

immediately, upon the receipt of such goods, send to the consignor or consignors a statement in writing, showing what property has been received and its condition.

Written statement.

SEC. 2. Whenever any commission merchant or person receiving any property as mentioned in section one of this act, shall sell the same or fifty per cent. thereof, such commission merchant or person shall, when requested, immediately render a true statement in writing to the consignor, showing what portion of such consignment has been sold and the price received therefor.

Penalty.

SEC. 3. Any person engaged in selling any property as herein specified, who shall fail or neglects to comply with any of the provisions of this act, or who shall make a false report or statement of the matters herein required, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, by any court having jurisdiction, be fined in any sum not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars.

Emergency.

SEC. 4. There being no law remedying the evil sought to be corrected by the foregoing sections, an emergency is declared to exist; therefore, this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval by the governor.

Approved February 21, 1893.
