

CHAPTER 64.

[S. B. 8.]

FOX ISLAND BRIDGE.

AN ACT granting the Board of County Commissioners of Pierce County, State of Washington, the power to build a bridge across the navigable waters of Hale's Passage in Puget Sound at the most feasible point connecting Fox Island and the mainland, to acquire rights of way, easements, approaches, make soundings, prepare estimates, plans and specifications, and authorizing them to expend moneys from the general funds of Pierce County for said purposes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. The Board of County Commissioners of Pierce County is hereby authorized to build a bridge across the navigable waters of Hale's Passage in Puget Sound at the most feasible point connecting Fox Island and the mainland.

Hale's Passage bridge.

SEC. 2. The Board of County Commissioners of Pierce County is hereby authorized to expend from the General Funds of Pierce County such moneys as may be necessary toward the construction of said bridge; to acquire rights-of-way, easements, approaches, and franchises, to make soundings, prepare estimates, plans and/or specifications, and to do all things necessary in the building of said bridge and approaches.

Powers of County
Commissioners.

Passed the Senate February 13, 1945.

Passed the House March 4, 1945.

Approved by the Governor March 14, 1945.