

created under this section shall be separate from any other in-service training program the legislature may establish or fund. School districts shall use existing models relating to techniques for enhancing classroom management and academic efficiency to provide the in-service training.

(2) Individuals eligible to attend are teachers, administrators, and teachers' aides. Each school is free to determine the makeup of its team. School building administrators are encouraged to use the individuals who receive the training as trainers to present an in-service training session for other school staff.

(3) The in-service training program authorized by subsection (1) of this section shall not be part of the program of basic education required under Article IX of the state Constitution.

This section shall expire two years after the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The superintendent of public instruction shall report to the legislature not later than two and one-half years from the effective date of this act, on the results of the in-service program created under section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by the legislature by July 1, 1987, this act shall be null and void. This act shall be of no effect unless such specific funding is so provided. If such funding is so provided, this act shall take effect when the legislation providing the funding takes effect.

CHAPTER 424

[Substitute House Bill No. 1107]

VEHICLE LICENSES—PREREQUISITES TO ISSUANCE

AN ACT Relating to prerequisites for the issuance of vehicle licenses; amending RCW 46.12.020; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 46.12.020, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 7, chapter 25, Laws of 1975 and RCW 46.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No vehicle license number plates or certificate of license registration, whether original issues or duplicates, ~~((shall))~~ may be issued or furnished by the department unless the applicant ~~((therefor shall))~~, at the same time, makes satisfactory application for a certificate of ownership or ((shall)) presents satisfactory evidence that such a certificate of ownership covering ((such)) the vehicle has been previously issued.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no renewal or duplicate vehicle license number plates or certificate of license registration, whether original issues or duplicates, and no renewed vehicle license may be issued by the department unless the applicant possesses a valid driver's license. In the case of joint application by more than one person, each applicant shall possess a valid driver's license.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section applies only to applicants who are individual persons and does not apply to corporations.

(4) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to any applicant with respect to whom the department determines that:

(a) The applicant's driver's license is not currently suspended or revoked and the applicant is not in suspended or revoked status;

(b) The applicant has not been convicted of a violation of RCW 46.20.021, 46.20.342, 46.20.416, 46.20.420, or 46.65.090; and

(c) Circumstances not related to any violation of Title 46 RCW account for the applicant's current lack of a driver's license and the applicant's need to register a vehicle. The applicant shall by affidavit indicate:

(i) The reason for the applicant's lack of a driver's license;

(ii) The need the applicant has for registering a vehicle; and

(iii) That the applicant will not knowingly allow a person without a driver's license to drive any vehicle registered in the applicant's name.

(5) It is unlawful for any person in whose name a vehicle is registered knowingly to allow another person to drive the vehicle knowing that the other person is not authorized to do so under the laws of this state.

(6) A violation of subsection (5) of this section, or a knowingly made material misstatement on an affidavit under subsection (4)(c) of this section is a misdemeanor.

(7) No denial under this section of issuance or of renewal of plates or certificates affects the right of any person to maintain, transfer, or acquire title in any vehicle. Unless the parties to the contract agree otherwise, no such denial affects the rights or obligations of any party to a contract for the purchase, or for the financing of the purchase, of a motor vehicle.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1986.
