CITIES AND TOWNS—PURSUIT AND ARREST OF ORDINANCE VIOLATORS.

AN ACT relating to law enforcement officers of municipal corporations of the second and fourth classes; amending section 172, page 213, Laws of 1890, and RCW 35.27.240; and adding a new section to chapter 241, Laws of 1907, and to chapter 35.23 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

RCW 35.27.240
amended.

SECTION 1. Section 172, page 213, Laws of 1890, and RCW 35.27.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Town marshal
—Powers and duties.

The department of police in a town shall be under the direction and control of the marshal subject to the direction of the council. He shall prosecute before the police justice all violations of town ordinances which come to his knowledge. He shall have charge of the prison and prisoners. He may pursue and arrest violators of town ordinances beyond the town limits.

His lawful orders shall be promptly executed by deputies, police officers and watchmen. Every citizen shall lend him aid, when required, for the arrest of offenders and maintenance of public order. He may appoint, subject to the approval of the council, one or more deputies, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible, whose compensation shall be fixed by the council. With the concurrence of the mayor, he may appoint additional policemen for one day only when necessary for the preservation of public order.

He shall have the same authority as that conferred upon sheriffs for the suppression of any riot, public tumult, disturbance of the peace, or resistance against the laws or public authorities in the lawful exercise of their functions and shall be entitled to the same protection.

He shall execute and return all process issued and directed to him by any legal authority and for his services shall receive the same fees as are paid to constables.

He shall receive from the clerk all licenses and collect them. He shall perform such other services as the council by ordinance may require.
