IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—ELECTORS—
DIRECTORS—QUALIFICATIONS.

AN ACT providing additional qualifications for a director of an irrigation district; and amending section 87.01.090, RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Section 87.01.090, RCW, as derived from section 3, chapter 129, Laws of 1921, is amended to read as follows:

Amendment.

A person twenty-one years old, being a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state and who holds title or evidence of title to land in the district or proposed district shall be entitled to vote therein. A majority of the directors shall be residents of the county or counties in which the district is situated and all shall be electors of the district. If more than one elector residing outside the county or counties is voted for as director, only that one who receives the highest number of votes shall be considered in ascertaining the result of the election. Where land is community property both the husband and wife may vote if otherwise qualified. An agent of a corporation owning land in the district, duly authorized in writing, may vote on behalf of the corporation by filing with the election officers his instrument of authority. An elector resident in the district shall vote in the

BOOM COMPANIES.

AN ACT relating to boom companies; increasing the maximum rates which may be charged for certain services thereof; and amending section 76.28.040, RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Amendment.

SECTION 1. Section 76.28.040, RCW, as derived from section 4, of an act approved March 17, 1890, entitled, "An Act to declare and regulate the powers, rights and duties of corporations organized to build booms and to catch logs and timber products therein", is amended to read as follows:

Persons requesting service.

After such works have been constructed, the corporation shall catch, hold, and assort the logs and timber products of all persons requesting such service, upon the same terms and without discrimination. It shall have the right, in consideration of the convenience and security afforded to the public in the handling of logs and timber products, to charge
