FIRE WARDENS.

AN ACT relating to the forests of the state; defining the powers and duties of wardens, and amending section 6 of chapter 125, of the Laws of 1911.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 6 of chapter 125 of the Laws of 1911 (section 5786, of Rem. Comp. Stat.; section 2563, Pierce's Code), be and is amended to read as follows:

Amends § 6, ch. 125, Laws of 1911.

Section 6. Each warden shall be at all times under the direction and control of the supervisor of forestry, and shall perform such other duties at such times and places as he may direct.

Fire wardens, powers and duties.

It shall be the duty of wardens to post over the forest areas notices of warning giving the date of the closed season as provided for in section 8 of this act, and copies of all such laws and rules as they may be directed to post by the supervisor of forestry.

They shall investigate all fires and report all of a serious or threatening character to the supervisor of forestry immediately. They shall patrol their districts; visit all parts of roads and trails, and frequented places and camps as far as possible, warn campers or other users of fire, see that all locomotives are provided with spark arresters, and with adequate devices for preventing the escape of fire or live coals from ash pans and fire boxes, in accordance with the law; extinguish small or smouldering fires, and set back-fires to control fires; summon, impress and employ help in controlling fires, and see that all laws for the protection of forests are enforced, and arrest and cause to be prosecuted all offenders.
