CHAPTER 25.

[H. B. 210.]

GRAIN AND HAY INSPECTION.

AN ACT providing for the inspection, grading and weighing of commodities, and creating a grain and hay inspection fund, amending section 13, chapter 189, of the Laws of 1919, as amended by section 1, chapter 74, Laws of 1921, as amended by section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1931, (being section 6991 Remington's Compiled Statutes) and making an appropriation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Amends
§ 13, ch. 189,
Laws 1919;
§ 1, ch. 74,
Laws 1921;
§ 2, ch. 46,
Laws 1931.

SECTION 1. That section 13 of chapter 189, of the Laws of 1919, as amended by section 1 of chapter 74 of the Laws of 1921, as amended by section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1931, (being section 6991, Remington's Compiled Statutes) be amended to read as follows:

Inspection fees.

Section 13. The director of agriculture shall fix the fees for inspection, grading and weighing of the commodities included in the provisions of this act, which fees shall not exceed eight cents a ton for sack grain and six cents a ton for bulk grain. The fees for inspection, grading and weighing of such commodities shall be a lien upon such commodity so weighed, graded and/or inspected to be paid by the carrier transporting the same and treated by it as an advanced charge, except when the bill of lading contains the notation "Not for terminal weight and grade" and the commodity is not unloaded at a terminal warehouse. The director of agriculture shall so adjust the fees to be collected under this act as to meet the expenses necessary to carry out the provisions hereof, and may prescribe a different scale of fees for different localities. The director of agriculture may also prescribe a reasonable charge for service performed at places [places] other than public terminal warehouses in addition to the regular fees when necessary to avoid rendering the service at a loss to the state. All moneys collected under the provisions of this act and all fines and penalties for violation thereof, shall be paid into a special fund which is hereby established in the state treasury, to be known as the grain and hay inspection fund, and which shall be used exclusively for administrative expenses under this act: The state auditor may anticipate the receipts and issue warrants to cover the same to any amount not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00).
