purchasing power of the retiree's age sixty-five allowance. Each such retiree shall be given a one-time increase sufficient, when combined with any other adjustment received on July 1, 1991, to restore the purchasing power of the retiree's state retirement benefit to 60 percent of the purchasing power of the retiree's age sixty-five allowance. This increase shall be calculated using the formulas and definitions contained in RCW 41.32.575 and 41.40.325 except that: (a) In calculating the increase to be paid from May 1, 1992, through June 30, 1993, to members who retired after age 65, "Index A" shall be the index for the calendar year prior to the year the member retired; and (b) the limitations imposed by RCW 41.32.575(2)(b) and 41.40.325(2)(b) do not apply. The increase provided in this subsection shall be effective for the remainder of the 1991-93 biennium.

(2) Chapter 234, Laws of 1992 (early retirement).

PART VI HIGHER EDUCATION

Sec. 601. 1992 c 238 s 1 is amended to read as follows:

HIGHER EDUCATION. The appropriations in sections 602 through 610 of this act are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) "Institutions of higher education" means the institutions receiving appropriations pursuant to sections 602 through 610 of this act.

(2)(a) "Student quality standard" means, for each four-year institution and the community and technical colleges as a whole, the following amount divided by the budgeted enrollment levels specified in (b) of this subsection: The combined operating appropriations under this act from the general fund--state and the institutional operating fees account, less expenditures for plant maintenance and operation, with the exception of Washington State University, where cooperative extension and agriculture research expenditures are excluded, and with the exception of the state board for community and technical colleges, where technical college operations and FTE enrollments, the Seattle vocational institute operations and FTE enrollments, and supplemental funding and enrollments for timber-dependent communities are excluded.

(b) Budgeted Enrollments: Each institution shall enroll to its budgeted biennial average full time equivalent enrollments, plus four percent or minus two percent (~~(, except each branch campus shall enroll within plus or minus twelve percent)~~). If the estimated 1991-93 average biennial full time equivalent student enrollment of an institution (~~(or branch campus)~~) (as estimated on April 30, 1993, by the office of financial management using spring enrollment reports submitted by the institutions) varies from the biennial budgeted amount by more than four percent above or two percent below the budgeted amount, (~~(or twelve percent above or below the budgeted amount for each branch campus)~~) then an amount equal to the student quality standard multiplied by the number of full time equivalent students above or below the variances shall revert to the state general fund. The variance allowance for the state board for community and technical colleges excludes the technical colleges.

(c) Facilities Quality Standard: During the 1991-93 biennium, no institution of higher education may allow its expenditures for plant operation and maintenance to fall more than five percent below the amounts allotted for this purpose.

(3)(a) Each four-year institution of higher education shall reduce the amount of operating fee foregone revenue from tuition waivers by 6.6 percent of the fiscal year 1993 projection under the office of financial management tuition and fee model used in the governor's February 1992 forecast.

(b) The state board for community and technical colleges shall reduce the amount of operating fee foregone revenue from tuition waivers, for the community college system as a whole, by 6.6 percent of the fiscal year 1993 projection under the office of financial management tuition and fee model used in the governor's February 1992 forecast, excluding the adult basic education program.

(4)(a) The amounts specified in (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection are maximum amounts that each institution may spend from the appropriations in sections 602 through 610 of this act for staff salary increases on January 1, 1992, and January 1, 1993, excluding classified staff salary increases, and subject to all the limitations contained in this section.

(b) The following amounts shall be used to provide instruction and research faculty at each four-year institution an average salary increase of 3.9 percent on January 1, 1992, and 3.0 percent on January 1, 1993.

PART IX
MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. APPLICABILITY OF OTHER PROVISIONS. This act is subject to the provisions, definitions, conditions, and limitations of chapter 16, Laws of 1991 sp. sess., as amended by chapter 232, Laws of 1992, chapter 238, Laws of 1992, and this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. A new section is added to chapter 16, Laws of 1991 sp.s. to read as follows:
SPENDING CONTROLS. (1) All agencies, including those headed by elected officials and appointed boards or commissions, shall control costs to ensure that operating expenditures for capital outlays and noncapitalized fixed assets for the period beginning April 1, 1993, and ending June 30, 1993, will not exceed the sum of that agency's monthly allotments for capital outlays and noncapitalized fixed assets for that same time period.

(2) All agencies, including those headed by elected officials and appointed boards or commissions, shall control costs to ensure that expenditures of state general fund appropriations for the period beginning April 1, 1993, and ending June 30, 1993, will not exceed the sum of that agency's monthly allotments of state general fund expenditures for that same time period.

(3) All agencies over one hundred employees, including those headed by elected officials and appointed boards or commissions, are directed to place into reserve status one percent of their April through June allotments for salaries. It is intended that these savings be achieved through the fiscal limitations imposed in the Governor's January 13, 1993, directive. Expenditure control mechanisms are assumed to include attrition, administrative efficiencies, and reductions in nonessential travel and purchases. The office of financial management shall issue agency savings targets and instructions for allotment amendment submittals.

Exceptions for the limitations described in subsections (1) through (3) of this section may be granted by the office of financial management only in cases of preexisting legal obligations or emergency conditions.

For the purposes of this section, "allotments" are considered to be the January 31, 1993, office of financial management approved expenditure plan as revised for any 1993 supplemental appropriations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 904. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Labor and Commerce amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 51.32.050 and 1991 c 88 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

- (1) Where death results from the injury the expenses of burial not to exceed two thousand dollars shall be paid.
- (2)(a) Where death results from the injury, a surviving spouse of a deceased worker eligible for benefits under this title shall receive monthly for life or until remarriage payments according to the following schedule:
 - (i) If there are no children of the deceased worker, sixty percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars;
 - (ii) If there is one child of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-two percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars;
 - (iii) If there are two children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-four percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars;
 - (iv) If there are three children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-six percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars;
 - (v) If there are four children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-eight percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars; or
 - (vi) If there are five or more children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, seventy percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars.
- (b) Where the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker or where after the death of the worker legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children. The amount of such payments shall be five percent of the monthly benefits payable as a result of the worker's death for each such child but such payments shall not exceed twenty-five percent. Such payments on account of such child or children shall be subtracted from the amount to which such surviving spouse would have been entitled had such surviving spouse had legal custody of all of the children and the surviving spouse shall receive the remainder after such payments on account of such child or children have been subtracted. Such payments on account of a child or children not in the legal custody of such surviving spouse shall be apportioned equally among such children.
- (c) Payments to the surviving spouse of the deceased worker shall cease at the end of the month in which remarriage occurs: PROVIDED, That a monthly payment shall be made to the child or children of the deceased worker from the month following such remarriage in a sum equal to five percent of the wages of the deceased worker for one child and a sum equal to five percent for each additional child up to a maximum of five such children. Payments to such child or children shall be apportioned equally among such children. Such sum shall be in place of any payments theretofore made for the benefit of or on account of any such child or children. If the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker, or if after the death of the worker, legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children.
- (d) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in subsection (2) of this section exceed ~~((one hundred percent))~~ the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under RCW 51.08.018~~((;-))~~ as follows:

AFTER PERCENTAGE

June 30, 1993	110%
June 30, 1995	125%
June 30, 1997	150%

(e) In addition to the monthly payments provided for in (2)(a) through (2)(c) of this section, a surviving spouse or child or children of such worker if there is no surviving spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving spouse or child or children of any such deceased worker shall be forthwith paid the sum of one thousand six hundred dollars, any such children, or parents to share and share alike in said sum.

(f) Upon remarriage of a surviving spouse the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as provided in this section, but the monthly payments to such surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month during which remarriage occurs.

However, after September 8, 1975, an otherwise eligible surviving spouse of a worker who died at any time prior to or after September 8, 1975, shall have an option of:

(i) Receiving, once and for all, a lump sum of twenty-four times the monthly compensation rate in effect on the date of remarriage allocable to the spouse for himself or herself pursuant to (2)(a)(i) of this section and subject to any modifications specified under (2)(d) of this section and RCW 51.32.075(3) or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension, whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED, That if the injury occurred prior to July 28, 1991, the remarriage benefit lump sum available shall be as provided in the remarriage benefit schedules then in effect; or

(ii) If a surviving spouse does not choose the option specified in (2)(f)(i) of this section to accept the lump sum payment, the remarriage of the surviving spouse of a worker shall not bar him or her from claiming the lump sum payment authorized in (2)(f)(i) of this section during the life of the remarriage, or shall not prevent subsequent monthly payments to him or to her if the remarriage has been terminated by death or has been dissolved or annulled by valid court decree provided he or she has not previously accepted the lump sum payment.

(g) If the surviving spouse during the remarriage should die without having previously received the lump sum payment provided in (2)(f)(i) of this section, his or her estate shall be entitled to receive the sum specified under subsection (2)(f)(i) of this section or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension whichever is the lesser.

(h) The effective date of resumption of payments under (2)(f)(ii) of this section to a surviving spouse based upon termination of a remarriage by death, annulment, or dissolution shall be the date of the death or the date the judicial decree of annulment or dissolution becomes final and when application for the payments has been received.

(i) If it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of the amendments in chapter 45, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund.

(3) If there is a child or children and no surviving spouse of the deceased worker or the surviving spouse is not eligible for benefits under this title, a sum equal to thirty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker shall be paid monthly for one child and a sum equivalent to fifteen percent of such wage shall be paid monthly for each additional child, the total of such sum to be divided among such children, share and share alike: PROVIDED, That benefits under this subsection or subsection (4) of this section shall not exceed the lesser of sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of his or her death or ~~((one hundred percent))~~ the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, ~~((which ever is the lesser of the two sums-))~~ as follows:

AFTER PERCENTAGE

June 30, 1993 110%
June 30, 1995 125%
June 30, 1997 150%

(4) In the event a surviving spouse receiving monthly payments dies, the child or children of the deceased worker shall receive the same payment as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) If the worker leaves no surviving spouse or child, but leaves a dependent or dependents, a monthly payment shall be made to each dependent equal to fifty percent of the average monthly support actually received by such dependent from the worker during the twelve months next preceding the occurrence of the injury, but the total payment to all dependents in any case shall not exceed the lesser of sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of ~~((the))~~ his or her death or ~~((one hundred percent))~~ the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018~~((, whichever is the lesser of the two sums-))~~ as follows:

AFTER PERCENTAGE

June 30, 1993 110%
June 30, 1995 125%
June 30, 1997 150%

If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-three while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) For claims filed prior to July 1, 1986, if the injured worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse, the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased worker remarries.

(7) For claims filed on or after July 1, 1986, every worker who becomes eligible for permanent total disability benefits shall elect an option as provided in RCW 51.32.067.

Sec. 2. RCW 51.32.060 and 1988 c 161 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the supervisor of industrial insurance shall determine that permanent total disability results from the injury, the worker shall receive monthly during the period of such disability:

(a) If married at the time of injury, sixty-five percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifteen dollars per month.

- (b) If married with one child at the time of injury, sixty-seven percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-two dollars per month.
- (c) If married with two children at the time of injury, sixty-nine percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred eighty-three dollars.
- (d) If married with three children at the time of injury, seventy-one percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred six dollars per month.
- (e) If married with four children at the time of injury, seventy-three percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-nine dollars per month.
- (f) If married with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy-five percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred fifty-two dollars per month.
- (g) If unmarried at the time of the injury, sixty percent of his or her wages but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars per month.
- (h) If unmarried with one child at the time of injury, sixty-two percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars per month.
- (i) If unmarried with two children at the time of injury, sixty-four percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars per month.
- (j) If unmarried with three children at the time of injury, sixty-six percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars per month.
- (k) If unmarried with four children at the time of injury, sixty-eight percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars per month.
- (l) If unmarried with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars per month.
- (2) For any period of time where both husband and wife are entitled to compensation as temporarily or totally disabled workers, only that spouse having the higher wages of the two shall be entitled to claim their child or children for compensation purposes.
- (3) In case of permanent total disability, if the character of the injury is such as to render the worker so physically helpless as to require the hiring of the services of an attendant, the department shall make monthly payments to such attendant for such services as long as such requirement continues, but such payments shall not obtain or be operative while the worker is receiving care under or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.36 RCW and RCW 51.04.105.
- (4) Should any further accident result in the permanent total disability of an injured worker, he or she shall receive the pension to which he or she would be entitled, notwithstanding the payment of a lump sum for his or her prior injury.
- (5) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed (~~one hundred percent~~) the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018(~~(, except that this)~~) as follows:

AFTER PERCENTAGE

June 30, 1993	110%
June 30, 1995	125%
June 30, 1997	150%

- The limitations under this subsection shall not apply to the payments provided for in subsection (3) of this section.
- (6) In the case of new or reopened claims, if the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that, at the time of filing or reopening, the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.
- (7) The benefits provided by this section are subject to modification under RCW 51.32.067.
- Sec. 3. RCW 51.32.090 and 1988 c 161 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:
- (1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in RCW 51.32.060 (1) and (2) shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.
- (2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.
- (3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent.
- (4) Whenever an employer requests that a worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the worker is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.
- Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury: PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(6) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages.

AFTER PERCENTAGE

June 30, 1993	110%
June 30, 1995	125%
June 30, 1997	150%

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."

MOTIONS

Senator Gaspard moved that the following amendment by Senators Gaspard, Moore and Vognild be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 51.32.050 and 1991 c 88 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Where death results from the injury the expenses of burial not to exceed two thousand dollars shall be paid.

(2)(a) Where death results from the injury, a surviving spouse of a deceased worker eligible for benefits under this title shall receive monthly for life or until remarriage payments according to the following schedule:

(i) If there are no children of the deceased worker, sixty percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars;

(ii) If there is one child of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-two percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars;

(iii) If there are two children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-four percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars;

(iv) If there are three children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-six percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars;

(v) If there are four children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-eight percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars; or

(vi) If there are five or more children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, seventy percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars.

(b) Where the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker or where after the death of the worker legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children. The amount of such payments shall be five percent of the monthly benefits payable as a result of the worker's death for each such child but such payments shall not exceed twenty-five percent. Such payments on account of such child or children shall be subtracted from the amount to which such surviving spouse would have been entitled had such surviving spouse had legal custody of all of the children and the surviving spouse shall receive the remainder after such payments on account of such child or children have been subtracted. Such payments on account of a child or children not in the legal custody of such surviving spouse shall be apportioned equally among such children.

(c) Payments to the surviving spouse of the deceased worker shall cease at the end of the month in which remarriage occurs: PROVIDED, That a monthly payment shall be made to the child or children of the deceased worker from the month following such remarriage in a sum equal to five percent of the wages of the deceased worker for one child and a sum equal to five percent for each additional child up to a maximum of five such children. Payments to such child or children shall be apportioned equally among such children. Such sum shall be in place of any payments theretofore made for the benefit of or on account of any such child or children. If the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker, or if after the death of the worker, legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children.

(e) In addition to the monthly payments provided for in (2)(a) through (2)(c) of this section, a surviving spouse or child or children of such worker if there is no surviving spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving spouse or child or children of any such deceased worker shall be forthwith paid the sum of one thousand six hundred dollars, any such children, or parents to share and share alike in said sum.

(f) Upon remarriage of a surviving spouse the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as provided in this section, but the monthly payments to such surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month during which remarriage occurs. However, after September 8, 1975, an otherwise eligible surviving spouse of a worker who died at any time prior to or after September 8, 1975, shall have an option of:

(i) Receiving, once and for all, a lump sum of twenty-four times the monthly compensation rate in effect on the date of remarriage allocable to the spouse for himself or herself pursuant to (2)(a)(i) of this section and subject to any modifications specified under (2)(d) of this section and RCW 51.32.075(3) or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension, whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED, That if the injury occurred prior to July 28, 1991, the remarriage benefit lump sum available shall be as provided in the remarriage benefit schedules then in effect; or

(ii) If a surviving spouse does not choose the option specified in (2)(f)(i) of this section to accept the lump sum payment, the remarriage of the surviving spouse of a worker shall not bar him or her from claiming the lump sum payment authorized in (2)(f)(i) of this section during the life of the remarriage, or shall not prevent subsequent monthly payments to him or to her if the remarriage has been terminated by death or has been dissolved or annulled by valid court decree provided he or she has not previously accepted the lump sum payment.

(g) If the surviving spouse during the remarriage should die without having previously received the lump sum payment provided in (2)(f)(i) of this section, his or her estate shall be entitled to receive the sum specified under subsection (2)(f)(i) of this section or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension whichever is the lesser.

(h) The effective date of resumption of payments under (2)(f)(ii) of this section to a surviving spouse based upon termination of a marriage by death, annulment, or dissolution shall be the date of the death or the date the judicial decree of annulment or dissolution becomes final and when application for the payments has been received.

(i) If it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of the amendments in chapter 45, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund.

(3) If there is a child or children and no surviving spouse of the deceased worker or the surviving spouse is not eligible for benefits under this title, a sum equal to thirty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker shall be paid monthly for one child and a sum equivalent to fifteen percent of such wage shall be paid monthly for each additional child, the total of such sum to be divided among such children, share and share alike: PROVIDED, That benefits under this subsection or subsection (4) of this section shall not exceed the lesser of sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of his or her death or ((one hundred percent)) the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, ((which ever is the lesser of the two sums-)) as follows:

(4) In the event a surviving spouse receiving monthly payments dies, the child or children of the deceased worker shall receive the same payment as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) If the worker leaves no surviving spouse or child, but leaves a dependent or dependents, a monthly payment shall be made to each dependent equal to fifty percent of the average monthly support actually received by such dependent from the worker during the twelve months next preceding the occurrence of the injury, but the total payment to all dependents in any case shall not exceed the lesser of sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of ((the)) his or her death or ((one hundred percent)) the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018 ((, whichever is the lesser of the two sums-)) as follows:

AFTER PERCENTAGE

June 30, 1993 105%
June 30, 1994 110%
June 30, 1995 115%
June 30, 1996 120%

If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-three while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) For claims filed prior to July 1, 1986, if the injured worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse, the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased worker remarries.

(7) For claims filed on or after July 1, 1986, every worker who becomes eligible for permanent total disability benefits shall elect an option as provided in RCW 51.32.067.

Sec. 2. RCW 51.32.060 and 1988 c 161 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the supervisor of industrial insurance shall determine that permanent total disability results from the injury, the worker shall receive monthly during the period of such disability:

(a) If married at the time of injury, sixty-five percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifteen dollars per month.

(b) If married with one child at the time of injury, sixty-seven percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-two dollars per month.

(c) If married with two children at the time of injury, sixty-nine percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred eighty-three dollars.

(d) If married with three children at the time of injury, seventy-one percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred six dollars per month.

(e) If married with four children at the time of injury, seventy-three percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-nine dollars per month.

(f) If married with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy-five percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred fifty-two dollars per month.

(g) If unmarried at the time of the injury, sixty percent of his or her wages but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars per month.

(h) If unmarried with one child at the time of injury, sixty-two percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars per month.

(i) If unmarried with two children at the time of injury, sixty-four percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars per month.

(j) If unmarried with three children at the time of injury, sixty-six percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars per month.

(k) If unmarried with four children at the time of injury, sixty-eight percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars per month.

(l) If unmarried with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars per month.

(2) For any period of time where both husband and wife are entitled to compensation as temporarily or totally disabled workers, only that spouse having the higher wages of the two shall be entitled to claim their child or children for compensation purposes.

(3) In case of permanent total disability, if the character of the injury is such as to render the worker so physically helpless as to require the hiring of the services of an attendant, the department shall make monthly payments to such attendant for such services as long as such requirement continues, but such payments shall not obtain or be operative while the worker is receiving care under or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.36 RCW and RCW 51.04.105.

(4) Should any further accident result in the permanent total disability of an injured worker, he or she shall receive the pension to which he or she would be entitled, notwithstanding the payment of a lump sum for his or her prior injury.

(5) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed ~~((one hundred percent))~~ the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018~~((, except that this))~~ as follows:

AFTER PERCENTAGE

June 30, 1993 105%

June 30, 1994 110%

June 30, 1995 115%

June 30, 1996 120%

The limitations under this subsection shall not apply to the payments provided for in subsection (3) of this section.

(6) In the case of new or reopened claims, if the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that, at the time of filing or reopening, the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

(7) The benefits provided by this section are subject to modification under RCW 51.32.067.

Sec. 3. RCW 51.32.090 and 1988 c 161 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in RCW 51.32.060 (1) and (2) shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.

(2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.

(3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent.

(4) Whenever an employer requests that a worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the worker is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury: PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(6) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages.

AFTER PERCENTAGE

June 30, 1993	105%
June 30, 1994	110%
June 30, 1995	115%
June 30, 1996	120%

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."

Senator Anderson moved that the following amendment to the striking amendment by Senators Gaspard, Moore and Vognild be adopted:

On page 1, after line 6 of the amendment, strike all material through "1993." on page 9, line 18, and insert the following: "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) There is hereby created a legislative task force on workers' compensation to review the state's industrial insurance system and make recommendations on the following issues:

(a) The adequacy and equity of the industrial insurance benefit structure with regard to death and disability benefit increases;

(b) Alternative benefit formulas such as utilizing spendable income in the computation;

(c) The effectiveness and efficiency of claims management services with the department; and

(d) Alternative claims management options.

(2) The task force consists of up to twelve voting members, as follows:

(a) Two members from each caucus of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate, with at least two members from the membership of the labor and commerce committee;

(b) Two members from each caucus of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, with at least two members from the membership of the commerce and labor committee; and

(c) Two representatives of business, including self-insurers, and self-insured public employers; and two representatives of labor appointed jointly by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives.

(3) The department of labor and industries shall cooperate with the task force and the deputy director of the department of labor and industries in charge of industrial insurance shall be the nonvoting chairperson.

(4) The task force shall use legislative staff and facilities, but may hire additional staff with specific technical expertise if such expertise is necessary to carry out the mandates of this section. All expenses of the task force, including travel, shall be paid jointly by the senate and the house of representatives.

(5) The task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the appropriate legislative committees by December 1, 1994. The task force shall expire July 1, 1995."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Anderson on page 1, line 6, to the striking amendment by Senators Gaspard, Moore and Vognild to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1248.

The motion by Senator Anderson failed and the amendment to the striking amendment by Senators Gaspard, Moore and Vognild was not adopted.

(b) Beginning on July 1, 1993, compensation under this subsection shall be computed as follows:

(i) Beginning on July 1, 1993, the compensation amounts for the specified disabilities listed in (a) of this subsection shall be increased by thirty-five percent; and

(ii) Beginning on July 1, 1994, and each July 1 thereafter, the compensation amounts for the specified disabilities listed in (a) of this subsection, as adjusted under (b)(i) of this subsection, shall be readjusted to reflect the percentage change in the consumer price index, calculated as follows: The index for the calendar year preceding the year in which the July calculation is made, to be known as "calendar year A," is divided by the index for the calendar year preceding calendar year A, and the resulting ratio is multiplied by the compensation amount in effect on June 30 immediately preceding the July 1st on which the respective calculation is made. For the purposes of this subsection, "index" means the same as the definition in RCW 2.12.037(1).

(2) Compensation for amputation of a member or part thereof at a site other than those ((above)) specified in subsection (1) of this section, and for loss of central visual acuity and loss of hearing other than complete, shall be in proportion to that which such other amputation or partial loss of visual acuity or hearing most closely resembles and approximates. Compensation shall be calculated based on the adjusted schedule of compensation in effect for the respective time period as prescribed in subsection (1) of this section.

(3)(a) Compensation for any other permanent partial disability not involving amputation shall be in the proportion which the extent of such other disability, called unspecified disability, shall bear to ((that above)) the disabilities specified in subsection (1) of this section, which most closely resembles and approximates in degree of disability such other disability, and compensation for any other unspecified permanent partial disability shall be in an amount as measured and compared to total bodily impairment((-PROVIDED, That in order)). To reduce litigation and establish more certainty and uniformity in the rating of unspecified permanent partial disabilities, the department shall enact rules having the force of law classifying such disabilities in the proportion which the department shall determine such disabilities reasonably bear to total bodily impairment. In enacting such rules, the department shall give consideration to, but need not necessarily adopt, any nationally recognized medical standards or guides for determining various bodily impairments.

(b) Until July 1, 1993, for purposes of calculating monetary benefits under (a) of this subsection, the amount payable for total bodily impairment shall be deemed to be ninety thousand dollars((-PROVIDED, That)). Beginning on July 1, 1993, for purposes of calculating monetary benefits under (a) of this subsection, the amount payable for total bodily impairment shall be adjusted as follows:

(i) Beginning on July 1, 1993, the amount payable for total bodily impairment under this section shall be increased to one hundred twenty-one thousand five hundred dollars; and

(ii) Beginning on July 1, 1994, and each July 1 thereafter, the amount payable for total bodily impairment prescribed in (b)(i) of this subsection shall be adjusted as provided in subsection (1)(b)(ii) of this section.

(c) Until July 1, 1993, the total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities resulting from the same injury shall not exceed the sum of ninety thousand dollars((-PROVIDED FURTHER, That in case)). Beginning on July 1, 1993, total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities resulting from the same injury shall not exceed a sum calculated as follows:

(i) Beginning on July 1, 1993, the sum shall be increased to one hundred twenty-one thousand five hundred dollars; and

(ii) Beginning on July 1, 1994, and each July 1 thereafter, the sum prescribed in (b)(i) of this subsection shall be adjusted as provided in subsection (1)(b)(ii) of this section.

(4) If permanent partial disability compensation is followed by permanent total disability compensation, any portion of the permanent partial disability compensation which exceeds the amount that would have been paid the injured worker if permanent total disability compensation had been paid in the first instance, shall be deducted from the pension reserve of such injured worker and his or her monthly compensation payments shall be reduced accordingly.

~~((3))~~ (5) Should a worker receive an injury to a member or part of his or her body already, from whatever cause, permanently partially disabled, resulting in the amputation thereof or in an aggravation or increase in such permanent partial disability but not resulting in the permanent total disability of such worker, his or her compensation for such partial disability shall be adjudged with regard to the previous disability of the injured member or part and the degree or extent of the aggravation or increase of disability thereof.

~~((4))~~ (6) When the compensation provided for in subsections (1) ~~(and (2))~~ through (3) of this section exceeds three times the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, payment shall be made in monthly payments in accordance with the schedule of temporary total disability payments set forth in RCW 51.32.090 until such compensation is paid to the injured worker in full, except that the first monthly payment shall be in an amount equal to three times the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, and interest shall be paid at the rate of eight percent on the unpaid balance of such compensation commencing with the second monthly payment ~~(- PROVIDED, That))~~. However, upon application of the injured worker or survivor the monthly payment may be converted, in whole or in part, into a lump sum payment, in which event the monthly payment shall cease in whole or in part. Such conversion may be made only upon written application of the injured worker or survivor to the department and shall rest in the discretion of the department depending upon the merits of each individual application ~~(- PROVIDED FURTHER, That))~~. Upon the death of a worker all unpaid installments accrued shall be paid according to the payment schedule established prior to the death of the worker to the widow or widower, or if there is no widow or widower surviving, to the dependent children of such claimant, and if there are no such dependent children, then to such other dependents as defined by this title.

(7) Awards payable under this section are governed by the schedule in effect on the date of injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1532 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1532.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1532 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 45.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1532, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071 and the pending striking amendment by Senator McDonald to the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment, deferred on second reading earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071 is a measure which empowers the State Liquor Control Board to implement and enforce various procedures and prohibitions designed to reduce the availability of tobacco products to minors.

"The striking amendment by Senator McDonald would empower the Liquor Control Board to administer the program designed to reduce the availability of tobacco products to minors and, in addition, would transfer from the Department of Revenue to the Liquor Control Board the authority to administer all the laws relative to taxation on cigarettes and tobacco products.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The striking amendment by Senator McDonald to the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071 was ruled out of order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071.

The Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071 was adopted.

NINETY-SIXTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Friday, April 16, 1993

The Senate was called to order at 8:30 a.m. by President Pritchard. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bauer, Drew, Erwin, Hochstatter, McAuliffe, McCaslin, McDonald, Moyer, Niemi, Owen, Pelz, Rinehart, Roach, Sellar and Talmadge. On motion of Senator Oke, Senators Erwin, Hochstatter, McCaslin, McDonald, Moyer, Roach and Sellar were excused. On motion of Senator Spanel, Senators Bauer, Drew, McAuliffe, Niemi, Owen, Pelz, Rinehart and Talmadge were excused.

The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, consisting of Pages Eri Shiraishi and David Manchester, presented the Colors. Reverend Tammy Leiter, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered the prayer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Due to work in the health care reform conference committee, I missed the vote on the following bills: Substitute House Bill No. 1765, as amended by the Senate; Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1140, as amended by the Senate; Substitute House Bill No. 1072, as amended by the Senate; Engrossed House Bill No. 1175, as amended by the Senate; Substitute House Bill No. 1014, as amended by the Senate; House Bill No. 1351; Substitute House Bill No. 1582; Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1662, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules; Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1493, as amended by the Senate; and Substitute House Bill No. 1912, as amended by the Senate.

I would have voted 'yes' on all the measures.

SENATOR PHIL TALMADGE, 34th District

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1765, by House Committee on Corrections (originally sponsored by Representatives L. Johnson, Morris, Long, Cooke, Dellwo, Mastin, Thibaudeau, Campbell, Riley, Johanson, Karahalios, Eide, J. Kohl, Springer and Leonard)

Creating a corrections mental health center operated through a partnership of the department of corrections and the University of Washington.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The department of corrections and the University of Washington may enter into a collaborative arrangement to provide improved services for mentally ill offenders with a focus on prevention, treatment, and reintegration into society. The participants in the collaborative arrangement may develop a strategic plan within sixty days after the effective date of this act to address the management of mentally ill offenders within the correctional system, facilitating their reentry into the community and the mental health system, and preventing the inappropriate incarceration of mentally ill individuals. The collaborative arrangement may also specify the establishment and maintenance of a corrections mental health center located at McNeil Island corrections center. The collaborative arrangement shall require that an advisory panel of key stakeholders be established and consulted throughout the development and implementation of the center. The stakeholders advisory panel shall include a broad array of interest groups drawn from representatives of mental health, criminal justice, and correctional systems. The stakeholders advisory panel shall include, but is not limited to, membership from: The department of corrections, the department of social and health services mental health division and division of juvenile rehabilitation, regional support networks, local and regional law enforcement agencies, the sentencing guidelines commission, county and city jails, mental health advocacy groups for the mentally ill, developmentally disabled, and traumatically brain-injured, and the general public. The center established by the department of corrections and University of Washington, in consultation with the stakeholder advisory groups, shall have the authority to:

- (a) Develop new and innovative treatment approaches for corrections mental health clients;
- (b) Improve the quality of mental health services within the department and throughout the corrections system;
- (c) Facilitate mental health staff recruitment and training to meet departmental, county, and municipal needs;
- (d) Expand research activities within the department in the area of treatment services, the design of delivery systems, the development of organizational models, and training for corrections mental health care professionals;
- (e) Improve the work environment for correctional employees by developing the skills, knowledge, and understanding of how to work with offenders with special chronic mental health challenges;
- (f) Establish a more positive rehabilitative environment for offenders;
- (g) Strengthen multidisciplinary mental health collaboration between the University of Washington, other groups committed to the intent of this section, and the department of corrections;
- (h) Strengthen department linkages between institutions of higher education, public sector mental health systems, and county and municipal corrections;
- (i) Assist in the continued formulation of corrections mental health policies;
- (j) Develop innovative and effective recruitment and training programs for correctional personnel working with mentally ill offenders;
- (k) Assist in the development of a coordinated continuum of mental health care capable of providing services from corrections entry to community return; and
- (l) Evaluate all current and innovative approaches developed within this center in terms of their effective and efficient achievement of improved mental health of inmates, development and utilization of personnel, the impact of these approaches on the functioning of correctional institutions, and the relationship of the corrections system to mental health and criminal justice systems. Specific attention should be paid to evaluating the effects of programs on the reintegration of mentally ill offenders into the community and the prevention of inappropriate incarceration of mentally ill persons.

(2) The corrections mental health center may conduct research, training, and treatment activities for the mentally ill offender within selected sites operated by the department. The department shall provide support services for the center such as food services, maintenance, perimeter security, classification, offender supervision, and living unit functions. The University of Washington may develop, implement, and evaluate the clinical, treatment, research, and evaluation components of the mentally ill offender center. The institute of public policy and management may be consulted regarding the development of the center and in the recommendations regarding public policy. As resources permit, training within the center shall be available to state, county, and municipal agencies requiring the services. Other state colleges, state universities, and mental health providers may be involved in activities as required on a subcontract basis. Community mental health organizations, research groups, and community advocacy groups may be critical components of the center's operations and involved as appropriate to annual objectives. Mentally ill clients may be drawn from throughout the department's population and transferred to the center as clinical need, available services, and department jurisdiction permits.

(3) The department shall prepare a report of the center's progress toward the attainment of stated goals and provide the report to the legislature annually.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "Washington;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1765, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1765, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1765, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 15.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 34.

Excused: Senators Bauer, Drew, Erwin, Hochstatter, McAuliffe, McCaslin, McDonald, Moyer, Niemi, Owen, Pelz, Rinehart, Roach, Sellar and Talmadge - 15.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1765, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1140, by House Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Locke, Horn, H. Myers, Eide, Valle, Rust, Leonard, Basich, Franklin, Shin, Springer and J. Kohl)

Revising provisions relating to metropolitan municipal corporations.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Haugen, the following Committee on Government Operations amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 35.58.030 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any area of the state containing two or more cities, at least one of which is ~~((a city of the first class))~~ of ten thousand or more population, may organize as a metropolitan municipal corporation for the performance of certain functions, as provided in this chapter. The boundaries of a metropolitan municipal corporation may not be expanded to include territory located in a county other than a component county except as a result of the consolidation of two or more contiguous metropolitan municipal corporations.

Sec. 2. RCW 35.58.040 and 1991 c 363 s 39 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time of its formation no metropolitan municipal corporation shall include only a part of any city, and every city shall be either wholly included or wholly excluded from the boundaries of such corporation. If subsequent to the formation of a metropolitan municipal corporation a part only of any city shall be included within the boundaries of a metropolitan municipal corporation such part shall be deemed to be "unincorporated" for the purpose of selecting a member of the metropolitan council pursuant to RCW 35.58.120(3) and such city shall neither select nor participate in the selection of a member on the metropolitan council pursuant to RCW 35.58.120.

Any metropolitan municipal corporation now existing ~~((or hereafter created,))~~ within a county with a population of ~~((from two hundred ten thousand to less than one million bordering a county with a population of one million or more, or within a county with a population of))~~ one million or more~~((;))~~ shall, upon May 21, 1971, ~~((as to metropolitan corporations existing on such date or upon the date of formation as to metropolitan corporations formed after May 21, 1971,))~~ have the same boundaries as those of the respective central county of such metropolitan corporation~~((: PROVIDED, That))~~. The boundaries of such metropolitan corporation may not be enlarged or diminished after such date by annexation as provided in chapter 35.58 RCW ~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~ and any purported annexation of territory shall be deemed void. Any contiguous metropolitan municipal corporations may be consolidated into a single metropolitan municipal corporation upon such terms, for the purpose of performing such metropolitan function or functions, and to be effective at such time as may be approved by resolutions of the respective metropolitan councils. In the event of such consolidation the component city with the largest population shall be the central city of such consolidated metropolitan municipal corporation and the component county with the largest population shall be the central county of such consolidated metropolitan municipal corporation.

Sec. 3. RCW 35.58.090 and 1973 1st ex.s. c 195 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

The election on the formation of the metropolitan municipal corporation shall be conducted by the auditor of the central county in accordance with the general election laws of the state and the results thereof shall be canvassed by the county canvassing board of the central county, which shall certify the result of the election to the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority of the central county, and shall cause a certified copy of such canvass to be filed in the office of the secretary of state. Notice of the election shall be published in one or more newspapers of general circulation in each component county in the manner provided in the general election laws. No person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless ~~((he))~~ that person is a qualified voter under the laws of the state in effect at the time of such election and has resided within the metropolitan area for at least thirty days preceding the date of the election. The ballot proposition shall be in substantially the following form:

"FORMATION OF METROPOLITAN MUNICIPAL CORPORATION

Shall a metropolitan municipal corporation be established for the area described in a resolution of the ~~((board of commissioners))~~ county legislative authority of county adopted on the day of , 19. . . , to perform the metropolitan functions of (here insert the title of each of the functions to be authorized as set forth in the petition or initial resolution).

YES
NO

If a majority of the persons voting on the proposition residing within the central city shall vote in favor thereof and a majority of the persons voting on the proposition residing in the metropolitan area outside of the central city shall vote in favor thereof, the metropolitan municipal corporation shall thereupon be established and the ~~((board of commissioners))~~ county legislative authority of the central county shall adopt a resolution setting a time and place for the first meeting of the metropolitan council which shall be held not later than ~~((thirty))~~ sixty days after the date of such election. A copy of such resolution shall be transmitted to the legislative body of each component city and county and of each special district which shall be affected by the particular metropolitan functions authorized.

At the same election there shall be submitted to the voters residing within the metropolitan area, for their approval or rejection, a proposition authorizing the metropolitan municipal corporation, if formed, to levy at the earliest time permitted by law on all taxable property located within the metropolitan municipal corporation a general tax, for one year, of twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in excess of any constitutional or statutory limitation for authorized purposes of the metropolitan municipal corporation. The proposition shall be expressed on the ballots in substantially the following form:

"ONE YEAR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER THOUSAND DOLLARS OF ASSESSED VALUE LEVY

Shall the metropolitan municipal corporation, if formed, levy a general tax of twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for one year upon all the taxable property within said corporation in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limits for authorized purposes of the corporation?

YES
NO

Such proposition to be effective must be approved by a majority of at least three-fifths of the persons voting on the proposition to levy such tax, with a forty percent validation requirement, in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state(~~, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended~~)).

Sec. 4. RCW 35.58.120 and 1983 c 92 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation have been assumed by a county as provided in chapter 36.56 RCW, a metropolitan municipal corporation shall be governed by a metropolitan council composed of ((the following:

~~(1) One member (a) who shall be the elected county executive of the central county, or (b) if there shall be no elected county executive, one member who shall be selected by, and from, the board of commissioners of the central county.~~

~~(2) One additional member for each county commissioner district or county council district which shall contain fifteen thousand or more persons residing within the metropolitan municipal corporation, who shall be the county commissioner or county councilman from such district;~~

~~(3) One additional member selected by the board of commissioners or county council of each component county for each county commissioner district or county council district containing fifteen thousand or more persons residing in the unincorporated portion of such commissioner district lying within the metropolitan municipal corporation each such appointee to be a resident of such unincorporated portion;~~

~~(4) One member from each component city which shall have a population of fifteen thousand or more persons, who shall be the mayor of such city, if such city shall have the mayor-council form of government, and in other cities shall be selected by, and from, the mayor and city council of each of such cities.~~

~~(5) One member representing all component cities which have less than fifteen thousand population each, to be selected by and from the mayors of such smaller cities in the following manner: The mayors of all such cities shall meet prior to July 1 of each even-numbered year at a time and place to be fixed by the metropolitan council. The chairperson of the metropolitan council shall preside. After nominations are made, successive ballots shall be taken until one candidate receives a majority of all votes cast.~~

~~(6) One additional member selected by the city council of each component city containing a population of fifteen thousand or more for each fifty thousand population over and above the first fifteen thousand, such members to be selected from such city council until all councilmen are members and thereafter to be selected from other officers of such city.~~

~~(7) For any metropolitan municipal corporation which shall be authorized to perform the function of metropolitan water pollution abatement, two additional members who shall be commissioners of a sewer district or a water district which is operating a sewer system and is a component part of the metropolitan municipal corporation and shall participate only in those council actions which relate to the performance of the function of metropolitan water pollution abatement. The commissioners of all such sewer districts and water districts which are component parts of the metropolitan municipal corporation shall meet on the first Tuesday of the month following May 21, 1971 and thereafter on the second Tuesday of June of each even-numbered year at seven o'clock p.m. at the office of the board of county commissioners of the central county. After election of a chairman, nominations shall be made to select members to serve on the metropolitan council and successive ballots taken for each member until one candidate receives a majority of votes cast. The two members so selected shall not be from districts whose boundaries come within ten miles of each other.~~

~~(8) One member, who shall be chairman of the metropolitan council, selected by the other members of the council. The member shall not hold any public office of or be an employee of any component city or component county of the metropolitan municipal corporation)) elected officials of the component counties and component cities, and possibly other persons, as determined by agreement of each of the component counties and the component cities equal in number to at least twenty-five percent of the total number of component cities that have at least seventy-five percent of the combined component city populations. The agreement shall remain in effect until altered in the same manner as the initial composition is determined.~~

Sec. 5. RCW 35.58.230 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.230 are each amended to read as follows:

If a metropolitan municipal corporation shall be authorized to perform the function of metropolitan water supply, the metropolitan council shall, prior to the effective date of the assumption of such function, cause a metropolitan water advisory committee to be formed by notifying the legislative body of each component city which operates a water system to appoint one person to serve on such advisory committee and the board of commissioners of each water district, any portion of which lies within the metropolitan area, to appoint one person to serve on such committee who shall be a water district commissioner. The metropolitan water advisory committee shall meet at the time and place provided in the notice and elect a chairman. The members of such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing bodies and shall receive no compensation other than reimbursement for expenses actually incurred in the performance of their duties. The function of such advisory committee shall be to advise the metropolitan council with respect to matters relating to the performance of the water supply function.

The requirement to create a metropolitan water advisory committee shall not apply to a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of the metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW.

Sec. 6. RCW 35.58.270 and 1967 c 105 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

If a metropolitan municipal corporation shall be authorized to perform the function of metropolitan transportation with a commission form of management, a metropolitan transit commission shall be formed prior to the effective date of the assumption of such function. Except as provided in this section, the metropolitan transit commission shall exercise all powers of the metropolitan municipal corporation with respect to metropolitan transportation facilities, including but not limited to the power to construct, acquire, maintain, operate, extend, alter, repair, control and manage a local public transportation system within and without the metropolitan area, to establish new passenger transportation services and to alter, curtail, or abolish any services as the commission may deem desirable and to fix tolls and fares.

The comprehensive plan for public transportation service and any amendments thereof shall be adopted by the metropolitan council and the metropolitan transit commission shall provide transportation facilities and service consistent with such plan. The metropolitan transit commission shall authorize expenditures for transportation purposes within the budget adopted by the metropolitan council. Tolls and fares may be fixed or altered by the commission only after approval thereof by the metropolitan council. Bonds of the metropolitan municipal corporation for public transportation purposes shall be issued by the metropolitan council as provided in this chapter.

The metropolitan transit commission shall consist of seven members. Six of such members shall be appointed by the metropolitan council and the seventh member shall be the chairman of the metropolitan council who shall be ex officio the chairman of the metropolitan transit commission. Three of the six appointed members of the commission shall be residents of the central city and three shall be residents of the metropolitan area outside of the central city. The three central city members of the first metropolitan transit commission shall be selected from the existing transit commission of the central city, if there be a transit commission in such city. The terms of first appointees shall be for one, two, three, four, five and six years, respectively. Thereafter, commissioners shall serve for a term of four years. Compensation of transit commissioners shall be determined by the metropolitan council.

The requirement to create a metropolitan transit commission shall not apply to a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of the metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW.

Sec. 7. RCW 35.58.300 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.300 are each amended to read as follows:

If a metropolitan municipal corporation shall be authorized to perform the function of metropolitan parks and parkways, a metropolitan park board shall be formed prior to the effective date of the assumption of such function. Except as provided in this section, the metropolitan park board shall exercise all powers of the metropolitan municipal corporation with respect to metropolitan park and parkway facilities.

The metropolitan park board shall authorize expenditures for park and parkway purposes within the budget adopted by the metropolitan council. Bonds of the metropolitan municipal corporation for park and parkway purposes shall be issued by the metropolitan council as provided in this chapter.

The metropolitan park board shall consist of five members appointed by the metropolitan council at least two of whom shall be residents of the central city. The terms of first appointees shall be for one, two, three, four and five years, respectively. Thereafter members shall serve for a term of four years. Compensation of park board members shall be determined by the metropolitan council.

The requirement to create a metropolitan park board shall not apply to a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of the metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW.

Sec. 8. RCW 35.58.320 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.320 are each amended to read as follows:

A metropolitan municipal corporation shall have power to acquire by purchase and condemnation all lands and property rights, both within and without the metropolitan area, which are necessary for its purposes. Such right of eminent domain shall be exercised by the metropolitan council in the same manner and by the same procedure as is or may be provided by law for cities ((~~of the first class~~)), except insofar as such laws may be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 9. RCW 35.58.340 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.340 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided herein, a metropolitan municipal corporation may sell, or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property acquired in connection with any authorized metropolitan function and which is no longer required for the purposes of the metropolitan municipal corporation in the same manner as provided for cities ((~~of the first class~~)). When the metropolitan council determines that a metropolitan facility or any part thereof which has been acquired from a component city or county without compensation is no longer required for metropolitan purposes, but is required as a local facility by the city or county from which it was acquired, the metropolitan council shall by resolution transfer it to such city or county.

Sec. 10. RCW 35.58.350 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.350 are each amended to read as follows:

All the powers and functions of a metropolitan municipal corporation shall be vested in the metropolitan council unless expressly vested in specific officers, boards, or commissions by this chapter, or vested in the county legislative authority of a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation as provided in chapter 36.56 RCW. Without limitation of the foregoing authority, or of other powers given it by this chapter, the metropolitan council shall have the following powers:

(1) To establish offices, departments, boards and commissions in addition to those provided by this chapter which are necessary to carry out the purposes of the metropolitan municipal corporation, and to prescribe the functions, powers and duties thereof.

(2) To appoint or provide for the appointment of, and to remove or to provide for the removal of, all officers and employees of the metropolitan municipal corporation except those whose appointment or removal is otherwise provided by this chapter.

(3) To fix the salaries, wages and other compensation of all officers and employees of the metropolitan municipal corporation unless the same shall be otherwise fixed in this chapter.

(4) To employ such engineering, legal, financial, or other specialized personnel as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of the metropolitan municipal corporation.

Sec. 11. RCW 35.58.410 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.410 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On or before the third Monday in June of each year, each metropolitan municipal corporation shall adopt a budget for the following calendar year. Such budget shall include a separate section for each authorized metropolitan function. Expenditures shall be segregated as to operation and maintenance expenses and capital and betterment outlays. Administrative and other expense general to the corporation shall be allocated between the authorized metropolitan functions. The budget shall contain an estimate of all revenues to be collected during the following budget year, including any surplus funds remaining unexpended from the preceding year. ((~~The remaining funds required to meet budget expenditures, if any, shall be designated as "supplemental income" and shall be obtained from the component cities and counties in the manner provided in this chapter.~~)) The metropolitan council shall not be required to confine capital or betterment expenditures made from bond proceeds or emergency expenditures to items provided in the budget. The affirmative vote of three-fourths of all members of the metropolitan council shall be required to authorize emergency expenditures.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW. This subsection (2) shall apply only to each county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW.

Each county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW shall, on or before the third Monday in June of each year, prepare an estimate of all revenues to be collected during the following calendar year, including any surplus funds remaining unexpended from the preceding year for each authorized metropolitan function.

By June 30 of each year, the county shall adopt the rate for sewage disposal that will be charged to component cities and sewer districts during the following budget year.

As long as any general obligation indebtedness remains outstanding that was issued by the metropolitan municipal corporation prior to the assumption by the county, the county shall continue to impose the taxes authorized by RCW 82.14.045 and 35.58.273(5) at the maximum rates and on all of the taxable events authorized by law. If, despite the continued imposition of those taxes, the estimate of revenues made on or before the third Monday in June shows that estimated revenues will be insufficient to make all debt service payments falling due in the following calendar year on all general obligation indebtedness issued by the metropolitan municipal corporation prior to the assumption by the county of the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of the metropolitan municipal corporation, the remaining amount required to make the debt service payments shall be designated as "supplemental income" and shall be obtained from component cities and component counties as provided under RCW 35.58.420.

The county shall prepare and adopt a budget each year in accordance with applicable general law or county charter. If supplemental income has been designated under this subsection, the supplemental income shall be reflected in the budget that is adopted. If during the budget year the actual tax revenues from the taxes imposed under the authority of RCW 82.14.045 and 35.58.273(5) exceed the estimates upon which the supplemental income was based, the difference shall be refunded to the component cities and component counties in proportion to their payments promptly after the end of the budget year. A county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW shall not be required to confine capital or betterment expenditures for authorized metropolitan functions from bond proceeds or emergency expenditures to items provided in the budget.

Sec. 12. RCW 39.36.020 and 1971 ex. s. c 218 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise expressly provided by law or in subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section, no taxing district shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in such taxing district without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall the total indebtedness incurred at any time exceed one and one-fourth percent on the value of the taxable property therein.

(2) Counties, cities, towns, and public hospital districts are limited to an indebtedness amount not exceeding three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in such counties, cities, towns, or public hospital districts without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election held for that purpose. In cases requiring such assent counties, cities, towns, and public hospital districts are limited to a total indebtedness of two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property therein. However, any county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW may become indebted to a larger amount for its authorized metropolitan functions, as provided under chapter 35.58 RCW, but not exceeding an additional three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in the county without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election held for that purpose, and in cases requiring such assent not exceeding an additional two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property in the county.

(3) School districts are limited to an indebtedness amount not exceeding three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in such district without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election held for that purpose. In cases requiring such assent school districts are limited to a total indebtedness of two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property therein.

(4) No part of the indebtedness allowed in this chapter shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly county, city, town, school district, township, port district, metropolitan park district, or other municipal purposes: PROVIDED, That a city or town, with such assent, may become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding two and one-half percent additional, determined as herein provided, for supplying such city or town with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the city or town; and a city or town, with such assent, may become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding two and one-half percent additional for acquiring or developing open space and park facilities: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any school district may become indebted to a larger amount but not exceeding two and one-half percent additional for capital outlays.

(5) Such indebtedness may be authorized in any total amount in one or more propositions and the amount of such authorization may exceed the amount of indebtedness which could then lawfully be incurred. Such indebtedness may be incurred in one or more series of bonds from time to time out of such authorization but at no time shall the total general indebtedness of any taxing district exceed the above limitation.

The term "value of the taxable property" as used in this section shall have the meaning set forth in RCW 39.36.015.

Sec. 13. RCW 35.58.450 and 1984 c 186 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the limitations of chapter 39.36 RCW and any other statutory limitations otherwise applicable and limiting municipal debt, a metropolitan municipal corporation shall have the power to contract indebtedness and issue general obligation bonds and to pledge the full faith and credit of the corporation to the payment thereof, for any authorized capital purpose of the metropolitan municipal corporation, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general indebtedness, equal to three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the metropolitan municipal corporation, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. A metropolitan municipal corporation may additionally contract indebtedness and issue general obligation bonds, for any authorized capital purpose of a metropolitan municipal corporation, together with any other outstanding general indebtedness, not to exceed an amount equal to five percent of the value of the taxable property within the corporation, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, when a proposition authorizing the indebtedness has been approved by three-fifths of the persons voting on said proposition at said election at which such election the total number of persons voting on such bond proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of ((votes-east)) voters voting within the area of said metropolitan municipal corporation at the last preceding state general election. Such general obligation bonds may be authorized in any total amount in one or more propositions and the amount of such authorization may exceed the amount of bonds which could then lawfully be issued. Such bonds may be issued in one or more series from time to time out of such authorization. The elections shall be held pursuant to RCW 39.36.050.

Whenever the voters of a metropolitan municipal corporation have, pursuant to RCW 84.52.056, approved excess property tax levies to retire such bond issues, both the principal of and interest on such general obligation bonds may be made payable from annual tax levies to be made upon all the taxable property within the metropolitan municipal corporation in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limit. The principal of and interest on any general obligation bond may be made payable from any other taxes or any special assessments which the metropolitan municipal corporation may be authorized to levy or from any otherwise unpledged revenue which may be derived from the ownership or operation of properties or facilities incident to the performance of the authorized function for which such bonds are issued or may be made payable from any combination of the foregoing sources. The metropolitan council may include in the principal amount of such bond issue an amount for engineering, architectural, planning, financial, legal, urban design and other services incident to acquisition or construction solely for authorized capital purposes ~~((and may include an amount to establish a guaranty fund for revenue bonds issued solely for capital purposes))~~.

General obligation bonds shall be issued and sold by the metropolitan council as provided in chapter 39.46 RCW and shall mature in not to exceed forty years from the date of issue.

Sec. 14. RCW 35.58.460 and 1983 c 167 s 48 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A metropolitan municipal corporation may issue revenue bonds to provide funds to carry out its authorized metropolitan water pollution abatement, water supply, garbage disposal or transportation purposes, without submitting the matter to the voters of the metropolitan municipal corporation. The metropolitan council shall create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the bonds of each such issue, into which fund or funds the metropolitan council may obligate the metropolitan municipal corporation to pay such amounts of the gross revenue of the particular utility constructed, acquired, improved, added to, or repaired out of the proceeds of sale of such bonds, as the metropolitan council shall determine and may obligate the metropolitan municipal corporation to pay such amounts out of otherwise unpledged revenue which may be derived from the ownership, use or operation of properties or facilities owned, used or operated incident to the performance of the authorized function for which such bonds are issued or out of otherwise unpledged fees, tolls, charges, tariffs, fares, rentals, special taxes or other sources of payment lawfully authorized for such purpose, as the metropolitan council shall determine. The principal of, and interest on, such bonds shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds, and the owners of such bonds shall have a lien and charge against the gross revenue of such utility or any other revenue, fees, tolls, charges, tariffs, fares, special taxes or other authorized sources pledged to the payment of such bonds.

Such revenue bonds and the interest thereon issued against such fund or funds shall be a valid claim of the owners thereof only as against such fund or funds and the revenue pledged therefor, and shall not constitute a general indebtedness of the metropolitan municipal corporation.

Each such revenue bond shall state upon its face that it is payable from such special fund or funds, and all revenue bonds issued under this chapter shall be negotiable securities within the provisions of the law of this state. Such revenue bonds may be registered either as to principal only or as to principal and interest as provided in RCW 39.46.030, or may be bearer bonds; shall be in such denominations as the metropolitan council shall deem proper; shall be payable at such time or times and at such places as shall be determined by the metropolitan council; shall bear interest at such rate or rates as shall be determined by the metropolitan council; shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the metropolitan council, ~~((one))~~ any of which signatures may be ~~((a))~~ facsimile signatures, and the seal of the metropolitan municipal corporation shall be impressed or imprinted thereon; any attached interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officials.

Such revenue bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such price and at such rate or rates of interest as the metropolitan council shall deem to be for the best interests of the metropolitan municipal corporation, either at public or private sale.

The metropolitan council may at the time of the issuance of such revenue bonds make such covenants with the owners of said bonds as it may deem necessary to secure and guarantee the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, including but not being limited to covenants to set aside adequate reserves to secure or guarantee the payment of such principal and interest, to maintain rates sufficient to pay such principal and interest and to maintain adequate coverage over debt service, to appoint a trustee or trustees for the bond owners to safeguard the expenditure of the proceeds of sale of such bonds and to fix the powers and duties of such trustee or trustees and to make such other covenants as the metropolitan council may deem necessary to accomplish the most advantageous sale of such bonds. The metropolitan council may also provide that revenue bonds payable out of the same source may later be issued on a parity with revenue bonds being issued and sold.

The metropolitan council may include in the principal amount of any such revenue bond issue an amount to establish necessary reserves, an amount for working capital and an amount necessary for interest during the period of construction of any such metropolitan facilities plus six months. The metropolitan council may, if it deems it to be the best interest of the metropolitan municipal corporation, provide in any contract for the construction or acquisition of any metropolitan facilities or additions or improvements thereto or replacements or extensions thereof that payment therefor shall be made only in such revenue bonds at the par value thereof.

If the metropolitan municipal corporation shall fail to carry out or perform any of its obligations or covenants made in the authorization, issuance and sale of such bonds, the owner of any such bond may bring action against the metropolitan municipal corporation and compel the performance of any or all of such covenants.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 15. RCW 35.58.490 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.490 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((If a metropolitan municipal corporation shall have been authorized to levy a general tax on all taxable property located within the metropolitan municipal corporation in the manner provided in this chapter, either at the time of the formation of the metropolitan municipal corporation or subsequently, the))~~ A metropolitan council shall have the power to authorize the issuance of interest bearing warrants on such terms and conditions as the metropolitan council shall provide ~~((same to be repaid from the proceeds of such tax when collected))~~ and to repay the interest bearing warrants with any moneys legally authorized for such purposes, including tax receipts where appropriate.

Sec. 16. RCW 35.58.500 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.500 are each amended to read as follows:

The metropolitan municipal corporation shall have the power to levy special assessments payable over a period of not exceeding twenty years on all property within the metropolitan area specially benefited by any improvement, on the basis of special benefits conferred, to pay in whole, or in part, the damages or costs of any such improvement, and for such purpose may establish local improvement districts and enlarged local improvement districts, issue local improvement warrants and bonds to be repaid by the collection of local improvement assessments and generally to exercise with respect to any improvements which it may be authorized to construct or acquire the same powers as may now or hereafter be conferred by law upon cities ~~((of the first class))~~. Such local improvement districts shall be created and such special assessments levied and collected and local improvement warrants and bonds issued and sold in the same manner as shall now or hereafter be provided by law for cities ~~((of the first class))~~. The duties imposed upon the city treasurer under such acts shall be imposed upon the treasurer of the county in which such local improvement district shall be located.

A metropolitan municipal corporation may provide that special benefit assessments levied in any local improvement district may be paid into such revenue bond redemption fund or funds as may be designated by the metropolitan council to secure the payment of revenue bonds issued to provide funds to pay the cost of improvements for which such assessments were levied. If local improvement district assessments shall be levied for payment into a revenue bond fund, the local improvement district created therefor shall be designated a utility local improvement district. A metropolitan municipal corporation that creates a utility local improvement district shall conform with the laws relating to utility local improvement districts created by a city.

Sec. 17. RCW 35.58.520 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.520 are each amended to read as follows:

A metropolitan municipal corporation shall have the power to invest its funds held in reserves or sinking funds or any such funds which are not required for immediate disbursement, in ~~((property or securities in which mutual savings banks may legally invest funds subject to their control))~~ any investments in which a city is authorized to invest, as provided in RCW 35.39.030.

Sec. 18. RCW 35.58.530 and 1969 ex.s. c 135 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Territory located within a component county that is annexed to a component city after the establishment of a metropolitan municipal corporation shall by such act be annexed to ~~((such))~~ the metropolitan municipal corporation. Territory within a metropolitan municipal corporation may be annexed to a city which is not within such metropolitan municipal corporation in the manner provided by law and in such event either (1) such city may be annexed to such metropolitan municipal corporation by ordinance of the legislative body of the city concurred in by resolution of the metropolitan council, or (2) if such city shall not be so annexed such territory shall remain within the metropolitan municipal corporation unless such city shall by resolution of its legislative body request the withdrawal of such territory subject to any outstanding indebtedness of the metropolitan corporation and the metropolitan council shall by resolution consent to such withdrawal.

Any territory located within a component county that is contiguous to a metropolitan municipal corporation and lying wholly within an incorporated city or town may be annexed to such metropolitan municipal corporation by ordinance of the legislative body of such city or town requesting such annexation concurred in by resolution of the metropolitan council.

Any other territory located within a component county that is adjacent to a metropolitan municipal corporation may be annexed thereto by vote of the qualified electors residing in the territory to be annexed, in the manner provided in this chapter. An election to annex such territory may be called pursuant to a petition or resolution in the following manner:

(1) A petition calling for such an election shall be signed by at least four percent of the qualified voters residing within the territory to be annexed and shall be filed with the auditor of the central county.

(2) A resolution calling for such an election may be adopted by the metropolitan council.

Any resolution or petition calling for such an election shall describe the boundaries of the territory to be annexed, and state that the annexation of such territory to the metropolitan municipal corporation will be conducive to the welfare and benefit of the persons or property within the metropolitan municipal corporation and within the territory proposed to be annexed.

Upon receipt of such a petition, the auditor shall examine the same and certify to the sufficiency of the signatures thereon. ~~((For the purpose of examining the signatures on such petition, the auditor shall be permitted access to the voter registration books of each city within the territory proposed to be annexed and of each county a portion of which shall be located within the territory proposed to be annexed. No person may withdraw his name from a petition after it has been filed with the auditor.))~~ Within thirty days following the receipt of such petition, the auditor shall transmit the same to the metropolitan council, together with his certificate as to the sufficiency thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 35.58.118 and 1971 ex.s. c 303 s 4 & 1967 c 105 s 10;
- (2) RCW 35.58.440 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.440; and

Regarding the study of American Indian languages and cultures in the common schools.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Pelz moved that the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 28A.150.220 and 1990 c 33 s 105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section and RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260:

(a) The term "total program hour offering" shall mean those hours when students are provided the opportunity to engage in educational activity planned by and under the direction of school district staff, as directed by the administration and board of directors of the district, inclusive of intermissions for class changes, recess and teacher/parent-guardian conferences which are planned and scheduled by the district for the purpose of discussing students' educational needs or progress, and exclusive of time actually spent for meals.

(b) "Instruction in work skills" shall include instruction in one or more of the following areas: Industrial arts, home and family life education, business and office education, distributive education, agricultural education, health occupations education, vocational education, trade and industrial education, technical education and career education.

(2) Satisfaction of the basic education goal identified in RCW 28A.150.210 shall be considered to be implemented by the following program requirements:

(a) Each school district shall make available to students in kindergarten at least a total program offering of four hundred fifty hours. The program shall include reading, arithmetic, language skills and such other subjects and such activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students enrolled in such program;

(b) Each school district shall make available to students in grades one through three, at least a total program hour offering of two thousand seven hundred hours. A minimum of ninety-five percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the basic skills areas of reading/language arts (which may include foreign languages, including American Indian languages), mathematics, social studies, science, music, art, health and physical education. The remaining five percent of the total program hour offerings may include such subjects and activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students in such grades;

(c) Each school district shall make available to students in grades four through six at least a total program hour offering of two thousand nine hundred seventy hours. A minimum of ninety percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the basic skills areas of reading/language arts (which may include foreign languages, including American Indian languages), mathematics, social studies, science, music, art, health and physical education. The remaining ten percent of the total program hour offerings may include such subjects and activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students in such grades;

(d) Each school district shall make available to students in grades seven through eight, at least a total program hour offering of one thousand nine hundred eighty hours. A minimum of eighty-five percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the basic skills areas of reading/language arts (which may include foreign languages, including American Indian languages), mathematics, social studies, science, music, art, health and physical education. A minimum of ten percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the area of work skills. The remaining five percent of the total program hour offerings may include such subjects and activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students in such grades;

(e) Each school district shall make available to students in grades nine through twelve at least a total program hour offering of four thousand three hundred twenty hours. A minimum of sixty percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the basic skills areas of language arts, foreign languages, which may be American Indian languages, mathematics, social studies, science, music, art, health and physical education. A minimum of twenty percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the area of work skills. The remaining twenty percent of the total program hour offerings may include traffic safety or such subjects and activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students in such grades, with not less than one-half thereof in basic skills and/or work skills: PROVIDED, That each school district shall have the option of including grade nine within the program hour offering requirements of grades seven and eight so long as such requirements for grades seven through nine are increased to two thousand nine hundred seventy hours and such requirements for grades ten through twelve are decreased to three thousand two hundred forty hours.

(3) In order to provide flexibility to the local school districts in the setting of their curricula, and in order to maintain the intent of this legislation, which is to stress the instruction of basic skills and work skills, any local school district may establish minimum course mix percentages that deviate by up to five percentage points above or below those minimums required by subsection (2) of this section, so long as the total program hour requirement is still met.

(4) Nothing contained in subsection (2) of this section shall be construed to require individual students to attend school for any particular number of hours per day or to take any particular courses.

(5) Each school district's kindergarten through twelfth grade basic educational program shall be accessible to all students who are five years of age, as provided by RCW 28A.225.160, and less than twenty-one years of age and shall consist of a minimum of one hundred eighty school days per school year in such grades as are conducted by a school district, and one hundred eighty half-days of instruction, or equivalent, in kindergarten: PROVIDED, That effective May 1, 1979, a school district may schedule the last five school days of the one hundred and eighty day school year for noninstructional purposes in the case of students who are graduating from high school, including, but not limited to, the observance of graduation and early release from school upon the request of a student, and all such students may be claimed as a full time equivalent student to the extent they could otherwise have been so claimed for the purposes of RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260.

(6) The state board of education shall adopt rules to implement and ensure compliance with the program requirements imposed by this section, RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260, and such related supplemental program approval requirements as the state board may establish: PROVIDED, That each school district board of directors shall establish the basis and means for determining and monitoring the district's compliance with the basic skills and work skills percentage and course requirements of this section. The certification of the board of directors and the superintendent of a school district that the district is in compliance with such basic skills and work skills requirements may be accepted by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education.

(7) Handicapped education programs, vocational-technical institute programs, state institution and state residential school programs, all of which programs are conducted for the common school age, kindergarten through secondary school program students encompassed by this section, shall be exempt from the basic skills and work skills percentage and course requirements of this section in order that the unique needs, abilities or limitations of such students may be met.

(8) Any school district may petition the state board of education for a reduction in the total program hour offering requirements for one or more of the grade level groupings specified in this section. The state board of education shall grant all such petitions that are accompanied by an assurance that the minimum total program hour offering requirements in one or more other grade level groupings will be exceeded concurrently by no less than the number of hours of the reduction.

Sec. 2. RCW 28A.150.220 and 1992 c 141 s 503 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Satisfaction of the basic education program requirements identified in RCW 28A.150.210 shall be considered to be implemented by the following program:

(a) Each school district shall make available to students enrolled in kindergarten at least a total instructional offering of four hundred fifty hours. The program shall include instruction in the essential academic learning requirements under RCW 28A.630.885 and such other subjects and such activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students enrolled in such program;

(b) Each school district shall make available to students enrolled in grades one through twelve, at least a district-wide annual average total instructional hour offering of one thousand hours. The state board of education may define alternatives to classroom instructional time for students in grades nine through twelve enrolled in alternative learning experiences. The state board of education shall establish rules to determine annual average instructional hours for districts including fewer than twelve grades. The program shall include the essential academic learning requirements under RCW 28A.630.885 and such other subjects and such activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students enrolled in such group;

(c) If the essential academic learning requirements include a requirement of languages other than English, the requirement may be met by students receiving instruction in one or more American Indian languages.

(2) Nothing contained in subsection (1) of this section shall be construed to require individual students to attend school for any particular number of hours per day or to take any particular courses.

(3) Each school district's kindergarten through twelfth grade basic educational program shall be accessible to all students who are five years of age, as provided by RCW 28A.225.160, and less than twenty-one years of age and shall consist of a minimum of one hundred eighty school days per school year in such grades as are conducted by a school district, and one hundred eighty half-days of instruction, or equivalent, in kindergarten: PROVIDED, That effective May 1, 1979, a school district may schedule the last five school days of the one hundred and eighty day school year for noninstructional purposes in the case of students who are graduating from high school, including, but not limited to, the observance of graduation and early release from school upon the request of a student, and all such students may be claimed as a full time equivalent student to the extent they could otherwise have been so claimed for the purposes of RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260.

(4) The state board of education shall adopt rules to implement and ensure compliance with the program requirements imposed by this section, RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260, and such related supplemental program approval requirements as the state board may establish.

Sec. 3. RCW 28A.230.090 and 1992 c 141 s 402 and 1992 c 60 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall establish high school graduation requirements or equivalencies for students. Any course in Washington state history and government used to fulfill high school graduation requirements is encouraged to include information on the culture, history, and government of the American Indian peoples who were the first inhabitants of the state.

(2) In recognition of the statutory authority of the state board of education to establish and enforce minimum high school graduation requirements, the state board shall periodically reevaluate the graduation requirements and shall report such findings to the legislature in a timely manner as determined by the state board.

(3) Pursuant to any foreign language requirement established by the state board of education or a local school district, or both, for purposes of high school graduation, students who receive instruction in American sign language or one or more American Indian languages shall be considered to have satisfied the state or local school district foreign language graduation requirement.

(4) If requested by the student and his or her family, a student who has completed high school courses before attending high school shall be given high school credit which shall be applied to fulfilling high school graduation requirements if:

(a) The course was taken with high school students, if the academic level of the course exceeds the requirements for seventh and eighth grade classes, and the student has successfully passed by completing the same course requirements and examinations as the high school students enrolled in the class; or

(b) The academic level of the course exceeds the requirements for seventh and eighth grade classes and the course would qualify for high school credit, because the course is similar or equivalent to a course offered at a high school in the district as determined by the school district board of directors.

(5) Students who have taken and successfully completed high school courses under the circumstances in subsection (4) of this section shall not be required to take an additional competency examination or perform any other additional assignment to receive credit. Subsection (4) of this section shall also apply to students enrolled in high school on April 11, 1990, who took the courses before attending high school.

Sec. 4. RCW 28A.600.060 and 1991 c 116 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

The recipients of the Washington state honors awards shall be selected based on student achievement in both verbal and quantitative areas, as measured by a test or tests of general achievement selected by the superintendent of public instruction, and shall include student performance in the academic core areas of English, mathematics, science, social studies, and foreign languages, which may be American Indian languages. The performance level in such academic core subjects shall be determined by grade point averages, numbers of credits earned, and courses enrolled in during the beginning of the senior year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 2 of this act shall take effect September 1, 1998. However, section 2 of this act shall not take effect if, by September 1, 1998, a law is enacted stating that a school accountability and academic assessment system is not in place."

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following amendment to the Committee on Education amendment was adopted:
On page 5, beginning on line 10, strike "requirement of languages other than English" and insert "foreign language requirement"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Education striking amendment, as amended, to Engrossed House Bill No. 1175.

The Committee on Education striking amendment, as amended, to Engrossed House Bill No. 1175, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "education;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28A.150.220, 28A.150.220, and 28A.600.060; reenacting and amending RCW 28A.230.090; and providing a contingent effective date."

On motion of Senator Pelz, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1175, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Pelz, in the summary it references information included in history curriculum. Do we now, besides the reference to language of the Indian culture, have any history requirement changes with this bill?"

Senator Pelz: "No, any course in Washington State History and Government used to fulfill high school graduation requirements is encouraged to include information on the culture, history and government of the American Indian people."

Senator Anderson: "So, there is no change and mandate on curriculum?"

Senator Pelz: "Absolutely not."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1175, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1175, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; Nays, 2; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McCaslin, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 40.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson and McDonald - 2.

Excused: Senators Erwin, Hochstatter, Moyer, Niemi, Owen, Sellar and Talmadge - 7.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1175, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1014, by House Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance (originally sponsored by Representatives Appelwick and Riley)

Updating uniform commercial code articles 1, 3, and 4.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Labor and Commerce amendment was adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"ARTICLE 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS
PART 2
GENERAL DEFINITIONS AND PRINCIPLES OF INTERPRETATION

Sec. 1. RCW 62A.1-201 and 1992 c 134 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent Articles of this Title which are applicable to specific Articles or Parts thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this Title:

(1) "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, set-off, suit in equity and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

(2) "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.

(3) "Agreement" means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this Title (RCW 62A.1-205 and RCW 62A.2-208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this Title, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (RCW 62A.1-103). (Compare "Contract".)

(4) "Bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking.

(5) "Bearer" means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or certificated security payable to bearer or indorsed in blank.

(6) "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. "Airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.

(7) "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

(8) "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the triers of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its non-existence.

(9) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest of a third party in the goods buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. All persons who sell minerals or the like (including oil and gas) at wellhead or minehead shall be deemed to be persons in the business of selling goods of that kind. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(10) "Conspicuous": A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals (as: NON-NEGOTIABLE BILL OF LADING) is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is "conspicuous". Whether a term or clause is "conspicuous" or not is for decision by the court.

(11) "Contract" means the total legal obligation which results from the parties' agreement as affected by this Title and any other applicable rules of law. (Compare "Agreement".)

(12) "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.

(13) "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.

(14) "Delivery" with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper, or certificated securities means voluntary transfer of possession.

(15) "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

(16) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission or breach.

(17) "Fungible" with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, the equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this Title to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.

(18) "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.

(19) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

(20) "Holder" with respect to ~~((an instrument, certificated security, or document of title means the person in possession if~~ (a) in the case of an instrument, it is payable to bearer or to the order of the person in possession, (b) in the case of a security, the person in possession is the registered owner, or the security has been indorsed to the person in possession by the registered owner, or the security is in bearer form, or (c) in the case of a document of title, the goods are deliverable to bearer or to the order of the person in possession)) a negotiable instrument, means the person in possession if the instrument is payable to bearer or, in the case of an instrument payable to an identified person, if the identified person is in possession. "Holder" with respect to a document of title means the person in possession if the goods are deliverable to bearer or to the order of the person in possession.

(21) To "honor" is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.

(22) "Insolvency proceedings" includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

(23) A person is "insolvent" who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay his debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.

(24) "Money" means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government ~~((or intergovernmental organization)) and includes a monetary unit of account established by an intergovernmental organization or by agreement between two or more nations.~~

(25) A person has "notice" of a fact when

(a) he has actual knowledge of it; or

(b) he has received a notice or notification of it; or

(c) from all the facts and circumstances known to him at the time in question he has reason to know that it exists.

A person "knows" or has "knowledge" of a fact when he has actual knowledge of it. "Discover" or "learn" or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this Title.

(26) A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person "receives" a notice or notification when

(a) it comes to his attention; or

(b) it is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by him as the place for receipt of such communications.

(27) Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to his attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of his regular duties or unless he has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

(28) "Organization" includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(29) "Party", as distinct from "third party", means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this Title.

(30) "Person" includes an individual or an organization (See RCW 62A.1-102).

(31) "Presumption" or "presumed" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

(32) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, lien, issue or re-issue, gift or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in property.

(33) "Purchaser" means a person who takes by purchase.

(34) "Remedy" means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to a tribunal.

(35) "Representative" includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.

(36) "Rights" includes remedies.

(37) "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation, except for lease-purchase agreements under chapter 63.19 RCW. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (RCW 62A.2-401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest". The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts or chattel paper which is subject to Article 9. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of such goods to a contract for sale under RCW 62A.2-401 is not a "security interest", but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Article 9. Unless a lease or consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a "security interest" but a consignment is in any event subject to the provisions on consignment sales (RCW 62A.2-326). Whether a lease is intended as security is to be determined by the facts of each case; however, (a) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security, and (b) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or has the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security.

(38) "Send" in connection with any writing or notice means to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed and in the case of an instrument to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances. The receipt of any writing or notice within the time at which it would have arrived if properly sent has the effect of a proper sending.

(39) "Signed" includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.

(40) "Surety" includes guarantor.

(41) "Telegram" includes a message transmitted by radio, teletype, cable, any mechanical method of transmission, or the like.

(42) "Term" means that portion of an agreement which relates to a particular matter.

(43) "Unauthorized" signature means one made without actual, implied or apparent authority and includes a forgery.

(44) "Value". Except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (RCW 62A.3-303, RCW 62A.4-208 and RCW 62A.4-209) a person gives "value" for rights if he acquires them

(a) in return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection; or

(b) as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a preexisting claim; or

(c) by accepting delivery pursuant to a pre-existing contract for purchase; or

(d) generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

(45) "Warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

(46) "Written" or "writing" includes printing, typewriting or any other intentional reduction to tangible form.

Sec. 2. RCW 62A.1-207 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 1-207 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A party who, with explicit reservation of rights performs or promises performance or assents to performance in a manner demanded or offered by the other party does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved. Such words as "without prejudice", "under protest" or the like are sufficient.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to an accord and satisfaction.

SUBJECT MATTER. (a) This Article applies to negotiable instruments. It does not apply to money, to payment orders governed by Article 4A, or to securities governed by Article 8.

(b) If there is conflict between this Article and Article 4 or 9, Articles 4 and 9 govern.

(c) Regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and operating circulars of the Federal Reserve Banks supersede any inconsistent provision of this Article to the extent of the inconsistency.

Sec. 5. RCW 62A.3-103 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-103 are each amended to read as follows:

((LIMITATIONS ON SCOPE OF ARTICLE. (1) This Article does not apply to money, documents of title or investment securities.

(2) The provisions of this Article are subject to the provisions of the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections (Article 4) and Secured Transactions (Article 9).))

DEFINITIONS. (a) In this Article:

(1) "Acceptor" means a drawee who has accepted a draft.

(2) "Drawee" means a person ordered in a draft to make payment.

(3) "Drawer" means a person who signs or is identified in a draft as a person ordering payment.

(4) "Good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

(5) "Maker" means a person who signs or is identified in a note as a person undertaking to pay.

(6) "Order" means a written instruction to pay money signed by the person giving the instruction. The instruction may be addressed to any person, including the person giving the instruction, or to one or more persons jointly or in the alternative but not in succession. An authorization to pay is not an order unless the person authorized to pay is also instructed to pay.

(7) "Ordinary care" in the case of a person engaged in business means observance of reasonable commercial standards, prevailing in the area in which the person is located, with respect to the business in which the person is engaged. In the case of a bank that takes an instrument for processing for collection or payment by automated means, reasonable commercial standards do not require the bank to examine the instrument if the failure to examine does not violate the bank's prescribed procedures and the bank's procedures do not vary unreasonably from general banking usage not disapproved by this Article or Article 4.

(8) "Party" means a party to an instrument.

(9) "Promise" means a written undertaking to pay money signed by the person undertaking to pay. An acknowledgment of an obligation by the obligor is not a promise unless the obligor also undertakes to pay the obligation.

(10) "Prove" with respect to a fact means to meet the burden of establishing the fact (RCW 62A.1-201(8)).

(11) "Remitter" means a person who purchases an instrument from its issuer if the instrument is payable to an identified person other than the purchaser.

Sec. 6. RCW 62A.3-104 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-104 are each amended to read as follows:

((FORM OF NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS; "DRAFT"; "CHECK"; "CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT"; "NOTE". (1) Any writing to be a negotiable instrument within this Article must

(a) be signed by the maker or drawer; and
(b) contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money and no other promise, order, obligation or power given by the maker or drawer except as authorized by this Article; and
(c) be payable on demand or at a definite time; and
(d) be payable to order or to bearer.

(2) A writing which complies with the requirements of this section is

(a) a "draft" ("bill of exchange") if it is an order;
(b) a "check" if it is a draft drawn on a bank and payable on demand;
(c) a "certificate of deposit" if it is an acknowledgment by a bank of receipt of money with an engagement to repay it;
(d) a "note" if it is a promise other than a certificate of deposit.

(3) As used in other Articles of this Title, and as the context may require, the terms "draft", "check", "certificate of deposit" and "note" may refer to instruments which are not negotiable within this Article as well as to instruments which are so negotiable.))

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENT. (a) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (d), "negotiable instrument" means an unconditional promise or order to pay a fixed amount of money, with or without interest or other charges described in the promise or order, if it:

(1) Is payable to bearer or to order at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder;

(2) Is payable on demand or at a definite time; and

(3) Does not state any other undertaking or instruction by the person promising or ordering payment to do any act in addition to the payment of money, but the promise or order may contain (i) an undertaking or power to give, maintain, or protect collateral to secure payment, (ii) an authorization or power to the holder to confess judgment or realize on or dispose of collateral, or (iii) a waiver of the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of an obligor.

(b) "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument.

(c) An order that meets all of the requirements of subsection (a), except subsection (a)(1), and otherwise falls within the definition of "check" in subsection (f) is a negotiable instrument and a check.

(d) A promise or order other than a check is not an instrument if, at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder, it contains a conspicuous statement, however expressed, to the effect that the promise or order is not negotiable or is not an instrument governed by this Article.

(e) An instrument is a "note" if it is a promise and is a "draft" if it is an order. If an instrument falls within the definition of both "note" and "draft," a person entitled to enforce the instrument may treat it as either.

(f) "Check" means (i) a draft, other than a documentary draft, payable on demand and drawn on a bank, or (ii) a cashier's check or teller's check. An instrument may be a check even though it is described on its face by another term, such as "money order."

(g) "Cashier's check" means a draft with respect to which the drawer and drawee are the same bank or branches of the same bank.

(h) "Teller's check" means a draft drawn by a bank (i) on another bank, or (ii) payable at or through a bank.

(i) "Traveler's check" means an instrument that (i) is payable on demand, (ii) is drawn on or payable at or through a bank, (iii) is designated by the term "traveler's check" or by a substantially similar term, and (iv) requires, as a condition to payment, a countersignature by a person whose specimen signature appears on the instrument.

(j) "Certificate of deposit" means an instrument containing an acknowledgment by a bank that a sum of money has been received by the bank and a promise by the bank to repay the sum of money. A certificate of deposit is a note of the bank.

Sec. 7. RCW 62A.3-105 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-105 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((WHEN PROMISE OR ORDER UNCONDITIONAL. (1) A promise or order otherwise unconditional is not made conditional by the fact that the instrument~~

~~(a) is subject to implied or constructive conditions; or~~

~~(b) states its consideration, whether performed or promised, or the transaction which gave rise to the instrument, or that the promise or order is made or the instrument matures in accordance with or "as per" such transaction; or~~

~~(c) refers to or states that it arises out of a separate agreement or refers to a separate agreement for rights as to prepayment or acceleration; or~~

~~(d) states that it is drawn under a letter of credit; or~~

~~(e) states that it is secured, whether by mortgage, reservation of title or otherwise; or~~

~~(f) indicates a particular account to be debited or any other fund or source from which reimbursement is expected; or~~

~~(g) is limited to payment out of a particular fund or the proceeds of a particular source, if the instrument is issued by a government or governmental agency or unit; or~~

~~(h) is limited to payment out of the entire assets of a partnership, unincorporated association, trust or estate by or on behalf of which the instrument is issued.~~

~~(2) A promise or order is not unconditional if the instrument~~

~~(a) states that it is subject to or governed by any other agreement; or~~

~~(b) states that it is to be paid only out of a particular fund or source except as provided in this section.))~~

ISSUE OF INSTRUMENT. (a) "Issue" means the first delivery of an instrument by the maker or drawer, whether to a holder or nonholder, for the purpose of giving rights on the instrument to any person.

(b) An unissued instrument, or an unissued incomplete instrument that is completed, is binding on the maker or drawer, but nonissuance is a defense. An instrument that is conditionally issued or is issued for a special purpose is binding on the maker or drawer, but failure of the condition or special purpose to be fulfilled is a defense.

(c) "Issuer" applies to issued and unissued instruments and means a maker or drawer of an instrument.

Sec. 8. RCW 62A.3-106 and 1989 c 13 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((SUM CERTAIN- DEFINITIONS. (1) The sum payable is a sum certain even though it is to be paid~~

~~(a) with stated interest or by stated installments; or~~

~~(b) with stated different rates of interest before and after default or a specified date; or~~

~~(c) with a stated discount or addition if paid before or after the date fixed for payment; or~~

~~(d) with exchange or less exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate; or~~

~~(e) with costs of collection or an attorney's fee or both upon default.~~

~~(2) A rate of interest that cannot be calculated by looking only to the instrument is a stated rate of interest in subsection (1) of this section if the rate during any period is readily ascertainable by a reference in the instrument to a published statute, regulation, rule of court, generally accepted commercial or financial index, compendium of interest rates, or announced or established rate of one or more named financial institutions.~~

~~(3) Graduated, variable, annuity or price-level adjusted payments are stated installments in subsection (1) of this section if such payments are provided for in the instrument.~~

~~(4) Nothing in this section shall validate any term which is otherwise illegal.))~~

UNCONDITIONAL PROMISE OR ORDER. (a) Except as provided in this section, for the purposes of RCW 62A.3-104(a), a promise or order is unconditional unless it states (i) an express condition to payment, (ii) that the promise or order is subject to or governed by another writing, or (iii) that rights or obligations with respect to the promise or order are stated in another writing. A reference to another writing does not of itself make the promise or order conditional.

(b) A promise or order is not made conditional (i) by a reference to another writing for a statement of rights with respect to collateral, prepayment, or acceleration, or (ii) because payment is limited to resort to a particular fund or source.

(c) If a promise or order requires, as a condition to payment, a countersignature by a person whose specimen signature appears on the promise or order, the condition does not make the promise or order conditional for the purposes of RCW 62A.3-104(a). If the person whose specimen signature appears on an instrument fails to countersign the instrument, the failure to countersign is a defense to the obligation of the issuer, but the failure does not prevent a transferee of the instrument from becoming a holder of the instrument.

(d) If a promise or order at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder contains a statement, required by applicable statutory or administrative law, to the effect that the rights of a holder or transferee are subject to claims or defenses that the issuer could assert against the original payee, the promise or order is not thereby made conditional for the purposes of RCW 62A.3-104(a); but if the promise or order is an instrument, there cannot be a holder in due course of the instrument.

Sec. 9. RCW 62A.3-107 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-107 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((MONEY. (1) An instrument is payable in money if the medium of exchange in which it is payable is money at the time the instrument is made. An instrument payable in "currency" or "current funds" is payable in money.~~

~~(2) A promise or order to pay a sum stated in a foreign currency is for a sum certain in money and, unless a different medium of payment is specified in the instrument, may be satisfied by payment of that number of dollars which the stated foreign currency will purchase at the buying sight rate for that currency on the day on which the instrument is payable or, if payable on demand, on the day of demand. If such an instrument specifies a foreign currency as the medium of payment the instrument is payable in that currency.))~~

INSTRUMENT PAYABLE IN FOREIGN MONEY. Unless the instrument otherwise provides, an instrument that states the amount payable in foreign money may be paid in the foreign money or in an equivalent amount in dollars calculated by using the current bank-offered spot rate at the place of payment for the purchase of dollars on the day on which the instrument is paid.

Sec. 10. RCW 62A.3-108 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-108 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((PAYABLE ON DEMAND. Instruments payable on demand include those payable at sight or on presentation and those in which no time for payment is stated.))~~

PAYABLE ON DEMAND OR AT DEFINITE TIME. (a) A promise or order is "payable on demand" if it (i) states that it is payable on demand or at sight, or otherwise indicates that it is payable at the will of the holder, or (ii) does not state any time of payment.

(b) A promise or order is "payable at a definite time" if it is payable on elapse of a definite period of time after sight or acceptance or at a fixed date or dates or at a time or times readily ascertainable at the time the promise or order is issued, subject to rights of (i) prepayment, (ii) acceleration, (iii) extension at the option of the holder, or (iv) extension to a further definite time at the option of the maker or acceptor or automatically upon or after a specified act or event.

(c) If an instrument, payable at a fixed date, is also payable upon demand made before the fixed date, the instrument is payable on demand until the fixed date and, if demand for payment is not made before that date, becomes payable at a definite time on the fixed date.

Sec. 11. RCW 62A.3-109 and 1989 c 13 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((DEFINITE TIME. (1) An instrument is payable at a definite time if by its terms it is payable~~

~~(a) on or before a stated date or at a fixed period after a stated date; or~~

~~(b) at a fixed period after sight; or~~

~~(c) at a definite time subject to any acceleration; or~~

~~(d) at a definite time subject to extension at the option of the holder, or to extension to a further definite time at the option of the maker or acceptor or automatically upon or after a specified act or event; or~~

~~(e) by variable, graduated, annuity or price-level adjusted payments.~~

~~(2) An instrument which by its terms is otherwise payable only upon an act or event uncertain as to time of occurrence is not payable at a definite time even though the act or event has occurred.))~~

PAYABLE TO BEARER OR TO ORDER. (a) A promise or order is payable to bearer if it:

(1) States that it is payable to bearer or to the order of bearer or otherwise indicates that the person in possession of the promise or order is entitled to payment;

(2) Does not state a payee; or

(3) States that it is payable to or to the order of cash or otherwise indicates that it is not payable to an identified person.

(b) A promise or order that is not payable to bearer is payable to order if it is payable (i) to the order of an identified person or (ii) to an identified person or order. A promise or order that is payable to order is payable to the identified person.

(c) An instrument payable to bearer may become payable to an identified person if it is specially indorsed pursuant to RCW 62A.3-205(a). An instrument payable to an identified person may become payable to bearer if it is indorsed in blank pursuant to RCW 62A.3-205(b).

Sec. 12. RCW 62A.3-110 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-110 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((PAYABLE TO ORDER. (1) An instrument is payable to order when by its terms it is payable to the order or assigns of any person therein specified with reasonable certainty, or to him or his order, or when it is conspicuously designated on its face as "exchange" or the like and names a payee. It may be payable to the order of~~

~~(a) the maker or drawer; or~~

~~(b) the drawee; or~~

~~(c) a payee who is not maker, drawer or drawee; or~~

~~(d) two or more payees together or in the alternative; or~~

~~(e) an estate, trust or fund, in which case it is payable to the order of the representative of such estate, trust or fund or his successors; or~~

~~(f) an office, or an officer by his title as such in which case it is payable to the principal but the incumbent of the office or his successors may act as if he or they were the holder; or~~

~~(g) a partnership or unincorporated association, in which case it is payable to the partnership or association and may be indorsed or transferred by any person thereto authorized.~~

(2) An instrument not payable to order is not made so payable by such words as "payable upon return of this instrument properly indorsed."

(3) An instrument made payable both to order and to bearer is payable to order unless the bearer words are handwritten or typewritten.)

IDENTIFICATION OF PERSON TO WHOM INSTRUMENT IS PAYABLE. (a) The person to whom an instrument is initially payable is determined by the intent of the person, whether or not authorized, signing as, or in the name or behalf of, the issuer of the instrument. The instrument is payable to the person intended by the signer even if that person is identified in the instrument by a name or other identification that is not that of the intended person. If more than one person signs in the name or behalf of the issuer of an instrument and all the signers do not intend the same person as payee, the instrument is payable to any person intended by one or more of the signers.

(b) If the signature of the issuer of an instrument is made by automated means, such as a check-writing machine, the payee of the instrument is determined by the intent of the person who supplied the name or identification of the payee, whether or not authorized to do so.

(c) A person to whom an instrument is payable may be identified in any way, including by name, identifying number, office, or account number. For the purpose of determining the holder of an instrument, the following rules apply:

(1) If an instrument is payable to an account and the account is identified only by number, the instrument is payable to the person to whom the account is payable. If an instrument is payable to an account identified by number and by the name of a person, the instrument is payable to the named person, whether or not that person is the owner of the account identified by number.

(2) If an instrument is payable to:

(i) A trust, an estate, or a person described as trustee or representative of a trust or estate, the instrument is payable to the trustee, the representative, or a successor of either, whether or not the beneficiary or estate is also named;

(ii) A person described as agent or similar representative of a named or identified person, the instrument is payable to the represented person, the representative, or a successor of the representative;

(iii) A fund or organization that is not a legal entity, the instrument is payable to a representative of the members of the fund or organization; or

(iv) An office or to a person described as holding an office, the instrument is payable to the named person, the incumbent of the office, or a successor to the incumbent.

(d) If an instrument is payable to two or more persons alternatively, it is payable to any of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced by any or all of them in possession of the instrument. If an instrument is payable to two or more persons not alternatively, it is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced only by all of them. If an instrument payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to the persons alternatively, the instrument is payable to the persons alternatively.

Sec. 13. RCW 62A.3-111 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-111 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((PAYABLE TO BEARER. An instrument is payable to bearer when by its terms it is payable to~~

~~(a) bearer or the order of bearer; or~~

~~(b) a specified person or bearer; or~~

~~(c) "cash" or the order of "cash", or any other indication which does not purport to designate a specific payee.))~~

PLACE OF PAYMENT. Except as otherwise provided for items in Article 4, an instrument is payable at the place of payment stated in the instrument. If no place of payment is stated, an instrument is payable at the address of the drawee or maker stated in the instrument. If no address is stated, the place of payment is the place of business of the drawee or maker. If a drawee or maker has more than one place of business, the place of payment is any place of business of the drawee or maker chosen by the person entitled to enforce the instrument. If the drawee or maker has no place of business, the place of payment is the residence of the drawee or maker.

Sec. 14. RCW 62A.3-112 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-112 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((TERMS AND OMISSIONS NOT AFFECTING NEGOTIABILITY. (1) The negotiability of an instrument is not affected by~~

~~(a) the omission of a statement of any consideration or of the place where the instrument is drawn or payable; or~~

~~(b) a statement that collateral has been given to secure obligations either on the instrument or otherwise of an obligor on the instrument or that in case of default on those obligations the holder may realize on or dispose of the collateral; or~~

~~(c) a promise or power to maintain or protect collateral or to give additional collateral; or~~

~~(d) a term authorizing a confession of judgment on the instrument if it is not paid when due; or~~

~~(e) a term purporting to waive the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of any obligor; or~~

~~(f) a term in a draft providing that the payee by indorsing or cashing it acknowledges full satisfaction of an obligation of the drawer; or~~

~~(g) a statement in a draft drawn in a set of parts (RCW 62A.3-801) to the effect that the order is effective only if no other part has been honored.~~

~~(2) Nothing in this section shall validate any term which is otherwise illegal.))~~

INTEREST. (a) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument, (i) an instrument is not payable with interest, and (ii) interest on an interest-bearing instrument is payable from the date of the instrument.

(b) Interest may be stated in an instrument as a fixed or variable amount of money or it may be expressed as a fixed or variable rate or rates. The amount or rate of interest may be stated or described in the instrument in any manner and may require reference to information not contained in the instrument. If an instrument provides for interest, but the amount of interest payable cannot be ascertained from the description, interest is payable at the judgment rate in effect at the place of payment of the instrument and at the time interest first accrues.

Sec. 15. RCW 62A.3-113 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-113 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((SEAL. An instrument otherwise negotiable is within this Article even though it is under a seal.))~~

DATE OF INSTRUMENT. (a) An instrument may be antedated or postdated. The date stated determines the time of payment if the instrument is payable at a fixed period after date. Except as provided in RCW 62A.4-401(c), an instrument payable on demand is not payable before the date of the instrument.

(b) If an instrument is undated, its date is the date of its issue or, in the case of an unissued instrument, the date it first comes into possession of a holder.

Sec. 16. RCW 62A.3-114 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-114 are each amended to read as follows:
~~((DATE, ANTEDATING, POSTDATING. (1) The negotiability of an instrument is not affected by the fact that it is undated, antedated or postdated.~~

~~(2) Where an instrument is antedated or postdated the time when it is payable is determined by the stated date if the instrument is payable on demand or at a fixed period after date.~~

~~(3) Where the instrument or any signature thereon is dated, the date is presumed to be correct.))~~

CONTRADICTIONARY TERMS OF INSTRUMENT. If an instrument contains contradictory terms, typewritten terms prevail over printed terms, handwritten terms prevail over both, and words prevail over numbers.

Sec. 17. RCW 62A.3-115 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-115 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((INCOMPLETE INSTRUMENTS. (1) When a paper whose contents at the time of signing show that it is intended to become an instrument is signed while still incomplete in any necessary respect it cannot be enforced until completed, but when it is completed in accordance with authority given it is effective as completed.~~

~~(2) If the completion is unauthorized the rules as to material alteration apply (RCW 62A.3-407), even though the paper was not delivered by the maker or drawer; but the burden of establishing that any completion is unauthorized is on the party so asserting.))~~

INCOMPLETE INSTRUMENT. (a) "Incomplete instrument" means a signed writing, whether or not issued by the signer, the contents of which show at the time of signing that it is incomplete but that the signer intended it to be completed by the addition of words or numbers.

(b) Subject to subsection (c), if an incomplete instrument is an instrument under RCW 62A.3-104, it may be enforced according to its terms if it is not completed, or according to its terms as augmented by completion. If an incomplete instrument is not an instrument under RCW 62A.3-104, but, after completion, the requirements of RCW 62A.3-104 are met, the instrument may be enforced according to its terms as augmented by completion.

(c) If words or numbers are added to an incomplete instrument without authority of the signer, there is an alteration of the incomplete instrument under RCW 62A.3-407.

(d) The burden of establishing that words or numbers were added to an incomplete instrument without authority of the signer is on the person asserting the lack of authority.

Sec. 18. RCW 62A.3-116 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-116 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((INSTRUMENTS PAYABLE TO TWO OR MORE PERSONS. An instrument payable to the order of two or more persons (a) if in the alternative is payable to any one of them and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced by any of them who has possession of it;~~

~~(b) if not in the alternative is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced only by all of them.))~~

JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY; CONTRIBUTION. (a) Except as otherwise provided in the instrument, two or more persons who have the same liability on an instrument as makers, drawers, acceptors, indorsers who indorse as joint payees, or anomalous indorsers are jointly and severally liable in the capacity in which they sign.

(b) Except as provided in RCW 62A.3-419(e) or by agreement of the affected parties, a party having joint and several liability who pays the instrument is entitled to receive from any party having the same joint and several liability contribution in accordance with applicable law.

(c) Discharge of one party having joint and several liability by a person entitled to enforce the instrument does not affect the right under subsection (b) of a party having the same joint and several liability to receive contribution from the party discharged.

Sec. 19. RCW 62A.3-117 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-117 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((INSTRUMENTS PAYABLE WITH WORDS OF DESCRIPTION. An instrument made payable to a named person with the addition of words describing him~~

~~(a) as agent or officer of a specified person is payable to his principal but the agent or officer may act as if he were the holder;~~

~~(b) as any other fiduciary for a specified person or purpose is payable to the payee and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced by him;~~

~~(c) in any other manner is payable to the payee unconditionally and the additional words are without effect on subsequent parties.))~~

OTHER AGREEMENTS AFFECTING INSTRUMENT. Subject to applicable law regarding exclusion of proof of contemporaneous or previous agreements, the obligation of a party to an instrument to pay the instrument may be modified, supplemented, or nullified by a separate agreement of the obligor and a person entitled to enforce the instrument, if the instrument is issued or the obligation is incurred in reliance on the agreement or as part of the same transaction giving rise to the agreement. To the extent an obligation is modified, supplemented, or nullified by an agreement under this section, the agreement is a defense to the obligation.

Sec. 20. RCW 62A.3-118 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-118 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((AMBIGUOUS TERMS AND RULES OF CONSTRUCTION. The following rules apply to every instrument:~~

~~(a) Where there is doubt whether the instrument is a draft or a note the holder may treat it as either. A draft drawn on the drawer is effective as a note.~~

~~(b) Handwritten terms control typewritten and printed terms, and typewritten control printed.~~

~~(c) Words control figures except that if the words are ambiguous figures control.~~

~~(d) Unless otherwise specified a provision for interest means interest at the judgment rate at the place of payment from the date of the instrument, or if it is undated from the date of issue.~~

~~(e) Unless the instrument otherwise specifies two or more persons who sign as maker, acceptor or drawer or indorser and as a part of the same transaction are jointly and severally liable even though the instrument contains such words as "I promise to pay."~~

~~(f) Unless otherwise specified consent to extension authorizes a single extension for not longer than the original period. A consent to extension, expressed in the instrument, is binding on secondary parties and accommodation makers. A holder may not exercise his option to extend an instrument over the objection of a maker or acceptor or other party who in accordance with RCW 62A.3-604 tenders full payment when the instrument is due.))~~

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. (a) Except as provided in subsection (e), an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay a note payable at a definite time must be commenced within six years after the due date or dates stated in the note or, if a due date is accelerated, within six years after the accelerated due date.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (d) or (e), if demand for payment is made to the maker of a note payable on demand, an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the note must be commenced within six years after the demand. If no demand for payment is made to the maker, an action to enforce the note is barred if neither principal nor interest on the note has been paid for a continuous period of ten years.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (d), an action to enforce the obligation of a party to an unaccepted draft to pay the draft must be commenced within three years after dishonor of the draft or ten years after the date of the draft, whichever period expires first.

(d) An action to enforce the obligation of the acceptor of a certified check or the issuer of a teller's check, cashier's check, or traveler's check must be commenced within three years after demand for payment is made to the acceptor or issuer, as the case may be.

(e) An action to enforce the obligation of a party to a certificate of deposit to pay the instrument must be commenced within six years after demand for payment is made to the maker, but if the instrument states a due date and the maker is not required to pay before that date, the six-year period begins when a demand for payment is in effect and the due date has passed.

(f) An action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay an accepted draft, other than a certified check, must be commenced (i) within six years after the due date or dates stated in the draft or acceptance if the obligation of the acceptor is payable at a definite time, or (ii) within six years after the date of the acceptance if the obligation of the acceptor is payable on demand.

(g) Unless governed by other law regarding claims for indemnity or contribution, an action (i) for conversion of an instrument, for money had and received, or like action based on conversion, (ii) for breach of warranty, or (iii) to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this Article and not governed by this section must be commenced within three years after the cause of action accrues.

Sec. 21. RCW 62A.3-119 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-119 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((OTHER WRITINGS AFFECTING INSTRUMENT. (1) As between the obligor and his immediate obligee or any transferee the terms of an instrument may be modified or affected by any other written agreement executed as a part of the same transaction, except that a holder in due course is not affected by any limitation of his rights arising out of the separate written agreement if he had no notice of the limitation when he took the instrument.~~

~~(2) A separate agreement does not affect the negotiability of an instrument.))~~

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO DEFEND ACTION. In an action for breach of an obligation for which a third person is answerable over pursuant to this Article or Article 4, the defendant may give the third person written notice of the litigation, and the person notified may then give similar notice to any other person who is answerable over. If the notice states (i) that the person notified may come in and defend and (ii) that failure to do so will bind the person notified in an action later brought by the person giving the notice as to any determination of fact common to the two litigations, the person notified is so bound unless after reasonable receipt of the notice the person notified does come in and defend.

PART 2

NEGOTIATION, TRANSFER, AND ((NEGOTIATION)) INDORSEMENT

Sec. 22. RCW 62A.3-201 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-201 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((TRANSFER: RIGHT TO INDORSEMENT. (1) Transfer of an instrument vests in the transferee such rights as the transferor has therein, except that a transferee who has himself been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the instrument or who as a prior holder had notice of a defense or claim against it cannot improve his position by taking from a later holder in due course.~~

~~(2) A transfer of a security interest in an instrument vests the foregoing rights in the transferee to the extent of the interest transferred.~~

~~(3) Unless otherwise agreed any transfer for value of an instrument not then payable to bearer gives the transferee the specifically enforceable right to have the unqualified indorsement of the transferor. Negotiation takes effect only when the indorsement is made and until that time there is no presumption that the transferee is the owner.))~~

NEGOTIATION. (a) "Negotiation" means a transfer of possession, whether voluntary or involuntary, of an instrument by a person other than the issuer to a person who thereby becomes its holder.

(b) Except for negotiation by a remitter, if an instrument is payable to an identified person, negotiation requires transfer of possession of the instrument and its indorsement by the holder. If an instrument is payable to bearer, it may be negotiated by transfer of possession alone.

Sec. 23. RCW 62A.3-202 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-202 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((NEGOTIATION. (1) Negotiation is the transfer of an instrument in such form that the transferee becomes a holder. If the instrument is payable to order it is negotiated by delivery with any necessary indorsement; if payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery.~~

~~(2) An indorsement must be written by or on behalf of the holder and on the instrument or on a paper so firmly affixed thereto as to become a part thereof.~~

~~(3) An indorsement is effective for negotiation only when it conveys the entire instrument or any unpaid residue. If it purports to be of less it operates only as a partial assignment.~~

~~(4) Words of assignment, condition, waiver, guaranty, limitation or disclaimer of liability and the like accompanying an indorsement do not affect its character as an indorsement.))~~

NEGOTIATION SUBJECT TO RESCISSION. (a) Negotiation is effective even if obtained (i) from an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or a person without capacity, (ii) by fraud, duress, or mistake, or (iii) in breach of duty or as part of an illegal transaction.

(b) To the extent permitted by other law, negotiation may be rescinded or may be subject to other remedies, but those remedies may not be asserted against a subsequent holder in due course or a person paying the instrument in good faith and without knowledge of facts that are a basis for rescission or other remedy.

Sec. 24. RCW 62A.3-203 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-203 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((WRONG OR MISPELLED NAME.—Where an instrument is made payable to a person under a misspelled name or one other than his own he may indorse in that name or his own or both; but signature in both names may be required by a person paying or giving value for the instrument.))~~

TRANSFER OF INSTRUMENT; RIGHTS ACQUIRED BY TRANSFER. (a) An instrument is transferred when it is delivered by a person other than its issuer for the purpose of giving to the person receiving delivery the right to enforce the instrument.

(b) Transfer of an instrument, whether or not the transfer is a negotiation, vests in the transferee any right of the transferor to enforce the instrument, including any right as a holder in due course, but the transferee cannot acquire rights of a holder in due course by a transfer, directly or indirectly, from a holder in due course if the transferee engaged in fraud or illegality affecting the instrument.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed, if an instrument is transferred for value and the transferee does not become a holder because of lack of indorsement by the transferor, the transferee has a specifically enforceable right to the unqualified indorsement of the transferor, but negotiation of the instrument does not occur until the indorsement is made.

(d) If a transferor purports to transfer less than the entire instrument, negotiation of the instrument does not occur. The transferee obtains no rights under this Article and has only the rights of a partial assignee.

Sec. 25. RCW 62A.3-204 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-204 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((SPECIAL INDORSEMENT; BLANK INDORSEMENT.—(1) A special indorsement specifies the person to whom or to whose order it makes the instrument payable.—Any instrument specially indorsed becomes payable to the order of the special indorsee and may be further negotiated only by his indorsement.~~

~~(2) An indorsement in blank specifies no particular indorsee and may consist of a mere signature.—An instrument payable to order and indorsed in blank becomes payable to bearer and may be negotiated by delivery alone until specially indorsed.~~

~~(3) The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank any contract consistent with the character of the indorsement.))~~

INDORSEMENT. (a) "Indorsement" means a signature, other than that of a signer as maker, drawer, or acceptor, that alone or accompanied by other words is made on an instrument for the purpose of (i) negotiating the instrument, (ii) restricting payment of the instrument, or (iii) incurring indorser's liability on the instrument, but regardless of the intent of the signer, a signature and its accompanying words is an indorsement unless the accompanying words, terms of the instrument, place of the signature, or other circumstances unambiguously indicate that the signature was made for a purpose other than indorsement. For the purpose of determining whether a signature is made on an instrument, a paper affixed to the instrument is a part of the instrument.

(b) "Indorser" means a person who makes an indorsement.

(c) For the purpose of determining whether the transferee of an instrument is a holder, an indorsement that transfers a security interest in the instrument is effective as an unqualified indorsement of the instrument.

(d) If an instrument is payable to a holder under a name that is not the name of the holder, indorsement may be made by the holder in the name stated in the instrument or in the holder's name or both, but signature in both names may be required by a person paying or taking the instrument for value or collection.

Sec. 26. RCW 62A.3-205 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-205 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((RESTRICTIVE INDORSEMENTS.—An indorsement is restrictive which either~~

~~(a) is conditional; or~~

~~(b) purports to prohibit further transfer of the instrument; or~~

~~(c) includes the words "for collection", "for deposit", "pay any bank", or like terms signifying a purpose of deposit or collection; or~~

~~(d) otherwise states that it is for the benefit or use of the indorser or of another person.))~~

SPECIAL INDORSEMENT; BLANK INDORSEMENT; ANOMALOUS INDORSEMENT. (a) If an indorsement is made by the holder of an instrument, whether payable to an identified person or payable to bearer, and the indorsement identifies a person to whom it makes the instrument payable, it is a "special indorsement." When specially indorsed, an instrument becomes payable to the identified person and may be negotiated only by the indorsement of that person. The principles stated in RCW 62A.3-110 apply to special indorsements.

(b) If an indorsement is made by the holder of an instrument and it is not a special indorsement, it is a "blank indorsement." When indorsed in blank, an instrument becomes payable to bearer and may be negotiated by transfer of possession alone until specially indorsed.

(c) The holder may convert a blank indorsement that consists only of a signature into a special indorsement by writing, above the signature of the indorser, words identifying the person to whom the instrument is made payable.

(d) "Anomalous indorsement" means an indorsement made by a person who is not the holder of the instrument. An anomalous indorsement does not affect the manner in which the instrument may be negotiated.

Sec. 27. RCW 62A.3-206 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-206 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((EFFECT OF RESTRICTIVE INDORSEMENT.—(1) No restrictive indorsement prevents further transfer or negotiation of the instrument.~~

~~(2) An intermediary bank, or a payor bank which is not the depository bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by a restrictive indorsement of any person except the bank's immediate transferor or the person presenting for payment.~~

~~(3) Except for an intermediary bank, any transferee under an indorsement which is conditional or includes the words "for collection", "for deposit", "pay any bank", or like terms (subparagraphs (a) and (c) of RCW 62A.3-205) must pay or apply any value given by him for or on the security of the instrument consistently with the indorsement and to the extent that he does so he becomes a holder for value.—In addition such transferee is a holder in due course if he otherwise complies with the requirements of RCW 62A.3-302 on what constitutes a holder in due course.~~

~~(4) The first taker under an indorsement for the benefit of the indorser or another person (subparagraph (d) of RCW 62A.3-205) must pay or apply any value given by him for or on the security of the instrument consistently with the indorsement and~~ to the extent that he does so he becomes a holder for value. In addition such taker is a holder in due course if he otherwise complies with the requirements of RCW 62A.3-302 on what constitutes a holder in due course. A later holder for value is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by such restrictive indorsement unless he has knowledge that a fiduciary or other person has negotiated the instrument in any transaction for his own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty (subsection (2) of RCW 62A.3-304).)

RESTRICTIVE INDORSEMENT. (a) An indorsement limiting payment to a particular person or otherwise prohibiting further transfer or negotiation of the instrument is not effective to prevent further transfer or negotiation of the instrument.

(b) An indorsement stating a condition to the right of the indorsee to receive payment does not affect the right of the indorsee to enforce the instrument. A person paying the instrument or taking it for value or collection may disregard the condition, and the rights and liabilities of that person are not affected by whether the condition has been fulfilled.

(c) If an instrument bears an indorsement (i) described in RCW 62A.4-201(b), or (ii) in blank or to a particular bank using the words "for deposit," "for collection," or other words indicating a purpose of having the instrument collected by a bank for the indorser or for a particular account, the following rules apply:

(1) A person, other than a bank, who purchases the instrument when so indorsed converts the instrument unless the amount paid for the instrument is received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

(2) A depository bank that purchases the instrument or takes it for collection when so indorsed converts the instrument unless the amount paid by the bank with respect to the instrument is received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

(3) A payor bank that is also the depository bank or that takes the instrument for immediate payment over the counter from a person other than a collecting bank converts the instrument unless the proceeds of the instrument are received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c)(3), a payor bank or intermediary bank may disregard the indorsement and is not liable if the proceeds of the instrument are not received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

(d) Except for an indorsement covered by subsection (c), if an instrument bears an indorsement using words to the effect that payment is to be made to the indorsee as agent, trustee, or other fiduciary for the benefit of the indorser or another person, the following rules apply:

(1) Unless there is notice of breach of fiduciary duty as provided in RCW 62A.3-307, a person who purchases the instrument from the indorsee or takes the instrument from the indorsee for collection or payment may pay the proceeds of payment or the value given for the instrument to the indorsee without regard to whether the indorsee violates a fiduciary duty to the indorser.

(2) A subsequent transferee of the instrument or person who pays the instrument is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by the restriction in the indorsement unless the transferee or payor knows that the fiduciary dealt with the instrument or its proceeds in breach of fiduciary duty.

(e) The presence on an instrument of an indorsement to which this section applies does not prevent a purchaser of the instrument from becoming a holder in due course of the instrument unless the purchaser is a converter under subsection (c) or has notice or knowledge of breach of fiduciary duty as stated in subsection (d).

(f) In an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the obligor has a defense if payment would violate an indorsement to which this section applies and the payment is not permitted by this section.

Sec. 28. RCW 62A.3-207 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-207 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((NEGOTIATION EFFECTIVE ALTHOUGH IT MAY BE RESCINDED. (1) Negotiation is effective to transfer the instrument although the negotiation is~~

~~(a) made by an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or any other person without capacity; or~~

~~(b) obtained by fraud, duress or mistake of any kind; or~~

~~(c) part of an illegal transaction; or~~

~~(d) made in breach of duty.~~

~~(2) Except as against a subsequent holder in due course such negotiation is in an appropriate case subject to rescission, the declaration of a constructive trust or any other remedy permitted by law.))~~

REACQUISITION. Reacquisition of an instrument occurs if it is transferred to a former holder, by negotiation or otherwise. A former holder who reacquires the instrument may cancel indorsements made after the reacquirer first became a holder of the instrument. If the cancellation causes the instrument to be payable to the reacquirer or to bearer, the reacquirer may negotiate the instrument. An indorser whose indorsement is canceled is discharged, and the discharge is effective against any subsequent holder.

PART 3

((RIGHTS OF A HOLDER)) ENFORCEMENT OF INSTRUMENTS

Sec. 29. RCW 62A.3-301 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-301 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((RIGHTS OF A HOLDER. The holder of an instrument whether or not he is the owner may transfer or negotiate it and, except as otherwise provided in RCW 62A.3-603 on payment or satisfaction, discharge it or enforce payment in his own name.))~~

PERSON ENTITLED TO ENFORCE INSTRUMENT. "Person entitled to enforce" an instrument means (i) the holder of the instrument, (ii) a nonholder in possession of the instrument who has the rights of a holder, or (iii) a person not in possession of the instrument who is entitled to enforce the instrument pursuant to RCW 62A.3-309 (section 37 of this act) or 62A.3-418(d). A person may be a person entitled to enforce the instrument even though the person is not the owner of the instrument or is in wrongful possession of the instrument.

Sec. 30. RCW 62A.3-302 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-302 are each amended to read as follows:

HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. ~~((1) A holder in due course is a holder who takes the instrument~~

~~(a) for value; and~~

~~(b) in good faith; and~~

~~(c) without notice that it is overdue or has been dishonored or of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person.~~

~~(2) A payee may be a holder in due course.~~

(3) A holder does not become a holder in due course of an instrument:

(a) by purchase of it at judicial sale or by taking it under legal process; or

(b) by acquiring it in taking over an estate; or

(c) by purchasing it as part of a bulk transaction not in regular course of business of the transferor.

(4) A purchaser of a limited interest can be a holder in due course only to the extent of the interest purchased.)

(a) Subject to subsection (c) and RCW 62A.3-106(d), "holder in due course" means the holder of an instrument if:

(1) The instrument when issued or negotiated to the holder does not bear such apparent evidence of forgery or alteration or is not otherwise so irregular or incomplete as to call into question its authenticity; and

(2) The holder took the instrument (i) for value, (ii) in good faith, (iii) without notice that the instrument is overdue or has been dishonored or that there is an uncured default with respect to payment of another instrument issued as part of the same series, (iv) without notice that the instrument contains an unauthorized signature or has been altered, (v) without notice of any claim to the instrument described in RCW 62A.3-306, and (vi) without notice that any party has a defense or claim in recoupment described in RCW 62A.3-305(a).

(b) Notice of discharge of a party, other than discharge in an insolvency proceeding, is not notice of a defense under subsection (a), but discharge is effective against a person who became a holder in due course with notice of the discharge. Public filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice of a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument.

(c) Except to the extent a transferor or predecessor in interest has rights as a holder in due course, a person does not acquire rights of a holder in due course of an instrument taken (i) by legal process or by purchase in an execution, bankruptcy, or creditor's sale or similar proceeding, (ii) by purchase as part of a bulk transaction not in ordinary course of business of the transferor, or (iii) as the successor in interest to an estate or other organization.

(d) If, under RCW 62A.3-303(a)(1), the promise of performance that is the consideration for an instrument has been partially performed, the holder may assert rights as a holder in due course of the instrument only to the fraction of the amount payable under the instrument equal to the value of the partial performance divided by the value of the promised performance.

(e) If (i) the person entitled to enforce an instrument has only a security interest in the instrument and (ii) the person obliged to pay the instrument has a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument that may be asserted against the person who granted the security interest, the person entitled to enforce the instrument may assert rights as a holder in due course only to an amount payable under the instrument which, at the time of enforcement of the instrument, does not exceed the amount of the unpaid obligation secured.

(f) To be effective, notice must be received at a time and in a manner that gives a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

(g) This section is subject to any law limiting status as a holder in due course in particular classes of transactions.

Sec. 31. RCW 62A.3-303 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-303 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((TAKING FOR VALUE. A holder takes the instrument for value~~

~~(a) to the extent that the agreed consideration has been performed or that he acquires a security interest in or a lien on the instrument otherwise than by legal process; or~~

~~(b) when he takes the instrument in payment of or as security for an antecedent claim against any person whether or not the claim is due; or~~

~~(c) when he gives a negotiable instrument for it or makes an irrevocable commitment to a third person.))~~

VALUE AND CONSIDERATION. (a) An instrument is issued or transferred for value if:

(1) The instrument is issued or transferred for a promise of performance, to the extent the promise has been performed;

(2) The transferee acquires a security interest or other lien in the instrument other than a lien obtained by judicial proceeding;

(3) The instrument is issued or transferred as payment of, or as security for, an antecedent claim against any person, whether or not the claim is due;

(4) The instrument is issued or transferred in exchange for a negotiable instrument; or

(5) The instrument is issued or transferred in exchange for the incurring of an irrevocable obligation to a third party by the person taking the instrument.

(b) "Consideration" means any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. The drawer or maker of an instrument has a defense if the instrument is issued without consideration. If an instrument is issued for a promise of performance, the issuer has a defense to the extent performance of the promise is due and the promise has not been performed. If an instrument is issued for value as stated in subsection (a), the instrument is also issued for consideration.

Sec. 32. RCW 62A.3-304 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-304 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((NOTICE TO PURCHASER. (1) The purchaser has notice of a claim or defense if~~

~~(a) the instrument is so incomplete, bears such visible evidence of forgery or alteration, or is otherwise so irregular as to call into question its validity, terms or ownership or to create an ambiguity as to the party to pay; or~~

~~(b) the purchaser has notice that the obligation of any party is voidable in whole or in part, or that all parties have been discharged.~~

~~(2) The purchaser has notice of a claim against the instrument when he has knowledge that a fiduciary has negotiated the instrument in payment of or as security for his own debt or in any transaction for his own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty.~~

~~(3) The purchaser has notice that an instrument is overdue if he has reason to know~~

~~(a) that any part of the principal amount is overdue or that there is an uncured default in payment of another instrument of the same series; or~~

~~(b) that acceleration of the instrument has been made; or~~

~~(c) that he is taking a demand instrument after demand has been made or more than a reasonable length of time after its issue. A reasonable time for a check drawn and payable within the states and territories of the United States and the District of Columbia is presumed to be thirty days.~~

~~(4) Knowledge of the following facts does not of itself give the purchaser notice of a defense or claim~~

~~(a) that the instrument is antedated or postdated;~~

~~(b) that it was issued or negotiated in return for an executory promise or accompanied by a separate agreement, unless the purchaser has notice that a defense or claim has arisen from the terms thereof;~~

~~(c) that any party has signed for accommodation;~~

(d) that an incomplete instrument has been completed, unless the purchaser has notice of any improper completion;
(e) that any person negotiating the instrument is or was a fiduciary;
(f) that there has been default in payment of interest on the instrument or in payment of any other instrument, except one of the same series.

(5) The filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice within the provisions of this Article to a person who would otherwise be a holder in due course.

(6) To be effective notice must be received at such time and in such manner as to give a reasonable opportunity to act on it.))

OVERDUE INSTRUMENT. (a) An instrument payable on demand becomes overdue at the earliest of the following times:

(1) On the day after the day demand for payment is duly made;

(2) If the instrument is a check, 90 days after its date; or

(3) If the instrument is not a check, when the instrument has been outstanding for a period of time after its date which is unreasonably long under the circumstances of the particular case in light of the nature of the instrument and usage of the trade.

(b) With respect to an instrument payable at a definite time the following rules apply:

(1) If the principal is payable in installments and a due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue upon default under the instrument for nonpayment of an installment, and the instrument remains overdue until the default is cured.

(2) If the principal is not payable in installments and the due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the due date.

(3) If a due date with respect to principal has been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the accelerated due date.

(c) Unless the due date of principal has been accelerated, an instrument does not become overdue if there is default in payment of interest but no default in payment of principal.

Sec. 33. RCW 62A.3-305 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-305 are each amended to read as follows:

((RIGHTS OF A HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. To the extent that a holder is a holder in due course he takes the instrument free from

(1) all claims to it on the part of any person; and

(2) all defenses of any party to the instrument with whom the holder has not dealt except

(a) infancy, to the extent that it is a defense to a simple contract; and

(b) such other incapacity, or duress, or illegality of the transaction, as renders the obligation of the party a nullity; and

(c) such misrepresentation as has induced the party to sign the instrument with neither knowledge nor reasonable opportunity to obtain knowledge of its character or its essential terms; and

(d) discharge in insolvency proceedings; and

(e) any other discharge of which the holder has notice when he takes the instrument.))

DEFENSES AND CLAIMS IN RECOUPMENT. (a) Except as stated in subsection (b), the right to enforce the obligation of a party to pay an instrument is subject to the following:

(1) A defense of the obligor based on (i) infancy of the obligor to the extent it is a defense to a simple contract, (ii) duress, lack of legal capacity, or illegality of the transaction which, under other law, nullifies the obligation of the obligor, (iii) fraud that induced the obligor to sign the instrument with neither knowledge nor reasonable opportunity to learn of its character or its essential terms, or (iv) discharge of the obligor in insolvency proceedings;

(2) A defense of the obligor stated in another section of this Article or a defense of the obligor that would be available if the person entitled to enforce the instrument were enforcing a right to payment under a simple contract; and

(3) A claim in recoupment of the obligor against the original payee of the instrument if the claim arose from the transaction that gave rise to the instrument; but the claim of the obligor may be asserted against a transferee of the instrument only to reduce the amount owing on the instrument at the time the action is brought.

(b) The right of a holder in due course to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument is subject to defenses of the obligor stated in subsection (a)(1), but is not subject to defenses of the obligor stated in subsection (a)(2) or claims in recoupment stated in subsection (a)(3) against a person other than the holder.

(c) Except as stated in subsection (d), in an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the obligor may not assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument (RCW 62A.3-306) of another person, but the other person's claim to the instrument may be asserted by the obligor if the other person is joined in the action and personally asserts the claim against the person entitled to enforce the instrument. An obligor is not obliged to pay the instrument if the person seeking enforcement of the instrument does not have rights of a holder in due course and the obligor proves that the instrument is a lost or stolen instrument.

(d) In an action to enforce the obligation of an accommodation party to pay an instrument, the accommodation party may assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument any defense or claim in recoupment under subsection (a) that the accommodated party could assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument, except the defenses of discharge in insolvency proceedings, infancy, and lack of legal capacity.

Sec. 34. RCW 62A.3-306 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-306 are each amended to read as follows:

((RIGHTS OF ONE NOT HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. Unless he has the rights of a holder in due course any person takes the instrument subject to

(a) all valid claims to it on the part of any person; and

(b) all defenses of any party which would be available in an action on a simple contract; and

(c) the defenses of want or failure of consideration, non-performance of any condition precedent, non-delivery, or delivery for a special purpose (RCW 62A.3-408); and

(d) the defense that he or a person through whom he holds the instrument acquired it by theft, or that payment or satisfaction to such holder would be inconsistent with the terms of a restrictive indorsement. The claim of any third person to the instrument is not otherwise available as a defense to any party liable thereon unless the third person himself defends the action for such party.))

CLAIMS TO AN INSTRUMENT. A person taking an instrument, other than a person having rights of a holder in due course, is subject to a claim of a property or possessory right in the instrument or its proceeds, including a claim to rescind a negotiation and to recover the instrument or its proceeds. A person having rights of a holder in due course takes free of the claim to the instrument.

Sec. 35. RCW 62A.3-307 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-307 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(BURDEN OF ESTABLISHING SIGNATURES, DEFENSES AND DUE COURSE. (1) Unless specifically denied in the pleadings each signature on an instrument is admitted. When the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue~~

~~(a) the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature; but~~

~~(b) the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized except where the action is to enforce the obligation of a purported signer who has died or become incompetent before proof is required.~~

~~(2) When signatures are admitted or established, production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense.~~

~~(3) After it is shown that a defense exists a person claiming the rights of a holder in due course has the burden of establishing that he or some person under whom he claims is in all respects a holder in due course.)~~

NOTICE OF BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY. (a) In this section:

(1) "Fiduciary" means an agent, trustee, partner, corporate officer or director, or other representative owing a fiduciary duty with respect to an instrument.

(2) "Represented person" means the principal, beneficiary, partnership, corporation, or other person to whom the duty stated in subsection (a)(1) is owed.

(b) If (i) an instrument is taken from a fiduciary for payment or collection or for value, (ii) the taker has knowledge of the fiduciary status of the fiduciary, and (iii) the represented person makes a claim to the instrument or its proceeds on the basis that the transaction of the fiduciary is a breach of fiduciary duty, the following rules apply:

(1) Notice of breach of fiduciary duty by the fiduciary is notice of the claim of the represented person.

(2) In the case of an instrument payable to the represented person or the fiduciary as such, the taker has notice of the breach of fiduciary duty if the instrument is (i) taken in payment of or as security for a debt known by the taker to be the personal debt of the fiduciary, (ii) taken in a transaction known by the taker to be for the personal benefit of the fiduciary, or (iii) deposited to an account other than an account of the fiduciary, as such, or an account of the represented person.

(3) If an instrument is issued by the represented person or the fiduciary as such, and made payable to the fiduciary personally, the taker does not have notice of the breach of fiduciary duty unless the taker knows of the breach of fiduciary duty.

(4) If an instrument is issued by the represented person or the fiduciary as such, to the taker as payee, the taker has notice of the breach of fiduciary duty if the instrument is (i) taken in payment of or as security for a debt known by the taker to be the personal debt of the fiduciary, (ii) taken in a transaction known by the taker to be for the personal benefit of the fiduciary, or (iii) deposited to an account other than an account of the fiduciary, as such, or an account of the represented person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.3-308, to read as follows:

PROOF OF SIGNATURES AND STATUS AS HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. (a) In an action with respect to an instrument, the authenticity of, and authority to make, each signature on the instrument is admitted unless specifically denied in the pleadings. If the validity of a signature is denied in the pleadings, the burden of establishing validity is on the person claiming validity, but the signature is presumed to be authentic and authorized unless the action is to enforce the liability of the purported signer and the signer is dead or incompetent at the time of trial of the issue of validity of the signature. If an action to enforce the instrument is brought against a person as the undisclosed principal of a person who signed the instrument as a party to the instrument, the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that the defendant is liable on the instrument as a represented person under RCW 62A.3-402(a).

(b) If the validity of signatures is admitted or proved and there is compliance with subsection (a), a plaintiff producing the instrument is entitled to payment if the plaintiff proves entitlement to enforce the instrument under RCW 62A.3-301, unless the defendant proves a defense or claim in recoupment. If a defense or claim in recoupment is proved, the right to payment of the plaintiff is subject to the defense or claim, except to the extent the plaintiff proves that the plaintiff has rights of a holder in due course which are not subject to the defense or claim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.3-309, to read as follows:

ENFORCEMENT OF LOST, DESTROYED, OR STOLEN INSTRUMENT. (a) A person not in possession of an instrument is entitled to enforce the instrument if (i) the person was in possession of the instrument and entitled to enforce it when loss of possession occurred, (ii) the loss of possession was not the result of a transfer by the person or a lawful seizure, and (iii) the person cannot reasonably obtain possession of the instrument because the instrument was destroyed, its whereabouts cannot be determined, or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amenable to service of process.

(b) A person seeking enforcement of an instrument under subsection (a) must prove the terms of the instrument and the person's right to enforce the instrument. If that proof is made, RCW 62A.3-308 (section 36 of this act) applies to the case as if the person seeking enforcement had produced the instrument. The court may not enter judgment in favor of the person seeking enforcement unless it finds that the person required to pay the instrument is adequately protected against loss that might occur by reason of a claim by another person to enforce the instrument. Adequate protection may be provided by any reasonable means.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.3-310, to read as follows:

EFFECT OF INSTRUMENT ON OBLIGATION FOR WHICH TAKEN. (a) Unless otherwise agreed, if a certified check, cashier's check, or teller's check is taken for an obligation, the obligation is discharged to the same extent discharge would result if an amount of money equal to the amount of the instrument were taken in payment of the obligation. Discharge of the obligation does not affect any liability that the obligor may have as an indorser of the instrument.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed and except as provided in subsection (a), if a note or an uncertified check is taken for an obligation, the obligation is suspended to the same extent the obligation would be discharged if an amount of money equal to the amount of the instrument were taken, and the following rules apply:

(1) In the case of an uncertified check, suspension of the obligation continues until dishonor of the check or until it is paid or certified. Payment or certification of the check results in discharge of the obligation to the extent of the amount of the check.

(2) In the case of a note, suspension of the obligation continues until dishonor of the note or until it is paid. Payment of the note results in discharge of the obligation to the extent of the payment.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (b)(4), if the check or note is dishonored and the obligee of the obligation for which the instrument was taken is the person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligee may enforce either the instrument or the obligation. In the case of an instrument of a third person which is negotiated to the obligee by the obligor, discharge of the obligor on the instrument also discharges the obligation.

(4) If the person entitled to enforce the instrument taken for an obligation is a person other than the obligee, the obligee may not enforce the obligation to the extent the obligation is suspended. If the obligee is the person entitled to enforce the instrument but no longer has possession of it because it was lost, stolen, or destroyed, the obligation may not be enforced to the extent of the amount payable on the instrument, and to that extent the obligee's rights against the obligor are limited to enforcement of the instrument.

(c) If an instrument other than one described in subsection (a) or (b) is taken for an obligation, the effect is (i) that stated in subsection (a) if the instrument is one on which a bank is liable as maker or acceptor, or (ii) that stated in subsection (b) in any other case.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.3-311, to read as follows:

ACCORD AND SATISFACTION BY USE OF INSTRUMENT. (a) If a person against whom a claim is asserted proves that (i) that person in good faith tendered an instrument to the claimant as full satisfaction of the claim, (ii) the amount of the claim was unliquidated or subject to a bona fide dispute, and (iii) the claimant obtained payment of the instrument, the following subsections apply.

(b) Unless subsection (c) applies, the claim is discharged if the person against whom the claim is asserted proves that the instrument or an accompanying written communication contained a conspicuous statement to the effect that the instrument was tendered as full satisfaction of the claim.

(c) Subject to subsection (d), a claim is not discharged under subsection (b) if either of the following applies:

(1) The claimant, if an organization, proves that (i) within a reasonable time before the tender, the claimant sent a conspicuous statement to the person against whom the claim is asserted that communications concerning disputed debts, including an instrument tendered as full satisfaction of a debt, are to be sent to a designated person, office, or place, and (ii) the instrument or accompanying communication was not received by that designated person, office, or place.

(2) The claimant, whether or not an organization, proves that within 90 days after payment of the instrument, the claimant tendered repayment of the amount of the instrument to the person against whom the claim is asserted. This subsection (c)(2) does not apply if the claimant is an organization that sent a statement complying with subsection (c)(1)(i).

(d) A claim is discharged if the person against whom the claim is asserted proves that within a reasonable time before collection of the instrument was initiated, the claimant, or an agent of the claimant having direct responsibility with respect to the disputed obligation, knew that the instrument was tendered in full satisfaction of the claim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.3-312, to read as follows:

LOST, DESTROYED, OR STOLEN CASHIER'S CHECK, TELLER'S CHECK, OR CERTIFIED CHECK. (a) In this section:

(1) "Check" means a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check.

(2) "Claimant" means a person who claims the right to receive the amount of a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check that was lost, destroyed, or stolen.

(3) "Declaration of loss" means a written statement, made under penalty of perjury, to the effect that (i) the declarer lost possession of a check, (ii) the declarer is the drawer or payee of the check, in the case of a certified check, or the remitter or payee of the check, in the case of a cashier's check or teller's check, (iii) the loss of possession was not the result of a transfer by the declarer or a lawful seizure, and (iv) the declarer cannot reasonably obtain possession of the check because the check was destroyed, its whereabouts cannot be determined, or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amenable to service of process.

(4) "Obligated bank" means the insurer of a cashier's check or teller's check or the acceptor of a certified check.

(b) A claimant may assert a claim to the amount of a check by a communication to the obligated bank describing the check with reasonable certainty and requesting payment of the amount of the check, if (i) the claimant is the drawer or payee of a certified check or the remitter or payee of a cashier's check or teller's check, (ii) the communication contains or is accompanied by a declaration of loss of the claimant with respect to the check, (iii) the communication is received at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable time to act on it before the check is paid, and (iv) the claimant provides reasonable identification if requested by the obligated bank. Delivery of a declaration of loss is a warranty of the truth of the statements made in the declaration. If a claim is asserted in compliance with this subsection, the following rules apply:

(1) The claim becomes enforceable at the later of (i) the time the claim is asserted, or (ii) the ninetieth day following the date of the check, in the case of a cashier's check or teller's check, or the ninetieth day following the date of the acceptance, in the case of a certified check.

(2) Until the claim becomes enforceable, it has no legal effect and the obligated bank may pay the check or, in the case of a teller's check, may permit the drawee to pay the check. Payment to a person entitled to enforce the check discharges all liability of the obligated bank with respect to the check.

(3) If the claim becomes enforceable before the check is presented for payment, the obligated bank is not obliged to pay the check.

(4) When the claim becomes enforceable, the obligated bank becomes obliged to pay the amount of the check to the claimant if payment of the check has not been made to a person entitled to enforce the check. Subject to RCW 62A.4-302(a), payment to the claimant discharges all liability of the obligated bank with respect to the check.

(c) If the obligated bank pays the amount of a check to a claimant under subsection (b)(4) and the check is presented for payment by a person having rights of a holder in due course, the claimant is obliged to (i) refund the payment to the obligated bank if the check is paid, or (ii) pay the amount of the check to the person having rights of a holder in due course if the check is dishonored.

(d) If a claimant has the right to assert a claim under subsection (b) and is also a person entitled to enforce a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check that is lost, destroyed, or stolen, the claimant may assert rights with respect to the check under this section.

PART 4 LIABILITY OF PARTIES

Sec. 41. RCW 62A.3-401 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-401 are each amended to read as follows:

SIGNATURE. ~~((1) No)~~ (a) A person is not liable on an instrument unless ~~((his signature appears thereon))~~ (i) the person signed the instrument, or (ii) the person is represented by an agent or representative who signed the instrument and the signature is binding on the represented person under RCW 62A.3-402.

~~((2))~~ (b) A signature ~~((is))~~ may be made ~~((by use of any name, including any trade or assumed name, upon an instrument, or by any word or mark used in lieu of a written signature))~~ (i) manually or by means of a device or machine, and (ii) by the use of any name, including a trade or assumed name, or by a word, mark, or symbol executed or adopted by a person with present intention to authenticate a writing.

Sec. 42. RCW 62A.3-402 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-402 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((SIGNATURE IN AMBIGUOUS CAPACITY. Unless the instrument clearly indicates that a signature is made in some other capacity it is an indorsement.))~~

SIGNATURE BY REPRESENTATIVE. (a) If a person acting, or purporting to act, as a representative signs an instrument by signing either the name of the represented person or the name of the signer, the represented person is bound by the signature to the same extent the represented person would be bound if the signature were on a simple contract. If the represented person is bound, the signature of the representative is the "authorized signature of the represented person" and the represented person is liable on the instrument, whether or not identified in the instrument.

(b) If a representative signs the name of the representative to an instrument and the signature is an authorized signature of the represented person, the following rules apply:

(1) If the form of the signature shows unambiguously that the signature is made on behalf of the represented person who is identified in the instrument, the representative is not liable on the instrument.

(2) Subject to subsection (c), if (i) the form of the signature does not show unambiguously that the signature is made in a representative capacity or (ii) the represented person is not identified in the instrument, the representative is liable on the instrument to a holder in due course that took the instrument without notice that the representative was not intended to be liable on the instrument. With respect to any other person, the representative is liable on the instrument unless the representative proves that the original parties did not intend the representative to be liable on the instrument.

(c) If a representative signs the name of the representative as drawer of a check without indication of the representative status and the check is payable from an account of the represented person who is identified on the check, the signer is not liable on the check if the signature is an authorized signature of the represented person.

Sec. 43. RCW 62A.3-403 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-403 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((SIGNATURE BY AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE. (1) A signature may be made by an agent or other representative, and his authority to make it may be established as in other cases of representation. No particular form of appointment is necessary to establish such authority.~~

(2) An authorized representative who signs his own name to an instrument

(a) is personally obligated if the instrument neither names the person represented nor shows that the representative signed in a representative capacity;

(b) except as otherwise established between the immediate parties, is personally obligated if the instrument names the person represented but does not show that the representative signed in a representative capacity, or if the instrument does not name the person represented but does show that the representative signed in a representative capacity.

(3) Except as otherwise established the name of an organization preceded or followed by the name and office of an authorized individual is a signature made in a representative capacity.))

UNAUTHORIZED SIGNATURE. (a) Unless otherwise provided in this Article or Article 4, an unauthorized signature is ineffective except as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of a person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value. An unauthorized signature may be ratified for all purposes of this Article.

(b) If the signature of more than one person is required to constitute the authorized signature of an organization, the signature of the organization is unauthorized if one of the required signatures is lacking.

(c) The civil or criminal liability of a person who makes an unauthorized signature is not affected by any provision of this Article which makes the unauthorized signature effective for the purposes of this Article.

Sec. 44. RCW 62A.3-404 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-404 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((UNAUTHORIZED SIGNATURES. (1) Any unauthorized signature is wholly inoperative as that of the person whose name is signed unless he ratifies it or is precluded from denying it; but it operates as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of any person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value.~~

(2) Any unauthorized signature may be ratified for all purposes of this Article. Such ratification does not of itself affect any rights of the person ratifying against the actual signer.)

IMPOSTORS; FICTITIOUS PAYEES. (a) If an impostor, by use of the mails or otherwise, induces the issuer of an instrument to issue the instrument to the impostor, or to a person acting in concert with the impostor, by impersonating the payee of the instrument or a person authorized to act for the payee, an indorsement of the instrument by any person in the name of the payee is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

(b) If (i) a person whose intent determines to whom an instrument is payable (RCW 62A.3-110 (a) or (b)) does not intend the person identified as payee to have any interest in the instrument, or (ii) the person identified as payee of an instrument is a fictitious person, the following rules apply until the instrument is negotiated by special indorsement:

(1) Any person in possession of the instrument is its holder.

(2) An indorsement by any person in the name of the payee stated in the instrument is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

(c) Under subsection (a) or (b), an indorsement is made in the name of a payee if (i) it is made in a name substantially similar to that of the payee or (ii) the instrument, whether or not indorsed, is deposited in a depository bank to an account in a name substantially similar to that of the payee.

(d) With respect to an instrument to which subsection (a) or (b) applies, if a person paying the instrument or taking it for value or for collection fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure contributes to loss resulting from payment of the instrument, the person bearing the loss may recover from the person failing to exercise ordinary care to the extent the failure to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

Sec. 45. RCW 62A.3-405 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-405 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((IMPOSTORS; SIGNATURE IN NAME OF PAYEE. (1) An indorsement by any person in the name of a named payee is effective if~~

~~(a) an impostor by use of the mails or otherwise has induced the maker or drawer to issue the instrument to him or his confederate in the name of the payee; or~~

~~(b) a person signing as or on behalf of a maker or drawer intends the payee to have no interest in the instrument; or~~

~~(c) an agent or employee of the maker or drawer has supplied him with the name of the payee intending the latter to have no such interest.~~

~~(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the criminal or civil liability of the person so indorsing.)~~

EMPLOYER'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR FRAUDULENT INDORSEMENT BY EMPLOYEE. (a) In this section:

(1) "Employee" includes an independent contractor and employee of an independent contractor retained by the employer.

(2) "Fraudulent indorsement" means (i) in the case of an instrument payable to the employer, a forged indorsement purporting to be that of the employer, or (ii) in the case of an instrument with respect to which the employer is the issuer, a forged indorsement purporting to be that of the person identified as payee.

(3) "Responsibility" with respect to instruments means authority (i) to sign or indorse instruments on behalf of the employer, (ii) to process instruments received by the employer for bookkeeping purposes, for deposit to an account, or for other disposition, (iii) to prepare or process instruments for issue in the name of the employer, (iv) to supply information determining the names or addresses of payees of instruments to be issued in the name of the employer, (v) to control the disposition of instruments to be issued in the name of the employer, or (vi) to act otherwise with respect to instruments in a responsible capacity.

"Responsibility" does not include authority that merely allows an employee to have access to instruments or blank or incomplete instrument forms that are being stored or transported or are part of incoming or outgoing mail, or similar access.

(b) For the purpose of determining the rights and liabilities of a person who, in good faith, pays an instrument or takes it for value or for collection, if an employer entrusted an employee with responsibility with respect to the instrument and the employee or a person acting in concert with the employee makes a fraudulent indorsement of the instrument, the indorsement is effective as the indorsement of the person to whom the instrument is payable if it is made in the name of that person. If the person paying the instrument or taking it for value or for collection fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure contributes to loss resulting from the fraud, the person bearing the loss may recover from the person failing to exercise ordinary care to the extent the failure to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

(c) Under subsection (b), an indorsement is made in the name of the person to whom an instrument is payable if (i) it is made in a name substantially similar to the name of that person or (ii) the instrument, whether or not indorsed, is deposited in a depository bank to an account in a name substantially similar to the name of that person.

Sec. 46. RCW 62A.3-406 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-406 are each amended to read as follows:

NEGLIGENCE CONTRIBUTING TO FORGED SIGNATURE OR ALTERATION ((OR UNAUTHORIZED SIGNATURE)) OF INSTRUMENT. ((Any)) (a) A person ((who by his negligence substantially)) whose failure to exercise ordinary care contributes to ((a material)) an alteration of ((the)) an instrument or to the making of ((an unauthorized signature)) a forged signature on an instrument is precluded from asserting the alteration or ((lack of authority)) the forgery against a ((holder in due course or against a drawee or other payor)) person who, in good faith, pays the instrument ((in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable commercial standards of the drawee's or payor's business)) or takes it for value or for collection.

(b) Under subsection (a), if the person asserting the preclusion fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure contributes to loss, the loss is allocated between the person precluded and the person asserting the preclusion according to the extent to which the failure of each to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

(c) Under subsection (a), the burden of proving failure to exercise ordinary care is on the person asserting the preclusion. Under subsection (b), the burden of proving failure to exercise ordinary care is on the person precluded.

Sec. 47. RCW 62A.3-407 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-407 are each amended to read as follows:

ALTERATION. (((1) Any alteration of an instrument is material which changes the contract of any party thereto in any respect, including any such change in

(a) the number or relations of the parties; or

(b) an incomplete instrument, by completing it otherwise than as authorized; or

(c) the writing as signed, by adding to it or by removing any part of it.

(2) As against any person other than a subsequent holder in due course

(a) alteration by the holder which is both fraudulent and material discharges any party whose contract is thereby changed unless that party assents or is precluded from asserting the defense;

(b) no other alteration discharges any party and the instrument may be enforced according to its original tenor, or as to incomplete instruments according to the authority given.

(3) A subsequent holder in due course may in all cases enforce the instrument according to its original tenor, and when an incomplete instrument has been completed, he may enforce it as completed.) (a) "Alteration" means (i) an unauthorized change in an instrument that purports to modify in any respect the obligation of a party, or (ii) an unauthorized addition of words or numbers or other change to an incomplete instrument relating to the obligation of a party.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), an alteration fraudulently made discharges a party whose obligation is affected by the alteration unless that party assents or is precluded from asserting the alteration. No other alteration discharges a party, and the instrument may be enforced according to its original terms.

(c) A payor bank or drawee paying a fraudulently altered instrument or a person taking it for value, in good faith and without notice of the alteration, may enforce rights with respect to the instrument (i) according to its original terms, or (ii) in the case of an incomplete instrument altered by unauthorized completion, according to its terms as completed.

Sec. 48. RCW 62A.3-408 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-408 are each amended to read as follows:

((CONSIDERATION. Want or failure of consideration is a defense as against any person not having the rights of a holder in due course (RCW 62A.3-305), except that no consideration is necessary for an instrument or obligation thereon given in payment of or as security for an antecedent obligation of any kind. Nothing in this section shall be taken to displace any statute outside this Title under which a promise is enforceable notwithstanding lack or failure of consideration. Partial failure of consideration is a defense pro tanto whether or not the failure is in an ascertained or liquidated amount.))

DRAWEE NOT LIABLE ON UNACCEPTED DRAFT. A check or other draft does not of itself operate as an assignment of funds in the hands of the drawee available for its payment, and the drawee is not liable on the instrument until the drawee accepts it.

Sec. 49. RCW 62A.3-409 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-409 are each amended to read as follows:

((DRAFT NOT AN ASSIGNMENT. (1) A check or other draft does not of itself operate as an assignment of any funds in the hands of the drawee available for its payment, and the drawee is not liable on the instrument until he accepts it.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect any liability in contract, tort or otherwise arising from any letter of credit or other obligation or representation which is not an acceptance.))

ACCEPTANCE OF DRAFT; CERTIFIED CHECK. (a) "Acceptance" means the drawee's signed agreement to pay a draft as presented. It must be written on the draft and may consist of the drawee's signature alone. Acceptance may be made at any time and becomes effective when notification pursuant to instructions is given or the accepted draft is delivered for the purpose of giving rights on the acceptance to any person.

(b) A draft may be accepted although it has not been signed by the drawer, is otherwise incomplete, is overdue, or has been dishonored.

(c) If a draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date the acceptance, the holder may complete the acceptance by supplying a date in good faith.

(d) "Certified check" means a check accepted by the bank on which it is drawn. Acceptance may be made as stated in subsection (a) or by a writing on the check which indicates that the check is certified. The drawee of a check has no obligation to certify the check, and refusal to certify is not dishonor of the check.

Sec. 50. RCW 62A.3-410 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-410 are each amended to read as follows:

((DEFINITION AND OPERATION OF ACCEPTANCE. (1) Acceptance is the drawee's signed engagement to honor the draft as presented. It must be written on the draft, and may consist of his signature alone. It becomes operative when completed by delivery or notification.

(2) A draft may be accepted although it has not been signed by the drawer or is otherwise incomplete or is overdue or has been dishonored.

(3) Where the draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date his acceptance the holder may complete it by supplying a date in good faith.))

ACCEPTANCE VARYING DRAFT. (a) If the terms of a drawee's acceptance vary from the terms of the draft as presented, the holder may refuse the acceptance and treat the draft as dishonored. In that case, the drawee may cancel the acceptance.

(b) The terms of a draft are not varied by an acceptance to pay at a particular bank or place in the United States, unless the acceptance states that the draft is to be paid only at that bank or place.

(c) If the holder assents to an acceptance varying the terms of a draft, the obligation of each drawer and indorser that does not expressly assent to the acceptance is discharged.

Sec. 51. RCW 62A.3-411 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-411 are each amended to read as follows:

((CERTIFICATION OF A CHECK. (1) Certification of a check is acceptance. Where a holder procures certification the drawer and all prior indorsers are discharged.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed a bank has no obligation to certify a check.

(3) A bank may certify a check before returning it for lack of proper indorsement. If it does so the drawer is discharged.))

REFUSAL TO PAY CASHIER'S CHECKS, TELLER'S CHECKS, AND CERTIFIED CHECKS. (a) In this section, "obligated bank" means the acceptor of a certified check or the issuer of a cashier's check or teller's check bought from the issuer.

(b) If the obligated bank wrongfully (i) refuses to pay a cashier's check or certified check, (ii) stops payment of a teller's check, or (iii) refuses to pay a dishonored teller's check, the person asserting the right to enforce the check is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the nonpayment and may recover consequential damages if the obligated bank refuses to pay after receiving notice of particular circumstances giving rise to the damages.

(c) Expenses or consequential damages under subsection (b) are not recoverable if the refusal of the obligated bank to pay occurs because (i) the bank suspends payments, (ii) the obligated bank asserts a claim or defense of the bank that it has reasonable grounds to believe is available against the person entitled to enforce the instrument, (iii) the obligated bank has a reasonable doubt whether the person demanding payment is the person entitled to enforce the instrument, or (iv) payment is prohibited by law.

Sec. 52. RCW 62A.3-412 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-412 are each amended to read as follows:

((ACCEPTANCE VARYING DRAFT. (1) Where the drawee's proffered acceptance in any manner varies the draft as presented the holder may refuse the acceptance and treat the draft as dishonored in which case the drawee is entitled to have his acceptance cancelled.

(2) The terms of the draft are not varied by an acceptance to pay at any particular bank or place in the United States, unless the acceptance states that the draft is to be paid only at such bank or place.

(3) Where the holder assents to an acceptance varying the terms of the draft each drawer and indorser who does not affirmatively assent is discharged.))

OBLIGATION OF ISSUER OF NOTE OR CASHIER'S CHECK. The issuer of a note or cashier's check or other draft drawn on the drawer is obliged to pay the instrument (i) according to its terms at the time it was issued or, if not issued, at the time it first came into possession of a holder, or (ii) if the issuer signed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in RCW 62A.3-115 and 62A.3-407. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the instrument or to an indorser who paid the instrument under RCW 62A.3-415.

Sec. 53. RCW 62A.3-413 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-413 are each amended to read as follows:

((CONTRACT OF MAKER, DRAWER AND ACCEPTOR. (1) The maker or acceptor engages that he will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of his engagement or as completed pursuant to RCW 62A.3-115 on incomplete instruments.

(2) The drawer engages that upon dishonor of the draft and any necessary notice of dishonor or protest he will pay the amount of the draft to the holder or to any indorser who takes it up. The drawer may disclaim this liability by drawing without recourse.

(3) By making, drawing or accepting the party admits as against all subsequent parties including the drawee the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.))

OBLIGATION OF ACCEPTOR. (a) The acceptor of a draft is obliged to pay the draft (i) according to its terms at the time it was accepted, even though the acceptance states that the draft is payable "as originally drawn" or equivalent terms, (ii) if the acceptance varies the terms of the draft, according to the terms of the draft as varied, or (iii) if the acceptance is of a draft that is an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in RCW 62A.3-115 and 62A.3-407. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the draft or to the drawer or an indorser who paid the draft under RCW 62A.3-414 or 62A.3-415.

(b) If the certification of a check or other acceptance of a draft states the amount certified or accepted, the obligation of the acceptor is that amount. If (i) the certification or acceptance does not state an amount, (ii) the amount of the instrument is subsequently raised, and (iii) the instrument is then negotiated to a holder in due course, the obligation of the acceptor is the amount of the instrument at the time it was taken by the holder in due course.

Sec. 54. RCW 62A.3-414 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-414 are each amended to read as follows:

((CONTRACT OF INDORSER; ORDER OF LIABILITY. (1) Unless the indorsement otherwise specifies (as by such words as "without recourse") every indorser engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of his indorsement to the holder or to any subsequent indorser who takes it up, even though the indorser who takes it up was not obligated to do so.

(2) Unless they otherwise agree indorsers are liable to one another in the order in which they indorse, which is presumed to be the order in which their signatures appear on the instrument.))

OBLIGATION OF DRAWER. (a) This section does not apply to cashier's checks or other drafts drawn on the drawer.

(b) If an unaccepted draft is dishonored, the drawer is obliged to pay the draft (i) according to its terms at the time it was issued or, if not issued, at the time it first came into possession of a holder, or (ii) if the drawer signed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in RCW 62A.3-115 and 62A.3-407. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the draft or to an indorser who paid the draft under RCW 62A.3-415.

(c) If a draft is accepted by a bank, the drawer is discharged, regardless of when or by whom acceptance was obtained.

(d) If a draft is accepted and the acceptor is not a bank, the obligation of the drawer to pay the draft if the draft is dishonored by the acceptor is the same as the obligation of an indorser under RCW 62A.3-415 (a) and (c).

(e) If a draft states that it is drawn "without recourse" or otherwise disclaims liability of the drawer to pay the draft, the drawer is not liable under subsection (b) to pay the draft if the draft is not a check. A disclaimer of the liability stated in subsection (b) is not effective if the draft is a check.

(f) If (i) a check is not presented for payment or given to a depository bank for collection within 30 days after its date, (ii) the drawee suspends payments after expiration of the 30-day period without paying the check, and (iii) because of the suspension of payments, the drawer is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee to cover payment of the check, the drawer to the extent deprived of funds may discharge its obligation to pay the check by assigning to the person entitled to enforce the check the rights of the drawer against the drawee with respect to the funds.

Sec. 55. RCW 62A.3-415 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-415 are each amended to read as follows:

((CONTRACT OF ACCOMMODATION PARTY. (1) An accommodation party is one who signs the instrument in any capacity for the purpose of lending his name to another party to it.

(2) When the instrument has been taken for value before it is due the accommodation party is liable in the capacity in which he has signed even though the taker knows of the accommodation.

(3) As against a holder in due course and without notice of the accommodation oral proof of the accommodation is not admissible to give the accommodation party the benefit of discharges dependent on his character as such. In other cases the accommodation character may be shown by oral proof.

(4) An indorsement which shows that it is not in the chain of title is notice of its accommodation character.

(5) An accommodation party is not liable to the party accommodated, and if he pays the instrument has a right of recourse on the instrument against such party.))

OBLIGATION OF INDORSER. (a) Subject to subsections (b), (c), (d), and (e) and to RCW 62A.3-419(d), if an instrument is dishonored, an indorser is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument (i) according to the terms of the instrument at the time it was indorsed, or (ii) if the indorser indorsed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in RCW 62A.3-115 and 62A.3-407. The obligation of the indorser is owed to a person entitled to enforce the instrument or to a subsequent indorser who paid the instrument under this section.

(b) If an indorsement states that it is made "without recourse" or otherwise disclaims liability of the indorser, the indorser is not liable under subsection (a) to pay the instrument.

(c) If notice of dishonor of an instrument is required by RCW 62A.3-503 and notice of dishonor complying with that section is not given to an indorser, the liability of the indorser under subsection (a) is discharged.

(d) If a draft is accepted by a bank after an indorsement is made, the liability of the indorser under subsection (a) is discharged.

(e) If an indorser of a check is liable under subsection (a) and the check is not presented for payment, or given to a depository bank for collection, within 30 days after the day the indorsement was made, the liability of the indorser under subsection (a) is discharged.

Sec. 56. RCW 62A.3-416 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-416 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((CONTRACT OF GUARANTOR. (1) "Payment guaranteed" or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due he will pay it according to its tenor without resort by the holder to any other party.~~

~~(2) "Collection guaranteed" or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due he will pay it according to its tenor, but only after the holder has reduced his claim against the maker or acceptor to judgment and execution has been returned unsatisfied, or after the maker or acceptor has become insolvent or it is otherwise apparent that it is useless to proceed against him.~~

~~(3) Words of guaranty which do not otherwise specify guarantee payment.~~

~~(4) No words of guaranty added to the signature of a sole maker or acceptor affect his liability on the instrument. Such words added to the signature of one of two or more makers or acceptors create a presumption that the signature is for the accommodation of the others.~~

~~(5) When words of guaranty are used presentment, notice of dishonor and protest are not necessary to charge the user.~~

~~(6) Any guaranty written on the instrument is enforceable notwithstanding any statute of frauds.))~~

TRANSFER WARRANTIES. (a) A person who transfers an instrument for consideration warrants to the transferee and, if the transfer is by indorsement, to any subsequent transferee that:

(1) The warrantor is a person entitled to enforce the instrument;

(2) All signatures on the instrument are authentic and authorized;

(3) The instrument has not been altered;

(4) The instrument is not subject to a defense or claim in recoupment of any party which can be asserted against the warrantor; and

(5) The warrantor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding commenced with respect to the maker or acceptor or, in the case of an unaccepted draft, the drawer.

(b) A person to whom the warranties under subsection (a) are made and who took the instrument in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, but not more than the amount of the instrument plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

(c) The warranties stated in subsection (a) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within 30 days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the liability of the warrantor under subsection (b) is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(d) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

Sec. 57. RCW 62A.3-417 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-417 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((WARRANTIES ON PRESENTMENT AND TRANSFER. (1) Any person who obtains payment or acceptance and any prior transferor warrants to a person who in good faith pays or accepts that~~

~~(a) he has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and~~

~~(b) he has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith~~

~~(i) to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or~~

~~(ii) to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or~~

~~(iii) to an acceptor of a draft if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and~~

~~(c) the instrument has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith~~

~~(i) to the maker of a note; or~~

~~(ii) to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or~~

~~(iii) to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or~~

~~(iv) to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.~~

~~(2) Any person who transfers an instrument and receives consideration warrants to his transferee and if the transfer is by indorsement to any subsequent holder who takes the instrument in good faith that~~

~~(a) he has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and~~

~~(b) all signatures are genuine or authorized; and~~

~~(c) the instrument has not been materially altered; and~~

~~(d) no defense of any party is good against him; and~~

~~(e) he has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted instrument.~~

~~(3) By transferring "without recourse" the transferor limits the obligation stated in subsection (2)(d) to a warranty that he has no knowledge of such a defense.~~

(4) A selling agent or broker who does not disclose the fact that he is acting only as such gives the warranties provided in this section, but if he makes such disclosure warrants only his good faith and authority.)

PRESENTMENT WARRANTIES. (a) If an unaccepted draft is presented to the drawee for payment or acceptance and the drawee pays or accepts the draft, (i) the person obtaining payment or acceptance, at the time of presentment, and (ii) a previous transferor of the draft, at the time of transfer, warrant to the drawee making payment or accepting the draft in good faith that:

(1) The warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the draft, a person entitled to enforce the draft or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the draft on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the draft;

(2) The draft has not been altered; and

(3) The warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the drawer of the draft is unauthorized.

(b) A drawee making payment may recover from any warrantor damages for breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft, breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor. If the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is entitled to recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in this subsection.

(c) If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection (a) based on an unauthorized indorsement of the draft or an alteration of the draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the indorsement is effective under RCW 62A.3-404 or 62A.3-405 or the drawer is precluded under RCW 62A.3-406 or 62A.4-406 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized indorsement or alteration.

(d) If (i) a dishonored draft is presented for payment to the drawer or an indorser or (ii) any other instrument is presented for payment to a party obliged to pay the instrument, and (iii) payment is received, the following rules apply:

(1) The person obtaining payment and a prior transferor of the instrument warrant to the person making payment in good faith that the warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the instrument, a person entitled to enforce the instrument or authorized to obtain payment on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the instrument.

(2) The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach.

(e) The warranties stated in subsections (a) and (d) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within 30 days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the liability of the warrantor under subsection (b) or (d) is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(f) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

Sec. 58. RCW 62A.3-418 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-418 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((FINALITY OF PAYMENT OR ACCEPTANCE. Except for recovery of bank payments as provided in the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections (Article 4) and except for liability for breach of warranty on presentment under the preceding section, payment or acceptance of any instrument is final in favor of a holder in due course, or a person who has in good faith changed his position in reliance on the payment.))~~

PAYMENT OR ACCEPTANCE BY MISTAKE. (a) Except as provided in subsection (c), if the drawee of a draft pays or accepts the draft and the drawee acted on the mistaken belief that (i) payment of the draft had not been stopped pursuant to RCW 62A.4-403 or (ii) the signature of the drawer of the draft was authorized, the drawee may recover the amount of the draft from the person to whom or for whose benefit payment was made or, in the case of acceptance, may revoke the acceptance. Rights of the drawee under this subsection are not affected by failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in paying or accepting the draft.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), if an instrument has been paid or accepted by mistake and the case is not covered by subsection (a), the person paying or accepting may, to the extent permitted by the law governing mistake and restitution, (i) recover the payment from the person to whom or for whose benefit payment was made or (ii) in the case of acceptance, may revoke the acceptance.

(c) The remedies provided by subsection (a) or (b) may not be asserted against a person who took the instrument in good faith and for value or who in good faith changed position in reliance on the payment or acceptance. This subsection does not limit remedies provided by RCW 62A.3-417 or 62A.4-407.

(d) Notwithstanding RCW 62A.4-213, if an instrument is paid or accepted by mistake and the payor or acceptor recovers payment or revokes acceptance under subsection (a) or (b), the instrument is deemed not to have been paid or accepted and is treated as dishonored, and the person from whom payment is recovered has rights as a person entitled to enforce the dishonored instrument.

Sec. 59. RCW 62A.3-419 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-419 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((CONVERSION OF INSTRUMENT; INNOCENT REPRESENTATIVE. (1) An instrument is converted when~~

~~(a) a drawee to whom it is delivered for acceptance refuses to return it on demand; or~~

~~(b) any person to whom it is delivered for payment refuses on demand either to pay or to return it; or~~

~~(c) it is paid on a forged indorsement.~~

~~(2) In an action against a drawee under subsection (1) the measure of the drawee's liability is the face amount of the instrument. In any other action under subsection (1) the measure of liability is presumed to be the face amount of the instrument.~~

~~(3) Subject to the provisions of this Title concerning restrictive indorsements a representative, including a depository or collecting bank, who has in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable commercial standards applicable to the business of such representative dealt with an instrument or its proceeds on behalf of one who was not the true owner is not liable in conversion or otherwise to the true owner beyond the amount of any proceeds remaining in his hands.~~

~~(4) An intermediary bank or payor bank which is not a depository bank is not liable in conversion solely by reason of the fact that proceeds of an item indorsed restrictively (RCW 62A.3-205 and RCW 62A.3-206) are not paid or applied consistently with the restrictive indorsement of an indorser other than its immediate transferor.))~~

INSTRUMENTS SIGNED FOR ACCOMMODATION. (a) If an instrument is issued for value given for the benefit of a party to the instrument ("accommodated party") and another party to the instrument ("accommodation party") signs the instrument for the purpose of incurring liability on the instrument without being a direct beneficiary of the value given for the instrument, the instrument is signed by the accommodation party "for accommodation."

(b) An accommodation party may sign the instrument as maker, drawer, acceptor, or indorser and, subject to subsection (d), is obliged to pay the instrument in the capacity in which the accommodation party signs. The obligation of an accommodation party may be enforced notwithstanding any statute of frauds and whether or not the accommodation party receives consideration for the accommodation.

(c) A person signing an instrument is presumed to be an accommodation party and there is notice that the instrument is signed for accommodation if the signature is an anomalous indorsement or is accompanied by words indicating that the signer is acting as surety or guarantor with respect to the obligation of another party to the instrument. Except as provided in RCW 62A.3-605, the obligation of an accommodation party to pay the instrument is not affected by the fact that the person enforcing the obligation had notice when the instrument was taken by that person that the accommodation party signed the instrument for accommodation.

(d) If the signature of a party to an instrument is accompanied by words indicating unambiguously that the party is guaranteeing collection rather than payment of the obligation of another party to the instrument, the signer is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument to a person entitled to enforce the instrument only if (i) execution of judgment against the other party has been returned unsatisfied, (ii) the other party is insolvent or in an insolvency proceeding, (iii) the other party cannot be served with process, or (iv) it is otherwise apparent that payment cannot be obtained from the other party.

(e) An accommodation party who pays the instrument is entitled to reimbursement from the accommodated party and is entitled to enforce the instrument against the accommodated party. An accommodated party who pays the instrument has no right of recourse against, and is not entitled to contribution from, an accommodation party.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.3-420, to read as follows:

CONVERSION OF INSTRUMENT. (a) The law applicable to conversion of personal property applies to instruments. An instrument is also converted if it is taken by transfer, other than a negotiation, from a person not entitled to enforce the instrument or a bank makes or obtains payment with respect to the instrument for a person not entitled to enforce the instrument or receive payment. An action for conversion of an instrument may not be brought by (i) the issuer or acceptor of the instrument or (ii) a payee or indorsee who did not receive delivery of the instrument either directly or through delivery to an agent or a co-payee.

(b) In an action under subsection (a), the measure of liability is presumed to be the amount payable on the instrument, but recovery may not exceed the amount of the plaintiff's interest in the instrument.

(c) A representative, other than a depository bank, who has in good faith dealt with an instrument or its proceeds on behalf of one who was not the person entitled to enforce the instrument is not liable in conversion to that person beyond the amount of any proceeds that it has not paid out.

PART 5

((PRESENTMENT, NOTICE OF) DISHONOR ((AND PROTEST))

Sec. 61. RCW 62A.3-501 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-501 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((WHEN PRESENTMENT, NOTICE OF DISHONOR, AND PROTEST NECESSARY OR PERMISSIBLE. (1) Unless excused (RCW 62A.3-511) presentment is necessary to charge secondary parties as follows:~~

~~(a) presentment for acceptance is necessary to charge the drawer and indorsers of a draft where the draft so provides, or is payable elsewhere than at the residence or place of business of the drawee, or its date of payment depends upon such presentment. The holder may at his option present for acceptance any other draft payable at a stated date;~~

~~(b) presentment for payment is necessary to charge any indorser;~~

~~(c) in the case of any drawer, the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank, presentment for payment is necessary, but failure to make presentment discharges such drawer, acceptor or maker only as stated in RCW 62A.3-502(1)(b).~~

~~(2) Unless excused (RCW 62A.3-511)~~

~~(a) notice of any dishonor is necessary to charge any indorser;~~

~~(b) in the case of any drawer, the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank, notice of any dishonor is necessary, but failure to give such notice discharges such drawer, acceptor or maker only as stated in RCW 62A.3-502(1)(b).~~

~~(3) Unless excused (RCW 62A.3-511) protest of any dishonor is necessary to charge the drawer and indorsers of any draft which on its face appears to be drawn or payable outside of the states and territories of the United States and the District of Columbia. The holder may at his option make protest of any dishonor of any other instrument and in the case of a foreign draft may on insolvency of the acceptor before maturity make protest for better security.~~

~~(4) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, neither presentment nor notice of dishonor nor protest is necessary to charge an indorser who has indorsed an instrument after maturity.))~~

PRESENTMENT. (a) "Presentment" means a demand made by or on behalf of a person entitled to enforce an instrument (i) to pay the instrument made to the drawee or a party obliged to pay the instrument or, in the case of a note or accepted draft payable at a bank, to the bank, or (ii) to accept a draft made to the drawee.

(b) The following rules are subject to Article 4, agreement of the parties, and clearinghouse rules and the like:

(1) Presentment may be made at the place of payment of the instrument and must be made at the place of payment if the instrument is payable at a bank in the United States; may be made by any commercially reasonable means, including an oral, written, or electronic communication; is effective when the demand for payment or acceptance is received by the person to whom presentment is made; and is effective if made to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawees, or other payors.

(2) Upon demand of the person to whom presentment is made, the person making presentment must (i) exhibit the instrument, (ii) give reasonable identification and, if presentment is made on behalf of another person, reasonable evidence of authority to do so, and (iii) sign a receipt on the instrument for any payment made or surrender the instrument if full payment is made.

(3) Without dishonoring the instrument, the party to whom presentment is made may (i) return the instrument for lack of a necessary indorsement, or (ii) refuse payment or acceptance for failure of the presentment to comply with the terms of the instrument, an agreement of the parties, or other applicable law or rule.

(4) The party to whom presentment is made may treat presentment as occurring on the next business day after the day of presentment if the party to whom presentment is made has established a cut-off hour not earlier than 2:00 p.m. for the receipt and processing of instruments presented for payment or acceptance and presentment is made after the cut-off hour.

Sec. 62. RCW 62A.3-502 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-502 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((UNEXCUSED-DELAY; DISCHARGE. (1) Where without excuse any necessary presentment or notice of dishonor is delayed beyond the time when it is due~~

~~(a) any indorser is discharged; and~~

~~(b) any drawer or the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank who because the drawee or payor bank becomes insolvent during the delay is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee or payor bank to cover the instrument may discharge his liability by written assignment to the holder of his rights against the drawee or payor bank in respect of such funds, but such drawer, acceptor or maker is not otherwise discharged.~~

~~(2) Where without excuse a necessary protest is delayed beyond the time when it is due any drawer or indorser is discharged.))~~

DISHONOR. (a) Dishonor of a note is governed by the following rules:

(1) If the note is payable on demand, the note is dishonored if presentment is duly made to the maker and the note is not paid on the day of presentment.

(2) If the note is not payable on demand and is payable at or through a bank or the terms of the note require presentment, the note is dishonored if presentment is duly made and the note is not paid on the day it becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later.

(3) If the note is not payable on demand and subsection (a)(2) does not apply, the note is dishonored if it is not paid on the day it becomes payable.

(b) Dishonor of an unaccepted draft other than a documentary draft is governed by the following rules:

(1) If a check is duly presented for payment to the payor bank otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter, the check is dishonored if the payor bank makes timely return of the check or sends timely notice of dishonor or nonpayment under RCW 62A.4-301 or 62A.4-302, or becomes accountable for the amount of the check under RCW 62A.4-302.

(2) If a draft is payable on demand and subsection (b)(1) does not apply, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the drawee and the draft is not paid on the day of presentment.

(3) If a draft is payable on a date stated in the draft, the draft is dishonored if (i) presentment for payment is duly made to the drawee and payment is not made on the day the draft becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later, or (ii) presentment for acceptance is duly made before the day the draft becomes payable and the draft is not accepted on the day of presentment.

(4) If a draft is payable on elapse of a period of time after sight or acceptance, the draft is dishonored if presentment for acceptance is duly made and the draft is not accepted on the day of presentment.

(c) Dishonor of an unaccepted documentary draft occurs according to the rules stated in subsection (b) (2), (3), and (4), except that payment or acceptance may be delayed without dishonor until no later than the close of the third business day of the drawee following the day on which payment or acceptance is required by subsection (b) (2), (3), and (4).

(d) Dishonor of an accepted draft is governed by the following rules:

(1) If the draft is payable on demand, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the acceptor and the draft is not paid on the day of presentment; or

(2) If the draft is not payable on demand, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the acceptor and payment is not made on the day it becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later.

(e) In any case in which presentment is otherwise required for dishonor under this section and presentment is excused under RCW 62A.3-504, dishonor occurs without presentment if the instrument is not duly accepted or paid.

(f) If a draft is dishonored because timely acceptance of the draft was not made and the person entitled to demand acceptance consents to a late acceptance, from the time of acceptance the draft is treated as never having been dishonored.

Sec. 63. RCW 62A.3-503 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-503 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((TIME OF PRESENTMENT. (1) Unless a different time is expressed in the instrument the time for any presentment is determined as follows:~~

~~(a) where an instrument is payable at or a fixed period after a stated date any presentment for acceptance must be made on or before the date it is payable;~~

~~(b) where an instrument is payable after sight it must either be presented for acceptance or negotiated within a reasonable time after date of issue whichever is later;~~

~~(c) where an instrument shows the date on which it is payable presentment for payment is due on that date;~~

~~(d) where an instrument is accelerated presentment for payment is due within a reasonable time after the acceleration;~~

~~(e) with respect to the liability of any secondary party presentment for acceptance or payment of any other instrument is due within a reasonable time after such party becomes liable thereon.~~

~~(2) A reasonable time for presentment is determined by the nature of the instrument, any usage of banking or trade and the facts of the particular case. In the case of an uncertified check which is drawn and payable within the United States and which is not a draft drawn by a bank the following are presumed to be reasonable periods within which to present for payment or to initiate bank collection:~~

~~(a) with respect to the liability of the drawer, thirty days after date of issue whichever is later; and~~

~~(b) with respect to the liability of an endorser, seven days after his indorsement.~~

~~(3) Where any presentment is due on a day which is not a full business day for either the person making presentment or the party to pay or accept, presentment is due on the next following day which is a full business day for both parties.~~

~~(4) Presentment to be sufficient must be made at a reasonable hour, and if at a bank during its banking day.))~~

NOTICE OF DISHONOR. (a) The obligation of an indorser stated in RCW 62A.3-415(a) and the obligation of a drawer stated in RCW 62A.3-414(d) may not be enforced unless (i) the indorser or drawer is given notice of dishonor of the instrument complying with this section or (ii) notice of dishonor is excused under RCW 62A.3-504(b).

(b) Notice of dishonor may be given by any person; may be given by any commercially reasonable means, including an oral, written, or electronic communication; and is sufficient if it reasonably identifies the instrument and indicates that the instrument has been dishonored or has not been paid or accepted. Return of an instrument given to a bank for collection is sufficient notice of dishonor.

(c) Subject to RCW 62A.3-504(c), with respect to an instrument taken for collection by a collecting bank, notice of dishonor must be given (i) by the bank before midnight of the next banking day following the banking day on which the bank receives notice of dishonor of the instrument, or (ii) by any other person within 30 days following the day on which the person receives notice of dishonor. With respect to any other instrument, notice of dishonor must be given within 30 days following the day on which dishonor occurs.

Sec. 64. RCW 62A.3-504 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-504 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((HOW PRESENTMENT MADE. (1) Presentment is a demand for acceptance or payment made upon the maker, acceptor, drawee or other payor by or on behalf of the holder.~~

~~(2) Presentment may be made~~

~~(a) by mail, in which event the time of presentment is determined by the time of receipt of the mail; or~~

~~(b) through a clearing house; or~~

~~(c) at the place of acceptance or payment specified in the instrument or if there be none at the place of business or residence of the party to accept or pay. If neither the party to accept or pay nor anyone authorized to act for him is present or accessible at such place presentment is excused.~~

~~(3) It may be made~~

~~(a) to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawees or other payors; or~~

~~(b) to any person who has authority to make or refuse the acceptance or payment.~~

~~(4) A draft accepted or a note made payable at a bank in the United States must be presented at such bank.~~

~~(5) In the cases described in RCW 62A.4-210 presentment may be made in the manner and with the result stated in that section.))~~

EXCUSED PRESENTMENT AND NOTICE OF DISHONOR. (a) Presentment for payment or acceptance of an instrument is excused if (i) the person entitled to present the instrument cannot with reasonable diligence make presentment, (ii) the maker or acceptor has repudiated an obligation to pay the instrument or is dead or in insolvency proceedings, (iii) by the terms of the instrument presentment is not necessary to enforce the obligation of indorsers or the drawer, (iv) the drawer or indorser whose obligation is being enforced has waived presentment or otherwise has no reason to expect or right to require that the instrument be paid or accepted, or (v) the drawer instructed the drawee not to pay or accept the draft or the drawee was not obligated to the drawer to pay the draft.

(b) Notice of dishonor is excused if (i) by the terms of the instrument notice of dishonor is not necessary to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, or (ii) the party whose obligation is being enforced waived notice of dishonor. A waiver of presentment is also a waiver of notice of dishonor.

(c) Delay in giving notice of dishonor is excused if the delay was caused by circumstances beyond the control of the person giving the notice and the person giving the notice exercised reasonable diligence after the cause of the delay ceased to operate.

Sec. 65. RCW 62A.3-505 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-505 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((RIGHTS OF PARTY TO WHOM PRESENTMENT IS MADE. (1) The party to whom presentment is made may without dishonor require~~

~~(a) exhibition of the instrument; and~~

~~(b) reasonable identification of the person making presentment and evidence of his authority to make it if made for another; and~~

~~(c) that the instrument be produced for acceptance or payment at a place specified in it, or if there be none at any place reasonable in the circumstances; and~~

~~(d) a signed receipt on the instrument for any partial or full payment and its surrender upon full payment.~~

~~(2) Failure to comply with any such requirement invalidates the presentment but the person presenting has a reasonable time in which to comply and the time for acceptance or payment runs from the time of compliance.))~~

EVIDENCE OF DISHONOR. (a) The following are admissible as evidence and create a presumption of dishonor and of any notice of dishonor stated:

(1) A document regular in form as provided in subsection (b) that purports to be a protest;

(2) A purported stamp or writing of the drawee, payor bank, or presenting bank on or accompanying the instrument stating that acceptance or payment has been refused unless reasons for the refusal are stated and the reasons are not consistent with dishonor;

(3) A book or record of the drawee, payor bank, or collecting bank, kept in the usual course of business which shows dishonor, even if there is no evidence of who made the entry.

(b) A protest is a certificate of dishonor made by a United States consul or vice-consul, or a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths by the law of the place where dishonor occurs. It may be made upon information satisfactory to that person. The protest must identify the instrument and certify either that presentment has been made or, if not made, the reason why it was not made, and that the instrument has been dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment. The protest may also certify that notice of dishonor has been given to some or all parties.

Sec. 66. RCW 62A.3-512 and 1990 c 203 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Ne))~~ A person may not record the number of a credit card given as identification under RCW ~~((62A.3-505(1)(b)))~~ 62A.3-501(a)(2) or given as proof of credit worthiness when payment for goods or services is made by check or draft. Nothing in this section prohibits the recording of the number of a credit card given in lieu of a deposit to secure payment in the event of a default, loss, damage, or other occurrence.

Sec. 67. RCW 62A.3-515 and 1991 c 168 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1) Whenever)~~ (a) If a check as defined in RCW 62A.3-104 ~~((has been))~~ is dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment, the payee or holder of the check is entitled to collect a reasonable handling fee for each ~~((such))~~ instrument. ~~((When such))~~ If the check ~~((has))~~ is not ~~((been))~~ paid within fifteen days and after the holder of ~~((such))~~ the check sends ~~((such))~~ a notice of dishonor as provided by RCW 62A.3-520 to the drawer at ~~((his or her))~~ the drawer's last known address, ~~((then))~~ and if the instrument does not provide for the payment of interest, or collection costs and attorneys fees, the drawer of ~~((such))~~ the instrument ~~((shall also be))~~ is liable for payment of interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum from the date of dishonor, and cost of collection not to exceed forty dollars or the face amount of the check, whichever is ~~((the lesser))~~ less. In addition, in the event of court action on the check, the court, after ~~((such))~~ notice and the expiration of ~~((said))~~ the fifteen days, shall award a reasonable attorneys fee, and three times the face amount of the check or three hundred dollars, whichever is less, as part of the damages payable to the holder of the check. This section ~~((shall))~~ does not apply to ~~((any))~~ an instrument ~~((which has been))~~ that is dishonored by reason of ~~((any))~~ a justifiable stop payment order.

~~((2)(a))~~ (b)(1) Subsequent to the commencement of ~~((the))~~ an action on the check (subsection (a)) but prior to the hearing, the defendant may tender to the plaintiff as satisfaction of the claim, an amount of money equal to the ~~((sum of the))~~ face amount of the check, a reasonable handling fee, accrued interest, collection costs equal to the face amount of the check not to exceed forty dollars, and the incurred court and service costs.

~~((b))~~ (2) Nothing in this section precludes the right to commence action in ~~((any))~~ a court under chapter 12.40 RCW for small claims.

Sec. 68. RCW 62A.3-520 and 1991 c 168 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The notice of dishonor shall be sent by mail to the drawer at ~~((his or her))~~ the drawer's last known address, and ~~((said))~~ the notice shall be substantially in the following form:

NOTICE OF DISHONOR OF CHECK

A check drawn by you and made payable by you to in the amount of has not been accepted for payment by, which is the drawee bank designated on your check. This check is dated, and it is numbered, No.

You are CAUTIONED that unless you pay the amount of this check within fifteen days after the date this letter is postmarked, you may very well have to pay the following additional amounts:

- (1) Costs of collecting the amount of the check, including an attorney's fee which will be set by the court;
- (2) Interest on the amount of the check which shall accrue at the rate of twelve percent per annum from the date of dishonor; and
- (3) Three hundred dollars or three times the face amount of the check, whichever is less, by award of the court.

You are also CAUTIONED that law enforcement agencies may be provided with a copy of this notice of dishonor and the check drawn by you for the possibility of proceeding with criminal charges if you do not pay the amount of this check within fifteen days after the date this letter is postmarked.

You are advised to make your payment to at the following address:

Sec. 69. RCW 62A.3-522 and 1981 c 254 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to sending a notice of dishonor to the drawer of the check under RCW 62A.3-520, the holder of the check shall execute an affidavit certifying service of the notice by mail. The affidavit of service by mail ~~((shall))~~ must be attached to a copy of the notice of dishonor and ~~((shall))~~ must be substantially in the following form:

AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE BY MAIL

I,, hereby certify that on the ___ day of, 19.., a copy of the foregoing Notice was served on by mailing via the United States Postal Service, postage prepaid, at, Washington.

Dated:

(Signature)

The holder shall retain the affidavit ~~((shall be retained))~~ with the check but shall file a copy of the affidavit ~~((shall be filed))~~ with the clerk of the court in which an action on the check is commenced.

Sec. 70. RCW 62A.3-525 and 1981 c 254 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

No interest, collection costs, and attorneys' fees, except handling fees, ~~((shall be recovered))~~ are recoverable on any dishonored check under the provisions of RCW 62A.3-515 where the holder of ~~((such))~~ the check or any agent, employee, or assign of the holder has demanded:

- (1) Interest or collection costs in excess of that provided by RCW 62A.3-515; or
- (2) Interest or collection costs prior to the expiration of fifteen days after the mailing of notice of dishonor, as provided by RCW 62A.3-515 and 62A.3-520; or
- (3) Attorneys' fees either without having ~~((such))~~ the fees set by the court, or prior to the expiration of fifteen days after the mailing of notice of dishonor, as provided by RCW 62A.3-515 and 62A.3-520.

PART 6 DISCHARGE AND PAYMENT

Sec. 71. RCW 62A.3-601 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-601 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((DISCHARGE OF PARTIES. (1) The extent of the discharge of any party from liability on an instrument is governed by the sections on~~

- ~~((a) payment or satisfaction (RCW 62A.3-603); or~~
- ~~((b) tender of payment (RCW 62A.3-604); or~~
- ~~((c) cancellation or renunciation (RCW 62A.3-605); or~~

- (d) impairment of right of recourse or of collateral (RCW 62A.3-606); or
- (e) reacquisition of the instrument by a prior party (RCW 62A.3-208); or
- (f) fraudulent and material alteration (RCW 62A.3-407); or
- (g) certification of a check (RCW 62A.3-411); or
- (h) acceptance varying a draft (RCW 62A.3-412); or
- (i) unexcused delay in presentment or notice of dishonor or protest (RCW 62A.3-502).

(2) Any party is also discharged from his liability on an instrument to another party by any other act or agreement with such party which would discharge his simple contract for the payment of money.

(3) The liability of all parties is discharged when any party who has himself no right of action or recourse on the instrument

(a) reacquires the instrument in his own right; or

(b) is discharged under any provision of this Article, except as otherwise provided with respect to discharge for impairment of recourse or of collateral (RCW 62A.3-606).))

DISCHARGE AND EFFECT OF DISCHARGE. (a) The obligation of a party to pay the instrument is discharged as stated in this Article or by an act or agreement with the party which would discharge an obligation to pay money under a simple contract.

(b) Discharge of the obligation of a party is not effective against a person acquiring rights of a holder in due course of the instrument without notice of the discharge.

Sec. 72. RCW 62A.3-602 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-602 are each amended to read as follows:

((EFFECT OF DISCHARGE AGAINST HOLDER IN DUE COURSE.—No discharge of any party provided by this Article is effective against a subsequent holder in due course unless he has notice thereof when he takes the instrument.))

PAYMENT. (a) Subject to subsection (b), an instrument is paid to the extent payment is made (i) by or on behalf of a party obliged to pay the instrument, and (ii) to a person entitled to enforce the instrument. To the extent of the payment, the obligation of the party obliged to pay the instrument is discharged even though payment is made with knowledge of a claim to the instrument under RCW 62A.3-306 by another person.

(b) The obligation of a party to pay the instrument is not discharged under subsection (a) if:

(1) A claim to the instrument under RCW 62A.3-306 is enforceable against the party receiving payment and (i) payment is made with knowledge by the payor that payment is prohibited by injunction or similar process of a court of competent jurisdiction, or (ii) in the case of an instrument other than a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check, the party making payment accepted, from the person having a claim to the instrument, indemnity against loss resulting from refusal to pay the person entitled to enforce the instrument; or

(2) The person making payment knows that the instrument is a stolen instrument and pays a person it knows is in wrongful possession of the instrument.

Sec. 73. RCW 62A.3-603 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-603 are each amended to read as follows:

((PAYMENT OR SATISFACTION.—(1) The liability of any party is discharged to the extent of his payment or satisfaction to the holder even though it is made with knowledge of a claim of another person to the instrument unless prior to such payment or satisfaction the person making the claim either supplies indemnity deemed adequate by the party seeking the discharge or enjoins payment or satisfaction by order of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the adverse claimant and the holder are parties. This subsection does not, however, result in the discharge of the liability

(a) of a party who in bad faith pays or satisfies a holder who acquired the instrument by theft or who (unless having the rights of a holder in due course) holds through one who so acquired it; or

(b) of a party (other than an intermediary bank or a payor bank which is not a depository bank) who pays or satisfies the holder of an instrument which has been restrictively indorsed in a manner not consistent with the terms of such restrictive indorsement.

(2) Payment or satisfaction may be made with the consent of the holder by any person including a stranger to the instrument. Surrender of the instrument to such a person gives him the rights of a transferee (RCW 62A.3-201).))

TENDER OF PAYMENT. (a) If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the effect of tender is governed by principles of law applicable to tender of payment under a simple contract.

(b) If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument and the tender is refused, there is discharge, to the extent of the amount of the tender, of the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse with respect to the obligation to which the tender relates.

(c) If tender of payment of an amount due on an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligation of the obligor to pay interest after the due date on the amount tendered is discharged. If presentment is required with respect to an instrument and the obligor is able and ready to pay on the due date at every place of payment stated in the instrument, the obligor is deemed to have made tender of payment on the due date to the person entitled to enforce the instrument.

Sec. 74. RCW 62A.3-604 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-604 are each amended to read as follows:

((TENDER OF PAYMENT.—(1) Any party making tender of full payment to a holder when or after it is due is discharged to the extent of all subsequent liability for interest, costs and attorney's fees.

(2) The holder's refusal of such tender wholly discharges any party who has a right of recourse against the party making the tender.

(3) Where the maker or acceptor of an instrument payable otherwise than on demand is able and ready to pay at every place of payment specified in the instrument when it is due, it is equivalent to tender.))

DISCHARGE BY CANCELLATION OR RENUNCIATION. (a) A person entitled to enforce an instrument, with or without consideration, may discharge the obligation of a party to pay the instrument (i) by an intentional voluntary act, such as surrender of the instrument to the party, destruction, mutilation, or cancellation of the instrument, cancellation or striking out of the party's signature, or the addition of words to the instrument indicating discharge, or (ii) by agreeing not to sue or otherwise renouncing rights against the party by a signed writing.

(b) Cancellation or striking out of an indorsement pursuant to subsection (a) does not affect the status and rights of a party derived from the indorsement.

Sec. 75. RCW 62A.3-605 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-605 are each amended to read as follows:

((CANCELLATION AND RENUNCIATION.—(1) The holder of an instrument may even without consideration discharge any party

(a) in any manner apparent on the face of the instrument or the indorsement, as by intentionally cancelling the instrument or the party's signature by destruction or mutilation, or by striking out the party's signature; or

(b) by renouncing his rights by a writing signed and delivered or by surrender of the instrument to the party to be discharged.

(2) Neither cancellation nor renunciation without surrender of the instrument affects the title thereto-))

DISCHARGE OF INDORSERS AND ACCOMMODATION PARTIES. (a) In this section, the term "indorser" includes a drawer having the obligation described in RCW 62A.3-414(d).

(b) Discharge, under RCW 62A.3-604, of the obligation of a party to pay an instrument does not discharge the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the discharged party.

(c) If a person entitled to enforce an instrument agrees, with or without consideration, to an extension of the due date of the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the extension discharges an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the party whose obligation is extended to the extent the indorser or accommodation party proves that the extension caused loss to the indorser or accommodation party with respect to the right of recourse.

(d) If a person entitled to enforce an instrument agrees, with or without consideration, to a material modification of the obligation of a party other than an extension of the due date, the modification discharges the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the person whose obligation is modified to the extent the modification causes loss to the indorser or accommodation party with respect to the right of recourse. The loss suffered by the indorser or accommodation party as a result of the modification is equal to the amount of the right of recourse unless the person enforcing the instrument proves that no loss was caused by the modification or that the loss caused by the modification was an amount less than the amount of the right of recourse.

(e) If the obligation of a party to pay an instrument is secured by an interest in collateral and a person entitled to enforce the instrument impairs the value of the interest in collateral, the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the obligor is discharged to the extent of the impairment. The value of an interest in collateral is impaired to the extent (i) the value of the interest is reduced to an amount less than the amount of the right of recourse of the party asserting discharge, or (ii) the reduction in value of the interest causes an increase in the amount by which the amount of the right of recourse exceeds the value of the interest. The burden of proving impairment is on the party asserting discharge.

(f) If the obligation of a party is secured by an interest in collateral not provided by an accommodation party and a person entitled to enforce the instrument impairs the value of the interest in collateral, the obligation of any party who is jointly and severally liable with respect to the secured obligation is discharged to the extent the impairment causes the party asserting discharge to pay more than that party would have been obliged to pay, taking into account rights of contribution, if impairment had not occurred. If the party asserting discharge is an accommodation party not entitled to discharge under subsection (e), the party is deemed to have a right to contribution based on joint and several liability rather than a right to reimbursement. The burden of proving impairment is on the party asserting discharge.

(g) Under subsection (e) or (f), impairing value of an interest in collateral includes (i) failure to obtain or maintain perfection or recordation of the interest in collateral, (ii) release of collateral without substitution of collateral of equal value, (iii) failure to perform a duty to preserve the value of collateral owed, under Article 9 or other law, to a debtor or surety or other person secondarily liable, or (iv) failure to comply with applicable law in disposing of collateral.

(h) An accommodation party is not discharged under subsection (c), (d), or (e) unless the person entitled to enforce the instrument knows of the accommodation or has notice under RCW 62A.3-419(c) that the instrument was signed for accommodation.

(i) A party is not discharged under this section if (i) the party asserting discharge consents to the event or conduct that is the basis of the discharge, or (ii) the instrument or a separate agreement of the party provides for waiver of discharge under this section either specifically or by general language indicating that parties waive defenses based on suretyship or impairment of collateral.

ARTICLE 4
BANK DEPOSITS AND COLLECTIONS
PART 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

Sec. 77. RCW 62A.4-101 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-101 are each amended to read as follows:

SHORT TITLE. This Article (~~shall be known and~~) may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code--Bank Deposits and Collections.

Sec. 78. RCW 62A.4-102 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-102 are each amended to read as follows:

APPLICABILITY. ~~((1))~~ (a) To the extent that items within this Article are also within ~~((the scope of))~~ Articles 3 and 8, they are subject to ~~((the provisions of))~~ those Articles. ~~((In the event of))~~ If there is conflict ~~((the provisions of))~~, this Article governs ~~((those of))~~ Article 3, but ~~((the provisions of))~~ Article 8 governs ~~((those of))~~ this Article.

~~((2))~~ (b) The liability of a bank for action or non-action with respect to ~~((any))~~ an item handled by it for purposes of presentment, payment, or collection is governed by the law of the place where the bank is located. In the case of action or non-action by or at a branch or separate office of a bank, its liability is governed by the law of the place where the branch or separate office is located.

Sec. 79. RCW 62A.4-103 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-103 are each amended to read as follows:

VARIATION BY AGREEMENT; MEASURE OF DAMAGES; ~~((CERTAIN))~~ ACTION CONSTITUTING ORDINARY CARE. ~~((1))~~ (a) The effect of the provisions of this Article may be varied by agreement ~~((except that no agreement can))~~, but the parties to the agreement cannot disclaim a bank's responsibility for its ~~((own))~~ lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care or ~~((can))~~ limit the measure of damages for ~~((such))~~ the lack or failure~~((but))~~. However, the parties may determine by agreement ~~((determine))~~ the standards by which ~~((such))~~ the bank's responsibility is to be measured if ~~((such))~~ those standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

~~((2))~~ (b) Federal Reserve regulations and operating ~~((letters))~~ circulares, clearing-house rules, and the like~~((;))~~ have the effect of agreements under subsection ~~((1))~~ (a), whether or not specifically assented to by all parties interested in items handled.

~~((3))~~ (c) Action or non-action approved by this Article or pursuant to Federal Reserve regulations or operating ~~((letters constitutes))~~ circulares is the exercise of ordinary care and, in the absence of special instructions, action or non-action consistent with clearing-house rules and the like or with a general banking usage not disapproved by this Article, is prima facie ~~((constitutes))~~ the exercise of ordinary care.

~~((4))~~ (d) The specification or approval of certain procedures by this Article ~~((does))~~ is not ~~((constitute))~~ disapproval of other procedures ~~((which))~~ that may be reasonable under the circumstances.

~~((5))~~ (e) The measure of damages for failure to exercise ordinary care in handling an item is the amount of the item reduced by an amount ~~((which))~~ that could not have been realized by the ~~((use))~~ exercise of ordinary care~~((, and where))~~. If there is also bad faith it includes any other damages~~((, if any, suffered by))~~ the party suffered as a proximate consequence.

Sec. 80. RCW 62A.4-104 and 1981 c 122 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

DEFINITIONS AND INDEX OF DEFINITIONS. ~~((1))~~ (a) In this Article, unless the context otherwise requires:

~~((a))~~ (1) "Account" means any deposit or credit account with a bank ~~((and includes))~~, including a ~~((checking))~~ demand, time, ~~((interest of))~~ savings, passbook, share draft, or like account, other than an account evidenced by a certificate of deposit;

~~((b))~~ (2) "Afternoon" means the period of a day between noon and midnight;

Sec. 81. RCW 62A.4-105 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-105 are each amended to read as follows:

"BANK"; "DEPOSITARY BANK"; "PAYOR BANK"; "INTERMEDIARY BANK"; "COLLECTING BANK"; ((PAYOR BANK));
"PRESENTING BANK" (;"REMITTING BANK"). In this Article ~~((unless the context otherwise requires))~~:

~~((a))~~ (1) "Bank" means a person engaged in the business of banking, including a savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or trust company;

~~((2))~~ (2) "Depository bank" means the first bank to ((which)) take an item ((is transferred for collection)) even though it is also the payor bank, unless the item is presented for immediate payment over the counter;

~~((b))~~ (3) "Payor bank" means a bank ((by which an item)) that is ((payable as drawn or accepted)) the drawee of a draft;

~~((c))~~ (4) "Intermediary bank" means ((any)) a bank to which an item is transferred in course of collection except the depository or payor bank;

~~((d))~~ (5) "Collecting bank" means ((any)) a bank handling the item for collection except the payor bank;

~~((e))~~ (6) "Presenting bank" means ((any)) a bank presenting an item except a payor bank((;

~~((f))~~ "Remitting bank" means any payor or intermediary bank remitting for an item).

Sec. 82. RCW 62A.4-106 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-106 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((SEPARATE OFFICE OF A BANK. A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for the purpose of computing the time within which and determining the place at or to which action may be taken or notices or orders shall be given under this Article and under Article 3.))~~ PAYABLE THROUGH OR PAYABLE AT BANK; COLLECTING BANK. (a) If an item states that it is "payable through" a bank identified in the item, (i) the item designates the bank as a collecting bank and does not by itself authorize the bank to pay the item, and (ii) the item may be presented for payment only by or through the bank.

(b) If an item states that it is "payable at" a bank identified in the item, (i) the item designates the bank as a collecting bank and does not by itself authorize the bank to pay the item, and (ii) the item may be presented for payment only by or through the bank.

(c) If a draft names a nonbank drawee and it is unclear whether a bank named in the draft is a codrawee or a collecting bank, the bank is a collecting bank.

Sec. 83. RCW 62A.4-107 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-107 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((TIME OF RECEIPT OF ITEMS. (1) For the purpose of allowing time to process items, prove balances, and make the necessary entries on its books to determine its position for the day, a bank may fix an afternoon hour of two P.M. or later as a cut-off hour for the handling of money and items and the making of entries on its books.~~

~~((2) Any item or deposit of money received on any day after a cut-off hour so fixed or after the close of the banking day may be treated as being received at the opening of the next banking day.))~~ SEPARATE OFFICE OF A BANK. A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for the purpose of computing the time within which and determining the place at or to which action may be taken or notices or orders must be given under this Article and under Article 3.

Sec. 84. RCW 62A.4-108 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-108 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((DELAYS. (1) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank in a good faith effort to secure payment may, in the case of specific items and with or without the approval of any person involved, waive, modify or extend time limits imposed or permitted by this Title for a period not in excess of an additional banking day without discharge of secondary parties and without liability to its transferor or any prior party.~~

~~((2) Delay by a collecting bank or payor bank beyond time limits prescribed or permitted by this Title or by instructions is excused if caused by interruption of communication facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions or other circumstances beyond the control of the bank provided it exercises such diligence as the circumstances require.))~~ TIME OF RECEIPT OF ITEMS. (a) For the purpose of allowing time to process items, prove balances, and make the necessary entries on its books to determine its position for the day, a bank may fix an afternoon hour of two P.M. or later as a cut-off hour for the handling of money and items and the making of entries on its books.

(b) An item or deposit of money received on any day after a cut-off hour so fixed or after the close of the banking day may be treated as being received at the opening of the next banking day.

Sec. 85. RCW 62A.4-109 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-109 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The "process of posting" means the usual procedure followed by a payor bank in determining to pay an item and in recording the payment including one or more of the following or other steps as determined by the bank:~~

~~((a) verification of any signature;~~

~~((b) ascertaining that sufficient funds are available;~~

(e) affixing a "paid" or other stamp;
(d) entering a charge or entry to a customer's account;
(e) correcting or reversing an entry or erroneous action with respect to the item.) DELAYS. (a) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank in a good faith effort to secure payment of a specific item drawn on a payor other than a bank, and with or without the approval of any person involved, may waive, modify, or extend time limits imposed or permitted by this Title for a period not exceeding two additional banking days without discharge of drawers or indorsers or liability to its transferor or a prior party.

(b) Delay by a collecting bank or payor bank beyond time limits prescribed or permitted by this Title or by instructions is excused if (i) the delay is caused by interruption of communication or computer facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions, failure of equipment, or other circumstances beyond the control of the bank, and (ii) the bank exercises such diligence as the circumstances require.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 86. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.4-110, to read as follows:

ELECTRONIC PRESENTMENT. (a) "Agreement for electronic presentment" means an agreement, clearing-house rule, or Federal Reserve regulation or operating circular, providing that presentment of an item may be made by transmission of an image of an item or information describing the item ("presentment notice") rather than delivery of the item itself. The agreement may provide for procedures governing retention, presentment, payment, dishonor, and other matters concerning items subject to the agreement.

(b) Presentment of an item pursuant to an agreement for presentment is made when the presentment notice is received.

(c) If presentment is made by presentment notice, a reference to "item" or "check" in this Article means the presentment notice unless the context otherwise indicates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 87. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.4-111, to read as follows:

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. An action to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this Article must be commenced within three years after the cause of action accrues.

PART 2 COLLECTION OF ITEMS: DEPOSITORY AND COLLECTING BANKS

Sec. 88. RCW 62A.4-201 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-201 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((PRESUMPTION AND DURATION OF AGENCY))~~ STATUS OF COLLECTING BANK(S) AS AGENT AND PROVISIONAL STATUS OF CREDITS; APPLICABILITY OF ARTICLE; ITEM INDORSED "PAY ANY BANK". ~~((4))~~ (a) Unless a contrary intent clearly appears and ~~((prior to))~~ before the time that a settlement given by a collecting bank for an item is or becomes final ~~((subsection (3) of RCW 62A.4-211 and RCW 62A.4-212 and RCW 62A.4-213))~~, the bank, with respect to the item, is an agent or sub-agent of the owner of the item and any settlement given for the item is provisional. This provision applies regardless of the form of indorsement or lack of indorsement and even though credit given for the item is subject to immediate withdrawal as of right or is in fact withdrawn; but the continuance of ownership of an item by its owner and any rights of the owner to proceeds of the item are subject to rights of a collecting bank such as those resulting from outstanding advances on the item and ~~((valid))~~ rights of recoupment or setoff. ~~((When))~~ If an item is handled by banks for purposes of presentment, payment ~~((and))~~, collection, or return, the relevant provisions of this Article apply even though action of the parties clearly establishes that a particular bank has purchased the item and is the owner of it.

~~((2))~~ (b) After an item has been indorsed with the words "pay any bank" or the like, only a bank may acquire the rights of a holder until the item has been:

~~((a) until the item has been))~~ (1) Returned to the customer initiating collection; or

~~((b) until the item has been))~~ (2) Specially indorsed by a bank to a person who is not a bank.

Sec. 89. RCW 62A.4-202 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-202 are each amended to read as follows:

RESPONSIBILITY FOR COLLECTION OR RETURN; WHEN ACTION ((SEASONABLE)) TIMELY. ~~((4))~~ (a) A collecting bank must ~~((use))~~ exercise ordinary care in:

~~((a))~~ (1) Presenting an item or sending it for presentment; ~~((and~~

~~((b))~~ (2) Sending notice of dishonor or non-payment or returning an item other than a documentary draft to the bank's transferor ~~((or directly to the depository bank under subsection (2) of RCW 62A.4-212))~~ after learning that the item has not been paid or accepted, as the case may be; ~~((and~~

~~((c))~~ (3) Settling for an item when the bank receives final settlement; and

~~((d) making or providing for any necessary protest; and~~

~~((e))~~ (4) Notifying its transferor of any loss or delay in transit within a reasonable time after discovery thereof.

~~((2))~~ A collecting bank taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice or payment acts seasonably; taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may be seasonable but the bank has the burden of so establishing.) (b) A collecting bank exercises ordinary care under subsection (a) by taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice, or settlement. Taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may constitute the exercise of ordinary care, but the bank has the burden of establishing timeliness.

~~((3))~~ (c) Subject to subsection ~~((4))~~ (a) (1), a bank is not liable for the insolvency, neglect, misconduct, mistake or default of another bank or person or for loss or destruction of an item in the possession of others or in transit ~~((or in the possession of others)).~~

Sec. 90. RCW 62A.4-203 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-203 are each amended to read as follows:

EFFECT OF INSTRUCTIONS. Subject to ~~((the provisions of))~~ Article 3 concerning conversion of instruments ~~((RCW 62A.3-419))~~ (RCW 62A.3-420 (section 60 of this act)) and ~~((the provisions of both Article 3 and this Article concerning))~~ restrictive indorsements (RCW 62A.3-206), only a collecting bank's transferor can give instructions ~~((which))~~ that affect the bank or constitute notice to it, and a collecting bank is not liable to prior parties for any action taken pursuant to ~~((such))~~ the instructions or in accordance with any agreement with its transferor.

Sec. 91. RCW 62A.4-204 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-204 are each amended to read as follows:

METHODS OF SENDING AND PRESENTING; SENDING ~~((DIRECT))~~ DIRECTLY TO PAYOR BANK. ~~(((1)))~~ (a) A collecting bank ~~((must))~~ shall send items by a reasonably prompt method, taking into consideration ~~((any))~~ relevant instructions, the nature of the item, the number of ~~((such))~~ those items on hand, ~~((and))~~ the cost of collection involved, and the method generally used by it or others to present ~~((such))~~ those items.

~~(((2)))~~ (b) A collecting bank may send:

~~(((a) any))~~ (1) An item ~~((direct))~~ directly to the payor bank;

~~(((b) any))~~ (2) An item to ~~((any))~~ a non-bank payor if authorized by its transferor; and

~~(((c) any))~~ (3) An item other than documentary drafts to ~~((any))~~ a non-bank payor, if authorized by Federal Reserve regulation or operating ~~((letter))~~ circULAR, clearing-house rule, or the like.

~~(((3)))~~ (c) Presentment may be made by a presenting bank at a place where the payor bank or other payor has requested that presentment be made.

Sec. 92. RCW 62A.4-205 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-205 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((SUPPLYING MISSING INDORSEMENT; NO NOTICE FROM PRIOR INDORSEMENT.))~~ DEPOSITARY BANK HOLDER OF UNINDORSED ITEM.

If a customer delivers an item to a depositary bank for collection:

~~(((1))~~ A depositary bank which has taken an item for collection may supply any indorsement of the customer which is necessary to title unless the item contains the words "payee's indorsement required" or the like. In the absence of such a requirement a statement placed on the item by the depositary bank to the effect that the item was deposited by a customer or credited to his account is effective as the customer's indorsement.

(2) An intermediary bank, or payor bank which is not a depositary bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by a restrictive indorsement of any person except the bank's immediate transferor. (a) The depositary bank becomes a holder of the item at the time it receives the item for collection if the customer at the time of delivery was a holder of the item, whether or not the customer indorses the item, and, if the bank satisfies the other requirements of RCW 62A.3-302, it is a holder in due course; and

(b) The depositary bank warrants to collecting banks, the payor bank or other payor, and the drawer that the amount of the item was paid to the customer or deposited to the customer's account.

Sec. 93. RCW 62A.4-206 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-206 are each amended to read as follows:

TRANSFER BETWEEN BANKS. Any agreed method ~~((which))~~ that identifies the transferor bank is sufficient for the item's further transfer to another bank.

Sec. 94. RCW 62A.4-207 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-207 are each amended to read as follows:

TRANSFER WARRANTIES ~~((OF CUSTOMER AND COLLECTING BANK ON TRANSFER OR PRESENTMENT OF ITEMS; TIME FOR CLAIMS.))~~ (1) Each customer or collecting bank who obtains payment or acceptance of an item and each prior customer and collecting bank warrants to the payor bank or other payor who in good faith pays or accepts the item that

(a) he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and

(b) he has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith

(i) to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or

(ii) to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or

(iii) to an acceptor of an item if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and

(c) the item has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith

(i) to the maker of a note; or

(ii) to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or

(iii) to the acceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or

(iv) to the acceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.

(2) Each customer and collecting bank who transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration for it warrants to his transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank who takes the item in good faith that

(a) he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and

(b) all signatures are genuine or authorized; and

(c) the item has not been materially altered; and

(d) no defense of any party is good against him; and

(e) he has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted item.

In addition each customer and collecting bank so transferring an item and receiving a settlement or other consideration engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will take up the item.

(3) The warranties and the engagement to honor set forth in the two preceding subsections arise notwithstanding the absence of indorsement or words of guaranty or warranty in the transfer or presentment and a collecting bank remains liable for their breach despite remittance to its transferor. Damages for breach of such warranties or engagement to honor shall not exceed the consideration received by the customer or collecting bank responsible plus finance charges and expenses related to the item, if any.

(4) Unless a claim for breach of warranty under this section is made within a reasonable time after the person claiming learns of the breach, the person liable is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in making claim. (a) A customer or collecting bank that transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration warrants to the transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank that:

(1) The warrantor is a person entitled to enforce the item;
(2) All signatures on the item are authentic and authorized;
(3) The item has not been altered;
(4) The item is not subject to a defense or claim in recoupment (RCW 62A.3-305(a)) of any party that can be asserted against the warrantor; and
(5) The warrantor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding commenced with respect to the maker or acceptor or, in the case of an unaccepted draft, the drawer.

(b) If an item is dishonored, a customer or collecting bank transferring the item and receiving settlement or other consideration is obliged to pay the amount due on the item (i) according to the terms of the item at the time it was transferred, or (ii) if the transfer was of an incomplete item, according to its terms when completed as stated in RCW 62A.3-115 and 62A.3-407. The obligation of a transferor is owed to the transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank that takes the item in good faith. A transferor cannot disclaim its obligation under this subsection by an indorsement stating that it is made "without recourse" or otherwise disclaiming liability.

(c) A person to whom the warranties under subsection (a) are made and who took the item in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, but not more than the amount of the item plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

(d) The warranties stated in subsection (a) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within thirty days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(e) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

Sec. 95. RCW 62A.4-208 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-208 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((SECURITY INTEREST OF COLLECTING BANK IN ITEMS, ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS AND PROCEEDS. (1) A bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either~~

~~(a) in case of an item deposited in an account to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied;~~

~~(b) in case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given whether or not the credit is drawn upon and whether or not there is a right of charge-back; or~~

~~(c) if it makes an advance on or against the item.~~

~~(2) When credit which has been given for several items received at one time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn.~~

~~(3) Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents and proceeds. To the extent and so long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues and is subject to the provisions of Article 9 except that~~

~~(a) no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (subsection (1)(b) of RCW 62A.9-203); and~~

~~(b) no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and~~

~~(c) the security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents or proceeds.)~~ PRESENTMENT WARRANTIES. (a) If an unaccepted draft is presented to the drawee for payment or acceptance and the drawee pays or accepts the draft, (i) the person obtaining payment or acceptance, at the time of presentment, and (ii) a previous transferor of the draft, at the time of transfer, warrant to the drawee that pays or accepts the draft in good faith that:

(1) The warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the draft, a person entitled to enforce the draft or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the draft on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the draft;

(2) The draft has not been altered; and

(3) The warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the purported drawer of the draft is unauthorized.

(b) A drawee making payment may recover from a warrantor damages for breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft (i) breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor, and (ii) if the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is entitled to recover from a warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in this subsection.

(c) If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection (a) based on an unauthorized indorsement of the draft or an alteration of the draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the indorsement is effective under RCW 62A.3-404 or 62A.3-405 or the drawer is precluded under RCW 62A.3-406 or 62A.4-406 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized indorsement or alteration.

(d) If (i) a dishonored draft is presented for payment to the drawer or an indorser or (ii) any other item is presented for payment to a party obliged to pay the item, and the item is paid, the person obtaining payment and a prior transferor of the item warrant to the person making payment in good faith that the warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the item, a person entitled to enforce the item or authorized to obtain payment on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the item. The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach.

(e) The warranties stated in subsections (a) and (d) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within thirty days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(f) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

Sec. 96. RCW 62A.4-209 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-209 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((WHEN BANK GIVES VALUE FOR PURPOSES OF HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. For purposes of determining its status as a holder in due course, the bank has given value to the extent that it has a security interest in an item provided that the bank otherwise complies with the requirements of RCW 62A.3-302 on what constitutes a holder in due course.)) ENCODING AND RETENTION WARRANTIES. (a) A person who encodes information on or with respect to an item after issue warrants to any subsequent collecting bank and to the payor bank or other payor that the information is correctly encoded. If the customer of a depositary bank encodes, that bank also makes the warranty.~~

(b) A person who undertakes to retain an item pursuant to an agreement for electronic presentment warrants to any subsequent collecting bank and to the payor bank or other payor that retention and presentment of the item comply with the agreement. If a customer of a depositary bank undertakes to retain an item, that bank also makes this warranty.

(c) A person to whom warranties are made under this section and who took the item in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

Sec. 97. RCW 62A.4-210 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-210 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((PRESENTMENT BY NOTICE OF ITEM NOT PAYABLE BY, THROUGH OR AT A BANK; LIABILITY OF SECONDARY PARTIES. (1) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank may present an item not payable by, through or at a bank by sending to the party to accept or pay a written notice that the bank holds the item for acceptance or payment. The notice must be sent in time to be received on or before the day when presentment is due and the bank must meet any requirement of the party to accept or pay under RCW 62A.3-505 by the close of the bank's next banking day after it knows of the requirement.~~

~~(2) Where presentment is made by notice and neither honor nor request for compliance with a requirement under RCW 62A.3-505 is received by the close of business on the day after maturity or in the case of demand items by the close of business on the third banking day after notice was sent, the presenting bank may treat the item as dishonored and charge any secondary party by sending him notice of the facts.)) SECURITY INTEREST OF COLLECTING BANK IN ITEMS, ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS AND PROCEEDS. (a) A collecting bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either:~~

(1) In case of an item deposited in an account, to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied;

(2) In case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given whether or not the credit is drawn upon or there is a right of charge-back; or

(3) If it makes an advance on or against the item.

(b) If credit given for several items received at one time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part, the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn.

(c) Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents, and proceeds. So long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues to that extent and is subject to Article 9, but:

(1) No security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (subsection (1) of RCW 62A.9-203);

(2) No filing is required to perfect the security interest; and

(3) The security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents, or proceeds.

Sec. 98. RCW 62A.4-211 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-211 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((MEDIA OF REMITTANCE; PROVISIONAL AND FINAL SETTLEMENT IN REMITTANCE CASES. (1) A collecting bank may take in settlement of an item~~

~~(a) a check of the remitting bank or of another bank on any bank except the remitting bank; or~~

~~(b) a cashier's check or similar primary obligation of a remitting bank which is a member of or clears through a member of the same clearing house or group as the collecting bank; or~~

~~(c) appropriate authority to charge an account of the remitting bank or of another bank with the collecting bank; or~~

~~(d) if the item is drawn upon or payable by a person other than a bank, a cashier's check, certified check or other bank check or obligation.~~

~~(2) If before its midnight deadline the collecting bank properly dishonors a remittance check or authorization to charge on itself or presents or forwards for collection a remittance instrument of or on another bank which is of a kind approved by subsection (1) or has not been authorized by it, the collecting bank is not liable to prior parties in the event of the dishonor of such check, instrument or authorization.~~

~~(3) A settlement for an item by means of a remittance instrument or authorization to charge is or becomes a final settlement as to both the person making and the person receiving the settlement~~

~~(a) if the remittance instrument or authorization to charge is of a kind approved by subsection (1) or has not been authorized by the person receiving the settlement and in either case the person receiving the settlement acts seasonably before its midnight deadline in presenting, forwarding for collection or paying the instrument or authorization,--at the time the remittance instrument or authorization is finally paid by the payor by which it is payable;~~

~~(b) if the person receiving the settlement has authorized remittance by a non-bank check or obligation or by a cashier's check or similar primary obligation of or a check upon the payor or other remitting bank which is not of a kind approved by subsection (1)(b),--at the time of the receipt of such remittance check or obligation; or~~

~~(c) if in a case not covered by sub-paragraphs (a) or (b) the person receiving the settlement fails to seasonably present, forward for collection, pay or return a remittance instrument or authorization to it to charge before its midnight deadline,--at such midnight deadline.)) WHEN BANK GIVES VALUE FOR PURPOSES OF HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. For purposes of determining its status as a holder in due course, bank has given value to the extent it has a security interest in an item, if the bank otherwise complies with the requirements of RCW 62A.3-302 on what constitutes a holder in due course.~~

Sec. 99. RCW 62A.4-212 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-212 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((RIGHT OF CHARGE-BACK OR REFUND. (1) If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and itself fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank or otherwise to receive a settlement for the item~~ which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer's account or obtain refund from its customer whether or not it is able to return the items if by its midnight deadline or within a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts it returns the item or sends notification of the facts. These rights to revoke, charge-back and obtain refund terminate if and when a settlement for the item received by the bank is or becomes final (subsection (3) of RCW 62A.4-211 and subsections (2) and (3) of RCW 62A.4-213).

(2) Within the time and manner prescribed by this section and RCW 62A.4-301, an intermediary or payor bank, as the case may be, may return an unpaid item directly to the depository bank and may send for collection a draft on the depository bank and obtain reimbursement. In such case, if the depository bank has received provisional settlement for the item, it must reimburse the bank drawing the draft and any provisional credits for the item between banks shall become and remain final.

(3) A depository bank which is also the payor may charge-back the amount of an item to its customer's account or obtain refund in accordance with the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (RCW 62A.4-301)

(4) The right to charge-back is not affected by

(a) prior use of the credit given for the item; or

(b) failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item but any bank so failing remains liable.

(5) A failure to charge-back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer or any other party.

(6) If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in a foreign currency the dollar amount of any charge-back or refund shall be calculated on the basis of the buying sight rate for the foreign currency prevailing on the day when the person entitled to the charge-back or refund learns that it will not receive payment in ordinary course.)) PRESENTMENT BY NOTICE OF ITEM NOT PAYABLE BY, THROUGH, OR AT A BANK; LIABILITY OF DRAWER OR INDORSER. (a) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank may present an item not payable by, through or at a bank by sending to the party to accept or pay a written notice that the bank holds the item for acceptance or payment. The notice must be sent in time to be received on or before the day when presentment is due and the bank must meet any requirement of the party to accept or pay under RCW 62A.3-501 by the close of the bank's next banking day after it knows of the requirement.

(b) If presentment is made by notice and payment, acceptance, or request for compliance with a requirement under RCW 62A.3-501 is not received by the close of business on the day after maturity or, in the case of demand items, by the close of business on the third banking day after notice was sent, the presenting bank may treat the item as dishonored and charge any drawer or indorser by sending it notice of the facts.

Sec. 100. RCW 62A.4-213 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-213 are each amended to read as follows:

((FINAL PAYMENT OF ITEM BY PAYOR BANK; WHEN PROVISIONAL DEBITS AND CREDITS BECOME FINAL; WHEN CERTAIN CREDITS BECOME AVAILABLE FOR WITHDRAWAL. (1) An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has done any of the following, whichever happens first:

(a) paid the item in cash; or

(b) settled for the item without reserving a right to revoke the settlement and without having such right under statute, clearing house rule or agreement; or

(c) completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith; or

(d) made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearing house rule or agreement.

Upon a final payment under subparagraphs (b), (c) or (d) the payor bank shall be accountable for the amount of the item.

(2) If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearing house or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seriatim, they become final upon final payment of the item by the payor bank.

(3) If a collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final (subsection (3) of RCW 62A.4-211, subsection (2) of RCW 62A.4-213) the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final.

(4) Subject to any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in an account with its customer becomes available for withdrawal as of right

(a) in any case where the bank has received a provisional settlement for the item,--when such settlement becomes final and the bank has had a reasonable time to learn that the settlement is final;

(b) in any case where the bank is both a depository bank and a payor bank and the item is finally paid,--at the opening of the bank's second banking day following receipt of the item.

(5) A deposit of money in a bank is final when made but, subject to any right of the bank to apply the deposit to an obligation of the customer, the deposit becomes available for withdrawal as of right at the opening of the bank's next banking day following receipt of the deposit.)) MEDIUM AND TIME OF SETTLEMENT BY BANK. (a) With respect to settlement by a bank, the medium and time of settlement may be prescribed by Federal Reserve regulations or circulars, clearing-house rules, and the like, or agreement. In the absence of such prescription:

(1) The medium of settlement is cash or credit to an account in a Federal Reserve bank or specified by the person to receive settlement; and

(2) The time of settlement, is:

(i) With respect to tender of settlement by cash, a cashier's check, or teller's check, when the cash or check is sent or delivered;

(ii) With respect to tender of settlement by credit in an account in a Federal Reserve bank, when the credit is made;

(iii) With respect to tender of settlement by a credit or debit to an account in a bank, when the credit or debit is made or, in the case of tender of settlement by authority to charge an account, when the authority is sent or delivered; or

(iv) With respect to tender of settlement by a funds transfer, when payment is made pursuant to RCW 62A.4A-406(1) to the person receiving settlement.

(b) If the tender of settlement is not by a medium authorized by subsection (a) or the time of settlement is not fixed by subsection (a), no settlement occurs until the tender of settlement is accepted by the person receiving settlement.

(c) If settlement for an item is made by cashier's check or teller's check and the person receiving settlement, before its midnight deadline:

(1) Presents or forwards the check for collection, settlement is final when the check is finally paid; or

(2) Fails to present or forward the check for collection, settlement is final at the midnight deadline of the person receiving settlement.

(d) If settlement for an item is made by giving authority to charge the account of the bank giving settlement in the bank receiving settlement, settlement is final when the charge is made by the bank receiving settlement if there are funds available in the account for the amount of the item.

Sec. 101. RCW 62A.4-214 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-214 are each amended to read as follows:

((INSOLVENCY AND PREFERENCE. (1) Any item in or coming into the possession of a payor or collecting bank which suspends payment and which item is not finally paid shall be returned by the receiver, trustee or agent in charge of the closed bank to the presenting bank or the closed bank's customer.

(2) If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank.

(3) If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement becoming final if such finality occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events (subsection (3) of RCW 62A.4-211, subsections (1)(d), (2) and (3) of RCW 62A.4-213).

(4) If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item which settlement is or becomes final and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer which is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against such collecting bank.))

RIGHT OF CHARGE-BACK OR REFUND; LIABILITY OF COLLECTING BANK; RETURN OF ITEM. (a) If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank, or otherwise to receive a settlement for the item which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer's account, or obtain refund from its customer, whether or not it is able to return the items, if by its midnight deadline or within a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts it returns the item or sends notification of the facts. If the return or notice is delayed beyond the bank's midnight deadline or a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts, the bank may revoke the settlement, charge back the credit, or obtain refund from its customer, but it is liable for any loss resulting from the delay. These rights to revoke, charge-back, and obtain refund terminate if and when a settlement for the item received by the bank is or becomes final.

(b) A collecting bank returns an item when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or pursuant to its instructions.

(c) A depository bank that is also the payor may charge-back the amount of an item to its customer's account or obtain refund in accordance with the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (RCW 62A.4-301).

(d) The right to charge-back is not affected by:

(1) Previous use of a credit given for the item; or

(2) Failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item, but a bank so failing remains liable.

(e) A failure to charge-back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer or any other party.

(f) If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in a foreign money, the dollar amount of any charge-back or refund must be calculated on the basis of the bank-offered spot rate for the foreign money prevailing on the day when the person entitled to the charge-back or refund learns that it will not receive payment in ordinary course.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.4-215, to read as follows:

FINAL PAYMENT OF ITEM BY PAYOR BANK; WHEN PROVISIONAL DEBITS AND CREDITS BECOME FINAL; WHEN CERTAIN CREDITS BECOME AVAILABLE FOR WITHDRAWAL. (a) An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has first done any of the following:

(1) Paid the item in cash;

(2) Settled for the item without having a right to revoke the settlement under statute, clearing-house rule, or agreement; or

(3) Made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearing-house rule, or agreement.

(b) If provisional settlement for an item does not become final, the item is not finally paid.

(c) If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearing house or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seriatim, they become final upon final payment of the item by the payor bank.

(d) If a collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final, the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final.

(e) Subject to (i) applicable law stating a time for availability of funds and (ii) any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in a customer's account becomes available for withdrawal as of right:

(1) If the bank has received a provisional settlement for the item, when the settlement becomes final and the bank has had a reasonable time to receive return of the item and the item has not been received within that time;

(2) If the bank is both the depository bank and the payor bank, and the item is finally paid, at the opening of the bank's second banking day following receipt of the item.

(f) Subject to applicable law stating a time for availability of funds and any right of a bank to apply a deposit to an obligation of the depositor, a deposit of money becomes available for withdrawal as of right at the opening of the bank's next banking day after receipt of the deposit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.4-216, to read as follows:

INSOLVENCY AND PREFERENCE. (a) If an item is in or comes into the possession of a payor or collecting bank that suspends payment and the item has not been finally paid, the item must be returned by the receiver, trustee, or agent in charge of the closed bank to the presenting bank or the closed bank's customer.

(b) If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank.

(c) If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement's becoming final if the finality occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events.

(d) If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item, which settlement is or becomes final and the bank suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the collecting bank.

PART 3 COLLECTION OF ITEMS: PAYOR BANKS

Sec. 104. RCW 62A.4-301 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-301 are each amended to read as follows:

DEFERRED POSTING; RECOVERY OF PAYMENT BY RETURN OF ITEMS; TIME OF DISHONOR; RETURN OF ITEMS BY PAYOR BANK. ~~((1) Where an authorized settlement)~~ (a) If a payor bank settles for a demand item (other than a documentary draft) ~~((received by a payor bank))~~ presented otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter ~~((has been made))~~ before midnight of the banking day of receipt, the payor bank may revoke the settlement and recover ~~((any payment))~~ the settlement if, before it has made final payment ~~((subsection (1) of RCW 62A.4-213))~~ and before its midnight deadline, it:

~~((a))~~ (1) Returns the item; or

~~((b))~~ (2) Sends written notice of dishonor or nonpayment if the item is ~~((held for protest or is otherwise))~~ unavailable for return.

~~((2))~~ (b) If a demand item is received by a payor bank for credit on its books, it may return ~~((such))~~ the item or send notice of dishonor and may revoke any credit given or recover the amount thereof withdrawn by its customer, if it acts within the time limit and in the manner specified in ~~((the preceding))~~ subsection (a).

~~((3))~~ (c) Unless previous notice of dishonor has been sent, an item is dishonored at the time when for purposes of dishonor it is returned or notice sent in accordance with this section.

~~((4))~~ (d) An item is returned:

~~((a))~~ (1) As to an item ~~((received))~~ presented through a clearing house, when it is delivered to the presenting or last collecting bank or to the clearing house or is sent or delivered in accordance with ~~((its))~~ clearing-house rules; or

~~((b))~~ (2) In all other cases, when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or pursuant to ~~((his))~~ instructions.

Sec. 105. RCW 62A.4-302 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-302 are each amended to read as follows:

PAYOR BANK'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR LATE RETURN OF ITEM. ~~((In the absence of a valid defense such as breach of a presentment warranty (subsection (1) of RCW 62A.4-207), settlement effected or the like,))~~ (a) If an item is presented ~~((or))~~ to and received by a payor bank, the bank is accountable for the amount of:

~~((a))~~ (1) A demand item, other than a documentary draft, whether properly payable or not, if the bank, in any case ~~((where))~~ in which it is not also the depository bank, retains the item beyond midnight of the banking day of receipt without settling for it or, ~~((regardless of))~~ whether or not it is also the depository bank, does not pay or return the item or send notice of dishonor until after its midnight deadline; or

~~((b))~~ (2) any other properly payable item unless, within the time allowed for acceptance or payment of that item, the bank either accepts or pays the item or returns it and accompanying documents.

(b) The liability of a payor bank to pay an item pursuant to subsection (a) is subject to defenses based on breach of a presentment warranty (RCW 62A.4-208) or proof that the person seeking enforcement of the liability presented or transferred the item for the purpose of defrauding the payor bank.

Sec. 106. RCW 62A.4-303 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-303 are each amended to read as follows:

WHEN ITEMS SUBJECT TO NOTICE, ((STOP-ORDER)) STOP-PAYMENT ORDER, LEGAL PROCESS, OR SETOFF; ORDER IN WHICH ITEMS MAY BE CHARGED OR CERTIFIED. ~~((1))~~ (a) Any knowledge, notice, or ~~((stop-order))~~ stop-payment order received by, legal process served upon, or setoff exercised by a payor bank ~~((, whether or not effective under other rules of law))~~ comes too late to terminate, suspend, or modify the bank's right or duty to pay an item or to charge its customer's account for the item ~~((, comes too late to so terminate, suspend or modify such right or duty))~~ if the knowledge, notice, stop-payment order, or legal process is received or served and a reasonable time for the bank to act thereon expires or the setoff is exercised after the ~~((bank has done any))~~ earliest of the following:

~~((a) accepted or certified))~~ (1) The bank accepts or certifies the item;

~~((b) paid))~~ (2) The bank pays the item in cash;

~~((c) settled))~~ (3) The bank settles for the item without ~~((reserving))~~ having a right to revoke the settlement ~~((and without having such right))~~ under statute, clearing-house rule, or agreement;

~~((d) completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith or otherwise has evidenced by examination of such indicated account and by action its decision to pay the item; or~~

~~((e))~~ (4) The bank becomes accountable for the amount of the item under ~~((subsection (1)(d) of RCW 62A.4-213 and))~~ RCW 62A.4-302 dealing with the payor bank's responsibility for late return of items ~~((,))~~ or

(5) With respect to checks, a cutoff hour no earlier than one hour after the opening of the next banking day after the banking day on which the bank received the check and no later than the close of that next banking day or, if no cutoff hour is fixed, the close of the next banking day after the banking day on which the bank received the check.

~~((2))~~ (b) Subject to ~~((the provisions of))~~ subsection ~~((1))~~ (a) items may be accepted, paid, certified, or charged to the indicated account of its customer in any order ~~((convenient to the bank)).~~

PART 4
RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN PAYOR BANK AND ITS CUSTOMER

Sec. 107. RCW 62A.4-401 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-401 are each amended to read as follows:

WHEN BANK MAY CHARGE CUSTOMER'S ACCOUNT. ~~((1) As against its customer,)~~ (a) A bank may charge against ((his)) the account ((any)) of a customer an item ((which)) that is ((otherwise)) properly payable from that account even though the charge creates an overdraft. An item is properly payable if it is authorized by the customer and is in accordance with any agreement between the customer and bank.

~~((2))~~ (b) A customer is not liable for the amount of an overdraft if the customer neither signed the item nor benefited from the proceeds of the item.

(c) A bank may charge against the account of a customer a check that is otherwise properly payable from the account, even though payment was made before the date of the check, unless the customer has given notice to the bank of the postdating describing the check with reasonable certainty. The notice is effective for the period stated in RCW 62A.4-403(b) for stop-payment orders, and must be received at such time and in such manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the bank takes any action with respect to the check described in RCW 62A.4-303. A bank may not collect a fee from a customer based on the customer's giving notice to the bank of a postdating. If a bank charges against the account of a customer a check before the date stated in the notice of postdating, the bank is liable for damages for the loss resulting from its act. The loss may include damages for dishonor of subsequent items under RCW 62A.4-402.

(d) A bank ((which)) that in good faith makes payment to a holder may charge the indicated account of its customer according to:

~~((a))~~ (1) The original ((tenor)) terms of ((his)) the altered item; or

~~((b))~~ (2) The ((tenor)) terms of ((his)) the altered item, even though the bank knows the item has been completed unless the bank has notice that the completion was improper.

Sec. 108. RCW 62A.4-402 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-402 are each amended to read as follows:

BANK'S LIABILITY TO CUSTOMER FOR WRONGFUL DISHONOR; TIME OF DETERMINING INSUFFICIENCY OF ACCOUNT. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, a payor bank wrongfully dishonors an item if it dishonors an item that is properly payable, but a bank may dishonor an item that would create an overdraft unless it has agreed to pay the overdraft.

(b) A payor bank is liable to its customer for damages proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor of an item. ((When the dishonor occurs through mistake)) Liability is limited to actual damages proved((-- If so proximately caused)) and ((proved damages)) may include damages for an arrest or prosecution of the customer or other consequential damages. Whether any consequential damages are proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor is a question of fact to be determined in each case.

(c) A payor bank's determination of the customer's account balance on which a decision to dishonor for insufficiency of available funds is based may be made at any time between the time the item is received by the payor bank and the time that the payor bank returns the item or gives notice in lieu of return, and no more than one determination need be made. If, at the election of the payor bank, a subsequent balance determination is made for the purpose of reevaluating the bank's decision to dishonor the item, the account balance at that time is determinative of whether a dishonor for insufficiency of available funds is wrongful.

Sec. 109. RCW 62A.4-403 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-403 are each amended to read as follows:

CUSTOMER'S RIGHT TO STOP PAYMENT; BURDEN OF PROOF OF LOSS. ~~((1))~~ (a) A customer or any other person authorized to draw on the account if there is more than one person may ((by order to his bank)) stop payment of any item ((payable for his)) drawn on the customer's account ((but)) or close the account by an order ((must be)) to the bank describing the item or account with reasonable certainty received at ((such)) a time and in ((such)) a manner ((as to)) that affords the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it ((prior to)) before any action by the bank with respect to the item described in RCW 62A.4-303. If the signature of more than one person is required to draw on an account, any of these persons may stop payment or close the account.

~~((2) An oral order is binding upon the bank only for fourteen calendar days unless confirmed in writing within that period. A written order is effective for only six months unless renewed in writing))~~ (b) A stop-payment order is effective for six months, but it lapses after fourteen calendar days if the original order was oral and was not confirmed in writing within that period. A stop-payment order may be renewed for additional six-month periods by a writing given to the bank within a period during which the stop-payment order is effective.

~~((3))~~ (c) The burden of establishing the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to a binding stop-payment order or order to close the account is on the customer. The loss from payment of an item contrary to a stop-payment order may include damages for dishonor of subsequent items under RCW 62A.4-402.

Sec. 110. RCW 62A.4-405 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-405 are each amended to read as follows:

DEATH OR INCOMPETENCE OF CUSTOMER. ~~((1))~~ (a) A payor or collecting bank's authority to accept, pay, or collect an item or to account for proceeds of its collection, if otherwise effective, is not rendered ineffective by incompetence of a customer of either bank existing at the time the item is issued or its collection is undertaken if the bank does not know of an adjudication of incompetence. Neither death nor incompetence of a customer revokes ((such)) the authority to accept, pay, collect, or account until the bank knows of the fact of death or of an adjudication of incompetence and has reasonable opportunity to act on it.

~~((2))~~ (b) Even with knowledge, a bank may for ten days after the date of death pay or certify checks drawn on or ((prior to)) before that date unless ordered to stop payment by a person claiming an interest in the account.

Sec. 111. RCW 62A.4-406 and 1991 sp.s. c 19 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1) When a bank sends to its customer a statement of account accompanied by items paid in good faith in support of the debit entries or holds the statement and items pursuant to a request or instructions of its customer or otherwise in a reasonable manner makes the statement and items available to the customer, the customer must exercise reasonable care and promptness to examine the statement and items to discover his or her unauthorized signature or any alteration on an item and must notify the bank promptly after discovery thereof.~~

(2)) (a) A bank that sends or makes available to a customer a statement of account showing payment of items for the account shall either return or make available to the customer the items paid, copies of the items paid, or provide information in the statement of account sufficient to allow the customer reasonably to identify the items paid. Until January 1, 1998, the statement of account provides sufficient information if the item is described by item number, amount, and date of payment. If the bank does not return the items paid or copies of the items paid, it shall provide in the statement of account the telephone number that the customer may call to request an item or copy of an item pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.

(b) If the items are not returned to the customer, the person retaining the items shall either retain the items or, if the items are destroyed, maintain the capacity to furnish legible copies of the items until the expiration of seven years after receipt of the items. A customer may request an item from the bank that paid the item, and that bank must provide in a reasonable time either the item or, if the item has been destroyed or is not otherwise obtainable, a legible copy of the item. A bank shall provide, upon request and without charge to the customer, at least five items or copies of items with respect to each statement of account sent to the customer. A bank may charge fees for additional items or copies of items in accordance with section 118 of this act. Requests for ten items or less shall be processed and completed within ten business days.

(c) If a bank sends or makes available a statement of account or items pursuant to subsection (a), the customer must exercise reasonable promptness in examining the statement or the items to determine whether any payment was not authorized because of an alteration of an item or because a purported signature by or on behalf of the customer was not authorized. If, based on the statement or items provided, the customer should reasonably have discovered the unauthorized payment, the customer must promptly notify the bank of the relevant facts.

(d) If the bank ((establishes)) proves that the customer₁ failed with respect to an item₁ to comply with the duties imposed on the customer by subsection ((1) of this section) (c) the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank:

((a) His or her) (1) The customer's unauthorized signature or any alteration on the item₁ if the bank also ((establishes)) proves that it suffered a loss by reason of ((such)) the failure; and

((b) An) (2) The customer's unauthorized signature or alteration by the same wrong-doer on any other item paid in good faith by the bank ((after the first item and statement was available to the customer for a reasonable period and before the bank receives notification from the customer of any such unauthorized signature or alteration)) if the payment was made before the bank received notice from the customer of the unauthorized signature or alteration and after the customer had been afforded a reasonable period of time, not exceeding thirty days, in which to examine the item or statement of account and notify the bank.

((3) The preclusion under subsection (2) of this section does not apply if the customer establishes lack of ordinary care on the part of the bank in paying the item(s).

(4)) (e) If subsection (d) applies and the customer proves that the bank failed to exercise ordinary care in paying the item and that the failure substantially contributed to loss, the loss is allocated between the customer precluded and the bank asserting the preclusion according to the extent to which the failure of the customer to comply with subsection (c) and the failure of the bank to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss. If the customer proves that the bank did not pay the item in good faith, the preclusion under subsection (d) does not apply.

(f) Without regard to care or lack of care of either the customer or the bank, a natural person whose account is primarily for personal, family, or household purposes who does not within one year₁ and any other customer who does not within sixty days₁ from the time the statement and items are made available to the customer (subsection ((1) of this section) (a)) discover and report ((his or her)) the customer's unauthorized signature or any alteration on the face or back of the item or does not within ((three years)) one year from that time discover and report any unauthorized indorsement is precluded from asserting against the bank such unauthorized signature or indorsement or such alteration(-).

(5) If under this section a payor bank has a valid defense against a claim of a customer upon or resulting from payment of an item and waives or fails upon request to assert the defense the bank may not assert against any collecting bank or other prior party presenting or transferring the item a claim based upon the unauthorized signature or alteration giving rise to the customer's claim)). If there is a preclusion under this subsection, the payor bank may not recover for breach of warranty under RCW 62A.4-208 with respect to the unauthorized signature or alteration to which the preclusion applies.

Sec. 112. RCW 62A.4-407 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-407 are each amended to read as follows:

PAYOR BANK'S RIGHT TO SUBROGATION ON IMPROPER PAYMENT. If a payor bank has paid an item over the ((stop payment)) order of the drawer or maker to stop payment, or after an account has been closed, or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker, to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of its payment of the item, the payor bank ((shall be)) is subrogated to the rights:

((a)) (1) Of any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker; ((and))

((b)) (2) Of the payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker either on the item or under the transaction out of which the item arose; and

((c)) (3) Of the drawer or maker against the payee or any other holder of the item with respect to the transaction out of which the item arose.

PART 5

COLLECTION OF DOCUMENTARY DRAFTS

Sec. 113. RCW 62A.4-501 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-501 are each amended to read as follows:

HANDLING OF DOCUMENTARY DRAFTS; DUTY TO SEND FOR PRESENTMENT AND TO NOTIFY CUSTOMER OF DISHONOR. A bank ((which)) that takes a documentary draft for collection ((must)) shall present or send the draft and accompanying documents for presentment and, upon learning that the draft has not been paid or accepted in due course ((must)), shall seasonably notify its customer of ((such)) the fact even though it may have discounted or bought the draft or extended credit available for withdrawal as of right.

Sec. 114. RCW 62A.4-502 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-502 are each amended to read as follows:

PRESENTMENT OF "ON ARRIVAL" DRAFTS. ((When)) If a draft or the relevant instructions require presentment "on arrival", "when goods arrive" or the like, the collecting bank need not present until in its judgment a reasonable time for arrival of the goods has expired. Refusal to pay or accept because the goods have not arrived is not dishonor; the bank must notify its transferor of ((such)) the refusal but need not present the draft again until it is instructed to do so or learns of the arrival of the goods.

Sec. 115. RCW 62A.4-503 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-503 are each amended to read as follows:

RESPONSIBILITY OF PRESENTING BANK FOR DOCUMENTS AND GOODS; REPORT OF REASONS FOR DISHONOR; REFEREE IN CASE OF NEED. Unless otherwise instructed and except as provided in Article 5, a bank presenting a documentary draft:

~~((a))~~ (1) Must deliver the documents to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment; and

~~((b))~~ (2) Upon dishonor, either in the case of presentment for acceptance or presentment for payment, may seek and follow instructions from any referee in case of need designated in the draft or, if the presenting bank does not choose to utilize ~~((his))~~ the referee's services, it must use diligence and good faith to ascertain the reason for dishonor, must notify its transferor of the dishonor and of the results of its effort to ascertain the reasons therefor, and must request instructions. ~~((But))~~ However, the presenting bank is under no obligation with respect to goods represented by the documents except to follow any reasonable instructions seasonably received; it has a right to reimbursement for any expense incurred in following instructions and to prepayment of or indemnity for ~~((such))~~ those expenses.

Sec. 116. RCW 62A.4-504 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-504 are each amended to read as follows:

PRIVILEGE OF PRESENTING BANK TO DEAL WITH GOODS; SECURITY INTEREST FOR EXPENSES. ~~((+))~~ (a) A presenting bank ~~((which))~~ that, following the dishonor of a documentary draft, has seasonably requested instructions but does not receive them within a reasonable time may store, sell, or otherwise deal with the goods in any reasonable manner.

~~((2))~~ (b) For its reasonable expenses incurred by action under subsection ~~((+))~~ (a) the presenting bank has a lien upon the goods or their proceeds, which may be foreclosed in the same manner as an unpaid seller's lien.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 117. For the purposes of maintaining the uniformity of the Uniform Commercial Code (Title 62A RCW), the code reviser may reuse the codification numbers of those sections repealed in section 76 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 118. A new section is added to chapter 30.22 RCW to read as follows:

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1493, by House Committee on Trade, Economic Development and Housing (originally sponsored by Representatives Wineberry, Forner, Shin, Sheldon, Leonard, Basich, Locke, J. Kohl, Morris and Anderson)

Assisting minority and women-owned businesses.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Skratek moved that the following Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. INTENT. It is the intent of the legislature to combat discrimination in the economy.

(1) The legislature finds that discrimination is in part responsible for:

(a) The disproportionately small percentage of the state's businesses that are owned by minorities and women;

(b) The limited and unequal opportunity minority and women entrepreneurs and business owners have to procure small business financing; and

(c) The difficulty many minority and women-owned contracting businesses have in securing bonds and contract work.

(2) The legislature further finds that:

(a) Many minority and women entrepreneurs and business owners lack training in how to establish and operate a business. This lack of training inhibits their competitiveness when they apply for business loans, bonds, and contracts;

(b) Minorities and women are an increasingly expanding portion of the population and work force. In order for these individuals to fully contribute to the society and economy it is necessary to ensure that minority and women entrepreneurs and business owners are provided an equal opportunity to procure small business financing, bonds, and contracts; and

(c) The growth of small businesses will have a favorable impact on the Washington economy by creating jobs, increasing competition in the marketplace, and expanding tax revenues. Access to financial markets, bonds, and contracts by entrepreneurs and small business owners is vital to this process. Without reasonable access to financing, bonds, and contracts, talented and aggressive entrepreneurs and small business owners are cut out of the economic system and the state's economy suffers.

(3) Therefore, the legislature declares there to be a substantial public purpose in providing technical assistance in the areas of marketing, finance, and management, and access to capital resources, bonds, and contracts, to help start or expand a minority or women-owned business, and specifically to encourage and make possible greater participation by minorities and women in international trade, public works and construction, and public facility concessions. To accomplish these purposes, it is the intent of the legislature to:

(a) Develop or contract for training courses in financing, marketing, managing, accounting, and recordkeeping for a small business and to make these programs available to minority and women entrepreneurs and small business owners;

(b) Make public works and construction projects, public facility concessions, and purchase of goods and services accessible to a greater number of minority and women-owned businesses;

(c) Provide for the lending of nonstate funds to qualified minority and women entrepreneurs and business owners in order to provide the maximum practicable opportunity for innovative minority and women entrepreneurs and business owners to compete for small business financing; and

(d) Provide professional services assistance grants and bond guarantees on behalf of qualified contractors in order to provide the maximum practicable opportunity for minority and women-owned contracting businesses to participate in the Washington state economy by bidding and completing various public and private contracting jobs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Minority" means persons of color, including African-Americans, Hispanic/Latino Americans, Native Americans, and Asian/Pacific Islanders Americans;

(2) "Minority and women-owned business" means any resident minority business enterprise or women's business enterprise, certified as such by the office of minority and women's business enterprises under chapter 39.19 RCW and consistent with subsection (1) of this section.

I. EDUCATION AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

Sec. 3. RCW 43.31.085 and 1989 c 430 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

MARKETING, FINANCE, AND MANAGEMENT ASSISTANCE. The business assistance center shall:

(1) Serve as the state's lead agency and advocate for the development and conservation of businesses.

(2) Coordinate the delivery of state programs to assist businesses.

(3) Provide comprehensive referral services to businesses requiring government assistance.

(4) Serve as the business ombudsman within state government and advise the governor and the legislature of the need for new legislation to improve the effectiveness of state programs to assist businesses.

(5) Aggressively promote business awareness of the state's business programs and distribute information on the services available to businesses.

(6) Develop, in concert with local economic development and business assistance organizations, coordinated processes that complement both state and local activities and services.

(7) ~~((The business assistance center shall))~~ Work with other federal, state, and local agencies and organizations to ensure that business assistance services including small business, trade services, and distressed area programs are provided in a coordinated and cost-effective manner.

(8) Provide or contract for technical assistance to minority and women-owned business enterprises in a variety of areas, including, but not limited to, marketing, finance, bidding and estimating assistance, public contracting assistance, and management.

(9) In collaboration with the child care coordinating committee in the department of social and health services, prepare and disseminate information on child care options for employers and the existence of the program. As much as possible, and through interagency agreements where necessary, such information should be included in the routine communications to employers from (a) the department of revenue, (b) the department of labor and industries, (c) the department of community development, (d) the employment security department, (e) the department of trade and economic development, (f) the small business development center, and (g) the department of social and health services.

~~((9))~~ (10) In collaboration with the child care coordinating committee in the department of social and health services, compile information on and facilitate employer access to individuals, firms, organizations, and agencies that provide technical assistance to employers to enable them to develop and support child care services or facilities.

~~((10))~~ (11) Actively seek public and private money to support the child care facility fund described in RCW 43.31.502, staff and assist the child care facility fund committee as described in RCW 43.31.504, and work to promote applications to the committee for loan guarantees, loans, and grants.

Sec. 4. RCW 43.31.055 and 1985 c 466 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

EXPORT ASSISTANCE. The department shall assist in expanding the state's role as a major international gateway for landing and transshipping goods bound for domestic and foreign markets. The department shall identify and work with Washington businesses, especially minority and women-owned businesses and ethnic community-based organizations, which can utilize state assistance to increase domestic and foreign exports and are capable of increasing production of goods and services, including but not limited to manufactured goods, raw materials, services, and retail trade. The department shall participate in trade and industry exhibitions both foreign and domestic to promote and market state products and services. The department's activities shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) Operating an active and vigorous effort to market the state's products and services internationally, coordinated with private and public international trade efforts throughout the state.

(2) Coordinating with the domestic and foreign export market development activities of the state department of agriculture.

(3) Sending delegations to foreign countries and other states to promote trade with Washington.

(4) Acting as a centralized location for the assimilation and distribution of trade information.

(5) Identifying domestic and international markets in which minority and women-owned businesses may have an advantage and providing technical assistance to develop capacity for minority and women-owned businesses to participate in international trade.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 43.210 RCW to read as follows:

The small business export finance assistance center shall develop a minority business export outreach program. The program shall provide outreach services to minority-owned businesses in Washington to inform them of the importance of and opportunities in international trade, and to inform them of the export assistance programs available to assist these businesses to become exporters.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

ENTREPRENEURIAL TRAINING COURSES. The department of trade and economic development shall contract with public and private agencies, institutions, and organizations to conduct entrepreneurial training courses for minority and women-owned small businesses. The instruction shall be intensive, practical training courses in financing, marketing, managing, accounting, and recordkeeping for a small business, with an emphasis on federal, state, local, or private programs available to assist small businesses. The business assistance center may recommend professional instructors, with practical knowledge and experience on how to start and operate a business, to teach the courses. Instruction shall be offered in major population centers throughout the state at times and locations which are convenient for minority and women small business owners and entrepreneurs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If specific funding for the purposes of sections 5 and 6 of this act, referencing sections 5 and 6 of this act by bill and section numbers, is not provided by June 30, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act, sections 5 and 6 of this act are null and void.

II. FAIRNESS IN CONTRACTING AND CONCESSIONS

Sec. 8. RCW 39.19.060 and 1983 c 120 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

Each state agency and educational institution shall comply with the annual goals established for that agency or institution under this chapter for public works and procuring goods or services. This chapter applies to all public works and procurement by state agencies and educational institutions, including all contracts and other procurement under chapters 28B.10, 39.04, 39.29, 43.19, and 47.28 RCW. Each state agency shall adopt a plan, developed in consultation with the director and the advisory committee, to insure that minority and women-owned businesses are afforded the maximum practicable opportunity to directly and meaningfully participate in the execution of public contracts for public works and goods and services. The plan shall include specific measures the agency will undertake to increase the participation of certified minority and women-owned businesses. The office shall annually notify the governor, the state auditor, and the legislative budget committee of all agencies and educational institutions not in compliance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 39.19 RCW to read as follows:

(1) State agencies shall not require a performance bond for any public works project that does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars awarded to a prequalified and certified minority or woman-owned business that has been prequalified as provided under subsection (2) of this section.

(2) A limited prequalification questionnaire shall be required assuring:

(a) That the bidder has adequate financial resources or the ability to secure such resources;

(b) That the bidder can meet the performance schedule;

(c) That the bidder is experienced in the type of work to be performed; and

(d) That all equipment to be used is adequate and functioning and that all equipment operators are qualified to operate such equipment.

III. LOAN FUND AND GUARANTEES

Sec. 10. RCW 43.168.030 and 1985 c 164 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington state development loan fund committee is established as an entity within the department of community development. The committee shall have ~~((seven))~~ eight members. The director shall appoint the members, subject to the following requirements: (a) Three members shall be experienced in investment finance and have skills in providing capital to new and innovative businesses, in starting and operating businesses and providing professional services to small or expanding businesses; (b) two members shall be residents of distressed areas; (c) one member shall represent organized labor; ~~((and))~~ (d) one member shall represent a minority business; and (e) one member shall represent a women-owned business. Careful consideration in making these appointments shall be taken to ensure that the various geographic regions of the state are represented, that members will be available for meetings on a regular basis, and will have a commitment to working with local governments and local development organizations.

(2) Each member appointed by the director shall serve a term of three years, except that of the members first appointed, two shall serve two-year terms and two shall serve one-year terms. A person appointed to fill a vacancy of a member shall be appointed in a like manner and shall serve for only the unexpired term. A member is eligible for reappointment. A member may be removed by the director only for cause.

(3) The director shall designate a member of the board as its chairperson. The committee may elect such other officers as it deems appropriate. ~~((Four))~~ Five members of the committee constitute a quorum and ~~((four))~~ five affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(4) The members of the committee shall serve without compensation, but are entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(5) Members shall not be liable to the state, to the fund, or to any other person as a result of their activities, whether ministerial or discretionary, as members except for wilful dishonesty or intentional violations of law. The department may purchase liability insurance for members and may indemnify these persons against the claims of others.

Sec. 11. RCW 43.168.050 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 17 s 74 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The committee may only approve an application providing a loan for a project which the committee finds:

(a) Will result in the creation of employment opportunities ~~((or))~~, the maintenance of threatened employment, or development or expansion of business ownership by minorities and women;

(b) Has been approved by the director as conforming to federal rules and regulations governing the spending of federal community development block grant funds;

(c) Will be of public benefit and for a public purpose, and that the benefits, including increased or maintained employment, improved standard of living, ~~((and))~~ the employment of disadvantaged workers, and development or expansion of business ownership by minorities and women, will primarily accrue to residents of the area;

(d) Will probably be successful;

(e) Would probably not be completed without the loan because other capital or financing at feasible terms is unavailable or the return on investment is inadequate.

(2) The committee shall, subject to federal block grant criteria, give higher priority to economic development projects that contain provisions for child care.

(3) The committee may not approve an application if it fails to provide for adequate reporting or disclosure of financial data to the committee. The committee may require an annual or other periodic audit of the project books.

(4) The committee may require that the project be managed in whole or in part by a local development organization and may prescribe a management fee to be paid to such organization by the recipient of the loan or grant.

(5)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, the committee shall not approve any application which would result in a loan or grant in excess of three hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(b) The committee may approve an application which results in a loan or grant of up to seven hundred thousand dollars if the application has been approved by the director.

(6) The committee shall fix the terms and rates pertaining to its loans.

(7) Should there be more demand for loans than funds available for lending, the committee shall provide loans for those projects which will lead to the greatest amount of employment or benefit to a community. In determining the "greatest amount of employment or benefit" the committee shall also consider the employment which would be saved by its loan and the benefit relative to the community, not just the total number of new jobs or jobs saved.

(8) To the extent permitted under federal law the committee shall require applicants to provide for the transfer of all payments of principal and interest on loans to the Washington state development loan fund created under this chapter. Under circumstances where the federal law does not permit the committee to require such transfer, the committee shall give priority to applications where the applicants on their own volition make commitments to provide for the transfer.

(9) The committee shall not approve any application to finance or help finance a shopping mall.

(10) For loans not made to minority and women-owned businesses, the committee shall make at least eighty percent of the appropriated funds available to projects located in distressed areas, and may make up to twenty percent available to projects located in areas not designated as distressed. For loans not made to minority and women-owned businesses, the committee shall not make funds available to projects located in areas not designated as distressed if the fund's net worth is less than seven million one hundred thousand dollars.

(11) If an objection is raised to a project on the basis of unfair business competition, the committee shall evaluate the potential impact of a project on similar businesses located in the local market area. A grant may be denied by the committee if a project is not likely to result in a net increase in employment within a local market area.

(12) For loans to minority and women-owned businesses who do not meet the credit criteria, the committee may consider nontraditional credit standards to offset past discrimination that has precluded full participation of minority or women-owned businesses in the economy. For applicants with high potential who do not meet the credit criteria, the committee shall consider developing alternative borrowing methods. For applicants denied loans due to credit problems, the committee shall provide financial counseling within available resources and provide referrals to credit rehabilitation services. In circumstances of competing applications, priority shall be given to members of eligible groups which previously have been least served by this fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 43.168 RCW to read as follows:

Subject to the restrictions contained in this chapter, the committee is authorized to approve applications of minority and women-owned businesses for loans or loan guarantees from the fund. Applications approved by the committee under this chapter shall conform to applicable federal requirements. The committee shall prioritize available funds for loan guarantees rather than loans when possible. The committee may enter into agreements with other public or private lending institutions to develop a joint loan guarantee program for minority and women-owned businesses. If such a program is developed, the committee may provide funds, in conjunction with the other organizations, to operate the program. This section does not preclude the committee from making individual loan guarantees.

To the maximum extent practicable, the funds available under this section shall be made available on an equal basis to minority and women-owned businesses. The committee shall submit to the appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives quarterly reports that detail the number of loans approved and the characteristics of the recipients by ethnic and gender groups.

Sec. 13. RCW 43.168.070 and 1987 c 461 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee may receive and approve applications on a monthly basis but shall receive and approve applications on at least a quarterly basis for each fiscal year. The committee shall make every effort to simplify the loan process for applicants. Department staff shall process and assist in the preparation of applications. Each application shall show in detail the nature of the project, the types and numbers of jobs to be created, wages to be paid to new employees, and methods to hire unemployed persons from the area. Each application shall contain a credit analysis of the business to receive the loan. The chairperson of the committee may convene the committee on short notice to respond to applications of a serious or immediate nature.

Sec. 14. RCW 43.168.100 and 1986 c 204 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee may make grants of state funds to local governments which qualify as "entitlement communities" under the federal law authorizing community development block grants. These grants may only be made on the condition that the entitlement community provide the committee with assurances that it will: (1) Spend the grant moneys for purposes and in a manner which satisfies state constitutional requirements; (2) spend the grant moneys for purposes and in a manner which would satisfy federal requirements; and (3) spend ~~((double the))~~ at least the same amount of the grant for loans to businesses from the federal funds received by the entitlement community.

IV. BONDING ASSISTANCE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 16 through 25 of this act.

(1) "Approved surety company" means a surety company approved by the department for participation in providing direct bonding assistance to qualified contractors.

(2) "Bond" means any bond or security required for bid, payment, or performance of contracts.

(3) "Department" means the department of trade and economic development.

(4) "Program" means the Washington state small business bonding assistance program provided for in this chapter.

(5) "Qualified contractor" means any resident minority business enterprise or women's business enterprise, as determined by the department to be consistent with the requirements of chapter 39.19 RCW and engaged in the contracting business, which has obtained a certificate of accreditation from the Washington state small business bonding assistance program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. PROGRAM ESTABLISHED. There is established within the department of trade and economic development the Washington state small business bonding assistance program to assist resident minority and women-owned small contracting businesses to acquire the managerial and financial skills, standards, and assistance necessary to enable them to obtain bid, payment, and performance bonds from surety companies for either advertised or designated contracts. The department shall implement the program by establishing a course of instruction as set forth in section 18 of this act. The department shall encourage surety companies and other private interests to help implement this course of instruction to assist minority and women-owned small contracting businesses. The department shall adopt rules to ensure the proper implementation of the program set forth in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. ASSISTANCE. The department shall seek information, advice, and assistance from regional minority contractor organizations, and the United States small business administration and any other appropriate organization or agency.

The following departments, offices, and agencies shall, at the request of the department, provide information, advice, and assistance to the department:

(1) The department of general administration;

(2) The Washington state business assistance center;

(3) The office of the insurance commissioner;

(4) The Washington state economic development finance authority; and

(5) The office of minority and women's business enterprises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. SPECIALIZED INSTRUCTION FOR SMALL CONTRACTING BUSINESSES. The business assistance center shall modify the entrepreneurial training course established in section 6 of this act in order to provide instruction which is appropriate to the specific needs of contracting businesses. This course of instruction shall be available to resident minority and women-owned small business contractors. The instruction shall be intensive, practical training courses in financing, bidding for contracts, managing, accounting, and recordkeeping for a contracting business, with an emphasis on federal, state, local, or private programs available to assist small contractors. The business assistance center shall appoint professional instructors, with practical knowledge and experience in the field of small business contracting, to teach those courses developed to meet the specific needs of contracting businesses. Instruction shall be offered in major population centers throughout the state at times and locations which are convenient for people in the contracting business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. ACCREDITATION OF SMALL CONTRACTING BUSINESSES. Any resident minority or women-owned small business contractor may select a key management employee or employees to attend any course of instruction established under section 6 of this act. When the records, maintained by the business assistance center, indicate that a key management employee of a small contracting business has attended all the courses offered, and has successfully completed any tests required, the department shall award the small contracting business a certificate of accreditation which acknowledges successful completion of the courses. The department may also award a certificate of accreditation if a review of the key management employee's education, experience, and business history indicates that the business already possesses the knowledge and skills offered through the course of instruction, or if the key management employee successfully completes all tests required of those who attend the entrepreneurial training course.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. PROFESSIONAL SERVICES ASSISTANCE--GRANTS. Any qualified contractor seeking a grant for professional services assistance may apply to the department. If approved, the department may enter into an agreement to provide a grant of up to two thousand five hundred dollars on behalf of a qualified contractor for the acquisition of the professional services of certified public accountants, construction management companies, or any other technical, surety, financial, or managerial professionals. This assistance is only available to a qualified contractor on a one-time basis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. GRANT MONITORING. The department shall administer all grants issued to assist qualified contractors and shall monitor the performance of all grant recipients in order to provide such further assistance as is necessary to ensure that all program requirements are met and that the program's purpose is fulfilled. However, nothing in this chapter should be construed to restrict the rendering of program services to any qualified contractor over and above the services provided by the grant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. BOND GUARANTEE APPLICATIONS. If a qualified contractor makes a bond application to an approved surety company for a public or private contracting job, but fails to obtain the bond because the contractor is unable to meet the requirements of the surety company on such bonding contracts, for reasons other than nonperformance, and if the approved surety company applies to the department to have the bond guaranteed by the program, then the department may provide a bond guarantee of up to seventy-five thousand dollars on behalf of the qualified contractor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. BOND GUARANTEE APPROVAL. Upon receipt of an approved surety company's application for a bond guarantee, the program supervisor shall review the application in order to verify that:

- (1) The bond being sought by the qualified contractor is needed;
- (2) The contracting job is within the qualified contractor's capability to perform; and
- (3) The qualified contractor has not been denied a bond due to nonperformance.

Based upon subsections (1) through (3) of this section, the department shall either approve or disapprove the application. If the application is approved, the department has the authority to enter into a contract with the approved surety company. Under the terms of this contract the approved surety company shall enter into a contract with, and issue the required bond to, the qualified contractor at the standard fees and charges usually made by the company for the type and amount of the bond issued. The bond issued by the approved surety company shall be guaranteed by money in the program fund. The approved surety company shall also agree to make a reasonable, good faith effort to pursue and collect any claims it may have against a qualified contractor who defaults on a bond guaranteed by the program, including, but not limited to, the institution of legal proceedings against the defaulting contractor, prior to collecting on the guarantee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. PROGRAM FUND ESTABLISHED. The Washington state small business bonding assistance program fund is created in the state treasury. Any amounts appropriated, donated, or granted to the program shall be deposited and credited to the program fund. Moneys in the program fund may be spent only after appropriation. Expenditures from the program fund shall only be used as follows:

- (1) To pay the implementation costs of the program provided for in this chapter;
- (2) To be disbursed by the department to enable qualified contractors to obtain services provided for in this chapter; and
- (3) To guarantee bonds issued pursuant to sections 22 and 23 of this act and to pay such bonds in the event of default by a qualified contractor.

However, the full faith and credit of the state of Washington shall not be used to secure the bonds and the state's liability shall be limited to the money appropriated by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. FUND SUPPORT. The department shall solicit funds and support from surety companies and other public and private entities with an interest in assisting Washington's small business contractors and may enter into agreements with such companies and interests by which they provide funds to the program fund to be matched with funds from nonstate sources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The department may receive gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources that may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the Washington state small business bonding assistance program and spend gifts, grants, endowments or any income from the public or private sources according to their terms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. If specific funding for the purposes of sections 15 through 26 of this act, referencing sections 15 through 26 of this act by bill and section numbers, is not provided by June 30, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act, sections 15 through 26 of this act are null and void.

V. LINKED DEPOSITS

Sec. 28. RCW 39.19.030 and 1989 c 175 s 85 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the office of minority and women's business enterprises. The governor shall appoint a director for the office, subject to confirmation by the senate. The director may employ a deputy director and a confidential secretary, both of which shall be exempt under chapter 41.06 RCW, and such staff as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

The office shall consult with the minority and women's business enterprises advisory committee to:

(1) Develop, plan, and implement programs to provide an opportunity for participation by qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses in public works and the process by which goods and services are procured by state agencies and educational institutions from the private sector;

(2) Develop a comprehensive plan insuring that qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses are provided an opportunity to participate in public contracts for public works and goods and services;

(3) Identify barriers to equal participation by qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses in all state agency and educational institution contracts;

(4) Establish annual overall goals for participation by qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses for each state agency and educational institution to be administered on a contract-by-contract basis or on a class-of-contracts basis;

(5) Develop and maintain a central minority and women's business enterprise certification list for all state agencies and educational institutions. No business is entitled to certification under this chapter unless it meets the definition of small business concern as established by the office. All applications for certification under this chapter shall be sworn under oath;

(6) Develop, implement, and operate a system of monitoring compliance with this chapter;

(7) Adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, governing: (a) Establishment of agency goals; (b) development and maintenance of a central minority and women's business enterprise certification program, including a definition of "small business concern" which shall be consistent with the small business requirements defined under section 3 of the Small Business Act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 632, and its implementing regulations as guidance; (c) procedures for monitoring and enforcing compliance with goals, regulations, contract provisions, and this chapter; and (d) utilization of standard clauses by state agencies and educational institutions, as specified in RCW 39.19.050;

(8) Develop and implement, in consultation with the supervisor of the division of banking, a system of monitoring minority and women's business enterprises' access to capital and rating as satisfactory or unsatisfactory the performance of each of the state's public depositories in lending money for minority and women's business enterprises;

(9) Submit an annual report to the governor and the legislature outlining the progress in implementing this chapter;

~~((9))~~ (10) Investigate complaints of violations of this chapter with the assistance of the involved agency or educational institution; and ~~((10))~~ (11) Cooperate and act jointly or by division of labor with the United States or other states, and with political subdivisions of the state of Washington and their respective minority, socially and economically disadvantaged and women business enterprise programs to carry out the purposes of this chapter. However, the power which may be exercised by the office under this subsection permits investigation and imposition of sanctions only if the investigation relates to a possible violation of chapter 39.19 RCW, and not to violation of local ordinances, rules, regulations, however denominated, adopted by political subdivisions of the state.

Sec. 29. RCW 43.85.230 and 1984 c 177 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

The state treasurer may deposit moneys not required to meet current demands upon a term deposit basis not to exceed ~~((one year))~~ five years at such interest rates and upon such conditions as to withdrawals of such moneys as may be agreed upon between the state treasurer and any qualified public depository.

Sec. 30. RCW 43.86A.030 and 1982 c 74 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds held in public depositories not as demand deposits as provided in RCW 43.86A.020 and 43.86A.030, shall be available for a time certificate of deposit investment program according to the following formula: The state treasurer shall apportion to all participating depositories an amount equal to five percent of the three year average mean of general state revenues as certified in accordance with Article VIII, section 1(b) of the state Constitution, or fifty percent of the total surplus treasury investment availability, whichever is less. Within thirty days after certification, those funds determined to be available according to this formula for the time certificate of deposit investment program shall be deposited in qualified public depositories. These deposits shall be allocated among the participating depositories on a basis to be determined by the state treasurer. Effective July 1, 1994, deposits shall be made only in those otherwise qualified public depositories which have received a satisfactory rating from the office of minority and women's business enterprises under RCW 39.19.030(8). The formula so devised shall be a matter of public record giving consideration to, but not limited to deposits, assets, loans, capital structure, investments or some combination of these factors: PROVIDED, That, if in the judgment of the state treasurer the amount of allocation for certificates of deposit as determined by this section will impair the cash flow needs of the state treasury, the state treasurer may adjust the amount of the allocation accordingly.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. This act may be known and cited as the omnibus minority and women-owned businesses assistance act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. Sections 1, 2, and 15 through 26 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. CAPTIONS NOT LAW. Part headings and section captions as used in this act do not constitute part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Skratek, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment to the Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development striking amendment was adopted:

On page 15, after line 23 of the amendment, strike all material through "accordingly." on page 18, line 13, and insert the following:

"V. WASHINGTON STATE LINKED DEPOSIT PROGRAM

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The legislature finds that minority and women's business enterprises have been historically excluded from access to capital in the marketplace. The lack of capital has been a major barrier to the development and expansion of business by various minority groups and women. There has been a significant amount of attention on the capital needs of minority and women's business enterprises. It is the intent of the legislature to remedy the problem of a lack of access to capital by minority and women's business enterprises, and other small businesses by authorizing the state treasurer to operate a program that links state deposits to business loans by financial institutions to minority and women's business enterprises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. A new section is added to chapter 43.86A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The state treasurer shall establish a linked deposit program for investment of deposits in qualified public depositories. As a condition of participating in the program, qualified public depositories must make qualifying loans as provided in this section. Each time certificate of deposit purchased by the state treasurer shall be equal to the amount of the qualifying loan made by the qualified public depository. The state treasurer is authorized to set interest rates on certificates and on qualifying loans consistent with the intent of sections 28 through 32, chapter . . . , Laws of 1993 (sections 28 through 32 of this act) and sound financial practices.

(2) Qualifying loans made under this section are those that:

(a) Are loans that have terms that do not exceed five years;

(b) Are made to a minority or women's business enterprise that has received state certification under chapter 39.19 RCW;

(c) Are made to minority or women's business enterprises that are considered a small business as defined in RCW 43.31.025;

(d) Are made where the interest rate on the loan to the minority or women's business enterprise does not exceed the interest rate on the corresponding time certificate of deposit by two hundred fifty basis points;

(e) Are made where the points or fees charged at loan closing do not exceed one percent of the loan amount; and

(f) Are consistent with other criteria set by the state treasurer.

(3) In setting interest rates of time certificate of deposits, the state treasurer shall offer rates so that a two hundred basis point preference will be given to the qualified public depository.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall provide technical assistance and loan packaging services that enable minority and women-owned business enterprises to obtain financing under the linked deposit program created under section 29 of this act.

(2) The department shall, in consultation with the state treasurer, monitor the performance of loans made to minority and women-owned business enterprises under section 29 of this act.

Sec. 31. RCW 43.85.230 and 1984 c 177 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

The state treasurer may deposit moneys not required to meet current demands upon a term deposit basis not to exceed ~~((one-year))~~ five years at such interest rates and upon such conditions as to withdrawals of such moneys as may be agreed upon between the state treasurer and any qualified public depository.

Sec. 32. RCW 43.86A.030 and 1982 c 74 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Funds held in public depositories not as demand deposits as provided in RCW 43.86A.020 and 43.86A.030, shall be available for a time certificate of deposit investment program according to the following formula: The state treasurer shall apportion to all participating depositories an amount equal to five percent of the three year average mean of general state revenues as certified in accordance with Article VIII, section 1(b) of the state Constitution, or fifty percent of the total surplus treasury investment availability, whichever is less. Within thirty days after certification, those funds determined to be available according to this formula for the time certificate of deposit investment program shall be deposited in qualified public depositories. These deposits shall be allocated among the participating depositories on a basis to be determined by the state treasurer.

(2) The state treasurer may use up to fifty million dollars per year of all funds available under this section for the purposes of section 29 of this act. The amounts made available to these public depositories shall be equal to the amounts of outstanding loans made under section 29 of this act.

(3) The formula so devised shall be a matter of public record giving consideration to, but not limited to deposits, assets, loans, capital structure, investments or some combination of these factors~~((:-PROVIDED, That))~~. However, if in the judgment of the state treasurer the amount of allocation for certificates of deposit as determined by this section will impair the cash flow needs of the state treasury, the state treasurer may adjust the amount of the allocation accordingly.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. A new section is added to chapter 43.86A RCW to read as follows:

The state and those acting as its agents are not liable in any manner for payment of the principal or interest on qualifying loans made under section 29 of this act. Any delay in payments or defaults on the part of the borrower does not in any manner affect the deposit agreement between the qualified public depository and the state treasurer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The linked deposit program shall be terminated on June 30, 1996, as provided in section 35 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, 1997:

(1) Section 29 of this act;

(2) Section 30 of this act; and

(3) Section 33 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. If specific funding for the purposes of sections 28 through 35 of this act, referencing sections 28 through 35 of this act by bill and section numbers, is not provided by June 30, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act, sections 28 through 35 of this act are null and void."

Renumber the remaining part headings and sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following amendment by Senator Pelz to the Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development striking amendment was adopted:

On page 5, after line 23 of the amendment, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

BUSINESS ASSISTANCE CENTER MINORITY AND WOMEN BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT OFFICE. There is established within the department's business assistance center the minority and women business development office. This office shall provide business-related assistance to minorities and women as well as serve as an outreach program to increase minority and women-owned businesses' awareness and use of existing business assistance services."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development striking amendment, as amended, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1493.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1493, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Oke, Senator McCaslin was excused.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1307, by House Committee on Trade, Economic Development and Housing (originally sponsored by Representatives Locke, Eide, Silver, Dunshee, L. Johnson, Pruitt, Brough, Sheldon, Jones, Long, Franklin, Talcott, J. Kohl, Wood, Lemmon, Jacobsen, Wang, Leonard, Quall, Rayburn and King)

Reauthorizing and modifying the Washington service corps.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Sheldon moved that the following Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 50.65.030 and 1987 c 167 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington service corps is established within the employment security department. The commissioner shall:

- (1) Appoint a director (~~(for the exchange)~~) and other personnel as necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter;
- (2) Coordinate youth employment and training efforts under the department's jurisdiction and cooperate with other agencies or departments providing youth services to ensure that funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter will not be expended to duplicate existing services, but will increase the services of youth to the state;
- (3) The employment security department is authorized to place subgrants with other federal, state, and local governmental agencies and private agencies to provide youth employment projects and to increase the numbers of youth employed;
- (4) Determine appropriate financial support levels by private business, community groups, foundations, public agencies, and individuals which will provide matching funds for enrollees in service projects under work agreements. The matching funds requirement may be waived for public agencies or reduced for private agencies;
- (5) Recruit enrollees who are residents of the state unemployed at the time of application and are at least eighteen years of age but have not reached their twenty-sixth birthday;
- (6) Recruit supervising agencies to host the enrollees in full-time service activities (~~(which shall not exceed six)~~) of eleven months' duration(~~(, which may be extended for an additional six months by mutual consent)~~);
- (7) Assist supervising agencies in the development of scholarships and matching funds from private and public agencies, individuals, and foundations in order to support a portion of the enrollee's stipend and benefits;
- (8) Develop general employment guidelines for placement of enrollees in supervising agencies to establish appropriate authority for hiring, firing, grievance procedures, and employment standards which are consistent with state and federal law;
- (9) Match enrollees with appropriate public agencies and available service projects;
- (10) Monitor enrollee activities for compliance with this chapter and compliance with work agreements;
- (11) Assist enrollees in transition to employment upon termination from the programs, including such activities as orientation to the labor market, on-the-job training, and placement in the private sector;
- (12) Establish a program for providing incentives to encourage successful completion of terms of enrollment in the service corps and the continuation of educational pursuits. Such incentives shall be in the form of educational assistance equivalent to two years of community or technical college tuition for eleven months of service. Educational assistance funding shall only be used for tuition, fees, and course-related books and supplies. Enrollees who receive educational assistance funding shall start using it within one year of their service completion and shall finish using it within four years of their service completion;
- (13) Enter into agreements with the state's community and technical college system and other educational institutions or independent nonprofit agencies to provide special education in basic skills, including reading, writing, and mathematics for those participants who may benefit by participation in such classes. Participation is not mandatory but shall be strongly encouraged.

Sec. 2. RCW 50.65.040 and 1987 c 167 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner may select and enroll in the Washington service corps program any person who is at least eighteen years of age but has not reached their twenty-sixth birthday, is a resident of the state, and who is not for medical, legal, or psychological reasons incapable of service. (~~(In the selection of enrollees of the service corps, preference shall be given to youths residing in areas, both urban and rural, in which there exists substantial unemployment above the state average.)~~) Efforts shall be made to enroll youths who are economically, socially, physically, or educationally disadvantaged. The commissioner may prescribe such additional standards and procedures in consultation with supervising agencies as may be necessary in conformance with this chapter. In addition, the commissioner may select and enroll youth fourteen to seventeen years of age on special projects during the summer and at other times during the school year that may complement and support their school curriculum or that link and support service with learning.

Sec. 3. RCW 50.65.060 and 1987 c 167 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

Placements in the Washington service corps shall be made in supervising agencies under work agreements as provided under this chapter and shall include those assignments which provide for addressing community needs and conservation problems and will assist the community in economic development efforts. Each work agreement shall:

- (1) Demonstrate that the service project is appropriate for the enrollee's interests, skills, and abilities and that the project is designed to meet unmet community needs;
- (2) Include a requirement of regular performance evaluation. This shall include clear work performance standards set by the supervising agency and procedures for identifying strengths, recommended improvement areas and conditions for probation or dismissal of the enrollee; and
- (3) Include a commitment for partial financial support for the enrollee (~~(for a)~~) from private industry, public (~~(agency)~~) agencies, community groups, or foundations. The commissioner may establish additional standards for the development of placements for enrollees with supervising agencies and assure that the work agreements comply with those standards. This section shall not apply to conservation corps programs established by chapter 43.220 RCW.

Agencies of the state may use the (~~youth employment exchange~~) Washington service corps for the purpose of employing youth qualifying under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. For each enrollee, the work agreements, or combination of work agreements, developed under RCW 50.65.060 shall:

- (1) Include a variety of experiences consisting of: Indoor activities; outdoor activities; and volunteer activities;
- (2) Provide time for participation in a core training program common to all participants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The Washington service corps scholarship account is created in the custody of the state treasurer. The account shall consist of a portion of Washington service corps funding, deposited by the commissioner, in an amount sufficient to provide for the future awarding of educational assistance grants described in RCW 50.65.030. Expenditures from the account may be used only for educational assistance grants described in RCW 50.65.030. Only the commissioner or the commissioner's designee may authorize expenditures from the account. The account is subject to the allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for expenditures. All earnings of investments of surplus balances in the account shall be deposited to the treasury income account created in RCW 43.84.092.

Sec. 6. RCW 50.65.080 and 1983 1st ex.s. c 50 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner shall seek and may accept, on behalf of the (~~youth employment exchange~~) Washington service corps, charitable donations of cash and other assistance including, but not limited to, equipment and materials if the donations are available for appropriate use for the purposes set forth in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. RCW 50.65.900 and 1987 c 167 s 9 & 1983 1st ex.s. c 50 s 14 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 4 and 5 of this act are each added to chapter 50.65 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 50.65 RCW to read as follows:

No individual may participate in the Washington service program created by chapter . . . (Substitute House Bill No. 1969), Laws of 1993, if the person has previously participated for six months or longer in the Washington service corps within the last three years."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sheldon, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment to the Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development amendment was adopted:

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1197, by House Committee on Human Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Leonard, Cooke, Riley, Flemming, Valle, Brown, G. Cole, Mielke, Veloria, Wineberry, Dorn, Anderson, J. Kohl, Karahalios, H. Myers, Vance, Ogden, King, Jones, Eide, Johanson, R. Meyers, Cothorn, Roland, Holm, Wolfe, Franklin, Thibaudeau, Springer, Basich, Kremen, Foreman, Kessler, Campbell, Dunshee, Lemmon, Linville and Pruitt)

Allowing families to retain a greater percentage of income before public benefits are reduced or terminated.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Health and Human Services amendment be adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Public assistance is intended to be a temporary financial relief program, recognizing that families can be confronted with a financial crisis at any time in life. Successful public assistance programs depend on the availability of adequate resources to assist individuals deemed eligible for the benefits of such a program. In this way, eligible families are given sufficient assistance to reenter productive employment in a minimal time period.

(2) The current public assistance system requires a reduction in grant standards when income is received. In most cases, family income is limited to levels substantially below the standard of need. This is a strong disincentive to work. To remove this disincentive, the legislature intends to allow families to retain a greater percentage of income before it results in the reduction or termination of benefits;

(3) Employment, training, and education services provided to employable recipients of public assistance are effective tools in achieving economic self-sufficiency. Support services that are targeted to the specific needs of the individual offer the best hope of achieving economic self-sufficiency in a cost-effective manner;

(4) State welfare-to-work programs, which move individuals from dependence to economic independence, must be operated cooperatively and collaboratively between state agencies and programs. They also must include public assistance recipients as active partners in self-sufficiency planning activities. Participants in economic independence programs and services will benefit from the concepts of personal empowerment, self-motivation, and self-esteem; and

(5) Many barriers to economic independence are found in federal statutes and rules, and provide states with limited options for restructuring existing programs in order to create incentives for employment over continued dependence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of determining the amount of grant payments to recipients of aid to families with dependent children, all countable nonexempt earned income shall be subtracted from an amount equal to one hundred percent of the need standard. The department shall adopt rules necessary to implement the intent of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall amend the state plan to eliminate the one hundred hour work rule for recipients of aid to families with dependent children-employable. The department shall seek federal approval for the amendment to the state plan and report on federal action to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by December 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department shall initiate a pilot project using electronic benefit transfer technology for the food stamp, aid to families with dependent children, and women, infant, and children programs. The department shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature on the project implementation status by December 1, 1994.

Sec. 5. RCW 74.04.005 and 1992 c 165 s 1 and 1992 c 136 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Public assistance" or "assistance"—Public aid to persons in need thereof for any cause, including services, medical care, assistance grants, disbursing orders, work relief, general assistance and federal-aid assistance.

(2) "Department"—The department of social and health services.

(3) "County or local office"—The administrative office for one or more counties or designated service areas.

(4) "Director" or "secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

(5) "Federal-aid assistance"—The specific categories of assistance for which provision is made in any federal law existing or hereafter passed by which payments are made from the federal government to the state in aid or in respect to payment by the state for public assistance rendered to any category of needy persons for which provision for federal funds or aid may from time to time be made, or a federally administered needs-based program.

(6)(a) "General assistance"—Aid to persons in need who:

(i) Are not eligible to receive federal-aid assistance, other than food stamps and medical assistance; however, an individual who refuses or fails to cooperate in obtaining federal-aid assistance, without good cause, is not eligible for general assistance;

(ii) Meet one of the following conditions:

(A) Pregnant: PROVIDED, That need is based on the current income and resource requirements of the federal aid to families with dependent children program: PROVIDED FURTHER, That during any period in which an aid for dependent children employable program is not in operation, only those pregnant women who are categorically eligible for medicaid are eligible for general assistance; ((or))

(B) Under twenty years of age and ineligible for aid to families with dependent children solely due to federal age requirements, and are full-time students reasonably expected to complete a program of secondary school or the equivalent level of vocational or technical training before the end of the month in which the person reaches age twenty. Reasonably expected to complete a program of secondary school or the equivalent level of vocational or technical training means maintaining a grade point average equal to or greater than a 2.5. For purposes of determining payment amount, the student is considered a member of the aid to families with dependent children household of which the student would be a member but for the federal age requirement. In determining eligibility, earnings of a full-time student shall be disregarded, in accordance with department standards, notwithstanding the earnings limitation imposed by RCW 74.04.266.

(C) Subject to chapter 165, Laws of 1992, incapacitated from gainful employment by reason of bodily or mental infirmity that will likely continue for a minimum of ninety days as determined by the department((-)); or

((or)) (D) Persons who are unemployable due to alcohol or drug addiction are not eligible for general assistance.

Persons receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, or becoming eligible for such assistance thereafter, due to an alcohol or drug-related incapacity, shall be referred to appropriate assessment, treatment, shelter, or supplemental security income referral services as authorized under chapter 74.50 RCW. Referrals shall be made at the time of application or at the time of eligibility review. Alcoholic and drug addicted clients who are receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, may remain on general assistance if they otherwise retain their eligibility until they are assessed for services under chapter 74.50 RCW. Subsection (6)(a)(ii)((B))(C) of this section shall not be construed to prohibit the department from granting general assistance benefits to alcoholics and drug addicts who are incapacitated due to other physical or mental conditions that meet the eligibility criteria for the general assistance program;

(iii) Are citizens or aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise residing in the United States under color of law; and

(iv) Have furnished the department their social security account number. If the social security account number cannot be furnished because it has not been issued or is not known, an application for a number shall be made prior to authorization of assistance, and the social security number shall be provided to the department upon receipt.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6)(a)(i), (ii), and (c) of this section, general assistance shall be provided to the following recipients of federal-aid assistance:

(i) Recipients of supplemental security income whose need, as defined in this section, is not met by such supplemental security income grant because of separation from a spouse; or

(ii) ~~(To the extent authorized by the legislature in the biennial appropriations act, to)~~ Recipients of aid to families with dependent children whose needs are not being met because of a temporary reduction in monthly income below the entitled benefit payment level caused by loss or reduction of wages or unemployment compensation benefits or some other unforeseen circumstances. The amount of general assistance authorized shall not exceed the difference between the entitled benefit payment level and the amount of income actually received. Payment shall be made within fifteen days of the request.

(c) General assistance shall be provided only to persons who are not members of assistance units receiving federal aid assistance, except as provided in subsection (6)(a)(ii)(A) and (b) of this section, and will accept available services which can reasonably be expected to enable the person to work or reduce the need for assistance unless there is good cause to refuse. Failure to accept such services shall result in termination until the person agrees to cooperate in accepting such services and subject to the following maximum periods of ineligibility after reapplication:

(i) First failure: One week;

(ii) Second failure within six months: One month;

(iii) Third and subsequent failure within one year: Two months.

(d) Persons found eligible for general assistance based on incapacity from gainful employment may, if otherwise eligible, receive general assistance pending application for federal supplemental security income benefits. Any general assistance that is subsequently duplicated by the person's receipt of supplemental security income for the same period shall be considered a debt due the state and shall by operation of law be subject to recovery through all available legal remedies.

(e) The department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(f) The process implementing the medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontroverted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(g) Recipients of general assistance based upon a finding of incapacity from gainful employment who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient eligible by reason of incapacitation. Recipients of general assistance based upon pregnancy who relinquish their child for adoption, remain otherwise eligible, and are not eligible to receive benefits under the federal aid to families with dependent children program shall not have their benefits terminated until the end of the month in which the period of six weeks following the birth of the recipient's child falls. Recipients of the federal aid to families with dependent children program who lose their eligibility solely because of the birth and relinquishment of the qualifying child may receive general assistance through the end of the month in which the period of six weeks following the birth of the child falls.

(7) "Applicant"—Any person who has made a request, or on behalf of whom a request has been made, to any county or local office for assistance.

(8) "Recipient"—Any person receiving assistance and in addition those dependents whose needs are included in the recipient's assistance.

(9) "Standards of assistance"—The level of income required by an applicant or recipient to maintain a level of living specified by the department.

(10) "Resource"—Any asset, tangible or intangible, owned by or available to the applicant at the time of application, which can be applied toward meeting the applicant's need, either directly or by conversion into money or its equivalent: PROVIDED, That an applicant may retain the following described resources and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources.

(a) A home, which is defined as real property owned and used by an applicant or recipient as a place of residence, together with a reasonable amount of property surrounding and contiguous thereto, which is used by and useful to the applicant. Whenever a recipient shall cease to use such property for residential purposes, either for himself or his dependents, the property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need, and if the recipient or his dependents absent themselves from the home for a period of ninety consecutive days such absence, unless due to hospitalization or health reasons or a natural disaster, shall raise a rebuttable presumption of abandonment: PROVIDED, That if in the opinion of three physicians the recipient will be unable to return to the home during his lifetime, and the home is not occupied by a spouse or dependent children or disabled sons or daughters, such property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need.

(b) Household furnishings and personal effects and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient, as limited by the department consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions for federal aid assistance.

(c) A motor vehicle, other than a motor home, used and useful having an equity value not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars.

(d) All other resources, including any excess of values exempted, not to exceed one thousand dollars or other limit as set by the department, to be consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions necessary for federal aid assistance.

(e) Applicants for or recipients of general assistance shall have their eligibility based on resource limitations consistent with the aid to families with dependent children program rules adopted by the department.

(f) If an applicant for or recipient of public assistance possesses property and belongings in excess of the ceiling value, such value shall be used in determining the need of the applicant or recipient, except that: (i) The department may exempt resources or income when the income and resources are determined necessary to the applicant's or recipient's restoration to independence, to decrease the need for public assistance, or to aid in rehabilitating the applicant or recipient or a dependent of the applicant or recipient; and (ii) the department may provide grant assistance for a period not to exceed nine months from the date the agreement is signed pursuant to this section to persons who are otherwise ineligible because of excess real property owned by such persons when they are making a good faith effort to dispose of that property: PROVIDED, That:

(A) The applicant or recipient signs an agreement to repay the lesser of the amount of aid received or the net proceeds of such sale;

(B) If the owner of the excess property ceases to make good faith efforts to sell the property, the entire amount of assistance may become an overpayment and a debt due the state and may be recovered pursuant to RCW 43.20B.630;

(C) Applicants and recipients are advised of their right to a fair hearing and afforded the opportunity to challenge a decision that good faith efforts to sell have ceased, prior to assessment of an overpayment under this section; and

(D) At the time assistance is authorized, the department files a lien without a sum certain on the specific property.

(11) "Income"—(a) All appreciable gains in real or personal property (cash or kind) or other assets, which are received by or become available for use and enjoyment by an applicant or recipient during the month of application or after applying for or receiving public assistance. The department may by rule and regulation exempt income received by an applicant for or recipient of public assistance which can be used by him to decrease his need for public assistance or to aid in rehabilitating him or his dependents, but such exemption shall not, unless otherwise provided in this title, exceed the exemptions of resources granted under this chapter to an applicant for public assistance. In determining the amount of assistance to which an applicant or recipient of aid to families with dependent children is entitled, the department is hereby authorized to disregard as a resource or income the earned income exemptions consistent with federal requirements. The department may permit the above exemption of earnings of a child to be retained by such child to cover the cost of special future identifiable needs even though the total exceeds the exemptions or resources granted to applicants and recipients of public assistance, but consistent with federal requirements. In formulating rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter, the department shall define income and resources and the availability thereof, consistent with federal requirements. All resources and income not specifically exempted, and any income or other economic benefit derived from the use of, or appreciation in value of, exempt resources, shall be considered in determining the need of an applicant or recipient of public assistance.

(b) If, under applicable federal requirements, the state has the option of considering property in the form of lump sum compensatory awards or related settlements received by an applicant or recipient as income or as a resource, the department shall consider such property to be a resource.

(12) "Need"—The difference between the applicant's or recipient's standards of assistance for himself and the dependent members of his family, as measured by the standards of the department, and value of all nonexempt resources and nonexempt income received by or available to the applicant or recipient and the dependent members of his family.

(13) For purposes of determining eligibility for public assistance and participation levels in the cost of medical care, the department shall exempt restitution payments made to people of Japanese and Aleut ancestry pursuant to the Civil Liberties Act of 1988 and the Aleutian and Pribilof Island Restitution Act passed by congress, P.L. 100-383, including all income and resources derived therefrom.

(14) In the construction of words and phrases used in this title, the singular number shall include the plural, the masculine gender shall include both the feminine and neuter genders and the present tense shall include the past and future tenses, unless the context thereof shall clearly indicate to the contrary.

Sec. 6. RCW 74.25.020 and 1992 c 165 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of social and health services is authorized to contract with public and private employment and training agencies and other public service entities to provide services prescribed or allowed under the federal social security act, as amended, to carry out the purposes of the jobs training program. The department of social and health services has sole authority and responsibility to carry out the job opportunities and basic skills training program. No contracting entity shall have the authority to review, change, or disapprove any administrative decision, or otherwise substitute its judgment for that of the department of social and health services as to the application of policies and rules adopted by the department of social and health services.

(2) To the extent feasible under federal law, the department of social and health services and all entities contracting with it shall give first priority of service to individuals volunteering for program participation (~~PROVIDED, That the department shall require nonexempt parents under age twenty-four to actively participate in orientation, assessment, and either education, vocational training, or employment programs. At least one nonexempt parent in the aid to families with dependent children employable program shall actively participate in orientation, assessment, and either job search, education, training, or employment. Social services shall be offered to participants in accordance with federal law. The department shall adopt appropriate sanctions to ensure compliance with the requirements and policies of this chapter.~~).

(3) The department of social and health services shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW establishing criteria constituting circumstances of good cause for an individual failing or refusing to participate in an assigned program component, or failing or refusing to accept or retain employment. These criteria shall include, but not be limited to, the following circumstances: (a) If the individual is a parent or other relative personally providing care for a child under age six years, and the employment would require the individual to work more than twenty hours per week; (b) if child care, or day care for an incapacitated individual living in the same home as a dependent child, is necessary for an individual to participate or continue participation in the program or accept employment, and such care is not available, and the department of social and health services fails to provide such care; (c) the employment would result in the family of the participant experiencing a net loss of cash income; or (d) circumstances that are beyond the control of the individual's household, either on a short-term or on an ongoing basis.

(4) The department of social and health services shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW as necessary to effectuate the intent and purpose of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department may provide grants to community action agencies or other local nonprofit organizations to provide job opportunities and basic skills training program participants with transitional support services, one-to-one assistance, and job retention services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows:

Minors who are head of a household receiving aid to families with dependent children benefits as the head of a household may have a protective payee designated to receive their welfare funds. Whenever possible, protective payees shall be a responsible, immediate adult family member. Protective payees shall have a duty to make sure housing and utility costs are paid in a timely manner. Where an adequate protective payee cannot be found, the department shall assume the protective payee function.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows:

In determining food stamp eligibility, the department shall exclude as income the child support exempted by 42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(a)(8)(vi) or 657 (b).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. By October 1, 1993, the department shall request the governor to seek congressional and federal agency action on any federal legislation or federal regulation that may be necessary to implement chapter 74.-- RCW (sections 2 through 4, 7, and 10 of this act), and any other section of chapter . . . , Laws of 1993 (this act) that may require a federal waiver.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 2 through 4, 7, and 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment to the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment be adopted:

On page 1, at the beginning of the amendment, strike the entire amendment and title amendment and insert the following:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Public assistance is intended to be a temporary financial relief program, recognizing that families can be confronted with a financial crisis at any time in life. Successful public assistance programs depend on the availability of adequate resources to assist individuals deemed eligible for the benefits of such a program. In this way, eligible families are given sufficient assistance to reenter productive employment in a minimal time period.

(2) The current public assistance system requires a reduction in grant standards when income is received. In most cases, family income is limited to levels substantially below the standard of need. This is a strong disincentive to work. To remove this disincentive, the legislature intends to allow families to retain a greater percentage of income before it results in the reduction or termination of benefits;

(3) Employment, training, and education services provided to employable recipients of public assistance are effective tools in achieving economic self-sufficiency. Support services that are targeted to the specific needs of the individual offer the best hope of achieving economic self-sufficiency in a cost-effective manner;

(4) State welfare-to-work programs, which move individuals from dependence to economic independence, must be operated cooperatively and collaboratively between state agencies and programs. They also must include public assistance recipients as active partners in self-sufficiency planning activities. Participants in economic independence programs and services will benefit from the concepts of personal empowerment, self-motivation, and self-esteem;

(5) Many barriers to economic independence are found in federal statutes and rules, and provide states with limited options for restructuring existing programs in order to create incentives for employment over continued dependence;

(6) The legislature finds that the personal and societal costs of teenage childbearing are substantial. Teen parents are less likely to finish high school and more likely to depend upon public assistance than women who delay childbearing until adulthood; and

(7) The legislature intends that an effort be made to ensure that each teenage parent who is a public assistance recipient live in a setting that increases the likelihood that the teen parent will complete high school and achieve economic independence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of determining the amount of grant payments to recipients of aid to families with dependent children, all countable nonexempt earned income shall be subtracted from an amount equal to fifty-five percent of the need standard. The department shall adopt rules necessary to implement the intent of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall amend the state plan to eliminate the one hundred hour work rule for recipients of aid to families with dependent children-employable. The department shall seek federal approval for the amendment to the state plan and report on federal action to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by December 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department shall initiate a pilot project using electronic benefit transfer technology for the food stamp, aid to families with dependent children, and women, infant, and children programs. The department shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature on the project implementation status by December 1, 1994.

Sec. 5. RCW 74.04.005 and 1992 c 165 s 1 and 1992 c 136 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Public assistance" or "assistance"—Public aid to persons in need thereof for any cause, including services, medical care, assistance grants, disbursing orders, work relief, general assistance and federal-aid assistance.

(2) "Department"—The department of social and health services.

(3) "County or local office"—The administrative office for one or more counties or designated service areas.

(4) "Director" or "secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

(5) "Federal-aid assistance"—The specific categories of assistance for which provision is made in any federal law existing or hereafter passed by which payments are made from the federal government to the state in aid or in respect to payment by the state for public assistance rendered to any category of needy persons for which provision for federal funds or aid may from time to time be made, or a federally administered needs-based program.

(6)(a) "General assistance"—Aid to persons in need who:

(i) Are not eligible to receive federal-aid assistance, other than food stamps and medical assistance; however, an individual who refuses or fails to cooperate in obtaining federal-aid assistance, without good cause, is not eligible for general assistance;

(ii) Meet one of the following conditions:

(A) Pregnant: PROVIDED, That need is based on the current income and resource requirements of the federal aid to families with dependent children program: PROVIDED FURTHER, That during any period in which an aid for dependent children employable program is not in operation, only those pregnant women who are categorically eligible for medicaid are eligible for general assistance; ((or))

(B) Under twenty years of age and ineligible for aid to families with dependent children solely due to federal age requirements, and are full-time students reasonably expected to complete a program of secondary school or the equivalent level of vocational or technical training before the end of the month in which the person reaches age twenty. Reasonably expected to complete a program of secondary school or the equivalent level of vocational or technical training means maintaining a grade point average equal to or greater than a 2.5. For purposes of determining payment amount, the student is considered a member of the aid to families with dependent children household of which the student would be a member but for the federal age requirement. In determining eligibility, earnings of a full-time student shall be disregarded, in accordance with department standards, notwithstanding the earnings limitation imposed by RCW 74.04.266.

~~(C)~~ Subject to chapter 165, Laws of 1992, incapacitated from gainful employment by reason of bodily or mental infirmity that will likely continue for a minimum of ninety days as determined by the department~~((-))~~; or

~~((C))~~ (D) Persons who are unemployable due to alcohol or drug addiction are not eligible for general assistance. Persons receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, or becoming eligible for such assistance thereafter, due to an alcohol or drug-related incapacity, shall be referred to appropriate assessment, treatment, shelter, or supplemental security income referral services as authorized under chapter 74.50 RCW. Referrals shall be made at the time of application or at the time of eligibility review. Alcoholic and drug addicted clients who are receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, may remain on general assistance if they otherwise retain their eligibility until they are assessed for services under chapter 74.50 RCW. Subsection (6)(a)(ii)~~((B))~~(C) of this section shall not be construed to prohibit the department from granting general assistance benefits to alcoholics and drug addicts who are incapacitated due to other physical or mental conditions that meet the eligibility criteria for the general assistance program;

(iii) Are citizens or aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise residing in the United States under color of law; and

(iv) Have furnished the department their social security account number. If the social security account number cannot be furnished because it has not been issued or is not known, an application for a number shall be made prior to authorization of assistance, and the social security number shall be provided to the department upon receipt.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6)(a)(i), (ii), and (c) of this section, general assistance shall be provided to the following recipients of federal-aid assistance:

(i) Recipients of supplemental security income whose need, as defined in this section, is not met by such supplemental security income grant because of separation from a spouse; or

(ii) ~~((To the extent authorized by the legislature in the biennial appropriations act, to))~~ Recipients of aid to families with dependent children whose needs are not being met because of a temporary reduction in monthly income below the entitled benefit payment level caused by loss or reduction of wages or unemployment compensation benefits or some other unforeseen circumstances. The amount of general assistance authorized shall not exceed the difference between the entitled benefit payment level and the amount of income actually received. Payment shall be made within fifteen days of the request.

(c) General assistance shall be provided only to persons who are not members of assistance units receiving federal aid assistance, except as provided in subsection (6)(a)(ii)(A) and (b) of this section, and will accept available services which can reasonably be expected to enable the person to work or reduce the need for assistance unless there is good cause to refuse. Failure to accept such services shall result in termination until the person agrees to cooperate in accepting such services and subject to the following maximum periods of ineligibility after reapplication:

(i) First failure: One week;

(ii) Second failure within six months: One month;

(iii) Third and subsequent failure within one year: Two months.

(d) Persons found eligible for general assistance based on incapacity from gainful employment may, if otherwise eligible, receive general assistance pending application for federal supplemental security income benefits. Any general assistance that is subsequently duplicated by the person's receipt of supplemental security income for the same period shall be considered a debt due the state and shall by operation of law be subject to recovery through all available legal remedies.

(e) The department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(f) The process implementing the medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontroverted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(g) Recipients of general assistance based upon a finding of incapacity from gainful employment who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient eligible by reason of incapacitation. Recipients of general assistance based upon pregnancy who relinquish their child for adoption, remain otherwise eligible, and are not eligible to receive benefits under the federal aid to families with dependent children program shall not have their benefits terminated until the end of the month in which the period of six weeks following the birth of the recipient's child falls. Recipients of the federal aid to families with dependent children program who lose their eligibility solely because of the birth and relinquishment of the qualifying child may receive general assistance through the end of the month in which the period of six weeks following the birth of the child falls.

(h) Students with earnings shall not be eligible for the essential persons program unless the earnings are disregarded.

(7) "Applicant"—Any person who has made a request, or on behalf of whom a request has been made, to any county or local office for assistance.

(8) "Recipient"—Any person receiving assistance and in addition those dependents whose needs are included in the recipient's assistance.

(9) "Standards of assistance"—The level of income required by an applicant or recipient to maintain a level of living specified by the department.

(10) "Resource"—Any asset, tangible or intangible, owned by or available to the applicant at the time of application, which can be applied toward meeting the applicant's need, either directly or by conversion into money or its equivalent: PROVIDED, That an applicant may retain the following described resources and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources.

(a) A home, which is defined as real property owned and used by an applicant or recipient as a place of residence, together with a reasonable amount of property surrounding and contiguous thereto, which is used by and useful to the applicant. Whenever a recipient shall cease to use such property for residential purposes, either for himself or his dependents, the property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need, and if the recipient or his dependents absent themselves from the home for a period of ninety consecutive days such absence, unless due to hospitalization or health reasons or a natural disaster, shall raise a rebuttable presumption of abandonment: PROVIDED, That if in the opinion of three physicians the recipient will be unable to return to the home during his lifetime, and the home is not occupied by a spouse or dependent children or disabled sons or daughters, such property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need.

(b) Household furnishings and personal effects and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient, as limited by the department consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions for federal aid assistance.

(c) A motor vehicle, other than a motor home, used and useful having an equity value not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars.

(d) All other resources, including any excess of values exempted, not to exceed one thousand dollars or other limit as set by the department, to be consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions necessary for federal aid assistance.

(e) Applicants for or recipients of general assistance shall have their eligibility based on resource limitations consistent with the aid to families with dependent children program rules adopted by the department.

(f) If an applicant for or recipient of public assistance possesses property and belongings in excess of the ceiling value, such value shall be used in determining the need of the applicant or recipient, except that: (i) The department may exempt resources or income when the income and resources are determined necessary to the applicant's or recipient's restoration to independence, to decrease the need for public assistance, or to aid in rehabilitating the applicant or recipient or a dependent of the applicant or recipient; and (ii) the department may provide grant assistance for a period not to exceed nine months from the date the agreement is signed pursuant to this section to persons who are otherwise ineligible because of excess real property owned by such persons when they are making a good faith effort to dispose of that property: PROVIDED, That:

(A) The applicant or recipient signs an agreement to repay the lesser of the amount of aid received or the net proceeds of such sale;

(B) If the owner of the excess property ceases to make good faith efforts to sell the property, the entire amount of assistance may become an overpayment and a debt due the state and may be recovered pursuant to RCW 43.20B.630;

(C) Applicants and recipients are advised of their right to a fair hearing and afforded the opportunity to challenge a decision that good faith efforts to sell have ceased, prior to assessment of an overpayment under this section; and

(D) At the time assistance is authorized, the department files a lien without a sum certain on the specific property.

(11) "Income"—(a) All appreciable gains in real or personal property (cash or kind) or other assets, which are received by or become available for use and enjoyment by an applicant or recipient during the month of application or after applying for or receiving public assistance. The department may by rule and regulation exempt income received by an applicant for or recipient of public assistance which can be used by him to decrease his need for public assistance or to aid in rehabilitating him or his dependents, but such exemption shall not, unless otherwise provided in this title, exceed the exemptions of resources granted under this chapter to an applicant for public assistance. In determining the amount of assistance to which an applicant or recipient of aid to families with dependent children is entitled, the department is hereby authorized to disregard as a resource or income the earned income exemptions consistent with federal requirements. The department may permit the above exemption of earnings of a child to be retained by such child to cover the cost of special future identifiable needs even though the total exceeds the exemptions or resources granted to applicants and recipients of public assistance, but consistent with federal requirements. In formulating rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter, the department shall define income and resources and the availability thereof, consistent with federal requirements. All resources and income not specifically exempted, and any income or other economic benefit derived from the use of, or appreciation in value of, exempt resources, shall be considered in determining the need of an applicant or recipient of public assistance.

(b) If, under applicable federal requirements, the state has the option of considering property in the form of lump sum compensatory awards or related settlements received by an applicant or recipient as income or as a resource, the department shall consider such property to be a resource.

(12) "Need"—The difference between the applicant's or recipient's standards of assistance for himself and the dependent members of his family, as measured by the standards of the department, and value of all nonexempt resources and nonexempt income received by or available to the applicant or recipient and the dependent members of his family.

(13) For purposes of determining eligibility for public assistance and participation levels in the cost of medical care, the department shall exempt restitution payments made to people of Japanese and Aleut ancestry pursuant to the Civil Liberties Act of 1988 and the Aleutian and Pribilof Island Restitution Act passed by congress, P.L. 100-383, including all income and resources derived therefrom.

(14) In the construction of words and phrases used in this title, the singular number shall include the plural, the masculine gender shall include both the feminine and neuter genders and the present tense shall include the past and future tenses, unless the context thereof shall clearly indicate to the contrary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall amend the state plan to include an aid to families with dependent children essential persons program that would, to the extent permitted under federal law, allow eighteen to twenty year old students to be eligible for federal aid to families with dependent children matching grants.

Sec. 7. RCW 74.25.020 and 1992 c 165 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of social and health services is authorized to contract with public and private employment and training agencies and other public service entities to provide services prescribed or allowed under the federal social security act, as amended, to carry out the purposes of the jobs training program. The department of social and health services has sole authority and responsibility to carry out the job opportunities and basic skills training program. No contracting entity shall have the authority to review, change, or disapprove any administrative decision, or otherwise substitute its judgment for that of the department of social and health services as to the application of policies and rules adopted by the department of social and health services.

(2) To the extent feasible under federal law, the department of social and health services and all entities contracting with it shall give first priority of service to individuals volunteering for program participation(~~(: PROVIDED, That the department shall require nonexempt parents under age twenty-four to actively participate in orientation, assessment, and either education, vocational training, or employment programs. At least one nonexempt parent in the aid to families with dependent children employable program shall actively participate in orientation, assessment, and either job search, education, training, or employment. Social services shall be offered to participants in accordance with federal law. The department shall adopt appropriate sanctions to ensure compliance with the requirements and policies of this chapter)~~)).

(3) The department of social and health services shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW establishing criteria constituting circumstances of good cause for an individual failing or refusing to participate in an assigned program component, or failing or refusing to accept or retain employment. These criteria shall include, but not be limited to, the following circumstances: (a) If the individual is a parent or other relative personally providing care for a child under age six years, and the employment would require the individual to work more than twenty hours per week; (b) if child care, or day care for an incapacitated individual living in the same home as a dependent child, is necessary for an individual to participate or continue participation in the program or accept employment, and such care is not available, and the department of social and health services fails to provide such care; (c) the employment would result in the family of the participant experiencing a net loss of cash income; or (d) circumstances that are beyond the control of the individual's household, either on a short-term or on an ongoing basis.

(4) The department of social and health services shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW as necessary to effectuate the intent and purpose of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department may provide grants to community action agencies or other local nonprofit organizations to provide job opportunities and basic skills training program participants with transitional support services, one-to-one assistance, and job retention services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department of social and health services shall design a program for implementation involving recipients of aid to families with dependent children. A goal of this program is to develop a system that segments the aid to families with dependent children recipient population and identifies subgroups, matches services to the needs of the subgroup, and prioritizes available services. The department shall specify the services to be offered in each population segment. The general focus of the services offered shall be on job training, work force preparedness, and job retention.

The program shall be designed for state-wide implementation on July 1, 1994. A proposal for implementation may include phasing certain components over time or geographic area. The department shall submit this program to the appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives by December 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 74.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As part of the orientation and assessment conducted pursuant to RCW 74.25.020, the department shall assist the family of the recipient in determining, in the following order of priority, the most appropriate living situation that will best ensure the safety and well-being for each recipient of aid to families with dependent children who is receiving those benefits as a head of household and is under age eighteen. Appropriate living situations may include, but are not limited to:

- (a) The parent's home;
- (b) The home of a relative;
- (c) A group living situation with adult supervision and guidance;
- (d) Living independently; and
- (e) Payment of the recipient's grant to another as provided in RCW 74.12.250.

(2) In conducting the assessment, the department shall consider all relevant factors, including but not limited to:

- (a) Whether the recipient is enrolled in and attending school;
- (b) Whether the recipient is employed;
- (c) The situation in the home of the recipient's parents, including but not limited to, whether there is substance abuse or domestic violence in the home and the adequacy of the dwelling; and
- (d) Whether there is a history of physical, emotional, or sexual abuse of the recipient by a person living in or frequenting the recipient's parents' home.

(3) If, as a result of the assessment, the department becomes aware of a recipient's need for other services that will help the recipient complete high school or achieve economic independence, and be an effective parent, the department shall make every effort to link the recipient with the services, including parenting classes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows:

In determining food stamp eligibility, the department shall exclude as income the child support exempted by 42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(a)(8)(vi) or 657 (b).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. By October 1, 1993, the department shall request the governor to seek congressional and federal agency action on any federal legislation or federal regulation that may be necessary to implement chapter 74.-- RCW (sections 2 through 4, 8, and 12 of this act), and any other section of chapter . . . , Laws of 1993 (this act) that may require a federal waiver.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 2 through 4, 8, and 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Section 2 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1994, if specific funding for the purposes of section 2 of this act, referencing section 2 of this act by bill and section number, is provided by July 1, 1994, in the omnibus appropriations act. If specific funding is not so provided, section 2 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Section 3 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1993, if specific funding for the purposes of section 3 of this act, referencing section 3 of this act by bill and section number, is provided by July 1, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act. If specific funding is not so provided, section 3 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 4 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1993, if specific funding for the purposes of section 4 of this act, referencing section 4 of this act by bill and section number, is provided by July 1, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act. If specific funding is not so provided, section 4 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Section 5 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1993, if specific funding for the purposes of section 5 of this act, referencing section 5 of this act by bill and section number, is provided by July 1, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act. If specific funding is not so provided, section 5 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Section 11 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1994, if specific funding for the purposes of section 11 of this act, referencing section 11 of this act by bill and section number, is provided by July 1, 1994, in the omnibus appropriations act. If specific funding is not so provided, section 11 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1197.

The Committee on Ways and Means amendment to the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1197 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment, as amended by the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1197.

The Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment, as amended by the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1197 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "assistance;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 74.25.020; reenacting and amending RCW 74.04.005; adding new sections to chapter 74.04 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.12 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 74 RCW; creating new sections; providing effective dates; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1197, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Talmadge, as we were adopting the amendments, did we adopt the Health and Human Services amendment to the Ways and Means amendment?"

Senator Talmadge: "Vice versus, we adopted the Ways and Means Committee amendment to the Health and Human Services Committee amendment."

Senator Anderson: "There is still some confusion about the food stamp cash out in this. Could you point out what section in the Ways and Means amendment that language is, then?"

Senator Talmadge: "There is no food stamp cash out in this bill. If I could explain, the two places where food stamps crop up or where people might have that perception, there is a pilot project that is allowed for electronic benefits transfer in the bill. That is not cashing out food stamps. This is merely to avoid paper work. It is a pilot project to examine the question of whether elimination of paper work would be useful.

"The second piece is the bill that Senator Winsley actually brought to the committee. The fifty dollar child support pass-through for food stamps. Under existing law, we provide a fifty dollar incentive to people that work with us--a fifty dollar food stamp incentive--for people that work with us in making child support collections. The way the law is set up with this fifty dollar amount coming in, it might make them ineligible for certain aspects of public assistance. What we have told the Department of Social and Health Services to do is to coordinate the eligibility levels for food stamps and for public assistance for these people that are helping us gain monies to the state by collecting child support from people that should pay it. There is no food stamp cash out in this bill, as was true in the original House Bill."

Senator Anderson: "If I may, in the original House Bill, in the New Section 5, there was a reference--'The Department may replace food stamps with a cash equivalent for individuals eligible--on and on--for if Congress grants that.' That language has been removed?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes, it is not in this bill."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1197, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1197, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; Nays, 9; Absent, 0; Excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 38.

Voting nay: Senators Amondson, Barr, Cantu, McCaslin, McDonald, Newhouse, Roach, Smith, L. and West - 9.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter and Owen - 2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1197, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1307, as amended by the Senate, deferred on third reading earlier today.

REMARKS BY SENATOR SHELDON

Senator Sheldon: "Thank you, Mr. President, and I appreciate your patience. I would like to respond to a question by Senator Deccio on funding for the Washington Service Corp. The total cost of the program is slightly in excess of five million dollars. One point eight million dollars is in the existing administrative contingency fund, one point one will be from matching local funds, and this is consistent with what has been done in the past. Seven hundred thousand has been appropriated by the House Committee and that does leave some funding still unavailable currently, but the program will be cut back if that funding is not available."

Senator Deccio: "Thank you, I would like to thank Senator Sheldon. My concern was that if there was not sufficient funds, the program would be cut rather than figuring out some way to levy some additional taxes. I thank her for the information."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sheldon, Senator Fraser was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1307, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1307, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Adopting the revised uniform commercial code on bulk sales.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment was adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6-101 The following acts or parts of acts are repealed:

- (1) RCW 62A.6-101 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 6-101;
- (2) RCW 62A.6-102 and 1967 c 114 s 2 & 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 6-102;
- (3) RCW 62A.6-103 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 6-103;
- (4) RCW 62A.6-104 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 33 & 1965 ex.s. c 156 s 6-104;
- (5) RCW 62A.6-105 and 1971 c 23 s 1 & 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 6-105;
- (6) RCW 62A.6-106 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 6-106;
- (7) RCW 62A.6-107 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 34 & 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 6-107;
- (8) RCW 62A.6-108 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 6-108;
- (9) RCW 62A.6-109 and 1967 c 114 s 3 & 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 6-109;
- (10) RCW 62A.6-110 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 6-110;
- (11) RCW 62A.6-111 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 6-111; and
- (12) RCW 62A.9-111 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 9-111.

Sec. 6-102. RCW 62A.1-105 and 1981 c 41 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided hereafter in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable relation to this state and also to another state or nation the parties may agree that the law either of this state or of such other state or nation shall govern their rights and duties. Failing such agreement this Title applies to transactions bearing an appropriate relation to this state.

(2) Where one of the following provisions of this Title specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) so specified:

Rights of creditors against sold goods. RCW 62A.2-402.

Applicability of the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections. RCW 62A.4-102.

~~(Bulk transfers subject to the Article on Bulk Transfers. RCW 62A.6-102.)~~

Applicability of the Article on Investment Securities. RCW 62A.8-106.

Perfection provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions. RCW 62A.9-103.

Sec. 6-103. RCW 62A.2-403 and 1967 c 114 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A purchaser of goods acquires all title which his or her transferor had or had power to transfer except that a purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased. A person with voidable title has power to transfer a good title to a good faith purchaser for value. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of purchase the purchaser has such power even though

- (a) the transferor was deceived as to the identity of the purchaser, or
- (b) the delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored, or
- (c) it was agreed that the transaction was to be a "cash sale".

(2) Any entrusting of possession of goods to a merchant who deals in goods of that kind gives him or her power to transfer all rights of the entruster to a buyer in ordinary course of business.

(3) "Entrusting" includes any delivery and any acquiescence in retention of possession regardless of any condition expressed between the parties to the delivery or acquiescence and regardless of whether the procurement of the entrusting or the possessor's disposition of the goods have been such as to be larcenous under the criminal law.

(4) The rights of other purchasers of goods and of lien creditors are governed by the Articles on Secured Transactions (Article 9)~~(, Bulk Transfers (Article 6))~~ and Documents of Title (Article 7)."

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "Sales;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 62A.1-105 and 62A.2-403; and repealing RCW 62A.6-101, 62A.6-102, 62A.6-103, 62A.6-104, 62A.6-105, 62A.6-106, 62A.6-107, 62A.6-108, 62A.6-109, 62A.6-110, 62A.6-111, and 62A.9-111."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senator Nelson to House Bill No. 1395.

The striking amendment by Senator Nelson to House Bill No. 1395 was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Erwin moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 26.04.160 and 1985 c 82 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Application for ~~((such))~~ a marriage license must be made and filed with the appropriate county auditor upon blanks to be provided by the county auditor for that purpose, which application shall be under the oath of each of the applicants, and each application shall state the name, address at the time of execution of application, age, birthplace, whether single, widowed or divorced, and whether under control of a guardian, residence during the past six months: PROVIDED, That each county may require such other and further information on said application as it shall deem necessary.

(2) The county legislative authority may impose an additional fee up to one dollar on a marriage license for the purpose of funding family services such as family support centers.

Sec. 2. RCW 36.18.020 and 1992 c 54 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Clerks of superior courts shall collect the following fees for their official services:

(1) The party filing the first or initial paper in any civil action, including an action for restitution, or change of name, shall pay, at the time said paper is filed, a fee of one hundred ten dollars except in proceedings filed under RCW 26.50.030 or 49.60.227 where the petitioner shall pay a filing fee of twenty dollars, or an unlawful detainer action under chapter 59.18 or 59.20 RCW where the plaintiff shall pay a filing fee of thirty dollars. If the defendant serves or files an answer to an unlawful detainer complaint under chapter 59.18 or 59.20 RCW, the plaintiff shall pay, prior to proceeding with the unlawful detainer action, an additional eighty dollars which shall be considered part of the filing fee. The thirty dollar filing fee under this subsection for an unlawful detainer action shall not include an order to show cause or any other order or judgment except a default order or default judgment in an unlawful detainer action. The county legislative authority may impose an additional fee up to twenty dollars on any petition for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage, for the purpose of funding family services such as family support centers.

(2) Any party, except a defendant in a criminal case, filing the first or initial paper on an appeal from a court of limited jurisdiction or any party on any civil appeal, shall pay, when said paper is filed, a fee of one hundred ten dollars.

(3) The party filing a transcript or abstract of judgment or verdict from a United States court held in this state, or from the superior court of another county or from a district court in the county of issuance, shall pay at the time of filing, a fee of fifteen dollars.

(4) For the filing of a tax warrant by the department of revenue of the state of Washington, a fee of five dollars shall be paid.

(5) For the filing of a petition for modification of a decree of dissolution, a fee of twenty dollars shall be paid.

(6) The party filing a demand for jury of six in a civil action, shall pay, at the time of filing, a fee of fifty dollars; if the demand is for a jury of twelve the fee shall be one hundred dollars. If, after the party files a demand for a jury of six and pays the required fee, any other party to the action requests a jury of twelve, an additional fifty-dollar fee will be required of the party demanding the increased number of jurors.

(7) For filing any paper, not related to or a part of any proceeding, civil or criminal, or any probate matter, required or permitted to be filed in the clerk's office for which no other charge is provided by law, or for filing a petition, written agreement, or memorandum as provided in RCW 11.96.170, the clerk shall collect two dollars.

(8) For preparing, transcribing or certifying any instrument on file or of record in the clerk's office, with or without seal, for the first page or portion thereof, a fee of two dollars, and for each additional page or portion thereof, a fee of one dollar. For authenticating or exemplifying any instrument, a fee of one dollar for each additional seal affixed.

(9) For executing a certificate, with or without a seal, a fee of two dollars shall be charged.

(10) For each garnishee defendant named in an affidavit for garnishment and for each writ of attachment, a fee of five dollars shall be charged.

(11) For approving a bond, including justification thereon, in other than civil actions and probate proceedings, a fee of two dollars shall be charged.

(12) In probate proceedings, the party instituting such proceedings, shall pay at the time of filing the first paper therein, a fee of one hundred ten dollars: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, A fee of two dollars shall be charged for filing a will only, when no probate of the will is contemplated. Except as provided for in subsection (13) of this section a fee of two dollars shall be charged for filing a petition, written agreement, or memorandum as provided in RCW 11.96.170.

(13) For filing any petition to contest a will admitted to probate or a petition to admit a will which has been rejected, or a petition objecting to a written agreement or memorandum as provided in RCW 11.96.170, there shall be paid a fee of one hundred ten dollars.

(14) For the issuance of each certificate of qualification and each certified copy of letters of administration, letters testamentary or letters of guardianship there shall be a fee of two dollars.

(15) For the preparation of a passport application there shall be a fee of four dollars.

(16) For searching records for which a written report is issued there shall be a fee of eight dollars per hour.

(17) Upon conviction or plea of guilty, upon failure to prosecute an appeal from a court of limited jurisdiction as provided by law, or upon affirmance of a conviction by a court of limited jurisdiction, a defendant in a criminal case shall be liable for a fee of one hundred ten dollars.

(18) With the exception of demands for jury hereafter made and garnishments hereafter issued, civil actions and probate proceedings filed prior to midnight, July 1, 1972, shall be completed and governed by the fee schedule in effect as of January 1, 1972: PROVIDED, That no fee shall be assessed if an order of dismissal on the clerk's record be filed as provided by rule of the supreme court.

(19) No fee shall be collected when a petition for relinquishment of parental rights is filed pursuant to RCW 26.33.080 or for forms and instructional brochures provided under RCW 26.50.030.

Sec. 3. RCW 43.08.250 and 1992 c 54 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The money received by the state treasurer from fees, fines, forfeitures, penalties, reimbursements or assessments by any court organized under Title 3 or 35 RCW, or chapter 2.08 RCW, shall be deposited in the public safety and education account which is hereby created in the state treasury. The legislature shall appropriate the funds in the account to promote traffic safety education, highway safety, criminal justice training, crime victims' compensation, judicial education, the judicial information system, civil representation of indigent persons, family support centers, winter recreation parking, and state game programs. During the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1993, the legislature may appropriate moneys from the public safety and education account for the purposes of local jail population data collection under RCW 10.98.130, the department of corrections' county partnership program under RCW 72.09.300, the treatment alternatives to street crimes program, the criminal litigation unit of the attorney general's office, and contracts with county officials to provide support enforcement services."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Erwin, and there being no objection, the striking amendment to House Bill No. 1395 was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1395 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter and Owen - 2.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1395, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 12:17 p.m., on motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate recessed until 1:00 p.m.

The Senate was called to order at 1:04 p.m. by President Pritchard.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Oke, Senators Cantu, McCaslin, Prince, von Reichbauer and Winsley were excused.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1047, by House Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Rust, Horn, Valle, Long, Springer, Brough, Forner, Miller, Edmondson, Lemmon, Tate, Chandler, Wood, Roland and J. Kohl)

Requiring solid waste reports and landfill fee reciprocity on waste received from outside the state.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fraser, the following Committee on Ecology and Parks amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that:

- (1) The state of Washington has responded to the increasing challenges of safe, affordable disposal of solid waste by an ambitious program of waste reduction, recycling and reuse, as well as strict standards to ensure the safe handling, transportation, and disposal of solid waste;
- (2) All communities in Washington participate in these programs through locally available recycling services, increased source separation and material recovery requirements, programs for waste reduction and product reuse, and performance standards that apply to all solid waste disposal facilities in the state;
- (3) New requirements for the siting and performance of disposal facilities have greatly decreased the number of such facilities in Washington, and the state has a significant interest in ensuring adequate disposal capacity within the state;
- (4) The landfilling, incineration, and other disposal of solid waste may adversely impact public health and environmental quality, and the state has a significant interest in decreasing volumes of the waste stream destined for disposal;
- (5) Because of the decreasing number of disposal facilities and other reasons, solid waste is being transported greater distances, often beyond the community where generated and is increasingly being transported between states;
- (6) Washington's waste management priorities and programs are a balanced approach of increased reuse, recycling and waste reduction, the strengthening of markets for recycled content products, and the safe disposal of the remaining waste stream, with the costs of these programs shared equitably by all persons generating waste in the state;
- (7) Those residing in other states who generate waste destined for disposal within Washington should also share the costs of waste diversion and management of Washington's disposal facilities, so that the risks of waste disposal and the costs of mitigating those risks are shared equitably by all waste generators, regardless of their location;
- (8) Because Washington state may not directly regulate waste handling, reduction, and recycling activities beyond its state boundaries, the only reasonable alternative to ensure this equitable treatment of waste being disposed within Washington is to implement a program of reviewing such activities as to waste originating outside of Washington, and to assign the additional costs, when necessary, to ensure that the waste meets standards substantially equivalent to those applicable to waste generated within the state, and, in some cases, to prohibit disposal of waste where its generation and management is not subject to standards substantially equivalent to those applicable to waste generated within the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

- (1) At least sixty days prior to receiving solid waste generated from outside of the state, the operator of a solid waste disposal site facility shall report to the department the types and quantities of waste to be received from an out-of-state source. The department shall develop guidelines for reporting this information. The guidelines shall provide for less than sixty days notice for shipments of waste made on a short-term or emergency basis. The requirements of this subsection shall take effect upon completion of the guidelines.
- (2) Upon notice under subsection (1) of this section, the department shall identify all activities and costs necessary to ensure that solid waste generated out-of-state meets standards relating to solid waste reduction, recycling, and management substantially equivalent to those required of solid waste generated within the state. The department may assess a fee on the out-of-state waste sufficient to recover the actual costs incurred in ensuring that the out-of-state waste meets equivalent state standards. The department may delegate, to a local health department, authority to implement the activities identified by the department under this subsection. All money received from fees imposed under this subsection shall be deposited into the solid waste management account created by RCW 70.95.800, and shall be used solely for the activities required by this section.

(3) The department may prohibit in-state disposal of solid waste generated from outside of the state, unless the generators of the waste meet: (a) Waste reduction and recycling requirements substantially equivalent to those applicable in Washington state; and (b) solid waste handling standards substantially equivalent to those applicable in Washington state.

(4) The department may adopt rules to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Fraser, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "state;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 70.95 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fraser, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1047, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Fraser, this is a good bill. In the discussion, however, did you have a chance to look to see if this may jeopardize any type of reciprocity from other states? In other words, Washington is very dependent on, for example, sending things to Arlington, Oregon. Would this jeopardize if that state didn't have the same type of standards that we did--any reciprocity?"

Senator Fraser: "My understanding is that there is not a problem, especially with Oregon. They have similar legislation. Also, this has been--I'm not aware of reciprocity problems. Also, the bill does, to the best of my knowledge, meet the test of the commerce clause in that it doesn't discriminate against out-of-state waste. The fee that is involved is merely to cover the state's cost in management and processing of waste."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1047, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1047, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; Nays, 0; Absent, 4; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, West, Williams and Wojahn - 38.

Absent: Senators Amondson, Deccio, McDonald and Vognild - 4.

Excused: Senators Cantu, Hochstatter, McCaslin, Owen, Prince, von Reichbauer and Winsley - 7.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1047, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1057, by House Committee on Trade, Economic Development and Housing (originally sponsored by Representatives Franklin, Zellinsky, Campbell and Springer)

Correcting double amendments relating to regulation of mobile and manufactured homes.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1057 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1057.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1057 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; Nays, 0; Absent, 3; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, West, Williams and Wojahn - 39.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1057, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1086, by House Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Valle, Edmondson, Rust and Kremen)

Modifying littering penalties.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Fraser moved that the following Committee on Ecology and Parks amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 70.93.060 and 1983 c 277 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall throw, drop, deposit, discard, or otherwise dispose of litter upon any public property in the state or upon private property in this state not owned by him or in the waters of this state whether from a vehicle or otherwise including but not limited to any public highway, public park, beach, campground, forest land, recreational area, trailer park, highway, road, street, or alley except:

((1)) (a) When ((such)) the property is designated by the state or ((by any of)) its agencies or political subdivisions for the disposal of garbage and refuse, and ((such)) the person is authorized to use such property for ((such)) that purpose;

((2)) (b) Into a litter receptacle in ((such)) a manner that ((the litter)) will ((be prevented)) prevent litter from being carried away or deposited by the elements upon any part of said private or public property or waters.

((Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and the fine for such violation shall not be less than fifty dollars for each offense. In addition thereto, except where infirmity or age or other circumstance would create a hardship, such person shall be directed by the court in which conviction is obtained to pick up and remove litter from public property and/or private property, with prior permission of the legal owner, for not less than eight hours nor more than sixteen hours for each separate offense. The court shall schedule the time to be spent on such activities in such a manner that it does not interfere with the person's employment and does not interfere substantially with the person's family responsibilities))

(2)(a) It is a class 3 civil infraction as defined in RCW 7.80.120 for a person to litter in an amount less than or equal to one cubic foot.

(b) It is a class 1 civil infraction as defined in RCW 7.80.120 for a person to litter in an amount greater than one cubic foot. Unless suspended or modified by a court, the person shall also pay a litter cleanup fee of twenty-five dollars per cubic foot of litter. The court may, in addition to or in lieu of part or all of the cleanup fee, order the person to pick up and remove litter from the property, with prior permission of the legal owner or, in the case of public property, of the agency managing the property.

Sec. 2. RCW 70.93.070 and 1983 c 277 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall prescribe the procedures for the collection of ((fines and bail forfeitures including the imposition of additional penalty charges for late payment of fines)) penalties, costs, and other charges allowed by chapter 7.80 RCW for violations of this chapter. Included in the procedures shall be provisions requiring ((the distribution of)) that one-half of the monetary amount

~~((of fines)) actually collected ((under the enforcement)) by the state or local government entity enforcing the provisions of this chapter ((by a local governmental agency to)) be distributed to that local governmental ((agency)) entity.~~

Sec. 3. RCW 70.95.240 and 1969 ex.s. c 134 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(1) After the adoption of regulations or ordinances by any county, city, or jurisdictional board of health providing for the issuance of permits as provided in RCW 70.95.160, it shall be unlawful for any person to dump or deposit or permit the dumping or depositing of any solid waste onto or under the surface of the ground or into the waters of this state except at a solid waste disposal site for which there is a valid permit(~~:- PROVIDED, That nothing herein~~). This section shall not prohibit a person from dumping or depositing solid waste resulting from his own activities onto or under the surface of ground owned or leased by him when such action does not violate statutes or ordinances, or create a nuisance. ((Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor))~~

~~(2)(a) It is a class 3 civil infraction as defined in RCW 7.80.120 for a person to litter in an amount less than or equal to one cubic foot.~~

~~(b) It is a class 1 civil infraction as defined in RCW 7.80.120 for a person to litter in an amount greater than one cubic foot. Unless suspended or modified by a court, the person shall also pay a litter cleanup fee of twenty-five dollars per cubic foot of litter. The court may, in addition to or in lieu of part or all of the cleanup fee, order the person to pick up and remove litter from the property, with prior permission of the legal owner or, in the case of public property, of the agency managing the property."~~

Senator Fraser moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment be adopted:

On page 3, after line 11 insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature finds that the release into the atmosphere of large numbers of balloons inflated with lighter-than-air gasses poses a danger and nuisance to the environment, particularly to wildlife and marine animals. The legislature also finds that balloons released into the atmosphere are a significant source of litter and impair the fundamental need for a healthful, clean and beautiful environment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 70.93 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, it is unlawful for any person to intentionally release, organize the release, or intentionally cause to be released within a twenty-four hour period twenty-five or more balloons inflated with a gas that is lighter than air.

(2) It is not a violation of this section for a person to release:

(a) Balloons on behalf of a government agency or pursuant to a governmental contract for scientific or meteorological purposes;

(b) Hot air balloons that are recovered after launching; or

(c) Balloons indoors.

(3) A violation of this section is a class 1 civil infraction under chapter 7.80 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 70.93 RCW to read as follows:

Any person may petition a district court to enjoin the release of twenty-five or more balloons in violation of section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, I would like to challenge the scope and object of this amendment. The bill creates penalties for littering and changes current penalties for the offense of littering. The amendment creates a new offense. The new offense is releasing of balloons. It is clearly beyond the scope; the scope of the bill is merely a penalty adjustment. This creates a new crime, so I would ask, Mr. President, that you rule that way."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1372, by House Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Pruitt, R. Fisher, Mielke, Sheldon, Dorn, Long, Veloria, Roland, Romero, Shin, R. Meyers, Finkbeiner, Jones, Dunshee, Jacobsen, Riley, Holm, Mastin, Kessler, Linville, Springer, Wolfe, Franklin, Kremen, Johanson, Karahalios, Flemming, Tate, L. Johnson, J. Kohl, Dellwo, G. Cole and Anderson) (by request of State Auditor)

Creating the government accountability task force.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that many of the systems currently in place for assuring accountability in state government programs are not operated comprehensively, do not take advantage of modern management techniques, and do not contribute adequately to the optimum use of scarce resources. Critical variables that are not always taken into account include whether stated goals and objectives are being achieved, and whether desired results are being accomplished.

Agency executives need more accurate information for setting policy, determining whether new or existing programs are effective, and improving internal controls for agency management. These needs must be met at all levels of operation, and must be clearly communicated to the legislature and all interested parties.

Ensuring accountability in government involves a long-term commitment to policy planning, quality management, and results-oriented evaluation. It is the intent of this act to facilitate program evaluations and performance audits of selected state agencies and programs through the coordinated resources of the executive and legislative branches of state government.

Sec. 2. RCW 43.88.020 and 1991 c 358 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Budget" means a proposed plan of expenditures for a given period or purpose and the proposed means for financing these expenditures.

(2) "Budget document" means a formal, written statement offered by the governor to the legislature, as provided in RCW 43.88.030.

(3) "Director of financial management" means the official appointed by the governor to serve at the governor's pleasure and to whom the governor may delegate necessary authority to carry out the governor's duties as provided in this chapter. The director of financial management shall be head of the office of financial management which shall be in the office of the governor.

(4) "Agency" means and includes every state office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional or other, and every department, division, board and commission, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

(5) "Public funds", for purposes of this chapter, means all moneys, including cash, checks, bills, notes, drafts, stocks, and bonds, whether held in trust, for operating purposes, or for capital purposes, and collected or disbursed under law, whether or not such funds are otherwise subject to legislative appropriation, including funds maintained outside the state treasury.

(6) "Regulations" means the policies, standards, and requirements, stated in writing, designed to carry out the purposes of this chapter, as issued by the governor or the governor's designated agent, and which shall have the force and effect of law.

(7) "Ensuing biennium" means the fiscal biennium beginning on July 1st of the same year in which a regular session of the legislature is held during an odd-numbered year pursuant to Article II, section 12 of the Constitution and which biennium next succeeds the current biennium.

(8) "Dedicated fund" means a fund in the state treasury, or a separate account or fund in the general fund in the state treasury, that by law is dedicated, appropriated or set aside for a limited object or purpose; but "dedicated fund" does not include a revolving fund or a trust fund.

(9) "Revolving fund" means a fund in the state treasury, established by law, from which is paid the cost of goods or services furnished to or by a state agency, and which is replenished through charges made for such goods or services or through transfers from other accounts or funds.

(10) "Trust fund" means a fund in the state treasury in which designated persons or classes of persons have a vested beneficial interest or equitable ownership, or which was created or established by a gift, grant, contribution, devise, or bequest that limits the use of the fund to designated objects or purposes.

(11) "Administrative expenses" means expenditures for: (a) Salaries, wages, and related costs of personnel and (b) operations and maintenance including but not limited to costs of supplies, materials, services, and equipment.

(12) "Fiscal year" means the year beginning July 1st and ending the following June 30th.

(13) "Lapse" means the termination of authority to expend an appropriation.

(14) "Legislative fiscal committees" means the legislative budget committee, the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee, the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives, and, where appropriate, the legislative transportation committee.

(15) "Fiscal period" means the period for which an appropriation is made as specified within the act making the appropriation.

(16) "Primary budget driver" means the primary determinant of a budget level, other than a price variable, which causes or is associated with the major expenditure of an agency or budget unit within an agency, such as a caseload, enrollment, workload, or population statistic.

(17) "Stabilization account" means the budget stabilization account created under RCW 43.88.525 as an account in the general fund of the state treasury.

(18) "State tax revenue limit" means the limitation created by chapter 43.135 RCW.

(19) "General state revenues" means the revenues defined by Article VIII, section 1(c) of the state Constitution.

(20) "Annual growth rate in real personal income" means the estimated percentage growth in personal income for the state during the current fiscal year, expressed in constant value dollars, as published by the office of financial management or its successor agency.

(21) "Estimated revenues" means estimates of revenue in the most recent official economic and revenue forecast prepared under RCW 82.33.020, and prepared by the office of financial management for those funds, accounts, and sources for which the office of the economic and revenue forecast council does not prepare an official forecast including estimates of revenues to support financial plans under RCW 44.40.070, that are prepared by the office of financial management in consultation with the interagency task force.

(22) "Estimated receipts" means the estimated receipt of cash in the most recent official economic and revenue forecast prepared under RCW 82.33.020, and prepared by the office of financial management for those funds, accounts, and sources for which the office of the economic and revenue forecast council does not prepare an official forecast.

(23) "State budgeting, accounting, and reporting system" means a system that gathers, maintains, and communicates fiscal information. The system links fiscal information beginning with development of agency budget requests through adoption of legislative appropriations to tracking actual receipts and expenditures against approved plans.

(24) "Allotment of appropriation" means the agency's statement of proposed expenditures, the director of financial management's review of that statement, and the placement of the approved statement into the state budgeting, accounting, and reporting system.

(25) "Statement of proposed expenditures" means a plan prepared by each agency that breaks each appropriation out into monthly detail representing the best estimate of how the appropriation will be expended.

(26) "Undesignated fund balance (or deficit)" means unreserved and undesignated current assets or other resources available for expenditure over and above any current liabilities which are expected to be incurred by the close of the fiscal period.

(27) "Internal audit" means an independent appraisal activity within an agency for the review of operations as a service to management, including a systematic examination of accounting and fiscal controls to assure that human and material resources are guarded against waste, loss, or misuse; and that reliable data are gathered, maintained, and fairly disclosed in a written report of the audit findings.

(28) "Performance audit" means an audit which determines the following: (a) Whether a government entity is acquiring, protecting, and using its resources economically and efficiently; (b) the causes of inefficiencies or uneconomical practices; (c) whether the entity has complied with laws and regulations applicable to the program; (d) the extent to which the desired results or benefits established by the legislature are being achieved; and (e) the effectiveness of organizations, programs, activities, or functions.

(29) "Program evaluation" means the use of a variety of policy and fiscal research methods to (a) determine the extent to which a program is achieving its legislative intent in terms of producing the effects expected, and (b) make an objective judgment of the implementation, outcomes, and net cost or benefit impact of programs in the context of their goals and objectives. It includes the application of systematic methods to measure the results, intended or unintended, of program activities.

(30) "Success measures" include, but are not limited to the following types of indicators: (a) Indicators of service efforts, stated in terms of human and material resource inputs expended on a service during a specific period; (b) indicators of service accomplishments or outputs, such as the amount of workload accomplished; and outcomes, such as numeric indicators of program results and service quality; and (c) indicators that relate service efforts to service accomplishments, such as indexes of productivity, efficiency, or effectiveness.

Sec. 3. RCW 43.88.090 and 1989 c 273 s 26 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For purposes of developing budget proposals to the legislature, the governor shall have the power, and it shall be the governor's duty, to require from proper agency officials such detailed estimates and other information in such form and at such times as the governor shall direct. The estimates for the legislature and the judiciary shall be transmitted to the governor and shall be included in the budget without revision. The estimates for state pension contributions shall be based on the rates provided in chapter 41.45 RCW. Copies of all such estimates shall be transmitted to the standing committees on ways and means of the house and senate at the same time as they are filed with the governor and the office of financial management.

(2) ~~((Estimates from each agency shall include goals and objectives for each program administered by the agency. The goals and objectives shall, whenever possible, be stated in terms of objective measurable results.))~~ For the purpose of assessing program performance, each state agency shall establish results-oriented goals and objectives, and develop success measures based on these goals and objectives, for each major program in its budget. Each agency shall express the success measures in an objective, quantifiable, and measurable form unless permitted by the office of financial management to adopt a different standard.

The estimates shall include statements or tables which indicate, by agency, the state funds which are required for the receipt of federal matching revenues. The estimates shall be revised as necessary to reflect legislative enactments and adopted appropriations and shall be included with the initial biennial allotment submitted under RCW 43.88.110.

(3) In the year of the gubernatorial election, the governor shall invite the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee to attend all hearings provided in RCW 43.88.100; and the governor shall furnish the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee with such information as will enable the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee to gain an understanding of the state's budget requirements. The governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee may ask such questions during the hearings and require such information as the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee deems necessary and may make recommendations in connection with any item of the budget which, with the governor-elect's reasons therefor, shall be presented to the legislature in writing with the budget document. Copies of all such estimates and other required information shall also be submitted to the standing committees on ways and means of the house and senate.

Sec. 4. RCW 43.88.160 and 1992 c 118 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

This section sets forth the major fiscal duties and responsibilities of officers and agencies of the executive branch. The regulations issued by the governor pursuant to this chapter shall provide for a comprehensive, orderly basis for fiscal management and control, including efficient accounting and reporting therefor, for the executive branch of the state government and may include, in addition, such requirements as will generally promote more efficient public management in the state.

(1) Governor; director of financial management. The governor, through the director of financial management, shall devise and supervise a modern and complete accounting system for each agency to the end that all revenues, expenditures, receipts, disbursements, resources, and obligations of the state shall be properly and systematically accounted for. The accounting system shall include the development of accurate, timely records and reports of all financial affairs of the state. The system shall also provide for central accounts in the office of financial management at the level of detail deemed necessary by the director to perform central financial management. The director of financial management shall adopt and periodically update an accounting procedures manual. Any agency maintaining its own accounting and reporting system shall comply with the updated accounting procedures manual and the rules of the director adopted under this chapter. An agency may receive a waiver from complying with this requirement if the waiver is approved by the director. Waivers expire at the end of the fiscal biennium for which they are granted. The director shall forward notice of waivers granted to the appropriate legislative fiscal committees. The director of financial management may require such financial, statistical, and other reports as the director deems necessary from all agencies covering any period.

(2) The director of financial management is responsible for quarterly reporting of primary operating budget drivers such as applicable workloads, caseload estimates, and appropriate unit cost data. These reports shall be transmitted to the legislative fiscal committees or by electronic means to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee. Quarterly reports shall include actual monthly data and the variance between actual and estimated data to date. The reports shall also include estimates of these items for the remainder of the budget period.

(3) The director of financial management shall report at least annually to the appropriate legislative committees regarding the status of all appropriated capital projects, including transportation projects, showing significant cost overruns or underruns. If funds are shifted from one project to another, the office of financial management shall also reflect this in the annual variance report. Once a project is complete, the report shall provide a final summary showing estimated start and completion dates of each project phase compared to actual dates, estimated costs of each project phase compared to actual costs, and whether or not there are any outstanding liabilities or unsettled claims at the time of completion.

(4) In addition, the director of financial management, as agent of the governor, shall:

(a) Develop and maintain a system of internal controls and internal audits comprising methods and procedures to be adopted by each agency which will safeguard its assets, check the accuracy and reliability of its accounting data, promote operational efficiency, and encourage adherence to prescribed managerial policies for accounting and financial controls. The system developed by the director shall include criteria for determining the scope and comprehensiveness of internal controls required by classes of agencies, depending on the level of resources at risk.

Each agency head or authorized designee shall be assigned the responsibility and authority for establishing and maintaining internal controls following the standards of internal auditing of the institute of internal auditors:

~~(b)~~ (b) Make surveys and analyses of agencies with the object of determining better methods and increased effectiveness in the use of manpower and materials; and the director shall authorize expenditures for employee training to the end that the state may benefit from training facilities made available to state employees;

~~((b))~~ (c) Report to the governor with regard to duplication of effort or lack of coordination among agencies;

~~((c))~~ (d) Review any pay and classification plans, and changes thereunder, developed by any agency for their fiscal impact: PROVIDED, That none of the provisions of this subsection shall affect merit systems of personnel management now existing or hereafter established by statute relating to the fixing of qualifications requirements for recruitment, appointment, or promotion of employees of any agency. The director shall advise and confer with agencies including appropriate standing committees of the legislature as may be designated by the speaker of the house and the president of the senate regarding the fiscal impact of such plans and may amend or alter said plans, except that for the following agencies no amendment or alteration of said plans may be made without the approval of the agency concerned: Agencies headed by elective officials;

~~((d))~~ (e) Fix the number and classes of positions or authorized man years of employment for each agency and during the fiscal period amend the determinations previously fixed by the director except that the director shall not be empowered to fix said number or said classes for the following: Agencies headed by elective officials;

~~((e))~~ (f) Provide for transfers and repayments between the budget stabilization account and the general fund as directed by appropriation and RCW 43.88.525 through 43.88.540;

~~((f) Promulgate regulations)~~ (g) Adopt rules to effectuate provisions contained in (a) through ~~((e))~~ (f) of this subsection.

(5) The treasurer shall:

(a) Receive, keep, and disburse all public funds of the state not expressly required by law to be received, kept, and disbursed by some other persons: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply to those public funds of the institutions of higher learning which are not subject to appropriation;

(b) Disburse public funds under the treasurer's supervision or custody by warrant or check;

(c) Keep a correct and current account of all moneys received and disbursed by the treasurer, classified by fund or account;

(d) Perform such other duties as may be required by law or by regulations issued pursuant to this law.

It shall be unlawful for the treasurer to issue any warrant or check for public funds in the treasury except upon forms duly prescribed by the director of financial management. Said forms shall provide for authentication and certification by the agency head or the agency head's designee that the services have been rendered or the materials have been furnished; or, in the case of loans or grants, that the loans or grants are authorized by law; or, in the case of payments for periodic maintenance services to be performed on state owned equipment, that a written contract for such periodic maintenance services is currently in effect and copies thereof are on file with the office of financial management; and the treasurer shall not be liable under the treasurer's surety bond for erroneous or improper payments so made: PROVIDED, That when services are lawfully paid in advance of full performance by any private individual or business entity other than as provided for by RCW 42.24.035, such individual or entity other than central stores rendering such services shall make a cash deposit or furnish surety bond coverage to the state as shall be fixed in an amount by law, or if not fixed by law, then in such amounts as shall be fixed by the director of the department of general administration but in no case shall such required cash deposit or surety bond be less than an amount which will fully indemnify the state against any and all losses on account of breach of promise to fully perform such services: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no payments shall be made in advance for any equipment maintenance services to be performed more than three months after such payment. Any such bond so furnished shall be conditioned that the person, firm or corporation receiving the advance payment will apply it toward performance of the contract. The responsibility for recovery of erroneous or improper payments made under this section shall lie with the agency head or the agency head's designee in accordance with regulations issued pursuant to this chapter. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit a public body to advance funds to a private service provider pursuant to a grant or loan before services have been rendered or material furnished.

(6) The state auditor shall:

(a) Report to the legislature the results of current post audits that have been made of the financial transactions of each agency; to this end the auditor may, in the auditor's discretion, examine the books and accounts of any agency, official or employee charged with the receipt, custody or safekeeping of public funds. Where feasible in conducting examinations, the auditor shall utilize data and findings from the internal control system prescribed by the office of financial management. The current post audit of each agency may include a section on recommendations to the legislature as provided in (c) of this subsection.

(b) Give information to the legislature, whenever required, upon any subject relating to the financial affairs of the state.

(c) Make the auditor's official report on or before the thirty-first of December which precedes the meeting of the legislature. The report shall be for the last complete fiscal period and shall include ~~((at least the following:))~~ determinations as to whether agencies, in making expenditures, complied with the laws of this state (~~PROVIDED, That nothing in this section may be construed to grant~~). The state auditor ((the right)) is authorized to perform or participate in performance audits only as expressly authorized by the legislature in the omnibus biennial appropriations acts. A performance audit for the purpose of this section is the examination of the effectiveness of the administration, its efficiency, and its adequacy in terms of the programs of departments or agencies as previously approved by the legislature. ~~((The authority and responsibility to conduct such an examination shall be vested in the legislative budget committee as prescribed in RCW 44.28.085.))~~ The state auditor, upon completing an audit for legal and financial compliance under chapter 43.09 RCW, may report to the legislative budget committee or other appropriate committees of the legislature, in a manner prescribed by the legislative budget committee, on facts relating to the management or performance of governmental programs where such facts are discovered incidental to the legal and financial audit: PROVIDED, That the auditor may make such a report to a legislative committee only if the auditor has determined that the agency has been given an opportunity and has failed to resolve the management or performance issues raised by the auditor. If the auditor makes a report to a legislative committee, the agency may submit to the committee a response to the report. This subsection (6) shall not be construed to authorize the auditor to allocate other than de minimis resources to performance audits except as expressly authorized in the appropriations acts.

(d) Be empowered to take exception to specific expenditures that have been incurred by any agency or to take exception to other practices related in any way to the agency's financial transactions and to cause such exceptions to be made a matter of public record, including disclosure to the agency concerned and to the director of financial management. It shall be the duty of the director of financial management to cause corrective action to be taken promptly, such action to include, as appropriate, the withholding of funds as provided in RCW 43.88.110.

(e) Promptly report any irregularities to the attorney general.

(f) Investigate improper governmental activity under chapter 42.40 RCW.

(7) The legislative budget committee may:

(a) Make post audits of the financial transactions of any agency and management surveys and program reviews as provided for in RCW 44.28.085 as well as performance audits and program evaluations. To this end the committee may in its discretion examine the books, accounts, and other records of any agency, official, or employee.

(b) Give information to the legislature or any legislative committee whenever required upon any subject relating to the performance and management of state agencies.

(c) Make a report to the legislature which shall include at least the following:

(i) Determinations as to the extent to which agencies in making expenditures have complied with the will of the legislature and in this connection, may take exception to specific expenditures or financial practices of any agencies; and

(ii) Such plans as it deems expedient for the support of the state's credit, for lessening expenditures, for promoting frugality and economy in agency affairs and generally for an improved level of fiscal management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 44.28 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In conducting program evaluations as defined in RCW 43.88.020, the legislative budget committee shall establish a biennial work plan that identifies state agency programs for which formal evaluation appears necessary. Among the factors to be considered in preparing the work plan are:

(a) Whether a program newly created or significantly altered by the legislature warrants continued oversight because (i) the fiscal impact of the program is significant, or (ii) the program represents a relatively high degree of risk in terms of reaching the stated goals and objectives for that program;

(b) Whether implementation of an existing program has failed to meet its goals and objectives by any significant degree.

(2) The project description for each program evaluation shall include start and completion dates, the proposed research approach, and cost estimates.

(3) The overall plan may include proposals to employ contract evaluators. As conditions warrant, the program evaluation work plan may be amended from time to time. All biennial work plans shall be transmitted to the appropriate fiscal and policy committees of the senate and the house of representatives.

Sec. 6. RCW 44.28.085 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 293 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative budget committee shall make management surveys and program reviews as to every public body, officer or employee subject to the provisions of RCW 43.09.290 through 43.09.340. The legislative budget committee may also make management surveys and program reviews of local school districts, intermediate school districts, and other units of local government receiving state funds as grants-in-aid or as shared revenues. Management surveys for the purposes of this section shall be an independent examination for the purpose of providing the legislature with an evaluation and report of the manner in which any public agency, officer, administrator, or employee has discharged the responsibility to faithfully, efficiently, and effectively administer any legislative purpose of the state. Program reviews for the purpose of this section shall be an examination of state or local government programs to ascertain whether or not such programs continue to serve their intended purposes, are conducted in an efficient and effective manner, or require modification or elimination: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall limit the power or duty of the state auditor to report to the legislature as directed by ~~((subsection (3) of))~~ RCW 43.88.160 ~~((as now or hereafter amended. The authority in this section conferred excludes a like authority in the state auditor))~~.

The legislative budget committee shall receive a copy of each report of examination issued by the state auditor under RCW 43.09.310, shall review all such reports, and shall make such recommendations to the legislature and to the state auditor as it deems appropriate."

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "government;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.88.020, 43.88.090, 43.88.160, and 44.28.085; adding a new section to chapter 44.28 RCW; and creating a new section."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1372, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Changing duties of the legislative auditor and attorney general regarding the legislative budget committee.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Spanel, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1407 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 1407.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1407 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 44.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin, Moyer, Owen and von Reichbauer - 5.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1407, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 and the pending amendment by Senator Fraser on page 3, after line 11, to the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator West, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 is a measure which changes the penalties for littering; changes the penalty for collection procedures; and establishes new definitions of littering.

"The amendment by Senator Fraser to the Committee on Ecology and Parks amendment would define as littering the release of balloons under certain circumstances and impose a penalty.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment to the committee amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator Fraser on page 3, after line 11, to the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 was ruled in order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Fraser on page 3, after line 11, to the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086.

Debate ensued.

The amendment by Senator Fraser on page 3, after line 11, to the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 was not adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086.

The Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fraser, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "littering;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 70.93.060, 70.93.070, and 70.95.240; and prescribing penalties."

On motion of Senator Fraser, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1086, as amended by the Senate.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognilid, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 43.

Voting nay: Senators Amondson, Cantu and von Reichbauer - 3.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1086, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1461, by House Committee on Energy and Utilities (originally sponsored by Representatives Kremen, Miller, Jacobsen and Long)

Extending the prohibition on mandatory local measured service.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sutherland, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1461 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1461.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1461 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognilid, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 46.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1461, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1214, by House Committee on Health Care (originally sponsored by Representative Appelwick)

Concerning health care information disclosure.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Health and Human Services amendment was adopted:

On page 6, beginning on line 22, strike all material through "admitted" on line 25 and insert "(k) In the case of a hospital or health care provider to provide, in cases reported by fire, police, sheriff, or other public authority, name, residence, sex, age, occupation, condition, diagnosis, or extent and location of injuries as determined by a physician, and whether the patient was conscious when admitted"

Senator Sutherland moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 3, line 14, after "program" insert "; or an organization under section 8 of this act"

On page 11, after line 27, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 48.01 RCW to read as follows:

This title does not apply to an organization that:

- (1) Operates as a nonprofit organization registered under chapter 19.09 RCW;
- (2) Produces a periodic publication that:
 - (a) Suggests amounts publication subscribers may voluntarily give to other subscribers, with no assumption of risk or promise to pay either among the subscribers or between the subscribers and the publication;
 - (b) Provides for the payment of subscriber financial or medical needs by payments directly from one subscriber to another; and
 - (c) Discloses plainly in bold ink on the first page of any pamphlet, advertisement, questionnaire, enrollment, or subscription form:

"WARNING: THIS IS NOT AN INSURANCE CONTRACT. IF YOU ARE NOT HELPED WITH ANY OF YOUR NEEDS, YOU HAVE NO LEGAL RECOURSE AGAINST ANY OTHER SUBSCRIBER OR THE ORGANIZATION. NO CONTRACT OF INSURANCE OR INDEMNIFICATION EXISTS EITHER IN FACT OR IMPLIED.";

(3) Acts as an organizational clearinghouse for information between subscribers who have financial, physical, or medical needs and subscribers who choose to assist with those needs, matching subscribers with the present ability to pay with subscribers having a present financial or medical need; and

(4) Receives subscription fees or other payments or charges of any kind annually from subscribers that do not exceed an amount equal to eight and thirty-four one-hundredths percent of the total suggested amounts to give published annually."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Wojahn: "A point of order, Mr. President. I believe that these expand the scope and object of the bill. This is the subject of a bill we passed through here that was a type of insurance project--they didn't call it insurance. They said because we don't call it insurance, it is not insurance. It has nothing to do with disclosure in this bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1214 was deferred.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1292, by Representatives Anderson, G. Cole, Chandler, Heavey, Veloria, Wood, Franklin, Springer, King and J. Kohl

Defining "employment" for unemployment compensation.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1292 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 1292.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1292 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 46.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1292, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1214 and the pending amendments by Senator Sutherland on page 3, line 14, and page 11, after line 27, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Wojahn, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1214 is a measure which provides for the disclosure of medical information under certain circumstances.

"The amendments by Senator Sutherland on page 3, line 14, and page 11, after line 27, would allow nonprofit organizations to publicize the health needs of newsletter subscribers.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by Senator Sutherland on page 3, line 14 and page 11, after line 27, to Substitute House Bill No. 1214 were ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Talmadge and Deccio was adopted:

On page 4, line 17, after "authorizations" insert "given pursuant to an agreement with a treatment or monitoring program or disciplinary authority under chapters 18.72 or 18.130 RCW or"

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1214, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1214, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1214, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 46.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1214, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1352, by House Committee on Commerce and Labor (originally sponsored by Representatives Veloria, G. Cole and Franklin) (by request of Department of Labor and Industries)

Revising provisions for fee schedules for industrial insurance medical aid.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1352 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Senator Moore, I was just reading through this. How is this going to work in conjunction with the Health Care Bill? How does that all fit in with the basic notion of the Health Care Bill?"

Senator Moore: "Well, it is hoped that there will be some coordination between the various departments under this administration."

Senator McDonald: "But, when they set the basic rate and the basic policy, how does that fit in with the whole fee schedule?"

Senator Moore: "I'm not sure that I have an accurate answer to that. Perhaps somebody else can fill in the blanks."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "In response to Senator McDonald's question, this would be the policy that would exist in the interim between now and anytime that the Legislature might decide to fold the medical aid fund to the Department of Labor and Industries into the personal health arrangements under the Health Care Reform Act. In the Health Care Reform Act, as it has passed the House, they provide for L & I services under medical aid fund being done on an interim basis in some managed care pilot projects. In both versions of the bill, there is a study and recommendations about folding the two systems together, so this setting of fees will be on an interim basis until those changes in the larger bill happen."

Senator McDonald: "Is it anticipated that this will be immediate or is it going to be long-term?"

Senator Talmadge: "In terms of the two systems coming together?"

Senator McDonald: "Yes."

Senator Talmadge: "My desire is that they would come together fairly quickly--approximately at the same time the employment mandates start to come together."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1352.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1352 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognilid, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 46.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1352, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1518, by House Committee on Natural Resources and Parks (originally sponsored by Representatives Valle, Dunshee, Pruitt, Rust, J. Kohl, Holm, Jacobsen, Linville and Eide)

Creating a water trail recreation program.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fraser, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1518 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator West: "Senator Talmadge, actually I think this is a pretty good idea, but is this how we are going to find our under-water parks, by going on these trails?"

Senator Talmadge: "Only if they stick the nose of that canoe too far into the water, Senator."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cantu: "Senator Fraser, I guess in looking at the report--I haven't read the bill--who pays the fees or what type of fees? Are these going to be fees for people that use the trail? Who has that responsibility to levy, to collect and you know, basically, who pays for it?"

Senator Fraser: "The fees would be set by the State Parks Department after consultation with the Water Trails Advisory Committee. They would be permit-use fees and voluntary contributions."

Senator Cantu: "OK, so the fees are basically for those that would use the trails and have access to them?"

Senator Fraser: "Right, it is designed to be a self-supporting program."

Senator Cantu: "I understand that. I was just curious as to whether it would be the people using it and I presume that that is what it is."

Senator Fraser: "That is the intent."

Senator Cantu: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Fraser, I had a call after this passed the Senate the first time. It was a question that I couldn't answer. In the first part of the bill, it references 'human or wind-powered,' and the call was regarding the wind surfing that is taking place like down on the Columbia River. Is this bill envisioned for only places where we have state parks now and where the parks are, the fees would be charged, or down on the Columbia River, where all the people put in at different places to wind surf? Would we now be charging those people also, for that activity? It was unclear to me, when I got that call, about how the fees would be charged."

Senator Fraser: "The subject of wind-surfing was not part of the testimony before the committee, so I can't give you a definitive answer on that. It is intended they would be charged as a general permit and fees at the site for the system."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "The water trail program is designed to be dealt with by the Parks Department. They would designate trails in water bodies on the rivers or on the ocean side, say on Puget Sound. Basically, what the fee gives people is the opportunity to pull in at night when they are done canoeing or doing the work. It really wouldn't affect wind-surfers. It essentially gives them a guaranteed slot to camp in; that is the idea of a trail. The people say that if they were canoeing on the Columbia River system, if they didn't run over a dam, they would have the opportunity to pull up at an appropriate state parks site and have a guaranteed reservation, so that they would have a place to rest--is what it comes down to. The trails would be designated by the Parks Department, so wind-surfing would not be covered by this bill."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Roach: "Senator Fraser, did this department explore thoroughly its ability to fund, through existing resources, a water parks and trails system?"

Senator Fraser: "This bill was brought to us by the advocates, by the users --people who use kayaks, canoes, etc. They are well aware that the State Parks Department has a very limited budget and probably couldn't do this without these voluntary contributions."

Senator Roach: "Thank you, to proceed, and Senator Fraser has yielded to a question. The question really was, has the Parks, the administration, pursued funding this program, which is a very worthy program, through existing forms of revenue and through the existing budget?"

"I think it is a very important point to notice that we do have a great parks system in this state, but we also have, as our needs expand, the requirement--as least I think--a moral requirement to the taxpayer in this state--to prioritize projects and that this is just one of many projects, but somehow it has been set aside and outside of the regular budget process and I am wondering if, in fact, this was taken as a project and prioritized out and then we are looking for a new source of funding or if we are deciding, in fact, that it is so different that it needs its own source. Did they, in fact, study this and cast it off as something that they couldn't include?"

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Spanel, Senator Loveland was excused.

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Amondson was excused.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Roach: "A point of order, Mr. President. I never got the response, that is why I asked the question, I wanted to find out if, in fact, the Parks Department had explored prioritizing this project among all the others that there are in this state and was it purged or did they decide they would go after another funding source?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Well, it is not a point of order that they didn't respond to you."

Senator Roach: "Well, is it a point of order that you had recognized somebody before I had gotten my answer?"

President Pritchard: "I saw them standing. Is anybody else standing? For what reason do you rise, Senator Roach?"

Senator Roach: "Well, Senator Fraser had yielded to a question. I was just wondering if I could have the answer? I just didn't know."

Senator Pritchard: "Well, she obviously doesn't want to answer you and she doesn't have to."

Senator Roach: "OK, thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1518.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1518 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; Nays, 2; Absent, 0; Excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 42.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson and Roach - 2.

Excused: Senators Amondson, Hochstatter, Loveland, McCaslin and Owen - 5.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1518, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1530, by Representatives Morris, Foreman, Springer, Ogden, Carlson, Riley, Silver, Leonard, Chappell, H. Myers, Rayburn, Mastin, Thibaudeau, Anderson, Holm, Campbell, Brough, King, Hansen, Jones, Basich, Quall, Conway, Van Luven, Cothorn, Long and Finkbeiner

Providing for continuation of property tax exemptions for senior citizens confined in hospitals and nursing homes.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1530 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 1530.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1530 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; Nays, 1; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 44.

Voting nay: Senator Skratek - 1.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, Loveland, McCaslin and Owen - 4.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1530, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1808, by House Committee on Trade, Economic Development and Housing (originally sponsored by Representatives Shin, Mastin, Forner, Wineberry, Rayburn, Jones, Cothorn, J. Kohl, Wang, Van Luven, Chandler and Linville)

Creating the Washington council on international trade.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Skratek, the following Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the expansion of international trade is vital to the economy of Washington state. International trade-related activities currently account for approximately twenty percent of employment in this state even though only a small percentage of businesses do extensive exporting. Washington's long-term economic prosperity depends on the creation and retention of jobs that international trade provides through providing an expanded marketplace for goods and services produced in this state. Increasing the number of businesses exporting and the foreign markets accessed helps diversify the state economy and make the state's businesses more competitive by providing experience in the international marketplace. There are many international markets that offer export potential for Washington businesses that are not currently being accessed, particularly several Pacific Rim countries. The legislature also finds that there presently exists several programs and initiatives by federal, state, and local governments that have to be coordinated effectively within and among economic development organizations, state agencies, academic institutions, and businesses so as to enhance the sale of goods and services in foreign markets.

Therefore, the legislature declares that an important public purpose can be accomplished through the development and implementation of a state policy on international trade.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 44.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The council on international trade is established as a subcommittee of the executive legislative committee on economic development created in chapter . . . (Senate Bill No. 5300), Laws of 1993. The council shall consist of at least three members of the full committee and may include advisory members. The advisory members may include a representative of trade organizations, a representative of ports, a representative of businesses active in exporting goods, an expert in foreign marketing, and an expert in export financing.

(2) Advisory members may receive reimbursement for travel from the governor's office under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The council shall:

(a) Review past studies of state export assistance programs and current state export targeting efforts;

(b) Develop a strategic plan to enhance international trade for consideration by the full committee, governor, and legislature; and

(c) Recommend specific programmatic changes and legislative actions necessary to enhance and coordinate state export assistance efforts."

MOTIONS

Senator Skratek moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the expansion of international trade is vital to the economy of Washington state. International trade-related activities currently account for approximately twenty percent of employment in this state even though only a small percentage of businesses do extensive exporting. Washington's long-term economic prosperity depends on the creation and retention of jobs that international trade provides through providing an expanded marketplace for goods and services produced in this state. Increasing the number of businesses exporting and the foreign markets accessed helps diversify the state economy and make the state's businesses more competitive by providing experience in the international marketplace. There are many international markets that offer export potential for Washington businesses that are not currently being accessed, particularly several Pacific Rim countries. The legislature also finds that there presently exists several programs and initiatives by federal, state, and local governments that have to be coordinated effectively within and among economic development organizations, state agencies, academic institutions, and businesses so as to enhance the sale of goods and services in foreign markets.

The legislature further finds that a strategy to expand international trade must be integrated into a comprehensive long-term economic development plan, and that the expertise of the private sector can enhance the joint strategic planning efforts of the governor, executive agencies, and the legislature.

Therefore, the legislature declares that an important public purpose can be accomplished through an international trade council that, through coordination and advice, can facilitate increased exporting by Washington businesses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 44.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The council on international trade is established. The council shall consist of fifteen members as follows:

(a) Two members of trade organizations, appointed by the governor;

(b) Two representatives of ports, appointed by the governor;

(c) Three representatives of businesses active in exporting goods, appointed by the governor;

(d) Three representatives from the executive-legislative committee on economic development created in chapter ..., (Senate Bill No. 5300), Laws of 1993;

(e) Two members with experience in foreign marketing, appointed by the governor;

(f) Two experts in financing export transactions, appointed by the governor; and

(g) The director of the department of trade and economic development.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1602, by House Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Chappell, Cothorn and Thomas) (by request of Superintendent of Public Instruction)

Changing election provisions for regional committee members.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 28A.315.030 and 1990 c 33 s 294 are each amended to read as follows:

~~Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, ((those persons who were county committee members and registered to vote as of July 28, 1985, shall constitute the regional committee of the educational service district within which they are registered to vote until the election of the initial regional committee pursuant to this section. The initial election of members of each regional committee shall be by those persons who were county committee members registered to vote within the educational service district as of July 28, 1985. Only persons who were county committee members and so registered to vote as of July 28, 1985, shall be eligible for membership on an initial regional committee, and only those persons who are eligible for such membership and are in attendance at a meeting held for the purpose of the election shall be entitled to cast a vote. The meeting shall be held at a time and place designated and announced by the educational service district superintendent, but no later than the thirtieth day after July 28, 1985. The educational service district superintendent shall preside over the meeting. Nominations shall be from the floor and shall be for position numbers assigned by the educational service district superintendent for the purpose of the initial election and all subsequent elections held pursuant to RCW 28A.315.060.)) the term of office of each regional committee member and position shall expire as of the second Monday of January 1995. Each regional committee member position shall therefore be open for election purposes in 1994. Members of each ((initial)) regional committee shall be elected by majority vote and shall serve for the staggered terms of office set forth in RCW ((28A.315.060)) 28A.315.080 and until their successors are certified as elected pursuant to RCW 28A.315.060. Regional committee member position numbers shall be assigned by the educational service district superintendent for purposes of all elections held pursuant to RCW 28A.315.060.~~

Sec. 2. RCW 28A.315.060 and 1990 c 33 s 295 are each amended to read as follows:

The members of each regional committee shall be elected in the following manner:

(1) On or before the 25th day of September, ((1986)) 1994, and not later than the 25th day of September of every subsequent even-numbered year, each superintendent of an educational service district shall call an election to be held in each educational service district within which resides a member of a regional committee whose term of office expires on the second Monday of January next following, and shall give written notice thereof to each member of the board of directors of each school district in the educational service district. Such notice shall include instructions, and the rules and regulations established by the state board of education for the conduct of the election. The state board of education is hereby empowered to adopt rules pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW which establish standards and procedures which the state board deems necessary to conduct elections pursuant to this section; to conduct run-off elections in the event an election for a position is indecisive; and to decide run-off elections which result in tie votes, in a fair and orderly manner.

(2) Candidates for membership on a regional committee shall file a declaration of candidacy with the superintendent of the educational service district wherein they reside. Declarations of candidacy may be filed by person or by mail not earlier than the 1st day of October, and not later than the 15th day of October of each even-numbered year. The superintendent may not accept any declaration of candidacy that is not on file in his or her office or not postmarked before the 16th day of October, or if not postmarked or the postmark is not legible, if received by mail after the 20th day of October of each even-numbered year.

(3) Each member of the regional committee shall be elected by a majority of the votes cast for all candidates for the position by the members of the boards of directors of school districts in the educational service district. All votes shall be cast by mail ballot addressed to the superintendent of the educational service district wherein the school director resides. No votes shall be accepted for counting if postmarked after the 16th day of November or if not postmarked or the postmark is not legible, if received by mail after the 21st day of November of each even-numbered year. An election board comprised of three persons appointed by the board of the educational service district shall count and tally the votes not later than the 25th day of November or the next business day if the 25th falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday of each even-numbered year. Each vote cast by a school director shall be recorded as one vote. Within ten days following the count of votes, the educational service district superintendent shall certify to the superintendent of public instruction the name or names of the person(s) elected to be members of the regional committee.

(4) In the event of a change in the number of educational service districts or in the number of educational service district board members pursuant to chapter 28A.310 RCW a new regional committee shall be elected for each affected educational service district at the next ~~((annual))~~ election conducted pursuant to this section. Those persons who were serving on a regional committee within an educational service district affected by a change in the number of districts or board members shall continue to constitute the regional committee for the educational service district within which they are registered to vote until the majority of a new board has been elected and certified.

(5) No member of a regional committee shall continue to serve thereon if he or she ceases to be a registered voter of the educational service district board member district or if he or she is absent from three consecutive meetings of the committee without an excuse acceptable to the committee.

Sec. 3. RCW 28A.315.080 and 1990 c 33 s 296 are each amended to read as follows:

The terms of members of the regional committees shall be for ~~((five))~~ four years and until their successors are certified as elected. ~~((As nearly as possible one-fifth of the members shall be elected annually.))~~ For the ~~((initial))~~ 1994 election conducted pursuant to RCW 28A.315.030 and the election of a new regional committee following a change in the number of educational service districts or board members, regional committee member positions one ~~((and six)),~~ three, five, seven, and nine shall be for a term of ~~((five))~~ two years, positions two ~~((and seven)),~~ four, six, and eight shall be for a term of four years ~~((, positions three and eight shall be for a term of three years, positions four and nine shall be for a term of two years, and position five shall be for a term of one year))~~.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act shall take effect September 1, 1994."

(1) Whenever state officers or measures are voted upon at a state primary or general election held in an odd-numbered year under RCW 29.13.010, the state of Washington shall assume a prorated share of the costs of that state primary or general election.

(2) Whenever a primary or vacancy election is held to fill a vacancy in the position of United States senator or United States representative under chapter 29.68 RCW, the state of Washington shall assume a prorated share of the costs of that primary or vacancy election.

(3) Whenever a presidential preference primary election is held under chapter 29.19 RCW, the state of Washington shall assume all costs of holding the election if it is held alone. If any other election or elections are held at the same time, the state is liable only for its prorated share.

(4) The county auditor shall apportion the state's share of these expenses when prorating election costs under RCW 29.13.045 and shall file such expense claims with the secretary of state.

~~((4))~~ (5) The secretary of state shall include in his or her biennial budget requests sufficient funds to carry out this section. Reimbursements for election costs shall be from appropriations specifically provided by law for that purpose.

Sec. 4. RCW 29.19.050 and 1989 c 4 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

Insofar as is practicable, and where the provisions of this chapter do not specifically indicate otherwise, the presidential preference primary shall be conducted in the same manner as a state partisan primary, including the certification of the election returns by the secretary of state. The requirement of rotation of names on the ballot does not apply to the candidates listed on the presidential preference primary ballot. County auditors may combine and consolidate two or more precincts for the purpose of conducting the presidential preference primary only if precinct vote totals for the primary can still be made available and the consolidation does not require a voter to go to a location different from that of the last regular election.

Each person desiring to vote in the presidential preference primary shall ~~((receive a ballot request form on which the voter shall sign his or her name and address and declare))~~ orally request the ballot for the party primary in which he or she wishes to participate. No record may be made of which party's ballot a voter receives and no voter may receive more than one ballot.

~~((The secretary shall prescribe rules for providing each party central committee a list of the voters who participated in the presidential primary of that party.~~

~~The signed ballot request forms shall be maintained in the centralized containers by the county auditor for a period of time as specified by rule of the secretary of state, after which time they shall be destroyed, unless otherwise directed by federal law.)~~

At a presidential preference primary, a voter may cast no more than one vote on a ballot. Any presidential preference primary ballot with more than one vote is void, and notice to this effect, couched in clear, simple language, and printed in large type, shall appear on the face of each presidential preference primary ballot. Where voting machines or electronic voting devices are in use, the notice shall be displayed on or about each machine or device."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 49.46.020 and 1989 c 1 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every employer shall pay to each of his or her employees who has reached the age of eighteen years wages at a rate of not less than ((three dollars and eighty-five cents per hour except as may be otherwise provided under this section. Beginning January 1, 1990, the state minimum wage shall be)) four dollars and ((twenty-five)) ninety cents per hour, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) On July 1, 1994, and on each July 1 thereafter, the department of labor and industries shall calculate an adjusted minimum wage to take effect the following January 1. The adjusted minimum wage shall reflect the change in the consumer price index, and be calculated as follows: The index for the calendar year preceding the year in which the calculation is made, to be known as "calendar year A," is divided by the index for the calendar year preceding calendar year A, and the resulting ratio is multiplied by the minimum wage in effect during the year in which the calculation is made. For the purposes of this subsection, "index" means the same as the definition in RCW 2.12.037(1).

(3) The director shall by regulation establish the minimum wage for employees under the age of eighteen years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 1994."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Labor and Commerce amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Automobile" means a passenger car as defined in RCW 46.04.382 registered or principally garaged in this state other than:

- (a) A farm-type tractor or other self-propelled equipment designed for use principally off public roads;
- (b) A vehicle operated on rails or crawler-treads;
- (c) A vehicle located for use as a residence;
- (d) A motor home as defined in RCW 46.04.305; or
- (e) A moped as defined in RCW 46.04.304.

(2) "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness, or disease, including death at any time resulting from the injury, sickness, or disease.

(3) "Income continuation benefits" means payments of at least eighty-five percent of the insured's loss of income from work, less credit for earned income received, because of bodily injury sustained by him or her in the accident, less income earned during the benefit payment period. The benefit payment period begins fourteen days after the date of the accident and ends at the earliest of the following:

- (a) The date on which the insured is reasonably able to perform the duties of his or her usual occupation;
- (b) The expiration of not more than fifty-two weeks from the fourteenth day; or
- (c) The date of the insured's death.

(4) "Insured automobile" means an automobile of which the named insured is the registered owner, to which the automobile liability insurance policy applies.

(5) "Insured" means:

(a) The named insured or a person who is a resident of the named insured's household and is either related to the named insured by blood, marriage, or adoption, or is the named insured's ward, foster child, or stepchild; or

(b) A person who sustains bodily injury caused by accident while: (i) Occupying or using the insured automobile with the permission of the named insured; or (ii) a pedestrian accidentally struck by the insured automobile.

(6) "Loss of services benefits" means reimbursement for payment to others, not members of the insured's household, for expenses reasonably incurred for services in lieu of those the insured would usually have performed for his or her household without compensation, provided the services are actually rendered, and ending the earliest of the following:

- (a) The date on which the insured person is reasonably able to perform those services;
- (b) The expiration of fifty-two weeks; or
- (c) The date of the insured's death.

(7) "Medical and hospital benefits" means payments for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by or on behalf of the insured for injuries sustained as a result of an automobile accident for health care services provided by persons licensed under Title 18 RCW, including pharmaceuticals, prosthetic devices and eye glasses, and necessary ambulance, hospital, and professional nursing service.

(8) "Automobile liability insurance policy" means a policy insuring against loss resulting from liability imposed by law for bodily injury, death, or property damage suffered by any person and arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of an insured automobile.

(9) "Named insured" means the individual named in the declarations of the policy and includes his or her spouse if a resident of the same household.

(10) "Occupying" means in or upon or entering into or alighting from.

(11) "Pedestrian" means a natural person not occupying a motor vehicle as defined in RCW 46.04.320.

(12) "Personal injury protection" means the benefits described in sections 1 through 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) No new automobile liability insurance policy or renewal of such an existing policy may be issued unless personal injury protection coverage benefits at limits established in this chapter for medical and hospital expenses, funeral expenses, income continuation, and loss of services sustained by an insured because of bodily injury caused by an automobile accident are offered as an optional coverage.

(2) A named insured may reject, in writing, personal injury protection coverage and the requirements of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply. If a named insured has rejected personal injury protection coverage, that rejection shall be valid and binding as to all levels of coverage and on all persons who might have otherwise been insured under such coverage. If a named insured has rejected personal injury protection coverage, such coverage shall not be included in any supplemental, renewal, or replacement policy unless a named insured subsequently requests such coverage in writing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Personal injury protection coverage need not be provided for vendor's single interest policies, general liability policies, or other policies, commonly known as umbrella policies, that apply only as excess to the automobile liability policy directly applicable to the insured motor vehicle.

(2) Personal injury protection coverage need not be provided to or on behalf of:

(a) A person who intentionally causes injury to himself or herself;

(b) A person who is injured while participating in a prearranged or organized racing or speed contest or in practice or preparation for such a contest;

(c) A person whose bodily injury is due to war, whether or not declared, or to an act or condition incident to such circumstances;

(d) A person whose bodily injury results from the radioactive, toxic, explosive, or other hazardous properties of nuclear material;

(e) The named insured or a relative while occupying a motor vehicle owned by the named insured or furnished for the named insured's regular use, if such motor vehicle is not described on the declaration page of the policy under which a claim is made;

(f) A relative while occupying a motor vehicle owned by the relative or furnished for the relative's regular use, if such motor vehicle is not described on the declaration page of the policy under which a claim is made; or

(g) An insured whose bodily injury results or arises from the insured's use of an automobile in the commission of a felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. At a minimum, personal injury protection coverage must provide each insured:

(1) Up to ten thousand dollars for medical and hospital benefits for expenses incurred within three years of the automobile accident;

(2) Benefits for funeral expenses in an amount up to two thousand dollars;

(3) Income continuation benefits covering income losses incurred within one year after the date of the insured's injury in an amount up to ten thousand dollars, subject to a limit of the lesser of two hundred dollars per week or eighty-five percent of the weekly income. The combined weekly payment receivable by the insured under any workers' compensation or other disability insurance benefits or other income continuation benefit and this insurance may not exceed eighty-five percent of the insured's weekly income; and

(4) Loss of services benefits in an amount of up to five thousand dollars, subject to a limit of forty dollars per day not to exceed two hundred dollars per week.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Insurers providing automobile liability insurance policies shall offer and provide, upon request, personal injury protection coverage limits for each insured of:

(1) Up to thirty-five thousand dollars for medical and hospital benefits incurred within three years of the automobile accident;

(2) Up to thirty-five thousand dollars for one year's income continuation benefits, subject to a limit of the lesser of seven hundred dollars per week or eighty-five percent of the weekly income; and

(3) Up to forty dollars per day for loss of services benefits, for up to one year from the date of the automobile accident.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act are each added to chapter 48.22 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1994.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The commissioner may adopt such rules as are necessary to implement sections 1 through 5 of this act by July 1, 1994."

(g) An insured whose bodily injury results or arises from the insured's use of an automobile in the commission of a felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Insurers providing automobile insurance policies must offer minimum personal injury protection coverage for each insured with maximum benefit limits as follows:

(1) Medical and hospital benefits of ten thousand dollars for expenses incurred within three years of the automobile accident;

(2) Benefits for funeral expenses in an amount of two thousand dollars;

(3) Income continuation benefits covering income losses incurred within one year after the date of the insured's injury in an amount of ten thousand dollars, subject to a limit of the lesser of two hundred dollars per week or eighty-five percent of the weekly income. The combined weekly payment receivable by the insured under any workers' compensation or other disability insurance benefits or other income continuation benefit and this insurance may not exceed eighty-five percent of the insured's weekly income;

(4) Loss of services benefits in an amount of five thousand dollars, subject to a limit of forty dollars per day not to exceed two hundred dollars per week; and

(5) Payments made under personal injury protection coverage are limited to the amount of actual loss or expense incurred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. In lieu of minimum coverage required under section 4 of this act, an insurer providing automobile liability insurance policies shall offer and provide, upon request, personal injury protection coverage with benefit limits for each insured of:

(1) Up to thirty-five thousand dollars for medical and hospital benefits incurred within three years of the automobile accident;

(2) Up to two thousand dollars for funeral expenses incurred;

(3) Up to thirty-five thousand dollars for one year's income continuation benefits, subject to a limit of the lesser of seven hundred dollars per week or eighty-five percent of the weekly income; and

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1512, by House Committee on Human Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Brough, Leonard, Chappell, Romero, Voloria, Riley, Karahalios, Horn, Wolfe, Ballasiotes, Talcott, G. Cole, Flemming and J. Kohl)

Changing provisions relating to dependent children.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, Hargrove, Fraser and Roach was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 13.34.145 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 17 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In all cases where a child has been placed in substitute care for at least fifteen months, the agency having custody of the child shall prepare a permanency ((planning)) plan and present it in a hearing ((shall be)) held before the court no later than eighteen months following commencement of the placement episode.

(2) At the permanency planning hearing, the court shall enter findings as required by RCW 13.34.130(((4)))(5). In addition the court shall: (a) Approve a ((permanent plan of care)) permanency plan which ((can)) shall include one of the following: Adoption, guardianship, ((or)) placement of the child in the home of the child's parent, relative placement with written permanency plan, or family foster care with written permanency agreement; (b) require filing of a petition for termination of parental rights; or (c) dismiss the dependency, unless the court finds, based on clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, that it is in the best interest of the child to continue the dependency beyond eighteen months, based on ((a permanent plan of care)) the permanency plan.

Extensions may only be granted in increments of twelve months or less.

Sec. 2. RCW 13.34.180 and 1990 c 246 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

A petition seeking termination of a parent and child relationship may be filed in juvenile court by any party to the dependency proceedings concerning that child. Such petition shall conform to the requirements of RCW 13.34.040, shall be served upon the parties as provided in RCW 13.34.070(7), and shall allege:

- (1) That the child has been found to be a dependent child under RCW 13.34.030(2); and
- (2) That the court has entered a dispositional order pursuant to RCW 13.34.130; and
- (3) That the child has been removed or will, at the time of the hearing, have been removed from the custody of the parent for a period of at least six months pursuant to a finding of dependency under RCW 13.34.030(2); and
- (4) That the services ordered under RCW 13.34.130 have been offered or provided and all necessary services, reasonably available, capable of correcting the parental deficiencies within the foreseeable future have been offered or provided; and

(5) That there is little likelihood that conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future. In determining whether the conditions will be remedied the court may consider, but is not limited to, the following factors:

(a) Use of intoxicating or controlled substances so as to render the parent incapable of providing proper care for the child for extended periods of time and documented unwillingness of the parent to receive and complete treatment or documented multiple failed treatment attempts;

(b) Psychological incapacity or mental deficiency of the parent that is so severe and chronic as to render the parent incapable of providing proper care for the child for extended periods of time, and documented unwillingness of the parent to receive and complete treatment or documentation that there is no treatment that can render the parent capable of providing proper care for the child in the near future; or

(c) Severe abuse of a child under age thirteen inflicted by a parent, or by any person known by the parent, if the parent: (i) Knew or should have known that the person was abusing the child; (ii) did not intervene to protect the child; and (iii) was able to protect the child. For the purposes of this subsection, "severe abuse" means any of the following: Any single act of abuse that causes physical trauma of sufficient severity that, if left untreated, could cause death; any single act of sexual abuse that causes significant bleeding, deep bruising, or significant external or internal swelling; or more than one act of physical abuse, each of which causes bleeding, deep bruising, significant external or internal swelling, bone fracture, or unconsciousness; and

(6) That continuation of the parent and child relationship clearly diminishes the child's prospects for early integration into a stable and permanent home; or

(7) In lieu of the allegations in subsections (1) through (6) of this section, the petition may allege that the child was found under such circumstances that the whereabouts of the child's parent are unknown and no person has acknowledged paternity or maternity and requested custody of the child within two months after the child was found.

A parent's failure to substantially improve parental deficiencies within twelve months following entry of the dispositional order shall give rise to a rebuttable presumption that there is little likelihood that conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future. The presumption shall not arise unless the state ensures that family reconciliation and other necessary services have been provided to the parent.

Notice of rights shall be served upon the parent, guardian, or legal custodian with the petition and shall be in substantially the following form:

"NOTICE

A petition for termination of parental rights has been filed against you. You have important legal rights and you must take steps to protect your interests. This petition could result in permanent loss of your parental rights.

1. You have the right to a fact-finding hearing before a judge.
2. You have the right to have a lawyer represent you at the hearing. A lawyer can look at the files in your case, talk to the department of social and health services and other agencies, tell you about the law, help you understand your rights, and help you at hearings. If you cannot afford a lawyer, the court will appoint one to represent you. To get a court-appointed lawyer you must contact: (explain local procedure).
3. At the hearing, you have the right to speak on your own behalf, to introduce evidence, to examine witnesses, and to receive a decision based solely on the evidence presented to the judge.

You should be present at this hearing.

You may call (insert agency) for more information about your child. The agency's name and telephone number are (insert name and telephone number)."

Sec. 3. RCW 13.34.190 and 1992 c 145 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

After hearings pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court may enter an order terminating all parental rights to a child if the court finds that:

(1) The allegations contained in the petition as provided in RCW 13.34.180 (1) through (6) are established by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence; or

(2) RCW 13.34.180 (3) and (4) may be waived because the allegations under RCW 13.34.180 (1), (2), (5), and (6) are established beyond a reasonable doubt; or

(3) The allegation under RCW 13.34.180(7) is established beyond a reasonable doubt. In determining whether RCW 13.34.180 (5) and (6) are established beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall consider whether one or more of the ((following:

(a) Conviction of the parent of rape of the child in the first, second, or third degree as defined in RCW 9A.44.073, 9A.44.076, and 9A.44.079;

(b) Conviction of the parent of criminal mistreatment of the child in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.42.020 or 9A.42.030;

(c) Conviction of the parent of one of the following assault crimes, when the child is the victim: Assault in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.36.011 and 9A.36.021 or assault of a child in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.36.120 or 9A.36.130;

(d) Conviction of the parent of murder, manslaughter, or homicide by abuse of the child's other parent, sibling, or another child;

(e) A finding by a court that a parent is a sexually violent predator as defined in RCW 71.09.020;

(f) Failure of the parent to complete available treatment ordered under this chapter or the equivalent laws of another state, where such failure has resulted in a prior termination of parental rights to another child and the parent has failed to effect significant change in the interim)) aggravated circumstances listed in RCW 13.34.130(2) exist; and

(4) Such an order is in the best interests of the child.

Sec. 4. RCW 13.34.232 and 1981 c 195 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

If the court has made a finding under RCW 13.34.231, it shall enter an order establishing a guardianship for the child.

The order shall:

(1) Appoint a person or agency to serve as guardian;

(2) Specify the guardian's rights and responsibilities concerning the care, custody, and control of the child. A guardian shall not have the authority to consent to the child's adoption;

(3) Specify an appropriate frequency of visitation between the parent and the child; and

(4) Specify the need for any continued involvement of the supervising agency and the nature of that involvement, if any.

The order shall not affect the child's status as a dependent child, and the child shall remain dependent for the duration of the guardianship.

Sec. 5. RCW 26.09.191 and 1989 c 375 s 11 and 1989 c 326 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The permanent parenting plan shall not require mutual decision-making or designation of a dispute resolution process other than court action if it is found that a parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: (a) Willful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (b) physical, sexual, or a pattern of emotional abuse of a child; or (c) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

(2)(a) If there is a conviction in a criminal action, or if a court in an action under this chapter finds by clear and convincing evidence, that a parent requesting residential time has sexually abused a child living in the parent's household at any time during the parent's life or any other child within the previous ten years, then there is a rebuttable presumption that the court shall not allow residential time to a parent and shall enter a permanent restraining order prohibiting the parent from contacting the child directly or indirectly.

(b) The presumption may be rebutted only after a finding that:

(i) The offending parent has successfully engaged in court-approved treatment for sexual offenders or is engaged in and making progress in such treatment and the treatment provider believes such contact is appropriate and poses minimal risk to the child;

(ii) If the child was sexually abused by the parent requesting residential time and if the child is in or has been in therapy for victims of sexual abuse, the child's counselor believes such contact between the child and the offending parent is in the child's best interest; and

(iii) An adequate plan for supervision of such residential time in accordance with the provisions of this chapter has been approved by the court.

(c) If the court finds that the presumption has been rebutted, the court may allow a parent who has been found to have sexually abused a child to have residential time with the child supervised by a neutral and independent adult. Unless the nonoffending parent approves the supervisor, the court shall make a finding that the proposed supervisor is neutral, independent, willing to supervise, and capable of intervening between the child and the parent if necessary. The court shall enter findings of fact regarding the qualifications of the appointed supervisor and shall notify the supervisor of the court's requirements regarding supervision. The court may immediately remove the supervisor from the supervisory role upon evidence being presented that the supervisor failed to supervise the residential time adequately.

(d) The parent's residential time with the child shall be limited if it is found that the parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Willful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or a pattern of emotional abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

~~((b))~~ (e) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting residential time. If the court expressly finds limitation on the residential time with the child will not adequately protect the child from the harm or abuse that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting residential time, the court shall restrain the parent requesting residential time from all contact with the child. If the parent requesting residential time is currently residing with another person who has a history of physical or sexual abuse of a child, whether that person is an adult or a juvenile, the court shall order that all residential time take place outside the presence of that person.

~~((e))~~ (f) Except as provided in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection, if the court expressly finds that contact between the parent and the child will not cause physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm to the child and that the probability that the parent's harmful or abusive conduct will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations of ~~((a) and (b))~~ (d) and (e) of this subsection, or if the court expressly finds the parent's conduct did not have an impact on the child, then the court need not apply the limitations of ~~((a) and (b))~~ (d) and (e) of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) A parent's involvement or conduct may have an adverse effect on the child's best interests, and the court may preclude or limit any provisions of the parenting plan, if any of the following factors exist:

- (a) A parent's neglect or substantial nonperformance of parenting functions;
- (b) A long-term emotional or physical impairment which interferes with the parent's performance of parenting functions as defined in RCW 26.09.004;
- (c) A long-term impairment resulting from drug, alcohol, or other substance abuse that interferes with the performance of parenting functions;
- (d) The absence or substantial impairment of emotional ties between the parent and the child;
- (e) The abusive use of conflict by the parent which creates the danger of serious damage to the child's psychological development;

- (f) A parent has withheld from the other parent access to the child for a protracted period without good cause; or
- (g) Such other factors or conduct as the court expressly finds adverse to the best interests of the child.

(4) In entering a permanent parenting plan, the court shall not draw any presumptions from the provisions of the temporary parenting plan.

(5) In determining whether any of the conduct described in this section has occurred, the court shall apply the civil rules of evidence, proof, and procedure.

Sec. 6. RCW 26.10.160 and 1989 c 326 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A parent not granted custody of the child is entitled to reasonable visitation rights except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2)(a) If there is a conviction in a criminal action, or if a court in an action under this chapter finds by clear and convincing evidence, that a parent requesting visitation has sexually abused a child living in the parent's household at any time during the parent's life or any other child within the previous ten years, then there is a rebuttable presumption that the court shall not allow visitation to a parent and shall enter a permanent restraining order prohibiting the parent from contacting the child directly or indirectly.

(b) The presumption may be rebutted only after a finding that:

(i) The offending parent has successfully engaged in court-approved treatment for sexual offenders or is engaged in and making progress in such treatment and the treatment provider believes such contact is appropriate and poses minimal risk to the child;

(ii) If the child was sexually abused by the parent requesting visitation and if the child is in or has been in therapy for victims of sexual abuse, the child's counselor believes such contact between the child and the offending parent is in the child's best interest; and

(iii) An adequate plan for supervision of such visitation in accordance with the provisions of this chapter has been approved by the court.

(c) If the court finds that the presumption has been rebutted, the court may allow a parent who has been found to have sexually abused a child to have visitation with the child supervised by a neutral and independent adult. Unless the nonoffending parent approves the supervisor, the court must make a finding that the proposed supervisor is neutral, independent, willing to supervise, and capable of intervening between the child and the parent if necessary. The court shall enter findings of fact regarding the qualifications of the appointed supervisor and shall notify the supervisor of the court's requirements regarding supervision. The court may immediately remove the supervisor from the supervisory role upon evidence being presented that the supervisor failed to supervise the residential time adequately.

(d) Visitation with the child shall be limited if it is found that the parent seeking visitation has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Willful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or a pattern of emotional abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

~~((b))~~ (e) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting visitation. If the court expressly finds limitations on visitation with the child will not adequately protect the child from the harm or abuse that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting visitation, the court shall restrain the person seeking visitation from all contact with the child. If the parent requesting visitation is currently residing with another person who has a history of physical or sexual abuse of a child, whether that person is an adult or a juvenile, the court shall order that all visitation take place outside the presence of that person.

~~((e))~~ (f) Except as provided in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection, if the court expressly finds that contact between the parent and the child will not cause physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm to the child and that the probability that the parent's harmful or abusive conduct will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations of ~~((a) and (b))~~ (d) and (e) of this subsection, or if the court expressly finds the parent's conduct did not have an impact on the child, then the court need not apply the limitations of ~~((a) and (b))~~ (d) and (e) of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) Any person may petition the court for visitation rights at any time including, but not limited to, custody proceedings. The court may order visitation rights for any person when visitation may serve the best interest of the child whether or not there has been any change of circumstances.

(4) The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child. Modification of a parent's visitation rights shall be subject to the requirements of subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The provisions of this section shall apply when a court orders a party to undergo an alcohol or substance abuse diagnostic investigation and evaluation.

(2) The facility conducting the investigation and evaluation shall make a written report to the court stating its findings and recommendations including family-based services or treatment when appropriate. If its findings and recommendations support treatment, it shall also recommend a treatment plan setting out:

- (a) Type of treatment;
- (b) Nature of treatment;
- (c) Length of treatment;
- (d) A treatment time schedule; and
- (e) Approximate cost of the treatment.

The affected person shall be included in developing the appropriate plan of treatment. The plan of treatment must be signed by treatment provider and the affected person. The initial written report based on the treatment plan and response to treatment shall be sent to appropriate persons six weeks after initiation of treatment, and after three months, after six months, after twelve months, and thereafter every six months if treatment exceeds twelve months. Reports are to be filed in a timely manner. Close-out of the treatment record must include summary of pretreatment and posttreatment, with final outcome and disposition. The report shall also include recommendations for ongoing stability and decrease in destructive behavior.

The report with the treatment plan shall be filed with the court and a copy given to the person evaluated and the person's counsel. A copy of the treatment plan shall also be given to the department's caseworker and to the guardian ad litem. Any program for alcoholism shall meet the program requirements contained in RCW 10.05.150.

(3) If the court has ordered treatment pursuant to a dependency proceeding it shall also require the treatment program to provide, in the reports required by subsection (2) of this section, status reports to the court, the department, the supervising child-placing agency if any, and the person or person's counsel regarding: (a) The person's cooperation with the treatment plan proposed; and (b) the person's progress in treatment.

(4) In addition, if the party fails or neglects to carry out and fulfill any term or condition of the treatment plan, the program or agency administering the treatment shall report such breach to the court, the department, the guardian ad litem, the supervising child-placing agency if any, and the person or person's counsel, within twenty-four hours, together with its recommendation. These reports shall be made as a declaration by the person who is personally responsible for providing the treatment.

(5) Nothing in this chapter may be construed as allowing the court to require the department to pay for the cost of any alcohol or substance abuse treatment program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The court or the department, upon receiving a report under section 7(4) of this act, may schedule a show cause hearing to determine whether the person is in violation of the treatment conditions. All parties shall be given notice of the hearing. The court shall hold the hearing within ten days of the request for a hearing. At the hearing, testimony, declarations, reports, or other relevant information may be presented on the person's alleged failure to comply with the treatment plan and the person shall have the right to present similar information on his or her own behalf.

(2) If the court finds that there has been a violation of the treatment conditions it shall modify the dependency order, as necessary, to ensure the safety of the child. The modified order shall remain in effect until the party is in full compliance with the treatment requirements.

Sec. 9. RCW 13.34.110 and 1991 c 340 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The court shall hold a fact-finding hearing on the petition and, unless the court dismisses the petition, shall make written findings of fact, stating the reasons therefor, and after it has announced its findings of fact shall hold a hearing to consider disposition of the case immediately following the fact-finding hearing or at a continued hearing within fourteen days or longer for good cause shown. The parties need not appear at the fact-finding or dispositional hearing if ~~((all))~~ the parties, their attorneys, the guardian ad litem, and court-appointed special advocates are all in agreement~~((; but))~~. The court shall receive and review a social study before entering an order based on agreement. No social file or social study may be considered by the court in connection with the fact-finding hearing or prior to factual determination, except as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence. Notice of the time and place of the continued hearing may be given in open court. If notice in open court is not given to a party, that party shall be notified by mail of the time and place of any continued hearing.

All hearings may be conducted at any time or place within the limits of the county, and such cases may not be heard in conjunction with other business of any other division of the superior court. The general public shall be excluded, and only such persons may be admitted who are found by the judge to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. If a child resides in foster care or in the home of a relative pursuant to a disposition order entered under RCW 13.34.130, the court may allow the child's foster parent or relative care provider to attend dependency review proceedings pertaining to the child for the sole purpose of providing information about the child to the court.

Stenographic notes or any device which accurately records the proceedings may be required as provided in other civil cases pursuant to RCW 2.32.200.

Sec. 10. RCW 13.34.120 and 1987 c 524 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To aid the court in its decision on disposition, a social study, consisting of a written evaluation of matters relevant to the disposition of the case, shall be made by the person or agency filing the petition. The study shall include all social records and may also include facts relating to the child's cultural heritage, and shall be made available to the court. The court shall consider the social file ~~((and))~~, social study, guardian ad litem report, the court-appointed special advocates report and any reports filed by a party at the disposition hearing in addition to evidence produced at the fact-finding hearing. At least ten working days before the disposition hearing, the department shall mail to the parent and his or her attorney a copy of the agency's social study and proposed service plan, which shall be in writing or in a form understandable to the parents or custodians. In addition, the department shall provide an opportunity for parents to review and comment on the plan at the community service office. If the parents disagree with the agency's plan or any part thereof, the parents shall submit to the court at least twenty-four hours before the hearing, in writing, or signed oral statement, an alternative plan to correct the problems which led to the finding of dependency. This section shall not interfere with the right of the parents or custodians to submit oral arguments regarding the disposition plan at the hearing.

(2) In addition to the requirements set forth in subsection (1) of this section, a predisposition study to the court in cases of dependency alleged pursuant to RCW 13.34.030(2) (b) or (c) shall contain the following information:

(a) A statement of the specific harm or harms to the child that intervention is designed to alleviate;

(b) A description of the specific programs, for both the parents and child, that are needed in order to prevent serious harm to the child; the reasons why such programs are likely to be useful; the availability of any proposed services; and the agency's overall plan for ensuring that the services will be delivered;

(c) If removal is recommended, a full description of the reasons why the child cannot be protected adequately in the home, including a description of any previous efforts to work with the parents and the child in the home; the in-home treatment programs which have been considered and rejected; and the parents' attitude toward placement of the child;

- (d) A statement of the likely harms the child will suffer as a result of removal. This section should include an exploration of the nature of the parent-child attachment and the meaning of separation and loss to both the parents and the child;
- (e) A description of the steps that will be taken to minimize harm to the child that may result if separation occurs; and
- (f) Behavior that will be expected before determination that supervision of the family or placement is no longer necessary.

Sec. 11. RCW 13.34.150 and 1990 c 246 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

Any order made by the court in the case of a dependent child may be changed, modified, or set aside, only upon a showing of a change in circumstance or as provided in section 8 of this act.

Sec. 12. RCW 13.34.162 and 1988 c 275 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

A determination of child support shall be based upon the child support schedule and standards ~~((adopted))~~ provided under chapter 26.19 RCW ~~((26.19.040)).~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 26.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) This chapter shall not be construed to authorize interference with child-raising practices, including reasonable parental discipline, which are not injurious to the child's health, welfare, and safety.

(2) Nothing in this chapter may be used to prohibit the reasonable use of corporal punishment as a means of discipline.

(3) No parent or guardian may be deemed abusive or neglectful solely by reason of the parent's or child's blindness, deafness, developmental disability, or other handicap.

(4) A person reporting injury, abuse, or neglect to an adult dependent person shall not suffer negative consequences if the person reporting believes in good faith that the adult dependent person has been found legally incompetent or disabled.

Sec. 14. RCW 26.44.020 and 1988 c 142 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of and as used in this chapter:

(1) "Court" means the superior court of the state of Washington, juvenile department.

(2) "Law enforcement agency" means the police department, the prosecuting attorney, the state patrol, the director of public safety, or the office of the sheriff.

(3) "Practitioner of the healing arts" or "practitioner" means a person licensed by this state to practice ~~((podiatry))~~ podiatric medicine and surgery, optometry, chiropractic, nursing, dentistry, osteopathy and surgery, or medicine and surgery or to provide other health services. The term "practitioner" shall include a duly accredited Christian Science practitioner: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a person who is being furnished Christian Science treatment by a duly accredited Christian Science practitioner shall not be considered, for that reason alone, a neglected person for the purposes of this chapter.

(4) "Institution" means a private or public hospital or any other facility providing medical diagnosis, treatment or care.

(5) "Department" means the state department of social and health services.

(6) "Child" or "children" means any person under the age of eighteen years of age.

(7) "Professional school personnel" shall include, but not be limited to, teachers, counselors, administrators, child care facility personnel, and school nurses.

(8) "Social service counselor" shall mean anyone engaged in a professional capacity during the regular course of employment in encouraging or promoting the health, welfare, support or education of children, or providing social services to adults or families, including mental health, drug and alcohol treatment, and domestic violence programs, whether in an individual capacity, or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(9) "Psychologist" shall mean any person licensed to practice psychology under chapter 18.83 RCW, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(10) "Pharmacist" shall mean any registered pharmacist under the provisions of chapter 18.64 RCW, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(11) "Clergy" shall mean any regularly licensed or ordained minister, priest or rabbi of any church or religious denomination, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(12) ~~((Child))~~ Abuse or neglect shall mean the injury, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, ~~((or))~~ negligent treatment, or maltreatment of a child, adult dependent, or developmentally disabled person by any person under circumstances which indicate that the child's or adult's health, welfare, and safety is harmed ~~((thereby))~~. An abused child is a child who has been subjected to child abuse or neglect as defined herein ~~((: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not be construed to authorize interference with child-raising practices, including reasonable parental discipline, which are not proved to be injurious to the child's health, welfare, and safety: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be used to prohibit the reasonable use of corporal punishment as a means of discipline. No parent or guardian shall be deemed abusive or neglectful solely by reason of the parent's or child's blindness, deafness, developmental disability, or other handicap))~~.

(13) "Child protective services section" shall mean the child protective services section of the department.

(14) "Adult dependent persons ~~((not able to provide for their own protection through the criminal justice system))~~" shall be defined as those persons over the age of eighteen years who have been found to be legally incompetent or disabled pursuant to chapter 11.88 RCW ((or found disabled to such a degree pursuant to said chapter, that such protection is indicated: PROVIDED, That no persons reporting injury, abuse, or neglect to an adult dependent person as defined herein shall suffer negative consequences if such a judicial determination of incompetency or disability has not taken place and the person reporting believes in good faith that the adult dependent person has been found legally incompetent pursuant to chapter 11.88 RCW)).

(15) "Sexual exploitation" includes: (a) Allowing, permitting, or encouraging a child to engage in prostitution by any person; or (b) allowing, permitting, encouraging, or engaging in the obscene or pornographic photographing, filming, or depicting of a child ((for commercial purposes as those acts are defined by state law)) by any person.

(16) "Negligent treatment or maltreatment" means an act or omission which evidences a serious disregard of consequences of such magnitude as to constitute a clear and present danger to the child's health, welfare, and safety.

(17) "Developmentally disabled person" means a person who has a disability defined in RCW ((71.20.046)) 71A.10.020.

(18) "Child protective services" means those services provided by the department designed to protect children from child abuse and neglect and safeguard the general welfare of such children and shall include investigations of child abuse and neglect reports, including reports regarding child care centers and family child care homes, and the development, management, and provision of or referral to services to ameliorate conditions which endanger the welfare of children, the coordination of necessary programs and services relevant to the prevention, intervention, and treatment of child abuse and neglect, and services to children to ensure that each child has a permanent home. In determining whether protective services should be provided, the department shall not decline to provide such services solely because of the child's unwillingness or developmental inability to describe the nature and severity of the abuse or neglect.

(19) "Malice" or "maliciously" means an evil intent, wish, or design to vex, annoy, or injure another person. Such malice may be inferred from an act done in wilful disregard of the rights of another, or an act wrongfully done without just cause or excuse, or an act or omission of duty betraying a wilful disregard of social duty.

Sec. 15. RCW 26.44.030 and 1991 c 111 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When any practitioner, professional school personnel, registered or licensed nurse, social service counselor, psychologist, pharmacist, licensed or certified child care providers or their employees, employee of the department, or juvenile probation officer has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person, has suffered abuse or neglect, he or she shall report such incident, or cause a report to be made, to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department as provided in RCW 26.44.040. The reporting requirement shall also apply to any adult who has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person, who resides with them, has suffered abuse or neglect. The report shall be made at the first opportunity, but in no case longer than forty-eight hours after there is reasonable cause to believe that the child or adult has suffered abuse or neglect. The report shall include the identity of the accused if known.

(2) The reporting requirement of subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the discovery of abuse or neglect that occurred during childhood if it is discovered after the child has become an adult. However, if there is reasonable cause to believe other children, dependent adults, or developmentally disabled persons are or may be at risk of abuse or neglect by the accused, the reporting requirement of subsection (1) of this section shall apply.

(3) Any other person who has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person has suffered abuse or neglect may report such incident to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department of social and health services as provided in RCW 26.44.040.

(4) The department, upon receiving a report of an incident of abuse or neglect pursuant to this chapter, involving a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person who has died or has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him or her other than by accidental means or who has been subjected to sexual abuse, shall report such incident to the proper law enforcement agency. In emergency cases, where the child, adult dependent, or developmentally disabled person's welfare is endangered, the department shall notify the proper law enforcement agency within twenty-four hours after a report is received by the department. In all other cases, the department shall notify the law enforcement agency within seventy-two hours after a report is received by the department. If the department makes an oral report, a written report shall also be made to the proper law enforcement agency within five days thereafter.

(5) Any law enforcement agency receiving a report of an incident of abuse or neglect pursuant to this chapter, involving a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person who has died or has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him or her other than by accidental means, or who has been subjected to sexual abuse, shall report such incident in writing as provided in RCW 26.44.040 to the proper county prosecutor or city attorney for appropriate action whenever the law enforcement agency's investigation reveals that a crime may have been committed. The law enforcement agency shall also notify the department of all reports received and the law enforcement agency's disposition of them. In emergency cases, where the child, adult dependent, or developmentally disabled person's welfare is endangered, the law enforcement agency shall notify the department within twenty-four hours. In all other cases, the law enforcement agency shall notify the department within seventy-two hours after a report is received by the law enforcement agency.

(6) Any county prosecutor or city attorney receiving a report under subsection (5) of this section shall notify the victim, any persons the victim requests, and the local office of the department, of the decision to charge or decline to charge a crime, within five days of making the decision.

(7) The department may conduct ongoing case planning and consultation with those persons or agencies required to report under this section, with consultants designated by the department, and with designated representatives of Washington Indian tribes if the client information exchanged is pertinent to cases currently receiving child protective services or department case services for the developmentally disabled. Upon request, the department shall conduct such planning and consultation with those persons required to report under this section if the department determines it is in the best interests of the child or developmentally disabled person. Information considered privileged by statute and not directly related to reports required by this section shall not be divulged without a valid written waiver of the privilege.

(8) Any case referred to the department by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW on the basis of an expert medical opinion that child abuse, neglect, or sexual assault has occurred and that the child's safety will be seriously endangered if returned home, the department shall file a dependency petition unless a second licensed physician of the parents' choice believes that such expert medical opinion is incorrect. If the parents fail to designate a second physician, the department may make the selection. If a physician finds that a child has suffered abuse or neglect but that such abuse or neglect does not constitute imminent danger to the child's health or safety, and the department agrees with the physician's assessment, the child may be left in the parents' home while the department proceeds with reasonable efforts to remedy parenting deficiencies.

(9) Persons or agencies exchanging information under subsection (7) of this section shall not further disseminate or release the information except as authorized by state or federal statute. Violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor.

(10) Upon receiving reports of abuse or neglect, the department or law enforcement agency may interview children. The interviews may be conducted on school premises, at day-care facilities, at the child's home, or at other suitable locations outside of the presence of parents. Parental notification of the interview shall occur at the earliest possible point in the investigation that will not jeopardize the safety or protection of the child or the course of the investigation. Prior to commencing the interview the department or law enforcement agency shall determine whether the child wishes a third party to be present for the interview and, if so, shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate the child's wishes. Unless the child objects, the department or law enforcement agency shall make reasonable efforts to include a third party in any interview so long as the presence of the third party will not jeopardize the course of the investigation.

(11) Upon receiving a report of incidents, conditions, or circumstances of child abuse and neglect, the department shall have access to all relevant records of the child in the possession of mandated reporters and their employees.

(12) The department shall maintain investigation records and conduct timely and periodic reviews of all cases constituting abuse and neglect. The department shall maintain a log of screened-out nonabusive cases.

(13) The department (~~(of social and health services)~~) shall (~~(, within funds appropriated for this purpose,)~~) use a risk assessment (~~(tool)~~) process when investigating child abuse and neglect referrals. (~~(The tool shall be used, on a pilot basis, in three local office service areas.)~~) The department shall present the risk factors at all hearings in which the placement of a dependent child is an issue. The department shall, within funds appropriated for this purpose, offer enhanced community-based services to persons who are determined not to require further state intervention.

The department shall provide annual reports to the (~~(ways and means)~~) appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives on the (~~(use)~~) effectiveness of the (~~(tool by December 1, 1989. The report shall include recommendations on the continued use and possible expanded use of the tool)~~) risk assessment process.

(14) Upon receipt of (~~(such)~~) a report of abuse or neglect the law enforcement agency may arrange to interview the person making the report and any collateral sources to determine if any malice is involved in the reporting.

Sec. 16. RCW 26.44.040 and 1987 c 206 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

An immediate oral report shall be made by telephone or otherwise to the proper law enforcement agency or the department of social and health services and, upon request, shall be followed by a report in writing. Such reports shall contain the following information, if known:

- (1) The name, address, and age of the child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person;
- (2) The name and address of the child's parents, stepparents, guardians, or other persons having custody of the child or the residence of the adult dependent or developmentally disabled person;
- (3) The nature and extent of the injury or injuries;
- (4) The nature and extent of the neglect;
- (5) The nature and extent of the sexual abuse;
- (6) Any evidence of previous injuries, including their nature and extent; and
- (7) Any other information which may be helpful in establishing the cause of the child's or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person's death, injury, or injuries and the identity of the alleged perpetrator or perpetrators.

Sec. 17. RCW 26.44.063 and 1988 c 190 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is the intent of the legislature to minimize trauma to a child involved in an allegation of sexual or physical abuse. The legislature declares that removing the child from the home often has the effect of further traumatizing the child. It is, therefore, the legislature's intent that the alleged offender, rather than the child, shall be removed from the home and that this should be done at the earliest possible point of intervention in accordance with RCW 10.31.100, 13.34.130, this section, and RCW 26.44.130.

(2) In any judicial proceeding in which it is alleged that a child has been subjected to sexual or physical abuse, if the court finds reasonable grounds to believe that an incident of sexual or physical abuse has occurred, the court may, on its own motion, or the motion of the guardian ad litem or other parties, issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction restraining or enjoining the person accused of committing the abuse from:

- (a) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the alleged victim;
- (b) Entering the family home of the alleged victim except as specifically authorized by the court; or
- (c) Having any contact with the alleged victim, except as specifically authorized by the court.

(3) In issuing a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, the court may impose any additional restrictions that the court in its discretion determines are necessary to protect the child from further abuse or emotional trauma pending final resolution of the abuse allegations.

(4) The court shall issue a temporary restraining order prohibiting a person from entering the family home if the court finds that the order would eliminate the need for an out-of-home placement to protect the child's right to nurturance, health, and safety and is sufficient to protect the child from further sexual or physical abuse or coercion.

(5) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the party to be restrained or other parties only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(6) A temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding; and

(b) May be revoked or modified.

(7) The person having physical custody of the child shall have an affirmative duty to assist in the enforcement of the restraining order including but not limited to a duty to notify the court as soon as practicable of any violation of the order, a duty to request the assistance of law enforcement officers to enforce the order, and a duty to notify the department of social and health services of any violation of the order as soon as practicable if the department is a party to the action. Failure by the custodial party to discharge these affirmative duties shall be subject to contempt proceedings.

(8) Willful violation of a court order entered under this section is a misdemeanor. A written order shall contain the court's directive and shall bear the legend: "Violation of this order with actual notice of its terms is a criminal offense under chapter 26.44 RCW, is also subject to contempt proceedings, and will subject a violator to arrest."

Sec. 18. RCW 26.44.067 and 1989 c 373 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person having had actual notice of the existence of a restraining order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to RCW 26.44.063 who refuses to comply with the provisions of such order (~~when requested by any peace officer of the state~~) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) The notice requirements of subsection (1) of this section may be satisfied by the peace officer giving oral or written evidence to the person subject to the order by reading from or handing to that person a copy certified by a notary public or the clerk of the court to be an accurate copy of the original court order which is on file. The copy may be supplied by the court or any party.

(3) The remedies provided in this section shall not apply unless restraining orders subject to this section shall bear this legend: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER WITH ACTUAL NOTICE OF ITS TERMS IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNDER CHAPTER 26.44 RCW AND IS ALSO SUBJECT TO CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS.

(4) It is a defense to prosecution under subsection (1) of this section that the court order was issued contrary to law or court rule. No right of action shall accrue against any peace officer acting upon a properly certified copy of a court order lawful on its face if such officer employs otherwise lawful means to effect the arrest.

Sec. 19. RCW 26.44.100 and 1985 c 183 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds parents and children often are not aware of their due process rights when agencies are investigating allegations of child abuse and neglect. The legislature reaffirms that all citizens, including parents, shall be afforded due process, that protection of children remains the priority of the legislature, and that this protection includes protecting the family unit from unnecessary disruption. To facilitate this goal, the legislature wishes to ensure that parents and children be advised in writing and orally, if feasible, of their basic rights and other specific information as set forth in this (~~act~~) chapter, provided that nothing contained in this (~~act~~) chapter shall cause any delay in protective custody action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 26.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If a person who has unsupervised visitation rights with a minor child pursuant to a court order is accused of sexually or physically abusing a child and the alleged abuse has been reported to the proper authorities for investigation, the law enforcement officer conducting the investigation may file a motion with the court for a temporary restraining order to restrain the alleged abuser's visitation rights during the investigation. The investigating law enforcement officer shall submit an affidavit stating that the person is currently under investigation for sexual or physical abuse of a child, that there is a risk of harm to the child if a temporary restraining order is not entered, and that the prosecuting attorney has informed the officer that the attorney does not have enough information at the time to determine whether prosecution is warranted. The restraining order shall be issued for up to ninety days or until the investigation has been concluded in favor of the alleged abuser, whichever is shorter.

(2) Willful violation of a court order entered under this section is a misdemeanor. The court order shall state: "Violation of this order is a criminal offense under chapter 26.44 RCW and will subject the violator to arrest."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 74.14A RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall:

(1)(a) Consult with relevant qualified professionals to develop a set of minimum guidelines to be used for identifying all children who are in a state-assisted support system, whether at-home or out-of-home, who are likely to need long-term care or assistance, because they face physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other long-term challenges.

(b) The guidelines must, at a minimum, consider the following criteria for identifying children in need of long-term care or assistance:

- (i) Placement within the foster care system for two years or more;
- (ii) Multiple foster care placements;
- (iii) Repeated unsuccessful efforts to be placed with a permanent adoptive family;
- (iv) Chronic behavioral or educational problems;
- (v) Repetitive criminal acts or offenses;
- (vi) Failure to comply with court-ordered disciplinary actions and other imposed guidelines of behavior, including drug and alcohol rehabilitation; and

(vii) Chronic physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other similar conditions necessitating long-term care or assistance;

(2) Develop programs that are necessary for the long-term care of children and youth that are identified for the purposes of this section. Programs must: (a) Effectively address the educational, physical, emotional, mental, and medical needs of children and youth; and (b) incorporate an array of family support options, to individual needs and choices of the child and family. The programs must be ready for implementation by January 1, 1995;

(3) Conduct an evaluation of all children currently within the foster care agency caseload to identify those children who meet the criteria set forth in this section. The evaluation shall be completed by January 1, 1994. All children entering the foster care system after January 1, 1994, must be evaluated for identification of long-term needs within thirty days of placement;

(4) Study and develop a comprehensive plan for the evaluation and identification of all children and youth in need of long-term care or assistance, including, but not limited to, the mentally ill, developmentally disabled, medically fragile, seriously emotionally or behaviorally disabled, and physically impaired;

(5) Study and develop a plan for the children and youth in need of long-term care or assistance to ensure the coordination of services between the department's divisions and between other state agencies who are involved with the child or youth.

(6) Study and develop guidelines for transitional services, between long-term care programs, based on the person's age or mental, physical, emotional, or medical condition; and

(7) Study and develop a statutory proposal for the emancipation of minors and report its findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1994.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Sections 5 and 6 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "children;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 13.34.145, 13.34.180, 13.34.190, 13.34.232, 26.10.160, 13.34.110, 13.34.120, 13.34.150, 13.34.162, 26.44.020, 26.44.030, 26.44.040, 26.44.063, 26.44.067, and 26.44.100; reenacting and amending RCW 26.09.191; adding new sections to chapter 13.34 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 26.44 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.14A RCW; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1512, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1512, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1512, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; Nays, 0; Absent, 2; Excused, 3.

NOTICE: Formatting and page numbering in this document may be different from that in the original published version.

NINETY-SEVENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Saturday, April 17, 1993

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Pritchard. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Anderson, Erwin, McCaslin, McDonald, Moyer, Niemi, Owen, Rinehart, Skratek and Talmadge. On motion of Senator Oke, Senators Anderson, Erwin, McCaslin, McDonald and Moyer were excused. On motion of Senator Spanel, Senators Niemi, Rinehart, Skratek and Talmadge were excused. On motion of Senator Snyder, Senator Owen was excused.

The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, consisting of Pages Julie del Plain and Colleen Altstock, presented the Colors. Reverend Tammy Leiter, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered the prayer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

January 27, 1993

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation.

D. E. Chillberg, appointed January 27, 1993, for a term ending June 30, 1995, as Chair of the Housing Finance Committee.

Sincerely,
MIKE LOWERY, Governor

Referred to Committee on Labor and Commerce.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Due to work in the conference committee on health care reform, I missed the votes on the following bills: Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1505, as amended by the Senate; Amendment by Senator West to Engrossed Substitute House No. 1562; Engrossed House Bill No. 1617, as amended by the Senate; Engrossed House Bill No. 1007, as amended by the Senate; and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1562, as amended by the Senate.

I would have voted 'yes' on all the measures, but 'no' on the West amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1562.

SENATOR PHIL TALMADGE, 34th District

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1505, deferred on second reading after the amendments by Senator Sutherland on page 1, lines 6 and 11, and page 7, after line 16, were ruled out of order, April 14, 1993.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hargrove, the following amendment by Senators Hargrove and Moore was adopted:

On page 7, after line 16, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 18.27 RCW to read as follows:

(1) By July 1, 1994, the department shall develop and implement a voluntary certificate of competency program for general and specialty contractors registered under this chapter.

(2) The department shall prepare appropriate examinations for general and specialty contractors' certificates of competency to be administered to eligible applicants. The examination must be constructed to determine:

(a) Whether the applicant possesses varied general knowledge of the technical information and practical procedures identified with the construction trade; and

(b) Whether the applicant is familiar with the applicable building codes, statutory requirements, and administrative rules pertaining to the construction trade.

(3)(a) An applicant for a contractor certificate of competency shall submit the required fee and, except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, an application to take the competency examination on the form and in the manner prescribed by the department. The applicant must be a registered contractor, and, except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, must provide written evidence that he or she has completed a course of study in the construction trade for general or specialty contractors, as appropriate, at a school or training program approved by the department. If the director determines that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the director shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the examination. The director shall establish reasonable rules for the conduct of examinations.

(b) The department shall certify the results of the examination and shall notify the applicant in writing whether he or she has passed or failed. An applicant who has failed the examination may retake the examination, on the terms and after a period of time determined by the department by rule. The number of times that an applicant may take the examination may not be limited.

(4) The department shall issue a certificate of competency to an applicant who has passed the examination and has paid all appropriate fees, or to a registered contractor engaged in a bona fide contracting business with at least two years of experience, who has paid all appropriate fees. The certificate must bear the date of issuance, and must expire on the birthdate of the holder immediately following the date of issuance. The certificate is renewable every other year, upon application and payment of a fee, on or before the holder's birthdate. A doubled fee shall be charged for failure to renew the certificate by the renewal date. A holder shall retake the examination and pay the examination fee if he or she does not renew the certificate within ninety days of the renewal date in order to renew the certificate.

(5) The department shall establish certification fees that cover the full cost of processing applications for certification, developing and administering the examination, and issuing and renewing certification.

(6) The holder of a certificate of competency may verbally represent that he or she holds a certificate of competency and may include the information that he or she holds the certificate in documents, including but not limited to advertising, contracts, business cards, and signs. A making of a claim by a contractor that he or she holds a certificate of competency when such a certificate has not been lawfully issued to the contractor or is not in force under this chapter is an infraction and the contractor is subject to having his or her registration suspended for up to two years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 18.27 RCW to read as follows:

(1) There is created a state advisory committee of construction contractors, comprised of seven members appointed by the director. One member shall be from each of the following construction classifications: (a) Commercial/retail construction; (b) highway/industrial construction; (c) municipal/utility construction; (d) marine construction; (e) residential single-family construction; and (f) residential multifamily construction. The seventh member shall be a representative of the general public who is familiar with the business and trade of construction.

(2) The initial terms of the members of the advisory committee shall be as follows: For the members representing commercial/retail and marine construction, one year; for the members representing highway/industrial, residential single-family construction, and the general public, two years; and for the members representing municipal/utility and residential multifamily construction, three years. The regular term of the members of the advisory committee shall be three years. The director shall appoint or reappoint committee members to fill vacancies created by the completion of terms. In the case of a vacancy on the committee for any other reason, the director shall appoint a successor from the same construction classification to serve out the term of the person whose position has become vacant.

(3) It shall be the purpose and function of the committee to advise the department on all matters pertaining to the development, implementation, and enforcement of the voluntary certificate of competency program for general and specialty contractors registered under this chapter.

(4) Each member of the committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses and paid special per diem rates in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for each day such member is engaged in bona fide business of the advisory committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 12 and 13 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1994.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The director of the department of labor and industries may take such steps as are necessary to ensure that sections 12 and 13 of this act are implemented on their effective date."

On motion of Senator Moore, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "18.27.320;" strike "creating a new section; and prescribing penalties" and insert "adding new sections to chapter 18.27 RCW; creating new sections; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1505, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1505, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1505, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; Nays, 9; Absent, 0; Excused, 10.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Bauer, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Roach, Sheldon, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West and Winsley - 30.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bluechel, Hochstatter, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Sellar, Williams and Wojahn - 9.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1505, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1562, by House Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Brown, Dellwo, H. Myers, Orr, Mastin and J. Kohl)

Authorizing local governments to exceed statutory property tax limitations for the purpose of financing affordable housing for very low-income households.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator West moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, line 12, after "to do so by" strike "a majority" and insert "three-fifths of the persons"

Debate ensued.

Senator Nelson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senator West on page 2, line 12, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1562.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; Nays, 22; Absent, 1; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Cantu, Deccio, Erwin, Hargrove, Hochstatter, McDonald, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Prince, Roach, Sellar, Smith, L., von Reichbauer, West and Winsley - 19.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Drew, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Pelz, Prentice, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Sheldon, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, Williams and Wojahn - 22.

Absent: Senator Bluechel - 1.

Excused: Senators McCaslin, Moyer, Niemi, Owen, Rinehart, Skratek and Talmadge - 7.

MOTION

Senator West moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 2, line 18, after "county." insert "If any levy imposed under this section, when added to any levies imposed under RCW 84.52.069 and 84.34.230 together exceed fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation, the levy imposed under this section shall be reduced or eliminated so that the combined levies shall not exceed fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation on any property."

On page 4, strike all of section 4.

Renumber the remaining section(s) accordingly

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senator West on page 2, line 18, and on page 4, strike all of section 4, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1562.

The motion by Senator West carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator West, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, after line 7, strike all the material through and including "located." on page 3, line 2, and insert the following:

"(1) A county, city, or town may impose additional regular property tax levies of up to fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of property in each year for up to ten consecutive years to finance affordable housing for very low-income households when specifically authorized to do so by a majority of at least three-fifths of the registered voters thereof approving a proposition authorizing the levies submitted at a general or special election, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of registered voters voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the registered voters thereof voting on the proposition when the number of registered voters voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election. Ballot propositions shall conform with RCW 84.52.054.

(2) The additional property tax levies may not be imposed until:

(a) The governing body of the county, city, or town declares the existence of an emergency with respect to the availability of housing that is affordable to very low-income households in the taxing district; and

(b) The governing body of the county, city, or town adopts an affordable housing financing plan to serve as the plan for expenditure of funds raised by a levy authorized under this section, and the governing body determines that the affordable housing financing plan is consistent with either the locally adopted or state-adopted comprehensive housing affordability strategy, required under the Cranston-Gonzalez national affordable housing act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12701, et seq.), as amended.

(3) For purposes of this section, the term "very low-income household" means a single person, or family whose income is at or below fifty percent of the median income, as determined by the United States department of housing and urban development, with adjustments for household size, for the county where the taxing district is located."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1562 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1617, by Representatives R. Fisher, Chandler, Schmidt, Eide, Johanson, J. Kohl, Kremen, Cothorn, Jacobsen, Brough, Pruitt, Thomas, R. Meyers, Miller, Shin, Karahalios, Locke, Finkbeiner, Ogden, Quall, Orr, Wineberry, Veloria, Wood, H. Myers, L. Johnson and Anderson

Planning high-speed ground transportation.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that major intercity transportation corridors in this state are becoming increasingly congested. In these corridors, population is expected to grow by nearly forty percent over the next twenty years, while employment will grow by nearly fifty percent. The estimated seventy-five percent increase in intercity travel demand must be accommodated to ensure state economic vitality and protect the state's quality of life.

The legislature finds that high-speed ground transportation offers a safer, more efficient, and environmentally responsible alternative to increasing highway capacity. High-speed ground transportation can complement and enhance existing air transportation systems. High-speed ground transportation can be compatible with growth management plans in counties and cities served by such a system. Further, high-speed ground transportation offers a reliable, all-weather service capable of significant energy savings over other intercity modes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that there is substantial public benefit to establishing a high-speed ground transportation program in this state. The program shall implement the recommendations of the high-speed ground transportation steering committee report dated October 15, 1992. The program shall be administered by the department of transportation in close cooperation with the utilities and transportation commission and affected cities and counties.

The high-speed ground transportation program shall have the following goals:

(1) Implement high-speed ground transportation service offering top speeds over 150 m.p.h. between Everett and Portland, Oregon by 2020. This would be accomplished by meeting the intermediate objectives of a maximum travel time between downtown Portland and downtown Seattle of two hours and thirty minutes by the year 2000 and maximum travel time of two hours by the year 2010;

(2) Implement high-speed ground transportation service offering top speeds over 150 m.p.h. between Everett and Vancouver, B.C. by 2025;

(3) Implement high-speed ground transportation service offering top speeds over 150 m.p.h. between Seattle and Spokane by 2030.

The department of transportation shall, subject to legislative appropriation, implement such projects as necessary to achieve these goals in accordance with the implementation plans identified in sections 3 and 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature finds it important to develop public support and awareness of the benefits of high-speed ground transportation by developing high-quality intercity passenger rail service as a first step. This high-quality intercity passenger rail service shall be developed through incremental upgrading of the existing service. The department of transportation shall, subject to legislative appropriation, develop a prioritized list of projects to improve existing passenger rail service and begin new passenger rail service, to include but not be limited to:

- (1) Improvement of depots;
- (2) Improved grade crossing protection or grade crossing elimination;
- (3) Enhanced train signals to improve rail corridor capacity and increase train speeds;
- (4) Revised track geometry or additional trackage to improve ride quality and increase train speeds; and
- (5) Contract for new or improved service in accordance with federal requirements to improve service frequency.

Service enhancements and station improvements must be based on the extent to which local comprehensive plans contribute to the viability of intercity passenger rail service, including providing efficient connections with other transportation modes such as transit, intercity bus, and roadway networks. Before spending state moneys on these projects, the department of transportation shall seek federal, local, and private funding participation to the greatest extent possible. Funding priorities for station improvements must also be based on the level of local and private in-kind and cash contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature recognizes the need to plan for the high-speed ground transportation service and the high-quality intercity rail passenger service set forth in sections 2 and 3 of this act. The department of transportation shall, subject to legislative appropriation, develop a rail passenger plan through the conduct of studies addressing, but not limited to, the following areas:

- (1) Refined ridership estimates;
- (2) Preliminary location and environmental analysis on new corridors;
- (3) Detailed station location assessments in concert with affected local jurisdictions;
- (4) Coordination with the air transportation commission on state-wide air transportation policy and its effects on high-speed ground transportation service; and
- (5) Coordination with the governments of Oregon and British Columbia, when appropriate, on alignment, station location, and environmental analysis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following title amendment was adopted:

On line 1 of the title, after "transportation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1617, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1617, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1617, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; Nays, 2; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1858, by Representatives Brown, Romero, Foreman, Leonard, Lemmon, Mielke, Karahalios, Brough, Long, Kessler, Patterson and Mastin

Providing for periodic case review for children in substitute care.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Health and Human Services amendment was not adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 13.70.005 and 1991 c 363 s 14 and 1991 c 127 s 2 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Periodic case review of all children in substitute care ~~((shall))~~ may be provided in counties designated by the office of the administrator for the courts, in accordance with this chapter ~~((and within funding provided by the legislature)).~~

The administrator for the courts shall coordinate and assist, within available funds, in the administration of ~~((the))~~ local citizen review boards ~~((pilot program))~~ created by this chapter.

Sec. 2. RCW 13.70.110 and 1991 c 127 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section shall apply to cases where a child has been placed in substitute care pursuant to a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW.

(2) Within forty-five days following commencement of the placement episode, the court shall assign the child's case to a board and forward to the board a copy of the dependency petition and any shelter care or dependency disposition orders which have been entered in the case by the court.

(3) The board shall review the case plan for each child whose case is assigned to the board by the court. The review shall take place at times set by the board. The first review shall occur within ninety days following commencement of the placement episode. The second review shall occur within six months following commencement of the placement episode. The ~~((next))~~ final board review shall occur within one year after commencement of the placement episode. ~~((Within eighteen months following commencement of the placement episode, a permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, the court shall assign the child's case for a board review or a court review hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.130(5). A board review or a court review hearing shall take place at least once every six months until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or no longer in substitute care or until a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. After the permanency planning hearing, a court review hearing must occur at least once a year as provided in RCW 13.34.130. The board shall review any case where a petition to terminate parental rights has been denied, and such review shall occur as soon as practical but no later than forty-five days after the denial.))~~

(4) The board shall prepare written findings and recommendations with respect to:

(a) Whether reasonable efforts were made before the placement to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home, including whether consideration was given to removing the alleged offender, rather than the child, from the home;

(b) Whether reasonable efforts have been made subsequent to the placement to make it possible for the child to be returned home;

(c) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration has been given to placement with the child's relatives;

(d) Whether there is a continuing need for placement and whether the placement is appropriate;

(e) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan;

(f) Whether progress has been made toward alleviating the need for placement;

(g) A likely date by which the child may be returned home or other permanent plan of care may be implemented; and

(h) Other problems, solutions, or alternatives the board determines should be explored.

(5) Within ten working days following the review, the board shall send a copy of its findings and recommendations to the parents and their attorneys, the child's custodians and their attorneys, mature children and their attorneys, other attorneys or guardians ad litem appointed by the court to represent children, the department and other child placement agencies directly responsible for supervising the child's placement, and any prosecuting attorney or attorney general actively involved in the case. If the child is an Indian as defined in the Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq., a copy of the board's findings and recommendations shall also be sent to the child's Indian tribe.

(6) If the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board recommendations, the department shall submit to the board, within ten working days after receipt of the findings and recommendations, an implementation report setting forth the reasons why the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board's recommendations. The report will also set forth the case plan which the department intends to implement.

(7) Within forty-five days following the review, the board shall either:

(a) Schedule the case for further review by the board; or

(b) Submit to the court the board's findings and recommendations and the department's implementation reports, if any. If the board's recommendations are different from the existing court-ordered case plan, the board shall also file with the court a motion for a review hearing.

(8) Within ten days of receipt of the board's written findings and recommendations and the department's implementation report, if any, the court shall review the findings and recommendations and implementation reports, if any. The court may on its own motion schedule a review hearing.

(9) Unless modified by subsequent court order, the court-ordered case plan and court orders that are in effect at the time that a board reviews a case shall remain in full force and effect. Board findings and recommendations are advisory only and do not in any way modify existing court orders or court-ordered case plans.

(10) The findings and recommendations of the board and the department's implementation report, if any, shall become part of the department's case file and the court social file pertaining to the child.

(11) Nothing in this section shall limit or otherwise modify the rights of any party to a dependency proceeding to request and receive a court review hearing pursuant to the provisions of chapter 13.34 RCW or applicable court rules.

Sec. 3. RCW 13.70.140 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 17 s 16 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((For cases which are subject to the foster care citizen review board pilot project under RCW 13.70.005, a court review hearing shall occur no later than eighteen months following commencement of the child's placement episode.))~~ A permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, court review hearings shall occur at least once every ~~((year))~~ six months, under RCW 13.34.130(5), until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or the child returns home or a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. The court may review the case more frequently upon the court's own motion or upon the request of any party to the proceeding ~~((or the citizen review board assigned to the child's case)).~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 74.14A RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall:

(1)(a) Consult with relevant qualified professionals to develop a set of minimum guidelines to be used for identifying all children who are in a state-assisted support system, whether at-home or out-of-home, who are likely to need long-term care or assistance, because they face physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other long-term challenges.

(b) The guidelines must, at a minimum, consider the following criteria for identifying children in need of long-term care or assistance:

(i) Placement within the foster care system for two years or more;

(ii) Multiple foster care placements;

(iii) Repeated unsuccessful efforts to be placed with a permanent adoptive family;

(iv) Chronic behavioral or educational problems;

(v) Repetitive criminal acts or offenses;

(vi) Failure to comply with court-ordered disciplinary actions and other imposed guidelines of behavior, including drug and alcohol rehabilitation; and

(vii) Chronic physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other similar conditions necessitating long-term care or assistance;

(2) Develop programs that are necessary for the long-term care of children and youth that are identified for the purposes of this section. Programs must: (a) Effectively address the educational, physical, emotional, mental, and medical needs of children and youth; and (b) incorporate an array of family support options, to individual needs and choices of the child and family. The programs must be ready for implementation by January 1, 1994;

(3) Conduct an evaluation of all children currently within the foster care agency caseload to identify those children who meet the criteria set forth in this section. The evaluation shall be completed by January 1, 1994. All children entering the foster care system after January 1, 1994, must be evaluated for identification of long-term needs within thirty days of placement;

(4) Study and develop a comprehensive plan for the evaluation and identification of all children and youth in need of long-term care or assistance, including, but not limited to, the mentally ill, developmentally disabled, medically fragile, seriously emotionally or behaviorally disabled, and physically impaired;

(5) Study and develop a plan for the children and youth in need of long-term care or assistance to ensure the coordination of services between the department's divisions and between other state agencies who are involved with the child or youth.

(6) Study and develop guidelines for transitional services, between long-term care programs, based on the person's age or mental, physical, emotional, or medical condition; and

(7) Study and develop a statutory proposal for the emancipation of minors and report its findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1994."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Deccio and Talmadge was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 13.70.005 and 1991 c 363 s 14 and 1991 c 127 s 2 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Periodic case review of all children in substitute care ~~((shall))~~ may be provided in counties designated by the office of the administrator for the courts, in accordance with this chapter ~~((and within funding provided by the legislature)).~~

The administrator for the courts shall coordinate and assist, within available funds, in the administration of ~~((the))~~ local citizen review boards ~~((pilot program))~~ created by this chapter.

Sec. 2. RCW 13.70.100 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 17 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section shall apply to cases where a child has been placed in substitute care pursuant to written parental consent and a dependency petition has not been filed under chapter 13.34 RCW. If a dependency petition is subsequently filed and the child's placement in substitute care continues pursuant to a court order entered in a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW, the provisions set forth in RCW 13.70.110 shall apply.

(2) Within thirty days following commencement of the placement episode, the department shall send a copy of the written parental consent to the juvenile court with jurisdiction over the geographical area in which the child resides.

(3) Within forty-five days following commencement of the placement episode, the court shall assign the child's case to a board and forward to the board a copy of the written parental consent to placement.

(4) The board shall review the case plan for each child in substitute care whose case is assigned to the board by the court. The review shall take place at times set by the board. The first review shall occur within ninety days following commencement of the placement episode. The second review shall occur within six months following commencement of the placement episode. The ~~((next))~~ final board review shall occur ~~((within one year following commencement of the placement episode))~~ no later than six months following the second review unless the child is no longer in substitute care or unless a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered.

(5) The board shall prepare written findings and recommendations with respect to:

(a) Whether reasonable efforts were made before the placement to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home;

(b) Whether reasonable efforts have been made subsequent to the placement to make it possible for the child to be returned home;

(c) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration has been given to placement with the child's relatives;

(d) Whether there is a continuing need for and whether the placement is appropriate;

(e) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan;

(f) Whether progress has been made toward alleviating the need for placement;

(g) A likely date by which the child may be returned home or other permanent plan of care may be implemented; and

(h) Other problems, solutions, or alternatives the board determines should be explored.

(6) Within ten working days following the review, the board shall send a copy of its findings and recommendations to the child's parents and their attorneys, the child's custodians and their attorneys, mature children and their attorneys, and the department and other child placement agencies directly responsible for supervising the child's placement. If the child is an Indian as defined in the Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. 1901 et seq., a copy of the board's findings and recommendations shall also be sent to the child's Indian tribe.

(7) If the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board recommendations, the department shall submit to the board, within ten working days after receipt of the findings and recommendations, an implementation report setting forth the reasons why the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board's recommendations. The report will also set forth the case plan which the department intends to implement.

(8) The court shall not review the findings and recommendations of the board in cases where the child has been placed in substitute care with signed parental consent unless a dependency petition has been filed and the child has been taken into custody under RCW 13.34.050.

Sec. 3. RCW 13.70.110 and 1991 c 127 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section shall apply to cases where a child has been placed in substitute care pursuant to a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW.

(2) Within forty-five days following commencement of the placement episode, the court shall assign the child's case to a board and forward to the board a copy of the dependency petition and any shelter care or dependency disposition orders which have been entered in the case by the court.

(3) The board shall review the case plan for each child whose case is assigned to the board by the court. The review shall take place at times set by the board. The first review shall occur ~~((within ninety days following commencement of the placement episode))~~ no later than six months following the second review unless the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court, no longer in substitute care, or a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. The second review shall occur within six months following commencement of the placement episode. The ~~((next))~~ final board review shall occur within one year after commencement of the placement episode. ~~((Within eighteen months following commencement of the placement episode, a permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, the court shall assign the child's case for a board review or a court review hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.130(5). A board review or a court review hearing shall take place at least once every six months until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or no longer in substitute care or until a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. After the permanency planning hearing, a court review hearing must occur at least once a year as provided in RCW 13.34.130. The board shall review any case where a petition to terminate parental rights has been denied, and such review shall occur as soon as practical but no later than forty-five days after the denial.))~~

(4) The board shall prepare written findings and recommendations with respect to:

(a) Whether reasonable efforts were made before the placement to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home, including whether consideration was given to removing the alleged offender, rather than the child, from the home;

(b) Whether reasonable efforts have been made subsequent to the placement to make it possible for the child to be returned home;

(c) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration has been given to placement with the child's relatives;

- (d) Whether there is a continuing need for placement and whether the placement is appropriate;
- (e) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan;
- (f) Whether progress has been made toward alleviating the need for placement;
- (g) A likely date by which the child may be returned home or other permanent plan of care may be implemented; and
- (h) Other problems, solutions, or alternatives the board determines should be explored.

(5) Within ten working days following the review, the board shall send a copy of its findings and recommendations to the parents and their attorneys, the child's custodians and their attorneys, mature children and their attorneys, other attorneys or guardians ad litem appointed by the court to represent children, the department and other child placement agencies directly responsible for supervising the child's placement, and any prosecuting attorney or attorney general actively involved in the case. If the child is an Indian as defined in the Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq., a copy of the board's findings and recommendations shall also be sent to the child's Indian tribe.

(6) If the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board recommendations, the department shall submit to the board, within ten working days after receipt of the findings and recommendations, an implementation report setting forth the reasons why the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board's recommendations. The report will also set forth the case plan which the department intends to implement.

(7) Within forty-five days following the review, the board shall either:

- (a) Schedule the case for further review by the board; or
- (b) Submit to the court the board's findings and recommendations and the department's implementation reports, if any. If the board's recommendations are different from the existing court-ordered case plan, the board shall also file with the court a motion for a review hearing.

(8) Within ten days of receipt of the board's written findings and recommendations and the department's implementation report, if any, the court shall review the findings and recommendations and implementation reports, if any. The court may on its own motion schedule a review hearing.

(9) Unless modified by subsequent court order, the court-ordered case plan and court orders that are in effect at the time that a board reviews a case shall remain in full force and effect. Board findings and recommendations are advisory only and do not in any way modify existing court orders or court-ordered case plans.

(10) The findings and recommendations of the board and the department's implementation report, if any, shall become part of the department's case file and the court social file pertaining to the child.

(11) Nothing in this section shall limit or otherwise modify the rights of any party to a dependency proceeding to request and receive a court review hearing pursuant to the provisions of chapter 13.34 RCW or applicable court rules.

Sec. 4. RCW 13.70.140 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 17 s 16 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((For cases which are subject to the foster care citizen review board pilot project under RCW 13.70.005, a court review hearing shall occur no later than eighteen months following commencement of the child's placement episode.))~~ A permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, court review hearings shall occur at least once every ~~((year))~~ six months, under RCW 13.34.130(5), until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or the child returns home or a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. The court may review the case more frequently upon the court's own motion or upon the request of any party to the proceeding ~~((or the citizen review board assigned to the child's case)).~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 74.14A RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall:

(1)(a) Consult with relevant qualified professionals to develop a set of minimum guidelines to be used for identifying all children who are in a state-assisted support system, whether at-home or out-of-home, who are likely to need long-term care or assistance, because they face physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other long-term challenges.

(b) The guidelines must, at a minimum, consider the following criteria for identifying children in need of long-term care or assistance:

- (i) Placement within the foster care system for two years or more;
- (ii) Multiple foster care placements;
- (iii) Repeated unsuccessful efforts to be placed with a permanent adoptive family;
- (iv) Chronic behavioral or educational problems;
- (v) Repetitive criminal acts or offenses;
- (vi) Failure to comply with court-ordered disciplinary actions and other imposed guidelines of behavior, including drug and alcohol rehabilitation; and
- (vii) Chronic physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other similar conditions necessitating long-term care or assistance;

(2) Develop programs that are necessary for the long-term care of children and youth that are identified for the purposes of this section. Programs must: (a) Effectively address the educational, physical, emotional, mental, and medical needs of children and youth; and (b) incorporate an array of family support options, to individual needs and choices of the child and family. The programs must be ready for implementation by January 1, 1995;

(3) Conduct an evaluation of all children currently within the foster care agency caseload to identify those children who meet the criteria set forth in this section. The evaluation shall be completed by January 1, 1994. All children entering the foster care system after January 1, 1994, must be evaluated for identification of long-term needs within thirty days of placement;

(4) Study and develop a comprehensive plan for the evaluation and identification of all children and youth in need of long-term care or assistance, including, but not limited to, the mentally ill, developmentally disabled, medically fragile, seriously emotionally or behaviorally disabled, and physically impaired;

(5) Study and develop a plan for the children and youth in need of long-term care or assistance to ensure the coordination of services between the department's divisions and between other state agencies who are involved with the child or youth.

(6) Study and develop guidelines for transitional services, between long-term care programs, based on the person's age or mental, physical, emotional, or medical condition; and

(7) Study and develop a statutory proposal for the emancipation of minors and report its findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1994."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1957, by House Committee on Health Care (originally sponsored by Representatives Dellwo, Wolfe, R. Meyers, Pruitt, L. Johnson, J. Kohl, Conway and Karahalios) (by request of Insurance Commissioner)

Creating the Washington health care coverage determination board.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Health and Human Services amendment be adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Because uneven practices have developed in this state that are adverse to the public interest, it is the purpose and intent of the legislature to provide an impartial and expeditious mechanism to assist the insurance commissioner in determining whether coverage for particular health care procedures, treatments, or drugs may be denied by issuers of health care coverage under their contracts on the basis that the procedures, treatments, or drugs are experimental or investigational.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the contest clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Committee" means the medical health coverage benefit determination committee created in section 3 of this act.

(2) "Health coverage issuer" or "issuer" means:

(a) Every insurer, as defined in RCW 48.01.050, having a certificate of authority to transact disability insurance, as defined in RCW 48.11.030, in this state;

(b) Every health care service contractor, as defined in RCW 48.44.010(3), registered to transact business in this state;

(c) Every health maintenance organization, as defined in RCW 48.46.020(1), registered to transact business in this state;

(d) The Washington basic health plan, as defined in RCW 70.47.020(1);

(e) The Washington state health care authority, as defined in chapter 41.05 RCW;

(f) Every local government self-insured health and welfare benefit plan or program regulated under chapter 48.62 RCW; or

(g) The Washington state health insurance pool as defined in chapter 48.41 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1)(a) There is hereby created in the office of the insurance commissioner, the medical health coverage benefit determination committee consisting of nine members appointed by the commissioner on the basis of their knowledge and experience in health care services. In appointing the members the commissioner shall seek to appoint persons exhibiting a balance of and having a wide breadth of experience and knowledge in the treatment, research, and public or private funding of health care services.

(b) Seven members of the committee shall be medical or health professionals, one member shall represent consumers, and one member shall represent issuers of health insurance coverage.

(c) The commissioner shall designate one member of the committee to serve as chair of the committee.

(2) Members of the committee shall be appointed for a term of four years and shall serve until their successors are appointed by the insurance commissioner. The terms of the original members of the committee shall be staggered so that two members shall be appointed to serve until June 1, 1994, two members until June 1, 1995, two members until June 1, 1996, and three members until June 1, 1997.

(3) The commissioner may remove a member of the committee only for inefficiency, malfeasance, or misfeasance.

(4) The committee shall meet at the request of the commissioner to:

(a) Consider, develop, and recommend criteria to guide future actions of issuers of health care coverage in determining whether a procedure, treatment, drug, or other health care service is no longer experimental or investigational for purposes of extending coverage;

(b) Consider and decide whether a procedure, treatment, drug, or other health care service is no longer experimental or investigational; and

(c) Consider actual specific denials of health coverage because the proposed medical procedure is considered by the issuer to be experimental or investigative and decide whether the denial was appropriate.

(5) Members of the committee shall receive reimbursement for expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(6) The insurance commissioner shall provide the committee with administrative, material, and staff support necessary for the proper functioning of the committee and may adopt all rules necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) In making a recommendation as to whether a procedure, treatment, drug, or other health care service is no longer experimental or investigative and in reviewing denials of individual coverage, the committee shall:

(a) Take into account findings, studies, or research conducted in this country and abroad;

(b) Consider whether treating physicians find the procedure, drug, or treatment efficacious or necessary for the health or survival of the patient, or whether there is a potential benefit to the public as a whole, as for example, where a disease is rare and treatment for it may remain experimental for the foreseeable future; and

(c) Consider other relevant information.

(2) After considering all relevant information before it on each issue or denial of coverage, and recognizing that time is of the essence, the committee shall issue a written recommendation to the commissioner detailing its findings and conclusions.

(3) The commissioner shall publish at least once a year, and make available to the public and issuers of health care coverage, a summary of the committee's deliberations, recommendations, and conclusions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This chapter shall expire on July 1, 1998.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 48 RCW."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 7, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5157 with the following amendment(s):

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 12.20.060 and 1985 c 240 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

When the prevailing party in district court is entitled to recover costs as authorized in RCW 4.84.010 in a civil action, the judge shall add the amount thereof to the judgment; in case of failure of the plaintiff to recover or of dismissal of the action, the judge shall enter up a judgment in favor of the defendant for the amount of his or her costs; and in case any party so entitled to costs is represented in the action by an attorney, the judge shall include attorney's fees of ~~((fifty))~~ one hundred twenty-five dollars as part of the costs: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the plaintiff shall not be entitled to such attorney fee unless he or she obtains, exclusive of costs, a judgment in the sum of ~~((twenty-five))~~ fifty dollars or more.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5157 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5375 with the following amendment(s):

On page 1, line 11, after "contracts" strike everything through "process." and insert "~~((negotiated without an open competitive process))~~, to centralize the location of information about personal service contracts for ease of public review, and ensure proper accounting of personal services expenditures."

On page 4, after line 8, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. RCW 39.29.018 and 1987 c 414 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Sole source contracts shall be filed with the office of financial management and the legislative budget committee and made available for public inspection at least ten working days prior to the proposed starting date of the contract. Documented justification for sole source contracts shall be provided to the office of financial management and the legislative budget committee when the contract is filed. For sole source contracts of ten thousand dollars or more that are state funded, documented justification shall include evidence that the agency attempted to identify potential consultants by advertising through state-wide or regional newspapers or other appropriate media or by notifying consultants on established bidders' lists approved by the office of financial management.

(2) The office of financial management shall approve sole source contracts of ten thousand dollars or more that are state funded, before any such contract becomes binding and before any services may be performed under the contract. These requirements shall also apply to sole source contracts of less than ten thousand dollars if the total amount of such contracts between an agency and the same consultant is ten thousand dollars or more within a fiscal year. The office of financial management shall ensure that the costs, fees, or rates negotiated in filed sole source contracts of ten thousand dollars or more are reasonable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

Personal services may be procured only to resolve a particular agency problem or issue or to expedite a specific project that is temporary in nature. An agency may procure personal services only if it documents that:

- (1) The service is critical to agency responsibilities or operations, or is mandated or authorized by the legislature;
- (2) Sufficient staffing or expertise is not available within the agency to perform the service; and
- (3) Other qualified public resources are not available to perform the service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

(1) State-funded personal service contracts subject to competitive solicitation shall be filed with the office of financial management and the legislative budget committee and made available for public inspection at least ten working days before the proposed starting date of the contract.

(2) The office of financial management shall review and approve state-funded personal service contracts subject to competitive solicitation that provide services relating to management consulting, organizational development, marketing, communications, employee training, or employee recruiting.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

The office of financial management shall maintain a publicly available list of all personal service contracts entered into by state agencies during each fiscal year. The list shall identify the contracting agency, the contractor, the purpose of the contract, effective dates and periods of performance, the cost of the contract and funding source, any modifications to the contract, and whether the contract was competitively procured or awarded on a sole source basis. The office of financial management shall also ensure that state accounting definitions and procedures are consistent with RCW 39.29.006 and permit the reporting of personal services expenditures by agency and by type of service. Designations of type of services shall include, but not be limited to, management and organizational services, legal and expert witness services, financial services, computer and information services, social or technical research, marketing, communications, and employee training or recruiting services. The office of financial management shall report annually to the fiscal committees of the senate and house of representatives on sole source contracts filed under this chapter. The report shall describe: (1) The number and aggregate value of contracts for each category established in this section; (2) the number and aggregate value of contracts of two thousand five hundred dollars or greater but less than ten thousand dollars; (3) the number and aggregate value of contracts of ten thousand dollars or greater; (4) the justification provided by agencies for the use of sole source contracts; and (5) any trends in the use of sole source contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 39.80 RCW to read as follows:

Contracts entered into by any state agency for architectural and engineering services, and modifications thereto, shall be reported to the office of financial management on a quarterly basis, in such form as the office of financial management prescribes.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Haugen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5375 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pelz, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5405 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5577 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 9A.44.010 and 1988 c 146 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Sexual intercourse" (a) has its ordinary meaning and occurs upon any penetration, however slight, and
(b) Also means any penetration of the vagina or anus however slight, by an object, when committed on one person by another, whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex, except when such penetration is accomplished for medically recognized treatment or diagnostic purposes, and
(c) Also means any act of sexual contact between persons involving the sex organs of one person and the mouth or anus of another whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex.
- (2) "Sexual contact" means any touching of the sexual or other intimate parts of a person done for the purpose of gratifying sexual desire of either party.
- (3) "Married" means one who is legally married to another, but does not include a person who is living separate and apart from his or her spouse and who has filed in an appropriate court for legal separation or for dissolution of his or her marriage.
- (4) "Mental incapacity" is that condition existing at the time of the offense which prevents a person from understanding the nature or consequences of the act of sexual intercourse whether that condition is produced by illness, defect, the influence of a substance or from some other cause.
- (5) "Physically helpless" means a person who is unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act.
- (6) "Forcible compulsion" means physical force which overcomes resistance, or a threat, express or implied, that places a person in fear of death or physical injury to herself or himself or another person, or in fear that she or he or another person will be kidnapped.
- (7) "Consent" means that at the time of the act of sexual intercourse or sexual contact there are actual words or conduct indicating freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse or sexual contact.
- (8) "Significant relationship" means a situation in which the perpetrator is:
 - (a) A person who undertakes the responsibility, professionally or voluntarily, to provide education, health, welfare, or organized recreational activities principally for minors; or
 - (b) A person who in the course of his or her employment supervises minors.
- (9) "Abuse of a supervisory position" means a direct or indirect threat or promise to use authority to the detriment or benefit of a minor.
- (10) "Developmentally disabled," for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050(1)(c) and 9A.44.100(1)(c), means a person with a developmental disability as defined in RCW ((71.20.016)) 71A.10.020.
- (11) "Person with supervisory authority," for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050(1)(c) or (e) and 9A.44.100(1)(c) or (e), means any proprietor or employee of any public or private care or treatment facility who directly supervises developmentally disabled, mentally disordered, or chemically dependent persons at the facility.
- (12) "Mentally disordered person" for the purposes of RCW 9A.44.050(1)(e) and 9A.44.100(1)(e) means a person with a "mental disorder" as defined in RCW 71.05.020(2).
- (13) "Chemically dependent person" for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050(1)(e) and 9A.44.100(1)(e) means a person who is "chemically dependent" as defined in RCW 70.96A.020(4).
- (14) "Health care provider" for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050 and 9A.44.100 means a person who is, holds himself or herself out to be, or provides services as if he or she were: (a) A member of a health care profession under chapter 18.130 RCW; or (b) registered or certified under chapter 18.19 RCW, regardless of whether the health care provider is licensed, certified, or registered by the state.
- (15) "Treatment" for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050 and 9A.44.100 means the active delivery of professional services by a health care provider which the health care provider holds himself or herself out to be qualified to provide.

Sec. 2. RCW 9A.44.050 and 1990 c 3 s 901 are each amended to read as follows:

- (1) A person is guilty of rape in the second degree when, under circumstances not constituting rape in the first degree, the person engages in sexual intercourse with another person:
 - (a) By forcible compulsion;
 - (b) When the victim is incapable of consent by reason of being physically helpless or mentally incapacitated; ((or))
 - (c) When the victim is developmentally disabled and the perpetrator is a person who is not married to the victim and who has supervisory authority over the victim;

(d) When the perpetrator is a health care provider, the victim is a client or patient, and the sexual intercourse occurs during a treatment session, consultation, interview, or examination. It is an affirmative defense that the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the client or patient consented to the sexual intercourse with the knowledge that the sexual intercourse was not for the purpose of treatment; or

(e) When the victim is a resident of a facility for mentally disordered or chemically dependent persons and the perpetrator is a person who is not married to the victim and has supervisory authority over the victim.

(2) Rape in the second degree is a class A felony.

Sec. 3. RCW 9A.44.100 and 1988 c 146 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of indecent liberties when he knowingly causes another person who is not his spouse to have sexual contact with him or another:

(a) By forcible compulsion; or

(b) When the other person is incapable of consent by reason of being mentally defective, mentally incapacitated, or physically helpless; ((or))

(c) When the victim is developmentally disabled and the perpetrator is a person who is not married to the victim and who has supervisory authority over the victim;

(d) When the perpetrator is a health care provider, the victim is a client or patient, and the sexual contact occurs during a treatment session, consultation, interview, or examination. It is an affirmative defense that the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the client or patient consented to the sexual contact with the knowledge that the sexual contact was not for the purpose of treatment; or

(e) When the victim is a resident of a facility for mentally disordered or chemically dependent persons and the perpetrator is a person who is not married to the victim and has supervisory authority over the victim.

(2) Indecent liberties is a class B felony.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5577 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 12, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5675 with the following amendment(s):

On page 1, after the enacting clause, strike the remainder of the bill and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 36.89 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever a city or town annexes an area, or a city or town incorporates an area, and the county has issued revenue bonds or general obligation bonds to finance storm water control facilities that are payable in whole or in part from rates or charges imposed in the area, the county shall continue imposing all portions of the rates or charges that are allocated to payment of the debt service on bonds in that area after the effective date of the annexation or official date of the incorporation until: (1) The debt is retired; (2) any debt that is issued to refinance the underlying debt is retired; or (3) the city or town reimburses the county amount that is sufficient to retire that portion of the debt borne by the annexed or incorporated area. The county shall construct all facilities included in the storm water plan intended to be financed by the proceeds of such bonds. If the county provides storm water management services to the city or town by contract, the contract shall consider the value of payments made by property owners to the county for the payment of debt service.

The provisions of this section apply whether or not the bonds finance facilities that are geographically located within the area that is annexed or incorporated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 36.94 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever a city or town annexes an area, or a city or town incorporates an area, and the county has issued revenue bonds or general obligation bonds to finance storm or surface water drains or facilities that are payable in whole or in part from rates or charges imposed in the area, the county shall continue imposing all portions of the rates or charges that are allocated to payment of the debt service on bonds in that area after the effective date of the annexation or official date of the incorporation until: (1) The debt is retired; (2) any debt that is issued to refinance the underlying debt is retired; or (3) the city or town reimburses the county amount that is sufficient to retire that portion of the debt borne by the annexed or incorporated area. The county shall construct all facilities included in the storm water plan intended to be financed by the proceeds of such bonds. If the county provides storm water management services to the city or town by contract, the contract shall consider the value of payments made by property owners to the county for the payment of debt service.

The provisions of this section apply whether or not the bonds finance facilities that are geographically located within the area that is annexed or incorporated.

Sec. 3. RCW 36.89.080 and 1970 ex.s. c 30 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

Any (~~board of county commissioners~~) county legislative authority may provide by resolution for revenues by fixing rates and charges for the furnishing of service to those served or receiving benefits or to be served or to receive benefits from any storm water control facility or contributing to an increase of surface water runoff. In fixing rates and charges, the (~~board~~) county legislative authority may in its discretion consider: (1) Services furnished or to be furnished; (2) benefits received or to be received; (3) the character and use of land or its water runoff characteristics; (4) the nature or type of land user; or (5) any other matters which present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction. (~~Such~~) The service charges and rates collected shall be deposited in a special fund or funds in the county treasury to be used only for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost and expense of maintaining and operating storm water control facilities, all or any part of the cost and expense of planning, designing, establishing, acquiring, developing, constructing and improving any of such facilities, or to pay or secure the payment of all or any portion of any issue of general obligation or revenue bonds issued for such purpose.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Haugen, the Senate concurs in Sections 1 and 2, and refuses to concur in Section 3 of the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5675 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5844 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.150 RCW to read as follows:

A volunteer organization or individual volunteer may assist a public agency, with the agency's approval, in a collaborative program designed to serve the needs of at-risk children. The center, with the advice and counsel of the attorney general, shall develop guidelines defining at-risk children and establish reasonable safety standards to protect the safety of program participants and volunteers, including but not limited to background checks for program supervisors or as appropriate as provided in RCW 43.43.830 through 43.43.834. In carrying out the volunteer activity, the individual volunteer or member of the volunteer organization shall not be considered to be an employee or agent of any public agency involved in the collaborative program. Prior to participation, a volunteer and the public agency administering the collaborative program shall sign a written master agreement, approved in form by the attorney general, that includes provisions defining the scope of the volunteer activities and waiving any claims against each other. An individual volunteer shall not be liable for civil damages resulting from any act or omission arising from volunteer activities which comply with safety standards issued by the center for volunteerism and citizen service, other than acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or wilful or wanton misconduct. In any action for damages against a public agency or volunteer organization, a claimant must establish by a preponderance of the evidence that a public agency or other sponsor of a program under this section failed to comply with reasonable safety standards established by the center.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Haugen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5844 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. On Senate Bill No. 5675, we passed a motion to concur with Sections 1 and 2 and to not concur in Section 3. Mr. President, that was a striking amendment and I do not believe that we can concur with a portion of an amendment. If they were separate amendments, we could concur with one or two amendments and not concur with the other, but that is one amendment, Mr. President, and I am very concerned that if that is the procedure we are going to use, that we are going to have messages flying back and forth that we concur with the first sentence, but we don't concur with the second sentence of an amendment. I would like a ruling, Mr. President, please."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Senator Vognild, in responding to your parliamentary inquiry, it is the practice where the measures are easily divisible, for us to make that assertion and rule that way. Obviously, we are really better off in most cases if we don't do it, but it has been the practice for many years where it can be easily divided, that we have done that and have done it in this case. I think in this case it is easily divided, but I would agree with you that it is not the best practice. I would hope that we would use it very judicially."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Oke, Senator Anderson was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5035 with the following amendment(s):

On page 2, line 15, after "town" insert ", if the city or town has a population less than five thousand."

On page 2, line 15, after "any" insert "county.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Drew, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5035.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5035, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5035, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; Nays, 3; Absent, 3; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 36.

Voting nay: Senators Cantu, Hochstatter and Newhouse - 3.

Absent: Senators Deccio, Hargrove and Sutherland - 3.

Excused: Senators Anderson, McCaslin, Moyer, Niemi, Owen, Skratek and Smith, L. - 7.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5035, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Oke, Senator Deccio was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5048 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 39.04.155 and 1991 c 363 s 109 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section provides a uniform process to award contracts for public works projects by those ~~((counties))~~ municipalities that are authorized to use a small works roster in lieu of the requirements for formal sealed bidding. The state statutes governing ~~((counties))~~ a specific type of municipality shall establish the maximum dollar thresholds of the contracts that can be awarded under this process, and may include other matters concerning the small works roster process, for the ~~((county))~~ municipality.

(2) ~~((Counties))~~ Such municipalities may create a single general small works roster, or may create a small works roster for different categories of anticipated work. The small works roster or rosters shall consist of all responsible contractors who have requested to be on the list, and where required by law are properly licensed or registered to perform such work in this state. At least ~~((once))~~ twice a year, the ~~((county))~~ municipality shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation within the jurisdiction a notice of the existence of the roster or rosters and solicit the names of contractors for such roster or rosters.

The governing body of the ~~((county))~~ municipality shall establish a procedure for securing telephone or written quotations from the contractors on the general small works roster, or a specific small works roster for the appropriate category of work, to assure that a competitive price is established and to award contracts to the lowest responsible bidder, as defined in RCW 43.19.1911. Such invitations for quotations shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed as well as materials and equipment to be furnished. Whenever possible at least five contractors shall be invited to submit bids. Once a contractor has been afforded an opportunity to submit a proposal, that contractor shall not be offered another opportunity until all other appropriate contractors on the small works roster have been afforded an opportunity to submit a proposal on a contract. Proposals may be invited from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster.

A contract awarded from a small works roster under this section need not be advertised.

Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available by telephone inquiry.

Sec. 2. RCW 39.04.190 and 1991 c 363 s 110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section provides a uniform process to award contracts for the purchase of any materials, equipment, supplies, or services by those ~~((counties))~~ municipalities that are authorized to use this process in lieu of the requirements for formal sealed bidding. The state statutes governing ~~((counties))~~ a specific type of municipality shall establish the maximum dollar thresholds of the contracts that can be awarded under this process, and may include other matters concerning the awarding of contracts for purchases, for the ~~((county))~~ municipality.

(2) At least ~~((once))~~ twice per year, the ~~((county))~~ municipality shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation within the jurisdiction a notice of the existence of vendor lists and solicit the names of vendors for the lists. ~~((Counties))~~ Municipalities shall by resolution establish a procedure for securing telephone or written quotations, or both, from at least three different vendors whenever possible to assure that a competitive price is established and for awarding the contracts for the purchase of any materials, equipment, supplies, or services to the lowest responsible bidder as defined in RCW 43.19.1911. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and shall be available by telephone inquiry. A contract awarded pursuant to this section need not be advertised.

Sec. 3. RCW 39.04.200 and 1991 c 363 s 111 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ~~((county))~~ municipality that utilizes the small works roster process established in RCW 39.04.155 to award contracts for public works projects, or the uniform process established in RCW 39.04.190 to award contracts for purchases, must post a list of the contracts awarded under RCW 39.04.155 and 39.04.190 at least once every two months. The list shall contain the name of the contractor or vendor awarded the contract, the amount of the contract, a brief description of the type of work performed or items purchased under the contract, and the date it was awarded. The list shall also state the location where the bid quotations for these contracts are available for public inspection.

Sec. 4. RCW 39.30.045 and 1991 c 363 s 112 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ~~((county))~~ municipality, as defined in RCW 39.04.010, may purchase any supplies, equipment, or materials at auctions conducted by the government of the United States or any agency thereof, any agency of the state of Washington, any municipality or other government agency, or any private party without being subject to public bidding requirements if the items can be obtained at a competitive price.

Sec. 5. RCW 36.32.240 and 1991 c 363 s 57 are each amended to read as follows:

In any county the county legislative authority may by resolution establish a county purchasing department. In each county which exercises this option, the purchasing department shall contract on a competitive basis for all public works, enter into leases of personal property on a competitive basis, and purchase all supplies, materials, and equipment, on a competitive basis, for all departments of the county, as provided in this chapter and chapter 39.04 RCW, except that the county purchasing department is not required to make purchases for the county hospital, or make purchases that are paid from the county road fund or equipment rental and revolving fund.

Sec. 6. RCW 36.32.253 and 1991 c 363 s 63 are each amended to read as follows:

No lease of personal property may be entered into by the county legislative authority or by any elected or appointed officer of the county ~~((until after bids have been submitted to the county. The county shall use the same))~~ except upon use of the procedures specified in ((RCW 36.32.245 and 39.04.190)) this chapter and chapter 39.04 RCW for awarding contracts for purchases when it leases personal property from the lowest responsible bidder.

Sec. 7. RCW 36.32.245 and 1991 c 363 s 62 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No contract for the purchase of materials, equipment, or supplies~~((, or services))~~ may be entered into by the county legislative authority or by any elected or appointed officer of the county until after bids have been submitted to the county. Bid specifications shall be in writing and shall be filed with the clerk of the county legislative authority for public inspection. An advertisement shall be published in the official newspaper of the county stating the time and place where bids will be opened, the time after which bids will not be received, the materials, equipment, supplies, or services to be purchased, and that the specifications may be seen at the office of the clerk of the county legislative authority. The advertisement shall be published at least once at least ~~((ten))~~ thirteen days prior to the last date upon which bids will be received.

(2) The bids shall be in writing and filed with the clerk. The bids shall be opened and read in public at the time and place named in the advertisement. Contracts requiring competitive bidding under this section may be awarded only to the lowest responsible bidder. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry. Any or all bids may be rejected for good cause.

(3) For advertisement and formal sealed bidding to be dispensed with as to purchases between two thousand five hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars, the county legislative authority must use the uniform process to award contracts as provided in RCW 39.04.190. Advertisement and formal sealed bidding may be dispensed with as to purchases of less than two thousand five hundred dollars upon the order of the county legislative authority.

(4) This section does not apply to performance-based contracts, as defined in RCW 39.35A.020(3), that are negotiated under chapter 39.35A RCW; or contracts and purchases for the printing of election ballots, voting machine labels, and all other election material containing the names of candidates and ballot titles.

(5) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the legislative authority of any county from allowing for preferential purchase of products made from recycled materials or products that may be recycled or reused.

Sec. 8. RCW 36.32.250 and 1991 c 363 s 58 are each amended to read as follows:

No contract for public works may be entered into by the county legislative authority or by any elected or appointed officer of the county until after bids have been submitted to the county upon specifications therefor. Such specifications shall be in writing and shall be filed with the clerk of the county legislative authority for public inspection. An advertisement shall be published in the county official newspaper stating the time and place where bids will be opened, the time after which bids will not be received, the character of the work to be done, the materials and equipment to be furnished, and that specifications therefor may be seen at the office of the clerk of the county legislative authority. An advertisement shall also be published in a legal newspaper of general circulation in or as near as possible to that part of the county in which such work is to be done. If the county official newspaper is a newspaper of general circulation covering at least forty percent of the residences in that part of the county in which such public works are to be done, then the publication of an advertisement of the applicable specifications in the county official newspaper shall be sufficient. Such advertisements shall be published at least once at least ~~((ten))~~ thirteen days prior to the last date upon which bids will be received. The bids shall be in writing, shall be filed with the clerk, shall be opened and read in public at the time and place named therefor in the advertisements, and after being opened, shall be filed for public inspection. No bid may be considered for public work unless it is accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a surety bond, postal money order, cash, cashier's check, or certified check in an amount equal to five percent of the amount of the bid proposed. The contract for the public work shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. Any or all bids may be rejected for good cause. The county legislative authority shall require from the successful bidder for such public work a contractor's bond in the amount and with the conditions imposed by law. If the bidder to whom the contract is awarded fails to enter into the contract and furnish the contractor's bond as required within ten days after notice of the award, exclusive of the day of notice, the amount of the bid deposit shall be forfeited to the county and the contract awarded to the next lowest and best bidder. The bid deposit of all unsuccessful bidders shall be returned after the contract is awarded and the required contractor's bond given by the successful bidder is accepted by the county legislative authority. In the letting of any contract for public works involving less than ten thousand dollars, advertisement and competitive bidding may be dispensed with on order of the county legislative authority. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry.

For advertisement and competitive bidding to be dispensed with as to public works projects with an estimated value of ten thousand dollars up to one hundred thousand dollars ~~((or less))~~, a county must use a small works roster process as provided in RCW 39.04.155.

This section does not apply to performance-based contracts, as defined in RCW 39.35A.020(3), that are negotiated under chapter 39.35A RCW.

Sec. 9. RCW 35.22.620 and 1989 c 431 s 59 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the term "public works" means as defined in RCW 39.04.010.

(2) A first class city may have public works performed by contract pursuant to public notice and call for competitive bids. As limited by subsection (3) of this section, a first class city may have public works performed by city employees in any annual or biennial budget period equal to a dollar value not exceeding ten percent of the public works construction budget, including any amount in a supplemental public works construction budget, over the budget period. The amount of public works that a first class city has a county perform for it under RCW 35.77.020 shall be included within this ten percent limitation.

If a first class city has public works performed by public employees in any budget period that are in excess of this ten percent limitation, the amount in excess of the permitted amount shall be reduced from the otherwise permitted amount of public works that may be performed by public employees for that city in its next budget period. Twenty percent of the motor vehicle fuel tax distributions to that city shall be withheld if two years after the year in which the excess amount of work occurred, the city has failed to so reduce the amount of public works that it has performed by public employees. The amount so withheld shall be distributed to the city when it has demonstrated in its reports to the state auditor that the amount of public works it has performed by public employees has been so reduced.

Whenever a first class city has had public works performed in any budget period up to the maximum permitted amount for that budget period, all remaining public works within that budget period shall be done by contract pursuant to public notice and call for competitive bids.

The state auditor shall report to the state treasurer any first class city that exceeds this amount and the extent to which the city has or has not reduced the amount of public works it has performed by public employees in subsequent years.

(3) In addition to the percentage limitation provided in subsection (2) of this section, a first class city with a population in excess of one hundred fifty thousand shall not have public employees perform a public works project in excess of fifty thousand dollars if more than a single craft or trade is involved with the public works project, or a public works project in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars if only a single craft or trade is involved with the public works project or the public works project is street signalization or street lighting. In addition to the percentage limitation provided in subsection (2) of this section, a first class city with a population of one hundred fifty thousand or less shall not have public employees perform a public works project in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars if more than one craft or trade is involved with the public works project, or a public works project in excess of twenty thousand dollars if only a single craft or trade is involved with the public works project or the public works project is street signalization or street lighting. A public works project means a complete project. The restrictions in this subsection do not permit the division of the project into units of work or classes of work to avoid the restriction on work that may be performed by day labor on a single project.

(4) In addition to the accounting and record-keeping requirements contained in RCW 39.04.070, every first class city annually shall prepare a report for the state auditor indicating the total public works construction budget and supplemental public works construction budget for that year, the total construction costs of public works performed by public employees for that year, and the amount of public works that is performed by public employees above or below ten percent of the total construction budget. However, if a city budgets on a biennial basis, this annual report shall indicate the amount of public works that is performed by public employees within the current biennial period that is above or below ten percent of the total biennial construction budget.

After September 1, 1987, each first class city with a population of one hundred fifty thousand or less shall use the form required by RCW 43.09.205 to account and record costs of public works in excess of five thousand dollars that are not let by contract.

(5) The cost of a separate public works project shall be the costs of materials, supplies, equipment, and labor on the construction of that project. The value of the public works budget shall be the value of all the separate public works projects within the budget.

(6) When any emergency shall require the immediate execution of such public work, upon the finding of the existence of such emergency by the authority having power to direct such public work to be done and duly entered of record, publication of description and estimate may be made within seven days after the commencement of the work. Within two weeks of the finding that such an emergency existed, the city council shall adopt a resolution certifying the existence of this emergency situation.

(7) In lieu of the procedures of subsections (2) and (6) of this section, a first class city may use a small works roster process and award contracts ~~((under this subsection for contracts))~~ for public works projects with an estimated value of one hundred thousand dollars or less as provided in RCW 39.04.155.

~~((a) The city may maintain a small works roster comprised of all contractors who have requested to be on the roster and are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform such work in this state.~~

~~(b) Whenever work is done by contract, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, and the city uses the small works roster, the city shall invite proposals from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster: PROVIDED, That not less than five separate appropriate contractors, if available, shall be invited to submit bids on any one contract: PROVIDED FURTHER, That) Whenever possible, the city shall invite at least one proposal from a minority or woman contractor who shall otherwise qualify under this section. ((Once a bidder on the small works roster has been offered an opportunity to bid, that bidder shall not be offered another opportunity until all other appropriate contractors on the small works roster have been afforded an opportunity to submit a bid. Invitations shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished.~~

~~(c) When awarding such a contract for work, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, the city shall award the contract to the contractor submitting the lowest responsible bid.)~~

(8) The allocation of public works projects to be performed by city employees shall not be subject to a collective bargaining agreement.

(9) This section does not apply to performance-based contracts, as defined in RCW 39.35A.020(3), that are negotiated under chapter 39.35A RCW.

(10) Nothing in this section shall prohibit any first class city from allowing for preferential purchase of products made from recycled materials or products that may be recycled or reused.

Sec. 10. RCW 35.23.352 and 1989 c 431 s 56 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any second or third class city or any town may construct any public works, as defined in RCW 39.04.010, by contract or day labor without calling for bids therefor whenever the estimated cost of the work or improvement, including cost of materials, supplies and equipment will not exceed the sum of thirty thousand dollars if more than one craft or trade is involved with the public works, or twenty thousand dollars if a single craft or trade is involved with the public works or the public works project is street signalization or street lighting. A public works project means a complete project. The restrictions in this subsection do not permit the division of the project into units of work or classes of work to avoid the restriction on work that may be performed by day labor on a single project.

Whenever the cost of the public work or improvement, including materials, supplies and equipment, will exceed these figures, the same shall be done by contract. All such contracts shall be let at public bidding upon ~~((posting))~~ publication of notice calling for sealed bids upon the work. The notice ~~((thereof shall be posted in a public place in the city or town and by publication))~~ shall be published in the official newspaper, or a newspaper of general circulation most likely to bring responsive bids, ~~((once each week for two consecutive weeks before))~~ at least thirteen days prior to the ~~((date fixed for opening the bids))~~ last date upon which bids will be received. The notice shall generally state the nature of the work to be done that plans and specifications therefor shall then be on file in the city or town hall for public inspections, and require that bids be sealed and filed with the council or commission within the time specified therein. Each bid shall be accompanied by a bid proposal deposit in the form of a cashier's check, postal money order, or surety bond to the council or commission for a sum of not less than five percent of the amount of the bid, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such bid proposal deposit. The council or commission of the city or town shall let the contract to the lowest responsible bidder or shall have power by resolution to reject any or all bids and to make further calls for bids in the same manner as the original call.

When the contract is let then all bid proposal deposits shall be returned to the bidders except that of the successful bidder which shall be retained until a contract is entered into and a bond to perform the work furnished, with surety satisfactory to the council or commission, in ~~((the full amount of the contract price))~~ accordance with RCW 39.08.030. If the bidder fails to enter into the contract in accordance with his or her bid and furnish a bond within ten days from the date at which he or she is notified that he or she is the successful bidder, the check or postal money order and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the council or commission or the council or commission shall recover the amount of the surety bond.

If no bid is received on the first call the council or commission may readvertise and make a second call, or may enter into a contract without any further call or may purchase the supplies, material or equipment and perform the work or improvement by day labor.

(2) The allocation of public works projects to be performed by city or town employees shall not be subject to a collective bargaining agreement.

(3) In lieu of the procedures of subsection (1) of this section, a second or third class city or a town may use a small works roster process and award public works contracts ~~((under this subsection for contracts))~~ with an estimated value of one hundred thousand dollars or less as provided in RCW 39.04.155.

~~((a) The city or town may maintain a small works roster comprised of all contractors who have requested to be on the roster and are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform such work in this state.~~

~~(b) Whenever work is done by contract, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, and the city uses the small works roster, the city or town shall invite proposals from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster: PROVIDED, That) Whenever possible, the city or town shall invite at least one proposal from a minority or woman contractor who shall otherwise qualify under this section. ((The invitation shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished.~~

~~(c) When awarding such a contract for work, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, the city or town shall award the contract to the contractor submitting the lowest responsible bid.)~~

(4) After September 1, 1987, each second class city, third class city, and town shall use the form required by RCW 43.09.205 to account and record costs of public works in excess of five thousand dollars that are not let by contract.

(5) The cost of a separate public works project shall be the costs of the materials, equipment, supplies, and labor on that construction project.

(6) Any purchase of supplies, material, equipment or services other than professional services, except for public work or improvement, where the cost thereof exceeds seven thousand five hundred dollars shall be made upon call for bids(~~(: PROVIDED, That the limitations herein shall not apply to any purchases of materials at auctions conducted by the government of the United States, any agency thereof or by the state of Washington or a political subdivision thereof).~~).

(7) Bids shall be called annually and at a time and in the manner prescribed by ordinance for the publication in a newspaper (~~(published or)~~) of general circulation in the city or town of all notices or newspaper publications required by law. The contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder.

(8) For advertisement and (~~(competitive)~~) formal sealed bidding to be dispensed with as to purchases between seven thousand five hundred and fifteen thousand dollars, the city legislative authority must authorize by resolution (~~((a)), use of the uniform procedure ((for securing telephone and/or written quotations from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding the contracts for purchase of materials, equipment, or services to the lowest responsible bidder. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry)) provided in RCW 39.04.190.~~

(9) These requirements for purchasing may be waived by resolution of the city or town council which declared that the purchase is clearly and legitimately limited to a single source or supply within the near vicinity, or the materials, supplies, equipment, or services are subject to special market conditions, and recites why this situation exists. Such actions are subject to RCW 39.30.020.

(10) This section does not apply to performance-based contracts, as defined in RCW 39.35A.020(3), that are negotiated under chapter 39.35A RCW.

(11) Nothing in this section shall prohibit any second or third class city or any town from allowing for preferential purchase of products made from recycled materials or products that may be recycled or reused.

Sec. 11. RCW 52.14.110 and 1984 c 238 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Insofar as practicable, purchases and any public works by the district shall be based on competitive bids. A formal sealed bid procedure shall be used as standard procedure for purchases and contracts for purchases executed by the board of commissioners. Formal sealed bidding shall not be required for:

(1) Emergency purchases if the sealed bidding procedure would prevent or hinder the emergency from being addressed appropriately. The term emergency means an occurrence that creates an immediate threat to life or property;

(2) The purchase of any materials, supplies, or equipment if the cost will not exceed the sum of (~~(ten)~~) four thousand five hundred dollars(~~(: PROVIDED, That)~~). However, whenever the estimated cost is from (~~(forty-five hundred)~~) four thousand five hundred dollars up to ten thousand dollars, the commissioners (~~((shall require quotations from at least three different sources to be obtained in writing or by telephone, and recorded for public perusal to assure establishment of a competitive price for such purchase)) may by resolution use the process provided in RCW 39.04.190 to award contracts;~~

(3) Contracting for work to be done involving the construction or improvement of a fire station or other buildings where the estimated cost will not exceed the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, which includes the costs of labor, material, and equipment. However, whenever the estimated cost is from two thousand five hundred dollars up to ten thousand dollars, the commissioner may by resolution use the small works roster process provided in RCW 39.04.155;

(4) Purchases which are clearly and legitimately limited to a single source of supply, or services, in which instances the purchase price may be best established by direct negotiation: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply to purchases or contracts relating to public works as defined in chapter 39.04 RCW; and

(5) Purchases of insurance and bonds.

Sec. 12. RCW 52.14.120 and 1984 c 238 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notice of the call for bids shall be given by (~~((posting notice in three public places in the district and by publication once each week for two consecutive weeks. The posting and first publication shall be at least two weeks before the date fixed for opening of the bids, and the publication shall be)) publishing the notice~~ in a newspaper of general circulation within the district at least thirteen days before the last date upon which bids will be received. If no bid is received on the first call, the commissioners may readvertise and make a second call, or may enter into a contract without a further call.

(2) A public work involving three or more specialty contractors requires that the district retain the services of a general contractor as defined in RCW 18.27.010.

Sec. 13. RCW 53.08.120 and 1988 c 235 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

All material required by a port district may be procured in the open market or by contract and all work ordered may be done by contract or day labor. All such contracts for work, the estimated cost of which exceeds one hundred thousand dollars, shall be let at public bidding upon notice published in a newspaper of general circulation in the district at least (~~(ten)~~) thirteen days before the (~~(letting)~~) last date upon which bids will be received, calling for sealed bids upon the work, plans and specifications for which shall then be on file in the office of the commission for public inspection. The same notice may call for bids on such work or material based upon plans and specifications submitted by the bidder.

Each port district shall maintain a small works roster (~~which shall be comprised of all contractors who have requested to be on the roster and are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform such work in the state of Washington.~~), as provided in RCW 39.04.155, and may use the small works roster process to award contracts in lieu of calling for sealed bids whenever work is done by contract, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less(~~, the managing official of the port district may invite proposals from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster: PROVIDED, That not less than five separate appropriate contractors shall be invited to submit proposals on any individual contract: PROVIDED FURTHER, That~~), Whenever possible, the managing official shall invite at least one proposal from a minority contractor who shall otherwise qualify under this section. ((Such invitation shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished.))

When awarding such a contract for work, when utilizing proposals from the small works roster, the managing official shall give weight to the contractor submitting the lowest and best proposal, and whenever it would not violate the public interest, such contracts shall be distributed equally among contractors, including minority contractors, on the small works roster.

Sec. 14. RCW 54.04.070 and 1990 c 251 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Any item, or items of the same kind of materials, equipment, or supplies purchased, the estimated cost of which is in excess of five thousand dollars, exclusive of sales tax shall be by contract: PROVIDED, That a district may make purchases of the same kind of items of materials, equipment and supplies not exceeding five thousand dollars in any calendar month without a contract, purchasing any excess thereof over five thousand dollars by contract. Any work ordered by a district commission, the estimated cost of which is in excess of ten thousand dollars exclusive of sales tax, shall be by contract, except that a district commission may have its own regularly employed personnel perform work which is an accepted industry practice under prudent utility management without a contract. Prudent utility management means performing work with regularly employed personnel utilizing material of a worth not exceeding fifty thousand dollars in value without a contract: PROVIDED, That such limit on the value of material being utilized in work being performed by regularly employed personnel shall not include the value of individual items of equipment purchased or acquired and used as one unit of a project. Before awarding such a contract, the commission shall publish a notice once or more in a newspaper of general circulation in the district at least (~~(twenty)~~) thirteen days before the (~~(letting of the contract)) last date upon which bids will be received~~, inviting sealed proposals for the work or materials; plans and specifications of which shall at the time of the publication be on file at the office of the district subject to public inspection(~~(-PROVIDED, That any)~~), Any published notice ordering work to be performed for the district shall be mailed at the time of publication to any established trade association which files a written request with the district to receive such notices. The commission may at the same time and as part of the same notice, invite tenders for the work or materials upon plans and specifications to be submitted by the bidders.

Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, all contract projects, the estimated cost of which is less than one hundred thousand dollars, may be awarded to a contractor (~~(on)~~) using the small works roster(~~(-The small works roster shall be comprised of all responsible contractors who have requested to be on the list. The commission shall authorize by resolution a procedure for securing telephone and/or written quotations from the contractors on the small works roster to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding contracts to the lowest responsible bidder. Such procedure shall require that a good-faith effort be made to request quotations from all contractors on the small works roster. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available by telephone inquiry. The small works roster shall be revised once a year)) process provided in RCW 39.04.155. All contract projects equal to or in excess of one hundred thousand dollars shall be let by competitive bidding.~~

Whenever equipment or materials required by a district are held by a governmental agency and are available for sale but such agency is unwilling to submit a proposal, the commission may ascertain the price of such items and file a statement of such price supported by the sworn affidavit of one member of the commission and may consider such price as a bid without a deposit or bond. In the event of an emergency when the public interest or property of the district would suffer material injury or damage by delay, upon resolution of the commission, or proclamation of an official designated by the board to act for the board during such emergencies, declaring the existence of such emergency and reciting the facts constituting the same, the board, or the official acting for the board, may waive the requirements of this chapter with reference to any purchase or contract, after having taken precautions to secure the lowest price practicable under the circumstances.

After determination by the commission during a public meeting that a particular purchase is available clearly and legitimately only from a single source of supply, the bidding requirements of this section may be waived by the commission.

Sec. 15. RCW 54.04.082 and 1977 ex.s. c 116 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

For the awarding of a contract to purchase any item, or items of the same kind of materials, equipment, or supplies in an amount exceeding five thousand dollars, but less than fifteen thousand dollars, exclusive of sales tax, the commission may, in lieu of the procedure described in RCW 54.04.070 and 54.04.080 requiring public notice to invite sealed proposals for such materials, equipment, or supplies, ~~((authorize by)) pursuant to commission resolution ((a staff procedure for securing telephone and/or written quotations from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding such contracts for purchase of materials, equipment, or supplies to the lowest responsible bidder. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and shall be posted or otherwise made available at the office of the commission or any other officially designated location)) use the process provided in RCW 39.04.190. Waiver of the deposit or bid bond required under RCW 54.04.080 may be authorized by the commission in securing such bid quotations.~~

Sec. 16. RCW 56.08.070 and 1989 c 105 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All materials purchased and work ordered, the estimated cost of which is in excess of five thousand dollars shall be let by contract. All contract projects, the estimated cost of which is less than fifty thousand dollars, may be awarded to a contractor ~~((on)) using the small works roster ((The small works roster shall be comprised of all responsible contractors who have requested to be on the list)) process provided in RCW 39.04.155 or the process provided in RCW 39.04.190 for purchases. The board of sewer commissioners may set up uniform procedures to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. ((The board of sewer commissioners shall authorize by resolution a procedure for securing telephone and/or written quotations from the contractors on the small works roster to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding contracts to the lowest responsible bidder. Such procedure shall require that a good faith effort be made to request quotations from all contractors on the small works roster. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available by telephone inquiry. The small works roster shall be revised once a year.)) All contract projects equal to or in excess of fifty thousand dollars shall be let by competitive bidding. Before awarding any competitive contract the board of sewer commissioners shall ~~((cause)) publish a notice ((to be published)) in a newspaper ((in)) of general circulation where the district is located at least once, ~~((ten)) thirteen~~ days before the ~~((letting of such contract)) last date upon which bids will be received~~, inviting sealed proposals for such work, plans and specifications which must at the time of publication of such notice be on file in the office of the board of sewer commissioners subject to public inspection. Such notice shall state generally the work to be done and shall call for proposals for doing the same to be sealed and filed with the board of sewer commissioners on or before the day and hour named therein.~~~~

(2) Each bid shall be accompanied by a bid proposal deposit in the form of a certified check, cashier's check, postal money order, or surety bond payable to the order of the county treasurer for a sum not less than five percent of the amount of the bid and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such bid proposal deposit. At the time and place named such bids shall be publicly opened and read and the board of sewer commissioners shall proceed to canvass the bids and may let such contract to the lowest responsible bidder upon plans and specifications: PROVIDED, That no contract shall be let in excess of the cost of ~~((said)) the~~ materials or work, or if in the opinion of the board of sewer commissioners all bids are unsatisfactory they may reject all of them and readvertise and in such case all checks, cash or bid bonds shall be returned to the bidders. If such contract be let, then all checks, cash or bid bonds shall be returned to the bidders, except that of the successful bidder, which shall be retained until a contract shall be entered into for the purchase of such materials or doing such work, and a bond to perform such work furnished with sureties satisfactory to the board of sewer commissioners in the full amount of the contract price between the bidder and the commission in accordance with bid. If ~~((said)) the~~ bidder fails to enter into ~~((said)) the~~ contract in accordance with ~~((said)) the~~ bid and furnish such bond within ten days from the date at which ~~((he)) the bidder~~ is notified that he or she is the successful bidder, the ~~((said))~~ check, cash, or bid bonds and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the sewer district.

(3) In the event of an emergency when the public interest or property of the sewer district would suffer material injury or damage by delay, upon resolution of the board of sewer commissioners, or proclamation of an official designated by the board to act for the board during such emergencies, declaring the existence of such emergency and reciting the facts constituting the same, the board, or the official acting for the board, may waive the requirements of this chapter with reference to any purchase or contract. In addition, these requirements may be waived for purchases which are clearly and legitimately limited to a single source of supply and purchases involving special facilities, services, or market conditions, in which instances the purchase price may be best established by direct negotiation.

Sec. 17. RCW 56.08.080 and 1989 c 308 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of commissioners of a sewer district may sell, at public or private sale, property belonging to the district if the board determines that the property is not and will not be needed for district purposes and if the board gives notice of intention to sell as in this section provided: PROVIDED, That no notice of intention is required to sell personal property of less than two thousand five hundred dollars in value.

The notice of intention to sell shall be published once a week for ~~((three)) two~~ consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the district. ~~((The last publication shall be at least twenty days but not more than thirty days before the date of sale.))~~ The notice shall describe the property and state the time and place at which it will be sold or offered for sale, the terms of sale, whether the property is to be sold at public or private sale, and if at public sale the notice shall call for bids, fix the conditions thereof and shall reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Sec. 18. RCW 56.08.090 and 1989 c 308 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, no real property valued at two thousand five hundred dollars or more of the district shall be sold for less than ninety percent of the value thereof as established by a written appraisal made not more than six months prior to the date of sale by three disinterested real estate brokers licensed under the laws of the state or professionally designated real estate appraisers as defined in RCW 74.46.020. The appraisal shall be signed by the appraisers and filed with the secretary of the board of commissioners of the district, who shall keep it at the office of the district open to public inspection. Any notice of intention to sell real property of the district shall recite the appraised value thereof: PROVIDED, That there shall be no private sale of real property where the appraised value exceeds the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars.

(2) If no purchasers can be obtained for the property at ninety percent or more of its appraised value after one hundred ~~((eighty))~~ twenty days of offering the property for sale, the board of commissioners of the sewer district may adopt a resolution stating that the district has been unable to sell the property at the ninety percent amount. The sewer district then may sell the property at the highest price it can obtain at public auction. A notice of intention to sell at public auction shall be published once a week for ~~((three))~~ two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the sewer district. ~~((The last publication shall be at least twenty days but not more than thirty days before the date of sale.))~~ The notice shall describe the property, state the time and place at which it will be offered for sale and the terms of sale, and shall call for bids, fix the conditions thereof, and reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Sec. 19. RCW 57.08.015 and 1989 c 308 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of commissioners of a water district may sell, at public or private sale, property belonging to the district if the board determines that the property is not and will not be needed for district purposes and if the board gives notice of intention to sell as in this section provided: PROVIDED, That no such notice of intention shall be required to sell personal property of less than two thousand five hundred dollars in value.

The notice of intention to sell shall be published once a week for ~~((three))~~ two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the district. ~~((The last publication shall be at least twenty days but not more than thirty days before the date of sale.))~~ The notice shall describe the property and state the time and place at which it will be sold or offered for sale, the terms of sale, whether the property is to be sold at public or private sale, and if at public sale the notice shall call for bids, fix the conditions thereof and shall reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Sec. 20. RCW 57.08.016 and 1989 c 308 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, no real property valued at two thousand five hundred dollars or more of the district shall be sold for less than ninety percent of the value thereof as established by a written appraisal made not more than six months prior to the date of sale by three disinterested real estate brokers licensed under the laws of the state or professionally designated real estate appraisers as defined in RCW 74.46.020. The appraisal shall be signed by the appraisers and filed with the secretary of the board of commissioners of the district, who shall keep it at the office of the district open to public inspection. Any notice of intention to sell real property of the district shall recite the appraised value thereof: PROVIDED, That there shall be no private sale of real property where the appraised value exceeds the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars.

(2) If no purchasers can be obtained for the property at ninety percent or more of its appraised value after one hundred ~~((eighty))~~ twenty days of offering the property for sale, the board of commissioners of the water district may adopt a resolution stating that the district has been unable to sell the property at the ninety percent amount. The water district then may sell the property at the highest price it can obtain at public auction. A notice of intention to sell at public auction shall be published once a week for ~~((three))~~ two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the water district. ~~((The last publication shall be at least twenty days but not more than thirty days before the date of sale.))~~ The notice shall describe the property, state the time and place at which it will be offered for sale and the terms of sale, and shall call for bids, fix the conditions thereof, and reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Sec. 21. RCW 57.08.050 and 1989 c 105 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of water commissioners shall have authority to create and fill such positions and fix salaries and bonds thereof as it may by resolution provide.

(2) All materials purchased and work ordered, the estimated cost of which is in excess of five thousand dollars shall be let by contract. All contract projects, the estimated cost of which is less than fifty thousand dollars, may be awarded to a contractor ~~((on the))~~ using a small works roster ~~((The small works roster shall be comprised of all responsible contractors who have requested to be on the list))~~ process provided in RCW 39.04.155 or the process provided in RCW 39.04.190 for purchases. The board of water commissioners may set up uniform procedures to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. ~~((The board of water commissioners shall authorize by resolution a procedure for securing telephone and/or written quotations from the contractors on the small works roster to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding contracts to the lowest responsible bidder. Such procedure shall require that a good faith effort be made to request quotations from all contractors on the small works roster. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available~~ by telephone inquiry. The small works roster shall be revised once a year.) All contract projects equal to or in excess of fifty thousand dollars shall be let by competitive bidding. Before awarding any such contract the board of water commissioners shall ~~((cause))~~ publish a notice ~~((to be published))~~ in a newspaper ~~((in))~~ of general circulation where the district is located at least once ~~((ten))~~ thirteen days before the ~~((letting of such contract))~~ last date upon which bids will be received, inviting sealed proposals for such work, plans and specifications which must at the time of publication of such notice be on file in the office of the board of water commissioners subject to public inspection. Such notice shall state generally the work to be done and shall call for proposals for doing the same to be sealed and filed with the board of water commissioners on or before the day and hour named therein.

(3) Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or postal money order payable to the order of the county treasurer for a sum not less than five percent of the amount of the bid, or accompanied by a bid bond in an amount not less than five percent of the bid with a corporate surety licensed to do business in the state, conditioned that the bidder will pay the district as liquidated damages the amount specified in the bond, unless ~~((he))~~ the bidder enters into a contract in accordance with his or her bid, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such check, cash or bid bond. At the time and place named such bids shall be publicly opened and read and the board of water commissioners shall proceed to canvass the bids and may let such contract to the lowest responsible bidder upon plans and specifications on file or to the best bidder submitting his or her own plans and specifications: PROVIDED, That no contract shall be let in excess of the cost of ~~((said))~~ the materials or work, or if in the opinion of the board of water commissioners all bids are unsatisfactory they may reject all of them and readvertise and in such case all checks, cash or bid bonds shall be returned to the bidders. If such contract be let, then all checks, cash or bid bonds shall be returned to the bidders, except that of the successful bidder, which shall be retained until a contract shall be entered into for the purchase of such materials or doing such work, and a bond to perform such work furnished with sureties satisfactory to the board of water commissioners in the full amount of the contract price between the bidder and the commission in accordance with the bid. If ~~((said))~~ the bidder fails to enter into ~~((said))~~ the contract in accordance with ~~((said))~~ the bid and furnish such bond within ten days from the date at which ~~((he))~~ the bidder is notified that he or she is the successful bidder, the ~~((said))~~ check, cash or bid bonds and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the water district: PROVIDED, That if the bidder fails to enter into a contract in accordance with his or her bid, and the board of water commissioners deems it necessary to take legal action to collect on any bid bond required herein, then the water district shall be entitled to collect from ~~((said))~~ the bidder any legal expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees occasioned thereby.

(4) In the event of an emergency when the public interest or property of the water district would suffer material injury or damage by delay, upon resolution of the board of water commissioners, or proclamation of an official designated by the board to act for the board during such emergencies, declaring the existence of such emergency and reciting the facts constituting the same, the board, or official acting for the board, may waive the requirements of this chapter with reference to any purchase or contract. In addition, these requirements may be waived for purchases which are clearly and legitimately limited to a single source of supply and purchases involving special facilities, services, or market conditions, in which instances the purchase price may be best established by direct negotiation.

Sec. 22. RCW 70.44.140 and 1965 c 83 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All materials purchased and work ordered, the estimated cost of which is in excess of five thousand dollars, shall be by contract. Before awarding any such contract, the commission shall ~~((cause to be published))~~ publish a notice at least ~~((thirty))~~ thirteen days before the ~~((letting of said contract))~~ last date upon which bids will be received, inviting sealed proposals for such work~~((s))~~. The plans and specifications ~~((which))~~ must at the time of the publication of such notice be on file at the office of the public hospital district, subject to public inspection: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the commission may at the same time, and as part of the same notice, invite tenders for ~~((said))~~ the work or materials upon plans and specifications to be submitted by bidders. ~~((Such))~~ The notice shall state generally the work to be done, and shall call for proposals for doing the same, to be sealed and filed with the commission on or before the day and hour named therein. Each bid shall be accompanied by bid proposal security in the form of a certified check, cashier's check, postal money order, or surety bond made payable to the order of the commission, for a sum not less than five percent of the amount of the bid, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such bid proposal security. At the time and place named, such bids shall be publicly opened and read, and the commission shall proceed to canvass the bids, and may let such contract to the lowest responsible bidder upon plans and specifications on file, or to the best bidder submitting his or her own plans and specifications: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no contract shall be let in excess of the estimated cost of ~~((said))~~ the materials or work, or if, in the opinion of the commission, all bids are unsatisfactory, they may reject all of them and readvertise, and in such case all bid proposal security shall be returned to the bidders; but if such contract be let, then and in such case all bid proposal security shall be returned to the bidders, except that of the successful bidder, which shall be retained until a contract shall be entered into for the purchase of such materials for doing such work, and a bond to perform such work furnished, with sureties satisfactory to the commission, in an amount to be fixed by the commission, not less than twenty-five percent of contract price in any case, between the bidder and commission, in accordance with the bid. If such bidder fails to enter into ((said)) the contract in accordance with ((said)) the bid and furnish such bond within ten days from the date at which ((he)) the bidder is notified that he or she is the successful bidder, the ((said)) bid proposal security and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the public hospital district.

(2) In lieu of the procedures of subsection (1) of this section, a public hospital district may use a small works roster process and award public works contracts for projects in excess of five thousand dollars up to fifty thousand dollars as provided in RCW 39.04.155.

(3) For advertisement and formal sealed bidding to be dispensed with as to purchases between five thousand and fifteen thousand dollars, the commission must authorize by resolution a procedure as provided in RCW 39.04.190.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Due to work in the conference committee on health care reform, I missed the votes on the following bills: Substitute Senate No. 5052, as amended by the House; Substitute Senate Bill No. 5075, as amended by the House; Senate Bill No. 5107, as amended by the House; Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5237, as amended by the House; Substitute Senate Bill No. 5261, as amended by the House; Substitute Senate Bill No. 5263, as amended by the House; Senate Bill No. 5349, as amended by the House; Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5379, as amended by the House; Senate Bill No. 5387, as amended by the House; Substitute Senate Bill No. 5402, as amended by the House; and Substitute Senate Bill No. 5404, as amended by the House; and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5452, as amended by the House.

I would have voted 'yes' on all but Substitute Senate Bill No. 5262, as amended by the House.

SENATOR PHIL TALMADGE, 34th District

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5052 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 35.27.270 and 1965 c 7 s 35.27.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The town council shall meet ~~((on the second Tuesday))~~ in January succeeding the date of the general municipal election, shall take the oath of office, and shall hold regular meetings at least once each month at such times as may be fixed by ordinance. Special meetings may be called at any time by the mayor or by three ~~((councilmen))~~ councilmembers, by written notice ~~((delivered to each member at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting))~~ as provided in RCW 42.30.080. No resolution or order for the payment of money shall be passed at any other than a regular meeting. No such resolution or order shall be valid unless passed by the votes of at least three ~~((councilmen))~~ councilmembers.

All meetings of the council shall be held ~~((within the corporate limits of the town,))~~ at such places as may be designated by ~~((ordinance and shall))~~ the town council. All final actions on resolutions and ordinances must take place within the corporate limits of the town. All meetings of the town council must be public.

Sec. 2. RCW 35.24.180 and 1965 c 7 s 35.24.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The city council and mayor shall meet ~~((on the first Tuesday))~~ in January next succeeding the date of each general municipal election, and shall take the oath of office, and shall hold regular meetings at least once during each month but not to exceed one regular meeting in each week, at such times as may be fixed by ordinance.

Special meetings may be called by the mayor by written notice ~~((delivered to each member of the council at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting))~~ as provided in RCW 42.30.080. No ordinances shall be passed or contract let or entered into, or bill for the payment of money allowed at any special meeting.

All meetings of the city council shall be held ~~((within the corporate limits of the city))~~ at such place as may be designated by ~~((ordinance))~~ the city council. All final actions on resolutions and ordinances must take place within the corporate limits of the city. All meetings of the city council must be public.

Sec. 3. RCW 35A.12.110 and 1979 ex.s. c 18 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

The city council and mayor shall meet regularly, at least once a month, at a place ~~((within the corporate limits of the city))~~ and at such times as may be ~~((fixed by ordinance or resolution))~~ designated by the city council. All final actions on resolutions and ordinances must take place within the corporate limits of the city. Special meetings may be called by the mayor or any three members of the council by written notice delivered to each member of the council at least twenty-four hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. All actions that have heretofore been taken at special council meetings held pursuant to this section, but for which the number of hours of notice given has been at variance with requirements of RCW 42.30.080, are hereby validated. All council meetings shall be open to the public except as permitted by chapter 42.30 RCW. No ordinance or resolution shall be passed, or contract let or entered into, or bill for the payment of money allowed at any meeting not open to the public, nor at any public meeting the date of which is not fixed by ordinance, resolution, or rule, unless public notice of such meeting has been given by such notice to each local newspaper of general circulation and to each local radio or television station, as provided in RCW 42.30.080 as now or hereafter amended. Meetings of the council shall be presided over by the mayor, if present, or otherwise by the mayor pro tempore, or deputy mayor if one has been appointed, or by a member of the council selected by a majority of the council members at such meeting. Appointment of a council member to preside over the meeting shall not in any way abridge his right to vote on matters coming before the council at such meeting. In the absence of the clerk, a deputy clerk or other qualified person appointed by the clerk, the mayor, or the council, may perform the duties of clerk at such meeting. A journal of all proceedings shall be kept, which shall be a public record.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5075 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

As used in sections 2 and 3 of this act, "hazing" includes any method of initiation into a student organization or living group, or any pastime or amusement engaged in with respect to such an organization or living group that causes, or is likely to cause, bodily danger or physical harm, or serious mental or emotional harm, to any student or other person attending a public or private institution of higher education or other postsecondary educational institution in this state. "Hazing" does not include customary athletic events or other similar contests or competitions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No student, or other person in attendance at any public or private institution of higher education, or any other postsecondary educational institution, may conspire to engage in hazing or participate in hazing of another.

(2) A violation of this section is a misdemeanor, punishable as provided under RCW 9A.20.021.

(3) Any organization, association, or student living group that knowingly permits hazing is strictly liable for harm caused to persons or property resulting from hazing. If the organization, association, or student living group is a corporation whether for profit or nonprofit, the individual directors of the corporation may be held individually liable for damages.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person who participates in the hazing of another shall forfeit any entitlement to state-funded grants, scholarships, or awards for a period of time determined by the institution of higher education.

(2) Any organization, association, or student living group that knowingly permits hazing to be conducted by its members or by others subject to its direction or control shall be deprived of any official recognition or approval granted by a public institution of higher education.

(3) The public institutions of higher education shall adopt rules to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

Institutions of higher education shall adopt rules providing sanctions for conduct associated with initiation into a student organization or living group, or any pastime or amusement engaged in with respect to an organization or living group not amounting to a violation of section 1 of this act. Conduct covered by this section may include embarrassment, ridicule, sleep deprivation, verbal abuse, or personal humiliation.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5261 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 43.20A.710 and 1989 c 334 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall investigate the conviction records, pending charges or disciplinary board final decisions of: (1) Persons being considered for state employment in positions directly responsible for the supervision, care, or treatment of children (~~mentally ill persons~~) or individuals with mental illness or (~~developmentally disabled persons~~) developmental disabilities; and (2) individual providers who are paid by the state for in-home services and hired by individuals with physical disabilities, developmental disabilities, mental illness, or mental impairment. The investigation may include an examination of state and national criminal identification data and the child abuse and neglect register established under chapter 26.44 RCW. The secretary shall provide the results of the state background check on individual providers to the individuals with physical disabilities, developmental disabilities, mental illness, or mental impairment who hired them and to their legal guardians, if any. The secretary shall use the information solely for the purpose of determining the character, suitability, and competence of these applicants except that in the case of individuals with physical disabilities, developmental disabilities, mental illness, or mental impairment who employ individual providers, the determination of character, suitability, and competence of applicants shall be made by the individual with a physical disability, developmental disability, mental illness, or mental impairment. Criminal justice agencies shall provide the secretary such information as they may have and that the secretary may require for such purpose. If necessary, persons may be employed on a conditional basis pending completion of the background investigation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act applies prospectively except individuals who currently employ individual providers paid by the state may be given the option to request a state background check during reassessment for services.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 5, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5379 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 15.36.115 and 1989 c 354 s 18 and 1989 c 175 s 48 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) If the results of an antibiotic, pesticide, or other drug residue test under RCW 15.36.110 are above the actionable level established in the pasteurized milk ordinance published by the United States public health service and determined using procedures set forth in the current edition of "Standard Methods for the Examination of Dairy Products," a producer holding a grade A permit is subject to a civil penalty. The penalty shall be in an amount equal to one-half the value of the sum of the volumes of milk equivalent produced under the permit on the day prior to and the day of the adulteration. The value of the milk shall be computed by the weighted average price for the federal market order under which the milk is delivered.

(2) The penalty is imposed by the department giving a written notice which is either personally served upon or transmitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person incurring the penalty. The notice of the civil penalty shall be a final order of the department unless, within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty appeals the penalty by filing a notice of appeal with the department. If a notice of appeal is filed in a timely manner, a hearing shall be conducted on behalf of the department by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapters 34.05 and 34.12 RCW ((and, to the extent they are not inconsistent with this subsection, the provisions of RCW 15.36.580)). At the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall determine whether the penalty should be affirmed, and, if so, shall issue a final order setting forth the civil penalty assessed, if any. The order may be appealed to superior court in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW. Tests performed for antibiotic, pesticide, or other drug residues by a state or certified industry laboratory of a milk sample drawn by a department official or a licensed dairy technician shall be admitted as prima facie evidence of the presence or absence of an antibiotic, pesticide, or other drug residue.

(3) Any penalty imposed under this section is due and payable upon the issuance of the final order by the department. The penalty shall be deducted by the violator's marketing organization from the violator's final payment for the month following the issuance of the final order. The department shall promptly notify the violator's marketing organization of any penalties contained in the final order.

(4) All penalties received or recovered from violations of this section shall be remitted monthly by the violator's marketing organization to the Washington state dairy products commission and deposited in a revolving fund to be used solely for the purposes of education and research. No appropriation is required for disbursements from this fund.

(5) In case of a violation of the antibiotic, pesticide, or other drug residue test requirements, an investigation shall be made to determine the cause of the residue which shall be corrected. Additional samples shall be taken as soon as possible and tested as soon as feasible for antibiotic, pesticide, or other drug residue by the department or a certified laboratory. After the notice has been received by the producer and the results of a test of such an additional sample indicate that residues are above the actionable level or levels referred to in subsection (1) of this section, the producer's milk may not be sold until a sample is shown to be below the actionable levels established for the residues.

Sec. 2. RCW 69.07.040 and 1992 c 160 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a food processing plant or process foods in the state without first having obtained an annual license from the department, which shall expire on a date set by rule by the director. License fees shall be prorated where necessary to accommodate staggering of expiration dates. Application for a license shall be on a form prescribed by the director and accompanied by the license fee. The license fee is determined by computing the gross annual sales for the accounting year immediately preceding the license year. If the license is for a new operator, the license fee shall be based on an estimated gross annual sales for the initial license period.

If gross annual sales are: The license fee is:

$0 to $50,000	$50.00
$50,001 to $500,000	$100.00
$500,001 to $1,000,000	$200.00
$1,000,001 to $5,000,000	$350.00
$5,000,001 to $10,000,000	$500.00
Greater than $10,000,000	$750.00

Such application shall include the full name of the applicant for the license and the location of the food processing plant he or she intends to operate. If such applicant is an individual, receiver, trustee, firm, partnership, association or corporation, the full name of each member of the firm or partnership, or names of the officers of the association or corporation shall be given on the application. Such application shall further state the principal business address of the applicant in the state and elsewhere and the name of a person domiciled in this state authorized to receive and accept service of summons of legal notices of all kinds for the applicant. The application shall also specify the type of food to be processed and the method or nature of processing operation or preservation of that food and any other necessary information. Upon the approval of the application by the director and compliance with the provisions of this chapter, including the applicable regulations adopted hereunder by the department, the applicant shall be issued a license or renewal thereof.

Licenses shall be issued to cover only those products, processes, and operations specified in the license application and approved for licensing. Wherever a license holder wishes to engage in processing a type of food product that is different than the type specified on the application supporting the licensee's existing license and processing that type of food product would require a major addition to or modification of the licensee's processing facilities or has a high potential for harm, the licensee shall submit an amendment to the current license application. In such a case, the licensee may engage in processing the new type of food product only after the amendment has been approved by the department.

If upon investigation by the director, it is determined that a person is processing food for retail sale and is not under permit, license, or inspection by a local health authority, then that person may be considered a food processor and subject to the provisions of this chapter. The director may waive the licensure requirements of this chapter for a person's operations at a facility if the person is licensed under chapter 15.32 RCW or has a permit under chapter 15.36 RCW to conduct the same or a similar operation at the facility.

Sec. 3. RCW 15.36.595 and 1989 c 175 s 49 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of agriculture shall adopt rules imposing a civil penalty for violations of the standards for component parts of fluid dairy products which are established by RCW 15.36.030 or adopted pursuant to RCW 69.04.398. The penalty shall not exceed ten thousand dollars and shall be such as is necessary to achieve proper enforcement of the standards. The rules shall be adopted before January 1, 1987, and shall become effective on July 1, 1987.

(2) The penalty is imposed by the department giving a written notice which is either personally served upon or transmitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person incurring the penalty. The notice of the civil penalty shall be a final order of the department unless, within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty appeals the penalty by filing a notice of appeal with the department. If a notice of appeal is filed in a timely manner, a hearing shall be conducted on behalf of the department by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapters 34.05 and 34.12 RCW (~~and, to the extent they are not inconsistent with this subsection, the provisions of RCW 15.36.580~~). At the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall determine whether the penalty should be affirmed, reduced, or not imposed and shall issue a final order setting forth the civil penalty assessed, if any. The order may be appealed to superior court in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW. Tests performed for the component parts of milk products by a state laboratory of a milk sample collected by a department official shall be admitted as prima facie evidence of the amounts of milk components in the product.

(3) Any penalty imposed under this section is due and payable upon the issuance of the final order by the department.

(4) All penalties received or recovered from violations of this section shall be remitted by the violator to the department and deposited in the revolving fund of the Washington state dairy products commission. One-half of the funds received shall be used for purposes of education with the remainder one-half to be used for dairy processing or marketing research, or both. No appropriation is required for disbursements from this fund.

(5) In case of a violation of the standards for the composition of milk products, an investigation shall be made to determine the cause of the violation which shall be corrected. Additional samples shall be taken as soon as possible and tested by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. RCW 15.36.580 and 1989 c 354 s 26, 1987 c 202 s 175, 1981 c 67 s 17, & 1961 c 11 s 15.36.580 are each repealed.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5402 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds:

(a) Mathematics, science, and technology subtly but profoundly impact the lives of Washington state residents. In the coming years mathematics, science, and technology will become increasingly important in addressing societal concerns about health, environmental protection, conservation, energy supply, and industrial growth;

(b) There is consensus that the most likely leading industries in the twenty-first century will be in microelectronics, biotechnology, new materials industries, civilian aviation, telecommunications, robotics, and computer-related technologies. This means that literacy in mathematics, science, and technology will become increasingly important to the economic future of Washington state; and

(c) National education goal number four establishes that by the year 2000, United States students will be first in the world in science and mathematics achievement.

(2) The legislature recognizes that change is not optional and believes that only if literacy in mathematics, science, and technology is expanded to include all segments of the population can Washington state build upon existing public and private sector resources to take full advantage of the projected leading industries for the twenty-first century and achieve national education goal number four.

(3) It is the intent of the legislature to develop a long-range, comprehensive mathematics, science, and technology literacy program that reaches into all segments of society and supports a vision in which Washington state is a place where all citizens demonstrate, value, and support literacy in mathematics, science, and technology.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Before July 1, 1994, the higher education coordinating board may solicit, receive, and expend any private gifts or grants to conduct the study in section 3 of this act. Funds shall be expended in accordance with the conditions contingent in the gift or grant of those funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If sufficient funding from public or private sources is made available specifically for the purposes of this act by July 1, 1994, the higher education coordinating board shall contract with an appropriate person or entity to conduct a study on the feasibility and desirability of creating a Washington state institute for science, technology, and society. The study shall be completed by July 1, 1995.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The study in section 3 of this act shall include but not be limited to:

- (1) Identification of an appropriate role and mission for the institute;
- (2) Options for a governmental structure and location of an institute; and
- (3) Options for funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. For the purpose of the study in section 3 of this act, the purpose of a Washington state institute for science, technology, and society is as follows:

- (1) Implementation of a long-range comprehensive mathematics, science, and technology literacy program;
- (2) Development, identification, and dissemination of math, science, and technology curriculum options, textbooks, and course materials;
- (3) Provide institutes, workshops, and in-service training to teachers, college and university professors, and school administrators;
- (4) Coordinate the dissemination of information to groups and agencies, including a clearinghouse of speakers on mathematics, science, and technology literacy; and
- (5) Provide technical expertise to common schools and institutions of higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Based on the study conducted under section 3 of this act, the higher education coordinating board shall report findings, conclusions, and recommendations to the legislature and the governor no later than January 1, 1996.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5634 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to reduce the number of time-consuming and costly lawsuits between state agencies by establishing alternative dispute resolution processes available to any agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.17 RCW to read as follows:

For purposes of sections 2 through 4 of this act, "state agency" means:

(1) Any agency for which the executive officer is listed in RCW 42.17.2401(1); and

(2) The office of the secretary of state; the office of the state treasurer; the office of the state auditor; the department of natural resources; the office of the insurance commissioner; and the office of the superintendent of public instruction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.17 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever a dispute arises between state agencies, agencies shall employ every effort to resolve the dispute themselves without resorting to litigation. These efforts shall involve alternative dispute resolution methods. If a dispute cannot be resolved by the agencies involved, any one of the disputing agencies may request the governor to assist in the resolution of the dispute. The governor shall employ whatever dispute resolution methods that the governor deems appropriate in resolving the dispute. Such methods may include, but are not limited to, the appointment by the governor of a mediator, acceptable to the disputing agencies, to assist in the resolution of the dispute. The governor may also request assistance from the attorney general to advise the mediator and the disputing agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.17 RCW to read as follows:

Sections 2 and 3 of this act shall not apply to any state agency that is a party to a lawsuit, which: (1) Impleads another state agency into the lawsuit when necessary for the administration of justice; or (2) files a notice of appeal, petitions for review, or makes other filings subject to time limits, in order to preserve legal rights and remedies."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "agencies;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 43.17 RCW; and creating a new section.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5751 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 27.12 RCW to read as follows:

A rural partial-county library district may be created in a portion of the unincorporated area of a county as provided in this section if a rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, or island library district has not been created in the county and the area proposed to be included in a rural partial-county library district has an assessed valuation of at least fifty million dollars.

The procedure to create a rural partial-county library district is initiated by the filing of petitions with the county auditor proposing the creation of the district that have been signed by at least ten percent of the registered voters residing in the area proposed to be included in the rural partial-county library district. The county auditor shall review the petitions and certify the sufficiency or insufficiency of the signatures to the county legislative authority.

If the petitions are certified as having sufficient valid signatures, the county legislative authority shall hold a public hearing on the proposed rural partial-county library district, may adjust the boundaries of the proposed district, and may cause a ballot proposition to be submitted to the voters of the proposed rural partial-county library district authorizing its creation if the county legislative authority finds that the creation of the rural partial-county library district is in the public interest. A subsequent public hearing shall be held if additional territory is added to the proposed rural partial-county library district by action of the county legislative authority.

The rural partial-county library district shall be created if the ballot proposition authorizing the creation of the district is approved by a simple majority vote of the voters voting on the proposition. Immediately after creation of the rural partial-county library district the county legislative authority shall appoint a board of library trustees for the district as provided under RCW 27.12.190.

Except as provided in this section, a rural partial-county library district is subject to all the provisions of law applicable to a rural county library district and shall have all the powers, duties, and authorities of a rural county library district, including, but not limited to, the authority to impose property taxes, incur debt, and annex a city or town with a population of less than one hundred thousand at the time of the annexation that is located in the same county as the rural partial-county library district.

Adjacent unincorporated territory in the county may be annexed to a rural partial-county library district in the same manner as territory is annexed to a sewer district, except that an annexation is not subject to potential review by a boundary review board.

If a ballot proposition is approved creating a rural county library district in the county, every rural partial-county library district in that county shall be dissolved and its assets and liabilities transferred to the rural county library district. Where a rural partial-county library district has annexed a city or town, the voters of the city or town shall be allowed to vote on the proposed creation of a rural county library district and, if created, the rural county library district shall include each city and town that was annexed to the rural partial-county library district.

Nothing in this section authorizes the consolidation of a rural partial-county library district with any rural county library district; island library district; city, county, or regional library; intercounty library district; or other rural partial-county library district, unless, in addition to any other requirements imposed by statute, the boards of all library districts involved approve the consolidation.

Sec. 2. RCW 27.12.010 and 1982 c 123 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter (~~and chapter 27.08 RCW~~), unless the context requires a different meaning:

(1) "Governmental unit" means any county, city, town, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, rural partial-county library district, or island library district;

(2) "Legislative body" means the body authorized to determine the amount of taxes to be levied in a governmental unit; in rural county library districts, in intercounty rural library districts, and in island library districts, the legislative body shall be the board of library trustees of the district;

(3) "Library" means a free public library supported in whole or in part with money derived from taxation; (~~and~~)

(4) "Regional library" means a free public library maintained by two or more counties or other governmental units as provided in RCW 27.12.080; (~~and~~)

(5) "Rural county library district" means a library serving all the area of a county not included within the area of incorporated cities and towns: PROVIDED, That any city or town with a population of one hundred thousand or less at the time of annexation may be included therein as provided in RCW 27.12.360 through 27.12.390; (~~and~~)

(6) "Intercounty rural library district" means a municipal corporation organized to provide library service for all areas outside of incorporated cities and towns within two or more counties: PROVIDED, That any city or town with a population of one hundred thousand or less at the time of annexation may be included therein as provided in RCW 27.12.360 through 27.12.390; (~~and~~)

(7) "Island library district" means a municipal corporation organized to provide library service for all areas outside of incorporated cities and towns on a single island only, and not all of the area of the county, in counties composed entirely of islands and having a population of less than twenty-five thousand at the time the island library district was created: PROVIDED, That any city or town with a population of one hundred thousand or less at the time of annexation may be included therein as provided in RCW 27.12.360 through 27.12.390; and

(8) "Rural partial-county library district" means a municipal corporation organized to provide library service for a portion of the unincorporated area of a county that has an assessed valuation of at least fifty million dollars. Any city or town located in the same county as a rural partial-county library district may annex to the district if the city or town has a population of one hundred thousand or less at the time of annexation.

Sec. 3. RCW 27.12.070 and 1984 c 186 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The county treasurer of the county in which any rural county library district or rural partial-county library district is created shall receive and disburse all district revenues and collect all taxes levied under this chapter.

Sec. 4. RCW 84.52.052 and 1991 c 138 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and RCW 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes by any taxing district except school districts in which a larger levy is necessary in order to prevent the impairment of the obligation of contracts. As used in this section, the term "taxing district" means any county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, solid waste disposal district, public facilities district, flood control zone district, county rail district, service district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, island library district, rural partial-county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, town, transportation benefit district, emergency medical service district with a population density of less than one thousand per square mile, or cultural arts, stadium, and convention district.

Any such taxing district may levy taxes at a rate in excess of the rate specified in RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 and 84.52.043, or RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.050, when authorized so to do by the voters of such taxing district in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 64 and as thereafter amended, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the levy is made.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the county legislative authority, or council, board of commissioners, or other governing body of any such taxing district, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "yes" and those opposed thereto to vote "no.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5768 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 38.52.010 and 1986 c 266 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Emergency management" or "comprehensive emergency management" means the preparation for and the carrying out of all emergency functions, other than functions for which the military forces are primarily responsible, to mitigate, prepare for, respond to, and recover from emergencies and disasters, and to aid victims suffering from injury or damage, resulting from disasters caused by all hazards, whether natural or man-made, and to provide support for search and rescue operations for persons and property in distress. However, "emergency management" or "comprehensive emergency management" does not mean preparation for emergency evacuation or relocation of residents in anticipation of nuclear attack.

(2) "Local organization for emergency services or management" means an organization created in accordance with the provisions of this chapter by state or local authority to perform local emergency management functions.

(3) "Political subdivision" means any county, city or town.

(4) "Emergency worker" means any person, including but not limited to an architect registered under chapter 18.08 RCW or a professional engineer registered under chapter 18.43 RCW, who is registered with a local emergency management organization or the department of community development and holds an identification card issued by the local emergency management director or the department of community development for the purpose of engaging in authorized emergency management activities or is an employee of the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof who is called upon to perform emergency management activities.

(5) "Injury" as used in this chapter shall mean and include accidental injuries and/or occupational diseases arising out of emergency management activities.

(6) "Emergency or disaster" as used in this chapter shall mean an event or set of circumstances which: (a) Demands immediate action to preserve public health, protect life, protect public property, or to provide relief to any stricken community overtaken by such occurrences, or (b) reaches such a dimension or degree of destructiveness as to warrant the governor declaring a state of emergency pursuant to RCW 43.06.010.

(7) "Search and rescue" means the acts of searching for, rescuing, or recovering by means of ground, marine, or air activity any person who becomes lost, injured, or is killed while outdoors or as a result of a natural or man-made disaster, including instances involving searches for downed aircraft when ground personnel are used. Nothing in this section shall affect appropriate activity by the department of transportation under chapter 47.68 RCW.

(8) "Executive head" and "executive heads" means the county executive in those charter counties with an elective office of county executive, however designated, and, in the case of other counties, the county legislative authority. In the case of cities and towns, it means the mayor.

(9) "Director" means the director of community development.

(10) "Local director" means the director of a local organization of emergency management or emergency services.

(11) "Department" means the department of community development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 38.52 RCW to read as follows:

For purposes of the liability of an architect or engineer serving as a volunteer emergency worker, the exemption from liability provided under RCW 38.52.195 extends to all damages, so long as the conditions specified in RCW 38.52.195 (1) through (5) occur.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5768.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5768, as amended by the House.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Owen, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognilid, von Reichbauer, West, Williams and Winsley - 42.

Absent: Senator Wojahn - 1.

Excused: Senators Bluechel, McCaslin, Moyer, Niemi, Rinehart and Smith, L. - 6.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5768, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 7, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5839 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to consolidate mail functions for state government in a manner that will provide timely, effective, efficient, and less-costly mail service for state government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.19 RCW to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this section and section 3 of this act.

(1) "Consolidated mail service" means incoming, outgoing, and internal mail processing.

(2) "Department" means the department of general administration.

(3) "Director" means the director of the department of general administration.

(4) "Agency" means:

(a) The office of the governor; and

(b) Any office, department, board, commission, or other separate unit or division, however designated, of the state government, together with all personnel thereof: Upon which the statutes confer powers and impose duties in connection with operations of either a governmental or proprietary nature; and that has as its chief executive officer a person or combination of persons such as a commission, board, or council, by law empowered to operate it, responsible either to: (i) No other public officer or (ii) the governor.

(5) "Incoming mail" means mail, packages, or similar items received by an agency, through the United States postal service, private carrier services, or other courier services.

(6) "Outgoing mail" means mail, packages, or similar items processed for agencies to be sent through the United States postal service, private carrier services, or other courier services.

(7) "Internal mail" means interagency mail, packages, or similar items that are delivered or to be delivered to a state agency, the legislature, the supreme court, or the court of appeals, and their officers and employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.19 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall establish a consolidated mail service to handle all incoming, outgoing, and internal mail in the 98504 zip code area or successor zip code areas for agencies in the Olympia, Tumwater, and Lacey area. The director may include additional geographic areas within the consolidated mail service, based upon his or her determination. The department shall also provide mail services to legislative and judicial agencies in the Olympia, Tumwater, and Lacey area upon request.

The director may bill state agencies and other entities periodically for mail services rendered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. All employees of any state agency who are employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, or functions assigned to the department pursuant to section 3 of this act, may be transferred to the department of general administration. The office of financial management shall determine the number of employees to be transferred for efficient operation of the mail service. Upon such transfer to the department of general administration, such employees shall continue to be governed by the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, and shall retain their permanent or probationary status together with all rights, privileges, and immunities attaching thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department, in cooperation with the office of financial management, shall review current and prospective needs of state agencies for any equipment to process mail throughout state government. If after such consultation, the department should find that the economy, efficiency, or effectiveness of state government would be improved by such a transfer or other disposition, then the property shall be transferred or otherwise disposed.

After making such finding, the department shall direct the transfer of existing state property, facilities, and equipment pertaining to the consolidated mail service or United States postal service. Any dispute concerning the benefits in state governmental economy, efficiency, and effectiveness shall be resolved by the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 12, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5876 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that ride sharing and vanpools are the fastest growing transportation choice because of their flexibility and cost-effectiveness. Ride sharing and vanpools represent an effective means for local jurisdictions, transit agencies, and the private sector to assist in addressing the requirements of the Commute Trip Reduction Act, the Growth Management Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Clean Air Act.

Sec. 2. RCW 82.08.0287 and 1980 c 166 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to sales of ~~((vans))~~ passenger motor vehicles which are to be used ~~((regularly))~~ as ride-sharing vehicles, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(3), by not less than ~~((seven))~~ five persons, including ~~((passengers and))~~ the driver, with a gross vehicle weight not to exceed 10,000 pounds where the primary usage is for commuter ride-sharing, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(1), or passenger motor vehicles where the primary usage is for ride-sharing for the elderly and the handicapped, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(2), if the ride-sharing vehicles are exempt under RCW 82.44.015 for thirty-six consecutive months beginning within thirty days of application for exemption under this section. If used as a ride-sharing vehicle for less than thirty-six consecutive months, the registered owner of one of these vehicles shall notify the department of revenue upon termination of primary use of the vehicle as a ride-sharing vehicle and is liable for the tax imposed by this chapter.

To qualify for the tax exemption, those passenger motor vehicles with five or six passengers, including the driver, used for commuter ride-sharing, must be operated either within the state's eight largest counties that are required to develop commute trip reduction plans as directed by chapter 70.94 RCW or in other counties, or cities and towns within those counties, that elect to adopt and implement a commute trip reduction plan. Additionally at least one of the following conditions must apply: (1) The vehicle must be operated by a public transportation agency for the general public; or (2) the vehicle must be used by a major employer, as defined in RCW 70.94.524 as an element of its commute trip reduction program for their employees; or (3) the vehicle must be owned and operated by individual employees and must be registered either with the employer as part of its commute trip reduction program or with a public transportation agency serving the area where the employees live or work. Individual employee owned and operated motor vehicles will require certification that the vehicle is registered with a major employer or a public transportation agency. Major employers who own and operate motor vehicles for their employees must certify that the commuter ride-sharing arrangement conforms to a carpool/vanpool element contained within their commute trip reduction program.

Sec. 3. RCW 82.44.015 and 1982 c 142 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, in addition to the exclusions under RCW 82.44.010, "motor vehicle" shall not include: (1) ~~((Vans))~~ Passenger motor vehicles used ((regularly)) primarily as ride-sharing vehicles, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(3), by not fewer than ((seven)) five persons, including ((passengers and)) the driver, or not fewer than ((five)) four persons including the driver, when at least ((three)) two of those persons are confined to wheelchairs when riding; or (2) vehicles with a seating capacity greater than fifteen persons which otherwise qualify as ride-sharing vehicles under RCW 46.74.010(3) used exclusively for ride sharing for the elderly or the handicapped by not fewer than seven persons, including the driver. This exemption is restricted to passenger motor vehicles with a gross vehicle weight not to exceed 10,000 pounds where the primary usage is for commuter ride-sharing as defined in RCW 46.74.010(1). The registered owner of one of these vehicles shall notify the department of licensing upon termination of ~~((regular))~~ primary use of the vehicle as a ride-sharing vehicle and shall be liable for the tax imposed by this chapter, prorated on the remaining months for which the vehicle is licensed.

To qualify for the tax exemption, those passenger motor vehicles with five or six passengers, including the driver, used for commuter ride-sharing, must be operated either within the state's eight largest counties that are required to develop commute trip reduction plans as directed by chapter 70.94 RCW or in other counties, or cities and towns within those counties, that elect to adopt and implement a commute trip reduction plan. Additionally at least one of the following conditions must apply: (1) The vehicle must be operated by a public transportation agency for the general public; or (2) the vehicle must be used by a major employer, as defined in RCW 70.94.524 as an element of its commute trip reduction program for their employees; or (3) the vehicle must be owned and operated by individual employees and must be registered either with the employer as part of its commute trip reduction program or with a public transportation agency serving the area where the employees live or work. Individual employee owned and operated motor vehicles will require certification that the vehicle is registered with a major employer or a public transportation agency. Major employers who own and operate motor vehicles for their employees must certify that the commuter ride-sharing arrangement conforms to a carpool/vanpool element contained within their commute trip reduction program.

Sec. 4. RCW 82.12.0282 and 1980 c 166 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply with respect to the use of ~~((vans))~~ passenger motor vehicles used ~~((regularly))~~ as ride-sharing vehicles, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(3), by not less than ~~((seven))~~ five persons, including ~~((passengers and))~~ the driver, with a gross vehicle weight not to exceed 10,000 pounds where the primary usage is for commuter ride-sharing, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(1), or passenger motor vehicles where the primary usage is for ride-sharing for the elderly and the handicapped, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(2), if the ((vans)) vehicles are exempt under RCW 82.44.015 for thirty-six consecutive months beginning within thirty days of application for exemption under this section. If used as a ride-sharing vehicle for less than thirty-six consecutive months, the registered owner of one of these vehicles shall notify the department of revenue upon termination of primary use of the vehicle as a ride-sharing vehicle and is liable for the tax imposed by this chapter.

To qualify for the tax exemption, those passenger motor vehicles with five or six passengers, including the driver, used for commuter ride-sharing, must be operated either within the state's eight largest counties that are required to develop commute trip reduction plans as directed by chapter 70.94 RCW or in other counties, or cities and towns within those counties, that elect to adopt and implement a commute trip reduction plan. Additionally at least one of the following conditions must apply: (1) The vehicle must be operated by a public transportation agency for the general public; or (2) the vehicle must be used by a major employer, as defined in RCW 70.94.524 as an element of its commute trip reduction program for their employees; or (3) the vehicle must be owned and operated by individual employees and must be registered either with the employer as part of its commute trip reduction program or with a public transportation agency serving the area where the employees live or work. Individual employee owned and operated motor vehicles will require certification that the vehicle is registered with a major employer or a public transportation agency. Major employers who own and operate motor vehicles for their employees must certify that the commuter ride-sharing arrangement conforms to a carpool/vanpool element contained within their commute trip reduction program.

Sec. 5. RCW 46.16.023 and 1987 c 175 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every owner or lessee of a vehicle seeking to apply for an excise tax exemption under RCW 82.08.0287, 82.12.0282, or 82.44.015 shall apply to the director for, and upon satisfactory showing of eligibility, receive in lieu of the regular motor vehicle license plates for that vehicle, special plates of a distinguishing separate numerical series or design, as the director shall prescribe. In addition to paying all other initial fees required by law, each applicant for the special license plates shall pay an additional license fee of twenty-five dollars upon the issuance of such plates. The special fee shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund. Application for renewal of the license plates shall be as prescribed for the renewal of other vehicle licenses. No renewal is required for vehicles exempted under RCW 46.16.020.

(2) Whenever the ownership of a vehicle receiving special plates under subsection (1) of this section is transferred or assigned, the plates shall be removed from the motor vehicle, and if another vehicle qualifying for special plates is acquired, the plates shall be transferred to that vehicle for a fee of five dollars, and the director shall be immediately notified of the transfer of the plates. Otherwise the removed plates shall be immediately forwarded to the director to be canceled. Whenever the owner or lessee of a vehicle receiving special plates under subsection (1) of this section is for any reason relieved of the tax-exempt status, the special plates shall immediately be forwarded to the director along with an application for replacement plates and the required fee. Upon receipt the director shall issue the license plates that are otherwise provided by law.

(3) Any person who knowingly makes any false statement of a material fact in the application for a special plate under subsection (1) of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department shall adopt by rule a process requiring annual recertification upon renewal for vehicles registered under RCW 46.16.023 to discourage abuse of tax exemptions under RCW 82.08.0287, 82.12.0282, and 82.44.015. The department of licensing in consultation with the department of transportation shall submit a report to the legislative transportation committee and the house and senate standing committees on transportation by July 1, 1996, assessing the effectiveness of the department of licensing at limiting tax exemptions to bona fide ride-sharing vehicles.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. 1987 c 175 s 1 (uncodified) is repealed.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

On page 1, after line 16, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature recognizes that the use of alcohol and other drugs during pregnancy can cause medical, psychological, and social problems for women and infants. The legislature further recognizes that communities are increasingly concerned about this problem and the associated costs to the mothers, infants, and society as a whole. The legislature recognizes that the department of health and other agencies are focusing on primary prevention activities to reduce the use of alcohol or drugs during pregnancy but few efforts have focused on secondary prevention efforts aimed at intervening in the lives of women already involved in the use of alcohol or other drugs during pregnancy. The legislature recognizes that the best way to prevent problems for chemically dependent pregnant women and their resulting children is to engage the women in alcohol or drug treatment. The legislature acknowledges that treatment professionals find pretreatment services to clients to be important in engaging women in alcohol or drug treatment. The legislature further recognizes that pretreatment services should be provided at locations where chemically dependent women are likely to be found, including correctional facilities, public health clinics, and domestic violence or homeless shelters. Therefore the legislature intends to prevent the detrimental effects of alcohol or other drug use to women and their resulting infants by promoting the establishment of local programs to help facilitate a woman's entry into alcohol or other drug treatment. These programs shall provide secondary prevention services and provision of opportunities for immediate treatment so that women who seek help are welcomed rather than ostracized.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Alcoholism" means a disease, characterized by a dependency on alcoholic beverages, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of alcohol use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological or psychological withdrawal, or both, if use is reduced or discontinued and impairment of health or disruption of social or economic functioning.

(2) "Approved treatment program" means a discrete program of chemical dependency treatment provided by a treatment program certified by the department of social and health services as meeting standards adopted under this chapter.

(3) "Assessment" means an interview with an individual to determine if he or she is chemically dependent and in need of referral to an approved treatment program.

(4) "Chemically dependent individual" means someone suffering from alcoholism or drug addiction, or dependence on alcohol or one or more other psychoactive chemicals.

- (5) "Department" means the department of social and health services.
- (6) "Domestic violence" is a categorization of offenses, as defined in RCW 10.99.020, committed by one family or household member against another.
- (7) "Domestic violence program" means a shelter or other program which provides services to victims of domestic violence.
- (8) "Drug addiction" means a disease characterized by a dependency on psychoactive chemicals, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological or psychological withdrawal, or both, if use is reduced or discontinued, and impairment of health or disruptions of social or economic functioning.
- (9) "Family or household members" means a family or household member as defined in RCW 10.99.020.
- (10) "Pretreatment" means the period of time prior to an individual's enrollment in alcohol or drug treatment.
- (11) "Pretreatment services" means activities taking place prior to treatment that include identification of individuals using alcohol or drugs, education, assessment of their use, evaluation of need for treatment, referral to an approved treatment program, and advocacy on a client's behalf with social service agencies or others to ensure and coordinate a client's entry into treatment.
- (12) "Primary prevention" means providing information about the effects of alcohol or drug use to individuals so they will avoid using these substances.
- (13) "Secondary prevention" means identifying and obtaining an assessment on individuals using alcohol or other drugs for referral to treatment when indicated.
- (14) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services.
- (15) "Treatment" means the broad range of emergency detoxification, residential, and outpatient services and care, including diagnostic evaluation, chemical dependency education and counseling, medical, psychiatric, psychological, and social service care, vocational rehabilitation, and career counseling, that may be extended to chemically dependent individuals and their families.
- (16) "Treatment program" means an organization, institution, or corporation, public or private, engaged in the care, treatment, or rehabilitation of chemically dependent individuals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The secretary shall develop and promote state-wide secondary prevention strategies designed to increase the use of alcohol and drug treatment services by women of child-bearing age, before, during, and immediately after pregnancy. These efforts are conducted through the division of alcohol and substance abuse. The secretary shall:

(1) Promote development of four pilot demonstration projects in the state to be called pretreatment projects for women of child bearing age. Two of the pilot projects are in urban areas and two are in rural areas.

(2) Ensure that two of the projects are located in public health department clinics that provide maternity services, one is located in a county correctional facility, and one is located with a domestic violence program.

(3) Hire four certified chemical dependency counselors to work as substance abuse educators in each of the four demonstration projects. The counselors may rotate between more than one clinic, correctional facility, or domestic violence program. The counselor for the domestic violence program shall also be trained in domestic violence issues.

(4) Ensure that the duties and activities of the certified chemical dependency counselors include, at a minimum, the following:

- (a) Identifying substance-using pregnant women in the health clinics, correctional facilities, and domestic violence programs;
- (b) Educating the women and agency staff on the effects of alcohol or drugs on health, pregnancy, and unborn children;
- (c) Determining the extent of the women's substance use;
- (d) Evaluating the women's need for treatment;
- (e) Making referrals for chemical dependency treatment if indicated;
- (f) Facilitating the women's entry into treatment; and
- (g) Advocating on the client's behalf with other social service agencies or others to ensure and coordinate clients into treatment.

(5) Ensure that administrative costs of the department are limited to ten percent of the funds appropriated for the project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The sum of fifty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1995, from the general fund to the department of social and health services for the purposes of sections 2 through 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 4 and 5 of this act are each added to Title 70 RCW."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Wojahn, Erwin, Deccio, Moyer, Franklin, Talmadge, Roach, Moore, Rasmussen, Fraser, McDonald, West, Niemi, Prentice, Linda Smith and Pelz on page 1, after line 16, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2026.

The amendment by Senators Wojahn, Erwin, Deccio, Moyer, Franklin, Talmadge, Roach, Moore, Rasmussen, Fraser, McDonald, West, Niemi, Prentice, Linda Smith and Pelz on page 1, after line 16, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2026 was adopted.

Providing state flags and mementos for certain official purposes.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the following Committee on Government Operations amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 1.20.010 and 1967 ex.s. c 65 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The official flag of the state of Washington shall be of dark green silk or bunting and shall bear in its center ((a) an embroidered, printed, painted, or stamped reproduction of the seal of the state of Washington ((~~embroidered, printed, painted or stamped thereon~~)). The edges of the flag may((~~or may not,~~)) be fringed. If a fringe is used ((~~the same~~)), it shall be ((ef) a gold or yellow color of the same shade as the seal. The dimensions of the flag may vary.

(2) The secretary of state is authorized, in his or her discretion, to provide the state flag without charge:

(a) To units of the armed forces((~~, without charge therefor, as in his discretion he deems entitled thereto~~));

(b) In memory of a state employee killed in the performance of his or her duties for the state;

(c) In memory of a current or former elected or appointed state official upon the death of that person; or

(d) To a citizen who has performed outstanding service for the benefit of the state.

The secretary of state is further authorized to sell the state flag to any citizen at a price to be determined by the secretary of state.

(3) The secretary of state is authorized to accept or request grants or gifts from citizens and other private sources to be used to defray the cost of appropriate hosting of visiting state, national, and international guests, including gift-giving and reciprocal gift-giving on behalf of the state of Washington. The office shall maintain a bank account into which it shall deposit all money received under this subsection. This money together with any interest which accrues shall not constitute public funds, shall be kept segregated and apart from funds of the state, and shall not be subject to appropriation or allotment by the state or subject to chapter 43.88 RCW. The secretary of state shall submit an annual accounting of all receipts, accruals, and expenditures to the state auditor within thirty days of the close of each fiscal year."

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "remembrances;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 1.20.010."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1792, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Insofar as this appears to be an amendment to the provisions of Initiative 134, does this bill require a super majority in order to be adopted?"

At 4:45 p.m., there being no objection, the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 4:49 p.m. by President Pritchard.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In responding to the question raised by Senator Talmadge, the Chair agrees that it takes a two-thirds vote for this measure to pass on final passage."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1792, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1792, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to receive a two-thirds majority by the following vote: Yeas, 19; Nays, 23; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Deccio, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, McAuliffe, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Rasmussen, M., Roach, Sheldon, Snyder, Williams and Winsley - 19.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, Cantu, Drew, Erwin, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McDonald, Moore, Oke, Quigley, Sellar, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West and Wojahn - 23.

Excused: Senators Amondson, Bluechel, Franklin, McCaslin, Moyer, Niemi and Rinehart - 7.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1792, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the two-thirds constitutional majority, was declared lost.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1560, by House Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Appelwick, Leonard, Karahalios and Johanson)

Adopting the uniform interstate family support act.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Adam Smith moved that the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment not be adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"ARTICLE 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. DEFINITIONS. In this chapter:

(1) "Child" means an individual, whether over or under the age of majority, who is or is alleged to be owed a duty of support by the individual's parent or who is or is alleged to be the beneficiary of a support order directed to the parent.

(2) "Child support order" means a support order for a child, including a child who has attained the age of majority under the law of the issuing state.

(3) "Duty of support" means an obligation imposed or imposable by law to provide support for a child, spouse, or former spouse, including an unsatisfied obligation to provide support.

(4) "Home state" means the state in which a child lived with a parent or a person acting as parent for at least six consecutive months immediately preceding the time of filing of a petition or comparable pleading for support and, if a child is less than six months old, the state in which the child lived from birth with any of them. A period of temporary absence of any of them is counted as part of the six-month or other period.

(5) "Income" includes earnings or other periodic entitlements to money from any source and any other property subject to withholding for support under the law of this state.

(6) "Income-withholding order" means an order or other legal process directed to an obligor's employer or other debtor, as defined by chapter 6.27 RCW, to withhold support from the income of the obligor.

(7) "Initiating state" means a state in which a proceeding under this chapter or a law substantially similar to this chapter, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act is filed for forwarding to a responding state.

(8) "Initiating tribunal" means the authorized tribunal in an initiating state.

(9) "Issuing state" means the state in which a tribunal issues a support order or renders a judgment determining parentage.

(10) "Issuing tribunal" means the tribunal that issues a support order or renders a judgment determining parentage.

(11) "Law" includes decisional and statutory law and rules and regulations having the force of law.

(12) "Obligee" means:

(a) An individual to whom a duty of support is or is alleged to be owed or in whose favor a support order has been issued or a judgment determining parentage has been rendered;

(b) A state or political subdivision to which the rights under a duty of support or support order have been assigned or which has independent claims based on financial assistance provided to an individual obligee; or

(c) An individual seeking a judgment determining parentage of the individual's child.

(13) "Obligor" means an individual, or the estate of a decedent:

(a) Who owes or is alleged to owe a duty of support;

- (b) Who is alleged but has not been adjudicated to be a parent of a child; or
(c) Who is liable under a support order.
- (14) "Register" means to record or file in the appropriate location for the recording or filing of foreign judgments generally or foreign support orders specifically, a support order or judgment determining parentage.
- (15) "Registering tribunal" means a tribunal in which a support order is registered.
- (16) "Responding state" means a state to which a proceeding is forwarded under this chapter or a law substantially similar to this chapter, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act.
- (17) "Responding tribunal" means the authorized tribunal in a responding state.
- (18) "Spousal support order" means a support order for a spouse or former spouse of the obligor.
- (19) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. The term "state" includes an Indian tribe and includes a foreign jurisdiction that has established procedures for issuance and enforcement of support orders that are substantially similar to the procedures under this chapter.
- (20) "Support enforcement agency" means a public official or agency authorized to seek:
- (a) Enforcement of support orders or laws relating to the duty of support;
(b) Establishment or modification of child support;
(c) Determination of parentage; or
(d) Location of obligors or their assets.
- (21) "Support order" means a judgment, decree, or order, whether temporary, final, or subject to modification, for the benefit of a child, a spouse, or a former spouse, that provides for monetary support, health care, arrearages, or reimbursement, and may include related costs and fees, interest, income withholding, attorneys' fees, and other relief.
- (22) "Tribunal" means a court, administrative agency, or quasi-judicial entity authorized to establish, enforce, or modify support orders or to determine parentage.
- NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. TRIBUNAL OF THIS STATE. The superior court is the state tribunal for judicial proceedings and the department of social and health services office of support enforcement is the state tribunal for administrative proceedings.
- NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. REMEDIES CUMULATIVE. Remedies provided by this chapter are cumulative and do not affect the availability of remedies under other law.

ARTICLE 2 JURISDICTION

PART A EXTENDED PERSONAL JURISDICTION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. BASES FOR JURISDICTION OVER NONRESIDENT. In a proceeding to establish, enforce, or modify a support order or to determine parentage, a tribunal of this state may exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident individual or the individual's guardian or conservator if:

- (1) The individual is personally served with summons within this state;
(2) The individual submits to the jurisdiction of this state by consent, by entering a general appearance, or by filing a responsive document having the effect of waiving any contest to personal jurisdiction;
(3) The individual resided with the child in this state;
(4) The individual resided in this state and provided prenatal expenses or support for the child;
(5) The child resides in this state as a result of the acts or directives of the individual;
(6) The individual engaged in sexual intercourse in this state and the child may have been conceived by that act of intercourse; or
(7) There is any other basis consistent with the Constitutions of this state and the United States for the exercise of personal jurisdiction.

A tribunal may not exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident as provided in this section for the purpose of establishing, enforcing, or modifying a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. PROCEDURE WHEN EXERCISING JURISDICTION OVER NONRESIDENT. A tribunal of this state exercising personal jurisdiction over a nonresident under section 201 of this act may apply section 316 of this act to receive evidence from another state, and section 318 of this act to obtain discovery through a tribunal of another state. In all other respects, Articles 3 through 7 of this act do not apply and the tribunal shall apply the procedural and substantive law of this state, including the rules on choice of law other than those established by this chapter.

PART B PROCEEDINGS INVOLVING TWO OR MORE STATES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. INITIATING AND RESPONDING TRIBUNAL OF THIS STATE. Under this chapter, a tribunal of this state may serve as an initiating tribunal to forward proceedings to another state and as a responding tribunal for proceedings initiated in another state. However, a tribunal of this state may not serve as an initiating or responding tribunal for purposes of establishing, enforcing, or modifying a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. SIMULTANEOUS PROCEEDINGS IN ANOTHER STATE. (1) A tribunal of this state may exercise jurisdiction to establish a support order if the petition or comparable pleading is filed after a petition or comparable pleading is filed in another state only if:

- (a) The petition or comparable pleading in this state is filed before the expiration of the time allowed in the other state for filing a responsive pleading challenging the exercise of jurisdiction by the other state;
(b) The contesting party timely challenges the exercise of jurisdiction in the other state; and
(c) If relevant, this state is the home state of the child.
- (2) A tribunal of this state may not exercise jurisdiction to establish a support order if the petition or comparable pleading is filed before a petition or comparable pleading is filed in another state if:

- (a) The petition or comparable pleading in the other state is filed before the expiration of the time allowed in this state for filing a responsive pleading challenging the exercise of jurisdiction by this state;
- (b) The contesting party timely challenges the exercise of jurisdiction in this state; and
- (c) If relevant, the other state is the home state of the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. CONTINUING, EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION. (1) A tribunal of this state issuing a support order consistent with the law of this state has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over a child support order:

- (a) As long as this state remains the residence of the obligor, the individual obligee, or the child for whose benefit the support order is issued; or
- (b) Until each individual party has filed written consent with the tribunal of this state for a tribunal of another state to modify the order and assume continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

(2) A tribunal of this state issuing a child support order consistent with the law of this state may not exercise its continuing jurisdiction to modify the order if the order has been modified by a tribunal of another state pursuant to a law substantially similar to this chapter.

(3) If a child support order of this state is modified by a tribunal of another state pursuant to a law substantially similar to this chapter, a tribunal of this state loses its continuing, exclusive jurisdiction with regard to prospective enforcement of the order issued in this state, and may only:

- (a) Enforce the order that was modified as to amounts accruing before the modification;
- (b) Enforce nonmodifiable aspects of that order; and
- (c) Provide other appropriate relief for violations of that order which occurred before the effective date of the modification.

(4) A tribunal of this state shall recognize the continuing, exclusive jurisdiction of a tribunal of another state that has issued a child support order pursuant to a law substantially similar to this chapter.

(5) A temporary support order issued ex parte or pending resolution of a jurisdictional conflict does not create continuing, exclusive jurisdiction in the issuing tribunal.

(6) A tribunal of this state issuing a support order consistent with the law of this state has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over a spousal support order throughout the existence of the support obligation. A tribunal of this state may not modify a spousal support order issued by a tribunal of another state having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over that order under the law of that state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. ENFORCEMENT AND MODIFICATION OF SUPPORT ORDER BY TRIBUNAL HAVING CONTINUING JURISDICTION. (1) A tribunal of this state may serve as an initiating tribunal to request a tribunal of another state to enforce or modify a support order issued in that state.

(2) A tribunal of this state having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over a support order may act as a responding tribunal to enforce or modify the order. If a party subject to the continuing, exclusive jurisdiction of the tribunal no longer resides in the issuing state, in subsequent proceedings the tribunal may apply section 316 of this act to receive evidence from another state and section 318 of this act to obtain discovery through a tribunal of another state.

(3) A tribunal of this state that lacks continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over a spousal support order may not serve as a responding tribunal to modify a spousal support order of another state.

PART C RECONCILIATION WITH ORDERS OF OTHER STATES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. RECOGNITION OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS. (1) If a proceeding is brought under this chapter, and one or more child support orders have been issued in this or another state with regard to an obligor and a child, a tribunal of this state shall apply the following rules in determining which order to recognize for purposes of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction:

- (a) If only one tribunal has issued a child support order, the order of that tribunal must be recognized.
- (b) If two or more tribunals have issued child support orders for the same obligor and child, and only one of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this chapter, the order of that tribunal must be recognized.
- (c) If two or more tribunals have issued child support orders for the same obligor and child, and more than one of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this chapter, an order issued by a tribunal in the current home state of the child must be recognized, but if an order has not been issued in the current home state of the child, the order most recently issued must be recognized.
- (d) If two or more tribunals have issued child support orders for the same obligor and child, and none of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this chapter, the tribunal of this state may issue a child support order, which must be recognized.

(2) The tribunal that has issued an order recognized under subsection (1) of this section is the tribunal having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. MULTIPLE CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS FOR TWO OR MORE OBLIGEES. In responding to multiple registrations or petitions for enforcement of two or more child support orders in effect at the same time with regard to the same obligor and different individual obligees, at least one of which was issued by a tribunal of another state, a tribunal of this state shall enforce those orders in the same manner as if the multiple orders had been issued by a tribunal of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. CREDIT FOR PAYMENTS. Amounts collected and credited for a particular period pursuant to a support order issued by a tribunal of another state must be credited against the amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under a support order issued by the tribunal of this state.

ARTICLE 3 CIVIL PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. PROCEEDINGS UNDER THIS CHAPTER. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, this article applies to all proceedings under this chapter.

(2) This chapter provides for the following proceedings:

- (a) Establishment of an order for spousal support or child support pursuant to Article 4 of this act;

(b) Enforcement of a support order and income-withholding order of another state without registration pursuant to Article 5 of this act;

(c) Registration of an order for spousal support or child support of another state for enforcement pursuant to Article 6 of this act;

(d) Modification of an order for child support or spousal support issued by a tribunal of this state pursuant to Article 2, Part B of this act;

(e) Registration of an order for child support of another state for modification pursuant to Article 6 of this act;

(f) Determination of parentage pursuant to Article 7 of this act; and

(g) Assertion of jurisdiction over nonresidents pursuant to Article 2, Part A of this act.

(3) An individual petitioner or a support enforcement agency may commence a proceeding authorized under this chapter by filing a petition in an initiating tribunal for forwarding to a responding tribunal or by filing a petition or a comparable pleading directly in a tribunal of another state which has or can obtain personal jurisdiction over the respondent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 302. ACTION BY MINOR PARENT. A minor parent, or a guardian or other legal representative of a minor parent, may maintain a proceeding on behalf of or for the benefit of the minor's child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 303. APPLICATION OF LAW OF THIS STATE. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, a responding tribunal of this state:

(1) Shall apply the procedural and substantive law, including the rules on choice of law, generally applicable to similar proceedings originating in this state and may exercise all powers and provide all remedies available in those proceedings; and

(2) Shall determine the duty of support and the amount payable in accordance with the law and support guidelines of this state except a responding tribunal of this state shall not establish, enforce, or modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 304. DUTIES OF INITIATING TRIBUNAL. Upon the filing of a petition authorized by this chapter, an initiating tribunal of this state shall forward three copies of the petition and its accompanying documents:

(1) To the responding tribunal or appropriate support enforcement agency in the responding state; or

(2) If the identity of the responding tribunal is unknown, to the state information agency of the responding state with a request that they be forwarded to the appropriate tribunal and that receipt be acknowledged.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 305. DUTIES AND POWERS OF RESPONDING TRIBUNAL. (1) When a responding tribunal of this state receives a petition or comparable pleading from an initiating tribunal or directly pursuant to section 301(3) of this act, it shall cause the petition or pleading to be filed and notify the petitioner by first class mail where and when it was filed.

(2) A responding tribunal of this state, to the extent otherwise authorized by law, may do one or more of the following:

(a) Issue or enforce a support order, modify a child support order, or render a judgment to determine parentage;

(b) Order an obligor to comply with a support order, specifying the amount and the manner of compliance;

(c) Order income withholding;

(d) Determine the amount of any arrearages, and specify a method of payment;

(e) Enforce orders by civil or criminal contempt, or both;

(f) Set aside property for satisfaction of the support order;

(g) Place liens and order execution on the obligor's property;

(h) Order an obligor to keep the tribunal informed of the obligor's current residential address, telephone number, employer, address of employment, and telephone number at the place of employment;

(i) Issue a bench warrant or writ of arrest for an obligor who has failed after proper notice to appear at a hearing ordered by the tribunal and enter the bench warrant or writ of arrest in any local and state computer systems for criminal warrants;

(j) Order the obligor to seek appropriate employment by specified methods;

(k) Award reasonable attorneys' fees and other fees and costs; and

(l) Grant any other available remedy.

(3) A responding tribunal of this state shall include in a support order issued under this chapter, or in the documents accompanying the order, the calculations on which the support order is based.

(4) A responding tribunal of this state may not condition the payment of a support order issued under this chapter upon compliance by a party with provisions for visitation. A responding tribunal of this state may not establish, enforce, or modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

(5) If a responding tribunal of this state issues an order under this chapter, the tribunal shall send a copy of the order by first class mail to the petitioner and the respondent and to the initiating tribunal, if any.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 306. INAPPROPRIATE TRIBUNAL. If a petition or comparable pleading is received by an inappropriate tribunal of this state, it shall forward the pleading and accompanying documents to an appropriate tribunal in this state or another state and notify the petitioner by first class mail where and when the pleading was sent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. DUTIES OF SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT AGENCY. (1) A support enforcement agency of this state, upon request, shall provide services to a petitioner in a proceeding under this chapter.

(2) A support enforcement agency that is providing services to the petitioner as appropriate shall:

(a) Take all steps necessary to enable an appropriate tribunal in this state or another state to obtain jurisdiction over the respondent;

(b) Request an appropriate tribunal to set a date, time, and place for a hearing;

(c) Make a reasonable effort to obtain all relevant information, including information as to income and property of the parties;

(d) Within two days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, after receipt of a written notice from an initiating, responding, or registering tribunal, send a copy of the notice by first class mail to the petitioner;

(e) Within two days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, after receipt of a written communication from the respondent or the respondent's attorney, send a copy of the communication by first class mail to the petitioner; and

(f) Notify the petitioner if jurisdiction over the respondent cannot be obtained.

(3) This chapter does not create or negate a relationship of attorney and client or other fiduciary relationship between a support enforcement agency or the attorney for the agency and the individual being assisted by the agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 308. DUTY OF ATTORNEY GENERAL. If the attorney general determines that the support enforcement agency is neglecting or refusing to provide services to an individual, the attorney general may order the agency to perform its duties under this chapter or may provide those services directly to the individual.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 309. PRIVATE COUNSEL. An individual may employ private counsel to represent the individual in proceedings authorized by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 310. DUTIES OF STATE INFORMATION AGENCY. (1) The department of social and health services office of support enforcement is the state information agency under this chapter.

(2) The state information agency shall:

(a) Compile and maintain a current list, including addresses, of the tribunals in this state that have jurisdiction under this chapter and any support enforcement agencies in this state and transmit a copy to the state information agency of every other state;

(b) Maintain a register of tribunals and support enforcement agencies received from other states;

(c) Forward to the appropriate tribunal in the place in this state in which the individual obligee or the obligor resides, or in which the obligor's property is believed to be located, all documents concerning a proceeding under this chapter received from an initiating tribunal or the state information agency of the initiating state; and

(d) Obtain information concerning the location of the obligor and the obligor's property within this state not exempt from execution, by such means as postal verification and federal or state locator services, examination of telephone directories, requests for the obligor's address from employers, and examination of governmental records, including, to the extent not prohibited by other law, those relating to real property, vital statistics, law enforcement, taxation, motor vehicles, driver's licenses, and social security.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 311. PLEADINGS AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS. (1) A petitioner seeking to establish or modify a support order or to determine parentage in a proceeding under this chapter must verify the petition. Unless otherwise ordered under section 312 of this act, the petition or accompanying documents must provide, so far as known, the name, residential address, and social security numbers of the obligor and the obligee, and the name, sex, residential address, social security number, and date of birth of each child for whom support is sought. The petition must be accompanied by a certified copy of any support order in effect. The petition may include any other information that may assist in locating or identifying the respondent.

(2) The petition must specify the relief sought. The petition and accompanying documents must conform substantially with the requirements imposed by the forms mandated by federal law for use in cases filed by a support enforcement agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 312. NONDISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION IN EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES. Upon a finding, which may be made ex parte, that the health, safety, or liberty of a party or child would be unreasonably put at risk by the disclosure of identifying information, or if an existing order so provides, a tribunal shall order that the address of the child or party or other identifying information not be disclosed in a pleading or other document filed in a proceeding under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 313. COSTS AND FEES. (1) The petitioner may not be required to pay a filing fee or other costs.

(2) If an obligee prevails in a support enforcement proceeding, a responding tribunal may assess against an obligor filing fees, reasonable attorneys' fees, other costs, and necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred by the obligee and the obligee's witnesses. The tribunal in a support enforcement proceeding may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against the obligee or the support enforcement agency of either the initiating or the responding state, except as provided by RCW 4.84.080, civil rule 11 or, if the obligee or the support enforcement agency has acted in bad faith.

(3) A responding tribunal may assess filing fees, reasonable attorneys' fees, and other costs to either party, and necessary travel and other reasonable costs incurred by the obligee and the obligee's witnesses to the obligee, in a proceeding to establish or modify support. Assessments under this section shall be made in accordance with RCW 4.84.080 and 26.09.140 and civil rule 11.

(4) Attorneys' fees may be taxed as costs, and may be ordered paid directly to the attorney, who may enforce the order in the attorney's own name. Payment of support owed to the obligee has priority over fees, costs, and expenses.

(5) The tribunal shall order the payment of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees if it determines that a hearing was requested primarily for delay.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 314. LIMITED IMMUNITY OF PETITIONER. (1) Participation by a petitioner in a proceeding before a responding tribunal, whether in person, by private attorney, or through services provided by the support enforcement agency, does not confer personal jurisdiction over the petitioner in another proceeding.

(2) A petitioner is not amenable to service of civil process while physically present in this state to participate in a proceeding under this chapter.

(3) The immunity granted by this section does not extend to civil litigation based on acts unrelated to a proceeding under this chapter committed by a party while present in this state to participate in the proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 315. NONPARENTAGE AS DEFENSE. A party whose parentage of a child has been previously determined by order of a tribunal may not plead nonparentage as a defense to a proceeding under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 316. SPECIAL RULES OF EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE. (1) The physical presence of the petitioner in a responding tribunal of this state is not required for the establishment, enforcement, or modification of a support order or the rendition of a judgment determining parentage.

(2) A verified petition, affidavit, document substantially complying with federally mandated forms, and a document incorporated by reference in any of them, not excluded under the hearsay rule if given in person, is admissible in evidence if given under oath by a party or witness residing in another state.

(3) A copy of the record of child support payments certified as a true copy of the original by the custodian of the record may be forwarded to a responding tribunal. The copy is evidence of facts asserted in it, and is admissible to show whether payments were made.

(4) Copies of bills for testing for parentage, and for prenatal and postnatal health care of the mother and child, furnished to the adverse party at least ten days before trial, are admissible in evidence to prove the amount of the charges billed and that the charges were reasonable, necessary, and customary.

(5) Documentary evidence transmitted from another state to a tribunal of this state by telephone, telecopier, or other means that do not provide an original writing may not be excluded from evidence on an objection based on the means of transmission.

(6) In a proceeding under this chapter, a tribunal of this state may permit a party or witness residing in another state to be deposed or to testify by telephone, audiovisual means, or other electronic means at a designated tribunal or other location in that state. A tribunal of this state shall cooperate with tribunals of other states in designating an appropriate location for the deposition or testimony.

(7) If a party called to testify at a civil hearing refuses to answer on the ground that the testimony may be self-incriminating, the trier of fact may draw an adverse inference from the refusal.

(8) A privilege against disclosure of communications between spouses does not apply in a proceeding under this chapter.

(9) The defense of immunity based on the relationship of husband and wife or parent and child does not apply in a proceeding under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 317. COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN TRIBUNALS. A tribunal of this state may communicate with a tribunal of another state in writing, or by telephone or other means, to obtain information concerning the laws of that state, the legal effect of a judgment, decree, or order of that tribunal, and the status of a proceeding in the other state. A tribunal of this state may furnish similar information by similar means to a tribunal of another state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 318. ASSISTANCE WITH DISCOVERY. A tribunal of this state may:

(1) Request a tribunal of another state to assist in obtaining discovery; and

(2) Upon request, compel a person over whom it has jurisdiction to respond to a discovery order issued by a tribunal of another state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 319. RECEIPT AND DISBURSEMENT OF PAYMENTS. A support enforcement agency or tribunal of this state shall disburse promptly any amounts received pursuant to a support order, as directed by the order. The agency or tribunal shall furnish to a requesting party or tribunal of another state a certified statement by the custodian of the record of the amounts and dates of all payments received.

ARTICLE 4 ESTABLISHMENT OF SUPPORT ORDER

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. PETITION TO ESTABLISH SUPPORT ORDER. (1) If a support order entitled to recognition under this chapter has not been issued, a responding tribunal of this state may issue a support order if:

(a) The individual seeking the order resides in another state; or
(b) The support enforcement agency seeking the order is located in another state.

(2) The tribunal may issue a temporary child support order if:

(a) The respondent has signed a verified statement acknowledging parentage;
(b) The respondent has been determined by order of a tribunal to be the parent; or
(c) There is other clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that the respondent is the child's parent.

(3) Upon finding, after notice and opportunity to be heard, that an obligor owes a duty of support, the tribunal shall issue a support order directed to the obligor and may issue other orders pursuant to section 305 of this act.

(4) A responding tribunal of this state may not establish, enforce, or modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

ARTICLE 5 DIRECT ENFORCEMENT OF ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE WITHOUT REGISTRATION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. RECOGNITION OF INCOME-WITHHOLDING ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE. (1) An income-withholding order issued in another state may be sent by first class mail to the person or entity defined as the obligor's employer under chapter 6.27 RCW without first filing a petition or comparable pleading or registering the order with a tribunal of this state. Upon receipt of the order, the employer shall:

(a) Treat an income-withholding order issued in another state that appears regular on its face as if it had been issued by a tribunal of this state;

(b) Immediately provide a copy of the order to the obligor; and

(c) Distribute the funds as directed in the income-withholding order.

(2) An obligor may contest the validity or enforcement of an income-withholding order issued in another state in the same manner as if the order had been issued by a tribunal of this state. Section 604 of this act applies to the contest. The obligor shall give notice of the contest to any support enforcement agency providing services to the obligee and to:

(a) The person or agency designated to receive payments in the income-withholding order; or

(b) If no person or agency is designated, the obligee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 502. ADMINISTRATIVE ENFORCEMENT OF ORDERS. (1) A party seeking to enforce a support order or an income-withholding order, or both, issued by a tribunal of another state may send the documents required for registering the order to a support enforcement agency of this state.

(2) Upon receipt of the documents, the support enforcement agency, without initially seeking to register the order, shall consider and, if appropriate, use any administrative procedure authorized by the law of this state to enforce a support order or an income-withholding order, or both. The support enforcement agency may not attempt to enforce a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over. If the obligor does not contest administrative enforcement, the order need not be registered. If the obligor contests the validity or administrative enforcement of the order, the support enforcement agency shall register the order pursuant to this chapter.

ARTICLE 6 ENFORCEMENT AND MODIFICATION OF SUPPORT ORDER AFTER REGISTRATION

PART A REGISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF SUPPORT ORDER

NEW SECTION. Sec. 601. REGISTRATION OF ORDER FOR ENFORCEMENT. A support order or an income-withholding order issued by a tribunal of another state may be registered in this state for enforcement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 602. PROCEDURE TO REGISTER ORDER FOR ENFORCEMENT. (1) A support order or income-withholding order of another state may be registered in this state by sending the following documents and information to the superior court of any county in this state where the obligor resides, works, or has property:

- (a) A letter of transmittal to the tribunal requesting registration and enforcement;
- (b) Two copies, including one certified copy, of all orders to be registered, including any modification of an order;
- (c) A sworn statement by the party seeking registration or a certified statement by the custodian of the records showing the amount of any arrearage;
- (d) The name of the obligor and, if known:
 - (i) The obligor's address and social security number;
 - (ii) The name and address of the obligor's employer and any other source of income of the obligor; and
 - (iii) A description and the location of property of the obligor in this state not exempt from execution; and
- (e) The name and address of the obligee and, if applicable, the agency or person to whom support payments are to be remitted.

(2) On receipt of a request for registration, the registering tribunal shall cause the order to be filed as a foreign judgment, together with one copy of the documents and information, regardless of their form.

(3) A petition or comparable pleading seeking a remedy that must be affirmatively sought under other law of this state may be filed at the same time as the request for registration or later. The pleading must specify the grounds for the remedy sought.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 603. EFFECT OF REGISTRATION FOR ENFORCEMENT. (1) A support order or income-withholding order issued in another state is registered when the order is filed in the registering tribunal of this state.

(2) A registered order issued in another state is enforceable in the same manner and is subject to the same procedures as an order issued by a tribunal of this state except a tribunal of this state shall not establish, enforce, or modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this article, a tribunal of this state shall recognize and enforce, but may not modify, a registered order if the issuing tribunal had jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 604. CHOICE OF LAW. (1) The law of the issuing state governs the nature, extent, amount, and duration of current payments and other obligations of support and the payment of arrearages under the order.

(2) In a proceeding for arrearages, the statute of limitation under the laws of this state or of the issuing state, whichever is longer, applies.

PART B CONTEST OF VALIDITY OR ENFORCEMENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 605. NOTICE OF REGISTRATION OF ORDER. (1) When a support order or income-withholding order issued in another state is registered, the registering tribunal shall notify the nonregistering party. Notice must be given by certified or registered mail or by any means of personal service authorized by the law of this state. The notice must be accompanied by a copy of the registered order and the documents and relevant information accompanying the order.

(2) The notice must inform the nonregistering party:

- (a) That a registered order is enforceable as of the date of registration in the same manner as an order issued by a tribunal of this state;
 - (b) That a hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order must be requested within twenty days after the date of receipt by certified or registered mail or personal service of the notice given to a nonregistering party within the state and within sixty days after the date of receipt by certified or registered mail or personal service of the notice on a nonregistering party outside of the state;
 - (c) That failure to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner will result in confirmation of the order and enforcement of the order and the alleged arrearages and precludes further contest of that order with respect to any matter that could have been asserted; and
 - (d) Of the amount of any alleged arrearages.
- (3) Upon registration of an income-withholding order for enforcement, the registering tribunal shall notify the obligor's employer pursuant to the income-withholding law of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 606. PROCEDURE TO CONTEST VALIDITY OR ENFORCEMENT OF REGISTERED ORDER. (1) A nonregistering party seeking to contest the validity or enforcement of a registered order in this state shall request a hearing within twenty days after the date of receipt of certified or registered mail or the date of personal service of notice of the registration on the nonmoving party within this state, or, within sixty days after the receipt of certified or registered mail or personal service of the notice on the nonmoving party outside of the state. The nonregistering party may seek to vacate the registration, to assert any defense to an allegation of noncompliance with the registered order, or to contest the remedies being sought or the amount of any alleged arrearages pursuant to section 607 of this act.

(2) If the nonregistering party fails to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner, the order is confirmed by operation of law.

(3) If a nonregistering party requests a hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order, the registering tribunal shall schedule the matter for hearing and give notice to the parties by first class mail of the date, time, and place of the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 607. CONTEST OF REGISTRATION OR ENFORCEMENT. (1) A party contesting the validity or enforcement of a registered order or seeking to vacate the registration has the burden of proving one or more of the following defenses:

- (a) The issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction over the contesting party;
- (b) The order was obtained by fraud;
- (c) The order has been vacated, suspended, or modified by a later order;
- (d) The issuing tribunal has stayed the order pending appeal;
- (e) There is a defense under the law of this state to the remedy sought;
- (f) Full or partial payment has been made; or
- (g) The statute of limitation under section 604 of this act precludes enforcement of some or all of the arrearages.

(2) If a party presents evidence establishing a full or partial defense under subsection (1) of this section, a tribunal may stay enforcement of the registered order, continue the proceeding to permit production of additional relevant evidence, and issue other appropriate orders. An uncontested portion of the registered order may be enforced by all remedies available under the law of this state.

(3) If the contesting party does not establish a defense under subsection (1) of this section to the validity or enforcement of the order, the registering tribunal shall issue an order confirming the order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 608. CONFIRMED ORDER. Confirmation of a registered order, whether by operation of law or after notice and hearing, precludes further contest of the order with respect to any matter that could have been asserted at the time of registration.

PART C REGISTRATION AND MODIFICATION OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDER

NEW SECTION. Sec. 609. PROCEDURE TO REGISTER CHILD SUPPORT ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE FOR MODIFICATION. A party or support enforcement agency seeking to modify, or to modify and enforce, a child support order issued in another state shall register that order in this state in the same manner provided in Part A of this article if the order has not been registered. A petition for modification may be filed at the same time as a request for registration, or later. The pleading must specify the grounds for modification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 610. EFFECT OF REGISTRATION FOR MODIFICATION. A tribunal of this state may enforce a child support order of another state registered for purposes of modification, in the same manner as if the order had been issued by a tribunal of this state, but the registered order may be modified only if the requirements of section 611 of this act have been met.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 611. MODIFICATION OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE. (1) After a child support order issued in another state has been registered in this state, the responding tribunal of this state may modify that order only if, after notice and hearing, it finds that:

- (a) The following requirements are met:
 - (i) The child, the individual obligee, and the obligor do not reside in the issuing state;
 - (ii) A petitioner who is a nonresident of this state seeks modification; and
 - (iii) The respondent is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal of this state; or
- (b) An individual party or the child is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal and all of the individual parties have filed a written consent in the issuing tribunal providing that a tribunal of this state may modify the support order and assume continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the order.

(2) Modification of a registered child support order is subject to the same requirements, procedures, and defenses that apply to the modification of an order issued by a tribunal of this state and the order may be enforced and satisfied in the same manner.

(3) A tribunal of this state may not modify any aspect of a child support order that may not be modified under the law of the issuing state. A tribunal of this state may not modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

(4) On issuance of an order modifying a child support order issued in another state, a tribunal of this state becomes the tribunal of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

(5) Within thirty days after issuance of a modified child support order, the party obtaining the modification shall file a certified copy of the order with the issuing tribunal which had continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the earlier order, and in each tribunal in which the party knows that earlier order has been registered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 612. RECOGNITION OF ORDER MODIFIED IN ANOTHER STATE. A tribunal of this state shall recognize a modification of its earlier child support order by a tribunal of another state that assumed jurisdiction pursuant to a law substantially similar to this chapter and, upon request, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall:

- (1) Enforce the order that was modified only as to amounts accruing before the modification;
- (2) Enforce only nonmodifiable aspects of that order;
- (3) Provide other appropriate relief only for violations of that order which occurred before the effective date of the modification; and

(4) Recognize the modifying order of the other state, upon registration, for the purpose of enforcement except a tribunal of this state shall not establish, enforce, or modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

ARTICLE 7 DETERMINATION OF PARENTAGE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 701. PROCEEDING TO DETERMINE PARENTAGE. (1) A tribunal of this state may serve as an initiating or responding tribunal in a proceeding brought under this chapter or a law substantially similar to this chapter, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act to determine that the petitioner is a parent of a particular child or to determine that a respondent is a parent of that child.

(2) In a proceeding to determine parentage, a responding tribunal of this state shall apply the Uniform Parentage Act, chapter 26.26 RCW, procedural and substantive law of this state, and the rules of this state on choice of law.

ARTICLE 8 INTERSTATE RENDITION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 801. GROUNDS FOR RENDITION. (1) For purposes of this article, "governor" includes an individual performing the functions of governor or the executive authority of a state covered by this chapter.

(2) The governor of this state may:

(a) Demand that the governor of another state surrender an individual found in the other state who is charged criminally in this state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee; or

(b) On the demand by the governor of another state, surrender an individual found in this state who is charged criminally in the other state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee.

(3) A provision for extradition of individuals not inconsistent with this chapter applies to the demand even if the individual whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state when the crime was allegedly committed and has not fled from the demanding state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 802. CONDITIONS OF RENDITION. (1) Before making demand that the governor of another state surrender an individual charged criminally in this state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee, the governor of this state may require a prosecutor of this state to demonstrate that at least sixty days previously the obligee had initiated proceedings for support pursuant to this chapter or that the proceeding would be of no avail.

(2) If, under this chapter or a law substantially similar to this chapter, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, the governor of another state makes a demand that the governor of this state surrender an individual charged criminally in that state with having failed to provide for the support of a child or other individual to whom a duty of support is owed, the governor may require a prosecutor to investigate the demand and report whether a proceeding for support has been initiated or would be effective. If it appears that a proceeding would be effective but has not been initiated, the governor may delay honoring the demand for a reasonable time to permit the initiation of a proceeding.

(3) If a proceeding for support has been initiated and the individual whose rendition is demanded prevails, the governor may decline to honor the demand. If the petitioner prevails and the individual whose rendition is demanded is subject to a support order, the governor may decline to honor the demand if the individual is complying with the support order.

ARTICLE 9 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. UNIFORMITY OF APPLICATION AND CONSTRUCTION. This chapter shall be applied and construed to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this chapter among states enacting it.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. SHORT TITLE. This chapter may be cited as the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 904. REPEALS. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 26.21.010 and 1972 ex.s. c 31 s 1, 1963 c 45 s 1, & 1951 c 196 s 2;
- (2) RCW 26.21.020 and 1951 c 196 s 3;

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House had passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 8016 with the following amendment(s):

On page 1, beginning on line 1, strike everything through "Washington." on page 3, line 2, and insert the following:

"TO THE HONORABLE BILL CLINTON, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, AND TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, AND TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES, IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED, AND TO THE SECRETARY OF THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, AND TO THE FEDERAL FOOD SAFETY AND INSPECTION SERVICE, AND TO THE CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL AND PREVENTION, AND TO THE FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION:

We, your Memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington, in legislative session assembled, respectfully represent and petition as follows:

WHEREAS, A great public health alarm has been caused in Washington state with over four hundred fifty people confirmed as having contracted Escherichia coli 0157:H7 since early December of 1992; and

WHEREAS, E. coli 0157:H7 has caused the death of three children, over one hundred fifty people have been hospitalized as of February 20, 1993, and thirty children have suffered hemolytic uremic syndrome, a serious side effect that causes kidney dysfunction and affects the blood clotting system; and

WHEREAS, People have contracted the infection by eating insufficiently cooked hamburger that had this particular strain of E. coli bacteria which contaminated the meat during or after the time of slaughter; and

WHEREAS, The extent that this newly detected strain of highly toxic bacteria is causing infections elsewhere in the United States is not accurately known because most other states have not designated E. coli 0157:H7 as a reportable disease; and

WHEREAS, Though citizens of the United States have enjoyed the safest food supply in the world, this outbreak has eroded confidence in food safety in general and meat inspection in particular, and unless the problem is fully addressed, additional outbreaks are likely to occur;

NOW, THEREFORE, Your memorialists respectfully pray that the appropriate federal agencies, including, but not limited to, the Food Safety and Inspection Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and the Food and Drug Administration form a task force to: (1) Promptly and fully investigate and monitor outbreaks of E. coli 0157:H7 throughout the United States in cooperation with state and local governments; (2) examine the full food chain process from farm to table to determine how improvements may be made to better guarantee the safety of our food supply; (3) examine whether meat and meat products imported into this country comply with comparable inspection and health standards as does domestically processed meat; (4) designate E. coli 0157:H7 as a reportable disease throughout the nation; and (5) start the process needed to update the Food and Drug Administration Model Food Code to reflect the new knowledge and technology that impact food safety.

BE IT RESOLVED, That the federal Food Safety and Inspection Service is requested to provide a written report to the Washington state legislature in January 1994 of the changes and improvements that have been accomplished to address this public health issue; and

BE IT RESOLVED, That copies of this Memorial be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Bill Clinton, President of the United States, Mike Espy, Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture, the federal Food Safety and Inspection Service, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Food and Drug Administration, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and each member of Congress from the State of Washington.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

At 11:54 a.m., on motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate recessed until 1:00 p.m.

The Senate was called to order at 1:09 p.m. by President Pritchard.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House had passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5332 with the following amendment(s):

On page 2, line 21, after "appropriation." insert "Before implementing a fee program for underwater park uses, the commission shall submit to the appropriate committees of the legislature an estimate of what the fees would be and a plan for collecting these fees."

On page 2, strike lines 29 through 30 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The commission is not liable for unintentional injuries to users of underwater parks, whether the facilities are administered by the commission or by another entity or person. However, nothing in this section prevents the liability of the commission for injuries sustained by a user by reason of a known dangerous artificial latent condition for which warning signs have not been conspicuously posted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act are each added to chapter 43.51 RCW.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 6, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House had passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5443 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 16.65.030 and 1991 c 17 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On and after June 10, 1959, no person shall operate a public livestock market without first having obtained a license from the director. Application for such license or renewal thereof shall be in writing on forms prescribed by the director, and shall include the following:

(a) A legal description of the property upon which the public livestock market shall be located.

(b) A complete description and blueprints or plans of the public livestock market physical plant, yards, pens, and all facilities the applicant proposes to use in the operation of such public livestock market.

(c) A detailed statement showing all the assets and liabilities of the applicant which must reflect a sufficient net worth to construct or operate a public livestock market.

(d) The schedule of rates and charges the applicant proposes to impose on the owners of livestock for services rendered in the operation of such livestock market.

(e) The weekly or monthly sales day or days on which the applicant proposes to operate his or her public livestock market sales.

(f) Projected source and quantity of livestock, by county, anticipated to be handled.

(g) Projected income and expense statements for the first year's operation.

(h) Facts upon which are based the conclusion that the trade area and the livestock industry will benefit because of the proposed market.

(i) Such other information as the director may reasonably require.

(2) The director shall, after public hearing as provided by chapter 34.05 RCW, grant or deny an application for original license for a public livestock market after considering evidence and testimony relating to all of the requirements of this section and giving reasonable consideration at the same hearing to:

(a) Benefits to the livestock industry to be derived from the establishment and operation of the public livestock market proposed in the application; and

(b) The present market services elsewhere available to the trade area proposed to be served.

(3) Such application shall be accompanied by a license fee based on the average gross sales volume per official sales day of that market:

(a) Markets with an average gross sales volume up to and including ten thousand dollars, a fee of no less than one hundred ((dollar-fee)) dollars or more than one hundred fifty dollars;

(b) Markets with an average gross sales volume over ten thousand dollars and up to and including fifty thousand dollars, a fee of no less than two hundred ((dollar-fee)) dollars or more than three hundred fifty dollars; and

(c) Markets with an average gross sales volume over fifty thousand dollars, a fee of no less than three hundred ((dollar-fee)) dollars or more than four hundred fifty dollars.

The fees for public livestock market licensees shall be set by the director by rule subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act.

(4) Any applicant operating more than one public livestock market shall make a separate application for a license to operate each such public livestock market, and each such application shall be accompanied by the appropriate license fee.

(5) Upon the approval of the application by the director and compliance with the provisions of this chapter, the applicant shall be issued a license or renewal thereof. Any license issued under the provisions of this chapter shall only be valid at location and for the sales day or days for which the license was issued.

Sec. 2. RCW 16.65.090 and 1983 c 298 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall provide for brand inspection. When such brand inspection is required the licensee shall collect from the consignor and pay to the department, as provided by law, a fee for brand inspection for each animal consigned to the public livestock market or special open consignment horse sale (~~:- PROVIDED, That if in any one sale day the total fees collected for brand inspection do not exceed sixty dollars, then such licensee shall pay sixty dollars for such brand inspection or as much thereof as the director may prescribe~~). The director shall set by rule, adopted after a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act, a minimum daily inspection fee that shall be paid to the department by the licensee. Such a fee shall be not less than sixty dollars and not more than ninety dollars.

Sec. 3. RCW 16.58.050 and 1979 c 81 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The application for an annual license to engage in the business of operating one or more certified feed lots shall be accompanied by a license fee of no less than five hundred dollars or no more than seven hundred fifty dollars. The actual license fee for a certified feed lot license shall be prescribed by the director by rule subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act. Upon approval of the application by the director and compliance with the provisions of this chapter and rules ~~((and regulations))~~ adopted hereunder, the applicant shall be issued a license or a renewal thereof.

Sec. 4. RCW 16.58.130 and 1991 c 109 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

Each licensee shall pay to the director a fee of no less than ten cents but no more than fifteen cents for each head of cattle handled through the licensee's feed lot. The fee shall be set by the director by rule after a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act. Payment of such fee shall be made by the licensee on a monthly basis. Failure to pay as required shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of a certified feed lot license. Further, the director shall not renew a certified feed lot license if a licensee has failed to make prompt and timely payments.

Sec. 5. RCW 16.57.080 and 1991 c 110 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall establish by rule a schedule for the renewal of registered brands. The fee for renewal of the brands shall be no less than twenty-five dollars for each two-year period of brand ownership, except that the director may, in adopting a renewal schedule, provide for the collection of renewal fees on a prorated basis and may by rule increase the registration and renewal fee for brands by no more than fifty percent subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act. At least one hundred twenty days before the expiration of a registered brand, the director shall notify by letter the owner of record of the brand that on the payment of the requisite application fee and application of renewal the director shall issue the proof of payment allowing the brand owner exclusive ownership and use of the brand for the subsequent registration period. The failure of the registered owner to pay the renewal fee by the date required by rule shall cause such owner's brand to revert to the department. The director may for a period of one year following such reversion, reissue such brand only to the prior registered owner upon payment of ~~((twenty-five dollars and an additional fee of ten dollars))~~ the registration fee and a late filing fee to be prescribed by the director by rule subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act, for renewal subsequent to the regular renewal period. The director may at ~~((his))~~ the director's discretion, if such brand is not reissued within one year to the prior registered owner, issue such brand to any other applicant.

Sec. 6. RCW 16.57.090 and 1974 ex.s. c 64 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

A brand is the personal property of the owner of record. Any instrument affecting the title of such brand shall be acknowledged in the presence of the recorded owner and a notary public. The director shall record such instrument upon presentation and payment of a ~~((ten dollar))~~ recording fee not to exceed fifteen dollars to be prescribed by the director by rule subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act. Such recording shall be constructive notice to all the world of the existence and conditions affecting the title to such brand. A copy of all records concerning the brand, certified by the director, shall be received in evidence to all intent and purposes as the original instrument. The director shall not be personally liable for failure of ~~((his))~~ the director's agents to properly record such instrument.

Sec. 7. RCW 16.57.140 and 1974 ex.s. c 64 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The owner of a brand of record may procure from the director a certified copy of the record of ~~((his))~~ the owner's brand upon payment of ~~((five dollars))~~ a fee not to exceed seven dollars and fifty cents to be prescribed by the director by rule subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act.

Sec. 8. RCW 16.57.220 and 1981 c 296 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall cause a charge to be made for all brand inspection of cattle and horses required under this chapter and rules ~~((and regulations))~~ adopted hereunder. Such charges shall be paid to the department by the owner or person in possession unless requested by the purchaser and then such brand inspection shall be paid by the purchaser requesting such brand inspection. Such inspection charges shall be due and payable at the time brand inspection is performed and shall be paid upon billing by the department and if not shall constitute a prior lien on the cattle or cattle hides or horses or horse hides brand inspected until such charge is paid. The director in order to best utilize the services of the department in performing brand inspection ~~((shall))~~ may establish schedules by days and hours when a brand inspector will be on duty to perform brand inspection at established inspection points. The fees for brand inspection ~~((performed at inspection points according to schedules established by the director))~~ shall be not less than ~~((thirty cents nor more than))~~ nor more than seventy-five cents per head for cattle and not less than two dollars nor more than three dollars per head for horses as prescribed by the director by rule subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act. Fees for brand inspection of cattle and horses performed by the director at points other than those designated by the director or not in accord with the schedules established by ~~((him))~~ the director shall be based on a fee schedule not to exceed actual net cost to the department of performing the brand inspection service. Such schedule of fees shall be established subsequent to a hearing and all regulations concerning fees shall be adopted in accord with the provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, concerning the adoption of rules as enacted or hereafter amended.

Sec. 9. RCW 16.57.400 and 1981 c 296 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may provide by rules and regulations adopted pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW for the issuance of individual horse and cattle identification certificates or other means of horse and cattle identification deemed appropriate. Such certificates or other means of identification shall be valid only for the use of the horse and cattle owner in whose name it is issued.

Horses and cattle identified pursuant to the provisions of this section and the rules and regulations adopted hereunder shall not be subject to brand inspection except when sold at points provided for in RCW 16.57.380. The director shall charge a fee for the certificates or other means of identification authorized pursuant to this section and no identification shall be issued until the director has received the fee. The schedule of fees shall be established in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 16.57 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The director shall establish a livestock identification advisory board. The board shall be composed of six members appointed by the director. One member shall represent each of the following groups: Beef producers, public livestock market operators, horse owners, dairy farmers, cattle feeders, and meat processors. In making appointments, the director shall solicit nominations from organizations representing these groups state-wide.

(2) The purpose of the board is to provide advice to the director regarding livestock identification programs administered under this chapter and regarding brand inspection fees and related licensing fees. The director shall consult the board before adopting, amending, or repealing a rule under this chapter or altering a fee under RCW 16.58.050, 16.58.130, 16.65.030, or 16.65.090. If the director publishes in the state register a proposed rule to be adopted under the authority of this chapter or a proposed rule setting a fee under RCW 16.58.050, 16.58.130, 16.65.030, or 16.65.090 and the rule has not received the approval of the advisory board, the director shall file with the board a written statement setting forth the director's reasons for proposing the rule without the board's approval.

(3) The members of the advisory board serve three-year terms. However, the director shall by rule provide shorter initial terms for some of the members of the board to stagger the expiration of the initial terms. The members serve without compensation. The director may authorize the expenses of a member to be reimbursed if the member is selected to attend a regional or national conference or meeting regarding livestock identification. Any such reimbursement shall be in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 11. RCW 16.57.410 and 1989 c 286 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may act as a registering agency without a permit issued by the department. The director may issue a permit to any person or organization to act as a registering agency for the purpose of issuing permanent identification symbols for horses in a manner prescribed by the director. Application for such permit, or the renewal thereof by January 1 of each year, shall be on a form prescribed by the director, and accompanied by the proof of registration to be issued, any other documents required by the director, and a fee of one hundred dollars.

(2) Each registering agency shall maintain a permanent record for each individual identification symbol. The record shall include, but need not be limited to, the name, address, and phone number of the horse owner and a general description of the horse. A copy of each permanent record shall be forwarded to the director, if requested by the director.

(3) Individual identification symbols shall be inspected as required for brands under RCW ~~16.57.220 and~~ 16.57.380 (~~and 16.57.390~~). Any horse presented for inspection and bearing such a symbol, but not accompanied by proof of registration and certificate of permit, shall be sold as provided under RCW 16.57.290 through 16.57.330.

(4) The director shall adopt such rules as are necessary for the effective administration of this section pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. RCW 16.57.390 and 1974 ex.s. c 38 s 2 are each repealed.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MARILYN SHOWALTER, Deputy Chief Clerk

Excused: Senators Roach and Sellar - 2.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5443, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Pursuant to Senate Rule 34, the undersigned submit the following statement protesting passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1988 for entry in the Journal:

"We protest the extraordinary action of the Senate in diverting funds placed in trust by Washington employers. However, our votes against Substitute House Bill No. 1988, which diverts such funds, must not be construed as opposition to workforce training for dislocated workers.

Diversion of unemployment insurance trust funds would not be necessary if the majority party had not reduced community college funding in the first place. To rob the fund that supports unemployed workers and their families while unemployment is increasing sets a dangerous precedent and shows a lack of foresight.

In recent years, we have provided aid to timber-dependent communities and made dramatic investments in higher education (since 1988, we have helped provide an average of $22 million per year, allowing over 5,500 new students to attend community colleges).

Through the debate and final vote on Substitute House Bill No. 1988, we fought to protect a fund that is the only financial support available to most unemployed workers in our state. We could not support this measure knowing it may reduce future benefits for unemployed workers or increase future payroll taxes for employers.

To workforce training, we say 'yes.' To stealing money from community colleges, then offering it back by robbing from employers and the unemployed, we say 'no.'"

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

I submit the following statement in protest to passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1988.

"Workforce training benefits workers and employers alike. I have been a strong supporter of workforce training programs. As a community college graduate and advocate, I was troubled when the general fund budgets were offered which cut deeply into community college funding. I voted no on these budgets.

Substitute House Bill No. 1988 seeks to fund these good programs with a bad funding source: the unemployment insurance trust fund.

It is a trust fund because the workers trust the money will be there when they need it for unemployment compensation. Businesses trust that these monies will not be squandered on the general needs of government.

Today, we steal from the fund for workforce training. What additional worthy causes will this fund be asked to bear tomorrow? Drug rehabilitation? Day care? These are general fund expenditures. Workforce training should continue to be a general fund investment.

Amendments I supported to use general fund money for workforce training were offered, but turned down.

On final passage, the Senate had the choice of stealing from laid-off workers to support community colleges. It's a choice we should never have been asked to make and one which I reject."

SENATOR TIM ERWIN, 44th District

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1988, by House Committee on Trade, Economic Development & Housing (originally sponsored by Representatives Sheldon, Former, Wineberry, Wood, Shin, Jones, Peery, Roland, Flemming, Quall, Springer, Conway, Morris, Valle, Dorn, Campbell, Linville, Karahalios, Eide, J. Kohl, H. Myers, Kessler, Holm, Wang, Wolfe, Anderson, Appelwick, Orr, Ogden, G. Cole, Scott, Lemmon, Leonard, Locke, R. Fisher, L. Johnson, Rayburn, Pruitt and Patterson)

Providing for employment and training services.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following Committee on Trade, Technology, and Economic Development amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) The economy of the state depends on a well-trained work force and a strong employment and unemployment system. A well-trained work force generates the productivity employers need in order to compete in the global economy and to pay workers good wages. A strong employment and unemployment system ameliorates the negative impacts of unemployment and matches the needs of employers with individuals seeking employment.

(2) The legislature further finds that too many Washington workers are unemployed, many of whom need new or enhanced work force skills in order to meet current demand in the labor market. With the increasing pace of economic change, employees must become life-long learners who periodically obtain additional education and training. The state should provide unemployed workers a variety of effective services, including timely payment of unemployment benefits, job and career counseling, job referral services, and training.

(3) At the same time, too many employers report problems finding workers with the right skills. The state should provide employers with an effective training system and an efficient method for locating well-qualified workers.

Therefore, the legislature finds it necessary and in the public interest to create an employment and training trust fund in order to provide state funding for employment and training services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 50.24 RCW to read as follows:

Employment and training trust fund contributions to the employment and training trust fund shall accrue and become payable by each employer, except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 and 50.44.030 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions, taxable local government employers as described in RCW 50.44.035, those employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions, and those qualified employers assigned rate class 20 under RCW 50.29.025 at the rate of twelve one-hundredths of one percent for rate years 1994, 1995, 1996, and 1997. The amount of wages subject to tax shall be determined under RCW 50.24.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 50.16 RCW to read as follows:

There is hereby established the employment and training trust fund. All moneys in this fund are irrevocably vested for the administration of this title. The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all moneys from employment and training trust fund contributions as established in section 2 of this act. The treasurer of the employment security department shall deposit, administer, and disburse all moneys in the fund under rules adopted by the commissioner and RCW 43.01.050 and 43.84.092 are not applicable to this fund. The treasurer of the employment security department shall be the treasurer of the employment and training trust fund as described in RCW 50.16.020 and shall give a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his or her duties in connection with the fund. All sums recovered on the official bond for losses sustained by the employment and training trust fund must be deposited in the fund. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, all moneys received and deposited in the fund under chapter . . . , Laws of 1993 (this act), remain part of the employment and training trust fund and may be used solely for the following purposes:

(1) Providing training and related support services, including financial aid, to individuals who have been terminated or have received a notice of termination from employment, and who are eligible for or have exhausted their entitlement to unemployment compensation benefits within the previous twenty-four months;

(2) Assisting workers in finding employment through job referral, job development, counseling, and referral to training resources;

(3) Obtaining labor market information necessary for the administration of the unemployment insurance program and to assist unemployed workers in finding employment;

(4) Performing research by an independent state auditing agency or an independent contractor to determine effectiveness of unemployment insurance programs and to determine whether program changes would benefit workers and employers;

(5) Collecting contributions for and administration of the employment and training trust fund;

(6) Improving service through improved use of information technology; and

(7) Establishing collocation employment security and job service outstations at seven community and technical college campuses across the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 50.16 RCW to read as follows:

An individual may be eligible for applicable employment security benefits while participating in work force training. Eligibility is at the discretion of the commissioner of employment security after submitting a commissioner-approved training waiver and developing a detailed individualized training plan.

Benefits paid under this section may not be charged to the experience rating accounts of individual employers.

The commissioner shall adopt rules as necessary to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Aerospace workers unemployed as the result of downsizing and restructuring of the aerospace industry will be deemed to be dislocated workers for the purpose of commissioner approval of training under RCW 50.20.043.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The treasurer of the employment security department shall disburse the amounts appropriated by section 15, chapter . . . , Laws of 1993 (section 15 of this act) to the state board for community and technical colleges. These funds shall be allotted for, and only for, training programs and related support services, including financial aid, in the community and technical college system that:
