

FIRST DAYNOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia
Monday, January 8, 2024

The Senate was called to order at 12 o'clock noon by the President of the Senate, Lt. Governor Heck presiding. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all senators were present.

The Washington State Patrol Honor Guard, composed of Lieutenant Matt Fehler, Trooper Brian Chase, Trooper Ryan Michael, Trooper Kyle Flaig, and Sergeant James Maguire presented the Colors.

The President led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The National Anthem was performed by Ms. Amanda Bacon accompanied by American Sign Language students from North Thurston High School in Lacey, led by their teacher Ms. Cathy Boos. Ms. Bacon was a guest of Senator Van De Wege.

Mr. Amit Shah, Founder of the Jain Centre of Washington State, offered the invocation. Mr. Shah was a guest of Senator Dhingra.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: "Welcome back. Senator Saldaña, especially, welcome back. One hundred and thirty-five years ago, fittingly on July 4th, seventy-five people from across the territory of Washington met in the territorial capital just down the street from here. They labored through fifty days of hot and particularly sticky weather, but at the end of that they produced results. And their result was the proposed constitution, the founding document of our state. I would like at this time to acknowledge its display to my left, your right, for the first time in the history of the legislature to be on display in public here. I would invite each and every one of you to take a look at it before you leave. We are especially grateful to your former member and our friend, Secretary of State Steve Hobbs, who made this possible. Secretary Hobbs please stand. Acknowledge him please."

The Senate rose and recognized the Honorable Steve Hobbs, Secretary of State, who was present in the south gallery.

President Heck: "And our gratitude to all the archivists who, somewhat reluctantly but ultimately, allowed for Secretary Hobbs to make this decision. Miles Moore was the final territorial governor at the time. He proposed that the constitution go on the ballot shortly thereafter, October 1st, for ratification or rejection. In fact, it was ratified by an almost 4 to 1 margin. I can't think of anything more appropriate than to display it here today to remind ourselves of our purpose and our mission. Our system of government is unique. It's been called 'The Great Experiment,' 'the longest surviving democracy in the world,' and our state is an extension of that. We govern through rule of law - not the whim of an individual - but the rule of law which is your sacred mission to modify and propose changes to, in keeping with our founding document. Thank you again Secretary Hobbs very much. It is a special honor to be able to display that. And, with that, let's get to work."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pedersen, the Senate advanced to the third order of business.

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

June 20, 2023

Governor Jay Inslee
Office of the Governor
PO Box 40002
Olympia, WA 98504-0002

Dear Governor Inslee:

On June 20 at 9 a.m. I will be sworn into the office of Kitsap County Commissioner, District #1, to fulfill a vacancy left by former County Commissioner Robert Gelder.

I am writing to notify you of my resignation from the Washington State Senate, Legislative District 23, effective August 15, 2023.

Following notification to you, the Chair of the Kitsap County Democratic Party and the Chair of the 23rd Legislative District Democrats, a formal nomination process will begin locally to name my replacement to the State Senate.

Serving in the Washington State Legislature has been a tremendous honor. I am proud of the work I have done to fairly represent the people of Kitsap County and gratified to have had their trust and support. I have dedicated much effort over the past 17 years to lead with optimism and pragmatism, to ensure that our public schools are amply funded, that our forests and waters are conserved, that our fish and wildlife are abundant, and that all Washingtonians are treated with the respect and dignity we all deserve.

As the Chair of the Ways and Means Committee for the past six years, I am proud of the gains we have made in fiscal sustainability, reforming our tax code, investing in public and community health, and leading the nation in climate resilience and pollution reduction investments. It has been my great pleasure to work closely with you and your staff in those endeavors.

There are so many talented and intelligent people working in Washington State, both within our state agencies and as elected leaders. I will miss my legislative work and colleagues, and yet I am very much looking forward to my new, local role where I can roll up my sleeves and directly impact my community.

Thank you for accepting my resignation, dated August 15, 2023.

Sincerely,

Christine Rolfes
Washington State Senator
23rd Legislative District

SECOND AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION

OF EDWARD ALLEN STEWARD

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2006, a jury found Edward Allen Steward guilty of FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING and SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in Clallam County Superior Court Cause No. 06-1-00395-0. The convictions followed events in which Mr. Steward, along with two other men, held a man at gunpoint and later held him in their car, forcing the man to make arrangements for Mr. Steward to collect on a drug debt.

WHEREAS, following these events, Mr. Steward's two co-defendants each took plea deals to serve 48 months in prison. Mr. Steward rejected the same plea deal, and at trial, his two co-defendants testified against him. A jury found him guilty, and the court sentenced him to 48 months on the underlying crimes and an additional 19 years on mandatory enhancements.

WHEREAS, in September 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Steward's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Steward showed remorse for his past conduct. He had also been accepted into the FareStart program.

WHEREAS, the Clallam County Prosecuting Attorney did not object to Mr. Steward's petition. Mr. Steward's sentencing judge stated that he believed that Mr. Steward's sentence was excessive, and had he had the discretion, he would have sentenced Mr. Steward to a term that more closely mirrored that of his co-defendants.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Steward's sentence. In March 2019, Mr. Steward received a Conditional Commutation.

WHEREAS, in July 2021, following that Conditional Commutation and while on community supervision, Mr. Steward was found to have possessed and consumed alcohol and drugs, and he associated with known drug users and sellers, violating the terms of his Conditional Commutation. On August 9, 2021, I issued an Amended Conditional Commutation to allow Mr. Steward another opportunity to successfully transition to the community.

WHEREAS, in July 2022, following that Amended Conditional Commutation and while on community supervision, Mr. Steward was found to have consumed drugs and alcohol-behavior that violated the terms of his Amended Conditional Commutation.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board, and in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby AMEND the August 9, 2021, AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION of Edward Allen Steward's 2006 sentence for his FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING and SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT convictions in Clallam County Superior Court Cause No. 06-1-00395-0, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC, which shall include a new in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than May 1, 2024. During this in-custody transition period, DOC shall place Mr. Steward directly into a DOC-approved inpatient substance abuse program, where he will be subject to GPS monitoring. There, Mr. Steward must complete a substance assessment and all inpatient recommendations.

Following the in-custody portion of this transition plan, and upon approval of Mr. Steward's release address, DOC shall release Mr. Steward to begin a new 36-month term of DOC community supervision. Within 30 days of his return to the community, Mr. Steward must continue to follow all assessments and recommendations from his substance abuse program. He must also resume mental health treatments and/or cooccurring treatments while in the community unless a mental health professional recommends otherwise and DOC agrees. This transition plan, designed to support a successful community transition, shall not be eligible for compliance credits. During this period of community supervision, Mr. Steward must also comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Steward shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.
3. Be subject to GPS monitoring during the first 90 days of his release to community supervision.
4. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational or vocational programming and report it to DOC along with changes in status.
5. Reside in DOC-approved housing and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
6. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
7. Be subject to DOC curfews.
8. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
9. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
10. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons as determined by DOC.

14. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
15. Not associate with known criminals or gang members, as directed by DOC.
16. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Second Amended Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Steward has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Steward is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Steward submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Steward an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Second Amended Conditional Commutation is granted.

The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Steward has violated the terms of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Steward is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Second Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Steward will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Steward may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Steward may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Steward will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF DANIEL J. TASH

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1991, a jury found Daniel J. Tash guilty of AGGRAVATED MURDER in Kitsap County Superior Court

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 8, 2024

2024 REGULAR SESSION

Cause No. 91-1-00148-9. This conviction followed events in which Mr. Tash, while intoxicated, entered a drug manufacturer's home to collect on a debt. Finding the drug manufacturer asleep, Tash robbed his home, but when the man later awoke, a panicked Tash used a nearby gun to shoot him dead.

WHEREAS, for this conviction, Mr. Tash was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole, and he has served roughly 30 years.

WHEREAS, in December 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Tash's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Tash married while incarcerated over 20 years ago, and if released, planned to join his wife in her home. He also maintained his sobriety during his term of custody.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Tash's sentence. In 2021, Mr. Tash received a Conditional Commutation.

WHEREAS, one of the conditions of his Conditional Commutation prohibited Mr. Tash from possessing or using controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription and the Department of Correction's (DOC) approval.

WHEREAS, on August 1, 2023, following that Conditional Commutation and while on community supervision, Mr. Tash was contacted by his Community Corrections Officer (CCO) and was found to be in possession of what appeared to be drug paraphernalia and methamphetamine, a violation of the terms of his Conditional Commutation that could result in the revocation of his Conditional Commutation. Mr. Tash initially denied that the paraphernalia and drugs were his, but later told his CCO that he would test positive for methamphetamine if he was tested. A swift and certain response resulted in a three-day jail sentence.

WHEREAS, on August 17, 2023, following that Conditional Commutation and while on community supervision, Mr. Tash submitted a urinalysis and tested abnormally high for methamphetamine (over nine times the testable amount), a violation of the terms of his Conditional Commutation that could result in the revocation of his Conditional Commutation. A hearing was held, and Mr. Tash denied the violation and pleaded not guilty. A hearings officer found him guilty and imposed a 15-day sentence, to be served at the Chehalis County Jail. At the hearing, Mr. Tash indicated he was not willing to engage in chemical dependency treatment but would be willing to attend Narcotics Anonymous meetings.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby AMEND the March 11, 2021, CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION of Daniel J. Tash's 1991 sentence for his AGGRAVATED MURDER conviction in Kitsap County Superior Court Cause No. 91-1-00148-9, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC, which shall include a new in-custody treatment plan, to successfully complete inpatient substance abuse programming and all required recommendations.

Upon release from custody of the Chehalis County Jail, Mr. Tash will remain in the custody of the DOC. Upon his release from the custody of the Chehalis County Jail into the custody of the DOC, the DOC shall place Mr. Tash into a DOC-approved inpatient substance abuse program. Mr. Tash, through the DOC, must obtain a drug and alcohol assessment. If the assessment recommends treatment, Mr. Tash must enter an inpatient drug and/or alcohol program expeditiously after receiving his assessment. Upon successfully completing any recommended treatment, Mr. Tash's return to community supervision will be taken under consideration again along with recommendations from the DOC regarding terms of supervision. While in the custody of the DOC, Mr. Tash must obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that while I am deeply disappointed in Mr. Tash's recent choices and actions, and the faith and trust I placed in him has been violated, I believe that drug abuse and addiction have potential for recovery. While these choices are his and his alone, I sincerely hope Mr. Tash chooses recovery and abstinence. However, in the event Mr. Tash is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, or if Mr. Tash fails to successfully complete any recommended treatment, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Tash will be detained in any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate for the remainder of his sentence.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 25th day of September, A.D., two thousand and twenty-three.

AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF ROGELIO VIVANCO VASQUEZ, JR.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 8, 2024

2024 REGULAR SESSION

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1999, a jury found Rogelio Vivanco Vasquez, Jr. guilty of two counts of SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT WITH A DEADLY WEAPON, two counts of FIRST DEGREE ATTEMPTED ROBBERY, two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, two counts of FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY, and one count each of FIREARM THEFT, FIRST DEGREE UNLAWFUL FIREARM POSSESSION, SECOND DEGREE ESCAPE, and ATTEMPT TO ELUDE in Island County Superior Court, Cause No. 98-1-00160-8. These convictions followed events in which Mr. Vasquez, while under the influence of drugs, broke free of his handcuffs during a police transport and attacked his transporting officer, stole his weapon, and tried to steal his patrol car before fleeing on foot. He then broke into two residential homes, physically assaulted residents and threatened others at gunpoint. He eventually stole an automobile and led law enforcement on a high-speed chase.

WHEREAS, Mr. Vasquez was sentenced to over 46 years in prison on these convictions, and he has served over 22 years. His earliest earned release date is 2040.

WHEREAS, in June 2021, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Vasquez' clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Vasquez started using drugs at age 12, but since June 2006, he has maintained his sobriety. In custody, Mr. Vasquez earned his GED and is halfway to an associate's degree. Upon release, he has employment opportunities and housing options awaiting him.

WHEREAS, Mr. Vasquez' clemency petition was accompanied by the support of the Island County Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted in June 2021 to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Vasquez' sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Vasquez' demonstrated rehabilitation and sobriety, the prosecutor's passionate and persuasive support, and his lengthy sentence for non-homicide offenses.

WHEREAS, in August 2021, after reviewing all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, I determined that the best interests of justice would be served by granting Mr.

Vasquez a conditional commutation.

WHEREAS, on August 29, 2023, Mr. Vasquez was arrested for using a controlled substance (Cocaine), on and before August 29, 2023, and for failing to report to the Department of Corrections on or about August 28, 2023, as directed. A "swift and certain" 3-day sanction was imposed, after which he was released from the Monroe Correctional Complex.

WHEREAS, on October 4, 2023, Mr. Vasquez reported to the Mount Vernon Field Office as directed. He provided his community corrections officer (CCO) with a urine sample, which tested positive for Cocaine both in the office and later after lab testing. Mr. Vasquez also signed a "drug/alcohol use admission" statement, indicating he used Cocaine on or about September 30 due to his F:\Journal\2024 Journal\Journal2024\LegDay001\drug.doc addiction. In addition to admitting he used Cocaine on or about September 30, 2023, he also told his CCO that there would likely be drug paraphernalia in the car that he drove to the CCO's office. A spoon covered in white residue was found in the trunk of Mr. Vasquez' car, and the white substance field-tested positive for Cocaine.

WHEREAS, on October 5, 2023, Mr. Vasquez was arrested by his CCO for using and possessing a controlled substance (Cocaine) again, and for possessing drug paraphernalia.

WHEREAS, following a hearing on October 17, 2023, Mr. Vasquez was found guilty of using a controlled substance (Cocaine) on or about September 30, 2023, possessing a controlled substance (Cocaine) on or about October 4, 2023, and possessing drug paraphernalia on or about October 4, 2023.

WHEREAS, each one of these violations alone is sufficient grounds to revoke the conditional commutation I granted him in 2021. Notwithstanding the understandable recommendation of the hearings officer that I revoke Mr. Vasquez' commutation and return him to prison for the remainder of his sentence, I must balance the need to hold people accountable for their actions against the goal of helping people overcome their drug addictions and become successful members of our communities.

WHEREAS, after further reviewing all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter in light of recent facts, I determined that the best interests of justice would be served by this action and amended conditional commutation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby AMEND the August 31, 2021, CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION of Rogelio V. Vasquez' 1999 sentence for his two counts of FIRST DEGREE ATTEMPTED ROBBERY, two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, two counts of FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY, and one count each of FIREARM THEFT, FIRST DEGREE UNLAWFUL FIREARM POSSESSION, SECOND DEGREE ESCAPE, and ATTEMPT TO ELUDE in Island County Superior Court, Cause No. 98-1-00160-8, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC, which shall include a new in-custody treatment plan, to successfully complete inpatient substance abuse programming and all required recommendations.

Upon release from custody of the South Correctional Entity ("SCORE jail"), Mr. Vasquez will remain in the custody of the DOC. Upon his release from the custody of the SCORE jail into the custody of the DOC, the DOC shall place Mr. Vasquez into a DOC-approved in-custody inpatient substance abuse program. Mr. Vasquez, through the DOC, must obtain a drug and alcohol assessment. If the assessment recommends treatment, Mr. Vasquez must complete an in-custody substance abuse treatment program expeditiously after receiving his assessment. Upon successfully completing any recommended in-custody treatment, Mr. Vasquez's return to community supervision will be taken under consideration again along with recommendations from the DOC regarding terms of supervision. While in the custody of the DOC, Mr. Vasquez must obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, I am deeply disappointed in Mr. Vasquez's recent choices and actions, and the faith and trust I placed in him has been violated - not once, but twice. However, I believe that drug abuse and addiction have potential for recovery. I sincerely hope Mr. Vasquez chooses recovery and abstinence. His choices and his actions will determine his future. However, in the event Mr. Vasquez is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, or if Mr. Vasquez fails to successfully complete any recommended treatment, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Vasquez will be detained in any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate for the remainder of his sentence.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 12th day of December, A.D., two thousand and twenty-three.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF JOSE JUAN MORA

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1994, a jury found Jose Juan Mora guilty of FIRST DEGREE AGGRAVATED MURDER in Grant County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-00271-9. This conviction followed events in which an intoxicated Mr. Mora provided an associate with money and a firearm and directed him to attack the victim. When the associate confronted the victim, he shot and killed him.

WHEREAS, the prosecution tried Mr. Mora for aggravated first degree murder on a murder-for-hire theory. Mr. Mora claims that he instructed his associate to assault the victim, not murder him. Mr. Mora's associate received a 20-year sentence for felony murder and was released to the community over a decade ago, while Mr. Mora received a life sentence. Mr. Mora has served over 28 years on this conviction.

WHEREAS, in December 2022, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Mora's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board stated that had Mr. Mora been convicted of first degree murder—the offense for which his associate was convicted—he would have faced a standard range sentence less than 28 years. In addition, the record before the Board demonstrated that prosecutors offered Mr. Mora a plea deal to second degree murder, which would have resulted in an even shorter sentence. Mr. Mora also presented testimony that, upon release from prison, he will return to Mexico, where he has family and a support network that has secured him work, housing, and other supports.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the governor commute Mr. Mora's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr.

Mora's remorse and demonstrated maturation over his nearly three decades of incarceration, his personal redemption and growth in prison, and his strong support network. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board, and in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Jose Juan Mora's 1994 sentence for FIRST DEGREE AGGRAVATED MURDER in Grant County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-00271-9, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the Department of Corrections (DOC) in the following community transition plan.

Under this plan, DOC shall have the authority to immediately transfer Mr. Mora, following completion of any required statutory notifications, to U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), where he is subject to a detainer and may face deportation to Mexico.

If ICE releases Mr. Mora to the community pending deportation proceedings, Mr. Mora shall begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. This transition plan, designed to support a successful community transition, shall not be eligible for compliance credits. During this period in state custody and under community supervision, Mr. Mora must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Mora shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
3. Be available for regular contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, shared common living spaces, or social media accounts.
4. Physically report to DOC at least once per month, regardless of risk, as directed and at the discretion of DOC.
5. Obtain a mental health evaluation within 45 days of his release to community supervision and follow recommendations.
6. Obtain DOC-approved employment, or participate in DOC-approved educational, vocational, community service programming, or other regular pro-social activities, and report to DOC along with changes in status.
7. Reside in DOC-approved housing and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
8. Remain in, or out of, a given geographical zone as directed by DOC.
9. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
10. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons, as determined by DOC.
11. Not associate with known users or sellers of drugs, as determined by DOC.
12. Not possess in the home, or use, controlled substances, including medications or marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
13. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing, as directed by DOC.
14. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence or the next business day, whichever is sooner.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Mora shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Mora is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Mora to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Mora if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Mora violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Mora will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Mora has provided to the Office of the governor or, if Mr. Mora is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Mora submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Mora an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Mora is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, the governor may revoke this Conditional Commutation and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Mora will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Mora may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Mora may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Mora will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

CARLTON LEE GOODE III

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2004, Carlton Lee Goode III pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY, FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT, and UNLAWFUL IMPRISONMENT in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 03-1- 05258-4. This conviction followed events in 2003 in which Mr. Goode, then 17-years old, under the direction of an older accomplice, committed a burglary. While Mr. Goode served as a lookout, his accomplice entered the home and tied up a victim, before the two of them stole property from the home.

WHEREAS, Mr. Goode has not been convicted of any other felonies since.

WHEREAS, since this conviction, Mr. Goode has earned his associate's degree, bachelor's degree, master's degree, and law degree.

WHEREAS, in March 2023, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Goode's petition for a pardon. At this hearing, Mr. Goode presented evidence that his dream is to serve in the U.S. Marine Corps. WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Goode's petition seeking a pardon.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 2003, Mr. Goode was 17 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crimes, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board, and in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

WHEREAS, since his release from custody, Mr. Rondon-Gomez has married and now has an extended family. He has also obtained steady employment and is active in his community through volunteerism and civic engagement.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON OF CHOCH CHEA

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1997, Choch Chea pleaded guilty to two counts of SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 97-1-00531-7 SEA. These convictions followed events in which a then-17-year-old Mr. Chea was riding in the backseat of a car with his associates. They spotted a rival gang walking on the street, and one of Mr. Chea's associates handed him a pistol. He fired multiple shots and hit two people.

WHEREAS, Mr. Chea has accepted full responsibility for his actions. Following his period in Washington state custody, in 2001 he was released to federal immigration detention before being released to the community in 2002.

WHEREAS, Mr. Chea has been living crime free in the community for over 15 years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Chea maintains steady employment and is involved with his community. He lives with his aunt and provides support to his elderly mother.

WHEREAS, due to Mr. Chea's convictions, he now faces the possibility of imminent deportation from the United States to Cambodia, a country from which he and his family fled when he was a toddler. He has no family, friends, or other connections in Cambodia.

WHEREAS, in June 2023, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Chea's petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Chea presented testimony that his deportation would devastate his community and his family.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office does not object to Mr. Chea's petition. Nobody has expressed opposition to Mr. Chea's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor grant Mr. Chea a full pardon, citing his remorse and maturity since he committed this crime, as well as his connection to his family and community here in Washington.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 1996, Mr. Chea was 17 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed the pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crimes and the consequences that this deportation will have on Mr. Chea and his family and community, and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Choch Chea this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his convictions for two counts of SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 97-1-00531-7 SEA.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON OF NICKOLAS ANTHONY WALKER

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2004, Nickolas Anthony Walker pleaded guilty to INTIMIDATING A WITNESS in Lewis County Superior Court, Cause No. 04-1-477-7. This conviction followed events in which Mr. Walker was leaving the courthouse on an unrelated matter. He was experiencing a panic attack, and in view of a witness, he ripped his dress shirt open, which was perceived as an act of intimidation.

WHEREAS, this is the only conviction on Mr. Walker's record.

WHEREAS, since this conviction, Mr. Walker has completed anger management courses to better control his emotions.

WHEREAS, Mr. Walker has been married for over 18 years, and he has two children.

WHEREAS, following this conviction, Mr. Walker was diagnosed with Asperger's Syndrome, which can cause individuals to experience greater anxiety and lead to panic attacks.

WHEREAS, in June 2023, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Walker's petition for a pardon. At this hearing, Mr. Walker presented evidence that he works as an engineer and obtains government contracts in pharmaceutical and semiconductor industries. But this criminal conviction makes it hard for him to maintain long-term government contracts and forces him to regularly relocate to find new work, causing a strain on his family.

WHEREAS, the Lewis County Prosecuting Attorney does not object to Mr. Walker's petition seeking a pardon. No victims have raised any objections.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor grant Mr. Walker a full pardon. The Board cited the way in which this felony continues to adversely affect not just Mr. Walker, but also his family. It found that justice is no longer served with this felony on his criminal record.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board, and in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant Nickolas Anthony Walker this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon for his INTIMIDATING A WITNESS conviction in Lewis County Superior Court, Cause No. 04-1-477-7.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the governor commute Ms. Ramsey's sentence. 6. Physically report to DOC at least once per month, regardless of risk, as directed and at the discretion of DOC;

13. Not associate with known users or sellers of drugs or criminals, as determined by DOC or unless approved by DOC;
14. Allow DOC to conduct home and employment visits as DOC deems appropriate, including searches of persons, automobiles, personal property, and common areas and places to which she has access;
15. Remain in, or out of, a given geographical zone as directed by DOC;
16. Report contact with law enforcement to DOC within 24 hours of occurrence or the next business day, whichever is sooner.

PROVIDED, that Ms. Ramsey shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of her community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Ms. Ramsey is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Ms. Ramsey to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Ms. Ramsey if she violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Ms.

Ramsey violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Ms. Ramsey will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the governor's intent to review the alleged violation(s) and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation will then be mailed to the most recent address Ms. Ramsey has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Ms. Ramsey is in custody, to her place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Ms. Ramsey submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that she has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Ms. Ramsey an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that she has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the governor for the governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Ms. Ramsey has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Ms. Ramsey is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Ms. Ramsey will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Ms. Ramsey may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe she has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that she would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Ms. Ramsey may abscond if not detained. If detained, Ms. Ramsey will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe she has violated the above conditions.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON OF ERIC M. BACOLOD

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1997, Eric Bacolod was found guilty of three counts of FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT, EACH WITH A FIREARM ENHANCEMENT, in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 96-1-01655-3. He was sentenced to a term of 500 months. These convictions followed events in which a then-18-year-old Mr. Bacolod was riding in a car with his associates. They spotted three people walking on the street, and Mr. Bacolod got out of the vehicle and fired a handgun at the three other teenagers. No one was shot or physically injured as a result of Mr. Bacolod's actions.

WHEREAS, on December 2, 2022, the Pierce County Superior Court, on petition of the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney, entered an order to reduce Mr. Bacolod's term of confinement from 500 months to 359 months under RCW 36.27.130, which provides for a resentencing "if the original sentence no longer advances the interests of justice."

WHEREAS, Mr. Bacolod, now approximately 46 years old, was four years old when he lawfully immigrated to the United States. His immediate family are all US citizens and live in the United States. His mother became a US citizen a few months after Mr. Bacolod turned 18; and his biological father is a US citizen but did not acknowledge paternity and pledge financial support before Mr. Bacolod turned 18. Had Mr. Bacolod's mother become a US citizen before Mr. Bacolod turned 18, or had his biological father taken different steps, Mr. Bacolod would be a US citizen today.

WHEREAS, Mr. Bacolod's son, a US citizen, lives in Tacoma. In addition, his stepfather and half-brothers are also US citizens, and one of his half-brothers serves in the US Air Force.

WHEREAS, Mr. Bacolod has accepted full responsibility for his actions, he has served 27 years, and he completed his term of confinement for all three convictions on December 11, 2023.

WHEREAS, while incarcerated, Mr. Bacolod earned his GED and participated in numerous training and certificate programs.

WHEREAS, due to Mr. Bacolod's convictions, a federal immigration judge issued an Order of Removal (a deportation order) in 2001, and he now faces the possibility of imminent deportation from the United States to the Philippines. He has no immediate family, friends, or other connections in the Philippines. Mr. Bacolod speaks only English.

WHEREAS, a pardon would permit Mr. Bacolod to petition to reopen his immigration case and seek revocation of his Order of Removal.

WHEREAS, on December 7, 2023, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Bacolod's petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Bacolod presented testimony directly and through his supporters that his deportation would devastate him and his family.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney's Office objected to Mr. Bacolod's petition for a pardon. The primary objection articulated at the hearing was that granting Mr. Bacolod would unfairly benefit him (as compared to others with similar convictions) solely based on his legal status in this country.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted 3 - 1 to recommend that the Governor grant Mr. Bacolod a full and unconditional pardon, citing his remorse and maturity since he committed this crime, as well as his connection to his family and community here in Washington.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 1996, Mr. Bacolod was 18 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed the pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crimes and the consequences that this deportation will have on Mr. Bacolod and his family and community, and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Eric Bacolod this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his convictions for three counts of FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 96-1-01655-3.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 12th day of December, A.D., two thousand and twenty-three.
